MONROE SALYER was driving this truck when it ran off Waterloo Rd. and crashed into a tree Sunday night. Salyer was dead at the scene. Salyer was a bus mechanic for the Chelsea School District.

Monroe Salyer Killed In Waterloo Rd. Crash

A 37-year-old Chelsea man was killed Sunday night when his pick-up truck failed to negotiate a curve on Waterloo Rd., hit a tree and caught fire.

According to Washtenaw County Sheriff's Department Deputy Harley Rider, Monroe Salyer's 1972 truck was airborne when it hit a two-foot diameter tree at the bottom of a 15-foot embankment and burst into flames at 9:22 p.m. near Lingane Rd. Salyer was pinned in the wreckage and "probably would have died without the fire," Rider said.

Salyer, of 19420 Waterloo Rd. was westbound heading toward his home when the accident occurred. A witness, who was eastbound, was forced off the road as Salyer's vehicle crossed the centerline and passed in front of her. The witness said Salyer's truck was traveling at a high rate of speed.

Rider said that the vehicle apparently caught fire on impact.

Sheriff's Department Deputy Stan Yates was first on the scene, Rider said.

"They went through three hand-held fire extinguishers before the Chelsea Fire Department got there," Rider said.

Rider said there were reports that Salyer had left a party shortly before the crash. Blood samples were taken to determine if alcohol was a factor in the accident.

Salyer had been a mechanic at the Chelsea School District's bus garage for 11 years.

Vacation Bible School Sessions Start Soon

Now that school is out, local churches are offering a variety of activities for children. Camping trips, field trips, and vacation Bible schools lead the list.

Imaginative themes for the Bible schools include a re-enactment of life in a Palestinian village, cartoon characters, and lessons on the importance of water.

Losing no time after public school lets out, three area churches are starting their Bible schools next week, June 15-19, including Zion Lutheran, Chelsea Church of Christ, and Galilean Baptist church.

The theme of Zion Lutheran's Bible school is "Jesus Teaches Us." All children from the ages of three until they reach the eighth grade are welcome to join in crafts and activities every morning from 9 to 11:30. There is no registration and no fee, just a daily free-will offering.

Chelsea Church of Christ Bible school will meet in the early evening from 7 to 8:30 p.m. The school is open to all ages up to adult. For more information, call 475-8458.

Galilean Baptist church at Portage Lake is holding their Bible school in the morning, 9:30 to noon. For more information call 426-4328.

The next week, June 22 to 26, Dexter Gospel church is offering their Bible school which features costumed characters such as Cookie Monster, McGruff the crime dog, Garfield, Raggedy Ann, and clowns Jingles and Jangles. Each day will have a different theme such as ice cream day or balloon day when helium balloons are released. Daily activities include athletics, crafts, Bible lessons, and chapel time.

About 160 to 170 children usually participate in the Gospel church's Bible school which will be held each morning from 9 to 11:30 a.m. Explains Bible school director Dan Martin, "We teach from God's word how He would have us lead our lives. We try to steer the children in the right direction."

Our Savior Lutheran's Bible school meets the same week and the same hours as the Dexter Gospel school, with the addition of a closing service, June 26 at 7 p.m. Their theme is "God's Promises for You." The children will learn of God's promises through Bible study, videos, learner's books, craft projects, and music. For more information or to register, call the church office or Dayle Wright at 475-1583.

In mid-July, July 14, 15, and 16, five Dexter churches are offering as a vacation bible school, the re-enactment of a Biblical marketplace. Children will divide into tribes, learn trades that were practiced during Jesus' time, and shop under tents for merchandise which would have been sold in Biblical times. On the last day, families will join their children for a picnic, eating foods of the period. The five sponsoring churches are Webster United Church of Christ on whose grounds the school is taking place, St. Andrew's, St. James, St. Joseph, and the United Methodist.

The only other Bible school in July is offered by St. Paul United Church of Christ on July 21, 22, and 23. Their school will focus on water. Since the United Nations Decade of Water began in 1981, the school will "utilize a child's natural love and curiosity about water to explore water's fascinating and exciting qualities, and go beyond that to give children an appreciation and a growing awareness about water and our Earth. Mission dollars will be used to help efforts to provide safe drinking water to all people."

St. Paul's school is open to all children from ages three to sixth grade. It will meet from 9:30 a.m. to (Continued on page seven)

Millage Proposals Passed By School District Voters

A proposition to raise the special education millage 1.5 mills passed by 141 votes in the Chelsea School District's annual election Monday.

It was the closest vote among three millage propositions as the two renewal requests passed by wide margins.

Ann Feeney was also returned to the Board of Education for a four-year term with 991 votes. There were 19 miscellaneous write-in votes.

Feeney, a 10-year veteran and former president of the board, was running unopposed. She takes the place of board president Art Dills, who decided not to seek re-election. New board officers will be elected in July.

The five-year renewal of the 20.5 mill operating base for the district passed, 760-327, with six invalid votes.

The one mill maintenance millage passed, 813-278, with two invalid votes. That money, approximately $185,000 in 1987-88, is used for maintenance, repair and improvement of school facilities.

The new special education millage proposal, to raise the millage to 3.5 mills, was on the ballot in all Washtenaw county school elections and had to be passed by a majority of county voters in order to go into effect. With nearly all the votes counted by Tuesday morning, the proposition had passed 10,782 to 6,866, a 61 percent margin. Chelsea voters passed it 615-474, or 56 percent.

"To my knowledge, it's the first time Chelsea voters have ever approved a county-wide millage proposal," said Chelsea Assistant Superintendent Fred Mills.

Washtenaw Intermediate School District, a centralized county agency, is largely responsible for educating the county's handicapped students. Money from special education millage is allocated according to a formula worked out by special education directors and district superintendents, Mills said.

With the special education increase, Chelsea School District has a total levy of 40.02 mills.

Landfill Rates Raised To Halt Mounting Trash

In an effort to cut down on the amount of garbage being taken to the Chelsea landfill, the village has raised its rates for commercial haulers by 50 percent.

Village council voted to raise the rates from $4 to $6 per cubic yard, partly in anticipation that the Ann Arbor landfill will also raise its rates because it is experiencing the same kind of garbage influx.

Rates for village commercial businesses who haul their own garbage to the landfill remains at $4.25 per cubic yard.

According to the village administration, the landfill received 47 percent more garbage in March this year than a year ago (3,761 cubic yards vs. 5,346 cubic yards) and 27 percent more in April this year than a year ago (4,591 cubic yards vs. 5,843 cubic yards). It said that most of the increase was due to commercial haulers who are coming from areas, such as southeastern Jackson county, where landfills have been closed. There are only two other landfills in Washtenaw county—Salem township and Ann Arbor.

"I've gotten calls from Homer and from the Lansing area," said Village Manager Fritz Weber.

Cutting the amount of garbage coming into the landfill will help to extend the life of the landfill, now projected to be about five years.

However, the village can't afford to cut revenues too much because it depends on the money to maintain the landfill.

Once the landfill closes, the village will have a limited number of options about how to dispose of local garbage.

"I think the Department of Natural Resources would be very hesitant to let us expand the landfill unless they were sure all the other alternatives, like recycling, were explored," said Weber.

The village is currently awaiting word from Washtenaw county about state grant money that might be available to begin a recycling program here and at other Washtenaw communities.

"It would really surprise me if we didn't get the grant money," said Washtenaw County Director of Public Works Jack Durbin.

"Right now it looks very positive. We probably wouldn't get the money until August, then we could start the program immediately."

Work is scheduled to begin this month on phase two of the landfill, which amounts to building another cell at a cost of about $35,000, Weber said.

"We originally put a liner (thick plastic) in only about two-thirds of the landfill," Weber said.

"That was to keep storm water from collecting. We kept the area we were using as small as possible."

Proposed Gravel Pit Draws Civil Complaint Against Waterloo Twp.

A Waterloo township man has filed a civil complaint against the township and a Battle Creek company to stop the development of a gravel pit near his Clear Lake Rd. home.

The gravel pit, which has already been approved by the township planning commission, would be on land owned by Clare Wahl, 5250 Clear Lake Rd. Wahl, a dairy farmer, wants to sell the gravel by the ton to Cole Brothers Gravel Co.

Wahl's neighbor, Gust Norman, 5300 Clear Lake Rd., wants to stop him because "they don't want to follow the regulations of the township," Norman said. According to Norman, the township adopted an ordinance regarding such enterprises and "they want to have many deviations from it." Norman was reluctant to talk about the details of the case, saying "it's a private matter."

Norman said the gravel pit would be approximately 200 feet from his home on the opposite side of the road.

Named in the complaint, according to Chelsea attorney Peter Flintoft, who represents Norman, are Cole Brothers Gravel Co. and Waterloo township. The complaint, Flintoft says, has a provision that will not allow Wahl to begin mining gravel until after a June 19 hearing in Jackson.

According to Wahl, gravel was last taken from the site in 1958 for the construction of I-94, before Norman's home was constructed. He said he has had several chances to sell gravel since then but for a variety of reasons decided against it.

The old five-acre pit sits on 25 acres Wahl owns.

"We can sure use some extra cash out here on the farm," Wahl says.

Wahl said the pit would be operated no more than six days a week between 7 a.m. and 6 p.m. He said there would be no permanent equipment on the site, although he admitted that mining could go on indefinitely depending on the demand for gravel and that eventually the entire 25 acres might be mined. He said there would be a gravel crusher on the site.

The township board is scheduled to act on the planning commission's recommendation next Tuesday, according to Supervisor Muriel Pluck.

Drive Through Mail Boxes To Be Moved

The drive-by mail chutes at the Chelsea Post Office have been removed and replaced with standard mail boxes at the front of the building.

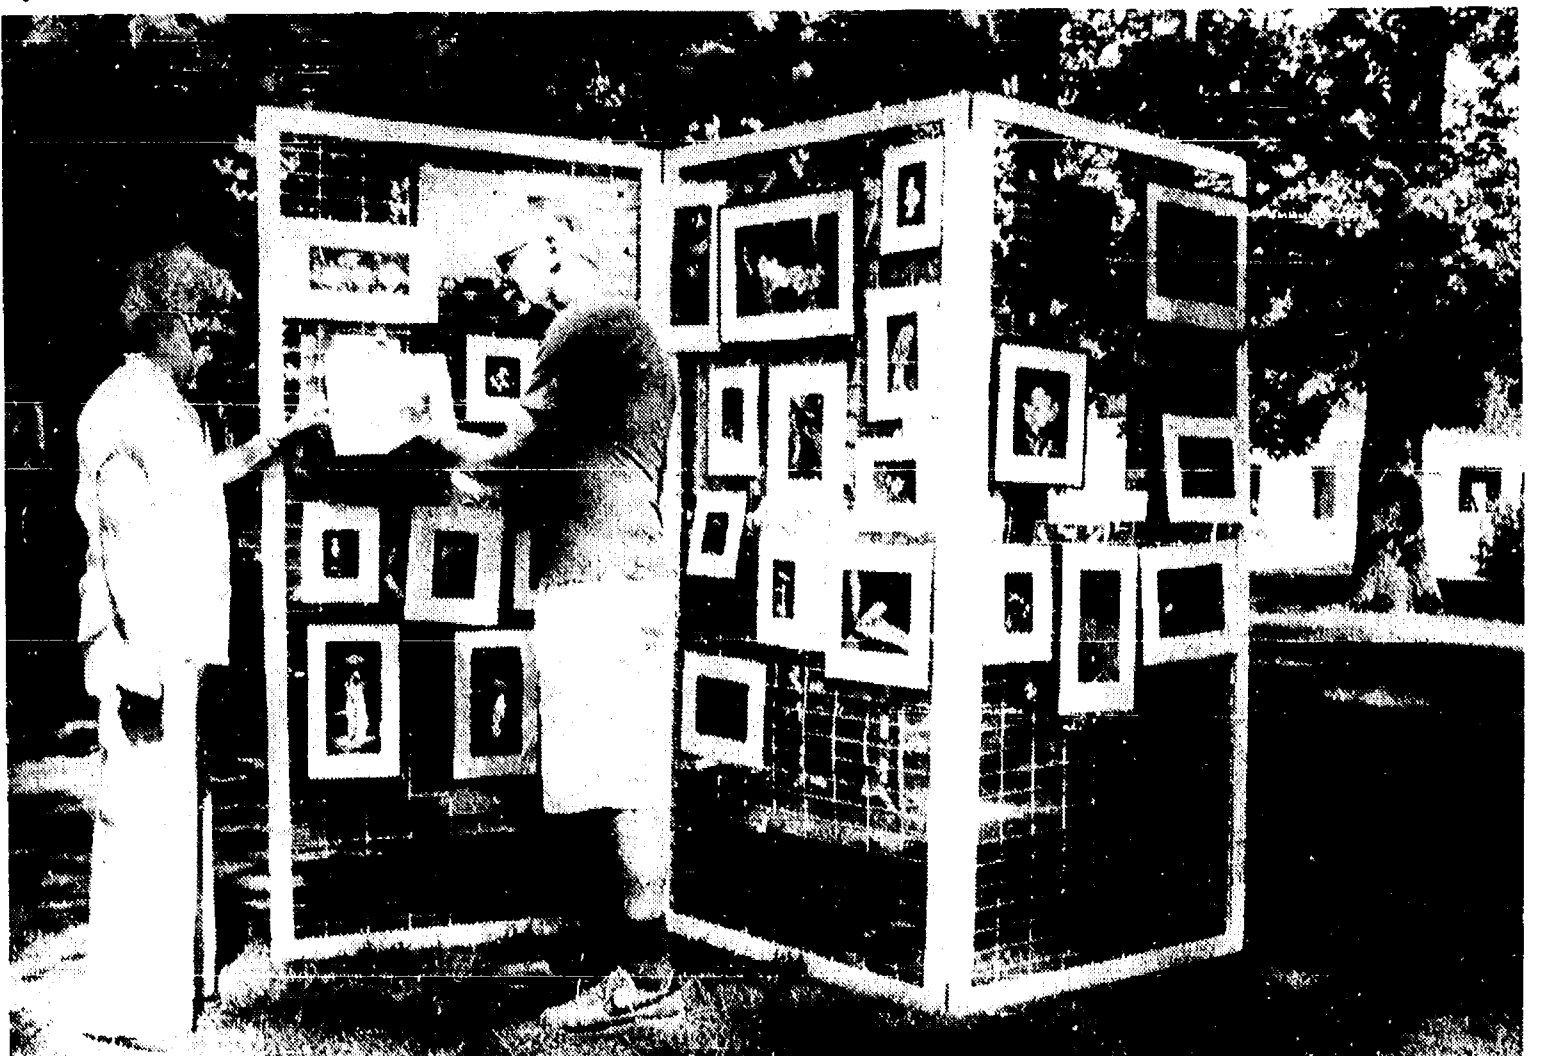

The drive-by mail chutes are being repainted. In 2-3 weeks they will be relocated to the east driveway of the Chelsea State Bank branch office at M-32 and Old US-12.

In addition, the existing collection box at Polly's Market will be discontinued, according to William Brenner, superintendent of postal operations.

"The new (drive-by) location will allow customers to safely deposit mail without leaving their vehicles," Brenner said.

ELSIE PAUL, known in the neighborhood as "grandma Paul," turned 85 on June 3. A Chelsea resident since 1924, she moved to 152 E. Summit to begin her married life 63 years ago. Her birthday was celebrated June 6 with a neighborhood block party attended by over 70 friends, neighbors, and relatives.

WILHELMINA EDER shows some of her scratch-board work to Chelsea resident Ben Bower during the 14th annual Art Show & Sale on the grounds of the Chelsea Medical Center last Saturday and Sunday. Part of the proceeds went to the Palmer Medical Scholarship. The show annually features the work of artists from Chelsea and nearby communities.

Prison Intake Halted; Judge Threatens Fines on Crowding

A federal judge has ordered a halt to prison intake in certain open areas at Jackson prison's reception and guidance center, a temporary freeze on taking new inmates in the state prison system, and gave elected officials a Nov. 1 deadline to halt the crowding of prisoners in Jackson, Ionia and Marquette institutions.

U.S. District Judge Richard Enslen also threatened fines of $10,000 if the deadlines were not met.

The orders came at the conclusion of a compliance hearing on the third extension of a deadline to eliminate crowding at Jackson and Marquette prisons and the Ionia Reformatory.

A temporary restraining order remains in effect preventing admissions at the Jackson reception and guidance center, which is the initial checkpoint for nearly all inmates sentenced to the state system. Most inmates are there four-six weeks while they are classified and then placed in other prisons, and the freeze will mean prisoners must wait longer in county jails.

Enslen said the bunkbeds in the center's basement must be permanently closed and beds placed in "bulkhead" areas at the ends of cellblocks may no longer be used except on an emergency basis for not more than three days a week.

The penalty for violating the order will be the fine and permanent injunction against accepting new inmates at the center, he said.

The Department of Corrections recently moved 120 prisoners from the center to a new Ionia prison that was not scheduled to be occupied until early June in order to comply with the order and reduce population to its 539-bed capacity.

Enslen also ordered Governor Blanchard, the Legislature and the department to comply with the original consent decree by eliminating crowding at the three prisons by Nov. 1 or face the $10,000 fine.

Department figures show the 4,713-bed Jackson prison is 225 over capacity, the 904-bed Marquette prison is 45 over capacity, and the 1,242-bed Ionia Reformatory nine over capacity.

Leo Lalonde, Corrections deputy director for communications, said the Nov. 1 deadline "gives us time to get our act together."

He noted five temporary and permanent prisons will be open by then and three others have been requested, but even that may not solve the problem given the current pace of 250 new inmates added every month.

"We'll make every effort to comply. We may have to find creative ways to do it," Lalonde said. Complying with orders regarding the three prisons may mean just moving some prisoners to other facilities, he acknowledged.

Earlier, a consultant for the U.S.

Justice Department said inmates at the center must spend up to 23 hours a day in or near their bunks, exposed to pigeon droppings.

The freeze on accepting new inmates at the Jackson center is "going to back up prisoners. The sheriffs will go crazy and maybe they won't have room to house their people," Lalonde said.

A second reception center is River-side at Ionia, but Lalonde said it handles only a fraction of the prisoners as the one at Jackson.

Michigan Sheriffs' Association executive director Bud Grysen said the order will add to the crowding in jails.

"Nearly half of the county jails are already overcrowded and have no space to hold these prisoners until the state Department of Corrections is able to receive them," he said.

The original deadline to eliminate crowding was set in a 1984 consent decree with the U.S. Department of Justice, giving the state a year to eradicate crowding in those prisons.

Blanchard later decided to refuse to use his powers to release prisoners early to address the problem.

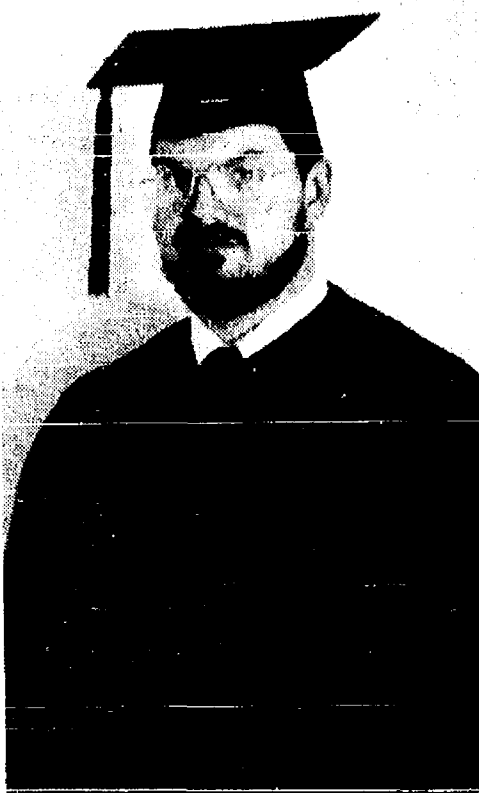

The Corrections Commission has requested $18.1 million to open 1,400 additional temporary and permanent facilities this year, but the request is still being reviewed by the Department of Management and Budget.

Sen. Nick Smith (R-Addison) urged DMB director Robert Naftaly to move quickly on the request, even though he said the federal judge may be overstepping his bounds by complicating crowding in county jails and other facilities.

The over-all system has about 2,700 more inmates than its 17,596-bed capacity, although the consent decree directly affects only the three major prisons. Planned or requested new prisons would alleviate overcrowding by 1990.

The new Ionia prison is one of six new facilities already scheduled to open this year, housing 2,517 more prisoners. Current estimates are that the state prisons will house 21,250 inmates by the end of the year.

The Office of Veterans' Re-employment Rights provides re-employment assistance to veterans, reservists and members of the National Guard. During fiscal year 1985, the office advised approximately 292,000 individuals of their re-employment rights at time of separation from active duty, responded to approximately 30,000 inquiries, and opened and processed about 1,850 re-employment rights cases, according to the U.S. Labor Department.

Uncle Lew from Lima Says:

DEAR MISTER EDITOR:

Zeke Grubb came with a report at the country store Saturday night where enriched air is being tested for use in perking up old brains. When you git old, Zeke said, your blood vessels clog up like old water pipes so not enough gits through. Doctors are putting folks in tanks full of oxygen under pressure to git more oxygen in blood to the brain. Zeke said some patients have showed improvement in memory.

After he saw the report, Zeke said, he decided none of the fellers was ready fer that treatment. All of em are bothered by to many memories, Zeke declared, even if they do git some of em mixed up. Fer instant, Zeke said he got to thinking back to his childhood last week when he saw a item about the Food and Drug Administration recalling three brands of castor oil. The FDA said poison camfer was put in some bottles by mistake.

Zeke said he was happy to see the recall, but the FDA was about 70 year to late. He said he spent the most miserable part of his first 10 year trying to convince his Ma that castor oil was killing him. He begged her fer Epsom salts, Black Draught, dynamite, anything that would do the job instead of that slimy stuff. But no, Zeke said, his Ma was convinced that a full swaller of castor oil about twict a week would keep all systems on go.

As a man, Zeke said, he figgered castor oil no longer was medicine when he learned it worked fine in engines long before STP come up with slicker than slick. The best thing that can happen now, he went on, is that the FDA will declare the stuff unfit fer humans and take up the market slack by pushing castor oil as a regular oil additive like they do alcohol in gasoline. Meanwhile, Zeke said, his vote fer a service to mankind award goes to whoever slipped the camfer in the bottles.

To a man, the fellers remembered castor oil, and they endorsed Zeke's award idee unanimous. It was Clem Webster that wondered what memories today's children will take into their old age. Clem said he hopes it ain't that line about a mind being a terrible thing to waste. It ain't so much what the kids don't learn in school, Clem allowed, as it is what they learn everwhere else. Fer instant, he had saw where cards of Garbage Pail Kids are a hot item. Clem said the cards have drawings that would gag a buzzard. If that ain't enough, he said, the market in video tapes is bloody "slice and dice" movies kids rent and watch at home while the folks are gone.

Clem said he is strong agin censorship in the adult world, but when he thinks of what's going into the minds of young people he can't help remembering that a cup of sewage in a barrel of wine is sewage just as sure as a cup of wine in a barrel of sewage is sewage. Clem said he didn't need a whiff of that high pressure oxygen to recall how quick his Pa was with his razer strap. Now, he said, we let the young tails wag the old dogs as long as we can keep coming up with names like "identity" and "peer pressure" to excuse ourselves fer what our kids do.

Which helps explain why Paul Dugan, 76, of Los Angeles woke up recent from six months in a coma to find his kin had declared him dead and sold everthing he had but his house and car a bank was fixing to auction. Which may explain why more old men are studying to be preachers. Life gets scary on the downhill drag.

Economist Predicts No Major Changes Under Greenspan

Farmers should not expect any major change in U.S. interest rate policies if Alan Greenspan is approved as chairman of the Federal Reserve Board, according to Michigan Farm Bureau agricultural economist Robert Craig.

"Dr. Greenspan is a respected economist," Craig said. "Given his past service as chairman of former President Ford's Council of Economic Advisors, I expect that he would be a conservative economist who would support conservative and moderate growth in the U.S. money supply."

Farm Bureau Gets Pesticide Amendments

A bill reported out of the state House Agriculture Committee this week to strengthen Michigan's existing pesticide control law contains two amendments authored by Farm Bureau to address agricultural concerns.

"One of the accepted amendments was designed to assure that the bill would impact commercial agricultural pesticide applications and not farmers who apply pesticides on their own farms," said Ron Nelson, Michigan Farm Bureau legislative counsel. "We believe that current law adequately regulates the private application of pesticides on farms."

Nelson said the second amendment eliminated language that would have allowed law enforcement officers to randomly ask commercial pesticide applicators for identification.

"Representing agriculture's point of view, we thought the initial language could result in difficult situations between police officers and commercial applicators. The committee agreed with our concerns and struck the language," Nelson said.

Tornado Damage—A twisted heap of rubble is all that remained of the Oscar Haussler farm house Tuesday morning after a freakish twister formed in Freedom township June 8 and struck the Pleasant Lake farm. The Hausslers' son, Alvin, was killed as he took refuge in the basement. Other members of the family escaped unharmed.

What could have developed into a disastrous business block fire broke out last week in an upstairs apartment over Kusterer's store. Mrs. Grace Lake and her daughter, occupants of the apartment, lost all of their possessions.

While Chelsea escaped tornado damage during the past week, Friday's thunderstorms rain, resulted in a week-long black-out of street lights in all areas of the village with the exception of the downtown area when lightning struck a transformer at the Van Buren St. sub-station. Lightning also struck the fire whistle, touching it off for an extra long blast.

Donald Proctor, with Robert Meyer of Ypsilanti, Marilyn Tyge of Traverse City, and David Van Den Heuvel of Hart, fellow members of the national championship dairy cattle judging team, and Nevels Pearson, assistant state 4-H club leader, were guests of honor at a dinner given for them in the Kellogg Center at Michigan State College, East Lansing by Michigan Purebred Dairy Cattle Association. A check for $6,000 was presented to the team to pay for expenses of a trip to England to compete in international contests.

During Gould's eight-week training cycle, he studied general military subjects designed to prepare him for further academic and on-the-job training in one of the Navy's 85 basic fields.

Gould's studies included seamanship, close order drill, Naval history and first aid. Personnel who complete this course of instruction are eligible for three hours of college credit in physical education and hygiene.

A 1986 graduate of Dexter High school, he joined the Navy in September 1986.

Top Students Awarded Free Boblo Trip

Top achievers from public schools in Washtenaw county have been invited to participate in "All-A-Days" at Boblo Island at month's end.

School principals from nine Michigan counties and Ontario's Essex county have been asked to select 25 of their top students to visit Boblo either June 23, June 25 or June 29.

"These students worked hard during the school year to earn top grades," said Daniel Aylward, Boblo Island general manager. "This is our way of rewarding them for their achievement."

Among the activities awaiting students during "All-A-Days" at Boblo are rides on the renovated carousel, entertainment by animated characters in the new "Captain Andy's Rivertown Review" and the thrilling Double Corkscrew roller coaster.

Besides Washtenaw county, Michigan students have been invited from Oakland, Macomb, Livingston, Wayne, Monroe, St. Clair, Lapeer and Sanilac counties.

FLAG DAY

A PATRIOTIC WISH

I'd like to be sort of man the flag could boast about;
I'd like to be the sort of man it cannot live without;
I'd like to be the type of man
That really is American:

The head-erect and shoulders-square,
Clean-minded fellow, just and fair,
That all men picture when they see
That glorious banner of the free.

I'd like to be the sort of man the flag now typifies,
The kind of man we really want the flag to symbolize:
The loyal brother to a trust,
The big, unselfish soul and just,
The friend of every man oppressed,
The strong support of all that's best,
The sturdy chap the banner's meant,
Where'er it flies, to represent.

I'd like to be the sort of man the flag's supposed to mean,
The man that all in fancy see wherever it is seen,
The chap that's ready for a fight
Whenever there's a wrong to right,
The friend in every time of need,
The doer of the daring deed,
The clean and generous handed man
That is a real American.

A VIEW from the CLOCK TOWER

By Will Connelly

With a high school dropout rate of less than one percent the people of the Chelsea School District can take justifiable pride in their students, pride in the youngsters' parents, and admiration for their educators. A dropout rate of 0.9 percent for 1983-1984 (the most recent figures released from Lansing) gives Chelsea the best record of 10 school districts in this region. Here are the numbers.

CHELSEA	0.9%
Saline	1.1
Dexter	1.4
Manchester	2.0
Whitmore Lake	2.2
Milan	2.3
Lincoln	3.0
Ypsilanti	3.5
Ann Arbor	4.6
Willow Run	7.8

For comparison, the 1983-1984 average for all of Michigan was 5.4 percent. The worst dropout rate for any district was Detroit with 14.7 percent.

As the regional figures show, our neighboring school districts are doing well, but Chelsea is aiming for much more than first place in a mythical Regional Dropout Conference. Superintendent Ray Van Meer and CHS Principal John Williams are not convinced that having eight dropouts in a body of 800 students is the best that can be done. A score of 792 to 8 carries the threat of wasting eight careers. Any youngster who leaves CHS without a diploma is in danger of chronic unemployment. Anyone with no visible means of support is in peril of seeking felonious means of support.

In quest of more information, I was given an opportunity to interview John Williams who has been principal of our high school for the past 10 years. I felt some confidence in doing the interview since I had read an article around 1962 where the author explained that the No. 1 cause of high school dropouts stemmed from reading difficulties which originated in elementary school. A child would fall two years behind his class in reading skills and be doomed from that point on.

At the beginning of the interview I mentioned my awareness of this root cause of dropouts and suggested that perhaps, by now, there might also be failures in coping with math, science, writing, speech or history. John Williams listened and waited courteously for me to finish. Then he said, "Our problem with dropouts isn't in the academic area. We are able to help low-ability students and we do see them through. Our problem is with the behavior of students—ones who skip school, do marijuana or become involved with alcohol." A little later he added, "The youngsters who drop out rarely lack academic skills and could readily earn their diplomas. At this moment in life they just don't care."

As the faculty becomes aware that a certain student is a possible dropout, they make successful use of counseling, parental help and other resources so that only one out of 100 is missing for commencement. Nowadays elementary school children aren't permitted to fall two years behind their classmates, or even a half year, without being given effective remedial assistance.

When I was in school most grading of pupils was done on a point system of 100 for total success and 0 for absolute failure. And 70 was passing. Now there is a variety of systems including whole numbers and decimals, such as 3.0 and alphabetical grades ranging down from A to E. One signal that came loud and clear from John Williams is that 70 or 2.5 or C may be passing under state law, but in Chelsea our educators are preparing students for life in an age of high tech, international competition. In such a world, 70 or 2.5 or C is failing.

The entire faculty and administrative team at the high school is aiming to develop habits of achievement within the limits of each student's capability. This is being encouraged and guided by a double track system of curriculum and testing.

The new curriculum at CHS is divided into learning levels—high, medium and low—by subject and grade. Students are grouped according to this learning ability scale, and they are tested for performance. Additional tests evaluate the students in terms of individual potentials for achievement. Slow readers are not outpaced and left behind by swift-paced curricula. Gifted students are not forced to slog along through the mud; they are turned loose on the high hurdles. Troubled students are given the benefit of perceptive, sensitive counseling, and parents are involved when they can help.

From all this it is obvious that the educators in this school system are not about to tolerate failures in scholarship, and this battle against defeat in the classroom begins in kindergarten.

Chelsea educators realize that they are aided and encouraged by an exceptionally responsive population. Sixty percent of the adults in this school district have baccalaureate degrees or higher. Chelsea was chosen as one of several communities for a continuing study by the U. of M. Dental School because of the low turnover of the village population.

Other valuable adjuncts to the community educational system are the special services rendered by the Chelsea Community Hospital, and explicit supportive efforts of the churches.

One day on a special church occasion, there was a transitional moment when John Williams paused to reflect on what a fine institution we have in CHS. The letters not only mean Chelsea High school, he realized. CHS also stands for church, home and school.

Two Chelsea Students Granted Scholarships By Chrysler Corp.

Two Chelsea college students, Rebecca S. Finch of Western Michigan University and Laura A. Koepele of DePaul University, have been named as 1987 winners of Chrysler Corporation Fund Scholarships.

The scholarship program was established in 1985 for Chrysler employees' children, age 21 or under, who are enrolled or planning to enroll in a two or four-year college, university, or approved technical/vocational school. The scholarship program recognizes and rewards students for their outstanding academic performance, school and community participation, leadership, and financial need. Financial awards range from $500 to $3,000 per student during each academic year.

Americans love their birds. National Wildlife magazine reports that 62 million Americans regularly put out seed in backyard feeders. In fact, one expert estimates that bird enthusiasts buy over one million tons of bird seed each year. What's more, they spend a total of $618 million each year buying seed, bird feeders, bird baths, and bird houses!

Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor:

Last night, June 2, our community honored the graduating music seniors for the accomplishments they have made. Many senior's honors were numerous. Several have been awarded music scholarships to major universities.

Now while our community calls our music kids "The Pride of Chelsea" I find it quite curious to find that even though each board member, superintendent Van Meer, and principal John Williams received hand-written invitations to be honored guests at this banquet, only two board members either attended or at the very least, as requested, let someone know they either planned to attend or not.

I commend Barb Cherem who knows what R.S.V.P. means and Art Dils who seems to be the only administration member who cares enough to let these kids know they're important.

Sorry, Van Meer and Williams, but the music program doesn't win any games. I guess they just aren't that important. That's what you're saying to them by not even sending your assistant to represent you.

Alice Stimpson.

When the rains come to the southern Arizona desert each year, spadefoot toads emerge from below the ground. According to National Wildlife magazine, these desert toads mate at night and lay their eggs near pools of water. As the water begins to recede, the tadpoles hatch and mature. The spadefoot toads then resort to voluntary burial. There they will remain—buried alive—until new rains come to the desert the following year!

Vacation Bible School Sessions Start Soon

1:30 p.m. with the three-year-olds through kindergartners going home after lunch.

Chelsea's Immanuel Bible and Dexter's Faith Lutheran are waiting until August to offer their vacation Bible schools. Both meet Aug. 3 to 7, Faith from 9 a.m. to noon and Immanuel from 6:30 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. Faith Lutheran's program is open to all from four-year-olds to eighth graders, while Immanuel's program starts with five-year-olds and ends with sixth graders.

Two churches, Chelsea Free Methodist and Chelsea United Methodist, have changed from the usual formula of offering Bible school every day for a week to offering it on a monthly basis. Chelsea Free Methodist is offering school one day a month in June, July, and August from 9:30 a.m. to 2 p.m., while the United Methodists are offering a program the last Sunday of each month from 10:30 p.m. to 12:15.

The United Methodist program, entitled "Celebrating Seasons in the Church" is open to the entire family, not just the children. Included in the sessions will be drama, clowning, liturgical movement, music, games, stories, and crafts. After the program, participants are urged to remain for a picnic on church grounds.

Chelsea's First Congregational church's special summer program takes place on Sunday morning from 9:30 to 10:30 a.m. A variety of special craft programs are offered and are open not only to children of the parish, but to those in the neighborhood.

For teen-age church members there are also a variety of activities available. Trips to Cedar Point are the most popular, with Immanuel Bible, Our Savior Lutheran, and Free Methodist all planning to go there this summer. Our Savior combines their trip with a camping trip so that participants have more time for fellowship and personal growth.

Boblo is also a popular destination. Girls who are altar servers for St. Mary's will go there June 26. And Michigan's Assembly of God rents the island for a night in August for its parishioners all over the state to enjoy, including those in the Chelsea church.

Other trips for teen-age churchgoers include a Detroit Tigers game for boys who are altar servers at St. Mary's and a visit to a water slide in Detroit for teen-agers from Immanuel Bible.

Camping, either in groups organized on a church-by-church basis, or at camps run by state church organizations are available this summer. For instance, the Michigan Assembly of God offers a camping experience for children of their church members at a camp near Grass Lake and another one near Gaylord. Members of St. James Episcopal church are welcome to attend Gordonwood near Ortonville.

Canoeing is popular with many church groups. Chelsea First United Methodist youth group is planning a two-day canoe trip on the Huron River in June. They are also planning a bike hike in the Chelsea area at the end of July.

Chelsea's Free Methodist church ends the summer with a week of youth activities including a two- or three-day canoe trip.

For the next age group, young singles, Immanuel Bible has planned monthly summer activities including a barbecue in June, going to a cottage up north in July, and a Picture Panic in August. A picture panic is something like a scavenger hunt, where each group is given a Polaroid camera and a list of challenging pictures to take.

It's always wise to buckle up on those long vacation drives, but most accidents occur within a few miles of home so buckle up for the short trips too! Don't forget infants and toddlers need to be properly fastened into auto safety seats.

Safety Classes Offered During Summer

Chelsea school district abounds in lakes, both public and private. To safely enjoy swimming and boating on them, swimming lessons and boat safety classes are recommended.

The Washtenaw Sheriff's department offers boat safety classes right in Chelsea at the high school. Taught by Jerry Evans, the sheriff department's marine safety supervisor, they are aimed at young people ages 12-16, although adults are also welcome.

At the successful completion of the class, graduates are given a boating safety certificate which allows them to operate a five horsepower, or larger, boat.

Topics covered include Michigan laws, weather, first aid, rules of the road, Michigan waterways, maintenance of equipment, and understanding of sailboats.

The next Chelsea class will meet Tuesday, June 30, and Thursday, July 2, from 6 to 9 p.m. Registration is through the Community Education Office.

Evans is willing to teach additional classes in Chelsea if there is a demand for them. He also teaches classes at the Sheriff's department, the next ones being six-hour, one day classes, July 11 and July 25. For more information, people should call Evans directly at 971-7551.

Swimming classes are offered in three sessions at the C. S. Cameron pool at Beach Middle school, the first starting June 15. Children can begin lessons as early as three months with aqua tot classes. Classes for children from preschool age to beyond five are offered every morning.

The Chelsea Aquatic Club, aimed at competitive swimming, meets at different times during the day depending on the swimmer's age and skill level. Swimmers work on perfecting their strokes and may compete in swim meets if they wish.

Every year the high school recommends an outstanding swimming student to do private coaching. This year they recommended Susan Schmunk, a graduating senior. For more information on the swimming program call either the Chelsea Community Education Office, 475-9830, or the pool, 475-1425.

Once swimming and boating safety skills are mastered, Chelsea children may more fully enjoy related activities such as waterskiing, fishing, observing marine life, hosting beach parties, or just enjoying relaxing in the sun.

Murphy, Dukes Chosen To Attend Girls State

Chelsea High school juniors Stacey Murphy and Julie Dukes will attend the 47th American Legion Auxiliary Girls State at Central Michigan University, June 13-21.

The girls were nominated by the high school faculty and were selected by a committee based on their character and potential abilities.

Their registration fees of $160 will be paid by the Chelsea Lions Club.

The idea behind Girls State is to emphasize the importance of government in modern life, stimulate an interest in government, and enlarge the girls' understanding of the governmental process.

Upon arrival at Girls State, each girl is assigned to a mythical political party and to a county and city. There are seven counties, with three cities each.

The "citizens" nominate and elect various city, county and state officials. They are instructed in the duties of the various public offices, they learn the functioning of each officer, its powers and limitations, including the state Supreme Court, the legislature and other divisions of government.

There are also a press association, lobbyists and interest groups.

Since not every one can serve in an office, most citizens learn by observation.

Area U-M Students Are Initiated into Phi Beta Kappa

Two area University of Michigan students, Martha Umphrey of Dexter and Cheryl Peck of Pinckney, have been initiated into Phi Beta Kappa. They were elected on the basis of high scholarly achievement, broad cultural interests, and good character.

GIRLS STATE attendees from Chelsea High school this year will be juniors Stacey Murphy, left, and Julie Dukes.

Library Offers Summer Programs for Youngsters

McKune Memorial Library is offering two children's programs this summer, both with self-explanatory titles, "Join the Parade of Readers" and "Join the Parade of Listeners."

Organized by assistant librarian Shelley Weber, this year's program is more ambitious than those run in the immediate past. More activities will be going on, but Weber stresses that the competition is "within each participant" since there is no limit to how many prizes can be awarded. Done in conjunction with the state library association, the program has a sesquicentennial theme.

The listeners program is for children ages three and up who have not yet learned to read. After they have heard three books, they will receive a bookmark; after six, they will get a certificate for a sundae at McDonald's; and after 10 they will be eligible for the final certificate. They will earn a bear stamp for each visit to the library.

The readers program is for children who have completed grades one through six. After reading five books at their reading level, they will receive a book mark; after 10, they will get a coloring book put out by the state of Michigan; after 15, they will receive a certificate for a sundae at McDonald's; and after 20 they will be eligible for the final certificate.

To help realize the objective of helping celebrate the Michigan sesquicentennial, posters with sesquicentennial themes will be changed weekly. Most will include handouts such as crossword puzzles or dot to dots on Michigan themes.

All the registrants of the summer program will be eligible for the weekly drawing of free games donated by the Chelsea Bowling Lanes.

At the end of the summer, the library will host a party for all the children who have earned certificates in the reading and listening programs.

Registration for the summer programs is Saturday, June 20 between 10 a.m. and 3 p.m. Additional registrations will be taken for a few weeks, but all that can attend the June 20 time are urged to do so, since eight volunteers will be there that day to expedite the procedure.

Handicap Representative Sought for County Advisory Committee

On July 1, the Washtenaw County Board of Commissioners will consider resumes for a vacancy of handicap representative on the Handicap Advisory Committee for a term expiring Dec. 31, 1988.

The Handicap Advisory Committee was established by the Board of Commissioners to advise the board on accessibility provisions for existing and/or new county owned and leased facilities. This committee is composed of two handicapped individuals and one senior citizen.

Those resumes received by June 26 will be submitted to the Board of Commissioners for their consideration on July 1.

Area Students Earn Degrees at Mich. Tech.

Four area students received bachelor of science degrees from Michigan Technological University in Houghton at spring commencement ceremonies May 23. From Chelsea were Kevin Houle in electrical engineering, Parker Thomas in computer sciences, and Catherine Boomus who graduated cum laude with a degree in engineering. John Miller from Manchester earned a degree in forestry.

Applicants Sought for Palmer Scholarship

Applications are now available at Chelsea Community Hospital for the A. A. Palmer Memorial Scholarship. This $500 scholarship is awarded to a Chelsea High school graduate who is pursuing a career in medicine, primarily family practice.

1987 marks the 17th presentation of the scholarship, which was set up by the original group of physicians at Chelsea Medical Center to honor the late Dr. A. A. Palmer, a Chelsea physician for many years. The award is now under the auspices of the Hospital Auxiliary Scholarship Committee.

Scholarship applications may be picked up at the information desk near the main entrance of the hospital. They may be obtained between 9 a.m. and 7 p.m. Completed applications should be returned as indicated on the form with the deadline being Wednesday, July 15.

The first monies for the A. A. Palmer scholarship were raised by donations from local physicians and businessmen. Since 1973, the scholarship has been made possible by the Chelsea Painters, a group of area artists who sell their works at an annual art fair and ice cream social.

Determination of a recipient is based on academic achievement, extracurricular activities, and motivation to pursue a career in medicine.

Women are both the largest group of providers of eldercare and the largest group of recipients. The majority of older persons in the United States are women, according to a fact sheet on working women published by the Women's Bureau of the U.S. Department of Labor.

Campaign Underway for Funds To Renovate Interior of Depot

The campaign to raise $25,000 for rehabilitation of the interior of the Chelsea Depot is now underway. More than $5,400 has been raised, including $1,500 from Kiwanis and over $3,900 from private donors. The kickoff for the campaign was delayed for 30 days but now it's full steam ahead.

Work will begin immediately to make temporary floor repairs so the depot will be open to the public during Chelsea's forthcoming summer sidewalk days.

This event will be followed by the first phase of major permanent repairs so the depot can open by Fall as a public facility with regularly scheduled hours of operation.

Generous public support of the depot made it possible to purchase the 1880 building from Amtrak and restore its exterior to original condition.

Completion of interior restoration, using community gifts, will be followed by an effort to obtain $75,000 in grants from Michigan charitable organizations.

These funds will be used to purchase furnishings and equipment so that the east end of the station can serve as a community center for civic, educational and cultural purposes while the west end will be outfitted as a Chelsea Historical Museum.

The exact sequence of rehabilitation is subject to final approval but work projects, and tentative estimates, are as follows: Steam washing the interior, $2,500. Painting walls and ceilings, $6,400. Lavatories, $4,500. Interior woodwork, $15,000. Lighting, electric receptacles and fixtures, $8,000. Insulation, $5,500. Heating and cooling, $9,000. Carpentry for fire exit doors, $4,500. Refinishing hardwood floors, $10,500. Professional fees, $5,000. Tables, folding chairs, desk, files, window blinds, $9,000. Microfilm equipment and cabinets, $6,500. Motion picture and slide projection equipment, sound system, $1,500. Museum artifacts, photos, genealogical files, pictures, display cases, $10,500. Fire extinguishers, smoke alarms, cleaning equipment, $2,500. TOTAL $100,900. ($25,000 from Spring 1987 Campaign. $75,000 from charitable grants. $900 from treasury.) Totals are expected to be close to target but line items are likely to vary.

Early Removal of Wisdom Teeth is Easiest

Q: Do you recommend that everyone have their wisdom teeth removed? What is the best age at which to have them out?

A: It is not necessary for everyone to have their wisdom teeth extracted but in most cases it is recommended. Ancient man had a larger jaw than modern human beings which allowed plenty of space for 32 teeth. The large jaw-bone of prehistoric man was well adapted for chewing a coarse diet of raw food. As man evolved from hunter to farmer he experienced a gradual reduction in the size and density of the jaw, although there was no corresponding reduction in the number of teeth. Most people's mouths today cannot comfortably accommodate more than 28 teeth. These extra 4 teeth or "third molars" are commonly referred to as wisdom teeth.

Most people have wisdom teeth although not everyone is so "lucky." When wisdom teeth grow under the gum and become impacted they can cause infections, cysts and tumors, destruction of the jawbone surrounding the adjacent permanent molar, and misalignment or crowding of the other permanent teeth. Even when they are not impacted and erupt into the mouth they often are in poor alignment and provide little or no function. Because of their shape and position wisdom teeth are more difficult to clean and often suffer from decay and periodontal disease.

Wisdom teeth usually erupt between the ages of 17 and 21. Removal is much easier in younger patients when the roots of the teeth are not fully formed and the surrounding bone is less dense. A less difficult removal leads to a faster recovery.

Starkey Is Most Valuable Chelsea Baseball Player

In what was probably no surprise to anyone, Chelsea senior Todd Starkey was named the baseball team's Most Valuable Player at the team's banquet last Tuesday.

Starkey, a pitcher and center-fielder, was also the captain of the team.

As a pitcher, Starkey finished with an over-all record of 9-3, giving up no more than three runs in any of those losses. The left-hander averaged nearly 10 strikeouts a game.

Coach Wayne Welton said Starkey was the Southeastern Conference's best outfielder. He had a .409 league batting average.

Starkey was also a co-winner of the Pitcher of the Year Award, along with junior lefty Greg Boughton. Finally, Welton presented him with the Coach's Award, an award that is not given every year. It's given to a player who makes significant contributions both on and off the field.

Senior outfielder Greg Haist was named the team's Most Improved Player and earned the Slugger of the Year Award. Haist was the team leader in RBIs, with 38 on the season, an average of one per game. He also hit .318.

Boughton had the best pitching record on the team, finishing 8-0 over-all and 4-0 in the SEC.

Finally, senior Jeff Stacey earned the Dugout Award, given to the player with the best attitude and team spirit.

Weber Named MVP on Bulldog Softball Team

Senior Karen Weber was named the Most Valuable Player on the 1987 Chelsea Bulldog varsity softball team at the team's awards banquet last Monday, June 1.

Weber played third base and had a fielding average of .938, the highest on the team. She also hit .308 for the season.

"She has poise and confidence and kept the team together," said head coach Charlie Waller.

Weber was one of five Bulldogs named to the All-Southeastern Conference first team this spring.

Outfielder Beth Kenney was named the Most Improved Player.

Kenney, a senior, hadn't played since her freshman year but decided to play again this season. She did nearly all the team's pinch running, hit .333 in limited playing time and "was a real contributor, especially in practice," Waller said.

Senior outfielder Kim Ferry won the Kim Boyd Award. The award is given to the person who shows the most personal progress through softball. Academic performance is also a consideration.

"Kim is just a super, super girl," Waller said.

Girls Track Team Feted at Banquet

Thirty-seven girls were presented their 1987 track awards at a pot-luck dinner last Thursday, June 4. Included were five four-year letter winners, five getting all conference certificates and four earning all-state honors.

Receiving junior varsity letters were freshmen Marti Daggett, Jill Kies, Christie Koch, Chris Sawicki, Sara Van Gunst, Stefanie Wager and sophomore Jennifer Harms.

Nine freshmen also earned varsity letters: Debbie Webb, Anne Steffen, Kim Roberts, Tiffany Moore, Sheila Haab, Sarah Grau, Vicki Bullock, Tammy Browning and Cathy Broderick.

Others earning their first varsity letters were sophomore Leslie Manning, juniors Jennifer Schweiger and Ann Brosnan, and senior Henriette Munck, an exchange student from Denmark.

Second-year letter winners were Calisa Tucker, Sarah Schaeffer, Robyn Krichbaum, Debi Koenn, Danica Disbro, Helen Cooper and Suzanne Cooper.

Third-year awards went to Dana Stevens, Jennifer Rossi, Tami Harris, Stephanie Harms and Kasey Anderson.

The banquet will probably be remembered as much for Waller's announcement of his resignation as any of the individual awards. That's when most of the girls found out that Waller decided to step down after eight years of coaching.

"I decided I'd rather tell them all at once rather than individually," Waller said.

Four-year award winners were discus thrower and shot putter Chris Zerkel, who was the team's leading scorer this season with 95 points; Edie Harook, the school record holder in the long jump and a valuable member of the sprint relays; Chris Neuman, who has run the 400 and been on the 1600 relay for four years; co-captain Melanie Flanigan, who has been a leader throughout her career; and co-captain Sallie Wilson, who is a three-time all-stater.

"These girls have played an important role in our success over four years," said coach Bill Bainton.

"We will miss them, but have enjoyed having them."

Special awards were given for the Outstanding Newcomer, freshman Anne Steffen; and most improved freshman, shot putter Browning.

Most improved runner was presented to Sarah Schaeffer, who made tremendous gains in the hurdles this year.

Most valuable runner was distance runner Anderson, who ran the 3200 relay, the 1600 and 3200 and was the second leading scorer with 92 points.

All-league awards went to Rossi, (Continued on page 12)

Birds of a feather stick together for good reason. According to National Wildlife magazine, cliff swallows nest in large colonies in order to share information about locating food. The birds feed on swarms of insects that are temporarily sucked up into the air by convection currents. By following individuals that have located a swarm, colony members are more successful in finding food than if they foraged alone.

Summer Provides Sports for All Ages

Summertime is characterized by some children as one big recess. Chelsea youth who enjoy participating in sports have many choices including softball, baseball, golf, weight lifting, bowling, tennis, and gymnastics.

Baseball and softball are very big in Chelsea starting with T-ball which is played by boys and girls in kindergarten and first grade. After that the girls may join the Midget and Junior Miss leagues, while the boys join the Farm league, Little league, and Pony league.

High school age boys wanting to continue playing may join a Mickey Mantle team coached by Dave Quilter, while girls may join a fast pitch team coached by Pat Clark. Both of these teams compete in leagues in Ann Arbor.

Elementary school age children desiring instruction in softball may get it from Wayne Welton, a Chelsea school system physical education and health teacher who also coaches high school baseball and football. Welton teaches skills such as hitting the ball, sliding, and fielding. Classes are every morning from 9 to 10:30 a.m., between June 15 and July 22.

Junior high and senior high softball players desiring extra instruction may participate in a softball camp being held at Chelsea High school July 6-10.

Children wanting to learn tennis, may enroll in youth tennis and junior tennis lessons held at the high school courts between July 6 and July 31.

Those wanting to learn and compete in gymnastics may take their choice of two sessions, June 15 to July 16 or July 20 to Aug. 20. The classes are taught by Pat Chacon Stock and are held in the high school gymnastic balcony.

Golf lessons are available this year from Inverness Country Club. The lessons, held June 15, 19, 22, and 29, are open to children between the ages of five and 15, cost $30, and include lunch of hot dogs, chips, and pop. The classes culminate with a tournament July 10. Some equipment will be provided, although those who own clubs are urged to bring them. Instruction will include hitting with woods and irons, chipping and putting, and proper etiquette on the golf course.

Teen-agers, ages 16 and up, wanting to do weight lifting may join the Westside Gym on W. Middle St. Those 14 and 15 years of age, may also participate if they come with an adult family member.

Those looking for sports opportunities in the evenings, may bowl at the Chelsea Lanes which opens every day, except Tuesday, at 6 p.m. Children participating in the McKune Memorial Library's reading program will be eligible to win free bowling passes.

Obviously, those who enjoy sports do not have to limit their activities to organized games and structured lessons. It is a safe bet that before the summer is over, the children of Chelsea will have participated in countless pick-up games in every sport imaginable.

SPORTS NOTES

BY BRIAN HAMILTON

Reaching the end of the school year is a little like going through withdrawal. Until the school year is over, I never quite realize how much of my life is spent talking to coaches, writing sports stories and attending games.

It has all been worthwhile, though, especially this year.

There were league football, basketball and softball championships, a second place in the state for the girls in cross country, the best volleyball season in recent memory, fine tennis seasons for both the boys and girls teams, the second 25-win season for the baseball team, a second place in the state for the girls 3200 meter relay team, and many other fine team performances.

I won't begin to list all the fine individual achievements. Most of them I only heard about. Most of them I didn't see.

Here are some moments that I remember the most.

Freshman Vicki Bullock's performance in the state cross country meet, which was largely responsible for the Bulldogs taking second place. Add to that Kasey Anderson's run, in which she finished second.

Todd Starkey's end-around run against Saline for the tying touchdown and Larry Nix's perfect extra point.

Curtis Heard's four touchdown performance against a team I can't recall. And his run of more than 40 yards in the closing seconds against Pinckney to set up the winning score. Just when it looked like the Bulldogs would lose their first conference game.

Just about any basketball game Mark Bareis played in. What a pleasure. I'll miss watching him more than any other single athlete at CHS.

Just about any basketball game the Bulldog boys played. I never knew quite what to expect. And the unequalled fan support was one of the highlights.

Listening to wrestling coach Kerry Kargel rave about the surprising performance of freshman Pat Taylor, who reached the state meet this year.

Peggy Hammerschmidt shutting out Saline in the league softball tournament. Larry Nix's grand slam against Dexter in the pre-district baseball tournament.

Realizing how much Gene LaFave's personality changes when he puts on the cap and takes to the football field.

Wondering if anybody can really be as positive as track coach Ted Wilson.

Realizing the fun I'm going to have next year writing Junior Junior Morseau a couple hundred times. Maybe I should invent my own shorthand, like Junior2.

So much for the memories. Now the question is, what do I cover, sportswise, until the next school year begins.

All I can see on the horizon is that event of events, the Fourth of July Mud Bog (BOGOMANIA) at the fairgrounds.

I suppose I can write occasionally about my beloved Nickel Boy softball team. Despite being 0-3 we've "turned the corner" our manager said Monday night.

But it just won't be the same until school starts again.

Girls Summer Softball Grows in Popularity

Interest in girls softball has been steadily growing in recent years. This year, 210 girls, ages seven to 14, have signed up to play in the two Chelsea leagues, the Midget League and the Junior Miss league.

Co-ordinator of the program, Linda Collins, attributes the increased enrollment to the fact that "girls sports are becoming more popular and more important to people in Chelsea." She said she has very few drop-outs and that many of her players go on to play on the high school team after coming up through the ranks.

Collins, the mother of seven daughters between one and 21 years of age, became involved in girls softball when her girls came out for the game. At first she was a coach, but when Roberta Kemp resigned, she took over the co-ordinating duties and has continued to do so for the last five years.

As a girl, Collins played sand lot ball with the neighborhood children, but did not participate in organized softball because it was not then available to girls. She remembers she did play basketball, but in a limited version where you could only play on one side of the court.

Collins said she prefers having the girls play in their own league rather than join with the boys, stating, "Boys are rougher and more aggressive.

When they play with girls, they tend to take over."

Asked about the possibility of playing against the boys teams, Collins said, "We'd probably beat them. We don't play against them because we don't want to humiliate them."

Another advantage of an all-girls team, according to Collins, is that everyone gets along. She explained, "I've seen parents at boys games practically stand on their heads. The girl's parents are more laid back."

Collins relies on parents to make the whole thing work. They coach, assist, pitch to the Midget league, keep score, and drive their children to the games. She said some continue coaching even after their children have left the league, or in one case, before their children are old enough to join the league.

The Midget league, consisting of girls in second, third, and fourth grade, this year has six teams, five from Chelsea and one from Stockbridge. Their coaches are Cheryl Vogel, Gene Cox, Cheryl Haab, Michael and Janet Hatch, Michelle Easton, and Pat and Melinda Wright.

The Junior Miss league, with girls in fifth, sixth, and seventh grade, has eight teams, two of which are from Stockbridge. Their coaches are Joe and Marge Ceccacci, Bob Liebeck, Conrad Knutsen, Pam Thiery, Dave McLaughlin, Rick and Emmy Niethammer, Cindy Collins, and Rhonda Allen.

Pat Clark, the coach of the high school girls team, also co-operates with the program, supplementing the coaching by giving the girls extra pointers. Collins said he was particularly helpful with teaching pitching skills.

The games are held twice a week, on Tuesdays and Thursdays, from June 15 to July 30. The Midget league plays at North school while the Junior Miss league plays at Beach, Chelsea high school, and Dana.

Each team votes on its name. Examples from last year are "Blue Bombers," "M & M," and "Golden Girls." Teams are identified by their differently colored shirts.

Collins says she is glad the program is continuing. She describes the softball season as "a good time for kids," adding that the parents also enjoy it.

SACROILIAC STRAIN

You or someone you know may be suffering needlessly from back pain that could be effectively treated with corrective chiropractic adjustments. Sacroiliac strain is a common back injury involving slipping of the sacrum or tailbone, in relation to the bones of the hip. Movement usually aggravates the pain. If left untreated, this pain and strain may cause further complications. Why suffer when we can bring about rapid relief of the symptoms and correct the disorder? Make an appointment today.

MICHAEL TOTTH, left, is the star character in a book created by Beach Middle school student Dan Milliken. Dan read the book, complete with numerous drawings, to Michael, a kindergartener, last Friday as the classes met at South school. Michael interviewed Dan early in the school year and based the story on that interview. It's an annual project conducted by the schools to help the young ones develop an interest in reading.

EMILY MCKENZIE, right, follows along in a book created especially for her by Beach Middle school student Jill Heim. Emily attends kindergarten at South school. The books were created based on interviews the older students conducted with the youngsters earlier in the year. Last Friday was the first time the young ones had a chance to see the finished books.

Bluebird Nesting Project Successful In Jackson County

A mild winter, co-operative spring weather, and a good supply of nest boxes have given the bluebirds in Jackson county a healthy start this year.

As of May 26, the Dahlem Environmental Education Center has recorded over 55 nesting attempts by Eastern Bluebirds. Of these, five failed due to predation or competition from other species. The remaining 50 bluebird pairs are raising an average of 4.4 young birds per nest for a potential 220 fledglings, if all survive.

These are primarily the first nestings of the season. Many of these birds will nest a second time in late June and a few a third time in July or August. The Dahlem Center is currently maintaining 300 bluebird nest boxes in the county, that are monitored by Bluebird Intern-Gregg Zuberbier and 12 volunteers.

A good share of the bluebird nestings have been reported by private individuals, who are maintaining their own nest boxes. The Dahlem Center encourages others, who have sighted bluebirds or who know the whereabouts of nesting pairs, to contact the Dahlem Center at 787-0800, extension 197.

This information is needed to provide a complete and accurate assessment of the bluebird population in the county, and aids in identifying additional sites for nest box installation.

Thanks to the efforts of thousands of caring individuals across the country, the Eastern Bluebird appears to be making a comeback after its numbers plummeted to 10% of historic levels.

School District To Borrow from Chelsea State Bank

Chelsea State Bank was the low bidder to provide a $1.6 million loan to the Chelsea School District.

The loan will be used to operate the district until winter tax collections.

Chelsea State Bank's bid was 5.05 percent, which will translate into $67,333.33 in interest payments.

The district borrows money annually because it does not collect its own taxes.

Chelsea Village Council passed an amended budget of $1,095,000 at their regular meeting June 2.

The amended budget reflects a drop of $2,000 in light of a 2.25 mill increase in taxes. The administration was asking for a 2.43 mill increase.

Much of the .18 mill difference (which equals $8,850) could be made up by a larger than anticipated cash balance. The original budget showed a cash balance of $64,000. The amended budget showed $70,700.

$500 was dropped from each the Executive and Other Functions funds. Parks and Recreation was dropped from $34,000 to $33,000.

Here's a whip that actually may lessen pain—sea whip. Scientists recently have extracted a new class of painkilling and anti-inflammatory drugs from this Caribbean soft coral. According to International Wildlife magazine, the new substances are more potent than commonly prescribed anti-inflammatory drugs. They also relieve pain at least as well as morphine but without its narcotic and addictive side effects. The drugs may one day be used to treat such diseases as arthritis.

The hydrostatics from John Deere

"no hands" speed and direction changes get more work done

There's no gearshift lever on the 655, 755, and 855 Tractors. Instead, you use John Deere's unique dual pedal hydrostatic control to change speed and direction on the go, in high or low ranges. That and standard cruise control keep your hands free for steering or operating other controls...and they keep you productive the whole day through with less fatigue. You can get more different jobs done in a day, too. With these tractors, one man can change attachments in minutes. And live independent mud and rear-PTO add more versatility.

Equipped with 3-cylinder diesels with a glow plug starting feature give you the power you need...16, 20 and 24 hp. Standard differential lock and optional front-wheel drive give you the extra traction you want, as well.

Call for a demonstration and see how much you can get done "no hands" style.

Band Program Will Start Monday

Chelsea middle school students desiring to learn an instrument or improve their skills on the ones they already play, may participate in the band and orchestra programs offered this summer.

Orchestra leader, Jed Fritzmeier, is teaching string instruments, violin, viola, cello, and bass from June 15 to July 16. Each morning from 8 to 9:30 a.m. he will teach advanced orchestra in the large group instruction room at Beach Middle school. The summer session will end with a concert on the last day.

The rest of the morning, he will teach beginning orchestra, from 9:45 until 12:15. Students beginning sixth grade will have the opportunity to learn rhythm skills, music reading, techniques, and rote playing. With the help of five high school assistants, Katie Giebel, Jeff Vetter, Todd Redding, Kathryn Jorgensen, and Mike Steinaway, the students will also receive private lessons.

The morning will be divided so that the students move around at least every hour. The last half hour or 45 minutes will be devoted to fun and games such as frisbee throwing, softball, or kickball.

Fritzmeier stresses that the students should attend the classes when they are able, but that they do not have to be in town the whole time in order to enroll. He, himself, will be absent the first two weeks to attend the national music teachers string workshop in Madison, Wisc. While he is gone, Mike Dunlap, a University of Michigan doctoral student in music, will run the program.

During the same dates, Warren Mayer and William Gourley will teach beginning band in the Beach Middle school band room. The seventh grade band will meet Monday through Thursday from 8 to 8:55 a.m., while the eighth grade band will meet the same days, 9 to 9:55 a.m. Individual instruments, including flute, cornet, french horn, clarinet, trombone, and saxophone, will be taught throughout the morning. Both bands will meet together July 13 to 16 in preparation for the fair parade in August.

SesquiTrain '87 Starts June 15

Led by a prairie schooner replica, a nearly three-mile-long horse-powered SesquiTrain will travel 150 miles through southern Michigan during a 13-day celebration in mid-June, reports AAA Michigan.

Nearly 100 wagons, carriages and coaches representing Michigan, Iowa, Indiana, Georgia, Ohio and Canada will travel about four miles per hour, giving spectators an opportunity to see how settlers traveled to Michigan.

SesquiTrain '87 will begin its loop trip in Lansing June 15. It will camp at Charlotte, June 15; Olivet, June 16; Marshall, June 17; Albion, June 18; Jackson, June 19-21; Munith, June 22; Pinckney, June 23; Brighton, June 24; Fowlerville, June 25; Williamston, June 26; and returns to the state capital June 27.

Sponsored by the Michigan Department of Agriculture, the train will be accompanied by more than 136 outriders and Pony Express teams. Nearly 500 persons and 365 horses will be part of the train.

Participants may join the train at any time and stay as long as they wish. There is no fee, but advance registration is required with the Michigan Sesquicentennial office, (517) 482-1987.

Spectators cannot ride in the train, but they can talk to the participants when the train stops or watch it as it travels. When the train makes camp, spectators can get a close-up look at the wagons, including the prairie schooner.

The lead wagon is one of 50 built by an Arkansas carriage-maker in the early 1970s. It represented Michigan in the 1976 Bicentennial Wagon Train Pilgrimage to Valley Forge and is on loan from the Michigan State Historical Museum where it has been on display since 1980.

The smaller successor to the Conestoga wagon, the prairie schooner's large wheels were developed to navigate the rough trails common in the Midwest in the 1830s.

Those who wish to see the schooner and other wagons under way may do so as it follows this route: I-69 access road from Lansing to Charlotte, Old US-27 from Charlotte to Marshall, Michigan Rd. from Marshall to Jackson, M-106 from Jackson to Pinckney, Pinckney Lake Rd. from Pinckney to Brighton and Grand River from Brighton to Lansing.

At each encampment in host towns, a group of local youths will perform "Make Mine Michigan," a musical history of the state written by two music teachers. Local entertainment will follow.

While in Charlotte, the Mini-Theatre of Charlotte will perform "Sesqui-What?" a spoof of the state's 150th year of statehood, followed by square dancing and a western sing-along.

For children, the Girl Scout troop at Parkview school will have a display of pioneer life at Kardel Hall at the fairgrounds, where the train will set up camp.

A chicken dinner will be served by the Lions Club, and the Future Farmers of America will provide breakfast before the train leaves in the morning.

Pigs donated by area farmers will be roasted to feed the wagon train participants at the Starr Commonwealth Schools in Albion.

When the train enters Albion, it will be greeted by an equestrian team which will escort the wagons to the campground site behind Albion Senior High school. Local church groups will provide breakfast and dinner for the wagon train while in Albion.

Farm Bureau Cheers Treasury Dept. Ruling

Alfalfa producers who have sustained losses due to last fall's flooding can file for zero interest loans of up to $250 per acre under a ruling by the Michigan Department of Treasury. According to Michigan Farm Bureau's director of public affairs, Al Almy, the ruling is welcome news for those alfalfa producers who were affected by the floods.

"The ruling will be quite valuable to those producers who have suffered losses linked to last fall's flooding. For those producers facing replanting of their alfalfa crop, it does cost a substantial amount of money to purchase new seed, fertilizer and fuel to plow up the damaged alfalfa stands and replant," Almy said. "The alfalfa loan money will help farmers replant their needed crop."

Almy said the loans for alfalfa losses are available from those institutions participating in the state's no interest farm loan program.

They received permission from Chelsea village council to block off the street, furnished two beautifully decorated cakes, and invited all of Mrs. Paul's friends, neighbors, and relatives. More than 70 people attending, coming from all around the area including Livonia and East Lansing. Neighborhood children enjoyed the unusual opportunity of riding their tricycles in the street.

AstroFest Program Will Focus on Making A Planet

"How To Make A Planet, Part II: Its Atmosphere and Beyond" will be the subject of the 172nd AstroFest film and lecture presentation at the University of Michigan. The free public program is scheduled for 7:30 p.m. June 12 in Auditorium 3, Modern Languages Building.

"Don't be put off by that 'Part II,'" said Jim Loudon, AstroFest director and staff astronomer at the U-M Exhibit Museum. "The program will be understandable whether or not you attended last month's 'Part I,' and whether or not you have any science background."

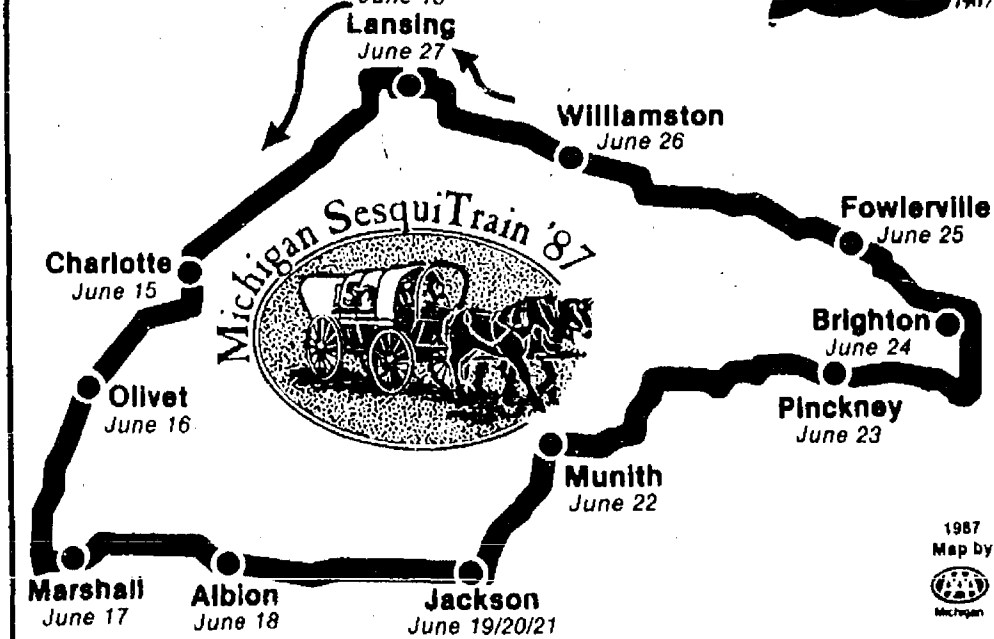

Loudon said, "What's weird about Earth's air is that you can breathe it: it's 21 percent oxygen. 'Normal' Earth-type planets, like Venus and Mars, have atmospheres that are mostly carbon dioxide."

The program will also include recordings of sounds generated by Jupiter's immense magnetic field.

AstroFest is sponsored by the U-M's Exhibit Museum and Department of Aerospace Engineering.

Irish Theatre Group Will Perform In Chelsea

Excitement is building within the ranks of the Chelsea Area Players as they anxiously await the arrival of the Leixlip Theatre Group from Kildare County, Ireland. The group will be staying in Chelsea in the homes of Susan and Marvin Carlson, Mary Beth and Bill Rosenberg, and Winn Schumann.

Besides performing in their hometown of Leixlip, the group has performed in Drama Festivals throughout Ireland and also on National Television. They will represent their country in the International Theatre Association's "Olympiad '87," which will be taking place at Wayne State University and in Royal Oak.

The name, Leixlip, which means the Salmon Leap in old Norse, reflects the Viking presence in Ireland for over 300 years (840-1169.) The leap is on the River Liffey which flows through the village overlooked by the Leixlip Castle, associated with the Guinness family. Back in the 18th century, Arthur Guinness brewed the first of his famous black beer in Leixlip. The village is one of the dormitory suburbs of the city of Dublin, Ireland's capital.

The group will perform in an Irish Dinner Theatre at the Wolverine Food and Spirits on Tuesday, June 23. Tickets priced at $8 include an Irish dinner and theater. These will be available at the Wolverine Food and Spirits, Old US-12. All proceeds from the event will go towards the restoration of the Chelsea Depot.

For further information call Julie Vorus, 475-8716.

Operation HEMP Seeks To Destroy Marijuana

Operation HEMP, a Michigan State Police effort to eliminate marijuana planting in the state, is being readied for another seasonal attack on the illegal crop.

Last year, nearly 50,000 plants were destroyed as a result of the co-operative effort which involves participation from other law enforcement agencies as well as the public. D/Lt. Michael Knuth, project co-ordinator, explained that the best and cheapest way to prevent marijuana from reaching the streets is to stop it at the source.

The State Police recognize the difficulty in identifying and apprehending individuals involved in this illegal activity and the public is being asked to assist. If a citizen has reason to be suspicious about property that may be used for growing marijuana, he or she should call the State Police Operation HEMP toll free number 1-800-235-HEMP.

Officials say tips from the public had a significant impact on the number of plants eliminated in the initial years of the operation. Knuth said, "A program of this type relies heavily on public involvement and response. If we can gain citizen support in spotting such plantings and then have them use the toll-free line to report them, we can make a real impact on the problem."

Officials administering Operation HEMP point out that they are interested in reports of all plots, large or small, that may be growing—size makes no difference. The toll-free number again: 1-800-235-HEMP.

The first federal bureau to attempt to ease labor-related racial tensions caused by blacks leaving the South was the Division of Negro Economics, in the Department of Labor in 1918, according to "Labor Firsts in America," a publication of the U. S. Department of Labor.

GASOLINE STORAGE TANKS at the 76 Station on S. Main St. were replaced this week. The old metal tanks had to be dug up and lifted out of the ground to make room for the new ones. Considering the size of the job, it was all done rather quickly.

Fire Extinguisher Incident May Bring Larceny Charge

Charges are being sought against a 17-year-old Chelsea boy in connection with the theft of a radar detector.

According to Chelsea police, the boy was stopped by police at 3:15 p.m. on Friday, June 5 after his car nearly struck a pedestrian as he was leaving Chelsea High school's auto shop parking lot.

A police officer became suspicious when he discovered the boy had a fire extinguisher between his legs. When the boy was questioned, he said he wanted to fill the extinguisher with water to spray people.

Police said the officer asked to search the car and found the radar detector. A computer search showed the detector had been stolen in Chelsea early in the year, police said.

Police said the boy claimed to have bought the detector at a party in Ann Arbor from an unidentified man. The boy also claimed a friend gave him the fire extinguisher, which police said was probably stolen from the high school.

Players Will Present 'Music Man' in July

Chelsea Area Players will be presenting Meredith Willson's "The Music Man" on July 17-18-19 and again on July 24-25. The Players hope to better accommodate the audience by presenting shows on two week-ends and having the opening night performance on a Friday night followed by the traditional AfterGlow.

Showtimes for the performances on Friday and Saturday, July 17 and 18, and again on Friday and Saturday, July 24 and 25 will be at 8 p.m. A matinee performance at a reduced price will be presented on Sunday, July 19, at 3 p.m.

All performances will be presented at the George Prunzio Auditorium at Chelsea High school.

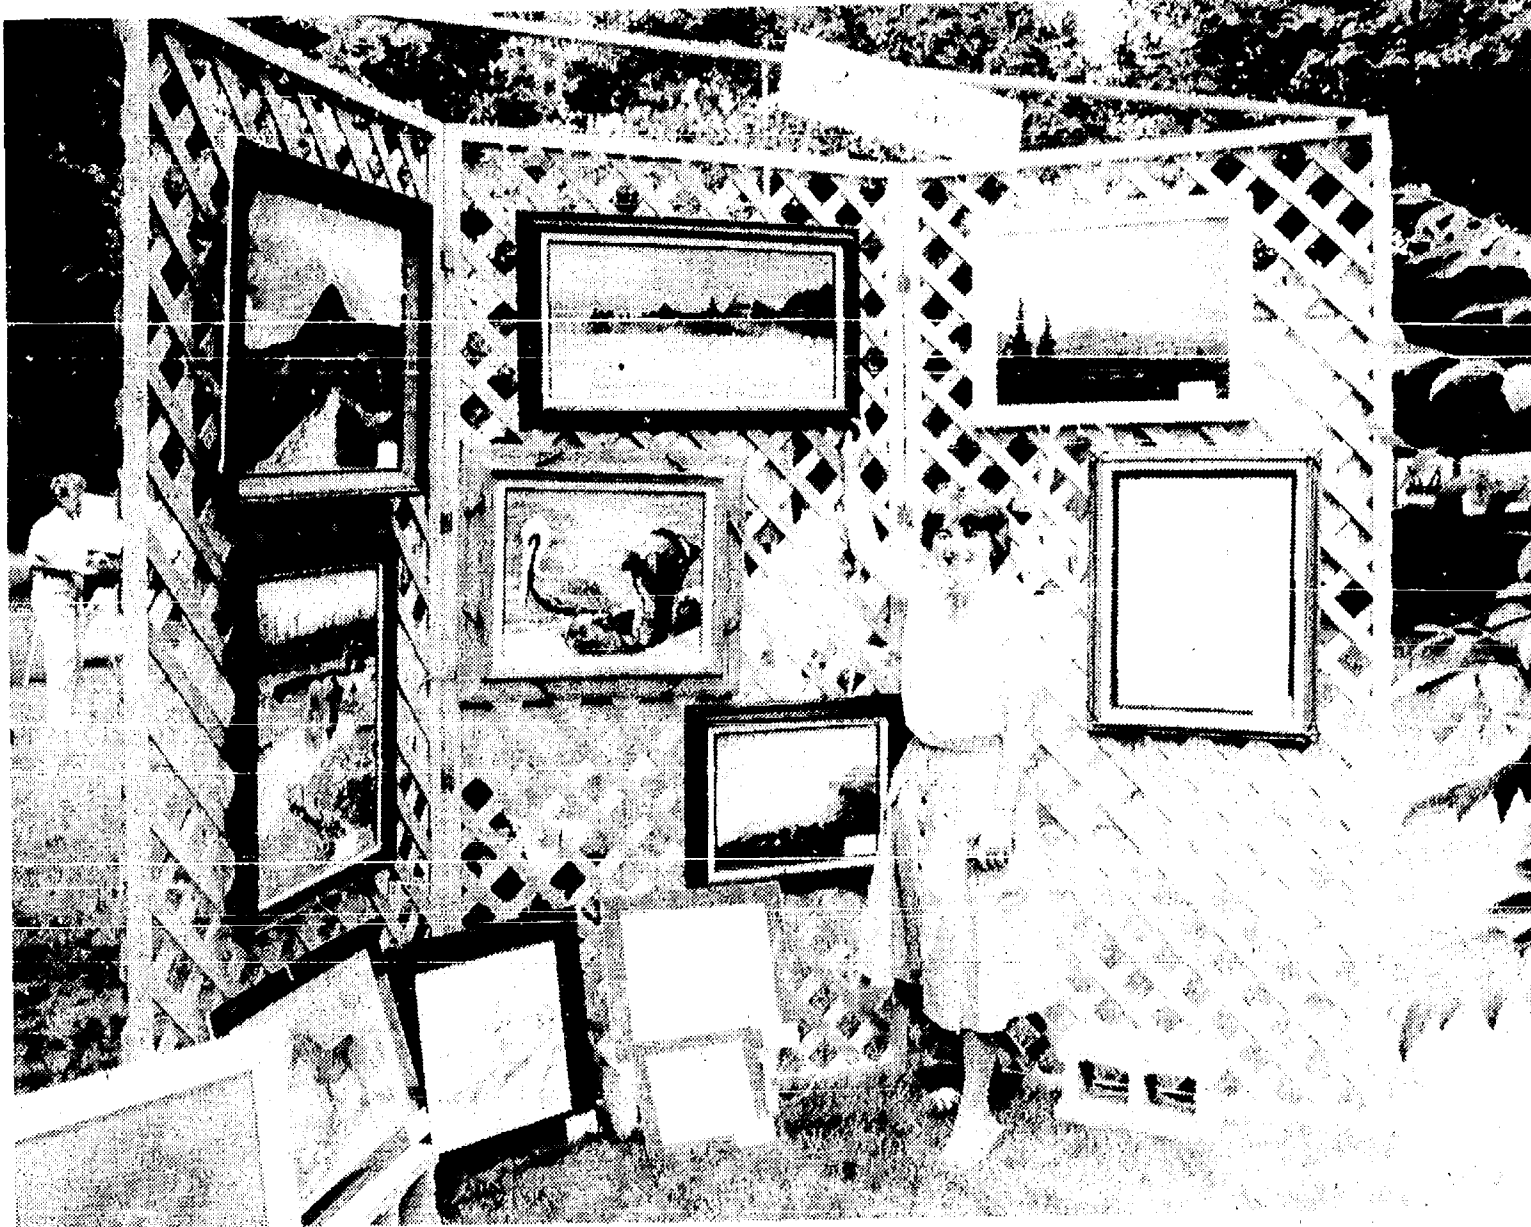

Following the opening night performance on Friday, July 17, an AfterGlow party will be held at the home of Marvin and Susan Carlson in Chelsea where theatre-goers can relax and meet members of the cast. The AfterGlow has always been a very popular part of the summer production and this year's event should be no less enjoyable. Ticket prices for the AfterGlow will remain the same as in previous years at $5 per person.

The artistic director for this summer's musical is Jan Koenigter who has directed several shows in the past for the Chelsea Area Players. The assistant director this year is Debbie Olsen who is new to Chelsea and is the newest Chelsea Area Player Board member.

Providing the choreography is Kerry Smith who is also new to the Players, while the musical director this summer is Jon Krueger who last worked with the Players on the musical "Mame."

Meredith Willson's "The Music Man" tells the story of a travelling salesman who is more con-artist than salesman that comes to a small and sleepy river town in Iowa and tries to trick the townspeople into creating a children's band and buying band instruments from him. Knowing little or nothing about music, he convinces the town that he can teach the children how to play without instruments and that when the instruments that he would order finally arrive, they all should be accomplished musicians. He plans to leave with his profits prior to the instruments arriving and him being found out. Complicating matters is the fact that he falls in love with the local librarian and begins to take an interest in the welfare of the town. Unfortunately, he is found out and accused of being a fraud.

The musical is humorous and may be enjoyed by all members of the family and by all ages. Some of the familiar songs from the show are "Trouble," "76 Trombones," and "Shipshape." Tickets will go on sale at the end of June and are $7.50 for the evening performances and $5 for the matinee.

THE ONLY ARTIST to display oil paintings last week-end at the 14th annual Art Show & Sale at the Chelsea Medical Center was Chelsea's Patricia Stebelton, a Werkner Rd. resident. Stebelton's work features landscapes, seascapes and portraits. The two-day show featured 25 area artists. Entertainment was provided by Betsy Beckerman. Chelsea Community Hospital Auxiliary provided the refreshments.
