ONE HUNDRED-SEVENTEENTH YEAR—No. 19

CHELSEA, MICHIGAN, WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 7, 1987

24 Pages This Week Plus Supplement

A BRANCH FROM A TREE near the Madison St.-Washington St. curve snapped off last Wednesday afternoon when high winds hit the area briefly. The owner of the home at left, Jerry Frisbie, was up working on a ladder between the homes when the branch came down and gave him quite a scare. It didn't hit him, however. The home of Hans Grossman, right, sustained a hole in the roof. Village crews cut the tree up and hauled it away on Thursday. Chelsea was on the edge of the storm that dumped inch-sized hail in the Pinckney area. There was no major precipitation here.

School Supt. Van Meer Resigns Position To Start Private Consulting Firm

Raymond E. Van Meer, superintendent of the Chelsea School District, tendered his resignation at last night's Board of Education meeting, effective June 30, 1988. Van Meer plans to start his own management consulting firm.

Van Meer has served as superintendent of the Chelsea School District since July 1, 1978. He has been only the third superintendent for Chelsea in the last 49 years (Al Johnsen, 1939-52; Charles Cameron, 1952-78; Van Meer, 1978-88).

Van Meer stated, "The community of Chelsea and the Chelsea School District are a winning combination. Chelsea is a great place to live, and the schools are exemplary. I wish to express my appreciation to the people of this community who give us support in so many ways: to the Board of Education members who helped me grow with their guidance, and to the employees of the school district who distinguish themselves daily in their contributions to the Chelsea schools."

Van Meer was selected from 105 candidates for the post of superintendent on July 1, 1978. Prior to his appointment, he was assistant superintendent in Jackson. He also had administrative experience as an elementary principal and high school assistant principal. Van Meer has served 16 school board members in his 10-year tenure.

Lloyd Grau, president of the Chelsea Board of Education, speaking on behalf of the board, stated, "The board was surprised when informed of his resignation. We will miss a person who is dedicated to education and who has made many educational improvements for the Chelsea schools. The Chelsea School District will feel the impact of his leaving. I know Ray is excited by the challenge of a career change." Grau further indicated that the early resignation announcement will give the Board of Education ample time to go through a thorough selection process for a new superintendent to assume the position July 1, 1988.

Van Meer indicated a career change is exciting to him, and the timing is real good for the school district. The negotiated agreement with the Chelsea Education Association is in place through June 30, 1989; school millage rates are also secure, with expirations as follows: 2.9 operating, June 30, 1989; 20.5 operating, June 30, 1993; 1.0 maintenance, June 30, 1993. The schools are also in good financial condition.

Van Meer, who plans to continue to reside in Chelsea, will be president of Van Meer & Associates, a management consulting firm. Van Meer sees a tremendous need to help educational managers and private sector managers continue to update their managerial skills.

Van Meer has served as president of the Michigan Association of School Administrators during the 1986-87 year. The Chelsea schools have benefited from his knowledge of educational issues, the legislative process, and his positive attitude leadership.

Van Meer has been active in the Chelsea community, serving on the Board of Directors of the First United Methodist church, as president of the Chelsea Kiwanis Club, president of the Civic Foundation of Chelsea, and as an active member of the Chelsea Chamber of Commerce.

Fire Department Plans Open House Sunday

Hand-on demonstrations and displays will be the highlight of the annual Chelsea Fire Department Open House this Sunday, Oct. 11 from noon to 4 p.m.

The public will have a chance to learn the proper use of fire extinguishers, as well as learn how firefighters work.

A highlight of the day will be a demonstration of the Jaws of Life, the tool used to cut doors off cars and trucks that have been badly damaged in accidents. A car will be hauled to the department on W. Middle St. from Smith's Service, where most wrecked cars from the area are taken.

A small room will be set up showing common fire hazards and there will be instruction on how to avoid them.

The department's equipment will be on display. Children will have a chance to spray water from a fire hose.

In addition, all the trucks, including the village's new rescue truck, will be on display.

Demonstrations begin at 12:30. There will be door prizes and drawings for children and adults. Cider and doughnuts will be served.

The open house will be held rain or shine.

North School Open House Set Thursday

North Elementary school has scheduled its annual fall Open House for Thursday, Oct. 8 from 6:30 to 8 p.m.

Parents, grandparents, children and friends are invited to see North school's classrooms and teachers.

The format will allow parents to walk through any of the classrooms and meet North school teachers.

Open House is not designed as a time for parents and teachers to meet individually for student conference purposes.

There will be coffee, juice and cookies served in the cafeteria during the evening for anyone who attends.

THIS LOT, owned by the village, was auctioned off last Friday. The only bidders was Kathy Kimball, who owns Chelsea Glass Co. with her husband, Marty. The village plans to buy a home owned by the Kimballs as a site for a new village hall.

Village Auctions Land, Pursues Lot for Hall

Village of Chelsea auctioned off a lot at 134 W. Middle St. last Friday morning, paving the way for the purchase of land for a new village hall.

Marty and Kathy Kimball, owners of Chelsea Glass Co., were the high and only bidders for the 66' by 132' village lot just east of their business. The bid was $27,000, the lot's appraised value.

No one other than Kathy Kimball, Village President Jerry Satterthwaite, and Village Manager Fritz Weber attended the auction in Weber's office at 10 a.m. The auction had been advertised for six consecutive weeks in The Standard.

Kimball made a 10 percent down payment, as required.

The village plans to purchase a home at 145 Park St. now owned by the Kimballs, which would be at least part of the site for the new village hall. The Kimballs had told the village that if they were not the successful bidders for the W. Middle St. lot that they would not sell the Park St. property.

Village council was scheduled to act on the sale of the W. Middle St. property at their regular meeting Tuesday night. In addition, both Weber and Satterthwaite said they were hopeful council would enter into a sales agreement for the Park St. property at that meeting.

The appraised value of the Park St. property is $53,000, Satterthwaite said.

The village also wants to purchase land next door to the Kimball's Park St. property, which would also be used for the village hall. That parcel, at 151 Park St., has been appraised at $49,000. The village and the owners of the property have yet to agree on a price. The village's first offer, $45,000, was rejected.

Satterthwaite said that in the event the village could not secure the 151 Park St. property, the Kimball property by itself would provide enough land for the village hall. Satterthwaite has indicated in past council meetings that the second lot would give the village the means to expand the hall, if necessary. The current village hall on E. Middle St. cannot be expanded or renovated economically, the village says.

The village may be able to secure financial help for the construction of a hall from the Downtown Development Authority. DDA has said that money generated through tax increment financing could be used for such purposes as long as the hall is within the downtown development district. According to Weber, both Park St. properties are within the district.

DDA will hold a public hearing on tax increment financing on Tuesday, Oct. 20 at the village council's regular meeting.

Kathy Kimball said Friday that the Middle St. lot would be used to both expand Chelsea Glass and provide some rental space for other businesses. She said she hopes construction will begin next summer.

The Hague Youth Orchestra Will Give Concert Monday

The Hague Youth Orchestra will perform in Chelsea next Monday, Oct. 12 at 7:30 p.m. at the George Prinzing Auditorium. The orchestra, made up of 95 members between the ages of 14 and 22, will play a selection of classical pieces ranging from Beethoven to Bernstein.

The 95 orchestra members will stay with Chelsea families Saturday, Sunday, and Monday nights. They will arrive from the Netherlands on Saturday night about 11 p.m. and spend most of Sunday recovering from jet lag. On Monday morning they will rehearse for three hours. That afternoon they will visit Greenfield village before giving their concert in the evening. The next night, Tuesday, they will perform in Stockbridge.

The Chelsea stop is the first on their three-week tour of Michigan and Canada. They are coming to Chelsea due to a fortuitous contact with Chelsea High band leader Bill Gourley, who met their leader, Lex Veelo, this summer in Luxembourg. Gourley was touring with the Blue Lake Camp International Band while Veelo was "holidaying" with his family. The two leaders met and Gourley convinced Veelo to add Chelsea to the itinerary of his up-coming North American tour.

The Hague Youth Orchestra was founded in 1923. Many of their former members have found their way to the various conservatories of music in the Netherlands and from there to the professional orchestras in the Netherlands and abroad. As well as touring in the North America, the orchestra has also visited most of the other European countries.

Leader Lex Veela has been conducting the youth orchestra for 23 years, since he was 19 years old. He studied violin and orchestra conducting at the Royal Conservatory of Music at the Hague, and has been violinist of the Hague Philharmonic Orchestra and the Residential String Quartet. Since 1975 he has taught conducting at the School of Arts Arnhem. In 1976 he was awarded first prize at the International Competition for Young Conductors at Besancon and after that conducted nearly all Dutch provincial orchestras. At the moment, he is conductor of the Sealand Orchestra.

The concert Monday will be free although donations will be accepted and the orchestra will sell programs for $1.

AN EXPERIMENTAL MUSIC PROGRAM for kindergarten children is taking place at North and South Elementary schools this year. Music teacher Ron Harris visits each class every other week to introduce the children to a vocal music program. It is the first time kindergarten youngsters have been offered music as a part of their curriculum.

4 Years Ago . . .

Wednesday, Oct. 5, 1983—

Chelsea attorney John P. Keusch has been recognized by the State Bar of Michigan as a 50-year member of the legal profession. Keusch and his wife, Madeleine, of 409 Washington St., have lived in Chelsea, where he was born, for many years.

About 50 persons marched with signs outside the administration building of the Cassidy Lake Technical School prior to a meeting of the Community Liaison Council Sept. 29.

Cassidy Lake superintendent John T. Staten announced that beginning immediately, foot and car patrols will be increased around the prison between 4 p.m. and midnight, that "head counts" will be done every hour instead of every two hours. The liaison council has prepared a resolution to the Department of Corrections in Lansing proposing drastic changes in the make-up of the prison's population.

C. L. Davis & Sons, Inc. of Owosso moved the house owned by Don Cole at 207 E. Middle St. to a lot next to the Oak Grove Cemetery gates. Cole said the moving job cost him about $8,500. At the vacated site a stone mason hacked away at the basement to salvage old hand-cut stones which nobody makes anymore. Cole will have the vacated property turned into a parking lot.

14 Years Ago . . .

Thursday, Oct. 4, 1973—

Michigan Public Service Commission inspector John A. Simi told a gathering of concerned residents and school and village administrators at the Freer Rd. crossing of the Penn Central railroad tracks Friday that he would recommend to the PCS that crossing gates and lights be installed at the crossing. J. H. Becker, division office engineer in Jackson for Penn Central, stated that, "Given the widespread public feeling that the crossing is a death-trap, I would favor closing the crossing entirely, rather than merely installing safety measures."

In Chelsea's 7-0 victory over Lincoln, halfback John Beeman turned in one of the key plays of the game by breaking up a screen pass on Chelsea's 15-yard line. Punter John Soule was also commended by coach Bareis for a "fine job." Ishmael Picklesimer rushed from the two-yard line after four carries for the game's only touchdown and kicked the extra point.

Volunteers are the life blood of the Home Meal Service Program, a service sponsored by Church Women United and the Jaycee Auxiliary. Four current volunteers are Mrs. William Hitchingham, Mrs. Walter Hamilton, Mrs. Edwin Vaught, and Mrs. Bob Fitzsimmons.

24 Years Ago . . .

Thursday, Oct. 3, 1963—

During National Fire Prevention week Chelsea's volunteer firemen were saluted during an open house in the fire hall at the Municipal Building—Chief James Gaken, Paul Bollinger, Frank Reed, Merle Leach, George Atkinson, Marvin Schiller, Bud Hafner, Claude Spiegelberg, David Longworth, Bud Harker, Mac Packard, Richard Rogers, Don Mshar, David Elkins, Ray Johnson, Arthur Paul, Ron Branham, Donald Hafner and LaVerne Hafner.

Manchester's Flying Dutchmen had their wings clipped last Friday, 45-6, by an explosive Chelsea Bulldog defense coupled with a rugged defense. Chelsea's first score occurred in the second quarter with a pass from Curt Farley to Jim Cameron, who lateraled to halfback Dick Lauhon who covered the last 20 yards of a 62-yard drive.

Washtenaw county's 1,208 4-H club members are observing 4-H Club Week. Serving on the 4-H Council are: Ralph McCalla, Mrs. Charles Curtis, Mrs. Glen Wiseman, and Grace Kushmaul, Chelsea; Mrs. Robert Van Natter, and Wesley Amsdill, Dexter; Beverly Gall, and Kay Gordon, Saline; Gloria Wright, Wayne Spike, and Donald Mull, Ypsilanti; George Macomber, Zina Bolgos, and Robert Reiff, Ann Arbor; Mrs. Sam Striz, Milan; Ron Kuhl, Susan Walker and Mrs. Marvin Kirk, Manchester; and Mrs. William O'Neil, Whitmore Lake.

Governor Calls for

Co-ordinated Crime Attack

Governor James J. Blanchard is attempting to put crime-fighting in the fall legislative spotlight.

Blanchard was particularly critical of courts for dealing with crime only on a case-by-case basis, as federal and state jurisdictions seem at cross purposes, and said state prisons should not be used to house criminals who are not violent threats.

The governor, during a recent press conference with Speaker Gary Owen (D-Ypsilanti), said the crime agenda should be made one of the three top priorities along with economic development and state government solvency. He included several items previously outlined in his State of the State message and House Democrats' anti-crime plan.

Blanchard said he intends to meet with an ad hoc House-Senate anti-crime committee to see what he can do to get a legislative package this fall.

And, he said he intends to sit down with elements of the law enforcement community, like judges and police officials, and perhaps the Supreme Court, to "see what things we can do to have a more effective co-ordinated war on crime."

"There has to be a more aggressive, co-ordinated approach by law enforcement. It is a source of great frustration when you hear state courts say one thing and federal courts another," the governor said.

He said courts "do not seem to be taking their responsibility for solving the problem. We've done our part. We've raised the money, built cells and hired troopers. We'd like some help and not the purist position from the federal courts."

U.S. district court judges have held the state in contempt for overcrowding, at one point this summer ordering a halt to new admissions, and have stepped in to order improved conditions and services, including psychiatric care.

Blanchard said he would ask judges what they would do to help solve the problem, and said sentencing guidelines reform would be a major factor. He said, "We should make sure we do not send people to prison who are not a violent threat to others."

Department of Corrections deputy director Leo Lalonde said a recent Michigan State University study identified 300-600 inmates of the newly 21,000 in the system who should not have been sent to prison in the first place. Lalonde noted that is the equivalent to one new prison.

Last year, 53.7 percent of the 8,284 criminals sent to prison were convicted of what are classified as non-assaultive crimes, but that includes some crimes which are considered threats to others, such as breaking and entering. Another 6.2 percent were for substance abuse and 40.1 percent were assaultive crimes.

Not on the governor's crime agenda were any additional gun control measures—he said state laws are already relatively stiff—but he said he is considering proposals that would make gun owners more responsible for crimes committed with those weapons.

Joel Buckenmeyer

Promoted in Air Force

Joel D. Buckenmeyer, son of Harold R. Buckenmeyer of 16345 McClure Rd., Chelsea, has been promoted in the U.S. Air Force to the rank of staff sergeant.

Buckenmeyer is a vehicle operator and dispatcher at Beale Air Force Base, Calif., with the 9th Field Maintenance Squadron.

Yours truly,
Uncle Lew.

Uncle Lew from Lima Says:

DEAR MISTER EDITOR:

The fellers got into somepun of a medical seminar Saturday night at the country store. It didn't take them long to discuss a heap more than they know about this particular science, but none of them ever has been bothered with their reach extending beyond their grab, so they went right on pooling their ignorance.

It was Bug Hookum, fer instant, that raised the question wuther new diseases keep coming along or old diseases keep gitting discovered. Bug said he had thought the situation up one side and down the other, and he was more fer creation than evolution, but he stopped short of believing that everything there is has allus been like it is.

All the same, Bug said, it's easy to see where Alltimer's Disease use to hide behind different names, like old age and senility. It might be, he went on, that AIDS has been killing people forever, but nobody knew what it was so all kinds of ailments got the blame. Right now, Bug allowed, doctors know there is a disease call lupus that gives signs of other ailments. It takes a special test to show if a person has lupus or flu or arthritis or whatever it is pertaining to be.

Actual, Zeke Grubb said, that probable is the answer. Diseases are limited only by medicine's ability to find em and name em. They've allus been, but they never use their real name when they rob and kill. Farthermore, Zeke declared, he has noticed that finding and naming a disease is like any other invention. Pritty soon we got a hole industry built around it. It's hard to realize today that folks could git a handle on how the economy was doing even before there was cars to sell.

The fellers were general agreed with Zeke, and Clem Webster was four-square behind the industry part. He said it's a plain fact that modern, well-insulated homes give us new hazards to our health like radon gas and formaldehyde in plastic we make everything out of. The ozone has allus been there fer sure, Clem said, but now that we know what it is and we're worried we're going to run out of it. So what happens, Clem noted, is that onct the danger is identified all kinds of new products hit the market to help us handle it. No sooner do we hit on floride fer cavities and stuff to fight plack than we are told our teeth are okay but if we don't do somepun quick our gums are gone, so there come more products, was Clem's words.

Ed Doolittle set through all he could stand, so he got the floor with a clipping he said proved new diseases happen because we keep coming up with new causes fer em. He had saw where a boy overseas lost touch with reality and doctors say he has come down with the world's first case of computer syndrome. In the old days before kids learned nothing really happens that ain't on television, Ed said, doctors would have said the boy had lost his mind. But now they got a cause so they got a contagious disease you catch if you mess with computers.

Immediate, Ed said, you know the defense them kids in West Germany will put fer using computers to break into NASA's computer and steal secrets. It will be the same as the drunk driver that caught a disease from a bad diet. All the kids have computer syndrome so bad they didn't know what they were doing.

Personal, I see a computer syndrome epidemic coming and a new industry to fight it before we all turn into robots.

Modern Mothers Hold First of Two Craft Workshops

Modern Mothers Study Club held the first of two craft workshops on Tuesday, Sept. 22, at Chelsea High school.

Members and their guests had an enjoyable evening learning new crafts. Among the crafts being demonstrated were puffed wreaths, fire starter baskets, and stenciling. Refreshments were provided by Barbara Pruess and June Wilson.

A second craft workshop will be held Oct. 27, at the home of Denise Long.

The hand-made items will be auctioned off at the club's annual auction on Nov. 9, at the Chelsea Fairgrounds.

The next regular meeting will be held Oct. 13, at the home of Sue Carter, when a program, "What we need to know about drugs," will be presented. Guest are welcome to attend.

Homemaker Club Plans Activities

Homemakers Club met Sept. 22 at the home of Barbara Wolfgang. New program books for 1987-88 were distributed and reviewed. Secret pals were revealed with gifts and new names were drawn for the coming year.

The club's community project will be a Holiday Bazaar Auction to be held Nov. 5 at 7 p.m., at the Chelsea Fair Service Center. The public will be invited to the auction. Profits will be given to the Restoration of Chelsea Depot and Faith in Action.

The next meeting will be Oct. 22 at the home of Kati Bauer, with a program on "Creating a Personal Video," presented by Jeff Van Riper of Elmos.

Bea Ann Lesser served refreshments as co-hostess.

COLLINS-ROSENTERER: Deann Collins, daughter of Norene and Bob Aello and the late Jack Collins, have announced her engagement to Steve Rosentreter, son of Neil and Delores Rosentreter. All reside in the Chelsea area. Deann is a senior at Chelsea High school and is studying cosmetology at Huron Valley Beauty Academy in Ann Arbor. Steve is employed by Rosentreter Excavating, Inc. A May 7 date has been set for the wedding.

Ullman-Emberton Marriage Vows Spoken in Home Ceremony

Sara Ullman, daughter of Joseph and Barbara Ullman of Chelsea, married Paul Emberton, son of Pamela and Philip Emberton of Shrewsbury, England on Aug. 30 at 11 a.m. at the home of the bride's parents with the Rev. Erwin A. Gaede officiating. Music was provided by Anne Reising, soprano; Diana Lasky, cello; and

Timothy Hoover, piano. They performed "Sunrise, Sunset," "Kismet" and "One Hand, One Heart."

The bride wore a floor-length white satin and lace gown.

Maid of honor was the bride's sister, Katie Ullman of Chelsea, who wore a pink dress.

Bridesmaids were sisters of the bride, Ruth Michelson of Placerville, Calif. and Esther Ullman of Ann Arbor; sister of the bridegroom, Jane Emberton of Wem, England; and friend, Laurie Reising-Riss of Houston, Tex. They wore yellow dresses.

The bride's mother wore a white and blue silk tea-length dress.

Best man was Andres Zamudio of Mexico City, Mexico. Ushers were Adrian Clark of London, England and Terry Riss of Houston, Tex.

A home reception was held for the 70 wedding guests who attended the ceremony.

The couple is now residing at 1420 Richmond, No. 3040, Houston, Tex. 77006.

Chelsea Boy Beaten After Game

A 12-year-old Chelsea boy was beat up by four youths after the Chelsea High school home football game with Lincoln Sept. 25, Chelsea police reported.

The boy told police he was struck three times in the ribs in an unprovoked attack. He said they were apparently Lincoln fans.

Most farmers do not have to be paid time and one-half when they work over 40 hours in a week. Nevertheless, they must be paid at least the minimum wage ($3.35 an hour) for all hours worked, according to a fact sheet on Farmworkers and the Federal Wage and Hour Law, available from Labor Department's Office of Information and Public Affairs, Washington, D. ## Homecoming Events Slated Through Friday

A full slate of homecoming events is planned this week at Chelsea High school, all leading up to Friday night's homecoming game with the Dexter Dreadnaughts.

Nine girls are in the running to be crowned this year's homecoming queen. Each fall sport, as well as the freshman and sophomore classes, has a representative.

The queen will be crowned at half-time.

Dress-up days continue with hat-and-glasses day on Wednesday. Thursday is flower-child day (dressing in 60s style) and Friday is blue-and-gold day.

Lunch activities include a gummy worm eating contest on Wednesday, a warm-Coke chug on Thursday, and a chocolate chip eating contest (blind-folded) on Friday.

Activities planned for after school include a tug-of-war on Wednesday, a water-balloon toss on Thursday, and a big pep rally on Friday.

The masters of ceremony for the pep rally will be Kevan Flanigan and Matt Doan.

Rally activities will include a sexy legs contest, a tricycle race, cheers by the cheerleaders, pyramid building, a tennis ball pass and an introduction of the football players.

A dance in the high school cafeteria will follow the football game.

Open House Slated At Methodist Home

Chelsea United Methodist Retirement Home will hold its annual fall open house on Sunday, Oct. 11 from 2 p.m. until 5 p.m.

The Home has been serving the elderly since 1907 from their location at the end of W. Middle St. The Home offers four levels of living: independent garden apartments, semi-independent retirement home living, a special unit for the memory-impaired, and a 110 bed nursing wing, dually certified for both basic and skilled care.

Activities at the Home are varied; everything from ceramics to swimming. A men's group has just been organized to meet the needs of the growing number of male residents and there is an adult Girl Scout troop for the women.

Tours of the Home will be offered throughout the hours of the open house. Refreshments will be provided by the Retirement Home Friends and some of the members of Uncle John's Dulcimer Band will be on hand to provide a festive atmosphere. In addition, information will be available about volunteering at the Home.

New Public Transportation Directory Offered

Michigan's new 1987-88 Public Transportation Directory is ready for distribution, State Transportation Director James P. Pitz has announced.

Published by the Michigan Department of Transportation (MDOT), the directory shows the routes and locations of all public transportation services throughout Michigan. It complements MDOT's Official Transportation Map, which is used chiefly by highway travelers.

The directory features color photographs of Michigan attractions and is available to the public free of charge.

Maps in the New Public Transportation Directory, an update of the 1985-86 issue, show all commercial air service airports, intercity bus routes, passenger rail lines and county and city public transit services.

The 28-page booklet includes an extensive directory of Michigan communities served by public transportation. The list identifies carriers serving each community and their addresses and telephone numbers where information on schedules and fares may be obtained.

The Public Transportation Directory is available free of charge at MDOT's 12 Welcome Centers and nine district offices, as well as at bus, air and rail passenger terminals, local transit stations, many local travel agencies and through the Michigan Travel Bureau.

A VIEW from the CLOCK TOWER

By Will Connelly

WHO SAYS YOU CAN'T WRITE?

There are a great many people in our society who never write an essay after leaving high school or college. They will dare to express themselves in letters to family or close friends but brilliant ideas, inspired viewpoints and precious information go unwritten to the grave.

A familiar excuse is: "I can't write." But how do these people know if they don't even try? Most individuals who had creditable grades in English composition can express themselves in writing quite well, and we see evidence of this each week in Letters to the Editor. We have come a long way from Old Washtenaw German where a farmer would throw the cow over the fence some day. With repeated practice, the rustiest of writers can gradually smooth the rough spots and clean up their syntax.

As for problems with spelling, that goes with the territory. There are any number of reporters, editors, advertising copywriters, syndicated columnists and magazine writers who are so afraid of misspelled words they keep dictionaries at their elbows. A favorite of scholars and professionals is the Merriam-Webster Collegiate Dictionary, now in its ninth edition (1985). Weighing less than four pounds, it contains virtually all the words in everyday usage—160,000 of them. The entries are based on spellings and meanings condensed from 13 million references in the publisher's files.

For those situations where a personal dictionary isn't enough, the McKune library has the 1981 unabridged Merriam-Webster.

Almost any literary effort, including fiction, is enriched by research. The quest for facts frequently requires more time than the writing. Clock Tower columns take a few minutes to read and two hours to write. Thirty hours, however, are invested in interviews, travel time, searching references in libraries and telephoning.

Whatever the project, you begin with an idea. Some ideas are based on current or contemporary events. Others are rooted in the past. Most editorial research involves a study of both.

Let's say you decide to write about the possibility that the District of Columbia will become the 51st state. Your paper (or article, or lecture or broadcast) will speculate on what the new American flag with 51 stars will look like. Who will be involved in the design and the protocols of official approval?

Perhaps as another subject you would like to take up the matter of humane treatment of prisoners. Should the prison rules be softened so that the wives of male inmates could have private visitation privileges once a month? Naturally, under women's rights there would be equal privileges for husbands of female inmates. You could also raise the issue of discrimination against unmarried prisoners if they are not offered visitation privileges. There will, of course, be the delicate questions of how "boy friend" or "girl friend" might be defined under law.

A third subject for writing could concern the Constitution. Word is out that next Christmas the Post Office may issue a Santa Claus stamp. Is there anything to rumors that the Civil Liberties Union is planning to denounce the Santa Claus stamp as a federally sanctioned promotion of religion—very possibly followed by an ACLU shot at the Easter Bunny on the next Easter egg hunt on the White House lawn.

Of the three subjects just suggested, the research on the 51-star flag should be accomplished in half a day. You can probably find a wealth of materials in the magazine files on prisoners rights. In the past there have been protests involving recreation privileges. These will pale into insignificance in comparison with your proposal. As for the assaults on Santa and the Easter Bunny, you can try the library, but mostly you'll just have to wing it.

Countless ideas for original literary efforts are found in current news stories, TV programs, radio broadcasts and magazine features. From such sources you pick up a core idea, using it as a springboard for your own contribution to the subject. What you come up with may be something completely new, or you may draw an editorial conclusion from the reported events. You can always speculate on what comes next.

Aside from current events and live interviews plus recollection of actual experiences, there are the treasures of our libraries. A good starting point for editorial research is an encyclopedia where experts on just about everything are waiting to help you.

The Encyclopedia Britannica is vast and authoritative. All too often, however, its distinguished authors seem to be addressing and impressing their peers. More down to earth, and often more understandable, is the Americana. The McKune Library also has older versions of the New Book of Knowledge and the World Book Encyclopedia, both of which are always worth searching. For writers who are aiming at the general public, a good beginning on any subject is an encyclopedia edited for children. They are models of lucid writing.

Whenever I tackle a writing assignment I am mindful that some of my readers are smarter than I am, and quite a few may be authorities on the subject under discussion. Such reminders intensify the obligation to do my homework well. When the topic is local I rely on personal interviews, occasionally reaching to sources in Lansing or Ann Arbor. Toll calls anywhere in the 48 are used in preference to letters, and not merely to avoid delays or uncertainties. On long distance I can and do try for the person who is the top source of the needed information. Alternatively, I usually manage to reach someone knowledgeable who also has authority for attribution.

Libraries are often the difference between failure and success. Many subjects can be completely researched at the McKune Memorial Library. For a broader choice of references there is the Ann Arbor Public Library; size considered, this is one of the best in the nation.

Some subjects which have been researched with library help for the Clock Tower have included sanitary sewers, the living will, state finances, dieting, family money management, the Constitution, air safety, labor unions, electric power, milestones in science, soaring health costs, atheism, Leninism, the national deficit, smoking, school millage, dogs, American freedom, genealogy, the Chelsea Depot back to the 1880's, Benjamin Franklin, how to sell anything, suicide, illiteracy, microfilms, sex education, stroke, wines, cats, libel and pheasants.

For a blow-by-blow example of primary research by an enterprising amateur let's take the case of a young woman who has been invited by a social club to give a talk on clocks. She makes a hobby of taking discarded clocks apart and repairing them. All she knows about clocks is the similarity of parts and the principles, purely from observation, on which they run. She can barely manage to talk for two or three minutes about fixing clocks. She'll have to do better than that for her society audience so she heads for the library. To get an overview of her subject she wisely looks up clocks in a children's encyclopedia. Next she refers to a major encyclopedia where the principles she knows from observation are explained and depicted.

This is a good start but she goes ahead by referring to "clocks" in the general card catalog of the library. This steers her to the shelves where she examines a row of books on her subject. One contains some fascinating material on historic clocks and another touches on the evolution of the clockmaker's art.

Despite the fact that she now has enough material for an hour vs. her allotted 20 minutes, she wants to condense her talk from a truly generous selection. This leads her to the Readers' Guide to Periodical Literature, an index to hundreds of current magazines articles on selected subjects for designated periods of time. She scans all the listed articles on clocks from 1984 to 1987 and finds references to several promising articles. She obtains the wanted issues from the back-issue files of magazines just a few steps away. From these she learns of such things as the battle of the Swiss clock and watch industry against Asian competition (not pertinent), of new fashions in electric clocks (worth mentioning) and the advent of solar powered timepieces (very timely).

Investing a few coins in one of the library copying machines, she emerges with jewels in the form of reproduced pages from encyclopedias, books and magazines. When she needed help from the microfilm files the

BRIAN ZANGARA bought and raised a steer, which he donated to the St. Louis Center.

Youth Raises Steer For St. Louis Center

A 14-year-old Chelsea boy donated a steer he raised to the St. Louis Center, the school for boys with special needs located just west of the village.

Brian Zangara, son of Al and Pat Zangara, raised the steer at the family's Freer Rd. farm beginning in the fall of 1986. Another he raised at the same time was auctioned off at the Chelsea Community Fair this fall. Brian bought both steers through the Dexter-Chelsea Steer Club with his own money. They started at about 500 pounds each and grew to nearly 1,200 pounds, a lot of beef for a school that relies heavily on donations.

"It was just something he wanted to do," said his mother, Pat.

Just how Brian found the time is another matter. He is a good student, is active in school sports and helps out with the family farm.

Brian has been in frequent contact with the St. Louis Center residents over the last couple of years. Al is a member of the school's board of directors and began his involvement through the Knights of Columbus organization nine or 10 years ago.

"I don't know what touched Brian the most, but he decided to do something special for those boys who need and give so much love," said Fr. Joseph Rinaldo, the center director.

"While we thank him for his thoughtfulness, we admire him for his big heart and the desire to do something for the less privileged."

Social Service Elects Two New Board Members

Chelsea Social Service held its 30th annual Board Meeting, Sept. 17, in the Municipal Building Council Room, at which time two new board members were elected to three-year terms. Elected were Joyce Vogel and Arthur Schiller.

Elected officers for the next year are: president, Donald Dancer; vice-president, Katherine Wagner; treasurer, Edith Hoffman; secretary, Jacqueline Riethmiller.

Continuing on as board members are Charles Lancaster of 31 years, Donald Cole and Linda Ormsby, director.

With the great support of United Way and others in the community the agency's purpose remains to serve the Chelsea School District residents who have crisis needs.

Pfc. Timothy J. Reed Participates in Marine Training Exercise

Marine Pfc. Timothy L. Reed, son of Terry L. and Diane M. Reed of 765 Taylor St., Chelsea, recently participated in Combined Arms Exercise 10-87 with 2nd Marine Division, Camp Lejeune, N. C.

The four-week exercise, conducted at Twentynine, Palms, Calif., was established to practice fire support co-ordination for the various support elements.

A 1984 graduate of Chelsea High school, he joined the Marine Corps in May 1986.

Country Craft Show Scheduled Saturday

On Saturday, Oct. 10, Chelsea High school will again this year be the gathering place for more than 60 artists and craftsmen who will take part in the third annual Country Craft and Folk Art Show.

Quality craftsmen from all over Michigan will be displaying and selling their wares. Some of the items available will be country style furniture, baskets, herb wreaths, wood accessories, porcelain and rag dolls, rag rugs, pottery, stained glass, wood carving, country ceramics, plus many more fine quality crafts.

The third annual Country Crafts and Folk Art Show is being organized and promoted by Marcy Stump, a Chelsea resident, for the Chelsea Senior Citizens organization. The Senior Citizens again this year will have a quilt raffle, along with conducting a bake sale and selling lunch in the cafeteria throughout the day. Proceeds from the raffle, luncheon, bake sale, along with the admission to the show, go to the Chelsea Senior Citizens organization.

Hours for the Oct. 10 show are from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. The high school in Chelsea is located on Washington Street off Freer Rd. or from Main St. Direction signs will be posted.

Admission to the show is $1 for adults and 50¢ for children 6-12. Children under 6 may enter free of charge.

"The world is so full of a number of things, I'm sure we should all be as happy as kings..." —Robert Louis Stevenson

The world truly is a wondrous place full of a number of things designed to bring happiness into our lives. Unfortunately, however, some of us are so intent on seeking the big things that we have lost sight of the pleasure to be derived from the magnificence of the setting sun, the laughter of children or the warm bond of friendship... the simple, commonplace things that bear no price tag.

Perhaps an appreciation of these small, taken-for-granted things could help to make us all as happy as kings. The nicest part of such a program is that the things that bring the most happiness are usually "priceless" in the sense that they are freely available to all for the taking.

We believe that a beautiful funeral service should prepare the bereaved for adjustment to loss.

United Way Serves Youth of Community

Following a terrific kick-off banquet, the Chelsea United Way Campaign is off and running, eager to support Chelsea's many organizations.

"Things look very good this year. We're already ahead of last year's percent of the goal," said Barb Rose, 1987 campaign chairman. "People seem to be very motivated and responsive to the community needs again this year. Chelsea is definitely going to meet its goal this year."

The goal of $73,000 was established by the board following the allocations committee meetings in which requests were presented by local groups.

Bill Chandler, industrial chairman, said, "Industry is again showing its support of our community organization, both through employee and management support. We are encouraged by our positive responses."

In conjunction with the 1987 Campaign, various agencies, who are recipients of Chelsea United Way allocated funds, will be featured each week. The two featured agencies this week are the Huron Valley Child Guidance Clinic and the Boy Scouts of America.

Huron Valley

Child Guidance Clinic

Huron Valley Child Guidance Clinic dates back to 1944 when it was established by the State Department of Mental Health to provide direct diagnostic and treatment services for emotionally troubled children (0 to 18 years of age) and their families. The Clinic merged with the Washtenaw County Community Mental Health Center in 1972 and became Children's Services.

Services have since expanded from individual group and family outpatient counseling to include pre/post care for hospitalization, hospital and community residential placement, in-home treatment as an alternative to hospitalization, an eight-week summer therapeutic day camp, and case management services for severely emotionally impaired children.

Children's problems may include temper or behavioral problems, social or peer problems, fears and worries, poor school achievement despite good ability, hyperactivity, school and home truancy, conflicts with parents, overly aggressive or withdrawn behavior.

Parents refer directly to the program by calling (313) 434-1150 to make a referral or to talk with a staff person regarding a potential problem. There is no charge for this consultation. Fees are determined on a sliding scale and no one is refused service because of an inability to pay a fee. An increasing number of children and their families are being seen in the Chelsea office located in the Methodist church.

Over the past several years, Children's Services has set a goal of extending and increasing their service to Chelsea area families. They are currently sending several of their professional staff to the Chelsea office several days a week to be available to families.

Letters to the Editor

To the Editor,

It really seems a shame to constantly watch the AATA bus run almost empty every day in Chelsea. I'm sure there would be many more people riding if the route and hours were different.

I have two teen-agers, neither one can drive and it would be great if the AATA bus would leave Chelsea around 6 p.m. for the Fox Theatre or Briarwood and return to Chelsea afterwards without having to transfer buses. If it was a direct route (the 6 p.m. run) I would let my kids go to the show or shopping. I don't want them hanging around Ann Arbor having to worry about getting the right bus.

Why can't AATA change at least the 6 p.m. run to incorporate Briarwood. Also by having a 6 p.m. run on Saturday it would pick up a lot of people going out to dinner.

A Concerned Parent.

reference staff of the library cheerfully came to the rescue. She can now do her own micro-searching.

Back at home she goes to work and completes the paper for an 18-minute talk. It begins with sun dials and winds up full circle with sun powered clocks. Somehow she never gets around to telling how to take an Old Ben alarm apart and put it together again.

Some of my colleagues will admit in jest, "Me? I'm a writer. It sure beats working for a living." Actually it's a form of slavery. The hunt for a precious but elusive idea can keep you awake at night. But the giving of yourself is just as real in writing as in religion, medicine, education, entertainment or any other endeavor that makes life worth living.

You know something? I still keep wondering how long it really took Abe Lincoln to write the Gettysburg Address.

Brighton Youth Nabbed Taking Nip

A 19-year-old Brighton man was charged with having open intoxicants in a car after he was seen drinking from a quart beer bottle by a Chelsea police officer Thursday, Oct. 1.

Lowell Clayton Gribbons was seated in the back seat of an automobile that pulled into a gasoline station on M-52 near the freeway, according to Chelsea police. An officer pulled in behind the vehicle and noticed Gribbons tipping the beer bottle.

Country Craft & Folk Art Show Slated Oct. 10

Saturday, Oct. 10, marks the date for Chelsea's third annual Country Craft and Folk Art Show. The show, which will be held at Chelsea High school will be open from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.

The gymnasium and the hallway of the high school will be filled with talented artists and craftsmen selling their wares. Handcrafted country items such as pottery, rag rugs, stained glass and baskets will be available from all over southern and mid-Michigan; with the talents of some local crafts people being displayed as well.

The juried craft show, which is held to help raise money for the Chelsea Senior Citizens organization is promoted and organized by Marcy Stump, a Chelsea resident. Several local senior citizens will be working the day of the craft show, making sure the luncheon, bake sale and raffle sale all go well.

Among the crafters selling and demonstrating on Oct. 10 will be Carol & David Diem of Fenton. For the past seven years the Diems have been designing wood lath slat paintings. Carol said they got started making the pictures one summer when they saw a similar piece in a shop in Petoskey. Both David and Carol liked the piece and decided to try their hand at the craft. Making the lath slat pictures began as a way to keep the Diem children busy in the summer and has turned into a very successful business.

Margie Ridenour of Saline became interested in herbs 12 years ago when she was a member of the Ohio Garden Club. She has been making and selling herb wreaths in Ohio and Michigan ever since. The combination of a love of gardening and love of crafts has made this a very successful business for Margie. Basically everything that she uses in her wreaths is home grown with Artemesia being her favorite herb to work with.

Carol Rogers of Canton makes carousel horses ranging from five inches to five feet tall. She started making the horses slightly over a year ago when she took a carousel horse class from Useful Uniques in Plymouth. She made one for herself, then a few for gifts and eventually started making them to sell. She now has four of the five-foot size ones of her own.

The small horses are made of ceramic and the large, life-size horses are made with a riding toy base that Carol paints with a special process to make them look antiqued.

Collecting of carousel horses has become a popular past time and Carol does custom work so she can create for her customers, exactly what they want.

Sheri Gramer, a Chelsea resident, has been busy working on one craft or another for as long as she can remember. Several of her talents were taught to her by her grandmother. Sheri's favorite hobbies are quilting and working with herbs. She grows most of the herbs that she uses in her pot pourri, sachets, and wreaths.

Making hand-crafted items and doing craft shows has become a family affair for the Gramers. While Sheri does the herbs and the quilting; her husband, Michael, designs and makes wooden country cut-out pieces. Sheri's mother, Boots Kaercher makes dried apple wreaths which will also be available at the Craft Show.

The list goes on with the talents and creativity of more than 70 craftspeople being demonstrated and sold at the Country Craft and Folk Art Show on Oct. 10. Admission to the show is $1 for adults and 50¢ for children. Proceeds from the admissions goes to the Senior Citizens Organization of Chelsea. The hours of the show, being held at the High School are from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Kim Allen Promoted With Army Unit In West Germany

Kim Allen, son of Peggy J. Konrath of Chelsea, has been promoted in the U.S. Army to the rank of specialist four.

Chinese Porcelain Expert To Speak At Kempf House

Thomas Forshee, a life-time collector of antique Chinese porcelain, will be at the Kempf House on Sunday, Oct. 11 at 2 p.m. He will speak on the subject of "America-China Trade from 1789 to 1850."

China enthusiasts will delight in seeing a display of the fine porcelain from Forshee's collection. He will discuss the origin of blue and white pattern motifs and the early American passion for collecting China. A dealer for 15 years, Forshee owns an antique shop in Stockbridge.

The Kempf House, open from 1 to 4 p.m. Sundays, is located at 312 S. Division (at Liberty) in Ann Arbor. Admission is $1. For more information call Louisa Pieper at (313) 996-3008.

The Kempf House, Center for Local History, is a non-profit educational institution that is owned and operated by the City of Ann Arbor.

A program on housing concerns of seniors will be presented tomorrow, Thursday, Oct. 8 at the Chelsea Senior Citizens Center. The program, led by Joyce Mead of the Housing Bureau for Seniors, will consist of a slide show "Housing Options for Washtenaw County Senior Citizens," followed by a discussion of specific housing concerns of the group.

Mead will arrive at the senior center at 11 a.m. in order to have time to get acquainted and to lead a sing-along. The formal program will begin after lunch.

The Housing Bureau for Seniors is a county-wide, non-profit organization with offices in the Turner Clinic in Ann Arbor. Their services include housing counseling for seniors, advocacy help when requested, and home share matching.

The counseling is provided by volunteers, senior citizens who keep up-to-date on housing conditions around the county. The home share matching is a program where references are checked and appropriate matches made for people who wish to share living accommodations. Although a variety of combinations are possible, Mead said the most common is for a younger person to be matched with a senior, with the senior providing a room at a low rent in exchange for maintenance-type services.

Mead is a former educator and music teacher. Her job at the housing bureau entails working on the home share program and also as an outreach co-ordinator.

All Chelsea area seniors are welcome to attend the housing program tomorrow, but lunch reservations should be called in today (475-9242).

New Hunting Regulations Taking Effect

New rules regarding mandatory hunter education, licensing hunters who hunt with dogs, and shining, head the list of major changes in hunting rules for Michigan's 1987-88 hunting seasons.

Shining or the use of artificial lights for locating wildlife, will not be permitted starting this year during the entire month of November. From Dec. 1, through Oct. 31, shining is banned from 11 p.m. to 6 a.m.

Beginning Jan. 1, 1988, all hunters who were born after Jan. 1, 1960, will be required to complete an approved hunter education class and produce proof of completion or produce a previous hunting license in order to purchase a license for the 1988-89 hunting season.

Currently, only those between the ages of 12 and 16, are required to do this.

Beginning immediately, all persons must have a valid Michigan hunting license to participate in any way in pursuing a game animal with dogs during the open season for hunting that animal with dogs. In the past, only the person shooting the animal was required to have a license. This rule does not apply to persons participating in field trials.

There are several other important changes this year. Hunters should consult their 1987-88 hunting and trapping guides for more specific details.

The muzzleloader deer season is Dec. 4-13 in Zones 1 and 2, the Upper Peninsula and the northern Lower Peninsula, while it is Dec. 11-20 in Zone 3, the southern Lower Peninsula.

Bear hunters are now required to turn in their kill validation tag when they register their bear at an authorized Department of Natural Resources bear registration station.

The beaver and other trapping season in the Upper Peninsula runs from Oct. 25, 1987 through March 31, 1988. The season has been shortened in response to reduced complaints about beaver damage.

Although it is not a change from last year, firearm deer hunters are reminded that it is illegal to purchase a second firearm deer license until Sept. 25, the day after Hunters' Choice deer license applications must be postmarked.

Pheasant hunters are reminded that portions of several southern Michigan counties are closed to pheasant hunting in order to help assure the success of the Sichuan pheasant introductions. Locations are outlined in the hunting and trapping guides.

Essay Contest Set On Value of Free Enterprise System

State Representative Margaret O'Connor (R-Lodi Township) confirmed today that she has not accepted the pay raise approved for members of the Michigan Legislature.

O'Connor said that she has been working on a plan to donate the amount of the salary increase to various groups and causes in Washtenaw county.

The first donation will be in the form of prize money for an essay contest for high school seniors in any Washtenaw county high school.

O'Connor said she has contacted all of the public and private high schools in the county informing them of the contest.

The third-term Republican said that she would give a first-place prize of $150 and a second place prize of $50 for the best essay on "The Value of the Free Enterprise System."

"I am concerned that our students are not being adequately educated in the value of the free enterprise system and therefore I think this would be an appropriate theme for a senior essay," O'Connor said. "I hope every high school senior in the county will take part in this contest."

The deadline for entries is Jan. 1, 1988. The award winners will be announced later in January.

Unexpected Visitor Greeted Leidner Family

"Daddy, there's some kind of strange animal in here," was the cry Mark Leidner heard from his 10-year-old daughter, Nicole, after he was awakened by a loud crash from his basement Sunday morning.

Leidner went to the basement, saw glass all over the floor and his daughter trying to crawl up on a desk. "At first I thought, there was a raccoon or something and it didn't register until I looked behind the furnace and said 'holy ... there's a six-point buck.'"

The deer had jumped through Leidner's basement window at 12036 Weiman Rd. in Hell, about 12 miles from Chelsea. The window, about 2½ by 3', and 3' off the basement floor, opened out to a deck off the back of the house, facing Hi-Land Lake.

When the buck came through the window it landed on Nicole's toy stove, sink and refrigerator.

Leidner, a technician at Chrysler Proving Grounds, tried everything he could think of to get the deer out of the basement short of taking him upstairs and through the living room.

They opened the basement door and tried to shoo him out, which didn't work. At one point the deer got his rack stuck in a piece of furniture and tried to jump back through the window. That didn't work either.

The deer also had problems walking on the linoleum and his feet kept sliding out from under him.

When Leidner's neighbor came over, they noticed the deer's back leg was broken, so they quickly decided to destroy it.

Leidner discovered the deer had been seen swimming in the lake shortly before crashing through the window. The deer also had to run up a (Continued on page 17)

New Hazardous Farm Materials Rules Issued

Under new rules issued by the Federal Highway Administration, farm vehicles that carry hazardous materials such as propane, dynamite or even anhydrous ammonia, must be properly marked, according to Al Almy, director of public affairs for the Michigan Farm Bureau.

"Farm operators carrying chemicals and other materials must have a proper placard displayed on the vehicle indicating that the hazdous materials are present," Almy said. "We understand that local authorities will not go out of their way to stop pick-up trucks to check for compliance, but farm operators who carry hazardous materials should be aware of the new requirement."

Turnovers Haunt Dogs in 20-0 Loss

Chelsea Bulldogs dropped another varsity football game last Friday for most of the same reasons they've lost three of the other four games they've played.

Mistakes. And more mistakes. Jackson County Western turned three Bulldog turnovers into touchdowns for a 20-0 victory, their first of the season.

"We didn't do anything very well," said Chelsea head coach Gene LaFave.

"They practically dared us to throw the ball, but we didn't get the job done."

LaFave said it was Chelsea's worst offensive performance of the year. The Bulldogs had 103 yards rushing, and 53 yards passing as Larry Nix and Jeff Marshall completed five passes in 17 attempts. Marshall went in at quarterback late in the fourth quarter after Nix sustained a concussion.

Junior Morseau caught three passes for 23 yards and ran for 73 yards on 20 carries. Randy Ferry caught one pass for 16 yards and Chris Acree caught one for 14.

The Bulldogs had been gaining more than 300 yards per game.

"When you've been playing well and don't get positive results, this is what can happen," LaFave said.

"We're not that confident we can get the job done."

With the exception of the play of Dan Pletcher and Cory Johnson, LaFave wasn't so thrilled about the Bulldog defense, which had to contend with a wishbone offense for the first time this season.

JCW, as Lincoln before them, victimized Chelsea with big plays. Panther quarterback Todd Wirebaugh passed for 103 yards and touchdowns of 18 and 40 yards. The Panthers might have scored even more without 105 yards in penalties.

Acree and Eric Frisinger had nine and seven tackles, respectively.

JCW got on the board at the 5:43 mark of the first quarter. A Chelsea fumble at the Bulldog 35 set up a four-yard touchdown run.

The Panthers' second touchdown was set up by an interception at the Chelsea 28. With :54 remaining in the first half, Wirebaugh hit Brent Oliver with an 18-yard touchdown pass.

With 8:08 left in the game, the Panthers recovered a fumble at the Chelsea 43. On a second down and 18 play, Wirebaugh hit Oliver again for JCW's third and final touchdown.

Chelsea got as far as the Panther 12-yard line in the second half, where the Dogs failed on a fourth down and two situation.

Chelsea takes on the improved Dexter Dreadnaughts this Friday for homecoming.

For several years Dexter has had a strong defense and virtually no offense. This year is a different story.

Dexter running back Andy Walsh, probably the best in the Southeastern Conference, will provide a tough test.

"This is not a typical Dexter team," LaFave said.

"Up front on offense they are as good as anyone, and Andy Walsh is outstanding. They're also very strong defensively. We'll have a difficult time moving the ball."

Dexter's main weakness has been its passing game, but that may not be such a big handicap considering the success Chelsea has had against the pass in recent games.

Dexter is 2-1 in the league and 3-2 over-all. They whipped Lincoln last Friday, 28-3. They also beat Jackson County Western early in the season.

Chelsea is 1-2 in the league and 1-4 over-all.

JVs Top County Western For Second Grid Win

An interception by defensive back Chris Underhill set up the only touchdown of the game as the Chelsea Bulldog JV football team won its second straight game, 6-0 over Jackson County Western at home last Thursday, Oct. 1.

Underhill returned the first-quarter interception 23 yards to the JCW 23-yard line. An eight-yard pass play from quarterback Kyle Plank to Jim Hadley scored the only touchdown.

JCW never came close to scoring as the JV defense put forth one of their best efforts of the season against a wishbone offense, according to coach Wayne Welton.

JCW didn't complete a pass the entire game.

"We moved the ball OK, but a couple of breakdowns and a few sacks kept us from scoring more," Welton said.

"We had one wide open dropped pass that would certainly have put us in good scoring range."

Plank completed five passes on the night, three of them to Hadley. Matt Herter rushed for 63 yards.

Welton said he was impressed by virtually the entire defense, in particular the play of strong safety Casey Ruthenberg. In addition, he praised the play of defensive ends Tim Vanschoick and Ron Stacey, linemen Lucky Beeman and Todd Hand, and backs Underhill, Chad Raymond and Jeff Hood.

The blocking of Beeman and Lance Satterthwaite on offense also impressed Welton.

The JVs improved their record to 2-3. They'll face Dexter away this week with a chance to even their mark.

WAYNE WESTON of Pinckney, originally of Chelsea, shot this three-point buck last Thursday, Oct. 1 in Waterloo during the first day of bow season. Wayne shot the 120-pounder from a tree stand at about 8:15 a.m. He said that earlier he saw six other deer but they were too far away.

Lincoln Outruns Boys Despite Top Chelsea Times

Despite career best times from the top eight Bulldog cross country runners, the Lincoln Railsplitters were able to outrun Chelsea for a 24-31 win at Inverness Golf Course last Wednesday, Sept. 30.

"The times of our top eight runners would have beaten any team we have run at Inverness in the last seven years," said Chelsea coach Pat Clarke.

"Lincoln is definitely one of the top 10 teams in the state."

Bulldog John Cattell won the race in 17:02, just ahead of Blaine Lacanaira of Lincoln at 17:10.

Chelsea junior Paul Hedding placed third in 17:12.

Lincoln won the meet based on taking the next four places.

"We just didn't have the strength in the middle," Clarke said.

Finishing behind Hedding for the Bulldogs were Dave Kvarnberg, 8th, 17:36; Brian Zangara, 9th, 17:48; Mike LaVigne, 10th, 17:50; Holden Harris, 11th, 18:00; Matt Riemenschneider, 14th, 18:35; Dave Freitas, 15th, 18:40; Chris Cheng, 19th, 19:22; Jim Hassett, 20th, 19:37; Alex Hammerschmidt, 22nd, 19:59; Craig Zuehlke, 23rd, 20:33; Joe Williams, 24th, 20:34; Kelly Beard, 25th, 20:35; Chris Burkel, 27th, 21:01; David Steele, 28th, 21:14; Erich Hammer, 29th, 22:01; Paul Boyers, 31st, (Continued on page 22)

Chelsea's Girl Harriers Trounce Railsplitters

Chelsea girls cross country team won their third league meet of the season last Wednesday in convincing fashion by shutting the Lincoln Railsplitters out of the top 14 positions.

The final score was 15-50, the best finish possible.

"We are continuing to improve," said Chelsea coach Pat Clarke.

"Now if we can only avoid injury."

One of Clarke's good young runners, Angie Nagel, suffered a leg injury and will be out for a while.

As so often happens, captains Kasey Anderson and Jennifer Rossi finished one-two with times of 20:19 and 20:47, respectively.

Sarah Grau, who ran a personal best time of 21:28, took third place, just ahead of captain Alisha Dorow at 22:35.

Behind Dorow were Becca Burkel, 5th, 22:37; Sheila Haab, 6th, 22:37; Wendy Hunn, 7th, 23:17; Kim Roberts, 8th, 23:18; Ann Brosnan, 9th, 23:26; Stephanie Wagner, 10th, 23:53; Kim Allen, 11th, 24:13; Anna Muncer, 12th, 24:22; Nagel, 13th, 24:23; Brenda Brede, 14th, 24:28; Charity Strong, 16th, 25:14; and Leisa Schiller, 17th, 25:22.

Burkel and Haab had personal best times.

"Our seniors are continuing to lead the way with their fine performances," Clarke said of Anderson, Rossi and Dorow.

The Bulldogs took first place in their own invitational last Saturday at GRIDDERS OF THE WEEK are, from left, seniors Randy Ferry, Joel Boyer and Cory Johnson. Randy is one of the few guys who plays both ways, lining up at tight end on offense, and defensive end. It's a tribute to his athletic talent because the coaching staff lets only the best Bulldog athletes play both on offense and defense. Previously he has played both offensive and defensive tackle, and linebacker. Last year he made the Southeastern Conference honorable mention team as an offensive tackle. Randy also enjoys baseball and was a relief pitcher on the varsity team last spring. His hobbies include working with cars. Randy is keeping his options open for after graduation. He'll go to college, go to work, or join the armed forces. He's the son of Ronald and Frances Ferry, 14072 North Territorial Rd., and brother of Ronald, Jr., and Craig, who plays for the freshman team this season. Joel is the son of Winston and Judy Boyer, 515 Chandler St., and brother of Jamie, 29, Bonnie, 27, Jeff, 25, and Heidi, 15. He plays left guard on offense, but previously played right guard and center. Joel's a member of the National Honor Society and is active in the Key Club and Police Explorer program. In his free time he enjoys hunting and weight lifting. He's won the Rotary Youth Leadership Award, Police Explorer Marksman Award, and has been a squad leader and member of the honor platoon at the Police Explorer Academy. After graduation he'd like to attend a military academy. Cory is the son of Darlene and Gary Johnson, 542 Oakdale St., and brother of Gary, Jr. and Jason. Jason ("J.J.") is a manager of the football team. Cory plays offensive tackle for the Bulldogs in his second year on the varsity. Football is Cory's only sport, but he keeps busy in the National Honor Society, Key Club and CHS chapter of Students Against Drunk Driving. His hobbies include car repair and snowmobiling. Cory plans to join the Navy after high school.

Cagers Rally Past Lincoln, Knock Off Class C Addison

Chelsea varsity basketball team edged the Lincoln Railspitters last Tuesday, Sept. 29 in Willis, 47-43, to hold on to a share of the Southeastern Conference lead.

In non-conference action last Thursday, Chelsea whipped class C Addison at home, 48-38, to run their record to 6-2.

Chelsea had to rally from a 9-6 first quarter deficit after playing "very poorly," according to coach Rahn Rosentreter. The Bulldogs were outrebounded 12-2 in the first period, and committed four turnovers.

The poor play continued well into the third quarter until Jenni Smith and Jeannie Heim came off the bench to spark the Bulldogs to a two-point lead after three quarters.

"Allison Brown and Peggy Hammerschmidt were having a tough night under the basket," Rosentreter said. "Jenni and Jeannie were so quick inside that they really helped spark us. Their play was the key to the victory."

Heim scored on four of the first five shots she took, putting Chelsea back in the lead. Smith finished the game as the team's leading scorer with 13 points, 10 on field goals. Together they scored 21 points.

"We played very poorly as a team but still got the win and that's difficult to do

SPORTS NOTES

BY BRIAN HAMILTON

Amid all the excitement of Chelsea High school football, the Tigers' pennant chase, and the Jessica Hahn situation, I nearly forgot that one of Michigan's most popular sports seasons is upon us once again.

Dead deer season.

Dead deer, according to the Department of Natural Resources, are supposed to turn out in record numbers this year. In fact, I saw one just last week in its usual fall pose—lying down with its tongue stuck out, as if to gesture, a tad too late, "ha, ha, you missed!"

This is good news, this new dead deer season, unless you happen to be a deer. It means millions of dollars will be pumped into Michigan's motel, diner and drunken stupor industries. It also means that thousands of deer will be saved from starvation or being hit by pick-up trucks.

Oct. 1 was the beginning of bow-and-arrow season, or rather, deer hunting with bow and arrow season. It will be followed by firearms season.

I read somewhere that all hunters, with the exception of bow hunters, I guess, are required to wear hunter orange when tramping about in the woods.

There ought to be a similar requirement for pedestrians who simply might want to go out collecting, which could be a very dangerous activity this time of year.

I would advise anyone who walks anywhere out in the country to wear some bright color or risk an arrow or bullet in the gut. At least leave the brown fur coats and fake antlers at home.

This is particularly true if you happen to be out in the country working in the back of a pick-up truck, since it appears that 99 percent of all deer are shot there.

I lied in the first paragraph of this column. Chelsea High school football has not been exciting this year, with the exception of the Milan game.

The Bulldogs have been shut out twice. They've scored one touchdown once, and two touchdowns twice.

The play has been about as inspiring as last week-end's NFL scab games. (The big difference here is the varsity Bulldogs could strike for better steaks or easier classes, but it's likely the substitutes would be just as good as the regulars.)

Last Friday was the worst, for fans and players alike.

It rained like crazy before the game, it was miserably cold, and the Bulldogs didn't really come close to scoring.

Meanwhile, a freshman quarterback for Jackson County Western was picking the Bulldog secondary apart. In addition, the wishbone offense employed by the Panthers seemed to be causing a lot of problems.

Head Coach Gene LaFave promises some line-up changes. He is looking at the last four games as a kind of second season, which seems to be a good attitude to take. If the Bulldogs dwell too much on what has happened, they might not make the best of the rest of the season. They can still finish with a winning record and a 4-2 mark in the conference. The way this season is going, 4-2 could be good enough for a share of the championship.

The Bulldogs, really, are not all that bad. There are many good athletes on the team. But they have a nasty habit of beating themselves with turnovers and other less obvious mistakes.

This would be an excellent week for a turnaround. It's homecoming and the Dexter Dreadnaughts are making the journey down Dexter-Chelsea Rd.

The Chelsea football team has made the Dreadnaughts look like second stringers over the last few years. It's been quite some time since they've even scored a touchdown against Chelsea.

It's very unlikely that streak will continue. Dexter whalloped the Lincoln Railsplitters last week, 28-8. They have a good shot at winning the Southeastern Conference, especially if their offense continues to improve. LaFave says that Dexter running back Andy Walsh is the premier athlete in the league.

Walsh can run and catch better than anyone in the SEC, even though he's a little guy. He's also probably the fastest player Chelsea will face all season. Imagine a guy about the size of Larry Nix, who's much faster than Curtis Heard, and can catch like Todd Starkey. That's Andy Walsh.

As usual, the Dexter defense is strong.

Chelsea Netters Nip Saline Second Time

The Bulldog tennis team reaped its revenge upon the Hornets this week, beating them 4-3. This makes two out of three times that the girls have played Saline this month and defeated them.

"This is our third year in a row to beat Saline at least once and it sure feels good," coach Terri Curtis said. "We have been the underdog for so long. We have had a good up-and-coming team for the past four years and have finally made it. However, Chelsea has seven seniors out of its top 10 players and will lose those this year. It could be a while before we are able to have such a season again. The Bulldogs at present are 8-4, having lost only to Columbia Central, Saline, Greenhills and Lumen Christi. We hope to be 11-4 by the end of this week and hope to place well in the Regionals held Friday in Mason," coach Curtis continued.

On Monday the Bulldogs played Greenhills, there, but were able to take only one point from a very good team. Angel Lawton at third singles played a 2 1/2 hour three setter against Jennifer Cox. Angel took the first set fairly easily, 6-2, and then dropped the second set, 3-6. She came back again, playing very strong and confident, winning the third, 6-3. "We could have played better against Greenhills but were quite worn from Saturday's invitational," coach Curtis said. Chelsea lost 6-1 to Greenhills.

The only bright spot in the match against Lumen Christi on Tuesday was a three setter played by third doubles, Laura Comeau and Jennifer Robinson who fought valiantly but couldn't pull out a win. They lost, 6-1, 4-6, 6-4. Christi won over Chelsea, 7-0. "They are the toughest team we play," Curtis said.

Against the Hornets, the girls played one of the best matches of the season. They seemed to lack enthusiasm at the beginning but really put their hearts into the match and defeated Saline a second time.

Angie Miller frustrated Erin Bowbeer of Saline, getting six games from their top player. Jenny Pichlik took three from Nicole Stanbridge second singles. Angel Lawton went three sets with Jenny Mrozinski and won 6-4, 4-6, 6-3. She got the winning point for the Bulldogs when both teams were tied 3-3. Ada Tai won her first set over Penny Clements 6-0 but had a fight on her hands, going 7-5 in the second.

First doubles, Kelly Stump and Arlene Tai finished off their opponents Lisa Cunkle and Liz Szufner 6-2, 6-0. Minta Van Reesma and Allison Thornton won their first set handily, 6-0, but almost blew it in the second. The set tied at 6-6 and a tiebreaker was played. The tie-breaker went to 10-8, very exciting and nerve wracking. Chelsea came out on top, winning the set 7-6. Both Chelsea's third doubles were ill for this match and had to be replaced by the only two JV players. Leslie Manning and Lissa Hamrick stepped into a tough spot but played well for their first year experience, losing 6-0, 6-2 to Jenny McCartney and Theresa Padilla.

Chelsea's next and final meet will be the Regionals at Mason this Friday.

Both Harrier Teams Ranked In State Poll

Both Chelsea cross country teams are ranked among the state's best.

The girls are ranked second behind Jackson Lumen Christi, and just ahead of Grand Rapids Catholic. Southeastern Conference foe Milan is fourth. Saline is 10th.

The Bulldog boys are ranked 16th. No other SEC team is ranked ahead of Chelsea, although coach Pat Clarke said the Lincoln Railsplitters should be among the top 10.

"It's all based on how you do at invitational," Clarke said.

Jamie Hoffman Shakes Hands With Law Enforcement Elite

Jamie Hoffman calls the 1987 National Law Enforcement Explorer Academy, "the best learning experience I've ever had," and it's easy to see why when she lists the people and places she was able to meet and visit, and classes she attended.

The academy was held July 6-17 in Washington D.C. for 40 of the brightest young people from across the country who have participated in local law enforcement explorer posts. Jamie, a senior at Chelsea High school, is one of the original members of the Chelsea Police Explorers. She was one of two people from Michigan to attend. She had to pass a difficult application process and then only one in 10 were invited.

In addition to meeting President Ronald Reagan (several of her friends saw her on a national news telecast), she met and took classes from FBI special agents, had dinner with Maj. Gen. Eugene Cromartie, head of the investigative division of the U.S. Army, in the Officers' Club at Ft. Meyer, and met the acting director of the FBI.

Jamie also visited the Drug Enforcement Administration, FBI Headquarters, FBI Academy, Andrews Air Force Base, the Supreme Court, and U.S. Secret Service Headquarters in Beltsville, Md.

"I can't imagine them making the academy any better," Jamie says.

"The program was very well put together and they treated us like adults. The only complaint I have is that sometimes our eating time was a little rushed."

All the students stayed in dormitories at Georgetown University. The federal government picked up the entire tab, with the exception of transportation there and back, and extra spending money.

Some of the classes included "Executive and VIP Protection," "Personality Profile," "Law Enforcement Aspects of Behavioral Science," and "Constitutional Law."

Jamie also had the chance to do a little extra sightseeing as most evenings were free. She says she particularly enjoyed seeing a play at Ford Theater.

Jamie is the daughter of Paul and Sharon Hoffman, 15450 Cassidy Rd.

Tankers Improve But Lose to Albion

Thursday, Oct. 1 the Chelsea swim team lost to Albion, 100-72 in Albion. However, the Bulldogs continued to improve their times.

In the 200-yard medley relay, the Chelsea A team swam to a second place with a time of 2:11.55, as freshman Michelle Hollo swam a career best swim in the breaststroke leg. Chelsea B team of Maria Kattula, Meredith Johnson, Lori Wetzel, and Jill Nowatzke swam to fourth with a time of 2:21.9.

In the 200-yard freestyle, the Bulldogs saw junior Jenny Anderson swim to a career-best time of 2:20.7, good for second place. Teammate Kenyan Vosters finished fourth with a time of 2:27.53 and Tricia Colbry swam to a 2:28.39 clocking.

In the 200-yard individual medley, Chelsea senior Sharon Colombo improved her personal-best by two seconds and won the race with a 2:32.92 clocking. Other finishers in the race included Karen Grau, fourth with a 2:39.8, and Melissa Johnson, fifth, with 2:52.2 clocking.

In the sprint race, the 50-yard freestyle, the Bulldogs were swept but saw a good performance by freshman Jennifer McEachern as she broke the 30-second barrier for the first time in her life, taking fourth with a time of 29.89. Teammates Tami Harris and Jill Nowatzke finished fifth and sixth, respectively.

In diving, senior Deanna Zangara finished third with a total of 168.35 points, sophomore Debbie Webb finished fourth and Heather Bro placed sixth, diving with the varsity for the first time.

In the 100-yard butterfly, Chelsea swam to a second-place finish with Harris leading the way with a second place finish in 1:18.97. Colbry finished third in 1:21.83, and Wetzel finished fifth with a career best of 1:23.45.

In the 100-yard freestyle, McEachern continued to improve as she registered a 1.5-second drop off her career best time and swam to a third place with a 1:08.91. Meredith Johnson finished fourth with a career best 1:10.06 and freshman Jennifer Payne finished with a career best of 1:14.97.

In the distance event of the night, Grau finished second with a time of 6:11.12, and Anderson swam her fastest 600 of the year and finished third with a time of 6:22.42. Freshman Shana Vosters finished sixth with a time of 7:06.01.

In the 100-yard backstroke, Colombo swam to within two-tenths of a second of the state meet qualifying time while finishing first with a time of 1:08.56.

For her performance in the backstroke and the breaststroke Colombo was elected by her teammates as the swimmer of the meet.

In the 100-yard breaststroke, Hollo had the highest Chelsea finish with a time of 1:22.11. Kenyan Vosters came in close behind with a time of 1:22.32, and Meredith Johnson swam to a 1:29.05.

In the 400-yard freestyle relay, the Chelsea B team of McEachern, Payne, S. Vosters, and Wetzel finished with a time of 4:49.95. The Chelsea A team was disqualified due to an early start.

On Saturday, Oct. 3 the swim team competed in the Fenton Tiger Relays and finished seventh with a total of 166 points.

The highest place for Chelsea was the 200-yard backstroke relay of Grau, Kattula, Anderson, and Colombo.

Finishing fourth were the 400-yard individual medley team of Harris, Grau, Anderson, and Colombo.

Finishing fifth was the 200-yard breaststroke relay team of Payne, Meredith Johnson, Hollo, and Kenyan Vosters.

Also finishing fifth was the 200-yard medley relay team of Colombo, Hollo, Harris, and McEachern.

Finishing sixth was the diving relay of Deanna Zangara.

The next meet for the Bulldogs is at Ypsilanti Thursday at 7 p.m.

JV Cagers Crush Lincoln and Addison

Chelsea Bulldog junior varsity basketball team won both games last week, whipping the Lincoln Railsplitters on Tuesday, Sept. 28, 50-38, and Addison on Thursday, Oct. 1, 48-31.

In the Lincoln game, Chelsea took a 15-6 first quarter lead and never led by fewer than eight points the rest of the game.

"We applied good pressure in the first quarter and were able to get inside," said Chelsea coach Paul Terpstra.

Chelsea took a lot of shots, 79, but picked off 46 rebounds. They made 24 of the shots for 30 percent efficiency, a relatively high number for the JVs.

Colleen Scharphorn paced the Bulldogs with 18 points. Scharme Petty was the only other scorer in double figures, scoring 12. She also had 14 rebounds.

Other scorers included Tiffany

Moore, Kate Dilworth, Carrie Flintoft and Mercedes Hammer with four each, and Christy Petty and Shannon Losey with two each.

Moore also had 11 rebounds.

The Addison game followed much the same pattern. Chelsea started strong and took a commanding 17-3 lead. The game never got close from there.

Again, Chelsea shot well, hitting 16 of 32 from the free throw line and 16 of 59 (27 percent) from the floor.

Steals and turnovers were equal at 15 each.

Scharphorn led the Bulldogs with 19 points, and Scharme Petty added 12. Other scorers included Hammer with eight, Flintoft with five, Dilworth with two, and Petty and Moore with one each.

Moore, Scharphorn and Hammer each had seven rebounds.

Bulldog Freshmen Crush Stockbridge With Offensive Show

Chelsea Bulldog offense exploded for eight touchdowns last Tuesday, Sept. 20 as the freshmen whipped the Stockbridge Panthers 56-20.

The offense was stopped only one time all night. Running back Jude Quilter scored four touchdowns behind a line that had little problem springing him loose.

"Over the first part of the season, the kids had to build up their confidence," said Chelsea coach Jim Tallman.

"And now they're starting to assert themselves."

Chelsea had to come from behind as the Panthers scored the first touchdown of the game. The game was relatively close toward the end of the first half at 22-14. But the Bulldogs went on a rampage from there and were never really threatened.

Quarterback Tucker Steele opened the scoring for Chelsea on a 15-yard option play. Quilter's 45-yard scamper set up the score. Steele passed to Kerry Plank for the two-point conversion.

A 32-yard pass from Steele to Plank set up Steele's second score off the option, and Chelsea led, 14-8.

Plank scored the third touchdown, combining on a 50-yard pass play from Steele.

Credit the next two touchdowns to Quilter, the first on a 57-yard run. Steele's kick-off return to the Panther 48 began Chelsea's sixth touchdown drive. Soon afterward, Steele's 23-yard run moved the ball to the Panther 10. Quilter scored his third touchdown from there.

Quilter ran 54 yards for his fourth touchdown, and the team's seventh. Garret Kern carried the ball for the two-point conversion.

The Bulldogs' final touchdown was set up by a punt return to the Panther 45. Steele's 30-yard run put the ball at the Panther five, where Kern carried the ball for the score. Rick Westcott ran for the two-point conversion.

Tallman praised the play of center Brian Brock, who was playing his first game at the position. Also earning praise were offensive tackle Nick Houle, offensive guard Randy Seitz, running back T.J. Hackworth, safety Dan Tassinari and outside linebacker Joe Manns.

Michigan Pharmacists: Your Prescription to Good Health

With the dramatic changes in today's health care and the growing concern for quality care, more people than ever are turning to their pharmacist for specialized service and advice. Consumers should feel free to ask their pharmacist questions about the medications they are taking. This year's Michigan Pharmacist Week, Oct. 11-17, 1987, provides the ideal opportunity for consumers to start taking advantage of the services and information that can be provided by their area pharmacist.

Today's pharmacists are highly trained and knowledgeable professionals. With the help of your pharmacist, you can learn more about your medications. Michigan Pharmacist Week is a time for the consumers to ask their pharmacist for advice and recommendations on personal health care. Many people want and need more information about their medications, and they shouldn't be afraid to ask their pharmacist for fear that they will appear foolish.

"Pharmacists are more than willing to help their patients by sharing their knowledge and expertise on medications," says Larry Wagenknecht, Executive Director of the Michigan Pharmacists Association. "Patients need to realize that pharmacists provide services beyond 'simply filling a prescription'."

Consumers should feel free to confide in their pharmacist for information and instruction on intelligent medication-taking behavior. Patients are reminded that every time they purchase a medication, they should be able to answer these questions before leaving the pharmacy:

- What is the name of the medication?
- What is the medication for?
- What is it supposed to do?
- When should it be taken? (Before or after eating? On a full or empty stomach? At bedtime or on arising?)
- Is there anything that shouldn't be mixed with the medication? (For example, alcohol, dairy products, or other medications.)
- What side effects might occur with the medication?
- Is there a generic medication available?

Pharmacists not only "fill prescriptions," they provide consumers with important services, such as checking for possible drug interactions and allergic reactions. Whether it is dispensing a prescribed medication from the patient's physician or giving advice on one of the numerous over-the-counter medications available, the pharmacist can provide proper professional care by explaining what the medication is supposed to do and instructing the patient on how each medication should be taken to obtain the best therapeutic results.

So why wait any longer to learn more about the medications you use? Your pharmacist is ready to help you. Remember, you don't have to call in advance or make an appointment to talk to your pharmacist. Just go to your local pharmacy and ask your pharmacist. After all, Michigan pharmacists are your prescription to good health!

Social Security Payments Total $11.5 Monthly in County

The Social Security program provides monthly benefits to retired and disabled workers, their eligible spouses and children, and to eligible survivors of deceased workers. In order for benefits to be paid, a worker must have sufficient earnings in covered employment to gain insured status. Monthly benefits are payable to a retired worker at age 62 or to a disabled worker at any age. Auxiliary and survivor beneficiaries must generally meet an age, a disability, or a child care requirement. A worker's benefit amount is related to covered earnings averaged over a working lifetime. Amounts for auxiliaries and survivors are based on a percentage of the worker's benefit.

Nationally, in December 1986, benefits were paid to 37,708,000 persons. This number included 23,011,000 retired workers, 5,290,000 widows and widowers, 2,727,000 disabled workers, 3,389,000 wives and husbands, and 3,291,000 children. Social Security beneficiaries represented 15.3 percent of the total population of the United States.

Nationally, retired workers received an average of $488 per month; widows and widowers (non-disabled), $444; disabled workers, $488; wives and husbands of retired and disabled workers, $241. Average payments for children of deceased workers were $337; for children of retired workers, $204; and for children of disabled workers, $141.

Monthly payments in December 1986 totaled $16.5 billion. Of this amount, $12.1 billion was paid to retired workers and their dependents; $2.9 billion to survivors; and $1.5 billion to disabled workers and their dependents.

In Michigan, benefits were paid to 1,427,000 persons. This number included 848,000 retired workers; 210,000 widows and widowers; 112,000 disabled workers; 128,000 wives and husbands; and 128,000 children. Social Security beneficiaries represented 15.6 percent of the total population of the state.

Retired workers in Michigan received an average of $521 per month; widows and widowers, $465; disabled workers, $259. Average payments for children were $369 for children of deceased workers, $250 for children of retired workers; and $158 for children of disabled workers.

Monthly payments in December 1986 for Michigan totaled $671 million. Of this amount, $477 million was paid to retired workers and their dependents; $125 million to survivors; and $68 million to disabled workers and their dependents.

In Washtenaw county 22,500 retired workers, their dependents and survivors of insured workers received $11,582,000 each month. In addition, 3,500 disabled workers and their dependents were paid $1,501,000 each month. 1986 SSI recipients in the county totaled 2,353 and were paid $601,000 monthly.

Young Adults Learn Leadership in Exploring

Exploring is the young adult organization of the Boy Scouts of America (BSA). In the late 1960's the BSA realized the need for a career oriented emphasis in scouting and organized Exploring to meet this need.

Dr. Karl Edelmann, a family physician at the Family Practice Center in Chelsea is interested in beginning an Explorer Post in the Chelsea area. Dr. Edelmann is "willing to sponsor" this group because it "provides an opportunity for young people to gain experience in human relations, organizational structure, planning, goal setting and understanding of the medical field."

Since medicine is a major interest area of Exploring, Dr. Edelmann believes "students can gain information concerning careers in medical fields by working with staff at the Family Practice Center as well as other medical professionals in the community. "What we really need to get this program off the ground," continues Edelmann, "is volunteers from all walks of life within the Chelsea Community to help in working with this Explorer Post."

Dr. Edelmann is an Eagle Scout and former post president of a Medical Explorer post. He has been active in scouting for 17 years. He is a graduate of the University of Michigan Medical School and is now a resident at the University of Michigan Family Practice Program at Chelsea.

Anyone interested in helping with this organization should contact Dr. Edelmann at 971-0273.

Area Agencies Join Battle Against AIDS

Acquired Immune Deficiency Syndrome, or AIDS, is still an incurable, deadly disease that affects thousands of Americans. Several Washtenaw United Way agencies supply support and aid to victims of this fatal illness.

The American Red Cross (971-5300) tests all donated blood for the HIV antibody. If the donor tests positive for the HIV antibody, the blood is destroyed. A Red Cross nurse meets with the donor and recommends that he or she see a physician for further tests.

For people who have transfusions prior to March 1985 and are worried about possible contamination, the Red Cross will test them for the presence of the HIV antibody.

To fight further spread of the disease, the Red Cross will soon offer an AIDS education program aimed at junior high and high school students, a work place awareness program for adults, and a general public education program for clubs and organizations.

Child and Family Service provides counseling and a Home Health Care program for AIDS patients and their families. Through their chemical dependency program—C.L.E.A.R. House (663-2500)—Child and Family reaches out to another high-risk group: intravenous drug abusers. Phil Mosby, director of C.L.E.A.R. House, says the program tries to "help the individual substance abuser identify whether he or she is in a risk-behavior situation. Do they use other people's needles? Have they had sex with other IV drug abusers?"

steep hill to get to the house, then walk across the deck.

An officer from the Department of Natural Resources disposed of the carcass and would not let Leidner keep the meat because he feared there was something wrong with the deer.

Leidner could only speculate as to why the deer decided to jump through the window. However, he suspected the wounded leg might have had something to do with it.

Leidner said his only regret is he didn't keep the trophy-sized rack.

GINGER WATSON OF GRASS LAKE, will demonstrate rag rug weaving in the Waterloo Farm Museum's loom room on Pioneer Day, Oct. 11. Other events will include wagon rides, sheep shearing, lace-making, portraiture, and house tours.

PAT AESCHELMAN, member of the Gregory Spinners, will spin on both the walking wheel and the grand wheel in the log house on the Waterloo Farm Museum grounds on Pioneer Day, to be held this Sunday, Oct. 11 from 1 p.m. to 5 p.m.

PEG STOFFER OF GREGORY, shown sitting in the Waterloo Farm Museum kitchen, will demonstrate on Pioneer Day, Oct. 11, how pioneer grandmothers simultaneously churned butter, rocked a cradle with their foot, and read the Bible. Items for sale on Pioneer Day will include herbal handicrafts, Michigan-made gifts, and farm-baked goods.

ROLAND STOFFER, past Waterloo Area Historical Society president and master blacksmith, will handcraft iron sconces in the Waterloo Farm Museum's forge on Pioneer Day, Sunday, Oct. 11. The farm at 9998 Waterloo-Munith Rd. may be reached by taking M-52 north to Waterloo Rd., to Munith Rd., or by taking I-94 west to Clear Lake exit to Munith Rd.

Pioneer Day Slated Sunday At Waterloo Farm Museum

In 1844, when Jacob Ruehle immigrated from Endersbach, Germany to become a farmer in Waterloo, Mich., he couldn't have realized that in 1987 his farm would be dedicated as a museum to perpetuate Michigan's pioneer farmer.

Since 1962 the second Sunday in October has been set aside annually by Waterloo Historical Society for the harvest festival, "Pioneer Day," held at both Waterloo Farm Museum and Dewey School Museum.

The 1986 annual Pioneer Day is slated for Oct. 11, 1 to 5 p.m. at the Farm Museum, 9998 Waterloo-Munith Rd., and at Dewey School Museum, located three miles from the Farm Museum, at Meyer and Territorial Rd.

During the Civil War a recruiting officer spelled the name Ruehle as "Really" and Jacob retained the spelling after the war.

The Really mid-Victorian farmhouse became the showplace of the area. However, by 1962, prior to the death of the last Really descendant, the farmhouse had fallen into sad disrepair. It was then that Waterloo Historical Society acquired the property, and the work of volunteers, plus contributions of many benefactors made possible its restoration.

The 10-room house is furnished with Victorian furniture and fittings, china, art, clothes belonging to the times and area. Outbuildings include windmill, workshop, granary, barn, bake house, milk cellar, ice house, (gift shop) and 1840's log house.

Oct. 11 will mark the 25th Pioneer Day for the Waterloo Farm Museum, as well as the 24th year for Dewey School Museum. Featured this year will be farm animals, sheep-shearing, and horse-and-cart rides down a country road. There will be a portrait artist, as well as exhibitions of spinning, lace making, weaving, basket making, and candles, sauerkraut, cider, and soap will also be made on museum grounds. Butter, fresh from the churn, may be sampled on crackers, as well.

Food which may be purchased include beans, molasses cookies, and breads baked in an outdoor bake house. Sloppy Joes, hot dogs, doughnuts, cider, and coffee will also be available. Farm produce, including pumpkins, vegetables, herbs, grapevine wreaths, dried flowers and bittersweet, will also be featured, as well as honey, jams and jellies, and prize-winning baked goods.

Tours of the farmhouse will be conducted by WAHS guides. The Gift Shop will offer Michigan-made gift items. Tickets for the Society's Sesquicentennial Quilt may be purchased until 5 p.m., when the quilt will be awarded.

Dewey School Museum will be entertaining in a mid-1900's schoolroom, with a genuine schoolmarm treating visitors to schoolhouse-shaped cookies, and lemonade. Special Sesquicentennial attraction will be a two o'clock concert presented by a group of fifth grade students performing songs of Michigan, and other folk music. They will be directed by Richard Borden, Stockbridge elementary school's director of music.

There is no admission to the grounds at Waterloo Farm Museum, but a tour of the house is $1.50. Dewey School Museum charges no admission, but a free-will donation is accepted. Both museums provide a great way to celebrate autumn in the country through Pioneer Day activities. This is also an opportunity to show support of two fine area museums.

Interested in School Financing Alternatives

Current consideration to move school financing funding away from property taxes is of interest to farmers because they pay a large part of the state's property tax bill, according to Michigan Farm Bureau's senior legislative counsel, Robert E. Smith.

"Property taxes provide an unreasonable amount of the cost of education," Smith said. "Any school finance reform will mean a shifting of taxes to some other areas such as the state sales tax or the income tax as some people are recommending."

Smith said he believes that the school financing formula will be changed in some way, but that any change would have to be approved by a vote of the people.

Free Cat Care Clinic Offered By Humane Society

The autumn season is upon us, and that kitten you adopted in the spring may now be as big as Garfield and twice as clever! It's the perfect time to learn more about the fascinating feline. Don't miss the Cat Behavior and Care Clinic offered by the Humane Society of Huron Valley.

HSHV's staff veterinarian, Dr. John Smith, will be conducting this clinic. He will cover topics such as cat behavior, feeding tips, litterbox training, grooming, nail trimming, and health care. Also featured are demonstrations by Dr. Smith and a question and answer period.

The clinic will be held on Thursday, Oct. 8 from 6:30 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. in the Red Historic Schoolhouse in the Village of Dixboro at the intersection of Plymouth and Cherry Hill Rds. It is free to the public but please, leave your pets at home. Relevant pet care literature will also be available at no cost.

For directions or more information, please call the Education Department at 662-5545.

Herman Koenn Is Delegate to State Grange Convention

Legislative policy for 1987/88 for the Michigan State Grange, the first farm organization in Michigan, a grass roots farm, family, community organization, will be determined at the 114th annual convention Oct. 14-17. Roland G. Winter, master (president) of the State Grange, Marshall, will preside over the meeting which will be held at the Ramada Inn, Sault Sainte Marie.

Dr. Paul Kindinger, director of the Michigan Department of Agriculture, will address the convention Thursday afternoon, Oct. 15.

Richard Allen, Michigan's Business Ombudsman will speak to banquet participants Saturday evening, Oct. 17.

Convention highlights include awards for community service, needlework and toy contests, photography contests and programming. It is expected that over 6,000 hand-made stuffed toys will be donated by Grange members. The toys will be given to hospitals and special schools throughout the state.

Area delegates to the 114th annual convention from Washtenaw county are: Herman Koenn, master of Pittsfield-Union Grange, and his wife, Louise. Herman is vice-chairman of the Michigan State Grange Executive Committee.

Girl Runners Win Invitational

Hudson Mills Park, whipping eight other teams.

Two runs were held, one for freshmen and sophomores, and the other for juniors and seniors.

Anderson took second place in the junior-senior race in 19:55. Other finishers were Rossi, 4th, 20:50; Dorow, 12th, 22:06; and Hunn, 23rd, 22:26.

In the freshman-sophomore race, Issel led the Bulldogs, taking 4th in 21:26, just ahead of Grau in 5th at 21:27. Other Chelsea finishers were, Roberts, 13th, 22:57; Burkel, 14th, 22:59; Brede, 16th, 23:24; and Wagner, 22nd, 23:54.

"The girls ran well Saturday," Clarke said.

Brenda Brede had a personal best time and won a medal. We had 11 medal winners."

LLOYD BRAUN AND JERRY HELMER auctioned off goods at a fast pace at the Methodist church auction, Oct. 1, starting at 4 p.m. When no one bid on one item, they gave it away to a child in the audience. Items auctioned included small household goods and larger pieces of furniture. Among the donations were two organs and a wicker basket for a hot-air balloon.

Board OKs Evaluation Plan

Chelsea school board approved the new administrative evaluation instrument recommended by the board personnel committee at the Oct. 5 school board meeting. This method of evaluation was developed by a committee of board members and administrators and will be used for the 1987-88 school year as a pilot program.

Assistant superintendent Fred Mills presented the 1987-88 budget, showing that the estimated income is $8,802,216, while estimated expenditures are $8,892,139. The $89,923 deficit will be covered by the $134,000 balance from the 1986-87 budget as planned when the last millage passed.

It was reported that the school transportation program has been evaluated by the Michigan School Business officials. The work was done by Gene Garrison, director of transportation at Michigan State University, who made a number of recommendations, some more practical than others.

High school biology teacher Sandy Kutschinski was recognized for continually seeking ways in which to improve her teaching methods.

Two communications were received, one from Richard and Carol Murphy thanking Sally Proctor for her rapid response to a kindergarten bus route adjustment, and one from the family of Elmer Lindow, a bus driver for more than 30 years, thanking the board for their sympathy at the time of his death.

Schools Will Redeem Campbell Products Labels

North school, South school, and Beach Middle are again collecting Campbell's Labels for Education. Many different kinds of labels qualify: All Campbell products (front portion of labels from juice, soup, beans, and fresh produce); Prego spaghetti sauce labels; Swanson (labels from cans, purchase confirmation seals from frozen); Mrs. Paul's fish products (quality pledge); Vasic Pickles (jar lids); Recipe dog food labels; V-8 juice labels; Juiceworks (UPC symbol); Franco-American; Campbell's soup mix (bottom flap UPC panel) and Pepperidge

Farm (UPC symbol).

In the past, labels have been redeemed for cassette players and recorders, slide projectors, filmstrip viewers, globes, books, and other learning materials.

If you have children attending one of these schools, be sure to send in your labels. If you do not, you may deliver them yourself, or ask a student to deliver them to the school of your choice.

Barbara Locks of North, Laurel McDonald of South, and Sue Beard of Beach Middle Library/Media Centers all appreciate your support.

In 1895, we helped a deaf man hear.
Today, we can help the whole family.

Back in 1895, in a purely voluntary gesture, Dr. D.D. Palmer helped restore a janitor's hearing. By manually re-aligning a vertebrae in the janitor's cervical spine (neck), he relieved the stress on the nerve system, and subsequently, the man could hear again more normally. Since then, the chiropractic profession has grown into the largest drugless health care profession in the world. Today, chiropractic health care is directed at helping the whole family feel its best, with emphasis on preventative health care, as well as correction of illnesses. To find out more about the healthful benefits of regular chiropractic check-ups, make an appointment today.

Missionary Couple Will Speak At Chelsea Free Methodist

Dr. and Mrs. Robert Cranston, missionaries to Southeast Asia since 1963, will speak at the Chelsea Free Methodist church, 7665 Werkner Rd., Chelsea, at 6 p.m. on Sunday, Oct. 11. Bob and Carolyn Cranston have served as Free Methodist missionaries to the Philippines, Indonesia, and India, with the bulk of their service in the Philippines. Along with Dr. Cranston's stationed missionary work, he acts as Area Administrative Assistant for Southeast Asia. In this capacity he gives direction to the conference in India and the Philippines.

The Cranstons' work in the Philippines has centered principally in Butuan City, Mindanao, where they've worked in training pastors and directing church growth efforts. Dr. Cranston has served as director and teacher in the Light and Life Bible College and chairman of the mission. During this past term, he and his wife headed up the establishing of the Light and Life Graduate School of Theology, a school to up-grade the training of experienced pastors.

In addition to teaching, Mrs. Cranston has served as librarian in the Bible schools in Butuan City, given assistance in school libraries in Manila and Yavatmal, India, and coordinated the child care ministries program. In the conference she has been active with children's and women's groups.

The Cranstons worked from 1978 to 1980 in Indonesia. Following this assignment they spent several months in India filling in for furloughing missionaries.

They have four married children. The public is invited to hear about the exciting church growth taking place in the Philippines today. A nursery will be available. For more information please call (313) 475-1391.

Dr. and Mrs. Robert Cranston

Free Flowering Trees Offered For Membership

Ten free flowering trees will be given to each person who joins the National Arbor Day Foundation during October, 1987.

The Foundation will give two White Dogwood, two American Redbud, two European Mountainash, two Washington Hawthorn and two Flowering Crab trees to members joining during October. The free trees are part of the Foundation's efforts to improve the quality of life in America by encouraging tree planting.

"The National Arbor Day Foundation is encouraging more people to plant trees in the fall, which is an excellent time for tree planting," John Rosenow, the Foundation's executive director, said. "So we're giving these free flowering trees to people who make a $10 membership contribution during October."

"These trees were selected because they will give a colorful flowering of pink, white, and red blossoms throughout the spring," Rosenow added. "The six-to-twelve inch trees will be sent postpaid at the right time for planting between Oct. 15 and Dec. 10, with enclosed planting instructions. The trees are guaranteed to grow, or we will replace them free of charge."

To become a member of the Foundation and to receive the free trees, a $10 membership contribution should be sent to Flowering Trees, National Arbor Day Foundation, 100 Arbor Ave., Nebraska City, Neb. 68410, by Oct. 31.

McKUNE MEMORIAL LIBRARY NEW BOOK LIST

OMAMORE by Richard McGill. An epic tale of a magnificent and forbidden love. The unforgettable story of the generations of two powerful families—one American, the other Japanese—whose lives are inextricably bound by the traditions of a great dynasty. Within its pages a drama of extraordinary resonance and power unfolds that fulfills the promise of our most memorable novels.

In 1871, Andrew Napier, a young American adventurer, and Fujio Hosokawa, scion of a once-proud samurai line, set their seals to the document that would create Hosokawa-Napier, Ltd. From ancient Hosokawa lands would come the raw silk with which to weave a fortune; from Napier's gifted hands the machines to supply a waiting world with lustrous cloth. Thus were two families' fates interwoven in a partnership that would flourish for three generations.

IT'S ALL IN THE PLAYING by Shirley MacLaine. This fifth volume of Shirley MacLaine's memoirs is the culmination of her unique personal odyssey. For her it is not enough to know that she has lived before, she has to know how and why. She has to know what meaning it has for her life, and how it will shape her future. Shirley MacLaine has traveled extensively on her own all over the world. Her experiences in Africa, India and the Far East formed the basis for her first two books, while her deeply personal investigations into the spiritual realm were the focus of Out On A Limb and Dancing In The Light.

THE SILK VENDETTA by Victoria Holt. This is Victoria Holt as the unchallenged queen of romantic suspense with a dazzling succession of over 25 international bestsellers. Now she is at her mesmerizing best as she weaves a captivating tale of passion and intrigue, family fortunes, and deadly betrayals.

Once a hunting lodge for English kings, the majestic Silk House now stands as a testament to the Sallonger family's time-honored tradition of exquisite silk making. The great estate is also home to the spirited Lenore Clermont and her grandmother, who works as a designer for the legendary silk firm. Here the young Lenore is educated with the wealthy Sallonger children but also trained in the art of dress-making by her grandmother. As the girl matures, her charm and beauty win the hearts of both Sallonger sons. But Lenore cannot foresee that this exciting newfound love will bring both tragedy and peril.

FAMILY: THE TIES THAT BIND AND GAG! by Erma Bombeck. A blending of generations and relationships, the story of a strange little band of characters trudging through life sharing diseases and toothpaste, coveting one another's desserts, hiding shampoo, borrowing money, inflicting pain and kissing to heal it in the same instant. Erma Bombeck contemplates her long marriage: "We have to stay together. We need each other to finish a sentence."

IN THE NAME OF THE FATHER by A. J. Quinnell. A riveting novel of global intrigue that sweeps from the rarefied sanctum of the Vatican to the highest echelons of the Kremlin. Moving from the secret corridors of Rome through the glamorous capitals of Europe and even behind the Iron Curtain, In the Name of the Father will forever alter your perceptions of the power wielded by the Vatican, the secrets buried in the Kremlin.

BELOVED, by Toni Morrison. A story set in post-Civil War Ohio, of Sethe, an escaped slave who has risked death in order to wrench herself from a living death; who has lost a husband and buried a child; who has borne the unthinkable and not gone mad; a woman of "iron eyes and backbone to match." The intensity and resonance of feeling, and the boldness of this narrative, lift it beyond its particulars so that it speaks to our experience as an entire nation with a past of both abominable and ennobling circumstance.

EVELYN WAUGH: THE EARLY YEARS by Martin Stannard. In this important new biography, Martin Stannard gives the most detailed account ever published of Waugh and his work. The author rejects the stereotyped image of Waugh as the brilliant clown, and in its place we see a more complex and sympathetic character and above all, the serious artist.

Crafts Workshop Offered County 4-H Club Leaders

Washtenaw county adult and teen leaders are invited to attend a 4-H Visual Arts and Crafts Workshop, Oct. 23-24, at Kettunen Center, the state's leadership training facility in Tustin.

Purpose of the workshop is to provide an opportunity for leaders to refine their skills and learn new arts and crafts techniques to teach to other 4-H leaders and members.

Visual arts sessions will include art and architecture, as well as basic elements of art. Participants in the workshop may choose to attend several sessions on such crafts as candlewicking, clay sculpturing, glass etching, drawing, and matting and framing pictures.

A highlight of the workshop will be the annual crafts auction, which will be held the evening of Oct. 23. Arts and crafts pieces, supplies and other craft-related materials donated by participants, clubs, leaders and counties will be sold at the auction.

Reservations are due Oct. 9. For more information about the workshop or any other 4-H activities, contact the Washtenaw County Cooperative Extension Service Office, or call 971-0079.

VFW AUXILIARY PRESENTED FIVE CLASSES at North school with brand new American flags on Sept. 22 and Sept. 30. They also taught the classes how to say the Pledge of Allegiance, gave an explanation of what it means and what to do when a flag passes in a parade, and gave each child a card with the Pledge of Allegiance on one side and the American Creed on the other. The classes receiving flags were Mrs. Peebles' first grade, Mrs. Schulte's second grade, Mrs. Hansen's second grade, Mrs. Hafer's fourth grade, and Ms. Vogel's first grade. Shown are Gertie O'Dell, Eulahlee Packard, and Lois Speer in Ms. Vogel's class.

VFW Auxiliary Presents Flags to North School

Another trip to North school was made on Sept. 30 by VFW Auxiliary No. 4076 Americanism chair, Eulahlee Packard, to complete the presentation of American flags to the classrooms. Helping with this project was Gini Boyer, the auxiliary's community service chair, and Mac Packard, VFW post member.

Mrs. Peebles' first grade and Mrs. Schulte's second grade were the recipients. The 47 children in the two classes were taught the proper way to carry, hold, and salute the flag. A Pledge of Allegiance card was given to each child and a pamphlet, "Our Flag," was given to each teacher.

That same afternoon found them at the home of Cale Bertke where a new Cub Scout Den, No. 6 of Pack No. 435, were meeting for the first time with Mrs. Eric Batzdorfer as their leader. Ten Cub Scouts were shown how to fold the American flag, taught proper respect when carrying it in a parade, and were given Pledge of Allegiance cards. Mrs. Packard told the group that she had been a den mother back in 1944 when Chelsea had only two dens and one pack.

Friends of Library Plan Remodeling

Friends of the McKune library has decided their next projects will be carpeting the library and remodeling the librarian's office. Board member Anne Merkel explains that the rugs in the library are "500 different colors." A new carpet of one pattern will brighten the library and give continuity to the rooms.

The Friends have been working steadily on refurbishing the library, choosing projects as urgency and money dictate. They have been following a general plan developed by architect Henry Kowalewski.

When all the work in the circulation area is completed: the lighting repaired, the magazine room fixed up, and everything painted and carpeted, the Friends will host an open house and dedication.

A long-term goal of the group is to build an addition, either on the back of the library or on the side near the Pump and Pantry. An addition would give more room and allow for a bigger children's section. Merkel hastens to add that this project is "far down the road." To do it, the group will have to raise a considerable amount of money. They will also apply for grants.

A more immediate project of the Friends is to start a "Christmas buy-a-book for your library" drive. Staff and board members are now in the process of compiling lists of adult fiction and non-fiction, children's books, read-along cassettes, records, and videos which people may buy for the library. Each donor will have a special book plate placed in the book with his or her name on it.

Merkel got the idea from frequent library user Bill Bott who saw this system work in Florida when he was vacationing there. Last year the Educational Foundation of Dexter held a similar drive to add books to their school libraries. If the drive is successful, the Friends may make it a yearly or bi-yearly effort.

The Friends of the Library board is composed of six members serving three year terms. In addition to Merkel, they include president Anne Belser, Gary Zenz, John Groesser, Daphne Hodder, and Susan Walters.

Chelsea Nurses Attend Childbirth Convention

By Linda Warren, R.N.

Linda Warren and Cyndi Bower, Registered Nurses at the University of Michigan Family Practice Center attended the 1987 International Childbirth Association Convention (ICEA) held in Washington, D.C., Aug. 14-16.

Ms. Bower and Ms. Warren hope to use the information they learned at the workshop in the early pregnancy class they teach at the Family Practice Center for women living in the Chelsea area.

The pregnancy class focuses on a healthy beginning which helps to influence a healthy outcome for mothers, babies and families.

Over 50 workshop sessions were offered at the conference and topics included pre-natal exercise, nutrition, sibling preparation, consumerism, creative teaching techniques, and positive birth experiences. Some of the interesting facts the nurses learned at the conference included:

- Blood Cholesterol levels are normally elevated in the later stages of pregnancy and return to pre-pregnancy levels after the birth of the baby.

- Strenuous exercise during pregnancy should not produce a maternal heart rate above 140 beats per minute.

- In 1985, 22.7% of the births in the United States were by Cesarean Section. Currently, the over-all success rate of a vaginal birth after a previous Cesarean Section delivery is 85% depending, of course, upon the original reason for the Cesarean Section.

The ICEA unites people who support the concept of family-centered maternity care and believe in freedom of choice based on knowledge of childbirth alternatives. The 1987 conference was directed toward childbirth educators, nurses, midwives, physicians and group administrators who work with women in childbirth-related fields. ICEA has approximately 10,000 members in 32 countries around the world. Over 650 participants attended the 1987 conference.

Utilizing the current information gained at the workshops, both Ms. Warren and Ms. Bower, hope to develop a more comprehensive pregnancy program for Chelsea area women.

LINDA WARREN, R.N.

School Daycare Program Gets Month Extension

Chelsea School District's Before and After daycare program at Chelsea Free Methodist church has been given another month of life.

The program, which was nearly cancelled before it began due to a lack of interest, will continue at least through October, according to Community Education Director Jackie Rogers.

The program is for children who need daycare before school starts and after school is out. Based on national trends, the community education department believed there would be a big demand for such a program.

However, there are still only five children enrolled.

The department has sent a questionnaire home with all elementary age children to try to find out what people need in a daycare program.

Morning activities at the center include storytelling, reading, coloring, drawing, painting, board games, playing with playdoh and a quiet time.

After school activities begin with a snack and sharing time. Afterward, a craft is planned followed by a period of free play in which children can utilize the games and equipment provided. There is also a study area available.

The last 45 minutes are spent in outdoor activities such as soccer, baseball, kickball and jumprope.

One day a week, the children cook their snack, such as muffins, pizza, or cookies. Also, a video movie is shown once a week.

Waterloo Natural History Assoc. Offers Program On Floating Bog Origin

This week-end's offering by the Waterloo Natural History Association is "The Floating Bog." Naturalist Dorothy Blanchard will lead a hike through the beech woods to the Waterloo Nature Center's floating bog to learn about the role of glaciers in the formation of Michigan's inland lakes and to examine the insectivorous plants, sphagnum moss, and other attractions. Those wishing to participate should meet at the Nature Center parking lot at 1:30 p.m., Saturday, Oct. 10.

Chelsea Players Annual Meeting Slated Thursday

Chelsea Area Players will be holding their annual meeting on Thursday, Oct. 8, at 7:30 p.m. at the Chelsea High school board room. All current members, as well as any other persons interested in becoming involved with future productions, are invited to attend.

Five board members will also be elected at the meeting. Any one who is a member of the Chelsea Area Players can run for a board position which is a three-year term.

The five board members whose terms are expiring are Jan Baltzell, Norma Graflund, Ruth Kenny, Don Paulsell, and Debbie Olson. Also, the one-year term of the past president, Mike Long, is expiring. Continuing on the board are Brenda Beaver, Clara Smith, Joe Diederich, Al Anderson, Sue Carlson, Julie Vorus, Bev Slater, Jerri Cole, Sue Williams, and Jerry Martell. Continuing as president is Pat Paulsell.

The upcoming winter play, "See How They Run," will be discussed as well as starting plans for next summer's musical. Also, the last of this past summer's activities will be discussed.

Chelsea Area Players would like to congratulate the winners of the two drawings conducted from those attending the summer musical. Winner of the night for two in a poolside room at Weber's in Ann Arbor is Butch Harms of Stockbridge. Winner of a gift certificate at Dayspring Gifts in Chelsea is Arline Lynch of Chelsea. The Players would also like to thank all those who helped make this past summer musical and other events a success. And plan to come to the general meeting with lots of ideas for the coming year. IT WAS A NIGHT OF FUN for members of the Chelsea Community Fair Board, directors and friends as they held their annual party last Saturday, Oct. 3 at the fair service center. Dancing to the tunes of Tracey Lynne and the Mountain Express were Walt and Sandy Zeeb, left, and Mr. and Mrs. Luke Schable.

Meijer's Not Building This Year On Jackson Rd.

Meijer's thrifty acres is not planning to start construction in Scio township this year as stated in this paper last week. The quote to this effect applied to their Pittsfield township site.

Meijer did tell Scio township supervisor Dick DeLong that they planned to build in Scio but did not specify a date. What they said was "Meijer is delighted to see this development and growth as it is our intent to construct a Meijer store on our site. We will keep you informed of our plans as they develop."

Flasher Approaches South School Girls

Two South Elementary school girls were accosted by a man who exposed himself to them as they were playing on the school's playground last Monday, Sept. 28.

The girls, described only as upper-grade girls, reportedly realized they could be in trouble and ran into the school where the custodian notified police.

The incident took place shortly after 5 p.m.

According to police, the girls were playing on playground equipment when the man got out of his older model car, walked toward them and sat down. A short time later he walked closer to them, pulled down his pants and exposed his genitals, and tried to talk to the girls.

Police said the man, in his late 20s or early 30s, told the girls he was going to take a walk on the nature trail at the school. Then he reportedly asked the girls if they wanted to take off their clothes.

The girls were interviewed by police.

The incident prompted both South and North school principals to send a letter home to parents describing what happened and how children can deal with any similar encounters.

"I treated it as something parents should be aware of," said South school principal Bob Benedict.

Lori Krull Visits Husband in North Carolina

Lori Krull left Sept. 4 for North Carolina to visit her husband, Scott Krull, who is in the Marines at Camp Lejeune. Lori stayed with friends she met while Scott was stationed in South Carolina. She arrived home Sept. 26 and is staying with her mother, Luella, in Unadilla.

Community Choir Starting Rehearsals

Chelsea Community Choir will hold their first meeting of the season on Monday, Oct. 12 at 7:30 p.m. at Beach Middle school choir room. Choir director Jack D. Bittle says anyone who would enjoy singing Broadway musical selections, spirituals, and popular ballads is welcome to join. There are no try-outs, participation is determined solely by interest.

The choir, which is organized under the auspices of the Chelsea Community Education Program, rehearses every Monday night from 7:30 p.m. to 9 p.m. They meet both fall and winter semesters, ending each session with public performances.

The $20 fee which goes for administrative costs and for supplies such as music, may be waived, according to Bittle, if there is a hardship, with the participant contributing work instead of money, doing such things as setting up chairs before concerts.

Bittle describes the choir as being composed of men and women from all walks of life who sing as a hobby and enjoy a night out. Last year there were 36 members with a variety of professions ranging from dentistry, to the ministry, to flower delivery. The group sings four-part harmony, accompanied by Betty Rasmussen on the piano.

Bittle has been leading the choir for the last four years. Chelsea had a community choir previously, but it had been inactive for a number of years before Bittle took over. Only three people attended the first meeting called by Bittle in the fall of 1983, but those three recruited friends and soon there were about 20 attending rehearsals.

Bittle is well-qualified for the job, having graduated from the University of Michigan with a degree in music. While in college he played in both the symphony and marching band. Like Al Townsend, founder of the Ambassadors who attended U-M at the same time, Bittle worked as a school band director before being promoted to an administrative position.

Bittle was the band director in Sturgis, later becoming principal of Sturgis High school. At present, he is employed as executive director of the Michigan Association of Secondary School Principals.

While in Sturgis, Bittle directed a church choir and also organized a community choir. The Sturgis community choir became so good that Bittle was able to take it on three European tours.

Bittle has lived in Chelsea since 1981, selecting this town because he wanted to live in a small town between Ann Arbor, where his office is, and Lansing, where he frequently goes on business.

The fall semester of the choir will run from Oct. 12 to Dec. 7; the winter semester from Jan. 4 to March 29. Last year, at the end of the fall semester, the choir gave three Christmas performances; for the Kiwanis Club, for the Senior Citizen's banquet, and at the Festival of Carols that the area churches put on. At the end of the winter semester they always present a formal spring concert which is free to the public.

To register for the choir, participants should attend the first rehearsal. For further information, call the Chelsea Community Education Office, 475-9830.

Dental Anxiety: Differences in Perspective Between Dentist and Patient

Despite the fact that a visit to the dentist today is virtually pain free, the number one fear among dental patients is the "sound and feel of the drill" according to a recent survey generated by a dental products manufacturer.

Dentists, on the other hand, thought that anesthetic injections would cause the most patient anxiety the survey found. More than 40 percent of the patients listed the fear of the drill first on the dental anxiety list. The cost of dentistry placed second with 22 percent of patient respondents, and injections were third with 20 percent of respondents. Two out of three dentists - 68 percent - assumed that injections would cause the most patient anxiety.

Patients should be thankful that dental drills have undergone dramatic improvements in recent decades. Not too many years ago belt driven dental drills rotated at only about 50,000 revolutions per minute. At the turn of the century things were even worse. Not only was there little or no local anesthetic available, but dental drills were driven by a foot pedal pumped by the dentist while he worked, similar to old sewing machines! Today's modern air-turbine dental drills rotate at speeds up to 450,000 revolutions per minute. These extremely high speeds require a constant water spray to cool the tooth and the drill and prevent overheating. They also allow for a much smoother and efficient operation than in the old days!
