CHELSEA UNITED WAY CAMPAIGN received a $5,000 donation from BookCrafters, Inc., last week. Making the check presentation is BookCrafters Vice-President Charles Presley. Accepting the money is Lois Emmert a member of the United Way board.

Catherine McAuley Plans New Chelsea Out-Patient Facility

Catherine McAuley Health Center is planning to build an out-patient health care facility in Chelsea.

The center has taken an option on eight acres of land in the village, said Bill Brauker, assistant director of community relations for Catherine McAuley.

The land involved is the Schneider estate on M-52 opposite Chelsea Family Practice Center. That land was discussed this summer as the site of a future office complex. One of the owners, Peter Flintoft, went as far as drafting an ordinance for a planned office district and presenting it to the village planning commission for consideration. However, his application to have the zoning changed was abruptly withdrawn.

"Catherine McAuley Health Center has always had great support from the Chelsea area and a good relationship with Chelsea hospital," Brauker read from a statement.

"We have been working to continue that support through a variety of options. We have exercised an option on an eight-acre parcel of land across from Chelsea Community Hospital as a potential site for an out-patient health care facility. This is all in a very preliminary stage. No final decisions have been made. We are contining to discuss with the Chelsea hospital Board of Directors other ways to strengthen our relationship with Chelsea hospital."

Brauker said the facility could be similar to the McAuley-McPherson Health Building in Brighton, which contains physicians' offices, x-ray facilities, a pharmacy and other services.

Brauker did not speculate on what services might be included or how big the facility might be.

Catherine McAuley operates similar out-patient facilities in Canton, Plymouth and on Maple Rd. in Ann Arbor.

Belser Estates Plat Given Initial Approval

The plat for Belser Estates, the 75-unit subdivision planned for the eastern edge of the village, was given preliminary approval by the Chelsea Village Council at their regular meeting Tuesday, Nov. 3.

Council also voted against the planning commission's recommendation to allow roll curbs instead of barrier curbs, which are standard in the village.

An initial motion by trustee Joe Merkel to allow the roll curbs was voted down, 4-3, with trustees Richard Steele, Dennis Hall and Gary Bentley, and village president Jerry Satterthwaite voting no. Merkel was supported by trustees Phil Boham and Stephanie Kantan. A second motion to require barrier curbs passed by the same margin.

Roll curbs, proposed by Belser, would allow a homeowner to build a driveway without making a $500-$700 curb cut because they do not have a barrier. In addition to the cost to the homeowner, Belser argued that the curbs would be aesthetically more pleasing and would "be something new and different for the Village of Chelsea."

Assistant village manager Lee Fahrner argued that the roll curbs would make street repairs far most costly in the long run because the streets cannot be capped easily. Satterthwaite said he was concerned about safety, especially in winter, when a vehicle in more likely to slide off a road. He also said he didn't think the cost of a curb cut was likely to present a hardship to someone who could afford to build a home in the development. Homes are expected to range between from $110,000 to $160,000.

Belser said the cost of installing a barrier curb is about the same as a roll curb.

Council supported a recommendation by the village administration and the planning commission to have "stub streets," or future access streets to developments on adjacent property, run to the property line. However, the streets would not be paved and curb would run across them. The stub streets would be finished if adjacent property is developed.

In a related action, council voted to zone the Belser property RS-1. That would allow for single family homes with garage apartments or other rental property on the premises.

Most of the Belser property, previously zoned for agricultural use, was annexed into the village this summer.

Belser Estates has begun constructing a model home on the southwest corner of its property on Freer Rd. near Mayer Dr. The 2,000-square-foot home will be one story and brick, according to Belser.

Mayer Dr. will eventually be extended across Freer Rd. to create the primary access road into Belser Estates, Belser said. However, it will not be called Mayer Dr., he said.

With the initial approval of the plat, Belser can legally begin to market lots in the development.

Belser told council he will probably not be able to start site development until next spring. In addition to completing all the engineering work, the state highway department has to give approval for road work to begin and the drain commissioner's office has to sign the final site plans. However, the drain commissioner and his assistant both recently resigned and as of press time no one had been appointed to replace them.

Landfill May Be Closed Over Licensing Dispute

Expressing its frustration over recent dealings with the Department of Natural Resources, Chelsea Village Council voted to close the Werkner Rd. landfill to non-residents if the village is not issued a license by the state before the current cell runs out.

Assistant village manager Lee Fahrner told the council on Tuesday, Nov. 3 that he has been trying to secure a license from the DNR for the new cell since May. The current cell, he said, could be filled in as little as two weeks.

However, Fahrner said he has been informed by the DNR that the new license may not be issued until Dec. 13, the end of the 90-day application review process.

Fahrner said he is trying to set up a meeting with the DNR this week to straighten out the situation. Fahrner also said the DNR has given a verbal OK to begin filling the new cell.

"We were fined $5,000 by the DNR for something we didn't do," said Village President Jerry Satterthwaite in voting for the closure of the landfill. Satterthwaite was referring to the fact that the village was recently fined for not having its wastewater treatment plant in compliance even though the village tried for several years to obtain a grant for a new plant.

"We want something in writing," Satterthwaite said.

"We don't want to be put in the position of operating without a license."

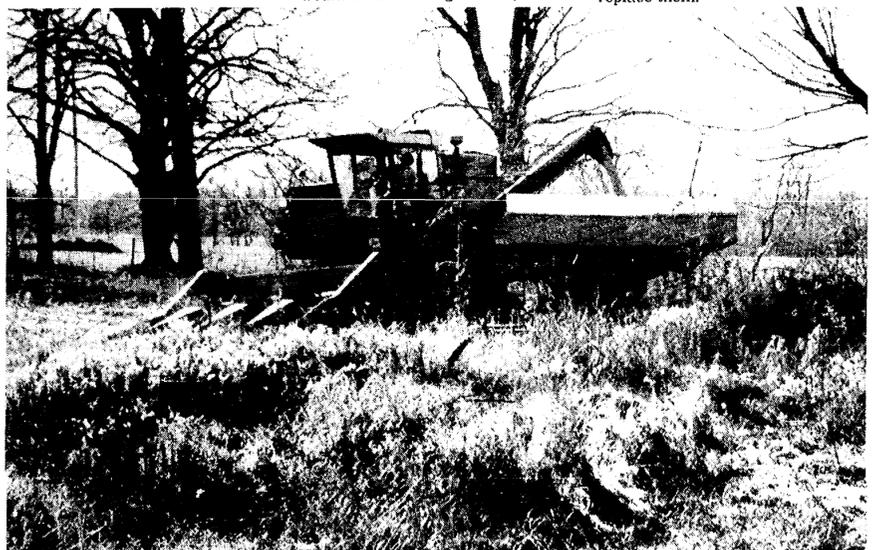

The vote gave the village administration the power to close the landfill at its discretion.

Fahrner also expressed his displeasure at the fact that the DNR's district geologist has determined that another groundwater monitoring well needs to be dug.

"The groundwater monitoring system was installed in 1984 and at that time they thought it was adequate," said Fahrner, who was the village's consulting engineer on the project before being hired as assistant village manager.

Fahrner also told the council that the DNR has linked the new license with having the inactive cell capped.

FALL CORN CROP is way down due to the drier than normal on average, but in some places yield is about 20 percent of normal. Yields are running about 60 percent of normal.

Dry Summer Weather Cuts Corn Crop Yields

Hot and dry weather last summer has taken its toll on this fall's corn crop in the Chelsea area.

In some cases, according to Washtenaw County Extension Agent Bill Ames, yields are down to less than 20 bushels per acre. He said most farmers break even with a yield of 80-90 bushels per acre. Last year's crop produced from 120 to 140 bushels per acre, Ames said.

Jerry Heydlauff, manager of Honegger's Inc., a local grain elevator, said he's seeing average yields of 60-75 bushels per acre and says most of the corn is of high quality.

"Yields seem to be about 60 percent of normal," Heydlauff said. He said price is running about the same as last year, or about $1.50 to $1.60 per bushel.

"The ears are smaller and a lot of stalks are barren," Heydlauff said. "We don't have the long lines of trucks this year."

Ames said that, generally speaking, corn closer to Manchester was harder hit by the dry weather than corn closer to Stockbridge. However, he said there are pockets near Stockbridge where the corn probably wasn't even worth harvesting. He said that corn in Jackson county is in even worse shape than Washtenaw county.

"I've seen quite a little bit of stalk rot," Ames said.

"I've seen a lot of corn going down."

Stalk rot leaves a lot of mold and fungus on the plants, Ames said.

In addition, Ames said, some farmers have been particularly hard hit by hungry deer. A lot of the crop was eaten before it had a chance to mature. And now the dry corn is particularly attractive to them.

Chelsea-area farmer Harold Trinkle, who planted about 500 acres, said that his crop was better than expected, producing about 80-95 bushels per acre.

RE-ENACTMENT OF THE SCENE at Mt. Suribachi was a grim reminder of years past, portrayed on a float sponsored by the Manchester Men's Club in the Veteran's Day parade, Sunday, Nov. 8. Units from many veterans' organizations, in addition to Manchester scout groups, marched or participated in motorized units in the parade. The Manchester American Legion Post hosted a gathering for all parade participants, following the event.

PACK 477—
 We have started out to a good year with our new pack, everybody has given their all to get things going.
 All the dens are busy working hard to get the Bobcat, Wolf or Bear badges that they deserve for all that work to earn it, but it really was more fun than work, right guys?
 Well, we have many exciting events coming up in the next few months—roller skating, swimming and the ever-famous Pinewood Derby! Now that's a lot of fun and we have much more ahead too.
 Cub scouting is fun for the boys, but also for the parents as well. It's a great opportunity for us to spend that time with our children to see them and help them learn new things. There's nothing better than to see those smiles after accomplishing a certain task!
 We hope every boy will sign up for Cub Scouts, it's fun.

Governor Orders Partial Hiring Freeze

Expressing concern about the economy over the next two years, Governor James J. Blanchard recently ordered an indefinite partial hiring freeze for all departments except Corrections and State Police.
 The move would save an estimated $18 million this year ($70 million in 1988-89) and is in addition to the $131 million in vetoes and $40 million in administrative reductions he ordered in July and the $80 million in extra insurance taxes he is now recommending as a budget cushion.
 "It's a good way to make sure the '88 budget is balanced and the '89 budget, which will be tight, will be balanced no matter what the economy will do," Blanchard told reporters. He said the recent stock market "crash" has not yet directly affected the budget, but underscores the need to limit spending and keep the budget balanced.

The governor said he has not concluded that an additional executive order cutting budgets already approved will be needed, but said the freeze is a prelude to a very tight budget next year, which includes some additional federal cuts and reduced federal matching percentages in welfare programs.

The Department of Management and Budget has readied an $18 million executive order to help implement the $40 million in administrative reductions announced in July. The rest is to be ordered unilaterally, although officials said those cuts could also be included in the order.
 The governor said he had decided several weeks ago to pose the freeze to deal with a "long-standing problem" and announced the action after meeting with department directors. He said revenues, although meeting current projections, are not growing as fast as expenditures, and the cuts are especially needed to protect the 1988-89 budget.

Although corrections is exempt because of staff required for new prisons that will be opened, and State Police are exempt because of 120 troopers required to be hired with money raised under a $5 surcharge on traffic tickets, Blanchard said cuts will have to be made in other areas. "The goal is fewer employees," he said, adding layoffs would not be necessary.

Aides said the freeze during the 1987-88 and 1988-89 years should reduce the number of employees by 1,800-2,000. Current civil service employment is 62,841.

Management and Budget Director Shelby Solomon said the policy is designed to give departments flexibility, permitting one replacement for every three persons who leave and allowing other hires with approval of the DMB.
 Senate Majority Leader John Engler (R-Mt. Pleasant) supported the freeze, but said he hopes it will also be tied to freezes on taxes, regulations and contractual services. "Perhaps if we save enough money with freezes, it will keep the governor from devising more and more new schemes to raise taxes," he said.
 House Speaker Gary Owen

(D-Ypsilanti) said he believes the governor is recognizing the volatility of the budget and "is being as conservative as possible" in announcing the freeze.

But House Appropriations Chair Dominic Jacobetti (D-Negaunee) said the anticipated savings of $18 million "is just a drop in the bucket" in relation to the $6.5 billion state budget. If the governor can make the plan work, Jacobetti said he has no objections, but stressed it is important that services still be provided.

Senate Appropriations Chair Harry Gast (R-St. Joseph) said the action is "a good first step" with an executive order looming on the horizon. He said anticipated budget problems include additional appropriations for both corrections and social services.

Neither the administration nor the Senate Fiscal Agency had department-by-department projections on the impact of the freeze, although the larger cuts would obviously occur in the big departments such as social services.

Uncle Lew from Lima Says:

DEAR MISTER EDITOR:

Folks feel strong about land, but the fellers reminded themselves Saturday night at the country store that few of em feel the same way. About the only agreement to come out of their discussion of land was that the Good Lord ain't making no more of it.

Zeke Grubb got the item on the agender by noting that railroads all over the country are cutting back on track and giving up right to land under railroads they quit using. There's a lesson fer us all, Zeke said, in what happens to abandoned roadbeds. This feller says the land goes back to airs and assigns of whoever the Government give the railroad the right to take it from. The next feller feels just as strong that arguing over land ownership makes as much sense as fleas fussing about who owns the dog they live on.

Between private ownership and universal ownership, Zeke declared, is a range of views mighty hard to cover with policy, so we cook up zoning as the next best thing. Where Government has claims on land railroads give up, he said, it is turning rails into trails. The thinking must be to let people git out and do some walking and thinking. Maybe they will come to a new understanding on who owns this old world anyway, was Zeke's words.

Ed Doolittle, fer one, wasn't buying any. He stood foursquare fer private ownership. He said ever case of land being took over by Government is another case of Americans forfeiting rights they won more than 200 years ago. When private land becomes public land the public loses because upkeep goes up at public expense, was Ed's words. And this is true fer national forests, national parks, national anything.

Practical speaking, Clem Webster allowed, it's gitting to the place where turning land over to the Government is the only way to keep from turning it into shopping centers and parking lots. Developers come by waving big bucks and sudden the city lights look brighter to us country folks, Clem said. We can only hope Americans git to us before foreigners, he went on, because he sees ever year where the deed to another big chunk of America is somewhere overseas.

The sad truth is, Clem declared, we ain't never set no records fer foresight. How long is it going to be, he ask, until we need all them railroads we're plowing up so we can git back to economic transportation. How long before this land we're turning into public "scenic easements" is going to be needed to grow food?

Right now, Clem said, the oil glut has made diesel cars such a drug on the American market till one foreign maker is giving $4,000 bonuses to owners that will trade diesels in on new gasoline models. The company said diesels still are selling good in Europe, where fuel is three times what it is here. His guess is, Clem said, all them traded-in diesels made in Europe will head back home where they're appreciated and we'll keep barreling along until the next oil crunch when we'll wish we had em back.

Personal, from what I could figger, the fellers were agreed that we Americans still are holding true to our character. We're allus learning all there is to know about fighting the last war, but our memory is the world's worst.

Yours truly,
 Uncle Lew.

Chelsea Community Hospital Auxiliary is holding its annual Christmas Bazaar on Friday, Nov. 13 from 9:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. in the hospital dining room corridor.

Members have been busy preparing the following items for sale: pies, breads, rolls, coffee cakes, cookies, candies, brownies, bars, caramel corn, party mix, craft items, and Christmas decorations. Also for sale will be nuts, popcorn, trail mix, and cookbooks.

Along with the bazaar the auxiliary is selling tickets for a hand-made quilt made by members of the auxiliary which will be awarded along with a hand-crocheted collar, a gift from the Arbor Nook Gift Shop, and package nuts.

Landfill

"I think what they're doing is illegal," Fahrner said.

"The new cell is governed by a different act than the old one."

If the landfill is closed, trash from outside the village will have to be taken somewhere else. The closest landfill is in Ann Arbor, which is having problems of its own.

FOOD DRIVE for Faith-In-Action is being conducted by students at Beach Middle school. Seventh and eighth graders collected food as the admission price to their Halloween dance on Oct. 30. Sixth grade block classes are holding a competition to see which class can donate the most food, although each child has a limit he or she can

Police Make 330 Runs In October

Chelsea Police Department made 330 radio runs in October, 43 fewer than in September, according to the monthly report submitted by Chief Lenard McDougall to the village council.

Suspicious persons (31), suspicious incidents (18), suspicious vehicles (17) and civil disturbances led the list of general complaints.

Heading the list of felony complaints were larceny from a vehicle (6), prison escapes (3), and felonious assaults (3).

Larceny under $100 (5), malicious destruction of property (5) and bounced checks under $50 topped the list of misdemeanor complaints.

Five felony arrests were made for the month for a prison escape, assault, aggravated assault, possession of a stolen vehicle, and fraudulent purchase of a controlled substance.

There were eight misdemeanor arrests.

The department reported four runs outside the village totaling 55 minutes.

Proceeds for the month included $335 from parking violations and $879.43 from parking meters and fines.

Thief Takes $500, Radar Detector

A Gregory woman told Chelsea police that someone stole $500, a radar detector, and a wallet and purse from her car while it was parked in front of an East St. residence on Monday, Nov. 2.

The woman, who claimed she locked the car's doors, said the doors were unlocked when she discovered the theft. She said the money was taken from a plastic container inside her glove box, which was also locked. She said the thief apparently also tampered with the car's battery because the display from the digital clock was flashing.

Wheel Covers Taken From Car

Two wire wheel covers were stolen from a car parked at Chelsea High school on Friday, Oct. 30, Chelsea police reported.

The car belonged to a high school teacher.

Value of the wheel covers was estimated at $50-$60 each.

MEMBERS OF THE CHELSEA HOSPITAL Auxiliary were busy making items to sell at their yearly Holiday Bazaar when photographed on Nov. 4, in the volunteer room of the hospital. Items they were working on included miniature artificial Christmas trees, stenciled tea towels, and cones for starting fires to be sold in decorated baskets. The sale will be held Friday, Nov. 13 from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. in the hospital dining room lobby area. Crafts and baked goods will be for sale and as well as raffle tickets for crocheted collars, a gift certificate at Arbor Nook (the hospital's gift shop), and a home-made quilt now on display at Barbara's Needlework. Shown working on the bazaar items are Ann Lee, Sue Sciber, June Wilson, Pat Whitesall, Nettie Severn, Shirley Nickerson, and Mary Doan.

NOVICE DEBATE TEAM at Chelsea High school made a fine showing last Saturday, Nov. 7 at a 12-team tournament at Plymouth High school. Three individual awards went to Anna Flintoft (10th), Jason Overdorf, (7th) and Mindy Ryan (3rd). In addition, the team of Overdorf and Bill Coelius (affirmative) and Ryan and

WDC Plans 5th Annual Open House

Washtenaw Development Council (WDC), is holding its fifth annual Open House on Nov. 23, from 4 to 7 p.m., at the Sheraton Inn Grand Ballroom in Ann Arbor.
 The Open House provides an excellent opportunity for local businesses who are interested in expanding, to meet the WDC staff and become familiar with the council's services. The reception is equally as advantageous for businesses who are not already located in the county, but are interested in locating here.
 The reception features the Washtenaw County Developer's Showcase. Twenty-eight local developers will be displaying models, marketing materials and brochures of their projects. WDC expects a large turnout. Guests will include community, county and state government representatives and area business people. Musical entertainment will also be provided by the Jazz for Life organization.
 Businesses who are interested in expanding or locating in the county and would like to receive an invitation to the reception, are invited to contact Melanie Hartley at the WDC, at 761-9317. These requests will be considered on a first-come first-serve basis. Admission will be by invitation only.

County Historical Society Will Hear Willow Run History

During World War II a rural area in Washtenaw county with a meandering stream named Willow Run was hurriedly turned into a huge bomber plant turning out a B-24 an hour around the clock.
 Ms. Flavia Reps, a history teacher at Washtenaw Community College, will give a slide-tape show about the bomber plant at 2 p.m. Sunday, Nov. 15, at the Washtenaw County Historical Society meeting at the American Legion Home, 1035 S. Main, Ann Arbor.
 Ms. Reps headed an oral history study of the plant in which she sought interviews with persons who had had any connection with the plant. The study title was "The Impact of World War II on Willow Run."
 The meeting is open to the public free of charge. Refreshments will be served. There is free parking and handicap access.

Car Totaled by Hit and Run Driver

Chelsea police are searching for the owner of a 1986 or 1987 blue Ford Escort that was involved in a hit and run accident on Orchard St. on Thursday, Nov. 5 at about 10 a.m.
 The accident totaled a car owned by Vickie Haas of South Lyon, whose insurance will not cover the damage.
 A witness to the accident, at 151 Orchard St., said the car was driven by a white teen-age boy.
 "I won't press charges against the driver," Haas said.
 "I just want to have a car again."
 Haas said she would give a reward to anyone who could identify the driver of the car.
 Police said the Escort probably sustained extensive front end damage.

MARITAL TREATMENT PROJECT

If you believe that your spouse abuses alcohol and he or she refuses treatment, you may be eligible to participate in a treatment research program designed to help you with difficulties in living with an alcohol abusing marital partner. The focus of treatment will also include providing assistance in getting the alcohol abuser to do something about his or her drinking.

Participating spouses of alcohol abusers will receive up to six months of professional assistance free of charge and reimbursement for the time they give to the project in the research assessments.

The treatment program is provided through the Marital Treatment Project of the University of Michigan and the research is funded by U.S. Department of Health and Human Services.

For more information or to see if you qualify for participation in the treatment research program, call (313) 763-7574 or 763-7575.

VEIL: The secret wars of the CIA 1981-1987 by Bob Woodward. Using hundreds of inside sources and secret documents, Woodward has pieced together an unparalleled account of the CIA, its director and the United States government. VEIL is the story of the covert wars that were waged in a secretive atmosphere and became the centerpieces and eventual time bombs of American foreign policy in the 1980s.

spring-time in 1865. In Washington, a two-day military parade and gala proclaim the Union triumph. In Richmond, smoldering ruins testify to the Confederate defeat. The Civil War is over, but there is no peace.

scale; a startling conclusion to America's most infamous unsolved murder mystery. On Jan. 15, 1947, the torture-ravished body of a beautiful young woman is found in a vacant lot in Los Angeles. The victim makes headlines as the Black Dahlia, and her murder sparks the greatest manhunt in California history.

WASHINGTON WIVES by Maureen Dean. Only a woman who has been there could have written this explosively revealing novel of ambition, greed, sex, and social maneuvering—Washington style. The President's Chief of Staff is found dead—under suspicious circumstances—in the shower of a luxury hotel suite. A rich, beautiful woman was with him, a woman wearing a diamond bracelet. This is all the FBI knows but within five days the identity of the woman must be uncovered.

CARNIVAL OF SPIES by Robert Moss. With Carnival of Spies, Robert Moss has turned his brilliant imagination and his investigative skills to one of the most fascinating chapters in the secret history of the 20th century: the international Communist movement. In this sweeping novel, rich in history and steeped in romance, we witness and experience, with Moss' protagonist, Johnny, the Comintern's attempts at revolution in the turbulent decades between the world wars.

GLITTERING IMAGES by Susan Howatch. A novel of sacred and profane love, of worldly and spiritual striving, of the delicate border-line between illusion and reality. It takes us into the elegant, ostensibly decorous world of a great English cathedral in the 1930s. From the moment we enter Starbridge Cathedral, the scene darkens. At the center is Charles Ashworth, an Anglican clergyman, sent by the Archbishop of Canterbury on a discreet mission: to observe the Jardine household and to give warning if this potentially explosive menage might erupt into Church scandal.

SEARCHING THE SHADOWS by Barbara Michaels. Haskell Maloney is a thoroughly enchanting and altogether unexpected heroine who takes us from the fascinating finds of archaeological digs to the menacing riddles of a not-so-distant past in this mesmerizing tale of the past coming back to claim its due. A romantic, suspense novel.

FORTUNES by Vera Cowie. In the glamorous art-auction world where millions are bid for paintings, jewels, and antiques, a remarkable contest takes place between two beautiful and in their different styles, fiercely independent women for the possession of Despard's, the great international auction empire... and for the heart of the man who must supervise this bitter rivalry.

I LOVE YOU, LET'S WORK IT OUT by David Viscott, M.D. Why does a relationship you thought was made in heaven suddenly begin to come apart before your eyes? And what can you do to renew the love and trust between you—and make it even better? Dr. Viscott's new book is the ultimate guide for both partners in an intimate relationship. He addresses the many obstacles that can destroy a loving partnership. He shows you how to make the best of your time together, how to talk and how to listen, how to handle money, how to argue constructively, etc.

EPA Postpones Proposed Endangered Species Program

The Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) has postponed enactment of its endangered species program that would have eliminated the use of certain pesticides in some Michigan counties. While Farm Bureau is pleased with the postponement, the organization's public affairs director, Al Almy, is concerned about the EPA's new suggestion that states develop their own endangered species programs.
"Because of strong environmental concerns nation-wide, certain states might develop programs that are even more restrictive than the EPA proposal," Almy said. "The EPA plans to allow a public comment period on this issue, and we will have input at the public hearings."
Almy said Farm Bureau will also continue its support of a bill in Congress that would require an impact statement by EPA before any program is implemented.

Dexter Township Appoints Blight Inspector, Approves 17-Lot Subdivision Plat

Appointment of a blight inspector and approval of the preliminary plat for the second phase of the Wandering Hills subdivision were accomplished at the Dexter Township board meeting, Tuesday, Nov. 3.

Glenn Stidham was appointed blight inspector replacing Bob Burns who had resigned. Stidham and the board agreed to a six-month trial period to see if the job arrangement was mutually agreeable. Stidham had previously been hired by the board to do sign work and his son has been doing the grass mowing.

He will receive $4,000 a year to keep the township looking decent. By driving around and also by responding to complaints, he will try to keep the township free of such litter as old cars, abandoned equipment, junk, refuse, and cast-off materials.

According to Dexter township trustee Doug Smith, the problem is especially serious this time of year when many of the summer people leave without cleaning up projects they have been working on. The blight inspector gives offenders a reasonable time to clean up the offending items, after which he may fine them. As a final step, he may take them to court.

There were two other applicants for the job, but Smith said "We chose the one we knew and who we knew we could depend on."

The final approval of the preliminary plat for Wandering Hills was for the second phase of a residential subdivision off Island Lake Rd., near West Lake, half a mile west of Riker Rd. When completed, the subdivision will consist of 54 lots of about an acre each and an area set aside for a nature preserve.

The first phase consisted of the development of 16 lots, which now either have houses on them or ones in the process of construction. The second phase consists of 17 additional lots. After they are sold, further lots will be developed.

Roads for the 17 lots are now being constructed and home building will commence next spring or summer.

The second November meeting of the Dexter township board has been cancelled due to its nearness to Thanksgiving. The next board meeting will be Dec. 15.

Civic Foundation Re-Elects Officers at Annual Meeting

Twenty-seven members and grant recipients gathered Tuesday evening, Nov. 3 for the 1987 annual membership meeting of the Civic Foundation of Chelsea. It was an occasion for progress reports and the election of officers and trustees.

Ann Feeney, president, Carol Kvarnberg, secretary, and Jeff Stommen, treasurer, were elected to another year in office while Willard Johnson was elected vice-president and president-elect. He succeeds Bill Nuffer who will continue as a trustee.

Trustees with one year remaining in 1988 are Arthur Dils, Howard Holmes, Willard Johnson, George Palmer, Sheridan Springer and Raymond VanMeer. Those for two-year terms, 1988 and 1989, are Darla Bohlender, Carol Kvarnberg, Anita McDonald, Jackie Rogers and Jeff Stommen. Trustees for three-year terms ending in 1990 are Dennis Doan, Ann Feeney, Peter Flintoft, William Nuffer and Alice Thornton. Retiring as board members, after years of devoted service, were Walt Hamilton and John Mitchell.

Sandra Kirtley Campbell of the Ann Arbor Area Foundation addressed the meeting. She centered her talk on the similarity of goals and opportunities shared between the Ann Arbor organization and the Civic Foundation of Chelsea. The Ann Arbor foundation assets are now $3 million and this year they have given $150,000 to the community. Campbell felt that the Chelsea group might benefit by joining the Council on Michigan Foundations.

Recipients of 1987 grants welcomed the opportunity to report on the progress of their activities. Ruth Stielstra described a Nature Walk sponsored by the Chelsea School's Triad Enrichment Program and financed by a grant from the Civic Foundation. The funds were used to complete a project originated by a fourth grade student, Jessica Flintoft. The Nature Walk included an introductory sign and markers to identify plants and trees on a trail near the South school.

"Stonework of the Village of Chelsea" was presented by Tom Zieziul. This project was sponsored by the Chelsea Area Historical Society under a grant from the Civic Foundation. It provides for research, photos, drawings and a typewritten pamphlet on the unique stonework of homes, buildings and landmarks in the Chelsea area. Zieziul displayed project photos to members at the meeting and expressed the hope that the pamphlet will be completed by spring.

The distribution committee has considered a request from the Chelsea Depot Association for $5,000 to develop the Depot as a public meeting place and historical museum. Because the association also has a major funding request before the State Equity Fund, action on the Depot request was tabled by the distribution committee until a decision has been announced by the state board. The Civic Foundation will then be in a better position to make a meaningful grant to the Depot.

A grant of $2,000 in seed money has been awarded to the United Methodist Retirement Home to encourage local participation in a $3 million renovation campaign. Stressing the importance of local interest in the Methodist Home, which is non-denominational in its operations, the Rev. James Batten, executive director, said that the Civic

Local Woman Writes History Of Her Mennonite Grandparents

"Historical Events of My Mennonite Grandparents," by Dorothy Jean Bixel Aschenbrenner of Pinckney is a book that will be treasured by the author's relatives and enjoyed by others. Depending on the reader's age, it will either jog memories or paint a picture of life in years gone by.

Aschenbrenner started working on the book four years ago, after she lost both parents within two weeks. Gathering the family memories and heritage together helped her deal with the grief. She was assisted in her quest for information by many of her relatives.

Aschenbrenner explains in her preface that both her maternal and paternal grandparents were Mennonites and that both families originally immigrated to America from Switzerland. She says of her family, "They were law-abiding, hard working people." She continues, "We would do well to review these simple ways and beliefs of our forefathers. They had a deep faith in God and displayed respect and love for each other."

Both sets of grandparents lived on farms in Ohio; Christian and Paulina Bixel near Bluffton, and Samuel and Lydia Diller near Elida. Many of the memories and anecdotes related in the book deal with farm life, such as weekly out-door baking (bach offa), traveling with horse and buggy, first cars, sleeping on rope beds, the milk house, and the corn shelling machine. Whole chapters are devoted to apple butter time, butchering, and threshing.

Of special interest to quilting fans is the chapter on Paulina Bixel's quilts which is illustrated with 16 photographs. The family's appreciation of the quilts is demonstrated by fact that these quilts are still owned by family members.

What may turn out to be the most popular part of the book are the unusual recipes at the back, most of which are explained in the text, such as roasted pig stomach, pap, beloney recit, apple butter, jellied pigs feet, schveitsi, and ground cheery pie.

Aschenbrenner is a hair dresser, retired from Royal Hair fashions in Dexter. Her husband, Julius A., is also retired, having worked at the old Brower plant in Chelsea. They have two daughters.

When she has time, Aschenbrenner would like to write a second book, this one dealing more directly with her own childhood, covering such events as haymaking, dehorning cattle, the greenhouse, and school days.

"Historical Events of My Mennonite Grandparents" is available from Sunnyside Books, P.O. Box 208, Pinckney 48169 or from Royal Hair Fashions, 3258 Broad St. in Dexter. Cost is $10 dollars including tax.

CHS Substance Abuse Program To Educate Staff, Parents

Educating parents and staff about teen-age substance abuse and mental health issues will be a new focus at Chelsea High school this year.

Christine Dillon has begun her second year as the district's half-time substance abuse and mental health counselor. Last year was devoted to starting three programs—a "Chemical Awareness" group, a "Teen-agers of Divorce" group and a "Concerned Persons" group. All are aimed at directly helping students.

This year part of the emphasis will be educating the people who see the students the most and can more easily recognize changes in behavior.

"I need to put more emphasis there this year," Dillon said.

"I may have made some wrong assumptions about how much parents and staff know about the subjects."

Dillon said one of her main topics will be what kind of teen-age behavior is simply part of normal adolescence.

"Maybe what some people think of as deviant behavior is actually normal behavior," Dillon said.

In addition, Dillon said she wants to teach parents and teachers how to recognize depression in a teen-ager and how to spot signs that a child might be contemplating suicide.

"I've been surprised at the number of students who look fine on the outside but really aren't on the inside," Dillon said.

"So many are walking around in pain. I don't want to teach parents how to treat their teen-agers. I want to teach them how to respond to the signs and where to refer the teen-agers for treatment."

Dillon said that twice recently she has had to notify parents that their child might have suicidal tendencies.

Dillon noted that her programs often seem to overlap because problems cannot be dealt with in isolation.

For example, her program, Teenagers of Divorce, often deals with substance abuse issues that could be just as easily discussed in her Concerned Persons program.

Teen-agers of Divorce is for students who are hurting due to a divorce in their families. Concerned Persons is for students who are either worried about their own substance abuse or are worried about a friend or relative.

"Substance abuse is often a factor in a divorce," Dillon said.

"Sometimes it contributes to a break up, and sometimes after a divorce parents try to use alcohol or drugs to deal with their hurt feelings and aren't aware that they're getting into trouble."

According to a Chelsea High school survey, 58 percent of the students have divorced parents, compared to the national average of 51 percent.

Dillon's Chemical Awareness group, her first substance abuse education program at the high school, is still going strong. It's the only program that students can take in lieu of suspension if they are caught using alcohol or drugs. Six such students were referred to the group last week. However, students can attend meetings simply to become more informed about the issues.

Alcohol and marijuana still seem to be the drugs of choice among Chelsea High school students, Dillon said.

"I haven't heard a lot about cocaine abuse here and maybe education programs are beginning to pay off," Dillon said.

"However, I know we're seeing a lot of adults and a lot of dealers from the area who are coming to (Chelsea Community Hospital) for treatment, so I know its out there."

"The stereotype that it's the drug of the yuppies is no longer true. A lot of laborers and clerical people who make pretty good salaries are winding up in financial trouble. That's usually what brings a cocaine addict in for treatment. They've lost all their money and they don't see any other way out. Cocaine can really make a person deluded."

Dillon spends the other half of her time as a counselor at the hospital.

Dillon said a group of high school students has begun planning a "Just Say No" organization aimed at educating Beach Middle school students about the dangers of drugs and alcohol.

Although Dillon said she would love to work with the group, it is being organized independently of her office.

Just Say No would be part of a national organization, somewhat like Students Against Drunk Driving. It would hold rallies, and sponsor various activities.

"What they really need are adults to help them out," Dillon said.

"I'm not sure how much time I would have. I have to be very careful not to over-extend myself."

Despite her hectic schedule, Dillon said she has found her job at CHS even more enjoyable than she thought it would be.

"I've fallen in love with the kids," Dillon said.

"I really didn't know what to expect when I started because it was kind of experimental for me and the district. But it has become a very rewarding job."

Key Club Raises $150 For Foundation

Chelsea High school Key Club raised $150 for the Make-A-Wish Foundation with a pancake supper on Tuesday, Nov. 2.

The supper was held at Chelsea McDonald's restaurant.

The foundation is a non-profit organization aimed at fulfilling the special wishes of children 17 and under who suffer from terminal or life-threatening diseases and generally brighten the final days of dying children.

Money was raised through ticket sales.

The U.S. Department of Labor's Women's Bureau was founded to promote the status and employment opportunities of women in the 1920's, according to a fact sheet, "Brief History of the U.S. Department of Labor," available from the department's Office of Information and Public Affairs, Washington, D.C. 20210.

Joe and Florence Merkel Celebrate 65 Years of Marriage

Joe Merkel, Sr., and Florence Doll Merkel celebrated their 65th wedding anniversary last week-end, with a special mass on Friday, Nov. 6, and a reception on Saturday, Nov. 7.

The mass was held at 9 a.m. at St. Mary's. After the service, 25 members of the congregation joined the Merkel family for brunch at the Big Boy.

A small informal reception attended by 50 people was held the next day at 5 p.m. at the Wolverine Bar and Grill, which is owned by the Merckels' grandson, Joe Merkel, III. It was hosted by the couple's four children: Joe, II of Lansing, Thomas of Owosso, George of Chelsea, and Monica Gauthier of California.

The Merckels were married Tuesday, Nov. 7, 1922 at 8 a.m. in St. Mary's church when it was still on Congdon St. Joe was 23 and Florence 25. In those days, it was not yet customary for the father to give the bride away. Instead the couple walked down the aisle together with a march playing in the background.

Father Van Dyke performed the mass and Louis Burg did the singing for which Joe paid him $13. Cousins of the couple, Blanche Weber and Norbert Merkel, served as honor attendants.

Florence Merkel wore a brown, fur-collared traveling suit which she had purchased in Detroit. She explained that in those days, white wedding gowns were not yet in style for middle-income people. Joe wore a suit and tie. Florence carried a bouquet from Chelsea Greenhouse with roses and baby's breath. For years, she saved the streamer.

After the ceremony, family members gathered for a three-course wedding breakfast prepared by Florence's aunt, Rose Werkner, and a family friend, Mrs. Andrew Greening. Servers were friends Bertilla Weber Forner and Theresa McKernan Bauer. The cake was from Seyfried's Bakery.

After the wedding, the couple took a short auto trip.

Both Merckels were born and raised in the Chelsea area; Florence on a farm in Lyndon township, Joe on a farm in Sylvania township. They knew each other most of their lives since both families attended the same church, St. Mary's. Both Merckels attended one room schools; Joe, the little red school, and Florence, the Canfield school.

After their marriage, they lived and farmed at Florence's family's farm, with Florence's widower father. After Joe's brother died, they moved to his family's farm and worked there until moving to town in 1958.

After moving into Chelsea, Joe bought the Sylvania Hotel on Main St. and ran it 10 years before selling it to his son George.

This week-end's celebration was not the first time the Merckels commemorated their marriage's longevity. According to daughter Monica Gauthier, "They had a doing for their 40th and a big bash for their 50th wedding anniversary. For their 60th, we kept the number down to 100 with all the grandchildren and great-grandchildren." The Merckels have 26 grandchildren and 31 great-grandchildren.

Mrs. Gauthier said that this year's event was planned to be a quieter affair so that it would not be too tiring for her parents.

CORCLP Will Meet Wednesday Evening

Citizens Organized To Remove Cassidy Lake Prison (CORCLP) will meet Wednesday, Nov. 11, at 7 p.m. at the McKune Memorial Library to adopt a formal mission statement for the organization. Members will be reporting on legal issues, publicity, and potential financial support from foundations.

JOE MERKEL AND FLORENCE DOLL MERKEL on their wedding day, 65 years ago. Florence Merkel wore a brown traveling suit, as white dresses were not yet in style. On her finger, she wore a platinum engagement ring.

JOE AND FLORENCE MERKEL enjoyed a quiet 65th wedding anniversary compared to past bashes. On Friday they attended a special mass and then went out to breakfast with 25 fellow parishioners. On Saturday a reception and dinner for 50 people was held at their grandson's restaurant, the Wolverine Bar and Grill.

Bulldog Girls Place Third At State X-Country Meet

Chelsea Bulldog girls cross country team placed third behind Grand Rapids Catholic Central and Jackson Lumen Christi at the class B state meet last Saturday at New Boston.

"I am so pleased with this group of girls, especially the seniors" said Chelsea coach Pat Clarke.

"The seniors never finished lower than fourth in the state. That's quite an achievement."

Chelsea finished with 204 points. Grand Rapids Catholic Central had 112 points and Jackson Lumen Christi, 134. Southeastern Conference rivals Milan and Saline placed fifth and 14th, respectively, among the 24 teams.

The meet was run in nearly perfect weather. It was a cloudless day and temperature was in the 50s.

For the second year in a row, Kasey Anderson finished second in the team meet, this year with a time of 18:56, her second fastest time ever and an excellent time for the Willow Metropark course, Clarke said.

"Kasey has just been phenomenal," Clarke said.

"She is by far the finest athlete I've ever coached."

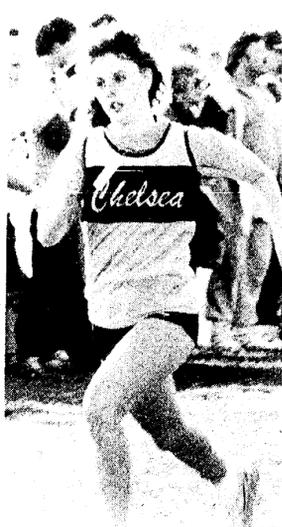

Freshman Kathy Issel was the second Chelsea runner in, finishing in 26th place, the highest place ever by a Chelsea freshman. Her time was 20:41.

Placing behind Issel were Jennifer Rossi, 44th, 20:52; Sarah Grau, 62nd, 21:19; Alisha Dorow, 70th, 21:28; Debi Koenn, 85th, 21:51; and Becca Burkel, 96th, 22:09.

"Dorow had one of her best times and Burkel had an extremely good year," Clarke said.

Chelsea's seniors, Anderson, Rossi, Dorow, and Wendy Hunn (who was ill for the state meet) had a four-year record of 22-2 in dual meets, Clarke said, losing only to state-ranked Lumen Christi and Milan.

In last night's cross country banquet, Anderson was named the most valuable runner and Burkel was most improved. Captains for next year are Debi Koenn and Sarah Grau.

ALISHA DOROW ran one of her best times of the season at last Saturday's class B state meet at New Boston. She finished 70th in 21:28.

KATHY ISSEL had the highest finish ever for a Chelsea freshman at the state cross country meet last week by placing 26th and second for Chelsea.

KASEY ANDERSON, left, placed second in the team was Anderson's second straight second-place finish and portion of the state cross country meet last week-end. It was the end to a fine career.

Chris Acree Named To All-SEC Defense

Chelsea senior Chris Acree was a unanimous selection to the Southeastern Conference all-league football team for 1987.

Acree made the team as a defensive back and was one of three unanimous selections to the team. The others were defensive back Pat Heath of Milan and Tecumseh linebacker Robert Mendez.

Acree was the only first team player for Chelsea.

Senior tight end Randy Ferry and junior running back Junior Morseau were named to the all-league second team on offense.

Senior Dan Pletcher, a linebacker, and Ferry, a defensive end, also were named to the honorable mention defensive team.

On the honorable mention offensive team were senior center Sam Eisenbeiser, senior guard Joel Boyer and senior tackle Cory Johnson.

Acree was the team's leading tackler with 93. He also led in interceptions with four.

Morseau rushed for 668 yards on 172 carries and accounted for 951 yards in offense.

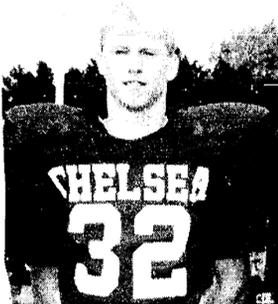

Ferry caught nine passes for 142 yards. He was also one of the team's best blockers.

Poor Shooting Plagues Junior Varsity Cagers

Chelsea Bulldog junior varsity basketball team went into a slump on offense last week and lost games to the Dexter Dreadnaughts, 30-20, and the Tecumseh Indians, 46-24.

In the Dexter game on Tuesday, Nov. 3, the Dreadnaughts hit their first three shots and the Bulldogs fell behind 14-5 by half-time and couldn't recover. Chelsea shot just 13 percent from the floor and made six field goals the entire game.

"Dexter had a good zone defense but we had many good shots that just didn't go in," said Chelsea coach Paul Terpstra.

"For some reason, we couldn't find the basket."

Colleen Scharphorn led the Bulldogs with eight points. Mercedes Hammer scored six, Carrie Flintoft, five, Scharme Petty, two, and Kate Dilworth, one.

It was also one of the few times this season that Chelsea was outbounded, losing the battle of the boards 26-16. Petty led the Dogs with five rebounds.

In the Friday, Nov. 6 game at Tecumseh, the Bulldogs again fell behind early. They were down by eight points after the first quarter and 19-13 at the end of the half.

However, it was all down hill from there as the Bulldogs scored just 11 points in the second half and two in the fourth quarter.

"We had six one-and-one opportunities in the fourth quarter and didn't convert any of them," Terpstra (Continued on page 12)

JOHN CATTELL placed 35th for the Bulldogs at last Saturday's state class B cross country meet. He ran in the individual portion of the meet and was Chelsea's only representative. His time was 17:02.

Varsity Cagers Rally for Victory Over Tecumseh Indians

Chelsea Bulldogs outscored Tecumseh 14-5 in the fourth quarter to take a come-from-behind 32-28 victory on the road last Friday, Nov. 6 in varsity basketball action.

In other action on Tuesday, Nov. 3, Chelsea lost a 35-28 decision to Dexter at home.

Chelsea rallied from a 23-18 third-quarter deficit to take the victory over Tecumseh.

"The girls played very well in the fourth quarter," said Chelsea coach Rahn Rosentreter.

"They started to execute and they were very aggressive. They were really trying to be aggressive, which is something they haven't been all year. Once we got the lead back, Tecumseh seemed to crack."

Chelsea, ahead 14-9 at half-time, relinquished the lead early in the third quarter when they failed to score for the first five minutes. They were outscored 14-4 in the third period.

Rosentreter bemoaned the lack of an inside scoring attack, but praised the defensive play of Allison Brown and Peggy Hammerschmidt.

"We're not getting the scoring inside and that has hurt us the last few games and has made it a lot tougher on us," Rosentreter said.

"Early in the year we were getting that inside scoring."

Heather Neibauer led Chelsea in scoring with 12 points, eight from the free throw line. Leah Enderle and Hammerschmidt each had six points, Kelley Scott scored three, Jenni Smith, two, and Brown, one.

Chelsea shot 9-31 from the field.

Chelsea's inside game was a little short against the Dreadnaughts as

Brown scored two points and Hammers

SPORTS NOTES

BY BRIAN HAMILTON

A high school state cross country meet is unique in the world of high school sports.

Sure, other sports have their state gatherings. But the energy generated by the hundreds of runners who gather for a state cross country meet can't be matched by swimmers, wrestlers or track athletes.

That's because every one of the competitors is there for one purpose—to run that 5,000 meters as fast as he or she possibly can. While there are four races, there is only one event and everyone's attention is focused on it.

Every runner may have a little different style. Some may be fast going uphill, others may be best on the straightaways, some may start slow and peak at the end, others may try to work up a big lead and cruise to the finish.

But everybody's goal is exactly the same.

It's hard to ignore the collective tension of that single-minded purpose. You see it in the runner warming up way off in the distance by himself. You hear it in the conversations of the runners who are talking about everything but running. You feel it in the tingle of the breeze on your face as five girls stride by just inches away. Saturday you could taste it in the horrid coffee served from the food wagon.

In a meet so big, a competitor's main opponent is herself. A runner may concentrate on beating one or two people, but there are dozens, and maybe a hundred others who are just as good. Her best time ever may be good for fifth place or 50th place. She can't necessarily control where she finishes in the order, but she can control how fast she runs. She can control how she feels about her effort at the end of the race by putting everything she has into the race.

Thanks to the Chelsea girls team, I've had a good excuse to go to three state meets in a row. Every year it's a thrill, and this year was certainly no exception. In fact, this may have been the best year yet simply because of the warm, dry weather.

But I would have gone just about anywhere in any conditions to watch Kasey Anderson run her final race as a Bulldog. She went out in style, with a second place finish. She ran as well as she could on that day, on that course coach Pat Clarke said. She ran her second best time ever. Pat was understandably proud.

Kasey's time, by the way, would have put her in the top five in the class A state meet. So she is one of the best runners in the state, regardless of classification. She's been one of the best in the state three years in a row, and every year she's dropped her time.

Regarding Anderson's career. She is the only athlete in any sport in the history of Chelsea High school to make all-state status three years in a row. She holds the freshman, sophomore, junior and senior Chelsea records. She was all-SEC and all-region four years in a row. She was a two-time SEC champ and two-time regional champ.

But here's the capper that blows me away. Kasey has a good chance to be the valedictorian of her class.

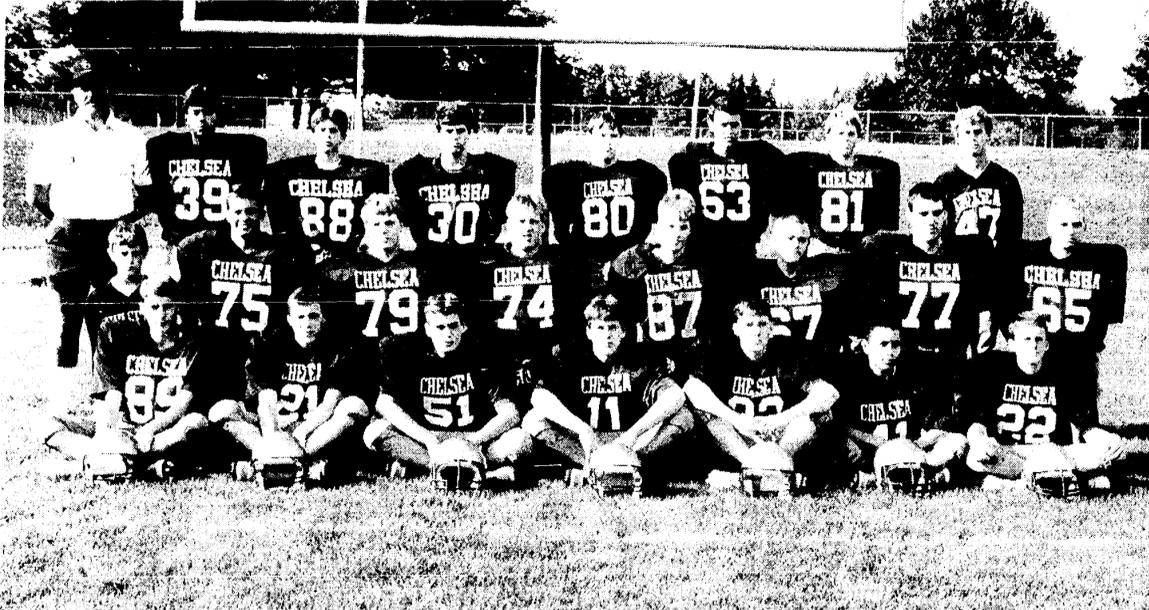

Looks like a bright future for the young lady.

As for the team, the girls put on a fine performance by finishing third. A couple of girls didn't run as well as they would have liked to, but it didn't really matter. The Bulldogs were so far out of second place that it would have taken several substantial time drops, as well as the return of Vicki Bullock from Panama, to change the outcome.

The girls should be proud of themselves, especially the seniors. They qualified for the state meet four years in a row, and never finished worse than fourth place. That, too, has to be unrivaled in Chelsea sports history. The softball team gets a lot of deserved respect for winning two state championships, but they haven't come close to matching the consistency of the cross country team.

I'm not going to get into a comparison of cross country and softball as it is the proverbial comparison of apples to oranges and 2. it will get me nowhere real fast.

Let's just say that if you haven't realized it by now, there is no finer group of athletes at CHS than the girls cross country team.

Bulldog Swimmers Defeat Jackson Vikings, Railsplitters

Chelsea Bulldog girls swim team had its second two-meet week in a row and won both meets.

On Tuesday, Nov. 3 the Bulldogs beat the Jackson Vikings 114-56. On Thursday, Nov. 5 Chelsea defeated the Lincoln Railsplitters 105-67.

The line score of the Jackson meet is as follows:

200-yard medley relay: 1. Chelsea A (Jenni Anderson, Christie Young, Karen Grau, Sharon Colombo), 2:12.17.

400-yard freestyle: 1. Chelsea A (Meredith Johnson, Melissa Johnson, Harris, Nowatzke), 4:36.29; 3. Chelsea B (S. Vosters, Wetzel, Payne, Lisa Taylor), 4:48.95.

The team came right back on Thursday to swim against SEC foe Lincoln and once again came through with a very good team effort, according to coach Mike Keeler.

"As a team this was our best performance, and it's very encouraging as we get very close to the end of the year," Keeler said.

The line score of the meet was as follows:

200-yard medley relay: 2. Chelsea A (Anderson, Vosters, Grau, Colombo), 2:11.15; 3. Chelsea B (Melissa Johnson, Young, Taylor, Nowatzke), 2:15.16.

200-yard freestyle: 1. Colbry, 2:24.96; 2. Kattula, 2:28.98; 5. S. Vosters, 2:35.06.

200-yard individual medley: 1. Colombo, 2:35.97; 2. Anderson, 2:36.03; 3. K. Vosters, 2:40.43.

50-yard freestyle: 3. Grau, :29.62; 4. McEachern, :29.71; 5. Harris, :30.62.

Diving: 2. Webb, 208.25; 3. Zangara, 198.00; 5. Heather Bro, 126.15.

100-yard butterfly: 2. Harris, 1:17.43; 4. Colbry, 1:20.56; 5. Wetzel, 1:22.60.

500-yard freestyle: 1. Grau, 6:10.10; 2. Kattula, 6:35.77; 5. S. Vosters, 6:51.37.

100-yard backstroke: 1. Colombo, 1:08.26; 2. Anderson, 1:11.65; 4. Melissa Johnson, 1:17.58.

100-yard backstroke: 1. K. Vosters, 1:20.37; 2. Hollo, 1:20.45; 3. Young, 1:23.90.

400-yard freestyle relay: 1. Chelsea A (Colbry, Nowatzke, Meredith Johnson, McEachern), 4:31.93; 3. Chelsea B (Payne, Wetzel, Taylor, Melissa Johnson), 4:43.70.

The next meet for Chelsea is the Chelsea Invitational on Wednesday, Nov. 18 at 6 p.m.

White Deer Seen in Area

Don Drew, a North Territorial Rd. resident, reported seeing a "snow white" deer on his property last Friday morning.

"At first I thought was my little Spitz dog over in the bushes," Drew said.

"But then it came out and it was with another deer that was the normal color. I don't know if it was an albino or one of them German deer."

Drew said the deer appeared to be about half grown, or about three feet tall. He couldn't tell if it was a buck or doe.

"It got out of sight before I could get my camera."

According to conservation officer Craig Wales, a completely albino deer would be extremely unusual. He said most are partial albinos.

Pinckney Area Youth Reports for Duty at California Air Base

Navy Seaman Apprentice Brian K. Grammer, son of Durrell and Judith A. Grammer of Pinckney, recently reported for duty at Naval Air Station North Island, San Diego, Calif.

A 1986 graduate of Stockbridge High school, he joined the Navy in March 1987.

said. "Plus we shot 19 percent and they shot 43 percent."

Rebounding was about even, with the Indians holding a 30-28 edge.

Flintoft scored 11 points and Petty 10 to lead Chelsea.

The JVs have an 11-6 over-all record and 7-3 mark in the Southeastern Conference.

CUB SCOUTS

DEN 10, PACK 455—

Cub Scout Den 10 of Pack 455 members are Rodney Carter, Kyle Christensen, Ben Muha, Victor Pitts, and Justin Whitaker.

The month of October was a very busy one for all the boys. Each boy earned his Bobcat badge and participated in the annual Rain Gutter Regatta. They also toured the Chelsea Fire Department with the help of Mr. Kevin Van Orman.

During November, the den continued working on achievements for the Wolf badge. The boys learned about different types of communication through projects and experiments. They also have been working hard on the popcorn sales.

Next month, the boys will be working on projects for the holidays including Christmas tree sales.

DEN 5, PACK 455—

Den 5 of Cub Scout Pack 455 had an active month in October. Jacob Hurst was the denner for the month. Zachary Eresten and Glenn Wright completed the requirements to earn their Bear badges. The scouts participated in the pack RainGutter Regatta. Daniel MacMurray won two races of three from Glenn Wright to take the den championship and then went on to win the pack championship as well. Ashley Coy also earned the third place prize for the den.

The Cub Scouts went on a five-mile hike at Camp Munhake in early October. Blase Lipiec and Kevin Long attended with their fathers along with several of the other scouts. All are learning to carve with jackknives and are earning their Whittling Chip cards. Bryan Jankovic will be carving a face from balsa wood to earn his card. All are looking forward to building their own crystal radio in November.

Acree Named Bulldog MVP

Chris Acree was named the Chelsea Bulldogs' Most Valuable Player for the 1987 varsity football season.

The award was announced at the team's banquet last Thursday.

Acree, the team captain, led the Bulldogs in tackles with an average of 10.3 per game at cornerback and strong safety. In addition, he was the team's leading pass catcher with 19 receptions for 284 yards.

Acree also earned the Best Back Award.

Senior Randy Ferry was named Best Lineman. Ferry played end on both offense and defense. He was one of the team's best blockers, he caught nine passes for 142 yards, and was the team's second leading tackler with 56.

Most Improved Players were Jim Williams.

Tylenol, we deliver...

Why cover up the problem, when eliminating the cause will result in true relief? In chiropractic health care we believe that the secret to good health lies within your body, not your medicine cabinet. Drugs only temporarily cover-up the symptoms of disease. Chiropractors concentrate on your spine, which protects the nerves which link the control centers in the brain and all other parts of the body. If you are suffering from a spine-related problem, there's not a drug in the world that will make you better. Isn't it time you gave chiropractic a try?

Diabetes Now Affects 10 Million Americans

Diabetes Mellitus affects about 1 in 20 people or a total of 10 million Americans, and there are an additional estimated five million persons who have undiagnosed diabetes. According to the National Data Group, one out of every five Americans living to the age of 70 will develop diabetes. It is a major cause of suffering, hospitalizations and disability.

With its complications, diabetes contributes to at least seven percent of all deaths in the U.S., is the number one cause of blindness, and the reason for 45 percent of all non-traumatic leg and foot amputations. Diabetes is a sobering disease with its statistics.

This is the first of a series of articles discussing diabetes mellitus.

WHAT IS DIABETES?

Diabetes is a condition in which the body cannot use the food eaten properly. After food is eaten, it is broken down into simpler foods, ie. sugar or glucose, and other substances that can be used by the body. Insulin, is normally produced by the pancreas, a gland located behind the stomach, to assist the body in using the simpler food substances. In diabetes, the pancreas is not able to produce enough insulin or any insulin at all to allow the food to enter into the cells for energy or for other purposes.

HOW DO YOU GET DIABETES?

The cause of diabetes is unknown, but theories lead us to believe it can be hereditary, could be caused by a virus, or be part of getting older. For whatever the reason, the pancreas is not functioning as well as it should.

WHAT ARE THE SYMPTOMS?

The classic symptoms of diabetes are an increased thirst, increased urination and an increase in appetite. If these symptoms are noticed, you should contact your family doctor.

WHAT IS THE TREATMENT?

There are three important parts of the treatment plan, which include diet, exercise and medication.

HOW CAN I TELL IF I HAVE IT?

Several resources are available in your area to supply information and to answer questions. The local chapter of the American Diabetes Association has a variety of educational materials. Other resource people are your family doctor and the Outpatient Diabetes Education programs at your community hospital.

For more information about Chelsea Community Hospital's Outpatient program, call Pat Parr, R.N. at 475-3944.

STACEY MURPHY was Chelsea High school's nomination for the U.S. Youth Senate Program this year. High school juniors and seniors are eligible to participate in the leadership seminar in the spring, but only two students are chosen from each state. A student is nominated based on his or her academic achievement, community involvement, and interest in government and leadership. The photo above was taken at a recent football game.

New JC Chapter Organized

The new Chelsea Jaycee chapter has reached the requisite 20 members needed to officially start and will hold their first meeting Tuesday, Nov. 17 at 7:30 p.m. in the Woodlands Room at the Chelsea Community Hospital.

The main business of the meeting will be the swearing in of new members and election of officers. The organizers stress that it is not too late to join and urge anyone who is interested to attend the meeting. The upper age requirement has been raised so that men and women between the ages of 21 and 39 are eligible.

Doctors Davies Present Medicine, Ministry Seminar

Drs. Terence and Margaret Davies presented a seminar for Professional and volunteer church workers in Dearborn, Oct. 14. The program was sponsored by the Pastoral Care Development at Oakwood Hospital.

The seminar focused on the partnership medicine and the ministry can have in working to meet the challenges of a changing world. Topics discussed included the personal aspects of care-giving and strategies for effective communication.

Dr. Davies is a professor of family medicine at the University of Michigan. Dr. Margaret Davies is an assistant professor of family medicine at the University. Both are physicians at the Family Practice Center at Chelsea.

Legislation Would Compensate Farmers For Hunter Damage

Under an amendment adopted this week by the state Senate Natural Resources Committee, a farmer would receive restitution for damage caused by a hunter convicted of destroying private farm property. According to Michigan Farm Bureau legislative counsel Ron Nelson, the amendment represents fair compensation to a farmer in the event of a hunter's disregard for private property.

"This restitution amendment is extremely important to farmers," Nelson said. "Not only would the individuals who caused the damage have to pay a debt to society, they would also be forced to ante up to the farmer for his losses."

Nelson said the amendment is part of Senate Bill 374, which is designed to update Michigan's hunting laws.

Hog Farm Owners To Apply for Permit

The owners of a Sharon township hog farm that has come under fire for allegedly polluting the air and possibly the groundwater have changed their mind and decided to apply for a special use permit for their business, according to township attorneys.

Bacon Acres, a pig farm on Lehman and Sharon Hollow Rds., has been the subject of numerous complaints from area residents who say they can smell the waste products of the 5,000 hogs more than a mile away. The residents say they also have concerns that the wastes might contaminate their wells.

Township ordinances set a limit of 2,500 hogs in a hog-raising business. The township filed a civil law suit last Tuesday, Nov. 3 against Bacon Acres owners Steve and Marlene Rose in Washtenaw County Circuit Court. The suit asked the court to issue a preliminary injunction against increasing the number of hogs, stop the farm from operating until a special use permit was obtained and complied with, and force Bacon Acres to remove all hogs in excess of the legal number.

NOTICE TO VILLAGE RESIDENTS

As of Nov. 11, 1987, all village refuse collection will be performed by: Bob's Hauling & Refuse Service 3460 Flansburg Rd. Jackson, MI 49203 Ph. (517) 764-2330 each Tuesday and Friday, beginning at 6:30 a.m. As in the past, all refuse must be bagged or otherwise contained.

VILLAGE OF CHELSEA NOTICE

The Council will hold a public hearing on Tuesday, November 17, 1987 at 7:30 o'clock p.m. in the Council Chambers of the Municipal Building, 104 E. Middle Street on the petition by the Chelsea High School for a street banner over Main Street. The request for the banner is for a period of fourteen (14) days ending March 3, 1988. All written and/or oral comments will be considered at the above mentioned hearing.

VILLAGE OF CHELSEA Allen L. Anderson, Clerk

SYLVAN TOWNSHIP PLANNING COMMISSION WILL HOLD A PUBLIC HEARING on the SYLVAN TOWNSHIP GENERAL DEVELOPMENT PLAN

at the next regularly scheduled meeting THURSDAY, DEC. 10, 1987 7:30 p.m.

The proposed changes would revise the zoning map from RS-3 to O-1 at the following location:

103 EAST STREET — Tax No: 06-12-186-013, west 69.25 feet Lot 2, Block 11 E. Congdon's Addition.

The aforesaid hearing will be held in the Council Room in the Chelsea Municipal Building on Tuesday, Nov. 24, 1987 at 7:30 o'clock p.m. The petition as filed by Donald A. Cove is on file in the office of the Village Manager, and may be examined prior to the date of the hearing.

CHELSEA VILLAGE PLANNING COMMISSION Frederick Belsor, Chairman

Chelsea Village Council Proceedings

Regular Session.

October 20, 1987

The meeting was called to order at 7:30 p.m. by President Satterthwaite. Present: President Satterthwaite, Village Manager Weber and Assistant Village Manager Fahrner.

Trustees Present: Bentley, Hall, Merkel and Steele.
Absent: Clerk Anderson, Trustees Boham and Kanten.
Others Present: Tom Kostosky, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Stimpson, Tom Parr, Landfill Operator Clouse, Al Thompson, Timothy & Judy Moisan, Randy Rosentreter, F. C. Belser, C. Belser, Superintendent of Electric and Water Hafner, Ray Van Meer, Doug Warren, Paul Frisinger, Mark Heydlauff, Dave Prohaska, H. M. Wanty, Mike Young, Treasurer Chapman, Zoning Inspector Harook, Fred and Mary Harris, F. Mogdis, J. Ashby, Judy McArthur, B. Merkel, Tina and Jerry Kenney, Larry and Nadine Koch, Fire Chief Hanker, Luther Kusterer, S. Springer, C. Arnett, A. Feeney, Peter Flintoft, Brian Hamilton, H. Holmes, B. Josephson and A. Aird.

Motion by Bentley, supported by Steele, to approve the minutes of the regular meeting of October 6, 1987 as submitted. Roll call: Ayes all. Motion carried.

Tom Kostosky of the Rural Housing Corporation gave a short presentation of his firm's ability to provide senior citizen's housing in Chelsea.

A Public Hearing was held, as advertised in the September 30, 1987 edition of The Chelsea Standard, regarding the establishment of a Tax Increment Finance Authority and the designation of its boundaries. Franz Mogdis, speaking on behalf of the Downtown Development Authority Board, explained the purpose and need of a Tax Increment Finance Authority. A letter was received from the Chelsea School District stating that the Chelsea Board of Education adopted a resolution giving "support of the proposed Downtown Development Authority's funding program, providing the proposed project does not exceed current $685,000.00 budget projections and the debt service on the $650,000.00 note to be issued would not extend beyond the year 2002, nor would total debt service funds exceed $79,200.00 annually as proposed by the Village of Chelsea financial consultant." Washtenaw County Treasurer, Mike Stimpson, spoke in opposition to tax increment financing. After many lengthy discussions on the boundary of the district and tax increment financing, the Public Hearing was closed. Council took no action at this time on the establishment of a Tax Increment Finance Authority and the designation of boundaries.

Fire Chief Hanker requested permission to take bids for a new fire truck to replace the village's 1975 truck, said truck will be paid for by a mutually agreed upon formula between the village and the surrounding townships in which the village provides fire protection. Chief Hanker stated that the truck would cost approximately $160,000.00.

Motion by Bentley, supported by Steele, to allocate, in future budgets, a sum of money equivalent to approximately twenty-five (25%) percent of the cost of a new fire truck, provided the surrounding townships in which the village provides fire protection will allocate the remaining balance. Roll call: Ayes all. Motion carried.

Dennis Hall, representing the C.A.T.S. Board, asked if the village could provide hospitalization insurance for the full-time C.A.T.S. driver provided the C.A.T.S. Board pays for the insurance. Village Manager Weber will investigate.

Richard Steele reported that the Chelsea Planning Commission is working on an amendment to the Zoning Ordinance that would provide for Bed and Breakfast establishments in the Village.

Motion by Bentley, supported by Bentley, to authorize the expenditure of $275.00 to have two (2) Michigan Municipal Employees' Retirement System benefit plans valuated. Roll call: Ayes all. Motion carried.

At this point the Village Council recessed to open the Zoning Board of Appeals meeting.

The Regular Council Meeting reconvened at 9:30 p.m.

A letter was received from Peter Flintoft requesting his application to rezone 1 1/2 acres of Schneider/Flintoft lands along South Main Street to Office District, O-1 be held in abeyance until further notice.

Mike Young requested to purchase a lot in the Industrial Park for self-storage units. There was no action taken at this time.

A discussion was held with Peter Flintoft regarding a letter from Clear Cablevision requesting renewal of their franchise.

Motion by Bentley, supported by Hall, to adopt the following landfill rates effective November 2, 1987:

ZONING BOARD OF APPEALS

October 20, 1987

The meeting was called to order by Chairman Satterthwaite. Present: Chairman Satterthwaite, Village Manager Weber and Assistant Village Manager Fahrner.

Members Present: Bentley, Hall, Merkel and Steele.
Absent: Secretary Anderson, Member Kanten and Member Boham.

Others Present: Tom Kostosky, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Stimpson, Tom Parr, Landfill Operator Clouse, Al Thompson, Timothy & Judy Moisan, Randy Rosentreter, F. C. Belser, C. Belser, Superintendent of Electric & Water Hafner, Ray Van Meer, Doug Warren, Paul Frisinger, Mark Heydlauff, Dave Prohaska, H. M. Wanty, Mike Young, Treasurer Chapman, Zoning Inspector Harook, Fred and Mary Harris, F. Mogdis, J. Ashby, Judy McArthur, B. Merkel, Tina and Jerry Kenney, Larry and Nadine Koch, Fire Chief Hanker, Luther Kusterer, Sheridan Springer, C. Arnett, A. Feeney, Peter Flintoft, Brian Hamilton, H. Holmes, B. Josephson and A. Aird.

Motion by Bentley, supported by Steele, to approve the minutes of the October 6, 1987 meeting as submitted. Roll call: Ayes all. Motion carried.

Peter Flintoft advised the Board that there should be a twenty-one (21) day waiting period before a variance grant takes effect.

Assistant Manager Fahrner reported on the drainage concerns of D. Warren relevant to the Thomas Parr variance request.

RESOLUTION RE: ZONING VARIANCE GRANT

WHEREAS, Thomas A. Parr, 311 Garfield Street has requested a variance, upon Application for appeal 87-09, from the provisions of Section 4.2.3 C-2 (15.428-2) of Ordinance No. 79 (Zoning Ordinance), to allow the construction of a garage and breezeway, a portion of which would encroach upon the required rear and side yards, on the below described property in a Two-Family Residential District (RS-3):

The north 3/4 of Lot 13, Block 2, James Congdon's 2nd Addition to the Village of Chelsea;

and

WHEREAS, this Zoning Board of Appeal has held a hearing pursuant to Section 7.5, E. with one (1) concern from an area property owner, relevant to the flow of water in a joint driveway; and

WHEREAS, this Zoning Board of Appeal has determined that, because of the narrowness of the lot, special conditions and circumstances exist and that said variance will not be contrary to the public interest; now

BE IT RESOLVED, that this Zoning Board of Appeal grant a variance for the above described property from the above mentioned provision of the Zoning Ordinance to allow construction of a garage and breezeway, not less than two (2) feet from the north, nor less than nine (9) feet from the east property lines with the following conditions:

1. The grade of the joint driveway shall not be changed unless lowered to provide better drainage from the east to the west.

2. That the roof water from the newly constructed additions be directed toward the driveway.

Motion by Hall, supported by Bentley, to adopt the above resolution. Roll call: Ayes all. Motion carried. Resolution adopted.

Motion by Bentley, supported by Hall, to adjourn. Roll call: Ayes all. Motion carried. Meeting adjourned.

Frederick A. Weber,
Deputy Secretary, Zoning Board of Appeals.

Kiwanis Travel Film Scheduled Saturday

On Saturday evening, Nov. 14, the Kiwanis Club of Chelsea will present its second program of the Travel and Adventure Film Series at 8 p.m. in the George Prinzinger Auditorium at Chelsea High School.

Explore with Rick the Philippines, Thailand, Singapore, Hong Kong and especially, the beautiful Island of Bali. "The Real Road to Bali" is more than a travelogue, it is a true adventure story lived by Rick Howard.

Rick has discovered that adventure is not merely a thing of the past or something only found in novels and old movies. Adventure, according to Rick, waits in the world of today for those of us who will search it out.

Roam the incredible cities of Hong Kong and Singapore. Feel the pulse of the Orient. See streets packed with color, noise and excitement. In contrast, journey to the remote mountain villages of Thailand and Malaysia, to live with the mountain people who extend their hospitality graciously.

Experience the breathtaking undersea coral gardens of the Southern Philippines. Savor the pent-up explosive fury of the semi-active volcanoes of the Island of Bali. Learn how gentle Balinese co-exist in harmony with the awesome natural forces which surround them.

Explore Bali from north to south and east to west. Visit ornate temples and observe Hindu ceremonies, dancing and Balinese theatre. See sacred monkey forests, erupting volcanoes and the almost unreal beauty of this island country.

Rick Howard has the talent for getting close to the people and places he films. Savor "The Real Road to Bali" with a real yarn spinner, Rick Howard.

Single admission tickets will also be available at the door.

Rod & Gun Club Auxiliary Holds Deerhunters Ball

A hauntingly good time was had by all who attended the second annual "Deerhunters Masquerade Ball" at the Chelsea Rod & Gun Club on Halloween, sponsored by the Chelsea Rod & Gun Club Auxiliary.

Many partygoers enjoyed dancing to the music furnished by Klink's Band. There was also a "Wheel of Chance" for all ghosts and goblins to have a crack at. Among all of the great costumes at the party, there were some that truly deserved recognition. These people were selected by a panel of Auxiliary Club members and awarded prizes. Among the winners were Theresa Broderick as Witchy-poo and Scott Otto as Mr. Pumpkinhead/Dracula for the Scariest. The winners for Most Original included Patti Wisniewski as Miss Pumpkin and Chris Hassenkamp, Susie Klink and Lynn Klink as the Three Blind Mice. The prize for Best Couple was awarded to two rather large Nuns, Jamie Bollinger and David Seyfried.

Mark Dault of Chelsea was the winner of the door prize, a beautiful floral centerpiece from the Chelsea Greenhouse. Guests enjoyed refreshments throughout the evening with pizza from Thompson's Pizzeria being provided at 10 p.m.

The annual Ball is just one of the many activities that the Ladies Auxiliary sponsors throughout the year.

Prison Ministry Reports Spiritual Emphasis Meeting

Cassidy Lake Technical School was the site of a spiritual emphasis meet Oct. 16-18. Planned as a repeat of the nation-wide spiritual invasion last year it was carried out by volunteers from local churches this time. Pastors, lay workers, musicians and church choirs were contacted and scheduled. Two church groups from the Ypsilanti area, the Bible church and Graceway Baptist, including Metro Prison Ministries from Westland, laymen from Emmanuel Bible church and North Sharon Bible church, Bethany Assembly of God, Adrian and Chelsea Christian Fellowship took part.

There was an aggregate attendance of volunteers and guests of 85, 222 aggregate attendance of inmates and between 40-50 signed decision cards. Many New Testaments, books written by converted inmates and tracts to aid follow-up were distributed. The Cassidy Lake staff was courteous and co-operative. The volunteers showed respect for prison rules and are invited to do another meet next year.

Dexter Methodist Church Planning Big Book Sale

Dexter United Methodist church is planning a Book Sale of Limited Uncirculated University Press Editions on Saturday, Nov. 14, from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. at the Calvary United Methodist church, Miller at Newport in Ann Arbor (on Miller halfway between Maple and N. Seventh). There will be a wide assortment of new books, between 1,500 and 2,000, as well as a number of used books. Prices will range from 50¢ for used books up to $3 for new books. After 1:30 you may fill a bag with used books for $2. The great majority are non-fiction, with a very diverse range of topics. Proceeds will go toward the Building Fund of the Dexter United Methodist church. The sale is in Ann Arbor instead of Dexter so that more students will be able to attend.

Baha'is Observing Special Holy Day

This week local Baha'is are celebrating a Holy Day which corresponds to Christmas for Christians. The founder of the Baha'i Faith, Baha'u'llah, was born Nov. 12, 1817, in Persia. Baha'u'llah taught that all the major religions are brought by true prophets of God, some of these being Jesus, Krishna, Mohammed, and Buddha. The foundation of the Baha'i Faith is spiritual, but there are many social teachings to help unite a divided mankind. Chelsea Baha'is and their families will observe the birth of Baha'u'llah on Thursday evening with worship, fellowship and a pot-luck at the home of Toby and Sandy Peterson.

St. James Plans Holiday Bazaar, Turkey Dinner

St. James Episcopal church, located at 3279 Broad St., Dexter, is having their annual "Holiday Bazaar and Family-Style Turkey Dinner" on Nov. 14. Dinner tickets are available in advance by calling 426-8247 for the 5, 6 or 7 p.m. seatings. The "Holiday Bazaar" will be held in the parish hall beginning at 10 a.m. The bazaar will feature a hand-sewn "Log Cabin Quilt" as a raffle item. The tickets are available at the door. Other traditional hand-made gifts and holiday decorations will be available. The "Bake Sale Booth" will include freshly baked goods and dessert items.

Altar Society Hears Pastoral Tape

St. Mary's Altar Society met Sunday, Nov. 1 to hear a tape presented by Father Dupuis of the musical interpretation of the Bishop's pastoral "Justice for All." The meeting, which was attended by 24 members, was held in the church rectory. Members were reminded that the annual Christmas bazaar and bake sale will be held in St. Mary's school hall on Nov. 14 from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. The December meeting will be a pot-luck starting at 6:30 p.m. at the rectory.

Film Scheduled At Free Methodist

"Cry from the Mountain," featuring Billy Graham, will be shown at the Chelsea Free Methodist church, 7665 Werkner Rd., on Sunday, Nov. 15, at 6 p.m. Everyone is welcome. The people in "Cry from the Mountain" were given the opportunity for a new beginning. They had their moment of decision... when they were able to discover the love and forgiveness that Christ offers.

AstroFest Lecture Will Explain How Telescopes Work

"How Telescopes Work" will be the subject of November's AstroFest film and lecture presentation at the University of Michigan. The free public program is scheduled for 7:30 p.m. Nov. 13 in Auditorium 3, Modern Languages Building, Ann Arbor. Jim Loudon, staff astronomer at the U-M's Natural Science Museums and AstroFest director, says he will explain the subject in detail, but in terms requiring no previous technical background. "It is just the thing if you're considering giving or getting a telescope for Christmas," Loudon says. AstroFest is sponsored by the U-M's Department of Aerospace Engineering and Natural Science Museums.

AIDS Information Meeting Scheduled At Webster Church

Dexter Ministerial Association will sponsor an AIDS Information Night on Sunday, Nov. 15. The meeting will be held at Webster United Methodist Church of Christ, 5484 Webster Church Rd., Webster, at 7 p.m.

Guest speaker for the occasion is Cynthia Retmore, R.N., a public health nurse from the Washtenaw County Health Department. Ms. Retmore has worked extensively on AIDS related issues. She will be presenting the latest up-to-date information concerning the disease.

The meeting is designed specifically to dispense accurate and current information relating to the development and spread of the AIDS disease. "The Ministerial Association strongly encourages church members to seek out pastoral advice and counsel if they have questions relating to the disease," states the Rev. John Gardner, minister of Webster church.

"Above all we want to avoid reacting to this disease due to ignorance, fear, or misinformation. For the church to act in a faithful manner we need first get hold of the facts."

The meeting is open to the public. Time will be allotted for questions and answers. Refreshments will be served following.

United Way

United Way Fund Reaches 81.4% of Goal

As of Saturday, Nov. 6, Chelsea United Way has achieved 81.4% of its 1987-88 campaign goal, according to Barb Rose, campaign chairman. "Results from two of our major industries that have not been reported yet represent a potential additional amount of over $11,000 which would put us within 4% of our goal this year," she said.

Dave Prohaska, United Way finance chairman, reported that the residential mail campaign has reached 92% of its $6,500 target. Prohaska commented, "Last year, the residential contributions kept coming well after the campaign ended, even into December. We hope that anyone who has not yet sent in their donation will remember to do so. Checks may still be mailed to Chelsea United Way, P.O. Box 176, Chelsea 48118."

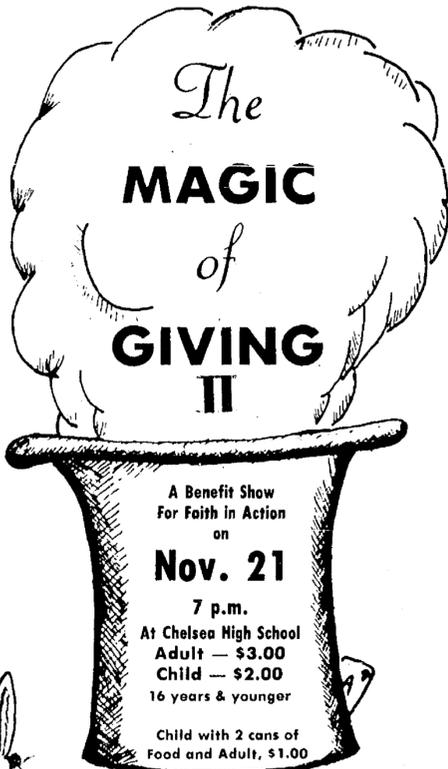

Prohaska continued, "Although donations have reached over 60% of goal in the Professional Division, we are looking forward to receiving several additional contributions from benefactors that have generously supported our Chelsea United Way in the past several years."

The Business and Commercial Division is within two percent of topping the $13,000 goal in that category, while the Chelsea School District employees have already achieved 104% of their target.

Barbara Pruess, Chelsea United Way president, stated, "We are very pleased and grateful that the Chelsea community is so generous and supportive of our local United Way program. Many people don't realize that we are not affiliated with the Washtenaw United Way campaign. We're proud of the fact that by being a totally volunteer program, over 97 cents of every dollar donated reaches the 37

United Way agencies that we support."

The Michigan Democratic Party

Hart-Kennedy House
606 Townsend
Lansing, MI 48933
517/371-5410

Dear Friend:

I just get so angry when some Lansing legislators vote with the special interests and big corporations, don't you?

And I get even more angry when those same legislators vote in favor of keeping tax loopholes for Michigan insurance companies but against property tax relief for you.

Why am I telling you this?

Because that's exactly what your state representative, Margaret O'Connor did!

On October 21, 1987, Representative O'Connor voted against forcing Michigan insurance companies to pay their fair share of taxes. Believe it or not, 65 of this state's 85 insurance companies paid no single business taxes at all last year. That's right -- not one dime.

That's bad enough -- but that's not all. The plan that Representative O'Connor voted against would have taken at least $65 million -- the amount raised by closing that loophole -- and put it into property tax relief for you and your neighbors. Like you, Governor Blanchard and the Democrats in the legislature are trying to close tax loopholes like this one so that they can roll back property taxes. But your State Representative voted no.

The bottom line is this: until Representative O'Connor votes to make the insurance companies pay their fair share, you'll pay their share for them. And that's not right.

Let me raise just one more question with you: When people like Representative O'Connor vote against you like this, why do they keep getting reelected?

I'll bet you're asking that question, too. And you've got exactly one year to ask Representative O'Connor that question.

Sincerely,

Richard Wiener, Chair
Michigan Democratic Party

P.S. To make matters even worse, let me tell you this: with all the money your representative spends on newsletters, I'll bet she hasn't even told you about this vote. She probably wouldn't dare!

Economic Development Seminar Well Attended Irish Players Net $300 For Depot Association

Washtenaw Development Council community officials workshop held Oct. 26, at the Hoyt Conference Center at Eastern Michigan University, attracted approximately 90 attendees representing various local governmental units, planning commissions, economic development corporations, and educational institutions throughout Washtenaw county.

Attending from Chelsea were village president Jerry Satterthwaite; village administrator, Fritz Weber; and village treasurer Kathleen Chapman.

Dexter officials attending the workshop included Paul Bishop, village president; and Jean Fucella, grants administrator.

Scio township officials attending the workshop included Robert Bliss, township trustee; Richard DeLong, township supervisor; John Hochrein, township planning commission; Gay Korschuh, township clerk; Donna Palmer, township treasurer; Norma Sarns, secretary-treasurer, Scio township Economic Development Corp.

Dr. John Porter of Eastern Michigan University welcomed the participants. Doug Ross, director of the Michigan Department of Commerce, discussed how communities might go about marketing their local areas. He also stressed the value of education and jobs skills training in the economic development process.

Gretchen Waters, executive director of the WDC, described the Community Growth Alliance program and what it means to Washtenaw county. Members of a discussion panel representing various components of the economic development team included Greg Main from the Michigan Department of Commerce; Nancy Davis, supervisor of Ann Arbor township; Kay Ford of the Livingston/Washtenaw Private Industry Council; Len Sheppard of Detroit Edison; Karen Schlanderer of the Ann Arbor Chamber Innovation Center; and Dr. Gunder Myran, president of Washtenaw Community College. Paul Tait of SEMCOG was the panel moderator.

Chelsea Area Players have made a donation of $300 to the Chelsea Depot Association. It is to be used in the restoration of the century old rail station. The money was a share of the proceeds when the theatrical company from Chelsea played host to dramatic performances by the Leixlip Players. Leixlip is a town close to Dublin, Ireland.

Using the Wolverine Lounge for their stage setting last June, the Irish players gave brilliant performances of two plays by Samuel Beckett.

The 12 players in the dramatic group from Leixlip are part of an international theater festival in which players from many countries in Europe are touring the United States.

Chelsea Area Players were delighted to sponsor the talented Irish artists and share stage experiences with them.

Restoration of the interior of the depot is progressing steadily and the contribution from the Chelsea Area Players was appreciated. It is hoped that in the not-too-distant future the depot itself will become Chelsea's own center for the performing arts.

Magic Show Nov. 21 To Benefit Faith in Action

"The Magic of Giving II" will be presented by several local magicians for the benefit of Faith in Action. This is the second annual magic show by the magicians and will be staged at the Chelsea High school auditorium at 7 p.m. Saturday, Nov. 21.

Members of the S.A.M./I.B.M. Club will perform and also provide ushers for the show. The proceeds will be used by Faith in Action to help provide for both Thanksgiving and Christmas food baskets.

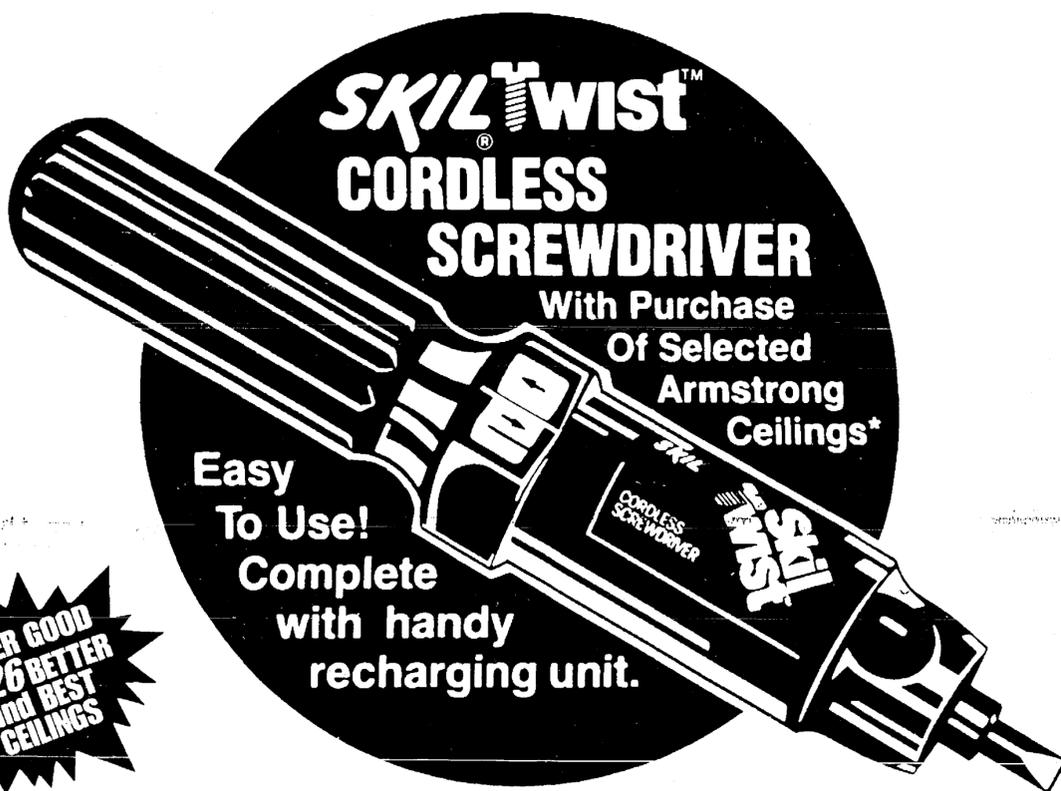

Following the show the audience will have the chance to meet the magicians and their helpers informally at Thompson's Pizzeria.

Faith in Action, a non-profit community organization and a Chelsea United Way Agency, is deeply committed to the idea of returning the support given by the community back to the community by providing help to those among us who are in need.

Faith in Action House is located on the Chelsea Community Hospital campus directly across from the Out-patient Surgery Center. It is open from 9 a.m. until 4 p.m., Monday through Friday.

Washtenaw Foster Grandparents Awarded Grant

The federal Action Agency has awarded a $214,019 grant for the Washtenaw County Community Services Agency's Foster Grandparent Program.

The award is a grant renewal and will provide funding for 66 volunteers, Congressman Carl D. Pursell announced today.

"I am very pleased the Foster Grandparent Program is receiving funding to continue its important role in the community. The seniors who participate in this program have contributed over 895,715 hours toward the care of special and exceptional children," Pursell said.

The Foster Grandparent Program serves as a model of shared learning across the generations and by tapping into the resources of the senior adult population.

"I believe this is a winning situation because the seniors are happier and healthier and the children and community benefit from their participation," said Pursell.

HAIRY PUMPKIN

By: Paul Hauck, Young Fives

This is my hairy pumpkin. He has fire inside. The fire gave him sores.

SAMMY SNAKE

By: Kris Hammerberg, A.M. Kindergarten

Sammy Snake is shopping in the supermarket. Then he got some groceries. Then he went home.

THIS KITTY

By: Karen Tabaka, P.M. Kindergarten

I was helping my mom pull weeds out in the grass. Daddy was helping too. So were my brother and Aunt and Uncle. There were alot of rocks. The sun was shining hot. There were four clouds in the sky. I planted alot of flowers. I have two kittys--one Patches, she is white and black. The other is white, black and gray. Her name is Mitsee. They don't bite or scratch. I play with my kitties alot. I got pumkins already for Halloween.

PLAY CAT

By: Oliver Phelps, A.M. Kindergarten

I have a kitten named Pretty. She is black and white. She has brown eyes. She likes to chase after bugs. She jumps up in the air to try to get them. She purrs when she is happy. She growls when she is mad.

HOW I HELP MY MOM

By: Lindsay Boyce, P.M. Kindergarten

I get a diaper for her for my baby brother. My brothers name is Jordan. Jordan is eight months old. I get the wipes, they're already wet and they're in a box. One sister lives in California, and my other sister goes to college. My brother Nat is fourteen.

MY DOG

By: Vincent Scheffler, First Grade

One time my dog ran away. He went in the swamp and caught an animal. It was a weasel.

MY TRIP INTO SPACE

By: Isaac Robinovitz, First Grade

One day when I was six I was walking through the woods. I saw a space ship and I climbed into it. I accidentally hit the taking-off button and the ship rose into the air. I had been traveling for many, many hours. At last I landed on Jupiter. I did not know where I was. There were many planets in the solar system but this was the biggest planet.

PENGUINS

By: Melody Smith, Second Grade

Penguins like to live where it is very cold. They are birds but they cannot fly. Penguins are fantastic swimmers, and they don't mind the cold water at all. Penguins are black and white and walk very slowly. They eat tiny fish or shrimp. Some penguins build nests of stones. Others do not build any nests at all. Their baby sits on their feet.

THIS IS AUTUMN

By: Meghann Ziegler, Second Grade

I like the pretty colors of the leaves, and I like to go camping with my Dad.
We make a fire and toast marshmallows.
I like to be in the Halloween Parade.
I like to watch the geese flying South.

WHEN I . . .

By: Jamie Nicks, Second Grade

When I go to school,
I tie my shoe.
When I go to gym,
I try to win.
When I go to art,
I draw a heart.
When I go home,
I watch a show.
When I go to bed,
I lay down my head.

ONCE UPON A PREHISTORIC TIME

By: Jackie Setta, Third Grade

Once upon a prehistoric time there was a little caveboy named Oog. Oog had a twin sister. Her name was Oona. Oona and Oog went out to play. Oona found an egg. Oona said, "Acosino" (which means, Come here, Oog). So Oog went over to Oona and asked, "What is it?" "An egg!" she said. Within seconds the egg cracked. Oog said, "What is it?" Oona replied, "I do not know!" The egg hatched. It was a dinosaur. It all happened once upon a prehistoric time.

LITTLE TURTLE

By: Mariah Chorom, Third Grade

Little turtle lived by a lake with his mother and older brother. Little turtle was always asking when can I go to turtle school? And the day finally came when little turtle asked when can I go to turtle school and his mother said today.

And so little turtle quickly got dressed in his new multi-colored shorts and teddy bear vest. Then he rode Mr. Snake to school. He was very excited and when he got to school he sat down and started to work in his workbook. When the teacher said, "swimming!" he jumped up. He had always wanted to learn how to swim. Little turtle was very excited as they all got on Mr. Snake and soon they were there.

Little turtle was so excited he almost fell in the pool. The turtles walked into the two locker rooms. Little turtle changed, and then he walked out and sat by the edge of the pool. When the rest of the little turtles came out the instructor said, "jump in."

And so one by one forty-one little turtles jumped in the pool. Little turtle was very eager and did very, very well. In fact, by the end of the day he knew how to swim and a lot more.

When he got off Mr. Snake he told his mother all about his first day of turtle school. And he had a lot more days of fun too.

This ninth edition of Chelsea's Children, Write On! is sponsored by PTN (Parents and Teachers at North School) and PTS (Parents and Teachers at South School). ### MY DAD'S HOUSE

By: Eric McDonald, Third Grade

I went to my dad's house. I went swimming. I had fun! Then I went out to eat. After I came back, I went to bed. The next morning, I had pancakes. They were good. I want more. "Dad, can I?" "Yes, you may." "How many?" "Three more," said Dad. Then he got dressed to do his chores.

SCHOOL

By: Anna Norton, Fourth Grade

I went to Dexter School for two years. When I was in second grade we moved to Chelsea. I like Chelsea schools better, because it is more fun here. We have more things to play on and more field trips.

When we go out for recess, my friends and I have lots of fun. We usually play on the swings, monkey bars, or the new set.

My favorite subject is spelling, and I like art, because I like to make things.

MY SCHOOL

By: Ann Terpstra, Fourth Grade

If I had my own school I would have lots of candy. I'd have cleaning and cooking service for my big, big, school and let the kids have what favorite meals they like. There would be a boy's table and a girl's table.

I'd keep the children who don't have any parents. They would have their own bedrooms with a picture of their parents. I would have a playground and dinner is going to be at six sharp. The rule is no one is ever late for meals at my school.

If a man and woman want to adopt a child, I have a private meeting while the children are asleep. I talk to them about what their favorite meal is and their favorite drink is and give them love. They talk to me about their place. I tell the child you're being adopted. You're going to stay here for six days. If they don't get you at 7:00 you can't ever be adopted.

THE EARTH

By: Scott Kinell, Fourth Grade

You now know the earth is a sphere. If it wasn't, people would look in fear. If the earth was a square, people would fall off of there. If it was a triangle, people would fall off at an angle. Those are a few things about the earth. It was a long time ago since the earth was at birth.

FALL

By: Kelly Boff, Fourth Grade

I saw leaves change colors and saw them falling off the trees and pumpkins being cut. We see kids playing in the leaves and raking the yard with piles of leaves. Putting them in bags and collecting different colored leaves and Halloween pictures hanging on the windows and candy getting ready for Halloween. Scarecrows will be on front porches and pumpkins will be decorated. People will be ready for Halloween and in fall leaves are pretty and trees will grow bigger. The pumpkins will be ready to be picked, carved out and at night on Halloween kids come out and trick or treat.

ADVENTURES WITH SNOOPY

By: Aaron Riley, Fifth Grade

I opened my Snoopy lunch pail and who popped out? Snoopy! He flew me all over the world until he got low on gas. We were flying over the Pacific Ocean when Snoopy lost control and plunged into the ocean. Right next to where we crashed was an island - it was deserted except for a sea serpent that lived in a lake that had a river to the ocean. He took us back to the school. Lunch was almost over.

GENIE IN THE THERMOS JUG

By: Sarah Schlich, Fifth Grade

One day my mom packed my lunch. She put some pop in my thermos. Then when I got on the school bus my lunchpail was heavy. When I got to school I put my lunchpail on the rack with all the other lunchpails. Then finally lunch time came and I went to get my lunchpail from the rack and sat back down in my seat in the classroom then we lined up for lunch. We walked down to the lunch room. I opened my lunchpail and got my thermos and uncapped my thermos and was about to take a drink when all this steam came pouring out of my thermos and circled around me so no one could see me. Then I disappeared and reappeared in my classroom. Finally when no one was around the steam changed into a genie. He said, "What do you want to do together for today?" I said, "Cut school and go to the mall." I disappeared again and when I reappeared he gave me 9 hundred zillion dollars to spend. I walked all over the mall. Then I got hungry. I said, "I'm hungry." I disappeared again and reappeared in a A and W in Chelsea. When I was full I paid and disappeared again and went home. My mother said, "Where did you get all that stuff?" I said, "I got it at the mall." "Where did you get the money?" she asked. "I won it at school in a game we played." I answered. Just then the phone rang. I answered it. It was my principal Mr. Wescott. He asked if he could talk to my mom. I said, "Sure." My mom took it from me. She said, "Hello." Mr. Wescott said I cut school from lunch and no one could find me.

Friday, Nov. 20—Thanksgiving Dinner—Roast turkey w/ gravy, whipped potatoes, dressing, buttered corn, dinner roll w/ butter, pumpkin pie w/ topping, milk.

THE PEOPLE OF CHINA was the subject of a talk to students at South and North Elementary schools last Friday and Monday by school district superintendent Ray Van Meer. It was part of the speaker series sponsored by the Enrichment Triad Programs at the schools. Any student with a special interest in the topic was welcome to attend. Van Meer shared a slide show with the children and some of his favorite souvenirs. The children, from left, are Karen Kuhl, Patrick Lynch, Evan Knott and Laura Heller.

Daycare Program Gets Extension

Chelsea School Board has voted to continue the Before and After Daycare Program through the 1988-89 school year in order to give the program a chance to get off the ground.

The program provides day care for elementary age children before and after school hours at the Chelsea Free Methodist church on Werkner Rd. Just six children are taking part in the program this fall, which is way below the break-even point, according to Jackie Rogers, director of community education.

Rogers said the board's decision was based partly on the results of a survey conducted by her office that showed that 15 percent of the respondents (all with elementary-aged children) are interested in taking part in the program next year.

"We are very pleased with the board's decision because we believe there is a definite need for this kind of program," Rogers said.

Anyone interested in enrolling a child in the program should contact Rogers at 475-9830.

Volunteers Sought for Concert Series

Due to the enthusiastic response to the Concerts in the Park series, the Chelsea Chamber of Commerce has decided to plan a repeat series next summer. They will again be presented on Sunday evenings, possibly as often as twice a month.

Last summer's series included three concerts, each featuring different types of music such as country, bluegrass, jazz, big band, and classical. The concerts were held at Pierce Park and were free and open to the public.

The Chamber of Commerce is looking for volunteers to help plan and carry out the next series of concerts. Anyone willing to help is asked to call Ann Feeney at the Chelsea Chamber of Commerce, 475-1145.

SNOW FIGHTER!

SNAPPER'S SINGLE-STAGE SNOWTHROWER TAKES ON WINTER'S WORST.

SNAPPER's lightweight Single-Stage Snowthrower supplies plenty of muscle power to handle winter's meanest snowstorms. While cutting a big 20" path, the hard rubber lined steel auger pulls the machine ahead without scraping the pavement. SNAPPER's smooth turning chute with 200° rotation lets you put the snow where you want it. And the winterized 3 HP, 2 cycle engine gets the snow out of the way and gets you back inside.

So if you need powerful snow removal capabilities with compact convenience let SNAPPER's snow fighting Single-Stage Snowthrower take on the meanest snowstorm.

THE DANA FOUNDATION recently awarded $750 to the Chelsea School System to be used for computerizing the district's transportation system. When in place, the new system will make the tracking of runs and loading much more efficient. In past years, Dana has awarded two other grants to the school system, both of which were used to help set up and furnish the high school computer lab. Dana's Chelsea plant manufactures power take-offs and vehicular components. Shown in the picture is Dawn Champanois, representing the Dana Foundation, handing the check to school superintendent Ray Van Meer.

Professional Development Activities Slated Friday for High School Faculty

On Thursday, Nov. 12 the high school faculty will be involved with Professional Development activities from 3:30 p.m. to 7:30 p.m. This is the same time that the Middle school and Elementary schools will be holding parent-teacher conferences. Similar to the other schools, the high school will be dismissed at 11:15 a.m. on Friday, Nov. 13th.

A committee of high school teachers has been meeting and planning the activities for Nov. 12. A series of workshops has been planned which include Computer Software Preview, Substance Abuse Among Adolescents, Description and Discussion of all the Support Programs available at the high school, Athletic Eligibility and How It Can Help the Student, Using the Computer in Your Classroom, and others.

The high school faculty will be attending seminars on these topics to

'Twelve Together' Begun For Students in Trouble

Chelsea High school has begun a program aimed at students who are in trouble or are in danger of dropping out.

The drop-out and delinquency prevention program, called Twelve Together, is for students 14 to 17 years old who have a background of school problems or are considered at high risk of dropping out due to alcohol and/or drug abuse or delinquency.

Loren Winn is the program coordinator at CHS. He is searching for students to benefit from the program and an adult to work with the program.

The program is being funded by a grant awarded to the Washtenaw County Juvenile Court by the Metropolitan Detroit Youth Foundation.

Students will be selected for the program next Tuesday, Nov. 17. Students will be notified of the selection the week after Thanksgiving and will participate in a retreat at Camp Moss Dec. 4-6. Afterward, the students will participate in a group session after school one day a week for the rest of the school year.

For more information, contact Winn at 475-9131, ext. 47.
