THE VILLAGE wants to run a sewer line through this lot belonging to the Dils family. The line would go through the right side of the property and across North school grounds behind it. However, Art Dils and the village have been unable to reach an agreement on price. A vote by council to condemn the property failed when two members abstained and two were not present. Another vote is likely.

Village Tries To Condemn Dils Land for Sanitary Sewer Line Easement

By Brian Hamilton

One of the village's most prominent citizens is locked in a battle with village government over a sanitary sewer line the village wants to run through his property.

Former school board president Art Dils, who owns vacant land between his Main St. home and Letts Creek, is likely to end up in court because he refuses to accept a $2,500 offer from the village for the 30-foot right-of-way. Dils and the village have been talking about the easement since May.

Some village officials believe Dils is simply trying to make a lot of money on the easement. Dils said he is trying to co-operate but the village is running roughshod over him.

Last Tuesday, Sept. 6 at the end of a long meeting, village council attempted to pass a motion to begin condemnation proceedings against Dils. The motion failed when trustees Phil Boham and Dennis Hall, employees of Chelsea Community Hospital, abstained in the voting. Dils is a member of the hospital's board of directors. Gary Bentley and Stephanie Kanten were not present. Joe Merkel, Richard Steele, and village president Jerry Satterthwaite voted for the measure. A two-thirds majority of the entire board, or five votes, is needed.

Both Dils and Satterthwaite said the measure is likely to be voted on again when a full council is present. Satterthwaite said a special meeting may be called because construction on the line has to begin soon due to all the development in the southern end of the village.

"I'm angry about it," Dils said last week. "I can't understand why they'd want to sue a private citizen over a lot. But if they're going to sue me, I'm going to go for everything I can get."

The village wants to build an 8-inch force sewer main through the Dils property and through the North Elementary school grounds because it is the most direct route to the wastewater treatment plant and will require less disruption of traffic and less construction cost than replacing the Dewey St. line with a larger line.

The entire project, which also includes a sewer line through the fairgrounds, has been bid at $145,000. Assistant village manager Lee Fahrner said the alternatives to piping through the Dils property are "frighteningly expensive."

However, the dispute is primarily over the value of the Dils property.

An appraisal commissioned by the village put the easement value at $2,500.

"We hired a competent person to appraise the property," Fahrner said. "I don't know why we'd want to pay more than that. Mr. Dils has his reasons for not accepting the offer, which I respect. However, the village has to decide the best way to handle this which is in the best interests of the taxpayers."

Dils said he has been told by a realtor the entire parcel is worth $59,000. He also said he was advised

Village, County Finally Sign Recycling Contract

Village of Chelsea and Washtenaw county have reached an agreement which should allow the installation of a recycling center at Polly's Market within the next 30 days.

Contractual legal language dealing with toxic material that might be dumped in the bin has been worked out to the satisfaction of both parties. In addition, both parties have worked out liability insurance questions. The only piece of the puzzle missing as of last Friday was the written consent of Polly's Market. However, Polly's manager Mike Kennedy said he planned to drop off the agreement early this week. His only concern, he said, is that the site doesn't become a big mess.

"I think it's a fair agreement," said

Washtenaw county recycling consultant Tom McMurtrie.

The village and county essentially agreed that toxic materials could become a problem and that they would both try to deal with the problem.

The village agreed to provide daily inspection of the bin.

The heavy steel bins, which cost the county about $4,500 each, will be located on the northeast corner of the market next to the sewage lift station.

Periodically a truck from Ann Arbor will carry the recyclable material away and leave an empty receptacle.

Each 24-foot-long, made-in-Michigan bin will have compartments containing small, round holes for newspapers, glass, and cans. There will be specific guidelines for preparing each item for recycling.

The program is being funded in part by a $160,000 capital outlay grant from the Clean Michigan Fund. In addition, the state provided another $72,600 operational grant. The remaining money will be coming from materials

Main St. Roadwork Should Begin Soon

The state plans to begin work on Main St. through town this week or next, according to assistant village manager Lee Fahrner.

The project, which will repair the road from the Chelsea Medical Center to Sibley Rd., will take most of the fall to complete.

The big hold-up for the project, oddly enough, indirectly involves the Chelsea landfill.

Fahrner said the state is trying to find a place to dump the several hundred yards of concrete and asphalt that will be generated by the project. However, it cannot use the village's type III landfill for demolition because the village doesn't know for sure if it will be forced by the Department of Natural Resources to close down the area.

The village wants to keep the type III area open, partly because of the huge amount of construction work in the area.

"Three hundred yards of concrete is a tough thing to handle," Fahrner said.

The project will have parts of M-52 closed off for several months and area residents should begin to explore alternate routes. However, the state does not plan to block off both lanes at once, which should keep traffic moving slowly through town.

Road and curb are scheduled to be replaced.

Board OKs Contract For Bus Drivers

Chelsea Board of Education approved a new two-year contract for its 38 bus drivers at the regular board meeting Monday, Sept. 12.

Drivers will receive a five percent pay hike this year and a five percent raise in 1989-90.

Hourly wages this year will range from $7.55 per hour for a first-year driver to $10.15 per hour for a driver with at least 10 years of experience.

Drivers will receive a minimum of 1.75 hours pay per regular route. All extra trips, such as field trips, will be paid at a rate of $7.40 per hour this year and $7.70 next year.

In other board business, Lexa Knight was hired at a salary of $21,974 to teach first grade at South school. She replaces JoAnn Thornton, who is retiring.

Mercedes Ott was hired as a special education teacher at Chelsea High school, replacing Karen Fuller.

Sara Wilson's contract to teach kindergarten was increased from half-time to full-time due to the number of kindergarten students.

Substitute teacher rate was increased from $40 to $45 per day.

Substitute secretaries will be paid $6 per hour and playground supervisors will be paid $5.75 per hour.

Village Mall Construction To Start Soon

Site work should begin this month on the new Village Mall project next to Polly's Market.

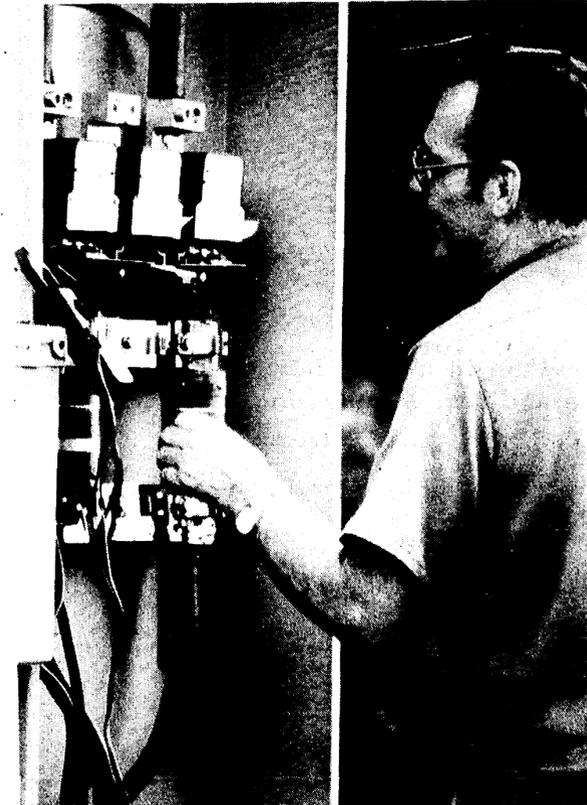

Polly's manager Mike Kennedy said last week he is about to award contracts and anticipates work will begin shortly.

Kennedy said he has given every bidder the names of Chelsea-area subcontractors.

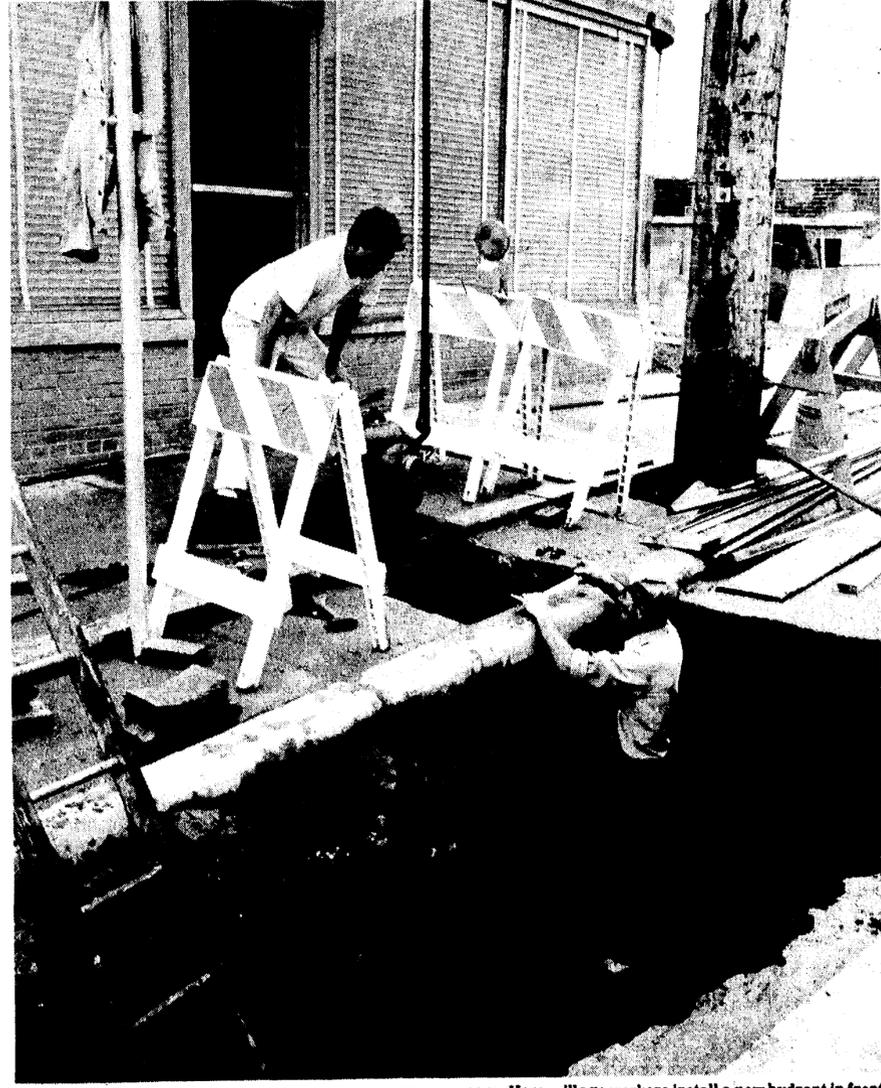

"It'll be the contractor's decision whether any local people are hired," Kennedy said.

"I'd like to sub it all out myself but I don't have the time."

The 45,000-square-foot mall will be the second shopping center started this year in the village.

RON JOSEPH, Chelsea High school maintenance supervisor, works to restore power to Jerry Niehaus Field early last Friday night. The first home game with Saline was halted twice by power failures.

A SMALL PART OF THE WATER SUPPLY SYSTEM has been re-routed in order to serve the Sylvan Hotel building, which is being renovated for office and retail space. Here, village workers install a new hydrant in front of the Longworth Plating building. The building has an extensive sprinkler system.

Left turns from Main St. onto Middle and Park Sts. will be prohibited from 3 to 6 p.m. in an experiment to try to speed the flow of traffic during afternoon rush hours through Chelsea.

Sewer rates would increase by an average of 20% under a proposal being considered by the village board of trustees. Village manager Fritz Weber presented figures to the board indicating the sewer fund would have a deficit of more than $25,000 at the end of this fiscal year.

Thirty-six people entered the Horse-shoe Pitching contest at the Chelsea Fair this year. A Manchester team, Larry McGee and Mark Rutherford won a first-place trophy. Anita Powell and her sister, Celeste, out-pitched everyone else to take second place. Fred Fetsch of Chelsea and Jack Richmond of Gregory beat the remaining 15 teams to win the third-place trophy.

Gerald Duffey landscaped a yard full of weeds into a "Garden of Eden," at 23 Chestnut Dr. His yard improvements won him the 1984 Residential Pride-of-Ownership award of the Ann Arbor Board of Realtors.

Officials Say Wetlands Impact Insignificant for S.S.C.

Officials of the Michigan Superconducting Super Collider Commission recently reported that only about 260 acres of wetlands would be permanently disturbed if Michigan is selected as the site for the U. S. Department of Energy project.

An environmental impact statement released by the department pointed out that 2,800 acres of wetlands were included in the 16,000 acre Michigan site, but John F. Haneski, executive director of the commission, said only about 620 acres of the wetlands would be affected.

And of that, about 360 acres would be only temporarily disturbed and would be allowed to return to their natural state following construction.

Haneski said Michigan stands to lose less environmentally sensitive land than any of the six other competing states. For example, at the Arizona site, some 570 acres of desert would be lost, which he said is much more difficult to restore than are the wetlands.

Locating the project in Michigan would also disturb only one natural habitat, that of the Indiana bat. Haneski said the bat has not been found in the proposed SSC area, but federal regulations prohibit the destruction of any natural habitat.

Haneski also said a sandhill crane nesting area, which some had thought might be endangered by the project, would not be affected.

Jim Heinzman, a geologist with the commission, added that additional research has shown that "buried valleys," which are eroded depressions filled with sediment under the ground, do not exist to the degree had been thought by federal officials, who said they could present problems during construction of the SSC tunnel.

The project's construction would involve only about 200 acres, Haneski said, out of the 8,000 that the Department of Energy would have to purchase from the state.

Other advantages Michigan has, Haneski said, include the large number of persons who would be available for employment, thus reducing the influx which would be required to accommodate needs. Only about 5,200 people would have to come into the state, while 6,300 would have to migrate into Colorado, the next closest.

That would also result in fewer housing needs in Michigan, he said, and fewer increases in school enrollment and not as great a need for additional teachers.

In infrastructure needs, Haneski said Michigan would require only one additional mile of four-lane highway and seven additional of two-lane roads, which is the lowest of the contenders, about 99 miles of road would need upgrading. The Colorado site would need 92 miles of two-lane and the Arizona site would need 15 miles of four-lane roads and 37 miles of two-lane roads.

Haneski said a public hearing will be held on Monday, Sept. 26, in Stockbridge, the proposed SSC site in Michigan. Governor James J. Blanchard is expected to meet in October with Department of Energy officials.

Between then and when the preliminary site selection is made after the November election, he said the state will continue its property acquisition efforts.

President Ronald Reagan is expected to finalize the decision before he leaves office in January.

Sewer Line Easement . . .

the lot would be worth about $15,000 less with the easement across it because anyone who wants to build on it would have to build unacceptably close to Dils' home.

"In my opinion I'm co-operating with the village," Dils said.

"I offered them the easement for $10,000, which means I'm already taking a loss. Who knows what the property might be worth in 10 or 20 years. It is one of the nicest lots in Chelsea."

If the sides go the court, a judge will likely determine the value of the easement.

School Board . . .

A one-year contract to provide lunches for Manchester Community Schools was approved. Under the agreement, Manchester will buy hot lunches at the rate of $1.30 each. Other supplies and food will be billed at the cost to Chelsea High school plus 5 percent.

The board approved the sanitary sewer easement requested by the Village of Chelsea. The easement will run across North Elementary school grounds.

Boston Homes Seeks Permit For Sylvan Models

An Ann Arbor man wants to construct four model modular homes on land next to Tuttle Spring Co. on Old US-12 west of the village.

Stan Kint, of Boston Contractors, is seeking a special use permit to build the homes. A public hearing will be held on Tuesday, Sept. 20 in Sylvan Town Hall to address the matter.

The area is zoned for light industry, which is appropriate for the model homes, according to township supervisor Don Schoenberg.

One of the homes would be used for an office.

"He's been playing with this for a long time and I'm sure he'd like to get this taken care of in one meeting," Schoenberg said.

Recycling Program Nearly Ready

sent to Recycle Ann Arbor, and tipping fees from landfills, including the Chelsea landfill. The village has provided about $10,000 under the landfill's 50 cent per yard tipping fee.

"We believe we have good solid sources of funding and that the program should essentially pay for itself," McMurtrie told the council.

Nine communities in the county are participating in the program. Dexter, the last community to sign on, has become the first community to have its center in place. Northfield township and Manchester are scheduled to start recycling this week.

Children in the Chelsea School District began working on a promotional campaign for the program last spring and posters are ready to go. Recent Chelsea High school grad Kasey Anderson came up with the winning logo. McMurtrie said he hopes to keep working with the schools in his efforts to make the public aware of and informed about the program.

Uncle Lew from Lima Says:

DEAR MISTER EDITOR:

Now that the explainers have spent the past two weeks translating ever sound heard and ever sight seen in Atlanta and New Orleans, now that President Reagan is spending the next four months galloping off in the sunset, and now that Democrats and Republicans know what horses they're backing and kicking into November, somebody has got to go back to running the country. That was Zeke Grubb's lament at the country store Saturday night.

Zeke said while the rest of us is mulling over the difference between a conservative liberal and a liberal conservative, the trade deficit jumped another 29 percent in June and the General Accounting Office learned it had made a slight $2 billion blunder in figuring the new budget deficit. That's small change in the big picture, Zeke said, but it means $2 billion illegal spending unless Congress changes the law that is supposed to hold it down.

What we final got, Zeke declared, is Government on the automatic. We got federal telling state and state telling locals they got to clean up the air and water, git the asbestos gone and give 200 more hours of training to ever ambulance attendant. Trouble is, Zeke said, they're giving the orders and letting the local Governments work out details like coming up with the money.

Zeke noted that he had saw where Hotchkiss, Colo. took matters in its own hands. Faced with a new state law outlawing hiring part-time policemen, folks in Hotchkiss outlawed accidents, emergencies and civil disputes on Mondays and Tuesdays, when the marshal is off duty. The town had been using part-time help during the marshal's vacations and off days, and it can't afford to hire another full-time officer.

Furthermore, Zeke went on, now that the Federal law is passed paying $20,000 to ever surviving Japanese-American that was put in camps during World War II, the country needs reminding that Ed Doolittle explained this situation back in the spring when Congress was considering making this mistake. Ed said then that if victims of bad Federal policy are entitled to payoffs we got to start with the native Americans and there won't be no end. Now, Zeke said, Ed can say I told you so.

Last month, Zeke said, he had saw where a Cherokee Indian in New Mexico is suing the Federal Government for forcing his ancestors off their land in the east and marching em over the Trail of Tears of Oklahoma. This feller says he'll be happy if the Government pays his people what it's paying the more recent imported Americans.

Ed said he was much obliged for the endorsement, but he now was seeing even bigger problems on the way. He had saw where North Carolina done a survey and found that full half of all the bridges in the state need replacing, and ever state that checks will git the same finding. The plain truth that he's been preaching for years, Ed said, is that this country can keep throwing good money after good ferever, or until the gas runs out, but it never will be able to build and fix roads as fast as we tear em up. Can anybody drive 10 mile anywhere these days without having to dodge barriers around holes in the road or men and machines working on em, Ed wanted to know.

We got to go back to trains, Ed allowed, because the hurrier we go on road work the behinder we git.

Yours truly,
 Uncle Lew.

Mr. and Mrs. Mark Douglas Borton

Felicia Passow, Mark Borton Wed in Ypsilanti Ceremony

Felicia Luceil Passow of Chelsea, and Mark Douglas Borton of Ypsilanti, were married at 1 p.m. on Saturday, July 23 at the Faithway Baptist College Auditorium in Ypsilanti. Dr. Eugene Graham officiated. Vocalists were Pamela McLean singing, "Oh, Perfect Love," and Ana Ramirez, "It Seems I've Always Loved You." Ann Ramirez also sang a duet with Linda East, "Our Lives, Lord, Are Yours to Control." Orlando Buria, professor at Faithway Baptist College, performed a violin solo. Mary Wright of Ypsilanti played the piano and organ.

The bride, a graduate of Chelsea High school, graduated cum laude from Faithway Baptist College. The bridegroom also graduated from Faithway Baptist College.

The bride wore her mother's white satin wedding gown with a new veil.

Parents of the bride are Don and Phyllis Passow of Chelsea. The bridegroom's parents are Larry H. Borton, of Beverly Shores, Ind., and Mrs. Sally H. O'Malley, of Rapid City.

Mrs. Melissa Hatfield, of Ypsilanti, was the matron of honor. She wore a peach-colored, tea-length gown. Bridesmaids were Camille Passow, the bride's sister; Laura Fox, the bridegroom's sister; and Jacquelyn Leonard, of St. Thomas, a friend of the bride.

Best man was Wayne Snodgrass of St. Louis, Mo. The groomsmen, Dale Prim, Ron Muzzi, Eric Wright, were all from Faithway Baptist College. Ushers were Chris Ravert and Raymond Harris.

A reception was given by members of the Faithway Baptist church in its auditorium. Cake servers were Jill Graham and Christia Bucher. The couple honeymooned in Northern Michigan for one week. They are residing at Corpus Christi, Tex., where they will both teach in a Christian school.

Mastectomy Support Group To Meet

Topics such as exercise, types of treatment, communication and the emotional aspects of cancer will be covered. There is time for sharing and support at each meeting.

Enrollment is limited and pre-registration is requested. For more information or to register, please call 572-3519.

Lt. and Mrs. Michael Stuart Althouse

Alison Drum, Michael Althouse Exchange Vows in Pennsylvania

Alison Blair Drum, of Carlisle, Pa., and Lt. j.g. Michael Stuart Althouse, of Lexington Park, Md., were married before 150 guests at 11 a.m. on Saturday, July 30 at the Second Presbyterian church in Carlisle, Pa. The Rev. James J. Ferguson officiated. Jennie Ritter of Baltimore, Md., performed a solo. Dr. Donald Roeder of Carlisle, Pa., played the trumpet.

The bride is a graduate of Carlisle High school and has a bachelor's degree from Hood College in human resource management.

The bridegroom graduated from Ypsilanti High school and earned a bachelor's degree in mathematics from the U. S. Naval Academy. He is stationed at Patuxent River Naval Air Station as a navy pilot.

The bride wore a white gown with a sweetheart neckline, puff sleeves, and a fitted waistline, accented by alencon lace, and pearls. She also wore an elbow-length veil with a blusher cloche headpiece.

Parents of the bride are Gwenn Bream Drum of Carlisle, Pa. and Ray Drum of Lancaster, Pa. The bridegroom's parents are Gretchen C. Scott of Chelsea and Paul M. Althouse of Ypsilanti.

Jessica Cortland Drum, of Carlisle, Pa., was the maid of honor.

Brenda K. Bollinger of Allston, Mass., Kirstin A. Jackson of Miami, Fla., Jennifer Matts, of Groton, Conn., and Hilary N. Stone, of Falls Church, Va., all friends of the bride, were bridesmaids.

The bridesmaids wore royal blue taffeta gowns which were just below ballerina length and had rounded necklines, puff cap sleeves and bows below V-cut backs.

Julie Bream of Jacksonville, Fla., the bride's cousin, was the flower girl. Douglas G. Scott of Chelsea, the bridegroom's stepfather, was the best man.

Ushers were Trevor Drum of Lancaster, Pa., Jack MacMillan, 1st Lt. USMC of Hickory, N. C., Bob Matts, Lt. USN, of Groton, Conn., Blake Ratcliff, 1st Lt. USMC, of Quantico, Va., friends of the bridegroom; and the bride's brother, Trevor Drum of Lancaster, Pa.

Swordsmen in the Arch of Swords were Jack MacMillan, 1st Lt. USMC, David English, 1st Lt. USMC, Bob Matts, Lt. USN, and Blake Ratcliff, 1st Lt. USMC.

A reception was held at the Officer's Club in the Carlisle Barracks in Carlisle, Pa. The couple honeymooned briefly in Bethany Beach, Del. They plan a longer honeymoon in Key West, Fla., for October. They will be residing on the Patuxent River Naval Air Station in Lexington Park, Md.

"Working Hard To Keep It Simple"

Out on Sibley Rd., the men and women of Dana make thousands of precision-engineered products called power take-offs or PTO's. As you no doubt know, these are auxiliary transmissions which are coupled to the power trains of trucks. When tools are then linked to the PTO's they can perform a remarkable variety of tasks. This hard labor is done on the spot, anywhere, anytime.

At the scene of a fire, it is a PTO that makes it possible to pump and propel thousands of gallons of water per minute into a burning building.

Again, it is the lifting power of a PTO that can hoist an aerial ladder 100 feet up a wall so that city firemen can save trapped people from certain death.

Uptown the crew of a truck from the utility company is using a post-hole digger, connected to their truck by a PTO, to bore deep and straight into the ground. Minutes later a PTO will help the crew lift and lower a huge utility pole into the cavity. Down the street a wrecker with a PTO-driven winch pulls a vehicle free that has become mired in the mud.

Across the nation and around the world, aided by PTO's, people are using the superhuman, super horsepower of truck engines to perform labors that would defeat legions of men and animals. Imagine a team of Budweiser draft horses, four abreast and 18 deep, straining to move a massive load while alongside a truck engine rated at 72 h.p. is moving an identical load with the touch of a PTO lever.

The drive-train of an automobile, truck or tractor is designed only to move the vehicle forward or backward. When a PTO with its system of gears and drive shaft is coupled to this same engine, the available energy becomes multidirectional. All or part of the automotive power can instantly be used for movement up, down, sideways or at angles. Tools may be attached to the PTO to pump, pull, push, lift, dig, grade, blow, scrape, shred, saw, cut or generate electricity.

Men and women of our village made their first PTO's as employees of the power take-off division of Chelsea's Central Fibre Products Co. This firm, famous for its clock tower, was purchased by Chelsea Products in 1945 and then sold in 1958 to Dana Corp. The new subsidiary of Dana continued under the same Chelsea management.

When the Sibley Rd. plant was completed in 1967, the manufacture of Spicer Power Take-Offs was moved to Chelsea.

The last addition to the Sibley Rd. plant was in 1974 bringing the square footage to 191,612 square feet—almost 4 1/2 acres under one roof. At that time Chelsea Dana had one major domestic competitor. Today it has 32 competitors and 31 of these are foreign concerns. How has all this competition affected the enterprise?

Chelsea Dana remains the world's largest maker of power take-offs with four times the production of its nearest competitor.

With world headquarters in nearby Toledo, Dana Corp. is 107th on the Fortune list of America's 500 leading industrial companies. It ranks fourth in the Fortune Motor Vehicle and Parts category, just below the automotive Big Three.

Dana Corp. has something like $3 billion in factories, machines, materials, inventories and investments. But if you talk to any of its leaders, such as Thomas "Hoot" Huettelman, plant manager at Chelsea, they will tell you that money, factories and machines are great but "Our greatest asset is our people."

In a brochure addressed to their family of employees, the company talks earnestly about Dana's philosophy and policies. Here are excerpts, some with my italics:

- We are dedicated to the belief that our people are our most important asset. Wherever possible, we encourage all Dana people within the entire world organization to become shareholders, or by some other means, own a part of their company.
- We believe people respond to recognition, freedom to participate, and the opportunity to develop.
- We believe that people should be involved in setting their own goals and judging their own performance. The people who know best how the job should be done are the ones who are doing it.
- We believe Dana people should strive for total quality in all tasks they perform.
- We endorse productivity plans which allow people to share in the rewards of productivity gains.
- We believe in promoting from within. Dana people interested in other positions are encouraged to discuss job opportunities with their supervisor.
- We believe in providing programs to support the Dana Style. We encourage professional and personal development of all Dana people.

The Dana Style has nothing to do with fashion. It is the lifestyle of career people working as a team in an atmosphere of personal initiative. Together they create the right climate for productivity and growth. They firmly discourage conformity and centralization, and they believe in a minimum number of management levels. (There are only five levels world-wide.) For the same reasons, they approve the policy which holds that responsibility should be pressed as deep into the organization as possible.

They are also convinced that results are best obtained through task forces rather than permanent staff functions. As soon as a task force has done its job, it is disbanded before it has a chance to take bureaucratic root. In all company affairs there is the constant urge to keep it simple.

The company has programs to communicate regularly with shareholders, customers, Dana people, the general public and the financial community. The corporation feels strongly that it is the responsibility of all managers to keep people informed about the performance and plans of their operation. They mean it when they say, "We have no secrets at Dana."

In the ever-renewable quest for productivity, Chelsea Dana has an E.I.M. suggestion program (Excellence in Manufacturing), where an individual or a team can make suggestions at any time. The people are provided with a suggestion form which begins, "What condition do you want to improve, and why do you want to improve it?" Suggestions may be concerned with the work environment, safety, efficiency of operation, product quality or inter-relationships. All suggestions are given prompt attention and the results are reported back to the originators. As benefits are realized, innovators share in the benefits.

This kind of thinking has traditionally made sense with Dana. It was decades ago that Charlie Dana declared, "The one thing really worthwhile about an organization is its men and women. No one knows better than I the value of advice directly from the workman."

A recent innovation, now undergoing trials at the company, is the Manufacturing Cell, introduced as a successor to assembly line production. It has taken the best part of a century to realize that using a human being to perform one simple task such as tightening a bolt is to deny the intelligence and humanity of the person on the job. Such tasks are being taken over by robots.

Now on Sibley Rd., and elsewhere in American industry, the dawn is breaking on the day of the Cell. Instead of having eight different people performing eight separate functions to produce one PTO part, the total task is being given to one individual. One person (whom we'll call Pat) performs all six functions in the production of splined-output shaft. Pat's production in the Cell begins with an automatic screw machine, goes through four more processes, and ends with an internal shaper. Surrounded by this equipment in his or her cell, Pat is solely responsible for the production and inspection of that shaft.

The result is higher productivity, lower unit cost, personal accountability and entrepreneurial pride.

Dana people are aware of goals that are tantalizingly beyond reach. Zero set-up time. Zero waste. Zero scrap. Zero tolerance. Zero down-time. Okay. Maybe they are impossible but a guy or a gal can try. Dana Style.

P.S. The time has come when I must regretfully forego biweekly publication of this column in favor of less frequent contribution, but I'm not quitting. I need time to catch up on other commitments long overdue.

DANA MANUFACTURING CELL where one worker produces PTO parts aided by six different machine tools. Thomas Huettelman (white shirt) Chelsea plant manager, converses with operator.

JERRY LUTZ PAUSED TO CHAT with Washtenaw County Sheriff Ron Schebil, his daughter, Kristyn, and Cynthia Hudgins from the office of Congressman Carl Pursell, during the Republican Picnic held at the home of state representative Margaret O'Connor and her husband, Dr. Gerald O'Connor, Sunday, Sept. 11. Jointly sponsored by the Washtenaw County Republican Committee and Republican candidates and office holders, the picnic proved a popular social gathering, in addition to providing political veterans and hopefuls an opportunity to exchange ideas. Host couples included county commissioners Ellis Pratt, Marty Straub and Roy Smith, and their wives. Pursell donated the hot dogs and pop, and a lengthy list of volunteers helped grill the hot dogs. Sheriff Schebil was one of the grill workers, and Cynthia was buzzing around all afternoon, doing one helpful task after another. Jerry Lutz explained he was just enjoying the occasion.

VFW Ladies Auxiliary Notes

The regular monthly meeting of the Ladies Auxiliary Veterans of Foreign Wars was held Monday, Sept. 12, with nine members in attendance.

A report of the hospital party held on Aug. 30, at the Ann Arbor VA Hospital was given by the chairman, Lucy Platt. She stated more patients were present as it was early in the week and patients had not gone home on week-end passes. She also reported volunteers are needed at the hospital, read a list of items patients are in need of, spoke on the yearly Wheel-Chair Olympics and the re-evaluations of items groups or individuals might donate. She also reported a party is being planned for veteran patients at the Ypsilanti State Hospital during the last week of September, more information later. She reported having attended a workshop at the VA Hospital on Sept. 10.

Americanism chairman Eulahlee Packard reported a flag was given to the Chelsea fair board for the office, a desk flag was given to the Secretary of State's local office; also a fringed flag was presented to the Police office area at the Ann Arbor VA Hospital.

Two dollars per-member was allotted to the Department of Michigan as the group's cancer quota. Fifty cancer pins are being ordered for resale at $1 each, 30 have been obtained and sold. This is done each year with a newly designed pin. This money is sent to cancer aid and research through the Department of Michigan.

The auxiliary charter was draped for the next 30 days in memory of Past Department President Bethel Eddy who died on Aug. 7. A planning meeting will be held on Sept. 26, at 7 p.m. in the VFW Hall. Rules for the Rehabilitation program will also be reviewed and revised. All members are welcome and all officers and chairman are urged to attend.

The auxiliary is planning a bazaar and bake sale for Dec. 2, to be headed by Lois Speer, assisted by Eleanor Farley as contact person.

The sixth district will convene Sunday, Sept. 18, at the Mason Post Home. School of instruction will begin at 11 a.m. Several auxiliary and post members plan to attend.

The Department of Michigan will be holding the 60th annual Pow-Wow "School Days" dinner Saturday, Oct. 1, at Boyne Mountain. The Pow-wow or fall conference begins Sept. 29 and continues through Oct. 2. At this time, national council member Lorraine Stewart will be making her official visit at the Fall Conference, to the Department of Michigan. Alice Fisher, District 4 president, will accompany her.

Auxiliary newsletter chairman Eulahlee Packard requests items for the newsletter be turned in before the first of every month and urges members to place articles in the newsletters.

The next auxiliary meeting on Oct. 10 will be inspection meeting. The Sixth District president, Carolyn Smith, will be present as inspecting officer. All chairmen with notebooks are requested to be present at 7 p.m.

High-speed swimmer: You might guess the fastest fish in the water is the shark... but you would be all wet. According to Ranger Rick magazine, researchers believe the sailfish is the fastest fish in the water. The sailfish can swim up to 68 miles per hour. That's about as fast as a cheetah can run, and the cheetah is the fastest runner on earth.

BOY SCOUT JIM BENNETT hands his Webelo hat down to his brother, Andy, who hands his Wolf hat down to his brother, Davy; North School Pack 435 will have their first pack meeting next Thursday, Sept. 15 at 7 p.m. at North school. It will be a bicycle rodeo. Any boy in the second through fifth grades interested in joining may sign up then or call Lisa Bertke at 475-7988. First grade boys may sign up for Tiger Cubs in the same way.

According to John Evert, Washtenaw county 4-H youth agent, purpose of the annual event is to give 4-H horse project members an opportunity to evaluate their horsemanship skills by competing against other youths from across the state with similar interests.

This year's event included 485 4-H members ranging in classes from Western and English rising and

The first state law authorizing the 10-hour day for all workers was passed in 1847 in New Hampshire, according to the U. S. Labor Department. The committee that studied the issue concluded that with a shorter work day, "employers would realize a greater profit, even in less time, from labours more vigorous and able to work, from having had suitable time to rest; while operatives would be allowed that time for intellectual and moral culture, which duty to themselves and others most imperatively demand."

Letters to the Editor

To the Editor,

Reading the Chelsea paper on Wednesday, I read something that I thought could not be—another office building, housing. I thought the sign on this site said future site of Chelsea Fitness Center. At least, that's how it has read for years. We have not even filled the projects around Chelsea to start more. What's wrong with the Fitness Center—it's a business, makes jobs and money, places for families to go and do things together, get in shape, for one.

This sign has been there years with no media attraction at all, but the first mention of offices, rental spaces, and stores it makes the front page. Why? Chelsea is a fine community, growing faster each day, which is fine, but a place for families to be together is fine too. That's what Chelsea is, one big family aren't we. Please look closely to the sign before you build your offices and stores there. Just think we might all benefit from a fitness center.

Three Cassidy Lake Prisoners Walk Away on Same Day

Three Cassidy Lake Technical School inmates walked away from the facility in two separate incidents on Thursday, Sept. 8.

Gary McCuiston, 21, of Detroit, and Matthew Couper, 20, of Bay county, were reported missing at 11:18 a.m., according to Chelsea police reports.

McCuiston, described as white, 5' 11", 150 pounds, with brown hair and brown eyes, a mustache, and acne, was serving 1-4 years for felonious assault and two years for possession of firearms.

Couper, described as white, 5' 11",

145 pounds, with brown hair and blue eyes, was serving 4-10 years for larceny.

At 10:45 p.m., Thomas W. Beavers was reported missing from the prison.

Beavers, 28, of Livingston county, is described as white, 5' 3", 130 pounds, with brown hair, blue eyes, a tattoo on his left arm and a scar on his left cheek. He was serving up to 10 years on three counts of breaking and entering.

Twenty-two prisoners have escaped from Cassidy Lake and Camp Waterloo since May 1.

Cub Scout Round-Up Slated Sept. 14

Parents may register their Tiger Scouts (first graders) or Cub Scouts (second to fifth graders), at the Dexter Tiger and Cub Scout round-up at 7 p.m. on Sept. 14 at the Copeland elementary school gym, said Kathleen Nesbitt, cubmaster of Pack 477.

Space is still available in either of the two local packs, 448 and 477, which each have about 50 members. Tiger and Cub Scouts belong to both packs.

Activities planned for this year included a football game in October, a Blue and Gold Banquet in February, a Cub Mobile in August, and a Pinewood Derby, in addition to other events throughout the year.

Parents are also encouraged to volunteer, Nesbitt said. She added that anyone can get involved—it's not necessary to have children in the program.

For further information, call Kathleen Nesbitt (Pack 477) at 665-7718, or Dave Kluck (Pack 448) at 426-2039.

Borek Janik Named Technical Director At Gelman Industries

Chelsea resident Dr. Borek Janik has been named director of technical services for Gelman Sciences of Ann Arbor.

In announcing this appointment, William C. Emhiser, company president, stressed the importance of the technical services department in the company. Gelman Sciences manufactures and sells microfiltration products used in medical devices for the health care industry, research and clinical laboratories, and industrial process separation.

"Like most high-technology companies, our filtration products require a substantial amount of technical support," Emhiser said.

Over the years, we have built a strong foundation for growth and customer confidence in our technical services, and we are confident that Dr. Janik will add a further dimension."

Janik, formerly director of laboratory technologies, joined Gelman Sciences in 1979. Prior to that, he was manager of blood chemistry research and development for the Ames division of Miles Laboratories. With Miles Research Products Division he was manager of bioproducts research and development and senior diagnostic officer. Janik received a Master's degree in

DR. BOREK JANIK

Organic Chemistry from J. E. Purkyně University in Brno, Czechoslovakia. He received a Ph.D. from the Czechoslovak Academy of Sciences, Institute of Biophysics and a RNDr. degree also from J. E. Purkyně University.

He has published more than 80 technical papers in scientific journals and has presented papers at technical conferences and scientific meetings worldwide. In addition, Janik's work includes three books. He is listed in American Men of Science and Who's Who in the Midwest. Janik is a member of the American Association of Clinical Chemistry, the Michigan Technology Council and the Electrochemical Society.

Gelman Sciences has subsidiaries in Australia, Canada, Ireland, Israel, Japan, and the United Kingdom. Janik and his staff will provide assistance to the technical staff located in all worldwide locations.

Friends of Library Report Successful Used Book Sale

At the Aug. 3 meeting of the Friends of the McKune Memorial Library, Ben Bower reported a profit of $150 from the used book sale that took place during the summer sidewalk sales. Used books are welcome all year and will be collected and stored at McKune Library, said secretary Diane Kyte.

Also, the Friends of McKune Memorial Library gave $100 to McKune Memorial Library for the Summer Reading Program held each year during summer school vacation. The money helped to fund the party held at Chelsea Bowling Lanes and McDonald's as a grand finale to the reading program.

The group also reported that Ronna Oliver is working on a computer program for typing out a mailing list.

Humane Society Sponsoring Fund Raiser Auction

Humane Society of Huron Valley has announced the event of the year in its upcoming Auction '88 "Bid from the Heart." The event will be held on Thursday, Sept. 29, at 6:30 p.m. at the Holiday Inn West located on Jackson Rd., in Ann Arbor.

Tickets are $50 each or two for $75 and are tax-deductible. This includes a door prize for everyone, hors d'oeuvres and wine. A silent auction will be held first followed by a live auction. A total of 124 companies have donated more than $25,000 worth of time, services and merchandise to make this fun-filled event possible.

All proceeds from Auction '88 will benefit the animals at the Humane Society of Huron Valley. Tickets may be obtained by calling Jean Green, director of development, at 662-5545.

The Humane Society of Huron Valley is a private, non-profit organization dedicated to preventing cruelty to animals and to promoting respect for all life. HSHV is independently operated and community supported.

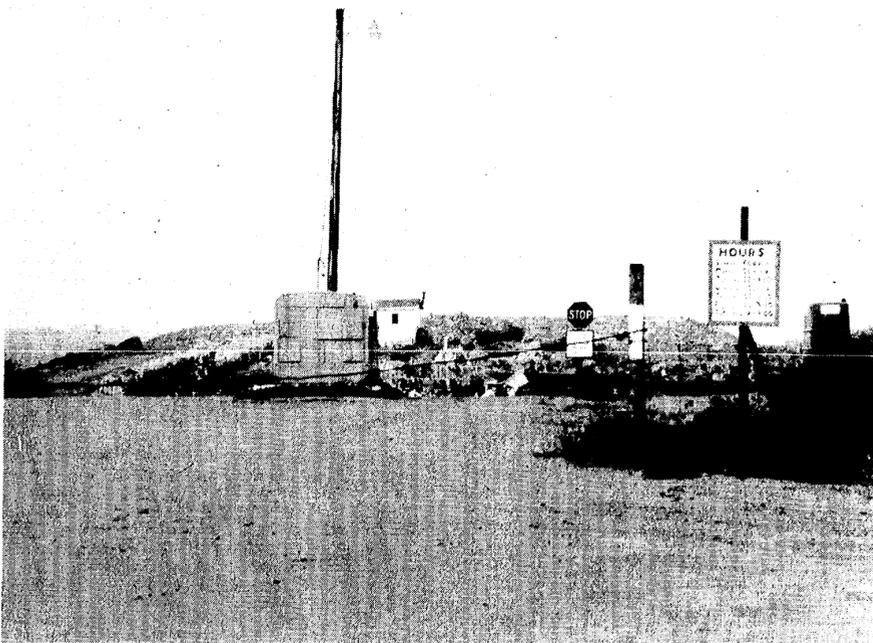

Jane Scott Callison In Better Homes & Garden Feature Story

Jane Scott Callison, former Chelsea resident, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Scott, had her picture appear in the feature article of the September Better Homes & Gardens. Sue is currently living in Tecumseh doing interior design work through Great Ideas, an interior design studio.

The article featured a local bed and breakfast which was restored in 1986 by the owners, Gary and Judy Hicks, the historic society; and local designers. The house, built in the mid-1800's, was a beautiful victorian home with eight bedrooms.

Jane Scott Callison designed the kitchen with Amish-made cabinets, ceramic tile counter, and navy blue victorian wallcovering.

VILLAGE LANDFILL RATES are likely to rise as a result of the new consent agreement between the village and Department of Natural Resources. The village has agreed to conduct numerous, expensive tests on the old landfill to determine the extent of an alleged groundwater contamination problem.

Landfill Rates Likely To Rise

User rates at the Chelsea landfill are likely to rise as a result of the recently-signed consent agreement with the Department of Natural Resources.

The agreement forces the village to complete a number of studies of possible pollution in the soils and groundwater near the landfill. Previous engineering estimates have pegged the cost at about $75,000.

Village manager Fritz Weber told council last Tuesday that he hopes to have a list of tentative expenses the studies will generate as well as a proposal for landfill rates ready for the Sept. 20 council meeting.

If the village has to close down its type III landfill for demolition, it will lose another source of revenue.

As of press time it was not known whether the village would ask Sylvan, Lyndon, Lima, and Dexter townships to share in the expense. Sylvan Township Supervisor Don Schoenberg said he has not been formally approached by the village.

The landfill is operating on its fourth one-month license extension, which will expire Oct. 7. The extension was necessary in order for the village and DNR to decide what kind of mechanism they will use to trace any pollution that might arise from the new lined landfill cell. The village thought it had a way that met procedures that had been previously authorized by the DNR. However, DNR has apparently changed its policies recently.

Traffic Slowed By Bridge Repairs On M-14 at River

Traffic on westbound M-14/US-23 Business Route at the Huron River Bridge in Washtenaw county north of Ann Arbor will be reduced to one lane during bridge repairs beginning Tuesday, Aug. 9, the Michigan Department of Transportation (MDOT) said today.

Work includes patching on the bridge deck and repairs on the structure. The construction zone runs for about one-half mile.

Work will continue through this fall and be completed by August 1989. When westbound repairs are finished, the contractor will begin work on the eastbound lanes.

All lanes of traffic will be kept open during University of Michigan home football games, according to MDOT engineers.

Contractor for the project is Argersinger-Morse & Co. of Ann Arbor who will complete the work at a cost of $742,000.

Motorists are advised to observe the 45 mile-per-hour speed limit in construction zones.

Errors, Power Failures Mar Conference Opener As Dogs Lose to Saline

By Brian Hamilton

In a game that will probably be remembered more for two blackouts than the play on the field, three interceptions and two dropped passes were essentially the difference as Chelsea lost 14-7 to the Saline Hornets at home last Friday night.

One pick-off led directly to Saline's first touchdown, another halted a drive deep in Hornet territory.

One dropped pass inside the Saline five yard line was a sure touchdown, another could easily have been a score considering how wide open the receiver was in the middle of the field.

"We just didn't play very well," said Chelsea head coach Gene LaFave.

"We had a lot of opportunities. We were inside their 30 five times but couldn't get the job done. We made too many errors. When you look at the tapes you realize it wasn't so much what Saline did to us as what we did to ourselves."

Despite the problems, Chelsea very nearly came back to tie.

Down 14-0 with about four minutes to go, quarterback Larry Nix ran the two-minute offense to perfection and Bulldogs scored with a little more than two minutes remaining. The subsequent on-sides kick failed, however, ending the Bulldogs' chances.

The game featured two one-dimensional offenses. Chelsea had problems running the ball, picking up just 84 yards on the night, 42 by Junior Morseau. However, Nix passed for 181 yards and one touchdown, completing 13 of 27 passes. Morseau caught six passes for 97 yards and the only touchdown. Kerry Plank had two catches for 51 yards.

"Nix had another solid game," said assistant coach Wayne Welton.

"He could easily have been 18 or 19 of 27. This is the second week in a row that we haven't caught the ball very well."

The Hornets, on the other hand, had almost no passing game as they completed two of nine tries for 18 yards. However, Brian Bozo, one of the top backs in the Southeastern Conference, ran for 143 yards and one touchdown. And teammate Branco Vulicevic gained 92 yards and the other score.

In the end, most statistics were about even. Chelsea had 265 yards, Saline 270. Chelsea had 10 first downs and 70 yards in penalties, Saline had eight first downs and 90 yards in penalties.

But Saline turned the ball over one time and had two big plays.

One of those big plays occurred immediately after Hornet Tom Bolvin picked off a pass that bounced off the Chelsea receiver. On the next play, Bozo scampered 32 yards off tackle for the touchdown, taking advantage of what LaFave called "a gross error," by the Bulldog defenders.

After the second half kick-off, Vulicevic took the ball on the first play and ran to the right side 58 yards for the score.

Perhaps the Bulldogs finest moment of the night was just before the first half ended as they stopped the Hornets on a fourth down and four at the Chelsea six.

"It's hard to point to any glowing positives and at the same time it's hard to point to any glowing negatives," LaFave said about the game.

"We'll start over and probably make a couple of positional changes. We know we can throw the ball, and we'll probably try to get the ball to Jude Quilter a little more. Defensively we'll probably make one or two changes."

Chelsea hosts Milan Friday in what could be a make or break game as far as any SEC championship hopes are concerned. The Big Reds lost 26-7 to Pinckney last week.

"Milan has a good running game but like Mason and Saline, they don't throw the ball effectively," LaFave said.

"They have good size up front and have a couple of good running backs." Welton said controlling the line of scrimmage would be the key to stopping the Big Reds.

"The scouts say if we don't bring their backs down early, they'll give us problems in the secondary," Welton said.

Defensively, Milan uses a gambling, stunting defense.

JUNIOR MORSEAU tries to find a little running room Friday night's home game. Morseau led the team in all between his own blocker and a Saline tackler during last purpose yardage with 42 on the ground and 97 in the air.

Bulldog Cagers Club Gladiators Behind Jenni Smith's 22 Points

Jenni Smith's dominating inside game led the Chelsea Bulldogs to a 60-38 victory over the Fowlerville Gladiators at home last Tuesday, Sept. 6.

Smith scored 22 points on 10 of 11 shooting from the floor and grabbed 15 rebounds.

"She was definitely the difference," said Chelsea coach Rahn Rosentreter.

"Jenni's smart and quick and if she continues to play well we'll have a good season."

Chelsea broke the game open in the third quarter when they outscored the Gladiators 23-10, thanks, in part, to 11 points by Smith.

"I don't know what got into the team," Rosentreter said.

"Normally we're not a good third quarter team. But they took control and put the game away."

The Gladiators switched from a zone to a man-to-man defense in the second half, which played into Chelsea's strength. The Bulldogs, with Smith, and Allison Brown, were able to get into mismatches and score easy baskets inside. In the final two periods, Smith and Brown scored 19 points between them. Brown finished with 13 points, the only other Bulldog in double figures.

"I think Fowlerville tried to shake things up a little by changing defenses, which is no different than what we did in Adrian, except it seemed to work for us," Rosentreter said.

"They didn't have the size to stay with us and Fowlerville didn't rebound well."

The Bulldogs out-rebounded Fowlerville 42-11, and the Gladiators didn't have a single rebound in the fourth quarter.

Rounding out the scoring were Kelly Scott and Heather Neibauer with eight points each, Laura Unterbrink with four, Carrie Flintoft and Shannon Losey with two each, and Lisa Unterbrink with one.

"Everybody got into the game and everyone had a chance to score," Rosentreter said.

Flintoft, a sophomore, had seven of the team's 14 assists, and Neibauer had five.

Chelsea hit 22 of 51 shots from the field and 16 of 27 from the line, one of their best performances in the last two years.

JUDE QUILTER makes a fine catch in the early going against Saline last Friday night, but is immediately shoved out of bounds. Chelsea lost the SEC opener, 14-7. The passing game should play a prominent part in this Friday's game at home against Milan.

Hornets Stop JV Gridders

Chelsea Bulldog junior varsity football team was shut out for the second week in a row in losing 44-0 to the Saline Hornets last Thursday, Sept. 8.

According to assistant coach Mike Bohlender, one of the biggest problems was the play of special teams, which gave up three touchdowns—one on a kick-off return and two on punt returns.

Despite the score, Bohlender said the coaching staff was encouraged by some parts of the game.

Bohlender praised the play of offensive tackle Matt Carlson, who was starting his first game. He also said strong safety Bret Salamin and running back and defensive end Jarret Kern had good games.

The JVs play at Milan tomorrow at 7 p.m.

The first petition to a state legislature for a shorter working day was presented in 1802 by carpenters in Georgia, who sought to place their profession "upon a more respectable and recognized social footing," according to the U. S. Department of Labor.

Chelsea Bulldog tennis team lost to a good Brooklyn Columbia Central team, 1-6, last Wednesday, Sept. 6.

"I believe we could have done a little better but we lack the experience to pull out the close games," said Chelsea coach Terry Curtis.

"Individual players won games from their opponents but couldn't win their matches."

Angel Lawton, playing first singles, lost a tiebreaker in the first set and ended up losing the match, 6-7, 3-6, to Holly Dresselhouse.

"They are both seniors and are very close in ability," Curtis said.

"I would have like to have this one and I hope Angel can get it in the rematch."

Junior Nicole Ponty went down to Erica Hanselman, 6-0, 6-3.

Freshman Amy Mitchell was beaten by a junior, Heather Lawson, 6-3, 6-1.

Chelsea sophomore Lissa Hamrick lost her match to Shari Force, 6-3, 6-0.

"Lissa is new to singles this year having played doubles her first year," Curtis said.

"She is trying hard to fill the number four spot."

Seniors Jennifer Robinson and Laura Comeau picked up the only Chelsea win, at first doubles, with scores of 6-4, 6-3.

Senior Leslie Manning and newcomer Jane Pacheco lost their tiebreaker in the first set, 5-7, to take a 6-7 loss. They lost the second set 4-6 in another close match.

Freshmen Sara Musolf and Sarah Gegenheimer lost to sophomores Katie Gulliver and Julie Zaski, 6-4, 6-2.

"It was a good effort but they lack experience."

"These two will be a real threat in the future."

If only Chelsea had used the strategy a little earlier and a little more often, the Bulldogs might have beaten the Saline Hornets last Friday night.

The strategy was simple. If you don't like what you see, turn out the lights! A brilliant idea!

Last year or the year before, almost the same thing happened at Milan. Pinckney was about to score and, whammo, the sprinkler system erupted. Now that was a touch of pure genius.

The strategy is similar to one my sister used to employ against me when we played chess, checkers, Monopoly, or any other board game. I'd be beating her socks off when suddenly she'd decide to get a snack and somehow she'd "accidentally" knock the board off the table.

"Oh, I'm sorry," she'd say. "I guess we'll have to start over."

The Saline defense was dominating the Chelsea offense in the first quarter when suddenly all the power to Jerry Niehaus field was "accidentally" cut off. A delay of about 25 minutes gave the Bulldogs time to re-grip in the locker room. When they returned to the field, Junior Morsseau put a punt out of bounds at the Saline 10. Coincidence?

In the fourth quarter, the Hornets were about to lock the game up. They were deep in Chelsea territory with a 14-0 lead with less than five minutes to go. The Saline quarterback threw a pass into the end zone. The receiver looked up and, whammo, the lights "accidentally" went out again! Almost perfect timing!

I swear I heard someone on the Chelsea coaching staff tell the official, "well, I guess we'll have to start over tomorrow night. There's plenty of time left. We could still win this sucker."

Funny thing, too. When the officials didn't buy that idea, the lights came on again relatively quickly. And, quarterback Larry Nix led the Bulldogs down the field on their only scoring drive of the night. Something, I suspect, may have been slipped into Brian Bozo's mouthguard during the blackout.

It's just too bad the lights didn't go out when Bozo was scampering 32 yards for Saline's first touchdown. Just think, the Chelsea defense could have picked Bozo up and carried him to the other end of the field and claimed he got disoriented and ran the wrong way.

The strategy would have been perfect just before Bozo intercepted Nix's pass and ran the ball back 67 yards. Lights off. Lights back on and tight end David Zerkel is standing in the end zone with the ball. He could even have grabbed a ball off the sidelines!

If nothing else, the plays would probably have been re-run. And maybe the whole course of the game would have changed.

I told you last week the Bulldogs were going to be fun to watch.

Wait 'til you see what the coaching staff has cooked up for Milan. They didn't get new goal posts for nothing.

Results of Sept. 10
 Games over 50: K. Messner, 51; S. Miller, 56, 61; G. Bollinger, 50; K. Weiner, 57, 91; J. Roberts, 61; D. Price, 61; P. Spangler, 57; A. Bolzman, 78, 68.

Jenni Smith was sizzling through her first two varsity basketball games. The senior made 15 of her first 18 shots from the field, although she hasn't taken many shots from the outside. With those stats, who cares where she shoots from.

Smith may be THE dominant athlete at Chelsea High school this year. She has all the qualities. She's big, strong, bright, and extremely dedicated. If she develops a killer instinct there's no telling how far she can go.

Smith will be the number one softball pitcher for Chelsea next spring and I doubt if there's anyone in this part of the state with her ability. Her power will blow batters away. They'll be praying for mercy in the batter's box.

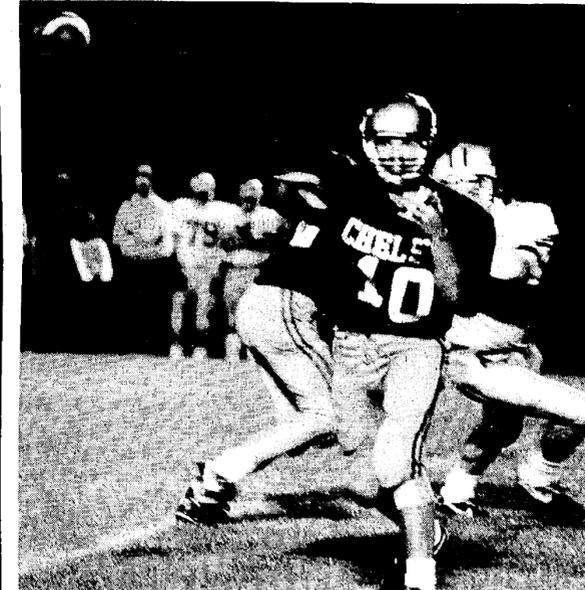

The JV football team may set a record or two, although no one will want to remember them.

Through two games the JVs have been outscored 93-0. It hurts just to think about being a Bulldog in either of those games.

Girl Runners Win Bath Invitational

Chelsea girls cross country team finished first in the 20-team Bath Invitational last Saturday, Sept. 11.

Chelsea had 125 points and second place Fowlerville had 156.

"We had only one girl who ran in this meet a year ago," said Chelsea coach Pat Clarke.

"It was a fine effort especially with six new people. We are very young and we will get better. Co-captains Debi Koenn and Sarah Grau ran very well."

Grau was the only finisher in the top 10, as she placed 10th in 21:24. Koenn ran a 21:29 for 12th place.

Other varsity finishers included Christine Mignano, 27th, 22:15; Leisa Schiller, 36th, 22:48; Carmen Smith, 44th, 23:01; Brenda Brede, 49th, 23:14; and Vicki Bullock, 50th, 22:52.

Results of the junior varsity portion of the meet were Angie Nagel, 3rd, 23:58; Becca Burkett, 6th, 24:31; Stacey Gallagher, 9th, 25:29; Stephanie Wagner, 16th, 26:32; Martina Street, 19th, 26:40; and Sarah Franklin, 20th, 27:02.

Chelsea Boy Harriers Place Fourth at Bath Invitational

Senior Paul Hedding paced the Chelsea boys cross country team to a fourth place finish at the 20-team Bath Invitational last Saturday morning.

Hedding placed 11th in 17:22, as the Bulldogs and Perry each scored 189 points, well behind first-place Beaver-ton's 30 points.

"Paul Hedding ran without cramps, which was a real positive sign," said Chelsea coach Pat Clarke.

"Holden Harris and Matt Riemenschneider ran well. Our team depth beyond that is in need of shoring up. We will work hard and hopefully continue to improve as the season progresses."

Times and places follow.

Harris, 24th, 17:41; Riemenschneider, 39th, 18:08; Brian

In a game that will probably be 70th, 18:44; Jim Hassett, 86th, 19:19; Erich Hammer, 88th, 19:26.

In the junior varsity portion of the meet, Rob Jaques placed 14th in 19:26 to lead the Bulldogs. Other finishers included Kelly Beard, 31st, 20:12; Jason Allen, 45th, 20:34; Ben Vermeulen, 62nd, 21:18; Kirk Hedding, 67th, 21:29; Justin White, 98th, 22:44; Brian Andress, 109th, 23:09; Jake Rindle, 111th, 23:37.

JV Cagers Whip Fowlerville For Second Win of Season

Chelsea junior varsity basketball team whaloped Fowlerville for their second win of the season last Tuesday, 56-19.

The Bulldogs blew the game open in the first half when they led 17-1 after the first quarter and 38-4 at half-time.

"I thought the game was going to be a lot closer," said Chelsea coach Paul Terpstra.

"They had a lot of sophomores who had played JV as freshmen."

As lopsided as the game was, the Bulldogs could have won by 50 points had they made their free throws. For the night they were 4-26 from the line.

"I thought our free throw shooting was improving," Terpstra said.

Both teams substituted liberally in the second half. However, because Chelsea has only eight players, two starters have to be in the game at all times. That kept Fowlerville from cutting much into the deficit.

Colleen Scharphorn led the Bulldogs in scoring with 17 points. Kristin Bohlender scored 11 points, Christine Burg had 10, Mercedes Hammer scored nine, Shawn Losey had five, and Kate Dilworth scored four.

Chelsea was 26-66 from the field and held a 39-21 rebound edge.

The Bulldogs are 2-0 on the season.

VOLUNTEERING THEIR SERVICE and paying their own expenses, this group of Chelsea young people traveled to Santa Ana, Mexico, to participate in Project H.E.L.P. The group worked at Rancho Batavia helping to develop a conference/retreat center under the sponsorship of the Free Methodist Church of North America.

Youth Group Volunteers for Church Work Session in Mexico

Some Chelsea teen-agers ended their summer with a big "Ole!" as they traveled to Santa Ana, Mexico, to participate in Project H.E.L.P. Sponsored by the Free Methodist Church of North America, Project H.E.L.P. is a cross cultural work project for the Mexican Conference.

The Chelsea group, with each person paying his own expenses, was assigned to work at Rancho Betania which is 800 acres of high desert ranch land being developed as a conference/retreat center for the Mexican people.

Located 70 miles south of Nogales, Ariz., the teens spent 10 days at Rancho Betania in a great adventure of living in primitive desert conditions. No cabins, no electricity, no gas, no running water, no McDonald's, no TV. But while they learned to endure the desert heat they worked at various projects to begin developing the land into a functional conference area.

Some kids built dams for the backwash areas. This consisted of going out into the desert and picking up rocks, mixing mortar by hand and then cementing the rocks together to form the dam.

Others assisted in the construction of both a dining hall and a chapel as well as installing the plumbing.

Building wooden playground equipment for the younger children was also a project.

Each participant, in addition, had his or her turn working in the "kitchen" with the crew preparing meals. Bobby Pratt, who spent the entire summer at Rancho Betania, served as the foreman for many of the projects.

Each day a different part of the group would go into the town of Santa Ana to hold a Bible school for the children. The first day they went into the center of town with a very colorful parachute which they all held and played various games with. This attracted many people and children who were then invited to Bible school. There the teens helped by doing puppet shows, Bible stories, songs and games.

On Sunday, which was their day off, they held a special worship service led by missionaries David and Yvonne Roller. Then they were taken to the town of Magdalena to stroll through the town, visiting shops churches and meeting the Mexican people.

In spite of the long days with temperatures reaching 120°, sleeping on the hard desert ground, killing tarantulas, scorpions and rattlesnakes, the teens are already looking forward to returning to Rancho Betania next summer. Two workcamps are planned for the summer of 1989 through Project H.E.L.P. in the months of June and July.

The first federal legislation giving the eight-hour day to laborers, workers and mechanics employed by the federal government was enacted in 1868, according to the U. S. Labor Department.

ATHLETES OF THE WEEK are Chelsea High school seniors Jenni Smith and Eric Frisinger. Jenni is the daughter of Beckie White, 3620 Notten Rd., Grass Lake, and she has a brother, Jason. Jenni is a co-captain of the varsity basketball team, which has shown to be a talented group in the early going. She's a second-year forward, and should be one of the team's leading scorers. She was last year's most improved player. In the spring, Jenni will show her talent on the softball field as she is one of the best pitchers in the state. She was all-Southeastern Conference second team, all-district honorable mention, and all-region second team. The National Honor Society student plans to attend college next year, perhaps on an athletic scholarship. In her spare time she enjoys reading, any sports, and social activities with her friends. Eric is the son of Paul and Kathy Frisinger, 725 Freer Rd., and brother of Scott. He is the starting center for coach Gene LaFave this fall, and he also plays linebacker. This is his second year on the varsity team. Like Jenni, Eric is also a National Honor Society member. Next year he'd like to pursue a degree in communications at the University of California-Santa Barbara.

Washtenaw Young People Do Well at State Dairy Days

Give a Gift Subscription to The Chelsea Standard!

Several Washtenaw county 4-H members placed well at the 1988 Michigan 4-H Dairy Days event in July at Michigan State University.

Marcus Bristle of Ann Arbor was awarded first place honors in the Dairy Science Exhibit, Senior Division. The Junior Dairy Judging Team placed first over-all. Team members were Dan Bihlmeyer, Michelle and Jeremy Strock of Manchester; Jason Bradbury of Dexter; and Lisa Lozier of Grass Lake.

"The purpose of the event was to give the 4-H'ers a chance to display and match their skills in various contests and activities," says John Evert, Washtenaw county 4-H youth agent. "We're very proud of how well our kids did this year."

Events held during the four-day show included breed and showmanship classes, judging contests, quiz bowls, dairy science exhibits, demonstrations and public speaking.

MichCon Special Programs for Seniors

Senior citizen status merits special privileges at Michigan Consolidated Gas Co. More than 4,000 senior customers in the Ann Arbor and Ypsilanti service area are enrolled in MichCon programs to get the most out of their natural gas service.

"More customers will turn 65 this year. We would like those seniors, as well as other customers who are eligible and not enrolled in the senior programs, to contact MichCon," said James Brewer, MichCon vice-president, customer and account services.

Senior customers, who are 65 or older and heads of households, receive a 50 percent discount on labor charges for gas appliance repair, performed by MichCon. Seniors are exempt from two percent late bill payment charges and protected against gas shutoff during the winter months, should they fall behind in bill payments.

MichCon customers, 65 or older who fall within low-income guidelines, also may be eligible for a special rate. This rate offers a savings of $48 annually on gas bills.

To apply for "senior status," customers may stop at the MichCon business office, 4641 Washtenaw, in Pittsfield township and complete an application form. They will need to show proof of age, such as a driver's license, birth certificate or state ID card.

Customers also may apply for "senior status" through the mail. Call the MichCon customer service number listed on the gas bill and request an application form to be mailed. Upon receipt of the form, provide the information requested along with proof of age and mail to MichCon, Customer Correspondence, Box 140, Detroit, 48269-0140.

In addition to proof of age, a customer applying for the special senior citizen's rate must show proof of income.

St. John's Church Receives UCC Attendance Award

"Joyful, Joyful, We Adore Thee," was played as an opening duet to Sunday's church service at St. John's church, Rogers Corners.

Organist Alice Rohdes, Joy Holder on the piano and John Wimler, trombone, led the service at which the members of St. John's church received an award for increased attendance during 1987, from Dorothy McGrady, representative from the United Church of Christ, Covenant Association, Development Council. President Leila C. Bauer in accepting the award for St. John's, thanked the membership for their continued dedication, all the friends of St. John's for their support, and the Rev. and Mrs. Wimler for their devine leadership.

During the service Marsha Chartrand sang a solo, titled "El Shaddai." All participants were offered to partake in Holy Communion.

John Wimler played a closing trombone selection titled "Where'er You walk," by Handel.

A family style dinner was held following the service. Fifty-two members and friends were present for Sunday's service. Visitors and guests are always welcome, church service is at 10:30 a.m.

Dexter Township Board Names Sewer Authority Representatives

Dexter township board at its Sept. 6 meeting appointed James Drolett and Doug Smith to serve on the Sewer Authority Board which will oversee construction of the new sewer system to serve Portage, Base, and parts of Tamarack lakes.

The other participating townships of Hamburg, Putnam and Webster are in the process of appointing their representatives. After that is completed, there will be a 60-day wait before the board can meet, elect officers and review information to determine which areas will be included in the special assessment districts. Township rules stipulate the 60-day wait, which is really a formality, to allow citizens to voice possible opposition to the township's appointments.

Assessment districts will be created within a month or so after the sewer board meets, Drolett said. All residents in the assessment district, even those who said they don't want the sewer hook-up, will be given the service and required to pay for it. The townships have voted to have the engineering firm, Porter Seeley & McNamee, prepare the special assessment roll, which means decide which areas will be in the assessment districts.

Drolett said the board may vote to have assessment districts in areas where residents declined the offer to have the sewer system. "There's no sense in cleaning up the lake by including every other septic system on the new sewer line," he said.

"We have to take into consideration which areas need it. Maybe 10 out of 30 people in an area are opposed to it, but five years from now those 10 people will be gone and the new people there will say, 'why didn't you hook us up to this sewer?'" Drolett said. Residents in Hamburg township around Lake Tamarack have been the most opposed to the system.

In Dexter township, as many as 100 percent of the citizens contacted have been in favor of the system. Residents around the southside of Base Line Lake petitioned to be included.

"That's the type of good, sensible thinking out there that's saying, let's clean it up and preserve our property," Drolett said.

Drolett said he receives about one phone call per week from a resident who is having trouble with his or her drain field.

"They ask if they should fix up their septic system or hold off for the sewer system," he said. "That tells you there are a lot of people out there who have problems with their systems. A lot of people are holding off on construction of new homes until the system goes in," Drolett said that the most immediate effect from the new system will be that lake water will be clearer. It will take longer for weeds which proliferated due to nutrients flowing into the lakes from septic system drain fields to die out.

In other business, the board approved the final plat for a Stony Field subdivision located off Wylie Rd., south of Island Lake Rd. The plat will now go to the state for approval.

Drolett expects the owner to begin selling the approximately 15 lots within about 45 days.

Back-To-School Time Means Immunizations

By Gail Finch, R.N.

A common question on school forms is "Dates of Immunizations." This article will explain what the initials used to describe immunizations mean (these are also on forms) as well as which immunizations are required by the state of Michigan for entrance to school.

Immunizations are required by the state of Michigan, not the schools. The state health department checks records of school children to make sure they are immunized. Requirements may differ from state to state. Colleges may or may not require certain immunizations. Requirements will probably vary with outbreaks of preventable diseases.

Now About Immunizations:
 *DPT: D—Diphtheria
 P—Pertussis (also known as whooping cough; not given after age six.
 T—Tetanus Toxoid

Recommended dates for this vaccine are 2, 4, 6 and 15 or 18 months. A booster is necessary at 4 to 5 years of age.

*TD—Tetanus Diphtheria, Toxoid
 *TT—Tetanus Toxoid
 Boosters of TD or TT are recommended every 10 years.

At least four of the above (DPT, TD, or TT) immunizations are required for entrance to school.

*OPV—Oral Polio Vaccine. Given at 2, 4, 15 or 18 months and 4 to 5 years. At present no other booster required.

*MMR: M—Measles (known as hard or red measles)
 M—Mumps
 R—Rubella (known as three day measles or german measles)

Given at 15 months with no booster required.

The above vaccines are required by the state for entrance to school.

Other initials on forms are PPD or Tine. This is a tuberculosis skin test to see if you have been exposed to this disease. It may be required.

*HIB: Haemophilus B Polysaccharide vaccines. Given at age 18 months to two years and helps protect against one type of spinal meningitis.

The World Health Organization monitors preventable diseases and as outbreaks occur may recommend changes in immunization schedules.

Detroit Man Arrested After Attempted Con.

A Detroit man was arrested by Chelsea police after he allegedly attempted a "quick change," con at the Union 76 station on S. Main St. last Wednesday, Sept. 7.

A cashier called police after the incident and described the man and his vehicle.

Later, police made a traffic stop of James Lorenzo Perkins, who was driving with a suspended license.

Free Trees Offered With Membership

Ten free trees will be given to each person who joins the National Arbor Day Foundation during September, 1988.

The free trees are part of the non-profit Foundation's efforts to encourage tree planting throughout America.

The 10 trees are Colorado Blue Spruce, White Flowering Dogwood, Pin Oak, White Pine, Red Maple, Birch, American Redbud, Silver Maple, Red Oak, and Sugar Maple.

"These trees were selected to provide benefits every season of the year: lovely spring flowers, cool summer shade, spectacular autumn colors, and winter berries and nesting sites for songbirds," John Rosenow, the Foundation's executive director, said.

The trees will be shipped postpaid at the right time for planting between Oct. 15 and Dec. 10 with enclosed planting instructions. The six- to twelve-inch trees are guaranteed to grow or they will be replaced free of charge.

To become a member of the Foundation and to receive the free trees, send a $10 membership contribution to Ten Trees, National Arbor Day Foundation, 100 Arbor Ave., Nebraska City, Neb. 68410, by Sept. 30.

STATE REPRESENTATIVE MARGARET O'CONNOR and her husband, Dr. Gerald O'Connor, provided a country site for Sunday's Republican Picnic, Sept. 11, in Lodi township. Pictured with Representative O'Connor is Richard Reed, who seeks the office of state representative from the 22nd District. He brought a toe-tapping musical group for the occasion. U. S. Congressman Carl Pursell donated the hot dogs and pop, the weather man provided a marvelous day of sunshine and blue sky, as Republicans from Washtenaw County gathered to munch and chat. The free picnic was jointly sponsored by the Washtenaw County Republican Committee and Republican candidates and office holders. Host couples included county commissioners Ellis Pratt, Marty Straub and Roy Smith, and their wives. The College Republicans and Young Republicans supervised games for the children at the event.

Helen N. Weiss

805 W. Middle St. Chelsea
Helen N. (Edwin) Weiss, age 83, 805 W. Middle St., Chelsea, died suddenly Thursday, Sept. 8, 1988 at Chelsea United Methodist Home.

She was born Aug. 12, 1905, in Marion, O., the daughter of Charles and Amelia (Bauer) Artz.

She was a member of Westside United Methodist church in Ann Arbor, and a graduate of Agosta Ohio High school and Ohio Northern University School of Music. She served as a minister's wife, choir director, organist, Sunday school teacher and director of girls basketball teams and church leagues in Bay City, and Detroit, and Ann Arbor as well as Huntington and Vincennes, Ind., Smithton and Clinton, Mo.

She was also an administrator's wife in the United Methodist home, Chelsea.

Upon retirement in 1966, Mrs. Weiss moved to Ann Arbor and subsequently to Chelsea Retirement Home in 1975. She was president of the Chelsea Woman's Club for one year, which she was a member of for nine years. She served as president of the WSCS of the Chelsea Methodist Home for nine years. She married the Rev. Edwin J. Weiss, Sept. 11, 1928, in Marion, O.

She is survived by three daughters, Mrs. Jean Elaine Sayre of Grand Blanc, Mrs. Frank (Joyce Helen) Joranko of Albion, Mrs. Robert (Marilyn Lucille) Rayer of Ann Arbor; seven grandchildren; four great-grandchildren; and one sister, Mrs. Iscah Tron of Marion, O. She was preceded in death by one sister.

Funeral services were held Sunday, Sept. 11 at 3 p.m. at the Chelsea United Methodist home chapel with the Revs. James Simmons, Elwood J. Berkompas and Daniel Joranko, officiating. Burial followed at Oak Grove Cemetery, Chelsea.

Memorials may be made to Westside United Methodist church or Chelsea United Methodist Home.

Arrangements were by the Cole-Burghardt Funeral chapel.

The first state law limiting the hours for working children to no more than 10 for children under the age of 12 was passed by Massachusetts in 1842, according to the U. S. Labor Department.

Walter F. Forest

13948 Bramble Brae North Lake
Walter F. Forest, 13948 Bramble Brae, North Lake, formerly of Hamburg, age 78, died Friday, Sept. 9, 1988 at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital, Ann Arbor.

He was born May 19, 1910 in Chicago, Ill., the son of Fred and Hazel (Davis) Forest.

Mr. Forest lived in Hamburg from 1948 until his retirement in 1972, at which time they moved to Florida, returning in January 1988.

On Sept. 27, 1937 he married Lucille Bass and she preceded him in death on May 18, 1987.

Mr. Forest was retired from I.T.I., was a member of Hamburg Masonic Lodge and a former member of Lakeland and Inverness Country Clubs.

Surviving is one son, Thomas W. Forest of Hamburg; one daughter, Mrs. David (Marilyn) Otto of North Lake; four grandsons, Steve and Tom Forest and Doug and David Otto; two great-grandchildren, James and Meghan; one sister, Evelyn Stanek of Chicago; and several nieces and nephews. He was preceded in death by a sister, Ruth Grisz.

Memorial services were held Monday morning from the North Lake United Methodist church with the Rev. Sondra Willabee officiating. Expressions of sympathy may be made to the Michigan Kidney Foundation. Arrangements were by Staffan-Mitchell Funeral Home.

agent John Evert explained the purpose of the event was to give the 4-H-ers a chance to display and match their skills in various contests and activities. "We're very proud of how well our kids did, this year," Evert said. During the four-day show, there were breed and showmanship classes, Quiz Bowls, Dairy Science Exhibit, contest judging, demonstrations and public speaking. Marcus Bristle of Ann Arbor was awarded first place in the Dairy Science Exhibit's senior division.

Oldest Spanish-American War Veteran Dies

Funeral services for Samuel L. Mendel, 104, the oldest of two remaining Spanish-American War-era veterans, were held Saturday, July 16, at Schuster Funeral Home in Galva, Ill.

Mendel apparently died in his sleep July 13 at his home in Galva, in southern Illinois. Burial at Bishop Hill Cemetery in Bishop Hill, Ill., a small community close to Galva, immediately followed funeral services. The American Legion conducted a military funeral.

With his death, the last known veteran of the Spanish-American War time period (1898-1902) is now Nathan E. Cook, 102, of Tempe, Ariz., a former Navy man with 44 years of military service.

Mendel, who was commander in chief of the Spanish-American War Veterans Association, was found by Jim Phillips, a long-time friend with whom he had been living.

A native of Fort Worth, Tex., he enlisted in the Army in 1901 at the age of 17 and needed his mother's permission to enlist. He became the oldest known Spanish-American War veteran when Jasper Garrison died in June 1987 at the age of 107 in Marion, Ill.

A non-combat veteran, and too young to be sent overseas, Mendel spent his three-year military career playing football at Fort Sam Houston. He had a wide-ranging career—from minister to columnist—and retired in 1952. He had written a gardening column for the Galva newspaper. He drove his car until 1982.

A former ordained minister, semi-pro baseball player (Fort-Scott team, Missouri Valley Conference), and Chautauqua Circuit performer (violin and voice), he was an accomplished public speaker and a long-time baseball fan. He coached Little League into his 90's and served as chaplain to the local high school basketball team.

Hood Ornament Taken from Car

A Gene Dr. resident told Chelsea police that someone stole a hood ornament from his 1984 Lincoln Continental and scratched a front window between Aug. 28 and 29.

A damage estimate was not available.

Inza Bristle Wins State Fair Husband Calling Contest Again

Inza Bristle says she's just a soft-spoken country gal. But when she gets in front of the State Fair crowd and lets out a long, bellowing, "Cla-a-a-r-r-r-e-nce" TV cameramen have been known to put their hands over their ears and turn down the "sound waves" on their equipment.

Since she first won the Michigan State Fair championship for husband calling in 1976, buoyed by her first-place win at the Dexter Bicentennial the same year, the call has echoed over TV and radio channels, bringing the long-time Dexter resident and grandmother of five a taste of fame that has suited her as well as the gingham colonial-style dress and white eyelet trimmed bonnet that she wears each time she performs in the contest.

This summer marked Bristle's 12th first-place win out of 13 years in competition. Last year, she snagged only second place because she was sick when she competed. But this year she regained the title. "I just went out and I got it back," she said.

Bristle has appeared a number of times on Duane X. Rileys' Channel 4 news segments and the Kelly and Co. TV program. "Marilyn tries to do the call, then members of the audience try. Of course, none compare," Bristle says a bit smugly.

Bristle made the commercials for the state fair in 1981. "First I did the call, then I told everyone to come out to the fair," she explained.

In 1982, she was hosted by radio station KDKA of Pittsburgh who called on her expertise to get their own husband calling contest started.

The station paid for her flight, Hilton Hotel accommodation, took her on sight-seeing tours and to some of the city's nicest restaurants. She also had a seat behind home plate at a Pittsburgh Pirate's game, all for giving the station a sampling of her powerful lungs.

Bristle has eight scrapbooks full of newspaper clippings, photos and letters of appreciation. "Doris Biscoe was so sweet," she says, flipping through one of the books.

One of her clippings is from a Paris magazine that wrote about her and published a picture of her when a French journalist visited the State Fair.

But one of her favorite mementoes is the picnic basket her granddaughter painted with a profile of her in her blue gingham dress doing the call.

What makes Bristle out-shout the other contenders? "Determination," she says, "to have fun and make other people happy."

She thinks that her success has been due to a combination of two factors: wearing the colonial-style dress and limiting her call to one word, Clarence, the name of her late husband. "They say, so and so, come and get your dinner."

Profanity, which was never part of Bristle's technique was ruled out by the judges about five years ago. Another of her secrets is to never practice. "I just go out and do it," she says.

Manchester Teachers, School District Reach Tentative Agreement

Manchester Community Schools and the teachers union reached a tentative three-year agreement late Monday night, thereby avoiding any possibility of a strike.

The agreement, if ratified by the union Sept. 27, would be retroactive to Sept. 1. Sixty-one teachers were working without a contract.

"I'm quite pleased with the settlement, in particular the way the major issues were handled," said Michigan Education Association Uniserv Director Dick Gray.

"I'm confident the agreement will be ratified without too much difficulty."

Terms of the agreement, which were hammered out by 10:40 p.m., were not available to the public. However, the main issues were salary and insurance.

The agreement has to go before the bargaining committee of the Washtenaw-Livingston Education Association before it is ratified by the union. It should be ready for school board approval by Oct. 3, Gray said.

ROB JAQUES, a member of the Chelsea High school marching band, won a costume contest for band members last Friday night. The band's program had a summertime/surfing theme and musicians were challenged to come up with unusual costumes. Rob managed to march, flippers and all.
