Tecumseh Assistant Takes Village Manager's Job, Will Meet Public Tuesday

City of Tecumseh Assistant Manager Robert Stalker has agreed to become the new Chelsea village manager this spring.

Stalker, 27, has agreed to a tentative contract calling for a starting salary of $37,500, a $1,200 moving allowance, and standard village benefits, according to village president Jerry Satterthwaite. The length of his contract, and terms of subsequent raises, have yet to be worked out. He'll officially be offered a contract at the Tuesday, Feb. 7 village council meeting, Satterthwaite said, following a public question and answer session.

"Ten minutes into the interview I thought he was our guy," Satterthwaite said.

"He handles himself very well." Stalker will also be required to move into the village within a year. He'll have the use of a village automobile while at work but will have to drive his own vehicle to work.

Stalker may initially be hired as assistant manager until the terms of village manager Fritz Weber's retirement can be worked out.

Originally from Flint, Stalker earned his bachelor's degree from the

ROBERT STALKER

University of Michigan-Flint, and his master's degree in public administration from UM-Ann Arbor, although all his course work was completed in Flint, he said.

He was initially hired out of college by Tecumseh 3½ years ago as an administrative assistant and was promoted to assistant manager a year ago. He reports directly to the city manager and is in charge of personnel matters, reports for city council, liaison between the administration and various council boards and committees, and citizen inquiries and complaints. He also deals with the water and sewer utilities in the city. However, unlike Chelsea, Tecumseh does not operate an electrical utility.

Stalker was also offered a similar job in Manistique but balked because "Manistique was not unanimous in granting approval of the contract."

"Also, Chelsea offers a better opportunity," he said.

"I'm excited about the opportunities and the challenges."

Stalker said he and his wife, Pam, son Bobby, 2½, and daughter Maggie, 9 months, will move to the village as soon as possible.

Stalker will be coming to the village at a challenging time. The village is still locked in its dispute with the Department of Natural Resources over renewal of its landfill operating license. The area is also experiencing almost unprecedented growth.

Papo May Drop Suit Against Drain Project

Chelsea Shopping Center developer Rene Papo may drop his opposition to the Pierce Lake drain if county engineers can develop an alternate route that does not cut his property in half.

Papo met with the county drain commissioner's office and village consultant Lee Fahrner last Friday morning. The proposed Pierce Lake drain would handle run-off from the east side of M-52 from at least Village Motors on the south to Old US-12 on the north.

A county board determined last fall that the project was necessary. However, Papo issued a legal challenge to the drain and the project was stopped dead in its tracks. A pre-trial hearing has been scheduled for June and the trial is slated for September.

The situation now, however, has taken on a greater sense of urgency since Papo had a pond on his property filled in last week-end. The pond was the primary retention pond for stormwater in the area, including Polly's Market and Great Lakes Bancorp.

Papo could not be reached for comment. However, Kevin Sullivan, deputy drain commissioner, said Papo would drop his case against the drain if it is moved to the north close to the border of his property and a parcel owned by Kennedy Realty, which is being developed into a shopping complex called Village Mall.

"I think it was just a matter of sitting down and talking, which we had never done before," Sullivan said.

"I think we can get this resolved fairly quickly and get the project started by spring. Right now it's in the hands of our engineers."

The drain initially proposed would have divided Papo's parcel, between Polly's Market and Village Motors, nearly in half. He has submitted site plans for a project called Village Square for the parcel. The plans, however, have not been approved, partly because stormwater concerns have not been addressed.

In the meantime, the village is considering its legal position in regard to the fill-in of the pond. Kennedy's site plans for Village Mall, which have been approved by the village, show stormwater being handled by the pond. Papo's site plans for Village Square also show no pond on the property. However, he did not obtain any permit to fill it.

Both the Michigan Department of Natural Resources and the state highway department have said they can't get involved in the situation.

Chelsea Legion Post Sponsoring Winter Carnival This Week-End

This Friday evening the 16th annual Winter Carnival of the Chelsea American Legion will get off to a festive start at 6 o'clock. The setting, as usual, will be in the Chelsea American Legion home at Cavanaugh Lake. Scheduled activities for the three-day event will begin Friday evening at 7:30 with a euchre tournament. According to John Popovich, the tournament master, anyone in the community who enjoys euchre is welcome to play. There will be cash prizes and admission is $2.

Breakfast will be served Saturday and Sunday mornings beginning at 7 and cooked by Dee Fouty, Mamie Rush and Erlene Figg.

Also at 7 o'clock Saturday morning the two-day ice fishing derby will get under way, weather permitting. Fishermen and fisherwomen will have access to Cavanaugh Lake from the waterfront parking lot of the Legion post. There will be first, second- and third-place prizes in three categories: perch, panfish and pike. Youngsters will also be awarded prizes for perch and panfish.

Saturday evening, starting at 8, is Monte Carlo night in which players with a million dollars each in play money compete for fortunes at blackjack, crap and other games. When play ends at midnight players use their currency bidding at auction for valuable prizes. (See page nine for details.)

Sunday starts with another Legion breakfast and the last day of the fishing derby.

At 2 p.m. the major afternoon event of the Carnival is presented—a concert with the melodies and singing of the Dennis Ruby Group. There is no charge for admission to the concert. It is easy-going music with plenty of country and western. Families with children are always welcome.

Five o'clock Sunday afternoon marks the end of the ice derby, and prizes are awarded to the winning contestants at 5:30. Half an hour later brings the end to the Winter Carnival. Post Commander Don Doll expects this year's event to be among the best since the original carnival in 1974.

DON DOLL, Chelsea American Legion post commander, expects hundreds of guests for the ice carnival which begins Friday night and has a musical climax Sunday afternoon.

Major State Utilities To Assist With Heating Bills, P.S.C. Says
The Public Service Commission reports that all major state regulated utility companies will offer assistance and/or shutoff protection programs, some of which were developed as part of the Energy Assurance Program.

The programs provide assistance and protection for low-income, senior citizen and public assistance recipients who are unable to pay their high utility bills.

The announcement by the PSC came at the official start of its fifth annual, Be WinterWise public awareness campaign. Low income households whose income does not exceed 125 percent of the poverty guidelines and all senior citizens, regardless of income, are eligible for the program.

To participate in the winter protection plan, a period between Dec. 1 and March 31, low income customers must apply to their utility company, agree to pay 7 percent of their estimated annual energy bill each month during the protection period, and agree to pay 1/12 of any arrearage each month in addition to the 7 percent payment.

Senior citizens aged 65 or older must contact their utility company to apply. They are not required to make specific payments during the protection period, but are encouraged to pay something.

By Warren M. Hoyt, Secretary, Michigan Press Association

MICHIGAN MIRROR

By Warren M. Hoyt, Secretary, Michigan Press Association

In addition, the utility company will attempt to put the customer in touch with public or private social service agencies which may be able to offer financial assistance.

At the end of the protection period, both low income and senior citizens participating in the plan will have to make arrangements with the company to pay off the money they owe by the start of the next protection period.

Since the 1984-85 season, more than 500,000 customers of state regulated utility companies have participated annually in the various Energy Assurance Programs, according to the PSC.

The EAP is designed to ensure that qualifying low income and senior citizens customers receive shutoff protection and bill payment assistance.

Low income renters and homeowners not receiving Aid to Dependent Children or general assistance may qualify for the Michigan Home Heating Tax Credit.

Qualifying citizens will be eligible to receive shutoff protection by participating in the winter protection program. Eligibility details are available from all Department of Treasury offices.

Study Confirms Closure of Traverse City Mental Health Facility
An independent study released by the Department of Mental Health says the department's plan to close the Traverse City Regional Psychiatric Hospital (TCRPH) is "well within the bounds of reasonableness," but the plan may require modification.

The department announced in February, 1988, its intention to close the facility by October, 1989, on the basis that continued operation of the hospital could not be justified and satisfactory alternative arrangements for treatment of patients could be made available.

The independent study of the closure plan by Health Management Associates, Inc., of Lansing, as mandated by the Legislature, confirmed the department's contentions that the already reduced role of the TCRPH will continue to diminish. Continued operations will not be cost effective and certain reimbursement-related advantages associated with the use of other facilities for the provision of in-patient care will make additional resources available for the treatment of the mentally ill in northern Michigan.

Further the report stated the development of expanded community-based non-hospital services, which must be made available to treat patients who would otherwise be served at the hospital, can occur in a timely way and presents no obstacle to the closure.

The report stated, on the other hand it is likely for a period of up to 24 or 36 months, the system for providing in-patient hospital services to the severely and chronically mentally ill in northern Michigan is likely to be somewhat "fragile" and may be characterized by a certain degree of instability.

The report continued that the closure of the hospital will require significant adjustments on the parts of many organizations and agencies that play a role in the mental health system in the area.

In the development of alternative facilities and services, the Health Management report said community hospitals in northern Michigan are willing to assume responsibility for in-patient hospital services to the patient population now served by Traverse City.

The report cautioned that the degree of commitment varies from hospital to hospital and the development of satisfactory permanent arrangements with the institutions is not yet assured.

The alternative arrangements for providing in-patient services envisioned by the department will not be fully in place for as long as 36 months and during the interim, it is likely that other state hospitals will be required to provide care for a significant proportion of the acute care patients that would otherwise be treated at TCRPH.

Although likely to be small, the closure of the hospital will have a negative impact on the local economy, the study said.

It continued that although the hospital is a relatively large employer in the Traverse City area, the local economy "appears to be capable of absorbing this event without disruption."

Individuals whose jobs are terminated will bear significant burdens, but such burdens have been mitigated by the steps taken by the department to aid employees in finding employment within and outside the state civil service system.

Although the department is continuing to accept admissions to TCRPH, there are only 65 resident patients in a single building. During fiscal 1987-88, there were nearly 500 admissions with all but 65 now receiving alternative services through some 12 community mental health boards.

The staff at the facility is currently in the 200 range, down from 240 as of October, 1988. Approximately half of the total are direct nursing personnel with the remaining half comprised of psychiatrists, psychologists, therapists, social workers, clerical and data workers and maintenance.

At its peak, in the late 1950's and early 1960's, the facility had nearly 3,000 resident patients with the staff numbering over 1,000.

Uncle Lew from Lima Says:

DEAR MISTER EDITOR:

With a nod to the groundhog, Clem Webster told the fellers at the country store Saturday night that he is predicting ups and downs in the economy will just about even out this year. Clem said he has been seeing shadows of wimmen at church, and he was full convinced we won't see strong economy trends for better or worst.

Whatever signs the groundhog uses for the weather, Clem said, wimmen's hemlines allus has done a better job of the economy. High means good and low means bad, he allowed, and it don't matter wuther the times or the hems come first, the result works out that way. After noticing wimmen's clothes lately, Clem said he ask his old lady what hem is in style, and she told him all of em.

Let's say wimmen can't make up their mind what they don't have nothing of to wear in season, Clem said, and let's say the powers that pull the economy strings won't be able to decide which ones are fer fast or slow, hot or cold or however they talk this season. If they can't signal one another, Clem went on, neither one will know how to set a trend fer the other.

Zeke Grubb said he was agreed with Clem fer different reasons. He said his preacher started off giving his state of the church sermon Sunday and moved on to the state of the union here and hereafter. The preacher said most of the country is in a state of confusion, even them that can read the President's lips. The recent word, the preacher said, is that Bush was saying no new income tax, but his revised Reagan budget is going to need some new help from the old income tax and from everthing else his Administration can figger out how to lay a levy on.

As fer forecasting powers of wimmen, Zeke said they got to be confused, since most of em want to go dressed and undressed at the same time. Farthermore, Zeke wondered how we can tell anything from their hems because them that can wear jeans, do, and them that can't are thinking to much of diets and the width of their beams to be any help to the economy.

Practical speaking, declared Bug Hookum, men's styles is in a bigger state of confusion than wimmen's. He said pants pleats probable won't cause runaway inflation or a depression, but he's worried about em all the same. Bug said he knows that what goes around comes around, and that if a feller keeps his doublebreasted suit long enough it'll be in style. But Bug said he had hoped agin hope that onct pleats went they would stay gone.

From what he sees, pleats are back and making up for lost time. Bug said his old lady took him recent to buy a pair of dress pants and they couldn't find any with plain fronts. To go with pleats, Bug said, all of em had flaps that have to be buttoned on both insides of the middle. If a conservative wears a belt and suspenders, Bug said, what do we call a feller that fastens his pants three different ways.

Personal, I don't git in the discussion because the anser to all fashion is so simple it ends all argument. The plain fact is, trends are set by folks that want to sell whatever the trend is in. It is called planned obsolescence and it works ever time. Why do you think the size of belt loops changes over two year, if not to sell wider of thinner belts? It's a conspiracy out there.

Yours truly,
Uncle Lew.

The only time banks seem to make headlines these days is when they do something wrong or unusual or both. That's why you don't hear a lot about Great Lakes Bancorp — even though we're part of your community.

We simply go about doing what we do best. Providing a solid financial foundation for the people who live and work in the towns we serve. No bells. No whistles. Just steady performance.

That's the main reason we've become one of the strongest savings banks in the Midwest, with 63 branches serving Michigan and Indiana. A bank that has prospered since 1890 despite recessions, depressions and fickle stock markets. A bank that has doubled its assets to more than $3 billion, in the last six years alone.

So whether you take us for granite or for granted, you can count on us to be here tomorrow.

And that's practically carved in stone.

ABWA Members Hear Ann Arbor Advertising Executive

The Jan. 24 meeting of the Chelsea Charter Chapter of the American Business Women's Association (ABWA) was held in the Woodlands Room at the Chelsea Community Hospital. Members and guests enjoyed a presentation by Cathy Hunter (an Ann Arbor advertising executive) which emphasized Cathy's perception of a woman's role in today's advertising industry.

Chelsea ABWA will be presenting their annual spring fashion show and salad luncheon Saturday, April 15. This year's show promises to be better than ever. All the proceeds from this fund raiser are used to provide scholarships for local women. Watch for upcoming articles in both The Chelsea Standard and The Dexter Leader for all the fashion show details.

Chelsea ABWA welcomes any woman who is currently employed to join them at their monthly meetings, held on the fourth Tuesday of each month at 8:30 in the Woodlands Room of the Chelsea Community Hospital. Attend as a guest, for a different informative program each month, meet the members, and learn more about their double goal: to provide scholarship funds for girls and women, and to provide information and career support for all their members.

CHELSEA — STOCKBRIDGE

NORTH SCHOOL KIDS had a big bear week last week as they had a week of fun studying bears. Part of the annual event involves bringing a favorite bear to school. Kneeling, from left, are Jamie Carroll, Marley Powers, and Stephanie Potocki. Standing, from left, are Kristin Vichinski, Stephen Lafferty, Samantha Barlow, Jeremy Bacon, and Travis Phillips. They're all first graders.

South School Mileage Club

50 Miles—Adam Morse, Bree Wireman, Bob Zbee, Stephanie Lunquist, Leah Thompson, Anthony Meza, Ben Muha, Carrie Buss, Ruth Neustifter, Garth Willis, Meghan Ziegler, Erin Montgomery, Mathen Kennedy, Kerry Lynch, Paul Spangler, Adam Winans, Stacy Ersten, Meliesa Gonyor, Char Tassinari, Stacey Havens, Jodie Rainey, Beth Koengeter, Kasie Ruhlig, Joey Backman.

75 Miles—Heidi Kemnitz, Clinton Pinson, Lesley Davis, Kim Grossman, Joe Frost, Nikki Fite.

100 Miles—Jake Hurst.

Paula Schaff Named Manager of Dana Warehouse Operations

Former Chelsea resident Paula Schaff has been named general manager of Dana Corporation's Warehouse Operations Division, based in Toledo. The announcement was made by Benny Hoyle, group vice president-North American operations. She will be responsible for Dana's distribution operations and for Diamond Printing and Mailing services.

Schaff began her Dana career in 1967 with the Drivetrain Service Division in Chelsea. She was appointed supervisor of customer service, scheduling and shipping in 1977, and in 1981 she was named manager of the Athens, Ga., regional distribution center. In 1985 she was given responsibility for Dana's five regional distribution centers; the Cleveland, Tennessee, and Puerto Rico distribution centers; and 15 local distribution facilities.

Schaff attended Washtenaw Community College, LaSalle University and the University of Georgia.

Nature Walk Set Sunday at U-M Botanical Gardens

If you like to unravel clues, follow a trail, piece together a happening from the signs around you, plan to join the Docents of the U. of M.'s Matthaei Botanical Gardens for a bit of sleuthing fun on the Sunday Trail Walk, Sunday, Feb. 5, at 2 p.m.

Docents will be detectives searching for tracks in the snow. Help is welcome from all interested persons. Usually, one is not aware of the animals which are found on the Gardens' properties until their tracks are seen. Many surprises may be in store. And the winter plants sometimes leave clues, too. Because sleuthing takes time, plan to be outside for 1½ to 2 hours, and dress warmly with waterproof footwear. Meet in the lobby of the Gardens' Conservatory.

The Matthaei Botanical Gardens is located at 1800 N. Dixboro Rd., approximately ¼ mile south of the Plymouth Rd. intersection, on the east side of the road.

Dial-A-Garden Topics Listed

The following is a weekly schedule of Dial-A-Garden, the system of pre-recorded daily gardening tips sponsored by the Washtenaw County Co-operative Extension Service. The system is in operation 24 hours a day, seven days a week. Interested persons are invited to call 971-1129 at their convenience to listen to timely, up-to-date gardening information.

Wednesday, Feb. 1—"Nectarine and Apricot Varieties."
Thursday, Feb. 2—"Maple Syrup Time."
Friday, Feb. 3—"After-Christmas Care of Poinsettia."
Monday, Feb. 6—"Buyer Beware Plants."
Tuesday, Feb. 7—"Soil Testing."
Wednesday, Feb. 8—"Supplying Birds With Water."

No-Till Club Meeting Set

The Washtenaw County No-Till Club will meet Thursday, Feb. 16, 1:30 p.m. at Freedom Township Hall, 11508 Pleasant Lake Rd., Manchester.

An open discussion on "No-Till and Drought" will be conducted with special guest Dr. Gordon Wuethrich, Lenawee county co-operative extension agent. The 1989 MECF (Michigan Energy Conservation Program) will also be presented.

Washtenaw County Soil Conservation District and MECF will host the meeting. There is no charge for the meeting, refreshments will be served and everyone interested in no-till is welcome to attend.

Briefcase Taken From Parked Car

A Dearborn man told Chelsea police that someone stole a briefcase containing money, jewelry, and other items that he left in the trunk of his car.

The car was parked at Chelsea Community Hospital on Sunday, Jan. 22.

The briefcase reportedly contained $500 in cash, several gold rings, and a silver dollar belt buckle. The man told police that the thief probably used the trunk release inside the car to gain access.

"It is less important to do what you like than to like what you do..."
—Spanish Proverb

Unless a person is very wealthy, very headstrong, or quite insensitive to the niceties of life, he is not likely to be in a position to always do exactly as he pleases. Whether it be earning a livelihood, keeping a house, raising children, receiving an education or even just spending leisure time, it is always better if people are fortunate enough to have learned to like what they are doing.

Come in and let us assist you in making pre-need arrangements. We have trust plans that assure you that your wishes will be observed.

KIMBERLY DEGENER

Area Students on CMU Honors List

Central Michigan University's fall semester honors list includes students from the Chelsea and Dexter areas.

Honors students, chosen from the top 10 percent of each class, included freshmen Tiffany D. Gibson, 8550 Scully Rd., and Kimberly Degener, 528 Lane St., Chelsea.

To qualify for honors, students must complete 12 or more letter-graded hours of on-campus credit during the semester.

SCHOOL IS A LOT MORE FUN when you can get outside during the winter without freezing to death, and these kids had a ball last week at North school. From left are Jason Middleton, Stephen McDonald, Scott Hammett, and Nathan Taylor. The weather is predicted to turn cold and nasty late in the week.

Area Students Earn Degrees At U. of M.

Several residents from the Chelsea, Dexter and Pinckney area were among the approximately 2,000 candidates upon whom academic degrees were conferred, Sunday, Dec. 18, at commencement exercises held by the University of Michigan.

The men and women are listed with the degree for which they completed all requirements, except in some cases, their dissertation, and the individual school in which they studied. From Chelsea, Kimberly Janine Accetta, 1901 Pierce Rd., Thomas John Ferguson, 14215 Riker Rd., and Robert Joseph Wozniak, 302 W. Summit, earned bachelor of arts degrees through the University of Michigan's Literature, Science & Arts College, and Robert Hugh Mester, 8750 Mester Rd., enrolled in the Rackham School of Graduate Studies, completed requirements for a doctor of philosophy degree.

Dexter area residents qualifying for degrees included Jerald Stanley Brand, 8165 Fifth St., who was awarded a bachelor of science degree in civil engineering, Timothy Paul Darr, 9500 Island Lake Rd., who received a bachelor of science degree in computer engineering, and two students enrolled in the Rackham School of Graduate Studies, Sarah Jane Freeman, 3533 E. Pineview Rd., who completed requirements for a doctor of philosophy degree, and Kristin Lynn Kaul, 6327 Todd Lane, who earned a master's degree in landscape architecture.

From the Pinckney area, Monique Sanson, 8562 Rushview Dr., was awarded a bachelor of science degree in civil engineering, and Michael John Tresh, 7291 Cedar Lake Rd., completed requirements for a bachelor of arts degree awarded by the College of Literature, Science & the Arts.

MONDAY - FRIDAY 8:30 TO 5:00 OR BY APPOINTMENT

Students Show Vocational Skills at Mall Display

Home building, blood pressure checks, computer programming and more will be demonstrated by vocational education students at Arborland Consumers Mall Feb. 11-12. Demonstrations and displays will be featured throughout the week-end, beginning at 11 a.m. Saturday, Feb. 11 and ending 5 p.m. Sunday, Feb. 12.

Students, teachers and administrators are bringing vocational education to the mall to give area residents a glimpse of the kind of training over 2,000 students are presently receiving in 17 different vocational programs throughout the county.

Local vocational educators feel vocational education should be a part of everyone's high school experience. "The skills learned in vocational education are useful whether a young person goes to work right out of high school or enters college," noted Dave Mieras, assistant superintendent for the South and West Washtenaw Consortium.

Using the machine tool program as an example, Mieras noted that learning to read a blueprint is just as critical for a future engineer as it is for a future lathe operator.

And, what about those students who have yet to decide on a career? "Vocational education classes are a great way for students to explore occupations—to find out if they really are interested in that career area," Mieras added.

The Feb. 11-12 Arborland display kicks off National Vocational Education Week in Washtenaw county. It is sponsored by Ann Arbor Public Schools, the Regional Career Technical Center, South and West Washtenaw Consortium, Whitmore Lake Public Schools, Washtenaw Community College (WCC) and Washtenaw Intermediate School District (WISD).

IRS Offers Extra Hours For Tax Help

"This year we have expanded our taxpayer assistance programs throughout the state," said IRS district director John Hummel. "We are pleased to announce that our toll free telephone assistance for federal income tax questions will be available from 8 a.m. to 8:30 p.m. on Mondays and 8 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. Tuesday through Friday. Also, since Jan. 21, telephone assistance is available every Saturday from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. and each Sunday from 1 p.m. to 5 p.m. Our toll free number is 1-800-424-1040," Hummel said.

The IRS also said that the Ann Arbor office of the IRS, located at Wolverine Tower, 3001 S. State St., will be open Monday through Friday, 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., Saturdays, Feb. 18, March 18 and April 15, 9 a.m. to 3 p.m.

"Tax information is also available through a pre-recorded system called TELE-TAX," Hummel added. "This computer assisted program provides information on over 150 topics, 24-hours a day, and may be reached by calling 1-800-554-4477."

A special number is also provided for ordering IRS forms and publication. The number is 1-800-424-3678 and is available Monday through Friday from 8 a.m. to 8 p.m. and Saturday, 9 a.m. to 3 p.m.

Pinckney Area Man Completes Marine Recruit Training

Marine Pvt. Max R. Collins, son of James N. and Janice A. Rushak of 3765 W. Schaffer, Pinckney, has completed recruit training at Marine Corps Recruit Depot, San Diego, Calif.

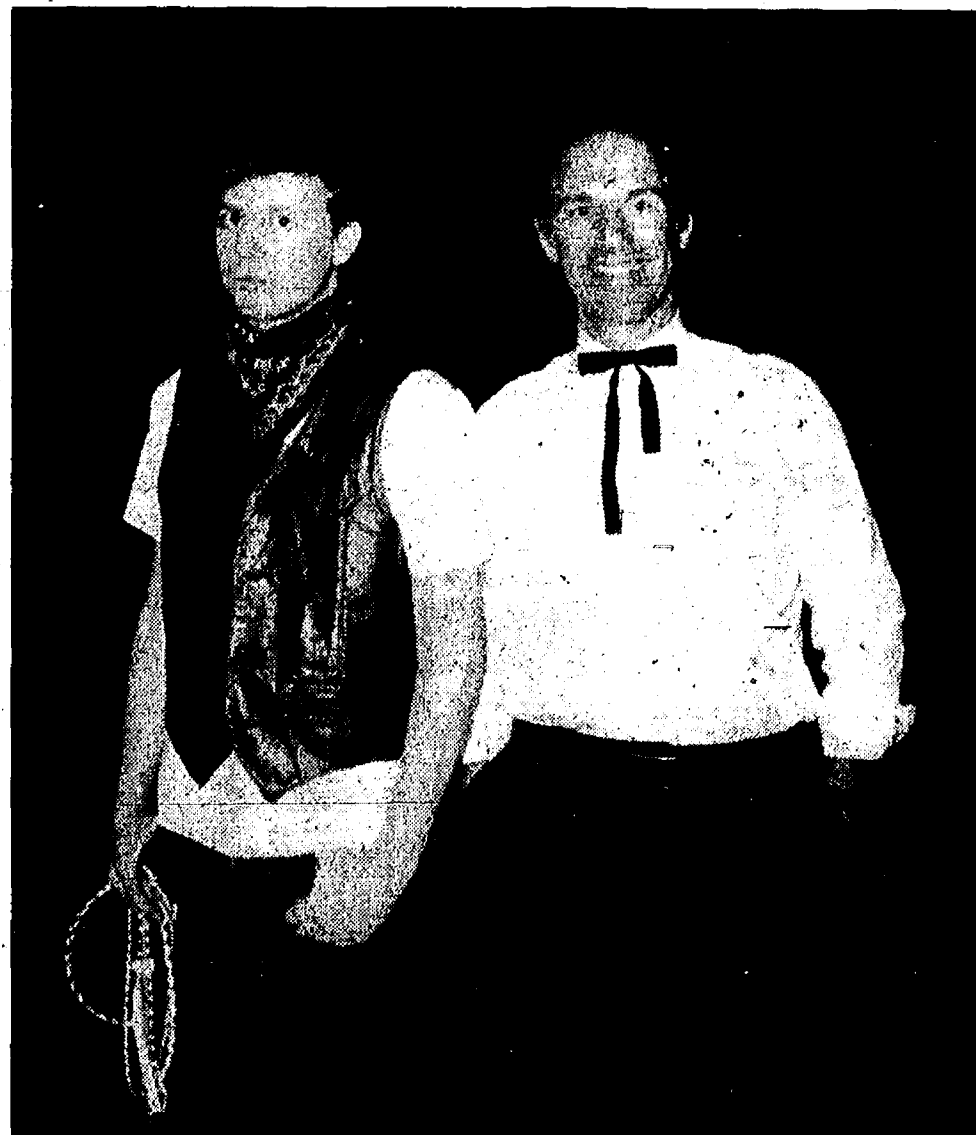

During the 11-week training cycle, Collins was taught the basics of battlefield survival. He was introduced to the typical daily routine that he will experience during his enlistment and studied the personal and professional standards traditionally exhibited by Marines.

He participated in an active physical conditioning program and gained proficiency in a variety of military skills, including first aid, rifle marksmanship and close order drill. Teamwork and self-discipline were emphasized throughout the training cycle.

A 1988 graduate of Pinckney High school, he joined the Marine Corps in September 1988.

HEROES AND HEROINE: Ward Beauchamp, left, plays Ned Harris. Ken Beauchamp, right, plays Wild Bill Hickok, and Nancy Nye will portray Rose Blossom in "Deadwood Dick or the Game of Gold," to be presented by Chelsea Area Players on Feb. 17-18. Tickets are now available at Chelsea Pharmacy.

ROB RAWSON, left, will be seen as Black'n Redburn, a villain in Chelsea Area Players production of "Deadwood Dick or the Game of Gold." Along with Hal Wendleken as Chet Pussy, and a host of other tricky unsavory characters, will appear in the play to be presented Feb. 17-18.

SCS Begins Making Farm Wetland Determinations

The Soil Conservation Service (SCS) is responsible for wetland determinations as mandated by the 1985 Farm Bill. The purpose of these determinations is to notify people who receive benefits from federally funded programs administered by ASCS, FmHA, or FCIC, of the wetland status of their farms. Compliance with the Wetland Provision of the Farm Bill is required to maintain eligibility to receive USDA benefits.

By definition a wetland has both hydric soils and can support hydrophytic vegetation. Hydric soils are wet; that is, saturated, flooded, or ponded for part or all of the growing season. Hydrophytic vegetation are plants growing in water or saturated soil. There are 113,000 acres of soils that fit this definition in Washtenaw and Wayne counties.

The Wetlands Provision states that any drainage of these soils might jeopardize USDA benefits such as commodity price supports from ASCS or insured or guaranteed loans with FmHA.

Landowners and operators who participate with ASCS, FCIC, or FmHA should check with these agencies before they proceed with any drainage.

The Soil Conservation Service has been directed to make all wetland determinations by Jan. 1, 1991. As the workload for Wayne and Washtenaw counties is large, the Ann Arbor Field Office Staff will begin making these determinations in January, 1989.

Determinations will be mailed upon completion and landowners should review these determinations thoroughly upon receipt and call or stop by the SCS Office if they have questions. There is a 15-day appeal period if you do not agree with the wetland determinations you receive. Requests for reconsideration must be made in writing and must state the reasons for the request.

Appeals should be directed to the Soil Conservation Service within the 15-day appeal period to be reconsidered.

These wetland determinations should not be confused with the State of Michigan Public Act 203. Act 203 is intended to protect wetlands, as defined by the Michigan Department of Natural Resources (DNR), from development. The 1985 Farm Bill Wetland Provision limits drainage and production of annual crops.

Remember, be sure to contact any USDA agency from which you receive benefits before you start a drainage project. If you have any questions regarding the Wetlands Provision rules, contact the Soil Conservation Service, phone 761-8722.

Pinckney Area Man Completes Armor Crewman Courses

Pvt. James C. Purdy, son of Philip A. and Barbara F. Purdy of 9897 Meadow Lane, Pinckney, has graduated from the U. S. Army armor crewman courses at Fort Knox, Ky.

Students learned the duties of tank crewman, including the firing of armament and small weapons. They were also taught field radio operation, map reading, and repair and maintenance procedures of the tank.

He is a 1988 graduate of Pinckney High school.

Man-Trap Saloon of Deadwood Gulch Is Busy

Deadwood Gulch is pleased to present its production: Ward Beauchamp is Ned Harris (hero); Ken Beauchamp is Wild Bill Hickok (legend); Susan Schmunk is Lily Blossom (heroine); Nancy Nye is Rose Blossom (heroine); Rob Rawson is Blackman Redburn (villain); Dan Reed is Judge Nix; Norma Graflund is Calamity Jane; Jerri Cole is La Paloma; Tice Aten is Pong Ping; Harold Wendelken, Jr., is Chet Pussy; Michael Long is Sheriff Loveless; Valerie Worden is Molly Loveless; Sue Williams is Teetotal Tessie; Sherry Lawton is Piano Annie; Miners and Toughs of the town are played by Alan Anderson, Tony Moison, Lonnie Mitchell, Stephen Manville, Jerry Martell, and John Williams; Saloon Girls (fallen women) are played by Debbie Olson, Amy Klink, Brenda Beaver, and Patty Fitch; Hatcheteers (Teetotal Tessie's gang) are Mary Ann Stevenson, Shelley Wheaton, and Jan Batzell.

Last week's episode left Lily in the clutches of Calamity Jane while her sister, Rose, is in the clutches of Deadwood Dick. Pong Ping becomes devoted to Lily and takes care of her. Piano Annie continues to tickle the ivories in the saloon. La Paloma, who is girlfriend to Black'n, is jealous of the attention he is paying Lily.

Judge Nix can identify Deadwood Dick by a scar on the back of his hand, almost every gunfighter in Deadwood Gulch has a scar on his hand. The sheriff and posse return without Rose or Deadwood Dick. Molly Loveless confesses to Calamity Jane that long ago she was involved with the man known as Prairie Blossom and the result was a child. Out of shame she abandoned the child at a church altar in Cheyenne.

What has happened to the abandoned child? Is Lily or Rose this long-lost daughter? Where is Rose? Has she really been taken by Deadwood Dick? Is Lily safe in the den of iniquity known as the Man-Trap saloon? Why do so many men have scars on the back of their hands? And most of all, who is Deadwood Dick, the masked rider of the Black Hills?

Tune in next week for further details. In the meantime, go out and purchase your tickets now at the Chelsea Pharmacy for the performances on Feb. 17 and 18. Practice your booing and hissing as well as your cheering. If you have never seen melodrama, you are in for a real treat. Those of you who have seen a melodrama know what to expect, so go out and spread the word.

CROP Walk Nets $5,109 for Hunger

The first annual Chelsea Area CROP Walk held Oct. 9 netted $5,109 in contributions from our community for world hunger relief.

More than 150 people representing four area churches turned out on a partly cloudy Sunday afternoon to walk the 10 kilometer route through the village of Chelsea.

Uniformed members of the Chelsea Charms Baton Corp started the walkers out with a flourish. Volunteers operated checkpoints and provided refreshments of apples and soft drinks along the way. Balloonist Blake Thomson provided a colorful finish by inflating his green and gold hot air balloon for resting walkers at the end of the route.

Persons of all ages completed the walk. Balloons bobbed from baby strollers and gray-haired grandparents in jogging suits left some younger walkers in their dust.

Ninety percent of the money raised from the walk will go directly to Church World Service/CROP to provide seeds, tools, food, and self-help programs for hungry people all around the world. The other 10 percent will remain in Chelsea for the work of Faith in Action.

Chelsea First United Methodist Church had the highest total, collecting $2,455.21 through its walkers. St. Paul UCC collected $1,121.54, North Lake UMC $1,033, and St. Mary's Catholic, $366. Undesignated gifts accounted for the balance of $133.67.

"We're really pleased with this first effort," said Walk co-ordinator Sandra Willobee, the pastor of North Lake United Methodist church. "It is $5,000 to help the hungry that wouldn't have been there if we hadn't walked. I'm proud."

McDonald's of Chelsea provided drinks. Members of the walk committee were: Anne Williams, Charles Schmunk, Dorothea Henry, Karen Ziegler, Melissa Check, Dorothy Antis, and Sandra Willobee. The CROP Walk was sponsored by the Chelsea Area Ministerial Association.

CROP WALKERS BREAK OUT of the woods into Pierce Park at the outset of the first annual Chelsea Area CROP Walk. More than 150 walkers raised $5,109 for world hunger relief.

CROP WALK WORKERS Dorothea Henry, Dorothy Antis, and Randi Larson (center to right), register walkers at St. Paul United Church of Christ, the starting point for the Oct. 9 10 kilometer walk to aid in world hunger relief.

High Rollers Preparing for Fun At Saturday's Monte Carlo Night

Saturday night hundreds of merry-makers at the Legion Winter Carnival will each come into possession of a million dollars in gaming money in exchange for their admission tickets.

All of this wealth will be valid at the Monte Carlo casino tables—not Monaco thousands of miles away on the Mediterranean but here on the western shore of our own Lake Cavanaugh.

Play at the various gaming tables in the Chelsea Legion home will take place between 8 p.m. and midnight. Devout crap shooters will pray for sevens while blackjack players will mutter incantations for any face card paired with an ace.

Monte Carlo night is a joint festivity of the American Legion Post and the Chelsea Rod and Gun Club. Legionnaire Pat Merkel labors as house manager for the gala affair (which includes purchasable drinks and food) while Tom Smith, Dave Stoll and Rick Monier of the conservation club comprised the Chelsea Rod & Gun Club prize committee.

Prizes at a gambling event? No. After the gambling is over. As the dice and cards are retired from action at midnight, lucky winners bring their fortunes in play money to the front of the hall for an actual auction with Loren Heller wielding the auctioneer's hammer. There they bid, one against the other, for valuable prizes donated by local merchants and enterprises. The contribution of these prizes results from hard-working solicitation by members of the Chelsea Rod and Gun Club who also serve as dealers at the Monte Carlo tables. (Note: It is a dirty lie that members of this famous conservation club use rods or guns to encourage contributions from the donors.)

When the Carnival is over it is hoped that a complete list of prizes and their donors can be made public. A few examples show, however, the value and quality of prizes that will be auctioned off. Weber's Inn is donating a room for two for one night. Chelsea Lumber is presenting a pair of steel sawhorses; Meabon's two VCR tapes; MovieLand, seven movie rentals; McCalla's, 40 pounds of Wayne Dog Food; Dayspring Gifts, a Mississippi Marble Game; Will Connelly, five bottles of plum wine; Smith's Tree Farm, a tree of choice for Christmas '89; and a coffee maker from Chelsea Drug.

A complete list of prizes and their donors will be displayed before the crowd at the auction so bidders can make selections beforehand. Holders of carnival tickets who do not gamble will have millions of intact play dollars ready for the auction. Unfortunately gamblers who have gone broke may also join the bidding by purchasing another million dollars in play money. This will be enough for a number of very handsome bids.

Two from Area on All-A List at Siena Heights

Siena Heights College, Adrian, recently announced its first-semester academic achievement list for part-time students, an honor similar to the dean's list for full-time students.

Two area students were among those honored.

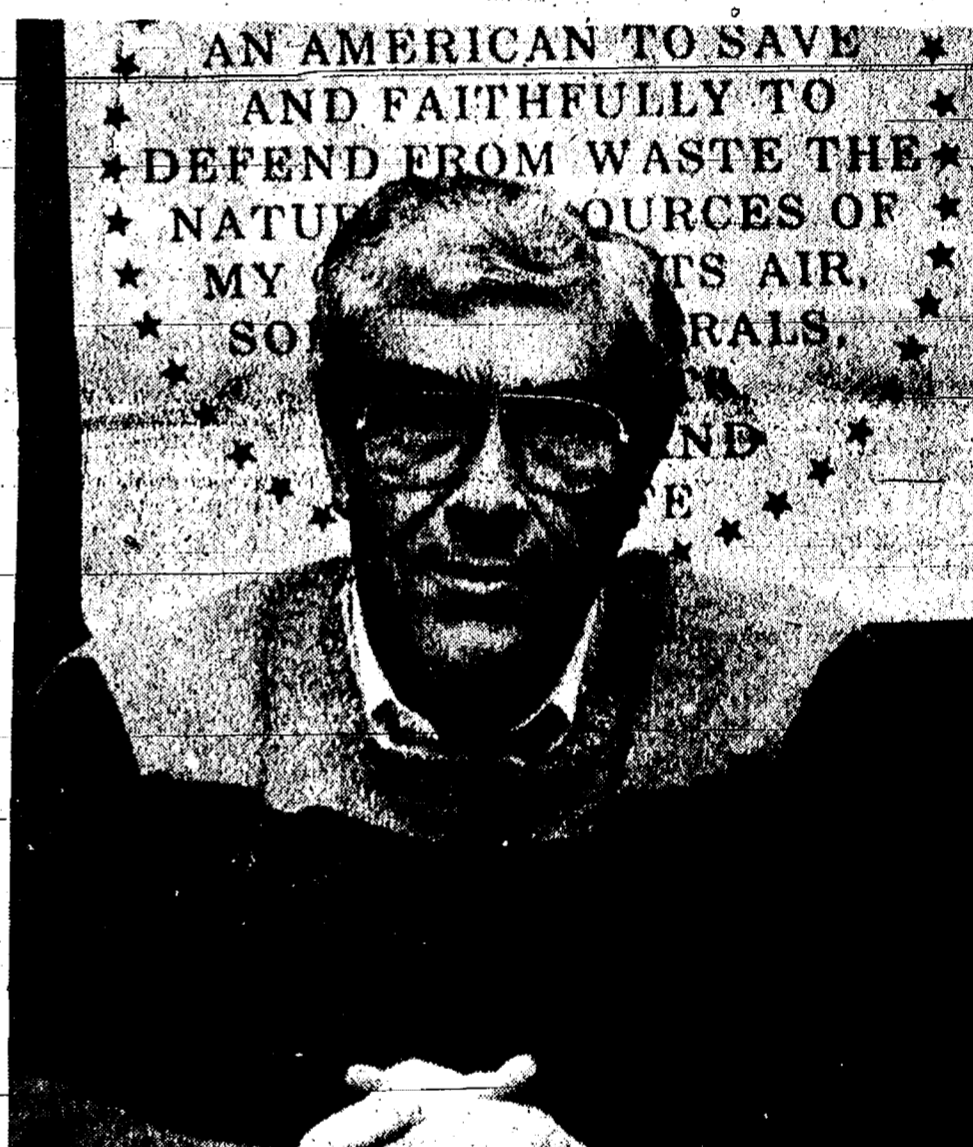

Cynthia Ann Colwell, 33 N. Steinbach Rd. Dexter, was among the seniors who earned a 4.0 grade-point average during the semester.

Estelle Marie Humenay, 113 McKinley, Chelsea, who has returned to complete her collegiate studies and is currently a sophomore at Siena Heights, also achieved a 4.0 grade-point average.

Siena Heights College is a private, Catholic co-educational liberal arts college, founded by the Adrian Dominican Congregation in 1919, and offers associate, bachelor, and master degrees in 34 programs of study.

LEGIONNAIRE PAT MERKEL sets up one of the black jack tables for the throngs of merry-makers who will take part in Monte Carlo games at the week-end ice carnival.

DAVE RANK, recently re-elected president of the Chelsea Rod and Gun Club, worked with Legion members in preparation for the Saturday Monte Carlo gambling event.

Wrestlers Win SEC!

All 13 Bulldogs Place as Chelsea Dominates League Meet

Chelsea Bulldog wrestlers completed their domination of the Southeastern Conference with a first-place finish at the league meet last Saturday at Lincoln High school.

The Bulldogs, who finished the league dual meet season at 6-0, beat second-place Tecumseh 191.5 to 163 to take the undisputed league championship for the first time in eight years.

"The important goal for us was to win the league outright," said Chelsea coach Kerry Kargel.

"The kids were really pumped. We had all 13 boys finish in the top four, which has never happened before. We had some outstanding individual performances."

Chelsea had five individual league champs in Carl Wickman at 103 pounds, Pat Taylor at 119 pounds, Dean Sutherland at 151 pounds, Tim VanSchoick at 189 pounds, and heavyweight Mike Taylor.

"Of all our kids, I think Dean wrestled the best in the tournament," Kargel said.

"He won two matches in over-time and showed he was in superior condition."

Pat Taylor, Mike Taylor, and VanSchoick each pinned his opponent in the finals. Taylor, who wrestled three times, pinned Saline's Dave Olson.

"Mike did a nice job," Kargel said. "Olson had pinned him earlier in the year."

Pat Taylor pinned Paul Loricion of Tecumseh and VanSchoick nailed Jim Van Gordon of Pinckney.

Wickman had a 9-2 decision over Tecumseh's Jeff Holderman and Sutherland beat Lincoln's Jeff Lafferty, 13-6.

Two other Bulldogs lost out in the finals to take second place. Eric Hanna lost a 9-6 decision to Eric Boying of Pinckney at 112 pounds and at 145 pounds Doug Wingrove was decisively by Rod Malinczak of Saline.

Third places went to Reno Nye at 125 pounds, Craig McCalla at 130 pounds, and Jim Hassett at 140 pounds. Alan Hanna at 135 pounds, Andy Dehring at 171 pounds, and Pat Hassett at 180 pounds each took fourth.

Rounding out the team scores were Saline 128, Pinckney 79.5, Lincoln 78.5, Dexter 68, and Milan 19.5.

In other action last week, Chelsea annihilated Pinckney, 62-6, but took a rare loss at Jackson Northwest, 34-23.

Chelsea's only loss in the Pinckney match was by freshman Neil Klink at 160 pounds, who was disqualified when he accidentally bumped into the referee.

Wickman took a 13-6 decision over Keith House; Eric Hanna won a 4-3 decision over Eric Boying; Pat Taylor pinned Dan Prichard in 3:45; Reno Nye decisively Mike Ellred, 10-5; McCalla pinned Craig Karinen in 3:47; Alan Hanna, Jim Hassett, and Dehring each won by forfeit; Wingrove pinned Randy Collins in 1:32; Sutherland earned a 19-4 technical fall over Jeff Young; VanSchoick pinned Jim Van Gordon in 1:59; and Mike Taylor pinned Rob Riggs in 1:24.

In the loss at Jackson Northwest, one controversial match decided the outcome.

Dehring, at 171 pounds, twice had Ken McNutt pinned but it wasn't called, Kargel said. Late in the match, Dehring got caught and was pinned, which essentially made a 12-point swing in the match.

Chelsea lost each of the first six matches, the first five by decision. Wickman lost to Rich Collins 12-0 in the most lopsided loss. Eric Hanna lost to Brian Syziski 8-5; Pat Taylor was decisively 5-3 by Gary Kill, one of the top wrestlers in the state; Reno Nye lost to Steve Angus 4-2; and McCalla lost to Aaron Baker 6-3.

"All of those matches were close," Kargel said. "If we win two of them we win the meet."

Jim Hassett was pinned by Norm Jacobs in 1:28.

Wingrove got Chelsea's first win with an 11-1 decision over Mike Martin; Sutherland took a 13-0 decision over Bill Kruger; Pat Hassett pinned Mike Havers in 3:36; VanSchoick beat John Gose 8-3; and Taylor won by forfeit.

"We moved some kids around in the line-up and took a couple of chances," Kargel said.

"Now I know exactly what I'll have to do if we face them later in the districts. In that way the match benefitted us more than it did them."

Chelsea competes today in the pre-district tournament for individuals. District team tournament is next Wednesday.

Chelsea joins Fowlerville, Dexter, Hartland, and Pinckney in these first stages of state competition.

JOHN COLLINS goes up for two points in heavy traffic during first-half action against Saline. The Bulldogs played an impressive second quarter to take their third league win of the season.

Bulldog Spikers Have Tough Start Under New Coach

Chelsea Bulldog volleyball team has struggled in the early part of the season under new coach Susan Steeves.

The Bulldogs lost Thursday, Jan. 19 at Tecumseh 15-2, 15-2, as three starting seniors were off attending the presidential inauguration.

"The stats weren't much to talk about," Steeves said.

At the Clinton Invitational on Saturday, Jan. 21, Chelsea again had problems as the starters were still in Washington.

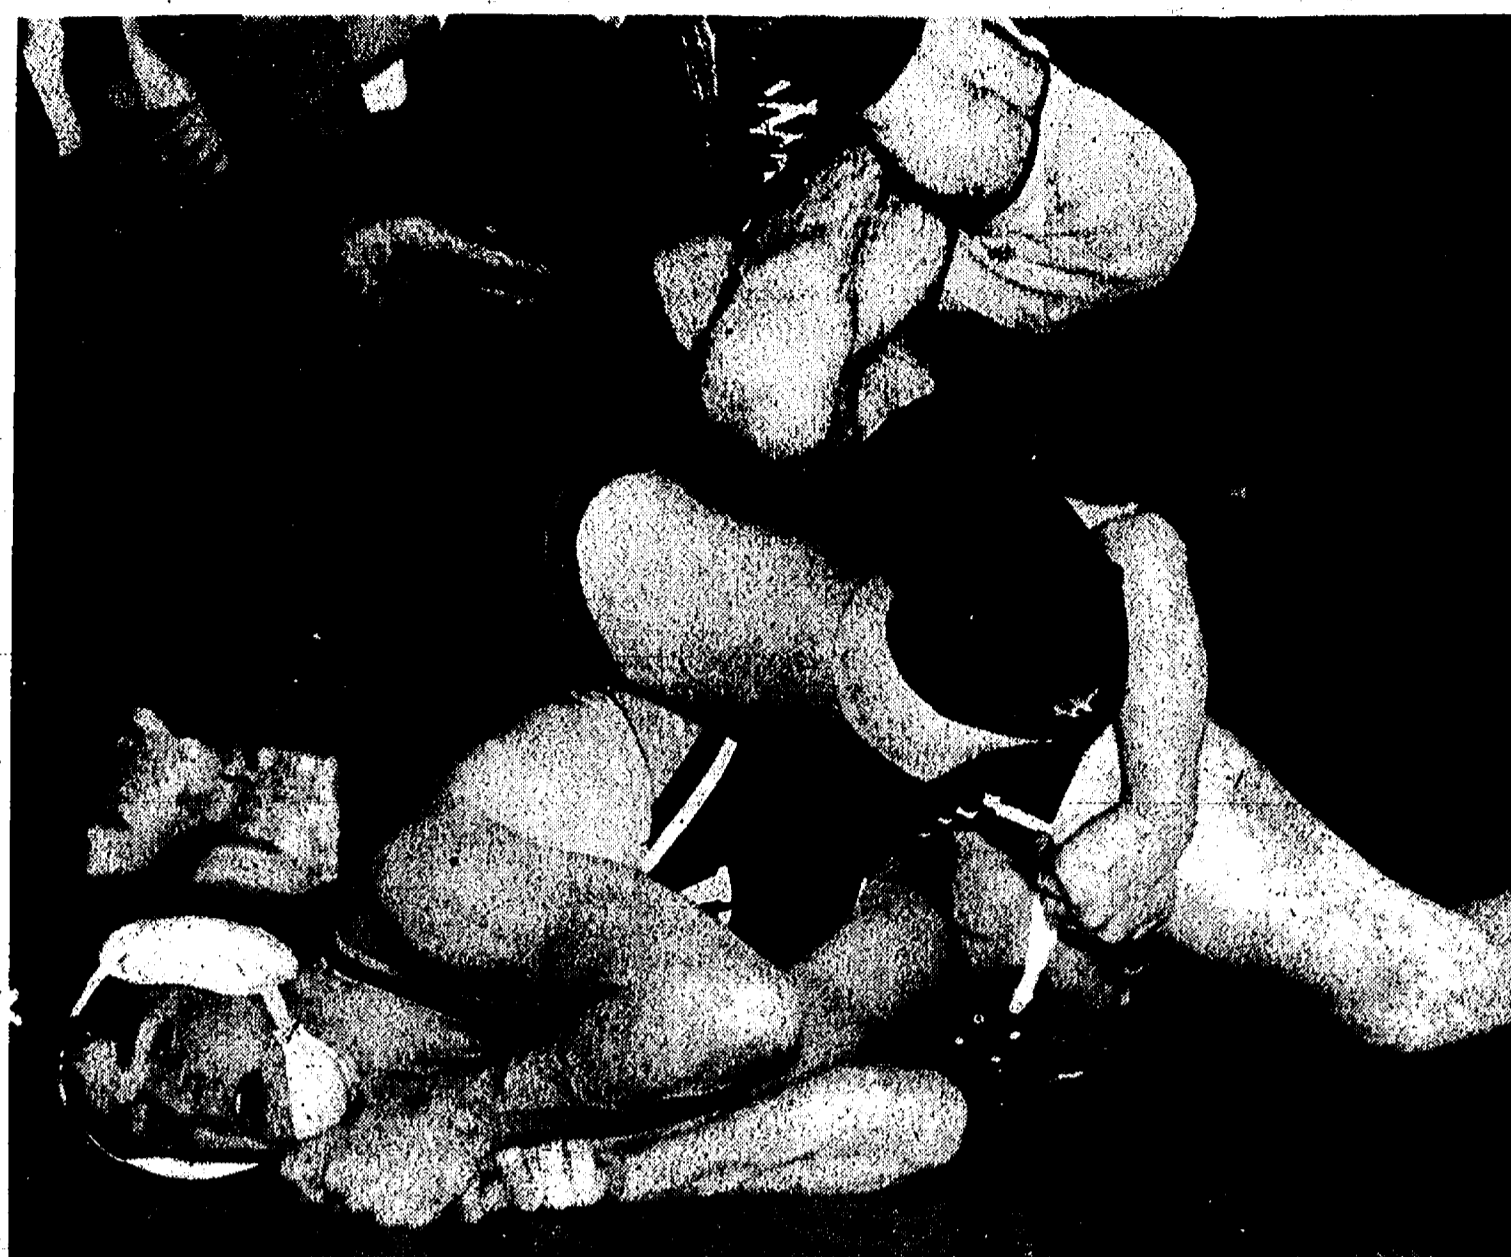

"We did not play well and I chalk that up to a lack of experience," Steeves said.

Scharme Petty and Stacy Norris each served four aces. Petty had seven kills and Lisa Park had six.

Pinckney handed the Dogs another loss on Monday, Jan. 23, 15-13 and 15-5.

Park had seven aces in two games and seven kills. Petty also had seven kills.

"Meredith Hall and Barb Scriven set well," Steeves said.

RENO NYE uses his legs to try to pin his opponent during Saturday's SEC meet. Nye was one of the 13 Bulldogs who placed as Chelsea won its first championship in many years.

Dog Cagers Pound Saline For Third League Victory

For the first time since the championship season of 1986-87, the Chelsea Bulldogs have won two games in a row.

Robin Raymond's basketball team knocked off Saline and Fowlerville last week to improve to 4-9 over-all and 3-4 in the Southeastern Conference.

In Friday's home game with Saline, the Bulldogs scored 27 points in the second quarter thanks to inspired pressure defense and took a 41-24 lead at half-time. Saline won the second half by two points but lost the game, 71-54. The Hornets got as close as 10 points in the fourth quarter, 68-46, before Chelsea went on an 8-0 run.

"Our pressure really hurt them, especially in the second quarter," said Chelsea coach Robin Raymond.

"They had a tough time with our press and we got a lot of easy shots."

In the quarter, Brian Burg had four field goals, Kerry Plank had three field goals and Chad Starkey was 7-11 at the free throw line. Virtually all of Burg's and Plank's shots were inside the lane.

"Our intent was to play more of a full-court game," Raymond said.

"They have two big guys in the middle which causes us match-up problems. They're tough inside. But when Kerry's in the game, our defensive pressure is a lot better. He's an excellent defensive player and he had a good ball game Friday."

Plank scored nine points, and had 11 rebounds, four assists, and two steals.

Despite Chelsea's dominant second quarter, the teams each finished with 22 field goals, and Saline had four, three-point shots. But the Bulldogs had a big advantage at the line, where they made 26 of 34 attempts compared to Saline's 6 of 12.

Burg scored in double figures for the seventh straight game and more than held his own inside. He finished with 21 points.

Starkey scored 17 points, including nine at the line. Morseau had 13 points and was 8-8 at the line. John Collins scored five points, Kyle Plank had four points, and Chris Wilson scored two. Kyle Plank had six assists and five steals.

"Kyle is one of those invisible players who ends up contributing a

Colombo Sisters

Sisters Paula and Sharon Colombo are members of the University of Michigan women's swim team.

Paula, a junior, swims the butterfly. According to the school's press guide, Colombo was named to the 1988 All Big 10 Academic Team. She's "looking to place," at the Big 10 meet this year. She's studying business.

Sharon, a freshman, swims the backstroke. She's also enrolled in the College of Engineering.

lot," Raymond said.

Perhaps one of the most amazing statistics of the game is the Bulldogs had 19 assists in their 22 field goals.

"Our passing game is improving every week," Raymond said.

"We're finding the open man."

In non-conference action Tuesday on the road, the Bulldogs out-scored Fowlerville 26-8 in the fourth quarter to take a 67-58 victory. The Gladiators had one field goal and six free throws in the final eight minutes.

"It was a very similar game to the Saline game except we played a half-court press rather than a full-court press," Raymond said.

"They're tall up front and they have two quick guards."

Burg, who finished with 25 points and 11 rebounds, had 12 points in the fourth quarter.

Rounding out the scoring were Starkey with 13, Morseau with 11, Collins and Kerry Plank with six each, Kyle Plank with four, and Jeff Marshall with two points. Marshall's points were the first for him in quite a while as he has sat out much of the season with a knee injury.

"Jeff made two crucial free throws and they were a big contribution," Raymond said.

Chelsea shot 47 percent from the field, and 55 percent from the line. They lost the rebound battle 38-34 but had two fewer turnovers at 21.

Friday's home contest with Milan is one of the final two home games of the season.

U.S. employers are practically unanimous in their concern that competencies of entry level workers are deficient, according to "Building a Quality Workforce," a joint publication by the U.S. Labor, Commerce and Education Departments. Skill deficiencies are reading, writing, math and communication, regardless of the business location, size or type and regardless of the type of entry level job, the report states.

Bulldog Tankers Win Big Meet, Paddock Qualifies for State

Chelsea Bulldog boy swimmers sank Dexter and Dundee in a double dual meet last week. The Bulldogs topped Dundee 52-33 and Dexter 54-26.

Brett Paddock earned a berth in the state swim meet with a time of :59.62 in the 100-yard backstroke. He also just missed the cut in the 200 individual medley, where he cut four seconds off his time.

"Brett had the meet of his life," said Chelsea coach Dave Jolly. "He's an exceptional swimmer and his attitude and drive for success grow each week."

The meet got off to a quick start for Chelsea as the medley relay team of Paddock, David Osterle, Garth Girard, and Von Acker clocked a 1:47.44, the team's best time this season.

Girard and Chris Birely finished one-two in the 200 freestyle in 1:59.04 and 1:59.36, respectively.

"They were both excellent times for this point in the season," Jolly said. Von Acker and Dirk Colby had times of :23.53 and :25.91, respectively, in the 50 freestyle.

"They are two fantastic young swimmers," Jolly said.

"I am proud of the turnaround Von-has made in his training. He has shown me and himself what hard work and commitment are all about."

Jamie Basso won the diving competition against Dundee but took second against Dexter as he accumulated 157.20 points.

Rob Totten recorded a 1:04.67 in the 100 butterfly.

Birtles and Greg Garen had times of :54.76 and :55.83, respectively, in the 100-yard freestyle.

Girard and Scott Marsh took one-two in the 500 freestyle as they had one of the biggest time drops of the meet, Jolly said.

"Marsh's 5:39.8 was a major drop and an excellent all-around swim," Jolly said.

Paddock and Brian Brock combined in the 100-yard backstroke to seal the victories for Chelsea.

Osterle and Jim Alford each dropped his time in the 100 breaststroke with times of 1:07.2 and 1:13.58.

"They've both come a long way to perfecting their strokes," Jolly said. The 400 freestyle relay team of Birtles, Colby, Brock, and Hollis won in 3:38.78.

"Over-all, it was an excellent meet," Jolly said.

SPORTS NOTES

BY BRIAN HAMILTON

Chelsea sports program picked up its second Southeastern Conference championship of the school year when the Bulldogs dominated the league wrestling meet Saturday.

All 13 Chelsea wrestlers placed in the top four spots, and the Bulldogs had five champions in Carl Wickman, Pat Taylor, Dean Sutherland, Tim Vanschoick, and Mike Taylor.

Of course, the Bulldogs went undefeated in the league dual-meet season. No SEC team scored more than 18 points against Chelsea.

Somehow, though, Washtenaw county's largest daily newspaper had Chelsea tying with Tecumseh for the title, which miffed more than a few Chelsea wrestling fans, including coach Kerry Kargel, who had to field the phone calls between fits of hyperventilation.

Anyway, Kargel said it's Chelsea's first league title in about eight years. Dexter and Saline have dominated the sport recently. Their programs are down a little, and Chelsea's is way up. In fact, Chelsea is rated eighth in the state in class B by the Detroit Free Press.

Congratulations to all the dedicated Bulldogs. They've reached their number one goal in what I would consider the toughest of all high school sports to master.

Incidentally, Kargel said to watch out for Dexter in a couple of years. The program apparently has some excellent young wrestlers. And the Dexter tradition doesn't hurt any, either.

Well, Friday was better, but there's still a long way to go.

I'm writing, of course, about the Dog Pound section in the gym. There was quite a bit more noise during the Saline game than the week before against Pinckney, but it was still a weak display.

Granted, a few students are willing to commit to general pandemonium and howl all night long, but many are still sitting on their duffs. The noise level Friday would have been just fine if only 75 kids showed up. However, there were many times that number.

It's been interesting to note that students this year seem to have rediscovered the bullhorn. More and more are showing up in the stands and they do make a big difference.

The Pound, however, does deserve a hand for its almost too-polite behavior. I haven't seen anything that would warrant another quarantine to a lower level, unless you count the chants of "Alpo" for the visiting cheerleaders. But I'm not an administrator or teacher, either, and those folks tend to have different tolerance levels and see things in different perspectives than most mortals.

As an example of what not to do, the student section in Tecumseh apparently got out of hand recently when Pinckney came to call. Some students thought it was funny to refer to former coach Gary Eddings' recent legal problems. They called his son, Gar, a member of the team, a coke-head, and there were signs and chants of "Just Say No." Great material for Saturday Night Live, but not a live Friday night high school basketball game.

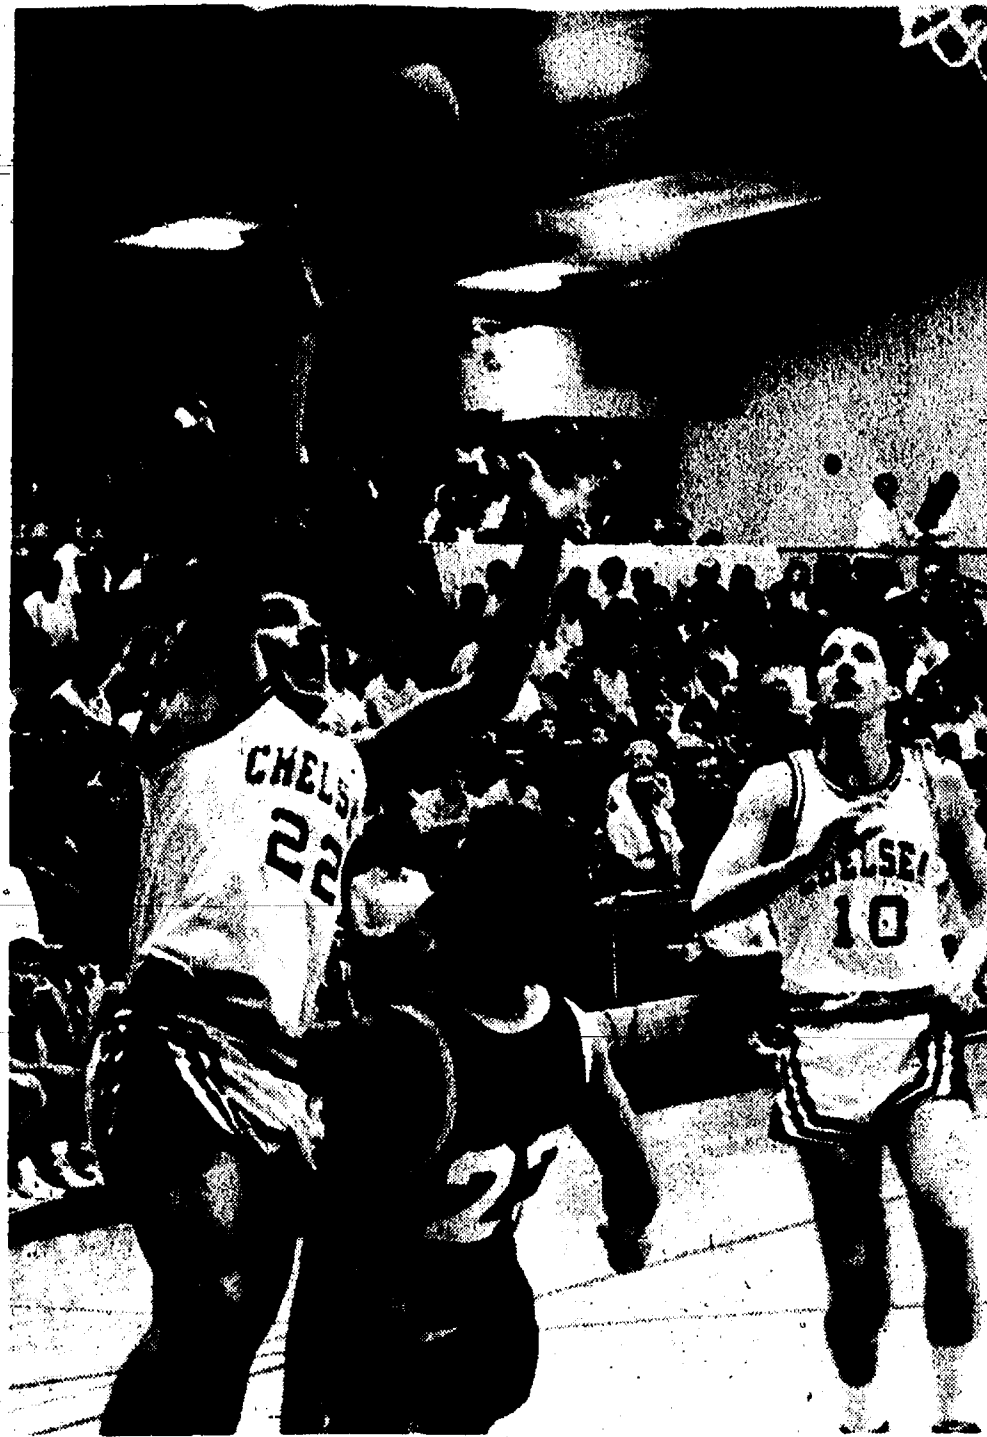

Perhaps the biggest athletic mystery of the year at CHS is the performance of the boys' junior varsity basketball team.

The JVs have so many fine athletes, yet they aren't just losing, they're getting clubbed. Before last night's game they were 4-9 on the season. At the beginning of the year I would have predicted something closer to 9-4.

Coach Jeff Dils says he hasn't found the right chemistry, and there is the tendency to play more like five individuals rather than a team.

"Maybe it's me," Dils offered last week. Somehow I doubt it.

No matter what happens the rest of the year, there are still several players who should make a big contribution to the varsity next year. Maybe older, more experienced players can help them see more clearly what winning is all about.

JUNIOR MORSEAU GOES UP and over a Saline defender for a relatively difficult lay-up. The senior scored in double figures as the Bulldogs won the game, 71-54.

Frosh Cagers Whip Pirates To Stay Unbeaten in SEC

Chelsea freshman cagers jumped out to a big half-time lead and went on to defeat Pinckney 62-51 on Monday, Jan. 23.

The Bulldogs scored 21 points in the first quarter and 16 points in the second to take a 37-22 lead at half-time.

"Our pressure, full-court defense was a key to the game," said Chelsea coach Dave Quilter.

"Players off the bench were able to make key contributions. Jason Allen, Robert Coelius, Jason Garrigus, Aaron Tanner, John Weinberg, and Chris Wright were a big part of our success."

Chelsea also out-rebounded a taller Pinckney team and shot 44 percent from the floor.

Jake Rindie led the Dogs with 17 points. Dan Stahl had 14 points and nine rebounds, and Ben Hurst scored 13 points and had eight rebounds. Other scorers included Adam Tillman.

7th Grade Cagers Finish Undefeated

Beach Middle school seventh grade basketball team finished the season with a perfect 12-0 record with a 36-26 victory over Saline in the final game of the season last Tuesday, Jan. 24.

"This team has made me very proud," said Pup coach Jim Tallman.

"Every member has found his own way to contribute to our success. While some contribute through consistent scoring and rebounding, others make their mark simply by hustling and never giving up. They have all given what it takes to be a winner."

Chelsea led the entire game, but broke the contest open in the third quarter when they out-scored the Hornets 14-2 to take a 29-12 lead going into the final period.

"In this game we were able to control the second quarter much better than in previous games," Tallman said.

Colby Skelton scored 14 points to lead the Pups. Pat Steele scored eight points, Gabe Bernhard had three, and Cory Brown, Dave Stimpson, Chris Gibson, Dave Brock, and David Beeman each scored two points, and Matt Powell scored one.

"We got good efforts from David Beeman, David Brock, and David Stimpson in scoring during crucial points of the game," Tallman said.

Tallman said his team is the first junior high basketball team to go undefeated since 1986.

JVs Nip Fowlerville But Lose to Saline

Chelsea junior varsity basketball team nipped Fowlerville but lost big to Saline in action last week.

In the Tuesday, Jan. 24 game at Fowlerville, the Bulldogs held on for a 53-49 victory.

"It was a pretty sloppy game and what it amounted to is down the stretch we made fewer mistakes," said Chelsea coach Jeff Dils.

"We finally found a team that would turn the ball over more than we do."

After trailing by two points at the end of the first quarter, the Bulldogs took a 24-21 lead at half-time. They maintained a slight lead for the rest of the game.

Although Chelsea shot only 15-33 from the line, they made their free throws in the closing minutes.

Guard Jude Quilter led Chelsea with 17 points. Jon Royce scored 12, Tucker Steele had eight, Jeremy Stephens scored seven, Chris Haugen had four points, and Garrett Kern and Erich Hammer each scored two.

"Jude played a nice game," Dils said.

"And we got a good game off the bench from Kern and Hammer, who played well inside and defensively."

Chelsea shot 32 percent from the field, held a 36-28 rebound edge, and had 21 turnovers, 11 fewer than Fowlerville.

In Friday's home game with Saline, the Hornets out-scored Chelsea in every quarter to take a 68-46 win.

"We were playing pretty well in the first half, but we ran into a scoring drought in the third quarter," Dils said.

"In the fourth quarter, Saline really put it to us. We had a tough time stopping them. We had poor shot selection, mishandled rebounds, and made bad decisions on fast breaks. It was disappointing because after Tuesday I really thought we were ready to play."

Quilter and Royce were the only Bulldogs in double figures, with 18 and 15 points, respectively. Kern and Stephens had four points each, and Hammer and Erickson had two points each.

"We had a hard time adjusting even after we talked about it," Dils said.

"I really don't know why."

Chelsea shot 39 percent from the field.

Bus Drivers Planning Charity Bowling Tourney

Chelsea and Dexter school bus drivers are planning a charity bowling tournament to benefit the March of Dimes on Saturday, Feb. 11.

Bus drivers are soliciting pledges based on their pinfall. A traveling trophy will be presented to the winner.

The tournament starts at 1:30 p.m. at Chelsea Lanes.

Today's Investor

By Thomas E. O'Hara
Chairman, Board of Trustees
National Assoc. of Investors Corp.
& Editor, Better Investing Magazine

Q. Do you think now is a good time to invest? I have a friend who seems to invest in stocks right along and he seems to be prosperous. However, everything I read in the paper seems to be discouraging, and most of my friends seem to think stocks are too risky. If you think now is a good time to invest, would you encourage me and suggest a good list of stocks to invest in.

A. In the 50 years I have been buying stock, about the only time I've seen the media agree that it's a good time to buy has been at peaks in the market when prices have been so high, you've had to hold purchases made at those times two or three years before the value of the companies caught up with the prices.

This last year has been one of those times when practically everything that has been published has said don't put your money in stocks. Yet look what has happened. According to an ad shown by Shearson Lehman Hutton during the New Year's football games, stocks in 1988 gave a total return of 16%. Banks gave a return of 9%. That's a pretty strong recommendation for a stock.

Wayne Hummer & Co. suggested a model portfolio in January of 1988 of 10 stocks. In spite of all the dire predictions we have heard, those stocks as of Dec. 20, 1988, were worth 25.3% more than they were in January. During the year they paid dividends that amounted to 5% of their January prices. That was a total return of 30.3% for the year.

The same company has just suggested a new portfolio for 1989. How well it will have done by the end of the year is anybody's guess, but the list looks good to me.

	Recent Price	Total Value	Annual Income
200 Citicorp	$26	$5,200	$296
100 Chevron	$46	$4,600	$260
50 DuPont	$37	$4,350	$190
100 Eastman Kodak	$45	$4,500	$200
150 Emerson Elec.	$30	$4,500	$168
100 General Elec.	$45	$4,500	$164
100 NCR Corp.	$54	$5,400	$124
100 Pfizer	$58	$5,800	$200
100 Sears Roebuck	$40	$4,000	$200
150 USF & G	$30	$4,500	$264
		$47,350	$2,066

Wayne Hummer highlights two of those stocks. It likes Citicorp for its high return. The stock pays a dividend of $1.48 and is expected to raise its dividend this year. Hummer says it has worked out a deal with Brazil that could raise its earnings by $5 a share. NCR Corp. is favored for a possible increase in earnings in 1989 to $8 a share and a possible price increase to $70-75.

Those 10 companies may be good suggestions with which to start your account.

WCC Helps Area Businesses Learn Alcohol Liabilities

Area business establishments can learn the warning signs of alcohol intoxication and understand their rights and duties before facing the possibility of litigation by attending Washtenaw Community College's "Techniques in Alcohol Management (TAM)." WCC's Office of Business Development and Professional Services has developed two programs to help businesses detect the signs of an intoxicated patron and recognize minors attempting to purchase alcohol.

The first program, designed for restaurants, is being held Saturday, Jan. 21 from 9:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. The second program, designed for retailers, is being held Thursday, Feb. 2 from 12 noon to 4 p.m.

The programs are co-sponsored by the Washtenaw County Sheriff's Department and the Ypsilanti Chamber of Commerce.

For more information, call (313) 973-3616.

A sour snack: At only six inches long, a newt would seem like easy prey for a hungry predator. But few animals pursue the small bite-size amphibians. National Wildlife magazine reports that when threatened, newts arch their bodies into a warning position with the tips of their noses touching their tails. This unusual warning reminds predators that the newt's blood and tissue contain a poison more deadly than strychnine.

Card of Thanks 19

THANK YOU

Tony is home from the hospital and getting better every day, and we would like to thank every one for their cards, and well wishes, their flowers, telephone calls, visits to our home, and to the hospital. A special thank you to Pat and Elmer Kiel, Kathy and Dave Donavon, and Kay and Tom Wozniak for their constant help and support. We thank every one of you, your kindness will always be remembered, and appreciated.

Tony and Dorothy Nielsen.

CARD OF THANKS

Our thanks to the Ann Arbor V. A. Hospital Staff, doctors and nurses for their caring and unending help, to the Rev. Jack Harnish of Dexter United Methodist church and his intern minister, Drew Hart. Also, our thanks to Dave Hosmer for his services, our church ladies for their wonderful meal and all their hard work, my Rebekah sisters and brothers for all their condolences, visits, cards, food, calls, hugs, and prayers. Too all my neighbors and especially to Mary Ellen Miller, being a nurse who was so helpful to me at my time of need. And to the second grade Sunday school class who sang Christmas carols for Gardner, and to my own brothers and sisters—my family, a special thank-you. God bless you all.

The family of

Gardner Elliot Blossom.

Letters to the Editor

To the Editor,

I am upset by Jean C. Bollinger's letter in this column last week regarding the senior citizens intended bus ride to Ann Arbor. The suggestion for the trip was brought up at the Advisory Council meeting.

The intent was definitely not to insult any senior's intelligence but only to promote trips to Ann Arbor with the AATA in order to keep the line running and to show how easy and economical it is to use the system. Most of all we are attempting to give a helping hand to those seniors who no longer can drive or who never drove (widows, widowers) and who may feel shut in but are hesitant about getting around on their own.

I was approached by Ruth Smith, as she knew I had made the trip a number of times. She asked if I would accompany her with a group of seniors since she had never made the trip herself. In a spirit of co-operation I said I would be glad to go along.

I hope this matter will now be laid to rest and that the seniors will see the merit of attending the AATA meeting at our center on Feb. 10, at 1:30 p.m. Gert Pototzki.

To the Editor,

The AATA experience offer in the Chelsea Senior Citizen News was never intended as an insult. To know all would be one heavy cross.

Craft classes, informative guest speakers, group trips, income tax help, etc., are examples of good living.

Think of the friendships that grow and the lives enriched simply by keeping an open mind. It isn't always easy but it's worth the effort.

Written words (make sure you don't get lost) may not express the American way of making fun as it lacks the smiling voice and gestures. However, it isn't difficult to remember many occasions the same or similar words are used in department stores or other confined areas.

The Bus Know How was simply an offer to life. I don't see how anyone will be any less a person if they accept and walk beside a friend. It's clear you have much to offer, why not join us.

If for no other reason it's like supporting our local businesses when possible. Why not encourage AATA service.

Life would be bare and impossible if everyone possessed the same knowledge, abilities and desires.

D. J. Philtzmaier.

To the Editor:

The Estivant Pines Nature Sanctuary south of Copper Harbor was established in 1973 after a three-year state-wide campaign by the Michigan Nature Association (MNA) to raise the money needed to save virgin white pines up to 500 years old. It is a living museum of 120-150 feet tall pines at the tip of the Keweenaw Peninsula.

No doubt some of your readers have walked in The Pines Sanctuary, as from 3,000 to 6,000 visitors go there annually. Their popularity has spread throughout Michigan and the Midwest by word of mouth. No admission is charged and no one signs a register.

An emergency has developed and MNA needs to get the word out—fast—that in the next 90 days money must be raised to buy the only other white pines remaining around the sanctuary or they will all be cut down. $100,000 for 80 crucial acres is what the company owning them wants. MNA has already raised over half that amount from its members. About $40,000 more must come from smaller donations, the backbone of MNA success, in the next 90 days. An individual, family, school class, company, or organization may give. Memorial gifts may be sent in any amount from $10 to $5,000 in honor of a loved one. All contributions are federal income tax deductible.

You can help rescue Michigan's last big white pines.

In the present sanctuary are 915 white pines, Michigan's state tree, in 22 groves. Now 542 more, all that are left that could ever be added, can be saved from cutting.

This is the last chance ever to enlarge the sanctuary.

Our address is below. Please write and request the free brochures which explain the situation.

Michigan Nature Association, Box 102, Avoca 48006 or write, Save the Pines, Copper Harbor 49918.

Bertha A. Daubendiek, Exec. Sec. MNA 7981 Beard Rd. Avoca, Mich. 48006

A "Mathematics Report Card" issued by the National Assessment of Educational Progress in June of 1988 showed that nearly half of American 17-year-olds cannot perform math problems normally taught in junior high, according to "Building a Quality Workforce," a joint publication by the U. S. Departments of Labor, Commerce and Education. The report states that 27 percent of 13-year-olds could not perform math work normally taught in elementary school, and only six percent of 17-year-olds could solve problems that required several steps or algebra.

FRED AND CAROL MODEL WERE IN WASHINGTON, D. C., for the 1989 Presidential Inauguration. Pictured with him, the Chelsea-Dexter business couple were guests of United States Congressman Carl Pursell at the Capitol Hill Club on inauguration day, and explained they joined hundreds of other visitors on the Capitol lawn, later in the day, to witness history taking place. Each received a commemorative medallion while attending a reception honoring Vice-President and Mrs. Dan Quayle at the National Museum of American History. The Models were impressed by the congenial mood of the people, and reported their visit was a series of exciting adventures.

Fred Models Attend Inaugural Festivities

Chelsea-Dexter business people Fred and Carol Model spent several exciting days in Washington, D. C., during the inaugural festivities.

They attended a reception given by the Michigan Republican Party, during which they observed the colorful fireworks display over the Lincoln Memorial, and were guests of Martha Seger, a member of the Federal Reserve Board, at a reception hosted at the Federal Reserve.

One evening was highlighted by a historical pageant presented at Constitutional Hall by members of the armed services, narrated by Buddy Ebsen.

The National Museum of American History was the site of a reception they attended honoring Vice-President and Mrs. Dan Quayle.

Carol and Fred explained each guest was presented a commemorative medallion during the reception.

The Models reported their inauguration day activities began with an enjoyable brunch as guests of United States Congressman Carl Pursell at the Capitol Hill Club, after which they joined the multitudes on the Capitol lawn to witness history taking place.

The great variety of participants in the parade down Pennsylvania Avenue was fascinating to the Dexters, who were accustomed to a slightly briefer parade, but after catching their breath, they were off to the Inaugural Ball at the Sheraton-Washington Hotel.

Two excellent bands provided the music for the tuxedoed and gowned party-goers, the Models said.

The Bushes and the Quays were greeted enthusiastically when they appeared for visits during the course of the evening.

The Models explained the unusually mild weather in Washington made travelling and sight-seeing especially pleasant during their visit.

They agreed it was an interesting experience, to meet and talk with people who arrived from all over the country for the inauguration.

The congenial mood of the people helped pass the time while they waited in lines, or stood in crowds.

"There are still places to see, and things to do, the next time we go to Washington, D. C., but this trip was really a special one—one we'll always remember," the Models said on their return.

Tree Seedling Sale Underway

The Washtenaw County Soil Conservation District announces its annual tree and shrub seedling sale for 1989. Orders for planting stock will be accepted until March 31 on a first-come, first serve basis while supplies last.

Due to the 1988 drought certain species have limited supplies, so order early. Seedlings will be distributed on Saturday, April 15, 8 a.m. to 12 p.m. at the Washtenaw County Road Commission garage.

Planting stock available this spring includes: Austrian Pine, Red Pine, White Pine, Blue Spruce, Norway Spruce, White Spruce, Douglas Fir, Northern White Cedar, European Larch, White Ash, Red Oak, White Oak, Tulip Poplar, Black Walnut, Imperial Carolina Hybrid Poplar and American Chestnut trees; Mountain Ash, Silky Dogwood and Honeysuckle shrubs.

Wildlife Packets, an assortment of 30 evergreen and 20 deciduous trees and shrubs; Crownvetch ground cover seed and Tree Planting Bars, a sturdy tool for planting seedlings, will also be available. Prices are reasonable for all tree and shrub seedlings which are two years old and range in size from two to 10 inches.

Purpose of the district's tree program is to assist landowners in obtaining planting stock at low cost for reforestation, windbreaks, erosion control and wildlife habitat improvement.

Order forms containing information on trees available, site preference, uses and prices may be obtained by contacting the Soil Conservation District at 6101 Jackson Rd., Ann Arbor 48103, telephone: (313) 761-6721.

Card of Thanks 19

THANK YOU

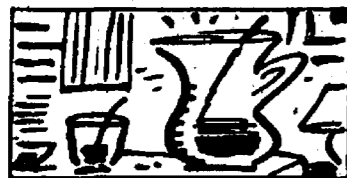

Tony is home from the hospital and getting better every day, and we would like to thank every one for their cards, and well wishes, their flowers, telephone calls, visits to our home, and to the hospital. A special thank you to Pat and Elmer Kiel, Kathy and Dave Donavon, and Kay and Tom Wozniak for their constant help and support. We thank every one of you, your kindness will always be remembered, and appreciated.

Tony and Dorothy Nielsen.

CARD OF THANKS

Our thanks to the Ann Arbor V. A. Hospital Staff, doctors and nurses for their caring and unending help, to the Rev. Jack Harnish of Dexter United Methodist church and his intern minister, Drew Hart. Also, our thanks to Dave Hosmer for his services, our church ladies for their wonderful meal and all their hard work, my Rebekah sisters and brothers for all their condolences, visits, cards, food, calls, hugs, and prayers. Too all my neighbors and especially to Mary Ellen Miller, being a nurse who was so helpful to me at my time of need. And to the second grade Sunday school class who sang Christmas carols for Gardner, and to my own brothers and sisters—my family, a special thank you. God bless you all.

ORDER FOR SERVICE OF PROCESS
BY PUBLICATION
At a session of court held in the courthouse in the County of Washtenaw, State of Michigan, on Nov. 15, 1988, Present: Ross W. Campbell.

Plaintiff filed a verified ex parte motion for service of process in the discretion of the court. After reading the motion and the accompanying affidavit and exhibits, the court finds that plaintiff has shown that service of process cannot reasonably be made on Defendant Dr. Black by the methods provided in MCR 2.106, in that plaintiff has demonstrated that diligent attempts to locate defendant and his current address, and to serve defendant by personal delivery and by registered mail have not been successful. The court further finds, pursuant to MCR 2.106(1), that service of process by publication is the best available method of service of process reasonably calculated to give defendant actual notice of the proceedings and an opportunity to be heard.

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that:
1. Plaintiff may serve process on defendant by publishing the following notice once each week for a period of three consecutive weeks in a newspaper, as defined in MCR 2.106(F), that is published in the county of defendant's last known address:
"An action seeking money damages regarding a medical malpractice suit that occurred on July 11, 1988 has been commenced by Plaintiff Mary McHugh against Defendant Dr. Black in the Washtenaw County Circuit Court for the State of Michigan, and defendant must answer or take other action permitted by law within 28 days after the last date of publication. If defendant does not answer or take other action within the time allowed, judgment may be entered against him for the relief demanded in the complaint."
2. Plaintiff must mail a copy of this order, along with a summons and a copy of the complaint, by registered mail, return receipt requested, to defendant at his last known residence.

Circuit Judge

Letters to the Editor

To the Editor,

I am upset by Jean C. Bollinger's letter in this column last week regarding the senior citizens intended bus ride to Ann Arbor. The suggestion for the trip was brought up at the Advisory Council meeting.

The intent was definitely not to insult any senior's intelligence but only to promote trips to Ann Arbor with the AATA in order to keep the line running and to show how easy and economical it is to use the system. Most of all we are attempting to give a helping hand to those seniors who no longer can drive or who never drove (widows, widowers) and who may feel shut in but are hesitant about getting around on their own.

I was approached by Ruth Smith, as she knew I had made the trip a number of times. She asked if I would accompany her with a group of seniors since she had never made the trip herself. In a spirit of co-operation I said I would be glad to go along.

I hope this matter will now be laid to rest and that the seniors will see the merit of attending the AATA meeting at our center on Feb. 10, at 1:30 p.m. Gert Pototzki.

To the Editor,

The AATA experience offer in the Chelsea Senior Citizen News was never intended as an insult. To know all would be one heavy cross.

Craft classes, informative guest speakers, group trips, income tax help, etc., are examples of good living.

Think of the friendships that grow and the lives enriched simply by keeping an open mind. It isn't always easy but it's worth the effort.

Written words (make sure you don't get lost) may not express the American way of making fun as it lacks the smiling voice and gestures. However, it isn't difficult to remember many occasions the same or similar words are used in department stores or other confined areas.

The Bus Know How was simply an offer to life. I don't see how anyone will be any less a person if they accept and walk beside a friend. It's clear you have much to offer, why not join us.

If for no other reason it's like supporting our local businesses when possible. Why not encourage AATA service.

Life would be bare and impossible if everyone possessed the same knowledge, abilities and desires. D. J. Phittzmaier.

To the Editor:

The Estivant Pines Nature Sanctuary south of Copper Harbor was established in 1973 after a three-year state-wide campaign by the Michigan Nature Association (MNA) to raise the money needed to save virgin white pines up to 500 years old. It is a living museum of 120-150 feet tall pines at the tip of the Keweenaw Peninsula.

No doubt some of your readers have walked in The Pines Sanctuary, as from 3,000 to 6,000 visitors go there annually. Their popularity has spread throughout Michigan and the Midwest by word of mouth. No admission is charged and no one signs a register.

An emergency has developed and MNA needs to get the word out—fast—that in the next 90 days money must be raised to buy the only other white pines remaining around the sanctuary or they will all be cut down. $100,000 for 80 crucial acres is what the company owning them wants. MNA has already raised over half that amount from its members.

About $40,000 more must come from smaller donations, the backbone of MNA success, in the next 90 days. An individual, family, school class, company, or organization may give. Memorial gifts may be sent in any amount from $10 to $5,000 in honor of a loved one. All contributions are federal income tax deductible.

You can help rescue Michigan's last big white pines.

In the present sanctuary are 915 white pines, Michigan's state tree, in 22 groves. Now 542 more, all that are left that could ever be added, can be saved from cutting.

This is the last chance ever to enlarge the sanctuary.

A "Mathematics Report Card" issued by the National Assessment of Educational Progress in June of 1988 showed that nearly half of American 17-year-olds cannot perform math problems normally taught in junior high, according to "Building a Quality Workforce," a joint publication by the U.S. Departments of Labor, Commerce and Education. The report states that 27 percent of 13-year-olds could not perform math work normally taught in elementary school and only six percent of 17-year-olds could solve problems that required several steps or algebra.

FRED AND CAROL MODEL WERE IN WASHINGTON, D. C., for the 1989 Presidential Inauguration. Pictured with him, the Chelsea-Dexter business couple were guests of United States Congressman Carl Pursell at the Capitol Hill Club on inauguration day, and explained they joined hundreds of other visitors on the Capitol lawn, later in the day, to witness history taking place. Each received a commemorative medallion while attending a reception honoring Vice-President and Mrs. Dan Quayle at the National Museum of American History. The Models were impressed by the congenial mood of the people, and reported their visit was a series of exciting adventures.

Fred Models Attend Inaugural Festivities

Chelsea-Dexter business people Fred and Carol Model spent several exciting days in Washington, D. C., during the Inaugural festivities.

They attended a reception given by the Michigan Republican Party, during which they observed the colorful fireworks display over the Lincoln Memorial, and were guests of Martha Seger, a member of the Federal Reserve Board, at a reception hosted at the Federal Reserve.

One evening was highlighted by a historical pageant presented at Constitutional Hall by members of the armed services, narrated by Buddy Ebsen.

The National Museum of American History was the site of a reception they attended honoring Vice-President and Mrs. Dan Quayle.

Carol and Fred explained each guest was presented a commemorative medallion during the reception.

The Models reported their inauguration day activities began with an enjoyable brunch as guests of United States Congressman Carl Pursell at the Capitol Hill Club, after which they joined the multitudes on the Capitol lawn to witness history taking place.

The great variety of participants in the parade down Pennsylvania Avenue was fascinating to the Dexters, who were accustomed to a slightly briefer parade, but after catching their breath, they were off to the Inaugural Ball at the Sheraton-Washington Hotel.

Two excellent bands provided the music for the tuxedoed and gownned party-goers, the Models said.

The Bushes and the Quayles were greeted enthusiastically when they appeared for visits during the course of the evening.

The Models explained the unusually mild weather in Washington made travelling and sight-seeing especially pleasant during their visit.

They agreed it was an interesting experience, to meet and talk with people who arrived from all over the country for the inauguration.

The congenial mood of the people helped pass the time while they waited in lines, or stood in crowds.

"There are still places to see, and things to do, the next time we go to Washington, D. C., but this trip was really a special one—one we'll always remember," the Models said on their return.

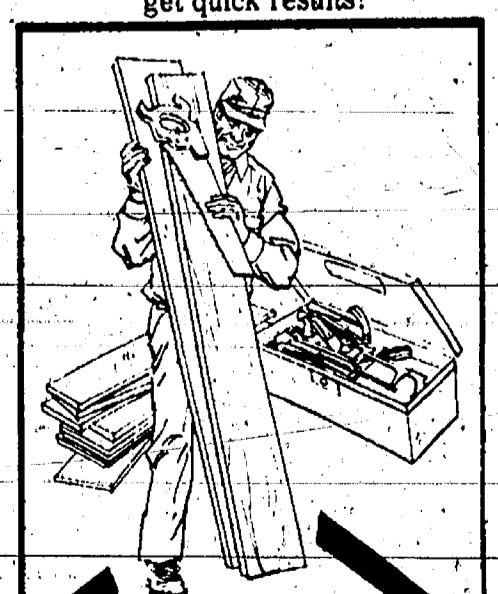

Wildlife Packets, an assortment of 30 evergreen and 20 deciduous trees and shrubs; Crownvetch ground cover seed and Tree Planting Bars, a sturdy tool for planting seedlings, will also be available. Prices are reasonable for all tree and shrub seedlings which are two years old and range in size from two to 10 inches.

Purpose of the district's tree program is to assist landowners in obtaining planting stock at low cost for reforestation, windbreaks, erosion control and wildlife habitat improvement.

Order forms containing information on trees available, site preference, uses and prices may be obtained by contacting the Soil Conservation District at 6101 Jackson Rd., Ann Arbor 48103, telephone: (313) 761-6721.

High School Group Attends Inaugural

The Chelsea Standard, Wednesday, February 1, 1989

19

By Danielle DeLong
Chelsea High School Senior and Standard Staff Writer

Chelsea High school offered 12 students the chance to witness the inauguration and tour some of the many sights of Washington, D.C.

The group, made up of Jennie Anderson, Matt Forner, Eric Frisinger, Martin Heller, Mindy Ryan, Sarah Schaefer, Jenni Smith, Julie Stacey, Sheila Tillman, Calisa Tucker, Jeff Veto and Danielle DeLong, was chosen from a large number of students who submitted applications to go on the trip.

This five-day event was one of the most exciting events of our lives. Chelsea school superintendent Joseph Plasecki made all of the arrangements for the trip, and he and Sue Carter, Chelsea High school counselor, were chaperones. Chelsea was one of only two schools representing Michigan at the inauguration.

The trip was filled with new experiences right from day one when we flew to Washington and were filmed on the TV Channel 7 news. As Julie Stacey stated "It's hard to pick out one thing that was most exciting." Throughout the entire trip we all saw things that we had never witnessed before.

Watching the Inaugural ceremony was a major highlight of the trip. As we stood with several thousands of people, we were thrilled to be present while history of our United States was made right before our eyes. The promise of a hopeful presidential term was in the air, and when the ceremony was over we were ready to share in the activities honoring our new president.

The first celebration the group attended was the Inaugural Ball for Young Republicans of America. This event was looked forward to by many of us because it was an opportunity for us to get dressed up and meet several people our own age from all over the country. We spent the evening dancing to music from several famous live bands and making new acquaintances with some of the people who were involved with Bush's campaign.

Through the crowded group of young adults we also had the chance to catch a glimpse of our new president and later our new vice-president when they made separate appearances at the event.

My most thrilling experience was shared with Calisa Tucker at the Celebration for Young Americans. This event was a rhythm and blues concert. Calisa and I happened to be at the right place at the right time when the president's arrival was announced, and we managed to wriggle our way through the crowds to come within 20 feet of President Bush and his wife. The only people closer to the president were security men. Standing so close to the man who will run our country for the next four years was incredible. It is hard to explain the excitement we felt being near such an important person.

The glamour of the presidency was only a part of the excitement of our trip. We also got to see history of our country in many of the beautiful monuments of Washington. Some of the more serious places we visited were the Vietnam Memorial and Arlington Cemetery. Seeing these places was a very valuable lesson, because reading about war in books cannot truly show the many people who died for our country. The overwhelming numbers of names and headstones seemed endless. It really made me comprehend the necessity of good relations between nations.

We also had the chance to meet Senator Carl Levin and Representative Carl Pursell. I was especially impressed with Senator Levin. He took time out of an extremely tight

INAUGURATION WEEK VISITORS: The group from Chelsea High school stayed in Washington five days during their trip to Washington's inaugural festivities. schedule to meet with us and let us ask him questions about political matters, unlike Representative Pursell, who was much more impersonal.

Several of the other places that we saw were the Lincoln Memorial, Washington Monument and the White House. The group was even able to see a comedy play called "Sheer Madness" at the Kennedy Center.

We toured such places as the Federal Bureau of Investigation, the National Air and Space Museum, the National Museum of Natural History and the Library of Congress.

The art of the buildings was amaz-

Dr. Steven Yarows Elected to American College of Physicians

Steven A. Yarows, M.D., internist, has been elected a Fellow of the American College of Physicians. This is a significant milestone in a physician's professional career.

Dr. Yarows is now authorized to use the abbreviated designation, FACP, widely recognized as a mark of professional distinction, following his name.

Fellowship is an honor achieved only by those recognized by their peers for their professional accomplishments, personal integrity, superior competence in internal medicine, and demonstrated scholarship.

Dr. Yarows is the first internist in private practice in western Washtenaw county to be elected a Fellow of the American College of Physicians.

ing. The old buildings were filled with sculptures and murals of incredible detail. And in every place that we visited I learned something new. In fact, five days was definitely not enough time to see everything that we wanted to. One could spend over two days in the museums alone.

Often our schedule was so tight that there was no time to eat lunch, and we could only spend a few minutes touring some of the places, but it was enjoyable to see a little of everything from history to the present state of the United States.

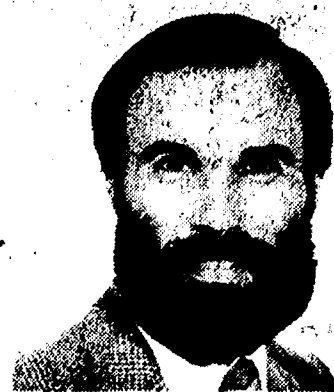

Every student who went on the trip agreed that it was a terrific opportunity, one that we hope will be offered in future years. It was especially nice that we did not have to pay the full fee of the trip as several area organizations gave donations to the group to help with the high cost. We students are also grateful to Superintendent Plasecki for organizing this memorable trip.

TEMPOROMANDIBULAR DISORDERS PRODUCE A VARIETY OF SYMPTOMS

According to the American Dental Association, many people who suffer from such seemingly disparate symptoms as headaches, earaches, tenderness of the jaw muscles, or dull, aching facial pain often share a common problem. These people—numbering close to 10 million Americans—all suffer from what has come to be known as temporomandibular (TM) disorders. Generally, TM disorders are believed to result when the chewing muscles and jaw joints do not work together correctly. In many cases, these problems can be successfully treated by your dentist.

When the chewing muscles and the temporomandibular joint (TMJ) of the jaw do not work together correctly the muscles will often go into a spasm that can result in tissue damage, pain, and muscle tenderness. Traumatic injuries or diseases like arthritis can produce an internal derangement of the TMJ but factors relating to the bite can also produce TM disorders.

Someone who is under a lot of stress or is naturally tense often develops oral habits like clenching or grinding their teeth (bruxism). Very often this is done subconsciously or during sleep. These habits can tire the muscles and cause them to go into spasm. Improperly aligned teeth can also place the chewing muscles under stress and cause painful spasms.

There are several methods of treating TM disorders. Usually the first step is elimination of the spasms and pain prior to more permanent treatment such as correcting the way the teeth fit together. Signs and symptoms of TM disorders include pain in or around the ear, tenderness of the jaw muscles, clicking or popping noise when opening or closing the mouth, jaws that get "locked" in one position, and certain types of headaches or neckaches. If you suffer from any of these symptoms consult your family dentist for an evaluation.

10 Free Trees Offered With Membership

Ten free white pine trees will be given to each person who joins the National Arbor Day Foundation during February, 1989.

The free trees are part of the non-profit Foundation's efforts to encourage tree planting throughout America.

"The white pines will add year-round beauty to your home and neighborhood," John Rosenow, the Foundation's executive director said. "They are fast-growing landscape trees with soft needles and graceful branching. You may use them as specimen trees or as a privacy screen or windbreak . . . even as a beautiful sheared hedge."

The trees will be shipped postpaid at the right time for planting between March 1 and May 31 with enclosed planting instructions. The six- to twelve-inch trees are guaranteed to grow or they will be replaced free of charge.

To become a member of the Foundation and to receive the free trees, send a $10 membership contribution to Ten Pines, National Arbor Day Foundation, 100 Arbor Ave., Nebraska City, Neb. 68410, by Feb. 28.

SCIENCE FICTION was the topic of the day for South and North school Enrichment Triad students last Friday and Monday. Area resident Jan Dohner shared her collection of science fiction books, toys, games and other items with interested students. She had numerous items from Star Trek, many of which have become relatively valuable. Above, students look over items on a table while Dohner looks on. Dohner is part of a series of 10 speakers who will share their knowledge with students this year.

So A Chiropractor Is Really A Family Doctor?

Yes. HERE'S WHY...

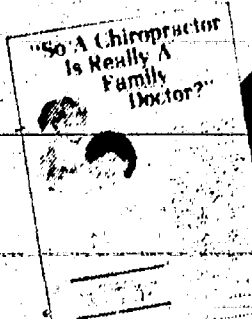

Most people think of doctors of chiropractic as specialists in treating health problems of the back and spine. And they are, for chiropractors have been extremely effective in relieving pain and getting people back on their feet without drugs or surgery.

But doctors of chiropractic do more. They diagnose to determine whether other illnesses may be related to structural problems, which often is the case.

Chiropractors take an interest in your total health and well-being. And if a problem is indicated which requires specialized treatment, the doctor of chiropractic will refer you to the appropriate health specialist.

Overwhelmed at the prospect of starting your own business?

Starting a small business can be overwhelming. Fortunately, there's the Certificate Program for Entrepreneurs (CPE) to help you put things in perspective.

Co-sponsored by the Ann Arbor and Ypsilanti Chambers of Commerce and Washtenaw Community College, CPE is designed to help entrepreneurs fill in the gaps in their business education. The modestly priced seminars — offered evenings and weekends — are taught by business professionals and faculty with wide-ranging experience in marketing, business law, finance, personnel, computers . . . everything a small business owner needs to know about. The entire series can be completed in as little as four months. And because local lending officers know and respect the program, your CPE certificate can help give you the kind of credibility you need when making a loan application.

Call (313) 668-6400 today for more information about CPE. The program that gives small businesses a big advantage.

Florence E. Boyce

7517 Noah's Landing Gregory
Florence Elfinda Boyce, 7517 Noah's Landing, North Lake, Gregory, died Thursday afternoon, Jan. 26, 1989 at Heritage Hospital, Taylor, with her family at her side.
She was the daughter of Perry and Bertha (Wood) Noah born at her grandparents' home in Dexter township on Feb. 7, 1894. Her grandparents, Orange and Lucy (Stark) Noah and William and Lucy (Glenn) Wood were early Washtenaw county settlers.

On May 12, 1915 at North Lake Methodist church she married Floyd Spencer Boyce and he preceded her in death on Nov. 26, 1946. She was also preceded in death by a grandson, Peter Worden.

Mrs. Boyce is survived by a son, Ellis Boyce of Chelsea; three daughters, Dorothy LaSavage of Redford, Ruth Stewart of Dearborn and Elizabeth Worden of Thompsonville; a step-grandson and two step-grandchildren; 13 grandchildren including Alan and Floyd Boyce whom she raised from infancy following the death of their mother in 1953. In later years this devotion was reversed and her grandsons, Alan and Floyd, provided her many years of loving care.

Other surviving grandchildren include Kim and Carol Boyce, Charles Fredette, Sandra Hannula, Mike and Jim Savage, Kathy Mead, Lynn Stewart, Diane Vale, Ray and Steve Worden.

Also surviving are 20 great-grandchildren and two great-great-grandchildren; a brother, Laurence Noah of Chelsea and a sister, Mrs. Mildred Knisely of Chelsea; and several nieces and nephews.

Mrs. Boyce was North Lake United Methodist church's oldest member and a direct descendant of its founders, Charles and John Glenn.

She was once so renowned for her baking during the depression that she and her husband opened a bakery and later the Snow White Inn, a restaurant on Old US-12.

During WWII she worked at Federal Screw Works and had taught at rural Washtenaw county schools for several years.

She was one of North Lake's most avid and successful fishermen. Her home on North Lake was often the center of activity for local children who found no generation gap there.

Funeral services for Mrs. Boyce were held Sunday, Jan. 29, at 2 p.m. from the North Lake United Methodist church with her granddaughter, the Rev. Dr. Diane Vale of the United Methodist Church officiating. Burial will follow in the family lot in North Lake Cemetery.

Expressions of sympathy may be made in memory of Florence Boyce to the North Lake United Methodist church.

Arrangements were by Staffan-Mitchell Funeral Home.

Gloria B. Crampton

Paulding, O.
(Formerly of Chelsea)

Gloria Brown Crampton died Tuesday, Jan. 17, 1989 in Paulding, O. Gloria was born May 7, 1940 in Paulding county, the daughter of Henry and Reva (Edwards) Brown. She was a graduate of Chelsea High school, class of 1958.

In 1958 she married Charles F. Hanenkratt who died in 1967. In 1971 she married Howard D. Crampton, Jr., who survives.

She was employed at the Ohio Art Co., and was a member of First Christian church in Paulding.

Also surviving are two sons and daughters-in-law, Dana and Julie of Palmetto, Fla., and Brad and Regina of Guam; two daughters and sons-in-law, Shelly and Tim Metz of Carey, O., and Joan and John Brown of Paulding; a brother, Robert Wooten, of Paulding; a sister, Ramona Adams of Paulding; and six grandchildren.

Preceding her in death were a brother, Lawrence Brown, and two sisters, Mary Anna Grob and Kathern Cheetham.

Services were held Friday, Jan. 20, with burial in Live Oak Cemetery, Paulding, O.

Esther P. Klingler

Chelsea
Esther P. Klingler, Chelsea, age 70, died Thursday evening, Jan. 26, 1989 at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital, Ann Arbor.

She was born Sept. 2, 1918 in Spearville, Kan., the daughter of Alfred and Mary (Basgal) Koch. On Sept. 22, 1952 at St. Louis, Mo. she married Ralph R. Klingler and he survives.

Mrs. Klingler had been a resident of Chelsea since 1978 coming from Battle Creek. She was an active member of St. Mary's Catholic church and retired from nursing at the Veterans Administration Hospital, Ann Arbor, in July of 1987.

She graduated from St. Louis University, and received her MA degree from Western Michigan University. While living in Battle Creek she was a member of the school board of St. Philip's Catholic High school and active in numerous civic and church organizations. During WWII she served in the U. S. Marine Corps.

Surviving in addition to her husband are five children, Robert, Roger, Regis, Mary Ruth and Rita, six grandchildren, one brother and four sisters, Alfred Koch, Elizabeth Binning, Mary Joan Stohr, and Anna Rose Davis.

Mass of the Resurrection was held Monday, Jan. 30 at 11 a.m. from St. Mary's Catholic church with the Rev. Fr. Philip Dupuis officiating. The rosary was recited Sunday evening at the Staffan-Mitchell Funeral Home. Burial followed at Fort Custer National Cemetery, Augusta. Expressions of sympathy may be made to the Michigan Cancer Society.

Esther Mary Belser

477 Madison St. Chelsea

Mrs. Paul (Esther) Mary Belser, 477 Madison St., died suddenly in her home Wednesday, Jan. 25, 1989. She was born Nov. 9, 1894 in Chelsea, the daughter of William P. and Jessie (Curtis) Schenk.

On July 22, 1917 she married Paul P. Belser in Chelsea, who preceded her in death on Dec. 18, 1953.

Survivors include her son and daughter-in-law, Frederick and Anne Belser of Chelsea; daughter and son-in-law, Jean and Bernard Wolf of Flossmoor, Ill. and Chelsea; seven grandchildren; 12 great-grandchildren; and several nieces and nephews. She was preceded in death by three brothers and two sisters.

Mrs. Belser lived in Chelsea her entire life. At the time of her death she was the oldest member of the First Congregational church of Chelsea. She was a life member of Olive Lodge No. 108 Order of the Eastern Star and had retired from the Chelsea Post Office on Nov. 30, 1967 after 30 years of service.

Funeral services were held Saturday, Jan. 28 at the Cole-Burghardt Funeral Chapel, with the Rev. Leland Booker officiating. Burial followed at Oak Grove Cemetery.

Memorial contributions may be made to the First Congregational church of Chelsea or Chelsea Community Hospital.

DIVISION II solo performers from the seventh and eighth grade at Beach Middle school were, from left, Rene Houk, Alicia Lafferty, Amy Miliken, and Christina Gillespie. The annual Solo and Ensemble Festival was held at Franklin High school last Saturday. Students were judged on technique, intonation, mastery of their material, and other criteria.

Ritter Plans To Run For Village Council

Former village president Charles Ritter is planning to run for council in the March 13 elections.

Ritter confirmed Monday that he is going to take his third shot in three years at a village office. Two years ago he ran for president and last year he made an unsuccessful bid for council.

"I think there's at least one person up there who can be beaten," Ritter said.

"The trouble is, none of them have the time for the job," Ritter, a long-time opponent of village president Jerry Satterthwaite, and some might say village government in general, is the only non-incumbent so far to announce intentions to seek office. The terms of Stephanie Kanten, Richard Steele, and Dennis Hall all expire this year. They have all picked up petitions and will presumably run again.

*Allen Anderson said he plans to run again for clerk, and zoning inspector Rosemary Harok is running for assessor. Anderson was elected two years ago in a write-in campaign.

Two McKune Memorial Library Board seats are also available. The library positions are for three years. All other offices hold two-year terms.

Deadline to enter the annual race is this Monday, Feb. 6 at 4 p.m. Petitions may be picked up at the village offices on E. Middle St.

Any registered village voter may run for office in the non-partisan elections. A minimum of 15 signatures of registered village voters is needed on each petition. There are several other procedures to be followed, all of which are outlined in the petition package.

Those purchasing tickets by Tuesday, Feb. 7, will have their names entered in a drawing for a free limo ride to the matinee performance.

Tickets may be purchased from Community Education Office, Chelsea Pharmacy, or call Clara Smith, 475-8713.

LeHeup Honored As Mason of Year

Kenneth W. LeHeup was honored as Master Mason of the Year at an annual Masonic Banquet on Saturday, Jan. 21.

Ken is serving as the senior Warden at the Chelsea Olive Lodge No. 156 F&AM. He has served in many capacities in the past. He will go on to compete for District and State Mason of the Year.

Entertainment at this year's banquet was a travelog provided by the Michigan Grand Lodge of their trip to England and Scotland last summer, where they visited many of the original lodges of the present day Masonic fraternity. There are more than 2,000 lodges in London alone.

Fair Kitchen, Dining Room To Be Remodeled

Chelsea Community Fair Board plans to remodel the fair kitchen and dining room in time for this year's fair.

Work should begin this winter. The fair building was constructed in 1971. Other discussion at the Jan. 19 meeting of the board included events for this year and next. Some events have to be scheduled at least a year ahead of time.

The board extended get well wishes to Debbie Stapish.

Members present at the meeting included Walt Zeeb, Tom Smith, Reuben Lesser, Jr., Mark Lesser, Ken McCalla, Richard Bollinger, Dennis Trinkle, Harold Trinkle, Jeff Layher, Harold Gross, Jerry Heydlauff, Duane Bycraft, Maryann Guenther, Lloyd Grau, and Jim Robbins.
