

WORK CONTINUES AT A FAST CLIP at Chelsea's second shopping mall, Village Mall, next to Polly's Market behind Great Lakes Bancorp. On a recent sunny day, workers were almost swarming over the building as they worked on the masonry. The project has had a number of legal and other setbacks, including one recently when high winds blew over a section of the northeast wall. However, the project appears to be on target for a summer completion. Developer Mike Kennedy and Rene Papo, developer of Chelsea Shopping Center across the street and owner of the land next door, are reportedly attempting to work together on a solution for storm-water drainage in the area. Washtenaw County Drain Commission has ap plied to the Department of Natural Resources for a permit to put the Pierce Lake drain in a wetland area, but as of press time there was no word on the status of that application. Kennedy has lured Arbor Drugs and ACO Hardware to be two of his major tenants.

Lima Township Residents Pack Hall for Meeting On Development Issues

There was a lot of discussion but not much was decided at a meeting concerning the future development of Lima township last Thursday, April 13.

Lima Town Hall was packed with area residents who heard a presentation by planner Don Pennington. Pennington talked, in general, about the over-all growth in the western part of Washtenaw county.

"He stressed that the only way to keep the township relatively rural is for us to really review our goals," said Lima supervisor Lella Bauer.

Pennington said Monday that the review has to include specific strategies for particular areas of the township.

"Most people are not aware of the magnitude of growth in the county," Pennington said Monday.

Pennington said the township needs to take a close look at its borders, particularly with Scio township, and the villages of Chelsea and Dexter.

"The township had better well take a look at those areas and see what it means to their development policy," Pennington said.

In addition to Pennington's presentation, the meeting included a lot of discussion about various aspects of growth. The proposed condominium ordinance was brought up, as was a proposed housing development by John Bowditch for just west of the Harper Dr. area. That particular issue was scheduled to be the topic of its own public hearing last night.

In addition, the township's ad hoc committee charged with making recommendations about the General Development Plan presented its findings.

It was also the opinion of one resident that the township leadership doesn't have much sympathy for people who don't want to get involved but don't hesitate to complain about the growth.

"There was nobody pushing hard for a lot of development," said planning commission chairman David Bacon.

"I think that was the general tenor of the meeting, although not many people expressed themselves."

There was no indication of what the next step would be in the review of the General Development Plan.

Kiwanis Celebrating 65 Years of Service

Chelsea Kiwanis Club will celebrate its first 65 years of community service on Friday evening, May 5, in the ballroom of Holiday Inn West, according to Dave Donovan who is club president during this anniversary year.

About 100 people are expected to attend, including Kiwanians, their spouses and guests. Awards presented will honor both special achievements and perfect attendance by various members. There will be a presentation of Kiwanis events and history and, following dinner will be dancing to music provided by the 17-piece "Saline Big Band."

George Palmer will be master of ceremonies.

Anton Nielsen and Charles S. Cameron are honorary co-chairmen. John Mitchell is in charge of arrangements.

Special guests will include delegations from the Jackson Kiwanis Club, which sponsored the Chelsea Club's founding and the Dexter Club whose beginning was sponsored by Chelsea.

Retired School Superintendent Charles S. Cameron, a Kiwanian for more than 50 years, is the oldest Chelsea club member in terms of service.

Mrs. M.W. McClure, whose late husband "Mac" was secretary to the newly chartered Chelsea Club 65 years ago, is expected to be among the guests.

Chelsea Kiwanis was founded on the basic premise of service to the community and funding of numerous community projects the club supports.

The club's theme of "Together We Build" is exemplified in various ways. One example is the Kiwanis "Kitchen" trailer used by club members to serve refreshments at the annual Sidewalk Sale and Chelsea Fair to help fund the club's projects.

In addition, Boy Scouts earn money by selling refreshments in the Fair's grandstands. At "Concert-in-the-Park" time last year, the Kiwanis-sponsored Chelsea High School Key Club staffed the Kiwanis "Kitchen" to earn money for Key Club projects.

Kiwanis works with or financially supports more than 20 major community service and funding projects.

Union Drops Grievance Against School District

The grievance filed by the Chelsea teachers union in connection with a recent movement of teachers at Chelsea High school and Beach Middle school has been dropped.

Chelsea Board of Education was informed of the Chelsea Education Association's decision at Monday night's meeting.

According to CEA president Janet

Rossi, the grievance was dropped because the movement of staff is regarded by the school district administration as a temporary move. The people involved are expected to go back to their original positions at the end of the year.

The grievance came about after Wayne Welton was moved to a half-time athletic director's position. Terri Curtis took over Welton's teaching vacancies at the high school and Ann Schaffner was switched to a full-time job at Beach school to take Curtis' classes.

The grievance contended that the half-time job Welton left should have been posted, which would have cleared the way for laid-off teacher Rahn Rosentreter to return to the high school.

Tuesday morning superintendent Joe Piasecki said no lay-offs will be necessary after this school year. He said it's likely there will be 1½ new positions at Beach Middle school, one for a sixth grade block teacher and another half-time English position. He said the elementary schools and Chelsea High school will probably hold steady, although a learning disabilities teacher may be needed at the high school.

Monday the board granted tenure to teachers at the various schools.

Teachers receiving continuing tenure at North school included Janet Alford, David Brinklow, Barbara Brown, John Capper, Jill Carlson, Marie Cröuch, D'Ann Gietzen, Marsha Hansen, Charlotte Danborn, Susan Harris, Barbara Locks, Jean Meconi, Peggy Moore, Clady Mortensen, Bernice Packard, Beverly Peebles, Sherri Plank, Marcia Quilter, Janet Rossi, Sally Schlupe, Eric Smith, Alberta Stein, Cheryl Vogel, Sue Walton, and Mary Watson.

South school teachers who received continuing tenure included Ann Andraska, William Beard, Robert Bullock, Suzanne DeVries, Barbara

House Members Plan Gasoline Tax Hike, Refinery Fee

A $152 million transportation tax package, including a bill removing the cap on the state's gasoline tax which would result in a two-cent per gallon increase, could be introduced in the House as early as this week by Rep. Curtis Hertel (D-Detroit), chair of the House-Transportation Committee.

The three-bill "Rebuild Michigan" package is designed to address the state's infrastructure and environmental cleanup needs.

The gas tax bill would remove the present cap on the current tax of 15 cents, thus allowing increases, based on a transportation inflation index, to no more than two cents annually.

The current state gas tax has been frozen since 1964 and removal of the cap is expected to raise it to 17 cents, Hertel said, raising $97 million the first year.

The bill would also include language reverting the tax back to the current level in three to five years, unless the Legislature takes action to renew it.

A second bill, creating the "Rebuild Michigan Act," would assess a one cent per gallon regulatory fee at the refinery level on all petroleum products refined in Michigan or already refined and brought into Michigan for resale, for road and bridge work, public transportation facilities and equipment and cleaning up underground storage tank sites.

Over half of the $55 million expected to be raised annually with the fee, $31.2 million or 56.8 percent, would be used to back bonds that would be floats for projects to rebuild Michigan's streets, highways, roads and bridges.

Another $10 million, or 18.2 percent, would be used to support bonding to fund capital projects for public transportation, including equipment replacement.

The rest, $13.8 million or 25 percent, would fund a program approved last year to meet federal requirements for cleaning up leaking underground petroleum products storage tanks.

Despite a transportation package passed in 1987—when a gas tax was politically impossible due to Governor Blanchard's opposition—which raises $100 million annually, Hertel said there are infrastructure needs which are still not being met.

"The governor made his position (two years ago) on the gas tax very clear, very early. The situation is different this year. The governor has indicated he would look favorably on a gas tax increase if sent to him by the Legislature," Hertel said.

Tom Scott, the governor's press secretary, said a gas tax is still not on Blanchard's agenda of priorities, but "if the Legislature believes it is critically important, he is willing to look at it."

Though motorists would feel the pinch, Hertel said a gas tax would be acceptable because it spreads the burden to both residents and out-of-state travelers.

"We're already at or lower than surrounding states. Shifting some of this burden to out-of-state residents makes some sense. The entire burden of rebuilding won't be borne by Michigan residents," he said.

Rep. Mickey Knight (R-Muskegon), who will be the sponsor of the third bill in the package which would allow the proceeds from the Rebuild Michigan Act to be used for the infrastructure purposes, agreed with Hertel.

"It's a user fee for everyone who uses it. I think the general perception of the public now is there is a need," he said. "Poor roads cost us money and jobs—so it's an investment in the future."

Though state legislators have batted the idea of a gas tax hike around for some time, they said their decision could hinge on action taken by the federal government in the same area.

Currently, the U. S. Congress is considering a bill which would raise the sales tax 50 cents per gallon, in order to fund the federal deficit.

Those at the state level feel that such federal action would make it politically impossible for them to call for a further increase. A U. S. House resolution with 196 co-sponsors, which is resting in the House Ways and Means Committee, opposes a federal increase.

"If (a state increase) would almost be pre-empted by political pressure," Senate State Affairs, Tourism and Transportation Chair Richard Fessler (R-West Bloomfield) said.

"I really believe our chances of raising the state gas tax are virtually nil after that happens. I just don't think that's politically doable," Hertel said.

CHS Class of '69
Seeks Addresses of
Some Classmates

Chelsea High school class of '69 is still looking for a few class members. If anyone has any information regarding any of the following, they would appreciate it if you would contact either Doreen McCalla at 475-7635, Judy Armstrong at 475-8224 or Marilyn Mast at 475-2784.

John Adams, Carol Barnes, Mike Bivens, Amy Cook, Carolyn Foster, Lavern Hafley, Paula Harmon, Colleen Herman, Debbie Hoy, Charles Montgomery, Pam Wilson, or Sandy Stanley.

The next meeting is scheduled for April 27 at the Chelsea Christian Fellowship church, 337 Wilkinson St., at 7:30 p.m.

He and other transportation directors across the country are also opposed to the proposed federal increase.

"That would be a very wrong approach to take. It would blow away the Federal Highway Trust Fund. If we don't (increase the gas tax) and they do the national thing, it's going to be very difficult for all the states to deal with transportation funding," Pitz said.

Currently, the federal tax on a gallon of gas is 9 cents, raising about $9.9 billion per year.

The state 15 cents per gallon raises about $875 million per year. Of that amount, one-third goes to the state, one-third to counties, 10 percent to public transportation, and the remainder to cities.

State gas taxes in neighboring states include 15 cents in Indiana; 14.8 cents in Ohio, and 13 cents in Illinois.

Uncle Lew from Lima Says:

DEAR MISTER EDITOR:

Ed Doolittle waved one of his clip-pings to get the floor first at the country store Saturday night. He had saw findings from a joint survey of what American and Russian wives think of their lives and especial their husbands. He was busting to get his response on the record, since this was the first chance he'd had to let off steam out of his old lady's hearing.

A wimmen's magazine in each country agreed to ask their readers the same questions, and both got plenty of feedback. What the results told him, Ed said, was that the more wimmen are different the more they're the same. Most are tired of being where they are with who they're with, Ed allowed, they want what they ain't got and they don't want what they got. All the problems in their lives are caused by their menfolks and about two thirds of wimmen answering the survey in both countries said they were general unhappy and wanted someun better fer their daughters.

Clem Webster said he couldn't see what Ed was excited about. If you ask the same questions of married men in both countries you'd get the same gripes and the same blame put on the other side. It ain't human nature to be satisfied, Clem said, and it is human nature to say you ain't ever chanct. Clem wondered if the magazines ask wimmen in each country what they thought of wimmen in the other.

Clem said Russians figger wimmen here push buttons to cook and do housework while they watch TV, and they're on waiting lists to put their children in day care so they can get satisfying jobs equal with men fer equal pay. Americans believe wimmen over there have plenty of free day care, but they stand in line half the day to buy bread and meat after working all night in a tractor factory, and they wait 10 year fer the chanct to buy a refrigerator. It's better the ask the wimmen about themselves, Clem allowed, since them in one country understand the other about the way men and wimmen understand one another everywhere.

The fellers passed lightly over Ed's and Clem's remarks, except Zeke Grubb took note of another survey that is bound to rile American wimmen. Zeke had saw where the National Association of Dipper Services paid for a study that shows disposing of the plastic in disposable dippers is costing taxpayers $300 million a year in landfill problems. List five inventions that have brought about the greatest change in American life in this century, said Zeke, and the disposable dipper will be high on it. No more throwaway dippers, no more babies, Zeke went on, so the cloth dipper services that have 10 percent of the market better leave well enough alone.

Final, Clem Webster turned the discussion back to the warming of relations between the U.S. and Russia. Clem saw nothing but good coming from surveys and associations between people of the two countries, but he worries about them taking a bigger bite of our form of government than their government can spit out.

Clem said he had read where a Boris Yelson actual is campaigning fer office over there American style, by lambasting everybody in office. Russians pick leaders the way we bought Model T Fords, any color you want as long as it's black. They're excited about a new color and they're egging this feller on, but giving em a choice leaves a bad taste in the Kremlin's mouth.

Yours truly,
Uncle Lew.

Chopsticks Make Club's Men's Night More Entertaining

Lima Town Hall, decorated with a look of China, held a gathering of 40 friends and family of Lima Extension Women Tuesday, April 11.

Aroma from the wok cast a spell of silence and interest over the group as Marilyn and Chuck Shipman demonstrated a rice and pea pod soup. As the soup was being tasted by all, the demonstration continued with a Szechuan noodle dish covered with Sesame sauce and peanuts. Stomachs were asking for more as an oyster sauce beef and asparagus dish was flavoring the air and Fran and Ed Coy were passing out chopsticks. Chopsticks added fun to eating the "chicken cashew with vegetables" dish that the Coys demonstrated.

A pot-luck continued with the main meat dish prepared as stir-fry in woks. Fortune cookies were provided on the tables as a decorative touch by the hostesses Barb Edict and Charlotte Ingils so that all could leave with a word of good fortune.

May 10, 10:30 a.m. is the next meeting at Janet McCalla's. John Simonds of Designers Cove Interiors will present a program on "Window Treatments." lems—energy sources, youth and the law, and nutrition—which were critiqued by trained evaluators.

Based on the third problem, the top 15 percent of Michigan teams from three grade divisions, 4-6, 7-9, and 10-12, have been invited to participate in the state bowl.

While the teams know the general topic of this year's bowl—employment—they will not know the specific problem they will attempt to solve until the bowl begins.

Solutions will be evaluated on clearly established criteria and the top four teams from each division will receive trophies. State champions will be invited to represent Michigan at the International Conference June 11-14.

The Gambler's Mask

As we pass strangers on the street or glance at faces in public gatherings we can tell little about these people from their neutral expressions. Yet all of these countenances serve as masks for one thing or another. One out of ten conceals a person who is an alcoholic. An unknown number of faces hide the presence of drug addiction while others mask the lives of compulsive gamblers.

For the alcoholics and drug victims there are hundreds of clinics to help them break the chains of chemical dependency. Far fewer treatment centers exist for compulsive gamblers who are trapped in a kind of psychological dependency. Not until 1980 was compulsive gambling recognized as a treatable disease by the American Psychiatric Association. Payment for treatment of this disorder is available under Medicare and health carriers such as Blue Cross when certified by a psychiatrist. The symptoms are surprisingly similar to those of chemical dependency. Family members may need treatment for anxiety, fear, insecurity and other signs of stress.

An estimated 4 million persons, mostly men, need treatment for this disease. Family members in need of counseling or treatment are believed to total 6 million. Far too few of these victims realize that there is help and it works. The starting points are Gamblers Anonymous and Gam-Anon. (More on this later.)

A person may begin gambling for money in an alley crap game. The habit may originate in poker, bridge or euchre. It may commence with the state lottery; a woman was arrested for swindling to support her $500 a day Lotto habit. There are the addictive lures of dog racing, horse racing and all sorts of sporting events. Gamblers can win or lose at bookmakers, racetracks and casinos in Nevada and Atlantic City. Before long susceptible individuals find that gambling has become an unshakable obsession. All rules of reason and fair play are wiped out. Losses are simply bad luck and must be recouped by additional betting. A string of wins is recognized as a hot winning streak which must be sustained as long as it lasts.

The gambler is hooked and there is now a constant need for money. The rent or mortgage payment goes unpaid. Taxes are neglected, sometimes so long that a state officer or federal marshal shows up at the door. Utility payments are skipped until the service is shut-off. When the kids need shoes, they are charged to VISA. More charges ensue until the card is confiscated by a store manager while others in the checkout line look on.

Checks begin to bounce... so many that the bank closes the account. Money is raised by refinancing the furniture at a loan company. If the home is owned, a second mortgage is taken out, unknown to the spouse whose signature has been forged. The car, the son's beloved piano and the refrigerator are repossessed one after the other. Tragedy reaches yet another climax when her wedding and engagement rings are missing... and pawned within the hour.

As every convertible asset is exhausted, along with everyone good for a loan, the gambler is driven by his compulsion to crime. Stealing, fraud, forgery, embezzlement—you name it. After efforts at probation and reform by judges and social workers fail, many gamblers wind up in jail or in prison. Others attempt suicide and some succeed.

Misdeeds of the male gamblers are paralleled in all respects by compulsive women gamblers. Lies they tell, promises they break, responsibilities they violate are mirror images of male gambling behavior.

Investigation of Pete Rose

Our American sports world has been shaken by press reports early this year that Pete Rose, "Mr. Baseball," is under investigation as a high-stakes gambler. News broke in February when Rose, manager of the Cincinnati Reds, was called to New York for a meeting with Baseball Commissioner Peter Ueberroth and National League President A. Bartlett Giamatti. Sports writers guessed that the subject was gambling since Rose is a habitué of dog and horse tracks. An investigation is now being made of his ties to notorious bookies and gamblers who are thought to have placed bets for Rose on baseball games. One of them is a former associate and bookmaker who is now in prison for income tax evasion.

In the past 20 years Pete Rose has earned a fortune, well into the millions. Whatever might have been saved went down the drain in wagers. When he made his 4,192nd base hit, breaking the all-time record of immortal Ty Cobb, Rose took possession of the ball and bat from that memorable inning. Now he is rumored to have sold them because he needed to cover some bets. Rose was also reported to have given up his 1975 World Series championship ring to pay a gambling debt. His marriage began to break up as a result of his disastrous betting habits. This occurred in 1978 when he established his record streak of 44 consecutive hits.

If these and numerous other allegations prove true, Pete Rose will be suspended from baseball. He will be out for a year for betting on any major league baseball game. His suspension will be for life if he has been betting on the Cincinnati Reds.

There are said to be about 100 million recreational gamblers in America. Many are recent devotees attracted to the state lotteries by dreams of instant millions. Long-established, however, are habitual gamblers who enjoy certain games and gamble only what they can afford. Some gather week nights for an evening of bingo. Others assemble for sessions of bridge, euchre or poker at stakes that are well within their means.

Sad to say, this sort of disciplined betting is the opposite of what we are hearing about Pete Rose. He is portrayed in sports page reports as a compulsive gambler whose closest companions are either gamblers or bookmakers. At a guess, his baseball income (salary, endorsements and so on) was in the range of $1 to $2 million in 1988, somewhere between $2,700 and $5,400 a day. If he had restrained himself to $1,000 a day—and done likewise in earlier years—he would probably still have his wife, his fortune, his world series ring and other memorabilia that he sold.

Bartlett Giamatti, who succeeded Ueberroth as Baseball Commissioner April 1, is still conducting his investigation. And sports fans are still waiting for the other shoe to drop. Then we will learn if Pete Rose's career in organized baseball is to continue.

According to Dr. Robert Guster, a psychiatrist with the Veterans administration, "Compulsive gambling is an addictive illness in which the subject is driven by an overwhelming, uncontrollable impulse to gamble. The impulse progresses in intensity and urgency, consuming more and more of the individual's time, energy, money and emotional resources. Ultimately it invades, undermines and often destroys everything that is meaningful in the person's life."

In recent years, Gamblers Anonymous has come into existence, based on the same successful principles as Alcoholics Anonymous. Matching it is Gam-Anon for spouses, relatives and close friends. The phone number of Gamblers Anonymous in Detroit is 1-446-5144 and is answered by a recording. The message will tell you that at the end of the recording you may leave your name and phone number so that a volunteer may call you.

Gamblers Anonymous meets in Ann Arbor at 8 p.m. Mondays at 2309 Packard Rd. Their meetings are held in a place of worship shared by two congregations, one Episcopal and the other Jewish. Gamblers Anonymous is non-denominational.

If you are concerned about a gambling problem of your own, or someone close to you, these people are caring and trustworthy friends.

Margaret Murphy Named District Lioness of Year

Chelsea Lioness learned about Leader Dogs first-hand from Doug Spade at their meeting Monday, evening, April 18. He brought his leader dog Buck and an excellent video "narrated" by his first leader dog, Eric. These dogs are invaluable to their blind owners and assist them in more tasks than people realize.

Lions and Lioness contribute financially to the training of these dogs. Spade donated a copy of his video to Chelsea Lioness so it is available to the community on loan.

Chelsea Lion Norm Colby then talked about White Cane Days set for April 28-29.

For the second year in a row the Chelsea area club has been distinguished with a District Lioness of the Year. Our own Margaret Murphy, who chaired the committee to bring a ghoulish Haunted House to Chelsea last year, received the plaque from Ann Arbor Lioness Nona Devine. Chelsea Lioness are very proud and grateful to her for all her efforts.

The 1989-90 board was elected at this meeting. New officers are Diane Daniel, president; Margaret Murphy, first vice-president; Betty Severn, second vice-president; Gayle Thompson, third vice-president; Judy Radant, secretary; and Christa Fischer will continue as treasurer to finish out her two-year term.

Refreshments for the meeting were provided by Gayle Thompson, Betty Severn, Carol Brock and Alice Stimpson. Judy Armstrong brought guest Vickie Lawrence.

Next event for the Lioness is catering hors d'oeuvres for the Senior Citizen Prom on May 6 at Beach Middle school.

Key Club International is a high school service organization supported by Kiwanis International.

Michigan District of Key Clubs has endorsed the Juvenile Diabetes Foundation as their charity district project for 1989-90. The Walley-Thon is the kick-off event.

More than $15,000 is expected to be raised in honor of Lisa Hamilton, a juvenile diabetic and former Key Club member from Allen Park.

Waterloo Groups Offer Historical Music Show

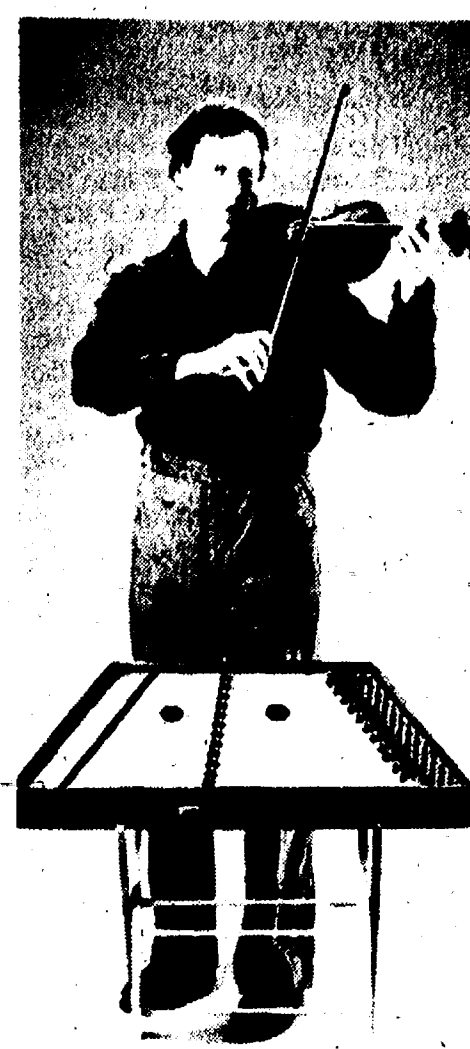

Waterloo Area Historical Society and Farm Museum will be presenting "The Past in Person" a historical music show. Michael Deren will take the group on a journey into the past to the lumbering camps in the 1870's. He will entertain with songs and stories about the lumberjack/shanty boy.

Deren brings his unusual mix of musical talent and interest in history from Ann Arbor. He received a master's degree in music from the University of Michigan.

The lumberjack has importance to the people of Michigan since many of the fortunes spent in Detroit were made from lumber. Deren says more money was taken out of Michigan through logging than 'gold out of California.

The program will be presented at the Stockbridge Town Hall on April 27 at 8 p.m. It is open to the public and admission is free. It is funded in part by a grant from the Michigan Council for the Humanities. The Waterloo area Farm Museum has an annual educational meeting at which they present various programs of interest to the community and surrounding areas.

The Waterloo Farm Museum will open for the season on June 1. It will open Tuesdays through Sundays, 1 to 4 p.m. Dewey School, a restored one-room school house will also be open on Sundays, 1 to 4 p.m. The museum is located in Jackson county within the Waterloo Recreation Area at 9998 Waterloo-Munith Rd. Dewey School is at Mayer and Territorial Rd., just off M-106 south of Stockbridge.

DONALD A. COLE, Director

"There is no pleasure without a tinge of sadness..."

—Haliz

We suspect that most of us would like to sample a life of unending pleasure, completely devoid of sadness. However, common sense tells us that at least a little bitterness and disappointment must be expected, if only to give us perspective and enable us to enjoy more fully the pleasures that are sure to follow in the normal course of events.

It has been said that we never do anything for the last time without a trace of sadness. No matter how pleasant... or how unpleasant... it may be, the realization that we shall never again have that experience leaves us a little saddened.

Our consideration for people and our sincere desire to provide help for those under emotional stress are the foundation of our unexcelled service to this community.

Thursday, April 21, 1955—

Fire of undetermined origin raced through the four-apartment house at 13175 Old US-12. Fanned by a stiff south breeze, little of the building was left standing in less than one hour after the fire was discovered. Joe T. Merkel owned the house which was occupied by three families at the time of the fire. No one was injured but all suffered complete loss of clothing and household effects.

Sonny Candee, defensive end for the Detroit Lions, Wally Weber, freshman football coach at the U. of M., Ray Glasser and Alan Conklin, CHS coaches, provided the entertainment and athletic awards when members of the Chelsea high school varsity sports teams were honored at the second annual All-Sports Banquet.

Winners were announced in the VFW Auxiliary's poster contest on the topic "What Civil Defense Means To Me." Top winners in the group comprised of students from St. Mary's school were Joseph Christwell, fifth and sixth grade and Marie Forner, seventh and eighth grade. Prizes of $3, $2, and $1 respectively, were awarded for first, second, and third place winners.

Chelsea High School chorus of 70 voices planned to attend the Southwestern Michigan Vocal Festival, according to an announcement by Miss Martha Smith, vocal music teacher. The annual affair was held on the Western Michigan college campus in Kalamazoo.

Free off-street parking for Chelsea, financed with proceeds of parking meters in the downtown area, was the subject of study by a committee of Chamber of Commerce members appointed to work with the Village Council in perfecting plans for the project. The committee included Ferd Merkel, Walter Harper, and Rolland Spaulding.

The board tabled a recommendation to approve the position of Director of Athletics, Physical Education, and Health.

The athletic director's position has evolved somewhat according to the person in the job. Most recently, in reflection of Larry Reed's responsibilities, it was Athletic Director/Pool Director.

"The board will probably make its final decision about the position at the May 1 meeting," Plasecki said.

No decision has been made as to whether interim athletic director Wayne Welton will be made the full-time director.

For Fast Tax Info Call IRS Tele-Tax

Tele-Tax, a recorded telephone tax information service, is again this year being provided by the Internal Revenue Service.

Taxpayers who have tax questions can call Tele-Tax year-round for information on a large variety of tax subjects such as changes in the law, filing requirements, itemized deductions, tax credits, dependents, and adjustments to income, according to the IRS.

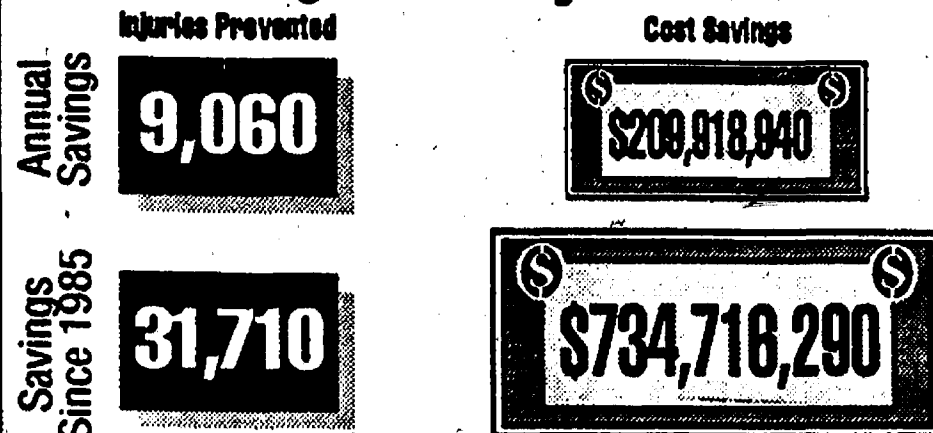

The automated service also provides taxpayers with direct access to the status of their refunds. Taxpayers must allow for normal processing time before seeking refund information from IRS.

Push-button touch tone telephone users can listen to recorded tax information round-the-clock daily. During business hours, callers with rotary or pulse dial phones can also choose topics they wish to hear.

Details on how to use Tele-Tax are contained in IRS Publication 1163, the Tele-Tax brochure; in IRS Publication 910, "Guide to Free Tax Services;" or in the tax forms package. Publications can be ordered by calling the IRS toll-free number, 1-800-424-3676.

Paying their own way: In Rwanda, Africa, foreign tourists are going ape over a unique sightseeing safari. They are paying more than $100 per person for the privilege of trekking deep into the bush to spend an hour with the world's last tribe of wild mountain gorillas. International Wildlife magazine reports the monies raised by these excursions helps preserve the gorilla's fragile habitat and protect the big primates from poachers. The success of the project has spurred efforts to save other threatened species by opening up their habitats for a fee.

Cost Savings from Michigan's Safety Belt Law

Statistics Show Michigan's Safety Belt Law Works

University of Michigan Transportation Research Institute (UMTRI) report just released states that the Michigan adult safety belt law has prevented 31,710 motor vehicle crash casualties. The report also indicates that since the law has been in effect, it has provided $734,716,290 in cost savings. There was also a significant 6.4% over-all reduction in injuries to front-seat occupants associated with the law. No significant reduction in injury was found for rear-seat occupants.

Data on injured occupants involved in motor vehicle crashes was obtained from Michigan State Police records. These records were compiled from all traffic crashes within the state reported by local and state police agencies.

The report shows that annually 9,060 injuries are prevented as a result of the adult safety belt law. The cost savings to society in Michigan amounts yearly to $209,918,940.

When computing the cost savings to society, the University of Michigan's study included a calculation of economic benefits based on a "willingness-to-pay" method. This method best represents the real cost to society due to traffic crashes and injuries and includes the value of loss of goods and services, loss of ability to perform vocational and avocational work, and psychosocial losses such as mental anguish, family problems, and loss of contact with friends/community.

"Safety belt laws are saving lives, preventing injuries, and lowering the severity of injuries that do result from motor vehicle crashes," says Karen R. Tarrant, executive director of the Office of Highway Safety Planning (OHSP).

WHITE CANE WEEK: April 28 through May 7, 1989 has been proclaimed Lions "White Cane Week" in the State of Michigan by Governor James J. Blanchard. Chelsea Lions Club member Bill Wescott looks on as village president Jerry Satterthwaite signs a proclamation in observance of April 28-May 7, 1989 as Lion White Cane Week.

Chelsea Lions Club Plans Annual 'White Cane Week'

Members of the Chelsea Lions Club will be on the streets on Friday, April 28 and Saturday, April 29 soliciting donations in support of the annual "White Cane Week."

Lion president Frank Bobo says that each donor will receive a miniature "white cane" from a Lion who will be dressed in the distinctive Lions vest or apron and hat.

The money collected during this state-wide event is used by Lions Clubs to provide eye examinations, glasses for those in need, white canes to the visually impaired, and hearing aids for hearing-impaired. Other projects include, Special Olympics, Girls State, Chelsea Social Services, Leader Dogs for the Blind, Michigan Braille Transcribing, Michigan Eye Bank, St. Louis School for Boys, Chelsea High School Scholarships Fund, Chelsea United Methodist Home and Chelsea Area Transportation Service. Club members will be stationed at the following locations during "White Cane Week" asking for donations from the public to help support their projects: Chelsea State Bank, Polly's Market, Chelsea Pharmacy, and Ames Department Store.

Taxpayer Has Rights in IRS Audit

In 1988, Congress passed the Technical and Miscellaneous Revenue Act (TAMRA) to correct some provisions in the Tax Reform Act of 1986. The TAMRA provides a "Taxpayer's Bill of Rights" which protects taxpayers when they are called by the IRS for an audit.

If you are audited this year, you should know that you have these rights:

- If you are called in to explain a certain deduction, you must answer questions pertaining to that deduction only. If the auditor asks you questions regarding any other part of your return, you do not need to answer.
- If, during the interview, you feel you must consult with a tax advisor, the auditor must stop the interview and allow time for you to seek advice.
- You are allowed to make an audio recording of your audit interview, as long as both you and the auditor are aware that a recording is being made.
- If you prepared your return based on inaccurate written information from the IRS, you are not required to pay interest and penalties for the error.
- TAMRA now requires a 30-day waiting period before the IRS can put a lien on a delinquent taxpayer's property; the old law allowed only 10 days' notice.
- Before the audit begins, the IRS must inform you of these rights.

The IRS audits millions of returns annually; the General Accounting Office notes, however, that 31% of these notices are sent erroneously. If you receive an audit notice, check with a tax professional who can review the IRS notice and your return.

Bulldog Pitching Keys Chelsea Tourney Title

Chelsea Bulldogs won the competitive Belleville Invitational Softball Tournament last Saturday to improve their record to 10-3 on the young season.

It was a busy week for coach Pat Clarke's team as they won seven of eight contests, losing only to Ann Arbor Pioneer in the second game of a double-header last Thursday.

At the tournament, Chelsea knocked off four class A teams, including host Belleville, one of the top teams in class A.

In the championship game against Dearborn Edsel Ford, Laura Unterbrink had an outstanding game as she pitched a no-hitter and was 3-3 at the plate with four RBI as the Dogs took an 11-1 win.

"The girls played outstanding ball," Clarke said.

Senior shortstop Heather Neibauer had a dream day as she was 13 for 16 at the plate and she fielded everything hit to her. Kim Easton had six hits on the day and nine RBI. She was truly outstanding in her fielding efforts. We are starting to come around offensively. Our pitchers, Jenni Smith and Laura Unterbrink allowed just two earned runs and seven hits in the four games. They also struck out 28 and walked just three. It was a truly outstanding performance by our pitchers.

Chelsea held a 2-0 lead going into the fourth inning. In the first, Laura Unterbrink's single knocked in both runs. In the fourth, Colleen Scharphorn's double scored two runs, and Laura Unterbrink singled in the third run of the inning.

Neibauer's double in the fifth scored the sixth run.

In the sixth, Laura Unterbrink's single scored a run, Sara Musolf singled home two runs, and Neibauer had a sacrifice RBI.

Neibauer had three hits in the game, and Lisa Unterbrink had a pair of hits.

In the opening game at Belleville against South Lyon, Smith tossed a four-hitter and took a 10-2 victory.

"We played a nice game," Clarke said.

"Our baserunning was excellent."

Smith gave up single runs in the first and seventh innings. Chelsea scored in five of the seven innings on 13 hits.

Neibauer had four hits, Losey had three hits, and Easton had three RBI.

Laura Unterbrink shut out Livonia Stevenson for her first win of the day, 18-0, as she gave up just one base hit.

"Laura pitched her best game of the season," Clarke said.

Hitting highlights included a 4-4 performance from Neibauer, who also had three RBI; a 3-4 game from Easton, who also knocked in six runs; a 3-6 effort from Unterbrink; a three-hit performance from Smith, and a two-hit game from Musolf, who also had a triple.

Shawn Losey got her first varsity start as catcher and pitched a "flawless game," according to Clarke.

SCHARME PETTY begins a move toward the plate during the opening game against Ann Arbor Pioneer last Thursday. The Bulldogs won the opener but lost the nightcap.

Chelsea broke the game open in the fifth with 10 runs.

Smith shut out Belleville, 2-0, in the game that sent Chelsea to the finals. She threw a two-hitter.

Scharphorn hit a two-out single for the game-winning hit in the fourth inning. Christy Petty had the only other RBI, on a two-out single in the fifth inning.

"It was a well-played game," Clarke said.

"Belleville was ranked number 10 in class A and was undefeated. Smith pitched an outstanding game against one of the best hitting teams in the area."

Chelsea picked up eight hits, including two each by Neibauer and Losey.

In other action last week, Chelsea shot down Lumen Christi twice on Tuesday, 4-1 and 13-1 in chilly weather.

In the opener, Smith struck out 17 hitters and allowed two hits.

"Smith was outstanding, but offensively we were off," Clarke said.

Chelsea had eight hits including two each by Neibauer and Easton.

The Bulldogs scored two runs in the third on RBI singles by Easton and Smith. They scored single runs in the fifth and sixth on sacrifices by Christy Petty and Shannon Losey.

Laura Unterbrink pitched a two-hitter in the second game as she struck out three and walked one.

Chelsea held a 4-1 lead going into the fifth inning before scoring nine runs to break the game open.

Offensive highlights included three hits by Shannon Losey, a pair of doubles by Smith, and two hits each by Laura Unterbrink, Easton, and Neibauer.

On Thursday against Pioneer, Smith blanked the Pioneers in the opener, 4-0, on three-hit, 11-strikeout pitching.

"It was a well-played game by two fine teams," Clarke said.

"Smith was just awesome on the mound."

Chelsea had just five hits for the game, including two by Easton.

Bulldog Bats Come Alive In Chelsea Invitational

After being no-hit in the first game by state-ranked Fenton, the Chelsea Bulldogs rallied to take second place in the Chelsea-Manchester Invitational baseball tournament last Saturday.

Chelsea lost to Fenton, 4-0, before blanking Gabriel Richard in the second game, 16-0, and whipping Manchester 15-5 in the third game.

"After scoring no runs in our first two games of the season, all of a sudden we scored 31 runs in 10 innings," said Chelsea coach Wayne Welton.

"Our offense needed that."

In the opener, Fenton pitcher Cory Allen limited Chelsea to four baserunners as he struck out 14 and walked two.

"It was the first time in my 11 years as coach that we've been no-hit," Welton said.

However, Chelsea pitcher Junior Morseau gave up four unearned runs. In the fifth inning the Bulldogs had five errors which allowed three runs to score. Morseau struck out nine for the game.

"Junior pitched very well," Welton said.

"In 12 innings this year he's given up six hits and no earned runs."

Fenton went on to beat Manchester 6-2 and Gabriel Richard 9-1 for the championship.

In the second game against Richard, Chelsea scored 11 runs in the first inning.

The big lead helped Doug Wingrove to his first win of the season, a two-hit, 10-strikeout effort in five innings.

Mark Larson was 3-3 with four RBI. Morseau was 3-4 with a pair of doubles, David Adams had a double and two RBI, Kyle Plank had one hit and three RBI, and Kerry Plank had a bases-loaded double for three RBI.

Rob Clem picked up a victory in relief of Kyle Plank in the third game as he one-hit Manchester for 3 1/3 innings.

Chelsea scored six runs in the first inning on singles by Wingrove, Jeff Prentice, a walk, a hit batsman, a double by Morseau, and two-run double by Kyle Plank, and a double steal.

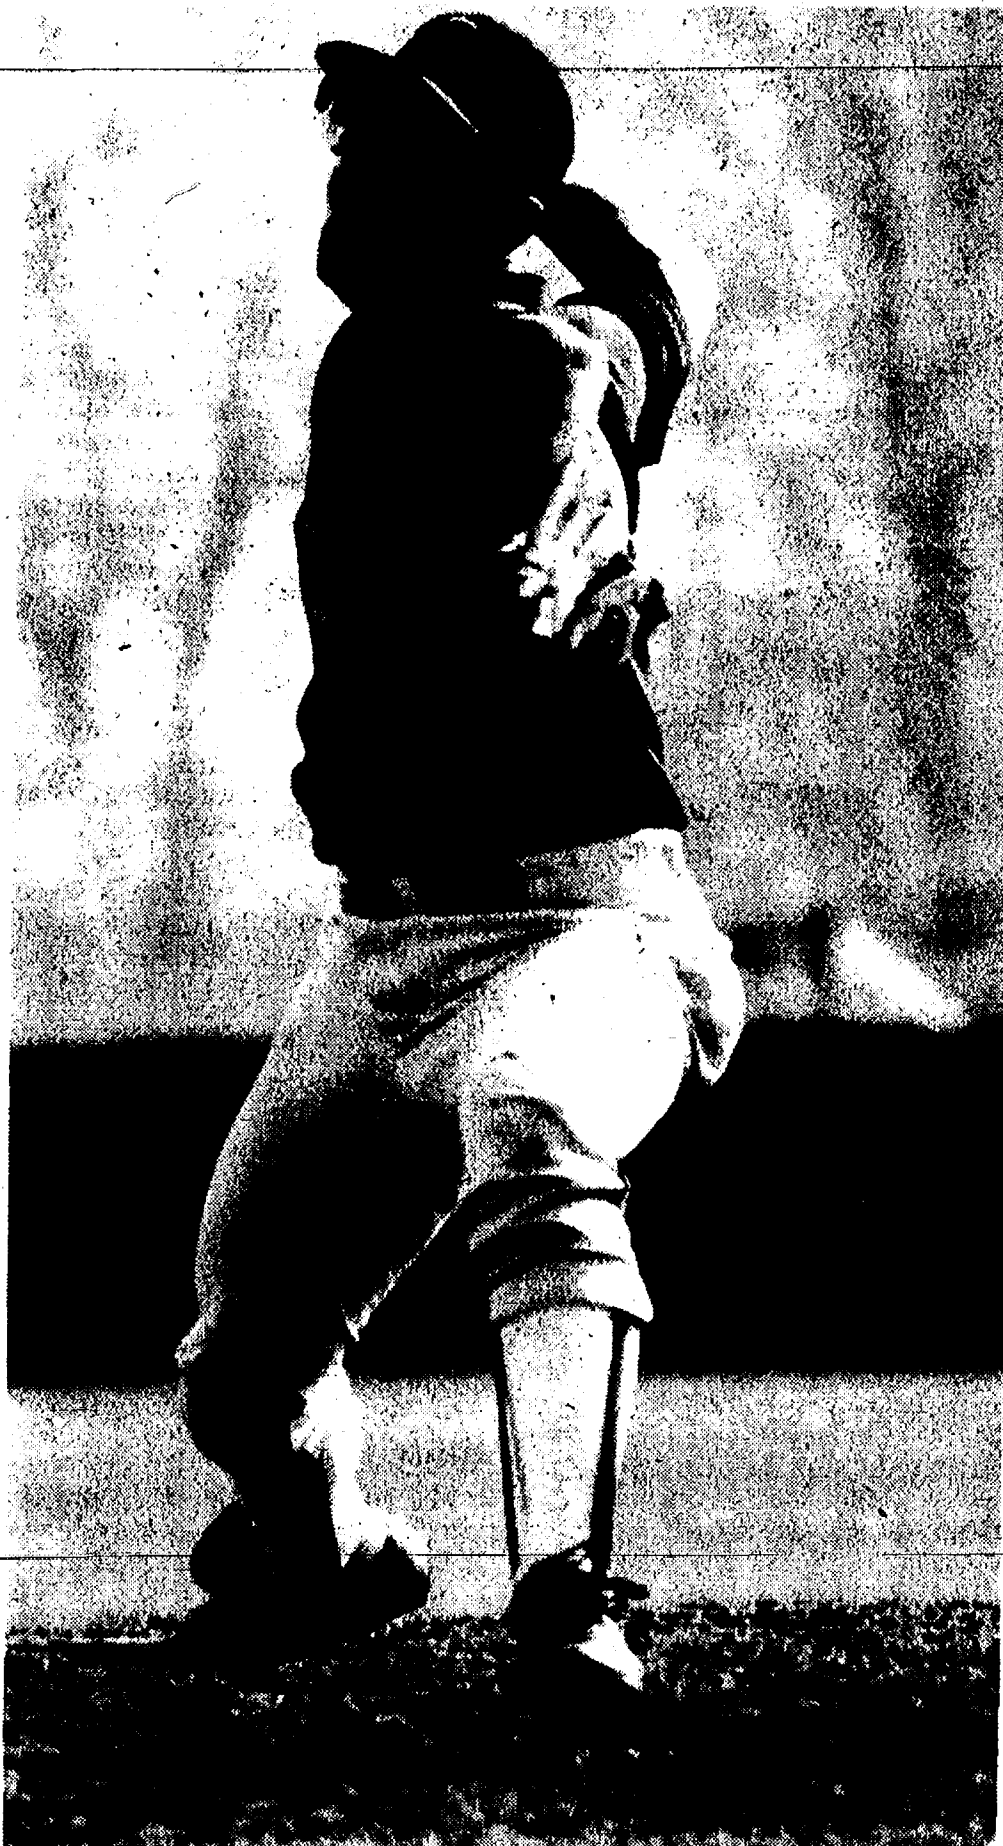

The Bulldogs scored three more runs in the second on a hit batsman, a single by Prentice, and a double steal.

Chelsea picked up two more runs in the third as Morseau doubled and Prentice singled.

Finally, in the fifth, Wingrove's double and Tom Mesnard's two-run single scored the final four runs.

Prentice was 3-3 for the game, Morseau had two doubles for two RBI, Wingrove was 2-4 and Kyle Plank was 2-2 with four RBI. The Bulldogs had 12 hits collectively.

JUNIOR MORSEAU had an excellent day on the mound Saturday against Fenton but his teammates didn't give him any defensive support. The Bulldogs lost to state-ranked Fenton, 4-0, but came back to take second in the Chelsea-Manchester Invitational.

Dittmer, Bareis Letter at Adrian

Daryl Dittmer of Dexter and Mark Bareis of Chelsea were among eight letter winners on the Adrian College basketball team this winter. Dittmer was Adrian's top rebounder with 5.6 per game. He was also the team's co-captain. Bareis is a second-year player and most of his time came off the bench.

JV Softball Team Wins Three of Four

Chelsea Bulldog junior varsity softball team went undefeated in action last week. They won one and tied one with Ann Arbor Pioneer and swept Jackson Lumen Christi to improve their record at 3-2-1.

The Bulldogs won the opener against Pioneer 29-8 last Thursday, April 13 behind the two-hit pitching of Colleen Scharphorn. Pioneer got the majority of their runs on 15 walks. "Offensively and defensively we played very well," said Chelsea coach Ken Sullins.

"Pitching-wise, though, we need to give up fewer freebies." Chelsea scored in each of the five innings played. The Dogs scored five in the first on three walks, an error, and singles by Sarah Musolf, Carrie Flintoft, and Kelly Cross.

They scored 10 more runs in the second inning to take a 15-2 lead, highlighted by two singles each by Flintoft and Scharphorn, and hits by Jennifer Petty, Kathy Issel, and Shawn Losey. Singles by Issel, Heather Pulley, Cross, Losey, and Christine Burg paced a seven-run third. A double by Losey was the big hit in a five-run fourth inning. Tonya Lawrence rapped a double in the fifth. Flintoft ended the game 4-6 at the plate, Losey was 4-5, and Issel and Cross each had a pair of hits.

The second game ended tied at 4 as the Bulldogs scored two in the fifth to knot the game.

Flintoft walked, Scharphorn singled, Losey had a successful sacrifice squeeze, and Issel knocked home the final run on a sacrifice fly.

"We played a little sluggishly at the beginning, but did what was necessary to get even," Sullins said. "It was a fun game to watch." Musolf went the distance and tossed a five-hitter.

Chelsea wiped out Lumen Christi in the opener at home last Friday, 22-0, as Flintoft and Petty combined on a three-hitter.

The Bulldogs had 26 hits in the five-inning game, led by Pulley, 3-3, including a triple and a homer, and Flintoft, 3-4, including a double and triple.

"It was a nice job of pitching," Sullins said.

"It was also a great day hitting for everyone. Every starter had at least two hits and we had only one strikeout."

Chelsea had a 10-0 lead after three innings before scoring 12 runs in the fourth to run away from Christi.

In the second game, the Dogs jumped out to a 6-0 lead but Christi rallied to take a 7-6 lead in the top of the second. The Bulldogs scored three in the bottom of the second to take the lead for good.

"Again, freebies got Christi going but Jennifer Petty pitched in relief and did a great job," Sullins said.

In an inning and a third, Petty struck out four. Doubles by Flintoft, Scharphorn, and Bobo highlighted the six-run first. Christi rallied on a single and seven walks.

Singles by Musolf, Flintoft, and Bobo keyed the second inning, and singles by Issel, Bobo, Jennifer Teare, and Danielle Taylor scored three in the third.

Big hitters in the second game were Bobo, 3-3, and Issel and Flintoft, who each had two hits.

"We played well offensively and defensively," Sullins said. "Our baserunning is improving and we're getting runs in from third."

Bulldogs Win Invitational

"Our pitchers all pitched very well," Welton said.

Chelsea is 2-2 on the season. Southeastern Conference action begins Thursday at home against Saline.

Chelsea Girls Track Team Tops Fowlerville To Start Season

Chelsea Bulldog girls track team opened their season Tuesday with a 79-49 win over Fowlerville.

Highlight of the win was the Bulldogs' sweeps of the sprint races. Leading the way for Chelsea was senior Danica Disbro, who took the 100 in :14.0 and the 200 in :28.4, and led off the winning 800 relay. Following in the 100 were freshmen Amy Weir, second, and Heather Hamilton, third.

In the 200, sophomore Deanna Richardson was second and Weir third.

Disbro combined with Leisa Schiller, Jeanene Rossi, and Anne Steffenson to win the 800 relay and Rossi, Weir, Richardson, and Angela Pace took the 400 relay. Steffenson won the 400 run in 1:06.2 and Schiller was second in 1:06.8, edging out a Fowlerville runner by .1 second.

In the distance races, Vicki Bullock was second in the 800 with Kim Roberts third. Sarah Grau was second in the 1600 with Stefanie Wagner third. Grau added a third in the 3200.

Freshman Charity Allen was a double winner in the hurdles. She took the 100's in :17.4, with Amy Carley third, and won the 300's in :51.4. Coach Bill Bainton said both of those were outstanding times, particularly considering the cold weather conditions. Carley also turned in a courageous performance in the 300 hurdles. She fell at the first hurdle, but got up and narrowly missed third place.

The Bulldogs also had some fine performances in the field events. Deanna Richardson, in her first varsity track meet, took the long jump with a jump of 14' 10". Leisa Schiller was second at 14' 8". Erika Boughton was second in the high jump at 4' 8". Jeanene Rossi also cleared 4' 8" but didn't place because of more misses.

Mercedes Hammer won the shot put at 28' 1/4", edging Tiffany Moore who was second at 28' 1".

Marti Daggett threw her career best to get second in the discus at 83'

1". Moore added a third.

"We had a lot of fine performances in spite of the cold weather," Bainton said. "It seemed to bother the distance runners the most. We were very pleased with the progress of the younger runners, like Charity Allen and Heather Hamilton, and the leadership of seniors Danica Disbro and Amy Carley."

DAVID ADAMS gets down low to take a pitch from number one pitcher and catcher Junior Morseau during the Chelsea-Manchester Invitational last Saturday.

Brown Improves Record to 10-1

Former Chelsea softball pitcher Pam Brown improved her Grand Valley State University record to 10-1 last week-end with a 10-0 shutout of Augustana College in the Quincy Tournament.

Brown, a sophomore, has pitched 75 2/3 innings, given up 79 hits, 27 walks, and struck out 23 for an earned run average of 1.48.

Softball Team Wins Tourney

The Bulldogs scored twice in the third and one in each the fourth and sixth innings.

Chelsea's only loss of the week came in the second game, 4-0.

"We just didn't hit," Clarke said. It was a game of few highlights for Chelsea as Neibauer, Easton, and Laura and Lisa Unterbrink each had a hit.

Shannon Losey keyed a double play in the sixth with the bases loaded to keep the game as close as it was.

Outdoor Report

From DNR District Office in Jackson

Fisheries

April 10, 1989

The time has arrived for our annual stocking of yearling brown and rainbow trout throughout District 13 waters. Both trout species are stocked as yearlings which normally range in size from 5 to 7 inches. Legal size is 8 inches for brown trout and 10 inches for rainbow trout in lakes. Although the trout are not legal sized fish when they are stocked, they grow rapidly in most cases and reach legal size by late spring or early summer.

Brown trout will be stocked in the following district streams this spring: Branch county: Prairie River, 7,400; Calhoun county: Nottawa River, 7,000; Seven Mile Creek, 1,500; Bear Creek, 1,000; Hillsdale county: S. Br. Kalamazoo River, 3,800; Sand Creek, 2,400; Jackson County: S. Br. Kalamazoo River, 1,000; Mackey Brook, 1,400; Snyder Brook, 1,000; Washtenaw county: Paint Creek, 7,200.

Rice Creek (Calhoun county and the St. Joseph of the Maumee (Hillsdale Co.) are tentatively scheduled for rotenone treatments this fall and will not be stocked with yearlings this spring. Stocking programs in Wilder Creek (Calhoun county), Trist Creek (Jackson county), and Arms Creek (Washtenaw county) were discontinued since they failed to produce a significant trout fishery.

Yearling rainbow trout will be stocked this spring in the following district lakes: Branch Co.: Cary Lake, 4,000; Gilead Lake, 6,500; Lake Lavine, 4,300; Rose Lake, 17,750; Calhoun Co.: Lee Lake, 5,600; Hillsdale Co.: Hemlock Lake, 8,000; Jackson Co.: Swains Lake, 5,000; Lenawee Co.: Allens Lake, 3,500.

Deep Lake, 2,500; Washtenaw Co.: Pickere Lake, 1,500. Approximately one-fourth of the rainbow trout stocked in Gilead and Swains Lakes will be tagged with Floy (Spaghetti) tags. This study is an effort to evaluate the return of stocked trout to the anglers.

Wildlife

The first wild turkey hunting season in modern times in south central Michigan is scheduled to open on April 28. Winter surveys indicated a population of about 1,200 turkeys within the boundary of Area X. This area lies within a rectangle between Mason, Howell, Dexter and Jackson.

Wildlife biologists anticipate a harvest of 75-80 gobblers. They issued a total of 450 hunting permits spanning three hunt periods of about seven days each. Weight, spur and beard length, age as well as the distribution of turkeys will be gathered from each bird that is harvested. A voluntary check station will be operated out of the Waterloo Game Office on 13579 Seymour Rd. This office will be open on Saturday, April 29, and Sunday, April 30, as well as regular week day working hours. An attractive "successful turkey hunting" patch similar to those issued during deer season are expected to bring hunters in to check their gobblers.

The annual spring migration of waterfowl is at its peak right now. Almost every pond or stream has a pair of mallards, wood ducks or blue-wing teal on it. Canada Geese are starting to select nesting sites already.

The birds are adorned in their brightest feathers this time of year. Breeding plumage is much more colorful than the fall plumage. With the warm weather, many of these waterfowl will fly north to ancestral breeding territories. Enjoy them while they are here!

Dogs Take Second In Dual Track Meet

Chelsea Bulldog boys track team lost its opening meet of the season to Fowlerville, 83-54, despite some strong individual performances.

Matt Herter became the first Chelsea hurdler in five years to take first place in a hurdle event as he won the 300 intermediate hurdles in :48.1.

Matt Weid placed first in the pole vault at 12'6". Paul Hedding would have won the 1600 and 3200 meter events in virtually any other meet as he was beaten by Ty Tuggle, who placed in the top five at the state meet last season. Hedding ran a 4:46.2 in the 1600 and a 10:25.8 in the 3200.

Scott Reynolds won the 100 meters in :12.1, and anchored the winning 400 meter relay team of Luman Strong, Weid, and Herter. Their time was 1:39.8.

Lucky Beeman took first place in the discus at 112'1". In the long jump, Brett Salamin took third at 17'4".

Jon Royce was third in the high jump at 5'3".

Beeman and Jeff Kielwasser were second and third shot put in 38'11" and 35'7", respectively.

Kielwasser was third in the discus at 88'.

Chelsea's 3200 meter relay team of Matt Riemenschneider, Jeff Latimer, Holden Harris, and Hedding turned in a time of 9:12.5.

Salamin was third in the 100 meter dash in :13.

Chelsea's 800 meter relay team of Strong, Weid, Herter, and Reynolds took second in 1:39.8.

Brian Zangara was third in the 1600 meters in 5:07.1 and third in the 3200 in 11:12.5.

Harris and Royce were second and third in the 400 meter run in :55.3 and :58.4, respectively.

In the 800 meter run, Riemenschneider and Harris were second and third in 2:16.2 and 2:19.3, respectively.

The 1600 meter relay team of Jeff Latimer, Jim Hassett, Royce, and Erich Hammer was second.

JV Baseball Team Has Bumpy Start

Chelsea Bulldog junior varsity baseball team opened the season with a 5-4 loss last Tuesday to Novi.

Chelsea led 4-1 after two innings but couldn't hold on as Novi pecked away at the lead and scored two in the bottom of the sixth for the win.

"As soon as we start to hit we'll be a threat in every game," said Chelsea coach Jim Ticknor.

In the first, Jeremy Stephens walked, Kelly Beard singled, and they pulled off a double steal. A wild pitch and a sacrifice fly by Rick Westcott scored two runs.

In the second, Ben Hurst doubled, Brian Bell singled, and Stephens rapped a two-run single.

Stephens pitched 5 1/3 innings and Shawn Castleberry pitched in relief. Castleberry and Bell each had two hits for the game.

Saturday at Fenton, Chelsea won 11-4. Craig Ferry pitched all seven innings, struck out eight and gave up nine hits.

"We played a solid game defensively but a key hit here and there would have allowed us to score earlier.

Chelsea was behind 3-2 after five innings. However, a six-run outburst in the sixth put the game away. They scored three more times in the seventh.

Two wild pitches led to the Bulldogs' two runs in the second.

In the sixth, singles by Adam Taylor, Ben Hurst, and Jeremy Stephens and a double by Ferry, combined with two wild pitches, a walk, and an error accounted for the six runs.

Doubles by Taylor and Hurst, a single by Tom White and a double steal led to three runs.

For the game, Stephens and Taylor each had a pair of hits, and Hurst was 3-4.

In the second game, Chelsea was beaten soundly, 15-4.

Fenton scored in five of six at-bats as pitchers Taylor, Hurst, and Castleberry gave up 10 walks.

Chelsea scored single runs in the fourth and sixth innings, and two runs in the seventh.

Hurst was 2-2 at the plate, including a double.

"We stole 20 bases in the two games," Ticknor said.

"We are quick so we are always a threat to score after we get on. Our hitting is improving. The team has potential."

Summer Baseball, Softball Registration Now Underway

Children in grades K-8 can register for summer baseball/softball until May 5.

The season will begin the week of June 12. Most leagues play two nights per week. Early games start at 5:15 and late games start at 6:30.

Information is in the spring Community Education Department brochure. Fliers have been sent home with all children in grades K-5. Students in grades 6-8 may pick up forms at Beach Middle school.

Due to scheduling difficulties, the department cannot accept requests for a particular coach or team.

Registration received after May 5 will be considered only if there is space available. A late fee will be assessed.

For more information contact the recreation office at 475-9830.

Ten Young Chelsea Wrestlers To Compete at State Meet

Ten young Chelsea freestyle wrestlers have advanced to the state tournament this Friday in East Kentwood.

Seventeen Chelsea wrestlers competed at the regional meet last Saturday at Portage.

First place wrestlers in the 13-14 age group included Kevin McCalla and Jason Szostak.

Jordan Dyer took second place in the 11-12 age group and Ian Dyer was second in the 13-14 group.

Third place wrestlers included Shaun Dyer in 8-and-under and Dan Alber and Colby Skelton in 13-14.

Finally, fourth place wrestlers included Brent Young in 9-10, and Matt Herbert and Paul Taylor in 13-14.

Hawker Pitching At Wayne State

Former Chelsea softball pitcher Kelly Hawker has a 5-8 record at Wayne State University through the first 24 games of the season.

Hawker had started 11 games and pitched in 14. She had 10 complete games and one save for a 1.75 earned run average. In 80 innings she had given up 58 hits and had struck out 54 batters.

Medical Expense Deductions Vary According to IRS

Divorced, separated, or married parents who have not lived together during the last six months of the calendar year, and have supplied more than half of the child's support together, can deduct the expenses they incurred for their child's medical care, the Internal Revenue Service said.

Previously, only the parent who could claim the child as a dependent was entitled to claim medical expenses.

According to the Internal Revenue Service, the child will be treated as a dependent of both parents for purposes of the medical expense deduction. This deduction creates a tax benefit for the parent who is not entitled to the exemption for the child, since without those medical expenses, the 7.5 percent adjusted gross income limit might not be met.

The deduction does not apply where half of the child's support is treated as being received under a multiple support agreement.

Free IRS Publication 504, "Tax Information for Divorced or Separated Individuals," has more information on this subject and can be obtained by using the order blank in the tax return package or by calling 1-800-424-3876.

Someone Steals Boys' Bats

Two 12-year-old boys told Chelsea police that someone stole their baseball bats and radio from a ball diamond at South school on Sunday, April 16.

The boys reportedly lost four bats and a boom box sometime between 2:30-3 p.m.

SUSAN SMITH JONES

Fitness Speaker Coming Sunday to Methodist Church

Susan Jones, a fitness instructor at UCLA for over 18 years is an internationally known motivational speaker and educator, whose theme is "Want To Live a Christian Wellness Lifestyle?"

Author of a recent book, Choose To Be Healthy, she is in Michigan to do workshops in the Detroit area, and will be featured at the First United Methodist church worship services, 8:30 and 11 a.m., on April 23. She will also offer a workshop for interested persons at 1 p.m. that day.

Her concerns are physical, mental, emotional and spiritual. She addresses topics such as exercise, diet, relaxation, reducing stress, living out a vision, making life a great and wonderful adventure.

She was a presenter at the Crystal Cathedral in California for Dr. Robert H. Shuller last fall, and was well received for her balanced approach.

Lenten Sacrifice Project Continues For Faith in Action

For the second year in a row, a small group of St. Mary's parishioners took it upon themselves to embark upon a Lenten Sacrifice Project by meeting in the home of Cathie and Dick Parker once each week in Lent to discuss a letter from the Bishop's Meetings in order to enlighten each other and themselves. Part of their sacrifice consisted of giving up one night each week, hurrying home from work, rushing dinner and finding time during the week to prepare for next week's discussion.

Also for the second time, they collected food and donated money for the building fund of Faith in Action to prove that even a small group can make a difference by making a beginning.

The facilitator of the group was Cathie Parker, the members were Dick Parker, Don and Nancy Ward, Mike and Joyce Power, Bill and Bonnie Adams, and although Mike Power and Bill Adams were not present at the meeting, they did without the companionship of their spouses and in Bill's case, babysat with daughter, Jennifer, so Bonnie could attend. This whole group will continue as last year, to meet at each other's house each month during the summer on a social basis and to further continue the friendship they formed.

The number of older people will increase during the next decade, while the pool of potential younger workers will actually decrease, according to a U.S. Labor Department task force report on older workers. The number of individuals in the 45 to 54 age bracket will increase from 23 percent in 1986 to 37 percent in the year 2000. At the same time, the number of individuals between the ages of 25 and 34 will drop from 43 percent to 38 percent.

THEIR MUSIC: alive and warm, with an emphasis on vocal arrangements.

THE MESSAGE: the call of the Spirit to worship.

THE MINISTRY: leading in worship, encouragement, renewal. PRAISE SONG has dedicated itself to drawing people from various walks of life and different denominations together to celebrate the glorious praises of our King. The group is comprised of former students from Elm Bible Institute and others given to full-time ministry. They have come together from various religious and social backgrounds and have united their hearts to proclaim the glories of God throughout the land in a variety of churches. More than a concert, the goal of the group will be to draw God's people into a dynamic expression of praise and worship and to respond to the voice of the Spirit expressed through prophetic word and song. Come praying and expecting to meet with God!

PRAISE SONG will be singing music from their latest recording, "Theme of My Praise," together with other Christian songs and choruses.

Admission is free and the public is cordially invited.

Lumber Co. Truck Used in Theft

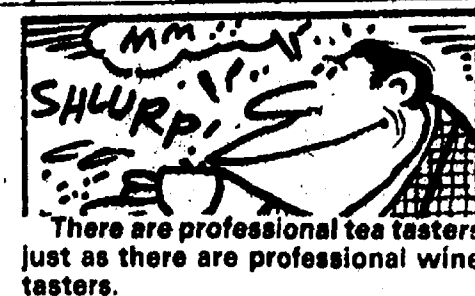

Someone used a Chelsea Lumber Co. truck to steal more than $7,000 worth of windows, doors, cabinets and other building materials from the store early Tuesday morning, March 28.

According to the Washtenaw County Sheriff's Department, someone used a bolt cutter to gain access to a storage barn where the truck was stored sometime between midnight and 8 a.m. The keys were in the truck.

Several other buildings were also broken into, from which materials were taken.

Detroit police found the vehicle abandoned, with the keys still in it, in a residential neighborhood at 7:40 p.m.

By the end of the century, the median age of the labor force will increase from about 36 to 39, according to a U.S. Labor Department task force report on older workers. Between now and the year 2000, the number of workers over age 55 will slowly increase, while the number between the ages of 16 and 24 will be almost one million less than in 1986, according to the task force report.

Seniors Prom Slated May 6

Now that spring is here, the time has come again for the annual Seniors Prom.

Seniors Prom is sponsored by the Lions and Lioness Clubs of Chelsea and it provides a pleasant evening of music, dancing, and refreshments for all area residents 55 and over.

Melodies from 40's, 50's, and 60's will fill Beach Middle school from 8 p.m. until 11 p.m., Saturday, May 6. The band this year will be the "Couriers," with Al Townsend. The music is co-sponsored by Ann Arbor Federation of Musicians, Local 625.

Corsages will be given to the ladies, and pictures will be taken of all who attend. Refreshments will be hors d'oeuvres, punch, cake and coffee. Admission is $1 per person, and no reservations are necessary.

For further information, call Russ Severn, 475-8041, or talk to any member of the Lions Club.

Last Bits of Interstates Will Be Completed in '89

Work on the last section of Michigan's Interstate freeway system will begin this year, highlighting a 1989 program to improve 550 miles of state highways.

State transportation director James P. Pitz said the Michigan Department of Transportation's 10-year program to improve 4,800 miles of the 9,550-mile state highway system by 1994 is on schedule. By the end of this year, midway through the program, work will have been completed or started on nearly 2,500 miles of the total system, he said.

"We're doing a good job on preservation," he said, "but we're not keeping up with the obvious need to upgrade the system to accommodate the growth in traffic and economic development all across the state."

Traffic volumes on Michigan's roadways have increased 29 percent just since 1980, going from 61.5 billion in 1980 to 78.7 billion in 1988. In the same period, Michigan's 117,000-mile highway, road and street network has increased by less than 700 miles—about six-tenths of one percent. Most of the growth is in residential streets.

Work will start this spring on a 14-mile section of I-69 Freeway between Lansing and Charlotte, the final segment of Michigan's 1,177-mile Interstate freeway system started in 1956. It is scheduled for completion late in 1991.

"Michigan's Interstate system is 97 percent complete, with only 32 miles still to go," Pitz said. "We will open the last segment of I-696 (Walter Reuther Freeway) in Oakland county this year and the final sections of I-69 east and west of Lansing in 1990 and 1991."

Thanks in part to a one-time federal grant of $63 million for completion of I-69, state highway contracts will total an estimated $370 million. The program, which will include work on more than 120 bridges, is about the average for the last few years.

The department also will take bids on about $100 million in county road and city street projects eligible for federal aid, for a total program of $470 million.

The work will support more than 11,000 jobs on the construction sites and in supplier business and industry. Other projects started earlier and still under construction total more than $250 million.

Besides work on new Interstates, highlights of the 1989 construction program include:

Freeway Rehabilitation —More than 70 percent of I-96 from Muskegon east to I-696 at Novi will have been improved in the last six years when work is completed on 11 miles scheduled for work this year.

Work is scheduled this year on 33 miles of I-94, Michigan's oldest freeway. More than 80 percent of the freeway from the Indiana border east

We don't care if you paint your hair blue, rip the sleeves off your shirt or pierce your ear.

But don't smoke just to be like your friends. Or be different from your friends. Or to be anything at all. Because with everything we know about cigarettes today, there's only one thing you'll be if you start smoking now. And that's sorry.

Sorry you can't get up in the morning without coughing your lungs out. Sorry you can't climb a single flight of stairs without getting winded. Sorry that every time you light one up, your risk of heart disease goes up.

If you're already a smoker, take some time to stop and think it all the way through. Right now, it's your decision in the long run, it's your life.

McAuley Spring Tune-Up Slated Saturday, May 20

The fifth annual McAuley Spring Tune-Up Run, Walk, Fitness and Children's Expo is set for Saturday, May 20, at the Reichert Health Building on the campus of Catherine McAuley Health Center in Ann Arbor.

The 8-kilometer run and 1.5 mile fun walk will begin at 9 a.m. Wheelchair participants are encouraged to enter the run or walk.

The Fitness and Children's Expo will run 7:30-11 a.m. For adults there will be information on fitness plus free cholesterol testing, blood pressure screening, body fat composition analysis and nutrition displays. The Children's Expo will include fun health tests, nutritious snacks, free health certificates, giveaways and a special guest appearance by Ronald McDonald.

Again this year, the tune-up has been scheduled for one week before the popular Dexter-Ann Arbor Run to give runners a chance to tune up for the longer distances. Aid stations will be provided along the course with accurate splits every mile. Results will be computer tabulated.

Trophies will be awarded to the first over-all female and male finishers in the 8-kilometer run, the first female and male finisher in each division, the first CMHC female and male employees and the first CMHC affiliated physician. Medals will be presented to the second- and third-place finishers in each division.

The entry fee of $10 for adults ($5 for children under 14 and senior citizens 60 and over) for both runners and walkers includes a McAuley Spring Tune-Up T-shirt. After May 12, there will be an additional $2 late entry fee.

Registration forms must be postmarked by Friday, May 12. Late registration will be held from 3-8 p.m. Friday, May 19 in the Reichert Health Building. There will be no race day entry.

Packet pick-up is Friday, May 19 from 3-8 p.m. and Saturday, May 20 from 7-8 a.m.

One of the major reasons for the success of the Tune-Up in previous years has been the dedication and support of the many volunteers who assisted. This year, CMHC needs volunteers to help with late registration, hand out T-shirts and race information, give out water at the water stations, assist at the finish line and serve refreshments. All volunteers who work for at least two hours will receive a free Tune-Up T-shirt.

For entry forms or for further information, call (313) 572-4000. Parking is free. Refreshments will be available at the finish line for runners and walkers.

LAURA GODERIS, daughter of Barbara and Louis Goderis, 3250 McKinley Heights, was inducted into Beta Gamma Sigma business honor society at Eastern Michigan University on Friday, April 7. Goderis, a 1986 Chelsea High school graduate, was one of 20 EMU seniors to be inducted into the society. To be eligible, a senior must rank in the upper 10 percent of his/her class. Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor,

I am so tired of picking up the newspaper and reading about robberies, rapes, etc., so when I came across this young man I thought the story should be told.

Michigan may have Steve, the Coach of Champions, but Chelsea has "My friend Steve, the fireman."

My four year-old grandson, Michael, has been fascinated with fire trucks as long as I can remember. Every day on leaving the house for pre-school, he asks if the trucks will be out. On our return from school this one day there sat two fire trucks. Mom stopped so he could get a closer look.

Out of the fire department comes Steve. He bent down, introduced himself to Michael, and asked if he'd like a tour of the trucks. He spent one-half hour going over every detail with Michael.

Mom and Grandma stood by watching with tears in our eyes, as we saw the delight in this little boy's eyes, as he took in everything.

I often worried about my grandchildren growing up in this world with drugs, etc. Who did they have to look up to? But knowing there are men like Steve out there for our young ones, made my worries a lot easier.

May God grant Michael has more Steves in his life, as he grows to manhood. My prayers will be answered, because, I know he will be guided in the right direction.

My heartfelt thanks to "My friend Steve, the fireman," as Michael calls him.

Grandma Marie.

Dear Editor,

Several weeks ago I presented a program on Native Americans to Mrs. Stevens' fifth grade class at South school. Some of the information which was submitted to you and which accompanied the photos appearing in last week's Standard was incorrect.

The artifacts which I used during the demonstration are not part of a personal collection. These artifacts originally belonged to the Burg family and have since been donated to Waterloo Nature Center (Eddy Geology Center), with the specific intention that they be used for educational purposes in the surrounding community.

The Native American program is just one of many programs presented to school children by the staff of the Waterloo Natural History Association.

DENTAL IMPLANTS: AN ALTERNATIVE METHOD OF REPLACING MISSING TEETH

One of the fastest growing areas of dentistry today involves the use of implants. Dental implants have been used for several years with varying rates of success. Although several types of implants are available the two most popular types with the highest rates of success are the subperiosteal implant and the endosseous implant.

The subperiosteal implant is designed to be used in areas where there is very minimal jawbone to work with. This implant consists of a metal framework which is placed directly onto the jawbone with posts that project into the mouth through the gum tissues. These posts can then be used as anchors for various types of dental work.

The fastest growing area of dental implants, though, involves implants which are placed directly into the jawbone. These "endosseous" implants are fabricated and placed in such a way as to allow the bone cells of the jaw to heal directly against the implant. This unique feature results in an unusually stable implant which can be utilized several ways by the restoring dentist.

Implants provide a variety of functions. They can be used to replace one or more missing teeth instead of conventional bridgework. In cases where before it was impossible to place a fixed bridge and the patient has had to wear a removable partial denture, implants can be used as anchors for a regular fixed bridge—one which does not need to be constantly removed and cleaned. Implants can be used to stabilize full upper or lower dentures—which have become loose because of shrinkage of the jawbone.

Not everybody is a good candidate for dental implants and most dental insurance plans do not provide coverage for the implants themselves although often they will pay for the restoration which is anchored to the implant. If you think you might be a candidate for dental implants ask your family dentist or call us for a free consultation appointment. It may make a dramatic improvement in the quality of your life!

It's Pothole Season at $17 per Repair

How much does it cost to fill a pothole? About $7 for a small pothole patch. About $17 for an average pothole.

Michigan's first major thaw revealed numerous potholes, cracks and disintegrating pavements and the Michigan Department of Transportation (MDOT) is working constantly to patch and repair highways as problems appear. So are the 83 county road commissions and hundreds of municipalities.

MDOT estimates it will use at least 18,000 tons of patching materials during the first six months of 1989 to patch holes on the 9,550 miles of state highways. The average pothole requires 30 pounds of filler.

Because potholes and cracks are primarily caused by moisture under and on the pavement, coupled with Michigan's freeze and thaw cycles, the best way to reduce the number is to ensure that roads are well sealed and have good drainage systems. That helps keep water out of the sub-base beneath the pavement.

In fiscal year 1987-88, the department let out contracts totaling $284 million for improvements and new highway construction on more than 470 miles of state highways. During the same period, it spent $10.2 million for routine surface maintenance on the state highway system.

MDOT takes preventive measures to protect its highways.

One is a special crack-sealing program using a "hot-pour" liquid material to seal cracks on highway surfaces. Department maintenance engineers estimate the material, made of 75 percent rubber and 25 percent asphalt, will last eight to 10 years.

The department also imposes weight restrictions on certain highways during the spring break-up period when pavement is highly vulnerable. These are imposed on trucks when the ground begins to thaw.

Two Chelsea Churches Objects Of Breaking and Entering

Two Chelsea churches were broken into on Sunday, April 9 and the incidents may be related.

According to Chelsea police reports, someone used a pry bar to gain access to Immanuel Bible church, 145 E. Summit St., sometime late Sunday or early Monday.

Whoever broke in opened all the doors, drawers, and cabinets, and broke into a metal storage cabinet.

However, nothing appeared to be missing.

Also on the same day someone broke into the First Congregational church on W. Middle St. Again, a prying tool such as a large screwdriver, was used to gain access. About $25 in bills and change was taken. Left behind were typewriters and a computer.

How Long Have You Been Suffering With The Same Painful Health Problem?

According to a recent booklet carried in Reader's Digest, Chiropractic has been successful in many cases where other health-care methods have failed.

If you have a health problem, isn't it worthwhile to get a second opinion—to determine if you can be helped without drugs or surgery? Many illnesses are structural in nature, or so complex that they may not respond to traditional medical methods. In addition, many people find that they have adverse side-effects from medication.

Millions of Americans depend on their chiropractor as their family doctor. They utilize their chiropractor for treatment of a wide variety of health problems.

Soil, Water, Stewardship Week Slated Nation-Wide

Emphasizing everyone's role in protecting soil and water resources for future generations, the Washtenaw County Soil Conservation District is encouraging local churches to join the nation-wide observance of Soil and Water Stewardship Week, April 30-May 7.

The local district, which works throughout the year on soil and water conservation measures, is providing literature to county churches that highlights man's responsibility to be active stewards of our nation's soil and water resources.

William Fishbeck, chairman of the Washtenaw County SCD, said that although farmers know that good conservation practices help increase yields and improve their profit potential, they also know the importance of passing on well-cared-for natural resources for future food producers. "We could give our children all the money in the world, but it would do them little good unless we also give them a productive soil on which to live," said Fishbeck.

Since 1955, the National Association of Conservation Districts has sponsored Soil and Water Stewardship Week, in co-operation with nearly 3,000 local conservation districts nationwide, as one way to emphasize the importance of good stewardship of basic soil and water resources.

A limited supply of church bulletin inserts and reference booklets for clergymen, especially designed to convey the 1989 theme, "Renewing the Living Earth," are being distributed by the Washtenaw County Soil Conservation District and may be obtained by contacting the district office at 6101 Jackson Rd., Ann Arbor. Telephone: (313) 761-6721.

Costuming Is Major Problem for 'Singin' in the Rain Production

What do Marie Antoinette, Busby Berkeley girls, and flappers have in common? Singin' in the Rain.

This play, which will be presented by the Chelsea Area Players for two week-ends in July, will feature costumes from each of these periods. Each of these looks has its own distinctive style.

The Marie Antoinette look (known as French provincial) includes long dresses full of ruffles and lace, with extensions on the hips of the skirts that could extend as far as a foot or two. You never had to worry about big hips or cellulite in those days!

The Busby Berkeley look is just the opposite. These costumes are tight fitting, very skimpy and are made to emphasize the feminine form, with only a little of the interest taken away by the elaborate headresses. The flappers are well known for their glitz, sequins, fringe and frills. Looking at someone in a flapper outfit is like looking at a constant motion.

Who designs these costumes? Where do they come from? This is where Norma Graflund, the costume designer for Singin' in the Rain comes into the picture. It is her responsibility to consult with the director, Newell Kring, and design costuming that he will find appropriate. Norma must then take that directive and design patterns, find materials, and locate helpers to sew most of the costumes for this play.

Norma Graflund volunteered to head the costume committee for this summer's production because of her love for sewing, the challenge and the camaraderie. She has been working with costumes in CAP since 1981. Norma started as a committee member who was available to hem, sew up patterns, and sew on buttons. She said there were times when a play was running that an actor popped a button, and she was there with needles and thread in hand.

The camaraderie of the people who are part of the costume committee is one of the things she loves most. When you are in the last week of preparation and working toward dress rehearsal deadline is when you really get to know people, according to Norma.

Each year she took on more responsibility, culminating with co-designing the costumes for both The Music Man the summer before last and Deadwood Dick this winter. For the summer production, she has already researched the period costumes and, with the guidance of Newell Kring, the director for Singin' in the Rain, she will be finalizing the plans and the look they want to achieve.

Both Kring and Norma believe the Busby Berkeley headresses will be the biggest challenge to overcome. They would love to have someone who has experience in making hats to volunteer their expertise and time. If no one volunteers, then these elaborate headpieces will have to be rented from a theatrical supply house.

Rental of costumes is expensive and Norma would much rather make the majority of the costumes, if possible. The budgets for community theater groups are notoriously small, so Norma has the added challenge of trying to costume a play as elaborate as Singin' in the Rain on a limited budget. She said that she can get the actors to buy or provide some of their own costumes, like the shoes, tights, suit coats, shawls, etc. For other costumes or costume accessories, she relies on donations from the community.

Norma indicated that for this play she is especially looking for feathers, boas and Roaring Twenties clothes. If you have any of these items that you would like to donate, she asks you to call her at 475-9646 and she will be glad to arrange for someone to pick them up.

Norma has a lot of work and coordination ahead of her. When asked what she felt was the most important aspect of costuming a play as complex as Singin' in the Rain Norma said that it was having a good crew of volunteer workers on the committee.

She said, "The more I have the easier it is for everyone." Anyone who knows how to use a sewing machine, sew a button, hem, cut a pattern, or who is just willing to help, will be welcome.

She would love to have lots of people sign up for costuming on May 5 at 7 p.m. and May 6 at 1 p.m. at the Chelsea High School auditorium.

These dates are not only for pre-screening auditions for the dance and vocal cast members, but also for costuming and set committees. May 15 and 16 are the final casting days and once casting for Singin' in the Rain has been completed, Norma's job gets into full swing.

Norma would like you to make sure you sign up for the costume committee on May 4-7 or contact Norma at 475-9646.

COSTUMES shown in these two photos were used in Chelsea Area Players productions of "The Music Man." They will be reproduced, along with many others, by the costume committee for the July production of "Singin' in the Rain." Volunteers who can or will help sew, cut patterns, etc., are being sought to work with the committee.

"MURDER AT THE BROKEN SKULL"

By Connie Minor
Cattle baron Dennis "Den" Cartwheel was murdered at the Dexter Knights of Columbus Hall Friday night, April 14—and the approximately 100 witnesses to the event appeared to enjoy themselves thoroughly.

The occasion, entitled "Murder at the Broken Skull," was an audience-involvement mystery play wherein guests were asked to help solve the moonlight murder of the patriarch of the sprawling Broken Skull Ranch on the 1880s frontier. Proceeds from the $50-a-plate dinner theater event, organized jointly by Cousins Heritage Inn and Homicide Host, went to the Dexter Educational Foundation.

Attendees in western costume dined on lamb, chicken, and beef prepared in the excellent Heritage Inn manner while discussing suspects and motives in the death of Cartwheel, ostensibly their host at a grand pre-cattle drive party. Realism came courtesy of K. Dan Reed's charismatic portrayal of Cartwheel, with strong support from Tim La Motte as his preening, ungrateful son Matt, Michael Grant as the handsome and capable Rio St. Dane, foreman of the spread, Vikki Fox as Sophie Gibbs, Cartwheel's spurned former love, Julie Vorus as Grace, his new bride, Carole Ashley as Rosalinda Morado, the Mexican spitfire romantically involved with Matt, and Bill Kotowski as Sandy Bascomb, the mysterious drifter whose place in the structure of the ranch is shrouded in suspicion. Musical scores from a dozen major Hollywood westerns played over the PA system, contributed to the sagebrush mood.

Standouts included La Motte's volatile heir apparent and Ashley's hot-blooded Hispanic, and the rest of the cast fleshed out stock roles with veteran skill, aided by playwright/director Ashley's taut script.

When questionnaires were handed out asking audience members to supply the killer's name, motive, and method, the amateur detectives grilled the actors for additional information and formed huddles to analyze the results.

Winners received copies of Dexter area mystery writer Loren D. Estleman's book "Downriver," autographed by the author, who was also present.

Homicide Host is a Howell-based theatrical company specializing in audience-involvement murder mysteries, headed by Donald and Helen Olmsted. Proceeds from the Dexter event will be used to help sponsor school activities not included in the present curriculum.

27th Year Is Last For Travelog Series

For 27 years now, Chelsea people have attended the Kiwanis Adventure Travelog Series, presented once each month in the Chelsea High School Auditorium.

Saturday, April 22, at 8 p.m., the last of this series will be presented. This final presentation is entitled "Spectacular U.S. Highway 89," and is presented by an experienced travel photographer and speaker.

Many can remember when the spectators for this monthly event would often fill the high school auditorium, but in recent years the crowds have dropped off. Presumably, as more and more varieties of entertainment are developed, less time remains in an individual's schedule. The Travelog is being discontinued due to the decreased demand.

Civic Foundation Studies Mission, Possible Projects

Will Johnson, newly elected president of the Civic Foundation of Chelsea, has challenged the board of directors to re-examine its mission. Several projects have been discussed thus far. In the past, the Civic Foundation has played a somewhat passive role in providing "seed money" or one-time grants to help fund worthwhile community projects.

The foundation's funds are almost exclusively generated from membership donations and the board of directors has had the responsibility of distributing these monies. Outgoing CFC president Ann Feeney offers these thoughts on her term in office:

"Reflecting on the past two years I see them as a time when the Civic Foundation of Chelsea supported efforts by local organizations to enhance the quality of life for area residents. The most recent grant was made to the Faith in Action building program. These funds will be used in the construction of a new home for Faith in Action and for the Chelsea Area Senior Citizens group. This financial support is in the same category as the grant made to the Chelsea United Methodist Home for its major rebuilding effort—not exactly seed money, but funds used to embark on a new era for each organization."

"It is with a great deal of confidence that I turn the gavel over to Willard Johnson, Civic Foundation president for 1989. He is assuming his duties with enthusiasm, full of ideas for utilizing the resources of the Civic Foundation in new ways which will add a new dimension to the positive influence we have had on the quality of life since our founding six years ago."

CFC president Will Johnson sees his role as being the one to ask the questions which will help stimulate the board of directors in reviewing the goals of the foundation. He offers these thoughts:

"The Civic Foundation is completing its sixth year of service to the Chelsea community. There is much to be proud of. The Foundation has provided meaningful support to the Chelsea schools, Faith in Action, our historic railroad depot, Lifeline, and to numerous other worthy community projects. We are blessed with a great membership and energetic board of trustees."

"Every strong and viable organization must constantly re-examine its mission; we must ask ourselves why do we exist, what is the mission of our service, and how effectively are we fulfilling that mission. During the first quarter of 1989, the Civic Foundation board will focus on these questions."

Acting in its traditional role of distributing funds in response to a specific request, the Civic Foundation recently approved a grant of $2,000 towards the purchase of a fire truck for the village of Chelsea. In addition, the board is examining other projects.

Joseph Piasecki, Chelsea superintendent of schools, recently met with the Civic Foundation board to discuss the possibility of utilizing the Foundation to help support the school system without replacing tax-based funding. He noted that the concept of an educational foundation started in California and is growing nationwide. In the Chelsea School District funds will be needed to purchase a computer network for training students.

After careful thought and discussion it was decided by the board members that the Civic Foundation would not be well suited to this function and that it might be better if the school district were to establish its own foundation for such a purpose.

Other projects being considered by the board are the construction of a gazebo or shelter in Pierce Park, and the establishment of a "Chores for Seniors" program. The shelter could be used for various community events including the successful Concerts in the Park summer series. "Chores for Seniors" would be a program to provide assistance to the senior population by co-ordinating a work force to perform household chores.

Many details need to be considered and the Foundation board will have its work cut out for it in examining these and other projects in the coming months.
