High School Principal John Williams Accepts Ingham County Position

Chelsea High School Principal John Williams has accepted a position with the Ingham County Intermediate School District and will leave his position here before the end of the month.

Williams' last day will be Tuesday, Aug. 22. He has been principal at CHS since 1977.

A search has started for an interim principal, according to superintendent Joe Piasecki. The interim principal would take over until a permanent replacement can be named, probably in early November.

Williams will become principal of the Capitol Area Career Center, a vocational education center with 650 students and an operating budget of $5 million.

"It's a tough time of the year for (Williams) to leave, but he has given the district 12 quality years," Piasecki said.

"He's always had an interest in vocational education and we wish him well in his new position."

The interim principal will come from outside the district, Piasecki said. He said there are a number of retired administrators who make a good living substituting in various areas. He said he wants to be able to recommend a candidate by next Monday's school board meeting.

The district has started the process to find a permanent principal. Advertisements have been placed and Piasecki said he has been contacted by several principals in other districts. He said it is not likely that a principal from another school in the district would be moved to the high school.

"We have good situations in our other schools and we don't want to disrupt that," Piasecki said.

Piasecki wants to begin the interview process this month, with the goal of hiring someone by Nov. 1.

"I don't know how many applications we'll generate this time of year, but it is a quality job," Piasecki said.

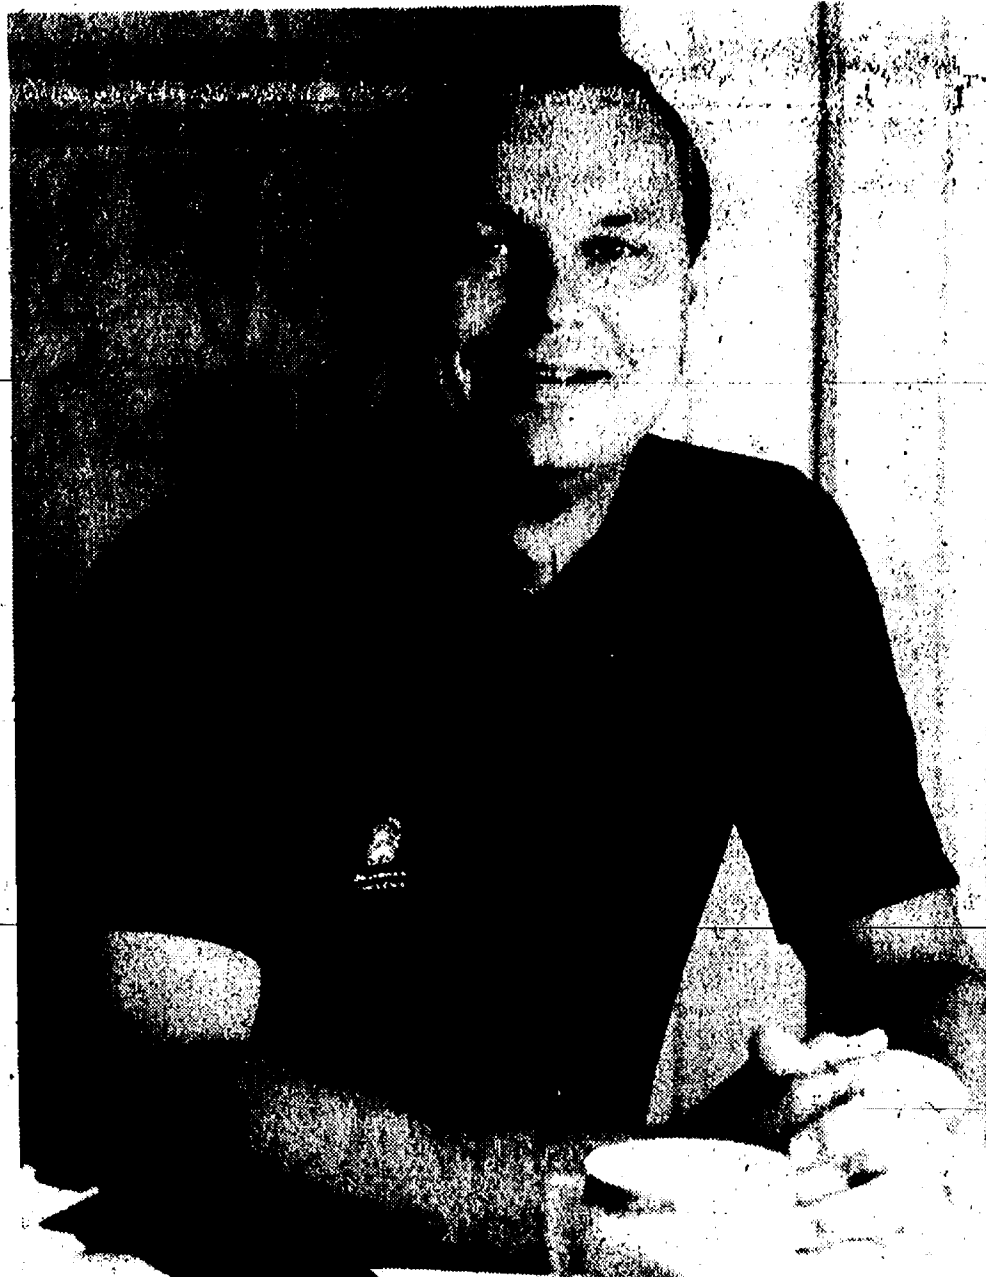

Piasecki wants to set up an interview team that would include a high school student and the parent of a high school student, as well as teachers and administrators.

Williams and his family will continue to live in Chelsea while he makes the 35 minute commute to Mason, where the center is located.

The center offers 14 vocational programs ranging from auto mechanics to histology and is designed to give high school students and adults entry level skills for the job market. In addition, it helps train and re-train employees for local business.

"I came here with the idea of staying three to five years, but the longer I stayed the more I realized there was no point in leaving for another high school principal job," Williams said.

"I've enjoyed working with the students and parents in the community and have appreciated the support of the boards. This is an excellent district and an excellent community."

CHELSEA HIGH SCHOOL PRINCIPAL John Williams has accepted an administrative position with the Ingham County Intermediate School District. A search has started for Williams' replacement.

Two Young Chelsea Men Still Hospitalized With Severe Injuries

Two young Chelsea men remain hospitalized at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital as the result of injuries sustained in an automobile crash on Saturday, July 28.

Robert B. Beard, 18, driver of the car, was still in critical condition with massive head injuries as of press time. A backseat passenger, Joe Eassa, 20, also of Chelsea, had been upgraded to serious condition.

The accident occurred at Grass Lake Rd. and M-52. A front seat passenger, Kacey Cronk, of Ann Arbor, was killed.

None of the occupants of the car was wearing a seat belt.

Crucial School Millage Election Slated Aug. 14 For Operating Funds

On Monday, Aug. 14 the Chelsea Board of Education will seek approval of 2.1 additional operating mills. The millage is crucial for the school district if they wish to continue the existing programs.

"The passage of the millage will ensure that the Chelsea School District has adequate financial resources for the next three years," said School Superintendent Joe Piasecki.

According to Piasecki, the reputation of the Chelsea schools is considered excellent throughout the state because of the comprehensive nature of the programs. "The excellence we have achieved has been because of the support of the community. The community understands that a well rounded program prepares students for the future they will face," Piasecki said.

The Chelsea School District is not alone in its request for more money to operate the schools. Virtually every school district in the surrounding area has requested more millage from their communities because of increased costs. "Asbestos identification, its removal, training of staff, and replacement of insulation has cost the district in excess of $100,000. The Right to Know Law, new salary schedule, rising insurance costs, testing of underground gas tanks for leakage, and the replacement of buses have had an impact on the budget of the district," according to Fred Mills, assistant superintendent.

Mills also indicated that although assessments have increased dramatically in Chelsea, the net increase in the total budget will be approximately $363,162 for the 1989-90 school year. This represents a 3.73% increase in new money for the district. "Local funds will increase for next year, but we expect losses in state and federal revenue. We also used $257,000 in fund equity this past year that won't be available next year," said Mills.

Recognizing the plight of public school districts throughout the State of Michigan, the State Legislature has placed two proposals on the ballot in November. One proposal calls for just an increase in sales tax to help schools, while the second proposal calls for an increase in the sales tax and a reduction in the property tax.

Local school officials are uncertain at this time whether either proposal will help the district. "In the event either State proposal passes and helps the district, the Chelsea Board of Education can reduce the millage rate locally. Only the money necessary to run the schools will be collected," said Piasecki.

Piasecki acknowledges that this past year has been a difficult year for everyone. A change in the leadership of the district, growth in the community, tragedies throughout the year, and increases in property taxes have caused the community a great deal of frustration, fear and pain. "One of the best ways to get the community feeling good again is through the schools. A millage failure will cause even more anxiety in the community. Many of our plans for continuing our fine programs and making improvements will not happen without increased financial support. Most people want the district to continue to improve, but we can't do more with less money," said Piasecki.

All residents are encouraged to vote on Aug. 14. Your vote can make a difference.

Polls will be open at Beach Middle School from 7 a.m. to 8 p.m.

Absentee ballots are available at the Administrative offices from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. Monday through Friday and Saturday, Aug. 12 from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m.

Teen Dance Offered By Chelsea Together

In response to often heard complaints among teen-agers of nothing to do in Chelsea, the Recreation Group of Chelsea Together is holding a Chelsea Teen Dance. The dance will occur at the Wolverine on the corner of Old US-12 and M-52, Sunday, Aug. 13 from 7 to 11 p.m. for the exclusive enjoyment of teens of the Chelsea School District between the ages of 14 and 19.

The entire cost of this first dance, including a band, a DJ, and refreshments will be underwritten by the Wolverine, Frontier Mechanical, Inc., Milliken Interiors, Inc., and Chelsea Plumbing and Heating. In addition to these Chelsea businesses, the dance is also sponsored by the Chelsea Recreation Council, the Chelsea School District, Washtenaw Community College Western Regional Office and Chelsea Together.

This dance is the first of a series of responses of the Chelsea community to concerns voiced by many teens during the initial meetings of Chelsea Together earlier this summer.

The Recreation Group, composed of both adults and teens, is already hard at work to make sure that this dance is only the first of many to be scheduled on a regular basis. The long-term goal of the Recreation Group is the establishment of a permanent governing board of Chelsea teens charged with planning and directing a wide variety of activities for the area teen-agers. This board will be assisted, as necessary, by a parallel board composed of adults committed to working with teen-agers.

Mr. B's Blues Piano Will Highlight Final Concert in the Park

The final installment of the 1989 Concert in the Park series this Thursday evening in Pierce Park promises to be one of the most unusual events in the three-year history of the series.

The headline act is boogie and blues piano player Mark Lincoln Braun, otherwise known as Mr. B. He'll start playing at 6:30 p.m.

At intermission, local residents who make up the Middle Eastern dance troupe "Sirab" will perform "Folkloric Danse Orientale."

During the concert, special entertainment will be provided for children of all ages by Benny The Clown, of Gregory. Benny will make animal balloons, juggle, and paint faces.

To top it all off, parents from Chelsea-Children's Co-op Pre-school will be supervising an enclosed play area where children may spend any portion of the concert, with or without parents.

Mr. B is a legendary piano player in the Detroit-Ann Arbor area. He plays grand tribute to the blues masters, such as Little Brother Montgomery, Blind John Davis, Roosevelt Sykes, and James Booker and embellishes their rich tradition with a style and voice all his own.

He has played for audiences from coast to coast and has been described by critics as an "electrifying performer." He has recorded four critically-acclaimed albums, three as a soloist and one with jazz greats J.C. Heard, Marcus Belgrave and others.

Mr. B is also an adept storyteller, taking his cues from the bluesmen he has hung out with.

Members of the dance troupe, Sirab, include Karen Mirochna, Judy Blanchard, Marie Tenpenny, Amy Powers, and members-in-training Denise Powers and Cherl North. The troupe was formed in 1982 and has been performing together for six years. Sirab has performed throughout lower Michigan and belongs to the Washtenaw Council for the Arts and is listed in the Directory of Michigan Touring Arts.

Mirochna is Sirab's artistic director and has been performing in the Ann

MR. B will bring his brand of blues and boogie woogie piano to Thursday's Concert in the Park beginning at 6:30 p.m. in Pierce Park.

An apparently mentally distraught Chelsea youth took over the Mobil gas station and convenience store, seized attendant Richard Gaitan as a hostage and held police at bay for 4½ hours before he surrendered. During that time Schrader fired at least 15 rounds from a 12-gauge shotgun, poured about 4,000 gallons of gasoline out of the station's pumps and spilled merchandise all over the floor of the building. Members of a special sheriff's department team talked him into giving up.

Howard Miller's 1912 Model T Ford stalled on S. Main St. during an old car parade. Some hefty yanks on a hand crank got the engine going a couple of times, but it died each time after a few seconds. Problem was that the car was headed up-hill, and the gravity-feed gas wasn't supplying fuel. Once on a level street, the old car ran fine.

Chelsea Glass Co. was under construction with a $150,000 addition to the building underway. The work was expected to be completed in mid-November, according to co-owners Marty and Kathy Kimball.

Bill Signing Halts M.U.C.C. Unclaimed Deposits Petition Drive
Gov. James Blanchard recently signed legislation (HB 4246) which earmarks funds generated from the collection of unclaimed beverage deposits for the Environmental Response Fund, the Clean Michigan Fund and a long-term maintenance trust fund.

The bill signing officially ends the state-wide voter petition drive by Michigan United Conservation Clubs to secure unclaimed bottle and can deposits for environmental cleanup programs.

The bill is a companion piece to another bill the governor signed earlier (HB 4704), which designates 75 percent of all unclaimed deposits on beverages for environmental cleanup funds. The remaining 25 percent goes to retailers to offset the cost of handling bottles.

The new law earmarks all state revenues generated from unclaimed bottle deposits to be equally divided among the three funds—the Environmental Response Fund, the Clean Michigan Fund and the Long-Term Maintenance Trust Fund. It also prohibits any disbursement of unclaimed deposit revenues for 10 years.

"These funds are essential to finance our long-term commitment to preserving and protecting the environmental well-being of Michigan," the governor said. "Through this law, we will be able to guarantee a perpetual source of financing for environmental cleanup."

MUCC executive director Thomas L. Washington also praised the legislation, noting that Michigan is the first state with an "all-encompassing" environmental cleanup program paid entirely from beverage deposits.

"I'm grateful to Governor Blanchard for signing this legislation, and I applaud state legislators for crafting a landmark law that, without a doubt, makes Michigan the envy of the nation," he said.

Suits Says State, U. S. Owe Hospitals $100 Million

Michigan hospitals have filed a federal lawsuit demanding higher reimbursement rates for Medicaid patients which would cost the state and federal governments an additional $100 million in 1989-90.

The suit filed by the Michigan Hospital Association and 12 of its member hospitals asserts state budget policy violates federal law by failing to cover the full costs of Medicaid patient care, a claim state officials dispute.

Spencer Johnson, MHA president, said hospitals now are being reimbursed by the Medicaid program for 79 percent of their costs and that will drop to 75 percent in 1989-90, continuing a trend set in 1983-84. "The losses hospitals face from Medicaid treatment threaten some of our hospitals' very existence," he said.

Noting a $1.3 million annual loss through both Medicaid patients and unreimbursed care, Sandra Bruce, chief executive of the Berrien General Hospital said, "Our ability to serve Medicaid patients is in jeopardy."

Johnson said the lawsuit was filed in U. S. District Court in Lansing because it is clear by the Social Services budget approved Monday by House-Senate conferees that reimbursement rates will continue to erode.

He said since 1984, Medicaid spending has lagged behind the inflation rate by 1 percent, while other state spending has increased 34 percent.

Johnson said he hopes the suit, which does not seek reimbursement for past years, will raise the priority in the state budget for health care.

To fully reimburse hospitals for their costs in 1989-90, MHA officials said it would cost the state $45 million, which would be matched with $55 million in additional federal dollars.

State-wide, Medicaid patients account for about 11-12 percent of total hospital revenue. MHA estimates 70 percent of all hospitals are losing money providing patient care, not only because of the low Medicaid reimbursement but because of increasing free care to persons not covered by health insurance or health care programs.

Social Service Director C. Patrick Babcock denied the state has shored hospitals, saying, "We will assert we clearly meet the mandates of the federal statute."

He said in total, the state reimbursement rate is adequate, with rates exceeding federal standards for capital costs, and the state providing added reimbursement to hospitals with high volumes of Medicaid patients and indigents who cannot pay.

Babcock said the state is still discussing with the federal government administrators whether the inflationary update in 1989-90 is adequate.

He said hospitals are not in financial jeopardy in Michigan because of Medicaid reimbursement rates.

Uncle Lew from Lima Says:

DEAR MISTER EDITOR:

Fer sure, Zeke Grubb lamented Saturday night at the country store, human nature is like cockroaches. You can cuss em, stomp em, plow em under and beat em with a stick, but you know the Good Lord put em here to stay under all conditions. Zeke told the fellers he had saw where members of the U.S. House have worked a wrinkle that puts the raise they didn't git in the shade.

This one ain't new, Zeke said, but it recent come to light because some of the 187 honorables that can use it are starting to, and some that can't are trying to put a stop to it. It's the clause they wrote in their rules that allows House members that were in office before 1980 to take all leftover campaign funds home with em when they leave office.

Zeke said the total campaign cash of all that's eligible for it is more than $60 million, and the war chest of the top 38 averages $627,000 apiece. Since it's easier to git re-elected to Congress than to the Supreme Soviet, Zeke said it ain't likely they'll need to dip into their retirement fund. You got to know, he said, that human nature be giving it to themselves because they can.

Actual, broke in Clem Webster, he had saw where a young representative has proposed what he calls the "Honest Compensation Act." This would cut out the take-home clause at the start of the 103rd Congress in 1993. This would put them 187 members between a rock and a hard place, Clem said. They'd have to retire after one more term or give up the money they've salted away. That idee will fly only as far as it takes to make the take-home clause apply to everybody, was Clem's words.

General, the fellers shared Zeke's worry. Bug Hookum said the best way ever invented to lead us to temptation is to elect us to Government office, and the next best is to git us named to a Government job. The more we are reminded of this, Bug said, the more we don't want to believe it, so we keep feeding the system.

Bug said all he's been reading lately about stealing by different names in high Government places calls to mind the story of the feller that found the snake froze stiff and brought it in by the fire. As soon as the snake thawed he bit the feller. After all I did fer you, the feller ask, how could you do that.

The snake said, well, you knowed I was a snake when you picked me up.

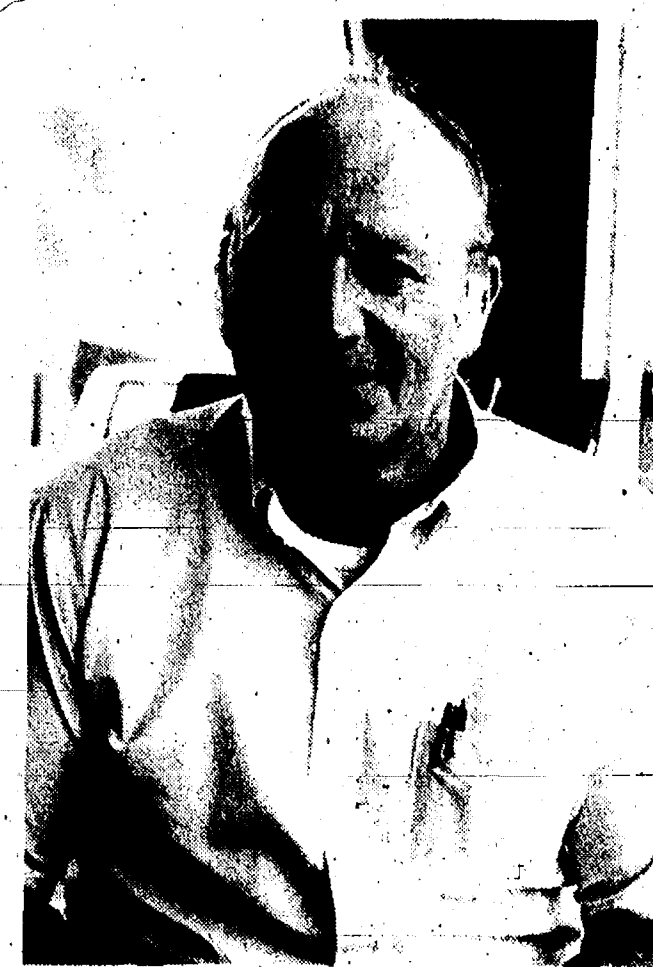

Ed Doolittle was agreed that trust is an endangered species. Time was, Ed said, a preacher was give the benefit of ever doubt, but nowadays a heap of em turn the Lord's business into monkey business.

Ed was reminded of the feller out our way that use to trade mules, but when that died out he took to fixing garden tractors and lawnmowers. Onct, a preacher come by to trade a tractor he said was in perfect shape. The feller give him a good deal and when he went to start the trade-in he found the engine block was busted.

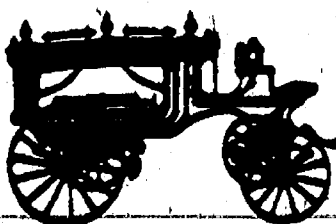

The preacher come back a few weeks later to git his boy's motorbike fixed. The feller figgered the job and told the preacher he wanted cash in advance. The preacher got huffy and said it looked like the feller didn't trust the Lord. "I wouldn't say that," he said, "I ain't never traded tractors with the Lord."

Yours truly,
Uncle Lew.WELCOME

Burg Family Meets For 21st Reunion

On Sunday, Aug. 6, the 21st annual Burg Family Reunion was held at the Don Doll Family Farm on Helm Rd. 97 family members and friends from Michigan, Ohio, and Florida enjoyed a day of swimming, horse-shoes, volleyball, and just plain visiting.

Wilhelmina Burg Lonsway of Adrian, the only surviving member of the senior Burg family, at the age of 88, presided over the group.

A pot-luck dinner was served, followed by the traditional Bocci Ball tournament. This year there were four teams, a total of eight people. In the last toss, Larry Lanning, of Cleveland, O., and David Rowe of Chelsea, pulled it out with outstanding accuracy, due to, we were told, the extreme changes in the weather.

The family plans to meet again next year, on the first Sunday in August.

The Rev. Dr. Jerry Parker performed the ceremony.

Vocalist was Carole Gallas, who sang "You Light Up My Life," and "Hawaiian Wedding Song."

The bride wore a Victoria white lace dress with pearls and a white lace veil with white sequins. She carried a large bouquet of white/blue carnations and white roses.

Maid of honor was Linda Barth of Brighton. She wore a royal blue dress, white shoes, and carried a blue/white carnation bouquet.

The bridesmaids were Deanna Bolanowski, of Chelsea, sister of the bride, and Stacy Norris, of Chelsea, friend of the bride.

The bride's mother wore a pink and white dress with a white lace collar and white rose corsage.

The bridegroom's mother wore a mauve and white dress and a white rose corsage.

Magen Kosiba, cousin of the bride, was an attendant. She wore a floor-length lace dress with blue satin ribbon. Luke Barth was the ringbearer and he wore a white tuxedo with a royal blue cummerbund.

A reception was held at Chelsea UAW Local 1284 Hall. Christine Burg handled the guest book. Kay Kosiba, of Emmette, and Debbie Waite, sister of the bride, cut the cake.

The couple took a one-week honeymoon trip to Florida. They are residing in Alba.

Village Continues Recycling Project

Chelsea Village Council voted last Tuesday to continue participation in the county-wide recycling project, in essence reversing a decision made at the previous council meeting.

In July council voted to opt out of the Recycle Washtenaw County program after the county notified the village that it would no longer pay to have the recycling bin emptied.

However, Tuesday, Aug. 1 council voted to stay in the project provided that the four outlying townships contribute toward the cost of pick-up.

"We can't get rid of the program," said trustee Dennis Hall.

Village president Jerry Satterthwaite agreed, saying that it would be difficult to get people to start recycling again once the village begins its own independent recycling project. The village is studying the possibility of a curbside recycling program.

Under the plan, the village and Sylvan, Dexter, Lyndon, and Lima townships would all contribute equally to the cost of the program. In addition, newspaper would no longer be accepted, which will dramatically cut down the number of trips required each month to empty the bins.

The townships have yet to vote on the plan. However, at a meeting held at the end of July, there was wide support among the township supervisors for the program.

ecutive session to discuss the Dils easement situation.

The village has run a force sewer main through a vacant lot owned by Art and Ruth Dils on N. Main St. However, the value of the easement is a subject of dispute.

Attorneys for the Dils reportedly offered to settle out of court for a certain amount of money plus attorney's fees. The amount of money asked for, however, was apparently not to council's liking because it took no action on the matter.

An appraisal commissioned by the village set the easement value at $2,500.

In another matter, council was also told that the boarded up filling station formerly known as the Pump and Pantry will not be repaired. It was not said what is being planned for the property.

Gallup-Silkworth plans to remove the underground gasoline storage tanks on the site.

Trustee Stephanie Kanten again suggested that the village consider purchasing the property; presumably for a parking lot, calling it "an important piece of property." There was no apparent support for the idea. Satterthwaite said he is opposed to taking the property off the tax rolls.

The village has been trying for two years to obtain a license to operate a new cell but so far has been unsuccessful.

Council also declined to close down the landfill to all but village residents.

Arbor Day Foundation Offers Free Trees With Membership

Ten free Colorado blue spruce trees will be given to each person who joins the National Arbor Day Foundation during August.

The free trees are part of the non-profit Foundation's effort to encourage tree planting throughout America.

"Colorado blue spruces were selected for this campaign because of their many uses in the home landscape," John Rosenow, the Foundation's executive director, said. "They lend beauty to their surroundings with their silver blue-green color and compact conical shape. They can be used as individual ornaments, an energy-saving windbreak, a privacy screen, or as living Christmas trees."

The trees will be shipped postpaid at the right time for planting in September or October with enclosed planting instructions. The six- to 12-inch trees are guaranteed to grow, or they will be replaced free of charge.

To become a member of the Foundation and to receive the free trees, send a $10 membership contribution to Ten Blue Spruces, National Arbor Day Foundation, 100 Arbor Ave., Nebraska City, Neb. 68410, by Aug. 31.

Michigan's Second Largest Revenue Source: Sales Tax

Sales tax revenues play an important role in the funding of schools in Michigan. The sales tax is a single stage tax that is levied on retail sales of tangible goods. The sales tax is paid by the consumers, but is then collected by retailers and distributed to the state.

The general sales tax rate can only be increased by a constitutional amendment. The Sales Tax Act of 1933 established a 3% tax on retail sales of tangible personal property. The sales tax rate remained at 3% until 1960, when a constitutional amendment was adopted to raise the rate to 4%. Eighteen states tax sales at a rate less than 4%, 13 states at a higher rate, and 15 states at a rate of 4%.

In 1946, the Sales Tax Diversion Amendment was passed. This constitutional amendment established a formula for allocating sales tax revenues among local governments, school districts, and the state's General Fund. The majority of Michigan sales tax revenues are for the school aid fund (60%). Revenue Sharing receives 15%, and the Comprehensive Transportation Fund receives 25% of the Automobile-related Sales Tax. The remaining revenues are available for General Fund/General Purpose spending.

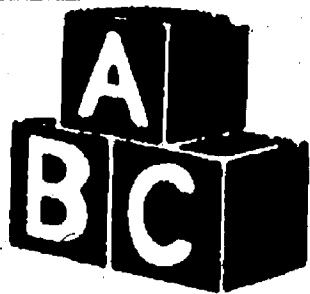

In November, House Joint Resolution "I" will put two separate constitutional amendments on the ballot. Both school finance-related proposals involve increases in the sales tax.

Proposal A would increase the sales tax from 4 cents to 4.5 cents. This would generate an additional $400 million for schools, including an estimated $115 million for specific quality programs. This proposal offers no property tax relief. All of the revenues from the additional 1/2 cent sales tax would be dedicated to the State Account for Education (SAFE) fund.

Proposal B would bump the sales levy to 6 cents, yielding $468 million more each year for public K-12 education.

It would also allow cuts in local school operating millages by an average 37% for homeowners and 22% for businesses. Effective July 1, 1990, the School Aid Fund shall cease to exist, and its revenues and obligations transferred to the newly created SAFE fund. Net lottery revenue and interest earned on net lottery revenue; 60% of the existing 4% sales tax, the 2% additional sales and use tax, and portions of the cigarette tax, the liquor tax and certain taxes levied in lieu of property taxes would be constitutionally dedicated to the SAFE fund.

The first Labor Day was on Tuesday, Sept. 5, 1882, in New York City, according to the U.S. Labor Department. It was organized by the Central Labor Union, which held another labor holiday a year later. In 1884 the first Monday in September was selected as the holiday, and by 1885 the idea of a workers' holiday had spread and Labor Day was celebrated in many of the country's industrial centers.

Questions are often asked by residents about the Chelsea schools that deserve a wide circulation. The Chelsea Standard has agreed to publish this column several times during the year to provide information to the residents of the Chelsea School District.

How Do Our Teacher Salaries Compare to Surrounding Communities?

The salary for teachers in Chelsea is about average in Washtenaw county. During recent negotiations, we took the average of Saline, Dexter and Lincoln to establish the salaries in Chelsea. The 7% wage settlement at the top of the salary schedule is the same settlement reached in Dexter and Saline. Improvements were made at the bottom of the salary schedule to close a several-thousand-dollar gap between our district and surrounding districts. It is also important to remember that our teachers took two freezes during the last contract. The new contract corrected the large differences in salary between our district and others like us.

How Do Our Administrators Rank in Salary?

Unfortunately, not as good as our teachers. Most of the positions in Chelsea rank significantly below the average in the county. The "fat cat" description used in the newspaper recently could not be farther from the truth.

Will the State Issues on the Ballot in November Help the Chelsea Schools?

The impact of the ballot issues on Chelsea is unknown at this time. If the issues do impact our schools in a positive way, we will levy only the millage necessary to run the schools. As more information becomes available, we will share it with you.

Sharon Farmer Reports Another Sheep Kill

Raymond Loucks told deputy Harry Valentine of the Washtenaw County Sheriff's Department he lost three sheep, sometime between 8 a.m. Aug. 3, and approximately the same hour, three days later.

Loucks lives on Sharon Hollow in Manchester township, and said he saw all 36 sheep in his south pasture, Aug. 3, but returned to water and care for the sheep, after being away for three days, and counted only 33.

He noted the flock was scattered, and searched his fields, locating the remains of one black ewe and a white lamb. Another lamb was missing and presumed dead.

Loucks explained to deputy Valentine, only the hind leg of the black ewe was found—west of the central pasture. He thought possibly the animal was dragged into the swamp near the pasture.

One white lamb was found on a nearby hillside with its hind quarters eaten away, and the animal's throat appeared to be crushed with multiple bites.

This is the second incident in which he has lost sheep, within the past year, he told Valentine.

Coyotes or wild dogs are the suspects culprits.

A stolen 1979 Hurst Oldsmobile with three gold mags was reported to the Washtenaw County Sheriff's Department by its Sylvan township owner, at 3:43 p.m. Sunday, Aug. 6.

Deputies Platt and Adams were called to a Joslin Lake Rd. area in Lyndon township, Sunday, Aug. 6, to investigate the discovery by WCSD deputy Leon Case of a burned-out blue 1984 Mercury Cougar, which turned out to be a stolen vehicle—out of Westland.

Case came upon the vehicle while he was horseback riding in the area.

The ignition had been punched out, the tires and wheels were missing, all the windows had been smashed, and the back seat of the automobile was gone, but to finalize the destruction, the vehicle had been torched.

Two white horse heads and a pair of hanging flower baskets were taken by thieves from a home on Lima Center Rd. during the past week-end.

The decorative horse heads were broken from the 4 x 4 posts on which they were mounted.

DONALD A. COLE, Director

"Trifles make up the happiness or the misery of mortal life . . ."

—Alexander Smith

The cumulative effect of many small, seemingly insignificant events has considerable impact on our lives. The small joys and fleeting anxieties, the brief pleasurable moments and the negotiable problems of the day are individually of little consequence, but day after day they form the pattern of life.

Good or bad, big events are the peaks and valleys in the topographic reading of life's pattern, but it is the trifles which bridge the many gaps and give this pattern meaning and continuity.

We serve people of all faiths with one high standard of service with dignity and good taste.

Quilt Show Slated at Waterloo Farm Museum

A Quilt Show is scheduled for Sunday, Aug. 13, at Waterloo Area Farm Museum, 9998 Waterloo-Munith Rd., three miles northwest of the Village of Waterloo. This annual outdoor show and sale will focus on traditional patterns of the Victorian and Turn-of-the-Century Period. Visitors are welcome to browse or make purchases between 1-4 p.m.

Quilting is a very old art-form, as popular in colonial and frontier homes as it is in many homes today. Quilts are not only beautiful and functional, but their creation uses up a great deal of time, something we seem to have too little of, but which ladies and girls of the 19th century had a great deal to spare.

Lydia Maria Child spoke to "those who are not ashamed of economy" in American Frugal Housewife (1830). "Girls have a great many small bits of cloth and large remnants of time, which they don't know what to do with. . . I think it is better for them to make cradle quilts for their dolls or their baby brothers, than to be standing around, wishing they had something to do."

Whole families and their neighbors, women and some men, joined in the quilting which kept them from idleness and saved them money. People convalescing in hospitals and at home, people serving jail sentences, people isolated in their rural homes for long, cold winters, all quilted to avoid the boredom and anxiety of idleness. Rather than an emblem of drudgery, the needle was considered a mark of industriousness, resourcefulness, and creativity.

Waterloo Historical Society will host the show and members will display several of the museum's quilts, which have been donated over the years by friends. Anyone interested in showing their traditional quilts for display or sale should contact Carol Gillespie, 517-522-1596 or Nancy Kauffman, 313-475-3692.

The following Sunday, Aug. 20, Helen Hannevald, of Stockbridge, will demonstrate rug hooking, another art-form that combines leisure time and usefulness into a thing of beauty.

Both Sundays the museum gift shop will feature a variety of made-in-Michigan crafts. Raffle tickets will be available for three lovely prizes: a watercolor of the house by Ben Bower of Chelsea, a corn husk doll by Mary Rush of Dexter, and a lap quilt by Leona Gray, from the Upper peninsula.

From Jackson or Ann Arbor, Waterloo Farm Museum may be reached by exiting at #153 off I-94 and following Clear Lake Rd. to Waterloo Village, where the road joins Waterloo-Munith Rd. at the Mill Pond.

From Lansing or Brighton, follow M-52 south through Stockbridge to Territorial Rd. and turn right. Go to Parks Rd.; continue south to the museum grounds.

The historic farm and Dewey School Museum are memorials to the pioneer farmers of Michigan. They offer a taste of family living in the 19th century.

A modest admission is charged for tours of the 10-room Victorian farmhouse and out-buildings. The farm is open every afternoon, except Mondays, through Aug. 30, from 1-4 p.m.; last tour at 3:30. Dewey School is open Sunday, only, through Aug. 30. Both museums will remain open week-ends only in September, until Pioneer Day, Oct. 8.

DISCOVERY MAY END OBESITY

WASHINGTON—Obesity may be controlled naturally with a new product, discovered by accident, research scientist confirmed recently.

In studies with potential cholesterol-lowering agents, scientists noted an unusual side effect. Patients receiving an ingredient in what is now called FS-1 all lost weight in spite of being instructed not to alter normal eating patterns, while body weight in control groups remained constant.

Scientists say the mechanism behind weight reduction is not clear but suggest it is partially due to a decrease in the intestinal absorption of calorie-rich dietary fats.

The director of research and development at National Dietary Research, an organization committed to the investigation of nutritional solutions to health problems stated "The mechanism by which FS-1 works to decrease body weight is actually more complex and sophisticated process called nutrification. When chewed and swallowed immediately before meals, FS-1 releases nutrients with low calorie content into the body, while high-calorie fats are eliminated providing optimum nutrition from minimum calories."

Studies with FS-1 indicate weight loss results clearly superior to product currently available for treatment of obesity. In a comparative study by NDR, whose research topics have been subjects of articles published in recent medical and nutritional journals, FS-1 was found to be the most effective treatment for obesity and most acceptable to patients.

The discovery comes as welcome news to thousands of dieters. According to a spokesperson at NDR, "FS-1 can be made available to the public immediately, as it is not a drug and contains only natural ingredients recognized as safe."

Pleasant tasting flavor of vanilla, chocolate, or strawberry are available. An instruction sheet for proper use and optimum results is provided with each bottle of 100 tablets. FOOD SOURCE ONE is currently available from select physicians and pharmacies for $24.98. Also available by mail: add $2.00 shipping & handling from Michigan Marketing Systems, Inc. 41630 Garfield-Suite 507, Mt. Clemens, MI 48044.

Sheriff's Deputies Reports List Larcenies, Numerous Crashes

WCC Adopts Drug-Free Policy

A new policy for a drug-free workplace was approved July 25 by the Board of Trustees at Washtenaw Community College. The approval was made at the trustees' regular monthly meeting.

The college developed the policy in compliance with the Drug-Free Workplace Act of 1988.

The policy will include an employee awareness program to educate employees about the damage involved in drug and alcohol abuse, the penalties for drug and alcohol abuse and the availability of an employee assistance program, which allows employees to be referred to an appropriate counselor confidentially.

The Chelsea Standard, Wednesday, August 9, 1989

Larceny from an auto was reported by a Detroit motorist, Klehz Kent Allen, at 10:47 p.m. Tuesday, Aug. 1.

The reportee explained he had parked his 1987 Ford pickup truck on Huron River Dr., west of M-14, to do a little fishing, and returned to find unknown person(s) had smashed the passenger door window of the vehicle, reached in to unlock the door, and removed $1,000 worth of property.

The missing items included a $100 flashlight, a briefcase valued at $300, a $200 tackle box, Sherade hunting knife, and hunting knife with sheath. In addition, a $40 air compressor was reported missing, as were a $100 Shimono rod/reel, a $100 Marine boat battery, and a camouflage rain jacket, estimated value $25.

Deputy J. M. Russell of the Washtenaw County Sheriff's Department was called to investigate a crash on Jackson Rd., 300 ft. west of Wagner Rd., at 5:05 p.m. Thursday, Aug. 3.

Christopher M. Sowards of Wyandotte was driving a vehicle along Jackson Rd. behind an unidentified van.

The van turned right, into the Ram-ppy Chevrolet dealership lot, at the same time Steven George King of Gregory was pulling out of the lot.

Sowards was cited because he "failed to yield," and the van provided a vision obstruction between the King and the Sowards vehicles.

A moped was discovered at 4 p.m. Saturday, July 28, by a passerby along Strawberry Lake Rd., between Leach and Mast Rds.

When the observer noticed the moped was still at the location at 9 p.m., she notified the Washtenaw County Sheriff's Department.

Deputies checked, but there was no record on file matching the vehicle's identification.

It was logged into the WCSD property office.

At 1 p.m. Tuesday, Aug. 1, Louis George Mills of Ann Arbor told deputy R. J. Zakrzewski he attempted to move as far to his right as possible to permit an approaching passenger auto to have more roadway on North Lake Rd., about a mile east of Goodband Rd.

However, North Lake Rd. is somewhat narrow and without a shoulder in that area, the deputy noted in his report, and the Mills vehicle slipped off the road and into a ditch.

Ann Arbor motorists Richard James Schaffer and Cheryl Lynn Petsch were both northbound on Saline-Ann Arbor Rd., at 6:25 p.m. Wednesday, Aug. 2, with the Schaffer vehicle in front, according to a report filed by deputy J. M. Russell.

Deputy Russell explained in his report that Petsch had stopped at the Wagner Rd. intersection, but Schaffer had not.

He was cited for his failure.

His car struck the rear of the Petsch vehicle, and a passenger, Nancy C. Clark, suffered a possible neck injury.

Sgt. Sutton took a missing wallet report filed at 1:20 p.m. Tuesday, Aug. 2, by Gary Thomas Leonard of Lakeland.

Leonard said the wallet contained miscellaneous papers and three credit cards.

A breaking and entering incident which is thought to have occurred on Dexter Town Hall Rd. between the hours of 7:15 a.m. and 8:30 p.m. on Friday, July 28, was reported two days later.

In their report, deputies Marshall and Hartford said a $75 remote control for a VCR was missing from a white Ford van.

Margie Elaine Nash of Pinckney said she was eastbound on North Territorial Rd., approaching the intersection at Dexter Town Hall Rd., when she noticed a vehicle driven by Shelley Denise Hodges of Ann Arbor stopped.

Ms. Nash was unable to stop before her car struck the one driven by Hodges.

Both women suffered minor injuries in the crash, which was investigated shortly after 5 p.m. Wednesday, Aug. 2, by deputies Platt and Adams.

In the incident, a northbound vehicle, driven by Daniel Joseph Mahler, was pushed into Hodges vehicle, after it was hit by Ms. Nash.

Ladies Day Program To Feature Fashion, Health, and Glamour

"Chelsea Times, A.M. Edition" is the theme for the 1989 Ladies Day program at the Chelsea Community Fair Friday, Aug. 25.

A three-segment program is designed to inform and update ladies in the area of fashion, health, and glamour beginning at 9 a.m.

Registration begins at 8 a.m. with complimentary coffee and donuts. During registration entertainment will be provided by the Ann Arbor Chapter of the Sweet Adelines. The Sweet Adelines have been singing together since 1978 with its four-part barbershop harmony. This traditional American folk art comes alive in arrangements of Broadway classics, top 40 hits, old favorites and today's popular songs.

Two lucky ladies will be selected from the audience to have a makeover done throughout the program by "Elite." Susan Grau and Linda Newhouse will change, cut, and style hair fashions on guest models and bring them back later in the program to show the before and after and share hair fashions for the upcoming seasons.

The first speaker will be Maggie Szymke, associate director of nursing at Chelsea Community Hospital. She will be bringing the group up to date in the field of health for women going into the 90's, including some stress management tips. Fashion and accessories will be presented by Jacobson's of Ann Arbor. They will instruct in scarf tying and accessorizing your wardrobe.

The Homemaker of the Year award will be presented during the program. As is traditional there will be more than 125 door prizes donated by generous Dexter-Chelsea area merchants, including the $100 cash prize. Cash donations have been collected to cover expenses of the program.

Ladies must be 18 years or older and present to win.

The first 500 ladies to register, starting at 8 a.m., will receive a goodie bag.

Giving a finishing touch to the program will be the Chelsea Baton Corps, performing their special program they took to Disney World in Florida.

Chelsea Drill Team Wins Grand National, World Championships

Chelsea Drill Team took top honors at AYOP (America's Youth on Parade) at Notre Dame University last week. The 21-member team, marching to "St. Louis Blues March," earned the Grand National and World Championships in drill teams.

Although several teams from the Chelsea Baton Corps have placed in the top 10 in the USA in past years, this is their first team national championship.

Corps director, Rita Wilson-Howard, stated "This is the best present the corps could ever give me as retiring director. Never in my wildest imagination did I think we would win—it was put together as a fun thing for the corps to do! I am ecstatic!"

Chelsea Merchants Softball Team Completes Season With Two Wins

Chelsea Merchants softball team completed their season last Tuesday with a double-header victory over Cliff Keen of Ann Arbor, 13-0 and 9-2.

In other recent action, the team competed in the Great Lakes Regional Tournament, a qualifier for the ASA National Tournament.

In the opener against Boone and Darr, Lisa Unterbrink pitched the entire game and tossed a two-hitter. She also led the offense with three hits.

Nicole Reinhart, Celia Murphy, Kelly Stump, and Sarah Corwin each had two hits.

In the second game, Reinhart started on the mound and went the distance, giving up both runs in the first inning. Murphy led the hitting attack with two hits.

In tournament play, Chelsea was eliminated in two straight games, losing 7-2 to the Genesee Travelers from Fenton, and 1-0 to the Sugar Shack from Wisconsin.

Jenni Smith started the opener. The key inning was the third when the Travelers loaded the bases with one out and Mary Ruhstorfer tripled into left center. Lisa Unterbrink pitched in relief and gave up two more runs.

Chelsea rallied in the fifth, sixth, and seventh innings but could only score two runs.

Chris Kennedy had two hits, Beth Kenney doubled, and Stump and Jenny Pichlik each had run-scoring singles.

In the second game, Smith started again and went the distance, giving up a single run in the fourth inning. A walk and a single produced the run.

The Merchants collected seven hits but the Sugar Shack pitcher scattered them well. Stump and Laura Unterbrink each hit a double, and Kenney and Pichlik each had two hits.

The Merchants finished the season with a 14-18 record, a shot at second place in their league (8-4), and a third place finish in the state tournament.

"This year we faced the best competition any of my teams have ever faced," said coach Charlie Waller.

"Playing at this level was a great deal of fun. Our real problem this year was offense as we were shut out eight times and scored one run another five times. Our pitching was excellent and our defense usually strong. We had the chance to test our skills against the best teams in Michigan as well as other states and Canada."

WHITE SOX of the Chelsea Recreation Department Pony League finished their season with a 7-4 record. In front, from left, are Dave Seitz, Gabe Bernhard, Calvin Poe, Adam Bragg, Randy Hurst, and Kevin LaCroix. STEVE HANNA of Traverse City brought "The Enforcer" to last year's Stockbridge Mud Bog. This vehicle and others like it compete throughout the nation. They are returning to Stockbridge Sunday, Aug. 13 for the fifth annual Mud Bog at Stockbridge High school.

Stockbridge Mud Bog '89 Is Where the Mud Hits the Fan

Sunday, Aug. 13, will mark the fifth annual Stockbridge Mud Bog, sponsored by the Stockbridge Band Boosters and Stockbridge Cheerleaders and hosted by "The Country Mudders 4x4 Club" of Chelsea. Spectators are in for an abundance of thrills and excitement as the high technology mud racing machines combine with superb driving skills that result in some of the fastest mud racing vehicles in the nation. New machines have been built and existing ones have grown in horsepower. Mud Bogging combines the elements of asphalt drag racing and off-road racing into a separate and unique sport which offers the spectators and fans excellent viewing of the race from start to finish. Classes range from "Street Stock" to "Monster Types" with five-foot tall tractor tires that dig through the mud foot-by-foot, inch-by-inch. High horsepower lightweights that actually skip across the top of the mud in 3 to 4 seconds also will be seen. Winning is often determined by 1/2 inch or hundredths of a second. All proceeds from this event contribute to Marching Band Camp, private lessons, music scholarships, and cheerleading camps and competitions. Without the abundance of volunteer help and donations from band members and parents, cheerleaders, their parents and the community, this event would not be the success that it is. Competition begins at 12 noon for 4x4 vehicles with registration being from 9 to 11 a.m. ATV competition begins at 10 a.m. with registration being 9-10 a.m. For more information, call Ron Kaiser at 851-8788 or Gary Wonders at 475-2110.

Nature from Your Backdoor

By Glenn R. Dudderar

In teaching about natural resources and wildlife, I meet people—adults and young people—who fear things associated with natural resources and the outdoors. I just returned from Great Lakes Natural Resources Camp, where, in addition to teaching about natural resources, we involved the 4-Hers in natural resource-based recreation and teaching. In doing so, we encountered lots of fears: fear of the water, fear of heights, fear of snakes, fear of the dark, fear of speaking in front of people.

In helping people deal with their fears, I have noticed that some people are consciously afraid—they fear one of these things and they know it. Some others are not afraid on a conscious level, but when they get into a situation that evokes one of these fears, they experience shortness of breath, rapid heartbeat, narrowing of vision—all the classic fear symptoms—and sometimes even lose consciousness.

Some of these people get angry or impatient with themselves when this happens. Consciously they know there is no reason for this reaction to occur but they can't control it, and they take themselves to task over it. Or they ask why, if they are not afraid of the situation, do they experience these disturbing reactions to it? And what can they do to overcome their fear?

Through years of experience and reading, I've come to believe that there are two ways to tackle these fears. For fears on the conscious level—those things you fear and know you fear—the first step is information and education. Become familiar with whatever is causing this reaction and observe others dealing successfully with it or even enjoying it. When you see others reliving in high places, the water, the dark or snakes, you can begin to dismantle your conscious fear. You may even eventually come to enjoy a situation that you would once have found terrifying.

The second step is to give yourself a chance to overcome your unconscious fear gradually, through safe, protected exposure to whatever you're afraid of.

One of the experiences that I deal with at camp is kids getting to know wildlife, particularly snakes. A lot of people are afraid of snakes all out of proportion to any threat they pose. In Michigan, we have 17 native snakes, and only one, the massasauga rattlesnake, is venomous. Many of the rest are gentle, and all are harmless. Yet more often than not, many people who encounter snakes will go out of their way to kill them, simply because they are snakes. Others are so frightened at the mere sight of a snake that they literally pass out if a snake slithers across their path.

At natural resources camp, we had all kinds of campers, from those who liked snakes and didn't hesitate to handle them to others who didn't want to be in the same room with a snake in an aquarium. By the end of the week, some kids who had started the week absolutely terrified of snakes were no longer consciously afraid of them and had largely overcome their unconscious fear reaction. One little girl had overcome her irrational fear to the extent that she could actually enjoy holding a snake, though she still couldn't bring herself to reach into the aquarium of snakes to get one out.

What happened? The campers received information on the nature and behavior of snakes, and the ones who were reluctant to touch the creatures at first observed the others handling and enjoying them. Repeated touching of the snakes lessened their fear reaction to the point where they could master it. You don't have to go to a special camp to overcome fears. You may not even have to leave your backyard. You may not live near water or a high place or have too many public speaking opportunities there, but your backyard does get dark at night. And no matter where you live in Michigan, if you have a vacant lot nearby, even in downtown Detroit, there is a chance you will encounter a snake someday.

If you would like to learn about snakes to help you overcome your fear or nervous reaction to them, Michigan State University has just published "Michigan Snakes," a full-color book on the 17 snakes native to Michigan. In addition to color photos of each species, it provides information on where they occur, what they eat, how they reproduce, and whether they're shy and gentle or aggressive in temperament. The book will soon be for sale at your local county Cooperative Extension Service office.

As you read this publication and perhaps use it to identify a snake you've just seen, it will help you overcome your conscious fear. Overcoming an unconscious fear reaction will probably require the help of a friend who can set up a non-threatening situation in which you can gradually get acquainted with a harmless snake. If you or a member of your family is afraid of the dark, August would be a good time to begin to conquer that fear. A lunar eclipse Aug. 16 and a fantastic display of meteors that should peak around Aug. 12 make this a good time to get a few friends or family members together, sit outside in lawn chairs at night and watch the heavenly show. If you can get away from city lights, the viewing should be spectacular. (We watched at camp, and we found it's hard to be afraid of the dark with friends all around watching meteors flash across the starry sky.) If you want to learn more about the night sky, contact Abrams Planetarium at MSU in East Lansing at (517) 355-4676.

Even as you're overcoming fear of snakes or fear of the dark, or helping someone else do so, you need to recognize that there are venomous snakes and dangerous situations, persons and things in the dark that need to be avoided. The ability to distinguish between these real dangers and irrational fear is just one more thing you can learn as you observe nature from your backdoor.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor,

I have given this some thought, and after reading some other people's views in the paper, I decided to write our viewpoint.

We have been Chelsea citizens and homeowners for a long time. They say Chelsea millage needs to pass to help our schools! They say people misunderstood the additional 2.1 mills and Headlee Amendment. Well, stop and think people vote and how many don't understand totally what they're voting for—cause people don't make it clear! Then later you hear, "they just didn't understand."

OK—they say we need the money increase, you want people to vote for it just after many people just got an increase on their property taxes. Yes—we know things have gone up in prices, but this town has increased in number too, and that doesn't help! Then you turn around, and the school staff (some) gets raises, it's right above the cuts you will have!

You cut out all sports, the yearbook and more, for Beach-Middle school. OK, everyone talks education is important, WE AGREE, but so are things for the kids to do. Football and basketball have always been the staples in school and now the school won't have that or other things!

We all know when you're short on money, you tighten your belt for awhile, but—what about the kids? You take all sports away that's good for them and they enjoy and leave them with nothing but studies, what are they to do? You will end up creating another problem. Girls have tried out for cheerleading and now can't, because it's cut out, and boys can't play football or basketball, and some have been waiting a long time. Now they have to wait longer!

You have people moving into Chelsea because they say it's a nice town and heard the schools are good. Well, did you stop to think, you're gonna lose people if there's nothing for kids to do? Like cutting the Beach School yearbook, it can't cost what they're charged! What does it cost for girls to cheerlead and boys to play football or basketball, etc.?

Every time something doesn't get passed, things get said and threats get made. We want to support our schools, but how much money do you think the people have?

There must be something that can be worked out, so you won't have to cut everything. People won't stay if there's nothing for their kids, cause parents want their kids in things, and watching their kids. This is a good town and good schools. Let's not let it change too much. Let's all work together, for the town, school and our kids.

Concerned Parents.

Dear Editor,

I'm writing to The Chelsea Standard to tell everyone that I was disappointed about the Chelsea School budget cuts. I'm 13 years old and was picked for the 8th grade cheerleading squad on June 1st, 1989. I was so excited about it, I felt like I was walking on air! I couldn't believe that I made it, because last year I didn't make it. I would have been given the chance of a lifetime!

Then I heard about the budget cuts, and my heart sank. I was really looking forward to September until now. Now I dread it! How could they do this! It seems like they're taking everything away—all of Beach School sports, and many other fun and educational programs. I also feel rotten about the fact that they're also taking the yearbook away. I was on the yearbook staff in sixth and seventh grade, and planned to be on it again in eighth.

The yearbook was one of the things I looked forward to every year. Also, yearbooks are great things to keep for memories! Especially in your last year! All the 8th graders coming to Beach this September wouldn't get a chance to experience all the fun that is, or was, at Beach. We need our sports, yearbook, newspaper, and all the other good things that make learning fun.

That's why we need your help. Vote "YES" on the next millage vote this Aug. 14. We're counting on you to bring it all back.

Shauna Woods.

To the Editor,

A few weeks ago I was having a discussion with my daughter and son about Chelsea. They both reminded me of the reasons we decided to move to Chelsea last year. One of the reasons we moved to Chelsea was because the Chelsea schools offered more opportunities for them than the school district in which they were presently living.

As both children reviewed the cuts that have been made, they were quick to point out that many of the things that made the Chelsea schools special have been cut. They also pointed out that if the millage falls on Aug. 14, the program offered by the Chelsea School District will be less than the school district they left last year.

My children were right! The Chelsea schools have the fine reputation they have because of the program offered to students. Unfortunately, many of these programs have been cut because of a $500,000 deficit.

A few people have asked me why we are in the position. As I reviewed the recent history of the district, I found that in 1983 we had a deficit of $500,000, and in 1986 we had a deficit of $500,000. Once again, in 1989, we are facing the same $500,000 deficit.

As I talk to people, I remind them that the problem really started this past year when we spent $270,000 more than incoming revenue. The board chose to use "fund equity" instead of making drastic cuts or asking for additional millage.

This year it was inevitable that if we wanted to continue the same program, more money would be needed. As you consider your vote for Aug. 14, I strongly urge you to think of the students of the district. For a family that owns a $100,000 home, the cost would be about 30 cents per day.

The most important thing we can do for our children is to educate them. Education means academic classes, athletics, field trips, extra-curricular activities, and everything else we try to do in schools.

I urge you to vote "yes" on Aug. 14. Joe Plasecki Superintendent of Schools.

Dear Editor,

I am writing concerning the millage. I am about to enter the sixth grade and got so disgusted that I decided to write about what I felt about the millage. My opinion is from an "almost-teenager's point-of-view," so that what I think that I feel a lot different and think a lot different than the adults do.

What I want to say is, "What about us kids?" What do you think is racing through the kids' minds in all of this?

I know what's racing through my mind. How can you do this to us? I keep getting excited about entering a new school and having new friends and all of the great activities, but then I really think—what is there to get excited about? No sports for the 6th, 7th, and 8th graders. No upcoming cheerleading, yearbook or newspaper. So what is there to look forward to? I think that the kids should have a say in this.

Not all of this growing town in made up of just adults. There are a lot of fast-growing kids in this town. Cutting out all of their fun is like being a really big bully.

I got to be in the Enrichment TRIAD program and I really enjoyed it. In Triad, a young child takes up an interest and really learns a lot about a certain subject. It's a real blast.

My fifth grade teacher came down from the junior high to teach the fifth grade at North Elementary and I consider(ed) her very special. She was very good. We talked about drugs and alcohol and the awful effects that it has on people. After all of that I know that my friends are never going to do drugs, smoke or anything like that.

I'd like the adults to realize that their millage decision is going to affect the kids. Hopefully later on the kids can have a say in this.

C'mon you guys, it depends on you how our future years are going to be. We need your help. We're in this together. So please, make a difference. Do it for the kids.

Jeannine Mouilleseaux
A soon-to-be-sixth grader.

Dear Editor,

The system for funding education in Michigan has become a dinosaur. The founding fathers of this system did not foresee school busing, audio/visual aids, computers, etc., plus rampant inflation during the seventies and eighties.

Real estate taxes have just about murdered the American dream; it is also forcing many senior citizens and others with fixed incomes out of their homes.

Real estate taxes are the most inequitable way to fund our school system. It is taxing a person's life style, not his wealth, income or his ability to pay. Many people have big, fancy cars and live in shacks; others have mobile homes, boats, airplanes, snowmobiles, etc., for which they are not taxed, except for the annual registration fee. And there are others who live in efficiency apartments or some other modest accommodation, drive compact cars and only buy things when they are on sale. Sure they are paying income taxes, but that is about the only tax they do pay. They are not paying their fair share for the education of our children. That burden is born solely by the home owner.

The only equitable way to fund our schools is through an income tax, not an increase in sales tax (which again is taxing a person's life style) or any other bandaied solution suggested to date, which as we all well know would last for a couple of years and then we would be back to square one again.

An income tax would solve many problems, every Michigan child would be equally funded throughout his or her formal education, irrespective of the school district. The school teachers' salaries would come in line and keep up with other professionals with comparable academic and length of experience backgrounds, which would eliminate most strikes.

Also the millage system for education would become obsolete. Every home owner is sick of millage increase requests accompanied with the threat that the children's education would suffer if the millage failed to pass. (Another form of blackmail.)

Real estate taxes or rates as they are called in other English speaking parts of the world, are for services and services only such as fire and police protection, street-cleaning, repair and lighting, water, sewage, garbage collection, etc. (Philosophically, that is how it should be.)

The U.S.A. is the only country in the world that funds their school systems with real estate taxes, and Michigan is the only state in the Union that is solely dependent on real estate taxes. (plus the lottery?). I question this because by law 50% of the lottery income is to be funneled into the school system. That 50% represents approximately $200 million per year. Are the schools getting this?

I can understand the political reluctance to bring about this tax shift because real estate taxes are the easiest taxes to collect (it borders on extortionism). Whereas, income taxes are more difficult to collect when there so many loopholes, shelters, money laundering and cheating. I also remember when Blanchard brought in the temporary increase in income tax, two of the lawmakers who voted for that bill were recalled by their constituents.

In conclusion, if we are really serious about improving our educational system which is in desperate need as we all know, we must come up with a positive and permanent way of funding that is equitable to all.

An income tax is the only logical solution, and if it were explained in detail, giving all the pros and cons to the people of Michigan through the media, explaining that it is a tax shift, not a tax increase. I am sure it would be well-received.

It would not surprise me if you had heard these arguments before. If so, it is indicative that the feeling along these lines are very strong.

Charles Richard Pavitt

To the Editor,

As a parent of three school-age children here in Chelsea, I am concerned about the need for funding our school programs. However, I am also concerned about the cost of living in my home here in town.

My home was reassessed in 1988 and my taxes increased over $1,000 per year. I have talked to other homeowners who are under the same type of financial burden that the increase has caused. Why should I vote for an increase in millage when they recently increased my taxes by almost 70%?

I can't enjoy the quality education in Chelsea if I can't afford to pay the taxes. I know of homeowners who have had to sell their homes because of this. What has the school district done with the increased tax dollar?

Kenneth Barner.

To the Editor,

There is belated concern in the township about a nearby vicious health hazard. A flooded marsh land exists directly west of the Oak Grove Cemetery on the east side of Chelsea. It has been there for years, but nothing has been done about it.

After considerable inquiry we have learned that drainage of the swamp would be expensive besides being too late for the summer of 1989. An alternative would be spraying the area, as is regularly done in Florida and other mosquito regions.

Mosquitoes are especially bad this year. There is a special type called the Asian Tiger, large, black and white in color, which is especially dangerous because it carries encephalitis or sleeping sickness virus, often fatal to humans. It comes from the South and has already reached Indiana.

This matter has been given prominence on TV this year, yet nothing has been done to protect this community. We understand that a petition would need to be circulated in the community to arouse action.

The most individuals can do at present to fight this dangerous mosquito is to use individual spray on themselves or in their homes.

It is difficult for the undersigned to understand why nothing has been done about this very dangerous health hazard. Perhaps there will need to be several funerals first.

Concerned,
Willie B. Finch.

Students New To Beach May Enroll Early

Beach Middle school's 1989-90 school year will begin for sixth, seventh and eighth-graders on Aug. 28.

Sixth grade students should plan to report directly to the school cafeteria, where they will be introduced to their first-hour teachers who will, in turn, escort them to their classrooms.

Seventh and eighth-grade students will pick up their class schedules and then report to their first-hour classes.

Students should plan to arrive at school between 8:30-8:45 a.m. First-hour classes will begin at 8:50 a.m.

Families new to the Chelsea School District may wish to enroll their Middle School students the week prior to the Aug. 28 school opening. Jean Mann, Beach Middle School counselor, will be available on Aug. 21, 22, from 9 a.m. until 11 a.m., and from 1 p.m. until 3 p.m. to enroll new students.

All new entrants must comply with Michigan law regarding immunizations, and must provide the school with a record verifying that proper vaccines have been obtained.

The Middle School principal will review the Parent/Student Handbook with students on Aug. 29, 30. A copy of the handbook will be sent home with students. Parents are encouraged to review this document to acquaint themselves with policies and operational procedures at Beach school.

Lower Capital Gains Taxes Would Aid Nation's Farmers

Farm Bureau has told U. S. House Speaker Tom Foley that a cut in capital gains taxes would be an economic boost to agriculture.

"Much of the debate about capital gains has centered upon the belief that preferential capital gains treatment is a boon to the wealthy," said Al Almy, director of public affairs for the Michigan Farm Bureau. "However, capital gains treatment for land, livestock, timber and agriculture's depreciable assets is beneficial to farmers, most of whom are far from wealthy."

The capital gains provision has stymied negotiations over a budget reconciliation package. Foley recently announced that any action on capital gains would be delayed until after the August recess.

Almy said an amendment is expected to be introduced that would provide a capital gains exclusion of 30 percent for all capital assets, including land, timber, livestock and depreciable assets. "Farm Bureau will support that amendment," he said.

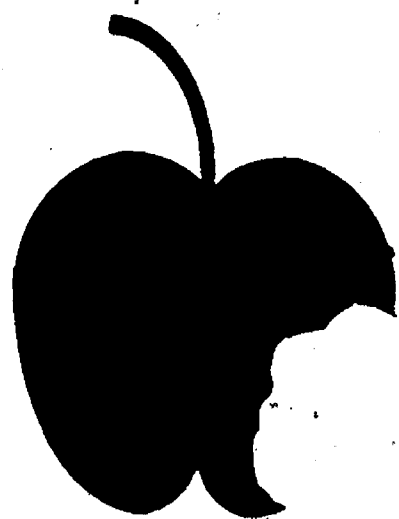

Appropriated Funds 'Not Enough,' But 'Fair' Says Spokesman

The 4.6 percent increase the Michigan Legislature budgeted for Michigan State University's Cooperative Extension Service and Agricultural Experiment Station are a "fair" appropriation, according to Ron Nelson, legislative counsel for the Michigan Farm Bureau.

"The Legislature struggles with a limited amount of money and, of course, everyone wants their fair share," Nelson said. "The Cooperative Extension Service and the Agricultural Experiment Station did not get what they requested, and did not get what was really needed to carry out all their programs, but I do believe they did get a fair share."

The Michigan Farm Bureau had lobbied for adequate budgets for MSU's College of Agriculture and Natural Resources programs as part of its "Land Grant, Don't Take it for Granted" campaign.

Would You Buy An Apple That Was Missing A Bite?

We the undersigned wish to publicly declare our support for the passage of the 2.1 mills increase requested by the Chelsea Public Schools Board of Education, to be voted on Monday, August 14, 1989. We are residents of the Chelsea School District.

We believe the amount of increase in our taxes is more than offset by the value of maintaining the continuity and standard of programs in our schools. We further believe that this will contribute significantly to the quality of life in our community.

ing outdoor atmosphere by the hospital fountain in the main courtyard.

The music is free and there is no registration. Just show up between 11:30 a.m. and 1 p.m. the day of the concert.

All concert goers may purchase a box lunch in the dining room for $2.75, or you may prefer your own a la carte selections. In any event, come out and listen to some relaxing music during your lunchtime! In case of rain, the concert will be held in the dining room.

Chelsea Together Board Is Now 'Steering Committee'

The "Chelsea Together" Board met Wednesday, Aug. 2, at the Washtenaw Community College meeting room on Middle St. It was decided that the name "Board" be changed to "Steering Committee" since this is not a final decision-making body, but more of a guidance body. David Prohaska and Gayle Cordell will be co-chairpersons and Pat Zangara will be the recorder. Blake Thomson and Joe Roberts, finance group.

Joe Roberts, reported that he had contacted the billboard advertising people and he, along with Blake Thomson, will see that a billboard will be put up advertising the "HELP" line initially instituted by the Chelsea Kiwanis Club. The "HELP" line number is 475-0111.

Kim Roberts is working on designing a logo for the "HELP" line and for "Chelsea Together" to be used in all communication.

Conrad Knutsen stated that plans are underway for the Teen Dance which will be held at the Wolverine on Old US-12 (thanks to the gracious support of Joe Merkel), on Sunday, Aug. 13, from 7 p.m. to 11 p.m. Admission, snacks, and softdrinks will be free.

This dance will be for 14- to 19-year-old Chelsea School District students. Hopefully, this will be the start of many dances and activities that will be held in Chelsea for the teens as so many have requested "something to do in Chelsea." The group hopes to have a good turnout and that is up to the teens. The Recreation sub-group of "Chelsea Together" is very busy planning this dance and pursuing the possibility of starting a "Teen Center" right here in Chelsea.

An agenda was discussed for the general meeting of "Chelsea Together" to be held on Wednesday, Aug. 16, at 7 p.m. at Our Savior Lutheran Church Fellowship Hall. If you want to become involved and join a group, or just come and listen, you are more than welcome. The next meeting of the Chelsea

CROP Walk Scheduled For Oct. 8

Chelsea Ministerial Association is sponsoring the second annual Chelsea CROP Walk, to be held on the afternoon of Sunday, Oct. 8. Co-ordinator is the Rev. Sondra Willobee of North Lake United Methodist church.

Last year, more than $5,000 was raised to help hungry people by the walkers and those who sponsored them. This year, the goal is to recruit 200 walkers and raise $7,000. 15% of whatever is raised will stay in Chelsea to be used by Faith in Action, and the rest will be used by Church World Service to alleviate hunger overseas. Church World Service is the disaster relief, development and refugee resettlement division of the National Council of the Churches of Christ in the U.S.A.

Mark your calendars now, to be either a walker or a sponsor. Details of how you can be involved will be published in The Standard and through area churches, or you may contact the Rev. Willobee at North Lake UMC, 475-9348.

"We know full well that a 'food scare' involving imported goods can have an extremely damaging effect on domestic products, too," said Bob Craig, manager of Michigan Farm Bureau's Commodity Activities and Research Department. "We want to work with Congressman Dingell and the appropriate federal agencies in developing improved programs to solve the problem of ineffective inspections of imported foods." Craig said charges by critics that tougher inspection standards would serve as a form of protectionism are unfounded.

"American agriculture would have much to lose in export trade if unjustifiable health regulations were widely used as a non-tariff trade barrier. However, we are protective of the U. S. food market. This means maintaining consumer confidence, to the benefit of both domestic and foreign suppliers. American consumers need to be assured that their food supply is safe regardless of its origin," he said.

Craig also dismissed objections by critics over the costs of an improved inspection service.

"We believe an inspection program based on user fees, labeling of rejected products, and tougher penalties against offenders could be developed at minimal cost," he said.

Cargo Preference

Would Hurt U. S.

Agricultural Exports

Tucked away in a foreign aid authorization bill pending in Congress is a cargo preference provision which farm groups claim will seriously damage agricultural exports. The bill, which has passed the House, requires that 50 percent of all U. S. goods purchased with U. S. Economic Support Funds be transported on U. S. flag vessels.

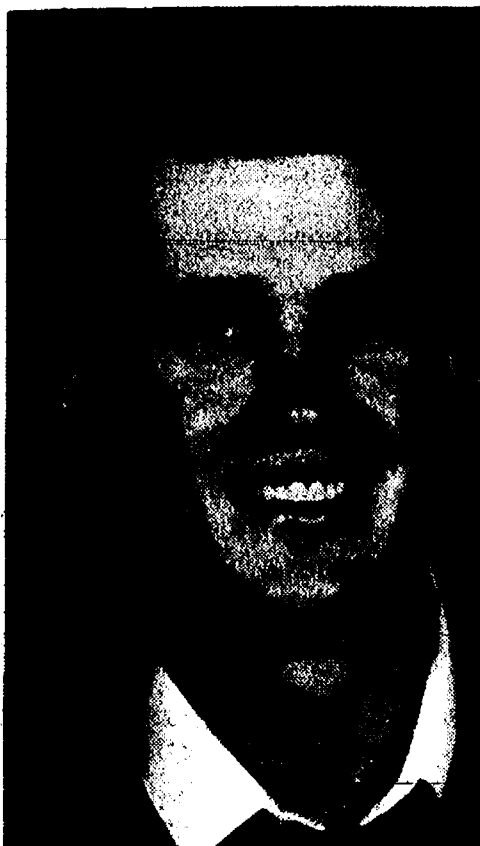

"For the first time ever, this legislation would apply cargo preference laws to commercial exports of U. S. products," said Al Almy, director of public affairs for the Michigan Farm Bureau. "If this legislation passes, one-half of those purchases must move on U. S. flagships even though it costs twice as much to transport the products on U. S. ships." Farm Bureau is part of a farm coalition working to defeat the proposal.

"Such a requirement would make U. S. agricultural exports more costly, lower export volume and provide incentives to foreign countries to purchase ocean-borne products from other suppliers," Almy said. "It expands cargo preference into commercial trade, including U. S. government credit and enhancement programs which traditionally have not been subject to cargo preference."

High Blood Pressure?

Only your doctor can tell. Like more than 10 million other Americans, you could have high blood pressure and not know it until it leads to stroke, heart or kidney failure. It has no special symptoms and often gives no warning. But your doctor can detect high blood pressure (he may call it hypertension) and usually control it. So see your doctor... and follow his orders.
