CHELSEA, MICHIGAN, WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 16, 1989

Conklin Named Interim Principal, School Board Hires 3 Teachers

Chelsea School District hired an interim high school principal and three teachers during Monday night's school board meeting.

Former Beach Middle school principal Al Conklin was hired as a temporary replacement for high school principal John Williams, who has accepted a job in Ingham county.

Conklin, who retired from the Chelsea district, will be principal until the district hires a permanent principal. Superintendent Joe Piasecki said interviews will begin next week and he wants the process to be finished by early November.

"It made a lot of sense to hire someone who knew something about the district," Piasecki said.

"He put in a lot of years here and knows a lot of the teachers."

The board also hired Peter Rosheger as the new orchestra director. He takes the place of Jed Fritzmeier, who recently resigned to take a job in his home in South Dakota.

Rosheger, who has limited teaching experience, studied at the Oberlin Conservatory. He has taught in California.

"He had to go through an elaborate process," Piasecki said.

"Everyone felt he would fit in well here."

The board also approved a contract for Patrice Pedersen as vocal music teacher. She'll take June Warren's place at Chelsea High school. Warren recently moved to the elementary schools to fill the position of Ron Harris, who recently retired.

Pedersen will work with The Contemporaries, The Silhouettes, and the choir and her work will take her to all four schools.

Anna Meersma of Eaton Rapids will be a new sixth grade block teacher at Beach Middle school. She is a beginning teacher.

The board also accepted three resignations.

Williams formally resigned as principal. In addition, South school fifth grade teacher Lois Moore decided to retire after 22 years. And Beach school secretary Carolyn White left her position.

In other board news, the board voted to allow students to be excluded from classes for religious beliefs as is prescribed by law. Classes on AIDS, human sexuality, sexual abuse, and drug education are among those classes.

"We've had a couple of parents complain about things in the curriculum so the board passed a policy to have something in place that spoke to their concerns," Piasecki said.

"The board plans to take another look at it after next school year."

Faith Lutheran School Plans Open House

The public is invited to an open house at Faith Lutheran school on Monday, Aug. 21, from 6 to 7:30 p.m. Faith Lutheran school has a Christ-centered curriculum for kindergarten through eighth grade.

At the open house, visitors can view the school's facilities, meet the teachers, ask any questions you might have, and eat a brownie or two. You are in no way committing yourself or your children by attending.

Faith Lutheran school is located at 9575 North Territorial, just west of Dexter-Pinckney Rd.

Principal Keith Kopczynski hopes to see many of you Monday evening.

Powder Puff Heat Needs More Women

The Cavalcade of Thrills Demolition Derby is looking for a few good women.

As of early this week, next Wednesday's Powder Puff heat needed a few more entries.

Anyone who would like to enter the event can contact Donna Dault at 475-7650, or can call 475-7631.

Voters Approve New School Millage in Special Election

Chelsea School District voters Monday overwhelmingly approved a three-year request for a 2.1 mill property tax hike.

One of the largest turnouts in recent years for a school election, 2,011 (about 40 percent of the registered voters), passed the new millage 1,182 to 829. When the news was announced shortly before 9 p.m. at the board of education meeting, there were hugs, handshakes, and a lot of relief.

The millage will allow the district to avoid cutting $493,500 from the 1989-90 school budget. After voters defeated an override of the Headlee Amendment in June, the board approved a variety of cuts, from buses, to computers, to 7-9 grade athletics and other extra-curricular activities.

District officials admitted they were surprised by the 323 vote margin as they were predicting a closer race. "We're very pleased with the vote," said superintendent Joe Piasecki.

"We were able to mobilize a couple of hundred people to make phone calls and they put forth a good effort. A lot of people worked hard and we are thankful."

Assistant superintendent Fred Mills said it was "a good assumption" that the district would not ask for a Headlee override next year.

"We're confident the new millage will allow us to operate without additional millage," Mills said.

"Of course, we have to wait and see what the impact is of the new state proposals. Personally, I don't think Chelsea will get anything from either proposal."

The board voted 4-3 Monday to back the Oxender-Nye proposal of a two cent increase in sales tax accompanied by property tax relief.

Because of the district's precarious financial status over the summer, a lot of equipment orders and hiring were delayed. The district will now be able to implement the new science curriculum in Chelsea High school. In addition, $75,000 in computers can be purchased.

"We need to evaluate the computer purchase and make sure that what we wanted in March is still what we want now," Mills said.

Three new buses will be ordered as well.

In terms of personnel, Ruth Stielstra will remain the Enrichment Triad Program teacher instead of becoming a classroom teacher. South School Principal Bob Benedict has a kindergarten and fifth grade teacher to hire.

"I finally feel as though last school year is over and we can get on with the new year," Piasecki said.

Saline, which found itself in much the same position as Chelsea after the June elections, will be forced to make cuts after voters Monday rejected a Headlee override by a 2-1 margin.

52nd Community Fair Begins Next Tuesday, Record Crowds Expected

The 1989 Chelsea Community Fair gets underway next Tuesday afternoon when hundreds of children dress themselves in costumes and ride their bikes from the center of town to the fairgrounds, the event known as the Children's Parade. Marching bands and fair queen candidates also participate in the traditional opening event of the fair.

From then until Saturday night, when raucous music of rock 'n' roller Steve Nardella has people dancing in the aisles, and the screaming notes of the pulling contest can be heard half way to North Lake, there's something for virtually anyone to do.

Fair officials are predicting a record crowd of nearly 40,000 people if the weather co-operates. Last year the fair was on a record-setting pace until Saturday, when heavy rains forced the cancellation of the pulling contest, and the midway had to be closed early. Saturday is one of the busiest fair days of the week.

Fair organizers have once again decided not to tinker with a good thing. The 1989 fair will be virtually identical to the first fair of the decade.

Admission prices are also the same. The cost of a standard daily pass is $3. Senior citizens can get in free on Thursday, and Friday features a reduced rate for ladies of $2. A season pass costs $10. Students pay $7 with a high school ID, and senior citizens pay $6. Children under 12 can enter free of charge.

Free fair parking is available off Old Manchester Rd. about one-quarter mile south of Old US-12.

Full meals, prepared by the Chelsea Community Hospital food service staff, will be available at the Fair Service Center dining hall. Typical carnival food, from cotton candy, to elephant ears, to greasy french fries, will be available in many places on the grounds. And the Kiwanis Kitchen will also be parked in its usual spot near the main arena to provide knockwurst sandwiches, drinks, pretzels, popcorn, and other items.

A diaper-changing area is being provided this year in the basement under the fair dining room.

Pugh Shows is again providing the midway games and rides. Thrill-seekers will need to purchase tickets for individual rides. A ride-all-day rate is also available.

All exhibits are open to the public from 10 a.m. to 10 p.m. except during judging in the Red Barn. And there are plenty to see, from the Merchants' displays to vegetables, hobbies, antiques and more.

It's advisable to arrive early for some of the most popular events as viewing areas fill up quickly. Some of those events include the Cavalcade of Thrills Demolition Derby on Tuesday and Wednesday, the Mud Bog on Thursday, Ladies Day and the Fair Queen Program on Friday, and the pulling contests on Saturday.

Tuesday is dedicated to children. The Children's Parade begins at 5:30 p.m. from the Municipal Parking Lot. Children who wish to participate should be in the lot by 5 p.m. Prizes of $5, $3, and $2 will be awarded for first through third places in four age categories.

After the parade, children can participate in a number of events in the main arena, including a tricycle pull, penny hunt, egg toss, three-legged race, and sack races. Winners in each event will be awarded ride tickets.

The Demolition Derby gets underway Tuesday night with three heats, the feature event, and volleyball derby. The action begins at 7:30 p.m.

Other Tuesday events include a horse show, halter and showmanship at 9 a.m., the judging of poultry at 11 a.m., English performance horse show at 1 p.m., judging of rabbits at 6 p.m., and judging of sheep at 7 p.m.

The Demolition Derby also highlights Wednesday's events, beginning at 7:30 p.m., with three heats, a feature, and a Powder Puff heat for women.

Thursday gets started with a horse show for draft horses and mules, and the Antique Tractor Pulling Contest, both at 9 a.m. Judging of cattle starts at 10, the Kiddies Pedal-Power Tractor Pull begins at 5 p.m., the Mud Bog kicks into high gear at 6:30, and the Livestock Auction starts at 7.

Friday begins with Ladies Day, from 9 a.m. to noon, with a lively registration beginning at 8. A Gymkana Horse Show, and Lightweight Tractor Pulling Contest both begin at 9. Tractor Pulling Contest continues at 7 p.m. The 1989 Fair Queen will be chosen beginning at 7:30 p.m. The Livestock Showmanship Sweepstakes starts at 9 p.m.

CHELSEA POLICE CHIEF Lenard McDougall was given a big hug Monday morning by his favorite canine, Safetyup, as the pooch made his first visit to the department. Safetyup will make his public debut at the Chelsea Community Fair next week and will be introducing safety programs in the schools this year.

STATE SEN. LANA POLLACK toured Cassidy Lake Technical School Friday morning to inspect the project to fence the prison. With her is Cassidy Lake official Herb Grenich. The project, according to Grenich, is about 75 percent completed, although the major escape deterrent, concertina wire, had yet to be installed. Pollack also inspected older housing that has recently been torn down, as is shown behind her.

About 1,000 cubic yards of gasoline-soaked soil were removed from in and around a county drain south of the Mobil gas station on S. Main St. which was the scene of a hostage-taking incident on Aug. 5. An estimated 4,000 gallons of gasoline were spilled from the station's pumps during the incident.

County Road Commission engineers were scratching their heads over what to do about a flooding problem on Trinkle Rd. The trouble spot went through a swamp. The road had been closed to through traffic for two weeks. A road commission spokesman said that the problem was long-standing. "Muck soil is 22 feet deep there, and the road keeps sinking down into it. Dumping more gravel onto the road makes matters worse. Its weight causes the road to sink faster. We'll do something, but it may take a while."

A new 100-foot radio antenna tower was erected on the west side of the village fire station. "This tower will give us (the fire department) much improved radio coverage," explained Chelsea fire chief Paul Hankard. "Before we had some dead spots that just couldn't be reached from the old tower."

A 17-year-old Detroit girl pleaded guilty to felonious assault in the stabbing of a star Dexter High school basketball player in March. The charge stemmed from the stabbing of Dexter forward Ronald Mull on the Chelsea High school gymnasium floor after Dexter had upset favored Willow Run High school 67-65, to win the Class B district high school championship. Mull was leaving the floor at the end of the game when the girl slashed his thigh as he passed the bleachers where she was seated. Several stitches were taken, but Mull was not seriously injured.

Water Cleanup Loan Plan To Be Announced

A perpetual program to expand local water treatment facilities, financed by low-interest loans in a revolving fund using state and federal money, was announced recently by state officials. The state funds—$3.12 million the first year—will come from the proceeds of bonds approved last fall by voters, matching $40.5 million in federal funds.

The total state contribution to the revolving fund over a six-year period will be about $73 million, officials said, with the U. S. Environmental Protection Agency providing $365 million.

Treasurer Robert Bowman and Natural Resources Director David Hales, in discussing details of the program, noted the funds will allow local governments to obtain loans at interest rates as low as 2 percent the first year.

Community projects would essentially involve expansion of waste treatment plants where inadequate capacities have led to discharge of raw sewage into rivers and lakes, particularly during heavy rains.

The state funds are included in the Clean Michigan Fund portion of $660 million in environmental cleanup bonds approved last year.

Meanwhile, Deputy State Treasurer Jay Rising said the first batch of bonds from that proposal and the $140 million recreational bond proposal will likely be marketed within a month.

And, Bowman said he hopes Wall Street will, as part of the process, upgrade the state's credit rating for the first time in three years.

Rising said the date of the sale for $70-$100 million in bonds depends in large part on how quickly the Department of Natural Resources determines it needs the money.

Bowman said a rating boost is "at the top of my agenda in the fall" but said the national economy also plays into the decisions by the rating agencies. He said he is not sure how big an impact the slow national economy will have on all state ratings, although many ratings for states, particularly those with budget problems, have dropped.

When Moody's last increased the rating (to A1), it approved of financial management by the state, but said the over-all economy remained a problem. The Standard and Poor's rating is comparable at AA-minus.

Bowman said since the 1986 upgrades, Michigan has become more diversified. Rising said, "They've not had an opportunity to look at us since. We'd like to show them what has happened in the last three years with the economy and our budget restraint."

Rising said he is optimistic that bond market conditions will be favorable, saying rates have recently dropped.

The first project list for use of the money was approved last week by the Legislature in the DNR budget bill for 1989-90.

The initial proceeds will be used for other programs in the Clean Michigan Fund, Great Lakes protection, recreational projects, and hazardous waste cleanup.

Rising said officials have also been working on the sale to structure it in a way that Michigan residents have an opportunity to purchase the bonds. He said that could include such methods as smaller denominations or special funds.

"We want to offer something so anyone can go to their broker or banker and buy bonds," he said.

Gaps Continue To Widen Between Blacks and Whites in Michigan
Economic and social conditions continue to worsen for blacks in Michigan, causing higher death, dropout, and crime rates in the black population compared to whites, Michigan State University's Urban Affairs Program said in a report released recently.

The 85-page report, entitled "The State of Black Michigan: 1988," is the sixth in a series patterned after the National Urban League's "The State of Black America."

In Michigan, the deteriorating economic and social conditions for blacks "exacerbate the already established two-tier system," according to the report.

Among the impacts of that social/economic gap, the report said, are:
—Black students are at least two-and-one-half times more likely than white students to drop out of high school.

—Young blacks are nearly four times more likely than young whites to be unemployed.

—Black children, more often than white children, tend to be victimized by a child welfare system to ensure the equal protection of all children.

—The quality of life continues to decline for black youth and women, and arrest rates in both groups have increased, putting additional pressure on Michigan's already overcrowded criminal justice system.

The report recommended ensuring sufficient appropriations to fund services that highlight prevention and address the special needs of black and other minority children; creating a Department of Children, Youth and Families (Governor Blanchard and many legislators are promoting a semi-autonomous Office of Children, Youth and Family Services instead); implementing Blanchard's proposed preschool education program for all children (the program is to be expanded by 43 percent in 1989-90); equalizing per pupil expenditures for all school districts; and developing special programs on education, job training, teen pregnancy and parenting, and drug education for blacks.

Uncle Lew from Lima Says:

DEAR MISTER EDITOR:

I see by the paper where the frequent buyer card is going to do away with coupons at grocery stores. No more clipping and counting and saving, just put your card in the slot and get a discount on all the brands you ally buy. All that need to be done, the item noted, is for the stores to be hooked to the computer that matches cards with folks and their buying habits.

I mentioned this new discount card at the country store Saturday night, and, like they say, it played to mixed reviews. Ed Doolittle said flat out that the cards would catch on like pumps on toothpaste tubes, which is not at all. Just because a gadget is invented, Ed said, don't mean everybody's got to have one. Fer instant, he ask whatever happened to the seepholes, the telephones where the talkers could see one another.

Clem Webster was agreed with Ed, but for a different reason. He said wimmen like to use the coupons and they ain't ready to switch to another piece of plastic. Furthermore, Clem said, only the biggest store chains will put in the cash registers needed to tie the card to the computer, and he was of a mind that arranging for all the food companies to join the program is a tall order.

Practical speaking, allowed Zeke Grubb, we are at the place where we can do anything we want with computers. They make life easier, like the microwave oven, Zeke said, and we don't have to understand em to benefit from em. The fact Zeke found with the frequent buyer card is that it is still another way to spy on us. Ever time a person uses the card he tells the computer about himself, Zeke said. Pretty soon, he went on, everything ever American does will be stored in a computer, and the hottest market in the country will be buying and selling their records.

The plain fact, Zeke said, some ideas catch on and some don't. The metric system might be better than what we got, he noted, but nobody sees any pressing need to change. He recalled some years back when the automatic bartender was going to knock human bartenders out of work. All the elbow benders had to do was put their cards in the slots and push the buttons. But the one thing the machine couldn't do that a bartender has to do is talk. Since bars had to keep people behind em they kept making the drinks and the machine went the way of the seephole.

Another fact, allowed Bug Hookum, is that folks don't trust machines, especial computers smarter than they are. Bug said his bank sent him a round the clock card that works a box in the parking lot. He said he can't stick his money in a hole in a wall when a face on the other side is smiling at him through the glass, so he knows he'll never ask the box for money.

Personal, I would add lobbyists and programed pistols to the list of useless inventions. I saw where 365 lobbyists were registered with Congress in 1960. The latest count is 23,011. That works out to 43 fer ever member, and any member that's paying any attention to em has lost sight of what he's in Congress fer. Then there's this pistol with a time clock that will only shoot during the time you want it to.

The idea is to keep the gun safe around the house so even if the children find it they can't make it work. But I'm with Bug on this one. It's more aggravation than it's worth. How many folks will go to bed and fergit to wind the gun?

Yours truly,
Uncle Lew.

Naked Man Seen On School Grounds

A 14-year-old girl who was babysitting two children told Chelsea police that she saw a naked man on the grounds of North school on Thursday, Aug. 10.

The girl said she decided to take the two children she was babysitting for a walk at about 1 p.m. When they reached North school she saw the man, with no clothes on, behind an outbuilding. She took the children and ran into the school. She said the man fled on foot toward Veteran's Park.

Other people in the vicinity who were questioned by police did not see the man.

The man was described as 35-45 years old with brown, medium-length curly hair and a mustache.

Hospitals Form Life-Saving Cardiac Emergency Network

The single most important demographic labor market development over the last twenty years has been the increase in women's participation, according to the U.S. Labor Department's Women's Bureau. Tied to this is the significant growth of dual-earner families and single parent families which are predominantly headed by females.

Willard Johnson, president of Chelsea Community Hospital, announced that Chelsea Hospital has joined the Cardiac Emergency Network of the Michigan Heart Institute and Catherine McAuley Health Center. A total of six hospitals will participate in the Network, which will link the life-saving skills of the cardiologists and thoracic surgeons of the Michigan Heart Institute (MHI) and Catherine McAuley Health Center (CMHC), Ann Arbor, with five area community hospital emergency rooms.

In addition to Chelsea Community Hospital, other participating community hospitals are Emma L. Bixby Medical Center, Adrian; Herrick Memorial Health Care Center, Tecumseh; McPherson Hospital, Howell; and Saline Community Hospital, Saline.

St. Joseph Mercy Hospital at Catherine McAuley Health Center, the primary hospital in the network, is one of the leading cardiac centers in Michigan. Bruce Genovese, M.D., chairman of the Michigan Heart Institute, stated that MHI partnership between four physician groups specializing in the cardiac disease, was formed to offer state-of-the-art cardiac care to the region and to expand and share that expertise with community hospitals that either have no existing cardiology program or want to expand their programs.

"This network will provide prompt, co-ordinated emergency care to the cardiac patients of our community," commented Kathy M. Brubaker, senior vice-president, Clinical Services. "Collaborative efforts such as these benefit patient care through the sharing of expertise and technology."

"In addition to saving lives, the network can assure better quality of life to survivors through faster access to the most advanced care for the heart attack victims," Genovese said. "In a heart attack, every minute of untreated symptoms is a minute that can result in irreversible heart damage. Minutes count. That's the basis for this network."

Cardiologist John Fischer, M.D., of the Michigan Heart Institute said, "Heart attack victims have a tendency to deny their symptoms, further delaying treatment. That delay is compounded if the patient bypasses a local community hospital to get to a known cardiology center. With the network, the same expertise can now be found in that local hospital."

Genovese said the network will provide procedures for the use and administration of clot-dissolving drugs such as streptokinase and tPA, which have revolutionized the treatment of heart attacks.

"These drugs stop heart attacks from progressing, not only saving lives, but preventing further damage to the heart, thus vastly improving the quality of life for the survivors," Genovese said. "The network will provide expertise to the hospitals in the use of these drugs, allowing them to provide the same quality of care that is available at a major heart center."

Through the network, community hospital emergency room physicians will also be linked with cardiologists from the MHI on a 24-hour hot line. "The Cardiac Emergency Network promotes continuity of care which is integral to good medical treatment. It allows patients to be cared for by their personal physician while having access to advance treatment. The community hospitals have had an excellent relationship with the specialists of CHMC and the network will further enhance this relationship," states Steven A. Yarows, M.D., chief of medicine, Chelsea Community Hospital.

To further reinforce the life-saving message of the Network, the six participating hospitals and the Michigan Heart Institute will launch a public information campaign titled, "Minutes Count." A complimentary copy of the brochure will be sent to anyone sending a stamped, self-addressed envelope to:

NOTES

DONALD A. COLE, Director

"Good intentions are very mortal and perishable things; like very-mellow and choice fruits, they are difficult to keep."

—Charles Simmons

An American clergyman of the early 19th century, Simmons no doubt saw many good intentions perish prior to fruition. His tolerance permitted him to blame this on the difficulty of the task rather than on irresolution in members of his flock.

The truth is that it is much easier to resolve to do a thing than to actually do it. We all need more backbone in place of "wishbone."

The price of a funeral service is strictly a matter of personal choice. We are always available to discuss prices and other aspects of funerals with you, preferably in advance of need.

Amendment to the Lima Township Zoning Ordinance

AMENDMENT TO THE TOWNSHIP OF LIMA ZONING ORDINANCE, TO PROVIDE FOR AN AUTOMATIC STAY OF PROCEEDINGS AND PERMITS, AFTER DECISION BY THE ZONING BOARD OF APPEALS ON A VARIANCE, APPEAL, OR ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION, TO PROVIDE FOR THE WAIVER FOR THE STAY AND SECURITY TO BE GIVEN BY AN APPLICANT FOR COSTS AND DAMAGES INCIDENT TO LITIGATION ASSERTED BY INTERESTED PARTIES, AND PROVIDE FOR AN EFFECTIVE DATE OF SUCH AMENDMENT.

The Township of Lima Ordains: Section 1. The Lima Township Zoning Ordinance, Ordinance No. 1 J, effective September 7, 1989, and as subsequently amended, is hereby amended by the addition thereto of the following provision to Article 11, Board of Appeals, Section 14:

Subparagraph 1. Automatic Stay of Board Appeals Decision, Time for Appeal to Court, Provision for Security.

The Board of Appeals' decision shall be in the form of a resolution, approved by the Board of Appeals, and filed with the minutes of the Board of Appeals. However, no zoning permit or certificate of occupancy shall issue for twenty-one (21) days after the date of filing. Within said twenty-one (21) days any interested party may file an appeal or complaint with the Washtenaw County Circuit Court, or any other Court of competent jurisdiction. Unless stayed by Order of a Court, an applicant shall be entitled to receive permits and certificates. During said twenty-one (21) day appeal period, the applicant may receive a zoning permit, building permit and/or certificate of occupancy pursuant to the applicant's request, not withstanding the provision of the section, if the applicant submits to the Board of Appeals, the applicant's written agreement and undertaking to indemnify the Board of Appeals, the Township of Lima, its officers, officials and employees from any and all liability for claims, damages, costs including attorney fees and costs of litigation with respect to any litigation threatened or asserted concerning the decision of the Board of Appeals, together with sureties, individual or corporate, and an amount of security to be determined by the Board of Appeals and in a form approved by the Township Attorney. If the applicant requests a waiver of the twenty-one (21) day stay as part of the applicant's appeal to the Board of Appeals, the Board of Appeals in its resolution shall establish the amount of security to be given. Upon the filing of the security established by the Board of Appeals, the requested zoning permit, building permit or certificate of occupancy, as the case may be, shall issue. In no case shall the amount of security be less than FIVE THOUSAND and no/100 DOLLARS ($5,000.00) in the form of cash, irrevocable letter of credit from a commercial bank, or corporate bond. In the event litigation is instituted during the twenty-one (21) day period, the form of security shall provide that the security shall continue until the litigation is determined by final judgement. If litigation is instituted after an amount of security has been determined, the Board of Appeals shall have the right to redetermine and increase the amount of security from time to time, as it believes necessary to protect the interest of the Township of Lima.

Section 2. Said Zoning Ordinance, in every other respect, not inconsistent herewith, is hereby ratified and reaffirmed.

Section 3. The within amendment shall be effective thirty (30) days after adoption and publication as provided by law.

Lyme Disease Brochure Available

A free color brochure on Lyme disease is now available from the Washtenaw County Co-operative Extension Service office in Ann Arbor.

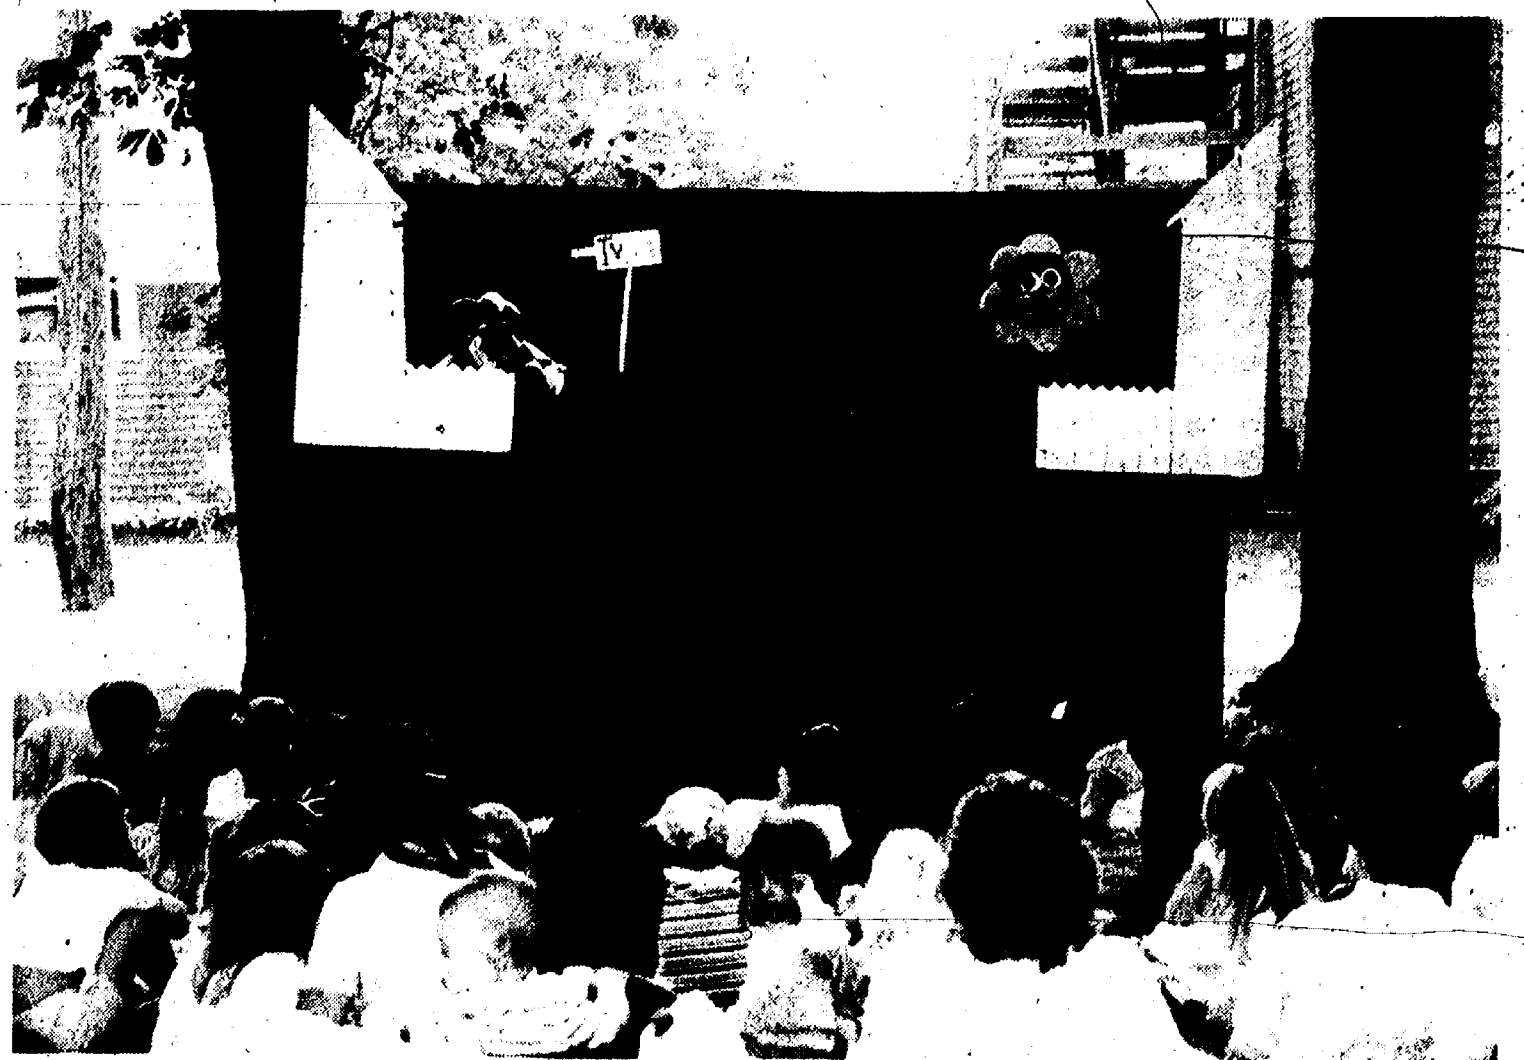

Lyme disease was first recognized in the United States in 1975 in children from Lyme, Conn., however, the bacterium that causes Lyme disease was not identified until 1982. Since then, Lyme disease has been reported with increasing frequency. The majority of cases occur along the east coast from Delaware to Massachusetts, Wisconsin and Minnesota, and California. However, cases have been reported from 43 states, including Michigan.

In Michigan, the first official reported human case of Lyme disease was in 1985. From 1985 through 1987, there were a total of eight cases reported, all from the western upper peninsula.

Beginning in 1988, cases were also reported from 17 counties in mid and lower Michigan, including Washtenaw county. More than 30 cases were identified during 1988 and it is anticipated that the number of cases reported will continue to increase.

The free brochure outlines signs and symptoms of Lyme disease, treatment, and preventive and other related information. Pick up a copy at the Co-operative Extension Service office located in the Service Center at the corner of Washtenaw and Hogback, or call the office at 971-0079, and ask to have the brochure mailed to you. Co-operative Extension Service is a division of the Washtenaw County Human Services Department.

Apples reduce tooth decay, eliminating 96.7 percent of bacteria. In contrast, three minutes with a toothbrush, plus a mouth rinse, only comes to 64.3 percent.

"THE MONSTER THAT ATE YOUR GARDEN" was presented by the Mask Puppet Theater of Ann Arbor at McKune Memorial Library last Wednesday, Aug. 9. The show was for children who participated in the Read-To-Me preschool reading program this summer. Fifty-three of the 96 children in the program attended. The show was sponsored by Ames Department Store.

Chelsea Baton Corps Captivates Audiences in Florida Tour

Chelsea Baton "Show" Corps recently returned from Florida where they performed at Disney World, Sea World, and the Mercado shopping mall.

27 members and their families flew to Orlando in June after nine months of intensive fund-raising, planning and practicing. The corps, under the direction of Rita Wilson-Howard, sang, danced, and twirled into the hearts of tourists from all over the world. Called "Baton on Broadway" the corps performed 15 numbers ranging from comedy to gymnastics, to a cape ballet, to twirl teams and ending with a drill march to "No Business Like Show Business."

The professional talents of Randall and Nancy Faber (musical arrangement), Becky Pearsall (vocal coach), Tee Dee Theofil (dance choreographer) and Susan Schmunk (vocal solo) were utilized. Baton choreography was designed by Christine Dunlap, Laurie Honbaum, and Rita Howard. Props and costumes were by Booster moms: Barbara Sullivan, Darlene Schaffer, Arlene Honbaum.

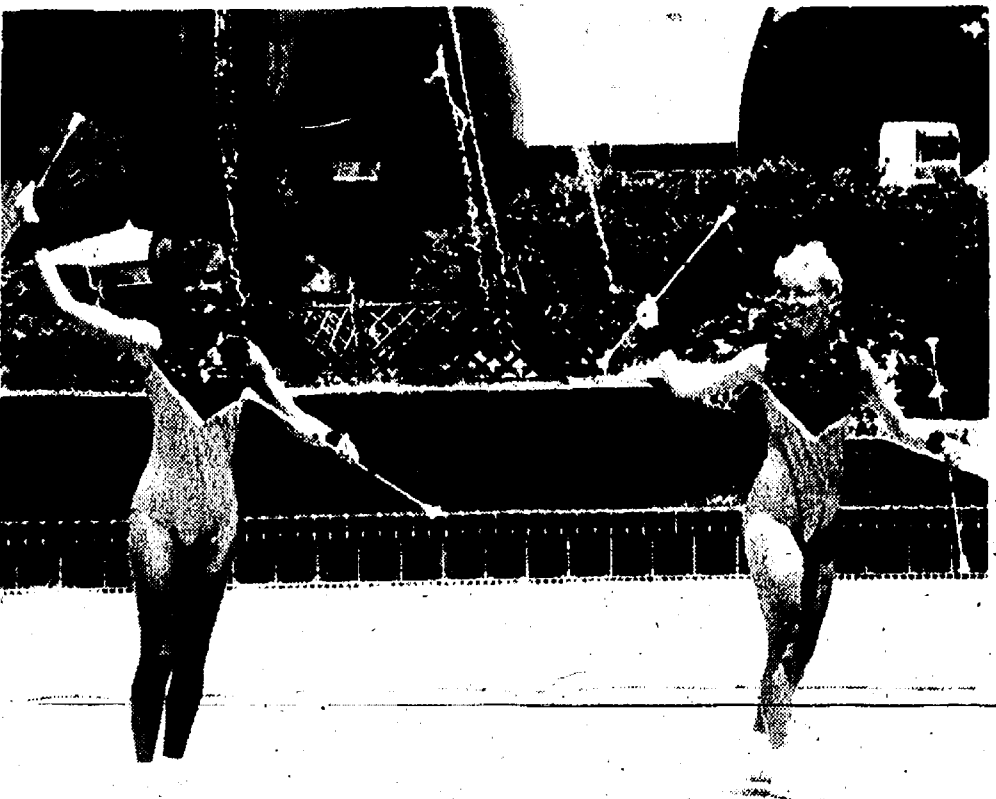

Disney World presented each member and their families with special tee shirts labeled "Magic Music Days." Producer-director Rita Howard was given a trophy inscribed "We applaud your talented contribution to the entertainment and happiness of the guests at the Walt Disney World Resort."

Martine Rose, director of entertainment for Disney World, came backstage after the performance and announced to the twirlers, "That was the finest amateur production that we have ever had on this stage! Your professionalism for such a young group is wonderful. Indeed you are a credit to your community and you are welcome to perform at Disney World anytime in the future. Congratulations on a most entertaining, quality performance."

The show corps will be performing some of the numbers for Ladies Day at the Chelsea Community Fair.

Vandals Deface Flag on Rock

A rock that had been sitting on Jefferson St. for several decades with a flag painted on it was defaced by vandals last week.

Someone took beige spray paint and painted the flag on the 2' by 3' rock.

The rock had been sitting on a foundation at 227 Jefferson St. since at least 1950. The flag may have also been that old.

Owners of the rock decided to bury it to avoid further problems.

SPAULDING FOR CHILDREN, the local adoption agency for children with special needs, got a visit last Friday from Mary Gail, bottom left, assistant secretary of Human Development Services for the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services. Gail, who was first appointed by President Ronald Reagan and re-appointed by President George Bush, said she has a special interest in adoption. She had lunch at the agency and watched a videotape presentation about older children who are in need of adoptive homes. Annual Blue/Gold Grid Game Slated Friday Night

Chelsea Bulldog varsity football team will give its first performance for the public this Friday at the annual Blue/Gold Game at 7 p.m. The game marks the traditional end to the week-long football campout at the high school.

Senior Kyle Plank and junior Tucker Steele will each call the signals as head coach Gene LaFave tries to find a number one quarterback before the Sept. 1 season opener at home against Mason.

Neither boy has played a down of varsity football at quarterback. Plank was a receiver on the varsity and Steele played junior varsity.

"We have a lot of talent there, we should be okay," LaFave said.

Thirty boys are out for the team.

LaFave lost a good portion of last year's defense as well as most of the offensive line. In most cases, he said Monday, it's still a little too early to evaluate the team's depth at any one position.

The coaching staff has a decidedly different look. Gone are long-time defensive co-ordinator Wayne Welton, who became athletic director in the off-season, and Tom Hardin, a specialist with defensive backs, who took a job in another school district. In their place are Steve Mussio, Curt Ellis, and Russell McKenzie. They all have experience at other schools, including Saline and Manchester.

Second-year assistant Lonnie Mitchell is the only returning coach.

Former Chelsea players Mark Mull and Todd Starkey are also helping out.

LISA UNTERBRINK has accepted a scholarship to Columbus College in Georgia to play softball. Although she only pitched one game her senior year at CHS, spending most of her time at third base, Columbus College coaches were impressed enough to recruit her as a pitcher. Lisa pitched more extensively this summer for the Chelsea Merchants. Lisa makes it a clean sweep for parents Ken and Ellie Unterbrink. All four of their girls have received softball scholarships, and all four will have pitched in college. Her twin sister, Laura, recently accepted a scholarship to Bowling Green State University in Ohio.

CONDOMINIUM LOT—The land in a condominium unit, together with the land in the adjacent and appurtenant limited common element, if there is such a limited common element.

CONDOMINIUM SUBDIVISION PLAN—The drawings and information prepared in accordance with Section 66 of the Condominium Act.

CONDOMINIUM UNIT—That portion of the condominium project designed and intended for separate ownership and use, as described in the master deed.

CONSOLIDATING MASTER DEED—The final amended master deed for a contractible or expandable condominium project, or a condominium project containing convertible land or convertible space, which final amended master deed fully describes the condominium project as completed.

CONTRACTIBLE CONDOMINIUM—A condominium project from which any portion of the submitted land or buildings may be withdrawn in accordance with this Ordinance and the Condominium Act.

CONVERSION CONDOMINIUM—A condominium project containing condominium units some or all of which were occupied before the filing of a notice of taking reservations under Section 71 of the Condominium Act.

EXPANDABLE CONDOMINIUM—A condominium project to which additional land may be added in accordance with this Ordinance and the Condominium Act.

MASTER DEED—The condominium document recording the condominium project to which are attached as exhibits and incorporated by reference the bylaws for the project and the condominium subdivision plan for the project, and all other information required by Section 8 of the Condominium Act.

NOTICE OF PROPOSED ACTION—The notice required by Section 71 of the Condominium Act, to be filed with Lima Township and other agencies.

SITE CONDOMINIUM—A condominium development containing residential, commercial, office, industrial, or other structures or improvements for uses permitted in the zoning district in which located, in which each co-owner owns exclusive rights to a volume of space within which a structure or structures may be constructed, herein defined as a condominium unit, as described in the master deed.

2. Section 2.02 Definitions—Insert the following new definition.

PLANNING COMMISSION—The Planning Commission of Lima Township as established under Act 188 of the Public Acts of 1959, as amended.

3. Section 2.02 Definitions—Insert the following new definition.

TOWNSHIP—The Township of Lima.

4. Section 2.02 Definitions—Insert the following new definition.

TOWNSHIP BOARD—The Township Board of Lima Township.

5. Article 5—Supplementary District Regulations—Add a new Section 5.18 as follows.

Section 5.18 Site Condominium Review.

A. Approval Required—Pursuant to authority conferred by Section 141 of the Condominium Act, preliminary and final site plans for all site condominiums shall be approved by the Planning Commission.

B. General Requirements

1. No permits for erosion control, building construction, grading, or installation of public water or sanitary sewerage facilities shall be issued for property in a site condominium development until a final site plan has been approved by the Lima Township Planning Commission and is in effect. However, the Planning Commission may, at its discretion, and with appropriate conditions attached, authorize the Building Inspector to issue permits for grading and foundation work on the basis of the approved preliminary site plan. This requirement shall include contractible, conversion, and expandable condominiums.

2. The Planning Commission shall have the authority to review and approve or deny preliminary and final site plans for site condominiums.

3. Preliminary and final site plans shall be submitted, reviewed, and approved or denied in accordance with Article 9, herein, provided however, that preliminary and final site plans shall not be combined for site condominiums. A dimensionally stable copy of the as-built drawings shall be submitted to the Township Clerk and a second dimensionally stable copy shall be recorded with the Washtenaw County Register of Deeds.

4. Each condominium unit shall be located within a zoning district that permits the proposed use.

5. For the purpose of this Ordinance, each condominium unit shall be considered equivalent to a single lot and shall comply with all regulations of the zoning district in which located. In the case of a site condominium containing single-family detached dwelling units, not more than one dwelling unit shall be located on a condominium lot, nor shall a dwelling unit be located on a condominium lot with any other principal structure or use except in a PUD district. Required yards shall be measured from the boundaries of a condominium lot. Lot coverage and floor area ratio shall be calculated using the land area of the condominium lot.

6. Each condominium unit shall be connected to water and sanitary sewer facilities where available, or shall have a well, septic tank, and drainfield approved by the County Health Department where water and sanitary sewer services are not available. The well, septic tank and drainfield serving a condominium unit shall be located within that unit, as described in the master deed, except in a PUD district, in which case this requirement may be waived by the Township Board as a part of its approval of the PUD district rezoning petition.

7. Relocation of boundaries between adjoining condominium units, if permitted in the condominium documents, as provided in Section 48 of the Condominium Act, shall comply with all regulations of the zoning district in which located and shall be approved by the Zoning Inspector. These requirements shall be made a part of the bylaws and recorded as part of the master deed.

8. Each condominium unit that results from a subdivision of another condominium unit, if such subdivision is permitted by the condominium documents, as provided in Section 49 of the Condominium Act, shall comply with all regulations of the zoning district in which located, and shall be approved by the Zoning Inspector. These requirements shall be made a part of the condominium bylaws and recorded as part of the master deed.

9. All information by this Ordinance shall be updated and furnished to the Zoning Inspector until applicable certificates of zoning compliance have been issued, as provided in Section 12.05, herein.

C. Preliminary Site Plan Requirements

1. A preliminary site plan shall be filed for approval at the time the notice of proposed action is filed with the Township.

2. The preliminary site plan shall include all land that the developer intends to include in the site condominium project.

3. The preliminary site plan shall include all information required in Section 9.03, herein, except that, in the case of a development that consists only of condominium lots and not buildings or other structures at the time of plan review, the location and dimensions of the condominium lots rather than individual buildings or other structures, and required yards shall be shown on the preliminary site plan.

4. In the event a notice of proposed action regarding a site condominium is filed with the Township, the Township upon receipt of the notice shall transmit the preliminary site plan drawings to the Site Condominium Advisory Committee (WCMPAC) and upon their written comments shall forward them to the Township Planning Commission.

D. Final Site Plan Requirements

1. A final site plan shall be filed for review for each phase of development shown on the approved preliminary site plan.

2. A final site plan for any phase of development shall not be filed for review by the Planning Commission unless a preliminary site plan has been approved by the Planning Commission and is in effect.

3. A final site plan shall include all information required by Section 66 of the Condominium Act, and the master deed and bylaws. The final site plan shall also include all information required in Section 9.04, herein, except in the case of a development that consists only of condominium lots rather than buildings or other structures at the time of plan review, the location and dimensions of condominium lots rather than individual buildings or other structures and required yards, shall be shown on the site plan.

4. The applicant shall provide proof of approvals by all County and State agencies having jurisdiction over improvements in the site condominium development, including but not limited to the County Road Commission, County Drain Commissioner, County Health Department, and the Michigan Department of Natural Resources. The Planning Commission shall not approve a final site plan until each County or State agency, having such jurisdiction has approved that portion of the final site plan that is subject to its jurisdiction.

E. Revision of Condominium Subdivision Plan

If the Condominium subdivision plan is revised, the final site plan shall be revised accordingly and submitted for review and approval or denial by the Planning Commission before any building permit may be issued, where such permit is required.

F. Amendment of Master Deed or Bylaws

Any amendment to a master deed or bylaws that affects the approved preliminary or final site plan, or any conditions or approval of a preliminary or final site plan, shall be reviewed and approved by the Planning Commission before any building permit may be issued, where such permit is required. The Planning Commission may require its review of an amended site plan if, in its opinion, such changes in the master deed or bylaws require corresponding changes in the approved site plan.

G. Relation to Subdivision Ordinance

The provisions of Articles 4 and 5 of the Township's Subdivision Ordinance shall apply to site condominiums and are incorporated herein by reference. In applying the design and development standards of Article 4 and the improvement requirements of Article 5 of the Subdivision Ordinance, the standards and requirements that are intended to apply to lots in a subdivision shall apply instead to condominium lots. Nothing in this Section shall be construed as requiring a site condominium to obtain plat approval under the Subdivision Ordinance or the Subdivision Control Act.

H. Development Agreement

The Planning Commission may require, as a condition of approval, that the applicant enter into a development agreement with the Planning Commission and the Township, incorporating therein the terms and conditions of final site plan approval, and record the same in the office of the Register of Deeds for Washtenaw County.

I. Any application for a building permit for construction to be located in a general common element shall include written authorization for the application by the Condominium Association.

J. Monuments shall be set at all boundary corners and deflection points and at all road right of way intersection corners and deflection points. Lot irons shall be set at all condominium lot corners and deflection points of condominium lot lines.

The Township Engineer may grant a delay in the setting of required monuments or irons for a reasonable time, but not to exceed one year, on condition that the developer deposit with the Township Clerk cash, a certified check, or an irrevocable bank letter of credit running to the Township, whichever the developer selects, in an amount as determined from time to time by resolution of the Township Board. Such deposit shall be returned to the developer upon receipt of a certificate by a surveyor registered in the State of Michigan that the monuments and irons have been set as required, within the time specified. If the developer defaults, the Township Board shall promptly require a registered surveyor to set the monuments and irons in the ground as shown on the condominium site plans, at a cost not to exceed the amount of the security deposit.

K. Road rights of way shall be described separately from individual condominium lots, and shall be accurately delineated by bearings and distances on the condominium subdivision plan and the final site plan. The right of way shall be for roadway purposes and for the purposes of locating, installing, maintaining, and replacing of public utilities. The developer shall dedicate easements to the Township for all necessary public services.

L. All improvements in a site condominium shall comply with the design specifications as adopted by the Township Board and any amendments thereto.

6. Section 9.02, Developments Requiring Site Plan Review—Add the following new subsection.

L. Any condominium development.

Arlene R. Barrels, Clerk.

Letters to the Editor

To the Editor:

In your Wednesday, Aug. 2 issue is a letter from Thaddues J. Cieslak, Jr., taking exception to previously printed letters regarding opposition to the proposed Portage and Base Lakes sewer system. He states a fair amount of misinformation. Since I do not know him, I will assume no malice on his part. I will address what appears to be a gap in his reading comprehension.

On July 19, I wrote, "Finally, thanks to all citizens who believe that they should have a right to vote in a public referendum regarding any financial liability to be assumed by the township government, the support for our petitions has been very strong. Personally, I had only three people refuse to sign the petition out of the first 85 people whom I approached." It is quite clear that I never claimed "to have contacted 85 people opposed to the sewer" as Mr. Cieslak claims in his letter. Those people are citizens of Dexter township, and the information they were given by me was verified by Supervisor Drolett's letter which appeared in the July 12 Dexter Leader.

Regarding "scare tactics," we have simply presented the studies, reports, memos, etc., that have come into our possession. That scares some people. Some of those pertinent facts had been kept from sewer authority members by Mr. Drolett until we became aware of that fact, copied those documents, and gave them to some of the sewer authority members. Thereafter, Mr. Drolett put the information in their packets, since they already had it from us.

We are concerned for our aquifer. It is 35-40 feet below the surface where the two 5-million gallon raw sewage holding tanks are to be placed, along with a 5.5-acre sand pit for filtering effluent discharge. Instead of asking us to prove that our water will be threatened, I believe any citizen concerned with the sanctity of his neighbor's well and property, (which is being concerned with the sanctity of his own well and property), would better ask the engineers to disprove this conclusion. The engineers say that wastewater discharge will go into the earth and run downhill underground to the marsh where nutrients will be taken up by the marsh vegetation. If it has nutrients, and it will go into the earth, why will the wastewater not go straight down 35-40 feet into the aquifer as well as a further distance downhill to the marsh? If they are putting 240,000 gallons per day into the ground, 88 million gallons per year, year-after-year, in an area of complex geology, where the site sits on a drainage divide, and is a water recharge area for artesian wells along Portage Lake, doesn't logic, common sense, and deductive reasoning compel thinking people to ask about the dangers of the situation?

Mr. Cieslak writes that I "seem to be making claims that my beliefs are the majority." I have claimed no such thing. I ask questions and write public letters because my first three letters to the township were never given a written reply to the specifications which I stated therein. Then, my right to speak was denied. Then, we residents of Stinchfield Woods, as well as other areas, were treated like "rabble rousers" instead of concerned citizens with justifiable concerns. Then, various citizens came forth with reports, studies, and facts that contradicted the pabulum assurances we were being asked to believe unquestioningly. The P.B.L.O.A. clearly claims to represent the lake owners but their membership rolls show 350 households. That is less than 33% of all of the owners. I claim to represent myself, period. I have not attached my name to any association. However, the stack of facts is real. Board members have seen the stack. They have chosen to ignore the information because they seem to have had their minds made up long before we ever became a factor in this equation. As to what I, or we of the opposition recommend, see all previous letters to the editor.

Now, regarding going to Dexter Village with the raw sewage, and the cost, please read again the part about the "site that wouldn't be bought, the open air holding ponds and pits that wouldn't be built, the mechanical plant... that wouldn't be built" and try to understand the cost saved. Then, go read the specifications of the Dexter Village Treatment Plant, as we have, and notice that the size was built to include future sewage from Base Lake, Portage Lake, and Loch Alpine (which now has its own system). Rather than being a blind follower of Mr. Drolett, see if any of these facts trigger a little independent thinking resulting in deductions that appear more logical. I don't want growth in the area anymore than you do. But, please explain how a sewer pipe going through Hudson Mills, through Metro parks property all the way to Dexter (through the golf course) is going to cause greater development.

I am concerned that a raw sewage spill on the site, "into the absorbent soils on Stinchfield Woods Road," like the 1.4 million gallon spill in the Huron River a few weeks ago, would contaminate our aquifer for years. Please point out where I ever said I was concerned about the system pumping raw sewage directly into the lakes as it did into the Huron River. I am concerned that nutrients in December, January, February, and March, that supposedly will go downhill in a frozen, north-wind facing slope, to be taken up by the marsh vegetation, will not be taken up by the frozen, dead, and dormant vegetation during those months. If you, Mr. Cieslak, think the nutrient land water will not flow through into Little Portage Lake, and then into Big Portage Lake, on its way to the Huron River, please inform me to where it will magically disappear. It is reasonable

High School Hours Changed For '89-90 Year

Chelsea School District has announced that the daily schedule at Chelsea High school has been changed slightly, and should result in several benefits for the students in the district.

The school day for students in 1989-90 will begin at 8:45 instead of 8:52.5, which has been past practice.

Class periods at the high school have been increased by 2.5 minutes per period to ensure that the high school schedule meets the standards set by the North Central Association. Classes will begin at 8:45 and end at 3:10. All students will have a 35-minute lunch period.

The normal daily schedule will be as follows:

"Zero Hour" (teachers only)	7:55 - 8:40
1st Hour	8:45 - 9:40
2nd Hour	9:45 - 10:40
3rd Hour	10:45 - 11:40
4th Hour
"A" Lunch	Lunch 11:40 - 12:10
Class	12:15 - 1:10
"B" Lunch	Class 11:45 - 12:40
Lunch	12:40 - 1:10
5th Hour	1:15 - 2:10
6th Hour	2:15 - 3:10

to think that it will probably also go straight down into the aquifer up on the hill, since that ground will stay at least semi-thawed with the warm sewage constantly coming in up there? We think so. Is it reasonable to wonder if such a nutrient rich flow will have Little Portage Lake looking like the lake near Patterson Lake Products in Pinckney, into which the Pinckney Village treated waste water is discharged? We think it is reasonable to wonder.

The reference I made to "O" rings on the Challenger being designed by experts was, I thought, obvious. Almost everyone in the civilized world knows that experts build space shuttles, not laymen; and almost everyone knows that even though the "O" rings were designed by experts, they failed. The shuttle exploded with the loss of seven lives. No, I'm not an expert on "O" rings. But if those experts could be fatally wrong, so also is it possible for these expert engineers to be fatally wrong on the design of this sewer project. Indeed, see the Ann Arbor News article of July 26, 1989, page A3, regarding the long delayed waste water treatment plant for Ann Arbor. I quote, "McNamee Porter admitted to engineering error during the arbitration." "They made a mistake in elevations, and there had to be extra excavation for the plant—a 28,000 cubic yard error." "We will handle that either through a suit or negotiated settlement with McNamee." Now, these are the "experts" who have designed a system here to pump raw sewage to the highest point of land in our area, and they made a mistake in elevations! Please pardon me for thinking I should dare to question "experts" about their plans.

Mrs. Peabody lives on Portage Lake. Her letter clearly stated her concerns. Please read it once again to acquire a better depth of understanding for yourself regarding her topic. Please, however, do not cynically assault the character of a sincerely concerned lady simply because you find her point of view contrary to yours. Rather, you may assault me. I've gotten used to certain proponents of the system, as it is designed, not being able to refute our facts or logic, and thus resorting to assaulting our personal credibility. We are thankful that the tactic continues to fail.

Finally I will not agree that Mr. Drolett and the Sewer Authority are probably doing a great job in protecting, or promoting, your interests. I do debate whether they are protecting my neighbors or my own interests by apparently arbitrarily choosing the cheapest site available. The last I knew, we were part of the "community." I do question how many interests of the "entire community" they have on their minds. Many of the people who want the liability question put on a referendum felt that they are only concerned with the interest of the lakes area residents. Certainly, Mr. Cieslak, you are welcome to see the facts, read the reports, study the surveys, etc. Then, even you may be convinced and persuaded as to the reasonableness of our position. You may even change the tone of your letter to indicate a little respect for other points of view.

Gregg E. Magnuson.

Cooling it: There's at least one place on earth where man's tinkering with the environment has cooled the climate instead of warming it. In Palm Springs, Calif., temperatures over the last 15 years have not kept pace with a general warming trend in the desert southwest. According to National Wildlife magazine, the reason is all those golf courses. Instead of heating the ground and air, the sun's energy is spent evaporating water from acres of irrigated greens.

From the SUPERINTENDENT'S CORNER

By
JOSEPH K. PIASECKI

On behalf of the Chelsea Board of Education, I wish to thank the residents of the Chelsea School District for their positive vote on Aug. 14. The vote assures that the Chelsea schools will be able to continue the program that was in place during the past school year.

I would like to thank the many residents who worked for the passage of the millage. Several hundred people worked actively in one or more phases of the campaign. Without the effort of our citizens, the results would have been much different.

The passage of the millage will mean the restoring of approximately $490,000 of cuts. We will all be working diligently to have everything in place for the start of school on Aug. 28.

Thanks again for your positive support.

NOTICE OF A PUBLIC HEARING ON INCREASING PROPERTY TAXES

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that on August 28, 1989, at 8:00 o'clock p.m. at the Board of Education Room, E. Washington Street, Chelsea, Michigan, the Board of Education of the Chelsea School District will hold a public hearing on the levying in 1989 of an additional proposed millage rate of 3.8947 mills for operating purposes pursuant to Act 5, Public Acts of Michigan, 1982, Section 211.34, MCL.

The Board of Education has the complete authority to establish that 38.5161 mills be levied in 1989 from within its present authorized millage rate.

The maximum additional proposed millage rate would increase revenues for operating purposes from ad valorem property tax levies in 1989 otherwise permitted by Act 5, Public Acts of Michigan, 1982, by 10.4203 percent (10.4203%).

In accordance with Act 5, the Base Tax Rate Fraction (BTRF), as calculated by the County Equalization Office, for 1989 is 0.9263. This BTRF would allow the Board of Education to levy up to 36.7214 mills [(37.3760 x .9263) + 2.1 mills] of the authorized 38.5161 mills without holding a hearing. The 3.8947 mills difference represents a 10.4203% increase in income for operating purposes for the 1989 tax levy. This includes the 2.1 mills approved by the voters of the district on August 14, 1989.

The purpose of the hearing is to receive testimony and discuss the levy of an additional millage rate. Not less than seven (7) days following the public hearing, the Board of Education may approve all or any portion of the proposed additional millage rate.

This notice is given by order of the Board of Education.

JOSEPH M. REDDING, Secretary

High Blood Pressure?

Only your doctor can tell. Like more than 10 million other Americans, you could have high blood pressure and not know it until it leads to stroke, heart or kidney failure. It has no special symptoms and often gives no warning. But your doctor can detect high blood pressure (he may call it hypertension) and usually control it. So see your doctor... and follow his orders.

Demolition Derby's Tuesday, Wednesday At Community Fair

The Cavalcade of Thrills Demolition Derby annually draws two of the largest crowds of the fair.

The events, at 7:30 p.m. on Tuesday and Wednesday, Aug. 22-23, offers a shot at local stardom, plus numerous cash prizes and trophies. Many participants enter both nights of bone-jarring action and the winners usually show off their crushed vehicles during the fair parade.

Rules of the event are fairly straightforward.

Any American-made, front-engine, hardtop car or station wagon is allowed, except Chrysler Imperials and a few other special vehicles.

All glass has to be removed from the vehicles, including all windows and headlights.

Each car is permitted three gallons of gasoline, and only a special gas tank may be used.

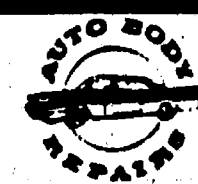

The only re-inforcement allowed is in the driver's door. Cars must be factory stock. All hood ornaments and other decorations must be removed. Cars must have brakes. Any vehicle leaking fuel will be disqualified. Only one "visible" fire per driver is allowed.

Helmets and seat belts must be used.

Special derby events include Tuesday's Volleyball Derby, in which two teams of cars try to push a small, foreign car (the ball) across a goal line, and Wednesday's Powder Puff heat for women.

The movement supporting the formation of a Labor Department began after the Civil War with labor leader William Sylvis, who argued that existing government departments protected enterprises fostering wealth, according to the U.S. Labor Department. "No department has as its sole object the care and protection of labor," Sylvis said. Between 1864 and 1900, more than 100 bills and resolutions relating to a labor department were introduced in Congress.

THE FORMER HOP-IN STORE on Main St. is being cleaned out, although there are apparently no plans for the building as yet. The village planned to send a letter to the owner, a California man, informing him of its dangerous buildings ordinance. Hop-In pulled out of the building earlier this year after the Washtenaw County Building Department found too many structural problems and refused to let people inhabit it.

Penskar's Drop Suit Against Village

A couple who was denied a variance more than two years ago to build a small apartment building on W. Middle St. has dropped its law suit against the village.

Robert and Audrey Penskar say they have decided to drop an appeal, scheduled for Aug. 28 in circuit court, because the project is no longer financially feasible. In addition, the couple has run into problems with the Michigan Department of Natural Resources over a small area of wetland on the property.

The suit charged that the village's Zoning Board of Appeals violated its own procedures, and violated the Penskar's constitutional rights in turning down the variance request. The Penskar's said the board did not give a reason for turning down the request, which violated their rights.

The Penskar's had sought to construct the building on an irregular-shaped lot that would have kept them from meeting all zoning requirements.

The lawsuit, filed June 25, 1987 had an almost immediate effect. Every motion for denial, and many for approval, of a variance now contains a reason.

"My clients believe that the circuit court action was necessary to call attention to errors made by the Chelsea Zoning Board of Appeals in acting upon their application," read a letter from attorney Randy Musbach to the village.

The village attempted some time ago to offer a compromise to allow the Penskar's to build four units rather than five on the property at 640-650 W. Middle St. That proposal was not accepted.

DNR has also gotten involved, Robert Penskar said, and has decided to require a permit to build on the property. Penskar said he has been told a 40' by 70' area of cattails is contiguous with Letts Creek. Therefore, a public hearing would be required.

"Today (the project) is not nearly so viable," Penskar said.

"Taxes have gone up and I would need to be able to do the five units the planning commission said could be done. Now with the DNR rejection as a wetland, I certainly don't intend to spend my time on this building addition any longer."

Penskar said he has a letter from DNR that essentially cleared the way for the project. It was only after the lawsuit was filed that the DNR notified him of the change, Penskar said.

Clara E. Prudden

La Grande, Ore.

(Formerly of Waterloo)

She was born Aug. 5, 1888 in Waterloo, the daughter of Henry and Cristina (Heydlauff) Winter.

Her first husband was an officer in the Canadian Army. The couple made their home in Victoria, B.C. and during this time she rode with Queen Elizabeth's grandmother in a horse-drawn sleigh complete with horse bells and a uniformed driver.

In 1922 she married William Prudden, who was in the grocery business and later a justice of the peace. He preceded her in death on Nov. 28, 1922.

Survivors include her companion and close friend, Edward W. Bienapfl, of LaGrande; and nieces and nephews, Irene Harrison, Victor Winter, Edwin Winter, and Doris Kope, all of Michigan, and Betty Moon, of Ohio.

Mrs. Prudden lived in Battle Creek nearly all her life and worked for the W.F. Kellogg Co. as an overseer of the food line. She was also a store manager for Eaton Co. She moved to LaGrande in 1970 with her sister. She was a past matron of the Order of the Eastern Star No. 106 in Battle Creek and was active in the Methodist church and several civic organizations.

DNR To Deny Irrigation Pond Permit for Lyndon Twp. Farmer

Lyndon township farmer Todd Lee will be allowed to build his irrigation pond near Joslin Lake only if he agrees to block existing access to a stream that feeds the lake. In essence, his application as it stands will be denied, according to DNR officials.

Lee applied to the Michigan Department of Natural Resources for a permit for the pond, and area residents turned out en masse to a public hearing to oppose his plans. Since then, Rick Schramm of the DNR has been studying nearly 200 written comments, technicalities on water rights, and other information. Recently he made a personal inspection of the property.

water could come directly from the stream or Joslin Lake.

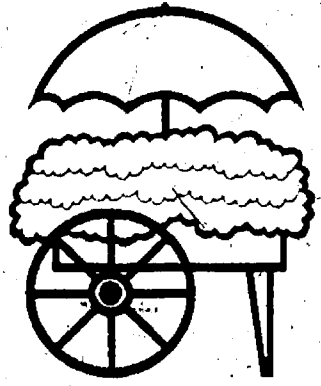

"There have been a lot of misconceptions about what he is trying to do out there," Schramm said. "Lee wants to widen an existing 5' drain to 40', deepen it from 1' to 6-7', and run it 200' to his fields, which would substantially increase his water storage capacity. He did not, Schramm said, want to dig closer to the stream. Lee essentially wanted to increase the size of facilities he already had."

Schramm said that in times of drought it's likely the stream couldn't feed both the agricultural pond and the lake adequately.

"We have no problem with the pond if he cuts off the existing connection to the stream," Schramm said Monday.

Schramm said Lee's irrigation pond could be fed by stormwater run-off, run-off from farm tile lines, groundwater from the wetland area, and any well he might want to install. No

Q. I am 36 years old. I have a job I am happy with that pays me well above an average wage. I do not have a husband and anticipate I will be providing for my own future. I have a condominium I am buying. I own some stock and understand how stock values fluctuate. I have confidence that stock investments are likely to move ahead better than inflation and would like to use them in building my future. I'd appreciate it if you would suggest a portfolio that I could start building with.

A. In your case you seem to be well established and able to handle the fluctuations that occur in stock values. To begin with I'm going to suggest eight growth companies. You didn't tell me how much money you have to start with, but you could start with $500 of each, or $1,000 or more of each if you have the funds.

These companies do not pay a lot in dividends, but I would suggest you reinvest the dividends as you receive them either in these companies or others. Cooper Industries has an excellent record of growth. It has a number of products serving industrial, electrical and construction markets. It also is a supplier to the oil fields and should profit when that business returns to prosperity. The management has an excellent record. The company earned $2.21 in 1988 and if the past growth rate continues it could earn over $4 in 1993. That could double today's price.

Dun & Bradstreet has grown at 12% a year for a long time and seems likely to continue growing at about that rate. It has been a little unpopular lately because of some problems with sales personnel, but the company seems to have moved promptly to clear up that problem. The company probably will not grow as fast as Cooper, but its progress should be steady.

Hillenbrand Industries is the nation's biggest casket maker, but it also does well in luggage, hospital beds and locks. The company has produced a 13% annual increase in shareholder values. Another company you may not have heard of is Lawson Products. It grows at about 15% a year. It is a warehousing and selling organization supplying replacement parts for industrial machines. It earned $1.41 a share in 1988 and if recent progress continues it could earn $2.85 by 1993. The company has been pretty much depression proof in the past.

A fifth company for your portfolio is Masco Corp. It has had a reputation almost for a lifetime as a top quality growth company. It should be an excellent long term holding. For participation in high tech try Molex. It gets an occasional cyclical interruption but maintains progress over time at about 18% per year. For high quality dependable growth buy Sigma Aldrich. It is high priced but dependable. Thomas & Betts is less glamorous and grows slower, but would add balance to your portfolio.
