Country Craft, Folk Art Show Slated Saturday

Saturday, Oct. 7 marks the date for the 5th annual Country Craft & Folk Art Show to be held at Chelsea High school.

This annual event, which benefits the Chelsea Senior Citizens organization, has become an extremely popular event in the Chelsea area.

This year, more than 90 artists and craftspeople from all over Michigan will display and sell their wares. Items available include such things as pottery, baskets, stained glass, silhouettes, quilts, wood accessories, and just about anything to complement a country decorated home.

Among the many talented craftspeople exhibiting at the show will be Joyce Redman from Hanover. Joyce is a silhouette artist who learned her skills from her grandmother when she was 10 years old. Joyce comes from a family of silhouette artists; she is the great niece of Audrey Waite, who many people are familiar with. Audrey exhibited her talents for many years in this area; primarily at the Dexter Pioneer Show.

Silhouette artistry is not a common craft; there are only about 15 such artists in the United States. Joyce exhibits her craft about three week-ends each month at craft shows, voluntary exhibits, such as historical society meetings and hospital shows, and at business promotional events. She also works out of her home.

Joyce cuts mostly facial silhouettes, which she does on the spot at the craft shows. Each head takes about five to seven minutes to complete. She will be doing this personalized work at the craft show on Oct. 7.

Joyce also cuts full figures of children from her imagination, which she applies to greeting cards and wall hangings. Be sure to look for Joyce in the gymnasium the day of the show.

Heidi and Roger Bridgewater of Michigan Center will be returning to the show for the third time, bringing with them their very special dough art items. The Bridgewaters' craft has been a favorite at the show, so popular that they have sold out of product before the end of the day the last two years, and did almost equally as well at the Chelsea Sidewalk Festival this past July.

The dough art craft is a family affair for the Bridgewaters. Roger cuts all the wood used for the plaques, fences, etc.; the children do the drilling and tie the hangers in place; and Heidi does all the dough art creating and finishing touches. The family keeps busy doing about 20 shows each year.

What started out over five years ago as a hobby has turned into a booming business for the Bridgewaters. They are always coming up with new ideas. This year their newest piece being a perpetual calendar, which is Roger's favorite thing to make because of all the intricate pieces he cuts to make the calendar complete.

When asked what her favorite item is Heidi said she couldn't decide; probably just putting all the little dough art figures and accessories together to make a completed picture.

The Bridgewaters' booth will again this year be located in the cafeteria.

A new exhibitor to the show this year is Debbie LaPratt from Sterling Heights. Debbie and her partner, Linda Lauhoff, make miniature ceramic villages; houses and buildings that follow a historical line. These miniature structures can be customized with color and personalization, such as names, addresses, and business signs. Debbie hopes to have some replicas of the Chelsea Depot at the craft show.

Debbie started working in ceramics about 10 years ago and shortly after that realized the villages were her favorite thing to make, so she has been concentrating solely on them for the past eight years. Her favorite pieces are Main Street and Santa's Christmas Shop, which is a combination structure of a bakery and a toy shop, with Santa going over the top.

Debbie keeps very busy doing 35 craft shows each year. One popular piece she sells is a replica of the Governor Cass House, the famous residence of the last territorial governor of Michigan in the late 1800's. She is currently working on the Kern Clock, a famous historical landmark in Detroit.

All of the miniature buildings can be lit up with miniature Christmas tree lights, and accessories can be purchased from Debbie to go along with the buildings. Debbie can personalize any of the pieces the day of the show at her booth, which will be located in the cafeteria.

Local craftsmen, John and Gayle Fill, moved to Chelsea three years ago from Westland. They have been exhibiting at craft shows for the past three years, and they were a popular (Continued on page two)

Beach Open House Slated Next Tuesday

An open house will be held at Beach Middle school next Tuesday, Oct. 10 beginning at 7 p.m. in the cafeteria.

Parents will participate in a capulized version of their child's schedule with short visits to each classroom. Teachers will be on hand to explain their curricular program and classroom expectations.

The first hour class will begin promptly and parents are encouraged to arrive by 7 p.m. and obtain a copy of their child's schedule and receive directions for class visits. Students are asked to remain at home in order to provide plenty of room for parents.

At the completion of the simulated school day there will be a social gathering in the cafeteria.

Sixth grade camp program will be introduced in a video/slide presentation in the library at 9:10 p.m.

School support groups will be available to discuss their programs with parents.

Council Expected To OK Clinton County Man As New Assistant Manager

Chelsea Village Council was expected to approve the appointment of Thomas P. Warstler of St. Johns as the new assistant village manager at their regular meeting last night.

Warstler, 38, emergency services co-ordinator for Clinton county, beat out more than 50 applicants for the position. He takes the spot vacated by Lee Fahrner, an engineer, late last year. He would begin Oct. 30.

The village was primarily interested in Warstler's planning background. Previous to managing emergency services for Clinton county, Warstler was director/planner for Clinton county, where he oversaw the planning, zoning, building code enforcement, and economic development areas.

Village manager Robert Stalker recommended a starting salary of $32,500, which council was expected to approve. Although the village had advertised for someone with planning or engineering experience, generally engineers did not apply due to their salary requirements, according to village president Jerry Satterthwaite.

"His background is well suited for the needs of the community," Stalker said.

"He also has the type of personality and philosophy that should help him work well with the staff here."

Stalker said that initially Warstler will work with the planning commission and probably take over the day-to-day operations of dealing with the various on-going development projects. In addition, he'll help Stalker with budgeting and handle most of the grant writing.

Stalker also wants Warstler to live within 10 miles of the village.

Warstler holds a bachelor's degree in geography from Aquinas College in Grand Rapids and a master's degree in geography from Northern Michigan University in Marquette.

He has completed coursework in business at the University of Michigan at Flint and coursework in planning at U-M. He has completed workshops in disaster recovery, hazardous materials emergencies, and planning and zoning. He is also a registered building code official with the state.

In his planning position for Clinton county, Warstler worked with the Economic Development Corporation and made formal presentations to the Clinton County Board of Commissioners and the county planning commission. He has also had some fundraising experience.

Warstler is married and has four children.

Papo Scraps Plans For Chelsea Pines

The on-again, off-again Chelsea Pines condominium project is apparently on the shelf again as developer Rene Papo has decided not to pursue the project.

Papo said development costs for the project were higher than initially anticipated because the area is too low.

"The water table is so high that the development costs got too out of line," Papo said.

"It would be difficult to put in the sewer the way the village wants it."

Papo, however, has not given up on his office complex project for land between Chelsea Community Hospital and Old US-12.

Papo said he would immediately submit a site plan for the project once the land has been officially rezoned. That should happen this month.

However, construction probably won't begin until next spring, Papo said.

Papo said he has lured a company called Chartbuster Video to his Chelsea Shopping Center. The company, which has other movie-rental stores in the Southfield-Detroit area, plans to take 7,000 square feet.

He said negotiations are still in progress for a laundromat for the mall, and a family-style restaurant should open before the end of the year.

Tracer System Installation Starts at Village Landfill

Work began last week on the installation of the tracer system at the village landfill on Werkner Rd.

The system is being installed in both the old landfill site, as well as the new cell the village hopes to be filling soon with a new license.

Once the system has been installed, the Jackson office of the Michigan Department of Natural Resources is expected to recommend that the new landfill license be granted. The recommendation would be forwarded to the appropriate administrators in Lansing for final approval.

The village is hoping to have the tracer system installed before Oct. 22, when DNR is scheduled to rule on the license. If the system can't be installed by then, the village will have to ask for an extension. Village consultant Lee Fahrner said he has been told by DNR an extension would be no problem.

The tracer system, reportedly the first of its kind in a Michigan landfill, involves digging nearly a dozen holes in the old landfill down to the bottom of the fill and installing porous pipe filled with gravel. Bromides would then be injected directly into the pipes. Presumably tests of water from monitoring wells would detect whether any of the bromide is leaking, alerting to the possible contamination

Girl Reports Abduction Try

A South school girl told Chelsea police that a man in his mid-20s tried to lure her into his red station wagon on Thursday, Sept. 21.

Rumors of a similar attempt in Dexter could not be confirmed by either school authorities or the Washtenaw County Sheriff's Department.

According to Chelsea police, the Chelsea girl was walking to school shortly before 9 a.m. on E. Summit St. when the man stopped his car and told the girl he wanted to give her a ride. The girl reportedly told the man to go away, and she ran home to tell her parents.

The man was described as having light colored hair and wearing a red shirt and blue jeans.

The incident prompted both elementary schools to send a note home with children that described what happened.

of the groundwater by landfill materials.

In another landfill project, work was scheduled to begin this week or next on the capping of the old landfill. Price of the project, to be completed by Chie Excavating, is more than $322,000. Village council has approved the project, which will be initially funded by a loan from the village's electric fund, the fund that has been used to finance numerous projects over the years.

About 45,000 tons of a particular kind of clay will have to be trucked in for the project.

"The contractor was concerned about being able to make the site erosion proof," said village manager Robert Stalker.

Jewelry Stolen

A W. Middle St. resident told Chelsea police that someone stole about $2,000 worth of jewelry from her apartment sometime between Sept. 13 and Sept. 19.

Items stolen included rings, earrings, chains, bracelets, and other items, the woman said.

Police are investigating.

AN OLD PENNY WEIGHT SCALE was brought back to the Chelsea Depot Sept. 29 by Floyd Balmer. The scale was patented in 1900, distributed by The Metropolitan Life Insurance Co. and was used by passengers as a novelty to pass time while waiting for the train. Balmer worked as the Chelsea Depot drayman, delivering freight and express to the station which was picked up by New York Central Railroad, between 1946 and 1949. He obtained the scales and took them home and stored them in his granary at his farm on Roe Rd. The Chelsea Depot Association and Chelsea Historical Society were happy to receive the donation, 40 years

LOCAL CROP WALK for hunger relief will be held Sunday, Oct. 8 beginning at 1:30 p.m. at St. Paul United Church of Christ. Above, the Rev. Sondra Wilboe of North Lake United Methodist church, co-ordinator of the

Thieves broke into the Cavanaugh Lake Store early Tuesday morning and made off with approximately $120. The break-in occurred around 4 a.m., according to store manager Robert Mock. The store normally opened at 6 a.m. Mock said the thieves apparently entered the store by breaking out the glass in the front door. According to Mock, a witness to the incident said that two people were involved and has provided a description of the getaway car to police.

Secretary of State Richard H. Austin has announced that all new (first time) driver licenses and personal identification cards issued to individuals under 21 years of age will carry the words "under 21" above the photo. Austin said that a new law requires the Department of State to add the language to all new licenses and identification cards issued on or after Oct. 1. The "Under 21" will enable restaurants, tavern owners and others to determine if an individual is under 21 at a glance without having to calculate from the birthdate shown on the license or identification card.

The Chelsea Football Hall of Fame inducted three new members during the half-time program of a Chelsea football game. David Boote, Mark Bentley, and David Steinhauer made up the hall of fame trio. Boote, the son of John and Anna Boote, was a two-year letter winner at cornerback. Bentley, the son of Robert and Diane Bentley, was a middle linebacker, and held the single-season record for tackles. Steinhauer, the son of Gerald and Judy Steinhauer, was a three-time all-SEC linebacker and Chelsea's all-time leader in tackles. All three are members of the class of 1985.

L. Ray Bishop, former president of the Washtenaw County Bar Association and founder and partner in the Ann Arbor trial law firm of Bishop and Shelton, was named chair of the Michigan State Bar Association's Economics of Law Practice Section at its annual meeting in Detroit.

The body of a 20-year-old Detroit woman was discovered Sunday about one-half mile from Camp Waterloo on Clear Lake Rd. According to Lt. Floyd Farrison, Jackson post commander, State Police identified the woman, who had been shot, as Diane Madison. The woman was identified through fingerprints. Garrison said the death appeared to have occurred within the past two weeks.

For Mary Kumpf, patchwork applique and quilting was not "in." It was something she learned from her grandmother and her mother. Something that she knew as necessity and something she knew as beauty, something she does today. . . for pleasure, for therapy. "It's something I could pick-up anytime." Two quilts billowed to the floor. "These are my pride and joy," Mary pointed out. To use a trite phrase, the two were as different as "night and day." They were.

Total school enrollment for the Chelsea school system was up by eight students over the previous year's enrollment of 2,636 according to the district business manager Fred Mills. However, the number of kindergartners had risen by one full classroom; up from 153 students to 179 students. At the high school, 923 students were enrolled.

The wrap-around or side-wrapped closing was one of the latest fashion notes. The fashion emphasis—garments wrapped and tied at the left—showed up in coats, dresses, palazzo pants, halters, sweaters and blouses. The style, reminiscent of the 30's and 40's was being updated with new fabrics and colors. Regland or dolman sleeves took star billing.

Monday night after a talk on "Youth and Leisure" by Dr. Ray Gibbons, a committee of four was elected by the interested citizens who were in attendance, and were instructed to report to the Recreation Commission some of the concerns of the group. Art Stoll, William Tite, Sylvester Wojcik, and Mrs. Ray Peppers were nominated and then elected to summarize and report the consensus of the meeting to the Recreation Commission so that school, town, churches, parents and youth could know that the 40 persons who turned out to hear Dr. Gibbons were concerned that they weren't satisfied with the job that was being done in education or recreation.

John O'Connor said he was awakened by prowlers at 2 a.m. when they attempted to break into his home by smashing in a door. The prowlers disappeared when O'Connor awoke and yelled at them. They took with them two tires and the battery from O'Connor's car, which was parked in his garage. The house door, secured by a bolt lock, was standing open when he reached it. The door casing had been broken. O'Connor said he did not see the prowlers and that he did not fire at them, as reported in

Court Wants Domestic Violence Given Criminal Status

Domestic violence is often not treated by prosecutors and courts as crimes, the head of a Supreme Court Task Force on Gender Bias said recently. She added that the group is considering proposals to change that approach, including provisions to prosecute such cases even if a victim withdraws the complaint.

Julia Darlow presented a progress report on the task force, along with Appeals Court Judge Harold Hood who chairs a Task Force on Ethnic and Racial Bias, at a session of the annual meeting of the State Bar of Michigan.

Darlow said the proposals under consideration, developed after public hearings were held around the state, should not be taken as recommendations, but only an "indication of where we're going."

The two task forces, created by a September, 1987 order of the Supreme Court, issued a preliminary report last November and is due to issue a final report in December.

Darlow, former president of the Bar, said the criminal justice system has "a problem of conceiving that domestic violence is not real crime. It's extremely important that the system recognize domestic violence as a crime and treat it as such."

She said many of the perpetrators, almost always the male in a relationship, are not the "criminal type" and would not commit an assault on their wife or girlfriend if they knew society treated it as seriously as other crimes.

She said the task force is considering rules that would not require domestic violence victims to file formal complaints, and make it the responsibility of prosecutors to proceed with a case if possible even if the victim drops the charge. Ms. Darlow said prosecutors could have formal policies that encourage prosecutions and could stop using a "cooling off" period before taking domestic cases.

Some at the meeting of the Judicial Conference Section questioned how a prosecutor could proceed with a domestic violence case if the victim becomes a hostile witness.

Darlow agreed that is a "practical problem," but said the task force is "trying to get a concept and approach" to have prosecutors determine a crime was committed.

Other suggestions under consideration are eliminating mutual injunctions to force judges to determine if one spouse is instigating abusive behavior and to revise state court rules to permit use of a standard, easily understood form, through which victims may file abuse claims.

Calhoun county Circuit Judge James Kingsley said the Ethnic/Race task force is considering an amendment to the canons of ethics to strictly prohibit, and provide disciplinary sanctions, for judges who use slurs and demeaning terms for members of minorities or for women.

Task force members noted that only one judge said he would refuse further participation because he feels the project already has concluded that bias exists, but Hood said, "This is not a judge bashing project. When we go to the bench, we don't stop having biases."

The Supreme Court created the task forces in response to a Citizens' Commission to Improve Michigan Courts finding that almost one third of persons surveyed in the state believe blacks and women are not treated as well in the judicial system as are white males.

Governor Wants Flexible Federal Funds To Aid Education

Gov. James J. Blanchard said that if education is to become a true national priority, the trend of declining federal support must be reversed. And the use of that money, he said, should be left at the discretion of individual states.

In a letter to President Bush regarding issues for consideration at an education summit in Virginia with the nation's governors, Blanchard said state and local resources across the country have increased by over $10 billion for education over the past 10 years, while federal assistance decreased by $4.2 billion.

By having the flexibility of expenditures of federal funds, Blanchard said states can "decide what we want to achieve, and then free up teaching professionals to find new, efficient and innovative ways to do the job."

Among the ways to achieve better results, Blanchard said, is development of a "Governors Incentive Fund" out of existing federal-state administrative funds.

Specific recommendations which were included by Blanchard in his letter were federal accountability for preparing children to learn, including doubling the number of children served by Head Start in 1990-91 and again in four years, focusing federal resources for education on children in the 10 largest urban school districts, and expanding drug education programs to reach every child; ensuring that children have access to college or advanced technical training beyond high school, including favorable tax treatment for investments in state college savings programs, and federal and state paid parental leave to allow parents to get more involved in their local schools.

He said the summit participants should set national performance goals to be achieved by 2000, including doubling the number of students now pursuing careers in science and engineering.

Uncle Lew from Lima Says:

DEAR MISTER EDITOR:

The fallers was in high spirits at the country store Saturday night. Baseball still has command of the sports pages, most of the country is in that low cost period between cooling and heating, the column writers actual are saying kind things about the only Vice President we got, this old world didn't come to a end on last week's revised doomsday schedule cooked up by the latest nut to come down the pike, and, in general, light is showing up in more tunnels.

Political discussions led by Republican Ed Doolittle and Democrat Clem Webster usual are all heat, but they even showed some light. Clem scored a clean win in the first round when he said former President Carter was being a credit to the country and the Presidency going about doing good. He recent helped set up talks in Atlanta between the government of Ethiopia and some rebels that have been fighting 26 year. He is busy in Habitat for Humanity that builds homes for poor people, and he set up Global 2000 that is working to improve health care and farming in Third World countries.

Meanwhile, Clem went on, former President Reagan was settling in his $2.5 million home give him by his rich friends, he was agreeing to make two speeches in Japan at $1 million apiece and he's signed a contract for a few more millions to write his memories that everybody hopes he has better luck with than when he was in the White House.

But Ed scored some points by agreeing that Carter's standing in the country is a lot higher now than it was when he was President, which certainly does say something about his Presidency when he couldn't get anybody to take him serious. As for his peacemaking, Ed went on, let us hope Carter don't do for Ethiopia what his Spirit of Camp David did for the Middle East. Furthermore, at 78, Ed said, Reagan has trouble sitting on a horse, so nobody in his right mind expects to see him on a roof nailing shingles. Both men are showing there is life after the Presidency, Ed said, and both are proving that saying about different strokes for different folks.

Meanwhile, Zeke Grubb said, back in Massachusetts the economy has turned into a nightmare. Michael Dukakis can't wake up from. He took credit for the miracle and now he's gitting the blame for a $500 million state budget deficit. His Administration is so financial shaky the legislature at last report was trying to cook up a scheme to get revenue from selling state licenses to illegal drug dealers. The deal would work like arrest insurance, Zeke explained. Pushers could buy licenses without identifying themselves. If they got busted with a license they paid the regular penalty. Without a license, their sentence would be 10 times the maximum fine and jail term. All of which sounds like there ain't no political life after losing a race for the Presidency, was Zeke's words.

Final, Bug Hookum got the floor to give his report on one economy expert's reason for high home prices. He said the 465 percent the price of a average home has gone up in the past 20 year is not a true measure, even taking the cheaper dollar in account. Back then nobody had heard of a Jakuzee and average folks were content with a one-car garage. Now they think two of everthing is standard equipment, and they want central air, music and vacuum to boot. Whatever a Jakuzee is, Bug said, two in ever home don't sound average, or even normal.

Yours truly,
Uncle Lew.

Craft Show Set Saturday

attraction at the Country Craft Show for the first time last year.

John and Gayle specialize in painted country wood decorations, ranging from miniature shelf sitters to sleds, wagons, and weather vanes made from 100-year-old barn wood. What started out slowly as a hobby has turned into a full-time business for the Fills. This past year they have exhibited at 40 different craft shows. John cuts and prepares all of the wood and Gayle does the painting and finishing touches. Gayle's favorite pieces are her Raggedy Ann and Andy figures, complete with buttons and bows, while John enjoys working primarily with the barn wood.

The Fills have enjoyed traveling all over Michigan over the past three years doing shows and are now planning to expand their craft show travels throughout the United States. They are constantly coming up with creative new ideas; all of which are their own designs. Some of the items planned for next year are over-sized painted blocks, sheep, and business card holders.

Artist ability has always been a way of life for John and Gayle. Gayle has always dabbled in some sort of craft; such as macramé, basket making, and painting; and John has always been creative with wood working. He enjoys making his own furniture when he is not busy cutting the wood accessories they sell. Be sure to visit the Fills' booth in the gymnasium.

These craftspeople plus many other very talented people will be selling their crafts at the Country Craft and Folk Art Show this Saturday, Oct. 7, at Chelsea High School. Hours of the show are 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Admission to the show is $1 for adults and 50 cents for children ages 6-12.

Proceeds from the show benefit the Chelsea Senior Citizens organization.

Popularity of this annual event has grown each year, and Marcy Stump, the promoter and organizer of the show, feels that with the wide range of very talented craftspeople attending this year, the show will be even better than it has been in the past.

Richardson-Gietek Vows Spoken In Chelsea Methodist Church

Mary Ann Richardson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gary Richardson of Evans, Ga., and Jeffrey Alexander Gietek, son of Mrs. Alberta Gietek of Sterling Heights and the late Roger Gietek were married Saturday, Aug. 19 at the First United Methodist church of Chelsea.

The Rev. Dr. Jerry Parker and Fr. Charles Irvin performed the ceremony.

Soloist was Sue Wescott who sang "The Wedding Song" and "My Treasure." The scripture reading was given by Camille Gietek, sister of the bridegroom from Vadena Heights, Minn.

The bride wore a white satin gown with a sweetheart neckline, fitted dropped waist with a bow accent in the back and a detachable train. The bodice was covered with french re-embroidered alencon lace which also accented the sheer long sleeves and the bottom of the gown. She carried a bouquet of white lilies, dendrobium, and freesia.

Maid of honor was Stephanie Grant, of Ann Arbor, friend of the bride. She wore a rose tea-length dress with a sweetheart neck line and short tulip sleeves. She carried a bouquet of stargaza lilies, white sweet roses and baby's breath.

Bridesmaids were Edie Oja, of Ishpeming, friend of the bride, Wendy Gietek and Gail Gietek, sisters of the bridegroom from Sterling Heights. Their dresses were the same style as the maid of honor's.

The bride's mother wore a pastel rose tea-length dress and the bridegroom's mother wore a pastel green tea-length dress.

Acolytes were Susan Hardy, cousin of the bride from Oroville, Calif., and Leah Resovsky, cousin of the bridegroom from Taylor. They wore dresses of white with pink floral print trimmed in pink.

Flower girl was Amy Hardy, cousin of the bride from Oroville, Calif. She wore a white dotted swiss dress trimmed in pink and carried a crochet basket of flowers.

Ring bearer was Wesley Gietek, cousin of the bridegroom from Grosse Pointe Park.

Best man was Greg Gietek, brother of the bridegroom from Sterling Heights. Groomsmen were Greg Striebel, friend of the bridegroom from Midland, Mike Staley, friend of the bridegroom from Howell, and Kevin Richardson, brother of the bride from Okemos.

A reception for 250 guests was held at the Dexter Knights of Columbus Hall. Cindy and Julie Hardy, cousins of the bride from Paradise, Calif., were in charge of the guest book and gifts. The couple spent their honeymoon in Florida and now reside in Madison, Wis..

Woman's Club Hears Speaker on Self-Motivation

Women's Club of Chelsea met at the Library Club Room Sept. 28, to hear Pat Spelzer speak on "How To Get More Out of Life."

Spelzer has taught at Jackson Community College, written a handbook for JCC for volunteers and designed and taught a self-motivation class for Jackson Area Career Center. At present she is associated with Jackson Trippers on travel going out of the Jackson area on day trips, week-enders and extended trips out of the country.

Spelzer's challenging and entertaining account of her experiences reminded us of our opportunities as women to influence family, direct young minds toward their goals, find new areas to venture with education and travel, to be more creative, to have a great bearing on marketing, and to pursue happiness in our own special way.

Preceding the program, president Ginny Johnson conducted a brief business meeting. A new member, Bertha Booker, was inducted and welcomed.

Guests for the meeting and program were Billie Zenz and Lois Moore.

Program chairperson, Linda Cole announced that the speaker for the next meeting on Oct. 10 will be Marjory Frank on the subject "All Dolled Up."

It will be "Bring A Guest Night." Any woman wishing to attend this meeting is most welcome. Please call membership chairperson Sylvia Gilbert, 475-8317, or president Ginny Johnson 475-8270.

Hostesses for the evening were Joyce Vogel and Marilyn Haug.

CHELSEA VILLAGE PRESIDENT Jerry Satterthwaite and Pat Pande, director of physical therapy at Chelsea Community Hospital, look over papers proclaiming Oct. 1-7 as National Physical Therapy Week. The public is invited to attend an open house at the department in Chelsea Community Hospital, Friday, Oct. 6, to bring attention to their activities. Refreshments will be served.

Physical Therapists Observe Open House

Physical therapists of Chelsea Community Hospital's Department of Physical Therapy will join in the celebration of National Physical Therapy Week, Oct. 1-7. A variety of activities to increase public awareness about the role of the physical therapist as a member of the health-care team will be offered.

Theme for National Physical Therapy Week is "Hands on Health." The theme expresses the direct involvement of physical therapy in health care. Physical therapy offers professional expertise in the treatment of patients of all ages and disabilities. Physical therapists can be found in schools, industry, hospitals, clinics and in private practice. They are able to offer such services as rehabilitation for orthopedic injuries or sports medicine, spinal rehabilitation, and the treatment of neurological conditions, including head injured patients. Physical therapists may specialize in a variety of treatment areas including the treatment of hand injuries, pain disorders or orthotic rehabilitation to train patients in the use of artificial limbs.

To become a physical therapist requires four to five years of college in an approved physical therapy program, followed by six months of internship in a clinical setting. In addition, an exam must be taken to receive licensure in Michigan.

"Physical therapy is a rewarding and challenging career for anyone with the desire to work closely with people," states Pat Pande, director of physical therapy at Chelsea Community Hospital. "I would encourage not only students just planning their course of college study to look into physical therapy, but also those looking for a second career to challenge them. The Hospital's Department is always available for tours and career information," added Pande.

The community is invited to attend an Open House for the Department of Physical Therapy on Friday, Oct. 6, between 2 p.m. and 6:30 p.m. Hors d'oeuvres and refreshments will be served. For more information call Pat Pande at 475-3947.

Chelsea Breathers Club to Hear Talk on Stress Management

"Stress Management" will be the topic discussed by Maggie Szymke at the next meeting of the Chelsea Breathers Club. The group will meet Saturday, Oct. 21 in Dining Rooms A & B at Chelsea Community Hospital, 775 S. Main St., Chelsea. The meeting will begin at 11 a.m. There is no charge for the meeting and no need to pre-register.

Chelsea Breathers Club, co-sponsored by the American Lung Association of Michigan and Chelsea Community Hospital is a social and educational program for persons with breathing problems due to chronic lung disease. Family members are encouraged to attend.

For more information, please call the American Lung Association of Michigan at 313-996-1030.

Key Club Serves 400 at Welcome Back Breakfast

On the first day of school the Chelsea High School Key Club had a breakfast for the returning students. Over 400 of the staff and students were served. Organizing members of the club were surprised at the turnout and very pleased too! They expressed their appreciation to the Donut Shop and Jiffy Mix for their contributions.

Adult Education Classes Scheduled At Chelsea Hospital

Chelsea Community Hospital will offer an education class, a women's lecture and a two-part program the week of Oct. 9. In the "Cholesterol Lowering Class" sources of saturated fat and cholesterol will be discussed. The class will meet on Tuesday, Oct. 10 from 5:30 to 6:30 p.m. and Wednesday, Oct. 11, 10 to 11 a.m. at Chelsea Community Hospital. Contact the Education Department at 475-3935 for further information.

The Women's Health lecture, "Enhancing Your Future," will give women a chance to express concerns and will highlight ways to improve your self esteem, manage stress, and make life more satisfying. This lecture will be held Wednesday, Oct. 11 from 7 to 9 p.m. at Chelsea Community Hospital, Private Dining Room "B." Contact the Women's Health Center, 475-3979, for pre-registration and further information.

The two part program, "Coping With Alzheimer's Disease and Related Illnesses," will help family members and professionals understand treatment of Alzheimer's Disease or a related illness, how a diagnosis is made, medications, and how to care for yourself while you are living or working with someone with memory loss and confusion. Part I will be held Wednesday, Oct. 11 from 7 to 9 p.m. and Part II on Wednesday, Oct. 18 from 7 to 9 p.m. Both sessions will be in the Woodland Rooms of Chelsea Community Hospital. Contact the Education Department at 475-3935 for further information.

Pre-registration required for all classes. For further information call the Education Department (313) 475-3935.

David P. Klemer Receives NSF Research Award

David P. Klemer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl M. Klemer of Chelsea, recently received a Research Initiation Award from the National Science Foundation for a project entitled "Two-Terminal Monolithic Solid-State Devices for Millimeter-Wave and Submillimeter-Wave Circuit Applications." NSF Research Initiation Awards are reserved for faculty members who have not previously received direct research support from an agency of the Federal Government.

Klemer is an assistant professor in the Electrical Engineering Department at the University of Texas at Arlington, and is affiliated with the NSF Center for Advanced Electron Devices and Systems there. He joined the department in August of 1988 and has been involved with various aspects of microwave solid-state device and circuit design and fabrication.

During the summer months of 1989, Klemer worked at Texas Instruments, Inc., in Dallas, doing numerical modeling of microwave gallium arsenide field-effect transistors. His employment was funded jointly by Texas Instruments and by a NSF Industry/University Cooperative Research Fellowship.

Klemer, a 1974 CHS graduate, received his B.S.E., M.S.E. and Ph.D. degrees from the University of Michigan in 1977, 1978 and 1982, respectively.

Stolen Motorhome Found in Dearborn

A motorhome stolen from Lloyd Bridges Traveland in Chelsea recently turned up in the lot of a Dearborn dealer of motorhomes, according to Chelsea police.

According to police, the vehicle identification number had been altered and the ignition had been damaged, but a key was in the ignition.

An investigation led to the arrest of a 37-year-old Sturgis man, Ronald E. Flint, police said.

No further details were available.

Outdoor Report

From DNR District Office in Jackson

Wildlife . . .

Our Wildlife Office has received many calls about the issuance of Block Antlerless Deer Permits to farmers in District 13. These permits are only for landowners who have documented crop damage two out of the past five years. Documented damage could be past issuance of a crop depredation permit to shoot deer where the damage is significant or a damage assessment report that indicates such damage whether or not a shooting permit was ever issued.

All deer management units in District 13 should have 100% subscriber success in being issued an antlerless permit this year. For these landowners not qualifying for block permits, there should be a good reservoir of hunters available with bonus permits to harvest antlerless deer where there are crop damage problems.

Food Prices Up Slightly Last Month

Retail food prices were up fractionally in August compared to the previous month, according to a survey conducted by the American Farm Bureau Federation. The average market basket price of 16 frequently purchased food items totaled $28.99 in August compared with $28.93 in July—a 6-cent increase.

Higher prices for ground chuck, cheese, apples, potatoes, flour, milk, bacon, and cooking oil were partially offset by lower prices for sirloin tip roast, pork chops, chicken, bread, cereal and mayonnaise. A five-pound bag of apples rose 10 cents, while a pound of pork chops dropped 10 cents.

The survey also showed retail food prices 4% higher than a year earlier. A similar market basket of food items cost $27.95 in August of 1988. The largest year-to-year price increases were recorded for potatoes (32%), cheese (10%), cereal and flour (7%), milk and ground chuck (5%). Items declining in price included bacon (5%), pork chops (4%) and corn-based cooking oil (3%).

The Farm Bureau survey was based on reports submitted by Farm Bureau volunteers in 21 states, including Michigan.

have met with substandard results this season. The late May monsoons washed out rearing ponds at Wilder Creek (redeer sunfish) and Hemlock Lake (walleyes). However, we acquired additional redeer sunfish broodstock and planted them in the Union Lake Co-operative pond following the northern pike harvest. This pond will be harvested this week, and the redeer sunfish fingerlings will be planted in Rose Lake (Lake of the Woods), Branch county.

We raised approximately 50,000 walleye fingerlings in the Jackson Prison Rearing Pond. Although the number of fish produced was less than we had hoped for, these walleyes were larger than normal (4 inches plus) and in good condition except for the last fish out of the pond. Survival of these larger walleye fingerlings should be much higher than survival of the two-inch fish planted in Big Wolf Lake (Jackson county), and the Grand River (Jackson county). We will be electrofishing these lakes in October to evaluate the success of recent and earlier walleye plants.

The Michigan Center Lake Co-operative Pike Marsh produced 4,925 northern pike fingerlings this spring which were planted in the Center Lake Chain (Jackson county). Also the Union Lake Co-operative Pike Marsh produced 2,500 pike fingerlings which were stocked in Union Lake (Branch county).

Social Services Makes Call for Holiday Planning

Chelsea Social Services staff wishes to remind the Chelsea Community—families, clubs and organizations—that the 1989 holiday season is about to begin!

The holiday program for families in need will once again be co-ordinated by Chelsea Social Service Board, staff and volunteers. The in-gathering for this event will be on Dec. 14 at Sylvan Town Hall between 10 a.m. and 3 p.m. Anyone interested in contributing gifts of goods, toys, food or money should contact Jackie Riethmiller at 475-1925 or on Thursdays at 475-1581.

Vincent Price's father once played the piano on Michigan's Idler Riverboat that now houses Magnolia Grille Restaurant.

ED LEWIS was installed as president of the Kiwanis Club of Chelsea Monday night by Lt. Gov. Warren Atkinson, right. With Lewis is his wife, Jean.

DAVE DONOVAN and his wife, Katherine, listened to Lt. Gov. Warren Atkinson praise Dave's service to the Kiwanis Club of Chelsea during Monday night's installation ceremonies in the dining room at Chelsea Community Hospital. Donovan is the club's out-going president.

QUOTES

DONALD A. COLE, Director

"Who lives content with little, possesses everything . . ."
—Shakespeare.

It is well to be content with what we have. If that be little, at least the absence of more does not make us miserable. There is no peace of mind in being jealous of another's possessions.

Contentment with what we have does not mean that we should forgo all desire or action for improvement, but a sensible willingness to be happy with what we have . . . at least for the present . . . makes waiting for improvement much more tolerable.

When your first call is to us, we understand both your needs and what must be done. We can take over most of your duties.

Flu Shots Clinics Slated

Two flu shot clinics for senior citizens will be conducted on Wednesday, Oct. 4 and on Wednesday, Oct. 11, 12:30 to 1:30 p.m., at the Chelsea Senior Citizens' Center in North school. All persons over the age of 50 are eligible to receive these injections.

The clinic is sponsored by the University of Michigan Family Practice Center. Nurses from the Family Practice Center will assist at this clinic.

Anyone who is allergic to chicken eggs should not participate in the program. Those who do qualify for the program should check with their physician to determine the advisability of receiving the immunizations.

A special reduced fee of $6 has been established. This reduced rate applies only to the flu shots given in these two special clinics at the Senior Citizens' Center at North school.

Pre-registration is requested by calling the Chelsea Community Education Center at 475-9830 or the Senior Center at 475-9242.

By the end of the century, the median age of the labor force will increase from about 38 to 39, according to the U. S. Labor Department. During the same period, the number of workers over age 55 will slowly increase, while the number between the ages of 16 and 24 will be almost one million less than in 1986.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Senior Citizens of Chelsea,
This note is to thank all the Senior Citizens of Chelsea who were so kind and cared for my parents, Florence and Hugh Sizemore.

My parents kept active and interested in life because of the very good and healthy seniors program in Chelsea. Community involvement was always an important part of their lives and they enjoyed the fellowship of your group.

Because my parents were both originally from small towns, it was nice for them to be retired in Chelsea. After living in Detroit for many years, it was refreshing and pleasant for them. It also made my life much easier since I felt my parents were in a safer environment where they could be active and useful contributors to society.

All the services, entertainment, crafts and programs that you provide are very worthwhile and gratefully appreciated by a daughter of two senior citizens like me. I still haven't fully realized that they are both gone but at least I have good memories of their last years because of groups like yours. I know you helped make their senior years a little happier and productive.

Thank you again for your friendship and kindness to my parents.

Washtenaw County Sheriff Douglas J. Harvey led a raid Friday night, which netted 37 Chelsea youths and a keg of beer. The Chelsea youths, accompanied by two youngsters from Ann Arbor and one from Jackson, were all between the ages of 16 and 24. Detective Lt. Irwin Hollis said they had received a tip several days before the keg party and were all set for the raid at 11:45 p.m. Friday night at the American Legion Home at Cavanaugh Lake. The lock on the lower door of the American Legion Home Post 31 had been broken, and members of the group had been told they could not use the American Legion Home if teen-agers were going to be present.

as Fire Prevention Week and he called upon all Americans to reduce "the needless waste caused by preventable fires." Along with thousands of other communities through North America, Chelsea observed the oldest of all special weeks with a special campaign under the sponsorship of the fire department headed by Chief Ted Balmer. The slogan for the campaign was "Don't Give Fire a Place to Start."

A follow-up of the first 100 children to undergo "blue baby" operations at children's Memorial Hospital, Chicago, shows that only 14 children had died in an eight-year period. Results were classified as good in 88 of the children and fair in 16. One child was in poor condition and one was unimproved. Before the operation was devised in 1945, "blue babies" had little chance of survival. The operation provided a new and wider passage from the heart to the lungs, by-passing a constriction which prevented the blood from getting enough oxygen. The lack of oxygen was responsible for poor physical development and the blue color of the skin.

Rain No Deterrent For Hot To Trot Sailing Regatta

The Hot To Trot regatta sponsored by the Huron Portage Yacht Club was a great success despite continuous rain on Saturday which wet everything but the skippers' and crews' enthusiasm.

Twenty-four Flying Scot and 17 Interlake sailboats participated in the two-day regatta held Sept. 15-16 at Newport Beach Club, home of HPYC, on Portage Lake near Dexter.

On Saturday, light to moderate winds of 5-12 knots, cool temperatures, and rain proved once again how serious racers can be in the pursuit of fun and competition on the water! Three races were held, after which a steak dinner was served.

Sunday brought sunshine, warmer temperatures, winds of 15-20 knots and gusting, for the two races held. An interesting course of two triangles, one to port and the other to starboard, along with a windward leeward, windward finish added to the excitement of the day.

Awards were given to the top five finishers in each fleet as follows: Interlake, 1st W. Bradley and crew, Lasalle, O.; 2nd, C. Chapin and crew, Plymouth; 3rd, T. Ehman and crew, Dexter; 4th, F. Meno and crew, Bay Point, Fla.; 5th, L. Betz and crew, Ann Arbor.

Flying Scot—1st, T. Ehman and crew, San Diego, Calif.; 2nd, D. Winston and crew, Dexter; 3rd, D. O'Haver and crew, Dexter; 4th, R. Weaver and crew, Dexter; 5th, J. Christensen and crew, Dexter.

The Hot To Trot is an annual event held approximately the second weekend in September and is open to Flying Scot and Interlake sailboats. HPYC also has Laser, Laser II and Sunfish fleets which along with the Flying Scot and Interlake fleets, race from May through September.

Portage Lake Residents Discover Texas Couple Owns Land Under Water

By Brian Hamilton

This story is a lesson that what is perfectly legal might not necessarily be ethical and can be downright objectionable to some.

Some Portage Lake residents were shocked recently to learn that they only own land up to the water's edge and that a Texas couple owns the land under the water. And now the owners of those 12 residences are being asked to pay $385 each for essentially the right to put a dock off their property and walk in the water.

It's an unusual situation, and some residents feel as though money is being extorted from them for a privilege they've enjoyed for years and most lake shore residents at lakes throughout the state take for granted.

In September of 1988 Dennis and Suzan Sullens, of College Station, Tex., purchased the underwater property off the Portage Lake Shores Subdivision at public auction, as well as other properties under water, from the Michigan Department of Natural Resources for a total of $10,600. The state had seized the lands when property taxes were not paid. The Portage Lake Shores property was seized in 1988, according to the state.

According to the Washtenaw County Treasurer's Office, the 30 acres of underwater property had an assessed value of $500, which means taxes probably weren't more than $30 per year.

According to Rick Schramm of the DNR, in more than 80 percent of the cases, the owner of shoreline property also owns the underwater property to approximately the center of the lake, depending on the shape of the lake and other factors.

However, in this case, the owner of the property before it was developed apparently transferred title of the shoreline property but did not include the underwater property. When she failed to pay property taxes, the land was seized.

"I never dreamed something like this would happen," said Patricia Newkirk Hardy, ironically the former register of deeds for the county, and apparent former owner of the property.

"Apparent" because Hardy said she never owned the property because her name was not "on any records, and never has been."

"My name was on the tax rolls, and I didn't pay the taxes, but I didn't own the property," Hardy said.

"It is a very confusing situation. There was some sort of mix-up in the property description."

Dennis Sullens has divided the 30 acres into 12 separate parcels and is offering them at $385 each to the adjoining property owners. His first offer was in April, and a follow-up letter was sent this month.

Sullens said in his April letter that "my delima (sic) is that of owning lake and lake frontage without a lot and yours is that of owning a lot without lake or lake access." He said his "intention is to resolve the problem while being fair to all parties."

"As indicated previously, I will protect my property from all encroachment and trespass, and I must do so to the full extent of the law," Sullens said in his September letter.

"Upon your failure to respond... my attorney will be instructed to initiate proper and appropriate legal procedure to free my property of all existing encroachment, and to prevent all future unapproved usage of any nature."

One affected property owner, who has lived at the lake for more than 20 years, said the only reason most people own lakefront property is to have access to the lake. That owner took Sullens' threat to mean that if they do not pay the $385 he would force the removal of all docks and other structures that have been in use for many years.

"What (Sullens) is doing is perfectly legal," said Gary Hartsuff, property specialist for the state, who conducted the sale.

"Whether it's ethical or not is another question."

The average age of retirement for U.S. male workers has been steadily declining, according to the U.S. Labor Department. In 1980, 33 percent of males 65 and older remained in the workforce; in 1980, the percentage had dropped to 19 percent, and by the year 2000, only 10 percent of men 65 and older are expected to be working.

CHS Grad Matt Weid Killed In Pole Vaulting Accident

Matt Weid, a 1989 Chelsea High school graduate, described as a happy young man who was always willing to help others, died Monday, Sept. 26 in a freak pole-vaulting accident at Southwestern Michigan College in Dowagiac, where he was a freshman.

Weid, who transferred to CHS after the fall term last year, suffered head injuries after a fall from the pole-vault pit.

According to Southwestern coaches, Weid was working with a 12-foot training pole when the accident occurred.

At the end of a jump, Weid apparently turned a little too far and came down on his side rather than his feet, said his Chelsea coach Ted Wilson.

When Weid stood up, he was apparently off balance and fell off the back of the pit onto pavement, a fall of no more than two feet. The back is the only side of the pit not bordered by grass.

"It is a real devastating loss," Wilson said.

"He was a terrific kid. The way he did things, you knew he would succeed in life."

Wilson said Weid was always willing to help his friends and teammates.

"He probably didn't accomplish what he wanted to in pole vaulting here, and it was very hard on him," Wilson said.

"However, he was able to look beyond that and work with his teammates and teach them about the sport.

Any points the other vaulters scored in meets were due to Matt."

Wilson said the last time he saw Weid was at the Chelsea Community Fair.

"He told me that he was going to pole vault 15 feet this year and that he would call me when he did," Wilson said.

"I was looking forward to the call."

Weid was also an accomplished football player and was known as a hard-hitter at Brooklyn Columbia Central High school, where he last played.

Weid also enjoyed waterskiing and had been offered a job/scholarship package at Sea World in Orlando, Fla., if he would simply ski there.

Weid's father, Art, has supervised the media at University of Michigan football games for 28 years, and Matt would occasionally help out there.

Matt Weid's heart was transplanted into a 32-year-old Grand Rapids man.

His kidneys and corneas were also scheduled to be transplanted.

Funeral services were held Friday in Ann Arbor at the First Presbyterian Church, and burial was in Washtenong Memorial Park.

Memorial tributes may be made to the Matthew J. Weid Scholarship Fund, c/o Office of the President, Southwestern Michigan College, Cherry Grove Rd., Dowagiac, Mich., 49047.

National 4-H Week Being Observed

4-H is America's largest informal educational program for boys and girls ages 5-19. 4-H involves nearly 4.5 million young people—from the farm, city and in between.

Projects and activities meet all interests from foods, performing arts, crafts, woodworking and animals. 4-Hers learn practical skills in hundreds of projects. But more importantly they are developing attitudes and habits that help them meet the challenges of today and tomorrow. 4-H makes the "Best Better."

If you would like to volunteer your time as an adult or if you would like to join as a member, call your local 4-H office at 971-0079 for information about a club near you.

By the end of the century, the median age of the labor force will increase from about 38 to 39, according to the U.S. Labor Department. During the same period, the number of workers over age 65 will be almost one million less than in 1988.

JIM BREDERNITZ of Chelsea shot a 1,200 pound bull moose last month in northern Ontario in an area accessible only by airplane. The 20-point antlers, which he plans to have mounted, were 49 inches across. Bredernitz was hunting with a six-member group that included Jack Schroen, of Grass Lake, and Ron Trachet, of Chelsea. With him is his son.

Boy Scouts Mountain Man Rendezvous Set

The skills of the early 1800's will be practiced and displayed at the Mountain Man Rendezvous, Friday, Saturday and Sunday, Oct. 13-14-15, at Camp Munhake as Boy Scouts invade the Bruin Lake campsite for a week-end of great fun.

The Mountain Men will authentically camp in the program area, and run 11 program stations on Saturday.

Program stations will include two-man log sawing, tomahawk throw, knife throw, bullet casting, flint and steel fire-making, shooting of black powder rifles, making beef jerky and hard tack, clothing of the time, candle-making demonstrations, Mountain Man Soup, and blacksmithing.

Boy Scout troops will be arriving Friday night, and setting up their campsites.

Scout uniforms are not required. The Scouts are encouraged to dress in clothing appropriate for wear during the 1800's.

Saturday's program will start at 9 a.m.

During the evening, judging of a Mountain Man meal—Indian fry-bread, mountain beans, rendezvous stew, and/or sassafras tea—will be conducted.

Scouts wishing to participate should pick a recipe, cook it, and enter it to be judged.

Recipes have been mailed to the Scoutmasters.

An 8 p.m. church service will be held, Saturday night, with the Mountain Men putting on a special campfire at 9 p.m.

Troops will be assigned District Camps, and registration will be held at the District Headquarters.

Troops from out-of-council will be assigned to camp with one of the Wolverine Districts.

Only one vehicle will be permitted in the camping area to deliver troop equipment, and the vehicle must be returned to the parking lot after unloading.

Cost of the Mountain Man Rendezvous event will be $7 per person, to cover the program supplies, patch, Mountain Man soup, insurance, and special camporee costs, including trash pick-up, latrine maintenance, trucking and literature.

A trading post will be operated at the dining hall, where rendezvous coffee cups, hat pins, collector items, and supplies will be sold.

A Scout memorabilia display will be set up in the dining hall.

District Rendezvous chairmen are: for Munhake, Rick Dolato, 517-546-9652; for Lenape, Bill Bates, 517-283-5133; for R. Waters, Bill Findley, 242-6818; Washtenong, Roy More, 663-6203.

North School Open House Slated Thursday Evening

North Elementary school will hold an open house Thursday, Oct. 5 (tomorrow) from 6:30-8 p.m.

All parents are welcome to attend. Refreshments will be served in the cafeteria.

However, individual parent-teacher conferences will not be part of the evening.

Boy, 13, Caught Stealing Cigarettes

A 13-year-old Washington St. youth was caught stealing cigarettes from Ames Department Store on Saturday, Sept. 30.

The cigarettes had a value of $1.45, police said. The boy was caught by store security.

Dogs Trounce Western, Host Rival Dexter Friday

Chelsea Bulldog offense put on another explosive performance while the defense had its best game of the season as the Bulldogs pounded Jackson County Western, 40-12, on the road last Friday.

The Bulldogs have outscored their last two opponents 90-24.

Jude Quilter scored four more touchdowns, ran for 204 yards, and caught six passes for 175 yards, quarterback Kyle Plank threw for 222 yards, and the Chelsea offense generally moved the ball at will all night long. Three apparent touchdowns were called back or the score would have been far more lopsided. The Bulldogs punted only one time.

But what made head coach Gene LaFave the happiest was the performance of his defense, which held JCW to negative yardage rushing until the fourth quarter and effectively contained the usually-strong passing game of quarterback Derek Wirebaugh. JCW gained a total of 155 yards, 75 on the play that turned into their final score.

"We played our best defensive game of the year," LaFave said.

"We really did the job in the first half and until we put our subs in late in the game their running game had lost yardage. Our offensive game was also in high gear and we totally dominated the game. The kids are really playing well now."

Defensive end Craig Ferry led the Bulldogs with eight tackles, and nose guard Tim VanSchoick added seven, perhaps the first time all season the defensive line has led the team in tackles. Wirebaugh was sacked eight times and hit during numerous pass attempts.

Chelsea also played virtually errorless football as JCW picked off a pass late in the game. However, penalties probably hurt more than their opponents did as Chelsea was flagged 14 times for 120 yards.

The Bulldogs took a 19-0 half-time lead and were never seriously threatened.

Ron Stacy's 26-yard field goal gave the Bulldogs the early lead. From then on it was all Bulldogs.

A long pass over the middle to Quilter set up his first touchdown with :35 remaining in the first quarter.

Quilter scored his second touchdown with 6:07 left in the half as he swept to the right side for a 42-yard score.

Western scored first in the second half on a one-yard run at the 6:06 mark of the third quarter.

Plank's 25-yard pass to Quilter with 2:31 to go in the third period capped a 66-yard, nine-play drive. Plank ran for the two points and Chelsea led 27-6.

With 10:47 left in the game, Plank kept the ball on the option for a six-yard score, ending a 72-yard drive. After Stacy's kick gave Chelsea a 34-6 lead, Tucker Steele took over at quarterback. Steele guided the Bulldogs on a 40-yard, three-play drive for Chelsea's final score of the game at the 8:32 mark. Quilter ran for his fourth touchdown, this one from five yards.

Chelsea hosts the Dexter Dreadnaughts this Friday as they look to even their record at 3-3.

Dexter features probably the league's best quarterback in senior Marty Walsh, who is both a deadly runner and passer.

"Walsh is a game-breaker, much the same as Jessie Walker is at Milan, Branko Vulicevic is at Saline, and Jude is for us," LaFave said.

"He will give us problems and our challenge will be to contain him. But if we concentrate too much on him (running back Tim) Brockman will hurt us. Their offense has been up and down this year, but I'm sure they'll be ready for us."

Dexter usually has a sound defense, and this year is no exception, LaFave said.

LaFave said his team is anxious to make up for last year's loss at Dexter, one of the few times the Dreadnaughts have beaten the Bulldogs during LaFave's tenure.

"It ought to be a good game."

JUDE QUILTER LEAPS to snag a Kyle Plank pass during first-half action at Jackson County Western last Friday. The Bulldogs won 40-12 as Quilter scored four touchdowns.

Fenton No Match For Bulldog Tankers

Chelsea Bulldog swimmers whipped Fenton 93-79 last Tuesday, Sept. 26.

According to Chelsea coach Dave Jolly, the Bulldogs dominated almost every event and many Chelsea swimmers dropped their times substantially.

Chelsea's medley relay team of Melissa Thiel, Michelle Hollo, Ericka Boughton, and Kelly Cross swam to a first-place time of 2:05.85.

Thiel took the 200 individual medley by nearly four seconds.

"Melissa was very impressive," Jolly said.

The Bulldogs dominated the 50 freestyle as Cross was first, Jennifer McEachern was third, and Sara Nicola took fifth.

Chelsea's Debbie Webb took the diving with 182.3 points while Sheri Dukes took third with 150.75 points.

Boughton won the 100 freestyle in 1:00.01.

"It wasn't a real fast time for Ericka, but it was enough to win," Jolly said.

In the 100 backstroke, Thiel took second place, just :0.8 out of first.

"She knew it would be a hard race," Jolly said.

Hollo took the 100 breaststroke by more than nine seconds with a time of 1:16.94, which Jolly called a "smart, but strong race."

Chelsea's A relay team placed second in the 400 freestyle relay and the B team was fourth.

"Chelsea is swimming some very tough teams," Jolly said.

"And Chelsea swimming is on the rise."

Dogs Whip Dexter, Tecumseh, To Stay on Top of Conference

Chelsea Bulldogs have emerged as the team to beat for the Southeastern Conference basketball title as they rolled past Dexter and Tecumseh in action last week.

On Thursday, the Bulldogs hosted the Tecumseh Indians and pulled away in the second half for a 45-33 win. Last year Chelsea knocked off the Indians for the conference title, as well as the district title. Coach Rahn Rosentreter said at the beginning of the season they were the team to beat this year.

"Tecumseh has the quickness and good outside shooting and they must have had the incentive considering what we did to them last year," Rosentreter said.

"So from that standpoint I'm surprised we won. However, we got a good over-all team effort, especially on defense from the middle of the second quarter to the middle of the third. And that made the difference."

Rosentreter's Bulldogs out-scored the Indians during that stretch, 19-4, and took a 35-22 lead at the end of the third quarter.

Tecumseh cut the lead to seven points mid-way through the fourth quarter, but could get no closer.

"I've got to give a lot of credit to Colleen Scharphorn and Mercedes Hammer," Rosentreter said.

"They came off the bench and gave us a lot of scoring from the weak side when Tecumseh was double and triple teaming Allison Brown. Mercedes did a good job of playing her kind of game."

Hammer led the Dogs in scoring with 12 points, and Scharphorn scored 10.

Carrie Flintoft also had a fine game in Rosentreter's estimation.

"She was very consistent. She's not all that noticeable during the game, but she does an awful lot to help us."

Flintoft and Brown each had nine points. Kristin Bohlender and Amy Thomson each had two points, and Shawn Losey scored one.

The smaller Bulldogs also won the battle of the boards as Chelsea had a 23-19 rebound advantage.

The one portion of the game where the Bulldogs failed to execute was at the foul line, where they were 9-21.

Chelsea won at Dexter last Tuesday, Sept. 26, 36-25. Again, one quarter made the difference for Chelsea as they out-scored Dexter 18-2 in the fourth quarter.

"We won because of our defensive effort, especially in the fourth quarter," Rosentreter said.

"Everyone is contributing."

Scharphorn scored all eight of her points in the fourth quarter and took (Continued on page 12)

SPORTS NOTES

BY BRIAN HAMILTON

It's beginning to shape up as another excellent year for girls sports at Chelsea High school.

Pat Clarke's cross country team has emerged as the team to beat for the Southeastern Conference title. Milan, last year's state B champion, was beaten easily by the Bulldogs. Milan was the team Clarke thought was the team to beat.

The freshman runners are probably stronger than Clarke ever expected, and his team captains are starting to drop their times. With continued improvement, the girls have a legitimate shot at a state title, assuming they get by their tough regional. That regional will feature nearly half of the state's top 10 teams.

Where there is good cross country, there is often a good track team. Coach Bill Bainton shouldn't have much to worry about this spring as far as his distance events go, which will free up his worrying for other parts of his team.

Rahn Rosentreter's basketball team is probably the favorite to win the SEC after knocking off Tecumseh at home last Thursday. Solid team defense is beginning to pay off. In addition, Rosentreter seems to have one or two girls come off the bench each game who make a big impact, and it's not always predictable who the substitute star of the game will be.

The Bulldogs, while not exactly a scoring machine, seem to be scoring more consistently than they have in recent years. They don't necessarily get a lot of shots, but they usually hit a decent percentage.

Maybe the biggest bug in their game is inconsistent free throw shooting.

Dave Jolly's swim team is having a fine season in terms of wins and losses. While it's nice to win, many swimming coaches are worried more about seeing consistent time drops as they prepare invitationals and the post-season. And Jolly is seeing that, too.

The need for on-staff coaches, a problem at many, many schools, is more acute at Chelsea High school than it has been for many years.

For example, with the exception of freshman coach Lonnie Mitchell, head football coach Gene LaFave doesn't have a single assistant coach employed in the school district. That doesn't necessarily make them bad coaches. It's just that practice scheduling, communication, and a whole host of other routine items become chores. Plus, the players don't have the opportunity to develop the same rapport as they would with an on-staff coach.

Perhaps it's coincidence, perhaps not, but take a look at other CHS athletic programs that have good participation and, for the most part, success year after year. They are sports with a history of on-staff coaching: softball (Bill Wescott, Charlie Waller, Pat Clarke), cross country (Pat Clarke), girls track (Bill Bainton), wrestling (Kerry Kargel), baseball (Wayne Welton). I'm sure I've left a few out.

It's easy to say hire more teachers who can coach, but the problem is more complex than that. The whole issue addresses the district's philosophy toward extra-curricular activities in general and their relative importance to a child's education. It will be interesting to see how the district's "Project Outreach" survey addresses this question and how the community feels about it.

I'm pulling for the varsity football Bulldogs to even their record at 3-3 with a victory over Marty Walsh and the Dexter Dreadnaughts this Friday at Nietaus Field.

I'll be surprised if the Dreadnaughts can contain running back Jude Quilter. Nobody has so far. Quarterback Kyle Plank is coming into his own as both a runner and passer. Chelsea should score a lot of points again, although probably not as many as they have the last two weeks.

So the outcome of the game will probably rest on the shoulders of the Bulldog defense. If Chelsea can hold the Dreadnaughts to fewer than 20 points, they stand a good chance to win. Just a hunch.

With Milan's upset of Saline last Friday, the SEC football title is up for grabs. Pinckney, Saline, and Milan each have one conference loss.

They've all played each other, too, which means a team like Chelsea can have a big say over who wins the title. Chelsea plays Pinckney in a few weeks in what could be the biggest game in the SEC this year.

KRISTIN BOHLENDER takes a set shot during the Bulldogs' 45-33 victory over the Tecumseh Indians at home last Thursday.

Boy Harriers Whip Railsplitters

Chelsea boys cross country team had a relatively easy 22-37 victory over the Lincoln Railsplitters last Monday, Sept. 25 at Inverness Golf Course.

Holden Harris ran his best race of the season to record his first win ever with a time of 17:41. In addition, Jim Hassett, Ben Vermeylen, Kelly Beard, Jason Allen, and Justin White all registered their best times at Inverness as the Dogs recorded seven of the top 10 placers.

"We are a rapidly improving boys team and I'm confident that if this continues we'll be a force to be reckoned with later in the season," said Chelsea coach Pat Clarke.

With the win, the Bulldogs are 2-1 in the Southeastern Conference, in a second place tie.

Other Chelsea places and times included: Brian Zangara, 3rd, 17:54; Hassett, 4th, 17:56; Vermeylen, 6th, 18:03; Joe Blough, 8th, 18:27; Beard, 9th, 18:39; Allen, 10th, 18:43; Jeff Latimer, 12th, 18:44; Erich Hammer, 13th, 18:58; White, 17th, 19:33; Jake Rindle, 18th, 19:37; Shawn Castleberry, 20th, 19:55; Rob Jaques, 22nd, 20:37; Brian Adress, 25th, 21:25; Tobin Strong, 27th, 21:52; Dave Sayer, 29th, 22:03; Andrew Parker, 31st, 22:52; J.J. Hanke, 33rd, 23:37.

In the Chelsea Invitational last Saturday, which is run by classes, senior Brian Zangara, juniors Ben Vermeylen and Jim Hassett, and sophomores Chris Wright and Jake Rindle each took medals. It was Wright's first varsity meet ever and he had the second fastest time on the team.

Senior places and times included: Zangara, 9th, 17:39; Latimer, 17th, 18:26; Castleberry, 22nd, 18:26; Hammer, 23rd, 19:00; Harris, 30th, 19:46.

Junior places and times were: Vermeylen, 6th, 18:03; Hassett, 7th, 18:04; Blough, 12th, 18:31; Beard, 18th, 19:12; White, 23rd, 20:06; Adress, 25th, 20:19.

Sophomore places and times were:

KELLY BEARD and his Bulldog teammates had a relatively easy meet against the Lincoln Railsplitters at Inverness Golf Course last Monday.

Wright, 6th, 17:56; Rindle, 9th, 18:41; Allen, 12th, 18:56; and Jaques, 24th, 22:22.

Freshman places and times were: Strong, 11th, 20:32; Zatkovich, 13th, 20:47; Sayer, 15th, 20:58; Parker, 21st, 22:05; and Hanke, 25th, 23:06.

The seniors finished fifth, juniors were second, sophomores were third, and the freshmen were fifth.

control of the offensive game.

Chelsea and Dexter almost always play low scoring games, but Chelsea's 36 points was the most a Rosentreter team has scored in Dexter.

Brown tied Scharphorn for the scoring honors with eight. Losey, Bohlender, and Hammer each had six points, and Flintoft scored two.

"We've played three of the best teams in the league, and beaten two on the road," Rosentreter said.

"We're in control of our own destiny. But we can't sit back and think we've got the league won. It's way too early."

Chelsea is 4-0 in the SEC, and 6-4 over-all.

Beach 8th Grade Gridders Beat Tecumseh in Opener

The eighth grade Beach Middle school football team opened the year with 56 candidates for two teams.

The program is basically an eighth grade program that does allow for a few seventh graders. The two teams are divided into an A team and a B team for competition against other schools. Charles Waller is the head coach with Mike Bohlender and Frank Waller as his assistants.

The A team opened the season Sept. 19 with a 42-20 win over Tecumseh.

Tecumseh scored first, driving the ball 60 yards after an interception, taking a 6-0 lead.

The Chelsea offense sputtered again as Chelsea fumbled the ball after driving to the Tecumseh 30-yard line.

However, the Bullpup defense stopped Tecumseh cold and after a fake punt the Chelsea offense punched the ball in to tie the score, 6-6. Aric Dougherty and Jay Westcott keyed the offense, powering the ball off tackle behind strong blocking.

Tecumseh came back with a strong drive, finished off by a 30-yard sprint around the Chelsea right end for a touchdown. Tecumseh had a 12-6 half-time lead.

In the second half the Bulldogs came out strong, stopping Tecumseh after the kick-off and driving in for the score. Again it was the tandem of Westcott and Dougherty that powered the drive. From there the Chelsea offense took control of the game. After getting the ball back, quarterback Pat Steele hit split end Colby Skelton for a 55-yard touchdown pass. Tim Westcott ran the extra points in and Chelsea had a 20-12 lead.

Skelton then made the defensive play of the game, picking off a Tecumseh pass and taking the ball back to the Tecumseh three-yard line. Westcott scored on the next play and Westcott converted the extra points, pushing the score to 28-12.

On Chelsea's next possession Steele once again connected with Skelton for a touchdown, this time from 40 yards out. Steele then tossed to Chris Gibson, the Chelsea tight end, for the two-point conversion. Tecumseh scored on their next drive.

Chelsea pushed the ball across the goal line one last time to make the final score 42-20. Dougherty, Westcott and Skelton each had two touchdowns, while Westcott had two, two-point conversions, and Gibson had one.

Waller praised the play of Gabe Bernhard, inside linebacker, David Brock, outside linebacker, and Matt Fischer, nose guard.

In the B team game, Chelsea played well defensively, but failed to stop Tecumseh on the reverse and the sweep. Tecumseh took a 12-0 lead in first on two reverse plays.

In the second half Chelsea was beaten only once to the outside, but once again it led to a Tecumseh score and the final score of 20-0.

Offensively the B team struggled due primarily to inexperience. David Seitz played his first game at quarterback and Matt Horn and David Freitas ran the ball hard, but the offense never jelled, Waller said.

Two excellent Chelsea drives in the second half ended in fumbles, and the final drive stalled inside the Tecumseh 20.

Dirk Wales, Tom Hubbell, and Calvin Poe played well on the defense with excellent support from Charles Alexander and Mike Bainton, Waller said.

THIS NORTHERN PIKE was caught last week at Lake Winnebago by Blase Lipiec, right, and his father, Edward, of Chelsea. The 35 1/2" fish weighed in at 8 1/2 pounds. Blase was using a bomber spinner when the fish struck.

Bulldog JV Gridders Top Western for Two Straight Wins

Chelsea Bulldog junior varsity football team won its second game in a row last Thursday as they defeated Jackson County Western 18-6 at home.

"We played very well Thursday," said Chelsea coach Russ McKenzie.

"We ran very well and controlled the football. We're starting to move the ball consistently."

However, the game didn't start well for Chelsea as they fumbled a punt and gave Western the ball at the Chelsea 18. Western converted and led 6-0.

On Chelsea's next drive the Bulldogs took the ball 87 yards and Lee Skyles scored on a seven-yard pass from Colton White. White ran for the two-point conversion.

Jeremy Guenther scored Chelsea's final touchdown in the fourth quarter on a 75-yard run. He also ran for the two-point conversion.

"Jeremy had an exceptional game at running back," McKenzie said. McKenzie also praised the play of center Mike Kelly, guard Neil Klink, and tackle Matt Gaken on offense, Dave Clippert at defensive end, Klink at linebacker, and the entire defensive secondary of Guenther, Vince Stahl, Martin Cheng, and David Burkel.

The Bulldogs are 2-3 on the season and play at Dexter tomorrow night.

7th Grade Cagers Win Two Games

Beach Middle school seventh grade basketball team beat the Dexter Dreadnaughts and Pinckney Pirates in action last week.

On Monday, Sept. 25 the Bullpups defeated Dexter, 24-12, in a game that was tied at 7-7 at half-time.

Kate Steele scored six points to lead the Pups while Charlotte Ziegler, Jessica Flintoft, and Amy Petty each scored four points. Lori Ritter, Martha Merkel, and Keri Kentala each scored two points.

Petty also had five rebounds and eight steals and Ziegler had four rebounds and seven steals.

On Wednesday, Sept. 27 the Pups topped Pinckney, 20-10.

Martha Merkel led Chelsea with seven points and Petty scored four. Kentala, Cindy Tripp, Steele, and Nancy Pidd each scored two points.

Pidd had five rebounds and five steals and played excellent defense, cording to coach Ann Schaffner.

Steele and Lynne Kalmbach had five and four steals, respectively.

JV Cagers Drop Games To Dexter and Tecumseh

Chelsea Bulldog junior varsity basketball team lost two games in action last week.

On Tuesday, Sept. 26, Chelsea fell to the Dexter Dreadnaughts, 32-31.

Chelsea missed nine one-and-one opportunities in the fourth quarter as well as a shot at the buzzer.

"It was a disappointing loss," said Chelsea coach Paul Terpstra.

Chelsea also had 19 turnovers and 11 steals.

Sarah DeVine led the team with 13 points and 10 rebounds. Molly Dilworth and Theresa Hurst each scored six points, Erin Knott had four, and Heather McConeghy scored two.

On Thursday, Sept. 28 the Bulldogs fell to Tecumseh, 33-24.

Chelsea held a 9-8 lead after the first quarter but were outscored 16-7 over the second and third periods.

The Bulldogs managed to cut the Indian lead to 25-21 but three out-of-bounds plays resulted in turnovers.

Chelsea also made just five field goals for the game.

DeVine scored nine, McConeghy had eight, Hurst scored four points, Dilworth had two, and Ginny Flannery scored one. Dilworth had a team high seven rebounds.

Dog Golfers Top Dexter And Big Reds

Chelsea Bulldog golfers beat Dexter and Milan last week at Inverness Golf Course, but lost to Saline at Brookside Golf Course.

On Tuesday, Sept. 26 the Bulldogs met the Dexter Dreadnaughts and Milan Big Reds. Chelsea scored 177, Dexter had 183, and Milan scored 189.

Chad Starkey led Chelsea with a 41, Chris White and Brandon Murrell each shot 45, and Alex Hamerschmidt scored 46. For the junior varsity team, Mark Folcik and Aaron Tanner each had a 47.

In Wednesday's match at Saline, the traditionally strong Hornets won 161-179.

Starkey again led Chelsea with a 40, Murrell shot 45, and White and Tanner each had a 47. Rick Clouse shot a 52 for the junior varsity Bulldogs.

Booster Club Has First Meeting

Chelsea Bulldog football coach Gene LaFave addressed the Chelsea Athletic Booster Club at the organization's first meeting last Wednesday, Sept. 27.

The club plans to have guest speakers throughout the year.

Officers this year include Charles Skelton, president; Mary Adams, vice-president; Sue Starkey, secretary; and Emily Niethammer, treasurer.

CARING FOR YOUR DENTURES

If you are among the 23 million Americans who have no natural teeth and are about to receive your first set of dentures, here are some tips from the Michigan Dental Association that can help you make your transition into becoming a denture wearer a smooth one.

First, remember that denture treatment is not a one-time transaction with your dentist. When you first get your dentures, you will receive complete instructions on caring for the oral tissues, placing and removing the dentures, wearing them during sleep and cleaning them.

But your mouth is a living organism; as such, it changes. Dentures that fit well when you first get them may later need to be adjusted or repaired as the shape of your jaws and gums changes. Only your dentist has the training to assure your dentures are in good condition. As a denture wearer, you will need ongoing professional care, including semi-annual checkups with your dentist.

To keep your mouth healthy and your breath fresh, clean your mouth and dentures daily. Gently brush your gums and tongue and the roof of your mouth with a soft toothbrush or piece of damp gauze.

Plaque, a sticky bacterial film constantly forming in your mouth, also forms on dentures. For this reason, dentures should be thoroughly cleaned everyday. Daily cleaning also helps to keep them from becoming permanently stained.

To clean your dentures, use a special cleanser and a brush. Many denture-cleaning powders and pastes are on the market. Before brushing your dentures, place a towel in the bottom of the sink to prevent them from breaking if dropped. Rinse the dentures in running water to remove any loose debris. Next, apply the cleaning agent to a moistened brush. Brush thoroughly, but don't scrub so hard that you bend or break them. Be careful in cleaning the inside surfaces to avoid altering the shape.

If plaque has hardened into calculus (tartar), soak the dentures in a solution of one tablespoon of white vinegar to eight ounces of water, or in one of the commercial denture cleansers.

Unless your dentist advises you not to, it is usually best to remove your dentures at night to allow the mouth tissues to rest. But dentures must be kept moist, so store them in cool water or a denture cleaning solution to prevent warping.

Appraisal Clinic Offered By Dexter Area Heritage Guild

Dexter Area Heritage Guild is sponsoring an Antique Appraisal Clinic by the Du Mouchelle Art Galleries Co. of Detroit.

Du Mouchelle's have been known for their auction and appraisal business for almost 60 years. They are located in downtown Detroit, directly across from the Renaissance Center. They specialize in fine arts and are members of the International Society of Appraisers, the American Society of Appraisers, the National Auctioneers Association and many other specialty related groups.

The clinic will be Saturday, Oct. 7, at the Dexter Area Museum, 3443 Inverness, Dexter, from 10 to 5, and is for hand-carried antique items. Donations to the Museum are: $4 for an oral appraisal, $6 for written, and $10 for items of $1,000 or more value. For more information, call 428-8330.

What Bible Doctrin Is All About

As I was addressing a group of a church meeting, I noticed after my sermon that a great many of them were dismayed, even seeming provoked over what I had spoken on. It was not until later that I discovered that what was so obnoxious to the congregation was my continued use of the word DOCTRINE. There are indeed many misconceptions of the word doctrine, but I believe we will find that its practical application in the church and in our lives is very much scriptural. The word "doctrine" itself comes from the Latin word "doctrina", which means "teaching or instruction". When we speak of Bible doctrine, we speak of just that: That which is taught through the inspired word of God. It is simple to define the term "false doctrine" then, understanding that it is such that is taught, but contradicts the word of God in some manner. The greatest weakness of the church today is its failure to recognize and address false doctrine and those who teach it. Just because: 1) Someone comes in the name of religion; 2) speaks religious language; 3) wears religious clothing; 4) is recognized by the majority as being a religious leader; or 5) uses the name of Christ, does not mean that we are to accept everything they say as being true Bible doctrine. If Corinthians 11:13-14 states: "For such are false apostles, deceitful workers, transforming themselves into the apostles of Christ. And no marvel: for Satan himself is transformed into an angel of light." If these workers are so deceiving, how are we to come to a conclusion as to whether what is being taught true or false doctrine? Speaking of the Bereans in Acts 17:11, "These were more noble than those in Thessalonica, in they received the word with all readiness of mind, and searched the scriptures daily to see whether these things were so." We must receive things with an open mind when giving exhortation to God's word, but one only has to go as far as the study of God's word to determine if those things are so.

LAST DAY TO REGISTER TO VOTE TUESDAY, OCTOBER 10, 1989

8 a.m. until 5 p.m.

FOR

SPECIAL ELECTION TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 7, 1989

TO: QUALIFIED ELECTORS OF DEXTER TOWNSHIP

NOTICE: I will be at my office, 13896 Island Lake Rd., to register qualified electors and amend registration records.

If You Have MOVED Recently you must amend your registration record.

Election is being held to vote on the following proposals:

STATE PROPOSAL A

A PROPOSAL TO INCREASE THE SALES/USE TAX FROM 4¢ TO 4½¢ PER DOLLAR AND CONSTITUTIONALLY DEDICATE FUNDS FOR LOCAL SCHOOLS

The proposed constitutional amendment would:

- 1) Constitutionally dedicate to schools:
 - a. ½¢ increase in sales/use tax;
 - b. Current statutory revenue sources, including lottery profits and some cigarette/liquor taxes;
 - c. Increased share of existing sales/use tax (51% to 68%) to substantially replace annual school appropriation.
- 2) Distribute dedicated funds to school districts as provided by law.
- 3) Activate increased statutory penalty to deny 100% of state funds to schools not adopting core curriculum and improvement plans.

Should this proposal be adopted?

NO ☐

STATE PROPOSAL B

A PROPOSAL TO INCREASE THE SALES/USE TAX FROM 4¢ TO 6¢ PER DOLLAR, REDUCE SCHOOL PROPERTY TAXES, SET PERMANENT SCHOOL OPERATING MILLAGES NOT SUBJECT TO VOTER RENEWAL, AND CONSTITUTIONALLY DEDICATE FUNDS FOR LOCAL SCHOOLS

The proposed constitutional amendment would:

- 1) Constitutionally dedicate to schools:
 - a. 2¢ increase in sales/use tax;
 - b. Current statutory revenue sources, including lottery profits and some cigarette/liquor taxes;
 - c. Increased share of existing sales/use tax (51% to 75%) to substantially replace annual school appropriation.
- 2) Reduce property taxes in most school districts. Replace school taxes with permanent statewide millage (9-mills on residential/farm; 14-mills on businesses) plus non-voted local millage not subject to voter rollback. Limit voter-approved increases to 4-mills.
- 3) Set per-pupil funding guarantees subject to change by law requiring ½ vote.
- 4) Activate increased statutory penalty to deny all non-guaranteed state funds to schools not adopting core curriculum and improvement plans.

Should this proposal be adopted?

INSTRUCTOR BILL PAUL of the Chelsea Fire Department questions Scio firefighter Keith Rhodes about safe and effective procedures for air-pak use. Both men were involved in the multi-station program set up Sunday, Oct. 1, at the Scio Township fire station so candidates opting for certification by means of the Firefighter II Challenge would have the opportunity to do so, rather than complete approximately 120 hours of classroom work.

Today's
InvestorBy Thomas E. O'Hara
Chairman, Board of Trustees
National Assoc. of Investors Corp.
& Editor, Better Investing MagazineQ. Would you please tell me what I should do with my General Motors stock? I have held it for almost six years. When I bought it I paid $78 a share. The dividend went up right after I bought it, but it hasn't changed in the last four years. I told my broker
I was thinking about selling it, but he said he thought it would be a mistake to sell it as this time. He says General Motors could hit $200 in two or three years. I'm disappointed and it just seems to me I could do better with another stock.A. I tend to agree with your broker.
My guess is that this would be a poor time to sell General Motors. It is true that General Motors has not been an interesting or profitable stock to hold for a long period of time. While the other two major U. S. auto companies have shown glittering increases in the price of their stocks, and higher dividends, GM's stock price has shown strength only recently.But, the company has not been sitting still. It has gone through an extensive program of building new plants and replacing old machinery with newer, more efficient production equipment.It has been developing new, more appealing products and it has been cutting costs. It is possible that GM has now become the most efficient auto builder in North America.
The latest quarterly report showed a substantial increase in profitability.
The work of the past few years may now start showing up on the bottom line.We always must keep in mind that the auto industry is a cyclical business. A bad auto year is almost certain to occur and that will affect the company. But if GM now is in the kind of shape it has been working towards, a good year is likely to result in earnings between $20-$25 a share.
They could be larger. When that happens the stock could sell at 8 to 10 times earnings which would give a price of $160-$250. That would make your broker's prediction come true.
My guess is that could happen in the next three to five years unless we run into a couple of bad business years.There are some nice pluses in the General Motors picture. The company owns Electronic Data Systems and GM Hughes Electronics. These are very large businesses and are growing at an excellent rate. They should add substantially to General Motors' earnings in the years ahead.Mr. O'Hara welcomes your questions and comments, but will answer them only through this column.Potential Groundwater Contamination Sites
Are Being MappedA project to inventory and map potential sources of groundwater contamination in Washtenaw county began in early September. Over the next three months, Scott McEwen, working in co-operation with Washtenaw County Drain Commissioner Janis Bohrin and the Great Lakes CEIP Fund, Inc., a national environmental organization, plans to identify and document sites and activities which may adversely impact present and future groundwater quality by reviewing historical records, state, county and municipal files, conducting interviews with local residents and by physical inspection.McEwen, who conceived the project, noted that recent discoveries of contaminated water supplies in Washtenaw county have led to a heightened awareness of the vulnerability of groundwater and the realization of the wide diversity of pollution sources.Underground storage tanks, poor chemical housekeeping at business sites and accidental hazardous material spills all pose threats to our groundwater system. Once groundwater is polluted, it is both costly and difficult to clean up.Preventative measures, such as an inventory to locate and abate con-taminant sources before they reach the groundwater, are cost effective and environmentally sound.Maps will demonstrate the locations of all registered underground storage tanks, past and present landfill and dump sites, facilities which handle particularly hazardous chemicals, sites of accidental chemical spills,
wastewater sludge and sewage application, junkyards and salt storage areas.These maps will be available to municipal and township officials as well as concerned citizens to aid in planning and managing groundwater

Waste Burning Controlled"Open burning of waste and inadequate toxic emission controls on existing and proposed waste in-tal and Occupational Committee.Kastel recently wrote to Martin Straub, chair of the Washtenaw County Board of Commissioners, and James Frey, chair of the Washtenaw County Solid Waste Planning Committee, concerning the proposed county solid waste plan. The Lung Association wants enactment of laws to prohibit open burning of trash and leaves, and less reliance on incineration in the county solid waste plan.According to Kastel, "The increased financial costs of solid waste disposal have created an unfortunate incentive for individuals to conduct open burning of trash and other wastes." Kastel said the Lung Association was "concerned about the silence of local officials on the need to get open burning of trash and leaves under control, and the message this silence gives to the public.""On a state-wide basis, as much as open trash and leaf burning," said

Kastel.The Lung Association also expres-

CHELSEA SELF STORAGE, a new business owned by Bill Braman, left, and Butch Morris, of Jackson, has opened off Brown Drive near the I-94/M-52 interchange in Sylvan township. When completed the facility will have 420 units featuring five different sizes which will allow individuals or business to store personal items, inventory, or any other items. Braman and Morris own similar facilities in Michigan Center and Somerset.

Man Apprehended Stealing Tuna

Charges are pending against a 19-year-old Orchard St. youth who was caught stealing canned tuna at Polly's Market on Monday at 12:20 a.m.

According to police reports, the man paid for other items but a clerk noticed a bulge in the man's coat. The man denied taking anything but when he opened his coat, the three-can pack fell out.
The tuna was valued at $2.85.

Boy Scouts Mountain Man Rendezvous Set

The skills of the early 1800's will be practiced and displayed at the Mountain Man Rendezvous, Friday, Saturday and Sunday, Oct. 13-14-15, at Camp Munhake as Boy Scouts invade the Bruin Lake campsite for a week-end of great fun.

The Mountain Men will authentically camp in the program area, and run 11 program stations on Saturday.

Program stations will include two-man log sawing, tomahawk throw, knife throw, bullet casting, flint and steel fire-making, shooting of black powder rifles, making beef jerky and hard tack, clothing of the time, candle-making demonstrations, Mountain Man Soup, and blacksmithing.

Boy Scout troops will be arriving Friday night, and setting up their campsites.

Scout uniforms are not required.

The Scouts are encouraged to dress in clothing appropriate for wear during the 1800's.

Saturday's program will start at 9 a.m.

During the evening, judging of a Mountain Man meal—Indian frybread, mountain beans, rendezvous stew, and/or sassafras tea—will be conducted.

Scouts wishing to participate should pick a recipe, cook it, and enter it to be judged.

Recipes have been mailed to the Scoutmasters.

An 8 p.m. church service will be held, Saturday night, with the Mountain Men putting on a special campfire at 9 p.m.

Troops will be assigned District Camps, and registration will be held at the District Headquarters.

Cost of the Mountain Man Rendezvous event will be $7 per person, to cover the program supplies, patch, Mountain Man soup, insurance, and special camporee costs, including trash pick-up, latrine maintenance, trucking and literature.

A trading post will be operated at the dining hall, where rendezvous coffee cups, hat pins, collector items, and supplies will be sold.

A Scout memorabilia display will be set up in the dining hall.

District Rendezvous chairmen are: for Munhake, Rick Dolato, 517-548-9852; for Lenape, Bill Bates, 517-283-5133; for R. Waters, Bill Findley, 242-6818; Washtenaw, Roy More, 663-6203.

CHELSEA CHILDREN'S CO-OP PRE-SCHOOL opened its doors for another fun-filled school year on Sept. 18. Many exciting activities and field trips have been planned for the young students by many caring co-op members. Jane Brooks and Sue Gillikin are the co-op's enthusiastic teachers, shown here with the three-year-old class. Students shown are Zachary Miller, Nick Miller, Lindsay Parker, John Erskine, Nathan Richardson, Eric Lawrence, teacher Sue Gillikin and teacher Jane Brooks in the rocking chair.

A Winter of Struggle

Kenai Peninsula, Alaska—The snow is quietly beginning to fall here now, and Exxon has halted all clean-up efforts for the winter.

For Bill Mailer, it means 5,000 people suddenly need jobs.

For Jack Brown, it triggers the onset of a frustrating conflict between increased need and decreased demand.

And for Father Simeon Oskolkoff, it means continuing counseling for the grief that the black, smelly oil has engendered in the Aleut people to whom he has ministered for 27 years.

"In a labor force as small as ours, having this many people suddenly out of work has a tremendous impact," says Miller, Alaska program manager for Labor Department-funded Job Training Partnership Act programs. "Alaska already has one of the highest unemployment rates in the country."

October will be a month of meetings for Mailer, probably emotional sessions in the 15 villages and communities on the Kenai peninsula that have been hurt by the spill.

He has $360,000 from the Labor Department to assess the extent of unemployment and training needs; another $340,000 is available to help implement training programs.

The sessions should make even clearer what Mailer already knows—damage from the oil spill has rolled like waves into Alaska's economy, in which fishing, fish processing and tourism have long been employment mainstays.

In Kenai, Borough Assemblyman Jack Brown expects 21 percent—one-fifth of the town's 6,500 residents—to be out of work this winter.

"It's going to have a real devastating impact on our community," says Brown, who also helps at the local food bank. "By December we'll see a lot of people who are really hurting."

Several years ago Brown founded People Count, Inc., a vocational school that also helps students find jobs. This winter he plans to boost his staff.

"Job placement is going to be harder," says Brown. "Those working on the spill who were earning $16 an hour plus overtime are not going to be willing to take entry-level positions."

At the same time, some employers—among them the restaurant and hotel owners who survive on business from summer tourists—feel that employees who left them for the richer financial rewards of the oil clean-up don't deserve to be hired back again.

The report submitted to the Labor Department in application for funds, quotes the publisher of the Valdez and Cordova newspapers as reporting a 60 percent attrition rate since the spill which he says is typical of other businesses.

"This has created strong resentment among local employers, whose labor costs have risen by about 20 percent, but who cannot even find workers at a high pay rate," he is quoted as saying. "Some businesses, marginally profitable before the spill, cannot absorb the high costs and are in jeopardy. The resentment toward former employees who 'left us in the lurch,' is so strong that most of us in business here will not rehire them later. They just won't be able to work here."

Resentment aside, tourism drops off during Alaska's legendary harsh winters—and so do jobs.

"Seasonal employment is waning and jobs are becoming fewer," says Bonnie Smith, job developer with People Count.

Smith typically drives 1,000 miles a month to the communities scattered among the forested land of the Kenai Peninsula. But this winter, as the snow gradually accumulates alongside the roads she navigates in her front-wheel drive car, Smith expects to find her job harder than ever.

"There is going to be a great deal of unemployment and a great deal of need, I'm convinced," Smith says.

Brown anticipates the people who come to People Count this winter for help will need more intense, personal counseling.

"We've seen most students come in depressed, with psychological and family problems, and I expect them to increase," says Brown.

Father Oskolkoff probably has similar expectations for the coming months.

He was hearing confessions in Cordova the day the oil oozed in.

WCC Celebrates Its Art Collection

In honor of eight new pieces of art for its Washtenaw Art Collection, Washtenaw Community College will hold a champagne reception on Friday, Oct. 6. It will be held in the Lounge of the Student Center Building on the main campus from 5 to 7 p.m.

In order to create a collection with relevance to the College, every artist featured must have some connection to Washtenaw county. That is, the artist should have been born, raised, educated or at sometime resided in Washtenaw county. Work included in the collection was selected by the WCC Art Acquisition Committee.

Works being added at this time were created by Kevin Ball, Suzanne Buhrman, Dennis Guastella, Jeri Hollister, Julie Kjelgaard, Clayton Lewis, T. P. Speer and Benjamin Upton.

The piece by Suzanne Buhrman is a gift from the artist and her husband, Gerard Buhrman. T. P. Speer's work is a gift from the Ann Arbor Street Art Fair. A competition sponsored by the Michigan Council for the Arts and the WCC Foundation helped to choose the pieces by Ball, Guastella, Hollister and Lewis. The pieces by Kjelgaard and Upton were selected from the Ann Arbor Art Association's annual print competition. All purchases were made possible by the WCC Foundation and the Michigan Council for the Arts.

For more information on this champagne celebration call (313) 973-3665.

Flu Shots Offered By Public Health Division

Influenza vaccines will be available through mid-November at several locations throughout Washtenaw county. The Washtenaw County Public Health Division will be offering Trivalent Types A and B. A $5 donation for a flu shot is requested.

Influenza shots are offered to people over 18 years of age; however, the Public Health Division's special aim is to vaccinate people who are 65 years of age and older. The vaccine is also recommended for people who are at risk for influenza-related complications which would include adults with diabetes, kidney disease, anemia, immuno-suppression or chronic disorders of the heart and lungs.

Those who are currently under regular medical care are encouraged to check with their physician regarding influenza immunization.

Schedule of flu shot clinics is as follows:

Monday, Oct. 16—12:30 p.m. to 3:30 p.m., Saline Area Senior Center, 7605 N. Maple, Saline.

H&R BLOCK INCOME TAX COURSE BEGINS OCTOBER 16

Save time and money when you take the H&R Block Income Tax Course.

Thousands of people enjoy part-time employment and earn money each year as income tax preparers. Many received their training in income tax courses taught by H&R Block.

The 75-hour basic course introduced students to income tax preparation. They will receive hands-on experience in preparing individual tax returns, working with increasingly complex tax situations as the term progresses. It is ideal for homemakers, retirees, teachers or anyone else wanting to increase his or her tax knowledge.

Qualified graduates of the course may be offered job interviews with H&R Block but are under no obligation to accept employment. Registration forms and brochures can be obtained by contacting H&R Block.

Anna B. Kaercher

9340 Scio Church Rd.
Ann Arbor

Anna Barbara Armbruster Kaercher, 9340 Scio Church Rd., age 87, died Tuesday, Sept. 26, 1989.

She was a member of one of the original German families that settled in Washtenaw county, and lived on the Kaercher Centennial Farm for the past 65 years.

She was honored during 1987 with a special tribute by the Michigan Legislature for owning a Historic Michigan Farm, which remained in the same family for at least 150 years.

Mrs. Kaercher was a member of St. Andrew's United Church of Christ, Dexter, the Delhi Missionary Society, and the Dexter Senior Citizens.

She was born in Lodi township, Nov. 11, 1901, the daughter of Robert and Paulina Steeb Armbruster.

She was married to Edwin C. Kaercher during June, 1919, in Ann Arbor.

She was preceded in death by her husband in 1968, and by brothers Walter Armbruster and Edwin Armbruster.

She is survived by her son Robert Kaercher and daughter-in-law, Donna Kaercher of Dexter; daughter Dorothy and son-in-law Ernest Gardner of Ann Arbor; daughter Barbara and son-in-law Donald Mesnard, II, of Ann Arbor; 11 grandchildren, James Kaercher, Bruce Kaercher, Mary Ann Jaeger, Deborah Malale, Karen Kennedy, David Mason, Ernest Gardner, Jr., Cheryl Ross, Donald Mesnard, III, Thomas Mesnard, Linda Smith; 15 great-grandchildren, Melissa, Robert, Amanda, Lauren, Ian, Sean, Anita, Keisha, Tracie, Jeffrey, Kelly, Kimberly, Tommy, Michael, and Shauna; also surviving are her sister, Marie Zahn, her brother Elmer and sister-in-law Mabel Armbruster, sister-in-law Florence Armbruster, and cousins Florence Armbruster and Edith Kempf; Jeanie Rankin, and many nieces and nephews.

Funeral services were held Friday, Sept. 29, at 1 p.m., at St. Andrew's United Church of Christ, with the Rev. Gary J. Kwiatek and the Rev. Kennyon Edwards officiating.

Pallbearers were Mrs. Kaercher's grandsons.

Burial followed in Bethlehem Cemetery, Ann Arbor.

Memorials may be made to the Saline Evangelical Home, or to St. Andrew's United Church of Christ.

Arrangements were completed by the Hosmer Funeral Home, Dexter.

Punta Gorda, Fla.

(Formerly of Waterloo Township)
Lyle H. Harvey, 64, of Punta Gorda, Fla., died Tuesday, Sept. 19, 1989 at Fawcett Memorial Hospital, Port Charlotte, Fla., after a brief illness.

He was born May 31, 1905 in Waterloo township, the eldest son of Herbert and Martha (Musbach) Harvey.

Survivors include his wife, Virginia, of Punta Gorda; a sister, Vera Haschle, of Dexter; a brother, Wayne Harvey, of Grass Lake; and several nieces and nephews. He was preceded in death by two brothers, Millard and Keith.

Mr. Harvey worked for many years in Detroit as an automotive auditor and he retired from Chrysler Corp. in 1970.

Funeral services were held Monday, Sept. 25 at Sommers Funeral Home in Detroit, with the Rev. Fr. David W. Harvey officiating. Burial was in Mt. Olivet Cemetery, Detroit.

Lillian H. Kaseberg

805 W. Middle St.
Chelsea

Lillian H. Kaseberg, 805 W. Middle St., Chelsea, age 88, died suddenly in her residence Tuesday, Sept. 26, 1989.

She was born July 9, 1903, in Grand Marais, the daughter of Adolph and Marie (Parpala) Johnson. She had resided in Chelsea since moving from Ann Arbor on Feb. 21, 1966.

Mrs. Kaseberg was preceded in death by her husband, Harry Kaseberg, on April 1, 1980.

Graveside funeral services were held Thursday, Sept. 28, at the Glendale Cemetery in East Lansing, with the Rev. James Simmons officiating.

Memorial contributions may be made to the Chelsea United Methodist Retirement Home.

Arrangements were by Cole-Burghardt Funeral Chapel.

Floyd J. Rinehart

Santa Ana, Calif.

(Formerly of Chelsea)

Floyd Junior Rinehart, 83, of Santa Ana, Calif., died Sunday, Oct. 1. He was a former Chelsea resident and employee of Daedalus Enterprises of Ann Arbor.

Survivors include his wife, Bonnie Jean; two sons, Parks and Brandon; three daughters, Dawn, Barbara, and Kollette; and five grandchildren.

As he wished, no funeral was planned.

Expressions of sympathy may be made to Mrs. Bonnie Rinehart, 8621 N. Newhill Ave., Tucson, Ariz. 85741.

Pioneer Day Slated Sunday At Waterloo Farm Museum

Pioneer day comes but once a year to Waterloo Area Farm Museum, 9998 Waterloo-Munith Rd., in the heart of the Waterloo Recreation Area. Now in its 27th year, that wonderfully old-fashioned festival will take place Sunday, Oct. 8, noon to 5 p.m., and activities will spill over to the Dewey School Museum, three miles away, at Territorial and Mayer Rds.

For the past month, folks have been stopping at the farm to check out the date. No one wants to miss something they've been waiting for, for a whole year!

Dedicated to perpetuate Michigan's pioneer farmer, the Farm and Dewey School Museums work together to fulfill their mission of keeping 19th century farm, family, and school life alive so that children and adults can travel to a rural area and watch butter come fresh from the churn, apples turn into cider, soap evolve from waste fat, lye, and water, and see exhibitions of spinning, lace making, weaving, basket making, and wood carving, to mention a few of the pioneer crafts. Children can dip their own candles and take horse-drawn rides down a country road.

Cookies from the outdoor bakehouse, honey, jams and jellies, as well as other mouth-watering baked goods, can be purchased along with farm produce, hot dogs, cider, and coffee. The gift shop was moved into the granary this season and guests will enjoy the additional browsing space.

At Dewey School, genuine schoolmarm will greet visitors in the mid-1900's setting, where they will be served cookies and lemonade. Richard Borden, Stockbridge Community schools' director of elementary music, will bring 5th and 6th graders to sing on the steps of the one-room building. In addition, children will enjoy taking part in schoolyard activities.

Back at the farm, the Harmonica and Banjo Band, directed by Olin Wild of Jackson, will entertain on the lawn. Young and old will enjoy the familiar sing-along tunes. The band will also accompany Bob Benedict, South elementary school principal of Chelsea, as he plays the bones. Formerly a student of Percy Danforth, Benedict is proficient on this old-time folk instrument.

Under the chairmanship of Cathy Muha and Diane Zatkovich, both of Chelsea, with volunteers from the Waterloo Area Historical Society, Pioneer Day will feature the work of two well-known artists, Ben Bower of Chelsea, painter, and Mary-Rush of Dexter, creator of cornhusk dolls.

On display until won by some lucky people, visitors will view Bower's watercolor of the Waterloo Farmhouse and Rush's doll, The Embroiderer. A third item, a lovely red lap robe was crocheted by Leona Gray, of the Upper Peninsula. Tickets may be purchased until 5 p.m., when the winning tickets will be drawn.

People always talk about "the good old days." Come, experience them first hand, as the red and gold leaves of fall mingle with the demonstrations and activities of the afternoon. There is no admission to the grounds, but donations are most welcome at Dewey School and a tour of the decorated farmhouse is $1.50. This is a wonderful opportunity for visitors to show support for two fine area museums which do not receive any other funding.

From Jackson or Ann Arbor, the farm may be reached by exiting at No. 153, off I-94, and following Clear Lake Rd. to the Village of Waterloo, where the road joins Waterloo-Munith Rd., at the mill pond. A sign will direct the discerning driver.

From Lansing or Brighton, follow M-62 south through Stockbridge, to Territorial Rd. and turn right. Go just beyond Parks Rd. to the Dewey School, on Territorial at Mayer Rd.

After visiting there, go back to Parks Rd. and turn right. Parks will merge with Waterloo-Munith Rd., continue south to the farm museum grounds.

Additional information may be given by Vivian May, president, 313-488-2191, Agnes Dikeman, vice-president 313-769-2219, or Helen Hannebald, director of Dewey School, 517-851-8247.

Questions are often asked by residents about the Chelsea schools that deserve a wide circulation. The Chelsea Standard has agreed to publish this column several times during the year to provide information to the residents of the Chelsea School District.

It has become necessary to revise the schedule of the immunization clinic to be conducted by the Washtenaw County Health Department on Thursday, Oct. 12, at Chelsea High school.

Parents should take note of the following changes in hours and location: vaccines will be administered from 9:00-11:00 a.m. in the Board Room of the Administration Building. The original schedule published in last week's Standard listed the hours of 8:30-12:00 in the Home Ec Conference Room.

Students who have not yet received all the vaccines required by the State of Michigan (4DPT [Diphtheria, Pertussis, Tetanus]; 3 Polio; Mumps, Measles, Rubella) can obtain consent form(s) and an immunization checklist at their school. These must be signed by parent or guardian if immunizations are to be given to persons under 18 years of age. Children who have not yet begun school may also be seen in the clinic provided they are accompanied by a parent or guardian.

The State of Michigan requires that all new public and private school students be adequately immunized against diphtheria, pertussis, tetanus, polio, measles, mumps and rubella. In compliance with this State law, the Chelsea School District will exclude from school attendance as of Monday, Oct. 30, 1989, all students who are new to the district who have not presented evidence of required immunization.

Further information may be obtained by calling the office of the appropriate school.
