JAN TUPPER, at far left, was honored as the retiring director of volunteers for the Chelsea Community Hospital Auxiliary at their January meeting. She was responsible for 170 hospital volunteers. She has been responsible for personally overseeing all auxiliary activities. She has co-ordinated the Hospital Spring Auctions and Evenings of Christmas and plans to continue to co-ordinate them. From left are Tupper, president-elect Joan

CCH Auxiliary Volunteers Leader Retiring After 13 Years of Service

Jan Tupper, director of volunteers for the Chelsea Community Hospital Auxiliary since its inception in 1977, is retiring this year.

Tupper was honored recently at the January meeting of the group.

Tupper oversees 170 volunteers. She has been responsible for overseeing all auxiliary activities and has co-ordinated the hospital Spring Auction and Evenings of Christmas events, which she will continue to do.

Tupper was also employed by the hospital for two years prior to becoming director.

Also formed officially in 1977, the auxiliary had its roots in a seven-member volunteers group started by Dr. Michael Papo and Dorothy Miller in 1970 called Chelsea Hospital Volunteers. Florence Steger was the first president, serving until 1975, when Neva Jordan took the reins.

During those first five years, some of the group's programs included hospital tours for kindergarten children, working on the floor of the hospital, helping patients with arts and crafts, and holding Christmas parties for patients and their families. In addition, a teen program was started, and the newsletter

"Stethoscope" was published monthly. Editors were Shirley Schaible and Marjorie Beaumont.

In 1977, Tupper became director of the volunteers and continued in that role after the volunteers group and the auxiliary merged in 1982 to become one group.

The auxiliary was formed in 1977 with the goal "to generate service programs responsive to the needs of the hospital and its communities and to promote the health and welfare of all. Shirley Schaible became the auxiliary's first president in 1977 and served until 1982.

Ruby Strieter became president of the volunteers group in 1977, when membership reached 35, and served until 1982 as well.

From 1977 until 1982, the two groups worked on several joint ventures, but mostly worked separately.

The hospital's gift shop, now called Arbor Nook, opened in June of 1980. Then, as now, it was staffed with all volunteer help.

The 170 auxiliary members work in the hospital and the surrounding communities. Many fund-raising events are held each year, with the proceeds going to the hospital or projects in the community.

Council Lifts Moratorium On Annexation, Village Wants Pact With Papo

Chelsea Village Council voted last Tuesday to end the village's moratorium on annexation two months early in order to accommodate at least one long-standing request.

Council voted unanimously to end the six-month moratorium after four months so that developer Rene Papo could start the process to annex 38 acres south of Chelsea Community Hospital, part of which he says he'll dedicate to low-cost housing for senior citizens. The rest will be used for "affordable" apartments in the $500 per month range, Papo told council.

In addition, St. Mary's Catholic church is also likely to take advantage of council's action, although the village says it won't guarantee the church water and sewer service. Larry Kranick, speaking on behalf of the church, asked about the annexation process and told council the church would like to benefit from police and fire protection. The church first approached the village more than a year ago about annexation because it wanted three-phase electrical power for an air-conditioning system. There is three-phase power at the Chelsea School District's bus garage on property adjacent to the church.

However, since the initial request, the church has obtained the power through Detroit Edison Co.

Village planning commission recommended that the church be an-nexed, but the recommendation was never acted upon by council.

In the Papo matter, trustee Richard Steele insisted, and council agreed, that an annexation agreement be drawn up between the village and Papo that would define the general rules of how the project will proceed.

"We've been burned too many times," said trustee Joe Merkel.

"We've had problems with every development that's come here."

Once the agreement is signed, the village will process the paperwork needed for the Washtenaw County Board of Commissioners, who make the ultimate determination.

Steele and village manager Robert Stalker both want the agreement to define in general terms who will pay for extending utilities to the site.

"The utilities are going to be your biggest hang-up," Steele said. Papo didn't disagree.

However, Papo said he preferred to wait until site plans are submitted before making a decision about who will pay for utilities because there are too many engineering variables. He said that including a "de-annexation" clause in the annexation agreement should be enough. The clause would be activated if a development agreement can't be reached. The development agreement would define who pays for what. Papo doesn't want to be committed to paying for the entire cost of extending the utilities if other property owners stand to benefit as well.

Steele said he didn't want to be put in the position of having to ask the county commissioners to de-annex the land.

Members of the planning commission in the audience said they were most concerned that the project be a planned unit development (PUD zoning). Under PUD, the entire project would be planned, even if it is not all built initially, and Papo would be required to stick to the plan.

The agreement to lift the moratorium appeared to be made primarily to get the senior housing project off the ground.

"If you make us wait until March (when the moratorium was due to expire) it will kill affordable senior housing for this year," said Treva Winans, the former Senior Center director who has been actively involved in the housing project.

"I know the pain that's out there and I don't want to see it continue longer than it has to."

Winans also pointed-out that the moratorium had been put into effect to allow the village to obtain reliable data on the remaining wastewater treatment plant capacity. That study has been performed and shows the plant operating at approximately two-thirds capacity.

Gary Bentley Becomes Third Council Incumbent Not To Run Again

Chelsea Village Trustee Gary Bentley is the third member of council who has said he will not seek reelection this spring.

Bentley, a two-term trustee, informed The Standard of his decision Friday.

"Basically, I don't have the time," Bentley said.

"Plus four years is enough and I think someone else should have the chance. I'm sure there are plenty of qualified people out there."

Bentley's decision means there will be at least three new people on the seven-member council this March.

President Jerry Satterthwaite announced recently he would not seek a fourth term, and trustee Phil Boham, who served nearly two terms, recently resigned his seat due to an impending move out of the village.

Joe Merkel is the only other trustee whose term expires this March. He has picked up a nominating petition but it is not yet known whether he intends to run.

Village manager Robert Stalker, who is completing his first year on the job, had some reservations about a wholesale change on council.

"It's good to have continuity, but it's good if you get gradual change," Stalker said.

"It is going to be particularly challenging for the new people. It's likely they will have to make a major decision on the landfill shortly after taking office. The village is also facing a number of other major issues."

Other positions up for election this year include the treasurer's office (two-year term) and two three-year seats on the McKune Memorial Library Board. Incumbent treasurer Kathleen Chapman said last week that she plans to run again.

6th Grade Concert To Feature Pierson and Oberlin Ensemble

Beach Middle school sixth grade band and orchestra concert will be held tomorrow, Thursday, Jan. 25 at 7:30 p.m. in the George Prinzing Auditorium at Chelsea High school.

Guest musicians for the evening will be the Oberlin Brass Ensemble, conducted by Chelsea native son Byron Pierson. Pierson has been highly acclaimed by many of the nation's outstanding orchestras.

The young orchestra musicians will play "Barnyard Bash" and "Two Waltzes." The band musicians will play "Step Ahead March," "Waltzing Star," and "Bingo."

The young musicians will begin at 7:30, followed by the Oberlin musicians at 8.

THE VILLAGE plans to spend at least $12,000 to renovate the interior of this farmhouse it owns at the edge of the industrial park on Sibley Rd. Eventually village manager Robert Stalker and his family will probably become the new tenants.

Village Plans To Renovate Farmhouse Near Industrial Park

Village of Chelsea plans to spend at least $12,000 to renovate a farmhouse it owns at the end of the village's industrial park on Sibley Rd.

The house, about 2,000 square feet, is scheduled eventually to become the home of village manager Robert Stalker and his family, who are still living in Tecumseh and have had problems finding suitable housing in the village. Stalker has a residency requirement in his contract, the deadline of which has been modified twice by council during his housing search.

Stalker would rent the house at a yet-to-be-determined cost "in the neighborhood" of $500 per month,

Stalker said. Previous tenants, who were forced by the village to move, were paying $300 per month rent.

"We haven't firmed it up yet," Stalker said.

Last Tuesday village council accepted a "rough bid" of $7,495 from the Chelsea firm of Coitre Building Construction, Inc., and another "not-to-exceed" bid of $5,000 from Turner Electric Co. of Dexter.

Coitre's work would include the remodeling of the kitchen and bath, including new cabinets, sinks, and countertops, as well as wallboard and other miscellaneous items.

The Turner company would essentially rewire the entire house, which now contains knob-and-tube wiring, no switches upstairs, and other problems.

Plumbing work will be handled by the village, Stalker said.

The flooring situation has not been addressed. Last fall the village replaced the oil stove in the house after it malfunctioned and spewed smoke and dirt into the house. The village hopes to switch over from propane to natural gas this spring.

Stalker said he plans to have assistant manager Thomas Warstler handle the details of the project as he believes it would be more appropriate.

School District Hires Architect To Study Future Building Needs

Chelsea School District has hired a Kalamazoo educational architectural firm to study the district's building needs for the future.

Chelsea Board of Education voted last Monday to accept Kingscott & Associates' low bid of $10,000 for the study. The company was responsible for designing North and South Elementary schools, as well as Beach Middle school.

The company will address the best way for the district to meet its needs over the next 15 to 20 years but will not necessarily be the architect who designs any building additions or new buildings, said assistant superintendent Fred Mills. That work would be contracted through a separate bid process.

The district has a facilities committee, composed mostly of Chelsea-area residents, that has been studying the district's needs for nearly three years. One the committee's biggest problems has been trying to project student enrollment in light of the recent residential building boom in the area. Mills said he hopes the firm will be able to shed more light on likely future student populations.

"We've gotten to the end of the rope as far as information lay people can provide us and we need some technical assistance," Mills said.

"Do we add on to what we have or do we build a new elementary school? We need to look at all the possibilities."

The elementary schools are filled to capacity. North school already has a portable classroom in use. Chelsea Senior Center is moving to the new Faith in Action house, partly because the space is needed at North school.

The study will also address needs at Beach Middle school and Chelsea High school. High school enrollment is down now, but those high numbers of elementary school students will eventually move up.

RUTH WITHEY was recently named the new media specialist at Chelsea High school. Withey, a 17-year resident of Jackson, was most recently librarian at Vandercook Lake High school. Previous to her one-semester job at Vandercook, she taught English and journalism at Michigan Center. She is completing her master's degree in information and library studies at the University of Michigan. Her husband, Howard, is an engineer. Her son, Jeff, is a senior at Johns Hopkins University in Baltimore. Her daughter, Susan, is a freshman at the University of Michigan. She and her husband hope to find a home in the Chelsea School District.

George Bauer was honored as Farmer of the Year at the Kiwanis Club of Chelsea's annual Farmer's Night. Bauer, a retired Waterloo Rd. farmer and employee of the Chelsea school district, was presented the award by Bill Rademacher, who headed up the committee to choose the winner.

A new $85,000 rescue truck was in the works for the Chelsea Fire Department. The old one was simply falling apart. It was rusting badly. At least one fireman said he didn't think it was the safest vehicle on the road for the people riding in it. The Chelsea village council approved two bids for the truck—one from First Response of Michigan of $44,501.10, for the box, and the second from Lee GMC, Inc., of $15,888.30 for the chassis.

At the December board meeting of the Chelsea Area Players, the musical "Camelot" was chosen as the production for July 1988 presentation.

A former Chelsea resident was arrested by Chelsea police just hours after he allegedly stabbed his stepfather to death at his home near Manistiquette.

Twelve-year-old Jim Stock bowled his best game ever last week when he hit the pins for a total score of 248. Jim, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Stock of Musbach Rd., had been bowling for five years; three and one-half of those years with the Prep league at Chelsea Lanes.

A check for $1,107 was presented to the president of the Chelsea Recreation Council, Ann Schafner, by the finance chairman of the Chelsea Child Study Club, Mary Jo Miller. The check represented a major portion of the funds raised by club members at their Christmas bazaar.

Mrs. Dudley K. Holmes joined the ranks of area residents who over the years had been presented with the Jaycees Distinguished Service Award for outstanding contributions to the community. Mrs. Holmes was awarded the DSA when she and her son Dudley, Jr., attended the Jaycees Bosses Dinner. She was chosen for the award because of her contributions to blood drives not only in Chelsea but also in the state of Michigan.

A strike vote taken by members of the United Auto Workers Local 184 at Chrysler Corporation's proving Grounds tallied 222 positive to 21 negative votes, according to Ray Canine, vice-president of the group. The vote was taken to settle some 80 or more alleged grievances concerning bargaining issues.

Over 200 instrumentalists from 65 schools gravitated upon Chelsea to compete for seating positions in the All-Star Band scheduled to appear in concert in Chelsea in February. Tryouts were conducted by band directors from the various schools, who met with groups of students in different high school classrooms. Directors conducted tryouts on instruments they had majored in while studying music in college. To insure impartiality, directors turned their backs while the various students played the music.

Genetics and heredity, magnetic fields, and the development of a chick were a few of the technical topics explored by blue ribbon winners at the Junior High School Science Fair. Each science student in the school entered a project in the classroom competition. Sixty of these projects survived the classroom competition and were entered in the Science Fair. Chelsea bowlers helped make the 1966 bowling for the March of Dimes one of the most profitable ever. Twelve leagues participated in the bowling benefit.

Maxwell G. Sweet, village president, reported that the final payment on the 120 parking meters secured from the Magee Hall Park-O-Meter Company was to be made. Gross revenue from the meters during the period, amounting to $15,795.78, provided the funds to meet the quarterly payment due on the purchase contract.

The high school division of the Chelsea Band Boosters club met in the Home Ec. room at the school, with 10 members present. Plans were discussed for making capes and caps for the cadet band, an aim of the club for some time. Other aims of the club were to keep the entire band membership properly outfitted; possible scholarships in the future for outstanding band members; and a summer music camp for the band.

State Gets Okay To Regionalize Prison System

The Corrections Commission has given Corrections Director Robert Brown the green light to decentralize the state's $700 million correctional system, Commission chair Robert S. Axford announced recently.

Under the plan, the state plans to regionalize the 28-prison system into an as-yet undetermined number of regions.

Axford cited the department's "phenomenal" growth over the past 20 years—projections put the system at 50,121 prisoners by 1992—as a reason for regionalization.

"Regionalization will make the state's correctional system more responsive to the community and will increase efficiencies in the operation of the department," he said.

Noting that the prison population is almost six times more than it was in 1969 and the department's budget is 21 times larger than it was in 1970-71, Axford added, "The department of 20-some years ago is not the same department we are dealing with today, and we can't run it the same way."

Brown said regionalization will allow him to focus more of his time on planning policy development and prioritizing the department's "scarce" resources.

MICHIGAN MIRROR

By Warren M. Hoyt, Secretary, Michigan Press Association

"A department of this size and complexity can no longer be well managed under the existing structure," Brown said. "Not only do too many people report to too few, but because of the current structure, the director ends up being forced into deep involvement in the day-to-day operation of the system."

Brown will appoint an implementation task force, probably by the end of the month, to determine regionalization details, with the top priority being a recommendation on the number of regions and definitions of each region's boundaries.

The task force will also recommend the organizational structure and staffing pattern for each regional office, and a region to use as a pilot for the implementation, he said.

Corrections spokesperson Leo Lalonde said the department will need the approval of Civil Service, Department of Management and Budget and the Legislature before implementing the program, because it requires creating the new position of regional director.

He said it will be up to the task force to decide whether new people will be hired to fill these positions or whether current staff can be used.

Brown, who proposed the regionalization program to the commission at its December meeting, said operational responsibilities for the department would shift to regions while the central office operation would concentrate on policy development and coordination.

It would also provide staff expertise to operating units. All institutions and field service units would report to the respective regional administrator in that region who would then report to the director.

He also said regionalization will make the corrections system more accountable to the communities where prisons are located. "It will permit better, more informed and faster decisions because it puts a common level of supervision closer to where the action is," Brown said.

Sen. Jack Welborn (R-Kalamazoo), chair of the Senate Criminal Justice and Urban Affairs Committee, agreed that it should allow wardens easier and quicker access to corrections officials.

"It may be a little bit easier for them (corrections officials) to administer. I don't see it as any big plus or minus," he said.

Welborn said he will ask Brown to explain regionalization at a committee hearing next month, but does not foresee any controversies. "There's nothing that I've seen so far that I'm alarmed at."

Woman's Club Hears Talk on Legislative Update

Members of the Woman's Club of Chelsea met in the home of Jinny Johnson, president, for the Jan. 9 meeting. Gathered around a cozy fire, they enjoyed the program and brief business meeting. Assisting as co-hostesses for the evening were Janet Fuhs and Donna Lane.

Speaker for the evening was introduced by Jean Schmidt. Representative Margaret O'Connor's subject was "Legislative Update." Her informative message concerning the legislative process included description of specific bills past and pending and the stages involved in the passage of legislation.

At the business meeting, members were reminded of plans for the annual Valentine Party to be held Feb. 14 at the Chelsea United Methodist Retirement Home for the pleasure of its members. Marian Kerns is the chairperson.

Linda Cole, program chairperson, announced that the program for the Feb. 13 meeting will be given by Ellie Strong on the subject of the Holy Land. The meeting will be held at 7:30 p.m. in the Club Room at McKune Library and it will be "Bring a Guest Night."

Any woman in the community interested in more information about the Woman's Club of Chelsea is invited to contact Sylvia Gilbert, membership chairperson, 475-8317, or Jinny Johnson, president, 475-8270.

Long-Time Friends Finally Meet Again

John and Karen (McGowan) Stegeman of Allegan, and Ken and Sally (Stoffet) Spicer of N. Lima Center Rd., had a reunion Friday night at Schumm's Restaurant.

Karen and Sally had not seen each other since 1951. They had gone to Pennington's Traveling Camp in 1950 and had kept in touch through letters and phone calls. This was their first reunion since they were seniors in high school.

Mr. and Mrs. Keith Neibauer

Carrie Bieske, Keith Neibauer Wed at St. Mary's Church

Carrie Lynn Bieske, daughter of Dan and Paula Bieske of Chelsea, married Keith Dion Neibauer, son of Mike and Emma Neibauer of Chelsea, on Friday, Jan. 12 at St. Mary's Catholic Church.

The Rev. Fr. Philip Dupuis performed the ceremony.

Donna Farnholtz sang "One Hand, One Heart."

The bride wore a satin gown with close fitting bodice. It was sprinkled with clusters of simulated pearls, sequins, and trimmed with Venise lace. It had long puffed sleeves with a basque waistline over a full skirt and Venise lace trimmed the train.

Matron of honor was Deann Rosenreter.

Bridesmaids were Laura Haines of Grass Lake, Tina Stacey of Chelsea, Heather Neibauer of Chelsea, and Kendra Neibauer of Vermillion, O.

Flower girls included Courtney Neibauer and Natasha Rosenreter. Ushers were Jay Marshall of Ypsilanti, Kevin Walz of Chelsea, Time Klink of Stockbridge, and Mike Reid of Ann Arbor.

A reception followed at the Knights of Columbus Hall in Chelsea.

The couple is planning a honeymoon trip this spring to Florida. They are living in Chelsea.

The bride is employed at Gemini Family Hair Care. She is a 1988 Chelsea High school graduate.

The bridegroom is a 1985 graduate of Chelsea High school and will graduate this spring from Eastern Michigan University with a degree in criminal justice. He is employed by Abrasive Finishing, Inc. of Chelsea.

Q. I have begun to plan for retirement and have been talking with my planner. He is urging me to put about 30% of my assets in stock. He says I will need at least that much in stock to provide an increase in income each year after I retire. I sat in on the planning when my parents retired and they were advised to put all their money in bonds to guarantee that their income would be steady and certain. They enjoyed a good retirement and I guess I am a little concerned at the advice I am getting. Do you believe it is sound to put so much of your retirement funds in stock?

A. In a recent article in Better Investing, Alexandra Armstrong, a financial planner made two points that will help answer your question. One has to do with longevity. A generation ago, most people worked to 65, and when they retired, in general they lived another 10 years. Currently, the average corporate employee retires at 65, but has a life expectancy of 20 years.

While an individual who retires at 65 is likely to spend 10 years traveling and enjoying hobbies and is faced with a demand for growing income, that demand for growing income does not stop in the second 10 years. During that period less traveling is done and the need for medical assistance begins to develop, requiring more and more of the budget.

As you plan for your retirement, the longevity of the population may increase further. It is increasingly important for the person planning for retirement to make sure there is going to be an increase in income in the future. Bonds are excellent for steadiness and surety of income, but they do not provide an increase in income. The trend of interest rates since our peak of inflation in the late seventies and early eighties has been down. We can't say for certain what the future will bring, but at the present time the trend of interest rates seems to be down with modest variations.

Good grade stocks have a very long-term record of providing a growth in income that exceeds inflation by a substantial amount. The dividend income from stock tends to be well below the interest paid by bonds, but the growth that usually comes in dividend income results in substantially more income 10 years down the line. There is also a problem in that the income from stocks may be reduced or interrupted for periods, but over-all stocks have produced about 2 1/2 times the total income of bonds over long periods.

With the retiree facing the likelihood of greater longevity and growing costs of living, a good portion of assets in stock seems sensible.

Mr. O'Hara welcomes your questions and comments but will answer them only through this column. Joint Meeting Slated With Twps. On Village Landfill Chelsea Village Council has scheduled a joint meeting with area townships concerning the status of the village landfill.

The meeting, which will include representatives from Sylvan, Dexter, Lyndon, and Lima townships, will be held at 7:30 p.m. on Thursday, Jan. 25 in the council chambers.

As of press time the village had still not received word of an administrative hearing concerning stipulations in its new landfill license. The village is protesting the amount of bonding required by the Department of Natural Resources.

SOIL BORINGS WERE TAKEN at the site of the former Hop-In on S. Main St. last week. According to a village memo, a deal is being worked out to have the building, adjacent to McKune Memorial Library, demolished. In addition, several parties have apparently expressed an interest in purchasing the property, including Palmer Ford-Mercury, McKune Memorial Library, and the Chelsea Downtown Development Authority.

POLLY'S MARKET was granted a variance that will allow a cover to be constructed over its loading dock. The action was taken last Tuesday by the Zoning Board of Appeals. The problem is the dock is in the rear-yard setback and any modification required a variance.

CROSSED EYES

Crossed eyes is only one type of strabismus, or misalignment of the eyes. When the eyes are crossed, more correctly termed esotropia, one eye is turned inward while the other eye looks straight ahead. In other types of strabismus, one eye may be turned outward, up, or down relative to the other eye.

Esotropia is the most common eye misalignment in children. The eye that is crossed in may be "ignored" by the child's developing brain, so vision may not develop in that eye, resulting in a "lazy eye". Also there is loss of depth perception when using only one eye. For these reasons, it is extremely important to recognize and treat esotropia as soon as it is noticed in a child, even if it "comes and goes". Children do not "outgrow" esotropia, and waiting only tends to make it more difficult to reverse the lazy eye.

Esotropia in an infant usually requires surgery to solve the problem. In these cases, it is necessary to surgically detach a muscle from the eye and reattach it at a different location to re-align the eyes. A child over the age of two years who develops esotropia frequently can be corrected by fitting eye glasses to correct farsightedness. This farsightedness causes the child to "focus" their eyes to try to see better, and the crossing-in accompanies the focusing. Sometimes bifocals are necessary to prevent crossing when reading. Esotropia at any age can be corrected, but if noticed in a child, should be checked by an Ophthalmologist without delay.

CHELSEA AREA PLAYERS have announced cast members for their winter production, "Come Blow Your Horn," to be presented Feb. 9-10-11 and Feb. 16-17 at local mystery guest who will play the role of Aunt Gussie. Beach Middle school. Characters shown above are, left to

CHS Class of '65 Continues Plans for 25th-Year Reunion

Soy To Benefit from Freer World Trade

World-wide agricultural trade liberalization will have less effect on soybeans than some other commodities, mostly because government intervention in oilseeds is lower than it is for other crops, according to Michigan Farm Bureau agricultural economist Bob Craig. However, he believes Michigan soybean growers will still benefit from the greater economic activity that should go along with a higher level of world trade.

"Higher incomes are going to relate to an increased import demand," said Craig. "Also with the removal or hopefully the reduction in various subsidies, we expect demand to be up for American soybeans. Given the fact that United States soybean producers are relatively efficient and relatively low cost producers of oilseeds, we expect that actual production here in the U.S. will increase as a result of the increased demand." Craig thinks soybean production will decline in the European Community, because of their high cost of production.

CHELSEA ADULT EDUCATION: GED instructor, Mrs. Mary Besso, left, is helping night school student, Kristie Buell, center, with her math as they prepare to test. Players Announce Cast for 'Come Blow Your Horn'

Casting has been completed for the Chelsea Area Players' winter production, "Come Blow Your Horn," according to the play's producer, Jerri Cole. In addition, the production staff has been named, and rehearsals have begun in preparation for opening night, Friday, Feb. 9, at Beach Middle school.

Included in the cast of this delightful comedy by Neil Simon are: Ken Beauchamp as Buddy; Lori Ann Minnick as Peggy; Dave Morris as Alan; Jan Baltzell as Connie; Jerry Klein as Dad; Connie Scott as Mom; and a local mystery guest who will play the cameo role of Aunt Gussie.

Production staff members are: Mary Resing, director; Diana Ipsen, stage manager; Newell Kring, technical designer; Jerri Cole, producer; Janet Taroli, costumes; Dave Prohaska, publicity; Ward Beauchamp, lighting and sound; Clara Smith, tickets; Don Paulsell, program; Brian Meyers, set construction; Shelly Wheaton, house; and Debbie Olson, Cindy Beauchamp, and Betty Leeman, props.

The story takes place in the 1960's in New York City at the Upper East Side apartment of 33-year-old man-about-town bachelor Alan who, with his younger brother, Buddy, works for his very stern father in his waxed fruit factory. The comic capers commence when Buddy decides that it's time to run away from home and move in with Alan upon celebrating his 21st birthday. Dad considers Alan a bum because he isn't married yet, and Mom has had the caters on hold for the past three years. Alan has Peggy, the girl upstairs, on the hook, but it's Connie who gives him the matrimonial ultimatum after deciding that show business isn't for her.

To add to the atmosphere of Manhattan, the Players will be serving Coney Island hot dogs and soft drinks at the auditorium from 7 to 8 p.m. each evening prior to opening curtain at 8 p.m.

The play will be presented on Feb. 9, 10, 11, 16, and 17 at Beach Middle school. The Feb. 11 performance will be a matinee with curtain time at 2 p.m. Tickets are on sale at Casual Sports, 103 N. Main St., Chelsea.

The production is sponsored in part by BookCrafters, Chelsea Milling Co., and the Chelsea Community Hospital. Anyone interested in working with the CAP on this production may call 475-9987 or 475-2577.

STEVE LEITH, chemistry and physics teacher at Chelsea High school, shows off his department's brand new analytical scale. The scale was secured entirely through private donations, including a big grant from the Civic Foundation of Chelsea. School district resident Frank Hammer was able to get a reduced rate on the equipment through his business associates at the National Sanitation Foundation in Ann Arbor. Leith said the scale will help take the teaching of chemistry to a higher level as it can measure accurately to one ten-thousandth of a gram.

"To go against the dominant thinking of your friends, of most of the people you see every day, is perhaps the most difficult act of heroism you can perform . . ."

—Theodore H. White

The easiest route is the path of least resistance, and that includes conforming with the opinions of our friends and associates. On most matters, there tends to be a consensus and, too often, we tend to go along with the group.

To think independently of the crowd, to weigh the facts and arrive at our own conclusion, can be difficult . . . even heroic . . . but it does build self-respect.

Systematic Stress Management™
and Relax!

Disguising your stress is only a temporary solution. The long-term results of stress can be devastating — heart disease, high blood pressure and ulcers, to name a few. In fact, according to the American Academy of Family Physicians, two-thirds of all office visits to family doctors are stress related.

Systematic Stress Management™ teaches you to control stress, changing it from a negative experience into a positive motivator. The techniques are easy to master, and they have a dynamic effect on your ability to cope with day-to-day events. The program can be used at home or at work, and will make a profound difference in your ability to relax.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor,
The Ann Arbor Transportation Authority began bus service to Dexter and Chelsea in May of 1987 with the help of a state subsidy. It was announced at that time that, at the end of three years, the villages would be asked to supply the subsidy.

The bus is a success. Ridership has increased steadily, and many have come to depend on the bus for getting to work.

Those who depend on the bus should write letters to the Dexter and Chelsea Village Councils asking that they vote to continue this service for their constituents.

Cars stream east from Dexter and Chelsea each morning. Drivers of cars should try the bus. Some might come, as I do, to regard shuttle driving as a waste of time. On the bus one can make use of an extra hour each day for reading, writing (this letter, for example), homework, resting, thinking... There is a little exercise to be enjoyed on the way to the bus stop. There is satisfaction in doing something positive for the environment.

The Dexter Council members will show their economic foresight, their environmental concern, and their social sensitivity by deciding to allocate funds to continue the bus.

"GENERAL SPOT", an adult male, tan and white spaniel, was abandoned at the front gate. The previous owner left no information. Spot is very energetic and loving.

"TINY" is a male, domestic, gray and white short hair cat, 1½ years old. His front paws are deformed. Tiny is called extremely "affectionate and loving." His previous owner had too many animals and got rid of him. He should be adopted by someone who loves to hug cats.

Decade Starts Well For Dairy Farmers

1990 should be a good year for the dairy industry, according to Michigan Farm Bureau economist Bob Craig. Production is down two percent compared to 1989, thanks to the dairy herd buyout and the impact of the 1988 drought.

"What the economists were saying at the American Farm Bureau dairy conference last week in Orlando, Fla., is that 1990 should be a record year in terms of dairy prices even on an average level, certainly much higher than we've had in many years," he said. "That's pretty exciting to see."

But Craig warns dairy farmers to control their expansion plans. "Prices could drop rather sharply in such a tight, thin market that the dairy industry is in," he said.

But for 1990 at least, the dairy industry should see record profits.

MATT VOLANTE, 15-year-old sophomore at Chelsea High school, hauled in this 31-inch northern pike Tuesday evening, Jan. 16. The prize pike tipped the scales at a little over seven pounds. Matt was using a tip-up and chub bait. Like all good fishermen all he would say he was fishing on a "small lake in the Waterloo Recreation Area west of Chelsea."

Dexter High Graduate Aten Is Naval Aviator

Marine 1st Lt. Fredrick M. Aten, son of Wendell R. and Jeannie Aten of 8585 Silver Hill, Pinckney, was designated a Naval Aviator. Presentation of the "Wings of Gold" marked culmination of 18 months of flight training.

Aten's curriculum included basic studies in engineering and navigation, training flights in simulators, aircraft familiarizations, basic and advanced instrument training, extended navigation flights and landings aboard an aircraft carrier.

A 1979 graduate of Dexter High school, and a 1984 graduate of Michigan Technological University, Houghton, with a Bachelor of Science degree, he joined the Marine Corps in December 1986.

Q. Would you discuss the term "relative value" as used in the purchase of stock and show me how it might be used in the selection of a particular stock.

A. Relative Value (RV) can mean different things to different people, but the usage I am most familiar with refers to the percentage of the current price-earnings ratio to the average price-earnings ratio of stock, say for over the past five years. For instance, if a stock is now selling at a price-earnings ratio of 14 and the average of its high and low price-earnings ratios over the past five years has been 16, we would say the stock is now selling at a relative value of 87½%. That figure is obtained by dividing the current PE of 14 by the average of 16. That percentage of 87½% suggests the stock may be a good buy at its present price in terms of the multiple at which it has sold over the past five years.

This figure is often used by investors with computers to sort through a large number of stocks to determine which seem to be the best buys at the present time. The NAIC Advisory Service maintains a list of 80 stocks which it rates as preferred holdings. In December it rated those 80 stocks from the standpoint of relative value. The stock with the lowest relative value rating in its list at that time was Digital Equipment. Its RV was 60%. It was selling at a price-earnings ratio just 60% of the average for the past five years. This suggests that in comparison with the past, its price may now be very favorable. If you had decided this was a stock you wanted to own, then now would be a good time to buy it.

The second ranked stock in the list was Masco Corp. which had an RV of 66%. With the fine record of growth that this company has had, it is usually a good idea to buy when it is having a period of neglect like this figure points out. At the other end of the list is Newell Co. with an RV of 128%. That means Newell is selling 28% higher on a price-earnings basis than it has for the past five years.

You should be very careful in purchasing a stock that sells much higher than its historical PE relationship. Philip Morris, which has been an outstanding growth company, had an RV of 119% yet the price-earnings ratio was 11.8. While the PE may be high in relation to past ratios, it does not appear high for a company with Philip Morris' record of growth in sales and earnings.

Like most measures of stock values and performance, relative value is a useful tool but must be considered in relation to all the factors affecting the stock.

Scholarship To Be Awarded To Next Chelsea Fair Queen

The 1990 Chelsea Community Fair Queen will be awarded a $500 scholarship, a major change from previous years.

Sally Hall, who is organizing the program this year, discussed the idea with the fair board at their regular meeting Jan. 18.

In other fair business, a contract was signed once again to bring back the Cavalcade of Thrills Demolition Derby, one of the most popular events of the fair.

Members of the Country Mudders want to hold a mud bog in May, but the board is not yet able to give approval.

Work is progressing well on the addition to the Fair Service Center. Agriculture Exhibit Building plans are also progressing.

Area Students Make Honors List At Michigan State

Several area students earned 4.0 grade point averages at Michigan State University for the fall term.

Parent Awareness Night Set By Schools

Final preparations are being completed by Chelsea school teachers and parents for "Parent Awareness Night by Chelsea Teachers." On Thursday, March 15, there will be an evening of presentations for all parents of school children at Beach Middle School. Staff from elementary, middle, and high schools will offer information on tackling homework, the child's self-esteem, college planning, thinking skills, what tests really mean, what is new in reading, as well as educational enhancement and other areas of interest.

Parents will be able to choose two 50-minute presentations from the 10 being offered on that evening. There will be a 20-minute break for refreshments between presentations. Parent groups from all Chelsea schools are providing hospitality, information, refreshments, publicity and support for the evening.

The awareness night is an effort by local teachers and staff to establish a more direct way to reach the parents of Chelsea school students with important information. It is also meant to enhance other forms of communication to the community and offers the opportunity for positive interaction and exchange.

School District Survey Results To Be Discussed

Results of the Project Outreach public opinion survey will be discussed at a special meeting of the Chelsea Board of Education tomorrow (Jan. 23).

Ned Hubbell, from the state Project Outreach office, will present the results. The telephone survey was conducted by school district volunteers last November.

The meeting will be held at 7:30 p.m. in the Chelsea High School Media Center.

If you're a wage earner, you're not too young to apply for an Individual Retirement Account. We give you every opportunity to build a retirement fund with small weekly deposits or a once a year lump sum... whichever works best for you. We're not asking for the full $2,000 allowable IRA contribution each year. Only you can make the determination, just what you can set aside for your future. We do, however, know the importance of having an IRA and feel we should make you aware of this importance. Undoubtedly you will need to supplement your Social Security funds once you've retired and having an IRA will give that extra added cash right when you need it most. Our IRAs earn a competitive rate of tax deferred interest and enjoy the insured protection of the FDIC up to $100,000 over and above your regular funds on deposit with us. Our IRA people are professionals in setting up retirement programs and can open your IRA in just a matter of minutes, so why not see us today. We can also arrange a Spousal IRA of up to $250 for a non-working spouse. Look to the future with an Individual Retirement Account at our bank!

A penalty is charged for early withdrawal. It is suggested you consult your tax advisor for the qualifications to obtain an income tax break.

Bulldogs Outrun Pirates To Finish First Half Of SEC Season Unbeaten

Chelsea Bulldogs finished the first half of the Southeastern Conference basketball season with a 6-0 record after out-gunning the Pinckney Pirates on the road last Friday, 98-84.

The victory extended Chelsea's record to 9-1 over-all. They were scheduled to face Fowlerville at home last night.

It was Chelsea's highest point total of the season, although at the outset it appeared the teams would be lucky to score 50 points apiece. The first quarter ended with Pinckney in the lead, 12-10. The Pirates misfired consistently while the Bulldogs had problems with the Pirates' quickness and turned the ball over several times at the Bulldog end of the court.

In addition, the officials called a tight game, especially in the first half, which seemed to take away some of the momentum of the game. By the 6:03 mark of the second quarter, guard Chad Starkey had picked up his third foul, and Kerry Plank followed with his third at the 5:07 mark. By the start of the fourth quarter, Starkey, Kerry Plank, and Brian Burg each had four fouls.

The scoring picked up in the second quarter as Chelsea held a 39-32 half-time lead. Despite the foul problems, Chelsea didn't back away from its game plan to not only match Pinckney's frantic pace, but turn it up a notch.

"I knew we could score on them, and my feeling was that if we didn't foul out we'd win the game," said Chelsea coach Robin Raymond.

"They were in a trapping half-court zone, and I thought we could take advantage of it. Just the way Pinckney plays, I knew that if we could put the ball in, we'd win. I told the kids at half-time that we were going to score a lot of points in the second half."

The second half turned into full-scale racehorse basketball as Chelsea victimized the Pinckney press for numerous lay-ups. By the 5:08 mark of the third quarter the game was tied at 45, but less than a minute later Chelsea held a 52-45 lead. By the end of the quarter, Chelsea held a 62-60 lead.

"For the fans it was an entertaining game with a lot of excitement and it certainly was fast-paced, but for the coaches it wasn't quite as entertaining," Raymond said.

"We were in so much foul trouble and I never felt a 10-point lead was very safe. Pinckney can score a lot of points in a hurry."

The game was a big test of each team's poise, and, in the end it was Chelsea's ability to keep its cool that won the game. Or from Pinckney's perspective, the Pirates got rattled on two occasions, which contributed greatly to their demise.

Chelsea had to overcome the foul trouble (no one fouled out), Pinckney's natural home-court advantage, and the fact that the Pirates, with two losses, were playing for their SEC survival. In addition, when the Pirates fell behind in the fourth quarter, it became a free-throw shoot-a-thon for the Bulldogs, who made 20 of 24 tries.

KYLE PLANK takes the ball to the basket against the Pinckney Pirates last Friday night. The senior scored 21 of his team-high 26 points in the second half, mostly on free throws.

Bulldog Netters Topple Pinckney

Chelsea varsity netters lost a two-game match at Dexter last Thursday, 5-15, 11-15.

Chelsea was leading the second game but "Dexter kept hitting 'ay at us," said Chelsea coach Sue Steeves.

"Dexter hit everything hard and we didn't. We gave them too many easy balls and that was the difference."

Steeves said Lisa Park played well defensively with three digs and three blocks for points. She added two kills on offense.

As the team the Bulldogs had 11 kills. Barb Scriven had three assists and three kills. Scharme Petty had three kills, and Jennifer Petty had three kills and two aces.

In other action last week, Chelsea whipped Pinckney in two games, 15-9 and 15-10.

"The girls decided they were going to hit the ball hard, dive for those out-of-reach balls, and serve tough," Steeves said.

Steeves said that in the first game Jill Nowatzke was "a one-woman volleyball team," serving for 13 points. Five of those points came from aces.

The team had nine aces in the two games.

Park had four blocks and two kills.

PAT HASSETT looks a little imposing with his full-face mask, which keeps him from re-injuring an area where he recently had stitches. The Chelsea senior wrestler took second place at 171 pounds last Saturday at the Athens Invitational.

Chelsea Wrestlers Win Another Big Invitational

Chelsea Bulldog wrestlers continued to dominate their competition as they won the Athens Invitational last Saturday and rolled over arch-rival Dexter on Tuesday.

At the Athens meet, 12 of 13 Bulldogs placed and five were champions.

"Over-all, our performance was great," said Chelsea coach Kerry Kargel.

"We're just to the point where we're starting to peak. We hope to peak in a couple of weeks, about the time the districts start."

Karl Wickman at 112 and Pat Taylor at 119 ran their unbeaten streaks to 25 and 26 matches, respectively.

Other champs included Jim Hassett at 140, Doug Wingrove at 145, and Tim VanSchoick at 189.

Wickman pinned Dean Monarch of Pennfield in 4:38, defeated Eric Wilson of Coldwater, 2-0, and pinned Richie Collins of Jackson Northwest in the finals in 4:38.

Taylor began with a pin of Derek Herman of Union City in 5:05, followed with a 9-2 decision over Edsel Matthews of Mendon, and edged Andre Lanston of Albion, 6-5, in the finals.

Jim Hassett started with a 16-0 technical fall over Trent Allen of Mendon, then pinned Mike Boyles of Pennfield in 1:48. In his third match he earned an 18-2 technical fall over Mark Thrall of Bronson. In the finals he beat Aaron Benson of Edwardsburg, the number one seed, 13-2.

Wingrove also wrestled four times and began with a pin of Joe Giebe of Sturgis in 4:38, followed by a 13-6 decision over Tracy Stout of Coldwater. In his third match he faced Randy Monroe of Mendon and won a 7-0 decision. He followed that with a 18-0 technical fall over Craig Keagle of Athens, the number one seed.

VanSchoick recorded two pins in his three matches. He started with a fall over Brian Neal of Pennfield in 1:05. Brian Fuller of Gull Lake was his second victim, 16-3. In the finals, he pinned Lonnie Brown of Edwardsburg in 3:39.

Eric Hanna at 130 and Pat Hassett at 171 each took second place in his class.

Hanna shut out his first two opponents. He stopped Ken McKinley of Bronson, 9-0, then Chris Flock of Sturgis, 4-0. However, he lost in the finals, 8-5, to John Landeburger of Jackson Northwest.

Hassett lost a heartbreaker to W.R.

McMasters of Athens in the finals, 5-4. "Pat is really wrestling well, he just made a mistake and gave McMasters five points," Kargel said.

"Pat is just now starting to turn the corner. Every good athlete reaches that point. He'll make a big difference to the team the rest of the way."

To reach the finals, Hassett pinned Toby Dantes of Coldwater in :55, Clint Wagner of Mendon in 3:22, and Derek Crites of Bronson, the number one seed, in 3:56.

Rex Nye, at 135, took third place. He beat Tad Butters of Bronson, 6-4, and Craig Schmidt of Edwardsburg, 4-0, before losing to Brian Bender of Gull Lake via pin in 1:52. In his final match he topped Chris Smith of Jackson Northwest, 5-4.

Fourth place went to Alan Hanna at 125. He started with a pin over Charlie Rorabacher of Michigan Center in 1:42, then won a 13-8 decision over Jason Piper of Harper Creek. Tom Wallace of Sturgis handed Hanna his first loss, 3-2. In the battle for 3-4, Hanna lost to Pat Etherington of Edwardsburg, 4-0.

Matt Herter at 160 and heavyweight Mike Terpstra each took fifth place.

Herter opened with a 9-7 win over Abe Hecht of Sturgis, then lost via pin to Schafton Dunklin of Albion in 3:25. He followed with a 15-0 win over Erwin Short of Coldwater, a 1-0 victory over Jason Hogan of Pennfield, and an 8-7 decision over Hecht again.

Terpstra also had to wrestle five times. He opened with a pin of John Harvey of Harper Creek in 3:15, before losing a 6-0 decision over Frans McKee of Albion. Jason Davis of Bronson lost 12-6, Traverse Smith of Edwardsburg was pinned in 2:05, and Eric Olson of Pennfield was pinned in 1:41.

Adam Taylor was back in the lineup at 152 pounds and took sixth place. He pinned Todd Master of Athens in 1:36, then lost a technical fall to Matt Patrick of Mendon, 21-9. He came back with pins over James Fred of Union City in :51 and Mike Tavalasky of Michigan Center in 2:47. In the battle for 5-6, he was pinned by Rob Brooks of Harper Creek in :47.

The Bulldogs routed the Dexter Dreadnaughts, 66-3, to stay unbeaten in the Southeastern Conference.

Dexter forfeited four weight classes, giving victories to Vince Stahl at 103, Alan Hanna, Pat Hassett, and Terpstra.

Six Bulldogs earned pins. They were Wickman, Taylor, Eric Hanna, Nye, Wingrove, and VanSchoick.

Herter took a 3-0 decision and Jim Hassett won 8-2.

In a battle of cousins, Chelsea's Kevin McCalla lost a 6-4 decision to Jeff McCalla at 140 pounds.

Bulldog Tankers Outswim Pirates In 'Big Night of Improvement'

Chelsea Bulldog boys swim team, ranked ninth in class B-C-D, improved its record to 4-1 with a 94-77 victory over the Pinckney Pirates last Thursday, Jan. 18.

"We had outstanding efforts by nearly every member of the team, who turned in a total of 10 season-best times," said Chelsea coach Dave Jolly.

"Our young men really went after each swim and our younger and less experienced swimmers really took control and swam like champions. The team is coming together through hard work, and it is paying off. They take a lot of pride in what they do."

Garth Girard began the night of improvement for Chelsea with a time of 1:53.47 in the 200 freestyle, a drop of nearly half a second.

Brett Paddock also had a good night, Jolly said. Paddock posted a 2:12.86 in the 200 individual medley, to top his previous best time by nearly one second. He also swam a :52.97 leg in the 400 freestyle relay. Other members of the relay included Girard, Wally Schmid, and Joe Huettnerman. Each swimmer had his season's best leg.

"It was especially nice to see Wally put together two fantastic swims in the same meet," Jolly said. Schmid also qualified for the state meet in the 100 freestyle with a time of :51.65. He became the third member of the relay team, along with Girard and Paddock, to qualify.

Diver Jamie Basso had his best scoring performance of the year with 185.60 points.

"Diving is proving to be an integral part of the team," Jolly said.

Scott Long, a newcomer to the team this season, "went hog wild" in the 100 butterfly to win and record a 1:36.0, his best time. Adam McArthur also swam the event and posted a 1:26.8.

Huettnerman, whom Jolly calls the "distance king of the future," recorded a 5:23.89 in the 500 freestyle.

"Joe has the heart of a swimmer and fights like a dog in every event," Jolly said.

Steve Brock swam his season-best time in the 100 backstroke with a 1:09.84.

In the final individual event of the evening, Henry Alvarez and Long each recorded season best times in the 100 breaststroke at 1:27.58 and 1:28.42, respectively.

SPORTS NOTES

BY BRIAN HAMILTON

It was a night of questions last Friday at Pinckney High school, when the Bulldogs and Pirates matched up in the final game of the first round of league basketball play.

Some of the questions were answered, but others were not, such as:

What were those guys doing in there, anyway?

During the course of the game, I asked several Pinckney fans what goes on in those pre-game Pinckney pile-ups. Nobody really knew, but a couple had some smart, yet unprintable, answers.

Every team has its pre-game rituals, and Pinckney's was certainly unusual looking, a little like a scramble at the goal line for a fumble. I couldn't help wondering whether the guys on the bottom were all that comfortable.

Another question was, can the officials completely ruin what could be the most entertaining game of the season?

The answer was, no they couldn't, although given the right conditions the score could have been 120-118 rather than 98-84. The officials called such a tight game, especially in the first half, that it seemed like the game was being stopped about every 10 seconds or so. Both teams wanted to push the ball up court, but the officials seemed to call fouls for all kinds of minor contact.

A third question was, can Chelsea survive despite major foul problems? Again, the answer was yes. Kerry Plank, Chad Starkey, and Brian Burg each picked up his fourth foul before the fourth quarter even started. None of them fouled out. And none of them seemed to play less aggressively either. They just played smarter basketball, and kept their cool.

Chelsea also got an excellent performance from its bench. Sophomore Jon Royce scrapped inside, rebounded well, and scored a career-high 18 points. Royce is turning into one fine player and could be one of the key guys at the end of the season. He's developing a good touch on his shot, but his rebounding may be his most valuable contribution.

Jude Quilter is the one Chelsea player who is as quick as any of the Pirates. His defense was especially valuable Friday. Tucker Steele grabbed a couple of big rebounds and put the finishing touches on a five-point Bulldog play.

A fourth question—could Chelsea withstand the inevitable Pinckney run? The Bulldogs were up 39-32 at half-time, but after three minutes, Pinckney had the game tied at 45. The Pirates were running their fast break almost effortlessly. However, a minute later, Chelsea was up by seven again. Pinckney closed the gap to 62-60 at the end of the third quarter, but the Dogs scored the first eight points of the final period.

Another question. Could Chelsea win the game at the foul line? The Bulldogs have had their problems at the foul line this year and for a time were shooting around 52 percent. However, they made 20-24 shots in the final period, a great pressure performance.

Yet another question—how many Pinckney girls are cheerleaders? Another one of those unanswered questions. However, at one point I counted 30 along one end of the gym.

The final question—can Chelsea go through the second half of the SEC season unbeaten? My best guess is yes, although every opponent will be trying to play the role of spoiler. Some teams, such as Saline, are bound to be better than the first time around. The Bulldogs can afford to lose a game and still win the SEC title outright, as long as they beat Tecumseh again.

There were more Chelsea fans in Pinckney than there have been at some of the home games this season and at times it sounded like a home game. Maybe the bandwagon is rolling now. Let's hope it doesn't stop.

Congratulations to wrestler Pat Taylor, who recorded his 110th career win last week. Doug Wingrove has also surpassed the 100-victory mark.

SOPHOMORE JON ROYCE had a big game off the bench for the Bulldogs last Friday in Pinckney. Royce scored 18, including a left-handed put-back after grabbing this rebound.

Beach Swimmers Top Dundee, Lose Close Meet to Milan

Beach Middle school boy's and girl's swim team started their season with two meets last week. The first was Monday, Jan. 15 at the Dundee pool where the Chelsea team defeated Dundee by a score of 48-27. The second meet was a heart-breaking loss to Milan, 77-73, at the Chelsea pool.

The Milan meet was exciting right from the start. Chelsea started with a first-place finish in the 200 medley relay by the team of Betsy Schmunk, Matt Montagne, Matt Fischer, and Kevin Kolodica, turning in a time of 2:06.55. The relay team of Mike McEachern, David Stimpson, Corey Brown, and Erica Street was third in 2:28.15, and the team of Katie Welfaert, Ninete Vermeulen, Hally Orr, and Bridgette Reinhardt was sixth. This put the score at 10-4 in favor of Chelsea.

The next event was the 200 freestyle, where David Brock was second in 2:19.95, Rob Maybaum was fifth in 2:54.99, and Vermeulen was sixth in 3:23.00 making the score 15-15. In the 50 freestyle, Craig Vosters was second, Montagne was third, and Hally Orr was sixth with times of: 27.08, 27.81, and 33.68. At this point Milan led 33-29.

Stimpson took second place in diving, putting the score at 39-33 in Milan's favor.

Fischer started the second half of the meet with a victory in the 50 butterfly with a time of 30.22. Maybaum was fourth in 42.91 and the score was 47-41, Milan. Then, in the 100 freestyle, Vosters was second in 1:02.86, Kolodica was third in 1:04.26, Vermeulen was sixth in 1:32.31, and Chelsea trailed by eight points, 56-48.

In the 100 backstroke, Brock was third in 1:16.39, Schmunk was fourth in 1:16.59, and McEachern was fifth in 1:24.05. Chelsea trailed 66-54.

Chelsea made an attempt at a comeback, with Montagne taking a close second in the 100 breaststroke in 1:14.49, Stimpson third in 1:34.84, and Street fourth in 1:37.15, making the score 73-63. The 400 freestyle relay was a big event for Chelsea with the team of Brock, Vosters, Schmunk, and Kolodica taking first in 4:20.47, and the team of Maybaum, Brown, Orr, and Street taking third in 5:06.82. This event left the Chelsea team just four points away from the Milan total, 77-73.

"I was very impressed by the way these kids were able to hang on and race well when it would have been easy to just give up," said coach Dave Brinklow.

"They showed a lot of determination throughout the entire meet, and it paid off in the end. There were several exciting races and I think any time you can be within striking distance of a Milan swim team, that's something to be proud of."

Chelsea took an early command of the Dundee meet by starting with a first and second finish in the 200 medley relay. The relay team of McEachern, Montagne, Fischer, and Kolodica took first place with a time of 2:11.7, while the team of Schmunk, Stimpson, Brown and Vosters was second in 2:21.2.

In the 200 freestyle, Brock was first in 2:21.2, and Schmunk took second in 2:27.0. It was another 1-2 finish in the 100 individual medley with Fischer winning in a time of 1:10.4, and Kolodica taking second in 1:15.2.

Montagne won the 50 freestyle in 28.0, and McEachern was fourth in 34.9. Fischer was first in the 50 butterfly in 31.3, and Maybaum was second in 41.4.

Brock won the 100 freestyle by just touching out teammate Vosters. Their times were 1:04.6 and 1:04.7, respectively. McEachern was second and Brown was third in the 100 backstroke with times of 1:25.9 and 1:29.0.

Montagne came back for another victory in the 100 breaststroke with a time of 1:19.0, while Stimpson was third in 1:36.1.

The 400 freestyle relay team of Street, Orr, Vermeulen, and Reinhardt finished the meet with a second place finish and a time of 5:46.7.

Frosh Cagers Lose Contest To Pinckney

Chelsea Bulldog freshman basketball team was whipped by the Pinckney Pirates, 62-36, last Monday, Jan. 15.

"We are a better team than we showed," said Chelsea coach Dave Quilter.

"In the third and fourth quarters we gave up a total of 40 points, which is usually what we give up for the game."

Chelsea was down at half-time, 22-18.

The Pirates' pressure defense caused problems for Chelsea for most of the game.

Quilter praised the play of Colt White, who played well throughout the game.

White led the Dogs with 15 points. Other scorers included Eric Brown 6, Chris Dunham 6, Scott Larson 2, Hans Kemnitz 2, Nick McCalla 2, Ed Waller 2, and Dana Schmunk 1.

Pinckney held a slight 25-22 rebound advantage. For Chelsea, White had five and Dunham and McCalla each had four.

Dan Knight Wins Ann Arbor Poetry 'Slam' Contest

Wolf Dan Knight of Chelsea was 1989 poetry contest winner at Ann Arbor's poetry "Slam" held at the Old Heidelberg on N. Main the first Tuesday night each month.

He has also read his poetry, and poetry done jointly with his wife, at poetry sessions in Ypsilanti, Toledo and Detroit.

Tuesday, Feb. 13, Wolf will be featured reader at Ron Allen's Horizons in Poetry meeting at Alexander's Lounge, 4265 Woodward at Canfield, Detroit. Preceding and following the feature will be an open stage or open mike for anyone who wishes to read two or three of their own works. Call 476-1686 after 6 p.m. for information.

Any type poems are welcome and the audience at Alexander's is always warm and supportive. Sharon Smith-Knight conducts the program. She is a school teacher and makes everyone behave.

THE MORE COOKIES sold by local Girl Scouts, the more incentive prizes they get. Above, the girls show some of the things they can win, from a t-shirt to a certificate for two free weeks at Camp Linden.

Faith in Action Volunteers Cited at Recognition Dinner

On Saturday, Jan. 20, Faith in Action held its annual Volunteer Recognition Dinner in the Main Dining Room of Chelsea Community Hospital for more than 80 people.

Purpose of this dinner is to honor all of the volunteers who devote their time, talent and concern for other people throughout the year. These volunteers serve in many capacities including working in FIA House, providing transportation, visiting people, arranging for appointments for the FIA Free Health Clinic, maintaining the food inventories and all of the activities of the organization.

Each month a pot-luck luncheon takes place at which a Volunteer of the Month is named and presented with a small token of appreciation. At the annual dinner Russ Severn was named Volunteer of the Month and was presented with a pen. Mrs. Becky Tuttle was named Volunteer of the Year and presented with a locket engraved with "FIA Volunteer of 1989."

Prior to presenting these awards, the Rev. Dr. Jerrold Beaumont, president of Faith in Action, introduced Heather Fletcher and Pat Gauthier as the two youngest volunteers and Ethel Halst, Esther Nicolai and Helen Walz as volunteers who were 80 years of age or over.

Cpl. Joseph McDougall With Marine Unit

In Mediterranean Area
Marine Lance Cpl. Joseph E. McDougall, son of Lenard E. and Mary H. McDougall of 1200 Wilkinson St., Chelsea, recently deployed to the Mediterranean Sea while serving with 24th Marine Expeditionary Unit, Camp Lejeune, N.C.

Nearly 2,200 Marines and sailors departed from Morehead City, N.C. aboard ships of Amphibious Squadron-Six for the six-month deployment. The service members will join more than 3,000 sailors aboard the five ships that comprise the squadron homeported in Norfolk and Little Creek, Va.

A 1985 graduate of Chelsea High school, he joined the Marine Corps in July 1985.

Rev. 'Bud' Cassidy To Speak Tonight

The Rev. "Bud" Cassidy, founder of Leadership Training International and Bud Cassidy Ministries, will be the speaker tonight at Chelsea Full Gospel Church. The Rev. Cassidy's ministry involves training pastors and operating schools in Africa and India. He recently returned from an evangelistic tour of India.

Tonight's 7 p.m. service will include a message by the Rev. Cassidy as well as singing and worship. The public is invited.

Chelsea Full Gospel Church meets at the Lima Township Hall, 11462 Jackson Rd., just east of Chelsea.

St. Barnabas Church Holds Annual Meeting

On Sunday, Jan. 21, St. Barnabas church held its annual meeting to elect new members for the Bishop's Committee and other committees.

This meeting which is required to be held to establish budgets, elect delegates, review the preceding year's activities and to formulate goals provides an opportunity for members of the church to express their opinion.

Elected to the Bishop's Committee for a three-year term are the following: Cathy Heester and James Collins. Members of the committee serving for two years are: David Booth and Jerilyn Beck. Members with one year remaining of their term of office are: Leon Case, George Lewis and Richard Long.

Following the annual meeting Leon Case was elected by the Bishop's Committee to be the warden for 1990, a position he held in 1989. The warden is responsible to both the priest and the members of the parish to assist in the operation of the church other than liturgical.

Also elected were Mona Molnar as alternate delegate to the annual convention of the Diocese, David Booth, George Lewis, Richard Long and Mona Molnar as delegates to convocation.

Chiropractic Health Care

Dr. J. Nicholas Koffeman

This week we will change our focus a little bit, to begin some discussion on research. There will be many times in this column when I will bring up research matters, new findings, and ongoing studies. First, we need to have a little background. One hears occasionally that chiropractic hasn't been proven scientifically or is not scientific. First, we need to understand that both chiropractic and medicine are arts and practices based on scientific principles but neither one is a true science. It has been estimated that 90% of all medical procedures have never been proven with "hard science." That is to say with double blind studies.

A double blind study is one where neither the participants or the researchers know who's getting the real therapy. This is easy to do (sometimes) with a drug but difficult with other therapies including an adjustment to the spine. Both the patient/participant and the doctor/researcher knows if an adjustment has been made. Since the beginning, chiropractic as well as medicine, has based much of its work on clinical observations. Over its 95 years of existence the chiropractic profession has amassed huge volumes of information on its treatment. When something works as well and as naturally as the therapies applied by doctors of chiropractic, they need to be used. To say we must wait until it's proven by science is not only unscientific in principle but wrong due to the moral responsibility to patients. This is not to say that research shouldn't be done to test what we are observing (the first principle of science) but people need to understand the complexities of this.

Much research has been done over the years in our profession and new and exciting studies are ongoing. Research methods (protocols) are evolving that leave less room for error and bias. In the coming weeks we will discuss this more. Please address questions or comments to: Dr. J. Nicholas Koffeman, 138 East Middle Street, Chelsea, MI 48118 or call (313) 475-2088.

THE DAY OF JUDGMENT

The past few weeks we have looked at the rewards and punishments of man, and how each can be obtained; and though this may have seemed rather basic, this lays a solid scriptural background for an in-depth look at what we may term as the Doctrine of Man. If we look at the Doctrine of Man closely we can see that it's fundamental teaching is that man will be righteously judged and given a punishment or a reward for the acts which s/he has committed. A question to which I present is: when is judgement passed upon us? When do we give an account for our actions, and given an according sentence? 1 Cor. 4:18 answers, "Therefore judge nothing before the time, until the Lord come, who both will bring to light the hidden things of darkness. . . . Notice that we will give an account when the Lord comes, and not before. We are not judged at the time of death, nor do we receive our reward at the time of death. If we did, the judgment would not be a valid one, for it would not be a judgment of the Lord. We continue this thought in Acts 17:31, "Because he (being JEHOVA) hath appointed a day which he will judge the world in righteousness by that man (being Jesus Christ) whom he hath ordained. . . . There is coming a day when judgment will be passed upon all mankind at once. All who have ever lived, and passed away, will be resurrected, and those of us who are still alive will all appear before the throne of judgment in one simultaneous period of time which the scriptures term "the day of judgement", and it is after this judgement that we receive either the reward (eternal life) or the punishment (death). Notice the words of Jesus in Rev. 22:12, "And, behold, I come quickly! and my reward is with me, to give every man according as his works shall be." Notice again that the reward of man is dependent on the return of Jesus Christ. The reward lies within him to be given unto man, not before or after, but at the return of Jesus Christ, and this reward will only be given to those upon the earth.

Agriculture, Reading Go Hand-in-Hand

Last week 400 elementary students at Klager Elementary school, Pleasant Lake, enjoyed a special reading week, called, "Make Friends With Books." The week focused on reading and writing and they learned about agriculture while doing both.

On Tuesday, Washtenaw County Farm Bureau's Promotion & Education Committee greeted the children with an Ag Fair in their very own gym. A long-haired German rabbit named "Cloud Nine" was on hand with her owner, Sue Wiley, to demonstrate the spinning of her fur into yarn. This showed how we use angora to make clothing as well as sheep wool.

But the rabbit was not the only display of the day. The P & E committee displayed tables of commodities and information which the kids walked by. They were given many informational brochures as well as stickers, buttons, pencils and food too!

"The P & E committee was established by Farm Bureau members in the nation who recognize the need to enhance the proactive image of Farm Bureau for agriculture," says chairman of Washtenaw county's committee, Robin Welshans. "They recognized the value of dedicating their efforts and involving more people than ever in Farm Bureau to ensure the future of our industry, agriculture."

The children also enjoyed a game of "Pin the tail on the Pig," demonstrating that a pig curls its tail when it's happy.

The P & E committee is ready to supply schools and other proactive ag groups with the resources to hold such activities. If anyone is interested in learning more about an Ag Fair or would like to know more about the Washtenaw county Farm Bureau Organization, contact the county office at 663-3141.

Jim Finch's Venison Chili

Chelsea resident Jim Finch has had his recipe for Venison Chili published in Outdoor Digest magazine.

The recipe should work equally well with hamburger or other meat. For all you deerhunters with more venison than you know what to do with, Finch's recipe follows. The chili can also be frozen and reheated in a microwave oven for a quick meal or snack.

VENISON CHILI

1/4 C olive oil
2 large onions, chopped
1 C chopped celery
3 garlic cloves
3 lbs venison burger
1 qt tomatoes
1 1/4 C beef broth
6 oz tomato paste
salt to taste
4t cumin
1 T chili powder
1 t cayenne pepper
1/2 t oregano
1/2 t allspice
2 cans Mexican chili beans

Heat oil. Cook onions, celery, and garlic over medium heat until vegetables are soft. Add burger, breaking meat up with a fork. Cook until meat is done throughout. Add tomatoes and their liquid, broth, tomato paste, salt, cumin, chili powder, cayenne pepper, oregano, and allspice. Cook over low heat for one hour. Add beans and heat through. Serves six.

Chelsea Police Capture Two Prison Escapists on Interstate

Two escaped Cassidy Lake Technical School inmates were captured last Thursday, Jan. 18 thanks in part to an alert off-duty Chelsea police dispatcher.

Robert Clark, who had just gotten off work, saw two men walking along the eastbound lane of I-94 at 12:34 a.m. He knew that two prisoners had been missing from the prison since at least 10 p.m. He notified Chelsea police.

Officers Mike Foster, Steve Jaskot, Rodney Schneider, and Riley Sumner all responded. Foster apprehended Ronald Syrjala, 17, after a short foot chase. Cecil Turner, 28, attempted to run, but was also captured quickly.

Syrjala was serving 1-5 years for receiving stolen property. Turner was serving 5-15 years for armed robbery and two years for possession of a firearm during a felony.

School Board Notes

Present at a regular meeting of the Chelsea Board of Education Monday, Jan. 15, were Comeau, Redding, Satterthwaite, Wales, Feeney, Cherem, Eisenbeiser, superintendent Piasecki, assistant superintendent Mills, principals, Mead, Stielstra, Benedict, Wescott, assistant principal Rossi, curriculum director Bissell, special education director DeYoung, athletic director Welton, guests.

Meeting called to order at 8 p.m. by president Anne Comeau.

Entered as official communications were (1) thank you letters from students of Sally Pelter's class of items purchased with Board of Education mini-grant funds; (2) MASH survey forms for completion by board members; (3) petition from bus drivers asking to name the bus garage in memory of the late Elmer Lindow; (4) information regarding the MASH Mid-Winter Conference.

Special Education Director Dr. Henry DeYoung presented a preliminary evaluation of the supported education pilot project at North school. North school teacher Barbara Brown and High Point's Anne Kornow were present at the meeting and apprised the board of staff and student activities involved in the project. According to these staff members, the program's favorable first-semester evaluation was made possible through the support, flexibility and respect exhibited by North school staff, students, senior citizens and community volunteers.

The board accepted a gift of a balance for use in the High School Science Department. Through Mr. Hammer's solicitation efforts and a contribution by the Civic Foundation, this gift was made possible.

The board approved the appointment of Ruth Withey to the position of high school media specialist.

The board approved the bid submitted by Kingscott Associates, Inc. to conduct a study of the future facility needs of the school district.

The board renewed the contract with the Chelsea Community Hospital for the CARE (Employee Assistance) Program for the 1990 calendar year.

The board approved minor revisions in the Chelsea High School student/parent handbook and the course offering booklet.

The board formally accepted the Music Boosters' contribution toward the acoustic band shell.

The board convened in executive session at 10:25 p.m. to discuss personnel matters, reconvened in public session at 11:15 p.m., and adjourned at 11:35 p.m.
