ONE HUNDRED-NINETEENTH YEAR—No. 51

CHELSEA, MICHIGAN, WEDNESDAY, MAY 16, 1990

24 Pages This Week

WEBER FIELD, formerly called Dana Field, was officially dedicated Saturday morning as village president Richard Steele, right, and former village president Jerry Satterthwaite unveiled the rock containing the dedication plaque. Weber, former village manager, was the driving force behind the creation of the popular ball fields. Satterthwaite said Weber probably would have been embarrassed by the whole idea of naming the field after him. At left are the Rev. Fr. Philip Dupuis and Weber's widow, Sandra.

THE WEBER FAMILY was on hand for the official dedication of Weber Field, the softball complex now named after their husband and father, Frederick "Fritz" Weber, the former village manager. The plaque reads, "Dedicated in memory of Frederick A. 'Fritz' Weber for his years of outstanding service to the village of Chelsea." From left are daughter Karen, widow Sandra, and daughters Shelly, Joan, and Anne.

Secretary of State Office Will Stay Here But Maybe Not Downtown

Downtown Chelsea's Secretary of State office might be moved to another village site after the first of the year.

Although state officials say they won't make a final decision until early July, they have visited several sites in the village, all south of the immediate downtown area, said field officer Hans Hertrich.

The primary problem with the current building is handicap accessibility, Hertrich said.

The Office of Management and Budget has sent out five bid packages to Chelsea landlords, said Elizabeth Boyd, media relations specialist for the Secretary of State. Deadline for returning the packages is July 3.

"We are absolutely committed to staying in Chelsea," Boyd said.

"We need to provide our service to that part of (Washtenaw) county. However, we are committed to making all our branch offices barrier-free."

The office has been a fixture downtown for more than a decade. It is seen by the downtown business community as an important asset because it draws many people to the area who might not come here otherwise.

The state's lease with the Schneider family for the building at the corner of Main and Middle Sts. runs until the end of this year, so any move would not take place until then.

According to Hertrich, it's standard practice for each site to be reviewed during the final year of its lease.

Hertrich said accessibility for the handicapped is what has disqualified other downtown sites, such as the soon-to-be-vacated Dancer's store, from consideration.

"The bottom line is the building must have barrier-free standards and it's going to be tough to get a waiver on that," Hertrich said.

"Most of downtown Chelsea has a step up. That's what's going to hurt an older building. I don't know how those buildings could be modified economically. If anyone can come up with a site downtown that works, we'll look at it."

However, as downtown buildings go, the Secretary of State building is relatively barrier-free. A wheelchair can get in the front door, although someone has to hold the door open, said Judy Schneider. She has taken her husband, Carl, into the building in his wheelchair. The bathroom is also barrier-free, Schneider said.

The building, at 1,000 square feet, is also too small by about 300 square feet, Boyd said.

Adequate parking is another problem and the state wants 25 spaces.

Schneider said she and her husband would be willing, if possible, to modify the building to keep their current tenants. However, she said the state has not asked her about that possibility.

"There would be a cost factor involved," she said.

"We can't afford to spend an enormous amount of money."

The Sylvan building is barrier free, but is way short of space, as well as bathroom facilities, Hertrich said.

Village president Richard Steele has had several conversations with the state about keeping the office downtown, and the state has sent him the bid package to give him the opportunity to find a suitable site.

The state first started advertising for a site in February, Boyd said. Initially it got no responses. Eventually someone from the office drove through town looking for suitable sites.

Landfill Might Close To Townships on June 1

The village landfill may close to everyone but village residents and businesses on June 1.

"May" is the key word. Village council met in a special session last week and did not make a concrete decision as to how long township residents will be able to use the facility, said village manager Robert Stalker.

Whatever decision is made will not affect the regularly-scheduled twice-weekly garbage collection within the village, Stalker said. The village is considering the idea of hauling its garbage to another landfill.

Landfill operator Cecil Clouse has found additional room that the village had not counted on, Stalker said. That extra room will handle about two weeks worth of village garbage. Consequently, if the landfill license dispute with the Department of Natural Resources hasn't been solved by mid-June, it's likely the landfill will have to be closed for everyone, at least temporarily.

The situation is getting expensive for the village. The village's landfill fund accumulated about a $7,000 deficit for March, the first month of the new fiscal year, Stalker acknowledged.

"When the budget was planned the assumption was made that we'd have our new landfill license," Stalker said. "We'll still be all right, assuming we get our license."

Stalker said official action by council would be required to close the landfill to township residents. That action would likely have to come at another special council meeting later this month.

Stalker said he assumes that under any circumstances the village recycling center at the landfill will remain open.

Sylvan Township Approves Budget, Plans Road Work for 1990

Sylvan township expects revenues of $350,129 for the 1990-91 fiscal year, according to supervisor Don Schoenberg.

The major sources of revenue are $101,300 from the state and $130,000 from the township's tax levy.

The township will also have a carry-over of $114,229.

The township has budgeted $80,000 for fire protection, $70,000 for roads, $10,000 for zoning enforcement, $3,000 for the final payment to the Chelsea courthouse restoration project, and $15,000 to the Town Hall Fund.

No money has been budgeted to take care of problems at the Village of Chelsea Landfill on Werkner Rd.

All township officers were given a $1,000 raise. The assessor's salary is $15,000, the supervisor makes $16,000, and the treasurer's and clerk's salary are each $14,500.

Township trustees will be paid $1,500 each, and planning commission members will make $35 or $45 per meeting, depending on the seat held on the commission.

The township is planning to finish Musbach Rd. this year. Conway, Bush, Helm, and Loveland Rds. will also get some berm and gravel work.

CHELSEA COMMUNITY donates the most blood per capita in Washtenaw county, and the American Red Cross recognized that achievement by presenting local blood drive co-ordinator Marlon Kerns, right, with a plaque that will be displayed at all Chelsea blood drives. Barbara Pate, regional representative of the Red Cross, left, made the presentation. Chelsea has four drives per year, including one today. The plaque reads, "Chelsea Community—in grateful appreciation for outstanding support of the community blood supply."

Police Seeking Man Who Raped Chelsea Woman

Ann Arbor Police are still searching for a man who raped an 18-year-old Chelsea woman in an Ann Arbor parking structure April 29.

According to reports, the woman met her assailant at a local club and even danced with him during the evening. As she left to go home, the man forced her into his car in the parking deck and raped her.

Police said the woman, a village resident, has provided a good description of both the man and his car. Several suspects matching the man's physical description have also been questioned by police but released after the woman said they weren't involved.

Drunk Woman Caught Driving Wrong Way on I-94

A Napoleon woman was arrested for drunk driving early Saturday morning after police stopped her while she was driving the wrong direction on I-94.

Chelsea police were asked to assist Michigan State Police in the incident. According to reports, police caught up with the woman, who was driving east in the westbound lane, about 100 yards east of Fletcher Rd., where she was forced onto the median.

Police said the woman nearly fell out of the car when her door was opened. When she was asked to get out, she did not comply, police said.

The woman was handcuffed and taken initially to a detoxification center at Chelsea Community Hospital.

CHELSEA SOPHOMORE ROB COELIUS, center, became Chelsea third state forensics champion as he won the prose 9/10 competition with his selection, "Magic," by

Chelsea High school forensics team placed third in the state in class B at the state tournament held May 4-5.

Sophomore Rob Coelius became the school's third state champion in the program's history as he won the prose 9/10 category with "Magic" by William Goldman.

Previous champions were Phil

Powers in 1982 and Phil Thomson in 1988.

Jeff Latimer also won a trophy for taking fifth place in prose.

The multiple team, performing "The Wonderful World of Dr. Seuss" placed sixth in the state. Team members were Kate Peckham, Allison Brown, Lance Satterthwaite, Julian Vorus, and Matt Herter.

Roundtrip bus service to Ann Arbor was expected to be in place by the end of the year. Faith in Action, Chelsea Community Hospital, and the Chelsea United Methodist Home approached the Ann Arbor Transit Authority (AATA) about instituting a three-year pilot program that would provide bus service from Chelsea to the AATA's downtown headquarters near Fourth and William Sts. It was likely the return trip would be routed through Dexter.

"Notifying the carriers of the AIDS virus can go a long way to slow the spread of the disease. Once people know that they are potentially infectious for the AIDS virus, they will be able to take precautions to protect their loved ones and sexual contacts. In addition, such individuals are excluded from further donations, thus protecting the blood supply. That is what's behind the American Red Cross policy of notifying blood donors who test positive for antibodies to the AIDS virus," said A. William Shafer, M.D., director, American Red Cross Blood Services, Southeastern Michigan Region. He pointed out that the Red Cross is very aware of the fears and concerns associated with a positive test result and takes steps to avoid unnecessary notification. Two tests are used to determine whether or not a blood sample contains antibodies to the AIDS virus. The first is a highly sensitive test that is used to screen out any potentially infectious units from the blood supply.

An award-winning television program about Lake Superior was to be broadcast on all Michigan Public Broadcasting System affiliates. The public hearing concerning the recommendation not to re-hire Chelsea High school counselor George Bergman was rescheduled. The postponement action was officially taken at the board's Monday night meeting. School Board officials said the meeting was postponed because attorneys could not be present. Bergman, who had served in the capacity of counselor at Chelsea High school from September 1958 to June 1962, requested the public hearing concerning the recommendation that he not be re-hired. The recommendation was made by CHS principal Charles Lane who said he would not reveal the particulars of his case before the hearing.

Within nine minutes of the call received at 2:40 p.m. "every truck that rolls on a fire," was on the scene at the Charles W. Trinkle dairy farm in Lima township. According to Chelsea volunteer Larry Adams, Chelsea firefighters joined departments from Pittsfield, Manchester and Dexter to battle the blaze which engulfed four buildings on the Trinkle property. The fire of unknown origin destroyed the main barn on the property, a silo, an adjacent masonry barn and burned the upper story off a barn housing the milking parlor. Thirteen calves died in the blaze and another cow suffered smoke inhalation and had to be destroyed. The rest of the Trinkle 160-cow herd was saved.

South Elementary school began a week-long celebration to honor Mrs. Evelyn Haab's 19 years of service and dedication as their school secretary. The festivities were to include a daily recognition by the students and staff of each grade level, highlighted by a Bicentennial Music Program at the Chelsea High school gymnasium which was to be presented in Mrs. Haab's honor.

The Chelsea United Methodist Church was the scene of a drug abuse seminar. The program was designed to help parents better understand the various drug abuses and then to talk about the abuses with their children. It was organized by Nina Schneider, Chelsea school social worker.

Report Urges Higher Pay, State Office To Boost Nursing

A chronic and growing nursing shortage, particularly in specialized fields, should be addressed with better pay for experienced nurses, more options for independent practice and a new state office to co-ordinate state policies to better develop the profession, a Public Health task force reported recently.

The task force report also urged an increase in nursing licensing fees to help support scholarship programs to attract more persons to nursing.

The 32-member task force, which included physicians, health care facility representatives, nurses, state officials and legislators, cited a 1988 study found the shortage in Michigan hospitals at 11.3 percent, and getting worse.

Public Health Director Raj M. Wiener said the shortage exists in nearly every aspect of health care, and is a serious problem in nursing homes.

"Hospitals and nursing homes are having trouble recruiting and retaining nurses," she said.

Former Public Health Director, and now dean of the Wayne State University School of Nursing, Gloria Smith, who chaired the task force, said demand continues to outstrip the supply, with compensation, a smaller pool of high school graduates and new life-extending technology all contributing to the problem.

"The willingness of men and women to enter and stay in the profession is not keeping up," she said.

"We don't know what the magic strategy is, but (compensation) needs to be addressed," Smith said. The task force recommended employers boost compensation levels and address other issues such as pensions, shift flexibility and child care. Only in a few instances are wages rising in response to demand, she added.

Smith said the nursing profession continues to be plagued by a "compression" of the salary scale, where the maximum pay range is reached after just six or seven years.

The Michigan Nurses Association's 1989 survey showed entry level salaries for public health nurses at $22,859, rising to $27,165 after six years. For hospital/medical center nurses, it was $24,960 rising to $27,973. At U-M hospitals, the pay range for the lowest classified clinical nurse as of June will be $32,136-$40,248 and for higher classified nurse is $35,714-$47,736.

Smith said financial support is a major way to recruit more people into nursing. The report recommended a special fund supported by increased nursing license fees (now at $20 every two years) as well as state support.

The fund's goal would double the number of scholarships for nursing students.

An Office of Nursing was proposed to co-ordinate nursing policy, develop short and long term policy recommendations, serve as a focal point, and monitor the supply and utilization of nurses in all health care settings.

Some of its duties would be to develop ways to improve the nursing practice, pursue innovative compensation mechanisms to promote use of nurses as primary providers; provide forecasts of nursing supply and demand and look for ways to restructure nursing roles and duties to provide more autonomy.

Wiener said a state focal point for nursing is needed, and said she would start by co-ordinating her department's activities. The efforts may eventually evolve into the recommended Office of Nursing, she said.

The report also called for a nursing career center under a private agency, such as the Michigan League for Nursing, to help raise the image of nurses, and cited a need to increase the number of specialists.

The nurse specialists could provide primary care for vulnerable populations such as the homeless, HIV-infected and rural residents through expanded programs and increased state support.

Among the other recommendations:

—promotion demonstration projects to improve the utilization and retention of nurses in health care settings with improved working conditions and better use of nurses as independent health care providers.

—study the economic contribution of nurses and determine how to achieve economical utilization, including a cost benefit analysis of the role and use of nurses by their employers.

—expand state work training programs, including those under the Job Training Partnership Act, to include nursing.

—improve access to information on licensure and disciplinary actions, with increased funds for the Board of Nursing and a review to develop recommendations for better investigation of complaints.

—improve the transfer of credits from the associate degree level to baccalaureate and master's programs, and offer programs in more flexible settings. The task force suggested efforts to develop a basic core of transferable lower division courses and methods for evaluating nurse practice experience. National studies indicate associate degree nurses will nearly catch up to demand in 30 years while those with advanced degrees will fall dramatically behind even the current levels of shortage.

Uncle Lew from Lima Says:

DEAR MISTER EDITOR:

The fellers and the Federal Government have one thing in common. They can't agree on wether making companies write clearer contents on food would be good or bad. Saturday night, Ed Doolittle introduced a clipping as evidence that the Government usual winds up following, not leading the people.

Ed had saw where the U.S. Secretary of Health and Human Services and the U. S. Secretary of Agriculture were of two minds on the matter. The USDA head knows what reworking all the labels would mean for the food industry, he knows who would hear all the griping, and he says stay out unless there could be a risk to public health. The health head says to many problems already have come up and better labels would mean better health.

Practical speaking, declared Ed, if they want signals from the eating public they got a long wait. Ed said he has done his share of eating out of cans and boxes, and he has read a heap of contents in his time. Most of em lately look like problems you might find in a college chemics textbook, and the ones he could figger out he was sorry he did. For instant, he said, when he eats a plain soda cracker he's eating Niacin, Thiamine and Monotrate and when he smears potted meat on it he's eating jelly made from bits and pieces of animals that's left after everthing normal folks admit to eating is gone.

The fellers had not done their homework on the food label issue, so Ed's report was took fer information after Bug Hookum said the only can he reads says sardines, soybean oil and salt, and the good news is when you open em you can't tell if they're spoilt. But Clem Webster said you got to give the Government credit fer being 100 percent right onct in a while. Clem said he had saw where the U.S. Bureau of Statistics found that low pay was the big reason folks that work full time are poor. And you can go back to President Coolidge to see where Cal broke his silence and said that his Administration had learned that as more and more people lose their jobs unemployment increases.

Actual, went on Clem, not ever issue is as clear cut as poor folks don't have much money. But he had saw where Belgium has showed us a way fer our Government leaders to hoe the tough rows. They can resign temporary, like Belgium's king did on making abortion legal, and come back when the kitchen cools. It's a good thing President Nixon didn't use that trick, or today we'd have half the Congress quitting ever weekend.

Practical speaking, Zeke Grubb said, Winston Churchill was right about democracy being the worst form of Government except for all the others, and the kind of representative democracy we got is the best and worst of the lot. We got the elected people working to stay elected and the people hired to do the work trying to justify their jobs, Zeke allowed, and we end up like the dog that chases what little of his tail he can't bite off.

Fer instant, Zeke had saw where a outfit offered to pay $1.25 million to record hearings of the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission because it could make much more selling copies to utilities. FERC decided to pay fer the service because it would have to turn the money over to the U.S. Treasury, and not spending all the money you can get is the worst sin a Federal agency can commit.

Yours truly,
Uncle Lew.

JUST REMINISCING

Items taken from the files of The Chelsea Standard

 800,000 visitors each summer. The 10 million mark was tabulated from the time attendance records were first started approximately 12 years ago.

Ground was to be broken at a site off Sibley Rd. for the new $2,800,000 expansion program of the Chelsea Products plant of Dana Corporation Salisbury division. Village officials were invited to join with Dana officials at the ground-breaking ceremonies. President Donald Baldwin was to represent the village of Chelsea when the first spadeful of earth was turned for the 118,000 square foot facility.

The proposed millage increase went down to a resounding defeat when 507 voters cast ballots opposing the increase and 384 voted in favor of the increase. Eight ballots were declared ruined and not counted. The Board of Education met following announcement of the operational millage election defeat to consider the appropriate course of action in view of the threatened loss of some $185,000 in tax revenue. The Board was faced with two alternatives. They could either reduce expenditures to match income and reduce services accordingly, or retain the program as originally recommended and take the case back to the people for reconsideration in an attempt to secure voter endorsement and the mandatory funds.

34 Years Ago . . .

Wednesday, May 17, 1956—
 Miss Mabel W. Fox, local teacher, was honored by two independent teacher groups. At the completion of three years as president of Southeastern Michigan Associated Teachers Club, she was signally honored by being voted an official expense-paid delegate to the NEA convention to be held in Portland, Ore. Usually the incoming president is so honored, but the club voted to send both Miss Fox and the incoming president, Mary Robinson of Wynadotte. Miss Fox was also elected to the board of directors where she had served previous to her presidency.

An estimated total of $4,000,000 damage was done the past week-end by 20 tornados and twisters in the Upper and Lower peninsula. In addition to the damage from the high winds, there were electrical storms accompanied in some areas by hail. In this vicinity thunderstorms continued throughout Saturday night. Only serious damage by the electrical storm reported in this area was the loss of six cows killed when lightning entered the barn on the Ardell Lantis farm near Waterloo. The southeast section of Flint was hit by a tornado at 6 p.m. with extensive damage reported. A Chelsea area man, Stanley Czapia, happened to be visiting relatives there at the time the twister struck with lightning speed. He said he had just parked his car in the driveway when the storm struck. He joined the family in the basement of their substantial ranch-style brick home. The family had carried mattresses to the basement and huddled under them as a protection from flying glass and debris. None was injured but the interior of the house and the furnishings were shredded by broken glass from the windows, all of which were shattered.

Fifteen new uniforms for Chelsea high school band members which were tentatively due here to be worn for the Michigan Parade in Ann Arbor, and failed to arrive in time, arrived here May 2. Also received were blue and white shako type hats for the three drum majorettes. With the arrival of the new uniforms, Mrs. Willard Pearson, uniform custodian, and her assistant, were busy re-assigning the new and all the other uniforms before the band embarked on the trip to the VFW competition in Bay City.

The first national labor union that still exists today is the international Typographical Union, formed in 1850, according to "Labor Firsts in America," a U.S. Labor Department publication.

Letters to the Editor

To the Editor:
As the owners of the Bakers Dozen in Manchester and the Village Bakery in Chelsea, we are compelled to respond to last week's letter from Ms. Gilbert regarding her opinion that Chelsea "could use a bakery of its own (not one where food comes here from other towns)".

Firstly, the food comes from our Manchester operation and is delivered daily to Chelsea. Why? Simply because the Manchester facility is large enough to accommodate the baking procedures and the one in Chelsea is not.

If you were to survey every food service establishment in Chelsea, you would probably discover that many of their offerings come "from other towns," an inevitable necessity, unless, of course, the merchants plant their own gardens, raise their own animals and build food processing plants. Silly, isn't it?

We do much of our business in Chelsea. We purchase supplies, eat and bank here. We are proud to say that our business in Chelsea is thriving. There's a lot of activity most days. We obviously are fulfilling a need and providing quality service. We are a viable part of this community, with a hard-working, dedicated manager.

Chelsea, Ms. Gilbert, for the past 15 years has had and does have a bakery of its "own."

ROADSMART

Presented by Huron Valley Traffic Safety Committee

Q. What's the biggest problem with driving after drinking?

A. Alcohol affects your judgment, and you can't drive safely and you don't even know it! You need judgment to determine speed of your car and others; to determine distances; to determine passing times; to judge where to turn; and to know when to stop.

NOTES

DONALD A. COLE, Director

"Old age makes us wiser and more foolish . . ."
—John Ray

This apparent contradiction is actually a profound truth. As we grow older, we get both more wise and more foolish. We benefit from experience; we are able to predict effects from certain causes; we learn to live with what is available and not expect miracles too often.

Perhaps because we are wiser, we also grow foolish, in that we become more cynical, less idealistic and more content to accept the imperfections we live with. Younger people, not yet wise enough to recognize the impossible, must provide the wisdom that brings momentous changes.

We realize that every service we conduct is unique in the life of a family. We make every effort to conduct the ceremony as a source of beautiful memories.

The first national labor organization of city federations was the National Trades' Union formed in 1834 in New York City, according to "Labor Firsts in America," a U.S. Labor Department publication. Its 21,000 members sought to "advance the moral and intellectual condition and pecuniary interests of the laboring classes... and to unite and harmonize the effects of all productive classes of country." The organization lasted until 1837.

La Leche League Will Be Honored

La Leche League of Western Washtenaw County is pleased to learn that the organization will be honored during the world-wide telecast of "Night of 100 Stars III" on May 21 when Marian Thompson, one of La Leche League's founders, will receive an award during the Achievement Segment of this three-hour entertainment special.

La Leche League International has 3,000 groups in 49 countries offering information and encouragement to those interested in breastfeeding. The organization was founded by seven women in 1956 who were seeking information and support for nursing their babies. Information about breastfeeding was almost non-existent as the incidence of breastfeeding at that time was 17% in the USA. Today more than 61% of new mothers in the United States are choosing breastfeeding and that increase has been attributed to the work of La Leche League.

La Leche League of Chelsea/Dexter was founded in 1973, and held meetings until 1986. At that time, leaders in Ann Arbor and Manchester continued to assist Chelsea mothers who requested help. In 1989, La Leche League of Manchester became LLL of Western Washtenaw County, and Leaders Ellen Renwick in Chelsea and Marsha Chartrand in Manchester currently lead monthly discussion meetings which focus on all aspects of breastfeeding. Meetings are held on the fourth Tuesday of each month and additional information may be obtained by calling 475-3092 or 428-8831. La Leche League International is a living example that individuals CAN make a difference in the world. Seven busy mothers seeking information have changed the way mothers worldwide nurture their infants. The "Night of 100 Stars III" will echo what the mothers of western Washtenaw county have known for 17 years.

The opossum is the only marsupial (one that carries its young in a pouch) found in North America and the only marsupial not found in Australia.

Farm Bureau Offers New Dental Program

Washtenaw County Farm Bureau in co-operation with Michigan Farm Bureau and Health Care Exchange has announced the addition of dental insurance to its current group of member benefits.

Douglas Fleming, manager of membership services for the state's largest agricultural organization says the plan is just what they have been looking for in dental insurance. "The Health Care Exchange PPO dental plan is the first dental program that we've seen that will meet both the administrative and the product needs of our 106,000 members state-wide. Most dental insurance products were fine for the employer-employee setting, but we're a membership organization where each member voluntarily joins every year."

The organization already offers health insurance, travel services, car rentals, Visa card sponsorship, and many more services to its membership. Fleming feels dental is a long needed addition to the member service package. "With a large percentage of our members being self-employed, they often find getting dental insurance on an individual basis very difficult or just plain too expensive."

The HCE product will not only be available to all Michigan Farm Bureau members, but Fleming feels it will have economic benefits in the long run. "The HCE plan will not only save our members money, it also promotes good dental habits by making regular dental office visits affordable," Fleming said. A survey of the membership last fall found the members were very interested in the program. "In fact," Fleming states, "over 17 percent of the members surveyed said they would even switch dentists to take advantage of the program."

Decision on Dairy Use Of BST A Year Away

The Food and Drug Administration (FDA) said its decision on the use of the bovine somatotropin, the hormone that induces cows to give more milk, is not likely before next spring.

The FDA already is satisfied that BST does not pose a health risk to humans who use the milk, but they are still studying its effect on cows.

Nature from Your Backdoor

By Glenn R. Dudderar

May is the month of spring flowers and spring planting. Forsythia, lilacs, tulips and daffodils, crabapples, magnolias and a host of other spring-flowering plants burst into bloom, and homeowners rush to plant annuals, perennials, trees and shrubs, and backyard vegetable gardens.

As welcome as the spring flowers are, they don't last long. A landscape with only spring-flowering plants in it soon turns an unrelieved green. Green grass, green shrubs and green tree leaves don't offer much variety to the eye of the beholder.

So I'm suggesting that you make this year the year for planting something different.

There's nothing wrong with the traditional forsythia, lilacs and crabapples—they're just done too soon. With a little forethought and some research, you can add other plants to your landscape that have more to offer.

Start by thinking about what you want plants to do in the landscape. Do you want flowers in the summer or attractive branching patterns of fruit for interest in winter? Do you need a climbing plant to screen out a less than wonderful view or shade your patio in the late afternoon? Are you looking for a way to cut down on the amount of grass you have to mow, especially on sloping areas? Would you like a flower garden that provided color all spring and summer and didn't have to be replanted every spring?

I've started taking this management-by-objective approach in my yard. To the standard spring-flowering lilacs there—which I enjoy immensely for the two or three weeks that they bloom—I have added summer lilac, or Buddleia. It flowers from June to September. Its lilac-like flowers come in pink, purple and white, and they are extremely attractive to hummingbirds and butterflies. Regular lilacs, of course, are done flowering before hummingbirds migrate back to Michigan and before butterflies are present in large numbers. Other attractive summer-flowering shrubs are cardinal shrub and sweet pepperbush.

A woody vine that produces a gaudy display of flowers all summer until frost is the trumpet creeper. Its orange, trumpet shaped blooms are also very attractive to hummingbirds. You can allow it to climb a fence or make an arbor for it or grow it on a post for support and then prune it so that it looks like some sort of exotic weeping tree. At my house, I'm using it to shade my west-facing patio. The hummingbirds it draws in close where I can watch them are an extra benefit.

Summer-blooming perennials such as great blue lobelia, phlox, freesia, butterfly weed, bergamot and beebalm have a place in my garden because they give me flowers from June through August and because the scarlet flowers of beebalm and the pink blossoms of phlox attract butterflies and hummingbirds. In shadier spots, columbine—and on rich, moist soil, cardinal flower—will do the same during June and July.

Lots of annual flowers are available that will give you color from planting time until frost. But we can't talk about plants attractive to nectar-sipping creatures without mentioning petunias for sunny areas and impatiens in the shade.

As you've no doubt figured out by now, having flowers throughout the summer is one goal of planting the materials I've just mentioned. The other one is to put together a butterfly and hummingbird garden.

You can achieve these goals and many others with a wide variety of plants. Perhaps your goal is to create a minimal maintenance landscape. This would mean choosing plants that are well adapted to Michigan's climate and fairly pest free, as well as plants that grow slowly or stop growing at a certain size so they don't need continual pruning to keep them a manageable size. Or maybe you want to develop a landscape that will provide food and cover for a variety of birds. All you have to do is decide what your goal is and then seek out the plants that will achieve it for you.

Whatever your goal, achieving it will probably mean looking beyond the traditional landscape plants to find those annuals, perennials, vines, trees and shrubs that will do just what you want done in the landscape.

As you increase the diversity of plants in the landscape, you'll also increase the variety of creatures that will find your home grounds a desirable place to live—or at least visit. As you observe and enjoy the wildlife attracted by your well chosen plantings, you may conclude that diversity in the landscape is not a goal so much as a technique—a way to increase your enjoyment of nature from your backdoor.

Walker Tavern Museum Opens For Season

With spring in full bloom, day-trip travellers with an interest in history should make plans to visit the Walker Tavern Historic Complex near Cambridge Junction in the Irish Hills. Walker Tavern, a Department of State satellite museum which opened May 13, provides insight into the settlement of Michigan in the late 1800s.

Walker Tavern was a major hub for pioneers traveling into southern Michigan between 1832 and 1852. The Historic Complex features the original restored white frame salt-box inn and stagecoach stop (circa 1840s), a frontier-era barn and a modern visitors center.

The inn and stagecoach shop contain many artifacts and an audiovisual presentation to help students understand what Michigan frontier life was like in the 1830s and 1840s. The exhibits and artifacts recreate frontier transportation, pioneer agriculture and tavern life.

Walker Tavern is now open Wednesday to Sunday, from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. The Museum is open daily after Labor Day. Museum staff requests that large groups make reservations in advance by calling (517) 467-4414.

Walker Tavern is located in Cambridge State Park about 20 miles southeast of Jackson on Michigan Route 50, one-quarter mile before its intersection with U.S. Route 12.

There is no admission charge to tour the complex.

Charitable Trip to Nepal Turns Into Political Lesson for Dr. Hawks

Chelsea ophthalmologist Dr. William Hawks has made several charitable trips to the Kingdom of Nepal over the last decade to battle various forms of eye disease and normally expects his greatest challenges to be medical ones.

However, in his most recent trip in late March and early April he landed in the middle of a country on the verge of political upheaval. He witnessed pro-democracy demonstrations, including a strike by physicians in Katmandu, the country's capital city. And he managed to change his airline tickets home just before a general strike was scheduled to grip the country.

"At no time did I feel we were the targets of violence and at no time did I feel threatened," said Hawks, who was visiting the country as part of the University of Michigan's corneal disease program.

"However, we did have a rock thrown at us as we were driving into Katmandu."

Hawks said he could feel the political tensions rising daily as various political allegiances were being formed and more violence was occurring. Hospitals were shut down. The country's foreign minister resigned. The Ministry of Education was closed down by the king. Police began keeping medical personnel away from injured demonstrators.

"We started to see signs of anarchy," Hawks said.

"Doctors were setting up tables in the streets and seeing patients there. The local newspaper said nothing about what was going on and Voice of America and BBC had very little news about what was going on."

Although Hawks and his colleagues were able to complete much of their work in the outlying areas, the political turmoil did disrupt Hawks' planned activities considerably. He couldn't give surgical demonstrations at Katmandu's University Hospital because it was closed down by the government.

He couldn't travel outside of his hotel at night and lights had to stay off in his room because lights on was a signal of allegiance to the kingdom and might invite trouble.

For the most part he managed to stay out of the way of trouble and said several times he arrived at particular areas where it was obvious demonstrations had just been completed, as evidenced by rocks and bottles and other debris in the street.

"We were scheduled to leave on Saturday, April 7 but by Tuesday it was evident we'd probably have to leave early," Hawks said.

"We were tipped off by our colleagues that there was probably going to be a general strike on the sixth. So we changed our airline tickets to Thursday."

After holding his final conference on Thursday, he took a 2 p.m. flight to Bangkok aboard Thai Airlines. Royal

DR. SANDUK RUIT of Nepal was a house guest last week of Chelsea ophthalmologist Dr. William Hawks. Ruit is a corneal surgeon at Nepal Eye Hospital in Katmandu and is one of the many professionals Hawks routinely visits on his trips to Nepal. Ruit was in the area to help design a research program at the University of Michigan.

Hawks said he knew there might be problems before he left as the U.S. State Department had issued a warning against trekking in Nepal.

However, he never considered staying home.

"I don't think it's appropriate to pull up stakes in that kind of situation," Hawks said.

"The blind people are still there and they need our help and support."

Nepal Airlines had been stopped that day.

"The airport was jammed with tourists who were trying to get out," Hawks said.

As it turned out, Hawks had left just in time. By Friday the king had fired the prime minister and Nepalis were gathering downtown. The Nepali opened fire and killed about 150 demonstrators near the palace.

Lewis Publishers Ranked 63rd In List of Growing Companies

Lewis Publishers, Inc. of Chelsea was ranked the state's 63rd fastest growing private company in a survey by Michigan Business Magazine published in May.

The company, which publishes professional and university text books on science and engineering, had total net sales in 1989 of $2.3 million. The company was recently purchased by a larger publisher. Former company president Ed Lewis is now a consultant for the company.

The company has also grown from four full-time employees in 1985 to 20 last year.

According to the survey, the companies on the list have added 5,312 new jobs and added $655.9 million to the state's economy last year.

Sixty-five of the companies had 1989 sales under $1 million and 77 companies employed 25 or fewer people.

The state's fastest growing company was PPOM of Southfield and Grand Rapids, a "preferred provider organization." It has had a 97.18 percent compound annual growth rate in revenues over the last five years.

Chronic obstructive pulmonary disease (COPD) and asthma affect 23.7 million persons, or almost one in 10 Americans.

Dogs Split With Pinckney, Go into Tourney Second

Chelsea Bulldog baseball team finished second in the Southeastern Conference during the regular season as they split their final SEC double-header with Pinckney last Friday.

Chelsea lost the first game, 5-3, but recovered in the nightcap for a 7-1 win.

In the opener, Chelsea managed only three hits. However, they had the bases loaded in the sixth inning with two outs but a strikeout ended the threat.

The Bulldogs gave up three runs in the third inning as the Chelsea defense faltered.

Doug Wingrove pitched and took his first loss of the season.

"Doug pitched well enough to win most games," said Chelsea coach Wayne Welton.

"We had our chances." Jude Quilter, Kerry Plank, and Brandon Murrell had Chelsea's only hits. Plank's drove in both runs.

In the second game, Rob Clem picked up his sixth victory of the season with a four-hit, seven-strikeout performance.

Chelsea scored single runs in the second, fifth, and sixth innings, and four runs in the third.

Jake Rindle had the big day at the plate as he went 3-4 with a pair of doubles and two RBI.

In the second, Clem singled in Rindle, who had doubled.

The four-run third inning started with a double by Wingrove, single by Kyle Plank, and a double by Clem-Tucker Steele walked and Ben Hurst also singled in the inning.

Steele's sacrifice scored a run in the fifth, and Rindle's single in the sixth plated the final run.

Chelsea played one game Saturday in the Rawlings Tournament before their final scheduled game was cancelled due to the weather.

The Bulldogs, who won their division, finished second in the tournament as they lost to Saline 10-4.

Chelsea fell behind in the second inning, 4-1, as an error, two walks, and four hits gave Saline four runs. Four straight walks gave the Bulldogs their run.

Saline added two runs in the fourth and three more in the fifth, before scoring their final run in the seventh. Chelsea scored a single run in the fifth, highlighted by Steve Emmert's triple, and two runs in the seventh on singles by Wingrove, Rindle, and a sacrifice by Rick Westcott.

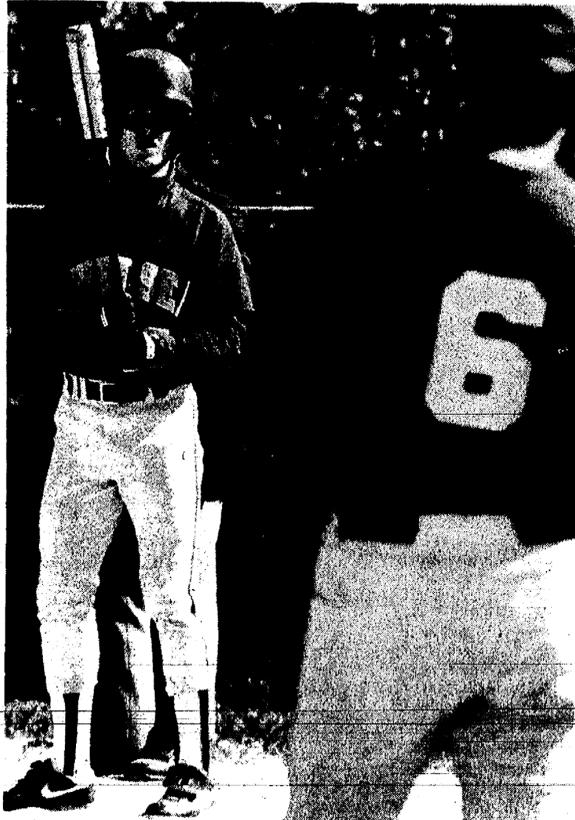

Howell finished as tournament champion.

In action Monday against Brighton, the Bulldogs lost the first game of a double-header, 1-0, but rallied in the second game to take a 9-8 win.

Rindle pitched the first game, gave up five hits and struck out two. The only Brighton run came on a wild pitch in the sixth inning.

"Jake pitched a superb game," Welton said.

"His location was excellent and the umpire told me he didn't see Jake throw a single pitch down the middle of the plate."

Chelsea had the bases loaded in the seventh but a double play ended the threat.

A three-run Chelsea rally in the bottom of the seventh gave the Bulldogs the win in the second game.

Steele reached first on a strikeout after the catcher dropped the ball. Jeremy Stephens and Kelly Beard each walked, and Quilter was hit by a pitch to force home the first run. Emmert followed with a soft liner, that bounced off the heel of the second baseman's glove. A subsequent throw to second to nail Quilter was wide, and two runs scored.

Wingrove hit a two-run homer early that gave Chelsea a 3-2 lead.

Clem and Wingrove split the time on the mound.

Chelsea is 16-5-1 for the season.

Bulldog Tennis Team Loses Two Matches

Chelsea Bulldog tennis team ran into two tough opponents last week and lost to Monroe Jefferson, 5-2, on Monday, May 7 and Ann Arbor Greenhills, 6-1, on Tuesday, May 8.

Two Chelsea starters were out for the Jefferson match and their absence affected the outcome, said coach John Capper.

Chelsea got their victories from Chris Wilson at first singles, 6-4, 6-2; and Taka Adachi and Rob Coelius at first doubles, 6-1 and 7-6.

Shaun Capper lost in three sets at second singles, 6-1, 1-6, 3-6. And Richard Mason and Scott Leeman lost in three sets at second doubles, 3-7, 6-2, 3-6.

In other matches Scott Pacheco lost at third singles, 2-6, 1-6, and Ben Manning lost at fourth singles, 3-6, 4-6.

Sean Daigle and Jeff Peterson lost at third doubles, 2-6, 0-6.

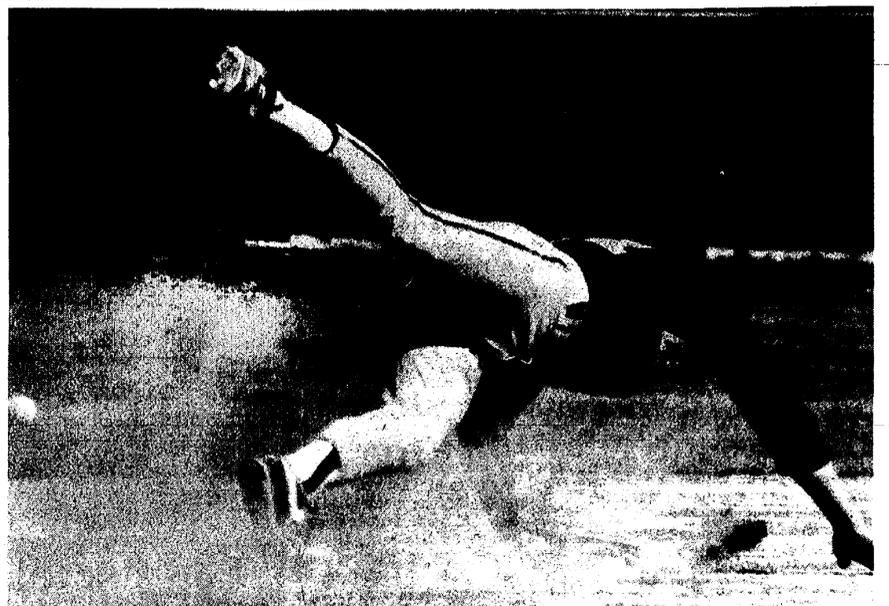

In junior varsity action, Scott Dale won a three set match at first singles, 3-6, 6-4, 8-6.

John Rigg picked up the only win for Chelsea at first singles against Greenhills, taking a 6-3, 6-2 win.

"Greenhills was much too powerful for us," Capper said.

Wilson lost in three sets at second singles, 6-1, 3-6, 0-6; Capper lost at third singles, 2-6, 4-6; Pacheco lost at fourth singles, 1-6, 3-6; Manning and Adachi lost at first doubles, 2-6, 1-6; Coelius and Mason lost at second doubles, 6-8, 1-7; and Peterson and Daigle lost at third doubles, 0-6, 1-6.

Since 1970, the prevalence of asthma has increased in all age groups. From 1979 to 1987, the number of deaths from asthma increased by over 67 percent (from 2,600 deaths to 4,360 deaths). Hospitalizations for asthma are increasing. (Between 1979 and 1986, hospitalizations in those over the age of 15 increased by 33 percent over this same time period.) Over three million children under the age of 18 have asthma. It is one of the major causes of school absenteeism.

IT WAS A VALIANT EFFORT by Chelsea second during last Friday's first game against Pinckney. The baseman Jude Quilter but the ball just got under his glove Bulldogs split with the Pirates.

Bulldog Softball Team Wins Only Game of Week

It was a tough week for the Chelsea Bulldog varsity softball team as the weather took its toll again.

In their only contest of the week, the Bulldogs beat Madison Heights Lamphere on Saturday, 11-0. Their second game was rained out.

A scheduled double-header with Pinckney on Thursday was rained out and re-scheduled for yesterday.

Chelsea started out slowly on offense Saturday and the game was tied 0-0 after one inning.

However, Chelsea scored in each of the next four innings.

Shawn Losey's single in the second scored Amy Thomson with what amounted to the winning run.

In the third, Chelsea scored six times. Sarah Musolf led off with a walk, and Christine Burg and Kelly Bellus each followed with a bunt single. Bellus' hit scored a run. Thomson followed with a run-scoring single, Scharme Petty walked, Losey's bunt single scored a run, Kelly Cross' single scored two runs, and Carrie Flintoft's single brought home the final run of the inning.

In the fourth, bases-loaded walks to Thomson and Petty scored two runs. Finally, in the fifth, Bellus' two-run homer capped the Chelsea scoring.

Bellus went 3-3 with four RBI and three stolen bases.

Petty pitched a one-hitter and struck out six. She improved her record to 7-4 and Chelsea's over-all mark to 13-7-1.

"Scharme pitched well and changed her speeds very effectively," said Chelsea coach Pat Clarke.

SPORTS NOTES

BY BRIAN HAMILTON

Earlier this spring I thought the defense of the Chelsea Bulldog baseball team would be one of its strongest points.

Well, let's just say the old Sports Notes hex must have kicked into gear once again.

Errors have killed the Bulldogs this season more than any other aspect of their game. They reached a peak, of sorts, against Tecumseh, with eight fielding mistakes in one game and 12 for the double-header.

You name it, the Bulldogs have committed it on defense. Pop ups that drop between fielders, grounders through the wicket, dropped fly balls, and errant throws to virtually every part of the field. Sometimes its a case of trying to make too good of a play. More often than not, though, its just a mistake.

A lot of the problem can be written off to youth. There are just five seniors.

No one regrets the fielding problems more than head coach Wayne Walton, primarily because he knows how good his team can be if it would quit tying its own shoelaces together.

The team is playing offense extremely well. Lead-off hitter Jude Quilter may be about the best anywhere at walking and stealing second. Kerry Plank has had an exceptional year at the plate, and sophomore Jake Rindle has been one of the SEC's hottest hitters lately. All through the line-up, the Bulldogs are whacking the ball.

Pitching has also been solid. Doug Wingrove has a miniscule earned run average. Rob Clem has lived up to everyone's hopes and, as of last week, led the team in victories with six. Kyle Plank has also had some good outings.

But poor defense at any level of baseball, or most any sport for that matter, can negate an otherwise good effort.

If the Bulldogs play defense this week-end, there's no reason they can't win the SEC tournament and perhaps even the league title. However, Tecumseh has to co-operate by losing its first game.

This has been by far the worst season for rainouts that I've ever seen in Chelsea.

The funny part about it, though, is for the most part the weather hasn't been all that bad, it's just been bad on the wrong days.

The spring got off to a lousy start and virtually every sports event was rained out for the first week and a half. The softball team returned early from their trip to Tennessee to play in a competitive tournament, only to sit home while it snowed.

The baseball team has been rained out five times. They've now played 22 games. A year ago they had played more than 30. The varsity softball team has played 21 games. A year ago their record was 30-4.

I've always thought spring athletes in this part of the country are somewhat masochistic. Just when the weather becomes enjoyable, the season is over. You really have to love the sports to want to compete in 45-50 degrees.

A lot of people, myself included, are wondering what is going to happen with the varsity football program next year.

Head coach Gene LaFave has not quit yet, but there's nearly as much local speculation about his intentions as there is in Detroit about Chuck Daly's intentions after the Pistons are done.

Could LaFave become a color analyst for WPZA's high school broadcasts next year?

The latest rumor I heard has assistant superintendent Fred Mills taking over the program, which I am certain is a figment of someone's vivid imagination. Former coach Phil Boreis' name has also popped up, but a high-placed source in the athletic department said he would be "shocked" if Boreis comes coach.

This local sports-soap opera is supposed to have its final episode by the end of the month.

Bulldog Golfers Beat Ypsilanti

Chelsea Bulldog girls golf team defeated Ypsilanti last Tuesday, May 8, 228-290.

Chelsea's Barb Scriven and Melissa Johnson tied for top honors at 49. Other Chelsea scorers included Nicole Pontz 60, Jennifer Adler 67, Sarah Devine 70, Jennifer Payne 71, and Chris McLaughlin 74.

In a 16-team tournament at Burr Oak Golf Course last Friday, Chelsea finished ninth with a score of 439. Jackson Lumen Christi was the winner with a 364.

Scriven finished fourth over-all and first for Chelsea with a 90. Other Chelsea scores included Johnson 114, Pontz 117, Payne 118, and Devine 126.

Steve Grau No-Hits Indians

Chelsea Bulldog freshman baseball team split with Tecumseh and lost a single game to Saline last week.

Chelsea took the first game of a double-header against the Indians, 6-0, as Steve Grau pitched a no-hitter and struck out 10.

Chris Dunham and Colt White each had two hits and the Bulldogs committed no errors.

Tecumseh won the second game, 5-1. Nathan Oake struck out four for the Bulldogs. Jason Johnson had the only hit for the Bulldogs.

In the Saline game, May 8, the Hornets took a 24-9 win. Johnson had three hits for Chelsea, Nick McCalla had two hits, and Ken Slane and Dunham each hit a triple.

The freshmen are 2-10.

Lisa Unterbrink Has 12-10 Record At Columbus College

1989 Chelsea High school graduate Lisa Unterbrink has proven to be everything softball coach Larry Kees of Columbus (Ga.) College had hoped she would be.

This spring, Unterbrink overcame an 0-4 start to win her last seven games in a row and finish with a 12-10 record and 1.52 earned run average.

"What really surprised us is that Lisa's statistics were almost identical to my other pitcher's, and my other pitcher finished 14-4," Kees said.

"Some pitchers are just unlucky. We just couldn't seem to score any runs for her in those first few games."

In 142 innings, Unterbrink allowed 31 earned runs, 120 hits, 28 walks, and struck out 42.

Columbus College finished 26-14 in a schedule that included a mixture of division one, NAIA, and division two schools.

Unterbrink won all her division one games, including two victories over Georgia Tech.

Kees said the key to Unterbrink's success was her "very deceptive movement on the ball."

Girl Runners Nipped By Indians, Meet Their Match Against Dexter

What looked like it might be a showdown for first place in the girls Southeastern Conference track standings turned into a Dexter show as Chelsea lost to the Dreadnaughts 50-78 on Tuesday, May 8. Chelsea dropped to 3-1 in the conference while Dexter remained undefeated.

The Bulldogs won four events. Jeanene Rossi was the only field event winner, taking the high jump at 4'11". Charity Allen won the 300 hurdles with her season-best of :48.6.

Lisa Monti continued to shine for the Bulldogs, taking both the 1600 in 5:42.2 and the 3200 in 12:25.2.

Tammy Browning tossed the shot put 32'4", her season-best, to take second. Other seconds came from Deanna Richardson in the long jump, Marti Daggett in the discus, Monica Hansen in the 100 hurdles, Anne Steffenson in the 100 and 400, with a 1:02.4 in the 400, and Vicki Bullock in the 800 in 2:35.8.

"Vicki keeps edging her time down," coach Bill Bainton said.

Taking thirds were Leisa Schiller in the long jump and 200, Tiffany Moore in the shot put with a fine 30'3" throw, and the discus, Becky Erskine in the 100 hurdles; ("Becky and Monica Hansen did a good job picking up the slack in the hurdles after Allen was disqualified for a false start."); Allen in the 100, Sara Brosnan in the 800 in 2:40.2, and Val Bullock in the 3200.

"We lost to a very good team," Bainton said.

"We had hoped to be closer, but just couldn't pick up any ground on them. We never got swept, but we lost all four relays, and that's a lot of points to have to make up."

On Thursday, the Bulldogs went to Tecumseh and suffered a 67-61 loss in a meet that came down to the final event. Tecumseh takes a 5-0 league record into their final meet with Dexter while Chelsea fell to 3-2 and third in the league and 6-2 over-all.

Despite the nasty weather, both teams had some outstanding performances. Monti led the Bulldogs with a first in the 1600 in a freshman record of 5:28.7 and won the 3200 in a time of 12:04.1.

Val Bullock also ran a good 3200, lowering her best by over 30 seconds with a 12:30.7 to finish third. Jeanene Rossi won the high jump with a leap of 5'2" and Erika Boughton was third with her best performance to date, 5'.

"The high jumpers just went about their business," Bainton said.

"There were three jumpers and all were over five feet. Excellent jumping under any conditions."

Daggett won the discus in 100'7 1/2" with Moore third. Moore also had a third in the shot put.

Allen won the 100 hurdles in :17.6 and was just nipped in the 300 hurdles, taking second with a time of :49.8.

Steffenson won the 400 and was second in both the 100 and 200 dashes. Steffenson also ran a fast anchor leg coming from behind as the Bulldogs won the 800 relay in 1:55.6. Others on that relay were Allen, Schiller and Richardson.

Schiller was also second in the long jump and third in the 200.

Browning was second in the shot and Vicki Bullock was second in the 800 in 2:35.8.

Hansen, a freshman, was third in both hurdle races, and Jessica Holton was third in the 400.

The meet was close the whole day with several lead changes. The Bulldogs led 44-43 with five events left, but Tecumseh took three races before Chelsea came back with a 1-3 finish in the 3200 to trail 61-62 going into the final event, the whole team cheering, the 1600 relay.

"We had the people we wanted there, and ran the time we had hoped to get, but even though we had the lead a couple of times, we never could get control of the race," Bainton said. Tecumseh took the race by a couple of strides.

It was unfortunate that such an important meet had to be run in such bad weather, but neither team had a satisfactory make-up date available this late in the season.

KYLE PLANK prepares to take the throw at first base during the opening game against the Pinckney Pirates last Friday. Chelsea lost the first game but won the second and head into Saturday's SEC tournament in second place.

Bulldog Girls Track Team Wins Tough Jackson Northwest Relays

Chelsea Bulldog girls track team won four relays, three of them field events, and placed in every event as they won the nine-team Jackson Northwest Relays on Saturday. The Bulldogs finished with 103 points. Runner-up Northwest had 87 followed by Jackson Lumen Christi with 82 and Saline with 70. The Bulldogs had a near perfect day in the field events, earning three firsts and a second. The discus relay of Lisa Bills, Marti Daggett and Tiffany Moore threw a combined total of 247'7" to win.

Jeanene Rossi, Leisa Schiller, Deanna Richardson took first in the long jump with a total distance of 40'8". Rossi, in her first long jump competition ever, turned in the Bulldogs' second best jump of the day. Rossi and Erika Boughton jumped to a first-place tie in the high jump at 9'4". Neither had a miss prior to the height at which they went out. The shot put relay of Daggett, Moore, and Tammy Browning finished second with an 84'11 1/2" total. "Our field event people have worked very well together all season to get the depth we had," said coach Bill Bainton. "In each of the four events, both of the top two people have won at various times this season. It's great that they can all share in the accomplishment in this meet." The other relay win was the 3200 relay of Anne Steffenson, Lisa Monti, Sara Brosnan and Tracey Wales in 10:25.7. The Bulldogs had four consistent, solid legs, with Wales anchoring in her best time ever of 2:38.7 to put it away for Chelsea. The 800 relay of Charity Allen, Moore, Schiller and Steffenson was second, running a season-best time of 1:53.8. Chelsea had a 10-point lead going into that race and the good performance turned in locked up the meet for the Bulldogs. The same foursome came back in the next event with another season-best, taking second in the 1600 relay in 4:19.4. "We ran some of our best splits of the year in both relays," Bainton said. "At least four of the eight legs were season bests." The freshman sprint medley of Brooke Pitts, Monica Hansen, Laura Paton and Wales finished third in 3:28.2. Allen, Becky Erskine, Hansen and Boughton were fourth in the shuttle hurdles as were Monti, Val Bullock, Lauren Sparaco and Joni Thurst in the 400. Also placing fourth was the 400 relay of Christine Mignano, Paton, Richardson and Schiller. In the five-girl relay, unique to this meet, Mignano, Paton, Boughton, Beth Williams and Martina Street captured fifth for the Bulldogs. The middle distance relay of Carmen Smith, Street, Erskine, and Brosnan also finished fifth. Not only did the Bulldogs score in every event, but every person who ran placed. "This was an outstanding team accomplishment. It shows what type of effort the girls put into this meet. We were all extremely happy with the results," Bainton said.

JV Softball Team Sweeps Tecumseh, W'ville in Slugfests

Chelsea Bulldog junior varsity baseball team won four straight games last week. In a double-header against Tecumseh on Monday, May 7, Chelsea took 11-7 and 20-19 victories. In the first game, Chelsea took a 5-0 lead in the first inning and never trailed. Danielle Taylor, Jennifer Petty, Jenny Bobo, and Theresa Hurst singled, and Brandi Kenney doubled to highlight the inning. Kenney finished 4-4 and Bobo was 3-3, while Taylor, Liz Sager, and Petty each had two hits. Petty won the game on the mound as she struck out 13 and allowed 11 hits. "It was a nice solid game by two good teams," said Chelsea coach Ken Sullins. The second game was a slugfest as Chelsea had 23 hits and Tecumseh had 24. The teams also combined for 11 errors and the Bulldogs gave up 11 earned runs. Chelsea rallied for two runs in the bottom of the seventh to take the game as Taylor stole home and Kenney had the game-winning single. "The kids decided they wouldn't be beaten," Sullins said. "They worked their way back and stole the game." Chelsea was down 15-4 going into the bottom of the fourth, when they scored nine runs. After a four-run top of the fifth for Tecumseh, Chelsea responded with five runs of their own. Sandy Schmid, Petty, Hurst, and Kenney each had four hits. In the Tuesday, May 8 set with Webberville, Chelsea won 15-13 and 25-15. In the first game, Chelsea again found themselves way behind, 12-4 in the fourth. However, a seven-run fifth got them back in the game, and a four-run seventh put them ahead. Angie Riley was 4-5 and Schmid, Petty and Bobo each had three hits, including a two-run homer by Petty. Chelsea scored in every inning of the second game as the Dogs pounded out 28 hits, including three each by Kenney, Hurst, and Sarah Franklin. "We started out playing well, but as the game progressed both teams got a little careless defensively," Sullins said. "We did a great job on the bases and putting the ball in play."

The Bulldogs ran their record to 15-2 with a 22-5 victory at Madison Heights Lamphere on Saturday.

Chelsea scored three runs in each the first and second innings before erupting for 15 runs in the third to put the game out of reach. The Bulldogs pounded out 23 hits, including three each by Hurst, Bobo, and McConeghy. The 15-run inning featured seven doubles by the Bulldogs. "It was a sloppy day but we played well," Sullins said. Petty pitched three innings and was relieved by Schmid, who pitched the last two.

Beach Girls Track Team Easily Wins Relays

The sale of Buddy Poppies preceding Memorial Day is the traditional way to bring attention to the sacrifices made by the nation's war dead in their struggle to keep America free. Buy a Buddy Poppy and wear it on Memorial Day.

GREG PARSONS of Chelsea shot this 18-pound turkey Saturday morning in the Waterloo area. The turkey has a 10" beard and is the first one Parsons has ever shot. Parsons says he plans to visit a taxidermist.

Post-Season Play Gets Underway

If the weather co-operates, it will be a big week-end of sports for Chelsea High school athletic teams. Varsity baseball team opens the Southeastern Conference tournament with a 10 a.m. game against Lincoln at Saline. Varsity softball team also opens its SEC tournament at 10 a.m. However, their opponent was not known as of press time as they were scheduled to play their final double-header against Pinckney Tuesday afternoon. Closer to home, the boys and girls regional track meet will begin Saturday at 9:30 a.m. at the Chelsea track. Athletic director Wayne Welton is interested in talking to anyone who cares to work at the meet, whether in the concession stand or on the field. Thirty-two teams will take part in the day-long event. Chelsea varsity girls golf team tees off in their regional at the University of Michigan Friday morning. And the Chelsea varsity tennis team has its two-day regional tournament, also beginning Friday.

The VFW Buddy Poppy is a symbol of the sacrifices made by the nation's war dead in the great conflicts for peace.

Dr. J. Nicholas Koffeman

When we talk about improving health from a clinical ecology standpoint, what exactly do we mean?

Some aspects will of course need a professional to determine. In fact, some aspects won't be able to be determined individually. Just look at the rising cancer rates.

But many things can be improved in a general wholistic way.

Are you drinking chlorinated, fluoridated (and lord knows what else) contaminated water? Stop. Drink water you KNOW to be free of chemical contaminants.

Do you eat processed, adulterated foods? Stop. Preservatives, artificial colors and flavorings, bleached flours and synthetic foods all play a part in this.

Breathing paints, petroleum products etc. on the job or in the home? Once again you are sabotaging your own health.

Don't wait for some government scientist to prove that a particular chemical is bad. This is slow, ineffectual, full of fraud and doesn't take into account the combined effects of all chemicals taken into the body from the environment. The last point being what the clinical ecologists call "total load."

As always, please address questions or comments to Dr. J. Nicholas Koffeman, D.C., 138 E. Middle St., Chelsea, MI 48118. (313)475-2088.

JV Baseball Team Loses To Tecumseh and South Lyon

Chelsea's junior varsity baseball team lost all four games it played last week.

Tecumseh topped the Bulldogs on Monday, May 7, 9-3 and 13-3.

"We need to minimize the number of errors we make offensively and defensively and we'll be all right," said Chelsea coach Jim Ticknor.

In the opener, Chelsea fell behind 8-0 before scoring three runs in the bottom of the fifth inning.

Matt Gaken's double scored one run and Dennis Clark hit a two-run single. Mike Eder and Jason Garrigus pitched for Chelsea.

Chelsea spotted Tecumseh seven runs in the top of the first inning in the second game.

They got one run back in the bottom of the inning on an error after a double by Rob Jaques. However, they trailed 11-1 before scoring their final runs in the fifth. Rick Clouse singled and Lee Skyles doubled home two runs in the inning.

The Bulldogs lost two close games to South Lyon on Tuesday, May 8, 10-8 and 1-0.

In the first game, South Lyon rallied for three runs in the bottom of the sixth to take the win.

"We had a chance but couldn't make the plays offensively or defensively when we needed to," Ticknor said.

Chelsea was down 7-2 before scoring twice in the fifth and four times in the sixth.

Jaques and Jason Adams each had two hits. Adams had three RBI. Brian Bell and Matt Gaken each hit a homer.

Bell pitched and struck out six.

In the second game, South Lyon scored their only run in the bottom of the fourth, an unearned run. Each team had one hit, Chelsea's by Jaques.

Skyles pitched for Chelsea. Chelsea was 5-11 after last week's action.

Also receiving the Distinguished Alumni Award was Joseph A. Caruso, a University of Cincinnati faculty member noted for his research into environmental studies.

Triad Program's Celebrate Live! Event Hits South, North Schools

Enrichment Triad Program at North and South schools have their finals flings over the next week with the Chelsea's Children Celebrate Live! program at the schools.

South Elementary school has its program this Thursday night, while North school's follows next Tuesday night.

Each program will begin at 6:30 p.m., with students arriving from 6:45-7:00 with snacks.

Students in the program selected a subject of interest early in the year, from sports to x-rays, and conducted their own research program. A centerpiece of the program is for each student to solve a "problem" related to the subject of interest.

The annual celebration program allows relatives and friend to see just what each child has learned and how each child went about working on his or her problem. Each student has created an "interest center" complete with pictures, charts, graphs, literature and any other information they found helpful. Each child is also considered an "expert" in his subject of study.

In addition each student will present a one-minute commercial

CRAIG FORSHEE was one of the ringmasters for the South School Circus last Thursday. He shared the spotlight with Betsy Ruhl, seated to the right.

Amendment Sought for Covered Load Law

The Michigan legislature is considering a measure introduced by Rep. Keith Muxlow (R-Brown City) that would clarify the state's covered load law. According to Michigan Farm Bureau legislative counsel Ron Nelson, the current law basically requires that truckloads of farm products be covered so that no product or debris escapes onto the roadway.

"That presents a unique problem for agriculture," Nelson said, "because there are some things such as grain which may be hauled a very short distance and during that time chaff and other light materials blow off. Under current law, that would be a violation."

The Muxlow bill as introduced would exempt blowing materials such as residue from the covered load provisions. But truckers would still be liable if the farm commodity itself falls on the road.

Respiratory disease is the leading cause of death among infants less than one year of age, accounting for almost 38 percent of deaths in that age group.

Grass Lake Man With Naval Mobile Construction Unit

Navy Constructionman Danile C. Larsen, son of Elizabeth M. and Daniel C. Larsen, Sr., of 497 Island Rd., Grass Lake, recently departed Gulfport, Miss., on deployment to the Far East while serving with Naval Mobile Construction Battalion Seven.

During the six-month deployment, Larsen will participate in the restoration and development of various construction sites in the Republic of Korea, Japan, Micronesia, and Alaska.

A 1986 graduate of Milan High School, Milan, he joined the Navy in February 1988.

TOM CEO of Chelsea took first place in the Decorative Lifesize Floating Waterfowl International Woodcarving Championship at Ocean City, Md. April 28-29. His Harlequin duck (a duck native to the east coast) took 386 hours to carve. With the exception of the feet and eyes, it is a solid block of wood and is carved with intricate detail.

Judges include carvers, artists, and biologists, and the latter judge the anatomical correctness of the piece. In addition, the carving has to float in water exactly right, level and with the right waterline. The work begins in a taxidermy shop, where a bird is mounted, which is used as a model for the piece. Ceo lives in the North Lake area.

Weasles Found Across Most of U. S.

Weasels are small furry mammals with slender bodies and short legs. The long-tailed weasel lives throughout most of North America. The weasel's usually brown, with whitish fur underneath.

In the winter, its fur may change from brown to white, depending on how far north it lives. A weasel can grow to be 12-18 inches long, and can weigh up to one pound. The weasel's long, slim body is beneficial in traveling down burrows of other small animals, when searching for food.

Weasels eat reptiles, amphibians, birds, and a great many rats and mice.

Darryl Barber finished the run "first" of the eight-milers in 58 minutes. Tony O'Connor was awarded a medal for training the hardest for the event. In addition to Darryl and Tony, high school runners who participated were Scott Allan, Regina Campbell, Shawn Finley, Marcy Fisher, Lillie Lamson, Jason Neu, Kenny Owens, Laura Place, Mike Place, Mike Policht, Darren Powell, Rusty Schneider and Mark Turnbloom. Joining the high school group at Hudson Mills for the Fun Run, 12 students from Dexter's younger set completed the three-mile Fun Run. Most of them are shown in the photo. The runners included Krystal Boyd, Jessica Businger, Jeremy Harden, Peter Willaker, Rebecca Klaus, Sarah Lee, Joey Pinks, Angela Reaume, Diane Shukait, Martha Taylor, Tim Kelly and James Valentine.

Special Education Students Take Part In Fun Run/Walk

On May 11, 532 special education students from all over Washtenaw county took part in a 3-5 mile run/walk for fitness Friday at Hudson Mills Metropark near Dexter. The run was hosted by the Wolverine Civitan Club and the Chelsea Kiwanis Club.

Volunteers who monitored the course were from the Dexter National Honor Society and Boysville school. They made sure the route was safe and also helped with wheelchair students.

Of the 532 students, 51 ran the eight mile and earned themselves trophies. All other athletes were awarded ribbons when they finished. There were 48 classrooms present and each teacher was given a medal to award to the student who had trained the hardest in the past months for the fun run/walk. In Chelsea and Dexter these medals were won by Jeff Pearsall, Tony O'Connor, Tracey Keezer, and Chip Parker—all 8 milers.

The Wolverine Civitan Club set up the water aide stations and contributed to the cost of the run as did Kiwanis. Kiwanis members Tom Davis, Meryl Davis, Fred Harris, and Grace McCalla worked the finish line and pinned on ribbons until their fingers hurt.

Several local administrators ran with students from their school, including Darcio Stielstra from Beach school, Dave Messner from Dexter High, Henry DeYoung from Region V, and Patty DeYoung from Northside.

The event was organized by Nancy Cooper from Chelsea High with the help of Neta Sage from Dexter High and Anna Boote from Chelsea.

Farmers Receive, Pay Higher Prices

Prices received by farmers for their commodities in April were 0.7 percent higher than in the previous month, according to the U.S. Department of Agriculture. Led by higher prices for cattle and hogs, the average prices received by farmers for the month were 2 percent higher than April, 1989. Also higher for the month, along with finished cattle, feeder calves and hogs, were fresh fruits which rose 11 percent compared to March. Vegetable prices declined, led by tomatoes which took a 13 percent nosedive.

Extension Agent Bill Ames Honored by Pittsfield Grange

Washtenaw County Extension Agent Bill Ames was honored with a community service certificate and plaque April 26 at a meeting of the Pittsfield Grange.

Ames, who has been a county extension agent for 22 years, works with both commercial and part-time farmers in dairy, livestock, field crops, farm management, ag engineering, and natural resources such as land use and water quality. Ames is regarded by his peers as an effective teacher who works for the agriculture community. He works with many agriculture organizations and commodity groups, as well as agribusiness. He also involves extension specialists from Michigan State University in his educational programs and farm visits as needed.

Ames has also worked with the Interfaith Council for Peace in sponsoring farm tours and other programs to educate the non-farm public.

Herman Koenn, master of the Pittsfield Grange, made the presentation. Roy Gillespie, acting director of the extension service at Michigan State, was the featured speaker.

WASHTENAW COUNTY ELECTION COMMISSION HAS APPROVED THE FOLLOWING WORD CLARITY FOR THE RECALL OF DEXTER TOWNSHIP JAMES L. DROLETT, SUPERVISOR AND H. DOUGLAS SMITH, TRUSTEE:

1. His contempt displayed to public input at Township Meetings.
2. His continual attitude and his claims that Dexter Township citizens are not knowledgeable enough to vote on issues intelligently.
3. His continual support of the implementation of a massive Septic Sewer System that would promise to financially devastate the citizens of Dexter Township.
4. His failure to answer legitimate Township questions completely and honestly.
5. His use of the Office of Supervisor for possible personal financial gains.
6. His continual disregard for the rights of Dexter Township citizens.
7. His personal behavior as Supervisor has caused unnecessary financial loss to Dexter Township Citizens and the Dexter Township Fund due to unnecessary legal actions.

Filed by: Chichi Lu Jacobson, chairman.
THE GOOD CITIZENS OF DEXTER TOWNSHIP WANT DROLETT AND SMITH RECALLED IN ORDER TO BRING GOOD GOVERNMENT BACK TO DEXTER TOWNSHIP.

I am backing Chichi Lu Jacobson in this recall as are the many citizens of Dexter Township who don't like their taxes and bad government.

Tax Freedom Day Was May 5

May 5 was a day to celebrate. From that point on, average Americans will be working for themselves instead of paying off their tax liabilities. The Tax Foundation estimates the average American must work 125 days—from Jan. 1 to May 5—to satisfy all federal, state and local tax obligations.

Looking at a typical worker's eight-hour day, the average American taxpayer spends 2 hours and 45 minutes of every workday laboring to pay off federal, state and local taxes. Of that time, the federal government gets 1 hour and 47 minutes.

Tax Freedom Day has been creeping later and later into each year. In 1984, Tax Freedom Day was April 28. Last year, it was May 3. One of the reasons for the gradual creep is that Americans are paying more and more in federal taxes. Despite the gradual increases in taxes, the federal deficit has continued to grow. Since World War II, federal spending has increased by as much as $1.58 for every additional dollar raised in taxes.

Michigan Farm Bureau President Jack Laurie says there is a way to reverse the trend. "One very unrealistic way is to ask every resident of the United States to pay their part of the national debt, amounting to some $12,000 for every man, woman and child," Laurie said. "Of course, the more practical solution to this problem is to reduce the size of government."

Laurie suggested taking a hard look at defense spending. "The fact that we're seeing a movement toward democracy and freedom world-wide should have a very positive impact on the cost of our national defense," he said. "There are also a number of other areas, such as social and environmental programs, that should be evaluated for their costs and benefits."

The farm leader believes that federal farm spending trends will have a positive impact on the national budget as agriculture continues to move toward a stronger market orientation. "When you look at agricultural spending, it's really a very insignificant part of the total federal budget. Agriculture will play its part, but it will be relatively small compared to other spending areas."

VILLAGE OF CHELSEA NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING ON INCREASING PROPERTY TAXES

The Village Council of the Village of Chelsea will hold a public hearing at 6:30 P.M. on Wednesday, May 23, 1990 in the Council Chambers of the Municipal Building, 104 E. Middle Street, on the proposed 1990 Village Tax Levy.

Because of a significant increase in the State Equalized Value of existing property in the Village, State Law (Act 5 of 1982) provides that the base tax rate for 1990 village operations be reduced to 10.17 mills ($10.17 per $1000.00 SEV).

In order to fund the Village's proposed 1990/91 Budget and to maintain essential village services, the Village finds it necessary to restore a portion of its levy reduction. Although the Village has complete authority, under its charter and state law, to establish the number of mills to be levied within its fully authorized millage rate, the Village proposed to levy an additional rate of only .43 mills ($.43 per $1000.00 SEV) above the 1990 base operating millage rate. This will provide an estimated four point three percent (4.3%) increase in village general operating property tax revenues. Individual property taxes may increase greater than or less than the estimated average.

Public comments, oral or written, are welcome at the hearing on the proposed additional millage rates.

VFW Post, Auxiliary Observing 45th Birthday

Chelsea Veterans of Foreign Wars Post and Auxiliary will celebrate their 45th birthday-anniversary on May 20, at the UAW Hall No. 437, 218 S. Main St., with a buffet dinner and program.

The post was organized on April 20, 1945. Their auxiliary followed suit, and was instituted on July 10, 1945. Many of our local servicemen were still serving overseas, in various units, during World War II. They had 77 members sign up that first year and some after their charter was issued.

Charles Ritter was the first commander. They have had 22 commanders, several serving more than one year.

The Post met many places in town before moving to 105 N. Main St. in 1973. In 1978 they were able to purchase the building from Joe Merkel, Sr.

Their main objective is to "Honor their dead, by helping the living." Part of each dues goes to the VFW National Home, for children, located near Eaton Rapids.

The Chelsea Post, was one of the first units to join the Washtenaw County Council of Veterans. The late Ren Hutzel, Laurance Boyer, Carl Heldt, and Fremont Boyer each served as a commander for the Council.

The Post and Auxiliary are in the 8th District, and had Ren Hutzel and Mac Packard as commanders in that.

The selling of Buddy Popples before each Memorial Day helps them to continue the welfare and relief to veterans and their needy families and also to patients in hospitals. Giving American flags by presentations, with the Auxiliary, is another priority. Over 500 American flags have been purchased and donated to all Chelsea schools (some three times) for classrooms, churches, scouting troops, Community Hospital, library, town hall, to name a few receivers.

The Auxiliary had the same goals. They too met in several places. They have had 19 presidents, with Gerry Klink serving them for six different terms. They volunteer at hospitals, help the needy and assist with post projects.

Fremont Boyer and Eulahlee Packard are general chairpersons for this event. If any questions, call either. Guests are welcome, with reservations needed to either one.

Installation of 1990-91 officers will follow the dinner and program.

The direct and indirect economic cost of respiratory illness to our nation adds up to an estimated $45 billion annually.

Jim Finch Shares Chili Cook-off Recipe With Readers

Although Chelsea resident Jim Finch didn't win the 11th Annual Great Chili Cook-off May 5 in Saline, those who tasted his Rough Cut Chili had many good words for the concoction.

Finch, sponsored by Inverness Inn owners Matt and Marge Hensen, said the secret to his chili is the red raspberry vinegar and jalapeno jelly. It was Finch's first time to compete in the contest.

The event was sponsored by the National Kidney Foundation of Michigan.

ROUGH CUT CHILI

- ¼ C olive oil
- 2 large yellow onions, chopped
- 3 cloves red garlic, minced
- 1 stalk celery, chopped
- 1½ lbs. ground round, chili grind
- 1½ lbs. ground chuck, chili grind
- 6 oz. tomato paste
- 4 oz. chopped green chilies
- 2 pickled jalapenos
- 4 oz. jalapeno jelly
- 4 t red raspberry vinegar
- 1 quart tomatoes
- 13½ oz. can beef broth
- 4 t salt
- 4 t cumin
- 1 T hot chili powder
- 1 t each of allspice, mexican oregano, and turmeric
- 1 t cayenne pepper

Heat oil in large pot over medium high heat. Add onions, garlic, and celery and cook for three minutes, stirring often. Add ground round and ground chuck and cook until meat is cooked through, breaking up meat as it cooks. Add tomatoes and their liquid, and all other ingredients, and stir well. Reduce heat to low and simmer for two hours, stirring a few times.

Stereo Equipment Taken from Trucks At Dealership

Stereo cassette players and radios were stolen from nine vehicles at Faist-Morrow Buick, Olds, Chevrolet over the week-end, according to Chelsea police.

Police said someone punched the locks out of nine vehicles, including sport and pick-up trucks, to gain access to the equipment.

Police are investigating the incident.
