THE INTENSITY of Saturday night's storm could be seen on W. Summit St., where this big, old tree was pulled out of the lawn extension by the roots. Many of the trees with shallow roots or rotted-out trunks around town came down in the high winds.

HUGE TREES such as this oak at the entrance to St. Mary's Catholic church on Old US-12 were pulled up from the ground by the roots during Saturday night's violent storm, the worst storm here in several years.

Saturday Night Storm With Violent Winds Causes Heavy Damage

A violent storm Saturday night knocked down hundreds of trees in the Chelsea area, tore part of the roof off Beach Middle school, knocked out electrical power all over the area, overturned a storage semi-trailer at Belser Estates, and damaged homes but apparently caused no serious injuries.

Although no one so far has reported seeing a tornado or funnel cloud, the storm left a 50-foot-wide trail of damage from Old US-12 near St. Mary's Catholic church running roughly parallel to Freer Rd. all the way to Washington St. and beyond. There were numerous reports of trees being twisted at the tops and broken off.

For the number of trees that fell in the area, it appeared there was relatively little serious damage to homes or businesses.

Village crews began working shortly after 10 p.m. Saturday night and continued well into the day Sunday before taking any kind of extended break. As the violent portion of the storm hit, within minutes there were nine reports of wires down in the immediate area. By Monday afternoon there were still a few homes without electricity within the village.

Some residents in the area of Inverness Golf Course were also without power Monday.

Area restaurants reported doing a booming business Sunday morning.

Village manager Robert Stalker said there was extensive damage to electrical poles, which village crews were still working on Monday.

The area at and near the intersection of Freer Rd. and Washington St. appeared to be the hardest hit in the village, although E. Summit St. also suffered extensive damage.

Virtually every tree at the Freer/Washington intersection sustained some damage and one village worker said, "it looked like a bomb went off."

In addition, a storage garage had the roof ripped off, a heavy wooden swingset was pushed all the way across a yard into the back of the owner's pick-up truck, shingles were torn off homes, and branches hit homes. At one time there were more than a dozen people in the area working with chain saws.

Other reports of damage included an overturned tool storage trailer used by Klink Excavating at Belser Estates, extensive roof damage to the gymnasium and cafeteria at Beach Middle school, and the destruction of a garage and breezeway at a home under construction by Gary Adams off Dexter-Chelsea Rd. In the latter case, there were unconfirmed reports of sheets of wood nearly a mile from the building site.

The village will remove trees that fell from the right-of-way. Other trees that fell into the right-of-way will be removed until they are not a danger, Stalker said. Individual homeowners will have to take care of the rest.

Eleven Candidates Seek Two School Board Seats

Chelsea School District voters will go to the polls Monday to elect two new school board members from among 11 candidates.

Board members Craig Wales and Barb Cherem, whose terms expire this year, decided not to seek re-election. Four years ago, voters selected Wales and Cherem from among 11 candidates. That was the last time there were no incumbents seeking re-election.

The board election is the only item on the ballot.

Polls will be open from 7 a.m. to 8 p.m. at Beach Middle school.

The candidates include Dona L. Baird, A. Marie Colombo, Jane Faist Diesing, Roger A. Dymond, James P. "Jason" Eyster, Elin G. Gutierrez, Conrad A. Knutsen, Richard R. McCalla, Roderick A. Powers, Janet M. Roberts, and Mary K. Weber.

What follows are brief biographical sketches of each candidate, in alphabetical order. The Chelsea Standard does not endorse any particular candidates for the positions.

licensed with the Department of Social Services in child placement for abused and neglected children. She is also past area co-ordinator of Healing the Children. That program brings underprivileged children to this country for medical treatment that they cannot obtain in their own countries. She has a seat on the state Healing the Children board and is a member of the budget committee.

Baird is involved in Chelsea service groups and school athletics. She calls herself a "friend to all the children in the community." "A lot of changes are going to come to Chelsea during the next few years due to rapid growth," Baird says. "I want to help maintain and increase the same quality of education and socialization that we have right now, but make it still affordable to our residents, especially our senior citizens."

A. Marie Colombo - Colombo, 18550 Cavanaugh Lake Rd., was born and reared in Iron River in the upper peninsula but has been a Chelsea resident for 19 years. She holds a bachelor's degree in medical technology from Michigan State University and works part-time in the blood bank at Foote Hospital in Jackson, where she's been employed since 1981.

Her husband, Lou, is an engineer. Their three children all attended Chelsea schools and have graduated, Kevin in 1984, Paula in 1986, and Sharon in 1988.

Colombo has been a room mother, Brownie leader, religious education teacher, member of the school

After a sparsely-attended public hearing, the Chelsea School Board approved expenditures of $8,168,428 for 1986-87. The operating budget was based on revenues of $8,169,881, the bulk of that in the form of local tax money. Less than $1 million in total revenues came from the combination of state and federal aid, and transfers from the other programs. With the passage of the 5.6 mill proposal in the elections, Chelsea's operating millage stood at 38.52 mills.

Chelsea's Tim Bowdish took seventh place in the 800-meter run at the state track meet in Jackson. He finished with his best time of 1:59.1. "It was real unusual to do that coming out of the slow heat," said Chelsea coach Bill Wehrwein. Bowdish was Chelsea's only entrant in the meet.

The family of a former Chelsea High school athletic director moved to a Houston suburb to take a new position with a company that installed artificial playing surfaces and running tracks in high school and college stadiums. "We're sad to be leaving Chelsea, we really are," said Judy Nemeth, who left her job as a teacher's assistant at St. Louis school. The Nemeths have two sons, Tom, 20, and Jeff, 17. Tom was to continue his studies in mechanical engineering at Michigan Tech.

Just in time for summer. Tiled in shades of baby blue, the 104'x42' pool housed on the grounds of Beach Middle school was impressive even without the water. Business manager Fred Mills said the firehose was expected to let loose some 200,000 gallons of water needed to fill the pool.

The process was to take from 10 to 11 hours. And then the clean-up of the facility to prepare it for opening day was to begin. Construction on the pool, which features a moveable bulkhead, six, 7-ft. swimming lanes and three diving boards began in November of 1974. The pool facility housed two locker rooms, two offices and seating for 700 people.

The highlight of the 1976 Spring Sports Banquet at Chelsea High school was the announcement of the Southeastern Conference 1975-1976 All Sports Trophy Award to Chelsea High school. The award came on the tail of two SEC championship teams fielded by the high school: the 1975 football team, and the '76 baseball team both claimed Southeastern Conference titles. In the fall CHS's golf team tied for first in the conference while the Cross Country team fielded a third place team. Bulldog grapplers managed to take second place in the conference. The basketball team tied for 7th in the SEC league.

The second hearing to hear the charges brought by Chelsea High school principal Charles Lane against high school counselor George Bergman was held June 3. More than 100 persons attended the first hearing which was held May 17. During the hearing which ran for more than three hours, only 31 of Lane's 60 exhibits were presented. Among the nine charges leveled at Bergman by the CHS principal, were neglect of duty, inefficiency and inability to communicate. A tenured teacher, 49-year-old Bergman first came to Chelsea High school in 1958 as a counselor. He left in June of 1982, returning in the fall of 1987.

Clery Suggests No Site Can Meet State Waste Law

No area in Michigan may be able to meet the criteria set under state law for locating a regional low-level radioactive waste dump, James Clery, who is directing the search for a site, announced recently.

Clery made that assessment as he eliminated Riga township, the last of the three largest candidate areas that had passed initial muster under the law, from further consideration due to wetlands, surface water and other problems.

With other sites already eliminated because of similar problems in Ontonagon and St. Clair counties, Clery said, "I doubt that any location in Michigan can meet the strict siting criteria for a low-level radioactive waste facility under state law."

A chorus of state officials and lawmakers joined in the assessment that Michigan is fundamentally unsuited for the waste site.

Clery said the requirements under the law go beyond the federal requirements "and they may be prohibitive. This will likely be an issue in the future."

A spokesman said Governor James J. Blanchard is pleased with the decision and noted the governor has questioned whether a suitable spot can be found in Michigan for the dump.

Senate Majority Leader John Engler (R-Mt. Pleasant) said it is pointless to continue to search for a site.

Sen. Norm Shinkle (R-Lambertville), who while pleased at the decision criticized the delay in reaching that conclusion, said, "There is no way anybody can make the argument that Michigan is environmentally equal to other states." He said the entire siting process is flawed.

Rep. Timothy Walberg (R-Tipton), the other legislator representing the Riga area, said, "It's something that we knew would happen in the end. I don't think they could figure any way to keep it in any more," he said.

Both legislators said the area should not have been considered in the first place, but Shinkle discounted any political damage now that it has been dismissed.

The Michigan Coalition of Radioactive Material Users said government needs to quickly decide whether the site can be built in Michigan, noting the new delays already mean 49 temporary storage facilities will have to be built by 1993.

Clery, who is commissioner of the Low Level Radioactive Waste Authority, said it will take at least 18 months to gather enough data to determine if a facility can be constructed at any other location within the 1 percent of ground area in Michigan that has not already been excluded.

He said it will cost $2 million over the next six to eight months just to gather the data on other areas regarding surface and ground water, well logs and man-made features. At least 2,250 acres is needed for the site.

Michigan was selected by the seven-state Midwest Compact, formed under federal law, to host the first dump site for the low-level wastes, such as that generated by hospitals, research institutions and other facilities.

The state has sued the federal government in an attempt to get the law overturned and in hopes of gaining far fewer national sites for the disposal of the waste and the Senate has asked the state not be host to a site.

Clery said he will continue to work toward changing the current federal requirements.

The Riga site, in Lenawee county, was dismissed because of provisions in state law on wetlands, floodplains and the required 3,000-foot buffer between a site and groundwater discharges, Clery said. He cited the 3,000-foot buffer as one of the requirements which is overly restrictive and has no technical foundation.

Other factors were the presence of a liquid gas pipeline, which he said should be located at least a mile away, and four other gas pipelines.

The three national sites now available for low-level radioactive waste disposal in South Carolina, Nevada and Washington states are scheduled to close by the end of 1992 with new regional sites required by Jan. 1, 1993. States in the Midwest Compact are Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, Indiana, Iowa, Ohio and Wisconsin.

$163.6 Million More Cuts Needed

This Year, S.F.A. Says

State spending will have to be cut $163.6 million more than already planned during the current year, and $91.8 million will have to be shaved from the 1990-91 budget now in the last stages of development, the Senate Fiscal Agency reported.

The cuts outlined by the Senate Fiscal Agency would be in addition to the $132 million already recommended by Governor Blanchard by a 2.5 percent cut in all areas but education in order to cover unbudgeted spending in corrections, social services and some other agencies.

SFA Director Doug Roberts blamed lower revenue estimates and some continued excessive spending for the worsening situation. He said revenues in the current year are down by $16.7 million, school aid costs are up, and spending for prisons, mental health, public health and state police is another $56 million more than earlier budget cut/supplemental recommended by the governor.

Because the $163.6 million in additional savings would have to be implemented in, at best, the four remaining months of the fiscal year, the effective slice in department spending could be 9 percent or more if the budget problem is solved purely by budget cuts.

Alert Dispatcher Notices Sparks in Old Chelsea Drug

A police dispatcher who happened to go outside to check weather conditions may have stopped a major fire from occurring downtown.

On April 22 at 6:05 a.m., the dispatcher noticed sparks on the ceiling of the vacated Chelsea Pharmacy building. He notified the fire department and the problem was quickly contained with no major damage.

Police reports indicated faulty electrical wiring was the cause of the sparking.

Uncle Lew from Lima Says:

DEAR MISTER EDITOR:

Bug Hookum told the fellers at the country store Saturday night that recent reading called to mind the tale his Pa liked to tell about revivals at his church as regular as spring and fall. This one feller got born agin at ever one, and in two weeks he allus backslid to his useless ways.

Bug's Pa said one evening when the visiting preacher issued the call, the feller went to the front and neit with the rest. The preacher put one hand on the feller's head and raised the other hand to heaven. "Fill him, Lord, fill him," the preacher cried.

From the back of the church come a reminder from the head deacon, "Watch him, Lord, he leaks."

The plain fact is, Bug said, we all leak, and it's greed that wears holes in a heap of us. Bug had a clipping where doctors have come up with a new way to git around the pay limits of Medicare and private insurance companies. It's called "code gaming," and it lets doctors charge more fer less, Bug explained.

First, Medicare said it would pay 80 percent of the doctor bill. The doctors jacked up their prices so the 80 percent would cover 100 percent. Then Medicare worked out a system where the doctor says what's wrong, Medicare pays a fixed amount fer treating that particular problem, and doctors that agree to take Medicare patients agree to accept what Medicare pays as 100 percent of the bill.

"Code gaming" lets doctors file creative claims, Bug said. The code fer removing a cist can easy be changed to show a bigger cist that pays more. The magazine piece Bug saw said enlarging one centimeter meant $190 more, so you don't have to figger to long on what small adjustments here and there in major surgery can do fer the bill.

The fellers were full agreed that Bug hit the nail on the head. Zeke Grubb noted that greed burned holes in the savings and loan business like hydrochloric acid through a plastic jug. If three mortgages on the same shopping center you know won't ever be built is good, five would be wonderful, was Zeke's words.

The longer you live, Bug declared, the more you know that trying to control free people in a free wheeling market is like holding a armful of gords under way. You push one down here and two pop up over yonder. If you change the flow of money in one direction, he said, the river of high finance runs over the banks in another. Government agencies that we trust to do what's best fer us go around digging holes to fill holes like the rest of us.

Furthermore, them holes are gitting bigger all the time. Bug had saw where the average annual pay of a girl born today was put at $34,000, and a boy's at $59,000. That means they'll have to work at least 10 year just to make what they come into the world owing. And Bug said this guess don't take in account that nobody could see 20 year ago we would have the Federal debt and deficit we got.

Fer all that, broke in Clem Webster, you don't have to look far to see good shining through the bad. Clem said all he knows is what he read in the papers, but he can't git that February drowning at a camp fer troubled children in Mammoth Lakes, Calif. out of his mind.

Three boys broke through the ice of the lake, Clem recalled, and one after another four men give their lives trying to help em. You got to know from that sacrifice, Clem said, there's still hope fer all of us.

Yours truly,
 Uncle Lew.

Chiropractic Health Care

Pediatric Care

Dr. J. Nicholas Koffeman

Last week's column began a discussion of chiropractic care for children. I mentioned that parents and health care professionals should listen when children complain about pains and other symptoms. They are rarely "faking it." I also said that as a general rule, children responded quicker than adults to chiropractic adjustments.

What are typical pediatric problems seen in a family oriented-chiropractic practice? There is quite a variety, but common problems include nerve, muscle and joint pains from falls; headaches (which should always be taken seriously); asthma, repeated infection, allergies and scoliosis.

Over the coming weeks we will touch on each of these but will start today with scoliosis.

Scoliosis is a progressive sideways curvature of the spine. It is due to an unequal pull between spinal muscles. Contributing factors include trauma, heredity, hormonal changes and others. Children between the ages of 8 and 18 should be examined yearly for this problem. The postural exam is quick and easy and if a scoliosis is found, further examination by a doctor of chiropractic is needed. Spinal adjustment is often the most effective therapy and can prevent a possible crippling spinal deformity.

Please address all questions and comments to Dr. J. Nicholas Koffeman, 138 E. Middle Street, Chelsea, MI (313)475-2088.

FLAG DAY

June 14th

The Flag is many things. It is a mark of identification of ships at sea and of armies in the field. It is a means of communication. When you see our Flag in front of a house, it says for all the world to read, "Here lives a family that is American in spirit as well as in name." The Flag is a mirror, reflecting to each person his own ideals and dreams. It is a history. Its thirteen stripes and fifty stars embrace a record written greatly during these years since 1776. It is a mark of pride in a great word—the word "American." It is an aspiration of what small men want their lives to be. It is a memory of the end of life of all that life has been. It is a ribbon of honor for those who have served it well in peace and war. It is a warning not to detour from the long road that has brought our country and its people to a degree of prosperity and happiness never even approached under any other banner.

our schools better—when seeking new building sites, new industry seeks good schools—when new industry comes in we know we'll be able to keep our taxation at a low rate. This is one of the best long and short-term investments I know," said President Robert Barlow in commenting on the Chamber of Commerce Director's support for the total millage issue.

Miss Sally Lou Strieter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Strieter, was selected by the Herbert J. McKune Unit 31 of American Legion Auxiliary to attend Wolverine Girls' State on the University of Michigan campus. Juniors from 462 high schools throughout Michigan were to attend the 28th annual Wolverine Girls' State under the sponsorship of the American Legion Auxiliary. The conclave was a government education program in which the girls duplicated city, county and state governments in a demonstration of democratic principles at a seven-day gathering.

Chelsea residents suffering from hippopotamus bites recently had an opportunity for expert medical treatment at the Chelsea Medical Clinic. Although Dr. Edward Stehower hastened to add that hippopotamus bites were not common, even in northern Nigeria, the treatment of such exotic ailments did point out one difference between the practice of medicine in Africa and the United States.

34 Years Ago . . .

Thursday, June 7, 1956—
At a meeting held in the office of Washtenaw county Sheriff Erwin L. Klager, attended by law enforcement officers of the county the Washtenaw County Sheriff's Emergency Police Unit was organized. The county is divided into eight zones with Chelsea designated as the center for Zone 6, which includes Lyndon, Lima and Sylvan townships. Ann Arbor was to be the control center for co-ordinating activities of approximately 1,600 men to be trained in the county in co-operation with state and federal Civil Defense plans.

Sylvan township Supervisor Maurice Hoffman announced that in an effort to curb careless operation of speed boats on nearby lakes, deputies had been appointed for on-the-spot duty to observe and correct any irregularities. Hoffman said chief offenders were reportedly non-resident week-enders. The speed and careless operation of the boats endanger the lives of bathers and fishermen, it was pointed out. Hoffman said he had no wish to discourage power boating on the lakes of Sylvan township but felt that regulation of speed and precautions for safety of bathers and fishermen were necessary.

An experiment in the use of radar to apprehend speeders having proved successful, the Michigan State Police were putting into operation four more of the units.

Chrysler Tri-Cycle Scheduled

On Sunday, June 10, the Ann Arbor News, together with the Washtenaw County Sheriff Department and the Exchange Club Center of Ann Arbor, will host the second annual Chrysler Tri-Cycle which will be held again at the Chrysler Proving Grounds in Chelsea.

This eight-hour biking event will provide the rare opportunity for bikers to view an otherwise "off-limits" secured site, while experiencing the "challenge" of custom designed courses.

Proceeds from this year's event will benefit the Exchange Club Center for the Prevention of Child Abuse and the Washtenaw County Sheriff Department, Police Athletic League (P.A.L.). Both of these non-profit organizations provide services which benefit the youth of Washtenaw county. The Exchange Club Center provides therapy and other services relating to child abuse and neglect, offering activities designed to promote family and community welfare. P.A.L. also extends its support of youngsters by sponsoring youth athletic activities and individual scholarships, and by offering financial assistance to other organizations for their youth programs. Both of these organizations offer positive, constructive activities to our community's young people.

Also again this year, the individual obtaining the most money in pledges will win a mountain bike. Last year's winner, Michael Hrischuk of Waterford, raised a total of $418.

Registration fee is $10 for individuals, $20 for families and $100 for Corporate Teams (3-7 members per team). Registration forms may be picked up at the Ann Arbor News, the Washtenaw County Sheriff's Department, area Chrysler dealerships and local bike shops. T-shirts will be free to the first 300 entrants and registration is limited to 1,200.

Check-in and packet pick-up will be on the day of the event only, from 7 a.m. to 12 noon. The event will take place from 8 a.m. through 4 p.m.

For further information on this event, call 973-0105.

Memorial Day traffic fatalities averaged 23 percent higher than other Monday averages for May.

Dial-A-Garden Topics Listed

The following is a weekly schedule of Dial-A-Garden, the system of pre-recorded daily gardening tips sponsored by the Washtenaw County Cooperative Extension Service. The system is in operation 24 hours a day, seven days a week. Interested persons are invited to call 971-1129 at their convenience to listen to timely, up-to-date gardening information.

Wednesday, June 6—"Growing Perennials."
 Thursday, June 7—"Stake Perennials Before They Flop!"
 Friday, June 8—"Diseases of Fruit Trees."
 Monday, June 11—"Understanding the Pesticide Label."
 Tuesday, June 12—"Wasps, Hornets and Yellow Jackets."
 Wednesday, June 13—"Diagnosing Problems."

This exciting three-ride event offers something for everyone. The Tour, a "family fun ride," provides bikers with the opportunity to ride at a comfortable pace through the breathtaking country setting of the Chrysler Proving Grounds. The Rally offers more of a challenge to bikers, with a predetermined course and timed laps. The Inspiration, designed for both speed and endurance, is an eight-hour event where total number of laps are calculated at the end of the specified time period. Incidentally, last year's winner of the Inspiration was Tom Yvanuskas of Ann Arbor who biked a total of 146.01 miles within the eight-hour period.

Trophies will be awarded to both individual riders and Corporate Teams who raise the largest amount in pledges for the two charitable causes.

Sheep Disease Test Needed

The American Farm Bureau is participating in a U. S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) project to determine a plan of action on scrapies, a fatal disease of sheep and goats. Over the past two years, infected flocks were found in 28 states, including Michigan.

Michigan Farm Bureau livestock specialist Kevin Kirk said the greatest need is for an effective scrapies test. "The major hope that Farm Bureau has is that USDA in the very near future determines or develops what we call a live animal test so that we can take live animals, pull blood samples or tissue samples, then diagnose whether or not they are scrapies carriers," he said.

According to Kirk, the only way now to determine the presence of scrapies is through a brain biopsy.

First 'Heart & Sole' Fun Run, 10K Race Draw 400 Runners

On Saturday, June 3 the first annual Fun Run and 10K race aptly named, "Heart & Sole," was held in Chelsea, beginning and ending on Chelsea Community Hospital grounds.

This event, co-sponsored by the Hospital and the Chelsea Area Chamber of Commerce, welcomed 400 runners of all ages from pre-school to past 70 years to the beautiful hospital campus. The weather which had been forecast as rainy, was only cloudy and humid.

With a great deal of co-operation from Chelsea Police Department and Washtenaw County Sheriff's Department, the race course was well patrolled making even Main St. crossings safe and clearly marked.

The 10K runners went east on Trinkle Rd. to Fletcher and north to Dexter-Chelsea, ending near the Faith in Action center.

The hospital provided drinks and snacks, running a little short because there were more participants than anticipated.

Local artist Ben Bower painted a watercolor of the Chelsea Historic Depot especially for this event. It was awarded to Toni Déas of Depot Town in Ypsilanti in a drawing held after the race for all participants.

Winners of the two-mile run were: Bryan Nance who ran it in 12.01 minutes. He registered in the 14-and-under category. Second, Stewart Wood of Ann Arbor; third was Michael Schultz of Chelsea, also under 14 years. The first woman was Debi Ehinger of Ypsilanti who ran it in 13.38 minutes. Second was Sarah Henry, third Jessica Flintoft of Chelsea.

The female winner of the 10K is Diane Himebaugh of Jackson who falls into the 30-34 age group. She ran it in 43.11 minutes. Second was Karen White also of Jackson; third, Mary Taylor of Ann Arbor.

The male 10K winner was Kirk Scharich of Unionville, who ran 6.2 miles in 33.43 minutes. He is in 25-29 years category as was second place winner, Jim Wicker of Whitmore Lake. Third was Scott McLean of Ann Arbor.

This was the first annual "Heart & Sole" race so the committee is working out some of the inevitable bugs. Those participants who paid for a tee shirt and were not able to pick it up on Saturday will receive it when the new order arrives. Plans for 1991 call for a packet pick-up the day before when late registrants can be accommodated with less confusion.

"Heart & Sole" was the brain child of David Parham of the Data Processing Department at the Hospital. He recruited a large number of hospital employees and friends to assist in this effort.

Are Great Lakes Fish Safe To Eat?

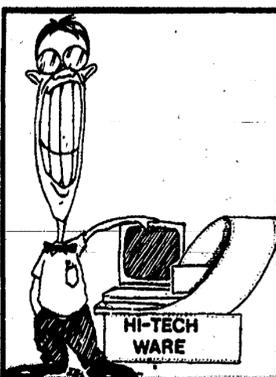

By Nancy Thelen, County Extension Director
Are Great Lakes fish safe to eat? This has been a question on the minds of many people—especially those who love to eat their catch—since toxic substances were discovered in some species of Great Lakes fish more than 25 years ago.

It's an important but deceptively simple question. Many studies have been done over the years. Although not all the answers are in, it's up to individuals to determine the significance of the risk of consuming Great Lakes fish in their lives.

The Washtenaw County Co-operative Extension Service has available an educational bulletin titled "Eating Great Lakes Fish." Published by the Michigan Sea Grant College Program and the Michigan State University Co-operative Extension Service, it contains information on contaminants in fish and on methods of reducing exposure to these contaminants.

Also available is an accompanying fact sheet, "How Much Is A Part Per Million?" Material presented helps consumers understand how very small amounts of toxic substances are described and how they compare to one another.

For information on how to obtain these educational materials, contact the Washtenaw County Co-operative Extension Service at 4133 Washtenaw Ave., Ann Arbor or phone 313-971-0079.

School Elections Slated Monday

school board for a long time and have ample time to devote to being a good board member," Colombo says.
"I'm looking for a new challenge and enjoy problem solving and goal-setting."

Jane Faist Dising
Dising, 14359 Forest Ct., is a graduate of Chelsea High school and holds a bachelor's degree in medical technology from Michigan State.

She worked in Sparrow Hospital's clinical laboratory for eight years, specializing in chemistry, blood bank, and hematology.

Most of the last 12 years she has spent at home raising her children. She and her husband, Dave, moved back to Chelsea three years ago from Haslett. She's now employed at Merkel's Home Furnishings. Dave works at Faist-Morrow Bulck, Olds, Chevrolet in Chelsea.

While in Haslett, Dising helped organize, and was president, of the Murphy Elementary School-Parent Teachers Association. She spent 1 1/2 years on the curriculum review board and worked with a committee to reorganize Haslett Elementary schools into a cluster plan.

Most recently, she completed a year as president of North School PTN organization.

"If elected, I will work to maximize our tax dollars in an effort to maintain a quality teaching staff and administration, and a strong curriculum with emphasis on basic skills," she says.

"Also, I want an environment that is caring, where students can explore a variety of interests while preparing for college or the job market."

Dising says the two major problems facing the district are finances as taxpayers ask for property tax relief, and the potential overcrowding of the schools.

Roger A. Dymond
Roger Dymond, 3097 Chisholm Trail, is a regional service manager for Automatic Data Processing, Inc. of Ann Arbor. He is responsible for a $12 million yearly budget and supervises three managers with a total staff of 30 people.

Dymond's job also involves salary planning and forecasting, personnel issue, office space planning, business forecasting, and crisis management.
He and his wife, Nancy, have three children in Chelsea schools. Matt and Michelle attend Beach Middle school and Robby is at North Elementary.

"I am seeking a position as trustee to work on policies that will continue to provide quality education for all students," Dymond says.

James Parry "Janet" Eyster
Eyster, 124 N. Eastwood Rd., holds a bachelor's degree from Princeton University and attended Fordham Law School. He has been admitted to the bar in New York and Michigan.

Currently Eyster is president of Agtech Export, Ltd., an international trade consultant for agricultural exports. He's also project director for Third Street Productions, a company involved in special events marketing and commercial music production.

Eyster has been an English teacher in Shiraz, Iran, and a teaching consultant to the Japanese Ministry of Education, where he spent a year teaching English teachers in Japan and preparing recommendations for improvements in high school instruction.

He's also served as a business representative for the Actor's Equity Association and represented the union in contract administration and arbitrations.

Eyster's awards have included a Fulbright Fellowship to Japan and a Michigan Creative Artist Grant.

"My background in law, business, international affairs, and the arts will provide a broad perspective on specific problems," Eyster says.

"My experiences in the Japanese classroom will present unique alternatives for local issues and my academic training will encourage excellence in the curriculum."

Eyster and his wife, Diana Newman, an attorney in the firm of Keusch & Flintoft, have a daughter, Athena.

Ellin G. Gutierrez
Gutierrez, a South Lake resident, came to Chelsea from Ann Arbor three years ago. She's originally from New York state.

She is employed at the University of Michigan in publications in the College of Literature, Science, and the Arts.

"Our schools must prepare our children to meet the challenge of an increasingly technical and service-oriented society," Gutierrez says.
"I believe we must focus our energies on improving the quality and diversity of educational opportunities to more effectively meet their needs."

"As a complement to the family, the schools need to provide the tools and incentives so necessary in preparing our children today in becoming productive citizens tomorrow."

Gutierrez and her husband, Jerry Mason, owner of Universal Builders, have three children in Chelsea schools.

Conrad A. Knutsen
Knutsen, 211 E. Middle St., has been a Chelsea resident for 10 years. He's a laboratory supervisor in cancer research at the University of Michigan Medical School.

Knutsen has been involved in several local organizations, including the Kiwanis Club of Chelsea, Chelsea Area Teens, where he serves as board president, Chelsea Together, and the Chelsea Recreation Council, where he is vice-president.

"I want to maintain and increase the academic standards in the school system," Knutsen says.

"I am particularly interested in increasing the opportunities for vocational education students by increasing participation in the consortium and by advanced placement in local community colleges. This kind of education should deal with the more sophisticated computer-controlled machinery which is part of manufacturing systems."

Knutsen says he also wants to work toward establishing drug education programs throughout the district that involve parents.

Knutsen has two children who have graduated from Chelsea schools. Another daughter is finishing ninth grade.

Richard "Dick" McCalla
McCalla, 209 Jefferson St., is a lifelong resident of Chelsea and is a 1965 graduate of Chelsea High school.

He attended Michigan State University from 1965-66 and served in the U.S. Air Force from 1966-70, including the final year in Vietnam. He has been employed at Chelsea Lumber Co. since 1970.

McCalla is involved in a variety of clubs and organizations, including the Chelsea Scholarship Committee, Chelsea School District Facilities Committee, Chelsea Athletic Boosters, Chelsea Basketball Club, Chelsea Swine Club as superintendent, Rogers Corners Herdman 4-H Club as advisor, and the Washtenaw Community College Advisor Committee of Chelsea. He's also a member of the First United Methodist church.

"I think it's important for a parent to be involved to make the schools the best they possibly can be for our kids, teen-agers, and young adults," McCalla says.

McCalla and his wife, Terri, have three children in Chelsea schools, including Tracy, a kindergartener at South school, Case, a seventh grader at Beach school, and Nicholas, a freshman at Chelsea High.

Roderick Powers

Powers, 12830 Scio Church Rd., is a lifelong Chelsea resident and is a 1970 graduate of Chelsea High. He also attended Michigan State University.

Powers is employed at the University of Michigan. He also farms 250 acres. He's an active 4-H leader in Washtenaw county, is Chelsea Community Fair swine superintendent, and is an active member of the Farm Bureau.

"My main reason for seeking a board position is to be able to help provide a better education for not only my children but all the children in the Chelsea schools," Powers says.

"Also, as a taxpayer, I'd like to see our overhead costs stay in perspective so we, as taxpayers, can handle our financial burdens."

Powers is married to the former Kathy McCalla. They have four children in Chelsea schools.

Janet M. Roberts

Roberts, 11506 Jackson Rd., is a longtime resident of Chelsea and is a 1973 graduate of Chelsea High.

She has a bachelor's degree in psychology from Michigan State University, which included credits in child development. She is a full-time parent.

Roberts has been a member of the Chelsea Children's Co-operative Preschool for seven years and has served five years on its board. She has also been a member of the Huron Valley Council of Co-operative Nursery Schools for four years, chairperson of the Christian Education Committee for four years, a member of the Chelsea Early Childhood Education Coalition, and a member of the Chelsea School District Facilities Committee.

"As a full-time parent of younger children, I have both the time and the long-term interest in education in Chelsea," Roberts says.

"I also feel I have a debt to pay to the Chelsea community because I received a good education here and was able to obtain academic scholarships to college. I want to see this caliber of education continue in Chelsea at a price we can afford."

Roberts' husband, Daniel, is owner of Ingenuity-Wood Work. They have four children, Jesse, Christopher, and Sonja, who attend North school, and Daniel, who will be in kindergarten this fall.

Mary Kathryn Weber

Weber, 233 Adams St., is a lifetime Chelsea resident and taught fourth grade in Chelsea schools from 1962 until her retirement in 1984.

She is a Chelsea High school graduate and earned a degree in business from the University of Detroit. She later returned to college for her teacher certification and initially taught at the James Vernor school in Detroit.

"I think I have something to offer the Chelsea district because of my experience as a teacher in Detroit and Chelsea," Weber says.

"In education, I believe in heavy emphasis on the basics, a healthy athletic program, and an enthusiastic, stimulating, and well-informed education for all students. I believe that all students have special talents that should be promoted in the classroom through enrichment programs."

Weber says she is particularly appreciative of the first nine years of her schooling as she attended a one-room country school where "I had fine teachers and gained a love for learning."

FOUNDERS DAY was celebrated at South Elementary school last week and students in Bill Beard's third grade class showed off their pioneer garb they wore for the occasion. Students carded wool, ate pioneer food, and played pioneer games, among other activities. From left

Chelsea EDC Gives Nod to Hatch Stamping

Chelsea's Economic Development Corporation passed a resolution of inducement last week that could help provide Hatch Stamping Co. with lower bond interest rates for their proposed move to the village's industrial park.

The company is negotiating with the village for six lots in the industrial park on Sibley Rd. It wants to move from its current location off Cleveland St. to the park, and eventually expand its operations.

The company has estimated the cost of its move at $3.5 million.

EDC-backed bonds would enable investors to purchase the bonds on a tax-free basis, which means they would carry a lower interest rate. However, EDC would have no financial stake in the bond issue.

EDC passed a similar resolution recently for the expansion at the Chelsea United Methodist Retirement Home.

Michigan Crashes Cost Us More Than $7 Billion

In 1988, traffic crashes cost Michigan citizens more than $7 billion in property damage, medical care and quality of life, according to a University of Michigan study released May 15.

A total of 1,704 people died as a result of crashes—almost half of them alcohol-related—on Michigan roads in 1988. Another 22,560 suffered serious injuries.

According to Fredrick M. Streff, scientist at the U-M Transportation Research Institute, property damage accounted for less than $1 billion of the $7.1 billion crash-associated costs. The remainder reflected medical and mental health costs, ambulance and police services, emergency services, administrative costs, productivity loss, and loss of quality of life (pain and suffering).

"Our data indicates that traffic crashes are not only numerous but exceptionally costly because they involve such high levels of fatality and injury," Streff said.

The results of the study were presented at the Michigan Office of Highway Safety Planning's "Michigan Lifesavers '90" conference in Bellaire.

The study, sponsored by the Michigan Office of Highway Safety Planning, examined crash rates and costs for all 83 Michigan counties using data from the Department of State Police.

Quality of life costs were based on economic models of damages awarded by juries in cases of injury or death, special pay for hazardous work and the amount people commonly pay for increased safety.

Streff noted that Wayne county mirrored the over-all experience of the state in terms of crash incidence and costs. Almost 24 percent of the crashes and 20 percent of the total costs of the state were attributed to Wayne county.

In general, rural counties have proportionately larger crash costs than urban counties, Streff said, because crashes on rural roads tend to be more severe than those on urban streets.

Streff said he hoped that city, county and state legislators would use the data to make policy decisions regarding allocation of resources to prevent crashes, including assignment of police officers to traffic enforcement duties and re-examination of the current safety belt law.

Michigan's safety belt law went into effect in July 1985. However, Streff noted that it is only a secondary enforcement law, meaning that a police officer cannot stop a driver solely on the basis of non-use of safety belts.

An annual survey of safety belt use conducted by Streff indicates that only 44 percent of drivers and passengers in Michigan use their safety belts.

"Our data strongly supports changing the safety belt law to allow primary enforcement," Streff said. "The cost of enforcing a primary law would be considerably less than the $7 billion lost on crashes a year."

The Michigan Office of Highway Safety Planning has spent an average of $628,000 each year on enforcement and public education programs to support the current safety belt law, Streff said.

He also supports the implementation of sobriety check lanes as an effective deterrent to drunk driving. "When people say that sobriety check lanes are an intrusion on their

County Residents Complete Training in Leadership Project

Nancy Geiger of South Lyon, Janet Hawkins of Ypsilanti, Kathy McKee of Ann Arbor, George Taylor, Jr., of Ypsilanti, and Nancy Thelen, director of the Washtenaw County Co-operative Extension Service, have recently been certified as trainers for the state-wide Family Community Leadership (FCL) project. This program teaches citizens the skills needed for having a greater impact on public policy issues that affect families.

FCL is a national project, partially funded by the W. K. Kellogg Foundation and co-sponsored by the Michigan State University Co-operative Extension Service and the Michigan Association of Extension Homemakers. The FCL county teams are composed of Extension staff members and community volunteers.

The Washtenaw county team completed eight days of training during February, March and May in Lansing and Albion. The sessions focused attention on understanding state and local policy issues and on developing leadership skills to improve organizations and communities.

The FCL team in Washtenaw county is in the process of developing plans for sharing the information they've learned with others in this community. Such outreach efforts could include programs on group effectiveness, understanding local government, conflict management, effective meetings, citizen involvement strategies, understanding current public policy issues, understanding community power structures and networking with other individuals, groups and communities.

For more information on this project, contact Nancy Thelen at the Co-operative Extension Service, phone 313-871-0079.

privacy, they should be reminded that when they go to an airport they can routinely expect metal detector searchers and a search of their bags. Problems associated with armed airline passengers have never come close to those associated with drunk drivers."

A sampling of crash data by county follows:

—Chippewa: 7 fatal injuries, 76 serious non-fatal injuries; total cost of auto crashes: $24,866,000;

—Isabella: 12 fatal injuries, 107 serious non-fatal injuries; total cost of auto crashes: 42,348,000;

—Lake: 1 fatal injury, 43 serious non-fatal injuries; total cost of auto crashes: $6,705,000;

ALICE SWAINSON of Manchester was one of the many artists to display and sell her work last Saturday at the annual Chelsea Painters Art Show at Chelsea Community Hospital. Right is her admiring husband, ex-Gov. John Swainson. The show is held to raise money for the A. A. Palmer medical scholarship given by the organization.

SUSAN MAYNARD was presented a $100 prize for her winning entry in the McClure Essay Contest by Dave Bust of the Kiwanis Club of Chelsea. The club helps fund the prize, named in honor of M. W. McClure, former owner of The Chelsea Standard and charter member of the Kiwanis Club.

Susan Maynard Submits Winner In McClure Essay Contest

Susan Maynard, a 1990 Chelsea High school cum laude graduate, is this year's winner of the McClure

Memorial Essay Contest. Maynard's essay, "The Merit of Staying Small," expresses her desire to see Chelsea retain its "small-community" atmosphere. It was selected as the contest winner by a panel of three local judges.

Maynard was active in a number of school and community groups during high school. She was very active in Key Club activities as well as the high school choir. She also played a helpful role in the recent school district telephone survey. Maynard's contribution to many fund-raising projects and community events makes her a well-known person in the Chelsea area.

Her special honors include membership in the National Honor Society, roles in CHS musicals (four years), and participation in Chelsea Area Players productions as a technician. She has also been accepted at Adrian College for next fall's enrollment.

Maynard is the daughter of Margaret Maynard and lives at 506 Lane St.

There are sports programs, dances, choirs, theater, and community classes. Also concerts in the park, the annual Fair, and the Fourth of July Fireworks. You can bowl, watch movies at a friend's house, or go swimming at a nearby lake. Chelsea is full of things to do.

Finally, there is a feeling of family that can not be found in Ann Arbor or Jackson. Everyone knows practically everyone else. When there is an accident, people here feel for those involved, and they do what they can to help. This is not true in larger towns, there's a person is a mere statistic. People care for one another here, and I don't want Chelsea to lose that. I don't want the streets to be unsafe, for people to be afraid to smile at a stranger, or to have to lock their doors and windows at night. Chelsea to me means home, and I for one do not want to see it change.

Adult Ed Graduation Set Thursday

What can the Chelsea community do to better serve the needs of its teenagers? Many adults and teenagers would most likely suggest that they need more places to "hang out" that are safe. A movie theater and a roller rink have been a few of the suggestions. I think that Chelsea can provide something more important for its teen-age residents. Chelsea can remain the small community that it is.

The most obvious question is "How is remaining small best?" First of all, it has been proven that the crime rate of a community directly relates to its size. By keeping Chelsea small, we can keep the amount of crime low. A person could feel free to walk on warm summer nights without fear. Chelsea is a safe community to live in.

Another reason to leave Chelsea like it is, is because Chelsea already has a lot to offer its teenagers. There are jobs in local businesses, church groups and activities, and school projects. Twenty-two members of the Chelsea High School Adult Education Class of 1990 will officially graduate Thursday, June 7 in the George Prinzling Auditorium.

Commencement is scheduled to begin at 8 p.m. with the processional, "Pomp and Circumstance."

The Rev. Jerrold Beaumont of St. Barnabas Episcopal church will give the invocation.

Superintendent Joseph Piatecki will preside over the certification of graduates. He will also be the evening's speaker. Community Education Director Jaclynn C. Rogers will present the graduates.

Diplomas will be presented by Board of Education members Craig Wales and Ron Satterthwaite.

Following the ceremony will be a time of refreshments in the high school cafeteria.

Bulldogs Take First District Baseball Title In Nearly 20 Years

Chelsea Bulldogs won their first district baseball title since 1972 as they defeated the Willow Run Flyers, 10-2, and Saline Hornets, 8-3, at Stockbridge last Saturday.

The last time Chelsea won the title was in coach Wayne Welton's senior year.

"We had good defense, great pitching, and I can't imagine us swinging the bat any better than we did Saturday," Welton said.

"We practiced hard all week, and it's really a tribute to them to bounce back the way they did after playing so poorly on Tuesday."

The Bulldogs host the regional tournament this Saturday. Chelsea plays in the first game against Riverview at 10 a.m. The winner will meet the winner of the Jackson County Western/Dearborn Heights Crestwood game at about 3 p.m.

Riverview has been ranked as high as fourth in class B this season.

Chelsea set the tone of the first game against Willow Run hurler Shannon Withem right off the bat as Steve Emmert hit a shot through the middle and later scored on Jake Rindie's triple.

Several professional scouts were on hand to take a final look at Withem before Monday's amateur draft.

"I think Emmert's hit told Withem right then that he was going to have a formidable task ahead of him," Welton said.

The Bulldogs scored three more times in the third inning as Emmert and Kerry Plank walked, Rindie tripled, and Wingrove grounded out.

The Flyers got one run back in the top of the fifth, but the Bulldogs responded with six runs in the bottom of the inning. Emmert singled twice in the inning, Steve Wingrove doubled, and Jude Quilter, Rindie, and Kerry Plank also singled.

Wingrove went the distance on the mound and gave up five hits to run his record to 9-1.

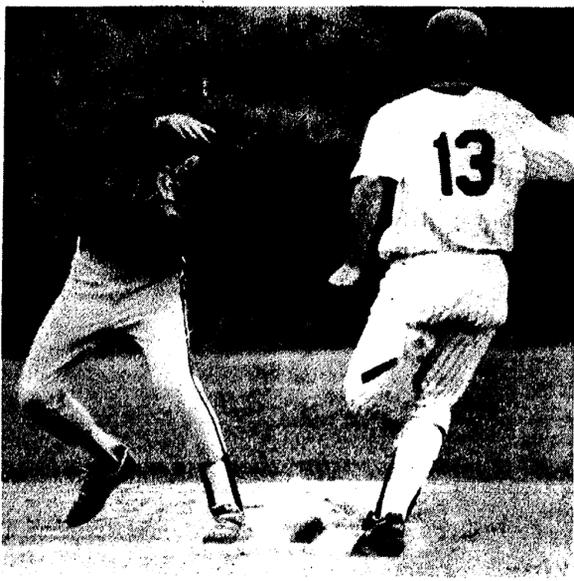

The Bulldogs had just one error in the game, and turned two double plays, in one of their best defensive efforts of the year.

"Kerry and Jude played magnificent defense up the middle," Welton said.

Chelsea rallied from a 2-0 deficit to beat the Hornets in the championship game. Saline beat Southeastern Conference champion Tecumseh 13-4 in the second game of the day.

The championship game was halted by two rain delays.

The Bulldogs were down 2-0 after three innings as the Hornets scored a run in the first inning on a double and ground out, and another in the third on SHORTSTOP KERRY PLANK attempts to complete the 4-3 double play during Saturday's contest with Willow Run. The Bulldogs had two double plays in the game as the middle infield of Plank and Quilter had an exceptional game. a single and fielder's choice. However, Rindie doubled in the fourth, and eventually scored on a wild pitch by Dan Scutchfield.

Rindie, who started the game on the mound, was removed in the fifth after he hit a batter and walked another. Junior Rob Clem, who had been bothered by illness recently, entered the game and struck out the first batter, then forced two pop-ups to end the inning.

Chelsea tied the game in the bottom of the inning on a single by Ben Hurst, an error, a sacrifice by Quilter, and a sacrifice fly by Kerry Plank.

The Bulldogs' big outburst came in the sixth inning as they scored six times.

Craig Ferry's double to left scored Wingrove to break the tie. Jeremy Stephens reached on an error, Hurst was hit by a pitch, Quilter responded with a bases-loaded double, and Emmert followed with a two-run single.

Rindie, who led the Bulldogs with two hits for the game and five for the day, combined with Clem on a five-hitter. Clem picked up the win.

"Jake had an excellent day," Welton said.

"It's tough to give the ball to a sophomore in that kind of situation but he was ready for it." Chelsea has a 22-3 record.

In other action last week, the Bulldogs turned in their worst effort of the season on Tuesday against Pioneer High school as they lost 10-0 and 9-1. The Bulldogs reached "well into double figures" in errors.

"You name it, it went wrong," Welton said.

"We dropped fly balls, got picked off, held onto the ball too long, threw the ball away. It just went bad everywhere."

Emmert had two hits in the first game, and Kerry Plank had one hit in each game.

Gene LaFave To Remain As CHS Football Coach

Chelsea High School Head Football Coach Gene LaFave, who had effectively resigned his position this spring, has decided to return this fall to begin his 12th season.

LaFave, who made it well known that he was unhappy with the state of his assistant coaching staff, changed his mind after receiving assurances that the school district would attempt to attract qualified coaches in its hiring process. And now, rather than talking as though he may quit next year, as he has the past several years, LaFave says he is "making a little bit longer commitment."

"The district may not get the job done this year or next, but I have a lot of confidence that things are going to take care of themselves in the long run," LaFave said last week.

"My biggest concern has been the ninth and 10th grade set-up. But now I'm excited that we can get the job done."

LaFave said that in his 11 years, the district has hired two teachers who were also coaches, and not necessarily football coaches. He said the same has been true for other extracurricular programs as well.

"I've always thought the district should hire the best person for the district, not just the best teacher," LaFave said.

"If we're going to have the programs, we've got to staff them."

Superintendent Joe Piasecki also said recently that his philosophy is "to find excellent teachers who can also do other things for the district."

Lonnie Mitchell and Dave Quilter will return from last year's assistant staff, and former-Chelsea player Joel Boyer will lend a hand. Athletic Director Wayne Welton said he will also help out as a volunteer on a part-time basis. The remainder of the staff has yet to be formed, but several of last year's assistants will not be back, LaFave said.

One of the biggest changes LaFave is contemplating is abolishing the freshman program for a year. This year's eighth graders would play junior varsity, LaFave said, and maybe participate in some freshman scrimmages.

"We'll know for sure when the numbers (of kids who want to play) come back," LaFave said.

"If we get enough participation, we'll continue with two teams."

By suspending the freshman program for a year, LaFave would need at least one fewer assistant coach. But more importantly, he wants to upgrade the junior varsity program, which has had four different coaches over the last four years. In addition, the team has gotten trounced on the field more often than not.

"We've got a good eighth grade class coming along and we could make one solid team out of the two," LaFave said.

"The important thing is to get those kids competitive so they can build some confidence. When they go out onto the field, they have to think they have a chance to be successful. Last year on Thursday nights we stood and prayed that they didn't get beat too bad."

Until last year, Chelsea's eighth grade football teams hadn't won a game in four years. Those classes continued up through the ranks and continued to lose, although not as consistently.

However, LaFave has always fielded a competitive team, although maybe not as competitive as he'd like.

"People would come along and say, 'you and Wayne will find a way to do something with these kids,'" LaFave said.

"That's real flattering but do you know how hard it is to come from losing to a team 72-6 to beating them 22-6?" LaFave said, referring to a JV loss to Tecumseh two years ago and last year's varsity victory.

"The job is just too big for a couple

THIS BULLDOG WAS SAFE AT HOME on an unusual-looking slide as his teammates on the bench take a look during Saturday's district tournament game against the Willow Run Flyers. Chelsea went on to beat highly-regarded pitcher Shannon Withem to meet Saline in the finals, a game they also won. Chelsea will make its first appearance in the region tournament in 18 years.

Girl Runners Have Good Showing At Jackson Selby Track Classic

Fourteen Chelsea girls took part in the Selby Track Classic at Jackson Northwest last Tuesday. The Selby Classic is for the season's top eight performers in each event in the Jackson area and includes athletes from more than 20 schools of all sizes from class A to class D. The Bulldogs made a good showing as they brought home medals in seven events.

In the field events, Jeanene Rossi cleared 5'3" equaling her school record and placing fourth.

Tammy Browning was fifth in the shot put at 31'4" and Marti Daggett was fifth in the discus at 97'10". Although neither throw was a season-best, both girls moved up several places from their entry positions.

Anne Steffenson was ripped at the finish to take second in the 400 in 1:01.1, her season-best time.

"We're very proud of Anne," said coach Bill Bainton. "She's given us a lot in the last four years. It was nice to see her finish well in her last 400 of the season."

Steffenson also moved up a notch from her position going into the meet. Charity Allen ran 47.9 in the 300 hurdles to take second to two-time state class C champion Naheed Irani from Onsted.

Lisa Monti, in her only race of the day, won the 3200, setting a school record 11:29.0.

"This was the first time this year Lisa has been able to run the 3200 without another race first," Bainton said.

"She did an excellent job." The 1600 relay of Jessica Holton, Tiffany Moore, Anne Steffenson, and Charity Allen finished third in 4:19.4.

"They ran a strong race. We had two seniors on the group and both have been major contributors in relays throughout their careers, but especially this season. It was a fitting way for them to go out," Bainton said.

Also running in the meet, but not medaling were Beth Williams, Tracey Wales, Sara Brosnan and Vicki Bullock in the 3200 relay, Vicki Bullock in the 800, Val Bullock in the 3200, Jessica Holton in the 400 and the 800 relay of Charity Allen, Tiffany Moore, Leisa Schiller, and Anne Steffenson.

Chelsea Special Olympians Bring Home The Gold

Chelsea special olympians joined 3,400 other athletes at the State Special Olympic Games May 31 through June 3 at Central Michigan University.

Each student competed in either two or three events, which included swimming, track and field, gymnastics, bowling, tennis, weightlifting, diving, cross country, volleyball, team handball, and developmental events.

Chelsea had one three-time gold medal winner, Kirsten Martin. She won golds in the 5000 run, the mile, and the 800 run.

Ty Darden also won a gold medal in the 100 and the 200 dashes. His 400 relay team took a silver medal.

Other Chelsea winners included Bruce Jones, with a bronze medal in bowling; Matt Stautz, with a silver medal in the 100 freestyle relay; Keith Vaillencourt, with a silver medal in the softball throw and a bronze in the 200 dash; Kevin Viery with silvers in the 100 freestyle and the 25 freestyle, and a gold in the swimming relay; and Steven Viery, with a gold in the 50 backstroke, gold in the swimming relay, and a silver in the 100 freestyle.

Chip Parker also won a gold in the 5000 run as he finished first over-all among all age groups. He also won a gold in the mile and participated in the 400 relay.

Thirty-nine athletes from among the state gold medal winners will be chosen to compete in the 1991 International Games in Minneapolis.

Monti Earns All-State Honors In 3200 Run, Dogs Take 13th

Chelsea Bulldog girls track team ran well in the state meet at Jackson Northwest Saturday, placing in three events and finishing with 15 points, good for 13th place.

Scoring for the Bulldogs were Jeanene Rossi who tied for fourth in the high jump and Lisa Monti who was fourth in the 1600 and third in the 3200. Monti earned all-state recognition for her performance in the 3200.

The 1600 was closely bunched for the first lap, but the field gradually spread out. Monti stayed with the leaders, as the lead changed several times, but couldn't overtake the leaders on the final lap. Monti was fourth in 5:15.9. Jennifer Barber of Frankenmuth won in 5:11.7, with White of Detroit DePorres second in 5:12.0 and Bloun of Wyoming Park third in 5:12.5.

Monti went to the front with the leaders in the 3200 and stayed within striking distance until the front two put on a burst on the seventh lap and pulled away. Laura Bell of Lakeville won in 11:11.2 edging Barber of Frankenmuth who had 11:11.5. Monti was a comfortable third in 11:31.4.

"Lisa ran two very good races," said coach Bill Bainton.

"That's a very competitive field and a difficult situation for a freshman. We're very proud of her."

Rossi, who struggled a little, ended up equaling her school record of 5'3", the same height as second and third, but placing in a three-way tie for fourth on misses. She narrowly missed 5-4 on her first attempt, but then the rains hit, and she wasn't close on her next two tries, nor was anyone else other than Linda Stuck of Milan, who won the event at 5-5. "This caps a very successful season for Jeanene," Bainton said.

"She finished on a consistent note going 5'2" or better in six of her last seven meets and having her two best performances in her last two big meets."

Chelsea also had competitors in two other races. The 3200 relay of Anne Steffenson, Vicki Bullock, Sara Brosnan and Tracey Wales ran well at 10:17.8 but were not in the placers.

Charity Allen ran 48.8 in the 300 hurdles, but also didn't score.

"We had good performances in both races, but at that level of competition, you need to be nearly perfect to score. Nonetheless, we were pleased with the efforts we had," Bainton said.

Softball Team Gives Clarke Sweep In Final Games as Head Coach

Chelsea Bulldog softball team capped their season with 8-1 and 10-3 victories over Gabriel Richard last Tuesday.

Scharme Petty improved her record to 13-6 in the first game with a four-hit, seven-strikeout performance.

Carrie Flintoft's two-run double in the second inning put Chelsea in the lead for good. She and Christine Burg each had two hits for the game.

In the second game, Colleen Scharphorn improved her pitching record to 8-2 as she struck out seven and yielded just five hits.

Chelsea put the game away in the fourth inning when they scored six runs. Big hit of the inning was a two-run double by Kelly Bellus.

The Bulldogs pounded out 12 hits, including two each by Burg, Bellus, Scharphorn, Amy Thomson, and Scharme Petty.

Bellus hit a three-run double and Scharphorn and Thomson each hit a pair of doubles.

Chelsea finished 22-9-1 for coach Pat Clarke, who won't return next season.

It is estimated that two-out-of-every-five Americans will be involved in an alcohol-related crash during their lifetime.

Frosh Lose Final Games

Chelsea Bulldog freshman baseball team finished their season with a 3-12 record.

In their final games the Bulldogs lost to Huron High school, 10-3 and 21-4.

In the first game, Nick McCalla, Mike Eder, Matt Jachalke, and Ken Slane each had a hit, and Kevin McCalla had three hits.

Catcher Casey Schiller threw two runners out.

In the second game, Ed Waller, Nathan Oake, Brian Piasecki, Eder, Ron Cameron, and Colt White each had a hit.

"Our pitching was not strong and our hitting was lacking," said Chelsea coach Mike Bohlender.

SPORTS NOTES

BY BRIAN HAMILTON

I know superintendent Joe Plasecki is bitterly disappointed, but that's the breaks.

Of course I'm referring to head football coach Gene LaFave's decision to return for at least another year of high sidelines anxiety.

See, Plasecki was all set to take assistant superintendent Fred Mills and high school principal Ron Mead and begin a new era of Chelsea High school football, just as I suggested a few weeks ago. Former middle school principal Al Conklin even volunteered to do a little scouting. That would have been quite a gridiron package.

As one person said, noting that Mills controls the district's purse strings, "they may not play worth a flip, but they'll look darn good doing it," or words to that effect.

So, now they may not play worth a flip, and they'll look pretty much the same doing it.

And Plasecki will be relegated to the stands, or perhaps the press box, where you can hear some of the district's best gossipy conversation—not from the people in the box but from the people on the ground. People behind the stands, waiting in line for refreshments, seem to be oblivious to the fact that there are other people sitting just a few feet overhead. Those talkers are not just kids, either.

Anyway, LaFave's back, which I have to admit comes as a big surprise to me. Virtually everyone I'd talked to, including several football parents who heard him speak to the Chelsea Athletic Boosters last fall, said he was history. Fellow high school coaches said he was gone. I'll bet even athletic director Wayne Welton thought he'd be hiring a new man. Last week all Welton said is, "I'm absolutely delighted he's coming back." Not only does Welton have a lot of respect for LaFave, but the decision saves him a giant summertime headache of coming up with a new coach.

Not only is LaFave returning, but says he wants to stay around a few more years, as though he's gotten his second coaching wind.

He says he changed his mind when the administration said the right things about helping him come up with on-staff assistant coaches, not just a makeshift staff as has happened the last few years. (And, brother, last year's staff was about as makeshift as they come. But someone apparently didn't check references too carefully.)

The problem is that the only way to be sure of hiring the teacher/coaches is to link the two contractually. The way it's all set up now, someone can say he'll coach, and may even do it for a year or two, but he can't be forced to coach.

And for an assistant football coach, one year is really a waste of everyone's time. No matter how good a football mind a coach has, it takes that long to get accustomed to a system, as well as new players.

Anyway, LaFave is satisfied the effort is going to be made and for now that's all that counts.

I am personally glad to see LaFave return. He's a somewhat controversial character, but most of his players, particularly his ex-players, seem to have a lot of respect for him. That says as much about him as anything else.

He's also a lot of fun to watch on Friday nights, although I still wish he'd go back to wearing his bill cap.

Chelsea High school athletes had an exceptional week-end to cap off an extraordinary year.

Sophomore Jon Royce became Chelsea's third state champion this year with his 6'7" leap in the high jump. He nearly cleared another inch.

Royce follows the girls cross country team, which I refer to as a single state champion, and junior Karl Wikman in wrestling, as Chelsea state champs.

"When it comes down to him and another guy, Jon becomes a different kind of competitor," said coach Tim Jennings.

The leap also broke his own school record by half an inch.

The baseball team reached the regional tournament for the first time since coach Wayne Welton was a Chelsea senior and played with such notables as actor Jeff Daniels and his current assistant, Randy Brier.

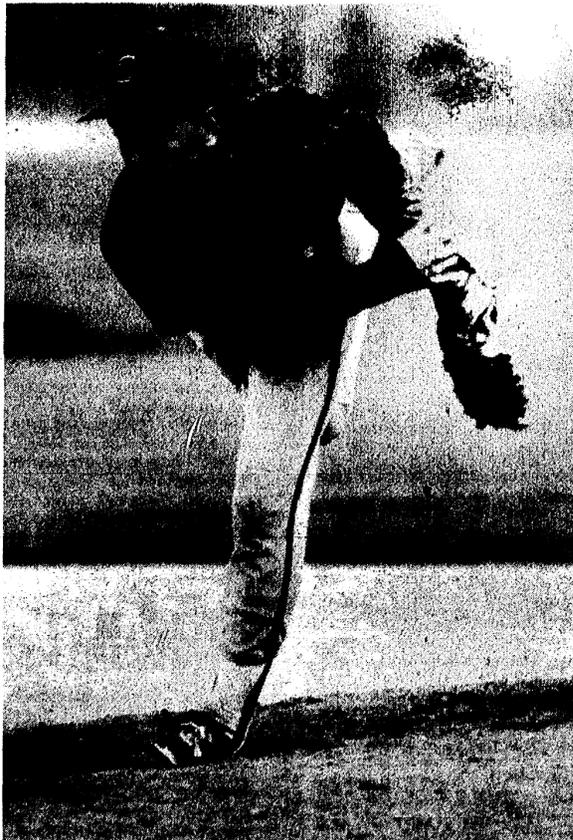

The Bulldogs are now among the top 16 teams in the state. They host the regional Saturday and a big home crowd could help boost them to the state play-offs.

There isn't a team in the regional that's a cinch to win it. Chelsea may even have the best over-all pitching staff.

The key will be for the Dogs to play virtually errorless ball, as they did Saturday. It was really the first time all season the Bulldogs showed just how good they can be when they don't self-destruct.

The other good news was the performance of the girls track team. Freshman Lisa Monti placed in two events. She was third in the 3200, which earned her all-state recognition, and fourth in the 1600. Jeanene Rossi also placed fourth in the high jump.

The best part about it is most of these athletes will be back next year. Royce and Monti should continue to improve, and virtually the entire baseball team is underclassmen.

SENIOR CHELSEA PITCHER Doug Wingrove may have not been the most highly regarded pitcher during Saturday's game with Willow Run, but he out-pitched counterpart Shannon Withem, who drew several professional scouts to the game. The Bulldogs went on to win the district title.

LaFave Plans To Return

of people. We can't wave a magic wand."

LaFave is also concerned about increasing participation in the football program in general. At the end of last year there were 22 players on the varsity team. Eventually he wants to have more than 30.

Some of the problem, he acknowledged, has been caused by declining enrollment, which is scheduled to rise again after next year, when the 220-member seventh grade hits the high school. This year's class is about 140 students and overall high school enrollment this year was 666, about 300 fewer than when LaFave was hired.

However, part of the problem has also been caused by a lack of on-staff coaches, who aren't around to "talk football in the hallways," and drum up support for the program, he said. Practice begins Aug. 13 and the annual at-school camp will be held that week.

Basketball Rims Vandalized at North

Vandals pulled down two basketball rims and broke a wooden backboard at North Elementary school during the night of Wednesday, May 30.

Damage was estimated at $150-$200. Police reported several empty beer and alcohol bottles at the scene.

Boys Basketball Camp Scheduled

Chelsea Recreation Council is sponsoring a basketball camp for boys from June 18 through July 2.

The camp, for boys in fifth through 10th grade, will be staffed by Chelsea High school varsity players and coaches. It will stress both individual and team fundamentals.

The camp will be held on Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday mornings. For more information contact the Chelsea Recreation Department at 475-9830.

TEETHING BABIES REQUIRE COMFORT AND PATIENCE!

Q. What can I do to help my baby through a teething period?

A. When teeth are getting ready to break through, the gum tissue usually becomes tender and swollen. Excess drooling will probably occur and the baby may become irritable and restless.

As teeth are attempting to erupt, you may notice a slight fever. Although teething is an unlikely cause of illness, parents often associate cold symptoms and diarrhea with the eruption of teeth. Naturally, teething can compound the discomfort during a cold or intestinal disorder.

To help your baby through a teething period you can rub the gums with a clean teething ring or cold spoon. When infants are cutting teeth, they seem to find natural relief from sore gums by "gumming" anything available so be sure that there are not toxic substances like lead-based paints on any objects within reach of the baby. Also, make sure any object you give the baby cannot break and cause choking.

Teething is a natural process which soon ends. When the tooth emerges, the symptoms vanish.

UNEXPLAINED WEIGHT LOSS PUZZLES SCIENTISTS

FINLAND — The unexpected weight loss experienced by members of a test group has puzzled medical researchers at a leading Finnish university. Scientists were testing a naturally-occurring compound for its ability to lower blood cholesterol levels when, to their surprise, they found that every person who took the formula had lost a significant amount of weight.

The formula was then tested at another prestigious European university hospital. Again, all patients lost weight even though they did not change their eating habits. The report detailing this study, published in the British Journal of Nutrition, stated: "Body weight was significantly reduced even though the patients were specifically asked not to alter their dietary habits."

This woman reportedly lost 134 pounds while on the formula.

While it is still not entirely clear how the formula induces weight loss, some scientists believe this compound actually alters the way the body digests food: when taken before mealtime it bonds with food and suppresses calorie absorption. Unabsorbed calories would pass through and out of the digestive system.

The formula is marketed in capsule form in the United States under the trade name Cal-Ban 3000. A firm located in Tampa, Florida has exclusive North American distribution rights to Cal-Ban 3000. A company spokesman reported that the formula is 100% natural and has been clinically tested for safety. Review of the customer files of this company revealed the names of hundreds of people who have lost as much as 20, 40 or 80 or more pounds overall with Cal-Ban 3000. This appears to be a golden opportunity for people who are plagued by fat and cellulite that they can't seem to lose by conventional methods.

Cal-Ban 3000 is reasonably priced at $19.95 for a 3-week supply and $38.95 for a 6-week supply. Postage and handling is $3. VISA, M/C, AMEX and COD orders are accepted. To order call TOLL-FREE 1-800-537-3723 or purchase locally at:

Spring Orchestra Concert 'Outstanding'

Peter Rosheger led the Chelsea orchestras in an excellent display of their growing talents on Thursday, May 17 at the Chelsea High School Auditorium.

The seventh grade orchestra began the concert with the pop song, "The Pink Panther," which featured Kevin Hendrick on the trap set in a jazzy drum solo. They also played the melodic "Annie's Song," and showed their well-co-ordinated efforts in Tchaikowsky's "Finale" Symphony No. 2 in C.

The eighth grade orchestra showed good dynamic contrast in their "Festival for Fiddlers," and offered a moving version of Corigliano's "Reverie." Strauss's stirring "Radetzky March" showed the full sound which Rosheger has been able to get from these young musicians.

The high school orchestra did an outstanding job in presenting Vivaldi's "Concerto in D Minor, Allegro movement," featuring the quartet of senior concertmistress Holly Jorgensen, Todd Redding, Stephanie Bowers, and Julia Boyle. They then offered the stirring contemporary piece, "Star Trek," which brought memories to the oldsters in the audience and was enjoyed thoroughly by the youngsters as well. Rosheger conducted Gliere's forceful, "Russian Sailor's Dance," a classic piece for orchestra, as the high school's final piece.

Janice Manning, president of the Music Boosters, presented gifts to orchestra representatives to this group. The Music Boosters is made up of any Chelsea residents who would like to advance the music program through support activities, such as helping to ready marching band uniforms and acting as chaperones on music trips, and fund-raising activities such as car washes.

The crowning touch of the evening was the entire combined orchestras, filling the stage from edge to edge, performing Sibelius' "Finlandia." The massive wall-to-wall sound was inspiring to all who heard it, and many eyes were misty before the piece was finished. Before playing this piece, Rosheger thanked the audience for their support throughout the year as he stepped into this new position. The audience applauded loudly and long, showing in what high regard they place this very positive addition to the Chelsea school's faculty.

CHELSEA FREE METHODIST CHURCH has signed contracts for the construction of an addition to their Werker Rd. facility. Working out the details were, left to right, Will Susan, church sub-finance committee; Chuck Raider, Baseline Construction; Wally Smith, building committee; Pastor Mearl Bradley; Dick Conner, head trustee; and Cliff Hull, architect.

Free Methodists Will Build Addition

On Wednesday, May 30, the Chelsea Free Methodist church signed contracts with Baseline Construction of Chelsea to begin the addition of their new Christian Education and office area.

The addition will be composed of two floors and will consist of adding a second floor to the all-purpose area of the present structure. Hull, Stevens & Associates of Swartz Creek were hired as architects.

The new facility will allow for the continued growth that is taking place. The congregation has outgrown both the present sanctuary and the Christian Education area. Two Sunday morning worship services (8:30 and 11 a.m.) began in September of 1989 to enable the growth to continue; and the church is now committed to making additional space available for continued Christian Education growth.

The Chelsea Free Methodist church was organized in September, 1877 with 10 charter members and attendance of 35. Total membership is now 170 and morning worship averages 220, with Sunday School averaging 145.

The Rev. Harry Bonney, presently superintendent of the Southern Michigan Conference of the Free Methodist Church, will join Pastor Mearl L. Bradley as associate pastor in July of this year.

Everyone is welcome to worship at the Chelsea Free Methodist church. Worship at 8:30 or 11 a.m., Sunday School at 9:45 and evening vespers at 6 p.m.

Restaurant Gets Bomb Threat

A bomb threat forced the evacuation of Chelsea Big Boy restaurant last Wednesday at 6:48 p.m.

No bomb was found and police did not speculate on who may have made the threat.

Dear Friends of Henry J. Huelsberg, Sr.
 On behalf of the family of Henry J. Huelsberg, Sr., we wish to take this opportunity to extend to each of you who attended the "Surprise 80th Birthday Celebration" of Henry on May 6, 1990 at Zion Lutheran Church, Chelsea, Michigan, a genuine thank you. Without you, your warm wishes, photos, anecdotes, gifts, table decorations, baked goods and sharing, it would have been impossible to give our father/grandpa "the surprise of his life." It meant so much to him to have so many of his dear friends from Chelsea, Dexter, South Lyon, Ypsilanti, Manchester, Brooklyn, Marine City and Ann Arbor join him in this special once-in-a-lifetime celebration.
 If he didn't get the opportunity to thank you for your presence and/or presents, please be assured that this was an oversight resulting from the total surprise and pleasure he experienced. He was left speechless... Henry, speechless!... by the splendid turnout of friends and loved ones wishing to pay tribute to him on his special day. Please know that each of you is thanked for your thoughtfulness and generosity, not only by Henry but from his family as well.
 If any of you took photos during the party, would you please share the negatives with Henry so his family can have prints made. Again thanks.
 We extend our appreciation for your unique contribution to Henry's 80th birthday party. Without each of you, the celebration just would not have been such a successful and memorable event.
 Sincerest thanks from Carole and Laura Huelsberg
 Richard and Susan Huelsberg
 Nancy, Ginger and Peter Eisenbeiser
 Henry Jr, Trey and Erin Huelsberg

 21 May, 1990.

THANK YOU
 I wish to say "Thank You" to all who attended my birthday party on May 20. Thanks for all the nice gifts and for just being together. It was great! And "Thanks" to Shirley Case and my family members who helped.
 Zella LeVan.

Life on a Dairy Farm

North and South school kindergarten classes visited the local Huehl Acres Dairy Farm, a sesquicentennial farm on Fletcher Rd. The youngsters visited the farm, owned by the Dennis and Jerry Huehl families, on May 23 and May 30. Five activity areas were set up for the children to visit in small groups. Susan Huehl led the children through the milk house and parlor, describing the travels of milk from the cow to the dairy shelf. Carol Huehl and Kathy Powers talked about several kinds of farm animals. The children had the chance to pet a calf, hold bunnies, pet an angora goat, lambs, pigs, and observe yellow chicks. Holly Porter and Kathy Grau took the children through the touch and feel display. Most of the items related to products used for feed, bedding, or milking. Julie Schaible and Marlene Larder played a game with kids using farm hats with animals and animal products. The children also had the chance to play like farm kids. They swung on a tire swing, climbed on a lawn tractor, or played in the playhouse. Ice cream cones were provided by the Huehl family at the end of the visit. Each child also received a dairy promotion bag with coloring book, pencil sticker, cow eraser, and balloon to help reinforce what they had seen and learned.

Livestock Cash Receipts Higher

Cash receipts from 1989 marketings of meat animals in Michigan totaled $472 million, up three percent from the previous year, according to the Federal/State Michigan Agricultural Statistics Service.

Rising market prices for cattle and hogs and increased marketings for hogs and sheep led to higher receipts. Cattle prices average $58.50 per hundred weight (cwt.), $2.40 more than the previous year and calf prices jumped $8.30, averaging $93.70 per cwt. Sheep marketings rose 15 percent with sheep prices averaging $21 per cwt., down $1 from 1988. Lamb prices fell to $62 per cwt., $4 less than a year earlier.

Cash receipts for all species increased over a year ago. Sheep and lambs led the way with a seven percent increase. Increased sheep liveweight marketed offset losses in average prices received by farmers. Cattle and calf cash receipts were up four percent. Cattle and calf liveweight marketed was down fractionally thus, higher cash receipts were due entirely to improved prices received. Total liveweight marketed for hogs and pigs was up two percent, boosting cash receipts for hogs by two percent.

Nationally, total marketings of meat animals decreased slightly during 1989 as decreased cattle marketings were only partially offset by larger hog and sheep marketings. Higher prices were received by farmers for cattle and hogs while sheep prices declined. Total cash receipts increased to $46.6 billion, up two percent from 1988. Cash receipts were as follows: cattle and calves totaled $38.7 billion compared with $36.2 billion in 1988; hogs and pigs totaled $9.43 billion, up two percent from 1988; and sheep and lambs totaled $491 million up three percent from 1988.

Volunteer Youth Program Begins at Methodist Home

Chelsea United Methodist Retirement Home Youth Volunteer Program is scheduled to begin Monday, June 11. Activity director Theresa VanderHorst, and volunteer coordinator Bonnie Haist, are looking for young people in grades 6-12 with energy, enthusiasm and love to give to those who live at the home. This is a unique opportunity to serve others and gain some training in working with people, and making new friends.

This year's Volunteer Program will run from June 11 through Aug. 25. Training sessions will be held on June 11 and 13. Additional sessions may be held later in the summer if new volunteers wish to join the team. The training sessions will run from 1 to 4 p.m. on both days.

Co-ordinator of the Junior Volunteer Program this year is Dawn Mitchell, a sophomore from Calvin College in Grand Rapids. Dawn has a host of experience behind her already. She has volunteered for three summers at the Lake Huron United Methodist Camp for the physically and mentally impaired. This has been a one-on-one experience between Dawn and the camper; a buddy system or big sister role. In high school she participated in several journalism projects; editor of the Gladwin High school magazine and Senior Memories, wrote for the school paper, and was a library aide. Active in the First United Methodist church of Gladwin, she was a youth delegate to the Detroit Conference of the United Methodist church at Adrian College in 1987. Dawn has also been an active member in the church youth group and a member of the pastor parish committee.

Volunteer Program hours this year will be Monday, Wednesday and Friday, 1 to 4 p.m. Volunteers are asked to commit to at least one or two days per week, with time off for family trips, vacations and summer camp.

Volunteers will help take home residents for walks, or wheelchair rides, assist with activities, such as baseball, bowling, ball toss, croquet games, visit with programs, and help people get to programs or appointments in the building.

To register for the program please call the Chelsea United Methodist Retirement Home at 475-8633 and leave a message with the receptionist. Questions may be directed to Theresa VanderHorst or Dawn Mitchell.

Russian Group Will Perform in Chelsea

Chelsea Area Players spokesperson Julie Vorus has announced that the Players will host a visiting amateur theater company from the Soviet Union from June 24 through June 28. The group, known as the Mannequin Theatre, originates from Chelyabinsk in the Ural Mountains outside of Moscow. They are in this country representing the USSR as one of 14 nations who will be participating in the Olympiad '90 International Theatre Festival in Royal Oak from June 29 to July 1.

This is the fifth time that the Detroit area has been the scene of the International Theatre Olympiad and the second time that the Chelsea Area Players have been selected to host a visiting theater group. Many Chelseaites will remember the visitors from Leixlip, Ireland, who participated in the last Olympiad in 1987. They performed their award-winning show at an "Irish Evening" at the Wolverine Food and Spirits.

The Mannequin Theatre troupe will be staying at local homes during their visit to the Chelsea area. Host families include: Carol and George Heydlauff, Mary Beth and Bill Rosenberg, Susan and Marvin Carlson, and CAP president Debbie Olson and Allen Anderson.

The highlight of the Russians' visit will be a presentation of their one-hour long festival competition piece, an anti-Stalin play entitled "Leader in Black," on Tuesday evening, June 28, at the Chelsea High school auditorium. Following the performance, there will be a reception and social hour where the audience will have an opportunity to meet and talk with the Russian performers. Refreshments will be served.

Tickets for "Leader in Black" will be available at the Chelsea Pharmacy commencing June 11. For more detailed information, call Julie Vorus at 475-8718.
