CHELSEA ROD AND GUN CLUB members were hard at work Saturday in the chilling drizzle erecting the shell of the Pierce Park Pavilion. The heavy rafters were lifted into place by the arm of a backhoe and joined on scaffolding in the middle. Workers hope to have the pavilion ready in time for the first Concert-in-the-Park on Sunday, July 8.

IT TOOK A GROUP EFFORT by Chelsea Rod & Gun Club members last Saturday to help erect the heavy beams of the Pierce Park pavilion. Right, Rick Monier of the club takes a look while village worker Dan Rosentretter fastens a strap to one of the beams, which will be lifted in place by a backhoe. Center is club member Al Whitaker.

Clean-Up of Fuel Leak At Village Garage May Require Demolition

Soil contamination is so extensive at the village garage that the village may be forced to tear down all or part of the main building at the North St. complex.

That was the conclusion of village manager Robert Stalker at last Tuesday's regular council meeting.

The village recently removed three underground gasoline storage tanks at the site and found significant contamination of the surrounding soil.

Stalker said tests show the contamination has spread under the 40' by 70' block building. He said consultants bored holes thorough the slab on the inside and could smell the gasoline in the soil samples.

"We don't think the contamination has gotten into the groundwater at this point because the samples at the bottom of the hole are clean," Stalker said.

"It appears to have spread more laterally."

Stalker said there are three types of clean-ups the village can pursue, and tearing down the entire building, in the long run, might be the cheapest one. With that option the village would clean up the soil to "background levels" of certain chemicals, primarily benzene, which essentially means cleaning up the entire mess.

Another option would have the village get rid of the gasoline until tests show certain chemicals at concentrations of less than 20 parts per billion in the soil and one part per Stalker said his next step is to talk to structural engineers about the building.

If the village decides it has to tear the building down, Stalker said he would recommend that a new garage be constructed elsewhere, since the village's well head is in the general area. He suggested that the village industrial park or land near the wastewater treatment plant might make good sites.

"We really haven't talked much about it," Stalker said.

Village vehicles are being fueled at a bulk station around the corner on Hayes St. Stalker and trustee Frank Hammer each said he was told there was a major gasoline spill many years ago at the bulk plant, which could be part of the village's problem.

"However, when you've got leaking tanks in the ground next to contamination, it's extremely difficult to prove the contamination came from somewhere else," Stalker said he was told by consultants.

The third option, which is similar to what happened to the village at the village landfill, would require risk assessment tests, a monitoring system to be installed, and the village to show there are mitigating circumstances why the building can't be torn down.

"I think it's questionable as to whether we want to pursue that option because monitoring wells and tests aren't cheap," Stalker said.

Any kind of clean-up is likely to require the village to excavate under the building, which will require some sort of structural reinforcement.

Recycling Program To Be Featured at Saturday Open House

The village's curbside recycling program will be the centerpiece of an open house at the wastewater treatment plant this Saturday from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m.

Village residents interested in participating in the program should be able to pick up buckets for recycling glass and metal.

As of Monday, two of the three buckets, those for recycling clear and colored glass, had arrived. The third set is on its way and administrative assistant Barbara Fredette said she was confident they would be available as well.

The blue, white, and green buckets, inscribed with the village seal, are similar to large paint buckets. They come with holes drilled in them, making them useless for liquids.

The village's pull-behind recycling trailer will also be on display. The trailer, which will be pulled around the village by a pick-up truck, has separate containers for glass and metal. When full, the village will take it to Recycle Ann Arbor and have the contents unloaded.

The program is scheduled to begin on Wednesday, July 11, with once-a-week pick-up. Village employees, as well as Cassidy Lake Technical School prisoners, will provide the labor.

The open house will also include tours of the new wastewater plant, displays about the village landfill and the village composting program, and information from the Department of Natural Resources and Zero Waste Recycling (which recycles tires).

Light refreshments will be served and balloons will be available for kids.

The plant is located off McKinley St. opposite North Elementary school.

Radar Detector Stolen from Car

A Chelsea-area resident had a radar detector stolen from her 1988 Plymouth on Tuesday, June 19 according to police reports.

The car was parked in the Chelsea Family Practice Center parking lot.

The Chelsea Standard July 4 issue will be circulated Tuesday, July 3 because of the national holiday July 4.

News copy must be at the office by Saturday noon, please. Display advertising must be in by 5 p.m. Wednesday. Classified advertising will be accepted until noon Saturday.

Your co-operation is needed to meet the earlier mailing date. Thank you.

Pavilion Construction Fund Reaches Goal

Pierce Park Pavilion fund campaign has met its goal for construction costs as a result of quick and generous support by the community. So far $8,000 has been received from the May mail appeal. This is in addition to $6,000 in cash and building materials plus pledges of skilled labor.

An opportunity still remains for individuals and families to join with other donors whose names will be inscribed in alphabetical order on the 1990 Pavilion plaque. The bare bones budget for construction left no room to spare. There remains a real need for landscaping, chairs and music stands for performers, sound equipment, stage lighting and a security closet. Additional contributions to the 1990 campaign will be warmly received. Room on the Pavilion Plaque is available for the names of all who contribute $10 or more before July 16. Address mail to: Pavilion, P.O. Box 94, Chelsea 48118.

District Begins To Assess Damages In Recent Vandalism at Beach

Chelsea School District has begun to get a handle on the damage caused by three teen-age vandals at Beach

Middle school June 15.

Computer equipment totaling $15,540.90 is apparently not worth trying to repair due to permeation by fire extinguisher dust, according to assistant superintendent Fred Mills. The school's mainframe, as well as a work station, were ruined. They were new as of Oct. 31.

Window repair bill was estimated to be $3,000 for the 18 windows, some wire-reinforced with mesh, that were smashed with a metal mallet.

Estimated damage to the public address system, 10 wall clocks, and other equipment had not been determined as of press time.

Insurance adjusters were in last week and Mills said they were essentially agreeable to any way the district wanted to handle the situation.

"Of all the things that have happened here, this incident disgusts people more than anything else," Mills said.

"It's not just adults, its the students too. Kids come up on the street and say 'Mr. Mills, how could they do that to our school?' People are hurt and there are feelings of betrayal."

Mills discussed the damage with school board members in executive session during last Monday's school board meeting. He said the district will probably wait to see what happens with legal prosecution before deciding what, if any, action to take against the three boys involved.

Fireworks Display Won't Be Here This July Fourth

For the first time in many years, there apparently will not be a local fireworks display this Fourth of July.

Harold Allen, who has organized the event for the past several years as part of the non-profit organization Chelsea Community Fireworks, Inc., has decided not to do it again. The organization has had trouble collecting enough money to pay for last year's show, the largest in Chelsea history.

The village has not been officially approached by any other group willing to sponsor a show. The village's fireworks ordinance requires village council approval, as well as an insurance policy naming the village as one of the insured parties.

CHELSEA FARMER'S MARKET opened for regular Saturday business last week-end in the Chelsea Depot parking lot. Weather was horrible for the debut of the market, but the sellers of produce were sold out by noon and other vendors reported a brisk business. The market will be open Saturdays from 8 a.m. to 2 p.m.

Farmer's Market Well Attended Despite Gusty Winds and Drizzle

"It was a success," said Chelsea Farmer's Market organizers H. K. Leonard and Greg Raye of the event's premier last Saturday morning in the Chelsea Depot parking lot.

"Despite the chilling rain and gusty winds, we had a strong customer and vendor turnout."

The weather couldn't have been much worse for the market's debut. Yet people were milling through the market throughout the six hours it was open.

And by noon all sellers of produce were sold out, and crafts merchants reported that they were pleased with the volume of business and will return.

Downtown Development Authority Chairman Sheridan Springer said he expects the market to grow each week as more people learn of it and more people become involved.

Vendors the first week included Lotie and Charles Curtis of C & H Crafts, Albert Bronn's Custom Woodworking, Chelsea Area Players, represented by Jeri Cole and Don Paulsell, Sue and Doug Rodgers of Rogers Produce, Ray Schairer's Uncle Ray's Woodshop, Dave and Sandy Barkman of TJ Farms, and Debbie Williams of Williams Produce.

Helium balloons, which were provided by DDA in co-operation with Chelsea Community Hospital, were given away at the end of the market.

The market, open from 8 a.m. to 2 p.m. every Saturday, still has plenty of room for vendors. Sign-up is at Farmer's Supply Co. opposite the Chelsea Depot on Jackson St. Cost is $8 per stall.

Customers should also note that early arrivals will get the best selection.

A June 19 accident along Dexter-Chelsea Rd. resulted in a curiously prolonged chase that finally ended June 24, but only after the accident victim contacted the Washtenaw County Sheriff's Department to say he had survived the crash intact. Patrick Devine, 32, of Pinckney, called authorities after five days to acknowledge his involvement. The accident occurred at 5:20 p.m. in front of a house on Dexter-Chelsea Rd. Several witnesses said a west-bound 1982 Ford pickup veered off the road, struck a mailbox, clipped the guy wires supporting a pole and tore out a small tree. The driver jumped from the cab and ran north across a wheat field, then headed west along a railroad track where he was again sighted. Chelsea fire department volunteers helped in the search and reported meeting a man along the tracks, but he denied being the driver of the truck.

Through June 25, the number of prisoners who had escaped from Cassidy Lake Technical School was exactly half of what it was the previous year. In 1985, 32 had walked away from the minimum security prison. In 1986, the number was 16. "As long as the school doesn't have a fence around it, there are going to be walk-aways," Staten said. When the state announced that fencing Cassidy Lake would be expensive but feasible, some people in the community reacted in horror when they also found out that the number of prisoners also might rise from 266 to more than 400 and that more hardened criminals might be confined there. The idea was to exchange information and ideas.

Michigan tourism spending—which was already on a record-setting pace due to a lower inflation rate and reduced gasoline prices from 1985, plus increased interest in domestic travel—should have been bolstered by a 6 percent rise in Fourth of July holiday business. Drury noted that July Fourth was on a Friday and that should have prompted more holiday travelers to take extended three-day vacations. The year before July Fourth was on a Thursday and many persons returned to work Friday.

Chelsea police investigated leads concerning the "trashing" of a home on Wilkinson St. in the early morning of June 28. According to Police Chief Lenard McDougall, this type of vandalism is the "in" thing among some teenagers. Police reports indicated that two cars, the driveway and home sustained approximately $500 in damage. Police said human feces and cream was spread on one of the cars, and egg was smeared on the trunk, top and hood of another car. They said the vandals used silver spray paint to write obscenities on the driveway. In addition, eggs were thrown at one side of the house.

We gave the "shirts off our backs," but not willingly—June 17, three uniform shirts were removed from the laundromat on Stadium Blvd., Ann Arbor, near the Veteran's Park area. Those three shirts were part of the Dexter DAPCO softball team uniforms. Number 14, usually worn by DAPCO pitcher Ethel Lambert, and two men's shirts, each lettered COACH on the left front, were listed as missing. It may be impossible to replace them this season, although "we're sure trying." League rules require all players to wear matching shirts.

Tamr Burnett of Chelsea was declared the official winner of the Bicentennial Rocking Chair Marathon after rocking for a total of 81 hours, 53 minutes. The event began at 8 p.m. Tamr's sponsor was the House of Orient. Runner-up Peggy King, sponsored by Gambles, lasted for 81 hours 50 minutes before finally deserting her chair. The field had narrowed down to the two finalists late in the afternoon.

The Steve Cantrell Memorial Bike-a-thon collected $1,475 in pledges as 24 riders on 23 bicycles rode a total of 480 miles. After a leisurely 30-minute ride from the Municipal Parking Lot to the Chrysler Proving Grounds. Riders headed off on a 13-mile course over sections of the test track. It was the first time the public was allowed on the track.

A pre-dawn blaze early Sunday morning, June 12, completely destroyed an abandoned house on Lima Center Rd. Twelve firemen from the Chelsea Fire Department responded to the alarm. No injuries were reported and the cause of the fire remained undetermined. It was a busy week for firefighters who were called out again on June 15. That time their services were required to help put out a series of minor grass fires which had started as a result of the dry weather.

Sobriety Checklanes Clear U.S. Court Hurdle, But Questions Remain
Advocates on sobriety checklanes said it will be at least a year before any can be established despite a U.S. Supreme Court ruling lifting a major barrier that the checkpoints do not violate federal Fourth Amendment rights.

The issue must still be tested in state courts on Michigan constitutional protections and sentiment by legislators, who have several times voted to prohibit their use, remains strong against checklanes.

The 6-3 majority of the U.S. Supreme Court which reversed a state Court of Appeals decision against checklanes gave proponents only a partial victory. An injunction against checklanes remains in force and will continue until the Court of Appeals and Supreme Court dispose of additional arguments over protections in the state constitution.

The high court, issuing its first ruling on an anti-drunken driving measure initiated in at least 33 states, said the intrusion is similar to that upheld in another case involving stopping vehicles at border points to check for illegal aliens.

Michigan was one of 12 states where courts banned checklanes.

Governor James J. Blanchard, the state's leading proponent of checklanes, said he will consult with state and local officials on how and where to proceed and with members of the Legislature who have raised objections. "We will determine the most effective use of this weapon against drivers who are drunk or using drugs," he said.

Michael Rizik, Jr., attorney for the Michigan Chapter of Mothers Against Drunk Driving, said the decision involved "the most important Fourth Amendment issue in the past 10 years."

He said the efficiency of the checkpoints in deterring drunken driving was a concern of the court, but not a constitutional issue. "Sobriety checklanes are indeed the most effective way of getting drunk drivers off the road," Rizik said.

MADD Executive Director Bethany Goodman said the group is pushing several other drunken driving countermeasures, including on-the-spot confiscation of driver licenses.

ACLU Executive Director Howard Simon said, "The ball is back in the governor's court. We would hope he would take note that alcohol-related accidents and fatalities have declined without the need for roadblocks because of other effective measures."

Simon said he is optimistic the challenge to roadblocks, which he characterized as "involving law enforcement agencies which terrorize innocent people," would be barred under the Michigan constitution even though the language on unreasonable search and seizure is substantially similar.

He said it is a matter of interpretation, and recent history has seen federal courts "abandon" protections of civil liberties while state courts show increased responsibility over those matters.

"We're not going to see roadblocks in Michigan," he said.

Attorney General Frank J. Kelley said, "I welcome this decision which allows Michigan to take strong steps to protect the public from drunk drivers. I was confident from the beginning that the stopping and observing of drivers at checklanes is no more a constitutional intrusion of privacy than security checks at airports and public buildings such as the Supreme Court."

U.S. Supreme Court Chief Justice William Rehnquist, in the majority opinion, said, "No one can seriously dispute the magnitude of the drunk driving problem or the states' interest in eradicating it. Conversely, the weight bearing on the other side of the scale—the measure of intrusion on motorists stopped briefly at sobriety checklanes—is slight."

The majority said the checklanes meet standards requiring intrusions of civil liberties to reflect the gravity of a public concern, that the seizure advances public interest, and the severity of police interference does not outweigh rights to liberty.

Signing the opinion were Justices Byron White, Sandra Day O'Connor, Antonin Scalia and Anthony Kennedy. Justice Harry Blackmun concurred.

Dissenting Justice William Brennan agreed with the social cost of drunken driving, but said, "In the face of the momentary evil, the court is abdicated its role of protector of individual privacy." Justices John Paul Stevens and Thurgood Marshall also dissented.

Pending before the Michigan House is legislation (HB 5235) which would ban the checklanes altogether and a supplemental budget bill (HB 5278) approved recently by both houses contains language barring use of any State Police funds to operate such projects.

Rep. William Van Regenmorter (R-Jenison) will offer an amendment to the bill now in the House that will instead turn it into a measure setting standards for checkpoints, including hours of operation from 11 p.m. to 5 a.m. at only dangerous areas, with motorists detained for no more than five minutes.

But Van Regenmorter said a majority of legislators probably remain opposed to any checklanes, although he hopes they rethink the matter in light of the court ruling that constitutional rights are not an issue.

But Rep. Morris Hood (D-Detroit), sponsor of the bill, continued to assert following the decision that checklanes are an invasion of civil rights. "Those of us who believe it's an intrusion on the rights of the people of Michigan will have to convince our legislative colleagues that sobriety checklanes and drug checklanes should not be accepted," Hood said.

House Speaker Lewis Dodak (D-Montrose), in whose district the only checklane project was operated, said he has "never been supportive of checklanes. I would be opposed to them and I would probably support legislation that would prohibit them."

Senate Majority Leader John Engler (R-Mt. Pleasant) also said he remains opposed to checklanes because they are "not the most effective use of officers in the field."

House Appropriations State Police Subcommittee Chair John Maynard (D-St. Clair Shores) suggested the state has better uses for its money than to fund the checklane patrols.

"If you had unlimited amounts of time and money . . . maybe checklanes would be a good idea. It's an inconvenience to the public. It delays a chance of catching someone who may do something wrong. It's just checking to see if we are doing something wrong and that's an invasion of my rights," he said.

But Rep. Philip Hoffman (R-Horton) disagreed. "The law abiding, non-drinking public will not be inconvenienced, rather they will be protected. The drinking public . . . is on notice that their antics are not going to be tolerated and they have reason to fear if they are going to continue to drink and drive," he said.

Senate Appropriations State Police Subcommittee Chair Nick Smith (R-Addison), acknowledging his support does not reflect many of his colleagues, argued the checklanes serve a valid purpose. "I think periodic checklanes in areas where we've had substantial drunk driving accidents should be allowed," he said.

The State Police operated one checklane for one night in 1988, making one arrest out of 128 drivers who were observed.

The first state legislation requiring the reporting of industrial accidents was in 1886 in Massachusetts, according to "Labor Firsts in America," a U.S. Labor Department publication.

Uncle Lew from Lima Says:

DEAR MISTER EDITOR:

At last report, Zeke Grubb told the fellers at the country store Saturday night, San Francisco still was squabbling over what was going to be the city's official musical instrument. Zeke had saw where the accordian got the council's vote, but the mayor wouldn't sign the law fer fear promoters of other instruments would be hurt.

All across this great land, Zeke said, Governments are going about this kind of business. If they ain't proclaiming recycle paper month they might be holding hearings on whether to change the point system fer judging canned fruit at the state fair. So many pressing issues and so little time.

North Carolina's constitution says the state Government must balance its budget, and it's running $430 million in the red. The jails are full and the Governor wants to build five more prisons. There's no place to lock up the hole legislature fer violating the constitution. So the honorables spent a week naming an official state dog. No sooner were Texans unable to agree on an official state insect than they got fighting mad over a move to put some wimpy slogan about friendship on their car license tags.

And it's allus this time of year, Zeke went on, when we are reminded why we pay taxes on one calendar and Governments spend on another one. We see budget study committees of Governments at all levels headed fer week seminars to beach and mountain resorts to do serious work they couldn't git done in their stuffy offices in the dead of winter.

So it ain't no wonder, Zeke said, that he recent saw by the papers where the mayor of a small town in the Florida Panhandle is campaigning fer reelection on the stay away ticket. The feller is retired from a high place in a public relations outfit, and he says he's running on his record. During his last term, he says, he didn't miss a single game of his high school son's basketball season, home and away, he played golf twice during the week and ever Sunday. He visited his ancestors native Ireland. His old lady runs a wimmen's clothes shop in town, and he went with her on a buying trip to France. He took the reglar family vacation in Colorado.

In talks to voters, he has been pointing out how alick everthing run in the mayor's office with him gone, and he is saying all he wants is a chanct to keep up the good work. He points to Congress as his role model.

Fer sure, the feller says, a mayor on a fact finding mission to Africa can't be back home dreaming up a air pollution fee on charcoal grills, and a mayor cruising the Caribbean on a liquor lobby's boat ain't busy voting grants to retired college professors that want to study why twins raised by different families in different states gain weight at the same rate.

The fellers weren't sure how much of Zeke's report could be called dramatized history, but Ed Doolittle said he can easy see where the stay away ticket is right fer television. All political campanes now are races to see who can come up with the best TV camera grabbing gimmick.

Farthermore, Ed said, this has gone so far that people watching, listening and reading can't tell true from false. He had saw where a new movie is made with all grades of film and tape, with streaks and fast forward to remind audiences what they're seeing is not real. That, said Ed, is real scary.
Yours truly,
Uncle Lew.

On May 29 Modern Mothers Child Study Club held its annual spring installation banquet at Paesanos Restaurant in Ann Arbor.

Members enjoyed a cocktail hour, a lovely dinner and a program planned by the nominations/installation committee. Crystal Heydlauff was welcomed as a new member and Janet Alford was honored as an associate member having been an active member for 11 years.

1989-1990 officers, president, Barb Pruess; vice-president, Ann Mann; recording secretary, Mindy Kinner; corresponding secretary, Diana Mathis; treasurer, Lisell Bowers; program chairperson, Kathy Trudell; and finance chairperson, Anita McDonald were thanked for their year of service and 1990-1991 officers were installed.

Boychoir of Ann Arbor Accepting Applications

The Boychoir of Ann Arbor is now accepting applications for its fifth season which begins in September 1990. Musical boys, aged 8 1/2 to 13 are eligible for membership in the choir.

The choir has appeared with the Ann Arbor Symphony (notably in the performance of "Carmina burana" in April 1990) and the Pittsburgh Symphony under the direction of Michael Tilson Thomas (in the 1988 May Festival). Plans for the 1990-91 season include Choral Evensong in the English tradition; the ever-popular "Boychoir Christmas" concert in December; and "The Glory of Gabrieli," a program of works for multiple choirs, brass and organ, in May.

Parents of boys are invited to inquire about the choir and to apply for an audition by calling Dr. Thomas Strode, the choir's founder and director, at 863-0518, or 485-1534.

Chelsea Economic Breakfast Speakers Discuss Local Issues

The first meeting of the new Chelsea Economic Club was held Wednesday morning, June 20, at the Chelsea Community Hospital Woodlands Room. The program, co-sponsored by Society Bank and the Chelsea Area Chamber of Commerce, provided a forum to examine local economic and community issues.

A panel discussion, moderated by Mark D. Baily from Society Bank, focused on specific economic issues facing the village of Chelsea.

Robert Stalker, Chelsea village manager, listed for the audience of 40 guests, the many financial demands placed on the Village budget, many directly attributable to the recent growth.

The electric transformer on Garfield needed upgrading due to an increase in the load, which also forces the Electric Department to purchase more power from Consumers Power Co., at peak demand hours.

An outlay of $20-30,000 is needed to update the zoning ordinance manual.

The water delivery and retrieval system demands constant attention due to its age and increasing demand. The Sibley and Manchester Rds. improvements cost $224,000. The State Department of Public Health is examining the need for Chelsea to chlorinate, which could entail considerable cost to village users. Of course the landfill outlays are well documented, but most critical and most expensive.

Franz Mogdis, consultant to the Chelsea Downtown Development Authority, explained that such boards came as a result of declining downtowns appealing to the State Legislature for some way to fight back. The law allows property owners in designated districts to assess themselves up to two mills for planning. In Chelsea that levy produces about $17,000 per year.

In addition, if the DDA puts into effect a Tax Increment Financing plan, the additional taxes collected on increased assessments may be used for special projects. The DDA must establish a base year—in Chelsea it is 1987—and the additional value produces additional taxes which, if the local governmental unit concurs, may be set aside for improvements. This does not increase the burden on the property owner, only redirects monies. Consultant Mogdis will work closely with the Deardorf Design Resources group which the DDA hired to design specific improvements to the downtown.

Fred Mills, assistant superintendent of Chelsea School District, looked at economic issues from the school perspective. The co-operative climate between the DDA and the school district is unique in the state. Mills explained that this is a co-operative, economic system which is interdependent. If the state equalized value in the downtown area declines, the tax revenues also decline.

Mills explained that as an "out of formula" school district—Chelsea receives state school aid only for mandated programs. In districts which receive state aid, any money diverted to a TIFA is recaptured from the state.

There are many challenges facing the school district such as elementary schools which are at peak enrollment. Continued growth will definitely present challenges to our educators trying to deliver desired educational programs.

Chelsea 1996 sent its thank you and congratulations to the Breakfast organizers, Baily and Maryann Merkel for "a very informative meeting which provides a proactive approach to Chelsea economic issues."

The next Breakfast Club meeting will be held at 7:30 a.m., July 18. For information or reservations call Mark Baily, Society Bank at 475-9154.

Chelsea Eye Care Welcomes New Associate

William Hawks, M.D. is pleased to announce the association of Lou Ann Kiessling, M.D. to Chelsea Eye Care. Dr. Kiessling's vast experience will bring new services to the community. Chelsea Eye Care provides full eye care services.

Dr. Kiessling is a native of Jackson and completed her undergraduate work at the University of Michigan. She received her medical degree from Washington University School of Medicine in St. Louis, Mo. Following her internship in General Surgery at the University of Chicago's Michael Reese Hospital in Chicago, Ill., she obtained a Fellowship in Ocular Pathology at Johns Hopkins University in Baltimore, Md. Her residency in Ophthalmology was at Kresge Eye Institute, Wayne State University in Detroit.

Dr. Kiessling has practiced as a general practitioner in Anchorage, Alaska and has also served a clerkship for the Department of Ophthalmology in Buenos Aires, Argentina. For the past year she has been an ophthalmologist in the Monroe area. During this time she has continued to teach the residents at Wayne State University in Ocular Pathology.

Dr. Kiessling is licensed in four states and her professional affiliations include the American Academy of Ophthalmology, the American Medical Association and the Association for Research in Vision and Ophthalmology.

Dr. Kiessling is single and plans to settle in the area. "Having grown up in this area, it's nice to come back home. I'm really looking forward to working with the doctors and the patients of the Chelsea community," says Dr. Kiessling. Her interests include snow skiing, windsurfing and gardening.

To the Editor,
Do you know the United States government lists 2,413 American servicemen, women and civilians as being prisoners of war or missing in action as a result of the war in Vietnam, Cambodia and Laos?

Do you know that our government has received numerous reports of sightings of our POW's and has done nothing about it? These POW's are someone's father, brother, sister or cousin. Perhaps he was the boy next door. They are being held in labor camps, being starved, beaten and tortured.

They are POW's because they are American and their own government has abandoned them.

On June 9, I attended the first membership meeting of Task Force Omega of Michigan. The goal of TFO is to bring our POW's home. TFO of Michigan is headquartered in Stockbridge and chaired by Ted McGarry and his wife, Maryann. Never have I met a man so fiercely dedicated to a cause.

The guest speaker was Tom Van Putten who told of his 13 months as a POW. He escaped, on his third try, in 1969 and spent the following 1 1/2 years training our servicemen on how to escape, should they be captured.

We also had the pleasure of meeting Clark Durant who will be running for the U.S. Senate. Mr. Durant has pledged his support to TFO in helping to bring our POW's home.

Up until six months ago, I did not realize there were POW's still being held in Southeast Asia. I had assumed that the government who asked, and insisted, that they serve their country, would also bring them back home. I was wrong.

We have spent recent years speaking out against Apartheid in South Africa and funding Contra rebels in Nicaragua.

Now it's time to come together, as one voice, and tell our government that we want our POW's home!

QUOTES

DONALD A. COLE, Director

"The moment a man ceases to progress, to grow higher, wider and deeper, then his life becomes stagnant . . ."

—Orison Marden

From this we conclude that a stagnant life is a matter of choice. In this day and age, there is no reason why anyone must cease to progress and to grow except by choice or indifference.

All of us have endless opportunity to escape stagnation by further developing our abilities and skills . . . whether related to our work or to our relationship with others. In seizing these opportunities, you will add zest and interest to living.

Families of all faiths and fraternal orders can be certain of perfectly appropriate services when they put their trust in our experience.

and ringing bells in the afternoon marked the Fourth of July in Chelsea. The American Legion, with the aid of the Chelsea Kiwanis Club, sponsored the annual fireworks display at dark at the fairgrounds. The Ice Cream Social began at 5 p.m. and lasted until 9 p.m. The Chamber of Commerce, Kiwanis Club, Jaycees, VFW and their auxiliaries in Chelsea joined the American Legion in a 2 p.m. ringing of bells which continued for four minutes.

A special tour of approximately 15,000 acres under study by the Army Corps of Engineers for the proposed Mill Creek Impoundment and adjoining recreation areas was sponsored by the Mill Creek Research Council. The tour was the first for that year. Four similar tours were conducted by the Council the summer before. A second tour was scheduled for later in the month. Special invitations were sent to area governmental officials but any interested resident could go on the tour if bus space permitted. The tour took more than two hours to complete.

A ring lost on a sandy beach at Fort Lauderdale, Fla., found its way back to a Chelsea High graduate, Class of '68. The class ring was discovered by Mrs. Charles Skipp who wrote a letter addressed to "Principal, Chelsea High School, Chelsea, Mich." In her letter Mrs. Skipp wrote: "Aside from sentimental value I know these rings are not inexpensive and whoever lost it is quite upset. I am not looking for a reward, I merely want to find the owner. Rather than put it in the 'lost and found' I am first going to try to locate the owner myself. There are only two Chelsea's to my knowledge at present, your's and the one in Massachusetts, so I am contacting both of you." She gave a description of the ring along with the initials. Charles Lane, High school principal, knew that William Adams' ring had been lost and quickly contacted him.

34 Years Ago . . .

Thursday, June 28, 1956—
The Chelsea High school band took top honors in the junior division at the band contest held in Bay City Saturday in connection with the Veterans of Foreign Wars Department of Michigan encampment and were given a royal welcome when they returned to Chelsea. News that the Chelsea band had won the trophy did not become generally known until about noon on Sunday and dinners were forgotten as telephones were kept busy with plans to welcome the group at 2:30 p.m. that afternoon. By the time the two buses reached the school grounds a crowd had congregated there holding up placards and cheering the band and its director, Eugene Shroyer.

Postmaster Carl J. Mayer, in announcing that the local post office had become a First Class office July 1, said he was anticipating great dissatisfaction of patrons who send and receive parcel post packages. Records in the Post Office Department Library at Washington, D. C., showed that receipts of Chelsea Post Office have increased dramatically in the past four years. Formerly considered an honor for a community to have a First Class post office, it is now classed by people across the nation as a "millstone of penalty around the neck of the community" because of the regulations for parcel post made necessary by Public Law 199. Law 199 limits the size of packages which may be sent from and to First Class post offices.

Chelsea firemen were on duty at Chelsea Milling company's new construction project from 9:30 a.m. until 12:40 p.m. pumping out water which had flooded the building after a water main broke. Fire Department records also mention a call to the Blass Elevator at Four Mile Lake at 1:35 a.m. June 15. Sheriff's officers had noticed the blaze and placed the call. The fire was found to be a pile of corn cobs.

The first private pension plan offered by a labor organization was set up in 1860 by the Amalgamated Society of Engineers, a union of American and Canadian workers, according to "Labor Firsts in America," a U.S. Labor Department publication.

Pets of the Week

Pet of the Week is a weekly feature of this newspaper. Pets shown are available at the Humane Society of Huron Valley, 3100 Cherry Hill Rd., Ann Arbor.

• Cost of a pet is $25 plus a sterilization fee.

• Sterilization fees are $20 for a male cat, $30 for a female cat, $25 for a male dog under 40 pounds, and $35 for a female dog under 40 pounds.

 • If you already have a pet, you must provide proof of current vaccinations.
 • Landlord approval is necessary if you rent your residence.
 • Pets can be adopted seven days a week from 11 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Visiting hours end at 5 p.m.
 • For more information, contact the Humane Society of Huron Valley at 662-5585.

PETS OF THE WEEK are "Jailbird," a black and tan young adult male dog, and "Zelda," an adult female tabby cat. Jailbird weighs about 50 pounds and is black and tan. He is very charming, intelligent, gentle, and sensitive. His previous owner had no time to give to him. Zelda is a domestic shorthair who has been at the shelter for a long time. She's a sweet, even-tempered cat who was a stray.

Don't Just Recycle, Start With Precycling

Every day, the state of Michigan produces approximately 32,000 tons of solid waste. Paper and plastics together make up almost 50 percent of the trash, much of which is packaging materials. With available landfills reaching capacity, and new ones facing stiff opposition, what can the individual do about this mounting solid waste problem?

If you're already recycling your glass containers, tin cans, plastic milk jugs and paper, that's great! But you can go one step further and precycle.

Recycling is the physical act of dealing with items after you've bought them. Precycling, on the other hand, is the thoughtful purchase (or non-purchase) of items based on their packaging and their end disposability.

Precycling can be very easy. Simply by making the correct buying choices, we can prevent excess materials from getting into the waste stream. Here's how:

1. Select products carefully. Consider the environmental impact of each product you buy. What is the container made of? Can it be reused or even resold? Is it offered in a recyclable container under a different brand name? If the packaging is excessive, do you really need it? Buy fruits, vegetables and meats that have minimal packaging and/or environmentally safe packaging.

2. Overcome overpackaging. If the packaging isn't necessary to protect the product or it's designed just to catch your eye, buy a less packaged alternative. Avoid single-serving convenience packages. You can pack your own single serving in a reusable container for less money.

3. Avoid disposables. Let the words "disposable" and "use it once" serve as signals not to buy the product. Avoid disposable cameras, razors, lighters and plastic plates and cups. Buy reusable items, such as thermos jars, rechargeable batteries, cloth napkins and sponges.

4. Buy in bulk. Buying in bulk allows you to get exactly the amount you want, save money and avoid overpackaging.

5. Express yourself. Tell the store manager you don't want overpackaged items or items packaged in non-recyclable materials. Shop at stores that provide products packaged the way you want. If consumers quit buying a product, it won't be long before the wholesaler replaces that product with one that sells.

Purchasing products packaged in recycled materials increases market demand for those materials. Recycled packaging can be identified by the recycling symbol on the package or by a gray interior in paperboard boxes containing such products as cereal and cake mixes.

Following are some of the products packaged in paperboard made from recycled paper:

—Cereals: Kellogg, General Mills, Nabisco, Post brands,

—Baking Goods: Arm & Hammer Baking Soda, Argo Cornstarch, Biscuits, Domino Sugars,

—Cookies and Crackers: Health Valley Crackers, Nabisco brand, Nature Valley Granola Bars, Sunshine Brand, Coffee/Tea/Cocoa: Alba 77 Shake Mix, Carnation Hot Cocoa and Instant Breakfast, Nestle and Swiss Miss Cocoa Mixes.

Use the 800 numbers listed on some over packaged products to tell the manufacturers you won't buy their products until the packages are recyclable. Also, be sure to let manufacturers who are doing a good job know that you appreciate it.

6. Teach your children well. Children may be attracted to the clever but overpackaged products.

But they're quick learners, and we can teach them precycling and recycling right from the start.

Farm Bureau Urges State Inheritance Tax Reduction

Michigan Farm Bureau president Jack Laurie has urged Governor Blanchard to sign a bill passed by the state Legislature that will cut the inheritance tax by nearly $40 million over the next three years. The farm leader told Blanchard that it is important that Michigan farmers be allowed to pass on their farms to family or business partners without the economic burden of inheritance tax.

"It really is an economic issue. Indications are that some people and their capital assets have moved out of state to escape the Michigan inheritance tax. While it is possible for other small businesses to move, we can't move our farms," Laurie said.

In 1975, the U.S. Department of Agriculture estimated that one-quarter of all farm real estate sales were for the purpose of estate settlement; that is, individuals were required to sell a portion or all of their farm simply to settle the economic burden of the estate, Laurie told the governor.

"The Michigan inheritance tax burden is significant. A sample calculation of a $250,000 farm estate inherited by a child has a tax liability of $8,800 under current law," Laurie said. "If this same farm were inherited by an unrelated business partner, the tax would currently be $34,000. Even though the legislation passed by the Legislature would only reduce this burden by 50 percent phased in over three years, it still is an important step toward allowing farmers to pass their farm estate to others.

Michigan Farm Bureau had worked for repeal of the state inheritance tax and adoption of a federal "pick-up" tax. However, Laurie said, the 50 percent reduction of the inheritance tax is "a major step in the right direction to preserve Michigan agriculture."

EDUCATION RESEARCH

Prepared by the National Association of Secondary School Principals (NASSP), Reston, Va.

★ Heterogeneous Grouping Can Benefit Middle Level Students . . .

Reston, Va.—When properly implemented, placing students in small working groups can be very beneficial; when implemented poorly, they can force students into inflexible situations which hamper learning.

That's the advice of Conrad F. Toepfer, Jr., professor in the graduate school of education, State University of New York-Buffalo. He made his comments in a recent issue of "Schools in the Middle" published by the National Association of Secondary School Principals.

"The fundamental purpose of grouping should be to place students in settings that best meet their learning needs," Toepfer wrote. "Grouping can establish better learning and personal development environments in schools."

Homogeneous grouping—where students of the same ability are placed together—can hamper the development of sixth through ninth graders.

"During the past two decades, homogeneous grouping by ability and tracking arrangements have become more popular in schools," Toepfer indicated. "However, the results of homogeneous grouping of students by ability do not warrant its continued use, particularly in middle level school programs." (Middle level refers to grades six through nine.)

Toepfer contended that heterogeneous grouping—when students are matched with youngsters of differing abilities—is appropriate for middle level schools.

"Heterogeneous grouping provides opportunities for students to learn in widening developmental ranges," he wrote.

Toepfer called for four principles to be considered as schools seek to establish appropriate grouping arrangements for middle level youngsters:

"Grouping arrangements should best meet early adolescent developmental needs. Effective groupings depend to a large extent on adequate guidance in helping pupils select courses and cocurricular activities suited to their abilities and interests.

Deer Crop Damage Relief Measures Approved By NRC

Natural Resources Commission has approved an expanded state-wide block permit program for combating costly deer crop damage as determined by local Department of Natural Resources (DNR) wildlife biologists. According to Vicki Pontz, legislative counsel for the Michigan Farm Bureau, deer damage shooting permits are also approved state-wide, effective immediately.

"Under the new program, landowners experiencing significant crop damage in two out of the last five years may purchase a minimum of 10 block permits for antlerless deer at a cost of $3 each from the DNR," Pontz said. "Landowners then have the option to either fill the permits themselves, or issue them to family members, or interested hunters. They may be used between Oct. 1 and Jan. 1."

Pontz said of the 5,291 block permits issued to 384 landowners in 20 counties last fall, 3,458 antlerless deer were removed. "It is estimated that 25,000 block permits will be issued this year, with an ultimate goal of 20,000 to 40,000 additional antlerless deer taken as the program allows for the permits to be reissued," she said.

At public meetings sponsored by Michigan Farm Bureau and the DNR in July and August, local "Coordinated Wildlife Management" teams will be formed. The teams, consisting of farmers, hunters, Cooperative Extension Service personnel and DNR district office and law enforcement personnel, will evaluate the new program and make recommendations for future seasons. Dates and locations of the meetings will be announced soon.

"Subgrouping on bases of ability, achievement, or interest within classes in a specific area is more justifiable than grouping on the basis of general intelligence. Use of any single limited grouping arrangement on a school-wide basis in middle level schools should be avoided.

"Many criteria for determining pupil learning capacities should be utilized. Previous performance in a subject and specific evaluations of readiness should also be considered. Teachers' estimates should be included and reliance upon a single test score should be avoided.

"The merits of ability, achievement, and interest must be clearly defined as they relate to grouping needs in specific areas of middle level school programs."

Organist's Guild Presents Summer Organ Recital Series

The second concert of the 1990 Summer Recital Series will present Dr. Joanne Vollandorf and Dr. Thomas Strode in a recital of Patriotic Fireworks for the Organ. Dr. Vollandorf will perform the Concert Variations on "The Star Spangled Banner" by Dudley Buck; and Dr. Strode will perform the engaging and often humorous Variations on "America" by Charles Ives, as well as the "Variations on Nursery Tunes" by Robert Elmore. All the composers on the program are American.

Dr. Vollandorf has studied at the University of Michigan and at St. Olaf College in Minnesota and is director of music of Christ Episcopal church, Detroit. Dr. Strode's studies have been in his native Portland, Ore. and at the University of Michigan as a student of Marilyn Mason; he is organist and choirmaster of St. Andrew's Episcopal church, Ann Arbor.

The recital will take place Wednesday, July 4 at 12:10 p.m., at St. Andrew's Episcopal church, Division at Catherine, Ann Arbor, and will last about a half hour. The featured instrument is the 33-rank, 2,000-pipe Reuter organ in the acoustically superb nave of St. Andrew's. Installed in 1970, this organ is the fourth in the church's history. The recital is free and open to the public.

Vacation Costs Up 3 Percent This Summer

A family of four should budget about $198 a day when taking a vacation by car this summer, AAA Michigan reports.

"The estimated price for food, lodging and driving rose $6 a day—up 3 percent—compared with last summer's costs," said Peter R. Erickson, AAA Michigan Club Services director. Lodging averages $80 a night, based on typical rates of approved hotels listed in AAA TourBooks. "It's best to select a hotel before starting out," Erickson added. "Planning ahead offers more choices at a better price since some accommodations may be free for children under age 14."

Family dining costs an average $93 a day. Many restaurants offer "early bird" specials or children's menus offering entrees at reduced rates.

Erickson said motorists can expect to pay $28 for gasoline, oil, tires and maintenance based on traveling 300 miles in a car averaging 23 miles per gallon.

Making sure the family vehicle is in top condition can save fuel and avoid costly breakdowns. The best way to do this is to follow the maintenance schedule in a car's owners manual.

Actual vacation expenditures vary depending on personal preferences, and costs vary by area. For instance, higher lodging rates are usually found in metropolitan areas and at resorts in season.

A vacation budget also should include extra funds for tips, tourist attractions, road and bridge tolls, shopping and emergencies, Erickson noted.

Two Chain Saws Reported Missing From Dexter Store

Citizens in the Dexter and Chelsea area are requested to be on the alert for three new Jonsered chain saws which some unsavory character(s) brazenly pilfered from the shelves at Contractor's Tool, either Friday, June 22 or Saturday, June 23.

Scott Mihail is proprietor of both Contractor's Tool and the adjacent Huron River Party Store, located directly opposite the Dexter Cider Mill, just south of the Mast Rd. bridge in Dexter village.

Mihail explained to deputy Mark Meeko that his shop services and repairs chain saws, in addition to selling the saws and other items.

Anyone who may have observed a subject or subjects loading the Jonsered saws, distinctively red in color, into a van, truck or automobile, on Friday or Saturday, June 22 or 23, is asked to contact Scott Mihail, owner of Contractor's Tool, at 436-2216, or to notify Mark Meeko, or his fellow officers at the Washtenaw County Sheriff's Department.

Hay Fever Affects Millions Dial-A-Garden Topics Listed

By Tanya Wilson, R.N.

There are roughly 40 million people who suffer from allergies. Hay fever or seasonal allergic rhinitis is a recurrent seasonal problem caused by abnormal hypersensitivity to pollens. People who have allergies have an immune system which acts inappropriately. It tries to protect the person from what it mistakenly perceives as harmful grasses and weeds, and responds by releasing too much histamine into the system. The local release of histamine causes the person to sneeze, have a runny or stuffed-up nose, an itchy, burning throat, and burning, watery, itchy eyes.

The symptoms are periodic in nature, occurring during the pollinating season of the plants to which the person is sensitive. Symptoms are worse on dry, sunny, windy days when the pollen can be blown around. On rainy days, the amount of pollen in the air is less, and symptoms are decreased.

The tendency to develop allergies is hereditary and 70 percent of allergy sufferers have a history of allergies in the family. Allergies are classified according to season.

1. Spring Type—March until early May is stimulated by pollens of certain trees, such as oak, elm and poplar.

2. Summer Type—May until early June is stimulated by pollens of certain grasses, such as timothy and red top. Pollination continues in all grasses until the middle of July.

3. Fall Type—August until the first frost is stimulated by pollens of the ragweed family, which is the principal offending plant causing hay fever in the U.S.

Take precautions when you are outside during periods of peak exposure. If you are allergic to molds, you should avoid leaf raking and burning, barns with hay or straw and mowing the lawn. Use of central air conditioning and heating, electrostatic filters, plastic covers on mattresses and pillows, and dehumidifiers in rooms which are humid may prevent exposure to inhalants from the outside as well as reduce the inside exposure to dust and molds. Avoid factors which are known to irritate the airways, such as tobacco smoke, face powder, air pollution and prolonged use of vasoconstrictor nose drops or nasal spray. Make sure windows are closed in the morning, since this is when plants pollinate. Exercise is better done late in the day than in the morning for the same reason.

Most people need medication at some time even though they do their best to avoid pollens. Antihistamines are the most effective in drying the nasal secretions as well as decreasing the tendency to sneeze. However, they sometimes cause drowsiness, dry mouth, dizziness, gastric upset and drowsiness. Try antihistamines at bedtime first. If you wake up alert, twice a day dosing will often be effective and not produce too much sedation.

Tel-Med Offers Information On First Aid

Tel-Med, the health information service that provides tape-recorded messages prepared by health care professionals, offers information on First Aid. Some of the areas covered include:

- Animal Bites, No. 118
- Bee Sting, No. 121
- Choking, No. 111
- Cuts and Lacerations of the Skin, No. 1031
- Head Injuries, No. 98
- Lyme Disease, No. 1173
- Sprains, No. 99.

If you are interested in listening to a tape from Tel-Med and live in the Chelsea or Dexter areas please call 688-1551 toll-free. Calls will be answered between the hours of 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. on weekdays and 12 noon to 8 p.m. on Saturdays.

Tel-Med is a community service sponsored by Beyer Memorial Hospital, Brighton Hospital, Care Choices Health Plans, Catherine McAuley Health Center, Chelsea Community Hospital, Chelsea United Way, Child and Family Service of Washtenaw, Livingston County United Way, McPherson Hospital, Saline Community Hospital, University of Michigan Hospitals, Veterans Community Medical Center and the Washtenaw United Way.

Committee for Ladies Day To Call Businesses

Ladies on the Chelsea Community Fair's Ladies Day committee will soon be calling on Chelsea and Dexter-area businesses for donations for this year's program.

The Ladies Day program depends heavily on contributions of merchandise, services, or money for the success of its program.

All donations should be collected by Aug. 11.

Anyone new to the area who would like more information should contact Kris Bergman at 478-7923.

The following is a weekly schedule of Dial-A-Garden, the system of pre-recorded daily gardening tips sponsored by the Washtenaw County Cooperative Extension Service. The system is in operation 24 hours a day, seven days a week. Interested persons are invited to call 971-1129 at their convenience to listen to timely, up-to-date gardening information.

Manchester Will Have Fireworks

The Manchester Men's Club is again sponsoring their annual Independence Day Celebrate on July 3. There will be a dance featuring the "Loyal Legends Band" with Brad Frey, a beer tent, and family picnics in the park. This all takes place at Carr Park on W. Main St., Manchester. Fireworks will be at dusk. No admission, but donations are appreciated.

Recording Artist, Lois Irwin Slider, Coming to Chelsea

Lois Irwin Slider, song writer/composer/recording artist, will be ministering at the third annual Celebration of Freedom on July 4.

The Celebration of Freedom is a community event sponsored by area churches and will be held on the grounds of First Assembly of God church in Chelsea, beginning at 1 p.m.

The songs of Lois Slider have blessed untold thousands of people through the years. She has travelled world-wide for over 25 years ministering through music. She has recorded many albums and her songs may be found in song books and hymnals across the country.

Her song "The Healer" has been used for many years as the theme song for the Rex Humbard television broadcast. Many of her songs have been sung and recorded by other gospel artists, the evangelist, Jimmy Swaggart being one. "The song I feel that Lois Irwin (Slider) has written, which has touched more hearts, possibly, than any of the other great ones penned by her hand is the song entitled, 'The Healer.' The words are straight from Heaven, anointed by the Holy Spirit. It makes me very, very happy when someone, such as Lois Irwin, who lives the life, has the touch of God within her heart, makes the success she has in writing great songs for Jesus Christ."

Mrs. Slider resides in Warner Robins, Georgia with her husband, Bud Slider, who ministers the Gospel. They will be travelling here to Chelsea and she will be sharing in music and testimony at a 2 p.m. concert and a 5:30 p.m. service at the Celebration of Freedom. There will be a cookout/pot-luck meal between the two performances. The public is welcome.

Ann Arbor Sponsors Fireworks for July 3

There will be a major fireworks display to mark Independence Day in Ann Arbor, thanks to five area businesses who have agreed to provide financial support for the annual celebration. The event will be held on Tuesday, July 3.

O & W Distributors, Comshare and WQB/WNRS radio have joined the Ann Arbor News and Domino's Pizza, Inc., to support this year's event.

A non-profit corporation, Ann Arbor Independence Day Celebration Inc., was formed last year and is directed by a community-based board of directors. The corporation produces the event.

The festivities include an Airshow, food vendors, entertainment as well as the display of fireworks. "With the Fourth of July falling in the middle of the week this year, the group decided to hold the event on Tuesday, July 3, leaving the Fourth as a rain date," said White.

The annual celebration draws between 30,000 and 40,000 viewers to the Ann Arbor airport at State and Ellsworth Rds., in Pittsfield township. Gates will open for the public at 6 p.m. The airshow is scheduled for 7:30 p.m. and the fireworks will fill the skies beginning at 10 p.m.

In addition to the airshow and spectacular fireworks, the evening will be packed with entertainment, food, beverages and a display of day and night skydiving by the well known Liberty diving team from Galesburg, Ill. According to corporation president T. White, "The American Fireworks Co. of Hudson, O. are being brought back, by popular demand, and have promised the greatest display of pyrotechnics ever seen in Ann Arbor."

Airplane rides, balloon ascensions, moon walks, clowns, magic shows, animal acts from Domino's Farms and music of the popular Saline Big Band will combine with a demonstration by the Falcons radio controlled airplane club and the Yankee Air Force to provide continuous entertainment. There will also be several helicopters and other planes on display.

Danny Clisham, the Ann Arbor native who flies big planes for a living and small ones for relaxation, is bringing his Can-Am Airshow to his home-town's Fourth of July celebration.

"We're geared up and ready to bring an outstanding show to the community," Clisham said. Featured will be Eddie "the Grip" Green, a Pinckney resident and Ford Motor Co. executive; Bob Barden, Sr., an Ann Arbor businessman and veteran stunt flyer; Jim Myning, a United Airlines pilot from Chelsea; and Bob Lyjac, a research manager for the Environmental Research Institute of Michigan.

An added attraction this year will be the Liberty Sky divers who will dive, carrying with them the world's largest American flag. The divers also will perform out of a dark sky over the airport with colorful flares to open the fireworks display.

★ Cholesterol-Fighting Fiber Cuts Fat, Calories in Ice Cream

By Matt Boslalo
Worried about fat and cholesterol? If you like to eat ice cream, no problem. A new oat product cuts the fat and calories in America's favorite dessert and also lowers blood cholesterol.

An oat-bran extract, called oatrim, can be used to prepare low-fat frozen dairy desserts, bakery products, yogurt, salad dressing and other foods without affecting their taste, texture or appearance, according to a U. S. Department of Agriculture scientist.

"What we have is a new ingredient made from soluble oat fiber," says George E. Inglett, a chemist with USDA's Agricultural Research Service. "That's why it reduces cholesterol. And because we substitute it for most of the saturated fat in ice cream, it turns ice cream into a low-calorie, low-fat dessert that's good for you."

While oatrim will not likely be on the market for two or three years, six companies already have expressed an interest in producing it.

A 4-ounce serving of vanilla oatrim frozen dessert has 135 calories, less than 1 gram of fat and 4 milligrams of cholesterol. By comparison, a similar serving of premium vanilla ice cream has 298 calories, 22 grams of fat and 85 mg of cholesterol, says Inglett of the agency's Northern Regional Research Center in Peoria, Ill.

Oatrim contains beta-glucan, one of the active components in lowering blood cholesterol. Tests with 10-day-old chicks at Montana State University showed an oatrim diet reduced over-all blood cholesterol 17.8 percent and low-density lipoprotein, the "bad" cholesterol, 47.4 percent. At the same time, it elevated the chicks' high-density lipoprotein, the "good" cholesterol, 17.7 percent.

In a taste panel test rating flavor intensity, oatrim frozen dessert scored comparably well against premium vanilla ice cream. On a scale of 0 (bland) to 10 (strong), the sweetness of ice cream was given a 7.3 score while oatrim scored 6.6. For vanilla flavoring, ice cream scored 6.5 and oatrim 5.5. Creamy taste was scored 7.8 for ice cream, 4.3 for oatrim.

"Some panel members preferred the lighter texture of oatrim to the heavy cream taste of premium ice cream," Inglett says.

Once licensed by a company, he says, oatrim may require approval of the Food and Drug Administration for use in food products.

Canola as a Cash Crop Is Topic of Information Tour

Farmers interested in finding out more about canola as a cash crop can take part in a Washtenaw county canola tour this Friday, June 29.

The tour begins at 9 a.m. at the Michigan State University research plots near Mt. Hope Rd. Another local stop will be at the Clayton Ernst farm near Ann Arbor at about 11:30 a.m. The Ernst farm has produced canola for six years and is the largest canola farm in the county. The final stops will include the Ken Arting farm near Dundee, and the Dave Woods farm near Deerfield.

According to Larry Copeland, MSU Extension seed specialist, discussion during the tours will provide farmers with a good insight into growing canola as a cash crop.

Some of the subjects to be covered will include cultural practices, the importance of timely planting, winter vs. spring canola, harvesting techniques, market developments, use of canola in this country, world canola outlook, seed production in Michigan, comments by seed industry representatives, and canola research at MSU.

According to Washtenaw County Extension Agent Bill Ames, canola is a genetically-altered rapeseed, first produced in Canada. It is used primarily as a source cooking oil, which is considered healthier than other oils because it is lower in saturated fat.

The farmers who are growing canola, distinguished by its bright yellow flowers, are "the people I would call innovators," Ames said.

"If it turns out to be stable and farmers can make money at it, I think there'll be more people in it."

Canola is attractive to growers well on poorer soils.

Puritan Oil is the largest producer of canola oil. Canola grown here is shipped to Windsor, Ames said.

Anyone interested in joining the tour can pick it up at any point. No advance registration is required.

House Ag Committee Passes Farm Bill

The House Agriculture Committee has given approval to a new 1990 farm bill package that makes few changes to basic commodities, but gives producers more freedom to switch from one crop to another without losing government benefits. Al Almy, director of public affairs for the Michigan Farm Bureau, said the first-year bill now goes to the full House where debate is expected to start next week.

The crop insurance portion of the bill was postponed. According to Almy, the expected strategy is to complete a markup of crop insurance and then offer it as an amendment to the farm bill.

Chelsea Resident
B. Knickerbocker
Graduates at GMI

Brett Patrick Knickerbocker was among 781 graduates of GMI Engineering & Management Institute honored during commencement ceremonies June 22.

Knickerbocker, son of Ray and Louise Knickerbocker of Chelsea, earned a bachelor of science degree in manufacturing systems engineering.

GMI Engineering & Management Institute, with a student enrollment of more than 2,600, is the nation's only accredited college of engineering and management operating on a five-year co-operative plan of education.

Founded in 1919, GMI was a part of General Motors Corporation until 1962, when it became an independent institution and ceased to be known as General Motors Institute.

The college offers bachelor of science degrees in mechanical, industrial, electrical, and manufacturing systems engineering, and management systems. A masters degree is offered in manufacturing management. Students alternate 12 weeks of classroom and laboratory studies with work experience at business and industrial organizations in more than 600 locations throughout the United States and Canada.

As a co-operative education student, Knickerbocker was sponsored by Industrial Tectonics Inc., Dexter.

The first state legislation requiring factory inspections was in Massachusetts in 1879, according to "Labor Firsts in America," a U.S. Labor Department publication.

BETH AND RICK SCHULTZ, and their nine-month-old son, Blake, were a recent subject of enormous interest by the national media when they appeared at a news conference in San Francisco to discuss the unusual, and successful surgery on Blake. They are pictured at home with their other son, Ryan.

Waterloo Couple Survives Press Conference, Major Media Attention

"It was easier than I thought it would be," is the way Beth Wireman Schultz describes her and husband, Rick's, experience with being the focus of a national press conference in San Francisco at the end of May.

The Schultzes, Waterloo residents, made medical history last year when doctors operated on their son, Blake, before he was born. A routine ultrasound detected an abnormality in Blake which wouldn't allow his lungs to mature normally.

Without the surgery, Blake would probably die.

Chances were also good he'd die even with the surgery since no baby had survived it to date.

That's how they became famous for a week or two. Blake became the first baby ever to survive the surgery, which required removing Blake from Beth, performing the surgery, and replacing him along with his amniotic fluid.

A press conference was held by Dr. Mike Harrison in San Francisco May 30 to announce the results. It coincided with publication in the prestigious New England Journal of Medicine.

The Schultzes were flown by the March of Dimes to San Francisco for the press conference. They stayed in a two-bedroom suite in a fancy hotel in downtown San Francisco.

"The worst part was walking into (the press conference room)," Beth said.

"We just hesitated at first. Once we got in there, they were standing behind me, putting microphones over my head. The doctors just told us to tell the truth and that's what we did."

Harrison held onto Blake, in many ways his pride and joy as well, throughout most of the conference. Another couple, whose baby was the second to survive the surgery, was also at the conference.

The press asked the couple a few questions, but directed most of their inquiries to the physicians.

But the conference was just the beginning. They were eventually interviewed by leading weekly supermarket tabloids The Star and The National Enquirer, People Magazine, as well as numerous newspapers.

They also appeared on national television newscasts. They were also met at the airport by Detroit's Channel 4 after a long, exhausting flight home.

"I didn't appreciate that at all," Beth said.

The Star and People managed to find Beth at work (ADP Network Services in Ann Arbor) after the couple and Blake returned home. All eventually sent photographers out to their pond-side home to create major feature stories, which have since been published.

"The Star had the best pictures by far," Rick said.

"It was surprising, they did a very good job, it was really truthful."

Although the Enquirer had the gist of the story right, the couple was a little dismayed by its presentation. Beth didn't like the photograph of her and Blake. The story carried Beth's byline, although it was actually written by Enquirer reporter James Nelson.

"The story had a lot of things in it I wouldn't say, although I might be feeling them," Beth said.

They both got a kick out of Beth referring to Rick in the story as BETH SCHULTZ holds her son, Blake, who recently made medical history when he survived experimental surgery that occurred before he was even born. Young Blake is a happy, healthy nine-month-old living in Waterloo.

"Richard," a name she never uses. As one point during the media blitz, Rick was asked how he'd feel about a movie being made about his son. Rick, a welder at Chelsea Industries, said, "If the money is right, we'll talk."

Blake, by the way, is doing just fine. He's a normal nine-month-old despite being born prematurely and spending most of his first six weeks at Mott Children's Hospital.

"And he doesn't like doctors," Rick said.

Series of Drug Awareness Programs Begins July 10

Brighton Hospital has announced its new six-month schedule of Community Education Programs designed to provide concerned parents, family members, and the community at large with up-to-date information on the prevention and treatment of substance abuse.

The six-part series begins Tuesday evening, July 10 with "Intervention: The Direct Approach to Treatment and Recovery." Featured speaker for this session is Brian Duguay, the hospital's intervention specialist.

Duguay will discuss how family members, friends, and employers can confront and help a chemically dependent person.

According to Duguay, the family and friends of someone who is abusing alcohol and other drugs realize that they need to take some action but are not sure how to begin. In an intervention the group confronts the individual with the reality of his or her drinking or drug use in a factual, concerned, and non-judgmental manner.

Here is the schedule for the other programs in the series: Aug. 7—Substance Abuse: It's All in the Family; Sept. 4—Cocaine & Marijuana: What Everyone Must Know; Oct. 2—Drug-Free Kids: How Adolescent Chemical Dependence is Treated; Nov. 6—Intervention (repeat of July 7 session); and Dec. 4—Treatment & Recovery from Chemical Dependence.

Beginning July 17 and continuing through November, the hospital will also host a five-part series of community programs of special interest to women. Conducted by the Livingston Council for Alcohol Services and the Women's Resource Center, this series is a special effort to reach women who are in relationships with chemically dependent people, who were raised in chemically dependent homes, or who are themselves chemically dependent.

Here is the schedule for the sessions at Brighton Hospital: July 17—Alcoholism as a Disease: The Signs & Symptoms; Aug. 21—Characteristics of Adult Children of Alcoholics; Sept. 18—How to Recognize & Overcome Codependency; Oct. 16—Adult Children of Dysfunctional Families; Nov. 20—What to Do Instead of Drinking, How and Where to Seek Help.

All programs begin at 7 p.m. in the hospital's chapel. They are free and open to the public. Reservations are not required.

Bulldogs!

Bulldog Summer Baseball Team Gets Shut Out in First Game

Chelsea Bulldog summer baseball team opened their season Tuesday, June 19 with an 8-0 loss to Advanced Business Products of Brighton.

Chelsea had their chances and stranded several base runners throughout the contest as they managed just two hits for the game.

Advanced took a 1-0 lead in the first inning on a walk and a triple.

Chelsea was poised to tie in the second as they loaded the bases on a single by Craig Ferry and walks to Tucker Steele and Rick Clouse. However, a strikeout ended the threat.

The Bulldogs again threatened in the third as Jeremy Stephens singled with two outs and moved to second on a wild pitch. However, again, a strikeout ended the inning.

Advanced scored five times in the third inning to increase their lead to 6-0.

Gerstler Gets Ace in Jackson

Dave Gerstler of Chelsea scored a hole-in-one at Sparrow Hawk Golf Course in Jackson on Father's Day, June 17.

Gerstler used a two-wood on the 207-yard, par three number eight hole. The ace was witnessed by Tim Sweeny, Mike Sweeny, and John Packard.

Chelsea stranded a runner at second in the top of the fourth, but Advanced scored two more runs in the bottom of the inning.

Ferry and Stephens had Chelsea's only hits. Of the 15 Bulldog outs in the five-inning game, 11 were by strikeouts.

Ferry opened on the mound for Chelsea and Jake Rindie pitched in relief.

Chelsea was scheduled to play their second game of the season last night. They have a double-header tomorrow at Ann Arbor's Veteran's Park at 6:15 p.m.

Chelsea Aquatic Club Competes In First Meet of Summer

Chelsea Aquatic Club held its first meet of the summer against Orchard Hills of Ann Arbor on June 23.

The Chelsea team consists of swimmers age 4-17. Ability levels range from beginning swimmers who swim one length of the pool to advanced swimmers who are accomplished in all four competitive strokes.

All the kids are encouraged to enjoy the sport and develop good sportsmanship.

"I'm overwhelmed with the turnout, and pleased with the effort of the entire team," said coach Dave Jolly, who instructs swimmers age 11 and older.

Julie Woods, who coaches children 10 and younger, said the kids who have been with the program for a while are showing improvement.

"I'm particularly proud of those swimmers who took part in their first meet, they show a lot of potential," Woods said.

Diving coach Eric Burris said that although his team is small, several divers took first place in their age group.

The club is scheduled to compete in four more meets this summer. It is still accepting new members.

SPORTS NOTES

BY BRIAN HAMILTON

Colleen Scharphorn's recent selection to the class B All-State Softball Team capped off an ultra-successful sports year for Chelsea High School.

In the five years that I have covered CHS sports, 1989-90 had to rank as both the most exciting and most successful of all. Of course, in the sports world, success and excitement usually go hand-in-hand. However, even the varsity football team was exciting, and they weren't even .500 for the season.

Take a brief look at what happened to Bulldog teams.

Girls cross country won the state team title by four points, giving Chelsea its first team cross country title ever.

Girls basketball won their second consecutive Southeastern Conference basketball championship.

The wrestling team was probably the second best in the state, and on the right day, maybe the best. They lost in their regional to Eaton Rapids, who won the state title. They won almost every invitational they entered.

Boys basketball tied for the SEC championship with, as everyone knows, Tecumseh. And they essentially lost the district title by a point to the Indians in what was probably the most exciting CHS sports event I've ever seen. It was really the only time I can ever remember wanting to cry after a high school game. That game still bothers me on occasion.

Boys swimming finished ranked in the state.

The baseball team won its first district title in 18 years even though they didn't win the SEC. They also beat Detroit Tigers draftee Shannon Withem in the district.

Girls track team got stronger as the season progressed, won the SEC meet, and made an excellent showing in the region meet.

And what about those individual awards.

There are years when nobody from Chelsea gets any kind of state recognition. Well, this year the Bulldogs made up for all the lean ones.

Freshman Lisa Monti was all-state in cross country and track. Monti, with her long, easy stride, is sheer joy to watch. Hard to believe she'll just be a sophomore this fall.

Junior Karl Wikman won a wrestling state title at 103 pounds. He was one of the most dominating wrestlers in any weight class this year.

Senior Debby Webb was named an all-state diver.

And, as I mentioned, Scharphorn was named to the all-state softball squad as an outfielder.

Then there were the other close calls. Senior Pat Taylor lost a state wrestling title on a judge's decision. Senior Doug Wingrove was third in his weight class, and Tim Vanschoick was fourth.

Junior Jude Quilter, who has been affectionately dubbed "University of Quilter," was probably just as good a running back as anyone on the all-state teams. If University doesn't get hurt, and Chelsea doesn't end up 1-8, he could make it this fall.

Not bad for a year's work.

I was thinking about what kind of sports awards I would hand out if I had money in the budget to buy trophies.

OUT OF NOWHERE AWARD would go to Wikman. Everyone knew Wikman was good, but I doubt if anyone would have predicted a state championship for him, let alone how easily he accomplished it.

JUST BEGINNING TO REALIZE HIS/HER POTENTIAL AWARD would go to several kids, including Scharphorn for basketball, juniors Christine Burg and Sarah Musolf for softball, junior Jake Rindle for baseball, junior Mike Terstra for track (shot put and discus) and perhaps wrestling and football, and Royce for basketball. These kids all have the ability to be major forces next year.

ATHLETE I'D WANT TO START ANY TEAM, EXCEPT MAYBE MY BOWLING TEAM, AWARD would go to Quilter. He's quick, intelligent, and an extremely hard worker. What else is there to say? Speed and smarts don't necessarily have anything to do with bowling.

ATHLETE CHS WILL MISS THE MOST AWARD would go to senior Kyle Plank, who plans to play basketball at Hope College next season. He was quarterback, point guard, and pitcher. In coach Gene LaFave's estimation, Kyle was a highly underrated quarterback.

ATHLETE WHOM I'D USE AS A ROLE MODEL FOR MY SON AWARD would go to Kerry Plank, next year's basketball captain and starting shortstop. He's smart, not flashy, but he gets the job done in every phase of the game with a minimum of fanfare. In the heat of competition, he gets excited for his team, yet keeps his cool and maintains his respect for the opposition.

The Statue of Liberty was originally to be set up at the Suez Canal.

Kathleen Chapman Resigns Faith in Action Board Post

At the June regular Board of Trustees meeting of Faith in Action, Kathleen Chapman announced her intention not to seek re-election.

Chapman has been an active member of Faith in Action since its earliest days at St. Barnabas Episcopal church. Her decision was received with regrets but understanding of her need to reduce some of her very heavy personal commitments.

During the almost 10 years of Chapman's association with Faith in Action she has witnessed many changes and has held various committee positions. Two of the most important of these were as chairwoman of the very successful Capital Building Fund campaign which brought about the erection of the new Faith in Action House which provides a "home" for Faith in Action, Inc., the Chelsea Senior Citizen's Center and Chelsea Area Transportation System and she also chaired the annual Banquet which provides some of the funding for the many programs and services provided to our communities by Faith in Action.

Douglas Dault, chairman of the Board of Trustees stated, "Katie will be sorely missed by all of us, not only because of her many contributions to FIA but also because she is such a wonderful person."

The board gave her a resounding round of applause in appreciation for her efforts over the years and expressed the hope that she would be available for advice and see herself as a board member "ex-officio."

Following the acceptance of Chapman's decision, the board continued with its election of new board members. These members will serve a three-year term of office beginning in July 1990.

Elected or returned to the Board of Trustees are: Douglas Dault, Vincent J. Dorer, MaryAnn Merkel and Lorraine Perlord.

KATHLEEN "KATIE" CHAPMAN

Dault announced, "Each of these new board members brings to FIA special talents, experience and knowledge of our communities which will enhance our ability to serve people."

Board members come from the communities which support and are served by FIA. They are:

- Chelsea—Dr. Warren Atkinson, the Rev. Dr. Jerrold F. Beaumont, president, Robert Carr, Mrs. Susan Carter, Mark Cwiek, Dr. Costas Kleantous, the Rev. Erwin Koch, vice-chairman, Chief Lenard McDougal, William Rademacher, Jaclynn Rogers, PhD, Don Schoenberg, Vincent (Jerry) Dorer (new member), MaryAnn Merkel (new member);
- Dexter—Sr. Eileen Shaughnessy, Lorraine Perlord (new member);
- Manchester—Dianne Schwab;
- Stockbridge—Douglas Dault, chairman.

Higher Education Needs Higher Priority

Because students and their families now shoulder a much higher proportion of the cost of attending public universities in Michigan, farmers are concerned that access to high-quality, affordable programs is increasingly at risk, according to Michigan Farm Bureau economist Bob Craig.

"Michigan's public universities are considered to be among the best in the nation," Craig said. "However, in spite of efforts on the part of government to direct funds toward state schools, funding in Michigan has not kept pace with other states over the past 20 years."

Craig said one solution to the problem is to make higher education a higher priority.

"In particular, Michigan Farm Bureau is supporting significant increases in both Co-operative Extension Service and the Agriculture Experiment Station budgets at Michigan State University, which we feel are essential to provide quality service and research for the state's agriculture industry," he said.

CHELSEA KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS recently awarded scholarships to children of their members. In back are K of C member Larry Kranck and his wife, Irene.

Iver Schmidt Helping Plan MOPH Convention

Iver Schmidt, who heads the committee which is planning the 1990 National Convention for the Military Order of the Purple Heart (MOPH), scheduled at the Novi Hilton, Aug. 14-18, advised this week the list of Department of Michigan MOPH officer candidates, and the offices sought for the 1990-91 year, include:

- Netis Iver Schmidt of Dexter, department commander; Ron Knapp of Petoskey, senior vice-commander; John Denell of Iron Mountain, junior vice-commander; Louis C. Tebbe of Gaylord, finance officer; Frank Gough of Clawson, judge advocate; Harold Barnard of Lincoln Park, executive committeeman; Tony Zabicki of Lawrence, alternate executive committeeman; George Duffield of Gaylord, sergeant-at-arms; Jack Krause of Bark River, inspector.

Candidates to be elected by the new executive committee include Flip Cochran of Escanaba for a four-year term on the finance committee, and for the service & rehabilitation committee, James Wilder of Detroit is a candidate for the one-year term, and Frank A. Schmidt, Sr., of Lansing, for the four-year term.

Schmidt explained, "MOPH is a Congressionally-chartered veterans' organization. We, with all other veterans' organizations which are Congressionally-chartered, plan to work together for veterans' legislation, both at the state level, and nationally."

"We're planning to maintain what appropriations we now have, and to work to gain additional appropriations."

"We feel at the present time, all the veterans are getting older and need more help to maintain our respect as veterans."

"Our hospitals are operating at a minimum, now. We have the room, but we don't have the monies to pay for appropriate help."

"We feel that when the country needed us, we responded to the call, but now, we need our country, and would like to have its support."

"We have the finest country in the world, so let's keep as much help as possible here at home, and not try to 'support the world' with our funds."

Adopted in April, 1989, as 1989 Legislative/Program Priorities, here are 11 items supported by The Commanders Group of the State of Michigan, and for which the MOPH commanders continue to battle:

- 1) Continued state funding of the service and rehabilitation work performed by the trained and certified agents of the Congressionally-chartered veterans organizations in Michigan; this funding, under the Department of Military Affairs, should be adjusted for inflation at a rate proportionate to COLA increases, and increased to support an aggressive service program;
- 2) full and adequate funding for Michigan's Agent Orange program, as required by law; clear and decisive support from the executive and legislative branches to insure that funds are not diverted within the Department of Public Health, and to prevent possible efforts to undermine a successful study and program;
- 3) the continued repayment of the corpus for the Michigan Veterans Trust

Fund, and the maintenance of its programs as a vital support network for Michigan's veterans, dependents and survivors;

4) increased state funding and support for the operations of the Michigan Veterans Facilities in Grand Rapids and Marquette;

5) continuation of the state tax exemption for active duty and reserve military pay;

6) amend Michigan's property come level to $15,000, and to allow for a tax credit of $8,000 for veterans/survivors rated at 10-50%, $8,000 for 60-80%, and $10,000 for 90-100%; $8,000 for a surviving spouse due to death in service;

$8,000 for veterans prior to World War I, on a pension, in active duty, or surviving spouse for any cause of death connected to service, and $4,500 for the surviving spouse of a non-disabled veteran;

7) the removal of restrictions for a 'veteran's preference' in the areas of employment, enrollment in education programs, and the availability of educational benefits, such as financial aid, housing and tuition; eliminate any discrepancies regarding the calculation of active duty service for seniority and retirement purposes;

8) expansion and enforcement of the laws, rules, and regulations regarding the handicapped, whether in employment, equal opportunity, or barrier-free design;

9) the re-designation of May 30 as the official date for the observance Memorial Day;

10) the reaffirmation and expansion of activities and events conducted on Veterans Day, Nov. 11, to include revitalized programs in schools and with civic or patriotic groups;

11) that county directors of veterans' affairs must be veterans, and that appointments to a county department of veterans' affairs administrative committee be made on the basis of a plurality vote of the Congressionally-chartered veterans' organizations in each county.

One-Year Farm Bill Extension Not Enough

Clayton Yeutter, secretary of the U.S. Department of Agriculture, recently told an American Farm Bureau national affairs conference that the Bush administration would be agreeable to a simple one-year extension of the 1985 farm act.

But Al Almy, director of public affairs for Michigan Farm Bureau, said the organization supports enactment of at least a five-year farm bill in 1990. "Farm Bureau believes a one-year extension of the current farm bill would be a very last resort that should be used by Congress," he said. "We would like to see the basic direction of the current farm bill continued, but obviously there is some fine-tuning that is necessary."

Area Resident Will Address Select Body of Insurance Agents

Charles G. Gleason, CLU, ChFC, of Chelsea, will be among the 100 speakers scheduled to address Million Dollar Round Table (MDRT) members at this year's annual meeting June 24 to 28 in San Francisco, Calif.

Gleason will discuss "Objections Clinic."

More than 5,000 Round Table members from around the world will convene in San Francisco to discuss issues of current interest in the life insurance industry today. Only the top four to five percent of all life insurance agents in the world meet the strict qualifications for MDRT membership.

Gleason has been a Round Table member for 20 years.

'Irrational' Pricing Normal for Soviets

The USSR Parliament last week rejected a plan to triple bread prices but, according to Bob Craig, agricultural economist for the Michigan Farm Bureau, the plan is just one example of irrational pricing in the Soviet Union.

"It costs the same on a per pound basis for a Russian consumer to buy one pound of beef steak, one pound of roast, or one pound of steer's ear. This again is another example of irrational pricing, their bureaucracy setting prices as opposed to allowing the market to work or truly looking at what the cost of production is," Craig said.

As a consequence, Craig said, consumers are only buying the better cuts of meat, leaving the problem of what to do with the less valued cuts.

Dr. J. Nicholas Koffeman

This week I'll continue our discussion on allergies. While my column the last few weeks has dealt with children, most of what I'll discuss today applies to adults as well.

The most common food allergies are milk, wheat, eggs, corn and pork. Many of these are not true allergies but simply hypersensitivities due to eating a particular food day in and day out. That's why milk and wheat are the most common.

Theron Randolph, M.D., in his book on clinical ecology wrote about a colleague who went to China to practice and found large numbers of people allergic to rice and soy!

Some common chemicals that people are sensitive to are petroleum products, alcohols and food colorings.

Once again I say these allergies/hypersensitivities can be responsible for a host of health problems. Headaches, joint problems, skin lesions, G.I. problems and more.

Example: While night bed-wetting in children can be due to emotional trauma, allergies are frequently the culprit. This seems to be due to irritation and therefore emptying of the bladder when the child has less control.

Please address all questions and comments to Dr. J. Nicholas Koffeman, 138 E. Middle St., Chelsea, MI 48118. (313) 475-2088.

TOWNSHIP OF DEXTER

RECALL PROPOSAL
REASONS FOR DEMANDING RECALL OF JAMES L. DROLETT FROM THE OFFICE OF DEXTER TOWNSHIP SUPERVISOR

1. His contempt displayed to public input at Township Meetings.
2. His continual attitude and claims that Dexter Township Citizens are not knowledgeable enough to vote on issues intelligently.
3. His continual support of the implementation of a massive Septic Sewer System that would promise to financially devastate Dexter Township Citizens.
4. His failure to answer legitimate Township questions completely and honestly.
5. His use of the Office of Supervisor for possible personal financial gains.
6. His continual disregard for the rights of Dexter Township Citizens.
7. His personal behavior as Supervisor has caused unnecessary financial loss to Dexter Township Citizens and the Dexter Township Fund due to unnecessary legal actions.

STATEMENT OF JUSTIFICATION OF CONDUCT IN THE OFFICE BY JAMES L. DROLETT

This recall effort is the result of people opposed to the sewer system at Portage and Base Lakes. Opponents either object to the disposal site or they don't want to pay for a sewer. Many agencies including the DNR, Health Dept., independent environmental professionals and professors have reviewed and approved the project. Only those with a sewer will pay for the system. This recall is a personal vendetta as all five members of the Dexter Township Board voted to approve the project but only two are being recalled. The allegations made against Jim are unfounded and unsubstantiated. He has diligently maintained control of public meetings he has chaired. He has allowed all citizen input in over 80 hours of public debate over the sewer issue. Jim has no personal financial gain as he owns no property for development and his salary is set by the electors. Jim has supported the sewer system because it is needed to protect the health of residents, a duty to which he is sworn by oath of office. Jim has brought Dexter Township government out of the 19th Century and had the courage to go forward in spite of the personal assaults on his integrity.

TOWNSHIP OF DEXTER

RECALL PROPOSAL
REASONS FOR DEMANDING RECALL OF H. DOUGLAS SMITH FROM THE OFFICE OF DEXTER TOWNSHIP TRUSTEE

1. His contempt displayed to public input at Township Meetings.
2. His continual attitude and claims that Dexter Township Citizens are not knowledgeable enough to vote on issues intelligently.
3. His continual support of the implementation of a massive Septic Sewer System that would promise to financially devastate Dexter Township Citizens.
4. His use of Office of Trustee for possible personal gains.
5. His continual disregard for the rights of Dexter Township Citizens.
6. His personal behavior as trustee has caused unnecessary financial loss to Dexter Township Citizens and the Dexter Township Fund due to unnecessary legal actions.

STATEMENT OF JUSTIFICATION OF CONDUCT IN THE OFFICE BY H. DOUGLAS SMITH

The recall petition charges Doug Smith with untrue and unbounded claims. The people who promoted the referendum vote against the proposed sewer project for the Portage-Base Lakes area are the same backers of this recall election. Their effort was achieved by misleading the electorate that the Township at large could be left to finance the sewer project, the truth being only those getting a sewer would pay for the project. Doug has actively supported cleaning up pollution in the lakes area. He has followed the dictates of his constituents who want safe drinking water and clean lakes for everyone's enjoyment. This is a personal vendetta since all 5 Dexter Township Board members approved this project, but only two are being recalled. Doug's long and dedicated service to Dexter Township residents should not be distorted by unsubstantiated and untrue claims.

Farmers Hope For Restitution In Elevator Failure

The Michigan Department of Agriculture and Attorney General Frank Kelly have announced that a grain elevator in Dundee, known as Karner Brothers, Inc., that went broke in June of 1988, has agreed to pay over $367,000 in restitution to farmers who suffered losses as a result of its operations. Michigan Farm Bureau's economist, Bob Craig, said he hopes the farmers will be paid.

"We know there's around 30 farmers who have still not been paid for the grain that was stored in that elevator. We're hopeful that the owners will come up with this complete restitution to farmers," Craig said. "This case illustrates the value of a state grain insurance program. Farm Bureau has been involved in a petition drive calling for a referendum to authorize a fund to be set up for grower protection in elevator bankruptcies and insolvencies. If that program had been in effect, those farmers would have been paid from the fund."

Craig said that if Karner Brothers does not come up with full restitution, they may face fines of up to $60,000.

The Knock-Abouts To Appear in Concert At Free Methodist

Terry and Cindi Knock will present a concert of sacred and gospel music at a concert of sacred and gospel music at the Chelsea Free Methodist church, 7665 Werker Rd.

Ann Arbor Summer Symphony Offers Free Concert July 12

Ann Arbor Summer Symphony has announced its first Ann Arbor concert of the 1990 summer season. The downbeat will be at 8 p.m. on Thursday, July 12, at the air-conditioned Power Center.

Vaughn-Williams' "Wasps Overture" will start you buzzing with enthusiasm. Next, your feet and fingers will begin tapping to Milhaud's Concerto for Percussion and Small Orchestra. Your primal emotions will then be exposed by Khachaturian's "Masquerade Suite." Satie's "Gymnopédie No. 3" provides the chance to reflect on beautiful musical forms, just before the Jarnefelt "Praeludium" sets up Rimsky-Korsakov's magnificent "Russian Easter Overture." Finally, you'll be sent marching home to the beat of Sousa's stirring "Washington Post March."

These seven short pieces are fun and exciting. The concert is free, with the support of Briarwood Merchant's Association. For further information, call Bill Baker at 769-5249.

Deer Crop Damage Relief Measures Approved By NRC

Natural Resources Commission has approved an expanded state-wide block permit program for combating costly deer crop damage as determined by local Department of Natural Resources (DNR) wildlife biologists. According to Vicki Pontz, legislative counsel for the Michigan Farm Bureau, deer approved shooting permits are also approved state-wide, effective immediately.

"Under the new program, landowners experiencing significant crop damage in two out of the last five years may purchase a minimum of 10 block permits for antlerless deer at a cost of $3 each from the DNR," Pontz said. "Landowners than have the option to either fill the permits themselves, or issue them to family members, or interested hunters. They may be used between Oct. 1 and Jan. 1."

Pontz said of the $291 block permits issued to 384 landowners in 20 counties last fall, 3,458 antlerless deer were removed. "It is estimated that 25,000 block permits will be issued this year, with an ultimate goal of 20,000 to 40,000 additional antlerless deer taken as the program allows for the permits to be reissued," she said.

At public meetings sponsored by Michigan Farm Bureau and the DNR in July and August, local "Co-ordinated Wildlife Management" teams will be formed. The teams, consisting of farmers, hunters, Cooperative Extension Service personnel and DNR district office and law enforcement personnel, will evaluate the new program and make recommendations for future seasons. Dates and locations of the meetings will be announced soon.

Recall Election in Dexter Township Set for Aug. 7

At the June 13 meeting of the Washtenaw County Election Scheduling committee, the three-person committee set Tuesday, Aug. 7, as the date for a special recall election in Dexter township.
Dianne Hill, Saline city clerk, John Marriott from the Ann Arbor Board of Education, and Salem township clerk Nancy Geiger sit on the election scheduling committee for the county.
The date is also that on which the primary election will be held in Washtenaw and other Michigan counties.
Officials in the county clerk/register's office explained Monday, June 25, the ballot for voters in Dexter township will include a two-page recall proposal, with one page asking, "Should James L. Drolett be recalled from the office of Dexter township supervisor?"
The second page will ask voters, "Should H. Douglas Smith be recalled from the office of Dexter township trustee?"
Seven reasons are listed on the ballot for demanding Drolett's recall:
1) His contempt displayed to public input at township meetings.
2) His continual attitude and claims that Dexter township citizens are not knowledgeable enough to vote on issues intelligently.
3) His continual support of the implementation of a massive septic sewer system that would promise to financially devastate Dexter township citizens.
4) His failure to answer legitimate township questions completely and honestly.
5) His use of the office of supervisor for possible personal financial gain.
6) His continual disregard for the rights of Dexter township citizens.
7) His personal behavior as supervisor has caused unnecessary financial loss to Dexter township citizens and the Dexter Township Fund due to unnecessary legal actions.
A statement of justification of conduct in the office by James L. Drolett will also appear on the ballot, stating, "This recall effort is the result of people opposed to the sewer system at Portage and Base Lakes. Opponents either object to the disposal site or they don't want to pay for a sewer. Many agencies including the DNR, Health Dept., independent environmental professionals and professors have reviewed and approved the project. Only those with a sewer will pay for the system. This recall is a personal vendetta as all five members of the Dexter Township Board voted to approve the project but only two are being recalled. The allegations made against Jim are unfounded and unsubstantiated. He has diligently maintained control of public meetings he had chaired. He has allowed all citizen input in over 50 hours of public debate over the sewer issue. Jim has no personal financial gain as he owns no property for development and his salary is set by the electors. Jim has supported the sewer system because it is needed to protect the health of residents, a duty to which he is sworn by oath of office. Jim has brought Dexter township government out of the 19th Century and had the courage to go forward in spite of the personal assaults on his integrity."

Reasons listed for demanding the recall of H. Douglas Smith designate the office of trustee, and include those listed for Drolett's recall, except "his failure to answer legitimate township questions completely and honestly."
The statement of justification of conduct in the office by H. Douglas Smith states, "The recall petition charges Doug Smith with untrue and unfounded claims. The people who promoted the referendum vote against the proposed sewer project for the Portage-Base Lakes area are the same backers of this recall election. Their effort was achieved by misleading the electorate that the township at large could be left to finance the sewer project: the truth being only those getting a sewer would pay for the project. Doug has actively supported cleaning up pollution in the lakes area. He has followed the dictates of his constituents who want safe drinking water and clean lakes for everyone's enjoyment. This is a personal vendetta since all 5 Dexter Township Board members approved this project, but only two are being recalled. Doug's long and dedicated service to Dexter township residents should not be distorted by unsubstantiated and untrue claims."

WASHTENAW COUNTY ROAD COMMISSION apparently had the right intention with this sign on the westbound side of Trinkle Rd. Area residents had complained about motor vehicles speeding over a hill just ahead of this sign about half a mile from Freer Rd. The sign warns "Limited Sight Distance," which you can see if you pull away the branches.

Village Limousine Business Asks for Zoning Interpretation

Over the objections of village manager Robert Stalker and village president Richard Steele, Chelsea village council granted what was probably an illegal extension for a home business on Flanders St. last week.

However, Monday night council met in special session to rescind the motion.

The unusual set of circumstances came about last week after zoning inspector Rosemary Harook, acting on a complaint from a Flanders St. resident, red-tagged the Royalty Limousine Service, which operates out of 747 Flanders St.

The business, Stalker told council, clearly violates zoning laws for home businesses. It keeps limousines on the premises and has employees who do not live at 747 Flanders.

Typically, Stalker told business owner Gene Haab, home businesses don't get investigated by the zoning office unless someone complains. Stalker, who is acting zoning inspector while Harook is temporarily away, said neighbors probably complained about the late-night hours the business keeps, although customers are never at the site.

Council voted to give the business a 45-day extension until the matter can be worked out with Harook and the proper paperwork filed. Stalker, who had questions about the legality of council's action, later discussed the matter with village attorney Peter Flintoft and found that the only way the business can continue to operate is for a variance to be granted by the Zoning Board of Appeals.

Steele, who voted against Merkel's motion, said he believed area residents had the right to notification and to attend a public hearing.

Trustee Joe Merkel warned the owners that based on past experience the zoning board is not likely to grant a variance for the business and suggested they find a new place from which to operate.

The owners told council that the business has been in operation for a year and a half with no complaints. They also said they had no idea the business violated village ordinances.

Royalty Limousine has applied for an official interpretation of the zoning ordinance by the Zoning Board of Appeals. A public hearing has been set Aug. 7. Until then, the business can continue to operate.

School Board Notes

Present at a regular meeting of the Chelsea Board of Education Monday, June 18, were Comeau, Redding, Satterthwaite, Wales, Feeney, Cherem, Eisenbeiser, superintendent Plasecki, assistant superintendent Mills, principals Mead, Stielstra, Benedict, assistant principal Rossal, curriculum director Bissell, guests.

Meeting called to order at 8 p.m. by president Anne Comeau.

Board approved the minutes of the June 11 meeting.

Board approved the minutes of the executive session of June 11.

Charles Andrews, chairman of the North Central Visitation Team, was present at the meeting to present a brief summary of the recent North Central report on Chelsea High school. He indicated that the purpose of the visit was to verify the self-study which had been completed by the high school staff during the year prior to the visit in late February. In pointing out the many strengths of the school and the district, Andrews complimented board members, administrators and high school staff on their interest, support and leadership in behalf of the students.

The board convened in executive session at 8:35 p.m. to discuss a matter involving student attendance, personnel matters, and confidential information on the destruction at Beach school. They reconvened in public session at 9:30 p.m.

Curriculum director Laurie Bissell reviewed, as information items, the recently developed K-12 mathematics curriculum and textbook recommendations for math and economics courses.

The board approved the Able Learner Community Problem Solving program as a pilot project for fifth grade for the 1990-91 school year.

The board approved time for one teacher for one hour per day for the purpose of co-ordinating Able Learner activities for Beach school students for the 1990-91 school year.

The board approved the use of the DARE (Drug Abuse Resistance Education) program in the fifth-grade health curriculum as a pilot program for the 1990-91 school year.

The board approved the 1-12 art curriculum and the purchase of textbooks as recommended by the Central Curriculum Committee.

The board approved a 7% salary increase for the 1990-91 school year for playground supervisors, secretarial aides, hourly secretaries, and transportation aides. A salary increase for bus drivers is part of the Bus Drivers Agreement, which is now under negotiation.

The board approved the addition of one section of kindergarten based on the number of students registered at this time.

Meeting adjourned at 10:50 p.m.
