BART BAUER, technical director for the Purple Rose Theatre Company, works on a model of the Garage Theatre that will be on display next Tuesday at a special screening of Jeff Daniels' new movie, "Arachnophobia."

Proceeds from the screening at the Michigan Theater in Ann Arbor will be used for remodeling expenses for the theatre.

Special Screening Slated Of Jeff Daniels' Movie As Theatre Fundraiser

A special screening of "Arachnophobia," the new horror/comedy movie featuring Chelsea actor Jeff Daniels and a lot of spiders, will be held at the Michigan Theater next Tuesday, July 17 as the first major fundraising effort by the new Garage Theatre Foundation.

The foundation has been set up as the fundraising mechanism for the non-profit Purple Rose Theatre Company, which is trying to raise more than $100,000 for the renovation of the former Poma's Pizza building at 137 Park St. into a theatre. The theatre is scheduled to open in January.

Daniels purchased the building late last year with the idea of creating a theatre where local writers, directors, actors, and others interested in theatre can learn from professionals. The Purple Rose Theatre Company, whose four members are Daniels, technical director Bart Bauer, managing director Doug Beaumont, and artistic director Newell Krings, will run the operation.

Disney Studios has offered to provide a print of "Arachnophobia," which opens in theatres nationwide the next day, free of charge for the screening. Foundation director Gail Bauer said proceeds from ticket sales, as well as the private on-stage party afterward, could raise as much as $20,000.

"We wanted to find a way for people to help," Daniels said of the reasons for forming the foundation.

"A lot of people wanted to be monetarily involved in the project."

The foundation is also planning an area direct-mail fundraising drive. Contributors of $500 or more will be permanently recognized at the theatre with a miniature vanity license plate inscribed with his or her name.

The Mohrlock Garage building, which inspired the name for the theatre, has been gutted and framing and plumbing work have been started. There, literally, won't be a bad seat in the house. Actors will be surrounded by seats on three sides. On each of those sides will be four rows of seats, with each succeeding row just above the one in front of it. Total seating capacity will be about 140. There are plans for a ticket booth, coat-check area, and bathrooms, but little else for the general public. Refreshments will not be served, at least initially.

There is ample room downstairs for set design and creation.

Architects worked from Bauer's design to create the final plans. A plywood model, put together by Bauer, will be available for inspection at the movie party.

Daniels said the mission of the theatre has changed somewhat. Originally it was intended to be almost entirely a place to develop Chelsea-area talent. However, now he says it will draw performers and directors from Ann Arbor, Detroit, and even New York. Beaumont said he has received a resume from a Chicago director, as well as many other people interested in theatre.

"It will still be a place for theatre arts locally," Daniels said.

"But we're shooting to eventually become a professional regional theatre."

The four-man theatre company will essentially decide what will be performed at the theatre, from original plays to comedy, with an emphasis on midwestern themes and playwrights. It will also present a variety of workshops on all aspects of theatre production. Daniels will hold acting workshops when he is in town.

"We'd especially like to expose younger kids and get them into the (theatre) system," Daniels said.

"People (who take the workshops) are going to learn how to do it right. And that's going to take a while."

Daniels said that unlike Broadway and off-Broadway productions, which have huge expenses, the theatre will be more than willing to take a risk with the idea that performers learn as much from a flop as a hit.

"We want to give people the opportunity to fail," Daniels said.

The screening of "Arachnophobia" will begin at 7 p.m. Tickets for the screening are available at the Michigan Theater. Reception tickets are available through Gail Bauer at 475-8384. A limited number of autographed "Arachnophobia" posters will be given away at the reception.

The foundation's board of directors include Bauer, Jackie Schiller, Suzanne Morrison, and Daphne Hodder.

School District Passes $11.4 Million Budget

Chelsea Board of Education has passed a 1990-91 school district budget of $11,466,643 in expenditures and $11,466,747 in revenues.

The budget, according to a report by assistant superintendent Fred Mills, is a 7.8 percent increase over the 1989-90 budget.

The largest increase in the budget by percentage is for fringe benefits. The cost of benefits for teachers is $732,826, an increase of 11.94 percent over last year's figure of $654,635. Benefits for support personnel will cost $466,974, up from last year's figure of $406,366 by 12.45 percent.

Teachers at the district's four schools will be paid a total of $5,012,428, an increase of 10.37 percent. Teaching is the largest single budget item and represents 43.71 percent of the over-all budget.

Other budgeted expenditures include $730,356 for added instructional needs including special education (up 8.9 percent); $130,400 for adult and continuing education (up 3.99 percent); $545,374 for student support services such as counseling, health services, and the gifted/talented program (up 8.35 percent); $151,160 for general administration (up 7.34 percent); $440,531 for school administration (up 7.49 percent); $2,393,191 for business, including the assistant superintendent's office, transportation, and insurance (up 4.71 percent); $113,300 for coaching salaries and pool operation (up 8.41 percent); $93,428 for community education (down 5.12 percent); $208,000 for capital outlay (down 13.8 percent); $15,000 for central data (down 25 percent); and $42,000 for outgoing transfers (up 7.69 percent).

Local tax revenues account for 89 percent of total revenues for the district, or $10,210,347. Other sources include $400,400 from the state, $203,000 from the federal government, and $653,000 from incoming transfers.

Elementary Schools Will Have PA Systems in Fall

Chelsea School District will spend the majority of the $237,000 available from its maintenance millage on a variety of projects this summer.

The largest chunk, somewhere between $75,000 to $100,000, will be spent on the renovation of the Elmer Lindow Service Center, the school district's bus garage on Old US-12. New underground gasoline storage tanks will be installed, the pump island will be changed, new lights will be installed, and a leak-detection system will be installed.

Specifications for the project should be in this week, said assistant superintendent Fred Mills.

Other projects will include the following, according to Mills.

The main building at Chelsea High School will be re-roofed.

Twenty exterior doors at CHS will be replaced. Those doors are about 30 years old.

CHS will also get parking lot and plumbing repairs.

At Beach school, work will be done on gym lights and locker room showers, operable windows will be installed in the home economics room, which currently has all fixed windows, and bleachers will be repaired.

North and South Elementary schools will each have a public address system installed.

South school's gym floor will be replaced with vinyl tile.

All schools will have repair work on bathroom stalls.

Brick tuck-pointing will be performed in several areas.

SAFE RIDES, the program that provides free safe rides home for kids who might be too drunk to drive or are otherwise stuck without a safe ride home, recently held a fundraising dance at Chelsea Lanes. More than 300 Chelsea and Dexter-area teens attended the party, arranged by Safe Rides director Dennis Fowler, left. To his left are Ed Greenleaf, owner of Chelsea Lanes, who provided the venue, Gene Belknap, owner of the Chelsea Domino's Pizza franchise, who supplied more than 70 pizzas, and George Palmer, who provides the program's automobile as well as a place from which to operate. They were presented certificates of appreciation.

Council Expected To Appoint Jackson Planner as Asst. Manager

Chelsea Village Council was expected to appoint a Jackson-area planner as the village's new assistant manager at their regular meeting last night.

Deborah L. Kuehn, principal planner for the Region 2 Planning Commission in Jackson, was expected to be named to replace Tom Warstler, who left the position in May after serving less than one year.

Kuehn, an Ann Arbor resident, was a finalist for the position when Warstler was hired, according to village manager Robert Stalker.

Kuehn has been in her present position since 1985. Her commission provides assistance to cities, villages, and townships in a three-county area. She prepares zoning ordinances, land-use plans, recommendations on zoning requests, site plan reviews, conditional use permits, and the presentation of zoning workshops. She also works with the Jackson City Planning Commission, zoning board of appeals, historic district commission, and Lenawee County Planning Commission.

Previously, she was assistant planner for the Toledo-Lucas County Planning Commissions in Toledo, O.

Kuehn has also worked as a reporter for the Ann Arbor News and West Allis Observer in Wauwatosa, Wis.

The recommended starting salary is $32,500, the same salary Warstler had. She will have to live within 15 miles of the village, and Stalker said she already meets that requirement.

"I believe her skills will be of significant benefit to the village government and community,"

Stalker wrote in his report to council.

"She has a strong background in the municipal planning field."

Stalker said Kuehn is scheduled to start work Aug. 6.

Chelsea Police Nab Escapist After Chase on Park St.

A prisoner who escaped from Cassidy Lake Technical School on July 3 was caught that evening after being chased on foot by Chelsea police.

Rommell A. Riggins, who was serving time for breaking and entering, larceny, and receiving stolen property, was seen running across S. Main St. by officer Chris Kruger at 10:54 p.m. Riggins answered the description of a walkaway earlier that day.

Kruger chased Riggins onto Park St. to the rear of Merkel's Home Furnishings. Riggins was eventually captured in front of Staffan-Mitchell Funeral Home. Chelsea resident Don Cole also stopped to offer police his help, according to police reports.

YOUNGSTERS BOOGIED to the country-rock sounds of Link & McCants Sunday afternoon in Pierce Park. Warm, humid weather kept most of the people seated in the shade. But others couldn't stand the thought of sitting still. The concert will continue every other Sunday from 4 p.m. to 6 p.m. in the park.

Vandalism Gets Three Minors Felony Charges

Three young teen-age boys have been charged with breaking and entering and malicious destruction of property in connection with the extensive vandalism at Beach Middle school last month.

According to Chelsea police, the matter has been referred to juvenile court.

The boys, all ninth graders this fall, broke into the school and broke windows, clocks, the public address system, and sprayed fire extinguishers, which ruined computers, among other damage.

Plumbing Equipment Stolen from Site

Plumbing equipment valued at $60 was stolen from the construction site at the Chelsea United Methodist Retirement Home on Tuesday, July 3, according to police reports.

Someone took a 10-foot-long, 8-inch-diameter cast iron pipe, as well as two lead 25-pound bars.

A Chelsea native who followed her retired parents to southern Florida created and opened a unique gallery-studio of her own all because the standard type of art gallery "is not an appropriate backdrop" for her work, according to her sister, Diane Hayes Mayer, a 1961 graduate of Chelsea High school, marked the opening of her White Bird Gallery in Fort Myers, Fla., with a June 27 champagne reception and a formal welcome June 28. Her parents are Mr. and Mrs. Aldwyn Hayes, who left Chelsea in 1960 after 40 years in the area and now live in Punta Gorda, Fla. Until Diane joined them in 1981, she lived in Cooperstown, N.Y., said her sister Audrey Hayes, an Ann Arbor hair stylist.

The Kitchen Band, Chelsea's well-known band composed of senior citizens, was on WJBK-TV, channel 7 in Detroit. Reporter George Canter visited the Chelsea Senior Center at North Elementary school and filmed the 12-member band in action. The band played "Just Because," and Virginia Schwab performed a short dance number. The Kitchen Band performs in the Chelsea Fair Parade, and at nursing homes and other group functions.

On June 30, secretary of state Richard H. Austin certified 23 farms in 20 Michigan counties as centennial farms—owned by the same families for the last 100 years. One of those farms belonged to Wilbert and Helen Koch. At the rate things change there, more Kochs will be around in the year 2086 to be recognized for 200 years of farming the same land.

Five Chelsea area women won the 1986 State Bowling Tournament and were honored in ceremonies at the Hilton Inn in Romulus. The women, who were sponsored by Chelsea Milling Co. and called themselves "Jiffy Mix," were Joyce Mock, Dolores Fouty, Lois Orlovski, Patricia Peterson and Peggy Goodman. More than 4,000 teams from across the state competed in the tournament. The winners split $4,000 and received individual trophies. Chelsea Milling also received a sponsor's trophy.

In an effort to serve all segments of the community, Chelsea's new indoor swimming pool at Beach Middle school opened with a comprehensive program designed to offer pool use to groups ranging from "aqua-tot" to handicapped adults. However, the first session reserved for senior citizens, was greeted with only a three-person response. Pool officials were forced to cancel this session of the program.

Chelsea Police issued a warning to bicycle owners in the community to be extra cautious in securing their bicycles against thieves as several bicycles had been reported stolen that year.

Fireworks were not the only Bicentennial celebration activity to light up the skies on July 4th. More than 10,000 campfires were set ablaze precisely at 10 p.m. as the nation's youth campers joined in marking the country's 200th anniversary. The national firelighting was sponsored by the American Camping Association with the support of Girl Scouts of the U.S.A. Locally, more than 100 Girl Scouts attending the Huron Valley Girl Scout Council's Camp Linden in Livingston county gathered around their Bicentennial campfire and sang patriotic songs.

James Vesper of Ann Arbor, an 11-year-old first-time Derby entrant, won the Ann Arbor Soap Box Derby. A large crowd of enthusiastic parents and friends saw 80 boys race down the S. Main St. hill for the honor of being city champion and for the right to represent Ann Arbor in the National Soap Box Derby in Akron. Chelsea entrant Tim Lancaster won his first heat, and Jeff Daniels won two races. Although the Chelsea entrants did not place high in the final standings, all gained valuable experience.

Parental Consent Initiative Nears Goal; September Vote Sought

Apparently assured of a successful petition drive for an initiated law requiring parental consent for minors to obtain an abortion, Right to Life of Michigan leaders are turning their attention to getting the law approved by the Legislature in the September session.

The strategy bypasses Governor James Blanchard, who vetoed an identical bill last year but would have no formal say in whether the law would go into effect in April, 1991.

Right to Life President Barbara Listing said 230,000 signatures have already been collected, surpassing the 191,728 valid voter names required to force action on the measure.

She said the drive will continue to get as close to 300,000 as possible, to provide a cushion for errors, before turning the petitions in to the Secretary of State in early July.

"We've reached the number we needed. With what we have right now and the time period we have left we will probably submit 270,000 to 275,000 signatures. We're more concerned with getting them in at the beginning of July. We would like the vote in September when they get back after Labor Day," Listing said.

Listing said the main effort now will focus on having the signatures verified in time for the Legislature to take a vote during what is expected to be a short session in September, prior to adjournment until the election.

With approval by both the House and the Senate, the law would then go into effect 90 days after adjournment, or in early April. A defeat in either house or no action would put the law before voters, probably at the 1992 general election.

Rep. Michael Griffin (D-Jackson), who sponsored the parental consent bill (HB 5103) vetoed by the governor in February, said, "This issue's got more support than Medicaid abortion. We look to have it before the Legislature in September, and we think it will pass both houses."

The majority of legislators in both houses have signed the petitions and she is confident the issue can be addressed in September. "We do have the assurance of leadership that a vote will be scheduled," she said.

"It really polled higher than the Medicaid funding ever did. Seventy-five percent (of those polled) are in favor of a parental consent law," she said.

While unable to estimate the cost of the petition drive, Listing said it will be considerably less than the $280,000-$270,000 spent on the Medicaid effort. Among the largest expenses, she said, will be staff to audit the signatures.

Blanchard, a proponent of abortion rights, vetoed the bill because he said "the women of Michigan should have freedom of choice." His specific criticisms of the measure included the fact that it would bar free access by victims of sex crimes.

The initiated law's language is exactly what has been passed in both houses, including provisions for a petition to probate court for minors seeking an abortion without parental consent.

Proponents could not muster the two-thirds majority required to override the governor's veto, but approval of the initiated law requires just a simple majority.

New Felony Categories Included in Drunken Driving Agreement

A working group of House Judiciary members reviewing proposed drunken driving reforms has agreed to the concept of new felony categories for incidents related to drunken driving behavior.

Rep. Perry Bullard (D-Ann Arbor), Judiciary chair, Rep. Michael Nye (R-Litchfield), Judiciary minority vice-chair, and Rep. Debbie Stabenow (D-Lansing) said the categories would be created to strengthen existing law.

A 15-year felony for causing death while driving drunk, with revocation of license, and a 5-year felony for causing serious injury while driving drunk, also with revocation, would be established.

The group has been reviewing reforms for several months with a report expected to be presented to the Judiciary subcommittee on drunken driving in September.

While some 23 concepts, including the felony provisions, have been agreed upon, three areas remain outstanding.

They include a determination of the definition of serious injury, in relation to the 5-year felony provisions; reformation of attempted offense provisions, and feasibility of administrative license suspension.

Other concepts agreed to by the legislators include the following:

-30-day license suspension, without provisions for restricted license, for any person convicted of drunk driving.

-points to be issued on the license of any persons found to have open intoxicants in their vehicle.

-elimination of hardship restorations of suspended or revoked licenses.

-jail terms of not less than 48 hours or not less than 10 days of community service for repeat offenders.

-general increase in fines for drunken driving offenses.

-prior out-of-state convictions would count as Michigan convictions.

-community service of up to 45 days would be authorized as part of all drunken driving sentences.

Uncle Lew from Lima Says:

DEAR MISTER EDITOR:

Ed Doolittle got the floor at the start of the session Saturday night at the country store. He had a clipping where there's a big flap all over the country about police stopping drivers and testing em fer being drunk. The idea, Ed told the fellers, is that police have got to have just cause. To stop em at random without reasonable suspicion invades drivers privacy or someone.

Ed said he had studied this situation up one side and down the other, and he is sold of a mind that he'll take invading risk over smoking gun proof ever time. Driving a car on public roads is a privilege a feller has to earn, Ed said, otherwise you wouldn't need a license to do it. And that privilege carries responsibility. Fer sure, Ed allowed, a society that can x-ray a woman's pocketbook before she can get on an airplane can test a driver before and after he gets on the road.

Practical speaking, Ed went on, we can't wait for reasonable suspicion that the driver will swerve in the busy left lane at 70 mile a hour any more than we can wait to learn that the woman has a pocketbook full of dynamite. We git proof ever day and night that drunks kill more folks on the road than bombs kill in the air, was Ed's words.

Ed said he got to thinking about how Americans celebrate their independence ever year, and drinking and driving natural come to mind. When folks 200 year from now hook our history to their automatic education module, Ed went on, they will put us in the class with them hethern tribes that use to throw somebody off a cliff when they wanted to honor some event. The only difference, Ed said, is that we pile hundreds of broken bodies on the side of our roads.

Ed got no argument from the fellers. Zeke Grubb said you don't have to drive drunk to kill yourself or somebody else, but it helps. He pointed out that the fourth is in the middle of the week, and he wondered how much longer Americans will wait fer Congress to move the Fourth to the first Monday after the first Saturday in July so the country can depend on a long, hot weekend. This year, he said, it breaks up the week, which probable means most folks will spend one weekend gitting ready fer it and another weekend gitting over it.

Zeke went on to declare that road planners in the country have got the wrong idea on safety. He had read where city traffic lights run on computers that count cars and change so as to move the most cars the fastest. And in the country they want four lanes both ways, with emergency lanes fer ambulances and wreckers to pick up the pieces.

Actual, Zeke allowed, we could travel a heap safer and roads would last a lot longer if we had a speed breaker bump ever block in town and ever mile everwhere else. We could angle the things so cars that hit em to fast would bounce off to the side and out of the way, was Zeke's idee.

Bug Hookum said there's no way to wean Americans off wheels or off celebrating on em. He has took note that trikes and bikes now are giving way to four wheel cars run on batteries. There's just somepun about setting there and being in control of the machine, Zeke said, and it ain't no wonder to him that a 16 year old boy can whip a car through the school circle drive on two wheels with one arm flopped out the winder, but he can't git a lawnmower across the yard without cutting the garden hose.

Yours truly,
Uncle Lew.

Sonya Steele, Michael Murphree Are Married in Ypsilanti

Sonya Ann Steele, daughter of Richard and Margaret Steele of Chelsea, and Michael James Murphree, son of Dalton and Sue Murphree of Howell, were married April 7 at Old Regular Baptist church in Ypsilanti.

The bride wore a Victorian-style dress with a high neck trimmed in lace and a bodice trimmed with pearls and sequins. The dress had a cathedral-length train and the bride wore a fingertip veil. She carried an all-white bouquet of roses, carnations, and baby's breath.

Maid of honor was Christine Sharp of Howell, friend of the couple.

Bridesmaids were Shelly Adkins of Milan, formerly of Chelsea, a cousin of the bride, and Deanne Cox and Lisa Wines of Brighton, friends of the bride. Suzie Steele of Chelsea, cousin of the bride, was a junior bridesmaid, and flowergirl was Danielle Steele of Portage, cousin of the bride.

Bridal attendants wore two-piece taffeta emerald green suits and carried one red rose. The maid of honor carried a white rose.

Best man was Dale Beauchamp of Milford, friend of the bridegroom.

Serving as groomsmen were Shawn Beauchamp of Hawaii, friend of the bridegroom, David Steele of Chelsea, brother of the bride, and Doug Steele of Chelsea, cousin of the bride.

Ringbearer was Zachary Murphree of Ypsilanti, cousin of the bridegroom.

A reception for 300 guests was held at the Knights of Columbus Hall in Dexter.

The couple took a honeymoon trip to Chicago and are living in Howell.

The bride is a 1986 graduate of Chelsea High school. The bridegroom is a 1985 graduate of Hartland High school.

VFW Ladies Auxiliary Notes

The July meeting of the local Auxiliary to VFW Post No. 4076 was held Monday, July 9 with seven members in attendance.

Plans were formulated for a hospital party to be held at Ann Arbor VA Hospital on Friday evening, July 20.

Hospital chairman Lucy Platt reported on the picnic held for the VA patients on June 20, when 23 patients were served, plus seven hospital staff. Mrs. Platt reported $50 turned in towards cancer aid and research from sale of cancer pins.

A group of Post and Auxiliary members will be traveling to the National Home at Eaton Rapids Sunday, July 15, for Michigan Day when picnics, a carnival and other entertainment are held for the resident children of the home.

Community Service chairman Virginia reported the VFW Hall will be open on Chelsea Sidewalk Sales Days.

Twenty-five dollars was allowed for the Muscular Dystrophy fund.

The next meeting is set for Aug. 13.

Hospital Auxiliary Lists Prize Winners In Wardrobe Raffle

Chelsea Community Hospital Auxiliary has expressed their appreciation to all who participated in making their annual Spring and Summer Wardrobe Raffle a success. Profits realized in these projects are donated toward special items or projects for the hospital and its patients.

Prize winners of Jacobson's shopping certificates were: $300, Bud Speiser; $100, Bea Bailey; and $50, Helen Bareis. Winner of a crystal pitcher donated by Jacobson's was Ginny Shehan for being the high ticket seller.

Committee members for this project were Shirley Roskowski, Marge German and Betty Freeman.

Quick thinking on the part of Willard Eisemann probably saved the life of a U.S. Navy man who was pinned beneath Eisemann's overturned gasoline truck following a collision at Quigley and Dexter Town Hall roads. Gasoline, leaking from the truck's own tank had ignited and Eisemann smothered the flames with a blanket before they could spread to the Navy man's clothing. Gladding, the Navy man, reportedly stated to sheriff's officer that he did not see the truck in time to avoid the accident because of brush and trees along the road which obscured his view.

On July 20, from 3:10 to 3:25 p.m., all radio and television stations went off the air to permit the first daytime Conelrad alert to be broadcast in this area. The Conelrad alert is a Civil Defense exercise over the Conelrad special system of AM radio broadcasting to carry official information in time of emergency. It has been described as the only safe broadcasting system devised to keep residents informed of important civil defense news and instructions without helping enemy bombers to reach their targets. An enemy plane trying to locate a target by riding a radio beam during a Conelrad alert would become confused receiving a signal from first one location and then another due to different locations of the stations.

Among the possessions of the late Mrs. George T. English, her niece, Mrs. Otto Luick, found a copy of The Chelsea Standard-Herald, dated Dec. 13, 1906. The paper was evidently treasured by Mrs. English because of the history of Chelsea which it contained and which had been written by various women of the community. The paper for that date was designated "Woman's Souvenir Edition."

The first private pension plan offered by a company was established by the American Express Company in 1876, according to "Labor Firsts in America," a U.S. Labor Department publication.

Pressure Canner Gauges Will Be Safety Checked

By Marion Prince

Extension Home Economist Planning to do some pressure canning this year?

To be on the safe side you should have your gauge tested every year. Low acid foods such as vegetables, meat, fish and poultry must be processed at the right pressure for the correct number of minutes to be safe from botulism, an organism which can cause serious illness and death.

Free testing is offered at the Cooperative Extension Service every Tuesday and Thursday for the months of July, August and September from 10 a.m. to noon or by appointment.

Just bring in the lid of the canner which has a gauge with numbers and a dial, for testing.

For additional information call 971-0079 and ask for the Home Economics Department.

Free Hospital Summer Concert Offered July 18

Chelsea Community Hospital will offer a free noontime summer concert on Wednesday, July 18. The Gaslighters, a light jazz quartet, will play between 11:30 a.m. and 1 p.m. in the hospital's main courtyard.

A special box lunch will be available for concert goers in the dining room. Come out and enjoy this free concert and relax during your lunchtime. In case of rain, the concert will be held in the hospital dining room.

Diabetes Lecture To Give Travel Tips

Even with diabetes, you can go anywhere and do almost anything. Catherine McAuley Health System (CMHS) will host a diabetes lecture, "Tips for traveling: How to get the most out of your vacation" on Thursday, July 19, from 7 to 8:30 p.m. at the St. Joseph Mercy Hospital Education Center, Ann Arbor.

Just a few preparations will help you handle your diabetes on the road, according to certified diabetes nurse educators Gina Gilbert and Carol Hammell from the Outpatient Diabetes Education Program at CMHS. They will share plenty of travel tips for those with diabetes.

Topics to be discussed include: how to adjust your meals/medications for changes in time zones; what medical ID is necessary; the latest traveling products for storing medication and supplies; resources available for planning vacations; and many other helpful hints to make your vacation a safe and happy one.

The cost for the session is $5 per family. Registration is required.

To register or for more information, please call the CMHS Outpatient Diabetes Education Program at 572-2431.

Dial-A-Garden J. Drolett Appointed to Topics Listed Central Dispatch Authority

The following is a weekly schedule of Dial-A-Garden, the system of pre-recorded daily gardening tips sponsored by the Washtenaw County Cooperative Extension Service. The system is in operation 24 hours a day, seven days a week. Interested persons are invited to call 971-1129 at their convenience to listen to timely, up-to-date gardening information.

Wednesday, July 11—"Pruning Brambles."
 Thursday, July 12—"Black Walnut Toxicity."
 Friday, July 13—"Tomato Problems."
 Monday, July 16—"Hot Weather Care of New Plants."
 Tuesday, July 17—"Preserving Herbs."
 Wednesday, July 18—"Fall Vegetable Gardening."

Jim Drolett, Dexter township supervisor, has been appointed to the Board of Directors of the recently formed Central Dispatch Authority as a representative of Washtenaw county townships.

The Michigan State Police and the Washtenaw County Board of Commissioners created the Central Dispatch Authority in March, 1990. Beginning in July, 1990 the Authority will take over dispatch for the Washtenaw County Sheriff's Department, the Michigan State Police, and by contract, Huron Valley Ambulance will dispatch emergency medical service county-wide along with many local fire departments.

The Authority will govern the Central Dispatch which will provide greater efficiency to county-wide Enhanced 911 Emergency Dialing, which will begin sometime early 1991.

The Authority Board is the policy making board for Central Dispatch. Other members include representatives from the Washtenaw County Sheriff's Department, Michigan State Police, County Prosecutor's Office, cities and villages, County Board of Commissioners, Huron Valley Ambulance and the general public.

Drolett serves as chairman of the county-wide Enhanced 911 Task Force. He serves on the County Emergency Medical Services Commission (EMS) which is an advisory body to the Washtenaw County Board of Commissioners. Drolett also serves on the Dexter Area Fire Department Authority Board.

Official Transportation Map Now Available

The Michigan Department of Transportation (M-DOT) 1990 Official Transportation Map of Michigan has made its debut, luring visitors to the state with the theme of "Celebrate! the Great Lakes."

It is the most up-to-date map of Michigan available and may be obtained from M-DOT at no charge.

The lighthouse at Holland on the Lake Michigan shore, one of about 100 lighthouses along more than 3,200 miles of Great Lakes shoreline in Michigan, is pictured on the cover. Gov. and Mrs. James J. Blanchard are shown with their welcoming message on the back cover.

Inside is a photo display of people having fun on and along the big lakes, the largest body of fresh water in the world.

"Besides helping our own residents find their way through Michigan, this map is a primary tool for our multi-billion-dollar travel industry," said Transportation Director James P. Pitz. "Many of the two million maps we are printing this year will be distributed nationally and internationally."

The map guides travelers along the 9,500-mile state highway system, on primary county roads and the major thoroughfares of the state's larger cities.

The new map may be obtained, at no cost, at numerous locations, including all M-DOT district offices and welcome centers. Other distribution points include state police posts, district offices of the Michigan Department of Natural Resources, local chambers of commerce, municipal government offices and offices of the Michigan Travel Bureau and regional tourist associations.

The Department of Transportation will send a map to individuals on request. Requests should be made on a post card (not in a sealed envelope), providing the name, address and zip code of the requestor. Post cards should be mailed to: MAPS, Michigan Department of Transportation, P.O. Box 30060, Lansing 48909.

AATA Grant Announced

Ann Arbor Transportation Authority will receive a $3.8 million Urban Mass Transportation Administration (UMTA) grant, Congressman Carl D. Pursell has announced.

The $3.8 million award represents AATA's Fiscal 1990 operating assistance of $993,000. The remaining $3 million will be used for capital assistance and construction funding.

"This will allow us to replace some of our older buses and to complete the transfer facility in Ypsilanti," said Mike Bolton, AATA director.

The Ann Arbor award is part of a $448 million release of 265 UMTA grants to transit agencies, state governments and planning organizations across America. A total of $8.7 million was awarded to seven agencies in the State of Michigan.

Free Booklet Tells How To Benefit from Trees

You can add thousands of dollars to the value of your home, bring songbirds to your neighborhood, and cut your energy costs up to 25% by planting and caring for trees.

A free booklet from The National Arbor Day Foundation, "Conservation Trees," will show you how.

"Conservation Trees" is a colorful illustrated, easy-to-use guide. It will show you how to cut your fuel bills by properly locating shade trees so that they provide cooling summer shade, but don't block the warm winter sun. And it describes how to plan a windbreak for maximum winter protection and a minimum of upkeep.

You'll learn how to create a natural habitat to attract songbirds to your backyard—how to provide cover, create needed habitat variety, and grow trees for food... even tips on maintaining a year-round water supply.

The design of the booklet makes it easy to browse through to pick up tips. You'll discover how to protect trees during construction projects... correct tree planting steps... the importance of shading your air-conditioner... how to prune shade trees... and where to get local tree-care assistance.

The booklet even includes advice on managing tree plantations for Christmas trees, black walnuts, fuel wood or timber, and how shelterbelts can save topsoil and help farm profits.

To obtain your free copy of this valuable booklet, send your name and address to: Conservation Trees, The National Arbor Day Foundation, Nebraska City, Neb. 68410.

"THE SALUTE," a photograph taken by Susan K. Bauer of Chelsea, was published recently as the inside cover photo in Country magazine. The subject is her son, Darl, now age five. The photo was taken on Memorial Day of 1988 when Darl was three. It was submitted to the magazine last year. Young Darl is saluting the flag on the porch of their renovated farmhouse on Peckins Rd. Darl helped his mother put up the flag while still in his pajamas. She asked him whether he knew how to salute, and he removed his baseball cap and saluted with his left hand. The photo appeared in the "Extra" edition celebrating the Fourth of July. Darl and Susan make their home with father and husband, Dennis Bauer.

Letters to the Editor

To the Editor:
Concerning Zen and Phyllis Niesens' letter about the painted rock, from the standpoint of a local, living here for 15 years. The rock is a tradition and taking it away from the already boredom laden youth of our town would create more of an uproar than is necessary. Seeing as how, although much appreciated, we've decided to focus the energies of our town on beautifying it, instead of the more urgent cry for year-round entertainment, (coming from young and old alike), what is left for the kids to do? Ask us, yes I am a teenager, and "paint the rock" will always land in the top three, if one can come up with three that is.

Even if, in some distant future we did see a movie theater, shopping mall, (like Briarwood, not Ames), and a few more dances come to Chelsea, we would still hate to see the rock go.

Perhaps the lack of such harmless entertainment is what drove the boys to vandalize Beach school, and believe me I'm just as upset about that as you are. At any rate, taking away our graffiti billboard might make people want to "spruce up" structures that would normally be left alone, such as the pavilion.

In closing, the rock is harmless and I'm sure that people won't fear being mugged, having their car stolen or meeting "undesirables" in our town as they enter seeing the rock. Rather, I think they enjoy seeing, "Happy Birthday..." or "Kill Tecumseh!" (about as brutal or obscene as they get), driving into our town. So noting the above I would advise you, Zane and Phyllis, to be careful what you ask for.

Kristina Steffenson Earns Academic Honors at Albion

Chelsea resident and Albion College sophomore Kristina D. Steffenson was one of 11 students to receive the Bernard T. Lomas Project 250 Award at the school's annual Honors Convocation ceremony held in April.

The award is given to students who have made significant contributions to the campus community. Freshmen, sophomores, and juniors are eligible for the cash prize named for a former Albion College president.

Steffenson was also named an Albion College Fellow, the school's highest academic honor. To be eligible, a student must maintain a 3.7 grade point average for three successive on-campus semesters.

Steffenson, a 1988 graduate of Chelsea High school, is the daughter of Drs. Dan and Carol Steffenson.

Chrysler Exec To Speak at Economic Breakfast Club

Susan Cischke, executive engineer of the Proving Grounds Operations of the Chrysler Corp. in Chelsea will speak at the Chelsea Economic Breakfast Club on Wednesday, July 18 at 7:30 a.m. in the Woodlands Room of the Chelsea Community Hospital.

Ms. Cischke will present an overview of Chrysler at both the corporate and local levels and the new Chrysler/Advantage program. She will also discuss the background and goals of the Proving Ground as well as reviewing its economic relationship with the village of Chelsea.

Cischke was named executive engineer in February, 1989 and is responsible for planning, designing and constructing proving grounds roads and maintaining test facilities. She joined Chrysler in 1976 and has held successively more responsible positions within the corporation.

Cischke earned her bachelor of science degree from Oakland University and her master's degree from the University of Michigan. She is a member of the Society of Automotive Engineers and Engineering Honor Society as well as serving on the National Proving Grounds Safety Committee. She is also a member of the Chelsea Area Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors.

A continental breakfast for $3 will be served at 7:30 a.m. The program, which includes a brief question and answer session, will be adjourned at 9 a.m. Reservations are required and should be made through Mark D. Bailly, Society Bank, at 475-9154.

QUOTES

DONALD A. COLE, Director

"One thorn of experience is worth a whole wilderness of warning..."

—Lowell
Too seldom heeded is the oft-quoted phrase "experience is the best teacher." What a pity that the nature of man is such that sincere advice offered by those who have had experience, is not usually valued very highly.

Those of us who have been through the uncertainties of life and have learned with difficulty which paths to take and which to avoid, can only hope that those who follow us will somehow learn to profit more from our experience than we did from those who preceded us.

The friendly, sympathetic advice and counsel available here is based on our many years of experience in serving this community.

Melissa Johnson Is College Scholar At Wooster College

Melissa Johnson of Chelsea has been named a College Scholar through the College Scholarship Award Program at the College of Wooster in Ohio.

More than 300 students competed. Each student was interviewed by a Wooster faculty member and completed two one-hour essays which were evaluated by a faculty panel. Successful applicants demonstrated independence of mind and intellectual curiosity as well as previous academic achievement.

"The award process stresses the challenge of stretching one's thoughts, of approaching a question in the well-rounded manner of the liberal arts tradition," said Hayden Schilling, acting vice-president for academic affairs at Wooster.

"Students are not being selected merely on their high school performance. Rather, they are being rewarded for applying their background to an exercise that is similar to what they will experience in college."

Johnson is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willard Johnson, 770 Book St.

Dog Training, Care Clinic Slated By Humane Society

All present and potential dog owners are invited to a Puppy and Dog Training and Care Clinic sponsored by the Humane Society of Huron Valley. A vast array of useful information will be available to help sharpen up your pet's manners and skills for the summer.

The clinic will be held Sunday, July 15 from 4 to 6 p.m. at the Ann Arbor Dog Training Club located at 1575 E. North Territorial Rd., just one mile east of US-23.

Instructors Sue Fischer and Lila Dann of the Dog Training Club will be giving valuable tips on topics such as health care, feeding, grooming, housebreaking, obedience training, and dog breed characteristics. There will also be demonstrations by the instructors followed by a question and answer period.

A $2 donation will be requested of all adults attending the session. Children are also welcome; however, we must ask that you leave your pet at home. Relevant pet care literature will also be available at no cost.

For directions or more information, phone the Education Department at 682-5545 or the HSHV Shelter at 682-5585.

The Humane Society of Huron Valley is a private, non-profit organization serving all of Washtenaw county and dedicated to preventing cruelty to animals and promoting respect for all life.

Westland Woman Loses Leg In July 4 Boating Accident

A young Westland woman was critically injured in a jet ski accident at Half Moon Lake July 4.

According to the Washtenaw County Sheriff's Department, Ginny L. Denison was operating a jet ski on the west end of the lake when a boat turned sharply to avoid a collision with her. However, the maneuver caused the back of the boat to hit the ski.

Denison's leg was severed at the lower torso by the boat's propellers. She was taken by Survival Flight to University of Michigan Hospital.

The operator of the boat, a Redford township man, was not injured. However, police are seeking charges against him in what they said was an alcohol-related accident.

Farm Crops Coming Well, Livestock Prices Falter

How are the farmers faring with summer's slow start, followed by a sudden rush of higher temperatures? The question was asked of Earl Doletzky, whose farming has spanned many years in the Dexter area.

"Earl, is the corn knee-high, now that it's the Fourth of July—and does that adage still apply?" Doletzky advised this hasn't been an ideal season for the farmers.

Although he admitted the weather to date has provided conditions that are pretty ideal for growing corn and soybeans, farmers are going to be hard-pressed to gather hay with the intermittent wetness this area has experienced in recent weeks.

"Livestock prices keep steadily declining," Doletzky explained. He said, "Beef was up to 84 cents a pound, a month ago."

The first pension law to be declared constitutional was in Alaska, according to "Labor Firsts in America," a U.S. Labor Department publication. The 1915 law covered all residents over 65 who had lived in the state for 10 years.

Doletzky's been going to the nearby Michigan Livestock Exchange, where the price of lambs has dropped from 70 to 53 cents per pound, live weight. Reason for the drop? "I don't know, but it's the case during the past three weeks," he answered.

Doletzky related he's had some sheep which he paid $40 to get shorn, received $35 for the wool, which is probably headed for the Boston area, where a lot of wool is destined.

Beef comes in to the Michigan Livestock Exchange, where Loren Heller is the auctioneer, from all over the lower parts of Michigan for the Monday auction.

It's apparently not unusual to see 1,000-2,000 head sold at that location on a Monday.

Yes, the wheat in western Washtenaw county is starting to show a little color, and farmers are looking to harvest the wheat crop before any substantial rains force "shrunken wheat," reducing its market value.

Doletzky tugged at his memory a little while chatting and explained that some of his corn had already tasseled at the time of Dexter's Sesqui-centennial celebration, a progressive year for crops.

Pet of the Week

Pet of the Week is a weekly feature of this newspaper. Pets shown are available at the Humane Society of Huron Valley, 3100 Cherry Hill Rd., Ann Arbor.

• Cost of a pet is $25 plus a sterilization fee.
• Sterilization fees are $20 for a male cat, $30 for a female cat, $25 for a male dog under 40 pounds, and $35 for a female dog under 40 pounds.

• If you already have a pet, you must provide proof of current vaccinations.
• Landlord approval is necessary if you rent your residence.
• Pets can be adopted seven days a week from 11 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Visiting hours end at 5 p.m.
• For more information contact the Humane Society of Huron Valley at 662-5585.

PETS OF THE WEEK are "Kay-dee," an 8-year-old Brittany Spaniel, and "Carman," an adult calico cat. Kay-dee is spayed, good-natured and reserved. Her previous owners had no time to spend with her. Carman is a medium-hair cat with a very soft coat. She's also spayed and very affectionate. Her previous owner couldn't afford to feed her.

Golf Outing Benefits Diabetes Research

For the fourth year in succession thousands of dollars were raised for diabetes research at the "Swing Away for ADA!" golf tournament in Salline.

The outing which took place on June 18 at Brookside Golf Course was supported by more than 100 Washtenaw county businesses who donated food, prizes and money.

The $7,000 raised this year matched 1989's record amount. In four years $24,000 from this tournament have gone to diabetes research programs including those at the University of Michigan, Wayne State and Michigan State University.

Nearly a half million Michigan residents suffer from diabetes, a disease that can lead to heart complications, kidney failure and blindness.

The Washtenaw County Chapter of the American Diabetes Association and the many volunteers hope that this fund-raiser will contribute towards finding a cure for this disease.

Area Students Selected For Summer Institute

Chelsea High's Mercedes Hammer and Matt McRoberts, a student at Dexter High, were selected to participate in the two-week Michigan State Board of Education Summer Institute for the Arts and Sciences at Olivet College, June 24-July 7.

Mercedes is the daughter of Frank and Elizabeth Hammer, and Matt's parents are Henry and Lorelei McRoberts.

This is the fifth year Olivet College has been chosen to host the program, and 115 students participated in the 1990 program.

The summer institute program provides two-week institutes at nine different Michigan college and university campuses for 600 talented and creative sophomores and juniors from Michigan high schools.

Host colleges and universities include Michigan Technological University, Western Michigan University, Eastern Michigan University, Adrian College, the University of Michigan, Michigan State University, Northern Michigan University, and Grand Rapids Junior College, in addition to Olivet College.

The program curriculum provides students instruction in the arts and sciences plus in-depth exploratory activities.

Dr. James R. Donohue, professor of the humanities department, and Dr. Joel J. Epstein, professor of history, were co-directors of the Olivet program, entitled "Critical Issues and Creative Expressions in the 90's and Beyond."

Students participated in creative-arts intensives focusing on creative writing, acting improvisation, visual arts, jazz technique and theory.

The social-sciences intensives investigated the changing issues of race and ethnicity, societal institutions, economic issues, personal exploration, environmental issues and awareness for future growth.

In addition, students selected from a diverse offering of exploratory sessions designed to create a linkage between the arts and sciences.

Sessions included such topics as coping with blindness, decision making, and dealing with state legislators.

The program also included residencies by scholars and artists, as well as a student-run program dealing with the environmental issues facing the world.

Funding for the Olivet program is through the Calhoun Intermediate School District under the direction of the Michigan State Board of Education.

Olivet College is a four-year liberal arts college located in southcentral Michigan.

The college awards bachelor of arts, and bachelor of music education, degrees.

The Truth About Hot Weather Food Myths

Little Red Riding Hood has carried her picnic basket through the thickets of popular imagination since 1687 when Charles Perrault, a French noble at the Court of Louis XIV, first published his "Tales of Mother Goose."

Like all tales, the story has become entrenched through repetition.

Misinformation spreads the same way. So USDA's Meat and Poultry Hotline staff is standing in for the woodsmen to chop down some mischievous modern "tales" that can cause trouble in summertime food handling.

The trouble we're referring to is the possibility of bacterial foodborne illness—the menace represented here by the wolf.

Myth 1. It's summer—you can take a vacation, and relax your food safety principles!

Actually, reports of foodborne illness rise during the hazy, lazy days of summer, so you shouldn't relax when preparing food. But with a few precautions you can enjoy a safe picnic.

Be sure to keep all food preparation areas clean. Special care must be taken to ensure that food is kept cold, or hot enough to slow the growth of any bacteria present. And foods should be thoroughly cooked.

Myth 2. There are some foods you just can't take on a picnic.

If the time between leaving home and serving the picnic is under two hours, and you plan for proper cold or hot storage on the trip, you can take most any food on a picnic.

Perishable foods like meat and poultry need more care, of course, and highly perishable foods like cream pies or custards may be difficult to transport.

But with a good insulated cooler, and lots of ice or other cold sources, your picnic can safely include such foods as potato salad, deviled eggs or cream cheese dip.

Myth 3. Any food containing mayonnaise is more likely to cause illness.

While all mayonnaise-based salads should be kept on ice, the mayo that you buy at the store is not a food safety villain. It's been pasteurized, and actually, its high acid content slows bacterial growth. But home-made mayonnaise, which uses raw eggs, is never safe, not even for at-home consumption.

Myth 4. Packing cold food into a cooler is all you need to do to ensure safety when transporting it.

It's not enough to just put foods into the cooler. Packing the food directly from the refrigerator is a good start, but you must also include a cold source.

The commercial "blue gel" is a good choice, but you can also freeze water in containers to use as an ice block. Boxed juices can be frozen to provide an excellent cold source and an icy cold drink at the picnic. Ice cubes, cold fruit, and even frozen food like hamburgers and hotdogs, that will thaw enroute or before grilling, can also be used to keep your food cold.

Myth 5. You don't need to worry about taking carry-out foods like fried chicken to a picnic since it's already cooked.

Cooked food also requires special care, especially if the food is warm. Bacteria that can cause illness can be introduced to food just by handling. This bacteria can grow very rapidly in warm temperatures.

If the chicken will be served and eaten within two hours, it's okay to pick it up on the way to the outing.

But, if serving will not be for several hours, it's better to purchase the chicken well in advance of the picnic, and chill it thoroughly. Then pack it in the cooler and eat it cold.

Myth 6. Hard-cooked eggs are great to take on a hike because they don't need to be refrigerated.

Even though the shell of an egg does provide some protection for the interior, you shouldn't rely on it.

Hard-cooking the egg will kill any bacteria, such as salmonella, that may be in the raw egg. But, there are other bacteria that grow well on cooked food. Cracks in the shell, even too small to see, can allow bacteria into the inside of the egg.

Once inside the shell, the bacteria can grow well, and rapidly, on the egg's protein surface, and could cause illness. That's the last thing you'd want on a hike!

Keep hard-cooked eggs on ice and in a cooler or cold-pack. Carry eggs on a hike only if you'll be eating them within two hours of leaving the base camp.

Myth 7. Dirt and pesticides can be removed from fresh vegetables by washing them with soap and water.

Soap or detergent should not be used to wash vegetables and fruits. Very little pesticide residue, if any, actually remains on fruits and vegetables, but what might be there can be effectively washed off with only water, and, perhaps, a vegetable brush.

Household detergents have not been approved for use on food items.

Myth 8. Partially cooking meat or poultry ahead is a great way to save time grilling at the cook-out.

It's not a good idea to partially heat food for further cooking at a later time. Bacteria that may be in raw foods need thorough cooking—all at once—to be destroyed. When food is fully cooked, however, and if it's been cooled quickly, reheating it on the grill at the picnic site is a safe option.

Also, if you are barbecuing at home in the backyard, precooking or par-broiling is a way to save grilling time. Just be sure to precook immediately before taking the food to the grill.

Myth 9. As long as leftover food is still partly cold, it's fine to pack it up and take it home.

Use your cooler, and your common sense, as a guide to the safety of leftover picnic food. Ice remaining in the cooler is a good sign that the food may be safe.

If the picnic only lasts four to five hours, and if the food was not out of the cooler very long during serving, chances are good that the leftover food will be wholesome.

If you have any doubts, though, don't take a chance. Discard the food.

How about taking your family on a Lake Michigan dune ride, or touring a toy train company, or visiting a 10-story Dutch windmill? If you're looking for some interesting things to do, you can find lots of ideas in the new Lake Michigan Circle Tour Guide just published for free distribution by West Michigan Tourist Association (WMTA).

The guide includes a map showing the 1,100-mile route through the Great Lakes states of Michigan, Wisconsin, Illinois, and Indiana. Detailed information is provided on the 575-mile Michigan section of the route—including attractions, cider mills, U-pick orchards, dinner cruises, B&B's, resorts, lodging, restaurants, shopping, and dining.

The circle route is marked about every 10 miles in all four states with green and white Lake Michigan Circle Tour highway signs.

The guide will be available at Michigan highway information centers, and at West Michigan Tourist Association, 138 E. Fulton St., Grand Rapids 49503. Or call the Michigan Travel Bureau at 1-800-5432-YES and ask for Operator No. 2.

CHELSEA PEDIATRIC CENTER has had an eight-year relationship with the Chelsea School District as it has rented space at Beach Middle school since the beginning. However, both the school district and the center need more space, which has prompted Dr. Mary Westhoff, the center's founder, and Dr. Brian Kennedy, to build a new facility.

The first company-financed medical department with a full-time staff was at the Homestake Mining Company in North Dakota in 1887, according to "Labor Firsts in America," a U.S. Labor Department publication.

Chelsea 1995 Names Various Committees

Chelsea 1995, a futuring organization recently formed with the help of consultant Barbara Rose, met July 5 at Society Bank with Robert Thornton presiding.

Newly appointed were Sue Craig, recording secretary; Dave Prohaska, administrative services; and Paul Schaible, treasurer. Chelsea 1995 will retain P.O. Box 82 for correspondence and fund donations.

Chelsea 1995 will operate with an entire body of interested community members, in addition to an Advisory Committee of four, consisting of Robert Daniels, Mark Heydlauff, Lenore Mattoff and Greg Raye.

Robert Daniels will chair the Funding Committee to raise money for initial expenses, such as postage and printing. A Publications Committee will also be formed.

Several projects were identified from the Futuring Sessions and Survey for immediate implementation.

The Farmers Market, one project already begun by Greg Raye and H. K. Leonard, is open on Saturdays in the Depot parking lot.

A Downtown Marketing Committee was formed to encourage beginning businesses. Robert Daniels will chair the committee, and Mark Heydlauff and Dave Prohaska were appointed to the committee.

A motion was also passed to begin a Calendar of Community Events to coordinate community planning, with Laurie Gravelyn as chairperson.

A committee was formed to look into forming a Walking, Jogging, Biking Path in and around Chelsea. Tim Merkel will chair the committee, assisted by John Daniels and Mark Heydlauff.

Interested community members are invited to serve on these committees and may contact committee chairmen or Robert Thornton.

The next meeting will be at 7 p.m., Wednesday, July 23 at Sylvan Township Hall, and is open to all interested citizens.

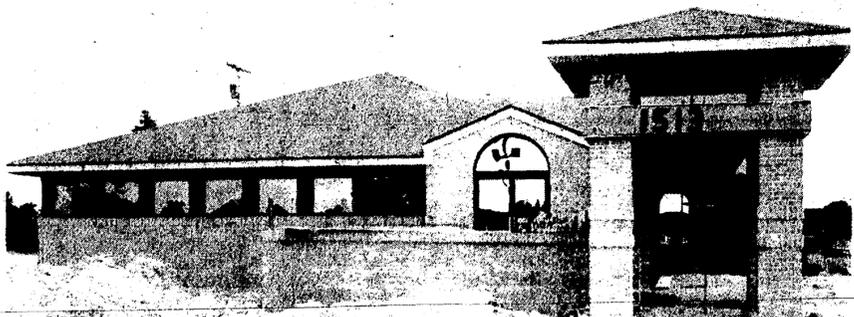

Curbside Recycling Begins Today

Village of Chelsea's curbside recycling program is scheduled to begin today.

Three different plastic, colored buckets for glass and cans have been available at the village offices for nearly two weeks. About 250 of the 3,000 available buckets have been picked up by residents. A small, refundable deposit is charged for each bucket.

The village plans to use its pull-behind recycling bins for the program.

Pick-up will take place each Wednesday.

THE NEW QUARTERS for Chelsea Pediatric Center, on S. Main St. next to Our Savior Lutheran church, is almost completed. Drs. Mary Westhoff and Brian Kennedy will move their practice from Beach Middle school early next week.

Chelsea Pediatric Center Moving To New, Larger Facility on M-52

Chelsea Pediatric Center is moving its offices to a new building on M-52 just north of Our Savior Lutheran church this week-end.

The building, on the site of the former Klumpp estate, will double the space available for the practices of Dr. Mary Westhoff and Dr. Brian Kennedy, both Dexter-area residents. They currently rent 1,500 square feet at Beach Middle school, where Westhoff started the practice eight years ago after completing her residency at the University of Michigan. Kennedy, who also interned at Michigan, joined the practice two years ago. They are looking for a third physician to join them.

Westhoff began the business with a nurse and office manager after being recruited by Chelsea Community Hospital. Now the practice has 10 employees, and Westhoff and Kennedy have 3,000 to 4,000 children and adolescent patients from Chelsea, Stockbridge, Dexter, Grass Lake, Jackson, and other surrounding areas. They have the only full-time pediatric office in Chelsea.

Chelsea School District, facing a space squeeze, asked Westhoff to move two years ago. However, a year extension was provided after Westhoff told the district she could not find a new location quickly.

"The school district needs the space, and we desperately need the space," Westhoff said.

Westhoff and Kennedy discussed several locations for a new office, including Rehe Papo's proposed office complex between Chelsea Community Hospital and Old US-12. They thought they were going to build on the hospital grounds, but that fell through.

"One day I went one exit too far on I-94 and got off at M-52," Westhoff said.

"I saw the for-sale sign and thought it would be a good location for us."

The center broke ground in early April and building had to proceed quickly in order for the school district to modify the office space for classrooms in time for fall classes.

The new office will have nine examination rooms, and a waiting room about twice the size of their current one.

Westhoff and Kennedy had originally decided to modify the Klumpp house for offices, and even had site plans approved. However, they decided they didn't like the layout and discovered that modifications to the home would cost as much as constructing a new building. There was also no room for expansion. So they decided to build on an adjacent lot, where there is also room for a mirror-image addition to the new building.

They've entered a sales agreement for the house, which may be moved to a new site.

The first day of practice at the new building will be next Wednesday, July 18. They'll be closed for three days but will discuss patient needs by telephone.

Chelsea Summer Baseball Team Plagued by Errors in Losses

Chelsea Bulldogs summer baseball team lost two tough games to Doan Construction, 7-5, and Brighton, 10-2, in action last week.

On Tuesday, July 3 Chelsea took on Doan Construction of Milan and jumped out to a 2-0 lead in the first inning. Ben Hurst was hit by a pitch, Kerry Plank doubled Hurst in, and Jeremy Stephens singled to score Plank.

Doan scored one run in the second, but had four players cross the plate in the second inning to take a 3-2 lead.

Plank and Craig Ferry each scored in the third to pull Chelsea to within 5-4, before Doan added a run in the inning to lead 6-4.

Doan widened their lead in the fifth to 7-4.

Hurst's single in the sixth inning scored Kyle Plank for the Bulldogs' final run.

Chelsea left two runners on in the seventh inning.

Hurst was Chelsea's starting pitcher and gave up four hits in four innings, but was the victim of defensive errors. Ferry surrendered one run in three innings of relief.

Chelsea's six hits came from the first five hitters in the line-up, including two singles by Stephens, singles by Hurst, Emmert, and Ferry, and Kerry Plank's double.

"We out-hit them 6-4 and had several opportunities to score, but we didn't move the ball like we should as we struck out 11 times," said Chelsea coach Akel Marshall.

"We also gave them some extra outs as we committed four errors."

Chelsea's Thursday, July 5 game against Brighton was closer than the 10-2 score would indicate, Marshall said.

Brighton scored one time in the second and twice in the third inning to take a 3-0 lead.

However, by the end of the fifth the score was 3-2.

In bottom of the third, Jude Quilter walked and later scored on Kerry Plank's single. In the fifth, Steve Grau led off with a single, moved to second on Jason Adams' sacrifice, and scored on Emmert's single.

Brighton broke the game open in the sixth as they sent 11 batters to the plate and scored seven runs on four hits as Chelsea contributed four errors.

"The game was much closer than the score," Marshall said.

"We made a few mistakes, missed a few signs on the bases, and missed a squeeze bunt and a few others. But we also did some things right and hopefully we are learning this summer."

Jake Rindle walked four, struck out seven, and gave up 10 hits on the mound.

"Brighton is a good team and hit the ball with men on base and we didn't," Marshall said.

"We had the men on base but couldn't get the big hit as we struck out 10 times."

Chelsea had five hits, including two singles by Kerry Plank, a double by Ferry, and singles by Emmert and Grau.

Chelsea dropped to 0-4 on the summer. They are scheduled to play tomorrow, Thursday, July 12 at 6:15 p.m. at Vet's Park in Ann Arbor.

Freshman, JV Grid Teams To Combine

Chelsea Bulldog freshman football program has been officially sidelined for a year, and perhaps longer.

Athletic director Wayne Welton said that only 10 sophomores had signed up for junior varsity football. So the decision has been made to combine the freshmen and sophomores into one 35 or 40-member junior varsity team. Twenty-five freshmen have signed up.

"Our intention is to try to run the program again next year," Welton said.

Welton said the only schools in the Southeastern Conference who still have freshman programs are Pinckney, Saline, and Tecumseh, schools with significantly larger student bodies.

"State-wide, JV numbers are not good," Welton said.

"Part of it is that kids have so many things to do and many of them don't want to cut their summers three weeks short to go to a tough pre-season practice. The other issue here is that we've had four different JV coaches in four years. Kids were getting letters in the summer from a guy they never heard of."

Doug Wingrove Named MVP of Chelsea Bulldog Baseball Team

Senior pitcher Doug Wingrove was named the Chelsea Bulldogs' Most Valuable Player this spring.

Wingrove, who finished with a 9-2 record and 1.68 earned run average, had a career mark of 17-4.

Wingrove was also named to the All-Southeastern Conference first team and to the All-District Team.

Senior outfielder Steve Emmert earned the Slugger Award. He ended with a .365 average and 32 RBI.

"He had one of the toughest jobs in the order hitting behind Jude (Quilter)," said Chelsea coach Wayne Welton.

"It's tough to hit when they know Jude's probably running."

Emmert struck out just four times in 104 plate appearances.

Emmert also won the team's Coaches Award for dedication and leadership.

Sophomores Jake Rindle, a pitcher, and Adam Taylor, a catcher, were named the team's Most Improved Players.

Senior outfielder Brandon Murrell and senior statistician Carol Hanke won the Dugout Award for spirit.

Hanke kept the team's statistics for three years and more than 120 games.

Other post-season honors went to Emmert, shortstop Kerry Plank, and second baseman Quilter, who were named to the All-Southeastern Conference Second Team. Honorable Mention honors went to outfielder Ben Hurst, pitcher Kyle Plank, pitcher Rob Clem, and Murrell.

Emmert was named to the All-District Team with Wingrove.

School Board Notes

Present at a regular meeting of the Chelsea Board of Education Monday, July 2, were Comeau, Satterthwaite, Feeney, Eisenbeiser, Dising, McCalla, superintendent Piasecki, assistant superintendent Mills, principals Mead, Stielstra, Wescott, curriculum director Bissell, athletic director Welton, guests.

Meeting called to order at 8 p.m. by outgoing President Anne Comeau. She administered the oath of office to incoming board members Jane Dising and Richard McCalla.

The board elected the following officers for the 1990-91 school year: Anne Comeau, president; Ron Satterthwaite, vice-president; Ann Feeney, secretary; John Eisenbeiser, treasurer.

In action items, the board:
1. Designated dates, times and location of meetings for the 1990-91 school year as follows: first and third Mondays of each month (unless special meetings are required), 8 p.m., in the Board Room of the Administration Building.

2. Designated Chelsea State Bank as the district's bank depository for the 1990-91 school year. The accounts are: the General Fund, the 1956 Debt Retirement Fund, the 1965 Debt Retirement Fund, 1974 Debt Retirement Fund, the Cafeteria Fund, Beach School Fund, Mabel Fox Loan Fund, Payroll Account, Chelsea High School Student Fund, Chelsea Schools Pool Fund, Community Education Refund Account.

3. Approved check signature authorizations and approval of the resolution authorizing use of the signature plate of the superintendent for payroll checks, authorization for signature plate for the board of education president, secretary and treasurer for all checks for payment of General Fund, Debt Retirement Funds, authorization for the board treasurer, Memarie Walter, Frederick A. Mills, and Joseph K. Piasecki to endorse checks for deposit only.

4. Approved retention of the legal firms of Keusch & Flintoft and Thrun, Maatsch & Nordberg to represent the district during the 1990-91 school year.

5. Appointed Ron Satterthwaite as the board's representative in the Washtenaw County School Officers Association.

6. Appointed Joe Redding as liaison person to the Michigan Association of School Boards.

7. Authorized assistant superintendent Frederick A. Mills to participate in co-operative purchasing.

8. Authorized assistant superintendent Frederick A. Mills to develop a fund investment program.

9. Authorized assistant superintendent Frederick A. Mills to pay General Fund and Debt Retirement expenditures in the best interest of the school district.

10. Approved membership in the MAB Legal Trust Fund for 1990-91.

11. Approved acquisition of textbooks for the high school economics course, as discussed at the June 18 meeting. The textbooks will be furnished free of charge by Junior Achievement.

12. Approved the K-12 mathematics curriculum.

13. Approved purchase of mathematics textbooks, as discussed at the June 18 meeting.

14. Approved a truth-in-taxation hearing for July 16, at 8 p.m. in the Board Room.

Superintendent Piasecki reported that a Kingscott Associates representative will probably be at the July 16 meeting to discuss their recent study of the district's facility needs.

Athletic director Wayne Welton apprised the Board that a decision has been made to eliminate freshman football during the 1990-91 school year. This decision was made because of the low numbers of interested students.

Meeting adjourned at 9 p.m.

The residents of Alaska move from one home to another more often than residents of any other state.

- Q. How much can you drink before it's unsafe to drive?
- A. Only one or two drinks may make it unsafe. A 150-lb person who drinks 4 beers in only a few hours would likely become impaired or intoxicated.
- Q. Can my parents let me drink at home if I'm under 21?
- A. Legally, no. There is no exception to the 21 or older law.

Inheritance Tax Cut Bills Not Yet Dead
Michigan Farm Bureau is still supporting inheritance tax reform efforts underway in the state legislature. Governor Blanchard on June 22 vetoed S. B. 1, which would have reduced the over-all inheritance tax by about $36 million, or 50 percent, over a three-year period. In response to that veto another inheritance tax relief measure was introduced in the House. H.B. 5419 is sponsored by Rep. Roland Niederstadt (D-Saginaw). A substitute version of the bill was reported out of the House Taxation Committee on June 29.
"The Niederstadt bill would apparently cost less than S.B. 1 because of the narrower definition of those who would benefit," said Ron Nelson, legislative counsel for Michigan Farm Bureau. "It would cost somewhere in the range of $10 million or less."
In its revised form the substitute for H.B. 5149 would exempt 100 percent of all farm property (real and personal) inherited by close relatives, rather than just the current 50 percent exemption that applies only for real property enrolled in P.A. 118; increase the tax exemption for close relatives from $10,000 to $15,000; and eliminate the taxes on inherited family-owned and operated businesses.
The full House is expected to consider H.B. 5149 when it returns to session in September.
Meanwhile, Sen. Nick Smith (R-Addison) has reintroduced S.B. 1 in the form of S.B. 1024. The measure was referred to the Senate Finance Committee.
The Job Training Partnership Act was passed to prepare economically disadvantaged and dislocated workers for productive employment.

NOTICE OF A PUBLIC HEARING ON INCREASING PROPERTY TAXES
PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that on July 16, 1990, at 8:00 o'clock p.m. at the Board of Education Room, E. Washington Street, Chelsea, Michigan, the Board of Education of the Chelsea School District will hold a public hearing on the levying in 1990 of an additional proposed millage rate of 1.6550-mills for operating purposes pursuant to Act 5, Public Acts of Michigan, 1982, Section 211.34, MCL.
The Board of Education has the complete authority to establish that 36.1577 mills be levied in 1990 from within its present authorized millage rate.
The maximum additional proposed millage rate would increase revenues for operating purposes from ad valorem property tax levies in 1990 otherwise permitted by Act 5, Public Acts of Michigan, 1982, by 8.8604 percent (8.8604%).
In accordance with Act 5, the Base Tax Rate Fraction (BTRF), as calculated by the County Equalization Office, for 1990 is 0.8958. This BTRF would allow the Board of Education to levy up to 34.5027 mills (38.5161x.8958) of the authorized 36.1577 mills without holding a hearing. The 1.6550-mills difference represents a 8.8604% increase in income for operating purposes for the 1990 tax levy. This total levy represents a reduction of 2.3584 mills from last year's levy of 38.5161 mills.
The purpose of the hearing is to receive testimony and discuss the levy of an additional millage rate. Not less than seven (7) days following the public hearing, the Board of Education may approve all or any portion of the proposed additional millage rate.
This notice is given by order of the Board of Education.
Ann E. Feeney, Secretary

LINKE & McCANTS performed Sunday afternoon in Pierce Park as the first installment of the Concert-in-the-Park series sponsored by the Chelsea Area Chamber of Commerce and the Chelsea Recreation Council. The duo played a mixture of country, bluegrass, blues, and old rock and roll standards. The next show, July 22, will feature piano player Mr. B. Linke is on the right.

THE BALLOON CONCESSION at Sunday's Concert-in-the-Park at Pierce Park did a brisk business as 92 balloons featuring the concert series logo were purchased by children and others long past childhood. The proceeds, a total of $23, helped to pay for the show.

Toledo War Days To Be Replayed at Walker Tavern

Once again the Michigan Department of State's Walker Tavern Historic Complex relives the Toledo War Days on Saturday and Sunday, July 14 and 15. The 1990 version is complete with Michigan surveyors; cobblestone dancers; military encampments; a bagpiper; craftspeople of the era; and a bake sale.

Proclaimed by President Andrew Jackson as one of the most peaceful wars, the Toledo War between the Territory of Michigan and State of Ohio over 488 square miles at the Ohio border, focused on serious debates as opposed to violent bloodshed. Questions of surveyors' rights, women's voting rights, and the general claim rights to the Toledo Strip were only a few of the issues debated during the original Toledo War Days. Those same issues will be redebated Saturday and Sunday to commemorate the event that delayed Michigan's entrance into the Union by two years.

The winner of the fictitious debate will be voted on by visitors. Votes will be tabulated at 4:30 p.m., Sunday. Historically, the Michigan Territory received the Upper Peninsula to compensate for the loss of Toledo.

Walker Tavern Complex is located in the Cambridge State Historic Park at the junction of US-12 and M-50 in Lenawee county. The entrance is off M-50 one quarter mile north of US-12. The complex is open between 10 a.m. and 5 p.m. daily, June through Labor Day; no admission required.

West Michigan Attractions Map Available Free

Asparagus, blueberries, cherries, and Danish are not only good to eat but are also fun festivals listed in a guide of attractions and festivals for the West Michigan area just published for free distribution by West Michigan Tourist Association (WMTA).

Also listed are historic villages, museums, dinner cruises, harness racing, dune rides, U-pick orchards, canoe liveries, spectacular miniature golf courses, summer theatre, and a showboat.

Included in the guide is a Michigan highway map with location numbers for the attractions and festivals. These attraction maps are available at midwest tourist information centers; or by writing or calling WMTA, 136 E. Fulton, Grand Rapids 49503. Ph: (616) 456-8557.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor,

In 1986, the citizens around Portage Lake went to Dexter township for help in remedying a public health problem at the lake. Houses were falling into disrepair because no one could get permits to remodel them because of failed or inadequate septic systems. Some people had high nitrates in their wells making them unfit for human drinking water. Property owners were being issued six-month deed restrictions meaning they could only occupy their houses six months out of the year because of the inadequate wells and septic systems.

These people needed help and when they came to the township, Jim Drolett and Doug Smith were willing to help. They knew their duty to protect the health, safety and welfare of their constituents and took positive action to live up to their oath of office.

When the Sewer Authority was formed, the Township Board by unanimous vote appointed them to serve as the board. Jim and Doug would have the follow-through to get things done.

Now look what's happening to them. They are being put through the degrading process of being recalled because they had the courage and convictions to do what's right.

It's no wonder people shy away from public office when this kind of needless thing can happen at the whim of a few disgruntled citizens.

I applaud and support Jim Drolett and Doug Smith and ask that you do the same by voting NO on the recall question on Aug. 7 if you are a Dexter township resident.

Even if you can't vote, give them a call and tell them you appreciate good responsive government officials.

Charles Druks.

To the Editor:

Every time I think about the attempt to recall Jim Drolett from the Dexter Township Supervisor's Office, I get madder and madder.

To think that people can print lies about a person and then go ask people to vote someone out of office because of those lies makes the hackles go up on my back.

Common sense would tell anyone that if Jim was as bad as these few people have tried to make him out to be, we'd have heard about it long ago.

Jim has been in government service for 22 years and a township office holder for eight years and the only comments anyone says about him are positive.

Except for a few angry residents trying to defame Jim, his record of dealing politely and expeditiously with all constituents is unblemished. No one gets treated unequally or unfairly and Jim gets things done.

As a citizen and voter in Dexter township, I urge you to support Jim through this ordeal and show Jim's detractors that lies won't win out in the end.

Edward E. Schrader.

To the Editor,

Here he goes again. Greg Magnuson is still writing misleading letters for this paper. Greg led the election campaign against the sewer system and everyone around here knows it. And he says he wanted more facts? Well, he was given facts, lots of facts, but wouldn't accept them because it wasn't what he wanted to hear. So more than a year later we are looking at the same facts and the same project, but at more than a million dollars in added cost. It may have been his prerogative to object to the project site, but it is mine to be angry about the increased cost and delay.

Then he claims not to be supporting the recall of two of our most respected township public officials? That's a joke, he signed the petition for the recall election back on April 10. In my book, that's supporting the recall campaign.

But now he is extending his campaign to be against our Lakes Association and its opposition to misuses of the lakes. Well, thank goodness for the Portage-Base-Whitewater Lakes Homeowners Association for fighting to improve our lakes. It is continuing to fight to clean up the lakes, challenging developers who dredge or build illegally in the flood plain or wetlands, controlling excessive access at the launch site, being vigilant that the dam is properly maintained, helping finance a road patrol in the lakes area. Keep it up Lakes Association, you must be doing a good job, to see your membership grow from 450 to more than 720 members in a two-year period.

The most recent "Magnuson shot" is that Jim Drolett and Doug Smith were nominated specifically by the Lakes Association. Now that is insulting to the intelligence of Dexter township voters. It is they, not Association members who nominated these men in 1984, and have kept them in office since. They must have been doing something good in behalf of their people to have acquired a reputation for good, honest government for Dexter township without fear or favor to special interest groups seeking special treatment on sewer assessments.

Isn't it about time we stopped these personal cheap shots like recall elections and begin looking out for the health and welfare of our citizens?

Jerry Gunnels.

To the Editor:

James L. Drolett and H. Douglas Smith have done it again... Not only do they say that Dexter township voters are not intelligent enough to vote on issues... now they are saying that the professors at Michigan State University don't have the intelligence to express their opinions about subjects they specialize in. They even got State Rep. Kirk Profit, D-Ypsilanti (who has a -11 percent rating as a politician (Ann Arbor News, 7/5/90)) to join them in going to Lansing to harass these professors with lawsuits, etc., because these professors gave their honest opinions about subjects they excel in. And the truth is these professors are right about the Portage Lake Sewer Site on Stinchfield Rd. as being detrimental.

What's happening to our country when politicians start gagging our educators for their own special interests? Is this what you want for your government?

The truth of matter is Drolett and Smith were the prime causes of any delay with the sewer because of the misinformation they kept giving the Dexter township residents. The township records are open to all its residents. Ask to see how much money the township is spending in legal fees. The amount is staggering and growing every day... and these two say it won't cost the Dexter township residents anything? Take a nice look at your taxes and try and guess what they will be next year.

Drolett told me some time ago, "Joe... the name of the game is more TAXES." And you know, Drolett told the truth for once!

There are intelligent people in Dexter township ready to run for these office that don't harass and will work hard to straighten out the mess these two made in Dexter township and GIVE YOU GOOD GOVERNMENT. I know that I will cast my YES VOTE Aug. 7 for the RECALL of James L. Drolett and H. Douglas Smith.

Joseph P. Boltach.

Dear Editor,

It was the same old familiar story: "Dexter Merchants Fear Malls May Turn Downtown into Ghost Town" (Ann Arbor News, July 1). I had thought that this sort of thing was finally recognized as a mistake, what with America strewn with burned-out, once-fine downtowns ringed by wastelands of low, plain buildings adrift in seas of parking lot and roadways.

Dexter has always been special to me as a classic Midwestern village, complete with water tower (recently gone), busy little brick downtown, and uncluttered fringes blending into woods and farmland.

Most larger towns have scuttled this in favor of a motor-vehicle-convenient landscape not only devoid of any feeling of home or locality, but perpetuating environmentally degrading living patterns.

Some towns, which have not been totally gutted, attempt downtown renaissance through infusion of frivolous boutiques and knick-knack shops. It is a rare town where one can live near the center and walk, bike, or conveniently bus to shopping for life's necessities (food, light bulbs, nuts & bolts, etc.).

Dexter is such a place; Ann Arbor no longer is. Blame falls most commonly upon big business, planners, banks, and such bodies of power. I wish to point out that the driving force behind this decay of America's national character is a public which overvalues sitting in cars and undervalues architecture, history, and community. Why not bike a few blocks and pay 89¢ rather than drive five miles to Meijer's and pay 69¢?

Benjamin Thompson.

Dear Editor,

There is an endangered species of primary importance—Man.

Much has been written about endangered species such as a variant oak tree or several wild orchids, by the opponents of the Portage Base Lake sewer. But what of the endangered Man? Poorly functioning septic fields not only endanger the lakes but also contaminate the water supply to all the lake residents. The risk of the spread of various diseases increases yearly as the population grows. The greatest risk is that of hepatitis. There are many studies done by public health officials demonstrating that there is a grave risk of the spread of hepatitis into the wells from poorly functioning septic fields.

It is a tragedy that a very few people have continued to block the sewer system with lies, distortions and narrow self interest because they do not want the system in their backyard.

Now they have caused a recall aimed at Jim Drolett and Doug Smith who have served their constituency faithfully and well by promoting the sewer system. By the use of continuing half truths and outright lies they seek to further endanger the health of many.

When are we citizens going to seek the greatest good of the greatest number?

Vote no on the Aug. 7 recall.
Owen G. Haig, M.D.
Bonnie Sinkule Haig.

Note to Sewer Issue Letter-Writers

We feel we have been very patient and co-operative in printing letters concerning the Portage-Base Lakes sewer system.

Instead of honest, factual discussion of the issue it seems now that the purpose of the letters is solely to attack and bicker with the opposition.

With this feeling we feel compelled to say "enough is enough." No more letters will be accepted for publication on the sewer issue. Only if some pertinent "news" information becomes available will any such letters be accepted and they will be subject to a 500-word limitation.

PORTAGE AND BASE LAKES SEWER FACT SHEET

In response to the disinformation campaign launched by opponents of the proposed sewer system at Portage and Base Lakes, we offer the following facts regarding the project. Even after the controversy raised by opponents, recent polls of property owners at the lakes indicate three-fourths approval of the project from those responding. Please take the time to review these facts. If you have any further questions, please call me at 426-2598 or 426-3767.

1. What kind of sewer system is this, where will it be located, and who will it serve?

The sewer system is basically a gravity system with lift stations to pump the sewage to the treatment site. The site is a 120-acre parcel located at Dexter-Pinckney and Stinchfield Woods Rd., which the Authority is purchasing. The system replaces approximately 1,200 septic tanks and drainfields of many sizes and varieties, which are located in the water table around the lakes, most of which now discharge into Portage and Base Lakes without proper treatment.

2. How much will the sewer system cost?

Bids for construction are to be received in July 1990, and currently the system is estimated to cost $10.1 million. Each home site in the special assessment district will pay $7,000 spread over 15 years. Users of the system will pay for sewer service, which will help cover capital costs as well as operation, maintenance, and equipment replacement. Property owners will also pay the cost of connecting their house to the sewer.

3. Who will have to pay for the sewer?

Only those people living at Portage and Base Lakes within the Special Assessment district. The first installment of the assessment has been levied and paid by property owners in the district.

4. How long will the system last?

According to Barry Johnson, Washtenaw County Director of Environmental Health, "If properly maintained, 100 years." The latest soil tests conducted by Michigan State University give a conservative estimate of 30 years for phosphorus absorption at the site. This state-of-the-art technology should serve the lakes very well, even beyond the 30 years phosphorus removal capacity, with minor changes in the treatment process.

5. Are there other environmental impacts of concern?

Professor Robert Kadlec of the University of Michigan (Michigan Journal of Environmental Science, after reviewing project plans) stated:

The treatment plant you have proposed is a very good alternative. It will be effective without incurring the extreme costs associated with other "high tech" alternatives. Aerated lagoons are reliable, and the rapid infiltration basins will do a good job... I believe the proposed system is the best possible under the given geographical, economical, and technological circumstances.

Professor Jonathan Bulkley of the University of Michigan School of Natural Resources also reviewed the project for environmental impacts. His recommendations were incorporated into the design.

6. Who else has reviewed the proposed project?

The Michigan DNR has extensively reviewed the project, including the Land and Water Management Division, the Wetland Protection Unit, the Natural Features Inventory, the Surface Water Quality Division, the Municipal Facility Administration, the Ground Water Permit Section, and the Geological Section of the Waste Management Division. All have indicated approval and issued the necessary permits.

Prior to taking over the project, the Washtenaw County Board of Commissioners requested the independent engineering review and financial analysis. Based on these reviews by independent consultants, the County has approved the DPW taking over the project, and by a nine to zero vote of the Board of Commissioners has given faith and credit backing of the County.

7. Is the system going to be at maximum capacity when built?

No. There are vacant parcels in the assessment district and there is capacity in the system for them, as well as contingency capacity for minor system infiltration and summertime increased use.

8. Why didn't we plan for more expansion?

Because the people around the lakes didn't want us to. They expressed fears of turning the lakes area into an urban lake-type area with condo developments and crowded conditions which would ruin the serenity of the area. They wanted a system which would take care of existing problems, allow for minimum growth within the ordinances of the four townships involved, and that is what we gave them. We have listened to the property owners on the lake and have designed the system according to the direction provided by them.

9. Can this system have spills because of excess stormwater?

No, because this is not a combined storm and sanitary sewer system as found in older metropolitan communities. It is a sealed sewer system which will take in no stormwater and minimal ground water, and treatment and pumping facilities are designed to exclude surface runoff. Added protection is provided with redundant treatment units, standby power generators, and portable pumping units.

10. What kind of sewage disposal system is being built and how does it work?

The proposed system of treatment utilizes aerobic lagoons, followed by rapid infiltration basins which will produce tertiary effluent approaching drinking water quality. The system itself will consist of two 5-million-gallon aerated lagoons. The raw wastewater will enter the lagoons where the microbic action will purify the wastewater, converting the objectionable parts of the wastewater to carbon dioxide, water, and inert solids. The renovated water will then be dosed into three sand basins totalling 240,000 square feet. As the water seeps through the sand of the basins, the phosphates and particulate solids, as well as microbic material, are removed. The system is designed such that all renovated water will travel underground to an upper wetland about one-half mile from Little Portage Lake. In fact, the water from the treatment facility will be many times cleaner than that which now flows into the lake from the Portage River.

To the Editor:

We would like to thank the more than 100 Washtenaw county businesses who donated money, prizes and food to the fourth annual "Swing Away for ADA!" golf tournament held at Brookside Golf Course in Saline on June 16. Again more than $7,000 was raised to benefit diabetes research programs including those at the University of Michigan.

The continued support of local businesses and volunteers has raised $24,000 in four years. The benefitting research programs have helped nearly a half million Michigan residents with diabetes to live healthier lives. Our ultimate goal through this fundraiser is to provide money to find a cure for diabetes.

Our sincere appreciation goes out to all the businesses, volunteers and golfers who have made this tournament such a success.

Sally Joy, president
Carol Dick, fund-raising chairperson

To the Editor:

In the recent article in The Dexter Leader titled, "Leader Readers Distressed By Omission in Sewer Reporting," Mr. Drolett stated that the Soil & Wetland experts from MSU had perpetrated a gigantic fraud on the residents of Portage and Base Lakes. Drolett also said that Dr. Gordon Guyer, vice-president for Governmental Affairs at MSU "was notably embarrassed that the professors from MSU have based their letters only on statements from William Gajewski, a sewer opponent."

These false statements from Mr. Drolett were innocuous and lies, conceived by Mr. Drolett, in a last-minute effort to save his job. James Drolett and Doug Smith are scheduled to be recalled Aug. 7, 1990, for the sins they have committed.

In a letter from Gordon Guyer, dated June 27, 1990, president DiBlaggio of MSU asked Gordon Guyer to respond to Ms. Gajewski, regarding Jim Drolett's statements in The Dexter Leader. This letter states: "President DiBlaggio has asked me to respond to your recent letter indicating your concerns relevant to your local sewer project."

"First, let me indicate that we appreciate you sharing this correspondence with us, but I do want to clarify one statement in your letter. I am completely supportive of the involvement of the Michigan State University staff and certainly am not embarrassed but very supportive of both the quality and response of our staff to your local request." Gordon Guyer goes on further to say, "We did not intend that the quality MSU response would be used as a part of the major decision process and certainly we have no interest in involving ourselves in local political issues."

In an attempt to save his job, Mr. Drolett had called upon his fellow political allies, Kirk Profit and Margaret O'Connor, to try to intimidate and put pressure on MSU and the professors, to change their position and to retract their statements. MSU stood firm, they would not retract their statements—and Drolett's political maneuver failed.

The public's perception of politicians is very low, and I can see why... Because if you can call upon a major university and tell them how to think, that's about as intellectually dishonest as anything I know. It's almost like stealing. Telling MSU professors how they are supposed to think what they are supposed to say, and what they are supposed to be involved in—That's wrong!

The professors reiterated to me that their letters of opposition to this project were based on general scientific facts, not on anything I had said. The MSU professors said that MSU is different from U. of M. because Michigan State University is a Land Grant College, and part of their role is providing information to individuals, based on the best knowledge available at the time—to help them make wise decisions. They have no financial ties to this project, and will not benefit or receive any consideration, one way or the other, if this project does or does not materialize. Thus, the purpose of the letters provided by MSU Soil and Wetland experts is for the public's use in making wise decisions, and to avert potential problems from happening.

The MSU professors tried to make this point to MaryAnn Rezka of The Ann Arbor News, but to no avail. Her last two stories have been biased and politically slanted to get people's hackles up, promote lawsuits and create more stories.

Additionally, I would like to point out that three of the four professors did visit the Peach Mountain site. In fact, Dr. Delbert Mokma, a recognized and respected soil expert, is one of the authors of the "Soil Survey of Washtenaw County," literally the "Soil Bible" used in Washtenaw county. Dr. Mokma physically walked the Peach Mountain site, did the soil typing there, and is very familiar with the area.

In the recent referendum on Nov. 8, 1989, the public voted no to the site location, no to using our wetlands to treat sewage! They didn't want their tax money to go for a project that would destroy the wetland community and our lakes. In The Ann Arbor News on Nov. 8, 1989, after the elections, Jim Drolett was quoted as saying: "The voters have spoken and I'm not sure anyone is prepared to go against their wishes." But now he is breaking his word and going against the will of the people.

To restate our position, we have never opposed the construction and development of sewers but are against the site location, and we do not want anybody venting sewage effluent into our wetlands that will impact this wetland community. This sewage treatment project is a fancy way to say that sewage effluent will be dumped into our wetlands.

Man, all plants, and all animals must co-exist in harmony with the land. Using our wetlands to treat sewage and destroying the endangered and threatened plants and animals that are near extinction is morally wrong! We will destroy the crucial fabric, the vital threads that hold our eco-systems together. Whom should we listen to, Jim Drolett who wants to use our wetlands to treat sewage, or President Bush who said, "No more net loss to our wetlands." We only have one earth, let's not destroy it.

What's the biggest problem with driving after drinking?

A. Alcohol affects your judgment, and you can't drive safely and you don't even know it! You need judgment to determine speed of your car and others; to determine distances; to determine passing times; to judge when to turn; and to know when to stop.

Entering Manure Pit Can Be Fatal to Anyone

On July 28, 1989, five Michigan farmers died after consecutively entering a manure pit on their farm. The pit measured 20 by 24 feet and was 10 feet deep. The victims were a 65-year-old dairy farmer, his two sons aged 37 and 28, a 15-year-old grandson, and a 63-year-old nephew.

The younger son initially entered the pit to replace a shear pin on an agitator shaft. While attempting to climb out of the pit, the initial victim was overcome and fell to the bottom. The grandson then entered the pit to attempt a rescue. He, too, was overcome and collapsed. The nephew, the older son, and the dairy farmer then entered the pit one at a time, attempting to rescue those already overcome. Each was overcome and collapsed in turn.

A carpet installer working at the farmhouse then entered the pit to attempt a rescue. He, too, was overcome but was rescued by his assistant and subsequently recovered. Finally, the owner of a local farm implement business arrived on the scene with two of his workers and, using a rope, extricated the five victims from the pit. When the local emergency rescue squad arrived on the scene approximately 20 minutes after the incident, they immediately began cardiopulmonary resuscitation. The nephew was pronounced dead at the scene. The remaining four victims were transported to the local hospital. The farmer and his younger son were pronounced dead on arrival, and the older son died an hour after reaching the emergency room. The grandson was transferred to a major trauma center by helicopter, but he died approximately six hours after his removal from the pit.

Reports of the medical examiner cite methane asphyxiation as the cause of death for those five victims. The National Institute for Occupational Safety and Health (NIOSH) used this case in a recent alert requesting assistance in preventing deaths of farm workers in manure pits. The agency believes that many farm workers are unaware of the immediate danger posed by entry into manure pits, where the decomposition of waste that occurs can create oxygen-deficient, toxic, and/or explosive atmospheres. The anaerobic bacterial action that breaks down the manure can generate methane, hydrogen sulfide, carbon dioxide, and ammonia. NIOSH is concerned that because farmers may have entered pits on numerous occasions without problems, they may feel safe about entering them again, and the result could be death. The agency issues the following recommendations:

1. All manure pits should be ventilated.
 2. The atmosphere within the pit should be tested before entry. If an oxygen-deficient or toxic atmosphere is detected, a positive-pressure, self-contained breathing apparatus should be used by the individual entering the pit.
 3. A standby person should be in constant contact and be ready to lift the worker to safety with mechanical lifting equipment (winch, hoist or pulley). This standby person must be physically capable of using the mechanical device to lift an unconscious victim from the pit without entering it.
 4. Anyone entering a manure pit should wear a safety belt or harness with a lifeline tied to the mechanical lifting equipment.
 5. Never enter a manure pit to attempt a rescue without proper respiratory protection. Instead, call the local fire department or rescue squad immediately. They have the training and equipment needed to accomplish such a rescue without endangering other lives.
 6. Resolve all details of the rescue plan, including availability of rescue equipment, before anyone enters the pit.
 7. Fit all openings to manure pits with substantial metal grill covers to provide some natural ventilation and to prevent accidental falls into the pits. Remember, however, that natural ventilation alone cannot maintain a safe atmosphere within the pit. Powered ventilation must be used before anyone enters the manure pit.
 8. Eliminate the need for entry into the pit by providing access to all serviceable parts (shear pins, cleanouts, etc.) from the outside.
 9. Post hazard signs at all openings of all manure pits.
- To prevent fatalities in manure pits, NIOSH urges farm owners and operators who have them on their property to be sure that all family members and other farm workers are aware of the life-saving precautions that should be taken.

BRENDA HOELZER of Chelsea has been named branch administrative manager at Society Bank's Plymouth Rd. office. She will be responsible for the daily operation of the branch. Nature Walks Will Be Offered At Hudson Mills

Several nature events will be held at the Huron-Clinton Metroparks during the period of July 21 through July 22.

Two nature events will be held at Hudson Mills Metropark near Dexter. "Summer Bird Walk," an early morning walk in search of tanagers, towhees, buntings, and bluebirds, will be held Saturday, July 21 at 7:30 a.m. Participants should meet at Oak Meadows Picnic Area.

"Nature's Nook—Evergreen Adventure," an opportunity for children, ages six and older, to explore a small pine forest, will be held Saturday, July 21 at 11 a.m. Participants should meet at the Activity Center.

Most programs are "free," some may have a nominal charge and advance registration and a vehicle entry permit are required. For information/registration—contact the Huron-Clinton Metroparks, phone 1-800-47-PARK (toll-free).

"I'M THE BOSS, I makes all the important decisions around here." Mamma Yokum (Kate Peckham) tells a fearful, but respectful Pappy Yokum (Thad Bell) during the Chelsea Area Players' summer musical, "L'Abner," which opens for a two-week-end run at the Chelsea High school auditorium on July 20. Reserved seating tickets are on sale at Casual Sports, 103 N. Main, Chelsea. An afternoon matinee will be presented on Sunday, July 22.

LIKE FATHER, LIKE SON! L'Abner (Tim Lovelace), center, tells Pappy Yokum (Thad Bell) that he wants to be just like him as Pansy "Mamma" Yokum (Kate Peckham) looks on with smiling approval. Tickets for the Chelsea Area Players musical comedy, "L'Abner," are on sale at Casual Sports, 103 N. Main, Chelsea. Production dates for "Abner" are July 20, 21, 22, 27, and 28 at the Chelsea High school auditorium.

MY WALLET

By Erika Cwik—Kindergarten

My wallet has six pockets. One is for coins and one is for dollar bills. I have credit cards in one, and they are for Pepsi and doctors. The others are plain pockets, and that means there's nothing in them. I take it with me on special days, maybe when I buy a present for someone.

MY CAT SHEENA

By Carrie Helmer—Kindergarten

I like to play with Sheena. We play with string. I have had her for a long time. She is old, but she likes to play. She sleeps on my bed, and she gets me up early. I give her cat food and water. She's grayish, blackish. She scratches on the furniture and Mom doesn't care. She sits on my lap and purrs.

WHEN I GROW UP . . .

By Ian Gleason—Kindergarten

When I grow up I want to be a veterinarian. My favorite animal is a snake. I also like cheetas and a moose.

WHEN I GROW UP . . .

By Jessica Ferraro—A.M., Kindergarten

When I grow up, I'm going to be a firewoman. I will put out fires. I'm going to tell my dad to help me. And he will help me work. My mom and dad and Alexis will be there.

GRANDMA MILLER

By Emely Noye—A.M., Kindergarten

I like to visit Grandma Miller. She lives in North Carolina. When we are in the pool, the train goes past sometimes and hurts our ears. I like to fly there in an airplane. It is huge. I like to stay in a hotel over-night. Grandma and Mom make good pizza. Mom likes to help Grandma.

IF I HAD A WISH

By Chris Strahler—Kindergarten

If I could have my wish I'd wish for every dinosaur. I would play with them. I'd slide down his tail.

IF I COULD FLY

By Ben Vogel—First Grade

I would go to the Bahamas. I would go swimming. I would also like to go to New York. There is a toy shop in New York with lots of neat toys!

THE DAY MY CAT ATE A BONE

By Shane Young—First Grade

I have a cat named Kelly. Her fur is very black and fluffy. She likes me and I love her so much. Kelly likes to eat and play with us. One day I was eating some chicken, and I thought maybe Kelly our cat would like a drumstick. My Grandma said not to feed the cat from the table, because this would create bad manners. It was too late. I never saw such an appetite. I know that Kelly is well fed, but to look at her eat that drumstick, you'd be fooled! I expected Kelly to eat around the bone, but suddenly I heard a crunching sound. Sure enough, Kelly was eating the whole drumstick! I didn't know Kelly was part dog!

EARTH AND SATURN

By Jessica Inwood—Second Grade

Once the Earth said to Saturn, "Can you come to my house?" Saturn said "I can't, I wish I could, but I can't." Then Saturn said "Can you come to my house?" Earth said, "I'll try." He tried and he got over there and Saturn's ring fell off. "Oh, Oh? My ring fell off." Saturn reached down to get it and he fell into earth. "Oh, No. I," said Saturn. Earth fell into Saturn and it kept going on. Then earth said, "Saturn, I'll pull you out, OK?" And it worked and they have been in the right place ever since.

A PLACE TO GO

By David Hamilton—Second Grade

I wish I had a place to go. That had a little bit of snow. Then I could play outside in it, because it had a little bit of snow in it.

THE FABLE OF THE DRAGON IN THE FOREST

By Erik Strahler—Third Grade

There was once a dragon who killed and ate anybody who tried to chop a tree down in the forest he lived in. One day an old man told his oldest son to go get firewood for the stove. The oldest son complained since he did not like work. But finally he took the smallest axe in the house and went into the forest. He found a very tall and skinny tree and began to chop down the tree. On the sixteenth chop the dragon who guarded the trees in the forest jumped out of his cave and said "I'm going to eat you if you come into the forest again!" The oldest son was so scared he didn't look where he was going and tripped over a rock and his axe went flying into a stack of woodchips. The dragon captured him and stuck him into a prison for an after dinner snack. The same thing happened to the second oldest son. But the dragon said to the second oldest son, "Now I am going to eat you!" Then the youngest son went back into the forest with a short sword to kill the dragon and rescue his brothers. He walked and walked and finally came to the dragon's cave. He went in and said, "Hi Mr. Dragon!" All the dragon did was say, "Ahh! Another tasty morsel! Mm, Mm good!" Then the youngest son said, "Hey, do you think I'm a wimp?" And at that very moment he struck the dragon's head off with his sword. He then rescued his brothers and they all went home.

The moral of the story is: Never think someone else is wimpy just because they are the youngest.

MY FARM

By Corone Wildey—Third Grade

This takes place in the western part of Vermont. It's a middle-sized farm with 50 acres. My house is light blue with a red metal roof and red shutters. There are pretty flowers by the door. The house is between two mountains. I grow all sorts of crops, like corn, hay, most vegetables, and oats. I also have apple trees and peach trees. I raise a lot of animals. The animals are horses, calves, chickens, cats, dogs, sheep and pigs. I also have cows and calves. There is this pretty cliff that is a butterscotch color—there is a river that runs through my farm. I have a bridge by the waterfall. On the other side of the bridge is a storage barn for the tools and the animals food. My favorite job on the farm is to empty the sap buckets from the maple trees.

THE ADVENTURE

By Ryan Cook—Third Grade

One day, I went to scuba diving class. Today, we were having a contest for the person who could find the most money in treasures! The leader said it was a piece of gold from the Titanic with the initials R. C. Jr. (standing for Ronald Carn, Jr.). Then I went off to the Pacific Ocean.

I was about 5,000 feet down when I saw a friendly shark. I rode on his back to the middle of the ocean.

I was looking around when something big with suction cups got me! Lucky for me, it was a friendly octopus.

I asked him where the Titanic was and he took me there. I took the gold.

He asked me where I was taking it. I said that I was going to enter it in a contest.

He said, "O.K., as long as you bring it back."

I showed it to the leader. He gave me first prize. Then I gave the gold back to the octopus and we went home.

What an adventure!

A BOY WHO FOUND A LEPRECHAUN

By Katie Harper—Third Grade

One day on St. Patrick's Day, a boy named Pat was trying to find a leprechaun. He looked and looked but could not find one. Finally, he gave up. Then he saw a little green thing move. He thought it just was a frog, but when he looked again, it was a . . . he didn't know what to say. He started jumping. Pat looked down and there it was . . . a leprechaun!!! He touched it but did not feel anything. Was he just seeing things? No, Pat touched it again. This time he felt it! Pat didn't know what was going on. He took the leprechaun to show his mom, but when Pat got to his house, the leprechaun was not in his hand! Pat told his mom, but his mom did not believe him. Pat went into his room. The leprechaun appeared. Pat said, "What is your name?"

The leprechaun said, "My name is Sat."

"Why did you disappear when my mom was by you?" asked Pat.

"I don't know," said Sat.

"Now you must go meet her," said Pat.

So Sat and Pat went into the kitchen and Sat met Pat's mom. They found out that Sat lost his mom and dad so Sat and Pat and Pat's mom lived happily ever after.

BALING HAY

By Josh Powers—Fourth Grade

One day when I was five, I was out by the barn with my dad. My dad asked me if I wanted to help him bale hay. I said, "Can I really?" He said, "Yes, if you help me finish the chores." So I helped him finish the chores. Then we hooked the baler to the tractor. After that, we hooked a wagon to the baler. Then we went to the field. We started to bale hay. When one wagon was full, we hooked up another one and started to bale again. When all three wagons were full, we put up the elevator and started to unload. Then we baled again, and when it was dark, we stopped. When we were done, I felt tired, but happy.

LOST IN THE FOREST

By Amanda Warren—Fourth Grade

I was playing catch with a ball in my backyard. I missed the ball and it rolled into a forest. I went chasing after it. Suddenly I got out of the forest and the ball started to slow down; then it came to a stop. I came to a stop. A spooky cabin appeared in the damp mist with gloomy clouds above in the sky. I slowly walked a little bit closer. I got up on the creaky wooden stairs that led to the front door. I reached for the doorknob to open the door when, all of a sudden, the door swung open. A spider web hung just inside the door. I was walking around looking all over and the whole room felt dusty and gloomy. While I was looking around, I saw a ghost. I ran outside, picked up my ball, and ran as fast as I could through the forest. And now if my ball rolls in the forest, I just go get another one.

IF I WERE PRESIDENT

By Leta Hallett—Fourth Grade

If I were President of the United States, I would first go to my hometown and PARTY! Then after we got done partying, I would get serious and help people that were poor. I would also try to make the black people free in all the places I could! And after I did that, I would lower taxes and have fun! I would send food to the people who were starving. I would also try to stop the wars and drugs. I would also have the White House redecorated! And after that I would have a program that helps children that don't learn as fast as other children. I would also make a law that if you own a business and want to hire someone, you can't judge them by what they look like. I would also say that where ever you go, what ever you do, treat others as you would have them treat you.

HOW TO FAKE SICK

By Michelle Lucas—Fifth Grade

How to fake sick is one thing all normal kids want to know how to do.

For this first excuse, you need a hot-hot food (like a potato just coming out of the oven) a thermometer, a red marker, and a hot, wet washcloth.

Now, to get started. First you have to cook a very hot food. Next, you stick the thermometer in the food for about 5 to 10 minutes. Next, take your red magic marker and put red dots all over your skin. After that, wet a washcloth with hot water, lay it on your forehead and cheeks for about 1.5 minutes. Then remove the cloth.

Now, go tell a grown-up you don't feel well. Show them the red dots. They'll feel your head and cheeks (you'll be hot). Then they'll ask you to get the thermometer. (Get it out of the hot food) You'll have a high temperature . . . and you're home for the day.

Card of Thanks 19

CARD OF THANKS The family of Edith R. White would like to thank her many friends and neighbors for their cards, flowers, food, donations and prayers during her illness and passing. A special thank you to all the nurses and staff of the Chelsea Community Hospital and CCU as well as the concern of the Hospital Volunteers. Words cannot express our thanks to Dr. Charles Krause and the Rev. Jerry Parker for their personal attention and care during her illness. A special thanks to Don and Linda Cole for the personal attention given to the family. The family of Edith R. White: Mildred Titus, Vera Brierton, Richard White, Barbara Clark, Audrey Patterson, Nancy Harris.

THANK YOU We wish we could thank all of our relatives, friends and neighbors personally for the many 50th anniversary cards we received, also for the many get-well cards Harvey received during his recent illness. Our thanks to the doctors and nurses of Chelsea Hospital and St. Joseph Mercy Hospital. Our thanks to Father Dupuis. It is nice to be citizens of a friendly and thoughtful community like Chelsea. Thank you. Harvey and Katherine Lixey.

THANK YOU Many thanks to my relatives and friends for the cards, plants and food received by me while in the hospital and since my return home. Genevieve Wahl.

Memorial 20

HELEN FRENCH— In memory of Helen French who passed away four years ago on July 7. Sadly missed by her family.

Thank Thee Lord For my first cup of coffee For the herbs and spices That enhance every meal For the fruits in the garden The wheat in the fields For the sun, the moon The rain and the stars For the babbling brook The songs played on a guitar For the lovely seasons And the sky so blue But most of all Because I have you.

In Memory of Bill O'Dell— I think of you when the wind is still and sunlight kisses my cheek. I think of you when marshmallow clouds in the sky are at their peak. I hear your voice in the summer breeze skipping across the lawn. I feel your presence everyday you're just away, not gone. Your Family.

Legal Notice 21

MORTGAGE SALE—Default having been made in the terms and conditions of a certain mortgage made by MARK D. HOLLY and TERESA A. HOLLY, his wife, mortgagee, to STANDARD FEDERAL BANK, a federal savings bank, Mortgagee, dated September 5, 1978, and recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds for the County of Washtenaw and State of Michigan on September 19, 1978, in Liber 1672, on Page 811, of Washtenaw County Records, on which mortgage there is claimed to be due at the date of this notice, for principal and interest, the sum of Forty Thousand Five Hundred Fifty-Three and 37/100 ($40,553.37) Dollars. And no suit or proceedings at law or in equity having been instituted to recover the debt secured by said mortgage or any part thereof. Now, therefore, by virtue of the power of sale contained in said mortgage, and pursuant to the statute of the State of Michigan in such case made and provided, notice is hereby given that on Thursday, July 12, 1990, at ten o'clock, a.m., local time, said mortgage will be foreclosed by a public sale at public auction to the highest bidder, at the West entrance to the Washtenaw County Building, in the City of Ann Arbor, Washtenaw County, Michigan (that being the building where the Circuit Court for the County of Washtenaw is held) the premises described in said mortgage, or so much thereof as may be necessary to pay the amount due, as aforesaid, on said mortgage, with the interest thereon at ten point two five percent (10.25%) per annum and all legal charges and expenses, including the attorney fees allowed by law, and also any sum or sums which may be paid by the undersigned, necessary to protect its interest in the premises, which said premises are described as follows: All that certain piece or parcel of land situate in the Township of Augusta, in the County of Washtenaw, and State of Michigan, and described as follows: Commencing at the Northwest corner of Section 11, Augusta Township, thence East 834.02 feet in the North line of the section for a place of beginning; thence South 383 feet; thence East 123.03 feet; thence North 383 feet; thence West 123.03 feet in the North line of the section to the place of beginning, being part of the Northwest 1/4 of Section 11, Town 4 South, Range 7 East, Augusta Township, Washtenaw County, Michigan. During the six months immediately following the sale, the property may be redeemed except in the event that the property is determined to be abandoned pursuant to MCLA 600.3241a, the property may be redeemed during the 30 days immediately following the sale. Dated: May 16, 1990. STANDARD FEDERAL BANK, a federal savings bank, Mortgagee.

Farm Bureau Supports Capital Gains Bill Farm Bureau has thrown its support behind a bipartisan proposal which is expected to become the focal point for capital gains debate later this year. Al Army, director of public affairs for the Michigan Farm Bureau, said the organization is seeking co-sponsors for the Kasten-Mack-Shelby bill, S. 2744. "We support reinstatement of capital gains for several reasons," Army said. "Capital gains treatment will stimulate economic growth by reducing the cost of capital and encouraging investment, and economic growth is essential to agriculture. Capital gains is also essential for farmers who sell their farms after years in farming and are suddenly faced with inflationary, rather than real, gain. This is particularly important for those who sell their property to finance retirement. "Also, farmers who own timber stands are faced with years of no income and great expense as they wait for the development of their asset. Capital gains treatment is important to them in the reduction of their overall tax burden," he said.

'Renaissance' Started At Manchester High

Last October, a program to promote academic excellence at Manchester High school was initiated. The program theme was "Renaissance: A New Commitment to Excellence in Education." High school principal Rod Morrison attended a Renaissance conference and instituted the program at MHS during the first semester.

"Renaissance is a program that helps high schools in America promote and achieve academic excellence," said Principal Morrison. "We were one of 21 high schools in Michigan incorporating Renaissance this year; our goal is to share ideas and information on specific recognition programs in an effort to make school a meaningful learning experience."

Promoting academic excellence isn't new, but traditionally, academic achievers get little more than a pat on the back. Consequently, Renaissance attempts to recognize these students with positive, tangible incentives that encourage all students to do better in school. Renaissance describes an effort to motivate all students to strive for academic excellence.

Another important part of Renaissance is the recognition of faculty members. After all, dedicated teachers promote positive attitudes and high academic achievement with their students. An outstanding faculty is the cornerstone of any outstanding school.

The Renaissance program is sponsored by the Jostens Learning Corp. The name Renaissance was chosen simply because of its definition: rebirth, renovation, restoration, refurbishment, and renewal.

Several strategies were used during 1989-90 to recognize and promote students and faculty. A summary of these strategies include:

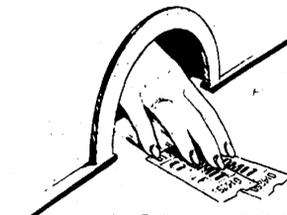

- Bumper stickers for honor students/parents,
- "Academic Express" Gold Cards for all A status,
- Golden Apple awards for faculty members: (trophy, lapel pin, permanent plaque, reserved parking space, professional journal subscription),
- Business cards for faculty members,
- Success Team plaques,
- Annual plaque for display of Golden Apple recipients,
- Motivational posters,
- "Academic Hall of Fame" for top student honors,
- Academic showcases for display of academic honors,
- Golden Attitude pins and cards,
- Annual Teacher Day Recognition breakfast.

All of these efforts come under the theme or umbrella of Renaissance.

A Renaissance Board of Directors has been established to manage this comprehensive program and develop new strategies to reward excellence. The Board of Directors for 1990-91 includes Jim Fielder, Phyllis Heinrich, Jim Diedrich, and Charlene Henderson.

"Every effort will be made to continue to emphasize academic excellence and build on the positives while attempting to minimize negative experiences for MHS students. Renaissance is a new commitment to excellence in education," Morrison emphasized.

"ON GOLDEN POND"

Marshall-In the Pritchard Production at Turkeyville, "On Golden Pond" reminds us that Ernest Thompson's play is indeed one of subtle dramatic power. "On Golden Pond" is a woven treatise of tender affection of a time and place at the beginning of the 20th Century.

Our lucid observation is opined by the vivid imagination and most descriptive writing of Playwright Thompson; reflecting one summer's events in the life of his grandparents. Golden Pond, festooned with loons, furnishes a setting for our invasion of a memorable peek at the summer residents-The Thayers, Thompson's grandparents-around 1903.

David Pritchard's production deserves a "seeing" for three basic reasons: (1) Gregory Checkett's set fits nicely into the conception of hominess expressed through the interior of the furnished lodge; (2) "On Golden Pond" deserves to be produced again and again; and (3) the brilliance and intelligent perception brought to the role of Norman Thayer by David Karsten leaves one aghast with his believability.

Norman Thayer, a retired professor, is haunted by approaching death and searches frantically to delay the utmost in finality. Looking for ads in the local newspaper for his employment; the delay of jobs around the cabin to be done... left undone will ensure his presence tomorrow; and then in a god-given happening the arrival of his "nephew," a welcome renewal of youth.

When Billy Ray arrives with his dentist father, Billy and Norman speak on the same level, both intent on living to the utmost. Rather than becoming arch enemies of misunderstanding, Billy and Norman, for their individual purposes, become good friends, with Norman even developing current teen talk in his new perception of himself.

Norman's verbal duel between himself and death creates a focal point for all interaction within the story.

Selected as one of the 10 best plays of 1979-1980, "On Golden Pond" competed with "Elephant Man" and "Sweetie Todd," both of which won Tonys and New York Drama Awards and "Buried Child" which received the Pulitzer. Perhaps the "calmness" of Pond failed to incite the excitement of the judges for an award; one which was more than deserved.

Norman Thayer, Jr. (David Karsten) arrives at their summer lodge on a lake in Maine. Ethel Thayer (Gail Betts-Trader), his wife and mainstay, prepare the cabin for summer living as Norman mumbles through the cabin physically. Charlie Martin (David Poirier), the local mailman, at one time worshipped their daughter, Chelsea Thayer Wayne (Mary L. Pettit).

Arriving unexpectedly early, daughter Chelsea informs her parents that she is going to Europe with Bill Ray (Richard Gibson), a successful San Francisco dentist. Her bombshell is the leaving of teenage, Billy Ray (Brandon Whitesell) with them during their European sojourn.

Billy Ray and Norman become great companions, their interlocking eras of age and experience meshing together into our comedic enjoyment. Upon Chelsea's return with her lover, now husband, Bill Ray, the stage is set for a last look at reflections of the summer.

In packing for their return to the city, Norman suddenly has a heart attack, perhaps a prediction of the future for these two oldsters who may come back to Golden Pond next year; or perhaps they may not.

The play and David Karsten hold together into an evening of comedic interpretation of characters. Lack of proper direction by Paul Gregory Nelson is evident throughout and the performance of the cast fails to catch the fervor of this great stage vehicle, "On Golden Pond."

However, "On Golden Pond" should be seen. You may do so by calling 816-781-4315 for information and tickets. Performances are at 2 p.m. on Wednesday and Thursdays and evening performances at 8 on Friday and Saturday evenings. Dinner turkey buffet and all the trimmings is available at Cornwell's Turkey Farm each evening.

The Bill Matthews Family

Christian Fellowship Names Bill Matthews New Pastor

Chelsea Christian Fellowship at 337 Wilkinson St., has invited William Matthews to become their pastor, beginning Aug. 1.

Bill attended North Central Bible College in Minneapolis, Minn. He was granted credentials with the Assemblies of God in 1984. His ministerial experience has included serving on church boards and portfolios. Bill and Mary have made two missionary trips to Haiti, and more recently have been conducting tent revivals.

Bill Matthews has made his living by selling and managing at car dealerships before going into the ministry full time. His father owned a car dealership since Bill was four years old.

Bill and Mary have six children. Chelsea, who is 18, will be going to North Central Bible College in the fall and will be majoring in missions. Rachel is 16, Billy is 13, Mindy is 12, Andrew is 9, and Emily is 7.

The Matthews are looking forward to starting their pastorate and getting acquainted with the people of Chelsea.

N. Lake Methodist Church Adds Early Sunday Service

North Lake United Methodist church, 14111 North Territorial Rd., has added an early worship service for the summer at 8 a.m.

The service will be relaxed and informal. Hymn singing will be accompanied by guitar or piano. The service is especially designed for people who like to worship early on summer mornings. Persons on their way to the lake or the golf course are welcome to come as they are.

North Lake United Methodist church is a small, historic church in a country setting. The pastor is the Rev. Sondra Willobee.

For further information, call the pastor's office at 475-9348.

Your best friend is choking, and all you can hear is your own heart pounding.
