TWO INJURED PEOPLE WERE TRANSPORTED, both in critical condition, early Thursday afternoon, Aug. 2, from a crash scene on Hankerd Rd., two miles north of Rainbow and barely within the limits of Washtenaw county, by Survival Flight to University of Michigan Hospital, Ann Arbor. The driver, Beverly Jane Kunkle, 36, of Garden City, and her passenger, Robert Steele, 27, of Dearborn Heights, had left the state park grounds at Half Moon Lake just prior to the crash. Deputy Gerald Haeussler from the traffic division, Washtenaw County Sheriff's Department, stated in his report, the driver was traveling northbound on Hankerd Rd. at a high rate of speed, when the vehicle she was driving crossed the center line, and continued a distance, then crashed head-on into a tree. Fire rescue workers from the Chelsea Fire Department used the Jaws of Life to extricate the driver. Hospital authorities reported both victims in stable condition by the week-end. Haeussler's report stated neither person had a properly engaged safety belt, and alcohol was factor in the crash.

School District Hears Options for Facilities At Elementaries, CHS

A consultant has suggested several options the Chelsea School District might want to consider as it tries to decide how to accommodate a growing student population.

Kingscott & Associates made their presentation to the Board of Education last Monday, July 16.

The district, which is quickly running out of space at both North and South Elementary schools, built in 1953 and 1951, respectively, is trying to decide the best way to handle the growth. The decision is complicated by several factors, including district philosophy on school size, outdated plumbing and wiring in both schools, and whether or not Chelsea High School should also get a makeover.

The suggestions ranged from adding space at both North and South schools, to constructing a new elementary school or high school, to completing major renovation work at the high school. None of the options involved work at Beach Middle School.

"They're all just options at this point," said superintendent Joe Piasecki.

"We hope it will all come together in the next six months so that we can have some specific proposals. Of all the things a school district does, this job is one of the hardest because it involves a lot of money and it's based on future projections that may or may not come true."

In one option, South and North schools would each get four new classrooms as well as a new full-size gymnasium, complete with a small stage. However, the gyms are tentatively located where parking lots now sit, so parking problems would have to be addressed as well.

"Even if we do nothing in the way of additions to the schools, we're going to need a lot of money for plumbing and electrical work," Piasecki said.

"For example, many of the rooms only have two plugs, which is simply not enough when you're talking about using computers and other things."

A second option has the district building a third elementary school, probably on 33 acres behind the bus garage.

North and South Elementary schools each have between 530 and 540 students and enrollment is projected to rise to about 560 students each by 1995.

Piasecki said research has shown that the ideal size of an elementary school is about 450 students when it comes to utilizing the cafeteria, playground space, and other factors.

"Our architect has problems recommending that we spend $4.5 to $5 million on a new elementary building if you go strictly by the numbers," Piasecki said.

"However, the board may feel the schools are simply too big."

Should the district decide to build a new high school, and perhaps converting part of it for elementary classrooms, it would be left with the problem of what to do with the current one.

"I don't think the community would go for building a new high school if the old one was just going to be abandoned," Piasecki said.

The suggestion that Piasecki called "the most radical one," included an extensive remodeling project at the high school, which would include building a kindergarten center for the whole district near the intersection of the driveway and Washington St. By taking the sections of kindergarten away from the elementary schools, no additions would have to be made at North and South schools.

The renovation would also include enclosing the open walkways, some in glass, and some so lockers could be added, essentially making the high school an interconnected series of buildings. It was also proposed that a Counseling and Support Services Center be put in place of the current locker area.

Chelsea High school is one of three in the state that were built using the campus design, Piasecki said. The other two schools have since undergone major renovations, leaving CHS unique in the state.

Piasecki said he likes the idea of enclosing the breezeway and adding lockers because many students now wear their coats all day during the winter, plus many carry all of their books all day.

One space problem the high school has to deal with is due to the growing interest in orchestra. This year, Piasecki said, the orchestra may have to hold class on the auditorium stage.

A proposed solution is to renovate the high school auto shop, which is no longer being used for that purpose.

"Interest in industrial arts in Chelsea is way down," Piasecki said. "Whatever we do may involve the industrial arts building."

A fairly immediate space problem will also occur at South school in 1991-92 when one section each of first and fifth grade are added.

"We have to decide where we are going to put those kids," Piasecki said.

"There is the possibility of using some portable classrooms or putting some classes on a cart, like music and art." That would mean art and music teachers would go to each room rather than having their own rooms.

Another issue, Piasecki said, is "outdoor space," specifically ball diamonds and perhaps expansion of the seating at the football field.

"If we're going to go with a bond issue, let's do it right," he said.

Landfill Negotiations Continue Without Lima

Lima township, concerned about its lack of timely information, has apparently decided to go on its own in regard to working out an agreement with the village concerning the village landfill.

Interim supervisor Carol Steffenson said the township will seek its own legal counsel and work out its own agreement separate from Dexter, Sylvan, and Lyndon townships.

The townships were originally requested in February by the village to share in the cost of closing out the old landfill, as well as engineering costs associated with groundwater testing and contamination, about $550,000. Shares were based on records of each township's use of the facility. Lima's share was 12 percent or $66,000. However, the total has swelled to more than $700,000 and promises to go higher as the village begins to implement landfill clean-up measures.

After the village made its request, the townships secured legal counsel as a group and have worked on their own proposal.

Steffenson said the township was essentially forced from the group by a combination of a lack of information and tight time constraints. She said the circumstances would have forced the township to enter the agreement in the dark, which is unacceptable to the township board.

Lima's situation was created, Steffenson said, by the resignation of Leila Bauer as supervisor, which left the township without a supervisor and without official representation at the group township meetings.

Steffenson said after her appointment she had to try to get up to speed quickly on the situation, which left the township little time to consider the proposal hammered out by the other townships. She said suggested amendments proposed by Lima township were rejected by the other three. The group put a deadline on changes to the agreement because it wants to get the matter resolved.

"The agreement didn't come up until our (July) township meeting," Steffenson said.

"We had to decide if we wanted to come into the agreement with things as they were. We're not comfortable with the present situation."

At Monday night's township board meeting, Steffenson discussed the situation at length and described a situation of extreme miscommunication between Lima township and the other townships, and the townships' legal counsel.

Steffenson said the township has not been informed of strategy meetings, and recently received a letter from the village's attorney stating that the township had until yesterday to respond to the village's "settlement offer." Steffenson said the township has had no communication regarding any settlement offer and has no idea what might be in it.

In addition, the three townships have formed a communications agreement in which all legal correspondence on the matter is funneled to the other supervisors through Sylvan supervisor Don Schoenberg. Steffenson said that when it became apparent that Lima township was poorly informed, she offered to have the township pay for an extra briefing meeting by the group's attorneys. However, that plan was nixed by the group as well.

"We're in an untenable position," Steffenson said.

"We're not taking a stance of deliberate non co-operation. We need timely updates and we're simply asking for all information to be shared."

Steffenson said she was told by Schoenberg not to discuss the matter directly with the village.

Schoenberg said the group had to put a deadline on changes to the agreement and that "we already changed the agreement once to satisfy (Steffenson)." He said he tried to convince Steffenson that it was in Lima township's best interest to stay with the group.

"Lima township does not want to settle this matter in court," Steffenson said.

"We need to talk to the village about what we are able to do."

Village council was scheduled to discuss the landfill cost sharing arrangement in executive session last night.

Early Enrollment Urged For Pupils New to School

Beach Middle School's 1990-91 school year will begin for sixth, seventh and eighth graders on Aug. 27.

Sixth grade students should plan to report directly to the school cafeteria, where they will be introduced to their first-hour teachers who will, in turn, escort them to their classrooms.

Seventh and eighth grade students will pick up their class schedules and then report to their first-hour classes.

Students should plan to arrive at school between 8:10 and 8:25 a.m. First hour classes will begin at 8:30 a.m.

Families new to the Chelsea School District may wish to enroll their middle school students prior to Aug. 27 school opening. Jean Mann, Beach

Middle school counselor, will be available on Aug. 15 and 16, from 9 a.m. until 11 a.m. and from 1 p.m. until 3 p.m. to enroll new students. Parents who wish to make appointments with Mrs. Mann may call 475-9131 and talk to Diane.

All new entrants must comply with Michigan law regarding immunizations, and must provide the school with a record verifying that proper vaccines have been obtained.

The Middle school principal will review the Parent/Student Handbook with students on Aug. 27 and 28. A copy of the handbook will be sent home with students. Parents are encouraged to review this document to acquaint themselves with policies and operational procedures at Beach school.

DEBORAH KUEHN spent her first day on the job as the Village of Chelsea's new assistant manager Monday. Kuehn, a former planner in Jackson and Toledo, will handle many of the planning functions of the village. Above, she's pictured with her new boss, manager Robert Stalker.

Price Hikes Hit Local Gas Stations

Have you been to a gasoline pump lately?

Due to tensions in the Middle East involving Iraq, Kuwait, and possible U.S. intervention, the price of gasoline locally has increased more than 20 cents per gallon since Monday and about 23 cents in the last week, according to one retailer. A station that a week ago was selling regular unleaded gasoline for about $1.03 per gallon had a price Tuesday of $1.26.

Lima Planners Re-Appointed Over Objections of Township Supervisor

Four members of the Lima Township Planning Commission, who were informed they were re-appointed illegally in May, got their jobs back Monday night despite a reluctant township supervisor.

The four include long-time member and chairman David Bacon, Keith Bradbury, Charles Trinkle, and Harriet Hamilton. They recently received memos from interim township supervisor Carol Steffenson that she had been informed by legal counsel that their May 9 appointments were invalid.

The memo did not say why the appointments were invalid.

However, Steffenson said the four were appointed illegally because at the time of the appointment there was no official township supervisor. According to law, planning commission members are appointed by the supervisor and confirmed by the township board.

Former township supervisor Leila Bauer resigned May 1 and Steffenson didn't become interim supervisor until more than a month later. Steffenson is also a member of the planning commission.

Steffenson said she became aware of the problem after attorney John Etter of Ann Arbor scanned the township minutes concerning another matter and noticed the improper procedure.

Initially, Steffenson wouldn't say how she planned to clear up the problem. She refused to say whether she would re-appoint the four. Her memo to the commissioners indicated that the Aug. 14 meeting would have to be cancelled as there were only four official members of the commission.

Monday night she was still reluctant to appoint anyone to keep the planning commission functioning. Eventually she agreed to re-appoint Charles Trinkle, but hold off on any other appointments. She cited "legal entanglements" with Reddeman Farms Golf Course, as well as sensitivity to the wishes of the new supervisor, who will be elected officially in November.

However, after a discussion which included audience members, trustee Robert Heller said he thought there ought to be a good reason not to re-appoint all members. He also said the legal problems with the golf course would still be around no matter what happened with the planning commission. Steffenson suggested an executive session to discuss "legal aspects" of the situation, but Heller said he wasn't in favor of it considering it was almost midnight.

After an informal poll of the board, Steffenson agreed to re-appoint all members and added that "there was no malfeasance" on the part of any of the re-appointed commissioners.

Steffenson didn't offer a clear connection between the planning commission appointments and the golf course legal problems.

However, the legal problems were discussed and it was apparent there is considerable disagreement between Bacon and Steffenson on the matter.

The township has been locked in a dispute with Reddeman Farms Golf Course developers concerning several matters related to the approval of their site plans.

The course, which developer Bob Luhhouse said will open for golf only on Friday, Aug. 17, has been built at the corner of Dancer and Jerusalem Rds. However, the clubhouse/restaurant and parking lot have not been constructed due to the disagreements.

Criminal charges were sought against Federal Screw Works of Chelsea for dumping several hundred gallons of oil into Letts Creek, according to Department of Natural Resources officials. The dumping occurred July 20, according to Craig Wales, DNR Conservation officer and Chelsea resident. He said "minor fish kills," were reported as far as 1 1/2 miles downstream. Wales, who was on vacation at the time, was called at home by a man who lives on the creek and noticed the slick. Wales said he traced the oil back to a storm sewer at Federal Screw Works. He estimated that oil had been flowing into the creek for at least an hour and 20 minutes. An injection of dye into the Federal Screw Works drain later confirmed their suspicion. Fred Hoffman, plant manager at Federal Screw Works, admitted the oil was dumped. Federal Screw Works paid for the initial clean-up of the drain sewer, which had already been completed Hoffman said. Sgt. Jim Wooley, environmental conservation officer with DNR estimated that cost at $1,500.

Chelsea Community Hospital sustained serious damage when heavy rains leaked through a partially finished re-roofing project and soaked several key areas. The impact of the rain could have been much worse, however, as the leaking began at a time when most of the rooms, including the surgery areas, weren't in use. The hospital contracted with Freeman Roofing Co. of Jackson to re-roof the portion of the building over the surgery area, and a rubber roof was used, according to Director of Public Relations Pat Kubany. However, workers did not anticipate the rainfall of nearly two inches, and the partly finished job could not tolerate the volume of water.

New recruits and seasoned firefighters from Michigan departments received basic and advanced fire training under the auspices of the Michigan Firefighters Training Council. Firefighters from Chelsea and Dexter formed the main contingent for training. Frances Milne of Dexter had recently sold the property on Jackson Rd. which she and her husband Wilmont purchased for their residence 29 years ago to Paul Johnson and Joe Janus. The new owners gave permission for the one-story, approximately 48 ft. x 58 ft., structure to be torched during a training exercise for area firefighters. They planned to construct Scio Party Store on the site.

Dave Wolters and his 17-piece Saline Community Band provided live music for dancing. All of Chelsea was invited to attend. Tickets were $10 per couple.

Melvin T. Davis, 24, of Detroit, and an inmate of Washtenaw county jail escaped Aug. 2, after he slipped out of prison behind a maintenance crew. Jail authorities said a broken door buzzer enabled Davis, recently found competent to stand trial on charges of armed robbery and assault with intent to commit murder, to stroll out without attracting the notice of prison guards. Davis was captured late Monday afternoon after spending the day holed up at the home of Francis L. Kirwan, 76-year-old retired painter who lived in Ann Arbor, only minutes away from the jail. Davis was arrested March 19 by sheriff's police in Chelsea after a string of alleged break-ins, a shooting, a robbery and attempted abduction. According to police, Davis allegedly held up three nuns and stole their car, shortly before his Chelsea arrest.

Ricky McKenzie, 16, escaped from Camp Waterloo on Clear Lake Rd., Grass Lake, the afternoon of July 25. Chelsea Police Department was notified of the escape by Ronald Watkins, a corrections officer at the camp. The following day, according to police reports, McKenzie was reportedly seen walking in a field behind Polly's market. While Chelsea officers Sgt. Leonard E. McDougal and Ptl. David Peebles joined by Washtenaw County Sheriff's Department circled the area to keep the escaped prisoner within its perimeters. Watkins entered the field in an attempt to apprehend the man. He maintained radio contact with the circling officers throughout his search. Watkins captured McKenzie, who was found hiding in a tree.

A rash of destructive vandalism and break-ins in the area had been keeping Washtenaw County Sheriff's officers occupied and making area residents uneasy. Sometime during the evening of Aug. 2, three Chelsea area teenage boys did damage estimated at between $400-$600 to a miniature railroad which D. A. Drew,

D.N.R. To Pay $50,000 Fine for Violation Of Fish Survey Limits

The Department of Natural Resources violated application limits of a chemical used to conduct a fishery survey in the Muskegon River and fined itself $50,000, DNR Director David Hales said. The Fisheries Division will be fined $25,000—the maximum allowed—for each of two violations during application of the chemical. They exceeded the specified application area of 700 feet by 343 feet and failed to fully detoxify the chemical downstream.

The penalty order, signed by Hales, calls for the replacement of 7,000 game fish because that was the initial estimate of the number killed, although revised estimates put the number at 2,400. "We violated the law. We accept responsibility for our actions," Hales said, calling the chemical misuse a "mistake." The plan for the replacement of the fish must be submitted by the Fisheries Division by the end of August.

Fisheries Division Chair John Robertson called the penalties "appropriate," saying "we deserve to be cnastised." He agreed the additional 343 feet to which the rotenone was applied could have represented a more convenient location for the limit net to be placed. "It was an adjustment made on site and was out of compliance," he said.

All state applications of the chemical, rotenone, have been suspended pending further review of its effectiveness as a way of conducting a fish census. Nine applications planned as part of a survey to relicense Consumers Power hydroelectric dams in the Muskegon, Manistee and Au Sable Rivers will not take place this summer. "All use of rotenone as of today is discontinued," Hales said. He added the department will review other methods by which the surveys could be conducted and if one that carries the same level of confidence that the rotenone carries is found, it will be used.

Although Hales said the DNR will conduct a public information campaign to involve Michigan citizens in the process of the survey and to educate them on the use of rotenone, he defended the use on the Muskegon River as having gone through the appropriate procedures. The application was proposed openly and publicly, he said, and was authorized by the Water Resources Commission at its July meeting, without complaints from the public.

House Conservation, Recreation and Environment Committee Chair Thomas Alley (D-West Branch), who had requested a joint meeting with the House Tourism, Fisheries and Wildlife Committee on the rotenone issue, referred to Hales' remarks that the department went through proper channels as "the same old stuff from the director. If he believes that is enough public oversight of their department, then he's sadly mistaken."

Hales also stressed that at no time was there ever any danger to the public as a result of the rotenone, which has been used by the DNR for at least 50 years. The chemical inhibits a fish from utilizing oxygen in water, he said, and has been used in other countries to attract fish to the surface for the purpose of using them for food.

The Great Lakes Protection Fund is financed by contributions from the eight Great Lakes states. It provides a regional endowment to provide a permanent source of funds for research and demonstration projects aimed at reducing toxic contamination in the lakes.

The grants announced are among the first from Michigan's portion of the fund, estimated at $800,000 annually when the endowment is fully funded. They were recommended by the Water Resources Commission and the Great Lakes Protection Fund Technical Advisory Board.

Uncle Lew from Lima Says:

DEAR MISTER EDITOR:

Zeke Grubb allowed at the country store Saturday night that old age taketh away a lot, but it giveth a little. He told the fellers that from what he's been reading lately about where some of the music in this country is headed it's just as well he can't hear as good as he use to.

Zeke said he never has been able to carry a tune in a bucket. When he was a boy his Ma made him and his tone deaf brother set on different ends of the pew because if they were close during hymns their loud wailing mixed everybody up. But Zeke said he knows what kind of music he likes to hear, and what he hears most on the radio nowadays ain't it.

What got Zeke going was the fuss about dirty words in songs put out by some rock band. He said he couldn't git worked up about this because he can't stand the noise and he can't understand the words. Farther more, from what he ain't been able to git far enough away from, Zeke said, he ain't sure some of them people are people or what they're yelling are words.

The fellers were full agreed with Zeke on his music talent and taste, but Bug Hookum noted that the rock music market ain't exactly aimed at our age group. Bug went on to say that the issue in the album-banned in some places is not taste. Just like them Mapletopie pictures that got everybody excited, he said, it is another twig on a branch of an old tree with roots running deep in all our lives. No matter what we like or dislike, or what we think is fit or unfit, Bug said, we can't abide somebody else deciding fer us.

Bug got support of a sort from Clem Webster that said obseen allus has been in the eye of the beholder, and he saw no chanct of it changing. Whuther it's sights, sounds or printed words, Clem allowed, the problem starts when somebody takes it on hisself to say what everybody can see, hear or read.

Practical speaking, Clem went on, from what he knows about obseen we're all looking in the wrong places. He looked the word up, and it means offensive to accepted standards, and repulsive to the senses. Clem said he had a shirt pocket full of clippings that his dictionary calls obseen.

Fer instant, Clem said it is repulsive that the Federal government is cheated out of billions of dollars in taxes by foreign companies making products and profits in this country. He had saw where a committee in Congress found that one company made $800 million here two years ago and paid $500 in Federal income tax. When sales of all foreign operations here was $688 billion that year, Clem said, and all work the same trick of cutting book profit by paying obseen prices fer raw goods from their owner overseas, you are offended.

Fer obseen, Clem went on, the remedy we cooked up for the savings and loan sickness is hard to top. We have give the foxes free run of the henhouse, was Clem's words. He has saw where a feller in Arizona used $1,000 of his money and $1.85 billion in 10 year Federal loan guarantees to borrow $70 million to buy 15 busted S&Ls in Texas. He combines em into one and got $250 million in Federal subsidy to make his S&L the most profitable in the country last year.

Clem said he could go down his list, like VA hospitals losing $392 million last year by not filing private insurance claims, but he'd stop at the Air Force paying $668,000 fer one fax machine.

Yours truly,
Uncle Lew.

Burg Family Gathers Sunday for 22nd Annual Reunion

On Sunday, Aug. 5, the Burg Family held their 22nd annual Family Reunion at the Don Doll Farm on Heim Rd. There were 90 family members present, coming from parts of Michigan, Ohio and Florida.

Horseshoes, volleyball and swimming were enjoyed following a scrumptious buffet dinner provided by all.

The main topic of business was discussion by Jerry Nitowski of Highland Park concerning the assembling of information and pictures for a Family Album. His first efforts as co-ordinator were presented in the form of a loose-leaf booklet. Pictures for future publications were taken by John Burg of Royal Oak. It is hoped to be completed by reunion time next August.

Two birthdays were celebrated and a big welcome was given to our three newest members, three-week-old Nicholas John, son of DeAnn and Kevin Doll, two-month-old Ana Gabriela, daughter of Diane (Burg) and Fernando Nieves, and Tracey Marie, daughter of Tina (Ortbring) and Mike Weir.

The next reunion will be held on Aug. 4, 1991.

The first court decision declaring that it was an unfair labor practice for an employer to refuse to bargain with a union on welfare or pension benefits for employees was Inland Steel v. National Labor Relations Board in 1949, according to "Labor Firsts in America," a U.S. Labor Department publication.

Shelly Kennedy Marries Jeff Grajewski in March Ceremony

Shelly M. Kennedy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Lesser of Chelsea, and Jeffrey T. Grajewski, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Grajewski of Jackson, were married March 24 at Our Lady of Fatima Catholic church in Jackson.

The Rev. Fr. Andrew Dunn performed the ceremony.

Bev Slater was the vocalist. The bride wore a white satin gown with scalloped hem and chapel-length train with lace, and a sweetheart neckline with crystal beading. She wore a veil of cascading flowers.

The bride's mother wore a pale gray satin two-piece dress with beaded collar.

Mother of the bridegroom wore a flowered pink-on-pink satin cocktail suit with lace collar.

Maid of honor was Leslie Madar of Gross Pointe Park.

Bridesmaids were Dawn Noecker of Lansing, friend of the bride, Denise Dunn of Jackson, friend of the bride, and Jessica Tarnowski of Jackson, cousin of the bridegroom.

Flowergirls were Stacy Tarnowski and Carrie Tarnowski, cousins of the bridegroom. Ringbearer was Matthew Collins, cousin of the bride.

Best man was Brian Cummer of Oscoda.

Ushers were Jon Mykala of Napoleon, cousin of the bridegroom, and Paul Drechnowicz of East Lansing, friend of the bridegroom. Paul Kennedy, brother of the bride, and Scott Grajewski, brother of the bridegroom, were the attendants.

The couple took a honeymoon trip to Chicago.

The bride is a graduate of Davenport College. The bridegroom is scheduled to graduate this month from Michigan State University with a degree in packaging engineering.

Grass Lake Man Chosen for Antarctic Research Program

Navy Constructionman Daniel C. Larsen, son of Daniel C. and Elizabeth Larsen of 497 Island Rd., Grass Lake, recently reported for duty with Naval Support Force, McMurdo Station, Antarctica as a "Wintering Over" member of Operation Deep Freeze.

During the tour, Larsen will participate in the U.S. Antarctic Program (USAP). The program provides extensive research and logistical assistance to the antarctic portion of the International Geophysical Year and a free exchange of scientific information between nations. The Navy supports the program because of its resources, mobility, and extensive antarctic experience.

As a member of the program, his responsibilities include maintaining the station through the harsh Antarctic winter until the next season's research summer support team arrives.

He joined the Navy in September 1967.

a 58-year-old former fireman with the Michigan Central Railroad, had spent 12 years planning and building. When asked by Sheriff's officers why they had maliciously damaged Drew's property, one of the boys replied "We had nothing else to do at the time."

Planning was underway for a "bigger and better" Chelsea Community Fair. A feature of the 1966 fair was a large horse barn under construction. In previous years, some exhibitors had been discouraged by the crowded livestock facilities, according to Fair Board President David Rowe.

The noisy sounds of happy children at play spilled out of the two kindergarten rooms at South Elementary school. Perhaps that fact doesn't seem significant to most area residents, but to the teachers and assistants in the Project Head Start pilot project in Chelsea, the gleeful sounds were a minor victory. The teachers recalled the first days of the program. The children, they said, were quiet, withdrawn, shy. The children in the Chelsea project came from throughout the western portion of Washtenaw county, including Manchester, Dexter and Chelsea. It was one of the four projects offered that summer. Being in Head Start will help make the transition to kindergarten easier.

Pfc. Douglas K. Rowe had a happy 20th birthday even though he had to celebrate it while serving with the U.S. Army in Vietnam. Douglas is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Duane Rowe of Chelsea, and a 1965 graduate of Chelsea High school. He was stationed 45 miles southeast of Saigon. His birthday was on July 29, and friends and relatives back home made sure he wasn't forgotten. They deluged him with letters and cards and packages. The mail clerk was quoted as saying, "Doug really hit the jackpot by receiving the greatest amount of mail delivered to any one person by me as long as I have been in the service. I couldn't believe my eyes and had to count them—in all there were 45!" The mail clerk added jokingly that he would be glad to continue to deliver the packages as long as Doug was willing to share the contents with the other soldiers.

34 Years Ago . . .

Thursday, Aug. 9, 1956—

Announcement was made that Walter A. Kalmbach retired from active service as assistant vice-president and manager of the Grass Lake branch of the National Bank of Jackson. His retirement became effective July 31, and his successor, Harry Wilson, took over his duties Aug. 1. Wilson had been employed at the main office of the bank the past three years and since February of 1956, he had been in the Grass Lake branch.

A male quartet known as the Khord Kings, from North Central College, Naperville, Ill., sang at the Waterloo Second Evangelical United Brethren church Aug. 10. Jim Ramaker, Daniel Driggett, Galen Luebke, and Marvin Johnson made up the quartet.

Further improvement of parking facilities in Chelsea's business district was assured with announcement that the Village acquired the Mabel Foster property on Park street; had options on the Hendley lot adjoining the Foster property at the east; and also had an option on part of the Broesamle property on E. Middle St. Committes who had been studying the parking situation suggested the possibility of leveling the Foster and Hendley property, as well as the former Schumacher property already owned by the village, and building a retaining wall at the south. The suggested wall would be of sufficient strength to support possible future construction of a split level parking structure.

Three Chelsea men were assessed $10 fines and $7.80 costs by Justice of the Peace William Pritchard Friday evening on charges of possession of raccoons during the closed season. The raccoons were being kept as pets contrary to law. Four animals were involved.

KOZISKI-BLACK: Richard and Mary Katherine Koziski of Chelsea have announced the engagement of their daughter, Julie Ann, to Roger Neal Black, son of James H. Black and the late Madeline J. Black of Ann Arbor. A June 22 wedding is planned. The future bride is the owner of A Taste of Chelsea, Inc. She is a 1985 graduate of Western Michigan University in foods and nutrition and business. The future bridegroom attended Eastern Michigan University and is a sales representative for Brothers Restaurant Supply, Inc.

VADLAMUDI-COLE: The engagement of Veena Marie Vadlamudi to Rodney Michael Cole has been announced by her parents, Dr. Babu and Mrs.
Sandra Vadlamudi of Boyce Rd. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs.
Ray Cole of Gaines. The future bride graduated from Chelsea High School in 1985 and from Michigan State University in 1989. She is currently employed at the Breslin All Events Center in East Lansing. Her fiancé graduated from Swartz Creek High School, and is also a 1989 graduate of Michigan State University, and currently is working in a state crime lab in Ohio, using his degree in criminalistics. The couple plan a Sept. 1 wedding, and plan to live in Ohio after the wedding.

Extra Section of Kindergarten At South Affects Bussing

Due to limited space availability and a higher than usual number of kindergarten registrations, a ninth section of kindergarten has been added this fall, in the afternoon at South school.

That, in turn, is forcing a few changes in bus scheduling, primarily for children who live out of the village.
Morning kindergarten classes are primarily for country children who are bussed to school on regular bus runs and return home at noon on kindergarten-only routes.
Afternoons are primarily for in-town children who walk to school, and some country children.

Extension of Time To File Tax Return Expires Aug. 15

"A taxpayer who applied for an automatic extension of time to file the 1989 federal tax Form 1040 or 1040A must file the completed return and pay any remaining tax due by midnight, Aug. 15, 1990," said IRS District Director John Hummel.
"If further time is still needed, a taxpayer may request up to an additional two months (until Oct. 15) by filing Form 2688, Application for Additional Extension of Time to File, before Aug. 15," Hummel added.
"However, the Form 2688 does not grant an automatic extension. The additional time must be approved by the IRS and if it is not, the taxpayer will generally be granted a 10-day grace period to file the completed Form 1040," he said.

For additional information concerning extensions of time to file, taxpayers may call the IRS toll-free information number, 1-800-424-1040, Monday from 8:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m., and Tuesday through Friday from 8:00 a.m. until 5:30 p.m.
The IRS said that taxpayers who need any federal tax forms to complete their returns may request them by calling the toll-free forms order number, 1-800-424-3878, Monday through Friday from 8:00 a.m. until 4:30 p.m.

The extra class has to be held in the afternoon, due to space problems at South school. That means more country children will have to attend afternoon class.

During the first week of school, kindergarten classes will be divided in half to allow students and teachers to get better acquainted. The first half will come in on Monday and Tuesday, the second half on Wednesday and Thursday, and Friday all children will attend.

During that first week, parents of kindergarten children may send their children on the bus to school but will have to pick them up at 11 a.m. Parents of afternoon bus children will have to bring their children in by 12:10 but may have them go home on the regular bus runs.

Bus numbers will be available for the children.

The first mid-day bus runs for kindergarten students will be on Tuesday, Sept. 4. That's because North school principal Bill Wescott and South school principal Bob Benedict need the first week of school and the week-end to make final decisions about kindergarten bus runs.

North school will have two sections of kindergarten in each the morning and afternoon. South school will have two sections in the morning and three in the afternoon.

Named Outstanding Student Teacher in Social Studies

Sheri Duffey Cicirelli of Grass Lake was recently notified she had been selected one of Michigan's finest social studies student teachers in a letter, dated July 23, from Rebecca A.
Powell, awards chairperson for the Michigan Council for the Social Studies (MCSS), an affiliate of the National Council for the Social Studies.
"You have been awarded the MCSS
Outstanding Social Studies Student Teacher award," Ms. Powell explained.

A student teacher in Stephanie Bell's fourth-grade classroom at Bates Elementary school during the fall semester, 1989, Ms. Cicirelli was nominated for the award by John Millington, her former supervisor at Eastern Michigan University.

She was cited for her commitment to excellence in social studies during her student teaching experience at Dexter.

She was graduated from Chelsea High in 1981, and from Eastern Michigan University in December, 1989.

This honor follows an award she received last April, when she was given honorable mention in the 1989-90 Michigan Association of Teacher Educators (MATE) Student Teacher of the Year competition.

Lima Planners Are Re-Appointed

Steffenson said the developers' attorney, Terry Conlin of Ann Arbor, has threatened a law suit for damages if the disputes can't be worked out. The disputes center on the size of the proposed parking lot, but primarily over the issuance of a class C liquor license for the clubhouse and approval for a restaurant. The township has to sign off on the license before it will be issued by the state, but so far has refused to do so.

The developers say the township is dragging its feet. Steffenson said the developers are asking "us to do something that is contrary to our ordinance and we have to follow our ordinance."

Township zoning ordinances apparently do not allow for a bar to be constructed under any circumstances in an agricultural district, which the golf course is in. In addition, according to an opinion by attorney Peter Flintoft, the planning commission has no authority to allow a restaurant as a permitted use in an agricultural district. He said the planning commission "should strike any reference to a restaurant or bar from any site plan." He also mentions that the original 1988 special use permit to allow the golf course in an agricultural district was not "intended to allow the additional use of a restaurant or bar."

Bacon told the board Monday that, "right or wrong" it was clear from the beginning that developers planned to build a restaurant and bar.

"Otherwise, there wouldn't have been discussion about when they would have to close the bar and it wouldn't have been mentioned in their special use permit."

Bacon and Steffenson even disagreed about whether the site plans had been approved.

Michael Smith Has Role in Play at Royal Oak Theatre

Michael Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Denham Smith of Chelsea, has been chosen to play the role of Tony in "West Side Story" at the Baldwin Theatre in Royal Oak.

Michael has been active for the past two years in Stagecrafters, the civic theatre group in Royal Oak.

"West Side Story" will open at the Baldwin on Sept. 28, and will play for four consecutive week-ends.

Fund-Raiser Focuses On Faith in Action

On Saturday, Aug. 18, residents of the community will have a chance to make a donation to Faith in Action and get an eye exam in return for their donation. The doctors at Chelsea Eye Care will be donating their office and time to provide comprehensive eye exams in exchange for a donation to Faith in Action.

Faith in Action, Inc., is a non-profit organization, formed to provide assistance and services to the people of Chelsea, Dexter and Manchester areas. In 1989 Faith in Action provided services to nearly 4,000 people in areas such as Free Health Clinic, Emergency Assistance, Thanksgiving Baskets, Parents Anonymous, Meals on Wheels and Utilities Assistance, just to name a few.

In June, Dr. Hawks contacted the agency and discussed his idea for a fund-raiser. Jerrold Beaumont, the president, was excited, "We are thrilled to have this opportunity to raise additional funds, and promote good eye care at the same time!"

Eye exams will be by appointment only and may be scheduled through the Faith in Action office. A minimum donation of $50 has been asked and checks should be made out to Faith in Action as all proceeds will go into the general fund. Your donation is tax deductible. To schedule your appointment call 475-3305 between 9 a.m. and noon and ask for Nadene Shaneyfelt. Spaces are limited, so call soon.

Of the effort Dr. Hawks stated, "Dr. Kiessling, Dr. Jacobi and I are pleased to be able to, in a small way, assist the good work of the Faith in Action agency." "I have traveled the world over, teaching and sharing my ophthalmic experience. It is a pleasure to be able to donate my time to my own neighbors within my own community."

Chelsea Cottage Inn Pizza franchise (Tasso Eleftheropoulos) is supporting this fund-raiser for Faith in Action by donating coupons for free pizza to people who receive eye examinations.

He is also donating pizzas for Drs. Hawks, Kiessling, Jacobi and their staffs for their lunch-breaks.

For more information call, Faith in Action at 475-3305.

Chelsea Hospital Wants New Drive Out of Complex

Chelsea Community Hospital, concerned about traffic congestion on Main St., is exploring the possibility of building another drive out of the complex.

Hospital vice-president Phil Boham recently told village council of his concerns. A major concern is the usual situation at the main drive, which is especially hazardous for people leaving the hospital. The driveway and Lincoln St. don't line up, and cars on both streets that want to turn onto Main St. at the same time almost have to make up their own rules.

Two options the hospital is considering are a drive onto Flanders St. from the parking lot of the new substance abuse treatment center, once it is constructed, or a drive through to Old US-12. The second option is what Boham said he prefers.

A traffic study of Main St. is supposedly being conducted by the Michigan Department of Transportation, village officials said.

"We cannot do all things . . ."

Although many people are blessed with great versatility and give the impression of being able to cope with any task or situation that may arise, there are times when they must face problems beyond their abilities.

However capable and versatile we may be, it is foolhardy to attempt to give our personal attention to every detail of every task that confronts us. If we look about us we will usually find that there are many skills and strong hands eager to help us if they are but given the opportunity.

We feel privileged to provide this community with an essential service in a dignified and efficient, yet always friendly, manner.

Two Area Students Named to Dean's List at Northwood

Two area students, Susan Lynn Aufderberg of Dexter and Kelly Scott Hall of Ann Arbor, have been named to the Dean's List for the spring term at Northwood Institute in Midland.

The announcement was made by Dr. Catherine Chen, dean of the college.

To achieve the Dean's List recognition, students must earn at least a 3.0 grade-point average on a 4.0 scale.

Susan is a senior at Northwood. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Aufderberg.

Kelly's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hall. Kelly is also a Northwood senior.

Letters to the Editor

To the Editor:

We wish to thank the people of Chelsea who, over the years, gave our family so much in so many ways. Our mother's illness necessitated our move back to her hometown in the early '80s. She had been divorced and after her surgery we had few resources. Of course, our eternal gratitude and love will always be with our aunts, uncles, and grandparents who made it possible for our family to stay together. Ted and Elaine Balmer were kind enough to rent a house to a woman on welfare with five children. They were the first of many who helped us through many difficult situations.

We wanted to thank publicly the people who extended their kindness, understanding, resources, hearts and homes to us over the years. Through the generosity of these people, and there are many who remain unknown to us, we were able to get jobs, participate in sports, travel, and have nicer Christmases. We thank: Luther Kusterer, Denny and Carol Murphy, Helen and Chuck Lancaster, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Kaupp, Bob Foster, Joe Merkel, Mr. and Mrs. George Winans, Mr. and Mrs. William Storey, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Tobin, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Dettling, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Schaible, Mr. and Mrs. William Rademacher, Mrs. George Palmer, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Bauer, Bert Kruse, Randy Johnson, Annette (Houle) and Mr. and Mrs. James Gaken, and Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Seitz. We apologize for leaving out so many names. The list is truly endless. Your acts, big and small, helped us feel accepted and valued as children—none of us ever felt the judgment that is sometimes handed down to families in our situation and we thank the people of Chelsea for this. We know that as Chelsea grows and changes this characteristic won't because it is found in the hearts of the people who live here.

We want you all to know you hold a special place in our hearts. As we travel through the world and meet those who aren't so very different from ourselves, we pass on the kindnesses you extended to us—like the yellow roses our mother loved, passing from one hand to the next.

With all our love and thanks, Wanda (Koenigter), Bob, Rod, Howard and Brenda Salyer.

MEREDITH HALL of Chelsea has been accepted to the Western Michigan University School of Dance in the fine arts program. Hall, a 1989 Chelsea High school graduate, attended Central Michigan University last year, where she was a member of the university's performing dance company, Orchestria Dance Theatre. As a freshman she had the leading role for the company's final performance of the season. In March, auditions were held for WMU's School of Dance. Hall will pursue a bachelor's degree. She is the daughter of Jeff and Terri Barlow of Dancer Rd.

Two Area Students Named to Northwood President's List

Marla Hunnath of Dexter, and Annette L. Roberts of Gregory, have been named to the President's List for the spring term at Northwood Institute in Midland.

Marla, who recently completed her junior year, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Hunnath of Dexter-Ann Arbor Rd., and Annette's mother is Ms. Julia A. Singer. Annette has finished her sophomore year at Northwood.

The announcement was made by Dr. David E. Fry, president of Northwood Institute, a private accredited college specializing in practical career preparation, and offering two- and four-year degrees in the field of business and management.

To achieve President's List recognition, students must earn at least a 3.85 grade-point average on a 4.0 scale.

CAROL GILLESPIE is chairman of the annual quilt show and sale Sunday, Aug. 12 from 1 to 4 p.m. at the Waterloo Area Farm Museum.

Quilt Show, Sale Set Sunday at Farm Museum

A kaleidoscope of shapes and colors will greet the eye when Waterloo Area Farm Museum hosts its annual quilt show and sale Sunday, Aug. 12, 1 to 4 p.m.

In the outdoor setting of the museum's Victorian atmosphere, it will be easy for the mind's eye to envision a 19th century quilting bee where women and girls sewed through an afternoon, piecing or appliqueing designs while others stretched a finished cover over a frame to begin making tiny stitches with loving hands and fingers.

A favorite art form in colonial and frontier homes, the practice of quilting still serves function as well as beauty. Although quilting is traditionally used for bed covering, it also makes warm linings for winter clothing and quilts are often thrown over backs of chairs and fireside benches as protection against cold drafts. Waterloo Historical Society members will host the show and will display several of the museum's quilts which have been donated over the years.

Guided tours of the 10-room farm house and out-buildings will be offered. The last tour begins at 3:30. A modest admission is charged: $2 for adults, $1.50 for seniors, and 50¢ for children 5-11. Children under 5 are free. Admission to the grounds is free. Dewey School Museum is located nearby and will also be open from 1 to 4 p.m. The museum is located three miles north of the Village of Waterloo, 9998 Waterloo-Munith Rd.

Civil War Recruiting Will Be Reenacted at Historic Walker Tavern

Michigan wants you . . . to come back to the Civil War Recruiting Encampment! Witness an encampment of Michigan civilian soldiers Saturday and Sunday, Aug. 11 and 12, at the Walker Tavern Historic Complex in Cambridge State Park.

Visitors are invited to watch the 17th Michigan Volunteer Infantry recruit soldiers as in 1861 when they prepared for our nation's war between the North and the South, from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. each day.

At 10 a.m., the Walker Tavern Complex, including the encampment will be open for visitors to explore. Throughout each afternoon, military personnel will demonstrate militia drills, marching, bayonet/skirmish drills, a recruitment scenario and retiring of the colors.

In between the military's scheduled activities, the civilian group will conduct themselves in the manner of everyday camp life during the Civil War. They will serve as costumed interpreters from whom inquisitive visitors can learn more about the hardships and daily activities of camp life as sons, brothers, fathers and husbands went off to war.

Visitors are encouraged to browse around the camp, visit the sewing table, learn about cockades and even take home a memento of the encampment.

Visitors to the encampment are also invited to venture throughout the Walker Tavern Historic Complex to learn more about Michigan's "best west of Detroit."

Historically, Silvester and Lucy Walker represented the large influx of New Englanders who came into Michigan during the 1840s. The Department of State's Bureau of History began interpreting frontier transportation, pioneer agriculture and tavern life at the Walker Tavern Historic Complex in 1974. Since that time the Department of National Resources and the Bureau of History have been participating in restoration projects at the Complex.

The Walker Tavern Historic Complex is open 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. daily, June through Labor Day. Located in the Cambridge State Park, at the junction of US-12 and M-50, admission to the encampment is free. However, a state park daily or annual pass is required to enter the park.

European Trade Plan Rapped

U.S. trade negotiators are downplaying a recent European Community (EC) proposal that all countries reduce their agricultural subsidies by 30 percent. Ken Nye, director of commodity activities and research for Michigan Farm Bureau, said the EC claims to have already reduced subsidies between 15 and 20 percent, so they don't have to do much more to meet the schedule they have laid out.

"On the other hand, U.S. payments to farmers this year are down to around $11 billion, compared to about $26 billion in 1988," he said. "We've cut our spending by over 50 percent."

Nye said the EC proposal doesn't really get to the heart of what's distorting world agricultural trade, namely import barriers, internal supports and export subsidies. "Michigan farmers participate along with other domestic producers in the United States in producing for an export market," he said. "When we're shut out of those markets for one reason or another, it's no advantage to us. We feel as though we can compete with the other exporting countries if we're given the opportunity to do so."

U.S. negotiators hope to have a trade agreement by the first week of December.

Area Students

To Get Degrees At Bowling Green

Two area students are scheduled to receive degrees from Bowling Green State University this Saturday.

James W. Eisenbeiser, 7750 Werkner Rd., Chelsea, and Susan R. Wallace, 2077 Jananne Dr., Dexter, are scheduled to receive bachelor's degrees.

GOLD FEVER, driven by Ron Smith of Schoolcraft, one of the fastest mud racers in the midwest, will be competing in Stockbridge on Sunday, Aug. 12.

Stockbridge Mud Bog Boasts Midwest's Top Racers Aug. 12

Several of the fastest mud racing machines in the midwest will be on hand for the Stockbridge Mud Bog '90 on Sunday, Aug. 12 at Stockbridge High school.

ATV competition begins at 10 a.m., rain or shine, and 4-wheel drive competition starts at noon.

The high-tech racers, some valued at more than $30,000, will be competing for a guaranteed purse of $6,330. Some racers are capable of skipping over the 150-foot pit in 2.5 seconds.

Also competing will be basic street stock vehicles, super stocks, modifieds, and two classes of vehicles with tractor-type tires.

Mud bogging combines the elements of asphalt and off-road racing. Winning is often determined by half an inch or one-hundredth of a second.

Proceeds from the event will benefit Stockbridge school bands and cheerleaders.

GRANPA CRATCHET will be cruising through the crowds each day at the Chelsea Community Fair. His down-home humor and antics always amuse old and new alike. Watch for him and his miniature pick-up truck.

Granpa Cratchet Will Entertain at the Fair

Rinnng Rinnngg. Hello, this is Central, may I help you? Granpa Cratchet? Who's he, you ask? Honey, I can tell you're not from these parts. Why Granpa Cratchet is an old codger from down on the farm in Chelsea. He's got more stories from the good ole days than you can shake a stick at. And jokes, riddles, poems, funny quips? Why he's got more than you could hear in a lifetime, and knowin' him, he'll probably tell 'em all to ya over at the Chelsea Community Fair starting Aug. 21 and going through Aug. 25. You've never seen anything like it in your life.

Granpa, a fancy puppet, like you'd see on TV, jus' seems to come to life, I do declare. It seems like he's real. Most of the adults think they're too high falootin' for this stuff, ya know; but they end up right in there with Granpa, talkin' about the good ole days or tellin' jokes. You've never seen nothin' like it, I tell ya... why, the looks on their faces when they see this puppet drivin' right down the midway in his miniature model "T" truck!

The kids just love to stand up on the running board and shake hands with Granpa and hear a joke, and does he like to hug the pretty girls! Oh, he's got a reputation as a real ladies man, but he seems to capture everybody's heart.

Ya gotta watch out for him, now, too, or you'll end up buyin' more of his Old Time Miracle Wonder All-Purpose Ailment Elixir or Three-in-One Miracle House Cleaner than you'll use in a lifetime.

Why that old truck of his, it keeps spoutin' at the radiator, parts keep fallin' off, and the kids keep havin' to crank-start the engine.

Granpa just can't seem to get it through his head that you need a driver's license these days, not a fishin' license, to drive on the streets.

Course, like Granpa says, he spends most of his time driving on the sidewalks anyway.

TOP TEN BULL RIDER CLINT CESSNA bites the dust on this J-Bar-J bull during last year's Dodge World Championship Rodeo in Saline. The rodeo returns this year Aug. 10-11-12, Friday, Saturday and Sunday. For more information call the Rodeo Hotline in Saline at (313) 429-4835.

Rodeo Celebrating 26 Years in Saline

After 26 years the Dodge World Championship Rodeo (formerly Saline World Championship Rodeo) is still going strong thanks to the corporate involvement of Dodge Trucks, area media and of course the people of Washtenaw county. Not always has this rodeo been sanctioned for world championship points by the International Professional Rodeo Association (IPRA) either. But for the past decade this rodeo has grown to attract professional cowboys and cowgirls from across the nation and Canada as well as thousands of rodeo fans.

The public has gotten to know this rodeo as one of the best in the country. Produced by the J-Bar-J Rodeo Co. with its reputation for providing good, clean family entertainment. J-Bar-J has received the honor of "Rodeo Producer of the Year," "Best Rodeo of the Year," "Best New Rodeo of the Year," "Saddle Bronc of the Year," "Bareback Bronc of the Year," and "Bull of the Year" on several occasions by the IPRA. In fact, one year, 1988, J-Bar-J made a clean sweep of all the above awards, the first time any rodeo company had ever done so.

What makes this rodeo so special is a combination of extra time and expense placed on the actual rodeo performance itself. The rodeo's livestock, the bulls, horses, calves and steers have all been hand-picked. Careful attention is paid to their general well being such as special feed, lots of rest and lots of love and devotion. Without quality rodeo livestock J-Bar-J would have never gained its reputation as having the top rodeo animals in the country today.

Even the rodeo's special performers have been hand-picked, too. The rodeo clowns, trick ropers and the announcer, even the judges were selected for being the best. Most of these performers were also selected to perform at the International Finals Rodeo (rodeo's Super Bowl). The best rodeo livestock, the best performers and the best rodeo athletes makes for the best rodeo in Saline.

There is never a dull moment during this great rodeo in Saline. Whether it is the competitive action of bull riding, the fancy roping, spinning of the trick roper or the daring antics of the rodeo clowns the entire family will enjoy the Dodge World Championship Rodeo.

Don't miss the Dodge World Championship Rodeo Aug. 10-11-12 at the Saline Fairgrounds (Washtenaw Farm Council Grounds).

For more information call the Rodeo Hotline in Saline at (313) 429-4835.

CAREY WALLACE, age 16, is being sponsored by the Chelsea High School Key Club in her bid to become the 1990 Chelsea Community Fair Queen. Carey was Key Clubber of the Year. This summer she participated in the Purdue Pulsar Summer Program for creative writing. Among her community activities, two week-ends per month she is a volunteer at Youth Haven Ranch, a Christian camp near Jackson for underprivileged children. This year at the fair she is entering a wool suit she sewed and a baked good. Her hobbies include writing, reading sewing, cooking, and playing the piano. Her court will include Martina Street and Christie Wade. She is the daughter of Richard and Wendy Wallace, 1201 N. Freer Rd. She has a brother, Mark, age 13.

AMY TRINKLE, age 17, is being sponsored in the Chelsea Fair Queen Program by Rogers Corners Herdsmen 4-H Club. She'll be a senior at Dexter High school this fall. At school is a member of the National Honor Society and participates in cross country, track, Spanish Club, and Future Homemakers of America. She has won a scholar-athlete award and placed second at the FHA State Conference. Among her community activities, she is a volunteer in the Occupational Therapy Department of Chelsea Community Hospital, she has worked in the kitchen at the 4-H Fair, and has worked at church ice cream socials and sauerkraut suppers. She has also participated extensively at the fair. She's secretary of the Steer Club, president of the Lamb Club, and has entered the antique tractor pull, as well as latch hook and counted cross stitch items in the home economics department. Her hobbies include playing the piano, running, bicycling, sewing, and helping her dad on the farm. She is the daughter of Dennis and Jeanne Trinkle, 9770 Trinkle Rd.

AMY MITCHELL, age 16, is being sponsored by the Chelsea High School Junior Class in the fair queen program. Amy is an honor student, and participates in forensics, tennis, and volleyball. She was won awards for her public address speaking at school and in district competition. She was also chosen to attend the Student Council Leadership Conference and she is her class president. She has held class leadership positions each year at CHS. Among her community activities, she is a confirmed member of the First United Methodist church, has participated in many church musicals, is an active member of Chelsea Area Teens, is a student representative for the Chelsea Board of Education's Goal-Setting Committee, has organized a benefit dance, helped with the Chelsea Depot Open House, and has been hostess for two foreign exchange students. Her fair activities have included participation in five fair parades and kiddie parades, entering foods, and helping in the parking lot. Her hobbies include tennis, skiing, sewing, and biking. Members of her court are Sarah Devine, Erin Schulz, and Leah Hadley. She is the daughter of John and Gloria Mitchell, 124 Park St., and sister of John II, 23, and Michael, 20.

National Plumber Program Coming

Washtenaw Community College will write a new chapter in its history when 1,200 plumbing and pipefitting trainers and 300 support personnel come to campus Aug. 11-17.

The 37th annual United Association Instructor Training Program is a five-year program for plumbing and pipefitting instructors of journeymen and apprentices. It convenes on campus after a 36-year affiliation with Purdue University in West Lafayette, Ind.

The six-day session will focus on the technological advances in the plumbing and pipefitting industry, as well as the latest development in industry products. Representatives from an estimated 460 union locals across the U.S. and Canada will learn this new technology and how to teach it to the apprentices and journeymen at their local training schools.

The program is expected to have a considerable impact on the local economy—a time traditionally slow for convention and student activity. Participants are expected to use 1,200 hotel and dormitory rooms as well as restaurants and entertainment facilities in the greater Ann Arbor and Ypsilanti area.

silanti area.

The project has forged a partnership between three Michigan colleges, WCC, Michigan State University, and the University of Michigan. All classes will be held at WCC, the UA will co-ordinate training with

Michigan State University, and some instruction will be provided by WCC, MSU, and the University of Michigan.

Program graduates will participate in a ceremony at the U-M Power Center Aug. 16.

Are You Ready? Athletes Begin Practice Monday

Practices for many Chelsea High school athletes begins next week in one of the earliest signs that a new school year is about to begin.

Organized, school-sponsored practices are legally allowed to begin next Monday, Aug. 13. In reality, though, many athletes have been practicing all summer in one or more sports.

A varsity football team meeting will be held tomorrow, Aug. 9 at 6 p.m. at Chelsea High school. All potential varsity candidates are urged to attend. Practice officially starts at 7 a.m. Monday.

A junior varsity team meeting will be held at noon on Monday, Aug. 13. Freshmen and sophomores interested in junior varsity football are urged to attend.

The annual Blue/White football game will be held Saturday, Aug. 18 at 7 p.m. with players available for photographs at 5.

Girls varsity basketball team also starts Monday at CHS. Early session is at 8 a.m. and a later session will begin at either 4 or 5 p.m.

Junior varsity girls basketball practice starts Monday at 9 a.m. at Beach Middle school. Any questions should be directed to coach Paul Terpstra at 475-8822.

Girls varsity tennis starts at 9 a.m.

Monday every week-day until school begins. Team candidates should be ready to play Monday and should bring shorts, shoes, and racquet. Questions should be directed to coach Terri Curtis at 475-2536.

All potential athletes should have had a physical examination before attending practice.

Rindle Tosses Shutout in Chelsea's Third Win of Summer

Chelsea Summer Baseball Team won their third game of the summer on Thursday, Aug. 2 with a 7-0 shutout of Milan.

Chelsea took a 2-0 lead in the first inning as Adam Taylor walked, moved to third on a single by Kerry Plank, and Jake Rindle doubled to left to knock in both runs. Two runners were stranded in the inning.

Chelsea added two more runs in the second inning on a single and steal by Ben Hurst, a walk to Taylor, a fielder's choice, and a wild pitch.

The lead increased to 6-0 in the fourth inning as Hurst got the inning started with a single and steal, Steve Emmert doubled him home, and Emmert scored on a Plank double.

Chelsea finished its scoring in the seventh inning. Craig Ferry led off with a double and Chris White drove him home with a single. A double play ended the inning.

Rindle pitched all seven innings and was in control most of the game, said Chelsea coach Akel Marshall.

"Milan only threatened in two innings, but each time Jake worked out of the jam," Marshall said.

"Milan left the bases loaded in the seventh."

Rindle issued three walks, all to Milan's clean-up hitter, and gave up five hits. He struck out 11.

Chelsea had 10 hits. Rindle had three, Plank had two, Hurst had two, and Ferry, White, and Emmert each had one.

With the win, Chelsea's record is 3-7 with three games to go.

SPORTS NOTES

BY BRIAN HAMILTON

One of the first good-news bits of information about the coming Chelsea High school sports season is the Bulldog football team plays Stockbridge this year.

It's the final game of the season and takes the place of those Dearborn-area teams they've played the last couple of seasons.

Chelsea-Stockbridge seems like such a natural rivalry, especially now that Stockbridge is a class B school. It didn't make much sense to play them before, for play-off reasons, when the Panthers were class C. Plus, I'm all for staying close by on the final Friday. I hope the teams meet every year.

Head football coach Gene LaFave probably made a wise decision by combining the freshman and junior varsity teams, especially this year.

Many of this year's ninth graders are outstanding athletes, as good as many JV athletes in the area. And I would guess that several of this year's freshmen will make the varsity team next year. A season against better competition will be a good experience.

My guess is the biggest adjustment for new assistant football coach Roger Cox, former head coach at Lincoln, will not be to Chelsea's style of play but to becoming a subordinate rather than Top Dog.

This year most of the offense will be generated by Jude Quilter running off tackle behind Mike Terpstra, a solid and smart 240 pounds or so. The rest of it will be Jude Quilter catching a pass or two over the middle and running for daylight. Remember how effective and fun that was last year? Quilter might find the going a little tougher this year if the Bulldogs don't come up with another legitimate scoring threat.

Actually, if I had to pick a guy who could steal a little of Quilter's thunder it would be junior receiver Adam Taylor, who is turning out to be one fine all-around athlete.

I'm not making any predictions as to whom the quarterback will be. I'm pretty sure, however, it won't be Terpstra.

Speaking of Terpstra, Paul, the hard-nosed English teacher is back for another season of torture as JV girls basketball coach.

Just what is being tortured is a matter of conjecture, however. If you recall, a lot of people were after his scalp last year for a variety of reasons. I wasn't sure that he'd last the summer, but he's back.

He's either extremely dedicated to coaching, extremely stubborn, or some combination of both. I wouldn't put up with all the stuff he endured.

The school district's facilities committee has some tough decisions to make.

I don't know how the board will choose to solve space problems, but I hope the final solution includes plans for at least one more full-size gymnasium. There are so many demands made on gym time here that it is very difficult to find any time available for the general public.

It always does my heart good to learn that former Michigan coach Bo Schembechler has put his cleats in his mouth.

In case you missed it, he made some ill-advised remarks about a woman sportswriter in the Detroit Tigers locker room.

What was especially intriguing to me were his comments about the "sanctity of the locker room."

This sanctity idea is interesting, has almost a religious ring to it, doesn't it?

I've been in a lot of locker rooms over the years, from professional sports to high school, but I can't say I've seen sanctity anywhere. I've seen a lot of sweaty, dirty, naked bodies, yes, but that's to be expected. I've also heard a lot of off-color jokes, a lot of belching and other human noises, seen practical jokes, and even what might be called "dirty dancing." I've seen beer and cigarettes and puffing after a loss, and beer and cigarettes and high-fives and laughter after a win. About the closest I've seen to sanctity was a gold and diamond-studded cross worn by a highly-paid quarterback.

Mark Pincheon Qualifies for October National Triathlon

Chelsea insurance agent and Kiwanian Mark Pincheon has qualified for the national triathlon championship in the Bud Lite series on Oct. 20 in Las Vegas.

The series includes several meets during the year. Everyone who reaches the championship meet must meet an established qualifying time.

Each meet consists of a mile swim, 25 mile bike race, and a 10 kilometer run.

Pincheon qualified in Chicago with a time of 2:29:00, a minute under the cut-off time. He was in the age 18-24 group, the most competitive in the race. He'd like to bring his time down about four minutes in the finals. He said the winner will probably come in under two hours.

"I knew I had a good chance to qualify during the run," Pincheon said.

"I was watching my watch the whole and I really opened up my pace."

Pincheon began competing in triathlons about five years ago, although he doesn't necessarily have any ambition to win one.

"It's just something I like to do," Pincheon said.

"I'm crazy, I guess." Pincheon, who works for Jerry Ashby's All-State Insurance Agency, is a 1985 graduate of Saline High school, where he ran track and cross country. He completed a degree in communications and psychology at Michigan State University last year. When he's not working, most of Pin-cheon's time is taken up with training. He likes to work out in the Scio Church, Parker Rd., Pleasant Lake area, and he works out twice a day. He has trained in swimming at Cameron Pool.

"I really need to work on my swimming," he said.

"I can swim a mile in about 29 minutes, but there are many guys who do it in 16 or 17 minutes."

Pincheon has helped out with the Chelsea High school track team and the local youngsters who compete at the Hershey meet.

Cheerleaders Go to Camp, Bellus Chosen All-Star

Ten Chelsea High school football cheerleaders attended the Universal Cheerleading Association camp at Eastern Michigan University July 24-27.

Chelsea senior Kelly Bellus was chosen for the U. C. A. All-Star Team, which will represent the United States in London, England in December.

The all-star team will perform in the Lord Mayor of Westminster New Year's Parade. It will also tour Big Ben, the Tower of London, Westminster Abbey, as well as many museums. Bellus has to raise $1,700 to make the trip.

Other Chelsea cheerleaders who attended the camp included varsity cheerleaders Elizabeth Taylor, Nicole Fletcher, Cindy Noble, Sherry Dukes, Jennifer Hardy, Michelle Poppenger, Karen Albertson, and Beth Williams, and junior varsity cheerleader Megan Robinson.

The girls worked on new chants and cheers in hopes of improving crowd participation.

In senior hunt seat equitation, the champion was Amy Gillen of Ann Arbor, while Andrea Bradbury of Dexter was named champion in junior hunt seat equitation.

Amy Gillen was judged the senior hunt seat pleasure champion, Kelly Lucas of Grass Lake was the junior hunt seat pleasure champion, and Jennifer Williams of Manchester was named pony hunt seat equitation champion.

Valerie Muck of Dexter was judged saddle seat equitation champion, and Jenny Van Oel topped contenders in saddle seat pleasure, senior western equitation champion was Rhonda Evilsizer of Manchester, and Brook Beaudoin of Dexter was judged junior western equitation champion.

Tara Yarger of Saline was selected western pony equitation champion, Matt Kueffner of Manchester, was senior western pleasure champion, and Dexter's Brook Beaudoin was judged junior western pleasure champion.

Tara Yarger was named champion in western pony pleasure, Jennifer Rose of Plymouth won the junior gymkana event, and Rebecca Scherdt of Manchester was the winner in senior gymkana.

Heather Armstrong of Plymouth was named the top rider in junior trail, Christine Ridel in senior trail.

High percentage dressage winner was Amy Gillen, Manchester, who also was named the winner in senior English bareback competition.

Amber Burkhardt of Manchester won the junior English bareback event.

Valerie Muck of Dexter earned the top honors in senior stock seat bareback riding, and Heather Armstrong was judged the winner in junior stock seat bareback.

Jocelyn Cooch won the equitation over fences event, and Kevin Bradbury of Dexter won the "working hunter over fences" competition.

Older Adults Cautioned On Fraudulent Salesmen

Older adults in the Chelsea area may receive a visit from a person who says he "wants to explain Medicare benefits," or "wants to check on Social Security/Medicare coverage." This person is not a Government employee, but is an insurance agent trying to sell expensive and very complicated policies.

The Washtenaw County Council on Aging has received calls from older adults who are unclear about the identity of these agents and confused by policies they have bought. The Council advises that no one buy a policy from a door-to-door agent without slow and careful examination of the exact benefits offered. The Council on Aging offers assistance in understanding health insurance policies at no charge.

The Council is also interested in hearing from any senior citizen who feels an agent presented himself as a government employee. The Council on Aging may be reached at 685-3625 to request information on health insurance policies or to report an agent's sales tactics.

Personal Note

Edward McGranahan of Orlando, Fla., son of Luella McGranahan and the late Marley McGranahan, visited Michigan from July 28 to Aug. 4. During his visit, he attended his 28th class reunion from Dexter High school. An open house was held at his mother's on July 29; numerous friends and relatives were in attendance.

Chelsea Milling Co.
President To Speak at Economic Breakfast Club
 Howard Holmes, Sr., president of question and answer session, will be the Chelsea Milling Co., will speak at, adjourned at 9 a.m. Reservations are the Chelsea Economic Breakfast Club required and should be made through on Wednesday, Aug. 15 at 7:30 a.m. in Mark D. Bally, Society Bank, at the Woodlands Room of Chelsea Community Hospital. 475-9154.

The event is being co-sponsored by Society Bank and the Chelsea
 Chamber of Commerce.

Holmes will present a brief history and overview of Chelsea Milling Co.
 He will also discuss the Milling Company's economic relationship with the village of Chelsea and recent plans for future expansion.

Chelsea Milling is maker of Jiffy mixes which produces 20 different products including cakes, muffins, pie crust, pizza mix, brownie and frosting mixes as well as a general purpose baking mix. Recently the company announced it will be adding four new production lines, a move which will boost its output by 30 percent and employ 38 more people.

The Holmes family began milling flour in the village in 1897, but the company, Chelsea Milling, was not formally incorporated until 1931. The nature of the business has changed over the years from selling general purpose flour to producing its own specialty mixes. Their low prices have helped the firm to compete nationally.

Holmes has been with the firm since 1937. He was studying at the University of Michigan when his father died suddenly and after graduation he ran the business jointly with a brother, Dudley, Sr., who retired eight years ago.

A continental breakfast will be served at 7:30 a.m. for a nominal charge.
 The program, which includes a brief

Mixed Reactions Greet Recent Tariff Decision

Michigan farmers won and lost in a recent tariff decision by President Bush and the Office of the United States Trade Representative. Thanks in large part to efforts by the Michigan Asparagus Growers Division of the Michigan Agricultural Cooperative Marketing Association and the Michigan congressional delegation, tariffs will remain on nearly all imports of fresh and frozen asparagus from several South American countries. In addition, tariffs will remain on many other imported commodities that are also produced in Michigan, including tomato paste, frozen sweet corn and other vegetables, and cut roses.

On the other hand, tariffs have been eliminated for imports of fresh strawberries, oat bran, frozen blackberries, prepared potatoes and plywood.

"The elimination of duties on these products is certainly going to undermine our market," said Bob Craig, economist with Michigan Farm Bureau. "Growers and manufacturers need to be aware that there will be increased competition and there will be additional pressure in the marketplace here in the U.S."

The Office of the United States Trade Representative said the duty reductions are designed to encourage legitimate alternatives to the production and export of illegal narcotics from Bolivia, Colombia, Ecuador and Peru.

Jerry Lewis Labor Day Telethon Seeks Volunteers

Local volunteers are needed to answer phones and co-ordinate fund-raising activities for the 1990 25th Silver Anniversary Jerry Lewis Muscular Dystrophy Telethon. The Arborland Mall has been chosen for the location of the pledge center this year. This new location will provide the availability to have fun events throughout Labor Day week-end.

Interested persons are asked to call MDA at 1-800-886-2832. If you belong to an organization that would like to sponsor an event at the Mall, please contact the MDA office. Also, children are being encouraged by the association to hold neighborhood carnivals or canister drives to raise funds to fight the illness. Each child that raises at least $25 will receive an MDA T-Shirt. Supply packets are available by calling the MDA office.

If you would like to be a part of the new Jerry Lewis Telethon to support patient services, community education camp, and medical research, call now.

DR. SUSAN KIRKPATRICK, who joined Eastern Michigan University four years ago as a campus planner, has accepted the position of director of parking and moving operations at the University of Michigan. Kirkpatrick, a Chelsea resident, holds two bachelor's degrees, a master's degree, and a doctorate from Michigan State University. She says she'll miss her work at EMU. "You do tend to have second thoughts because life at EMU is pretty good and Eastern has certainly been good to me," she said. "I'm excited about this new position because from a campus planning and landscape architecture perspective, a parking system is an integral part of a university's exterior environment."

Notice of Public Hearing on Proposed Lyndon Township
 Cable Communications
 Franchise Ordinance

Take notice that the Lyndon Township board shall hold a public hearing on the 21st day of August, 1990 at 7:00 p.m. in the Lyndon Township Hall for the purpose of considering an Ordinance establishing a policy concerning cable communications; to establish franchise procedures and standards which encourage the growth and development of cable systems and assure that cable systems are responsive to the needs and interests of the township; to establish guidelines with respect to the regulations of cable systems; to assure that cable communications provide and are encouraged to provide the widest possible diversity of information sources and services to the public; to establish an orderly procedure to grant and renew franchises; to promote competition in cable communications and minimize unnecessary regulation that would impose an undue economic burden on cable systems; to repeal all ordinances or parts of ordinances inconsistent with this ordinance.

The tentative text of the ordinance may be examined at 11995 Respeke Road, Gregory, Michigan by appointment (313) 498-2042)

FRONT TEETH ARE VALUABLE

A front-tooth is worth $309,300 or 12 cents, depending upon how you figure, according to a survey by the American Association of Endodontists reported in the Chicago Tribune. The materials that go into making up the average tooth—calcium, phosphorus, water, etc.—cost only about 12 cents to buy. But in a survey of 1,023 men and women taken by the association, people put a much higher value on their teeth than that. When asked how much they would take for a front tooth, nearly one-fourth of the respondents said they wouldn't sell a tooth for anything. About 15 percent said they'd want at least $1 million, but the rest weren't so demanding and the average asking price from the entire group came out to $309,300.

Home Meal Service Needs More Drivers

Home Meal Service of Chelsea is looking for volunteer drivers to deliver one hot meal at noon time to seniors and shut-ins. It is a one-hour commitment every other week. Because many of the summer drivers are educators, by Labor Day they will all be back in the classroom.

Drivers bring a breath of fresh air into the lives of many of the meal recipients who find it difficult to go out. Others have found cooking for one and eating alone to make meal planning so unpleasant they do not eat properly.

Chelsea's meal program is 18 years old and has served hundreds of residents with the help of many volunteer drivers.

Mary Erskine, co-ordinator, may be reached at the C.A.T.S. office (475-9494) or home 475-2821. Ann Feeney may be reached at 475-1145 or 475-1493. Volunteers always find it a pleasant experience.

PALMER FORD/MERCURY has again been chosen to receive Ford Motor Company's highest dealer award for superior performance in all phases of dealership operation. This is the 14th time the dealership has received this award. Shown here receiving the award is George Palmer, president. Also shown is Edward Walton, dealer trainee, accepting the Medallion Manager Award for Matthew Villemure, service director. Presenting the awards are Al Halley, far left, Detroit parts and service manager, and Rich Arb, far right, Detroit car and truck sales manager.

Tammy Browning Appearing In Concert Saturday Afternoon

Tammy Browning, a recent Chelsea High school graduate, will perform a senior recital on Saturday, Aug. 11 at 4 p.m. in the Chelsea High School Auditorium.

Miss Browning is a student of Christopher Keen and Mrs. Lisa Hinz-Johnson, both of Ann Arbor.

The concert will include operatic works from Mozart and Puccini. Also included in the program are songs from Schumann, Schubert, Head, Copeland and others. Miss Browning will sing in Italian, German, and English.

Tammy is an active member of the musical community in Chelsea. She was last seen as the Mother Abbess in the "Sound of Music" this spring at Chelsea High school. She has also performed in Washington, D.C., this summer.

Tammy is the daughter of Robert and Chris Browning and twin sister of Tiffany, all Sugar Loaf Lake residents.

The concert is free of charge and the public is encouraged to attend.

Farm Income Remains Flat During July

Prices received by farmers for raw agricultural products remained at the same level in July as they were in June, but July prices were 2.7 percent higher than in the same month a year ago. Sharp increases in milk, vegetable and fruit prices in July were offset by lower returns for cattle, eggs and grains. The largest monthly increase from June to July was in commercial vegetables which rose 20 percent.

Named to Board of State Association

Washtenaw County Clerk/Register of Deeds, Peggy M. Haines, was appointed to serve on the board of directors of the Michigan Association of Register of Deeds by president Mark Smith at the recent annual conference in East Tawas.

Out of the 83 counties in Michigan, Haines was selected as one of three appointees to serve on the board of directors.

"I am honored to be chosen and I will serve with pride and dedication in representing Washtenaw county," Haines said.

Chelsea Family Practice Center Honors Employee of the Year

Toni Wilson, R.N., who has been a registered nurse at the U. of M. Family Practice Center at Chelsea for 12 years, was chosen by her fellow employees to be the 1990 Employee of the Year. This is the fifth year that an employee has been honored at the Family Practice Center. Her name is inscribed on a plaque at the Family Practice Center, she has a reserved parking spot especially for her for the year and she received a gift certificate for two for dinner and a movie.

Toni and her husband, Chuck Wilson, have two sons, David and Steven. She lives on Hayrake Hollow in Chelsea, enjoys golf and is a student at Siena Heights College where she is enrolled.

20TH ANNIVERSARY

FIRE SALE

4 DAYS ONLY!

NOW THRU SATURDAY 8-11-90

On Friday, August 7, 1970, Frigid Products was destroyed by fire. The spectacular blaze completely destroyed the two-story brick and stone structure, which was built in 1902 by Frank P. Glazier. It was reported the fire could be seen as far as five miles away.

Fire units from Chelsea, Dexter, Manchester and Ann Arbor brought the blaze under control after three hours. Firemen were on the scene for nearly twelve hours and contained the blaze to Frigid Products and an adjacent beauty salon. Fear was expressed that the whole downtown block would burn.

The following Monday, August 10, the business was reopened across the street in the Longworth Plating showroom. Efforts to tear down the burned out structure and plans to rebuild began soon after.

Because Frigid Products had long since sold many products besides refrigerators and freezers, it was decided to resume business under the name HEYDLAUFF'S. The present store reopened February 1, 1971.
