EARTH MOVERS began to prepare the site for the new Hatch Stamping Co. facility in the village industrial park last week. The company received preliminary site plan approval from the village planning commission this week for what will become by far the largest complex in the park.

Lima Township Still Debating Liquor License for Golf Course

While Lima township tries to decide what to do about a request for a liquor license for Reddeman Farms Golf Course, the developer is growing increasingly anxious and may file a lawsuit.

Developer Bob Luhouse said last week that even though he has preliminary site plan approval, he won't start work on footings for his clubhouse until the liquor license issue is resolved because he could end up wasting a lot of money. However, the building season is growing shorter and unless he can get footings in this fall he won't be able to complete the clubhouse in time for the start of the next golfing season.

At last Tuesday's township planning commission meeting, options for the license were discussed but no final decisions were made. The township has been discussing the issue for several months.

The meeting, however, did apparently resolve the issue of preliminary site plan approval, which had been the subject of debate at recent township board meetings. After planning commission member and interim supervisor Carol Steffenson said preliminary site plan approval had not been given, as she has stated previously, planning commission chairman David Bacon went to the file and produced a set of approved plans, which caught Steffenson and others by surprise.

"They never asked me where the plans were," said Bacon. Bacon has maintained all along that preliminary approval had been given.

Bacon said other sets of the plans should have been made at the time of approval, but he doesn't know what happened to them.

The commission also appointed Bacon and Greg McKenzie as planning commission representatives to deal with legal discussions concerning the golf course.

Bacon, who has been upset that there has been no planning commission representative involved in the discussions with attorney Peter Flintoft, said Steffenson would attend the meetings only in her capacity as interim supervisor. She would not represent the planning commission.

The appointments represent a minor victory for Bacon, who has been butting heads with Steffenson over the issue for several months and has rarely been asked his opinion on any part of the issue, even though he has followed the project from its inception more than two years ago. Steffenson has been involved with Lima government for about a year.

The liquor license issue, as well as the size of the clubhouse parking lot, are the two major stumbling blocks for Luhouse. An initial approval by the township for a class C license, with stipulations that only beer and wine be served, was not accepted by the state licensing board. Luhouse has since suggested that deed restrictions be incorporated in the land that only beer and wine be served. However, Bacon said that Flintoft has said deed

Hatch Stamping Receives Preliminary Approval Then Starts Construction

Hatch Stamping Co. didn't waste any time last week as they received preliminary site plan approval for their new industrial park facility on Tuesday and broke ground by Thursday.

The new 108,000-square-foot building will have office and manufacturing facilities.

The company anticipates receiving final site plan approval later this month. The main problem that had to be resolved is how to handle storm-water run-off. Until final approval is obtained, only site work and foundation work can be completed.

Plant manager Ed Horadecki said the company should be moved into the new facility from their current quarters on Cleveland St. by early next summer.

The company, which manufactures automotive parts, is planning to sell its current building.

In other planning commission business last week, the commission voted 5-1 in favor of changing the zoning of a parcel from residential to office for Dr. Steven Yarows. Yarows wants to expand his current building on S. Main St. into what is now his parking lot. In addition, he wants to expand the parking lot into what is now the residential area behind it.

However, the commission voted 5-1 in favor of the change, and a recent change in the commission's by-laws require six votes to make an official recommendation to village council. Three members were absent.

The commission voted to recommend a change in zoning for 12.7 acres from residential to office for Chelsea Community Hospital. The site will be used for the new substance abuse treatment center behind the old Faith in Action building. A proposed exit from the facility onto Flanders St. will be addressed at site plan review, assuming village council approves the zoning.

The commission voted against a proposed change in zoning from residential to office for what is known as the Schneider estate on S. Main St. The commission said the proposed change was inconsistent with the General Development Plan and recommended the area be developed under a planned unit development. The village is working on an amendment to its zoning ordinance to allow office developments in PUD. Council is under no obligation to follow the commission's recommendation.

The commission also voted unanimously against a proposed change in zoning that would allow a car wash to be constructed next to the new Chelsea Pediatric Center on S. Main St. Dr. Brian Kennedy and Dr. Mary Westhoff want to change the parcel from C-4 to C-3. The commission said there are other areas of C-3 available and that a change would create additional pressure for more C-3 area to be created.

The village did not receive site plans for Rene Papo's proposed office building off Old US-12 on time so they were not considered.

Preliminary site plan approval was also given for the single-family residential project that will take the place of planned condominiums at Quiet Creek on the northern edge of the village.

The commission set a special meeting for Monday, Sept. 17 in the Society Bank meeting room in order to consider various zoning ordinance text amendments.

Honbaum Runner-Up For State Fair Queen

Laurie Honbaum of Chelsea was the first runner-up in the Miss Michigan State Fair "Queen of Queens Pageant," last week.

Preliminary judging was held Tuesday, Aug. 28 in the Community Arts Auditorium at the state fairgrounds. Ten of the 42 contestants became finalists on Aug. 29.

Selection of the queen was based on personality, poise, carriage, appearance, and on-stage interview. Honbaum won various prizes including jewelry, flowers, trophy, and $250 savings bond.

Polly's Employee, Friend, Nabbed For Shoplifting

A 19-year-old Polly's Market employee and her 19-year-old friend face shoplifting charges in connection with an incident at the store on Aug. 21 at 9:05 p.m.

Police said the employee's friend used the employee's smock to conceal two bottles of wine, which were smuggled out of the store after the employee signaled her to leave.

Value of the wine was $7.98.

Drunk Taken To Hospital

A 25-year-old Jackson man was found unconscious at Pierce Park last Saturday, Sept. 1.

The man, discovered by police on routine patrol at 6:59 p.m., was taken to a detoxification center at Chelsea Community Hospital.

A test revealed a blood alcohol level of .329, more than three times the legal limit for drunkenness.

Police said the man became disruptive at the hospital.

Home Meal Service Has Opening for Volunteer Drivers

One of the most satisfying experiences volunteer drivers for Home Meal Service will have is getting to know the older folks in the area who receive these daily meals. Many of the drivers have been involved in the program for several years.

During the past 12 months, 39 individuals received meals through this program for varying lengths of time. Presently there are 15 through the Methodist Home kitchen and seven being dispatched through the Senior Nutrition program at the Senior Center.

The program needs drivers for Thursdays and Mondays. The volunteer would only have to drive every other week and expect to spend at least an hour delivering. Prospective drivers may call Mar. Erskine (475-9494, 475-2821) or Ann Feeney (475-1493, 475-1145).

Boy Caught Stealing Pop

A 15-year-old Chelsea boy may face charges for stealing a bottle of soft drink from Polly's Market on Saturday, Aug. 25.

Police said the boy concealed the bottle in a coat but went through the line and purchased other items.

In a statement to police, the boy admitted that he didn't have enough money for the soft drink, so he took it.

Ann Arbor Businessman, Passenger Die in Crash

Crash investigator Stanley Yates from the Washtenaw County Sheriff's Department was summoned to the site of a 10:40 p.m. fatal double pin-in crash in Dexter township, Friday night, Aug. 31, in which an Ann Arbor businessman who resided in Pinckney, and a Howell woman, were killed after the Porsche 928 sports car in which they were traveling westbound on North Territorial Rd. rounded a curve at a high rate of speed, the driver lost control, the vehicle crossed the eastbound lane and rolled three times before striking a tree.

The bodies of driver William Michael Martin, 44, and his passenger, Marilyn Suzanne Robinson, 29, were taken to University of Michigan Hospital by Nis.

Fire-rescue workers from the Chelsea Fire Department, and personnel from Huron Valley Ambulance assisted at the crash scene, Yates noted in his report.

The report also stated alcohol was definitely a factor in the crash. Martin was owner of Business Resources, Inc., an office supply firm based in Ann Arbor with outlets in Brighton, Lansing and Royal Oak.

The two traffic fatalities brought the total to 34 reported in Washtenaw county, this year.

At this time, last year, 27 traffic deaths were recorded in the county.

VIDEO PRODUCTIONS CLASS at Chelsea High school was given a studio camera, along with tripod and dolly by BookCrafters, Inc. The camera had been used for corporate training at the company, but now will be used to teach high school students the fundamentals of television production. Teacher Bill Coelins, right, accepted the equipment from Sue Sheffield, corporate trainer, and Randy Kuckuck, director of administration, last week. Coelins said that most television production students wouldn't have the opportunity to work with such a piece of equipment until their junior year in college.

CONNIE SCOTT of Merry Miscellany was one of the many craftspeople to display her works at the Chelsea Community Hospital Auxiliary Flea Market last Saturday at the Chelsea Fairgrounds. Here she's working on a painted turtle for herself.

Tracy Kaiser and Scott Otto were the big winners in two nights of the Cavalcade of Thrills Demolition Derby at the Chelsea Community Fair. Kaiser finished second to Dawn Murphy in the Powder Puff heat for women before winning the feature event later in the evening. It was a big pay day for Kaiser, who won $50 in the Powder Puff heat, and $225 in the feature. Winner of Tuesday's first heat was Jamie Bollinger, Steve Cobb was second.

Due to a larger-than-anticipated equity fund, the Chelsea School Board approved the purchase of two additional school buses at their regular meeting Sept. 2. According to assistant superintendent Fred Mills, the decision to buy two different makes of bus at the same time was made because the district wanted to evaluate them under the same conditions. The average bus is used for seven years, and becomes a spare in its eighth year, Mills said.

Madeline Hunter, a nationally-known expert on classroom instruction, spoke to Chelsea teachers in the High school auditorium and the public was invited. Hunter is a lecturer in the Department of Education at UCLA who is known for her work linking research on teaching and learning with classroom practice.

Laurie Smith and Carolyn Chase of Dayspring Gifts met with John Davidson, entertainer and host of Hollywood Squares, to discuss his game while at a Christmas merchandise buying convention.

Beth Flanagan, Chelsea High school junior class representative, won the 1976 Fair Queen title in pageant ceremonies held Aug. 24. Members of her court were runner-up Pam Stephens, freshman class representative, Michelle Ball, senior class representative, and Penny Wood, sophomore class representative. In addition to her title, Miss Flanagan was presented with a special award of Miss Congeniality.

A 17-year-old from Jackson was arrested by police Aug. 27, and prosecuted for shoplifting a sweater from Dancer's Store. Mark Hurst, store manager, told police officers the woman had taken three items into a fitting room and had returned with only two. She was apprehended outside the store by employees, and confessed to the theft of the missing item.

With record crowds attending the 39th annual Chelsea Community Fair, only two larcenies were reported during fairground festivities. Of these two, one involved the theft of a 1917 John Deere Model 3010 gas-powered farm tractor. Robert Breuninger, owner of the machine, stated he had parked the tractor in the area west of the grandstands following the fair's annual tractor pull event. He returned to discover the vehicle missing.

In addition to the annual livestock attractions at the Chelsea Community Fair, a major focal point of the five-day event was the expansive display of homemaking arts. The 1976 over-all Grand Champion winner in the home economics department was Mildred Fish, whose top exhibit was a bicentennial quilt map of the United States. Each square of the quilt contained the name of the state, the state flower, and the state bird.

Arlene Merle Bouce Howe, of Chelsea was listed in the third edition of London's "Dictionary of International Biography." Mrs. Howe is a nursing consultant and staff specialist at the University of Michigan Medical Center of the University of Michigan School of Nursing. She went on a 30-day consultative tour for the University of Chile Medical Center in Santiago, Chile, under the sponsorship of the World Health Organization. She was gone about seven weeks.

Miss Roxanne Shears, representing the Chelsea Jaycees, was selected Queen of the Chelsea Fair. Candis Daniels, representing the Chelsea Kiwanis Club, was chosen as the runner-up.

George Scrivener, who was Chelsea's exchange teacher from England, arrived and assumed teaching duties at North school. Among his first impressions of Chelsea, Scrivener commented that he was very much impressed by the Chelsea fair. Scrivener had also attended a horse auction at Napoleon and said the western dress of the persons attending the auction surprised him. He said he thought that people probably only dressed in a western style in American movies, and was delighted to find otherwise. One of the greatest differences between Americans and the British noted by Scrivener is the "refreshing virility, direct and simple approach to life," which he had found here. "England has lost this," he commented.

Mandatory Recyclable Sorting Favored By Select Committee

A recent survey of the Senate Select Committee on Reuse, Recycle and Return and adjunct members shows consensus favoring mandatory household and business separation of recyclables. Seventeen of the 26 committee members surveyed this summer agreed "all citizens should be given the opportunity to recycle, at the very least." The survey, conducted through the Science and Technology Division of Legislative Service Bureau and the committee's legislative task force, will be used by the committee and Sens. Vernon Ehlers (R-Grand Rapids), John Cherry (D-Clio) and Chris Dingell (D-Trenton) to discuss and draft legislation dealing with solid waste and recycling. "1989 was a turning point of recycling, and it was not just a phenomenon in Michigan," said Ehlers, committee chair. "Every state is working on this. We're not unique."

Every sector of the population in heavily populated areas, such as cities or counties, would be asked to participate. Most survey respondents said the mandate should include both curbside and drop-off services, identification of specific materials and an enforcement mechanism. Although members did not determine who should have regulatory responsibility for any mandatory program, the Department of Natural Resources and the Department of Commerce were favored the most.

Other issues addressed in the survey were landfill bans, local government responsibility, market development, governmental collection and recycling programs, tax credits, financing solid waste recycling programs, labeling/logo programs, product bans and deposit laws.

Some concerns brought out in the survey include the limiting effect of the Headlee Amendment on mandatory recycling programs, problems with assuring markets for recovered materials and the need to make recycling convenient for local residents.

Members disagreed on the importance of profitability in plans for recycling. Some supported government assistance in the private sector if needed, while others felt the state should be funding educational efforts instead.

Emergency Rule Targets Chemical Dangers at Workplace

At the request of the Department of Public Health, Governor James Blanchard has issued an emergency rule aimed at improving protection from harmful chemical exposures for Michigan workers. "Of all environmental exposures, none are greater than those of workers who risk chemical exposure day after day, year after year," Public Health Director Raj M. Wiener said. "These new protections could reduce lost workdays due to chemical exposure illnesses by one half-million days. And on a national basis, could save 700 lives annually."

The rule was issued under the authority of the Michigan Occupational Safety and Health Act. It adopts lower exposure limits for 212 chemicals and creates limits for 164 new chemicals to allow state-wide enforcement of national standards under the federal OSHA program. While the new rule allows for a phase-in period until 1993 for engineering controls such as ventilation systems, Michigan employers must meet the new limits immediately.

Commerce Department Spending Under Further Attack By Republicans

Sen. Nick Smith (R-Addison) has attacked as "blatantly political" an article in the department's publication "Connections." This announcement occurs within days of the Department of Commerce pulling economic development radio and television advertisements after Sen. Doug Cruce (R-Troy) asked for an Auditor General investigation into their funding.

Smith called a column by the governor's small business advocate and Small Business Services Bureau Chief Jeff Padden "misleading and inaccurate" and said he has asked Department Director Larry Meyer for equal time. "To publish and mail this document costs thousands of taxpayers' dollars. To use it for political advertising for Governor Blanchard's reelection is another example of the misuse of the public funds," Smith said.

The column, entitled "The Politics of Death and Taxes," refers to the inheritance tax cut (SB 1) veto. Smith, sponsor of the bill, criticized the column as having "had nothing to do with the small business." The column also says the governor faces "stiff political winds" in proposing to resolve the small business issue. It touts Rep. Roland Niederstadt (D-Saginaw), sponsor of an inheritance tax version being considered in the House (HB 6914) as standing firm on behalf of small business owners.

Bureau policy analyst Donna Wegryn said the column in the small business quarterly was not politically motivated and was justified by Padden's background and position in representing views of small businesses. She said she would consider a request for equal time, although she stood behind the Padden commentary. "We've seen a lot on the issue already in the trade magazines; the other side has a forum," Wegryn said.

The issue in which the inheritance tax was addressed was a scheduled publication and had not been released in conjunction with the upcoming election, Wegryn said. The next publication will not be issued until after the election.

The publication, distributed through Small Business Services Bureau within the Department of Commerce, was received by "thousands of small business owners" the same day the economic development advertisements were taken off the air, Smith said.

Uncle Lew from Lima Says:

DEAR MISTER EDITOR:

Clem Webster told the fellers at the country store Saturday night that he spent more time than usual last week reading under the ceiling fan, and he was reminded that folks all have a surplus of hindsight and a shortage of foresight. He was thinking particular of recent court rulings on class action suits.

A Federal judge in Cleveland agreed to lump more than 100,000 cases of asbestos injury into one. The lawyers are screaming to high heaven, Clem said, which is the best endorsement of the idea anybody can hope for. Cutting out $9,999 contingent fees is painful to the contingees, Clem said, but easing a 10 year court backlog will help the legal process. You got to wonder, Clem said, why this idea was this long coming.

As another overdue move, Clem took note of driver education teachers in this country that are being paid more to ride around in cars than regular teachers get. He had seen where driver ed teachers are paid more because more of them have advanced degrees than them in any other field. This is because they don't have tests to grade or lesson plans to make so they have more time to go to school. The idea now is to let school teachers teach schooling and driver teachers teach driving, and never the twain ought to meet.

The fellers picked up on Clem's report. But Hookum said he had thought the situation one side and down the other, and he was of a mind that the trouble with the U.S. Census Bureau is the U.S. Postal Service. If the Bureau hadn't tried to take the census by mail, Bug allowed, we wouldn't be like the feller said about folks that know to much that ain't so. Ever 10 year we come up with a world of information about us that we won't believe because we are told that not enough of us filled out the forms and mailed em in. We all know to many of us treated the census forms like junk mail.

Practical speaking, Bug went on, he would be willing to bet if the Census Bureau had mailed $5 vouchers to ever household in America it would of saved money on what it cost to hire all them numerators to find folks that didn't send in the forms. Them that complete and send in the forms with the signed vouchers would be paid $5, just about everbody would do it and the Treasury would come out way ahead, was Bug's words.

As usual, Zeke Grubb said, Bug's grasp of the situation done nothing so much as show the depth of his ignorance. Computers work for less than people, Zeke said, and computers in census offices all over the country know what forms don't come back, and they have some notion how to find homeless people that don't have addresses. We got to hire folks to count noses that can't be reached by mail, and they can do it for less than $5 a nose.

Furthermore, Zeke went on, we got to be careful we don't count folks we ain't got because census numbers crank out as Federal dollars for local projects and good paying seats in Congress. Paying $5 a form would just add fuel to this part of the census fire, was Zeke's words.

As far foresight, I figger that feller that runs the Eleven in British Columbia wishes he had some. Young people hang around his place listening to boom boxes. He tried to run em off by setting up loud speakers and playing dentist office music. They bought headphones and come back stronger than ever.

Yours truly, Uncle Lew.

Julie Prohaska, David Egeler Marry in Ann Arbor Church

Julie Ann Prohaska, daughter of David and Helen Prohaska of Chelsea, and David Wayne Egeler, son of Clifford and Judith Egeler of Leland, were married May 12 at the First United Methodist church of Ann Arbor before 200 guests.

The Rev. Russell Smith performed the ceremony.

Susan and Robert Decker of Grandville, sister and brother-in-law of the bridegroom, sang "The Gift of Love," and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride wore a victorian style, floor-length gown of ivory silk chiffon over a silk satin underdress. The gown was heavily-adorned with beadwork, seed pearls, and sequins. Her chapel-length veil of opalescent tulle dotted with sequins was gathered to a headpiece of ivory chiffon petals and pearls. She carried a bouquet of white roses, stephanotis, freesia, tulips, lilacs, lillies of the valley, and a cascade of ivy and myrtle.

Maid of honor was Lisa Sellers of Ypsilanti. She wore a navy raw silk street-length dress. The dress was finished with a pleated cummerbund and covered buttons at back and sleeves. She wore a matching navy straw hat with a pleated navy satin band. She carried a bouquet of pink roses, pink tulips, purple lilacs, lavender freesia, and blue and pink bachelor buttons.

Bridesmaids were Rita Halasz of Tecumseh, Maura Labriola of Naugatuck, Conn., and Myriam

Miller of Hanover Park, Ill., friends of the bride. Their dresses were the same as the matron of honor's.

The bride's mother wore a long-sleeved, street-length dress featuring a bodice of lavender, mauve, and mint green stripes with a dropped waist over a knife-pleated lavender skirt.

The bridegroom's mother wore a navy blue suit. The short-sleeved jacket featured a white collar trimmed in lace.

Ringbearer was Adam Wurm of Maple City, nephew of the bridegroom. Best man was Daniel Egeler of Ann Arbor, twin brother of the bridegroom.

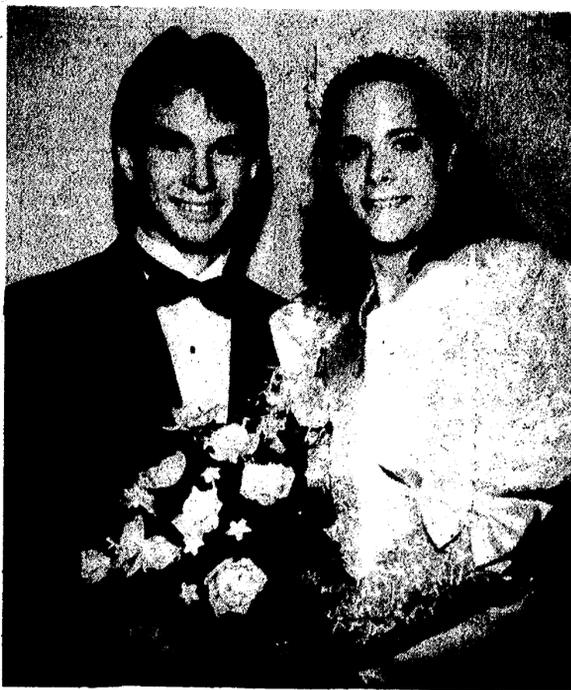

Ushers were Edward Swope of Milan, Charles Halasz of Tecumseh, and Clarence Ervin of Ypsilanti, friends of the bridegroom. Scott Prohaska of Ann Arbor, brother of the bride, and Daryl Egeler of Ypsilanti, brother of the bridegroom.

A reception was held at Cobblestone Farm in Ann Arbor, featuring a country picnic and pig roast, with a jazz band and barber shop quartet.

The couple took a one-week honeymoon trip to Orlando and Naples, Fla. They are living in Ann Arbor.

The bride is a graduate of Eastern Michigan University and is a fundraiser for the University of Michigan.

The bridegroom is a graduate of the University of Michigan and the University of Detroit and is an attorney for Recovery Specialists of Ypsilanti.

Darren and Karen Girard

Karen Grau, Darren Girard Recite Vows in Zion Lutheran

Karen Louis Grau, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Grau of Chelsea, and Darren Richard Girard, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Girard of Chelsea, were married Aug. 11 at Zion Lutheran church of Chelsea before 150 guests.

The Rev. Mark Weirauch performed the ceremony.

Kristina Steffenson sang "The Wedding Song."

Maid of honor was Dena Stevens of Chelsea.

Sarah Grau, the bride's sister, and Steffenson were bridesmaids.

Best man was Garth Girard of Chelsea, brother of the bridegroom.

Ushers were Bryan Kidd and Daniel Degener of Chelsea, friends of the couple.

A reception was held at the Berkshire Hilton in Ann Arbor.

The couple took a one-week honeymoon trip to Jamaica. They are residing in Ann Arbor.

The bride attends the University of Michigan School of Business. The bridegroom attends the Eastern Michigan University School of Business.

PETERSON-SHERICK: Margie Peterson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tobias Peterson of Chelsea, and Daniel Sherick, son of Dr. and Mrs. Ivan Sherick of Ann Arbor, were married July 1 at Temple Beth Emeth in Ann Arbor. Rabbi Robert Levey performed the ceremony. A reception was held at the Dearborn Inn. The couple took a honeymoon trip to Europe. They are living in Grand Rapids. The bride is a 1987 graduate of the University of Michigan and is teaching science in Kent City. The bridegroom is a 1987 graduate of the University of Pennsylvania. He is in his fourth year of medical school at Michigan State University.

GOLDEN ANNIVERSARY: Frederick "Fritz" and Della (Eschelbach) Strieter, formerly of Chelsea, will celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary this Friday, Sept. 7. The couple, now living in southern Texas, were married Sept. 7, 1940 in Chelsea Lutheran church. Fritz worked for Dow Chemical Co. for 37 years before retiring in 1979. They have one daughter who lives in St. Louis, Mo. Above is the couple as they appeared in high school. Below is a recent photograph.

CHELSEA CO-OP NURSERY sold baked goods at the Chelsea Community Hospital Auxiliary Flea Market last Saturday at the fairgrounds. There were about 120 exhibitors in a fundraising event that seems to grow every year. From left are Lynne Sterling, Gayle Thompson, and Linda Koch, all nursery members.

Lima Township Still Considering Liquor License

restrictions would be too hard to enforce.

Luhouse has also suggested that the township approve a resort class license with the deed restrictions. That license has to be renewed every year with township approval.

"That's quite a hammer we'd have over his head," Bacon said.

However, Bacon said Flintoft has suggested that Luhouse purchase an old-style tavern license, which limits sales to beer and wine, that is for sale by another business. That license, which is no longer available through the state, would cost Luhouse about $30,000 to $40,000. The newer resort license would cost about $1,000, Luhouse said.

Flintoft's suggestion of the tavern license purchase is in itself a kind of compromise as he has previously said township ordinances do not allow a license or restaurant in an agricultural district and that references to them on final site plans should be stricken.

The parking lot issue will probably have to be solved by the zoning board of appeals, Bacon said. Township ordinances require a lot size of more than 175 spaces, while Luhouse contends he'll rarely need as many as 70 spaces. Luhouse has yet to file for a variance, however.

Luhouse also said last week that someone has been tearing down his golf course sign at Jackson and Dancer Rds. In addition, someone has "trashed" Dancer Rd. at the intersection by putting limbs and rocks in the roadway, an apparent attempt to keep traffic off the road.

The golf course is at Dancer and Jerusalem Rds.

CHELSEA'S GINNY FLANNERY, at far right in the photo, was joined by three Dexter girls to form the "Hicktown Hoopsters," competing as a team at Port Huron, Aug. 10-11, and bringing home a trophy as the runner-up team in the Gus Macker 3-on-3 Basketball Tournament. From Dexter, Ginny's teammates included Tricia Clark, in addition to Michelle Farrell and Tara Kendall, both shown with Ginny in the photo.

School Board Notes

Present at a regular meeting of the Chelsea Board of Education Monday, Aug. 20, were Comeau, Satterthwaite, Feeney, Eisenbeiser, McCalla, Dising, superintendent Piasecki, principals Mead, Benedict, Wescott, assistant principal Rossi, community education director Rogers, special education director DeYoung, curriculum director Bissell, athletic director Welton, guests.

Meeting called to order at 8 p.m. by President Comeau.

Board approved the minutes of the Aug. 6 regular meeting, and the minutes of the special meeting of Aug. 13.

Special Education Director DeYoung introduced Dr. Mary Green, of Eastern Michigan University's College of Education, who was present to briefly discuss the final evaluation report of North School's 1989-90 inclusive education pilot project. In addition to being a very successful and cost-effective program, it will serve as a model for the entire county. Drs. Green and DeYoung indicated that this program is held in high regard by other schools.

Community education director Rogers reported on the partnership which was negotiated with Learning Consultants, Inc., Chrysler Proving Grounds, and the Chelsea School District/Willow Run Adult Education Consortium. Through the partnership arrangement, with instructors provided by the district, Chrysler employees will be able to pursue vocational and high school completion courses.

Superintendent Piasecki updated the board on the progress of the installation of fuel tanks and dispensers at the bus garage. Work on this project has revealed some soil contamination; however, the district will be working closely with the DNR and the contracted environmentalist.

Athletic director Wayne Welton reviewed a proposed athletic eligibility policy which would cover middle and high school athletes.

Superintendent Piasecki briefed the board on discussions held at the most recent Facilities Committee meeting. A board/committee workshop has been set for 7 p.m. Monday, Oct. 1, to discuss the direction in which to proceed to meet facility needs.

Principal Ron Mead informed the board that Sheila Rodenkirch has been hired to replace Kathleen Arnett in the high school student office.

The board established the following lunch prices for the 1990-91 school year: $1.50 for students, $2.25 for adults, $.25 for milk, and $.40 for reduced-price meals.

The board approved the closing-out of the following scholarship fund accounts and transfer of the remaining balances to the Chelsea School District Memorial Fund: Mabel Fox Loan Fund, the Schirrmacher, Joseph Muldoon, George P. Frisinger, and Lloyd Heydlauff Memorial Funds. This action was taken because of the time and expense involved in administering the accounts.

The board approved the 1990-91 agreement with the Manchester Community Schools regarding lunches provided by the Chelsea School District.

The board accepted, with regret, the resignation of Marie Crouch, North school teacher, effective Aug. 10, 1990.

The board accepted, with regret, the resignation of Margene Rogers-Modjeski, Beach school teacher.

The board approved several minor changes in the 1990-91 high school handbook.

The board approved the Student Assistance Philosophy and the substance abuse policies which were information items at the meeting of Aug. 6.

The board approved the civil rights compliance plan for vocational educational programs.

The board rescheduled the first September meeting for Tuesday, Sept. 4, because of the Labor Day holiday.

The board convened in executive session at 10:15 p.m. to discuss personnel matters, reconvened in public session at 10:58 p.m., and adjourned the meeting at 11:05 p.m.

DONALD A. COLE, Director

"Your first obligation is to your conscience . . ."

—Arnold Glasow

All of us at one time or another have wished that we might be more like someone else, but the pattern of life might not measure up to our own standards of right or wrong. There is no better advice than that which Hamlet gives us: "To thine own self be true", for there is no peace of mind in living a life which is not in tune with our own conscience.

The other side of this philosophical coin is that, when we do heed our conscience and allow it to guide our actions, we need never fear that critics can shatter our peace of mind. If our inner conscience approves of our acts, we will be at peace with ourselves. Does anything else matter?

Our services are planned to provide comfort in the form of beautiful memories.

"BECAUSE OF CLEARY'S CREDIT FOR LIFE EXPERIENCE, I'M ON MY WAY TO FINISHING A MARKETING DEGREE"

Judy Preslar, Assistant Administrator of Resource Development,
Straight, an Adolescent Drug Treatment Program

"I started working on a marketing degree back in 1978 when I was a secretary and a single parent. After a year, I found that working, taking care of my children and going to college was just too much for me to handle at one time. I decided to drop college and pursue my education later. As it turned out, I never went back.

"After several years of working in a non decision-making role, I developed a desire to move higher on the corporate ladder. I realized that it was not too late for me to finish the marketing degree that I started ten years ago.

"Since I wanted a small college that catered to returning adult students with individualized and personal attention, my superior recommended Cleary. I attended Cleary College after Cleary's President responded to my letter regarding the credit-for-life-experience and got the ball rolling for me.

"I have a new position as Assistant Administrator of Resource Development at Straight, an adolescent drug treatment program. I can thank Cleary for that! Cleary has helped me get a new start."

Call the Admissions Office at Cleary College for information about programs in today's fastest-growing fields: Accounting, Business Computer Systems, Management, Marketing, Business Office Systems and Allied Health. Classes begin September 19.

Q. What would be your view of the Boeing Company? I know the industry is booming, but if the prospects for world peace are as good as they seem to be, it would seem like their military business could evaporate and they would lose their favorable position.

A. The latest Standard & Poor's report that I have on Boeing shows that in 1988, 30% of their business was in military transportation, missiles and space. Twenty-two percent of the 30% was in military transport and the company lost $85 million on that business. The balance of 8% was in missiles and space and the company made $124 million on that part of its business. The military business, according to these figures, produced only $29 million out of $584 million of profits.

It is the commercial part of the business that is really booming for Boeing. In 1988, Boeing delivered 283 commercial jets. In just the first nine months of 1989, Boeing received orders for 738 jets and 68 commuter aircraft compared with 497 jets and 45 commuter aircraft during the same period a year earlier. Air transportation companies around the world are both replacing and enlarging their fleets. Boeing is the leading producer of commercial aircraft and is the principal beneficiary of this thriving market.

With their markets in eastern Europe and Russia opening up, it seems likely the already robust market for commercial aircraft could be replaced by another boom. There is a Russian aircraft industry, but the fleets it supplies seem older and even more in need of replacement than those in the free world.

It would seem that no matter what happens in the defense area of its business, Boeing is likely to enjoy a high sales rate of commercial jet sales for several years and good profitability.

Standard & Poor's is estimating that Boeing's 1990 earnings per share will be $5.55 as compared with $3.40 for 1989. We do not know enough about the air transport industry to calculate how long the current surge in orders will last, but air transportation seems to be increasing all over the world. At times it seems like the skies over major American cities are almost saturated, but that problem will probably be solved and the industry will move on to greater volumes. Boeing's management has been growth minded and probably will continue to come up with new ideas.

Thursday, Sept. 6, 1956—

An after-dark swim on a hot night can be refreshing — and surprising — according to William Seppala of Covington. Seppala, who owns a summer home at Three Lakes, decided to take a cooling dip in the lake about a half hour after dark. While in the water, he heard splashing in front of an adjoining cottage. Thinking it was his neighbor, Seppala shouted a friendly greeting and then gasped in surprise as a large bear charged out of the water, across the beach and into the woods.

The Holstein-Friesian Association of America, Brattleboro, Vt., announced the completion of an official production record by a registered Holstein cow owned by George Macomber. Wipoorwill Briar Rose Babe produced a total of 13,934 lbs. milk and 512 lbs. butterfat as a 4-year-old. Michigan State University supervised the weighing and testing of this record which was a part of the Herd Improvement Registry of The Holstein-Friesian Association of America.

The Ferry Morse Seed Co., which was celebrating its 100th anniversary had found the names of two Chelsea business firms in a ledger at their Detroit office in which it listed their first customers. Names of the two firms were listed as Branch, Harlow & Hatch and John C. Winans.

FIRST LADY BARBARA BUSH, left, was escorted by Washtenaw County Sheriff's Deputy Cindy Squires, right, and deputy Ernie Milligan from Detroit Metro Airport to the Ypsilanti Ford plant recently. This photo was hand-delivered last week by a White House employee, which caught Squires, a Chelsea-area resident, completely by surprise. Mrs. Bush visited the plant as part of her Literacy Program. Squires is a 1979 graduate of Chelsea High school and has been working for the sheriff's department for 10 years. She is the daughter of Charles and Sandra Broderick of Grass Lake.

Bob & Carl Concert Slated Saturday at Hudson Mills Park

Bob and Carl, a versatile duo offering music from the 60s to the 80s with a touch of country and country rock, will appear at the Activity Center of Hudson Mills Metropark near Dexter on Saturday, Sept. 8 from 5 p.m. to 8 p.m.

Their itinerary includes music from artists like Bob Seger, Everly Brothers, The Beach Boys, Jan and Dean, Willy Nelson, Elvis Presley, Beatles, Motown and others.

Seating is limited, persons are advised to bring their own chairs or blankets.

This program is "free," except for the required vehicle entry permit (Annual: regular-$10, senior citizen-$5 or daily-$2).

The park entrance is at 8801 North Territorial Rd., near the junction of Dexter-Pinckney Rd., Dexter.

For information contact Hudson Mills Metropark, phone (313) 426-8211 or 1-800-47-PARKS (toll-free).

By the year 2000, there will be more than 3 million newly separated veterans added to the veteran population. These veterans can be expected to have the same relative needs for job training and job placement as have their predecessors, according to a report, "Workforce 2000 and America's Veterans." The publication is a report of the Secretary of Labor's Committee on Veterans' Employment.

Naturalist-Led Walk At Park Points Out Signs of Autumn

Several nature events will be held at the Huron-Clinton Metroparks during the period of Sept. 8 through Sept. 9.

"September Stroll," a naturalist-led walk focusing on signs of summer's retreat and autumn's approach, will be held at Hudson Mills Metropark near Dexter on Sunday, Sept. 9 at 1 p.m. Participants should meet at the Activity Center.

Most programs are "free," some may have a nominal charge and advance registration and a vehicle entry permit are required. For information/registration, contact the Huron-Clinton Metroparks, phone 1-800-47-PARK (toll-free).

Ten Free Trees Offered By Arbor Day Foundation

Ten free trees will be given to each person who joins the National Arbor Day Foundation during September, 1990.

The free trees are part of the non-profit Foundation's Trees for America campaign.

The 10 trees are the Sugar Maple, White Flowering Dogwood, Pin Oak, White Pine, Red Maple, Birch, American Redbud, Silver Maple, Red Oak, and Colorado Blue Spruce.

"These trees were selected to provide benefits every season of the year: lovely spring flowers, cool summer shade, spectacular autumn colors, and winter berries and nesting sites for songbirds," John Rosenow, the Foundation's executive director, said.

The trees will be shipped postpaid at the right time for planting between Oct. 15 and Dec. 10 with enclosed planting instructions. The six to 12-inch trees are guaranteed to grow or they will be replaced free of charge.

To become a member of the Foundation and to receive the free trees, send a $10 membership contribution to Ten Trees, National Arbor Day Foundation, 100 Arbor Ave., Nebraska City, Neb. 68410, by Sept. 30.

Census Data Taxes The Imagination

The Commerce Department's Census Bureau reports that Michigan agriculture has the nation's highest real estate tax rate per $100 of land and buildings.

The report is based on the 1988 Agricultural Economic and Land Ownership Survey. Ron Nelson, legislative counsel for Michigan Farm Bureau, said one reason the tax rate is high is because there is so much competition for land use in the state.

"Development and expansion, be it residential or commercial, tends to cause land prices to increase," he said. "That translates into a higher state equalized value (SEV). The SEV times the millage rate per means a higher tax cost per acre or per value."

Nelson says the high real estate tax rate is offset somewhat by the state Homestead exemption and by participation in the Farmland and Open Space Preservation Act (P.A. 116).

LORI'S BOUTIQUE has opened between Johnson's clothes primarily for junior high and high school girls, How-To Store and Accent On Travel on N. Main St. Partners Harold Allen and Lori Shink are offering designer Designer Clothing Store for Girls Opens Downtown on Main St.

Lori's Boutique, a store with designer clothes aimed at junior high school and high school girls, has opened in the former home of Country Rose next to Johnson's How-To Store on N. Main St.

Lori Shink and Harold Allen are partners in the venture. Neither has owned a retail store previously. In fact, it wasn't until late June that they even decided to go into business. But once they made the decision, they moved quickly. The floor was replaced with wood planking, shelving was constructed, the inside was painted, and the ceiling was textured. As of last Friday the store still needed some lighting, but the inventory was mostly completed and display racks were full. There are plans to install MTV as a constantly-running display.

Ed Davidson, owner of Bivouac in Ann Arbor, is a consultant.

"We felt there was a big need for this in Chelsea," said Allen, who said part of his motivation came from having to go to Ann Arbor to purchase clothes for his daughter. Shink, who worked in the school district last year, said kids often complained there was no place in Chelsea for them to shop.

Allen and Shink have targeted a specific market in Chelsea—primarily girls who buy designer clothes such as Esprit, Girbaud, Perry Ellis, Union Bay, B.U.M. Equipment, and others. Sizes range from 3-13 and older girls and women may also find clothes to their liking. They have underwear, pants, tops, sweatshirts, jackets, socks, and underwear. Shoes, and other accessories, will be coming later, Shink said.

Allen said that prices at Lori's Boutique are comparable, if not lower, than at stores in Ann Arbor.

Allen said the clothes they decided to carry are the clothes they see people wearing. Shink has shopped for the merchandise in New York and Chicago. However, they said they are more than a little interested in suggestions for their product line.

"We'd really like input from kids as to what they'd like to see in the store," Allen said.

Allen and Shink said they decided to locate downtown partly because it is easy for kids to walk downtown to shop and partly to put another store downtown.

"We've really gotten a warm reception by other business people," Allen said.

Store hours are 10-9 weekdays, 9-7 on Saturday, with Sunday hours yet to be determined.

Cellular Company Gets Approval For Tower

Lima Township Planning Commission approved the placement of a 275-foot cellular telephone tower in a wooded area on the Strieter farm.

The special use permit was granted for Detroit Cellular Telephone Co. with a number of conditions. The company will also have a fenced in building on the site.

The tower would be located in the northwest quarter of section 25 in the area bordered by Parker, Jerusalem, Steinbach, and Liberty Rds.

The company will also need a road variance.

Let's Go Bulldogs!

Bulldogs Stop Mason On Two-Point Conversion To Take 30-28 Win

For the second time in two games at Mason, a solid defensive play in the closing seconds gave the Chelsea Bulldogs a victory in the opening game of the season.

Two years ago the Bulldogs stopped Mason at the one-foot line on the final play of the game to preserve a 12-8 win.

Last Friday the center of the Bulldog defensive line stopped a two point conversion with less than 30 seconds left to lift them to a 30-28 victory.

"It was good to get a win, especially against a physical team because we play another physical team this week," said Chelsea coach Gene LaFave, referring to Friday's game at home against the Saline Hornets.

Chelsea took a 30-22 lead with 10:27 left in the game on a three-yard run by senior tailback Jude Quilter, his third touchdown of the game. The drive featured a 27-yard keeper by quarterback Tucker Steele down the left sideline.

The Bulldogs eventually found themselves with the ball at their 22-yard line with a third down and one and less than four minutes remaining. Then everything fell apart.

A personal foul nullified a first-down run by Quilter. Three penalties later the Bulldogs were punting from the back of their end zone.

The punt went out of bounds at the Chelsea 30, and Mason went to work. They moved the ball to the 20, then Quilter was called for pass interference at the 11. Mason appeared to score from one-yard out with :28 left but illegal motion moved the ball back to the six. Two plays later they scored from three yards.

Then the defense made the play of the game on the conversion try.

The game was close all the way. Mason scored first to take a 7-0 lead, but the Bulldogs answered on a one-yard Quilter run with 2:50 to go in the first period. Big play of the drive was a 31-yard pass from Steele to freshman Colby Skelton down the left sideline. Quilter ran for the conversion.

Mason answered with a 69-yard scoring drive on their next possession, concluded by a seven-yard run up the middle.

Chelsea again took the lead on their next possession. A late Mason hit gave Chelsea the ball at the Chelsea 49. On three plays, Quilter ran the ball to the Mason 15, then Steele ran to the 10. Quilter ran the next two plays to the three, then Rick Westcott took over and ran to the one, then in on the next play. Steele's pass to a wide-open Skelton was good for two points and Chelsea had a 16-14 half-time lead.

The Bulldogs took the second-half kick-off and fumbled the ball away on the return at Chelsea 33. Five plays later Mason scored from the three and added the two-point conversion to take a 22-16 lead with 8:11 left.

Chelsea staged another systematic drive beginning at their own 38. Steele and Westcott each ran for a first down, and Steele passed to Skelton for another at the 23. A late hit on Skelton's catch took the ball to the eight. Quilter eventually took the ball in from the three with 4:13 left to tie the game. Steele ran right for the two-point conversion.

Steele was 5-7 passing for 62 yards and one interception and ran six times for 44 yards in his first varsity start. Three of those passes went to Skelton for 50 yards and another one to tight end Craig Ferry for 10 yards.

"Tucker had an outstanding game," LaFave said.

"I thought we were extremely efficient on offense and we did a lot of good things," LaFave said.

"Tucker had an outstanding game, Mike Terpstra was dominating on the line, and Craig Ferry was very tough at the point of contact."

Quilter ran for 106 yards on 20 carries and Westcott picked up another 74 yards on 14 carries.

Mason outgained Chelsea 299-288 and had 20 first downs compared to Chelsea's 15.

Saline comes to Chelsea Friday for the first big Southeastern Conference game of the season.

Lonnie Mitchell, who scouted the Hornets Friday, said Saline has two extremely quick running backs and a generally potent offense.

JV Gridders Drop Home Opener

Mason clobbered the Chelsea Bulldog junior varsity football team, 56-6, at Niehaus Field last Thursday night.

The game was relatively close throughout the first half, but Mason scored 40 points in the second half, thanks largely to numerous Chelsea breakdowns, primarily on special teams. Two blocked punts led to touchdowns, and Mason returned both a punt and the second-half kick-off for touchdowns.

"We were really pleased at the end of the first half," said Chelsea coach Wayne Welton, whose team trailed 8-0 with three minutes left in the half and 16-0 at half-time.

"But then it all broke down in the second half. It was really a game of sophomores against freshmen."

Mason has 25 sophomores on its team while Chelsea has 25 freshmen.

Welton said the Bulldogs moved the ball well behind Pat Steele's play at quarterback. Steele completed 8-11 passes, including four to Steve Grau, and ran 25 yards for Chelsea's only score on an option play.

"Steele played very well," Welton said.

Chelsea plays at Saline tomorrow night.

QUARTERBACK TUCKER STEELE takes the ball on Bulldogs' final score of the game. Steele rushed for 44 a 27-yard run in the second half, which helped set up the yards in his first varsity start.

Bulldog Cagers Rip Manchester In Season Opener at Home

Chelsea Bulldogs varsity basketball team had no trouble in their first game of the season as they whipped Manchester 74-24 last Thursday in the Chelsea gym.

Last Tuesday's scheduled season-opener at Adrian was called off after the power went out during the junior varsity contest and a tornado was sighted in the area.

Manchester, a young team, couldn't keep up with the two-time Southeastern Conference champions. Chelsea led at half-time, 38-11 and at the end of the third quarter, 58-18. The Bulldogs held Manchester to eight field goals for the game.

"It was a question of were we that good or were they that bad," said Chelsea coach Rahn Rosentreter.

"It was probably more of the latter."

Chelsea played man-to-man defense all night, probably the only time that will happen this season, Rosentreter said.

"Our guards put pressure on them and Manchester couldn't handle it very well."

Chelsea had a balanced scoring at-

Youth Soccer Program To Be Offered

Chelsea Recreation Council is once again offering a Youth Soccer Program for children in grades K through 6th. Playing times will be on Saturdays, beginning on Sept. 22 and running through Oct. 27. Grades K-1st-2nd-3rd will practice from 9 to 9:30 and the games will be 9:30 to 10:30.

Grades 4th-5th-6th (both boys and girls) will practice from 10:30 to 11 with the games being from 11 to noon. The fee is $14 for children from Sylvan, Dexter and Lyndon township. Other township participants will pay $20.

Girls are encouraged to sign-up, as the council is trying to get a girls team started. All registrations may be done at the Community Education Office or call 475-9830, if you need more information. All games/practices will be at Papo Fields. Registrations received after Sept. 10 will be charged a $5 late fee and will only be considered if space is available.

Boosters Plan Pre-Game Party This Friday

Chelsea Athletic Boosters is sponsoring a pre-game pizza party this Friday from 5-7 p.m. before Chelsea's first home game with Saline.

The party will be on the hill overlooking the field.

The boosters will also have a membership table set up for anyone who would like to join.

JV Cagers Beat Dutch

After a slow start the Chelsea Bulldogs junior varsity basketball team took a 43-32 victory over Manchester last Thursday in the season opener at home.

"We were able to pound the ball inside, which was probably the key to the game," said Chelsea coach Paul Terpstra.

"We made a lot of mistakes, but we have 12 freshmen and we're learning."

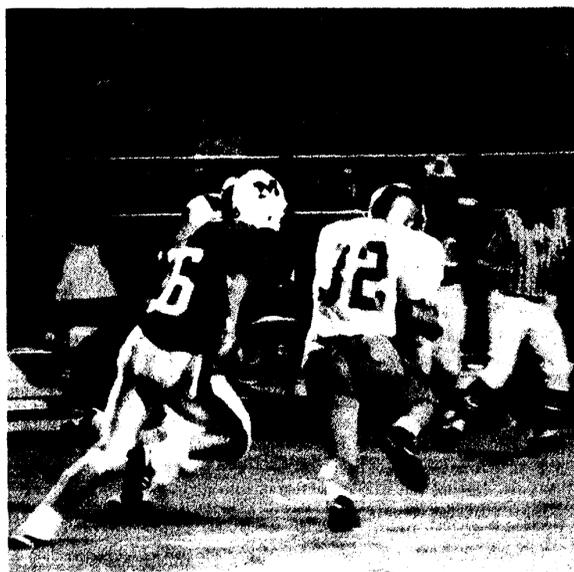

Chelsea took a 13-9 half-time lead then scored 16 points in the third quarter.

Aggressive defense gave Chelsea 15 steals on the night. Chelsea also had a 38-25 rebound advantage and shot 44 percent from the field.

Molly Dilworth led the Bulldogs with 13 points, Ginny Flannery scored 12, and Nicki Plasecki, Erin Schiller, and Mara Smith each had six points.

"Over-all it wasn't a bad start," Terpstra said.

Chelsea's first scheduled game last Tuesday at Adrian was called off in the first quarter when the power went out and a tornado was seen in the area.

TWO MASON DEFENDERS CLOSE IN on Chelsea's Rick Westcott during last Friday's opening game. Westcott rushed for 74 yards and scored a touchdown.

Bulldog Tennis Team Opens With Victory Over Howell

Chelsea Bulldog tennis team won their first match of the season last week, 5-2, over Howell.

All four Chelsea singles players won their matches, as did one doubles team.

For the first time since 1981 the Bulldogs have enough girls to field a junior varsity team. The JVs are Theresa Hurst, Monica Hansen, Heather Wynn, Christine McLaughlin, Alyssa Wagner, Tracy Haas, Sara Smith, Myra Musolf, Becky Flintoft, Gretchen Erskine, and Christine Koch. They all played eight-game pro sets against Howell's extra varsity players.

Both teams play at Brooklyn Columbia Central tomorrow.

In other doubles action, Becky

Some County Parks Will Change Hours After Labor Day

Following the Labor Day week and, Washington County Parks and Recreation Commission will be changing some park hours.

Commencing Saturday, Sept. 15, Parker Mill County Park will be open from 9:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. week-ends only through Oct. 28.

Tours of the 18th century grist mill will be available both days, as well as the picnic area behind the mill. There is also a one-mile walking trail. There is no fee for the tour and there is no park entrance fee. The park is located on Geddes Rd., 1/8 mile east of Dixboro.

Rolling Hills County Park will be open week-ends in September for all activities. Then Oct. 1 through Nov. 11 the park will be open week days from 7:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. Week-end hours will be 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. The 9-hole disc golf course will be open and nature walking trails will be open to walkers enjoying the fall colors. Swimming will not be available. After Nov. 11 the park will be closed in preparation for winter operations which commence Dec. 21. In case of an early snow fall, the park will be open for cross-country skiing. Please call the park for that information at 484-3870. The park is located on Stony Creek Rd., between Bemis and Merrit in Ypsilanti township.

Independence Lake County Park, Jennings Rd., near Whitmore Lake, will be open week-ends only after Labor Day through Sept. 30. The park will then shut down all operations.

For more information concerning any of these parks please call the administrative offices at 971-8337.

Defending State Champs Should Run to Another Fine Season

The question every Chelsea cross country fan is asking is "can the Bulldog girls win it all again?" Chelsea took its first state cross country title last fall, as the signs at the village limits will attest.

And possibly, they can win their second this season.

"We had a magical season last year," said Chelsea coach Pat Clarke, who is in his 20th season of cross country coaching this year.

"Everyone peaked at the right time and the team swept to the league, regional, and state titles. Now the defending state champs must put that all behind them and start a new season. We have a lot of rebuilding to do, but we do have the necessary talent and attitude to get the job done."

Five of the Bulldogs' top eight runners are gone. However, their top two, state champ Lisa Monti and all-region runner Val Bullock, both sophomores, are back and running better than ever, Clarke says.

"Lisa looks just awesome so far," Clarke says.

"Val has put in a fine summer and should break 20 minutes this year."

Senior captain Christine Mignano, who ran under 22 minutes last year, looks strong this season, as do junior captains Charity Allen and Carmen Smith, according to Clarke.

Junior Sarah Franklin will also add some depth.

Sophomores to watch include Sarah Brosnan, who has run 21:00 in practice already, Tracey Wales, a member of the Bulldogs' state 3,200 meter relay team, Beth Williams, the sixth place miler in the SEC last spring, Jessica Holton ("a runner of great potential") and Marie Kramer.

Clarke will also get another lift from CHS freshmen Sarah Henry ("an outstanding distance runner"), Beth Bell ("a runner of great ability") and Emily Anderson.

"The SEC again looks to be one of the top girls cross country conferences in the state," Clarke says.

Milan will return their entire team, which finished 17th in the state last year, and has two all-state runners. Tecumseh will also return its entire team, including the individual run state champion, Nicole Randolph. Saline will again field a solid state-ranked team although the Hornets also lost a lot through graduation. Dexter and Lincoln will be stronger this year since most of their teams return. Pinckney will be rebuilding.

"I suppose you would have to say we are the favorites, but Saline, Tecumseh, and Milan can all give us a run for our money," Clarke says.

"We must stay together and stay healthy to be successful. It's a long season and we'll just have to see what happens. We're looking forward to the season."

Chelsea opens at Bath this Saturday and runs at Saline next Tuesday.

SPORTS NOTES

BY BRIAN HAMILTON

Chelsea Bulldog football team passed its first test, barely, last Friday night at Mason with a tense 30-28 victory.

Neither team showed much defense, although in the Bulldogs' case the defensive unit came through when it had to as it stopped Mason's two-point try in the closing seconds. Had Mason tied the game, it's extremely likely they would have won. The momentum would have been completely on their side, and Chelsea had a hard time stopping their running game all night long.

The Bulldogs should get a lot of credit for overcoming a lot of adversity, some of it their own making, much of it not. The officials got an earful from the Chelsea coaching staff all night long, even after the game ended as head coach Gene LaFave delivered a little monologue to an official who kept trying to walk away.

Two big calls had a major impact. Early in the game the Bulldogs appeared to have the Mason quarterback trapped in the backfield, only to see him scurry out of trouble and complete a short pass for a first down. However, the quarterback had to have run at least a couple of yards beyond the line of scrimmage before releasing the pass. Even the side judges admitted it. Late in the game, defensive back Jude Quilter was called for pass interference on what appeared to be a clean block. That sustained Mason's final scoring drive.

The Bulldogs also had to overcome many of their own mistakes including a dead-ball personal foul late in the game, an interception, a fumble. They missed tackles all night long, and on several occasions on defense failed to take advantage of second or third-down-and-long situations.

But anyone who saw the Bulldogs play should be excited about this year's team, especially this year's offensive squad.

Senior Tucker Steele, who had a couple of first-game mistakes, showed that he could become the best passer Chelsea has had since Dan Bellus. He didn't throw many passes, but he was right on target all night. He threw the long bomb, short strikes over the middle, and the down-and-out with accuracy. And his favorite target was freshman Colby Skelton, who caught three passes, one of them a two-point conversion, and looked for all the world like a young Todd Starkey with his ability to stay calm and concentrate on catching the ball.

Quilter played his usual rugged game at tailback, scoring three touchdowns. And senior Rick Westcott had several fine jaunts and scored a touchdown. Westcott looks to be miles ahead of last season and should be an integral part of the offense.

Steele also ran well and made a heads-up play by eating the ball after he turned around and discovered there was no one there to pitch to.

My favorite part of the game, though, was Chelsea's brilliant extra-point strategy, which may not work again all season long, and may not even be tried again, especially against a smart coach like Saline's Jack Crabtree.

However, it worked twice against Mason. If you're looking down at the field, the entire line lined up to the left side, the center, holder, and kicker were stationed in the center of the field, and there was a receiver or two on the right side of the field. On the first try, Mason was completely confused and no one lined up from the center of the field to the right. Steele, the holder, threw a strike to Skelton, who was wide open in the end zone. On the second try, Mason was completely confused again, and Steele simply romped into the end zone from the right side.

When the Bulldogs eventually tried to kick an extra point, it was painfully obvious why the alternate strategy was chosen—they apparently didn't have anyone who could kick. Punts and kick-offs don't seem to be a problem, however.

This Friday the Bulldogs will get one of their major tests of the season when Saline, ranked in class B, comes to town. The Saline game two years ago marked the last time Chelsea tried its bold, innovative, defensive scheme codenamed "fusebox" in the playbooks.

Six Senior Runners Are Key To Bulldogs' Success This Fall

Six senior boys will be the nucleus of a cross country team that coach Pat Clarke hopes can surprise a few teams in the Southeastern Conference and perhaps even advance in post-season meets.

"Our six seniors have plenty of experience and will provide some much-needed depth," Clarke said.

"They've worked hard all summer with each boy running about 300 miles.

The seniors are led by tri-captains Jim Hassett, Kelly Beard, and Ben Vermeylen. Justin White, Joe Blough, and Brian Andress are the other seniors.

Clarke says he has two juniors who look strong in letterman Rob Jaques and newcomer Mike Reese.

Sophomores on the squad include Tobin Strong, Dan Zatkovich, J.J. Hanke, Dave Sayer, Mike Kennedy, and Kevin Reese. Dan Alber and Tony Trotter are the freshman members.

"We have a nice-looking team at this time, but we must work hard if we are to be successful," Clarke said.

Clarke says the SEC race should favor Saline, last year's state runners-up and that Milan, Lincoln, and Pinckney will also field strong squads.

"The Bulldogs will be a darkhorse," Clarke says.

Chelsea opens their season this Saturday at Bath. The SEC season opens Tuesday at Saline.

To the Editor,
Last Friday, I attended the "Ladies Day" program at the Chelsea fair and invited my daughter and 10-year-old granddaughter, who live in Ann Arbor, to be my guests.

Though we thoroughly enjoyed the program I was terribly upset by an incident that took place shortly after we arrived.

After registration we stood in line for coffee, juice and donuts, but when our turn came my granddaughter and a friend she invited were told they could not have a donut, that they were for the "ladies" only.

As we watched the line, other children were allowed donuts so it was obvious the helpers were following different criteria.

The point is that there are always children at this program and being a guest of the "ladies," the children should be treated with just as much respect.

Nancy Merkel.

Golfers Lose SEC Match

Chelsea Bulldog golf team got off to a rough start in Southeastern Conference play as they dropped their opening triangular meet to Tecumseh and Milan.

Final team scores were Tecumseh 174, Milan 190, and Chelsea 192.

Chelsea was led by junior Aaron Tanner with a 44. Other scorers were Alex Hammerschmidt 49, Nathan Oake 49, Chris White 50, Nick McCalla 50, and Matt Jachalke 51.

"Our inexperience is still showing through in these opening matches," said Chelsea coach Jim Tallman.

"We've got to learn to relax during our matches."

Tallman called the play of Tanner one of the bright spots of the team.

"He seems to have the mental aspect of the game down and rarely loses his concentration."

Chelsea plays at Dexter tomorrow.

NOTE OF THANKS

We would like to express our sincere appreciation to the members of the Chelsea Community Fair Board, all Superintendents, Office Personnel, members of the Fire and Police Departments and all other assistants for their countless hours of volunteer help before, during and after the 1990 Chelsea Community Fair.

The 1990 Fair was a successful one and we appreciate your efforts toward that goal. We would also like to thank the people of the communities of Chelsea and Dexter and the surrounding areas for their participation in and support of the 1990 Chelsea Community Fair. Your encouragement and support are deeply appreciated.

Stuart Blacklaw Named To Head Olivet Humanities

Professor Stuart T. Blacklaw, Chelsea native, has been named chairman of the Department of Humanities at Olivet College. Blacklaw, 30, will retain his title of director of Journalism and Broadcasting along with his new title.

The Humanities Department, the largest department at Olivet College, includes English, Literature, Journalism, Broadcasting, Foreign Languages, Philosophy, Religion, American Studies, Communications, Theater and Speech.

Blacklaw, a 1978 graduate of Chelsea High school, received his Bachelor of Arts degree from Olivet College in 1982 from the department he now heads. Blacklaw earned his Master of Arts degree from the University of Michigan in 1985 and is currently seeking his Ph.D. at Wayne State University.

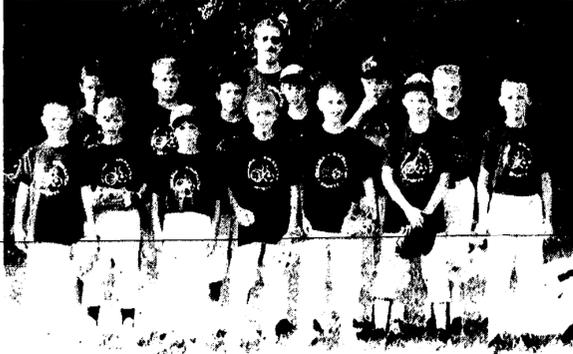

Now in his fifth year at Olivet College, Blacklaw serves as chairman of the Olivet College Media Board and the Broadcast Advisory Council and sits on the college's Faculty Senate

Auditions Scheduled for Junior Theatre Production

Auditions for the Ann Arbor Community Education and Recreation Junior Theatre production of "Charlie and the Chocolate Factory" will be held on Monday Sept. 10 and Wednesday, Sept. 12 and 7 p.m. in the Eberbach Cultural Arts Building, 1220 S. Forest, Ann Arbor (at the corner of Wells St. off Packard between Stadium and State St.). Not only Ann Arbor students but any 8th-12th grade students in the Ann Arbor area are welcome to audition for a role, or sign up for a technical or costume crew. Performances will be Nov. 16-17-18 in the Tappan Middle School Auditorium.

Although led by an adult staff, the Junior Theatre Company "learns the ropes" during the weeks of rehearsals. Participants assist in building and painting scenery, constructing costumes, and gathering props, so that by production week they are able to "run" the performance to a large degree by themselves. Students operate the lights and sound, change the scenery, pull the curtains and apply their own make-up. Participating in the Junior Theatre Company productions not only provides an opportunity for enjoyment of theatre and creative expression, but also allows a chance to learn hands-on technical training. The students involved in "Charlie and the Chocolate Factory" will work with an adult staff that includes director Marge Lewis, producer Becky Zarns, costume and make-up director Andrea Berg, and technical director Wayne Burkhardt—all of whom work under the supervision of Jan Koengeter, the Performing Arts Specialist for Community Education and Recreation.

For more information call 994-2300 ext. 227.

Community Education and Recreation also offers a variety of Acting Technique Workshops for teen-agers and adults, including: How to Audition, Character Development, Using Your Voice and Body as an Actor, Acting for Film and Television, Improvisation, and more. Younger students may sign up for Drama classes held after school at elementary schools throughout Ann Arbor.

Chiropractic Health Care

Health Care Costs

Dr. J. Nicholas Koffeman

Over the last few weeks, this column has dealt with spiraling health care costs. Many reasons such as inappropriate therapies, technological overkill, etc., have been cited for increasing costs.

Where does chiropractic care fit into a model to decrease costs? The answer is twofold.

First, in many studies, such as Oregon, California and Florida workers compensation; AV-MED Health Maintenance Organization and a recently completed ten year study in the British Medical Journal, chiropractic care has consistently been shown to be cost effective with regard to low back pain. Lower back pain is a major part of today's health care costs. Other studies on a wide range of health problems yield the same results.

Secondly, the suppression of symptoms (which are the body's warning signal) by the irrational use of drugs only leads to worsening the patient. Then more costly and dangerous methods of treatment are often used.

Many rational medical people are calling for a halt to prescribing drugs that cover symptoms without regard for the cause of that symptom.

Chiropractic Science and philosophy gets to the cause of many health problems and eliminates them before you "need your gall bladder" or some similar occurrence.

Please address all questions and comments to Dr. J. Nicholas Koffeman, 138 E. Middle Street, Chelsea, MI 48118. 313-475-2088.

PRIMARY TEETH AFFECT PERMANENT TEETH

Q: Is it true that baby teeth are not important?

A: Absolutely not. It is terribly important for parents to realize that the primary, or baby, teeth are vital to a child's appearance, function, and maintenance of proper spacing for the ultimate eruption of the permanent teeth. These factors positively or negatively affect the development of the facial structure.

Children who have lost primary teeth early are much more likely to require orthodontic treatment later on. This is because space necessary for the eruption of the permanent teeth has been lost due to missing primary teeth. These problems can even alter the child's emotional development.

The primary molars and cuspids (the posterior teeth) are most critical in maintaining space for the permanent teeth. Early loss of a primary incisor tooth such as from an injury will usually have little effect on the spacing of the permanent teeth. If a primary incisor tooth is lost early due to injury or decay your dentist will probably simply observe the child until the permanent tooth erupts (usually early). A missing front tooth causes much more anguish to the parents than it does to the child!

Primary molars, on the other hand, are VERY important in maintaining space. If decay involves the pulp or nerve of a primary molar and the tooth has not abscessed yet it can be saved by a procedure called a pulpotomy. The pulp of the tooth is removed similar to a root canal procedure and a permanent restoration is placed on the tooth. If the tooth is beyond repair and does need to be removed your dentist can use different types of space-maintaining devices to hold the space and prevent drifting of the other teeth until a permanent replacement tooth erupts.

Pull on Thursday, Aug. 23 at the Chelsea fair. Young Maryann finished second in her division.

BRIAN TRINKLE placed second in the 3,000-pounds-and-under division of the antique tractor pull at the Chelsea Community Fair this year. The tractor pulls are an annual event for the Trinkle family.

FAIR BOARD MEMBER Tom Smith was reminded that this is the year he goes over the hill as he turns 40 in October. The float was complete with a casket, signifying the end of his busy youth.

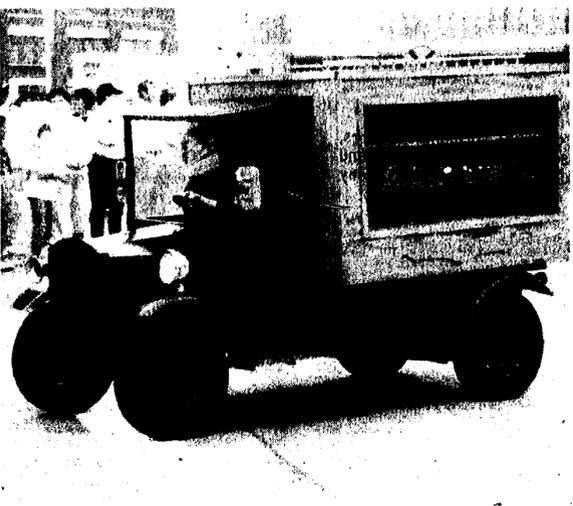

MCKUNE MEMORIAL LIBRARY was represented in the Chelsea Fair Parade with this float featuring children and books.

DRIVING A MOTORBOAT at the Chelsea Community Fair was an exciting experience for Justin Van Vleck, 3½, and his sister, Heather, 1½. Daddy was out of town on a business trip, so their mother, Ellen, and grandparents, Jean and Gary Tilt, took the kids to the fair.

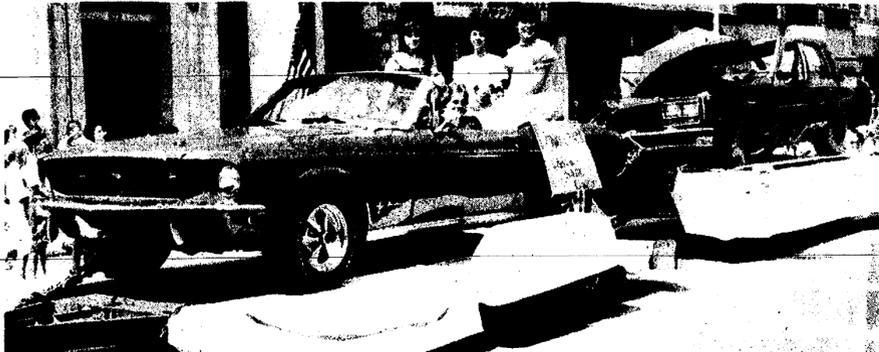

RACHAEL KOERNKE and Lori Anderson, left, take the early lead and eventually win their heat of the three-legged race on Tuesday, Aug. 21 at the Chelsea fair during Kids Day events.

GRANPA CRATCHET and his homespun humor, one of the daily wandering features at the fair, was a big hit with youngsters and adults alike. In his act, a muppet-like character appears to be driving the car.

Rainbow Girls in Pinckney Raising Leader Dog Funds

Pinckney Assembly, of the International Order of The Rainbow for Girls, is participating in a state-wide project to purchase a Leader Dog for the blind.

The first event to be held locally will be a car wash on Saturday, Sept. 8, from 10 a.m. until 1 p.m., according to Annette Gribble, advisor. It will be held at the Pinckney Masonic Temple, 210 Mann St. (1 block east of Dexter-Pinckney Rd. and 1/2 block north of M-36), Pinckney.

The project was selected because one of the organization's members in the state has been blind since birth and will soon be old enough to qualify for a dog to assist her. "We hope to reach our goal by next June so that we can present the dog to our Rainbow Sister at the State Convention," said Gribble.

Members of Pinckney Assembly hope many local citizens will take advantage of this opportunity to get a clean car and support a worthwhile cause.

The International Order of The Rainbow for Girls is a community service and character building organization for girls between the ages of 11 and 20.

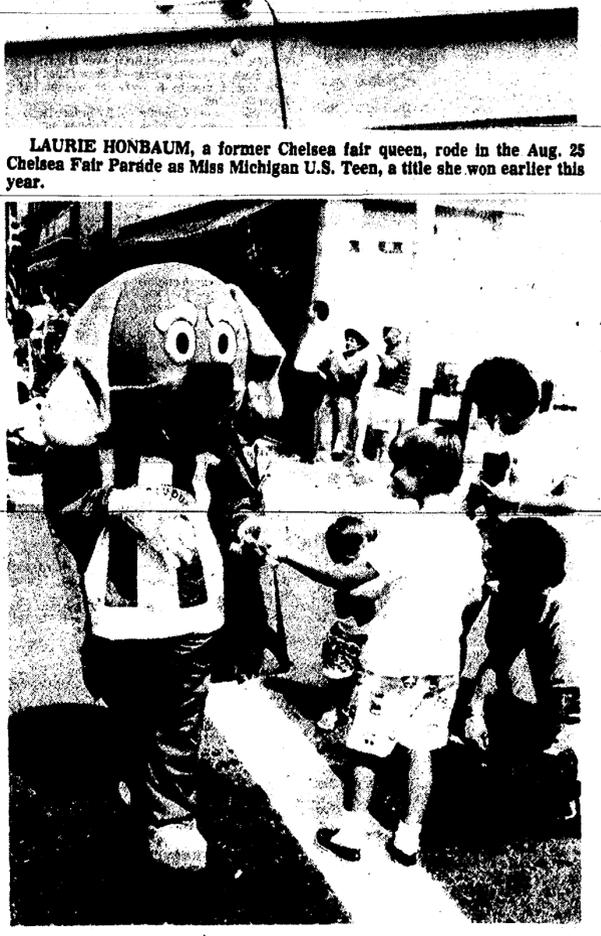

For more information, contact Mrs. Wanda Howard, mother advisor, at (517) 851-8503.

The ancient Egyptians cultivated the wild watermelon. Pictures of the fruit have been found in the older of the pyramids.

CHELSEA HIGH SCHOOL FLAG CORPS led the CHS Marching Band in the Saturday, Aug. 25 fair parade.

SAFETY PUP, Chelsea Police Department's mascot of traffic safety, walked the entire route of the fair parade, shaking hands and passing out candy.

Chelsea Celebrity Makes Professional Theatre Possible for His Hometown

By Jeanette Tracy Brock

Twenty years ago, professional theatre in America was located almost exclusively in the borough of Manhattan in New York City. Since then regional theatre, such as the Guthrie in Minneapolis, has taken root and is spreading in popularity. Having a regional theatre in our area is a great opportunity and The Garage Theatre Foundation hopes to receive support from everyone in Southeastern Michigan to help make it a reality.

Gail Bauer, a vice-president at Chelsea State Bank, was chosen as the director of the Garage Theatre Foundation, the fund-raising arm of the organization. She has already had several successful fund-raisers and is planning another on Sunday, Sept. 23 at 7 p.m. at the Chelsea High School Auditorium. The evening is a benefit concert of live music and comedy, starring Jeff Daniels, The Progressive Blues Band, and The Stunt Johnson Theatre. Refreshments will be provided by the Taste of Chelsea. Tickets for reserved seating may be purchased at Village Instant Photo, Chelsea Shopping Center, at the corner of Main St. (M-52) and Old US-12 (475-5920 for more information).

Jeff Daniels' involvement in the fund-raiser is more than just a happy accident, for without Jeff, the whole project would never have come to be.

Jeff was raised in Chelsea. He became interested in theatre in high school. At that time, there was a music teacher by the name of Diann L'Roy. She would corner every student, especially the boys, to perform in musicals that she herself directed. Boys were never inclined to volunteer for musical theatre, so she would trap them in the halls and encourage them to come to rehearsals. Jeff was one of her recruits and once there he became hooked on acting.

L'Roy taught the students how to act, sing, make costumes, build sets, paint scenery, and sell tickets. She was dedicated to her students and they all worked long hours to bring such shows as "Oklahoma," "South Pacific" and "Fiddler-on-the-Roof" to life. Jeff credits L'Roy as one of the inspirations in his career.

After attending Central Michigan University, Daniels went on to New York to join Circle Repertory Company, an Off-Broadway Theatre. He has also had a supporting role in the movie, "Terms of Endearment," as well as the lead in "The Purple Rose of Cairo." His latest role was the lead in this summer's thrill comedy, Disney's "Arachnophobia." Needless to say, he had become a success in his own right.

Daniels feels he wants to repay the community in which he was raised as well as help young actors, as he was helped. He recently acquired a property at 137 Park St. in Chelsea. The building was a former garage. With the help of many people, the building is taking on the form of a theatre. Hence, The Garage Theatre, a new regional theatre is born.

The theatre has a thrust stage and will seat approximately 140. The audience will be seated on three sides of the actors, making the audience feel a part of each play. The theatre boasts a wonderful workshop, where sets and costumes may be built. There is plenty of dressing room space and ample lobby. There is also lots of city parking next door.

The Garage Theatre will house The Purple Rose Theatre Company, a professional company, dedicated to encouraging and developing new plays and playwrights and bring them to the attention of the Michigan audiences. They also want to create a supportive environment for growth and development of the theatre artist in Southeastern Michigan.

The company plans to offer master acting classes, scenography workshops, actor/director workshops, one act play festivals and one act plays, utilizing young actors, directors and playwrights. Within this framework, the company hopes to attract established professionals for lead roles and use supporting casts of talented people, training to be professionals, matching union and non-union actors interested in exploring the art.

Jeff Daniels will serve as executive director of the newly formed company. T. Newell Kring, a veteran of Off-Broadway and the regional theatre scene has been signed on as artistic director, with Chelsea's own Doug Beaumont, and Bart Bauer to serve as managing director and technical co-ordinator, respectively.

The company's first mainstage production will open in January. However, this can only be done with the help of the community. To that end, The Garage Theatre Foundation has mounted a campaign to establish founding members. Each donation of $500 or more will give that member their name engraved on a small brass license plate that will be displayed on theatre seats.

There are many ways you can help support the theatre. Besides supporting the fund-raising benefit concert on Sunday, Sept. 23, the theatre needs items donated, including mirrors, irons, sewing machines, power and hand tools, clothes racks and many monetary donations.

The Garage Theatre Foundation board of directors includes Gail Bauer, director; Suzanne Morrison, associate director; Jackie Schiller, financial director; Daphne Hodder, director of records; Jeanette Tracy Brock, director of communications; and Donna Palmer, director of community affairs.

You may contact any of these people for more information. It is hoped you will take the opportunity to support The Garage Theatre by attending the benefit in September. Tickets may be purchased at Village Instant Photo in Chelsea (475-5920). Come join the fun.

GAIL BAUER is director of the Garage Theatre Foundation.

DOUG BEAUMONT is managing director of the Purple Rose Theatre Company of the Garage Theatre.

Hospital Auxiliary Will Honor Four Charter Members

On Sept. 11 the Auxiliary of the Chelsea Community Hospital will meet for their regular meeting at 7:30 in the Main Dining Room at the hospital.

Donna Murphy from the Traumatic Brain Injury Department will be the featured speaker and will show slides of the second annual camping experience of the patients.

Also during this meeting special honors will be bestowed upon six of the charter members. The Volunteer program, to perform services for the patients, was begun in February 1970. In the spring of 1977 the Chelsea Community Hospital Auxiliary was formed with 12 charter members. On Feb. 8, 1982 the Volunteers and Auxiliary merged into one organization.

There are now four persons who hold life membership in this organization. Anyone interested in becoming a volunteer who brings joy and satisfaction to patients as well as to oneself, is welcome to attend.

Card of Thanks 19

THANK YOU
Our recent sad loss of our mother, Alice Salyer, leaves us with grateful hearts toward friends and relatives. A special thanks to Dr. Krause, the nurses in the East Wing at Chelsea Community Hospital, the rescue unit of Chelsea Fire Dept., the Rev. Larrel Whitaker and Cole-Burghardt Funeral Chapel. Your comforting expressions of sympathy and thoughtfulness will always be remembered.
The family of Alice Salyer.

THANK YOU
We want to thank our family for the 50th anniversary dinner at Schumm's. The table was beautiful, the food was great. So many beautiful cards and gifts. We like to thank our church people for the cards and prayers sent to us. God bless them all. Thanks again. We love you all.
Julius and Lina Reule.

THANK YOU
We wish to thank all who supported our booth at the fair. For our little friends' questions there were 479 marbles in the jar.
Chelsea Area Historical Society.

CARD OF THANKS
The family of Clara Heller would like to thank those who sent cards, flowers, food and donations in her memory. A special Thank You to John and Gloria Mitchell for all of your gracious help, to the Rev. Alton Koengeter for his kind words at the funeral service, and to the Women of Zion for the luncheon after the service. God bless.
Leroy Heller, Bob and Elsie Heller and Family.

New School Bus Stop Law Affects Drivers

Legislation making Michigan's school bus stop law uniform on all roads and streets across the state and consistent with other states became law on Aug. 15.
Motorists should proceed with caution and be prepared to stop when they see yellow hazard lights flashing. When the red overhead flashing lights are activated all motorists approaching the bus must stop no closer than 20 feet from the bus and remain stopped until the red overhead signals are turned off. (The law previously required the flashing red lights to be turned on as the bus was moving and approaching the stop and allowed motorists to stop 10 feet from the bus when stopped.)
Buses manufactured after Oct. 1, 1990 will be equipped with two overhead amber lights in addition to and located next to the two flashing red lights. School buses throughout Michigan now use the hazard lights until new buses gradually replace the hazard lights with overhead amber lights that warn motorists of an approaching bus stop.
The new statute requires all motorists in Michigan to be ready for the changes. Previously the red light use was optional for cities, now all school buses will be operated in the same manner throughout Michigan.
Remember as in the past, WHEN THE FLASHING RED LIGHTS OF THE SCHOOL BUS ARE ON ... STOP ... AND REMAIN STOPPED UNTIL THE RED FLASHING LIGHTS HAVE BEEN TURNED OFF.

Lima Township Board Proceedings

Regular Meeting
Aug. 6, 1990
The regular meeting of the Lima Township Board was called to order at 8:10 p.m. by Supervisor Steffenson on August 6, 1990.
Present were Supervisor Steffenson, Clerk Bareis, Treasurer Messman, trustees Heller and Trinkle. Several guests.
Approved minutes of July 2, 1990 meeting.
Approved minutes of July 16, 1990 meeting as corrected.
Treasurer's report was received.
Approved motion that the six and four acre parcels commonly known as 100 Dancer Road be left combined, by selling the four acres to the Hruskas, to form a ten acre parcel to conform with the zoning ordinance.
Approved motion to increase the township secretary salary to $7.00 per hour.
Approved resolution to not be involved with the Washtenaw County solid Waste Management Plan.
July 21 a meeting was held with Lodi, Freedom & Scio townships to discuss the Low Level Radioactive Waste Facility proposed for the four townships. Information is being gathered to oppose the project.
Approved the private road application for Chelsea Meadows, as it conforms with the Lima Township Road Ordinance.
Supervisor Steffenson proposed the appointment of Harriet Hamilton, David Bacon, Keith Bradbury and Charles Trinkle to the Planning Commission. Motion made and carried to approve the appointments as proposed.
Steffenson proposed the appointment of Carol Steffenson to the Board of Appeals, term to expire on November 20, 1990. Motion made and carried to approve the proposed appointment.
Approved motion to pay election inspectors $5.50 per hour.
Approved payment of bills as presented.
Approved motion to adjourn at 12:30 a.m.
Respectfully submitted,
Arlene R. Bareis, Clerk.

New Michigan School Bus Stop Law

When red overhead flashing lights are activated, approaching and following traffic must stop not closer than 20 feet from the stopped school bus and not proceed until signals are off. If a bus is off the roadway and only amber hazard warning lights are flashing, motorists from both directions may proceed with caution.

Gift Received By Health Center For Cancer Facility

Gifts totaling $2 million were made for the development of a comprehensive Outpatient Oncology Treatment Facility at Catherine McAuley Health System's St. Joseph Mercy Hospital, Ann Arbor.

The facility will provide cancer patients better access to the latest treatment procedures through a comprehensive program encompassing cancer education, prevention, screening, diagnosis and treatment and hospice care.

The gifts were made possible by the Harry A. and Margaret D. Towley Foundation and by an anonymous donor.

Commenting on the gifts, CMHS president Robert E. Lavery said, "The gifts are the largest individual donations we have ever received. When fully operational, the new facility will be among the state's and the region's foremost cancer centers, permitting a higher quality and higher volume of cancer care than at any time in McAuley's history."

The Outpatient Oncology Treatment Facility will cost an estimated $6.1 million and is expected to be completed by summer, 1992. CMHS vice-president for advancement Margaret Cooney Casey said funds in addition to the $2 million donation will be raised through community philanthropy.

The funds will go toward construction of a 25,000 square foot outpatient cancer treatment facility, including a cancer care pavilion, which will house a multitude of cancer-related services in one location. St. Joseph Mercy Hospital's inpatient cancer unit will also be relocated near the new facility.

The project will expand CMHS' cancer care to accommodate the more than 1,400 new patients diagnosed with cancer each year at CMHS.

DAVID BARONI
IN CONCERT
Coming Sunday, Sept. 9 — 6:00 p.m.

to
CHELSEA FREE METHODIST CHURCH
 7665 Werkner Rd., Chelsea, Ph. 475-1391

Christian singer & songwriter David Baroni has been involved in a full-time music ministry for several years giving concerts in churches, colleges, and auditoriums across the nation. He has also written several songs among which is "Soldier of Light" which was nominated for the "Dove" award in 1980. In 1984 Debbie Boone and Phil Driscoll received a Grammy for David's "Keep the Flame Burning." In addition to these he has put out a full length video which is rated as one of "Light Music's" top-10 videos.

David will be providing special music for the 11 a.m. worship service.

Stan Hargis To Speak
At Christian Fellowship

Stan Hargis, youth pastor of more than 250 teenagers at Mt. Hope church in Lansing, will be a guest speaker at Chelsea Christian Fellowship church on Sunday, Sept. 9 at 10:50 a.m.

Hargis will be accompanied by his gospel band and singing group as he delivers a contemporary message aimed at youth but of interest to the entire family.

The public is invited to attend.

Price of Food Shows Increase Since May

Food costs rose slightly this quarter compared to last, according to a survey conducted by the American Farm Bureau Federation. The average price paid for 16 popular food items in food markets studied in 25 states was $31.15 in the most recent survey, compared to $30.63 in the previous quarter.

Most notable increases were for shortenings, pork, eggs, dairy products and apples. Noticeably lower, on the average, were prices for potatoes and flour. Most other items remained about the same as in the May survey.

2 Corinthians 5:17 - "Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature (creation): old things are passed away; behold all things are become new."

Have you ever asked yourself, "Is this all there is to life?" Are you depressed, burdened by guilt? Don't give up! You can have a new beginning. Jesus died for you. He rose from the dead victorious over sin, sickness, poverty, and death. He did it all for you.

You are a spirit, you live in a body, and you have a soul (mind, will, and emotions.) When you accept Jesus as your personal Savior and declare Him as Lord, (Romans 10:9,) your spirit is reborn - recreated. God's life and nature are imparted into your spirit. Old things - sins and all your past life are removed, blotted out, and you become a new creation in Christ Jesus. No matter what you've done, Jesus' blood washes you white as snow. You may then boldly stand before Almighty God, call Him, "Father," ask for and obtain mercy and find grace to help for every need. You pass from death to abundant life.

Make Jesus your Lord and Savior today! He's the God of new beginnings.

+ AREA DEATHS +

Berna L. Vosteen

805 W. Middle St. Chelsea
Berna L. Vosteen, 805 W. Middle St., Chelsea, age 88, died Thursday, Aug. 30, 1990, at the Chelsea United Methodist Retirement Home. She was born Aug. 17, 1901, in Deichausen, Germany, the daughter of Wilhelm and Minchen Sturken. On July 26, 1926, she married Adolf Vosteen, and he preceded her in death in September, 1968.

Mrs. Vosteen previously resided in Gosban, Ind., where she owned and operated a restaurant for many years. Following their retirement, they moved to Punta Gorda, Fla.

Surviving are three sons and daughters-in-law: Hans and Mary Vosteen of Winnisquam, N.H.; Bernhard and Margaret Vosteen of Rochester Hills, and Louis and Annette Vosteen of Williamsburg, Va.; many grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

A memorial service was held Tuesday, Sept. 4, 1990, at 11 a.m. at the Chelsea United Methodist Chapel, with Gregory Willis, Elder of the Chelsea Congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses, officiating. Burial will be in Indian Springs Cemetery, Punta Gorda, Fla.

Arrangements were made by Staffan-Mitchell Funeral Home.

Rev. Dr. Ivan Gonser

725 W. Middle St. Chelsea
The Rev. Dr. Ivan O. Gonser, 725 W. Middle St., Chelsea, age 84, died Wednesday, Aug. 29, 1990 at Chelsea United Methodist Home. He was born April 11, 1906 in Onaway, the son of Milo and Anna Laura (Minaker) Gonser.

On June 14, 1930 he married Alma Rutherford. They worked together for many years in Christian education and she survives.

The Rev. Gonser graduated from Newberry High school, Eastern Michigan College of Education and received a bachelor of science degree. He also graduated from Chicago Training School. He was in the Air Force and received a commendation following WW II.

Dr. Gonser was a United Methodist minister for 44 years and held an honorary doctor of divinity degree from Adrian College. He enjoyed fishing, hunting, and his large vegetable garden.

Besides his wife he is survived by three sons, Donald of Lancaster, Pa., Kenneth of Adrian, Marvin of Grand Rapids; one brother, Clare of California; two sisters, Milo Vaughan of Arizona, Laura Buffum of California; eight grandchildren, 15 great-grandchildren, several nieces and nephews. He was preceded in death by one son, Robert, on Aug. 8, 1968, and three brothers.

Funeral services were held Saturday, Sept. 1, at 10 a.m. at Cole-Burghardt Funeral Chapel with the Revs. Donna Lindberg, Jerry Parker, and James Simmons officiating. Burial followed at Lake Forest Cemetery, Grand Haven.

Memorial contributions may be made to Chelsea United Methodist Home or First United Methodist church of Chelsea.

Free Dog Training Clinic Offered By Humane Society

All present and potential dog owners are invited to a Puppy and Dog Training and Care Clinic sponsored by the Humane Society of Huron Valley. A vast array of useful information will be available to help sharpen up your pet's manners and skills for the fall.

The clinic will be held Sunday, Sept. 9, from 3:30 p.m. to 6 p.m. at the Ann Arbor Dog Training Club located at 1875 E. North Territorial Rd., just one mile east of US-23.

Instructors Mick Osman of the Ann Arbor Dog Training Club and Lisa K. Kutchins, DVM, of the Ypsilanti Animal Clinic will be giving valuable tips on topics such as health care, feeding, grooming, housebreaking, obedience training, and dog breed characteristics. There will also be demonstrations followed by a question and answer period.

A $2.00 donation will be requested of all adults attending the session. Children are also welcome; however, we must ask that you please leave your pet at home. Relevant pet care literature will also be available at no cost.

For directions or more information, phone the Education Department at 682-5545 or the HSHV Shelter at 682-5585.

The Humane Society of Huron Valley is a private, non-profit organization serving all of Washtenaw county and dedicated to preventing cruelty to animals and promoting respect for all life.
