ONE HUNDRED-TWENTIETH YEAR—No. 29

CHELSEA, MICHIGAN, WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 12, 1990

24 Pages This Week 2 Supplements

A LIVING CRECHE was one of the highlights of last Friday's annual Festival of Lights in the village. The scene was located next to Merkel's Home Furnishings.

There was the usual cast of characters, including a live sheep. Nearby Chelsea High school musicians played Christmas music to add to the festivity.

DDA Financing Plan Sails Through Council After Quiet Hearing

Tax increment financing plan for Chelsea's Downtown Development Authority was passed unanimously by village council last Tuesday after a brief public hearing.

The approval marks the end of a planning process that began more than five years ago and has occasionally been the source of considerable controversy.

DDA now has the official go-ahead to implement its $1.7 million downtown development and beautification plan, a plan that has changed substantially since the first drawings showed a tree-lined Main St. and the first financial figures indicated a project of about $350,000.

Over the last few years, public hearings have been held on several financial matters related to DDA. Last Tuesday's hearing may have been the only one that didn't draw a single comment or complaint.

Village council also approved a bid from Chelsea State Bank to fund the first bond issue of $99,000. The bank's interest rates were 6.25 percent, 6.35 percent, and 6.45 percent for bonds maturing on April 1 in 1992, 1993, and 1994.

DDA bond counsel Don Keim told council that a bond issue of $99,000 didn't justify the cost and time of seeking bids.

The initial $99,000 is being primarily to cover consulting fees as well as the sign program.

A larger bond issue of about $1.1 million will take place next spring.

The remaining money, approximately $600,000, will come from sources outside the bond issue. DDA has applied for at least one grant.

DDA chair Sheridan Springer said plans for a fundraising campaign are in the initial stages.

"Hopefully we'll be able to fund almost anything we want to do," Springer said.

Springer said DDA is planning to meet with the McKune Memorial Library Board next week to discuss selection of an architect for the substantial project at the corner of Orchard and Main Sts. DDA plans to tear down the old convenience store, which could happen any day, and move the old Victorian home behind the courthouse onto the vacant lot. The home would then become part of the library.

"Even though it's our project, it's really something [the library board] ought to control," Springer said.

In other news related to the DDA project, DDA recently approved a bid of $47,000 for the sign program, which was $3,000 below budget for the project, Springer said.

The signs could begin showing up downtown during the winter, Springer said.

DDA is still negotiating with Harper Pontiac concerning a swap of parking lots. The dealership would get the paved lot next to its building on W. Middle St. and the village would get the unpaved lot next to All Season Comfort across the street. That would allow DDA to build a parking lot behind the businesses on the west side of Main St.

DDA will soon be seeking bids on the remaining parts of the project, such as the parking lot, downtown streetscape, and burial of utility wires.

The bulk of the work is tentatively scheduled to begin next spring.

Chelsea Industries Is Target of UAW Local

Employees of Chelsea Industries, Inc. will vote next week on whether to be represented by UAW Local 437 of Chelsea.

The vote is scheduled for Thursday, Dec. 20 and could affect about 130 full-time employees.

Local 437 represents workers at Dana Corp. and Federal Screw Works in Chelsea and has between 300 and 400 members, according to vice president Dennis Carpenter, who works in quality control at Dana.

"I can't go into details, but it has to do mainly with seniority, benefits and working conditions," Carpenter said of the reason for the vote.

"There are a lot of young people there and insurance concerns a lot of people. They feel they are not being treated fairly. We've had a number of meetings [with the workers] and most everything they brought up are legitimate gripes."

Carpenter said the workers have approached owner Jack Dunn about their concerns, but Dunn apparently doesn't want to negotiate. That led to the workers seeking help from the union.

Dunn was unavailable for comment.

If 51 percent of the workers decide they want union representation, then negotiators from Detroit would help them reach a contract with the company, Carpenter said.

"The workers will come up with their own contract, but the people out of Detroit will run the meetings with the workers," Carpenter said.

Chelsea Industries supplies springs and other seat parts for the automotive industry. The company has grown rapidly over the last several years.

Carpenter said recent contracts approved with the Big 3 contain language that encourages the companies to deal with union subcontractors. He said in the future Chelsea Industries may be able to get even more business by being unionized.

Chelsea Comm. Hospital Elects Board of Trustees

Chelsea Community Hospital's board of trustees elected its slate of officers for 1991.

John R.C. Wheeler, Ph.D., was re-elected chairman for his second term. Other officers re-elected are Frank X. Colligan, M.D., vice-chairman, Sally A. Stommen, D.D.S., secretary, and John W. Merkel, treasurer.

Re-elected to the board of trustees for three-year terms beginning Jan. 1, 1991 were C. Wendell Dunbar, Reuel S. Long, M.D., and Raymond E. Van Meer.

Newly elected to the board were Susan M. Cischke and Charles A. Skelton.

Ms. Cischke is executive engineer for Chrysler Proving Grounds Operations, Chrysler Corp., Chelsea. She has worked for Chrysler Corp. for the past 11 years. Ms. Cischke has been active as a member of the Chelsea Area Chamber of Commerce board of directors, the Society of Automotive Engineers, and other professional organizations.

Skelton is senior principal and director of consulting services for Laventhol & Horwath, Southfield. He has been active in professional organizations and associations including the Private Industry Council board of directors, the Michigan Lodging Association, and past executive committee member and chairman of the Ann Arbor Convention and Visitors Bureau.

Ms. Cischke and Mr. Skelton were elected to three-year terms beginning Jan. 1, 1991.

Another Crossing Guard Planned At Intersection

Chelsea Police Department plans to put an extra crossing guard at the intersection of Dewey and McKinley Sts.

North Elementary School Principal Bill Wescott made the request due to increased traffic in the area.

Village council authorized chief Lenard McDougall to find someone interested in the job.

A NEW WATER LINE to serve the soon-to-open Garage Theatre on Park St. was installed Monday afternoon by village crews. The line was necessary to serve an automatic sprinkler system in the building. In addition, the village is installing a new fire hydrant. The building has undergone extensive renovations and the theatre plans to open early this winter.

Village Faces Large Landfill Fund Deficit

Despite efforts to raise extra money by allowing private haulers to dump their refuse at the landfill, the village may still face a $120,000 landfill fund deficit by the end of the fiscal year in February.

Village manager Robert Stalker gave village council the news in his report last Tuesday.

The problem has several components, Stalker said. The village had counted on $50,000 being contributed by Sylvan, Lima, Lyndon, and Dexter townships toward the closure of the old landfill. However, attorneys for both sides are still discussing the issue and an agreement does not appear imminent, Stalker said.

The village wants the townships to share nearly $700,000 of expenses associated with closing the old landfill.

Another problem, Stalker said, is there was a $60,000 overrun in the closure of the old landfill, most of it due to the necessity for more clay to be hauled to the site.

Also, opening the landfill to commercial haulers has not generated the amount of revenue anticipated.

"This estimate should be considered preliminary at this point due to the fluid nature of professional and contractual service charges as related to the mandates of the Michigan Department of Natural Resources," Stalker wrote.

Stalker said the village would have to decide whether to raise more money or borrow from the electric fund to cover the deficit.

"There's no magic way to do it," Stalker said after the meeting. He said it's likely the electric fund would have to become the source of the bailout because there isn't much the village can do to raise enough money during the last two months of the fiscal year.

U.S. Mail Scattered Along Road in Bridgewater Area

A Clinton man called the Washtenaw County Sheriff's Department at 12:50 p.m. Thursday, Dec. 6, to report he had discovered a large amount of United States mail scattered on both sides of Nible Rd. in Bridgewater township.

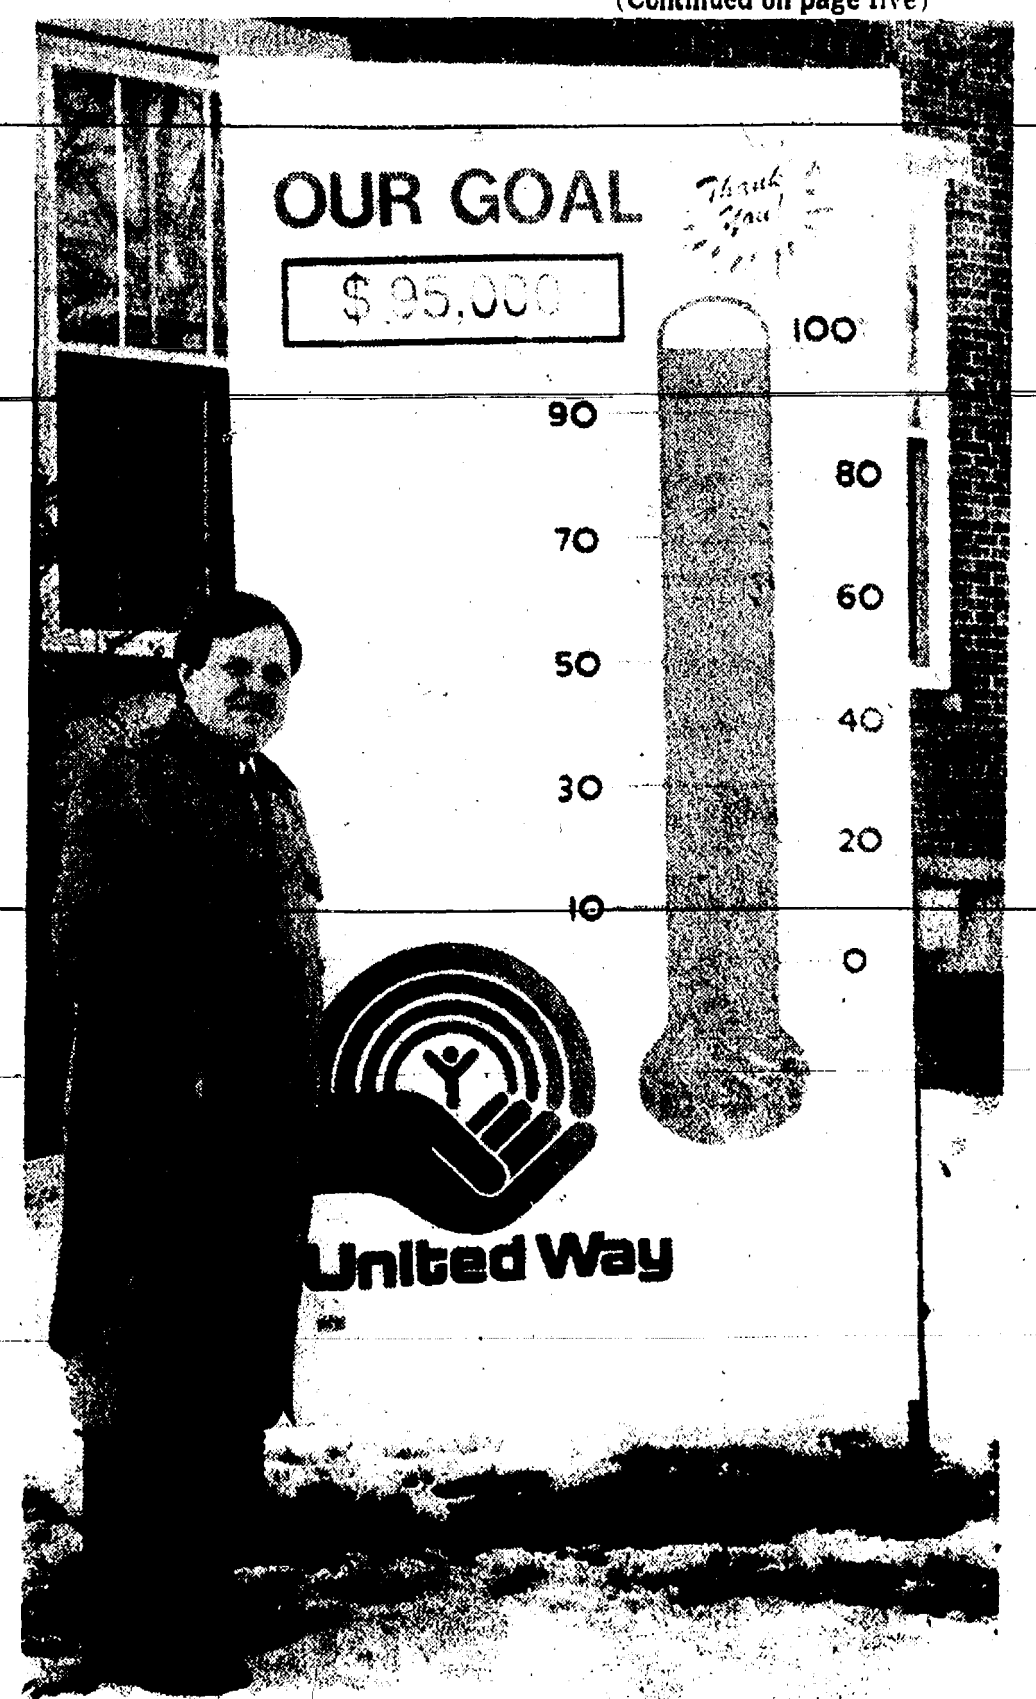

The mail included Christmas cards which had been opened, in addition to several checks.

Cpl. Tom Spiess was assigned to investigate the report.

After contacting postal authorities, Spiess explained the mail had apparently been stolen from the downriver area.

Deputy Zakrzewski was dispatched to take a report on a breaking and entering incident which occurred in

Car-Deer Collisions Continue

Car-deer collisions continue to plague Washtenaw county motorists, and more such incidents are reported to law enforcement officers on nearly a daily basis.

Robert Donald Herbst stated he was northbound on Saline-Ann Arbor Rd. at 8:05 a.m. Thursday, Dec. 6, when all at once, the vehicle he drove struck a deer, which came around and broke out the driver's window.

A deer was killed by the impact. Cpl. Tom Spiess reported after he was assigned to investigate an 11:06 a.m. car-deer collision, Thursday, Dec. 6, on eastbound I-94, west of Saline-Ann Arbor Rd.

Spiess said Sherman Eddy Stanley of Coldwater reported he was driving east on I-94 when a deer ran from the north side of the highway into his vehicle.

Manchester area motorist Matthew John McGulgan told deputy Kevin Deacons he was driving west on Scie Church Rd. about 1:15 a.m. Saturday, Dec. 8, when his vehicle struck and killed a deer which made a sudden appearance on the road.

CHELSEA UNITED WAY CAMPAIGN has surpassed its goal of $95,000. As of last week, more than $96,000 had been donated, with some contributions still to come. "Many agencies will benefit from the generosity of area residents, employees, and businesses," said campaign chair Joe Piasocki, pictured with the United Way thermometer at the post office.

Following a mid-season respite, Chelsea High debaters rejoined the debate circuit to participate in the Plymouth Invitational Debate Tournament at Plymouth Salem High school. The varsity team defeated Belleville and Royal Oak Kimball, but fell to Caro and Plymouth Salem. Chelsea's front-running novice team of Bev Simon and Bruce Stubbs, affirmative, and Beth Flanigan and Steve German, negative, took the second-place team trophy in their division. Some 28 teams competed on the novice level.

Contaminated Sites Added To Cleanup Priority List

Recently released by the Department of Natural Resources was a proposed cleanup list of 2,946 sites contaminated with hazardous materials, 194 more than on this year's list. The cleanup list contained a new priority scoring system applied to many of the sites.

The number of new sites is a fraction of last year's increase, but officials said about 2,000 new leaking underground storage tank sites and a potential of 500 oil and gas sites were not evaluated and would be included next year.

Ron Willson, Environmental Quality Manager for the DNR, said the new scoring system makes the rankings this year impossible to compare to prior year's lists. The DNR rescored 750 sites under the new system—including the 194 new sites—with the rest to be rescored by next year.

Willson said the additional sites are almost all older contamination areas that have just now been discovered. Although the situation is "getting worse in the numbers game," he said the state is getting better at catching polluters before sites have become contaminated.

DNR director David Hales said the system provides "better, clearer information." Combined with concise administrative rules, funding provided by five different sources and tougher enforcement standards under the new "polluters pay" law, it puts Michigan in the vanguard of effective environmental cleanup and environmental protection.

Hales said the polluters pay legislation will go a long way toward forcing those who caused the problem to pay for the cleanup, although the majority of sites being cleaned up under existing procedures is being done by responsible parties. Those parties are conducting cleanup activities at 1,336 sites.

Federal, state and private funds totaling $330 million have been spent or committed for cleanup of 105 hazardous waste sites. Most state funds for cleanups have been provided since 1988 from voter-approved bonds.

DNR officials are in preliminary stages of preparing budget recommendations for the 1991-92 year for the sites ranked in this list. The scores are part of the equation to determine which sites will get cleanup money.

Responsible parties are cleaning up an additional 2,637 sites of leaking underground storage tanks, with 37 others targeted with $5 million under a federal program.

The system considers contamination to soil, groundwater, surface water and air, and factors relating to mobility, population, endangered species, nearby institutions such as nursing homes and toxicity quantity.

Last year, identification of leaking underground storage tanks was the major factor in adding sites to the list, accounting for 42 percent of the 694 new contaminated areas identified.

Willson said the rankings are not necessary to qualify for funds under both federal and state programs designated just for those sites.

DNR officials said 10 sites were deleted from the list, and more could be if the paperwork was completed. Last year, 15 sites were removed from the list with final cleanup completed.

The 10 highest scoring sites include:

- G and H landfill in Macomb county (PCBs, TCE and BTEX chemicals);
- Portage Creek Kalamazoo River in Kalamazoo county (PCB, mercury);
- Auto Specialties in Berrien county (lead, arsenic, chromium, PCB and Benzene);
- Bofors Lakeway Chemical plant in Muskegon county (Benzene, DCE, aniline, aldrin);
- Cleveland Street landfill in Ionia county (lead, manganese, DDT, DDE, chromium and arsenic);
- Port of Monroe landfill in Monroe county (PCB, BTEX and cumene);
- Rose Township Dump in Oakland county (lead, PCB, cadmium and phenol);
- State Prison of Southern Michigan in Jackson (cadmium, chromium, zinc and TCE);
- Village of Douglas in Allegan county (chromium, nickel, TCE, TCA and DCE);
- Arkona Road landfill in Washtenaw county (nickel, chromium, 1,1 DCA and 1,1,1, TCA).

Initiative Given Extra 60 Days To Come Up With Enough Signatures

Richard Headlee and Taxpayers United were given another chance to verify signatures for a proposal to cut property taxes by 20 percent over two years. The need for verification occurred when elections staff indicated the petitions fell short of the required number to force a vote by the Legislature or the voters.

The Board of State Canvassers voted unanimously to give the group almost 60 days to verify signatures deemed invalid in a sample taken by the Secretary of State.

Elections Director Chris Thomas, who said he would work with Headlee to determine if the signatures are verified properly and enough are declared valid to have the initiative certified, had recommended the board not certify the petition based on the ratio of valid signatures on the samples that were checked with local clerks.

According to the Elections Bureau, a sampling shows Headlee turned in 184,219 valid signatures, or 86.9 percent, when he needed 90.4 percent, or 191,728.

Saying the group had a thin cushion of signatures to work with, Thomas said it needed one of the highest percentages of signatures turned in to be valid.

Board Chair Lucille Taylor said the postponement of a decision until Jan. 25 would allow the group a full opportunity to comply with the law and give the Legislature time to respond to the initiative while in session.

Among the signatures deemed invalid that will be contested by the group are ones from registered voters who failed to check the right box for the date, city or township or other address information.

Calling the requirements "fly-specking and nit-picking," Headlee urged the board to allow the group to verify signatures that were invalid because of errors made by registered voters in signing.

Even though such technical requirements have been considered constitutional by the courts, Headlee and his counsel said certain rules that apply to nominating petitions should not apply to an initiative, such as having signatures from people registered in the city or township they write on the petition.

Thomas said there are 7,558 signatures the group may dispute are valid that had been taken out of consideration because they were dated more than 180 days prior to the petition filing date.

Even if those are verified, Thomas said it will still be a close issue on whether the group meets the minimum required.

Uncle Lew from Lima Says:

DEAR MISTER EDITOR:

Zeke Grubb's preacher took note during the session at the country store Saturday night that Caesar has felt on hard times. He said it is time churches look again at what ought to be rendered unto who.

Caesar that art in Washington is more than $3 trillion in debt, and going deeper in the hole ever time Congress sets. The preacher said he can't deal in numbers that big, but he sure it's enough to build a bunch of feller-ship halls and even buy a few pipe organs.

It could be, the preacher declared, that Americans are final seeing they got to pay for what they git. Folks in Philadelphia have been paying local taxes in advance to help the city keep the water running and the garbage picked up. And he had read where a big church in Charlotte, N.C. done some thinking about rendering and set aside one Sunday collection to go to retire the national debt. Usual, the 1,000 members put about $7,000 in the plate, but on Caesar's Sunday the plate runneth over with more than $240,000. That's a drop in a mighty big bucket, he went on, but it showed the change in value we need to come around to.

The Lord asks, the preacher said, we give Him what we please and He don't complain. Caesar demands, and he puts us under the jail if we don't fork over. It is a natural born fact, he said, that what Government don't do unto the least of us the rest of us have got to do. We expect to pay when we take our children to church day care and kindyarden, he said. We know we can't keep turning our children over to our public schools from breakfast to bedtime without picking up the tab soon or late, he said, but we don't want to believe it.

We have saw this year, the preacher went on, that where the Federal Government falls short, state and local Governments have got to pick up the slack or folks that can't help themselves don't git help. When one Caesar drops a program and another picks it up, we keep paying for service we don't git and start paying more for the service we git.

What this means, the preacher declared, is that folks put alive on the sore or hire somebody else to. We pay Governments to do fer us what we actual could do cheaper and better ourselves, he said, and we complain about the cost of our hired help.

Practical speaking, the preacher said, he stood foursquare behind that Charlotte church, the early taxpayers in Philadelphia and the few thousand Americans that send money reglar to special National Debt Retirement Fund set up by the U.S. Treasury. The point to their sermon, he declared, is that we got to do fer ourselves what folks we elect to represent us ain't got the political courage to do fer us.

After the preacher left, Zeke was the first to say he'd never seen him so wound up in or out of the pulpit. Zeke said he didn't hold much hope fer a Caesar collection at his little church, but he could see clearer where we go on Government's free ride. Fer sure, he said, his church day care is pay as you go, and he can look at the books any time and see how far that is.

Personal, I'm fer seeing what we can do with one Sunday afternoon Caesar collection at all the pro football games.

Yours truly,
Uncle Lew.

ABWA Contributes To Faith in Action

On Nov. 27, the Chelsea Charter Chapter of the American Business Women's Association met for their monthly dinner meeting at the Woodlands Room in Chelsea Community Hospital. The speaker was chiropractor Stanley E. Gilbert of Manchester who gave an interesting talk relating to the benefits of health care through chiropractic treatment.

As a Christmas gift to the community, the members agreed to make a cash donation to Faith in Action. Plans for the March 16 fashion show are well under way.

Martha Powers announced that at the January meeting a speaker from Action Seminars will discuss how women can protect themselves from street crime.

On Dec. 1 the group met at the American Legion in Dexter for their Christmas party where a wonderful prime rib dinner was enjoyed by all. After dinner Santa and his wife dropped in to chat with members and distribute gifts.

Chelsea Historical Society Elects Officers for 1991

Chelsea Area Historical Society held their Dec. 10 meeting in the Depot Museum to elect 1991 officers with Kathleen Clark being named president; Hazel Dittmar, vice-president; David Pastor, treasurer;
and Arline Lynch, secretary.

A Christmas display has been set up with a large tree, clothing from a new donor, Marian Horning Pickell of Chelsea, and dresses from the 1920's and 1930's. Old toys also brighten two showcases.

Volunteers will not be available for the next four Saturdays; however, the display may still be seen during Chelsea Chamber of Commerce hours, Monday and Thursday, 10 to 4.
Groups are encouraged to call Marge
Heppburn, 475-8971, for an appointment to tour the museum during the holiday season.

Sunday, Dec. 16, Tom Ziazul will read and sing from his new book,
"Sticky the Christmas Tree No Body Wanted," in the museum between 12 and 2 p.m.

After the business meeting, several
C.A.H.S. members and Joan Dittmar visited the home of Gene and Mary Jo Miller in Chelsea. Mary Jo showed her immense collection of santas, toy animals, reindeer, antique ornaments, ivory, jugs, miniatures, and several decorated trees. Her knowledge of antiques was shared with would-be collectors and she gave insight on what to purchase. The group settled in the Miller's kitchen filled with kitchen utensils, chickens, adorning every wall space, shelf and cubby holes for coffee and muffins.

C.A.H.S. will next meet Monday,
Jan. 8 at 7:30 p.m. in the depot.
Everyone is welcome as the C.A.H.S. will be planning the year 1991 and is always seeking new members.

Tanning Salon To Open In January at Village Plaza

Chelsea Beach Club, a tanning salon and swim wear and beach wear store, is planning to open in early January at Village Plaza.

Owner Matt Russell owns several similar businesses in the Jackson area and has been in the business for nine years. In addition, he publishes a magazine called Tanning Trends Magazine.

"My business philosophy is to be the first in the door," Russell said of his reasons for expanding to the Chelsea area.

"Chelsea is a growing town, plus I live on Sargent Rd. so it's convenient for me."

Some of his Jackson stores, Russell said, have 200 customers per day, although he doesn't necessarily expect that kind of traffic in Chelsea.

One tanning visit costs about $4-$5, Russell said, and several visits are necessary to get a "good base tan."

He'll have four stand-up tanning booths and four beds.

Russell said the dangers of tanning have been exaggerated and his salon uses equipment that cuts out some of the most damaging wave lengths.

Russell said he also expects the swim wear business to do well, even in winter.

"There aren't many places to go to get a swim suit if you're planning a trip in winter," he said.

Russell also plans to carry other kinds of beach clothes and accessories.

Grass Lake resident Karen Boucher will manage the store.

Other business interests for Russell include designing a Christian consumer magazine for children called Faith 'N Stuff, and owning a company that makes power transmissions for conveyors and overhead cranes.

Chelsea Police Chase Van Through Countryside After Theft

A 16-year-old Manchester boy led Chelsea police on a chase through the countryside on Nov. 23 after a 24-year-old companion allegedly stole two 12-packs of beer from Polly's Market.

Police said a 24-year-old Hay Rake Hollow man went into Polly's at about 9:30 p.m. and left without paying for the beer.

Bridge Marathon Play Enjoyed By 10 Couples on Dec. 2

The December meeting of the Couples Bridge Marathon for the benefit of the Chelsea Community Hospital was held in the Woodlands Room of the Hospital on Sunday evening, Dec. 2 with 10 couples participating in the new format for the group.

High couple for the evening was Steve and Donna Dotson of Chelsea with a score of 5,300 for the 20 hands played. Second place was taken by Al and Marge Orlow of Pinckney with 5,000; and couple in third place was Joyce and Angelo Angelocci of Dexter with a score of 4,230.

The group meets the first Sunday of each month through May at 6 p.m.; donating $2 per person to the hospital and 25 cents toward the evening's prizes. They must attend at least five times during the year to qualify for yearly marathon prizes.

Any couple interested in an evening of fun and contribution to the hospital may attend. Please call 475-2750 (Marlene Rademacher) or 428-3887 (Roberta Barstow), or just drop in on Sunday, Jan. 6 at 6 p.m.

Sheriff's Report

Ann Arbor township on the night of Monday, Dec. 3.

While the homeowners were traveling, a relative was supervising both the home and the youngsters, all of whom retired for the night about 10:45 p.m., they told Zakrzewski.

When they awoke about 6:30 the next morning, they noticed a door to the garage walkway was open.

On initial inventory, a mountain bike valued at $300 was missing from the garage, in addition to a $300 Heine ophthalmoscope, a medical instrument used to examine eyes, which was apparently removed from a vehicle in the garage.

A second bike was also reported missing, but its description was not immediately available.

QUOTES

Director

"Almost any idea is good if a man has ability and is willing to work hard. The best idea is worthless if the creator is a loafer and ineffective."

—William Feather

If you are the modest type who tends to disparage your own ideas, William Feather offers good reason for you to take heart. The idea, he suggests, is less important than the character of the person who has it.

Your idea can be a great idea if you combine it with ability and hard work. But even the best of ideas is of little value if you are unwilling to put forth any effort.

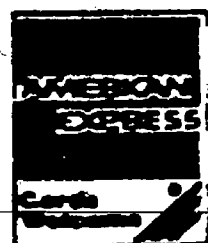

It's usually a good idea to pre-arrange funerals well in advance of need. I am always available to explain the benefits of pre-planning with you. There is no obligation, of course.

Slippery Roads Contribute To Several Area Crashes

Cpl. Tom Spiess filed a report on a two-vehicle crash which occurred about 7:10 a.m. Tuesday, Dec. 4, on ice-covered and slippery Mast Rd. Spiess explained Lanny Dunigan, a Lucy Drive resident, tried to stop, but slid through the Mast and North Territorial Rds. intersection, striking a vehicle driven east on Territorial by Theodore Ray Maynard of Huron River Dr.

Deputy Mike Taylor investigated another incident which was reported at 2:50 p.m. Monday, Dec. 3, on west-bound Austin Rd., just west of Ernest. Saline motorist Patrick Edward Lathrop's vehicle left the road and crashed into a tree along the north side.

Cpl. Spiess investigated a two-car crash on Werkner Rd., reported at 8 a.m. Friday, Dec. 7.

A vehicle driven by Sandra Kay Elsele of Gregory had stopped for a stop sign, when it was struck from behind by one whose driver was Brian Keith Ackley of Waterloo Rd.

After a crash reported to deputies at 2:20 p.m. Friday, Dec. 7, Kenneth Allen Romeo of Ann Arbor was cited for failing to stop.

Deputies explained in their report, Romeo was travelling east on Jackson Rd., just west of the Wagner Rd. intersection, when Willard Jeffery Noble of Saline, the driver of a second vehicle, almost missed his turn into a car wash—when he tried to stop, he was hit from behind.

Romeo's vehicle hit Noble's, which then crossed the center line of the road and struck a third vehicle, driven by Cynthia Louise Conklin of Manchester.

Local Band Records Christmas Song for 'Desert' Families

"Crossroads," a country, pop, oldies band from the Gregory-area, has recorded a song called "The Christmas List," which is receiving some local airplay.

The song was written for all the people who have family members involved in Operation Desert Shield.

The band will be interviewed live on Sunday, Dec. 16 on WHMI-FM, 93.5 on the Jim Evers Country Star Spotlight.

The band includes John and Letha Khozoule of Gregory, J.J. James of Gregory, Randy Long of Portage Lake, and John Flannery of Pleasant Lake.

"The Christmas List" was written and arranged by Letha Khozoule. She plays keyboards and fiddle, and sings in the band. She also wrote songs on a new cassette the band is distributing and has been songwriting for more than 20 years. She has previously recorded a bluegrass-gospel album.

Letha's husband, John, is the band's lead guitarist who owns a music store in Stockbridge.

James plays saxophone and has been a session musician on other albums. Long plays the drums and attends college.

Flannery is the bassist who is also a shop foreman at Federal Screw Works in Chelsea during the day.

THE CHRISTMAS LIST

My little girl
She's only eight years old.
It's getting close to Christmas,
She used to ask for toys.

But this year for Christmas,
There's two things on her list.
Just bring home her daddy,
And keep her world in peace.

They sent him to the desert,
They say just in case.
But every night she prays for daddy,
Cause she's so afraid, so afraid.

That he won't be home for Christmas,
Might not be home again.
If only I could tell her,
That a war will not begin.

So we'll tie a yellow ribbon, around every tree.
If daddy's home for Christmas,
They'll change to red and green.

Cause this year for Christmas,
There's two things on her list.
Just bring her daddy home,
and keep her world in peace.

Holly Porter Re-Elected To Farm Bureau Board

Holly Porter, a farmer from Manchester, was re-elected to chair Michigan Farm Bureau's Promotion & Education Committee and to sit on the 17-member board of directors of the state's largest farm organization. The action took place at Michigan Farm Bureau's 71st annual meeting in Grand Rapids, Nov. 27-30.

Porter and her husband, John, raise dairy replacement heifers and cash crops on their 197-acre farm. She is also a substitute teacher.

There are 22 farmers from throughout the state on Michigan Farm Bureau's Promotion & Education Committee. They provide leadership and assistance to county committees in carrying out promotion and education activities such as Agriculture in the Classroom, agricultural accident rescue seminars, fair and mall displays, farm tours, safety projects, current issue educational workshops, and Farm Bureau Speakers.

Porter has served as a member of a teacher writing team of 4th-6th grade curriculum and, this past summer, was involved in developing a first-of-its-kind institute for non-agricultural teachers to learn how to incorporate agriculture into science, math, economics, social studies and other subjects for K-12 students. A second institute is scheduled for June 19-28.

Art Exhibit Features Works By Students From Soviet Union

An exhibit of artwork by 30 students from the Soviet Union and 10 Ann Arbor Public School students will be on display beginning Dec. 6 at the main campus of Catherine McAuley Health System at 5301 E. Huron River Dr., Ann Arbor.

This is the first in a series of exhibits planned under the terms of a new agreement between CMHS and the Art Department of the Ann Arbor Public Schools. New displays of artwork by area students will be featured every two months.

"We are delighted to enter into this collaboration with the Ann Arbor Schools," commented Deborah Vandenberg, vice-president of Support Services at CMHS and a member of the CMHS Art Enrichment Committee. "We have long recognized that art can play a powerful role in the healing process." She added that CMHS is exploring similar agreements with other area school systems and colleges.

The Soviet art in this exhibit represents works by students in Moscow, Leningrad and Vilnius. The exhibit is free, open to the public and is located in the Atrium between St. Joseph Mercy Hospital and Reichert Health Building at the main campus of Catherine McAuley Health System.

Chelsea Music Boosters Planning Dinner-Dance

The main fund-raiser for the Chelsea Music Boosters is the annual dinner-dance. The dinner-dance will be held at Chelsea High school on Jan. 12. Tickets will need to be purchased by Jan. 5 or reserved with Clara Smith before that time. The melodious tunes of the Saline Big Band will fill the school once again.

This year's dinner will be prepared by Chelsea Hospital's renowned Chef Ron Yonkowski. He is planning an epicurean delight to tickle the palates of the party-goers.

Chelsea school's music programs have seen a 30% increase per year in the last few years. The school cannot meet all the needs for this program and the Music Boosters' budget is stressed to the limit. Please support this fund-raiser.

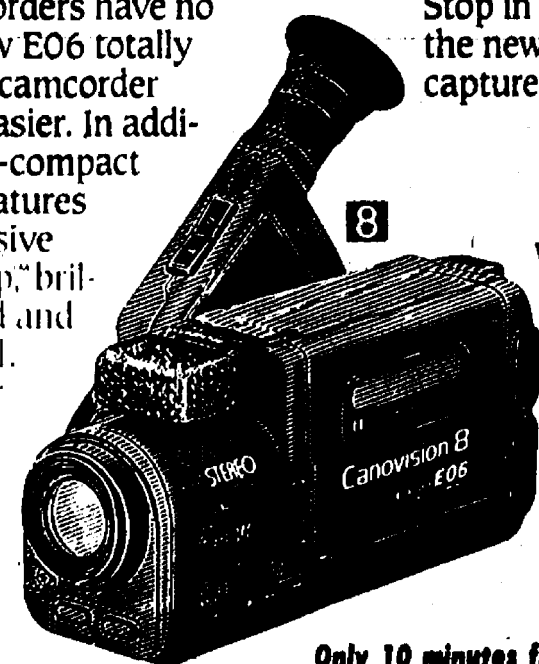

Last year's fund-raisers purchased much needed additional tuxedos and blouses for the high school students, portable risers for the vocal departments at all levels, cumberbunds for the Junior High choir and several other needed items. With the co-operation of many supporters, the Boosters were able to purchase 50 new music stands.

For more information on the dinner-dance please contact Clara Smith, 475-8713.

Rep. M. O'Connor Urges No Pay Hike For State Officers

As Michigan faces a billion dollar budget deficit, state officials should demonstrate sacrifice and fiscal restraint by accepting a salary freeze, State Representative Margaret O'Connor, R-Lodi township, said in a letter to the State Officers Compensation Commission (SOCC).

O'Connor said legislative salary hikes are out of order when substantial budget cuts and belt-tightening loom for the rest of state government. "Although most of my colleagues are dedicated public servants who work long hours, a pay raise would send the wrong signal at a time when we will be asking others to live with fewer state-funded services," O'Connor said. "It seems unthinkable that the commission could be so shortsighted even to consider salary increases for government officials."

SOCC meets in December of each even-numbered year to set salaries for lawmakers, the governor, lieutenant governor, and state Supreme Court justices. Its recommendations automatically take effect unless the Legislature votes to reject them before the following Feb. 1.

"Traditionally, the Legislature does not meet for business prior to this February salary deadline to avoid dealing with the issue," O'Connor said. "However, if the commission recommends a pay increase for the next term, the House and Senate would be derelict in their duty if they failed to convene and reject it."

O'Connor joins Governor-elect John Engler and House Republican leader Paul Hillegonds, R-Holland, in urging a salary freeze at the current level of $45,450.

"Legislative salaries have risen more than 65 percent since 1981—40 percent higher than inflation," O'Connor said. "As we deal with extremely difficult taxing and spending decisions, our credibility, already low in voters' eyes, will be diminished further if we accept a pay hike."

"The commission should not recommend an increase, but if it does, the Legislature should do the right thing and reject it."

House Speaker Lewis Dodak and other House Democrats have urged SOCC to raise legislative salaries.

Blood Drive Slated Thursday At Local Church

The final Chelsea community blood drive of 1990 will take place tomorrow, Thursday, Dec. 13 at Our Savior Lutheran church from 8 a.m. to 8 p.m.

According to the American Red Cross, if three percent of healthy adults gave their blood, there would be no blood shortage in this country.

They point out that operations often require hundreds of pints of blood. They tell the story of a woman in need of a liver who was rejected because there wasn't enough blood available in her area.

Our Savior Lutheran church is located next to McDonald's restaurant on M-52.

Let's Go

Bulldogs Upend Saline, Face Lincoln Friday In Key Conference Game

Chelsea Bulldogs will play a pivotal early-season Southeastern Conference contest this Friday when they host the Lincoln Railsplitters.

Chelsea, which pulled a mild upset of the Saline Hornets on the road last Friday, 52-45, faces a team that handed pre-season favorite Tecumseh a three-point loss in their SEC opener last Friday.

"Lincoln will be excited because they'll believe they are contenders," said Chelsea coach Robin Raymond. "Hopefully we'll have a lot of people there and we can get a few points from the crowd."

Lincoln, which can score in a hurry, will have to contend with an intense Chelsea defense that has allowed 45 points in each of its first two games.

Last Friday, the Bulldog pressure defense managed to control Saline and was responsible for breaking open a 22-22 game in the second half.

"After the first couple of minutes, I think we played the best defense we have played in several years," Raymond said of the Saline game.

"The kids did a nice job all over the court. We won't run into many teams quicker than we are, but Saline is extremely quick and they are a good team. We were in their face the whole night and we forced them into playing our game, which is difficult to do at their place."

It was a physical game from the outset. Neither team had much success on offense in the first half as turnovers stymied each team's efforts. Chelsea led 8-7 after the first quarter but trailed 19-18 at half-time.

However, with 5:28 to go in the third quarter, a technical foul was called on the Saline bench. Jude Quilter's two free throws tied the game at 22.

From there the Bulldogs ran off 12 more unanswered points. Most of the points came off the fast break as the Chelsea defense forced Saline into turnovers and mistakes. Kerry Plank had six points on lay-ups, Jon Royce hit a jumper and a lay-up, and Chris Haugen buried a short set shot.

The Hornets managed to pull within 44-41 as Saline forward Dan Roughton completed a three-point play with 2:51 to go.

However, Chelsea reeled off six straight points to take a 50-41 lead as Plank made two free throws, Haugen scored off a stolen pass, and Royce hit a short jumper. Ben Hurst capped the Chelsea scoring with two straight free throws with less than a minute remaining.

"Our offense was better than it was against Brooklyn, but we still had too many turnovers and our free throw shooting was horrendous," Raymond said.

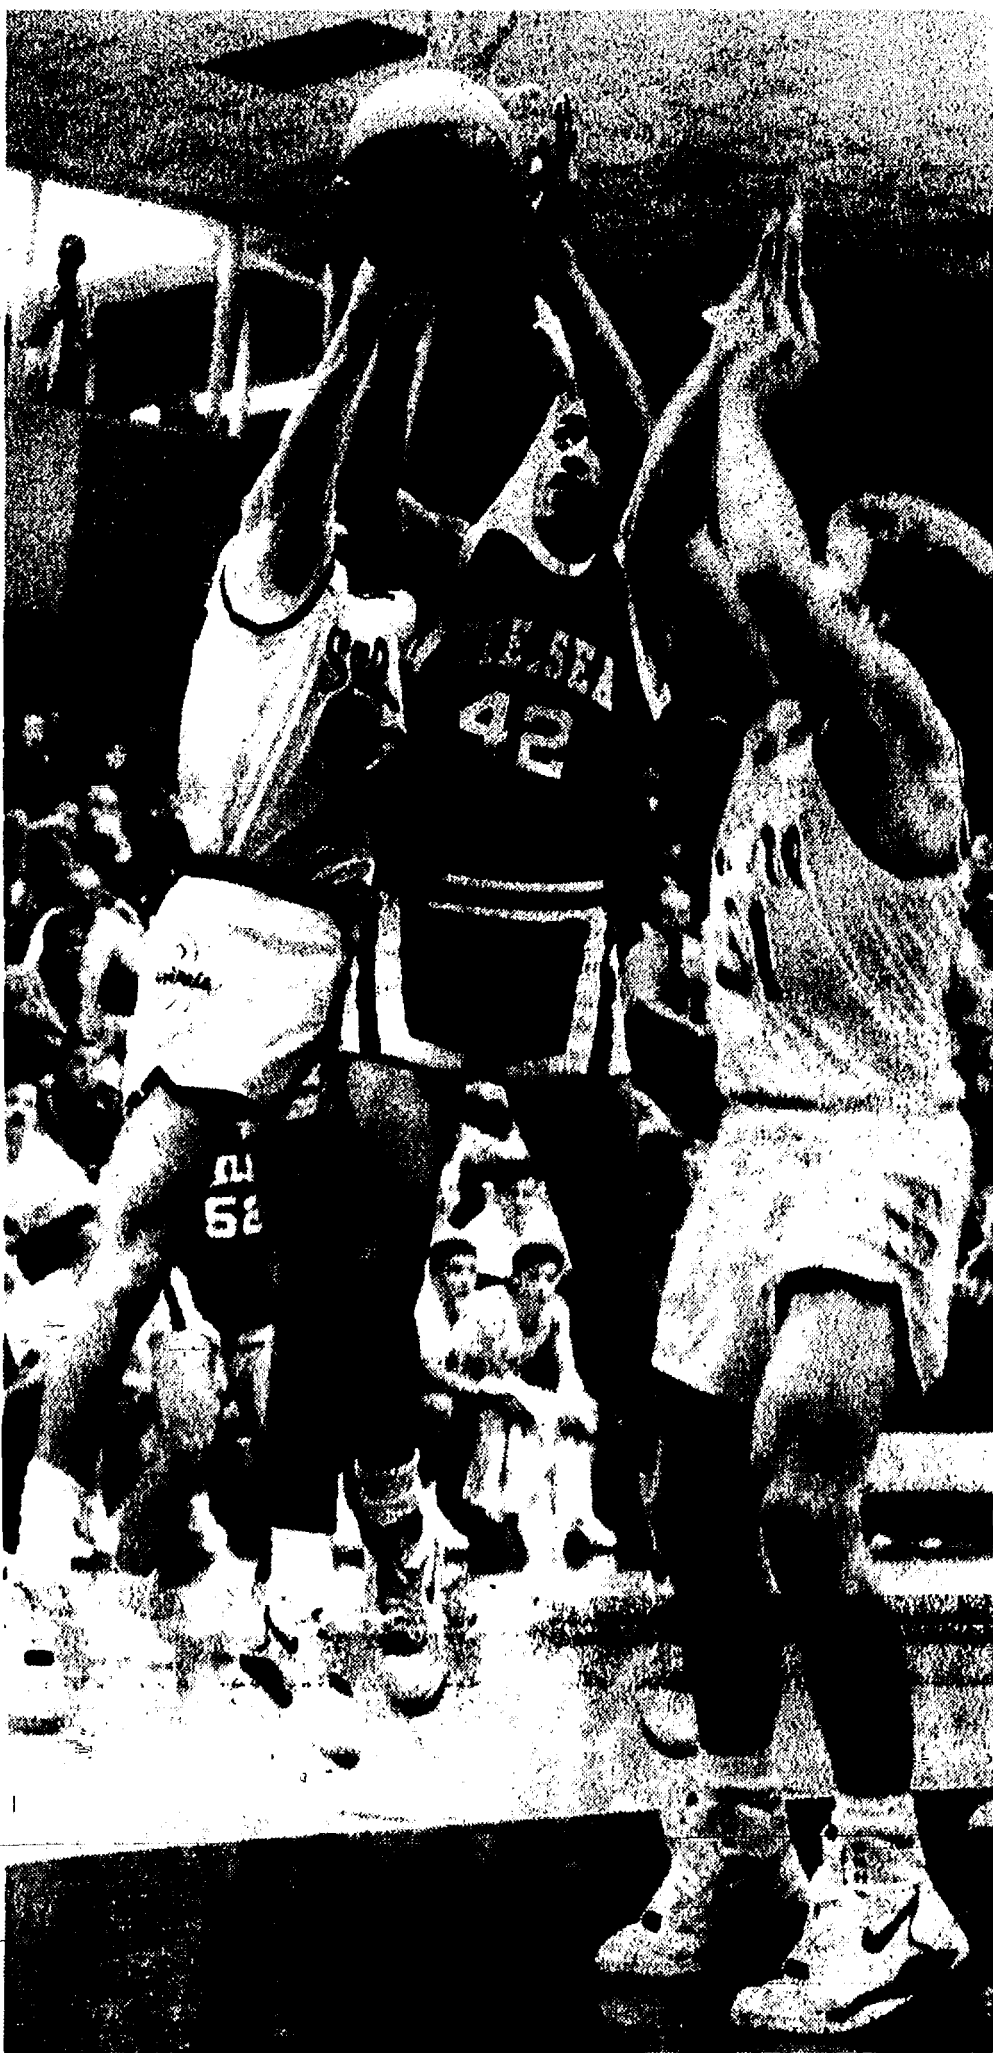

"The difference really was our defense. Each team had the same number of shots (43) but we made five more because we had some easy shots." Chelsea made 22 for 51 percent while Saline made 17 for 40 percent.

The Bulldogs were 8-18 from the line.

Plank tied Chelsea with 17 points, and he tied Jake Rindle for the team lead in rebounds with nine. Plank also had a team-high five assists. Quilter scored nine, Royce and Haugen each had eight points, Rindle scored six, and Hurst had four.

"I was really pleased with Jake and Ben," Raymond said.

"They played consistent games, especially on defense. Chris also played a consistent game. He was 4-4 from the field and had four rebounds."

In the opening game against Brooklyn Columbia Central at home last Tuesday, Chelsea won 56-45 as they pulled away in the closing minutes.

"It was a typical opening game," Raymond said.

"There were a lot of unforced errors and turnovers and first-night jitters."

The Chelsea offense was fairly dismal for most of the game and would have been non-existent without Plank's 26 points.

Chelsea shot 32 percent from the field (19-40), 51 percent from the line (19-35), and turned the ball over 22 times.

"Our defense was pretty good and forced them into some bad shots," Raymond said.

"We were able to score enough points to take control."

The Bulldogs were down 37-35 after three quarters as the lead exchanged hands throughout the night.

The defense, however, gave the offense the breaks late in the game.

Other Chelsea scorers included Royce 9, Rindle 6, Haugen 5, Quilter 5, Tucker Steele 3, and Hurst 2.

The 2-0 Bulldogs were scheduled to play at Milan last night.

8th Grade Cagers Rally for Win

Beach Middle school eighth grade basketball team rallied in the fourth quarter to beat Saline last Thursday, 27-26.

Chelsea was down 23-15 after three quarters. However, a three-point goal by Chad Brown, as well as timely baskets by Dirk Wales, Jim Tallman, Bryndon Skelton, and Jon Michael got the Bulldogs back in the game.

Tallman's free throw with 20 seconds left proved to be the winning point.

"Jim had a great night shooting from the field and the free throw line," said coach Jim Tallman.

"Chad Brown and Dirk Wales played well defensively."

Tallman led Chelsea with nine points. Other scorers included Michael 4, Skelton 3, Brown 3, Case McCalla 2, Dan Wehrwein 2, and Wales 2.

JAKE RINDLE grabs a loose ball under the Chelsea basket for the Bulldogs in last Friday's Saline game. Rindle, a junior, played well in his first varsity SEC game, said coach Robin Raymond.

Monti competed against 450 other runners to win the first-place prize.

SPORTS NOTES

BY BRIAN HAMILTON

Hold onto the bleachers, basketball fans, we might be in for quite a ride in the Southeastern Conference this season.

The Tecumseh Indians, thought to be a virtual shoo-in for the title this season, did everyone in the league a big favor by dropping their SEC opener to Lincoln last Friday.

I think Chelsea coach Robin Raymond would have agreed that the best race this year would be for second place, a battle featuring the Bulldogs, Lincoln, and Saline.

But last Friday's Lincoln game changes all of that.

Granted, it took a half-court shot at the buzzer. But the fact that the Railsplitters were even in a position to win is a good indicator that the SEC may be far more balanced than we thought. They were down 15 points in the first quarter.

If nothing else, it shows the Indians can be beaten if their team game isn't sharp, particularly on the road. Tecumseh superstar, Andy Poppink, scored 38 points, more than half his team's output, which may turn out to be a fairly typical performance for him this season. Yet it still wasn't enough.

The Bulldogs, who won their opener in Saline last Friday, 52-45, in less than dominating fashion, will get a first-hand chance to see just how good the Railsplitters are this Friday when the Willisites come to town. It is a crucial early game for the Bulldogs in what will probably turn out to be an entire season of big games.

Lincoln beat the Bulldogs this summer without their best player. So it ought to be a good, close, hard-fought game.

A Bulldogs victory this Friday, assuming they won last night in Milan, would seemingly put Chelsea in good shape to at least contend for the title.

Or would it?

Pinckney whalloped the Milan Big Reds last Friday, so the Pirates under new coach Matt Seidl may surprise some people.

The Indians should go undefeated at home.

Chelsea has to play at Lincoln, a difficult gym for visitors. Ditto for Dexter.

The Bulldogs also have a severe depth problem. Only seven guys played in the Saline game. That's not so much of a problem in the early part of the season, but the way the Bulldogs play may make it a factor in February.

More than any of those reasons, Chelsea was not impressive in their first two starts. The Bulldogs will have to cut down on turnovers, a major problem in the opener against Brooklyn and in the first half against Saline. They also had some problems making basic baskets, such as lay-ups and free throws. Through two games, the Bulldogs had hit an even 50 percent from the line. In a tight game, execution of those fundamentals will make the difference.

There's plenty to be excited about, though. Senior Kerry Plank, one of the league's best players last season, is even better this year. He has shown the ability to carry the Bulldogs through hard times, much like Brian Burg did last year and Mark Bareis did a few years back. He's turning out to be an excellent scorer, something he hasn't needed to do much the last couple of years.

The defensive hustle and aggressiveness has been outstanding as well. There's no hesitation to hit the floor for a loose ball. Quick hands and feet have led to a number of hurried shots, steals and fast breaks.

The Bulldogs are rebounding well, too, although they haven't faced a team that had a dominating height advantage.

There are also the little signs. Jon Royce and Jude Quilter look confident and ready to assert themselves. Chris Haugen has displayed a deadly set shot the few times he has put the ball up. Ben Hurst is just plain busting his butt on defense.

So gear up, fans. The Bulldogs may not be as imposing as they were last year, but they should be just as much fun to watch.

And who knows. Given a few breaks here and there the Bulldogs could be on top of the league in March. It should be a great season.

Whatever else happens this season, I can't wait for the Plank/Poppink match-ups. Poppink should easily be the league's top offensive machine, and Plank should be in the top two or three. No doubt Plank will get the defensive assignment against Poppink, but I don't know whether the reverse will be true.

Poppink, who has already signed to play for Stanford University next season, should have the edge. He's got the touch, the size, the finesse. But Plank, a finesse player himself, has the habit of rising to the challenge.

And there's probably nothing Plank would like more than to hold his good friend Poppink to less than 20 points.

But will they kiss at half-court before the game?

KERRY PLANK dribbles around a leaning pick set by Jon Royce during last Friday's 52-45 victory at Saline.

Freshman Cagers Open with Losses To Western, Tecumseh

Chelsea Bulldogs freshman basketball team lost their first two games of the season last week.

Chelsea opened the season with a 48-30 loss to Jackson County Western on Tuesday, Dec. 4.

"Our inability to handle Western's press caused many turnovers," said Chelsea coach Dave Quilter.

"Poor shooting also hurt us."

The game began to get away from the Bulldogs in the second quarter when they were out-scored 15-5. By the end of the third quarter they were trailing 40-13.

Nathan Mackinder led Chelsea with 10 points. Other scorers included Gabe Bernhard 8, Cory Brown 4, Paul Lopez 2, David Stimpson 2, Ed Greenleaf 2, and Don Poppenger 2.

Mackinder also led the Bulldogs with seven rebounds.

Chelsea shot 20 percent from the field, had 31 rebounds at 31 turnovers.

On Thursday, Dec. 6, also at home, the Tecumseh Indians took a 57-46 win.

Tecumseh opened a 17-8 lead after the first quarter and maintained about a 10-point lead throughout the game.

"We were much improved in team play, but we still had too many turnovers," Quilter said.

"Cory Brown did a good job of running the offense. Matt Powell played well off the bench and Gabe Bernhard and Nathan Mackinder played another good game."

Bernhard had a big game for Chelsea with 15 points and 13 rebounds. Other scorers included Mackinder 11, Brown 9, Lopez 4, Matt Edholm 3, Jason McVittie 2, David Beeman 1, Stimpson 1.

Chelsea shot 34 percent from the field and 55 percent from the line. The Dogs also out-rebounded Tecumseh, 36-27. However, Chelsea had 41 turnovers.

"We need to improve our passing and ball-handling to cut down on the high number of turnovers," Quilter said.

Deer Harvest Estimated at 300,000

An estimated 300,000 white-tailed deer were harvested in Michigan by firearm deer hunters during 1990's Nov. 15-30 season.

This year's season was one of Michigan's best, second only to the 1989 harvest of 334,930 animals.

The deer harvest is estimated throughout the 16-day season by a southbound hunter traffic survey which has provided an early, accurate estimate of the harvest for three decades.

Final harvest figures, which will be available in June, are based on a mail survey of this year's deer hunters.

Thirty-nine hunting accidents, including two fatalities, occurred during the 16-day firearm deer season. These figures compare to 35 accidents, including four fatalities, reported in 1989.

Michigan leads the nation in deer hunting recreation, with about 10 million days annually spent afield.

Athletic Boosters Plan Pizza, Pop Basketball Kick-off

Chelsea Athletic Boosters are inviting the public to join them in the kick-off pizza and pop get-together for the Chelsea basketball season, Friday, Dec. 14. Everyone is invited to come and support the teams. Pizza and pop will be served from 5 until 7:30 p.m.

The Boosters would also like to invite everyone to hear the former Detroit Tiger, Bill Freehan, in January at their regular membership meeting.

JV Cagers Open With Two Victories

Chelsea Bulldogs junior varsity basketball team opened the season last week with victories over Brooklyn Columbia Central, 54-48, and Saline, 82-44.

Against BCC at home on Tuesday, Chelsea pulled out to a 15-6 lead in the first quarter and maintained a six or seven-point lead most of the way.

Guard Colby Skelton had four steals in the final period to help put the game away.

Skelton paced the Bulldogs with 16 points. Other scorers included Pat Steele 8, Nick McCalla 8, Erik Brown 7, Chris Dunham 6, Tom Poulter 5, Hans Kernitz 2, Colt White 1, and Dana Schmunk 1.

Jeremy Beauchamp had a team-high six rebounds.

In the Saline contest, Chelsea held the Hornets to 15 points over the second and third quarters to stretch a three-point lead to 17 points.

"We improved a lot from the first game," said Chelsea coach Lonnie Mitchell.

"There weren't as many turnovers."

Steele led Chelsea with 18 points on seven field goals. Schmunk scored 10 points and grabbed 11 rebounds in a key performance.

Other scorers included Skelton 7, Ed Waller 7, McCalla 4, Poulter 4, White 4, Brown 3, Dunham 3, and Beauchamp 2.

SARAH SCHAEFFER

Sarah Schaeffer On Volleyball Team At Bluffton College

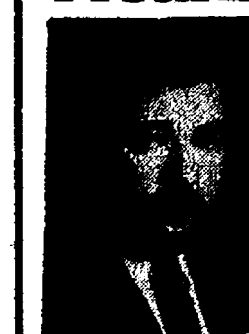

Sarah Schaeffer, a 1988 Chelsea High school graduate, competed as a utility player for the Bluffton College Lady Beaver varsity volleyball team, according to BC Coach Kim Fischer.

Schaeffer was second on the team in digs with 467. She was .959 (538-561) serving with 27 aces, .942 (261-277) hitting with 49 kills, .984 (120-122) setting with 12 assists, .916 (327-357) receiving, and had two solo blocks with six block assists.

Schaeffer is the daughter of Robert and Virginia Schaeffer of Chelsea. She also competed in the 1987-88 hurdles, sprints and relay events in track and field.

The volleyball team finished with a 35-10 record, taking first place in the Western Buckeye Collegiate Conference (WBCC) and second place in the NAIA District 22 Tournament. The team is a member of the WBCC, NAIA Division II and the NCAA Division III.

Chiropractic Health Care

Performance Enhancement (Without Steroids)

Dr. J. Nicholas Koffeman

Fifteen years ago a small handful of chiropractors filed suit against the American Medical Association (A.M.A.) for trying to destroy the chiropractic profession. The formal charges were violations of federal anti-trust laws and included conspiracy, fraud and monopoly.

The last chance for the A.M.A., after losing at every level, was their appeal to the U.S. Supreme Court last spring.

Last week the supreme court ruled that they would let stand the verdict by the federal appellate court.

This means the injunction forcing the A.M.A. to stop its illegal activities and publicly admit its wrong doing will be carried out.

This is great, great news for health care in this country.

Pressed with few weeks to examine what this final guilty verdict may mean to future health care services.

Please address all questions and comments to Dr. J. Nicholas Koffeman, 138 E. Middle Street, Chelsea, MI., 48118. 313-475-2088.

TAKING CARE OF YOUR EYES

Today's column will discuss floaters, a common eye problem that affects people of all ages. Floaters are often described as specks or "cobwebs" that move throughout the field of vision.

Floaters are small clumps within the vitreous, the clear gel that fills the inside of the eye. Because the floaters are inside the eye, drops or medications will not remove them.

Luckily, floaters do not damage the eye and are usually just a nuisance. With time, floaters often disappear from sight.

Floaters that occur with flashes of light may be a sign of retinal detachment. Persistent flashes of light require immediate attention.

Letters to the Editor

To the Editor,

An open letter to the people of Chelsea.

It is with great pride and gratitude that I send this letter to the people of Chelsea. Pride stemming from the knowledge that we are giving up so much to serve our President in this action to deter the immoral and unlawful aggression of Iraq. Grateful to the people of Chelsea for their wonderful outpouring of support for the soldiers of the 320th Military Police Company.

Unlike the Vietnam conflict where the service members were facing rejection at home, we in "Operation Desert Shield" are enjoying a great deal of popular support. There can be no greater boost to morale than to know that the people for whom you are making such sacrifices appreciate and support your actions. These soldiers have left behind their families, loved ones, homes and jobs to protect and defend our Nation's ideals and world's right of freedom. The good people of Chelsea represent all that America stands for, that for which we are prepared to lay down our lives.

Again, from all the soldiers of the 320th Military Police Company I send our heartfelt thanks. We extend to you our sincere wishes for a safe and Happy Holiday Season. May Chelsea and its fine, caring people continue to enjoy all the blessings they so rightfully deserve.

Kath D. Stabler
CPT, MP
Commanding.

To the Editor,

I am writing again concerning the traffic in Chelsea. I think this is very important before someone is killed.

I suggest that all speed limits signs be changed now that there is so much traffic. All 45 miles be changed to 35 miles all 35 miles changed to 25 miles. We have a problem at Werkner Rd. It is 55 miles through that caution light. There should be a 35 mile sign at least three-quarters of a mile north of that caution light at Werkner. With slippery roads it is not safe.

Have you ever tried to get on North Main and South Main St. between 6 a.m. and 9 a.m.? I also suggest that there be a light at the main entrance to Ames crossing over to Polly's.

Mildred Fields

To the Editor,

This is a special time of the year, and it reminds me of the special people who have done so much for me. Campaigning was unfamiliar to me, and was sometimes surprising.

What was enjoyable was meeting so many new people.

What was amazing was the wonderful support of every kind I received from citizens all over the county.

Thank you all for your kindness and generosity. I will try very hard to be a good trustee of Washtenaw Community College.

To the Editor,

It appears, once again, that we are hurrying our children on to adulthood before they are finished with adolescence. (Found this at the last Beach Middle school dance.)

I love to dance, our whole family enjoys dancing. It's a fun activity. That is how it should be presented at the Middle school level. A fun activity for friends to dance and laugh and have fun together.

Why is it then, that the lights are turned out at Beach Middle school dances? True, some of the early bloomers may be ready for romance, but what about the rest of the kids? And is romance really what we want to encourage at this age, especially considering the times we live in?

Dear Editor:

I live adjoining to the Chelsea State Game area and from my house I see many hunters violating deer hunting rules. I do not think badly of the idea of deer hunting in general, but I feel that every hunter should behave in a responsible and safe manner and obey reasonable hunting regulations. The fact that some deer hunters are violating the rules hurts all deer hunters.

Between my neighbors and us we have seen a hunter without a number and not wearing any orange, a hunter in a tree, and hunters within 450 feet of our house. I am particularly concerned about safety rules being violated, because the hunters are so close to our house. But they are not only endangering us, they are endangering each other as well. I wonder if some hunters even know what the rules are. When a hunter is too close to my neighbor's or my house and we tell them to leave they have said things like "This is public land" or "I didn't see the 'No Hunting' signs" when those facts are really irrelevant since they are within 450 of a residence.

I think it is very difficult to monitor hunters, and I don't have any good suggestions for how to improve this. What I would like to suggest is that the DNR make sure that all hunters know the rules by requiring them to pass a test on safety and hunting regulations before they can get a license.

Today's Investor

By Thomas E. O'Hara
Chairman, Board of Trustees
National Assoc. of Investors Corp.
& Consulting Editor, Better Investing

Q. I have a friend who told me he started to invest $30 a month along with his dividends in Toledo Edison Co. 35 years ago and that recently he had accumulated $1,200,000 in the successor company's stock and was enjoying a very nice retirement. I know he seems to live well, but is it possible to accumulate that much with such a little investment?

A. Most of us don't appreciate the power of a small, regular investment and compound income. I would not question the possibility of that kind of wealth building. You may recall that for most of the time from the early '70s to the mid-'80s stocks, electric utilities in particular, were out of favor and their prices fell very low. A person who kept investing $30 a month purchased many shares at that time, and in recent years, as utilities have returned to favor, their prices have gone up and in many cases are four or five times what they were. Also, a person reinvesting dividends would see money compounding during that time.

I was talking with a man a few weeks ago who said he bought 10 shares of Texas Instruments 40 years ago for $70 each. In a year he was very lucky, the stock was selling at $150 a share. He started investing regularly and now has accumulated $500,000 worth of stock and is enjoying a very pleasant retirement. He has become a big fan of what are called dividend reinvestment plans. Many companies have them. If they do, you can buy a share or more through a broker and then enroll in the company's dividend reinvestment program. Once in the program, you can invest $10 to $50 a month more and the company pays the broker's commission so that all of your money goes into the investment. This is the same procedure your friend who now has the $1,200,000 used with $30 a month for 30 years. Your friend invested the money in the same company. The man I met invested it in several different companies, but didn't stick with it every month like your friend did.

The National Association of Investors learned how popular this kind of investing was with its members many years ago and began to develop a program where you could buy your first share without paying a broker's commission and then continue to make investments directly with the company, with the company paying all costs.

One man who won $1 million in the lottery decided to invest in that program. Because of his winnings, he started out buying $1,000 each of 10 different stocks. He has continued to invest $100 a month in each of the 10 companies. If you haven't won a lottery, but have a little extra money, you can start with $100 each in two or three companies and then add $25 or $50 a month after that. In a few months your accumulation of stocks will begin to add dividends to your regular investments. You will begin to have sense of making progress.

at the Recreation Department Office. Each participant is also required to complete a release form to be filed with Mt. Brighton.

This is a brand new program for the Chelsea Recreation Department. Expansion of this program for succeeding seasons will depend on the response during this skiing season. It will be a fantastic opportunity to enjoy winter in Michigan, to learn to ski or brush up on techniques, and to have a great time!

THANK YOU

I wish to thank all my friends, relatives, and neighbors for the visits, flowers, cards, food, and prayers for me since my recent stay in the hospital and return home. All are much appreciated. Many thanks.
Anna Laban.

THANK YOU

I wish to thank the doctors and nurses at Chelsea Community Hospital, and those at Mercywood Health Building, for their care they gave me, while in the hospitals, and since my return home. Thanks to my relatives and friends for their gifts, and cards sent to me while in the hospitals. A special thanks to all, and Pastor Mark Wierach for their visits and prayers. It's all sincerely appreciated.
Ruth Bristle.

ANNA F. OESTERLE

In loving memory of Anna F. Oesterle, a devoted and loyal wife and mother. She was called to be with the Lord three years ago on Dec. 18th. Because she was such a kind, sweet angel on earth we think the Lord had a more important mission for her in heaven. If so, we are glad that she can serve Him in heaven as she did here on earth. Missed very much by husband Roy son Craig daughters Shirley, Linda.

The following words or terms when used herein shall be deemed to have the meanings set forth below:

A. The term "litter" shall include, without limitation, shavings, bricks, refuse, rubbish, trash, chips, bricks, ice, dirt, manure, filth, parts of machinery or motor vehicles, parts of broken furniture, stoves or other appliances or any other loose or cast-off material or articles of any kind.

B. The term "person" shall include all natural persons, firms, co-partnerships, corporations, and all associations of natural persons, incorporated or unincorporated, whether acting by themselves, or by a servant, agent or employee. All persons who violate any provision of this ordinance, whether as owner, occupant, lessee, agent, servant, or employee shall be equally liable as principals.

C. The term "public or private property or water" includes but is not limited to, the right of way of a street, road or highway, a body of water or water course, or the shore or beach thereof, including the ice above the water; a park, playground, building, refuge, or conservation or recreation area; and residential, agricultural, timberlands, commercial and industrial properties.

D. The term "vehicle" means every motor vehicle required to be registered under the provisions of MCLA 257.923, as amended, to operate a public road.

E. The term "vessel" means a vessel required to be registered under the provisions of MCLA 281.1199, as amended, to operate.

SECTION 2:

It shall be unlawful for any person to knowingly, without the consent of this township or the owner of private property in the township, to dump, deposit, place, throw, or cause or permit the dumping, depositing, placing, throwing, or leaving of, litter on public or private property or water within Sylvan Township other than property designated and set aside for such purposes.

SECTION 3

It shall be unlawful for any person who removes a vehicle, wrecked or damaged in an accident, on a highway, road, or street, to fail to remove all glass and other injurious substances or litter dropped on the highway, road or street as a result of the accident.

SECTION 4

Except as provided for in Section 6 involving litter from a leased vehicle or leased vessel, in a proceeding for a violation of this ordinance involving litter from a motor vehicle or vessel, proof that the particular vehicle or vessel described in the citation, complaint, or warrant was used in the violation, together with proof that the defendant named in the citation, complaint, or warrant was the registered owner of the vehicle or vessel at the time of the violation.

SECTION 5

Each day that a violation continues shall be deemed to be a separate violation. This ordinance shall not prevent the township from using other methods or means available to it under Michigan Law pertaining to litter problems or violations.

SECTION 8

Should any section, clause, or provision of this ordinance be declared by any court to be invalid, the same shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions of such section of this ordinance or any part thereof that the part so declared to be invalid.

ORDINANCE TO AMEND DEXTER TOWNSHIP ZONING ORDINANCE

ORDINANCE NO. 10E

AN ORDINANCE TO AMEND THE DEXTER TOWNSHIP ZONING ORDINANCE AND TO PROVIDE FOR THE INCLUSION IN LOT AREA, LOT YARDS, AND PLACEMENT REGULATIONS, EASEMENTS FOR UNDERGROUND UTILITIES, AND TO ADD SECTION 3.23 TO SAID ORDINANCE

The Township of Dexter Ordains:
SECTION 1: Section 3.23—UNDERGROUND UTILITIES AND EASEMENTS is hereby added to the Dexter Township Zoning Ordinance, Ordinance No. 10, as amended, by the addition thereto of the following provisions:

Section 3.23—UNDERGROUND UTILITIES AND EASEMENTS.

Areas of land subject to easements for the construction, use and/or maintenance of underground utilities and/or utility facilities, lines, pipes, sewers, water, gas, electrical, telephone, septic tanks, fields, improvements and/or structures may be included in the area and placement regulations of the respective districts under Article 4 of this Ordinance, such as lot area, yards, and floor area ratio, providing the following conditions apply to the easements:

a. The easement grants or reserves to the owner of the lot or parcel of land, the possession of the surface and right of ingress and egress across the surface of the easement area, even though the easement permits the installation of underground utilities, their repair, replacement, and maintenance from time to time and excludes the construction of above-ground structures or improvements.

b. Such underground easements, utilities, facilities, lines, pipes, sewers, septic tanks, fields, and/or structures may be placed anywhere upon a lot or parcel of land notwithstanding any general placement or area provision of this Ordinance; provided, that such placement is in accordance with other statutes, codes and ordinances specifically regulating such matters.

c. Set back, yards, and separation distance(s) required under this Ordinance between a dwelling, principal building, accessory building, or other above ground structure and any boundary line shall be measured from the lot, street or surface right-of-way line and not from the right-of-way or boundary of any underground easement.

d. This provision shall apply to all underground sewer, water, septic, electrical, telephone, gas, pipe line, and similar utility easements, whether operated by any public or private individual or entity.

SECTION 2: EFFECT OF AMENDMENT: Dexter Township Zoning Ordinance where not inconsistent with this Amendment is hereby ratified and readopted, as amended through the date of adoption of this amending Ordinance.

SECTION 3: SEVERABILITY. Should any Section or provision of this amending Ordinance be declared by the Courts to be unconstitutional or invalid, such decision shall not affect the validity of the Ordinance as a whole, or any part thereof, other than the part declared to be unconstitutional or invalid.

SECTION 4: CONFLICT WITH OTHER LAWS.

a. Where any condition imposed or permitted by this amending Ordinance upon the use of any lot, building, or structure is less restrictive than any comparable condition imposed by any other provision of this Ordinance, the provision which is less restrictive shall govern. Where any condition imposed by any provision of this amending Ordinance upon the use of any lot, building, or structure is less restrictive than any comparable condition imposed by any provision of any other Ordinance, regulation, or statute adopted under any other law, the provision which is more restrictive or which imposes a higher standard or requirements shall govern.

b. This Ordinance is not intended to abrogate or to annul any easement, covenant, or other private agreement.

Peace of Mind. From the people you trust.

Ford maintains that the quality car you buy is now backed by the best Quality Care in America.

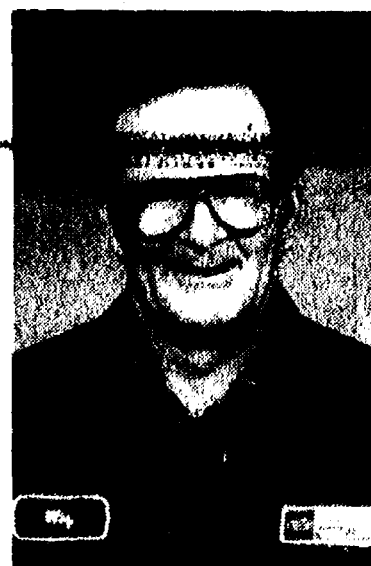

Quality Care is a commitment from Ford-Mercury dealers to strive to make their customers the most satisfied in the world. Quality Care is a lot of things. One of the most important is the Lifetime Service Guarantee.

If a dealer repairs your Ford or Mercury, they guarantee that once you pay for a covered repair, if it ever has to be fixed again, they will fix it free, parts and labor, for as long as you own your vehicle. Nobody guarantees car repairs longer. Nobody guarantees car repairs better. And LSG covers thousands of repairs.

Ask for a copy of this limited warranty. Only participating Ford and Mercury dealers have it. Only Ford and Mercury owners can get it.

Ford Quality Care and the Lifetime Service Guarantee. It's the difference between just buying a car and owning Peace of Mind.

Festival of Lessons & Carols, Offered Dec. 16 at St. Andrew's

The traditional Festival of Lessons & Carols, now in its 31st year at St. Andrew's, will be presented by the church's Adult and Junior Choirs on Sunday, Dec. 16, at 7:30 p.m. Dr. Thomas Strode, director of music at St. Andrew's, will conduct and accompany the choirs.

The service will include the traditional nine lessons from Scripture, telling the story of Man's Fall and the redemptive acts of God culminating in His gift of His only Son to us. Each lesson is followed by an appropriate carol or hymn; some sung by the choir, some sung by the congregation. Music will include settings of traditional carols by Boris Ord, Charles Wood, Ralph Vaughan Williams and John Rutter; "Make We Joy Now in

This Fest" by William Walton; "Bethlehem Down" by Peter Warlock; "A Spotless Rose" by Herbert Howells; and the traditional carol "Dancing Day." Congregational carols will include "Once in Royal David's City," "What Star Is This," "O Come, O Come Emmanuel," "Lo, He Comes With Clouds Descending," and "O Little Town of Bethlehem."

The public is invited to join with the congregation of St. Andrew's in what has become an Ann Arbor holiday tradition. The offering taken at the service will be divided between the Shelter Association of Ann Arbor and the Free Breakfast Program at St. Andrew's.

St. Andrew's is located on Division St. at Catherine, two blocks north of Huron St. in Ann Arbor.

Free Brochure Offered for Planning Your Tree Planting

Now is the time to plan ahead for your spring tree-planting project, and a free brochure is available from the National Arbor Day Foundation to assist.

The free brochure, called Conservation Trees, uses colorful photos and illustrations and easy-to-understand descriptions to guide tree planting and care.

The Conservation Trees brochure includes these sections:

- How to use windbreaks and shade trees to save energy in your home
- How to attract songbirds to your yard
- How to save trees during construction
- How to save topsoil and help farm profits with shelterbelts
- The right way to plant trees
- The right way to prune trees

"The National Arbor Day Foundation's Conservation Trees program encourages Americans to plant and manage trees to conserve soil, energy, water, wildlife, and the atmosphere," John Rosenow, the Foundation's executive director said.

"The Conservation Trees brochure is a central part of this educational project. It serves as a useful guide for people in all areas, whether they live in America's largest cities or in the country," Rosenow added.

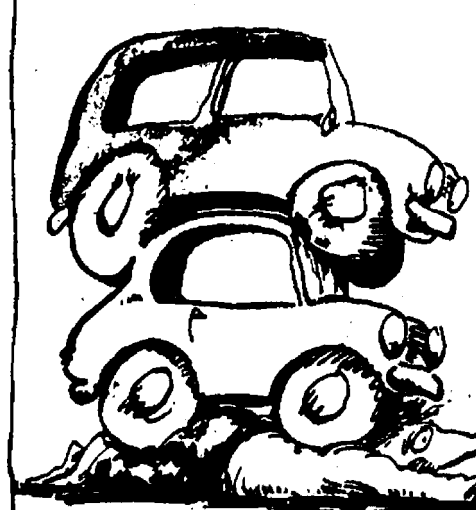

For your free brochure, send your name and address to: Conservation Trees, The National Arbor Day Foundation, Nebraska City, Neb. 68410.

Romans 10:17— "Faith comes by hearing and hearing by the Word of God."

Do you wish you had more faith? Does God seem distant and unconcerned with your problems? If so, now is the time to change all that.

Romans 12:3 tells us that, "God has dealt to every man the measure of faith." If you have made Jesus Christ your personal Saviour, all the faith you need is already available. What you must do is act on it to release its power. Speak God's Word aloud; believe His promises; pray to receive guidance in carrying out His plan for your life.

If you have not given your life to Jesus yet, don't wait. Call to Him now, and He will answer you. Receive the faith God wants to pour into you, and release that faith by believing God's Word and acting on it. Something wonderful will happen!

Jesus is Lord and Saviour!

The Hardest Part Of Loneliness Is Facing It All Alone.

Loneliness is one of life's most difficult struggles. But it doesn't have to be because not far from you, there's a place where you can beat that sense of hopeless isolation. Our church. It's a place full of people who love. People who look for ways to support each other through life's struggles. People who make faithful friends. Friends who last a lifetime.

That's why we're inviting you to join us in worship. To experience first-hand the love that Christ has given us. And realize that loneliness is not something you have to face all alone.

No matter how bad it's been, there's hope because Jesus cares for you.

Here's Hope.

Area Auto Crashes Reported By Deputies

Chelsea area motorist Nancy Ann Kinsky attempted a left turn from northbound M-52 onto westbound Waterloo Rd. about 4:30 p.m. Monday, Dec. 3, but made her turn directly into the path of a vehicle driven by Gerardo Cavazas, Jr., of Jackson.

Deputy Reed of the Washtenaw County Sheriff's Department said Cavazas swerved to the right in an attempt to avoid hitting Ms. Kinsky's vehicle, but could not completely avoid the collision.

Deputy Steve Platt issued Marvin Earl Scharpenberg of Ann Arbor a citation for failing to use due care and caution, following a two-car crash on Jackson Rd., one-half mile west of Wagner, at 9 a.m. Friday, Dec. 7.

Scharpenberg's vehicle was traveling west on Jackson Rd., he told deputy Platt, when he looked down for a second.

When he looked up again, he observed another vehicle in front of him, getting ready to turn left.

Drayton Plains motorist David Alan Pool was the driver of the second vehicle, which was hit from the rear by the Scharpenberg auto, bounced off the road and rolled over.

Pool was injured in the mishap, according to Platt's report.

Deputies Deacons and Foster investigated a one-vehicle crash which occurred about 3:30 a.m. Tuesday, Dec. 4, along westbound North Territorial Rd.

The crash report explained Robert Steven Renner of Pinckney had minor injuries resulting after he lost control, his vehicle crossed the center line, went into a ditch and rolled over.

Douglas Russell Webb, a Chelsea area motorist, received minor injuries and was cited by deputies for driving left of center after a crash reported at 2:15 a.m. Sunday, Dec. 9, on Cavanaugh Lake Rd., west of Garvey.

The Webb vehicle struck one driven by Terrance Leslie Parsons of Dexter.

Deputy Miley filed a report on a one-vehicle crash which occurred when Ann Arbor motorist Diane Gattson slowed her vehicle for traffic ahead as she drove westbound on Interstate-94, west of the Jackson Rd. exit, at 10:45 a.m. Monday, Dec. 3.

Miley's report explained Ms. Gattson received minor injuries and was transported by Huron Valley Ambulance to University of Michigan Hospital, after she lost control of the vehicle, spun out and struck a median retaining wall.

Her passengers included three youngsters, ages five, eight and 11.

All four occupants had their safety belts properly fastened, Miley reported.

Sgt. R. J. Smith was dispatched to investigate a truck fire on eastbound Jackson Rd. in Scio township at 2:05 p.m. Tuesday, Dec. 4.

Ray Taylor Rooney told Sgt. Smith the brakes locked and the truck's right rear caught fire.

Campers & Hikers Send Contribution To Faith in Action

National Campers and Hikers Association, midstate field directors at their annual Christmas party voted to give a check to Faith in Action for their annual Christmas dinner in the amount of $100.

Each Christmas season the field directors choose a local charity to make a community donation in their name. The charity is chosen from an area where a field director is present. Lloyd and Joyce Schneider of Chelsea had the honor to have their area chosen this year.

At the National Campers and Hikers state-wide campout held in Coruna this fall their members sent over 300 notes and letters to our service men and women stationed in the Desert Shield Area.

CHELSEA NATIVE John Wagner has returned to his hometown to open an Allstate Insurance agency in the Sylvan building. With him is right-hand woman Michelle McClear.

John Wagner Opens Allstate Insurance Agency in Sylvan

Chelsea native John Wagner has returned to his hometown to become an Allstate Insurance agent.

Wagner, son of Katherine Wagner and the late Frederick Wagner, and brother of village trustee Stephanie Kanten, is a 1975 Chelsea High school graduate.

After graduating from Central Michigan University in 1979, Wagner spent 10 years in Phoenix, Ariz., where he worked for United Health Care health maintenance organization and MetLife Insurance.

While on vacation here about a year ago, Wagner began to explore what might be available here.

As it turned out, Allstate Insurance had been looking for several years to find a qualified agent for Chelsea. Wagner met sales manager Daniel Even at a job fair in Detroit.

"I was recruiting for the metro Detroit area and John left a business card," Even said.

"When I saw he was from Chelsea I went running through the hotel to find him."

Wagner took a 20-week training program, then set up the business on the ground floor of the Sylvan building.

Michelle McClear, who recently moved back to Chelsea from New York, was hired as office manager.

The agency territory is primarily western Washtenaw county and eastern Jackson county.

Wagner is holding a child fingerprinting and photo session from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. this Saturday at his office. All fingerprints and photographs become the property of the parents.

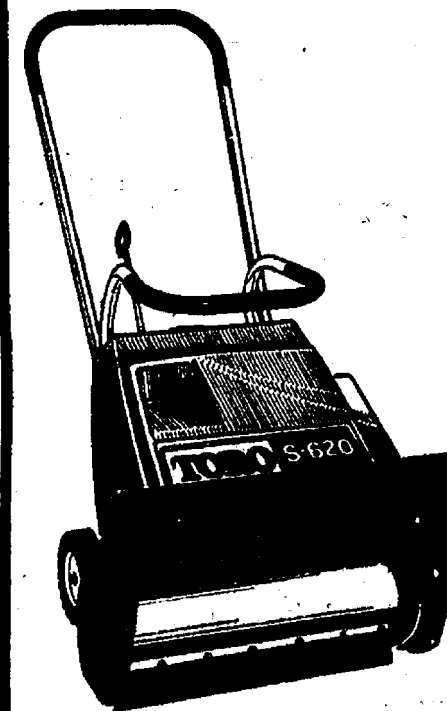

In addition, Santa Claus is scheduled to make an appearance.
