CHELSEA, MICHIGAN, WEDNESDAY, MAY 1, 1991

CHELSEA DDA is negotiating with the Masonic Temple to purchase this old red shed behind their building on W. Middle St. DDA wants to tear the building down to improve truck traffic patterns between Main St. businesses and their future parking lot. Village trustee Frank Hammer suggested the village might use its power of eminent domain to take the property if the Masons and DDA can't reach an agreement on the building. DDA members said they were surprised by the suggestion but wouldn't comment on it.

Village Takes Property For DDA Parking Lot, Gets Update on Project

Chelsea Village Council, using the village's power of eminent domain, took the All Season Comfort building on W. Middle St. to help the Downtown Development Authority complete a sales agreement with the building's owner.

DDA told council the taking the building was necessary because it needs part of the property for its parking lot project between South and W. Middle Sts.

However, DDA chair Mark Heydlauff also told council that building owner Tom Bowling would not agree to the sale unless the village used eminent domain to obtain it due to tax considerations involving capital gains on the sale of the property.

Trustee Jack Myers suggested to village attorney Peter Flintoft that such a deal might be an abuse of the village's power.

"If the only reason (to use it) is to give him a tax break, I'd agree with you," Flintoft said.

DDA's purchase price for the property is $70,000. However, it plans to sell the building to Harper Pontiac owner Sumner Osterle for $52,500. DDA wants land surrounding the building so it can make its parking lot wide enough for two rows of cars.

DDA also said it is trying to purchase a portion of adjacent property owned by the Masonic Lodge. DDA primarily wants property beginning 12 feet behind the main building so it can raze an old red shed to create additional room for truck traffic, as well as remove what it considers to be an eyesore. DDA has offered to pave all the way to the building, and pave and light the adjoining alley.

However, Heydlauff said the two sides are still negotiating.

Trustee Frank Hammer suggested the village could also use its power of eminent domain on the Masonic property.

In other DDA project news, bid documents are due back on Tuesday, May 14. Village council authorized DDA and its consultants to select what they consider to be the best bid(s). DDA did not want to have to wait until the May 28 meeting for formal council authorization. They also didn't want to rush to make a decision for a council meeting that night or go to the expense of calling a special council meeting.

As of last Tuesday, 25 sets of bid documents had been picked up by contractors, Heydlauff said.

DDA plans to move the house behind the 14th district courthouse in late May or early June. An Owosso company will move the house to a village-owned lot on W. Middle St. for $9,200. The house will remain on the lot while a foundation is constructed, then moved onto the foundation.

Heydlauff said the Park St. lots had been ruled out primarily because major utility lines would have to be lowered to get the house across Main St. The village is also concerned about the lines and what might happen to them as a result of moving them. He said half the village would lose power during the move.

Heydlauff also said an architect completed a structural study of the numerous "vaults" or small rooms under sidewalks on Main St. and Middle St. and concluded they should all be abandoned.

However, the village uses a couple for storage. Heydlauff said the village's vaults are in such poor shape that "I'm afraid if a car jumped the sidewalk (in front of the village offices) that it would end up in the basement."

Once the downtown project begins, parking is likely to become a major headache, Heydlauff confirmed. The village will lose its lot next to Harper Pontiac because it was sold to Harper Pontiac. In addition, about one-third of Main St. parking spaces will be lost during construction.

"I think it's mostly a matter of letting people know where they can park," Heydlauff said. A committee is being formed to study the problem and suggest solutions.

New downtown directional signs will be installed in early May, Heydlauff said. He said DDA still has to obtain some approvals from property owners to place signs on their premises.

Council Passes Record $1.8 Million Budget After Silent Hearing

Village of Chelsea passed a $1.8 million operating budget for 1991-92 after a public hearing in which no one commented last Tuesday, April 23.

The budget, the largest in the village's history, calls for general fund revenues and expenditures of $1,805,745.

The village anticipates total revenues of $820,000 from property taxes, $355,000 from state funds, $183,000 from refuse collection contracts, and $132,000 from fire protection contracts as its major sources of revenue.

There is also a beginning fund balance of $204,145.

The largest expenditure items include $381,100 for police protection, $275,800 for public works, $213,950 for fire protection, $252,375 for "other activities," $188,750 for insurance bonds and fringe benefits, $106,000 for garbage collection, $135,000 for general services administration, and $112,000 for executive expenses.

Enterprise and other budgets passed include major street fund revenue $136,500, expenses $124,675; local street fund revenue $36,750, expenses $35,850; fire equipment fund revenues $91,500, expenses $1,750; parking meter fund revenues $17,000, expenses $16,950; debt service fund revenues $44,900, expenses $44,800; 1987 bond fund (wastewater plant) revenues $213,000, expenses $210,425; 1987 limited bond fund revenues $99,625, expenses $99,625; capital improvements revenues $14,000, expenses $10,000; industrial development revenues, $6,000, expenses $5,200; downtown development fund revenues $1,653,000, expenses $1,650,000; landfill revenues $440,000, expenses $350,425; electric fund revenues $2,354,000, expenses $2,354,000; sewer fund revenues $322,500, expenses $322,500; water fund revenues $286,400, expenses $286,400; vehicle and equipment fund revenues $199,000, expenses $199,000.

Council has not determined what will have to happen to millage rates in order to fund the budget.

Trustee Myers Offered Village Manager's Job

Village trustee Jack Myers was officially offered the position of Chelsea village manager at a special council meeting held last night.

Myers beat out Ron Singel, assistant administrator in Alma. Both men were interviewed publicly at council's regular meeting last Tuesday, April 23.

Trustee Stephanie Kanten, a member of the personnel committee, made the motion to nominate Myers.

Trustee Allen Anderson cast the only no vote. Trustee Joe Merkel, also a member of the personnel committee, was absent.

Kanten, in reading a brief statement in support of the recommendation, said Myers would have the trust of the citizens and mentioned his financial background and the fact he is familiar with the problems facing the village.

Details of Myers' contract, including salary, have yet to be worked out.

Myers spent 20 years in the U.S. Marine Corps. He runs a computer repair service at the University of Michigan, where he manages 14 employees and a budget of about $800,000. The department does not receive funds from the university, instead operating on a self-sustaining basis. He said his department repairs about 450 computers each month. He also said he was initially hired six years ago as a computer technician but had no experience for the job.

Myers, who recently finished his first year as a village trustee, participated with the full council during the forced resignation of previous manager Robert Stalker.

Singel worked briefly for the finance department City of Akron, O. before starting in Alma 2½ years ago. He told council he was hired by Alma in part because of his budgeting and computer experience. He's been primarily involved with Alma's bus service.

Both candidates were asked about their management styles and techniques, with Myers stressing strong communications with employees and a "no-holds-barred" style.

"Some people think I'd be a dictator after spending 20 years in the military, but that's not true," Myers said.

Neither candidate has much direct experience with the day-to-day functions of public works departments or other field operations, zoning, or grant-writing.

School Board Grapples With Scope of Project, Plans Vote on Monday

Chelsea Board of Education is scheduled to vote next Monday, May 6 on a building and renovations package that could total $25.2 million. The board met Monday night to discuss every aspect of the package, from the construction of a new early elementary building to extensive renovations at Chelsea High School.

As of Monday, the biggest area of disagreement was how much work to complete at the high school in an initial bond issue, said board president Anne Comeau.

"It's really not the project itself," Comeau said.

"A lot of it is the initial scope of the project. A couple of board members would like to see it done over an extended period rather than having the whole bond issue at once. I think everyone agrees with what needs to be done to serve the kids. The question is whether to put it out all at once or come back in three to five years for another issue."

Comeau said that part of the difficulty is how to prepare the high school for the computer technology portion of the renovations. In order to run fiber optic cables all over the high school campus to take advantage of the technology, many of the open walkways have to be closed because the fibers will run inside the rooflines. Enclosing those hallways is one of the major expenses of the total $14.1 million high school project.

"If we don't enclose the walkways, we can't do that portion of the project," Comeau said.

"Personally, I'm firmly convinced on the technology. Our students have to be prepared to leave high school."

Comeau said it appeared there is 5-2 support for the full project and she anticipates the vote will remain that way next week.

"I want to stress that if we don't have a 7-0 vote it is because of real concerns on the part of two board members," Comeau said.

Both Comeau and superintendent Joe Piasecki said there didn't appear to be any major opposition to the proposed new gym or outdoor renovations at the high school.

However, Piasecki said that he planned to discuss the situation with assistant superintendent Fred Mills and high school principal Ron Mead to see whether some compromise package might be offered next Monday.

Piasecki said there appears to be unanimous support for the rest of the project. That includes the construction of a new elementary school for grades K-2, renovations at both North and South Elementary schools, parking expansion at Beach Middle School, and road work on Mayer Dr.

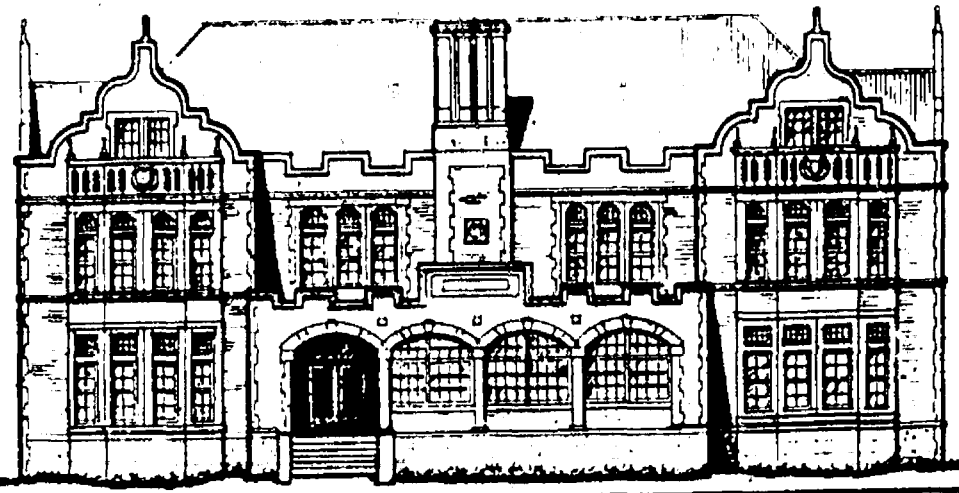

THE MORE OF THE STORY is, don't be afraid to look in your own back yard for true mushroom happiness. Mrs. Al Whitaker of Sylvan Rd. found 243 morel mushrooms on her property last Thursday near some old, dead trees. Her sons, Jerry and Jim, helped her pick them and will probably help her eat them as well. Mrs. Whitaker said she's partial to breeding and frying the mushrooms.

Nine Chelsea elementary school children would be part of a one-hour presentation at the 1987 State Conference on Gifted in Flint. The conference is devoted to the academically gifted and talented children of Michigan. The nine students who made the trip were Ben Culver, Jeanne Mouilleseaux, Melissa Smith, Keri Kentala, Matt Fischer, Kerry Lynch, Pat Lynch, Jessica Flintoff, Rebecca Flintoff.

Separate incidents in which a tractor was stolen from an orchard and Inverness Golf Course was damaged were probably the work of the same people, according to the Washtenaw County Sheriff's Department. Deputy Lee Collier confirmed that someone had used a tractor to damage a green and fairway on separate holes at Inverness Golf Course. "It's almost certain the same people are responsible," Collier said.

Chelsea High school forensics team placed fifth in the state in class B at the state competition held at the University of Michigan. Chelsea finished one point out of fourth place and two points out of third in the final forensics event of the year. "We have a lot to be proud of," said coach Bill Coelius. "It was a very difficult event."

The Spring Camporee of the Portage Trails Council, Boy Scouts of America, was held. Districts 3 and 4 took part, with local troops from Chelsea, 476, 465, 425. The highlight of the Camporee was the annual tap-out for the Order of the Arrow candidates—an honorary Scouting Service group. Only "cream of the crop" candidates are chosen. The qualifications necessary for being considered are that the candidate should have at least 15 days and nights of out-door camping experience; plus being an outstanding scouting type. The vote is by secret ballot. That week-end

Legislators Contemplate Turning to Voters for Property Tax Cut

With some legislators already concluding that the recently-passed property tax freeze and cap package is as much agreement as can be reached in Lansing on the thorny issue, leaders in both parties are laying groundwork for a decision by voters on a property tax cut, either under a joint plan or competing proposals.

And still in the wings is the Headlee 20 percent tax cut which is awaiting a verdict on whether it has enough signatures to force a vote in either the Legislature or at the 1992 election.

Governor John Engler and legislative leaders called the 1992 freeze and the proposed constitutional amendment limiting future assessment increases a first step. While promising to continue to work on an agreement for a cut, they expressed skepticism that can be accomplished.

Speaker Lewis Dodak (D-Montrose) revived a challenge this week to Engler and Republicans that they agree to submit to voters both the Democratic cut (targeted just to individuals while stripping businesses of some tax breaks), and the Republican approach a cut for all property owners over three years with an implied cut in the state budget.

Engler will support submitting something to voters only if there is no legislative compromise, said spokesperson John Truscott. He has already said he would back the Headlee cut if it makes it to the Legislature.

Senate Majority Leader Richard Posthumus (R-Alto) is ready to begin to put a tax cut before voters. He said the Headlee plan is about the only thing that would force the Legislature to vote on a common tax cut proposal because of the deep partisan differences in how a cut should be shaped.

"These interim steps may well be the best we can realistically expect to accomplish at this time in the legislative realm," Posthumus said. "We now intend to take our case directly to Michigan taxpayers and solicit their support for a ballot proposal offering a significant and real reduction in property tax rates throughout our state."

Conceding a consensus plan is unlikely, Dodak's first preference is for the Legislature to put competing tax cut plans on the ballot, arguing the approach would neither confuse the voters nor indicate the Legislature is incapable of making a decision.

Alternatively, he said Democrats are prepared to launch a petition drive for initiated legislation for their tax cut. Such a drive requires fewer signatures than a proposed constitutional amendment.

"It would be very simple, without the amendments to the constitution. I don't think either of those would be confusing to anyone," he said.

Dodak said he will make one more attempt to put both plans before voters with a formal letter to the governor next week seeking his support.

He is not optimistic about getting an agreement, but both Dodak and the governor said they prefer to go the legislative route because it would be less complicated than placing proposals on the ballot or undertaking a petition drive.

"Until we exhaust that, I'm not even going to look at that (the petition drive)," Dodak said. "If that's all stalemated, we'll make a decision. I just don't see any other approach."

Truscott said the governor has not looked into putting the House plan before the voters but is opposed to placing any kind of tax increase on the ballot.

The Democratic proposal—exempting $30,000 in home value from school taxes—is funded through the elimination of the capital acquisition deduction and some tax abatements for businesses, worth over $600 million a year to businesses. A Senate-passed plan cuts tax assessments by 33 percent on all property for school operations.

Posthumus has already rejected the Dodak dual-plan proposal, saying, "I will not put a tax increase on the ballot."

But Dodak objects to calling his plan a tax increase on business. "Our position is let's take away a deduction that isn't fair and equitable to begin with and give it back to the people of the state," he said.

House Republican Chief of Staff Jack Mowat said because the executive office and members of the Legislature agree a cut is needed, they should work toward a consensus plan.

He said putting competing plans before voters is "a danger. I think John, in contrast to Blanchard, is really dedicated to this proposition. With that kind of personal commitment, he has the support of Republican legislators and the Democrats too."

Senate Democratic Caucus leaders said they would like to come to the negotiating table and do not want a partisan fight on a permanent reduction.

Carol Lintean, executive assistant to Minority Floor Leader John Cherry (D-Clio), said Senate Democratic leaders are hopeful the two chambers and Engler administration can reach a compromise, perhaps by combining aspects of the plans currently on the table.

"The administration and the Republicans are really being pressured to do something on this," she said. "We're going to try to keep the momentum."

Dodak would not speculate on how quickly a decision might be made regarding a cut, and agreed with Posthumus that resolving both this year's and next year's budgets will be a big part of the discussion for the next few weeks.

While Dodak said he is not going to worry about any potential impact of the Headlee Initiative until a decision on its certification is made (planned for sometime in May), Mowat said that plan could be the vehicle the Legislature might use.

"If certified, the Legislature will probably take action on that. That may forgo any competition for ballot proposals and make it a moot point," Mowat said. "That could be the tiebreaker here."

Dodak continued his criticism of the Headlee plan, saying it, like the Engler plan, only benefits the wealthy. "If Headlee gets on the ballot, I think it behooves us to have the House Democratic plan on the ballot," he said.

He said putting competing plans before voters is "a danger. I think John, in contrast to Blanchard, is really dedicated to this proposition. With that kind of personal commitment, he has the support of Republican legislators and the Democrats too."

Woman's Club Elects Officers For Next Year

Woman's Club of Chelsea met April 23 in the McKune Memorial Library club room for the final meeting of the year. Twenty-three members were present for the regular meeting followed by the annual Business Meeting.

Community Service chairperson, Lila Pawlowski, reported the special projects recipients for the year were Faith in Action, St. Louis School for Boys, Chelsea Arbor Treatment Center, and Inter-Troop Girl Scouts. Annual gifts were given to the McKune Memorial Library, the United Way, and Chelsea Social Services.

The proposed budget for the 1991-92 year was submitted by Marge Travis, finance chairperson, and accepted by the members. Membership chairperson, Marilyn Haug, reported the induction of one new member during the year.

Additional reports were given by committee chairpersons as follows: Betty Oesterle, vice-president/program chairperson; Nancy Tandy, parliamentarian and revision; Margaret Boehm, flower and gift; Ruby Strieter, kitchen; Lucile Finkbeiner, historian and filing.

Officers' reports, in addition to the vice-president, were president, Jinny Johnson; secretary, Lois Moore, and treasurer, Edith Lindberg.

Jinny Johnson, president, thanked the officers, chairpersons, committee members, and all members, noting that the attendance continues to be high.

The slate of officers for the 1991-92 year was read by Jinny Johnson, nominating chairperson. The following officers were unanimously elected: president, Cheryl Schoenberg; vice-president/program chairperson, Lois Moore; secretary, Fannie Shelton; treasurer, Marjorie Hepburn; and parliamentarian/revision, Dorothy Mielke.

Cheryl Schoenberg and Billie Zenz were hostesses for the evening.

Final events for the year will be the annual May Dinner to be held May 14 at the Brandywine Restaurant in Jackson. The executive board will hostess the event.

The club will again host the Marathon Bridge Dinner and Awards Night on Thursday, May 16 at 6:30 p.m. in the social center of Our Savior Lutheran church. Lila Pawlowski is chairing the event. Myra Colvin is the Marathon Bridge chairperson.

SWEET SURPRISES, a new bulk candy store, was opened last week by area resident Berna Street at the back of The Country Rose on E. Middle St. The store carries candy, nut, dried fruits, and other assorted items, all in bulk.

Bulk Candy Store Opens on Middle St.

A bulk foods store specializing in candy, dried fruit, nuts, and home-made chocolate has opened at the back of The Country Rose on E. Middle St.

Area resident Berna Street opened "Sweet Surprises" last week, her first retail business.

"I got the idea after visiting a similar store in Trapper's Alley in Greektown in Detroit," Street said.

"I studied bulk food stores in Ann Arbor and Howell to find out what their biggest sellers were. But it was my idea to go with the home-made chocolate, which so far has been one of our biggest sellers."

The home-made chocolate, a European style, comes from The Chocolate Hut in Indian River. A woman makes the candy in her home. The selection includes fudge, truffles, bear claws, and other items. Light and dark chocolate is used, as well as white chocolate.

Street said she carries about 80 different items in the store. More well-known candy includes Hershey Kisses, Gummi Bears, Jelly Bellies, taffee, and a selection of Sanders candies.

Dried fruits include cherries, raisins, apricots, bananas, and virtually anything for home-made trail mix.

Other items include 11 kinds of nuts, from pistachios to pecans, bagel chips, and even dog bones and rawhide chews.

Street and her family live on Waterloo Rd. She is a native of New York and a graduate of Pinckney High school.

HAZARDOUS MATERIALS CLASSES conducted by Michigan State University were taught at Sylvan Town Hall and the Chelsea Fire Department each Sunday in April. The class has become a national standard for firefighter and emergency responder training. Students are trained to identify incidents involving hazardous materials, then contain, control, or evacuate the area. Other departments that attended were Manchester, Augusta, McNamee Tech, Huron Valley Ambulance, Pittfield township, Sand Lake, Van Buren township, Belleville, Ann Arbor, and South Lyon. Above, Mike O'Neill, left, and Kevin Van Orman show the two different kinds of protective suits. Below, firefighters go for a walk in the suits to get used to them.

Fire Department Wants To Purchase Defibrillator

Chelsea Fire Department wants to purchase a piece of equipment to help rescue workers revive heart attack victims.

The equipment, called a semi-automatic defibrillator, costs $5,035. The catch, however, is the department doesn't have money in its budget and is looking for donations.

According to paramedic Steve Jaskot, the Chelsea department is the only one in the area that does not have the equipment. When Chelsea rescue workers go to the scene of a heart attack, they start CPR until an ambulance arrives with a defibrillator.

The equipment administers an electric shock to victims of cardiac arrest. Paramedics hook up the machine and the machine tells them whether a shock is necessary.

"Any help we can get will be greatly appreciated," Jaskot said.

QUOTES

NOTES

DONALD A. COLE
Director

"Even if you're on the right track, you'll get run over if you just sit there."

—Will Rogers

The world today needs more of Will Rogers' ability to put basic truths into a terse, humorous capsule comment such as the above quotation.

Rogers was poking a little sly fun at many of us. We're on the right track... we're engaged in gainful, honest employment, we're providing a good home for our mate and children, we're doing all the accepted and expected things. But, if we "just sit there" making no progress, we're in danger of being run over by others who are moving ahead.

"TURTLE POWER" was the name of a class given to students at South and North schools on Friday and Monday. Carole and Richard Murphy told the students how to load up a backpack for a week-end of outdoor fun. The talk was part of a year-long series sponsored by the Enrichment Triad Program.

24 Years Ago . . .

Robert Daniels was voted to be awarded this honor.

Following 43 years employed at the Washtenaw County Road Commission, Norman Gregory of Dexter retired. First employed April 21, 1924, Gregory had always worked in the Ann Arbor district, for 33 years as an equipment operator and for the past 10 years as a mechanic in the equipment division.

Bob Stone and Andy Braun represented Dexter High School in the Plymouth Trouble Shooting Contest. The team of Sam Bouillon and Ron Pustay would serve as alternates. A total of 26 schools in the area were expected to enter teams. Trouble Shooters compete against other teams and the clock to determine which team can most quickly and accurately locate, diagnose, and repair a series of mechanical malfunctions in the engine of a new car.

Patricia Jane Bell was an exchange student to Cologne, Germany, through the International Association for the Exchange of Students for Technical Experience. This is a program available for any technical student, attending any college who qualifies. Pat completed her fourth year in pharmacy at the University of Michigan and would return in August to resume her studies.

34 Years Ago . . .

Thursday, May 2, 1957—Melvin Stofer sustained a fractured nose and a knee injury requiring the application of a cast in an automobile accident. Stofer, alone in the car at the time, lost control of the vehicle and collided with a tree on Riker Rd. The car was severely damaged.

The Office of Administration at Eola Village, McMinnville, Ore., announced that Richard Schneider of Chelsea was accepted for a tour of Eola Village. Eola Village is a housing project for agricultural migrants and registers some 5,000 people each year.

Mrs. Olle Johnson, bowling in the Tri-State Individual Classic at Coldwater finished in ninth place with a handicap total of 1,231 for six games and an actual total of 1,017.

Three red foxes were taken in traps on the Joseph Czaplak farm west of Chelsea. One was an aged male and the others were young ones. A number of others are still known to be in the area since the Czaplaks have seen them through field glasses from the house. The foxes are evidently raiding neighbors' chicken flocks since the Czaplaks, examining the animals' dens, have found feathers of different colored chickens than those in their own flock. The Czaplaks have also lost ducks to the marauding foxes.

EMU Profs Say Business Should Show More Concern for Family

In most corporate settings, it's still unacceptable for a working mother to miss an important meeting because her child is ill. It's probably unacceptable to leave work early to drive an elderly parent to the dentist. And it's really unacceptable to take time off work to catch opening day of your five-year-old's kindergarten play.

Two Eastern Michigan University business professors, however, think business leaders ought to lose those attitudes or it could cost them money in the future.

Drs. Denise Hoyer and Jean McEnery, associate professor and professor in EMU's Management Department, recently completed a study to evaluate the costs and benefits to companies that offer "family support" fringe benefits, such as flexible time, parental leaves and employer-provided child care.

The women found that while few companies offer such benefits, their relatively low costs could be well offset by the potential gains of a more satisfied, more productive workforce.

In addition to policies for pay, vacation time and promotional opportunities, Hoyer and McEnery believe businesses should construct "family/work" philosophies and set corresponding policies that will help employees handle conflicts between the two.

Of the 500 companies they surveyed, only 12 percent of respondents said they had any such policy.

"It's still controversial to even suggest that organizations should have anything to do with families," McEnery said. "Most organizations still have this concept that there is your family life and it's split off from your work life, which is very frustrating for people who feel they are whole individuals... especially for women with children."

Added Hoyer, "I think most organizations today still say, 'When you're at work, we own you and you are responsible for figuring out how to balance any outside needs or responsibilities you may have with your work.'"

That was probably an acceptable attitude, both women say, when married men with stay-at-home wives made up the bulk of the workforce. But those men number only 11 percent of today's workers, while most of the remainder are dual-income working parents, single parents and single people of child-bearing age.

As such, more and more workers are experiencing "role conflict," McEnery and Hoyer say, in which they can't reconcile the demands of their jobs with the needs of their children, elderly parents, etc. When faced with difficult work vs. family decisions, however, most choose work because after all, the bills have to be paid. Those difficult decisions, McEnery and Hoyer say, can weigh heavily on employees and lead to poor work performance, absenteeism, even illness.

"To move up in an organization, it's still perceived that if you have children, especially young children, don't display it," McEnery said. "You have to make sure that you are clearly viewed as a 'professional' and you are viewed as a professional if you can split off your family life and not be visibly concerned about it (while at work)."

Hoyer and McEnery see a dismal future for corporate America, however, if it doesn't start accepting that today's employees have multiple demands on their time and may need some flexibility from the 9-to-5 routine.

Role conflict, the women found, contributes to lower performance ratings, lower job satisfaction, higher absenteeism and increased intention to quit, all things which eventually eat into corporate profits.

"This is quickly becoming a 'pay now or pay later' question, because the new workforce will not be productive under old corporate philosophies," McEnery said. "And with predicted skilled labor shortages, (skilled) employees are going to be able to look for more than just a paycheck."

Not surprisingly, they found that women suffer the greatest role conflict on the job, but noted that women also are predicted to make up more than two-thirds of new entrants to the workforce by 1995.

"Women experience more role conflict than men because even if she is a vice-president, even if she goes to work and makes $125,000 a year, she's still likely the one who's going to have to pick up the kids if they're sick and have to help with their school turkey project the day before Thanksgiving. Men just don't do those little details of daily life," McEnery said.

While their original hypothesis had been that the companies most likely to offer "family benefits" would be those that saw it relating to "bottom-line issues," their study found that the organizations adopting such policies are those with the highest percentages of women employees.

"It's the 'squeaky wheel' routine and that's the catalyst, but I think it shifts," Hoyer said. "Once the momentum builds, people's attitudes change... More and more organizations are seeing that it's going to become socially unacceptable to have those attitudes. They're realizing that everyone has these problems—managers do, owners do—and we need to find some middle ground to address it."

The most common family benefit the women found being offered was flexible time in which employees can set their own work schedules to better complement the time demands in their private lives. Such autonomy, they say, is "significantly related" to better job performance.

"It's amazing the level of interest we found that women have in flexible time," McEnery said. "A much higher percentage of women (than men) said they would like to have it and would use it."

McEnery contends that the notion of "flex time" may not be so popular among men because many of them already operate under informal systems of autonomy.

"Men basically do have flex time because they're much more likely to come and go as they like with no questions asked," she said. "Some researchers suggest that women make the mistake of being honest about where they're going, whereas men take time off for family, too, but never say they're going to 'my son's play,' they say they have 'an appointment.' The implication is that women just are not as politically wise."

Both women, however, say they'd like to see business stop viewing one's concern for his/her family as bad politics.

"Rearing our next generation is very important and companies need to recognize that and they need to help," Hoyer said.

Two Area Residents Get Red Cross Volunteer Honors

Two area residents received Outstanding Service Awards from the Washtenaw county chapter of the American Red Cross on Sunday, April 22.

Russel Benson of Waterloo, a volunteer in health services, and Mary Ann Gardner of Pinckney, from the office of volunteers, received the awards at the annual Cheers for Volunteers celebration.

The first strike by a permanent union was in 1792 by an organization of Philadelphia journeymen cordwainers, according to "Labor Firsts in America," a U.S. Labor Department publication. The cordwainers protested against a reduction in wages.

YOU & YOUR PET

By Linda Reider
Director of Education
Humane Society of Huron Valley

★ You CAN Move with your Pet!

Nothing is more frustrating to those of us at the humane society than receiving pet after pet from people who are moving. Although the idea of relocating to another city or even state with one's dog or cat is daunting to some, it can be easily accomplished with some advance preparation.

I know a couple who recently moved to Ann Arbor from a southern state with their two dogs and four cats. About a month before the move, the people contacted our humane society to order local identification tags registered in their name for each animal. The tags were to be mailed to them for the pets to wear in case of loss during the journey. At the same time, the couple asked for the names of recommended boarding facilities in Ann Arbor and a list of apartments that allow pets. They then called and made an open-ended boarding reservation for the pets beginning on their projected arrival date.

A couple of weeks prior to moving, the owners visited their pets' veterinarian to pick up a copy of their medical records and some tranquilizer pills for the cats. Their vet advised them to try out the medication in advance to be sure that it would have the desired effect.

When the moving company arrived, all six pets were confined to an empty room to prevent accidental escapes during the confusion. Finally, all the boxes were loaded. The tranquilized cats were placed two to an airline crate in the back of the husband's covered pick-up truck, while the dogs rode secured in their car seats in the wife's car.

The two-day trip was uneventful. The initial half-hour was the worst while the cats protested noisily, but all soon calmed down. The couple stopped every two to three hours to water the pets and exercise the dogs at rest stops. The cats had small litter pans in their crates. They had no trouble finding inexpensive motels along the route that allowed crated pets in the rooms, and they were careful to keep them crated and clean up any messes.

When they arrived, the couple checked their pets in at the boarding facility and went looking for a place to live, which they found within a week. All six are now happy Ann Arbor residents!

Ground-Breaking Held for New Starter Building at Golf Course

Commissioner Robert W. Marans, who represents Washtenaw county on the Board of Commissioners of the Huron-Clinton Metropolitan Authority (HCMA), presided at a ground-breaking ceremony, Friday morning, April 26, for the new "starter building" to be constructed at the golf course at Hudson Mills Metropark near Dexter.

The 4,250-sq. ft. structure will be primarily masonry construction with lots of exterior glass, and will provide space for lobby, starter area, food service, preparation facilities, offices, work space, kitchen, storage space, and indoor and outdoor dining areas.

A contract in the amount of $554,900 has been awarded Gator Construction & Design, Inc., of Detroit to construct the golf course starter building.

Hobbs and Black Associates, Inc., represented by Richard Black and Lawrence Stern for this project, is the architectural consulting firm.

Officials present for the ground-breaking included commissioner Marans, Frank J. Sudek, HCMA deputy director, Michael G. Magee, HCMA chief engineer, Susan Myquist, supervising landscape architect, Gary C. Barstch, park superintendent at Hudson Mills Metropark, Tom Goniea and Scott Kaye of Detroit's Gator Construction & Design, Inc., Lawrence Stern, an architect with the Ann Arbor firm, Hobbs & Black Associates, Inc., and Dexter township officials, Julie Knight, treasurer, and Vicky Lawrence, deputy treasurer.

Construction is expected to begin within the next two or three weeks, with completion scheduled in late 1991.

The 18-hole golf course, which opened last summer, is using a trailer as a temporary starter building.

ARTIST'S SKETCH GIVES A PREVIEW of the Hudson Mills Golf Starter Building which will soon be a reality, replacing the temporary structure at the golf course in Hudson Mills Metropark, just outside Dexter. Ground-breaking for the new building took place Friday, April 26, and construction will begin shortly.

Second Blood Drive Planned For May 16

The second of four Chelsea community blood drives is slated for Thursday, May 16 from 8 a.m. to 8 p.m. at St. Paul United Church of Christ, one block east of Polly's Market on Old US-12.

Community donors are urged to make an appointment by calling 475-2041 after 4 p.m.

Church donors are urged to make an appointment through their church recruiter.

Chelsea High school chapter of the National Honor Society will help out with the drive, as well as recruit students, teachers, and parents.

Anyone interested in working at the drive is asked to contact Marion Kerns at 475-7440.

Cub Scouts Plan Bottle Drive Saturday, May 4

A Cub Scout bottle drive will be held Saturday, May 4 from 1 p.m. to 4 p.m. by North school Pack 435.

Scouts will be going door-to-door to collect refundable bottles for their annual spring fundraiser.

Residents may leave returnable bottles, marked for the scouts, on their front porches. Township residents and other interested people may drop off their bottles to the scouts in the Polly's Market parking lot during those hours.

BookCrafters Names Employee of Month

Sandy Coleman is BookCrafters Michigan Employee of the Month for April. Since 1978, when she joined BookCrafters, Sandy has worked in plate, camera, quality control and production. She currently works on second shift, scheduling jobs for production.

Sandy enjoys her job and the "great bunch of people" she works with. Many fine comments were submitted praising Sandy at her nomination.

Sandy lives in Chelsea at Crooked Lake, where she swims back and forth across the lake daily during summer months. She also enjoys sports cars, gardening and, of course, her family.

WILLIAM G. ROSENBERG

EPA Official Rosenberg Addresses Economic Club

William G. Rosenberg carried President George Bush's environmental message to members of the Chelsea Economic Club on Saturday, April 20.

Rosenberg, who is Assistant Secretary for Air and Radiation with the EPA in Washington, D.C., commutes weekly from his rural home north of Chelsea in order to do the job set down for him by EPA director, William Reilly, at the behest of the President: "Make this country as pollution free as makes good economic sense."

According to Rosenberg only 7% of Japan's GNP is expended on energy, while the United States' 11% share translates into $200 billion. Several factors led to the technological advancements that produced more efficiency but stringent governmental requirements pushed the research. American automakers found themselves in a catch-up position because of the receptivity of American car buyers to the advancements made in Japan and exported to the U.S.

To their credit, domestic automobile companies have quickly shifted to car designs which can compete technologically and as a result, have pollution equipment exportable to Eastern bloc nations who are decades behind in protecting their fragile surroundings. General Motors has orders for $1 billion in pollution control equipment from Russia, for example.

The good news Rosenberg delivered pointed to the 95% cleaner auto than in 1970. 84% of citizens surveyed see pollution as a serious problem which is getting worse and 74% see it as a problem that needs addressing. Television producer Norman Lear regularly inserts environmental themes into his shows as a public service to keep the awareness factor high. Rosenberg contends that we have made more progress in the protection of the environment than in any other social issue.

Rosenberg considers the passage of revisions to the Clean Air Act the most significant accomplishments of his two years in Washington. This piece of legislation will have cost the American taxpayers $25 billion by the turn of the century, but Rosenberg insists that the products and processes which will be developed will create a new industry and countless opportunities to market these products around the world. In turn one million barrels of oil per day will be saved, more than we had imported from Iraq and Kuwait before the war.

Let's Go Bulldogs!

TWO GENERATIONS OF COACHES discuss the flow of the Chelsea-Fenton softball game during last Saturday's Chelsea Invitational. Charlie Waller, one of the state's most successful softball coaches ever, always has good advice for his former star pupil, Amy Poljan.

Dogs Take Second in Chelsea Invitational

Chelsea Bulldogs softball team lost in the finals of the Chelsea Invitational last Saturday, 7-4 to Fenton, a team they beat handily earlier in the day.

To reach the finals, the Bulldogs beat Gabriel Richard 17-3, Fenton 7-0, Ypsilanti 18-1, and Northwest 5-4.

"We just couldn't get the big hit at the right time," said Chelsea coach Amy Poljan of the final game.

"We made three crucial base-running mistakes as well."

Chelsea took a 3-1 lead in the first inning, but surrendered three runs in the top of the second and eventually fell behind 7-3.

Kelly Cross, Christine Burg, Colleen Scharphorn, and Jennifer Petty each had two singles, while Sara Musolf singled and doubled. Cross also doubled.

In the opening game against Richard, Chelsea had a 5-2 lead after three innings and a 7-3 lead after five before exploding for 10 runs in the sixth. Petty picked up the win on the mound and contributed three hits to the offense as well. Burg and Scharphorn had two hits each.

In the first Fenton game, Musolf pitched a four-hitter with four strikeouts. "Sara pitched an outstanding game, much better than I might have expected," Poljan said.

Scharphorn had three hits and Kelly Bellus two hits.

In the third game against Ypsilanti, the Bulldogs pounded out 21 hits and scored nine runs in the sixth inning to put the game away.

Cross was the winning pitcher as she struck out two and gave up 10 hits. Petty led Chelsea with four hits, including a triple, while Musolf and Burg had three hits each, and Durst, Cross and Bellus had two hits apiece.

Chelsea jumped out to a 5-0 lead against Northwest and held on for the win.

Scharphorn pitched a four-hitter and struck out four for the win. However, Chelsea had only five hits, two each by Burg and Bellus. Four Northwest errors helped the cause.

"We played an excellent defensive game," Poljan said.

"The outfield had an outstanding game, as did Burg at shortstop."

In other action last week, Chelsea beat the Lincoln Railsplitters in a double-header, 6-1 and 5-1.

In the opener, Scharphorn struck out five and allowed three hits.

Petty pitched a four-hitter in the second game. She also had two hits in each contest. Burg had two RBI on the day.

In late action Monday, Chelsea beat Northwest in the first game, 6-2, but lost the nightcap, 6-5.

Dogs Sweep Lincoln To Hold League Lead, At Top in Huron Tourney

Chelsea Bulldogs varsity baseball team improved their record to 11-1 last week with a sweep of the Lincoln Railsplitters on Thursday and two straight victories in the Huron-Rawlings Tournament in Ann Arbor on Saturday.

Chelsea stopped Lincoln in the opener, 7-4, as the Bulldogs took a 5-0 lead after two innings and were never seriously threatened thereafter.

Chris White was the starting pitcher and Craig Ferry picked up the win in relief.

Ben Hurst made a good running catch in centerfield with two on and one out in the seventh to help preserve the victory.

Ferry and Adam Taylor each had two hits and Taylor stole three bases. Chelsea won the second game, 12-1, in a five-inning, mercy-rule contest.

Hurst pitched the first three innings in his first start of the season and Ferry again got the win in relief to run his record to 4-0.

Chelsea picked up three runs in the first inning on RBI-singles by Rindle and Plank.

"We generally pounded the ball well," said assistant coach Akel Marshall.

Jake Rindle had three hits and Tucker Steele and Taylor each had two hits. Taylor stole two bases.

The Bulldogs are in first place in the Southeastern Conference with a 5-1 record.

Chelsea emerged as one of the leaders on the Huron tournament with a 7-2 win over Pinckney and a 6-1 win over Huron.

Chelsea scored five runs in the bottom of the first inning as Taylor singled, and Kerry Plank, Rindle, Ferry, and Rob Clem hit four straight home runs.

"I don't know if that's ever happened in high school," Marshall said.

"It was something to see."

Jeremy Stephens hit a run-scoring double for Chelsea later in the contest. Rindle ran his pitching record to 4-0. Chelsea played errorless ball in the second game and Rob Clem didn't walk a batter.

The Bulldogs scored two runs in the second inning, one in the third, and three in the fifth on a bases-loaded error in the outfield.

Kelly Beard had an RBI-single and Jude Quilter had two hits.

Marshall said Taylor had an outstanding game at catcher. Hurst made two good catches in centerfield.

Chelsea plays Willow Run at Willow Run on Saturday at 10 a.m., then plays Manchester at Dexter at 1 p.m. Championship game is at 4 p.m. at Huron High school.

CHS Tennis Team Loses to Pirates, Saline

Chelsea Bulldogs varsity tennis team lost matches to Pinckney and Saline last week.

Pinckney won the match on Wednesday, April 24, 5-2.

Two Chelsea winners included Chris Haugen at third singles, with a 6-4, 2-6, 6-2 win over Paul Goff, and Dan Stahl and Jason Allen at second doubles, with a pair of 6-3 victories over Dan Perrine and Brad Gardner.

In other matches, Scott Pacheco lost as first singles to Rob Dillon, 2-6, 4-6; Booby Senzel lost to Tim Wilson at second singles, 1-6, 2-6; Aaron Tanner lost to Nik Banchoff at fourth singles, 4-6, 5-7; Ben Manning and Rob Coelius lost at first singles to Brian Challenger and Brad Cascagnette, 3-6, 4-6; and Jeff Gietzen and Sean Daigle lost to Matt Miller and Kevin Dobis, 4-6, 2-6.

The Chelsea and Pinckney junior varsity teams tied at 3.

Winners for Chelsea included Tim Bowers over Bill Knapp, 6-4; Jason Gayeski and Matt Jachalke over Klaus Gutnecht and Matt Mankoff, 8-1; and Scott Leeman and Matt Jachalke over John Banas and Kristian Stankiewicz, 9-7. In other matches, Rich Mason lost to Clint Fink, 5-8; Vince Dunn and Alex Ham-

Young Wrestlers

Participate in Regional Meets

Several young Chelsea wrestlers went to three state regionals on Saturday, April 20.

At the Holt regional, Mike Alber placed first in the 11-12 age group, Cameron Farmer was second, and Sam Morseau was third in the 13-14 group. Ben Vogel placed third in the 8-and-under group and Tim Rickerman wrestled in the 11-12 group.

At Caledonia, Brent Young was first in the 11-12 group.

Kevin Bloomensaar wrestled at the Portage regionals.

On April 27 at the state meet in Grand Rapids, Mike Alber, Brent Young, and Sam Morseau all wrestled. Young placed second in the 11-12 group.

Those eligible for state in the Cadet group are Dan Alber, John Bobo, and Gary Farmer. They will compete this Saturday, May 4 in Lansing.

Beach Girls Take 23-Team Invitational

Beach Middle school girls track team won the first-ever 23-team Saline Invitational last week.

Chelsea scored 82 points to edge Scranton Middle school of Brighton with 79 and Temperance-Bedford with 75.

"This was truly an outstanding accomplishment for the team," said Beach coach Ann Schaffner.

"The mental toughness combined with the ability of this year's team is quite special for middle school age."

Keri Kentala took first place in both the 55 and 100 hurdles. Her time of :09.63 in the 55 broke the previous school record of :10.15. Andrea Ludwig was sixth in the 55 hurdles.

Melissa Hand placed second in the 800 run in 2:41 and Lori Ritter was eighth in 2:45.

The 1600 relay team of Robin Phelps, Ritter, Charlotte Ziegler, and Melissa Hand placed second in 4:41.6.

Kori White placed third in the 400 with her best-ever time of 1:07.9. She also anchored the 800 relay, which included Carey Schiller, Jessica Flannery, and Katie Spink. The team placed third in 2:04.

The 400 relay team of Anne Frederick, Flannery, Callie Garrigus, and Sarah Schick placed fourth in :58.2.

Frederick took fifth in the 70 in :10.4. Sarah Schick had the fastest time in the preliminaries, :09.8 but didn't run in the finals.

Phelps placed fourth in the 1600 in 6:13.

Hailey Orr placed fifth in the shot put with her personal-best of 31' 11".

In other action last week, the girls whipped Milan, 102-21.

The Bulldogs swept six events due to talent and depth, Schaffner said. Chelsea won all places in the high jump, shot put, two distance runs, and both hurdles.

Hand won three events, and Phelps, Kentala, Schick, and Schiller were each double winners.

Shot put: 1. Orr, 29' 7"; 2. Amy Petty; 3. Erin Garrigus.

High jump: 1. Melissa Hand, 4' 4"; 2. Tie, Kentala and Courtney Thompson.

3200: 1. Jessica Flintoft, 14:12; 2. Erica Leiter; 3. Melissa Williams.

55 hurdles: 1. Kentala, :10.3; 2. Ludwig; 3. Laura Hodgson.

800: 1. Hand, 2:42.3; 2. Ritter.

1600: 1. Phelps, 6:11; 2. Molly Griebel; 3. Erin Garrigus.

100: 2. Frederick, :14.13; 3. Flannery.

400: 1. White, 1:11.26; 2. Rosanna Gray-Lohn.

100 hurdles: 1. Kentala, :16.42; 2. Ludwig; 3. Hodgson.

70: 1. Schick, :10.27; 2. Callie Garrigus.

200: 1. Schiller, :31.34; 3. Orr.

1600 relay: 1. Phelps, Leiter, Ziegler, Hand, 4:49.05.

400 relay: 1. Frederick, Flannery, Garrigus, Schick, :57.84.

Brown Pitching

In Final Season

Pam Brown of Chelsea is playing her last season for the Grand Valley State University softball team.

Brown, a senior pitcher, is 5-6 in 73 innings, with 15 strikeouts and a 1.92 earned run average.

The Lakers are 9-10 on the season.

Girls Track Team Wins Mason Invitational, Tops Milan, Lincoln

Chelsea Bulldogs girls track team won the eight-team Mason Kiwanis Invitational Friday night, scoring 113 points, Okemos was second with 93 and Holt third with 83. It was Chelsea's first outright title in the 14 years of the event, although they did share the championship once before.

The Bulldogs scored in 14 events, winning four of them, and turned in several outstanding performances.

Lisa Monti won the mile in 5:27.4, then set a school record in the two-mile as she pulled away on the sixth lap to win in 11:30.7. The record capped an excellent day for Monti as she also ran a 2:31 880 leg in the two-mile relay.

Val Bullock added a sixth in the 2-mile.

Charity Allen ran very well in the 330 hurdles to win in :48.3. She struggled a little in the 110 hurdles, but managed a fourth in a time of :17.2.

Amanda Nirkne ran her best race of the season to win her 110 hurdle preliminaries, and finished sixth in the finals at :17.5.

Jeanene Rossi won a jump-off to take the high jump at 4'9", and was third in the 100-yard dash at :12.4.

Laura Paton was third in the 440 at 1:04.1 with Jessica Holton fifth.

Theresa Royce was third in the 220 with a time of :27.8. Deanna Richardson took third in the long jump with a leap of 14'9".

Chelsea's relay teams also performed well. The 2-mile relay of Sarah Henry, Lisa Monti, Sarah Brosnan and Tracy Wales was second in 10:27.1.

The 880 relay of Leah Hadley, Royce, Leisa Schiller and Laura Paton survived a poor hand off to finish third in 1:54.1.

Schiller, Royce, Hadley and Rossi took second in the 440 relay in :54.0.

And the mile relay of Allen, Paton, Holton and Beth Bell ran a season best 4:21.5 to finish second.

The key race for the Bulldogs was the 880 where they came through brilliantly, said coach Bill Bainton. Bell ran an outstanding race to finish second in 2:33.0 with Sarah Henry adding a fifth and Sarah Brosnan a sixth in 2:37 and 2:38.8.

That race strengthened our lead, and gave us points to balance what Okemos could do with three qualifiers in the 220, Bainton said.

"It just about sewed it up for us." Bainton said he and assistant coach Bert Kruse felt they had a chance to win and that Holt, Okemos and possibly Mason would be the biggest threats. Bainton credited the people who ran well in dual meets during the week as a big factor.

"We were able to keep the number of races down during the week, and keep people healthy and somewhat rested," he explained.

"That was a big factor." This Friday the Bulldogs are at Corunna for a relay meet, and next Tuesday run at Dexter.

In other action, the girls track team won two SEC dual meets last week, defeating Milan 108 to 20 and Lincoln 94-34.

Twenty-four runners placed for Chelsea as they took all but one event from a Milan team that had several of its leading runners hobbled by injuries. Allen was the only double-individual winner as she outdistanced the field to take the 100 hurdles in :17.1 and the 300 hurdles in :49.0.

Schiller jumped to her best performance of the season, taking the long jump at 15'8".

Freshman Renae Skelly also made a fine showing, finishing third in the long jump with her best of 14'4" and winning the 200 in :31.2.

Other event winners for Chelsea were Nirkne in the shot put, 28'8"; Wendy Bristle, discus 84'8"; Rossi, high-jump 4'11"; Royce, 100, :13.6; Monti, 1600, 5:40.8; Paton 400, 1:04.1; Henry, 800, 2:37.6; 3200 relay, Monti, Henry Bell, Sarah Brosnan, 10:38.5; 800 relay, Hadley, Schiller, Nirkne, Paton, 1:57.2; 400 relay, Rossi, Schiller, Monica Hansen, Hadley, :55.3; 1600 relay, Allen, Sara Tracy, Nirkne, Bell, 4:32.3.

Lincoln matched Chelsea with 18 points in the field events but was no match for the Bulldogs the rest of the contest.

Allen and Rossi each took two individual firsts, as did Michelle Gentz for the Raispliters. Allen won the 100 hurdles in :17.5 and the 300 in :49.4. Rossi took the high jump at 5'0" and the 100 in :13.5. Gentz scored 10 of Lincoln's points as she won the discus and shot put.

Leisa Schiller won a close long jump with a leap of 15'4".

Teammate Deanna Richardson was second with her season's best of 15'2".

Monti turned in a fine 800, winning in 2:29.3.

Bell paced a Bulldog sweep of the 400 with a winning time of 1:03.6.

Bullock won the 1600 in 6:06.9; Beth Williams took the 3200 in :13:31 with

JV Baseball Team Whips Milan, Splits With Lincoln

Chelsea Bulldogs junior varsity baseball team swept Milan two games but split with Lincoln in action last week.

On Monday, April 22 at Milan, the Bulldogs won 10-7 and 6-3.

In the opener, the Bulldogs rallied for three runs in the top of the seventh then shut out the Big Reds in the bottom of the inning.

The Bulldogs had rallied from a 3-1 deficit.

"It was an exciting game," said Chelsea coach Jim Ticknor.

"Mark Eder's relief pitching kept us in the game."

Chelsea took a 7-3 lead in the top of the fifth with by scoring six runs. In the inning, Tim Wescott and Casey Schiller each had RBI-singles. There was also a walk, a hit batsman, and two errors.

Chris Dunham was 3-4 for the game with eight stolen bases.

Chelsea opened the second game with five runs in the top of the first on just two hits, a double by Jason Johnson and a single by Kevin McCalla. However, there were several walks as well as eight stolen bases to fuel the offense.

Chelsea carried a 6-0 lead into the fifth inning, when Milan scored three times.

Nathan Oake pitched, struck out five, walked one, and gave up one hit.

On Thursday, April 25 Chelsea took the opening game against Lincoln, 12-2, but dropped the nightcap, 9-6.

Chelsea scored three runs in the first, four in the second, and five in the fifth for the mercy-rule win.

The three runs in the first came without a hit. In the second Chelsea got hits from Dunham, Kevin McCalla, Nick McCalla, and Schiller, and a double from Ken Slane.

Hits by Dunham, Ed Waller, and Kevin McCalla keyed a three-run fifth.

Oake went the distance on the mound.

In the second game, Lincoln scored three times in the fifth and once in the sixth to expand their lead to 9-4.

"As well as we played the first game, we played very poorly the second game," Ticknor said.

Kevin McCalla had two of Chelsea's three hits.

Nick McCalla pitched the first five innings and Eder pitched in the relief. Chelsea was 5-3 after last week.

CHS Tennis Team Results

merschmidt lost to Dominic Nardoni and Steve Renner, 2-8; and Gayeski lost to Gordie Silverthorn, 4-8.

Saline Hornets beat the Bulldogs 3-0 as two matches were rained out entirely and two matches were rain-shortened with Saline in the lead.

Pacheco lost to Derrick Dabbs at first singles, 0-6, 0-6; Senzel lost to Dan Lovejoy at second singles, 0-6, 1-6; and Coelius and Manning lost to Scott Brion and Chris Spears, 1-4-26.

In other matches, Chelsea lost to Howell on Friday, April 25, 6-1.

Gietzen and Dave Burkell at third doubles were the only Chelsea winners as they lost the first set in a 2-7 tie-breaker, but took the final two sets, 6-2 and 6-3, over Aiden McLearn and Sage Eastman.

Results of other matches were: Pacheco lost to Jason Hicks, 1-6, 0-6; Senzel lost to Alex Hauser, 3-6, 3-6; Haugen lost to Noah Bloom, 1-6, 2-6; Manning lost to Mike Miller, 4-6, 4-6; Tanner and Coelius lost to Tom Beck and Steve Schank, 1-6, 0-6; and Stahl and Allen lost to Brandon Rogers and Scott Niethammer, 1-6, 1-6.

At the four-team Pinckney Invitational on Saturday, Chelsea placed third behind Brighton and Pinckney.

Many matches went to the third set and tie-breakers were common. Every doubles match went to three sets and three of the four first-round singles matches went to three sets.

"It was a blistering performance by a determined team," Capper said.

Haugen was the only medal-winner for Chelsea as he took second place. He missed the gold medal in a tie-breaker.

The longest match of the day lasted three hours and went 35 games as Richard Mason and Tim Bowers lost 7-5, 6-7, 6-4 to Pinckney at fourth doubles.

Pacheco defeated Davison, 7-5, 6-3, but lost to Brighton, 4-6, 1-6, and Pinckney, 2-8.

Senzel lost to Pinckney, 0-6, 6-3, 4-6, but beat Davison 6-2, 6-4.

Haugen defeated Brighton, 6-3, 2-6, 7-5, but lost to Pinckney 5-7, 6-4, 7-6.

Manning defeated Davison 6-4, 1-6, 6-4, but lost to Brighton, 3-6, 4-6, and to Pinckney, 4-8.

In doubles, Coelius and Tanner lost 1-6, 6-4, 2-6 to Pinckney and beat Davison.

Burkell and Allen lost 4-6, 6-4, 6-3 to Brighton and beat Pinckney.

Daigle and Gietzen beat Davison, 6-4, 3-6, 6-3, but lost to Brighton, 3-6, 0-8, and Pinckney, 4-8.

Mason and Bowers lost to Pinckney 7-5, 6-7, 6-4 and beat Davison, 6-1, 6-7, 6-4.

Chelsea Boys Track Team Drops Meet to Big Reds

Chelsea Bulldogs boys track team lost a meet to Milan last Tuesday, 77-60, at home.

The Bulldogs were edged 23-22 in the field events but beaten handily in the running.

Chelsea took three wins in the field events as junior Mike Terpstra won both the shot put and the discus and junior Jon Royce won the high jump.

Terpstra hit 46' 5 1/2" in the shot and 110' in the discus while Royce cleared 6' 8" in the high jump and nearly cleared 6' 10 1/2".

Senior Jim Hassett placed second in the pole vault at 8' 6" and senior Justin White was third at 8'.

Raduane Farr placed second in the long jump at 18' 1/2".

Chelsea also won three running events as the 3200 relay team of White, Scott Postiff, Tobin Strong, and J.J. Hanke recorded a 9:41.74; the 800 relay team of Jason Garrigus, Hassett, Royce and Farr ran a 1:38.44; and Garrigus won the 200 dash in :24.8.

"Jason Garrigus had an outstanding day," said Chelsea coach Pat Clarke.

"His time in the 200 was a personal best. The 3200 relay team also won for the first time this season as White ran a personal best time of 2:16."

Chelsea also had several second-place finishes. Royce ran a :16.63 in the 110 high hurdles and a :44.15 in the 300 lows, Dan Zatkovich recorded 11:16.7 in the 3200, Blough recorded a 4:51.64 in the 1600, and Farr ran :12.05 in the 100.

Third place finishes went to Postiff in the 1600 in 5:16.24, Hassett in the 400 in :57.77, and Strong in the 3200 in 11:43.27.

Brian Piasecki was fifth in the 200 in :26.63 and Ty Darden was fourth in the 400 run in :58.14.

In another SEC match-up last Thursday, Chelsea lost to the Lincoln Railsplitters, 84-52.

Chelsea won five events on the day, but Lincoln's depth was too much for the Bulldogs.

Mike Terpstra won the shot put at 48' 2" and placed second in the discus with a career-best 122' 2".

Jon Royce won the high jump at 6' 8". Justin White won the pole vault at 9' 6" and Jim Hassett was second at 8' 9".

Martin Cheng won the 110 high hurdles in :18.9.

And Hassett won the 300 intermediate hurdles in :47.1, while Cheng was second in :47.4.

Raduane Farr was second in the long jump at 17' 4" and third in the 100 in :12.2.

Joe Blough placed second in the 1600 in 4:48.6 and second in the 800 in 2:09.5.

Hans Kemnitz was third in the 400 in :57.7.

Jason Garrigus was third in the 200 in :25.0.

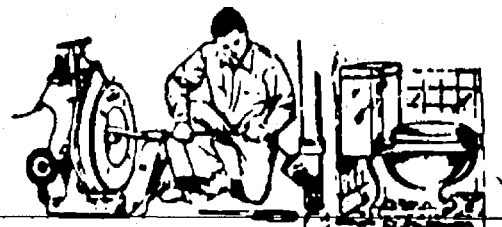

Dan Zatkovich was third in the 3200 in 11:02.9.

At the Mason Kiwanis Invitational on Saturday, Chelsea placed eighth with 19 points.

"Obviously, this is not the kind of meet for a young team to look good in," Clarke said.

"We had some fine individual performances, but generally it was a long day for the team."

JV Softball Team Outscores Milan in SEC Doubleheader

Chelsea Bulldogs junior varsity softball team won two high scoring games with the Milan Big Reds last Monday, April 19, 20-14 and 12-8.

Chelsea broke open an 11-10 game in the opener with an eight-run outburst in the top of the sixth inning. Chelsea sent 14 batters to the plate and got doubles from Jackie Crawford and Heather McConeghy, two singles from Gretchen Knutsen, a single from Nicki Piasecki, and five walks from Milan pitching.

"It was a better day for us," said Chelsea coach Ken Sullins.

"We showed good aggressiveness on the bases, tried some bunts for hits, and played better in the field. He had three excellent plays by Joni Thrush at shortstop."

McConeghy, Thrush, and Stephanie Hanselman each had two hits and Knutsen had three.

Sandy Schmid and Missy Schumann pitched for Chelsea.

A six-run rally in the fifth inning gave Chelsea their victory in the second game.

The Bulldogs were down 8-6 before the big inning. The inning featured hits by Schmid, Jamie Collinsworth, and a double by Piasecki.

"It was a good game for us," Sullins said.

"The kids kept coming back and kept the pressure on. They ran the bases very well and aggressively and did a good job of putting the ball in play. We were still a little shaky in the field, however."

Piasecki had a pair of doubles and Collinsworth a pair of singles to lead the Bulldogs.

Knott and Knutsen pitched for Chelsea.

In action last Thursday, Chelsea swept Lincoln in a double-header, 16-6 and 31-13.

In the first game, Chelsea broke open a 4-4 game with a 10-run third inning.

"We played well," Sullins said.

"We stayed aggressive at the plate and on the bases and made the plays in the field."

Five walks, singles by Bowling, Hanselman, and McConeghy, a double by Schmid, and a triple by Hanselman highlighted the third inning.

Hanselman went 4-4 and Knutsen was 2-3.

Knutsen pitched all five innings.

The second game was over after the first inning as the Bulldogs sent 29 batters to the plate and scored 24 runs.

The inning featured 20 walks, a double by Hassett, and singles by McConeghy, Schmid, Knutsen, Collinsworth, and McConeghy.

McConeghy, Knutsen, Schmid, and Collinsworth were each 2-2. Knutsen hit a homer.

It was a different story against Gabriel Richard last Friday as the Bulldogs lost two games, 17-5 and 19-9. In the first game, Chelsea surrendered 11 runs in the bottom of the first after taking a 2-0 lead.

"We got off to a good start against a good team but got deep in a hole and couldn't get out," Sullins said.

Piasecki led Chelsea at the plate with a 2-2 day and a walk.

In the second game, Chelsea carried an 8-4 lead into the bottom of the third inning but couldn't hold on.

"We went through another game of getting a pop-up fly ball or a grounder to get out of an inning but couldn't make the play," Sullins said.

Beach Boys Track Team Loses to Milan

Beach Middle school boy's track team opened the season last Wednesday.

The team showed strength in some events and had several first place finishes but didn't manage to win a relay event, said coach Dave Brinklow.

"I was very proud of these guys. They gave 100 percent effort in every race," Brinklow said.

"We dominated several events but you have to have a lot of sprinters to win the relays, which we just haven't got. Hopefully we'll be able to improve in this area in the future."

The results of the meet are as follows.

Long jump: Dan Wehrwein, 2nd.

High jump: Eric Freitas, 2nd, Jim Bergman 3rd.

Shot put: Tom Hubbell, 1st, Sam Morseau, 3rd.

3200 run: Chad Brown, 1st, Nick Kramer, 3rd.

55 hurdles: Wehrwein, 1st, Bryndon Skelton, 2nd.

800 run: Ryan Schultz, 1st, Bergman, 2nd.

600 run: Brian Atlee, 1st, Jason Phelps, 3rd.

100 dash: Steve Straub, 2nd, Mike Bainton, 3rd.

400 dash: Peter Straub, 2nd, Mike Bainton, 3rd.

100 hurdles: Wehrwein, 1st, Case McCalla, 2nd, Jeremy Zeigler, 3rd.

700 dash: Hubbell, 2nd.

200 dash: Freitas, 2nd, John Inwood, 3rd.

Other participants included Matt Tuttle, Marc Sparaco, Jeremy Feldkamp, Eric McCalla, Jesse Petty, Jeff Montange, Jim Irwin, Brian Lantis, Mark Hand, Tom Irwin.

The boys also competed with 22 other teams at the Saline invitational on Friday.

Three boys scored for Chelsea, including Brown, 5th in the 3200 M run; Don Wehrwein, 5th in the 55 hurdles; and Case McCalla, 8th in the 100 hurdles.

Other runners competing in the finals were Nick Kramer, 3200 M run; Jeremy Zeigler, 55 and 100, hurdles; Freitas, 800 relay, 200 dash and high jump; Inwood, 800 relay; Bainton, 800 relay, 400 dash; Sparaco, 800 relay, shot put; Lantis, 800 run; Atlee, 1600 run, 1600 relay and high jump; Phelps, 1600 run and 1600 relay, Steve Straub 100 and 200 dash, shot put; Jim Irwin, 100 dash, 400 and long jump; Montange, 100 dash; Jorge Rosario, 400 dash, 400 relay, long jump; Hubbell, 400 and 200 dash and shot put; Peter Straub, 400 dash, 1600 relay and long jump; Tom Irwin, 70 dash, 400 relay; Hand, 70 dash, 400 relay; Petty, 70 dash, pole vault.

teammate Emily Anderson finishing third to get her first varsity points.

Chelsea took the 3200 relay with Henry, Beth Williams, Wales and Linda Schaffer in 11:16.8; the 800 relay with Hadley, Skelly, Nimke and Paton in 1:57.2; the 400 relay with Rossi, Royce, and Hadley in 53.3; the 1600 relay with Becky Erskine, Holton, Hansen and Richardson in 4:33.8.

"These were good meets for our kids. We didn't have to overwork anybody, and lots of girls had an opportunity to figure in the scoring," Bainton said.

May Fellowship Day Slated at Crippen Bldg.

May Fellowship Day, Friday, May 3, is a worship event sponsored annually by Church Women United (CWU) that brings women of faith together from many diverse Christian denominations to build and strengthen bonds of community within an ecumenical environment.

This year's May Fellowship Day experience, entitled "Journey Toward Jubilee" reclaims Church Women United's heritage in this year of its 50th anniversary and heralds CWU's accomplishments as a major player in shaping the churches' role within the Civil Rights Movement, the Peace Movement and the Women's Movement, since its founding in 1941.

May Fellowship Day is one of the major events to mark the celebration of CWU's Jubilee Year. The service was written by Sharon Rezac Andersen, Grand Forks, N.D., with the assistance of an ecumenical group of women from the Houston, Tex., Church Women United unit. The author drew on her own experience as well as the rich legacy of the many women who journeyed for half a century with Church Women United living out their faith in action and their commitment to the continuous struggle for peace with justice, human rights and Christian unity.

MFD '90 is one of three ecumenical days of celebration sponsored by CWU—the others being World Day of Prayer, the first Friday in March, and World Community Day, the first Friday in November.

Church Women United (CWU) is the ecumenical movement that brings Protestant, Roman Catholic, Orthodox and other Christian women together into one community of prayer, advocacy and service. It represents a broad spectrum of religious tradition, race, age, economic status and ethnic background and functions through a national unit, 52 state units (including greater Washington, D.C. and Puerto Rico) and 1,750 local units throughout the U.S. Unified by a common faith in Christ, the women of Church Women United work for the elimination of poverty of women and children and issues of peace with justice.

May Fellowship Day events in Chelsea will include a light refreshment followed by a worship service Friday, May 3, at 10 a.m. at the Chelsea United Methodist Retirement Home Crippen Building (near the Methodist apartments).

Farmers Market
Starts Second Year
Saturday Morning

Chelsea Farmers Market begins its second season this Saturday, May 4 from 8 a.m. to 1 p.m. in the depot parking lot.

As always, the event will be held, rain or shine.

As of press time, 10 vendors had signed up to sell their crafts and produce. It's likely there will be more by Saturday.

Those who plan to sell include Sandy Barkman of T.J. Farms, produce and ornamentals; Barb Brazil, baskets and everlastings; Sue Lindner, baskets; Kelly Hone and Jackie Vandervoort, plants and crafts; George Merkel, produce; Katherine Richards, produce and eggs; Doug and Sue Rodgers of Rodgers Corners Produce, produce; Ray Schaller, crafts; and Debbie Williams, produce.

Vendors can sign up right through Saturday morning. Rental fees are $8-$10 per stall. For information, go to Farmers Supply, 422 Jackson St., 8:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m., Monday through Friday, 8:30 a.m. to 3 p.m. Saturday, or call 475-1777.

Prom Decorations Available for Public To See

Chelsea High school's 1991 Junior-Senior Prom will be held this Saturday, 8 p.m. to midnight at the high school.

Theme of this year's prom is "The Wizard of Oz." Anyone interested in seeing the decorations, created by the junior class, is invited to drop by the high school between 4 p.m. and 5 p.m.

Chapter Is Now Official

Chelsea has a new Jaycee chapter. The Ypsilanti Area Jaycees and the Michigan Jaycees have successfully started a new Jaycee chapter in Chelsea. Membership is open to local residents between the ages of 21-39 who are interested in leadership training and community service.

Twenty-two members were submitted to the Michigan Jaycees as charter members of the newly founded Chelsea Jaycees on Monday, April 29.

Chelsea Jaycees will hold their first official membership meeting on Thursday, May 9 at the Chelsea Library at 7:30 p.m.

Barb MacLeod of the Ypsilanti Area Jaycees and Vince Goff of the Michigan Jaycees have been recruiting members in the area for the last month. Both MacLeod and Goff have found Chelsea to be a warm and friendly community. They are confident that the Chelsea Jaycees will be a strong chapter in the future.

Special thanks to Dewey Ketner and Sharon Roberts of Chelsea Realty for allowing the Jaycees to use their office as headquarters.

Surprises
Researchers

WASHINGTON—A nutrition organization was hopeful that a nutritionally complete "hi-tech" food tablet would help erase world hunger problems, until a study revealed that one of the ingredients could cause significant weight loss.

Researchers in Europe found that an ingredient in the aptly named product Food Source One actually caused people to lose weight, even though specifically instructed not to alter normal eating patterns, according to one study published in the prestigious British Journal of Nutrition. Researchers in an earlier study had speculated that the weight loss was due to a decrease in the intestinal absorption of calories.

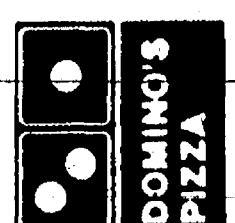

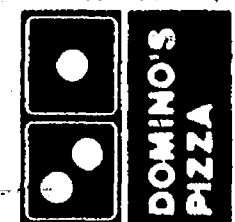

While the development of Food Source One, a project of National Dietary Research, would not be used to successfully fulfill its original goal, the discovery has been a windfall for overweight people. A Daytona Beach, Florida woman fighting a weight battle for 12 years used the product on the recommendation of her physician and lost 30 pounds. She stated, "Not only have I lost 30 pounds but my cholesterol has dropped from 232 to 143, I have two closets full of clothes which have not fit me in two years that I can now wear." In a separate report, a telephone interview revealed that a Wilmington, North Carolina pharmacist lost 14 pounds in 15 days on the product and was never hungry.

Food Source One is available through physicians and pharmacies without a prescription because it is not a drug and contains only natural ingredients already known to be safe. Copies of the referenced study are available free from National Dietary Research, Suite 553, 1377 K St., Washington, DC 20005, however, please include $2 postage &amp; handling for each request.

PERFORMANCES of "Shoe Man," a play written by Jeff Daniels, has begun its run through June 2 at the Garage Theatre in Chelsea. The comedy takes a look at relationships, religion, and golf in a small Michigan town.

Above, Janet Mayle plays Sally Simpson and Dana Gamarra plays Chip Andrews, her frustrated golf instructor. For ticket information contact the Garage Theatre at 475-7902.

Growing Pains Continue Despite Success of First 'Purple' Production

By most measures, it would have been hard for the Garage Theatre and the Purple Rose Theatre Company to ask for a more successful initial production than it had with "Blush at Nothing" by Michigan playwright Lisa Wing.

Reviews of the play itself were overwhelmingly positive, but perhaps most importantly attendance averaged 91 percent capacity, which marketing director Alan Ribant called "a technical sell-out." A few tickets have to be held out every night for the unexpected attendance of critics, potential and current benefactors, and "we always have a couple for George and Barbara (Bush)," Ribant said. The run of the play was extended by two weeks.

"We had expected about 50 percent attendance, which is high," Ribant said.

"And there were still a lot of people who were shut out."

So for the second production, a play called "Shoe Man" by actor Jeff Daniels (which runs through June 2), the theatre company is trying to find ways to get everyone in, a problem every start-up theatre would like to have but few anticipate. They plan a six-week run for the show, and they've added a second show for Sundays, for a total of five shows per week.

"This will allow more people more chances to see the play, but having two Sunday shows does create a whole new set of problems," Ribant said.

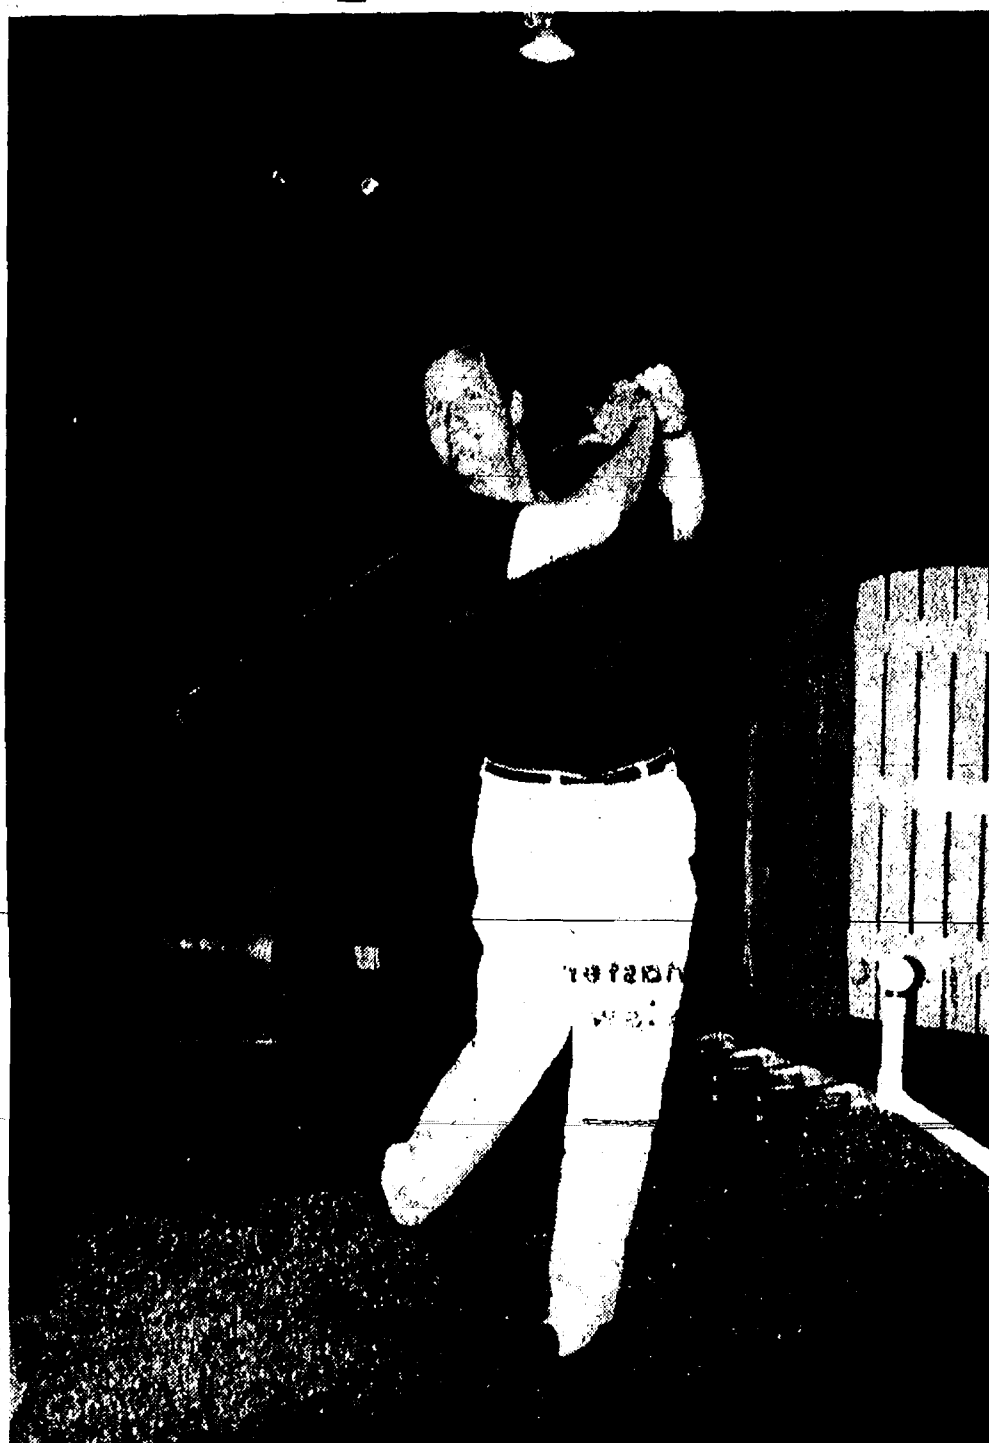

"For instance, how do we get emergency supplies when stores are not open. There are also things that we can only get from theatrical suppliers."

Although the theatre was packed most nights, its financial problems are by no means solved. It is understaffed with five full-time employees. It still needs a vast array of tools, props, audio equipment and other items. Plus, sets are extremely expensive to make, Ribant said. The actors have to be paid, as well as the bills for operating a fairly large building.

"We could sell every ticket and still not have enough money to run the theatre," Ribant said.

"That's not due to bad management. Our ticket prices are low and nobody is making thousands of dollars a week. There's no way we can make it just on tickets."

The theatre had hoped to secure a $75,000 Michigan Equity Grant to help pay for some of the building renovations. However, those state funds

JEFF DANIELS, legendary local movie actor, gets into the swing of being a playwright with the production of "Shoe Man" at the Garage Theatre through June 2. Daniels said if the play is published and makes any money he will give the proceeds to the theatre he founded. Ticket sales are brisk, as they were for the first production, "Blush at Nothing."

have been slashed in the recent rounds of budget cuts.

And if Gov. John Engler has his way, the theatre won't be able to count on any state funding down the road. Engler wants to stop all state funding of the arts by next year. That won't necessarily make any difference to the theatre next year since theatres have to be in business for a while to qualify for those funds. The long-term implications are more ominous. No grants mean some theatres will fold. With fewer theatres, actors will leave for other states. Michigan would become the only state with no funding for the arts.

Daniels, the theatre's founder, recently addressed the state senate on the problem of funding for the arts.

"I told them there are some very talented people in the state and theatres like this one need to stay open," Daniels said.

"All I ask is that if they make cuts, make them fair and make them equal but don't wipe us out. We're already asking all we can from people who support the arts."

Even if the state pulls its support for the arts and the theatre has to rely entirely on private funding, there appear to be plenty of people who want the theatre to stay, judging from its early box office success.

UMI (University Microfilms International) was honored recently by the U.S. Information Agency (USIA) for its donation of $50,000 worth of microfilm and microfiche products to two major Romanian libraries. Kenneth Tillman, UMI vice-president, accepted the certificate of appreciation for the donation at a ceremony at USIA headquarters.

During the December 1989 revolution in Romania, the main building of the Central University Library was destroyed. Approximately 500,000 books were lost. Romanian libraries have also been barred from any contact with Western universities or libraries for almost half a century. Censorship of all kinds of published information had been imposed by the Ceausescu regime for the past 10 years.

As part of the ongoing effort to help rebuild the Romanian libraries, the USIA and the American Library Association assisted in sending the UMI donation to the Library of the Romanian Academy and the Central Library in Bucharest. The $50,000 donation consisted of journal titles selected by a Romanian committee. The titles shipped included those in the areas of economics, politics, sciences, literature, philosophy and mathematics.

U.S. Ambassador Alan Green, Jr., presented the UMI donation to the directors of the two libraries on Feb. 21 in Bucharest. An article in the leading independent newspaper, Romania libera, said of the donation: "Romanian scholars and students will have the opportunity . . . to have access to the international flow of scholarly information through this remarkable donation which is the repository of a huge potential in all areas of knowledge."

"We are pleased to be in a position to assist the people of Romania in this time of crisis," says Tillman. "Access to information provides for economic, social, and intellectual growth, and it is easy for those of us in a democratic society to take this access for granted."

Earlier this year, the American Library Association's Disaster Relief Committee initiated a book donation drive for Romania that resulted in shipments totaling $4.5 million worth of donated books, computers, and journals.

UMI, a Bell & Howell company, was started in 1938 with a simple goal in place: to continually develop means to improve access to information. UMI has information products in public libraries, corporate organizations, and academic institutions around the world.

TOWNSHIP OF DEXTER ORDINANCE

An ordinance to control and regulate the open burning of waste materials, refuse, paper, trash, and other materials in the Township of Dexter and to provide penalties for violation of its provisions.

The Township of Dexter ordains:

SECTION 1 RUBBISH FIRES

No person shall start, kindle or maintain any open air fire for the burning of garbage, animal carcasses, refuse, trash, animal waste, plastics, rubber or any other material which gives off a hazardous, toxic or foul smelling odor on or in any public street, alley, road, right-of-way or other public ground, or upon any private land.

SECTION 2 EXCEPTIONS

This ordinance is not intended to prohibit the use of gas, charcoal, or other suitable material for outdoor preparation of food, recreational campfires, or the burning of leaves, brush, or dried vegetation, wood or construction materials composed of wood.

SECTION 3 PERMITS

No permit is necessary for any fire which is excepted from this ordinance.

SECTION 4 VIOLATION

Any person, occupant of the dwelling, firm or corporation violating any provisions of this ordinance shall be guilty of a misdemeanor punishable by a fine of not more than $500 or by imprisonment of not more than 90 days or both, and shall pay the costs of prosecution.

SECTION 5 REPEAL

All ordinances or parts of ordinances inconsistent with this ordinance are hereby repealed to the extent that they are inconsistent with this ordinance.

SECTION 6 EFFECTIVE DATE

This ordinance shall be in full force and effect 30 days after the date of its adoption.

William Eisenbeiser
Township Clerk.

The first wage payment law was passed in 1879 in Massachusetts, according to "Labor Firsts in America," a U.S. Labor Department publication. The law required that "cities shall, at intervals not exceeding seven days, pay all laborers who are employed by them . . . if such payment is demanded."

THANK YOU
We wish to thank everyone whose kindnesses and moral support meant so much to us during the recent loss of our husband, father and grandfather. Especially to the Washtenaw County Sheriff's Department and responding persons. To John and Gloria Mitchell and son, John, for all their kindnesses and help. To everyone for all the beautiful floral pieces, planters and to Sandy and Walter Zeeb for the lovely arrangements. To our neighbors and friends for the food and floral donations. To the Disabled American Veterans for the memorial service, and to the American Legion Post No. 31 for the graveside services, and for the use of the Post Home for our luncheon. To our grand niece, Fran Ferry and family, who helped her, for providing us with the lovely luncheon. To the employees of Chrysler Proving Grounds for their contributions and support. To the Rev. Bingham for his comforting words and prayers. All of this will remain in our hearts forever.

Chelsea Village Council Proceedings

Regular Session.

Tuesday, April 9, 1991
The meeting was called to order at 7:30 p.m. by President Steele.

Present: President Steele, Clerk Morrison, Assistant Village Manager Kuehn.

Trustees Present: Kanten, Merkel, Steele, Hammer, Myers, Anderson, Dorer.

Absent: Administrative Assistant Fredette.

Others Present: Lenard E. McDougall, H. D. Toon, Lisa Gray-Lion, Mae E. Hadley, Michael Wonderly, Doug Waslyton, Kathryn Lambert, Linda Alber, Michael Scholtz, Kathleen Chapman.

Motion by Myers, supported by Merkel, to approve the Consent Agenda. Motion carried.

Motion by Hammer, supported by Myers, to grant the Downtown Development Authority's request to re-zone the property at 114 and 120 South Street from RS-3 (Two-family Residential) to C-5 (Central Business District). Motion carried.

Assistant Village Manager Kuehn reported that the Downtown Development Authority (DDA) bid documents have not been completed, this will therefore cause a delay in their progress. The DDA is still interested in purchasing a lot from the Village to move the Euseudes home and they will attend a future meeting to discuss this with Council.

Police Chief McDougall reported that the office cut-over date for 911 will be April 22, 1991.

Police Chief McDougall also reminded the Council he needs to be sworn in. Landfill Superintendent Clouse reported that the lecture they attended in Lansing on April 9, 1991 was very beneficial.

Council members took a moment to thank the Village Staff for their efforts during and after the storm of March 27th, it was very much appreciated by the community.

Mr. Michael Bolton a representative from the Ann Arbor Transportation Authority (ATA) spoke regarding the ATA request for additional funding from the Village of Chelsea for route continuation to the Chelsea area.

Mr. Bolton provided a history of the program and the initial grant, as well as the steps taken to determine the funding amount requested. Mr. Bolton presented Council with several options that would alter the current route and schedule as well as help reduce costs. Council members made inquiries as to whether or not several additional items had been thought about in order to increase route participation, therefore, increasing fare box revenues. Mr. Bolton will be looking into these alternatives, at the same time Council suggested a ridership survey. Mr. Bolton notified the Council that the ATA is looking at a June 1, 1991 time line for a decision. The Council will continue to pursue this issue, no action was taken at this time.

Motion by Kanten, supported by Hammer to approve the Lease Agreement between The Village of Chelsea and Carl Hoopingarner for the property known as 8120 Sibley Road, Chelsea, Michigan, as of May 1, 1991. The rental cost will be $625.00 per month with a month-to-month lease and a 30-day written notice of intention to terminate the Lease Agreement necessary for both parties. Motion carried.

Assistant Village Manager Kuehn reported that she has not yet received the requested information on contribution levels of surrounding communities from the MMEA Legal Defense Fund. No action was taken at this time.

Motion by Myers, supported by Dorer, to grant the First Congregational Church permission to conduct their fund raiser, a petting farm, during the sidewalk sales on Saturday from 9 a.m. until 2 p.m. Motion carried.

Motion by Myers, supported by Hammer, to refer the Chelsea Lions/Lioness Clubs request to sponsor a circus on Friday, June 28, 1991 at the Chelsea Fairgrounds to the Zoning Board Appeals with Council's recommendation to approve this activity. Motion carried.

Mr. Michael Scholtz from Commercial Real Estate Concepts, Inc., presented Council with an update on recent real estate activities surrounding the Industrial Park and he said that he will be distributing brochures to the Village of Chelsea Offices. Mr. Scholtz notified Council that the Industrial Park will be featured on the cover of the next Commercial, Inc., publication; that the sign has been prepared and he is waiting for the completion of the variance request before he puts the sign up; and that he will be looking into additional advertising channels per the request of Council such as the Ann Arbor News, Crains Detroit, and other possible media. In addition, Mr. Scholtz briefed Council on several prospects evaluating the Industrial Park. Council reminded Mr. Scholtz of the two parcels that currently have option and that will build to suit. Since there has been change in the company name a revised contract needs to be signed with Mr. Scholtz. Mr. Scholtz will report back to Council providing Council with an update of the progress of the Industrial Park in approximately one month. No action was taken.

Motion by Hammer, supported by Myers, to set April 23, 1991 as the date for a Public Hearing for the approval of the Village of Chelsea Budgets. Motion carried.

Council discussed the possibility of Assistant Village Manager Kuehn proceeding with writing Ordinances recently put on hold due to increased work loads, particularly the ordinance pertaining to yard refuse such as grass clippings before the Spring season is upon us. It was decided to discuss this matter at a later date. No action was taken.

Correspondence was received from The Michigan Municipal Bond Authority, dated April 5, 1991 reminding the Council of the Public Finance Forum on "Municipal Credit Ratings" being held on April 17, 1991, in Saginaw, Michigan from Sarah W. Eubanks, Executive Director, Michigan Municipal Bond Authority.

Motion by Merkel, supported by Myers, to enter into Executive Session. Motion carried. Time 8:35 p.m.

Motion by Anderson, supported by Merkel, to adjourn Executive Session. Motion carried. Time: 9:04 p.m.

Motion by Hammer, supported by Myers, to adjourn Regular Session. Motion carried. Meeting adjourned at 9:05 p.m.

Suzanne C. Morrison,
Village Clerk.

+ AREA DEATHS +

Frederick Wiedmayer

9620 Pleasant Lake Rd.
Ann Arbor

Frederick O. Wiedmayer, 68, 9620 Pleasant Lake Rd., Ann Arbor, died Thursday, April 25, 1991 at Saline Community Hospital.

He was born Dec. 13, 1922 in Freedom township, the son of Fred G. and Mary (Dieterle) Wiedmayer. On May 15, 1948 he married Virginia McCalla in Ann Arbor, and she survives.

Other survivors include a son, Roger Wiedmayer of Ann Arbor; a daughter, Wendy (Dave) Kivi of Ann Arbor; twin granddaughters, Kara and Kendra Kivi, both at home; four sisters, Mrs. Ernest (Melinda) Schiller of Chelsea, Mrs. Walter (Ester) Bihlmeyer and Frieda Wiedmayer, both of Manchester, and Mrs. Elvin (Lena) Meyer of Ann Arbor; and many nieces, nephews, and cousins. He was preceded in death by a sister, Mrs. Wilbert (Selma) Schable.

Mr. Wiedmayer had been a lifelong resident of Ann Arbor. He attended the Bethel United Church of Christ in Freedom township and had been an area farmer all his life. He was a member of the Washtenaw County Farm Bureau and the Michigan Milk Producers Association.

Funeral services were held Monday, April 29 at the Robison-Bahnmler Funeral Home, Saline, with the Rev. Roman Reineck officiating. Burial followed in Oakwood Cemetery, Saline.

Memorial contributions may be made to Saline Community Hospital, the Ronald McDonald House, or the Bethel United Church of Christ.

Kelsey Marie Heldt

Ann Arbor

Kelsey Marie Heldt of Ann Arbor, infant daughter of Lynn and Karen (Stein) Heldt, died Tuesday, April 30 at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital, Ann Arbor. She was born April 17, 1991 at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital.

Also surviving in addition to her parents, are two sisters, Stacey and Jaime; her grandparents, great-grandparents, aunts, uncles and cousins.

Funeral service will be at 2 p.m. Thursday, May 2 at Washtenaw Memorial Park, Ann Arbor.

Memorial contributions may be made to American Heart Association. Arrangements are by Muehlberg Funeral Chapel, Ann Arbor.

Correction

Last week's edition contained an obituary for Lawrence J. Gorton. The correct name of one of the survivors is Mrs. Edward (Evelyn) Curry of Gregory.

Stockbridge School Accepts Plastics For Recycling

Stockbridge-Middle school on Cherry St., accepts other plastic containers in addition to milk jugs. No. 1 and 2 plastic for example, dishwashing and laundry detergent plastic, baby wipes boxes, mayonnaise jars, cooking oil bottles, fabric softener, shampoo and conditioner bottles, and some margarine tubs. Just check the bottom of the container.

Collection day is the first Sunday of the month.

A donation is asked for this service, as Stockbridge is not as yet recycling and the school must pay to have these recyclables picked up.

Please try to help our environment. Take turns with your friends or neighbors to make the short trip to Stockbridge.

UNADILLA BASELINE CEMETERY outside Unadilla on the Washtenaw-Livingston county border was recently presented a plaque by the Washtenaw County Historic District Commission at the cemetery association's annual meeting. The cemetery was established on April 14, 1837. Above, Clair Barnum, 90, a lifetime resident of Unadilla and president of the cemetery association "off and on" since 1922, holds the plaque, which will be attached to the sign he's standing under. Four generations of the Barnum family are buried in the cemetery. The first man buried there was a carpenter who worked on the Unadilla School House. Judson Collins, the first missionary to China from the U.S., may be the most famous person interred there. Other cemetery board members include vice-president Harold Corser, secretary Vivian May (who has six generations of her family in the cemetery), and treasurer Mary Klinke.

Births

A son, Reid Claus, Tuesday, April 23, to Nancy and Steve Mauti of Chelsea. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Herb Claus of Hawks, and Mr. and Mrs. Don Mauti of Clarkston.

A son, Jonathan Donald, April 18, at the University Women's Hospital, Ann Arbor, to Dean and Colleen Thompson of Chelsea. Jonathan has a sister at home, Valisa, who is 8, and a sister Devin Marie who died at age 2 in 1980. Paternal grandparents are Don and Denise Thompson, Norine Collins, and the late Jack Collins of Chelsea. Great-grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Mac Packard of Chelsea and Mr. and Mrs. Leon DesArma.

A son, Vincent Anthony, Thursday, April 11, at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital, Ann Arbor, to Stacy Carpenter and David Cianciolo of Chelsea. Maternal grandparents are Joette Crain of Chelsea and Larrie Carpenter of Columbus, O. Great-grandmother is Edna Carpenter of Stockbridge. Paternal grandparents are Maryanne and Ed Andrews of Ypsilanti and Frank Cianciolo of Chelsea. Great-grandparents are Esther and Anthony-Cianciolo of Canton and Linda and Robert North of Troy. Paternal great-great-grandparents have two great-great-aunts, Rose and Angie Cianciolo and great-great-grandmother, Mary Cianciolo who's 99 years old, all living in Farmington Hills.

A son, Ethan Preston, March 25, at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital, Ann Arbor, to Clinton and Kimberly Gipson of Grass Lake. Grandparents are Claude and Julie Gipson of Chelsea, and William and Carol Ballet of Chelsea. Ethan has a brother Travis, 3.

The Home Equity Line Of Credit For People With A Lot Upstairs.

Five Intelligent Reasons To Apply Now.

Low rate. Society® makes borrowing affordable with a low variable Annual Percentage Rate of 10.75%.

Save on fees. From now until June 29, 1991, we'll pay your start-up costs and first year annual fee.

Easy access. Once your application is approved, you can borrow against your Society Home Equity Line of Credit anytime by simply writing a check.

Tax savings. Because the interest on your outstanding balance may be tax deductible, a Society Home Equity Line of Credit can be more economical than conventional loans.

Fast application. Just call 994-5555, Ext. 391 or visit the Society office nearest you to apply now.

*Start-up costs exclude appraisal. Society's Home Equity Line of Credit has an Annual Percentage Rate (APR) based on the prime rate published in the Wall Street Journal, Midwest Edition, plus 1.75%. As of 4/1/91 this APR was 10.75%. The APR may change monthly and will never exceed the maximum APR of 18%. Annual fee of $40 will be charged after the first year. Subject to credit approval. Additional terms and conditions apply. Property insurance is required on the property securing the Home Equity Line of Credit.

**You should consult your tax advisor regarding the deductibility of interest.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor,

Well, there are pretty faces and, then, there are talented pretty faces. There's this comedy and, there's this theatre.

But beyond all these—this and there's, there's "Shoe Man—The Big Finish" by Jeff Daniels at The Purple Rose Theatre.

No, it's not really about golf. And no, it's not really about sex but, and especially if you're a male, you might not want to indulge in either for a while, or at least until you figure out why you'll laugh yourself out of that conspiratorial fondness some men have for cheating and lying to their significant other(s), be it golfing buddies, congregations, sweethearts and/or wives.

Probably the way the gutsy Gina's of the world, played by an even gutsier Joanne McGee, talk and dress, right? Doubtful.

How about the devil? Listen to the fire and brimstone breakdown of Rev. DeSmithers, hallelujahed by Eric Fredrickson.

Don't listen to Sally's husband Sam, the quintessential SHOE MAN: John Seibert's believable lying will get 'cha in the end.

Then there's Sally. I found myself musing about "an essentially feminist play" during the "if looks could kill" riveting magic of Janet Maylie's portrayal of Sally. Wow, what a treacherously-funny beautiful woman actress.

And once again Patricia Rector (Blush At Nothing's Marquett nun) holes one from the sand trap.

And the ending, which proves everything or anything can be a gun when murder is involved.

There's not a bogie to be found in this one folks and, when you total up the neurotic hilarity of Chip by Dana Gamarra; a "hondo dance" scene by John Siebert; doubling as the wacky divorce attorney William Williamson, and Linda Parolini, W.W.'s secretary/confidant Jennifer, you'll blush at everything and start thinking Emmy at Inverness.

And how about a Private Eye who's so young he's got to be driven to work by his Mom. Now that's funny. And James Cooper as Connors is both young and more 'n likely to end up in the fast lane before long.

And once again, the superb direction of T. Newell Kring. And the production staff. I thought only God could make a drought. And, and, and... by now you know you have to see it. That is, if you're lucky enough to find a ticket. When word gets around about "Shoe Man" I doubt there'll be any cancellations.

Thomas J. Zieziul

Dear Editor,

As our soldiers are coming home from the Middle East, I desire to express appreciation to the Chelsea Rotary Club for sponsoring the Chelsea Support Group that began meeting in September of 1990. The support group has met weekly. Appreciation is also expressed to Faith in Action and director Jerry Beaumont, who allowed us to meet each week in that facility.

The support group continues to meet every other week—the group met Saturday, April 20, at 9 a.m. It is our intention to continue to meet together until "They all come home." Next meeting is May 4, 9 a.m., Faith in Action Building.

Appreciation is expressed also to the Modern Mothers Club, who furnished us with baked goods every week.

The support group has averaged between 30 and 40 preceding and during the war, and they all would like to express appreciation to the thousands who purchased buttons and to the hundreds who marched and attended the rally.

We rejoice and give thanks to God for a number from our own support group who have already returned safely, but we also request that the Chelsea community continue to pray for and write to those who remain in the Middle East. A list of those still in Saudi Arabia will soon be printed in The Chelsea Standard.

We thank everyone for the prayers and support that have been given to the families and the soldiers during this difficult time.

Mearl L. Bradley, chairman
Chelsea Support Group.

To the Editor,

Citizens of the Chelsea community: Due to the efforts of a great many citizens, we have been privileged by being made a part of the AATA service area for some time now. We are now being faced with a situation that requires a lot of hard work and campaigning on everyone's part so this amenity remains with us.

Chelsea has a reputation as a "forward thinking" town, with many great plans for the present, and the future. Let's not take a step backward, and lose this privilege.

Students, workers, city officials need to work hard to keep The Ride. Remember, it brings people to our community, as well as transporting us.

Concerned,
Sylvia Gilbert.

Programs Focus on Family

During May Brighton Hospital will host two Community Education Programs focusing on the impact of substance abuse on the family.

"Substance Abuse: It's All in the Family," the first session on Tuesday evening May 7, will focus on how the entire family is affected by the drinking or drug use of a loved one.

Nan Hudler, co-ordinator of the hospital's Family and Friends Program, will lead the discussion, field questions from the audience, and point out some of the treatment and self-help options that are available to family members.

Three helpful booklets will be available at this session: "Alcoholism in the Family," "Cocaine and the Family," and "When Cocaine Affects Someone You Love." The free publications are also available directly from the hospital's Community Relations Department.

On Tuesday evening, May 21, the hospital will host "Adapting to Changes in our Lives," a program of special interest to adults who are in relationships with chemically dependent people or who were raised in chemically dependent homes.

Downtown Break-Ins Net Thieves Cash

Chelsea police are investigating a series of downtown break-ins over the week-end and they suspect two or more young teen-age boys may be involved.

As of press time, details were still sketchy. However, Monday morning an employee of Farmers Supply Co. on Jackson St. discovered that someone had stolen about $1,100 in cash and other items including 12-packs of soft drinks, a key to a drink machine, batteries in a case, and a cordless telephone. Thieves apparently broke a window to gain access to the building.

The telephone was allegedly found later on the Farmer's Supply grounds. The soft drinks were found behind the building and had apparently been thrown against a wall.

Longworth Plating Co. and The Country Rose were also broken into over the week-end and a stereo was reportedly stolen from The Country Rose. A trail of dimes was found between Farmers Supply and Longworth Plating.
