NEW BUMPED OUT CORNERS are part of the downtown streetscape project underway. The idea is to make the downtown most pedestrian oriented. The corners will eventually have paver blocks as well as a tree planter, new lighting, and pedestrian crossing lights.

SIDEWALK WAS TORN UP from the railroad tracks to the Sylvan building as the downtown beautification project moved to the east side of Main St. last week. New sidewalk, paver blocks, and old fashioned light posts will be installed. The controversial electrical pole (center) installed on a "temporary" basis several years ago, will also be removed.

Boy Scout Newspaper Recycling Project Ends

With no warning, Chelsea Boy Scout Troop 478 closed up its newspaper recycling station at Polly's Market on Monday.

The operation has been in trouble for quite some time due to the enormous amount of work involved as well as the declining value of newspaper. The scouts, who started the program as a fundraiser three and a half years ago, were recently picking up 18 tons, a semi-trailer load, every six to eight weeks. The price had dropped to from $55 to $10 per ton, which doesn't cover the cost of the operation. The newspapers were being hauled to Kalamazoo in a Jiffy Mix truck.

Monday afternoon the drop-off station was a mess. There was nearly as much newspaper outside the bins as there was inside.

Neither village manager Jack Myers or solid waste committee chair Frank Hammer had any advance warning the program would be stopped.

The village cannot take over the newspaper program until October when the Washtenaw Area Recycling Consortium gets its grant from the state, Hammer said. To begin the program would jeopardize some of the funding.

"It's really a shame to see this happen," Hammer said.

"We've got to look into this to see if there's anything we can do."

As of Tuesday morning, a bin designed for cardboard collections was scheduled to be placed at the village landfill. A sign was installed at Polly's telling area residents they may go to the landfill during regular landfill hours. Whether that is a temporary arrangement was not known as of press time.

One of the village's primary concerns is that people don't continue to leave their newspapers where the bins were to create what could potentially become a big problem with wet and blowing newspaper.

Anyone caught leaving newspaper at Polly's will be ticketed for littering. A new littering ordinance, scheduled to go into effect soon, will carry a $500 fine.

People who want to continue to recycle newspaper but can't make it to the landfill have two options. They can take the material to Recycle Ann Arbor or they can save it until October when the local program is scheduled to start. The latter, however, could create a fire hazard in garages and other storage areas.

In other recycling news, the village is continuing to receive complaints from residents near South school who are upset that milk jugs are being blown onto their property during high winds. Milk jug recycling bins are open at South and North schools from 8 a.m. to noon. They are locked the rest of the time.

The problem apparently stems from people who arrive at the bins after hours and leave the jugs anyway.

Village, Four Townships May Be Near Agreement On Landfill Expenses

By Brian Hamilton

An agreement on a cost-sharing arrangement for village landfill expenses totaling about $680,000 may be reached by the end of the month.

The village has been negotiating with Sylvan, Lima, Lyndon, and Dexter townships for about a year concerning the costs incurred for the closing of the old site, as well as engineering expenses associated with any potential clean-up of contamination. The townships joined to hire an attorney, and negotiations have continued, although slowly.

The original proposal from the village involved a 60-40 split, with the village covering 40 percent and the townships 60 percent. The township shares would be broken down according to records of use by residents in each township. It was after the original proposal was made that the townships hired an attorney.

A letter dated May 30 from George Archer in the state treasurer's office may have provided enough impetus for an agreement to be reached.

The letter noted the village's landfill fund had a deficit of $588,315 for the 1990-91 fiscal year, and that the deficit had increased from the previous year.

Village manager Jack Myers said the deficit has increased because of the continued cost of monitoring the old site.

The letter also informed the village that it had 90 days from the end of its fiscal year (Feb. 28) to put a plan together for the elimination of the deficit or face the possible loss of 25 percent of its state-shared funds, or about $90,000.

Myers has informed township supervisors about the village's predicament. Much of the reason the village has a deficit in the fund is it has had to cover costs related to closure of the old landfill without anticipated help from the townships.

Township supervisors met Friday and came up with a formal settlement proposal, which was in the mail on Saturday according to Sylvan supervisor Don Schoenberg. Schoenberg would not elaborate on the details, but called it "the beginning of negotiations," and "the most positive step in a long time." He said he wouldn't be surprised if he had a response from the village by the end of the week.

When asked whether the village's letter from the state had any bearing on the townships' offer, Schoenberg said "we don't want to take advantage of their situation."

Both Schoenberg and Myers have stressed how touchy the negotiations are. Village council held a closed session last week to discuss landfill matters, although the session may have violated the Open Meetings Act.

Myers, who has gotten an extension from the state until the end of July for the formulation of the deficit-reduction plan, said he doesn't anticipate the village will have to raise refuse rates to raise additional revenues. He also said he doesn't know whether the original cost-share percentages would be the final ones, although Schoenberg said the latest offer does bear resemblance to the village's initial offer.

Myers wants to have an agreement in place soon so he can devise the deficit-reduction plan.

"Everything is so iffy," Myers said.

"I'm optimistic because [the village and townships] are communicating well, but I don't know what kind of agreement we might reach."

There has been speculation the governments might form a legal authority to deal with the problem and perhaps sell bonds. However, Schoenberg said last week "at this point, it's all rumor and I don't know where it's coming from."

Any agreement would probably lay the foundation for long-term cost sharing. Landfill groundwater may have to be treated for as long as 30 years. The village has proposed a system to collect, filter, and discharge groundwater into an adjoining wetland. The plan has been submitted to the Department of Natural Resources for final approval. However, Myers said the approval may take several months. The Jackson DNR office has had a complete change in its geology staff since the landfill problems surfaced in 1987.

New Parking Lot Expected To Be Finished Next Week

The centerpiece of Chelsea's downtown development project, a 50-space parking lot behind the central business district on the west side of Main St., should be finished next week.

DDA chair Mark Heydlauff told village council last week the parking lot is well ahead of schedule.

Heydlauff said there should be more progress on other parts of the project once crews leave the parking lot and begin work in other areas.

The over-all project is about on schedule, Heydlauff said, and ahead of budget.

Late last week, crews began tearing up sidewalk from Longworth Plating up to E. Middle St.

In other DDA news, the style of new downtown pedestrian lights has been changed. The 14 custom tree lights, some of them containing as many as three globes, will now have no more than two globes. Eleven will have one globe. The three double-headed lights will be at the entrance of parking lots.

DDA has signed a memorandum of understanding with the McKune Memorial Library Board and the village.

The letter outlines the history of the library annex project to date. It also commits DDA to developing an overall site plan for the project, as well as covering the cost of landscaping and parking lot development.

Heydlauff told council that DDA may not take possession of the former Hop In lot for two years or more, depending on what happens with the clean-up of contamination on the site. An investigation into the extent of the contamination is still underway.

DDA agreed to pay up to $27,500 for schematic designs for the annex.

Detroit Edison Restores Power to Outlying Areas

The last of Detroit Edison's customers, including some in the Chelsea area, got their power back Monday morning after doing without for eight days.

According to David Peterson, manager of Edison's Ann Arbor division, 69,000 customers in the Ann Arbor division, or about 42 percent, lost their power for varying periods after the Sunday, July 11 storm. That division includes all of Washtenaw county, part of Livingston county, and part of Wayne county.

The storm, which had wind speeds of up to 75 miles per hour, left more homes and businesses without power than any other storm in history. Peterson said limbs and trees falling on power lines accounted for the majority of the damage, although the wind by itself was also devastating.

Village of Chelsea, which operates its own electrical utility, had few problems with the storm. A large tree fell on Wilkinson St. but there was no general power outage. The brunt of the storm seemed to slip to the north and south.

The most remote areas of the Edison service area, such as some residents near North Lake, were the last to have power restored, Peterson said.

First priority was given to hospitals and emergency services. From there, workers restored circuits with the

 A faulty furnace was the apparent cause of a fire that destroyed a storage building at Chelsea Greenhouse. No one was injured in the blaze. A crew of prisoners from Cassidy Lake Technical School helped clean up the mess during the afternoon. "We had so much help," Sandy Zeeb said. "There were so many people to look after us. Where else would you find that but in Chelsea. It's the best little town."

Bridgetown Apartments, the condominium project proposed for the southwestern part of the village off Old US-12, had its final site plans approved by the Chelsea Village Planning Commission, paving the way for an August ground-breaking.

A Chelsea man was transported by McAuley's Med-Flight to St. Joseph Mercy Hospital after the motorcycle he was riding went off the pavement when he lost control, and flipped to the right as he veered back on the road. The bike skidded a total distance of 360 ft. from the time it left the road to its stopping location.

 Police Chief George Meranuck reported that two businesses in Chelsea had windows broken over the week-end. The glass front door of the Chelsea Lanes was broken, apparently by a rock. This "could have been accidental," according to the Chief. Several windows at the Chelsea Service Co. and Laundromat were broken, also apparently by rocks. Chief Meranuck commented that there was no attempt to break into either building, adding that anyone probably could have gotten into either one if they were attempting to enter.

State Seeking To Protect Credit Rating

State officials are beginning efforts to preserve Michigan's current credit rating despite budget problems caused by the recession, arguing the downturn has bottomed out and the administration has made substantial progress in the first six months to control the situation.

While meetings are scheduled with all three Wall Street rating firms, the issue is most critical at Standard and Poors, whose ratings for Michigan are slightly higher than the others and which has had the state on credit watch since January.

The S & P credit watch with negative implications has been in effect since January, with analysts waiting to see how the state dealt with a $1.1 billion deficit that later worsened with a court ruling expanding the capital acquisition deduction for business.

The two other agencies, Moody's Investors Service and Fitch's Investor's Service, had not taken any action but all three had expressed concerns about the structural imbalance between annual revenues and spending. Agreements now in place for the 1990-91 budget erased the deficit, but with the help of $885.5 million in one-time revenue, the CAD was revised to preserve existing revenue figures, and a critical cash flow situation should be helped by a new law requiring electronic filing of withheld monthly income taxes.

"We will explain what we have accomplished in the first six months. We believe it has been substantial," Treasurer Doug Roberts said. "We will talk about the economy. We think the worst is over and things are beginning to improve."

Signs of economic life include slowly improving car sales and a recent decline in unemployment claims, he said.

Roberts, who will make the visits with Management and Budget Director Patricia Woodworth, acknowledged the absence of a 1991-92 budget may be a concern.

But he noted many other states—most with fiscal years that have already begun—also have not completed their budget plans. Michigan's fiscal year does not begin until Oct. 1.

Roberts said he cannot allay the rating agencies' concern about the use of one-time revenues, but said, "We put together what we felt was a compromise budget. They would be remiss in not recognizing the good things we have accomplished."

Earlier, S & P analyst Steven Murphy said the credit rating would be dropped "unless the budget deficit is handled with realistic plans and not necessarily with one-time shorts."

Michigan's S & P rating for general obligations is AA. Michigan has an A1 rating from Moody's and an AA from Fitch, which assigns a rating a half step lower for State Building Authority bonds.

First Lawsuit Filed Under Polluter Pay Law

Seven defendants in the Cadillac area have been named in the first lawsuit filed under new polluter pay laws (PAs 233, 234 of 1990), Attorney General Frank Kelley and Acting Natural Resources Director Delbert Reitor said.

The suit authorized by the legislation, which took effect July 1, seeks $3.2 million to repay the state for costs it has incurred and to pay future costs of the cleanup, which the state estimates at about $20 million.

A bill still pending in the Legislature (SB 172) would provide $35.6 million on tax funds for the cleanup, as well as construction of a co-generation plant, under the tax increment financing act.

The suit was filed after DNR investigations revealed extensive contamination in and around Cadillac's industrial park, covering about 580 acres.

Many residential wells in the area either have been or are in danger of being contaminated with hazardous substances leaking from the sites. The state has spent $737,000 to install water lines to provide alternate water supplies for area residents, Kelley said.

"While cleanup of the site has begun, much of the contamination still remains and still threatens area soils and water supplies," he said. "The state has already spent $2.5 million in evaluating the extent of the problem."

The suit seeks reimbursement of all money spent and full payment for future costs of completely eliminating the contamination and requests the court assess civil fines of $25,000 per day against each defendant for each day they have violated Michigan's Water Resources Commission Act.

Grass Lake Teen Injured In Car Crash

Eighteen-year-old Frankie Lewe of Grass Lake was seriously injured in a one-car crash in Leoni township in Jackson county on Friday, July 5.

Lewe was a passenger in a car driven by a friend. He was not wearing a seatbelt and was thrown from the vehicle when it rolled over. Other occupants of the vehicle sustained minor injuries in the 5:30 a.m. crash.

Lewe, son of Susan Warywoda Lewe and Jim Lewe of Ohio, and grandson of Frank and Jo Ann Warywoda, is in the neurological unit at University of Michigan Hospital.

Lewe was living with his grandparents on Clear Lake Rd. at the time of the accident.

Correspondence to Lewe can be directed to 4D Neuro Intensive Care, U. of M. Hospital, 1500 E. Medical Center Dr., Ann Arbor, 48109.

Uncle Lew from Lima Says:

DEAR MISTER EDITOR:

Dangling news got on the agender during the discussion at the country store Saturday night after Zeke Grubb wondered what happened to Michigan's toxic train. He recalled some months back when a 32-car train loaded with 2,400 tons of contaminated Michigan dirt was rambling all over the country looking for a place to unload.

Zeke said the last he heard the train had been run out of South Carolina after being run out of five other states. He asked if the feller had read anything about the train trying to sneak into Mexico like that garbage barge that couldn't find a home a few years back. The trouble with being a news junkie, Zeke said, is never getting a fix when you need it.

For instant, he read recent where State and Federal wildlife people were helping Marines in North Carolina find out if low flying Marine airplanes were bothering the ducks along the coast. Zeke said he is yet to learn what the ducks think of the jet fighters roaring by and rattling their tailfeathers, and he would be even more interested in hearing what people on the coast think of the Governments and the military thinking more of ducks than of them.

Zeke nickered a nerve with his lament about news that never ends, and Bug Hookum added that he was just as worried about news that reads like half a ball score. As he does after ever holiday, Bug saw how many people were killed in traffic accidents during the Fourth. We are told how the number compares with the same holiday last year, he said, but for all we know it could be fewer than are killed during the same period of time any time.

Furthermore, Bug said, if we are to think more motorists were killed because more were on the road, can we think like airlines pushing their safety records. They say so many million more people rode airplanes this year than last until three crashes this year made flying safer than two crashes last year because a lower percent of passengers died. It's hard to take comfort from them statics, was Bug's words.

General, the fellers had different angles on dangling news. Ed Doolittle had a clipping where CBS was thinking of starting a frequent viewer promotion. The network would give prizes for watching its shows, and the lower the show's rating the better the prize. Ed has been looking for a follow up story on how to play the game. He said he sets the TV at a low hum to drown out other noises while he reads, so he can just as easy turn on the big prize duds.

Clem Webster wondered whatever happened to the North Carolina State University professor that use to match his age ever summer with hikes up Pike's Peak. The last he saw some time back, Clem said, the 71 year old health nut had spent the summer walking up the 14,000 foot mountain 71 times.

The other item of dangling news on Clem's mind was California prisons. A prisoner kicked a hole through a wall in a new jail and walked away because planners forgot the concrete. All 2,600 door locks in a new $217 million maximum prison were bad and convicts were picking em and going where they pleased. Clem ask if Alcatraz has been reactivated so the bay can provide security.

Yours truly,
 Uncle Lew.

Larry Doll Places in Grand Rapids Chili Cook-Off

Chelsea resident Larry Doll was third runner-up in the Grand Rapids Area Lions Club Summer Festival Chili Cook-off on Saturday, July 6.
Doll earned a plaque and a knife holder for his entry, "Passout Chili." There were 24 contestants.
Doll wants to keep his recipe a secret, since he plans to enter a cook-off in Bowling Green, O. in August. However, he did say "choice beef" is the most important ingredient. His chili was one of the spiciest in the competition. He has entered competitions for the last four years, including this spring's Great Chili Cook-off in Saline, in which he placed with the same recipe.
Doll, a 1974 Chelsea High school graduate, is manager at RSI Wholesale in Ann Arbor.
He said he also wants to organize a small-scale chili cook-off for next winter's Chelsea American Legion Winter Carnival.

Several Area Women Attend College Week Sessions at MSU

College Week, an annual event sponsored by the MSU Co-operative Extension Service Home Economics Program, was held recently. This program attracts close to 1,000 persons from every county in Michigan.
While at College Week, participants attend four classes which they selected from among the 50 offered. They also have the option to tour MSU or visit the state capitol during free time, or participate in other events aimed at developing their potential to make a difference in the family, the community, and to themselves.
Classes cover topics such as leadership development, health and nutrition, financial planning and family communication.

Doris Ballo of Northville, Muriel Boyd of Chelsea, Debbie Elmer of Ypsilanti, Carole Glover of Dexter, Linda Strausbaugh of Gregory and Dorothy Miller, Donna Myers, and Kathleen Wells, all of Ann Arbor, attended this year's College Week.
College Week is open to all interested persons with scholarships available. College Week for 1992 is set for June 22-25 at Michigan State University, East Lansing. For more information, call Terry Jones, Extension Home Economist at 971-0079.

SCHOLARSHIPS to Chelsea area students enrolled in medical programs in a college or university were presented last week by the Chelsea Community Hospital Auxiliary. Six scholarships for $500 each were given to, from left, Barbara Ann Parker, a gerontology student at Spring Arbor College; Mary E. Rigg, a speech/language pathology student at Eastern Michigan University; Kelly L. Willis, a nursing student at Madonna College; Linda M. Milkey, a nursing student at Michigan State University; and Tracey A. Firavich, a nursing student at Northern Michigan University. Right is scholarship chair Nettie Severn. Not pictured is Dawn England, a nursing student at Michigan State. The scholarships are funded through organized fundraisers such as auxiliary fashion shows, house tours, bake sales, Arbor Nook Gift Shop, and the annual flea market, this year slated for Sept. 7 at Chelsea Community Fairgrounds.

Car Without Tire Cues Bike Patrolman

An Ypsilanti man who was driving a car without a right rear tire was arrested for drunk driving by Chelsea police on Wednesday, July 3.

According to reports, a Chelsea bicycle patrolman was riding on S. Main St. when he saw the car pull into the parking lot at Wolverine Food & Spirits and stop. By the time the officer arrived at the scene, the 37-year-old man was passed out in his seat with a bottle of wine between his legs.

Police managed to get the man out of the vehicle and a breath test revealed a blood alcohol level of .21, more than twice the legal limit.

Police said the driver was unaware there were any mechanical problems with his car. He was taken to Milan City Jail.

Cpl. Keith Bro Promoted in Marines

Marine Lance Cpl. Keith E. Bro, a 1988 graduate of Chelsea High school, has been promoted to his present rank while serving at Marine Corps Air Ground Combat Center, Twentynine Palms, Calif.

He joined the Marine Corps in May 1990.

Council Modifies Ordinance Governing Village Manager

Village council expanded the powers of the village manager with amendments adopted to the village manager ordinance last Tuesday.

The amended ordinance allows the manager to suspend or remove department heads prior to council approval in the case of criminal actions. Previously, the manager could suspend or remove employees only with council approval.

The ordinance also gives the manager responsibility for finding candidates and making a recommendation for the village manager's position. However, village council makes the final determination.

The ordinance deletes the manager's duty to recommend to council what administrative officers and department heads should be paid.

Village Council Adopts New Pay Scale

Village council officially adopted its new pay rates last Tuesday with an ordinance amendment.

Earlier this year council voted to raise its pay to $50 per meeting for trustees and $200 per meeting for the village president. The old rates were $15 per meeting for trustees and $50 for the village president.

Trustees who are receiving the higher rate include Allen Anderson, Stephanie Kanten, and Tom Dorer, all of whom were re-elected in March.

Other members of council, Jim Finch, Joe Merkel, and Frank Hammer, as well as village president Richard Steele, will have to wait until after the 1992 elections.

Anderson was the only member of council to vote against the pay raises. He called the president's pay "out of line" and said he also thinks council's pay is too high.

Hatch Stamping Co. Moves Into Village Industrial Park

Please Notify Us In Advance of Any Change in Address

Hatch Stamping Co. has completely moved into its new facilities in the Village Industrial Park on Sibley Rd. Offices were moved on Friday, July 5. Of the facility, owner Ron Hatch said, "I love it to death."

The company, formerly in a 49,000-square-foot facility on Cleveland St., is the fourth and largest tenant in the industrial park, along with Roberts Paint & Body, C & D Laundry Service, and BookCrafters, Inc. The new building is 98,000 square feet.

Hatch said the company is using two shifts, although some parts of the operation are still in a little disarray because there is still a lot of unpacking to do.

Hatch said the former building, ideal for a factory or warehouse operation, is for sale. He said he does not have a buyer lined up.

The company makes stamped parts for the automotive industry.

QUOTES

DONALD A. COLE, Director

"As a moth gnaws, so doth envy consume a man . . ."

—St. Chrysostom

Envy in small amounts is pardonable . . . even expected. However, when the green-eyed monster of envy is allowed to assume all-consuming proportions, where calm and sensible perspectives are lost, then we witness a dangerous defect of character.

A reasonable capacity for envy can often be an effective prod to self-improvement. It can, when held within reasonable limits, spark a little extra effort in the pursuit of self-esteem and the attainment of desired creature comforts.

We have helped many families solve their problems during bereavement. Our trained counselors are always available to provide helpful and sympathetic assistance.

Homeowners May Get Part of Old Alley

An alley that was never improved by the village or used as an alley will probably be divided among the adjoining landowners.

The village plans to vacate an alley between Chandler St. and W. Middle St. It is 1,300' long and about 15' wide. It will be the first time since 1986 that the village has vacated an alley.

A resident whose property borders the alley wants to build a garage. Upon seeking a zoning compliance permit, the resident, Ken Barner, was told the intended structure would be too close to the property line.

Numerous structures, fences, and other obstacles have been placed in the alley over the years, making it a useable alley.

The village has told residents that after it vacates the alley after a public hearing at the July 23 council meeting, those who care to may add the additional 7 1/2 feet to their property descriptions. The village would hold an easement in the former alley to service overhead electrical lines.

CAREY WALLACE of Chelsea, daughter of Richard and Wendy Wallace, was one of 115 high school students who participated in the Michigan State Board of Education Summer Institute for the Arts and Sciences at Olivet College June 30 through July 13. The two-week institute program for talented and creative Michigan high school students is one of 10 in the state. The curriculum provides instruction in the arts and sciences plus in-depth exploratory activities. The Olivet program was entitled "Critical Issues and Creative Expressions in the 90's and Beyond."

Dexter Fire Department was called to the pool bath house at Loch Alpine sub-division, which was spontaneously ignited probably as a result of chemicals present. Damages of $2,000 resulted.

A load of hay being driven from the farm of Charles Romine to the barn belonging to Reuben Lesser caught fire. Three fire trucks and 12 men responded to the alarm, and men worked for about 90 minutes before the fire was completely out. The cause of the fire was uncertain. A spark from the tractor's exhaust may have done it, or a cigaret may have been thrown into the load. A passing truck driver noticed the fire and alerted the driver.

34 Years Ago . . .

Thursday, July 18, 1957—Bill Eisenbeiser retained the Winans Golf Trophy, which he first won the year before, when he defeated K. R. McMannis one up in 37 holes of the 1957 Chelsea Golf League tournament at Inverness golf course at North Lake.

At the Kiwanis club meeting, Anton Nielsen, general chairman of the Kiwanis rummage sale reported that gross receipts of the project amounted to $1,536.73 as compared to the $1,296.47 taken in at last year's sale. Net proceeds would be used for the club's various community projects.

Approximately 20 men who were convicted of felonies in Circuit Court, Ann Arbor, and were put on probation, became students at Ann Arbor High school to take up welding and auto repairs under a plan originated by Judge James R. Breakey, Jr. The class was an experiment, or "pilot study." If it is successful, it would be expanded to include more felons, additional courses and older men.

Donald M. Parnes, 21-year-old hitchhiker from Silver Springs, Md., who told officers he was beaten, robbed and thrown from a moving car on US-12 admitted in a signed statement that his story was a hoax. In the statement obtained by Detective Lieutenant Melvin Fuller, Parnes said he is a diabetic and that he decided to tell the story in order to assure himself of hospital care when he was seized with an attack as he walked along the road.

Toledo War Festival Set at Walker Tavern

Visitors may experience the sights, sounds and tastes of frontier Michigan during the annual Toledo War Days festival and "A Taste of the Frontier" to be held at Walker Tavern Historic Complex outside Brooklyn, on Saturday and Sunday, July 20-21.

"A Taste of the Frontier," sponsored by the Brooklyn-Irish Hills Chamber of Commerce, offers a typical meal which would have been served during the 1840s heyday of Walker Tavern, a popular stagecoach stop for settlers moving into Michigan. The inexpensive buffet to be served by costumed attendants includes chicken, baked beans, corn bread, apple or cherry pie, lemonade and iced tea.

"A Taste of the Frontier" will be served from 1 to 5 p.m. on Saturday and Sunday, in the New England-style barn at the Historic Complex in Cambridge State Park.

Toledo War Days will revive frontier Michigan, when settlers and statesmen were engaged in the Toledo War. Involving more words than weapons, the Toledo War determined that Michigan's southern boundary would fall north of Toledo, in exchange for land rights to the entire western Upper Peninsula.

Toledo War debates will take place between costumed representatives of Michigan and Ohio at 1, 2, 3 and 4 p.m. on Saturday and Sunday. Visitors may vote for the winning argument, and results will be tabulated late Sunday.

Other Toledo War Days attractions include encampments of Michigan and Ohio militia, an Indian trader, a blacksmith and demonstrations of 19th century crafts. On Sunday only, the Cobblestone Dancers of Ann Arbor will perform in costume throughout the day.

Walker Tavern Historic Complex is a restored 1840s-era inn which once served as a major stagecoach stop for settlers moving into the Michigan Territory. Major renovations have been made to inn exhibits this year, including the parlor, barroom and kitchen, where dinner appears to be in

Secy. of State Offices Now Titling ORVs

Secretary of State branch offices began accepting title applications for off-road vehicles (ORVs) on Monday, July 15, Secretary of State Richard H. Austin has announced.

"The Department of State has been given responsibility for titling ORVs under Public Act 71 of 1990 and we will begin that program Monday," Secretary Austin explained. "The legislation requiring mandatory titling of ORVs is designed to reduce theft, ease recovery of ORVs that are stolen, and provide a means for lien placement on ORVs."

That same legislation transferred responsibility for licensing ORVs to the Department of Natural Resources. Michigan law now requires all ORVs to be titled and licensed if operated on public land.

Persons transferring ownership or purchasing a new ORV must pay an $11 title fee and four percent sale or use tax on the vehicle. Dealer applicants will need to provide a manufacturer's certificate of origin (MCO) when applying for a title while persons transferring ownership will need proof of ownership, preferably the previous registration or a bill of sale. All titles will be sent to the applicant by mail.

Titles will identify the vehicle as an ORV and will indicate it is "ORV - Not to be Registered for Highway Use." Vehicles titled for road use and also used as ORVs do not need the new title.

National Plumbing Training Program Returns to WCC

Approximately 1,200 United Association plumbing and pipefitting instructors representing 460 union locals from across the United States and Canada will meet at Washtenaw Community College Aug. 18-24.

The 38th annual United Association Instructor Training Program sponsored by the United Association of Journeymen and Apprentices of the Plumbing and Pipe Fitting Industry of the United States and Canada will be housed on the Ann Arbor campus for the second year in a row. The program is designed to teach UA instructors the latest product and industry technology as well as how to teach this information to the apprentices and journeymen back home at their local training schools.

Last year 75 classes were taught in subject areas such as computer-aided drafting, downhill welding, applied hydraulics, safety hazards, plastic welding, steam technology and developing behavioral objectives. Union instructors from as far away as Alaska, California, Texas, Florida, New York and Canada received instruction from educators representing WCC, Michigan State University, University of Michigan and Eastern Michigan University and other educational institutions, government and industry experts, and professionals from the UA organization.

Anne Comeau Re-Elected To Head WISD Board

Washtenaw Intermediate School District's Board of Education re-elected its 1990-91 officers for the 1991-92 school year at its organizational meeting last Tuesday. Anne M. Comeau, a Chelsea resident and president of the Chelsea Board of Education, will serve a second year as president of the WISD Board.

Clarence Lyte was re-elected as board vice-president. Lyte also serves on the Willow Run School Board. Michael Emlaw, WISD's superintendent, was re-elected board secretary, and John Dietz, WISD's assistant superintendent for business and personnel was re-elected board treasurer.

The board will continue to meet at 4:30 p.m. on the second Tuesday and at 7:30 p.m. on the fourth Tuesday of each month. Board meetings are held at WISD, unless otherwise specified.

Groovin' Program Slated July 20 at Hudson Mills Park

"Groovin'" will be playing top 40 type music at the Outdoor Activity Center at Hudson Mills Metropark near Dexter on Saturday, July 20 at 6 p.m. This is a program for dancing or listening.

This event will take place outdoors, so persons are encouraged to bring blankets or cushions/chairs for seating.

Vehicle entry permits are required (annual: regular $10, senior citizen $5; or daily $2).

For additional information, contact Hudson Mills Metropark.

Free Concerts Scheduled in Ann Arbor Park

Ann Arbor Department of Parks and Recreation will sponsor three free riverside concerts on Saturday evenings in July and August from 6:30 to 7:30 p.m. at the scenic Gallup Park Canoe Livery, Ann Arbor.

On July 27, the Liberty Brass Quintet will bring classical/pop music to the waterfront.

On Aug. 10, local favorite jazz pianist Jerry Perrine will be featured, so the young and not-so-young can enjoy tunes which range from blues and jazz to pop music.

Also, on Aug. 24, Reynolds and Hough will fill the summer air with folk music.

Nature lovers are encouraged to bring a picnic dinner and a blanket. For more information call 662-9319.

Red Cross Sets Up Hot Line for Disaster Reports

American Red Cross Disaster Services in Michigan announced today that it has established a toll-free phone number for state residents who have suffered losses due to the July 7 windstorm that swept the state. The number is: 1-800-272-5882. The line is expected to be functional on Monday, July 15 at noon.

According to Disaster Operations Director, Charlie Moertel, the line is a matter of customer service and has a specific function. "Because the damage from the storm was so widespread, Red Cross is looking for ways to reach as many people as possible. Red Cross disaster specialists are in the field looking for structural damage, but with more than 25 counties involved there is a chance that a family could be missed. The line is strictly set up for people who are needing assistance with uninsured structural damage or losses," said Moertel.

The 800 line will be operational 24 hours a day with a message machine from 5 to 9 a.m. A Red Cross volunteer caseworker will man the phone during regular office hours. The volunteer will determine if Red Cross can help and then will pass the information on to the local Chapter, which will handle the case from that point.

In most cases, the Red Cross can help people with storm-related losses, including repairs to the home, replacement of damaged fixtures and other structural damage.

USDA Authorizes Soybean Checkoff

The U.S. Department of Agriculture has published details of a national soybean checkoff program in the Federal Register. The checkoff program for research and promotion was authorized in the 1990 Farm Bill. The law established the checkoff rate at one-half of one percent of the price received by soybean producers.

"Farm Bureau has been supportive of the soybean checkoff program and has supported the provision for a referendum on the continuation of the program," said Bob Boehm, commodity specialist for Michigan Farm Bureau. "We expect the first referendum will be conducted within 18 to 36 months."

JUNIOR HOMEMAKER: Jodi Feldkamp, daughter of Elaine and Arthur Feldkamp of Manchester, recently won Junior Homemaker at the 1991 Manchester Community Fair. Jodi, a sixth grader at Manchester Middle school, exhibited several projects among which she received State Fair Ribbons for her peaches and wool sewing garment. Jodi will now plan to enter the Reserve Junior Homemaker at the Michigan State Fair. In 1989, Jodi was the Reserve Junior Homemaker at the Manchester Community Fair. As a member of the Jolly Farmerettes Plus 4-H Club and Junior Optimist club of Manchester, Jodi enjoys participating in community activities.

Nature Events Stated At Area Metroparks

Several nature events will be held at the Huron-Clinton Metroparks during the period of July 20 through July 23.

Two nature events will be held at the Activity Center of Hudson Mills Metropark near Dexter.

"Summer Bird Walk," a naturalist-led walk searching for tanagers, towhees, bluebirds, and buntings, will be held Saturday, July 20 at 7:30 a.m.

"Nature Stories for Children," a program for children 4 to 7 years old focusing on trees, will be held Saturday, July 20 at 11 a.m.

Two nature events will be held at the Nature Center of Kensington Metropark near Milford/Brighton.

"Summer in a Pond," a program using dip nets and sorting trays to locate some of the inhabitants of the pond, will be held Sunday, July 21 at 2 p.m.

"Family Evening Nature Cruise," a family-oriented cruise aboard the Island Queen Excursion Boat, will be held Tuesday, July 23 at 8 p.m. There is a charge of $2 per person.

Most programs are "free," some may have a nominal charge. Advance registration and a vehicle entry permit are required. For information/registration, contact the Huron-Clinton Metroparks, phone 1-800-47-PARKS (toll-free).

St. Joseph Festival Auction Features Braun & Helmer

St. Joseph church annual Summer Festival is only a few days away, on July 20 and 21, and the excitement is rising. Among this year's features are a visit from Ronald McDonald and an auction with Washtenaw county's premier auctioneers, Braun & Helmer.

Braun & Helmer are well known in this area for the many kinds of auctions they conduct. This is their 21st year in business and they handle every type of sale from antique and household liquidation and bankruptcy.

The St. Joseph Auction will be at 6 p.m. on Saturday, July 20 behind the church which is located at the corner of Fourth and Dover St. Items to be auctioned have been donated by members of both the parish and the community. Highlighting this year's donations are antiques, a pie a month for a year, five entrees for a week, seafood from Mr. D's, aerobics lessons and a month at Power House gym.

Proceeds from this year's Festival will be used to support the youth ministry program.

Manchester Chicken Broil Set Tomorrow

The third Thursday of July is always a festive time in Manchester.

This year, July 18 will be the 37th time that 600 Manchester men and boys will gather together to prepare and serve some 14,000 chicken halves to visitors from all over the country.

The serving starts at 4 p.m. at Manchester Athletic Field on the corner of Vernon and Wolverine Sts., in the heart of Manchester. Signs and guides will point the way to convenient parking. Free shuttle rides are provided by horse-drawn wagons.

The delicious dinners consist of one-half chicken, charcoal broiled to perfection, served with cole slaw (hand slithered and combined with a secret recipe sauce), radishes, roll and chips. You can choose to partake on the grounds or pick-up dinners to go.

The time you spend at the site will be filled with entertainment by roving barbershop quartets and sweet adelines singing your old favorites. All this costs $5 in advance or $5.50 at the gate.

Proceeds from the broil always go toward projects that help the Manchester community maintain its small town charm and beauty.

The first women cabinet member was Frances Perkins, Secretary of Labor from 1933 to 1945, according to "Labor Firsts in America," a U.S. Labor Department publication.

Today's Investor

By Ralph L. Seeger, Jr., President NAIC Investor Advisory Service

Q. I own 4,000 shares of General Motors which have been in my family about 40 years. My cost from inheritance is now about $31 a share. As I read about all of the problems of the U.S. auto industry and particularly how General Motors has lost shares of market, I get concerned. However, some analysts believe General Motors is a good buy now. Do you think they are right? Should I sell now, or perhaps sell in a year or two?

A. General Motors, recently at 42, is near the top of the 52-week range of 50-1/8 to 30-3/8. The dividend has been cut from $3 to $1.60 in response to the severe cash flow problem.

The new chairman and chief executive officer, Robert C. Stempel, comes from the engineering and manufacturing end of the business. He is regarded as a capable man.

At one time General Motors had 52% of the U.S. auto market. This has slid to the mid-30s as the Japanese auto producers have made major inroads into world markets.

The auto industry is a mature one. Future growth seems limited as there is industry overcapacity. The industry is very cyclical and fiercely competitive.

The price of General Motors stock has moved up from the depths of the 1990 bear market in anticipation of better times ahead. Clearly the country is beginning to emerge from the recession, and the market for cars should improve as consumer confidence is improving sharply.

I believe most of the potential improvement in profits is already built into the price. All too often security analysts wait to recommend a stock after the price has already made a substantial move. If all things are taken into account, I believe you would be better off in the long run in other stocks. The problem you face is that the stock market is no longer cheap.

Mr. Seeger welcomes your questions and comments, but will answer them only through this column. School Board Hires Three New Teachers

Chelsea Board of Education hired three teachers at its Monday, July 15 meeting.

Marie Polakowski was hired as a high school English teacher at a step one salary of $26,708. She replaces Jon Andrews, who is on a one-year leave of absence.

Karen Glover was hired as a first grade teacher at South Elementary school at a step 10 salary of $40,261. Her position was created due to district growth.

David Polley was hired as a sixth grade science teacher at Beach Middle school at a step 4 salary master's degree salary of $34,820. He replaces Don Young, who retired.

The board set special meeting for Monday, Aug. 12 to interview four construction management firms for the proposed district-wide building and renovation project. No money will be spent until voters approve a bond issue. A special election is scheduled for September.

Some board committee members were named. Anne Comeau and Jane Dising will be on the Central Curriculum Committee. Dising will also be the board's representative in the Chelsea Education Foundation. Dick McCalla and Conrad Knutsen were named to the Board Staff Committee. Ron Satterthwaite, Dising, and Joe Redding were named to the Finance Committee.

The board changed September meetings to Monday, Sept. 9 and Monday, Sept. 23.

Conrail Delays Work on M-52 Crossing

Conrail has apparently decided to delay work on the M-52 railroad crossing until early September.

Franz Mogdis, consultant for the Downtown Development Authority, said he was told the delay was caused by bonding problems for the work crews.

The change means the crossing will probably be closed for most of September and October.

It also means detour traffic could be significantly worse. That period is a busy time for truck traffic in an out of Chelsea Milling Co. Many of those trucks will be detoured outside of the downtown-area onto streets that normally don't get much heavy traffic.

Area Man Sought for Unloading Trash

D&C Store of Chelsea told police that someone apparently used their dumpster to dispose of a lot of household trash sometime between July 5-7.

Magazines in the receptacle indicated they belonged to a Dexter Townhall Rd. resident. When police tried to contact the man, the telephone was disconnected.

The incident is still under investigation.

Chenille Sisters Play Sunday Concert in Park

The Chenille Sisters return for an encore performance this Sunday, July 21 at the second Concert in the Park in Pierce Park.

The Chenilles, who are not really sisters, performed here last year to a huge crowd. They are Connie Huber, Cheryl Dawdy, and Grace Morand.

The lively trio features tight harmonies and performs many original works laced with their own brand of wacky humor.

They have toured coast-to-coast, opening for Taj Mahal in New York City and playing folk festivals from Texas to Canada. Their music draws from jazz, swing, folk and blues and their focus is on having fun. They have appeared on National Public Radio's "All Things Considered" and Garrison Kellor's "A Prairie Home Companion."

They have three recordings, including the children's record "1, 2, 3 For Kids." All have received rave reviews.

Other activities at this Sunday's concert include a Kids' Corner sponsored by the Chelsea Children's Co-operative preschool.

Skateboards Taken From Residence

Two skateboards were stolen from the porch of a W. Middle St. residence on the night of July 3, according to Chelsea police.

The boards, valued at $70, belonged to two boys who were visiting their grandfather.

Hood Ornament Stolen from Car

A Madison St. resident told Chelsea police that someone stole a hood ornament from his vehicle on Monday, July 8.

The ornament was a large eagle. It was apparently pulled off the car.

The first state legislation requiring factory safeguards was in 1877 in Massachusetts, according to "Labor Firsts in America," a U.S. Labor Department publication.

Janie Brooks, will provide supervision for pre-schoolers whose families come to the show. Playdough, an art project, and other activities for young children will be available.

Information about class sessions, registration, program philosophy, and parent participation will be available.

During the concert intermission, Chelsea Area Players will perform scenes from their current production, "Fiddler on the Roof."

Kiwanis Kitchen will again provide sandwiches, drinks, and other munchies for people who don't bring their own. Proceeds go to the Chelsea High school Key Club, which is staffing the kitchen.

No alcohol is allowed in the park. Free parking is available on the grounds of Chelsea Community Hospital.

Summer Baseball Team Wins Four of Six Games in Week

Chelsea summer baseball team won four of six games played last week. In the first contest of the week, Rob Clem pitched a four hitter as he shut out Livonia, 2-0, to get revenge for an earlier loss this season.

Clem struck out 10 and walked two and was in control the whole game, according to Chelsea coach Akel Marshall. Only one Livonia runner reached third while three reached second base.

The Chelsea defense also played an errorless game. The only scoring came in the second inning as Steve Grau singled and Chris White walked to start the inning. After a fly out, Ed Waller stroked a double down the right field line, driving in both runs.

Chelsea collected seven hits, including two singles each by Ben Hurst and Rick Clouse, and a single by Casey Schiller.

In the second contest of the week, Chelsea blew an 8-0 lead to lose 9-8 to Ann Arbor Renesol on Tuesday.

"It was a tough one," said Marshall.

"Even though we scored eight runs, we didn't play very well. Hopefully, this will be a learning experience."

Chelsea scored three runs in the first. The first four batters walked, then White singled home two runs.

Tim Wescott's single and Chris Dunham's double gave Chelsea a 4-0 lead in the second.

Chelsea plated four more runs in the third on three walks, a hit, and two errors.

That, however, is when the roof fell in, Marshall said. Renesol scored two in the fourth, three in the fifth, and three in the sixth to tie. The winning run was scored in the bottom of the seventh.

Wescott had a pair of singles to lead the Chelsea attack. Kevin McCalla also added a single.

White was the starting pitcher, and Ken Slane relieved him in the fifth.

On Saturday, July 13, Chelsea split with Ann Arbor B.T. Express, dropping the first game, 11-4, but winning the nightcap, 8-4.

In the first game, B.T. Express opened the scoring in the third with two runs on one hit and some poor Chelsea fielding.

Chelsea came back in the bottom of the inning to tie on only one hit, a single by Clouse.

By the fifth, the game was tied at 4-4.

In the sixth inning, however, the Chelsea defense fell apart. B.T. Express scored seven runs on six Chelsea errors.

Wescott pitched and gave up 11 unearned runs and six hits. He struck out one and walked three.

Rob Jaques, Clouse, and Dunham had the only Chelsea hits.

Hurst pitched the second game, struck out seven and allowed seven hits in the complete-game victory.

Chelsea took a 3-0 lead in the first as Jaques singled, stole second, and scored on Hurst's triple. White walked and Wescott smacked a two-run triple.

After B.T. Express picked up one run in the bottom of the first, Chelsea sent 10 batters to the plate in the second and scored five times. Hits by Hurst and Wescott combined with three walks and four errors accounted for the scoring.

B.T. Express scored one in the third and two in the seventh.

Chelsea had nine hits. Other hits included two singles by Jaques, and singles by Waller, Dunham, and Colby Skelton.

On Sunday, July 14, Chelsea swept Saline in a double-header, 13-5 and 9-2.

In the opener, Chelsea fell behind 2-0 after two innings but took a 3-2 lead in the top of the third. Dunham doubled and Hurst tripled to key the inning.

Saline tied the game in the fourth, but Chelsea rebounded with five runs in the bottom of the inning featuring a double by Dunham and triple by Clouse.

Another double by Dunham and singles by Clouse and Grau highlighted a five-run fifth inning.

Grau hurled a complete game, allowing nine hits and six walks while striking out four.

"He was tough when Saline threatened to get back into the game," Marshall said.

Chelsea had 11 hits, including four by Clouse, three doubles by Dunham, and two singles by White.

Chelsea again fell behind in the second game, 1-0 after two. However, they scored four runs on one hit, four walks and three errors in the third inning to take the lead for good.

In the fourth, Jason Johnson scored on a double by Wescott.

Finally, in the seventh, four more runs came home for Chelsea as Hurst, White, and Waller collected three straight hits.

Chelsea had nine hits, including three by Wescott and one each by McCalla, Schiller, and Lee Skyles.

White threw a three-hitter, walked six and struck out eight.

Chelsea has a 7-7 record. They host Wayne on Thursday in a double-header at 4 p.m., play Adray at 6:15 on Friday in Walled Lake, and play in a double-header on Saturday in Dexter at 1 p.m. The season ends Sunday in Wayne with a single game.

Entire Team Gets '91 Baseball MVP

It wasn't easy for the Chelsea Bulldogs baseball staff to pick a most valuable player this year after winning a state title. So they didn't.

After weeks of discussions, Chelsea coach Wayne Welton named the whole team Most Valuable. Monday night the team gathered at assistant coach Randy Brier's home to celebrate the season and reflect on their success.

Coaches, and even players, had different ideas about who was most valuable, a good indication the Bulldogs had a strong line-up with no heroes. So Welton felt as though he had no choice.

A number of other honors were given as well.

Most Improved awards went to seniors Kelly Beard, Tucker Steele, and Craig Ferry. Beard was an outfielder who turned into a clutch pinch-hitter at the end of the season. Steele was the designated hitter and Ferry was a clean-up hitter, third baseman, and occasional pitcher.

Coaches Awards for leadership, dedication, and commitment to the baseball program were given to seniors Ferry, Rob Clem, and Kerry Plank. Clem was a pitcher-outfielder and Plank was the anchor of the infield at shortstop.

Dugout Award for spirit and enthusiasm went to junior centerfielder Ben Hurst.

Sluggo Awards went to Ferry and junior Jake Rindle.

Pitchers of the Year were Clem and Rindle. Rindle was undefeated, Clem had one loss and both had earned run averages under 2.

"We really had two number one pitchers this year," Welton said.

Chelsea Village Council Proceedings

Regular Session. Tuesday, June 25, 1991
 The meeting was called to order at 7:30 p.m. by President Steele.
 Present: President Steele, Clerk Morrison, Village Manager Myers, Assistant Village Manager Kuehn, Administrative Assistant Fredette.
 Trustees Present: Steele, Hammer, Dorer, Kanten, Merkel, Anderson (absent until 7:34).
 Others Present: M. Wonderly, P. Newhouse, L. McDougall, K. Lambert, A. Weddon, G. Finch, J. Finch, K. Barner, P. Rider, B. Hamilton, K. Chapman, D. Bulson.

President Steele placed Mr. James Finch's name before the Council as a candidate for the open Trustee position on the Village Council.
 Motion by Kanten, supported by Hammer, to appoint Mr. James Finch as Village Council Trustee to fill the unexpired term of Jack Myers. All ayes. Absent: Anderson. Motion carried.

Clerk Morrison administered the Oath of Office to Mr. James Finch as a Village Council Trustee.

Mr. Ken Barner, wishes to erect a garage on his property at 130 Grant Street that would cross the alley way which adjoins his property by 5 feet. Council informed Mr. Barner the Village is in the process of vacating this property, a process that will take at least 3 weeks. In the meantime, in addition to the necessary zoning permits, Mr. Barner will need to provide the Zoning Inspector with a letter from his neighbor Mr. Bareis that indicates Mr. Barner and Mr. Bareis are in agreement with each other regarding the garage.

The Village will notify Mr. Barner when the property has been vacated. Mr. Barner will be unable to proceed legally until the property is formerly vacated.

Motion by Hammer, supported by Kanten, to approve the Consent Agenda. All ayes. Motion carried.

Assistant Village Manager Kuehn reported that the Planning Commission had revisited the Home Occupation Ordinance and they had selected to only allow home occupations in single family, free standing homes. The Ordinance will be in front of Council for their approval later in the Agenda.

Lenard McDougall, Chief of Police, distributed the summary of activity for May 1991.

Chelsea Fire Department Chief Hankerd reported on the acquisition of central air for the Fire Hall.

Motion by Hammer, supported by Merkel, to accept the bid of $2,564.02 from All Season Comfort to install central air in the Fire Hall. All ayes. Motion carried.

Trustee Hammer reported that two tons of cardboard had been collected within one week. In addition, the two containers for milk jugs at the landfill were in use and full. The milk jug containers will be placed at North and South schools and the summer hours will be 8:00 a.m. to 12 noon, Monday through Friday.

Village Manager Myers discussed with Council the use of Lots 6 & 7 of the Industrial Park for the Electric & Water Garage. Ann Arbor Design Build had been asked to give an estimated cost for site work. They estimate the work to cost approximately $119,640.00. Village Manager Myers asked for Council approval to pursue Lots 6 & 7. President Steele indicated Lots 6 & 7 had originally been selected and asked if perhaps the Village Landfill had enough fill for the necessary site work. Village Manager Myers will continue to pursue this matter and report back to Council.

RESOLUTION

CHELSEA 1995 FIREWORKS DISPLAY

WHEREAS, Chelsea 1995 has volunteered to sponsor fireworks display on July 4, 1991; and

WHEREAS, Chelsea 1995 is a non-profit association not affiliated with the Village of Chelsea; and

WHEREAS, before July 4, 1991, Chelsea 1995 will provide a certificate of insurance for $2 million listing the Village of Chelsea as insured.

NOW, THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the Village of Chelsea agrees to permit the display and to provide the extra police and fire protection needed to support the event, including traffic control.

Motion by Anderson, supported by Hammer, to adopt the above Resolution. All ayes. Motion carried. Resolution adopted.

Rosemary Harook, Zoning Inspector presented the research materials she has gathered on the Spring Pickup in surrounding communities. Mrs. Harook feels the Village needs to provide this service and that it is necessary. President Steele appointed Trustees Hammer and Anderson to look into this matter and bring a report back by the July 23, 1991 meeting.

Council reviewed the Resolution before them on the Ann Arbor Transportation Authority (AATA) service until September 30, 1991. Village Manager Myers emphasized that this will be a trial period in order for Council to evaluate the program. The next request for funds from the AATA will be significantly increased, therefore, ridership must be at least maintained if not increased.

RESOLUTION

Ann Arbor Transportation Authority

WHEREAS, Ann Arbor Transportation Authority (AATA) has requested funding from the Village of Chelsea in support of the bus service from Chelsea to Ann Arbor; and

WHEREAS, AATA and the Village of Chelsea have reached an agreement to reduce the original requested contribution of $9,063.00 to $3,088.00 via a fare increase to $1.75 and the elimination of Saturday service;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the Village Council of the Village of Chelsea herein authorizes a contribution of $3,088.00 to AATA in support of bus service for Chelsea passengers riding to and from Ann Arbor covering the period of October 1, 1990 to September 30, 1991.

Motion by Hammer, supported by Merkel, to adopt the above Resolution. All ayes. Motion carried. Resolution adopted.

Village Manager Myers also suggested the ridership contact the State Government.

RESOLUTION

BE IT RESOLVED, AND IT IS HEREBY RESOLVED, that the Village Council of the village of Chelsea does hereby adopt, approve and promulgate Ordinance No. 79-QQQ AMENDMENT TO CHELSEA VILLAGE ZONING ORDINANCE NO. 79. TO AMEND SECTIONS REGARDING HOME OCCUPATION. AN ORDINANCE TO AMEND CHELSEA VILLAGE ZONING ORDINANCE (Ordinance 79).

Motion by Hammer, supported by Anderson, to adopt the above Resolution. Ayes: Anderson, Hammer, Steele, Merkel, Dorer, Finch, Nays: Kanten. Motion carried. Resolution adopted. (Ordinance 79-QQQ attached as Appendix A.)

The Chelsea Village Council regrets to accept Mr. David Prohaska's resignation as a member of the Village Planning Commission. Mr. Prohaska cited increased demands due to his new business and his involvement as an active member of the Lions Club, both in Chelsea and at the District level as reasons for his resignation.

Motion by Kanten, supported by Dorer, to re-appoint Mr. Tim Merkel, Mr. Fritz Belsler and Ms. Debbie Olson as members of the Planning Commission with terms expiring in June 1994, and to appoint Mr. Terrence J. O'Hagen to complete a one year term left vacant by Mr. David Prohaska. All ayes. Motion carried.

Mr. Alex Weddon requested Council's approval to activate the Public Educational and Government Access Channel.

Motion by Anderson, supported by Hammer, to notify Clear Cable to activate the Public, Educational and Governmental Access Channel. This Channel is to be self funded and Mr. Weddon will act as the Coordinator of funding and format. Mr. Weddon will also need to submit a copy of his budget for Council's approval. All ayes. Motion carried.

RESOLUTION

Transmission Access Principles

WHEREAS, Congress is currently considering amendments to the Public Utility Holding Company Act which would allow electric utilities to establish deregulated generating companies that would be exempt from the Holding Company Act; and

WHEREAS, the experience in Michigan with Consumers Power Company and its affiliates has shown that such amendments are not in the public interest and will drive up electric rates unless they prevent self-dealing between utilities and their deregulated affiliates and grant all utilities access to the transmission system on the same terms which utilities grant themselves and their affiliates; and

WHEREAS, in the U.S. Senate the Banking, Housing and Urban Affairs Committee, of which Senator Donald Riegel is Chair, has jurisdiction over Holding Company Act matters

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED THAT the Chelsea Village Council of the Village of Chelsea:

- (1) Asks Senator Riegel to immediately have his committee assert jurisdiction over such amendments and hold hearings on them; and
- (2) Opposes such amendments to the Holding Company Act unless they prevent transactions between utilities and their deregulated affiliates and grant all utilities access to the transmission system on the same terms which utilities grant themselves and their affiliates.

Motion by Hammer, supported by Finch, to approve the above Resolution. All ayes. Motion carried. Resolution adopted.

RESOLUTION IN SUPPORT OF H.R. 2224 AND RELATED LEGISLATION

WHEREAS, amendments to the Public Utility Holding Company Act are not in the public interest unless they specifically address the issues of utility self-dealing and fair transmission access; and

WHEREAS, all utilities should be allowed to use the transmission system on a non-discriminatory, embedded cost basis on terms at least as favorable as transmission-owning utilities provide themselves and their affiliates;

WHEREAS, such use should be provided by such mechanisms as joint ownership, joint usage agreements, appropriate transmission tariffs or otherwise.

NOW, THEREFORE, the Michigan Municipal Electric Association and the Village of Chelsea adopts this resolution of support for transmission legislation such as H.R. 2224, which will help provide transmission access in accordance with the preceding principles.

Motion by Hammer, supported by Finch, to adopt the above Resolution. All ayes. Motion carried. Resolution adopted.

Motion by Dorer, supported by Hammer, to accept the low bid of $36,604.00 submitted by Barrett Paving to pave Lincoln Street. All ayes. Motion carried.

Administrative Assistant Fredette notified Council of an increase in the amount the County of Washtenaw will be charging for tax services. The amount increased from $.58 each tax bill to $.91 each tax bill. The County of Washtenaw cites administrative inflation costs as the reason for the increase.

Motion by Anderson, supported by Hammer, to enter into an agreement between the County of Washtenaw, a municipal corporation, and the Village of Chelsea for certain data processing services in connection with property tax assessment records and billings. All ayes. Motion carried.

RESOLUTION RE: LOAN

WHEREAS, the Village Council of the Village of Chelsea authorized the issuance of a Note, dated October 2, 1990, in the principal amount of Sixty Eight Thousand Four Hundred Seventeen and no/100 Dollars ($68,417.00) from Society Bank for the purpose of acquiring, equipping, and installing emergency telephone equipment; and

WHEREAS, said Note was to be payable in sixty (60) consecutive monthly installments of principal plus interest; and

WHEREAS, said interest was set at a fixed rate of 7.40% per annum upon receipt of the Note; and

WHEREAS, should the Village allow the Note to extend to a term (5 years), the total interest payment would amount to $13,644.36; and

WHEREAS, if the Note were paid in full at this time, the Village would realize a savings of approximately $6,058.32 in interest expenses; now

BE IT RESOLVED, that this Village Council herein authorizes a loan from the Electric Fund in the amount of $60,965.26 which shall be payable to Society Bank and representative of full payment of said Note; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the General Fund shall be liable for repayment of said $60,965.26 loan to the Electric Fund due to the fact that the monies were deposited in the General Fund when received on October 2, 1990; and

BE IT STILL FURTHER RESOLVED, that this loan shall be repaid over a period of three (3) years together with interest at a fixed rate of 5.5% which is the current non-taxable rate charged by Chelsea State Bank.

Motion by Hammer, supported by Finch, to adopt the above Resolution. All ayes. Motion carried. Resolution adopted.

Assistant Village Manager Kuehn reported that the Washtenaw County Drain Commissioner, Janis Bobrin, has recommended that the Village withdraw its petition for the establishment of the Pierce Lake drainage district as approved. Ms. Bobrin would like to meet with the Council to further explain her recommendation and its effects. Council will invite Ms. Bobrin to a future meeting.

Assistant Village Manager Kuehn reported that Mrs. Neta Mills has requested approval to close E. Middle Street for the food aisle at the Annual Sidewalk Sales event August 2 from 8:00 a.m. to 8:30 p.m. and August 3 from 8:00 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. Council asked Assistant Village Manager Kuehn to report back to Mrs. Mills that due to the anticipated railroad construction, the exact location may need to be changed.

Motion by Merkel, supported by Finch, to enter into Executive Session. All ayes. Motion carried. Time: 8:50 p.m.

Motion by Merkel, supported by Dorer, to adjourn Executive Session. All ayes. Motion carried. Time: 9:27 p.m.

Motion by Hammer, supported by Anderson, to adjourn Regular Session. All ayes. Motion carried. Meeting adjourned at 9:27 p.m.

Suzanne C. Morrison, Village Clerk.

Where it goes . . . makes a difference!

Let's say there isn't too much difference between what one financial institution pays in interest on all forms of savings. That's pretty much the case.

So, what is the difference then where you put your funds? If A pays the same as B it's all the same, isn't it? Not by a long shot. There is a difference.

The community you live in, for example, depends a great deal on local banking. Your local bank, the bank that serves your community and not one that is spread all over the state, invests its funds in the community for the community betterment.

Our lawmakers tend to overlook what a local bank means to a local community. The big banks have lobbied to tear down the barriers that protected communities from chain banking. Out-of-town big city banks are a way of life today. But don't despair, hometown consideration is still available in most areas, including right here at our bank.

You, like others, we're certain, find it rather remarkable that a hometown bank like ours still offers the same financial services as the "big boys." The difference lies in yourself. If you don't see where sending your funds out of town isn't important, then where you bank isn't important either.

MORE SERVICE MEN AND WOMEN from the Chelsea area were honored last Saturday by Chelsea Desert Storm Support Group. Plaques were given in recognition of service during the recent Persian Gulf war, whether in the Middle East or not. From left are George Gallas, accepting a plaque for his son, U.S. Army Sgt. Christopher Gallas; Paul and Joanne Weber, accepting for son MM2 James Weber of the U.S. Navy; Bonnie Hubbell, along with son Matt Hubbell, accepting on behalf of son P.O. Robert Hubbell of the U.S. Navy; U.S. Navy Cmdr. John Sparaco and wife, Paula; and U.S. Air Force Staff Sgt. Jeffrey McClelland, along with wife, Gail, daughter, Danielle, and son, Matthew.

Two Grandchildren Born on Same Day

Monte and Wanda Howard, of Stockbridge (formerly of Chelsea), are doubly proud grandparents. Their son Keith and daughter-in-law, Barbara Howard, of Stockbridge, had a son Randall James, at 12:05 a.m. on April 24 at University Hospital; Randy's three-year-old brother, Mitchell, is very happy to have a baby brother. Then their daughter, Kimberly Massicotte and son-in-law Kevin, of Grass Lake, had a baby daughter 22 hours later (at 10:04 p.m. on the same day) at St. Joseph's Mercy Hospital; she was named Hayley Elizabeth. Both baby cousins are now at their respective homes and doing fine while their grandparents are trying to pamper both. Randall's maternal grandparents, Howard and Pat Verne, live in Westlake Village, Calif. Hayley's paternal grandparents are Cindy and Fred Powell, now living in Kingsford, formerly of Chelsea, and the late Leon Massicotte.

Adrian—If you are an absolute devotee of the American Musical Theatre, you MUST travel to the Crosswell Opera House where "Into the Woods" is appearing with all of the gusto and excitement of the Broadway version. Director Elizabeth Lackey has taken a difficult Sondheim score, amateur performers, other than Michael Lackey and Nolan Hines, and carved a musical masterpiece.

"Into the Woods" captures the movement that all of the fairy tale caricatures brought to life by James Lapine (book) and Sondheim (lyrics and music) in an interlaced telling of many different stories. Yes, you'll find Rapunzel and her prince, Little Red Riding Hood and her Wolf, the Baker and his wife, Cinderella and her evil stepisters, and naturally Jack (of the Beanstalk fame) and his mother... oh, yes, and their cow.

In the first act, then, we are confronted by each individual telling their story at the same time, together, separately, and into this mishmash comes a witch. An evil influence, naturally. She coaxes the baker and his wife, who are childless, to bring her several items and she will assure them of a child. And so the musical goes...

The second act shows a soured fairy tale world in which accomplishments have failed, desires have diminished, leadership is missing, and they are all truly lost. And, then, of course, you have the wife of the giant that has been killed by our fictional adventurers. Well, they finally get this woman too. We know this because when she falls we see her hand (and long fingernails) twitching.

To better understand what is on stage in "Into the Woods," you might want to borrow a cassette or record of the musical and listen to it thoroughly. Remember Stephen Sondheim has everyone singing, no speaking.

Crosswell's show is impeccable. Helping along with this success are the costumes by Mary Scott; scenic design by Michael Lackey; most difficult theatrical music conducted sensitively by Mark B. Felder, and the entire cast of Woods.

If you promise not to tell anybody, I do have a favorite. Little Red Riding Hood is a real gasser in the person of senior high school student, Chris Sancho. Never have you seen a meaner, spooled Little Red Riding Hood than Sancho at her very best. But the entire cast performs with rare insight and our hats must be off for Sancho and all.

Performances continue this week-end from Thursday through Sunday. Call the Opera House for tickets and/or information at 1-517-283-5674. Tell them The Chelsea Standard sent you!

AIDS AND DENTISTRY: FACTS ABOUT INFECTION CONTROL

Since the first case of acquired immune deficiency syndrome (AIDS) was reported in this country in 1981 the infection has spread with alarming swiftness. It is currently estimated that one out of every 500 to 1,000 persons is currently infected with the virus and the vast majority of these people are not even aware of it. For this reason it is important for dentists and other health care providers to maintain strict infection control between patients since it is impossible to know who is and isn't infected. Although our knowledge about AIDS changes daily it is critical that we understand the facts and not react out of blind and ignorant panic.

In a recent article Dr. Nathaniel Rowe, an oral pathologist at the University of Michigan, outlined the following facts about AIDS. Although the AIDS virus is thought to be virtually 100% lethal it is NOT very infectious or virulent compared with other infectious agents. Although the AIDS virus does occur sporadically in the saliva of patients with the disease the amount of the virus is small and evidence of infection has NOT occurred in cases in which AIDS patients have bitten health care workers.

AIDS transmission requires high concentrations of infected cells and/or frequent exposure as opposed to the hepatitis B virus which is extremely virulent. Ten years ago the American Dental Association recommended that all dentists use masks, gloves, and eyeglasses for all dental procedures in light of what was known about hepatitis B. In addition, specific sterilization and disinfection techniques were recommended for dental instruments and equipment. The dental profession as a whole was slow to respond to these suggestions but recently, in light of the AIDS scare, the Center for Disease Control in Atlanta re-enforced these recommendations as protection against infection with AIDS. These techniques are now well accepted by both dentists and their patients as the responsible and caring way to practice dentistry.

SLAVE AUCTION: On Sunday, July 14 the youth of the North Lake United Methodist church had a slave auction. The youth sold one day's labor doing yard or house work to church members who bid on them. The average bid was $20. The money earned will pay for a trip to Cedar Point and paint for the church building. Those participating were, front row, left to right, Jill McKinnon, Amanda Titus, Carrie Stubbs, Kristen McKinnon, Scott Hawley, Matt Jachalke, Chyanne Rachoza, and Erin Collier. Slave masters, standing in back row, are Rene Rachoza, Kim Titus, Audrey Eisele, Vivian Boersma and Sandy Eisele. Long-time church member Charles McDaniels watched the auction with interest.

YOU & YOUR PET

 ★ Battling Fleas ...

Fleas are more than a nuisance they are also a health hazard to pets. Fleas spread tapeworms and other parasites from animal to animal, and can lead to anemia, allergies, and skin infections. Begin controlling fleas when you first notice them on your pet, or when your pet scratches or bites at himself frequently. Fleas also leave behind "flea dirt" in the fur, which looks like dark sand close to the skin. It turns red when placed on a wet paper towel.

Battling fleas is a two-step process. The first step is the removal of fleas and their eggs from the pet's environment. Wash all pet bedding in hot soapy water. Severely infested bedding should be destroyed. Vacuum all carpets, cracks, crevices, upholstery, draperies (within three feet of the floor), and pet eating areas. Immediately seal the vacuum bag containing the fleas in an airtight plastic bag and dispose of it. Mop all concrete, tile and linoleum floors. Repeat the above procedures at weekly intervals until the fleas begin to surrender.

If the flea problem isn't controlled with regular cleaning, select a residual insecticide from your veterinarian or pet supply store. Choose one that will kill the immature flea as well as the adult. Products containing methoprene are extremely safe and effective for indoor areas.

The second crucial step is to treat your pet for fleas. Begin with periodic shampoos and daily grooming with a flea comb. This safe, non-chemical approach can be very effective if practiced along with the cleaning in step one. For more serious problems, dips, sprays, powders, and pills are all available at your veterinarian or pet supply store. Flea collars are not usually effective. Use caution with any product around pregnant or nursing animals, puppies, and kittens. Always read the label.

Check your pet for fleas every time she comes in from outdoors. If your neighbors have fleas they are not controlling, or if your pets run freely in and out of the house, or if there are wooded or sandy areas near your house, your flea battle may be harder to win.

Though the first frosts will kill fleas outside, your house is warm enough for them to live all winter long.

BIBLE SCHOOL PROGRAM for the kids in the Chelsea area

GOD'S CHAMPIONS—EQUIPPED TO FOLLOW JESUS! is the Vacation Bible school program hosted by the Chelsea Christian Fellowship Church on July 29-Aug. 2, from 7 to 9 p.m.

GOD'S CHAMPIONS is a five-day experience featuring fun, crafts, music and active Bible learning. By visiting different "sports camps" each day, children will meet fascinating champions from sports and Bible times, all the while learning what it means to be one of God's champions. Kids will learn the values of telling the truth, making good choices, sharing their faith, trusting God, and reading the Bible.

Kids through 6th grade won't want to miss any of the excitement of GOD'S CHAMPIONS! Each session will be held at Chelsea Christian Fellowship, 337 Wilkinson, Chelsea. For more information call the church at 475-5873. If you could pre-register by calling this number it would help our planning. Bring a t-shirt to paint on for craft time. Bring a friend and your Bible and join us for a great time!

Rural Storm Damage Bad But Could Have Been Worse

The state's largest farm insurer said that property damage from the July 7 windstorm was not as severe as last March's storm damage. "We estimate that our claims losses from the July storm will be between $1.5 million and $2 million," said Bill Monville, property claims manager for Farm Bureau Insurance, an affiliate of the Michigan Farm Bureau.

"That's not as bad as March, when heavy winds and tornados caused about $5 million in claims losses for us."

The July storm blew down several barns, most in the western part of the state, and damaged scores of homes and farm buildings, according to Monville. Most of the damage resulted from falling trees and limbs.

"Life has not been rosy out on the farm without electricity," said Kevin Kirk, commodity specialist for Michigan Farm Bureau. "Some dairy farmers who did not have backup power were not able to milk their cows on time. And some wheat farmers had to delay harvest because they could not operate electrically powered grain unloading equipment."

Farm Bureau Insurance has recorded about 1,000 storm-related claims, with more being reported daily.

Some crop damage was also reported throughout the state, although early indications are that it will not be too extensive because little or no hail damage accompanied the storm.

Home-Grown Produce Available at Farm Markets

By Terry Jones

Extension Home Economist
Nothing's as good as home-grown. This is why many Michigan shoppers shop for fresh produce at local farm markets and u-pick operations during the harvest season.

According to Terry Jones, Wash-tenaw county extension home economist, most farm-site markets will have a steady flow of fresh fruits and vegetables from July through October. Many markets now open even earlier or stay open all season long.

Freshness is just one of the advantages of shopping at a farm market. The farm marketer can tell you how the fruits or vegetables were grown.

Another plus is the preparation expertise that many operators share with their customers. For example, you might learn how to break a squash apart easily or core an apple quickly. Last, but not least, visiting the farm can be an enjoyable learning opportunity for children.

This year's strawberry crop peaked early due to the warm temperatures and wet weather. This also caused the season to be short.

July is traditionally "cherry-berry" month in Michigan. Small state-wide crops are predicted for both cherries and berries this year. Production varies greatly across the state, so inquire locally about availability. Classified advertisements in newspapers can be a reliable source of availability information. Farm Market ads are usually found under a "food" or "farm and garden" heading.

Raspberries, both black and red, are specialty crops today and are not raised on a large scale in Michigan. The fall-harvested red raspberries (Heritage variety) are becoming increasingly widespread throughout the state.

Shoppers who are serious about getting raspberries, blackberries and rare fruits such as currants need to search out farm markets and u-pick operations.

A fair crop for both peaches and plums is predicted for the state as a whole. Right now it's too early to forecast the blueberry and apple crops.

Retail Food Price Rise Slows Down

The upward swing in retail food prices has started to level off this year, according to the Federal Reserve Bank of Chicago's Agricultural Letter.

The index of retail food prices rose only 3.8 percent in the first five months of this year, compared to the 5.8 percent annual gains in each of the past two years, the Letter said.

By year-end, experts predict the rise in prices of food purchased for home consumption to be considerably less than the rise in prices of food consumed away from home, although each dropped by the same percentage in the early months.

If this prediction comes true, according to the Letter, it will reverse a trend in recent years when grocery store prices rose more than prices for food eaten away from home.

Wild Horses Offered Locally

As part of the 20th anniversary year of the signing of the Free Roaming Wild Horse and Burro Act of 1971, 100 young trainable wild horses recently rounded up from the fragile western rangelands will be offered for adoption at the Michigan Livestock Exchange near Manchester, July 27-28.

Since the program began in the Pryor Mountains of Montana in 1973, over 115,000 animals have been adopted to more than 48,750 people in the United States. Before shipping, each animal rounded up by BLM is thoroughly checked by a veterinarian, coggins tested, wormed, and vaccinated for various equine disorders.

Wild horses will be on display and available for adoption at a fee of $125 per horse. The adoption fee helps defray the federal government's cost of veterinary care and transportation.

To qualify to adopt up to four animals, applicants must have a sturdy corral with fencing at least six feet high, shelter, transportation, and means for caring for the adopted animals. After an animal has been adopted, BLM personnel will halter and load the animal(s) for the adopter and provide pertinent information on health care, feeding and the training of wild horses.

For application and more information about the program or event please contact the Bureau of Land Management, Milwaukee District Office, P.O. Box 831, or call (414) 297-4417.

THEATRE Review

By Free Lance Drama Critic

"STEEL MAGNOLIAS"

Marshall—Six superbly crafted actresses gather nightly at Cornwall's Turkey Farm Theatre near Marshall to explain the complications of friendship and life in a small town in Louisiana where "Steel Magnolias" grow! Producer David Pritchard's uncanny knack of pulling together talent from the hinterlands is unbelievable. But my worry about the success was based upon two previous fantastic productions: "Driving Miss Daisy" and "Red, Hot and Blue," both winning critical acclaim. Could Pritchard cap two successes with a third popular dramatic offering?

No migraine headaches were needed about this third play "Steel Magnolias," a magnificent recreation of Robert Harling's perception of life in Louisiana. Reflections of his youth are based in Chinquapin where a sextet of women ranging in age from 19 to 66 meet on a regular basis at Truvy's Beauty Salon to gossip about happenings in the local town.

Newly arrived, possible employee Annelle (Maria Suarez) sprays the hair of beauty salon owner, Truvy (Gail Betts-Trader), both located in a rather typical splattered beauty parlor currently decorated with Easter trimmings. Annelle's history continues to unfold as the play progresses.

Long-time regular at Truvy's, Clairee (Leonor Reizen)—grande dame of Chinquapin through marriage to the mayor—inherited a significant amount of money but remains closely in touch with her fellow cohorts. Clairee fulfills the philosophic role in the play with many "down home" comments on the world.

All of the women of "Truvy's club" are unduly excited about Shelby's (Suzanne Ogden) wedding that afternoon, all touching in to talk to Shelby as Truvy gives her a special "hair do!" The prettiest girl in town, Shelby's colors of pink-blush and bashful—will dominate the decoration theme and her coiffure will be fashioned after Princess Grace's latest creation.

Arriving in a reserved but agitated state is M'Lynn Eatenton (Cathie Wier), a socially prominent career woman who professionally provides services to the Mental Health Center, an extremely organized individual concerned about the marriage of her diabetic daughter, Shelby, to a prominent young lawyer in the community.

A burr under many social tails in the community is long-time widowed Ouiser (Rebecca Moore Jernigan) whose entrance is accompanied by a barking dog and nearby gun shots. Ouiser, truly a crotchety 66-year-old, loves her hairless dog (a St. Bernard) both of whom provide headaches to several of her neighbors.

Playwright Robert Harling's dramatic pen weaves a pattern of subdued-humor and sadness with the social intertwining of the six ladies. Apparently the only shadow on the success of Shelby's marriage is predestined by her diabetic condition, evidenced in a strong dramatic scene amongst her friends and especially her mother.

Separate and unforgettable characterizations from six extremely talented actresses fell into an unforgettable creation depicting a woman's life in the southern regional social strata. Director David Karsten blends the multi-experienced cast into a beautiful molded portrait of Harling's reminiscence of his life. Paul Gregory Nelson's casting was impeccable.

Especially strong performances from amongst a cast of perfection is offered by Maria Suarez as Annelle, Leonor Reizen as Clairee, Cathie Wier as M'Lynn and Suzanne Ogden as Shelby.

Maria Suarez's Annelle comes to life by her strong complementary body movements, along with carefully expressed delivery. An admirable quality is the ability of any actress to keep her role constantly. This she did. Her movement from the shy and frightened young lady to one with strong religious beliefs was award winning stuff!

Leonor Reizen's performance as Clairee is so believable that you feel she is not truly acting; that what you see is her. Paul Newman has this ability. Very few actors/actresses do. Reizen's diction is always clear, body movement supporting her dialogue is terrific, and her believable relationship on-stage with the other characters of the plot is wonderful.

Changing from the 25-year-old marriageable young debutante to that of the diabetic married daughter, Suzanne Ogden moves from an innocent to a realistic member of society. After an unforgettable vocal performance interpreting the music of Berlin, Cole Porter, Gershwin, in "Red, Hot, and Blue," Ogden's wonderful charismatic stage presence comes through as she dons the role of diabetic Shelby, performing with a dramatic brilliance we have not seen before from this attractive young lady. One understands how her "older comrades" truly have concern for her, and her beautiful interacting with the other professions (and certainly their interacting with her) causes "Steel Magnolias" to come forcefully across the footlights.

Ogden's voice is always easily heard, her variations vocally, whether whispering or shouting, bring her stage emotions forward to give added depth to her performance. Her natural beauty adds to the "prettiest girl in town" seen through Playwright Harling's eyes.

In her transition from admired young debutante about to be married, to her desire to be "an independent, but married person," Ogden powerfully conveys the love and rebellion relationship with her mother. This relationship with M'Lynn often concurrently brings forth tears and happiness at the same time. Their closeness is observed with the diabetic seizure scene where the mother's concern (about her daughter) blossoms, and the acting of Ogden undergoing the diabetic attack causes audience empathy and apprehension.

Lima Township Board Proceedings

Regular Meeting July 1, 1991 The regular meeting of the Lima Township Board was called to order at 8:07 p.m. by Supervisor VanRiper on July 1, 1991. Chelsea Area Players To Perform at Concert in the Park

Chelsea Area Players will be presenting a musical number from their summer show, "Fiddler on the Roof," during intermission at the Concert in the Park on Sunday, July 21.

Tevye (Alan Day) and Golde's (Connie Scott) three eldest daughters; Tzeitel (Jennifer Bennett), Hodel (Sharon Greene) and Chava (Kate Peckham) will perform their rendition of "Matchmaker, Matchmaker." This song evolves around a discussion the sisters are having regarding the recent match made for Tzeitel by Yente the local Matchmaker (Wyn Schumann), and how anxious Hodel and Chava are to also have good matches made for themselves. When Tzeitel points out that being a poor family they have no dowries and may not end up with the most desirable of husbands, they change their minds and admit they can wait awhile longer for matches of their own.

The orchestra director, Rob Rawson, is also well into rehearsals with the musicians chosen to perform the music which is a wonderful part of "Fiddler on the Roof." Musicians who will be performing are Holly Jorgensen, Marjorie Johnson, Dena Stevens, Brenna Burns, Judy Jorgensen, Kathy Jorgensen, Chris Wall, Patrick Reed, John Rigg, Yuri Soneoko, Ellen Fischer, Michael Kondziolka, Sheila Tillman, Jim Alford, Tim James, Anna Flimtoft, Melanie Broughton, Linda Furuyama, and John Sterbenz.

Chelsea Boy Responsible for Crime Wave

A 14-year-old Chelsea boy was responsible for thefts and vandalism over a period of several days after July 4.

According to Chelsea police, the youth admitted stealing two bicycles from a W. Middle St. residence, another bicycle from a residence in Bridgetown Apartments, knocking over cemetery markers in Oak Grove Cemetery and removing flags from veterans' graves, spray painting two garages, stealing a hood ornament from a car on E. Middle St., stealing a flag from an E. Middle St. residence, and stealing another flag from an apartment complex. The latter flag he cut into pieces and threw in a swamp. He also broke into a residence where he stole a bottle of alcohol. He was joined by other youths during several of the incidents.

At least two of the bicycles have been recovered.

'Suspicious' Fire Destroys Golf Course's Temporary Clubhouse

A fire of "suspicious" origin completely destroyed a temporary clubhouse at Reddeman Farms Golf Course in Lima township early last Wednesday.

Chelsea Fire Department was called to the fire at Dancer and Jerusalem Rds. at 3:12 a.m. According to Chelsea fire chief Bud Hankerd, not much of the unfinished, wooden, garage-like building remained when his department arrived on the scene.

Washtenaw County Sheriff's Det. William Maloney said the fire is under investigation. He said some evidence at the scene supports a possible breaking and entering. Evidence has been sent to the state crime lab for further analysis.

The building, 20' by 36', was being used until a permanent clubhouse can be erected. It also housed the watering system controls for the golf course as well as the main electrical supplies for the complex.

Anyone, particularly residents, who may have seen anything suspicious shortly before the fire is asked to call the Washtenaw County Fire Investigation Board or the sheriff's department.

Despite the fire, the golf course has continued to remain open.

David C. Moilanen has been appointed Public Relations/Information Officer for the Huron-Clinton Metropolitan Authority.

The appointment is effective Aug. 24, 1991.

Moilanen has been Supervising Farm Interpreter at Kensington Farm Center in Kensington Metropark near Milford since April 14, 1980. Before then, he worked as a seasonal naturalist at Kensington Nature Center for several years.

He was born in Pontiac, and was graduated from Kettering High School in Waterford.

Moilanen, a graduate of the University of Michigan, earned two degrees: a Bachelor of Arts Degree in Economics in 1971 and a Bachelor of Science Degree in Natural Resources in 1975. He also completed one year of law school at Wayne State University and later took graduate courses in Zoology at Eastern Michigan University. The last several years he has been taking courses in journalism at EMU and plans to continue his education in that field.

The HCMA operates 13 Metroparks, providing the residents of Wayne, Macomb, Oakland, Livingston and Washtenaw counties with a variety of outdoor recreational experiences.

"My goal is to promote these experiences and activities and to maintain a positive relationship between the HCMA and the public it serves," Moilanen says.

Moilanen, his wife Cindy, and their two-year-old son, David, reside in Green Oak township in Livingston county (Brighton mailing address).

Moilanen succeeds John K. Sterling, HCMA Information Officer, who will retire on Aug. 23, 1991 after more than 32 years of service.

Baker Rd. Reconstruction Starting Soon

Washtenaw County Road Commission will be reconstructing Baker Rd. between Dan Hoey Rd. Interstate 94 in Scio township, with the project to start very soon.

Traffic will be maintained on Baker Rd. during the construction, although delays can be expected.

Alternate routes for motorists to consider are Parker Rd., or Dexter-Ann Arbor Rd. to Zeeb.

WCR engineers confirmed this week that except for one week-end during the summer when Baker Rd. will be totally closed to traffic, at least one lane will be available to travel.

The planned improvements include complete pavement reconstruction, replacing culverts, ditching, and the addition of deceleration and bypass lanes.

The new pavement will include two 12-foot lanes with three-foot paved, and three-foot gravel, shoulders.

The reconstruction will be completed in November, except for the final restoration and the final course of asphalt, which will be placed during May, 1992.

If you have any questions, please call Roy Townsend, project engineer, at 761-1501, ext. 34.

Free Tree Pruning Guide Available

How a tree is pruned in its first few years of life will affect its shape, strength and even its life span.

An illustrated, easy-to-follow guide called "How To Prune Young Shade Trees" has been prepared for homeowners. It may be obtained free of charge by writing the National Arbor Day Foundation.

The How To Prune guide includes step-by-step illustrations showing how proper pruning in the early years of a tree's life can save money in the long run and result in safer, more beautiful, healthy, easy-to-maintain trees.

This valuable booklet is filled with illustrations showing you how to make a pruning cut... how to prune for desired form... how to maintain the tree's health by removing trouble spots... when to leave temporary lower branches, and when to cut them.

The booklet even shows how to hold a pair of pruning shears and how to make pruning cuts at the proper angle.

You'll learn how to shape and guide a shade tree when it's young so that it's tall, straight, strong, and healthy when it's old.

The design of the booklet makes it easy to browse through to pick up tips. You'll discover why tree paint isn't necessary, even on large cuts... how to select and care for pruning tools... how to prune according to the tree's function.

To obtain your free copy of this valuable booklet, send your name and address to: How To Prune, National Arbor Day Foundation, Nebraska City, Neb. 68410.
