Village Voters To Choose President, Three Trustees In March 9 Elections

Chelsea voters will elect a village president, three trustees, a treasurer, and two library board members in the annual village elections next Monday, March 9.

The election will give voters a much larger selection of candidates than usual. This year there are an unprecedented three candidates for president and six candidates for three trustee seats.

Two former village presidents are challenging incumbent Richard Steele for the right to lead council.

Jerry Satterthwaite, who served three terms as president from 1984-90, and Charles Ritter, Jr., who served from 1980-82 and was the last president elected under the old caucus system, are the challengers. Both men, who have been political enemies for years, say Steele isn't the person for the job, but for different reasons. Steele served as a trustee for Satterthwaite's entire term before ousting Satterthwaite two years ago, 279-198.

Ritter ran against Satterthwaite in 1986 and was soundly defeated. He ran for council in 1990 and lost by eight votes.

Steele served three and a half years on council before his election to the presidency. He challenged Satterthwaite for the presidency in 1988 and lost by 38 votes.

Satterthwaite contends council is suffering from a lack of leadership by Steele and has said that is the primary reason he is running. He has criticized the handling of recent personnel matters and contends most of council is out of touch, partly because they are not well-enough informed by Steele.

Ritter says there isn't enough financial responsibility in village government and will cite numerous instances of what he considers wasteful and improper spending. He also wants to restrict severely the village manager's power, giving most responsibility to council. He'd like to have the village manager ordinance repealed.

Steele's two years in office has been notable for the many unusual problems facing the village. Council has dismissed and replaced the village manager; has negotiated extensively with Sylvan, Lima, Lyndon, and Dexter townships, the Department of Natural Resources, and the state treasury department on various landfill matters; has had to deal with gasoline contamination at the electric and water building and construct a new one; and has had to replace an electric superintendent.

Perhaps the major change implemented during his term is a new trash collection system.

Steele says he wants to concentrate on policy formulation during his next term. He has taken steps in that direction by the formulation of a new Ways and Means Committee. The village has changed auditors and revised use of its electric fund.

Ritter, 71, 509 Maywood St., works for MacDee, Inc. He has lived here since 1939.

Satterthwaite, 50, 423 McKinley St., works for Klink Excavating Co. He is a Chelsea native.

Steele, 46, 211 Lincoln St., is coordinator of endoscopy at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital. He is a Chelsea native.

Candidates for trustee include Ishmael Picklesimer, Rosemary Harook (as a write-in), Harry Thurkow, Brian Cashman, former trustee Gary Bentley, and incumbents Joe Merkel and Frank Hammer.

Picklesimer, 69, 460 W. North St., is retired from Rockwell International. He is a former member of the village planning commission and has served in various community organizations.

Harook, 53, 220 E. North St., has been village zoning inspector for seven years and has been outspoken about various village issues.

Thurkow, 47, 206 Wilkinson St. is employed at the Ann Arbor News and owns Chelsea Hearing Aid Center. He is a member of the village's zoning board of appeals.

Cashman, 41, 449 Railroad St., is employed at the University of Michigan in information technology. He is an alternate on the zoning board of appeals.

Bentley, 47, 223 Harrison St., served two terms on village council from 1988-90. He is employed in the maintenance department at Chelsea Milling Co.

Merkel, 45, 743 Taylor St., is the senior member of council and mayor pro tem. He owns Wolverine Food & Spirits in Chelsea.

Hammer, 46, 521 East St., has served one term on council. He is also vice-chair of the Western Washtenaw Recycling Authority. He's a chemist at the National Sanitation Foundation in Ann Arbor.

Picklesimer and Harook have previously run for council, but neither Cashman or Thurkow has.

Hammer and Cashman have publicly supported Steele for president, while Bentley supports Satterthwaite. The other candidates for trustee have not publicly supported any presidential candidate in particular.

In uncontested elections, Kathleen Chapman is seeking her fourth term as village treasurer.

Robert Bowers and Gary Zenz seek three year terms on the McKune Memorial Library Board. Each is an incumbent.

Polls will be open from 7 a.m. to 8 p.m. at Sylvan Town Hall on W. Middle St.

Council Approves Change In Use of Electric Fund

A resolution to transfer money from the village's electric fund to the general fund "in lieu of taxes" on an annual basis was passed by village council last Tuesday night.

For many years the fund has been used as a source of loans for all sorts of projects. On at least two occasions money has been transferred in lieu of taxes. However, there has never been an official mechanism in place to authorize either practice.

The resolution will be followed by an ordinance, trustee Frank Hammer, chair of the Ways and Means Committee, said after the meeting.

According to surveys of municipally-owned electric utilities conducted by the Michigan Municipal Electric Association, transfers in lieu of taxes appears to be a common practice. Cities either have the procedure spelled out in their charters or have specific ordinances. Chelsea plans to transfer 6.5 percent of total electric revenues annually, which is more than most cities in the MMEA survey.

The resolution allows loans from the fund, but only if there is a reasonable chance they can be paid off from the receiving department. Loans cannot be made to the general fund.

Any loan has to be paid back in five years at the prevailing prime interest rate. Several other municipalities in the survey allow interest-free loans, which may not have to be paid back.

The resolution forces the village to establish a minimum reserve balance in the fund of $2.5 million, with total loans not to exceed $1 million.

Under the resolution the village will transfer $1.2 million in lieu of taxes to cover the last 20 years. For 1991-93 the village anticipates the general fund will receive $138,000. Some of that money will be used to balance the 1992-93 budget, and some will be used to pay off a loan to the landfill fund.

Woman Reports Seeing Black Panther in Yard

Has the Manchester panther returned?

A Pleasant Lake Rd. woman said Tuesday morning that she and her husband watched a black panther in their back yard for about 15 minutes Monday.

Kim Nichols, who moved to the rented farmhouse from Ann Arbor last fall, said they watched the animal from about 60 feet, so there was no mistaking it for a dog or any other animal. She said the incident was reported to the Washtenaw County Sheriff's Department, but the agency didn't seem to take the report very seriously.

She said the animal was at least two and a half feet high, fairly long, and had at least a two-foot-long tail.

Nichols also said some sheep on the farm have turned up missing recently, including one that was found behind the barn that looked "like it had exploded."

She said she first saw the animal about a month ago, then her husband saw it independently. But Monday was the first time they've seen it together. She said it walked to the back of the property and disappeared. She said she plans to have a camera ready to try to capture the animal on film.

District Reviews Millage Timeline

Lay-off notices will be sent to Chelsea School District teachers affected by likely budget cuts by the end of April. How many teachers the layoffs could affect has not been determined.

Chelsea Board of Education discussed the district's timeline for a millage election June 8 at their regular Monday meeting. The district will ask for a millage renewal, as well as some level of new millage.

The district faces a possible $1.2 million deficit next school year depending whether financial proposals at the state level are passed with the state budget.

The district has to plan in case Chelsea voters refuse to approve new millage this June.

Assistant superintendent Fred Mills said work sessions have produced proposed cuts of about $300,000, and the schools are working on the final $400,000. A final proposal for cuts, along with a recommendation for new millage, will be given to the school board in April.

Chelsea Driver Hits Pedestrian

A 40-year-old Flint man was struck and killed by a Chelsea-area driver as he ran across I-94 in Scio township last Tuesday, Feb. 25.

According to the Washtenaw County Sheriff's Department, the westbound vehicle swerved to the right to try to avoid the unidentified man as he ran across the interstate from the north at about 9:15 p.m. The pedestrian was struck by the driver's side of the vehicle. As Steven J. Elsemann, 39, 17251 Cavanaugh Lake Rd., attempted to gain control of the vehicle it began to spin out of control, struck a small post, and came to rest in a shallow ditch.

As of press time, police were still trying to identify the Flint man. He apparently had no friends or family in the area and police can find no relatives in the Flint area.

Council Changes Auditing Company

Chelsea Village Council's decision to change auditors this year drew unanswered criticism at last Tuesday's regular council meeting.

A village resident questioned why council accepted the second highest bid of four submitted for the annual project.

Campbell, Kusterer, & Walraven of Bay City, which has had the village's contract since 1982, had the second lowest bid. Plante & Moran of Ann Arbor was awarded a three-year contract based on a first-year price of $13,000. The three-year cost would not be higher than $39,000. Campbell, Kusterer, & Walraven's bid was $7,800 for the first year. Low bidder was Rehman & Robson of Jackson at $12,900 for three years.

No public explanation was offered for the change despite the questions.

Wheelcovers Taken From New Cars

Eleven wheelcovers valued from $29 to $81 each were stolen from vehicles at Palmer Ford-Mercury on Thursday, Jan. 30.

Most of the covers came from Ford Taurus and Mercury Sables.

Council accepted the bid unanimously.

After the meeting, trustee Frank Hammer, chair of the Ways and Means Committee, said the village wants a different level of service. The new company has offered seminars for public officials on government accounting and auditing practices and has promised to keep in close contact with the village. The company said it would answer questions within 24 hours, and would automatically update and explain the impact of any new legislation. All of those services were part of the basic package. The company also said it could help with budgeting, utility rate studies, bond statements and other projects for an extra fee.

"We've got some things that need to be addressed," Hammer said. He said the new company identified what it considers potential problem areas with village accounting practices. He was not more specific.

Each company was given a copy of last year's budget. Each was asked for price, credentials, and what services they proposed.

The former company basically handled the year-end audit, with no other services, Hammer said.

ministrator for the Dept. of Corrections who acted as master of ceremonies, and Fr. Enzo Addari, St. Louis Center administrator. Approximately 300 people attended the annual recognition dinner.

Engler Faults Deteriorating Roads In Pushing Three-Year Plan
Michigan's transportation system is in bad shape and deteriorating rapidly, Governor John Engler said in proposing a three-year plan to fix or replace hundreds of bridges and thousands of miles of roadway.

The plan uses $200 million in bonds to match $1.5 billion in new federal funds while deferring a decision on tax increases.

Over a 10-year period, assuming reauthorization of the new federal program after five years and new state revenues in three years, the governor said 80 percent of the state's roadways will be in better shape.

That includes improvements on 1,000 state bridges and 500 local bridges, 350 new miles of state highway and improvements on 7,500 other miles. It also would replace over half of the buses used in local public transit systems.

Engler, to the disappointment of local officials and road interests, continued to oppose an immediate increase in the 15-cent per gallon gas tax as an unwarranted burden in tough economic times.

But he left open the door to supporting such an increase after the bonding program expires in 1996, a timeframe which also takes the governor beyond his current term.

"Down the road as costs rise we will likely have to consider an increase in the gas tax," Engler said. Also missing from the proposal was repeal of the current system giving a six-cent diesel fuel discount to truckers who purchase annual stickers.

At the annual legislative conference of the Michigan Municipal League, the governor said Michigan has fallen to next to last among all states in per capita spending for roads, and said improvements are necessary to keep existing businesses and attract new ones.

"You know and I know the state of the state's roads are not where they should be," he said.

Engler called on the Legislature to pass within the next three weeks portions of the package that raises another $33 million for localities by repealing a two percent "evaporation allowance" for gasoline and changing the point of tax collection to refiners from retailers.

He said the administration will also pass on to local road agencies about $45 million in savings generated by the state, which is the equivalent of 1 cent of the gas tax.

Although opponents criticize bonding which they say costs more over the long run and requires future taxpayers to pay more for improvements needed now, the governor said bonds make sense at interest rates that are at a 13-year low and a relatively low debt burden.

The state's current debt service of $32 million a year would increase to $36.2 million with the five-, 10- and 20-year maturity bonds.

David Osborn, state affairs director for the MML, who is also a member of the Transportation Interest Group (TIG), said he still hopes the Legislature will see the need for more revenues from the gas tax, which has not been increased since 1985.

"That is the long-term permanent solution. We think there is enough public support to do that," he said. "(Engler) is proposing a three-year solution."

Osborn called the governor's proposal, which relies on a growth in gas tax revenue, as a "calculated risk" but said it does represent a substantial investment in highways.

James Little, executive director of the County Road Association of Michigan, called the plan a positive step, but added, "We now look forward to when we can fix our infrastructure once and for all. That day will not come until we raise the state's gasoline tax."

TIG officials said they are uncertain if the funds will be available for counties and cities for this summer's construction season.

House Transportation Committee chair Curtis Hertel (D-Detroit) called the elimination of the evaporation allowance "nothing but a hidden tax on the consumer. If you take that benefit away from those individuals, you're just going to pass it on to the consumer. And I won't support that."

Hertel also said he cannot support the bonding proposal, since transportation revenues are already inadequate. "Where's the revenue stream? It's Bush-Reagan deficit spending. I'm not about to support it at the state level," he said.

House Appropriations Transportation subcommittee chair Wilfred Webb (D-Hazel Park) agreed a revenue source to pay off the bonds, without the threat of obligating future generations, must be identified.

"I don't think it's responsible," he said. "I think we should simultaneously increase the gas tax."

But Senate Majority Leader Richard Posthumus (R-Alto) supported the package, saying it represents a major investment in rebuilding transportation systems and providing new jobs.

Engler hailed his program for its economic impact, saying it will support 18,000 jobs during the 1990s.

Deryl Holmes, legislative liaison for the department, said $390 million in federal funds will be spent this summer, up from $250 million that would have been available without the package. The state will match those funds with $88 million of its own money.

Key projects for 1992 include: widening a portion of M-59 in Oakland county and making another portion in Macomb county a boulevard; building the Haggerty connector in western Oakland county; reconstruction of I-94 in Wayne county; constructing the US-27 bypass at St. Johns, and relocating M-32 in Montmorency county.

Long-term projects include completion of the South Beltline in Grand Rapids, reconstruction of I-94 in Detroit and construction of US-31 around Potosky and Traverse City.

In other provisions:

- about $39 million in bonds financed by excess funds generated by Mackinac Bridge tolls, with the money supplementing $15 million from current commitments will be used to repair or replace about 500 local bridges.
- $275 million would go to replace 450 public transit buses.

The governor also supported trucking deregulation (SB 326) saying it will improve economic competitiveness and improve safety regulations.

Uncle Lew from Lima Says:

DEAR MISTER EDITOR:

Clem Webster was wound up tight as a $8 watch at the country store Saturday night. He said the pace of politics is picking up fast in this Presidential election year, and the more he reads behind the Democrat hopefuls for the top job the more he thinks of his friend in the yard and tree service-business-on the South Carolina coast that he gets a letter from once or twice a year.

After Hurricane Hugo ripped through the area in the fall of '89, Clem said he wrote and ask his buddy how he was holding up. His friend telephoned to say he didn't have time to write because he had took on three more crews to deal with his backlog of business. Last fall, Clem said, he got a postcard from Paris from his friend that had took his old lady on that deam vacation she had harped about for 25 years. "Wish you were here," the letter wrote, "if the Good Lord would send one more Hugo my way I'd be fixed for life."

If the economy keeps acting like a train wreck, Clem said, the Democrats might get back on track. As Pennsylvania went on that Senate vote last fall so goes the country, was Clem's words. But right now, all candidates at all levels are marching to the same old drum. Them that's in and want to stay in sing happy days are just around the corner, and them that's out and want in are playing the broken record about a country at the crossroads with its back to the wall, its head in the noose with time running out.

Clem told the fellers all the new faces are saying the same old things, and he is yet to hear a politician with a new way of telling voters the only hope for the future is to elect him or keep him in office. Clem said he saw a item in the papers recent that might be used in politics. This car dealer in Florida had a slow December, so at the first of the year he fired all 13 of his salesmen. He put a bottom dollar price on every car with a note for customers to make up their minds and see him in his office.

At the end of January he had sold three times more cars than in the month before. It makes you wonder, Clem said, if all the haggling and compromising we go through trying to make all our Governments work is holding up the whole process. Clem took note that the "Throw All the Rascals Out" move is back this election year, and it is being took more serious.

Republican Ed Doolittle took note that Democrat Clem was tarring everybody with the same brush. Ed said he agreed with Clem that the more layers the politicians and bureaucrats build to insulate themselves the less chance we got of having anything to do with what they do. But Ed reminded that a free wheeling democracy like ours really is the worst form of Government except for all the others, and it's made even harder to operate by the tug of war going on between the Democrat Congress and the Republican Administration. The only thing worse would be for one party to be in complete control.

Personal, when it comes to political finger pointing I'm reminded of the two drunks in court for wrecking their car. When the judge ask which one was driving when they hit the tree, both said they were laying in the back seat.

Yours truly,
Uncle Lew.

Are interest rates going up or are they coming down even more?

One might as well look in a crystal ball for the answer as to what the future holds in store for interest rates climbing or falling.

If you have been putting off a major purchase in hopes there is further erosion of interest rates, you might be smart not to wait any longer. Interest rates could begin to climb if it looks as though the recession is about over. Stop in. One of our loan arrangers, here at Chelsea State Bank, would be most happy to work with you to make your dreams become reality.

Local Piano Students Perform

Twelve local piano students performed last Saturday at Eastern Michigan University's School of Music for Student Achievement Testing Day, an annual program that this year featured more than 450 students representing fifty music teachers.

The achievement testing program requires each student to perform three memorized pieces at his or her own level. The students are also tested in four other areas of musicianship: theory, aural awareness, technique, and sight reading.

The goal of the program is to help each student grow in musicianship by performing at a higher level each year. Each student's performance is graded and they receive a cumulative score, but this is not a traditional competition.

"Really the students compete only against themselves because they each perform at their own level," says Dexter area piano instructor Faith Coffey. "Just participating in this testing program is an indication that they've worked really hard on their piano skills."

Students receive a certificate of achievement for their participation each year at the testing program. Additionally, performing two years consecutively earns a trophy for the dedicated student. Coffey said that several of this year's Dexter students will be earning a two-year trophy.

Dexter area students who performed at last Saturday's testing include: Becky Arnet, Maggie Arnet, Erika Borgeson, Lindsay Boyce, Benjamin Coffey, Theresa Hockenberry, Jennifer Jansen, Teresa Jansen, Linda Skalski, Karra Tasker, Jarret Torno, and Sandy Wier.

Local teachers whose students participated in the testing program included Margaret Bond, Sara Carriere, Faith Coffey and Merilee Magnuson of Dexter. LaVonne Harris and Betty Rasmussen of Chelsea were also expected to have several students at the testing day.

The annual testing program is sponsored by the Michigan Music Teachers Association, and is locally administered by the Ann Arbor Area Piano Teachers Guild.

KATHY DIXON, right, was presented the Chelsea Education Foundation Scholarship by Amy Heydlauff. Dixon is a graduate of Chelsea Adult Education and is enrolled in a nursing program at Washtenaw Community College.

Education Foundation Holds First Fundraiser

Chelsea Education Foundation held its first annual fundraiser, "Mardi Gras at the Grill" on Monday, Feb. 24 at the Common Grill. "The event was truly a success," said foundation president Barbara Rose. "Not only did we raise significant funds, but we had fun. We are already planning next year's fundraiser." CEF organized last summer's Waterloo Recreation Area Project, an outdoor workshop for children, and had initiated mini-grant and scholarship programs.

Restaurant owner Craig Common donated a number of door prizes.

CEF Scholarship was presented to Kathy Dixon by Amy Heydlauff. Spinners Flock also presented a check for $350 to the foundation board.

Planning has started for new CEF projects. They include bringing University of Michigan/NASA-based programs to children in Chelsea schools, and transporting students to U-M for programs that stress science, mathematics, and technology. Many are focusing on girls in science.

CEF is a non-profit, tax-exempt organization funded entirely by private and corporate donations.

For more information on the foundation call 475-8155 or 475-3213.

KATE PECKHAM

Kate Peckham In U.D. Mercy Production

Chelsea resident Kate Peckham is featured in The Theatre Company's upcoming production of Lanford Wilson's mosaic of small-town Middle America, The Rimers of Eldritch, March 6-22, in the Earl D.A. Smith Theatre. The University of Detroit Mercy troupe won the Detroit Free Press Theatre Excellence Award for Best Play last season for Vital Signs.

A man has been murdered. The mystery is, who murdered him and what were the circumstances? To solve it, the play blends together the various people and bits of action into a striking mosaic, and captures, with eloquence and insight, the very heart and meaning of the small Midwestern town of Eldritch. Peckham will portray Eva Jackson, a crippled girl whose actions figure strongly in the action of the play.

Peckham, a 1990 graduate of Chelsea High school, is well known to local audiences for her work with the Chelsea Area Players as Mammy Yokum in Lil Abner and Chava in Fiddler on the Roof, and at Chelsea High school in Oklahoma, Up the Down Staircase and The Sound of Music. She was a member of an Eastern Michigan University theatre workshop for three years and participated in the Summer Institute for Theatre at Olivet College. She played the title role in Little Bear, a play for young audiences dealing with the topic of sexual abuse, with The Theatre Company.

The Rimers of Eldritch runs March 6-22 in the Earl D.A. Smith Theatre on the University of Detroit Mercy's McNichols campus at McNichols and Livernois. Curtain times are 8 p.m. Thursdays, Fridays and Saturdays, and 7 p.m. Sundays. A Sunday matinee performance will be given March 15 at 2 p.m. in addition to the evening performance.

For more information, to receive a brochure, or for reservations call The Theatre Company at 993-1130.

Village Trustee

WRITE MY NAME AND OFFICE TO WHICH I AM RUNNING (VILLAGE TRUSTEE) ON THE ENVELOPE THAT HOLDS THE BALLOT.

Paid for by Committee To Elect Rosemary Harook, Village Trustee.

Letters to the Editor

To the Editor:

I feel I have to express myself as to some of the candidates in the coming election, mainly Mr. Satterthwaite and Mrs. Harook.

When a public official abuses his office for personal gains and gratifications, without regards to the objections of the inhabitants of the village, when the village president will stand before the public and members of the council as Mr. Satterthwaite did in 1985 and prevaricate and misrepresent another who also intended to purposely distort the truth, I do not feel he should even be considered for office. Personally if it were me I would be so ashamed I would not have the nerve to believe the people would even think of electing me again unless of course I felt the citizenry to be so devoid of concern for the continuous improvement of the village that they would not exercise the power of the vote and let the special interest groups control the council.

I believe the residents of Chelsea should retake their town, get new council members in office, break the hold of the old clique.

As for Mrs. Harook, I believe her not being able to even fill out an application tells all. Mrs. Harook's inability to perform her job description has cost the village thousands upon thousands of dollars that should never have been paid to the village attorneys for law suits brought due to Mrs. Harook making her own laws. As Judge Bronson said "If you leave to the discretion of the building inspector, then you don't have a government of law, you have a government of people; and in this case, a government of Mrs. Harook, whatever she considers ornamental, whatever she likes. This week she likes pickets, and the next week she likes something else." This is from the court ruling of Navin vs. French.

Mrs. Harook planned to break the zoning ordinance not only with our case but also at 302 South St.

Since Mrs. Harook has been zoning inspector Chelsea has been severely lacking in equal zoning enforcement. She is now trying to get fences in the front yards, I believe it is to cover for all the ones she missed. If she were to be on the council and did as she does now think of the consequences. The village does not need this kind of representation.

For obvious reasons I cannot support Mr. Satterthwaite or Mrs. Harook nor can I support Mr. Bentley as he was on the council when Mrs. Navin requested that the zoning laws be enforced and he also refused to act, either because he was a rubber stamp or he did not know or try to know what the ordinance was, which shows a lack of concern for the citizens.

I do wonder why everyone gets so upset and rushes to run for office when Mr. Ritter does. Could it be that he knows something the public does not about our village government? Are the powers that rule afraid he may upset their appletart? Why not find out and put some new representation in the council, get out and vote, take back control of your village.

I would like to finish with this statement: "Because of certain restrictions I cannot run for office at this time or I would, but I shall be able to in two years. It is something I may think about."

George E. Navin.

To the Editor,

The Friends of McKune Memorial Library wants to express its sincere appreciation to the Library patrons in the Village and surrounding townships for their support during our 1991 fund-raising efforts on behalf of the Library. Our spring flower sale, used book sales, stationery sale and Annual Fund Drive were very successful events because of the generosity, enthusiastic interest, and hard work of many people. The strong financial support from individual donors and members of the business community enabled us to purchase much needed equipment for the Library.

The Friends' membership stands at 130 individual, family and business/professional members. It is encouraging to us that so many members of the community have chosen to publicly acknowledge their advocacy for the Library by joining the Friends.

The hard work of the Library Board, the McKune staff, and the Friends, and the generosity of sponsors and benefactors of the Library, continues the long history of commitment to literacy and information access established by the Woman's Club of Chelsea when they established the Library in 1932.

Thank you again for your enthusiastic support of the Friends' 1991 activities. We look forward to your continued support of the Library in 1992.

Happy birthday to the Library!
Mary A. Green, President
Friends of McKune Memorial Library.

Dear Editor,

Recently there has been a lot of press concerning the excessive salary and ridiculous perks given to the president of United Way of America, who has since announced his retirement.

For the benefit and peace of mind of all Chelsea United Way contributors, I write this letter to inform you that Chelsea United Way pays nothing to this national organization. We are an independent, locally controlled United Way.

Because of all of the controversy, I would like to share with you the payroll of Chelsea United Way for the fiscal year ended 12/31/91:

- John Mann, President.....$0
- Ed Greenleaf, Vice-President...0
- Sue Craig, Secretary.....0
- Bill Chandler, Treasurer.....0
- Blake Thomson, Finance Chair...0
- Joe Piasecki, Campaign Co-Chair..0
- Robert Bullock, Allocations Chair..0
- Kathy Brubaker, Banquet Chair...0
- Lynn Fox, Awards Chair.....0
- Daphne Hodder, Nominating Chair..0
- Fred Van Reesema, By-laws Chair..0
- Ten Other Directors.....0
- Total Payroll.....$0

The only expense we have are audit, insurance, and campaign expenses, and in total these amount to just 3% of total revenues. We are proud to tell our donors that 97% of every $1 contributed goes directly to our member agencies.

The reason we keep our costs so low is that we are a totally volunteer organization, and we intend to keep it that way for as long as the volunteer spirit lives in this community.

In addition to most of the names above, the current Chelsea United Way board includes Dave Adams, Jim Birchler, Tom McKernan, Dennis Petsch, John Rutherford, Jan Tolf, Mary K. Weber, Dennis Bauer, John Dunn, Jon Oesterle, Charles Taylor and Frances Wheeler.

All of these people will be putting in some long volunteer hours, insuring that your local United Way is run as efficiently as possible. They deserve a hearty pat on the back.

In no way are the excesses of the national organization reflective of what goes on here in Chelsea. Again, please be assured that no dollars from Chelsea are forwarded to United Way of America.

AMERICAN BUSINESS WOMEN'S ASSOCIATION of Chelsea recently donated $100 to the Christmas in April-Washtenaw Program to be used in the Chelsea area. The program is a one-day program to fix up homes for the poor, elderly, or others who are unable to do the work themselves. From left are ABWA secretary Georgia Beeman, Dick Shaneyfelt, local Christmas in April coordinator, and Cindy Bear, ABWA president.

Mentorship Program Open for Interested High School Seniors

Six Chelsea High school seniors will have the opportunity to participate in the school's mentorship program next year.

Called the Focus Program, a student is paired with an expert in a field of particular interest to the student to provide direct experience as well as one-half unit of credit and a grade that will be incorporated into the student's grade point average. The idea is to give students the opportunity to pursue an interest that cannot be provided within the school curriculum.

A selection committee of teachers and a principal chooses the six seniors for the program. Priority is given to students with outstanding performance records, commitment, a specific special interest, and the ability to work independently.

Parents who wish to nominate their child may pick up a nomination form at the high school counseling office or may call 475-8131 to have a form mailed.

Specific questions about the program should be directed to counselor Chris Dimarin.

The first state law establishing Labor Day as a holiday was passed in 1887 in Oregon. Similar legislation was passed in Colorado and New York later that year, according to "Labor Firsts in America," a U.S. Labor Department publication.

NOTES

DONALD A. COLE, Director

"No one is useless in this world who lightens the burden of it to anyone else..."

—Dickens

Burdens always seem easy to come by. Most of our burdens we handle as a matter of course, but others may pose problems which are difficult to resolve without outside help. Those who provide it and thus "lighten the burden" are doing a great service.

There are countless opportunities to brighten someone's day by a kind deed or a cheerful word if we just look about us. Yes, those that do put forth this effort to help others perform a truly worthwhile service... one which we should all appreciate.

We believe that a funeral service should be a beautiful experience that prepares survivors for their adjustment to loss. We conduct our services accordingly.

MARCH IS READING MONTH has officially begun at North and South Elementary schools. Each student will be offered an opportunity to participate in the Multiple Sclerosis Read-a-Thon. Students will acquire pledges for each book they read and help raise money for a good cause while they practice their reading skills. During the month students will turn in reading contracts and weekly drawings will be held to award book prizes donated by parent-teacher groups at both schools. Some lucky children will be called between 6:30 p.m. and 8 p.m. to see if they've been caught reading. Those students will receive prizes donated by area restaurants. Above, Sheri Dixon of the Multiple Sclerosis Society tells children a little about the disease and how they can help.

Bicycle Tour Will Stop Over in Dexter

Dexter's stop on the Pedal Across Lower Michigan (PALM) bicycle tour will be hosted by Barb Bell, director of Dexter Community Education.

Thomas Glowacki, Dexter's PALM site co-ordinator, announced PALM XI will stop over at Dexter Community Schools on June 24.

Each year approximately 1,000 people bicycle from Lake Michigan to Lake Erie, Lake Huron or Lake St. Clair. The six-day tour is designed for first-time cycle-tourists.

A new route is carved by the cyclists each year, with daily cycling mileages of 35 to 55 miles. Family participation is encouraged.

Back-roads of Michigan are traveled and overnight stops are spent in schools along the way. Local community groups are contracted to provide meals.

At Dexter, the Knights of Columbus agreed to provide PALM with a chicken broil dinner. Evening activities, including bicycle related classes, will be open to the community.

This year, Chelsea and Dexter will host approximately 500 bicyclists each on Wednesday, June 24. Thursday evening will find the combined tour at Tecumseh.

Last year, 25 Dexter citizens, 10 Chelsea residents and eight Pinckney cycle-tourists participated in PALM X.

PALM donates four tours to each of the overnight stops. This includes the tour only, food or bus fees are additional.

Hornings Receive Conservation Award at SCD Annual Meeting

Horning Farms, Earl and Jeff, of Freedom township, were presented the "Walter Wolfgang Memorial" Conservation Farmer of the Year Award for 1991 at the 43rd annual meeting of the Washtenaw County Soil Conservation District, held Thursday, Jan. 23, at Freedom Township Hall.

The "Wolfgang Memorial" Award is presented to outstanding conservation farmers. The Hornings were recognized for their no-till, manure management, and efforts to reduce energy use and increase efficiency on their 400-acre dairy farm. The Hornings are also very active in Farm Bureau and other agricultural related organizations.

Over 100 people in attendance at the meeting were treated to a fascinating program entitled "Birds of Prey," presented by Dennis Laidler from Michigan United Conservation Clubs. His presentation using live, but disabled raptors, such as owls and hawks, provided the audience with a fact-not-fiction, look at these beautiful birds and their place in nature.

In addition to the featured program, reports on activities and accomplishments during 1991 by the Soil Conservation District and Soil Conservation Service were presented.

Two district directors were elected to three-year terms. With 49 votes cast, George Hinderer and Dennis Huehl, both of Freedom township, were elected.

The annual meeting was concluded with a drawing of door prizes donated by 12 county businesses, followed by refreshments.

IRS Offers Variety of Tax Help

Michigan taxpayers are filing their federal income tax returns earlier this year, and more of them are filing electronically, said IRS district director John Hummel. "So far, almost 1 1/2 million Michiganans have filed, and nearly 304,000 have already received their refunds, averaging about $1,000 each," Hummel said. "Since we expect over 4 million returns, we still have a way to go, and we are here and ready to help," he added.

"Taxpayers with questions about filing can call us toll free during normal business hours at 1-800-829-1040," Hummel said. "Tax information is also available 24 hours a day through a pre-recorded system called TELE-TAX. This computer assisted program provides information on over 150 tax topics and may be reached by calling 1-800-829-4477."

Hummel said the tax packages also include a list of forms and publications available from the IRS. There is a special number for ordering this free information. The number is 1-800-829-3678 and is available from 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.

The IRS also said that the Ann Arbor office of the IRS, located at Wolverine Tower, 3001 S. State St. will be open Monday through Friday, 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

"We're already halfway through the filing season," Hummel said. "So file now, file accurately, and remember, we are here to help."

Therapet Program Used in Hospitals

Therapet, an affiliate program of the Humane Society of Huron Valley, inspires hospital patients and nursing home residents with canine visitors.

Therapet program co-ordinator, Sue Fischer, told Lions Club members at their meeting Thursday, Feb. 20, that the program began in 1988 and has been extremely successful.

Volunteers in the program take their dogs to visit patients in hospitals and people living in nursing homes as part of therapy. The dogs are obedience trained and registered as service dogs. They are taken room to room or are brought into group activity.

At Mott's Children's Hospital Therapet is now incorporated in the regular activity schedule of many patients. Persons in the Alzheimer's and residential units of Chelsea Methodist Home are visited by animals every two weeks.

In June, the program will begin in additional units of the University Medical Center.

It is the only animal assisted therapy program known, Fischer said. At Mott's Children's Hospital rehabilitation goals are set and measured.

Therapet won an award for the newest kind of therapeutic activity at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital.

"The dogs love it, nurses love it and it is rewarding at both ends."

In other Lions news, Al Ritt visited the White Cane symposium in St. Johns on Saturday, Feb. 22. White Cane week is scheduled for April 24 through May 3.

The village president will sign a proclamation and club members spread public awareness of projects to prevent blindness and build support to aid the blind.

Club members volunteered to participate as workers in Christmas in April-Washtenaw, to be held on April 25.

BLOOD CHOLESTEROL SCREENING: Ms. DuRussel-Weston prepares to draw a blood sample for Andrea Tupper as a first step in developing an analysis of her blood for cholesterol content.

Hospital Offers Cholesterol Screening in Pinckney

Chelsea Community Hospital will offer blood cholesterol screening during Pinckney's fifth annual Open House on Wednesday, March 4.

Jean DuRussel-Weston, health educator at the hospital, urged local residents to take advantage of this opportunity to learn more about cholesterol and to understand what their blood cholesterol level is. "Heart disease is the leading cause of death in the United States, said DuRussel-Weston. "An estimated 41 percent of adults have total blood cholesterol that is either 'high' or 'borderline-high,' and high blood cholesterol is one of the three major modifiable factors leading to heart disease."

"The good news is that one can do something about high blood cholesterol by changing the way one eats and starting on a sensible exercise program. The first step is 'know your number,'" DuRussel-Weston concluded.

The screening will take place from 7 p.m. to 9 p.m. in the Community Complex/Jane Tasch Performing Arts Theater.

Donations Sought To Match Pledge for Pet Care Program

Pets in the Washtenaw area need your help, according to the Washtenaw Citizens for Animals Rights organization. To help reduce the pet overpopulation of Washtenaw county, WCAR sponsors a no-cost spay/neuter program for pets of low-income owners.

Area residents can help support this program by donating any amount to WCAR. The program has received a pledge from the Mosaic Foundation to match contributions up to $2,500 to underwrite the no-cost spay/neuter program.

Any donation will be a big help to the program. "Even five dollars is not too little to make a difference," says Maria Comninou of WCAR. And thanks to the Mosaic Foundation's pledge, every donation will be matched up to $2,500.

There is a catch, however. The Mosaic Foundation's donation is a matching pledge which means WCAR must receive contributions totaling $2,500 from other citizens and groups in order to qualify for the full amount of the Mosaic donation.

The Mosaic Foundation is a private organization established by local businessman and philanthropist Peter and Rita Heydon. The foundation provides financial support to many area programs.

During the first year of operation, 100 pets were sterilized. In the last couple of months, the recession has forced more pet owners to seek financial help and the program has already spayed or neutered 50 pets this year.

The operations are performed at the Brookside Veterinary Clinic or the veterinary clinic of the Huron Valley Humane Society, both of which charge WCAR special reduced rates for their services. Donations fund the spay/neuter program directly, and WCAR absorbs the overhead costs of administering the program.

Who qualifies for help in the no-cost spay/neuter program? Senior citizens living on fixed incomes, students struggling to support themselves through college, and persons who recently lost their jobs or are underemployed but want to take good—and responsible—care of a pet.

Many of these pets were strays and their owners have saved their lives by offering them a home, but few can really afford to pay for the needed veterinary care of most pets. Since the recession and economic downturn, says Comninou, "We've had many people calling for help because they can't even afford to feed the pets anymore."

She added that last year thousands of pets were euthanized at the Huron Valley Humane Society and that these were healthy animals that just didn't have a home. Or, someone wouldn't keep the pet because he couldn't afford to have it sterilized and didn't want to risk the pet reproducing in his backyard.

If you can make a contribution to the no-cost spay/neuter program, send your check or money order payable to WCAR to P.O. Box 2814, Ann Arbor 48106. You can also call 426-2492 if you need more information.

THIS ACRYLIC PAINTING of a pair of cardinals in a snow and ice encrusted tree was awarded first place in the Michigan United Conservation Club's annual Wildlife Art Contest. Michael Glenn Monroe of Brighton submitted the winning entry.

Brighton Man Named Outdoor Artist of Year

An acrylic painting of a bright red male cardinal and brown female cardinal earned Brighton artist Michael Glenn Monroe the title "Wildlife Artist of the Year" at Michigan United Conservation Clubs' 12th annual Wildlife Art Contest.

Monroe, 29, says this has been his year. He has entered MUCC's Wildlife Art contest for the past 10 years. Up until now, fourth place was his highest finish. Each painting had a different subject, although white-tail deer is his favorite subject. "Every year I try to do something different," Monroe said, a self-taught artist.

Other 1991 successes for Monroe include first place and best of show at the Harrisville 1991 art show and a spot in the top 100 out of 5,000 entries for a national art magazine art contest.

Monroe's first-place painting, "Winter's Song," is a gripping winter scene that shows the bird pair perched in a leafless tree. Snow flakes dot the work, as well as the matting, giving the painting a realistic third dimension.

"The real big challenge was the ice on the branches," Monroe said. "That's the first time I tried it."

MUCC presented Monroe with $2,000 as part of his first-place award. MUCC also offers for $75 prints of the winning painting that are numbered and signed by the artist. The work also will appear on the cover of the April issue of Michigan Out-of-Doors and on the cover of the 1993 wildlife art calendar, which will be available in October.

The subject of birds took four of the five top places in the art contest, that was held Feb. 1 at the Lansing Convention Center. There were 46 entries. Second place: Sally Wilson of Flushing for her painting of cardinals. Third place: Kim Diment of Oscoda, sandhill cranes. Fourth place: Dietmar Drumrey of Manistique, bald eagle. Fifth place: Karen Pamment of Paw Paw, largemouth bass.

Chelsea MEAP Scores Surpass State Averages

Chelsea School District students scored significantly better than the state-wide average on most tests administered in the Michigan Educational Assessment Program this year. "Although Chelsea's students did better than the state as a whole, there is still significant room for growth," testing co-ordinator wrote in a recent report to the Chelsea Board of Education.

Parents of students in the 10th grade who failed to perform satisfactorily on the tests are meeting with high school counselors and their children. Purpose of the meetings is to help the students pass the exam the next time it is administered so they can receive a state endorsement seal for their diplomas.

FOURTH GRADE
 On the reading test, 36.8 percent of Chelsea students scored at the top level, compared to 34.7 percent state-wide.

On the math test, 43.6 percent of Chelsea students performed satisfactorily, compared to 36.3 percent state-wide.

FIFTH GRADE
 On the science test, 83.2 percent of Chelsea students scored in the top category, compared to 69.4 percent state-wide.

SEVENTH GRADE
 On the reading test, 36.4 percent of Chelsea students scored in the top category, compared to 29.9 percent state-wide.

On the math test, 46.3 percent of Chelsea students performed satisfactorily, compared to 32 percent state-wide.

EIGHTH GRADE
 On the science test, 68.7 percent of Chelsea students scored in the top category, compared to 53.5 percent state-wide.

TENTH GRADE
 On the reading test, 52.4 percent of Chelsea students performed in the top category, compared to 38.7 percent state-wide.

On the math test, 31 percent of Chelsea students performed satisfactorily, compared to 18.7 percent state-wide.

ELEVENTH GRADE

MIKE TERPSTRA prepares to pin one of his early opponents during last Saturday's regional championships in Battle Creek. Terpstra took second at heavyweight but will move on to state competition next week.

Terpstra Second at Regionals, Readies To Defend State Title

Chelsea heavyweight Mike Terpstra will get the chance to defend his class B state title next week as the senior took second place at the regional tournament in Battle Creek last Saturday.

Junior Kevin McCalla also competed for Chelsea but didn't qualify for further competition.

Terpstra met Rollie Ferris of Delton-Kellogg in the finals and lost, 6-5, when he was called for an illegal handlock in the last three seconds of the match.

"I thought he had it," said Chelsea coach Kerry Kargel.

"Mike controlled the tempo of the match, and he'll tell you he should have won. I was proud of Mike because he handled it in a real sportsmanlike manner."

When the handlock was called,

Terpstra was ahead 5-4. However, because he had been called twice for stalling, the third infraction in the same category carried a two-point penalty. Normally a one-point penalty would be assessed.

Both wrestlers were called for stalling in the first period. In the second period Terpstra reversed Ferris to take a 3-1 lead. From there he held the lead until the final call.

"I think this should take some of the pressure off Mike," Kargel said.

"He was something like 39-0. It should make him work a little harder."

Ironically, it was Ferris who was victimized in the state finals last year by Terpstra in the final 24 seconds as Terpstra won 3-2.

"From what I saw, I think Mike can beat him if they meet again," Kargel said.

"Mike took him down and reversed him."

Terpstra reached the finals by pinning C.J. Remmo of Buchanan in 1:04 and Andy Staten of Dowagiac in 3:32.

McCalla, at 140 pounds, was one match away from qualifying for the state tournament. In his first match he was beating Eric Stevenson of Vicksburg, 6-2, with a minute left but got caught in a headlock in a five-point move.

McCalla dropped down into the bottom bracket and beat Joe Heikkila of Mason, 5-0. In his final match he lost to Ben Doolittle of Allegan, 10-2.

"I think Kevin was pretty tense due to the level of intensity," Kargel said.

"That weight class is also always one of the toughest."

Indians Take Another Tight Game from Dogs

For the first 30 minutes, the Chelsea Bulldogs had the Tecumseh Indians on the run last Friday in Tecumseh in one of the most exciting Chelsea games of the season.

But, just as in their first meeting in Chelsea in January, the Indians made the key plays in the last two minutes to take a 69-63 victory.

Chris Dunham's breakaway lay-up with 3:10 left pulled Chelsea to within one point, 60-59.

But the Indians went on to score five straight unanswered points, thanks in part to a pair of Chelsea turnovers, as well as a tip-in of a missed Tecumseh free throw by the Indians' Brian Burns.

The Bulldogs again turned the ball over on their next possession with 3:15 left to end much hope of a comeback.

"We certainly had our chances," said Chelsea coach Robin Raymond.

"But give Tecumseh credit, they made the plays, or forced us not to make the plays. Our full-court defense did the job, but when we should have converted we didn't. We still haven't learned how to control the game late, which has been our problem all season. It's an easy thing to say, but not an easy thing to understand."

Chelsea fell behind by 10 points in the first quarter but led 36-35 at half-time thanks to a three-point jumper from the top of the key by Ben Hurst at the buzzer.

The Bulldogs scored the first five points of the second half and appeared to be on the verge of breaking the game open. But Burns countered with two straight field goals, the second a three-pointer, to pull the Indians back to within a point at 41-40. With Chelsea ahead 47-45, the Indians scored seven straight points to take the lead for good.

"The one thing about Tecumseh is when you make a mistake on offense, they take the ball and score," Raymond said.

"There were several of those four-point swings."

Jon Royce and Dana Schmundk led the Chelsea attack in the first half with 11 and 10 points, respectively. Schmundk was hitting his short jumpers and his three-point play gave Chelsea its first lead at 25-22. They finished with 15 and 14 points.

In the second half, Dunham and Colby Skelton led the attack with 8 and 6 points, respectively.

Jake Rindle, who was in foul trouble most of the game, finished with two points.

Pat Steele, Skelton, and Dunham each had eight points, Hurst finished with six, and Dan Stahl had two.

Burns finished with 16, but the Indians were led by Ryan Williams with 19 points.

Chelsea was 24-57 from the field, while Tecumseh hit 27-63 tries. Each team was 12-20 at the foul line. The Indians won the battle on the boards, 43-35. Each team had 20 fouls. Chelsea had 18 turnovers to Tecumseh's 17, although six of Chelsea's turnovers came in the final period.

"In a game like that, that's a pretty decent number of turnovers for us," Raymond said.

COLBY SKELTON tries to drive around Tecumseh's Heathe Fowler during last Friday night's game at Tecumseh. Skelton and Fowler know each other well as Skelton played quarterback for Chelsea and Fowler was a linebacker.

"Tecumseh is a very aggressive team."

The Bulldogs fall to 4-7 in the Southeastern Conference. Tecumseh won the league two weeks ago.

In non-conference action at home last Tuesday, Chelsea lost to hot-shooting Jackson County Western, 75-63.

Senior guard Troy Ginzer did most the damage for Western as he was 13-20 from the field, including seven three-point goals, for a total 38 points. He had 25 points by half-time.

"They have two of the finest guards you'll ever see on one team," Raymond said.

"Even though Ginzer scored 38 points, we did a decent job defensively on him. Dan (Stahl) had a hand in his face all night. Ginzer does a great job moving off picks. He gets the ball and fires without any hesitation. Western did exactly what we thought they'd do, they fired it up."

Western's other guard, Jim Jarrett, scored 15 points in the second half.

Chelsea was within four points with a minute and a half to go. But Western went into a stall and when Chelsea applied defensive pressure, Ginzer and Jarrett were able to pass to open teammates for easy baskets.

"I thought we played pretty well," Raymond said.

"Western is a good team."

Steele came off the bench to score 20 points and grab 10 rebounds. Other scorers included Rindle 14, Skelton 6, Schmundk 6, Stahl 6, Royce 5, Dunham 3, Jason Allen 2, and Tom Poulter 1.

Chelsea was 23-63 from the field while Western was 27-62 with eight three-pointers. The Bulldogs were 17-24 from the line, while Western was 13-17.

The Bulldogs close out the regular season this Friday at home against the Pinckney Pirates before heading into the district tournament next week at Brooklyn Columbia Central. Chelsea is 8-11 over-all.

JV Spikers Win Finale

Chelsea Bulldogs junior varsity volleyball team beat Saline 15-11 and 15-7 in their final match of the year. Sophomores Tracy Patrick and Gretchen Stahl each had 10 service points, while freshman Kori White had nine.

"Our success has been with our setting all year," said Chelsea coach Rainey Bassemier.

"Beth Bell and Casey White set the ball extremely well to our outside hitters 95 percent of the time. The girls worked hard, and that, with improvement, is how I measure success."

Chelsea's JV team went 19-6-3 in match play. They won the Clinton Invitational and placed second in the Ypsilanti Tournament.

They were second in the Southeastern Conference with an 8-4 record.

8th Grade Spikers Win Two Matches

Beach Middle school eighth grade volleyball team won two tough matches in five games each over Dexter and Pinckney last week.

Chelsea took the Dexter match, 6-11, 11-0, 11-4, 3-11, and 11-7.

"This was a very competitive match," said Chelsea coach Ann Schaffner.

"We had our best serving with a season-high 93 percent, including 20 of 20 in the deciding fifth game. The entire team played well, but particularly the play of Lisa Beard and Tracy Dufek was solid."

Nikki Fite had nine service points, Amy Oake eight, Dufek seven, Beard five, and Amanda Kivi and Jessica Inwood had three each. Fite and Sarah Petty led in assists and Anne Frederick led in hits.

Chelsea won the Pinckney match, 11-7, 12-10, 9-11, 4-11, and 11-5.

Sara Petty served nine straight points in the opening game and finished with 15 service points. Dufek had eight service points, Oake and Liz Holdsworth each had four points, and Kivi, Jill McKinnon, Erin Baird, and Jeanine Moulliseaux each had three. Fite and Petty led in assists and Baird was the leading hitter.

SPORTS NOTES

BY BRIAN HAMILTON

It was pure humiliation. A major defeat in the truest sense of the word. And I was only off by six points in my private, pre-game prediction. We can't be accused of point shaving because we didn't have any points to shave.

Our basketball team in the Chelsea rec department's 30-and-over league lost every game this season, only a slight backward slide from last year when we really did record one victory.

Sunday we made the record books. We lost to the 3-D Steelers by about 65 points. In doing so, we became the first team in league history to give up 100 points in a game. Exactly 100. With four seconds left, they grabbed a rebound, took the ball up court, and swished a 22-footer at the buzzer for a three-pointer.

Under other circumstances that might have seemed like adding insult to injury. But the problem was, they played that way all game long. So why not try for the century mark?

I have to hand it to the Steelers. Compared to virtually every other team in the league they played like gentlemen. It was the least physical game I can remember, but that may only be due to the fact that they were three times faster than we were and we really couldn't have made good contact if we wanted to.

The Steelers, the 8-0 league champs who are moving on to a state tournament later this month, are populated by ex-Chelsea jocks, ex-pro athletes (actually only one that I know of), one large new bar owner in town, and a gimpy high school basketball coach. I kept suggesting that maybe the gimpy coach, well-known to Chelsea High school basketball fans, should be put in the game as a mercy gesture, simply because he's the one guy we could have beaten down court on a regular basis.

No such luck. It was actually a pretty good game for about two or three minutes. At one point the score was tied at 12.

To be fair about this, we were missing our two biggest guys. One was out with a broken hand. The other was, well, somewhere else. I can understand how one of my teammates might think he had something better to do. With those guys, we might have only lost by 45, but then again the Steelers might have scored 120 points because they would have shot more three-pointers. They must have hit well over 50 percent of their long shots.

I wish the Steelers well at the state level. I'm sure they realize, however, the competition will only get tougher.

Incidentally, our team is starting to recruit for next year. If you will be 30 years old by December, are 6-10, or can shoot the lights out from 25 feet, we want to hear from you. We're particularly interested in guys who are much closer to 30 years old than 40, since we're already overloaded at the top end. If you're under 30 but have a good fake ID, we'll work you in. The only other valuable asset for this league is what I call the Laimbeer factor. It's the ability to play intelligent, but brutal basketball, and the savvy to complain about it when you get caught and the other guys don't. Just practice rolling your eyes, throwing your hands up in the air, and yelling, "that's bull..."

Chelsea's high school basketball team closes out its regular season this Friday at home against Pinckney. Then it's on to the district tournament at Brooklyn Columbia Central.

This season has not turned out at all as I anticipated. Never did I expect the Bulldogs to finish under .500, but that will happen even if they win this Friday. They're 8-11.

So what happens? It's not a lack of talent or intensity. But no take-charge floor leader has emerged. There's been no one to take the ball in a close game and say "this is how we're going to win," and show the way. I don't know how a coach can get any player to become a leader if the player isn't born with that capacity. It's almost like teaching someone how to be quick.

Coch Robin Raymond will have plenty of talent back next year. If he can find that leader, he should have a formidable group. If not, his team could be a major disappointment.

CHAMPIONS of the men's 30-and-over basketball league sponsored by the Chelsea Recreation Department are 3-D Steelers, sponsored by Steele Heating & Cooling and 3-D Sales and Service. Varsity Spikers Drop SEC Matches, Play Well at Brat Invitational Chelsea Bulldogs varsity volleyball team lost to Tecumseh and Saline to close out the Southeastern Conference season last week.

Chelsea lost in two sets at Tecumseh on Monday, 13-15, 13-15. The lead changed hands in each game several times.

"Both teams played excellent volleyball," said Chelsea coach Dan Montgomery.

"In two games Chelsea had 419 attack attempts. That's almost double the number we would usually have. Both teams played great defense."

Chelsea served with 92 percent efficiency, as Leah Hadley went 10-10 and Gretchen Knutsen was 5-5. Melissa Thiel and Amanda Nimke each went 13-14 while Jennifer Petty was 8-9.

Petty led the attack, going 25-26 for seven kills, Thiel was 17-19 for six kills, Royce was 10-10 for three kills, and Nimke went 24-33 for eight kills.

Chelsea lost on Thursday to the undefeated Saline Hornets, 7-15, 9-15. "Saline has few weaknesses," Montgomery said.

"We hung with them for most of the game, but then they found our weak spots and took advantage of them. They are very consistent."

Hadley and Thiel were each 6-6 in aces and 26 points, Nimke was 40-44 with 30 points, Amy Petty was 26-30 with 12 aces and 20 points, Thiel was 29-34 with 18 points, and Knutsen was 25-29 for 12 points.

On offense, Nimke successfully attacked 40-52 with 17 kills, Thiel was 28-31 for 11 kills, Jennifer Petty was 24-27 for 11 kills, Amy Petty was 19-23 for seven kills, and Royce was 13-16 for six kills. Tara Roehm, Emily Carly, and Jamie Collinsworth also contributed.

Chelsea finished the regular season Saturday at the Brat Invitational hosted by Ann Arbor Huron and Ypsilanti High schools.

The Bulldogs finished first in their five-team pool after beating Dexter (15-7, 15-10), Pioneer (15-10, 15-4), Garden City (15-12, 15-13), and South Lyon (15-2, 15-3).

Chelsea advanced to the quarterfinals to face Brighton, the Kensington Valley Conference champions. There the Bulldogs fell 9-15, 13-15.

Saline eventually won the tournament. "This was Chelsea's best-played match of the entire season," Montgomery said.

"There was a huge height mismatch with every team we faced and we successfully overcame the dominating 6-footers."

Hadley led the way in serving with 51-53 attempts, including 16 aces and 35 points. Jennifer Petty was 34-41 with 12

Archery Shoot Helps Kids With Summer Camp

Chelsea Rod and Gun Club sponsored and hosted a benefit, walk-through 3D archery shoot in January at the Pine View Clubhouse grounds.

While 344 archers were showing their skills, they also will help send youth to the Michigan United Conservation Club (MUCC) summer camp this year.

All of the proceeds of the benefit shoot, totaling $2,000, were divided between the MUCC Youth Camp for purchasing needed equipment and the Rod and Gun's Youth Camp fund which is used to send kids to the camp located at our local Mill Lake, in the Waterloo Recreation Area.

Children ages 9-16 attend the camp for one-week sessions, Mark Stephens, camp director said, "unlike other summer camp experiences available, the MUCC camp offers a completely structured format that requires individuals to participate in a variety of outdoor activities and in-classroom learning experiences."

The MUCC camp will be entering its 56th year in 1992 and stresses ecology, safety, and wildlife protection. Stephens stated, "It is good to see clubs like the Chelsea Rod and Gun Club getting involved in fund-raising as well as sending kids to camp as they always have."

MUCC is the largest non-profit state federation of conservation organizations in America. It is dedicated to the wise use of our natural resources and educating citizens in conservation, environmental protection and enhancement. The Chelsea Rod and Gun Club is a very active and charter member of the MUCC.

The club offers the 30 target course once a month from January through September. The shoots are open to the public and have become a family affair for the young and mature alike. Dates for this year are March 8, April 12, May 3, June 7, July 12, Aug. 2, Aug. 30, and Sept. 20. All shoots are from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m.

Freshman Cagers End Season With Close Win Over Indians

Chelsea Bulldogs freshman basketball team closed out its season at home last week with a 67-64 victory over the Tecumseh Indians in overtime. Two free throws by Bryndon Skelton with less than a minute left in overtime cinched the win.

Chelsea trailed most of the way before the game was tied in regulation play at 56.

"You really have to give this team credit," said Chelsea coach Dave Quilter.

"This is the second time we've defeated Tecumseh this season by three points. This was so typical of many of our wins this year, with so many players contributing to the victory."

Quilter said his team began to apply more pressure on defense and began to penetrate more on offense beginning mid-way through the third quarter. The Bulldogs used a full-court trap to help hold Tecumseh to 39 percent from the field. The Chelsea offense converted numerous lay-ups late in the game.

Case McCalla and Adam Beauchamp combined for 43 points (23 by McCalla).

Other scorers included Dan Wehrwein 8, Skelton 6, Pat Lynch 6, Kevin Coy 2, and Jim Tallman 2.

McCalla had a team-high 12 rebounds and Josh Inwood had six.

Each team had 24 field goals, but the Bulldogs went to the free throw line 11 more times and made three more shots.

Chelsea JV Cagers Have Difficult Week

Chelsea Bulldogs junior varsity basketball team fell to 5-14 on the season with lopsided losses to Tecumseh and Jackson County Western last week.

At Tecumseh on Friday, Chelsea trailed the entire way and fell 83-58.

Cory Brown led the Bulldogs with 16 points and was the only Chelsea player in double figures. Other scorers included David Stimpson 8, Jason McVittie 7, Matt Seltz 7, Nathan Mackinder 5, Chad Brown 4, Matt Powell 4, David Seltz 3, Scott Larson 2, and Gabe Bernhard 2.

On Tuesday at home, the Bulldogs again trailed throughout the game to take a 79-55 loss.

Scorers for Chelsea included Larson 9, Mackinder 8, Steve Harness 6, McVittie 6, Bernhard 6, David Seltz 5, Cory Brown 5, Chad Brown 4, Matt Powell 3, Matt Seltz 2, and David Stimpson 1.

"Steve Harness played his best game of the season," said Chelsea coach Lonnie Mitchell.

Chelsea Girl Scouts Celebrate 80th Birthday

Girl Scouts across the country will be celebrating the 80th anniversary of Scouting in the United States. Chelsea scouts are planning special events to enjoy this birthday week of March 8-14.

On Sunday, March 8, all Chelsea Girl Scouts and their Dads (or significant others) will attend the long-running, Chelsea tradition of the Father-Daughter Dinner. After sharing a potluck dinner, the group of about 400 will enjoy square dancing to the calling of Luke Schaible.

On Thursday, March 12, the Girl Scout birthday, today's young Scouts and former Scouts will be participating in "Promise Circles" across the nation at the same time. In Chelsea, all the Scouts will be meeting at Beach school for this rededication ceremony at 4:15 p.m., at the outside flagpole. All Chelsea alumni who have not yet been contacted, are invited to come and join their fellow Scouts in this special moment.

Finally, for the entire month of March, there will be a display of Scouting memorabilia in the Chelsea Depot. The display is open Mondays and Thursdays from 10 to 4 p.m., and Saturday from 1 to 3 p.m.

LYNDON TOWNSHIP BOARD OF REVIEW

Notice is hereby given to all persons liable to assessment for taxes in the

TOWNSHIP OF LYNDON

County of Washtenaw, State of Michigan

That the Assessment Roll of said Township as prepared by David Miller, Township Assessor, will be reviewed by the Board of Review on Tuesday, March 3, 1992, 7:30 p.m., at from 9 to 12 a.m. and 1 to 4 p.m.

TUESDAY, MARCH 10, 1992

from 1 to 4 p.m. and 6 to 9 p.m.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 18, 1992

from 6 p.m. to 9 p.m.

Due to the property tax freeze for 1992 (Public Act 15 of 1991) the Board of Review can increase or decrease the 1992 assessments only for the following reasons: Assessments set by the assessing officer where the assessor has not already properly recognized additions and losses, splits or combinations, 1991 Michigan Tax Tribunal decisions, 1991 July or December Board of Review decisions or 1991 decisions by the State Tax Commission and exemption issues (this includes "hardship" exemptions). Also the Board of Review may adjust the value of property protested by a taxpayer if the taxpayer acquired the property after January 1, 1991 by will, through foreclosure, or by a bonafide arms-length purchase and the assessment was not appealed in 1991. Personal property assessments are not affected by the tax freeze.

Such assessment tax roll as reviewed and approved by said Board of Review will be the assessment roll of said Township of Lyndon for the year 1992.

A resident taxpayer may file his or her protest with the Board of Review by appointment or letter (without an appearance) by the taxpayer or his or her agent. A letter must be received by the first day of the Board of Review. (Monday, March 9, 1992) from 9 to 12 a.m. and 1 to 4 p.m.

Wednesday, March 11, 1992

from 4 p.m. to 10 p.m.

the Board of Review will be in session. Upon request of any person who is assessed on said tax roll, or of his or her agent and upon sufficient cause being shown, said Board of Review will correct the assessment as to such property in such manner as will in their judgment make the valuation relatively just and equal.

Such assessment tax roll as reviewed and approved by said Board of Review will be the assessment roll of said Township of Sylvan for the year 1992.

All ratios for 1992 are 50.0, factor 1.00.

P.A. 135 of 1991, freezes the 1992 assessments for real property at the 1991 assessments as equalized for 1991 except for certain allowable adjustments such as for new additions and losses, etc. Any allowable adjustments or changes must be valued at the 1991 level. Personal property assessments are not affected by P.A. 135.

DONALD SCHOENBERG, Supervisor

Dated: Feb. 12, 1992.

DEXTER TOWNSHIP BOARD OF REVIEW

Notice is hereby given to all persons liable to assessment for taxes in the

TOWNSHIP OF DEXTER

County of Washtenaw, State of Michigan

That the Assessment Roll of said Township as prepared by Larry Morte, Township Assessor, will be reviewed by the Board of Review on Tuesday, March 3, 1992, 5:30 p.m. at

from 3:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m.

FOR 1992 ONLY the law allows the March Board of Review to increase or decrease the 1992 assessments only for the following reasons:

Assessments set by the assessing officer for those instances where the assessor has not already properly recognized additions and losses, splits or combinations, exemption issues or the impact of 1991 Michigan Tax Tribunal decisions, 1991 July or December Board of Review decisions, or 1991 decisions by the State Tax Commission.

In addition the March Board of Review may adjust the value of a property protested by a taxpayer at the 1992 Board of Review meeting if the taxpayer acquired the property after January 1, 1991 by will, through foreclosure, or by a bonafide arms-length purchase and DID NOT APPEAL THE ASSESSMENT IN 1991. The Board of Review may also accept the protest and adjust the valuation of property owners protesting exemption issues. This includes "poverty" exemptions.

Tentative ratios are: Agriculture .50, factor 1.0; Commercial 1.0, factor 1.0; Industrial .50, factor 1.0; Residential .50, factor 1.0.

A resident taxpayer may file his or her protest with the Board of Review by letter without an appearance by the taxpayer or his or her agent, subject to the above conditions. A letter must be received by the first day of the Board of Review. (Monday, March 9, 1992.)

The Dexter Township Board of Review will hear appeals by appointment and taxpayers or their agents may set the appointment by calling Gail at 426-3767 Mondays or Wednesdays 10:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. ONLY. at which time, upon request of any person, or his or her agent, who is assessed on this tax roll and if sufficient cause is shown, the Board of Review will correct the assessment on the property in question in a manner that will, in their judgment, make the valuation relatively just and equal. KATHLEEN CHAPMAN, known as Katie, is running unopposed for her fourth term as village treasurer in the March 9 village elections. She has lived in the Chelsea area most of her life. A former secretary, she retired from the Washtenaw County Co-operative Extension Service in 1976. She has served as a member of the board of directors of Faith in Action and as president of the Advisory Council of Senior Citizens. She is a member of the Senior Connection Program Planning at Chelsea Community Hospital.

Council Accepts Bid To Modify New Fire Truck

Chelsea Village Council has accepted a bid of $15,660.43 for the modification of a new Jeep Wrangler into a vehicle to fight grass fires. Wolverine Fire Apparatus Co. will perform the custom work at a price $331.88 higher than the other bid. Chief Bud Harker recommended Wolverine because the department has done business with the company previously, and because Wolverine is located closer to Chelsea. He indicated numerous trips to the company would be needed to check on the progress of construction.

Fire Department To Buy Sirens For Volunteers

The village has agreed to purchase 25 sirens for voluntary emergency vehicles in the new budget year, which started Monday. An inquiry by village resident George Navin to the state attorney general's office resulted in a letter which indicated it might be a good idea for the volunteer vehicles to have the sirens.

With the sirens, volunteer firefighters can drive their vehicles in a different manner than ordinary drivers in an emergency situation. Navin's letter suggested children would be more aware of the presence of an emergency vehicle if it had a siren. The letter from the state said there could be liability problems for the village without the sirens. Cost of the sirens is $189 each. Part of the cost would be charged back to the townships in the same manner as any other fire department equipment purchase.

New Beginnings Offers Support to Bereaved

The grievance support and discussion group of St. James Episcopal church in Dexter will begin meeting again Monday, March 9 at 7:30 p.m., following a brief winter hiatus.

Called "New Beginnings," the group is led by Faye Wiseley and will start with a special six-week program to aid those who have experienced a loss—usually through death—through the grieving and coping process.

The first six meetings are a little more structured than later discussions because they will focus on "explaining what the bereaved are feeling, and that it's okay to feel what they're feeling," Wiseley explained.

Coping with loss is difficult, Wiseley said. It's normal to feel despair, depressed, angry, abandoned, even cheated following the death of a loved one.

Wiseley says new members are welcome to join the support group at any time, noting that "there is something new to learn at each session."

After the initial six-week program, "we go on as a discussion support group to talk about feelings and coping for as long as we're needed," she added.

Wiseley got involved with grievance programs several years ago. "My son died 13 years ago and I went through a great deal of pain," Wiseley said. "I thought I was going crazy, but I wasn't—it was all part of the grieving process."

Following her loss, Wiseley looked into grievance support groups offered elsewhere around the state, and has been leading the New Beginnings program in Dexter since its founding four years ago.

One of about 85 programs in the state, New Beginnings will meet every Monday, 7:30-9 p.m., at St. James church. If you have questions about the program you may call Wiseley at 426-8931, or leave a message at 426-8247.

There is no charge for participation in this program.

SOFT DRINK MACHINE VENDOR BID REQUEST:

Pineckey Recreation Area is seeking bids from companies interested in placing soft drink vending machines at the Bruin Lake Campground.

The Bruin Lake Campground is located in the northwest corner of Washtenaw County. The Campground has 220 modern campsites with attendance of 83,663 between mid-May to the end of September.

Placement of the machines would be outside three restroom/shower buildings within the Campground. The period of time the machines would be required to be in place is from May 15 to September 30. None of the sites designated for vending machines have electrical outlets. It would be the responsibility of the successful bidder to install an electric line for an outlet from the existing electric service within the buildings. All machines will be kept stocked by the vendor. Each of the sites lacks on-site space for product storage.

Parties interested in bidding within the confines as stipulated, respond on or before April 1, 1992. Include the rate of return to the State of Michigan. Send bids to: Pineckey Recreation Area, Mich. Dept. of Natural Res., 8855 Silver Hill Rd., Pineckey, MI 48169. Telephone: (313) 426-4919. c42-2

CARD OF THANKS

We would like to thank the Chelsea Rescue Squad, Police Dept., Huron Valley Ambulance Service and the Chelsea Community Hospital for their assistance during our mother's recent illness. Also, special thanks to Staffan-Mitchell Funeral Home for their help and kindness. Our mother is gone but will never be forgotten. Thanks to Chelsea Church of Christ and to the many friends and neighbors who helped us through this time of sorrow with prayers, kind words, visits and food. Words cannot express our feelings for all that everyone did. God bless you all.
The family of Sarah Marshall.

CARD OF THANKS

To the Good Folks of Chelsea, please accept our heartfelt thanks and appreciation for your sympathy and kindness to us during the recent loss of our beloved husband, father, grandfather and great-grandfather, Louis H. Burghardt. We especially thank the Rev. Erwin Koch for his words of comfort, Donna Gaunt for her fine music, and Don and Linda Cole for their caring service. We also thank the ladies of St. Paul church for providing the coffee hour following the service, American Legion Post No. 31 for their graveside military tribute and the kind people who sent flowers and memorial gifts to Chelsea Community Hospital.

CARD OF THANKS

We cannot tell you how much the love and affection shown during the illness and death of our husband and father, Edward Lewis, meant to us. A special thank-you to Katie Parks who helped us at home during Ed's illness, to Dr. Jerry Waldyke for his caring and home visits, to our friends and neighbors for the food and comfort they provided, and to our friends who visited Ed at home and in the hospital. Our heartfelt thanks to Don Cole and Walt Zeb for all they did during this sad time. Our gratitude to Masonic Lodge 166 for the special service they presented. We also want to express our thanks to the Chelsea Kiwanis Club for providing the honor guard at the funeral. We are also indebted to our friend, Stanley Pyett, for his heart-warming message at the service. It meant so much to us to have Ed remembered with such affection. Thank you all.

★ Resolving To Make 1992 A Better Year ...

The holidays are over and the new year is about to begin. Many of us will greet 1992 with gusto—and a dog-eared list of well-intentioned goals for self-improvement.

For some, making New Year's resolutions has become a holiday tradition. Unfortunately, many resolutions are familiar ones that seem to pop up annually, such as to stop smoking—again—or to lose 10 pounds by Valentine's Day.

The reason many resolutions never get off the ground is because people tend to set unrealistic goals for themselves, according to psychologist Ovide Pomerleau, Ph.D., director of the Behavioral Medicine Program at the University of Michigan Medical Center.

"If you look at the over-all pattern of resolutions, they sound good, but they don't mean much," he says. A more realistic—and successful—approach to reaching self-improvement goals is to avoid the trap of setting mental imperatives, such as "I'll always" or "I'll never." Most people expect more of themselves than they can deliver, so they doom themselves to failure from the start. Setting up impossible, or improbable, situations steers them that way.

Here are some guidelines for successful resolutions:

• Live in the present, not in the future. For example, don't say, "I'll exercise in six months when I'm thin and looking good in exercise clothes." Instead, start right away. But do so in sensible, gradual increments that are realistic and possible to accomplish. "You should build on your successes—not on your heroics," Pomerleau says. "For example, begin exercising 15 to 20 minutes a day for the first two weeks, then increase the time to half an hour. Don't go out there the first week and overdo it."

• Be willing to take time and practice the new behavior. After all, new attitudes or behaviors take time to establish—and take even longer to become second nature.

• By the time a person is 40 years, old, he or she has sat down to meals roughly 40,000 times. Changing set eating patterns after that much time not only takes a great deal of ambition, but it requires that the person set a daily schedule for practicing those changes.

• Monitor the behavior, whether desirable or undesirable. If you monitor a behavior designated as desirable, it increases the behavior, while if you monitor a behavior that is undesirable, it will decrease the behavior. "It forces you to acknowledge negative activities that you may not have even been aware of before, and it also forces you to acknowledge when you do something constructive that is leading toward your goal," Pomerleau says.

Historical Society Hosts Famed Landscape Historian, Planner

Scott Kunst, a nationally recognized landscape historian and preservation planner will present his slide presentation and lecture, "Antique Gardens: American Home Landscapes, 1800-1940" at the Monday, March 9 meeting of the Chelsea Area Historical Society. The meeting begins at 7:30 p.m. at the Depot in Chelsea.

Kunst's slide lecture outlines the changing styles of gardening and offers essential information to home owners who want to preserve, restore or recreate an historic landscape.

Scott researches and prepares restoration plans for historic landscapes in Michigan and the Midwest. His projects have included the Commanding Officer's House at Historic Fort Wayne in Detroit, the Sarah Jordan Boarding House and the Wright Brothers House at Greenfield Village, the 1906 formal garden by Charles A. Platt at the Saginaw Art Museum, and the unusually well-preserved 1880s flower-garden at the Davis mansion in Bloomington, Ill. He is a regular contributor to the Old House Journal and other national publications, and has created a widely distributed "Source List for Historic Seeds and Plants" for the Association for Living History Farms and Agricultural Museums.

The question and answer period after the presentation will provide an opportunity to ask questions specific to landscaping your period house. Handouts selected by Scott will also be available.

The meeting is open to the public and refreshments will be served.

Spinners' Flock Hold Winter Fleece Fair at Beach School

The Winter Fleece Fair sponsored by the Spinners' Flock, was held Sunday, Feb. 23 at Beach school. Approximately 500 visitors, some from out of state, came to town for the semi-annual event.

Many handspinners came for freshly shorn fleece or carded wool to spin for their next sweater. Other visitors enjoyed watching spinners working at their wheels, creating custom yarns from a wide variety of fibers. Knitters and weavers carried the boutique items, planning their own creative projects using handspun yarns.

A hand-made wool afghan, made cooperatively by many members of the Spinners' Flock was on display. The yarn, all hand-spun, was knitted in varied shades of natural sheep colors, highlighted by dyed-in-the-wool blues, violets, and reds. The lucky winner of the drawing was Mary Hazlett (see picture). A check for the proceeds of $187 was presented to the Chelsea Education Foundation at the "Mardi Gras at the Grill" benefit.

The Spinners' Flock is an enthusiastic group of handspinners who promote all forms of woolcraft and fiber arts. They meet monthly at Beach school and welcome visitors and newcomers. For information phone Charlotte at 475-8188. In today's high-stress world a surprising number of craftpeople find relaxation from learning the ancient skill of handspinning. Their friends and family benefit by receiving hand-made caps, scarfs and sweaters that are great protection from Michigan winters.

Some members of The Spinners' Flock raise sheep and provide specially selected fleece in natural black, brown and gray colors for other hand-spinners. Sorting, washing, carding, dyeing, and spinning local wool into unique yarns for needle work is not the only use for these quality fleeces. Non-spinners are encouraged to learn felting, locker-hooking, and kiwi craft. Quilt and comforter batts, and felt rugs are produced. The Fleece Fairs feature a huge variety of products utilizing wool, an abundant, renewable, biodegradable, local resource.

CHELSEA'S FUTURE THE CHOICE IS YOURS

An Open Letter to the Voters of the Village

MARCH 4, 1992

Dear Voter:

The Village of Chelsea is at a crossroads. It can decide to continue on the path of aggressive leadership and change OR it can choose to restructure our local government and lose the momentum and continuity for programs now underway. In the last two years, the Village Council under the guidance of PRESIDENT RICHARD STEELE has begun the process of doing what government is supposed to do—make policies and plans that protect the community and that can be built upon. This team effort, of which FRANK HAMMER and JOE MERKEL were an important part, has resulted in many achievements and accomplishments. These include:

- Expanding Chelsea's tax base by encouraging new and existing businesses to locate or expand in the downtown and the Village's industrial park. These efforts have resulted in the expansion of such industries as Hatch Stamping and BookCrafters and the opening of many, new businesses even during a time of economic downturn.
- The reversal of the State of Michigan's decision to close the Secretary of State's office and the retention of it in Chelsea.
- Establishment of the Western Washtenaw Recycling Authority supported by a $330,000 state grant—unique in the state because of the number of governmental units participating. This combined with the implementation of a bag and tag garbage collection system, and the new recycling program have saved money for our citizens and has reduced projected budget costs for refuse collection by 45%.
- A major facelift for the downtown including new lighting and significant, additional, free parking, a joint financial effort between local governments and private enterprise.
- The initial implementation of a planned infrastructure improvement package including the development of a five year program to repair the village's deteriorating water, sewer, electric, sidewalk and street system.
- The hiring of Jack Myers as Village Manager and the putting in place of improved financial and personnel controls including the establishment of a council Ways and Means committee to assist in the Village's annual budgeting process.
- The initiation of negotiations with DNR and surrounding townships regarding the landfill and the appropriate sharing of costs; with AATA to insure bus service is continued but at a reduced cost to the Village; with the Village unions resulting in a three year contract which provides for stability in the Village's provision of critical services to its citizens.

While much has been achieved, there are still many challenges to be met and much more to be accomplished. Issues such as the landfill, Village finances, improved professionalism of Village employees, planning and the control of the impact of growth must continue to be dealt with on a day-to-day basis.

The team to meet these challenges is in place and has demonstrated by action their ability to deal with difficult issues. At this critical juncture, we believe the community cannot afford a return to the past. WE MUST MAINTAIN THE MOMENTUM AND CONTINUITY THAT KNOWLEDGEABLE LEADERSHIP CAN BRING.

The choice is ours. We urge you to join with us in supporting the re-election of:

Village President Richard Steele
Trustee Frank Hammer
Trustee Joe Merkel

BUT MOST IMPORTANT OF ALL, VOTE MARCH 9!
YOUR VOTE COUNTS.

Sincerely,
Committee for Chelsea's Future
