Farmer's Market Moved To Municipal Lot Due To Liability Problem

So far, the third year has not proven to be a charm for the Chelsea Farmer's Market.

The market, which has grown substantially in each of its first two years, got off to a shaky start last Saturday as it was abruptly moved from the Chelsea Depot parking lot, its home the last two years, to the Municipal Parking Lot behind the E. Middle, Main, Park, and East St. block.

And it appears the market will probably move again after this Saturday to the new parking lot between South and W. Middle Sts.

For at least this week, the market will again be held in the municipal lot. The trouble stems from problems with liability insurance.

Last Thursday the Depot Association Board of Directors held an emergency meeting to discuss the liability insurance issue. They have discovered that individual board members are not covered for special events on their property. And the association owns the parking lots on both sides of its Jackson St. depot building, where the farmer's market has been held each of the last two years. The lots are leased to the village as parking lots.

Dudley Holmes, Jr., a depot association board member and vice-president of family-owned Chelsea Milling Co., had threatened to resign unless there was written proof, which never materialized, that individual members are protected against liability claims.

Other board members apparently felt the same way and the board voted unanimously not to allow the market on depot property.

Holmes said insurance covering directors for special events is "prohibitively expensive." He mentioned a figure of $500 per day.

The fear is that if an accident were to occur that could be tied to the market, individual board members would be sued. Without insurance, someone could pursue the assets of Chelsea Milling Co., for example, or Staffan-Mitchell Funeral Home, because Gloria Mitchell is a member, or the assets of any other member.

Until this year, the depot board was apparently satisfied that insurance was not an issue. Village manager Jack Myers said the association nearly stopped the market last year, but a copy of the village's liability insurance policy was faxed at the last minute, and the document apparently satisfied the association. It was the insurance question, in fact, that caused the lease agreement to be signed with the village, Myers said.

The village's policy would view the depot lot as just another village parking lot, Myers said.

This year, Myers said, the depot association dug into the question and found individual board members are not covered.

Initial market organizers Greg Raye and H.K. Leonard do not believe

Forensics Team Fourth in State

Chelsea High school forensics team placed fourth in the state in class B at the annual state tournament held last Friday and Saturday at Western Michigan University.

The duo of Scott Leeman and Rob Coelius took first place with their performance of "The Author's Voice," by Richard Greenburg.

Coelius became the first Chelsea High school student to win two state titles during his career. He was also the first CHS student to qualify for the state three times.

Becky Pryor took a third place in poetry with her interpretation of "Savage/Love" by Sam Sheperd, a poem about first meetings.

The 9-10 duo of Jessica Cauffiel and Christine Koch placed 12th with "Self-Torture and Strenuous Exercise" by Harry Kondoleon.

Carey Wallace placed 14th in oratory with "Poison in Your Mouth," a piece about dental fillings.

A total of 106 schools participated in a tournament won by Frankenmuth.

Surprise Resignation, Growth at High School May Decrease Lay-Offs

Two fewer teachers may be laid off than previously announced by the Chelsea School District just a couple of weeks ago. The district has given pink slips to five teachers, a counselor, and two media center aides in the event a 1.95 mill increase is denied by district voters June 8.

The reasons are a surprise resignation at Beach Middle school and a 10 percent increase in students at Chelsea High school next year.

Beach science teacher Alice Steinbach resigned at Monday's board of education meeting after nearly 27 years of service to the district.

Her resignation, said superintendent Joe Piasecki, was "a surprise to a lot of people."

Piasecki said he anticipates the resignation will allow the district to lay-off one less person next year due to staff juggling. Exactly which teacher will retain his or her job—music teacher Steven Hinz, art teacher Janet Alford, high school English teacher Marie Polakowski, and elementary school teacher Tracy Heydrauff—won't be announced until the next school board meeting.

The other factor in the lay-off situation is the extraordinary size of the eighth grade class, which will move to Chelsea High school next year. Piasecki said it is anticipated the high school will grow from about 700 students to at least 775 students.

"We've completed our scheduling for next year and there's no way we can accommodate the increased number of students with existing staff," Piasecki said.

"We have an over-abundance in English and science."

How that will affect the staff situation has not been determined.

Piasecki said. He said next year's budget was designed to take the growth into account so the over-all budget figures should not change.

Steinbach's resignation also resulted in an extended offer for early retirement for all staff members. Both Piasecki and Chelsea Education Association President Joe Beard appealed to the board to allow the early retirement offer to be extended to Steinbach, due to the circumstances of her retirement "and her exemplary service." That means any other staff members will have until next Tuesday to decide whether to take the offer.

In other board business, the pros and cons of Channel One were discussed again, and the board will make some decision on the service at their next meeting.

Whittle Communications will install televisions in every classroom at Beach Middle school and Chelsea High school, wire the schools for cable to each room, and hook up each room to the media center, all free of charge. The requirement is that students watch 12 minutes of Channel One programming every school day. The program is a fast-paced mix of news, feature stories, public service announcements, and about two minutes of advertisements for various products of interest to teenagers.

Other than the required 12-minute program, the schools are free to use the equipment however they want. They can use commercial-free educational tapes provided by the company, use their own tapes, hook the televisions up to computers, or tap into cable news programs when fast-breaking news stories occur.

Main objections to the service appear to be the use of television for learning, the requirement to watch advertisements, and the perception that the system would create passive learning.

"At this point I really don't know what the recommendation is going to be," Piasecki said.

Another concern is where the additional 12 minutes would come from. Piasecki said one option would be to reduce class time by about two minutes, which would be approved by the North Central Association, the district's accrediting agency. A few years ago the district increased each class time by 2½ minutes in response to a recommendation from the association. Another option would be to lengthen the school day by 12 minutes, which would have to be advertised.

Randy Musbach Elected To Head Bar Association

Local trial lawyer, Randy A. Musbach, on April 23 was elected president of the 550 member Washtenaw County Bar Association.

Randy will serve a one-year term as president. He will represent the county bar association at the Michigan State Bar Association's meeting this spring on Mackinac Island and the American Bar Association's annual meeting this summer in San Francisco, Calif.

The county bar association has grown dramatically in recent years, forming different groups to encourage education and public service.

Other officers for 1992-1993 are Robert Gillett, vice-president, Stefani Carter, secretary, and Carol Hollenshead, treasurer.

Randy has practiced law in Chelsea with William J. Rademacher the past 10 years and limits his practice to closed head brain injury and no-fault automobile accident cases.

Village Council Splits Electric, Water Depts.

The village has split its Electric and Water Department into two distinct departments.

In the process, acting electric and water head Dan Rosentreter has been appointed head of the Water Department and temporary "overseer" of the electric department.

The split was made due to growth in the village, said village president Richard Steele. Growth of the electrical and water systems has made the department too unwieldy for one person to handle.

Each department will have three employees that report to the department head.

Village manager Jack Myers said the split should make it easier to find a department head for the electric department. For more than a year the village has sought someone to run the combined department, but most applicants have had experience in only one area. Rosentreter was appointed acting-head late last year, but he had no electrical experience, which was the source of some controversy.

Myers has an interview scheduled for this week with a 50-year-old master electrician and journeyman from Adrian. If that interview doesn't work out, he said, the position would be re-advertised.

Myers said the new position is an unbudgeted item. However, by not hiring someone for a vacant foreman's job, the immediate cost of a new department head will be about $3,000. Salaries of department heads start in the low $30,000s, Myers said.

The departments have begun moving into their new facility at the village's industrial park.

In a somewhat related matter, depositions start this month in the case filed against the village by former electric and water department head Paul Newhouse.

Newhouse has claimed he was dropped from the job due to discrimination because a county electrical inspector, after a call from Newhouse, discovered electrical work was being performed by a licensed contractor at Steele's home without a permit. The village maintains Newhouse was demoted because he couldn't handle the job.

Newhouse is scheduled to give his deposition this Thursday, May 7, while Steele and Myers are both scheduled for May 28.

Fire Hall Expansion Postponed by Council

Proposed expansion of the Chelsea Fire Department has been put on hold for "a couple of years."

Firefighter Tom Osborne had proposed that the fire hall on W. Middle St. be expanded to include an enlarged meeting area for conducting classes and other meetings.

Village council's Ways and Means Committee met to discuss the possible expenditure of $5,000 to $6,000 for preliminary architectural drawings. Fire chief Bud Hankerd also attended. The committee concluded that because no money has been budgeted for the project, no money will be spent.

Trustee Frank Hammer, a member of the committee, told council the village could consider building another station on the south end of the village.

Initially Osborne proposed that the village build another station somewhere north of the village, perhaps in Lyndon township. When that idea was abandoned, he proposed the current hall be expanded.

KING AND QUEEN of the annual Chelsea High school prom from last Saturday night were seniors Adam Tillman and Becky Erskine.

 King and Queen of the 1988 Chelsea High school prom were Mike Mitchell and Mintz vanReeseema. The couple was elected by those who attended the Saturday night event at Chelsea High school.

A state mediator would be called in to help negotiations between the Village of Chelsea and the police union. Assistant Village Manager Lee Fahrner told council that contract negotiations with the Fraternal Order of Police had stalled.

Village of Chelsea was apparently willing to let the annual Fourth of July fireworks display take place again this year at the fairgrounds despite their previous hints that this year's show was in jeopardy. Although no formal vote was taken, council indicated it would allow a Fourth of July fireworks display if the promoter could produce a $3 million insurance policy covering the village.

 A millage rate of 9.92, up from last year's millage rate of 9.30, was adopted by the village council during the regular session.
 Effective March 1, 1978, University of Michigan Hospital, Ann Arbor, was the new lease holder for the Chelsea Medical Clinic and was now responsible for employing physicians and staff, according to University Hospital.

Chelsea Community Hospital received a Certificate of Need from the Michigan Department of Public Health authorizing improvements and modifications to facilities in a $1.3 million building program financed by the Farmers Home Administration, a division of the United States Department of Agriculture.

Hearings regarding a change in boundary by the Chelsea School District, and an amendment in the zoning map by Lotral and Herman Bentley were scheduled to be held.

 Chelsea School Board's 7.85 millage increase proposal was approved by Chelsea voters 525 to 396 on May 6. A total of 923 out of a possible 3,200 voters trekked to the polls to vote on the millage proposal which, in effect, was a renewal of the present school millage.

Although two positions on the Board of Education were available for the coming year, only one person, incumbent Donald Irwin, had filed a petition for the election. Deadline for filing petitions was May 13.

Robert J. Niehaus, son of Mrs. Mary J. Niehaus of Park St., was elected vice-president—corporate development for Wallace-Murray Corp. with direct responsibility for corporate planning and the company's acquisition program, it was announced.

Nowak Lauds "Build Michigan" As Advancement for State's Infrastructure
 Transportation Director Patrick Nowak said proposals to include the elimination of the gasoline evaporation allowance and a change in the point of collection for some taxes will advance the state's infrastructure and allow it to maximize federal contributions.

Testifying before the Senate Transportation and Tourism Committee, Nowak said the Build Michigan strategy offered by Governor John Engler earlier this year will also keep the state from losing federal funds by allowing it more latitude in expenditures.

"Quick action on these bills will allow us to move forward and build the state's infrastructure," Nowak said.

While admitting the package of bills before the committee have generated concerns among some and do not address everyone's needs, Nowak said "they do achieve our major goal of using all the dollars possible."

For example, he said, under one of the bills pending before the committee, the current stipulation that only 10 percent of all road monies be used for new construction could be expanded on a project-by-project basis. Use of the funds by Michigan in such areas would prevent their lapse back to Washington.

Deputy Treasurer Gary Wolfram defended the elimination of the evaporation allowance and urged committee members to consider why it was established in the first place. The assumption was that a certain percentage of fuel would never make it into an engine and thus would not lead to use of the state's roads. But environmental progress has diminished the evaporation to the point that some studies show it is only six-tenths of 1 percent.

"That number should be getting smaller," Wolfram said, as environmental efforts continue. "It (elimination of the allowance) certainly will drive an incentive for reducing evaporation."

Other figures indicate that only about half of the states in the country have any sort of allowance for evaporation and are also working towards elimination. And according to the federal government, any such amount over 1 percent is a subsidy to the oil industry.

Wolfram said he expects continued negotiations with the industry, citing as an example of pending issues the taxation of alternative fuels. As written, the bill calls for them to be taxed at the same rate, on the argument that the purpose of the fuel tax is to fund road usage. But some concerns have been raised regarding alternative industries which are just starting up, and a possible phase-in for those might be considered, he said.

Environmental Group Calls for Regulation of Nitrates in Water Supply
 Clean Water Action (CWA), releasing results of a study showing nitrates contaminating a greater percentage of wells, called for the enactment of a tough Michigan Groundwater Protection Act.

CWA Program Director Dave Dempsey said nitrates are largely unregulated under state and federal laws but pose health risks to infants and other sensitive populations through polluted drinking water wells in virtually every county with the highest levels and the greatest risk occurring in southern and western Michigan.

The 26-page report, entitled "Poison in Wells," noted nitrates are a byproduct of excessive nitrogen and are formed in the environment in response to excessive use of agricultural and lawn fertilizers, septic tanks, animals waste runoff and other sources.

Areas with the highest level of nitrates are generally those with sandy soil which allow pollutants to penetrate into groundwater and intensive livestock farming, particularly with hogs, the report continued.

Dempsey said a review of January testing data revealed 28 drinking wells exceeded the federal standard, 61 reached more than 50 percent of the standard and another 430 showed detectable nitrate levels with the greatest number of violations found in Kent, Kalamazoo and Cass counties.

He noted, however, that since the data are the result of where tests were sought by well owners rather than random samples, they do not necessarily indicate where the highest levels of nitrates may be found in the state.

The group called for legislation to prevent rather than respond to contamination through a comprehensive program of education, followed by regulation of and polluter liability for the major sources that are currently exempted from state requirements.

Additional legislation was requested by CWA to require drinking water well results to be reported to a state-wide registry and analyzed on a regular basis to pinpoint problem areas and trends.

Dempsey also said Clean Water Action is opposed to groundwater legislation drafted by the Department of Agriculture that would make the department the sole agency with responsibility to identify, prevent and respond to nitrate and pesticide contamination caused by farms.

Instead, he said, the state should place in force a strong groundwater protection law, enforced by the Departments of Natural Resources and Public Health, to protect natural resources and human health.

Transportation Plan Announced

To Increase Job Opportunities
 Governor John Engler has announced that several state agencies have joined with the Salvation Army in a plan to provide transportation for homeless and unemployed persons in the seven-county metro Detroit area who are enrolled in a new job outreach program.

The partnership with the Department of Transportation and Social Services and the Michigan Employment Security Commission will transport those who have signed up with the Metropolitan Detroit Job Fact Program created by the MESC.

Engler said the goal of the program is to increase transitional employment opportunities for workers participating in the Job Fact program. "This transportation initiative will make it easier for many of them to find jobs," he added.

F. Bob Edwards, MESC director, noted the lack of labor mobility is one of the most significant barriers to employment for individuals enrolled in the program.

Transportation will be provided up to 16 hours a day, six days a week in Wayne, Oakland, Macomb, St. Clair, Washtenaw, Livingston and Monroe counties.

Reflecting the declining growth of the labor force, job growth will slow between 1990 and 2005, according to the U.S. Labor Department's Bureau of Labor Statistics. The rate of employment growth will be half the rate of growth during the previous 15 years.

Uncle Lew from Lima Says:

DEAR MISTER EDITOR:

My old lady is reading the signs again. She told me last week the sign was in the foot, so it was time to plant potatoes. Now she's watching for the sign to move up the body so we can plant beans. The fellows around the stove at the country store use to poke fun at me when I'd mention this, but lately they have took to asking me to find out from my old lady when the signs are right to start their gardens.

She gardens by the almanac, like her Ma and her Ma did before her. At first I tried it my way. When the sign was right for above ground growing I'd put in the potatoes. Without fail I'd get enough potatoes to fill my hat and rows running over with vines. Then I took the view of the old preacher that said reading the Good Book can't hurt and it might help. Final I become a full convert and I ain't argued with her success since.

This woman depends more on this book printed a year ago than she does on weather reports every hour on the hour. I got to the session a bit late Saturday night because I had been digging in the garden. After I squared the fellows away on where the sign is now, the talk natural moved to wimmen and some of their other ideas that men have learned to take serious.

Zeke Grubb noted a item in the paper about the average shoe size for American wimmen has gone from six to seven in the past 10 years. Zeke was of a mind that this doesn't mean their feet are bigger. They're just buying bigger shoes because they have come around to the practical notion that being comfortable is better than being in style. They have been moving more to the practical since they found out how comfortable they are in long pants. Zeke went on, and right after they realized when they had on long pants nobody was paying any attention to their shoes.

It is true, Bug Hookum declared, that a woman turned practical can be as aggravating as a reformed dope addict that has found a new career preaching to people about staying away from dope. But, Bug said, we always can dismiss the former addict by saying he ought to of had better sense than to get hooked on the stuff in the first place. But we got to take serious a woman that is practical and can prove she is right at every turn, was Bug's words.

For instant, he said his old lady always tells him she likes to carry around just enough problems to keep her happy. She explains that the right kind of worrying makes her want to do better, and her small burdens make her thankful she ain't loaded down with big ones. If you question that line of thinking, Bug said, you run the risk of being told about 20 ways you could better yourself by trying it.

Practical speaking, Clem Webster said, we all use some of the logic Bug's old lady was talking about. For instant, those of us that truly like cold weather are happy to see spring, if for no other reason than to be reminded there's more to this life than staying warm and dry. Through it all, Clem said, we just got to keep our eye on the half full glass, and not dwell to long on the half empty one.

General speaking, the fellows were with Clem on that count. Ed Doolittle said he was glad spring had come to Stockholm, Sweden. He read that on a recent warm day there a woman checked on her 84 year old neighbor that had been setting in her front porch chair night and day through the cold. And for good reason. She had been dead three months.

Yours truly,
 Uncle Lew.

Pregnancy Loss Memorial Service Scheduled Monday

For some expectant parents, a pregnancy does not go as planned, and their joy and anticipation turn to sadness when the baby dies. A pregnancy loss memorial service will be held Monday, May 11, at 7:30 p.m. in the chapel at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital, Ann Arbor.

This ecumenical service is for anyone who has experienced a pregnancy loss (regardless of when or where it occurred) as well as for family members and friends. This service provides those attending with support to help the healing process through prayer and the sharing of similar losses with others. Types of pregnancy loss include ectopic pregnancy, miscarriage, stillbirth and newborn death.

The memorial service is sponsored by the Pregnancy Loss Program of Catherine McAuley System.

If you are planning to attend the service or if you have any questions, please call 572-5454.

Catherine McAuley Health System is a not-for-profit health care provider based in Ann Arbor, Michigan. CMHS units include St. Joseph Mercy Hospital, McPherson Hospital in Howell, Saline Community Hospital, the Center for Mental Health and Chemical Dependency, Reichert Health Building and outpatient facilities in Washtenaw, Livingston and western Wayne Counties.

ENGAGED: George and Carole Gallas of Chelsea are announcing the engagement of their daughter, Gloria Therese, to 3rd class petty officer Matthew Brady Koernke, the son of William and Lavone Koernke, Jr. of Chelsea. The future bride is a 1990 graduate of Chelsea High school and is now attending Western Michigan University, studying business law. The future bridegroom is a 1989 graduate of Chelsea High school, and is in the U.S. Navy, stationed at Naval Air Station, Norfolk, Va. Future plans include moving to Norfolk, Va. A Sept. 19 wedding is planned.

Woman's Club Hears Reports, Elects New Officers for Next Year

Woman's Club of Chelsea met at the home of Donna Lane on April 28. Twenty-six members were present.

Cheryl Schoenberg, president, called the meeting to order. The members read the Collect in unison.

The president, vice-president, secretary and treasurer gave annual reports of their activities of the 1991-92 season. Chairpersons of the committees gave reports of their areas of activities.

The program committee chairperson, Lois Moore, and her five assistants provided very entertaining information and educational programs for the meetings of the year.

The nominating committee chairperson, Virginia Johnson, provided a slate of officers for the 1992-93 year: president, Lois Moore; vice-president and program chairperson, Betty Oesterle; treasurer, Marjorie Hepburn; secretary, Shirley Smith.

These new officers will be installed at the annual dinner at the Brandywine Restaurant in Jackson on May 12.

The historian and filing chairperson, Lucille Finkbeiner, kept all historical records for the year and filed them for the records.

Community service committee chairperson, Betty Schenk, selected the community projects the club was involved in and selected the projects to which the club would contribute funds.

The revision committee chairperson, Dorothy Milke, presented to the club proposals for changes or additions to the constitution and by-laws.

The finance committee chairperson, Edith Lindberg, kept records of all money received and disbursed and paid all bills and donations to charities for the year.

The kitchen committee chairperson, Rosemary DeGrow, made all purchases needed for the serving of refreshments at all meetings.

The flower and gift committee chairperson, Shirley Smith, sent cards to members birthday, Christmas, sympathy, Easter, get well and thinking of you for a total of 13 cards. Two mementos, one memorial planter, one memorial book, one birthday remembrance and two Christmas remembrances were sent.

The membership and calling committee chairperson, Billie Zenz, kept a record of all guests to meetings for the year. She installed two new members for this year. She advised all members of all changes in time, date, or cancellation of meetings. We have 29 active members, one inactive and seven honorary members.

Maxine Newton was the chairperson of the Valentine Party committee. The members served punch and cookies to 180 residents of the Methodist Community on Feb. 14. Many cookies were left and Maxine sent these to the students at St. Louis school.

The members will serve a pot-luck dinner to the Marathon Bridge Group on Thursday, May 14.

The next meeting will be the annual dinner at the Brandywine Restaurant in Jackson on May 12.

Weekly Discussions Will Help Understand Psychiatric Needs

Chelsea Community Hospital Family Series-Department of Psychiatry will be having a weekly education presentation and discussion focusing on understanding emotional or mental difficulties requiring psychiatric treatment.

Expenses Listed for Lawyers, Engineers

Village of Chelsea spent $71,590.14 for legal help and $114,788.24 for engineering work during the 1991-92 fiscal year, according to information supplied by the village.

The village used three legal firms during the year. Chirco, Herrington, Runstauler & Thomas billed the village $37,631.25, mostly in connection with two union contracts involving the Fraternal Order of Police and the Teamsters.

Keusch & Flintoft, which handles most of the village's routine legal work, charged $18,172.49 for the year.

Varnum, Riddering, Schmidt & Howlett's bills totaled $15,788.40 in connection with the landfill, negotiations with the townships, and clean-up and the North St. electric and water building.

Midwestern Consulting charged $66,251.38 for engineering help, mostly involving the landfill.

And Soils and Materials Engineers, Inc. charged $48,516.66 for work involving the landfill, primarily the groundwater monitoring plan.

Breathers Clubs Host Celebration of Clean Air Week

The next meeting of the Chelsea Breathers Club will host a celebration of the 20th anniversary of the American Lung Association of Michigan's Clean Air Week (May 2-8) and their message, that "Clean Air Is Up to You." This meeting will be held Saturday, May 16, from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m., in Dining Rooms A & B of Chelsea Community Hospital, 775 S. Main St., Chelsea. It will also mark the close of the 1991/1992 season for the Chelsea Breathers Club.

Speaker for this meeting will be Alex Sagady, director of environmental health for the American Lung Association of Michigan. His topic will be "Indoor and Outdoor Air Pollution: What It Is and What You Can Do About It."

Breathers clubs are free educational and social opportunities for persons with breathing difficulties caused by chronic lung diseases such as asthma, allergies, chronic bronchitis, emphysema, and lung cancer.

For more information on this meeting or Breathers Clubs in other areas, please contact the American Lung Association of Michigan at 1-800-678-LUNG.

CHELSEA DARE PROGRAM (Drug Abuse Resistance Education) received $219 from a youth leagues bowling event and $92 from women's Wednesday night leagues at Chelsea Lanes. Chelsea police officer Norm Paton, who runs the program, received the checks last Saturday from Kathy GreenLeaf, left, who represented the children's leagues, and Denise Martell, second from right, of the Chelsea Realty League and Elaine Pastor of the Chelsea Suburban League. The money will be used for incentive gifts that are given to students upon completion of the program, which is run at both North and South Elementary schools.

Citizens Organization To Promote School Millage Proposal

A new, grass-roots group formed to promote the passage of the June millage proposal for Chelsea schools is asking anyone interested in backing the millage to attend its organizational meeting next Monday in downtown Chelsea.

The group calls itself FLAG (Friends Linked for Academic Good) and is made up of parents and concerned district residents.

FLAG will hold a strategy session May 11 at 7 p.m. in the Common Grill, 112 S. Main. FLAG leaders say the meeting is aimed at developing ways concerned area residents can get involved in the millage issue as the election approaches.

"We want to find the best ways to inform voters of why the millage is so crucial to the community and must be passed," said Barbara Rose, a FLAG organizer. "The meeting will be stimulating, creative and just plain fun. We're going to pattern our approach after what we did so successfully with the Chelsea 1995 program."

Rose is one of the leaders of Chelsea 1995. The program supported downtown beautification, deals with challenges in the village and fosters various community events.

The school election June 8 will ask voters to approve a 28-mill renewal, as well as an additional 1.95 mills for one year. The Chelsea school board has already announced a list of cuts should the millage increase not pass. Some of the cuts include teacher layoffs and elimination of some of the school system's most popular programs, including middle school athletics and cheerleading, the high school newspaper, several acclaimed music programs and substance abuse counseling for students.

"I'm as upset as anyone about increasing property tax assessments in recent years in the Chelsea district," said Rose. "But a lot of the funding problem has been caused by Lansing and the state's failure to find ways to fund education during the property tax freeze. People are looking for ways to send politicians a message. But turning down this millage is not the way to do it. Voting down this millage does nothing but hurt the kids, the quality of schools here and ultimately the entire community's quality of life."

"My wife suffered from a sleep disorder. Mine."

"I thought it was normal to go to bed early and wake up tired, but when my wife noticed that my breathing stopped along with my snoring, we knew something was wrong."

"The sleep specialists at Chelsea Community Hospital told me my heavy snoring was a sign of sleep apnea, a potentially serious condition. But the treatment was simpler than I thought and the results better than I dreamed. I had my first good night's sleep in ten years ... and so did my wife."

Don't let a sleep disorder rob you of a good night's sleep. Call Chelsea Community Hospital at 313/475-3963 — then rest easy.

the market will be as successful if it is moved to an out-of-the-way location. The depot lot is probably the most visible in the downtown area and can be easily seen by traffic on M-52. They say the municipal lot is probably the worst of all locations.

The newly-formed Farmer's Market Commission will apparently ask village council next Tuesday if the market can be moved to the new parking lot behind the Chelsea 14th District Courthouse. That would become its permanent home.

The market can be adequately protected by the village's insurance policy only if it is held on village property, Myers said. The lot commonly known as the Heydlauff's lot is actually owned by Chelsea Milling Co., as is the new lot behind the Chelsea fire hall. That leaves few choices downtown.

Myers said he would not be in favor of closing off a street, such as E. Middle St. from Main to East St., to hold the market.

School Board

dressed in the current council negotiations.

The board suspended a high school student for the remainder of the year in connection with a fire recently set in the boys restroom in the Home Economics building. The fire caused about $5,000 damage, most of it due to residue from smoke that had to be cleaned up.

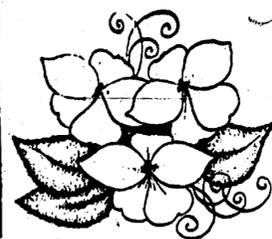

Athletic banners, which have been installed in the high school gym, were officially accepted by the board as a gift from the Chelsea Athletic Boosters. Value is $3,500.

The board changed June meeting dates in June to the second and fourth Mondays, June 8 and 22. The June 8 meeting will be at Beach Middle school to coincide with the end of the annual school elections.

JUNIOR PATHFINDERS, the Enrichment Triad Program group dedicated to having a bike path built in Chelsea, recently got firm commitments of support from Chelsea area civic organizations as well as the Chelsea Village Council. The Junior Pathfinders have researched and proposed the construction of four separate bike paths in various areas of the village, and the paths have been incorporated in the Chelsea Recreation Council's five-year plan. Members of the civic groups attended last week's village council meeting to pick up copies of their "contracts" with the pathfinders. In back, from left, are Nicholas Koffman, president of the Chelsea Rotary Club, Dr. David Swan, president of the Chelsea Civic Founda-

"You may have dear friends but never will you have again the inexpressible love which none but a mother bestows . . ."

—Thomas Macaulay

A mother's love is truly inexpressible, to be defined only by example. A mother cares for her child from before birth for as long as she lives.

There is no limit to a mother's love, no length to which she will not go, without being asked, for the good of her child. And, her love is given freely with nothing asked in return . . . not even appreciation.

On Mother's Day, let Mother know that you do appreciate her and love her. We wish a happy Mother's Day to mothers everywhere.

Honor Society To Seek Funds for Scholarships

Members of the Chelsea High school chapter of the National Honor Society will be on the village streets this Friday and Saturday to solicit funds for the work of the Chelsea Scholarship and Financial Aid Committee.

Students will collect from 3 p.m. to 9 p.m. on Friday and from 7 a.m. to 1 p.m. on Saturday. They will be properly identified.

All money donated will go to the high school scholarship fund and be distributed to qualified seniors to help them continue their education.

"We cannot say too often how grateful we are for the ongoing support of our students," said Sam Vogel, chairman of the committee.

Contributions may also be mailed directly to the Chelsea Scholarship Fund, c/o Chelsea High school.

The Commonwealth of Independent States, formerly the Soviet Union, will be getting one thousand metric tons of mostly Michigan-grown dry beans. The shipment is part of a food aid package approved by President Bush.

Munith Church Plans Couples Wedding Reunion

The 100-year-old United Methodist church in Munith is the scene of thousands of weddings over the last century. On May 17 all the couples who were married by the United Methodist minister in Munith are asked to come back one more time for the reunion at 11 a.m.

Very possibly, Regnald and Alma Ford of 9950 Huttenlocker Rd., Munith, will be the senior couple attending. Recently this grand couple celebrated their 80th wedding anniversary, married in the church on March 26, 1932.

Couples will walk down the aisle to appropriate organ music. Jan Kittle is digging into her archives for the old stuff and the new contemporary music. Pastor Robert Marston and his wife, Ardath, will share a dialogue on the subject: "The Seasons of Marriage."

Many brides are tempted to do some crash diets to slip into their wedding gowns, others are slender enough to wear theirs without alterations. Most brides and grooms will wear conventional clothing.

Gladys Stanfield is enlisting several other brides to assist in the reception which of course will feature the traditional elements and the tapping of the silverware on the crystal. Lots of people will respond to that invitation which usually is centered at the table for the bride and groom.

Some of the television media is considering the possibility of coverage. A year ago, Pastor Marston, who has officiated at nearly 1,000 marriages, directed the Wedding Reunion in a Battle Creek church. He indicates it was one of the most exciting opportunities on the church calendar and of course having TV coverage was super.

If you are interested in attending as bride and groom, call Gladys Stanfield at 596-2775, Aradth Marston, 750-1018 or Jan Kitley at 596-2659. They need to know how large a wedding cake to prepare.

Manchester Man Completes Navy Basic Submarine Course

Navy Fireman Apprentice Casey A. Salkauskas, son of Walter and Vale Salkauskas of 16201 Herman, Manchester, recently graduated from the Basic Enlisted Submarine Course.

During the course at the Naval Submarine School, Groton, Conn., students are introduced to the basic theory, construction and operation of nuclear-powered submarines. The course also includes shipboard organization, damage control, submarine safety and escape procedures. The 1991 graduate of Manchester High school joined the Navy in October 1991.

The number of minorities entering the labor force will almost double by the year 2000, according to "Workforce 2000," a U.S. Labor Department publication. Non-whites will make up 29 percent of the new entrants into the labor force between now and the year 2000.

Hispanic entrants to the labor force between 1990-2005 will number 8.7 million and account for 16.7 percent of all entrants, according to the U.S. Labor Department's Bureau of Labor Statistics.

KIWANIS CLUB OF CHELSEA is sponsoring a fitness fun run/walk at Hudson Mills Metropark this Friday. Special education students from all over the county will participate. A few of the students who will take part are, from left, Karrie Kranick, Shawnette Kranick, Chris Hafner, and Ty Darden, along with teacher Nancy Cooper and Kiwanis program co-ordinator Tom Davis.

Run/Walk for Impaired Students Slated Friday at Hudson Mills

On Friday, May 8, 420 mentally or physically impaired athletes will take part in a 3-5 mile fitness run/walk at Hudson Mills Metropark in Dexter.

The event is sponsored by the Kiwanis Club of Chelsea and Nancy Cooper's special education class at Chelsea High school.

Sixty volunteers from the Dexter High school chapter of the National Honor Society will help with the event, along with 30 volunteers from Boysville and members of the Kiwanis Clubs of Chelsea and Whitmore Lake.

Purpose of the event is to encourage the developmentally disabled students to take an interest in fitness. Emphasis is on completing the course, not on speed. Many of the students have trained hard for the event. The lifelong habit of exercise is the goal.

Students, ranging in age from 4 to 35, will come from 10 school districts in Washtenaw county. Teachers and administrators run or walk right along with the students.

This is the eighth year for the event, which has grown larger every year.

County Bar Association Elects Officers

On Thursday, April 23, the Washtenaw County Bar Association held its annual election of officers.

Newly-elected officers are: Randy A. Musbach, president; Robert Fair Gillette, vice-president; Stefani A. Carter, secretary; Carol Hollenshead, treasurer; Sherry L. Chin, immediate past president.

The new officers were sworn in by Judge Melinda Morris of the Washtenaw County Circuit Court.

President Randy Musbach practices with Rademacher & Musbach in Chelsea. Vice-president Bob Gillette is the director of Legal Services of Southeastern Michigan, which provides free legal services to low income citizens who qualify for such services. Secretary Stefani Carter is an assistant city attorney for the City of Ann Arbor. Treasurer Carol Hollenshead practices with the firm of Ian James Reach in Ann Arbor. Immediate past president Sherry Chin practices with the firm of Laird, Chin & Schwartz in Ann Arbor.

Beach Boys Start Strong

Beach Middle school boys track team won two meets and lost one in action last week.

Chelsea beat St. Thomas 80-40 and St. Francis 80-31. However, they lost to Milan, 83-49.

"Even though it was early in the week, we looked very good, with many quality runs," said coach Dave Jolly.

"Relay hand-offs looked like it was the end of the season, not the first week of competition."

Highlights of the week included the following.

Peter Straub improved from 15' 11" in the long jump. Chris Glowicki jumped about 14'.

Bill Colmack and Tom Barkman both cracked the 35' mark in the shot put.

Zac Eresten recorded a 3200 time of 12:05.39, which puts him among the best in the area, Jolly said. He recorded three first places for the week.

Jake Hurst won the 800 meters in 2:32.94.

Both Jorge Rosario and Jim Irwin picked up wins in the 100, with times of :12.18 and :13.23, respectively.

Straub won the 400 in 1:00.77.

"Every single performer on our team contributed to our success and that's what is so great about our team," Jolly said.

Asians, despite rapid growth, will only account for six percent of all entrants to the U.S. labor force between 1990-2005, according to the Bureau of Labor Statistics.

SENIOR CITIZENS PROM was held Saturday evening at Beach Middle school. Big Band music was provided by Al Townsend. A few of the people who attended, from left, are Lions Club project chairman Bill Wescott, Mr. and Mrs. Dillman Wahl, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Sanderson, and Mr. and Mrs. Dorr Whitaker.

Mount Everest, the world's tallest mountain, is 29,028 feet.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor:
 "Eat your vegetables."
 "Pick up your clothes."
 "No more cookies."
 "Close the refrigerator door."
 "Don't speak with your mouth full."
 "Not so loud." "I said, 'Not so loud!'"
 "Wipe your feet."
 "Stop teasing your sister."
 "Now that is enough!"
 "Go to your room."
 "No TV—read a book."
 "Where did you put your gum?"
 "Read my lips: NO!"
 "Brush your teeth."
 "Say your prayers."
 "Not another drink of water tonight."
 "Good night."
 "Yes, I love you, too."

Gems of wisdom, all in a mother's day. A "Mother" is more than a beautiful name. She is love, warmth, and security. A mother's perfume is not just "Channel No. 5," or "Charlie," but chocolate cookies, or brownies, an aroma of a special dinner, or the sweet smell of home-made bread.

Mothers have special healing powers of a hug, and the planting of a kiss on your cheek, when you need them most. A mother may not be "Mrs. America" with all the right sizes in their proper places and proportions, but she is the most beautiful person in the world, to her children.

The bonds of love from conception till birth is undecipherable. Truly a special gift from God. Then, there are the very extraordinary moms whom God searched and searched for to give a child to, to fill the void in her life through adoption. Let us not forget in the world where consequences of divorce, or the death of husband, and father, creates unsung heroes of today, "the Single Mom." God bless you. Moms are human too and come with some faults or weaknesses needing the support and love of her children, even when it's hard to understand the why of things.

There is one mother who is all things for every other mom, and each of her beloved children. A lady of simplicity, whose life was one profound "YES." A mother of unending love from birth, through life, in death, and beyond. A personal friend. A mother who is always only a thought or prayer away, in joyful, or troubled times. Her name is "Mary." She is the mother of Jesus Christ, and a mother to us all. May Jesus and His Blessed Mother, shower down from Heaven every blessing on each and every "mother" living or dead. For "mom" there shall never be another "mother" just like you, ever. We love you. From all children who by their very existence bring dignity to the word "motherhood," and sanctity to life.

Millie Warner.

To the Editor,
 We want to thank the talented CHS cast, crew, and directors for the wonderful production of "Grease." Their hard work and efforts were apparent in their performance.

There have been many letters voicing unhappiness that Steve Hinz has received a pink slip, add ours to the pile. Steve Hinz has had a tremendous impact on ours and many other families since he came to Chelsea. He is a hardworking, caring teacher. He has our kids' respect and ours. The Washington Street Show Choir teaches discipline, singing, dancing, as well as a substance free way of life. The teens sign contracts agreeing to this way of life. Besides Steve giving more of himself than required, his wife, Lisa Hinz Johnson, too has given her time and expertise unselfishly.

We moved to Chelsea six years ago, in part due to the support this community has given to its schools. Chelsea is a special place to live and raise a family. Let's let our legislators know we are angry about taxes, the economy, etc., but let's say yes to our kids and community and Steve Hinz by voting yes to the millage.
 Libby and Doug Carlson.

Let's Go Bulldogs!

Softball Team Tightens Grip on Conference Lead With Wins Over Dexter

Seniors Jennifer Petty and Kelly Cross, and junior Erin Knott pitched and hit the Chelsea Bulldogs softball team to a double-header sweep of the Dexter Dreadnaughts at home last Thursday.

The wins gave Chelsea a 5-0 mark in the Southeastern Conference heading into Monday's games at Tecumseh.

In the first game, Petty pitched the first two innings and Erin Knott (2-1) picked up the win by pitching the final three innings as the Bulldogs won a mercy-rule contest, 12-1.

When Petty left the game Chelsea held an 8-0 lead. Petty and Knott combined on a one-hitter, as the only Dexter run came in the third inning.

Chelsea picked up six runs in the first inning as Cross hit a two-run single and Sager knocked in two with a double.

Theresa Hurst's single highlighted a two-run second inning, and Knott's single in the fourth scored two of four runs.

The Bulldogs had eight hits for the game, two each by Cross and Knott.

Cross pitched the first six innings of the second game, and Petty threw the final three innings as the Bulldogs won 14-7.

Cross (4-1) gave up seven hits and four walks but the Bulldogs were never seriously threatened as they jumped out to a 7-0 lead after three.

The Bulldogs' offense provided the spark with a 21-hit performance. Jacki Crawford and Knott each had four hits, Petty, Gretchen Knutsen, and Angie Riley each had three, and Cross had two. Petty knocked in four runs and Cross three.

Chelsea broke the game open with five runs in the second inning as Heather McConeghy and Cross each hit a two-run single and Knutsen doubled home a run.

In non-conference action on Saturday at home, Chelsea swept Ann Arbor Huron at home, 8-1 and 4-2.

Petty pitched the opener. She allowed three hits and struck out 15. Huron helped the Chelsea cause by committing seven errors.

After a scoreless first two innings, Chelsea scored six times in the third featuring a two-run triple by McConeghy and RBI singles by Liz Sager and Knutsen.

Chelsea added single runs in the fourth and fifth innings, aided by the porous Huron defense. Huron finally scored in the seventh.

Knott won the second game in her first start of the season, 4-2. She gave up five hits and struck out four in six innings. Petty pitched in relief.

Chelsea scored one run in the first and two more in the second, featuring a steal of home by Petty. The Bulldogs increased the lead to 4-0 in the fifth as Knott's ground out scored Cross. Petty and Hurst were each 2-3.

"Erin Knott pitched an outstanding game for us," said Chelsea coach Joe Beard.

"She had a good week." Beard said that while his team is not getting many extra base hits, the girls are getting timely hits and the team's baserunning is forcing other teams into costly errors.

Chelsea was 17-2 after last week.

HEATHER MCCONEGHY slides safely into home on a wild pitch as Dexter pitcher Tricia Terry tries to cover. Chelsea scored early and often against the Dreadnaughts. Monday evening they swept the Tecumseh Indians to lead the SEC by at least two games.

In two key games Monday night, the Bulldogs swept the Tecumseh Indians, 14-4 and 10-0, as Petty pitched and won both games.

The victories keep the Bulldogs in the SEC lead with a 7-0 record.

In the first game, Petty tossed a four-hitter and struck out seven.

The Bulldogs fell behind 4-2 going into the fifth inning. In the top of the fifth they tied the game on RBI singles by Hurst and Cross. Jamie Collinsworth also had a hit.

Chelsea broke the game open in the sixth with seven runs, featuring a two-run single by Sager and a two-run double by McConeghy. Petty, Cross, and Knutsen each had two hits, and Cross had three.

Petty was even sharper on the mound in the second game as she threw a three-hitter.

This time the Bulldogs took a 3-0 lead in the first inning and cruised to the win.

Again Chelsea had 13 hits for the game, including three by Petty and two each by McConeghy, Hurst, Sager, and Plasecki. Hurst hit a two-run double.

Petty improved her record to 13-0.

RICK CLOUSE drops a bunt down the first base line Dreadnaughts last Thursday. Dexter catcher is Ryan Hill. During Chelsea's first-game victory over the Dexter Dreadnaughts the Bulldogs went on to sweep the double-header.

Baseball Team Takes Two from Dreadnaughts

Chelsea Bulldogs looked like two different baseball teams last week as they won two hard-fought matches over the Dexter Dreadnaughts on Thursday at home before committing 13 errors in two games in the opening rounds of the annual Rawlings Invitational on Saturday.

Chelsea won the first Dexter game, 3-2, behind the five-hit pitching of Gary White and a pair of triples by Jacob Rindle.

After Dexter took the lead in the top of the first on a double and single, White settled down to take control.

The Dreadnaughts held a 2-0 lead until the bottom of the third when Rindle's first triple scored one run. Then in the fifth Rindle's second triple scored Rob Jaques and Chris Dunham.

Jaques, Rindle, and Dunham each had two hits in the game.

In the second game, Chris White returned to the mound for the first time since an automobile crash a couple of weeks ago and pitched a six-hit complete game. Coach Wayne Welton said White was aided by some outstanding defense by Rindle at first base.

Chelsea broke open a 1-1 game in the fourth inning as Jaques hit a bases-loaded single to highlight a three-run rally. The Bulldogs scored their final run on doubles by Chris White and Jason Adams.

The wins kept Chelsea in the hunt for the Southeastern Conference championship. The Bulldogs and Tecumseh Indians each had one league loss after last week as they each split with Milan.

In an erratic defensive performance, Chelsea suffered a 10-2 loss to Willow Run in the first round of the Rawlings Invitational on Saturday. The Bulldogs committed seven errors, "and a few others not in the book that I'd put in the same category," Welton said.

Steve Grau pitched the first five innings. He was relieved by Adams.

The Bulldogs didn't score until the seventh inning, when Adams tripled, Pat Steele doubled, and Casey Schiller singled.

Rindle had two hits for the game. The second game against Belleville ended tied 8-8 as the tournament does not allow for extra innings.

Chelsea was up 4-3 after six innings but Belleville scored five runs in the top of the inning on multiple errors, some on bunt coverage.

The Bulldogs rallied in the bottom of the inning on singles by Steele, Schiller, Adam Taylor, Dunham, and Slane and a double off the top of the wall by Rindle. Chelsea had a runner

Dog JV Softball Team Takes Two Vs. Dexter

Chelsea Bulldogs junior varsity softball team swept the Dexter Dreadnaughts in a double-header last Thursday, 15-5 and 20-15, in Dexter.

"The team was ready to play today," said Chelsea coach Kim Eder. "Everyone had their head in the game."

In the first game, Amy Petty tossed a two-hitter for the Bulldogs as she struck out nine and walked four.

The Bulldogs broke open a 5-3 game in the top of the fourth with eight runs on seven walks and three hits. Chelsea had scored early with three runs in the first and two more in the second. Chelsea had six hits for the game.

In the second contest, Chelsea opened up an 11-4 lead after two innings and each team scored in each of the first six innings. Nancy Pidd's double highlighted the five-run second inning.

Carey Schiller pitched all seven innings for her first complete game of the season. She struck out eight, walked 11, and gave up seven hits. In the crucial seventh inning she struck out two of four batters she faced.

The Bulldogs pounded out 14 hits, including two singles each by Schiller, Lori Ritter, Shannon Shemansky, and Amy Bowling, and three singles by Petty. Pidd hit a single and a double. Shemansky knocked in three runs and Petty knocked in two.

In non-conference action, Chelsea split with Jackson Northwest on April 27, winning the first 15-12 and losing the second 5-3.

In the first game, Chelsea was down 10-5 but scored six runs in the sixth inning and a deciding four runs in the top of the seventh.

Chelsea pitchers were Melissa Schulz, Pidd, and Petty.

In the second game, the Bulldogs were down 4-0 after four innings before they scored a single run in the top of the fifth. A seventh-inning rally fell short.

"We seemed to lack the intensity we've had in other games," Eder said.

"We came back after a four-day break and just couldn't capture the momentum we had. Northwest was one of the strongest teams we've faced."

Ritter had two of Chelsea's three hits on the game.

Petty and Schiller pitched. Petty allowed one hit and Schiller gave up none.

JV Bulldogs Win Five Baseball Games in Row

Chelsea Bulldogs junior varsity baseball team doubled the Dexter Dreadnaughts, 22-11, in the first game of a scheduled double-header last Thursday. The second game was suspended in the top of the third with Chelsea ahead 10-6.

"We were hitting the ball well today," said Chelsea coach Jim Ticknor.

"Even the outs were well hit. I'm pleased with how we're progressing offensively."

Chelsea scored no fewer than three runs in each of the first five innings as they managed 16 hits for the game. Each team scored four runs in the first inning but Chelsea took the lead for good in the second with three runs, featuring a two-run single by Don Poppenger.

Matt Powell, Gabe Bernhard, and Matt McVittie each had three hits, while Dan Wehrwein, Poppenger, and Jason McVittie each had two. Matt McVittie hit a pair of doubles and had six RBI. Jason McVittie had four RBI and Bernhard knocked in three runs.

In non-conference games, Chelsea swept River Rouge, 15-5 and 7-6, and Jackson County Western, 14-4 and 8-6.

In the first River Rouge game April 27, Chelsea fell behind 1-0 in the first before scoring four times in the second inning and seven times in the top of the third for an 11-1 lead. In the meantime, pitchers Jason McVittie and Eric Dougherty combined on a two-hitter.

The 12-hit attack was paced by Powell, who was 3-4 with a three-run double, and Dougherty, who was 2-3 with a two-run triple and four RBI.

"We finally started to hit the ball," Ticknor said.

In the second game, Chelsea rallied for two runs in the top of the seventh to take the 7-6 win.

Howie DuRussel's single was the game-winning hit. Chelsea had just three hits for the game.

Dog Girls Track Team Wins Big Corunna Relays

Chelsea Bulldogs girls track team edged out last year's class C state champion Frankemuth to win the Corunna Relays last Friday night.

The Bulldogs won just one event but had eight second-place finishes in the 12 events, to score 87 points. Frankemuth scored 84.

Chelsea earned key points in the field events as the shot put relay of Mara Smith, Erin Garrigus, and Wendy Bristle placed sixth, paced by Garrigus' toss of 29' 4".

Keri Kentala and Theresa Royce combined for a fifth place in the long jump.

Erin Schiller and Courtney Thompson totaled 9' 2" in the high jump, second to Mason's meet record of 10' 2".

Lauren Sparaco led the discus team to a surprise second-place finish at 256' 6". Other members were Smith and Wendy Bristle. The discus was reported three events from the end of the meet and was the event that put the Bulldogs in the lead. Assistant coach Bert Kruse had hoped the team would finish somewhere in the middle of the pack.

The Bulldogs showed good balance in the running events, taking six second places and a first. Frankemuth had three firsts, plus one in the field events, and Flint Kearley and Corunna had two each, but none of the schools could match Chelsea's consistency.

Chelsea's distance medley team of Christine Burg, Sarah Brosnan, Tracey Wales, and Lisa Monti set a meet and school record with a time of 13:12.6 to take first place. The race also featured a head-to-head race of state champions—Jennifer Barber of Frankemuth and Monti. Barber had a slight lead at the hand-off, but Monti soon passed her as Frankemuth also broke the meet record. Monti's split was 5:10.7.

Chelsea took second in the freshman-sophomore 1600 relay as Beth Bell, Royce, Robin Phelps, and Kentala recorded a 4:27.7 in the next to last race to push the score to 77-72.

The varsity 1600 wrapped up the victory as they placed second behind Frankemuth as Laura Paton, Brosnan, Monti, and Allen ran a 4:16.9.

Chelsea also got points from Schiller, Kentala, Allen, and Monica Hansen with a second in the shuttle hurdles in 1:21.1. Phelps, Monti, Val Bullock and Beth Bell were second in the 3200 at 10:12.3. The sprint medley team of Allen, Bell, Paton, and Royce was second, again edged by Frankemuth, as both teams timed at 4:08.3.

"We were really happy with this win, and particularly how we accomplished it," said Chelsea coach Bill Bainton.

"To have so many high placers is a great effort on the girls' part."

In other action last Tuesday, Chelsea won a double dual meet over Fowlerville, 110-18, and Stockbridge, 86-42.

Against Fowlerville, the Bulldogs won every event but the shot put, where the best they could get was a third from Smith.

Chelsea swept five events including the 100 hurdles with Hansen, Allen, and Kentala; the 1600, where Burg, Phelps, and Molly Griebel all ran under six minutes; the 800, with Bell, Wales, and Sarah Henry; the 3200 with Monti, Burg, and Beth Williams; and the long jump, with Kentala, Royce, and Hansen.

Stockbridge jumped off to a 14-4 lead against Chelsea, taking the shot put and high jump, but the Bulldogs took over in the running events and got firsts in the discus from Sparaco, and Kentala in the long jump in her last attempt. Stockbridge took just two of 12 running events.

Royce won the 100 in :13.2 and the 200 with her season-best of :27.9. She also placed second in the long jump and anchored the winning 800 relay.

Other over-all winners for Chelsea were Sparaco in the discus at 86' 9 1/2"; Kentala in the long jump at 14' 1 1/2"; Burg in the 1600 at 5:50.9; Paton in the 400 at 1:03.9; Allen in the 300 hurdles in :47.9; Bell in the 800 at 2:32.1; and Monti in the 3200 with an 11:12.5.

Chelsea also won the 3200 relay with Phelps, Monti, Brosnan, and Jessica Flintoft in 10:48.5; the 800 relay with Paton, Schiller, Allen and Royce in 1:54.5; and the 1600 relay with Bell, Brosnan, Kentala and Henry in 4:33.4.

Chelsea Tennis Team Drops Pair of Matches

Chelsea Bulldogs tennis team lost matches to Riverview, 4-3, and Jackson Lumen Christi, 7-0, last week.

The score in the Riverview match was tied at 3-3 but the Pirates reversed an earlier-season loss with a win in the seventh match.

In singles, Scott Pacheco (C) defeated Steve Stuef (R), 6-4, 7-5; Steve Peng (R) defeated Ben Manning (C), 6-2, 6-7, 7-6; Steve Fergette (R) beat Hooshmand Nightingale (C), 6-4, 6-4; and Jason Seal (R) defeated Matt Jachalke (C), 6-1, 6-3.

In doubles, Jeff Gietzen and Tim Bowers (C) defeated Mike Wright and Joe Galuban (R), 6-7, 6-0, 6-2; Steve Harness and Ryan Girardi (C) defeated Brandon Hammonds and Tom Carmellin (R), 7-5, 6-4; and Bob Wright and Chris Monahan (C) defeated Mike Bainton and Chris Giebel (C), 6-2, 6-2.

In the Lumen Christi match, Ravi Sachdan (L) defeated Pacheco (C), 6-3, 6-0; Phil Brilliantes (L) defeated Manning (C), 6-0, 6-0; Ojas Patez (L) defeated Nightingale (C), 6-1, 6-1; and Brian Brilliantes (L) defeated Girardi (C), 6-0, 6-4.

In doubles, Bowers and Gietzen (C) lost 6-1, 6-4; Jachalke and Bainton (C) lost 6-0 6-1; and Dan Koengeter and Giebel lost 6-2, 6-3.

Freshmen Split Two in Week

Chelsea freshman baseball team defeated Erie Mason on April 27, 12-10, after rallying from an eight-run deficit.

Jamie Courdway picked up the win in relief of Case McCalla. He pitched four innings, struck out five and gave up one hit.

Jesse Petty had two hits, including a double, and Ryan Ludwig had two hits and two stolen bases.

Chelsea lost to Ypsilanti, 17-4, on May 1.

Ludwig was the starting pitcher and Jeff Branch pitched in relief and struck out five.

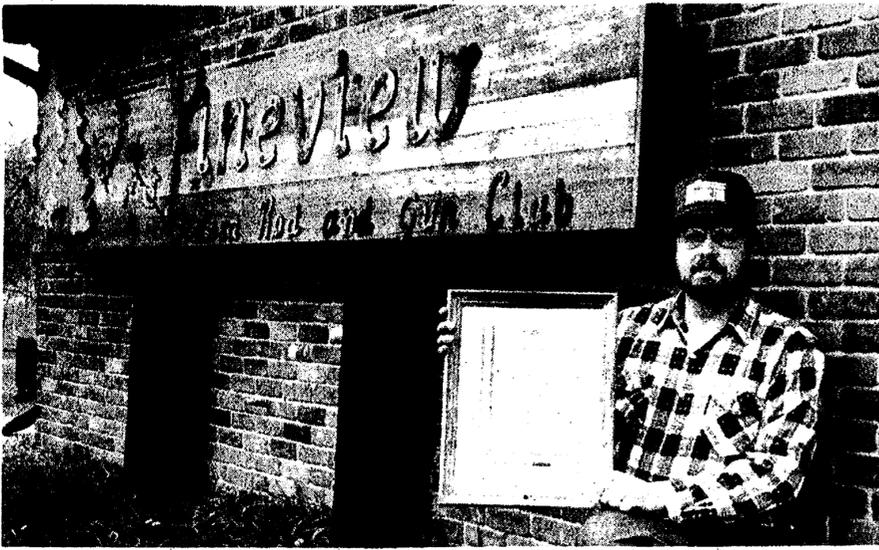

McCalla had two hits, and Dirk Wales and Charlie Sell each had one hit.

Next home game is Friday against Tecumseh.

MERITORIOUS ACHIEVEMENT AWARD was presented to Chelsea Rod & Gun Club by the National Rifle Association of America. The prestigious award recognizes clubs that have met NRA Club Awards Program standards in administrative organization, member services, program development, and public service. The Chelsea club's significant achievements included sponsoring youth programs, conducting firearms training courses, publishing a club newsletter, and participating in local legislative programs. Above, club president Jeff Gunnis shows off the award at the club on Lingane Rd.

Chelsea Boys Track Team Tops Fowlerville in Double Dual Meet

Chelsea Bulldogs boys track team beat the Fowlerville Gladiators, 71-66, but lost to the Stockbridge Panthers, 74-63, in a double dual meet at Fowlerville last week. Mike Terpstra and David Beeman finished 1-2 in both the shot put and discus in both meets. In the shot put, Terpstra threw 47' 3" and Beeman hit 46' 9". In the discus, Terpstra had a personal best 130' 9" while Beeman went 128' 9". Cory Brown jumped 18' 11" in the long jump, good for third in the Fowlerville meet. Dana Schmunk's jump of 5' 10" in the high jump took first against Fowlerville but second against Stockbridge. Hans Kemnitz was third against Fowlerville at 5' 6". In the 110 high hurdles, Martin Cheng's time of :16.7 placed first against Fowlerville and second against Stockbridge. David Stimpson's personal-best time of :18.3 was second against Fowlerville but third against Stockbridge. Jason Garrigus was first against Fowlerville but third against Stockbridge in the 100 with a time of :11.9. Chelsea's 3200 relay team of Dan Zatkovich, Cory Brown, Scott Hawley, and Ryan Schultz set a season-best mark by more than 11 seconds as they placed first against Stockbridge. Zatkovich and Chad Brown placed 1-2 in the 1600 against Stockbridge with times of 4:53.2 and 4:59, respectively. Zatkovich's time also won the Fowlerville meet but Brown's dropped to third. It was Brown's best time ever. The 800 relay team of Cory Brown, Kemnitz, Schmunk, and Garrigus won the Fowlerville meet in 1:38.8 but didn't place against Stockbridge. Cory Brown's time of :44.9 in the 400 run won the Stockbridge meet, but took second against Fowlerville. Chris Taylor was third against Stockbridge at :57.6, a season-best time. Cheng placed second in the 300 intermediate hurdles against Fowlerville with a time of :45.7. Schmunk was third at :45.8.

In the 800 run, Hawley placed first against Stockbridge at 2:09.8 and Zatkovich was third at 2:11. It was Hawley's personal best. Garrigus won in both meets in the 200 dash with a time of :23.5. Schultz and Chad Brown ran 1-2 in both meets in the 3200 run with times of 10:29.2 and 10:35, respectively. Tobin-Strong was third in the Stockbridge meet. The Bulldogs placed sixth among 13 teams at the Corunna Relays last Friday, a meet won by class A powerhouse Flint Kearsley. Chelsea had two first-place finishes. The discus relay team of Terpstra, Beeman, and Tom Poulter combined for 361' 4 1/2". And the shot put team consisting of the same three boys totaled 141' 1/2". Terpstra had a heave of 53' 4 1/2", his best by three feet. The 3200 relay team of Zatkovich, Hawley, Cory Brown, and Schultz placed second in 8:42.2. The freshman-sophomore 1600 relay of Cory Brown, Hawley, Kevin Kolodica, and Taylor placed fourth in 3:45.4. And the varsity 1600 relay of Dana Schmunk, Zatkovich, Poulter, and Garrigus placed sixth in 3:44.6.

Baseball Results

(Continued from page ten) at third with one out, but the next two batters struck out. The big story again was six Chelsea errors, and "three or four more mental errors," Welton said. Adams pitched the first five innings and Ken Slane pitched in relief. "Jason pitched well in both games and deserved to win," Welton said. "Adam played outstanding defense at catcher. He threw several runners out and stopped numerous balls in the dirt. And Jacob had five hits. If we had played any defense..."

Monday night in a big double-header at Tecumseh, the Bulldogs split with the Indians, winning the first 6-2 and losing the second, 14-9. Rindle went the distance in the opener, pitching a four-hitter. He also had the hot bat as he went 3-4 with a solo home run in the fifth. Chelsea led throughout as they scored four runs in the first, featuring singles by Jaques and Rindle, and a double by Chris White. Taylor's two-run homer in the fourth inning put Chelsea back up by four, 6-2, as the Indians scored twice in the second inning. Jaques, Taylor, and Chris White each had two hits. The second game was "a wild affair," in Welton's words. The Bulldogs fell behind 0-0, but eventually took a 9-8 lead in the top of the fourth inning, featuring two-run singles by Hurst and Chris White. The lead didn't last long, however, as Tecumseh scored four times in the bottom of the fourth, helped by a three-run homer. Chris White was the starting pitcher and Hurst relieved him with two outs in the fourth inning in a rare mound appearance. "Our defense didn't make the key plays," Welton said. Jaques had two hits for the game. Chelsea and Tecumseh each had two SEC losses and were tied for the lead after Monday. Chelsea was scheduled to face Lincoln last night in a make-up contest and they host Pinckney Thursday.

Former Pastor Returning For Zion 125th Celebration

Zion Lutheran church, 3050 S. Fletcher Rd., will celebrate their 125th anniversary with a worship service on May 10 at 10:15 a.m., featuring their former pastor, Robert Kaiser. Pastor Kaiser served Zion from 1965-1967 and then served St. Paul's, Maybee. He then served Bethlehem and Epiphany Lutheran churches in Toledo and Trinity, Wauseon, O. He retired in May, 1991 and lives in Sylvania, O., with his wife, Polly. After worship the congregation is hosting a pot-luck dinner with special music provided by "The Counterpoints" featuring Laurie Heller and Debbie Morris. The community is invited to attend.

A RED CARPET LEASE OFFERS MORE.

LEASING MAKES SENSE. With a 24 month Red Carpet Lease, you only pay for what you use - only that portion of the vehicle's value that you use during the period of your lease. So now you can drive a better equipped new vehicle every two years.

NO RESALE HASSLE. Leasing can free you from the hassle of trying to sell a used car or truck. When it's time for a new vehicle, there's no uncertainty about your vehicle's value, no advertising or the inconvenience of talking to numerous prospective buyers.

3-YEAR/36,000 MILE WARRANTY. Your leased vehicle carries the same 3 year/36,000 mile bumper-to-bumper warranty* as a financed vehicle - reducing or eliminating unexpected expenses.

LOWER DOWN PAYMENT. Leasing allows you to drive a new vehicle without a big down payment and frees up your credit for other purposes.

From the SUPERINTENDENT'S CORNER

By JOSEPH K. PIASECKI

Questions are often asked by residents about the Chelsea schools that deserve a wide circulation. The Chelsea Standard has agreed to publish this column several times during the year to provide information to the residents of the Chelsea School District.

WHY ARE WE HAVING A MILLAGE ELECTION ON JUNE 8?

All of our operating millage expires with this tax collection, so we are seeking a renewal of 26.0261 mills for one year. Due to Tax Based Sharing ($80,000), the freeze in SEV ($424,021), and a reduction in special education reimbursement ($150,000), the Board is also seeking an additional millage of 1.95 mills for one year.

WHAT WILL THE BALLOT SAY?

I. MILLAGE RENEWAL PROPOSITION
Shall the limitation on the amount of taxes which may be assessed against all property in Chelsea School District, Washtenaw and Jackson Counties, Michigan, be increased by 26.0261 mills ($26,0261 on each $1,000.00) on state equalized valuation for the year 1992, to provide additional funds for operating purposes, 0.8692 of the above millage to be used for maintenance, repair and improvement of school facilities (this being a renewal of 26.0261 mills for operating purposes which expired with the 1991 tax levy)?

II. ADDITIONAL MILLAGE PROPOSITION
Shall the limitation on the amount of taxes which may be assessed against all property in Chelsea School District, Washtenaw and Jackson Counties, Michigan, be increased by 1.95 mills ($1.95 on each $1,000.00) on state equalized valuation for the year 1992, to provide additional funds for operating purposes?

WHY ARE BOTH ISSUES FOR ONE YEAR?

Both issues are for one year because of the uncertainty of funding of schools for next year. The election in November and the subsequent action of the Legislature may bring meaningful changes in school finance. Next June, we will need another election to set a new millage rate based on the action or inaction of the Legislature.

WHAT WILL HAPPEN IF THE RENEWAL DOES NOT PASS?

The only millage the district would have would be the allocated millage of 9.7524. The Chelsea School District could not operate the schools on the allocated millage only. We would have enough money to operate schools through October humane perspective, it also makes sense from an economic perspective. Every dollar spent by a community today on spaying and neutering dogs and cats can save $18 in the next 10 years. Let's urge our officials to act immediately to promote more aggressive spaying and neutering programs to stop this killing of innocent animals. Gaylin Bates.

Letters to the Editor

To the Editor,
Every year in America, up to 15 million dogs and cats are killed simply because there are not enough good homes for them.

They are sentenced to death for the "crime" of being born. Thank heaven most shelters at least try to administer that sentence in the most merciful manner possible.

But there is an alternative. Doesn't it make infinitely more sense to prevent pet over-population through reproductive control than to try and "cure" it by killing these poor animals?

Of course it does. Especially when you realize that two uncontrolled breeding cats, plus their kittens and all their kittens' kittens if none are spayed or neutered, have the potential to multiply to more than 80 million cats during a 10-year breeding life.

To the Editor:

I can't be as eloquent as Lynne Sterling, Norma Huschke, Carolyn White or Clara Smith, but I do want to add my support to theirs, and I hope many others, for the school millage proposal.

It is my firm belief that the most important factor in my children's education is the teacher-student relationship: subject matter comes and goes, and everything from teaching technique to the "best" way to construct school buildings is forever in flux. But human beings who are willing to commit themselves to children's growth are what determine the quality of a school system.

When our nation was young, Tocqueville advised us that the price of civilization is taxation. Quite literally, I am willing to pay that price to employ the teachers who contribute, by touching our children, to the maintenance of our civilization.

Steve Hinz is one such person, as is Marie Polakowski. The schools would be diminished without them: the students would lose access to the kind of teachers who enrich the spirit and set positive direction in a world that is, frequently enough, ambiguous and confusing.

I have to trust that this is a community that cherishes its children enough to provide them the educational opportunities, via access to these and other good teachers, that make a difference in their lives.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor,
We would like to address the question of what would be lost if the millage doesn't pass. There are so many issues, where does one start?

Maybe we could talk about the middle school students having nothing to do but get into trouble if there are no sports to help develop their minds and bodies.

Maybe we could talk about losing such a fine choir director who teaches not only singing, but also, more importantly, personifies a caring, responsible lifestyle. We had the pleasure of hosting 80 high school students for the cast party for the recent high school musical "Grease." We say hosting because we didn't have to "chaperone." They were courteous, fun to be around, and respectful of our house and their peers.

We know that there are people who prefer to look at what is wrong with our school district. Maybe we should support what is going so well and give this generation the thanks and chance they deserve. We plan to vote yes and have confidence that this town will not let their children down!

Sue and John Williams.

To the Editor:
At the Board of Education meeting held on Monday, May 4, 1992, I made a statement totally inappropriate for a Board meeting. I apologize to Debbie Kennedy, publicly, for the embarrassment I caused her.

Joseph K. Piasecki
Superintendent of Schools.

To the Editor,
I've been involved in this community for 40 years. I moved back here to live 15 years ago. That decision was based in part on positive feelings I have about the schools, a love of the country surrounding us, and the people here who projected a positive attitude toward community involvement and improvement.

I work as a school psychologist in Jackson. I was so proud every time this community passed a millage and our schools improved. The schools I work in struggle daily to meet students' needs. In some cases no sports, no gym, no music, no art—no room for kids! Thirty to a class, in a trailer! During one crisis in Jackson, Chelsea passed a millage—decided they had over-estimated need and GAVE IT BACK! I was impressed with the positive impact and proud of the school leadership!

My grandfather didn't believe in schools or education. My mother tells me he put eggs and sugar in the gas tanks of his kids' cars—so they couldn't finish high school and would stay on the farm. My mother, the oldest, took them in and made sure they made it to Chelsea High School. One uncle went to U. of M. and is an engineer. Others did go on to be farmers in this community—smart farmers! The positive support this community has given its schools started with my mother's generation.

Negativity breeds negativity. We're all struggling financially. But I believe in education. I believe it is the only path away from ignorance and toward solutions. I believe we WILL pass this millage. I believe if Gov. Engler succeeds in taking more money away, we WILL pass another millage.

I believe we will be able to solve the problems we are having in our schools—not by pointing fingers, but by action, positive problem solving action. Problems don't get solved by eggs or sugar in a gas tank. They get solved by action.

Our children will inherit our messes, political, personal, environmental and governmental. We must educate them with the newest technological and brightest ideas around so they can solve the vast problems we will leave them.

I believe I live in a positive, supportive community that can work together and solve this current financial problem our schools are having.

Sandy Mety.

Dear Editor:
Last week I had the opportunity to escort 133 students and chaperons from the eighth grade class from Beach Middle school on a tour of Washington, D.C.

Anytime a group this size goes to any strange city, (and Washington, D.C. is one of the strangest!), there are bound to be unexpected problems. But due to the excellent attitude and preparedness of these students, the trip went extremely well.

During this trip, the city was the most crowded I have ever seen it, yet we managed to fit almost everything into the trip we had planned. This would not have been possible without the co-operation of the students.

I was especially pleased with the students' behavior at an evening performance of "The Music Man" at a dinner theater. The students were quiet during the performance and showed appreciation through applause at appropriate times. They exhibited maturity far beyond their years, (unlike some student groups also present that evening).

The Chelsea community should be very proud of their young people as well as the parents, teachers, and administrators who accompanied the students on the trip. Special commendation should be made to Ms. Sue Craig and Ms. Sandy Parker for all of their hard work in planning the trip, and to Ms. Judy Ward who started it all last year.

This was my second trip with Beach Middle school and I really look forward to many more in the future.

To the Editor,
I strongly urge the Chelsea Board of Education to resist the temptation to purchase Channel One for the schools. I've seen it in classrooms, and it certainly is slick television, but as Bev Yelsick points out, it fosters passive learning: it allows kids to sit like sponges and soak up information. Worse than that are the commercials. Ten minutes of high quality television could serve a purpose in an otherwise stimulating classroom. But there is no excuse for broadcasting commercials in the public school classrooms.

Only two minutes, but two minutes to a captive audience in which the for-profit food industries get free access to kids, free rein to reinforce their message that these foods—Pepsi, snacks—are what kids want and need, is two minutes too many.

I support creative uses of technology in the classroom. I do not support giving advertisers access to those same classrooms. I hope the board will resist the "opportunity" for a quick technological fix at the expense of educational principles.

Emily Jessup.

To the Editor:
I am writing this letter in response to recent letters in your column concerning the upcoming millage election.

"Every family's budget stretches to pay for what we find important . . ." I found this statement very offensive. This is not a true statement. There are families and individuals who find education of the utmost importance, who simply cannot stretch their budgets any further.

My mother is an example of one of these individuals. She has lived in Chelsea for 30 years. She has raised eight children in the Chelsea School District. This is her home. However, she now finds herself in a very sad situation.

My mom lives on a fixed income. Her taxes are already so high that she can't pay them. I didn't say afford them. I said PAY them. She has had to choose between paying her taxes and heating her home. Which would you choose? She has been forced to put her home up for sale. This isn't something she wants to do. Rather it has been dictated to her.

We are not going to vote yes for the millage. There comes a time when families and individuals have to say NO. It doesn't have anything to do with sending messages, or giving pink slips to first rate teachers. It's called survival.

We have two children in the Chelsea School District and of course we want them to get the best education possible, but we also have to be realistic. We are not a two income family and we cannot afford higher taxes.

Instead of us looking for a way to stretch our budget, it is time for the school board to stretch what they already have and to stop making us feel guilty for voting no because we don't have it to give.

We will vote on June 8th according to what we can afford. We will not be voting to lay-off excellent teachers or to cut programs that we see useful. Our finances simply dictate that there is no way we can vote yes.

Doris Taddanio Wins WWRA Slogan Contest

DORIS TADDANIO of Freedom township, center, was the winner of the first and third place prizes in a slogan contest sponsored by the Western Washtenaw Recycling Authority. For first place she won $50. Her third-place prize was a newspaper recycling bin. Katie Chapman of Chelsea, left, took second place. She won stackable recycling bins. Right is authority representative Susan Satterthwaite, who made the presentations.

Doris Taddanio of Freedom township was the winner in the Western Washtenaw Recycling Authority's Slogan Contest.

Taddanio took both first and third place. Her first place entry, which won $50, was "Look for the Triangle, Don't Be Square, Show the Earth You Really Care."

Her third place entry, which won a newspaper recycling bin, was "Children—More Than a Million Reasons To Recycle."

Kathleen Chapman of Chelsea took second place for her entry "Waste Not—Want Not, Recycling Helps a Lot. She won a set of stackable recycling bins.

Thirty-three people at the authority's last meeting voted on their favorite slogans. The authority will use some of the slogans to promote its programs.

- Runners-up included the following.
- "Recycle! The World Depends on It." Robert Clark of Chelsea.

Morel Mushrooms Lure Visitors

Gourmets savor them, chefs favor them, and thousands search for them. We're talking about morel mushrooms, a springtime delight in Michigan.

Morel season attracts some half-million fans to state woods and forests each May. It's a prime recreational activity in northern Michigan between the ski season and the boating months.

"Tourists love morel season for a variety of reasons, not limited to their enjoyment of the delicious mushrooms," said AAA Michigan member services director Peter Erickson. "Some visitors also go morel hunting to experience Michigan's lush woodlands, wildflowers and animals. Others enjoy the variety of activities offered at the Michigan festivals that celebrate the morel season."

With heavy snow in the winter, good moisture and warm temperatures in early spring, black morels generally spring up in abundance during the first week in May. The best white morel picks are usually in mid-May.

For those who love to eat morels but do not necessarily want to hunt them, the savory mushroom may be purchased commercially during the peak season for about $15-$20 per pound. Or, new technology now allows morel lovers to grow them at home with a kit available at some retail stores in the state.

AAA Michigan recommends searching for morels near elm, ash and cherry trees, old orchards and tree stumps. Hunters should wear long-sleeve shirts and long pants to avoid poisonous plants and insect bites.

Four state festivals will celebrate the morel season this spring:

- Walloon Lake 6th Annual Morels & More outings—April 17-19, 24-26, May 1-3, 8-10, 15-17. These week-ends feature morel recipe sharing, cookouts and wine-tastings and are highlighted by a mushroom hunt with Larry Lonik, morel expert and author of "The Curious Morel."

- Boyne City Morel Mushroom Hunting Championship—May 8-10. A carnival, mushroom hunt and luscious mushroom dishes served at local restaurants highlight this festival.

- Mesick Mushroom Festival—May 8-10. A mushroom hunt, craft sale, parade and flea market entice visitors.

- Lewiston Mushroom Festival—May 9. Contests, fairs and of course, the hunt, are the standouts of this festival.

According to the U.S. Dept. of the Treasury there are 4,829,861,685 dollar bills in circulation.

Washington Street Show Choir Tickets Available

Don't delay, go and get your tickets soon for the second annual Washington Street Show Choir "Cabaret."

The success of last year's one night show was so great that this year there will be two performances, Friday, May 15 and Saturday, May 16, each beginning at 7:30 p.m. in the George Prinzing Auditorium at Chelsea High school.

The Washington Street Show choir is a group of 38 high school students who thrill audiences with their high energy song and dance routines. Their founder and director is Steven Hinz, who is Chelsea schools K-12 vocal instructor. The choir receives no school dollars and depends on ticket sales for funding. Helping to make this coming performance possible is a sponsorship by Huron Valley Travel and Key Tours.

This is a show the entire family can enjoy, young and old alike. It promises to be a very full evening of entertainment with the Show Choir performing numbers that have already become audience favorites and solo spots that will showcase some of the choirs' members individually.

A special addition will be a performance by the "A.D. Mayer Show Choir," a group of 39 students in grades 6-8 from Beach Middle school. They have been busy getting vocal instruction after school from Hinz and choreography training from Roxie Krings for their rendition of "Alexander's Ragtime Band."

This will be the last open performance of the Washington Street Show Choir for the school year.

Tickets are available at Chelsea Pharmacy.

Breathers Clubs Host Celebration of Clean Air Week

The next meeting of the Chelsea Breathers Club will host a celebration of the 20th anniversary of the American Lung Association of Michigan's Clean Air Week (May 2-4) and their message, that "Clean Air Is Up to You." This meeting will be held Saturday, May 16, from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m., in Dining Rooms A & B of Chelsea Community Hospital, 775 S. Main St., Chelsea. It will also mark the close of the 1991/1992 season for the Chelsea Breathers Club.

Speaker for this meeting will be Alex Sagady, director of environmental health for the American Lung Association of Michigan. His topic will be "Indoor and Outdoor Air Pollution: What It Is and What You Can Do About It."

Breathers clubs are free educational and social opportunities for persons with breathing difficulties caused by chronic lung diseases such as asthma, allergies, chronic bronchitis, emphysema, and lung cancer.

For more information on this meeting or Breathers Clubs in other areas, please contact the American Lung Association of Michigan at 1-800-678-LUNG.

1992 FORD ESCORT LX

Why lock yourself into a 5-year obligation? Now get low payments for only 24 months with a Red Carpet Lease!

1992 FORD ESCORT LX... IT'S LOADED!

- 1.9L SEFI I-4 Engine
- 5-Speed Manual Transaxle
- Power Steering
- Dual Electric Remote Mirrors
- AM/FM Stereo with Clock
- Rear Window Defroster
- And More

A RED CARPET LEASE OFFERS MORE.

LEASING MAKES SENSE.

With a 24 month Red Carpet Lease, you only pay for what you use - only that portion of the vehicle's value that you use during the period of your lease. So now you can drive a better equipped new vehicle every two years.

NO RESALE HASSLE.

Leasing can free you from the hassle of trying to sell a used car or truck. When it's time for a new vehicle, there's no uncertainty about your vehicle's value, no advertising or the inconvenience of talking to numerous prospective buyers.

3-YEAR/36,000 MILE WARRANTY.

Your leased vehicle carries the same 3 year/36,000 mile bumper-to-bumper warranty* as a financed vehicle - reducing or eliminating unexpected expenses.

LOWER DOWN PAYMENT.

Leasing allows you to drive a new vehicle without a big-down payment and frees up your credit for other purposes.

per month
for 24 months

|-----------------------------------|-------------|
| Monthly lease payment | $179.35 |
| Refundable security deposit | $200 |
| Down payment | $787.00 |
| Total cash due at lease inception | $1,166.35* |
| Total amount of monthly payments | $4,304.40 |

Now you can drive a new Ford Escort every two years.

See Your Suburban Detroit Ford Dealer

See your dealer for a copy of this limited warranty. Lease payment is based on an average capitalized cost of 99% of M.S.R.P. on Ford Escort LX with PEP pkg. 320A. Lease payment includes destination charge, but excludes title and taxes and is based on a closed-end 24 month Red Carpet Lease from Ford Credit. Lessee may have the option but is not obligated to purchase the vehicle at lease end at a price to be negotiated with the dealer at lease signing. Lessee is responsible for excess wear and tear and $11 per mile for mileage over 30,000. Lease subject to credit approval and insurability as determined by Ford Credit. See your dealer for his payment and terms. For special lease terms you must take new-vehicle delivery from dealer stock by 6/30/92. Total cash due at lease inception includes security deposit, first month lease payment and total down payment as shown in lease box.

Local Residents Earn Degrees from EMU

Approximately 2,240 Eastern Michigan University graduates were honored in commencement ceremonies on Sunday, April 28 in EMU's Bowen Field House.

Of that number, approximately 1,780 were candidates for bachelor's degrees and 460 were eligible to receive advanced degrees.

The commencement address was delivered by Dr. James Appleberry, president of the American Association of State Colleges and Universities, who also received an honorary doctorate in education from EMU.

Other honorary degree recipients were Michigan Supreme Court Justice Patricia J. Boyle, who was given an honorary doctor of laws, and Dr. Louise Reid Ritchie, executive assistant to the publisher and syndicated columnist for the Detroit Free Press, who was awarded an honorary doctorate in public service.

In receiving his degree, Appleberry was cited for his "unwavering commitment to improve the quality of education in this country" and his efforts, as AASCU president, to "ensure a national commitment to affordable higher education for the American public."

Boyle was noted for her long and distinguished career in the legal profession, which has earned her "the respect and appreciation of (her) peers as well as the public at large," and was recognized for her efforts to increase public participation in the judicial system.

In awarding Reid Ritchie her honorary degree, the university cited her work as "a dedicated journalist, psychologist and involved member of (her) community" who touches and influences "countless people each day" and whose commitment to literacy "enhances and broadens the daily lives of thousands of young people who now enjoy her 'Gift of Reading' (program)."

EMU President William E. Shelton presided over the commencement ceremonies.

Candidates for bachelor's degrees graduating with honors included 29 Summa Cum Laude (3.9 to 4.0 grade point averages), 85 Magna Cum Laude (3.7 to 3.89), and 138 Cum Laude graduates (3.5 to 3.69).

In addition, approximately 88 students graduated from the university's Honors Program.

Locally, Linda S. Allen and Joy E. Thorne, both of Chelsea, earned bachelor degrees and graduated Cum Laude.

Also from Chelsea, Andrew B. Fields, Chad Freyre, Deborah J. Garman, Cheree L. Noble and Wallace E. Smith earned bachelor of science degrees.

From Dexter, Amy Blankenship earned a bachelor's degree in mechanical engineering, Anthony F. Bullock, Andy D. Davis and Gary K. Rendel earned bachelor of business administration degrees, and Jack D. Frost, Gary L. Grim, Jeanette C. Kaercher, Anthony V. Labaie and Marlene A. Soltys earned bachelor of science degrees.

From Grass Lake, Stacy L. Will earned a bachelor of science degree.

From Gregory, Sherman T. Baker received a bachelor of business administration degree, Bethany A. Frendt and Benjamin S. McMurray earned bachelor of science degrees, and Kathleen M. Smith completed a bachelor of fine arts degree.

From Manchester, Erin M. Davis, earned a bachelor of science degree.

From Pinckney, David P. Funk, Denise Lindsay, Pamela S. Thurston and Erika L. Williams received bachelor of science degrees, Mark D. Makara earned a bachelor's degree in business administration and Jennifer M. Placinto earned a bachelor of arts degree.

From Whitmore Lake, James E. Hogan, Rhonda L. Knight, Eric G. Madsen, Paul D. Marzalek, Dean J. Melmoth, and Annie M. Stephenson earned bachelor of science degrees, and Jeffrey C. Miller and Virginia C. Redies completed bachelor of business administration degrees.

Unemployment insurance payments are distributed through state employment service offices. They are listed in the telephone directory in the State government section under titles such as Unemployment Insurance, Unemployment Compensation, Employment Security or Employment Service.

Second 3-on-3 Tournament Slated in Chelsea June 5-7

The second annual Chelsea 3-on-3 Indoor Basketball Tournament will be held Friday through Sunday, June 5-7 in the Chelsea High school gym.

Proceeds from the tournament are donated to the Chelsea Basketball Club for use in the summer program, which includes open gym, league play, tournaments, summer camps for varsity and junior varsity players, and an end of summer picnic. All summer basketball players may be involved in some aspect of the program.

Entry forms are available at Jack & Son Barber Shop, Murph's Barber Shop, Chart Hits and Busters video store, Chelsea Pharmacy, and Chelsea Lumber Co.

Entry fees are $65 per team and fees must accompany registration forms, which must be postmarked no later than May 22.

Minimum age for participation is 8. No player may participate on more than one team. A team may have three or four players. Additions or changes to the roster may be made at tournament check provided the change would not change the team's bracket. Each player must provide proof of age at check-in.

T-shirts will be awarded to all participants and trophies will be awarded in all divisions.

Play begins at 7 p.m. on June 5 and 8 a.m. June 6. If needed, Sunday play will begin at 10 a.m.

PUBLIC HEARING
LIMA TOWNSHIP
PLANNING COMMISSION
TUESDAY, MAY 19, 1992

7:30 p.m.

LIMA TOWNSHIP HALL

11542 Jackson Rd.

A Public Hearing will be held to consider the petition of Anthony M. and Elizabeth M. Sensoli for a proposed amendment to the text of the Zoning Ordinance: Section 15.197, Part B Residential Districts Uses to be amended to include under RS zoning classification the new Special-Use to be called Private Medical Practice.

In conjunction with the above amendment, Article II definitions, would be amended to include the following definition:
Private Medical Practice: a business for the purpose of providing medical care to the local community in a building owned by the practitioner, not to exceed 4,000 square feet. The property must be maintained in a neat manner, with a professional and modest appearance. Signage is limited to 32 square feet.

The property is located at 13699 Old US-12 and is part of the SE
1/4 Section 18, Lima Township, Parcel No. 07-18-400-013.
Written comments may be sent to Gregory McKenzie, Lima Township Planning Commission, 1741 N. Dancer Rd., Dexter, MI 48190.

Note: Farmer Brothers Trucking Co. application for a Special Land Use Permit will continue to be considered at this meeting.

W. J. "Wally" Grossman

Barefoot Bay, Fla. (Formerly of Chelsea) Waldemar J. (Wally) Grossman of Barefoot Bay, Fla., formerly of Chelsea, age 77, died Tuesday, April 28, 1992 at Holmes Medical Center in Melbourne, Fla. He was born March 16, 1915 in Manchester, the son of Louis and Talitha Grossman.

Wally had been an active businessman in Chelsea from 1949 until he sold his garage and general automotive repair business in 1977. Mr. Grossman began his automotive career at age 18 working as a mechanic. He had been employed by Spaulding Chevrolet from 1932 until 1937 and by W. R. Daniels Buick and Oldsmobile from 1937-1940. From 1940-1948 he was the Chief of Police in Chelsea. During WW II he was the youngest Chief of Police in Michigan.

From 1939-1965 he was a member of the Washtenaw County Sheriff's Department, in 1958 he augmented and organized the first Auxiliary Police Civil Defense Unit in Washtenaw county. The defense unit became county-wide and Mr. Grossman was made Lt. Commander for the entire county.

From 1956 until 1970 he was the supervisor of transportation of the Chelsea Public Schools. Just prior to his retirement Wally was employed by Sprague Buick-Oldsmobile in Chelsea.

He was a former member of the First Congregational church of Chelsea, graduated from Manchester High school and was a former member of the Chelsea Kiwanis Club, serving on the board of directors from 1962 to 1964.

Surviving are three sons, David Grossman of Ann Arbor, John St. John of Melbourne, Fla., and Preston (Buzz) St. John of Jacksonville, Fla.; eight grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Memorial services will be held Thursday, May 7, at 1 p.m. from the Staffan-Mitchell Funeral Home with the Rev. J. Keith Roberson, Interim of the First Congregational church officiating. Burial will be in Oak Grove Cemetery, Manchester.

The family will receive friends on Thursday at the funeral home from 11:30 a.m. until the hour of service.

Expressions of sympathy may be made to the First Congregational church or the Purple Rose Garage Theatre.

Judith R. Kouba

Ann Arbor Judith R. Kouba, 53, of Ann Arbor, died Thursday, April 30, 1992 at home. She was born Aug. 6, 1938 in Atlanta, Mich., the daughter of John and Mayme (Thompson) Mulholland.

Recycle Unwanted Household Goods By Donating to the Scouts' Annual Rummage Sale

Need more space but don't want to throw out perfectly good used furniture, appliances, books or dishes?

Make your life easier and help the community by recycling those unneeded items through one of Dexter's most effective recycling programs: Boy Scout Troop 477's annual rummage sale.

The 22nd annual sale won't be held until June 12 and 13. But to ensure another successful sale, Scouts, their parents and troop leaders are collecting donations of merchandise now.

For free pick-up of items contact a Boy Scout listed in the advertisement in The Dexter Leader or Chelsea Standard.

Troop 477 leaders, is the troop's commitment to making sure all shoppers have an equal opportunity to purchase items the morning of the sale. No one, including Scouts or their families, are allowed to make a purchase before the doors open at 9 a.m. on Friday, June 12.

Many bargain hunters return on Saturday, when prices are slashed. New merchandise is continuously added during the sale.

Proceeds from the sale support such troop activities as trips, instructional materials for merit badges and advancement, and service projects.

Allen Anderson Resigns Position as Village Trustee

The Mojobe Desert in California is 15,000 square miles.

Village trustee Allen Anderson has turned in his resignation because he has moved to Missouri. And in the process, village president Richard Steele and the administration may lose a critic and gain a friend.

Anderson gave Steele a resignation letter after last Tuesday's council meeting. It will be considered by council next week.

Someone will be appointed to fill out the remaining 10 months of Anderson's term. Steele has said he wants to nominate Brian Cashman, who ran for trustee in the last election.

Cashman, who publicly supported Steele in the presidential election this year, appears to have views similar to Steele's concerning the necessity for long-range planning and other issues.

Anderson, on the other hand, said on several occasions that he felt left out of the decision-making process. He was also a critic of Steele's methods. He publicly criticized an extra payment, without specific council authorization, to village clerk Suzanne Morrison for work on the voter registration records, although the records were described by the administration as "a mess." Anderson was the previous clerk.

Anderson also criticized consulting fees paid to accountant R.A. Steger for advice on the village budget.

Anderson ran unopposed for clerk as a virtual unknown in 1988. He was elected a trustee in an unopposed election in 1991.

PROCLAMATION

DESIGNATING MAY AS

MOTORCYCLE AWARENESS MONTH

WHEREAS: The Township of Sylvan has many citizens who are concerned about motorcycle safety for touring, recreation, and economic transportation, and

WHEREAS: May is the nationally recognized month motorcycles become more prevalent on our streets; the need to be aware of their presence is of the utmost urgency, and

WHEREAS: An overwhelming number of car-motorcycle accidents could be avoided with due regard, respect, and awareness of motorcycles on the streets and intersections of this Township, and

WHEREAS: The inclusion of motorcycle awareness as a distinct part of the driver education curriculum and motorcycle rider education programs will help to promote safe driving and motorcycle riding practices, and

WHEREAS: It is in the interest of our community and the citizens of the Township of Sylvan to note the increase in the amount of motorcycle traffic, as we enter the warm weather months, to enable the reduction of accidents and injuries involving motorcyclists.

NOW, THEREFORE: We, the Sylvan Township Board of the Township of Sylvan, at a regular board meeting held on the 7th day of April, 1992, do hereby proclaim May as MOTORCYCLE AWARENESS MONTH.

Everybody's Science

* Pili Nuts. Promising Snack Mix

By Marcia Wood
Pili nuts from the tropics have a taste that makes them a promising addition to familiar mixes of peanuts, cashews and almonds.

An inch-long nut shaped like a football, the pili "has a delicate flavor all its own," says Francis T. P. Zee of the U.S. Department of Agriculture's Agricultural Research Service.

"Roasted pili nuts have a crisp, tender texture—softer than a walnut or peanut," he adds. "They make a tasty snack and go well in chocolate candies, ice cream or other desserts."

The potential popularity of pili nuts, says Zee, has been likened to that of Hawaii's macadamia nuts. Once relatively unknown to U.S. consumers, macadamia nuts today are a multimillion-dollar crop that's sold nationwide.

Pili nuts trees are native to the Philippines, where the nut is roasted and glazed with brown sugar. Zee says the trees can flourish in the warm climates of Hawaii and possibly Puerto Rico.

Zee is based in Hilo, Hawaii, as curator of a tropical gene bank operated by USDA's research agency. That collection, known as the National Clonal Repository for Tropical and Subtropical Fruit and Nut Crops, safeguards seeds and plants of about a dozen tropical crops such as pili.

But, the trees can pose problems for growers, he says. That's because pili twigs or buds are difficult to graft successfully to rootstocks that form the base of orchard trees.

If pili were easier to graft, he adds, growers could establish new orchards more quickly. Zee is working with researchers from the University of Hawaii to solve the problem.
