COMMUNITY PROBLEM-SOLVING TEAM from North and South Elementary schools, part of the Enrichment Triad Program, gave a presentation of their bike path project to the 1992 State Conference on Gifted Education last Saturday, May 9. Called the Junior Pathfinders, the 25 children described their role in the "linear park" project and how they have managed to pull together support from service organizations and governmental agencies. They gave skits which portrayed the need for park benches, bike racks, and other necessities to complete the plan. The Michigan Alliance for Gifted Education is the sponsoring agency for the conference. Children include Jennifer Buss, Danny Dault, Karla Dettling, Kate Fahrner, Matt Johns, Louisa Hubbard, Matt Milazzo, Aaron Smith, Erik Strahler, Ingrid Bledron, John Carter, Sarah Clegio, Ryan Cook, Stephen Cowen, Justin Fusco, Joe Miguano, Rachel Mead, Josh Miller, Isaac Robinson, Liana Austli, Katy Long, Patrick Kennedy, Amanda Tarantowski, and Lindsay Thomas. Ruth Stielstra Named Michigan's Top Educator of Gifted Children

Chelsea School District teacher Ruth Stielstra has been given the 1992 Educator of the Gifted Award by the Michigan Alliance of Gifted Education (MAGE).

Stielstra has co-ordinated the Enrichment Triad Program at North and South Elementary schools for the last seven years. The program features outside speakers for all students, to community problem-solving projects, to individual projects students work on throughout the school year. Those projects will be presented at South and North School's annual Celebrate Live! programs on Thursday and Tuesday.

MAGE President Sandy Trosien, gifted consultant for the Washtenaw Intermediate School District, presented the award last Saturday at the state conference on gifted education. There Stielstra's community problem-solving group called the Pathfinders presented skits on their bike path project, which began last school year.

Trosien said 31 educators from around the state were nominated. The organization was looking for someone who has daily interaction with gifted children, as well as someone who has gained national recognition in the field. Stielstra was nominated, Trosien said, by people outside the area who are familiar with the Chelsea Triad program, "which really made people take notice, it wasn't just a local letter-writing campaign."

Trosien said the National Research Center at the University of Connecticut has identified the Chelsea Triad program as one that is suitable for replication across the country. Stielstra has been a guest speaker at Confratute, a summer workshop sponsored by the university which draws international educators.

"The Chelsea program is recognized for its quality and the absolute success it has had in terms of what the program has produced," Trosien said.

The model used by the Chelsea program is one that has stood the test of time, Trosien said. It is the most widely used because it is designed "to be inclusive rather than exclusive because it is looking for a multiplicity of talent and not just IQ scores."

Trosien said Stielstra has turned down opportunities to advance her career "because her first and clear commitment has been to the children. And that was applauded."

The Enrichment Triad Program has been targeted for elimination in the event a request for an additional 1.95 mills is rejected by voters this June.

Chelsea To Exchange Officials with City of Gibraltar

Village of Chelsea officials are taking part next Wednesday, May 20 in Mayor Exchange Day with the City of Gibraltar.

Guests from Gibraltar will be taken on a tour of the Chrysler Proving Grounds, a driving tour of the village, and a tour of Chelsea Milling Co. and BookCrafters, Inc. They are scheduled to have lunch at Gina's Cafe and dinner at the Common Grill.

Recycling Authority Continues Program But Two Townships Bow Out

A comprehensive recycling program for the western part of the county will go on as planned despite the defection of at least two communities and reservations about the project by two others.

After listening to alternate program proposals by two large private trash haulers, delegates to the Western Washtenaw Recycling Authority voted 5-4 last week at a special meeting to continue with the program it began planning nearly a year and a half ago when it applied for and received a $330,000 matching grant from the Department of Natural Resources.

Freedom township, which voted several weeks ago to leave the authority due to concerns about cost, will apparently be joined by Sharon township, whose board of trustees voted last week to set up their own program. Whether others will follow is not known. The eight other original members include Chelsea and Manchester villages, and Sylvan, Lima, Lyndon, Dexter, Bridgewater, and Manchester townships.

The vote taken last week was by secret ballot. Dexter township, the largest member of the authority in terms of population, was not represented but in the past has expressed strong support for the program, said authority chair Ronald Mann of Manchester township. Chelsea and Manchester villages, the second and third largest members, have also shown strong support. Sylvan supervisor Don Schoenberg said Friday that he wants his township to remain in the authority, citing long-term benefits.

"Even if we do lose two or three townships, I still believe we'll be able to meet our mandated 30 percent reduction in trash and best serve our residents," Mann said last Thursday.

"I realize the authority doesn't have all the answers and that recycling is still in its infancy."

The authority's program will include the installation of recycling bins in the townships and a curbside program in the villages. A materials recovery center will be built at the Chelsea landfill.

The meeting was held to consider alternate proposals from Browning-Ferris Industries (BFI) and Mr. Rubbish, two of the largest trash haulers in the county. Board members had visited each company's site the previous week.

The proposals were considerably different. BFI offered to build a recycling center for $325,000, to be owned and operated by the authority. The company would also provide the necessary equipment under a 5-10 year agreement.

The center would also be designed to handle non-recyclable trash, so it could serve as a transfer station once the Chelsea landfill is out of business sometime next year. Trash and recyclables would be hauled away for $12.50 per cubic yard.

Mr. Rubbish offered to place recycling bins in each village and township, and service them on a regular basis. The company would require that all recycling material be placed in bags, which would cost 35 cents each. The bins would be emptied at a rate of $15 per load, and each bin would hold, at most, about 120 bags.

In addition, the company offers what amounts to a curbside recycling program for its trash customers. Recyclables are separated and put in special plastic bags, but the bags can be placed in the Mr. Rubbish carts and taken away with the regular trash, what is called a "co-mingled" program. The material is later separated from the regular trash once it is dumped at a materials recovery center.

During the meeting, all kinds of cost figures were tossed around based on various estimates of the amount of recyclables that could be collected, but there was no convincing evidence that any of the programs was clearly the cheapest. Both haulers admitted that in order for the program to be profitable for them, they would have to expand their trash hauling services in the area. Mr. Rubbish would make its money by not hauling as much trash to the landfill, saving in both trucking and landfill costs. BFI would make its money by picking up more trash and reserving space in its Arbor Hills landfill for other haulers.

Ed Guenther, Lima township's representative, said he wanted to explore whether one of the private haulers might be able to handle parts of the program, such as the hauling and marketing of materials, more economically.

One of the reasons for staying with the program, as expressed by several people, is to maintain local control.

Landfill operator Cecil Clouse, who has been heavily involved in Chelsea's recycling program and the county's solid waste management plan, predicted the authority would lose what remains of the matching grant if it were to sign on with a private company.

"We have to go with the (materials handling) facility because the grant only covers equipment," Clouse said. "If we don't, we'll throw it all out the window. Without the facility, we'll have no options."

Vice chair Frank Hammer, who spoke strongly in favor of retaining the program, said the authority can always go back to the haulers if the program doesn't work as planned.

Mann said last Thursday the authority has the option of signing on other communities if a greater volume of recyclable material is needed to offset fixed costs.

The challenge Bridgewater and Sharon townships will face is to set up their own recycling programs as mandated by the county. The townships will have to show that their programs will reduce the amount of trash going to landfills by 30 percent by 1995. Of the two haulers, Mr. Rubbish appeared to be the most able to provide a program.

The authority has called another special meeting for tonight (Wednesday) at 7 in Manchester Township Hall. Bids may be awarded for the planned materials recovery facility at the Chelsea landfill. In addition, a contract may be offered to one of the candidates for manager of the program.

Sylvan Township Adopts New Boat Law

Sylvan township has adopted a new boat ordinance designed to cut down on the number of boats than can potentially be used on township lakes.

The new ordinance was necessary after an older ordinance governing "keyholing" was not upheld by the state Supreme Court. Keyholing allows someone to buy a few feet of lake frontage that could be used as a lake access point for a large development not directly on the lake.

The new ordinance governs the number of boats by the number of feet of lake frontage. Anyone who owns less than 33 feet would be allowed two boats. Anyone with at least 33 feet would be allowed four boats, which counts everything from canoes to motorboats. More boats are allowed for people with substantially more frontage.

Sylvan supervisor Don Schoenberg said the intent of the ordinance is to regulate the number of boats, although he admitted that if every frontage owner took full advantage of the ordinance, "you wouldn't be able to see the water." He said the idea was not to penalize most current lakefront boat owners, some of whom own four boats.

The ordinance was modeled after another ordinance which has been upheld by the Supreme Court, Schoenberg said.

Van Meer To Join Elite Of Michigan Educators

Former Chelsea School District superintendent Raymond E. Van Meer is scheduled to be inducted into the Michigan Educational Hall of Fame on Thursday, May 14 in Lansing.

Van Meer served as Chelsea superintendent from 1978 to 1988.

The Hall of Fame was created in 1976 to honor those who have made a significant contribution to the quality of education in Michigan.

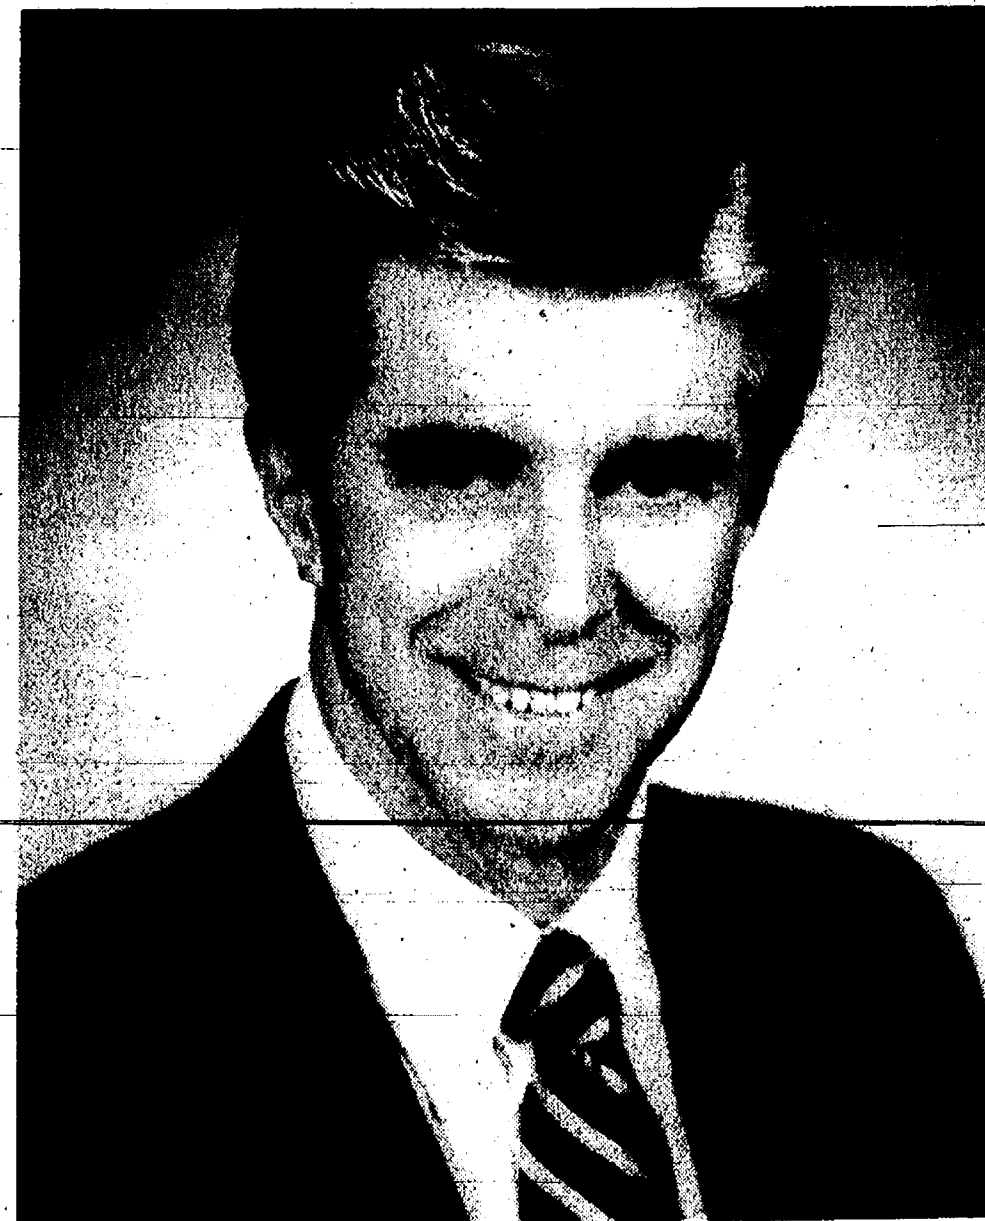

Van Meer, 63, was born in Buffalo, N.Y. and educated at Simpson College and Michigan State University. He was an assistant superintendent, principal, coach, and teacher in Jackson, Eaton Rapids, and Essex, Ia., before coming to Chelsea.

Among other local accomplishments, Van Meer followed up on former superintendent Charlie Cameron's vision for community education in Chelsea, helping the department to expand significantly during the 1980s. He was also an effective communicator with the community and helped the school district achieve relative financial stability. He helped initiate the Employee Assistance Program in conjunction with Chelsea Community Hospital, as well as the See For Yourself and Dialog With the Superintendent programs.

Assistant superintendent Fred Mills said Van Meer was "able to bring new ideas and techniques for the development of school programs," and that may have been Van Meer's most important contribution.

Van Meer served as president of the Michigan Association of School Administrators. He was regional director of The Management Forum from 1984-88. After his retirement from Chelsea, he went on to become program director of The Executive Development Center.

Locally he served as president of the Kiwanis Club of Chelsea and Chelsea Civic Foundation. He was a board member of Chelsea Community Hospital, Huron Valley Ambulance, and the First United Methodist church.

Lima Planner David Bacon Resigns To Do Some Sailing

Long-time Lima township planning commission chairman and member David Bacon recently resigned his position so he could, among other things, do a little sailing on the east coast and in Georgian Bay.

Bacon, who lives on Jerusalem Rd., is retired from Chrysler Proving Grounds. He and his wife, Donna, want to get out in their 23' boat, which for the most part has been taking up room in the back yard of their 60-acre farm.

Bacon, a physics major at Lehigh University and graduate of the Chrysler Institute, moved to Michigan from Connecticut to go to work for Chrysler. He first got involved in local politics in 1965 when the Army Corps of Engineers wanted to flood about 20,000 acres of land in Lima and other townships for "low flow augmentation" for the Huron River. It would have created a huge lake with an average depth of about four feet. His

Preliminary Audit Shows Mistakes, Possible Fraud in Adult Ed Funding
A rapidly-growing $85 million adult education program is plagued by potential fraud and fails to provide meaningful training of marketable skills, according to a preliminary state audit.

Key legislators and Department of Education officials who have seen the audit said they were disturbed by the findings, and said changes are needed to tighten operations if the program is to survive.

Auditor General Thomas McTavish, who said the audit should be completed by the end of the summer, said the matter was so serious the State Police, attorney general and the department have been called in for further investigation of possible fraud.

In an April 29 letter and accompanying summary to legislators, McTavish said the initial findings of the audit, which covers Oct. 1, 1989 through March 31, 1992, show inadequate recordkeeping, over-enrolling, frequent replacement of dropout students and "grossly exaggerated success rates."

The program, which pays districts for training adults up to age 21, has grown from $3.3 million in 1987-88 to $85.4 million in 1990-91. Its costs in 1991-92 are expected to hit $85 million.

"Very significant findings will come out of this. It's very unusual for us to send a preliminary report but because of the seriousness of what we're seeing we wanted to give a heads up," McTavish said. He called the preliminary report "an understatement of the seriousness of the problem."

MICHIGAN MIRROR

By Warren M. Hoyt, Secretary, Michigan Press Association

Under the slot education funding program, school districts are given open-ended state aid for training programs for adults enrolled usually in short-term intensive occupational training programs.

Districts which wish to participate but cannot offer the services within their own resources contract with other providers, McTavish said, with the district usually keeping 30 percent of the state money and the provider receiving 70 percent.

Superintendent of Public Instruction Robert Schiller agreed the auditor's findings raise "some real concerns. When you're talking about potentially fraudulent enrollment and exaggerated success rates, it obviously does not appear on the surface as though it has been a cost effective or worthwhile use of limited resources."

He asked an internal team to report to him on steps that could be taken to address the alleged abuses, saying direct action is required if the program is to be salvaged. But even at that, he said the loss of credibility and effectiveness of the program due to the findings will not make a strong argument for its continuation.

Legislators who had seen the preliminary report agreed Friday that there are significant problems within the program and many have questioned some aspects of it before.

And Rep. James O'Neill (D-Saginaw), who chairs the Department of Education and K-12 House Appropriations subcommittee, said it philosophically is a good program "but there are definitely some abuses."

O'Neill continued that he is not disputing the program, but it is essential that the expenditures made by the state for adult education be worthwhile.

"Everyone's falling all over themselves and we're scrambling to come up with training programs. I'm not saying because of the growth that's not good—fine if we have the participation—as long as we're getting something for our money," he said. "We're going to demand more and more results for the dollars."

Sen. Dan DeGrow (R-Port Huron), O'Neill's counterpart, agreed, saying, "It's become a boom industry in a few districts. The biggest scam going now is recruiting seniors who are not going to college and telling them they can have another free year of school. It's not the best use of K-12 funding given tough economic times."

Rep. Donald Gilmer (R-Augusta), who serves on O'Neill's subcommittee, said he has continually pushed for reforms in the entire adult education program, although he does not dispute its value.

"I've been telling the adult ed community for years that there needs to be more accountability in the program or the roof's going to fall in on them," Gilmer said.

The preliminary report indicates that districts participating in the slot funding program are responsible for meeting school aid requirements such as developing adult education plans, pre-testing students, maintaining adequate records, hiring qualified teachers and performing evaluation, follow-up and placement services.

"Very, very little of that has gone on. The main focus here appears to be getting students into the program and the records are just about nonexistent," McTavish said. The reimbursement to the districts, he said, is based on 480 hours of instruction, but the students only have to show up twice in order for the funds to be paid.

For example, one portion of the preliminary report indicated that at one of the districts visited by McTavish's office, only about 21 percent of the state-funded students completed instruction. The average cost to the state for the program in six districts reviewed ranged from $6,500 to $15,000 per pupil.

McTavish said much less expensive ways of providing training exist. He noted costs for similar programs in community colleges would amount to $2,500 per student.

Both DeGrow and O'Neill said more problems appeared to exist when schools contracted with vendors for the training than when they operated their own programs.

Both subcommittee chairs said they would include provisions in legislation to be introduced next year's K-12 budget, such as basing the funding more on the results of programs and not providing an automatic up front payment, and specifically excluding funding for adults who already have high school diplomas.

And, O'Neill added, policy decisions will have to be made whether the state wants to continue to fund adult ed training efforts on an open ended basis.

Gilmer said he has favored paying districts 110 percent of all reasonable costs as defined by Department of Education, so there's clearly more money than it costs them, as an incentive. "But they are absolutely opposed, the reason being they are probably making more than 110 percent now," he said.

"It's a desperately needed program . . . but I want to see them educated in an accountable system that's cost effective," Gilmer added. McTavish said the districts reviewed to date by his office, which he declined to name, receive the most money from the state for the program. He did say other districts around the state will be visited before the report is completed.

McTavish added that his office "kind of stumbled on this" after it and the Department of Education began receiving complaints from students, teachers and administrators.

The preliminary report found districts and contractors allowed new students to enroll every two months in training programs which were six months in length, and the state has been funding each enrollment regardless of whether it is completed.

The excess enrollments have allowed replacement of students on a continuing basis, with corresponding state support. In the reviewed districts, McTavish said, the additional funding amounted to $3.2 million.

Potentially fraudulent enrollment practices that are the subject of further investigation are submitting records of names of persons who never enrolled, never attended class and had no idea their names were used for this purpose.

Among other findings: —Classes were taught by instructors who were not approved by the Department of Education, as required by the school aid act.

—School districts were not doing their job to control the enrollment abuses, to maintain required records and to hold contractors accountable.

—Counting more students than the capacity of the classroom allowed, resulted in one reviewed district of $1.1 million in over-funding.

—Exaggerated placement rates, including one contractor who claimed a 100 percent success rate when only about 3 percent of its program's participants completed the requirements and found jobs.

Uncle Lew from Lima Says:

DEAR MISTER EDITOR:

Zeke Grubb told the fellows at the country store Saturday night that he has been following politics and voting ever chance he gets all his grown life and he never has seen as many mads, unhappies, undecideds and none of the above as he has this time around. It was Zeke's feeling that this could be the year the Throw the Rascals Out Party final carries the day.

Zeke usual votes for the ins or the outs that want in depending on farm prices at election time. This go round, he said he was voting a straight out ticket because we're in such a mess any change is bound to be a improvement.

On the national scene, Zeke went on, it looks like Perot is building steam for no better reason than he ain't labeled Democrat or Republican. Zeke said folks must agree with the newspaper cartoon that had a fellow saying he was sick and tired of politicians that are out of touch with the common man so he was voting for the Texas billionaire.

The fellows heard Zeke out, but they knowed his lament by heart. Bug Hookum said most regular working folks always vote with their pocket-books, and their camp ain't had much to cheer about lately. The average American is caught in a squeeze between the Republican Administration's trickle down and the Democrat Congress's bubble up, was Bug's words.

Practical speaking, allowed Clem Webster, the more politics change the more they stay the same. Clem said his Pa once told him that every politician needs four hats and no memory. He needs a hat to throw in the ring, one to pull rabbits out of, one to talk through and one to pull over his ears to keep the wind from whistling through his head. Furthermore, Clem said, a camel wouldn't have no trouble going through the eye of a needle compared with a politician trying to keep all his promises.

As for this season's crop of campaigns, Clem read an exchange of letters between Democrat Congressman Bill Heffner of North Carolina and Coy Privette, a Republican preacher that wants Heffner's job. In a letter begging for money, Heffner said he had to spend more than ever before because of all the half truths his opponent was telling about his record.

Privette saw the letter, and he was quick to shoot back. He made Heffner a campaign promise that he would tell nothing but the whole truth about Heffner's record in Congress. Privette said the reason some that had run against Heffner told half truths probable was because they didn't think voters would believe how bad the whole truth is. Privette said his was a positive campaign and he would tell nothing but the positive truth about Heffner. With news of all the banking scandals and how his spending in Congress he said he felt the voters could stand the shock of the whole truth.

Personal, I don't think sticking to the truth is likely to catch on. In England 900 year ago a church offered a side of bacon to any man that would kneel at the front door and swear he had never lied to his wife. Eight men were listed as bringing home the bacon during 900 years records were kept. No Congressman is on record bringing bacon home. Pork is another matter.

Yours truly,
Uncle Lew.

to the bride's gown and carried a basket of rose petals.

Ringbearer was Zachary Anderson of Saline, cousin of the bride.

Best man was Corwin Dixon of Overland Park, Kan., brother of the bridegroom.

Groomsmen were Michael Bragg of Ypsilanti, cousin of the bride, Ted McCune of Ypsilanti, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, Greg Bumpus of Ann Arbor, and Jerry McCune of Ypsilanti.

Ushers were Nels Walter Mickelson, brother of the bride, and Jerry Green of Ypsilanti.

A reception was held at the McKenny Union Ballroom at Eastern Michigan University.

On Nov. 10 the bride's parents hosted a brunch at their home for 36 guests, where the newlyweds opened their gifts.

The couple took a one-week trip to Treasure Island, Fla. They are living in Ypsilanti.

The bride is a 1987 graduate of Huron High school. She is employed at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital and attends Eastern Michigan University in the teacher education program.

Bridge Marathon Play Continues Through June 7

The May 3 meeting of the Couples (Pairs) Bridge Marathon for the benefit of the Chelsea Community Hospital was held in the Woodlands Room of the Hospital on Sunday evening at 6 p.m., with 20 persons participating in the new format for the group.

Winners for the evening's play were Steve and Donna Dotson, of Chelsea, with a total of 4,780 for the 20 hands played. June Wilson and Sherri Plank, of Chelsea, were second with a score of 4,330. Coming in third were Marlene and Bill Rademacher, of Chelsea, with a score of 3,760. Big winners for the April 5 meeting were Jim Lorenz, of Chelsea, with 5,660; in second, Jack Bittle with 5,510; and third was June Wilson with 5,240.

The group is continuing in the same format as last year, with the exception that mixed pairs may play, beginning with the first Sunday evening of October and playing through the first Sunday evening of June, which allows more time for people to play the required five times to qualify for year-end prizes in this marathon event. Each time a person plays, he/she pays $2 for the hospital and 25 cents toward prizes for the evening.

The next meeting will be Sunday evening, June 7 at 6 p.m. in the Woodlands Room of the Chelsea Community Hospital. At this meeting prizes for the year will be awarded, in addition to the evening's winners, so if you've played four times, be sure to make this one in order to qualify for yearly prizes.

If anyone is interested in being on the calling list for play, please contact either Marlene Rademacher (475-5020) or Roberta Barstow (475-3887).

Drain Commissioner Bobrin Seeking Re-Election

Washtenaw County Drain Commissioner Janis Bobrin has announced that she has filed for re-election to a second term as Washtenaw County's Drain Commissioner. Democrat Bobrin, a professional environmental planner, was first elected in 1988.

Among her accomplishments in office to date, Bobrin cited an increased emphasis on environmental protection in all aspects of office operations. New construction proposals that require her approval are now evaluated for water quality impacts. Working with all local communities in rapidly developing Ann Arbor-Ypsilanti area, she has begun a watershed-wide water quality protection initiative for the Huron River. Next month, she expects to receive a federal EPA grant of close to $1,000,000 to fund this effort. Additional federal funding is expected later this summer for construction of water protection measures on Paint Creek, a high quality trout stream.

"Strong, professional local leadership in environmental protection is increasingly important now, as resources are dramatically cut back at the state level. I'm very excited about the work I've started as Drain Commissioner, and look forward to four more years to bring it toward completion," Bobrin stated. Former Democratic county party chair Suzanne Shaw is campaign committee chair.

During her term, Bobrin has presided over the nationally-acclaimed Huron River Pollution Abatement District, recently cited by EPA in the Federal Register. The program has identified hundreds of illegal discharges to the Huron River, and has resulted in measurable water quality improvements. She has initiated a 24 hour on-call Drain Commissioner emergency response service, has revised the drain special assessment tax structure to achieve greater equity, and begun a practice of requiring parties responsible for environmental contamination incidents to pay the costs of clean up rather than county tax payers. Bobrin also takes credit for improving the technical capabilities of her office by upgrading the position of deputy drain commissioner to require certification as a professional engineer.

Bobrin, 40, an Ann Arbor resident, is involved in numerous state and local environmental organizations. She is a board member and past president of the East Michigan Environmental Action Council, a member of Michigan Association of Environmental Professionals, Michigan and Federal Water Pollution Control Associations, and represents Washtenaw county on the area-wide Water Quality Board. Bobrin holds a master's degree in Urban Planning from the University of Michigan, and has worked some 17 years as a professional water quality planner.

Grass Lake Man Receives Commendation Letter from Marines

Marine Lance Cpl. Kasey V. Marshall, son of Earl and Mary Marshall of 12631 Curtis Rd., Grass Lake, recently received a Letter of Commendation.

Marshall was cited for superior performance of duty while assigned with Marine Corps Detachment embarked aboard the aircraft carrier USS Saratoga, homeported in Mayport, Fla.

He consistently performed his demanding duties in an exemplary and highly professional manner.

The 1990 graduate of Grass Lake High school joined the Marine Corps in September 1990.

Roach Control: Non-toxic roach motels can be bought which use only an attractive bait and a glue. Boric acid is a mild poison in powder form, which can be applied to corners and crevices where the roaches are circulating. Be sure to put the powder where pets and children will not get to it; although it is a mild poison, it is still a hazard if consumed directly in significant quantities.

DOMINGO HERMOSILLO of Chelsea and his daughter, Tana Huyck of Ypsilanti, each received a diploma from Eastern Michigan University April 28. Domingo, 48, earned his master's degree in interdisciplinary technology while Tana received her bachelor's degree in international business. Tana is a 1987 graduate of Chelsea High school. Domingo is the financial secretary of United Auto Workers Local 898 and co-chairman of the employee development and training committee. His return to school in January of 1990 was a result of taking advice he gives to Rawsonville auto workers about their educational benefits. Domingo is one of three candidates in the Chelsea Board of Education elections.

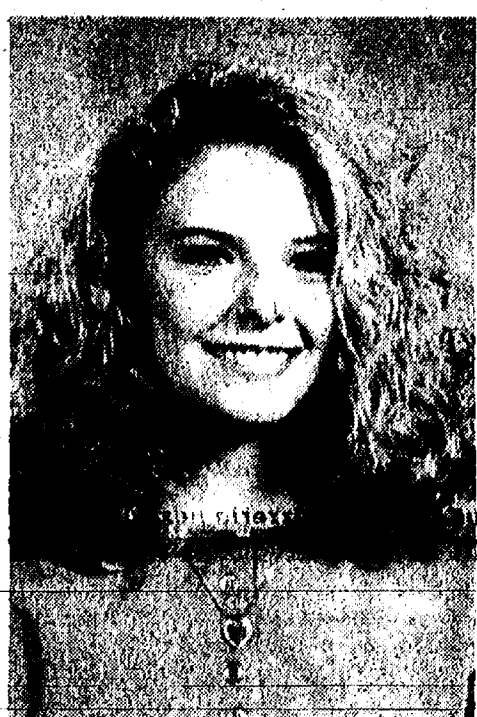

Former Grass Lake Resident Earns Prestigious Theatre Award

Former Grass Lake resident Allison Parsons has recently qualified for the "Honor Bar," the highest award to a high school student given by the International Theatre Association.

Parsons, daughter of Daniel and Cathy Parsons of Apache, Okla., is a member of Apache High School's Drama Group ITS Troupe 3906. She becomes the 12th member of Troupe 3906 to receive the award since the drama group was established in 1983. ITS and troupe policy provide that the honor will be noted on all credits and programs where her name appears.

Parsons first appeared on the stage of the Apache High School Memorial Theatre in April of 1989 when she played Zerelda James in The Legend of Jesse James. She next portrayed Tammy in May We Proudly Present. Her first chance to create a role came in 1990 in the premier of E.L.L.I.S. and Company where she played Ann Dryson. Most recently she played the part of Nellie in Only an Orphan Girl.

Parsons attended Grass Lake schools. Her father is a Chelsea High school graduate and her grandparents, Donald and Mary Parsons, live in Grass Lake.

QUOTES

"Troubles are often the tools by which God fashions us for better things."

—Henry Ward Beecher

The most admirable traits of character are developed by hardships. Courage and perseverance appear on those occasions when things go badly and we call upon our deepest reserves to carry us through a shattering experience. We rise to the occasion and we do what must be done.

A life of constant pleasure and tranquility, without reverses or trouble of any kind, is not usually conducive to the development of a well-rounded character.

We serve families of all faiths and creeds and always with dignity and good taste. You can depend on us for perfectly appropriate services, priced in accordance with the desire of the family we are serving.

farm is where the corps wanted to put its headquarters. He joined other area residents in forming the Mill Creek Research Council, which still exists as an interest group in the area, even though the original threat no longer exists.

He served on various ad hoc committees pertaining to zoning before he was ever appointed to the planning commission. And he says the last three or four years have been the most hectic of all.

"Lima township was reasonably positioned in planning and zoning in 1976 but pressures on the township have grown tremendously in the last three years," Bacon says.

"We were kind of caught by surprise with a sudden onslaught of development. As close as we are to I-94, there will continue to be tremendous pressure. One thing I see that really needs to change is what we considered good planning in the 70s does not work terribly well now. For example, we thought minimum 10 acre lots would be a great way to keep agriculture, but it doesn't seem to work that way."

Letters to the Editor

To the Editor,

Thanks to you for the two good articles on the autographing session for Less Than Immortal.

Thanks to John P. Keusch for aid and encouragement in getting the book in print and for arranging the autographing session.

Thanks to Mr. and Mrs. Mills of the Village Shoppe for the gracious way the afternoon was handled.

It made me very happy to know that Chelsea had not forgotten Frank Porter Glazier.

It was also great to realize that by the turnout of friends and relatives Chelsea is still the friendly place I have always known it to be.

Louis Wm. Doll.

To the Editor,

I, like many other Americans, was shocked and enraged by the Rodney King verdict. Traditionally as a country, we have been more subtle about our racism; we don't like to advertise our dirty laundry on an international level. Initially, I hoped that the verdict would jolt us out of our "consumer stupor" of the past 20 years and renew our sixties commitment to work together toward ending racism in our country.

I became disheartened as I read many articles, which seemed to stress that it was unsafe for me to try to open a dialogue with my brothers and sisters in South Los Angeles. The coverage focused on the naked brutality of these people, not the years of pain and the indignities and injustices that they have suffered at the hands of the political system whose mandate it is to guarantee them "life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness."

They knew the latter to be a sham, but the polls seemed to indicate that many white people were still holding onto the belief that the Rodney King verdict was an anomaly. As a woman I know better!

I suppose sexism is an anomaly too and the fact that we have never had a female president is merely coincidental.

To focus primarily on the violent aftermath of the Rodney King verdict, gives us an excuse to keep on our rose colored glasses. We don't need to look at the disparity in the lives of those who live in South Los Angeles and those who live in Beverly Hills.

The story in South L.A. is not just about racism, it is about greed. It is not right that we continue to pretend that our greed and our racism are not leaving millions of our children demoralized before they get out of their cribs. We prefer to not see them; we prefer to look at their parents and condemn them because they look different and they refuse to believe they have a place in our society. In many ways, they collide with us and perpetuate the belief that they are undeserving.

Why are we so terrified to examine the ugly side of our country? Why are we content to let others interpret for us what we should think, feel and do? If we had the courage to look at ourselves honestly, I believe we would do the right thing. We are a good-hearted people and I believe still possess a passion for justice. Our birth came, as a result of our saying "no" to blatant greed. When did we begin to say "yes" to greed and "no" to human beings?

I hope, we the people, will come out of our houses and neighborhoods and begin to dialogue with each other. We don't need the government to tell us how to heal the rift between us. It is not in their interest to do so! As long as we don't talk; they are free to pursue their dubious interests.

County Treasurer Stimpson Will Seek Re-Election

Michael A. Stimpson has announced that he will seek re-election to a fourth term as Washtenaw county treasurer. Stimpson, a Republican, has been recognized throughout the state as a leader in treasury management and service to his county. He has been appointed to the Michigan Municipal Bond Authority, and will become president of the bipartisan Michigan Association of County Treasurers starting Sept. 1, 1992.

In announcing for re-election, Stimpson said that he is proud of his record of accomplishment and pledged to continue the money management policies that have allowed Washtenaw county to provide needed services to its residents with fewer tax dollars, while enhancing the services provided by the treasurer's office.

Stimpson said, "As your county treasurer, I have implemented computerized cash management, resulting in an increase in millions of dollars in investment returns. This has enabled the county to provide more services without increasing taxes. At the same time, I have continued to improve procedures to ensure that county residents get prompt, courteous, and complete service from the treasurer's office. By working with groups such as legal aide and Senior Housing, I have been able to take a pro-active role in assisting people with their tax concerns."

Stimpson, 44, is a 1970 graduate of Eastern Michigan University. Beginning in 1973 he spent nearly eight years in the County Budget Office and was the senior budget officer for the county before being elected county treasurer in 1980 and re-elected in 1984 and 1988.

Attend Methodist Seminar In Washington, New York

Jennifer Teare and Carey Wallace traveled to Washington and New York on their spring break to participate in a youth seminar organized by the Detroit United Methodist Conference. The seminar focused on the changing role of domestic government in the aftermath of the cold war, with special emphasis on issues of homelessness and poverty in urban areas.

Teare and Wallace first spent several days in Washington, where they participated in seminar sessions, visited Luther Place and the Center for Creative Non-Violence, two homeless shelters, toured the monuments by night, and watched the defeat of the "Walls" bill, with which the seminar was primarily concerned, in the House.

They then traveled to New York, where the focus of the seminar shifted to international affairs. Here they ascended the Empire State Building and toured the United Nations building.

"Living in Chelsea," Wallace said, "I really didn't have much experience with homelessness or poverty. The trip really opened my eyes." Teare was sponsored by the Dexter United Methodist church, and Wallace by the Chelsea First United Methodist church.

More than seven million people received almost $14 billion in unemployment insurance benefits in fiscal year 1989, according to the U.S. Department of Labor. In this same period, some 5.4 million employers paid $17.3 billion in state unemployment compensation taxes.

Farm Safety Measure Awaiting Senate Okay

Michigan Farm Bureau is hoping the state Senate Transportation Committee will soon approve a legislative amendment that permits a farm truck to use a flashing yellow light to warn motorists that the vehicle is towing a farm wagon or other implement of husbandry.

Ron Nelson, legislative counsel for Michigan Farm Bureau, said current state law does not allow the use of rotating, flashing or other special lights, except four-way flashers, on most motor vehicles. "Pick-up trucks are commonly used to tow farm wagons and generally operate at lower speeds in relatively heavy traffic," he said. "The purpose of the amendment is to legalize a practice that really creates for safer motoring."

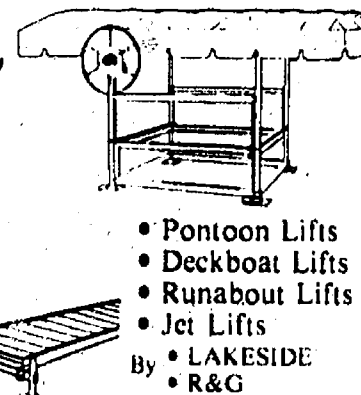

Nelson said Farm Bureau would like to have the amendment added to a bill currently being considered in the Senate Transportation Committee. "Sen. Doug Carl, chairman of the committee, has indicated an acknowledgment of Farm Bureau's request to take up the amendment. However, he has indicated that because of a very tight schedule for the Transportation Committee, it probably will be fall before they can consider the measure," said Nelson.

Dog Baseball Team Still In Hunt for SEC Title

Chelsea Bulldogs varsity baseball team swept the Pinckney Pirates and Lincoln Railsplitters last week to keep them in contention for a Southeastern Conference title.

Chelsea beat the Pirates at home last Thursday, 11-1 and 10-9.

In the first game, Jacob Rindie struck out eight on two days rest to improve his record to 4-0.

Chelsea scored in the bottom of the first on a two-run single by Gary White.

After the Pirates picked up their only run in the top of the second, Chelsea scored eight runs in the bottom of the third, featuring a bases-loaded double by Chris Dunham and a run-scoring single by Rindie.

Rick Clouse's single in the fourth brought home the 11th run.

Dunham was 3-3 for the game, while Rindie, White, and Clouse each had two hits.

In the second game, Adam Taylor's single to right in the bottom of the seventh tied the game. And in the eighth, Ben Hurst singled home Rindie, who had doubled, for the winning run.

Chelsea held an 8-2 lead until the top of the seventh, when Pinckney scored seven times on two hits and four errors.

Chris White started but Hurst won the game in relief for his first victory of the season.

"Ben had a great day for us," said Chelsea coach Wayne Welton.

"He pitched great in relief and had the big hit of the game."

Tuesday's double-header with Lincoln was a make-up from earlier poor weather.

The first game was picked up in the fourth inning, which Chelsea led 11-9. The Bulldogs finally won, 14-9, although they had just five hits for the game.

Chelsea had scored nine runs in the first and four in the second, while Lincoln tied the game in the third with a nine-run outburst.

Dunham's bases-loaded double was the big hit in the first inning.

Jason Adams pitched the final three innings in relief.

In the second game, Lincoln's rally in the top of the seventh fell just short as the Bulldogs won 9-8.

Gary White (3-1) was the winning pitcher.

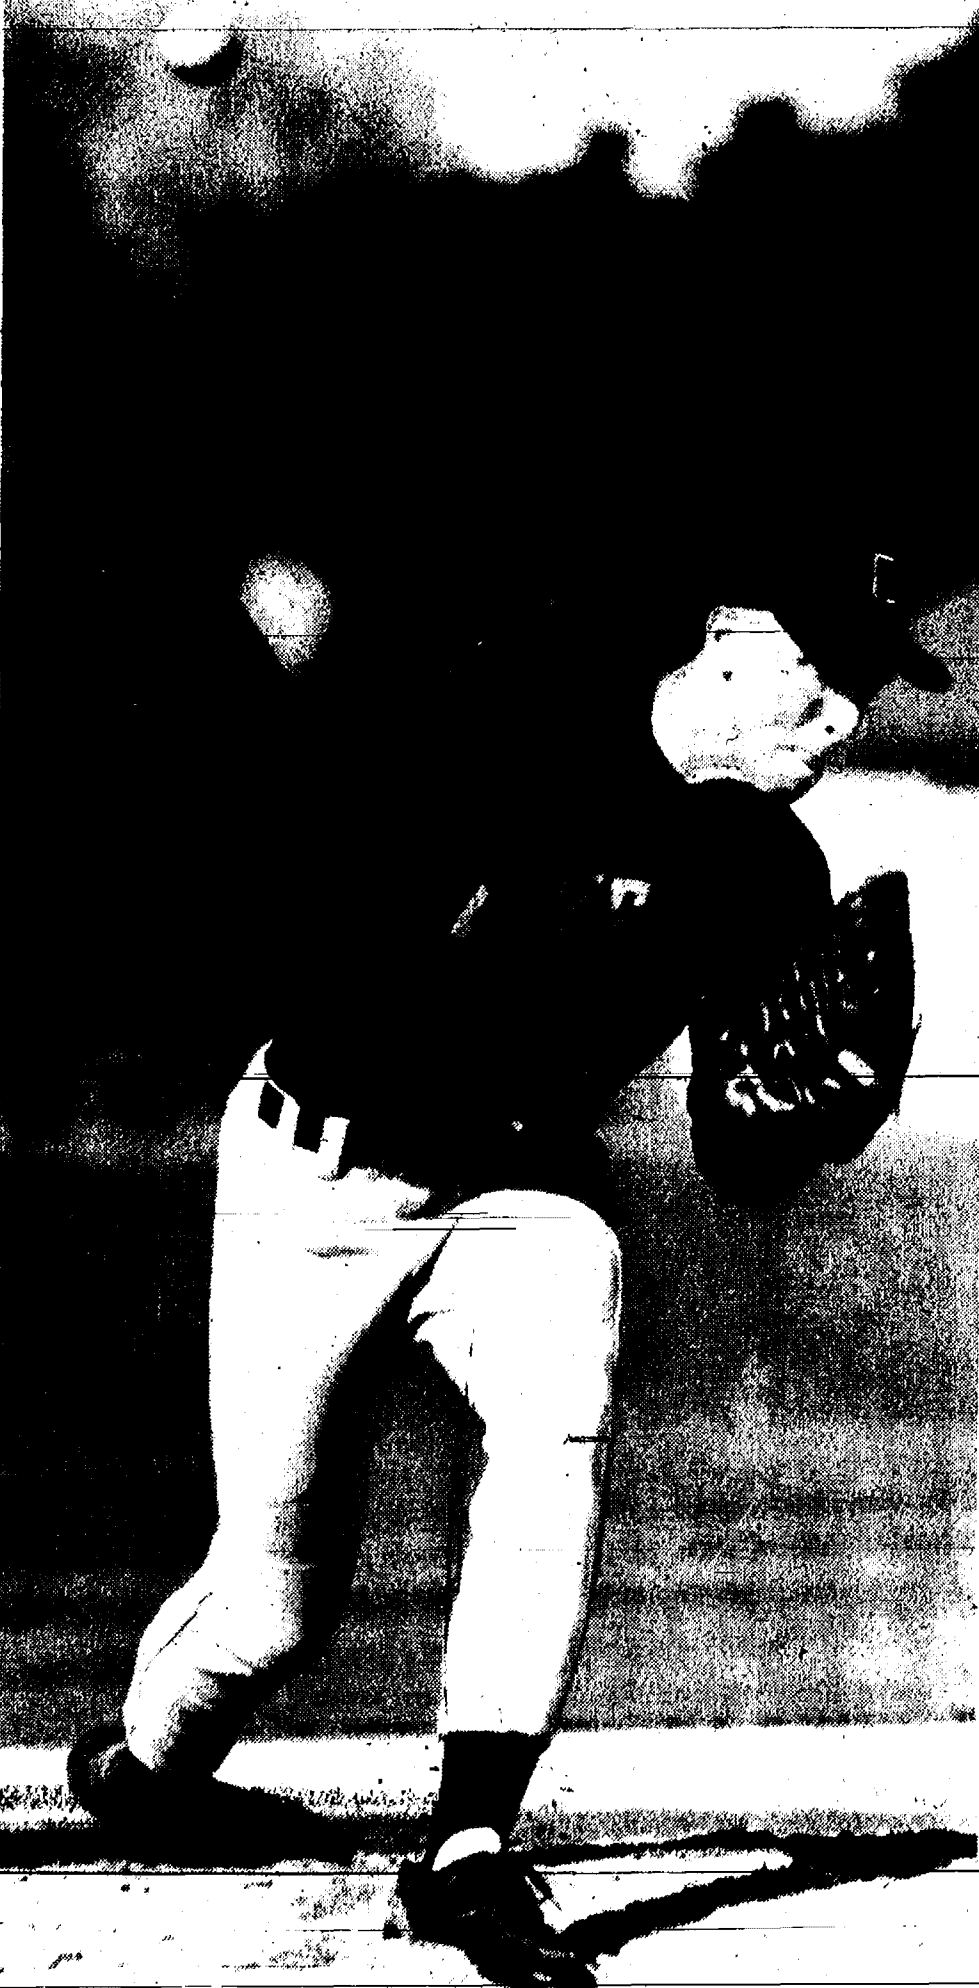

Chelsea scored six runs in the bottom of the second to take a 9-0 lead, featuring a double by Ken Slane, a two-run double by Rindie and a two-run single by Hurst.

Hurst and Taylor had two hits each in the nine-hit attack.

In non-conference play, Chelsea lost to Ypsilanti, 6-2, but beat Birmingham-Groves, 8-7, in the final week of play in the Rawlings Invitational last Saturday.

Ypsilanti's hard-throwing Chris Dessellier struck out 16 Bulldogs and yielded just three hits. Chelsea scored twice in the first to take the lead on a walk, single by Hurst, and two wild pitches.

Chelsea, however, gave up two hits, three walks, and a bases-loaded throwing error for six runs in the top of the second. From there on, Gary White shut the Braves down as he gave up just two hits for the game.

The Bulldogs had three hits for the game, singles by Rindie, Hurst, and Slane.

In the second game, a walk to Chris White, single by Pat Steele, and a botched pick-off attempt in the bottom of the sixth inning produced the winning run.

However, the Bulldogs turned a game-winning, bases-loaded double play in the top of the seventh inning for Steve Grau, who notched a save for Adams, who won the game.

Groves led 6-1 before Chelsea scored three runs in the third on four walks, and two more in the fourth on hits by Casey Schiller and Colby Skelton, and an error.

Tim Wescott's double in the fifth gave Chelsea a crucial run.

The Bulldogs had just four hits.

Chelsea lost both ends of a double-header at Saline Monday afternoon, which could drop them from the first to fourth seed in this Saturday's SEC tournament.

The Bulldogs lost the first game, 4-3, on a single by Saline's Jeff Comfort in the bottom of the seventh.

Rindie picked up his first loss since his sophomore year.

"We basically didn't hit very well," Welton said.

Saline got three runs in the third inning on a misplayed fly ball and a hit.

Chelsea scored two in the sixth, featuring Schiller's RBI single. Pat Steele was thrown out at the plate, which could have tied the game.

In the seventh, Hurst's two-out evened the game at 3-3.

Chelsea spent the whole second game trying to play catch-up before finally losing 6-3.

Rindie's double in the third, followed by a sacrifice fly, tied the game at 1-1.

Saline eventually took a 4-1 lead, and Chelsea moved to within 4-3.

Chris White "pitched a solid game," Welton said.

The Bulldogs finish the SEC regular season with an 8-4 record, tied with Saline. Tecumseh and Milan are likely to finish ahead of them.

IT WAS A CLOSE PLAY at the plate but Chelsea's the Bulldogs' double-header with the Pinckney Pirates at Heather McConeghy was out this play last week during home: Chelsea went on to win both games easily.

Bulldogs Eye Top Spot In SEC Softball Tourney

With as much as a split last night against the Lincoln Railsplitters, the Chelsea Bulldogs softball team would be assured of heading into this weekend's Southeastern Conference tournament in Dexter as the regular-season champions.

The Bulldogs swept the Pinckney Pirates last Thursday at home, 7-1 and 12-1, to push their SEC record to 9-0. Every other team in the league has at least two losses. The top spot would give Chelsea a first-round bye Saturday. And one win Saturday would give Chelsea yet another outright SEC title. The champions would open play Saturday at 1 p.m. With so many rainouts, the brackets probably won't be known until later this week.

"Our goal right now is not only to win the league but win the tournament," said Chelsea coach Joe Beard.

"The girls are playing good ball. We've primed ourselves and we're starting to hit our peak."

Senior left-hander Jennifer Petty improved her record to 14-0 in the first Pinckney game as she scattered four hits and struck out five.

The Bulldogs scored three runs in the first inning on RBI-singles by Theresa Hurst and Erin Knott. After adding a run in the second, a three-run homer by Gretchen Knutsen in the fifth provided the winning margin.

In addition to picking up the victory, Petty was the only Bulldog with more than one hit.

Knott ran her record to 3-1 in the second game as she allowed just three hits.

The Pirates opened the scoring in the second inning, but Chelsea quickly tied in the bottom of the inning as Knutsen came home on a bases-loaded ground out. The Bulldogs put the game away in the third with five runs, featuring a solo homer by Kelly Cross and a two-run single by Angie Riley. Chelsea added six more runs in the fourth inning as Cross, Sager, and Knott each had an RBI.

In non-conference action on Saturday, Chelsea split with class A

Belleville, winning the first game 6-4 but losing the second, 3-1.

Petty won her 15th game to open the double-header as she gave up one run in the first and three in the sixth on a total of 11 hits.

Chelsea took the lead for good in the fourth inning with two runs as Petty and Heather McConeghy each had RBI singles. The Bulldogs took a 6-1 lead in the fifth inning, highlighted by a two-run double by Cross.

Petty and Cross each had three hits

Girls Track Team Stays Unbeaten in Conference

Chelsea Bulldogs girls track team got their biggest victory of the season last Thursday at Tecumseh as they edged the Indians 67-61 in a meet that came down to the final race.

The meet featured many exciting races and top performances from both teams, and was close all the way, although Tecumseh twice held an eight-point lead.

Junior Lisa Monti was the key runner for the Bulldogs as she ran a 2:21 800 leg of the 3200 relay, won the 1600 in 5:15.1 (both season bests); paced a sweep in the 3200, then turned in her best 400 of the season to help with the 1600 relay to end the meet.

"This effort shows that Lisa is not only an outstanding runner but a fine team player as well," said Chelsea coach Bill Bainton.

"She helps make everyone better." Senior Charity Allen also had a big day, winning both hurdle races and anchoring the 1600 relay.

Erin Schiller had Chelsea's only victory in the field events as she won the high jump at 5'. Lauren Sparaco placed second in the discus and Mara Smith was second in the shot put at 30' 11 1/4", her best of the year. Theresa Royce was third in the high jump. The Bulldogs trailed 22-14 coming out of the field events.

Chelsea regained the lead momentarily, 30-29, after Robin Phelps, Monti, Sarah Brosnan, and Beth Bell won the 3200 relay in 10:08.8, Allen and Monica Hansen placed first and third in the hurdles, and Theresa Royce won the 1600.

Monti followed a narrow Tecumseh win in the 800 relay with her victory in the 1600, and Christine Burg was third in 5:43.3. Molly Griebel and Tracey Wales also turned in their best times, below 5:50, in non-placing efforts.

The Indians held their lead with another close win in the 400 relay, but Laura Paton followed with her best 400 of the year in 1:02.6, and Sarah Henry was third in 1:03.9.

Allen's win in the 300 hurdles, along with Keri Kentala's third in 51.3 evened the score at 48. Bell was second and Val Bullock third in the 800, and Royce placed third in the 200 as Tecumseh took a 61-53 lead.

The Bulldogs needed at least a 1-2 finish to stay alive, but they swept the 3200 with Monti, Burg (12:34.9) and Beth Williams (12:35.5), all with season-best times.

With the score down to 62-61, Paton, Bell, Monti, and Allen each ran her season-best time in the 1600 relay for a combined 4:08.5 to seal the meet.

"Our key people were there when we needed them, but we had 18 people contribute points and had season-bests in 30 spots," Bainton said.

Chelsea was scheduled to wrap up the dual-meet season with Pinckney last night.

In another Southeastern Conference meet last Tuesday, the girls beat Dexter, 72-56.

Chelsea got off to a strong start in the field events as Schiller won the high jump at 5'. Courtney Thompson was second at 4' 8", a season-best.

Smith and Erin Garrigus were 2-3 in the shot put at 30' 5" and 30' 2 3/4", both season-bests.

Sparaco placed second in the discus at 92' 3", and Smith was third at 92' 1".

Royce and Kentala were second and third in the long jump.

Chelsea took a 20-16 lead into the running events.

The team of Brosnan, Monti, Bullock and Bell won the 3200 relay in 10:12.3.

Dexter took advantage of their speed and some Bulldog miscues to outscore the Bulldogs 19-4 over the next three events. Hansen was second in the 100 hurdles and Royce was third in the 100 to account for those four points.

The Bulldogs narrowed the gap to 48-41 as Monti and Burg were first and third in the 1600, and Paton and Henry were first and third in the 400.

Then came the two big events of the meet.

Allen won the hurdles in 47.7, a season-best, with Hansen second at 50.4, her career-best. Then the Bulldogs swept the 800 as Bell won in 2:31.1, Phelps was second in 2:31.6, and Brosnan was third at 2:33.6, and all were season-best times. That gave Chelsea a 58-47 lead.

A second place from Royce in the 200 in 27.3 and a 1-3 finish in the 3200 from Monti and Burg put the meet away. The 1600 relay of Paton, Henry, Kentala, and Allen capped the meet with a winning time of 4:21.5.

"We got a few more points in the field than we thought we might, so that gave us a cushion with the early lead," said assistant coach Bert Kruse. He said the field events, along with the 800 and hurdles, were the keys to the meet.

The undefeated Bulldogs handed the Dreadnaughts their first loss of the season.

Chelsea won the Jackson Northwest Metric Relays on Saturday with 111 points. Tecumseh was second with 84 in the nine-team meet.

Twenty-two athletes earned medals as the Bulldogs placed in every event, winning four and setting two meet records.

The discus relay team of Sparaco, Smith, and Jessica Flintoft all had season-best throws to win the event at 280' 1", bettering the old meet record by more than 25 feet. Smith led the way at 99' 9".

Burg, Griebel, Wales, and Monti cut 16 seconds off the meet record in the 6400 relay to win in 22:44.8.

The Bulldogs also got firsts in the 3200 relay from Brosnan, Phelps, Bell and Monti in 10:14.4 and the middle distance relay of Brosnan, Phelps, Henry and Bullock in 7:21.1.

Second places went to the shuttle hurdle relay of Allen, Hansen, Kentala, and Schiller; the five-person relay of Kentala, Allen, Royce, Bell, and Paton; the 800 relay of Paton, Kentala, Allen, and Royce; and the 1600 relay of Paton, Bell, Henry, and Allen.

The 400 relay team of Megan MacDonald, Hansen, Schiller, and Royce ran their season-best of 54.2 to place third.

Flintoft, MacDonald, Lynne Kalmbach, and Thompson placed sixth in the freshman sprint medley.

Thompson and Schiller high jumped a combined 9' to tie for fourth. Chelsea also had a fifth in the shot put from the team of Garrigus, Smith, and Wendy Bristle, and fifth in the long jump from Royce, Kentala, and Hansen.

JV Baseball Team Drops Four Games

Chelsea Bulldogs junior varsity baseball team suffered through a tough week of baseball, losing all four games with Southeastern Conference foes.

On Thursday, the Pinckney Pirates beat the Bulldogs, 12-2 and 9-8.

In the first game, Chelsea could manage only one hit through the five innings played, a run-scoring single by Jay Westcott in the second inning.

"We just didn't hit or field in this game," said Chelsea coach Jim Ticknor.

In the second game, the Pirates scored two runs in the bottom of the seventh to pull out the win.

Pinckney jumped out to a 7-2 lead after three innings, but the Bulldogs scored three runs in each the fourth and fifth innings.

Brian Cook and Matt Powell each had one RBI, and Dan Wehrwein and Howie DuRussel each knocked in two runs. DuRussel's two-run double tied the game in the fifth.

Matt McVittie, Powell, and DuRussel each had two hits, and Josh Sullivan had three.

The Bulldogs were trounced twice by the Tecumseh Indians last Monday, 16-2 and 12-2, at home.

In the first game, the Indians were given 10 walks and three hit batsmen to go along with their six hits.

Chelsea had lone runs in the second and third innings on RBIs by Kevin Lane and Matt McVittie.

Bulldogs' bats were silent in the second game as Powell's run-scoring single in the first was the only Chelsea hit.

Jason McVittie and Matt Montange combined on a four-hitter but again 10 walks helped the Tecumseh offense.

"We just weren't ready to play and gave away two games," Ticknor said.

Bobo Takes Third In Freestyle Meet

Chelsea High school sophomore John Bobo placed third at 154 pounds in the Cadet Freestyle State Wrestling Tournament on May 2 at Waverly High School in Lansing.

Bobo pinned four opponents, won a 7-6 decision, and lost a 7-1 decision on his way to the finals. In the finals he lost 10-0.

There were 23 participants at 154 pounds.

Golfers Have Tough Matches

Saline beat the Bulldogs two days later in Saline, 186-247. Chelsea scores were Adler 59, Lisa Hughes 61, Devine 63, and Delong 64.

Chelsea scores at the 18-hole Jackson County Western Invitational on Friday, May 8 were Adler 103, McLaughlin 111, Sarah Stolaski 118, and Hughes 127.

SPORTS NOTES

BY BRIAN HAMILTON

It was a rough couple of days of baseball at Chelsea High school. Last week an ambulance was dispatched to a freshman baseball game, not once but twice, within a period of about two hours.

First time around, second baseman Dirk Walters and outfielder Tom Payne collided while chasing a short fly ball.

"It reminded me of a hit Adam Taylor put on a Mason punt return," said Chelsea varsity baseball coach Wayne Welton, who had just arrived at the field after varsity practice.

Neither boy was severely injured, and there was no word on whether either of them caught the ball.

Nevertheless, a short time later Chelsea first baseman Jason Dunahoo got hit on the eye while trying to glove a pop-up, which brought out the paramedics once again.

Then on Monday, Chelsea varsity team in all probability lost its chance for the number one seed in the Southeastern Conference tournament this Saturday in Tecumseh. All they had to do was beat Saline once in Saline, which did not happen.

Again, errors ruled the day for Chelsea as they have much of the season. Through the first 20 games, the Bulldogs were averaging a little more than five errors, which is one of the primary differences between last year's state championship team and this one.

Jacob Rindle suffered his first mound loss since his sophomore year, although three of Saline's four runs were unearned due to a misplay in the outfield. (He's 22-3 for his high school career.)

If the Bulldogs can cut those mistakes and just make all the routine plays, they can be formidable competition the rest of the season for virtually any team they meet. They have plenty of pitching and for the most part the hitting has been excellent.

But those rough innings can kill the Bulldogs against a good team.

A couple of bright spots over the last couple of weeks have been the defensive play of Taylor at catcher and the relief pitching of senior Ben Hurst, whose primary home is centerfield.

Taylor, who may have the strongest arm of any Chelsea baseball player ever, has been picking off runners at an alarming rate for the opposition. He nailed five Pinckney baserunners, including two at second. They weren't steal attempts, just straight pick-offs. He matched that feat in the Rawlins Invitational.

Hurst has come in at least twice in crucial situations and put out the fire. That ability could come in real handy at tournament time.

Welton said the bats of junior Casey Schiller and sophomore Pat Steele may also turn them into everyday players before the season is out.

Joe Beard's varsity softball team may have already won the league by the time this appears, no matter what happens Saturday in the SEC tournament in Dexter. Heading into last night's games against the Lincoln Railspitters, the Bulldogs had accumulated 19 league points. Two wins would give them 23, based on two points for each of 11 wins and one point for a game not played.

If the team right behind them finishes with nine league wins, which is a distinct possibility, the best it could do is 30 points with 12 points for a tournament title. With the top seed, the worst Chelsea could do in the tournament is fourth, good for eight points and a total of 31.

Not bad. Even if that scenario doesn't unfold, it will be tough for anyone to keep the title from the Bulldogs. With one victory Saturday, Chelsea will take at least second place in the tournament, and that will be it. That victory should be virtually assured since Chelsea has pitcher Jennifer Petty and no one else does. As of this writing she's 15-0. She not only pitches well but always seems to get good defense behind her and helps herself enormously with her bat and base-running. As Beard says, "she may be the best-kept secret in softball."

Then it's on to the post-season, where the fun could really begin.

However, THE team of the spring could be Bill Bainton's girls track team. They are whipping everyone in sight, and have won a couple of pretty competitive invitationals. They have also set several records in the process.

The way they are peaking, the Bulldogs could prove to be tough to beat at the regional or state levels. Junior runner Lisa Monti is having another sensational year, at every distance from 400 meters on up, and is showing why she may be the best all-around performer in the state. Many of her teammates are also setting personal records, which in the long run is what makes Bainton's team outstanding.

Jenni Smith Still Pitching At Wayne State

Former Chelsea High school softball standout Jenni Smith is again pitching for Wayne State University this spring.

Going into the season, Smith had a career earned run average of 1.24 and was eighth on the school's all-time list. She was also fifth in strikeouts with 124.

Last year Smith went 14-9 with an ERA of 1.08. She was named to the All-GLIAC Honorable Mention team and was on the GLIAC All-Academic team. Her major is criminal justice. She is the daughter of Bill Smith and Rebecca White.

JV Softball Team Sweeps Saline Hornets

Chelsea Bulldogs junior varsity softball team swept the Saline Hornets in Saline last Thursday, 17-12 and 15-12.

In the first game, Amy Petty struck out 13 and allowed three hits.

Highlight of the game was the fifth inning, in which Chelsea scored nine runs as Nancy Pidd doubled in a pair of runs to take a 10-2 lead but allowed 10 runs in the bottom of the inning. In the top of the sixth inning, the Bulldogs put the game away with seven runs as Jenny Holzhausen doubled and drove in two runs, and Charlotte Ziegler doubled.

In the second game, Chelsea had to rally from a 7-1 deficit in the first inning. By the fourth inning, the game was tied 8-8. The Bulldogs eventually led 15-8 before the Hornets scored their final four runs in the bottom of the seventh inning.

Chelsea had 11 hits for the game, including two singles and a homer by Carey Schiller, a single and a homer by Shannon Shemanski, and two singles by Aubree Girardi.

Schiller started the game but Petty pitched nearly six innings of relief. Petty struck out 10 of the 25 batters she faced, and allowed two hits.

The wins gave Chelsea an 11-3 season record.

for the game, and McConeghy added two.

Cross pitched a fine game in the second game despite the loss, Beard said. Cross yielded five hits and two earned runs.

Each team scored in the first inning on an error. Chelsea bats were shut down from there, while Belleville picked up two runs in the third.

"Belleville just played great defense," Beard said.

"We got our bunts down just like we wanted to, but they made the plays. It was well played by both teams."

Cross has a 4-2 record on the season. The Bulldogs, before last night, were 22-3.

During the 1950's and 1960's, service workers produced about 10 percent less per worker than manufacturing workers, according to "Workforce 2000," a U.S. Labor Department publication. In 1970, each worker in the service and trade sectors of the economy produced about $11,000 of output, compared to $13,000 of output for each manufacturing worker. By 1985, service workers were producing only $28,700 per worker, compared to $41,200 for manufacturing workers.

Chelsea Netters Win Three Straight Matches

Chelsea Bulldogs tennis team won all three of their matches last week. They opened by defeating Greenhills Junior varsity, 5-2, then stopped Monroe Jefferson, 5-2, before shutting out Brooklyn Columbia Central, 7-0.

In singles action in the Greenhills match, Scott Pacheco (C) defeated Dan Lee (G), 6-0, 6-0; Ben Manning (C) beat Chris Young (G), 6-3, 6-2; Hooshmand, Nightingale (C) won three long sets with Brian Boolwalter (G) but was defeated, 6-4, 2-6, 6-4; and Matt Jachalke (C) defeated Ryan Sasaki (G), 6-1, 6-7, 7-5.

Chelsea Bulldogs boys track team lost a close meet to the Dexter Dreadnaughts last Tuesday, 75-62.

Dan Zatkovich won both the 1600 and 800 runs. He had a personal best time of 4:47.8 in the 1600.

Senior captain Jon Royce returned to competition after knee surgery and won the high jump at 6'. Clarke said Royce is operating at about 60 percent of his peak strength.

School Board Notes

Present at a regular meeting of the Chelsea Board of Education Monday, May 4, were Comeau, Redding, Satterthwaite, Knutsen, Eisenbeiser, Dising, McCalla, superintendent Piasecki, assistant superintendent Mills, principals Mead, Stielstra, Stieber, assistant principal Rossi, community education director Tracy, curriculum director Bissell, guests.

Meeting called to order at 7:30 p.m. by President Anne Comeau. Board approved the minutes of the April 20, 1992, meeting.

Entered as official communications were (1) complimentary letter from a parent regarding Beach school and its students, (2) complimentary letter from a Quebec school principal regarding the recent orchestra/choir performance, (3) quarterly report on the CARE program.

Present at the meeting were several parents who addressed their concerns regarding Beach school and its students. Also present at the meeting were several high school teachers who spoke in support of the Channel One program.

Board members discussed and reached consensus on a mission statement.

In action items, the board: • accepted the gift of banners for the gymnasium from the Athletic Boosters, the value of which is $3,500 • suspended, until the beginning of the 1992-93 school year, the student responsible for the fire in the high school's Home Economics Building • changed the board meeting dates in June from the first and third Mondays to the second and fourth Mondays (June 8 and June 22).

The board convened in executive session at 10:15 p.m. to discuss negotiations and personnel matters, and reconvened in public session at 11:35 p.m.

In two subsequent action items, the board approved the extension of the early retirement incentive policy and accepted the resignation of Beach school teacher Alice Steinbach.

From the SUPERINTENDENT'S CORNER

By JOSEPH K. PIASECKI

Questions are often asked by residents about the Chelsea schools that deserve a wide circulation. The Chelsea Standard has agreed to publish this column several times during the year to provide information to the residents of the Chelsea School District.

Q. WILL ANY OF THE RENEWAL MILLAGE OR ADDITIONAL MILLAGE BE USED TO BUILD BUILDINGS?

No! Millage funds will be used for the daily operation of the school district. The Board will seek a bond issue at a future date to address the facility needs of the district.

Q. HOW MUCH OF THE MILLAGE MONEY WILL BE SENT TO THE STATE?

At this time we estimate that our Tax Based Sharing contribution for next year will be $80,000. The $80,000 represents approximately 10% of the $834,000 requested in the renewal. The $80,000 will be sent whether the millage passes or doesn't pass, because Tax Based Sharing is a law.

Q. HAVE ANY CUTS BEEN MADE IN THE SCHOOL BUDGET?

Yes! The Board reduced the budget by $70,000 in October, and the budgets submitted by the principals in February were reduced by $365,183.

Q. WHERE CAN I GET FURTHER INFORMATION ON THE MILLAGE?
You can call 475-9131 for answers to your questions or attend one of the following meetings:

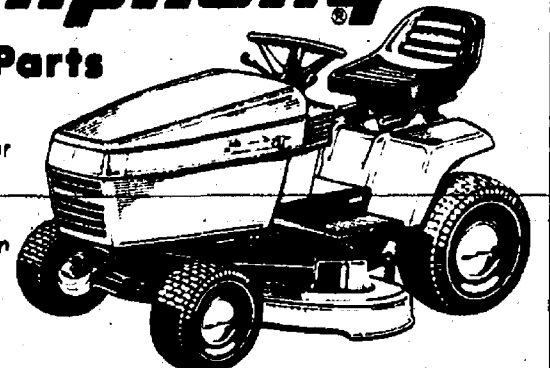

May 14, North School, 8:00 p.m., Media Center
May 19, Beach School, 7:00 p.m., LGI Room
May 20, General Meeting, 7:30 p.m., Board Room
June 2, General Meeting, 7:30 p.m., Board Room

Some things come and go. It seems, however, that out-of-town bankers, looking for profit, come to our community area. Ours is a good area. The newcomers make money, they stay.

Some people welcome change, just because it is a change. Too few stop to analyze the cost . . . the cost to them.

All banks have fees, charges and in some circumstances, penalties. But don't believe that all banks charge the same for these so-called "extras." Shop around.

We're happy to tell you our charges for various services. Just because the other fellow normally charges more doesn't mean we're going to raise our charges.

If you really don't care what your banking costs are, we've wasted the money we spent on this ad.

★ Scent Lures Good Bugs

Into Gardens To Fight Pests

Spined soldier bugs are known to hunt and devour garden pests. How to attract the bugs to a garden was another matter.

A U.S. Department of Agriculture scientist found the answer a few years ago—use the bug's sex scent as a lure. Now, after further studies, the scent is on the market.

"The scent attracts spined soldier bugs into an area so they will be there to prey on pests," said entomologist Jeffrey R. Aldrich of USDA's Agricultural Research Service. The bugs eat Mexican bean beetles, tomato fruitworms, corn earworms and more than 100 other pests. Among them: gypsy moth caterpillars that ravage shade trees.

He said the bugs, once in their new "home," will reproduce and increase in numbers as a natural pest control.

Aldrich replicated the insect's chemical blend, or pheromone, in studies at the Beltsville, Md., Agricultural Research Center. ARC received a patent on the attractant in 1987. Then in 1988, the agency granted an exclusive license for the scent to Sterling International, Inc., of Liberty Lake, Wash.

Sterling formulated the sex scent into a cone. Aldrich evaluated the various formulations to find the best one.

Now the company is marketing the cone. "This is the first time a pheromone that attracts beneficial insects has hit the market," the scientist said.

Aldrich found that at the peak emergence of the spined soldier bug, just one cone can attract 50 or more male, female and young spined soldier bugs in one day.

"Our research showed that gardeners have to get the cones out a week before bud-burst on the Red Maple tree and that happens at different times of the spring in different areas," said Aldrich.

"That way, the soldier bugs and their offspring will already be there in large numbers when the pests emerge," he noted. In southern climates, the Red Maple's bud burst may occur by the first of March, while mid-March to early April is the time for the mid-Atlantic states. Residents of northern New England should put cones out around the second week of April.

HOW TO CUT YOUR DRY CLEANING BILLS:

Read your garment labels

Manufacturers are required to state proper fabric care. If you have any questions about cleaning your garment, CALL US before you try to remove any soiling or spots. Above all, DON'T EXPERIMENT with cleaning solutions at home. Your efforts may simply "set" any stains or possibly do permanent damage to the fabric. Straub Seeks Re-Election to Board of Commissioners

Surrounded by close friends and family, Marty Straub announced that he will seek re-election to the Washtenaw County Board of Commissioners.

The decision came as a shock to Straub supporters and Republican and Democratic Party regulars, as he had made no secret of his interests in the newly redrawn 52nd State House District seat.

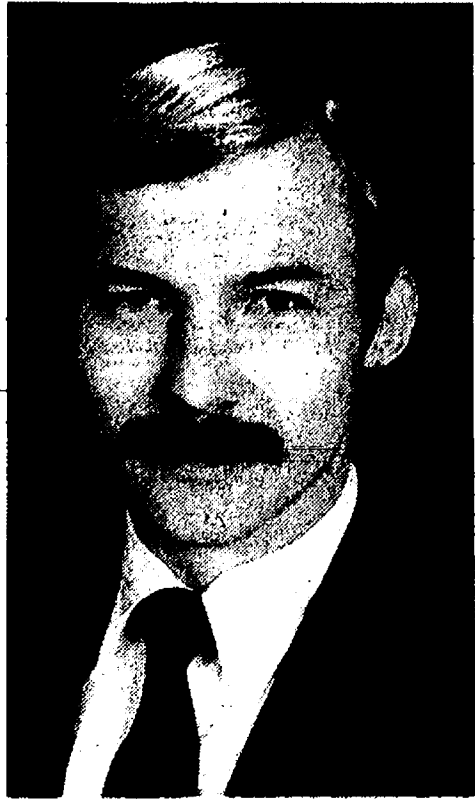

"This has been one of the most difficult decisions I've faced," Straub told supporters. "Quite frankly, I was surprised at the amount of support I had to run for State Representative. I felt my first responsibility, though, was to assist in a smooth transition to a much larger Board of Commissioners next year."

Straub elaborated stating, "I was overwhelmed with phone calls and visits by community leaders and friends, encouraging me to run for State Representative. And analysts told me that the numbers certainly favored a Straub candidacy. But having been elected five times as County Commissioner, I think it would have been irresponsible for me not to help lead the transition."

Straub's displeasure with the plan to increase the County Commissioner districts from 9 to 15 was evident. "When citizens are seeking less government, I'm disappointed that, in this case, we'll be getting much more. Since this is the adopted plan, though, I will make every effort to ensure that the next board is as responsive as it can be."

"We have many issues to address, and I'm hopeful we'll be blessed with many good people to represent the people of Washtenaw county."

When asked if he would consider a 1994 State House bid, Straub stated, "I would not rule out running in 1994, but I am confident that the Republicans will nominate the best available candidate this season—and I expect to support that person."

As the senior Republican on the board, Straub is looking forward to providing continued leadership for Washtenaw county. A businessman himself, Straub said, "Being County Commissioner is not like most other jobs—there is always unfinished business. Most importantly, I enjoy it because I see serving more as a privilege than an opportunity."

Munzel Seeks State Rep. Nomination in 52nd District

Scott Munzel has announced that he will seek the Democratic nomination for the 52nd District State Representative position, which includes eight townships in the northwest portion of Washtenaw county, as well as the northern portion of the City of Ann Arbor.

In announcing, Munzel stated "I will bring new energy and a fresh outlook to the position. This is necessary to restore public faith in the legislative process of representative government. I welcome the challenge of working on issues such as protecting our environment from pollution and urban sprawl, implementing property tax and educational finance reform, creating jobs for Michigan in the global market, preserving freedom of choice in family planning, and providing appropriate health and child care. I view public service as an honor and a privilege, and plan total accountability to my constituents. My goal in running for office is to help create a better community and State for ourselves and our children."

Munzel, an Ann Arbor attorney who specializes in land use, real estate and municipal law, is chairman of the Washtenaw County Sheriff's Community Relations Advisory Board, and is a member of the Ann Arbor Zoning Board of Appeals. He has been active in local Democratic politics for many years, and currently is a precinct delegate and Democratic State Central Committee Alternate. Munzel served as pro bono co-counsel in a 1992 court challenge to the county commissioner apportionment plan.

Munzel graduated cum laude from the University of Michigan in 1981, and worked for the Peace Corps in Ecuador as an agricultural extension agent. He then graduated from the University of Michigan Law School in 1986, and practiced law in Washington, D. C. for three years, primarily in the areas of land use and real estate law. He then returned to Ann Arbor, where he practiced land use, real estate and municipal law for two years in Bloomfield Hills, and recently opened his own practice in Ann Arbor. Munzel, age 33, is married and has one son.

George Merkel To Run for House of Representatives

George A. Merkel of Chelsea plans to run for the re-worked District 52 seat in the Michigan House of Representatives.

The district covers Sylvan, Lima, Lyndon, Dexter, Scio, Northfield, and Webster townships, part of Ann Arbor township and part of the City of Ann Arbor.

Merkel served as a Sylvan township trustee for eight years and was a Washtenaw county commissioner for eight years. However, he has been away from politics for six years.

The former factory worker, service station owner, bar owner, hotel owner, and construction and landscape worker is a self-employed farmer and greenhouse operator. He is an active member of the Ann Arbor Farmers Market Association, St. Louis Center Board of Directors, Schwaben Verein, and is a former master of the Knights of Columbus.

Merkel says he supports farm programs, veterans' programs, "lotto justification," property tax reform, environmental protection, and welfare reform. He also says he opposes Tax Base Sharing.

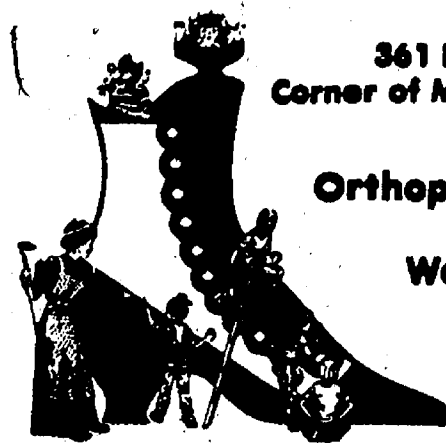

"Since I have been out of politics for six years, I have seen what the people really want," Merkel says.

Merkel and his wife, Nancy, were

Noah Seeking Nomination For Prosecutor

Lynwood E. Noah, deputy chief assistant prosecuting attorney, has announced his candidacy for prosecuting attorney on the Republican ticket. Noah has been with the Prosecutor's Office since early 1989.

During his tenure in the office, Noah did research on the John Norman Collins trial, tried Billy Hardesty and Leo E. Kelly, Jr.

Noah has argued numerous cases in the Michigan Court of Appeals and four in the Michigan Supreme Court.

Noah is a Chelsea native and a U.S. Navy veteran. He was an office manager for Parke, Davis & Co. in Detroit and Denver, and an administrator for the University of Michigan prior to becoming a lawyer.

If elected, Noah intends to maintain the established "tough on crime and innovative style" of the current prosecutor, William F. Delhey.

The U.S. Department of Agriculture recently issued permits to commercial companies to field-test genetically engineered crop plants. The tests include tomatoes, corn, apples and potatoes.

CHARLIE KOENN of Chelsea was a resource person for the Dairy ... Moo To You learning station at the April 30 Rural Education Days program. Over the two-day period more than 1,100 third grade students from throughout the county participated in the program.

Rural Education Days Hosts 1,100 Third Graders

by Nancy Thelen,
County Extension Director

More than 1,100 students and 200 teachers and chaperones participated in the second annual Washtenaw county "Rural Education Days" on April 29 and 30. The activity was sponsored by the Washtenaw County Cooperative Extension Service 4-H Program and the Farm Bureau Promotion and Education Committee.

Purpose of Project R.E.D. was to educate third grade students about local agriculture and natural resources. Students represented 22 schools from the Ann Arbor, Saline, Ypsilanti, Whitmore Lake, Willow Run and Manchester areas. Learning stations included a walk through Michigan commodities with Abe Lincoln; sheep and wool; water quality; farm equipment; soil conservation; farm animals and dairy from moo to you.

The finale of each session was, "A Taste of Michigan" featuring samples of ice cream, dried cherries, beef hot dogs, popcorn, apples, apple juice, potato chips and soy nuts. Each participant also received a goodie bag filled with agricultural information from various organizations and a free seedling provided by the Washtenaw County Soil Conservation District. In addition, participating teachers received an information/activity packet on agriculture and natural resources for use in their classroom.

The program would not have been possible without the assistance of more than 100 dedicated volunteers who helped with various aspects of the activity, and many local agricultural and natural resources organizations, businesses, the Manchester High School Leadership Class and the Washtenaw County Environmental Health and Drain Commission offices. Contributors for the program included the Washtenaw County Dairy and Livestock Council, Pittsfield-Union Grange, Detroit Edison, Washtenaw County Soil Conservation District, Michigan Milk Producers Ann Arbor and Saline locals, Michigan Soybean Commission, DuRussel's Potato Farm, Farm Bureau Insurance, Farm Bureau Women, Waldo Dieterle, Julie Frost, Marjorie Mills, Washtenaw County Farm Bureau Promotion and Education Committee and the Co-operative Extension Service.

Chief Assistant Prosecutor Farmer Seeks Court Seat

Jerome D. Farmer, II, Washtenaw county chief assistant prosecutor since 1973, has announced he will run for the Washtenaw County Circuit Court seat recently vacated by retiring Judge Ross Campbell.

Farmer, 52, brings more than 27 years of courtroom experience to his campaign and 21 years of experience in legal administration. As chief assistant prosecutor, Farmer is responsible for review and assignment of all Circuit Court cases involving the prosecutor's office, all pre-trial conferences in criminal cases and coordination of case scheduling with the staffs of the five circuit courts.

Prior to coming to the prosecuting attorney's office in 1969, Farmer served in the office of the Ann Arbor city attorney and maintained a private practice.

"Knowing the law is important but it is not enough. You also need to know the people of our county," states Farmer. "My experience over a quarter of a century in every courtroom in the county has allowed me to see, first-hand, how great an impact the presiding judge has on all people coming before the court. I will bring to the bench my lifelong commitment to protect the legitimate rights and interests of all those who appear before me, including the right to prompt and fair disposition of their cases. In particular, I will see to it that the interests of victims of crime are not ignored in our judicial process."

Farmer has been a resident of Washtenaw county since 1958 and holds three degrees from the University of Michigan including a bachelor of arts (1962), juris doctor (1965) and master of business administration (1966). He has lectured on the criminal justice system at the University of Michigan and at local high schools and colleges throughout his career.

Farmer and his wife, Carolyn, have two sons, Jerome, a graduate student at Stanford University, and Scott, a junior at Princeton University. Farmer has been active in the community in youth education and sports activities for many years as a coach and as a leader of school parent organizations.

"I have always loved working with young people," notes Farmer. "As circuit court judge, I will continue to work in the community to keep young adults on the right track so they become productive citizens and don't end up in my courtroom."

JEROME D. FARMER, II

KYLE McCALLA of Chelsea recently received a ribbon from Heisman Trophy winner Desmond Howard for his participation in the Washtenaw County Spring Special Olympic Games at the University of Michigan track. The athletes will participate at the state games at Mt. Pleasant June 4-6. Kyle is a member of Kathy Gilbert's class at Beach Middle school.

YOUNG CLOWNS Nathaniel Susan and Mark Pulford amused a capacity crowd at the South school First Grade Circus recently. The annual event lets the children experience the limelight.

Dan McMurray Takes Third In National History Contest

Beach Middle school eighth grader Dan McMurray placed third at the state National History Day Contest held Saturday, May 9 at Domino Farms.

He was one place shy of earning a trip to the national contest in Washington, D.C. June 14-18.

This year's theme was "Discovery, Encounter, Exchange in History" to mark the 500th anniversary of Christopher Columbus' journey. Dan wrote on New Foods from the New World.

Three other Beach students entered the contest, including Stephanie Wesolowski, Jennifer Swope, and Cooper Deerwester.

National History Day is a difficult contest for eighth graders. A 7-10 page typewritten, footnoted paper with a bibliography is required.

SOUTH SCHOOL PLAYGROUND SUPERVISOR Wilhemina celebrated her 80th birthday last Friday, May 8 at the school. Each child in the school had a chance to try a piece of birthday cake and sing to Mrs. Eder, who also helps out in the cafeteria.

Pierce Park Playground Project Well Received

Fund-raising for new, safe playground equipment continues for Pierce Park. Several service organizations have contributed to date. Even more important is the community's response which has been very encouraging, reinforcing that modern, safe equipment is needed in Chelsea.

Many contributors state that a safe, durable structure is badly needed in Chelsea and they are happy to contribute to a project that has immediate, tangible results. Equipment will include a wood and steel structure with various climbing activities, decks, suspension bridge, and slides; durable swings for pre-school, special needs, and older children; and a 12-inch protective base which dramatically decreases injury rate. The structure will be built by village workers and an equipment supervisor. The equipment will blend with the natural beauty of Pierce Park and its canopy of trees.

Efforts to obtain funds from the community are accelerating to ensure a summer opening for the playground. Community ownership is stressed. Any contribution from families and organizations is welcomed to help reach a goal of $15,000. A modest, one-time effort from the majority of Chelsea families would build a safe playground that will provide decades of use. All contributions will be directed to the fund. Other approaches such as a direct mail drive will not be used to defray the costs of the drive.

Contributions may be mailed to "Pierce Park Playground Project," P.O. Box 475, Chelsea, Michigan 48118. Questions may be directed to Lynn Swan, co-ordinator, 475-3628.

Local Residents Can Help U.S. Olympic Athletes

Local residents can add their name to Olympic history and send their best wishes to the U.S. Olympic Team by signing a piece of the world's largest postcard during U.S. Olympic Spirit Week, May 11-17. During the week, 28,000 post offices across the country will bring their communities together in an effort to raise funds and rally national support for U.S. Olympic hopefuls.

The focal point of U.S. Olympic Spirit Week is a piece of a giant postcard featuring a good luck message to the athletes. For a $1 contribution, customers can support America's Olympic team by signing pieces of the giant postcard. They also will receive two personal postcards pre-addressed to Olympic athletes: one to save as a souvenir, the other to send with personal greetings to U.S. Olympians competing at the Barcelona Games. The piece of postcard representing Chelsea will be on display and available for signing through noon, this Saturday, May 16.

In July, when Olympic spirit is high and the athletes are preparing to leave for Barcelona, Chelsea's piece of the card, along with 28,000 other pieces, will be assembled for the "America's Salute to Team USA" celebration in Washington, D.C. The fully-assembled card, larger than three football fields and bearing hundreds of thousands of signatures, will convey the best wishes of Americans to their team as it prepares to leave for the Summer Games.

During the Games in Barcelona, the Postal Service will run a team message center, providing daily mail service to America's athletes and delivering personal postcards bearing American's best wishes.

"The Postal Service is an organization that touches all Americans," says superintendent William Brenner. "It is proud to sponsor the Olympics, a competition that touches the hearts of all Americans."

BLACK BEARS and other creatures populated the South school First Grade Circus last Thursday. Here young bear Scott Hinderer shows his dexterity with a rubber ball.

TIGHT ROPE WALKERS Samantha Ortiz, left, and Amanda Jacobs displayed daring feats of balance during South school's First Grade Circus last Thursday.

MEGAN SCHLENKER, a North school second grader, shows off her pinch pop sculpture, which was on display at the school's annual Festival of the Arts recently.

SYLVAN TOWNSHIP ORDINANCE NO. 24

AN ORDINANCE TO REGULATE THE USE OF INLAND LAKES IN THE TOWNSHIP BY RIPARIAN OWNERS FOR BOATING PURPOSES AND TO PRESERVE AND PROTECT THE RIGHTS OF RIPARIAN OWNERS AND THE PUBLIC AS A WHOLE.

The Township of Sylvan Ordinance:

ARTICLE I. INTENT, PURPOSE AND SHORT TITLE:

Section 1.1. Intent and Purpose: In its deliberations leading to the adoption of this Ordinance, the Township Board has recognized and concluded that the use of water resources, including the inland lakes situated in the Township, should be considered within a framework of long-term cost and benefits to the Township, and that it is desirable to retain and maintain the physical, cultural and aesthetic characteristics of lakes in the Township. Moreover, it has been recognized that, as the shore lines of lakes become further developed, the cumulative impact of boat usage from each respective property must be regulated in order to preserve and protect the rights of riparian owners as well as the Township as a whole. It has further been recognized that the lack of regulation shall result in a nuisance condition and an impairment of these important and irreplaceable natural resources of the Township, and shall further result in the destruction of property values and threaten the public health, safety and welfare of all persons making use of lakes within the Township and properties adjacent to lakes in the Township. Accordingly, it is the intent and purpose of the Township Board to adopt reasonable regulations for boat usage in the Township.

Section 1.2. Short Title: This ordinance shall be known and may be cited and referred to as the Sylvan Township Boat Regulation Ordinance, and shall hereinafter be referred to as "this Ordinance".

ARTICLE II. SCOPE AND APPLICATION:

Section 2.1. The terms and provisions of this Ordinance shall be interpreted and applied as minimum standards and requirements for the promotion and protection of the public health, safety and welfare, and for the public peace and preservation of natural resources and public and private property within the Township.

Section 2.2. This Ordinance shall not interfere with, abrogate, annul or repeal any other law, ordinance, rule or regulation previously in effect, including any other ordinance regulating boat launching and/or usage. Moreover, in instances where this Ordinance specifically imposes a greater restriction or higher standard than other ordinances, the provisions of this Ordinance shall govern.

Section 2.3. This ordinance is not intended to conflict with and/or pre-empt application of the Inland Lakes and Streams Act, but intended to supplement such Act in a compatible manner so as to enhance water usage in a manner consistent with the public interest.

ARTICLE III. DEFINITIONS:

Section 3.1. For the purpose of construction and application of this Ordinance, the following definitions shall apply:

(a) 'Boat' shall mean any water craft having a motor or engine for purpose of propulsion regardless of length and any water craft having propulsion by sail, oar or paddle.

(b) 'Dock' or 'docking' shall mean the mooring of a boat directly to a pier, which is a platform or other permanent or seasonal fixture extending from the shore, and directly accessible to a separate frontage; and shall also mean the regular anchoring of a boat adjacent to a separate frontage.

(c) 'Lake' shall mean a navigable body of water situated, wholly within the Township, but shall not mean nor include lakes to which other ordinance regulations apply so as to prohibit certain boats with engines or motors.

(d) 'Person' shall mean a human being, partnership, corporation, association, including a condominium association, and any other entity to which the law provides or imposes rights or responsibilities.

(e) 'Separate Frontage' means that portion of a lot or parcel of land existing on documentation recorded within the Washtenaw County Register of Deeds, which abuts or intersects with the normal high water mark of a lake, whether such lot or parcel is owned by one or more persons, or commonly owned by several persons, or combinations of persons, and shall include any adjoining frontage under common ownership, regardless of the tax description or documentation pertaining to any specific lot or parcel.

ARTICLE IV. REGULATIONS:

Section 4.1. Subject to the provisions below, not more than two boats shall be launched and/or docked adjacent to each separate frontage.

Section 4.2. If the continuous length of a separate frontage is at least 33 feet, two additional boats may be launched and/or docked adjacent to each separate frontage. If the continuous length of a separate frontage is greater than 33 feet, a third additional boat may be launched and/or docked for each 100 feet of continuous frontage in excess of 33 feet. For the purpose of computing the length of frontage, the measurement shall be along the waters edge at the normal high water mark of the lake as determined by the Department of Natural Resources, or if the Department has not made such a finding, the normal high water mark location shall be determined by the discretion of the Township. Moreover, the measurement shall be made only along a natural shoreline, and shall not include any man-made, channel, lagoon, canal or the like.

Section 4.3. Following the effective date of this Ordinance, no launching and/or docking of boats shall be permitted with respect to a separate frontage, unless it complies with this Ordinance.

ARTICLE V. PENALTIES:

Section 5.1. Any person who shall be convicted of a violation of the regulations contained in this Ordinance shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by imprisonment of not more than 90 days or by fine of not more than $500.00, or both such imprisonment or fine, as determined by a Court of competent jurisdiction.

Section 5.2. In addition to, or in lieu of, seeking to enforce this Ordinance by proceeding under Section 5.1, above, the Township may institute an appropriate action in a Court of general jurisdiction seeking equitable relief.

ARTICLE VI. SEVERABILITY:

Section 6.1. In the event that any one or more sections, provisions, phrases or words of this Ordinance shall be found to be invalid by a Court of competent jurisdiction, and such holding shall not affect the validity nor the enforceability of the remaining sections, provisions, phrases or words of this Ordinance unless expressly so determined by the Court.

ARTICLE VII. VARIANCES:

Section 7.1. The Township Board may modify the requirements of this Ordinance on the appeal of a landowner and shall make a determination as in the Board's opinion ought to be made where there are practical difficulties or unnecessary hardship in the way of carrying out the strict letter of the Ordinance. The Township Board may, in passing upon appeals, vary or modify any of the Ordinance's rules or provisions relating to riparian use of bodies of water and adjoining land, buildings, or structures, so that the spirit of the ordinance shall be observed, public safety secured, and substantial justice done.

Section 7.2. The Township Board may impose conditions upon an affirmative decision on an appeal. The conditions may include conditions necessary to insure that public and private uses of bodies of water, public services and facilities affected by the proposed use or activity will be capable of accommodating increased service and facility loads caused by the riparian use or activity, to protect the natural environment and conserve natural resources and energy, to insure compatibility with adjacent uses of land, and to promote the use of bodies of water and adjoining lands in a socially and economically desirable manner. Conditions imposed shall do all of the following:

A. Be designed to protect natural resources, the health, safety, and welfare, as well as the social and economic well-being of those who will use the riparian use or activity under consideration, residents and landowners immediately adjacent to the proposed riparian use or activity, and the community as a whole.

B. Be related to the valid exercise of the police power and purposes which are affected by the proposed use or activity.

C. Be necessary to meet the intent and purpose of the Ordinance; be related to the standards in the Ordinance for the riparian use or the activity under consideration; and be necessary to insure compliance with those standards.

Section 7.3. The concurring vote of a majority of the members of the Board shall be necessary to decide in favor of the applicant or to effect a variation in the Ordinance.

ARTICLE VIII. NON-EXCLUSIVITY:

Section 8.1. The prohibitions and penalties provided for in this Ordinance shall be in addition to, and not exclusive of, other prohibitions and penalties provided for by other law, ordinance, rule and/or regulation.

ARTICLE IX. ADOPTION:

Section 9.1. Provision of this Ordinance shall take effect thirty (30) days from the date of publication in accordance with the Statutes of the State of Michigan.

ADOPTED: MAY 5, 1992.
PUBLISHED: MAY 13, 1992.
EFFECTIVE: JUNE 12, 1992.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor:
 Congratulations to the high school students involved with the musical "Grease." What a superb performance!
 I would like to suggest that we don't always recognize all the work that goes on by persons behind the scenes. There are untold hours of work that go into the technical organization of the musical, the set building, and the development of the marketing plan and programs. Though we recognized some of these persons in the program, we should all be aware the finished product is the result of a great number of dedicated high school students and adults who put in long hours after the school day is over, and after hours at work as well.
 Hats off to those persons as well as the talented performers. You all deserve a great deal of credit. You make your community proud!
 Nancy M. Tracy.

 The declines in U.S. productivity in the 1970's and 1980's were particularly marked in the service industries, according to "Workforce 2000," a U.S. Labor Department publication. Between 1955 and 1970, output per worker in manufacturing grew at a compound rate of two percent per year. But in services, the output per worker fell, causing the over-all pattern of output per worker to slide from a 1.6 percent annual gain to only 0.5 percent.

Historic Flag Display Moving Toward July Grand Opening

"The creation of a major patriotic and educational attraction—Chelsea's own Historic American Flag Display—will not cost the taxpayers of the School District or Village a dime, except through their volunteer gifts," according to Pat Merkel, construction supervisor of the project. "We expect to begin assembly early in June and have it completed by July 1." Sometime in June the date will be set for a gala grand opening.

The cost of the historic flags for the display is being shared by Chelsea posts of the American Legion and Veterans of Foreign Wars," Merkel added. "They are also contributing money and practically all of the labor." Cost of materials, including copies of historic art work and photos is being raised through donations by Chelsea area businesses, families and individuals.

The flag display will be located in the Large Group Instruction Room of Beach Middle school, a site familiar to all who vote in school elections. The flags and art work will fill most of the north and south walls. Nevertheless the room will continue to be available for instruction of large groups, community meetings and elections.

Teachers and our guides will be provided with reference materials in American flag history, correct display and standards of respect for the national emblem.

Families, persons and organizations wishing to become founding members of the Historic American Flag Display may send contributions of any amount to HAFD, P.O. Box 94, Chelsea.

LEGIONNAIRE DON O'DELL admires a drawing of the Boston Tea Party, the latest acquisition of Chelsea's Historic American Flag Display. The Boston Tea Party was one of many acts of rebellion by American patriots against the English Crown which led to U.S. revolution and independence.

Stockbridge Teens Injured in Crash, Man, 21, Killed

Six Stockbridge teen-agers were injured and a 21-year-old Webberville man was killed in a crash north of Stockbridge early Sunday morning in heavy fog.

According to the Ingham County Sheriff's Department, John Griswold was driving north on M-52 near Frost Rd. when his vehicle struck a south-bound vehicle head-on. Griswold, who police said had been drinking, was dead at the scene. A passenger in his car, who was wearing a seatbelt, was not injured.

The students, who were returning home in two cars from the Stockbridge High school prom, came along after the first crash and struck the cars, primarily due to the low visibility. Police said the teens had not been drinking.

Students' injuries ranged from bruises, to a broken leg, to a lacerated liver. Names were not immediately available.

THIS HOUSE, which was moved from South St. last fall to a lot on W. Middle St. as part of the Downtown Development Authority project, was put in what should be its final resting spot last week. The house was actually slid along the girders, which were lubricated with common soap, as trucks pulled the house into place. The foundation will be built up to meet the house, and then the railroad ties will be removed. DDA plans to renovate the house, then sell it.
