Likely County Purchase Of Reddeman Golf Course Leaves Lima Officials Cold

REDDEMAN FARMS GOLF COURSE may be sold to the Washtenaw Parks and Recreation Department for $3.4 million. Included in the price is the clubhouse, pictured, the course and all equipment.

Officials in Lima township are upset over a plan by the Washtenaw County Parks and Recreation Department to buy the two-year-old Reddeman Farms Golf Course on Dancer Rd.

Washtenaw County Board of Commissioners voted 7-2 last week in favor of a resolution to place a notice of intention to sell bonds covering a portion of the proposed $3.4 million sales price. The sales price would cover the course, clubhouse, and all equipment. County residents have 45 days to petition for a referendum on a $2.4 million bond sale.

Funds generated from the golf course would be used to pay back the bonds. The other $1 million would come from parks department monies.

Lima township is upset about the effect on the township's tax base. Last year the golf course generated about $1.50 in taxes for the township, but the new clubhouse was not yet on the tax rolls. The township collected about $62,000 in taxes last year.

"They acted very surprised that we were not thrilled by the idea of them taking the property off the tax rolls," said former planning commission chair David Bacon.

"They tell us they're providing a golf course for county residents. But we already have the facility and golf is being played there."

Bacon, who attended a Thursday meeting of the parks and recreation department, said Lima was also told the county would not have to live by township zoning regulations or special use permits imposed on the original developers by the township. Those requirements include the established hours of operation, no use of the course or clubhouse during the winter for activities such as cross country skiing and no use of the clubhouse for anything other than golf-related functions.

However, parks director Fred Barkley said the department has not yet gotten a ruling from the county attorney on whether those requirements would still apply. He said the department's intention is to close the purchase after Dec. 31.

County commissioner Mike DuRussel, who represents most of the western part of the county, including Lima township, said last Friday that in the event of the sale he would favor some sort of revenue-generating plan for Lima township and the Chelsea School District. Examples might include a fee placed on each round of golf or an arrangement for a county payment in lieu of taxes, similar to what the Department of Natural Resources does on much of the park land it owns.

DuRussel, who voted for the resolution, said he can see pros and cons to the sale.

"If the county owns the course, it's less likely the area around it would be developed," DuRussel said.

"I'm a full-time farmer and I'd like to see the area stay rural. Also, if some private individual buys it and gets into financial trouble, it could be a white elephant. On the other hand, I don't want to see [the township and school district] get knocked off. The reason for the 45 days is so we can get the opinions of the citizens. My ears are open and I'm listening."

DuRussel also guessed that Dancer Rd. might be maintained better if the county owns the course.

It may not matter whether the bond sales goes through. Barkley said the reason his department wants a bond issue is it would be the cheapest method of financing the project. However, he said the department has other means for completing the sale. The department owns no other golf courses.

The county is basing the feasibility of the sale on the projection of 30,000 rounds of golf being played at a cost of $15 per 18 holes, Barkley said. The golf course now charges $16 during the week and $20 on the week-ends.

"The feasibility is predicated on its operation as a golf course," Barkley said.

Barkley said included in the department's five-year plan was a provision (Continued on page six)

City Committee Still Collecting Information

The committee studying whether the Village of Chelsea should become the City of Chelsea is slowly collecting information but has not begun to formulate any sort of formal recommendation.

Information has been obtained about the establishment and functions of a regional planning commission, which has recently been discussed by the committee.

In addition, tax ramifications on the village and Sylvan and Lima townships are being studied.

The group has also discussed the possibility of becoming a home rule village rather than a general-law village, which apparently offers many of the advantages of city status but maintains more open borders.

According to information provided to the committee, the village can levy up to 21.5 mills, including 12.5 for the general fund, five for streets, three for rubbish collection, and one for cemeteries. Village residents also have to pay one mill to their township. The village only levies 10.94 for the general fund. A city may levy 20 mills for its general fund and three for rubbish collection for a total of 23 mills. Residents would not have to pay township taxes. Not included in those totals are millages approved for libraries and debt service.

It is also possible for a city to levy an income tax.

Sylvan township stands to lose about $79,500 in taxes as its State Equalized Valuation would drop from $163,115,700 to $63,616,200, reflecting the loss of all of the downtown business district. Lima township would lose about $9,389, as its SEV drops from $63,730,900 to $9,104,500. Townships lose all their tax base within the city limits.

The loss would be even worse for Sylvan township because it would have to find a new town hall. It could not have its offices outside its boundaries and the current town hall is downtown on W. Middle St.

A regional planning commission would not have zoning powers or veto power over local governments. It could act only as an advisory board but could adopt a plan for social, economic, and physical development of the region.

When the idea of a regional planning commission was first proposed a couple of years ago, the village would have been joined by Sylvan, Lima, Lyndon, and Dexter townships.

A government cannot be forced to join a regional planning commission. However, if it wants to be a member it has to pay its share of the commission's expenses.

Committee member Ann Feeny said there has been much discussion about the psychological impact of becoming a city. The village has what are called "open borders" because village residents are also township residents. With the establishment of a city, there might be the perception that Chelsea is trying to shut out the rest of the area by becoming less cooperative and having more rigid borders. She said people outside the village borders tend to think of themselves as part of the Chelsea community, which may not be the case if a city is established.

If a city annexes property it becomes part of the city, whereas if a village annexes property it is still part of the township.

The committee will meet again on Wednesday, Oct. 7 at BookCrafters, Inc.

Belser Estates Residents Complain and Get Action

Residents of Belser Estates subdivision have been promised all improvements to get the subdivision up to village standards will be completed by the end of the month.

Several times during the summer Belser residents have attended village council meetings to inquire and complain about the promised improvements. They have been upset that they are paying village taxes but are not receiving all village services. They have also been upset about the use of vinyl siding on some houses, but that dispute has apparently been won by the developers.

Until the subdivision meets village standards as established in a development agreement signed several years ago, the village is under no obligation to accept the streets, or have them "dedicated" to the village. Until the subdivision is dedicated, the village does not have to plow or sweep streets, maintain the sewers, or even enforce parking laws.

Belser resident Sue Williams has been outspoken about paying taxes but not getting all services. She offered to put her taxes in escrow until the services are provided.

There apparently was some confusion as to whether the first phase of the project had been dedicated. But village attorney Peter Flintoft told village manager Jack Myers it had not been accepted.

Senior Swimming Begins Sept. 14

Chelsea Senior Citizens swimming program begins the week of Sept. 14 from 1:15 p.m. to 2 p.m. at the Cameron Pool at Beach Middle school.

The pool will be available on Monday, Wednesday, and Thursday at a cost of $1 per visit or 20 visits for $30.

Economic Breakfast Club Will Hear U-M's Jay Smith

On Wednesday, Sept. 16, assistant U of M. basketball coach, Jay Smith, will speak at the Chelsea Area Chamber of Commerce Economic Breakfast Club meeting. The breakfast will be held in the Main Dining Room of Chelsea Community Hospital.

Smith has been at Michigan since 1989, immediately after Steve Fisher became head coach. His responsibilities include scouting of opponents, on-campus recruiting, academic affairs and on-the-floor coaching. Off the floor, he is a tireless worker, spending numerous hours breaking down game films of the Wolverines and their opponents. Smith also serves as director of the highly respected and successful Steve Fisher Basketball Camp.

The bi-monthly Economic Breakfast Club is pleased to open the current year's series with the popular and successful member of the exciting Michigan basketball department. The meeting is open to everyone. A nominal fee is charged for the continental breakfast. Call Ann Feeny at 475-1145 for reservations.

Thornton Hired To Market Village Industrial Park

Chelsea realtor Robert Thornton has been hired by the Village of Chelsea to market the village's industrial park.

Thornton, who sold his real estate company to Spear & Associates and remains associated with Spear, becomes the third broker to try his hand at selling lots in the park.

Chelsea realtor Mark McKernan was the first person hired and managed to sell the lots used by Hatch Stamping Co. Then council chose to hire Michael Scholtz when McKernan's contract expired, but Scholtz was not able to sell any of the lots. Scholtz recently backed out of the contract and recommended another firm.

In hiring Thornton, some council members said they wanted to hire another local person.

When Thornton is out of town, Spear & Associates have agreed to act as the marketing agent.

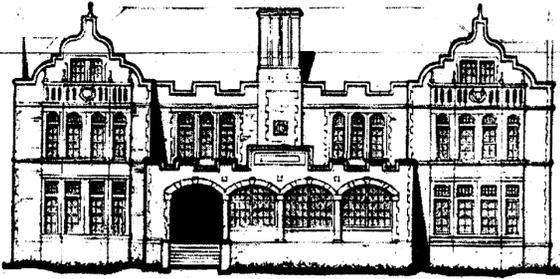

JENNIFER McCALLA'S Grand Champion Pen of Hogs was purchased by Surleen Agri for $1.10 per pound at the Chelsea Community Fair Livestock Auction.

CHELSEA RAILROAD DEPOT is getting a fresh coat of paint after volunteers raised $5,000 through the sale of lottery tickets to Chelsea residents to pay for the work.

The project should be completed in two weeks and the color will be the same as before.

Party Chairs Vow Support For Presidential Nominees

Leaders of the Michigan Democratic and Republican parties are both claiming their candidate will win in Michigan, but both sides agree that it is a pivotal state in the upcoming election.

At party conventions, delegates nominated their candidates for the Supreme Court, State Board of Education and three university governing boards.

Gary Corbin, Democratic chair, said Michigan will go to Bill Clinton, who will bring about the changes needed to improve the economy.

Governor John Engler's speech linked the Republicans' success to gaining control of the House and Congress, maintaining seats on the state boards and Supreme Court.

MICHIGAN MIRROR

By Warren M. Hoyt, Secretary, Michigan Press Association

cratic efforts, Mr. Engler criticized Mr. Gore's position on fuel standards that the governor said would cost Michigan 40,000 auto industry jobs.

Mr. Corbin said Democrats will go far this year, since they have never had the "luxury" of a presidential candidate as strong as Mr. Clinton.

"We can have a clean sweep. We can take every board," he said of the court and education posts.

Other elected Democrats, who are capitalizing on what they suggest are failed economic policies administered by the Bush administration in Michigan, were equally as strong on Mr. Clinton's ability to win the presidency.

"Michigan must be carried if this ticket is to win the presidency," said Secretary of State Richard Austin.

"The eyes of the world will be on Michigan for the next several weeks," Attorney General Frank Kelley said.

Lieutenant Governor Connie Binsfeld urged her party's delegates to work as a team to re-elect Mr. Bush, while Mr. Doyle referred to the campaign as a battle against Democrats, special interests and the media.

Democrats likewise brought the media into the discussion, as former Governor James Blanchard, who addressed Democrats in Detroit, said it will be an uphill battle to elect Mr. Clinton.

"You're not going to read the truth about these people. You'll get it spooned by John Engler and all his lackeys in Lansing," Mr. Blanchard said.

Although a number of Republicans have backed Governor John Engler's plan to cut school operating taxes, some are opposing it because they feel since the reduction is based on a percentage of the tax bill, those with the most property will be the biggest beneficiaries.

The plan, referred to as Proposal "C" on the Nov. 3 ballot, would reduce school operating taxes over five years by 30 percent across the board.

Proponents of the plan have said the reduction will put more than $6.5 million back into the pockets of taxpayers to revitalize Michigan's economy and allow property taxpayers to continue saving after the 1992 assessment freeze expires and after the phased-in reduction takes place.

But GOP State Issues Committee four-term member Thomas Houseman, chair of Republicans Opposed to Cut and Cap, circulated a letter Saturday calling the plan "Bad policy, bad politics."

Mr. Houseman said the ballot proposal is flawed and misleading and may doom other party objectives, such as re-electing George Bush and capturing the majority in the House.

"This isn't the year or the campaign for slick and easy solutions to the hard problems we face in Michigan," Houseman said.

Opponents to the plan have also argued its permanent nature could cause long-term inequities in school financing and its reimbursement of districts removes incentives for improving school finance.

Uncle Lew from Lima Says:

DEAR MISTER EDITOR:

Clem Webster give a quick sum up of presidential politics for the fellows at the country store Saturday night. He noted that the Democrats and Republicans have gone through the motions of picking their generals and they have started lobbying in shells to soften the enemy for hand to hand TV combat in a few weeks.

For sure, Clem went on, the polling trail is wagging the campaigning dog. Candidates wait to see the point spread so they can decide what issues to push hardest and what to blame the other for next.

That looks like the Republican platform this time around, Clem said. Everthing Government is supposed to do is against em, so they yell about family values where Government's got no business. And to be safe they picked a buzzword that can mean nothing or everthing to anybody.

Farthermore, Clem said, by shying away from real problems, the Republicans keep digging holes to fill holes according to the polls.

One went to sea and the other become vice president and neither one ever was heard from again.

The fellers were general agreed with Clem's overview. Even moss-back Republican Ed Doolittle admitted that President Bush-keeps saying he didn't do it, but if he gets a new term he won't do it any more.

Ed said it's always amazing to hear politicians admit they weren't watching when something bad happened on their watch, like the S&L and BCCI robberies, but if they ever see it again they'll put a quick stop to it.

For another surprise, Clem admitted that Ed was right. Actual, said Clem, it's easy to see how folks can be led as easy one way as the other. It's because they want to be. You got to keep in mind, Clem went on, that these are the same people that believe those dedicated real estate agents in the TV ads really are working for the buyer instead of the seller.

Yours truly, Uncle Lew.

Extension Service Offers Home Ownership Training

By Terry Jones, Extension Home Economist

Washtenaw County Co-operative Extension Service will be providing educational counseling for a new program called the "Michigan Initiative." It is a partnership between the State, the Federal Home Mortgage Corp., Michigan lenders, private mortgage insurers and community groups to help more Michigan families buy homes.

The Michigan Initiative is different in three ways:

education and training concerning purchasing a home.

2. It cuts the normal down payment requirement in half, to 5%.

3. It offers you more flexible credit terms than a conventional mortgage. The program will be especially helpful to first time home buyers, but is not limited to them.

A very important part of the Michigan Initiative is the education that each homeowner applying for a loan through the Michigan Initiative must receive.

To participate in the program, family income must be under $51,175 for Washtenaw county residents.

Anyone interested in learning more about the Michigan Initiative Program or about home ownership, is invited to attend this educational session. Pre-registration is required, as space is limited, by calling the Co-operative Extension office at 971-0079.

Deborah Vasas, Wayne Moore Marry in St. Paul UCC

Deborah A. Vasas, daughter of Anthony Wisniewski of Chelsea and the late Beverly Wisniewski, and Wayne F. Moore, son of Mr. and Mrs. Winford Moore of Dexter, were married June 20 at St. Paul United Church of Christ in Chelsea.

The Rev. Erwin Koch performed the ceremony before 300 guests.

The bride wore a gown with a sweetheart neckline with a full satin skirt containing a tulle overlay and a chapel-length train.

Matron of honor was Sharon Hopkins of Chelsea. She wore a full-length satin, amethyst-color dress.

Bridesmaids were Linda Brown of Chicago, friend of the bride, Sheryl Jenkins of Ann Arbor, friend of the bride, and Patti Wisniewski of Chelsea, sister-in-law of the bride. Their dresses matched the matron of honor's but were lavender in color.

The bride was given away by her three sons, Bobby, Shaun, and Billy Vasas.

The bridegroom's mother wore a floor-length, royal blue dress trimmed in white lace with a matching hat.

Best man was Gene Doncha of Dexter.

Ushers were Steve Robbins of Chelsea, friend of the bridegroom, Tony Wisniewski of Chelsea, brother of the bride, and Jeff Kaufman of St. Joseph, friend of the bridegroom.

A reception was held at the Chelsea Community Fairgrounds Service Center.

Gary and Ruth Ann Pope and Ron and Marilyn Krull cut the cake. Karen Schultz and Vida Tessner managed the guest book.

Virgil and Shirley Krull were host and hostess.

The newlyweds took a one-week honeymoon trip to Orlando, Fla. They are living in Chelsea.

The first workers to maintain a permanent organization were Philadelphia cordwainers in 1792. The organization, whose name is unknown, was formed to maintain or improve wages by collective bargaining. The group lasted less than one year but reappeared in 1794 as the Federal Society of Journeymen Cordwainers, which existed until 1806, according to the U.S. Department of Labor's "Labor Firsts in America."

The Chelsea Education Foundation salutes all excellence in education within our community. North/South School teacher Ruth Stielstra is our recent focus: Ruth was the recent recipient of the 1992 Educator of the Gifted award given by the Michigan Alliance of Gifted Education (MAGE).

Mrs. Stielstra was chosen from 31 educators around the state because her Enrichment Triad Program was one that was "suitable for replication across the country." She was also chosen on the basis of "national recognition" within the field of gifted education. She has lectured across the country in the area of gifted education.

Ruth Stielstra was also recently invited to participate as a delegate in the U.S./China Joint Conference on Education in Beijing, People's Republic of China, by the World Council for Gifted and Talented Children.

It is truly an honor to have such a celebrated professional teaching at both North and South Elementary Schools. Congratulations, Ruth Stielstra! Thank you for teaching and supporting our Chelsea children.

The Chelsea Education Foundation wishes to gratefully acknowledge the work of the FLAG group in uniting to work for the millage passage in June.

We are hopeful they will continue to work for excellence in education in the Chelsea community in order that we can maintain a high quality of life for our children.

The Chelsea Education Foundation is a non-profit organization. Anyone interested in contributing funding or time, please contact P.O. Box 295, Chelsea, MI 48118.

School Improvement Process Explained to Beach Parents

On the evening of May 27, a program was presented to Beach school parents regarding the progress of the School Improvement Process (SIP) at Beach Middle school. It was presented by the representatives of the various groups involved: staff, parents, students and a staff consultant from Washtenaw Intermediate School District (WISD). As a result of that meeting all of Beach Middle school parents received a letter giving them a chance to give their opinions about the school's strengths and challenges.

The program started with background on the need for change in education. Society has changed dramatically since the public school system was established. Increased technology, global industry, changing parenting roles and new requirements of work skills in the job market suggest different, new approaches to education could be useful.

Karen Schulte, the staff consultant from WISD, spoke regarding new laws that have been passed to encourage schools in these changes. A "core curriculum" has been developed as a guideline for all schools in the state. Schools have been required to pursue accreditation, which sets standards for facilities, personnel and programs. The state also requires that the schools make yearly reports to the community regarding the progress toward these goals.

A mission statement was developed during the 1990-1991 school year as part of the SIP. It was presented at this meeting by Ana Morrel-Samuels and Bob Heil, two of the students who have painted an illustrated, capsulized version of it on the cafeteria wall. The mission statement is a guiding philosophy for the school and may be used as a guideline to evaluate new programs.

Through the work being done on school improvement and accreditation, Beach Middle school became aware of a grant program. The school received its grant and is now considered part of the Michigan Re: Learning Network, making it easier to obtain information on new approaches to teaching and to get additional staff training when necessary.

During the meeting each person was placed in one of two groups to brainstorm the strengths and challenges of Beach Middle school. Both groups listed many strengths and many challenges. Those lists were recently mailed to Beach Middle school parents so they have had an opportunity to give input on what they feel are the most important items in

Council of Veterans Elects Officers For Next Year

Larry Stalker of the Dexter American Legion Post 557 will serve as a returning adjutant to the Washtenaw County Council of Veterans.

At the Council's monthly meeting Aug. 24, other officers were elected to represent delegates from 17 veterans organizations within Washtenaw county. Those officers include Milton Davis of Washtenaw county VVA Chapter 310, commander; John McComb of Washtenaw county DAV Chapter, senior vice-commander; Gene Liedel of Manchester American Legion Post 117, junior vice-commander; Philip F. Hanson of the Military Order of the Purple Heart Chapter 459, treasurer; Reuben Swisher of DAV Chapter 13, chaplain; Clarence Holmberg of DAV Chapter 13, executive committee member; and Gary Speer of the Marine Corps League Detachment 414, executive committee member.

Also serving as Council officers are returning executive committee members Gregg M. Weaver, DAV Chapter 13 and Donald Meabon of the Ann Arbor VFW 423, whose two-year terms don't expire until next year.

Commander Adam Banner of Ann Arbor VFW Post 423 was honored at the meeting for his outstanding efforts over the preceding year.

each category. The SIP Steering Committee is looking forward to the additional information that will be available from this input.

This meeting gave the community an opportunity to share information and to become more involved with our schools. Parent and community support are essential components of excellent schools and Chelsea has a history of such support. As the school improvement process progresses, expect similar opportunities to become more involved.

Athletic Boosters Plan Fall Sports Kick-Off Party

Chelsea Athletic Boosters plan to hold their third annual Fall Sports Kick-Off Party on Friday, Sept. 11, from 6:30 p.m. until game time. The Bulldogs football team will open its home schedule against the Saline Hornets.

Chelsea High School Pep Band will provide entertainment between 6:45 and 7:15 p.m. and the boosters club will have pizza and pop available for purchase.

Proceeds will benefit all Chelsea sports programs.

Donald A. Cole, Director

"They that value not praise will never do anything worthy of praise..."

—Thomas Fuller

Most people thoroughly appreciate a little praise when it is sincere and well-merited. And, although most of us do things that are worthy of praise, we are recognized in that manner all too infrequently.

According to psychologists, praising accomplishment is a more effective incentive than criticizing failure. Let's try to be more generous with our commendations and inspire others to continue their praiseworthy deeds.

to either build or buy a golf course in the western part of the county. He said the department had been talking about purchasing a piece of land, but couldn't complete a deal. The county approached the Reddeman Farms developers when they heard the course was available, and eventually had the property appraised. Barkley sees the course as another way to generate revenue for the department.

"We need diversity in our revenue base so we can provide the free services we have," Barkley said. "For example, Park Lyndon is free but it takes a lot of money to maintain it. A golf course is not nearly as weather-dependent as a water park and there is a much longer playing time. This year was horrible for our water park but golf courses in the county are doing fine."

Interlochen Academy

Chelsea area resident Kevin Kendrick has been accepted for the fall term at Interlochen Arts Academy. The Academy, which is located near Traverse City, attracts students from all 50 states and many foreign countries who are interested in studying the arts.

Kevin, who will be a sophomore this year, is enrolled as a percussion major. He is also interested in pursuing instruction in jazz.

Kevin has been a percussionist in the Chelsea school system since sixth grade, playing with band, orchestra, jazz band, and with high school and Chelsea Area Players musical productions.

Kevin's interest in music was encouraged by Warren Mayer, Bill Gourley, and Peter Rosheger of the Chelsea music program, as well as by his private instructor, Steve Carow of Ann Arbor.

Kevin is the son of Frank and Ann Marie Kendrick of Lyndon township.

Library Celebrating Your Right To Know

Your right to vote is protected by your voter registration card, but what about your Right To Know?

Your Right To Know—about everything from toxic waste and government actions to the latest videos and bestsellers—is protected by another important card, your library card. National Library Card Sign-up Month, observed every September by the American Library Association (ALA) and libraries across the country is the perfect time to make sure that you too have the Right To Know.

Everyone knows a library card can help you find a book to read in your spare time, but according to JoAnne Walter, director of the McKune Memorial Library, a library card can also provide free access to host of other kinds of information. "Information on consumer protection, international affairs, government publications, education, travel, genealogy and many other topics can be investigated by the public through our library system."

The Library Board and the Friends of the McKune Memorial Library have asked the Chelsea Village Council to join them in proclaiming September "Library Card Sign-up Month." They are urging anyone in the community, who has not already done so, to participate by coming to the Library and signing up for a card to exercise the "Right To Know."

Let's Go Bulldogs!

Dogs Take Advantage Of Mason Mistakes for Win, Face Saline Friday

Chelsea Bulldogs took advantage of four Mason Bulldogs turnovers to win their season opener last Friday night in Mason, 21-19.

Junior split end-running back Colby Skelton scored twice for Chelsea and picked off two passes, and senior running back Tom Poulter scored the opening touchdown as the Bulldogs were in control most of the way. The game was not as close as the final tally. Mason's Jason Howary scored from 30 yards with :22 left as a pass tipped by Chelsea's Pat Steele landed right in his arms.

"Over-all we're very pleased," said Chelsea head coach Gene LaFave.

"We went into the game with a lot of apprehension. Mason is a good team and has 17 of 22 starters back. We also have a lot of nagging injuries and have not been healthy since day one. My starting offensive and defensive tacklers didn't play but the kids in their place responded. Pat Steele is only operating at about 70 percent, but he's a tough kid. Colby Skelton and Tom Poulter just played excellent games."

Sophomore Casey McCalla and junior David Brock substituted at defensive tackle. Senior Ken Slane had to be moved to tight end to take the place of injured Gary White. Slane had four days practice at the position. LaFave also praised the play of junior lineman Rob Bergman.

"The bonus is that now we have several more kids who can play who have improved under fire," LaFave said.

"If we didn't have that depth, we would have won the game."

The Bulldogs picked up their first touchdown early in the second quarter after Mason fumbled the ball away at midfield. Steele connected with Skelton to the 48, senior tight end Ken Slane to the Mason 34, and Skelton again to the 27. On third and three Poulter bulled to the 20 for the first down. On the next play he ran right up the middle, breaking tackles on his way to the touchdown with 9:39 left in the half.

Junior Tim Wescott kicked the first of three extra points on the night. Wescott's abilities on the extra point have given Chelsea a dimension they haven't had in many years—a reliable point-after specialist. For perhaps the first time in a decade, the Bulldogs didn't even try a two-point conversion in a game. And the extra points played a big part in Friday's win.

Mason missed their first extra-point try, then failed again on a two-point conversion, which would have tied the game. Once Chelsea pulled ahead 21-12 late in the third quarter, Mason was forced to score twice to win.

Mason mounted a 48-yard touchdown drive on the possession immediately after Chelsea's touchdown. A roughing-the-kicker penalty on fourth and 14 kept the drive alive at the Chelsea 30. A 15-yard option pulled Mason within 7-6 with 5:54 left.

Late in the half, Skelton picked off a pass at the Mason 46. Steele connected with junior Don Poppenger on a 21-yard pass to the Mason 25. Two plays later Steele hit Skelton streaking over the middle to give the Bulldogs a 13-6 lead with 1:02 left in the half.

Chelsea had one more chance to get on the board late in the half as Mason fumbled the ball away with :34 left. Steele tried to hit Poulter on two sideline routes. On the final play, Mason grabbed a Steele pass and raced 67 yards to the Chelsea 18 as time expired.

Mason came out strong in the second half. They took the kick-off to the Chelsea 40, then went 80 yards in 10 plays to close the deficit to 14-12. The two-point pass play fell short.

An ensuing on-sides kick was recovered cleanly by the Bulldogs at COLBY SKELTON, an offensive jack-of-all-trades for the Chelsea Bulldogs last Friday, takes off on a short gainer during against Mason. Skelton scored twice and picked off two passes.

RECEIVER Colby Skelton catches a short pass and turns up field during Chelsea's 21-19 victory at Mason last week. Skelton caught a team-high five passes from quarterback Pat Steele.

their own 43. Poulter ran the ball four of the next five plays to the Mason 40. After a holding penalty, Chelsea was faced with a third and 12. Steele kept to his left to the 33, inches short of the first down. He converted on a sneak on fourth down. From the Mason 29, Poulter ran right to the four. Skelton took the ball in on the next play with :54 left in the third quarter.

On their next possession, Mason drove to the Chelsea 18 before Skelton hauled in his second interception. That ended any idea of a Mason rally.

Poulter rushed for 95 of Chelsea's 138 yards on the ground on 17 carries. Junior Matt Montange picked up 33 yards and three carries, including a 23-yard run on Chelsea's final drive to keep the ball out of Mason's hands.

Steele was 7-15 for 107 yards. Skelton caught five for 75 yards.

The Bulldogs host the Saline Hornets Friday in the first Southeastern Conference game. Saline has beaten Chelsea five straight times.

"Saline's a solid club and it'll be another Mason-type game with even more intensity," LaFave said.

"They're coming off a 3-6 season so they have to learn how to win again, but they'll come here looking to get back on the right track."

Saline lost to Monroe Jefferson, 21-15, in their opener Friday.

Contrary to popular perceptions, foreigners are not buying up all of America's farmland. The U.S. Department of Agriculture says that the amount of cropland, pasture and rangeland owned exclusively by foreigners is between three and four million acres. That's less than one half of one percent of total U.S. farmland.

ROGER COX lectures his troops during a timeout at last Friday's games between the Chelsea Bulldogs and Mason Bulldogs in Mason. The banged up Chelsea Bulldogs got several key performances from second stringers to take a 21-19 victory. Chelsea hosts Saline Friday.

QUARTERBACK PAT STEELE keeps for his longest gain of the night against the Mason Bulldogs last Friday. The run set up a crucial fourth-down conversion. Chelsea went on to win, 21-19.

With a little more experience playing under pressure, the Chelsea Bulldogs varsity girls basketball team might be 2-0 rather than 0-2 to start the season.

The Bulldogs let a 10-point lead slip away in the closing minutes and lost to the Fowlerville Gladiators, 53-51, to open the season last Tuesday at home.

"We folded under pressure due to general inexperience," said Chelsea coach Charlie Waller.

"We just coughed the ball up. The game should have been in the bag but we made some poor decisions offensively."

Chelsea shot 32 percent (19-60) from the field, but missed numerous lay-ups.

Sophomore Jessica Flintoft led Chelsea with 14 points and sophomore Martha Merkel had 11. Other scorers included Heather McConeghy 8, Ginny Flannery 6, Erin Schiller 5, Nicki Piasecki 5, and Kate Steele 2.

Merkel, McConeghy, and Flannery fouled out, and Piasecki finished with four fouls.

On Thursday at home the Bulldogs and Stockbridge Panthers were tied at 25 half way through the fourth quarter before the Panthers pulled away to a 33-27 victory.

"Our real problem was our zone offense didn't work very well and we didn't make the proper adjustments," Waller said.

"Our inside people didn't get many shots. Plus we had trouble putting the ball in the basket again."

Chelsea fell behind 11-2 after the first quarter but closed to within 23-21 at the end of the third quarter.

JESSICA FLINTOFT pushes the ball up court for Chelsea against the Stockbridge Panthers last Thursday. Chelsea rallied to tie the Panthers late in the game but couldn't hold on.

Stockbridge point guard Tara Porter, who finished with 16 points, was able to make some key plays at the end of the game.

Chelsea hit 11-44 shots from the field and committed 21 turnovers.

SENIOR Ginny Flannery of Chelsea looks for an opening against the Stockbridge Panthers. Chelsea hopes to get in the win column this week after two close losses last week.

Chelsea JVs Lose Opener to Mason

Mason took advantage of early Chelsea turnovers on their way to an 18-0 win over the Bulldogs junior varsity football team in Chelsea last Thursday.

"We had just a terrible first quarter," said Chelsea coach Bill Bainton.

"We had two fumbles which they converted to touchdowns. We were inside our 30-yard line the entire quarter and we had a negative six yards for the quarter."

Mason led 12-0 at the end of the first quarter. They picked up another score in the third quarter, started by another Chelsea fumble.

Chelsea came close to scoring in the fourth quarter but an interception halted the drive.

"For our first effort we played respectable defense although our tackling was not as sharp as we'd like," Bainton said.

"Offensively we set up things we wanted to do but Mason was beating us badly in the line. We made some adjustments and in the second half we put together a nice running attack behind Jeremy Ziegler, Jordan Dyer, and Sam Morseau."

Pat Lynch was the Bulldogs' quarterback.

Netters Win Opening Match Against Howell

Chelsea girls' tennis team won its opening match against Howell Thursday night, 5-2.

"The Bulldogs played well and won this closely contested match," coach Terri Curtis commented. "This can be seen in the scores as three of the matches went to three sets and the rest were very close."

In singles, Anne Sparrow defeated Katie Neal in a long three set match which went 6-3, 4-6, 6-3.

Nicole Morgan defeated Erin Boyle in another long three-setter, going 7-5, 1-6, 6-3.

Heather Wynn defeated Pam Alvarez 6-1, 6-0; and Christine Koch defeated Michelle Lasagna 6-2, 6-4.

In doubles play, Theresa Hurst and Monica Hansen defeated Jodie Pihalska and Nancy Buehner 6-4, 6-3. Tracy Haas and Becca Flintoft defeated Jennifer Fiehl and Tricia Dinkel in another long three-set match 6-3, 6-7, 6-3; and Christine McLaughlin and Jessica Knight defeated Ara Townsend and Molly Heagany, 6-2, 7-5.

"This was a good match to start off with and I feel we should do well this year, however, we do play some tough teams throughout the season," Curtis continued. Our next match will be against Columbia Central Tuesday and then the Pinckney Invitational this Saturday starting at 9 a.m.

Girls Swim/Dive Team Dominates Willow Run

Chelsea girl's high school swimming and diving team opened their season with a big win over Willow Run, 122-54, at Chelsea's pool.

Coach Dave Brinklow was very pleased with the team's performance. "The freshmen swam particularly well," said Brinklow. "Each of them had at least one best time, and most had very big time drops."

The 200 medley relay team of Erica Street, Nona Giebel, Sandy Schmid, and Erin Baird was 1st place.

In the 200 freestyle, Betsy Schmunk was 2nd, followed by Michelle Dymond 4th, and Carrie Smith 5th.

Melissa Thiel won the 200 IM, with Kelly Bowers 2nd and Giebel 4th.

Carey Schiller won the 50 free with Baird 2nd, and Kristi Ostling 4th.

In the diving event, Jennifer Schulz took 1st place and Hilarie Kress was 2nd.

Schiller took 1st place in the 100 butterfly and Bowers was 2nd.

In the 100 freestyle it was Baird with 1st place followed by Street 3rd, and Smith 5th.

Cooper Deerwester was 2nd in the 500 freestyle, Stephanie Weslowski was 3rd and Schmid 4th.

The 200 freestyle relay team of Schmunk, Thiel, Bowers and Schiller was 1st and the team of Dymond, Smith, Weslowski and Deerwester was 3rd.

Schmunk won the 100 backstroke followed by Street 2nd and Erin Armstrong 3rd.

In the 100 breaststroke, Thiel took 1st place. Giebel was 2nd and Hillary Smith was 5th.

The 400 freestyle relay team of Baird, Schmid, Deerwester and Street was 1st, Weslowski, Dymond, C. Smith, and Angie Wilson was 3rd, Armstrong, Ostling, Amy Hinshaw and H. Smith was 5th.

The next meet is the Battle Creek Lakeview Relay Invitational on Saturday.

JV Cagers Beat Fowlerville, Stockbridge To Open Season

Chelsea Bulldogs junior varsity basketball team opened the season with victories over Fowlerville Gladiators and Stockbridge Panthers at home last week.

Chelsea beat the Gladiators 45-28 after taking a 29-8 lead at half-time.

"It was not bad for a first game," said Chelsea coach Paul Terpstra.

"We were able to pound the ball inside."

Chelsea eventually led 39-12 before Terpstra began substituting heavily. Every Bulldog played.

Courtney Thompson and Ann Terpstra led Chelsea with 12 points each. Other scorers included Lori Ritter 6, Heidi Wehrwein 4, Anne Frederick 4, Lisa Beard 4, Charlotte Ziegler 2, and Jessica Inwood 1.

Chelsea shot 45 percent from the field and had 22 steals but committed 38 turnovers.

The Bulldogs also had no trouble with Stockbridge on Thursday in a 48-26 victory.

After leading by six points at half-time, the Bulldogs moved to a 33-17 lead after three quarters.

Thompson again took the scoring honors with 14 points and had a team-high 13 rebounds. She scored all of the Bulldogs' 10 first-quarter points. Other scorers included Terpstra 10, Ziegler 7, Ritter 7, Laura Hodgson 3, Frederick 2, Wehrwein 2, Katie Morse 2, and Beard 1.

Chelsea hit 16-32 shots from the free throw line and Ziegler made 7-11.

Golfers Beat Milan Twice

Chelsea Bulldogs golf team opened its Southeastern Conference schedule last week with two victories over the Milan Big Reds.

Chelsea took Monday's match-up at Inverness Golf Course, 172-198, then beat the Big Reds at Macon Golf Course, 170-182.

On Monday medalist honors went to Sean Graflund with a 41. Other Chelsea scores were Nathan Oake 42, Adam Beauchamp 43, and Jim Tallman 46.

On Tuesday, Graflund and Oake shared medalist honors at 38. Beauchamp shot a 46 and Jesse Hammett a 48.

Chelsea junior varsity team also won both nights. On Monday the Bulldogs won 202-232 as James Diesing shot a 49. Drew Patterson and Rick Stahl each shot 50 and Scott Hurst had a 53.

On Tuesday Chelsea took a 189-200 win. Chelsea scores were Diesing 45, Patterson 46, Stahl 49, and Kevin Holmes 53.

"Things are starting to come together for this team," said Chelsea coach Jim Tallman.

"A healthy competitiveness among our sophomores is helping everyone improve with each match. Also, seniors Nathan Oake and Sean Graflund are providing the needed leadership."

Farmers State Bank of Munith Member FDIC

MUNITH-STOCKBRIDGE

"Hometown Independent Banking Since 1922"

It has been our pleasure to record financial transactions between this bank and the community area for 70 years. While conditions alter, the bond between this bank and the community area only grows and strengthens. At this time it is significant to recognize the far-sightedness of the bank's organizers. The bank's founders, subsequent directors and officers established and maintained a solid foundation for the bank in their leadership, directing its affairs in harmony with the area's growth and prosperity.

As we look at the history of our bank and the men and women who were associated with it, we marvel at their accomplishments in weathering the economic storms and making the changes necessary to survive without loss to depositors and service to the community. The tradition gives us inspiration to look ahead with optimism, to sound progress in the future years, hand in hand with our community area.

Girl Scouts Set Uniform Exchange Date

Chelsea Girl Scouts will be having a uniform "exchange" on Monday, Sept. 14, from 7 to 8 p.m., at Beach Middle School in the Large Group Instruction room. Troop leaders will be supervising the exchange.

This exchange is for you if you have a girl who is entering Girl Scouting this fall or if you have a Scout who is outgrowing her uniform.

Uniform pieces may be donated, exchanged and/or sold. All uniform pieces are welcome—Daisy smock; Brownie blouse, jumper, slacks, tie, hat, sash or vest; Junior blouse, skirt, slacks, tie, hat, sash or vest; Cadette blouse, skirt, slacks, tie, hat, or vest; Senior blouse, skirt, slacks, tie, hat or sash. Casual sportswear items may be included, too, but no cookie sale T-shirts.

For items being donated or exchanged, please safety-pin or staple a note to EACH item to identify its size (on the upper left hand side as you look at the item).

For items to be sold please safety-pin or staple an unsealed envelope to the upper left of the garment (as you look at it). On the front of the envelope, clearly mark the size of the item, identify what the item is, and how much you are asking for it. On the back of the envelope print your name, address and telephone number.

Pieces may also be dropped off on Monday, Sept. 14, in the offices of both North and South Elementary schools. There will be a box in the school office so that children may bring the uniform pieces to school and just drop them off. These pieces will be picked up and taken to the Exchange later that night.

It is asked that if you accept a donated item that it be re-donated to the Chelsea uniform exchange so it may be used again.

If you are participating in the Exchange and wish unclaimed/unsold items back, you will have to be at the Exchange at 8 p.m. to claim them. All items remaining at the end of the Exchange will be packed up and held until the next Exchange.

LLOYD AND JOYCE SCHNEIDER of Chelsea recently attended the Federation of International Camping and Caravaning rally in Bromont, Quebec, Can.

Schneiders Attend International Camping Rally in Canada

Lloyd and Joyce Schneider of Chelsea recently attended the Federation of International Camping and Caravaning (FICC) held in Bromont, Quebec, Can. It was the first time the conference has been held in North America.

The Schneiders have long been active in the National Campers and Filkers Association (NCHA) and are now field directors.

FICC is an organization of camping and caravaning clubs through the world and NCHA represents the United States.

Approximately 4,000 people from 35 countries attended. They stayed in tents, pop-ups, trailers, and recreational vehicles. Tents were provided for people who came from abroad. They were also able to rent RVs.

"The sight was beautiful with all the flags from the various countries flying above their sites," said Joyce Schneider.

The opening ceremony was similar to the Olympics. Each country was escorted in with a sign containing the name of the country. They marched dressed in special colors or in their native costumes. Costumes from China, Japan, and Wales were especially unusual, Joyce said.

As each contingent approached the viewing stand, the Canadian Sea Cadet Band played music appropriate to their country.

"It was an emotional experience that left a lump in my throat," Joyce said.

Joyce reports that it rained six of the 12 days of the conference and mud was everywhere.

Each day there were tours of the Quebec area, including a commercial area with all kinds of vendors. Each evening a program was put on by a country, either with special music or dancing.

The U.S. Night featured Dee Ladd from Ohio, a country western singer, and the Shaw Brothers from New Hampshire.

"This rally was certainly different from our own convention that we had just left in Minnesota," Joyce said.

"All programs were in English, French, and German, and a daily newspaper was in the same languages."

The U.S. group provided a potluck meal for all tenters. Many of the campers had never seen or heard of the food served or the concept of a potluck. Nevertheless, they were glad to have the food since cooking outdoors was a problem in the bad weather.

The U.S. group also treated all 150 of the delegates to a continental breakfast at a local family-owned hotel. When it came time to pay the bill, the hotel owner asked only for the American flag flown outside the hotel during the breakfast.

Virtually all of the people who attended spoke at least some English and many of them brought gifts representing their native lands, such as chocolate from Switzerland and dolls from Poland.

Bromont residents also proved to be especially friendly. Some of the townspeople asked to have some of the rally attendees as guests in their homes, serving meals and even doing laundry.

"We had heard lots of negatives about Quebec before we went but our experience was wonderful," Joyce said.

"The people are very proud of their country and it shows in the upkeep of their homes, new or old, and the beautiful flowers in every yard."

In 1941 the Fair Employment Practice Commission was created to seek the end of employment discrimination in the defense industry. The first state legislation prohibiting discrimination in employment on the basis of race, creed or color was the Ives-Quinn Act, passed in New York in 1945, according to the Department of Labor's "Labor Firsts in America."

School Board Notes

Present at a regular meeting of the Chelsea Board of Education Monday, Aug. 31, were Comeau, Satterthwaite, McCalla, Diesing, Knutsen, Redding, superintendent Piasecki, assistant superintendent Mills, principals Mead, Wescott, Stielstra, Stieber, assistant principal Rossi, curriculum director Bissell, community education director Rohrer, athletic director Welton, guests.

Meeting called to order at 7:30 p.m. by President Comeau.

Board approved the minutes of the Aug. 17 meeting and the minutes of the executive session of the same date.

Principal Ron Mead introduced four new high school faculty members: Kathy Terbrack, Kathy Hintz, Mark Scheese, Eric Swager.

The board briefly reviewed a draft of a policy dealing with administrative hiring practices. This will be further refined by the Board Policy Committee before action is taken by the board.

Board members discussed their beliefs relating to education in Chelsea as part of an over-all goal for strategic planning for the future.

The board discussed the matter of student representation on the board. The high school administrators will draft some guidelines for the selection process to present to the board at a future meeting.

In action items, the board:

- approved a policy for a smoke-free environment in the district's buildings
- selected Trustee Knutsen to vote for MASH delegates in the best interest of the district
- approved a contract for Kathy Terbrack, to replace Amy Poljan (who is on a leave of absence)
- accepted bids from Palmer Ford and Wise International for bus chassis/bodies
- approved the 1992-93 board goal and the 1992-93 district goals
- approved the Manchester Food Agreement for the 1992-93 school year
- approved the joint Chelsea-Saline orchestra camp
- approved the fall retreat of the Washington Street Show Choir
- approved a Memorandum of Agreement with the Bus Drivers Association.

The board convened in executive session at 10:10 p.m. to discuss personnel matters, reconvened in public session at 11:15, and adjourned the meeting at 11:17 p.m.

Project Grow Planning Sept. 20 Harvest Festival

On Sept. 20, Project Grow will celebrate 21 years of community service by hosting a Harvest Festival from 12 to 5 on the grounds of the Leslie Science Center, 1831 Traver, Ann Arbor. In this pastoral setting donated to the city of Ann Arbor by the late Dr. Eugene Leslie, Project Grow will offer a wide range of family activities, demonstrations, and workshops. Whether you're an experienced or beginning gardener, or just looking for a fun and interesting place to spend your Sunday afternoon the Project Grow Harvest Festival may be the place to be.

Project Grow is a non-profit tax-exempt organization created in 1971 to provide land for urban gardening and to assist gardeners with technical information.

Project Grow currently sponsors community garden sites at eight Ann Arbor locations on land loaned to the organization by the city of Ann Arbor, Washtenaw county, Ann Arbor public schools, Zion Lutheran church, the Peace Neighborhood Center and the Divine Shepherd church.

Educational, recreational, and social opportunities are a fundamental part of Project Grow. Workshops on a variety of gardening-related topics are offered throughout the year, and the organization has implemented gardening programs through several local educational resources.

Project Grow is committed to the development of new resources for backyard and community gardens. Organization members are also actively involved in community composting and vegetable gardening. Gardening education is an important component of Project Grow. Programs, workshops, and demonstrations on various aspects of gardening are held. Two annual festivals, held in the spring and fall, offer additional educational, and recreational and social opportunities.

Project grow is funded by community foundations, organizations and agencies, the City of Ann Arbor, Washtenaw county and plot membership fees.

By becoming a member of Project Grow, you can receive a free subscription to the Project Grow newsletter and have access to the Project Grow Library. Available memberships are $10 individual, $15 family, $25 sponsor, $50

Christian Singer/Comedian Will Perform in Dexter

Ron Moore, a Christian performer who combines comedy and music, will perform a free concert in Dexter, Sept. 12.

The 7:30 p.m. concert, sponsored by Dexter United Methodist church, will be under the tent at Camp Newkirk, the former Boy Scout camp that is the future home of the Dexter church. It is located on Huron River Dr., west of Mast Rd., just outside the village of Dexter.

Moore, who grew up in Seoul, Korea, as the son of missionary parents, started his singing career at age 16. His performances of original contemporary Christian music and comedy have taken him across the United States and to Canada, Europe, Asia and Central America.

Moore has recorded three albums of his music, released nationally, and he has another in the works.

Moore, who also has hosted the syndicated Christian music video program "Off the Wall," has appeared in theaters and festivals with such recording artists as Petra, B.J. Thomas, Michael W. Smith, Mylon LeFevre, Larry Norman and Randy Stonehill. He also has been the warm-up act for The Imperials and Steve Taylor.

Moore is coming to Dexter as part of the Newkirk Gathering week-end sponsored by the Dexter United Methodist church. A free-will offering will be taken at the conclusion of the concert. A communion service in the camp fire bowl, open to all, will follow at 9 p.m.

Moore also will share in the 9:30 a.m. worship service Sept. 13, also at Camp Newkirk. For more information, contact the Rev. Lee Penzien at 426-8480; Jan Alford at 426-4379; or Gerry Reisinger at 426-8149.

The first organization of black workers was the American League of Colored Laborers, founded in New York City in 1850. In 1869, an organization of white workers, the National Labor Union, advocated the creation of black labor unions and allowed blacks to attend its annual meeting. In 1869 the Colored National Labor Union became the first national black labor organization, according to the Department of Labor

Returning home from covering the Persian Gulf War, award-winning TV journalist, Tom Edwards (JEFF CONAWAY), and his producer, Patricia "Pete" Peterson (CONNIE SELLECCA) are given the task of "keeping the ratings high." It puts them at odds, since Tom feels the best "story" is one which would trash the faith of returning servicemen and women. "The war is over, what roles does God play now? Is He out in the open or has He been put back in the closet?" asks Tom in his TV interviews. "Pete" urges him to let God "speak" for Himself.

Tom's real war is at home with his daughter and within his own heart. In the wake of his wife's death, Tom immerses himself in his work, leaving Jill (DEBORAH TUCKER) hurt and alone. Their struggling attempts to reach out to each other serve only to widen the gap between them.

Through the moving stories of soldiers from Operation Desert Storm and the faithful support of co-worker "Pete" Peterson, Tom comes to experience genuine peace in the midst of the storms that engulf him.

EYE OF THE STORM addresses vital, timely issues very relevant in today's society. Families will be captivated by this contemporary story of what faces many single parents and their children as careers are juggled with personal relationships. This film will pierce the hearts of viewers, both young and old, as they identify with very human hurts and find hope in very real answers. EYE OF THE STORM is produced by World Wide Pictures, the motion picture ministry of the Billy Graham Evangelical Association.

PROFILE
 I am 42, married with two children.
 My wife is a doctor at Sparrow Hospital.
 I am an attorney with a B.S. from Eastern Michigan and a J.D. (1976) from John Marshall Law School.

WHY I CHOSE TO RUN
 I am appalled that our government can tax at the rate it taxes its citizens and still run a deficit. I am outraged that our government is spending obscene amounts of money and child poverty is increasing.
 I believe our government is dominated and controlled by special interest money.

STAND ON THE ISSUES

- I believe we must take money out of politics and support a $100 contribution ceiling.
- I support national health insurance.
- We must protect and provide good jobs and offer retraining to those who lose their jobs.
- I believe in an individual's right to privacy, and I am pro-choice.
- I support a simplified and fair tax system.

JOIN THE CAMPAIGN
 Since I do not accept PAC money and limit contributions to $100,
 I need volunteers and/or donations.

'The Tropical Pickle' Ends 17-Week Run

The final performance of Jeff Daniels' comedy, The Tropical Pickle, was held at the Purple Rose Theatre Company's Garage Theatre on Sunday, Aug. 30. The comedy, which began previews on May 7, played to capacity audiences during the 17 weeks of performances.

More than 9,000 people attended the 84 performances of The Tropical Pickle, with the resulting box office revenues strengthening the Purple Rose Theatre Company 1992-93 season. Since The Tropical Pickle began previews on May 7, over 30,000 patrons have attended performances in the intimate 119-seat theatre in Chelsea.

Written by Jeff Daniels, film actor and executive director of the Purple Rose Theatre Company, The Tropical Pickle was a fast-paced spoof of office politics and a disastrous dinner party for the new president of the Shankleford Pickle Co.

According to Daniels, "I decided to write a play with as much comedy as we could pack into two hours." Purple Rose Theatre Company artistic director T. Newell Kring worked through several rewrites with playwright Daniels before casting and directing the production.

The cast for The Tropical Pickle featured seven Michigan performers including Wayne David Parker, Sandra Birch, Karen Kron, Randall Godwin, Matthew Letscher, Susan Arnold and Guy Sanville. All seven cast members completed the entire 17-week run of 84 performances.

Wayne David Parker, who portrayed Bob Lee in The Tropical Pickle, will continue at the Purple Rose Theatre Company as Renfield in the upcoming production of Possessed-The Dracula Musical. Matthew Letscher, who appeared as Dwayne Darlington, will appear as a soldier in The Killer Angels, a mini-series being produced by Turner Network Television featuring Jeff Daniels as Civil War hero Colonel Joshua Chamberlain.

The Tropical Pickle received various reviews from Michigan critics after the official opening night on May 15; however, audience reaction and ticket demands prompted the additional weeks of performances. Ticket demand was still strong at the end of August; however, the show was closed to make way for the next Purple Rose Theatre Company production, Possessed-The Dracula Musical, which begins previews Wednesday, Sept. 30.

The box office success of The Tropical Pickle not only helped the Purple Rose Theatre Company for their upcoming 1992-93 season but also assisted the charity Equity Fights AIDS. The Purple Rose Theatre Company donated all ticket revenues ($1,300) from the Sunday, July 28 evening performance to that charity.

Baton Corps Begins Year

Chelsea Baton Corps held an open house and orientation meeting on Wednesday, Sept. 2 from 7 to 8:30 p.m. at North school in Chelsea. Anyone interested in learning more about the group; twirling classes offered; or the Booster organization, was invited to attend. Members of the Corps performed as a twirling demonstration for new members and refreshments were served.

The 1992-1993 class year will begin on Wednesday, Sept. 9 and will run in 12-week terms with classes being held on Wednesday nights at the North school.

In addition to baton twirling, fancy strutting and modeling instruction, the Chelsea Baton Corps also offers a pom-pom class. The pom-pom team on 1991-1992 performed with the twirlers as part of the Twirling Entourage at Sea World and at several other summer performances.

Returning as teacher for the year will be Ms. Susan Fitzpatrick, former feature twirler at Eastern Michigan University. Ms. Fitzpatrick will be beginning her second year with the Chelsea Baton Corps, and last year coached many of the local twirlers.

Washtenaw Audubon Society Will Feature Program on Bats

The monthly meeting of the Washtenaw Audubon Society will feature a program titled "Bat Chat" on Wednesday, Sept. 16, at 7:30 p.m. at Matthaei Botanical Gardens.

The program is sponsored by Wild Birds Unlimited and will be presented by Tom Ewing of Covesea Conservation in Five Islands, Me.

The presentation will focus on some of the different neighborhood bat species, their habitats, and how to attract them using nesting and roosting boxes. The meeting is free and open to the public. The program will follow the general membership meeting. Refreshments will also be served.

Bloodmobile Visits Slated Through Area

The Washtenaw County Chapter of the Red Cross will send its bloodmobile to local locations to accept blood from donors.

On Thursday, Sept. 17, from 8 a.m. to 8 p.m. they will be at Old St. Mary's school gymnasium, 400 Congdon, Chelsea.

On Monday, Sept. 28, from 1 p.m. to 7 p.m. they will be at St. Andrew's United Church of Christ, 7610 Ann Arbor Rd., Dexter.

Other locations in surrounding areas include Sept. 12 at Little Professor Book Store in the Westgate shopping center in Ann Arbor from noon to 6 p.m., Holiday Inn West on Jackson Rd. from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. on Sept. 14, Holy Trinity Catholic Church in Ypsilanti from 2 p.m. to 8 p.m. on Sept. 14 and Delta Sigma Theta at Putnam Dorm at Eastern Michigan University in Ypsilanti from 1:30 p.m. to 7:30 p.m. on Sept. 16.

Nature Events Set at Hudson Mills Park

Two nature events will be held at the Activity Center of Hudson Mills Metropark near Dexter.

"Full Moon Walk," a hike to explore the sights and sounds of one of summer's last moonlit nights, will be held Friday, Sept. 11 at 8 p.m.

"Life in the River," an indoor slide presentation followed by a hike to the river to learn about many of the creatures that inhabit the Huron River will be held Saturday, Sept. 12 at 1 p.m.

For more information/registration contact Hudson Mills Metropark at (313)428-8211 or 1-800-47-PARKS.

Most programs are "free," some may have a nominal charge. Advance registration and a vehicle entry permit are required. For information/registration, contact the Huron-Clinton Metroparks, phone 1-800-47-PARKS.

The Agriculture Department says a naturally occurring plant virus may one day be used on alfalfa, tomatoes and other vegetables to combat insect pests that right now can only be controlled with costly pesticides. The celery looper virus causes certain caterpillars like the tomato hornworm to lose their appetites and die.

THE GARDEN CORNER

* Fall Gardening Questions Answered

Even though the outdoor growing season is winding down, the home horticulture questions keep coming. Extension specialists at Michigan State University answer timely questions on vegetable gardening, insects around the home and yard, flower gardening and lawn care.

Q. Can tomatoes be injured by low temperatures, even if it doesn't frost?

A. Yes. Several nights of temperatures below 50 degrees F followed by cool, cloudy days may result in chilling injury to tomatoes. Once injured, such fruits may not ripen properly, either on the vine or in storage.

Q. When a frost is predicted, should I pick just the ripe and nearly ripe tomatoes or harvest the green ones, too?

A. Undamaged tomatoes harvested at the mature green stage and held at temperatures between 55 and 75 degrees F should ripen and extend the fresh tomato season for some weeks. In a mature green tomato, the material around the seeds has become jellylike and the seeds float. When you cut one, the seeds slide away from the knife. Before this, the seeds are held firmly by the hard material around them and the knife will cut them. The trick, of course, is to know which ones are mature green without cutting them open. You might want to check a couple of fruits and harvest the rest according to what you find.

Q. Can I salvage tomatoes that have been exposed to frost?

A. If the frost merely blackened a few tomato leaves and the weather turns warm again, you can leave fruits to continue ripening on the vines. If the vines are dead but the fruits appear undamaged, harvest them immediately. Your local Extension home economist would probably advise against canning these salvaged tomatoes, but you could freeze them or make them into products such as spaghetti sauce and freeze that. If the fruits are obviously frost damaged, they will break down and begin to rot within a day or two. In this case, use up what you can and add the rest to your compost pile. Such damaged fruits will not ripen in storage.

Q. If I pick my tomatoes before the frost, how do I store them so that the green ones and those just starting to show red will ripen?

A. Carefully pick the fruits and gently wash them. After they're dry, wrap them individually in newspaper or wax paper. Do not seal the ends of the paper. Place the tomatoes one layer deep on a tray or shelf in a cool, unlighted area where the temperature does not fall below 55 degrees F. Check the fruits every few days to bring out those ready for use and to eliminate any showing signs of deterioration.

Another option is to pull up the tomato vines and hang them upside-down in a cool cellar or garage. As long as they're not frozen or chilled, the fruits will ripen over time.

Q. I planted strawberries early this spring. What do I do to get them ready for winter?

A. Strawberries have already set the buds for next spring's flowers and fruits, so winter protection is necessary to avoid losing your whole crop. After plants are fully dormant (no longer growing) but before temperatures fall below 20 degrees F, apply a mulch of straw or some other similar material. Apply the mulch so the plants are just barely visible through it. Be sure plants are dormant—mulching while plants are still growing will cause the crowns to rot.

Q. Why is fall a good time to fertilize lawns?

A. The lawn grasses used in Michigan grow well during the cool, moist fall weather. Much of that growth takes place underground, in roots and rhizomes. Fertilizing in the fall promotes the development of an extensive root system without promoting a great deal of top growth. In the spring, fertilizing has the opposite effect: it promotes a flush of top growth at the expense of the roots and results in a turf that is less able to compete with weeds and more susceptible to summer stress, disease and insect attack. Fall fertilization, on the other hand, improves turf density and makes it harder for weeds to get a foothold and compete with the grass plants. It also builds up the carbohydrate reserves that the plants will need for early growth next spring.

Q. I grew dahlias, gladioli and tuberous begonias for the first time this year. When do I dig up the tubers and how do I store them?

A. Dig gladioli after the tops dry but before a hard freeze. Shake off loose soil and dry corns in the sun for a few hours, then place them in a well ventilated location for two to three weeks. Then remove old corns from the base and cut stems to within 1/2 inch of the top of the corn. Store in a well ventilated area at temperatures between 40 and 45 degrees F. It's a good idea to dust corns with an all-purpose garden dust to protect them against insects and diseases.

Cut dahlia stems off at ground level a few days after frost. Then dig tubers carefully and place them upside-down to dry for a few hours. Store them in a slightly moistened packing material at temperatures of 40 to 45 degrees F. Check the material occasionally and moisten as needed to keep the tubers from shriveling.

Dig begonia tubers after the foliage has turned yellow or immediately after the first frost. Leave the soil and tops on and spread the tubers out to dry in a warm, dark room for one to two weeks. Then break off the tops and shake off the soil, and store the tubers in a dry location in slightly moist packing material at temperatures ranging from 45 to 60 degrees F.

The Michigan beef industry is teaming up with the American Heart Association to help promote the American Heart Food Festival, coming up Sept. 19-25. Beef producers will distribute a nutrition brochure and four heart-healthy beef recipes.

Carl F. Lentz

Chelsea
Carl F. Lentz of Chelsea, age 83, died Tuesday afternoon, Sept. 1, 1992 at his home. He was born Aug. 22, 1909 in Putnam county, O., the son of Wilbert M. and Maude B. (Stauffer) Lentz.

Mr. Lentz was a resident of the Chelsea area for the past 51 years, moving from Monroe.

He was an avid sportsman, loved bowling but his favorite was baseball, having played on the Tiger farm team.

He was a member of St. Mary's Catholic church of Chelsea, and was retired from Longworth Plating.

He was married to Dorothy L. Stark in Ida on Nov. 12, 1938 and she survives, as do his two daughters and their husbands, Helen and J. Edward Kain, II, of Merrimack, N.H., Nadine and Larry Koch of Chelsea; two brothers, Shirl Lentz of Monroe, and Wilbur Lentz of Grove City, Fla.; one sister, Alice Meinhart of Monroe; eight grandchildren, Heather and J. Edward Kain, III, Todd Koch, and his fiancée, Holly Curley, Jeanette and Tim Blough, Julie and David Heydlauff and Jill Koch; three great-grandchildren, Lauren Blough, Kaitlin Blough, and Sabrina Heydlauff.

He was preceded in death by his parents, four brothers, Ronald, Robert, Cloyce, and Harold Lentz, and two infant sisters.

The funeral mass was held Friday, Sept. 4, at 11 a.m. from St. Mary's Catholic church with the Rev. Fr. Phillip Dupuis celebrant. The vigil service was held Thursday at 7:30 p.m. from the Staffan-Mitchell Funeral Home with Deacon Richard Shaneyfelt officiating, assisted by Carl's daughter, Nadine. Burial was in Mount Olivet Cemetery, Chelsea.

Expressions of sympathy may be made to St. Mary's Catholic church or Individualized Home Nursing Care, Inc.

Sylvia Therese Curry

Chelsea
Sylvia Therese Curry of Chelsea, age 88, died Monday, Sept. 7, 1992 at Chelsea Community Hospital. She was born Nov. 12, 1903 in Jasper, the daughter of Frank D. and Anna Belle (Herzing) Morse.

She married Jay Curry in Detroit, on March 13, 1928. He preceded her in death on Nov. 24, 1981.

Mrs. Curry worked at the Colonial Manor Nursing Home in Chelsea. Later in her life, she enjoyed traveling extensively.

She is survived by two sons, William Curry of Chelsea and Ricki Curry of Los Angeles, Calif.; one daughter, Mary Jean Mandola of Germany; two brothers and four sisters; and five grandchildren.

Preceding her in death were several sisters and brothers.

Funeral services will be held Thursday, Sept. 10, at 11 a.m. at Cole Funeral Chapel, with pastor Ron Clark officiating. Burial will follow at Fairfield Cemetery, Fairfield.

The family will receive friends on Wednesday, 10-12 and 2-4, and Thursday 10-11.

Marguerite S. Dann

Saline
(Formerly of Chelsea)
Marguerite S. Dann of Saline, formerly of Chelsea, age 84, died Wednesday morning, Sept. 2, 1992 at Saline Community Hospital. She was born Nov. 11, 1907 in South Rockwood, the daughter of Elmer and Carey (LaFave) Mote.

Mrs. Dann had been a resident of Saline since 1969 and was a member of St. Andrew's Catholic church of Saline and the Saline Senior Citizens.

She was married to Lawrence J. Dann on June 1, 1926 and he preceded her in death on May 25, 1988.

Mrs. Dann was very devoted to her family and she is survived by a son, Marvin Dann of Saline, and a daughter, Ima M. Fulkerson of North Ridge, Calif.; two sisters, Lucille Winslow of Higgins Lake, and Emily Bracken of Farmington Hills; seven grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

The funeral mass was held Friday, Sept. 4, at 1 p.m. from St. Mary's Catholic church with the Rev. Fr. Phillip Dupuis celebrant. The vigil service was held Thursday at 7 p.m. from the Staffan-Mitchell Funeral Home with Deacon Richard Shaneyfelt officiating. Burial was in Mount Olivet Cemetery, Chelsea.

Expressions of sympathy may be made to Michigan Eye Bank.

Cars Collide at Werkner Rd., M-52

An accident involving two Dexter and Chelsea women caused a utility pole with traffic lights to come crashing down on M-52.

Micaha E. Fish of Dexter reportedly entered the intersection of Werkner and M-52 heading west, when she collided with Jeanette M. Deerwester of Chelsea. Deerwester then slammed into a utility pole with traffic lights and it crashed on M-52.

Fish said her brakes failed to work. Deputy Stan Yates found the vehicle's rotors to be worn off.

Fish was issued a traffic violation.

George Albert Weeks

Grass Lake
George Albert Weeks of Grass Lake, age 80, died Friday evening, Sept. 4, 1992 at the farm as result of a tractor accident. He was born June 8, 1912 in Paulding county, O., the son of George B. and Chloe B. (Denison) Weeks.

Mr. Weeks had lived in Sharon township for 68 years and was life-long farmer. He and his brothers operated a saw mill for many years, ceasing operations 11 years ago.

Surviving are five sisters, Nina Widmayer of Grass Lake, Mary Kelly of Clark Lake, June Esch of Grass Lake, Beryl Littlejohn of Sherwood, and Marjorie Weeks of Jackson; several nieces and nephews, and one cousin, Doris Hoffman of Grass Lake.

He was preceded in death by three brothers, Grover, Glenn F. and Robert Weeks, and one sister, Ruth Conrad.

Memorial services will be held Saturday, Sept. 19, at 11 a.m. from the Staffan-Mitchell Funeral Home. Burial will be in East Cemetery, Grass Lake. Expressions of sympathy may be made to the charity of choice.

Chelsea Community Hospital Auxiliary is presenting their seventh annual Craft Show and Flea Market at Chelsea Fairgrounds Saturday, Sept. 12.

The day runs from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. with an "all-you-can-eat" pancake breakfast and then sloppy joes and hot dogs during the day.

Featured will be antiques, wood-craft items, costume jewelry, dried flower arrangements, stained glass, cosmetics, porcelain dolls and doll clothes, crocheted articles, handmade felt hats and rag rugs, plus many other specialty items.

Proceeds are for scholarships and building fund.

CHELSEA KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS recently gave a combined total of $4,000 to the Chelsea School District special education program and Chelsea's St. Louis Center for Boys. Money came from the K. of C.'s annual Tootsie Roll Drive held each spring. Twenty percent of the funds go to state mental health programs and the rest is returned to the local community. From left are Larry Kranick of the K. of C., Fr. Matthew Weber of St. Louis Center, Nancy Cooper of the Chelsea special education program, and Jerry Martell of the K. of C.

Editor's Note: As a continuation of the series on Chelsea United Way member agencies, Huron Valley Child Guidance Clinic and its impact on the Chelsea community is featured.

Huron Valley Child Guidance Clinic is the Children's Services Division of Washtenaw County Community Mental Health. Using facilities at the First United Methodist church in Chelsea, the clinic has provided outpatient counseling services to Chelsea area children/adolescents and families since 1982. Three staff persons provide services for a combined total of 40 hours per week.

In addition to outpatient child and adolescent therapy, the clinic offers diagnostic support with psychiatric and psychological evaluations available in the Ypsilanti office. Other clinic services include pre- and after-care for hospitalization, hospital and residential placement, an eight-week therapeutic summer day camp, and in-home outreach treatment as an alternative to hospitalization.

Parents may refer children to the program by calling (313) 434-1150 to make a referral and to arrange an assessment. Fees are determined on a sliding scale basis; insurance and Medicaid are accepted. No one is denied service because of inability to pay a fee.

It is through our allocation from Chelsea United Way that we are able to offer our out-reach services to Chelsea area families.
