Woman Killed, Daughter Injured in 2-Car Crash

A Gregory woman was killed and her 7-year-old daughter injured last Saturday morning after the woman apparently drove her car into the path of another vehicle on Hankerd Rd. in Dexter township.

According to the Washtenaw County Sheriff's Department, Renee Marie Rachoza, 36, attempted to turn left on Hankerd Rd. from North Lake Rd. at about 9 a.m. Her car was struck on the driver's side by a southbound car driven by Richard Lee Tarantowski, 35, also of Gregory. Tarantowski hit his brakes but could not stop in time.

Rachoza's vehicle came to rest at the southwest corner of the intersection while Tarantowski's vehicle spun around and stopped in the middle of North Lake Rd. Rachoza was dead at the scene. Her daughter was scheduled to be released from University of Michigan Hospital on Tuesday.

Police said Rachoza, a North Lake Rd. resident, was not wearing a seatbelt, but Tarantowski, a Noah Ct. resident, was. Tarantowski was alone in his vehicle.

Something's Brewing for Landowners South of I-94 In 4,000-Acre Parcel

It could amount to nothing or it could be the largest development ever proposed for the Chelsea area. The only thing for sure is it's causing a lot of speculation.

Landowners in a huge block of property in Sylvan and Lima townships have recently received a vague letter from a Southfield real estate company asking whether they would be willing to sell their property.

The letter, from Signature Associates, and a follow-up letter from the Washtenaw Development Council, says that a Signature client is interested in a large parcel of land, but does not indicate for what kind of project.

Both Lima township supervisor Bill Van Riper and Sylvan township supervisor Don Schoenberg, among many others, have received the letter. Developers are apparently interested in the block of land bounded by Fletcher Rd. on the east, M-52 on the west, I-94 on the north, and a line somewhere between Sager and Scio Church Rds. on the south. That amounts to approximately 4,000 acres.

The letter from Signature indicates the parcel is the developers' "top choice" for their project.

Gretchen Waters, executive director of the Washtenaw Development Council, said WDC has been in contact with the real estate company but does not know what kind of project may be involved or who Signature's client is. She said WDC often works through intermediaries like real estate companies when major projects are involved.

According to L. Jack Townsend of the industrial division of Signature, he cannot disclose the nature of the project or who his client is.

"It is a credible project right now," Townsend said.

"It does exist and it is real. It really would make my job a lot easier if I could talk about it. I've had people call and ask if I'm just trying to get property listings. Our company is not into residential property."

Townsend said he has "been assured that [my clients] are Americans. I had wondered whether we were dealing with a group of Japanese investors. I am dealing with a corporation."

Townsend said it would probably become known within the next year whether the project will be built here, somewhere else, or not at all.

"There are a lot of variables that I don't have any control over that will decide if it's a go project," Townsend said.

"I'm very pleased that Michigan is being considered for this project."

Waters said the developers are also considering a parcel in the northern part of the county.

"Believe me, we've tried to find out," Waters said of the developers.

Waters also said she doesn't know whether the developers are private or possibly connected to a governmental unit.

Both Van Riper, owner of a 700-acre dairy farm, and Schoenberg said they didn't take the Signature letter seriously when they got it more than a month ago.

"I thought it was a hoax, but since then I've found out that all these other people got it too and now I'm not so sure," Schoenberg said.

"I thought it was just more junk mail," Van Riper said.

"I get two or three letters like that every year."

Long-time area residents say the letter campaign is similar to the way the Chrysler Proving Grounds got started many years ago. One of the widespread rumors then was someone wanted to build a nudist colony.

Van Riper said he was contacted by the real estate company, which indicated the developers are interested in three areas in the U.S.

Whatever may be built, Schoenberg said he doesn't think the developers will get anywhere with property owners until they divulge their plans. "Everybody's afraid of a toxic waste dump and if they're not going to say what they're going to do, it makes people wonder," Schoenberg said.

If anything is ever officially proposed for the site, the developers will almost undoubtedly have numerous permits to obtain in addition to having the area re-zoned. It's all agricultural land and general development plans of each township indicate it will probably stay that way.

Dayspring Gifts Plans To Move Across Street

After months of rumors, the parties have made it official and announced that Dayspring Gifts will move across Main St. into the 3,200-square-foot storefront vacated earlier this year by D & C Stores.

The move will nearly triple the floor space for the gift shop and allow owner Laurie Gravelyn to expand her card and gift lines.

Gravelyn said the move, after extensive renovation of the new quarters, will be completed in November and a grand opening is planned the first week of December. Both stores may be open for a short time.

"I've known for two years we weren't going to stay in our current location due to serious growing pains," Gravelyn said.

"We've been looking seriously for two years and finally found the right place."

Gravelyn, who with her mother and brother own their current building, has made no decision about who will inhabit that space.

Dayspring will mark its 15th anniversary this week. The store has been in the same location and owned by Gravelyn all those years.

The new store, Gravelyn said, will be "totally different" than the current one in terms of its appearance. The outside will get a facelift and a new canopy. The inside will be re-carpeted and Gravelyn wants to highlight the traditional features of the building, such as the tin ceiling.

Dayspring will continue to be connected with the Hallmark company. About 60 percent of the store's merchandise bears the Hallmark label.

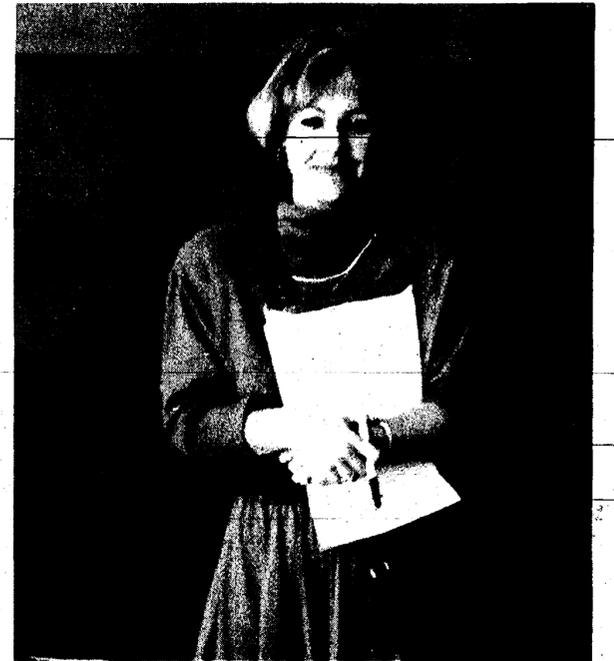

However, Gravelyn plans to quadruple the number of greeting cards. There will be three full aisles of nothing but cards, with more emphasis on humorous cards.

She also plans to expand her handmade Signature Gift line. She has scouted out artists at the Ann Arbor Art Fair and other places who have agreed to wholesale their products to her. Collectible dolls will also be included.

Belser Estates Gets Acceptance

After numerous headaches for both the village administration and Belser Estates residents, the subdivision was formally dedicated by village council last Tuesday.

Belser Estates had grown increasingly frustrated that improvements had not been completed by the developers.

DAYSPRING GIFTS owner Laurie Gravelyn stands in the middle of what will become her new store this November. Dayspring plans to move across Main St. into the store building formerly occupied by D & C Store.

Village To Consider Main St. Parcel for New Office Complex

Village of Chelsea is considering whether to purchase a parcel of land on S. Main St. for the eventual construction of a new village administration building.

The village is seeking bids for the appraisal of the six acres of land in what has been called the Schneider estate just north of Old US-12 opposite Pierce Park.

The village already owns two vacant lots on the north side of Park St. next to the Garage Theatre. Those lots were purchased several years ago with the idea of using them for a village office complex. A run-down house on each lot was demolished almost immediately, the land was graded, and they've stood vacant ever since.

There is some sentiment that the Park St. lots may not be big enough for future expansion, but there is also the speculation that the village may not be able to recover its entire investment from a simple sale.

The village is also seeking bids for the appraisal of the Park St. properties.

The village has been approached about selling the Park St. lots. However, any sale of public property would have to be done on a bid basis.

Recent bids for both appraisals, $1,450 for the S. Main St. lot and $850 for the Park St. lots, were deemed too high by village council. Other bids are being sought from certified appraisers.

The village is under some pressure to either renovate its existing building on E. Middle St. or build a new one. The current building is not handicap accessible, among other problems.

The village hopes to wrap up negotiations with the Department of Natural Resources this week for a new landfill operating license. The village has submitted plans for a new tracing system that would be used to monitor any groundwater contamination from the new cell. ## Republicans Claim Tax Cut Will Attract Investments

Philosophical differences on how to boost the state's economy surfaced last week as Republican Treasurer Doug Roberts said Proposal C's passage will attract new business, while Democratic House Taxation Chair Lynn Jondahl called for more spending on programs to stimulate jobs.

Roberts said Proposal C is the kind of fundamental change needed to stimulate the economy, pointing to Michigan's unemployment rate exceeding the national average for 25 consecutive years. The chronic unemployment rate is "a very key issue and it deserves debate," Roberts said.

The treasurer said Michigan's property tax rate, which averages 3 percent of value, is a major reason why the state is not attracting more capital investment. The bipartisan economic development efforts of the past to overcome high property taxes with such measures as abatements has not worked well enough, Roberts said.

Jondahl, on the other hand, blamed the low spending levels in crucial areas such as education for the lack of jobs in the state. While he said the economy needs to be fixed, Jondahl called Proposal C "more of the same" in its divesting in critical needs.

"If our purpose is to reduce property taxes in the most effective and fair manner, Proposal C doesn't do it," he said. "I submit that investment in utilities, in communications, in roads and in job training is a better way to stimulate economic development."

Proposal C calls for a cut in property school taxes by 30 percent over five years and limits assessment growth for all property tax purposes to 3 percent or the rate of inflation whichever is less.

Saying the cap will make it impossible for schools and local governments to keep pace with inflation, Jondahl said the reimbursement which would be provided at the local level will not be possible unless the state budget is deeply cut or taxes are increased.

Roberts said the proposal, which has been heavily criticized as unfunded, would mean "very constrained" increases in state government spending because of the large amounts that will be needed for reimbursement.

Arguing in favor of the cap, Roberts said it would put more control in the hands of taxpayers by forcing local governments to seek millage increases when they want more revenue.

Roberts admitted that C, along with Proposal A which would cap growth in assessments to 5 percent or the rate of inflation, would both cause inequities between similar properties, depending on how long they have been under one ownership. He said by giving their approval to either, voters would be "swapping one imperfect system for another imperfect system," but added that they at least would be able to understand the tax system.

Demonstrating whether the abatements are successful is a lawsuit filed against General Motors by Ypsilanti township for its planned closure of its Willow Run plant. The township contends the auto manufacturer is reneging on its abatement agreement because it will no longer be employing the more than 4,000 employees annually it had promised to. Both Democrats and Republicans have argued the abatement process does not work and other incentives are necessary.

The lawsuit is expected to go to trial in January of next year, with GM agreeing late last week to hold off on the reduction until Feb. 1.

In a letter offered in Washtenaw county Circuit Court, GM officials said they would continue the downsizing plans but workers would not be affected until February, when the production of station wagons would be transferred. That move would have displaced an estimated 400 workers.

In other related action, the state's Court of Appeals backed Attorney General Frank Kelley in his request for a stay of a circuit court order that the state align itself with either party in the case and take a position.

Democrats have called on Governor

John Engler to become a party in the suit, but he and other Republicans have argued the state does not have a role in it, since it is not named. They have suggested Mr. Engler will not take the step of participating in an action against a top auto maker.

But Engler's press secretary, John Truscott, continued his arguments that the state should not be involved. "We're purposely not signing with anybody," he said. "The fact is tax agreements can be broken. It's done all the time."

Uncle Lew from Lima Says:

DEAR MISTER EDITOR:

It ain't no wonder, Bug Hookum lamented at the country store Saturday night, that when you ask an elected office holder the time he tells you how to make a watch. The idea is to cover you up with the forest so you can't see the trees. We all saw the headlines where Congressmen voted their pay up to $129,500, but we had to dig deep to read that each member of Congress is costing taxpayers $5.2 million a year.

The annual budget for Congress, just to keep it running so it can keep spending everything it can tax, beg, borrow and steal, is $2.8 billion. The cost of keeping up 335 members and the 36,896 members of their staffs in the manner they have come to expect has gone up 706 percent since 1970, Bug said. Furthermore, free health care, reduced price everything and other benefits Congress can vote itself get better every time it meets. For instant, Bug went on, they final got it where they make more when they're voted out than when the get in. They get to take all leftover campaign funds home, and retirement is so sweet that lifetime pensions of some former members are twice what their pay was.

For sure, allowed Zeke Grubb, the country ain't safe now that Congress is back in session. There won't be any let up in blaming one another between now and the election, and we can't expect any of em to come with nuts and bolts ideas on fixing any of the broke parts for fear it might offend somebody somewhere.

For instant, Zeke went on, all the candidates except them that decided to quit or got beat in primaries will keep on dancing around what is killing this country the quickest and the surest, the federal debt. Zeke said it is a virus that keeps eating away at the strength we got to have to fight it.

Zeke saw where the Treasury Department already has said the legal debt limit will have to be raised before Congress adjourns this year. The $4.145 trillion limit will be reached by December, and it would be downright embarrassing if Washington had to start the new year issuing IOUs like California.

Furthermore, Zeke went on, he is yet to hear a candidate brave enough to promise he'll even try to stop hospitals, doctors and insurance companies before they steal Medicare bone dry. All they do, Zeke declared, is throw cold water on everybody's map out of the dark health care woods except their own.

Clem Webster stood foursquare with Zeke on the danger we face when Congress is in session. With all the other bills we pay, Clem had saw where every family in this country is paying as much as $5,000 a year just to enforce Federal civil rights laws. And we got such a crazy quilt of them that people usual don't know they've broke em until after they've been sued and the taxpayer is picking up the costs in court.

Personal, I think everybody that can uses the Congress accounting system. I read where the American Medical Association reports the average doctor's income went up $8,500 last year to $164,300. You got to know that's after they's used all the ways their tax lawyers can think of hide and defer income.

Yours truly,
 Uncle Lew.

House Committee OKs Farm ORV's on Road Right-of-Way

The state House Agriculture Committee reported out a bill, sponsored by Rep. Keith Muxlow (R-Brown City), that would permit farmers under certain circumstances to legally drive small off-road-vehicles (ORV's) on the road right-of-way. Michigan Farm Bureau legislative counsel Ron Nelson said the measure is intended to apply to small ORV's like "quadrunners."

"Farmers often use these vehicles for transportation to and from farm fields to check crops and irrigation," said Nelson. "The Muxlow bill would allow a farmer to operate one of these ORV's on or within the road right-of-way if it was simply not practical to travel through or across the fields. For instance, the farmer would be allowed to operate the vehicle if there is a large ditch separating the field from the road or if crops are growing right up to the road right-of-way," he said.

Nelson said the legislation specifies that the ORV's must be operated by a licensed driver and must be driven to the extreme right of the right-of-way during daylight hours only.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor,
On Friday, Sept. 18, 30 developmentally disabled students from Chelsea, Dexter and Pioneer High schools enjoyed the pleasure of golf instruction. Green Acres Driving Range in Chelsea (across from the Chrysler Proving Grounds) graciously opened early and helped with a special rate for baskets of balls. A big thanks to Bob Redding.

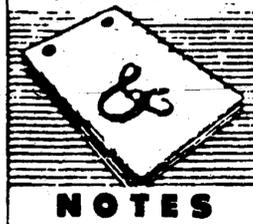

Inverness Country Club members Bea Parish, Ellie Reynolds, Jim Minnick, Ted Curly, Dick Mitchell, and Fred Mills volunteered instruction in grip, stance and swing. Students enjoyed their lesson and had an opportunity to demonstrate their new skills in a long drive contest. Both students and instructors benefitted from this experience.

Following the visit to Green Acres, the classes proceeded to Hudson Mills Golf Course for lunch, a putting demonstration by Corky Wilson from Hudson Mills, and a putting contest. Instruction in golf etiquette and rules of play on the course was also given.

Golf is a new Special Olympic sport this year and also a wonderful lifetime leisure time activity. The students and staff extend their sincere thanks and appreciation to all those who helped to make such an enjoyable and educational experience.

QUOTES

NOTES

DONALD A. COLE, Director

"Force is all-conquering, but its victories are short-lived."
—Lincoln

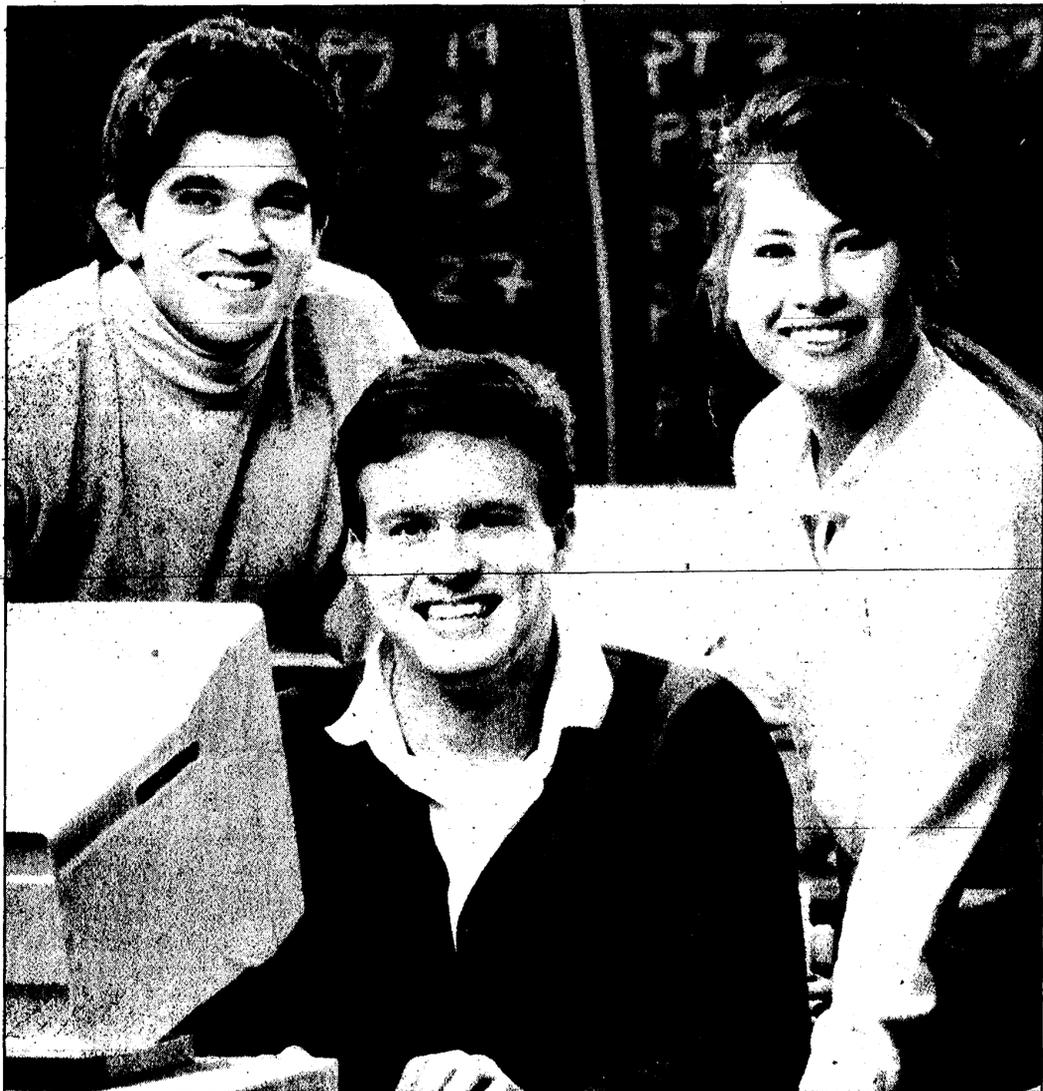

History has a long and impressive list of conquests, few of which can claim any great measure of permanence. Force may overwhelm and impose its will, but the story does not end there.

It takes a steady, relentless, even ruthless application of force to retain the fruits of victory... a strength-sapping task where success is seldom noted for its longevity. The more satisfactory, more enduring "victories" are those gained by more peaceful means.

The amount a family chooses to pay for a funeral service is entirely their decision. We have financial plans available for all, regardless of their present circumstances, and no one is ever turned away for lack of funds.

Ag Meteorologist Notes Chances for Early Fall Frost

People who live in the northern interior of Michigan should expect a better than 75 percent chance of a killing frost (temperatures of 32 degrees or colder) occurring sooner than normal this year, according to Jeff Andresen, agricultural meteorologist for Michigan.

Andresen, who writes a regular weather column for the Michigan Farm News publication of the Michigan Farm Bureau, said that if the jet stream returns to the pattern that caused Michigan's record cool, wet summer, there's a 60 percent chance of frost on or before mid-September at Chatham, and a 75 percent chance of frost at Pellston. Andresen predicts a five to ten percent chance of mid-September frost in central Michigan.

Statistics show that during a normal year, there's a 50 percent chance of a frost occurring in Traverse City on Sept. 22, in the Lansing area on Sept. 30 and in Ann Arbor on Oct. 6. "Unfortunately, there's no accurate way to predict very far in advance when the first killing frost will occur," Andresen said. "Based upon the current growing degree day accumulations, it's becoming increasingly apparent that even with a normal frost date, the corn crop will not mature in many sections of the state, especially northern Michigan."

A severe frost will reduce yields 51 to 58 percent on corn that has reached the soft-dough stage, by approximately 40 percent in fully dented corn and about 10 percent in late dented corn.

Clement Moore's poem was not entitled "Twas the Night Before Christmas," but was instead called "A Visit From St. Nick."

CHELSEA CIVIC FOUNDATION has donated $1,000 to the Chelsea Education Foundation for its summer environmental project in the Waterloo Recreation Area. Chelsea Education Foundation President Barb Rose, left, accepted the money from Marilyn Guenther of the Civic Foundation.

BEHIND THE HEADLINES:

Can Bush Pull A 'Truman?'

As we all know, candidates for president get an awful lot of advice, some of it awful.

By Philip C. Clarke

Karen Elliott House, the vice-president international of Dow Jones, set the scene in a recent Wall Street Journal essay: "America has just emerged victorious from a protracted struggle against an evil empire. Yet far from jubilant, the public mood is sour and selfish. Discord is rampant. Defense industry layoffs add to unemployment. Prophecies of economic doom abound. The world beyond America remains unstable and hostile, but Americans are in no mood to face up to foreign troubles." Continuing, "At the White House, the President's popularity has plummeted from more than 80% in the polls to less than 40%. The opposition party has just nominated a popular governor who is far ahead in pre-election polls. The President is widely seen as a decent man lacking leadership or vision when the country has a historic need for both."

lists in time for this year's campaign. If there's any lesson for future presidential aspirants it is that the voters like their candidates to be themselves, warts and all. Most Americans can readily spot a phony. -McCullough tells how late one spring night in 1948, Harry Truman emerged on the rear platform of his presidential train car and greeted a crowd in Missoula, Mont., that had been waiting up for his arrival. Truman was dressed in pajamas and a bathrobe. "I'm sorry, I've gone to bed," the President apologized. "But I thought you would like to see what I looked like even if I didn't have any clothes on."

Could you imagine George Bush appearing in public in his pajamas? Or Bill Clinton?

Speaking of being one's self, it can backfire. An incident (not in McCullough's book) involved Truman's GOP opponent, Thomas Dewey, during one of his campaign train trips. Moments before Dewey had finished his platform speech to a trackside crowd, the train suddenly started up. Governor Dewey, the very essence of primness and propriety, lost his cool and, in the presence of reporters, angrily called the engineer an idiot. Next day, a New York Times account of the incident concluded that Dewey's campaign train had "taken off with a jerk."

Tom Dewey, who lost in an upset, was no give-'em hell Harry. (Distributed by America's Future, Millford, Pa.)

Burn Safety Education Should Start at Home

It's been said that the kitchen is the heart of the home—the place where family and friends take refuge in comforting aromas and lighthearted banter.

Ironically, the kitchen is also the most dangerous room in the house where burn accidents among very young children are concerned.

Burns are the leading cause of accidental deaths in children under the age of 14. Of these young burn victims, the highest risk group are infants and toddlers—half of whom are burned in the kitchen, and almost always around mealtimes.

For 1- and 2-year-old burn victims, about three-quarters are victims of their own actions, while many are innocent bystanders. The activities that cause nearly all of the burn accidents among toddlers are preventable.

Oct. 4-10 is National Fire Prevention Week. Here are some burn prevention tips from the University of Michigan Trauma Burn Center that will make your home a safer place for children:

The Kitchen

- Cook on back burners only, which will prevent children from pulling boiling liquids off front burners.
- Don't leave cords to electrical cooking appliances, like popcorn poppers and coffee pots, dangling.
- Don't leave hot pans of food or liquids unattended on the stove, countertop or table.
- Don't leave pan handles extended over the edge of a counter or range.
- Don't let a young child pour or serve hot food or liquids.
- Don't drink hot liquids with a child on your lap.
- Don't store foods, especially cereal, over the stove; children could climb onto the stove to reach it.

The Bathroom

- Run cold water into the bathtub first and then add hot water to adjust the temperature. This will reduce the risk of a child contacting very hot water if he or she falls into tub while it is filling.

• Check the temperature of bath water with your hand before putting a child in the tub. The temperature can be tested by moving your hand slowly through the water for several seconds. The water should feel warm, not hot, because the skin of a toddler is tender and vulnerable to scalds.

• Don't leave you child unattended in the tub. Many scalds occur when the child turns on the hot water while playing.

Electrical

- Use only UL-approved appliances.
- Keep electrical appliances away from water.
- Never leave a hot iron unattended.
- Cover electrical outlets to prevent children from poking things into them.
- Don't overload extension cords.
- Severe mouth burns can occur when young children play with or suck on live extension or electrical cords. Be mindful of children playing near such cords.

The Bedroom

- Keep the baby's or toddler's crib a safe distance from radiators, heaters and electrical outlets.
- Keep space heaters and vaporizers away from beds and curtains.
- Be careful when using heating pads. Follow directions.
- Never smoke in bed.

Barbecues

- Use only proper lighter fluid to light a barbecue, not gasoline or any other flammable fluid.
- Don't squirt barbecue lighter fluid on burning fires.
- Keep grill away from combustible walls or fences.
- Keep children a safe distance from barbecue fires.
- Don't throw hot coals on the ground; they could burn feet.

CHELSEA VILLAGE LANDFILL is quickly running out of space. What used to be a pit just a few weeks ago is now a mound of trash. Slopes had to be changed recently, which has forced the village to change estimates of how much space is available. Landfill operator Cecil Clouse estimates "maybe four months worth." Meanwhile, the village and area townships are still trying to decide how to deal with their trash once the facility closes. It's likely a transfer station will be built at the landfill, but who will pay for it is not known.

Sheriff's Dept. Reports Numerous Area Incidents

Washtenaw County Sheriff's deputies investigated a number of incidents between Sept. 13-23.

On Sept. 13, a 56-year-old Dexter resident was arrested for operating a vehicle under the influence of liquor. He was also involved in a personal injury accident and had an unlawful blood/alcohol level. The accident occurred on Island Lake Rd., Dexter. He struck a vehicle driven by a 28-year-old Dexter woman. She suspected alcohol was involved and when deputies questioned the man he denied it. He failed several sobriety tests given to him by deputies and then said it was "okay" because he had a couple of drinks. The case status is open.

On Sept. 15, a malicious destruction of property was reported in the 7000 block of Second St., Dexter. A 38-year-old resident said his flag pole was damaged, screen door was bent and extension cord was sliced.

On Sept. 16, deputies investigated a case involving possession of counterfeit currency in Dexter. A local store owner suspected three $1 bills were counterfeit. A call by deputy Skip Davis, to the Secret Service revealed the money is real. The agency said the Bureau of Engraving has new plates for printing currency.

Also, an attempted breaking and entering was reported in the 2400 block of Don Coana Rd., Dexter. No one saw or heard anything, but a door frame was discovered broken.

A breaking and entering occurred in the 9000 block of Huron River Dr., Dexter. The 45-year-old victim reported $100 in damages when someone forced entry through his garage door. Items stolen include sports cards, diamond ring, necklace, portable stereo, handgun and a Nintendo game. The suspects are believed to be friends of the victim's daughter.

On Sept. 17, a half-full 40 ounce bottle of beer was confiscated by deputies during a traffic stop on Dan Heey Rd., Dexter. A Pinckney man was driving the vehicle.

Also, a motor vehicle theft was reported in the 9300 block of Dexter-Pinckney Rd., Dexter township. A 1983 Cutlass Oldsmobile was stolen between 7 p.m. and 7 a.m. Its estimated value is $500.

An attempted unlawful driving away of an automobile was reported in the 9800 block of Winston Rd., Dexter township. A 1979 Oldsmobile received $100 in damages to its steering column, the 60-year-old owner reported.

Larceny of gasoline also occurred at the Clark gas station in Scio township. The incident was reported by a 20-year-old attendant. He said a person driving a 1988 Ford pick up stole $20 in gasoline. He gave deputies the suspected license plate number of the truck. After deputies contacted the owner he said he was out of town during the alleged larceny.

A larceny occurred in the 100 block of Island Lake Rd., Chelsea. A 40-year-old Chelsea woman reported $140 in fishing equipment stolen between Sept. 1 and Sept. 17.

A larceny from a motor vehicle occurred in the 100 block of Island Lake Rd., Chelsea. A 45-year-old woman reported a jacket and sunglasses worth $350 were stolen. She suspects her 42-year-old neighbor.

A Dexter man was arrested for impaired driving on Zeeb Rd., Scio township. He was arrested during a traffic stop when he failed several sobriety tests given to him by deputies.

A felonious assault was reported in the 8300 block of Werker Rd., Chelsea. The victim, who lives in an apartment, inquired to his landlord about his future living arrangements. A 36-year-old Pinckney man who overheard the conversation, and claims to be the grounds-keeper, knocked the victim to the ground and held a chain across the victim's face causing facial injuries. Another man kicked the victim in the back. When questioned by deputies the suspect said the victim was the aggressor. Both men wish to press charges against each other. The prosecutor is reviewing the case.

On Sept. 18, larceny of electricity was reported in the 6000 block of Main St., Dexter. A 47-year-old local business owner reported between Aug. 1 and Sept. 11, the 18-year-old resident who lives above her business had been receiving electricity by accessing her fuse box. The owner said she disconnected wires, but found them reconnected the next day. Also between Sept. 11 and Sept. 18 the owner found an extension cord coming from the upper apartment into a common stairway, connected to an outlet in her business, giving the upper apartment power and creating a fire hazard. When the 18-year-old apartment resident was questioned by deputy Cynthia Zeller and her partner, she said she didn't know she was doing anything wrong. She offered to pay for any damages. The prosecutor is reviewing the complaint.

Also, a 47-year-old Farmington Hills man was arrested for operating a vehicle under the influence of liquor on Huron River Dr., Scio township. After the man collided with a tree and totaled his 1987 Pontiac, he was taken to the hospital. An investigation led deputies to suspect alcohol was involved. The man was advised of his chemical rights and he allowed the withdrawal of blood for blood/alcohol tests.

On Sept. 19, a malicious destruction of property was reported at Speedway gas station. An employee reported $50 in damages occurred to a toilet lid in the men's restroom. The lid was removed and smashed and the working parts of the toilet were pulled out. There are no suspects in the incident.

On Sept. 20, a 20-year-old man from Gregory was transported to Washtenaw County jail for operating a motor vehicle under the influence of liquor. The man was driving a 1988 Mustang and squealed the tires after the traffic light turned green. Deputies pulled him over and suspected he had been drinking alcohol. Sobriety tests were given and he was arrested. The case is pending authorization from the prosecutor.

An assault and battery was also reported in the 1100 block of Maple Rd., Scio township. A 34-year-old Ann Arbor man said a man from Brighton kicked and hit him because he was angry over a group project the victim didn't attend.

Larceny from an automobile occurred in the 1100 block of Bandera Rd., Scio township. The 53-year-old victim said his 1991 Plymouth Acclaim, 1983 Dodge Omni and 1983 Plymouth Horizon were entered and miscellaneous change and a school bag were taken from the automobiles.

A larceny from a motor vehicle occurred in the 5600 block of Jackson Rd., Scio township. Two Chelsea and Saline women reported $400 in damages occurred to a passenger window of a car when it was smashed out. A leather coat and purse worth $300 were also stolen.

A Scio township resident held a breaking and entering suspect at gunpoint when he caught the suspect inside his home in the 1200 block of S. Wagner Rd. The victim came home and found the suspect sitting at his dining room table eating his cookies. The suspect admitted to breaking into the house by breaking a window with a chair. He said he was hungry.

A larceny was investigated in the 4000 block of N. Michael Rd., Scio township. Someone walked inside the residence during the night and stole a wallet, tennis shoes and money. The wallet was recovered later down the road.

Also, a larceny from a motor vehicle was reported in the 4000 block of S. Michael Rd., Scio township. A 44-year-old woman reported her radio speakers and purse taken from her vehicle.

On Sept. 21, deputies investigated a larceny from a person in the 2800 block of Baker Rd., Dexter. A 14-year-old girl reported another 14-year-old girl stole her $150 necklace during a fight at a local arcade. The girl said during the fight her necklace was pulled off of her neck. The suspect said she threw the necklace on the ground but the necklace wasn't located after a search of the area.

A stolen vehicle was recovered on eastbound I-94 near M-14. The 1981 BMW was reported stolen to the Portage Police Department. A sheriff's deputy saw the vehicle abandoned and discovered it was stolen from Benton Harbor. The radio was missing from the car.

A larceny from a motor vehicle was reinvestigated by deputies after a traffic stop of a 17-year-old youth in Scio Farms Estates revealed a stolen radar detector. The youth said he knew it was stolen and who took it. Two 15-year-olds admitted to the offense and the Georgia man who reported it stolen while visiting his mother in the trailer park, will be able to get it back. The same youths admitted to taking a pocket radio, duffel bag, cassette case and four cassette tapes.

Chelsea United Way Drive Stresses Its Independence

"Chelsea Helping Chelsea" is the theme of this year's Chelsea United Way Campaign, which officially kicked off Wednesday, Sept. 16 at a banquet sponsored by Chelsea Community Hospital.

This year's campaign goal is $106,254, an increase of less than one percent from the previous year.

Local campaign officials are concerned about the negative publicity surrounding the national United Way organization, particularly concerning excessive spending and waste, and the salary and benefits of CEO William Aramony, who has since been replaced.

Chelsea United Way is connected to United Way of America in name only.

It is a totally independent operation, depends completely on volunteers, and send no money to the national organization.

"There is absolutely no reason someone in need in Chelsea should suffer because of the abuses of a couple of people in Washington," said Chelsea United Way chair John Mann.

"We are completely accountable to our donors and take great pride in holding administrative and fundraising costs to just three percent of our budget. Most importantly, our agencies and the people they serve need our help."

Chelsea United Way funds 37 non-profit agencies serving health, welfare, and human services needs in the Chelsea area. Chelsea agencies, including Faith in Action, Chelsea Area Transportation Service, Home Meals, Chelsea Social Services, and Helpline, received 49 percent of the funding last year, Mann said. The remainder went to county and state-wide agencies which also serve Chelsea citizens.

Mann said the 21-member volunteer board of directors annually reviews all of the agencies' records and services to ensure that money raised in Chelsea is re-invested in Chelsea.

"We want to emphasize that we are an independent, locally controlled, totally volunteer organization," Mann said.

"We are concerned that recent publicity surrounding the United Way of America could negatively impact our campaign."

Recycling Authority Hires PR Company

Western Washtenaw Recycling Authority has hired a public relations firm to help with its education program and to promote its services in general.

Oscann Creative Services of Grosse Pointe Woods was hired after a bid of "not to exceed" $10,000. WWRA board accepted the proposal at its regular meeting last Wednesday.

Oscann will design mass mailings and other promotional items with the idea of educating authority residents about the program. The program is scheduled to begin next month after the materials recovery facility is completed at the Chelsea landfill and remote drop-off sites have been finalized and prepared.

Oscann will also design materials, such as slide programs, to be used in the schools and community organizations. The authority is looking for two volunteers from each village and township in the authority to learn how to present the programs.

Members of the authority include the Chelsea and Manchester villages, and Sylvan, Lima, Lyndon, Dexter, Manchester, and Bridgewater townships.

Meat cuts of all types are cheaper this summer compared to last year. Retail cuts of beef are about nine cents a pound lower. Pork is down about 18 cents. Even chicken is down a little.

Let's Go Bulldogs!

It's Bombs Away As Chelsea Aerial Attack Destroys Railsplitters

It's hard to believe, but the score of the Chelsea Bulldogs 46-6 victory over the Lincoln Railsplitters last Friday does not indicate just how lopsided the game really was.

Had Chelsea coach Gene LaFave left his first string offense in the entire game, the Bulldogs might well have scored 70 or more points.

The Bulldogs, who had a little trouble getting their offensive machine started, scored 36 points in about 15 minutes starting at the end of the first quarter. At the 9:51 mark of the third quarter, Chelsea had a 38-0 lead and much of the first string took the rest of the night off.

Chelsea demonstrated a potent passing game for the first time this year as quarterback Pat Steele completed 8-12 passes for 176 yards and three touchdowns. He connected with four different receivers, four strikes going to each Colby Skelton and Don Poppenger.

Second-string quarterback Dan Wehrwein also had no trouble moving the ball as he completed 4-5 passes for 79 yards.

The Bulldogs gained another 194 yards rushing as six boys carried the ball 39 times. Poulter gained 69 yards on 14 carries and second-stringer Jay Westcott picked up 69 yards on six rushes to lead the Bulldogs.

"We can do a lot of things," LaFave said.

"We had to have some sympathy for Lincoln. They're young and struggling. If you put a good team out there, they're going to have problems."

The Chelsea defense, meanwhile, limited Lincoln to eight yards rushing and 95 yards passing, although 87 of those yards came on one touchdown play.

Neither team could get much going during the first 10 minutes. The Railsplitters punted twice and Chelsea kicked it once.

After Lincoln's second punt, Chelsea got the ball at their 47. After three runs by Tom Poulter, Chelsea had the ball at the Lincoln 37. Then Steele connected with Skelton down the left sideline. Skelton dodged two tacklers and ran for the score. Tim Wescott's extra point try was good.

The Railsplitters took the next kick-off at their 25 and eventually attempted a punt from their 11. Chelsea lineman Ken Slane slapped the kick down and defensive back Jason Johnson recovered the ball in the end zone for an apparent touchdown. However, referees ruled the play a safety and Chelsea had to settle for two points.

On the kick-off, the Bulldogs had another touchdown called off due to a clipping penalty. When they did get the ball, Steele immediately hit Skelton with a 28-yard pass at the Lincoln 32. Poulter ran the ball five straight times to the Lincoln 1, before Steele kept the ball around the left side for the touchdown. Wescott's kick gave Chelsea a 16-0 lead with 8:32 left in the first half.

The Railsplitters turned the ball over on the second play of their next drive as Poppenger picked off a pass and returned it to the Lincoln 27.

Steele kept the ball and scampered around the left side for six yards then lateraled the ball to Poulter, who ran for another 14 yards to the Lincoln six. Matt Montange ran for the touchdown on the next play. Wescott's kick gave Chelsea a 23-0 lead with 8:16 left in the half.

The Railsplitter offense sputtered again on their next drive as a holding penalty nullified one of their few long gainers of the evening. They punted from their 17. After passes to Poppenger and tight end Gary White, Steele hit Skelton on a sideline pattern to the left for the touchdown with 2:16 in the half. Wescott's kick gave Chelsea a 30-0 half-time lead.

Chelsea drove 84 yards on five plays for a touchdown after taking the second-half kick-off. Steele connected with Poulter for 21 yards to the Lincoln 15, then hit White for a 15-yard scoring pass. Wescott's kick hit the left upright and bounced back. Chelsea led 36-0.

The Railsplitters picked up their only six-pointer of the night on the first play of their next drive as quarterback Robert Francis hit Erik Johnson down the right side.

Chelsea second-string quarterback sophomore Dan Wehrwein guided the Bulldogs the rest of the way. He also had no trouble passing the ball, completing 4-5 for 76 yards, including two passes to Poppenger. Wehrwein scored his first varsity touchdown on a sneak in the fourth quarter.

A 23-yard field goal by Wescott finished out the Chelsea scoring.

Chelsea took the Southeastern Conference lead with a 3-0 mark. Tecumseh, also undefeated at 2-0, rolled over non-conference Jackson Northwest, 48-0. Chelsea is 4-0 overall.

By all indications, this Friday's game against 0-4 Jackson County Western should also feature a lot of Chelsea scoring. However, Western linemen range in size from 285 to 175 so the Bulldogs may not be as successful with straight power football.

"This week you'll see the third dimension," LaFave said, noting the Bulldogs have showcased their power running game and most recently their passing game.

"We're going to option the football."

COLBY SKELTON hauls in this pass for one of his four receptions last Friday night at Lincoln. The junior receiver scored two touchdowns on passes from quarterback Pat Steele.

JV Gridders Get First Win of Year

Chelsea Bulldogs junior varsity football team beat the Lincoln Railsplitters 18-6 at home last Thursday for their first win of the season.

With the score tied at 6, Chelsea broke on top as time ran out in the second half as quarterback Pat Lynch passed 36 yards to Jeremy Bradbury for the score. Chelsea took a 12-6 lead at half-time.

After a scoreless third quarter, Bradbury punted the ball inside the Lincoln five-yard line. The defense held and five plays later Jeremy Ziegler scored on a 10-yard run, his second 10-yard touchdown of the evening.

Bainton praised a strong second-half effort by Chelsea defenders Bradbury, Steve Straub, Dan Koengeter, and Josh Inwood. They managed to contain Lincoln's outside running game.

Ziegler carried 24 times for the Bulldogs, and Lynch was 2-4 in passing.

"The coaching staff is really proud of the team," said Chelsea coach Bill Bainton.

"Each of them has really picked up his level of play. Their determination was great to see."

Chelsea is 1-3 on the season.

Beach A Gridders Whip Big Reds

Beach Middle school A football team defeated Milan 30-0 last week.

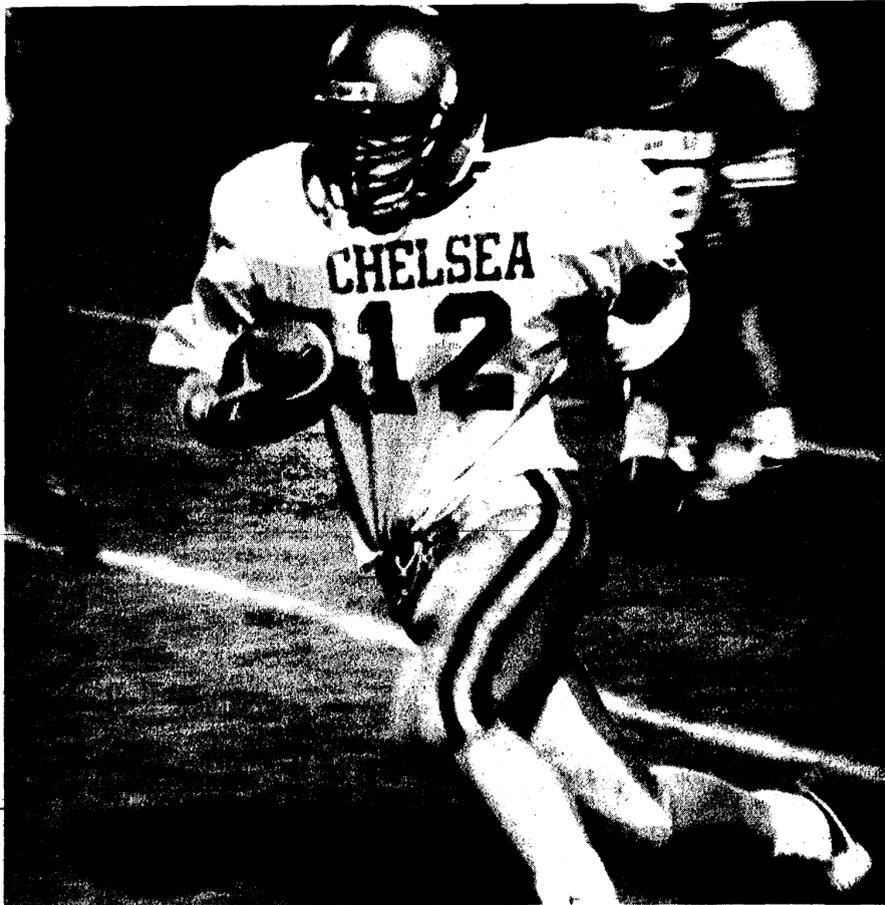

Behind the strong running of quarterback Ashley Coy, running backs Chris DeSarbo and Jason Sprawka, and wingback Casey Wescott, the Bullpups took a 24-0 half-time lead.

The line that led the Pup offense included ends Paul Bragalone and Jake Hurst, tackles Jeff Landrum and Jason Fletcher, guards Jay Schick and Mike Alber, and center Brian Bloemsaat.

Chelsea coach Rich Bareis said the defense performed well. Big play of the day was John Beeman's 60-yard run for a touchdown after an interception.

The defensive unit included Justin Barbu, Landrum, Fletcher, Jason Goodin, and Chris Glowicki up front, DeSarbo, Schick, Alber, and Beeman at linebacker, and Coy and Hurst in the backfield.

Sprawka scored three touchdowns and had two called back on penalties.

TOM POULTER rambles for a few more yards during Friday. The victory puts Chelsea at the top of the Chelsea's 46-6 victory over the Lincoln Railsplitters last Southeastern Conference with a 3-0 record.

Chelsea Girl Runners Keep Area Dominance

Chelsea Bulldogs girls cross country team shut out the Milan Big Reds last Tuesday at Inverness Golf Course, 15-50, as Chelsea took the first nine places.

"This was a strong effort," said Chelsea coach Pat Clarke.

"Seven of our top 11 runners recorded personal bests on the Inverness course. Senior Sarah Brosnan, junior Sarah Henry, and freshmen Melissa Hand and Katie Spink all ran exceptionally well."

Chelsea is 3-0 in the Southeastern Conference.

On Saturday Monti set a school record as Chelsea won the eight-team Jackson Invitational, which featured four other state-ranked teams. The girls finished with 50 points, while Saline was second with 81. Other ranked teams included Jackson Lumen Christi, Sturgis, and Hillsdale.

"Lisa was just spectacular in winning by one minute and setting a new record," Clarke said.

Monti cracked Kasey Anderson's mark of 18:41.

"Val Bullock, Beth Bell, and Molly Griebel all ran strong races. Over-all this was an excellent meet for us. We still need to get some people healthy and to improve our 5-7 runners."

Chelsea times and places were: 1. Monti, 18:30; 2. Bullock, 20:06; 3. Bell, 20:14; 4. Griebel, 20:18; 5. Brosnan, 21:49; 6. Holton, 22:07; 7. Wales, 22:32.

IT WAS ANOTHER GOOD NIGHT for the Chelsea got more than half of their total offense on one play as the Bulldogs defense last Friday at Lincoln. The Railsplitters Chelsea defense played its fourth solid game in a row.

Boy Harriers Tune Up With Easy SEC Victory

Chelsea Bulldogs boys cross country team ran past the Milan Big Reds last Tuesday, Sept. 22, 18-45.

Chelsea coach Pat Clarke gave his top five runners a rest.

"Our top eight ran personal bests on the Inverness course," Clarke said.

Senior captain Tobin Strong won his first race ever with a time of 18:01. Junior Chris Leatham trimmed almost 30 seconds off his previous best at Inverness.

Chelsea places and times were 1. Strong, 18:01; 2. Leatham, 18:22; 4. J.J. Hanke, 18:31; 5. Nick Kramer, 18:40; 6. Gabe White, 18:51; 7. Jim Bergman, 18:55; 8. Josh Metzler, 18:58; 9. Kevin Kolodica, 19:03; 10. Jason Valchine, 19:44; 11. Kevin Coy, 20:00; 12. Brian Atlee, 20:47; 13. Zac Ersten, 20:49; 14. Peter Straub, 20:51; 15. Chris Schiller, 22:04; 16. Scott Wingle, 22:35; 17. Chelsea is 3-0 in the Southeastern Conference.

"This was the closest invitational among the three top teams that I can remember. Any change of position in the top five runners would have reversed the outcome. The team is improving and gaining experience and we will be heard from later in the year."

Ryan Schultz set a new Chelsea sophomore record as he placed third over-all and first for Chelsea in 16:24. Other Chelsea places and times were 8. Cory Brown, 18:35; 15. Chad Brown, 17:00; 22. Dan Zatkovich, 17:12; 27. Scott Hawley, 17:27; 31. Strong, 17:46; 42. Leatham, 18:14.

SPORTS NOTES

BY BRIAN HAMILTON

After the escapades of Chelsea High school's spring sports teams just a few short months ago, I thought it would be a long time before we'd see so much success here again in one season. If you remember, Bulldogs baseball and softball teams reached the regional play-offs and the girls track team placed at the state meet.

Five months later, and we may be looking at the most successful fall sports season since the invention of trickle down economics.

Some fans are already beginning to whisper "play-offs" for the varsity football team, a hopeful yet dangerous practice given the fact that most Chelsea football teams have been eliminated from contention by their fourth game. Football, incidentally, is the only high school sport in which every team does not automatically qualify for some sort of post-season play, no matter how bad it is—too many teams and not enough time. More on the football team later.

So far, the single most remarkable story this fall is the boys cross country team. Coach Pat Clarke knew his boys would be pretty competitive, but that was before junior Cory Brown decided to run. Now he's being forced to revise his private forecast upward, way up. Cory won his first race ever, then his second, and recently finished second to last year's freshman phenom, Ryan Schultz, as Ryan set a CHS sophomore record last week. Clarke admits his coaching is only a small part of Cory's success.

"It doesn't hurt to have a lot of natural ability," he says.

Throw in Cory's brother, Chad, a sophomore and last year's number two runner (who was good enough to win some meets last year), and sophomore Scott Hawley, who has improved tremendously, and that's the foundation of the best boys cross country team ever at CHS. Those four, along with seniors Dan Zatkovich and Tobin Strong, ran their best times ever at the Jackson Invitational last Saturday.

The Bulldogs are ranked fifth in the state, the highest a Chelsea boys team has ever been ranked. And they could well make Chelsea's first team appearance at the state meet in a long, long time, if they can get by their ultra-competitive regional.

Then, of course, there's the girls cross country team, led by senior sensation Lisa Monti, who broke Kasey Anderson's five-year-old school record last week by 11 seconds.

The girls have been the state's top-ranked team all season. They haven't been seriously challenged at any meet yet, including all those big, competitive invitationals Clarke likes to enter in preparation for the post-season. In most meets they've squashed the competition like so much oatmeal in a baby's hand. Just ask the Saline Hornets, then the state's number two team. The Hornets managed to squeak one runner into the top five in head-to-head competition with the Bulldogs.

Monti has been her usual unbeatable self. Senior Val Bullock and junior Beth Bell are beginning to show why they would be the number one runners on most other teams. Sophomore Mally Griebel, a middle-of-the-pack runner last year, has been in Chelsea's top five most of the season.

There are so many good runners on this team that the competition should be fierce for the five through seven spots for the post-season—a post-season which should include the Bulldogs' fourth straight trip to the state meet.

Over at the pool, Dave Brinklow's girls have already qualified for the state meet in several events, and the season is really just beginning.

Back at the gridiron, Chelsea is 4-0, the first time the Bulldogs have had that kind of start since the Dove Wojcicki years, now just a distant memory. Coach Gene LaFave will be disappointed if they aren't 5-0 after this week as the Bulldogs are playing winless Jackson County Western.

The Bulldogs can probably make the play-offs with one loss, especially if that loss happens to be to class B Tecumseh rather than class A Pinckney. Beating a respectable class A team is kind of like the Daily Double on Jeopardy except you don't have to answer any questions. It's worth a lot of bonus points in the convoluted play-off point system—a system which must have been put together by the same people who devised the school state aid formula.

For now, though, Bulldog fans are drooling for an undefeated season, which is certainly possible. Tecumseh and Pinckney loom as the major obstacles to that goal, and Dexter is certainly capable of an upset, especially at home.

Given the Bulldogs' history, I'd say the odds of an undefeated season are against them. But this team is different.

Top to bottom in most cases there is solid, though unspectacular, talent. And the coaching staff seems to have pulled all the right levers so far. But what sets this team apart is its emotion and intensity, which tends to amplify the good parts of their game and make up for their weaker ones. The Bulldogs have not let up in any game. They've made themselves a lot of breaks and have not let the few bad breaks dampen their enthusiasm. It's attitude, not overwhelming talent, which can take this team to an undefeated regular season, a Southeastern Conference title, and hopefully the play-offs.

JAY WESTCOTT was the Chelsea Bulldogs' second leading rusher last Friday at Lincoln. The junior, along with most of the second team, was a bright spot in the second half.

Cagers Get First Victory of Season

Chelsea Bulldogs varsity basketball team picked up its first victory of the season last Thursday with a 39-26 win over the Milan Big Reds in Milan.

Chelsea pulled away in the last two minutes of the first quarter and maintained their lead throughout the rest of the game.

"We put on our full-court zone trap and Milan did not handle it well," said Chelsea coach Charlie Waller.

"That was basically the difference in the game. We were quicker than they were and when we ran the zone, they couldn't shoot over it."

The Bulldogs shot 35 percent from the field, their second-best performance of the season. However, they were only 11-25 from the line.

Ginny Flannery and Erin Schiller each scored 11 points to lead Chelsea. Other scorers were Martha Merkel 6, Jessica Flintoft 4, Heather McConegny 3, Nicki Piasecki 2, and Kate Steele 2.

Flintoft and Merkel had seven and six rebounds, respectively.

"The kids looked better and played with a lot more intensity," Waller said.

Last Tuesday the Bulldogs lost to Jackson County Western, 54-42.

Western won the game at the foul line, where they were 12-23. Chelsea was 0-5 and each team scored 42 points from the field.

"Western is a good, solid team and I thought they'd kill us but we played with them most of the game," Waller says.

"We played pretty well." The Bulldogs had their best shooting night from the field at 36 percent.

"We shot well the first three quarters but we went totally cold in the fourth quarter and Laura Carty was the only one who scored for us," Waller said.

Chelsea was down 33-18 at half-time but managed to pull within six points in the fourth quarter.

Flannery and Schiller led Chelsea with eight points each. Other scorers were Flintoft 6, Merkel 6, Piasecki 4, McConegny 2, and Steele 2.

Chelsea was 1-7 over-all and 1-6 in the Southeastern Conference after last week.

7th Grade Cagers Beat Dexter But Lose to Pinckney

Beach Middle school seventh grade basketball team picked up a victory over Dexter, 19-17, but lost to Pinckney, 28-22, last week.

Chelsea scorers were Robyn Raymond 4, Cindy Richard 2, Meghan Ziegler 2, Sarah Pruess 2, Leslee Parker 2, Jessica Ritter 2, Rachelle Shelly 2, Jennifer Saarinen 2, and Kelly Kentala 1.

Emily Arend and Richard each had six rebounds.

Raymond had four steals. Chelsea lost the Pinckney game in overtime.

Richard hit a long shot in the closing seconds of regulation to tie the game, but Pinckney did all the scoring from then on.

Chelsea scorers were Angie Carpenter 6, Richard 5, Pruess 4, Arend 2, Raymond 2, Bree Wireman 2, and Emily Sterling 1.

Rachel Spruce had four rebounds, Carpenter had five steals, and Pruess, Richard, and Shelly each had four steals.

8th Grade Cagers Split Two Games

Beach Middle school eighth grade basketball team beat Dexter 34-21 but lost to Pinckney 35-23 in action last week.

Scorers in the Dexter game were Chrissy Hodgson 12, Michelle Lucas 10, Kacie Ruhlig 6, Sabrina Steinaway 4, Kim Niehaus 2.

Leaders in rebounds were Hodgson 9, Carrie Ashendel 8, Steinaway 5, Lucas 4, and Ruhlig 4.

Leaders in steals were Carrie Williams 3, Kacie Ruhlig 3, and Melissa Carty 2.

Hodgson has four blocked shots. Scorers in the Pinckney game were Lucas 6, Hodgson 4, Steinaway 3, Char Tassinari 2, Summer Weller 2, Julie Schwartzberger 2, Ruhlig 2, Williams 1, and Carty 1.

Lucas and Steinaway each had three rebounds.

Leaders in steals were Ruhlig 7, Lucas 5, Schwartzberger 3, Devon Genyk 3, Carty 3, and Steinaway 3.

Four More Chelsea Times Qualify for State Meet

Chelsea Bulldogs swimmers swam state-meet qualifying times in four events in a 115-71 loss at Fenton and a 115-71 win over Tecumseh at home.

Senior Melissa Thiel led the way in the Fenton meet, qualifying for the state meet in the 200 individual medley in 2:26.24 and in the 100 breaststroke in 1:14.44.

In the Tecumseh meet, sophomore Betsy Schmunk qualified in the 500 freestyle in 5:47.06 and joined Thiel, Erin Baird, and Carey Schiller to qualify in the 200 freestyle relay in 1:49.81.

"I really wondered about Schmunk on the relay," said Chelsea coach Dave Brinklow.

"She literally climbed out of the water after qualifying in the 500 freestyle and stood up on the blocks to lead off the relay. She must have still had some adrenaline flowing because she swam a great split."

Football Hall of Fame To Induct Three Friday

Three 1992 Chelsea High school graduates will be inducted into the Chelsea Football Hall of Fame this Friday at half-time of the Jackson County Western home football game.

Mike Terpstra, Ben Hurst, and Adam Taylor were all mainstays of last year's varsity team.

Terpstra, who attends Harvard University, was all-state his senior year and a two-year All-Southeastern Conference performer as an offensive lineman.

"He was one of the most devastating blockers we've ever had," said Chelsea coach Gene LaFave.

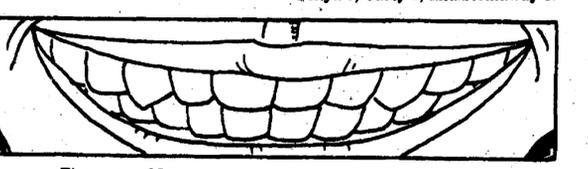

Terpstra graduated cum laude, was a state heavyweight wrestling champion his junior year and runner-up his senior year, and competed at the state track meet.

Hurst rushed for nearly 1,000 yards last year and "was a good portion of our offensive show," LaFave said. He was also an outstanding free safety and defensive back.

Taylor, who was converted from a defensive back to a linebacker his senior year, and played running back and wide receiver, "was one of the best hitters we've ever had," LaFave said. "He loved the contact."

Hurst and Taylor are attending Ferris State University and plan to play baseball there.

There are 32 permanent teeth, 16 in each jaw.

CROP Walk Slated Sunday Afternoon

CROP Walkers in more than 1,800 communities across the country organize and take part in their annual CROP Walk to help stop hunger around the world—and around the block.

In its fifth banner year, Chelsea CROP Walk will be held Sunday, Oct. 4 at 1 p.m., beginning at St. Paul United Church of Christ on Old US-12. Walkers obtain sponsors for the 10 kilometer (6.2 mile) walk, and funds raised are distributed through Church World. A portion of the money raised, 25%, will stay in the community to support local needs. This share will be donated to the newly unified Faith in Action - Chelsea Social Service organization, for local hunger relief efforts. The goal for this year's CROP Walk is to raise $5,000, of which $1,250 will go to help local families in need.

Persons interested in walking may obtain sponsor forms through their church's own CROP recruiter or by contacting recruitment co-ordinator, San Roberts, at 475-3815, or event coordinator, Pastor Mark Weirauch at 475-8064.

People may also participate in the CROP Walk by volunteering as registrars, crossing guards, checkers and rest-stop workers. Snacks are also needed for those completing the walk. To offer your help in these ways, please contact arrangements co-ordinator, Steve Worden, at 475-8220 or 995-2547.

D. Chrysler Speaks to High School Students

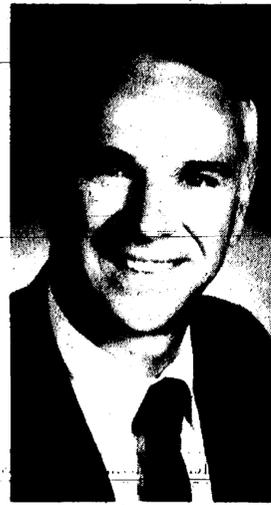

Dick Chrysler, Republican candidate for Congress, addressed Chelsea High school government class seniors last Friday, Sept. 25.

By the invitation of government instructor John Bechtelheimer, Chrysler informed the students of the issues that they will face when voting in November. "Every one here must realize that they have a responsibility to make an informed decision," Chrysler stated.

"I truly admire you men and women. I also worry, because you will be facing a great deal of responsibility next year. Some of you will go to college and some will immediately go to the private sector. If that's not enough, each and every one of you has a $16,000 debt to the government because Congress can't control itself," Chrysler added.

Instructor Bechtelheimer stated "The students very much enjoyed hearing Chrysler's views on the state of the nation. It allowed them to learn first-hand what campaigns are all about."

"These young men and women had excellent questions. They have a good understanding of what faces them in the future, and they are extremely concerned about our country," Chrysler stated. "I hope that they keep informed and that they get involved. We need everyone to recognize our nation's problems, pull together, and work together to make a positive change."

Bartsch Family Gospel Musicians

Gospel Singers Appearing Here

The multi-talented Michigan-based Bartsch family, gospel music musicians and recording artists, will be featured at the Chelsea Free Methodist church, 7665 Werkner Rd., on Sunday, Oct. 4, at 6 p.m.

The family has sung at the U.S. Pentagon in Washington, D.C., and has made television appearances. They have a unique repertoire of southern gospel, children's contemporary, and traditional Christian music. A piano, drums (on some songs), and the strings of the guitar complement their smooth trios, duets and solos which have beautiful blended harmonies.

Julie and Johnny, the brother and sister duo, gain popularity with their audience as they perform. Little brother is the family drummer while teen-age daughter is a great songwriter already with much sophistication in her original works. Two of her new single releases, "Oh, Can't You See the Master," and "God Bless Our Soldier Boys," are receiving radio play. Television news reports have featured the patriotic original.

The Bartsch family perform about 150 concerts each year, in which great gospel music from a talented family is offered. Audiences will enjoy a musical variety and a top-quality concert!

Everyone is welcome.
For more information, please call 475-1391.

★ Starch Keeps Insecticide On Plant Leaves

By Marce Gerriettes
Crop-damaging insects could be in for a new, but deadly meal when they land on plant leaves.

Awaiting the hungry bugs' arrival would be a mix of insecticide and starch—stuck to the leaves as an inviting meal.

U.S. Department of Agriculture scientists say the insecticide is attached to tiny granules made from cornstarch. When applied to leaves that are wet—from morning dew, for example—and left to dry, the insecticide sticks to the leaves.

Once the granules have dried, the insecticide will not wash off the plant if it rains or a garden is watered, said Michael R. McGuire, an entomologist for USDA's Agriculture Research Service.

"It's a way of putting the insecticide where the bugs will eat it and keeping it there longer," he said. "This reduces the amount of chemical and the number of applications needed. And, that makes it possible to lower the chances of chemical runoff and the risk of contaminating groundwater."

McGuire and Baruch S. Shasha worked out ways to disperse very small amounts of water throughout the starch to form the granules and entrap the insecticide. They did the studies at the ARS National Center for Agricultural Utilization Research at Peoria, Ill. ARS is seeking a patent on the technology.

R. Dean Plowman, ARS administrator, said the encapsulating starch derived from corn is one of the newest examples of the potential for using farm commodities to make new products for the commercial marketplace.

Studies at the Peoria center have focused on using starch to encapsulate either natural insect pathogens or chemicals.

I - INSOMNIA

Some people read a good book. Some turn on the TV. Others raid the refrigerator. A few count sheep. Many of us simply toss and turn. Sleepless nights! They're annoying. And, they make us tired and irritable the next day.

It's a fact that beginning around age 60, people need less sleep. Waking up at 6 a.m. instead of 7 a.m. is not necessarily a problem. However, insomnia, the inability to fall asleep or stay asleep long enough to become rested, should not be accepted by adults as normal consequence of aging.

Causes. The causes of insomnia vary. Habits that did not bother us when younger may have a more dramatic effect as the body ages. If you suffer from insomnia, try to determine why. Then, act to correct it. Some causes of insomnia are fairly simple to change once recognized:

1) Caffeine—Drinking coffee, tea or soft drinks with too much caffeine keeps the nervous system stimulated and inhibits sleep. Chocolate is also a culprit. That double-fudge chocolate cake for dessert or bowl of chocolate ice cream before bed may just keep you awake. Read the labels on food products and watch what you eat. Look for teas and coffees that are decaffeinated. Save those rich desserts for lunch. Many people find that they cannot drink or eat caffeine after 12 noon if they are to fall asleep by 12 midnight. And, over time, the less caffeine you take in, the less your body can tolerate.

2) Alcohol—Along with today's "Don't Drink and Drive" campaign, we might add "Don't Drink and Try To Sleep." Contrary to public belief, alcohol does not aid sleep—it fragments sleep. Especially in large quantities, alcohol affects deep sleep. When one grows older, the effect of alcohol is greater. Thus, even that one nightcap you've had every night for years may keep you up rather than put you to sleep! Limit alcohol intake amount and have it early in the evening.

3) Medications—Both over-the-counter and prescription medications may directly or indirectly cause sleeplessness. Some medications, like extra-strength cold tablets, contain caffeine. Before purchasing over-the-counter drugs, read the label and talk with the drug store's pharmacist. Ask your doctor whether any of the medicines you are taking can cause insomnia. If so, ask him for substitutes.

4) Lack of Exercise—Sometimes the body simply isn't tired at bedtime. Some older adults find that retirement enables them to do all the activities that they didn't have time for when younger. For others, physical activity decreases with retirement or age. A walk around the block in the late afternoon (preferably before dark) or more vigorous exercise during the day will help you sleep better at night.

5) Eating too much or too little—A large meal just before bed will keep you up. Similarly, if you eat your main meal at lunch, have a snack at 4 p.m., and watch the late-night movie, your body may be hungry by the time you are ready for bed. Have a light snack and a glass of warm milk before turning in.

6) Irregular sleeping hours—Keep the body on a regular schedule. Even if you miss a night's sleep, try to get up and go to bed at the same time each day.

7) Medical Problems—Medical problems of the heart or lungs may cause breathing problems that awaken one during sleep. If difficulty breathing seems to be the reason you wake up at night, see your physician.

8) Psychological Problems—Major causes of insomnia are depression and anxiety. Acute problems triggering insomnia include death of a spouse, financial crises, and family feuds. Many older persons are depressed. Others have a life-long history of anxiety. Problems compound with the social, financial and health conditions of age. Any or all of these may result in a person lying awake at night.

Treatment. Prescription and non-prescription drugs may be used to induce sleep. Be cautious in the use of such medications. Some take effect immediately and are short-acting; others are longer-acting and can bring morning drowsiness. All may have side effects. Frequent or prolonged use of sleeping pills may result in addiction and still not increase the quality of sleep.

If you are not sleeping well, don't just count the sheep for the rest of your life. Take the steps below and rule out simple causes. Then, see your physician. Take this check-list to help him know what's not wrong and find out what is.

- To get a good night's sleep:
• Reduce or eliminate caffeine; limit alcohol
• Use sleep medications judiciously and only under a doctor's orders
• Don't eat too much or too little before bed
• Exercise regularly
• Keep a regular schedule for sleeping hours
• Be aware of medical problems, especially of the heart and lungs
• Be alert to psychological symptoms, especially depression and anxiety.

Boxelder Bugs Become Household Pests in Fall

The dictionary defines a nuisance as "one that is annoying, unpleasant or obnoxious; pest." It could very well say: "see also, boxelder bug." These red and black, 1/2-inch-long insects become nuisance pests in the fall when they congregate in large numbers and infiltrate homes looking for snug overwintering spots.

They do not bite or sting or harm food or home furnishings or other materials. But they can spot walls and curtains with fecal material, and they leave a stain if crushed. Like flies, they tend to accumulate in light fixtures.

Though they're associated with boxelder trees, especially the female (seed-bearing) trees, laboratory studies have shown that they will feed on a wide variety of plant materials, including maple, ash, oak, golden rain tree, tree-of-heaven (ailanthus), mulberry, lilac, iris, geranium, peony, strawberry, asparagus, pigweed, crabgrass and foxtail. The adults can fly and so can travel some distance to invade your home.

"Therefore, the classic recommendation for getting rid of boxelder bugs—get rid of the boxelder tree—may not be effective," says Howard Russell, Michigan State University entomologist. "Planting other, less problem-prone species for shade is a good idea, though," he adds.

Sealing up the cracks and other openings through which the bugs enter and controlling the occasional invader with a fly swatter or vacuum cleaner are the recommended control methods.

If you're dealing with large numbers of the insects outside your home, you can spray them, the exterior foundation walls, and window wells and door thresholds and other possible points of entry with dursban or diazinon according to label directions.

"Insect-proofing and spraying outdoors should reduce or eliminate the need to use insect sprays indoors," Russell says. "If occasional chemical control is necessary indoors, quick-knockdown flying insect sprays containing pyrethrins can be used. The usual recommendation is to spray the bugs directly or the areas where they seem to congregate, then close the room for several hours. Enter only after opening doors and windows to allow any remaining mist to dissipate. Then sweep or vacuum any bugs immobilized by the spray and destroy them—they may become active again.

to plan for your future with an IRA

So many believe the only time you can take advantage of an Individual Retirement Account is after the first of the year or at income tax time. And, that just isn't so.

You can open or add to an existing IRA during the year that you are earning a wage or until April 15th of the following year. Even if you contributed to an existing IRA in April of this year, against last year's earnings, you can contribute right now, if you wish, for this year's earnings.

While $2,000 is the limit you can contribute each earning year, you can contribute less, if you wish. Your non-employed spouse can contribute $250 each year.

So, why wait? Stop in. Discuss how an IRA, with its probable tax deferral aspect, can be beneficial for you.

Farmers Must Follow Federal Rules on Truck Bumper Placement

Farmers should be aware that Michigan has adopted federal standards on truck bumpers, according to Michigan Farm Bureau legislative counsel Ron Nelson. He said the standards are somewhat more liberal than the state rules, which required a bumper on the rear of the vehicle if the inset of the axle was more than 30 inches. The federal standards, said Nelson, simply say the bumper has to be placed with 24 inches of the rear of the vehicle.

"The difficult part for agriculture is that many farm trucks are older or have been custom designed to do the job the farmer needs done, for instance, harvesting of potatoes, grain and sugar beets," Nelson said. "In some cases these specially equipped trucks may be dump trucks which you have to back over a hopper. So, a permanent bumper may inhibit the dumping of the cargo."

Nelson said Farm Bureau will continue to work with transportation authorities to help farmers comply with the rear guard protection rules.

MAX PLANK of Chelsea, professor of music and director of bands at Eastern Michigan University, recently received a 1992 Teaching Excellence Award from the EMU Alumni Association. The award was presented last Saturday, Sept. 26 at a "Celebrate Traditions" reception and lunch at the school as part of homecoming festivities. Plank has taught at EMU since 1968. He was cited for his hard work, individual caring and understanding, and his career and family dedication. "He is an enthusiastic teacher, always keeping current in his field and looking for new methods to stimulate his students' own curiosity and love of music...He expertly addresses areas that need correction and finds creative ways to help the student improve. He has infinite patience!" one nominator wrote. Plank's wife, Sherri, is a teacher at North Elementary school.
