Village Council OKs Pierce Park Playground

Village council cleared the way last Tuesday, Dec. 22 for new playground equipment to be installed in Pierce Park next spring.

Council formally approved the Pierce Park Playground Project, coordinated by Chelsea resident Lynn Swan. The group has raised $14,000 in private donations since May and the village has agreed to pay $3,000.

Swan said she wants to order the equipment, from the Lokville Co., by the end of the year to take advantage of lower prices.

The structure, which could be expanded, will include several decks. slides, climbers, a chinning bar, cargo net, swings and suspension quirements in the new Americans With Disabilities Act, which means it will also be usable by some handicapped children.

Construction materials include recycled plastic, steel posts, and plastic-coated metal decks. Swan said wood equipment requires more maintenance and replacement. The structure is scheduled to be painted the same color as the street lamps to blend in with the park surroundings.

Swan recommended that the other playground equipment be taken down since it doesn't meet U.S. Consumer Safety Guidelines. She told council that one reason she started the project donated by the Dana Corp.

Village Committee To Consider Solid Waste Transfer Site

The village's dormant Solid Waste Committee will be activated again in January to study how and where to build a waste transfer station.

The village landfill on Werkner Rd. will probably be out of space by the end of April, manager Jack Myers said last week. Garbage will have to be hauled to another landfill, probably in Salem township, until a transfer station is built.

With a transfer station, trash from the area would be taken to the station. where it would be compacted, loaded into bins, and hauled to a landfill.

The village and members of the Western Washtenaw Recycling Authority have been discussing a transfer station for several months as a solution to the area-wide trash problem. Earlier this year, proposals were solicited from both Browning Ferris Industries (BFI) and Mr. Rub-

However, no firm decisions have been made about any part of the project, including who would own and operate it, who would build it, who would pay for it, or even where it would be located. Consultants estimate the project will cost $417,225. To pave the road and install storm sewer would cost $284,475. Sanitary sewer and water lines would cost $132,710.

Village manager Jack Myers said the committee will try to determine whether the village can provide assistance to offset some of the cost of the project.

Engler Signs Wetlands Ordinance Restrictions; Vetoes Small Business Bill

Local governments will have to show an overriding need to protect a wetland when denying a use permit for one of less than two acres under legislation signed Friday by Governor John Engler as he completed action on the 305 laws created this year.

The legislation (SBs 522 and 807, PAs 295 and 296) allows municipalities to still create wetland ordinances, but those must now follow the state definition of a wetland and include an inventory of all the regulated wetlands within the jursidiction. The municipalities must also revalue properties where they deny a wetland use permit.

The act has been attacked as prodevelopment or anti-environment, undermining the authority of local governments and eliminating protection of small wetlands in the state. Builder and Realtor groups have lauded the bill for making wetlands regulation more consistent and predictable.

The changes represent the first significant alteration of the 1979 wetlands protection act. About 36 local units have passed their own regulations.

When the bills passed the Housethe last day of session-attempts to strengthen local authority were defeated. Rep. Mick Middaugh (R-Paw Paw) said the bills balance preservation of wetlands through local control and the rights of proper-

DEAR MISTER EDITOR:

gradual increases of procurement expenditures until a 15 percent level is reached was vetoed Friday by

The bill would have reserved a pool of contracts for companies with 50 or fewer employees. Estimates indicate they represent 95 percent of the state's businesses.

"Improving our access to state contracts is important," said National Federation of Independent Business/ Michigan Director Steve Arwood. "However, we have bigger problems with issues that affect all businesses and the long-term economic development interests of this state."

In his veto message to the Legislature, the governor pointed out that the bill imposes a mandatory fee on all those who wish to do business with the state. The cost, he said. would impose a disproportionate burden on the state's smallest companies.

Engler said a better way to increase the number of small businesses that bid on and receive state contracts is to simplify the state's procurement process. He also said "poor drafting . . . invites litigation by failing to define terms and being ambiguous and vague on critical provisions."

The Michigan Chamber of Commerce backed the veto, saying the bill would have done more harm than good and the higher bids acceptable from small businesses to help them increase the contracts they receive could have proven very expensive. The measure should have covered larger businesses, up to 100 employees, was the chamber's posi-cuts totaling $634,021. The cuts would have included lay-offs of several teachers and staff members, and deletion of all sports below junior varsity level, virtually all middle school extracurricular activities, and many high school extra-curricular activities.

5. Two-year teacher contract. Chelsea School District teachers and administration agreed to a new two-year contract calling for raises of 4.2 percent the first year and 4.5 percent in 93-94. Both sides said they were pleased with the agreement.

Because the agreement runs for two years, the school board will have one less headache to deal with next year as it considers another millage proposal.

6. MUSTFA agreement. After extensive negotiations, the state finally confirmed it would pay for the clean-up of gasoline contamination at the village's North St. garage.

Michigan Underground Storage Tank Financial Assurance fund, despite news stories that the fund is broke, will pay for the estimated $300,000 it will cost to demolish part of the building, excavate the site, haul away the materials, and pump and treat the groundwater to state specifications.

The agreement is the second feather in Myers' cap for the year. The situation was a mess when Myers became manager and he had a crisis on his hands almost from day one. At one point, the state refused to pay.

Without the state's help, the village would have had a financial nightmare.

7. Recycling authority moves slowly but surely. Western Washtenaw Recycling Authority, armed with a $330,000 state grant, is on the verge of beginning its area-wide program. The materials recovery facility has been built and is operating. Jeff Bagocius was hired as manager and Jerry Satterthwaite as his assistant. The pull-behind trailer and recycling buckets have been purchased from the village for curbside recycling programs in Chelsea and Manchester. All other equipment has been purchased. The only thing left to happen is installation of the roll-off recycling bins in the townships.

The authority survived defections by Freedom and Sharon townships and questions by residents over the likely cost effectiveness of the authority.

Chelsea and Manchester, and the townships of Sylvan, Lima, Lyndon, Dexter, Manchester, and Bridgewater.

8. The weather. One of the on-going stories for 1992 was the extremely unusual weather, blamed by various agencies on the eruption of Mt. Pinatubo in the Philippines, El Nino, and even oil well fires in Kuwait.

The area had one of its coolest and wettest summers in history, including the wettest July on

There was a late, heavy snowfall in March, and much of the early baseball and softball seasons at Chelsea High school were rained out.

Two days of the Chelsea Community Fair were essentially rained out.

But no one was affected more by the weather than area farmers. The wheat crop was harvested late and suffered more sprouting than usual. As of this writing, much of the corn crop, which should have been harvested in November, is still in the ground due to high moisture content.

9. Sex abuse charges at North Sharon Baptist church. One of the most sensational crime stories in many years began unfolding in November as assistant pastor Timothy L. Leonard and deacon Mark R. Foeller were accused of sexually molesting children in the church's Sunday school bus ministry. The abuse allegedly occurred in the school bus on the way to church and on school grounds.

The church has been picketed and buses have been vandalized, but the church continues to operate.

Many of the charges against Leonard have been dismissed because his alleged victims were deemed too young to testify. However, Foeller will face charges in both Washtenaw and Jackson counties on first and second-degree criminal sexual conduct charges.

Investigators say they expect to seek more charges against both men, and may seek charges against a third suspect.

10. Success of Cheisea Bulldogs football team. For the first time in school history, the Bulldogs made the state play-offs, reaching the region finals before being bumped 28-0 by Jackson Lumen Christi.

Chelsea also set a school mark by winning 10 straight games. They won the Southeastern Conference for the first time since 1986, edging the Pinckney Pirates 21-20 in double over-time in the final league game of the season.

Electrical Upgrade To Give Village Fourth Circuit

For more information call Laureta

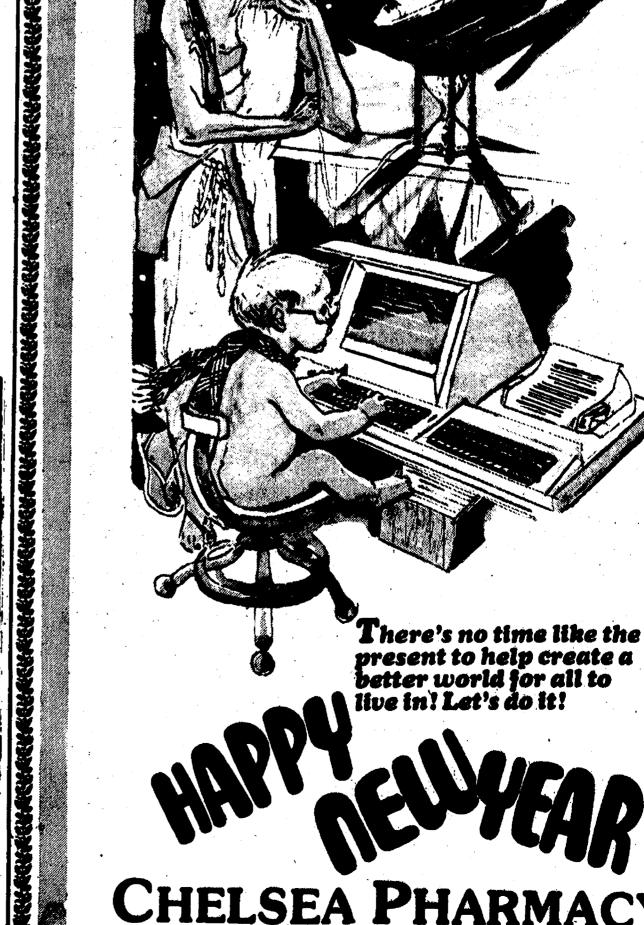

The village plans to increase the electrical capacity at its Garfield St. substation next spring.

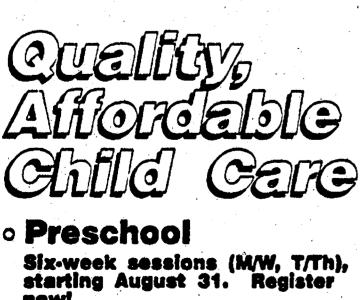

A recloser substation will be installed for $41,900. Eagle Utility Service, Inc., will provide the equipment for $16,050 and Tatman Associates, Inc., will construct the building for $25,850.

The improvements will give the village a fourth electrical circuit, said village manager Jack Myers. It will initially run out to the industrial park on Sibley Rd., then back into town.

As the old year draws to a close, we all hope for better things during the next twelve months. We make ardent resolutions to rid ourselves of bad habits and to develop stronger traits of character, to ensure that the new year will bring happiness and contentment.

Such resolutions, however commendable, are much more easily made than kept. Listen to Shakespeare and do not abandon your noble intentions just because you are once rebuffed. While the intentions may prove to be fragile, always keep your goal in mind.

Governor Signs Bill To Make Assisted Suicide A Felony

Governor John Engler has signed a bill that makes assisted suicide a felony. The bill, HB 4501, is a temporary measure and will take effect on March 30, 1993.

"I am not happy about the bill's delay, and I am not happy that it is temporary. But at this point it is the best bill the Legislature has sent to me. I am eager to sign a better bill-one that is permanent and effective immediately," the Governor

Engler believes it is especially urgent that Jack Kevorkian be stopped from assisting in any more

"Everyone agrees that physicianassisted suicide is one of the most difficult and complex issues of our time. But the methods of Mr. Jack Kevorkian-and I stress 'Mr.' since his license to practice medicine has been suspended—are wrong because he has deliberately flouted the law and has taken it upon himself to be his own judge, jury, and executioner. In Michigan, no one should have that right. In Michigan, that will not stand. The bill I am signing this afternoon is a step in the right direction," the Governor said.

HB 4501 will be in effect for up to two years. In the meantime, the Michigan Commission on Death and Dying, which is set up by the bill, will study all the societal and ethical ramifications of physician-assisted

"We need to think through all the implications of doctors participating in the suicide of their patients. Over the next months, professional judgments and public input will help lawmakers deal more effectively with the problem in all of its complexity," Engler said.

"I want to underscore the fact that HB 4501 makes assisted suicide a felony rather than a lesser crime. Our traditions, laws, and Constitution are dedicated to protecting life. Assisted suicide goes against all the social norms and legal precedents of our nation. I do not want Michigan to earn the dubious distinction of becoming the Suicide Capital of America," the Governor said.

Social Services Dept. Needs Foster Homes For Many Children

Can you make time in your life for a child who needs you?

Washtenaw County Department of Social Services needs foster homes to provide care for children who have been removed from the home of their natural family because of abuse or neglect.

They need black and white homes for children of all ages. They especially need homes for brothers and sisters to be placed together and families who understand drug abuse and sexual abuse. They have a shortage of black families willing to do long-term care or adopt children of all ages. They also need homes who will work with children ages 12-18 and pregnant/parenting teens.

If interested they have a foster parent/adoption training program starting Tuesday, Jan. 12, from 7 to 9 p.m. at the Department of Social Services, 22 Center St., Ypsilanti. Please call Tamela Rusch at 481-2002, or Barbara Ford at 481-2010 to register or for more information.

No-Till Acreage in Washtenaw Increases

rn, soybeans, wheat and several other crops were established on more than 26,000 acres of Washtenaw county firmland in 1992 without first plowing or otherwise preparing the land for planting, according to a recently reliased Soil Conservation Service e 4,075 acres or 18% increase from 1991 to 1992 represents a steady increase in the use of this practice sine it first became widely used in th 41980's.

Mere were 15,300 acres of corn, acres of soybeans, 3,975 acres of small grains, 800 acres of hay and 50 acres of pasture planted in Washof pasture planted in Washterw county using the no-till system in the 1992 growing season, a total of 26 25 acres of no-till.

The over 26,125 acre county total is everence that farmers are following ou 'Do Not Disturb' advice and that il is an economically attractive to grow crops," said Steve Olds, cict conservationist for the Soil Conservation Service in Ann Arbor.

The no-till concept was introduced in the sixties, developed in the sevenand tested by many farmers in the eighties. Now it's becoming the system of choice for an ever increasnumber of Washtenaw county ners," the conservationist added. till is a planting method in which criss are planted through the residue left after the previous crop was hatvested. Run-off and soil erosion are nearly eliminated when the no-till and protects water quality. Mulch-till conservation tillage increased in 1992 also but at a slower rate. The slower rate is attributed to system is used. This assures the sus-talifability of crop (food) production the growth of no-till. Many farmers change to mulch-till because they are not comfortable switching from clean-till to no-till according to Bill Ames, agricultural agent with the Co-operative Extension Service in Washtenaw county. These farmers often change to no-till when they become aware of the costs associated with mulch-till.

Ames explained that most farmers understand that the biggest cost for clean-till farming is associated with tillage (big tractors, fuel and time). They also know that the biggest expense for no-till is associated with materials used to control weeds and

According to the agricultural agent, mulch-till has machinery or tillage costs similar to clean-till and pesticide costs similar to no-till making it difficult for mulch-till to be economically competitive with either clean-till or no-till.

No-till is one of the many conservation practices the Soil Conservation Service promotes to protect our nation's food-producing resource and prevent water pollution.

Accident Forces Temporary Closure of Bell Rd. Bridge

An early morning accident on Saturday, Dec. 14, has resulted in the closure of the Bell Rd. Bridge over the Huron River.

The Bell Rd. Bridge is an historic truss structure, approximately one mile north of North Territorial Rd. in Dexter township.

The accident did substantial damage to the steel trusses. An engineering consultant, knowledgeable about truss bridges, will be retained by the Washtenaw County Road Commission to analyze the damage and determine if repairs are feasible.

Traffic will be rerouted to North Territorial Rd. until the bridge can be reopened.

JULIE VORUS, Chelsea Community Hospital fitness co-ordinator, welcomes Giles Brown to the hospital's fitness program staff. Approximately 50 growers and Michigan's High Moisture Corn Information Exchange, a listing that is being maintained by the Michigan State University Co-operative Extension Service and Michigan Farm Bureau

The purpose of the list is to put livestock producers who need corn in touch with growers who could sell the grain as high moisture corn (HMC). The acceptable moisture range for HMC as livestock feed is between 22 and 28 percent.

There is no charge for being listed as an HMC seller or trucker, and the list is free to livestock producers. To be put on the list of to obtain a copy of it, call 517-336-1555 at MSU or 1-800-968-3129 at MFB.

The list, updated every few days, is available at all MSU county Extension offices and at all MFB county of-

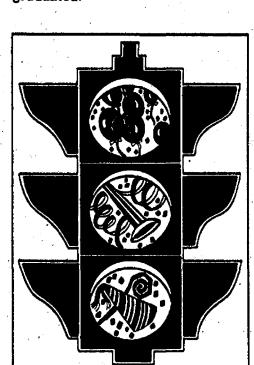

The corn listing which started about three weeks ago, is being co-ordinated by MSU Extension, MFB and the Michigan Farm Radio Network.

It is anticipated that the listing will be continued for several months. The list does not carry prices for corn or trucking. Only people who wish to sell or haul corn are listed. The names of people who wish to buy corn are kept confidential. No guarantee on the quality of the corn will be made by either MSU Extension, Michigan Farm Buireau or Michigan Farm Radio Netowrk.

Ski Trips Offered By Community Ed.

For the third consecutive year the Chelsea Recreation Council is sponsoring Ski Trips to Mt. Brighton on Sunday afternoons.

This year the trips will take place on Jan. 10, 17, 24 and 31, and Feb. 7. As usual, a Blue Lakes Charter bus will leave the Chelsea High school parking lot at 2 p.m. Skiers will arrive at Mt. Brighton at approximately 2:45 p.m. Skiing will begin by 3 p.m. and last until approximately 9 p.m. The bus will arrive back at CHS parking lot by 10 p.m.

All middle and high school students are eligible to participate. Registration for each trip can be done at the Chelsea Community Ed/Recreation Office at the high school. The deadline for each trip is the preceding Friday. It is possible to register for all or any of the trips at one time.

Price of the trip is $20 and includes, in addition to lift tickets and transportation, an All-Area upgrade and a free lesson. Equipment can be rented, if necessary, for $8.

This program provides an afternoon and evening of exercise and wholesome fun during this winter period and has developed an enthusiastic following. Because of this, it is suggested that registrations be completed as soon as possible.

Pinckney Area Man Takes Part in Marine Exercise on Okinawa

Marine Lance Cpl. John T. Haddon, son of John T. and Judith A. Haddon of 3529 Rush Lake Rd., Pinckney, recently participated in HATRAKU UMA-II, a 24-hour battali-level exercise with 9th Motor Transport Battalion, 3rd Force Service Support Group, Okinawa, Japan.

The goals of the exercise were to increase the training readiness of the Marines and unit in areas of convoy movement and control, nuclear, biological and chemical defense, individual battle skills, physical conditioning, night movement by foot and vehicle and human resource skills, to include suicide awareness and "core values" training.

HATRAKU UMA-II is from the Japanese and translates as the "workhorse." Ninth Motor Transpport Battalion is known as "Workhorse of the Pacific" and it has been a valued member of the Fleet Marine Force for the past 39 years.

Cpl. Haddon joined the Marine Gorps in June 1989.

1992 CHELSEA HISTORY:

Year-End News Summary

January . . .

1—Western Washtenaw Recycling Authority expects to receive a contract from the Department of Natural Resources shortly after the first of the year. Authority chair Ron Mann was told by DNR that the agency will send out contracts to all grant recipients after Jan. 1. The authority hopes the contract will arrive for its next meeting on Wednesday, Jan. 8 at 7 p.m. at Manchester Township Hall. The grant approved earlier this year is a comprehensive recycling project in the western portion of the county.

1—Portrayals of flag events are to be part of the Historic American Flag Display being prepared for permanent exhibit in the Dwight E. Beach Middle school. Pictures acquired thus far have been gathered from museums, newsphoto service and the Bettmann Archive whose immense collection comes from world sources. All paintings in the Chelsea display will, of course, be reproductions.

8—Completion of landfill negotiations with the townships and Department of Natural Resources, preparing for an early closing of the landfill, development of an infrastructure repair plan, and planning for the renovation of the village office building are four major issues the Village of Chelsea hopes to tackle in 8—Chelsea wrestlers took fourth place at the 19-team Jackson County Western Invitational last Saturday. The Bulldogs were in half point out of third place with 131.5 points just behind Southgate with 132. Allegan won the tournament with 199.5 points and Western was second with 169.5.

8—Chelsea School District's December survey of voters who cast ballots in the September bond issue election yielded a mixed bag of results with no clear mandates, the board of education was told Monday night. Fifteen volunteers asked 107 voters a series of open-ended questions designed to determine why the $23.75 million bond issue failed, as well as, what kind of package voters would support.

15-Village electric department employee Paul Newhouse has filed suit against the village over his demotion from acting superintendent of the department. Newhouse, who was removed from the position Oct. 1 by the village manager Jack Myers, filed his suit in Washtenaw County Circuit Court on Dec. 30, the final day of the statute of limitations in "whistleblower" cases. Newhouse contends he was removed from the position because his actions caused an electrical contractor to be fined by Washtenaw county for failure to obtain the proper permit for work at the home of village president Richard Steele. The fine amounted to $80, or double the permit amount, a standard county procedure.

15—McKune Memorial Library is starting a new program for the public. This program will provide library service to people unable to come to the library themselves. The only requirement for the service is that the person be a resident of the service area of the library and that the person is restricted to their home by problems of illness, handicap injury or age.

PICKETERS appeared outside the North Sharon Baptist church on Sundays after two church workers were accused of child sexual abuse in November.

22—A formal, revised sex education curriculum for grades 5-12 was adopted Monday night by the Cheisea Board of Education. The curriculum, called a "Human Sexuality Course of Study," was the result of several months of study by the Sex Education Advisory Committee consisting of parents, teachers, clergy and health professionals. Curriculum Director Laurie Bissell called it a "middle-of-the-road" program, which some will not consider conservative enough and others will find too conservative. 22-Chelsea Village Council officially established a Drug Law Enforcement Fund last Tuesday, although the fund has actually been in existence for about a year. Chelsea Police Chief Lenard McDougall said he opened the fund in December of 1990. The fund initially had about $23,100 in it, but since then the department has purchased its two bicycles, three portable radios and two pistols, McDougall said. State forfeiture laws allow police departments to set up such funds from cash and property seized in drug busts, and the money must be used for drug law enforcement.

29—Former village president Jerry Satterthwaite said Monday he is "99 percent sure" he'll attempt to oust village president Richard Steele in the March 9 elections. Satterthwaite said he has his petition filled out and plans to turn them in by next Monday's deadline. He also said he has persuaded former village trustee Gary Bentley to seek re-election to council.

29—Society Bank has introduced a Chelsea Facade Loan Program, designed to stimulate reinvestment in Chelsea's downtown buildings. "We have been impressed with the progress of Chelsea's downtown rejuvenation project," noted George Cress, chairman, president and CEO of Society Bank, Michigan. "We recognize that, in order for the DDA to reach its ultimate goal, it needs the active support of the Chelsea business community. We hope that the Chelsea Facade Loan Program will encourage business and real estate owners to reinvest in downtown Chelsea," Cress added.

29—Chelsea Board of Education has asked the district administration to devise a plan for permanent budget cuts for school district's buget. Assistant superintendent Fred Mills said the amount was unspecified but indicated the plan would probably include cuts totaling about $200,000. He said he and superintendent Joe Piasecki would probably present a plan to the board by early March.

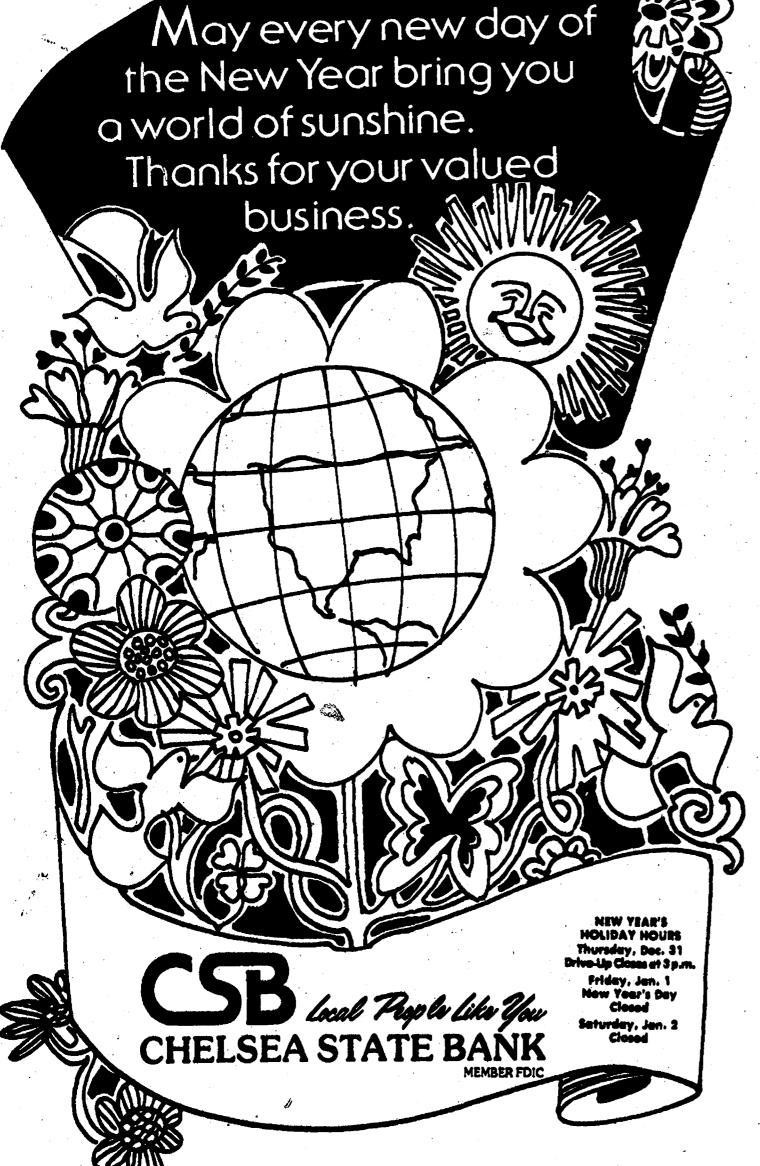

February . . .

5-How circumstances change in one year. It promises to be one of the most interesting and unusual elec-tions in Chelsea Village history this March as four candidates will face off for president and seven will compete for three seats on the village council. In 1991 three candidates ran unopposed for trustee in one of the most lowkey elections ever. Every person who has run for village president since 1984 is in this election for the same spot. One-term incumbent Richard Steele, and former president Jerry Satterthwaite and Charles Ritter will all be on the ballot, along with 21-yearold political newcomer Todd

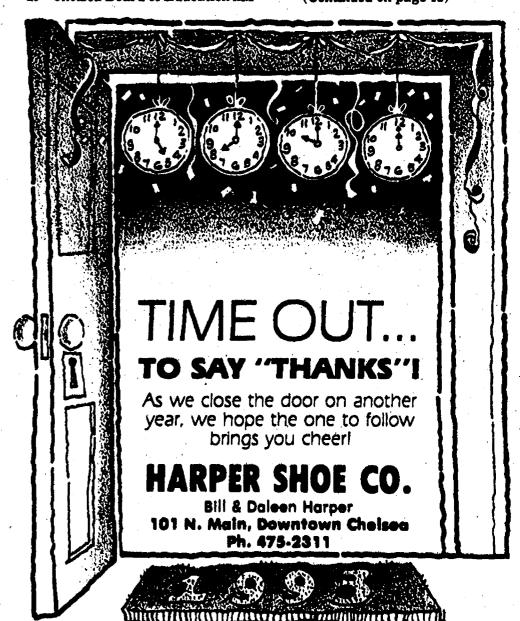

5—After a long discussion, Chelsea Board of Education has decided to hold the district's annual millage election at the traditional time in June rather than in a special election in April. The administration had recommended the special election for two reasons. Washtenaw Intermediate School Districts plans to ask for 1.45 mills in June. And an early vote might allow the district to avoid any lay-offs. By law, teachers who are laid off have to be notified 60 days before the end of the school year.

12-The financial outlook for the Chelsea School District is growing murkier by the day as state legislators try to figure out how to make funding for school districts more equitable. The most recent proposal by Rep. Dan DeGrow of Port Huron calls, essentially, for all out-offormula districts such as Cheisea to pick up social security payments for all their employees. The state now pays those costs for all districts. The state would theoretically disperse that money to in-formula districts. DeGrow's proposal is a way to get around the recently passed Tax Base Sharing legislation. If DeGrow's pro-

Chelsea Teams Have Full Slate Starting Monday

Chelsea High school sports teams get back into action next week after the two-week holiday break.

Coach Robin Raymond's varsity basketball team, as well as Dave Quilter's junior varsity team, has two non-conference games before heading back into Southeastern Conference play on Tuesday, Jan. 12 against Dexter at home. On Jan. 5 the Bulldogs host Manchester, then on Saturday, Jan. 9 they travel to Ann Arbor to play Gabriel Richard.

The Bulldogs hope to have injured players Dana Schmunk, David Stimpson, and Matt Seitz back next week. Chelsea is 2-2 in the early going and

1-2 in the SEC. Coach Dan Montgomery's varsity volleyball team has its first competition of the season on Monday against Ypsilanti, followed by an away match Invitational on Saturday. Coach Dave Jolly's varsity swimmers host Novi on Tuesday and at Milan on Thursday and the Chelsea

Okemos on Thursday, After Thursday they'll have just three more home meets in the season.

On Thursday, coach Kerry Kargel's varsity wrestlers get back into SEC action at home against Milan. After that meet the wrestlers will have only three more home meets, all in late January and early February. On Saturday they'll compete in the Jackson County Western Invitational.

The wrestlers are 1-0 in the SEC. Freshman basketball team, coached by Lonnie Mitchell, hosts Milan on Monday.

Beach Middle school volleyball teams, coached by Ann Schaffner and Linda Turok, begin play on Tuesday, Jan. 26 against Lincoln and the wrestling team, coached by Sam Vogel, opens Saturday, Jan. 16 at the Hillsdale Invitational. Coach Dave Brinklow's swimming team faces Pinckney in its first meet on Monday,

Frozen Lakes, Rivers

Sheriff Ronald J. Schebil is reminding Washtenaw county citizens of the unpredictable dangers they may en-

It is not uncommon for waters in this area to be only partially or very thinly frozen due to the fact that many

SPORTS NOTES

BY BRIAN HAMILTON

There was a time on the Pinckney High school football field this fall when I didn't think I'd survive the 1992 Chelsea sports scene. The Pinckney Pirates game was by far the most emotional event of the entire year for Chelsea sports fans and the finest night in the last half-dozen years for Bulldogs football fans. A comefrom-behind, double-overtime, 21-20 victory for the league championship, with plenty of fireworks at the end.

Some football parents have told me they didn't even see the last five minutes of the game because they couldn't bear to watch. They sat, in some cases kneeled, with their hands over their eyes,

That game gets my vote for Chelsea Sports Event of the Year. It was one of those rare games that everyone knew would be good yet it far surpassed everyone's expectations. Without a doubt the most thrilling high school football game I've ever seen.

1992 was an usual year in many other respects. It marked the end of the high school trail for perhaps the finest all-ground gthlete but certainly the finest all-around student-athlete Chelsea has ever pro-Buced.

Mike Terpstra was a state-level competitor in three sports. He finished his career here last spring with an appearance at the state track meet. Last winter he Slaced second in class B in wrestling. The year before he was the state Beavyweight champion. He played in the high school all-star football game this summer because he was an all-state lineman. And he decided to attend Harvard University. What a career.

If I were giving awards, Mike Terpstra would be my Athletic Student of the Year, as much for his accumulated achievements during his four years as for any accomplishments in 1992.

Chelsea also lost its best-ever baseball player in Jacob Rindle, who moved on To Michigan State University.

Everyone around here figured Rindle would be drafted and in the starting notation for the Calorado Rockies or starting at first base for the Florida Marlins. Well, it didn't work out as expected but it probably worked out for the best. He'll get a good education, and if I had to bet I'd guess we'll be watching him on TV Lomeday.

Rindle was superb in so many ways. But one stat describes his career better han any other. He is the only player in Michigan high school history to be named to The Dream Team twice.

Weather was a big factor in 1992. The Chelsea invitational softball tournawhent was rained out. A snowstorm sabotaged Chelsea's passing game in the regional football finals against Jackson Lumen Christi.

1992 was a year of doubles. The Bulldogs football team played its first two play-off games ever.

The Chelseo baseball and softball teams each reached the region play-offs in the first game by one run in the bottom of the seventh inning.

The boys and airls cross country teams each qualified for the state finals in Grand Rapids, placing fifth and fourth, respectively, to cap outstanding seasons. Two Chelsea coaches received state-wide honors. Pat Clarke was named Girls Tross Country Coach of the Year by the Michigan High School Coaches Association. Roger Cox was one of four Assistant Football Coaches of the Year, so named by the Michigan High School Football Coaches Association.

1992 also had plenty of outstanding individual accomplishments. Charity Allen was the state intermediate hurdles champion. Lisa Monti became a two-time istate cross country champion and set numerous school cross country and track Pecords. Kelly Cross earned all-state honors in softball for the second straight year. Rindle was named a High School All-American. Jon Royce set a school high Tump record at 6-10, a mark that will stand for many years. Sophomore Ryan Schultz earned cross country all-state honors. Senior Tom Poulter was an all-state

Catcher Adam Taylor picked off so many runners at second he looked like Super Mario with fireballs. Lead-off hitter and pitching ace Jennifer Petty had such a high on-base percentage you would think softball coach loo Beard was operating with a faulty calculator. She may have been the most under rated player in the FORMER CHELSEA HIGH STUDENT Jacob Rindle received his official recognition as a High School Ali-American baseball player on Friday, Dec. 18 before the home basketball game. Rindle, who's playing for Michigan State University this year, was selected as a first baseman. Rindle was also the only player in state history to be twice selected to the state Dream Team. From left are his parents, Dennis and Mary Hubbard, Rindle, and Wayne Welton, Chelsea baseball coach.

1992 CHELSEA HISTORY:

Year-End News Summary

posal bcomes law, and Chelsea assistant superintendent Fred Mills said he expects it will, it could have a devasting financial effect locally.

12—Village officials acted properly in their demotion of Paul Newhouse from acting-superintendent of the village's Electric and Water Department because the dismissal was based on Newhouse's poor work performance and lack of initative and supervisory skills, the village contends.

19—Early retirements within the Washtenaw County Sheriff's Department this spring could have an impact on law enforcement activities in the western part of Washtenaw county. Somewhere between 15-20 officers, including vidrtually the entire detective bureau, are planning to take advantage of an early retirement proposal hammered out in the last contract negotiations, according to Sheriff Ron Schebil. Some of those who plan to retire are Sgt. Harley Rider, who runs the traffic bureau and works crash investigation, Sgt. Joe Yekulis, a Chelsea resident who was instrumental in setting up the new 911 system and training its staff, Chelsea resident Det. Paul Wade, who has handled numerous crimes in the area and led a response team to track the escapes from local prison camps, and Det. William Kennon, who worked on the Sue Ellen Curtis murder case. 19-There are two fewer official candidates for village office than originally thought. Rosemary Harook's nominating petition for trustee was disallowed due to a technicality about the way it was filled out. Also, Todd Thurkow's petition for village president was invalidated because it was not signed by at least 15 registered voters.

26—The village plans to make a major change in how it uses its electric fund, long a source of easy money for major construction projects and various village programs. Although the change amounts to a change in accounting practices, it may force the village to postpone projects it would have easily completed in years past.

26-The Christmas in April concept of people helping people and neighbors helping neighbors has sparked a flame in the hearts of many Chelsea residents and service groups. Chelsea Chapter of Christmas in April has set its goal at 150 volunteers and $10,000 in donations to help repair five area homes of the elderly and handicapped.

28-Village council changed the way it uses the village's electric fund, long a source of loans to a variety of departments. Council transferred $1.2 million to the general fund "in lieu of taxes." The village from here on will transfer 6.5 percent of total revenues annually. Loans can only be made if there is a reasonable chance they can be paid back by the receiving department. Prevailing prime rate will be used and loans have to be paid back in

29-Rob Coelius and Scott Leeman were champions for Chelsea High school at the Frankenmuth Forensics Invitational with their duo presenta-

29—Chelsea heavyweight Mike Terpstra took second place at the regional wrestling meet in his bid for a second

29-Chelsea freshman Matt McVittie was a two-time champion at the Southeastern Conference swim meet. winning the 200 individual medley and the 100 freestyle.

March . . .

2-A Pleasant Lake Rd. woman reported seeing a black panther in the back yard of her rented farmhouse. She said several sheep have turned up missing recently.

3-Chelsea School District reported that students here scored significantly better than the statewide average on the annual Michigan Educational Assesment Program test. The tests are given to middle school and high school students.

3-A 71-year-old Chelsea-area woman was nearly abducted from the parking lot at Polly's Market. The potential abductor was frightened away by a car that pulled up next to the Chelsea woman's.

9-Village voters re-elected village president Richard Steele and incumbent trustees Joe Merkel and Frank Hammer in the annual elections. Former trustee Gary Bentley was also elected. Steele was given 254 votes, former village president Charles Ritter was second with 179 votes, and former village president Jerry Satterthwaite was third with 129

9-Bulldogs basketball team won its first district tournament game since 1983 with a 75-73 defeat of Brooklyn Columbia Central.

10-Village council approved a record budget of $2,195,273. 10-Village manager Jack Myers reported that landfill negotiations with Sylvan, Lima, Lyndon, and Dexter townships were stalled over longterm obligations and that two separate agreements may be drawn 13-Chelsea Bulldogs lost in the finals of the district basketball tournament, 63-61, to Tecumseh.

14—Heavyweight Mike Terpstra placed second at the state tournament, losing 5-2 in the finals to nemesis Rollie Ferris.

16—Assistant school superintendent Fred Mills told the board of education that the district would lose $56,734 to tax base sharing rather than the estimated $196,000 because the state was supplied faulty information regarding the value of property in the 17-Western Washtenaw voters preferred former Sen. Paul Tsongas of Massachusetts in the Democratic presidential primary.

20-Chelsea Recreation Council's Five Year Plan was approved by the Michigan Department of Natural Resources, the first step toward the development of 13 acres of land to be donated by Dana Corp. next to the current softball diamonds on Sibley

1-Chelsea Shell plans to tear down their facility on M-52 near I-94 and replace it with a much larger conve-

2—County emergency and govern-ment officials gave their full endorsement to the new 911 system after a review of complaints. 6-Chelsea Board of Education approved a list of cuts totaling $634,021 if voters do not approve a 1.95 mill increase in June. The cuts would include lay-offs and would eliminate many extra-curricular activities.

6—Board of Education incumbents Joe Redding and John Eisenbeiser will be challenged by Domingo Hermosillo in the June elections. 7-Chelsea Milling Co. confirmed that it is planning to build a 125,000-square-foot shipping and warehouse complex on North St. 7—Sylvan Township Superivsor

Don Schoenberg and clerk Mary Harris said that they will not seek reelection in the fall. They have both served the township for many years.

10-Someone set fire to a paper towel rack in a bathroom at Chelsea High school but an alert teacher put out the blaze with a fire extinguisher. Police had four suspects in the case. Smoke caused an estimated $7,100 in damage to adjoining rooms.

14—Freedom township votes to drop out of the Western Washtenaw Recycling Authority over concerns about the cost of the program. 15—The village said it has spent $737,552 to date to close out the old landfill.

21-Board of Education identified teachers who would lose their jobs if voters reject a 1.95 mill increase.

21—Jackie Tracy resigned as director of Community Education to take a teaching position at Eastern Michigan University. She was the district's first community education director.

22—Western Washtenaw Recycling Authority puts its program on hold until it hears presentations from the area's two largest rubbish haulers. 25—A huge group of volunteers turned out for Christmas in April program despite cool temperatures and rain. The volunteers worked to repair and clean up five area homes. 27-Chelsea First United Methodist church confirms that it is planning a $1.2 million expansion project, with the first phase totaling $450,000. Phase one will have a lobby area, handicap access bathrooms, and offices and will connect to the main building.

28—A citizens group begins the Pierce Park Playground Project.

A New Year's Message for kids (of all ages)

We all want to be happy.

To be happy, you must make a habit of striving to do your best—never stop!

INSTEAD OF OBJECTS, STRIVE TO POSSESS:

A Sense of Humor and A Genuine Smile.

A smile that puts your eyes into it . . . without your eyes, you are only exposing teeth! A smile doesn't cost you anything, and when you try to give it away, you get another right back!

Good Character.

Don't be afraid of work.

By that I don't mean you should fall asleep on the job to prove you aren't afraid of it. I mean you should "dig in" and get the job done to the best of your ability.

Be trustworthy and keep out of trouble. IF you wouldn't want your mom to witness what you are tempted to do, THEN don't do it.

Be Intelligent.

We all possess intelligence regardless of what anyone tells you. If you wish to learn, then use your eyes and ears more than your mouth. (Save your mouth for your smile!)

Don't go around bragging to show what a wit you are, beause there is a 50% chance that you are

Don't assume that when you finish school you will be educated because you must use the knowledge that you acquired in school to really become educated.

Another most important thing is to keep the main person in your life happy. When you are a kid, that person is your mother. When you are an infant, a very deep bond develops between you and your mother, through touch and eye contact. This unspoken bond should never be broken. Don't worry her and do the things you are supposed to do without being told to. Do your share of the domestic chores that your mom says are necessary. If you are a male, I guarantee that you will not feel less manly for doing the right thing.

Having practiced the above rules, just Be. Happiness will follow.

This, I dedicate to my mother, with love, Roy Oesterle candidate Bill Clinton said he opposed reducing the estate tax exemption from its current $600,000 level to $200,000, according to Ai Almy, director of public affairs for Michigan Farm Bureau.

Will Survive Clinton

"Key congressmen likewise say matter, following a failed attempt in the last Congress," Almy said. "That sounds like good news for farmers who would like to see their family farms stay in the family. Farm the current $600,000 exemption would be a severe blow to the nation's farmers. Farmers have fought for years to raise the exemption level to transfer of family farms from one generation to the next," he said.

On the surface, it looks like the current estate tax code is off limits, according to Almy, but there are "no guarantees that a reduction in the exemption level couldn't happen. Rumors of a reduction won't go away, largely because some lawmakers and economic think-tanks keep citing estate taxes as a prime means of raising new federal revenues." Almy said that recurring rumors of an effort to lower the exemption level have a basis in Clinton's statement that he favors higher taxes for individuals with incomes above $200,000. "The tax-the-rich arguements might be initially attractive to the general public, but middle-class homeowners are beginning to realize that inflation has driven the value of their home and life-long possessions to levels they did 28-Dayspring Gifts announced that it is planning to move across the street into the former D & C Store building. Owner Laurie Gravelyn wants more space.

30-National Labor Relations Board hearing officer Patricia Zane recommended that the 75-34 vote to allow the UAW to organize workers at Chelsea Industries, Inc. be allowed to stand. She rejected all company objections to the vote.

October . . .

2-Chelsea Postmaster Larry Williams retired after 21 years in

2-Annual "Fourth Friday" count of Chelsea students shows there are just 10 more students than last year, a total of 2,523. The number was far fewer than expected.

2—Animal rights activists halted deer hunting in the Pinckney Recreation Area. It is bow season.

3-Chelsea Color Guard won the Eastern Michigan University Band

Day Competition. 10-Potential developers of a 4,000-acre parcel in Sylvan and Lima townships revealed a little more information about the project. They said it would generate "significant employment," would not include heavy industry, and would be non-polluting.

13-Lima township supervisor Bill Van Riper told village council that his township would contribute $500 to the Ann Arbor Transportation Authority bus contract for service between Ann Arbor and Chelsea. Total contract price is $4,830. It was believed the contribution would save the route for at least another year.

13-Village trustee Gary Bentley resigned from village council because he is moving out of the village.

19-Chelsea Board of Education voted to purchase 50 acres of farmland at the northeast corner of Freer and Trinkle Rds. from Duane and Elsie Weiss for $200,000. The parcel should enable the district to handle any expansion plans for the foreseeable future.

20—Chelsea Bulldogs boys and girls cross country teams both won the SEC meet and became league champions. 20-Chelsea realtor Connie Woodruff was appointed to replace Gary Bentley on village council.

22—The village was informed that Michigan Underground Storage Tank Financial Assurance fund would pay for the clean-up of the North St. garage. The clean-up is estimated to cost $300,000.

23—Chelsea Bulldogs won their first Southeastern conference football championship since 1986 with a 21-20 victory over the Pinckney Pirates in double over-time.

28-Sam Cupp of Warren became the new owner of Siegrist Chevrolet in Grass Lake. Long-time owner Ray Siegrist and partner Penny Hicks were forced to sell the dealership.

31-Chelsea Shopping Center developer Rene Papo was informed that Chelsea's Ames Department Store will close as part of bankruptcy

31—Chelsea girls cross country team easily won the region championship in Jackson, and senior Lisa Monti was a region champion. Chelsea boys were second.

BETSY SOROOSH was the first Dexter girl to become the Chelsea Community Fair Queen.

$November \dots$

3-Western Washtenaw voters generally preferred President George Bush over Arkansas Gov. Bill Clinton in the national elections. Independent Ross Perot faired better here than nationally. Residents here also lost their Republican voice in the state house and U.S. congress as Democrat Mary Schroer defeated Republican Mark Ouimet for state representative and Democrat Bob Carr defeated Republican Dick Chrysler for Congress.

5—Sylvan township board voted to contribute $1,000 to the $4,830 contract for bus service between Chelsea and 6-Chelsea Buildogs defeated Lakewood Lake Odessa, 27-17, in their first-ever play-off football game.

7-Chelsea girls cross country team placed fourth and the boys team placed fifth at the state class B meet in Grand Rapids. Lisa Monti was state champion.

Challenging golf courses. Michigan snowbirds head to Florida, South Carolina, Tennessee and Texas during the winter months more than to any other U.S. destination for mostly the above reasons, AAA Michigan reports.

According to Peter Erickson, head of AAA Michigan's touring department, Florida tops the list. "Between December 1991 and March 1992, AAA Michigan members requested 42,367 TripTiks and routings to Florida," Erickson said. "The most popular city was Orlando, home of Disney World and Epcot Center."

Erickson said the second most desirable winter destination, with 7,988 requests for TripTiks, was Myrtle Beach, S.C. Myrtle Beach is known for its beaches and golf courses. More than 70 golf courses are carved from the wooded sandhills within a halfhour drive from town. Excellent deep

The Texas resort town of South Padre Island is growing in popularity with students and families searching for a warm weather destination and ranks fourth with 5,359 TripTiks requested last winter. The island is a haven for artists, photographers and ecologists. Gulls, herons and pelicans are found among the island's tropical foliage, picturesque waterways, windcarved dunes and long, white beaches. This lovely beach town provides excellent fishing and water sports opportunities. There are facilities for tennis, racquetball, golf, shuffleboard and horseback riding and a wide variety of lodging and restaurants.

Washtenaw Residents Win $20.7 Million in Lottery

The Michigan Lottery celebrated its 20th anniversary in November-20 years of success! Since its inception in 1972, the Lottery has awarded more than $6 billion in prizes to players, and provided more than $5 billion to Michigan's K-12 public education system. To top it all off, the Lottery reached an all-time sales record this year with sales soaring to nearly $1.22

In fiscal year 1991/92, Washtenaw county residents won a total of $20,702,391 in prizes. 26,134 Daily 3 game winners won a total of $3,138,047. 4,170 Daily 4 games winners won a total of $1,524,628.

8,703 Lotto winners won a total of $11,278,100. 10,705 Zinger and Cash 5 winners won a total of $542,250.

of instant games. More than 45 million prizes totaling $615.4 million were won by players state-wide this year, an almost 9 percent increase over last year. In addition, there were 259 players who won $50,000 or more last year, which means that on average more than 20 players each won at least $50,000 every month.

"This has been an exciting year for everyone at the Michigan Lottery including our players and our retailers," said Michigan Lottery Commissioner Jerry Crandall.

"We've hosted special promotions, second-chance giveaways and even introduced a new game, 'Cash 5',' Crandall said. "Best of all, we topped it off with an all-time record sales year! I couldn't think of a better way to celebrate the Lottery's 20th anniversary. And it couldn't have been done without the strong support of our players and the co-operation and enthusiasm of our retail agents."

In 1918, the first use of federal government contracts to restrict the employment of child labor took place. The following year the Revenue Act of 1919 was passed to tax employers of child labor. By JOSEPH WALKER

So I'm sitting here at year's end, looking at a blank computer monitor and wishing it would suddenly fill with well-chosen words, when this oldlooking guy walks in. And not "old" like your grandfather or those Rudy Valee records in the attic. This guy looks old. Like a giant redwood tree. Or the sphinx. Or that ham we had for Christmas dinner.

Serious old.

"Don't do what?" I asked, startled. "That!" he said, pointing to the lone letter I had typed on the computer monitor.

I assumed my elderly guest-was computer illiterate and thought I was working some kind of magic on the screen (fat chance, huh?). So I tried to explain it in basic terms: "It all started back in the 1400s with a man named Gutenberg-perhaps you knew him?"

"There's no need for condescention, young man," the Old Guy said testily. "I've been dealing with computers and word processors my whole life. Hey-I'm a child of the '90s."

Yeah, right, I thought. The 1890s-give or take a century or two-"If you're so savvy," I asked him, "why were you trying to stop me from writing-unless, of course, you've read my stuff, in which case I understand . . . "I couldn't care less what you write," he said. "It's that screen I'm worried about."

I looked carefully at my monitor. "Is it going to explode or something?" "Heavens no," he said. "It's just that it's so beautiful I didn't want you to ruin it."

"But it's blank," I said. "Yes, it is-and isn't that the most wonderful thing you've ever seen?" This was getting pretty strangeeven for me. So I asked him: "Who

"You don't recognize me, do you?

Come on-take a good, close look." I had to admit that there was something about him that seemed familiar, from the deep creases on his forehead to the mud caked on his slippers. I just couldn't place him. "Here, let me help you," he said. "See these lines on my forehead? They're worry wrinkles. I got this one from worrying about starving people in Africa, this one from worrying about hurricane victims and this one from worrying about the world economy. These lines in my arms aren't wrinkles-they're scars. I got this one during the Los Angeles riots, this one in Bosnia and this one during a peace demonstration in Germany.

"And what about the bandage around your knee?" I wanted to know. "Football injury. Cheap shot. Blasted artificial turf."

It all started to make sense—the 'X" cap, the Dream Team t-shirt and those cute little "Beauty and the Beast" slippers he was wearing. I even recognized the thick mud on-his slippers. After all, it hasn't been that long since Election Day, has it?

"You're 1992, aren't you?" "In the flesh," he said. "For now, anyway."

That explained his appearance. But it didn't explain his obsession with my

"That does seem a little odd doesn't it?" he acknowledged. "It's just that empty screens remind me of the good old day-January 1, 1992. My whole life was ahead of me. I was an unwritten story, a blank page, an empty computer screen-pick your favorite metaphor. I was unknown and exciting and filled with potential.

"But now my story is written. It's over. Done. Finis. And I'm outta here. Not that I mind or anything—it goes with the territory. But whenever I see a blank screen I get a little crazy because I don't think people realize what a wonderful gift they receive every New Year's Day. It's another blank screen. Another empty page. Another unwritten story. Each January is a chance to begin again—only you get to try to do it better."

"But sooner or later we've got to start writing on that screen," I reminded him. "And eventually, we're all going to make some mistakes.

"I know," he said. "And that's OK as long as you learn from each mistake and take advantage of New Year's opportunity for growth through change and improvement. Otherwise, you'll just keep writing the same old story year after year. And if you ask me, that's a waste of good, clean paper."

He started to leave, but first he reached out and deleted the letter on he added before hurrying. away, "good, blank computer screens."

JET SET: Two kittens with their food, dishes, supplies and a fund to payfor shots, neutering and spaying made the trip by air from Dallas, Tex., to the loving care of Pamela Gray on Saturday, Dec. 5. Mickey Costello of Dallas was unable to keep the two kittens that had been dropped off at her home, because of allergies. The Joseph Zielinski family of Chelsea adopted the two kittens Wednesday, Dec. 9 at 8:30 a.m. in The Chelsea Standard parking lot. Shown is Pamela Gray holding the white male kitten named "Standard" who is now owned by 6-year-old Joshua. Joseph Zielinski is holding brindle grey "Chelsea," female. 5-year-old Mary Beth is the proud owner of "Chelsea." Marsha Zielinski is holding Amanda, her 1-year-old daughter.

GRETCHEN TARCHINSKI was one of six people whom the Washtenaw County Board of Commissioners recognized with resolutions of appreciation at their Western County early and the standard with resolutions of appreciation at presented by chair Meri Lou Murray, on behalf of the board, explaining, "Gretchen Tarchinski has been a loyal and dedicated friend of the Board of Commissioners and county administration for many years. She has given unselfishly of her time and effort to many worthwhile community projects, and has been an inspiration to others, while carrying out various responsibilities, yet holding full-time employment, and being a devoted mother and homemaker. She has endeared herself to the Board of Commissioners and county administration, and has become a welcomed, friendly addition to our 'board office.' The Washtenaw County Board of Commissioners expresses its appreciation to Gretchen Tarchinski for the many courtesies extended to the board and county administration, and for her unwavering friendship over the years, and all goodwishes to her for continued health and happiness.'

Applications Due Soon for Ann Arbor Street Art Fair

Artist applications are now available for the 1993 version of what was voted the Best Summer Festival in 1992 by readers of Michigan Living Magazine. Dates for the 34th annual Ann Arbor Street Art Fair are set for July 21, 22, 23 and 24 in 1993. Artists interested in being in this nationally known event must apply by Feb. 15. Artists interested in applying to the 1993 Ann Arbor Street Art Fair (AASAF) should request an applica-tion by writing to the Fair at P.O. Box 1352, Ann Arbor 48106. Those needing more details about the Fair may speak to a staff person by calling 313-994-5260. The Ann Arbor Street Art Fair is the original juried fair of three concurrent art fairs all happening in downtown Ann Arbor July 21-24 in 1993. In 1992 more than 400,000 visitors attended. In addition to premiere visual artists from all over the U.S., the Ann Arbor Art Fairs also feature artists demonstrations, musical performances, children's art activity areas, great food and even free longdistance telphone calls!

Ann Arbor Street Art Fair is recommended as one of the top five art fairs in the nation by Larry Harris' List (Harris Rhodes) of the Nation's Best Arts and Craft Shows. This list is developed from recommendations by

Pierce St. Electrical Problem May Be History

Several homes on Pierce St. and Taylor St. in the village have had recurring electrical power fluctuation problems since October. But as of press time, the problem may be fixed.

Acting electrical superintendent Dan Rosentreter said the village has been working on the problem since it was first reported.

Rosentreter said connections have been changed, houses have had their electrical sources changed, and transformers have been changed. On Monday a transformer was changed, which may have solved the problem. A resident reported no problems as of Tuesday morning.
