SCOTT HINDERER and his father and step-mother Ted and Paula Hinderer, were guests of honor last Friday at a great benefit dinner at Chelsea High school cafeteria. Funds from the event will help pay some of Scott's medical bills from his bone marrow and hospitalization. Scott's mother, Linda Murdock was also a special guest.

Conrad Knutsen Earns School Board Award

Conrad Knutsen, a Chelsea school board member, will receive Award of Merit, "Keys to Better Boardmanship" by Michigan Association of School Boards during Region 7 ceremonies, April 20, at Lenawee County Intermediate School District Center.

The Award of Merit is granted when board members earn 75 key points. School trustees earn points through formal instruction, workshops, and seminars on education issues, through service to their community, and for on the job experience.

Knutsen is completing his first term ending June 1995. He serves as vice-president of the school board. Knutsen is a member of the Chelsea Recreation Council, the Chelsea Softball Club, a parent support group, and Kiwanis. He is employed at the University of Michigan Medical Center in cancer research.

He is the father of a daughter currently attending Eastern Michigan University after graduating from Chelsea High school in 1993.

"I'm concerned about education, and I want to do my part," said Knutsen.

Kindergarten Registration Scheduled

Chelsea School District will be holding 1994-95 school year kindergarten registration on May 10 and May 12.

Children who will be five years of age by Dec. 1, 1994 are eligible to enroll in kindergarten for the '94-'95 school year. Parents who are planning to send their child to kindergarten should have received a packet of information from the school district.

Parents who have not received this information should contact the Community Education office at 475-9630.

Chelsea Teen Shot Saturday Expected To Fully Recover

A 15-year-old Dexter township girl was shot in the head by her 12-year-old brother Saturday, April 16.

The accidental shooting was reported in the 13000 block of Riker Rd. when a 911 call came in at 10:30 a.m.

Deputy Marvin "Skip" Davis was the first on the scene. He entered the home and saw the victim on the kitchen floor holding the telephone in one hand and clutching a dish towel to the right side of her face with her other hand. The girl's brother, the suspect, was sitting by her side. Davis saw a gun shot wound above the girl's right eye and heavy bleeding from her neck area, according to a report. A total of three shots were fired.

When a second deputy arrived along with Chelsea Fire Rescue and Huron Valley Ambulance, Davis interviewed the suspect about the incident. The boy told Davis he took a 22-caliber gun out of his parents' closet because he was afraid of the storm and the gun made him feel safe. In the meantime, his sister was asleep on the couch. The boy admitted to shooting her and said he fired the gun two more times because he "freaked out," a report states.

The victim was taken to University of Michigan Hospital by U-M Survival Flight helicopter. Brian Miller, a detective with the Washtenaw County Sheriff's Department, said the girl is in satisfactory condition and is expected to make a full recovery.

The Crisis Intervention Team at Chelsea High school was called in Monday to address the concerns of students. School spokesman Jeff Rohrer, also director of community education, said the day was "nearly a normal day" with just a few students utilizing the team's services.

Commander Mark Ptaszek of the sheriff's department recommends parents who own guns keep their firearms locked up and separated from ammunition. Gun locks that block the trigger mechanism and stop the gun from being fired can also prevent children from accidentally firing guns kept in the home. Ptaszek also stresses the importance of educating children about firearm safety.

School District Will Request 18 Mills on Non-Homestead Property

On Monday, April 18, the Chelsea School Board approved two millage requests to be placed on the June 13 school election ballot.

One of the requests will be for 18 mills on non-homestead property. These 18 mills will not be levied on the taxpayer's home in which they live and for which they filed a homestead exemption certificate by May 1 with their township assessor. The other will be a renewal of the one mill building maintenance millage which will be assessed on all property.

This 18 mill levy is a requirement by the new state school legislation. In order for the school to receive the student foundation grant, they are required to levy these 18 mills. This levy will last for 20 years. The only property that will be assessed these 18 mills will be non-homestead property.

A total of 225 public school districts across the state will present their voters with this 18 mill proposal.

The second proposal will be for one mill for building maintenance. This is a renewal of the one mill for maintenance the district has had for 16 years. It will be assessed on all property, and it will last for three years.

"It will be helpful for the voters to understand the proposals by understanding some of the terminology the state utilizes to explain school funding," said a school district spokesman.

Some of the terms used are:

- Proposal A is the school tax proposal the Michigan voters approved in March.
- A mill of tax is one dollar of property tax for every $1,000 of state equalized assessed value of a home.
- Homestead property is the primary residence of the taxpayer.
- Non-homestead property is rental property, business property, industrial property and second homes.
- State school property taxes are six mills the state assesses on all property. These are not voted mills, they are automatically assessed.
- The foundation grant is the amount of money each school district receives for each student.

- The 18-mill non-homestead property tax is the additional tax the state requires districts to levy in order to qualify for the foundation grant. This tax is voted on by residents of the school district. Chelsea will be voting on these 18 mills on all property other than the homestead of taxpayers.
- Enrichment mills are additional mills the school district can levy to help maintain programs. A district by the vote of the people can levy up to three enrichment mills.
- The five percent assessment cap, beginning in 1995, will cap property assessment increases at five percent or the rate of inflation, whichever is less.
- Last year, the Chelsea School District operational millage was 35.6285 mills. This coming year, the approval of both proposals would tax homestead property at seven mills and non-homestead property at 25 mills.

The millage vote, along with the school board member elections will be held at Beach Middle school on June 13.

Legislation Gives Hatch Tax Break

Legislation providing the Hatch Stamping Co. in Chelsea with a tax abatement of $35,000 to $40,000 has been signed into law by Governor Engler, Rep. Mary Schroer (D-Ann Arbor), sponsor of the bill, said Tuesday.

Because of confusion regarding filing deadlines for the abatement application, Hatch Stamping's information was submitted late (according to the State Tax Commission). The new law allows Hatch Stamping to take advantage of abatement by making an application for abatement be filed within six months after restoration, replacement or construction of a new facility has started.

"All the parties involved had thought the paperwork was submitted on time, but when it was reviewed by the Tax Commission, Hatch Stamping and the village of Chelsea learned otherwise. This one-time measure will enable Hatch Stamping to correct the problem while receiving the abatement to which it is entitled," Rep. Schroer said.

"I am pleased that the Legislature was able to assist this business in my district in such a timely manner," she added.

The legislation was introduced by Rep. Schroer at the request of Hatch Stamping, the Village of Chelsea and the Washtenaw Development Council.

Council OKs Purchase of Police Computer

Chelsea Village Council approved the purchase of a new computer for the Chelsea Village Police Department at its April 12 meeting.

"We expect to be on-line by the middle of May," said Chelsea Police Chief Lenard McDougall.

The computer will tie in to the Washtenaw County Sheriff computer allowing access to the Law Enforcement Intelligence Network (LEIN) and the sheriff department records section. In the future it will allow entry of state and local reports.

Chief McDougall estimates it will save a lot of the time now spent waiting for information over telephones jammed by large volume of calls from across the county. The police department now waits for warrants and file checks on vehicles and property during calls to the telephone LEIN system, McDougall says.

The cost of the computer is $7,500 plus line leasing for a total of $8,500. The village council approved a budget of $12,000.

FBI To Handle Local Bank Robbery

Derrick Durand Worthy of Jackson, who was arrested for the April 8 robbery of the Society Bank in Chelsea, is being charged by the FBI for bank robbery.

The Chelsea Police Department was notified April 16. Local charges are being dismissed.

The warrants issued by the prosecutor's office included three counts of armed robbery and one count of possession of a firearm in the commission of a felony.

Community Hospital Offers Plots For Gardening by Staff, Others

A community garden site sponsored by the Chelsea Community Hospital is opening this spring at the hospital.

Individual garden plots are available to members of the community as well as hospital employees, patients and volunteers.

A small fee per garden plot will be charged to cover costs. Scholarships are available for individuals or families.

Chuck Gemmill, is volunteer co-ordinator, and the garden committee includes: Betty Severn, Fred Mayn, Ernest Shafer, Marguerite Shafer, John Miller, Jan Tolt, Margaret Connors, Jean DuRussel Weston, Cindy Cooke, Ruth Ann Sager and Bev Maniko.

"The program is an extension of the hospital's commitment to wellness and restorative experiences," said Margaret Connors, director of the Chelsea Hospital Medical Library.

People interested in acquiring a garden plot are invited to call Becky Donajkowski, Chelsea Community Hospital Senior Services—475-1811 extension 3913.

Chelsea Players Seeking Talent for Summer Musical

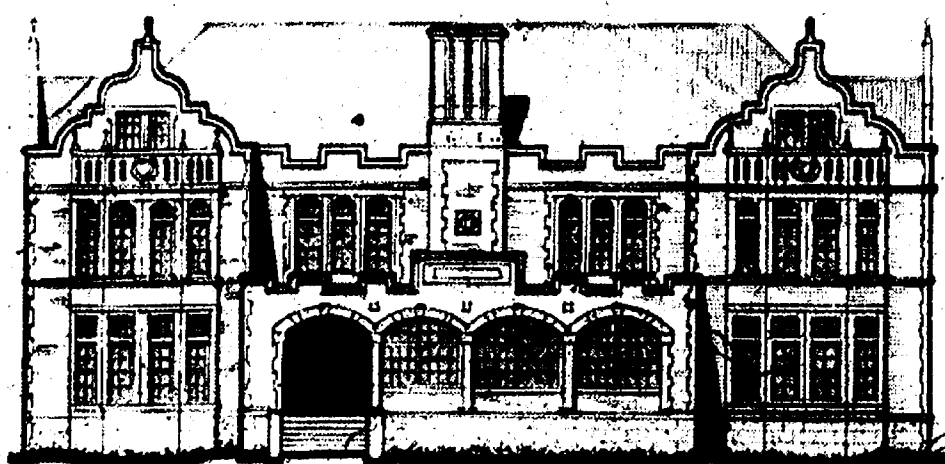

Chelsea Area Players are gearing up for their summer musical production of "The Most Happy Fella." This show features a great deal of music and dance. Details about auditions will be forthcoming.

For those considering auditioning, a limited number of scripts for "The Most Happy Fella" are currently available for preview by contacting Ellie Strong at 475-9011. A $5 refundable deposit will be required for all borrowed scripts.

The Players encourage anyone interested in getting involved, either on stage or behind the scenes, to contact Mark Nelson at 475-6111.

4 Years Ago . . .

Wednesday, April 18, 1990—Dancer's clothing store, a fixture on S. Main St. for more than 25 years, is going out of business. Dancer's will become the fifth downtown Main St. business to close in the last year. Kusterer's Market, Chelsea Hardware Co., Village Lawn & Garden and Chelsea Pharmacy have all closed downtown stores recently, for a variety of reasons. Dancer's owner, Tom Ford of Stockbridge, cited increased competition in the clothing business, an approaching recession, the parking situation and the negative impact of the Chelsea Shopping Center on his business, as reasons for closing his store.

Michigan Department of Natural Resources is likely to approve the village's landfill remediation plan within the next two weeks, according to DNR staff geologist Bar Vetort. The plan, mandated by the landfill consent order signed some time ago by the village, details how the village will clean up ground water pollution at the Werker Rd. landfill. It was filed Feb. 5 by assistant village manager Tom Warstler.

Two major agenda items at Monday's Chelsea Board of Education meeting were delayed as several board members didn't receive their agendas in the mail until Monday. Those items included placing the curriculum director's position on a two-year continuing contract as is the case with other administrators in the system, and approving administrative salary increases.

A new addition to Chelsea's recreational and cultural facilities, to be erected in time for its first summer season, will be the Pierce Park Pavilion. The six-sided, sheltered structure will be the centerpiece for outdoor musical concerts and a variety of entertainment events.

14 Years Ago . . .

Thursday, May 8, 1980—Chelsea High school's symphony band received a royal welcome, including standing ovations, during its trip to Mexico City last week-end. Performing in the International Band Festival, the band got top marks from the judges, one of whom wrote, "It's not hard to tell the kids value their band very much and have an extreme amount of pride in accomplishment. Your community should be very, very proud of you."

Lawton J. Steger, vice-president and general manager of Federal Screw Works, died on May 6 at the age of 69.

A Japanese criminologist, Mike Haruo Mizuno, visited Chelsea last week to observe the workings of a small town American police department. He was impressed by the "close feeling" between police officers and members of the community.

A workshop program has been scheduled for June 9 during which staff members of the Washtenaw County Planning Commission will tell local businessmen how they can revitalize the village's downtown district, using available federal funds.

24 Years Ago . . .

Thursday, May 7, 1970—Chelsea High school had to forfeit three track meets that it had apparently won because an ineligible runner was used. The ruling by the Michigan High School Athletic Association changed the team's record from 4-0 to 1-3.

Some 300 persons attended last Sunday's ceremony dedicating the 14th District Court building at 122 S. Main St. The building was formerly occupied by Chelsea State Bank. Speakers included Chelsea attorney John Keusch and William Rademacher.

Cattle rustlers are active in west Washtenaw county. The latest incident involved the night-time butchering of a 750-pound steer on a Strawberry Lake Rd. farm. There have been several other similar crimes. The high price of beef—up to $1.29 a pound for sirloin steak and 63 cents for hamburger—is encouraging the rustlers to go out and steal animals on the hoof.

★ The Other Educational Choice for Teachers, School Boards

By Joseph P. Overton

Which is the best method for improving the relationship between public school teachers and the parents and school boards who employ them—the carrot or the stick?

Legislative leaders in Lansing vow to do something on this issue soon, and the focus of their attention is the extraordinary power of the state's largest teacher union, the Michigan Education Association (MEA). Most of the proposals being floated are punitive in nature—imposing fines against striking teachers or mandating binding arbitration, for example.

The rising hostility to the MEA is understandable in the wake of its campaign against last month's Proposal A, widely perceived as brazenly deceptive. As The Saginaw News editorialized on March 18, "It should disturb all conscientious teachers that while they strive in the classroom to educate honest citizens, back at the office, their 'leaders' publicly trash the truth for attempted political gain."

In the public eye, teachers will not gain the respect they deserve, if the group that speaks for them deserves none.

The MEA has earned public antipathy for other reasons as well. It opposes charter schools and parental choice. It is against competitive bidding of teacher health insurance. It fights efforts by districts to contain costs by contracting out for support functions, even though it does so itself at its own East Lansing headquarters. And it always demands more money at the same time it resists meaningful ways to be held accountable for its actions.

The MEA hasn't exactly endeared itself to parents, school boards, and taxpayers on the issue of teacher strikes. Michigan law clearly states that "No person holding a position by appointment or employment in the government of the state of Michigan, or in the government of any one or more political subdivisions thereof, or in the public school service . . . shall strike." Yet in the past 10 years, Michigan—with just 3.7 percent of the nation's population—has been home to 14.4 percent of the nation's teacher strikes. More than 100 illegal walk-outs have occurred in this state in that time period.

So what's the answer? Before the legislature sets off in the direction of fines, mandates, edicts, and other forms of punishment, it ought to consider a more positive alternative: simply exempt teachers from the public Employment Relations Act, or PERA.

Instead of allowing individual school employees to deal with their employer directly, PERA forces them to be represented by a single labor union. It forces the school district to bargain collectively with the union leadership. That makes teachers captives of the politics of the union, their individual voices subsumed by the dictates of the whole. It replaces pay and promotion based upon an individual's performance with less relevant measures like seniority. In other words, by granting the union this special privilege, PERA prevents real teacher choice and an open market in labor representation.

For teachers, the question is a fundamental one: Do you want to deal directly with your employer or do you want to be forced to go through the union middleman?

Teachers exempt from PERA could still be members of a labor union and could even bargain collectively. Indeed, 13 states have no mandatory collective bargaining laws for any government employees but still have public employee unions. In one such state, Utah, 28 percent of public employees are covered by union contracts. The difference is that the employees make the decision—to go it alone or join the union of their choice. Unions, in other words, must convince each employee that membership is worth the cost.

In the absence of PERA, teachers could still walk off the job. The school district, however, would not be forced to bargain with strikers or their representatives. They could freely deal with other prospective and willing employees or employee organizations to better meet the needs of the students and school district. The strike issue that has vexed Michigan for years can be resolved, not by threats of punishment, but simply by the freedom of the parties involved to negotiate as best they see fit. Teachers would still come under the protection of wrongful discharge law, just as most other Michigan workers do.

Though mandatory collective bargaining laws like PERA were sold, in part, as a way to foster labor peace, just the opposite has occurred. According to data from the Public Service Research Council, most states which have adopted such laws have subsequently seen huge increases in the number of strikes.

There was only one strike against various levels of government in Michigan between 1968 and 1984. Public employee strikes were made illegal and collective bargaining made mandatory in 1965. Then, between 1965 and 1980, there were 758 strikes! Many of them were staged by teacher unions.

Allowing teachers choice by exempting them from PERA would have other salutary benefits besides resolving the strike question. It would remove the barriers that unaccountable and often unresponsive monopoly unions have erected between parents and teachers. It would inject into the teacher labor market some sensitivity to the costs imposed upon taxpayers. It would also open the door for good teachers to advance and be rewarded according to their merit while hastening the exit of poor performers.

Whether to amend PERA with further dictates or repeal its application to teachers altogether is a question of the carrot or the stick. One gets the job done by relying upon freedom, incentive, and individual choice. The other creates division and animosity by treating teachers like pawns to be pushed and shoved.

If the legislature wants to improve the relationship between teachers and their employers, it doesn't have to pass new laws. It only has to clear the decks of an existing one.

(Joseph P. Overton is vice-president of The Mackinac Center for Public Policy, a Midland-based research and educational organization.)

A typical beef steer goes to market at between two and two-and-a-half years of age at a weight of over 1,100 pounds. When it is processed, it yields about 148 pounds of fat and bone that are trimmed away, and 568 pounds of retail beef cuts.

Uncle Lew from Lima Says:

DEAR MISTER EDITOR:

At last report, Ed Doolittle reported at the country store Saturday night, Congress was about to spend $1 billion on education reform. Of that money, Congress said $700 million would be used to set national academic standards. Ed told the fellows that the way he reads that, $700 million will be spent on figuring out how school systems that apply and qualify can spend $300 million.

With an eye to April 15, Ed said that item pained him more than usual. It is Federal Government business as usual. Ed said, and it calls to mind the story of the woman who put a dollar and a dime in the collection plate for foreign missions of the church. She said the dime was for the heathens, and the dollar was for the administrators to get it to em. We send a dollar to Washington, Ed said, and administrators send back a nickel wrapped in instructions that include hiring local administrators to follow them and file reports.

Furthermore, Ed went on, education reform changes with the moon. What goes around comes around, so if an idea pops up it will be one that was declared dead and buried within the past five years. For instance, Ed said, that $700 million might buy a reminder that full half of high school students in this country want just enough academics to get a job. If we turn back to vocational training we short change students who want to go on to college. If we set up two tracks we'll have to spend another $700 million on standards to decide which children go which way.

And to make sure reform doesn't disturb anything or anybody, Ed went on, as soon as they get the grants all the local administrators will start griping about all the Federal meddling in their business. Their idea of reform is for Government at all levels to give them the money and leave them alone, was Ed's words.

Practical speaking, Clem Webster, said, everybody has his agenda. Recent, he said, the U.S. Department of Education come up with the notion that Federal money spent on education ought to actual cause some education. It got an amendment to an educational funding bill that would require school districts to show that all their teachers were certified by their states, and in the subjects they teach. Those that couldn't or wouldn't would get cutbacks in Federal money.

Immediate, Clem said, local administrators said Washington was trying to take over local schools. That got parents riled up, and they formed political battle lines. Education was forgot in all the name calling, but Clem said he hasn't heard of the amendment since.

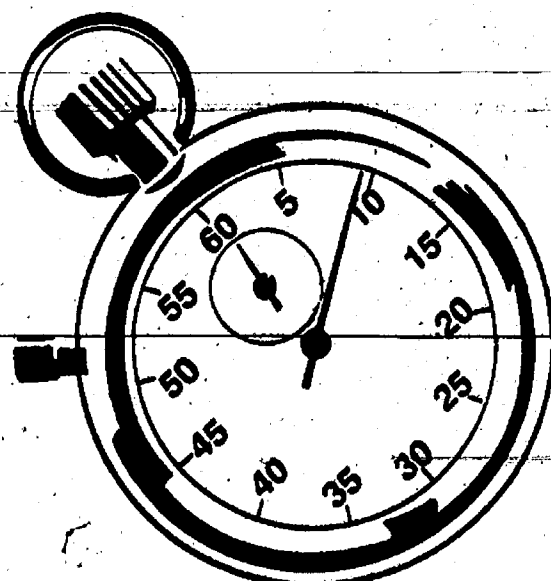

As for agendas, Zeke Grubb said he saw where a book is out called "A History of Hell." The item in the paper said it is about what people through the ages have thought Hell is. It probable ain't in the book, but Zeke once thought that Hell is where the cooks are British, the mechanics are French, the police are German, the social directors are Swiss and the whole place is run by Italians. He said Heaven, on the other hand, is where the cooks are French, the mechanics are German, the police are British, the social directors are Italian and the Swiss are in charge of everything.

Yours truly,
Uncle Lew.

Ray, Jane Schairer Named 'Volunteer of Year' for MNPHA

The Michigan Non-Profit Homes Association (MNPHA) Public Relations Committee has selected Mr. and Mrs. Raymond (Jane) Schairer to be the "Volunteer of the Year" for Region III. They were honored at a luncheon at the State Conference on April 19, at 2:30 p.m. at the Radisson on the Lake Resort and Conference Center in Ypsilanti.

V. Gregory Hughes, administrator at Chelsea Retirement Community, submitted Jane and Ray's name for the annual award. In a letter of announcement, the following was expressed: "The kind of dedication exemplified in the services performed by Mr. and Mrs. Schairer to residents in your organization were exemplary and worthy of recognition."

Jane, a long-time Chelsea-Dexter area resident, has been a member of the volunteer Board of Trustees for 13 years and has served on various committees and special projects. Jane was essential in Chelsea Retirement Community securing of the Continuing Care Accreditation Commission's seal of approval after a year-long exhaustive, self-study and peer survey. She organizes and assists in monthly Weight and Blood Pressure checks for any interested residents. Her tireless attitude spills over to staff, residents and other volunteers. Jane takes personal interest in United Methodist Retirement Communities' mission and makes it her own.

Ray has been a volunteer at the Chelsea Retirement Community for 13 years. In recent years, he has organized the Retirement Community Men's Club and annual fishing trips. His handiwork is evidenced throughout the facility; clocks, chairs and piano maintenance.

Ray and Jane Schairer have truly made the Chelsea Retirement Community family their own.

The MNPHA is the oldest and most respected long-term care provider association in Michigan. Founded in 1968, MNPHA represents the interests of its religious fraternal and community-owned non-profit providers across the state.

Modern Mothers Hear Presentation on Family Legal Issues

Due to busy schedules, the annual Modern Mother's Study Club Easter Egg Hunt was held on April 9, the week end after Easter, and was attended by children of members and their guests. Cupcakes and punch followed the hunt as well as a special guest, the Easter Bunny, hopped in to say hello.

At the April 12 meeting of the Modern Mothers Study Club, a presentation was given by Ms. Diana Newman, an attorney with the Keusch & Flintoft firm, who provided a basic overview of the various areas of legal concerns that members might encounter in daily life, emphasizing child safety, estate planning, etc. It was a very interesting and stimulating hour.

Members then voted upon the constitution, which was accepted as distributed and revised in discussion on March 22. Copies will be circulated with the 1994-95 seasonal materials.

The slate of officers was approved and voted upon for the 1994-95 year. Officers, as listed, will be installed at the dinner on May 24: president, Mindy Kinner; vice-president, Debbie Weirauch; secretary, Terry Pirrong; treasurer, Patty Roberts; program, Barb Lewis; finance, Lisa Gadbury.

Details of the Honors Banquet scheduled for May 18 were outlined and members volunteered to either help set-up or serve. Members who were absent should call Sandra Wilkinson to sign-up to help at the banquet.

Members were reminded to bring desserts for the April 15 Scott Hinderer benefit dinner. Arrangements for the garage sale of April 30, the Club's fund-raiser for Scott, were also discussed.

Hostess for the April 12th meeting was Mindy Kinner.

Hardwood Jewelry Boxes

A place for everything and everything in its place. That's one of the thoughts I had after looking over some of our newly acquired walnut jewelry boxes.

These boxes are built with precision and quality. The designs and spaces in these boxes have been well-planned, and some styles include special areas for hanging chains, and earrings.

At Winans Jewelry, we have a variety of jewelry box styles. If you have certain specifications you wish for in a jewelry box design, we can special order to meet your needs.

Members of the Kiwanis Club of Chelsea will mark Canada-United States Goodwill Week April 24-April 30.

Club president Donald Cole indicated that this annual observance is designed to focus attention on the early two centuries that Canada and the United States have lived together in peace. Their 5,000 miles of undefended border are a constant reminder of the friendship that exists between them, and is a pattern for peace for all nations of the world.

Canada-United States Goodwill Week was originated in 1922 by Kiwanis International and now enjoys wide participation in both countries, said Cole. As a result of the observance, Kiwanians have shown a consistent concern for the observance, Kiwanians have shown a concern for the two countries by establishing many permanent and continuing projects. The most noteworthy of the permanent projects has been the dedication of some three dozen Kiwanis Peace Markers along the common border.

Last year, Kiwanis clubs raised and spent more than $65 million on community service activities, with a special emphasis on meeting the needs of young children. Today, Kiwanis numbers 8,630 clubs and 325,584 members in more than 78 countries around the world.

Leadership-Chelsea Graduates 9

Leadership-Chelsea 1994, a community development program sponsored by the Chelsea Area Chamber of Commerce, graduated nine participants at a dinner held April 7 at the Common Grill.

There were originally 11 who signed up for the annual program, but two were unable to complete the course because of schedule conflicts.

The series of 10 seminars, conducted by Barbara Rose of Corporation Communications, was held in the Town Hall Room at the Chelsea Retirement Center. Some topics which were explored were Theories and Practices of Leadership, New Paradigms, Personal Leadership Styles, How To Problem Solve and How To Hold Effective Meetings.

Each person set personal goals which they expect to be easier to attain with their new skills.

Those completing the class were Kathy Carter, Brian Cashman, Mary Jane Eder, Peter Feeney, Gregory Hughes, Donna Johns, Julie Rutherford, Barbara Swistock, Debra Thurman and Dayle Wright.

School Board Election To Be Held in June

Editor's Note: This article completes information that was inadvertently omitted from a previous news story on four Chelsea School Board candidates.

Dayle Wright, a full-time homemaker, has a record of involvement in the school and the community. She is currently a member of the school district Central Curriculum Committee, in charge of the tutoring program and of the 5th grade math enrichment program at South Elementary school, a member of the McKune Library Board of Trustees, and a member of the Chelsea United Way Board. She served for three years as president of the parent-teacher organization at South Elementary school and is a past president of the Chelsea Children's Co-op Preschool.

Although she is a Registered Dietitian, she says that public education is the area she would like to dedicate her talents during this time of fiscal and academic challenge to our schools.

Her husband, Steve, is a professor Civil and Environmental Engineering at the University of Michigan. They have two children: Glenn, a Chelsea High school freshman, and Dan, a 5th grader at South Elementary school. The Wrights have lived in Chelsea for 17 years.

The other candidates are incumbent Jane Diesing, Rodney Craig and David R. McWhorter. The Chelsea School Board election is slated for June 13.

Blue Ribbon Program To Promote Child Abuse Prevention

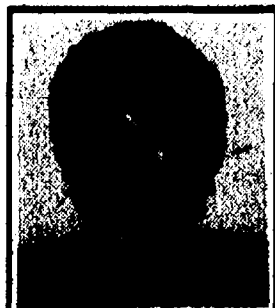

Kiwanis Club of Chelsea will be holding a Blue Ribbon Campaign on April 22 and 23 designed to increase public awareness of the child abuse problem and promote ways of preventing it. This program first originated in Norfolk, Va., but is now used nationwide. The Kiwanis Club of Chelsea is sponsoring this program in conjunction with Child Abuse Prevention Month which is April.

Distribution of blue ribbons will be held on Friday and Saturday at various sites in Chelsea. Donations will NOT be accepted as the program is designed to increase public awareness. The Kiwanis Club of Chelsea is asking that you tie the blue ribbon to your car antennas or that you wear them on your lapel throughout the remainder of April.

The Blue Ribbon Campaign is a program continuing the Kiwanis International Major Emphasis, "Young Children—Priority One."

Farmers bought about 8,000 more tractors in the first 11 months of 1993 than they did last year. The biggest gain was in two-wheel drive farm tractors under 40 horsepower.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor,

Every year, Americans undertake the unpleasant task of figuring their tax bill. For many Americans, this stress is intensified this year by the fact that they must then pay an additional amount of taxes to the government.

President Clinton tells us that this "sacrifice" is necessary and worthwhile because it will help solve America's many problems.

Yet it seems that the President and First lady may owe $45,411 in taxes, most of which is a result of their Whitewater investment. Reports show that during the years 1980 through 1992, the Clintons continually underpaid their taxes, overestimating deductions and making questionable write-offs.

It seems strange that the Clintons, while deducting a $15 charitable contribution of used underwear, chose not to deduct the loss of over $68,000 they claim resulted from their Whitewater investment.

The Clintons still refuse to release all the documents regarding Whitewater. However, if any of the allegations regarding the Clintons and Whitewater are true, then the American people have the right to know.

When the rest of America is pulling their hair out over the tax burden, President Clinton can rest comfortably knowing that their tax increases will make up for what he and Hillary have failed to pay.

The American people should carefully follow the Whitewater investigation until these questions are answered.

Orson Beeman.

Preschool Scholarship Applications Now Accepted for Full Term

The Chelsea Preschool scholarship program is an opportunity for families to send their children to preschool at Chelsea Children's Cooperative, or Chelsea Community Education Preschool.

These scholarships are based on economic need.

Families in the Chelsea School District who cannot afford to send their children to preschool may register students beginning in April.

To apply for a preschool scholarship, contact the director of Community Education, Chelsea School District, 475-9830 or the Rev. Jerry Beaumont at Faith in Action, 475-3306.

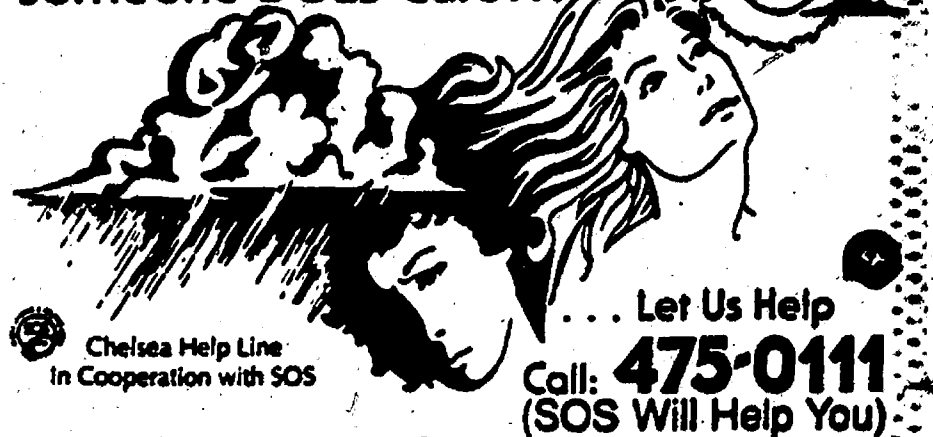

Applications for scholarships must be received by Sept. 1. However, families are encouraged to apply as early as possible, because there are limited preschool openings and limited funds available.

Research shows that a child's educational career can benefit by participation in an early childhood preschool program.

This scholarship program is sponsored by United Way, Faith in Action, and the Chelsea Early Childhood Coalition.

Boy Scouts Need Items for Rummage Sale

Spring cleaning time is here and Boy Scout Troop 477's annual rummage sale isn't far behind.

As you're cleaning, don't throw out perfectly good-used furniture, sporting equipment, books or dishes. Recycle those unwanted items through Troop 477's annual rummage sale.

The 24th annual sale will be held June 17-18 at the Dexter High School gym. To ensure another successful sale, Scouts, their parents and troop leaders are collecting donations of merchandise now.

"Desirable rummage" includes books, games, household goods, flowerpots, lamps, microwaves, cameras, tools, beds, bikes, kitchen items, dishes, pots, pans, records, musical instruments, refrigerators, televisions and carpeting.

Rummage that does not sell well, and that volunteers will not be able to pick up this year, include: doors, bed springs, hot water tanks, mangles, broken televisions, dishwashers, washing machines, mattresses, badly worn furniture, tires and curtain rods.

For free pick-up of items contact a Scout family listed in the advertisement in The Dexter Leader or Chelsea Standard.

Proceeds from the sale support such troop activities as trips, summer camp, instructional materials for merit badges and advancement, and service projects.

Beach school students have enlisted in the war against pollution with a variety of activists intended to show how the local environment can be preserved.

34 Years Ago . . .

Thursday, May 12, 1960—

Chelsea's population grew by 730 persons between 1950 and 1960, the U.S. Bureau of the Census reported, and now stands at 3,310. The county as a whole increased from 134,900 to 171,000 during the decade.

The Chelsea Community Minstrel and Vaudeville show had a net profit of $1,509, chairman Leo Bishop announced. Proceeds will be divided between the fire hall fund, Pierce Park improvement fund, and McKune Library repair fund.

New sewer rates figured on the basis of amounts of water actually used are now in effect, replacing the old flat-rate charges. The more water you use, the higher your sewer bill will be.

Chelsea Jaycees will sell the new 50-star American flags next week. Profits from the sale will go toward purchase of a new electric scoreboard for the Chelsea High school athletic field.

Freedom Township Group Fights Plans For Gravel Pits

The EARS association (Each Area Residents Speak) was formed early this year to resist the opening of yet another gravel operation in Freedom township of western Washtenaw county.

This region is glacial moraine comprised of rolling hills, woodlands, meadows and abundant wetland areas. Within this landscape are nestled numerous homes and centennial farms, all embracing its natural beauty, its peace, and its diversity of wildlife. Unfortunately this landscape lies on a very rich vein of gravel.

The basic concern of this association is that Freedom township already supports at least two large, active gravel operations which extend over several hundred acres. Additional permits are pending for at least two more pit-operations.

The Freedom Township Board has given its approval for the establishment of a Task Force to research the effects of this mining activity on the local environment. Among major concerns are the effects on the water table (in relation to residential wells and ponds), the existing wetlands, the wildlife habitat, and the peace and tranquility of the area.

The EARS association welcomes the advice and participation of all interested individuals or area associations wanting to help this task force.

Family of Clyde S. Martin

We would like to thank the doctors and their staffs, Dr. Gravelyn, Dr. Peggs for being so good to Clyde and dad, during his long battle of emphysema for 4 years.

Chelsea Fire Department for taking dad and Clyde to get help when he needed it.

Chelsea Emergency Room staff, for being so quick to help my mom out, the day he died.

Friends, neighbors, St. Mary's Altar Society, Chelsea Bus drivers and Buddy, Don, Chris and my boss, Robin; the ladies in the high school cafeteria and also my boss, Fran, and everyone else who made and brought food to the luncheon. Our family couldn't thank you enough.

Deacon Dick Shanefelt for the beautiful service given, what wonderful words. The cards and flowers were very nice too.

It's such a hard time to go through but our family couldn't have gotten through it if we didn't have such a great family like we have, to hold us up, comfort us, and just being there with us, sitting down telling all the memories of Uncle Clyde.

The first is A. J. and Tootsie Hale, Sr., for opening their hearts and home, for us all to be together, it wouldn't be the same if we didn't go to 228 Buchanan St., and Aunt Tootsie you're the greatest, mom and I love you all. Alan Hale for getting up and telling his favorite memory of Uncle Clyde, and reading a poem that Jayma wrote for her grandpa, love you.

Dianna Roberts, Linda Westcott, Mary McDougall, God blessed us all when we adopted each other as sisters. Thank you for so much that you all did for us. Mom and I have so much love for you all, and you are truly very special people.

Dorothy Berger, my mom's sister for staying with her for 2 weeks. All of Mike's sisters and their families for being supportive. Family is so special, Clyde and dad would have been so proud to know that people loved him for who he was. We will always be grateful to all those who helped us out.

God rest his soul forever. I love you dad.

Education Foundation Offers 2 Scholarships

Chelsea Education Foundation is offering two scholarships this year. One is the Joe Piasecki Memorial Scholarship. This is offered as the result of the contributions made to the Chelsea Education Foundation in memory of Superintendent Joe Piasecki.

This Piasecki scholarship will be offered each year. The amount of the scholarship is $500.00. The scholarship is intended for a 1994 Chelsea High School graduate with goals for receiving a high education.

In addition, the applicant will be asked to write a one-page statement which describes obstacles or difficulties that the applicant has confronted so far in life. The scholarship will be paid to the institution where the recipient enrolls.

The second scholarship is in memory of Richard Egeler, a Chelsea High school graduate. This scholarship is also for $500.00. The family of the late Richard Egeler has asked that this scholarship be awarded to a Chelsea High school graduate this year who has educational goals in the art field.

Application forms for these scholarships are available in the counseling office at Chelsea High school.

The scholarships will be awarded on Class Night, June 3.

Six Chelsea Residents Enroll in Briarwood Run

Six Chelsea residents, including three members of one family, were among the first to register for the 17th annual Briarwood Run, which will be held Sunday, April 24.

The Chelsea family, Lucy and Thomas Allbaugh and their daughter Kathy, 9, will compete with about 3,000 runners in the annual race on the rural roads and lightly rolling hills around Briarwood.

Other Chelsea runners include Anne Becker, Mike Jurosek and Barb Miller.

"Registrations are way up over last year, but there's still plenty of time to register," says Karen Fox, Briarwood marketing director. "It's a great way for the entire community to get together and welcome spring."

The charity run, traditionally Ann Arbor's first major community activity each spring, features four events—open runs of five, 10 and 20 kilometers plus a one-mile walk. All three runs are T.A.C.-certified to make records official.

Registered participants can win thousands of dollars in merchandise from a drawing in Briarwood's Grand Court immediately after the race. Top prize will be a $500 shopping spree at the center. Runners must be present to win.

KOOL 107-FM will put a new spin on the event this year with a live remote broadcast and oldies music in Briarwood's Grand Court from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m.

All three runs begin at 9 a.m. from Briarwood's southwest corner. The walk starts at 9:15 a.m. on the south side at Sears.

Each run is split into divisions by age for men and for women. There will be one award each for the neighborhood and corporate team with the most participants finishing in all running races combined.

Awards will also go to the top male and female runners in each of the three races and the top five finishers in each age division.

All proceeds from the event benefit Washtenaw county children through the Galens Medical Society, a group of U-M medical students who fund and support social and health projects for sick and needy youngsters.

Runners may pick up applications at Briarwood's Information Center and at Briarwood sporting goods stores including Athlete's Foot, Champs Sports, Foot Action U.S.A., Footlocker, Kids Footlocker, Lady Footlocker and Imperial Sports.

The fee for those registering before April 18 is $8 for the run and $3 for the walk. After April 18, it will cost $11 for the run and $5 for the walk. Long-sleeved Briarwood Run '94 shirts cost $8; sweatshirts cost $12.

Race packets outlining the route and contest rules will be available Saturday, April 23, from noon to 8 p.m. near Hudson's and Sunday, April 24, from 8:30 a.m. to 8 a.m. inside Briarwood between JCPenny and Jacobson's.

"Many of our restaurants will open at 7 a.m. that day so everyone can enjoy breakfast or a cup of coffee as the excitement builds, and many of our stores will open as early as 9 a.m.," says Fox.

Clinton Technology Advisor Explores Communication Age

"We're standing at the brink of the communication age," says Dr. David Thornburg, a technology advisor to the Clinton administration. "Yet 90% of the classrooms in this country lack the technology of the 1870s—the simple telephone."

"To prepare students for their future, not for our past," Thornburg believes schools must "release their grip on the 19th Century."

Thornburg, an internationally-known expert on information superhighways and educational technology like multimedia, will show local educators how to function in the communication age at a three-day summit on April 25-27 at Washtenaw Intermediate School District (WISD) in Ann Arbor. The summit includes two evening sessions on April 25 and 26 from 5:30-8 p.m. that are open to the public. He will also be talking with area community members at an evening town meeting in Saline on April 27.

Thornburg is president of the Thornburg Center for Professional Development in San Carlos, Calif. His visit to Washtenaw county is made possible by WISD. For more information, call the Staff Development Services office at (313) 994-8100, ext. 1130.

Love Your Library Activities Continue

"Love Your Library Week" continues at McKune tonight, Wednesday, April 20, at 7:30 p.m., when members of the Chere and Spore Families make a presentation titled "How Families Get on the Information Highway." They will show a video tape introducing the concept of "calling up" an array of information services available from companies for monthly fees.

Family members also will share personal stories how and why they use personal computers to connect to different services. They will explain how they use the information they find at work, in school and at play. In addition, they will connect to a commercial online service to demonstrate how they find the information they need.

Members of the business, education and professional community in the Chelsea area are invited to a Community coffee hour on Thursday, April 22 from 11:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. at McKune.

On Thursday evening, April 21 at 7:30 p.m., best selling author William K. Kienzle, will discuss his Father Koesler mysteries at the Chelsea Depot Meeting Room.

Kienzle's books and his hero, Father Robert Koesler, are well known to mystery readers. Kienzle also gained national attention through Donald Sutherland's movie portrayal of Detroit's priest-detective Koesler in his 1979 novel "The Rotary Murders."

A computer crime will be featured at McKune Memorial Library's annual Mystery Party for young teens. "Pre-registration was required for this annual 'Love Your Library Week' event and all the spaces have been filled."

The spring used book and bake sale, "Treasures, Texts and Treats" will be held Saturday, April 23 from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. Children's books and adult fiction books will be sold. Hardbacks will be $1, and paperbacks will be 50¢.

Bake sale items also will be sold on the lawn at McKune and the proceeds will be used to purchase additional books and materials for the children's collection.

All of the speaker events are free and open to the public.

For further information call the Library at 475-8732.

VFW Ladies Auxiliary Elects Officers for Next Year

Ladies Auxiliary to Post No. 4078 VFW met Wednesday, April 19, with election of officers for the coming year. Results were as follows: president, Lois Speer; senior vice-president, Bessie Sharp; junior vice-president, Goldie Hoover; chaplain, Mildred Fish; guard, Gertrude O'Dell; treasurer, Lena Benke; conductress, Eulahlee Packard. Trustees are Mary Erskine, Norma Seyfried and Lorraine Fulcher. The president-elect, selected Dorothy Lentz as secretary.

The following were elected as delegates to District No. 6, which convenes every three months: Bessie Sharp, Gertrude O'Dell, Goldie Hoover, Mildred Fish, Lena Benke, and Lois Speer. Alternate delegates are Dorothy Lentz, Lorraine Fulcher, Joan Craft, Norma Seyfried, Velma French and Virginia Boyer.

Election of delegates and alternate delegates to the Department of Michigan Ladies Auxiliary convention to be held in June results follow: Bessie Sharp, Lena Benke, Mildred Fish as delegates; alternate delegates are Goldie Hoover, Dorothy Lentz and Gertrude O'Dell.

It was reported by the Americanism chairman, American flags were presented to two classrooms at North school and one to Boy Scout Troop No. 98.

Lena Benke, as Auxiliary poppy chairman, announced poppy sales will take place in Chelsea on May 14 and 15. Volunteers are needed. This project is performed under the direction of the Post commander Leroy Fulcher. Proceeds are used strictly for the relief fund, assisting veterans.

The 6th district meeting is set for May 1 at Jackson.

A donation of $10 towards stained glass windows for the VA Hospital Chapel and $19.75 was allowed towards the Department's Health and Happiness Fund. Memorial flags were ordered and are to be placed on deceased members' graves before Memorial Day. Five dollars was allowed for each high school graduate for the class of '94," at the National Home.

The next meeting is set for May 11, 7:30 p.m. and installation of officers will take place jointly with the Post on May 14.

Food industry experts predict that Americans are going to boost their consumption of pickles. And not just consumption of pickled cucumbers, of which Michigan farmers lead the nation in production. Consumers are going for all kinds of pickled vegetables, pasta, peppers, mushrooms and meats.

Judge Widgeon Investiture Ceremony Slated Friday

The public is invited to attend the formal investiture of the Honorable Betty R. Widgeon on Friday, April 22 at 10 a.m. in the 14A-3 District Court in Chelsea, at 1 p.m. in the 14A-2 District Court in Ypsilanti, and at 4 p.m. in the Circuit Court, court room one in Ann Arbor.

Judge Widgeon was appointed on March 17, 1994 by Governor John Engler from an initial group of 16 Washtenaw County attorneys who submitted applications in December, 1993. She is the first woman to be appointed to the 14A bench, and the first African-American to be appointed to a Washtenaw County District Court seat. The Honorable John N. Kirkendall, Probate Court Judge for Washtenaw county, will administer the oath of office.

Following her appointment, Judge Widgeon met with the other 14A judges, Judge Karl Fink and Chief Judge Kenneth Bronson. From discussions during that initial meeting, Judge Widgeon decided to take the oath of office immediately and hold formal swearing-in ceremonies in April. Circuit Court Judges Kurtis T. Wilder and William Ager officiated at the private ceremony on March 18. Since then, Judge Widgeon has presided over criminal and civil cases at the 14A-1 bench located at the Washtenaw County Service Center, and has substituted for Judge Fink at the 14A-2 seat in Ypsilanti. She has also participated in community education events at local schools and colleges.

Judge Widgeon came to Washtenaw county in 1977. She graduated from the University of Michigan Law School in 1980. Judge Widgeon is married and lives in Superior township with her husband, James, and their two children, Anna and Daniel.

Prior to her appointment, Judge Widgeon was an assistant prosecutor for Washtenaw county. She has been described as "firm but fair."

Judge Widgeon replaces Judge Thomas F. Shea who retired in January. She will run for election in the fall to retain her position.

MONTH OF THE YOUNG CHILD: The nationally recognized "Month of the Young Child" is being celebrated at Avila Child Care Center and by many other local child care providers during the month of April. The Month of the Young Child is sponsored nationally by the National Association for the Education of Young Children and locally by the Washtenaw County Association for Education of Young Children. JOSH POWERS, Beach Middle School eighth grader, won the National History Day Competition March 19, for an exhibit he created about the Chelsea area. There were nine entries from Southeast Michigan in the Junior Individual Project Division held at the Historical Museum in Troy. The state competition will be held April 30 at Alma College. Josh is revising his exhibit and planning to make it bigger. Eighth grade teacher Judy Ward encouraged development of the project.

Green, Kempf, Wisemans Receive Library Awards

Mary Green, Carol Kempf and Glen and Olive Wiseman were honored by the Friends of McKune Memorial Library at the third annual Volunteer Recognition Tea held Saturday, April 16 at McKune. President Allen Cole hosted the award ceremonies which officially opened Chelsea's 1994 "Love Your Library Week" celebration.

Green, past president of the Friends of McKune Memorial Library, received the Allyn Seitz Friend of the Year Award from President Cole. She received the award because of her contributions to the success of the Friends of McKune. Some of the activities established under Green's leadership include: an awards ceremony and volunteer recognition tea; yearly goals and objectives for the organization and a year-long calendar of activities designed to accomplish the goals; affiliation of the Friends of McKune with the state Friends of Michigan Libraries Association; and a publicity campaign designed to focus attention on the importance of McKune Library in the community.

The Seitz Award was established to recognize the important role played by Allyn Seitz in the continued success of Friends of McKune Memorial Library.

Kempf received the Ben and Mary Lou Bower Volunteer of the Year Award from library director Jo Ann Walter because "she is a faithful and effective Library volunteer who devotes many hours each week to the maintenance of the Library vertical files." "Her commitment to this volunteer effort makes a significant difference in the Library services the McKune staff can provide to the community," added Walter.

The Bower Award was established in 1991 in recognition of Chelsea residents, and well known McKune Memorial Library advocates Ben and Mary Lou Bower.

Glen and Olive Wiseman received a certificate of recognition for their many years of service to the Friends of McKune. Glen Wiseman served as treasurer of the Friends group since 1989. "The Wisemans have contributed so much to activities in support of the Library. We depend on their help in all of our events. They are just wonderful contributing members," said Cole.

Windows Smashed at Chelsea Industries

Chelsea Industries filed a report with the Chelsea Police Department Thursday, April 14.

Five windows were smashed sometime over the week-end—three on the third floor and two on the second floor. Damage is estimated at $175. No suspects are known.

Amway Distributor Offers To Purchase Industrial Park Lot

Chelsea Village Council is negotiating the purchase of a 2.07 acre lot in the Industrial Park by Diamond Quest, a local Amway distributor.

The offered price is $50,000 including tap-in fees for sewer and water at $2,950 and a realtor fee at five percent. The $1,000 cost for an environmental phase I audit will be split between the village and the purchaser.

During the April 12 meeting, the council voted to accept the offer subject to review by village attorney Peter Flintoft.

"This is the first sale within the last six years," said Jack Myra, Chelsea Village manager. "I don't know why, maybe it's the economic times or water at $2,950 because there are a number of industrial parks."

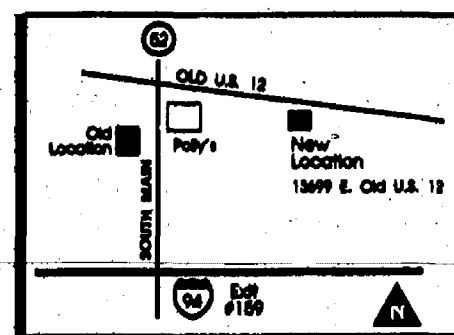

The council is forming a group to advertise and market the industrial park instead of going through a real estate company. Plans include developing a brochure.

Bulldog Varsity Baseball Team Wins Manchester Invitational Tournament

The Chelsea varsity baseball team won the championship in the Chelsea/Manchester Invitational Tournament Saturday, April 16, after losing the league opener with Ann Arbor Pioneer Thursday, April 14.

Chelsea won 9-0 in the first tournament game against Fowlerville. Pitching was shared by Colby Skelton (four innings) and Tim Wescott (last three innings).

Two runs were scored in the first inning. Matt Powell hit a double with one out and Scott Colvin drove in Powell with a single.

In the second inning, two more runs scored. Gabe Bernhard hit a single, Tim Wescott got a double and Cory McCalla grounded out to score the run. We executed a double steal—Tim Wescott ultimately stole to win.

Chelsea scored three in the third inning. Colvin got a double; Ed Greenleaf singled, Aric Dougherty walked, and Gabe Bernhard singled to drive in the run. The last run came in on a wild pitch.

In the fourth inning, two more runs were scored with singles by Pat Steele, Ed Greenleaf, and Jeff Branch.

"Colby was effective; the key was our outstanding defense," said Wayne Welton, coach. "Colby picked off a guy at second to squelch a rally."

"Colvin picked off a runner at third with bases loaded; in a relay from Pat

Steele to Tim Wescott to Colvin, a runner was thrown out trying to score.

In the second tournament game, Ann Arbor Gabriel Richard was defeated by Bulldogs in the fifth inning, 11 to 1.

"Aric Dougherty was effective at pitching," said Coach Welton. "He threw a three-hitter."

"We blew open the game in the second inning with six runs: Greenleaf, Jason McVitty, Nick Brink, Ryan Ludwig singled, Tim Wescott hit a triple, and a sacrifice fly by Matt Powell brought in the sixth run," Welton said.

Chelsea scored one in the third inning on a walk and an error; and one in the fourth when Matt Powell hit a double and then scored on a fielder's choice.

Three runs scored in the fifth inning to end the game. Ryan Wagner hit a double; Sam Morseau smashed a two-run homer; Nick Brink hit a single and scored on a hit by Don Poppenger.

"Nick Brink had two hits; Aric Dougherty was effective on the mound and did very well," said Welton.

"We took the championship, winning 5-4 against Manchester in a really fine game," Coach Welton said.

Behind 4-0 in the bottom of the fifth, Ed Greenleaf walked, and advanced on a sacrifice bunt by Dick Wales; Cory McCalla walked, and with two outs, Aric Dougherty drove a two-run double and two runs scored on a single by Matt Powell.

Manchester tied the score in the top of the sixth inning on five walks, one hit.

In the bottom of the seventh inning with two outs, a walk to Powell, single by Pat Steele, Jason McVitty singled in Powell to win the game.

Coach Welton said, "It was a great baseball game. Well played."

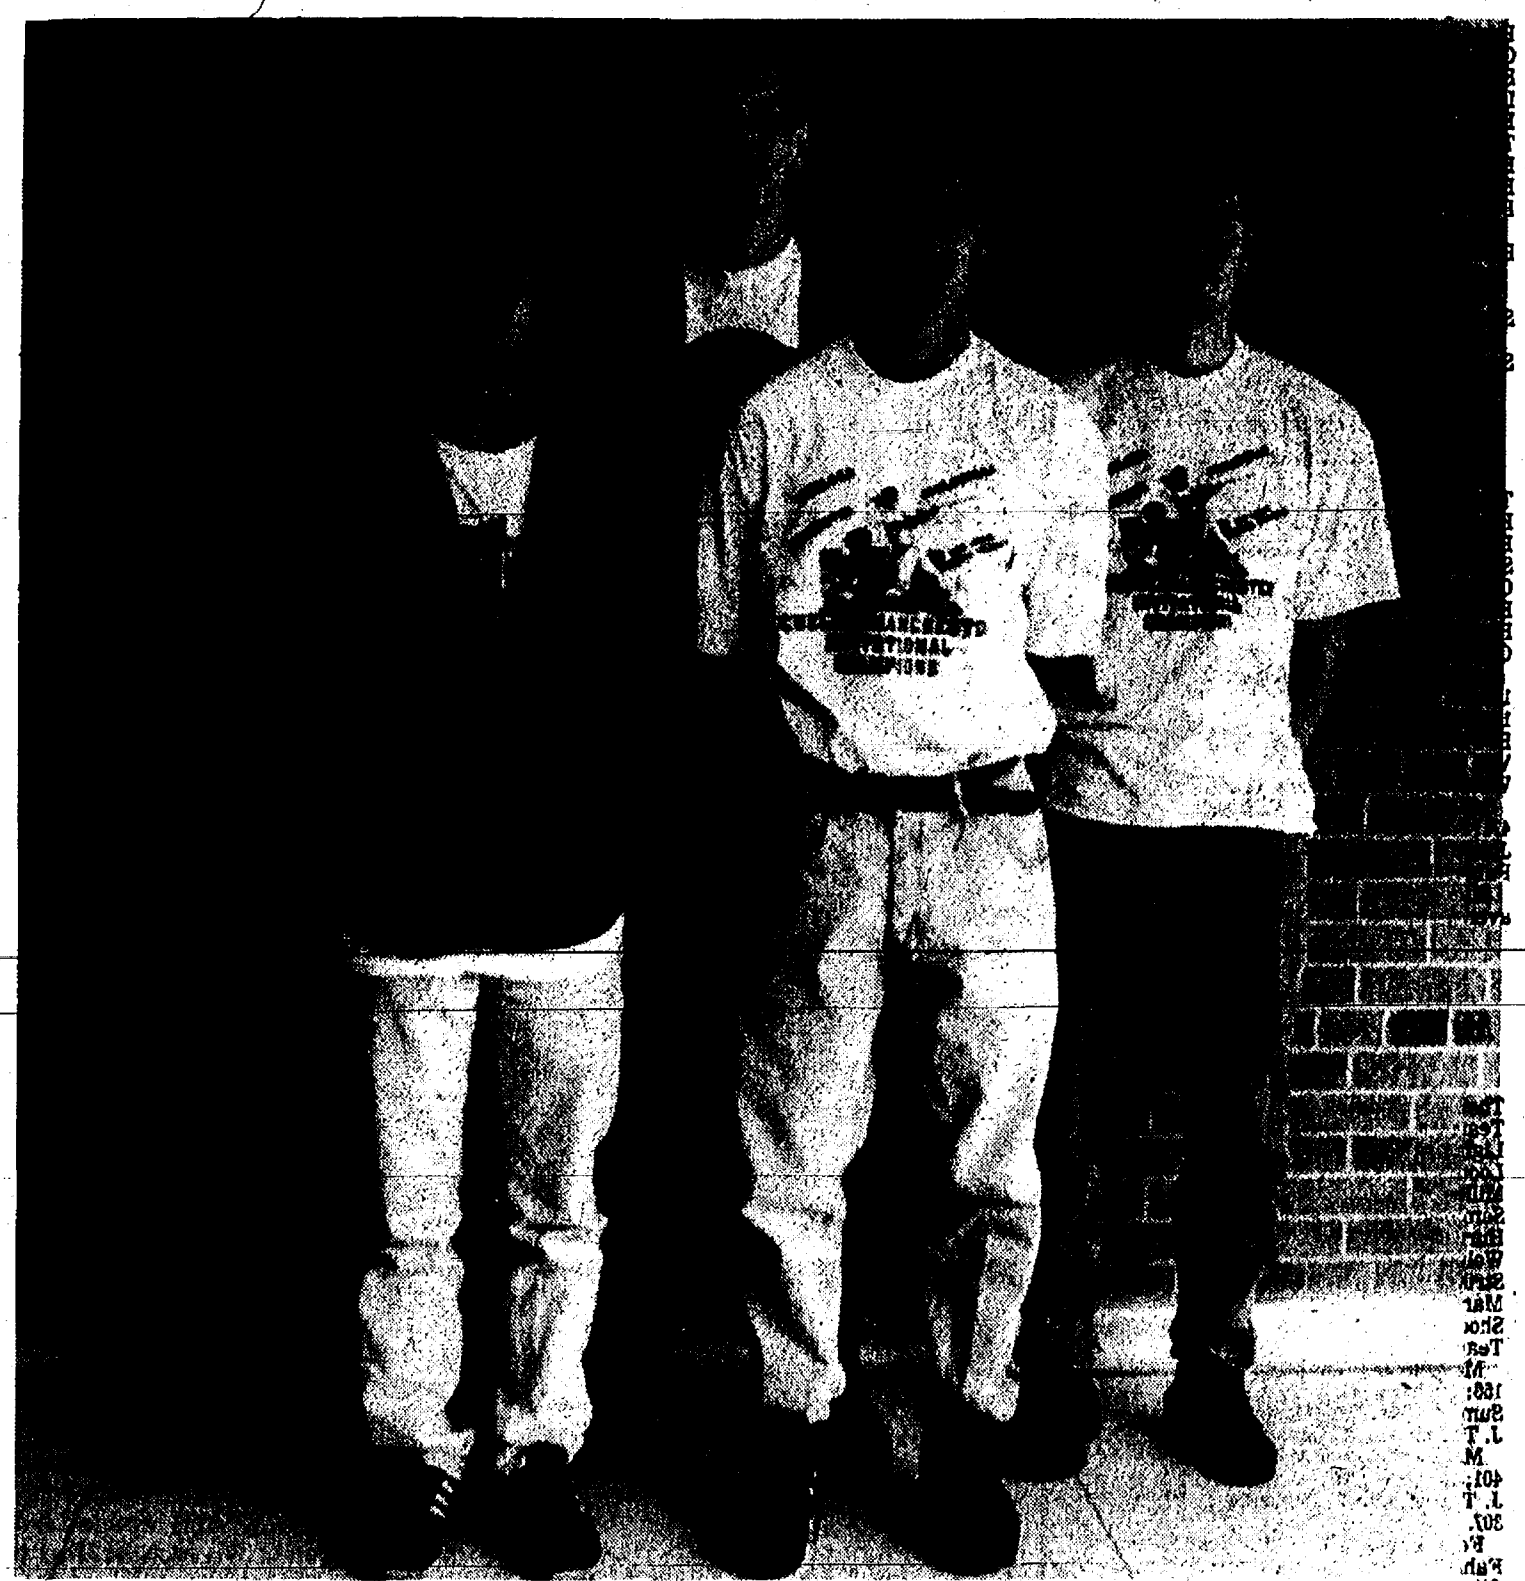

Matt Powell pitched five and two-third innings, and Jeff Branch pitched last one and one-third innings for the win.

Chelsea is 3-1 and facing Stockbridge in a double header at home Monday, April 18, at 4 p.m.

Chelsea varsity baseball team lost their season opener against Ann Arbor Pioneer, Thursday, April 14, 12-1 in the sixth inning.

Chelsea started the first inning with back to back doubles by Matt Powell and Pat Steele. With two out in the third inning, Pioneer scored six runs on three hits and a two-out error. Pioneer scored one run in fourth and fifth innings and four in the sixth inning to end the game.

Pitching was shared by Jeff Branch—three innings; Sam Morseau, two and two-thirds innings and Tim Wescott in the sixth inning. Pat Steele and Cory McCalla, each had two hits; they hit well—hard four times.

David Stimpson, Most Improved Player; Rob Davis, Southeastern Conference All-League First Team; and Pat Steele, Most Valuable Player and Southeastern Conference All-League First Team.

Awards Program Held To Recognize Cagers

Chelsea High School varsity basketball awards were presented at an end-of-season sports program April 6.

Team seniors receiving awards include Pat Steele, Most Valuable Player; David Stimpson, Most Improved Player; Cory Brown, Coaches Award—for dedication, hard work and good attitude; Colby Skelton, Oil Can Award—for enthusiasm and keeping the team loose throughout the year.

Athletic Award Letters were presented to 12 team members including 1994-95 co-captains, Chad Brown and Case McCalla, juniors; Rob Davis, senior; Dan Werwein, James Dising, and Bryndon Skelton, juniors; and sophomores Scott Colvin and Nick Brink.

Pat Steele and Rob Davis were named to the Southeastern Conference All-League First Team and Colby Skelton and Cory Brown received honorable mention.

The team finished the season with 19 wins and five losses, winning the district championship.

CHS Tennis Team Loses Opener

Chelsea High school's boys varsity tennis team lost its season opener to Williamston, 2-5.

Four of the seven matches played went to three sets, but Steve McDonald at third single was the only one to pull his out.

In singles play, Mark Kilgren defeated Nathan Butler 6-1 and 6-3, Seth Stover defeated Dan Johnson 4-6, 6-3 and 6-4, Steve McDonald defeated Ryan Shannon 2-6, 6-1 and 6-2 and Shane Brennan defeated Kevin Myers in a long three setter 6-2, 1-6 and 6-0.

Chelsea lost out in the regional final, the Sweet Sixteen, to undefeated Inkster High school, 64-62.

"We played the best game of the year," said coach Robin Raymond.

AN INFANT'S VISION
 How well does your baby see? Often a young mother will wonder how well her baby can see. Does the baby recognize you by seeing your face or by the sound of your voice?
 At birth the eye is still developing, and is only about two-thirds the size of the adult eye. The retina is immature, and a newborn's visual acuity is only about 20/800, good enough to see the outline of objects but no details. Within the first month of life the infant should be able to fix their vision on an object and follow it as it moves.
 Measuring vision in a baby is difficult because of lack of cooperation and inability of the infant to verbalize their visual perception, and generally, an infant's vision cannot be measured precisely.
 Most methods of measuring an infant's vision use techniques to attract their visual attention to smaller and smaller patterns, until the pattern is so fine they don't perceive it. These tests indicate that a child experiences a rapid improvement in vision during the first year of life. Within the first few months of life your baby can recognize you, and sometime around the age of one year the child should be able to see about 20/100, good enough to differentiate small objects.
 Signs indicating possible eye diseases in an infant include crossing or other misalignment of the eyes, whiteness or other discoloration of the pupil, continuous jerking movements of the eyes, or inability to fix vision on an object.

Girls Track Team Wins Triangular Meet

Chelsea High school's girls track team opened its season Thursday by defeating Ann Arbor Gabriel Richard and Manchester in a triangular meet. The Bulldogs won 14 out of 16 events, scoring 109 points to Gabriel Richard's 40 and Manchester's 15.

Keri Kentala had a big day for the Bulldogs when she won the 100 and 300 hurdles, the long jump with her career best jump of 14 feet 9 1/4 inches and anchoring the winning 800 relay. Spink, Heidi Kernitz and Erin Schiller combined with Kentala in the 800 meter.

Kernitz, Schiller, Sarah Schick and Laurie Schiller took the 400 in :54.7. Laurie Schiller, Beth Bell, Jenni Space and Sarah Henry won the 1600 in 4:27.7 and Henry, Millie Briebe, Jessica Flintoft and Melissa Hand won the 3200 in 10:38.7. Coach Bill Bainton said the times were impressive for the first meet.

Other firsts came from Heidi Wehrwein in the discus at 95 feet 7 inches, Courtney Thompson in the high jump at 5 feet, Schick in the 100 at :13.7, Hand in the 1600 at 6:44.9, Bell in the 400 at 1:04.4, Space in the 800 at 2:36.1 and Erin Schiller in the 200 at :29.4. Schiller and Bell finished in a virtual dead heat in that race.

The Bulldogs had quite a showing in the discus after taking all four places. Mara Smith was second at 95 feet 3 inches.

Teenager Arrested For Drunk Driving

Chelsea Police arrested a 19-year-old Chelsea man for driving under the influence of alcohol.

While gathering information from the victim of a hit and run crash complaint, a Chelsea police officer observed a Chevrolet Beretta driving slowly, having difficulty driving around parked cars and seeming to have difficulty finding a driveway. While talking with the driver, he said he had two beers. The complainant said that it looked like the car that had hit his truck.

The driver admitted that he had hit his neighbor's truck. He failed the sobriety tests and preliminary breath test with a .164 percent blood/alcohol level.

The suspect lives in the 12000 block of Trinkle Rd. He was arrested and held overnight at the Washtenaw county jail. The case has been referred to the prosecutor.

Department of Agriculture researchers have used genetic engineering to help make plants more resistant to virus diseases. The development could help protect crops like ornamental flowers, beans and peas.

An American's Reflections on Everyday Home Life in China

By Mary Ellen Myning-Lia
Part I

DINING—
Dining at a friend's house is a pleasant form of entertainment in a country where pocketbooks are often lean, and expensive restaurants or bars are just beyond the average salary of many.

When dining at someone's home, you are not given a plate, but a small dish the size of a coffee cup saucer to eat off of. In addition you are given a small bowl of rice. The dishes of food are placed on the table and everybody dips their chopsticks into the community dishes and then puts the food bit by bit on their rice or saucer.

The host feels it is his obligation to see that the guest always has food, so it is common for the host to use his chopsticks and pick up choice morsels of food and put it on the guest's plate. This is done while he is also busy eating with the aforementioned chopsticks.

Unless there is a banquet, drinks are usually consumed while eating the appetizers at the beginning of the meal and not during the meal.

The frazzled wife of the host seldom gets a chance to sit since she is busy in the kitchen constantly cooking and bringing out fresh platters of food, and when she is finished, she usually just wearily sits, smiles, and doesn't eat. I've witnessed this in a jillion homes.

Since glasses are expensive, and people's salaries are low, most families drink from jars they have recycled, and, as a matter of fact, I have seen many Chinese just drink from bowls. Few families have a set of matching glasses or cups. If they do, they are usually well off.

When they wash their dishes, they seldom use soap since they think it is bad for their health, since it probably doesn't rinse completely off. And since there is no hot running water, they may be right. Wet dishes are stacked and put away wet, not dried. I don't have a clue why.

During the meal, if you find a piece of fat in your meat, enjoy and savor it, many Chinese think it is tastier than the rest (including my new husband!).

If you find a bone or bit of gristle in your mouth, the Chinese spit it quietly out onto the table. Yuck. Yet Chinese are appalled when they see foreigners eating food like fried chicken with their hands since this is considered extremely unclean. As a matter of fact, Brownie's, a Canadian chicken eatery here in town, recognizes this fact, so they thoughtfully provide a disposable glove to wear while you are eating your chicken.

It is rare to find napkins or paper towels in Chinese homes, they just cost too much, but if you do find them you'll find that most of them are Pepto-Bismol pink.

Most Chinese don't drink cold milk, they don't like the taste. They heat it and may drink it for breakfast and also use it for dunking their fried bread twists.

They hate to drink cold drinks from the refrigerator in the summer, since they feel it is bad for your health and a shock to your system.

Popcorn, sold commonly on the streets of Tianjin, is boldly advertised as an "American Taste" even though the popcorn sold on the streets is sweetened with sugar—no salt.

Since most Chinese live in one or two rooms, the dining room is also the livingroom and bedroom so the table is folded up after every meal and tucked away. And the guest often finds himself perched on the bed while eating at the table.

INTERIOR DECORATING—
For some universal artistic reason almost every home I have been in has a large white dolly on the top of the refrigerator and a silk flower arrangement on top of that.

The Chinese housewife likes to cover things to protect them. Thus, TVs, fans, telephones, sewing machines, etc., all have their own special satin and embroidered covers—usually with designs like playful kittens on them.

Windows have curtains, but no shades. Must be no shade companies in all of China.

Few people can afford carpet, most homes just have cement floors, although it is now becoming more fashionable to buy floor tiles.

Dollies are alive, well, and prospering in China. Chairs have 'em, TVs have 'em, tables have 'em, goah, you can even find taxis with them draped over the seats!

The two main wall decorations found in Chinese homes are calendars and clocks. The calendars are prominently displayed, and most homes have three or four hanging up, they serve as cheap pictures.

GUESTS—

If you are tired and hope that your guest will leave, you can do the following:

- smother a yawn
- look quickly at your watch
- announce that it is time to eat and invite them to join you.

You can NEVER say that it is getting late and you have to get up early to catch a train in the morning—that is RUDE!

Actually even announcing that it is time to eat borders on rudeness, even though you invite them to stay. I'm still fuzzy on why.

As soon as the guest is seated in the home, the host immediately gives them something to drink, even when the guest declares they are not thirsty. The amazing part is that even if the guest is dying of thirst and the drink is placed in front of them, they probably won't touch it. Why? Because it is considered rude to drink it since it will cause more trouble for your host, who will have to refill it!

One of the interesting social customs common in Beijing and Tianjin (and probably elsewhere in China) is that when you have guests, you all sit around and talk and crack open sunflower or watermelon seeds with your teeth and munch away. I mean this is positively a rigid rule. If you visit, you expect those seeds. And when students come to visit me, they have learned that that strange foreign teacher often doesn't have seeds, so they bring their own!

If you invite someone to your house for 8:00, you can set your watch by listening to the knock at your door precisely at 8:00. They consider arriving early or late as ill-mannered.

If they bring you a gift, you are not supposed to open it until later after they have left, unless it is fruit, wine, or beer. The reason you don't open the gift is to protect the giver, after all, what if you hate the gift and the giver can see it in your face.

Gifts are often recycled here. There is even a Chinese idiom that talks about this Chinese quirk. Thus, the gift you get today, you will probably give away tomorrow, and it will often be given away next week, and eventually in six months time you will probably discover you have received it again from someone else.

If you are overweight, it is common for the guest, if he/she is bringing you a gift, to bring a box of diet tea—forget the chocolates!

Your guests will not think it is rude to ask how much money you are now making or how old you are during the evening's conversation.

Vietnam Veterans Sponsoring Class on Vietnam History

Washtenaw County Chapter 310 of Vietnam Veterans of America is sponsoring a one night only class on the history of Vietnam. The class is open to all Vietnam veterans, their family and special friends. It's being offered for those who often wondered about the country they served in, but never had the chance to learn more about it.

The class will cover the period from about 115 B.C. to the arrival of U.S. Troops. It will be taught by Tom Collier, history lecturer at the University of Michigan and himself a combat veteran of Vietnam.

It's hoped the class can answer some of the questions that Vietnam Veterans probably have had for all of these years. After the lecture, the floor will be open to questions.

All Vietnam veterans are invited, along with their family and special friends.

The class will be held Thursday, April 28 at 7 p.m. at the UAW Local 849 Hall, 454 Childster, Ypsilanti. Take I-94 to Huron St. (exit 183), go north to Spring St., right to Childster, left to the UAW hall.

Brian Piasecki Promoted to L/Cpl. In U.S. Marines

Brian Piasecki has been promoted to Lance Corporal in the U.S. Marines Corps.

According to Col. J.M. Strock, this promotion, which took place March 1, was based on Piasecki's performance of duty and potential to excel.

L/Cpl. Piasecki is a member of the 3rd Support Battalion, Pacific Fleet Marine Force in Okinawa, Japan.

Piasecki completed boot camp at Parris Island, S.C., on Sept. 24, 1993. He received advanced combat training and logistic vehicle systems training at Camp LeJeune, N.C., before being stationed in Okinawa.

PUD — PLANNED UNIT DEVELOPMENT DISTRICT

October 5, 1993
Revised: March 4, 1994
Approved: April 4, 1994

Section 5.17. Purpose and Intent.

Planned Unit Development (PUD) district regulations are intended to provide for various types of land uses planned in a manner which shall: encourage the use of land in accordance with its character and adaptability; conserve natural resources and energy; encourage innovation in land use planning; provide enhanced housing, employment, shopping, traffic circulation and recreational opportunities for the people of the Township; and bring about a greater compatibility of design and use. The provisions of this Article provide authority to the Planning Commission and standards for the submission, review, and approval of applications for planned unit developments.

A. PUD Regulations.

1. A planned unit development (PUD) may be applied for in any zoning district. The grant of a planned unit development application shall require a rezoning by way of amendment of this Ordinance upon the recommendation of the Planning Commission and approval of the Township Board.

2. Any land use authorized in this Ordinance may be included in a planned unit development, subject to adequate public health, safety, and welfare protection mechanisms being designed into the development to ensure the compatibility of varied land uses both within and outside the development.

3. The applicant for a planned unit development must demonstrate all of the following criteria as a condition to being entitled to planned unit development treatment:

a. Grant of the planned unit development will result in one of the following:
(1) A recognizable and material benefit to the ultimate users of the project and to the community, where such benefit would otherwise be unfeasible or unlikely to be achieved without application of the planned unit development regulations; or

(2) Long-term protection and preservation of natural resources and natural features of a significant quantity and/or quality, where such benefit would otherwise be unfeasible or unlikely to be achieved without application of the planned unit development regulations; or

(3) A non-conforming use shall, to a material extent, be rendered more conforming, or less offensive, to the zoning district in which it is situated.

b. The proposed type and density of use shall not result in an unreasonable increase in the need for or burden upon public services, facilities, roads and utilities.

c. The proposed development shall be consistent with the public health, safety and welfare of the Township.

d. The proposed development shall not result in an unreasonable negative environmental impact on the subject site or surrounding land.

e. The proposed development shall not result in an unreasonable negative economic impact upon surrounding properties.

f. The proposed development shall be under single ownership and/or control such that there is a single person having responsibility for completing the project in conformity with this Ordinance.

g. The proposed development shall be consistent with the Goals and Policies of the Lima Township General Development Plan.

B. Project Design Standards.

Residential Design Standards.

1. Residential uses shall be permitted with the following maximum density, based upon the zoning district in which the property is situated immediately prior to classification under this Article. Land area under water, public, road rights-of-way and private road easements shall not be included in the gross density calculation.

District	Maximum Density Permitted (Dwelling Units/Gross Acres)
RC	1.0 unit per 40 acres
AI	1.0 unit per 10 acres
RR	1.0 unit per 3 acres
RS	1.0 unit per 1 acre
MH	6.0 units per 1.0 acre

Non-Residential Design Standards.

2. Non-residential uses may be permitted in combination with other non-residential uses or as part of a common development with residential uses.

3. The non-residential uses, including parking and vehicular traffic ways, shall be separated and buffered from residential uses in a manner consistent with good land and community planning principles.

C. General Design Standards.

1. All regulations applicable to setback, parking and loading, general provisions, and other requirements shall be met in relation to each respective land use in the development based upon zoning districts in which the use is listed as a Principal Permitted Use. In all cases, the strictest provisions shall apply.

Notwithstanding the immediately preceding paragraph, deviations with respect to such regulation may be granted as part of the overall approval of the planned unit development, provided there are features or elements demonstrated by the applicant and deemed adequate by the Township Board upon the recommendation of the Planning Commission designed into the project plan for the purpose of achieving the objectives of this Section.

2. To the maximum extent feasible, the development shall be designed so as to preserve the natural resources and natural features. The benefit which would reasonably be expected to accrue from the proposal shall be balanced against the reasonably foreseeable detriments of the activity, taking into consideration the local, state and national concern for the protection and preservation of the natural resources or features and the following criteria:

a. The availability of feasible and prudent alternative methods of accomplishing any development which would preserve natural resources and features on site.

b. The extent and permanence of the beneficial or detrimental effects of the proposed activity.

c. The size, quality and rarity of the natural resources and natural features which would be impaired or destroyed.

3. There shall be a perimeter setback and berming, as found to be recommended by the Township Planning Commission and approved by the Township Board, for the purpose of buffering the development in relation to surrounding properties. If the planned unit development project includes non-residential uses adjacent to a district authorizing residential uses, and/or if the project is larger than one acre in area, such perimeter setback shall be established with a dimension from the property line of up to one hundred (100) feet in the discretion of the Township Board, taking into consideration the use or uses in and adjacent to the development. The setback distance need not be uniform at all points on the perimeter of the development.

4. Thoroughfare, drainage, and utility design shall meet or exceed the standards otherwise applicable in connection with each of the respective types of uses served.

5. There shall be underground installation of utilities, including electricity and telephone, as recommended by the Township Planning Commission and approved by the Township Board.

6. The pedestrian circulation system, and its related walkways and safety paths, shall be separated from vehicular thoroughfares and ways, as found necessary by the Township.

7. Signage, lighting, landscaping, building materials for the exterior of all structure, and other features of the project, shall be designed and completed with the objective of achieving an integrated and controlled development, consistent with the character of the community, surrounding development or developments, and natural features of the area.

8. Where non-residential uses adjoin off-site residentially zoned property, noise reduction and visual screening mechanisms such as earthen and/or landscape berms and/or decorative walls, shall be employed. The Township, in its discretion, shall review and approve the design and location of such mechanisms.

9. The Township Board upon the recommendation of the Planning Commission shall resolve all ambiguities as to applicable regulations using the Zoning Ordinance, Master Plan, and other Township standards or policies as a guide.

D. Procedure for Review.

1. Preapplication Conference—Prior to the submission of an application for planned unit development approval, the applicant shall meet with the Township Supervisor, together with any staff and consultants the Supervisor deems appropriate. The applicant shall present at such conference, or conferences, at least a sketch plan of the proposed planned unit development, as well as the following information: Total number of acres in the project; a statement of the number of residential units, if any; the number and type of nonresidential uses, the number of acres to be occupied by each type of use; the known deviations from ordinance regulations to be sought; the number of acres to be preserved as open or recreational space; and, all known natural resources and natural features to be preserved.

2. Preliminary Plan—Following the Preapplication Conference, the applicant shall submit a preliminary site plan of the proposed planned unit development. A narrative report shall accompany the site plan providing a description of the project, discussing the market concept and feasibility of the project, and explaining the manner in which the criteria set forth in Sections B & C have been met.

a. Information Required. The preliminary site plan for a PUD shall contain at a minimum the following information set forth below.

(1) Evidence of ownership, location and description of site dimensions and areas.

(2) General topography; soil information.

(3) Scale, north arrow, date of plan.

(4) Existing zoning of site; existing land use and zoning of adjacent parcels; location of existing buildings, drives, and streets on the site and within five hundred (500) feet of the site.

(5) Location, type, and land area of each proposed land use; dwelling unit density (dwelling units per acre).

(6) Location, size, and uses of open space.

(7) General description of the zoning which will maintain common areas and facilities.

(8) General landscape concept showing tree masses to be preserved or added, buffer areas, and similar features.

(9) General descriptions of proposed water, sanitary, and storm drainage systems with calculations for sizing retention and detention basins.

(10) Existing natural and man-made features to be preserved or removed; location of existing structures, streets, and drives; location, width, and purpose of existing easements.

(11) General location, function, surface width, and right-of-way of proposed public and private streets.

(12) General location of proposed parking areas and approximate number of spaces to be provided in each area.

(13) Location and area of each development phase.

b. Planning Commission Action. The Preliminary Plan shall be noticed for public hearing before the Planning Commission. Following the hearing, the Planning Commission shall review the preliminary site plan and shall take one of the following actions:

(1) Approval. Upon finding that the Preliminary Plan meets the criteria set forth in Section C, the Planning Commission shall grant preliminary approval. Approval shall constitute approval of the uses and design concept as shown on the Preliminary Plan and shall confer upon the applicant the right to proceed to preparation of the Final Plan.

Approval of the Preliminary Plan by the Planning Commission shall not bind the Township Board to approval of the Final Plan.

(2) Tabling. Upon finding that the Preliminary Plan does not meet the criteria set forth in Section C, but could meet such criteria if revised, the Planning Commission may table action until a revised Preliminary Plan is resubmitted.

(3) Denial. Upon finding that the Preliminary Plan does not meet the criteria set forth in Section C, the Planning Commission shall deny preliminary approval.

4. Final Plan—Within one (1) year following receipt of the Planning Commission comments on the preliminary plan, the applicant shall submit a final plan and supporting materials conforming with this Section. If a final plan is not submitted by the applicant for final approval within one (1) year following receipt of Planning Commission comments, the preliminary plan approval becomes null and void.

a. Information Required. A final site plan and application for a PUD shall contain the following information:

(1) A site plan meeting all requirements of Article 9.0, Site Plan Review, of this Ordinance.

(2) A separately delineated specification of all deviations from this ordinance which otherwise be applicable to the uses and development proposed in the absence of this planned unit development article.

(3) A specific schedule of the intended development and construction details, including phasing or timing.

(4) A specific schedule of the general improvements to constitute a part of the development, including, without limitation, lighting, signage, the mechanisms designed to reduce noise, utility, and visual screening features.

(5) A specification of the exterior building materials with respect to the structures proposed in the project.

(6) Signatures of all parties having an interest in the property.

b. Planning Commission and Township Board Action. The final plan shall constitute an application to amend this Ordinance, and shall be noticed for public hearing before the Planning Commission, and otherwise acted upon by the Planning Commission, the County, and the Township Board, as provided by law.

The Planning Commission shall, to the extent it deems appropriate, submit detailed recommendations relative to the planned unit development project including, without limitation, recommendations with respect to matters on which the Township Board must exercise discretion.

E. Conditions.

1. Reasonable conditions may be required with the approval of a planned unit development, to the extent authorized by law, for the purpose of ensuring that public services and facilities affected by a proposed land use or activity will be capable of accommodating increased service and facility loads caused by the land use or activity, protecting the natural environment and conserving natural resources and energy, ensuring compatibility with adjacent uses of land, and promoting the use of land in a socially and economically desirable manner.

2. Conditions imposed shall be designed to protect natural resources and the public health, safety, and welfare of individuals in the project and those immediately adjacent, and the community as a whole; reasonably related to the purposes affected by the planned unit development; and, necessary to meet the intent and purpose of this Ordinance, and be related to the objective of ensuring compliance with the standards of this Ordinance. All conditions imposed shall be made a part of the record of the approved planned unit development.

F. Phasing and Commencement of Construction.

1. Phasing—Where a project is proposed for construction in phases, the planning and designing shall be such that, upon completion, each phase shall be capable of standing on its own in terms of the presence of services, facilities, and open space, and shall contain the necessary components to ensure protection of natural resources and the health, safety, and welfare of the users of the planned unit development and the residents of the surrounding area. In addition, in developments which include residential and non-residential uses, the relative mix of uses and the scheduled completion of construction for each phase shall be disclosed and determined to be reasonable in the discretion of the Township Board after recommendation from the Planning Commission.

2. Commencement and Completion of Construction—Construction shall be commenced within one (1) year following final approval of a planned unit development and shall proceed substantially in conformance with the schedule set forth by the applicant, as required by Section D. If construction is not commenced within such time, any approval of a site plan on the project shall expire and be null and void, provided, an extension for a specified period may be granted by the Township Board upon good cause shown if such request is made to the Board prior to the expiration of the initial period. Moreover, in the event a site plan has expired, the Township Board, based on a recommendation from the Planning Commission, shall be authorized to rezone the property in any reasonable manner, and, if the property remains classified as PUD, a new application shall be required, and shall be reviewed in light of then existing and applicable law and ordinance provisions.

G. Effect of Approval.

When approved, the planned unit development amendment, with all conditions imposed, if any, shall constitute the land use authorization for the property, and all improvement and use shall be in conformity with such amendment. Notice of adoption of the final PUD plan and conditions shall be recorded at the Washtenaw County Register of Deeds.

I hereby certify that the above Ordinance was adopted by a roll call vote of the Lima Township Board on the 4th day of April, 1994. Ayes: Heller, Trinkle, Barels, Messman and VanRiper. Nays: None.

Arlene Barels, Lima Township Clerk

A SALINE AREA PLAYERS PRODUCTION WILL FEATURE Dexter resident Ann Van Demark as the artistic director and Whitmore Lake resident B.J. Danner as the choreographer. The production is Finian's Rainbow, a story about a leprechaun, an Irishman, his daughter and their adventures in Rainbow Valley, Missouri, USA. Performances are set at Saline High school April 22 and April 23 at 8 p.m. and April 24 at 2 p.m.

Card of Thanks

THANK YOU

I want to publicly thank the wonderful people of Chelsea for their concern and aid during my medical emergency in the Village Plaza parking lot on March 30th. Special thanks to the gentleman who called the paramedics for me and the young lady who stayed with me until they came. Also, the fireman, the paramedics squad and the emergency room team at Chelsea Hospital as well as the ICU group. The generous and expert help these people provided a stranger literally saved my life. I am fine now. Thank you all.
Mary J. Parker Jackson.

THANK YOU

We wish to thank all our wonderful friends and relatives for coming to our 80th birthday party on April 17 and for the beautiful cards and gifts. We especially thank our family for everything, God bless you all.
Glen and Olive Wiseman

THANK YOU

I would like to express my thanks to all who attended my open house and for all the beautiful cards and phone calls. You made my 90th birthday very special.
Leah Grubbaugh.

Memorial 20

ALVIN ESCHELBACH—

In memory of our friend, Alvin Eschelbach, on his 85th birthday, April 21, 1994.

ROBERT G. FOSTER—

In loving memory of our father and grandfather, Robert G. Foster, who died one year ago, April 23, 1993. The sun will never shine as bright as when it shone on you. We remain, forever, warmed by the echo of your laughter and the love in your heart.

Legal Notice 21

MORTGAGE SALE—Default having been made in the terms and conditions of a certain mortgage made by RONALD G. PALMER, a single person, Mortgagee, to STANDARD FEDERAL SAVINGS AND LOAN ASSOCIATION, now known as STANDARD FEDERAL BANK, a federal savings bank, of Troy, Michigan, Michigan, Mortgagee, dated June 15, 1991, and recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds for the County of Washtenaw and State of Michigan, on June 15, 1991, in Liber 1805, on Page 328, of Washtenaw County Records, on which mortgage there is claimed to be due, at the date of this notice, for principal and interest, the sum of Thirty-Four Thousand Nine Hundred Thirty-One and 58/100 Dollars ($34,931.58);

And no suit or proceedings at law or in equity having been instituted to recover the debt secured by said mortgage or any part thereof. Now, therefore, by virtue of the power of sale contained in said mortgage, and pursuant to the statute of the State of Michigan in such case made and provided, notice is hereby given that on Tuesday, May 10, 1994, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, local time, said mortgage will be foreclosed by a sale at public auction to the highest bidder in the County of Washtenaw, in the City of Ann Arbor, Washtenaw County, Michigan, of the premises described in said mortgage, or so much thereof as may be necessary to pay the amount due, as aforesaid, on said mortgage, with the interest thereon at Thirteen percent (13.00%) per annum and all legal costs, charges and expenses, including the attorney fees allowed by law, and also any sum or sums which may be paid by the undergarment, necessary to protect its interest in the premises, which said premises are described as follows:

All that certain piece or parcel of land situate in the Township of Ypsilanti, in the County of Washtenaw, and State of Michigan, and described as follows:

Seven (7), Westville, Unit One, according to the plat thereof as recorded in Liber 10 of Plats, Pages 26 and 28, Sheet Two of which is revised in Liber 10 of Plats, Page 37, Washtenaw County Records.

During the six months immediately following the sale, the property may be redeemed, except that in the event that the property is determined to be abandoned pursuant to MCLA 600.324a, the property may be redeemed during the 30 days immediately following the sale.

Dated at Troy, Michigan, February 28, 1994.

SYLVAN TOWNSHIP PLANNING COMMISSION

LuAnn S. Koch, Clerk

NOTICE OF INTENTION OF ENTERING INTO LIMITED TAX-SUPPORTED CONTRACT OF LEASE AND RIGHT TO PETITION FOR REFUND THEREON

TO THE TAXPAYERS AND ELECTORS OF THE VILLAGE OF CHELSEA COUNTY OF WASHTENAW STATE OF MICHIGAN:

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that the Village of Chelsea intends to approve and execute a Limited Tax Full Faith and Credit General Obligation Contract of Lease with the Village of Chelsea Building Authority pursuant to Act No. 31, Public Acts of Michigan, 1946 (First Extra Session), as amended. Such Contract will provide, among other things, that said Building Authority will acquire and construct a solid waste transfer station, together with equipment, furnishings and all appurtenances and attachments thereof, and WILL ISSUE ITS BONDS TO FINANCE THE ESTIMATED COST OF THE SAME FOR THE BENEFIT OF THE VILLAGE IN THE PRINCIPAL AMOUNT OF NOT TO EXCEED $550,000. Said bonds when issued will mature in not to exceed 15 annual installments and will bear interest not exceeding 8% per annum on the outstanding principal balance.

The Contract will further provide that the Village will lease said improvements from said Building Authority and WILL PAY AS RENTAL TO SAID BUILDING AUTHORITY ALL SUMS NECESSARY TO RETIRE THE PRINCIPAL OF AND INTEREST ON SAID BONDS, TOGETHER WITH ALL COSTS OF OPERATING AND MAINTAINING SAID IMPROVEMENTS AND ALL COSTS OF said Building Authority in connection therewith, regardless of whether the solid waste transfer station and appurtenances are tenable. The principal amount to be borrowed by the Building Authority will be indebtedness of the Village for purposes of statutory and constitutional debt limitations, and said principal amount, together with the Village's rental obligation for payment thereof, may be increased to cover increased costs of acquisition and construction of the solid waste transfer station.

VILLAGE CONTRACT OBLIGATION

BY VIRTUE OF SAID PROPOSED CONTRACT AND SAID ACT, ALL OF THE VILLAGE'S REQUIRED PAYMENTS UNDER THE CONTRACT TO THE BUILDING AUTHORITY WILL BE A LIMITED TAX FULL FAITH AND CREDIT GENERAL OBLIGATION OF THE VILLAGE PAYABLE FROM ANY AVAILABLE FUNDS OF THE VILLAGE, AND THE VILLAGE WILL BE REQUIRED TO LEVY AD VALOREM TAXES ON ALL TAXABLE PROPERTY WITHIN ITS BOUNDARIES TO THE EXTENT NECESSARY TO MAKE THE PAYMENTS REQUIRED TO RETIRE THE BONDS AND

INTEREST THEREON IF OTHER FUNDS FOR THAT PURPOSE ARE NOT AVAILABLE, AND AS LIMITED BY LAW, THE OBLIGATION TO LEVY TAXES IS LIMITED BY APPLICABLE CONSTITUTIONAL AND STATUTORY TAX RATE LIMITATIONS.

IN THE EVENT THAT A VALID PETITION REQUIRING AN ELECTION WITH RESPECT TO THE CONTRACT IS FILED, AS DESCRIBED BELOW, AND THE CONTRACT IS APPROVED BY VOTE OF THE ELECTORS, THE OBLIGATION TO LEVY AD VALOREM TAXES TO PAY THE PART OF THE VILLAGE'S RENTAL OBLIGATION THAT WILL BE USED TO PAY DEBT SERVICE ON THE BUILDING AUTHORITY'S BONDS SHALL BE WITHOUT LIMITATION AS TO RATE OR AMOUNT.

SAID PROPOSED CONTRACT SHALL BECOME EFFECTIVE WITHOUT VOTE OF THE ELECTORS OF THE VILLAGE, AS PERMITTED BY LAW, UPON THE EXPIRATION OF 45 DAYS FOLLOWING THE DATE OF PUBLICATION OF THIS NOTICE, UNLESS A PETITION REQUIRING AN ELECTION ON THE QUESTION OF WHETHER SUCH CONTRACT SHOULD BE EFFECTIVE, SIGNED BY NOT LESS THAN 10% OF THE REGISTERED ELECTORS OF THE VILLAGE, IS FILED WITH THE VILLAGE CLERK WITHIN SAID PERIOD. If such petition is

The Department of Agriculture is being criticized for not budgeting enough money to develop biological pest controls and improve integrated pest management. Farmers are worried because the government is planning to prohibit the use of at least 30 pesticides used on more than 80 crops.

KATE STEELE, COURTNEY THOMPSON, Erin Schiller and Laura Carty placed second out of ten teams in the 3 on 3 Roundball Classic basketball tournament this past week-end, April 16-17, at the Pontiac Silverdome. They lost to a Lansing team.

Girl Scout Leader's Day Slated Friday

On Friday, April 22, 1,350 Girl Scout leaders in Washtenaw county will be recognized for their volunteerism on Girl Scout Leader's Day.

To celebrate the day, Girl Scouts and their families will present Girl Scout leaders with home-made gifts and cards. Nation-wide, thousands of leaders will be honored for their voluntary contributions to scouting. Over 75,000 adults throughout the United States serve 2.4 million scouts in this capacity.

Ypsilanti Man Arrested for Drunk Driving

Chelsea police arrested a 22-year-old Ypsilanti man for driving under the influence of alcohol.

On Thursday, April 14, police officers stopped a gray 1978 Chevrolet two-door at Old US-12 and Freer Rd. for speeding and for having an expired license plate. The driver showed signs of intoxication, including slurred speech, bloodshot eyes, slow motor skills and a scent of alcohol.

A field sobriety test was administered and preliminary breath test results showed a .12 percent blood/alcohol level. He was arrested and lodged at the Washtenaw county jail. The vehicle was impounded. The case was referred to the prosecutor.

RALPH GUENTHER of Guenther Studio in Chelsea was honored in state-wide competition at the 53rd annual Professional Photographers of Michigan convention April 12 in Dearborn. Guenther has been in business in Chelsea for 36 years. The four award winning prints are in the window at Guenther Studio, 115 Park St., a parking lot entrance. The convention drew approximately 300 of the state's top professional photographers in various competitions—including portraiture, wedding photography, scenic, and commercial work. "The competition is fierce, and some of the best artistic talent in the country is represented here in Michigan," said PPM president Robert Guillani. "Winning in competition here truly is an accomplishment." The four-day convention also was marked by seminars by nationally renowned photographers and a trade show of the latest products and technology for all kinds of photography.

Red Cross Seeks Blood Donations

The American Red Cross Blood Mobile will be in the Chelsea Community Church, May 12 at St. Paul United Church of Christ, 14800 Old US-12, from 8 a.m. to 2 p.m. For more information, contact Christine Sanders at 971-6534. The Blood Services Regional office for Washtenaw County is located at 2725 Packard Rd. in Ann Arbor. Hours of operation are from 2 p.m. to 8 p.m.

Monday, Wednesday and Thursday; from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Tuesday and Friday; and from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. Saturday.

Soybean exports this year are projected at 745 million bushels, the third consecutive year of increased exports and the highest since 1987. But the prices farmers get for their soybeans will be down about two to five percent.

Garage Sale To Help Fund Scott Hinderer Transplant

Scott Hinderer is a South Huron third grader in need of a bone marrow transplant. Recognizing the financial aspects of such a challenge, the Modern Mothers Study Club will sponsor a one-day garage sale on Saturday, April 30 from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. at 51 Butternut Court (Lanewood). There will be no early sales nor will it be rescheduled due to inclement weather.

More than 25 families will be donating to the sale and the array of items should be quite extensive. Small baked goods will also be available for purchase. All profits will be given directly to the Hinderer Fund.

Please call 475-2368 or 475-2173 if you have questions regarding the garage sale.

The Modern Mothers Study Club was founded in the mid-50s and is an organization of women from the Chelsea area whose purpose is to provide community service, adult education, and social enrichment. An annual auction and membership dues fund the Modern Mothers High School scholarship(s) as well as other community projects. The club sponsors an annual honors banquet held for the cum laude seniors of Chelsea High school, their parents, and a special teacher of their choice. For membership information, please call 475-8854.

The Club invites the community to support Scott by coming to the Garage Sale on Saturday, April 30.

CHELSEA SHOWED its great caring concern last Friday when 1,500 people attended a Western theme dinner to benefit Scott Hinderer's bone marrow transplant fund. When the doors opened at 5 p.m. the flood started and by 5:30 the line was so long the high school fish bowl area was swamped with people. The dining area, above, in the cafeteria was constantly filled until 8 p.m.

SERVING 1,500 DINNERS in a three-hour period Friday, April 15th for the Scott Hinderer Fund-Raising Dinner at the high school cafeteria were many volunteers. This group at the serving line got such a work-out they were constantly rotating and names were not available. The dinner and a 50/50 raffle added $3,000 to the bone marrow transplant fund.

Scouting for Food Pick Up Set Saturday

The annual Scouting for Food drive will be held in Chelsea on Saturday, April 23.

Chelsea Cub Scouts, Girl Scouts, and Boy Scouts will be out collecting non-perishable food donations for Faith in Action and Chelsea Social Services.

Collection bags describing the food drive were distributed throughout the Village on April 16 and the scouts will return to pick up donations on Saturday morning, the 23rd. Please leave all food donations on your porch early on Saturday morning.

If you live outside the Village, there are donation boxes inside the entrance to Polly's and Schneider's grocery stores or the donations may be delivered Saturday morning to the Faith in Action building near the Chelsea Community Hospital.

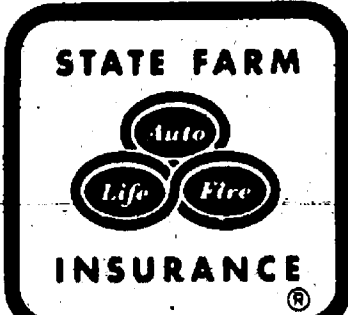

If someone does not pick up your
