Auditions Set For Musical Production

Chelsea Area Players have announced auditions have been scheduled for this summer's musical production of "The Most Happy Fella."

Auditions will be held at Chelsea High school at 7 p.m. June 23, with callbacks on Saturday, June 4.

Anyone interested in auditioning should prepare a song or sample of vocal range and be prepared to repeat a few simple dance steps.

This is a huge cast and will require lots of men as well as women. Ideal age range for candidates is high school and up.

"The Most Happy Fella" is a wonderful musical. The story line contains real human emotion with abundant humor. Plenty of lively music and abundant dance will make for an unbelievably fun show.

DIAnn brings a whole host of musical theater experience back to our stage and we are extremely excited to work with her on what promises to be a fantastic production.

Ms. L'Roy and the CAP organization encourage all who are even remotely interested in auditioning to please do so on June 2 or 3.

Involvement will be the key to a successful show says group vice-president and publicist, Mark Nelson. A special request goes out to those who have been involved with CAP in the more distant past. This is a great opportunity to get involved with old friends and make some new ones as well.

For more information on auditions, contact Mark Nelson at 475-6111.

Chelsea Joins 240 School Districts Across State in Millage Elections

Chelsea School District, along with over 240 other school districts across the state, is holding a millage election June 13 to meet the state requirement to levy 18 mills on non-homestead property.

According to the new school finance laws, school districts are required to levy these 18 mills to receive the state foundation grant. The state foundation grant is the same amount of money per student that the district received last year, plus 3 percent.

Over 240 school districts across the state have been required to vote in these 18 mills this year. Eventually all school districts in the state will have to vote on these 18 mills in order to receive full funding. These 18 mills will be levied for 20 years.

With the passage of this proposal, non-homestead property tax owners, business, industry, and second homes, Chelsea School District property owners will still receive a 29.8 percent reduction on their operational school property taxes. These 18 mills will not be levied on homestead property, in other words the home you live in.

In addition, Chelsea School District is requesting one mill for building maintenance, which will be levied on all property for three years. This is a renewal of a millage the school district has levied for 16 years. This will be added to the six mills of state school tax. With the passage of the building maintenance mill, homestead property school operational taxes will be reduced 80.4 percent.

Three Chelsea Youth Suspected in Burglary

Michigan State Police are waiting on warrants for breaking and entering and larceny for three, and possibly more, Chelsea area youths in connection with the break-in at the Log Cabin Restaurant in Waterloo.

State Trooper Twana Powell said she is awaiting warrants on three Chelsea juveniles. However, she said she believes more resident youths are also involved in the robbery.

"Just from conducting my own investigations," Trooper Powell said, "I believe it to be a group of people, some might call a gang, I call it a group."

Steve Bowen, owner of the Log Cabin Restaurant, would call it a gang.

Bowen said the kids have broken into his place, and stolen beer and cigarettes six times between December of last year and March. Bowen claims the suspects to have stolen and caused damage totaling approximately $5,000.

"There is a gang in Chelsea that is terrorizing the whole town," Bowen said.

However, Chief of Police Lenard McDougall said he has no knowledge of any gang terrorizing the Chelsea

High school community, nor the community at large.

"There are bad kids everywhere," McDougall said. "I'd stake Chelsea's kids against anyone. It is only a small minority. I don't want to give them any publicity."

The case, which has been turned over to Jackson county's prosecuting attorney, may be related to other crimes elsewhere in the county, including Chelsea.

"(The Log Cabin Restaurant) was not the only place they committed B and E (breaking and entering)," Trooper Powell said.

Again Chief McDougall said the investigation does not involve the Chelsea Police department, although he is aware that the county is experiencing a lot of breaking and entering.

"There are periodic crimes by underage kids," McDougall said.

Bowen said he would like some sort of restitution.

"I want to get my money back," he said. "I'm all boarded up right now."

Memorial Day Ceremonies Slated Monday

Local veterinarian, Dr. Wilfred Lane, has been chosen to speak during Memorial Day ceremonies. Lane will speak at ceremonies honoring deceased war veterans at Oak Grove Cemetery, where Chelsea's Memorial Day Parade is to conclude.

Lane is a return to a more conventional Memorial Day speaker. Last year's speaker was Chelsea High school graduating senior Tom Poulter, who is now serving in the Navy.

Master of ceremonies Jim Knott, who chose the speaker, said Lane met the criteria he was looking for.

"(I) try to arrange for somebody local and a veteran," Knott said.

Lane is a life-long member of the Chelsea community.

Knott said the parade and ceremonies will follow much of the same format that it has in past years. Pat Merkel will again serve as the parade marshal, with the Rev. Wayne Hawley offering the invocation and benediction.

The Chelsea High school and Beach Middle school marching bands will be featured in the parade.

Herbert J. McKune American Legion Post No. 31, will again lead the parade from its starting point at the Municipal Parking Lot onto E. Middle St. The parade will continue to Main St., where it will move over to East St., and finally convening at Oak Grove Cemetery.

The ceremonies at Oak Grove, which will conclude the day's activities, features Dr. Lane's address and Rev. Hawley's benediction. Following tradition there will be a 21-gun salute followed by the playing of "Taps" and the National Anthem.

The parade is scheduled to begin at 10 a.m., and anyone wishing to walk in the parade should meet at the Municipal Parking Lot at 9:30 a.m.

Lane To Speak On Memorial Day

"Have we succeeded in what we wanted to do?"

Dr. Wilfred Lane, this year's speaker at Chelsea's Memorial Day Parade, asks this question.

"Why must we have another war?" he continues. And there is no answer.

Dr. Lane, who served 39 months in the Army during WW II, appears to be the perfect speaker for this year's Memorial Day, which marks the 50th anniversary of the Invasion of Normandy. The battle, Lane calls, "the high water mark of World War II."

Lane, a veterinarian, has lived in Chelsea his entire life, with exceptions to war and school, and says he plans to die here.

A member of the Army's 124th Signal RI (Radio Intelligence) company, Lane was awarded three campaign stars for his tour of duty, which took him from Normandy to Germany.

However, it is the pride Lane took in his work during the war—that is easiest to see. He readily discusses how his company would intercept German messages and send them into Army intelligence for decoding.

Lane parlayed his service to his country into five years of college on the Army's GI Bill.

He attended Michigan State University and graduated from its veterinary college in 1952.

In 1955, after two one-year jobs elsewhere in Michigan, Lane started his own practice in Chelsea. A second generation vet, Lane has continued the work of his father, who died in a car accident on his way to a farm call while Wilfred was fighting in WW II.

Lane credits his spouse, Donna, of 34 years to being his right arm, business manager and mother of his four children.

The couple shares in the Lane Veterinary Hospital's success, along with the raising of their four children (Caroline Saunders, Chandler, David, and Jonathan). Jonathan is completing his studies at Oklahoma State

DR. WILFRED LANE

College's school of veterinary medicine, so he can become the third generation of Lane veterinarians.

Donna said she is proud of her husband for being selected, and accepting, the chance to speak during Memorial Day.

"It's quite an honor," Donna Lane said. "The sad thing about Dr. Lane is that he has not been able to get involved with the veterans groups."

"He wished to have been (involved), but 24 hours, seven days a week has been (devoted) to his occupation."

However, Wilfred Lane said his hectic schedule could have contributed to his selection.

"If you want to get something done," he said, "ask someone who is busy."

Lane said he hopes that people will honor those fallen in war this Memorial Day by upholding the ideals which they fought for.

Meet the Candidates Night Slated June 7

School district voters will have a chance to meet the four candidates running for the board of education.

Chelsea School District will hold its annual school board election June 13. This year, four candidates are running for two positions on the Chelsea School Board.

On June 7 at 7 p.m. in the board room at the high school, the district is sponsoring a "Meet the Candidates Night." This program will give the public an opportunity to meet the four individuals who are running for the school board. Everyone is encouraged to attend.

Chelsea Senior Citizens are also sponsoring a "Meet the Candidates" program at the Senior Center of the Faith in Action building. This program will be held at 1 p.m. June 3. Fred Mills, assistant superintendent, will also be there to answer questions about the millage proposal.

The four candidates for the school board election include Rodney Craig, Jane Dieing, David McWhorter and Dayle Wright.

D-Day Memorial Open House Set By VFW Auxiliary

An open invitation is extended to all WW II veterans and families in Chelsea and surrounding areas to come and share fellowship and memories on this memorial occasion. Coffee, punch and dessert will be provided.

MARTY STRAUB, county commissioner from District 2, brought a framed resolution from the state legislature and Gov. John Engler which was presented to Chelsea

★ Science Vs. the Unrealistic Chlorine Scare

By Craig Rucker

Every time you turn on your tap, whiten your socks, fill a prescription, or diaper your baby's bottom, you are taking advantage of the element known as chlorine.

Chlorine is found in such diverse products as teflon, compact discs, birth control pills, photographic film, sofa cushions, linoleum, and lawn chemicals. It is used in 85 percent of all pharmaceuticals and in 98 percent of all pesticides. It purifies 98 percent of all U.S. drinking water, and directly affects 1.3 million American jobs.

With numbers like these, it's difficult to imagine that anyone would attempt to completely strike out its use. Nevertheless, some people are claiming that we must do just that because, they say, the consequences of not banning chlorine are too severe. Certain environmental groups are actually calling for "zero discharge" of the chemical. Even the Clinton administration has announced plans for the creation of a "national strategy for substituting, reducing, or prohibiting the use of chlorine."

At the heart of the chlorine controversy are complaints about the chemical's effects on the environment and human health. It is alleged that human activities such as incineration, paper production, water purification, and pesticide use are resulting in dangerous amounts of toxic chlorine compounds being formed in the environment. It is further claimed that these compounds, known as organochlorines, can persist in the ecosystem for as much as 100 years and can thus build up, or bioaccumulate, in living tissue and pass from one organism to another. Since animals further up the food chain are more susceptible to harm from such persistent chemicals, some environmentalists sound their loudest alarm about chlorine's impact on birds, fish, and people.

Basic science and some real-world observations are casting a long shadow on the rash certainty of these claims, however. To begin with, "

are literally thousands of different kinds of organochlorines and despite assertions to the contrary, many (like chloroform and methylene chloride) are produced by nature. Even "persistent" chlorine by-products like dioxin and PCBs are naturally produced by forest fires and volcanoes.

As for breaking down in the environment and in living tissue, scientists from the respected CanTox group in Ontario say even the most persistent chlorinated organic compounds are far more degradable than generally thought. In the Great Lakes, for instance, levels of PCB and dioxin have dropped dramatically since their use was curtailed—a drop of 15-fold in just 20 years. And fish, which had PCB levels of as much as 40 parts per million (ppm) in the 1970s, are commonly found today with a meager level of 1 ppm and rarely exceed 2 ppm.

Organochlorines have never been known to cause any human fatalities. In fact, those who oppose their use have been able to produce only one report of any scientific interest that links them to physical human harm. Known as the "Jacobson" study, it postulates a connection between birth defects and the consumption of contaminated Great Lakes fish by pregnant mothers. It has been roundly rejected because it included no chemical analysis or legitimate demographics of the individuals surveyed and came up with only a statistically insignificant 2-out of 36 positive tests that showed any link.

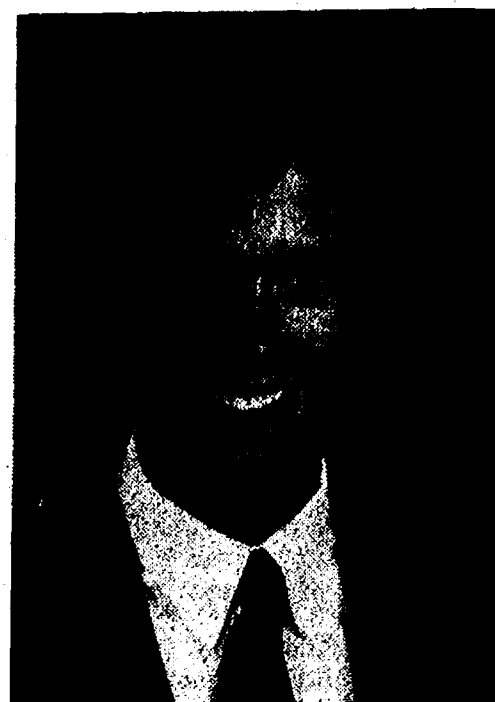

Evidence of harm to wildlife from chlorine is scant as well. The U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service, in fact, reports a remarkable growth in the populations of many environmentally sensitive species. Bald eagles, for instance, have been on the rebound for more than two decades, and the Great Lakes region just happens to be among their strongest habitats. In 1973, there were an estimated 345 pairs in the region, but today that number has burgeoned to 1,449. Trout numbers in the area also continue to remain healthy. Nests of the double-crested cormorant numbered just 187 in the region in 1977; there are now an estimated 11,439. As for seagulls, any Great Lakes boater or fisherman can tell you there's little danger of the area running out of them any time soon.

Unfortunately, the lack of any convincing evidence to show any damaging effects has not slowed down the drive to ban chlorine. Bolivia and Peru are experiencing cholera epidemics following their decision to stop chlorinating their drinking water while proposals to do the same thing here fetch an increasingly wide hearing.

Banning chlorine is another example of environmental extremism that Americans cannot afford to entertain. Wild claims unbacked by scientific evidence should not become the foundation of our public policy.

Uncle Lew from Lima Says:

DEAR MISTER EDITOR:

For $19.95, plus $4 shipping and handling, folks can order a video that teaches them how to dance by themselves. Zeke Grubb said early in the session at the country store Saturday night that he had seen this offer on television, and his question to the fellows was why anybody would want to. He said Diane Horner's "Country Line Dancing" shows men and women looking like nothing in the world as much as soldiers doing close order drill to music.

The list of things that men and women rather do alone than with one another has got to be short, Zeke said. Hunting and sewing might be on it, but he had no idea dancing was. Furthermore, he said, you got to worry about society in general and the future of the species in particular if we have got to the place where courtship couples go out for an evening of dining and dancing without ever touching one another.

Actual, Zeke said, he mentioned line dancing to his old lady and she eased his mind some. She saw youth groups doing it in the church fellowship hall, and to her they think of it more as exercising as a way of meeting one another, like skating. Besides, she said, what goes around comes around. She remembered her Ma talking about reels and jigs where the men and women took turns on the dance floor.

After giving it some thought, Zeke said, he realized marching to music by yourself has to be a passing fad. For sure, if you follow the social sections of the paper you got to know courtship is alive and well. With the marrying month coming up, he noted, a heap of young folks still figger the state of matrimony is a wonderful fix to be in. It is said that a bachelor is a fellow that never made the same mistake once, Zeke went on, but usual them saying it are glad they did.

General, the fellows were as willing as Zeke to put the accent on the positive. Clem Webster said going through life by yourself is like clapping with one hand. You can make the motions, but unless you get both hands working together you don't make a sound. Wimmen have a stronger nesting instinct than men, Clem said, but building and taking care of the nest seems just as natural to men. It doesn't matter how many ways young folks figure out to discover one another, he allowed, it all comes down to the same bedrock arrangement all generations before them worked out.

As for good news, Bug Hookum checked in with a couple of clips that showed people still are looking after one another. For one, he seas by the ads that old folks with arthritis in their hands now can open their medicine bottles. For to long they had to get their grandchildren to open the childproof bottles, but the drug industry remembered who their customers are, and realized they are old and wise enough to keep the medicine out of the reach of children.

For another bit of good news, Bug read where high school students that grew up with computers and look at them as just another working tool are volunteering to teach older folks how to use them. So a lot of old dogs are learning new tricks, and getting job skills in the bargain.

Personal, I see the 50th Anniversary of D-Day as great news. We need to remind ourselves where in the world would we be without it.

Yours truly,
Uncle Lew.

High School Students Charged With Smoking

In an attempt to curtail student smoking, Chelsea High school principal Ronald Mead pressed criminal charges against two female students for smoking cigarettes on school property.

Under Michigan State law, the two girls were charged with smoking on school property. The two juveniles were contacted by letter by the Chelsea police informing them of the proceedings, with the letters going in their permanent files.

Police officials said the school is trying to get the message across that smoking will not be tolerated at Chelsea High school.

The matter has been referred to the prosecutor's office for review.

Farmers OK Update To Nation's Pesticide, Food Safety Laws

Pesticides and food safety have once again become topics of debate in Congress as lawmakers work on a rewrite of the nation's pesticide laws. Farm Bureau favors food safety legislation introduced in the House and Senate. H.R. 1627 has 220 co-sponsors. S. 1478, a similar bill, has over 20 co-sponsors.

The legislation would replace the outmoded, zero-risk Delaney Clause with a new policy of negligible risk. "Negligible risk is a practical and safety conscious approach to regulating pesticides used on food and feed crops," said Al Almy, MFB director of public affairs. "It will achieve a significant reduction in the theoretical risk levels established by the EPA and minimize the disruption to farmers and consumers."

In addition, the bills would seek to maximize risk reduction and minimize the negative effects to consumers and farmers of losing a critical crop protection product. "This risk/benefit evaluation is simply good public policy that incorporates all information known about a product into the decision-making process," said Almy.

The legislation would also establish that when a pesticide residue tolerance is established by the EPA, and meets current safety standards, that tolerance would be uniform across the country. And the process of review and cancellation would be accelerated for those pesticides determined to pose unreasonable risks as well as for those pesticide products suspected of causing problems.

MAY IS CORRECT POSTURE MONTH

May is Correct Posture Month, a period set aside to bring public attention to the importance of posture and spinal integrity. Health authorities recognize the importance of spinal health—but do you? Do you know that good posture helps essential organs within your body to function more efficiently? That poor posture reduces blood circulation, inhibits breathing and slows body functions? Good posture enables you to do your job better...at full capacity, without suffering from early fatigue. Good posture gives you more energy by enabling your body to function most efficiently. It lets you accomplish more, because your body is working in its simplest and most effective way—utilizing muscle contraction and relaxation, balance, coordination, rhythm and timing to excel at a task. Whatever your age, whatever your activities and pace, correct posture helps your body meet the demands of everyday life. And, it will generally enable you to have more endurance, more stamina and greater mental potential. For the sake of your health and well being, the American Chiropractic Association and your family doctor of chiropractic suggests that you watch your posture, and have periodic spinal examinations.

Memorial Day - May 30th

The finest tribute we can pay
Unto our hero dead to-day,
Is not a rose wreath, white and red,
In memory of the blood they shed;
It is to stand beside each mound,
Each couch of consecrated ground,
And pledge ourselves as warriors true
Unto the work they died to do.

Into God's valleys where they lie
At rest, beneath the open sky,
Triumphant now o'er every foe,
As living tributes let us go.
No wreath of rose or immortelles
Or spoken word or tolling bells.

Letters to the Editor

To the Editor

Out of America's tragic Civil War grew the springtime custom, originally called Decoration Day, of honoring the service men and women whose valor knew no bounds.

To the list that died at Gettysburg, we have added thousands of others in places touched by war or conflict. For most of the year, these brave souls repose in anonymity but on Memorial Day we bring them back to life to thank them again for their sacrifices.

Memorial Day is not an exercise in sadness. This special day is both a remembrance and a celebration, a tribute to those who fell and to a country that did not.

On this day, families journey in quiet pilgrimage to the village square or make their way to graveyards where they pledge vows to never forget.

Memorial Day evokes emotions. Sorrow, love, laughter, respect and pride. It is a spirited rededication to the brave men and women who died in defense of our freedom. We can never forget how much they paid, nor how much we owe them.

Arthur A. Klumpp

To the Editor:

At a time when the teaching profession is under attack from so many directions, there are many Chelsea parents who are working in positive ways to make the educational environment better and lend their support to Chelsea teachers.

In addition to the parent volunteers who generously give their time and talents on a daily basis, the Beach parent group (B.P.A.O.) sponsored a Teacher Appreciation Week, May 9-13. Each teacher's room was decorated and everyone was greeted on the first day with a carnation corsage, doughnuts, and coffee. Throughout the week there were treats, posters, streamers, plants, letters of appreciation, a breakfast, and luncheon and many smiling faces around Beach school.

As a teacher at Beach I would like to thank all of the parents who participated. Very special thanks to Debbie Kennedy, the engine behind the machine. She has spent untold hours organizing this and other activities at Beach school. She also spends every day in the lunchroom supervising, cleaning and talking with the students.

I'm very pleased to be part of a community that values education and supports its teachers.

Dear Editor,

I have just returned from the Thursday, May 19 performance of "Keely & Du" at the Purple Rose Theatre in Chelsea. I would like to commend the cast for pulling off a difficult show.

I was, however, appalled at the disgusting and inaccurate representation of a typical "pro-lifer" and Christian minister as a fanatic. I was not prepared for this depiction because the show was advertised as an objective portrayal of both sides of the issue, when, in fact, it was blatantly biased in favor of the pro-abortion view.

I was also disappointed when at several points during the show I heard snickers and laughs from audience members. (No doubt they found something the "typical, pro-life, Christian minister said to be amusing.) I fail to see the humor in the situation. Whether you're pro-life or pro-abortion there is nothing funny about the issue. I can't decide whether these people were merely ignorant or couldn't handle the seriousness of the issue. Has our society sunk so low that we can laugh while the annual murder of 1.5 million babies is being discussed? When did the sanctity of human life become a humorous topic? Shouldn't we be angry about this modern holocaust rather than amused by it? What a sad glimpse of the world we live in!

Again, I would like to congratulate the cast of "Keely & Du" on a fine performance. It must have been a difficult show to do. It was difficult for me to watch.

Corrie A. Schoenberg,

Maryellen Became Lost from Group in Tour of Hangzhou

By Maryellen Myning-Lu

Dear Friends,
Suzhou, China's Venice, is 2,500 years old. In Suzhou, you drive down streets lined with French plane trees that grow so close to the road at times they are only three inches away from the honking motorists. And then suddenly, you are on a bridge over a narrow canal where a slowly passing flat-bottomed boat is poling by. Scenic to the max!

Suzhou is also famous for its private gardens that are now open to the public. We toured five of the most famous of these and quickly discovered that the first is a joy, but the others all tend to be too similar. (I better be careful or all the Chinese in the States will want to stone me to death for blasphemy.) However, though the Lonely Planet Guidebook states the gardens are "... a fusion of nature, architecture, poetry and painting designed to ease the mind, move it, or assist it," all the gardens seem to have your standard goldfish and carp pool, a few small bridges, pagoda, rock garden, and a flowered covered walkway. Lovely and serene the first time you view one, but after the fourth you start hoping that the pool will have something interesting in it, like say, merrily frolicking piranha.

French plane trees crowd the streets of Suzhou.

Hangzhou turned out to be the most exciting stop on our tour. Why? Because the tour guide, our leaders, and actually the whole damn tour lost me. Yep. They totally misplaced me. We had arrived in Hangzhou in the pouring rain and quickly dropped off our bags in a guest house. We then boarded a bus for West Lake where we were ushered onto one of the waiting dragon boats and headed for the largest island, Solitary Hill.

More boats, more islands, and somewhere along the line I was shoved into a waiting boat that was not headed in the right direction. However, I was not aware of this major fact. All I knew was that I had arrived first at what I thought was our next dock. It was 2:00 and since the rain was coming down hard I found shelter under a shop overhang and did exactly what my mom had told me to do when separated from your group and in a strange place—sit and wait for the others to find you. But this doesn't quite work, if the others don't have a clue where you are.

It grew dark, the rain continued, shops closed and I began to realize that this strategy was not working. Ok. Go to plan B, where mom told us to find the friendly police. One problem. I didn't know the word for police in Chinese. Nobody around me spoke English. I bought a map and headed out optimistically for what I hoped was the right direction. One boat and one taxi later I arrived at the correct place, but the dock was deserted. And I still hadn't seen a police car go by. I was by now soaking wet and cold and hungry (it was 6:30 p.m.). Finally I found a student who spoke English and she unwillingly helped me get to the police station (another taxi fare).

Mom, not all policemen greet you with a smile. For starters I did not have my passport on me. I did not know the name of where we were staying. And it was Sunday night. This is a crucial fact. On Sunday night, police drivers are off duty in Hangzhou, thus nobody could drive me around to the various guest houses. Switchboard operators were also off duty, so we couldn't just call all the local guest houses and find mine. In addition, the police stations are not hooked up to each other via any form of communication other than the phone. (Unfortunately when my police station called the next closest one to see if anybody had reported me missing, they were rudely spoken to by the frazzled police at that end who had a lost foreigner on their hands that didn't even speak English.)

It was now 7:45 p.m. and things were looking grim. The policeman not only did not offer me any tea, but he didn't even offer me a cup of tea. Instead he frantically piled me with questions—How many floors did the guest house have? Was the road in front, wide or narrow? Were there any bridges in the area? Were there many shops around? At this point my poor policeman was mumbling about the necessity of my perhaps having to spend the night in the station. I grew even more desperate. Then four off duty police officers came in to join the action.

By 8:20 we just sat and stared at each other. Numb. Then the phone rang, it was Hangzhou's Foreign Affairs Office. They were looking for Ma, Li, a lost American (that's me folks) and I was saved! Smiles. Handshakes. Picture taking. Suddenly everybody was friendly and laughing as my group leader phoned and said a taxi was on the way to pick me up. My group had not abandoned me, they had also been busy calling every official department they could think of. By the way, the name of the guest house we were staying at was "The Hospital Guest House for Retired Soldiers"—doesn't exactly trip off the tongue does it??

Chelsea Residents Honored By VA for Volunteer Work

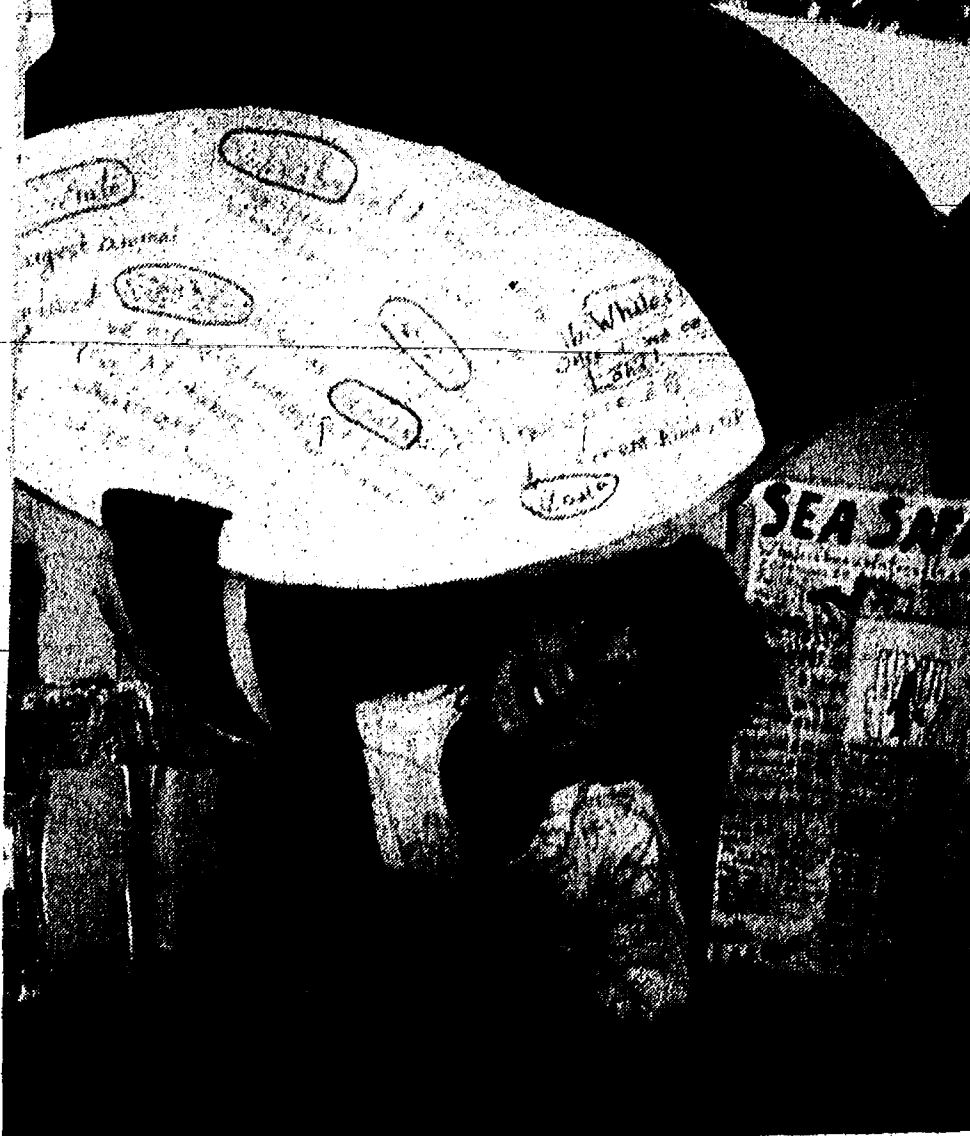

The Department of Veterans Affairs (VA) Medical Center, Ann Arbor, and its VA Outpatient Clinic in Toledo honored volunteers at the 40th annual Volunteer Recognition Ceremony and Dinner at Weber's Inn on May 9.

Over 300 volunteers were honored, including the following from Chelsea: Doris Reed, David Tressler, Fremont Boyer, Stan Montagne, and Mary Martin.

The VA Medical Center receives volunteer support from the Washtenaw, Monroe, Jackson, and Wayne County areas, with the number of combined volunteer hours totalling 91,881 in 1993, the equivalent of 45 full-time staff positions.

The Ann Arbor VA Medical Center is VA's chief referral center in Michigan, providing tertiary care to veterans throughout Michigan and northern Ohio. It is also a training site for many students from the University of Michigan, Eastern Michigan University, and Washtenaw Community College.

Scientists have found a potent, new herbicide in an unlikely place—the medicine cabinet. Compounds similar to those found in tranquilizers like Valium have been found to kill the chlorophyll in grassy weeds.

VIRGINIA BAILEY, a third grader at North Elementary school, captivated her audience with her year-long effort in researching whales. Chelsea's Children, Celebrate Live! is the year-end event where students have an opportunity to share their original work with a real audience.

Champions! Girls Track Team Wins Regional

Chelsea's girls track team rebounded from Tuesday's loss to edge Jackson Northwest for the class B regional on Friday night.

Chelsea defeated Northwest by a single point, 68-67. Hillsdale finished in third with 44 points followed by Coldwater with 42. It was Chelsea's third consecutive regional title.

17 teams competed at the meet.

Chelsea took a pair of seconds in the field events, as Heidi Wehrwein placed in the shot put with a toss of 32'9 1/2" and Mara Smith had a discus throw of 99'2".

Erin Schiller finished third, but still qualified for the state tournament, in the high jump with a leap of 5'4". However, because of a measuring error this jump is being reviewed by the state.

22 of the Bulldogs' total points came in the field events.

Chelsea's outstanding time of 9:47.9 was good enough to win the 3200m relay race. The Bulldog team was comprised of Jenni Space, Beth Bell, Sarah Henry and Melissa Hand.

Sarah Schick qualified for state with a time of :13.0 in the 100, despite finishing fifth.

Chelsea's 800m relay team of Katie Spink, Keri Kentala, Erin Schiller and Beth Bell also qualified for state with their third place finish (1:50.5, a season's best). The team also finished second in the 400m relay with a time of :52.5, another season's best.

The race for the Regional title became close as Chelsea, who was leading by eight points after the 400m relay, failed to qualify in the next two events while Northwest picked up a first and a third-place finish.

However, Melissa Hand put Chelsea back on top, 58-56, by winning the 800m in a school sophomore record of 2:22.4.

Despite Kelli DeCamp's victory in the 3200m, Chelsea was able to stay in striking distance when Molly Griebel placed fifth with a time of 12:06.2. The time qualified her for state.

With Northwest not racing a team, Chelsea needed a first- or second-place finish in the final event, the 1600m relay to win.

Hand, Bell, Spink and Henry ran a season's best 4:10.4 only to be edged by Western's team in a photo finish. However, the eight points for second place were enough to give Chelsea the regional title.

"The team ran extremely well," coach Bill Bainton said, "hitting season's best times in almost every race."

"This was a very balanced and competitive regional. There were a lot of additional qualifiers, and in only one event did two girls from the same school place."

Up next for Chelsea is an SEC meet at Tecumseh, followed by the state meet Saturday, June 4 at Saginaw High school.

Chelsea Outgunned By Saline in SEC Tournament

Home field advantage was not enough as Chelsea's varsity baseball team was beaten by the Saline Hornets in the second round of the Southeastern Conference tournament.

Chelsea drew the No. 4 seed in the SEC tournament and with it a home field edge for as long as they won.

Chelsea, who finished the SEC season with a 6-6 record, wasted little time with rival Dexter in the first round. Chelsea dominated the game in pitching and hitting, winning 11-1 in a five-inning mercy rule game.

Chelsea scored early off Dexter starter Steve Schwanzenberger. The Bulldogs managed one in the first, but broke out for six in the second.

Chelsea starter Jeff Branch allowed his only run in the third for the easy victory.

In the second game, Chelsea faced Saline, who drew a first round bye because of its No. 1 ranking.

Earlier in the season Chelsea handed Saline its only loss of the season to an SEC opponent; and coupled with the home field edge, Chelsea was looking for the upset.

However, it was not meant to be. Saline took advantage of some early inning jitters by Chelsea and cruised to a 16-10 victory.

Senior hurler Matt Powell hurt himself with four walks in the first inning and combined with a two-out error at second base led to three unearned Saline runs in the bottom of the first.

Chelsea scored a run of its own in the second to cut the lead to 3-1, but the Saline bats were too much.

Ed Greenleaf helped keep Chelsea's hopes alive with a three-run double with two outs in the top of the sixth to cut the Saline lead to what would be the final score, 18-10.

Ryan Bergler came in to shut the Bulldogs out the rest of the way.

Chelsea won the consolation game for third place against Lincoln at Dexter High school, 7-4.

Sam Morseau pitched for Chelsea to get the win.

"The rest of our schedule is awfully tough," Chelsea coach Wayne Welton said, "but that is by design."

Chelsea next faces Ann Arbor Pioneer for a single game on Tuesday, May 24. District regionals also loom in the near future for Chelsea on June 4.

Saline went on to win the SEC tournament and title with a 6-3 victory over upstart Tecumseh, who had won only two league games coming into the tournament.

Skelton Named Honorable Mention All-American

Colby Skelton has made one more catch to culminate his brilliant career on Chelsea's football team.

Skelton, a senior wide receiver this past season, has been named Honorable Mention All-American by Scholastic Coach magazine.

Skelton, who holds numerous school records, including kick-off and punt returns for touchdowns, is not unfamiliar to winning awards. He was a first team Michigan All-State and Dream Team selection, and will play in the Michigan All-Star game for the west. Skelton is Chelsea's third consecutive selection to the team.

However, athletics is not all this student athlete is about. Skelton, who will attend Harvard University in the Fall, will be a Chelsea High Cum Laude graduate this year. He graduates with a 3.7 grade point average.

Gene LaFave, Chelsea's varsity football coach said Skelton represents what is good about student athletics.

"He exemplifies what a student athlete is all about," LaFave said. "He's special."

TOURNEY CHAMPS: Nick Gadbury, Mike Radka, Tony Scheffler and Chris Brigham traveled to Jackson Community College on Sunday, May 8 to win the 3-on-3 East-West Basketball Tournament. Prizes also included Detroit Tigers grandstand tickets.

Undefeated! Beach Girls End Perfect Season With Two Wins

Perfection, how sweet it is.

Beach Middle school's girls track and field team concluded its undefeated season last week with two more victories.

Beach trounced Lincoln, 103-20, on May 18, before completing the perfect season by topping rival Dexter, 72-61, two days later.

Coach Ann Schaffner said she would be comfortable calling this the best team she has coached in her 13 years at Beach Middle school.

"They're just so strong in every event," Schaffner said. "They could be considered the strongest Beach girls' track team ever."

"I am comfortable saying they are the best team I ever coached."

Beach displayed how they could dominate a meet, particularly from the running events, on May 18.

Trailing 10-17 after the field events, Beach swept through the running events allowing Lincoln only three third-place finishes the rest of the way.

Cindy Richard took both hurdle events, 55 and 200 meters, with times of :9.8 and :35.1, respectively.

Other individual winners included, Karen Pieper (3200 meters), Jeannie Spink (1600m), Sabrina Flannery (800m), Rachel Weirauch (100m), Rachelle Skelly (70m), and Shanell McWhorter (200m).

Beach also was victorious in the three relay races.

Weirauch, Skelly, Sarah Pruess, and Krystal Baird took the 400m relay in 58.5 seconds. While, McWhorter, Angie Carpenter, Katie Wells and Rachel Schoenberg grabbed first in the 800m with a time of 2:02.12. Winning the 1600m for Beach were Pieper, Spink, Flannery and Megan Smith crossing the finish line at 4:50.9.

Beach closed out its season on May 18 at Dexter in what was the closest meet of the year for Beach, 72-51.

Weirauch led Beach over Dexter with her new school record in the 100m. Weirauch clocked in at :12.91, breaking the old school record of :13.03 set by Chris Johnson in 1977.

Weirauch's record was the sixth school mark to be broken this year.

Besides winning the 400m (:57.26) and 800m (1:59) relays again, Beach posted individual honors by Pieper (3200m), Richard (55m hurdles), Spink (1600m), Skelly (70m), and McWhorter (200m).

Pieper, Richard, Spink, and Skelly went undefeated for the season in their individual events.

Afterwards, Schaffner reflected on what it was like to coach this great team.

"It was nice working with them," she said, "but it's not over. Most of them will run at the high school level and I will enjoy watching them."

"This team had a lot of depth," Schaffner continued. "They are very talented and have good attitudes."

Schaffner also credited her assistant coach, Marty Piper for her outstanding work with the team's long distance runners.

Dexter Golfer Hits Hole-in-One

Every golfer's dream is to hit a hole-in-one, and for Lloyd Mull that dream is now a reality.

Mull, who is known as "Blacky" by his friends, hit the ace at the fifth hole of the Inverness Country Club, Chelsea, while playing in a men's league on May 11.

Mull, a Dexter resident, used a six-iron to negotiate the 155-yard par-three hole.

Joe Toma, Buford Harmon, and Irwin Mast rounded out the foursome who witnessed Mull's perfection.

Beeman's Toss Not Enough As Chelsea Falls, 92-45

Despite David Beeman's record setting discus throw, Chelsea's boys track and field team was "outclassed" by Pinckney during a Southeastern Conference dual meet Tuesday, May 17.

Chelsea, 7-2 and 4-2 in the SEC, ended its season with a 92-45 loss to class A Pinckney. Coach Pat Clarke's squad showed great improvement from last year's 3-5 (1-5 in the SEC) mark.

Clarke said he was happy with his team's performance against a bigger Pinckney school.

"We ran some very good times," Clarke said, "but we were obviously outclassed. Pinckney is a good class A team."

The Bulldogs were again led by its senior shot put and discus hurler, David Beeman.

Beeman not only won both events, but broke his own school record (which he set a week ago against Dexter) in the discus. Beeman's toss measured out at 182'2" to break the old record by 4'8".

Joining Beeman as individual winners against Pinckney were Ryan Schultz, who ran a personal best 9:49:80 in the 3200 meter run, and Dan Wehrwein, who took first in the 800 meter run with a time of 2:03:11. Both runners are juniors at Chelsea.

The Chelsea 3200 meter relay team rounded out the Bulldog victories for the meet.

Boys Track Team 2nd, Qualify Seven for State

Chelsea's boys track and field team placed second in the class B regional on Saturday afternoon.

Chelsea's 88 points trailed only host school Albion, who amassed 119 points. 17 teams competed at the regional.

"We had some outstanding efforts and quite a few personal records," coach Pat Clarke said. "The 88 points is the most I can ever remember Chelsea scoring at a regional."

Chelsea was led by senior thrower David Beeman, who won both the discus (104'10") and shot put (57'8 1/2") events.

Junior Cory Brown had a career day winning two individual events and anchoring two winning relays. Brown set a personal record while winning the 1600m at 4:20.7, and took first at 800m with a time of 1:57.9.

The 3200m relay team of Dan Wehrwein, Ryan Schultz, Scott Hawley and Brown won easily, setting a new school record of 8:02.8. The old mark of 8:03.1 was set last year.

The 1600m also set a season's best with a time of 3:29.3. Team members were Wehrwein, Hawley, Kevin Kolodica and Brown. Brown's anchor leg of :50.4 was well below the school record for that distance.

Junior distance runner Ryan Schultz also had a career day, setting personal records in the 800m, 1600m (6th, 4:23.4) and 3200m (2nd, 9:44.6).

Senior David Stimpson ran a personal best :15.6 in the 110 to place fourth. Junior Bryndon Skelton also had a personal best in this event with a :16.6 time.

The sprint relay crew of Jim Irwin, Kolodica, Tom Irwin and Rob Frost placed fifth at 400m (:45.8) and sixth at 800m (1:35.2). Both times were season's best.

Finally, junior Chad Brown ran a personal record of 10:04.9 in the 3200m run to place seventh.

"We have come a long way from being a team that used to be lucky to score in the regional to being a genuine contender," Clarke said. "We qualified for state in seven events and we are capable of scoring in all seven with some good performances."

The state meet will be held June 4 at Saginaw High school.

Frosh Pound, Tecumseh For 29 Runs

Runs, runs, and more runs. That was the theme for Chelsea's freshman baseball squad this week.

Chelsea, 15-5-1, scored 29 runs during a doubleheader at Tecumseh on May 17, winning two mercy-rule shortened games (12-0 and 17-1). However, the tables turned on Thursday, May 19 when Ann Arbor Pioneer was able to put up double-digit runs en route to 10-8 final over Chelsea.

Mark Schéese's freshman team embarrassed Tecumseh on its home field last week.

In game one, Jason Sprawka was able to maintain his concentration between long innings, and pitch a five-inning shutout to get the win. Sprawka gave up only two hits, while striking out five.

Sprawka also led Chelsea at the plate with three hits including a double. Jake Walker chipped in two more hits towards the winning cause.

Game two was much like the second, in the fact that Chelsea continued to score runs. And lots of them.

Ashley Coy led all hitters with four hits and Andy Kargel contributed three more, including a home run.

Casey Wescott, Lance Ching, Chene Freeman and Justin Strong each had a pair of hits for Chelsea.

Wescott and Coy combined to hold Tecumseh to only one run. Wescott was credited with the victory.

Unfortunately, when you're on cloud nine like Chelsea was on Tuesday it is a long fall back to earth. Which is exactly where AA Pioneer brought Chelsea back down to.

Chelsea could only manage five hits. One each by Sprawka, Wescott, Strong, Jake Walker and Jay Schick.

Walker and Wescott shared the pitching duties with Walker getting tapped with the loss.

Chelsea concludes its season on Tuesday, May 24 at Manchester High school against its junior varsity team.

Softball Team Falls Short, Loses SEC Championship Game

The Cinderella slipper was a size too small for Chelsea's varsity softball team this weekend.

Seeded No. 3 for the Southeastern Conference's season ending tournament, Chelsea made a valiant effort at the top spot advancing all the way to the championship game before falling to No. 1 seed, Saline Hornets.

"We had a good tournament," head coach Jim Ticknor said. "We won two out of three. The Hornets proved to be too much for us."

Chelsea opened the tournament cruising to a 14-4 whipping of Pinckney behind Lisa Beard's no-hitter.

Pinckney's four runs all came in the third inning when Chelsea committed seven errors.

"This year has been a learning experience for the girls," Joe Beard said, "and as such we've struggled with defensive lapses, but I believe we are getting better."

The girls' defense might not have been much to see, but their hitting sure was.

Chelsea banged out 14 runs on eight hits.

Carey Schiller and Nancy Pidd led Chelsea with two hits, while Pidd had four RBI to Schiller's three RBI.

Chelsea dropped Tecumseh in round two of the conference tourney, 6-1.

Schiller took the mound and gave up a single hit in the game, while striking out eight.

The win was a big game for Chelsea who had split the season series with Tecumseh.

Chelsea got on the board early, scoring a pair of runs in the first on a two-out single by Charlotte Ziegler to score two runs.

However, Chelsea wasn't able to deliver the knock out punch until the seventh inning when they scored three insurance runs.

Shannon Shemansky tripled in Schiller, who had singled earlier. Lisa Beard followed with a triple of her own and Jacki Crawford ended the scoring with a single to bring Beard home.

"Carey came out and pitched very well," Joe Beard said. "Defensively, we picked it up and played solid ball behind Carey. Allowing only one unearned run."

However, it all fell apart for Chelsea in the championship game as Saline shut them out, 4-0.

Despite having only one hit in the championship game, Chelsea was never out of it until the final out because of another fine pitching performance by Carey Schiller.

Schiller allowed only four hits, but still fell to 12-3 on the season.

The game was tight through five innings with each pitcher only giving up one hit, and each team allowing no runs and no errors.

But, two Chelsea errors and three big hits by Saline in the sixth inning was too much for Chelsea to overcome.

Joe Beard said afterwards that his team is right where he wants them with the District Regionals coming up.

"We played hard today," he said, "and while it's hard to watch us give up runs on errors, I really believe we're getting better and our goal of being the best team we can be by district is at hand."

Chelsea's 2-1 tournament record moved its over-all record to 24-9 on the season.

Game Worth Wait, JV Bounces Rouge

After waiting over a half hour for downriver's River Rouge team to arrive, Chelsea's junior varsity baseball team combined on timely hitting and solid pitching to capture only its fifth victory of the season.

Chelsea, 5-17, broke open a 2-2 tie in the bottom of the sixth in the first of two scheduled games May 17. The junior Bulldogs scored four in the inning and cruised on for the 6-3 win.

Dave Paton, who had two hits in the game, and Kent Young each had RBI singles in the big inning.

Young gave up eight hits, but did not issue a walk in seven innings to register the win.

JV coach Jim Ticknor said Young's ability not to give any free passes was the key to the game.

The two teams tried to play the nightcap to the doubleheader, but the game was called after four innings because of darkness, with the score again tied 2-2.

MELISSA HAND RUNS the anchor leg for Chelsea's winning 3200m relay team against Dexter on May 10.

Streak Ends at 36, Pinckney Wins 79-49

Chelsea's girls track team lost its first meet of the season, and first since 1990, when they were defeated 79-49 by Southeastern Conference foe Pinckney.

Class A Pinckney's depth proved to be too much for Chelsea, who ran well.

Chelsea was outscored in the field events for the first time all season, despite sweeping the nine points for the high jump.

Erin Schiller won the high jump with a leap of 5'2". Courtney Thompson was second and Laurie Schiller placed third, even though this was the first time she competed in the high jump all season.

Melissa Hand, Jenni Space, Molly Griebel, and Sarah Henry combined to win the 3200 meter relay with a 10:09.8 time.

Hand also took the 800m in 2:25.5, with Space finishing third in the event.

Beth Bell was outstanding with her time of 1:01.4 to win the 400m. Katie Spink ran a personal best 1:02.9 to finish third in the 400m.

Chelsea's 400m relay team of Sarah

Schick, Keri Kentala, Erin Schiller and Bell were first with a time of 5:34.

Despite fine performances, Chelsea came away a little short in several of the day's races. Including, Schick who placed second in the 100m, despite having an identical 13.0 time as Pinckney's Tracy Minor.

"We had some outstanding performances from people like seniors Beth Bell and Erin Schiller, who you look to in big meets like this," coach Bill Bainton said, "but we just couldn't match Pinckney over-all."

The loss ended a 36 meet winning streak for Chelsea, which extended over the past four seasons. Ironically, the streak began with a victory of over Pinckney in the last meet of the 1990 season.

"We haven't talked much about it," Bainton said, "but we're disappointed to have it end."

"We lost to a fine team and made them run very well to beat us. We're proud of our accomplishments and of the people who contributed to them. It was a heck of a run."

JV Softball Team Splits with Northwest, Wins Big over Saline

The junior varsity softball team split a double-header with Jackson Northwest on Monday, May 16. Chelsea lost the first game 5-4. Bulldog hurler, Sara Petty, pitched a solid game, but the Northwest bats were able to break through with six hits. Petty faced 26, striking out seven, giving up five runs on six hits with one walk. Kerry Lynch caught a strong game allowing only two stolen bases, and no passed balls.

Chelsea's offense had a slow start, scoring their first run in the fifth inning. Down 3-1 in the top of the seventh, the Bulldogs rallied on hits from Kacie Ruhlig, Tina Richardson, and Kyle Kentala to take the lead, 4-3. However, Northwest matched with three hits of their own and a Chelsea error in the bottom to take the win.

Chelsea had seven hits led by Ruhlig with three singles and Kentala with two doubles. Nikki Lane and Richardson also added a hit.

The Bulldog bats continued to swing in the first two innings of the second game, scoring six early runs on six hits, one walk, one error. Ruhlig, Kentala, and Richardson continued to show their leadership with two doubles from Kentala, a double and single from Ruhlig, and a home-run from Richardson. Lynch and Hilarie Szczygiel each added a hit of their own.

Melissa Bycraft started on the mound for Chelsea. Bycraft went around six innings, striking out seven of the 29 batters she faced, allowing two earned runs on three hits, two walks, one hit batter. But the Chelsea defense committed seven errors for the game allowing Northwest to pull within one run. With bases loaded, two outs, in the sixth, Petty came on in relief to end the Northwest threat and complete the Chelsea win, 6-5.

The Bulldogs won two big games against Saline last Friday, May 20, improving their record to 20-3. In the first game Chelsea won 16-0, playing an all around solid game. Danielle Longe threw an impressive no-hitter, striking out eight of 16 batters, allowing only one walk. An impressive Chelsea defense committed one error, and allowed only two base runners for the game.

Chelsea combined offensively to score 10 runs on six hits, six walks, and six errors. Two hits or more came from Chrissy Vargo with two singles. Lynch, Richardson, Szczygiel, and Bycraft also added singles of their own.

Chelsea dominated the second game, with a convincing 12-1 win in six innings of play. Petty controlled the mound with Ruhlig behind the plate. Petty faced 24 batters, striking out nine, allowing three hits and two walks. Ruhlig allowed for one passed ball, throwing out one of Saline runners attempting to steal second base.

The Bulldogs scored nine of their runs in the first two innings with aggressive base running on four hits, eight walks, and one error. Two hits or more for the game came from the bats of Jenny Paddock, Laura Hurst, and Richardson with Vargo and Kristy Cox adding one hit to the Bulldog drive.

JV Drops Two To Jackson NW

Chelsea's junior varsity baseball team was swept in a doubleheader against Jackson Northwest on Monday, May 16.

The two losses dropped the junior Bulldogs' record to 4-17 on the season.

In the first game, Chelsea gave up five runs in the first two innings and could never catch up; losing 9-4.

Jesse Petty and Scott Holmes led the offense, smacking out two hits each. Holmes also knocked in a pair of runs.

Jordan Dyer pitched the complete game for Chelsea, allowing 11 hits and walking two.

Game two started out much the same as the first game, with Northwest scoring seven runs in the first two innings.

However, Chelsea roared back in the top of the sixth, scoring seven runs to tie the game at 10.

Scott Hurst and Dyer both had RBI doubles during the big inning. Ray Hatch and Dave Paton added RBI singles during the Chelsea rally.

Unfortunately, Jackson had all the answers that day, scoring four runs of their own in the bottom half of the sixth.

Ryan Lafferty took the loss, pitching all six innings, giving up only seven hits, but allowing eight walks.

Paton led Chelsea with two hits in game two.

Chelsea coach Jim Ticknor said he was impressed with his team's play despite the losses.

"We battled to a tie with our biggest inning of the year against a very good team," Ticknor said.

Softball Struggles, Sweeps Jackson NW

Chelsea's softball team struggled a little against Jackson Northwest on Monday, May 16, but was still able to sweep the doubleheader.

The two wins increased Chelsea's record to an impressive 22-8 season mark.

Coach Joe Beard's team looked impressive in the first game, winning 13-2 (in five innings), but faltered some in the second game, prevailing 10-7.

Carey Schiller raised her record to 11-2 in the first game giving up six hits and striking out seven.

Schiller was backed up by a potent Chelsea offensive attack, which totaled 11 hits.

Leading the attack was Nancy Pidd with three hits, and Shannon Sherman and Lisa Beard, who each chipped in a pair of hits.

The second game was not as impressive, but Chelsea still managed to win 10-7.

Beard raised her record to 9-5 on the season. She gave up seven hits and struck out five.

Chelsea's defensive problems were offset in the second game by the team's nine hits and 10 runs.

Leading the way was Pidd, Jackie Crawford and Martha Merkel with two hits each. Pidd and Beard also collected a couple of RBI.

JV Softball Team Posts 2 Wins Over Pinckney

Chelsea's JV softball team improved its winning record to 17-2 over-all, 11-1 in the SEC, with a double-header victory over the Pinckney Pirates on May 12.

Pitcher Nikki Lane propelled the Bulldogs to a 13-1 win in the first game, pitching an impressive three-hitter. In seven innings, Lane faced 28 batters, striking out nine, walking four, and only allowing two singles and one double.

Kerry Lynch caught an equally impressive game behind the plate with no throwing errors and only one passed ball.

Despite six field errors, the Bulldog defense held tight. Chrissy Vargo, Kyle Kentala, and Danielle Longe provided consistent defense on the infield. With Pinckney posing a rally in the seventh inning, Tina Richardson held them off, making two key plays to end the game.

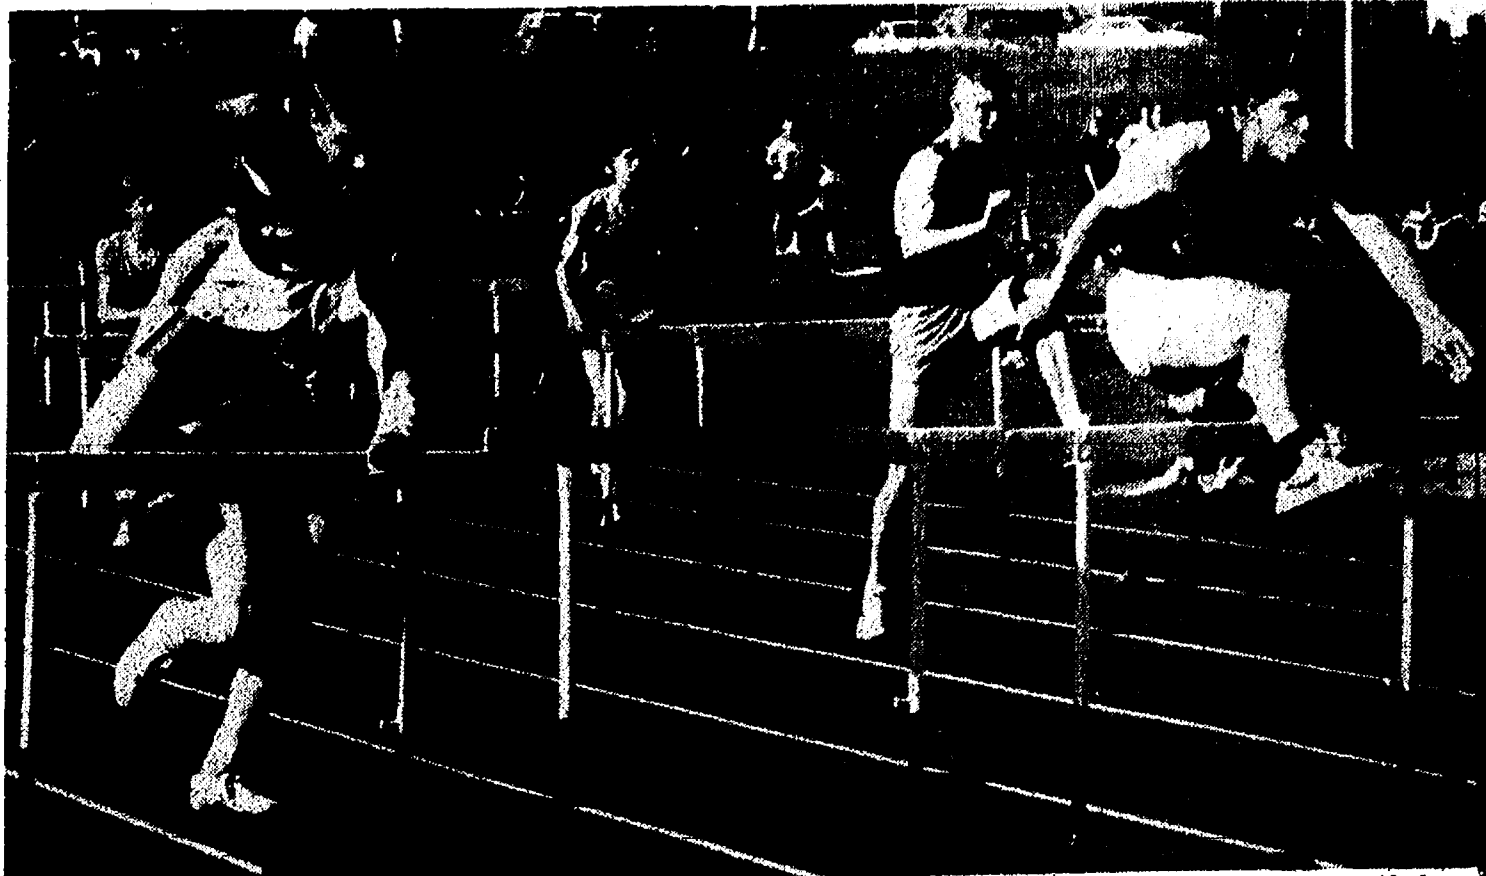

Offensively, the Bulldogs combined for 13 hits. Kyle Kentala led the team with four hits, three singles and a double. Richardson was right behind her with three hits, including a home run in the top of the seventh inning.

Lynch, Carrie Williams, Sarah Petty, Longe, and Lane also had hits for the Bulldogs.

On the bases the Bulldogs combined for seven of seven stolen bases. Richardson and Lynch each stole two bases, with Vargo, Longe, and Kentala each stealing one.

The Bulldog defense was nearly flawless in the second game with only one error! Danielle Longe pitched a great game in this 13-1 five-inning game. Longe faced 18 batters, striking out seven, walking only one, and giving up only two singles. Kacie Ruhlig caught an excellent game, only allowing one stolen base, two passed balls, and no throwing errors.

Again the Bulldog offense was unstoppable. With another 13 hits, the Bulldog bats were just too much for the Pirates. Ruhlig, Longe, and Lane led the team with three hits each. Petty, Kentala, Hilarie Szczygiel, and Vargo each added a hit. Longe also led the team with three stolen bases, while Ruhlig, and Lane each added one.

JEREMY ZIEGLER and Bryndon Skelton compete in 300 meter hurdle action for Chelsea in the May 10 meet with Dexter. The two runners finished 1-2, with Skelton emerging victorious.

MARK HAND, left, won an extra heat of the 100m dash against Dexter on May 10. Mike Shedlock right, of Dexter, ran second with Joe Lusser and James Diesing, second and third from left, coming in third and fourth.

Area Wrestlers Place First At Holt Regional Tournament

Three Chelsea area wrestlers took first place at the Holt Regional Wrestling Tournament sponsored by the Michigan Wrestling Federation on May 7.

Ryan Kaiser, under eight division; Darl Bauer, nine- and 10-year-olds, and Derek Egeler, 11- and 12-year-olds, were crowned champions of the Holt regional.

Egeler and Bauer qualified for the state tournament with their victories. However, there was no state competition for the under-eight set, leaving Kaiser to bask in the glow of his championship.

Egeler placed third at the state meet held in the Jenison Field House on the Michigan State University campus. Egeler lost just one match during his run at a state title.

Bauer also fared well in the Jenison Field House, finishing in a tie for sixth place.

Three other wrestlers qualified for the state tournament on the strength of their performances at the Holt meet.

Ben Vogel placed fourth in Group III (11 and 12 year olds). Kevin Bloomsaat also qualified for the state tourney by placing third in Group IV, while Brian Hall, cad division, made the tourney with third-place finish as well.

Joey Koenigter wrestled in the group II division at the Holt Regional but failed to qualify for the state tournament.

A report by the Office of Management and Budget says that BST, a genetically engineered hormone that enhances milk production in cows, is safe and will make milk cheaper for consumers. The Clinton administration also reaffirmed its position that BST is safe, saying "there is no evidence that BST poses a health threat to humans or animals."

Kiwanis Club of Chelsea Observes 70th Birthday

ALICIA VOGEL, a member of the Chelsea Key Club, modeled clothing from the 1920's for the benefit of ladies present.

HEATHER BROWN modeled ladies fashions from the 1930's Monday evening for the 70th birthday party of the Kiwanis Club of Chelsea.

MEGHAN BRAGG was attired in the latest ladies fashions from the 1940 era for guests at the Chelsea Kiwanis Club's 70th birthday party.

Kiwanis Club of Chelsea observed its 70th birthday Monday evening at the Common Grill with about 100 members and guests in attendance.

Representatives were present from Jackson Kiwanis Club, which sponsored Chelsea, and the Dexter Kiwanis Club which Chelsea sponsored. They brought greetings and congratulations on the long success of the Chelsea group.

Gov. John Engler and the Michigan legislature sent their good wishes and a resolution honoring the Chelsea club. Marty Straub, county commissioner, presented the governor's and county's resolutions.

Ladies fashions from the 1920's, 1930's and 1940's were modeled to show lady guests what the women of those eras were wearing to be fashionable.

John Mitchell, past president of the Chelsea club acted as master of ceremonies. Gloria Mitchell arranged the fashion show and did the commentary.

Affidavits for 6-Mill Tax Treatment Available from FB

Now that the legislature has approved a measure that provides farmland the same 6-mill school operating status as homesteads for property tax purposes, some farmers may need to file a special affidavit with the local unit where the property is located in order to get the 6-mill tax treatment for the land that is farmed.

The affidavit must be filed for all land being farmed that is not classified as agricultural. A form must be filed for each separate tax description with a parcel number. If a portion of the parcel is being used for a non-agricultural purpose (and thus does not qualify for the 6-mill tax treatment), that portion of the value of the parcel may not be claimed for the 6-mill rate.

"If in doubt, a property owner should file the form to make sure he receives all the 6-mill tax treatment that the land is entitled to," said Ron Nelson, legislative counsel for Michigan Farm Bureau.

Farmers may obtain affidavits by contacting their county Farm Bureau secretary.

PAMELA (BROWN) KEMP has been named semifinalist in the 1994 Michigan Student Teacher of the Year competition. Thomas Kromer, director of Michigan Association of Teacher Educators presented Pam with her award at a reception hosted by Michigan State University on May 17. A total of 138 students entered this year's competition. Pam represented Grand Valley State University. Pam did her student teaching in the fifth grade at Harrison Park Elementary in Grand Rapids. She has been substitute teaching in both Chelsea and Dexter schools and is assistant varsity softball coach at Dexter.

South & West Consortium Awards Ceremony Held at Saline

Approximately 250 students enrolled in 14 Career & Technical Education programs of the South & West Washtenaw Consortium attended the Award Ceremony held at Saline High school on May 18. Twenty-five students were honored with the "Outstanding Student Award" in the individual programs.

Unlike most awards earned by students and given by teachers, the Career & Technical Education class awards go to the students nominated by their peers and fellow students. The primary criteria for selection are skill development, initiative, interpersonal relationships, extracurricular activities and ability to handle responsibility.

Students from all Consortium schools of Chelsea, Dexter, Manchester, Milan and Saline, received the following awards:

Accounting/Computerized, Heather Kirk, Saline.
Auto Technology, Jeff Shoemaker, Chelsea.

Farmers OK Update To Nation's Pesticide, Food Safety Laws

Pesticides and food safety have once again become topics of debate in Congress as lawmakers work on a rewrite of the nation's pesticide laws.

Farm Bureau favors food safety legislation introduced in the House and Senate. H.R. 1627 has 220 co-sponsors. S. 1478, a similar bill, has over 20 co-sponsors.

The legislation would replace the outdated, zero-risk Delaney Clause with a new policy of negligible risk. "Negligible risk is a practical and safety conscious approach to regulating pesticides used on food and feed crops," said Al Almy, MFB director of public affairs. "It will achieve a significant reduction in the theoretical risk levels established by the EPA and minimize the disruption to farmers and consumers."

In addition, the bills would seek to maximize risk reduction and minimize the negative effects to consumers and farmers of losing a critical crop protection product. "This risk/benefit evaluation is simply good public policy that incorporates all information known about a product into the decision-making process," said Almy.

The legislation would also establish that when a pesticide residue tolerance is established by the EPA, and meets current safety standards, that tolerance would be uniform across the country. And the process of review and cancellation would be accelerated for those pesticides determined to pose unreasonable risks as well as for those pesticide products suspected of causing problems.

A unique use for recycled telephone directories is making dairy cows at Michigan State University more comfortable and keeping more than 5,000 tons of Ameritech phone books out of landfills. The directories are shredded and then used as bedding for cows instead of straw.

Legislature Clarifies New School Tax Law for Area Farmland

Last week the state legislature clarified how farmland will be affected by the new school tax laws. All farmland will be considered homestead property.

With the June 13 passage of the one mill proposal for building maintenance, operational school taxes for farmland in the Chelsea School District will be seven mills. Previously, farm land was taxed at 3. operational mills. This is a reduction in school property taxes of 80.4 percent. Farmland will automatically be assessed at the homestead property tax rate. Land owners will not have to file a homestead property tax form until next year. These changes do not affect farms in P.A. 118, Federal Land Bank or other government programs.

Chelseaites Among Winners In 17th Annual Briarwood Run

Two Chelsea residents placed 6th and 7th in their divisions in the April 24 17th Annual Briarwood Run.

Jerry Roberts, 51, placed 6th in the men's "50-59" 5K run with a 22:40. Mark Heusel, 27, placed 7th in the men's 20-29 5K run with a 17:29.

Mother Nature put a welcome shine on the run this year. Mid 60-degree weather, gentle breezes and strong sunshine greeted 2,400 entrants in four separate events—5K, 10K and 20K runs, and a one-mile walk.

"Not only have we made peace with Mother Nature, we got her to run the whole 20K," says Karen Fox, Briarwood marketing director, referring to the annual run's historically stormy relationship with the weather.

Last year, when race organizers moved the run from early to late April to avoid cold weather, Mother Nature wreaked her revenge with chilly temperatures, hail and rain that hit the finish line faster than the runners.

This year's weather made it the third best-attended run in 17 years.

"Mother Nature is back on track," says Fox.

Spring was so much in the air that one couple, Dee Dee and Jim Sahakian of Manchester, crossed the 10K finish line (46:52) holding hands. Sahakian, 34, said it was her first race since having a baby seven months ago.

And there were more than the weather to please the runners. Many praised a newly paved stretch in the 10K and 20K track.

"The footing's better," explained Lester Wyborny, 36, of Ann Arbor, who led the 20K runners with a 1:10:11 after finishing third in the 20K last year.

Celebrity runner this year was WJBK-TV 2 sports anchor and media personality Eli Zaret, who ran the 10K with his wife, Patty.

"I started out with her, but she blew me away like everyone else," says Zaret, who says he lost his division by "only 23 minutes." Patty finished 8th (52:57) in the women's division.

Zaret and Fat Bob Taylor, WJR-AM radio personality, emceed an awards ceremony after the race.

Participants in the runs ranged in age from nine-year-old Brian Kuzma (5K-24:23) of Ann Arbor to 90-year-old Catherine ("KIKI") David of Ann Arbor, who took first place in her 5K division ("Women 70 and over") with a 31:01.

Walkers ranged from three-year-old Donovan Ogborn (18:42), of Brown City to 95-year-old Della Curtis (18:23) of Ann Arbor. Curtis, who participated in a daffodil-decked wheel chair brought her daughter, Fran Dayton, of Ann Arbor, and her granddaughter, Sue Caumartin, of Northville. A 22-year-old great-granddaughter had planned to make the race but, according to her great-grandmother, was too tired.

Twelve-year-old Katie Maggio of St. Clair Shores led all walkers with a 7:58 mile.

Runners from Colorado, Florida, Texas and California joined competitors from every part of Michigan. One non-Michiganer, Norman James, 49, has flown in from California for the Briarwood 5K so many times, he's become a frequent flier as well as a frequent runner.

"Next year, my ticket will be free," says the exercise physiotherapist, who has missed only two Briarwood Runs since 1980. "It's very well organized, and it's a real festive atmosphere."

The first male and female runners to cross the finish line were both newcomers to the Briarwood Run. Bob Masters, 26, of Toledo, ran the 5K in 15:42.

"It was a real fast course—nice and fast," said the former University of Toledo runner.

Nancy Shafer Boudreau, 42, of Ann Arbor, led the 5K women with a 18:52 despite injuries that have kept her from "serious" running for about six years.

Thom Dew, 23, of Milan, over-all winner in the 10K with a 32:40, did more than his share of running. Dew, who runs the 5K and 10K on Eastern Michigan University's track team had to rush off to his own graduation ceremonies immediately after the race.

Other over-all winners include:

- 20K Female—Laura Murphy, 1:17:30; Rochester (1991 Briarwood Run 10K winner; 1992 10K second place)

- 10K Female—Sue Tatigian; 38:08; Livonia (1992 Briarwood Run 20K winner; 1991 10K second place)

- One-Mile Walk—Male—Laquey Michaelides; 9:04; Ann Arbor.

Runners from Chelsea were Steven and Manuela Ballard, Anne Becker, Leslie Collins, Sheila Crean, Trisha Druke-Heusel, Molly Feeney, Randall Fox, Gerald Gillikin and Dennis Hall.

Also William Hawks, Mark Heusel, Michael Jurosek, Debra Koenn, Craig Meldrum, Terry Miller, David Parham, Anji Roberts, John Roberts, Jennifer Rossi, Steve Royacki, Paul Runkle.

And Mary Lou Severin, Sarah Slater, Kathy Spencer, Richard Steele and George Till.

John Jackson of Ann Arbor powered his $1,500 red racing wheelchair over the 10K finish line. Jackson, disabled in a diving accident 31 years ago, enters 10-15 races each year. He had no trouble deciding what he found most difficult this run: "The hills, the winds and being 47," he explains.

Parke Davis took the corporate award for having 30 employees who finished the race. Other corporate finishers include Syron Engineering and Manufacturing (10); Jacobson's (7); Olive Garden (4); U-M Environmental (4); Laddies (3); Banana Republic (3) and Cit Ruben (2).

The Ann Arbor Track Club took first place for total number of neighborhood finishers with 12. Others include LPG (3), U-M Shotokan Karate Club (3), BCC Striders (2), Redford Road Runners (2) and Deleview Deliveries (2).

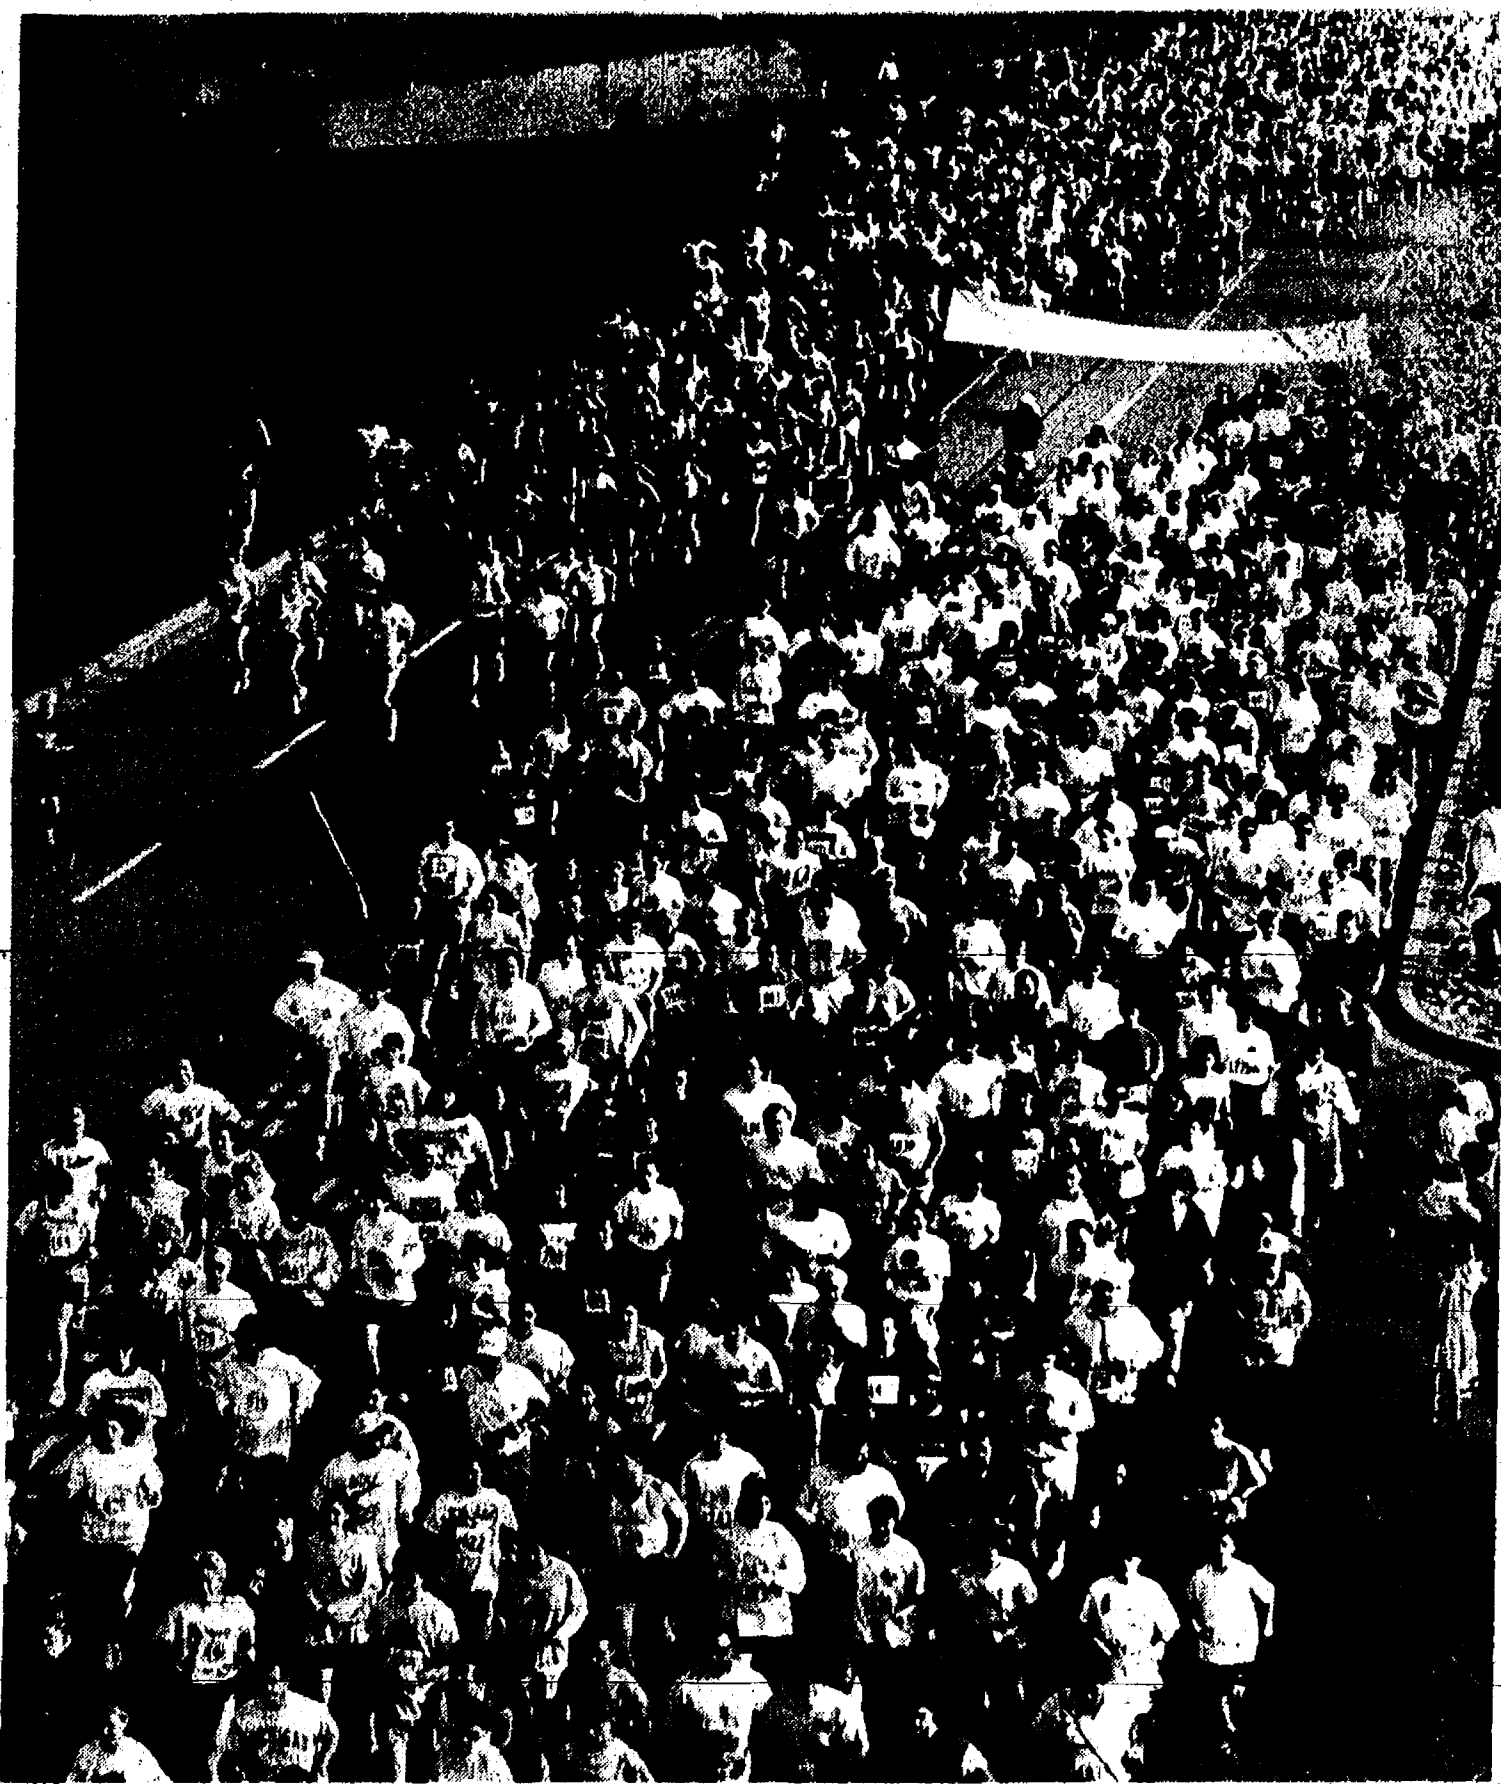

After the race, runners gathered in Briarwood's Grand Court for an awards presentation and drawings for thousands of dollars in gift certificates and merchandise prizes.

Linda Mcardle of Wixom, who had never before entered a race, won the grand prize, a $500 shopping spree at Briarwood. The 5K runner, who wasn't quite as lucky in the race, said she'll use some of the money to buy new shoes and headphones for next year's race.

All profits from the Briarwood Run go to the Galens Medical Society, a group of University of Michigan medical students who contribute to a variety of child-centered projects in Washtenaw County.

Briarwood also contributed $1,000 to the Kristin McLain Foundation, in Eli Zaret's name, and $1,000 to St. Patrick's church in Whitmore Lake in Fat Bob Taylor's name. The Kristin McLain Foundation works with Mott Children's Hospital and other children's groups. St. Patrick's is one of the oldest churches in Michigan.

"I think we all came out winners today," says Fox. "The weather was unbelievable. Everyone had a great time. And we've raised thousands of dollars to help hundreds of children. That's what it's all about."

Gov. Engler Praised For Support of Renewable Fuels

Michigan Farm Bureau is very pleased with the added support recently expressed by Gov. Engler for renewable fuels being a part of the federal reformulated gasoline program.

The governor sent a letter to President Clinton urging the finalization of a proposed rule that would require that 30 percent of the oxygenates used in reformulated gasoline be derived from renewable sources.

"We're happy and pleased that we have additional support for this effort," said MFB commodity specialist Bob Boehm. "To show our commitment to this important proposal, Farm Bureau has also been urging farmers to mail their seed corn tags to the President, USDA Secretary Mike Espy and their congressmen."

Ethanol reduces greenhouse gas emissions, promotes rural development, reduces America's dependence on imported petroleum products and stimulates demand for agriculturally-derived products to help reduce federal farm deficiency payments, according to Boehm.

Community, Economic Development Agent Named for Washtenaw

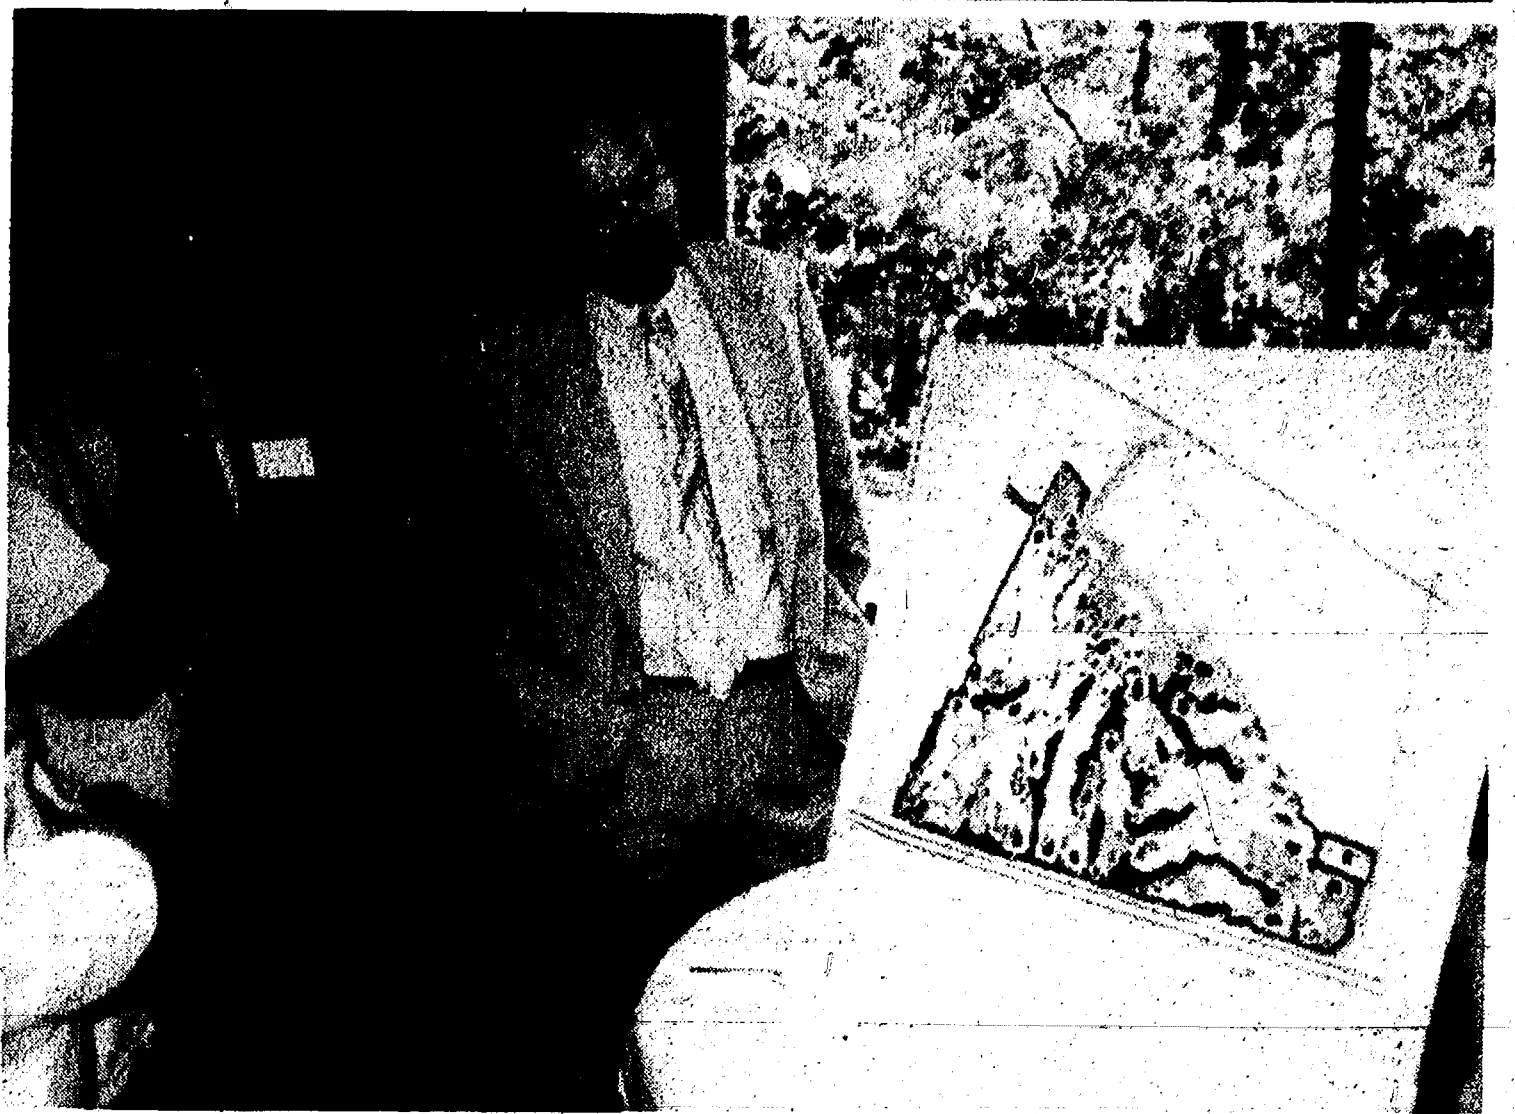

Richard Wooten, of Detroit, has been appointed the Michigan State University community and economic development agent for Wayne and Washtenaw counties. He began his duties May 2.

He will plan, develop and conduct Extension programs in community and economic development.

Wooten was graduated from Norfolk State University, Norfolk, Va., in 1989 with a bachelor's degree in urban planning. He obtained his master's degree in city and regional planning from Ohio State University in 1991.

He was a housing analyst for the Urban League in Norfolk, Va., in 1988-89, a planning intern with the Northeast Area Commission, Columbus, O., in 1990-91, and an Ohio Co-operative Extension Service associate in community development in 1991-94.

Wooten will be headquartered at the Washtenaw County Extension office in the County Service Center, 4133 Washtenaw Ave., Ann Arbor.

FRED BARKLEY, director of Washtenaw County Parks and Recreation and a Chelsea resident, was the speaker for the Chelsea Economic Breakfast Club last Wednesday. Barkley explained details of the plan for the

Construction Will Start Soon on Golf Course

You may not want to bring out the golf clubs from the back of the garage just yet.

Fred Barkley, director of parks and recreation for Washtenaw county, discussed the future plans for the Pierce Lake Golf Course and Park with the Economic Breakfast Club during its May 18 meeting.

The park, which will be located between M-52 and Freer Rd., is set to begin construction on June 15.

Harry Bowers, who has designed golf courses for Robert Trent Jones, was chosen from a field of six area course designers to lay out the 18-hole, 6,873 yard (6,276 yards from the short tees) public course.

Bowers' design will utilize the area's natural layout, Barkley said.

"We selected the site because of the diversity it offers," Barkley explained. "Harry will be designing the course to fit naturally."

Barkley said he hoped nine holes of the course would be ready to play on by August of 1995, with the entire course's opening for the start of the 1996 golf season.

The rest of the park, which includes a nature trail that surrounds Pierce Lake, a picnic area, pavilion, and cross-country skiing and ice skating in the winter, is being designed by Johnson, Johnson & Roy of Ann Arbor.

The park, aside from the golf course, will be open to the public at no charge. However, Barkley said, there will be gates and fences around the park since it will be closed at night.

The entire 230-acre park is being funded by a Park Fund millage and a $400,000 grant from the Land Trust Fund, Barkley said.

Barkley said he believes Pierce Lake Park, which is set to open in the Spring of 1996, will enhance Chelsea's community on the whole.

"It adds tremendously to the quality of life in the area," Barkley said.

"Along with the hospital and fairgrounds, (the park) makes it a really nice place to live."

Barkley said another advantage to the park would be the preservation of a large wildlife area.

"What it does," Barkley said, "is it assures there is a large open space in the area that will be preserved forever."

County Deputies Report Warrant Arrests, Crime

Washtenaw County Sheriff's deputies investigated several incidents in Dexter Village and Scio, Webster, Lima, Lyndon, Sharon, Sylvan and Dexter townships, May 6-17.

Lima Township

Kyle T. Donnelly, 18, of Chelsea was arrested on a felony warrant at his residence on Trinkle Rd., May 17. Donnelly was wanted on a warrant for breaking and entering with intent. He was taken to Washtenaw county jail.

A 33-year-old Kentucky man was arrested for operating an automobile under the influence of liquor and for having an unlawful blood/alcohol level on the westbound I-94 ramp near Fletcher Rd., May 12. Police were dispatched to the location for a vehicle in the ditch. Upon arrival, police found the man inside the vehicle stuck in the ditch. Police noticed a strong odor of intoxicants on the driver's breath, as well as blood shot and watery eyes. The man claimed he fell asleep and drove into the ditch. He denied consuming alcohol. The man told police he wanted to talk to an attorney before taking a breath test to determine his blood/alcohol level. After making several telephone calls from jail, and two hours later, the man took a breath test that revealed a .10 percent blood/alcohol level, which is over the legal limit. The man then requested a blood test. He was taken to St. Joseph Hospital for the test, and then returned to jail.

Malicious destruction of property was reported in the 13000 block of Trinkle Rd., May 12. A 43-year-old township man told police someone blew up his mailbox with an explosive device, causing $50 in damages. The victim believes the culprit is a co-conspirator with his son, who is being charged with felony larceny. The victim's son confessed and implicated the alleged suspect. The man thinks the mailbox bombing was in retaliation.

Attempted larceny of automobile parts was reported at Nixon's Auto Parts on Jackson Rd., May 15. The store's owner reported the larceny to police. He caught a 42-year-old Gregory man trespassing and attempting to steal a front-end steering assembly worth $150-$200 from a 1983 Buick. The suspect admitted to parking his vehicle down the road and walking through a field to enter the junk yard. He said he crawled under the vehicle and tried to remove the parts before the store owner caught him. It was noted in the deputy's report that the suspect has an extensive criminal history. A prosecutor will review the case.

Lyndon Township

Breaking and entering was reported in the 100 block of Island Lake Rd., May 13. A 44-year-old township man told police someone broke into his residence and stole an air gun, 20 ton air jack and other tools valued at $5,000. Thieves entered through a basement door. The homeowner said he heard his dog barking around 10 p.m. May 12, but ignored it. The next day, he and his wife left around 8 a.m. and returned at noon. He went into the basement to get some tools, and that is when he discovered them missing.

Sharon Township

A runaway juvenile and a stolen car were recovered on Hazel Rd. near Sylvan Rd., May 13. The 15-year-old Chelsea boy was reported as a runaway May 12 when he fled in the family car, a 1986 Ford Escort. Police were dispatched to the area regarding a suspicious vehicle. They found the car parked in the North Sharon Baptist church parking lot with its rear, driver's side door smashed out. Police entered the license plate number and discovered it was stolen. They checked the area and found the juvenile at Grass Lake Rd. near M-52. The boy's parents told police he has run away six times. They said they can no longer handle him.

Sylvan Township

Angela M. Zagerman, 22, of Ypsilanti was arrested on a warrant May 18 near Glazier Rd. The warrant was issued out of the Ann Arbor Police Department for a misdemeanor. She was transported to Ann Arbor by county deputies.

Dexter Township

An accidental fire was reported in the 20900 block of Waterloo Rd., May 17. A 44-year-old township woman told police her son last drove the car and parked it in the driveway. A short time later, they heard a loud bang and when they went to investigate they found the passenger compartment engulfed in flames. The woman initially tried to put it out with a garden hose while awaiting fire department personnel. She suffered some smoke inhalation and required oxygen. She told police the car was an older model Mercury with an oil leak. The fire was classified as accidental.

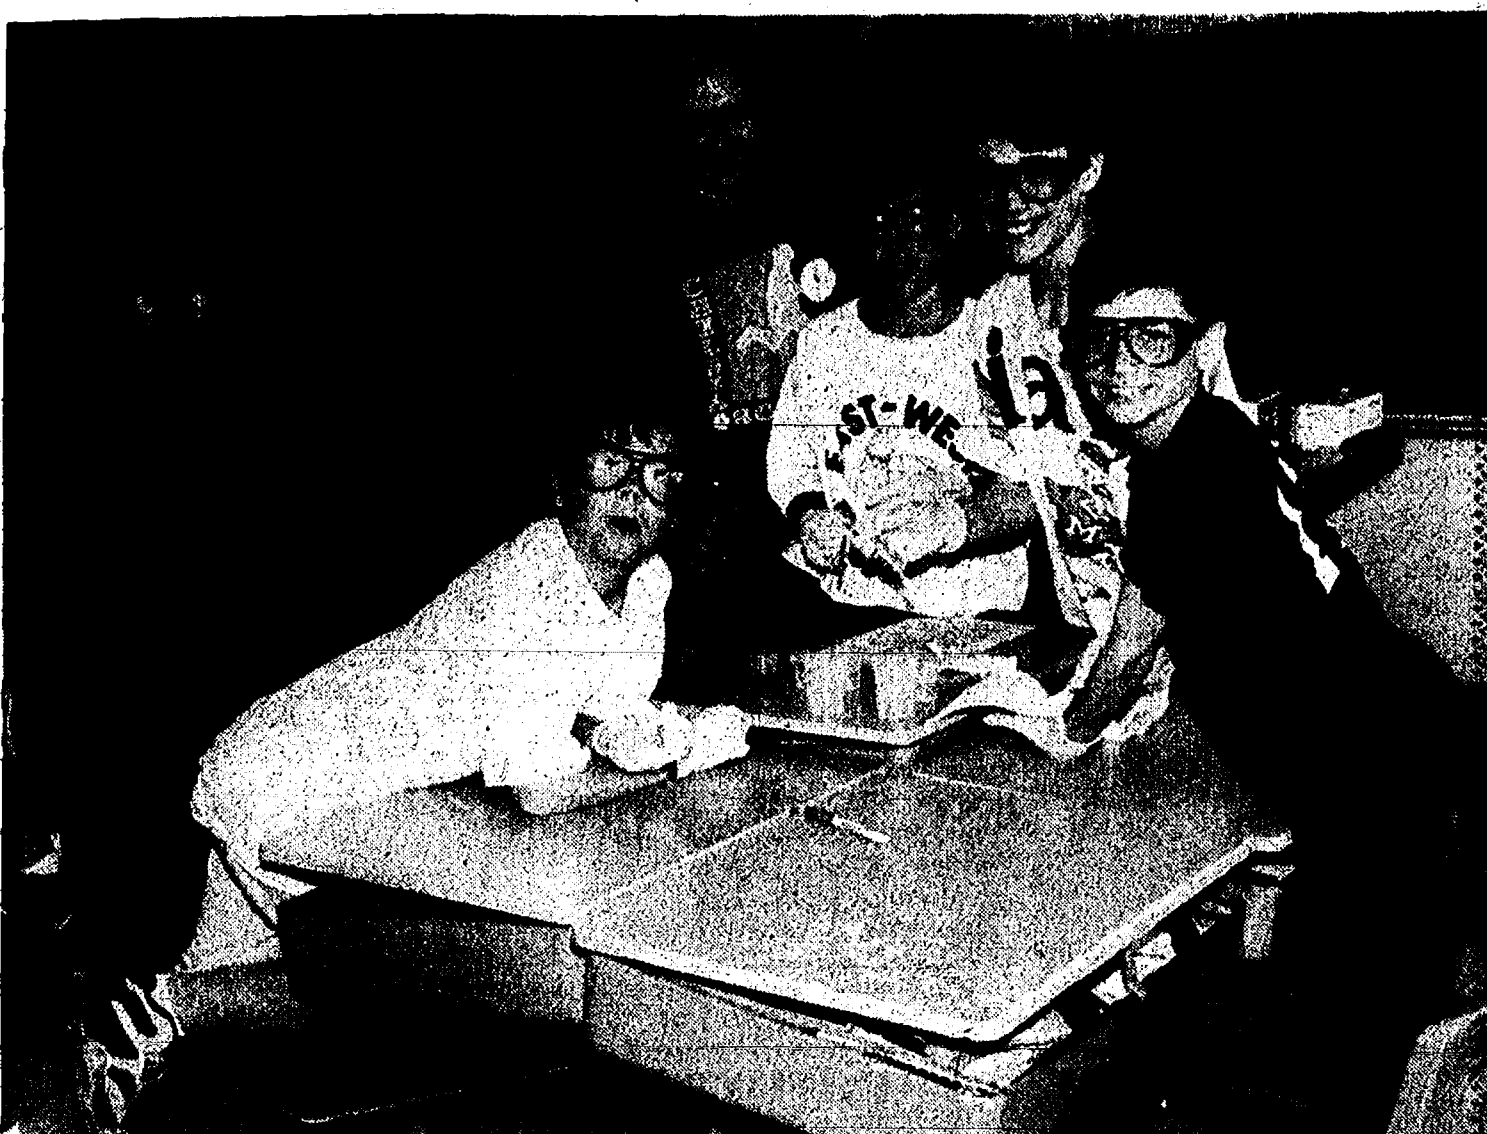

Larceny was reported in the 9200 block of Dexter-Pinckney Rd., May 14. A 79-year-old township man told police someone stole a gas tank with six gallons of gasoline in it. He last saw it on his pontoon boat around 9 p.m. May 13. It was discovered missing the next day around 3 p.m. It is valued at $57. Police have no suspects or witnesses.

A township man, 49, reported two guns and a hunting knife stolen from his home in the 12900 block of McKinley Heights Dr., May 15. Initially, he thought a .45-caliber semi-automatic handgun was missing. A few days later, however, he discovered his Winchester shot gun and a hunting knife were stolen as well. Thieves gained entry by cutting a window screen and prying open the window.

A 14-year-old township boy was reportedly bitten by a dalmatian in the 7700 block of Dexter Townhall Rd., May 16 about 5 p.m. The boy was invited over by the dog owner's son to see the dog. When the victim tried to pet the dog, the dog bit his right-hand wrist. The dog's owner is checking on vaccination records. He said the dog has never bitten anyone before.

Dexter Village

Linda A. Logan, 47, of Dexter was arrested May 13 at her residence in the 2200 block of Baker Rd. on a felony warrant for embezzlement. She was taken to Washtenaw county jail.

The percentage of high school graduates enrolled in college was fairly stable in the 1970s but rose sharply in the 1980s. More than 40 percent of the graduates who go to college are also in the labor force. The labor force participation rate of graduates enrolled in college rose between 1970 and 1980 and then changed little in the next decade, according to the Labor Department's Bureau of Labor Statistics.
