Chelsea School District Voters Face 3 Issues

Chelsea School District voters will face three issues on the ballot during Monday's school election.

A proposal to levy a total 24 mills, instead of six on non-homestead property, a renewal of one mill for building maintenance and the election of two school board members is set June 13.

With the passage of Proposal A in March and the decrease in property taxes, school districts are required to ask voters for an additional 18 mills on non-homestead property in order to receive their full state-guaranteed foundation grant for each student in the district.

Non-homestead property includes businesses, industry, rental property and second homes. State legislation requires school districts to levy these additional 18 mills to receive the same funding they received last year, plus three percent. Eventually, every district in the state will have to vote on these mills. Half of the districts in Michigan are voting this spring.

A request to renew one mill for building maintenance will affect all taxable property. The district has had this maintenance mill for 16 years.

With the passage of both proposals, school property taxes on homestead property will be reduced over 80 percent. Non-homestead property will realize a 30 percent reduction. Passage will also allow the school district to continue to operate at a consistent funding level in the future.

Besides the two proposals, school district voters have four school board candidates to choose from to fill two vacant seats. Running for election are Jane Diesing, Rodney Craig, David McWhorter and Dayle Wright.

Diesing is an incumbent who was elected in 1990. She is a Chelsea High school graduate who is married with three children, two who currently attend Chelsea Schools.

Craig is a first-time school board candidate. He works as a social worker and is employed by the Zion Lutheran church in Ann Arbor as Director of Youth Ministry and Parent Education and Family Counseling. Craig is married with two children, one who currently attends Chelsea Schools.

McWhorter is a first-time school board candidate. He is self-employed at D & D Food Brokers in Chelsea. He is married with two children, both enrolled in Chelsea Schools.

Wright is currently a member of the McKune Library Board of Trustees. She also serves on the central curriculum committee and is in charge of the tutoring program at South Elementary school. She is a registered dietitian who is married with two children enrolled in Chelsea Schools.

The polls open at 7 a.m., June 13. Voting takes place a Beach Middle school until 8 p.m.

Wednesday, June 8, 1990—

A violent storm Saturday night knocked down hundreds of trees in the Chelsea area, tore part of the roof off Beach Middle school, knocked out electrical power all over the area, overturned a storage semi-trailer at Belsier Estates, and damaged homes but apparently caused no serious injuries. Although no one so far has reported seeing a tornado or funnel cloud, the storm left a 50-foot-wide trail of damage from Old US-12 near St. Mary's Catholic church running westward to Washington St. and beyond.

Chelsea High School seniors were honored and received scholarships at Class Night last Wednesday, May 27. Principal Ron Mead, who assumed his position last fall, gave his first welcome to the group. Jude Quilter and Sarah Gegenheimer were the only juniors to receive awards, the American Legion Award.

Chelsea School District voters will go to the polls Monday to elect two new school board members from among 11 candidates. Board members Craig Wales and Barb Cherem, whose terms expire this year, decided not to seek re-election. Running for the seats are Dona Baird, A. Marie Colombo, Jane Diesing, Roger Dymond, James P. Eyster, Elin Gutierrez, Conrad Knutsen, Richard McCalla, Roderick Powers, Janet Roberts and Mary K. Weber.

Susan Maynard, a 1990 Chelsea High school cum laude graduate, is this year's winner of the McClure Memorial Essay Contest. Maynard's essay, "The Merit of Staying Small," expresses her desire to see Chelsea retain its "small-community" atmosphere. It was selected as the contest winner by a panel of three local judges.

Chelsea High school senior Nanette Push was named to the Associated Press All-State Class B softball team last week. A remarkably strong fireballer whose development as a pitcher closely parallels the rise of Chelsea softball, Push ended the season with a 6-2 record, striking out 1.23 per inning and recording a 0.75 ERA.

The Timberland Game Reserve, located on North Territorial Rd., just 15 miles from downtown Chelsea, officially opened. After 15 years of building up herds of exotic foreign and domestic animals on what used to be a garbage dump, owner "Big Louie" Ruggiello decided to open his treasure to the public. The preserve is the home for such wild animals as bison, wild black bears and several varieties of deer.

A tragic plane crash at Youngs Field on Jackson Rd., not far from Dexter, took the lives of two men Tuesday evening, shortly after 7 p.m. Herman Harold Rowe, Jr., 30, of Ann Arbor and Bruce Warren Barnett, 46, of Wayne, were co-owners of the plane, which was apparently based at Young Field. Witnesses estimated the plane to be about 200 feet above a runway at the airfield, just prior to the plane's sudden plunge groundward.

Chelsea High school's class of 1970 met for their 50th reunion Saturday, June 20, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Lucht, Four Mile Lake. The former classmates met together in the afternoon to reminisce, then all 46 class members and their spouses dined at Schumann's. Reunited former students hailed from Rochester,

BEHIND THE HEADLINES:

Moral Decline Threatens Younger Generation

The signs of moral decline in America are nothing new. But recent studies indicate the damage to our younger generation is growing at an alarming rate.

By Philip C. Clarke

According to government statistics, more than 3 million crimes a year are being committed in or near the nation's 85,000 public schools. Not surprisingly, University of Michigan researchers found that 16% of 8th graders fear for their safety. Moreover, school crimes have grown more violent and the perpetrators are younger.

"Behind all this violence," says Eagle Forum's Education Reporter, "is a startling shift in adolescent attitudes against respect for life, and not just in inner cities." Of suburban high schoolers surveyed by Tulane University researchers, 20% approved of shooting someone "who has stolen something from you." Eight percent believed it was O.K. to shoot a person "who has done something to offend or insult you."

There's an obvious contributing factor here. According to the American Psychological Association, children watch an average of 8,000 murders and 100,000 other violent acts on television before finishing elementary school. Said a New York Times report: "The disquieting picture of youth portrayed by Beavis and Butt-head (two crude and ill-mannered TV cartoon characters) is growing alarmingly close to the truth." It cites a new study showing that emotional and behavioral problems have been increasing among American children since the mid-1970s.

Conducted by Dr. Thomas Achenbach, director of the Center for Children, Youth and Families at the University of Vermont, the nationwide study rated major problems encountered by a sampling of more than 2,000 children from 7 to 16 as seen by their parents and teachers. Problems showing the biggest increase ranged from destroying other people's property and hanging out with troublemakers to doing poorly in school work, lack of motivation, withdrawal, disobedience, anxiety and depression. Of the 188 specific problems assessed, there was an improvement in only one—the number of sports in which the children like to participate.

Says Dr. Achenbach: "There are probably multiple factors behind such a widespread increase in problems. They include high levels of violence on the streets and in the media, less parental monitoring of what kids are doing, less time with parents because there are more single parent families and families with both parents working. And schools are having to cope with non-educational issues like discipline, making it harder to fulfill their basic mission of education."

In yet another recent survey, the firm of Roper Starch Worldwide interviewed a cross section of 1,003 parents of 12- to 17-year-olds and 283 young persons in that age range on what they consider the greatest threats to children. The negative influence of TV, movies and videos was cited by 50% of the parents, and by 29% of the young people. Declining moral values were considered a threat by 48% of the parents, and 27% of the youngsters. Pressure to have sex at too young an age was cited by 46% of the parents and 44% of the teens. AIDS and street crimes were rated by both groups at 44% and 42%, respectively. Other threats to children that ranked highly included violence in schools, teen pregnancy and poor job prospects.

In his landmark Index of Leading Cultural Indicators, William J. Bennett, the former Education Secretary and onetime anti-drug czar, produced another set of shocking statistics. Based on data from the Census Bureau, the FBI and other government sources, Dr. Bennett found that since 1980 violent crime in America has increased by 500%, the number of unmarried pregnant teen-agers has doubled, the teen-age suicide rate has tripled, the number of children living in single-parent families has tripled, and since 1980 SAT scores have dropped by 75%—despite the fact that spending on education has increased by more than 200%.

Addressing the Heritage Foundation last December, Bennett said his chief worry is that the American people are "not unsettled enough" about our moral decline, adding "I don't think we are angry enough. We have become inured to the cultural rot that is setting in. . . . People are experiencing atrocity overload, losing their capacity for shock, disgust and outrage." Concluded Bennett: "We must decline to accept the end of moral man. We must carry on the struggle for our children. We will push hard against an age that is pushing hard against us. When we do, we will emerge victorious against the trials of our time."

Bennett may be on to something. A new Gallup poll indicates signs of a possible moral revival. Reversing a three-year decline, some 50% of all teen-agers attended religious services last year—outnumbering adults by nearly 10 percent.

Uncle Lew from Lima Says:

DEAR MISTER EDITOR:

After Saturday night's session at the country store I am convinced that the hurrier we go the behinder we get. You name a road we think leads to progress, and for every two steps we take down it we fall back one. It ain't no wonder, as Bug Hookum took note, that other countries make us disinfect our jetliners before they let them land. They don't want what we got, except our laundered money.

Bug read where the U.S. Transportation Secretary has complained to more than 20 countries that spraying made some passengers sick, and he wanted them to stop requiring it. Bug wondered why Americans ain't immune to pesticide by now, since we've been breathing and eating it 50 years. He read recent that no matter how much we clean our store bought fruits and vegetables they still have at least four kinds of chemicals on em when we eat em.

As for jetliner air, Bug went on, that ought not to bother us either. We know whatever one passenger has got all the others have a good chance of getting. Bug said they all breathe the same air over and over because six year ago the Federal Aviation Administration let airlines cut off their fresh air systems part of the time to save money.

General, the fellows viewed the situation with as much alarm as Bug did. Zeke Grubb took note that what the FAA did for jetliner air is being done all over. He saw recent where Congress give up on standards for the country's drinking water because there's no way to meet em. The hard fact is, Zeke said, we pollute faster than we can clean, just as we tear up roads faster than we can fix em. Zeke went on to note the harder fact that when we can't protect our food, air and water that don't leave much reason for all the environment and public health agencies.

Practical speaking, Clem Webster said, he won't buy the giving up. We always keep butting the dam, no matter how big it is, was his words. For instant, he said reading behind the Food and Drug Administration reminds him of a one arm man trying to hold a dozen gords underwater. Every time the FDA gets a hold on one three pop up somewhere. Clem was thinking of the recent report that margarine is as bad for us as butter. In nutrition, like economics, the questions stay the same but the answers change every six months. Now what do we spread on bread?

Well, Bug said, it won't be peanut butter unless it is peanut butter. He had a clip where the FDA says Peter Pan and Skipper can't call their new low fat spreads peanut butter because they ain't 90 percent peanuts. Both cut down on peanuts and added soybean to reduce fat, Bug went on, so the next sound we hear might be the butter and margarine catch where the soybean oil clogs pipes quicker than peanut oil.

As for this new food labeling, Bug said we might as well put "not" on every box and bottle and go from there. Not enough peanuts for peanut butter, not enough alcohol for beer, not enough egg for maynalse, not enough pork for sausage and, final, not enough food for food, just additives and preservatives.

It's enough to make a fellow go back to reading about tripe, stomach and floor sweepings on potted meat cans.

Yours truly,
Uncle Lew.

Employer Group Offers Free Information Seminar

How can the Michigan Employment Security Commission (MESC) help you locate and recruit qualified professionals, skilled and unskilled workers? Find out the answer to this question and learn how to use your tax dollars more effectively through MESC services at an upcoming free seminar sponsored by the Washtenaw County Job Service Employers' Council (JSEC) and the Ypsilanti MESC. At the seminar, employers will learn what services are available through the local MESC office, including three computerized programs which save employers time and money in recruiting employees.

MESC experts will discuss the agency's Job Service Resume System, an automated system that provides resumes of local professionals and technicians from a variety of fields, the MAJIC computer system which matches employers with prospective employees, and Open Options, an automated data base which allows employers to broaden the search for qualified candidates by cross referencing skills required by more than one occupation.

"Employers pay taxes for MESC services," said Margaret Sherman, manager of the Ypsilanti MESC. "At this meeting we will provide a forum for them to learn how to save time and money by using the services the agency offers."

The seminar will take place Wednesday, June 22, from 8 a.m. to 11 a.m. including continental breakfast and hands-on demonstrations. It will be held at Domino's Pizza World Headquarters, Domino's Farms, Ulrich Room-East, located on Earhart Rd. near Plymouth Rd. in Ann Arbor. Those interested in attending must RSVP by June 20, to Margaret Sherman of the Ypsilanti MESC at (313) 482-1566.

Other JSEC seminars planned for this year include topics such as the unemployment appeals process, Department of Labor wage and hour issues, and automatic wage reporting for MESC.

HBA Presenting Showcase of Homes

The Home Builders Association of Washtenaw County (HBA) will present their 10th annual Showcase of Homes from June 11-19.

A record 51 homes, located throughout Washtenaw county, will be featured on this year's tour which is co-sponsored by Great Lakes Bancorp and Michigan Consolidated Gas Co. In 1985, the first Showcase of Homes featured nine homes. "The Showcase of Homes provides consumers with a unique opportunity to tour beautifully landscaped and furnished homes of different styles in various price ranges," said HBA executive officer Maureen Sloan.

Each year, a portion of the Showcase ticket proceeds are donated by the HBA to local non-profit firms that assist economically disadvantaged citizens. The HBA has designated Christmas in April-Washtenaw and the Ann Arbor Affordable Housing Network as the 1994 Showcase support recipients.

Hours for the 1994 Showcase of Homes are 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. on Saturday, Sunday and Wednesday; and 6 p.m. to 10 p.m. on Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday. Starting point

Letters to the Editor

To the Editor,
As a long-time reader of The Chelsea Standard (having lived in Chelsea), I'm always interested in the Letters to the Editor, particularly the column of May 25.

The writer congratulated the Purple Rose Theatre's excellent offering of "Kelly & Du," but expressed dismay at the wide portrayal of a typical pro-lifer. Imagine my dismay in noting that the writer is a teen. Well—to counter the powerful pro-abortion position in full view of her neighbors and fellow students takes some courage! Corrie Schoenberg, you and your parents must be doing something right and I congratulate you both.

Mary Collins.

To The Editor,
Farm Bureau members in this county worked hard to support passage of proposal A because they believed it was a fair and equitable means of reforming school financing in Michigan. And although a 6-mill school operating status had been promised to the agricultural sector by leaders of the House and Senate before the vote on March 15, farmers faced a long wait as the legislative process ground out a farmland definition that would ensure rate equity and immediate effect for ag land. That legislation, the Gustafson-Profit bill, passed May 12 and was signed by Gov. John Engler on May 24.

Unfortunately, while farmers understand that the legislation extends fairness and equity under the tax reform law to all agricultural property, there has been criticism that the bill is, in effect, special tax treatment for agriculture. Far from being a special tax break, the Gustafson-Profit bill means that virtually all ag land will be taxed at the same rate and that no agricultural producer will be unfairly taxed at a higher rate than his or her farm neighbor. Without this legislation, farmers—and only farmers—would have been paying different rates on identical parcels.

Farm Bureau members in Washtenaw county demonstrated the kind of grass roots leadership on this issue that was needed for passage. No demonstrations, no rallies—just Farm Bureau members talking, one to one, with their representatives in the Legislature about what is right and fair for Michigan agriculture.

Harold Trinkle, President
Washtenaw County Farm Bureau

FLAG DAY June 14th

It seems a pertinent question to ask these days, "What does the flag mean to you? Is it only a symbol? If so, of what? Our nation's independence? Of freedom and democracy? Something to salute occasionally (out of habit)? Is it just a piece of cloth to which a pledge is said? Or does it take center stage mainly at athletic events when a song is sung hurriedly to get a game underway? Is it identified only with a ritualistic habit?"

What do the colors of red, white and blue mean? Do the number of stars mean only a union of separate states? Do the stars mean anything else? What do the red and white stripes represent? Does the color of red symbolize the blood shed by soldiers to gain independence for us? Does the white indicate hope, purity and cleanliness? Does the blue indicate the color of the sky and sea which in turn indicates reverence to God?

... It may mean some of these things to some people. But should it not mean, above everything else, a symbol of American Civilization, Enlightenment and Liberty; a reflection of patriotism at its finest?

Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor:

You ran a letter from Corrie Schoenberg regarding the play "Keely and Du" that was performed at the Purple Rose Theatre. After seeing the same letter in The Ann Arbor News, I feel obliged to express my concerns about her statements.

Ms. Schoenberg was unhappy because the "Pro-Life" protagonist was portrayed as a fanatic character. She neglected to observe that the "Pro-Choice" protagonist was equally "fanatic" both in viewpoint and in being portrayed as an extreme example of that character. I would argue that this particular dramatization of a dialogue about abortion was both theatrically well conceived and dialectically well balanced.

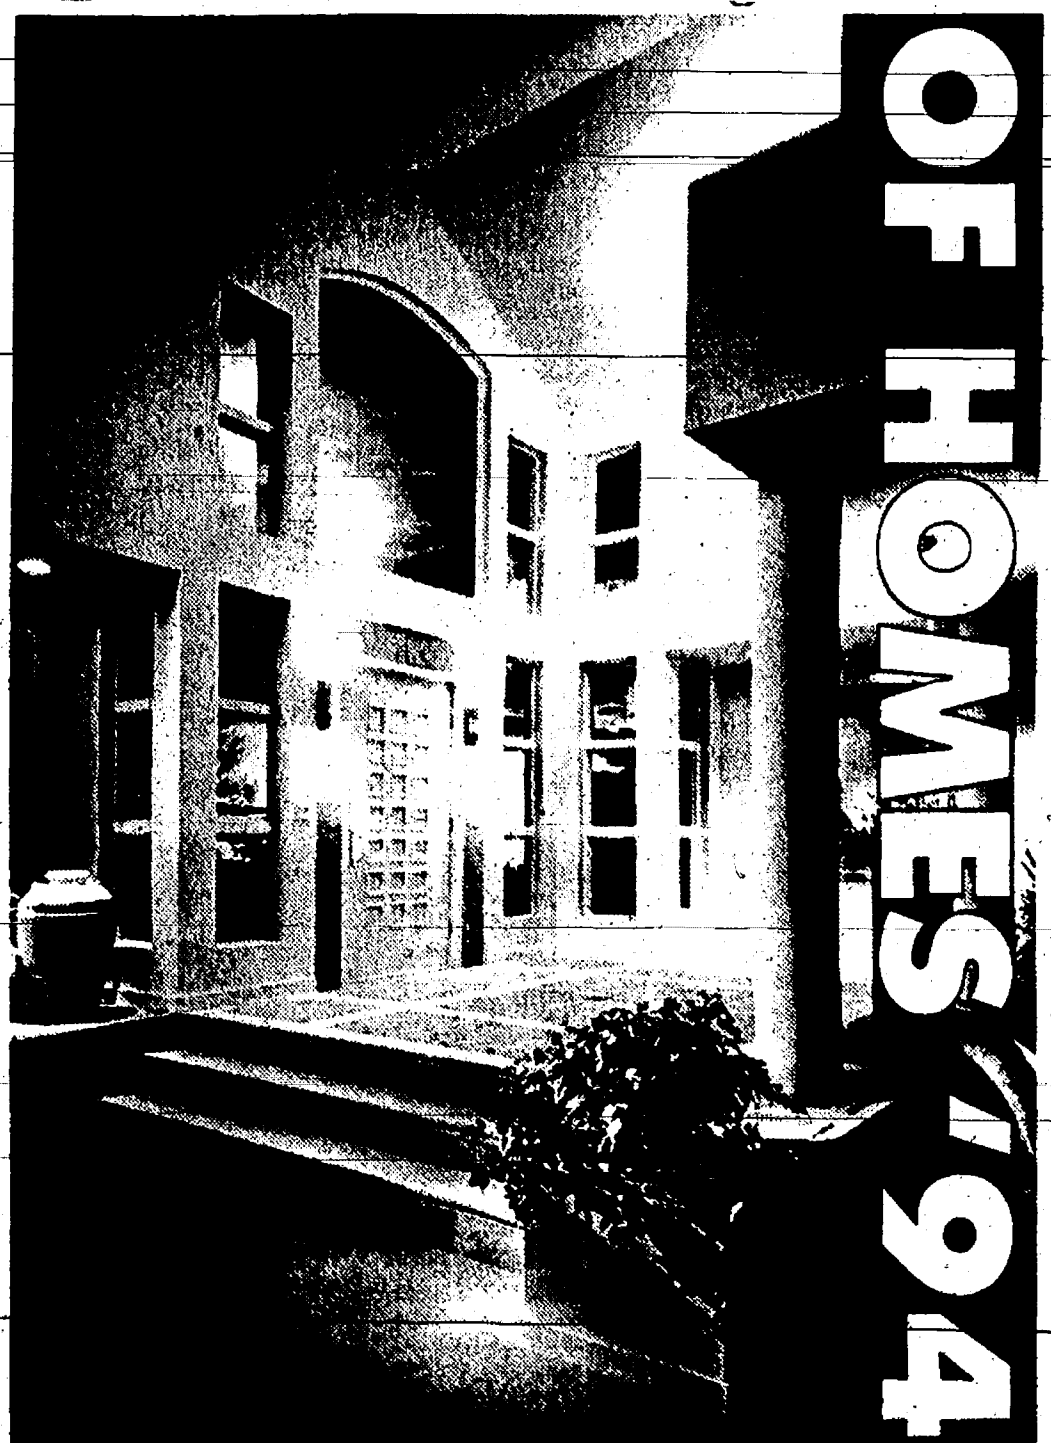

I agree with Ms. Schoenberg that this was an exceptionally good production, with particularly fine acting. I have seen every production at The Purple Rose at least once. Chelsea can be proud to have such a superb professional theatre company in our community. We should be especially proud to be able to see the best quality of dramatic performances, including serious drama as well as the more popular form of dramatic comedies.

1994 School Millage Votes Very Different from Past Millage Votes

By State Treasurer Douglas B. Roberts
Voters in many districts will be going to the polls this month to vote on school millages—millage votes that many thought were a thing of the past. With the passage of Proposal A in March, Michigan voters have been assured a more equitable school funding system and will receive significantly lower school property taxes on primary homes.

Our new school taxing system lowers schools' reliance on local school mills by up to 65%. It does, however, require some local effort toward paying for the changes in our school financing system. The following points will, I hope, give you important information as you decide how you will vote on an upcoming millage election.

- ALL property in the state is assessed a 6 mill State property tax. This tax is not voted and is collected with other local property taxes and forwarded to the state School Aid Fund.

- All school districts must levy an additional 18 mills on NON-HOME-STEAD property in order to receive their full state guaranteed foundation grant for each student in the district. These 18 mills, if previously in place before Proposal A, may continue to be levied without a vote until they expire. Once these mills expire, local voters must renew these 18 mills on NON-HOMESTEADS. These 18 mills, plus the 6 state mills, will guarantee a per-pupil foundation grant equal to this year's revenues plus an inflationary cost of not less than $160 per student. This formula applies to the 517 districts which spent less than $6,500 per student in 1993-94.

- There are 40 districts in which revenues were more than $6,500 per student this year. In these districts, "hold harmless" mills will be required in addition to the millage listed above. The "hold harmless" mills will be used to make up the difference between the state-funded $6,500 per student and the current spending per student. For example, if a school district was spending $8,500 per pupil in 1993-94, then the "hold harmless" mills will be needed to raise $2,000 per pupil—the difference between $6,500 and $8,500.

- Finally, some local school districts are seeking an allowable three extra mills for up to three years. These "enhancement" mills can only be levied for three years and cannot be renewed. School districts requesting voter support for these extra mills will need to tell local voters the purpose of these extra mills for their own school district.

One of the most important aspects of our new financing system is that most districts presenting a renewal request to voters are asking for extended authorization—thus eliminating the frequent voting patterns of the past and allowing voters to vote every 10 to 20 years. This provides a considerable savings in human and financial resources which can, and should, be used more effectively in the classroom.

Thus, school districts are not completely out of the millage business. Locking in 18 mills on NON-HOMESTEADS will not limit revenues per student; the State will continue to fund increases. And, Proposal A amended the State Constitution guaranteeing per-pupil revenues will never fall below this year's levels... regardless of what happens in our economy over time.

If a district fails to approve the 18 mills on non-homestead property, the result will be less dollars for the school district. The Legislature is working on a bill that clearly outlines what happens if voters fail to support the 18 mills. It is expected that the school district will continue to receive the state portion of their per-pupil foundation grant, but would lose the local portion. This situation would effectively cut school revenues by 50% to 60% in some districts.

If you live in a school district that spent more than $6,500 per pupil, you will be asked to vote the 18 mills on non-homesteads and a number of additional mills on your homestead. The purpose of these additional mills is to maintain the level of spending your district experienced during this school year.

The bottom line is that for the vast majority of school districts, homestead taxes for schools will be limited to 6 mills and non-homestead taxes will be 24 mills.

Please keep this information in mind as you go to the polls this month to vote on school mills. And remember, the 18 mills you are voting will be placed on NON-HOMESTEAD property only.

Depot Seeks Help With Landscaping

Chelsea Depot Association is trying to start some landscaping at the depot this year. They have engaged the services of a landscape architect, Scott Kunst, who has drawn up a tentative first phase, which the board would like to try to start working on this spring.

The board is looking for some people who would be interested in preparing, planting and maintaining some annual flower beds at the depot. Any interested party should contact Bill Chandler at 475-8578 for more information.

The board would also be interested in seeing any early photographs (circa 1900) of the depot and its landscaping to aid them in their project.

Black women will comprise the largest share of the increase in the non-white labor force. In fact, by the year 2000, black women will outnumber black men in the workforce, a striking contrast to the pattern among whites, where men outnumber women by almost three to two, according to Workforce 2000.

Boys Track Team Finishes 3rd in State

"We led the meet all the way until the last two events," said coach Pat Clarke of his team's finish.

"Comstock finished 2 and 3 in the 200 to score 14 points and win the meet.

"Lincoln won the 200 and the last event, the 1600 relay, to snatch second place from the Bulldogs.

"This was a fine cap to an outstanding season for our boys track team. In the last four years the boys track team has come from nowhere to become one of the top teams in the state. These young men have worked extremely hard and deserve all the credit in the world," Clarke concluded.

The Bulldogs were led by senior All Stater David Beeman who set a state record of 175'3" to win the discus. Beeman came back in the afternoon to win the shot put with a heave of 57'7 1/2". Beeman thus becomes Chelsea's first double state champion.

Senior All Stater Cory Brown also had a career day. First, Brown anchored the state championship 3200m relay to a school record 7:58.7. Other members of the championship relay were Dan Wehrwein (1:59.8), Scott Hawley (1:59.8), Ryan Schultz (2:02.8), and Brown (1:56.5).

Brown then ran a 4:21.0 1600 to finish third and make All-State again.

Finally, Brown finished second in the 800 run in a school record 1:55.8 to break Bob Benedict's 12-year-old school record by 6 tenths of a second.

Other placers in the meet were:
800 Run—Scott Hawley, 14th, 1:59.8.
3200 Run—Ryan Schultz, 9th, 9:47.5.
1600 Relay—12th, 3:30.7 (Peter Straub, Kevin Kolodica, Scott Hawley, and Cory Brown).

The third-place finish at state is the highest finish by any Chelsea track team ever.

Brown, Beeman Chosen for Meet Of Champions

Both Cory Brown and David Beeman have been chosen to participate in the Midwest Meet of Champions next Saturday, June 11 in Indianapolis, Ind., starting at 1 p.m.

This meet brings together the top three senior athletes in each event from the states of Michigan, Ohio, Indiana and Illinois. Beeman had the top performances in any class in the shot put and discus at last Saturday's State Meet, while Brown ran the second fastest 800m run in all the meets.

A generation of American consumers has grown up knowing only plastic as the principal material used for making ropes, twines, fishing line and myriad forms of packaging. But there was a day when natural fibers were used to manufacture these items. If oil supplies ever grow scarce, rope companies may turn to kenaf, a bamboo-like fiber plant increasingly grown around the country.

SENIOR DAVID BEEMAN had an outstanding day Saturday at the State Track & Field Meet in Saginaw as he became Chelsea's first-ever double All-State champion. David set a new state record of 175'3" in the discus then came back in the afternoon to win the shot put as he tossed the ball 57'7 1/2".

CORY BROWN, Chelsea High school senior, became a triple All-Stater Saturday at the State Track Meet in Saginaw. First, he anchored the state championship 3200m relay team. Then Brown ran third in the 1600m run to make all-state again. Finally, to finish off a career day, Cory finished second in the 800m run in a school record of 1:55.8 to break Bob Benedict's 12-year-old record by 6 tenths of a second.

Erin Schiller Chosen for Midwest Meet

Chelsea senior high jumper Erin Schiller has been invited to be a part of the Michigan team to participate in the Midwest Meet of Champions on Saturday, June 11 in Indianapolis, Ind.

In field events, the meet pits three top seniors each from Michigan, Ohio, Illinois, and Indiana in a team concept meet, which makes it unique among post-season meets.

Schiller was selected based on her performance in the state meet and through the season. She is the second Chelsea girl to be selected to the team. Lisa Monti participated last year.

Schiller holds the school record with a jump of 5'-6". She was over five feet in all but one meet this year and is a two time league champion. She tied for fourth in the state meet. "I'm really pleased Erin has been invited. She worked very hard to be successful. She hopes to continue to compete at college so this is a step to the next level for her," said coach Bill Bainton.

Girls Track Team Members Run in Jackson

Fourteen girls from the girls varsity track team ran in the Jackson Citizen-Patriot Selby Track Classic on Tuesday night, May 31, at Jackson High school.

The Selby Classic brings together the top nine individuals from the Jackson area in each event. Chelsea brought home medals in four events.

Melissa Hand had the Bulldogs' top finish winning the 800 in 2:24.6. Erin Schiller cleared 5-1 to finish second in the high jump. Heidi Wehrwein was second in the discus at 97'-6" with Jessica Flintoff fourth at 96'-1". Beth Bell was third in the 400 at 1:01.3.

Also participating for Chelsea were Mara Smith in the shot put and discus, Courtney Thompson in the high jump, Laurie Schiller in the long jump, Sarah Henry, Beth Bell, Molly Griebel, and Jennifer Space in the 3200 relay, Katie Spink, Heidi Kemnitz, Erin Schiller, and Keri Kentala in the 800 relay, Kentala, Kemnitz, and both Schillers in the 400 relay, Kemnitz in the 300 hurdles, Griebel in the 3200, and Henry, Space, Spink, and Hand in the 1600 relay. Jill McKinnon was the first alternate in the 100 hurdles.

Girls Place in 4 Events at State

Chelsea High school girls track team scored in four events finishing with 14 points and tied for 17th place in Saturday's state class B track meet. River Rouge won the meet with 58 points. Chelsea was the area's top finisher in class B.

The 3200 relay of Jennifer Space, Beth Bell, Sarah Henry, and Melissa Hand finished fourth in a very tough field with a time of 9:48.2, a season best. Hand ran under 2:21 for her split.

Erin Schiller tied for fourth in the high jump at 5'-4". Schiller should have gotten an endurance prize also. Fifty-five jumpers had qualified and the event took over four hours to complete.

Melissa Hand set a school record with a 2:21.82 clocking while finishing fifth in the 800. "Melissa ran very well. It was a closely packed field and she had a little difficulty getting running space. About .8 second separated her from second," said coach Bill Bainton.

The 1600 relay of Hand, Katie Spink, Henry, and Bell scored Chelsea's final point with an eighth in a season best of 4:09.88.

Bulldogs competed in several other events, but did not score. Heidi Wehrwein threw 30'-2" in the shot put, Mara Smith tossed the discus 100'-3", Courtney Thompson cleared 4-9 in the high jump. The 800 relay of Katie Spink, Keri Kentala, Heidi Kemnitz and Beth Bell ran 1:53.2, and the 400 relay of Sarah Schick, Kemnitz, Erin Schiller, and Bell ran :53.4.

Varsity Softball Team Wins District Title Again

Chelsea High school's varsity softball team pounded Willow Run and Milan with two shut-outs and were declared district champs Saturday for the fourth consecutive year.

The Bulldogs claimed this distinguished victory after splitting a pair of games against Huron High Thursday, June 2.

Chelsea won the first game, 3-2, but lost the second, 3-0.

Carey Schiller pitched the first game, allowing six hits and striking out 11 batters. Her record stands at 16-4.

The Bulldogs scored two runs in the second inning on singles by Jackie Crawford, Charlotte Ziegler and Lori Ritter.

The winning run was scored in the bottom of the seventh after Kyle Kentala singled and scored on a double by Schiller. Schiller had three hits in the game, including two doubles and a single.

Lisa Beard pitched the second game's first five innings, allowing three hits and two runs. Her record stands 12-6 with the loss.

The second game only saw two hits off Milan's pitcher. Both hits, including a double and a single, were by Beard.

Melissa Schulz pitched the last two innings for Chelsea. She allowed two hits and one run.

The Bulldogs ended their season 30-11 before going into Saturday's district play.

Winning the district title Saturday puts Chelsea in the running for regional recognition.

Districts were held in Dexter with Beard pitching the first game against Willow Run. Beard picked up the win with a 28-0 shut-out, raising her record to 13-6.

Beard, Nicki Piasecki and Ziegler led the team with two hits each. Piasecki picked up three RBIs, Schiller had a hit on a bases loaded triple and Beard drove in four runs with two homers.

In the final game which gave Chelsea the title, the Bulldogs saw Schiller pitch a no-hitter and win the game, 8-0.

Schiller had 11 strike outs to raise her record, 17-4.

Chelsea scored four runs in the first inning on three hits. Crawford, Ziegler and Martha Merkel all picked up RBIs.

The second inning saw Shannon Shemansky bring in a run with her single. The team picked up three more runs in the third inning with Kentala's RBI single and Lori Ritter's sacrifice fly.

Leading hitters for Chelsea were Shemansky with two hits and Crawford with three.

"It was a great week-end," said coach Joe Beard. "The girls steadily improved this year and we are coming into our own, moving into the state play-offs. We now move on to the regional level next Saturday."

Chelsea will play Allen Park, winner of District 39, at 10 a.m. June 11, at Chelsea High school's field.

Varsity Baseball Team Knocked Out of Finals

Chelsea High school's varsity baseball team was edged out of district competition during the finals against Milan Saturday.

The Bulldogs won the semi-finals against Willow Run, 3-2, but couldn't keep up the momentum, suffering a 4-3 loss in the finals.

The district contest was held in Dexter. Chelsea junior Jeff Branch pulled off a one-hit pitching performance in the semi-finals. Scott Colvin, a sophomore, hit a double with two outs in the sixth inning to break a 2-2 tie and give the Bulldogs its fifth consecutive trip to District Finals.

Finals saw senior captain Tim Westcott make four hits and several key defensive plays for an outstanding comeback at 3-0. But, the Bulldogs fell just short as Milan scored the winning run on two errors in the bottom of the seventh inning.

Chelsea scored two runs in the sixth inning with singles from Westcott, Case-McCalla and Ed Greenleaf, both getting RBIs.

Coach Wayne Welton reported fine relief pitching by Sam Morseau, a sophomore, and Jeff Branch, a junior.

In non-league competition, Chelsea split a pair of games with Brighton Wednesday, June 1.

Branch and Matt Powell pitched the first game, which Chelsea lost 4-1. However, the first four innings were kept scoreless by Branch. Teammates Wescott and Colvin had the Bulldogs' only two hits.

In the second game, Chelsea claimed victory over Brighton, 5-1. Morseau went the distance as pitcher, allowing six hits while striking out seven. Pat Steele, a senior, had two hits and three RBIs for the team. Powell chipped in two hits.

The Bulldogs end their season 22-15-1.

1994 Michigan Bear Hunt Applications Due June 15

The deadline to apply for a 1994 Michigan bear harvest license is June 15. A total of 5,096 licenses will be available in eight bear management units; seven of these are in the Upper Peninsula and one is in the Lower Peninsula.

The 1994 bear season will include the following hunt periods: Sept. 10 to Oct. 21 and Sept. 15 to Oct. 26 in the Upper Peninsula's Amasa, Baraga, Bergland, Carney, Gwinn and Newberry Units; Sept. 10-18 on Drummond Island; and Sept. 16-22 in the northern Lower Peninsula's Red Oak Bear Management Unit. There is an additional hunt period in the Red Oak Unit Oct. 7-13 for bow and arrow only.

This year an experimental third hunt period has been added to the Gwinn Bear Management Unit for Sept. 25 to Oct. 26. This experimental hunting period is one of the DNR's efforts to explore ways of providing more hunters with an opportunity to hunt bear.

The fee for a regular resident harvest license is $14.35, and application forms are available at all DNR district and region offices, as well as from most license agents. There is no application fee for Senior Hunt license holders, but these applications are available only at DNR district and regional offices. Comprehensive Lifetime License holders will receive their applications in the mail. Non-residents must telephone the DNR License Control Section in Lansing at (517) 373-1206 for an application and pay a $150.35 application fee. Applicants for any of the above types of licenses may apply as an individual or with a partner.

This year, harvest tags will be issued by a random drawing. All resident applicants will be entered into the drawing with no preference, and have equal chances of drawing a tag. Non-residents will receive no more than two percent of the tags. Successful applicants will be notified by July 18.

A participation license is required of bear hunters who are not issued a harvest tag but wish to actively participate in a bear hunt behind hounds. Those applying for a bear harvest tag may choose to receive a participation license if unsuccessful in the drawing for a tag; those not opting for a participation license will be refunded the full price of the application fee. Participation licenses are also available at DNR offices for those who did not apply for a harvest tag but choose to bear hunt with dogs.

For additional information, contact the DNR Wildlife Division in Lansing at (517) 373-1263.

Record of 556 Participate in Annual Hospital Walk, Run Races

Clear skies brought a record 556 participants to Chelsea for the fifth annual Heart & Sole races last Saturday. Runners and walkers of all ages and abilities competed over distances of 2, 3.1, and 5.2 miles.

While lacking in prize money, appearance fees, world record incentives, or an international field, the 5K and 10K races were both exciting and balanced with local runners.

Results of the walk and races follow.

Area Boaters Plan Safe Boating Week

Members of the Ann Arbor Power Squadron met along the shores of the Huron River Monday evening, June 6, to complete plans for National Safe Boating Week, which began June 8. Squadron Command, Ted Young, announced that Ann Arbor Mayor Ingrid Sheldon has proclaimed the week of June 8-11 "Safe Boating Week," urging that "all those who use our many waterways acquire skills and knowledge to maintain their own safety and the safety of others around them."

Prior to and during Safe Boating Week, Squadron members distributed informational materials on its sail and power boating courses which are presented free of charge each spring and fall. Additional information regarding the Ann Arbor Power Squadron's boating courses may be obtained by calling Doug Palmer, 434-0079.

Following a brief business meeting and picnic supper, the members were taught one of the United States Power Squadrons supplemental boating courses, entitled "Skipper Seaver" by one of the members, Past Commander Katie Sullivan, RN. The course is designed to teach persons who are passengers on a boat how to handle the boat and assist the skipper in case of an emergency need.

Purple Rose Theatre Offers New Comedy

Purple Rose Theatre Company will begin preview performances of "Stanton's Garage," a new comedy by Joan Ackermann, on Thursday, June 9 at the Purple Rose Theatre Company's Garage Theatre, 137 Park St., Chelsea. Previews of "Stanton's Garage" will be held Thursday, June 9 through Thursday, June 16 with the Official Opening Night on Friday, June 17. Performances for the remainder of the eight-week engagement will be Wednesdays through Sundays at 8 p.m. with Sunday shows at 2 p.m. and 7 p.m. through Sunday, July 31.

Located just off the interstate highway in Missouri, Stanton's Garage is an eclectic meeting place where broken hearts, shattered dreams and stalled automobiles can all be fixed with only a minor tune-up. Lee and Frankie are stranded there while on their way from Chicago to a wedding; another customer, Ron, needs to get his car fixed before he attends his ex-wife's wedding. The employees of Stanton's Garage also have their own myriad of quirks and problems; the owner has fled the country leaving the daily operations to Mary, the town busybody who loves to serve her advice to anyone who will listen; Denny, the ace mechanic, can't fix anything because he's suffering from dizzy spells; Harlon, a young grease monkey, is perplexed over which ear to get pierced while another mechanic, Silvio, is troubled over his 36-year marriage to Audrey. The lives of all these characters mingle and change due to their brief time together at "Stanton's Garage."

The ensemble cast of "Stanton's Garage" features Anne Capron (Jersey City, N.J.) as Lee, Suzi Regan (Beverly Hills) as Frankie and Robert Starko (Ann Arbor) as Ron. Portraying the employees of "Stanton's Garage" are Peggy Thorp (Ferndale) as Mary, Dana Gamarra (Dearborn) as Denny, John Hawkins (Roseville) as Harlon, Roy K. Dennison (Fenton) as Silvio and Ad-dann Hinds (Lansing) as his wife, Audrey.

"Stanton's Garage" was written by Joan Ackermann, a nationally recognized journalist who has contributed articles to Time, The New Yorker and Sports Illustrated magazines. In addition to her career as a playwright, Ms. Ackermann also serves as a producer for Mixed Company, a theatre company she co-founded in Great Barrington, Mass. "Stanton's Garage" was workshopped at Mixed Company before being produced in the 1993 Humana Festival of New American Plays at Actors Theatre of Louisville. Ms. Ackermann will also travel to Michigan and be in residence with the Purple Rose Theatre Company production through the final rehearsals and preview performances until Opening Night on June 17.

"Stanton's Garage" is being directed by Guy Sanville, who directed last year's PRTC production of "Nooner" and recently appeared as Earl Noonan in "The Vast Difference." Lighting design is by Dana White, set design is by Bartley H. Bauer, costume design by John D. Woodland and sound design is by Joe Jenkins. Anthony Caselli is the stage manager for the PRTC production of "Stanton's Garage."

Reservations for "Stanton's Garage" may be obtained by calling the Purple Rose Theatre Company Box Office at (313) 475-7902. Ticket reservations are recommended due to the limited capacity. The Purple Rose Theatre Company Box Office is open Monday through Friday from 12 noon to 6 p.m. and on Saturdays and Sundays of performances beginning one hour prior to curtain.

Rehearsals Begin for 'Jesus Christ Superstar'

The musical director is teaching the score to the actors. The director is seeing the script come to life. The choreographer is showing the actors deliberate movements on stage. The actors are singing, dancing, memorizing, learning. Some are new to the theatre, some are pros. They work together and assure the inexperienced that they have six weeks to pull it all together.

"With this summer's production of "Jesus Christ Superstar," DCP anticipates some important firsts: our first show with mixed performers, our first Andrew Lloyd Webber show... Dr. Michael Szymanski, who portrays Calaphas, says, "I'm personally so enthused by this work, that I've already started growing my beard and hair, what's left of it..."

Another first for the Dexter Community Players includes Szymanski taking the job of technical director. It's a very important role behind-the-scenes and a good learning experience for Szymanski who is most generally under the spotlight.

This DCP musical will be directed by Joy Baker Dennis. Ms. Dennis brings many years of experience to the Dexter stage, having successful productions in Kansas, Indiana and Pennsylvania. Locally, she is known for the

Ann Arbor Civic Theatre's, "Lend Me A Tenor," DCP's "Black Comedy," and the sell-out, "Oklahoma!"

"Joy has the ability to bring out the best in her actors," Darla Miller, co-producer says. "Her preparation as director begins months before she arrives for auditions or rehearsals... She's highly talented, but she also works very hard at her craft. This hard work results in a highly entertaining show..."

Dexter Community Players welcome newcomer, Ben Cohen, as musical director. Cohen is a multi-talented addition to the troupe. Cohen offers a fresh insight into the Andrew Lloyd Webber-Tim Rice music and lyrics. He has recently worked with the Ann Arbor Civic Theatre.

Show dates are July 13-16, at Copeland Elementary school. Tickets will be available soon at Dexter Real Estate, Broad St., Dexter, 426-8387. Plan to purchase tickets in advance as it is anticipated that they will sell quickly. Don't forget that the Dexter Community Players offer gift certificates to their performances. They're a great idea for anniversaries, birthdays, thank you gifts, or just an entertaining night out. They may also be purchased at Dexter Real Estate.

Did you know that the U.S. Postal Service represents the best communications value in the world?

It's true. No other postal system in the world delivers such fast, reliable and widespread mail products and delivery services at such low prices. That's why consumers and businesses from coast to coast rely on the U.S. Postal Service to deliver 580 million letters and packages each day.

But, we're not content.

The U.S. Postal Service and its nearly 700,000 employees are striving to improve service by:

- Processing letters and packages more quickly and efficiently.
- Introducing products and services that provide solutions for our customers' communications needs.
- Offering quality products, at affordable prices, at 40,000 post offices nationwide.
- Delivering world-class volume at world-class value — 171 billion pieces of mail annually, or more than 40 percent of the world's mail.
- Protecting you and your mail with 2100 Postal Inspectors dedicated to the sanctity of the U.S. Mail and consumer protection.

We continue to be our toughest critic.

We've taken a long, hard look at ourselves to determine how we can be better. So far we've streamlined our operation and lowered our operating costs (as always, no tax dollars support us).

And we'll do more.

So that the U.S. Postal Service continues to provide the best communications value and service in the world.

We Deliver For You.

If you'd like to learn more about the U.S. Postal Service, please call or write your local Postmaster.

Card of Thanks 19

THANK YOU

I wish to thank those who had the ramp installed on the west end of the Chelsea Shopping Center. I'm sure the disabled people appreciate it.

Carl Heldt.

THANK YOU

The family of Helen A.
Young wishes to thank all our relatives, friends, and neighbors. Your prayers, kindness and generosity
were greatly appreciated.
Thank you to those who sent cards, gifts, flowers and visited Helen during her illness. A special Thank You to the Chelsea Hospital, St. Mary's Church, the John Mitchell
Family and the contributions in Mother's memory.
The Family of Helen A. Young.

CARD OF THANKS

We have been so blessed with the warmth of this community at our tragic loss of Mike Brainerd.
There is no way we can truly express our gratitude for all the love and support, but would like everyone to know that we appreciate the abundance of cards, flowers, donations, and food. We were touched by the personal help of the Jackson County Sheriff Department and the Chelsea Fire Department, and are sorry for the anguish caused to the Sullivan family. We are very grateful to the Chelsea First United Methodist Church family, especially Reverend Rick Dake, Reverend Becky
Foot, and the Listening Ministry Group. Of particular importance to us was the singing and eulogy
by Steve and Judy
Shepherd and the warm,
caring assistance of Don,
Linda, and Allen Cole. God
Bless you all!
Cindy, Ashley, & Joshua

Michigan Farmers
May Face Fertilizer
Price Increase

Michigan farmers are likely to face higher costs for their nitrogen fertilizer supplies this spring due to a combination of anhydrous ammonia manufacturing and distribution problems and increased demand for nitrogen fertilizer, according to Bob Boehm, commodity specialist for Michigan Farm Bureau.

Steep price increases can be attributed to industrial production and supply problems both in the U.S. and republics of the former Soviet Union, said Boehm. Domestic production of anhydrous ammonia has been curtailed due to production outages and the resulting down time of U.S. manufacturing facilities just as seasonal demands peaked.

"Some manufacturers have put off performing regular maintenance activities for the past two years due to the low prices of ammonia and resulting poor returns and losses over that period," he said. "The losses have caused some manufacturers to literally run their plants to the breaking point."

The direct impact on fertilizer prices paid by farmers may be highly variable, Boehm said, because many farmers contract for their fertilizer supplies up to six months in advance of the planting season. He said many retail suppliers also purchased their anhydrous ammonia products before the price increases took effect.
However, as pre-purchased stocks are depleted, the full effect of higher prices will be felt.

Why People Without Children in Community Schools Should Support Chelsea's Funding Efforts

Recently I was asked by someone whose children were grown, "Why should I support the schools?" Good question! Here are some answers that might interest you:

1. LIFE-LONG LEARNING: Students in our schools include infants through senior citizens. Through our Community Education programs, Chelsea schools provide educational opportunities for everyone who wants to take advantage of them. College students meet on campus, but so do aspiring writers, exercise and sports enthusiasts of all ages, club members, actors, computer users, musicians, artists, boaters, adult education students, builders, singers, signers (language), dancers, karate students, swimmers, historians, and nature enthusiasts, to name a few.

Chelsea schools provide educational, retraining, and enrichment activities for all residents of the school district.

In addition, the schools collaborate with other agencies, such as Chelsea Recreation Council for sports activities, Chelsea Community Hospital for health-care education and Chelsea Rod & Gun Club for hunter safety enrollment, for instance.

Before and after school care, tutoring, and preschool are also made available to parents.

Chances are you have, or will at some time, take advantage of some of these programs, even if you don't have children in school from 8:30 to 2:50. Our philosophy is that these facilities belong to and should be used by the entire community!

2. CULTURAL ACTIVITIES: Have you attended a play, concert, dance recital, science fair, academic, musical or sport competition in Chelsea lately? Groups both within and outside of the traditional school community make use of our facilities for these activities. Most are open to the public. If you haven't attended one lately, take the time to do so. It's fun and inexpensive and will let you in on how well our entire community performs! Incidentally, our high school auditorium is the only one available in the Chelsea community.

3. COMMUNITY SERVICE: How do school children benefit the community? Some people think school children are a nuisance and perhaps they can be. But they are learning to be much more through a variety of community service related activities, many of which were initiated by the students themselves. For instance, it was the milk jug collection project started at our elementary schools a few years ago that was the forerunner of our community's current recycling programs. With the help of Chelsea Milling Co. and other businesses, the jugs were bailed and sold and made into park benches, one of which sits outside at North school.

Other community service activities our K-12 students are involved in include food and funding drives for Faith In Action/Chelsea Social Services, Toys for Tots program, Christmas in April, Environmental and Conservation programs, current development of a 5-year Recreation Plan including a Linear Park (bike path), etc.

4. MENTORSHIPS/APPRENTICESHIPS: In preparing students for their workplace, several "mentorship" and "apprenticeship" programs have begun. These are relatively new programs that typify the business/school partnerships that need to exist so that we can both begin to better meet the needs of the other. More of these programs need to exist, however, and your business may wish to make some inquiries.

5. OTHER EVENTS AND SERVICES: In all, over 10,000 school and community activities have been scheduled in our school buildings for the 1993-1994 school year. For senior citizens alone, over 1,000 have been served by various programs. Over 7,400 individuals have been scheduled into classes and programs through our Community Education Programs. The schools are truly a gathering and meeting place for the entire community. We need to welcome you into your buildings for your activities, because learning is truly for everyone.

6. WE NEED YOU! Even if you do not have children in school, you are a vital part of our community and we need you to survive. We need your tax dollars to be sure, but we also need your input. What is it you want from our schools? How can we meet your needs as an individual, community organization or business leader? How can we grow and change together to form better partnerships? How can we involve you in our activities? How can we better prepare our students to be good citizens and productive workers. Can you help us with this task? We think you can, and we need your input as much as your tax dollars.

Sadly, our schools are not a showcase. Our public buildings are aging and in desperate need of repair and renovation. Our students lack the technology equipment and training they need to compete in tomorrow's workplace.

Our teaching methods are changing. The number one complaint we hear is that our students are coming out of school unprepared to work, that is, without adequate reading, writing, math and technology skills. Today we use a variety of tests to find out how well we are educating students and then we work at making up those deficiencies. But we need your help too in the form of volunteers, tutors and business/technology partners to grow and change and continue to meet the life-long needs of community residents.

Chelsea has always been a community that supports education. It is one of the reasons this is such a fine community to live and work in. The learning opportunities we provide for residents of all ages enhance the quality of life in our community. Please continue to support our schools as together we continue to strive for excellence!

Chelsea School support

I believe in our school system.

I am proud of our student body, talented teachers and administration.

I plan to devote an enormous amount of time and energy to a total student body of Pre-elementary, Elementary, Middle school, Senior high and Community Education.

It is an extreme privilege to discover with our students the ways in which we can be positive witnesses to our community.

I thank you for your support, prayers and encouragement.

A NEW RETAIL BUSINESS was opened Monday in downtown Chelsea with a ribbon-cutting ceremony. The Quilter's Quarters, owned by Lynn Van Nest of Pittsfield township, has opened the new store at 118 S. threads, hoops and stencils. A wide assortment of craft classes are also available. Present for the ribbon-cutting were, from left, village trustee Joe Merkel, village president Richard Steele, Denise Lange, Lynn and John Van Nest and village manager Jack Meyers.

Appreciation Day Slated At Post Office

Thursday, June 9, has been set aside to recognize postal customers across the State of Michigan. "The Chelsea, Dexter, and Gregory Post Offices appreciate your business and will be recognizing customers in the lobby of the Post Office," said Deborah Wellnitz, Chelsea Postmaster.

"The Postal Service is continually making improvements throughout the year to the services we provide. Many of these changes are a direct result of our customers' suggestions. Therefore, we wanted to let our customers know that we sincerely appreciate their patronage, and what a better way to do this than through the impact of a state-wide Customer Appreciation Day."

"On Thursday, June 9, every Post Office in Michigan will be extending 'A Heartfelt Thanks' to all customers. Customers are encouraged to stop in to their local Post Office for refreshments and gifts representing a small token of our appreciation for their business," concluded Postmaster Wellnitz.

Directories List Antique Shops

Antique shoppers have available to them for the first time guide-books that list every antique shop and mall in the entire state of Michigan. "The 1994-95 Complete Antique Shop Directory for Eastern Michigan," just off the press, lists all 662 antique shops that could be identified in the 82 counties of the Upper Peninsula and the eastern half of the Lower Peninsula.

The 240-page book also has detailed maps showing their location, as well as directions for finding them. Hours of operation, and in many cases their specialties are indicated. There is also an Index of Dealer Specialties and a Calendar of 1994-95 Antique Shows.

In June a similar directory will be released for the western portion of the state: that book will show an additional 468 antique shops, for a state total of 1,130. Indiana, by contrast, had 852 antique shops in late 1993. A total of 228 towns and cities in eastern Michigan and the U.P. had at least one antique shop.

The city with the most antique shops in eastern Michigan was Royal Oak with 26, followed by Birmingham with 19, Detroit with 18, and Allen and Williamston with 17 each. Other cities with 10 or more shops were Ann Arbor, Plymouth, Lansing, Mason, and Romeo.

Directories are available at many antique shops and book stores throughout the eastern portion of the state, or by mail from Antique Directories, P.O. Box 297, Lakeside 49116.

THE MUSIC MAN

June 23-26 & 29-July 3

As American as apple pie and a Fourth of July, Meredith Wilson's The Music Man opens the Groswell's 27th summer season with a bang! Convincing the townsfolk of River City, Iowa that their sons are headed for certain corruption, fast-talking Harold Hill con them into buying musical instruments by promising to create a boys' band. Not knowing a clarinet from a saxophone, Professor Hill expects to skip town with cash in hand, only to be caught by the arms of the beautiful Marian, the librarian.
