Chelsea woman gives Y2K advice

Public should prepare as it would for storm

By Jim Silver
 Staff Writer

Next January, Vicki Murdock will have a little more free time on her hands.

That's because Murdock, a Chelsea resident, has spent the last year giving educational talks on preparation for the Y2K bug. As the year winds down, Murdock knows she will soon have a career and a family to schedule.

Until that time, though, she is continuing to present workshops on Y2K. She will be speaking at two upcoming area workshops, in Chelsea on Nov. 6 and in Dexter on Nov. 10.

Murdock began to explore problems that might arise from the date change as a financial adviser at Knapp Advisory Services in Livonia.

She and Stanley Knapp, her partner in the business, started asking questions about how financial institutions affecting her clients' interests were prepared for possible problems.

As is often the case, she found that the more she learned, the more and more questions presented themselves.

And, while she set out to examine financial concerns, she eventually had information on many aspects of the issue.

"(Knapp and I) both attend meetings, and receive many newsletters, and we share items with each other," Murdock said.

She mailed out information and made presentations to her clients. But she found that her friends and family also wanted to get the facts on the matter.

She started speaking to a wider audience with a presentation at her church. The response to the workshop exceeded her expectations.

Murdock began to feel the information should be made available to everyone, and offered her services, free of charge, to community organizations.

She has, thus far, not been able to accomplish her goal of inserting a flier into copies of The Chelsea Standard, or mailing them to local homes. So far, the obstacle has been a lack of sponsorship.

"I don't want to spend between $500 and

$1,000 on this," Murdock said. "It's costing me something to do what I'm doing already."

The best way to approach the New Year, she says, is to prepare as for a storm, and have three days worth of supplies on hand.

That means three days of food and water, and an emergency kit. Murdock cites the Federal Emergency Management Agency's guidelines for supplies, and has included sheets from FEMA in a packet she distributes.

The guidelines from FEMA emphasize the need for long-lasting, easily-made food, and clean water, or water-purification products.

And FEMA, with the Red Cross, recommends that the public prepare a disaster supplies kit, which should include clothing, shoes and rain gear, bed clothes, a first aid kit, batteries and a battery-powered radio and flashlight, a list of important information, such as family physicians and information.

Murdock feels that most such preparations make sense, as the Chelsea and

Preparation tips for Y2K

Vicki Murdock distributes a list of Y2K Preparation Tips at her workshops. She feels some of the most important are:

- Stock disaster supplies to last 72 hours: food, water, and prescription and over-the-counter medication.
- Plan an alternative for heating and cooking, if gas and electric supplies are cut off.
- Fill your gas tank on or prior to New Year's Eve.
- Have extra blankets, winter clothing, flashlights and batteries on hand.
- Check smoke alarm and security system batteries.
- Have up to two weeks' cash on hand.
- Order a credit report and a social security earnings statement.
- Save paper copies of financial statements.
- Consider your investments in terms of how much risk you can tolerate.

NEWS BRIEFS

Council appoints new fire representative

Following the resignation of Jim Myles as Chelsea representative to the Chelsea Area Fire Authority, the Village Council appointed Trustee Frank Hammer as new representative. Charlie Ritter will remain the alternate representative to the authority.

The appointment came during a special council meeting on Oct. 20, called to discuss new MDEQ phosphorus loads for the Huron River Watershed Council. The MDEQ presented a revised agreement at the Oct. 12 council meeting, which required action before Oct. 22. The council put off a decision on the new loads until budget year 2000.

Group wants Dexter Township to buy signs

Neighborhood Watch captain Monica Merz sent a letter to the Dexter Township Board earlier this month asking that the township pay for three to four Neighborhood Watch signs to be posted around the area.

The Neighborhood Watch signs cost $31 each and would be posted on Dexter Town Hall Road at Quigley Road, at Island Lake Road and at North Territorial Road.

The board has decided to investigate past practice before making a decision. Supervisor Robert Tetens said he will talk to the Washtenaw County Sheriff's Department about how other municipalities handle it.

Kiwanis holds Halloween party

The Kiwanis Club is having its annual Halloween party Sunday night, after village trick-or-treating. The sanctioned hours for trick-or-treating are 4 to 6 p.m. on Sunday, Halloween. The Kiwanis is then holding a costume party in the municipal parking lot behind the police station, weather permitting. The party will run from 6 to 7:30 p.m. on Sunday.

Veterans' party on tap

Chelsea Rod and Gun Club will host a Veterans Day celebration Nov. 11, from 5 p.m. to 9 p.m. Dinner, free to vets, will be at 6 p.m. Call 475-3566 for details.

Pumpkin Pals

Lima may have ceded fire vote

Lima's involvement with Chelsea Area Fire Authority may limit its power in Dexter.

By Michelle Rogers
 Associate Editor

Lima Township's level of participation on the Dexter Area Fire Board appears uncertain now that the township has joined the Chelsea Area Fire Authority.

Dexter Area Fire Board voted Oct. 21 to have its attorney examine the relationship between the township and fire board in light of Lima's new arrangement with the fire authority.

Fire board members questioned whether Lima has a vote on the Dexter board since the fire authority now contracts with Dexter Area Fire Board for fire protection coverage in parts of Lima.

The board's vote was prompted after a discussion ensued over why Lima Township Board is dragging its feet over the signing of a revised inter-local agreement. It has been a year since the other municipalities represented on the board signed the new contract.

Wally Fusilier, Lima's representative on the board, said the township prefers the old arrangement and it does not appear willing to sign the revised contract.

Fusilier's comments prompted Webster Township Supervisor Dean Fisher, also a fire board member, to propose a motion asking the board to direct the attorney to clarify Lima's relationship in lieu of the formation of the Chelsea Area Fire Authority.

In the past, Lima has contracted for fire protection from Dexter and Chelsea fire departments. This past summer, the municipalities comprising the Chelsea Fire Department formed the Chelsea Area Fire Authority.

Paul Bishop, a downtown Dexter businessman and former village official, spoke for the audience about the issue. A founding member of the Dexter Area Fire Board, Bishop praised the board for seeking the attorney's advice.

"I think it's clear we can't have (a representative from) some other fire authority sitting on this board," Bishop said.

If it's determined that Lima no longer has a vote on the Dexter Fire Board, Bishop said the revised inter-local agreement will be considered adopted.

Block-scheduling, testing top board agenda

Chelsea students outperform state, national averages on ACT.

By Jim Silver
 Staff Writer

From third grade until graduation, Chelsea School District students take at least one standardized test every school year. Their scores are tabulated, and compared with students locally, at the state level, and nationally. How do Chelsea students stack up?

The school board heard a report on those results from high school counselor Sue Carter. Carter spoke at the Oct. 25 board meeting, at which the board also heard more about block scheduling from high school principal Ron Mead.

Chelsea students from kindergarten to second grade are evaluated by their teacher, based on standards set at the classroom level. But beginning at the third-grade level, students take yearly standardized tests.

The test for third-graders is the California Achievement Test (CAT), which students will also take in sixth and ninth grades. Third-grade students in the 1998-99 school year saw a slight dip in their average scores from the two previous years in both reading and math, with average scores of 85 percent and 74 percent, respectively.

While the average scores were lower than the two previous years, there are not significant changes over the last five years. The average in 1997-98 for reading was 71 percent, and for math was 85 percent, a high over the last five years.

Students in the 1998-99 school year in third, sixth and ninth grades duplicated the average scores of 1994-95 students in all subject areas of the CAT.

Sixth-graders in 1998-99 remained more or less level with the previous year, with little variation in average scores over the last five years, typically averaging within two percentage points of the previous year's students.

Ninth-grade students also remained, on average, within two points of the previous year's students over a five-year period of CAT testing. Students in the 1998-99 year saw a slight jump in their averages over the previous year, to 69 percent in both reading and math to from 68 percent in reading and 67 percent in math in 1997-98.

Students in fourth and seventh grades take the Michigan Educational Assessment Program (MEAP) Test cov-

Dexter areas could be affected by chemical spills on I-94. "We could be evacuated, and people would need these supplies within five minutes then."

But she cautions against buying unnecessary equipment for Y2K preparations. "What I've told my clients is, if you want a generator anyway, then buy one now," Murdock says. "Otherwise, you'll be able to find them cheap in 2000. Just wait until January 1."

For general Y2K advice, she recommends the May 1999 copy of Consumer Reports, which gives an issue-by-issue listing of possible Y2K problem-areas and their solutions.

The magazine is available for perusal at the Chelsea District Library. Reprint copies can be sent from the publisher for $3 a copy. To order a copy, call 1-800-449-8575, or, to order more than 50 copies of the magazine, call 1-914-378-2740.

Her job as a financial adviser has also played a role in the Y2K advice she has gotten and given.

"The two most important pieces of advice I can give people are order a copy of your credit report, and order your Social Security Earnings and Benefit Statement," she says.

Murdock says that, as credit reports are entirely computer-based, it would be nearly impossible to rebuild it without a hard copy. And, without a credit report, people would not be able to lease a car, buy a house, or, in some cases, get a job. Murdock refers her clients, and the public at large, to the three credit reporting companies, Equifax, Experian and Trans Union, which will provide reports. Equifax can be called at 1-800-685-1111. Experian can be reached at 1-800-682-7654. Trans Union can be called at 1-800-916-8800. All three charge a fee of $8 for a report.

The Social Security statement will be sent from Washington, displaying a complete listing of all monies paid into an applicant's Social Security earnings, and Medicare earnings.

"If this got zapped, and we hope it doesn't, how would you reconstruct it?" Murdock asked. "And it's a free thing." A form to request the report can be obtained by calling 1-800-772-1213.

In addition, she cautions her clients and workshop attendees that they should exercise caution about the stock market as the New Year approaches.

"There may be volatile markets, especially foreign markets," Murdock said. The hardest hit will be European and Asian countries that are developed, but have not put a great emphasis on Y2K compliance.

"I've told my clients that, if they are investing for more than three years, they should leave their money in, and ride out any waves," Murdock said. Investors interested in a short-term payoff should consider converting their holdings to a more stable investment, or liquidating them.

But Murdock cautions that there may be serious tax consequences of any investment change. She advises that anyone concerned about their investments should consult a financial adviser in the near future.

The general public can also contact the President's Council at 1-888-USA-4-Y2K (1-888-872-4925). The council can also be reached online at www.y2k.gov. FEMA can be reached at 1-800-480-2520 for free information.

Murdock also advised that small businesses not already Y2K compliant should contact the President's Council on Y2K Conversion, which can provide assistance and information. The phone number to call is 1-888-USA-4-Y2K.

Murdock stressed that she was available to schedule workshops and breakfast meetings for any local organizations that are inter

Chelsea residents celebrate UN day

On Oct. 21, Berniece Frederick, a Chelsea Retirement Community resident, and Rachel Severin, a Sixth Grader at Beach Middle School, both participated in the United Nations Day flag raising at the Larcum Municipal Building in Ann Arbor. The event is sponsored annually by the Huron Valley chapter of the United Nations Association.

This year's theme was the International Year of Older Persons. The program held in the council chambers began with a United Nations Day Proclamation read by Ann Arbor Mayor Ingrid Sheldon.

Susan Masterlari's fifth grade class from Chappelle Elementary School, in Ypsilanti, presented a program about the life and work of Eleanor Roosevelt.

FEW SURPRISES IN DISCOVERY

Before a civil case goes to trial, both sides enter into the "discovery" stage when the attorneys attempt to gather as much information as possible about the other side's position. This involves taking the testimony (deposition) of witnesses under oath with attorneys present from both sides. There will also be a court reporter to record the questions and responses. As the questioning proceeds, an attorney may raise an objection to a question being asked. If so, it will be noted "for the record" and its merits later decided upon by a judge. After the objection is made, it is still the witness' duty to answer the question. If the objection is later upheld, the answer will be considered inadmissible.

It's important to note, that the defendant's attorneys need not volunteer information that may be relevant to the case yet damaging to their client. That's why it's so important to choose attorneys who have considerable experience in handling civil cases such as personal injury or product liability. At the LAW OFFICES OF KITCHEN & STRINGER, J.D. we have acquired an impressive track record in our 27 years of successfully protecting the rights of our clients. To schedule a free initial consultation at our offices, located at 3249 Broad Street, call 426-4695.

ering math and reading, which allows comparison with other students at the same grade levels state-wide.

Fourth-graders in 1998-99 saw a dramatic jump in their average scores compared to the previous year's students, from 62.1 percent in math in 1997-98 to 75.7 percent, and to 72.6 percent in reading in 1998-99 from 53.1 percent in 1997-98. This jump comes after four years of relatively minor fluctuations in average scores.

The jump in scores was not mirrored on the state level. While Chelsea fourth graders' average reading scores were slightly lower than state scores over the last four years, in 1998-99, the state average was 59.4 percent, more than 13 percentage points below the Chelsea average.

Seventh grade students in Chelsea also outperformed the state averages, receiving an average score of 62.8 percent in reading, as opposed to a state average of 53 percent, and an average of 79.1 percent in math, 15.9 percentage points higher than the state average of 63.2 percent.

MEAP scores were also broken down by building. Fourth-graders at North Creek in 1998-99 averaged higher than the village average, and well above state averages, with 77 percent in reading and 82.4 percent in math. The same students had an average score 13 percentage points higher than students in the previous year.

South Meadows fourth grade students averaged 62 percent in reading and 57.7 percent in math. The reading score was lower than the Chelsea average, but higher than the state average, and increased from the previous year's fourth grade average of 50.7 percent.

The South Meadows fourth grade math score, however, was lower than the Chelsea average, the state average, and decreased from the previous year's score of 60.3 percentage points. In the past five years, however, there have been up to 15-percentage-point fluctuations in both scores from year to year.

While Pierce Lake Elementary does not have average scores to consider on a five-year basis, it increased both math and reading markedly from 1997-98 averages. The 1998-99 averages were 77.6 percent in reading, an increase from 39.6 percent in the previous year, and 84.7 percent in math, an increase from 54.7 percent. The Pierce

Lake averages were the highest in the District and well above state averages as well.

Seventh-graders continued an upward trend with their scores, averaging more than 6 percentage points higher than seventh grade students in 1997-98 in reading, and almost two percentage points higher than 1997-98 seventh-graders in math.

The MEAP test for fifth- and eighth-graders covers science and writing skills. Fifth-graders in the village as a whole averaged 44.9 percent on the science test, which was almost four percentage points lower than the averages for the last two years.

The writing average for 1998-99 was 62.1 percent, 11.5 percentage points lower than the last two years' averages.

Both drops in scores were mirrored by similar dips in state scores, resulting in state averages of 37.5 percent in science and 54.8 percent in writing.

Examining each elementary school's averages for fifth grade shows results similar, but not identical to, those in fourth grade.

North Creek students averaged 48.7 percent on the science test this year, down from last year, but still higher than the state average. And on the writing test, North Creek fifth-graders scored highest out of all three district elementary schools with 64.9 percent, also higher than the state average.

South Meadows fifth-graders scored lower than the other two elementary schools, but higher than the state average, with an average science score of 37.7 percent, and an average writing score of 59.2 percent.

Fifth-graders at Pierce Lake also outperformed the state averages, with an average science score of 49.2 percent, and a district-high average writing score of 62.3 percent.

Eighth grade scores on the MEAP were higher than the state average. The Chelsea score of 33.7 percent in science was more than 10 percentage points higher than the state average of 23 percent. The science score for the eighth grade was lower than the 1997-98 average of 43.1 percent.

The eighth grade writing average for 1998-99, at 78.8 percent, however, was more than 15 percentage points higher than the state average, and a four-year high for Chelsea eighth-graders.

In tenth grade, students take the PLAN test, designed to prepare them for the ACT Assessment Test. But the next big comparison is the Preliminary Scholastic Aptitude Test (PSAT), taken in the junior year of high school. The PSAT, like the Scholastic Aptitude Test, is divided into a verbal section and a math section, and serves as the qualifying test for the National Merit semi-finals.

More than half of the junior class in 1998-99 took the exam. Their average score on the verbal section was 49.3 out of 80 possible points, and 49.9 on the math section. Both averages were between one and four points below the 1997-98 averages.

In their junior year of high school, students also take the ACT.

In 1998-99, the average scores on the test were: 25.2 out of a possible 36 points in English, 23.8 in math, 23.6 in reading, and 24.1 in science reasoning, and an average composite of 24.3. The scores are within 3 points as the averages from 1997-98, essentially the same. Over the last five years, the composite score has gone up by 1.1 point.

The composite score for this year is three points above the state average, and almost 3.5 points above the national average. The state averages for each subject are within .5 points above the national averages.

In 1998-99, a slightly lower number of students took the ACT test, but the percentage of the class was considerably lower than in 1997-98.

In their senior year, students also have the option of taking Advanced Placement (AP) exams, to earn college credit for classes taken in high school. About a third of the 1998-99 seniors, 74 candidates, took AP tests, a jump in the percentage and number from 1997-98, when 44 students, or a quarter of the class, took them.

Tests that receive a score of three points out of five or better, usually receives college credit. While the percentage of tests that received a three or better went down, it was a much greater number, as more tests were given in 1998-99 than in any previous year.

Mead presented further information on block scheduling at the high school. The board is taking the subject under consideration, but not for any immediate implementation.

On Mondays, students would go to all classes they took in a semester, each period lasting 46 minutes, along with a lunch period. During the week, students would alternate classes in the morning, along with two scheduled Student and Teacher Enhancing Progress (S.T.E.P.) periods on Tuesdays and Thursdays.

In the afternoon, students would attend one class at the same time period from Tuesday to Thursday. In the block schedule, each period would last 87 minutes.

"Black Devil or White Devil?"

Dear Friends and Neighbors, Martin Luther King sometimes spoke of "the black devil" and "the white devil." He was not referring to racial issues.

The "black devil" was a reference to Satan's most visible forms of wickedness. Examples include demon possession, witchcraft, seances, horoscopes, and any attempts to tell the future by supernatural power. Halloween has sometimes included a glorification of this "black" devil. This manifestation of Satan is quite obvious and easy to avoid; yet even in our enlightened culture thousands get drawn in every year. Computer games often focus on the occult.

The "white devil," on the other hand, is far less obvious, and for that reason far more dangerous. Here the devil "masquerades as an angel of light" (2 Corinthians 11:14). Satan often promotes respectability, charity, morality, and even religion - as long as Jesus Christ is not portrayed as God and Savior. Satan is not bothered by shows like "Touched by an Angel." Satan wants us to believe: "People are basically good; just do the best you can, live a good life, and it doesn't matter what you believe; all paths lead to the same God."

The devil is so deceptive, because what appears to be good can be a path to hell. Let's face it: There are hundreds of people in our community who have never attended a satanic mass, never dabbled in black magic. They may live fairly respectable lives. But they belong to Satan, because they do not know their sins or the Savior Jesus Christ.

"The reason the Son of God appeared was to destroy the devil's work," the Bible says. This includes not only the obvious wickedness of Satan, but his subtle deceptions as well. Trust in Jesus, and He will help you to overcome the evil one.

Please worship with us at 10:00 a.m. this Sunday, when we Lutherans celebrate "Reformation Day." We do not ask for a ban on Halloween, but for a stirring up of the Lord in our lives.

Brushaber resigns from township planning commission

By Michelle Rogers
Associate Editor

Libby Brushaber has resigned her position as the Dexter Township Board's representative to the planning commission, creating a vacancy no one else wants to fill.

The Township Board was stymied last week when no other board member stepped up to fill the seat.

Supervisor Robert Tetens said he and Zoning Inspector Harley Rider, who also serves on the board, are prohibited by law from serving on the planning commission by virtue of their positions.

Treasurer Julie Knight and Clerk Bill Eisenbeiser said they both serve on several other committees and have no extra time.

"I am not interested in adding two more meetings a month, especially with three elections next year, too," Eisenbeiser said.

Knight said she serves on three committees, including the Michigan Township Association and Washtenaw County Treasurers Association.

Despite individual board members' busy schedules, Tetens said the township is required by law to have a representative from the board on the planning commission.

The planning commission will be a member short at its next meeting, Oct. 26.

Brushaber, who also chairs the Dexter Area Fire Board and oversees the Multi-Lake Area Water and Sewer Authority, tendered her resignation effective immediately. Tetens said the issue will remain on the Township Board's agenda until it's resolved.

Board OKs contract with architect for expansion

By Michelle Rogers
Associate Editor

After years of talk, it looks as if Dexter Township residents will see renovations to township hall.

Dexter Township Board approved a contract with Bowers & Rein Associates Inc. last week to produce architectural and structural drawings for renovation of Dexter Township Hall.

The board authorized Township Supervisor Robert Tetens to sign the agreement once contract language is clarified.

It will cost the township $8,500 to update plans previously drawn up by the Ann Arbor firm. A separate contract to provide mechanical and electrical engineering drawings could cost the township another $6,000. Action on this item was postponed at the board's Oct. 19 meeting.

Original drawings were done by the firm in 1991 and modified to comply with the Americans With Disabilities Act in 1995. This past year, the firm has been meeting with township officials to make additional changes.

As it stands, the proposal is for construction of 3,000 square feet of office and administrative space. The existing 2,400-square-foot facility will see minor revisions, as well, and will be brought up to code.

"What we're essentially doing is building a house on the back," Clerk Bill Eisenbeiser said.

An architect with the firm told the board last week that changes are drastic enough from the original drawings that new specifications are required to get construction bids.

The township will need to get approval from the planning commission and a variance from the Zoning Board of Appeals to do the work.

Township Zoning Inspector

Harley Rider said the planning commission has 60 days to review plans after submitted.

The Township Board was hoping to go out to bid by Jan. 1, but Tetens conceded the date was an ambitious.

Veterans Day cards available on line

Veterans Day is Nov. 11, but you probably will not find a greeting card in your favorite shop. With 26 million veterans in the nation, The American Legion realizes many people would like to say a special "Thank You" to a veteran. That is why the nation's largest war-time veterans organization is offering a free e-mail card.

This is the second year The American Legion has offered the cards.

The Veterans Day Card service is accessed directly from The American Legion's homepage at www.legion.org. Once at the site, it is a simple matter to follow the instructions and send your special greetings.

"Throughout the last half of this century American men and women in uniform served in nearly every region of the world. Because of our veterans we have the freedoms our founding fathers longed to preserve," National Commander Alan G. Lance Sr. said.

President Woodrow Wilson signed a Congressional Resolution on Nov. 11, 1919 establishing "Armistice Day." The resolution said: "This day should be commemorated with thanksgiving and prayer and exercises designed to perpetuate peace through good will and mutual understanding between nations." The resolution further called for a day to be observed in schools and churches or other suitable places, with appropriate ceremonies.

The same spirit that gave birth to Armistice Day continues today as America remembers the men and women who have served our country in the military.

HAUNTING HOLIDAY NO TREAT FOR FAMILY PET

By Julie Staton, LVT

Halloween's tradition of candy, costumes and trick-or-treating can be a threatening and potentially dangerous time for pets, according to the American Animal Hospital Association (AAHA).

"What is a fun time for children can be a very stressful time for the family pet," said Dr. Tony Thomas, AAHA veterinarian. "It's natural for families, especially children, to try to include their family pets in the fun, however, this is one holiday the pet should probably forego."

There are a number of hazards that pet owners should consider during Halloween:

- Loud and excessive noise created by trick-or-treaters can frighten your pets. Pets, especially dogs that are easily excitable or threatened by strangers, should be kept away from the front door to keep them from biting strangers or running into the street.

- Candy, especially chocolate, is toxic for animals and can cause vomiting, restlessness, heart disturbances, even death.

- Owners should be wary of Halloween costumes for pets that contain rubber bands. The rubber bands, if mistakenly left on the animal after the costume is taken off, can burrow into the animal's skin.

- It is best to leave pets at home during trick-or-treating. If, however, they are taken along, they should be on a very short leash to keep them from biting strangers or fighting with other animals.

Westarbor wishes you and your pets a safe and healthy Halloween.

Possession of Marijuana/ Driving With Expired License

A 28-year-old Ann Arbor man initially stopped for speeding on Ann Arbor Street Oct. 15 landed in more trouble with the law when police found suspected marijuana in his vehicle. In addition, a computer check revealed he was driving with an expired license.

The deputy was using radar when the suspect passed at 36 mph in a 25-mph zone. After the deputy stopped the driver and spoke with him, it was discovered the man was driving with an expired license. The man's vehicle was searched. The deputy found drug paraphernalia and suspected marijuana.

The driver was released at the scene pending the lab analysis and authorization of a warrant.

Family Trouble

A deputy investigated a complaint of family trouble Oct. 10. A 22-year-old woman told a deputy that her live-in boyfriend was out drinking at the bar. She said that when he returned home shortly after 3 a.m. he started yelling at her about another guy. He left to confront the man she was out with earlier and she chained the door. She said he later returned and forced open the door, and then she called 911. The woman told police that she was not assaulted.

The woman's 24-year-old boyfriend told police that he found out she had been seeing another man. He was planning to move out. That evening, he was at the bar and when he returned home he said the door was chained. He forced it open, damaging the doorjamb. He also said no assault occurred.

The woman's boyfriend agreed to move out the next day. A report was filed as information.

Drunken Driving

A 70-year-old Ann Arbor man was arrested for operating a vehicle while under the influence of alcohol on Ann Arbor Street near Kensington Street at 7:55 p.m. Oct. 8. He was initially stopped for speeding. A deputy noted in the report that the man did not stop right away.

When the deputy spoke with the driver, the officer noted that the man smelled of alcohol and his face was flushed. The driver was asked to take a breath test. The test revealed he had a .11 percent blood-alcohol level, which is more than the legal limit to drive.

A 20-year-old Dexter man was arrested for operating a vehicle while under the influence of alcohol shortly after 2 a.m. Oct. 23 on Baker Road. The officer stopped the man after dispatch advised that a cellular phone caller reported a possibly drunk driver in a Ford Ranger. The officer spotted the man and noticed he was driving erratically.

When the man stopped, the officer noted that the driver's eyes were glassy-looking and his movements were slow and deliberate. The man admitted that he had been drinking beer earlier in the evening.

A preliminary breath test revealed the man had a blood-alcohol level of .20 percent, which is more than twice the legal limit to drive. A sample of his blood was drawn after a deputy obtained a search warrant to confirm the results.

The deputy also noted that the driver lives in Dexter but never obtained a Michigan driver's license. The man was jailed on charges of drunken driving, no Michigan operator's license and refusing to be fingerprinted.

Chelsea Village

Disorderly Conduct

An 18-year-old Chelsea man was detained by police in the post office parking lot shortly before 11 p.m. after an officer witnessed the man kicking a vehicle and then punching the driver. The officer grabbed the suspect and put him in handcuffs. Meanwhile, the victim drove away. The suspect said the man is his girlfriend's former boyfriend. He said he attacked him because the man punched him inside the UAW Hall on Main Street.

Larceny was reported at the Perky Pantry, 501 S. Main St., Oct. 23. A 43-year-old clerk told police that a man pumped $16 worth of gasoline into a Lincoln and left without paying. The clerk gave police a license plate number to a vehicle owned by a 63-year-old Dearborn man. The man was located at Cleary's Pub. He said he charged the gas on his credit card but the transaction must not have processed.

Larceny was reported at the Perky Panty, 501 S. Main St., Oct. 18. A 43-year-old clerk told police that a woman pumped $11.36 worth of gasoline into a Honda Prelude and left without paying. She turned over a license plate number to police. The plate is registered to a 53-year-old Manchester woman. An officer sent a letter to the woman asking for her to contact police about the incident.

Bicyclist Struck
A 12-year-old girl was struck by a car while riding her bike on Main Street near Van Buren Street Oct. 21. A 19-year-old Chelsea man told police that he was waiting to turn left from Van Buren Street and thought it was clear. A bicyclist was crossing the road at the same time. He wasn't sure if he hit her or if she fell off her bike.

The girl was taken to Chelsea Community Hospital and treated for a broken toe. She told her mother that she looked both ways before pedaling across the street. The driver was issued a traffic ticket for failing to yield to the bicyclist.

Dog Bite

Chelsea Police were dispatched to Chelsea Community Hospital for a report that a 24-year-old man was bitten by a dog on Buchanan Street. The man said he was petting the dog when it bit his lip, neck and chin. The dog, a golden retriever named Shelly, has been vaccinated for rabies. The dog's owner said she would get rid of it. Meanwhile, she is keeping the dog in the basement instead of outside chained to a doghouse.

Dexter Township

Domestic Assault

Domestic assault was reported shortly after midnight Oct. 16. A 31-year-old woman told police that her 27-year-old brother, who lives at the same residence, assaulted her. She said he had been drinking alcohol earlier in the evening. She was sleeping when she woke up to loud music coming from outside.

The woman said she yelled at her brother to turn down the music because she was trying to sleep. He reportedly called her names and punched her in the nose. The woman said her brother then collecting some of his belongings and told her he was never coming back.

The woman told police that she was afraid her brother would return to the house. Police entered the suspect's vehicle information into the computer and asked other officers in the area to be on the look out for him. The man was not located that evening.

The woman was given information about Safe House, a place for battered victims to stay. She refused medical treatment.

Larceny

Larceny of building materials was reported in the 13600 block of Rainbow Drive Oct. 7. A 54-year-old Howell man, project manager for a house under construction, told police that 33 sheets of treated plywood, other construction materials and nails were stolen. The items are valued at $1,450.

Scio Township

Warrant Arrest

Mark A. Widner, 25, of Pinckney was arrested at the Pilot truck stop on Baker Road at 3 a.m. Oct. 9. He was wanted on two felony warrants for delivery of marijuana. In addition, suspected marijuana was found on him during his arrest. Widner could face new charges of possession of marijuana.

Shannon L. Push, 23, of Scio Township was arrested at her residence in Loch Alpine subdivision Oct. 18. She was wanted on warrants for violating probation, for fraud and

NATURAL LOOKING FILLINGS

If you have decayed teeth that should be restored with fillings to protect your dental health, ask your dentist about some of the new techniques that have been developed to make fillings look natural. For example, there are new "microfilled" materials that consist of very hard micro-sized crystals similar in texture to find sand. The dentist mixes this filler with a resin and then applies it to the tooth surface, shaping it to recreate the tooth's natural contours.

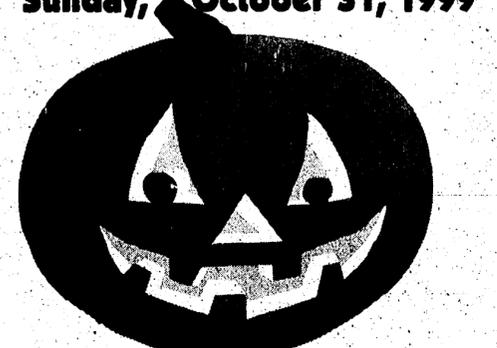

As in the case of composite plastics, the tooth to be filled is first treated with a mild acid solution to improve adhesion. Then the microfilled material is bonded directly to the tooth surface, the plastic is then hardened by a light with a blue beam.

Microfilled composites have proved to be of value particularly in restoring the smooth non-chewing surfaces of teeth that are exposed when you talk or smile. Ask your dentist if this technique would be right for you.

Domestic Assault

Domestic assault was reported shortly after 2 a.m. Oct. 18. A 55-year-old woman told police that her husband sprayed her with soda while she was sleeping in a spare bedroom. The woman said she is scheduled for cosmetic surgery in two days and her husband doesn't want her to do it, which may have prompted the outburst.

The suspect told police that he was upset with his wife over the proposed surgery. He said she started yelling at him so he sprayed cola on her. He later added that she struck him with closed fists. There were no visible injuries.

Domestic assault was reported at 8 p.m. Oct. 19. A 27-year-old woman told police that her 26-year-old husband threw a broken video cassette at her after they argued about household chores. The woman said her husband called her names and then said he was having an affair. He left before police arrived.

Domestic assault was reported shortly after 10 p.m. Oct. 22. A 39-year-old man told police that they were laying on the couch when they started arguing about his daughter. The victim said his wife hit him four times with her elbow. When he threatened to leave if she did it again, he said she elbowed him in the eye. He said she then left. The couple has a history of reported domestic abuse against each other.

Domestic assault was reported at 2 a.m. Oct. 23. A 39-year-old woman told police that she and her husband argued throughout the day. She left for a while to let things cool down. When she returned at 9 p.m., they decided to go to the Eagle's Club and then the Moose Lodge in Ann Arbor. She said they drank alcohol for the next three hours before returning home.

The woman said once inside, her husband started arguing with her again and she lost control. She said she doesn't remember exactly what happened but she thinks that she grabbed him by the throat and then he punched her in the left eye. She said he hit her so hard that she was stunned for a moment.

The victim said she left and slept in a church parking lot until morning. Then she went to see a friend, who took her to an urgent care facility.

The investigating officer was unable to locate the suspect for questioning. The case is open pending that interview.

Breaking and Entering

Breaking and entering was reported in Scio Farms Estates, 6655 Jackson Road, Oct. 20. A 48-year-old man told police that someone reached in an open window and stole a pair of blue jeans and his wallet. Both were found later that day on the corner of Pear Tree and Cherry streets in a small wooded area. A total of $150 was missing from his wallet. The incident happened between midnight and 6 a.m.

Breaking and entering was reported in Scio Farms Estates, 6655 Jackson Road, Oct. 20. A 51-year-old woman told police that someone reached in her kitchen window and stole her purse. The purse contained a checkbook, wallet and car keys. The incident happened between midnight and 6 a.m.

Breaking and entering was reported in the 7500 block of Marshall Road Oct. 21. A 45-year-old woman told police that she suspects her 24-year-old daughter of breaking into her residence and stealing $160 worth of property and $40 cash. The woman said her daughter is a drug addict living in Lincoln Park. The woman thinks her daughter opened a window, cut a screen and climbed in by standing on a garbage can.

Breaking and entering was reported in Scio Farms Estates, 6655 Jackson Road, Oct. 21. A 56-year-old woman told police that someone forced open her door between 6:20 a.m. and 6:45 p.m. and stole $1,500 worth of jewelry and $55 cash. A witness reported seeing two suspicious men in the area between 10 a.m. and 10:30 a.m.

Breaking and entering was reported at Clark Oil, 3535 Jackson Road, Oct. 18. A 23-year-old cashier told police that between 11 p.m. Oct. 15 and 8 a.m. Oct. 16 someone entered a storage shed and stole $20 worth of pop. Damage to a lock on the shed totals $10.

Car-jacking/Criminal Sexual Conduct

A report of a car-jacking and criminal sexual conduct was made Oct. 19. A 28-year-old Gregory woman told police that shortly after 11:30 p.m. Oct. 18 she was on Wagner Road near Dexter-Ann Arbor Road when someone approached her vehicle, pointing a gun at her head. The man was wearing a ski mask.

The woman said the suspect told her to get over and he got in the driver's seat. He took her to a private drive just off the roadway, where she was met by another man in a ski mask who had followed in a second vehicle. She said he had a shotgun and ordered her to give him her jewelry and purse.

The victim said she was crying and one suspect made her lay on the ground and then he squeezed her breast. She said he touched her in other areas before placing her in the trunk of the vehicle. She said they left the area and she escaped by kicking the back seat out of her vehicle. She walked until she found a pay telephone and called a friend to pick her up.

Once at her friend's home, the victim called another friend. He convinced her to call police. The woman refused medical attention and did not want to talk to a counselor.

A total of $15,000 worth of jewelry and cash was reported stolen. The woman's car sustained $25 damage when she kicked out the back seat.

Car-jacking

A 27-year-old Ann Arbor man told police that he was car-jacked at gunpoint at the intersection of Wagner and Dexter-Ann Arbor roads at 11:35 p.m. Oct. 18. Police were dispatched to the Chelsea hospital emergency room to take the report.

The man said that while he was stopped at the light he heard a tapping on his window. He turned and saw a man wearing a ski mask and holding a semi-automatic pistol. He said the suspect opened the driver's side door and ordered him to move over. The suspect drove north and stopped at an unknown location, where he was ordered out of the car and to the ground.

The victim said a second vehicle pulled up and he heard another man's voice. He was told to hand over all of his jewelry. When he tried to get a look at the men, the victim said he was struck behind his left ear with the butt of the pistol. The man said he went in and out of consciousness and then heard the suspects leave.

The victim walked down the road and someone gave him a ride to the hospital, where he was treated for a gash behind his left ear.

Jewelry, car stereo speakers and $100 cash were reported stolen from the victim.

Attempted Home Invasion

Attempted home invasion was reported in the 2700 block of Peters Road Oct. 19. A 69-year-old man told police that someone attempted to enter his residence through the locked garage door attached to his house.

The man said he and his wife were watching television and thought they heard a noise coming from the garage. He investigated and found a large knife blade sticking through the wooden garage door. He then called police. The incident was reported at 11:10 p.m. The knife was taken as evidence.

Attempted Break-in

Attempted breaking and entering was reported in Scio Farms Estates, 6655 Jackson Road, Oct. 20. A 47-year-old woman told police that she thinks someone tried to pry open her patio door. The door sustained $15 in damage. The incident happened between 8 a.m. Oct. 19 and 9 p.m. Oct. 20. It did not appear as if anyone entered the residence.

Suspicious Incident

A suspicious incident was reported in the 2700 block of Sagebrush Street Oct. 8. A 38-year-old woman said she is concerned about the welfare of her son's 5-year-old friend.

The woman said her son was spending the night at his friend's home. Shortly after dropping her son off, the woman said the boy's father brought her son back. She said the man smelled of alcohol and both her son and the man's son were crying.

The woman's son told police that the suspect was upset because a guinea pig was let loose in the house. He said the man spanked his son and the boy ran in a bedroom. The witness said the man then kicked in the door and pulled the boy by his shirt.

Police interviewed the family. The man appeared intoxicated and was awakened by police. The boy was also sleeping and was awakened for an interview. The boy said his father spanked him for letting the pet loose and for running from him in the house. The boy did not say a door was kicked, and deputies did not find any damage.

The boy was checked for bruises and there were none. The suspect's wife said he is under stress after a job transfer to the area. She told the officer that she felt safe and everything was OK, so police left.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Flags not advertising

Coming into Chelsea from I-94, I recently counted 32 flags - the American Stars and Stripes, that is. When I reached the clock tower I stopped counting. This wasn't Columbus Day (or Indigenous People's Day as it has also come to be known), the Fourth of July, Flag Day, but just another Wednesday in America. Many of the flags were flying over car dealerships from light poles, or even over the hoods of each car.

I hadn't thought about it before. You sort of get used to seeing the American flag flying from not just post offices, schools, and other public buildings, but private houses, businesses, or just on street corners.

When I saw the gargantuan flag go up in the center of Chelsea at the corner of Middle and Main Streets, a flag which literally dwarfs the town, I wondered why.

Was there something special about this street corner that I had missed? Was the town celebrating some incredible achievement that had passed me by? Or were they trying to tell us Americans, "We're Americans!"

I think that most people living in the States, and certainly in Chelsea, know they are Americans. Maybe the flag flying is to show how proud they are to be Americans. But to whom are they expressing this pride? Everyone else around town is also American, and probably proud of it. Is there some kind of competition to see who is the proudest? Is patriotism a competitive industry too?

When the American flag flies over the hood of a car containing foreign parts, what is the point? We are not celebrating American manufacturing. Most home-based multinationals have their products made in foreign countries (such as China, Taiwan, India, Mexico) where labor is cheap and environmental restrictions minimal.

Big businesses these days are all hybrids with plants abroad. A pure thoroughbred American product is almost impossible to find. Even American homegrown food is picked mostly by immigrants. Then there are the flags flying at people's residences. This is understandable in that the American's home is his castle. But it does look like we have just invaded foreign territory and are claiming it as our own. Didn't this happen a few hundred years ago, when we defeated the Indians, the British, the French and Spanish?

I think what bothers me is not so much the redundancy of flag-flying, but the use of the flag for advertising. Isn't it a trivialization of the American flag to use it as a means to selling products? When you fly the American flag on a business or on a product, such as a car, isn't this reducing the flag of the United States to a sales red (and white and blue) tag, using the flag as a persuasive image to increase sales? "So what," some may say, "America is the land of capitalism, money and profit. So why not use the flag as a capitalist emblem?"

The question remains, what is a national flag supposed to convey? I always thought it was to symbolize a nation's pride in its highest aspirations. We've seen the flag draped over coffins and then ceremoniously folded into a neat triangle and handed to the mourners.

Isn't this what the flag is for, to convey respect? What does it mean to place a gigantic flag on a busy corner, next to a print shop and opposite a coffee bar? What does it mean for a car to have an American flag flying on its hood, or over a car dealership? Has the American flag become a sales pitch or just a convenient decoration.

Or perhaps there should be two American flags; one for decoration and business with "S" signs instead of stars, and the traditional flag for public buildings and important events. Maybe it's time to review what the flag does stand for.

Library should spend time, not money

I found it confusing that, while I was reading through the Village of Chelsea Comprehensive Plan preliminary draft, from Oct. 1999, on at least two pages, 17 and 19, it stressed the importance of the library staving downtown.

community gives to the library? More than the property tax income, state aid and other sources of income can provide. Here are some recent examples of the ways local residents and businesses are supporting the library so that you can have far better service than would otherwise be possible.

Friends of Mary Lou Bower

Mary Lou Bower was a valued friend of the library, as she was valued in so many other ways in this community. With money contributed in memory of her, the library was able to purchase over 20 picture books and fairy tale books for the children's collection.

The plan also stressed the importance of an architectural design that would fit in with the character of downtown if the library was to be renovated or expanded.

This is confusing because, once the operating millage was passed, the library became a district library. The village no longer has control over where the library can be located; as Kathy Sprawka said, "This is not the village library anymore."

The Chelsea Comprehensive Plan was put together to reflect the hopes, the desires and the needs of the Chelsea Community as a whole. I find it shameful that the library would consider even temporarily moving out of the McKune House before a construction bond is passed.

I don't want the library to waste our money on unnecessary rent. The library should pass the renovation/construction bond first, then pay what rent is needed for a temporary relocation while the McKune House is being expanded.

If the library would conduct business in this way, they would be following through with the Chelsea Comprehensive Plan. I attended some of the community-input work sessions on a master plan. Some library board members were there as well.

The library has decided to levy 1.63 of the possible 1.75 mills available. This amounts to $844,702, a more than $460,000 increase over the current operating budget, and the library doesn't have an adequate home.

I think the library needs a permanent adequate facility prior to spending significantly increased tax dollars on operations. It seems to me that the library could be compared to a family buying a lot of furniture for a house for which they may not secure a loan.

How long are we tax payers willing to pay for storage? Let's buy the house first, then the furniture.

My recommendation for the library is to levy a much lower mill for now, and when the construction bond has passed, then increase the operating expenses to what is necessary. The library has nearly a million dollars a year to spend, they have no adequate permanent facility. To whom are they accountable for how they spend our money?

If you would like to discuss this issue further, we are holding a community meeting at 7 p.m. Thursday, Oct. 28, at the Board Room at the Washington Street Education Center. Everyone (including children) is welcome.

Library operating fund is voters' will

"How could it be" that voters passed an operational millage without a building bond? This question was asked in last week's Chelsea Standard's Letters to the Editor.

The answer is simple: with their votes.

For the first time voters from throughout the district voted to tax themselves for library services: services most had been receiving practically free. They voted yes to an operating millage request of "up to 1.75 mills." This is a legally stated proposal to support the formation of the Chelsea District Library.

"The voters said 'yes' to the formation of the library district.

The requested amount was estimated to cover operating expenses for an expanded building, including new services, books, videos, tapes, computers, adding staff and expanding hours.

The Chelsea District Library is now faced with a very serious problem. The McKune House is not handicapped accessible. This includes, but is not limited to, doorway widths, stairs (inside and out), restroom, and aisle widths. All are items requiring immediate attention. Without a bond to expand the existing building, these limitations cannot be fixed.

In April of 1998, the state's extension allowing the village library to remain out of compliance with ADA ended. Since that time the library has been open to lawsuits. The board understands that it is our moral and fiscal responsibility to provide all patrons access to library services and eliminate any possibility of a lawsuit. The library board must now use operating funds to comply with ADA requirements. This may include moving most of the library services to a temporary facility.

The unserved and underserved populations in our district deserve equal access to library services.

Innuendo, misinformation, rumors and taking things out of context do nothing to further the best interests of the entire district. To this end please watch for the new "Library Corner" in The Chelsea Standard. Each week we will provide accurate information about current library plans.

The bulletin board in the McKune House lobby, our newsletter, reaching over 8,000 households, our web site (chelsea.lib.mi.us) and attendance at our public meetings are all ways to get information regarding the library.

Our entire board welcomes your comments and suggestions.

United Way drive funds scouting

I'd like to take this opportunity to recognize the tremendous effort of Chelsea United Way in their support of activities for youth.

Chelsea United Way is a great supporter of Girl Scouts in our area, and we thank them for their care and support over the years. Here are a few comments from nine-year-old members of local Troop 108 which express, far better than I could, the benefit of giving to the United Way:

- Alexa: "Kids that go to Girl Scouts have fun."
- Erica: "I like Girl Scouts and doing crafts."
- Frannie: "I think Girl Scouts is a lot of fun and it helps you to grow up!"
- Jessica: "I like swimming at Camp Linden."
- Chelsie: "Girl Scouts are a big help to the community."
- Sara: "Girl Scouts is fun."
- Pam: "I like Girl Scouts because it educates girls."
- Kara: "I love doing archery at Camp Linden."

Please continue to generously support our local United Way in their current fund drive. We're working to support the activities of the next generation in the new millennium. Help us help them.

LIBRARY NOTES

We know that the library gives to the community far more than the sum of its parts, through programming for kids and adults, free loan of classics and best sellers, audiobooks, CDs and magazines, as well as Internet access. But, did you know how well the community gives to the library? More than the property tax income, state aid and other sources of income can provide. Here are some recent examples of the ways local residents and businesses are supporting the library so that you can have far better service than would otherwise be possible.

Friends of Mary Lou Bower

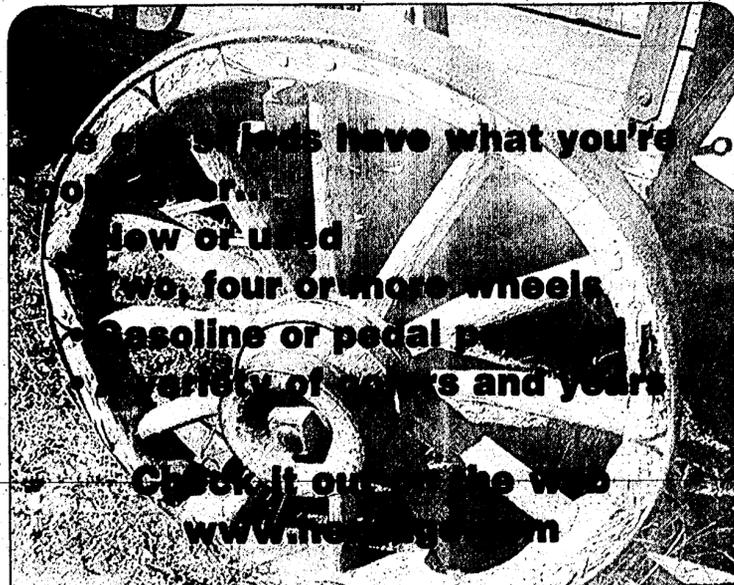

Mary Lou Bower was a valued friend of the library, as she was valued in so many other ways in this community. With money contributed in memory of her, the library was able to purchase over 20 picture books and fairy tale books for the children's collection.

"Mouse match: a Chinese folktale," "Valentine for Norman Nogs" and "Splash: a penguin counting book" are three of these books that have already been loaned out to many of her littlest friends.

Friends of William Collins

William Collins served the library as a trustee for several years. In his memory, his family and friends have contributed money for the purchase of art books for the lending collection. Twenty-eight books were purchased with this fund which include, Magritte, "The Art of India, Encyclopedia of Furniture, The Art of the Aztecs."

Teaching becomes Peebles' mission in life

By Michelle Rogers
Associate Editor

Beverly Peebles grew up idolizing two people in her life.

She was awestruck by her father, a minister who delivered life lessons from the pulpit, and her kindergarten teacher, a nurturer who made children feel loved.

So it's no surprise that as a youngster, her two favorite pastimes were playing "school" and "church."

"I did everything. I was the principal, the teacher, the student, and I'd grab anyone I could. I'd also play church. So, I not only taught school, I preached sermons," she recalls.

Peebles says she nearly became a missionary but her father convinced her that teaching was her mission in life.

"He said to me, 'If you're a teacher, that's your mission field,'" she says.

This spring, Peebles will mark 29 years as a first-grade teacher at North Creek Elementary School.

It's a career she decided on at age 5 as a kindergartner at Warner Elementary School in Jackson's Western School District.

"I fell in love with my kindergarten teacher, Mrs. Betts, and decided then I wanted to grow up and read stories like she did," Peebles says.

"She just had such a way of dealing with children. You felt loved. You felt warm. You felt secure. I just absolutely adored her and knew as a 5-year-old that's what I wanted to do when I grew up."

Peebles graduated from Jackson schools and continued her education at Spring Arbor College. In 1965, she earned a bachelor's degree in psychology and social studies, and was awarded a teaching certificate.

Since then, Peebles has taken continuing education courses in elementary education at Michigan State University.

It's ironic that Peebles started her career at the same school and same grade level where she made the decision to teach more than a dozen years earlier. There she worked under her former fifth- and sixth-grade teacher, who at the time was the principal. Peebles stayed for two and a half years before taking a job in Chelsea.

Peebles says she has found her niche at the lower grade level.

"I just love little children," she says. "I have more of a rapport, I think, with the little ones."

"I still need to be a mother and at my age a grandmother, and this age is a delight. Older kids, I am not sure I can handle them. But the little ones, give me a roomful."

Her favorite subjects to teach are reading and writing. Peebles says the progress children make over the school year is amazing to see.

"To have a child walk in your room and not be able to read or write sentences, and then to see the change in them from the beginning to the end is phenomenal," she says.

"I love to help children learn the beginning steps to reading and writing. They're so eager. They're like little sponges. They soak up everything."

Peebles says it's her job to help students become confident and self-reliant. And during that journey, she says, they should have fun.

There are three firm rules in her classroom. Students must show respect to each other, listen and work quietly.

"We talk about those rules daily," she says.

"It's their first time with really strong all-day academics. It's very challenging for them. If they're talking all the time and not listening then they're not good learners," she says. "So we work on that all of the time."

Peebles describes her teaching style as structured with lots of love.

"They need that structure," she says. "They need boundaries, but they also need to be cared for and know it's a safe haven."

"We do a lot of laughing together," Peebles adds. "We laugh over little things they say, things that happen in the classroom, pictures they draw, everyday life."

In the end, Peebles says, she hopes students see her as someone who cares about them.

"I really stress that they don't need to be afraid to tell me anything — that if I don't know about their problem, I can't help them," she says.

What Peebles finds unusual about Chelsea schools is that the district has a unified curriculum.

"It has been unique for us to have a unified curriculum K-12 and that all three elementary

Beverly Peebles has spent nearly three decades teaching youngsters at North Creek Elementary School. She is pictured surrounded by first-graders Amber Stebelton, Clint Corser and Steven Lesko. schools are working with the same curriculum for the same goals. So if you go into North Creek, South Meadows or Pierce Lake in the same classroom, we're covering the same material.

"That's unique," Peebles says. "Friends in other school districts don't have it and they're envious of us. We have a curriculum director who has guided us with that and we have high academic standards and are always striving to improve and better ourselves."

Peebles says her career in Chelsea has been both rewarding and challenging. Since she first walked through the doors at North Creek, Peebles says she hasn't wanted to leave.

"I am glad I was hired to teach in Chelsea," Peebles says. "I always felt like I had the best job in the world."

There are many moments that stand out in Peebles' career. Among them is working at North Creek.

"I think it's a fabulous school. I've had wonderful, supportive principals. My principals, my colleagues are dedicated. They strive for the best in anything they do."

"We care for each other," she says, "not only professionally but personally. A lot of us have grown old together, raised families. We're like an extended family."

Other highlights of her career include teaching children of former students and when former students return to chat with her. She has been invited to graduations and weddings of students she has taught over the past two decades.

What Peebles looks forward to in her career is using a new program that emphasizes her two favorite subjects: reading and writing.

"I am seeing children who are able to do that," Peebles says. "Each child can move at his own pace with this emphasis. We know where every child is and how that child is reading and why that child is reading in a particular way."

"It's challenging," she says. "So I am trying to get very com-

Ricky Suassuna teaches more than 100 local kids a year at his soccer farm in Lima Township. He runs the Brazilian Soccer School, offers camps, clinics and has an array of club teams. Students come from across Southeastern Michigan and range in age from 3 to 14. Suassuna is pictured with Patrick Schick.

Township man shares passion for soccer

By Michelle Rogers
Associate Editor

Lima Township resident Ricky Suassuna is as popular as any sports hero, movie star or rock singer but gets his kicks chasing a soccer ball.

A native of Sao Paulo, Brazil, Suassuna owns the Brazilian Soccer School, teaching soccer skills to youngsters from around the area. He also runs soccer camps and clinics, and has started a host of soccer clubs.

Suassuna grew up living and breathing soccer on the outskirts of Sao Paulo.

"It was a normal childhood, with soccer all the time," he recalls. "It was soccer and then it was homework. They're very fanatic about it there and very passionate. When you're born, you get a soccer ball as a present."

As a youngster, Suassuna idolized soccer great "Pele," a native of Brazil recruited to play for the New York Cosmos.

"He made (soccer) fun," Suassuna recalls. "He was very creative and very talented."

Suassuna also admired his late father, Francisco, a former professional soccer player.

"He was a lot of fun. We had a close relationship," Suassuna recalls. "He was more like a friend than a dad. We talked about everything."

When Suassuna grew up, he went the traditional route and worked as a bank manager for eight years. While vacationing in Brazil, he met an American couple who invited him to stay with them in Michigan. In 1988, Suassuna took them up on their offer and ended up staying. The decision changed his life forever.

Initially, Suassuna laid carpet for a living. Then he began designing custom rugs for interior decorators and upscale carpet stores. But a car accident in 1994 ended his career. That's when the soccer farm was born.

"I was laid off for a while and I thought running didn't bother me so much," he says. "So I put my energy into being with the kids."

In 1991, Suassuna bought six acres on Jackson Road in Lima Township, and it turned out to be the perfect place to start his next career. With two small fields and pole barns converted into indoor soccer arenas, Suassuna's soccer farm was born. Today he coaches more than 100 kids a year, and over the course of his new career has taught thousands.

Suassuna started out with eight soccer clubs and expects to have 20 by next fall. Students, ages 3 to 14, hail from across Southeastern Michigan, with most from Ann Arbor, Dexter and Chelsea. Athletes from across the world coach them, with competitions taking place at fields throughout Ann Arbor.

What Suassuna enjoys most about what he does is working with the children.

"I don't want to make good soccer players. I want to make good human beings. I want them to look back and remember they had fun and think, 'That coach was cool.'"

Suassuna draws on his relationship with his late father when working with the kids. He says he jokes with them and tries to be their friend.

"A lot of the things I do with the kids I remember that relationship," he says.

Besides teaching local youths soccer, Suassuna enjoys playing the game himself. He plays on four indoor teams in the winter. He also maintains a soccer Web page for kids, with links to Brazil that can help them if Michigan. They are high school sweethearts who reunited after two decades apart.

Suassuna has two children: Stepdaughter Ana Clara, 14, is a freshman at Chelsea High School, and 10-year-old Hamza, lives with his mother in Dearborn.

Besides soccer, Suassuna enjoys landscaping and remodeling his home. He takes pride in his yard and has put in a pond with a waterfall.

In his spare time, Suassuna runs soccer clinics through community education and at the Ann Arbor Jewish Community Center. In addition, for the past year he has been head coach of the Dexter Soccer Club.

Education foundation offers student grants

The Chelsea Education Foundation is in the midst of its annual solicitation of grant proposals for educational projects and programs. The foundation is interested in proposals from nonprofit/tax exempt and/or charitable organizations that will enrich the educational experiences available to members of the Chelsea Community.

The deadline for submission of grant applications for this year's grant funding cycle is Nov. 19, at 5 p.m.

Past support includes a diversity of projects such as Girls in Science, Art Appreciation Program, Heritage Room Archival Preservation (Chelsea Retirement Center), Grandparents Teaching Children and Timbertown. The 1998/1999 grant funding cycle supported 24 programs/projects with total funding over $20,000.

Project grants are funded from $250 to $1000 and Program grants begin at $1000 and may be funded up to three years.

Grant applications, information on grant-making policies and guidelines for grant writing are available at the Chelsea Public Schools, the Chelsea Community Education Office, Chelsea District Library, Chelsea Chamber of Commerce and the Chelsea Senior Citizens Center.

Completed application can be sent to the Chelsea Education Foundation, P.O. Box 295, Chelsea, MI 48118.

They also may be delivered in person to the Chelsea Community Education Office at the Washington Street Educational Center, 500 Washington St. in Chelsea.

For more information, call Robin Robinson at 433-2203, ext 3103 or visit the CEF at <http://comnet.org/cef> on the World Wide Web.

Jog-Dog-a-thon

All three local elementary schools participated in a Jog-a-thon on Oct. 18 at the Washington Street Education Center track. Over 500 people showed up, and made as many laps of the track as possible. A total of 291 elementary students racked up 4757 laps, a total of 1189.25 miles. The top lap counts were posted by North Creek Third-Grader Henry Hubbard, Pierce Lake Fourth-Grader Michael Kozma, and South Meadows Third-Grader Dakota Risner. Pictured here are freshman volunteer helpers from Chelsea High School, front, Brian Hayes; back, from left, Mark Tapping, Skippy the Jog Dog, and James Ballas.

November known as diabetes month

November is American Diabetes Month, when the American Diabetes Association spreads the word to those affected by diabetes about the benefits of taking early steps to prevent serious complications.

The campaign's slogan, "Diabetes, What to Know Head to Toe" is reinforced in colorful program materials that feature tips on how to prevent diabetes complications. The Association wants people to know that if they take charge of their diabetes by keeping their blood pressure and blood sugar in control, having dilated eye exams and thorough foot exams at least once a year they can live healthier lives.

Diabetes is a serious disease in which the body either does not produce insulin (type 1) or does not effectively use insulin (type 2). Insulin is the hormone that allows blood sugar to enter the cells of the body and be used for energy. If left unattended, diabetes can lead to severe complications, such as blindness, heart disease, and amputations.

The American Diabetes Association needs your help in reaching people with diabetes.

For information on local activities or to receive a free packet of information from the American Diabetes Association, call 1-800-DIABETES (342-2383).

WHAT DOES THE BIBLE SAY ON...

...DEATH?

In the world that we live we are constantly faced with the idea of death. It seems that people are trying to defy the idea of death by attempting to make some kind of solution to it. Unfortunately the awareness through diets, exercise programs and plastic surgery only give the illusion of a longer life, and through some seem to have an effect on the quality of life and sometimes the length, all people's lives end in the same way. If we cannot change the inevitable then the next best thing is to be prepared for it. The Bible says the following:

- 1) Death is a necessity (Hb 9:27; 1 Cor 15:22)
- 2) Death is a sleep of the body (John 11:11-14; 1 Th 4:13-18)
- 3) Death is giving up your Spirit (Gn 25:8, Acts 5:10)
- 4) Death is a return of the Spirit to God (Ecc 12:7)
- 5) Death is a departure from this world (2 Tim 4:6; Phil 1:23)

Death is a part of life and is not something to be feared but something that reunites us with God, and if we are prepared we have nothing to fear. Prepare yourself today as tomorrow may never be.

"Superstar"
Movie Review
By C.J. Nodus

How many times does Lorne Michaels, executive producer of "Saturday Night Live" have to fall on his face to understand turning eight-minute sketches into full-length films doesn't work?

With the notable exception of "Wayne's World," every SNL vehicle turned into a movie flopped. "Superstar" is no different.

As with her SNL sketches, Molly Shannon plays Mary Katherine Gallagher, a sexually repressed Catholic school girl who has a lifelong dream to have that one-of-a-kind kiss.

Gallagher realizes the only way this will ever happen is for her to become a superstar.

As luck would have it, Catholic Teen Magazine is holding a talent contest. The grand prize winner gets to be an extra in a movie.

What follows is painful to watch.

The film also features SNL co-player Will Ferrell as Sky, the object of Mary Catherine's obsession. Ferrell recently did the SNL-produced flop, "A Night at the Roxbury."

While on her road to becoming a superstar, Mary Catherine emulates the same geeky behavior she shows on television. The problem is that because eight-minute skit is turned into an 82-minute film, the same gags repeat over and over.

One or two incidents of severe underarm sniffing is acceptable, but becomes unbearable repeated time after time. The same can be said of knocking down stacked chairs and flashing the audience at the same time.

"Superstar" is insipid and totally without redeeming value. Molly Shannon should be ashamed. Lorne Michaels should be tarred and feathered.
Rated: PG-13 Grade: E

ducers who could only exhibit their films in art houses.

With the success of "Titanic" and "Shakespeare In Love," among others, the costume epic is back with a vengeance.

The latest is "Plunkett & Macleane" based on the real-life exploits of two notorious highwaymen of mid-18th century England.

Highwaymen in their day were despised. They were robbers who roamed the countryside robbing unsuspecting rich people - sort of the coach-jackers of their generation. Subsequent generations have idealized their exploits and made them heroes.

The movie reunites Robert Carlyle (Plunkett) and Jonny Lee Miller (Macleane) from "Trainspotting."

It is the feature film debut for director Jake Scott. Prior to this, Scott directed music videos and commercials.

Based on the notorious robbers, the two are at opposite ends of the social register. Plunkett is the brains; Macleane has the social status to determine the next victim. Together, they were a perfect pair.

"Plunkett & Macleane" gives a fabulous glimpse into the lavish extravagances of the rich and the abject filth the poor were forced to survive in.

The costumes, sets, wigs, make-up and scenery are at times breathtaking.

The major distraction is the soundtrack, which uses modern rock to accentuate the film. It just doesn't work.

On the whole, "Plunkett & Macleane" is a stylish, gritty and well-crafted story with reasonable acting and tremendous detail to history.

Inspect all treats carefully. Discard any unwrapped candies.

Beware of masks that obstruct vision.

Call local police and report any suspicious treats!

Watch for Risky Roadways: *Dusk is the time of poorest visibility for drivers.

Watch for frightful flames. *Open flames from jack-o-lanterns, candles.

Costumes, wigs and boards should be flame-resistant.

Know your child's route and agree on a pre-determined return time.

Don't go it alone-know who your child will be trick or treating with.

Instruct your child not to enter any strange house or car.

Clear your front walkway of any obstacles that could cause a fall.

Children under ten should be accompanied by an adult.

Motorists-Please exercise extra caution around residential areas.

If there is no sidewalk-walk on the left side facing traffic.

Visit only familiar well-lit homes

Never walk into the road from between parked cars.

Chelsea defenders shut down a Jackson-Northwest drive. Among the Chelsea players contributing were Aaron Montero, Jerry Milliken, Ethan Rendell, Steve Lafferty and Shawn Dyer.

Chelsea drives back Mounties

By Dirk Fischbach

Championship teams have a way of stepping up to meet a challenge.

One of the great dividers between contenders and pretenders is the manner in which they deal with adversity.

On this measure, and several others, the 1999 Bulldog varsity football team has proven itself to be a group of winners.

Friday, the trend continued. On a cold, windswept Jackson Northwest field, the team rebounded from an injury to its No. 1 receiver to post a 38-23 victory — and used the aerial route to pull away for the final margin.

It wasn't as easy as the score might indicate. The Mounties never folded, but ultimately

Chelsea hosts playoff 1st round

Chelsea will face off against a 7-2 Hastings team this Friday in first round of MHSAA state playoff action. The Bulldogs will host the contest at Jerry Nichols Field, with kickoff at 7:30 p.m. Tickets are available through the High School athletic office until 1 p.m. Friday, and all seats are $4.

If the Bulldogs win, they will face the winner of the Haslet/Richland/Gull Lake game next week. If Gull Lake is the opponent, the game would be held in Chelsea.

26 yards out, despite a strong crosswind, and the team went up 17-14.

After the intermission, the Mounties began driving toward a potential go-ahead score, but Ben Myers put down the threat with a nice interception and turned the ball, and the game, back to Chelsea.

Phil Fishburn and Cooper spurred the offense on the ensuing drive, but then what seemed like a great play turned tragically sour.

Cooper busted loose for a touchdown, but a flag nullified that, and receiver Tony Schefler, trailing Cooper on the play, was blindsided and had his knee rolled. Carried to the sideline in obvious pain, he did not return.

The 'Dogs responded like

Chelsea's team speed and depth prevailed.

The game opened with the Bulldogs in control. Cory Picklesimer rambled 46 yards for a touchdown, and was followed shortly after by Chris Cooper, who turned the trick from 38 yards out.

But before anyone could get too comfortable, an errant Bulldog lateral put the Mounties in business and they struck quickly, getting two-second-quarter TDs from a pair of talented backs to knot things up at 14.

Running a hurry-up offense to beat the clock, the Bulldogs got nice gains from Cooper and a Ryan Barwick-to-Ethan Rendell pass, giving Mike Radka a shot at a field goal as the first half wound to a close.

Harriers finish 2nd in SEC Jamboree

By Dirk Fischbach

Jeff Kolodica ran a blistering 16:40 and Steve Erskine and Andrew Brott recorded personal bests as the Bulldog harriers finished second to Class A Saline at the final SEC Jamboree Thursday. The team now will compete in regional action Oct. 30.

for the Southeastern conference title.

"We finished a solid second for the second straight year," beamed coach Eric Swager. "Saline is one of the top-five Class A schools in the state, so I am pleased with runner-up Jeff Kolodica was once again outstanding, taking his highest SEC finish ever."

Koldica's third-place run was complemented by Nathan Zeigler's 14th-place finish at 17:33 and Kyle Brown's 17:40 time, good enough for 17th overall. Steve Martin (17:59) and Mike Kattula (18:05) rounded out the squad's top five. Chad Fortner (18:10) and Jared Daniel (18:17) also ran strong races, helping the team finish 11 points ahead of Tecumseh in the Jamboree.

On the season, Chelsea was second to Saline, while Tecumseh and Pinckney tied for third in the league. Dexter, Lincoln and Milan followed.

"All the tune-ups are done, and we're putting our season on the line at regionals," Swager said. "Our team has an outside shot at the regional championship, but our pack must make one more improvement. I'm looking forward to a competitive meet."

To qualify for state competition, the Bulldogs must finish in the top three Saturday.

Girls take 3rd at SEC Jamboree

Corinna Christman's season's best time of 22:02 provided the needed spark as the girls' cross country team edged Milan to grab third-place at Thursday's SEC Jamboree. Saline and Pinckney were first and second, respectively.

"Corinna passed a Milan runner in the last 100 meters to secure the one point we needed for the third-place showing," explained coach Pat Clarke. "It was her best race in two years."

Rebecca Metzler led the team with a 14th-place run of 20:41. Laura Borden at 20:42, Amy Dault (21:00) and Krystal Space (21:12) joined Christman as the squad's scorers.

The team closed out its regular season in third place, and now will head to regional competition Saturday.

"We ran a fair team race (today)," said Clarke. "But we must improve on this performance at Saturday's regionals if we are to qualify for states."

The regional run will get underway at 11 a.m. Saturday at Hudson High School. The top three teams will advance to state competition.

Equestrians grab second at state

The Chelsea equestrian team returned from the state finals in Detroit with the reserve champion trophy for Division C.

Competing in the finals, 51 teams are broken down into A, B and C divisions, depending on team size. Chelsea is a C team because it has five riders or fewer. The average number of riders per class was 20 to 25. Each class has two judges, thus doubling the number of available points.

Finishing in second place behind Algonac, the Chelsea riders placed ahead of 15 other C teams at the three-day show.

Ashley Bartlett started the team off on a good foot with a pair of second-place efforts in equitation over fences. She also placed well in her other classes.

Erin Ryder, the team's captain, had wins in saddleseat bareback, saddleseat equitation and western equitation. Samantha Ortiz, the newest member of the team, also added points in several classes.

Kelly Jackson, who was unable to ride at this competition, was still a big help to the team with her behind-the-scenes support.

This is the first season the team has had no seniors, and coaches Jill Spero and Alix Ryder anticipate that the entire team will be returning next year.

The team and coaches took time to thank their sponsors after securing the trophy, not-

JV kickers top Ypsi during busy week

A thrilling 3-0 victory over Ypsilanti highlighted a busy week of play for the junior varsity soccer team. The squad also posted a 0-0 tie at Saline and suffered a 2-1 loss to Adrian during the span.

Against Ypsi, excellent goal-tending by Evan Wildey held the Braves at Bay while Mark Tapping, Clayton Wilson and David Wilson got the offense in gear. Tapping and Wilson scored early in the first half, while Knox scored a third of the way through the second to ice it. Andrew Baibak and Scott Holefka recorded assists.

At Saline, the defenses and goalies reigned supreme, with Holefka and Wildey teaming up to shut down the Hornets.

Chelsea outshot their hosts 11-8 in an intense second half, but could not slip one through.

Coach James Hicks praised Brian Hayes, Matt Hollo and Tapping for good midfield pressure in the contest.

Against Adrian, a pair of good shots by the Maples thwarted an outstanding Bulldog effort as the team closed its season with the 2-1 setback.

Ty Christensen opened the scoring with an assist from Tapping to give the 'Dogs a 1-0 halftime edge. In the second stanza, however, the Maples got a pair of headers late to steal the win.

"We dominated the shooting in the second half," said Hicks. "But our best scoring opportunity glanced off the goal post and out of play. Both of the Adrian goals were great shots."

The team closed its season at 6-5-3.

JV girls break bad luck streak in Milan

By Colleen O'Neill

It was time for the junior varsity basketball team to break its losing streak, but it would take steady improvement and a spirited effort to get it done.

The team started out the week dropping a close game to non-conference opponent Haslett.

"It was close all the way," said head coach Paul Terpstra.

The key was 19 turnovers by the Bulldogs.

Allison Mann continued to show her power by hitting double digits in both points and rebounds.

Her 21 points and 14 rebounds led the team. Sally Compton also had a hot hand and pitched in with eight points. Susan Frederick scored three and both Connie Kolokithas and Audrey Richardson put up two points.

On Thursday the Junior Bulldogs came back home to control the game and win against conference opponent Milan.

While the first quarter was close, ending in a 4-4 tie, that was the only time the Big Reds were in the game.

Chelsea outscored Milan by 13 points in the second quarter, five points in the third quarter and twelve in the fourth. The Bulldogs held Milan to only one point in the fourth.

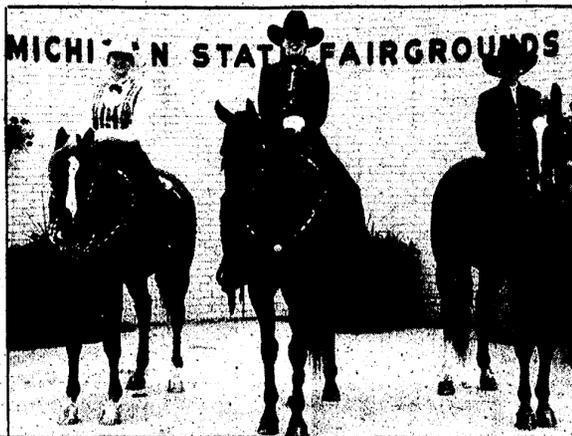

The final score was 46-17 to raise Chelsea's record to 8-5 overall and 3-4 in the conference.

"We overcame a sluggish first quarter to outscore Milan and lead 21-8 at the half," Terpstra said.

Terpstra's team was powered by a strong showing from the bench, as eight players scored during the game.

Connie Kolokithas scored two points and led the team with four steals. Mann once again scored 20 points, and pulled down eight rebounds. Compton scored six points and had six rebounds. Tara Koch scored six points, Heather Tanner and Tracy Carter scored four each, Susan Frederick scored three and Tiffany Dickerson put up two points.

The team will host Ypsilanti-Lincoln on Tuesday and then be visited by non-conference opponent Jackson Northwest on Saturday.

Aqua Dawgs sink to Dexter team

The Chelsea High School swimming and diving team closed out its regular season schedule with two meets in Dexter. The first, last Thursday, was a clash with a traditional rival, the Dreadnaughts of Dexter.

Despite some outstanding performances by Chelsea swimmers, the depth and strength of the Dexter squad was too great and the Aquadawgs fell 71-115.

Coach John Crispin singled out diver Ker Ceo, who by winning her fifth dual meet competition (with a lifetime best score of 161.30) qualified for the state regional meet in November.

Ashley Augustine continued her fine swimming with wins in both the 50 free and 100 back, the latter in an excellent time of 1:02.97, a hairbreadth off her own varsity record of 1:02.20. Also drawing praise was Jennifer Minnick who, "Is beginning to swim very well every time . . . strong and consistently. She is looking good for the upcoming SEC champs," said Crispin.

On Saturday, the ninth and 10th graders returned to Dexter to participate in the annual Dexter Invitational.

This year's meet was the largest and strongest of the event's history, with Class A powers Brighton, Plymouth Salem, Plymouth Canton and Saline and Class B state champ '97 Albion along with host Dexter.

The Chelsea contingent, numbering 17, did well. There are no team scores kept, but some of the highlights for the Aquadawgs were: divers Christine Rosentreter's fifth place, with a personal best score of 152.70 and Ceo's seventh place; the 200 medley relay of Rebecca Armstrong, Julie Mida, Sarah Manville and Sarah Tschihart (fifth); Tschihart's 10th in the 200 free; Armstrong's 12th in the 100 fly and eighth in the backstroke; Manville's 12th in the 100 free and eighth in the 100 breast; the seventh-place effort of Armstrong, Tracy Stetson, Elena Street and Jessica Bassett in the 400 free relay.

While not placing, Coach Crispin also cited Katie Lowman for an excellent meet, beating her best time in all swims.

The Chelsea squad now will focus on the upcoming SEC Meet in Tecumseh, Nov. 5 and 6.

Seventh grade gridders hone their skills

The seventh grade football team continues to improve as they tied Tecumseh 14-14 last week.

The Chelsea squad, led by quarterbacks Bryan Dunn, Andrew Harper, and Nick Harwood moved the ball well throughout the game.

Behind the running of full-back Taft Richardson and Justin Esch, Chelsea moved the ball down inside of Tecumseh's 10-yard line and took an early lead in the game on a five-yard touchdown run by Terry Arnold with Alex Guenther scoring the two point conversion.

Tecumseh was able to move the ball down the field and they tied the score at eight in the second quarter.

Chelsea came back with a 65-yard touchdown run by Guenther to go back on top 14-8. The two-point conversion failed and the score remained 14-8 for most of the second half.

Tecumseh moved down to Chelsea's 12-yard line with under three minutes to go in the game, but on a crucial fourth-down play Brian Seyferth nailed the Tecumseh runner at the line of scrimmage stopping that Tecumseh drive.

Tecumseh was able to knock the ball loose from the Chelsea runner on the next series and recovered the ball inside of the 10-yard line. The Indians then pounded the ball into the end zone tying the score at 14. On Tecumseh's extra point try Alex Penix intercepted the ball (his second interception of the game) in the end zone to keep the game tied.

In the last two minutes of the game Chelsea mounted a drive, moving inside of Tecumseh's 20-yard line before turning the ball over with less than a minute to go.

The line play of Brad Hinderer, Danny Kellman, and Alex Penix (15 tackles) along with the end play of Aaron Parisho helped to keep Chelsea in the game and secure the tie.

Varsity kickers fall on Senior Night

The opportunities were there, but the door proved hard to open as the varsity soccer team dropped a heart-breaking 2-1 decision to Ypsilanti on Senior Night last Monday.

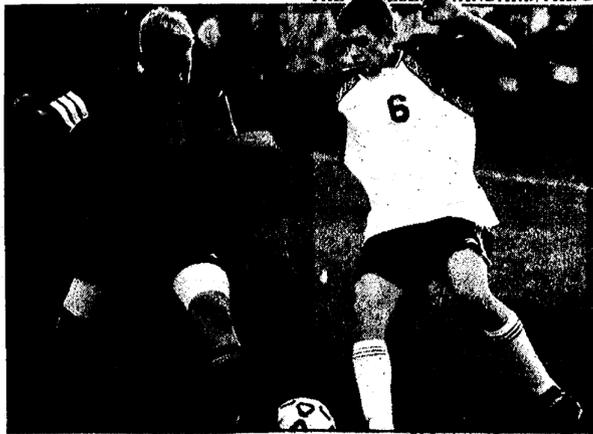

Ypsi drew first blood at the 28 minute mark and then pushed another shot in two minutes later.

For its part, the Bulldog offense produced chances, racking up 23 shots on the night, but could only connect on a Craig Forshee rocket in the contest.

Joe Arend was solid in the Bulldog net, turning away nine shots.

"We definitely had our chances in the second half," coach Chad Scaling said of his club's 13 shots. "But we just couldn't put it in."

any champ would. Barwick stepped back into the pocket and drilled a strike to Schefler's replacement, Rendell. The speedy senior cut between two defenders and scored.

After Jerry Milliken buried the Mounties deep with his kick, the defense hosted on a crucial fourth-and-one play.

It was quick work from there, with Barwick finding Rendell for 40 and then Cooper carrying the pigskin over from four yards out. Radka's PAT made it 31-14 at the end of three quarters.

The Mounties climbed back into it with a fourth quarter score. But again, the Dogs answered like champs.

Cooper and Fishburn provided the legs, and then Fishburn, on a nice reception of a Barwick pass, fought his way into the endzone.

Later, after a muffed punt attempt cost Chelsea a safety, a Tim Parham interception tipped any comeback hopes the Mounties had, and Fishburn, Brian Sayers and Brett Putman ran out the clock.

Cooper finished with 148 yards and Picklesimer added 68. Fishburn closed his night with 49. Rendell led all receivers with 98 yards, while Barwick was 8 of 16 passing for 121 yards and two touchdowns.

"We were up 14-0 and everything was going well, but then we had the turnover on the lateral and we lost momentum," coach Brad Bush explained. "Once we lost the momentum, it was hard to get it back."

The coach praised the play of Rendell, hugging his performance. "Huge."

"Tony is by far our leading receiver," Bush said of the injured Scheffer. "But because teams have been doubling on him and trying to take him away, we've had to diversify our offense. So others have had to step up."

And like true champions, they've met that challenge head on.

Eighth graders fall to Tecumseh

An early lead wasn't quite enough to hold up, as the eighth grade team fell to Tecumseh 26-8 last week.

Chelsea was able to score on its first possession of the game with Craig Urwin breaking loose for a touchdown run.

Tony Reifel scored the extra points on a pass from quarterback Jamie Spooner.

But in the waning moments of the half Tecumseh scored twice to take a 14-8 lead.

In the second half Tecumseh was able to shut down Chelsea backs Craig Urwin and Karl Wint who had moved the ball well in the first half. Seeing the stiffened run defense, Chelsea went to the air, completing passes to Josh Clark and Tony Reifel to keep the offense in the game.

Going into the fourth quarter Tecumseh was able to score two more times to account for the final margin.

Bulldog cagers win, now atop SEC

By Colleen O'Neill
Special Writer

The varsity Bulldog basketball team rebounded from a tough non-conference loss to Haslett on Tuesday to crush SEC opponent Milan 55-13 on Thursday.

At Haslett the Bulldogs met a team of average height but above average talent.

"They were an extremely athletic team," said head coach Charles Waller. "They pressed constantly. They put a lot of pressure on the ball, and they were able to force us out of our offense in the half court. They made it very difficult to get the ball inside where we have the advantage."

Chelsea was close in the first half but then faded.

"The third quarter was really tough for us," Waller said.

Chelsea scored just eight points to Haslett's 15 in the stanza.

"That was the difference in the game," Waller said.

Michelle Dettling scored 16 points including six field goals and was three-for-three from the free throw line.

"She had an exceptional shooting night," Waller said.

Dettling also led the team in rebounds with seven. Jessie Cole scored seven points to aid the cause.

But the heroics weren't enough to pull out the win as Chelsea lost 45-33. The loss put the Bulldogs overall record at 9-3.

On Thursday, Chelsea held Milan to only four points in the first quarter and topped that by allowing just one in the second period. Meanwhile, the offense was clicking. They went to the locker room at the intermission leading 30-5.

Milan added just eight more points in the second half against a stout Bulldog defense.

"We played extremely well," Waller said of the overall effort. "We shot the ball well."

Three players enjoyed double digit scoring while seven of the 12 players added something. Lindsey Brink paced the team with 13 points and also led in rebounding. Cole had 12 points, while Dettling notched 10. Traci Kern almost reached double digits with nine points.

Everybody got to play and contribute in the victory. Betsy Ruhlrig made the most of her time and recorded five steals.

The win pushed Chelsea's record to 11-3 overall and 6-1 in the conference.

Combined with a Dexter loss, this puts Chelsea alone at the top of the conference standings.

"That makes us all feel good that Dexter lost to Pinckney," Waller said. "At least temporarily (we are) in first place."

The Bulldogs have six more games in the regular season. Five of those games will be against conference rivals but four of their last six games will be at home.

This week Chelsea will host Ypsilanti-Lincoln and a Jackson Northwest.

Waller said his job as coach is to keep the team focused on winning even though Lincoln does not have a winning record.

"The only team they've beaten is Milan," Waller said.

In the Saturday game against Jackson Northwest Waller hopes to have a learning opportunity.

He said to play a good team outside the league is an advantage. It will allow them to play everybody, perhaps making mistakes but also learning about what they should be doing.

"The two weeks after that is the drive," Waller said. "Tecumseh, Dexter, Pinckney, Saline. That will be a full plate."

Chelsea will only be on the road for the Nov. 4 game against Tecumseh and for their last regular season game on Nov. 12 at Saline.

The Bulldogs have shared the lead in the conference with Dexter most of the year, but currently have a one game advantage over the Dreadnaughts.

Home court advantage or not, it will be a tough three weeks if the Bulldogs want to win the division outright, but this talented and determined team is not daunted by the challenge... and they control their own destiny.

Manchester floor store joins national promotion

Scott Crawford of Manchester Floors and Interiors announced today that his company has signed up to participate in ColorVision Flooring's "Fall National Sweepstakes."

According to Scott, "Being a member of ColorVision's national floor covering dealer network allows us not only to offer lower prices to our customers because of our huge buying power, but to participate in national promotions like the Jeep Wrangler giveaway."

Here's how it works: Customers, upon visiting the store (no purchase is necessary), can register to win a mini Power Wheels Jeep Wrangler replica that their kids can actually drive. The winners of that drawing will automatically be entered in ColorVision's "Fall National Sweepstakes" drawing to be held in December. They then will be eligible to win one of the national prizes, a 1999 Jeep Wrangler, Sony Giant Screen TV, or Sony Home Theater system.

"All of our staff at Manchester Floors and Interiors are keeping our fingers crossed that one of our customers will win the Jeep or one of the other fabulous prizes," Crawford says.

In addition to the giveaway, the store has received specially reduced prices from participating floor covering manufacturers and has marked down prices throughout the store.

"If you are considering new carpet, no wax vinyl flooring, hardwood floors, ceramic tile or the hottest new product, laminate flooring, there will never be a better time to save a substantial amount of money," according to Crawford.

He noted that all manufacturers' warranties and his staff's famous "second to none" service will still be included.

Manchester Floors and Interiors is located at 230 E. Main St. in Manchester.

Dexter Girl Scouts Busy

Senior Girl Scout Troop 634 has been busy over the past couple of months. Scouts traveled to Mackinac Island during the Labor Day weekend to walk the bridge with approximately 70,000 other people. AMI Scouts Becky Major, along with Kate Major and Laura Luther, were models in the Huron Valley Girl Scout Council's Dressed to the Nines fashion show. The event was organized to

Bank sponsors awareness program

To help the fight against breast cancer, Chelsea State Bank is sponsoring a campaign on the national cable channel Lifetime and offering local help to area residents at the same time.

In conjunction with national "Breast Cancer Awareness Month," Lifetime Television for Women and In Your Corner are offering programming in October that relates to breast cancer research, support and awareness, specifically, detection through self-examination.

Chelsea State Bank has purchased a sponsorship package on Lifetime, with the proceeds going to breast cancer organizations nationwide. As part of the package, the Bank is offering free waterproof early detection shower cards, available in the lobby of each bank location. The cards illustrate a medically recommended step-by-step self-examination procedure.

In addition, CSB has donated several breast self-exam videos simply called "The Gift," to the Chelsea District Library. The educational video features Nancy Brinker, women's health and wellness advocate and Dr. Jan Goss. Area residents may check the video out at their leisure.

Shower cards also are available at the library, located on Main Street downtown.

For more information about breast cancer, call the American Cancer Society at 971-4300.

Board appoints subcommittee

■ Space constraints, additional staff top fire board agenda.

By Michelle Rogers
Associate Editor

A subcommittee has been appointed to look into ways of solving space-constraint problems at the Dexter Fire Hall.

Dexter Area Fire Board members Bob Stacey, Wally Fusilier, Hugh Mosher, Bill Eisenbeiser and Chief Loren Yates have been appointed to look into the possibility of building a new fire station.

Stacey, who also serves on Dexter Village Council, brought up the topic at the board's meeting Oct 21.

"As you know," Stacey said, "with the rapid growth, not only in Dexter but in every township, something has to be done with this fire hall.

"Our fire chief will tell you this place is getting close to obsolete.

"We've got to start thinking about this problem," he said. "We can't wait six or seven years and then have to do something right away."

Yates told the board that it likely would be cheaper to build new than to upgrade the current facility.

Webster Township Supervisor Dean Fisher, who also serves on the board, suggested a new station could be built in Smith Woods Park off Dexter-Chelsea Road. Stacey said he didn't think the idea would go over well with the Village Parks Commission or the family who donated the parkland.

Fisher suggested the subcommittee examine facility needs across the department's coverage area. He said within a few years the fire hall in Webster Township will need additional bays.

In related news, the fire board discussed the hiring of a third firefighter so the department will have 24-hour coverage.

The board will discuss the topic further at its Dec. 2 meeting.

VILLAGE OF CHELSEA NOTICE TO VILLAGE OF CHELSEA RESIDENTS

Brush and tree trimmings may be placed on the lawn extension and will be removed by the Public Works Department. Leaf rakkings may be placed on the lawn extension, but must be kept separate from brush. DO NOT PLACE LEAF RAKINGS OR GRASS CLIPPINGS IN THE STREET. During rains, lawn debris plugs the storm drains and creates a traffic hazard if placed in the street. Village Ordinance No. 98, effective December 13, 1995, addresses this issue and persons who violate the provisions of this Ordinance shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a term of imprisonment not to exceed ninety (90) days, a fine of FIVE HUNDRED ($500.00) DOLLARS, or any portion thereof, or both, together with an award of the costs of prosecution."

SCIO TOWNSHIP WASHTENAW COUNTY, MICHIGAN

NOTICE OF ADOPTED ORDINANCE TO: THE RESIDENTS AND PROPERTY OWNERS OF SCIO TOWNSHIP, WASHTENAW COUNTY, MICHIGAN AND ANY OTHER INTERESTED PERSON:

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that the Board of Trustees of Scio Township adopted Ordinance No. 99-2 ("Ordinance") of the Ordinances of Scio Township, which amends, deletes and adds sections to the Scio Township Traffic Ordinance. Ordinance No. 99-2 will become effective thirty (30) days after the date of this publication. A summary of Ordinance No. 99-2 is set forth below.

SYNOPSIS. Ordinance No. 99-2 is an ordinance to amend the Scio Township Traffic Ordinance, being the Uniform Traffic Code promulgated and adopted pursuant to Act 62 of the Public Acts of 1956, as amended, (MCLA 257.951 ET SEQ.; MSA 9.2851 ET SEQ.); amending certain provisions of the Scio Township Traffic Ordinance for the purpose of making the Scio Township Traffic Ordinance consistent with certain provisions of the Michigan Vehicle Code, being MCL 257.1 ET SEQ.; MSA 9.1801 ET SEQ., as amended by Acts 340, 341, 342, 347, 349, 350, 351, 354, 357, 358, and 359 of the Public Acts of 1998 and Acts 29 and 73 of the Public Acts of 1999; providing stiffer penalties for operating without a proper license or registration and for operating while intoxicated or impaired due to the consumption of intoxicants or other controlled substance; providing for penalty enhancement and immobilization of vehicles for multiple convictions of driving without a proper license or for operating while intoxicated or impaired; amending the provision for possession or transporting of open containers of intoxicants in a motor vehicle; adding a provision to make it a crime for a minor to transport unopened intoxicants in a motor vehicle; adding a provision making it a crime for an intoxicated or impaired person to operate a motor vehicle with a passenger who is less than 16 years of age; amending provisions related to windshield obstructions, spilled loads, towing of vehicles, and requirements for seatbelts, mandatory child restraints, and the operation of television monitors within a motor vehicle consistent with the Michigan Vehicle Code; making it a violation to operate a motor vehicle without proper proof of insurance; providing for the repeal of inconsistent provisions and ordinances; providing penalties for violations of the ordinance; providing for severability; providing for savings clause; providing for publication of this ordinance and the effective date thereof.

Summary

SECTION I. AMENDMENTS, ADDITIONS AND DELETIONS TO SCIO TOWNSHIP TRAFFIC ORDINANCE. Section I of Ordinance # 99-2 identifies what sections of the Township's Traffic Ordinance were amended, deleted and/or added and then fully states the changed or added language of the Amended Traffic Ordinance summarized as follows:

1. Section 5.15: Operating a motor vehicle while under the influence. Section 5.15 of the Township's Traffic Ordinance was deleted and replaced with new language corresponding to Section 625 of the Michigan Vehicle Code, being MCL 257.625, MSA 9.2325, as amended. The substantive offenses are substantially the same as under the Township's previous ordinance and prohibit the following:

- Operating under the influence of intoxicants or a controlled substance;
- Permitting an intoxicated person to operate a vehicle;
- Operating a vehicle while impaired by intoxicants or controlled substance;
- Operating while impaired or under the influence causing death;
- Operating while impaired or under the influence causing serious impairment of a body function; and
- Operating a vehicle by a person who is less than 21 years of age who has any bodily alcohol content.

A new Child Endangerment offense is added making it a separate crime to operate a vehicle in violation of any of the above prohibitions with a passenger who is less than 16 years of age. A person can be charged, convicted, and punished separately for each crime.

In summary, the remainder of Section 5.15:

- Increase prescribed penalties for first time offenders from a maximum of 90 days to 93 days;
- Prescribes penalty enhancement to felony for causing another person's death or serious impairment of body function while operating a vehicle under the influence of intoxicants or controlled substances;
- Prescribes penalty enhancement for multiple convictions of any drinking and driving offense;
- Provides for the discretionary immobilization of vehicles owned or operated by first time offender, and mandatory immobilization and/or forfeiture of vehicles owned or operated by persons with multiple convictions;
- Provides for court discretion to assess the cost of prosecution incurred by the Township;
- Prescribes the procedure for establishing prior convictions for sentence enhancement;
- Provides that the prosecuting attorney must give notice of prior convictions to a person if the prosecuting attorney is seeking an enhanced sentence;
- Defines "prior conviction" to include a conviction of "any" prior drinking and driving offense within 7 years of a current charge;
- Provides that there can be no plea reduction from operating while under the influence or impaired to the offense of operating with "any bodily alcohol content" by a person under 21 years of age;
- Provides that attempted violations be punished as completed offenses;
- Establishes the required form of verdicts for convictions;
- Establishes the court's duty to report convictions;

2. Section 5.15a. Arrest without warrant; circumstances; preliminary chemical breath analysis; determining whether operator should be ordered out of service; refusal of commercial motor vehicle operator to submit to breath analysis as misdemeanor; provisions applicable to chemical tests and analysis; evidence; availability of test results; presumptions; admissibility of refusal to submit to chemical test. Section 5.15a of the Township's Traffic Ordinance was deleted and replaced with new language corresponding to Section 625a of the Michigan Vehicle Code, being MCL 257.625a, MSA 9.2325a, as amended. The new Section 5.15a is substantially the same as the previous Section 5.15a, and in summary:

- Provides that an officer may arrest a person without a warrant if the person is involved in an accident and there is probable cause to believe that the person is in violation of the Ordinance;
- Provides that an officer who has reasonable cause to believe that a person is in violation of the Ordinance may require the person to submit to a preliminary chemical breath analysis and arrest the person in whole or in part based on the results of the analysis;
- Provides when and for what purpose the results of a preliminary breath test result may be used;
- Prescribes penalties for refusal to submit to a preliminary chemical breath test;
- Prescribes the rules and procedures governing the use of chemical breath, blood, and urine test results at a trial for violation of the Ordinance; and establishes rules and procedures describing how samples for chemical test analysis shall be obtained;
- Requires that the results of chemical test analysis be made available to a person being charged with violation of the Ordinance;
- Requires that certain legal presumptions be followed and applied regarding the results of any chemical test analysis performed pursuant to the rules and procedures as established in the Ordinance; and

h) Describes the purposes for which a person's refusal to submit to chemical test analysis may be used in the prosecution of a person for violation of the Ordinance;

3. Section 5.15b. Arraignment of person arrested for misdemeanor violation; pretrial conference; advising accused of maximum penalty before acceptance of plea; screening, assessment, and rehabilitative services; consideration of prior convictions; restricted license; surrender of license; suspension or revocation of group designations; "work location" defined. Section 5.15b of the Township's Traffic Ordinance was deleted and replaced with new language corresponding to Section 625b of the Michigan Vehicle Code, being MCL 257.625b, MSA 9.2325b, as amended. A substantial portion of the previous Section 5.15b dealing with court ordered suspensions and restricted license has been deleted. The new Section 5.15b is substantially the same as previous Section 5.15b except for those provisions regarding court ordered suspensions and restricted licenses which have been deleted, and in summary:

- Establishes time limits for the occurrence of arraignment, pretrial and trial of persons charged with violation of the ordinance;
- Provides that a case shall not be dismissed or other sanction imposed for failure to adhere to the time limits established for arraignment, pretrial or trial in the ordinance;
- Establishes conditions upon which adjournments may be granted to a party or by the court;
- Establishes a requirement that, prior to sentencing for violation of the ordinance, a person shall undergo screening and assessment to determine if he or she will benefit from an alcohol treatment program, and for persons with prior convictions, sentence for violation of the Ordinance must include a requirement of successful completion of appropriate rehabilitative programs.

4. Section 5.15c. Consent to chemical tests; persons not considered to have given consent to withdrawal of blood; administration of test. Section 5.15c of the Township's Traffic Ordinance was deleted and replaced with new language corresponding to Section 625c of the Michigan Vehicle Code, being MCL 257.625c, MSA 9.2325c, as amended. New Section 5.15c is substantially the same as previous Section 5.15c, and in summary:

- Provides that a person who operates a motor vehicle in this state has given consent to chemical tests to determine the amount of alcohol or controlled substance in the person's blood; and
 - Provides an exception to such consent for withdrawal of blood from persons with hemophilia and diabetes.
5. Section 5.15g. Duties of peace officer if person refuses chemical test or if test reveals unlawful alcohol content; test results; duration of temporary license or permit; "unlawful alcohol" content defined. Section 5.15g of the Township's traffic ordinance was deleted and replaced with new language corresponding to Section 625g of the Michigan Vehicle Code, being MCL 257.625g, MSA 9.2325g, as amended. New Section 5.15g is substantially the same as previous Section 5.15g, and in summary:

- Prescribes that a peace officer shall confiscate the license from a person who refuses to take a chemical test pursuant to the Ordinance, and from a person who takes a chemical test pursuant to the Ordinance and the result reveals an impermissible bodily alcohol content;
- Prescribes the time period for which a temporary license or permit issued under the Ordinance is valid;
- Prescribes the prosecutor's and officer's duty to report to the Secretary of State any case which is not prosecuted after a person has been arrested for violation of the Ordinance.

6. Section 5.15h. Drunk driving prevention equipment and training fund; drunk driving case flow assistance fund. Section 5.15h of the Township's Traffic Ordinance was deleted and replaced with new language corresponding to Section 625h of the Michigan Vehicle Code, being MCL 257.625h, MSA 9.2325h, as amended. New Section 5.15h is substantially the same as previous Section 5.15h, and in summary establishes a drunk driving prevention equipment and training fund to be administered by the state police for the purpose of purchase and maintenance of breath alcohol testing equipment and to provide training to law enforcement personnel in the use of such equipment.

7. Section 5.15i. Michigan annual drunk driving audit; preparation; contents; report; evaluation of 1998 legislation. Section 5.15i of the Township's Traffic Ordinance was deleted and replaced with new language corresponding to Section 625i of the Michigan Vehicle Code, being MCL 257.625i, MSA 9.2325i, as amended. New Section 5.15i is substantially the same as previous Section 5.15i, and in summary requires that an audit and report of charges and convictions for drinking and driving offenses be prepared by the state police and reported to the University of Michigan for evaluation of the impact of new drinking and driving legislation.

8. Section 5.15k. Ignition interlock device; approval; certification; list of manufacturers; rules; cost; notice to department by certifying laboratory; unlawful conduct; penalties. Section 5.15k of the Township's Traffic Ordinance was deleted and replaced with new language corresponding to Section 625k of the Michigan Vehicle Code, being MCL 257.625k, MSA 9.2325k, as amended. In summary, new Section 5.15k:

- Requires the state police to certify and approve ignition interlock devices and publish a list of manufacturers with approved devices;
 - Requires manufacturers to bear the cost of certification;
 - Sets requirements for manufacturers of ignition interlock devices;
 - Provides that it is a felony for a manufacturer to knowingly provide false information to the state police related to ignition interlock device certification;
 - Provides that it is a misdemeanor for manufacturers to negligently provide false information to the state police.
9. Section 5.15l. Ignition interlock device; warning label; prohibited conduct; violation of misdemeanor; penalty; definition; liability; insurance; servicing. Section 5.15l of the Township's Traffic Ordinance was deleted and replaced with new language corresponding to Section 625l of the Michigan Vehicle Code, being MCL 257.625l, MSA 9.2325l, as amended. New Section 5.15l is substantially the same as previous Section 5.15l but adds new language relating to an ignition interlock manufacturer's duty, and in summary requires that a warning label be attached to ignition interlock devices which states that tampering, circumventing, or otherwise misusing the device is prohibited and sets penalties for such acts; defines "ignition interlock device"; requires dealers of ignition interlock devices to obtain insurance and to indemnify the department of state police for liability associated with damage caused by the use of such devices; and provides that only authorized employees may install and service such devices.

10. Section 5.15m. Operation of commercial motor vehicle by person with certain alcohol content; arrest without warrant; violation as misdemeanor; sentence; "prior conviction" defined. Section 5.15m of the Township's Traffic Ordinance is deleted and replaced with new language corresponding to Section 625m of the Michigan Vehicle Code, being MCL 257.625m, MSA 9.2325m, as amended. In summary, Section 5.15m prohibits a person from operation of a commercial motor vehicle with 0.04 grams or more but not more than 0.07 grams per 100 milliliters of blood, per 210 liters of breath, or per 67 milliliters of urine; prescribes arrest for violation; provides for enhancement of penalties for multiple offenses; and defines "prior conviction" to include "any" prior drinking and driving offense.

11. Section 5.15n. Forfeiture of vehicle or return to lessor. Section 5.15n of the Township's Traffic Ordinance is deleted and replaced with new language corresponding to Section 625n of the Michigan Vehicle Code, being MCL 257.625n, MSA 9.2325n, as amended. New Section 5.15n is substantially the same as previous Section 5.15n, and in summary provides for forfeiture of vehicles for certain drinking and driving violations; requires a showing of probable cause that vehicle is subject to forfeiture prior to court order allowing forfeiture; provides that the forfeiture of a vehicle is subject to security interests; establishes procedure for sale of forfeited vehicle; provides procedure and hearing for valid claims of interest in forfeited vehicle; and provides a misdemeanor penalty for persons who avoid or interfere with forfeiture.

12. Section 5.15o. Ignition interlock device; sale, lease, or installation in vehicle; surety bond. Section 5.15o is added to the Township's Traffic Ordinance and corresponds to Section 625o of the Michigan Vehicle Code, being MCL 257.625o, MSA 9.2325o, as amended. In summary, Section 5.15o prohibits the sale of ignition interlock devices unless a surety bond is posted in the amount of $50,000.00 and an appropriate insurance and indemnity policy is maintained.

13. Section 5.16b. Transportation or possession of alcohol liquor in container open or uncapped or upon which seal is broken; violation as misdemeanor; exception. Section 5.16b of the Township's Traffic Ordinance is deleted and replaced with new language corresponding to Section 624a of the Michigan Vehicle Code, being MCL 257.624a, MSA 9.2325a, as amended. In summary, Section 5.16b prohibits carrying open intoxicants in the passenger compartment of a vehicle and provides a penalty for violation.

14. Section 5.16d. Transport or possession of alcoholic liquor by person less than 21 years of age. Section 5.16d is added to the Township's Traffic Ordinance and corresponds to Section 624b of the Michigan Vehicle Code, being MCL 257.624b, MSA 9.2325b, as amended. In summary, Section 5.16d prohibits persons who are less than 21 years of age from transporting or possessing alcoholic liquor within a motor vehicle whether opened or closed; provides exceptions for persons transporting alcoholic liquor pursuant to certain work related activity; provides a procedure for impoundment of vehicle; and provides a misdemeanor penalty for violation.

15. Section 5.62a. Operating vehicle license; registration certificate or designation suspended, revoked, or denied; penalty. Section 5.62a of the Township's Traffic Ordinance is deleted and replaced with new language corresponding to Section 904 of the Michigan Vehicle Code, being MCL 257.904, 9.2504, as amended. In summary, 5.62a prohibits the operation of a motor vehicle by a person who has a suspended, revoked, or no proper license or endorsement has been issued to the person; prohibits the owner of a vehicle from knowingly allowing such a person from operating his/her vehicle; establishes penalties for violation; and establishes enhancement of penalties for multiple convictions.

16. Section 5.57. Construction or loading of vehicles to prevent contents from escaping; exception; closing tailgates, faucets, and caps; violation; penalty. Section 5.57 of the Township's Traffic Ordinance is deleted and replaced with new language corresponding to Section 720 of the Michigan Vehicle Code, being MCL 257.720, MSA 9.2420, as amended. In summary, Section 5.57 prohibits the operation of a vehicle unless any load thereon is properly secured to prevent spillage; prohibits a company or person from loading or causing to be loaded any load not properly secured; and prescribes a misdemeanor penalty for violation.

17. Section 5.81. Windshield and windows; unobstructed; rear view mirrors; windshield wiper and defroster maintained; obstructed rear window. Section 5.81 of the Township's Traffic Ordinance is deleted and replaced with new language corresponding to Section 709 of the Michigan Vehicle Code, being MCL 257.709, MSA 9.2409, as amended. In summary, Section 5.81 prohibits operation of a motor vehicle with any windshield or rear view window obstructions; requires proper maintenance of windshield wipers; and requires commercial motor vehicles to properly maintain wipers and defrosters.

18. Section 5.82. Child restraint system required; exceptions; violation as civil infraction. Section 5.82 of the Township's Traffic Ordinance is deleted and replaced with new language corresponding to Section 710d of the Michigan Vehicle Code, being MCL 257.710d, MSA 9.2410(4), as amended. In summary, Section 5.82 prohibits transporting a child under 4 years of age in a motor vehicle unless secured within a proper child restraint system; provides an exception for nursing a child and for certain types of vehicles; and prescribes a civil infraction penalty for violation.

19. Section 5.83. Safety belt required; violation as civil infraction. Section 5.83 is added to the Township's Traffic Ordinance to correspond with Section 710e of the Michigan Vehicle Code, being MCL 257.710e, MSA 9.2410(5), as amended. In summary, Section 5.83 requires that each driver and front seat passenger of a vehicle to wear a seat belt; provides exceptions for certain types of vehicles; requires the driver of a vehicle to properly secure all passengers between the age of 4 and 16 with a safety belt; and prescribes violation as a civil infraction.

20. Section 5.94. Television viewable by driver prohibited; exceptions; and violation as civil infraction. Section 5.94 is added to the Township's Traffic Ordinance to correspond with Section 708b of the Michigan Vehicle Code, being MCL 257.908b, MSA 9.2408(2). In summary, Section 5.94 prohibits the operation of a vehicle with a television screen that can be viewed by the operator; provides exceptions for research vehicles, accessory control screens, navigation systems, and commercial vehicle rear view monitors; and prescribes a civil infraction penalty.

21. Section 5.99. Passenger vehicle or pickup truck towing vehicle or trailer; drawbar or other connection; coupling devices and safety chains; speed limit required; violation as civil infraction. Section 5.99 is added to the Township's Traffic Ordinance to correspond with Section 721 of the Michigan Vehicle Code, being MCL 257.721, MSA 9.2421. In summary, Section 5.99 prohibits the operation of a passenger vehicle or pickup truck with more than one vehicle or trailer in tow; provides an exception for certain pickup trucks; prescribes the maximum length of tow bars; requires safety chains; and prescribes violation as a civil infraction.

SECTION II. REFERENCES TO CODE. Section II of the Ordinance provides that references to the "Code" in the Ordinance means the Michigan Vehicle Code.

SECTION III. SEVERABILITY. Section III of the Ordinance provides that any terms of the Ordinance determined to be invalid are severable and have no effect on the validity of the remainder of the Ordinance.

SECTION IV. REPEAL. Section IV of the Ordinance repeals any inconsistent ordinance provisions.

SECTION V. SAVINGS CLAUSE. Section V of the Ordinance provides that the effect of this Ordinance shall not abrogate or effect any acts or offense committed under the previous ordinance.

SECTION VI. PUBLICATION AND EFFECTIVE DATE. Section VI of the Ordinance provides that the Ordinance is declared to be an emergency ordinance and prescribes the effective date.

Ordinance # 99-2 takes effect thirty (30) days after the date of this publication.

MONEY MANAGEMENT

Okay, so you're savvy enough to know that you can't build your wealth simply by socking all your money into a savings account and watching the entries on your statement grow. But you're still wary about dealing with the ups and downs of stock market swings. The Michigan Association of CPAs says you may be able to minimize risks — and control your stock market jitters — by adhering to a consistent, comprehensive investment plan.

Here are 10 tips to help you get started:

1. Increase your investment IQ. Without understanding how an investment works, you could be in for an unpleasant surprise. Take the time to understand your investment options and the pros and cons of each. Read books, take a course, see a financial planner, or even consult with friends to increase your investment IQ.

2. Define your risk comfort level. Typically, the more volatile an investment is, the more profit you can make — but also the more loss you may incur. Safer investments generally promise a specific — but more limited — return and don't always keep pace with inflation. Deciding how much risk you are comfortable with will help you set and adhere to a smart investment course of action — one ruled by sound strategy, not emotional response.

3. Match your investments to your goals. Define your short- and long-term investment goals and identify how much money you'll need to meet those goals. Then let those goals drive your strategy. For example, money you'll need within five years may be invested in money-market funds, bank CDs, Treasury bills or mutual funds that buy top-rated bonds maturing in one to three years. Money you won't need for five years or more can be invested in the growth market. In fact, the longer you have to invest, the safer and smarter the stock market becomes as an investment.

4. Don't be guided by investment "gurus." When considering where to put your money, look for funds that can withstand the test of time, and avoid managers who are "gurus" of the moment. Do your own homework. Review annual and quarterly shareholder reports, along with the most recent Form 10-K or Form 10-Q disclosure documents filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission. You can obtain these documents by calling or writing to the corporate secretary or investor relations department at the companies that interest you.

5. Diversify. Regardless of your personal risk profile, include a variety of assets that react differently to market conditions. Opt for a mix of stocks, bonds, and cash investments, so that when one sector of the market declines, gains in your other holdings can cushion the blow. In other words, don't put all your eggs in one basket.

6. Put your investing program on automatic pilot. Because there really is no such thing as "extra money," you have to treat investing as part of your basic monthly expenses. The surest way to do this is if you don't see the money at all before it goes from your wallet to your account. You can arrange for your employer or a mutual-fund company to transfer a fixed sum every month from your salary or checking account into an investment account.

7. Stick to your investment plan. If you want to achieve your financial goals, stick to your plan. Don't let market swings or the desire to make a sudden big purchase cause you to make impulsive decisions and alter your plan. In fact, switching in and out of investments drives up transaction and tax costs. Also, you're usually selling a falling investment and buying a rising one, so you're selling low and buying high — a sure way to lose money.

8. Reinvest your dividends whenever possible. Rather than cashing dividend checks, reinvest the proceeds. Many companies allow you to automatically invest your payout in additional company stock. You'll continue to build your portfolio and you'll save brokers' fees and investment fees at the same time.

9. Track your investments. Make it a practice to review your goals and investments once a year. In the event your circumstances change, you also might want to revise your strategy.

10. Check with your financial consultants. Make sure you periodically meet with your CPA and other advisers to review your portfolio and allocations in light of changing goals, tax laws, investment performance, and various opportunities that might arise. They also can advise you on how to time withdrawals and plan reallocations so you can make the most of your investment dollars.

ESTATE TAX FACTS

Estate Tax rates at your death are expensive. Starting at 37%, the rates quickly reach 55% of your taxable estate.

Assets Taxable at Death	Exemptions by year
• Life Insurance	1999	$650,000
• TIAA-CREF, IRA'S, 401k	2000-2001	675,000
• Qualified Retirement Plans	2002-2003	700,000
• Investments	2004	850,000
• Bank Accounts	2005	950,000
• Business Interests	2006	1,000,000
• Real Estate
• Personal Property

The total of all assets exceeding the exemption are taxable. Using the marital deduction a spouse pays no estate tax but at the spouse's death all the assets are taxed.

Fortunately there are numerous ways to minimize or even eliminate the estate tax with proper planning. Using the proper type of estate plan, including the appropriate type of trust can not only take care of the estate tax problem, but avoid the time and expense of probate.

Yekulis named to national position

County Commissioner Joseph J. Yekulis has recently been named a member of the National Association of Counties' (NACo) Justice and Public Safety Steering Committee by NACo President C. Vernon Gray.

NACo's 13 steering committees form the policy-making arm of the association. Each committee is comprised of approximately 50-60 county officials who meet several times during the year to examine issues critical to local government.

The Justice and Public Safety Steering Committee focuses on criminal justice and public safety systems, including criminal justice planning; law enforcement; courts; corrections; community crime prevention; juvenile justice and delinquency prevention; emergency management; fire prevention and control; and civil disturbances.

The committee's recommendations on legislative policies and goals are presented to NACo's membership during the association's Annual Conference. If approved, the recommendations become part of the American County Platform, which is the basis of NACo's efforts in representing counties before congress and the White House.

LOST STREAM MAP FOUND AND RESTORED

The recently published STREAM MAP OF MICHIGAN is just like another map - known to Pennsylvania anglers as the "Lost Stream Map."

The "Stream Map of Pennsylvania" was completed in 1965 after a thirty-year effort by Howard Higbee, a former Penn State Professor.

Professor Higbee succeeded in creating a map of the highest detail possible... a map that shows every stream and lake. He painstakingly plotted by hand, the location of 45,000 miles of streams onto a 3 x 5 foot map.

The map sold extremely well - until it was lost several years later. Incredibly, the printer entrusted with the original drawing and printing plates, declared bankrupt, then carelessly hauled Higbee's 30 years of work to the landfill.

The few remaining dog-eared copies became a prized fisherman's possession. Professor Higbee was offered $400 for one of his last maps. And state agencies were forced to keep their copies under lock and key.

The experts had always told Professor Higbee that reprints were impossible, because the maps were printed in non-photographic blue. Then, in 1991, at the age of 91, Howard Higbee's dream came true. Computers made it possible to reprint the map. Holding an updated map, Howard said, "I never thought I'd live to see this day."

Then, by combining Professor Higbee's knowledge with computer technology - the STREAM MAP OF MICHIGAN was created.

Michigan Streams and Lakes

Opening Day of Trout - April 26th

Stream MAP of Michigan

Why every fisherman needs this map

It is estimated that 10% of all the fishermen catch 90% of the fish. Regardless of which group you fall into... there's a sure way to up your odds... simply try new fishing waters. Fish where few fishermen ever fish.

Michigan is loaded with great fishing waters... many of them overlooked. From the AuSable River to all of the Great Lakes tributaries to the Pere Marquette River... thousands of miles of streams, lakes and rivers are now easy-to-locate on one map.

Professor Higbee's Stream Map of Michigan is the first and only highly detailed map of its kind. This new 4 foot by 4 foot color map shows virtually all of the 35,000 miles of Michigan streams & lakes on both peninsulas. That's almost two times the earth's circumference!

RAVE REVIEWS

"It is amazingly detailed and names some creeks in the Mohawk Valley that can't even be found on topographic maps."
 John Pitaros
 OBSERVER-DISPATCH-Juica

"If you're looking for the most definitive maps ever created depicting every single creek, river, stream, pond and lake... then 'Professor Higbee's Stream Maps' are without question the finest."
 Howard Grant
 THE NEWARK STAR-LEDGER

"It is in showing where to find out-of-the-way trout streams that makes the map such a treasure to the fisherman."
 Joe Gordon
 TRIBUNE-DEMOCRAT-Johnstown

FREE LOCATION GUIDEBOOK INCLUDED

Pinpoint the best fishing in Michigan with this valuable 40 page guide. Easily locate over 5,000 streams and lakes shown on the "Stream Map." Your map and guidebook will take you to the top 443 fishing waters - select waters for 14 species of gamefish.
