Leslie Police Officer Announces Bid for Sheriff Position

By Lynne Beruchamp

Leslie Police Officer Clyde Smith announced his candidacy for Ingham County Sheriff during the Bunker Hill Township regular meeting February 21.

Smith is running as a Republican on the November 2012 ballot. He said he believes there is a need for change within the sheriff's office beginning with Sheriff Wriggelsworth and his command.

Smith said he is ready and qualified to make those changes as he presented his credentials that include 35 years of policing experience, fifteen years of command supervisory, retirement from the Lansing Police Department after 25 years, and ongoing work with the Leslie Police Department. He also earned an Associate Degree in Criminal Justice through Kaplan and Northwood University.

He explained that he is upset with perks he believes the sheriff and his command have been given, while road patrol has been reduced to fit the current budget imposed by county commissioners.

Smith said he disagreed with allowing the sheriff and his command unit consisting of an undersheriff, two majors and a chief deputy to take home vehicles paid for by taxpayers.

If elected, Smith said he will cut two of those high paid positions and eliminate the take home vehicle perk, allowing him to put four additional deputies on the road. "More deputies on the road would reduce crime rates," he stated.

He claimed it is Michigan State Police, not county sheriff's deputies that have been his backup for Leslie PD.

At this time only Sheriff Gene Wriggelsworth and Smith are on the November ballot for Sheriff.

"I just want to help people. That's all I want to do," concluded Smith.

Throwing his hat into the ring for Ingham County Sheriff, Clyde Smith expressed a need for changes in management of the department. Photo from Facebook - Clyde Smith for Sheriff.

Lake-to-Lake Planning Meeting

By Melinda Baird

An unexpectedly high turnout of about 75 citizens, including many equestrian enthusiasts, crowded Munnith's Katz Elementary classroom Thursday evening to support the opening of Lakeland Trail. The rail-trail stretches 26 miles from Hamburg to Stockbridge, through Waterloo and Henrietta Townships.

The trail will eventually link to Jackson's urban pathway system, and ultimately be incorporated into the larger Lake to Lake Trail extending from Port Huron to South Haven, reported Department of Natural Resources representative and Manager of Pinckney Recreation Area Chuck Dennison.

Dennison told the group his current focus is simply to make the portion of trail from Stockbridge to Munnith usable this year, and requested adult volunteer groups sign up for designated work days to help clear the trail for usage. He described the trail's central grading and sloping sides as having sizable trees, emphasizing the clearing process will be no small effort.

"There are varying degrees of how bad the trail is choked up with trees and overgrown brush. At this point in the process, we just need to get it passable." Most citizens present indicated a willingness to help. In fact, Jeffrey Rogers, owner of full-service tree company Preservation Tree Service, LLC, committed to donating both a wood chipping machine and the accompanying labor on scheduled work days.

The meeting was a kick-off discussion initiated by Waterloo Township board members to gauge community interest in the grass-roots project requiring massive volunteerism. The degree of interest was to be a deciding factor in whether Waterloo Township officials will consider entering into a lease agreement with the DNR, paying the way for the township to apply for grant money for trail renovation.

"This meeting was the next step after recently talking with DNR officials about a possible lease. We expected maybe five people to show up. This is unbelievable," observed Waterloo Township Treasurer Arlene Walz.

According to Dennison, Putnam, Hamburg, and Unadilla Townships along with the Village of Stockbridge are currently leasing their respective portions of the trail. "We hope Waterloo and Henrietta will sign leases as well, but until then those portions are DNR property," said Dennison.

Leasing would allow the townships to apply for state funding unavailable to the DNR. Because the DNR doesn't have sufficient manpower to maintain the trails, they are looking for townships with whom to partner, charging townships only one dollar in exchange for the trail's upkeep.

During the meeting, Stockbridge Village President Don Byrd encouraged Waterloo Township officials to pursue the lease agreement, stating it would give some ownership to the township in terms of what may or may not be built on trail property.

Waterloo Township Looking At Different Law Enforcement Options

By Melinda Baird

Waterloo Township Supervisor Doug Lance received permission from board members to seek a budgetary quote from Jackson County Sheriff Office for police services equivalent to the township's current coverage at the regular board meeting February 15.

Lance indicated a contract with JCSO for services, which would effectively disband the Waterloo Township Police Department, could potentially be negotiated for this July, the start of the new fiscal year.

The news of possible disbandment came as a surprise to Waterloo Township Police Chief of six years Tom Cottrell, who reported in a later interview feeling blind-sided by the board's announcement of possibly replacing the existing department with JCSO services. Cottrell disclosed that the night of the open board meeting was the first he'd heard of the board's intentions, and felt professionally slighted by the board's failure to consult with him prior to the public meeting.

In a later interview, Lance stated the primary reason for a possible change in police service is financial. Due to an eroding tax base and a continuous drop in revenue sharing coupled with rising police operating costs and rising rent of township government offices, Lance, expressed a need to reduce expenditures.

He cited a $2,400 overall budget deficit for the past fiscal year. "This is not personal...I just don't have any money. We need to look at our options. I have to manage my resources."

Further, Lance asserted he sent Cottrell a "pretty frank" email two weeks before the board meeting indicating the need to consider other options due to an unsustainable budget. Further examination of the email showed that, in response to a January 24 email from Cottrell to Lance regarding affordable storage of police vehicles, Lance wrote: "We cannot afford to build and maintain a town hall, support fire and rescue services, and run our own police department...we all will have to do some serious belt tightening. Waterloo will be looking at all expenditures and comparing alternatives over the next few months in an effort to prepare for more lean times that appear to be coming our way."

A secondary concern leading to Lance's request to seek a quote is a sense of inadequacy among board members in handling their own police department. "We're a township with part-time leadership, and we're being asked to manage a law enforcement agency with no experience," explained Lance. "Also, there is a huge liability aspect to managing our own agency," he added.

Lance said he is seeking a quote from JCSO for 80 hours of coverage per week by two full-time deputies. He has not yet received the quote. According to monthly police reports submitted by Cottrell, the Waterloo Township Police Department currently provides an average of 116 hours of coverage per week. However, Lance remarked that actual time spent patrolling is difficult to track.

Lance also admitted he approached JCSO before being given official permission by board members and had some informal discussion during which he was advised to contact Parma and Sandstone Townships, both of whom are under contract with the sheriff's office.

JCSO Sheriff Rand stated a bid is being prepared and will be submitted within the next week. He confirmed a conversation took place with Lance prior to the board meeting, but that Lance did not seek the bid before receiving board approval. "We just happened to be in conversation about another matter when Lance asked about the Parma proposal, which is a matter of public record. He never asked for a quote at that time."

Lance elaborated that he viewed a copy of JCSO's initial proposal for 80 hours to Parma and discovered JCSO services were indeed cheaper than the current Waterloo Township department. Lance came to this conclusion after factoring in costs associated with running one's own department, specifically vehicle maintenance, insurance, and administrative costs.

Finally, when questioned about whether he is considering any other options, Lance advised it was unlikely as the only other police agencies in proximity are in different counties.

Dexter Township Adopts Ordinance Required for Federal Flood Insurance

By Melinda Baird

Dexter Township board members unanimously adopted a Floodplain Management Ordinance during its regular meeting February 21, enabling property owners located in the Huron River floodplain to qualify for federally subsidized flood insurance through the National Flood Insurance Program (NFIP).

Effective April 3, 2012, the Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) requires municipalities to adopt the ordinance before residents can access the program. "We have to adopt the ordinance to participate in the program so residents can buy insurance through FEMA, rather than through their mortgage lender at a much higher rate," explained Director of Planning and Zoning Patrick Sloan. Residents located in the FEMA identified floodplain with federally insured mortgages are required to have flood insurance.

Township Supervisor Pat Kelly explained new mapping of the township by FEMA indicates approximately 70 homes are located in a floodplain - a land area identified by FEMA as high risk for flooding.

The maps, produced and recently updated by the federal government, outline FEMA identified properties as being in a high risk flood zone.

Armed Robbery Suspect Arrested by Unadilla Police

Submitted by Chief William Cook

After a four and a half month investigation, Unadilla Township Police have identified and arrested a suspect of an armed robbery that occurred last fall on San Luray Drive in Unadilla Township. Officers from Hamburg Township Police Department assisted with the traffic stop of the suspect vehicle Thursday, February 16, Doyle Road near Meadowpark Drive at about 4:05 pm.

Jason Robert Cavender, a 34-year-old Stockbridge man, was taken into custody without incident and lodged in the Livingston County Jail. "He was arrested on a warrant from the 53rd District Court for 1st degree home invasion with intent to commit armed robbery and as a habitual offender.

According to Unadilla Police, a female resident of San Luray Drive reported that a man entered her house Tuesday, September 27 at about 12:30 pm and pointed a handgun, at her demanding that she give him her prescription medication. When the victim told the man she did not have any medication, he appeared nervous and left on foot.

In a related investigation which began on December 8, Unadilla Police found Cavender in possession of illegal drugs and he was charged with felony possession of marijuana. Cavender is currently awaiting an initial appearance in the 53rd District Court in Howell.

Trail Planning Meeting

He spoke of his desire to build on the village's current "park and ride" commuter lot located at the trail's end in order to accommodate horses and riders, including a structure with at least two bathrooms and four showers. "We want to go both directions: seven miles to Gregory and seven miles to Munith," explained Byrd. "We're just waiting to see how Waterloo is going to respond to tie the two sections together."

Several citizens at the meeting expressed the importance of the trail being one of multi-use, so that horses and riders, cyclists, and pedestrians were equally considered when making renovations.

"Nobody wins if there is a conflict between cyclists and equestrians. We have to learn to coexist," said one citizen. "It is so important we are tolerant of other users," said another.

The Putnam Township portion of the trail will undergo the first phase of construction this summer and was praised for their multi-use trail design. Putnam Township Treasurer Pat Carney stated their portion of the trail, about six miles total, will consist of seven feet of pavement for cyclists, rollerbladers, strollers, and wheelchairs. The remaining three feet will consist of high-grade gravel preferable to horses.

The township received about $1.2 million in grants from Michigan Department of Transportation and the Michigan Natural Resources Trust Fund for the project.

Become Familiar with These Five Key Areas

Submitted by Edward Jones

As an investor, your objectives typically will fall into five key areas. Let's take a look at them:

- First: Preparing for retirement - Save as much as possible for your retirement. Take full advantage of your 401(k) and your IRA.
- Second: Planning for the unexpected - Build a six-to-
- 12-month emergency fund to pay for unexpected costs, such as a new furnace or a major car repair. And make sure you have sufficient life insurance.
- Third: Educating your children - Consider a college-savings vehicle, such as a 529 plan.
- Fourth: Living in retirement - You'll need to create a withdrawal strategy so that you don't outlive your income.

Lady Bulldogs Take-down Lincoln 44-43

Win SEC White Title Again

The Bulldogs had their work cut out for them Tuesday, February 21 when they traveled to Ypsilanti Lincoln to take on the Railsplitters.

Lincoln completely controlled the game in the first half, capitalizing on many turnovers from the Bulldogs.

Chelsea Coach Todd Blomquist must have given quite a pep talk to the girls in the locker room during halftime, because from the start of the second half, it was like watching a different game. The Bulldogs seemed more relaxed on the court, and stopped making mistakes that Lincoln could turn into points on the board.

Chelsea's Megan Hall was awesome at the line and sunk four free throws with a very loud Lincoln crowd doing their best to distract her.

Bailey Darwin and Riley Singleton were the top scorers for the Bulldogs.

With 1:37 minutes in the third period, Riley Singleton tied the game at 26 while at the line shooting.

The fourth period, it was all Chelsea. The girls pounded out 13 more points to take the game in a nail-biting last minute at 44-43.

The girls will participate at districts this week for the Class B District Championship, which they won last year.

Details on the tournament were not provided at press time, so you may follow the Chelsea Bulldogs on Facebook or on Twitter for the latest scores and information.

Dexter Township Adopts Ordinance

"I suspect a lot of houses are now in a floodplain zone that have not been in the past," said Kelly. "NFIP decides who's in and who's out, not us," added Sloan. "We just have the visual map, not the technical expertise."

The new maps can be viewed at the Dexter Township Hall, 688 Dexter-Pinckney Road. In addition, Sloan reported the floodplain mapping data is expected to be posted on the Washtenaw County Geographical Information Systems (GIS) website beginning April 3, 2012.

Sloan also advised he is able to create customized maps and email them as needed. He can be contacted at (734) 426-3767.

Kelly specified the township has no plans to notify residents personally of any change in flood zone status, as that is "between the resident and FEMA."

In other board news, Washtenaw County Road Commission representatives outlined potential 2012 non-subdivisional road projects in order of priority to board members. With $16,546 in matching local road funds and $6,932 in matching drainage funds, WCRC representatives deemed Toma and Stinchfield roads north to the county line as first priority. Fleming Road from Dexter-Pinckney Road west to McGuiness Road came in second, while Fleming Road from Dexter-Pinckney Road to Dexter Town Hall Road placed third. Although ranked sixth out of nine possible projects by WCRC, Wylie Road from Island Lake Road south to Lima Township was pointed out by several board members to be in dire need of repair.

Townships must notify WCRC of their intent to utilize matching funds by May 25, 2012 in order to remain eligible. In 2011, the township spent all of its available matching funds.

Finally, board members unanimously appointed Robert Nester, owner of The Sun Times News, to the township's Planning Commission. Nester will serve the remainder of former commission Chairman John Shea's term expiring December 31, 2012. "As a small business owner and also the owner of commercial property in the township, Bob represents the interests of a small but important segment of our township," stated Kelly.

Pirates Repeat As KLAALakes Tourney Champs

A sweet repeat is a thing of beauty when it happens, especially when it is as unexpected as the repeat the Pinckney boys' basketball team pulled last week. The Pirates won their second straight KLAALakes Conference tournament title in heartstopping fashion.

The Pirates rallied in the fourth quarter for the second straight game to knock off Walled Lake Central 54-50 to claim the Lake crown and move on to the KLAALakes championship game against Plymouth Salem at Plymouth Tuesday night.

It was the third straight game, in which the fourth-seeded Pirates defeated a higher seeded team in the tournament.

The game was close at the beginning. Pinckney led 17-16 in the second quarter, but Central made a run late in the half to lead 30-22 at halftime.

The Pirates began to chip away at the lead, but still trailed 40-34 heading into the final period.

Pinckney clamped down defensively, and with just over two minutes left took the lead 49-48.

The Pirates hit some big free throws in the final minute and Central's last second three-pointer was no good and the Pirates student section stormed the floor to celebrate with the team.

Kyle Slotnick led the Pirates with 18 points, while Peter Barry had 16. Stephen Waltersdorf and Tyler Wagner also had big nights for the Pirates and were keys in the second half comeback.

The semifinal was much the same. Pinckney rallied in the fourth quarter to defeat Walled Lake Northern 59-56.

The Pirates lead early, but Northern went on a big run in the second and controlled the game until the fourth quarter.

Pinckney trailed by seven, but Drew Stephens' hot outside shooting sparked the Pirates rally. Stephens hit four three-pointers in the fourth quarter to lead the charge as Pinckney rallied all the way back and pulled out the win.

Stephens finished with 16 points, including 14 in the decisive fourth quarter.

Slotnick finished with 17 points and Barry nine.

The Pirates (12-7) took on Salem (17-2) in the KLAALakes title game Tuesday. Results will be in next week's Sun Times News.

The Pinckney basketball team won its second straight Lake Conference tournament championship Friday night, defeating Walled Lake Central 54-50. Members of the team include Nick Meyer, Dominic Bona, Jeremy Perez, Kyle Slotnick, JP Calder, Brad Hohman, Matt O'Bierne, Drew Stephens, Stephen Waltersdorf, Peter Barry, Jason Dickinson, and Tyler Wagner. The team is coached by Tom Reason and Assistant Andy Stephens. The team will take on Plymouth Salem in the KLAALakes Championship Tuesday night in Plymouth.

Lady Pirates Split Two

The Pinckney girls' basketball team split its last two regular season games last week as they prepared for districts at Ann Arbor Skyline this week.

The Pirates opened the week by defeating Livonia Churchill 44-32.

They used a big second half to rally from a 19-13 halftime deficit. The Pirates dominated Churchill in the second half, outscoring them 31-13.

Simone Smith led Pinckney with 13 points and Karli Adams finished with 12.

The Pirates wrapped up the regular season with a 54-45 loss to South Lyon East.

Another slow start cost the Pirates. They scored just eight points by halftime and fell behind by as much as 17.

Pinckney rallied late, but could not finish it off, dropping to 4-16 on the season.

Ashley Weiland finished with a double-double of 11 points and 13 rebounds, while Jessica Lundy finished with nine points and ten rebounds.

The Pirates Karli Adams contributed 12 points in the win over Churchill.

Waterloo Law Enforcement

According to Lance, should a contract with JCSO be deemed unaffordable, residents would need to consider whether they are willing to pay more for police coverage in the form of a millage increase. Currently, Waterloo Township collects a half mill annually from citizens designated for public safety. Half of those funds have been directed to Stockbridge Area Emergency Services Authority, while the other half is directed to police services. Township residents paid a total of $45,506 last year for police protection, equaling about $42.61 per year for a home with a taxable value of $100,000. The 20-year millage came into effect in 1994.

According to Lance, a past survey indicated that about one half of township residents wanted to maintain their own police department, while the other half did not.

Referring to several scrapbooks containing countless articles of successful WTPD police work in the past six years, Cottrell stressed relationship as the key to the department's success. "I understand revenue is down, but don't throw away the baby with the bath water," urged Cottrell. "You can't put a value on the relationships our department has formed with the community, and you can't put a value on our reserve officers, who make themselves available at the drop of a hat. If the township contracts with JCSO, they will be flushing the relationships and the reserve officer program down the toilet."

In other board news, members gave Lance permission to negotiate with Stockbridge School District Superintendent Bruce Brown regarding the rental fee for township government office space located in Munnith's Katz Elementary School. Currently, the township pays $569.00 per month, with the lease due to expire in May.

"I will be working under the Board of Education's direction that the school district continue to be fair and equitable when entering into building occupancy leases with interested municipalities in our school district," stated Brown in a later interview. He further stated, "The Katz building is not current in its design, but is kept maintained and thus will remain very serviceable for a long time, especially in its current use as office space and centers for community gathering."

However, the board anticipates a significant increase in lease cost along with further degradation of the school building, the board also gave Lance permission to enter into negotiation talks with the Department of Natural Resources for a future land location to build a new town hall.

"Even if the rent is affordable, at some point this building will be unusable. We can't drink the water, pipes are bursting, and the electrical server will not be able to support usage. It's not going to get any better," pointed out Treasurer Arlene Walz.

Lance stated that if a new town hall is needed in the future, available land close to Waterloo Farm Museum would be ideal given its central location. "It would be a modest, efficient building with payments kept at or below what we would pay for the Katz space," he said. He said the move would not take place in the immediate future, but in years to come.

Lady Panthers Roll Into Districts

By Ian Bumpus

The streaking girls' basketball team wrapped up its regular season on a roll as the Panthers swept its final two games to finish 13-7 overall and 10-2 in the SMAA. The Panthers routed the rival LESLIE 68-38 Tuesday night. The game was close for a half with Stockbridge leading 26-21 at halftime. The Panthers blew the game wide open in the third, outscoring the Blackhawks 27-6 and taking a 53-27 into the final period. The Panther defense was dominant, taking 22 steals and grabbing 51 rebounds. Kayla Caudill led the team with 14 points, followed by Kelsey Crockett with 12 points and nine rebounds, and Breanna Taylor had 11 points.

Stockbridge had four seniors play in their last home game and they went out in winning fashion, defeating Parma Western 62-46. The Panthers used a big second quarter to take control of the game. They outscored Western 26-9 to take a 34-22 lead into halftime. The four Panthers seniors are Caudill, Jasmine Holloway, Becca Powers, and Kellie Rizzolo. Caudill had a big night with a team leading 22 points. Holloway finished with six points and five assists, and Powers nine points. The Panthers open district action Wednesday night in Linden against the winner of Fowlerville (2-18) and Linden (9-10). Fullerton finished with a six game total score of 1073, including games of 193, 193, and 191. Brady Ruselink won the regional with a score of 1172. Mike Weiland finished in 37th, Jacob Weiland 41st, Austin Blackburn 43rd, and Karl Jaeger 46th.

The team just missed qualifying out in the team event, finishing fourth. The Panthers finished with a team total of 3510, 48 pins behind third place Battle Creek Pennfield. Marshall won the regional with 3603. The girls' team struggled, finishing 12th with 2395. Marshall won the event with 3421. Debby Schaefer led the Panthers with a 41st place finish in singles with a total of 787, while Irene Place was 46th with a 767.

Boys' Basketball Drops Pair

The boys' basketball team continued to struggle last week, dropping a pair of games and falling to 4-14 overall and 2-8 in the SMAA. The Panthers opened the week by falling to arch rival Leslie 55-51. The Panthers fell behind early trailing 30-20 at halftime, but a 19-10 advantage in the third quarter, cut the lead to 40-39 entering the final period. The Panthers battled all the way back and took the lead when Conner Knepley hit a three pointer with less than two minute remaining. Leslie cut the lead to one and sank a pair of free throws to retake the lead in the final minute. They sealed the win with a free throw in the final seconds. Kaleb Grammer and Marcus Prigge scored 13 points each, while Devin Allen scored 11. Mitch Clark and Knepley score five each, and David Campbell four. The Panthers came up on the short end of a 76-60 loss to Western Friday night. Stockbridge trailed 39-38 at halftime, but were outscored 37-22 in the second half as Western pulled away. Grammer had another big night with 20 points. Prigge finished with 13 points and eight rebounds, while Knepley added 12 points. Allen finished with six points and Evan Upshur four.

Swimmers Take SEC Title

The SEC White Division championship was not much of a contest. The second ranked Dexter Dreadnaughts blew away the competition and won by 208 points to claim its 14th straight league title. The Dreadnaughts finished with 498 points, easily outdistancing second place Chelsea with 290. Tecumseh was third with 202. Dexter won all but two events and swept the top three places in five events. Mark Brown won four events, the 50 and 100 freestyle; was a member of the 200 medley relay team with Brennan Maisch, Ian Wilson, and Josh Boren; and the 200 freestyle relay with John Eber.

Nate Killian, and Maisch. Wilson won two other events - the 200 IM and the 100 breaststroke. Johnathan Zofchak was in on three wins, winning the 500 free, the 200 free, and the winning 400 freestyle relay with Killian, Eber, and Jake Clafin. Boren was the other first place finish in the 100-butterfly. Second place finishes went to Kyle Franz in the 100, Clafin in the 500 free, Eber in the 100 and 200 butterfly, and Killian in the 50 free. Lady Dreads Fall to Bedford

The thorn in the side of the Dexter girls' basketball team this season is Temperence-Bedford. Bedford defeated Dexter for the second time this season Friday night 39-37. The first loss to Bedford cost Dexter a share of the SEC White title. The Dreadnaughts struggled to put points on the board, falling behind 23-15 at halftime. The Bedford lead stayed at eight after three quarters, with the Mules leading 29-21. Dexter made a run late, but Bedford was able to hold on and pull out the win. Riley McDonald led Dexter with 12 points. Olivia Vollmers finished with seven and Teia McGahey six.

The Dreadnaughts ran all over Tecumseh earlier in the week, routing the Indians 45-18. Dexter dominated from the start, holding Tecumseh scoreless in the first to lead 10-0. The lead grew to 21-6 by halftime and the Dreadnaughts never looked back. McGahey led Dexter with nine points, while Kathryn Pisano scored seven. Vollmers, Sarah Kamara, and Emma Kill all scored six and McDonald four. Dexter improved to 17-3. They will play in the Class A district at Ann Arbor Skyline Wednesday night against the winner of Ann Arbor Huron (15-5) and Ann Arbor Pioneer (10-10).

Dexter Boy B-Ball Split Pair

The Dexter boys' basketball team improved its record to 7-11 on the season by splitting a pair of games last week. Friday night saw Dexter rally from an eight point deficit in the fourth quarter to defeat Ypsilanti Lincoln 61-58. Lincoln started quick, taking a 16-7 lead after one and 30-20 at halftime. Dexter cut the lead to 44-36 after three. The Dreadnaughts exploded for 25 points in the fourth quarter as they rallied for the win. Four Dexter players scored in double figures with Michael Mioduszewski leading the way with 15. Derek Seidl finished with 14, Jay Lewis 12, and Jacob VanHoof 11. Dexter struggled offensively in the 39-35 loss to Tecumseh earlier in the week. The Dreadnaughts led 11-6 after one quarter, but it went downhill from there. The game was tied at 16 at halftime and Tecumseh led 28-25. Mioduszewski led with team 13 points, while Lewis finished with nine and Seidl six.

People Post

Ron Paul

The severe economic crisis in America, growing inflation, rising gas prices, trillion-dollar budget deficits, immoral bailouts, are just the tip of the iceberg if our nation does not immediately change course.

As the crash approached, Ron Paul was heavily criticized by the establishment media and even many of his fellow Republicans because he would not back down from his warnings about where big government policies were leading America.

When those warnings came true, our President and Congress didn't let the crisis "go to waste." They used it as an excuse to expand government intervention and power while trampling freedom.

Excessive spending, artificial credit, and market manipulation crashed our economy. No one should be surprised that these same policies continue to prolong the suffering for millions of Americans.

Doing the same thing and expecting different result is insanity.

Perpetual war is also insane. We need a president who is not afraid to make the tough decisions necessary to restore America's economy and guarantee future prosperity.

I believe Ron Paul as president of the USA will lead the way out of this crisis.

I'm urging everyone to vote for Ron Paul on Tuesday Feb. 28, else come November your choices will be very limited to more of the same.

Stockbridge Robotics Students Impress Bentprop Team

By Alex Noffsinger

Last Thursday the Stockbridge Advanced Underwater Robotics team hosted a showing of the documentary "The Last Flight Home" at Heritage Elementary, a movie that highlighted the efforts of the BentProp Project to recover downed airplanes in and around the Republic of Palau.

More than 100 people attended and $1,000 was raised from a bake sale and admission price. The funds will go to the ROV Team to help finance their trip to Palau this spring.

Among the attendees were BentProp founder and leader Dr.

Pat Scannon, mission coordinator Flip Colmer, and mission member Derek Abbey.

Scannon went on a diving trip to Palau in 1993 and discovered the remains of a downed U.S. Army Air Corps airplane from World War II and has been going back since to recover more airplanes and the resting places of the planes' missing in action (MIA) crew members.

There are 78,000 MIAs from WWII and BentProp has located 15 of the estimated 71 in and around Palau.

The three will be taking Stockbridge's Advanced Underwater Robotics Team with them this year and will use the team's ROV in order to go deeper than they've ever gone before off the coast of Palau. "It's a tangible result that will be very significant," Abbey said of the ROV Team's opportunity.

Just five years ago Stockbridge started a robotics program and two years ago started the underwater robotics program. The program has participated in competitions in Hawaii and the Johnson Space Center. "It starts with leadership - and Bob Richards is a very impressive individual with his ability to engage students...also the dedication of the students," Scannon said of the program's progress.

BentProp learned of the success that Stockbridge's program was having and immediately connected with the team and never considered another team.

How to Get to the Other Side of Discouraged

By Amy Heydlauff

Like many of you, I read the Sun Times piece on local health data. It was discouraging.

To get us to the other side of discouraged, I hope you'll hang in there with me while I tell you a short, personal story.

When I was in the 5th grade my family lived in a small, northern, Lower Michigan town with a progressive school district. Way ahead of the trend, they started a class for the kids in the district with the highest I.Q.s. My sister, who was in 3rd grade, was in it. I was not.

In fact, I was a 5th grader struggling to read and comprehend at grade level. Three days per week a reading specialist called me out of class to attend remedial reading. It could have been demoralizing but it wasn't. One smart move by my parents kept me in the game.

On report card day I assumed my sister would have all As. It was also assumed I would not. In fact I was a B/C student (with an occasional D in geography if memory serves). In truth, I never knew for sure what Heidi's report card looked like and she only guessed at mine. My parents said her report card was her business & mine was mine. Our parents didn't discuss their children's grades with anyone but the child who earned them. If we wanted to talk about what was in our own card, we were welcome to, but we never did.

My parents reviewed my grades with me, privately. They held me accountable when I wasn't doing my best & they encouraged me when they saw things we could celebrate. I'm forever grateful for their smart parenting. My sister is still smarter than I, but I've outpaced her in education because they taught me I could.

My point is this: let's not worry about what's happening in the communities around your community. Once you know where your community isn't doing its best, hold yourself accountable and find ways to fix it. And don't lose sight of the things your community does well.

In each of our 5 healthy towns there are problems to be addressed and strengths to celebrate. We can help each other best by encouraging and supporting each other — one community to the next. I can promise you, there are good things happening in Stockbridge. And next time someone does a survey you'll see improvement in the things you and the Stockbridge Wellness Coalition set your mind to fixing.

If you'd like to know more about the Stockbridge Wellness Coalition (or the Wellness Coalition in Manchester, Grass Lake, Dexter or Chelsea) please call our office and ask for Matt Pogouskie. The number is 734.433.4599. Matt's email is matt@5healthytowns.org.

The Chelsea Area Wellness Foundation's goal is to create a culture of wellness in all five towns. We look forward to the day when everyone, everywhere in our service area, can find an opportunity to eat better, move more, avoid unhealthy substances and connect with others in a healthy way. If you'd like to know more check us out @ www.5healthytowns.org. Or find us on Facebook by searching for Chelsea Area Wellness Foundation. We Tweet, too.

Daisy's Help the Vet to Help the Pets

The Daisy Girl Scout Troop #40154 of Chelsea earned their badges in "making the world a better place" by helping to care for sick, injured or neglected animals. The troop supported the efforts of the Dexter Veterinarian Clinic in assisting the Alcona Humane Society.

The Daisies, aged five and six, began collecting items for the doctors to take with them to the Alcona Humane Society where the capacity for care is severely limited by lack of funding.

Dexter Village Veterinarian staff routinely donates time, and travels to Alcona to do what they can to help.

As of last November, more than 120 stray animals had been spayed or neutered. Many others received

Big Turn Out at Trail Planning Meeting

Volunteer work days for trail clearing are scheduled for March 3 and March 24. Needing particular attention, indicated Dennison, are the trail portions north of Mt. Hope Road and within downtown Munnith.

Dennison asked those who have access to a chainsaw or bush-hog to bring them.

Also, he said that due to a fiber optic line running beneath some portions of the trail there should be no removal of stumps or below-ground work of any kind at this phase of clean-up.

Volunteers were asked to keep close to the center of the grade for safety reasons. Those wishing to work as individuals on non-scheduled work days were permitted to do so, but were asked to communicate with the DNR as to when and where their work would take place, and were urged to avoid working alone.

Those interested in volunteering can contact the DNR at dennisonc@michigan.gov.

Permits to remove wood for personal use will be provided.

Finally, "Friends of the Lakeland Trail," a group advocating for trail renovation and maintenance, encouraged interested citizens to join. "We are a great voice for the trail, a great support mechanism," said Putnam Township Trustee and member Norm Klein. According to Klein, the group provides a forum for trail users to collaborate about what changes they'd like to see, which in turn increases the likelihood of receiving grants.

With some doubt creeping up in citizen's voices regarding the cooperation of property owners adjacent to the trail, Dennison acknowledged the trail has been underdeveloped for so long that "some people think it is part of their backyard."

"It's the public's property. We're coming through. We're going to make a trail," he assured.

Dobos Presents Eye Opening Lessons in Oral Health To Stockbridge Students

Protecting Teeth Takes More than Just Brushing

Stockbridge dentist Paul Dobos recently embarked on a mission to teach children and preteens the importance of taking care of their mouth. Using vivid and graphic visual aids, Dr. Dobos discussed everything from how much actual sugar is in a can of pop, for the young students to what methamphetamine use does to a mouth for the older students.

"I spoke to three groups of sixth grade students and illustrated 'more mature' problems people can have because of unhealthy mouths," explained Dr. Dobos. "I described the risks of oral piercing. Then, using a graphic image of a sports-related mouth injury I stressed the risk of participating in team sports without a mouthguard."

Dr. Dobos also showed pictures and told the story of a teen that started using chew tobacco when he was 12 and died before his 18th birthday from cancer of the mouth and face. He followed that with "meth mouth," a condition caused by use of the illegal drug that eventually leads to extraction of all teeth.

Presentations for the students at Heritage and Smith Elementary Schools were a bit lighter, with Dr. Dobos using Tums and vinegar to show how tooth enamel is dissolved by acid. Fourth and fifth graders saw all sorts of dental prosthetics, including partial and full dentures, implants and bridges - used when patients lose their teeth because of disease or accident.

"The best outcome I can hope to follow from the efforts of my staff (who packed over 900 bags of toothbrushes, toothpaste and floss) is that the children and pre-teens always remember how important it is to take care of themselves and make healthy choices."

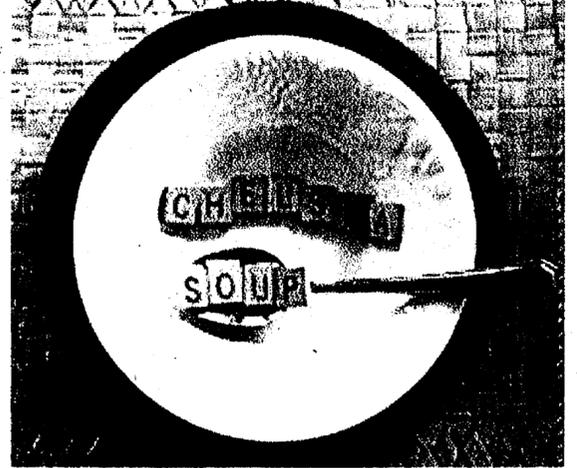

Dr. Dobos entices students to take care of their teeth by showing them "things he can make for them if they lose their teeth."

Chelsea Soup - an Experiment in Democracy and Micro-grant Funding

By Lucy Silverio

Chelsea Soup is a public dinner with a focus on funding micro-grants to be awarded to creative individuals or groups.

Although the soup is based in Chelsea, all interested parties within the Sun Times readership are welcome to participate.

In this economy where support for experimental projects is minimal and private support is dictated by granting foundations, the innovative and potentially controversial work might be compromised in order to fit within categories deemed "fundable."

Individuals with ideas find it especially hard to get funding. "There are lots of grants for groups out there, but not very many for individuals," said Susan Morrel-Samuels from the University Of Michigan School Of Public Health. "What is really exciting to me about this project is that a single individual with a good idea can come forward and get a grant."

Applying for a grant is simple and un-bureaucratic to encourage broad participation.

The first Chelsea Soup will take place March 11 at the Friends Center Building at 7748 Clark Lake Road in Chelsea. Doors will open at 5pm, grant proposals will be read at 5:15 with a dinner of soup, salad, and bread at 5:40. After dinner, the votes will be turned in and dessert will be served.

The cost for the dinner is a 5 to 10 dollar donation. All the money raised (beyond the cost of the dinner) estimated between three to five hundred dollars will go to the micro-grant recipient. Tickets are available at www.chelseasoupmarch.eventbrite.com

Local gourmet chef Deb Harrington who ran Creative Catering and has been a professional cook for the last 18 years has agreed to head up the cooking for Chelsea Soup at the March, April, and May dinners. "I love to cook, I love to cook for lots of people, and I love the idea of supporting the community in this way. I love the whole idea of the project," said Harrington. She hopes to keep things as local and organic as possible. Donations by area groups such as the early offer already received from Tandre Farms are greatly appreciated.

Chelsea Soup is sponsored by the Michigan Friends Center. This Soup is affiliated with Sundaysoup.org which has groups using their model across the United States and in several other countries around the world.

The Soup Grant is a grassroots model for funding small to medium sized creative projects through community meals.

People who want more information about the dinner, volunteering, or applying for a micro-grant can contact Chelsea.mi.soup@gmail.com or call 734 719 0107.
