SUNDAY NOON FIRE
DESTROYS HOME

W. I. Wood's Residence, East and Harrison Streets, Badly Damaged.

Fire Sunday morning about eleven o'clock caused an estimated damage of over $1,000 to the residence of William I. Wood, 119 East street, south, and resulted in considerable damage to the household goods of Mr. and Mrs. George Ewing, who occupied the place.

Mr. Wood had $1,000 insurance on the residence, but that will not cover the damage by a considerable amount. Mr. and Mrs. Ewing's loss is covered by insurance, a part of which was taken out a few days ago, since the Babcock fire on January 15th. Mr. and Mrs. Ewing have moved into the Henry Penn residence, 109 Grant street.

The origin of the fire is considered something of a mystery. Both Mr. Ewing and Mr. Wood are inclined to believe that it was caused by electric wires, but Superintendent Evans of the light and water plant says that the current had been off for over two hours previous to the time of the fire in order to allow the regular weekly inspection of the generator and engine at the plant. If a short circuit caused the fire it must have smoldered for several hours before finally breaking out.

New Autos Pass Through Chelsea

On account of the automobile manufacturers being unable to get cars in which to ship out of Detroit, dealers representing the larger concerns are going to Detroit by train and drive their cars through.

Dodge Brothers dealers with seven cars for Kekouk, Iowa, and Memphis, Missouri, passed through Chelsea, Friday, and put up for the night in Jackson, resuming their six hundred mile drive Saturday morning.

The largest number of Dodge Brothers cars being driven through Chelsea, is a consignment of four hundred cars all for the Chicago dealer. Two crews of twenty-five drivers each are used and as soon as each crew arrives in Chicago, they immediately return to Detroit for more cars.

Other cars frequently passing through Chelsea are Hupmobiles in lots of ten or more, also Hudson and Reo cars.

Chelsea High Wins Again.

The Chelsea high school basketball team journeyed to Ann Arbor, Friday, and "brought back the bacon" by defeating the Ann Arbor high reserves in a close and hard fought battle. Although handicapped by a much larger floor than they were accustomed to, the Chelsea lads entered the contest with a snap, getting the jump on their opponents by scoring the first basket and maintaining the lead throughout the game. Brooks and Kalmbach were the main point winners for Chelsea, but R. Wagner, P. Wagner and Palmer were the mainstays on the defensive and spoiled many a shot for their opponents. Both teams tightened up on the defensive in the last half and little scoring was done. The line-up follows:

Chelsea	Ann Arbor
Brooks	R. F. Bayliss
Kalmbach	L. F. Judson
R. Wagner	C. Powell
P. Wagner	R. G. Avery
Palmer	L. G. Cadwell

Subs. Rowe and Lawrence. Score: first half—Chelsea 8; Ann Arbor—7. Final score: Chelsea—12; Ann Arbor—11. Field goals: Brooks 2, Kalmbach 2, Powell, Judson and Cadwell each 2. Free throws: Brooks 3, Wagner 1, Judson 1.

The next game will be played in Chelsea, February 2d, when Chelsea high meets the Jackson high reserves. It is expected that the high school girls will play a preliminary game.

Chauncey M. Stephens.

Chauncey M. Stephens, well known in Chelsea and vicinity, died Saturday, January 27, 1917, at his late home, 222 East Middle street, aged 55 years, five months and 16 days.

Mr. Stephens was born in Lima township, June 11, 1861, his parents being Uziel and Caroline (Whitaker) Stephens. There he grew to manhood and was married to Miss Bertha Keyes, July 9, 1883. For a number of years they resided on the Frank Gramer farm in Lima, later moving to Chelsea, where they resided several years and then moving to the Keyes farm in Lima. About two years ago they returned to their Chelsea home, where they have since resided. He was a member of the Macabees and of the Knights of Pythias.

Mr. Stephens is survived by his widow, and two daughters, Mrs. John Weimeister of Howell and Miss Blanche at home; also by one sister, Mrs. Perry Palmer of Jackson and three grandchildren, Earl, Merle and Marjorie Weimeister of Howell.

The funeral was held this afternoon at 1:30 o'clock, from the residence, Rev. G. H. Whitney, assisted by Rev. Dieberger, officiating. Interment at Oak Grove cemetery.

Claude B. Runciman.

Claude B. Runciman was born in Waterloo township, Jackson county, on September 10, 1888, and died on January 22, 1917, aged 28 years, four months and 10 days, after an illness of one and one half years.

He was baptized on August 26, 1906, after having joined the U. B. Church the previous February. At the reorganization of the Sunday school in January, 1908, he was elected its superintendent, which office he held until the infirmities of his illness would not allow his further attendance upon its duties.

On January 24, 1912, he was married to Mary Louise Gorton, who with one little son, Kenneth, his mother, two sisters, one brother and many other relatives and friends are left to mourn their loss.

The tender thread that was spun for him since all eternity, and all that was incident to it, is parted and that part which he took in the weaving of that thread must be admired by all. The fortitude and the patience that he exhibited in endurance against the hope of recovery are but mute testimony of those qualities that please. He who gave and he who took and the Father of all that may be called children, on earth and in Heaven only knows why this sorrow and bereavement, and why it is better so.

The funeral was held Thursday, January 25, 1917, at the U. B. church, Rev. Rhoads, officiating. Interment at Mt. Hope cemetery.

IS CHILD CROSS, FEVERISH, SICK

Look, Mother! If tongue is coated, give "California Syrup of Figs."

Children love this "fruit laxative," and nothing else cleanses the tender stomach, liver and bowels so nicely.

A child simply will not stop playing to empty the bowels, and the result is they become tightly clogged with waste, liver gets sluggish, stomach sour, then your little one becomes cross, half-sick, feverish, don't eat, sleep or act naturally, breath is bad, system full of cold, has sore throat, stomach-ache or diarrhea. Listen, Mother! See if tongue is coated, then give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs." and in a few hours all the constipated food passes out of the system, and you have a well child again.

Millions of mothers give "California Syrup of Figs." because it is perfectly harmless; children love it, and it never fails to act on the stomach, liver and bowels.

Ask at the store for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on the bottle. Adv.

ACTRESS TELLS SECRET.

A well known actress gives the following recipe for gray hair: To half pint of water add 1 oz. Bay Rum, a small box of Harbo Compound, and 1/4 oz. of glycerine. Any druggist can put this up or you can mix it at home at very little cost. Full directions for making and use come in each box of Harbo Compound. It will gradually darken streaked, faded gray hair, and make it soft and glossy. It will not color the scalp, is not sticky or greasy, and does not rub off. Adv.

Each in His Little Cot.

The scene was the clubroom; the hour advanced. Serious, gloomy, cheerful, elated were the earnest faces of the talkers by turn, as the arguments for and against came thick and fast.

And the subject under debate—"Do Fish Sleep?" That was all; but it was sufficient to keep them at it till a late hour of the night, while patiently waited their respective wives at home.

So fiercely waged the controversy that it burnt itself away. There came a lull; most of the debaters were played right out.

It was then that the "cheerful idiot," who had played the listener's role, slipped in. Rising from his roomy arm-chair, where he had lain unobscured, he stretched, yawned, then spoke:

"Gentlemen, the hour is late; I, for one, must lie me to my cot. Do fish sleep? I do not know. But, if they don't why river-beds?"

Couldn't Remember.

"Before we were married," sobbed Angelina, "did you not always call me your little drop of cream?"

"Well, you know," answered Harold, "cream turns sour if you keep it long enough. I was a fool when I married you."

"And didn't you tell me you had plenty of money behind you?" asked Angelina.

"That was correct. I lived in front of a bank," the witty Harold replied. "And you never take me out now," said the wee wife.

"Not since you took me in," was Harold's cold rejoinder. "I used to enjoy single life, but now I'm that miserable I don't know myself until I feel in my empty pockets; then it's easy to remember who I am."

School teachers, doctors and food experts agree on two points—that the child needs a hot drink, and that the drink shouldn't be coffee.

Postum fills the need admirably and its very extensive use among thoughtful parents, coupled with the child's fondness for this flavory, nourishing food-drink, show how completely it meets the requirement.

HAPPENINGS AT STATE CAPITOL

"BONEDRY" AND "MOIST" BILLS NOW BEFORE HOUSE LIQUOR COMMITTEES.

LIVELY DEBATES PROMISED

Railroads Began to Figure Strongly in Proceedings—Other Important Legislation.

(By W. L. CALNON.)

Lansing—The biggest work of the 1917 session of the legislature—that of drafting the laws to provide the machinery to carry out the popular vote of last November for statewide prohibition—finally is under way.

At the outset of their work on prohibition laws the state lawmakers have been faced with the problem which has been under discussion about the state since the prohibition majority was counted. That is whether the state should be "bone dry" or retain a degree of "moistness." When one prohibition bill was introduced in the house, another followed right on its heels. The two represent the divergent lines of thought in regard to prohibitory laws.

The first bill introduced was that prepared by attorneys for the Anti-Saloon league. The league has taken a position against "bone dry" legislation, holding that "wets" are more eager for bone dryness than anyone else, on the theory that it will cause a reaction in public sentiment and result in the state reversing its decision for prohibition.

To the average man who drinks, the Anti-Saloon league bill must appear real dry, but it is not quite as dry at that, as was the one which followed it into the legislative bill files. The league's bill would allow an individual to get a pint of whiskey or other spirituous liquor in a month. Or he could get a gallon of wine or three gallons of beer in a month.

The league bill also provides for the creation of a state department of prohibition, with a commissioner, deputy commissioner and inspectors to see that the laws are enforced. Doctors are limited to prescriptions of six ounces whiskey and druggists cannot refill prescriptions. Stringent penalties are provided for doctors and druggists who break the law.

The Anti-Saloon league bill was introduced by Rep. Meritt Wiley, of the Soo, who was one of the attorneys who helped draft it. The "bone dry" bill that followed it was introduced by Rep. George E. McArthur, of Eaton Rapids. This bill is much the same as the league bill in its provisions as to doctors, druggists, etc., and in its penalties, but it differs radically in two chief ways.

First, it would allow no imports of liquors whatever for beverage purposes, thus cutting off the pint of "boozie" or gallon of wine or case of beer per month. Secondly, it puts the enforcement of the law up to a state marshal instead of to a department of prohibition. The bill provides that the state game warden's department be transferred from the public domain commission to a state marshal, who shall also have charge of the enforcement of the liquor laws. It provides that the governor shall name the marshal, just as he used to name the game warden until two years ago, when the game department was put in with the public domain commission.

The bills now are before the house liquor committee. The senate liquor committee is meeting with the house committee during its consideration, so as to be able to expedite work on the bill when it reaches the senate. The committees are holding meetings three days a week and expect that a few weeks time will be needed before they can report out a bill.

Next in interest to the prohibition bills during the past week among the lawmakers was the acute situation in regard to coal. From every part of the state came demands, requests or pleas for coal and for some action towards getting an adequate supply. As a result the state railroad commission made a direct plea to the Interstate Commerce Commission in Washington to lift the burden and to aid in getting coal through the Toledo and other yards so that it can get into Michigan. The Interstate body was assured by the state commission that the coal cars would be handled with rapidity by the Michigan roads and the empty cars hurried back to the roads that own them.

In the senate a resolution was passed that requested the attorney general to make an inquiry as to the causes of the coal famine in Michigan. The senators are desirous of finding a way, if possible, in which to exert the influence of the legislature against any possible recurrence of the coal situation of this winter.

Appropriation bills included the following:

Pontiac state hospital: $8,000 for paving assessment.

Northern state normal school, Marquette: $95,032 a year maintenance, and $153,893.64 for new site and building.

Tuberculosis survey: $100,000.

Governor's residence in Lansing: $50,000.

Industrial school for boys: $136,000 for 1918 and $142,781 for 1919.

Farm Colony for Epileptics: $395,665 for establishment.

The railroads began to figure strongly in legislative proceedings last week. On the heels of Rep. Tom Read's suggestion that the state see if it couldn't get a constitutional amendment with a view to taking hold of the Pere Marquette railroad and operating it for the benefit of the state, came Attorney General Alex. J. Groesbeck with a letter to Gov. Sleeper suggesting that the latter put before the legislature resolutions for amendments so that the state might buy up the Detroit, Grand Haven & Milwaukee railroad, a part now of the Grand Trunk system.

Under the charter of the D. G. H. & M. the state can buy the road for its cost of production, plus 14 per cent, at any time it wants to. But the constitution will not permit the state to own railroads. Groesbeck's idea is to have the state empowered to own the road and then use that power to make the Grand Trunk evacuate Dequindre street in Detroit and do other things the state may want.

Governor Sleeper has stated that he is opposed to state ownership of railroads. The governor believes that the state is better off if it has adequate supervision over the railroads and control over rates than if it had millions invested in the roads themselves. He submitted the Groesbeck communication to the legislature without comment.

Rep. Sheridan Ford, of Detroit, stirred up another angle of railroad troubles with a house resolution calling upon the attorney general for information as to why the case of the state against the Duluth, South Shore & Atlantic railroad has been hanging fire for five years, without result, during which time it has cost the state more than $100,000. The case arose from the South Shore's refusal to accept the legislature's order making 2 cent passenger rates. The road has been charging 3 cents a mile and giving passengers rebate checks for the extra one cent a mile, agreeing to repay this in case it loses the suit. The house passed the Ford resolution unanimously.

The legislature is being appealed to by the "More Daylight Club" of Detroit to have central standard time dropped as the legal time of the state and eastern standard time substituted. In letters to members the club officers claim that eastern standard time has been very successful in Detroit and could be used to advantage in the whole state.

Another appeal to the legislature is being made by about 70 librarians of the state for the housing of the state library in a fire proof building instead of in the capitol, which is not fire proof. In a memorial the librarians told that the Michigan state library now is one of the finest in the whole United States, worth at least $400,000 and containing thousands of volumes and periodicals that could never be replaced if lost by fire.

Of other important bills that have been introduced in the past week these are attracting considerable attention:

By Rep. Croll: To repeal the 1913 law permitting exemption of taxes for five years on not more than 80 acres of wild lands on which a settler resides and improves at least two acres a year.

By Rep. Foote: To admit no importations of bees into Michigan until the state apathy department certified to their health.

By Rep. Hulise: To have county poor superintendents chosen for three years terms, one each October, by a commission composed of the judge of probate, county school commissioner and chairman of the board of supervisors; and to be paid $1,000 a year each.

By Rep. Wiley: To provide $5,000 a year for six years to have the state geological survey make a complete soil and economic survey of the undeveloped lands of Michigan to ascertain their value and possible uses.

By Rep. Lewis: To have the maximum salaries of clerks in the capitol $900 instead of $800.

By Senator Wool: To amend the constitution so as to permit increasing the salaries of the secretary of state, auditor general, and state treasurer to as high as $5,000 a year each. They now are limited to $2,500 salaries.

By Senator Damon: To make it optional with school boards to have the Bible read and studied in the schools.

By Senator Martin: To abolish the board of equalization and have state board of equalization and have the equalizing of assessments of the counties done by the tax commission.

By Senator E. V. Smith: To repeal the mortgage tax law and in place of it tax the cash value of property, the owner to pay the tax on the cash value less the mortgage value, the mortgage holder paying the remainder.

By Senator Covert: That a village may incorporate as a city, if its boundaries are to remain unchanged, without appealing to the supervisors of the county for permission. This is taken as a means of aiding Highland Park, Detroit's suburb where the Ford Motor Co. is located, in changing from a village to a city government.

THE SYMPATHETIC PUBLIC

BURNS FINED FOR UNLAWFUL ACTION

DETECTIVE HAD ENTERED LAW OFFICES AND MADE COPIES OF PRIVATE PAPERS.

PAYS FINE UNDER PROTEST

Court Rules That Private Dwelling or Office Cannot Be Entered and Private Papers Examined.

New York—William J. Burns, head of a private detective agency, was found guilty of surreptitiously entering the law offices of Seymour & Seymour, making copies of private papers and then publishing them. Burns was employed by J. P. Morgan & Co. to trace a "leak" of information about contracts for war supplies for the Entente Allies from the Morgan offices. To obtain the information sought, Burns gained access to the Seymours' offices.

In finding Burns guilty, the court of special sessions laid down the legal principle that no private detective has the right to enter a man's office or dwelling and examine his private correspondence and papers.

"It would be giving a private detective more power than a policeman," declared Justice Collins, in handing down the decision. "The law puts a protection around a man's home. It would be a deplorable thing if, in America, a private house were not safe from being entered by private detectives; and, if a lawyer's office may safely be entered, what protection would a client have?"

A fine of $100, with an alternative of 30 days in jail, was imposed upon Burns who paid the fine at once, under protest. An immediate appeal was taken.

MUSTER OUT AT FORT WAYNE

National Guardsmen of Middle West to Receive Discharge There.

El Paso, Tex.—Fort Wayne, at Detroit, is destined to become a permanent mustering out place for National Guardsmen of the middle west, according to an order issued from El Paso military headquarters.

Its peculiar adaptability is the principal reason for its selection. The fourth and fifth Ohio infantry companies, and Second Ohio brigade headquarters, commanded by General Spears, are the first to be assigned to the fort.

IN SMALL BOAT TEN DAYS

Three French Sailors Rescued After Harrowing Experience.

Willemstad, Curacao—Three French sailors reached the island of Buen Ayre, off the Venezuelan coast, after having been at sea for 10 days in a small boat. They were in a starving condition and brought with them the body of a sailor who had died. The sailors reported they were members of the crew of the French armored cruiser Jeanne d'Arc, stationed at Martinique, and were carried off in their boat by the current.

More than 1,000 converts have been secured by the Honeywell revival party at Owosso.

Just one hour after he was released from the Pontiac jail after serving a 30-day term for vagrancy, Earl Smith, 29, said to be from Columbus, was arrested on a charge of trying to cut open a mail bag at the Grand Trunk depot. The mail pouches were on an express wagon waiting to be taken aboard a train and he was observed by several people to take a piece of glass from the ground and slash open the side of a sack.

ITEMS OF INTEREST

Twelve miles of the best road of the state on the Mackinaw trail between Cadillac and Tustin was assured when voters approved a $10,000 bonding proposition to carry on the work.

That Charles E. Davis, piano tuner and salesman, spent $10,000 of her money during their three years of married life, and refused to support her, was the story of Mrs. Emma M. Davis, of Pontiac, who obtained a decree of divorce in circuit court.

Ten soldiers, members of the Thirty-first Michigan infantry, through their attorney, William Harcourt, himself a commissioned officer of the regiment, have announced a suit against a Detroit theatre for barring them from admittance, the soldiers say, because they were in uniform.

REDUCTION IN TONNAGE

More Ships Built Than Lost But Capacity About 200,000 Tons Less.

Washington—Loss to the world's merchant shipping in 1916 through war causes exceeded the total tonnage constructed, according to estimates by the federal bureau of navigation. But more ships have been built than sunk.

Vessels sunk are put at 2,260, of 2,104,553 tonnage, and those built at 2,506, of 1,899,943 tons. The net reduction was about 200,000 tons, or one and one-half per cent of the world's total.

The figures are approximate. Great Britain led in shipbuilding with 510 vessels of 619,000 tons. The United States was second with 1,213 vessels of 569,000 tons. All other countries built 782, of 720,368 tons.

The entire world's merchant vessel tonnage at present, according to an estimate by Lloyds is 48,683,000.

BOLD COUNTERFEIT SCHEME

Crooks Having Dies Made in Sections at Engraving House.

Atlanta, Ga.—Secret service agents have uncovered the trail of a band of counterfeiters who had their dies manufactured openly in sections by an Atlanta engraving house which did not suspect the purpose until it was discovered that various peculiar designs manufactured at intervals would form, when fitted together, a good die for a five dollar bill. G. W. Carr, a taxicab driver, was arrested, but he maintained that in submitting drawings to the company and later delivering the manufactured dies he acted only as a messenger for two men and a woman whose purpose he did not know.

VOICE WINS HIM A COUNTRY

Italian With Physical Defect Admitted Because of Voice.

Boston—Dominic Pacifico, 30 years old, sang his way into the country. When he arrived in the steerage of the steamer Cretio, from Italy, he was held up by the immigration officials because of imperfect physical condition.

"Give me a chance," said Pacifico. "I am an opera singer."

Before the board of special inquiry, Pacifico sang an aria from "La Tosca." At its conclusion applause echoed through Commonwealth pier and the board of inquiry unanimously voted that it was not likely Pacifico would become a public charge.

GOVERNMENT SHELL PLANT

Navy Department Expects to Make Own Ammunition.

Washington—Secretary Daniels, to meet the British government's refusal to permit Hadfield's Ltd. to manufacture projectiles for the American navy, started preparations to equip a government plant to do the work. Ordnance experts were put to work on the plans.

The navy department virtually has abandoned hope of getting satisfactory bids from American manufacturers. The board selecting a site for the $11,000,000 armor plate plant, probably will locate the projectile plant on the same site.

J. P. Curran Church, 84 years old, vice-president of the Northern Michigan Transportation Co. and a retired merchant of Traverse City and Elk Rapids, died in Chicago. He was a civil war veteran.

Millions Spent on Music.
If expenditure of money is any test America can certainly claim the credit of being a musical country. According to an estimate compiled some time ago by an expert, the United States spends no less than $120,000,000 on music every year. This is three times as much as the same country spends on its army and navy; while "musical Germany," it is pointed out, spends times as much on its army and navy as on its music.

In the American total, church music accounts for $10,000,000 a year. The sale of pianos reaches $27,000,000, organs $13,000,000, and of sheet music and music books, $2,100,000.

TAKE CARE OF CALVES

Good Sanitation Is One of Highest Essentials.

If Mother's Milk Is Taken Away Careful Attention Must Be Given to Youngster's Diet—Feed Them Separately.

(By GEORGE H. GLOVER, Colorado Agricultural College, Fort Collins, Colo.) If we are ready to admit that a cow's milk is too good for a cow's calf and that it is economically profitable to rob the future cow for the sake of present gains, then it is quite necessary to know how to raise calves on separator milk or other artificial and unnatural foods.

The usual practice is to pour separator milk, sometimes cold, into a large trough which is never cleaned, and allow the calves to drink until they are satisfied. This method means pot-bellied, runty calves that never make the growth that they should, even though they fortunately escape the ravages of indigestion.

Calves should not be given quite enough milk to satisfy their appetites. Each calf should be fed separately, carefully regulating the amount of milk by the size of the calf. The fat that has been removed by the separator may in a way be supplied by adding a handful of cornmeal or flaxseed meal to each bucket of milk. After drinking the milk, the calf will be kept busy eating the meal instead of sucking another calf's ears. The milk should always be warm but never given to the calf directly from the separator, when it is frothy.

The milk buckets should be taken to the milkhouse or kitchen and sterilized at least once a day. Calves will soon begin to eat a little hay, and grain, like ground oats, should thereafter constitute part of the food ration.

If it pays to raise calves at all it pays to feed and care for them from the day they are born. Farm sanitation is the all-important thing in the care of live stock on the farm.

HIGHWAYS AND FARM VALUES

Property Owners by Allowing Roads to Remain Poor Cause Depreciation of Their Estates.

Two farmers in a neighboring state recently made comments on road improvements that are worth considering. The first man had bought his place but a few years ago, and had selected it because of the character of the people in the vicinity as well as the actual value of the land, says Indiana Farmer. He said his experience during his rather brief stay on his farm showed that a man who bought land in that section had to work it both intelligently and economically in order to make it pay, for the first cost per acre was higher than that of equally good land in some other sections without its social attractions.

The second man complained about the slowness with which good land was being taken up in some sections, owing to the roads being so bad that the class of people needed to develop the country preferred to pay much more money for no better land where they could live more happily.

In other words, the lack of fairly good roads in some sections was keeping down the market value of property there below its proper level and even tending, with the suitable traveling facilities in other sections, to raise the value of land in the latter. The property owners in the first district, by allowing their roads to remain very poor, were not only depreciating their own estates, but increasing by contrast the value of those of the owners of land along well-maintained roads.

GRASSHOPPER ENEMIES

Although birds of all families prey upon grasshoppers, the following may be selected as the most important destroyers of grasshoppers for their respective groups: Franklin's gull, bobwhite, prairie chicken, red-tailed, red-shouldered, broad-winged, and sparrow hawks, the screech and burrowing owls, yellow-billed cuckoo, road-runner, nighthawk, red-headed woodpecker, kingbird, horned lark, crow, magpie, red-winged and crow blackbirds, meadow lark, lark bunting, grasshopper and lark sparrows, butcher bird, wren, and robin.

REMOVING WEEVILS IN CORN

Scrupulous Cleanliness and Carbon Bisulphide Will Kill Insect Pests in Stored Grain.

The remedy for weevils and other insect pests that attack stored grain is scrupulous cleanliness and the use of carbon bisulphide. The weevils already in the grain are killed by fumigation with this gas. Make the bin as nearly airtight as possible, by covering up every crack tightly. Evaporate bisulphide in vessels containing one-fourth to one-half pound each, using it at the rate of one and a half pounds to a ton of grain, and double this unless the bin is thoroughly tight. For smaller masses of grain use an ounce to 100 pounds of grain. Infested grain is generally exposed to the bisulphide gas for 24 hours, but this may be continued longer without harming it for milling purposes. It may be exposed for 36 hours without impairing its germinating powers. In open cribs and in badly infected buildings, it is sometimes necessary to use a larger quantity and repeat the treatment at intervals of about six weeks in warm weather.

Some disposition of the corn should be made so that the gas will permeate all parts of the heap. It may be necessary to shovel this over or elevate it by some means so as to let the gas get at all parts of the mass. If the grain is in bags these can be disposed so that fumigation will be thorough.

TESTING OLD GARDEN SEEDS

Small Box, Filled With Rich Soil Will Prove Effective—Should Be Done Before Spring.

If garden seeds were purchased last spring in such quantities that they were not all used, and the varieties were such that you desire to raise more of the same during the coming season, it would be wise to fully test them before the planting season arrives.

Secure a small box, fill it with light, rich soil, and plant different kinds of seeds two or three in a place. Mark with a label so you can tell exactly which seeds are fertile and which are not, and the result can be determined and marked on the packet containing the unused seeds.

The test should require but a few days or weeks. Of course, some seeds are a little slower in germinating and consequently will be slower to show growth, but with sufficient moisture, and plenty of heat and light, which can be had in an ordinary dwelling, the different vegetable seeds can be successfully tested.

STEPS FOR CLIMBING FENCE

Convenient Method of Getting Over Barrier Provided by Stairs Built on Each Side.

Modern farm fencing is not well adapted for providing a foothold to climb over it, and the adaptation of an idea, not altogether new, shown in the sketch, might be used with profit in many places, writes J. H.

Climbing Over Fence.

Moore of Hamilton, Ont., in Popular Mechanics Magazine. When a convenient means of climbing over a fence is provided, damage to the fence by careless climbers is avoided. A stair built to extend on both sides of the fence is a simple and practical means of travel between adjoining grounds. It is a barrier to stock, and if well made it will prove serviceable and inexpensive.

TO ERADICATE GARDEN PESTS

Various Kinds of Beetles, Bugs and Worms Will Be Found Under Old Stalks and Rubbish.

Under the old stalks and rubbish in the garden and about the borders will be found the adult asparagus beetle, bean leaf beetle, harlequin cabbage bug, flea beetle, the striped cucumber beetle, and the chrysalis of the cabbage worm.

If you want to kill these pests, pile and burn dead tomato and peavines and other remains of vegetation in the garden along the border.

PASTURING OF CORNFIELDS

Practice Is Especially Applicable to Semiarid Regions—Very Little Wasted or Spoiled.

The pasturing of corn is especially applicable to semiarid regions. The dry soil is not injured by the animals, and very little corn goes to waste or spoils by coming in contact with the soil.

The stalks are left in good shape to prevent the drifting of snow.

WOMAN, 28, TRAPS BOY CAVE MAN

Nifty Neighbor Child She Smiled at Writes a Threatening Letter.

TRACED BY PHONE CALL

Boy's Explanation Is He Wished to Be Detective or Reporter and Wanted to Get Into Atmosphere of Mystery.

Chicago.—Mrs. Guy Edwards, twenty-eight and pretty, used to smile casually at the boy across the hall at 4542 North Racine avenue. He was a nifty child of fourteen years, with cheeks like the rosy wax clothiers' dummies, and the graces of a dancing master. His name was Harold Gunn.

Three weeks ago Mrs. Edwards stopped smiling altogether and was headed for a hysterical nervous breakdown. A Black Hand love suit introduced itself through her mail. The letters were dark with threats where they weren't flowery with love. This line appeared in all three received by Mrs. Edwards:

"I'm a friendly ally, but a dangerous enemy. Your husband, Guy Edwards, is an old-time wife deserter. Come to me, love. If you will meet me put a personal ad in the Tribune."

Lay Trap for Him.

All the letters were written on tissue paper. They were followed by a telephone campaign. Mrs. Edwards received three or four calls a day at her place of employment.

Yesterday she and Mr. Edwards decided to trap the anonymous letter writer. Mrs. Edwards agreed to meet her mysterious pursuer when he called over the telephone as usual. She and Mr. Edwards then secured the services of Detective Sergeants Thomas Cassin and John Mason from the bureau. The detectives went to the Sunnyside exchange and traced the next call to Mrs. Edwards' apartment. It came from a drug store at Racine and Wilson avenues. Cassin and Mason jumped into an auto and raced for it while Mrs. Edwards kept her savior on the wire.

As the detectives reached the booth

Used to Smile Casually at the Boy.

phone the occupant stepped out. Cassin put his hand on the shoulder of rosy-cheeked, cherubic Harold Gunn.

Boy Admits Charges.

The boy admitted the whole matter when faced with the charge. He said he had no reason for doing it, except that he wished to be a detective or newspaper reporter and wanted to get into an atmosphere of mystery. He was taken to the central bureau, where he refused to see Mrs. Edwards when she called. Young Gunn's mother swooned when told her boy was arrested. She said he had been brought up as a home boy and had never been allowed to have sweethearts. The one girl he had gone with he met last summer at the Wilson avenue beach.

"I permitted him to take her to the theater once," she said. "That was his only love affair, and he has always been a kind, dear boy to me."

Harold, who is fourteen, quit high school several months ago, and is employed with a real estate firm.

RICH GIRL BECOMES NURSE

She Says It Is Fine to Be Doing Something Besides Spending Money.

Kansas City, Mo.—Miss Letitia Curtis, owner of valuable oil lands, descendant of a United States Osage chief and relative of Senator Charles Curtis of Kansas, has given up a life of luxury to help the poor. She is a nurse at St. Mary's hospital.

Instead of a luxurious apartment to which she had been accustomed, Miss Curtis rooms with another nurse, both sleeping in one bed. No more dances or social affairs for her.

"I haven't seen my motor car for a week," says Miss Curtis. "I don't care. I love this new life. It is fine to be doing something. It is better than just spending money and hunting fun."

MOTHERHOOD WOMAN'S JOY

Suggestions to Childless Women.

Among the virtues of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the ability to correct sterility in the cases of many women. This fact is well established as evidenced by the following letter and hundreds of others we have published in these columns.

Poplar Bluff, Mo.—"I want other women to know what a blessing Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been to me. I had always wanted a baby in my home but I was in poor health and not able to do my work. My mother and husband both urged me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I did so, my health improved and I am now the mother of a fine baby girl and do all my own house work."

Why Rheumatism Comes With Cold Weather!

BY VALENTINE MOTT PIERCE, M. D.

A close connection exists between the two—cold weather and rheumatism. Prof. Alex. Haig, of London, has the most followers in the medical profession in the belief that the presence in the system of uric acid, or its salts in excess, is the real cause of rheumatism. Everyone has recognized the difference in the appearance of their water as soon as it gets cold; there is often a copious sediment of brickdust.

Several causes may lead up to an accumulation of uric acid in the system, which, in turn, causes rheumatism or gout, or crampy joints, or swollen fingers, or painful joints. For one reason the skin does not throw off the uric acid, by profuse sweating, as in the hot weather, and the kidneys are unable to take care of the double burden. Another reason

"No," replied Mr. Dustin Stax. "I don't believe there are any kinks in the stock market game that I don't already know."

There was a young fellow named Bunker, who slept while the ship lay at anchor. She awoke so drowsy when he heard the mate say, "Now hoist up the top sheet and spunk!"

It's enough to frighten anybody to awake uncovered out of a sound sleep with the first symptoms of a cold clutching at the throat and lungs, with that chilly creepy feeling all over. Quick action is necessary at such times to nip it in the bud and thus prevent bronchitis or serious lung troubles. If you will always keep a bottle of old reliable

The Pickle Kettle.

SWEET PEPPER RELISH.—Chop fine one dozen green peppers, one dozen red peppers and one dozen onions. Add a cupful of vinegar, a cupful of sugar, cinnamon and salt to taste; then boil twenty minutes.

Celery Catsup.—Peel and cut up thirty large, ripe tomatoes, five hot peppers, ten small white onions (sliced), five level tablespoonfuls of salt, two and a half cupfuls of sugar, one level tablespoonful of celery seed, eleven cupfuls of cider vinegar. Boil mixture one hour, put into glass jars and keep in cellar.

Spiced Crab Apple.—Take nice crab apples, cut out the blossom and then take enough vinegar to cover them. Sweeten, put in a few whole cloves and stick cinnamon and let them boil until they can be pierced with a straw. Put in glass jars and be sure the sirup covers the fruit. Screw lids on tight.

Green Tomato Sweet Pickle.—Slice one peck green tomatoes and two dozen sweet peppers. Salt and let stand overnight, draining off next morning whatever water has formed. Take two quarts of good apple vinegar, one quart of sugar and three tablespoonfuls of whole mixed cloves. Put all together in a large granite dishpan and cook until tomatoes turn white. If sealed in glass fruit jars these will keep the year round.

Pickled Mushrooms.—Young button mushrooms only should be used. Cut off the stalks from a quart of mushrooms, cleansing the skin with a piece of new white flannel dipped in salt. Place them in a deep stew pan and sprinkle over them two teaspoonfuls of salt, a half ounce of whole white pepper, and two blades of crushed mace. Shake them over a bright fire until the natural liquor has been drawn out and has dried up again. Then pour over them as much cold vinegar as will cover them. Let it come to the boil for a minute and no more. Pour them into a clean, dry jar and seal.

Prefers Chamberlain's.

"In the course of a conversation with Chamberlain Medicine Co.'s representative today, we had occasion to discuss in a general way the merits of their different preparations. At his suggestion I take pleasure in expressing my estimation of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I have a family of six children and have used this remedy in my home for years. I consider it the only cough remedy on the market, as I have tried nearly all kinds."—Earl C. Ross, Publisher Hamilton County Republican, News, Syracuse, Kan.—Adv.

Household Hints

To prevent pie crust puffing up in the middle when baked, prick in several places with a fork before putting in the oven.

A basin of cold water placed in an oven will soon lower the temperature. To clean enameled bathtubs rub with salt moistened with lemon juice. Then wash with hot water and soapsuds.

Sprinkle carpets before sweeping with salt. It keeps the dust down effectively, and the carpets will look fresher. Salt also prevents moths attacking carpets.

Oil stains can be removed from linen and cotton goods by rubbing the material on both sides with talcum powder. The powder should be left on for a few hours and then brushed off.

To clean wicker chairs wash with salt and water, then rub as dry as possible and place in the open air to finish drying. Holes in kid gloves can be mended by first buttonholing around the hole and then filling in with buttonhole stitch.

WAR'S EFFECT ON RUGS.

How the Price of Beautiful Floor Coverings Has Risen.

Said a rug expert recently: "I should say offhand that about 20 per cent of the increase in rug prices is due to conditions in the dye trade, 40 per cent to the falling off in wool imports and 25 per cent to shortage of labor. The remaining 15 per cent may be accounted for by increased transportation charges and by the fact that the rug manufacturers, owing to the fluctuating conditions, are inclined to safeguard their own profits a little more closely than before the war."

"In general it is correct to say that the price of domestic rugs has advanced from 25 to 45 per cent over the prices that were asked before the European war began. Thus a Wilton that could be bought for $90 a year and a half ago must now sell at $75; an Axminster or Brussels or velvet rug that cost then $27.50 must now sell for $35 or $40 and is expected to advance to $45 in the near future."

"The most popular moderate priced rug at the present time is the Axminster. It is constantly gaining in popularity favor over that old time favorite the Brussels rug, and some manufacturers have even discontinued their Brussels weaves. Of the Axminsters the Chinese patterns, these being duplicates of Chinese designs, are especially favorites. Different shades of blue, such as delft, indigo and the so called old blue shades, are considered the most desirable. The blue is generally in the groundwork. These Chinese designs were first put out in domestic rugs about three years ago and at once met with popular favor. Let me say that the housewife who is able to get a special priced, marked down rug is fortunate, for this means that she is getting a rug that has been for some time in stock and so is dyed in the safer dyes that were obtainable before the war. Carpet manufacturers have now warned all their customers that the dyes now used are more likely to mellow and weaken than those formerly used."

"In buying Axminster and velvet rugs of medium grades better service will be secured from the seamless rugs."

Reckless Disregard.

"The law of supply and demand," said the economist, "is as inexorable as the law of gravitation."

"You can't always enforce either of them. The law of gravitation doesn't prevent people from getting up in the air these days."—Washington Star.

Soon Over His Cold.

Everyone speaks well of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy after having used it. Mrs. George Lewis, Pittsfield, N. Y., has this to say regarding it: "Last winter my little boy, five years old, was sick with a cold for two or three weeks. I doctored him and used various cough medicines but nothing did him much good until I began using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. He then improved rapidly and in a few days was over his cold."—Adv.

RICH MEN'S MISTAKES.

Even the Greatest Financiers Get In on Bad Investments.

Every investor must learn by experience, and experience costs money. Everybody has to foot the bill for his own education. The man who buys a horse and finds he has been cheated ought to and probably will know better how to make his next horse trade. The same thing applies to the purchase of real estate or any other property, securities included.

I have commented often on the credulity of the public in buying all kinds of securities without knowledge of their real value. This credulity apparently extends to all classes. It is a curious fact that the estates of some of our greatest financiers after the death of the latter disclose large holdings of worthless or nearly worthless securities.

As shrewd and careful a man as the late Russell Sage left a lot of what are called "cats and dogs," though these constituted but a fraction of his enormous estate. The late J. P. Morgan, head of one of the strongest, most conservative and richest banking houses in the world, left about $70,000,000, and the inventory shows that one-tenth of this, or $7,000,000, is marked as "worthless."

It included all kinds of mining, industrial and other speculative enterprises that may have promised returns, but that failed to meet expectations. Possibly the worthless securities Sage and Morgan held came to them as a part of trade deals without costing them much, or possibly they were bought to help out friends. Mr. Morgan especially was known to have manifested his friendship in a very substantial manner to those to whom he had taken a liking.—Leslie's Weekly.

Willys - Knight Motors

Although the average man who sits behind the wheel of his automobile is able to tell at what horsepower the motor of his automobile is rated, he is not familiar with the reason why. The power curve in chart form is familiar to all engineers, and now the Willys-Overland Co. has stripped this subject of all technicalities and will illustrate a power curve of the Willys-Knight sleeve valve motor on the motion picture screen at the

Princess Theatre, Friday, Feb. 2

"The pictures," explained A. G. Faist of the Overland Sales, under whose auspices the pictures are being shown, "are directed to the car owner rather than to the technical engineer and therefore much thought was given by the Willys-Overland Co. in the preparation of a power curve chart so that it might be shown on the screen in a manner calculated to interest and impress the average man."

"When the pictures have shown in interesting detail what the Knight motor is there appears on the screen a square frame, up one side of which is indicated by figures, various degrees of horsepower; along the bottom of the frame are figures indicating the number of revolutions a minute, and the frame itself is charted."

"A small mark appears at the lower left hand corner of the animated chart and becomes a small line as it slowly winds its way upward and across the screen, showing the power development of the Knight motor."

"Thus the Willys-Overland Co. with the aid of a motion picture is able to give what is declared to be the most vivid description of the power curve ever developed."

"The adaptation of the power chart in motion pictures is new to the motion picture industry and Chelsea will be the first city in the state to witness this latest achievement in the science of motography."

Chicken Pie.

Dress, clean and cut up two fowls or chickens, says the Country Gentleman. Put in a stewpan with half an onion, a sprig of parsley and a bit of bay leaf; cover with boiling water and cook slowly until tender. When the chicken is half cooked add half a tablespoonful of salt and one-eighth of a teaspoonful of pepper. Remove chicken, strain stock, skim off fat, then cook until reduced to four cupfuls, thicken with one-third of a cupful of flour diluted with enough cold water to pour easily. Place a small cup in the center of a baking dish, arrange round it pieces of chicken, removing some of the larger bones; pour gravy and cool. Cover with piecrust in which several incisions have been made for the escape of steam. Wet the edge of the crust and put round a rim, having the rim come close to the edge. Bake in a moderate oven until the crust is well raised and browned. If puff paste is used it is best to bake the top separately.

How to Stop a Leak in a Gas or Water Pipe.

A leak in a gas or water pipe frequently causes no end of damage before the plumber can be called. Still it can be stopped temporarily with a filling mixture made of yellow kitchen soap and whiting mixed in a thick paste. When your wash boiler or any pot or kettle begins to leak at any unexpected moment you can save the day with an emergency cement made by mixing the white of an egg with fine coal or wood ashes until it forms a thick paste. Plaster this over the hole on the outside of the vessel and then hold it over the fire until the egg is baked and the cement hardens.

How to Clean Silver With Just Whiting and Oil.

When silver is very much tarnished, and this is often the case when it has been put away for some time and not used, it is a good idea to clean it with oil and whiting. Take an old piece of cloth or rag, dip one corner of it in the oil—lard can be used instead if more convenient—then in the powdered whiting, and rub the black marks with it. They will gradually disappear with this treatment, and the silver must then be rubbed with clean dry whiting and polished with a soft leather.
