

CEMENT COMPANY FILES ITS ANSWER

Says Millen Interests Are Trying To Force N. S. Potter and Company to "Buy Them Out."

The Michigan Portland Cement company and N. S. Potter, Sr., yesterday filed their answer in the suit recently started by Homer C. and Mrs. May Millen, and others, Potter & DeLand and W. S. Cobb, of Jackson, represent the defendants.

A flat denial is made of most of the charges shown in the Millen's bill of complaint in which A. C. Thompson of Ladysmith, Wisconsin, enters the case as intervenor. The defendants claim that the intervention of the Wisconsin man in the case is without authority under the statutes governing such cases.

In the preliminary paragraphs of the answer, the Jackson attorneys of the defendants state that "these defendants, now and at all times reserving to themselves all exceptions which can or may be taken to the uncertainties, imperfections and confusing statements contained in said supplementary petition, etc." make answer to the bill of complaint.

Claims are made that a full accounting of the business of the Michigan Portland Cement company has already been made, despite the demands of the Millens that such has not been had. All books and papers asked for by the plaintiff, the defendants claim, were produced at the hearing several years ago, before Circuit Court Commissioner Frank C. Cole, and at the time the defendants offered to produce any such information as the attorney for the plaintiffs wished, if such information would end the accounting, to which attorney Freeman is alleged to have agreed. The answer recites that later, however, attorney Freeman sent a demand for copies of all books of the company, which the defendants say was impossible of fulfillment. The accounting was then abandoned, it is said, and the second suit begun. Denial is made to the charge that the alleged $200,000 mortgage or contract for mortgage is illegal or intended to defeat the rights of the Millens. A similar claim is made in reference to the $150,000, which the Millens allege was never paid for stock issued to the members of the Potter family. No false or unwarranted reports on annual business were filed at Lansing, the answer further states, and it asks the court to dismiss the action.

NEWSPAPER POSTAGE UP.

While the postage rate on letters and post cards dropped on July 1 the rate to publishers of newspapers and magazines outside of county circulation was raised considerably. This is the second increase within the last year. The increase will continue on a sliding scale so that in 1921 publishers will be paying an 800 per cent increase in postage in certain zones.

This is only one of many reasons why it has been found necessary to raise the subscription price of publications throughout the country.

MRS. MARTHA E. ABT

ONE OF CHICAGO'S BEST KNOWN SOCIAL WORKERS

For twenty years Mrs. Abt has given almost her entire time to familiarizing herself with every phase of social work. She has during the late years worked directly under the social service department of Cook county, Ill. She has made thorough investigation in both civil and criminal cases, and has made a specialty of crime and insanity among women and girls. During the recent war she took an active part in Red Cross work and was awarded the distinguished service medal for 1,000 hours of speaking. The allotment to the counties, for distribution to townships and school districts, was made July 15. The approximate amounts to be paid principal lower Michigan counties are as follows: Wayne, $1,712,300; Kent, $363,400; Bay, $169,600; Genesee, $176,400; Hillsdale, $60,000; Huron, $88,100; Monroe, $79,600; Oakland, $138,100; Saginaw, $220,800; St. Clair, $118,400; Washtenaw, $92,600.

TIDINESS AN ASSET.

Nothing else of the same cost adds so much to the attractiveness of a town, nothing else gives such an air of prosperity and thrift, of comfort and content, as the good repair and neat appearance of building and walks and generally well kept up premises. A few dollars spent by way of paint, and a little time spent now and then fixing up, toning up and keeping things in order, has a most wonderful effect and is a store of satisfaction. Great and imposing edifices are not necessary to beauty and attractiveness. We know of some humble cottages, which are so enveloped in neatness and tidiness of all things round about, that we never look on them but we are reminded it must be pleasant to be there.

BAD FIRE IN DEXTER.

Fire Thursday evening about eleven o'clock destroyed the residence in Dexter village occupied by John Dancer and family, and a daughter narrowly escaped being overcome by smoke and perishing in the building. Surrounding residences were threatened by the fire, which burned rapidly and carried huge cinders for some distance.

WETS PLAN FIGHT BY REFERENDUM

MICHIGAN AMONG STATES IN WHICH PETITIONS HAVE BEEN FILED.

COURT DECISIONS CONFLICT

Anti-Prohibition Workers Say That If Ten States Vote Against Dry Law It Will Be Defeated.

New York.—Petitions for a referendum on the Prohibition Constitutional Amendment have been filed in Maine, Michigan, Missouri and Nevada within the last few days, says an announcement made by the Association Opposed to National Prohibition. The referendum fight, because of conflicting court decisions, is expected to be taken to the United States Supreme Court as well as the constitutionality of the amendment.

Opponents of prohibition declare that before they submit to enforcement of the dry amendment, they will fight through a maze of county, district and state Supreme Courts and eventually in the Supreme Court. They will fight by petition, by referendum by injunction and by mandamus proceedings.

Referendum proceedings have been invoked in 15 of the 45 states which ratified the Amendment, and if only 10 of those should prove successful the amendment will stand defeated, said a statement by Mr. Mayer, the wet lawyer.

Mr. Mayer pointed out that the wets only require 10 reversals to defeat the Amendment. The measure requires ratification by 36 states and, if the voters in 10 states should disapprove the action of their legislatures, the measure then would lack one state.

In Oregon, Utah and Idaho the state supreme courts have ruled that the question is not for referendum. Mr. Mayer says this decision may be appealed to the United States Supreme Court.

In addition, the wets have suffered a setback in Colorado, where the State Supreme Court ruled that the referendum law does not permit a referendum on legislative ratification of a Constitutional Amendment.

Opposed to the Oregon and Colorado decisions are decisions by Supreme Courts of Washington and Ohio, which hold that the question is susceptible to adjudication by popular vote.

Taft suggests pact changes Offers "interpretations" on Covenant to Insure Treaty Acceptance.

TAFT SUGGESTS PACT CHANGES

Washington.—Former President William H. Taft has suggested to republican leaders a plan of "interpretations" to the League of Nations covenant to unite on a middle ground between Republican and Democratic senators to insure ratification of the treaty.

Letters to the Republicans written by the former president and made public here sharply criticize President Wilson's policies in the peace negotiations. Mr. Taft stated that the president's apparent desire to form a new world policy and obtain credit for it, together with his partisan tactics, created a situation in which any plan he might propose would be vigorously opposed.

Mr. Taft suggests six "interpretations" covering the right of withdrawal, limiting the representation of dominions and colonies, asserting the prerogative of congress to declare war under Article 10, confirming national control over domestic issues, defining the Monroe doctrine, and reserving the right to terminate obligations under Article 10 at the end of 10 years.

Washington.—Records submitted last week to the special house investigating committee, by Gen. March, chief of staff, gave the first official confirmation to reports of a cruel treatment of American soldiers in France which have created an indignant stir in congressional circles.

Names of the officers court-martialed were given in a cablegram from Gen. Pershing and from reports of Brig. Gen. Edward H. Kresser, acting judge advocate-general. They included Lieut. F. H. Smith, known as "Hard Balled" Smith, serving a sentence of 18 months at Governor's Island.

GERMAN CURRENCY CALLED IN

New Money Will Be Issued—Object is to Tax Wealthy.

Weimar.—To determine exactly how much property in Germany is available for inevitable taxation, the imperial finance ministry has decided to withdraw all current paper money, which would be replaced by bonds or emergency paper. These, in turn, can be exchanged for new paper money when issued.

Everyone will be compelled to surrender all cash on hand, and he will get back only what he has turned in on the basis of bonds, as the old paper money will be declared invalid.

All stocks and bonds will be subjected to stamping and thus brought under control. All unstamped papers will lose their value. Similar measures will be taken with contracts of companies to determine invested values.

Germany Prepares to Pay War Debt. Berlin.—Germany's financial program calling for the raising of 25,000,000,000 marks annually, agreed upon by Mathias Erzberger, minister of finance, and a group of experts has been published by the North German Gazette. Eight billion marks will be obtained by war taxes, according to the Gazette's summary of the proposed plan. The remaining 17,000,000,000 must be raised from new sources. Financial reforms will be initiated so that the full amount will be raised.

Washington.—By unanimous vote, the house adopted a resolution providing for the appointment of a special committee to investigate activities of the shipping board and emergency fleet corporation with the view of determining how $3,250,000,000 appropriated by congress was expended. Republicans in supporting the resolution contended that vast sums of money had been inefficiently spent. Democrats said they would not oppose the investigation.

Action of Public Utilities Commission Forecasts That Phone Rates Will Be Revised.

Lansing.—The Keiser metered telephone service order covering the Detroit exchange, which has been in litigation since it was issued Jan. 30, 1918, has been set aside in an order of the new Michigan Public Utilities Commission. The Utilities Commission is expected to revoke the Keiser rates Aug. 1, or shortly thereafter.

With the Keiser order out of the way, it is considered improbable that any new rates established for any part of the state will be based on the contract under which the American Telephone & Telegraph Co. receives 4 1/2 per cent of the gross income of the Michigan State Company.

FATHER SHOTS SON AND SELF

Lansing. Man Objected to Grandmother Rearing Boy.

Lansing, Mich.—Entering the home of his divorced wife at 716 West Lapeer street, Saturday night about 10:30, John Atwell deliberately drew from his pocket a revolver, shot his little five-year-old son, Victor, through the neck, and then turned the weapon on himself.

The boy died 20 minutes later in the arms of his grandmother, Mrs. Morris Brown, who fled to the home of a neighbor immediately after the shooting, carrying the wounded child in her arms.

The father, shot in the head, was removed to a hospital where he died Sunday morning.

Those acquainted with the man at his boarding house say he objected to the grandmother rearing his boy.

U. S. TO BUILD GIANT LINERS

Shipping Board to Construct Two Vessels 1,000 Feet Long.

It is proposed to provide a special terminal for them at Port Pond Bay, Long Island, and it may be that two similar liners will be constructed later.

The ships, which are to be built under the supervision of the navy department, will be 60 feet longer than the famous Leviathan, now the largest ship afloat, and will have a gross tonnage of 55,000.

FAMOUS PEACE TREATIES

By H. IRVING KING

(Copyright, 1913, by the McClure Newspaper Syndicate.)

TREATY OF BUCHAREST, 1913.

A Peace Treaty Signed Just Before the World War Broke.

The boundaries which those chronic disturbers of the peace, the Balkan states, had before the recent world war were established to them by the treaty of Bucharest signed at the Roumanian capital on August 6, 1913, by representatives of the said states and Greece. That treaty closed two wars, practically, one in which the Balkan states were united in fighting Turkey and one in which they were fighting among themselves. By 1910 the Bulgars and Greek bands in Macedonia, which had been quite as likely to massacre each other as to massacre the Turks, had got together for the purpose of devoting all their efforts against the common enemy. Then trouble broke out in Albania and the Serbians sent their irregulars to help the Albanians against the Turks.

It was the same old story of the Balkans being "inflamed" again. In March of 1912 Greece, Bulgaria, Montenegro and Serbia came to an understanding, agreeing to bury their mutual animosities temporarily and combine against the Turk. Roumania stood aloof. The Porte, alarmed, promised reforms in Albania and Macedonia. Turkey also announced that she would hold army maneuvers near Adrianople.

Began to "Diplomatize."

The great powers began to "diplomatize" to prevent a war. Germany and Austria declared that the status quo in the Balkans must be maintained, and Austria mobilized her army. But the wild nations of the Balkans had got out of hand, and little Montenegro, on October 8, 1912, declared war against Turkey. On October 17 Bulgaria, Greece and Serbia issued a joint declaration to the same effect. A Bulgarian army of 900,000 men occupied Mustafa Pasha on October 19. Kirk-Kiliseh on the 24th and invested Adrianople on the 27th. Two days later was fought the sanguinary battle of Lule Burgas, the chief battle of the war, with a front of 22 miles.

In this battle the Turks lost 35,000 killed and wounded and 3,000 prisoners, while the Bulgarians lost 15,000 killed and wounded. The Turks now fell back upon the Tebalija forts, the last line of defense for Constantinople. Meantime the Serbians had swept into Macedonia and were driving the Turks before them with heavy losses, while one part of their army was sent to join the Greeks at Saloniki and another detachment to help the Montenegrins. The Greeks, coming up from the south, routed the Turks in several engagements and finally captured Saloniki. Turkey asked the powers to mediate and be quick about it. They did so and an armistice was signed between Bulgaria, Serbia and Montenegro on one side and Turkey on the other on December 3.

Greece refused to sign any armistice while Janina, the Albanian capital, remained in Turkish hands, and continued to attack that city. The powers hurriedly got together in a peace conference in London. There was no going to terms with the Turk, and on February 3, 1913, hostilities were resumed. The Greeks captured Janina, and the Bulgarians drove in the Tebalija line. A Bulgarian and Serbian army took Adrianople with the Turkish commander and 30,000 prisoners. Sentari in Albania was besieged by a Montenegrin and Serbian army, and Greek men-of-war in the Adriatic were co-operating with the troops.

Powers Could Not Agree. The powers were frantic and could not agree among themselves. But on April 10, 1913, another armistice was signed, and on May 30 the belligerents signed at London a treaty of peace with Turkey. By this treaty, Turkey surrendered to the Balkan allies the island of Crete and all territory on the European mainland west of the Enos-Midia line, and left the adjustment of the Albanian frontiers and the disposal of the Aegean islands to the powers, which meant that Turkey gave up all her European possessions except Constantinople and the country immediately back of it.

But the link on the treaty was not dry when the Balkan states began to quarrel with each other over the spoils. Thirty days after the treaty of London had been signed they were all at it again, with Roumania now playing a part. The Bulgarians attacked the Greeks in the Panghion district and fought a three days' battle with the Serbians, ending on July 30.

Bulgaria Declares War. Three days later Bulgaria declared war against Greece and Serbia, and Montenegro declared war upon Bulgaria. Roumania declared war against Bulgaria on July 10, and Turkey at the same time sent an army forth and captured Adrianople without trouble.

The Bulgarians stubbornly resisted the advance of the Greek army north, but King Constantine pressed on toward Sofia. The Montenegrins and Serbs buried back the Bulgarians in the west, and King Ferdinand sued for peace. And now a new arrangement of the belligerent Balkans is in progress.

TREATY OF LONDON 1913.

Pact Wherein the Neutrality of Belgium Was Defined.

The treaty by which the present kingdom of Belgium was created and its neutrality guaranteed was signed at London on November 15, 1831, by the representatives of Austria, Prussia, France, England and Russia. It was, in fact, not merely one "scrap of paper" which the Germans tore up when they invaded Belgium in 1914, but two—for this neutrality guaranteed by the treaty of 1831 was reaffirmed by Germany at the beginning of the Franco-Prussian war of 1870 at the demand of England. The congress of Vienna, after Napoleonic wars, had constituted Belgium and Holland one country under the House of Orange. But the Belgians were never content to be under the crown of Holland and when the French revolution of 1830 which placed Louis Philippe on the throne took place the Belgians were inspired to a successful revolt which was directly impelled by the events of July in Paris. The laws of Holland were generally unfavorable to the Belgians; the Belgians were not proportionately represented in the legislature and there was, besides, the difference in language and religion of the two sections. Although the Belgians spoke French, Dutch was made for them the official language of the courts and only Dutch was taught in the schools. Long before the revolution in Paris an agitation had been going on for a separate administration for the Belgians.

Began to Shout for France. On August 5, 1830, while the people of Holland were supposed to be celebrating the king's birthday, a revolutionary piece was performed in the opera house in Brussels. Stirred by the dramatic representation the audience began to shout for France and against Holland. The cries were heard in the streets and repeated and a riot ensued. Then some one hoisted over the city hall the old standard of Brabant and the riot turned into a revolution. In a few hours Brussels was in the hands of the revolutionaries. The revolution spread to the country like wildfire. The revolutionists made a proposal to the king that he should submit to the states-general a proposition for separate governments for Belgium and Holland under the House of Orange. The king promised and fulfilled his promise.

A provisional government was established in Brussels which declared Belgian independence and called upon all Belgians serving in the Dutch army to return home. The provinces broke now date and be quick about it. They did so and an armistice was signed between Bulgaria, Serbia and Montenegro on one side and Turkey on the other on December 3.

ROAD BUILDING

INTEREST IN ROADS GROWS

More Attention Now Given to Improvement in Highways Than Ever Before in History.

The good roads movement is seeing a big revival now that business is becoming normal. The most important program that has recently come to our attention is that of the state of Michigan, which has just voted in favor of a $50,000,000 program that, when carried out, will place Michigan on the map big so far as good roads are concerned, writes Birkett L. Williams, truck sales manager for a large motorcar corporation.

Everywhere else you see also more interest in good roads than in any period in our history. It is true to say that the war and its needs taught us the value of good roads. Perhaps it did. Perhaps it brought home to those dull ears of higher ups the supreme importance of an intelligent system of navigable highways. But more and more it comes home to the man who studies the situation that back of the good roads movement must be the ordinary man, the average man who pays taxes and votes and thinks as he votes.

The farmer or rural dweller in certain sections for a long time stood in the way—he wanted the roads, but he didn't want to pay for them. He did not realize that in the long run good roads pay for themselves out of savings made to the community in haulage of people and merchandise. But the farmer today is reckoning in units of time.

Yes, he realizes the value of minutes throughout the season—and he is just as keen in conserving time as the city-bred man who operates a big factory. If anything, he is a bit keener, for seasons do not wait and crops must be sowed and cultivated, reaped and marketed at the right time. He has convinced himself that time is money. And he knows that good roads save time and that they save time largely because they make it possible to get satisfactory services from motorcars and motortrucks. And he is not one bit blind to the fact that operating cost is largely influenced by road conditions—that good roads make gasoline more elastic, rubber and steel more durable and bring markets nearer, and that good roads increase property values out of all proportion to the cost.

The Negro district has been steadily increasing in area and population in recent years with the influx of southern Negroes, who came to work in large industrial plants. Their encroachment on white neighborhoods caused considerable trouble, and during the last year many clashes. Negroes have charged that a number of bomb explosions in the district in recent months were directed against families of their race by white neighbors.

The black belt, as it is known in police circles, now comprises approximately 25 square miles and includes only a comparatively few small white settlements.

Several States Start Inquiries to Determine Profiteers. Columbus, Ohio.—Demand for a nation-wide investigation of exorbitant food prices, through concerted action everywhere of federal, state and county law enforcement officials, is manifesting itself throughout Ohio, according to reports received by state officials.

Requests for details of the Ohio line of action set in motion by Governor Cox and attorney general, have come from several states.

Maryland Starts Investigation. Baltimore, Mr.—Governor Harrington, of Maryland, is planning to take action similar to that taken by Governor Cox, of Ohio, in dealing with food profiteers.

He proposes, first, to locate by investigating the responsibilities for the high cost of living, and then with the desired information in hand to ascertain how far he can proceed with criminal prosecutions.

The investigation is not designed to be statistical or to ascertain the causes of high prices of foodstuffs or how the situation may be best relieved. The object in view is to find the names of the profiteers and to proceed against them in the same manner as procedure against other criminals.

PACIFIC FLEET THROUGH CANAL. Dreadnaughts Pass Safely Through Panama Locks.

Aboard the Flagship, U. S. S. New Mexico—The Pacific fleet, under the command of Admiral Rodman, now is floating in Pacific waters. Six dreadnaughts, led by the flagship New Mexico, Sunday successfully negotiated the Panama canal—the largest ships that ever have passed through this waterway. The average time of passage for each warship from Colon to Balboa was 10 hours, eliminating anchorage time in Gutun lake.

Congress to Give Berger New Trial. Washington.—The verdict of guilty of disloyalty against Victor Berger, congressman-elect from the fifth Wisconsin district, will not govern the house committee investigating his eligibility, his counsel, Henry F. Cochems, was told, when he attacked as unfair, proceedings of the Chicago court. "It has been set forth heretofore by the chairman," Representative Eagle, Democrat, of Texas, explained, "that this committee will give Mr. Berger a full new trial."

NEW ROADS COST $8,000,000. Utah Plans Extensive Improvement on Lincoln Highway on Wyoming-Utah Line.

The road law just adopted by the Utah state legislature will provide in connection with the federal aid fund a total of about $8,000,000 for highway construction in that state. Present plans call for extensive improvement on the Lincoln highway, particularly between the Wyoming-Utah line and Salt Lake City.

NEGRO KILLED IN CHICAGO RACE RIOT

BATHERS START TROUBLE THAT ENDS IN DROWNING OF COLORED MAN.

SCORES HURT BY STRAY SHOTS

Ill-feeling Between White and Black Race Has Existed for Period of Several Months.

Chicago.—A series of riots in the Negro district Sunday resulted in the drowning of one Negro, the reported drowning of one white man, the probable mortal injury of another Negro, the shooting of a policeman in the shoulder, and injury to a score of white and black persons by bullets or missiles.

The trouble started at the Twenty-ninth street beach, where white and black people are segregated, and soon spread to State street, the main thoroughfare in the heart of the Negro district, which extends about five miles. Shooting started near the beach. There was also some shooting in the vicinity of State street.

Although ill-feeling between the two races of the South has extended over a period of months, emphasized by bomb explosions, some shooting and numerous fights, Sunday's riots seem to have had their start in petty quarreling at the beach.

Reports that Negroes wandered across the dividing line to the white section of the beach, and that white bathers abused themselves by throwing small stones at the Negroes appeared the most plausible cause. Soon after the fighting started a Negro fled, pursued by a number of whites. He took shelter behind a building and began shooting at policemen who had joined the pursuit, and who returned the fire. The Negro finally surrendered.

The Negro district has been steadily increasing in area and population in recent years with the influx of southern Negroes, who came to work in large industrial plants. Their encroachment on white neighborhoods caused considerable trouble, and during the last year many clashes.

Negroes have charged that a number of bomb explosions in the district in recent months were directed against families of their race by white neighbors.

The black belt, as it is known in police circles, now comprises approximately 25 square miles and includes only a comparatively few small white settlements.

FOOD PRICES TO BE PROBED

Several States Start Inquiries to Determine Profiteers.

Columbus, Ohio.—Demand for a nation-wide investigation of exorbitant food prices, through concerted action everywhere of federal, state and county law enforcement officials, is manifesting itself throughout Ohio, according to reports received by state officials.

Requests for details of the Ohio line of action set in motion by Governor Cox and attorney general, have come from several states.

Maryland Starts Investigation. Baltimore, Mr.—Governor Harrington, of Maryland, is planning to take action similar to that taken by Governor Cox, of Ohio, in dealing with food profiteers.

He proposes, first, to locate by investigating the responsibilities for the high cost of living, and then with the desired information in hand to ascertain how far he can proceed with criminal prosecutions.

The investigation is not designed to be statistical or to ascertain the causes of high prices of foodstuffs or how the situation may be best relieved. The object in view is to find the names of the profiteers and to proceed against them in the same manner as procedure against other criminals.

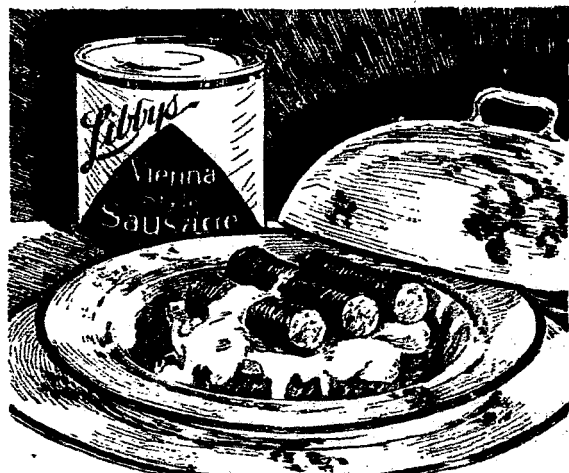

PACIFIC FLEET THROUGH CANAL. Dreadnaughts Pass Safely Through Panama Locks.

Aboard the Flagship, U. S. S. New Mexico—The Pacific fleet, under the command of Admiral Rodman, now is floating in Pacific waters. Six dreadnaughts, led by the flagship New Mexico, Sunday successfully negotiated the Panama canal—the largest ships that ever have passed through this waterway. The average time of passage for each warship from Colon to Balboa was 10 hours, eliminating anchorage time in Gutun lake.

Congress to Give Berger New Trial. Washington.—The verdict of guilty of disloyalty against Victor Berger, congressman-elect from the fifth Wisconsin district, will not govern the house committee investigating his eligibility, his counsel, Henry F. Cochems, was told, when he attacked as unfair, proceedings of the Chicago court. "It has been set forth heretofore by the chairman," Representative Eagle, Democrat, of Texas, explained, "that this committee will give Mr. Berger a full new trial."

NEW ROADS COST $8,000,000. Utah Plans Extensive Improvement on Lincoln Highway on Wyoming-Utah Line.

The road law just adopted by the Utah state legislature will provide in connection with the federal aid fund a total of about $8,000,000 for highway construction in that state. Present plans call for extensive improvement on the Lincoln highway, particularly between the Wyoming-Utah line and Salt Lake City.

HOW RHEUMATISM BEGINS

The excruciating agonies of rheumatism are usually the result of failure of the kidneys to expel poisons from the system. If the irritation of these uric acid crystals is allowed to continue, incurable bladder or kidney disease may result. Attend to it at once. Don't resort to temporary relief. The sick kidneys must be restored to health by the use of some sterling remedy which will prevent a return of the disease.

Get some GOLD MEDAL Haelem Ointment immediately. They have brought back the joys of life to countless thousands of sufferers from rheumatism, lame back, lumbago, sciatica, gall stones, gravel and other ailments of the kidneys, liver, stomach, bladder and allied organs. They will attack the poisons at once, clear out the kidneys and urinary tract and the soothing healing oils and herbs will restore the inflamed tissues and organs to normal health.

All others are imitations. Ask for GOLD MEDAL and be sure the name GOLD MEDAL is on the box. Three sizes, at all good druggists—Adv.

Incubator to Speed. "Better not keep that man waiting any longer." "Why not?" demanded the magnate. "He's been waiting so long that he has become acquainted with your stenographer. Their acquaintance has ripened into friendship, love is a natural sequence, marriage follows and then you'll be shy a good stenog."

To Have a Clear Sweet Skin. Touch pimples, redness, roughness or itching, if any, with Cuticura Ointment, then bathe with Cuticura Soap and hot water. Rinse, dry gently and dust on a little Cuticura Talcum to leave a fascinating fragrance on skin. Everywhere 25c each.—Adv.

And They Were Happy. Pat didn't know just how to pop the question and appealed to his mother. Then to the girl of his heart: "Mary," said he, "one mother wants to know if you'll come and live with us always." "Go home," said Mary very coyly, "and tell your mother I will."—Everybody's Magazine.

Made Her Mad.
 "Why is it?" a woman asked us, the other day.
 She had seen a sign in a down town store, "Carry Your Purchases Home

 naturally looked at that way of say-didn't offer to reduce the price of goods carried home," she said. "The very things just suggested that it would be patriotic to save them some money!"

HEED BAD ODORS.

They May Warn You of Places Where Disease Germs Lurk.

Even a bad odor has its uses. Scientists say that the offensive smell which comes from decaying and disease breeding matter is in reality one of nature's measures of preparedness and of prevention.

Offensive odors indirectly prevent the spread of epidemics by calling attention to the breeding place of the disease. They give warning that something is wrong, and they persist in this warning by becoming more and more offensive until the wrong is righted.

The odor does not convey the germ or communicate the disease, because in most cases direct contact is necessary to do this, or the infection is communicated by some substance taken into or brought in contact with the body. But it does tell where the disease exists or is likely to exist. It also gives warning of tainted or unfit food, as the nose is intended by nature to be one of man's chief allies in the fight for health.

Some have even gone so far as to state that mothers should not discourage or forbid children smelling their food before they eat it. The tendency to do this is said to be a natural one. The nose is not placed above the mouth by accident. It was designed in primitive man as a guide-post for his stomach, and it is still a good guide.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

 Seizing a dish from a small close at why he had insulted the native.

 "Sure," replied Pat, "he spoke

The Joy of Living
 To enjoy life we must have good health. No one can reasonably hope to get much real pleasure out of life when his bowels are clogged with a share of the time and the poisons that should be expelled are absorbed into the system, producing headache and indigestion. A few doses of Chamstrengthen the digestion and give you a chance to realize the real joy of living.
