High School Baseball Team Scores Victories over Dexter, Vandercook Lake This Week

Postponed Dundee Game Scheduled for Monday, May 24

By DWIGHT GADD
Chelsea 3-Dexter 1
In a very fine game last Friday afternoon, the Bulldogs downed Dexter on their own field, 3 to 1. Hansen pitched a fine game and received good support throughout, a lack of which has caused more than one game to be lost this season. His sharp breaking curve had some of the Dexter batters talking to themselves when they walked back to the bench.

Chelsea scored first in the third inning as Heydlauff walked, took second on an infield out and then scored on Slane's infield hit to deep short and an error on the shortstop's throw.

There was no more scoring until the seventh inning, when Chelsea got two runs on a lot of two's—two hits, two wild-pitches, two stolen bases and two walks—to lead, 3-0, as Dexter took their last turn at bat.

The Bulldogs staged a fine last inning rally, but Hansen proved once to the occasion. Two errors plus one hit brought in one run, and then, after striking out two Dexters, he walked another to fill the bases and put the winning run on first with Schultz, who had two singles in three times at bat, coming up. Hansen, however, decided that it was time to stop and on three pitches he struck him out to end it.

Chelsea—3 runs, 4 hits and 2 errors; Dexter—1 run, 7 hits and 2 errors. Winning pitcher, Hansen; losing pitcher, Gregory.

Chelsea 8—Vandercook Lake 6
Chelsea stepped outside the league again last Tuesday to thump Vandercook Lake, 8-6, in a game that could have been more one-sided than it was if Newkirk had not substituted everybody but the bat-boy in the last half of the game.

The Bulldogs got four runs in the second inning on a combination of errors and wild pitches, but no hits. Vandercook scored one on an error and a hit in the second inning, also.

Chelsea continued piling it on as they scored one in the third on three hits and added three more in the fourth on two hits and a couple of helpful wild pitches and errors.

With the score 8-1, Newkirk put in a whole new team, mostly to help some of the younger ones to get their letters, and Vandercook managed to score twice in the sixth and three times in the seventh to pull within two runs of the Bulldogs before the last out. Final score, Chelsea 8, Vandercook Lake 6. Winning pitcher, Hansen; losing pitcher, Cure.

There are no games carded for the rest of this week, but a fill-in game will be scheduled. Next Monday, May 24, the Bulldogs travel to Dundee to play their postponed game and Tuesday they go to Manchester. Both games are at 3:30.

See you at game time!

American Legion Poppy Day Sale To Be Sat. May 29

This year for the first time Chelsea will have two Poppy Days. The American Legion regrets this, but they will still have their Poppy Day on Saturday May 29, the Saturday before Decoration Day which has been appointed by the State for Poppy Day in Michigan. They will sell the Veteran-made rose-popper poppies as they have done for many years. These poppies are hand-made in Hospitals by Veterans who have no other source of income. When you buy the rose-popper poppy with the American Legion label all of your money goes to help the Veteran. Machine-made poppies bring a profit to the manufacturer so that only part of your money helps the veteran.

The American Legion urges you to remember when poppies are sold this week that Saturday of this week is American Legion Poppy Day and begs you to assist these worthy veterans in their need.

Anti-Rabies Clinic Will Be Set Up Here

County-Wide Plan Established to Help Control Disease

A county-wide Anti-Rabies Week has been planned by the Ann Arbor Junior Chamber of Commerce and its Auxiliary for the week of May 23 through 29. Local clinics will be set up throughout the county to facilitate the inoculation of all dogs. This inoculation has been made compulsory by the ordinance passed by the Washtenaw County Board of Supervisors at its meeting of May 11. During Anti-Rabies Week clinics will be established in the following communities: Chelsea, Dexter, East Ann Arbor, Manchester, Milan, Saline, Whitmore Lake, and Willow Village.

This program has been planned with the help and cooperation of Dr. Otto K. Engleke, Director of the Washtenaw County Health Department and the veterinarians of Washtenaw county. Posters which have been contributed by St. Joseph's Hospital, Ann Arbor High School and the University Elementary School, will be distributed by the Ann Arbor Junior Chamber of Commerce and its Auxiliary to be distributed throughout the county as notification of the event.

The local clinic for Chelsea and its surrounding territory will be held at the Sylvan Town Hall, Tuesday and Wednesday, May 25 and 26, between the hours of 7 and 9 p.m. Dr. P. E. Sharrard will be in charge of the clinic.

The recent death of a young child in Washtenaw county has focused public attention upon the seriousness of the rabies situation in the county. The Ann Arbor Junior Chamber of Commerce and its Auxiliary have established this program to control the spread of rabies and to prevent repetition of a similar tragedy.

State Aid to Local Schools Totals Nearly $30,000 for This Year

With the receipt of $4,620, representing the "surplus" remaining from the other state school aid payments for 1947, the total amount of state aid payments received to date by the Chelsea Agricultural School district is $28,718.94.

State aid for the entire county together with the sales tax diversion payments will probably reach a total of about a million dollars for Washtenaw county this year.

Chelsea's $4,620 is a share of the $107,242 distributed to 83 school districts throughout the county from the office of County Treasurer Clyde D. Fleming last week.

Home Ec. Ext. Group Show Held Tuesday

Silver Anniversary of Achievement Day Attended by 530

Home Economics Extension Groups of this vicinity were well represented at the Silver Anniversary Achievement Day program held Tuesday at the Ann Arbor High school. Beginning the morning session at 10:15 with group singing, led by Mrs. George Hansen, the program proceeded on schedule until 3:30 in the afternoon when the day's activities closed with the union reading of the "Michigan Extension Woman's Creed."

Mrs. Harvey Sanderson, county chairman, presided at the morning and afternoon sessions and extended greetings to the five hundred and thirty Extension Group members present from the five county districts.

The much-publicized "Hat Parade" was held during the morning. In the group of three who were selected to have their pictures taken wearing their remodeled hats, was Mrs. Malcolm Reith, of the Lyndex Group.

Musical highlights of the program were the numbers given during the morning by the Cando choir of the Ann Arbor High school under the direction of Miss Nelson, and the presentations of the newly-organized "Home-makers' Chorus" consisting of Home Extension Group members from the county. The chorus is directed by Miss Ruth Selzer, of Warren Eisenbeiser and Mrs. Leslie Eisenbeiser of the North Lake Group are members of the chorus which is to appear June 2, at an evening band concert at West Side Park, in Ann Arbor. (Incidentally, it should be noted that more members are being sought, and next rehearsal to take place Monday, May 24, at Ann Arbor High school.)

R. J. Baldwin, director of Agricultural Extension Service at Michigan State college who was in charge of getting the Home Extension movement in Washtenaw county organized in 1914, was present and gave a short talk.

This year marked the Silver Anniversary of the Achievement Day program in the county and Mr. Baldwin's comparison between the very first group of twenty-five groups now active proved the success of the undertaking. Eight hundred and eleven women are now enrolled as members in the county.

The afternoon speaker was Mrs. Warren Emerson Brown, of Marshall, an ordained Methodist minister, who took for her topic, "Musts of Life." She divided these "musts" into two groups—negative and positive. In the former group she said women must drop pretense, worry, discontent and undue self-seeking. On the positive side she listed the following: make wise use of time; lay hold of your work; lay hold of your sorrows; and lay hold of your faith.

The traditional old shoe was passed around and then presented to Mrs. William Bahnmiller of the Lyndex group who is Past County chairman. This old shoe is a symbol, denoting that after being in this office one "felt like an old shoe." She was presented with a Past Chairman's pin which bears a replica of an old shoe.

Among the Group members listed as receiving the award were: Mrs. Hattie Lindemann, Mrs. Earl Pettibone, Mrs. William Pidd, Mrs. Ernest Reddeman, Mrs. T. G. Riemschneider, Mrs. Martha Rothfuss, Mrs. Lawrence Shanahan, Mrs. Homer Stoffer, Mrs. E. C. Smith and Mrs. E. W. Wise. Many of these are still active members.

Dinner was served at noon at the First Methodist church, across the street from the high school. Prize winners in the contest to determine the Group submitting the best four-page display in the dining-room tables were as follows: First prize, Lodi Group, arranged by Mrs. Harold Voci; second prize, Pittsfield Group, arranged by Mrs. V. E. McNitt; third prize, Freedom Group, arranged by Mrs. Wilbert Koenigster.

Courtesy Covers Group and Sylvan Group were awarded honorable mention. The judges were Professor Heller, from the College of Architecture and Design, at the U. of M., and Mrs. Kretschmar, interior designer.

Miss Francis Wilson, of the Michigan Farmer, in Cleveland, former Washtenaw County Home Economics Extension Agent, was also present for the day's program.

Study Club's Annual Sale This Fri., Sat.

Proceeds Are Used in Organization's Charitable Projects

Friday and Saturday of this week, May 21 and 22, the Chelsea Study club will conduct the organization's annual Spring Rummage Sale, for which preparations have been going on for several weeks. This year, in addition to the used clothing and many household items that are the usual content of the sale, a special feature is to be added—a table of new, hand-made articles, such as aprons, children's clothes and knitted articles made and donated by club members.

Proceeds of the Rummage Sale are one of the main sources of the club's income which is used to carry on the many worthwhile projects which the club undertakes during the year.

Locally, the club distributed boxes of home-made cookies and fruit to thirty shut-ins at Christmas and supported the Girl Scouts, helped several needy families and bought and presented to the Chelsea library a Van Gogh picture. Donations were made to the Red Cross, March of Dimes, and the present "Crusade for Children."

In addition, the club has honor of the past year, $297.21 for the two French children the club has been supporting. This amount includes the $96 each, per year, which is the initial payment for their keep, plus the gift boxes of food, shoes and clothing sent to them.

Donations for the Rummage Sale will be accepted at the Sylvan Town Hall where the sale is to be held, on Thursday afternoon. The days of the sale, Friday and Saturday, selling will begin at one o'clock and continue throughout the afternoon.

C. of C. Furthers Plans for Gala 'Chelsea Days'

Nearly every business in Chelsea was represented at the regular monthly meeting of the Chamber of Commerce held Tuesday evening at the American Legion Home on Cavanaugh Lake.

After all had feasted on the huge meal prepared for them and agreed by Legion members, the Chamber opened on plans for the gala "Chelsea Days" event, tentatively scheduled for Friday and Saturday, June 25 and 26. With the full co-operation pledged at this meeting it seems safe to say that "Chelsea Days" will furnish the public bargains and entertainment features that will be long remembered.

As an extra added feature of the evening, and possibly an indication of what may be in store in the line of entertainment for "Chelsea Days," all 62 members and guests present were held spell-bound by Rex Billings, a magician and hypnotist from Detroit. Many doubtful persons left the meeting wondering whether there might not after all be real magic in the world.

Each lady is requested to fix a box lunch which will be auctioned off after the dancing. Although it has been stated that there would be a higher limit of $15 set beyond which bidding would not be permitted, spokesmen for the club say that rule might be relaxed for unusually attractive boxes known to contain deluxe dinners.

Tickets are available now from any Kiwanis member. Next week's paper will carry complete details of the evening's entertainment.

Edgar F. Down, State Senator from the 12th district, will be the principal speaker at the Kiwanis club next Monday evening.

Contributions Must Be Turned in by Saturday, May 22

Chelsea is well organized with a number of enthusiastic workers to carry through the local solicitation of funds for the American Overseas Aid-Gifted, needy children for Children this week, according to a statement by Rev. Orville W. Morrow, General Chairman of the local campaign.

Much depends upon each citizen, fraternity, club, civic organization, industry and schools to reach a total "free gift" that will adequately express the philanthropic and good-will of the community.

George J. Burke, a member of War Crimes Tribunal in Germany and a well-known Ann Arbor attorney, said:

"Most of us have participated in one way or another in drives for various causes for the public welfare."

"In the American Overseas Aid-United Nations Appeal for Children we have a chance to do something for hungry, poorly-clad and sick children, who are the victims of a war for which they have no responsibility."

"I spent nearly a year in the area and had ample opportunity to see some of the 230,000,000 children who are so sadly in need of our help. The need is so great that unless aid is given, and at once, thousands of these helpless victims must die. To those of us who are living in this land of plenty, it is almost impossible to realize the groups of barefoot, hollow-eyed youngsters, who bring their empty buckets to emergency feeding stations operated by agencies of American Overseas Aid-United Nations Appeal for Children. Thousands of them would have to go to their miserable homes to toss in their charity from hunger, for the dearth of our people."

"This program, as I view it, is not something simply in the interest of making life more pleasant for various classes of people, but it reaches into the field of preventing and slowing down the death from disease. When one stops to consider that it takes only $10.00 of our money to give the supplementary meals that will keep a child alive for one year, it is a challenge to all of us to do our part. Other nations less able to contribute are doing the same. The share to be contributed by the United States is $60,000,000.

"As I have frequently stated, if we are to have peace in these war-torn countries, it cannot be built by a generation whose lot is starvation and whose children are being burned to keep food from the enemy, drought, and intercepted or destroyed transportation, these millions face desperation."

"I have never known a more worthy cause, or one to which men, with more personal satisfaction, contribute promptly and generously."

Contributions should be made by Saturday, May 22.

Willard Guest, in charge of the solicitation of business management and treasurer of the local committee, reported Tuesday evening that there had been a gratifying response from those he had already contacted and he was confident that Chelsea would raise its quota by the end of the week.

Rev. O. W. Morrow, chairman of "Crusade For Children" drive here, reported that the leadership of William Collins, labor representative chairman and that response among the school children was exceptionally good.

Block workers, under the leadership of Mrs. A. A. Palmer, as chairmen, are selling all homes and reports from some of these show that the people solicited so far have responded generously.

Sylvan Rural Drive Led by F. Broesamle

Fred G. Broesamle, general chairman and treasurer of Sylvan township's Rural District for the "Crusade For Children" appeal is carrying the campaign into the rural areas surrounding Chelsea.

HARMONY CHAPTER

Mrs. J. H. Boyd led the devotional service taking for her topic, "The Open Door." She concluded with a poem about mothers. Mrs. Rogers called on Mrs. Edwin Eaton for a reading pertaining to the topic and this was followed by two interesting talks, one on Hawaii, given by Mrs. Percival Holmes, who spent some time there when her husband, Colonel Holmes, was stationed there, and one by Mrs. Dor Rogers, on her recent stay in Washington, D. C. where she attended a convention of patriotic organizations.

Her description of the meetings there and of the dinner at which Mrs. Harry S. Truman, wife of the President, was a speaker, was much enjoyed by the fourteen members present.

Rural Tele-news

FITS TOGETHER: Did you know that, in addition to Michigan Bell, there are 160 "Independent" telephone companies in Michigan? Their territory is shown in grey on the adjoining map. Thousands of rural folks are served by these companies whose lines connect with Michigan Bell (area in white) for long distance service. Both the "Independents" and Michigan Bell have as their goal more and better rural telephone service.

LINE TIED UP: When a telephone on a party line is left off the hook—or even tilted off, like this one—the line is tied up for everyone. You can't receive calls and no one else on the line can make or receive them! Please hang up carefully—for your neighbors' sake... and yours.

SIZE MEANS SERVICE: Michigan Bell's telephone plant is big—but it must grow bigger to supply everyone with the kind of telephone service he wants. Expansion increases the value of your telephone because it provides more telephones that you can call... lets you do more time- and money-saving telephone errands.

C. Breitenwischer Weds Glen Britten in Sunday Ceremony

In an impressive, double-ring ceremony, performed at four-thir- ty Sunday afternoon in St. Paul's Evangelical and Reformed church, Caroline Elaine Breitenwischer be- came the bride of Glenwood Brit- ten of Jackson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Britten of Charlotte. The bride, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbert Breitenwischer, The service took place in the pres- ence of two hundred and fifty relatives and friends of the cou- ple with Rev. P. H. Grabowski, pastor of the church, officiating.

Double white lilies and white snapdragons, arranged in a banked effect, with huckleberry greens in the background accenting the tall lighted white tapers in seven- branched candelabras at either side of the altar, together with the lighted altar candles and the white satin ribbon bows marking the aisle, all combined to make a very lovely setting for the service.

Proceeding the bride down the aisle of the church were the two bridesmaids, Mrs. Lowell Easter- day of Jackson, a cousin of the bride, and Mrs. Leonard Alber of South Lyon; the matron of honor, Mrs. Ernest Mansfield of Homer; sister of the bridegroom, and Caro- line May Mansfield of Homer, niece of the bridegroom, who acted as flower girl, scattering flower petals in the bride's path from the basket she carried. She was gown in a floor-length dress of pastel yellow organza and wore matching rib- bon in her hair.

The maid of honor, also in pastel yellow organza, made in colonial style, with a wide, shirred band trimming the dropped shoulder- effect neckline, wore a matching headpiece of shirred organza and carried a colonial bouquet of light green carnations and white daisies. Streamers of pastel green satin ribbon trimmed her bouquet.

The bridesmaids wore identical gowns of pastel green organza made exactly like that of the maid of honor. They wore match- ing organza headpieces, their bou- quets being made up of yellow carnations and daisies, with rib- bon streamers of yellow.

The bride, entering with her father who gave her in marriage, wore a gown of white marquisette with a full cathedral train edged all around with a wide ruffle of the same material. A deep yolk of illusion was edged with seed pearls and finished with a ruffled bertha matching the ruffled hem- line of the skirt. The long sleeves ended in points at the wrists. Her veil of illusion was of fingertip length and was held in place with a headpiece of the illusion and spray of lily-of-the-valley. She carried a white satin-covered Bible topped with a double orchid corsage finished with white ribbon streamers, in which were tied sprays of the lily-of-the-valley.

Before the ceremony, Richard Moor, cousin of the bride, sang "Because" and "O Perfect Love," and during the rites, he sang "The Lord's Prayer." Mrs. Carl Mayer was his accompanist and also played the "Wedding March" from Lohengrin's "Bridal Chorus" as the members of the wedding party en- tered and took their places before the altar.

Serving as best man was the bride's brother, Robert Breiten- wischer, while her cousin, Donald Weber of Jackson, and the bride- groom's brother-in-law, Ernest Mansfield of Homer, were the ushers.

Immediately following the cere- mony, a reception was held in the church hall. The refreshment table was centered with the wedding cake topped with bell-shaped orna- ments and was flanked on either side by low bowls of apple bloss- oms and lighted white tapers in crystal candle holders. Pouring the cake were Mrs. Alton Blaes of Ann Arbor and Mrs. Jack Phillips of Plymouth, assist- ed by Mrs. Harold McDonald, a cousin of the bride, and Mrs. Homer Kuhl, Mrs. Wilbert Zog- leman was in charge of the guest book.

Guests were present from Char- lotte, Homer, Jackson, Manches- ter, Ann Arbor, New Boston, Ply- mouth, South Lyon and Chelsea. Following a week's honeymoon in Chicago, Mr. and Mrs. Britten will reside at 222 Bates street in Jackson, where they will be at home to their friends after June 1. For going away the bride wore a brown faille suit with matching accessories and the orchid corsage she had carried for the wedding. The bridegroom's mother and the bride's mother both wore navy blue with navy accessories, Mrs.

Breitenwischer's hat being accen- ted with pink flower trimming. Both wore identical corsages of pink roses and lily-of-the-valley. The bride is a graduate of Chel- sea High school and Alexandra School of Cosmetology and has been employed for some time at Norma's Beauty Shoppe.

Mr. Britten, a graduate of Char- lotte High school and the DeFor- rest School of Radio Sound and Television of Chicago, was in the U. S. Army for three years, two of which were spent overseas. He is now employed as a laboratory technician at the Sparten Radio company in Jackson.

Clark-Beal Nuptials

Held Wed., May 12, in Britton Church

Miss Jane M. Clark, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar J. Clark of Macon, became the bride of Rich- ard S. Beal, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Beal of Chelsea, in a cere- mony performed in the Congrega- tional Christian church at Britton, Wednesday, May 12, at 7 o'clock in the evening. Rev. Gerald Hal- lauer officiated.

The soloist was Miss Carolyn Case of Blissfield, and her accom- panist was Mrs. Floris Exley of Britton, who also played the wed- ding march.

The bride wore, for her wedding, a pastel green gabardine tailored suit, with brown accessories. Her flowers were pale yellow carna- tions centered with a cluster of gardenias.

Miss Donna Perkins of Chelsea, served as maid of honor, wearing for the occasion a light rose- colored gabardine suit with navy blue accessories. With this she wore a corsage of sweet peas in mixed colors centered with white carnations.

Roland Roberts of Chelsea, as best man and Donald Eisenman and Loren Hinderer, of Chelsea, assist- ed as ushers.

A reception for 100 guests was held, following the ceremony, at the home of the bride's parents, where Mrs. W. D. Armantrout, Adrian, presided at the punch bowl and Miss Juanita Kerentoff of Tecumseh, and Miss Maxine Venty of Palmyra, served the ice cream and cake.

Following a few days' honey- moon in northern Michigan the young couple will reside at 12230 Mills road, Clinton.

The bride is a student at the Lenawee Beauty school and is a graduate of Clinton High school. Mr. Beal graduated from Chel- sea High school and served in the armed forces for two years. He is now employed at Cushing Motor Sales, in Ann Arbor.

ORCHIDS FROM HAWAII

Mrs. David Colquhoun has been wearing an orchid corsage which was sent via air express directly from Wailuku, Hawaii, by her son, Cameron, who is stationed in Hawaii with the army. Because Mrs. Colquhoun, with her husband and her mother, Mrs. Isabel Tor- rance, spent the week-end in Bir- mingham at the home of her brother, Henry Torrance, where a family celebration was held in honor of Mrs. Torrance's birthday and Mothers' Day, she was not at home to accept delivery of the package until the first of the week and missed getting it for Mothers' Day.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Seitz, Mr. and Mrs. George Seitz and Mr. and Mrs. Philip Seitz were in Ann Arbor to attend the wedding of their nephew, Jonathan Seitz, at Bethlehem church.

ANNOUNCE ENGAGEMENT
Mr. and Mrs. Gale Gilson have announced the engagement of their daughter, Marjorie Alice, to Willard R. Ferry, son of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Ferry of North Lake. The wedding is to take place June 19.

X EQUALS WHO?

Who is X? Do you know? Can you tell from the following description? X is tall, fairly good-looking, has medium brown straight hair, big blue eyes and a very pleasant voice. Everybody who is anybody knows him, do you? X seems to like the color of red, or some shades of red. He is very active in baseball, football and basketball and Hi-Y. X is known for his crusades against gum chewing.

He is good-natured and has a keen sense of humor, also, is quick on the lips. X adds something to all his classes so they couldn't get along without him. Some people say he might grow up to be a coach, at least from present indications. Who is X?

STUDENT COUNCIL ELECTION

were by ballot and continued throughout the day. Only those who registered could vote.

Campaign speeches were given in the morning by the following candidates: Sophomores—R. Eder, president; R. Toney, vice-president; Juniors—J. Knickerbocker, president; A. Taylor, vice-president.

Both Juniors won the election.

SMALL TALK

Well, Betty, we see you got to the Prom after all.

A lot of people are wondering how those strapless formal stay up.

Boys! What wonderful campaign speeches!

That can't you tell the difference between pick-ups? (Trucks, that is.)

Ted, do you always look that handsome when you go stag?

It seems the Prom was over quite late?

Mr. Cameron, have you used the word "chyme" yet?

Danny, do you like to stay home "alone"?

Sara, do you charge rent to the mice in your locker?

Gee, where did all of the strange men come from Friday night?

Have you filed your quota of fat tires yet—eh, George?

Stanley, do you like the record, "Little White Lies"?

JUNIOR-SENIOR RECEPTION

The Junior theme of "Tulip Time in Holland," used in the reception in honor of the Senior class, fitted in perfectly with the spring tulip season.

Little Dutch boys and girls with a background of tulips, windmills and sailboats on the walls made the basis for their theme. Typical Dutch colors of blue and yellow crepe paper streamers from the walls to the ceiling completed the decorations on the sides of the gym. On the stage were a life-sized Dutch boy and girl with a long row of colorful tulips in front of them.

The entranceway of the gym had a pool of purple water (borrowed from the chemistry laboratory) in one corner with grass, rocks, and, of course, tulips to complete the scene. (The Juniors must have thought that was real grass and needed nourishment or could it have been that the pool leaked?) Table decorations consisted of bouquets of tulips with fluted yellow and blue streamers down the center of the tables. Place cards were yellow and blue Dutch shoes.

The menu for the banquet consisted of relishes, tomato juice cocktail and crackers, prime rib roast of beef, mashed potatoes, peas and carrots, perfection salad, rolls and butter, and apple pie à la mode. All the food was delicious, especially those home-made apple pies. Credit for the dinner goes to those faithful Junior mothers and the planning of Marjorie Proctor and her committee.

The program of the evening, following the dinner, was begun by the toastmaster, Ted McClear, and followed by the "Welcome" by the Junior class president, David Knickerbocker. Agnes Forner, Senior class president, returned the welcome, and next was Superintendent Johnson, making the introductions. The musical members of the class lent their talents to complete the program which was as follows:

Elden Moore, piano solo, "Clair de Lune"; Joyce Hughes, Joanne O'Dell and Mae Slane, vocal trio, "Little Dutch Mill"; Ellen Geddes, piano solo, "Warsaw Concerto"; Robert Taylor, vocal solo, "Without a Song"; and Donna Kalmach, Rachmaninoff's "Piano Concerto." The remaining part of the evening was enjoyed by dancing to the music of Joe Oakes and his orchestra.

The frosting on the cake, so to speak, was made up by the girls in their pretty spring formal. The "New Look" entered in with the full billowing skirts and bustles on many of the formal. Pastels were the predominating colors with some black and white ones. The powder room was forever filled with oh's and ah's as everyone complimented everyone else on her formal and corsage.

Speaking of corsages, all were beautiful, especially those orchid ones worn by a few lucky girls. One must not overlook the boys, however, so dressed up that some were hardly recognizable. Not only were there a lot of good-looking suits and sport jackets, but also some white dinner jackets and tux.

All in all, the Reception was a once-a-year occasion, not to be soon forgotten. The Juniors worked hard, the result being a well-planned, gala evening. Credit should be extended to all the committees that helped to make it such a grand success and especially to Donna Kalmach, the general chairman and the class advisors, Miss Shell and Miss Larson.

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

Take Your Choice, Neighbor!

The missus—who writes our Woman's Column in the Clarion under the name of "Nancy Gale"—gets letters about recipes, advice on etiquette, home management, etc.

One letter she got last week was about a recipe she published for Welsh Rarebit—made with tart cheese, Worcestershire, and a cup of sparkling tangy beer. "Turned out great," says her correspondent. "But you didn't mention what beverage to serve with it. Should I serve beer? Cider? Iced tea?"

The missus' answer was simply:

"Any beverage your guests prefer. You don't have to serve cider—any more than you have to serve beer ... but it's often courteous to let guests have a choice."

From where I sit, that simple answer applies to more items than Welsh Rarebit. In a world where everyone has different tastes and ideas—we should recognize those differences—and never deny the right of choice to anyone!
