

East Tawas — Joseph Valinto, government forest engineer of Czechoslovakia, shook his head. He had been traveling about the United States and had just arrived in East Tawas for a visit at headquarters of the Huron National Forest.

"You Americans are so wasteful," he said. "I cannot understand it. Over in Czechoslovakia we try to plant trees as we cut them. We do not let any part of the tree go to waste. Even small sticks are gathered as faggots to burn in stoves. But in this country—it seems such a pity. You Americans waste so much."

Valinto voiced his wonderment in a talk here with John Franson, district ranger.

Franson related it to us when we dropped in for a chat. The chat ended up in a day's inspection tour of a few of the 450,000 acres of federal forests under his wing. After getting a close-up of what Uncle Sam is doing to rebuild our vanishing forests, we were both worried over the future and somewhat reassured. It's hard to explain.

Here's a fast picture, as we got it.

The United States is rapidly becoming a have-not nation in natural resources.

According to the last annual report of the Forest Service, the nation's woodpile has been reduced 44 percent in the past 35 years. As a result of this, the annual gain on the nation's forest is approximately 64 billion board feet, while the annual loss is only 35 billion board feet.

The annual loss is greater than annual growth by more than 50 percent.

Maybe the Czech forester was right, after all.

And yet the picture isn't all black. There's a silver lining or two.

"I believe there is a change of national thinking about our natural resources," commented Franson. "He is a career man in federal forest work; a native of Boston—has been in the University of Michigan. Congress increased funds this year for tree planting, and as a result 12,000 acres of trees are to be planted in Michigan. Crews started their work in the Huron National Forest last Monday (Sept. 13)."

The money spent will be an investment rather than an expense. National forests are beginning to earn their own way, covering cost of planting by sale of timber.

Approximately 2,000 pine trees will be planted in the Huron forest alone.

A tractor and a tree-planting machine, manned by only two men, can plant 10,000 to 12,000 trees in one day about three times more than by hand. Trees lie dormant over winter.

Jack pines, planted 1,000 to an acre, about six feet apart, will mature in 60 years. If the soil is right, white pines are used. The seedlings are planted close together so that each tree will be forced upward to get its share of sunshine, and the result will be a tall pine tree. In 25 years the first thinning is done, and sale of this pulpwood covers cost of the original planting. Then in another 35 to 40 years the trees will be thinned again.

As the old trees are cut, new seedlings are planted. Then you have a perpetual supply of wood.

Timber contractors used to import southern white pine to the Huron woods. When the trees were all gone, the southerners became welfare clients of the community.

The modern system is much better. The Forest Service helped 120 farmers to organize a cooperative, the Ausable Forest Products Association. Proceeds of Huron pulpwood, sold to paper mills at Muskegon and near Ludington, are prorated among members according to cords cut. The co-op has provided a steady income to supplement farmers' earnings, especially during winters. Wages now average $1 an hour.

Chelsea High Bulldog Team Opens Football Season with Nite Game Friday at Dexter

Squad Will Play Four Home Games in 1948 Schedule

By DWIGHT GADD

Tomorrow night at 8 p.m., under the lights at Dexter, the Chelsea High school Bulldogs, 1948 season, will roll into action against the Dreadnaughts of Dexter High school to officially open the local football season.

The outlook for this season is far from being as promising as last year's because graduation at last year's season completely wrecked last year's fine team. This will be a comparatively young and inexperienced team of Bulldogs.

Head coach, Coach George Magiera, who retired into private business at Caro, Mich., this past summer, Chelsea has come up with another fine young coach in John Magiera, a Hillsdale College graduate in 1943.

In college, Magiera played tackle in football and forward on the basketball team. He was a stand-out athlete and captained the basketball team his senior year. After three years in the Navy, Magiera coached in 1946 and 1947 at Hartland, where he turned out two winning football teams. Along with his coaching duties he will also teach social studies.

The squad began practice three weeks ago on Aug. 30 and held both morning and afternoon sessions (plus Saturday mornings) until school started. The team will run from the T-formation and single-wing with this year's material a little more suited to the T than the power-type single-wing. However, both systems are leading in experienced key players.

Only nine lettermen remain from last year's successful grid squad. They are Robert Barlow, Walter Bauer, David Knickerbocker, Stanley Knickerbocker, Ted McClear, David Meyers, Kenneth Proctor, Robert Robbins and Robert Stofor. The new squad members are Oscar Barrels, David Bertke, Oscar Bollinger, Bruce Mycraft, Ronnie Edler, Allan Erke, Duane Gentner, Jerry Herrick, George Heydlauff, Dave Hoffman, Les Hoppe, Robert Joseph, Carl Koch, Dale Lake, Gerald Lehman, Don McClear, Dick Merfeld, Sammy Missal, Bill Moody, Arden Muebach, Craig Nelson, Norman O'Conner, James Palmer, William Palmer, James Robards, Donald Schraeder, Ted Slane, Ray Steinbach, George Sweeney, Stanton Walker, David Yoell, Stanley Toney, and Robert Taylor.

From that forty-two man squad the following line-up will undoubtedly be the varsity—RB, Don McClear or Rob Stofor; DE, Norman O'Conner; RG, LG, Kenny Proctor; Dave Meyers; LG, Kenny Proctor; LE, Ted McClear; QB, George Heydlauff; RB, Dave Knickerbocker; LB, Stan Knickerbocker, and FB, Bob Robbins.

The "Bulldogs" complete schedule for 1948 is as follows:

Sept. 17—At Dexter, 8:00 P.M.
Sept. 24—At Romulus, 8:00 P.M.
Oct. 1—At Ypsilville, 4:00 P.M.
Oct. 8—At Milan, here, 8:00 P.M.
Oct. 12—At Hillsdale, here, 8:00 P.M.
Oct. 19—At Dundee, here, 8:00 P.M.
Oct. 26—Flat Rock, here, 8:00 P.M.
Nov. 12—Manchester, here, 8:00 P.M.

Let's back the team all-out this year, starting tomorrow night. It's just a short drive to Dexter. See you at game time!

Mrs. Sharrard's hat, made of the three bears finding Goldilocks in bed, mounted on a paper plate and fastened under the chin with a dog collar, was chosen for first honors.

It was announced, after discussion of the subject, that all members, including associate members, were to be reminded if they are unable to attend a meeting; also, that on guest nights, the hostess is to be informed as to how many guests are to be present.

After the business meeting a quiz program was given, the questions being for children in the six to sixteen age bracket. The prize in the contest was won by Mrs. E. A. Kayser.

Auto Accident on US-12 Injures Four Saturday Morning

Mrs. Thelma Hooper of 12 Whitaker avenue, Battle Creek, Betty Wood, 2549 Prairie avenue, Detroit, Mrs. Dorothy K. Fisby and her six-year-old grandson Donald Hanna of 2449 Ethel avenue, Detroit, suffered varying degrees of injury in a head-on collision of two automobiles about 11:15 a.m. Saturday on US-12, east of Fletcher road.

Drivers of the two cars, Edwin C. Hooper and Harry V. Fisby were not injured.

Mrs. Hooper's injuries included a fractured right arm and cuts about the face. Betty Wood, riding in the Hooper car, received cuts on the head; Mrs. Fisby received leg and stomach injuries, and Donald Hanna complained of back injuries. All were taken to St. Joseph's Mercy hospital, Ann Arbor, by Miller's ambulance.

Officer George Doe, called to the scene of the accident, was told the accident occurred when the car being driven east by Hooper pulled into the center lane to pass an eastbound car which, an instant later, turned out to pass another car ahead. It was during Hooper's attempt to avoid a collision with the car that turned out in front of him that he collided head-on with the westbound car driven by Fisby, according to Officer Doe's report.

Both cars were badly damaged.

Chelsea Study Club Holds First Meeting of Fall Season

The Chelsea Study Club held the first meeting of the 1948-49 season at the Cavanaugh Lake home of Mrs. Leigh Palmer, beginning with a planned picnic dinner served out-of-doors. Twenty-nine were present, including three guests, one of whom was Mrs. A. K. Richards, of Howell; W. H. a charter member and early president of the club.

Standing committees for the year were appointed by the president, Mrs. John Fischer, during the business meeting and it was voted to reinstate Mrs. Beth Hollidge as a member after an absence of several years during which she had resided elsewhere. Mrs. R. W. Wagner was voted a new member of the club.

There was also a discussion of the Girl Scout situation in Chelsea, and then a non-sensational skill presented by Mrs. George Walworth and Mrs. Paul Maroney, provided an amusing and very entertaining program period.

The next meeting is to be held at the home of Mrs. George Walworth.

State Police Urge Drivers to 'Give Kids A Brake,' as Schools Open for Fall

"Give the kids a brake!" That's the theme of the state safety program during the month of September, when more than a million children return to school, according to Sergeant G. H. Aus-er and motorcycle accidents last year in our state," Sergeant Ausser said. "In addition, 4,386 were injured in pedestrian and bicycle accidents."

"The hazards increase when schools are in session. And drivers should bear this fact constantly in mind: No matter how much safety instruction you give them, children can always be expected to do the unexpected. That means drivers must do more than observe ordinary safety precautions. They must be on the alert for children darting out from between parked cars, playing in the streets, riding out of driveways on bicycles or scooters without stopping to see if all is clear, and other acts of carelessness."

"No matter if, technically, it isn't his fault, a driver who injures or kills a child never forgets the experience. It is an unhappy memory that lasts forever."

Consider every child on the street a human caution sign. Keep clear of bicycles and watch out for youngsters on tricycles, roller skates, scooters and coaster wagons—and later the ones on sleds, too. Don't depend on children to observe safety rules. So give them a brake."

"There were 168 children and youths in the age range up to 19 killed in pedestrian, bicycle, scooter and motorcycle accidents last year in our state," Sergeant Ausser said. "In addition, 4,386 were injured in pedestrian and bicycle accidents."

Public Invited to Open Meeting of Legion Auxiliary

An open meeting, which should prove of interest to all people in the community, is being sponsored by the Past Presidents' club of the American Legion auxiliary to be held at the High School gymnasium Wednesday evening, Sept. 22. At this time, Mrs. Dorothy Pearl, of Detroit, past national president of the American Legion auxiliary, is to be the guest speaker and Donna Kaimbach, the local girl who was chosen to attend Girls' Nation at Washington, D. C., as one of two Michigan representatives of Legion Auxiliaries, will tell of her experiences while in Washington.

Miss Kaimbach is a senior at Chelsea High school this year and is a popular member of the young-people set in the community. She gave a very fine report of her Washington trip at the American Legion convention in Grand Rapids, which so impressed local Legion Auxiliary members who heard her that they felt the entire community should be given the opportunity to hear her story told in her own simple, straightforward manner.

Mrs. Pearl needs no special introduction as she is well-known throughout Michigan for her very interesting talks. She has appeared before audiences in every state of the Union and in Hawaii. She has traveled through many parts of Europe and has taken a special interest in gathering information of interest to Gold Star mothers.

Mrs. Pearl also is a well-known and popular figure in the community. She has appeared before audiences in every state of the Union and in Hawaii. She has traveled through many parts of Europe and has taken a special interest in gathering information of interest to Gold Star mothers.

A program of musical numbers is being arranged and, following the evening's program, refreshments will be served.

Committee chairman of the Past Presidents' club, in urging everyone to attend this public meeting arranged by them for the pleasure of the people of the community, ask, "Are you, the public, going to regret not attending this meeting when it is over and you have missed the opportunity others have taken advantage of and enjoyed?"

The Past Presidents' club cordially invites everyone in the community to be the guest of the club at the High School gymnasium for this meeting on the evening of Sept. 22, beginning at 8 o'clock.

Invitations have been sent to all lodges, clubs and church organizations in the community and a special invitation is being extended to all former Boys' State and Girls' State representatives to attend the meeting.

Every effort has been made to make this an outstandingly enjoyable evening and a good attendance will be gratifying, not only to the speakers, but to the committee members in charge of the meeting.

Independents Win Two in Play-off Tilt

Will Play Winners of Western Division Sunday Afternoon

By 'BILL' SCHATZ

Although the Chelsea Independents came through the season without being defeated, or even tied, they were forced by a previous agreement to participate in a series play-off to see which team was qualified to play the winner of the Western Division. It seems rather silly to require a team which has played a perfect schedule to play two more games to determine whether or not they really are the Champs.

There is also the possibility that some weak team which has limped along all season, might pull an upset and be declared champions for the season. But that's the way it is, so the Independents, backed by Saline last Sunday to participate in the play-offs.

In the first game behind the brilliant pitching of J. Miller, who allowed only one hit, we saw the Saline game, down 10 to 2. There never was much doubt as to who the winners would be, although Saline played a whale of a game on the vocal angle. However, arguments with the umpire, don't win ball games. McClanahan smashed out a beautiful four base hit, scoring two runners ahead of him, which was enough to salt away the old ball game.

Ann Arbor defeated Pinckney and came on to play us in the final. McClanahan was elected to start the nightcap and had to be lifted in the fifth. Old reliable "Lefty" Barth was called in to finish, when the going got tough, emerging on the long end of a 7 to 6 score.

What a game. The winning run was walked in, in our half of the ninth. "Lefty" was strongly supported by a gang of Independents' errors. An error is "an is been that should have been only it ain't." Anyway, we emerged victorious, so that is that.

We now go on to play the winners of the Western Division. Sunday's classics were quite a drain on our boys being compelled to play two games when the competition really was lean. To win, after all, is the main thing and we did. So now comes the final and last of the season play-offs—the Eastern Division Champs vs. the Western Division Champs.

Watch the Chelsea Standard for date and place. It will be found in our announcement in this issue.

This restoration, the first made since 1823, was done by Theodore William Ohman, a former Bohemian immigrant boy, who is recognized as one of the world's finest cartographers.

Important Meeting To Discuss Future of Girl Scouting

A very important meeting in regards to the future of Girl Scouting in Chelsea is to be held at the library at 8 o'clock tomorrow night, Sept. 17. Parents of girls of Girl Scout age who are interested in continuing the Girl Scout work here are urged to attend this meeting as well as all Girl Scout committee members.

The aim of Girl Scouting is character building and learning to co-operate with girls of the same age groups. Group activities and learning to do things as a group are also stressed in the Girl Scout program. Many interesting and worthwhile hobbies and skills are taught, such as basketry, cooking, sewing, etc. Summer camping is offered as well as other supervised outdoor activities. Girl Scouting and Boy Scouting has been described by workers among young people, as one of the most powerful weapons against juvenile delinquency. The healthful, enjoyable activities of the Girl Scout program provide the fun and entertainment which are such a necessary part of any plan for holding the interest of young people.

However, if backing from parents and interested workers is not immediately forthcoming, Girl Scouting in Chelsea will have to be abandoned according to workers here and so this meeting which will decide whether the work here continues or not has been called for tomorrow night.

Those who are interested in seeing that the Girl Scout program is continued here should make every effort to interest others and to enlist the support of persons and organizations in carrying out this most worthwhile work.

Bike Riders Warned by Police Regarding Lights After Dark

Beginning at once, Chelsea bicycle riders who are apprehended by police officers riding their bicycles without proper lights after dark, are to be given tickets and fined, according to notice given by the Chelsea Police department. Department officers say this step is made necessary because of the increasing danger of bicycle riders being run down by automobiles whose drivers are unable to see them because of the absence of bicycle lights which are required by law.

Cyclists under seventeen who are given tickets for violations of the ruling will be required to appear at the office of the Chelsea Electric Light and Water department to pay their fines. If these fines are not paid within the specified time, the cases will be taken to probate court for settlement.

Bicycle riders over seventeen come under the jurisdiction of the state law requiring proper lights on all vehicles after dark and will be hailed into justice court for violations of the rule for proper lighting of their bicycles just the same as drivers of automobiles with improper lights, police officers state.

Try to Remember

Grace Noll Crowell

CONSIDER your heartache of the past, the pain
You may have thought could never be relieved;
Recall some ancient sorrow that had lain
For long upon you—could you have believed
You would forget it as you have? Ah, no,
We are so blind along the road we go!

Our eyes are hidden and we cannot see
This grief will fade, this hurt will be naught;
This sorrow pass away—the peace we sought
Will rest upon us and we will be glad,
Forgetting all the sorrow we have had.

Try to remember, Hearts, when grief is sore,
That it will pass, as it has passed before.

ASSEMBLY

At the opening assembly held in the study hall last Thursday, both Mr. Johnson and Mr. Cameron gave very inspiring talks to the new upper-classmen. Speaking first, Mr. Johnson gave credit to Donna Kalmbach for her splendid accomplishments at Girls' State, and for being chosen as one of the two girls to go to Washington, D. C.

He mentioned the fact that almost everyone had grown and improved during the summer vacation. Looking forward to a regular attendance and serious attitude, were other improvements he counted on. He also thought that school work should come before one's social engagements. Mr. Johnson hoped that everyone would keep a good record, free from demerits.

Activities in the school were the next on his list, and he announced that David Knickerbocker was our new Student Council President, and Mariene Heydlauff our new Central Treasurer.

Because locker space is so limited, he hoped that the girls would double and triple up, making the best of the crowded situation. Also, he hoped that people would keep their lockers locked because students were just tempting people to take articles not belonging to them. He also requested that students would not bring extra money to school; but in case of necessity, he asked them not to leave it in their lockers, but to bring it to the office for safekeeping.

Mr. Johnson discouraged non-driving for the safety of the younger children. He asked those who walked to cross at the intersections (not to jay-walk), and not to cut across other people's lawns. He hoped that all would get their textbooks, since they were being sold at cost, and settle down to a good year.

Mr. Cameron spoke next telling us his father was a harnessman and that was why he was so "hoarse."

He first assigned everyone to their home-rooms. Next he announced Student Council was sponsoring an All-High party and that the Freshmen were in charge of clean-up, the Sophomores in charge of decoration, the Juniors in charge of refreshments, and the Seniors in charge of entertainment.

Mr. Cameron then told the assembly that personal illness and illness or death in the immediate family were the only legitimate excuses for absence. All lost and found articles not claimed last year were given over to charitable organizations during the summer. The books that were found lying around during the summer if not claimed soon are to be put in stock and resold.

THE CASE OF THE NINE ADDRESSES!!!

What would you do with nine addresses of boys and girls whom you have never seen or spoken to? Put them in your little black book and forget about them? No—I'm sure that wouldn't do. You see, there's something different about these addresses; they're not the girls down the block or the boy in the next town; these addresses are from across the ocean, these addresses are from Austria, Germany and Australia.

The boys and girls who have sent these letters to America are eager to have pen pals in this country. These children want to know about our customs, sports, hobbies, our school life and our democracy. It is the first time since before the war that they have been able to write to children here in America.

It would be such a small amount of work on our part, in return for the great amount of pleasure and joy to those boys and girls, if we, the students of Chelsea High School, would answer these nine letters.

ALL-HIGH PARTY

The first week of school just wouldn't be complete without an All-High party Friday night. For a change, this last Friday, people came fairly early to the dance, so that by the middle of the evening the juke-box was well warmed up and everyone seemed to be enjoying themselves. A lot of new faces could be seen and even more Alumni (seems as if they just can't bear to part with their "dear old Alma Mater").

A Slane instead of a "Knicker" managed the records and did a very fine job. But, why oh why, play those supersonic jitterbug pieces? All they do is clear the dance floor.

Don't the Freshmen boys dance? Their feminine classmates had to carry on all by themselves, which isn't fun for anyone.

The Sophomores' refreshments of cake, potato chips and ice cream really hit the spot after a hard evening of sitting on the side lines. Speaking of the side lines, it seemed as though the Alumni

N. Lake WCTU Meets at Methodist Home

The annual meeting of the North Lake Community WCTU was held in the beautiful lounge of the Chelsea Methodist Home.

The president, Mrs. Emma Pearce, called the meeting to order. Mrs. Charles McDaniels presided at the piano while all sang, "Respect to the Parishing." The theme of the day was "The Master is Calling," meaning that where Christ calls we should answer by devoting ourselves to the opposition to evil wherever we find it.

In her message the president urged the women to be much in prayer, saying "more things are wrought by prayer than this old world dreams of."

The $9,640,000,000 spent for liquor in 1947 in the United States means $89 for every man, woman and child over 14 years of age. This sum equals 2 1/2 times the amount spent for education. In and their partners were giving a floor show the greater part of the evening.

At first glance one might have thought it was a formal dance, but after further inspection it could be seen that it was only the "New Look" taking over.

Supposedly the Seniors had charge of the entertainment, but they sufficed the job. Old faithful "Eighty-eight Keys O'Connor" played several selections to the enjoyment of all.

Looking through our peep hole, the usual "gruesome-tosomies" were a predominating group. Pat and George, Jean and Arden, Kathleen and Richy (from last year's left-overs), Bob and Mary, and Joyce and Oscar, to mention a few, Casanova May could be seen giving all (?) the girls a big thrill. Becky was there with one of "those" people.

Thanks go to Mr. Johnson for chaperoning and to the Student Council for their quick planning. All in all it was well worth the effort.

1934, $2,080,000 was spent for liquor.

Mrs. Townsend acted as treasurer and reported $39.55 was raised for the work. After the district, state and county dues were paid, the Michigan Union sent the 22 members, three schools and libraries the Young Crusader and the Union Signal. Contributions were made for a Light Line Union, to the Stevens Fund, and to the Willard Fund.

Miss Cora Simpson, a former missionary to China, told of the great work done by the president of the China WCTU in the Victory Camps for Children.

The guest speaker, Mrs. Mildred McDaniels Mayer, lay delegate to the Detroit Annual Conference of the Methodist church, from the Month Charge, said "the Methodist church has ever been the implacable foe of the liquor traffic."

"The church will continue," she said, "for the next four years the plan started last February of observing the first Sunday of Lent as Commitment Day—the signing of each member to the Total Abstinence Pledge."

"The drink problem is a social problem," she said, "and touches all of our social relations." Many instances were related of the high cost of the liquor traffic—such as the high cost of insurance on our cars, the toll of lives lost, crimes perpetrated, juvenile delinquency, broken homes—which reveal the fact that the liquor traffic touches nearly every home in our nation. It is our responsibility to rid our country of this "Public Enemy No. 1."

She told of a picture map of the United States in white and black, the white showing the dry territory. Much of our area now has white spots. This has been secured by local option, Sunday closing, elimination of sales by the glass, and other measures.

She stated that all of these victories should encourage the dry forces to continue to work "for God, and home, and native land."

Mrs. H. G. Pearce, Pres.

PAST CHIEFS CLUB

The Past Chiefs club of the Pythian Sisters met Monday evening, Sept. 13, at the home of Mrs. John Metzger, with Mrs. Harry Prudden as assisting hostess. A dessert was served to eighteen members.

A highlight of the meeting was a telephone call from Mrs. Clarence Dietle, a member of the club who had been hospitalized for two months after fracturing her knee and is now staying at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Will Beach.

Following a lengthy business meeting, cards were enjoyed by those present.

PHILATHEA CIRCLES
The Philathea Breakfast Club, with nine members present, met at nine o'clock Wednesday morning, Sept. 9, at the home of Mrs. George Walworth.

The devotional service, presented by Mrs. A. A. Palmer, was based on the script for the C.B.S. broadcast on the World Day of Prayer, by Mrs. Wealthy Honsinger Fisher.

Plans were made for the year's work of the club.

The afternoon group of Philathea Circle met with Mrs. Beth Hollidge and Mrs. Matthew Betz at the Methodist Home.

A program of poems was presented by Mrs. Walter Wolfgang and Mrs. W. G. Pike was in charge of the devotional service.

Mrs. Wolfgang was appointed to act as publicity chairman for the group to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Mrs. Hugh Sorensen.

A social afternoon was enjoyed with some of the members working on the rug materials which are being prepared for the fall fair.

Mrs. Hollidge and Mrs. Betz served refreshments at the close of the meeting.

The evening group of Philathea Circle was entertained at the home of Mrs. Lloyd Heydlauff at 8 o'clock Wednesday evening. Twelve members were present.

Lamb Parasites Easily Checked

Importance of proper treatment of lambs for internal parasites is shown by these two lambs born the same day and given identical feed for a nine month period. Tests were conducted by research men at the agricultural experiment station at Michigan State college, East Lansing. This larger lamb, which attained a weight of more than 90 pounds, was given free access to salt to which phenothiazine was added. One pound of phenothiazine was mixed with 14 pounds of salt and placed in a covered feeder. The smaller animal reached a weight of 40 pounds and got only plain salt. Both were exposed to known worm infested pastures and sheds. Internal parasite troubles caused many farmers to liquidate farm flocks. The simple self-worming process found recently through agricultural experiment station research has caused many to resume sheep rearing programs.

Those in the Know - pick DYNAFLOW

THIS is simple fact: No automotive development in a generation has received acclaim so nearly unanimous as that accorded Dynaflo Drive.

And the reasons are plain as the fact:

First - when you handle a Roadmaster with this new transmission you find a silkiness, a versatility and ease that win your heart instantly, and without further explanation.

Then - when you look into the principles of Dynaflo - into how it works - it stands out as the logical engineering answer to what a modern transmission should be.

Here oil takes the place of both the clutch and the usual low, second and third gears.

Here five ingenious elements in a tightly sealed drum automatically give you the power step-up you need for every driving condition.

You just press the gas treadle - and whether you are starting, climbing or cruising, the power plant itself picks the precise power-ratio that's called for.

You cruise - you stop - you start up - and no gears ever shift, either manually or automatically. In all your normal forward driving, your pressure on the gas treadle does everything.

So the technical expert and the typical motorist get together on Dynaflo Drive.

In theory and in practice it's so far ahead that the smart move is obvious:

See your Buick dealer now - with or without a car to trade - and get a fast order in!

Here's your Buick Dealer's FOUR-SQUARE SELLING POLICY

1. NO PRICE PADDING. You receive an itemized bill of sale. We display all prices in our showroom.
2. NO "LOADING" OF ACCESSORIES. All cars are delivered with accessories as ordered; no "extras" except those you specify.
3. NO COMPULSORY TRADE-INS. We will accept your order and deliver your car with or without a car in trade.
4. NO COLLUSION WITH "GRAY MARKETERS." We will not knowingly sell Buick cars to anyone who operates in the "gray market."

Keep Layers in Condition
—to keep on laying longer!

Be Sure They Get FULL NUTRIENT BALANCE

Egg designed to produce eggs alone is not enough! You get more eggs when your layers maintain good body condition. So they must get a full balance of nutrients in their feed—nutrients for egg production—different nutrients for good body condition—still different nutrients for good market quality eggs.

Recent feeding tests at Larro Research Farm show these amazing results:

Over and above the feed needed for maintenance, laying hens produced 760 eggs per 100 pounds of Larro Egg Mash.

NEED MORE ROOM IN YOUR OLD HOME? DRY BASEMENT GIVES EXTRA SPACE

For farm families whose basementless houses are bursting at the seams, building a watertight basement is a practical way of obtaining much needed room.

A modern, dry basement provides space for a laundry and drying room, for a convenient food storage room, or for that new cold storage box. It's a wonderful place for children, too. Part of it can be made into a recreation or game room which will save wear and tear on the living room furniture—and provides a cozy place for the grownups as well. It is a convenient place for the central heating plant. Fuel storage in the basement eliminates those unpleasant trips to an outside fuel bin.

Concrete masonry units are well adapted for basement walls. They lay up rapidly and make a neat clean wall.

How to Build a Watertight Basement

Use a good quality block with sharp, straight edges and corners. Be certain that they are entirely dry when placed in the wall. See that all joints are well filled with a rich mortar. Cover the outside of the wall with a grade of concrete or portland cement plaster and then mop it with hot asphalt. The plaster coats and asphalt assure watertightness. Where ground water is a problem, take extra precautions to keep the walls dry. Place drain tile around the outside edge of the footings and connect it to a suitable outlet. Cover the tile with a 12-in. layer of gravel or crushed rock. Finish the rest of the fill with dirt from the excavation and pack it well. Slope the top of fill away from house. This helps runoff of rainwater.

You can make the floor watertight and durable by using a single course of masonry concrete made in proportions of 1 sack portland cement, 2 1/2 cu. ft. of sand, 3 cu. ft. of gravel with about 5 gal. of water. The floor is generally made about 4 in. thick. However, in poorly drained soils make the floor lower than the grade and place in two courses. Mop the first course, which is about 2 in. thick, with hot asphalt and cover it with a layer of waterproof roofing felt. Then place over this the second course, which is about 4 in. thick.

Leakage at the juncture of the wall and floor can be prevented by leaving a 1-in. wide space around the edge of the floor and then filling it with hot asphalt.

Managers was held and it was decided that the Fair Board would buy the steer at $1.10 per pound (three cents per pound higher than last year's champion brought).

Sealed bids for the purchase of the steer will be accepted by the board at the Administration building at the Michigan State Fair until noon Friday, Oct. 1, and the steer will be sold to the highest bidder.

MICHIGAN MIRROR

As substitute for taxes, 25 per cent of stumpage receipts are returned by Uncle Sam to county governments. And 10 per cent comes back for local road improvements.

• A careless camper started a forest fire here last May. Fed by a 20-mile-an-hour wind, flames raced over crowns of pine trees, a distance of two miles in 30 minutes. Foresters and farmers checked the conflagration only by literally fighting fire with fire.

If dry weather cycle returns, and Drayton fears it is now due, the peril of fire will be greatly increased.

More of a danger, however, is public indifference to the steady draining of our timber resources. We can't continue to cut and burn more trees than we grow. Our water level is dropping steadily. Soil erosion has soared as man turned forests and grasslands into open, bare fields. Dust bowls are man-made.

Our visit to the Huron National Forest convinced us of one thing: It's significant. Planting of trees, under expert supervision and range control, is a sound national investment—one that is self-sustaining, paying steady dividends. It takes 60 to 100 years to grow a tree. What are we waiting for?
