

Michigan MIRROR

By Gene Alleman

Inducing new industries to locate in Michigan small towns is not a push-button affair. Decentralization of industry whereby workers may work part-time in a small factory and then part-time on a small plot of ground is more of an illusion than a reality.

These points were among a number of interesting facts brought out at a panel program sponsored by the Michigan Press Association as a service for member newspapers which serve small rural communities.

The program was stimulated by interest shown in the series of the "Michigan Mirror" news-letters last August and September on the subject of community development in small towns.

To bring the matter to a sharp focus for consideration of newspaper editors, the state press association invited three experts to participate on a panel program.

Dr. Dwight Wood, Michigan Department of Economic Development, emphasized the need for self-help in the community where the town took initiative of its resources and potential.

Wood declared that one of the best ways in which a community can get in touch with industrial prospects was for the community to make a survey of the services which were available in the community for various industries.

Other factors are favorable, the community can then list these available resources with the Michigan Department of Economic Development. The state department compiles a monthly bulletin which is distributed to officials of industries which have indicated a desire to migrate to smaller towns or to open branches elsewhere.

Professor H. O. Whittemore, head of the Department of Landscape Architecture at the University of Michigan, emphasized the need for available land, preferably adjacent to railroad facilities, which could be readily utilized for industrial use and also for future expansion.

Because of the need for parking of worker automobiles as well as truck shipping, storage, and the trend to a one-story factory building, the average number of square feet of space per industrial worker has jumped from about 100 feet in building floor space to about 500 or 1000 square feet per worker.

Professor Whittemore believed that the ideal factory area should be within the city limits and hence that availability of such land for industry becomes an essential function of the community in planning for future industrial development.

He pointed out that a recent decision of the Supreme Court held it was unconstitutional for a municipality to condemn land which was to be turned over to a private industrial concern for private use.

In that connection Mr. Wood, Michigan Department of Economic Development, pointed out that a number of Michigan rural communities have formed corporations to purchase industrial land which is resold to industry at a fair price.

"We have put out a guide for helping communities to form such corporations, and many Michigan communities are in the process of doing that now," said Mr. Wood.

Dean Ernest L. Anthony, School of Agriculture, Michigan State College, referred to a college survey of approximately 25,000 industrial workers who lived on small farm plots and who presumably worked in city industries.

In the past the idea of decentralization of industry whereby workers could perform part-time working part-time in city industries has had a popular vogue.

The MSC survey, however, revealed that a majority of these workers were making "very poor use of the fact that they lived in the country."

"Today we must realize that agriculture is a business," said Dean Anthony. "It is a scientific and mechanical business. The man who pays much attention to farming has to farm as if he really meant to farm. It is not something, just a little on the side, that he can putter around with."

It is the observation of Dean Anthony that the present industrial pattern of labor used on savings-invests does not encourage the encouragement of agricultural processing plants, such as meat and dairy products, which might develop in smaller communities.

Bulldogs Are Eliminated in Tourney

East Jackson Edges Local Cagers, 28-27, in Rugged Game

By DWIGHT GADD

Chelsea High's tournament hopes were very short-lived last week as they made but one appearance and bowed to East Jackson, 28-27, in a very sloppily played and erratic game.

Perhaps some of my more learned colleagues, who may come across this, would call my reference to the officiating an alibi, but it is far from that, as it definitely was one of Chelsea's poorest games of the season, and we admit it. However, even on an off night, the Bulldogs would have whipped East Jackson had the officiating been consistent instead of the hodge-podge "blind-man-bluff" farce which it had all the aspects of.

A grand team total of only 15 fouls speaks for itself for in a tournament game with the accompanying pressure, that low number is ridiculous.

With both clubs just feeling the other out the first quarter, the game got off to a fast, clean start and Chelsea jumped to an early 7-0 lead, and a 3-4 advantage at the quarter's end.

East Jackson roared back in the second period and got the lead for the first time at 12-11 as Don Gary, Trojan forward, hooped in six straight points. Chelsea regained the lead at 16-14 as the half ended.

Dave Crocker, Chelsea center, with 10 points in the first half, continued his production in the third period by netting seven of Chelsea's nine points and keeping the Bulldogs ahead, 24-21, as the game headed into the last quarter.

Early in the fourth quarter Crocker fouled out and Chelsea's chances went right along out on slim shoulders. Guard George Heydlauff tried to take up the slack but he was out-scored 5-3 by Tom Valentine, Trojan guard, and Don Gary also whipped in another two pointers, for the final 28-27 count.

With about 30 seconds remaining Knickerbocker attempted a lay-up only to be knocked completely out of the court—but no whistle was blown.

With two seconds remaining Knickerbocker was fouled again, but received only one free throw as he was fouled out of the game and his one shot just hit the rim and bounded away to leave East Jackson ahead, 28-27.

The Bulldogs' passing in this game was one of their worst exhibitions. Many passes were intercepted, and many times they shot when they should have passed and passed when they should have shot.

Considering everything, the brand of basketball played and the type of officiating seen, it was a sorry way to end the season.

To the fine Chelsea crowd there, the one bright spot of the game was Dave Crocker who netted 17 points before fouling out early in the last quarter.

There was little doubt in anyone's mind that had Crocker played-out the game Chelsea could have outlasted East Jackson for the win. High-point man for the Trojans was forward Don Gary with 12, and he was ably supported by guard Tom Valentine with nine.

The loss ended Chelsea's season, of course, and made the final season mark a 13-5 record.

Questionnaire Distribution Is Completed

Electors Are Being Asked Opinions on School Building

By DWIGHT GADD

Questionnaires were circulated yesterday to electors in the Chelsea Agriculture Schools district in the poll being conducted as a class project by the Community Civics class of the Chelsea High school. The poll is expected to give members of the Board of Education an idea of the kind of school building which would meet with the approval of a majority of the electors in the district.

Members of the Community Civics class had mapped out the entire district to facilitate distribution of the questionnaires. The questionnaires are to be collected by members of the class today and will be tabulated on Monday, March 13. The results will then be submitted to the Board of Education. If the collection is not completed today it will be concluded tomorrow.

The students working on the project did everything in their power to act in a professional and ethical manner in the distribution and collection of the questionnaires. They made every effort to reach each elector in the district but in a program of this type it is to be expected that some persons entitled to express their preference will be missed.

Qualified electors who did not receive a questionnaire, therefore, may telephone 5181 and one will be provided as soon as possible.

Individuals may mail in their questionnaires if they so desire. They should be mailed in time to reach the school by Monday, March 13.

Red Cross flags and placards were put in place on Monday signifying that the drive is now in progress.

Committee on Scouting Enlists Aid of Community To Revive Local Project

(ED. NOTE: Interest in scouting for Chelsea youths is mounting as is evidenced by the liberal contributions several firms have recently made to help revive the local project. The following article, the first in a series, has been compiled by members of the Kiwanis club's committee on scouting.)

If you are not interested in the future of Chelsea, please do not read this.

Raw materials plus processing equals more useful materials; boys plus scouting program equals more useful citizens. The boys are the raw materials of this generation.

There are 75 boys who should be scouts in Chelsea, but there are only 25 boys enrolled in scouting (at the present time inactive). The scouting program is a proven means of training, or processing, today's boys as tomorrow's leaders and citizens, but the scouting program needs able, adult leaders and funds to carry out this function.

There is one scoutmaster and one assistant scoutmaster in Chelsea; there should be nine scoutmasters and assistant scoutmasters in Chelsea. There are four members of the Scout Executive Board in Chelsea; there should be 30 members.

The boys of Chelsea are not to blame for the lack of a real, vital boy scout troop (or better troops) in Chelsea, but the parents are!

The boys need your help, citizens of Chelsea. A house-to-house campaign would be of nuisance to the community, but if you are interested in the future manhood of Chelsea, then we take this means of enlisting your aid.

I deem it a privilege to live in a country where Boy Scouts are elected president. E. C. Simmonds, of Ypsilanti, was elected vice-president and Oral Bassett, of Milan, is secretary and treasurer.

I am interested in the scouting program and would like to help revive the Boy Scouts of America as an adult leader.

Please clip either or both of the above blanks and mail to Committee for Boy Scouts, c/o Chelsea Kiwanis club, Chelsea, Michigan. Help Crippled Children Walk!

Annual Easter Seal Sale Opens Today for Benefit of State's Crippled Children

Governor G. Mennen Williams yesterday set aside March 9 to April 9 in Michigan as Easter Seal month.

In a proclamation issued from the Executive offices in Lansing he declared that support of the 17th annual Easter Seal drive is of paramount importance to every citizen of the state since it will make possible the continuation and, possibly, the greatly needed expansion of services to the crippled children and adults of the state, given by the Michigan Crippled Children's Society and its county affiliates.

Governor Williams said that "It is the right of every child to have an opportunity for a happy, healthy childhood and an adulthood in which the rewards of effort are self-sustenance and integration in the life of our community. This right can only be exercised by crippled children when they have the best available care and guidance."

"It is our duty and our privilege as citizens of this state, to offer a helping hand to those less fortunate than ourselves in the spirit of warm-hearted brotherliness. The specialized services of rehabilitation, medical and educational aid are being most ably given the crippled of our state by the Crippled Children's Society."

He pointed out that services to the crippled are necessarily costly and becoming more costly and that, since the Easter Seal campaign helps toward support of the services, that all citizens were urged to aid "this drive and thus help our handicapped children find their rightful place in our world."

Fire Destroys Gas Storage Pump House

An auxiliary building of the Michigan Gas Storage company on Pleasant Lake road which was destroyed by fire early Friday morning has already been replaced with a small temporary building and parts of operation of the water pumps is in progress. The building which burned, a one-story metal frame structure, housed the water pumps which pump the water to cool the compressor station engines which, in turn, build up pressure for sending the gas on its way to the Marion gas storage fields near Cadillac.

The compressor station, with its auxiliary building, is a division of the Consumers Power Co. and the Eastern Panhandle Pipeline Co. Carl Settle, of Chelsea, is supervising the station.

The Manchester fire department called about 2:45 a.m. Friday, remained on the scene almost an hour to bring the fire under control.

Mrs. A. Fritz Injured in Two-Car Collision Sunday Afternoon

Advisory Ballot To Guide Council in Future of Park

People's party candidates for village offices will be proposed in the annual election to be held next Monday, March 13, according to present indications. Heading the ticket is Village President M. W. McClure who has held the office the past three years.

Others on the ticket are Lowell Davison, for clerk; David Strieter, treasurer; Joseph D. Dreyer, Charles J. Williams and Anton Nielson, trustees for two years; Edwin Keusch, assessor; James Daniels and Miriam Hale, members of library board for three years and Marjorie Fischer, member of library board for one year.

While the unopposed ticket ordinarily would be the cause of a light vote, it is believed Monday's advisory ballot on the proposed expenditure for Pierce Memorial park will bring voters out.

The advisory ballot asks a "yes" or "no" vote on the following question: "Shall the village expend additional funds, for completion and maintenance of Pierce Memorial park on South Main street, from the general funds of the village which will require an increase in the tax rate of about one-half mill each year?"

The part project, to date, has been carried on with volunteer labor and no regular source of income. Appeals to the village council for funds for the project could not be granted, they claim, because no funds were available.

The advisory ballot is being placed before the electors of the village in an attempt to discover the wishes of the people in regard to raising money for the purpose by levying the one-half mill tax.

County Dog Population Vaccinated

Last minute reports from veterinarians throughout Washtenaw county indicate that a substantial share of the county's dogs were vaccinated for rabies in time to meet the license deadline of March 1. In the vaccination clinics sponsored by the Washtenaw County Veterinarians Medical Association, The County Health Department and the dog ward, approximately 1,600 dogs were vaccinated for rabies.

Distribution of these dogs was as follows: Chelsea, 100; Willow Run, 60; Saline, 110; Ypsilanti, 110; Dexter, 210; Whitmore Lake, 150; North Lake, 48; Manchester, 109; Milan, 86; Ann Arbor, 500; East Ann Arbor, 120.

Reports from veterinarians show that vaccinations in veterinarians' offices have been anywhere from four to five times the number performed by the same veterinarians in clinics. This would indicate that approximately 6,000 dogs had been vaccinated in the offices of veterinarians in addition to the 1,600 in the clinics. The dog population of the county is estimated to be in the neighborhood of 10 to 11 thousand dogs. Some dog owners were able to purchase licenses with vaccination certificates which had not lapsed but will need renewing within a matter of a few months or before another license is issued. This will raise the total for vaccination of dogs still higher.

According to the Washtenaw county health department, this should prevent a rabies epidemic of major proportions in the dogs of this county. There is, of course, the chance that dogs may come in over the border from adjacent counties where rabies controls have not been enforced.

VILLAGE OF CHELSEA AUDIT REPORT

December 31, 1949

To the Honorable, The Village Council,
Village of Chelsea, Michigan

We have examined the balance sheet of the Village of Chelsea as of December 31, 1949 and the related statement of receipts and disbursements for the year then ended. Our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, and accordingly included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances.

In our opinion, the accompanying balance sheet and statement of receipts and disbursements present fairly the financial position of the Village of Chelsea at December 31, 1949, and the results of its operations for the year then ended, in conformity with generally accepted governmental accounting principles applied on a basis consistent with that of the preceding year.

Very truly yours,
Iceman, Johnson & Hoffman.

VILLAGE OF CHELSEA Electric and Water Department AUDIT REPORT

December 31, 1949

To the Honorable, the Village Council,
Village of Chelsea, Michigan.

We have examined the balance sheet of the Electric and Water Department of the Village of Chelsea as of December 31, 1949, and the statement of income and retained earnings for the year then ended. Our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, and accordingly included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances.

We did not confirm accounts receivable by correspondence with the debtors, but satisfied ourselves by other means that the accounts were valid.

In our opinion the accompanying balance sheet and related statement of income and retained earnings present fairly the financial position of the Electric and Water Department of the Village of Chelsea at December 31, 1949, and the results of operations for the year then ended, in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles applied on a basis consistent with that of the preceding year.

Very truly yours,
Iceman, Johnson & Hoffman.
By C. A. Hoffman.

Who's up first at the Jacksons?

Not Bobby, the early riser whose parents would sell him for a nickel at 6 a. m.

Up first—in fact, never retiring at all—is the Jackson's silent and invisible servant.

Natural Gas has been keeping the house warm—has kept the water hot for Dad's morning shower and shave.

Ready for instant action for Mom's quickie breakfast is the clean blue gas flame. Fruit, milk and other food have been safeguarded at appetizing temperatures by "the magic flame that freezes" in the silent gas refrigerator.

Tireless, efficient Natural Gas is the giant helper constantly performing a variety of tasks. Now any day is a good wash day for Mother, regardless of weather, because laundry dries in a jiffy in her new gas automatic dryer. And the Jackson home no longer puts up with the garbage can nuisance. Quickly, easily, all garbage and trash is disposed of the modern, sanitary way in the indoors gas incinerator.

You too are invited to use Natural Gas, the Economy Fuel, for the 6 big jobs in your home. Use it fully—at the most favorable rates—for more comfort and convenience.

BAKING HINT

When greasing baking pans, use 100 per cent fats and oils because they form a continuous film and contain little or no protein as do oleo and butter. Neither do they contain salt which causes baking to stick to the pan.

The Hi-Light

Edited by the Journalism Club of the Chelsea Public School

Report cards were handed out yesterday.

School will be closed on Friday, March 17, for the teachers to attend the County Institute.

The Grade PTA will meet next Wednesday evening in the Agriculture room.

The Junior play, "Seventeenth Summer" will be presented March 24.

Parents Night will be held on March 31.

S. Linton, Registrar, Michigan State College, will be the commencement speaker for this year.

EDITORIAL

"Miss Blank is a terrible crab and an awful teacher too; why, I know more than she does." Haven't many of you heard some of your fellow students voice opinions similar to this one? Maybe you, yourself, have at one time or another said something like this. Remember, no one is perfect, and you can't expect anyone, even a teacher, to know everything.

Even if your teacher doesn't impress you, never think that you know more than he does. He wouldn't be teaching if he weren't much more intelligent than you. The old phrase "Respect Your Elders" isn't out-of-date. All older people should receive your respect. They have had many experiences and can give you valuable information. So you see, you are really doing yourself a favor by listening to them and respecting their advice.

PERSONALITY RECORD

While waiting for the record shop the other day I noticed that some of our students and teachers had made some records and had become famous with them because they fit their personalities so well. Some of these records were:

"Dreamer With a Penny"—Dave Crocker.

"Oh Johnny"—Gert and Wil-

"I'll Build a Bungalow Big Enough For One"—Mr. Chandler.

"Red Head"—Dave Myers and Mr. O'Dell.

"Charley, My Boy"—Bette Wolfe.

"The Best Things In Life Are Free"—Mary Tobin.

"The Things We Did Last Summer"—Pat and Joan.

"Anchors Aweigh"—Jackie Hughes.

"Janie, Dear"—Butch Bauer.

"Dreamers Holiday"—John Popp.

"It Isn't Fair"—Girls' Basketball Team.

"The Wedding Samba"—Mary Ann Schrader.

"Jeanie With The Light Brown Hair"—Lillian.

"Caroline"—Bob Toney.

"Men! What Can You Do About 'Em?"—Lois.

"(S)Marty"—Marilyn.

"Quicksilver"—Seniors.

"Guitar Boogie"—Clara Madge.

"Echoes"—School building (Janitors).

"If I Knew You Were Coming I'd Baked a Cake"—Senior of parties.

"You Can't Be True Dear"—Joan Schneider.

"We (Got) Are A Lovely Bunch of (Cocoa) Nuts"—B. Byers.

"Sentimental Me"—Bud Johnson.

JUNIOR PLAY

Have you planned anything for the evening of March 24? If so, cancel your plans and come to the Junior play. "Seventeenth Summer" is a wonderful comedy. This year the cast is working under difficulties due to the coal shortage, but they aren't letting that stop them. They have already completed the first act and are working on the second. Don't forget you have a date for March 24.

SPONGE WEEK

"Did you ask Joe?" "I'm taking Billy." "I think I'll go with me, I think I'll go with me, I think I'll go with me." Such were the comments heard around school among the girls this week. All events are leading up to the Sponge dance to be held tomorrow night. Girls are to invite the boys, pay the boys, and see that they have a good time. There will be refreshments, decorations and entertainment. The entertainment (it is reported) will be drastically different. Boys, however, are warned not to expect corsages. Sponge Week, a tradition carried on every year by the GAA, has been pretty evident the last few days as the girls have taken the initiative. Monday was "Carry Books Day," Tuesday "Cocoa Day," Wednesday "Movie Day," Thursday "Candy Day," and Friday, will be "Dance Day."

DETROIT PERFORMANCE

The chorus has voted to sing in Detroit at the M.E.A. convention held in the Masonic auditorium next fall. It is customary for the chorus of the school where the chairman teaches to provide an afternoon program of about 20 minutes. This year Miss Fox is chairman, so our high school is to perform. They will sing in the Consistory chapel which seats about 1,500. The program begins at 2 p.m., and consists of speakers Lee Thurston, state superintendent of public instruction, and Dr. Murray Banks, social psychologist. This is a great opportunity and success is wished to the chorus.

CLEAN PLATE CLUB

Nineteen members and guests of the Journalism club enjoyed a delicious pot-luck supper at Miss Fox's house on Feb. 24, before the Dundee game. Before the Dundee game, the guests enjoyed singing and after the supper was finished and the dishes were done, the guests departed, most of them towards the game. Everyone was filled with good food and a merry spirit.

JOHNSEN'S JOURNEY

Mr. Johnsen, superintendent of schools, attended the annual convention of the American Association of School Administrators at Atlantic City. He and 21 other school administrators left Willow Run at 9:15 a.m., Sunday, Feb. 26. They had very good flying weather and after refueling at Charleston, W. Va., arrived in Atlantic City at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Johnsen thought it was the best convention that he has ever attended. More than 15,000 school administrators, 15 principal speakers, Branch Rickey, Senator Wayne Morse of Oregon; Walter Reuther, president of the United Auto Workers; David E. Lilienthal, former chairman of the Atomic Energy Commission; Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt; and many delegates to the United Nations, and many discussions of current educational matters by outstanding persons in education. There were continuous meetings, morning, afternoon and evening until Thursday, March 2. At noon Thursday, Mr. Johnsen and 53 other school men from Michigan left Atlantic City and arrived at Willow Run at 9:45 Thursday afternoon.

Organizations . . .

DEMOCRACY IN ACTION

The Student Council heard a report from Ralph Guenther on pianos. Betty Bradbury will write other stories and obtain more information about pianos.

The Athletic Board will have a banquet at the State Hotel. The week of March 6 through March 10 will be Sponge Week.

ATHLETIC BOARD

In accordance with his fine improvement as a football player, Don Schrader was selected by the coaches to receive a trophy of recognition. The Athletic Board purchased this trophy which was presented by Mr. Stuits at a special assembly held Monday morning. The issuing of this award should inspire the football boys to work harder and thus promote in Chelsea a better football team. Don should be heartily congratulated on his excellent work.

An Athletic pot-luck banquet for boys and girls will be held Tuesday, March 28 at 6 p.m.

Parties . . .

Tommy Dorsey? No. Vaughn Monroe? No. Chelsea Swing Band? Yes! A number of comments heard about the band upon its first public appearance were unfavorable, but the majority were favorable. Members include many local celebrities such as Professor Benjamin, Norman O'Connor, Paul Niehaus, Corky Dreyer, Jana Lou Weinberg and Raymond Stuebach. Altogether, their music very peppy, sentimental and "in the mood," being thus, they made a great hit with the student body. The "Swing Band" has worked hard and long, but it paid off in being successful. We certainly want to hear from them again.

Assemblies . . .

SINGING SESSION

The chorus gave an assembly for grades seven through twelve, during the sixth hour last Tuesday afternoon. At the assembly the chorus sang "One World," "You'll Never Walk Alone," "South American Serenade," "This Is My Country," "Morning, and the Negro spirituals "Stop Dat Whimpering" and "Someone's Calling My Name." After this cavalcade of songs, the student body joined in singing "America The Beautiful" and other favorite songs. The singing came to an abrupt end when the bell sounded and sent everyone to seventh hour classes.

Movies . . .

The Home-Economics girls learned last week what all of those holes and lines in dress patterns stand for when they saw the movie "Pattern Interpretation." They discovered that reading patterns is easy when one can decipher the code.

The future secretaries' class found out what their duties will be in a few years after seeing the movie "Duties of a Secretary." The Chemistry class witnessed the evolution of the oil industry Friday. After being shown the movie they realized what prominent the industry holds in the world today.

Biographies . . .

On the cold, windy day of March 6, 1932, the story of a bundle of joy at the White household. The proud parents named their little girl Nancy Alberta and she has attended the Chelsea school throughout her school career. You may find her in a good mood, while eating macaroni and cheese, playing baseball, discussing the movie "The Stratton Story," or humming "Stardust." While she is engaged in these activities she would probably be wearing a skirt and sweater. Nancy has a steady baby-sitting job after school which keeps her quite busy, but in spite of this she has been a member of Journalism, Chorus and GAA.

One motto Nancy would like quoted is "Do unto others as you would have them do unto you." She also thinks there should be a curfew in Chelsea because it stops disaster.

She has no definite plans for after graduation.

Dan Maroney has been a member of this old world 18 years last Sunday, March 5. During his 18 years Dan's favorite nourishment has been French fries and steak. When he isn't swimming or playing baseball, Dan gets a "big charge" out of a Bud Abbott and Lou Costello movie. Anything comfortable is Dan's favorite costume (won't go into detail on that one). He has been vice-president of the band, secretary of Hi-Y, and class secretary in his freshman year. In addition, he has played baseball, football, and basketball. Dan firmly believes that high school students can study with the radio on, and that Chelsea shouldn't have a curfew. That parents shouldn't choose their children's friends, is another of Dan's opinions.

His plans for a post-graduate world are indefinite.

the community, making the town a better place in which to live and work.

It is significant to note that Michigan already has services available in the Michigan Department of Economic Development, the University of Michigan and Michigan State College whereby communities can obtain assistance in helping themselves to progressive development. The towns which are making an effort to improve themselves are thus the communities which are more apt to attract new industries.

DEATHS

M. L. Burkhart

Munson L. Burkhart, a life-long resident of this vicinity, died Friday afternoon after an illness of two months' duration. Since last Sept. 10, Mr. Burkhart had made his home with his only daughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Wiseman, at 1250 Gunther road.

A son of Aaron and Rebecca Snyder Burkhart, he was born in Chelsea on March 27, 1873. While employed by the Michigan Photo company he met and married his first wife, Hulda A. Feldkamp. They were married in Freedom township by the Rev. J. P. Meister on Jan. 19, 1898. Mrs. Burkhart died on Jan. 30, 1926. On May 8, 1930 he was married in Toledo to Clara Rose Feldkamp who died May 16, 1949.

Mr. Burkhart built a home at 310 East street and, in 1904, built the Burkhart Block at the corner of Park and Main street where he conducted an ice cream business.

After disposing of the Chelsea property he bought a farm on Freer road and built a home there. The farm was later owned by the late A. B. Shutes and is now a part of the Frysinger farm. The house was destroyed by fire some years ago.

Mr. Burkhart went from the Freer road farm to the O. C. Burkhart farm at 12085 US-12 which he sold to Joseph Juergens in 1925. He then built the brick home at 12445 US-12 where he lived until last September when he went to the home of his daughter.

He had spent a number of summers at the Burkhart resort which he formerly owned at Benndi, Minn. The resort still bears the Burkhart name.

Mr. Burkhart was a member of the Congregational church.

Survivors, in addition to the daughter, are three granddaughters and a number of nieces and nephews.

Funeral services were held at the Miller funeral home at 2 p.m. Tuesday with Rev. Wm. H. Skantabury officiating. Burial took place in Oak Grove cemetery.

William Plowe

William Plowe died Tuesday morning at his home, 408 West Middle street, following a short illness. Born in Francisco on Dec. 15, 1871, he was the youngest of a family of six children born to George and Gertrude Falman Plowe and had spent his entire lifetime in this vicinity except for a short time when he lived in Jackson.

He was married to Ruth Phelps in Windsor, Ontario, Canada on Jan. 7, 1909. Following their marriage they lived in Jackson until moving to the Morris Hammond farm at North Francisco, where they lived for a number of years. They came to Chelsea to make their home on Feb. 18, 1928.

Mr. Plowe retired several years ago after being employed by the New York Central railroad.

He was a member of the Ancient Order of Gleaners.

Survivors are his wife; an only daughter, Mrs. Charles Cummings, of Dearborn; two grandchildren; a sister, Mrs. Katherine Kaimbach, and a number of nieces and nephews.

Friends may call at the Miller funeral home where funeral services will be held at 2 o'clock Friday afternoon. Rev. O. W. Morrow is to officiate and burial will take place in Maple Grove cemetery at Sylvan Center.

Ernie Einsele

Ernie Einsele, a resident of North Lake for the past three years, died Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock at the University of Michigan hospital, Ann Arbor. Mr. Einsele was an employee at the U. of M. hospital and was stricken with a heart attack early Tuesday morning while at work.

Funeral services will be held at 2 p.m., Saturday afternoon, at the Van Lebergh funeral home, 1840 East Warren, near Lakeview avenue, in Detroit.
