Millions To Be Spent on 'Mystery Project'
According to HurrellPlans Commission
Asks 'Defense Area'
Class for Sylvan

George D. Hurrell, director of the Washtenaw County Planning Commission, in an interview with representatives of The Standard yesterday, stated it is his belief that the Sylvan township "mystery project" area has gone beyond the rumor stage and that certain county officials have been given information regarding the ultimate use of the property but have been sworn to secrecy until such time as official information is released to the public. He added that he felt the public was entitled to the information but that those who claim to have been informed say they are not empowered to divulge it at this time.

Hurrell did say, however, that because of certain information he has managed to obtain and which he considers fairly accurate, he would say that "millions of dollars will be involved in the project, that a large labor force will be required, and that the entire Chelsea area will be vitally affected regarding housing, schools and roads."

Extensive recreational and commercial development in the Chelsea area will also result, Hurrell believes, and there will be a general improvement of the road pattern. He pointed out that such regional developments necessitate the establishment of some controls or guides for the orderly growth of the community and advocated either township or county zoning as a solution to the problem.

Such zoning, he said, would preclude the possibility of a second

Polio Fund
Given Aid by Past Director

Chelsea's "March of Dimes" campaign for the polio fund this year includes a contribution from former campaign chairman Mrs. Mae C. Baker, who has made her home in Florida for some time. She and her late husband left Chelsea about seven years ago. Her self-explanatory letter reads as follows:

"My dear Mrs. Mohrlock: I wish to have the privilege of being the first one to have my dime placed on the Mile-of-Dimes board in front of the Chelsea bank during the present campaign in Chelsea and am sending you ten dimes. Fourteen years ago when I was chairman of the 'March of Dimes' campaign in Chelsea, I thought up the idea of the Mile-of-Dimes board and Mr. and Mrs. Warren Daniels helped me out on it. The sign painter there whose name escapes me just now, drew on the places for the dimes, I remember. So for old times' sake, please accept my small contribution. I wish it could be at least ten times as much. It is for such a worthy cause. I am getting The Chelsea Standard now, a gift from an old friend, and read that you were chairman again this year. I pray you have a successful campaign as I feel sure you will. I always found the Chelsea people very responsive in all worthwhile campaigns. Sincerely, Mae C. Baker, 1284 N.E. 16th avenue, Fort Lauderdale, Fla."

Mrs. Leigh Palmer is in charge of the Mile-of-Dimes board this year. The board will be in its usual place in front of the Chelsea State Bank Friday and Saturday of this week, Jan. 26 and 27.

Frank Abdon Struck
by Auto Near Toledo

Frank Abdon received serious head injuries when he was struck by a car as he was attempting to clear ice from the windshield of his car while enroute home last Saturday from a visit with relatives in Kentucky.

The accident occurred just outside Toledo and he was taken to a Toledo hospital. Members of his family have visited him at the hospital and Mrs. Abdon and a daughter, Mrs. Floyd Gentner, have spent most of the week with him.

Mr. Abdon's brother, Vorne, had accompanied him on the visit to Kentucky and was in the car at the time of the accident. He was uninjured and returned to his home here.

PULL THE BELT UP TIGHTER
MOBILIZATION

"Willow Village" springing up in the Chelsea community.

Without zoning, Hurrell stated, there is no control over the use of land in the county, the county's building code providing authority only over the types and construction requirements of buildings.

With the thought in mind that the County Planning Commission is the logical group to provide leadership in a project designed to promote adequate housing in the county in the event this expected increase in county population becomes a reality, Earl H. Cross, chairman of the Planning Commission, appointed a committee of three to study what might be needed here for additional housing. The three members of the Planning Commission acting on the committee are J. R. Meadows, of Ann Arbor, and Don Silkworth, of James Glasgow, of Ypsilanti.

The committee's report was to be given at last night's Planning Commission meeting, and it was expected a resolution would be passed to take whatever steps deemed necessary to have this area declared a "defense area" and a "critical housing zone."

The committee's report also was to include results of a study of the Ypsilanti area affected by the increased employment expected at the Kaiser-Frazer plant.

If the Ypsilanti and Sylvan areas are declared "critical defense housing zones" critical materials will be channeled here for building. It is also hoped that results will include some relief from present credit controls thus allowing smaller down payments than now permitted on home purchases.

The action of the Planning Commission in taking the lead in this attempt to arrange for anticipated housing needs in the county, if successful in its aim of having the area declared a "critical defense housing zone," will pave the way for prospective home buyers here to be benefited by the bill now before the Senate and House which provides for insuring mortgages up to 90 percent. If passed, Cross pointed out, the bill would make easier credit available in all critical areas and if the Chelsea and Ypsilanti areas are declared critical defense housing zones, they would be greatly benefited by its provisions.

Negotiations for more of the land adjoining that already part of the tract are reportedly in progress. The Merkel school building was sold last week to John Hanna, buyer of all the project land, according to school officials, and negotiations in regard to the moving of the Red school were still in progress this week.

Rumors have been going around in the same manner as they have for the past two years as to the possible future use of the Sylvan "mystery project" land.

Construction of a six-foot cyclone-type fence, presently under way, has stirred up renewed interest far and wide. Reports have been received by Chelsea residents from relatives in the far West stating that radio commentators on stations there were mentioning the "mystery area." Most persistent of the rumors is that one Chrysler is to build a huge plant here but no confirmation of any of the rumors has ever been officially given.

While executives of nearly every organization contacted have given consistent denials of any connection with the project it is pointed out that no high Chrysler executive has ever gone on record with a flat denial.

Firemen Hold
Second Annual Dinner Event

The second annual firemen's dinner sponsored by the Chelsea Fire Department, was held Saturday evening in the social center of the Methodist church. Guests at the dinner were village firemen, village officials, supervisors of Lima and Sylvan townships, Fire Chief Ben Zahn, of Ann Arbor, Assistant Chief Ray Howard, of Jackson, Red Carr, of the Cassidy Lake department, and wives of firemen and other guests. Approximately 67 were present for the dinner.

John Keuch acted as toastmaster and introduced the guest speaker, Judge Jay H. Payne of Ann Arbor.

Rev. David Bryce of the Methodist church, gave the invocation. Visiting fire chiefs, Chelsea's chief, Ted Balmen, former Chelsea chief, Tom Young, and Village President M. W. McClure, all spoke briefly during the after-dinner program.

Crocker Sets
Record Score
Friday Night

BY DWIGHT GADD

Led by sharp-shooting Dave Crocker, the Bulldogs rewrote the Huron League records last Friday night as they lambasted Ypsilanti, 64-37, here at the Doghouse, making their entrance into league play this year a very impressive affair. It was their tenth straight win of the season.

Although unofficial because the league keeps no official record bureau on statistics, it is believed that two records were set in Friday night's game, and they both certainly were school records here. Dave Crocker's great offensive show of 39 points was 8 better than the 31 scored by Milans' Carl Tschichart here on Jan. 21, 1949, and the team total of 64 points is higher by 8 also, over a 76-point spree by Milan three years ago.

As for the game itself, it was no contest right from the start. Chelsea roared to a 25-5 lead at the quarter and increased it to 42-19 at the half. The Bulldogs rang up 11 straight points in the opening minutes before Roosevelt notched their first point and at the four-minute mark the score stood at 46-1. Crocker's output matched Roosevelt's total score in the first half.

Opening the second half Chelsea put on their usual rush at that point and scored 14 straight points to lead 56-19, and then after Roosevelt got a point, rang up four more to lead 60-20 midway after the quarter. Each team netted four to leave the score at 64-24 as the last quarter opened. In the final eight minutes Chelsea outscored their visitors by only seven points, 20-13, to make the final record, 84-37.

Stan Knickerbocker also had a fine night, scoring 20 points, for runner-up honors to Crocker. Ypsi high man was their guard and captain, Gordon Wallace, with 14. Tomorrow night Chelsea travels to Ann Arbor for a game with U. High's Cubs, rated as one of the favorites for the Huron League crown at the start of the season. Next Tuesday, Jan. 30, they go to Flat Rock for a tilt with the Rams. U. High currently is tied for first place with Milan, each with two wins and no losses in league play.

Last Friday U. High beat a good Lincoln team 39-30 and definitely sets as one of the best the Bulldogs will have to meet.

Tuesday's opponent, Flat Rock, bowed to Milan last Friday, 41-36, after leading until the last quarter, so they can't be regarded lightly.

Again my reminder to the team—keep your feet on the ground, kids. See you at game time!

Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Greenough and J. B. Dalton, of Danville, were Saturday visitors at the Fred Sagor home. Mrs. Dalton, who spent the past month here, returned home with them Saturday evening.

Here on Visit

VERNON CONK, ADAN

Vernon Conk, ADAN, a flight engineer on a PBM flying boat with a Naval Air Patrol Squadron, spending a 30-day leave here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. LaVerne Conk. This is his first visit here in the two years since he finished his boot training. He has been serving overseas for the past year, returning to his base at Blue Island, San Diego, Calif., on Jan. 5, exactly a year after leaving for overseas duty.

He has been on 24 missions during his tour in the China Sea, the Sea of Japan, and in Korean waters where his flying boat assisted in evacuating troops and in rescue work.

One of the principal duties of flying boats of the type he serves on is to drop depth charges to blow up mines which menace the safe passage of ships.

After leaving the States in January, 1950, Vernon's ship went to Japan. After serving there six months they were on their return to their Blue Island base and had reached Honolulu when they were called back because of the Korean crisis.

With him on his leave here are his wife and nine-month-old son.

Lansing Contractor
Low Bidder on Bridge

Fred Price, of Lansing, was the low bidder on the North Main street bridge construction job, according to information received here yesterday. The bids were opened in Lansing last Thursday, January 18. Price's bid was $46,489.95.

The bid was to be presented before the state administrative board which has to approve it before it is awarded.

Flourine in Water Supply
Is Discussed

The addition of fluorine to public water systems to prevent tooth decay was discussed at a meeting of city village, and other officials, concerned with water supply and held at the County Road Commissioner's Office, 415 West Washington street, Ann Arbor, last week Wednesday evening.

Dr. Philip Jay of the School of Dentistry of the University of Michigan, a national authority on the subject of water fluoridation, addressed the group and acted as a resource person for questions regarding results obtained in other areas where fluorine has been added to drinking water on an experimental basis.

County Health Department officials who sponsored the meeting believe that the results of experiments conducted at Grand Rapids and several other communities warrant early consideration of a program of water fluoridation to prevent tooth decay.

Representatives of Ann Arbor, Chelsea, Milan, Salsine, Willow Village and Ypsilanti township attended the meeting. Those present to represent Chelsea were Homer Nixon, Electric Light and Water department superintendent, and Charles J. Williams, village councilman.

In addition to Dr. Jay, speakers who told of the advantages of the fluorine in water supplies as pertaining to prevention of tooth decay were T. L. Vander Velde of the Michigan Department of Health, and Dr. Otto K. Engelke, city-county health director.

Reports of the experiment in adding fluorine to water in Grand Rapids over a 5-year period reportedly showed that children 5 to 7 years of age showed a marked decrease in tooth decay.

Figures quoted at the meeting showed that Chelsea and Ypsilanti are located in townships that have the lowest fluorine content water of any in the county.

Central Fibre Begins
Sprinkler Installation

The Central Fibre Products company has begun installation of an automatic sprinkler system for fire protection throughout its buildings on North Main street. The contract with a Detroit company doing the installation work was signed several weeks ago and the office part of the building has already been equipped with sprinkler outfits which automatically turn on when a certain degree of heat is reached. Automatic valves are turned on by the heat, itself.

Harold Jones, vice-president and general manager of the firm, said that installation will not be entirely completed for several months. The work was begun at this time so that necessary excavation for water mains can be completed before the North Main street paving is begun.

An automobile accident which occurred about 6:20 p.m. Wednesday, Jan. 17, at Sibley road and M-92, resulted in heavy damage to the front ends of both cars involved. As reported by local police, Arnold Lehman and Garnett Weir were the drivers of the two cars involved.

Thursday, Mrs. Jeanette Collins, of 12391 Trinkle road, driving for raising the millage, was carried by a vote of 378 "yes" and 360 "no," with 16 ballots voided. To carry, both proposals would have to be approved.

Vandals Steal
All Four Wheels
from Parked Car

All four wheels of a 1950 Pontiac car belonging to Mrs. Amanda Schiller were stolen from the car some time Sunday night, according to a report turned in by Police Officer George Doe.

The locked car had been parked in front of her home on South street and was evidently pushed around the corner to a spot in front of the Ernest Eltmier residence on Grant street where the theft was discovered early Monday morning.

The car had been blocked up with bricks picked up in a yard across the street from the scene of the theft.

Mrs. Schiller has had a run of bad luck in the last few weeks. A son, Elwyn, of near Brooklyn, had to have his right hand amputated two weeks ago after getting caught in a corn picker, and another son, Duane, was ill and confined to bed when the wheels and tires of the car were stolen.

RAILROAD ENGINEERS HERE
Railroad engineers representing the New York Central Railroad are scheduled to meet with representatives of the Village Council at 10 a.m. today (Thursday) for an inspection of all railroad crossings in the village. Village officials have been pressing for action in regard to remedying the condition of the crossings about which they have been receiving complaints for some time. It is hoped today's inspection tour will result in improvement of the crossings in the very near future.

Board of Education
Fears Half-Day
Sessions Will Result

The school bond issue lost by only one vote at Tuesday's election. Of the 688 votes cast on Proposal No. 11, providing for the issuance of $258,000 in bonds, there were 340 "yes" and 341 "no." Seven votes were voided.

Proposal No. 1, which provided for raising the millage, was carried by a vote of 378 "yes" and 360 "no," with 16 ballots voided. To carry, both proposals would have to be approved.

This is the third time in 15 months that a school bond issue has been defeated in Chelsea. School board officials, faced with the problem of providing classroom space for an ever-increasing number of children, were at a loss to say how they would meet the situation when they learned the results of the election Tuesday evening. Their only alternative would seem to be half-day sessions for all of the overcrowded grades, they said.

Report from Washington

By Congressman George Meader

(Editor's Note: This week begins what we hope will be a regular weekly feature column written by the Honorable George Meader, Representative in Congress from the Second Michigan District. Mr. Meader began his first term in Congress Jan. 1, 1951 and will endeavor to give us first-hand reports on the Washington scene.)

Washington, D. C., Jan. 24.—One of the most significant events in the House of Representatives of the past week was the adoption of the bill to authorize the construction and conversion of naval vessels estimated to cost two billion dollars. The bill was approved by the House by a vote of 365 to 0. It was the second measure on which I participated in a roll call vote.

There are two features about the adoption of this bill and the accompanying discussion on the floor of the House which I think will be of interest to those of you who would like to get a little more detailed and accurate picture of the manner in which the House of Representatives goes about its work of passing on national policies.

The first is that the bill authorizes the construction of a new aircraft carrier of approximately 60,000 tons. This proposal was endorsed unanimously by the Army, Navy and Air Force, the Joint Chiefs of Staff, and the President. Shows Costly Mistake.

Details of the specifications and capabilities of this carrier were not disclosed to the House for security reasons. It seems quite evident, however, that the new carrier will be substantially the same as the 65,000 ton carrier USS United States, authorized in 1948 by the 80th Congress but cancelled by the then Secretary of Defense Louis Johnson on April 23, 1949.

You will recall the controversy at that time which resulted in the resignation of Secretary of the Navy Sullivan on April 26, 1949. Secretary Sullivan charged that Secretary Johnson directed him to cancel the construction contract for the USS United States arbitrarily and without consultation or adequate inquiry as to the desirability of such action.

Now that a substitute carrier has been approved by the House, the decision by Secretary Johnson would seem to have been recognized by the administration as a serious mistake. The cancellation settlement with the contractor cost the government $2,718,672. Estimates by some members of the House Armed Services committee, however, are that the taxpayers actually lost nearly $20,000,000 in material and labor. Furthermore, the USS United States was expected to have cost $180,000,000, while the new carrier is estimated at $235,000,000, an increase of $45,000,000 for what is thought to be substantially the same ship. This increase is ascribed to inflation during the interval.

Perhaps more serious than the financial loss is the fact that the new carrier is not expected to be completed before three and one-half years. It is claimed the country has lost from one to two and one-half years of use of this carrier by cancellation of the earlier contract.

The second interesting feature of the House action on this new Naval bill was the revelation that the Congress previously had authorized without knowing it was doing so, the giving away to other countries of ships in the active United States Navy, and now is faced with replacing those ships.

This was revealed by Chairman Vinson of the House Armed Services committee, who declared on the House floor that two cruisers each had been given to Argentina, Brazil and Chile.

'None of Us Knew'
And, in making his announcement, Mr. Vinson told the House: "None of us knew what we were doing."

The new Naval bill specifically prohibits the transfer of naval vessels without the consent of the Congress.

It was a shock to me to learn that the Congress could adopt legislation of such grave consequence as the giving away of Navy ships in these critical times, and not know what it was doing.

It is apparent, however, that so tremendous is the volume of problems before the Congress that it must rely heavily upon committees to provide accurate, dependable information and recommendations. No single Congressman could possibly satisfy himself by his own efforts, as to the facts of all the matters he must pass upon.

This instance of failure to prepare an important piece of legislation emphatically demonstrates that if Congress is to do its job well its committees must be adequately staffed to obtain and consider all of the facts.

Teenager Gets Appetite Back; Thanks Hadacol
HADACOL Supplies Vitamins B₁, B₂, Nicotin and Iron Which Her System Lacked.

According to Sara Loraine Beck, Box 253, Coker, Alabama, when a person is only 15 years old and feels terrible, can't eat or sleep the way they should, it's mighty bad. That is the way Loraine says she used to feel, but, of course, before she started taking HADACOL. Loraine found that taking HADACOL helped her system overcome deficiencies in Vitamins B₁, B₂, Nicotin and Iron, which HADACOL contains.

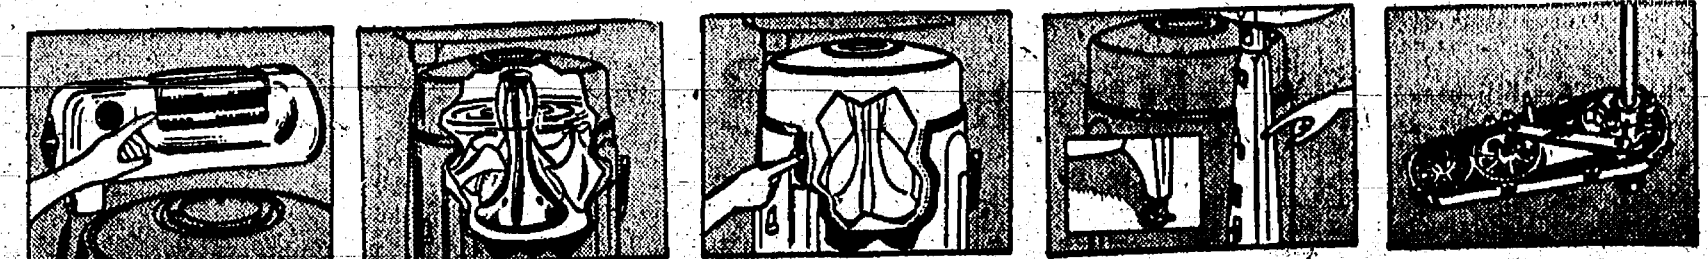

Here is Loraine Beck's own statement: "I was un-down, sick and skinny, and weighed only 90 pounds before I used HADACOL. I would not eat because I had no appetite. Now I weigh 123 pounds and have an appetite. I feel a lot better. I have been taking HADACOL 10 months and am still taking it. am 18 years old. HADACOL has done me lots of good."

POWER WAY

... to quality hay

These four fast-moving steps capture the fragrant leafiness, the color and protein of quality hay in weather-resistant rolled bales.

STRADDLE MOWING — Engine power spaces CA or WD rear wheels to straddle the swath, so they no longer trample the hay.

ROTARY TEDDING — Simply shift the reel to reverse on the A-C power rake. Rotary tedding shortens drying time. It lifts damp hay out of the stubble, creates swath or windrow.

TWIN WINDROWING — Lay two normal-size windrows side by side for the big-capacity ROTO-BALER. Speeds up baling and cuts field travel in half.

ROLL BALING — ROTO-BALER rolls the hay into bales that save more leaves ... protect from sudden storms. Let us show you the machines that make this system possible.

ROTO-BALER is an Allis-Chalmers trade-mark.

Standard equipment, accessories and trim. Illustrations are subject to change without notice.

Your first eye-smacking look at the line of lovelies pictured here tells you that they've got what it takes in visual charm.

But the fellow who said a picture speaks louder than a thousand words wasn't talking about these superbly able 1951 Buicks.

Sure, they're smart to look at—smart in style and smart in dress.

But they're also smartly powered—smartly engineered—smartly priced. And it would take a book to describe in full their deep-down goodness.

What's been done for '51 is to take the best automobiles that ever bore the Buick name—and top them.

Come, look them over, and you'll see what we mean.

There's the SPECIAL which can accurately be titled "the newest car in the world"—new in structure, new in power, new in dimensions, new in thrift—and potent in price appeal.

There's the SUPER—that looks and is a smart new edition of its "best seller" forbear.

Then there's the ROADMASTER—that coddles your anatomy on luxurious new fabrics and cloud-soft cushions—pampers your pride with its lordly bearing—shoots a delicious tingle right up your spine by the exuberance of its power and action.

We could go on and on. This is the car that "breathes through its nose." This is the car that sports a brand-new front-end styling. This is the car with new high-visibility instrument dials, more easily read at night. This is the car with glare-and-heat-reducing glass and a host of other news-making features you can't afford to miss.

So your No. 1 date this week and is with your Buick dealer. It won't take you long to conclude that he's offering the smartest buys of the year.

50,742 NEW Freight Cars

IT'S exciting to watch the parade of railroad emblems when a freight rolls by. You see cars whose "home ports" may be San Francisco or Bangor, or these days, you'll also see many a bright new car sporting a big N. Y. C. and the oval mark of New York Central.

THESE NEW CARS are among the 50,742 Central has been ordering since 1945. They represent a $252,000,000 private investment in the public interest. An investment it took faith to make in the face of Central's net profits averaging less than 1% over the past five years.

CENTRAL DIDN'T WAIT for record post-war production or a national emergency to create a sure demand. It started to build up its freight fleet the minute steel became available after the war. And your Railroad has gone on ordering an average of 10,000 cars a year.

THAT'S WHY TODAY new cars are ready to help America mobilize. Ready, as well, to bring you the things you buy or use—or speed your town's products to market. Yes, freight is one more way your Railroad is a living part of your town. And that's the CENTRAL IDEA!

SURPRISE BIRTHDAY PARTY

A surprise birthday party honored Mrs. William Luick at her home Saturday evening. While the celebration was especially for Mrs. Luick, several other members of the family group received congratulations and best wishes, their birthdays occurring during the month, also. These are

Dr. E. J. Blackmore, a son-in-law of the Luicks, Susan Peterson, a granddaughter, Mrs. Richard King, a daughter and Mrs. Alma Bahnmiller, a sister of Mrs. Luick. The party arrangements were made by Mr. Luick and the three daughters in the family, Mrs. Carl Peterson, Mrs. E. J. Blackmore and Mrs. Ralph King, all of Battle Creek.

In addition to the daughters and their families, guests present were Robert Toney and Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Kaserer of Lima township, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Gross and Mrs. Emanuel Lambarth and her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lambarth, of Saline, Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Kaercher and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Gelsenius, of Ann Arbor, and Mrs. Alma Bahnmiller, of Chelsea.

Cards were the evening's entertainment and were followed by refreshments served by the three Luick daughters. Two beautifully decorated birthday cakes served at the party were baked by Mrs. Blackmore and Mrs. King.

The Blackmores, Petersons and Kings remained to spend the weekend. Mrs. Peterson and children had spent the entire previous week here, also.

Mrs. Luick received several gifts at Saturday's party.

Miss Esther Landwehr, of Saline, spent Sunday afternoon and evening here with cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Wright.

DEATHSMrs. Ella A. Beutler

Mrs. Ella Almeda Beutler died Tuesday morning at the Colonial Manor Convalescent Home at the age of 92 years. She had been in failing health the past year and was taken to the Convalescent Home just a week before her death. She had made her home for 18 years with a nephew, the late Homer Lehman, at his farm, 3363 Sylvan road, in Sharon township.

The third oldest of a family of seven children, she was born June 23, 1858, on the old Peckins farm, now known as the Loefler farm on Waters road. When she was nine years old the family moved to the farm on Chelsea-Manchester road, now owned by Fred Kennedy. Her parents were George and Cornelia Kendall Peckins.

She was married April 17, 1890, to Godfrey Beutler and they made their home on the present Roy Davidson farm on Grass Lake road in Sharon township. They lived on the same farm their entire married life. Following Mr. Beutler's death Dec. 13, 1909, she and her daughter, Anna, lived there until coming to Chelsea in 1911. They went to live at the Homer Lehman farm in 1932.

Mrs. Beutler had been a member of the Methodist church of North Sharon for many years before joining the Chelsea Methodist church in 1911. She was a charter member of the women's organization of the Chelsea church, now known as the WSCS.

Survivors are the daughter, Anna C., at home, a sister, Mrs. Nettie Chadwick, of Jackson, seven nieces, five nephews and a number of great-nieces and great-nephews.

Prayer services are to be held at the Miller Funeral Home at 1:30 p.m. Friday afternoon, followed by funeral services at the Methodist church at 2 o'clock. Rev. John Bunney of Manchester, is to officiate and will be assisted by Rev. David Bryce, pastor of the Chelsea church. Burial will be in Vermont cemetery.

Friends may call at the funeral home until the time of the prayer services.

X-Ray Unit Delayed by Lack of Funds

A reduction in Federal Funds made available to the Michigan Department of Health has forced the withdrawal of all but two of the mobile X-ray units operated by the State Health Department in the state of Michigan to detect tuberculosis. The industrial and school survey scheduled for Washtenaw County will be made, but the unit will not reach the county until January 28. Local Health Department officials are preparing the schedule of visits to factories and schools to meet the revised schedule.

On Monday of this week School Superintendent Albert C. Johnson was notified that the mobile X-ray unit will be at the Chelsea schools March 1. When the program was first announced several weeks ago it was believed the mobile unit would be here before the middle of February.
