The Chelsea High School Chorus will sing at the opening of the annual county teachers' institute being held in the Raskham building in Ann Arbor tomorrow.

Others from Chelsea who have a part in the day's program are Superintendent of Schools Albert C. Johnson, who is to preside at part of the morning session, and Miss Mabel Fox, Chelsea High school teacher, who is to give a report during the Michigan Education Association meeting in the afternoon.

Julius W. Haab, Washtenaw county superintendent of schools, will preside when the meeting opens at 9:30 a.m. Rev. Walter S. Press, pastor of Bethlehem Evangelical and Reformed church, Ann Arbor, is to give the invocation. Miss Mabel Fox, Chelsea High school teacher, will give a report during the Michigan Education Association meeting in the afternoon.

Supt. Johnson will introduce the morning speakers, Lawrence E. Vredevoe, director of the Bureau of School Services and associate professor of Secondary Education at the University of Michigan, and Hon. James R. Brackey, Jr., Washenaw county circuit judge. Prof. Vredevoe's topic will be "The Middle Century Teacher," and Judge Brackey's "What Constitutes Security."

And Mrs. Ruth Linton, teacher in the Stone school, will speak of the coming MEA centennial in Detroit.

The final speaker at the MEA meeting will be Thomas A. Northey, of Lansing, legal representative of the MEA in this area, who will talk about MEA services.

The convocation of students in the University School of Education will be held at 2:10 in the Raskham lecture hall. Marvin L. Niehaus, vice-president of the University, will preside, and the scheduled speaker is Virgil M. Rogers, superintendent of schools in Battle Creek and president of the American Association of School Administrators. Crippled Children To Benefit from Easter Seal Sales

The annual Easter Seal drive for the benefit of crippled children and adults will get underway in Chelsea and vicinity with the mailing of the sheets of seals the first of the week.

The drive in Chelsea is sponsored by the local Kiwanis club. Paul F. Niehaus is president of the Washtenaw county chapter of the Michigan Society for Crippled Children and Adults, Inc.

Each letter sent out will contain 100 of the seals and an addressed return envelope in which the free-will contributions may be enclosed for mailing. Any contribution, large or small, will be welcomed.

Niehaus stated he pointed out that 91.7 cents of every dollar contributed will remain in Michigan to benefit Michigan crippled children and adults.

"Because crippled children's societies throughout the nation are united in a great federation known as the National Society for Crippled Children and Adults, it is possible to attack problems on a national basis; to institute coordinated nationwide programs of care, treatment and research; to enlist the highest level professional cooperation," Niehaus said.

Direct and effective help to 228,000 crippled children and adults was made possible last year throughout the country by the proceeds from Easter seals, according to Niehaus.

of Library Board

Miss Mabel Fox was re-elected president of the Chelsea Public Library board at its meeting Tuesday evening. Also re-elected were Mrs. Marjorie Fischer, vice-president; Mrs. Miriam Hale, secretary; and James Danieles, treasurer.

Reports of the year's activities included the statement, "The Library Board of 1951-52 may well review with pride the accomplishments of the year." The music service has been improved by the generous contribution of a radio-phonograph and more than 80 excellent recordings.

The lecture course was more than usually successful, and the memorial shelf has shown a steady and healthy growth, while the continued interest and support of the Friends of the Library have been expressed in the gifts of a case for the memorial shelf, ventilating fans and other articles.

Victor F. Moeckel, life-long resident of Waterloo, died unexpectedly Friday morning at Mercy hospital, Jackson. He had undergone surgery at the hospital on March 5, and had improved steadily, and was expected to return to his home Saturday or Sunday. Death was attributed to an embolism.

Mr. Moeckel was born in Waterloo, July 16, 1884, a son of John and Marie Moeckel. He was confirmed at the St. Jacobs Lutheran church near Waterloo, in 1897.

Club To Observe 27th Birthday Next Monday Evening

Farmers' Night of the Chelsea Kiwanis club, held Monday evening in the social center of the Methodist church, was attended by 120 Kiwanians and guests.

The guest speaker was Dr. Charles Aaronheim, a German-born physician and psychiatrist, now a resident of Jackson. His talk was based on the topic, "Behind the Veil of Magic and Hypnotism," during which he demonstrated various tricks of so-called magic which he uses in his work as a means of fighting against patients' superstitions and fears.

Dr. Aaronheim practiced in the Elgin, Ill., state hospital since coming to the United States a few years ago.

Carol Ann Mayer, accompanied on the piano by her mother, Mrs. Carl Mayer, sang three numbers, "Dance Me Loose," "In the Cool, Cool, Cool of the Evening," and "When My Sugar Walks Down the Street."

Group singing was led by Paul P. Niehaus, with Mrs. Niehaus at the piano.

It was announced that the 28th annual Kiwanis birthday party and ladies' night will be held next Monday night.

Sixth Division Lt.-Gov. Howard Beadle, of Ypsilanti, will be present and John Hoey, of Detroit, past Lt.-Gov. of the District, will be the toastmaster.

The principal speaker is to be Rev. Robert Richards, of the Newburgh Community church, whose topic will be "Frosting on the Cake."

Elmhurst Choir To Give Concert at Bethel Church

The Elmhurst College chapel choir will give a concert Thursday, March 27, at 8 p.m., in Bethel Evangelical and Reformed church, in Freedom township, according to an announcement made by the pastor of the church, Rev. T. W. Menzel. People of the community are invited to attend.

This is the annual spring tour of the choir which comes from the college in Elmhurst, Ill. The tour will take the 40 young people to points in western Michigan, Ann Arbor, Detroit and points south of Detroit. The choir is directed by T. Former Chelsea Youth Killed in Korean Action

Pfc. Raymond Barnes, who had previously been reported missing in action in Korea, was killed Jan. 28, according to information received by his relatives. He had been in Korea, since December, with the 45th Infantry Division.

Pfc. Barnes was the son of Mrs. Fred Adams, 408 Burr street, Jackson, and the late Vincent Barnes. The family resided in Chelsea when he was a boy, moving from here to Jackson. His father died some years ago. Before entering the service Jan. 8, 1951, he had been employed at Argus Cameras, Inc., in Ann Arbor, and made his home with his cousin, Vincent Swickard, also a former Chelsea resident.

Pfc. Barnes' mother is the former Margaret Clark, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Clark. The family home for many years was on South Main street here.

Pfc. Barnes was 23 years old. Survivors, in addition to his mother, are three sisters, Mrs. Virginia Joslin and Ruth Barnes, both of Jackson, and Mrs. Mildred Trumble, of Parma; a brother, James Barnes, and a half-sister and a half-brother, Lucille and Edward J. Adams, of Jackson.

Judge Brakey To Address PTA

Judge James R. Brakey, Jr., will be the speaker at the Junior-Senior High School PTA meeting next Monday, March 24, at 8 p.m. The meeting will be held at Chelsea High school.

The High school chorus will sing two numbers.

Mrs. John Fischer, Red Cross drive chairman, stated early this week that the present drive has so far netted $650 of the $1,600 quota set for the community this year.

Only two block workers however, had completed their calls and turned in their reports to be included in this figure. The block workers are the volunteers who are responsible for contacting every home here during the solicitation for funds.

With the campaign in its third week, the sum collected represents only about 40 per cent of the goal to be reached and persons planning to contribute are asked to do so as soon as possible.

This is Mrs. Fischer's third year as chairman of the annual drive for Red Cross funds here. She said she felt sure the remainder of the quota would be raised.

Mrs. Leigh Palmer, chairman of the Chelsea branch of the Washtenaw county chapter of the American Red Cross the past six years, shares Mrs. Fischer's hope that the drive may again go "over the top" as it has in past years.

Mrs. Palmer's duties as Chelsea branch chairman include recommending chairmen for all Red Cross activities in the local community, and in this capacity she secured Mrs. Fischer to take over the fund campaigns the past three years. Other services of the Red Cross

Junior Class Play To Be Presented Friday Evening

The Junior class play, "Finders Creepers," will be presented in the high school gymnasium at 8:15 p.m. tomorrow, Friday, March 21.

What happens when two young boys visit a mortuary will be shown as Jack Hummel portrays Wilber Maxwell, a pocket-sized vermin of the atomic bomb, and his friend, Hercules Nelson, whose uncle is a mortician, is played by Richard Eisele.

Of course it wouldn't be complete if there weren't girls to add to the troubles of the boys. Celeste Nelson, Hercules' cousin, is very much attracted by Wilber. Phyllis Vogel plays this part. Her friend, Nina Quigley, a very cute and sweet little girl, is played by Dorothy Speer.

The trouble-maker of the family, Celeste's little sister, Frankie, is played by Yvonne Hoffman.

The one stabilizing factor in the entire household is Aunt Mary, portrayed by Lydia White. Her husband, Bob Nelson, the jovial mortician, is played by Bob Heller.

The "old ball of fire," a lovely lady of 80, known as Granny, is played by Norma Jean Dull.

The man more concerned about Granny than about the attempt made on his life is Jason Quigley, Richard Schneider.

The winning smile and cordial disposition belongs to Dr. Brown, played by Norman Feldkamp.

Mr. Quigley's middle-aged sister, Madeline, with her steel gaze and austere ways, is played by Judy Hough.

Harry Schuster, the family lawyer, with his nervous actions and suspicions, is played by Otto Kueger.

The old-fashioned forlorn maid, Daphne, who is a woman of few words, is played by Donna Fowler. Her admirer, Claude the caretaker, who does all the talking, is Franklin Sweeney.

The three-act mystery comedy is under the direction of Miss Marilyn Nanny, speech instructor in the Chelsea school.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Sager and Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Lindauer attended the rehearsal at Victor Moeckel at Waterloo, Monday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry London of Toledo, Ohio, were week-end guests of Mrs. Rose Chase and Mrs. Hulda Montague. Mrs. London is the sister of Mrs. Montague.

H. Sorensen Named President of Local Commerce Chamber

James Hendley Tells Group of Road Project Plans

Hugh E. Sorensen, president of the Dexter Machine Products company, succeeds Howard Flintoft as president of the Chelsea Chamber of Commerce. He was elected at the meeting held Tuesday evening in St. Mary's hall. Flintoft had held the office for two terms.

William K. Biness, of the Bliss Elevator company, was elected vice-president to succeed Roland Spaulding; David Strieter is the new secretary, succeeding Clarke Parker; and Waldo Kusterer was re-elected treasurer.

James C. Hendley, chairman of the Washtenaw county Road Commission, was the speaker at the meeting.

Guests included Waterloo Project Director Crane, who has assisted Chamber of Commerce committees in planning work on the two Chelsea parks, and Howard G. Miller, superintendent-manager for the Washtenaw county Road Commission. Also at the meeting were members of the Village Council, Village President Anton Nielsen, and Supervisors Elba Gage, Homer Stoffer and Elmer Mayer of Sylvan, Lyndon and Sharon townships, respectively.

Hendley, in his talk entitled "Living in a Nation On Wheels," brought members up-to-date on the new legislation regarding road building programs, and quoted a number of interesting statistics. He mentioned the great difference in costs of materials at the 1940 level and at the 1952 level.

He stressed the fact that unless super-highways are built to handle the heavy present-day traffic, the overflow will pour onto the county and township roads that could not hold up under the load.

Hendley also pointed out the importance of complying with the

Chelsea Spring Branch of Local 437 Elects Officers

He will conduct the 120-voiced chorus in "Grant Me True Courage, Lord" by J. S. Bach, "O Eyes of My Beloved," by Orlando di Lasso, and "Love Me Truly, Shepherdess," by Jacques LeFebvre.

All members of the Chelsea High school chorus will participate in this event.

GEORGE KRUMM DIES WEDNESDAY MORNING

George Krumm died Wednesday morning at Veterans hospital in Darbarn, after several weeks' illness. Funeral arrangements are being made by the Miller Funeral Home.

Warn Rural Residents To Be Prepared for Impassable Roads

With approximately three feet of frost in the roadbed of all gravel roads in the county, Howard G. Minier, superintendent-manager for the Washtenaw county Road Commission, advises rural residents to be prepared with extra fuel and food supplies in case the frost all leaves the ground at once.

If prolonged rain coupled with a warm spell should occur, Minier said, the spring road break-up is apt to be so severe that many residents living along gravel roads would face isolation for a time. Being prepared with extra supplies on hand will minimize the inconvenience of being cut off from sources of supply until the roads would again become passable.

Funeral To Be Friday for Mrs. Walling

Funeral services for Mrs. Martha Winifred Walling will be held Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Carl Keen Funeral Home in Dexter, with Rev. Dalton M. Bishop officiating. Burial will be in Forest Hill cemetery, Ann Arbor. Friends may call at the funeral home.

Mrs. Walling and the late Mr. Walling lived in Chelsea when he served as superintendent of schools here.

HONESTY REWARDED—Mary Margaret Dull, a tenth-grade pupil at Chelsea High school, didn't hesitate when she found a billfold on Main street Saturday afternoon. She brought it directly to The Standard office, seeking help in locating the owner. It was soon discovered that the billfold, containing a large sum in cash, was the property of Mrs. Rose Chase who was no happy to recover it that she presented Mary Margaret with a liberal cash reward as our photographer snapped the above picture. Monday, after school, Mrs. Chase further showed her appreciation by giving Mary Margaret a gift of a permanent wave, the first she had ever had. Mary Margaret makes her home with the Dennis Guinan family on Waterloo road.

important factors in preventing road damage and destruction, especially during the spring break-up season.

During the business session at the meeting, annual reports of officers were given, and Roland Spaulding, chairman of the North Main street park project committee, said there will be "lots of action on the North Main street parkside soon."

New officers elected at the meeting will assume office at the April meeting.

It Makes Your Dollars Feel Important too

THE Buick pictured here can match price tags with a lot of cars smaller in size and horsepower and win.

But that only gives you a hint as to what a whale of a buy it is.

Like costlier Buicks, it has the wide-open view of a one-piece windshield.

Like costlier Buicks, it has the gleaming distinction of sweepspear styling.

Like costlier Buicks, it has smart new fabrics and door trim.

Like all other Buicks, it has the extra safety of new, long-lasting Wide-Band brakes.

Like all other Buicks, it has the sure-footed, road-hugging, even-keeled steadiness of the Million Dollar Ride—a combination of 15 engineering features including a husky X-braced frame, end-throw and side-roll stabilizers, Hi-Poised engine mountings, Permi-Firm steering and soft coil springs for every wheel.

And like all other Buicks, it has a power-packed Fireball 8 Engine—a high-compression valve-in-head that gets extra wallop, extra mileage from every gallon of gasoline.

So we think that you'll feel mighty-important bossing around this smart-stepping smoothie. And when you check the price we're asking against the field—we think your dollars are going to feel mighty important in buying power too.

Hadn't you better look into this soon?
