A Service That Keeps Faith
With The American People

Higher average incomes have, through the years, resulted in higher standards of living. And the funeral profession has steadily kept pace with all advancement.

The notable improvements made in both the extent and quality of service and merchandise have not been extravagantly priced.

On the contrary, as is shown by our wide range of prices, every family, regardless of its circumstances, may arrange for a funeral of highest standards at a price it can afford to pay.

sales tax in August for a total of $19,295 million.

• If you found it confusing to choose between Proposals 2 and 3 in the polling booth Tuesday, just hang on to your hats!

Things will be much more confusing if and when Michigan has a Constitutional convention. A Governmental theory is, at best, never a simple issue. It's bad enough when administered in a dose as small as we took Tuesday. When a whole constitution is up for debate . . . there will be plenty of Michiganans who'll seriously consider giving the two peninsulas back to the Chippewas.

• The "Frankenmuth Plan" is spreading farther and farther from the town that chicken dinners made famous.

The plan sets up a game sanctuary in every section of Frankenmuth township.

Farmers voluntarily post certain suitable areas of their farms and forego the right to hunt on that part of their own property. The result is that hunting pressure is relieved on a local basis and game and birds are not driven far out of the area.

Local conservation clubs police the plan with pressure of public opinion the only penalty. "In the past five years there hasn't been a single violation," says Clyde Elrich, a veteran sportsman, conservationist and originator of the plan.

• Have you checked your bank balance lately, Dad? Michigan retailers predict that the Christmas shopping season will start earlier this year than ever before.

"We have to start our promotions in self defense," says an upstate merchant. "The big mail-order houses get their holiday catalogs out earlier every year and we have to protect our local business."

Remember not so many years ago when FDR moved up Thanksgiving so the Yuletide shopping season could be a week longer?

• Michigan ski-lift proprietors report that what used to be an off-season summer has proved not so warm-weather tourists who got an invigorating ride and a chance to see scenery they'd miss if they stuck to the highway. Skiing and winter sports are expected to bring almost $25 million into Michigan cash registers this season. There will be over a quarter of a million ski enthusiasts visiting the state.

• Want to rent a farm? Average cash rental in Michigan is $3.97 per acre.

So says the U. S. Bureau of the Census. The average rented farm is 73.8 acres and a total of 3,870 million Michigan acres are being rented.

A national columnist who punts on the proper use of words are properly known as Michigan-ianians. So far at least most Michiganians call themselves Michiganians although Michiganites is becoming a more common term.

• With the proposed Straits of Mackinac bridge so close to reality that announcement of the actual start of construction is expected any week, Michigan will have another tourist attraction that should lure visitors from all over the country.

• Familiar headlines you can expect to see often before the legislature convenes in January: "Financial Problems Plague Lansing."

Editors could save their printers' time by storing that type; it's the same before every legislative session.

Local governments, too, have their financial dilemmas. So watch for more action along the lines the city of Saginaw followed last year.

There an income-profits tax was passed that levied 1 per cent on all payrolls in the city. One object was to tax the "daylight citizen," the person who lives in the suburbs, works in the city and gets all the benefits of municipal services without paying for them.

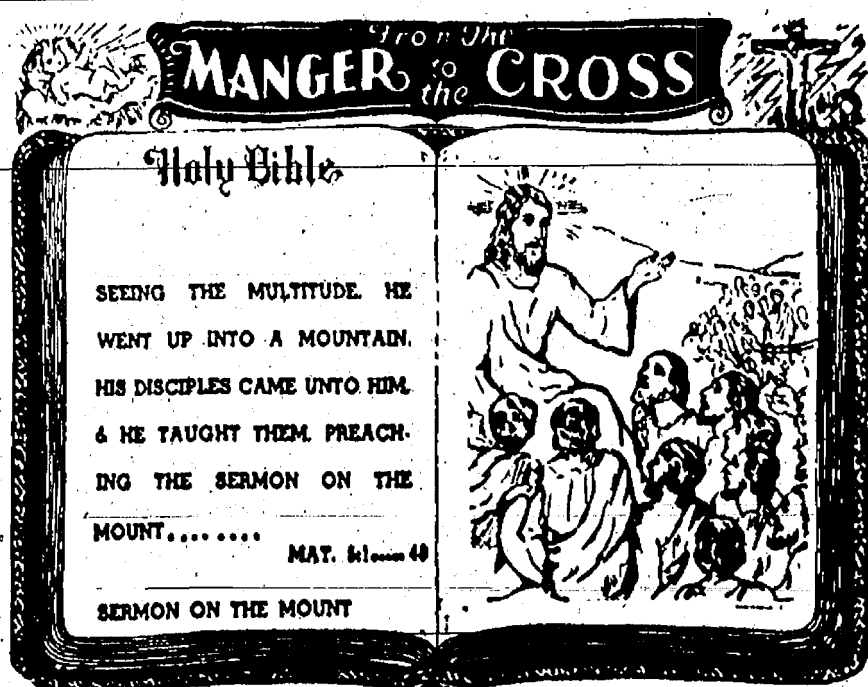

The tax was voided on a technicality of ballot by the State Supreme Court.

Other cities, watching the case intently, can be expected to benefit from Saginaw's error as they lay plans for similar taxes.

Four Severely Injured in Auto-Truck Crash
on Ford Road Sunday

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hochrein and their daughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Smith, Jr., were painfully injured when their car was involved in a collision on Ford road at Morrison road at 6:34 p.m. Sunday. The three Smith children, Robert, 4, Tommy, 2, and Richard, 1, also riding in the car, were not injured.

Most severely hurt were the two men, Smith receiving face and ear cuts which required approximately 100 stitches. The impact of the collision had forced his head through the windshield.

Hochrein's injuries include severe bruises of the left leg and right hand and a hole the size of a golf ball gouged in the top of his head. Mrs. Hochrein and her daughter, both suffered right leg bruises.

According to reports of the accident by those involved, the Hochrein car, driven by Hochrein, himself, was headed east when it was struck by a panel truck driven by Robert Judd of Battle Creek, which was headed in the opposite direction.

The truck had reportedly slid onto the shoulder of the road, and in his attempts to return to the pavement, the driver lost control of the vehicle and it shot across the highway and crashed into the Hochrein car. The owner of the panel truck, Peter Naumchik, of Detroit, was riding inside of the truck.

The Hochrein car was damaged beyond repair.

Although it was not raining at the time of the crash, the pavement was still wet from the shower which occurred earlier.

All the injured were taken to Wayne County General hospital and later released. There was some delay in the arrival of the ambulance which struck a man as it was speeding to the scene.

It was at first believed that four-year-old Robert was severely injured because he was covered with blood after being thrown into the front seat. He had been standing in the back of the car between the two seats. The blood was from his father's and grandfather's injuries.

Coal's Contribution
A recent U. S. Geological Survey report on coal resources says: "The contribution of coal to the total production of energy in this country must inevitably be enlarged to include some of the needs now served by petroleum and natural gas."

Six Washtenaw County Women Attend
National Home Demonstration Meeting

Mrs. Kathleen Hatt was one of six women from the county who attended the National Home Demonstration Council meeting in Raleigh, N. C., last week. Sessions began with a vesper service Sunday, Oct. 26, and continued through Wednesday, Oct. 29.

Gov. Kerr Scott welcomed the 1,875 women present, representing all states in the Union with the exception of Washington, Oregon and California on the west coast and several on the east coast where home demonstration work has not yet been instituted.

Representatives were also present from Puerto Rico as well as two students from Germany and one from Formosa.

Reports were given by the presidents of all state Home Demonstration Councils and Michigan's report was gratifying to the Michigan representatives who heard it. The state ranks in the upper brackets in their contributions toward scholarships and in the Home Demonstration plot in the Peace Garden, a 12-acre memorial garden in Washington, National Park. The garden is located on the border with part of it in North Dakota and part in Manitoba. The project commemorates the many years of peace between Canada and the United States and the lack of need for armed guards at the border between the two countries.

Another project mentioned at the national meeting is the 4-H club center in Washington which needs support for its maintenance. The garden is located on the border with part of it in North Dakota and part in Manitoba. The project commemorates the many years of peace between Canada and the United States and the lack of need for armed guards at the border between the two countries.

resumed the second half all fired up, Chelsea's right end Bob Bertke returned the second half kickoff to the Milan 45-yard line. With Richard Bareis hitting between tackles, Don Proctor running reverses, and Alfred Knickerbocker sweeping the ends, Chelsea worked the ball to the Milan 7-yard line. With first down and goal to go, Denny Murphy dropped back and tossed a pass to Bob Bertke for a Chelsea touchdown. At this point, Chelsea led 12-7. Richard Bareis attempted to run the extra point but was stopped short of the goal. The third period ended without any more scoring and Chelsea led 12-7.

Milan took over in the fourth period on their own 40-yard line and began to march toward the Chelsea goal. With first down on the Chelsea 8-yard line and goal to go, three running plays netted Milan two yards. With fourth down and still goal to go, Don Ing again passed to Burton Bordinie who caught the ball on the 4-yard line and carried three Chelsea tacklers into the end zone with him for the winning touchdown. Perry Russell was stopped short of the goal in his attempted run for the extra point. At this point the score was 13-12 in favor of Milan. Milan's nine man line stopped Chelsea's running attack cold in the last three minutes of play.

The fine defensive play of Otto Riegger and Jim Bauer stood out for Chelsea.

Chelsea's overall record thus far is three victories and four defeats. The Bulldogs have won two and lost four in the Huron League. Flat Rock has sewed up the Huron League championship for the season of 1952.

Tomorrow night Chelsea will battle University High of Ann Arbor at 7:30 p.m. on Wines Field. Chelsea must win this one to avoid ending up tied for the cellar position in the Huron League.

Chelsea and U-High have played a total of seven games since U-High started competing in football in the Huron League in 1945. Chelsea has scored six victories to U-High's one.

Our Neighbors

South Lyon—The city is building a new pump house at Waterworks park on Detroit street. This was done so the pump and electrical controls could be put above ground.—South Lyon Herald.

Stockbridge—Friends and neighbors gave a helping hand to William Shultz, Stockbridge, Tuesday afternoon when they gathered at his farm to help harvest his crop of corn. Three compactors worked in the field while four men kept the wagons unloaded as they arrived at the barn.

This fall, only a few days after Mr. Shultz had had his right arm amputated at the shoulder, his father was struck by a car and killed. However, Bill's courage has been indomitable. He intends to stay on the farm. When asked what he intended to do, he replied: "Farming is my business. What else can I do? I can still drive a tractor and put milkers on a cow. I'm sticking on the farm."—Stockbridge Brief-Sun.

Manchester—The Emanuel Evangelical and Reformed church commemorated its 90th anniversary on Sunday, Nov. 2 and Thursday, Nov. 6, with special services on those dates. A brochure has been published containing the history of the church, articles on various organizations, and 34 pictures of the buildings, groups and various people.

On Thursday evening a fellowship program is planned at 8 p.m. with the Rev. Victor Schoen, Cincinnati, Ohio, as the speaker. He is the son of the late Rev. A. A. Schoen, a former pastor at the Emanuel church.—Manchester Enterprise.

Ambled over to Bob's Restaurant Tuesday for lunch and noticed a new sign "Left Ham Sandwich, 40¢... Right Ham Sandwich, 30¢."

"Why the sign, Bob?" I asked. "Don't tell me you believe hogs scratch more with their right leg than with their left—so the left ham is more tender?"

"No," he says, "I don't take any stock in it. But, some people have ordered those 'left' sandwiches. When I explain to them that there's nothing to that fable, that the sign is just a business-getter, and I've only one price, they enjoy a regular, old fashioned, plain ham sandwich all the more!"

From where I sit, stories like "right" hams being tougher than "left" ones are with us because some people get ideas into their head and hang onto them for dear life. It's like those who think an adult-like myself hasn't the right to a glass of beer with my supper.

I say let's keep our opinions free from being "sandwiched-in" by misinformation.

WHERE WILL IT END?

Never before have Michigan fields and forests seen such invasions of hunters. Never before have our lakes and streams been so whipped with the cast of fishing lines. Each year brings a big jump in the sale of fishing and hunting licenses. Where will it end, and what effect will it have on fishing and hunting in Michigan Outdoors?

The answer, according to the experts, is less fish and game per person, while the total take remains about the same. This, however, presents a few problems in game and fish management. Naturally you must expect to see 100 fishermen on a given lake will take twice as many fish as 50, providing their abilities are about equal, and the supply of fish remains adequate.

Supply Unstable

Eventually, however, the harvest will level off to a point where each of the anglers will have to be content with a smaller catch, because the supply is definitely not inexhaustible. The same will be true in the hunting field, and it is possible that the deer and turkey populations will have to take stock of the situation and reduce our bag limits on some fish and game.

There's certainly no cause for alarm, nor should there be any great regret among true sportsmen when and if this happens. In the final analysis the meat we bring home is far less important than the wholesome, healthful experience of finding relaxation in Michigan Outdoors.

New Horizons

The process of making a living in modern America is a hectic one, draining energy at a high rate from the average man. If he's a sportsman he's discovered relief from the pressures of everyday life in his contact with the outdoors. He knows that a day on his favorite lake, or afield with dog and gun, erases the worries that beset him—strengthen him to do a better job in life. New horizons appear. New appreciations of nature at work behind the petty annoyances of the workaday world.

No man ever spent a day fishing or hunting, but what he was the better for it. And the killing of fish or game has little or nothing to do with this effect. So, in the years to come if we face the possibility of fewer fish in the creek, maybe one pheasant a day instead of two for the hunter, it isn't going to hurt most of us. We'll still have all of Michigan Outdoors—and there's plenty of that to go around!

Fashion Craze

At the height of the fashion craze for bird of paradise feathers during the eighties and nineties of the last century, some 50,000 New Guinea plumes were annually shipped abroad. So active were the hunters that it was feared the beautiful birds would become extinct. By the 1920's, therefore, the trade was banned, and today many of the once-decimated species are again becoming plentiful.

Police Cooperating with State Groups in Safety Campaign

Chief George Doe today announced that Chelsea is cooperating in the Fall Pedestrian Protection program sponsored by the State Safety Commission, the Michigan Association of Chiefs of Police, the Michigan Sheriff's Association, the Automobile Club of Michigan and many other organizations interested in safety.

According to Chief Doe, the official slogan for the safety campaign will be "Be Alert for Wacky Walkers." This points out that in at least half of the pedestrian accidents the pedestrian was more at fault than the motorist.

"By calling to the attention of motorists the amusing antics of Wacky Walkers which are dangerous, it is hoped that fewer pedestrians will be hit," the Chief said.
In the Fall of the year it gets dark earlier and more pedestrians are harder to see as people walk and drive to work and back. The special hazard is that the man on foot is hard to see and he doesn't know it.

In conclusion the Chief said, "The privilege of owning a driver's license is a serious thing. It carries with it the special responsibility of watching out for pedestrians. Any motorist who runs down a man on foot raises the question as to whether the motorist was a safe enough driver to have been given a driver's license."
