Band Plans Follies Show In December

The Senior Marching Band will present a half-time show entitled "Heart of the West" for the "High Game" tomorrow night. Formation depicting a night, a boot and spur, a doggie head and a ranch house will be made.

The climax of the show will come with all members joining in for an old-fashioned Virginia Reel. Also, the band will present one number honoring the date of the members of football team. Matthew Brown will again lead the band, and David Kniesly will announce the program.

Mrs. Dillman Wahl, Mrs. Walter Schrader, and Mrs. Thomas Harris acted as the uniform committee before and after last week's game. Plans are underway for a Band Follies program on Dec. 6. This will be a variety type program featuring both local adult and student talent. It is hoped that there will be a program of 20 selected acts and several numbers from both the Junior and Senior bands. Proceeds will be used for needed instruments and equipment.

Dennis Stoffer, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Stoffer, Gary and Denis White, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Chester White, and Barry Visel, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Visel, have all advanced from the Beginner's Band to the Grade Band last week by virtue of their passing the Grade Band test. All are fifth graders and all are cornetists.

Brauninger Will Address GOP Women's Club

A general meeting of the Republican Women's club of Chelsea, open to all men and women of the community, will be held Monday evening at 8 o'clock in South Elementary school.

The principal speaker is to be Walter J. Brauninger. His topic is to be "The CIO and the Republican Party."

Brauninger is well informed on the subject, being a member of Local 553, UAW-CIO, and employed at the American Branch and Machine company in Ann Arbor. He has been a member of the Washtenaw County Republican Labor Committee since its organization in 1955 and is its vice-president. He served on the state Republican campaign committee for President Eisenhower and is said to be the first rank and file CIO member ever to serve on such a committee.

Mrs. G. L. Staffan, president of the Republican Women's club, will preside at the meeting and Mrs. Maxwell G. Sweet, program chairman, who was instrumental in securing Brauninger as the evening's speaker, will introduce him.

Senior Girl Scouts will be presenting the colors at the meeting. Mrs. Walter Mohrlock is chairman of the club's membership committee.

Prizes Awarded at Hartown Rollcade Halloween Party

Prizewinners at a Halloween party held Thursday evening at Hartown Rollcade were Shirley Harrington of Jackson, for having the prettiest costume; Richard Paul of Manchester, whose costume was judged the funniest; and Flora Seyfried of Ann Arbor for the most original.

Lowell Bailey was awarded the door prize for the evening. Judges were Roy Mitchell of Manchester, and Betty Morgott and Rose Ann Hankard.

Flag Dedication Set at County Juvenile Home

Washtenaw County Probate Judge John W. Conlan has announced plans for the dedication of an American flag and a flag pole at the Juvenile Home on Platt road. Ceremonies will be held there at 2:30 p.m. Monday, Nov. 11.

The flag and flag pole were contributed by several county organizations and by friends and members of the family of the late Probate Judge Jay H. Payne.

Circuit Judge James R. Breakey, Jr., will present the flag and flag pole on behalf of the donors, and the gift will be accepted for the county by Salem Township Supervisor William Scheel, chairman of the Washtenaw County Board of Supervisors.

Representatives of the American Legion will conduct the flag raising ceremony and the program will be concluded with a brief address by Judge Conlan.

The late Judge Payne served as probate judge for Washtenaw county from Jan. 1, 1943, until his death in 1956. He was instrumental in promoting the building of the Juvenile Home.

The dedication ceremony will be open to the public.

No Federal Aid Now for Sewage Plant

Priority ratings for Federal Aid grants for sewage treatment plant construction recently released show that Chelsea is 28th in a list of 32 applicants, with only 15 applications to be approved. This dashes hopes of the Village Council for early construction of adequate sewage facilities for the increasing needs of this area.

A federal grant of $60,000 would have been approximately one-fourth of the cost, with the remainder planned to be raised by means of a local bond issue.

Kiwanians Plan To Attend Saline Club Charter Night

A group of Chelsea Kiwanians and their wives will be attending the Charter Night meeting of the Saline Kiwanis club Monday evening at 7 o'clock, according to an announcement made at the local club meeting last Monday.

Also announced was a local Kiwanis club board meeting scheduled for last night at the home of Robert Greenough.

Guests at Monday's meeting were Armand Hewitt and J. P. Schusser of Ann Arbor, Henry M. Walner of Ypsilanti, Burr E. Bishop of Jackson, Spreck Simmons of Milan, and Julian Groomer of Elgin, Ill.

Cavanaugh Ski Association Planning Winter Activities

Cavanaugh Ski Association, in preparation for another year's activities, will hold a meeting at 4 p.m. Sunday at the home of Mrs. Emma Honbaum, 40 Cavanaugh Lake. The Ski Association group is inviting additional family applications for membership in order to increase its summer program as well as to institute tentative plans for a program of winter activities.

The association is considering sponsorship of a ski meet next summer, according to the association's president, David Atkinson. He said interested people of the community are invited to attend Sunday's meeting.

Chest Fund Near Goal at 95% Mark

Yesterday, with final reports still incomplete, the Chelsea Community Chest campaign had reached the 95 per cent mark with the total contributions and pledges amounting to more than $12,700.

Residential solicitation netted $1,380, according to the report of Mrs. Norbert Merkel, chairman of that division, while clubs and organizations contributed a total of $422, according to a final report by Mrs. E. W. Eaton, the chairman of the committee. These two divisions are complete.

Incomplete returns of other divisions are $8,200 for industry; $2,050 for business; $500, rural residential; and $200, schools.

Rev. Rusten Called To Fill Congl. Pulpit

The Congregational church has officially called the Rev. Philip Rusten to serve as minister and he will assume his post here the first Sunday in December.

The Rev. Rusten conducted services in the local church last Sunday and at a brief business meeting following the service the church council elected him to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of the Rev. Thomas Toy.

A coffee hour was held and the Rev. and Mrs. Rusten and children had an opportunity to meet members of the congregation.

The Rev. Rusten has served as minister of education at Pilgrim Congregational church in Lansing. He was selected for the local post by the pastoral committee of the church who had opportunities to hear him speak on several occasions.

Until the new pastor takes over his duties, the Rev. Loren Campbell of Ann Arbor and Ypsilanti, will serve as supply pastor.

New choir director at the Congregational church is Charles Clausen, a postgraduate student at the University of Michigan.

New Telephone Directories Are Being Distributed

The Michigan Bell Telephone Company began delivering new telephone directories for Chelsea Wednesday.

Again this year a page is reserved in the front of each directory for writing in fire and police telephone numbers. Nicholas J. Eukon, manager for Michigan Bell, suggested that subscribers fill in these important numbers so they would be readily available in case of an emergency.

Prakken also pointed out that last year's directories will be picked up at the time the new books are delivered. If customers have stored important papers in their directories, they should be certain to remove them and avoid the risk of losing them, he said.

The number of directories to be delivered will be 3,500. This is an increase of more than 500 over last year's quantity.

Manchester listings are also included in the new directory.

Barn Destroyed by Fire Wednesday

About 11 a.m. yesterday, Chelsea firemen were called to the Maurice Hoffman property on Pierce street where a large barn at the rear of the lot was destroyed by fire. The building and contents, which included a quantity of furniture, were destroyed.

Mr. and Mrs. James Liebeck and daughter, Suzanne, spent the week-end in the northern part of the state and visit.

CHS HOMECOMING—Chelsea High school's first homecoming in more than 20 years, held Friday in connection with the football game with Lincoln Consolidated was a most successful social event although the gridders lost their contest, 26-6. The upper photograph shows a scene at the homecoming dance in the gymnasium, following the game, and the lower photo shows the homecoming queen candidates from the various classes and the one representing the football team. Chosen as the homecoming queen and crowned by Co-Captains John Eisenbeler and Dennis Schumm at the football field, was Sandra Tanner (center), representing the junior class. Others in the picture are, from left, Karen McAllister, who represented the football squad; Janie Morgan, the senior class candidate; Carol Reddemann, for the freshmen; and Linda Fisher, the candidate chosen by the sophomore class. Judges in the homecoming queen contest were James Smith and Edward Kuivinen, students at the University of Michigan, and Mrs. Elaine Beach, a North Elementary school teacher.

This Deer Just Couldn't Wait Any Longer . . .

Monday noon, a large eight-point buck came to an untimely end, (just before the deer hunting season, too) when he plunged headlong into a car driven by Charles Gadsberry of Cavanaugh Lake road.

Gadsberry, who is employed at Federal Screw Works, was driving his car along Waterloo road near Rush road when the deer dashed into it. Extensive damage to the car resulted.

Mr. and Mrs. James Liebeck and daughter, Suzanne, spent the week-end in the northern part of the state and visit.

State-Owned Land in County Open to Sunday Hunting

Conservation Officer Donley Boyer said this week that there appears to be some misunderstanding regarding Sunday hunting on state-owned land. He pointed out that all state land in Washtenaw county is open to Sunday hunting, both for the small game season and for the coming deer hunting season. He hastened to add, however, that hunters must "ask the farmer first" if they wish to hunt or even to cross private lands anywhere in the county. Failure to request and receive permission to enter privately owned property constitutes trespassing, Boyer said.

Conservation Officer Boyer said yesterday that the Ypsilanti and Saline areas of the county have had the heaviest concentration of small game hunters since the season opened Oct. 21, hunting in the Waterloo Area being lighter than usual, to date.

Violations have been about the normal number for this time of year, Boyer said. He reported only seven violations to date in this area. Three of the violations were listed as carrying a loaded gun in a car and three for hunting for hen pheasants. The seventh misdemeanor was given as hunting without a license.

Hunting kill has been held down because of the fact that pheasants and squirrels are adapting themselves to take advantage of plentiful cover instead of permitting themselves to be flushed out where hunters can see them. Pheasants, especially, seem to be learning that they are safer on the ground than if they take flight. Cover includes lots of corn still standing in fields.

Boyer said deer hunting should be good in this area when the season opens next week-end. The deer population in the Waterloo area is believed larger than ever before.

Co-Op Nursery Plans Open House

Chelsea Co-Operative Nursery is holding open house next Tuesday and Thursday morning, from 9:15 until 10:15, for residents of the community and for relatives of children already enrolled in the nursery. Children, accompanied by their parents, are especially invited, it was announced.

Mothers will be present to answer any questions visitors might have and application for enrollment will be available.

Attend Annual Convention Of Postmasters Association

Chelsea Postmaster Carl Mayer and Mrs. Mayer returned home by plane Sunday from Los Angeles, Calif., after attending the annual convention of the National Association of Postmasters. Approximately 2,500 postmasters and their wives were present for the affair, held from Sunday, Oct. 27, through Thursday, Oct. 31. The Mayors left here Oct. 20 and boarded a special convention-bound train at Chicago. Side trips enroute to Los Angeles included visits to the Grand Canyon, Las Vegas, Yosemite National Park and San Francisco.

There are now 18 children who attend the nursery under the guidance of the teacher, Mrs. Raymond Schairer.

The nursery is located on the third floor of the Municipal building.

Mrs. Walter Trinklo, who had been a patient for some time at St. Joseph's Mercy hospital, Ann Arbor, was released Friday and is spending this week at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbert Zogelman, in Ann Arbor. She plans to return to her home here tomorrow.

Area's Oldest Resident Observes 102nd Birthday

Friday, Nov. 1, Mrs. Anna Hoag observed her 102nd birthday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Staffan where she has been making her home for a number of years. Mrs. Hoag has been confined to bed for more than a year.

She was remembered with many cards and messages from friends and relatives and from organizations with which she is affiliated. She formerly served for many years as secretary of Olive Chapter No. 108, OES.

Halloween Prizewinners Are Listed

Ideal weather prevailed Thursday evening for the annual Kiwanis-sponsored Halloween party for youngsters of the community. Costumes of all kinds, many of outstanding quality, made the job of judging for the selection of prizewinners a difficult one. Acting as judges for the Halloween parade costumes as well as for the window painting contest were two members of the school faculty, Mrs. Gwen LaGoe and Miss Flora Schuster, and two members of the Jaycees Auxiliary, Mrs. Larry Gahagan and Mrs. J. V. Burg, II.

Costumes judged as prizewinners were awarded as follows: Neatest—John Mann, first, $3, for his yellow cat costume; Sandra Gieske, second, $2, for her candle girl outfit; and Patty Schiller, third, $1, as a harlequin lady.

In the "spookiest" division—Don Dickelman won first prize, $3, for his bat man outfit; Roy Lange, second place, $2, cannibal outfit; and John Bowling, third place, $1, for his moon man costume.

The most original group winners were Ann Marsh, robot man, first prize, $3; Patty Guest, moon rocket, second, $2; and Lynn Howell, hero, third, $1.

Judged to be most typical of Halloween and awarded first, second and third prizes of $3, $2, and $1, respectively, were Bill Bowling as a headless horseman; Roy Holliday as a skeleton; and Sue Geer as a witch.

Winners in the window painting contests were announced last week by grades only. Seventh graders who painted the first place winner in the category (on Anderson's south window) are Rayma Smith, Patsy Mepians, Sandy Sharrard, Don Wilson, Dudley Holmes and Donald Brooks.

Seventh grade second prize painting (on Michigan Consolidated Gas company window) was painted by Joe Horster, Bob Riemenschneider, Patty Carter, Chris Tarasow, Dorothy DeFant and Bill Light.

Schneider's store window was the location of the third prize winner in the seventh grade group. Young painters included Margie Bauer, Sandra Mayne, Patricia Craddock and Sandra Van Hain.

The painting on Rowe Plumbing Shop, selected for honorable mention, was painted by seventh graders of St. Mary's school—Edna Carr, Catherine Howe, Judy Kaden and Sally Hoffman.

Eighth grade prizewinning windows were as follows: first prize, $3, Schable's, painted by Sharon Allan, Brenda Wireman, Karen Seltzer, Ava McDougal, and Alice Eschbach; second prize, $2, Chelsea Hardware, painted by St. Mary's eighth graders—Margo Murphy, Judy Weinkauff, James Cantilli and Gary Berger; and third prize, Merkel's store, painted by this Klinger, Kathleen Tuttle, Susan O'Neill and Rita Ramp.

The third category in window painting included fourth, fifth and sixth graders and was considered an outstanding selection of entries. A fourth place prize was awarded in this category, the winning group contributing the $1 prize money to the Chelsea Community Chest. Painters in the group were Barry Visel, Earl DeMint, Dennis Stofor, Jane Moore and Jane Griffith, fifth graders in Mrs. Douglas Lange's class. Their painting was on the north window at Gamble's.

Jack Good's sixth grade group won first place in the category. The painting, on Gamble's south window, was put on by Beverly Hartman, Susan Lett, David Cary, Jill Reed, Penny Boyer and Nancy Reilly. First prize was $4 in this group.

Those who painted the second prize picture in this category were David Winans, Douglas Sprague, Laurel Hanson and Cheryl Worner who are in Mrs. Bobby J. J. Valentine's class. Their painting was on Frigid Products' window.

The third prize, won by Mrs. Francis Smyser's class and credited with participation by the whole class, was on Anderson's north window.

Dad's Night At Friday's Grid Contest

Fathers of Varsity Team Members To Be Honored at Half-Time

Last Friday night, before a large homecoming crowd, Chelsea High gridders went down to defeat at the hands of the Lincoln Rail splitters, 20-6.

Lincoln opened the scoring late in the first quarter when Dick Valentine, a chorn in the Bulldogs' side all night, broke away for a 55-yard TD gallop. Chuck Lindstrom kicked the extra point.

In the second period Lincoln hit pay dirt on a 38-yard dash by Al Adiska. Lindstrom again added the extra point.

Late in the second period the Bulldogs started to move for the first time and drove to Lincoln's 20 before time ran out in the half.

In the second half, after Don Woods fell on a Lincoln fumble on their 40, the Bulldogs moved to the Lincoln 10 where a fourth down fumble lost the ball.

Moments later Odie Richardson recovered another fumble on the Lincoln 20. After picking up a first down on the 10, Chelsea lost the ball on downs. Two plays later Valentine swung wide and raced down the side lines 82 yards to score.

The Bulldogs got that one back early in the fourth quarter as Quarterback Dennis Schumm hit Halfback Odie Richardson on a perfect pass play that covered 68 yards. Richardson was stopped on the extra point attempt.

Lincoln scored the final TD on a two-yard pass from Quarterback Tom Hudge to End Bob Hicks.

In defeat Odie Richardson stood out for the Bulldogs as he led the team in tackles with 15, and in ground gaining as he picked up 77 yards in the game.

The loss eliminated the Bulldogs' title chances as league-leading Flat Rock defeated U-High 7-0, Milan edged Roosevelt, 7-6, and Dundee defeated Saline, 14-6.

This week's game with Roosevelt is of extreme importance if the Bulldogs are to finish high in the Huron League standings. A loss could dump them into the second division while a victory could mean a second place finish.

Fathers of varsity football players will be honored at Friday's game.

Next Wednesday, Nov. 13, two 93-year-old residents of the Methodist Home who share the same birth date, Nov. 23, will be among the group of nine people who will be honored in observance of their birthdays. This will be the monthly birthday party for all those whose birthdays occur during November.

Miss Rose Colby, resident of the Home for 24 years, will be 90 years old Nov. 20. She came from the Strathmore Methodist church of Detroit. She is the oldest resident of the Home in point of years that she has lived there.

Miss Rosina Haffelbauer who, with her husband, entered the Home May 31, 1957, from Flint, and Archie McCloy, formerly of Detroit, who joined the Home family Jan. 14, 1957, are celebrating their birthdays at the Home for the first time.

Mrs. Mary Wood, Mrs. Dorothy Hano and Miss Mabel Kutz are the remaining members of the group being honored Wednesday.

Figures of Pilgrims and of Indians in canoes, together with cornucopias of fruit and candy, are used to carry out the Thanksgiving month decoration theme.

Firemen Called

Tuesday, Oct. 29, a small building on the Mabel Hoppe estate property 18345 Garvey road, used as living quarters by Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Smith, was destroyed by fire of undetermined origin.

Chelsea firemen were called to the scene.

Firemen were also called out Monday evening, Oct. 28, when a refrigerator motor burned out at 507 Lane street.

Church Statistics Show Growth of Assemblies of God

Springfield, Mo.—Statistics released in the 1958 Yearbook of American Churches indicate the Assemblies of God is the 10th largest denomination in the United States.

The revised church rank also placed the denomination eighth in number of ministers, ninth in church, 28th in church membership, seventh in Sunday School workers and teachers, and eighth in number of Sunday Schools. The Assemblies of God is the fifth largest missionary denomination in the world and stands first in number of foreign Bible Schools. Included in the national release of statistics was the Chelsea Assembly of God, 116 South Main St., local congregation of the denomination. According to the Reverend H. J. Meppelink, local pastor, the church has a current enrollment of 65.

Growth of the Assemblies of God can be credited to an active home missions and Sunday School program, according to the Rev. H. Meppelink. The denomination has averaged opening one church a day for the past 6 years.

Churches of the Assemblies of God number 7,929 in the U. S. and some 8,747 abroad, membership of the American Assemblies of God is approximately 471,116.

Although the number of churches placed the denomination ninth, membershipwise it is 28th. However, many of the churches have no roll and others place little emphasis on membership, the Rev. Meppelink stated.

The Sunday School enrollment of the Assemblies of God is more representative of the size of the denomination, the Rev. Meppelink stated. As of 1956 Sunday Schools had 878,080 members and 88,296 workers and teachers. A drive is underway to boost enrollment to one million by 1960.

Statistics released by the 1958 Yearbook of American Churches were compiled by the National Council of Churches in Christ. The Assemblies of God is a member of the National Association of Evangelicals, and does not hold membership in the National Council of Churches.

KNOW YOUR PTA

The primary theme of this administration is "The Family and the Community." Each Shapes the Other—the PTA Serves Both. Never before have we been so aware of this interlocking relationship; and to serve children and youth the PTA must serve both effectively.

Since the family shapes community, PTA can provide education, family life programs, strengthen and organize pre-school and high school PTA's, foster moral and spiritual values, encourage family recreation and understanding and inform parents about community services.

Communities do shape families! The PTA Action Program promotes community education, health and safety, social services, civic responsibility and recreational and cultural resources.

This is a brief picture of the primary theme of the National Congress. What is our picture? As family and community let's look around us! In our PTA we can determine our greatest needs, then as a group we can study and act on them. Thus we too will promote the national program for today's and tomorrow's citizens!

Western Washtenaw Council of PTA will hold its second meeting of the year, here at Chelsea, 8 p.m. Nov. 7 at South Elementary school.

This group of credit librarians with Miss Weise and Mrs. Russell McLaughlin visited the general library, the law library, and the business administration library in Ann Arbor, Tuesday morning. More than two million books are in these University of Michigan Libraries. They then took a bus tour of the U. of M. campus. They went to the north campus where atomic research is being carried on. They also visited the University of Michigan Medical Center and the athletic plant.
In Chelsea, several hundred new books have been sent to the North Elementary School Library for boys and girls of that school. The North School now has a nice library of its own. Many of these books are easy to read, and are for children in the lower elementary grades.
The Future Homemakers of America hold a "record hop" on Oct. 26 with the disc jockey Dave Pringle from WPAG in Ann Arbor. Refreshments were served and entertainment consisted of two dance students from the "A-Murray" dance studios in Ann Arbor.
The FHA plans on using this money to send a girl (it chosen from Chelsea) to the state and national meetings.
The Future Nurses of America Constitution was read to the club members at their meeting held Oct. 25. The constitution was drawn up by Diane Gary, Barbara Maynard, Linda Fisher, and Lillie Worden. The constitution was unanimously approved.
Journalism club has decided to postpone the next issue of "The Bulldog Barks" for one week to include the homecoming festivities, making the next publication dates Nov. 12, Nov. 26 and Dec. 17.
Journalism was also happy to have the Student Council approve its plans for an all-high dance, bobby sox variety, on Nov. 15. Refreshments, decorations, are under control of competent committees directed by President Ellen Keusch.
The members of the Girls' Athletic Association had their second fun night on Monday, Nov. 4. After a dinner in the Home Ec. room of hot dogs, potato chips, ice cream, and cake, they all went out to the roller rink to skate.
Shop I boys are working on a unit of woodworking and plastics. Shop II boys are working on wood-working projects also. Gary Dault is making an eight-foot skimmer or a boat, and Ron Warren is building a fifteen-foot surfboard.
Mechanical drawing students have been drawing floor plans and elevations for their "dream houses." They are now completing or have completed a cut-away view. The drawing students are working on a "cover" for a book which will hold all the drawings.
Art students are learning that water color is a field of many aspects. Since it is so broad a branch of art, the classes have spent several weeks studying water color, and will continue the study indefinitely. Experiments with various combinations of ink and crayon with water color have been conducted. Students are learning methods of "dry" and "wet" painting using these combinations.
Last week a very interesting movie was seen on the life of Van Gogh.
Latin club, under the leadership of President Dan Mayers and vice-president Peter Flintoft, has been preparing to receive their order of salt water taffy for sale around school and to friends. The club has made plans to join the Junior Classics League, both nationally and state-wide.

The Future Teachers of America elected officers at their meeting making their practice their president. They broke up into buzz groups to work on different problems such as finances, refreshments, etc.

The speech class is now working on debating. The class is divided into two groups, affirmative and negative. One debate has already been completed. The winning affirmative team includes Nancy Mayer and Peggy Miller, both seniors. The class will continue working on debating for the rest of this six weeks.

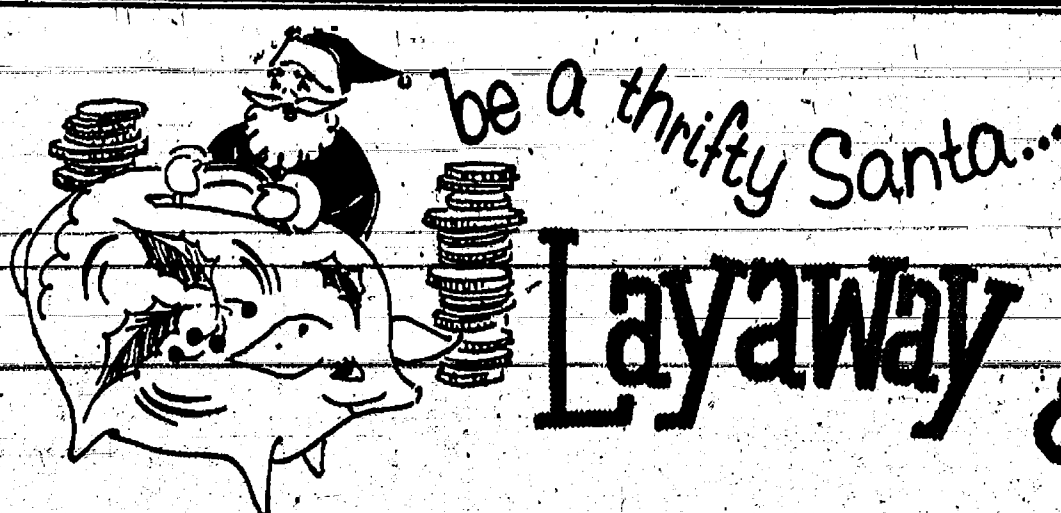

Freshmen, rightly enough, are concerned about their classwork. Math in life students are studying geometric figures. Biologists of the younger generation are studying the functions and structures of roots. Algebra students are learning how to divide a polynomial by a polynomial. In English, the freshmen are reading stories from their literature books and from Readers Digest. It is rumored that in civics they are reviewing the battle of the budget and of taxes almost every day lately.

The Sophomore class is discussing a pancake supper to be held in the near future.

The play committee of the junior class has not picked a play as yet, though they have been reading and evaluating several, for the past two weeks. The Money-making committee met and discussed buying pennants and rah-rah sticks for the basketball games. Pens with pictures of the basketball players on them were also discussed.

The seniors have finally set the date of their play "My Three Angels" for Friday, Nov. 22. Due to the lack of rehearsals because of the recent flu epidemic, there was for a time considerable question as to whether the class could manage to prepare and present a play in the short time left available. The school schedule is so "tight," meaning so full, that the presentation of a play becomes almost a matter of meeting original schedule or dropping it entirely. Happily, the fact that they could make up the lost time buzz meet their production date. Play director is Mrs. Waltraud Bald, faculty property assistant is Mr. Keith Poulson.

Progress Seen on Fighting Colds

A Johns Hopkins University researcher, Dr. Winston H. Price, has reported that he has developed a vaccine against a virus which he believes to be the cause of many cases of the "common cold."

From the laboratory, however, came no claims for a cure-all, no suggestion of a quick and easy panacea. Dr. Price modestly calls his vaccine "merely an opening wedge" but his discovery may prove to be one of the most important developments of our time in medical history and in public health.

The fight against the common cold has been one of the most baffling, complicated and exasperating that medical scientists have faced. It has been possible—as the Chinese discovered some 3,000 years ago—to find agents that are often effective in relieving symptomatic distress, but the problem of finding a "cure" has caused the scientists to probe much deeper. They had to find an original cause so as to know how to combat and eradicate it.

The virus on which Dr. Price has been working was actually isolated four years ago. It is said that this virus is only one of the causative agents that are suspected, since the identified virus is called responsible in only 30 per cent of the cases studied.

As a matter of fact, during recent years, the term "common cold" has become a sort of catch-all in which are lumped mild respiratory infections now caused by unknown agents. Some such infections are influenzas, mild pneumonias, some caused by streptococcal bacteria, the so-called "APC" virus diseases, and other gripe-like diseases.

Dr. Price has reported that the particular JH virus (called JH for Johns Hopkins) is the first true common cold agent to be isolated and that tests on a number of volunteers have established that the vaccine he has developed is effective against JH virus.

This discovery and development does not mean that it will be possible immediately to go to the corner drug store, buy a box of tablets and be immune to the common cold for the rest of your life. It does mean that new techniques are being developed with which a great common enemy may be attacked.

Since, in our own lifetime, we have seen the menace of some of the world's most terrible killers, such as smallpox, typhoid fever, tuberculosis and other diseases, fade into relative obscurity, this development may well be the turning point in the war on the cold.

A balking, kicking mule often attracts more attention than a hard-working horse; the same observation applies to people.

"If you are struck by lightning, you never forget it," asserts a columnist. Most persons we know who have been struck by lightning never remembered it.

MICHIGAN MIRROR

By Special Lansing Correspondent

1958's state ag. program was formulated when representatives of most of Michigan's farm industries met with members of the Agriculture Commission to decide the issues, and later the same day with Gov. G. Mennen Williams to present their ideas.

Greatest need, according to the group, seems to be for a law which has been proposed every session for nine years: The need for a method of grading and identifying top Michigan grades. This has been known as "Seal of Quality" bill or "Michigan's Best."

Farm representatives were unanimous in their support of the idea, and a little frustrated that its provisions have not become law long ago. They seemed to think that the bill failed in other years for lack of lively support rather than active opposition.

Person after person stated that they believe the seal of quality idea had almost solid, if undemonstrated, backing in their particular branch of agriculture. All joined in the hope that the bill can be passed this year without becoming involved in partisan politics.

Other important proposals include a law granting subpoena powers to the Director of Agriculture. At present a hearing can be called to investigate charges of dishonest or irregular proceedings and witnesses cannot be ordered to appear.

In several recent instances, the key witness in a case decided against testifying, and the whole issue had to be dropped.

Commercial sprayers would be brought under control by terms of another proposal. At present the Department of Agriculture cannot regulate those who for hire spread weed killer, insecticide or pesticide. Other recommendations concern weights and measures; licensing improvements; cutting of Christmas trees; labeling and slaughter houses.

Universities and colleges are feeling the onslaught of a new flood of students loosed upon them by the expanding population and the demands that it be educated.

The problem of money and space for higher education to cover the demands will be top priority in the 1958 legislature.

Nobody is certain how many millions will be sought this year, but leading legislators who understand the situation believe the need will make a real problem.

Educators have been asked to present a united front to the legislature and Gov. Williams with its new organization of state university and college presidents and governing board members.

Williams asked them to come up with a total plan for higher education in Michigan.

The legislature has been studying the same subject for three years.

Another legislative plan has been to "decentralize higher education," providing two-year colleges at the local level—along the lines of the present community and junior colleges—and making the present four-year colleges into advanced study centers.

Michigan State University, governed by the state Board of Agriculture, was forced last fall to limit its enrollment to 22,500 because of overcrowding.

The University of Michigan stated that without more facilities and personnel it cannot do the kind of educational job it would like in the future.

National figures repeat the charge that the United States is turning out engineers and scientists at a rate slower than Russia. They said Russia's earth satellite was the result.

The situation revived the plan of Dr. Harlan H. Hatcher, president of the University of Michigan, some years ago that the nation should develop a pool of brain-power—much like the armed services. This group would be the warriors in the field of science and technology.

Two new ideas have been proposed by Rep. William I. Bowerman (R-Lansing).

First, he suggests that students pay a greater share of their educational costs on a time-payment plan—reimbursing the state after graduation when their careers are underway.

When first proposed, the idea started a storm of protest from students and their parents.

Secondly, Bowerman suggested a free college education for the first two years. Students would stay at home and attend classes in their high schools, expanded to include the freshman and sophomore years. Classes would be conducted between 4 p.m. and 9 p.m. and during the summers.

Red Cross Home Nursing Instructors Conference Scheduled

To provide specialists in training the public in the care of sick and injured, the American Red Cross is holding a five-day conference in Ann Arbor, Nov. 14 to 19, it was announced today by E. C. Laetz, county chapter chairman. Nursing and Civil Defense authorities have joined with Public Health officials in urging that at least one person in every home be trained in the skills needed to care for the sick at home or the injured.

The Chairman of Home Nursing, Mrs. William Bossemeyer, pointed out the critical need for instructors to provide this training. "Our present volunteer instructors cannot handle the demand," she said. The conference was established to qualify nurses, teachers and community leaders to teach the simple nursing procedures so important in keeping our families well and caring for the sick or injured in a disaster or national emergency. In planning measures to combat the Asian flu, Dr. Otto Engelke, county health director called on the Red Cross to expand this training.

The five day sessions will be held in the new Veterans Administration hospital in Ann Arbor, and will be led by Miss Elisabeth Sutcliffe, R.N., Red Cross nursing representative in Michigan. There is no charge and all equipment is provided by the Red Cross. Candidates are needed from all parts of the county and may register by contacting the Home Nursing Chairman at Normandy 8-6487 or the Chapter Headquarters in Ann Arbor.

Farmers can expect hog prices during the first half of next year to average at least as high as they were during the same period this year, say Michigan State University farm economists.

Fertilizer dollars are better spent when what you buy and apply is based on a soil test, say Michigan State University soil scientists.

DIES IN FATHER'S ARMS

Glenwood Springs, Colo. — A father, Junior Scott, and his 6-year-old son, Richard Leroy, went hunting in their attempt to find a trail down from the shale rim-rocks in the dark, they were forced to remain in the mountains overnight with the temperature in the middle 20's. The father held the boy against his own body in an effort to keep him warm, but the child froze to death before rescuers found them.

Gia Scala, beautiful Italian actress, who is busy making a film with Audie Murphy, "The Middle of the Street," was asked how she liked making a Western. She replied that this is her first and her last in that category. To take care of Miss Scala's Italian accent, it is explained in the picture, that she is a Creole girl, just back from attending school in France.

was expected momentarily, things had seemed to quiet down and each was seen with others.

A film on the life of Bullfighter Carlos Arruza, with the famed reader portraying himself, is being planned by Randolph Scott and Budd Boetticher, star and director, respectively, of the forthcoming Warner Brothers motion picture, "Westbound." The picture will be filmed in Mexico and South America and will concentrate on the latter part of Arruza's life depicting his retirement and his return to the ring to fight on horseback.

Lillian Gish, silent film star, who was a smash hit in "Portrait of a Madonna" in Berlin, is up for a role in a Fred Zinnemann picture. Whether she will do it or not depends on a previous Broadway commitment.

Trevor Howard, well known producer, has set up his own Hollywood company, and as his first property has bought, "The Duke Goes West," by Desmond Farnell. It's about a bankrupt Englishman of title who uses his last funds to buy an Arizona cattle ranch.

The male lead in Herman Chon's production of "Blood of Dracula," is Michael Hall, who played Frederick March's son on "Best Year of Our Lives."

Robert Taylor will have Patricia Owens as his co-star in Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's "The Law and Jake Wade."

There's an air-borne feeling of flight in its performance with Buick's B-12000 engine and with Flight Pitch Dynaflo* that can switch the pitch a million ways.

And everywhere you go — you travel in new

*Flight Pitch Dynaflo standard on LIMITED and ROADMASTER 75, optional at extra cost on other Series. Air-Poise Suspension optional at extra cost on all Series. Aluminum Brakes standard on all Series except the SPECIAL.

The Hi-Light

Junior Varsity played Dexter's Junior Varsity on Wednesday, Oct. 30. Through the rain the cheerleaders yelled more than ever. It must have helped some because the score ended Chelsea 28, and Dexter 0.

The past week has been a busy one, indeed, for the members of the Chelsea High School Band.

On Oct. 31, at 8:45, the band led the annual Halloween parade through the streets of town.

The gala event was held Nov. 1, at 8:30. The band led the dance out to the football field where the band introduced the football spectators to some new fan fares.

The half-time show consisted of a formation of "Hi," playing "How Do You Do," for the Lincoln visitors. The Junior High School Band, led by Duke Weiss, made a spectacular entrance onto the field to form an enormous "Hello" for Chelsea fans, bowed to the audience, then knelt during the arrival of the queen and her court. The two bands formed "CHS," played the school song, then marched off the field.

Recognition goes to Matthew Brown for his fine job of leading the band through such an eventful week. The band has spent the past week-end getting in condition for working on another exciting half-time show for the Nov. 8 game with Roosevelt.

The first homecoming dance that Chelsea High has ever had was held Nov. 1. It started after the game and lasted until 12:00.

The dance was semiformal with the girls wearing dressie dresses and the boys wearing sport coats.

The committee to plan the homecoming as Mary Hoffman, Nancy Mayer, Karen McAllister, Donna Walz, Regina Eder, Angie Murphy, Peggy Miller, Dolores Schmitz, Karl Riemenschneider, Doug Warren, Bob Weber, Janet Berneth, Kay Vogel, Sandy Buehler, Bob Brown, and Dave Knisely.

The refreshment committee included Betty Fletcher, Shirley Dyer, Nancy Irwin, Norma Harker, Lois Schiller, and Violet Coppock.

Students on decorations were Kay Kuhl, Judy Wagner, Becky Slane, Jerome Forner, Bob Danforth, Beatrice Alder, Zoe Niles, Clyde Mosler, Betty Bauer and Diane Scripser.

Prices for the dance were 75 cents single and $1.25 couple.

The homecoming dance and game were preceded by a pep rally Friday afternoon. Mr. Conklin and Mr. Lane gave short talks and the cheerleaders led various cheers. A humorous skit entitled

"Man on the Street" was presented by the seniors.

The men suffering "a touch of indigestion" is a full-fledged member of our largest ill-health club. (It's said that possibly 25 percent of our adult population could qualify for membership.)

You will find, too, that he has one outstanding trait: a readiness to try almost any sort of treatment he reads or hears about. And yet, proper treatment of digestive disturbances . . . whether it be by diet, drugs or other measures . . . can be given only by a physician after careful diagnosis.

When symptoms occur frequently, it's the better part of wisdom to see your doctor before you try someone's pet remedy. While your trouble may be simply and easily corrected, it could signal peptic ulcer, gall bladder disease, or something much more serious.

A digestive disturbance can easily edge over into the danger zone when you neglect it or try to treat it yourself . . . while getting prompt and proper medical care may well turn out to be one of the biggest bargains of your life.—Reprinted from a copyrighted advertisement published by Parke, Davis & Company, Detroit 32, Michigan.

Cider, distilled white and terragon vinegars are made for certain purposes. Cider vinegar is an all-purpose vinegar, but is a favorite for salads and salad dressings. Distilled white is absolutely pure and best for pickling and preserving. Terragon vinegar is seasoned with herbs and is used sparingly, because its flavor is prominent and distinctive.

What do strawberries contribute to your menu besides color and flavor? They are an excellent source of vitamin C, declare Michigan State University food specialists. While they are in season, they make a good change from the high vitamin C citrus fruits—orange and grapefruit. One cup contains nearly four-fifths of your daily need of vitamin C. Strawberries also have small amounts of minerals—riboflavin, niacin and vitamin A.

★ Side Effects

Our local game warden was talking with a few fellows the other evening about some of his experiences with pheasant hunters. He told about one amateur hunter who nearly hit a car that happened to be passing behind the pheasant he was aiming at.

"But I saw one hunter," he continued, "who took aim at a bird and then lowered his gun when he saw a car beyond it."

"NOW THAT WAS a real hunter," one of the sportsmen commented. "He took the background into consideration. The thing that makes hunting dangerous these days is that maybe 80 per cent of the hunters aren't really hunters at all—they're just armchair sportsmen who have been bewitched by the glamor of a wild-life program on TV. A real hunter takes a lot of different things into consideration before he pulls the trigger."

THE BACKGROUND behind the target has to be taken into consideration by photographers, too. I suppose everybody has seen a snapshot that looked as if an apple tree were growing out of the top of Grandma's head. The amateur who took the picture was thinking only about Grandma, and he failed to see the tree standing there.

A real photographer will think about the background, and will either consciously or unconsciously be aware of such things as the kind and amount of light, and the distance of his camera from the subject. He will click his shutter at just the right moment, when Grandma is in a natural and relaxed position—probably not when she is "watching the bride."

Medical doctors always have to be alert for what they call the "side effects" of the medicine they prescribe. Penicillin is just dandy for killing germs, but you don't want to use it if it's going to kill the patient, too.

People sometimes complain that doctors don't tell them enough about what is wrong with them. I suppose one reason is that the doctor is so busy considering several dozen symptoms and several dozen possible diagnoses that he momentarily forgets the patient is a person.

Personally, I'll take the expert even if he isn't very talkative. I like to deal with sportsmen and artists and professional people who have enough education and experience to take account of side effects.
