Other area churches having services tonight or tomorrow are St. Luther's church and St. John's Evangelical and Reformed churches at Rogers Corners, and St. Mary's will have the traditional Christmas Eve Midnight Mass, beginning at 12 o'clock. St. Mary's will also have Christmas Masses at 8 a.m. and 10 a.m.

The Congregational church, the Rev. Philip Rusten, pastor, will have a candlelight Christmas Eve service from 8 p.m. until 8:30 p.m.

St. Barnabas' Episcopal church, of which the Rev. Allan Reed is vicar, will have a children's carol service at 7 p.m. and a Holy Communion service at 11 o'clock this evening.

Bulldogs Sink Good Dexter Team, 58-29

Position, that's the word. Yes, it is what the Chelsea Bulldogs had defensively and on the attack as they demonstrated what good defense can do by defeating the previously fine Dexter Basketball team, 58-29, Friday evening. It was the first home game for the Bulldogs and it seemed to be one they needed. Shooting was better than in their first two games, nine boys got into the ring column as Homer and Al Nixon led the squad with 12 and 10 points, respectively. Also doing well was Dalice Ferris with 10 points, Matt Murphy, 8, Jack Erick, 7, Dave McLaughlin, 6, Joe Marsh, 4, Ed Laughton and Tony Mayer each hitting a free throw. Charles Cameron demonstrated some fine passing.

A major part played in the victory was the fine defensive job by Dalice Ferris in throwing the ball over Cliff Blossom, the blocking guard. Blossom was held to two field goals and a free throw for his lowest total in two seasons.

It was an important victory for the Bulldogs as they can now into preparation for the Holiday season.

The Bethel Evangelical and Reformed church pastor, the Rev. T. W. Menzel, said Christmas Eve at the church will feature a program by the junior and youth departments of the Sunday school, assisted by the junior and senior choirs.

Bethel church will also have a Christmas worship service at 10 a.m. on Christmas day.

St. John's Evangelical and Reformed church has scheduled a Christmas program for all children and adults of the church to be held at 7:30 p.m. Christmas Eve. The Rev. Donald Voss is pastor.

Zion Lutheran church at Rogers Corners will observe Christmas Eve at a program presented at 7:30 p.m. by the primary department of the Sunday school.

Christmas day, at 9:30 a.m. a worship service will be held at Zion Lutheran church. The Rev. C. J. Renner will preach on the topic, "The Great Mystery of Giving."

The Zion church choir is giving a Christmas cantata at the church at the 10:30 a.m. service Sunday, Dec. 27.

The remaining area church where a special Christmas Eve service is planned is Salem Grove Methodist church. Mrs. Harry Pyscher, wife of the pastor, and Mrs. Paul Peites are in charge of the program in which the Youth Fellowship and all departments of the Sunday school will participate.

Girl Scouts Fix Christmas Stockings for Social Service

Girl Scouts of Troop 77 held their regular meeting Thursday afternoon in the Home Ec. room at Chelsea Junior High school and then were entertained at a pre-Christmas banquet. They concluded their gathering by going caroling.

At their meeting the girls finished their project of decorating red Christmas stockings with white yarn trimmings. The stockings were prepared for the Chelsea Social Service. Filled with treats, the stockings were to be added to Christmas boxes for needy families.

Girl Scouts of Troop 77 had cut out and sewed the stockings at one of their meetings under the direction of Mrs. Warren Eisenbeiser.

The Christmas dinner served Thursday at the meeting of Troop 77, was in charge of Mrs. Wilber Warden, troop leader, assisted by Mrs. Warren Eisenbeiser, assistant leader, Mrs. Veryl Haffey who worked in place of Mrs. Fred Schumm who is away on vacation, and three mothers of Girl Scouts, Mrs. Marvin Schiller, Mrs. E. J. Sutter and Mrs. Laurance Boyer.

A. Juergens Wins Lighting Contest

Anthony Juergens was selected as the first prize winner in the Chamber of Commerce Outdoor Christmas Lighting contest when judges made their decision Tuesday evening.

The display at the Juergens home, 744 Freer road, was in the form of a church scene, utilizing the porch and a large picture window to carry out the theme. Figures of choir boys, a lighted cross, colored lights in outdoor trees and shrubbery and the entire display well spotlighted, all combined to present an exceptionally beautiful effect, according to the judges.

The prize for first place in the contest is $15.

Second and third prize winners are Harold Dove, 120 Arden Lane, and A. D. Mayer, 705 South Main street. Their prizes are $10 and $5, respectively.

Dove converted a picture window at his home into a replica of a cathedral window and combined it with a traditional Santa Claus. Included are life-size figures of Santa Claus with his sleigh and reindeer, mounted to the rooftop, together with colored tree lights. As in the case of the first place winner, Dove made effective use of spotlights.

At the Mayer home one of the front doors featured a figure of Santa Claus and another was decorated with Christmas cards and greens. Large electric lighted candles at either side of the main door and colored tree and shrubbery lights all added to the general "Christmassy" effect.

Honorable mention went to Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Prochnow, 353 Washington street and Richard Reed, 121 North street.

The Prochnows' display showed Santa Claus and reindeer outdoors and a lighted Christmas tree in the front window, while Reed's, in addition to a Santa Claus and reindeer display, included a Nativity scene.

Judges for the residential lighting contest were Charles Reilly, lighting engineer with Consumers Power Co. of Jackson, Mrs. Dudley Foster and Robert Merkel.

Reilly made special mention of the effectiveness of outdoor lighting at the homes of Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Burg, 1, 315 Wilkinson street, Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Davidson, 555 Howard road, and Village President and Mrs. Donald Albee, 425 McKinley street. None of these, however, was entered in the contest.

Reilly also mentioned the effective Christmas decorations in downtown stores and the beauti-

Eight Area Teams Enter Holiday Event To Be Held Here

John P. Cook Named to County Board of Auditors

John P. Cook whose home is at 19945 Old US-12, was sworn in Monday as a member of the County Board of Auditors to replace the late Carl Chandler, Cook, who was appointed by the Board of Supervisors for a two-year term, will take his new office on Jan. 1.

Four Games To Be Featured Each Evening

Chelsea's new high school gym will be the scene of 12 basketball games in just three days, as the first Chelsea Holiday Tournament will run Monday through Wednesday, Dec. 28, 29, and 30.

Tournament Director Bob Taylor reports that games are scheduled to start at 6:00, 6:30, 8:00, and 9:30 p.m., with Monday's opening round of play finding Vandercook, Lake and Pinckney squaring off in the 6 o'clock game. At 6:30 it will be South Lyon and Brooklyn, followed by Saline and Napoleon at 8 p.m.

In what promises to be the most evenly-matched game in the first round of play, Chelsea and Jackson St. Mary will run head-on at 9:30 p.m.

Tuesday's second-round play will find the winners and losers of the Vandercook-Pinckney and South Lyon-Brooklyn games matched against each other, with the winners playing at 8 o'clock.

Other Tuesday night games will match the winners and losers of the Saline-Napoleon and Chelsea-St. Mary games, with the losers playing at 5 p.m., and the winners playing at 8:30 p.m.

On Wednesday the winners of the 6:30 and 9:30 Tuesday games, will be matched against each other at 8:30 to determine the tournament champion. All other teams will be playing in consolation games.

Zion Church Preparing Choir Cantata

The choir of Zion Lutheran church at Rogers Corners will present a Christmas cantata "The Music of Bethlehem," at the customary worship hour, 10:30 a.m. Sunday, Dec. 27.

The chorus of 20 voices is being directed by Howard Bond as guest conductor.

Members of the choir are Mrs. Richard Barela, Mrs. Philip Barela, Ruth Blumenauer, Karen Burkhardt, Ronald Burkhardt, Mrs. Harold Eschebach, Bert Gardner, Arthur Haab, Mrs. Walter Haab, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Heinrich.

The list continues with Carol and Nancy Huelberg, Susan Lounsbury, the Rev. C. J. Renner, Albert Schenk, Mrs. Lorenz Wack, Mrs. Ernest Wenk, Barbara Wenk and Max Ziegler, Jr.

Mrs. Alton Grau, the church organist, is to be the accompanist.

The church's pipe organ was entirely overhauled during the past few months under the direction of Dr. Robert Noehren, University of Michigan organist. Dr. Noehren's assistant in the project was Jerry Adams, of Sturgis.

Upon completion of the work, Dr. Noehren, on Dec. 6, presented an organ recital at the rededication service held at the church.

All members and friends of the congregation are invited to attend Sunday's cantata.

In order to attract more interest by bringing together the stronger teams in the second and third rounds of play, teams were seeded, or placed in brackets according to their win and loss records.

South Lyon High school with a 3-0 record is the number one seeded team, while Vandercook Lake 2-0, and Saline 3-1, are the second and third teams, respectively.

The race for fourth seeded team was a dead-heat between Chelsea and Jackson-St. Mary, each with a 2-1 record, who will therefore meet each other in first round play.

Napoleon High school comes into tournament play with a respectable 1-1 record and could supply Saline with all the opposition they can handle. Meanwhile, Brooklyn and Pinckney are still looking for their first win of the season as their records now stand at 0-2, and 0-3, respectively.

CHRISTMAS CONFIDENTIAL—Little Denise Petch and her grandmother, Mrs. Gus Cavadas, center, and Mrs. Daniel Patrick and her baby daughter, Donna, at left, look on as Danny Patrick talks confidentially with Santa Claus at the community Christmas party. The annual party is sponsored by UAW-CIO Local 432 and 1284 and the Chelsea Community Chest and was held Saturday afternoon at the Chelsea Theatre. Mac Packard was general chairman. Harvey Lixay, president of UAW-CIO Local 432, said that with almost no exceptions, the children who attended the three shows given during the afternoon were orderly, adding much to the enjoyment of the affair. He said it was the largest turnout of children ever to attend the Christmas party. In the background, from left, are Bruce Hopkins, Dona Joseph and Lambert Mepyan, part of the group of Union members who assisted at the party. Members of the Rockwell-Standard Corp., Central Fibre Products, Chelsea Products and Federal Sewer Works units of UAW-CIO Local 437, and Chrysler Proving units of UAW-CIO Local 1284, were on the committee to help during the party.

Youth Discovers Rifle Cartridge Can Be Dangerous

Larry Williams, 14 years old, experimenting with a 22-caliber rifle cartridge, found that the bullet can be as deadly when struck with a nail punch and hammer as when fired from a rifle.

According to police department records, the youth placed the bullet into a vise and then struck it with the hammer and punch. It fired and struck him in the left hand.

He was taken to a physician for treatment.

The incident occurred at the family home, 117 North street, at 8:30 p.m. Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Craven plan to leave Monday for Leesburg, Fla., where they plan to spend the winter.

Full budget requests of all member agencies had been accepted by the board of directors with the provision that if the campaign failed to raise the full amount, each member agency would be paid on a proportionate basis.

Also announced at the meeting Wednesday was the date of the annual Community Chest meeting—Wednesday, Jan. 20. The meeting is open to the public and anyone who has contributed one dollar or more to the campaign is eligible to vote at the meeting or nominate candidates for election as board members.

Seven new members of the board are to be elected; also two to fill existing vacancies.

Injuries Sustained As Auto Strikes Rear of Vehicle

Paul E. Fry, 55, was treated at a doctor's office last night for lacerations received when his car smashed into the rear of a truck being towed by a farm tractor. Deputies said Fry's car was moving north on M-22 near Sager road when the accident happened. His car hit the rear of the stake truck, which was pulled by a tractor operated by Robert K. Kothe of near Manchester. Kothe's wife, Mrs. Lois L. Kothe, who was at the wheel of the disabled truck at the time of the accident, was uninjured.

Santa's Helper Hospitalized

Joseph Protz, who acted as Santa Claus' helper here during the pre-Christmas season, became ill Friday night and was taken to St. Joseph Mercy hospital Saturday morning after suffering a heart attack.

The Way the Ball Bounces

With Tom Johnston

Christmas vacation is finally here, and no doubt everyone is ready for the big day on Friday. The sports world will keep busy over the holiday season on the high and the professional scenes. Michigan's basketball team, travels to the coast for the Los Angeles Christmas tournament, on the same days, Chelsea will be the site of the Holiday tournament which will bring together some of Southeastern Michigan's better basketball teams. On the basis of pre-season play, Saline, Chelsea and Michigan Center will be favorites in the big event.

Chelsea may be the only team in the conference without that one big man 6-8 or so, but the Bulldogs have excellent over-all height, at least that is our opinion after watching them defeat Dexter at Chelsea on Friday night. Defense seems to be the Bulldog's forte, but they still didn't show the best ability to hit consistently from the outside. Dexter never had a chance to get started Friday, as the Bulldog defense clamped down on Cliff Blossom, and thence went the Dreadnaught's scoring punch. Dexter did have two big men out via the textbook route, with both Herb Hammond and Charles Hubbard missing, no doubt this hurt them on the backboards. However, Chelsea was

Firemen's Pre-Christmas Dinner Interrupted By Grass Fire Call

Firemen were called out at 6:15 p.m. Saturday because of a series of grass fires along a half-mile stretch of the New York Central railroad tracks in the vicinity of Blaess Elevator Co. at Four Mile Lake.

Firemen were gathered at the Masonic hall for their annual pre-Christmas dinner when the fire siren sounded. The dinner, scheduled for 6:30 p.m., was delayed until firemen returned at 7 p.m. In addition to firemen and their wives, those who attended the dinner included Village President and Mrs. Donald Alber; the Village Council fire committee members and their wives, Mr. and Mrs. William Chandler and Mr. and Mrs. Vic Kohsman; Police Chief and Mrs. John Palmer; and Police Officer and Mrs. Carl Koch.

Following the supper dancing was enjoyed, the music being furnished by Richard Rogers with his electric guitar and James Gaken as drummer.

MYSTERY FARM NO. 78 proved to be the Joseph Taylor place at 10630 Chelsea-Dexter road. It has been his home since his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Burt Taylor, moved there in 1931.

Joseph Taylor Now Owns 122-Acre Farm on Chelsea-Dexter Road

Joseph Taylor is now the owner of the farm at 10630 Chelsea-Dexter road, a photograph of which was published in the Dec. 17 issue of The Standard as Mystery Farm No. 78.
First to call The Standard office to identify the farm was William Beach, who lives directly across the road from the Taylor place. Others who called soon after are Paul Rothfuss and Mrs. Floyd Fowler.
Taylor's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Burt Taylor, moved to the farm in 1931. Their family included two sons and a daughter, Joseph Taylor, who now owns the farm, Thomas Taylor and Mrs. Beth Thompson, both of Ann Arbor. Mr. Taylor died in 1957. Mrs. Taylor continues to make her home there with her son.
In addition to operating the 122-acre farm on Chelsea-Dexter road, Joseph Taylor owns 80 acres on Lima Center road. His principal crops are wheat, oats and corn and he customarily has approximately 50 head of cattle, including 17 dairy cows.
Taylor said the part of the farm where the house and other buildings are located, was secured from the U. S. Government in 1934 by William Cooper and purchased in 1947 by Maurice Thompson.
Thompson served as Lima township supervisor during the Civil War, his term extending from 1861 until 1868. He also served on the draft board during the Civil War.
The Maurice Thompson family of three sons and a daughter were George, Henry, Charles and Miss Frances Thompson. After the father's death, Charles became the owner. He willed the farm to his son, Francis, and at her death her brothers George and Henry became the owners.
George Thompson lived with the Burt Taylors for about seven years and before his death, requested that his heirs arrange that at their death the farm would be the property of Joseph Taylor. His wishes were carried out—his daughter, Eva Clements, being the owner until her death and then her husband, Thad, owning it until his death. Taylor has owned the farm since 1947.
During the years the Thompsons owned the farm a number of farmers operated it and lived in the house. As Joseph Taylor remembers, these included Fred Grossman who now lives at Manchester.
Others are William Fischer, a family named Booth, Arthur Young, Louis Altenberndt, Emanuel Eschebach who died during the flu epidemic in 1918, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Trinkle who lived there from 1918 until 1924, the Clarence Trinkles, the Clifford Bradburys and the Taylors.
The original house was built by Maurice Thompson. Joseph Taylor said. This house was moved back and converted into use as storage space when the present home was built in 1874.
In 1922 the old house, together with a barn and a wooden windmill, burned to the ground and Joseph Taylor remembered that their neighbor, Henry Engelhart, in Paul Revere fashion, drove through the countryside arousing men of the neighborhood to help fight the fire and save the present home and other buildings. Taylor said that instead of riding horseback like the original Paul Revere, Engelhart drove his Model T Ford during his midnight ride.
Taylor has improved the property installing a furnace and modern plumbing in the house and painting the house and other buildings.
The old house visible in the left foreground of the photograph was moved there from the west end of the farm which was formerly the property of Sheldon Beach, great-grandfather of William Beach and Lima Township Supervisor Leigh Beach. That part of the farm was secured from the government by Francis Gardner.
Others who called to identify the farm included Mrs. Walter Trinkle. She said her husband took over management of the farm soon after their marriage and they lived there six years. Their daughters, Mrs. Flavil Montgomery of Grand Junction, and Mrs. Wilbert Zogelman, now of Burns, Kan., both were born there.
NEW MACHINE- A tree planting machine now being used in the South can plant 800 thousand seedlings in one season. Manned by two men, it does the work of 800 men. With this machine the south hopes to reforest millions of acres with pine for the manufacture of paper.

Christmas Is Time for Rededication To Goals of Good Will, World Peace

The Christmas season always brings back the sweetest memories of youth to those who enjoyed the fantasy and sparkle of the Santa Claus story. In addition, it brings a more significant observance, a respect for the Christian principles of life, which are too often forgotten in the rush of modern living.

The real Christmas spirit is one of unselfishness and giving. Thus, the people who enjoy the scene around the Christmas tree, on Christmas morning, and the emptying of stockings, more than the children, are the mothers and fathers who watch this exciting moment once a year.

As Christmas Day, 1959, approaches, the time seems highly appropriate for a new dedication to the principles of Christianity. The United States, of all the countries in the history of the world, today enjoys more blessings and more of the good things of life than any other nation. Yet, we live in troubled times, when super weapons threaten to devastate larger areas of the world in an instant.

As a nation, we must hope and pray that we will survive the modern crisis as we have those in the past, and there is every reason to believe that we will. Meanwhile, we pause briefly to observe and enjoy the Christmas holiday season, and as we do so, it is well to remember the contributions of all in the spirit of true brotherhood and to once again resolve that there will, some day, somehow, be peace on earth and good will among all men.

Still Time To Help Financially in Continuing Battle Against Killer TB

It may surprise you to know that tuberculosis is killing more than one thousand people each month in the United States. And, more than five thousand new cases are discovered every month of the year!

While these grim facts may surprise you, in a medical age when TB is curable, it is important to remind you of this during the Christmas Seal season—when you can do your part in helping the fight against tuberculosis through the purchase of Christmas Seals.

Many help the cause year after year, and perhaps the most commendable feature of the Christmas Seal program is the fact that more than 90 cents out of every dollar raised in this county stays right here in this county.

Science has not yet found a specific vaccine against tuberculosis, and the best approach to this problem is the educational and preventive approach. Therefore, the local TB Association needs funds to work in our schools, to discover new cases of TB, and help provide a cure—when cases are found.

The current Christmas Seal campaign will extend through the Christmas season and we urge our readers to send contributions to the Washtenaw County Tuberculosis Association, 202 East Ann street, Ann Arbor.

Amid Our Comforts and Blessings Think of Washington at Valley Forge

Though most Americans do not give it much thought, about this time in the year of 1777, General George Washington set up camp for a winter which was to be one of the hardest which any band of American soldiers have ever endured. It was on Dec. 19 that Washington marched his 11,000 men to Valley Forge, Pa.

This was after the battles of Brandywine and Germantown, after which the British had occupied Philadelphia. Therefore, the encampment at Valley Forge was not among the most optimistic prospects, nor after a session of complete military success in the military field.

Washington selected Valley Forge, historians tell us, because he thought he could protect Congress, then sitting at York, Pa., from this location and because it was a highly defensible site. One side was protected by the Schuylkill and another side protected by a steep precipice. While being quartered at this site and amid many hardships caused by deficiencies in the commissary and quartermaster departments, the Continentals were, nevertheless, formed into a disciplined army by the rigid instruction and training methods of Baron Steuben.

Many of us give little thought to this momentous action and winter, 182 years ago. But it was to have considerable bearing on the future history of the world and a direct bearing on every inhabitant in what was to become the United States. It is well to remember Valley Forge and that hard winter, and those heroes of 1777. We should keep in mind that, should this generation be called upon to undergo a similar ordeal, it is the history and tradition of our people to exhibit their finest qualities in such critical tests.

The True Spirit of Christmas

MICHIGAN MIRROR

By Elmer E. White, Secretary, Michigan Press Association

Voices of an aroused citizenry are echoing Michigan's perils as state government ends a year of crisis.

The Michigan Chamber of Commerce, the Citizens for Michigan movement, the League of Women Voters, the Junior Chamber of Commerce, and organized labor have mobilized to attack Michigan's problems on varied fronts. This linking of citizens to fill the gap of voter apathy may be the best thing that has happened to Michigan since the Mackinac Bridge filled a seven-mile gap by linking the state's two peninsulas.

The Michigan Chamber of Commerce hopes to give businessmen a vehicle for political expression in 1960 and years to come. But of more importance to the rest of the state, the chamber aims to become an organization that can tell businessmen in other states—in a language they understand—that it's great to live and work in Michigan.

Labor and business are in a joint nonpartisan campaign for better government through the Citizens for Michigan movement. Spurred to action by blunders of government in 1959, this movement will come up with recommendations for corrective effort in 1960.

The enthusiasm of active men and women is sparking a drive by the League of Women Voters and the Junior Chamber of Commerce for a new constitution. Even if they fail to get the 300,000 signatures needed to call for a referendum on holding of a Constitutional Convention they will be stirring up citizen interest in government.

Supreme Court action started by the AFL-CIO to force reapportionment of senate districts has encouraged citizens in urban areas and aroused those in rural areas.

Time is needed before impact of the Chamber of Commerce and Citizens for Michigan will be felt. It will be 1962 before a new constitution will be ready for ratification by voters if the Junior Chamber and the League succeed. Developments could come fast, however, in the reapportionment drive started by state AFL-CIO president August Scholle. He wants the court to ban state senatorial elections based on present districts "until equal voting rights are restored to all citizens."

Reapportionment has been painted as something favored by Democrats and opposed by Republicans.

It's a complicated political question. In some cases it crosses party lines.

The struggle for legislative power is between big cities and suburbs on one side and rural areas and isolated population centers on the other.

Republicans opposing reapportionment will be at odds with their colleagues in Oakland County, which in 1960 would elect one senator to represent 700,000 people. One senator from the 32nd district in the Western Upper Peninsula would represent 49,000 under the present apportionment.

Democrats in that U.P. cannot be counted upon to support a drive that would give them less of a voice in Lansing. They can be expected to join outstate Republicans in contending geographical interests, as well as population interests, must be considered in Lansing as they are in Washington.

Struggles for reapportionment are not unique with Michigan. Florida, California, Maryland, Missouri, Minnesota and Tennessee are among the states where the issue is under heated discussion.

The arguments are the same everywhere: Cities claim they are hamstrung. Outstate areas say they need the same protections granted smaller states in the U. S. Senate.

Constitutional revision, per se, provokes less argument than reapportionment. The rub comes on how delegates should be selected. Who gets the biggest voice at the constitutional convention—the cities or the rural areas?

Both parties say there is a need for constitutional revision. But Democrats generally are opposed to the present method of selecting delegates by senate districts at least under the present apportionment.

Candidates for governor in 1960 will be in the thick of the constitutional revision issue.

If, as expected, Paul D. Bagwell is the Republican candidate again, he won't have to hire a speech writer. He can pull out the same speeches he used during the 1958 campaign when there wasn't too much interest in the issue. Bagwell campaigned in a 1908 model car to dramatize the need for revision of the document that had its last major overhaul in 1908.

A cumbersome and outworn constitution has been blamed by leaders of both parties for much of Michigan's financial troubles today.

"We could probably have managed our cash shortage with a fraction of the damage actually suffered, except for the shackles placed on us by the constitution in handling the State's fund," said Governor Williams.

Remember the headlines for the next crash may be your own.

Uncle Lew from Lima Says:

DEAR MISTER EDITOR:

As a general thing, our preacher is a very independent feller and don't pick out his sermons with a eye on the season of the year. He's liable to pick out Thanksgiving Day for a sermon on the Declaration of Independence, but Sunday he crossed us up and took his text on Christmas.

He allowed us how Christmas Day was a time when folks ought to do a heap of thinking about the "brotherhood of man." I'm strong in favor of thinking about it but I ain't got much faith in the outcome. For instant, it'll be mighty hard to ever get a complete brotherhood of man as long as two fellers is trying to marry the same girl—or a Democrat and a Republican is campaigning for the same office.

But I think Christmas is a good time for a feller to try and get a better understanding of his friends and neighbors and use it to help hold together what little world we got left.

It would help a heap of folks if they'd get up about four o'clock Christmas morning and go out and take a good, long look at the heavens above 'em. A feller can feel mighty small and humble when he looks up these cool, clear mornings at the vastness of a heaven full of shining stars and planets. He gets to thinking there's a awful lot of space in this universe and that humans might not be all that's important in God's scheme of things. The human race shifts around a lot and maps don't stay put from one war to the next, but them heavens up there ain't changed a bit since the start of time.

Us rural folks that putters around afore daylight doing our chores and looking at that sky sometimes get somepun in our hearts and souls that a heap of city folks might not get. And at Christmas time it will make a feller more humble and thankful for God's blessings, and makes him feel a little more friendly with the human race.

Yep, there's a lot of religion and Christmas spirit a feller can see these mornings way up there above that barn if he looks long enough.

Both principal and interest will be payable at a bank or trust company designated by the purchaser of the bonds. No further interest payable on bonds so called for redemption shall accrue after the date fixed for redemption provided funds are on hand with the paying agent to redeem said bonds. For the purpose of awarding the bonds the interest cost of each bid will be computed by determining, at the rate or rates specified therein, the total dollar value of all interest on the bonds from February 1, 1960, to their maturity and deducting therefrom any premium. The bonds will be awarded to the bidder whose bid on the above computation produces the lowest interest cost to the Village.

No proposal for less than all of the bonds, nor for less than 100% of their par value, will be considered.

The Village is authorized by law to levy upon all the taxable property therein such ad valorem taxes as may be necessary to pay the bonds and interest thereon, without limitation as to rate or amount.

No interest shall be allowed on the good faith checks, and checks of the unsuccessful bidders will be promptly returned to each bidder's representative or by registered mail.

Bids shall be conditioned upon the unqualified opinion of Miller, Canfield, Paddock and Stone, attorneys at Detroit, Michigan, approving the legality of the bonds. The cost of such opinion shall be paid by the Village of Chelsea. The Village shall pay the cost of printing the bonds. Bonds will be delivered at Detroit, Michigan.

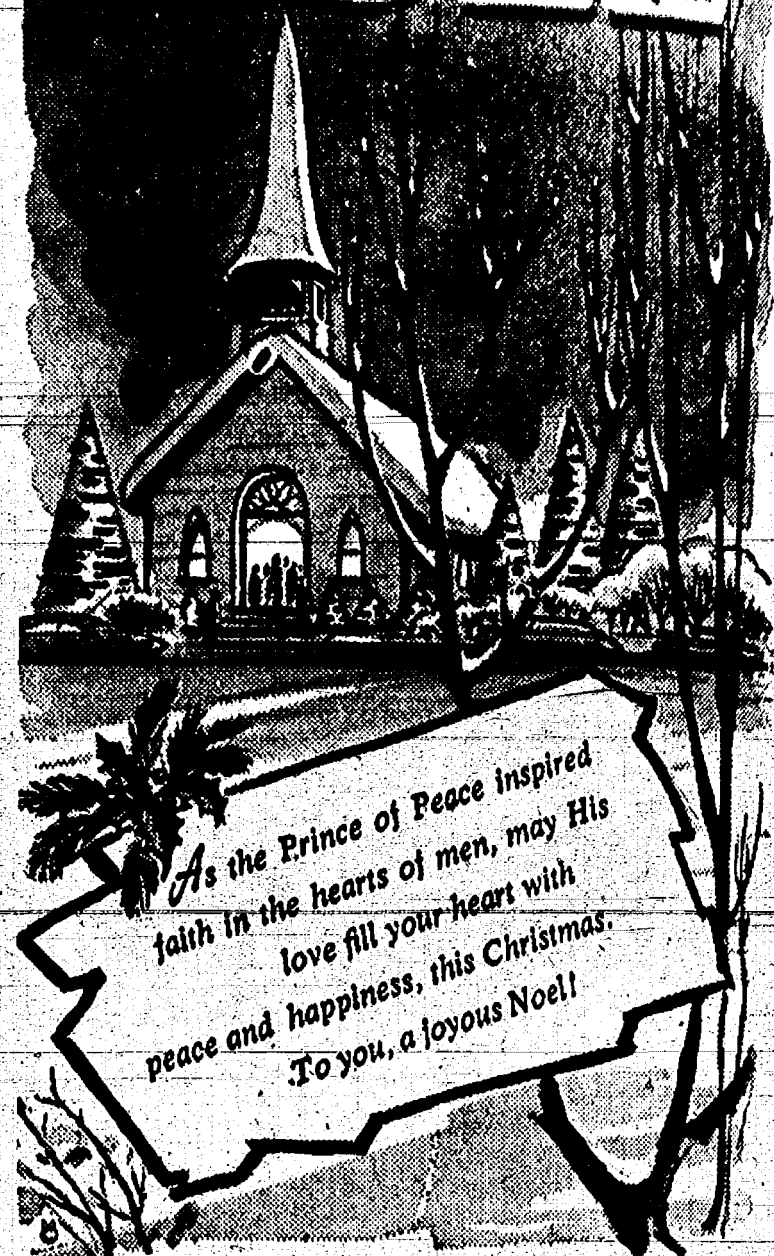

Envelopes containing the bids should be plainly marked "Proposal for Bonds."

The right is reserved to reject any or all bids.

JOY AT CHRISTMAS

Through the silence of a Holy Night, the shining wonder of Christmas dawns once more upon the world. In Christmas hymns and stories...in the sacred words of the Bible...the miracle of His birth lives again, as awesome, as exalting, as full of hope and promise as on that night when shepherds watched their flocks, and Wise Men followed a Star. Across the ages, His message of Peace on Earth, Good Will to Men comes to bring us joy. At this glorious season, we wish for you and your family a blessed Christmas, rich in spiritual rewards, in happiness and peace.
