The judge stated that a full-scale hearing was necessary before a ruling could be made on the question of whether the dump is a "nuisance," as the adjacent property owners and Sharon township charged when instituting the court action.

Sharon Township Rubbish Dump Hearing Postponed

Sharon Township Supervisor Russell Fuller, speaking of the Oct. 14 hearing in a suit filed by the township and several property owners to have a Sharon township farm owner discontinue use of his property as a site for the disposal of rubbish and garbage, said yesterday that the case has been postponed until a later date.

Visiting Circuit Judge Timothy C. Quinn of Lapeer presided at Friday's hearing, and announced that he would sign an order to make the operators of the dump comply with state and local statutory regulations.

The judge stated that a full-scale hearing was necessary before a ruling could be made on the question of whether the dump is a "nuisance," as the adjacent property owners and Sharon township charged when instituting the court action.

Blood Bank Nets 117 Pints From Clinic

The Chelsea Community Blood Bank clinic held here Friday, yielded a total of 117 pints of blood, Mrs. Dudley Holmes, the blood bank chairman reported. She said 17 volunteers were selected because of various disqualifying reasons.

The clinic was held in the basement of the Congregational church from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. and 2 to 5 p.m.

Physicians who volunteered their services were Dr. James Shadon and Dr. Victor Hanson.

Representatives of the Greyhound Lines sought a new agent for the Chelsea area. The company last week that Louise's Dairy Bar would be the agent here but Birch has agreed to act in that capacity for only one month.

The matter was the principal item of discussion at Tuesday's Council meeting.

Chelsea Drug Store had been the Chelsea agent for the bus company for many years prior to Oct. 12, when the move to the dairy bar was announced.

It was pointed out at the Council meeting that any business place, gas station or even a home could serve as a station, and it was requested that anyone willing to volunteer to serve as agent in order to retain bus service for the community, contact the village clerk at once.

The bus company representative, in his discussion of the situation with President Alber, said the bus service to Chelsea was in the nature of an accommodation since revenues received barely cover the cost of the service.

People of the community who depend on bus service for their transportation will be the losers should the company fail to locate an agent here.

Child Injured Sunday When Struck by Car

Connie Fletcher, seven years old, suffered a broken left arm, broken left leg and multiple bruises about the head when she was struck by a car at 3:15 p.m. Sunday in front of her home at 428 East Middle St.

The Rev. Edwin J. Weiss, superintendent of the Methodist Home, was the driver of the car.

According to Police Department reports of the mishap, the child ran from the curb into the street directly in front of the car. Skid marks made on the pavement indicate that the vehicle had been traveling at approximately 25 miles per hour when the brakes were applied.

The child was taken to St. Joseph's Hospital, Ann Arbor, in an ambulance.

She is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fletcher.

Juvenile Court Report Shows Greatly Increased Case Load

Probate Judge John W. Conlin, in submitting a review of the juvenile court program for the past year, said it was the first time in several years that the court had been able to prepare such a report.

Judge Conlin believes the report will be of interest and will help people of the county to a better understanding of juvenile problems and the Washtenaw County Juvenile Court program.

The report states that during the year 1959, to date, Washtenaw county children have had personal and social difficulties which fall within the Michigan Juvenile Code at a rate greatly increased over earlier years. Juvenile court assistance went to 700 children in 1958, to 939 in 1959, will reach 1,114 in this year of 1960, and the predicted number for 1961 is 1,340.

These figures far exceed the gradual rise in child population in this county (52,999 under 19 years in 1957—approximately 57,000 in 1960). Juvenile Court intake and supervision statistics show almost 60 per cent of the caseload to be neglected children, and the minority remainder are delinquent youth.

Officials think the great increase in numbers of court children is really a reflection of two facts. Families in the county are less able to halt their children's misbehavior and to give real care to living together harmoniously, so that their personal problems are now the community's concern. Secondly, this trend has grown steadily since World War II, but the Washtenaw County Probate Court Juvenile Division has grown to a full-fledged helping and corrective agency only in the past two years. The county-wide interest in this new program is resulting in a steady increase in referrals.

On Sept. 1, 1960, a total of 533 children were wards of the court, divided as follows: in own homes, 295; in court boarding homes, 83; in private institutions, 50; in Michigan's Children's Institute, 69; in state training schools, 12; in free foster homes, 18; in state hospitals, 13; in relatives' homes, 32; in Washtenaw county Juvenile Home, 10; and in wage homes, 1.

The Juvenile court staff works to keep most children in their own homes by building the parents' ability to manage home and child rearing effectively. During 1959,

Senior Citizens Arts, Crafts Show Planned for County

For the first time in Washtenaw county's history, a Senior Citizens Arts and Crafts Show is being planned. The show will be held at the Senior Citizens Guild, 323 Packard St., Ann Arbor, the week of Nov. 13-20. Daily hours for the show will be 2 p.m. to 9 p.m.

Any person 60 years of age or older, living in Washtenaw county, is eligible to exhibit any item in the suggested category, providing the item was made after the person reached his or her 60th birthday.

The categories as listed are as follows: basket weaving, candle-making, ceramics, copper and metal crafts, literature, millinery, needlework, neopoints, novelties, weaving, rugs and painting. (Pictures must be framed ready for hanging).

It is emphasized that there will be no foods or plants exhibited. Each exhibitor may send in one exhibit in each of the categories mentioned.

Application forms for Chelsea area residents may be obtained from Chamber of Commerce headquarters at Chelsea Drug Store, corner North Main and West Middle St.

The exhibitor must bring or send his exhibits to the Senior Citizens Guild, 323 Packard St., Ann Arbor, not later than Nov. 5; have duplicate entry blanks properly filled out and attached to each individual item exhibited; and then pick up his or her exhibits at the show from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. on Monday and Tuesday, Nov. 21 and 22.

There is no charge for exhibiting at the show.

The Senior Citizens Arts and Crafts Show is sponsored by Altrusa International, Ypsilanti-Ann Arbor club, co-operating with the Washtenaw county Co-operative Extension Service; the Bureau of Community Services Committee on

Plans Underway for Halloween Period Filled with Surprises

Prowler Routed From Schumacher Home Last Week

A prowler entered the home of Miss Minnie Schumacher on South Main St. Wednesday evening, but fled when Miss Schumacher screamed as she caught sight of him standing in the doorway of her room.

Investigation by police who were called to the scene revealed that entrance was gained by removing bars from a basement window and then breaking the window. The intruder went up the basement stairs, forced the door into the kitchen and opened an outside back door in preparation for a quick get-away. There were indications that attempts had been made to force first floor windows from the outside.

Miss Schumacher had retired early and it was shortly after 10 o'clock when she was awakened and discovered the prowler.

Several leads have been uncovered and it was learned, also, that the man was seen by several persons who placed him at the scene shortly before the break-in.

Special Festivities Planned Around New Parking Lot

Announcements have been made for numerous activities in Chelsea for the Halloween week-end and a "special Standard reporter" has been appointed by committees working on the project.

The traditional Kiwanis Halloween party for children of the community is scheduled for Saturday, Oct. 29, at 6:30 p.m. with "tricks or treats" night to take place Sunday night, Oct. 31.

This is a departure from previous years and was arranged to coincide with the week-end of activities announced in the accompanying story by the "special Standard reporter."

We have a fine new parking lot completed and already in use. It is well lighted and arranged so as to be a credit to towns considerably larger than Chelsea. Many of you have already made use of this lot but have you really seen it?

The retaining wall along the Park St. side is built with a bleacher type of construction, and the lighting system is so arranged that it may be used for correct lighting for many other uses than parking.

Yes, our parking lot is also a carefully planned Community Outdoors Activities Center.

We hear rumors of the hustle and bustle of various committee meetings concerning a formal dedication of this combination parking lot and community outdoor activities center. Village officials have appointed a special committee with dedication plans including a football pep meeting, band concert with the high school band, parade, and special plans for the Dexter-Chelsea football game, Halloween activities, Kiwanis, parade, pumpkins, cornshucks, new loud speaker system—all scheduled to start off with a bang next Thursday night.

Your Chelsea Standard reporter is busy trucking down all of these plans and will give a complete report of all activities next week. Watch your Standard. He ready for anything and everything!

H. Morgan Dies Suddenly Early Friday

Harry A. Morgan, 48 years old, died very suddenly at 2:15 a.m. Friday at his home, 151 Dewey Ave.

Employed at Federal Screw Works the past 24 years, he and his wife had also owned and operated the Patty Ann Shoppe on North Main St. the past two and one-half years.

Born at Charleston, W. Va., June 5, 1912, he was a son of Homer and Nellie O'Dell Morgan.

At Kenton, O., May 20, 1938, he was married to Effie Carpenter who survives. They made their home at McGuffey, O., until moving to Chelsea, March 18, 1935 and have resided here since then.

In addition to widow, he is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Chester Kniskiewicz (Norma Jean) of Melbourne, Fla., and Mrs. Jay Ferguson (Helen Jane) of Chelsea; four grandchildren; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Morgan of Kenton, O.; a sister, Mrs. Merle Roush, of Lima, O., and three brothers: Ray of Ann Arbor, and George and Gene of Lima, O.

Funeral services were held at 2 p.m. Monday at the Staffan Funeral Home with the Rev. Philip Rusten officiating. Burial followed at Oak Grove cemetery.

Lt. Gov. Swainson Will Visit Chelsea Tuesday Afternoon

Announcement was made yesterday that Lieutenant Governor Swainson, Democratic candidate for governor, will be in Chelsea Tuesday afternoon between 4 p.m. and 5 p.m. to meet Chelsea people on the streets and at Democratic headquarters, 104 South Main St.

Community Chest Drive Underway

Chelsea Community Chest solicitors began their work Monday, immediately following the "kick-off" luncheon at the Congregational church, Jack Wellnitz, the campaign chairman said.

Lyle Haselswerdt, Community Chest vice-president, presided at the luncheon meeting and Alfred Meyer, luncheon chairman, introduced Jack Keller, widely-known speaker on behalf of United Fund drives. He is personnel manager at the Ypsilanti Ford plant.

Progress of the drive to raise the 1961 goal of $15,237 will be noted by means of a Red Feather "thermometer" which will be in place on the Post Office lawn throughout the two-week campaign, Oct. 17-31.

25-YEAR AWARDS — George Muehlhausen, (left) in recognition of 25 years of service with the company. Davidson is general manager of the Chelsea Spring Division and Schwegler is plant superintendent. The two men were honored by friends at a dinner in Jackson Tuesday evening.

School Policies on Field Trips Stated by Board

This is the third installment of the list of school policies as adopted by the Chelsea School Board. Policies related to use of the school building and facilities were included in a list published in the Oct. 6 issue of The Standard.

In the Oct. 13 issue, school policies pertaining to noon driving by students; social activities, solicitations for charity, a telephone teaching program, etc., were published.

The fourth in the series, which will be published Oct. 27, pertains to pupil transportation.

EXCURSION, FIELD TRIPS AND ATHLETIC TRIPS

1. Philosophy—
a. The board of education wishes to encourage the use of school buses to supplement the instruction of pupils. Planned and organized trips are very helpful and educational but should be coordinated with the regular instructional program. Trips just to take a trip are of little educational value and not justifiable.

2. All pupils who ride on the bus going must return on the bus, unless requested by parent or guardian in person to return in another manner.

3. A staff member shall be in charge of each bus and responsible for the pupils at all times.

4. Cost of Excursion and Field Trips—
a. The board of education shall pay the cost of gasoline, oil, bus operation and bus drivers on all approved trips.

5. Approval—
a. The approval of the superintendent, principal and bus manager is necessary for the use of buses on excursions, field trips and athletic contests.

6. Observance of Regulations—
A. Out-of-town Trips (Private Car)—
a. Any pupil who does not obey the rules and regulations as prescribed herein may be refused future transportation.

b. Any pupils attending any school activity away from school and while under the supervision of the school must have adult supervision in each car. Adults, preferably, should be drivers. Pupils shall return in the same vehicle in which they rode going, or changes must be approved by person in charge on request of the parent in person.

b. The school will take no responsibility for out-of-town trips unless the above provisions are complied with completely.

B. Excursions—
a. Special school excursions are limited to a twenty-five mile radius, thus safety is better maintained and day light travel assured.

b. The teacher is in charge of the pupils at all times.

c. All pupils who ride on the bus going must return on the bus.

d. The itinerary of the trip, including time of leaving, route, rest and lunch stops, approximate time of arrival at destination, and approximate time of arrival starting point, will be arranged by the teacher with the approval of the administration.

C. Field Trips—
a. Field trips in the immediate area, to supplement the instructional program are encouraged.

b. The teacher is in charge of the pupils at all times.

c. All pupils who ride on the bus going must return on the bus, unless requested by the parent or guardian in person to return in another manner.

d. Each teacher is requested to limit field trips to two (2) per year if possible.

D. Athletic Contest Trips—
a. Team buses—
(1) Only participants, coaches, or school officials may ride on buses.

(2) Pupils must ride on the bus in order to participate in the contest.

(3) All participants who ride on the bus going to the contest must return on the bus.

(4) The head coach or athletic director shall be in charge of the participants at all times.

Mrs. Alma Montague of 19640 Ivey, Rd., is visiting this week in Milwaukee, Wis. She will be joined there by a son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Magar of Mooker, Colo. and will accompany them to Sarasota, Fla. to spend the winter.

Michigan's Freeway Mileage Soon To Pass 500-Mile Mark

Lansing—State Highway Commissioner John G. Mackie has announced that more than 122 miles of new freeway will be opened to traffic by Dec. 15.

It will be the greatest mileage of freeway opened in any two-month period in Highway Department history.

Total most of the 122 miles to be opened is estimated at $75 million, including right-of-way and engineering costs.

Mackie said the total freeway mileage in Michigan will pass the 500-mile mark sometime in November. This is more than five times the length of freeway open to traffic—101 miles—a little more than three years ago.

In addition, Michigan will have the longest continuous stretch of toll-free Interstate highway in the nation—208 miles from Detroit to Stevensville, south of St. Joseph by the end of the year.

"All of these openings are, of course, subject to one very important factor—weather," Mackie said. "With reasonable weather, it now appears these freeways will be ready for traffic by the end of November or earlier."

"However, unreasonable weather could cause a premature shutdown of work on some of these projects and might prevent them from opening. We hope this doesn't happen."

Even though the growing season is over, land in the Conservation Reserve may not be used for grazing so long as the land retirement contract remains in effect.

Max M. Kalmbach of the Washtenaw County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee said today in a reminder to farmers.

For Conservation Reserve contracts which expire in 1960, the prohibition on grazing continues until Dec. 31, Kalmbach said. For contracts with additional years to run, the farmer is obligated to withhold the land from crops or grazing and to refrain from breaking out new land until the contract expires.

Kalmbach said that 1960 annual payments are being made to Conservation Reserve participants now that performance has been checked to determine that contract requirements have been complied with during the past year. There are 159 contracts in effect in Washtenaw county in 1960, covering a total of 9,428 acres of cropland.

Violations in Justice Court

Officer Donley reported seven hunting violations heard Saturday and before Justice Chandler in Sylvan Township Justice Court. All who appeared pleaded guilty and each was assessed a fine and costs in lieu of days in jail. All paid the fines and costs.

Of the violations were shooting ducks after sundown for this were Dan Ewald, Oct. 9; and LeRoy J. of Brooklyn, and Dale of Jackson, Oct. 13, on the Wabasha flooding project. John E. Lickett, Jr., was hunting Oct. 15 without a license, and Russell E. Stroup, Oct. 16, hunting with a gun of holding more than the number of shells. These were the Wabasha area.

Who appeared for disbarment of their cases are Gordon Pinckney and Charles X. Jr. of Ypsilanti, shot ducks from a motorboat on Lake and Sylvester Burton, who, fishing without a license, the Huron River last night and Hopkins were assessed $120 fine and costs and was assessed $120 fine and costs.

CARELESS GUN HANDLING is one of the leading causes of hunting accidents in Michigan every year. This unwitting hunter above (right) shows a prime example of what NOT to do! Always keep your gun pointed away from you and others. Before crossing a fence, lay your gun flat on the ground with its stock pointed toward the fence. Do not walk in the path of the barrel. After crossing, pull your gun through the fence (left). Never climb a fence with a loaded gun!

Hunting Is Not Deadly Sport, But Improvement Possible

Sixteen hunters are and will be missing from this fall's small and big game seasons in Michigan. There may be others but the absence of these 16 is a sad certainty. They were killed by hunting accidents last year.

Another 270 hunters who may take to the woods, fields, and marshes owe their return to luck. They were wounded during the 1959 seasons. "Luck" is the best word to describe that split-second, paper-thin difference between a fatality and non-fatality.

This is not to say that hunting is a deadly sport as often pictured by bold, sweeping headlines during the gunning seasons. Insurance statistics show that, nationwide, hunting rates 17th in terms of accidents per 100,000 participants. More than 1,000,000 hunters were afield during Michigan's 1959-1960 seasons. There was one fatal accident per 71,819 hunters and one non-fatal per 6,474. Although the rate of injuries was up somewhat from 1958, it has been decreasing generally in recent years.

Here is the whole point: There is always room for improvement. The road to improvement is straight and narrow—flanked on either side by carelessness which leads to most, if not all, accidents. A few examples from the Conservation Department's files tell how hunters got off the track last year. They include some of the most common forms of carelessness which crop up each year.

One deer hunter forgot to unload his 12-gauge shotgun at the end of his day in the woods. While getting ready to head for camp in a pickup, he lost his grip on the

Pheasants Plentiful But Heavy Cover Will Help Hide Them

Pheasants are a legal game for hunters here beginning at 10 a.m. today (Thursday) and until Nov. 10.

Conservation Officer Donley Boyer said yesterday that while there appears to be some increase in the number of birds this year, the available cover is extra heavy because of the mild fall.

Boyer said hunters will really have to "hunt" to find their prey this year.

Final Corn Price Support Set at $1.09

With the main corn harvest under way, Chairman Max M. Kalmbach of the Washtenaw County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee today announced that the price-support rate for 1960-crop corn in the county will definitely be $1.09.

The county rate is based on a national average of $1.08 a bushel. Under the law, the 1960 support rate for corn is fixed at 85 percent of parity—80 percent of the average farm price for the past three years. Under this provision, the 1960 support rate is six cents a bushel lower than in 1959.

The final rate is unchanged from $1.09, the minimum price-support rate for the county announced several weeks ago. The minimum was a preliminary rate announced in advance of harvest to enable the corn price-support program to begin promptly. The final rate was determined on the basis of later information available at the opening of the corn marketing year, Oct. 1.

To be eligible for price support, corn must grade No. 2 or better (except that No. 4 because of test weight only is acceptable), must meet certain moisture requirements and must also be in adequate storage.

Any farmer wishing to apply for a corn loan should notify the price-support loan inspector in his community or apply to the county ASC office located in Room 18, Washtenaw County Building, Ann Arbor.

Juvenile Court...

eral lessening of the number since the 1957 figure of 226. Estimated number of detention stays for 1960 is 165.

The average length of detention, however, has increased from 9.1 days in 1957 to an estimated 23.9 days in 1960, the average daily census being 4.2 in 1957 and 9.4 children in 1960.

Several observable trends spell more hopeful results for children: The typical delinquent child is being held on probation for a longer period of time. He is being interviewed by his social worker in his own school (and elsewhere), and is likely being seen far more often than in years past. Many probationers are meeting in groups with court staff, and group meetings for parents also have occurred.

The discussions with parents and child at intake are taking more time, with more referrals to other agencies. Among the referred children who do not remain with the Juvenile Court are those who are soon diagnosed as mentally ill or mentally handicapped, and are referred to appropriate institutions.

Because of admission waiting lists at institutions and hospitals, a child who requires detention while awaiting out-of-home placement must remain weeks following the court order. The problem of hospitalization for mentally ill children is acute; and, for children who are dangerous to themselves or to others there is no place other than the Juvenile Home or jail. These pre-hospital stays are now lasting several months, and there is no real hope for a speedy solution. On occasions, there has been no room at the Juvenile Home for a child who should stay there overnight. The capacity of eight boys is insufficient oftentimes, and the problem will be critical in the future.

purchased from the University of Michigan Medical Center and from private clinicians, has provided speedy diagnostic and treatment care for court wards. In this area, we do not encounter the frustrating delay which other courts have experienced for years. Graduate students (University of Michigan) in field placement at the court gave casework and group therapy to a sizeable number of court children and parents. This program will continue for 1960-61. The benefits of the group work program are being watched carefully, with an eye to revising probation services to include a heavier group work emphasis one year from now.

Louis Rome, director of Juvenile Court services, and Probate Judge Conlin, in summing up the report, said, "Effective correction of destructive family situations and rehabilitation of damaged children requires professionally skilled guidance and prudent judicial decisions. Despite very heavy caseloads, the juvenile division staff has performed with devotion to their children and Court. Our methods of operation and program policies undergo constant rethinking in order to serve Washtenaw county well."

HOW MUCH IS TOO MUCH

to pay for health? Perhaps you believe that today's medicines are too high in price. Some capsules your doctor prescribes may cost 50 cents each—a dollar each... or even more. This sounds expensive. But is it?

- Divide the price of the medicine into four parts, so that you can see what you are getting for your money:
1. A smaller hospital bill—because an effective medication put an end to the ailment in a few days or a few hours.
 2. Fewer visits from your doctor—because some new discovery stopped an infection quickly.
 3. Wages earned—because a complete recovery was possible sooner than would have been the case a few years ago.
 4. A life—because "expensive" drugs helped resist possible serious after-effects (a danger in prolonged illnesses).
- We believe you will agree that today's medicines aren't so expensive after all, because they bring you real value for your money. They represent one of your best investments.

Small Game Hunters Urged To Get Farmers' Permission

Lansing—Small game hunters in southern Michigan are urged to start their season off on the right foot Oct. 20 by getting permission to hunt on private lands before taking to the field.

It only takes a few minutes to do the right thing and the Conservation Department's hunting permission survey in this part of the state during the last two seasons show that courtesy pays off.

Approximately 75 per cent of more than 550 farmers contacted gave the "o.k." to hunt on their lands sometime during the 1958 and 1959 seasons. The survey covered urban areas as well as rural regions.

Results of the survey bear out the spirit of farmer co-operation over the years. Since the mid-30's, the thousands of farmers have worked to cut trespass problems and balance hunter kill with available game by participating in the Williamston Plan.

Thirty-seven farmer clubs, representing approximately 1,800 farmers and 113,000 acres in southern Michigan, are enrolled in the plan this season. These farmers will have their lands posted and will personally issue tickets to hunters. Only ticket holders will be allowed access to the farmer's lands. The landowner, himself, sets hunter quotas.

Success of the Williamston Plan and farmer-hunter relations rests, in the final analysis, with hunters.

Agency Broadens Program To Cover More Farmers

Farmers who have regular off-farm employment, if otherwise eligible, may obtain farm operating and development loans from the Farmers Home Administration, under the recently revised regulations of the agency.

Carl L. Robinson, Farmers Home Administration county supervisor for Washtenaw and Wayne counties, said the new regulation went into effect Oct. 1. Previously, except in rural development counties, a farmer had to spend most of his time farming in order to qualify for a loan.

Experience gained in rural development counties has shown that many farmers who are regularly employed off the farm can profitably use the Farmers Home Administration's credit facilities to increase the farm portions of their total incomes. The regulation, which had limited credit assistance to farmers who spend most of their time farming, prevented some from obtaining the maximum income from their farms and from taking advantage of opportunities for industrial and other off-farm employment.

Other eligibility requirements remain unchanged. Applicants must have sufficient farm experience, to carry on sound farm operations, must need credit, and be unable to obtain financial assistance from other sources. As in the past, credit will be extended only to operators of farms that are family-type or smaller. No loan will be made unless a plan for the coming year's farming operations shows that income from the farm and other sources will be large enough to enable the farm family to have reasonable standard of living, pay debts, and have an adequate reserve for emergencies.

Loan funds may be used to pay farm operating costs, purchase equipment and livestock, pay farm development costs, and refinance certain debts.

Technical farm and money management assistance is supplied to each borrower to the extent necessary.

The Farmers Home Administration office serving Washtenaw and Wayne counties is located in Room 17 of the Washtenaw County Building, corner of Main and Huron streets, Ann Arbor.

Area Receives Increase from Intangible Tax Allocation

County Treasurer, Wm. F. Vermer, has received a check from the State covering Washtenaw county's share of the intangible taxes in the amount of $208,959.16.

This amount is based on the 1960 population of 171,278 at $1.22 per capita.

Washtenaw county received for its share of the 1959 tax an amount of $200,562.94 which is equal to $1.49 per capita on the 1950 census of 134,600.

As a result of the increase in the census for Washtenaw county which is above the average increase for the State, the townships, cities and villages of Washtenaw county will receive $8,396.22 more for 1960 than for 1959.

However, since some of the local units have a census increase of more and some less than the average the distribution will result in some units receiving less and others more than was distributed for 1959.

Remittances are being sent by the county treasurer to the treasurers of the townships, cities and villages in Washtenaw county.

According to Vermer's information Chelsea's share is $4,058.20, an increase of $194 over that of 1959. This is based on the census figures of 2,580 for 1960 and 3,810 for 1950.

Dexter will receive $2,074.00, an increase of $120.87 over 1959. Dexter's population is listed as 1,367 in 1950 and 1,700 in 1960.

Manchester's share, $1,908.08, is $160.04 less than the amount received in 1959. Manchester's population figures are 1,388 in 1960 and 1,564 in 1950.

Townships in this area, the amounts they will receive this year; the increase (or decrease) over 1959; and the 1950 and 1960 census figures in that order, are as follows:

Dexter township — $2,074.04; $832.58 increase; 1,367-1,700.
Freedom — $1,290.76; $35.84 decrease; 200-1,068.

Lima — $1,202.92; $87.42 decrease; 866-986.
Lyndon — $1,254.16; $130.66 increase; 750-1,028.

Conference Planned On Uses of Wood in Modern Construction

Victor Horvath, District Forester for Michigan Department of Conservation who is responsible for forestry activities in southeastern Michigan, reports that a conference on "Wood in Modern Construction" will be held at the Legion Hall in Mio, Nov. 3.

This meeting is being sponsored by the Department of Forest Products and the Co-operative Extension Service of Michigan State University. Speakers will be provided by several wood-using industries and faculty members of Michigan State University.

The conference is a pilot educational effort to attempt to present information about the broad role of a wood in modern buildings and the latest research reports about the uses of wood. It is designed to be of specific benefit to architects, engineers, contractors, builders, lumber dealers, school and church officials, realtors, lending agencies, building inspectors, insurance representatives, and code and safety officials. A question and answer period at the end of the one-day session.

BOY SCOUT NEWS
TROOP 25—This week's meeting of Troop 25 BSA was opened by Roy Lange's patrol. The calendar of coming events was read by the Scoutmaster, Robert Foye, and the Scouts who are to usher at the U. of M. game next Saturday were reminded to be at the Tower building at 10:30 sharp.
Roy Lange's patrol gave a demonstration of "First Aid" with Eugene Morley, Kurt Kinde, Loren Boyer and Roy Lange participating.
The boys then played a game until time for the closing ceremony, after which the troop was dismissed.
Troop 25 is selling holly again this year.

They are visiting at the home of Mrs. Hall's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Lesser, Sr., and will also visit other relatives before Nov. 1, when Airman Hall is to report for a new assignment with the 379th Combat Support Gp., SAC, at Wurtsmith Air Force Base, at Oscoda.

New Spray Will Control Yellow Rocket

Yellow Rocket, the pest sometimes known as winter grass or simply Mustard, is turning Michigan farm land into fields of yellow during spring and early summer months.

When the weed is in bloom it is too late for effective control. But according to Don Johnson, Washtenaw County Agriculture Agent, Yellow Rocket can most easily be destroyed before the plant blooms. This can best be accomplished by applications of MCP Amine in the fall after several sharp frosts.

Right now the weed is growing in alfalfa and other legume crops as well as pastures, etc., and appears in a rosette of leaves lying flat on the ground.

When spraying is delayed until sharp frosts occur, established alfalfa and other legumes are not significantly damaged.

How and what to spray: Use 1 pint MCP Amine (1/2 pound actual 2, 4-D acid) in 10 to 20 gallons of water per acre. In established legumes, spraying should be delayed until after 2-3 sharp frosts. Spraying may be done any time when temperature is 40 degrees F. or higher.

The cost for effective Yellow Rocket control is slightly more than $1.00 per acre, according to Johnson.

Talk on Russia Given Before Kiwanians

The Rev. E. J. Weiss was program chairman for the Oct. 17 meeting of the Kiwanis club of Chelsea. He introduced Dr. Frank Elft, Ann Arbor Presbyterian pastor, who gave a talk on Russia. Guests at the meeting, in addition to the speaker, included the Rev. Paul M. Schnake, the Rev. Allan Reed, the Rev. George P. Stanford, Ray Knickerbocker and Francis Wojciechowski.

The meeting was held in the social center of the Methodist church.

Many New Registrations Reported

Approximately 1,500 new registrations for the Nov. 8 election have been reported in the seven townships in the Chelsea-Dexter area. Figures for the entire county were not yet available.

The increase in the number of registered voters reflects the general increase of interest in the Nov. 8 presidential election as well as the "get out the vote" promotion in newspapers and on television and radio.

In Sylvan township the total number of registered voters now stands at 2,425, including 332 new registrations since the August primaries. Precinct I has 1,222 names and Precinct II, 1,203.

In Scio township the total number of registered voters is 3,340, as compared to the Aug. 1 figure of 2,615, an increase of 725. Scio township's Precinct I now has 1,547 registered voters while the number in Precinct II is 1,823.

Chelsea township lists 815 registered, including 89 new names; Lyndon, 392 of which 42 are new; Freedom, 578, with 53 listed as new; Webster, 640, including 158 new names.

Democrats Plan Public Meeting Friday Evening

Sylvan township Democrats are planning a public meeting at 8 p.m. tomorrow (Friday) at McKune Memorial Library to provide an opportunity for Chelsea area residents to meet Democratic candidates Thomas Payne, Arthur Cutler and William Dannemiller.

Payne seeks election as congressman opposing incumbent George Meader; Cutler is running against Republican Stanley Thayer for state senator; and Dannemiller is the candidate for state representative opposing the incumbent, James Warner.

Also here for the affair will be Secretary of States James M. Hare.

Each of the candidates will speak at the meeting and refreshments will be served by a committee of women.

Hopkins Resident Killed Saturday In Crash on US-12

Henry Zimmerman, 61, of Hopkins, was pronounced dead on arrival at St. Joseph Mercy hospital, Ann Arbor, at 9 a.m. Saturday after suffering injuries in a two-car traffic accident on US-12 five miles west of Chelsea.

Others injured in the crash were Zimmerman's wife, Wanda, 62, a passenger in her husband's car, Charles Redmond, 76, of Dearborn, the driver of the other car and four high school students riding with Redmond.

The students were William Matthews, 16, Carol Kukhan, 16, Susan Brooks, 15, and Paul Woodward, 17, all of Dearborn.

Reports of the accident state that Redmond's car was headed west and apparently failed to make a detour turn necessitated by road construction in progress.

The Redmond car and Zimmerman's east-bound car crashed head-on.

Lanes of traffic were halted for more than two miles in both directions after the accident.

Senior Citizens of St. Paul Honored at Church Dinner

Women of St. Paul's church honored their "senior citizens" (older women of the congregation) by a "Miss Lillie Wackenhut" dinner held in the dining hall of the church prior to the Oct. 12 meeting of the Women's Guild.

A committee, including Mrs. Waldo Kusterer, Mrs. Eldon Gordon and Mrs. Darrell Larson served the dessert and coffee and had also decorated the table with red and yellow chrysanthemums and white candles for an effective fall color theme.

Invited to be guests at the affair and present at the dinner were Mrs. William Fox, Mrs. Adam Eppler, Mrs. Mary Faust, Mrs. Otto Goetz, Mrs. Christina Nicolai, Miss Lillie Wackenhut, Mrs. Mary Plummer, Mrs. Esther Hayes, Mrs. George Mayer and Mrs. Jacob Lehman. A "senior citizen" guest of her sister, Mrs. Otto Mayer, was Mrs. John Kilmer. Each was presented with a small plant.

Others invited but not present for the gathering included Mrs. Louis Eppler, Mrs. William Bahnmiller, Mrs. Mary Ellenberger, Miss Elizabeth Osterle, Mrs. Lydia Schallie, Mrs. Martin Gotschling, Mrs. Charles Messner and Mrs. Herman Haas.

Miss Lillie Wackenhut, on behalf of the senior group present, expressed appreciation for the evening's entertainment.

The evening's program was in charge of Mrs. Wilbur Hinderer and Mrs. M. L. Dietle.

Mrs. Elmer Pierce read the Scripture; poems were read by Mrs. Hinderer and Mrs. Herbert Paul; and German hymns were sung by a choir composed of Miss Cora Feldkamp, Miss Amanda Koch, Mrs. Otto Lucht, Mrs. Oscar Stierle, Mrs. Herbert Paul, Mrs. Arthur Schaller, Mrs. Martha Weinmann and Miss Dorothea Plemeier with Mrs. Oscar Lindauer as accompanist.

4-H Fall Achievement Show Set

Many of Washtenaw county's 1,200 4-H club members, their parents, friends and leaders will be attending the county-wide 4-H Fall Achievement program on Thursday, Oct. 20.

The program starts 8 p.m. and will be held in the Ann Arbor High school large auditorium.

This program features the presentation of the various awards that 4-H club members have earned during the past summer and winter 4-H programs. Many of these have not yet been announced.

Also featured throughout the program will be the honor group selected from the small group acts at the County Talent Festival.

The Ann Arbor Kiwanis Club is sponsoring this event which is one of the highlights in the 4-H Club program. Following the program, refreshments will be served in the cafeteria.

Much of the planning for this program has been done by the Agricultural Committee of the Ann Arbor Kiwanis club and its chairman, Ray McCalla.

'Angry Jungle' Film Scheduled At Sharon Church

'Angry Jungle' a 30-minute color film appealing particularly to youths of junior school age, will be shown Saturday, Oct. 22, 9 p.m. at North Sharon Bible Church, corner Sylvan-Washburne roads. This production, released by Gospel Films, Inc., of Muskegon, is sponsored here by the North Sharon Young Peoples Society.

Extensive shots for this film were made in the Malaysian jungle and in Singapore, featuring natives in some of the picture's leading roles as well as "Buster" Weatherly, teen-age son of Joseph T. Weatherly, overseas director of Gospel Films.

It is the story of the ever-present communist threat in the Orient and tells how the forces of Christianity are the sole remaining ramparts against the Red menace.

Exciting sequences showing the activities of communist guerrillas in the steaming Malaysian jungle, and the struggle by Christian workers and converts to stop them, make this one of the most thrilling and timely to be produced by the Muskegon company, and a strong follow-up of an earlier release now being shown all over the world, "Something To Die For."

Over 80 percent of the nonagricultural workers in 1950 received pay for their vacations, and about 45 percent were entitled to paid sick leave, the U. S. Labor Department's Bureau of Labor Statistics reported.

Owners were William Hoffy and Dennis Ryan, no date; Cyrenus Willman, 1843; Christopher C. Augar, 1845; Jason Davis, 1854; Ed Perkins (or Peckins), 1855. The Godfrey Eismann family's 85-year ownership of the farm was listed next.

The Christian Haas family who owned the farm from 1914 until 1949, included two daughters, Mrs. Clara Loeffler, now of near Manchester, and Miss Alma Haas, at present in Chelsea; also, a son, Julius Haas who died about two years ago.

The daughter, Barbara, and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Christian Haas, purchased the farm in 1914 from the parents' estate and the Haas family owned it until it was purchased by Mr. and Mrs. Hines in 1949. The Eismann family ownership of the place totaled 85 years.

According to ownership records, the farm was secured from the U. S. Government in 1838 by James W. Bowen. Other early

Only thing certain about the affair was the fact that the following do appear in the photo—Al and Dot Grammatico, Neva Eichhorn, Tom and Joyce Colthugs, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Cobb, Jack and Carol Frinkel, Virginia and Edward Visel, Fred and Edna Streets, Philip and Margaret Kunzelman, Carl and Dorothy Johnson, Ralph and Helene Frisch, Hob and Gladys Reed, Nancy and Clarence Wood, Jan and Ren Hutzel, Pat and Nellie Matthews, Laurence and Laureta Boyer, Bill and Rita Collins, Bill and Grace Hitchingham, Leota and Hob Shilling, Pete and Nettie Severn, Elmer and Vivian Keppler and Connie Eichhorn, the caller, as Miss Gray. The club holds dances on the first and third Saturdays of each month.

Home of Vergil Hines Family Proves Difficult To Identify

MYSTERY FARM NO. 120—This farm, long the home of Mr. and Mrs. Vergil Hines and their daughter, Susan, at 2504 Loeffler Rd., south of Chelsea, and is the home of Mr. and Mrs. Vergil Hines and their daughter, Susan.

the only ones, in addition to Mrs. Hines, who were positive in their identification.

A number of calls were received from others but their identifications were incorrect.

Mrs. Whitney was the first one to call The Standard office. Before building their present home on Old US-12 near Pierce Lake, Mrs. Whitney and her husband lived across the road from the Hines farm.

Mrs. Hines, the former Gladys Buss, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Buss of Waters Rd., has lived in the Freedom township area all her life. She met Mr. Hines when he came to work here. His former home was at Richwood, W. Va.

The Hines family are members of St. John's Evangelical and Reformed church at Rogers Corners. They are also members of the Rogers Corners Farm Bureau group and Mrs. Hines is a member of the Women's Guild of St. John's church.

Susan is a member of the Wide Awake 4-H club of which Mrs. Walter Wolfgang is leader. Susan attends school at Chelsea North Elementary school.

Mr. Hines is employed at the Double A Products at Manchester. His farm activities are limited to raising hogs and chickens. The 149-acre farm is worked by Mrs. Hines' brother, Leroy Buss, of Waters Rd.

Mr. and Mrs. Hines were married in 1944. They purchased the farm with its 100-year-old, nine-room house, in 1949 and have done extensive remodeling during the past five years.

Older residents will remember the farm as the old Godfrey Eismann farm. Eismann and his wife, the former Marie Hinderer, moved there in 1863 and their entire family of five daughters and three sons were born there.

Included in the family were Paul, daughters and three sons—Fred, Godfrey and Emanuel Eismann; Mrs. Christian Haas (Barbara); Mrs. Michael Schiller (Christine); Mrs. William Knuffman (Mary); Mrs. Christian Horning (Amelia); and Mrs. William Eismann (Louise).

Emanuel, the youngest, is the only surviving member of the family. Now 83 years old, he and his wife make their home at 820 East St.

The daughter, Barbara, and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Christian Haas, purchased the farm in 1914 from the parents' estate and the Haas family owned it until it was purchased by Mr. and Mrs. Hines in 1949. The Eismann family ownership of the place totaled 85 years.

They May Not Stop Here, but Presidential Hopefuls Pass Thru?

Senator John F. Kennedy was observed on the back platform of his campaign train Friday morning as it passed through Chelsea on the way from Ann Arbor to Jackson during his one-day tour of the southern portion of Michigan. The train had left Ann Arbor at 8:59 a.m. and passed through here about 15 minutes later.

Dennis Tallant, Sylvan township Democratic committee chairman, had, during the previous week, contacted the New York Central Railroad and National Democratic committee officials in an attempt to have the train stop in Chelsea for a minute or two or at least, slow down as it passed through here; however, because of the schedules of other regular trains, he was told it was impossible. For this reason, no one expected the presidential candidate would be seen as the train sped through Chelsea.

By the time Kennedy's train was passing through Chelsea at 9:15 a.m., Tallant and five carloads of Chelsea Democrats were already at Jackson to be present for the speech he made there from the platform of his train.

Tallant was one of the official delegates on the welcoming committee at Willow Run when Senator Kennedy arrived at 12:45 a.m., an hour later than scheduled. A number of Chelsea residents were among the crowd on hand.

Kennedy flew from New York

Thursday night after his third national-wide television debate with Vice President Richard Nixon, the Republican presidential candidate. Kennedy spent the night at the Michigan Union at Ann Arbor.

Vice President Nixon is scheduled to make a "whistle stop" at Ann Arbor when his campaign train is in the state on Thursday, Oct. 27. The Nixon train will pass through Chelsea but the exact time has not yet been announced.

Democratic Candidates Attend Tea Tuesday At W. Wood Home

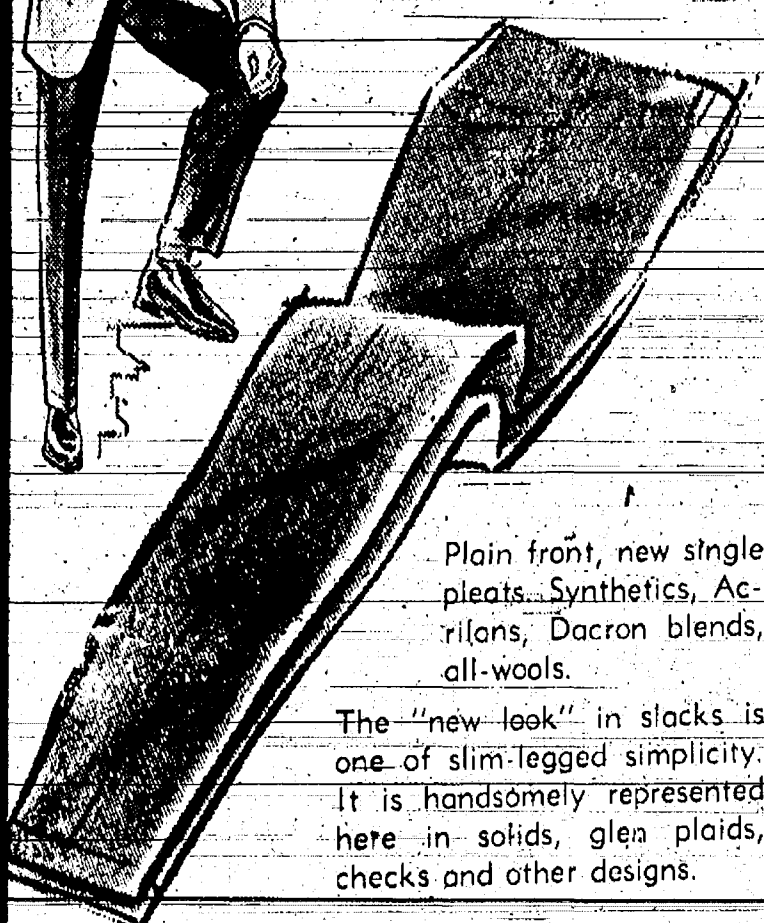

Mrs. Frederick Wagner, Mrs. John Keusch and Mrs. Wallace Wood were co-hostesses at a coffee hour held Tuesday morning at the home of Mrs. Wood and sponsored by the Sylvan township Democratic Women's group.

Approximately 40 people were present to meet the three Democratic candidates who attended as honor guests: Thomas Payne who is seeking election as representative in Congress; Arthur Cutler, candidate for the state senate; and William Dannehl, candidate for state representative.

And, for ride... the Special is host to the most... The big Comfort Zone gives you more total head, hip and leg room than the compacts. The 4-coil Control Arm suspension is the same kind as on full-size Buicks so you ride "on velvet." The Hide-Away drive shaft gives more flat floor space.

When you gift-wrap all this with Buick's Clean Look of action... then tag it just a whisper above the compacts, it's no wonder the word's out... '61 is BUICK'S YEAR!

Give as Generously as Possible to Your United Community Chest

Community Chest campaigns are now in progress across the country and right here in our own community. We have always favored the United Community Chest for our community in that it allows charity work to be centralized and bring some semblance of order and business-like procedure to the vast number of charitable efforts which were formerly conducted here.

In giving to the Community Chest, one knows that charities are carefully screened, that local people handle the money, and that various charities are given their equitable shares of money for the various purposes they solicit.

It is practically impossible for busy businessmen or any one else to decide the merits of the various individual charity drives. And most of us can remember the time, just a few years ago, when we were assembled on all sides by 20 or 30 different charitable campaigns each year.

Almost as bad as the confusion in the minds of prospective givers to all these approaches, was the fact that many of the same people were required for the various causes during the year—thereby requiring a lot of time, and creating much wasted effort and duplication.

We hope those who are able will make a generous contribution to the Community Chest, and suggest that if they must limit their donations to charitable causes, they limit them to the Chest Fund. Other organizations which will not cooperate with the Community Chest or United Fund, and so eliminate it, would be left out.

Of course, it would be nice if no legitimate organization ever had to be eliminated, and we do not recommend that they should be. But we do believe that of all the campaigns held in our community during the year, the Community Chest fund is of primary importance and is the principal effort which should be supported, first, and as generously as possible, by all our citizens.

The best way to keep up with the Joneses is to take it easy for a while and in a few years you'll meet them coming back.

Sheriff's Monthly Report Lists Total of 702 Complaints

The report continues by listing the various complaints received by the sheriff's office. The most common complaints were related to traffic violations, followed by domestic disputes and public disturbances. The sheriff's office is working to address these issues and improve the safety of the community.

The number employed in agriculture in 1960 will account for only about 6 percent of the total employed, compared with 12 percent 10 years ago and about 20 percent 20 years ago, according to U. S. Labor Department figures indicated.

Wages of Household Employees Subject to Social Security Taxes

Householders, do you employ a maid, a baby-sitter (either an adult or a teen-ager), a cook, handyman, or other household help? Do you pay your help as much as $50 in cash wages in a calendar quarter. If so, you are required to report these wages for social security tax purposes, Robert A. Kehoe, district manager of the Ann Arbor Social Security office stated today.

Let's take an example. Mrs. Brown employs Mary Smith to come in and clean the house two days each week and pays her $3.00 each day. This easily amounts to $50 a calendar quarter. Mrs. Brown should deduct 3 per cent from Miss Smith's wages, add a like amount, and every three months send it to the nearest District Director of Internal Revenue with a report of the cash wages paid.

Kehoe explained that the Social Security Act states that the employer is responsible for reporting these wages for social security tax purposes if they total $50 or more in a calendar quarter. A calendar quarter is any three-month period beginning Jan. 1, April 1, July 1, or Oct. 1 of each year. A penalty is required by the law for failure to make a timely report when one is required, Kehoe said. If you employ a household work-

MSU Faculty Leads In Service Abroad

East Lansing—Michigan State University led the nation's colleges and universities in the number of faculty scholars who were abroad in 1959-60, the Institute of International Education has reported.

The Institute's annual survey showed that 1,777 faculty members from 339 U. S. colleges and universities were on research or teaching assignments in 87 countries during the 1959-60 academic year.

Michigan State, a pioneer in international education, reported 147 scholars abroad in programs supported by federal or private sources. The University of California was second with 115 abroad, and the University of Michigan third with 54.

In 1958, 1 out of every 6 of the Nation's population aged 22 years or over had a bachelor's degree, compared with only 1 out of 50 in 1900, according to data published by the U. S. Labor Department's Bureau of Labor Statistics.

Bel Air Sport Coupe. There's up to 2 inches more head room in this trim new hardtop, more leg room, too—front and rear.

MOST USEABLE, LIVEABLE, LIKEABLE CAR EVER BUILT! SIXTY-ONED LKFUL CHEVY

Chevrolet has fewer inches on the outside this year. (Which you'll appreciate every time you park!) But a whole new measure of inside comfort and convenience from bigger door openings (up to 6 inches wider) to more foot room in the rear (where the floor hump's been slenderized). Seats are as much as 14% higher to give you greater comfort and a good command of the road. While out back, that low-loading luggage compartment is a regular storeroom on wheels. This is one '61 that's worth a long, long look. It's the kind of car that's so liveable, so downright sensible, you just can't help but like it.

BOWLING NEWS

Blond Bombshell of Bowling To Appear Here in Exhibition

LAVERNE CARTER

LaVerne Carter, the blond bombshell of bowling, will appear at Chelsea Lanes on Saturday, Nov. 19 in two special bowling exhibitions as a member of the Brunswick Advisory Staff of Bowling Champions, it was announced by Olie Johnson. She will present both afternoon and evening exhibitions.

LaVerne teamed with Marion Ladewig to win the BPAA national doubles title in both 1958 and 1959.

To those who believe that bowling is not a woman's game, LaVerne stands as a challenge. She has competed against men in match games for years and has a number of impressive victories over the top male stars of the country.

A few years back, for instance, LaVerne invaded Chicago while on tour and stood Chicago bowling fans on their ears by averaging 140 in the doubles. She really found her stride in the singles with a towering 634 which boosted her all-events score to a winning 1,788. Her 634 singles total was just five pins behind the winning score in that division.

Nearly 200 Die In Michigan Water Accidents This Year

At least 197 persons were drowned and another 215 injured in 421 water accidents in Michigan so far this year, according to the State Police. Delayed reports are expected to increase the totals somewhat.

The toll shows fewer deaths but represents increases in the number of accidents and injured persons compared to the similar period last year, when 261 had been reported drowned and 176 injured in 399 accidents.

Of the 421 accidents to date, 190 were fatal; 141 personal injury and 90 property damage only.

The persons drowned included 88 swimmers or waders, 27 boat operators, 25 boat passengers, 11 children who wandered away from parents and into water, four skin or scuba divers, two water skiers and 62 who died from other miscellaneous causes including 21 suicides.

Besides being a world play ground, having large manufacturing and commercial interest New Jersey's agricultural and fruit interests are large and valuable.

Club and Social Activities

PORT HILLS FARM BUREAU
The Port Hills Farm Bureau group, 11 families present, met Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Howard Haselwardt.

The evening's program period included a discussion of proposals submitted to voters at the member election. Howard Haselwardt led the discussion.

During a social hour which followed, refreshments were served. Prizes were given to Mrs. Glen Feldkamp for the ladies' first prize, and to Mrs. R. Reno Feldkamp for the first prize. James Kress won the traveling award and Mrs. R. Reno Feldkamp and Elmer Below won consolation awards.

The next meeting, Thursday, Oct. 23, will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Jacob.

JAYCEES AUXILIARY
The Jaycees-Auxiliary traditional October progressive dinner was held Tuesday evening, beginning with hors d'oeuvres served at the home of Mrs. Robert Meyers.

At the home of Mrs. George Ellenwood, she and her committee served a salad and this was followed by the main course at the home of Mrs. Gene Shoemaker.

The business meeting, followed by dessert, was held at the home of Mrs. Merle Leach.

Each Jaycee Auxiliary member was assigned to a committee and each committee kept secret until the time of serving, what the committee served.

During the business meeting an exchange of baby sitting among the members was planned as a means of raising money to send members to state Jaycees meetings and pay all the expenses. Each member participating in the project will contribute to the fund the amount customarily spent for baby sitting services.

A report of the Auxiliary's refreshment stand at the Jaycees barbeque Oct. 9 was given by Mrs. Merle Leach who stated it was successful.

The Auxiliary voted to continue its sponsorship of a local group of Girl Scouts and Mrs. George Ellenwood was appointed as the Auxiliary's representative on the Girl Scout committee.

The fall regional board meeting of the Auxiliary is to be held at Carlton, Wednesday, Oct. 20, with Mrs. Elton Guenther and Mrs. Daniel Maroney planning to attend.

The Chelsea Auxiliary is setting a goal of 100 per cent attendance at the winter-board meeting scheduled to be held in Jackson Feb. 16 and 17.

The next regular meeting of the Chelsea Auxiliary is to be held Tuesday, Nov. 15, at the home of Mrs. Homer Kuhl.

McEldowney-Moore Vows Repeated At Zion Church

At a double-ring wedding ceremony solemnized at Zion Lutheran church at Rogers Corners, Saturday at 7:30 p.m., Dorothy L. McEldowney became the bride of Arthur R. Moore, son of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Moore of 1270 Fletcher Rd. The Rev. C. J. Renner, pastor of the church, officiated.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard E. McEldowney of 480 Adams St., Jackson.

Soloist for the ceremony was Sonja Wackenhut who sang "Love You Truly" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride's gown, which was ballerina length, was fashioned of white lace over satin in princess style. Style features were a deep V-neckline, cap sleeves and matching lace gauntlets.

Her finger-ring length veil was attached to a pearl tiara. She carried an arrangement of white orchids with streamers of ribbon and mums on her white prayer book.

Mrs. McEldowney, the bride's sister, served as maid of honor. Wearing an orchid-colored gown styled like that of the bride, she carried a bouquet of yellow roses.

The gowns worn by the bride and the maid of honor were designed and made by their aunt, Mrs. Claude Ryan of Jackson.

Howard Moore, a brother of the bridegroom, was best man. Gerald McEldowney, brother of the bride, and William Zinke served as ushers.

The bride's mother wore for the wedding a light blue lace dress with white accessories, while the bridegroom's mother wore a two-piece dress in charcoal grey with white accessories. Each had a corsage of yellow carnations.

A reception was held in the parish hall immediately following the ceremony and later, the couple left for a trip to northern Michigan. They will be at home after Oct. 22, in their new home at 13493 Sager Rd.

Pre-nuptial parties for the bride included showers given by Mrs. Harold Salow, Mrs. John Dawson, and by Mrs. Clarence McEldowney and Mrs. Dan Wesolowski.

The bridegroom's parents entertained at a rehearsal dinner Friday evening.

PINCKNEY COUPLE TO BE HONORED HERE AT 50th WEDDING ANNIVERSARY OPEN HOUSE

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Jones who now make their home on Toms Rd. near Pinckney, will be honored Saturday afternoon at an open house reception at the home of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Slane, 537 North Main St., in observance of their 50th wedding anniversary. The reception will be held from 3 until 5 o'clock in the afternoon and from 7 until 9 p.m. in the evening.

Mrs. Jones is the former Elsie Haug. She and Mr. Jones were married Oct. 22, 1910, at Bloomington, Ill. They went to the state of Washington on their honeymoon and liked it so well there that they decided to take jobs in the apple industry and remain for three months. They spent three years in western states, including Kansas, before returning to Illinois where they made their home in the Suanem-Pontiac area until 1920. At that time, with approximately 20 families in that area, they moved to the Chelsea area. Mr. Jones' parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Jones had bought a farm on Chelsea-Dexter Rd., east of Four Mile Lake and the family lived there. Carl Jones was employed then at the old Four Mile Lake cement plant.

In 1924 the Carl Jones family moved back to Illinois, remaining until 1928 when they returned to the Dexter Rd. farm, remaining until 1940. Before moving to Pinckney early in 1940, they lived for a time in Ann Arbor.

Mr. Jones is in the gravel business at Pinckney.

Their family includes, in addition to Mrs. Slane (Viola), two other daughters and three sons—Mrs. Carl Davison (Vianna) of near Ann Arbor; Raymond of near Pinckney, Eldon Jones and Leonard Jones of Ann Arbor, and Mrs. Kenneth Ansel (Inez) of Whitmore Lake. They also have 33 grandchildren and 15 great-grandchildren.

R. M. Jones of Union City, with his wife and family, is expected to attend Saturday's reception. He is Carl Jones' only surviving brother.

Mrs. Jones has a sister and brother, twins, living in Kenton, Ill. They are Raymond Haug and Mrs. Mabel Goddard. They are much older than Mrs. Jones and have sent word they cannot be here for Saturday's celebration.

Eight Women, Two Men Honored at Methodist Home Birthday Party

The October birthday party at the Methodist Home took place yesterday during the noon dinner hour. Eight women and two men were honored as having birthdays during the month.

Halloween pumpkins, colored leaves, candles and fall flowers were used for the effective table decorations.

Each of the honored ladies received a necklace as a birthday gift while the two men received after-shave lotion.

Those whose birthdays were observed are Mrs. Minnie Pelton, Miss Susan Speechley, Mrs. Martha Gerbuck, Mrs. Fannie Raymo, Mrs. Violet Cole, Miss Edna Bell, Miss Addie Shepherd, Miss Belle Blakeslee, Charles Hill and Earl Davidson.

KENNEDY-JOHNSON BACKED

Ten leaders of the labor federation, with only one dissent, have endorsed the Democratic Presidential ticket. They called on their 13,500,000 members to give "full and unstinting" support to Senators John F. Kennedy and Lyndon B. Johnson in November.

The executive council of the American Federation of Labor and Congress of Industrial Organizations said the election of the two would be "in the best interest of the United States and of the labor movement."

CASE DISMISSED!

Newburgh, N. Y. — As he sat in court, Moses Powell, the defendant, looked very old, Judge Charles Roskoski thought.

"How old are you?" the judge asked.

"I know I'm at least 90," answered Powell, "because this is the third time I've been in trouble, and I get in trouble only every 30 years."

"Sentence suspended," said the judge.

THE BEST MAN

Onondaga County, N. Y. — A 15-year-old boy baked a better cherry pie than eight female rivals and won an Onondaga County 4-H contest. The boy, Richard Schmidt, a high school honor student from Kirkville, will represent the county in a district pie-baking contest in November.

ROGERS CORNERS FARM BUREAU

Rogers Corners Farm Bureau, with 11 families responding to roll call, met Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Horning.

Reports were given by Mrs. Harold Eismann of the Farm Bureau Women's Committee; Mrs. Armin Kuhl, package reporter; John Niehaus, minute man; and John Miller who told about the Farm Bureau annual meeting at Saline High school.

Earl Huehl was the discussion leader for the evening.

Following a social hour during which cards were played and refreshments served, it was announced that the next meeting is scheduled for Nov. 14 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Huehl.

Several Showers Honor Bride-To-Be

Eve Trinkle, whose marriage to Emerson Wheeler is to be on Oct. 29 at St. Mary's Catholic church, has been the guest of honor at three showers.

A miscellaneous shower was given Thursday, Sept. 20, by Teresa Laier and her mother, Mrs. Rose Laier at their home on South Lima Center Rd. Friday evening Mr. Wheeler's sisters, Mrs. Charles Hough of Manchester, Mrs. George Ellenwood and Mrs. Charles Eder, gave a kitchen shower at the home of Mr. Wheeler's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Wheeler, the guests being relatives and friends of the Wheeler family; and at 2 p.m. Sunday, aunts and cousins of the bride-to-be met for a miscellaneous shower in her honor at the home of an aunt, Mrs. Rueben Herter of Ann Arbor.

Mrs. Delbert Bolke of Manchester and her mother, Mrs. Albert Woods, plan to entertain for Miss Trinkle's pleasure at a grocery shower Wednesday evening, Oct. 28. The party is to be held at the home of Mrs. Woods on M-92, north of Chelsea.

At a double-ring wedding ceremony solemnized at Zion Lutheran church at Rogers Corners, Saturday at 7:30 p.m., Dorothy L. McEldowney became the bride of Arthur R. Moore, son of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Moore of 1270 Fletcher Rd. The Rev. C. J. Renner, pastor of the church, officiated.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard E. McEldowney of 480 Adams St., Jackson.

Soloist for the ceremony was Sonja Wackenhut who sang "Love You Truly" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride's gown, which was ballerina length, was fashioned of white lace over satin in princess style. Style features were a deep V-neckline, cap sleeves and matching lace gauntlets.

Her finger-ring length veil was attached to a pearl tiara. She carried an arrangement of white orchids with streamers of ribbon and mums on her white prayer book.

Mrs. McEldowney, the bride's sister, served as maid of honor. Wearing an orchid-colored gown styled like that of the bride, she carried a bouquet of yellow roses.

The gowns worn by the bride and the maid of honor were designed and made by their aunt, Mrs. Claude Ryan of Jackson.

Howard Moore, a brother of the bridegroom, was best man. Gerald McEldowney, brother of the bride, and William Zinke served as ushers.

The bride's mother wore for the wedding a light blue lace dress with white accessories, while the bridegroom's mother wore a two-piece dress in charcoal grey with white accessories. Each had a corsage of yellow carnations.

A reception was held in the parish hall immediately following the ceremony and later, the couple left for a trip to northern Michigan. They will be at home after Oct. 22, in their new home at 13493 Sager Rd.

Pre-nuptial parties for the bride included showers given by Mrs. Harold Salow, Mrs. John Dawson, and by Mrs. Clarence McEldowney and Mrs. Dan Wesolowski.

The bridegroom's parents entertained at a rehearsal dinner Friday evening.

Several Showers Honor Bride-To-Be

Eve Trinkle, whose marriage to Emerson Wheeler is to be on Oct. 29 at St. Mary's Catholic church, has been the guest of honor at three showers.

A miscellaneous shower was given Thursday, Sept. 20, by Teresa Laier and her mother, Mrs. Rose Laier at their home on South Lima Center Rd. Friday evening Mr. Wheeler's sisters, Mrs. Charles Hough of Manchester, Mrs. George Ellenwood and Mrs. Charles Eder, gave a kitchen shower at the home of Mr. Wheeler's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Wheeler, the guests being relatives and friends of the Wheeler family; and at 2 p.m. Sunday, aunts and cousins of the bride-to-be met for a miscellaneous shower in her honor at the home of an aunt, Mrs. Rueben Herter of Ann Arbor.

Mrs. Delbert Bolke of Manchester and her mother, Mrs. Albert Woods, plan to entertain for Miss Trinkle's pleasure at a grocery shower Wednesday evening, Oct. 28. The party is to be held at the home of Mrs. Woods on M-92, north of Chelsea.

Members of the senior play cast have been busy rehearsing their play, "Diary of Anne Frank," daily from seven until ten. Student Director Lynn Lipphart feels that everyone is "feeling the part" very well. On Tuesday, Oct. 17, scenes four and five were rehearsed, including the sound and light managed by David Lixey, Kathryn Kinde, and Charlotte Harris. This created a more realistic mood. The same was done on scenes two and three on Thursday and Friday, when long rehearsals were held because of no school. The cast needed for the play was donated by Toni Hagen, to play the part of Mouschi. Everyone hopes that the cast will do a good job.

Many gifts have recently been given the library. Carl Schweiger of Rockwell-Standard Corp. has given many technical and news magazines for our industrial art boys. Four volumes of the Source Records of the Great War were donated by David and Ruby Streiter.

From the estate of the late Carl Chandler, the library has received 25 new French books, which will be welcomed by all students. Miss Wiese reports that new members of the Library club are Diane Foster, Denise Erston, Daryl Balonowski, Larry Williams and Lloyd Shackleton. They help with all phases of the work which is to be done. Many thanks, new members!

Ann Palmer, popular junior, has been at St. Joseph's hospital because of a polio virus infection in her spine. She entered on Sept. 27 and returned Oct. 1, and was out of school another week. This makes her difficult for a senior, but everyone is surely happy to have her back.

Mary Jane Harris has also been in St. Joseph's hospital because of a polio virus infection in her spine. She entered on Sept. 27 and returned Oct. 1, and was out of school another week. This makes her difficult for a senior, but everyone is surely happy to have her back.

All boys of the football teams had the opportunity to get a free physical examination at the beginning of school. Dr. Fisher was at the school available to those who wished to come; many family doctors contributed their services; some boys did not avail themselves of the free service.

It is indeed commendable that the physicians of the community are so civic-minded and public-spirited as to devote their trained services to the welfare of boys.

James M. Brown, dean of men at Eastern Michigan University, has agreed to speak to the Future Teachers club on the evening of Oct. 19. Dean Brown is known throughout the nation for his outstanding ability as a speaker and a lecturer, and for his stature as an educator.

Doreen Howard was appointed chairman of the refreshment committee. The entire program is being planned by a committee headed by chairman Carol McCalla. All interested persons, both student, faculty, and townspeople are invited to attend this evening meeting.

The visual education program during the past week included the showing of these movies: "Literature Appreciation: How to Read Plays," "ABC of Hand Tools," "French Influence on North America," "Beginning French: Intonation," "The Story of Money," "Day and Night," "Face of the Moon," "County Government."

The Camera club decided on dues of $1 per year at their Oct. 11 meeting. If other money is needed, they will ask for more dues. George Prinzing informed members that he has 135 and 620 film in bulk and that if members would bring in their cameras he would load them with the bulk film. Mr. William Hunter told them he had a lot of paper for printing that he would donate for a start. The club also talked about the chemicals they will have to buy.

Mr. Hummel's art classes have, so far this year, eagerly delved into art history. Movies and printed information have supplemented the usual study of this interesting subject. Mr. Hummel has been showing famous art pictures to the classes by means of the new unique projector which magnifies the picture on the screen. Students are learning to identify famous painters and their outstanding characteristics through the use of the projector.

Art 12 students have also designed original magazine covers, done either in water colors or on construction paper. Art 11 classes have designed record albums which are painted on record covers. The present project is a painting in oils, and the paintings are portraits of landscapes in oils; a few are abstract water colors.

The high school annual staff, under the direction of Mr. Lachar is working on specific problems such as advertising and cover selection. Due to the serious nature of these problems, the senior menbers of the annual staff have held several closed meetings. The year's student leaders are editor Diane Hayes, secretary-treasurer Lynn Lipphart, and business manager Carol Cameron.

Varsity Club elected president Daniel Ellenwood, vice-president Homer Nixon, secretary James Maynard, and treasurer Don Sexton. Direct activities during 1956-57. Decision was made to sponsor a dance, so a date is being sought. Nov. 7 was elected as initiation night.

Freshmen appointed a committee to outline the necessary work groups to stage a successful "sophomore-freshman return party" and another to investigate money-making projects.

Sophomores completed plans for a "clean up days" project last Thursday and Friday. Barbara Wene was put in charge of advertising and Rayma Smith, Margot Murphy, Judy Weinkauf, Sandy Sharrard, Nancy Huelsburg, and Carol McCalla helped. Workers met at the Junior High school at 11:00 a.m. Thursday morning.

The sophomore-freshman dance, set for Nov. 11, was discussed with reports from the separate committees considered. The class decided to sell two types of candy at Christmas. It was also decided that the $10 dues must be paid by March 1, 1957.

The sales of Christmas candy was the major item at the senior class meeting. Trip club members were to sell candy-filled canes and wreaths. The class is divided into four teams for selling, as they were for magazine subscriptions. Group chairmen are Judy Martin, Jerry Ringe, Sue Eisenbeiser, Pat O'Neill.

The class of '62 adopted a constitution at its last meeting. It also heard, without action, a report by Elaine Pearson on a proposed constitution for the trip club. Money-making projects were discussed.

Academically, the class has been studying for the six-week tests. Would-be chemists are performing experiments with water, mathematicians are struggling with graphs and equations; English students are studying the short story, with reference to examples by various authors; as well as doing book reviews, play reviews; learning shorthand; and sewing and cooking.

The speech class, under the direction of Mrs. Beverly Shamp, has done a series of speeches, planning, and discussion. Mrs. Shamp plan to have students enter the Michigan Forensic Association program composed of discussion and debates by high school teams in Michigan. The official topics this year are "How can the best serve the interests of the free world?" for discussion and "Resolves that the U. N. should be significantly strengthened" for debate.

Enlists in Navy

Michael Sloum, 17-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Curner Sloum of Cavanaugh Lake, enlisted at Jackson on Oct. 4 for service in the U. S. Navy. He left the next day to begin boot training at Great Lakes Training Station, Ill.

Prior to entering the Navy he had attended St. Thomas High school, Ann Arbor.

The Way the Ball Bounces

With Tom Johnston

After this past week-end of play, the Washtenaw Conference football race will be decided when Chelsea and Dexter clash in their traditional game at Chelsea in two weeks.

Dexter must only defeat Pickney this Friday night to enter the Chelsea game with only one defeat and a chance to gain at least a share of the conference crown. Dexter will gain only a share of the league title should they win, unless Saline tops Chelsea in the last game of the season.

The Bulldogs need but one conference win to claim at least a share of the title.

You wonder why I mention Saline as the only other team that might cause "Conklin's crew" some problems. Chelsea, as you know, has no conference game this week, and they'll face Saline at Saline in the season's final contest. Mike Rottunno has got the Hornets back on the winning path after a very slow start, and while the Saline club lacks any truly outstanding footballers, they battled U. High to a standstill two weeks ago, and defeated Manchester last week.

Each week they are showing improvement, and could be tough at home in the season's end against the champion Bulldogs.

This is a year that has been a surprise one as far as injuries are concerned. Some teams have all of the good luck, while others have had nothing but poor records on the injury side of things. Manchester and Saline have been two of these, and in a small school, a key man gone can change a whole season.

Believe it or not, basketball practice has started in Michigan. At Ann Arbor, Dave Strack has taken over the reins as head coach, while Dick Adams will coach Eastern Michigan. Both schools again lack in top-notch material, but both have eager and hard working coaches.

A comment on coaching, Saturday at the Michigan press box I overheard the comment concerning an athlete's choice of schools from one of the nation's big writers—"but it means to much more to have a degree from Michigan." The comment was in reference to the caliber of footballers in the Big Ten, and recruiting by some schools.

This year's Michigan team has plenty of desire, and everyone from the players to the press think that Bump Elliott is a great guy and a great coach. Case in point, another conference mentor once told me that Bump will be the next "great" football coach, in the tradition of Crisler, Rockne, etc. Sure hope so.

I was fortunate enough a couple of weeks ago to be named to the board of directors of the Ann Arbor Hockey Association. Yesterday at a meeting the discussion came up that a permanent rink for public use be built in Ann Arbor. The area certainly needs a place for hockey competition. Of the county who would like to get into some type of hockey play, but cost and facilities have held them up. You can look for high school hockey teams within the next 10 years in the Michigan high school athletic program.

Both Nel Lehnston of U. High and Chelsea's Bob Taylor must sweat blood every time they watch their respective high school football teams play. The two cage mentors have their best basketball players out on that grid, and both should have fine basketball teams this winter.

The big league scout was on vacation but like most baseball people he took a postman's holiday.

He stopped his car to watch a sundot baseball game in West Lebanon, N. Y.

"That little guy" said scout Fred Matthews of the Phillies, "might do pretty well in the minors. Tell him I want to talk to him."

The little guy approached the scout's car hesitantly.

"Look son," said the scout, "You've got two strikes against you because of your pint-sized frame. But how would you like to sign a pony league contract?"

The little guy did and today he stands in baseball as a giant nine feet tall.

His name is Elroy Face and he's still a squirt—only five feet, seven inches. But when he wheels his 150 pounds behind his rubbery right arm, he makes the biggest nitters in the national league—and more recently the Yankees—look like puny upstarts.

Strangely enough Face learned his big pitch from, of all people, an ex-Yankee.

Little Elroy labored through the the pony league starting in 1949... and from there to Pueblo, Fort Worth and New Orleans. The Dodgers drafted him from the Phillies for their Montreal farm club and the Pirates drafted him from Montreal.

It was at New Orleans that Face learned one of his most important clutch pitches—the forkball. He learned it from Joe Page, a one-time Yankee World Series hero, who was attempting a comeback. The forkball, a variation of several pitches, isn't easy to describe. Probably the best description came from Roger Maris of the Yankees during the recent World Series. He said:

"It comes in like a knuckler except it's a little more spin on it. Then it sinks."

When Page threw virtually the same pitch for the old-time Yankees, it was simply a knuckler.

Since joining Pittsburgh in 1955, Face has had amazing success as a relief hurler.

In 1955, he compiled an amazing 18-and-2 record, winning 17 in a row and 22 consecutive games over two seasons. All were Major League makas for a relief hurler.

To listen to Face, you'd think he was cocky.

Of other clubs, such as St. Louis, the Milwaukee Braves and the Yankees, he says, "They're just another ball club. Their bats are the same size as ours."

But his manner tells you that this 32-year-old pitching mite is just quietly confident. He says he can pitch every day and he probably could.

Why not? says the little guy. "I pitched nine games in a row in 1956 so what's a few more?"
