13 Floats Enter Fair Parade Set For Saturday

All Floats Are To Be Ready for Judging at 1:30

George Atkinson, Chelsea Community Fair parade chairman, announced yesterday that there will be five bands and 13 floats in the line-up.

Other highlights are the Sheriff's Mounted Posse; the Seventh Michigan Cavalry Unit; antique cars, horses, Junior Deputies, Boy Scouts, Navy and Civil Defense entries, farm machinery.

The parade is scheduled for 2 p.m. Saturday; however, in case of rain, the starting time will be delayed until the committee feels the weather will permit holding the event. The fire siren will then be sounded and floats will be given a half hour to get into their assigned places.

The parade route is East St. to Middle St.; west on Middle to Main St. and south to Old US-12 and the fairgrounds.

Floats are to assemble on Park St. from Madison to East St.; antique cars on the south side of Park St. facing East St.; horses on Park St. also, facing East St.; and farm machinery on East St. facing toward Park St.

Bands will assemble on the lawn at Chelsea Junior High school. Floats are to be in place for judging at 1:30 p.m.

Five minutes before the parade is to start, the fire siren will be sounded.

7th Cavalry Unit From Onsted Will Appear at Fair

An innovation at Chelsea's 1963 Community Fair, expected to be a highlight of Saturday's parade, as well, is the Michigan Seventh Cavalry Unit, in authentic Civil War uniforms. The unit was formed by nine Lenawee county men with a keen interest in Civil War history.

Maynard Minier of Onsted, who, as color bearer, leads the group, explained that the name "Michigan Seventh Cavalry" was selected because General George Armstrong Custer was commander of that unit during the Civil War. The unit, under Custer's command, fought at Gettysburg and was credited with repulsing Jebb Stuart's cavalry at a crucial point in that battle.

Minier hastens to point out that the name shouldn't be confused with the Seventh U.S. Cavalry which Custer later commanded in the Indian campaigns and which was involved at the massacre in the Battle of The Little Big Horn.

The formation of the Civil War cavalry unit was started at Onsted last fall as plans for the Civil War Centennial were being made throughout the nation.

Earl Beupied of Brooklyn, named sergeant-major of the unit, became drillmaster of the original nine men who joined up. He had served in the U.S. Army Cavalry from 1936 until 1940, when the cavalry was disbanded.

Authentic army and Civil War equipment was accumulated, including a dozen McClellan saddles, sabers used during the Civil War and other authentic items used by the "horse soldiers" of that day.

Minier said the unit at present is of squad strength but it is hoped eventually to have 24 members. Accepted, he said, are expert riders 16 years old or older who own their own horses.

In addition to Beupied and Minier, present members of the unit include Allan Billy, Allan Hunt, Leon Hunt, Roger Logan, Ross Peckil, James Lett and Melvin Slide of Onsted, and Michael Wolfe and Dean Lehy of Brooklyn.

The group meets for weekly

EDITORIAL THOUGHTS

Help Is Needed at Once To Save Chelsea Theatre

Unless quite a few people show some vital interest quickly Chelsea will soon lose its theatre.

That fact has been revealed this week by Glenn Clark, the present operator, who says he simply cannot continue to operate the business any longer because of such poor patronage. He has accepted a position in San Francisco and plans to move there with his family.

After Saturday, Sept. 7, doors of the Chelsea Theatre will be closed—probably forever.

Probably forever—that is, unless Chelsea and Dexter area residents feel the loss of their theatre would be something they wish to avoid.

We know Clark can be prevailed upon to stay—in fact, he would like to stay and continue to operate the theatre if some way can be found to return the business to a profitable basis. And the only way that can be done is to have increased attendance. It's as simple as that.

Clark, and his predecessors, the Wolvertons, who own the theatre, have always operated a theatre of which we can be proud. For more than half a century Chelsea has always been proud of its own hometown theatre. But all of that is coming very close to a thing of the past unless we you and I—and all residents of this area, show our desire and interest in its continued operation. We have heard many Dexter families comment that it was "sure a mistake to let our theatre close." Should we let this happen to us a second time in our area?

Whether it's a reflection of the changing world and people's living habits or not, we are not sure, but we do know there are many families in the area who do still attend movies quite regularly and many more who might attend more often if they knew their help was really needed to keep the facility operating so it would still be there when they did wish to attend.

We can all remember the great thrills we experienced as kids in seeing a movie every chance we could get. And we think kids (mostly those between the ages of 4 to 10) still get that kind of thrill. Would we be making a mistake to let our own theatre pass out of existence and thus make it less convenient to attend a movie?

As individuals you may say "That's too bad to lose the theatre, but I can't do anything about it." That may be partially true, too, but collectively we can do something about it. But time is short and action must be taken AT ONCE if we are to keep the theatre operating.

Have fun at the Chelsea Fair this week but use the opportunity to talk this matter over with your friends, your neighbors, your fellow club members, and let's see if some ideas turn up that may prove to be the answer to our problem. Let us know of any ideas you may have on the subject; we'll be happy to accumulate such ideas, get to the right people with them, and maybe the Chelsea Theatre can be kept open.

Please remember though—two weeks from now will be too late—do it now. We don't want to look back on this a few years from now and realize we made a big mistake by not taking quick action.

Outlook Rosy

Summer's end marks the conclusion of the vacation and touring season for many people, but the Michigan tourist industry provides year-around attractions.

The industry, ranking among the top three contributors to Michigan's economy, realized an estimated $880 million from tourists in 1962.

Indications that this business will increase are pointed to by the Michigan Tourist Council. Council officers note that by 1975 the "nation's population will reach an estimated 230 million."

At the same time, the average family income is supposed to rise to $7,500 per year. More people with more money means there will be more leisure time and a resulting increase for the Michigan tourist industry.

Tourist Council spokesmen say studies indicate that with proper promotion tourism can be a billion dollar industry in Michigan and account for 100,000 new jobs within the next 10 years.

Ample room to relax in state parks, forests, and county and city parks; the abundance of game for the hunter; the many lakes, rivers and streams for the fisherman and swimming-boating enthusiasts; the largest number of ski centers in the nation; and a highway network ranking among the finest. These are the main attractions in Michigan's favor.

The future, then depends largely on what the Council calls "proper promotion."

One of the widest promotion gimmicks in use today is the state license plate which boasts Michigan is the "Water-Wonderland." This is backed up by the fact that the state has four times the water area of any other state.

In all, Michigan boasts 1,194 square miles of inland water and 33,775 square miles of Great Lakes water area. The Great Lakes shoreline around Michigan covers 3,121 miles, forming the outline for the giant mitten and Northern Peninsula in which some 11,087 inland lakes and 36,350 miles of rivers and streams are bounded.

Local promotions and regional boasting probably draw as many tourists to the state as any combined effort. The Soo Locks, Mackinac Bridge, Sleeping Bear sand dunes, Tahquamenon Falls, Greenfield Village, and countless other local attractions are available.

The Tourist Council will be encouraging local promotion to boost Michigan's proud industry to its full potential in the future.

Heavy Workload
 Legislative committees formed to serve in the interim between the 1963 and 1964 sessions will have their work cut out for them in the last few months of the year.

Each committee is responsible for submitting a report of its work to the legislature early in the 1964 session.

In addition several of the working units still are conducting various studies.

The legislators, of course, are expected to be on hand for the special September session.

Hearings are scheduled in various cities around the state, however, by a number of committees. These include the minimum wage study group and tourist industry committee.

Presence of key legislators, some of the members of the committees, could be very important during the tax discussions at the special session.

Machines Move In
 Automation is finding its place in state government operations as well as in private industry.

The Civil Service Commission's annual report shows that use of machine scoring and an electronic computer to speed up the examination process was a valuable experiment.

During 1962 a computer was used to score and print examination results, making possible a great acceleration in making employment lists available to state agencies seeking workers.

With some $7,350 persons taking civil service examinations in 1962, it can easily be seen how use of electronic processes could make the task easier and more efficient.

Plans call for continued rental of the giant computer and use of additional time-saving machines. The Commission will get another scoring machine capable of reading ordinary pencil mark answers by a light sensing process.

In addition to saving time in checking examinations, the computers to be used will automatically notify job applicants of their scores, and will perform an item analysis of the examination content. The latter will give Commission staff members a constant evaluation of the test material.

During the current year, and probably into 1964, Civil Service use of the computers will continue to be on an experimental basis. Every indication is that the machine-replacing machines will be a regular part of the man-seeking process in state government.

Most people could get over that tired feeling if they could get a vacation from themselves.

Uncle Lew from Lima Says:

DEAR MISTER EDITOR:

I see by the papers where a Government food expert says "fresh and tender grass" would be a good food for human beings. Furthermore, he claims if they would package it under a attractive name, it would sell to the American housewives.

I put this item on the agenda at the country store Saturday night and all the fellows were agreed it won't work. Ed Doolittle said he recollected back in 1944 when the Congress changed the "Skim Milk" label to "Dry Milk Solids" hoping to help sales. Senator Overton of Louisiana reported Ed, was again the change and when they done it over his protest, he put in a bill of his own. He ask them to change the name of Castor Oil official to Necker of the Gods. That didn't git but 2 votes in committee so Senator Overton substituted another bill to call it Ellixir Of Life, and when that didn't git but one vote, he quit trying.

Zeke Grubb said he was brung up on the saying that they was two things that was hard to do, climb a fence leaning toward you, and kiss a gal leaning away from you. Zeke claims a third thing hard to do is take somemup every body knows about and increase sales by giving it a fancy name. He allowed as how you could put a basket of fresh grass on the grocery counter and call it Astronaut Salad and it still ain't going to sell.

I reckon I'd have to agree with Ed and Zeke on this item, Mister Editor. That Government food expert probable had time hanging heavy on his hands and come up with this idea while he was playing golf on fresh and tender grass.

Clem Webster said this name changing business brung to mind a item he saw in the paper last week about a movie actress getting married for the fifth time. Clem reported he had got used to reading about these movie wimmen and it was all right with him if she got married 10 times, but they was one feature of the ceremony that ought to be agin the law. Ever time one of them wimmen gits married or divorced, claims Clem, the papers lists all the previous victims. It will say her first husband as Senator Jones, her second the Duke of Rayville, the third the Attorney General of France and so forth. Clem argued that no woman should git all this free publicity at the expense of the men she has tricked into marrying her. The fellows agreed Clem had a mighty strong point, and it was voted to git a letter off to our Congressman on the matter.

This marrying business Mister Editor, gits complicated in the space of a week reading where a college student said one wife was monotonous; two wives was bigamy and 3 wives was trigonometry. And I reckon that about sums up the attitude of the younguns of today toward matrimony.

Yours truly,
 Uncle Lew.

VFW Auxiliary Offering Members Cancer Insurance

Principal business at the Aug. 28 meeting of the Ladies' Auxiliary to Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 4078 was a discussion of a Cancer Insurance program of the National VFW Auxiliary in which the Chelsea Auxiliary has voted to participate. Local Auxiliaries may participate on a 100 percent membership basis and this is what the Chelsea Auxiliary is planning to do, beginning Jan. 1, 1964. Any member of the Chelsea Auxiliary who is in good standing or that date, will be included—the Auxiliary assuming payment of the premiums.

The Cancer insurance provides for payment to any individual member of up to $1,000 for 100 days of hospital care, regardless of whether the patient is otherwise insured.

The VFW Auxiliary, on a national basis, has always interested itself in cancer research and, to date, has contributed well over $200,000 to the Cancer Research Center at Bar Harbor, Me. A representative of the Research Center, Dr. Kidd, was sent to the Department of Michigan convention at Kalamazoo in June to personally thank the Auxiliary for the contributions received.

Also announced was the fact that volunteers are needed for work at the Community Fair Cafeteria during the fair; any member willing to assist will be "more than welcome," it was pointed out by the Auxiliary president, Miss Alda Juergens.

The committee appointed for the Auxiliary's social meeting in September will be the Ladies' Auxiliary.

MISS LUCY WEBB

Now Teaching at Air Force Base In Newfoundland

Miss Lucy Webb, youngest daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Harmond Webb of North Lake, was flown by the U.S. Air Force Education Dept. to Harmon Air Base at Newfoundland, Canada, to begin work in education for the U.S. Government. The position is selective.

One of the requirements for acceptance for the position is completion of two years of satisfactory teaching following graduation. Her total credentials were approved in June and she left Aug. 16 from Willow Run Airport for a week's orientation at the Air Force Base.

Incentives for applying for the position were the opportunity to travel by plane under government care, as well as the opportunity to study and learn different methods of teaching.

Miss Webb has written her parents—that she and another new teacher at the Air Force Base plan to fly to Quebec for Thanksgiving and home for the Christmas holidays.

practice sessions—many at Frontier City—and has participated in Clinton's 125th Anniversary celebration as well as at the Muzzle Loader Festival at Greenfield Village.

In addition to riding in Saturday's Community Fair parade, the unit will give a demonstration later at the Community Fairgrounds.

Members include Mrs. Anna Werner, Mrs. Mary Kniss, Mrs. Ethel McDougall and Mrs. Hazel Rycraft.

Washtenaw GOP Plans Ox Roast

Governor George Romney will be the principal speaker at the annual Washtenaw County Republican ox roast which will be held at Dohi Park on Sept. 7 from 12:30 to 6:00 p.m., according to Wendell W. Hobbs, Washtenaw County Republican chairman. The ox roast, which features a beef dinner, barbecued at the park and various kinds of entertainment, drew a crowd of more than 2,000 last year.

Romney is expected to arrive about 3:30 p.m., with the program beginning about 20 minutes later. Elly Pedersen, vice-chairman of the Republican State Central Committee, also will attend.

Any interested county resident is welcome to attend, Hobbs stated, adding that tickets may be obtained by calling Chelsea area ticket chairman Fred Belser at GR 9-7313. Children under 12 are admitted free when accompanied by a parent.

Red Cross Office Completes Move Into New Office

The Washtenaw County Chapter of the American Red Cross, moved last Thursday from 211 Nickels Arcade to its new location at 2729 Packard Rd., Ann Arbor; however, the chapter has retained its regular phone number as listed for the former location.

The Red Cross staff has begun operating in the new building although construction is not entirely completed.

The former Ann Arbor and Ypsilanti offices are consolidated in the new building.

Fall, Spring Pasture

Need an excellent sheep pasture for the fall and early spring months?

Try us. The Balbo variety seeded in early August can be pastured in late September and throughout the fall, according to Graydon Blank, sheep specialist with the Michigan Cooperative Extension Service. It also provides excellent pasture again in the early spring when other crops aren't yet ready for grazing.

Petersons Host Steam Show Club At Waterloo Farm

Raymond and Clifford Peterson of Waterloo, were hosts Sunday for the annual picnic of the Steam Show Club (sponsors of the annual steam show held at Hastings) and the Battle Creek Rescue Squad. The two groups alternate between Otsego and Waterloo for their annual picnic get-together.

Approximately 100 members of the two organizations were present and throughout the day, passersby and area residents stopped by to see the display of oil pull tractors the Peterson brothers have accumulated since they first began their collection in 1955.

Included in the display Sunday were a 15,000-pound, 1915 Rumely Oil Pull tractor, a smaller version of the 1915 model, and a miniature replica of the large model, identical in all details, which the Petersons built last winter. The small one is in the nature of a child's toy.

Ten of the machines in the Petersons' collection were in operation at one time Sunday afternoon, creating a great deal of interest among motorists, many of whom stopped to watch.

The Petersons also collect old engines and customarily take a trailer load of them to the annual Steam Show at Hastings.

The true believer in the merit, or honor system, will accept nothing that he hasn't earned.

Lt.-Gen. D. E. Beach Named To Army Command Post

Lieutenant-General Dwight E. Beach, Army Research and Development chief, has been named commanding general of the Army's Combat Developments Command at Fort Belvoir, Va., according to a recent announcement. He succeeds the late Lieutenant-General John P. Daley.

The announcement includes a brief resume of some of the highlights of General Beach's career since his graduation from the United States Military Academy in 1932.

Early in World War II, General Beach organized and commanded a Southwest Pacific Field Artillery Battalion using wild horses purchased in Australia, the announcement stated.

Also mentioned is the fact that he was formerly commanding general of the 82nd Airborne Division after Pentagon service as Army Director of Special Weapons and Director of Guided Missiles, and most recently has been on special assignment from Army Chief of Staff General Earle G. Wheeler. The assignment was to explore Army mobility problems with accent on use of organic aviation.

General Beach's new assignment, which he assumed on Friday, is designated as U. S. Army Combat Development Command. The unique organization studies needs and states requirements for how the Army will be equipped, organized and fought from today out to twenty years in the future. Since USACDC deals in concepts rather than the design of hardware end-products, it often is called the Army's "Ideas Proving Ground."

General Beach's successor as Research and Development chief is Lieutenant-General William W. Dick, Jr., a former deputy chief of Research and Development.

General Beach, formerly of Chelsea, is a brother of David Beach of Jefferson St.

Ann Arbor Man In Court Again On Fishing Charge

Karl W. Schearle, 75, of Ann Arbor, for the second time in the past month, was fined for taking more than the legal limit of bluegills on North Lake. He was cited Wednesday night, Aug. 21, by Conservation Officer Donley Boyer. He and a companion, Douglas R. Wagner, 18, also of Ann Arbor, had more than 90 of the fish when apprehended but pleaded not guilty when brought before Municipal Judge Francis O'Brien at Ann Arbor.

Trial took place Thursday and both were found guilty as charged. Schearle was fined $35 and ordered to pay $20 costs, the alternative being 10 days in jail. Wagner was assessed $20 fine and $10 costs or three days in jail.

Both paid their fines. Also brought before Municipal Judge O'Brien Thursday was George E. Redford, 25, of Ann Arbor. He was found guilty of using a rubber propelled spear gun while fishing on Silver Lake June 10. The lake is closed to the use of spear gun fishing. Redford was assessed $12.30 fine and costs.

Apprehended Aug. 10 in Lyndon township illegally running 'coon dogs at night, Keley and Alfred Edmonds appeared Saturday, Aug. 17, before Dexter Township Justice of the Peace David Doig and were assessed $18 fine and costs each.

The two were apprehended by Conservation Officer Boyer in the vicinity of Duffy's Lake. Keley lives in Ypsilanti and Alfred Edmonds lives at Taylor.

Mrs. Henry Buss is a patient at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital, Ann Arbor, where she underwent surgery on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Mamarow of Saline were in Chelsea Sunday to visit their uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Eisemann.

Mrs. Viola Holderman of Detroit, formerly of Chelsea, is spending a three-week vacation with friends and relatives here and at Grass Lake. She spent several days last week with her sister here, Mrs. Iza Carly, and called on friends and former neighbors. She also has been the houseguest of Mrs. Mildred Hopper at Cavanaugh Lake.

E. L. Clark To Be Cited At State Fair

Edwin L. Clark, Chelsea school superintendent from 1921 until 1932 and superintendent of schools at Mt. Morris for 21 years, will be among 33 educators honored on Teachers Day, Friday, Aug. 30 (tomorrow) at the Michigan State Fair.

The award will be presented to Clark in ceremonies in the Music Shell at the fairgrounds and a reception will follow in the adjoining Symphony Gardens.

Announcement of the honor to be bestowed upon Clark included mention of highlights of his years in the educational field at Chelsea. It was in 1921 that he organized the first debating team at Chelsea High school and personally trained those who participated.

Among members of that first team were Gordon Rietmiller, now president of Olivet College; Herbert Huehl, who became a dentist and practices in Ann Arbor; and the late Ruth Dancer.

In 1920, Clark instituted the first overnight bus trip from the Middle West to Washington, D.C. He conducted the tour himself, for the Chelsea High school graduates of that year. It was such a new project that when the buses reached Baltimore, Md., enroute to Philadelphia, the Baltimore Sun news photographer took a picture of the group for a feature story about the "bus trip from the Middle West."

Clark also organized, in 1930, what he believed was the first Chelsea High school band. There were 40 members in the group.

Honors in high school oratory also came to Chelsea High school during Clark's years as superintendent. Howard Holmes, trained by Clark, participated in the state oratory finals at Lansing that year.

Clark also particularly remembers the high school football program of the 1920's and early 1930's, saying one of the teams in those years was "the greatest in high school history." He said "Arnold Fahrner was undoubtedly one of the greatest high school quarterbacks and field generals that ever walked on to a football field. As captain, he had a backfield that was fast and clicked perfectly."

George L. Staffan, Lawton Steget and Glenard McLaughlin—and a line that was terrific, including Frederick Steiner, Frederick and Don Irwin, Paul Barbour, John Adron, Russell McLaughlin and Howard and Dudley Holmes.

In recalling the students of that day, Clark mentioned some who have been particularly successful in their chosen careers—George L. Staffan, Howard and Dudley Holmes, Glenard and Russell McLaughlin and Lieutenant-General Dwight Beach "to list only a few."

Since his retirement, Clark has been president of the Michigan Retired Public School Employees Association for three years. He also is on the Legislative Council of the National Retired-Teachers Association.

In addition to his work as superintendent of schools at Chelsea and Mt. Morris, he had taught school in Jasper and Adrian.

He received his bachelor's, master's and doctor's degrees at the University of Michigan.

For 23 years Clark conducted educational tours to eastern cities and historical sites. He has served actively in the Kiwanis and Lions Clubs; on the Mt. Morris City Planning Commission; with United Fund campaigns; and as a Boy Scout leader. He also has been active in the Methodist church and the Masons.

His home at Mt. Morris is at 730 Maple St.

Hats, Hots... They're Hot Dogs

In a story in the Aug. 22 issue of The Standard relating experiences of the James Hoffmeyer family during their travels in New York state while Mr. Hoffmeyer was attending the National Science Foundation Institute at Oneonta, a typographical error followed through from headline to the end of the paragraph. The Hoffmeyers had been amused by signs advertising "Michigan Hots" and upon inquiry learned they were what is known here as "Hot Dogs." There was no explanation why the "Michigan" was added. The typographical error, however, substituted an "a" for the "o" and came out as "Michigan Hats."

Michigan rivers and streams would reach one and a half times around the world.

Former Chelsea Resident Dies of Burns in Flint Fire

Mrs. Alice Everett of Whittier, Calif., a former Chelsea resident, died Aug. 13 of burns suffered in the Aug. 11 Adams Hotel fire in Flint. It was learned here this week.

Mrs. Everett was the widow of Henry Everett and had planned to be in Chelsea in connection with arrangements for the sale of the Everett farm on Chelsea-Manchester Rd. The property had been in the Everett family since it was taken up from the U.S. Government in the early 1800's. After moving to the western part of the country, the Everetts spent summers at the farm for many years during the time the Reuben Sadt family operated it.

Before coming to Flint early this month, Mrs. Everett had visited relatives in Wisconsin.

She is survived by an adopted daughter, Mrs. Beverly Elcholtz of Whittier, Calif.

Funeral services were held Friday, Aug. 16, at Flint, and burial took place at Vermont cemetery on Chelsea-Manchester Rd.

The NATIONAL OUTLOOK

By GEORGE HAGEDORN

Number One Need - Better Profits . . .

For the years 1900 through 1959, U.S. private investment has averaged $3.9 billion, $4.1 billion, and $3.3 billion respectively, and the first quarter of 1963 it was higher than any quarter since the first quarter of 1961.

The flow of this money is ample evidence of the attractive investment opportunities abroad. Beyond having an adverse effect on international balances this the element of risk resulting from such factors as unstable political situations, the possibility of expropriation, etc., under normal conditions the investment opportunity offering the highest return commensurate with the risk involved attracts the capital.

This is true both in international and domestic investment markets. The fact that profitable businesses generate investment is fully documented in a new study by Professor George J. Stigler of the University of Chicago which was published by the National Bureau of Economic Research. Entitled "Capital and the Rate of Return in Manufacturing Industries," this study illustrates statistically the influence of profits on the investment rate in different manufacturing industries. In the period 1947 through 1956 Professor Stigler found that if an industry's rate of return was 1 percent higher than the average of all industries, its rate of new investment was 6.6 percent higher. The vital necessity of increasing profits to solve our growth, unemployment and international payments problems has not been given the emphasis it deserves. Profits are often mistakenly regarded as a passive result rather than a creative force in the formulation of our national programs for meeting these problems.

It is high time that the national attitude be reoriented towards the proper understanding of just what increased profits have done in the past and can do in the future. Profits generate investment, create jobs, expand growth and raise our living standards. Until this fact is realized and steps are taken to rectify the two profit-restraining elements—excessive tax rates and union-monopoly power—programs to correct our domestic and international economic problems will most likely prove to be ineffective.

Community Chest Benefitting Agencies

Band Instrument Fund

This is the second in a series of articles to appear weekly in The Standard to acquaint Chelsea area people with the benefitting agencies of the Chelsea Community Chest and how the agencies benefit the community.
 The first article of the series appeared Aug. 22 and explained the varied services of Catholic Social Services, a benefitting agency. Chosen as the second of the series is the Chelsea Band Instrument Fund.
 Approved for this agency in the 1963 campaign to be held in October is a grant of $101.12 for purchase of a sousaphone and chair stand.
 Reason for the request for this year's grant was stated as follows:
 "The item listed is an absolute necessity to maintain proper balance of instrumentation in the band program where participation has more than doubled in the past three years. It is necessary that this instrument be added to the band so that the total effort may be more worthwhile."
 Last year's total grant for the Chelsea Band Instrument Fund was $400 and the amount was used for the purchase of an alto clarinet and a French horn.

184 Deaths By Drowning In 8 Months

With 184 drownings in 392 Michigan water accidents up to Aug. 15 this year, the State Police cautioned that there should be greater observances of safety rules through the remainder of the month and the Labor Day period when water sports activity is particularly high.

The number of accidents is already 30 more than 362 through Aug. 29 last year, the 168 persons injured is an increase of five and deaths are down only one. Breakdown of the drownings included 74 swimmers or waders, 34 who fell from bridges, banks, docks or piers, 28 boat passengers, 24 boat operators, and three who drowned in rescue attempts. Official reports describing the activity of 21 other victims have not yet been received.

To lessen possibilities for an accident, State Police offer these suggestions to water sports fans: When boating, see that youngsters and non-swimmers especially have and wear life jackets. Don't overload or over-power your craft. When swimming, don't overestimate your ability or overexert. Patronize authorized supervised areas. Don't swim alone or at night. Along some Great Lakes beach sections beware of possible undertow conditions.

When diving be sure there are no underwater obstacles and that the water is sufficiently deep. Keep a constant watch over youngsters playing in or near water.

Finally, know how to apply some method of resuscitation.

Senior Citizens Guild Names New Director

John B. Auten of St. Louis, Mo., has been named executive director of the Senior Citizens Guild of Ann Arbor, Inc. He replaces Mrs. Shatta Ling, who resigned to assume administrative duties in connection with the Lurie Terrace Senior Citizens housing project. He began work at the Guild on Monday.

Prior to coming to Ann Arbor, Auten was associated with the Grace Hill Settlement House in St. Louis for six years. Grace Hill, a United Fund agency sponsored by the Episcopal Church, has been active in developing programs for neighborhood improvement in St. Louis.

While at the settlement house, Auten served as program worker, program supervisor and group leader. His responsibilities included development of senior adult groups as well as activities for groups of other ages.

Auten, 27, is a native of Pittsburgh, Pa. He received his early education in Pennsylvania and Ohio and attended Thiel College in Greenville, Pa. He received his bachelor's degree from the University of Minnesota. In June of this year, Auten received a master of social work degree from the George Warren Brown School of Social Work, Washington University, St. Louis.

JAMES D. MAYNARD

James D. Maynard Completes Summer Naval Training Cruise

Midshipman Third Class James D. Maynard completed a summer training cruise July 25 aboard the heavy cruiser USS Newport News. In the above photo he is shown participating in one phase of training—communicating with the signal lamp.

Training included on-board instruction on navigation, engineering, seamanship, gunnery, and communications. The cruise in the Atlantic was aimed at preparing the midshipman for the day when he will gain his commission as ensign in the regular Navy.

In all phases of his training, the "Middie" worked with the enlisted complement of the ship. Recreational port visits included Mayport, Fla., New York City, and Quebec City, Canada.

Midshipman-Maynard is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Devere C. Maynard of 7077 Glen Circle, at North Lake.

Three Chelsea Residents Injured In Auto Crashes

Three Chelsea persons were listed among 18 in Washtenaw county who were injured in traffic accidents the past week-end. The three, all reported as sustaining only minor injuries are Mrs. Wilbur Hinderer, of 430 East St., Robert Mitchell of 319 Congdon St., and five-year-old David Pfeifle of 165 East Middle St.

Mrs. Ila Pfeifle of Saline, was listed as the driver of the car in which the Pfeifle boy was a passenger. The Pfeifle car and one driven by Mrs. Eva Monroes of Saline were involved in an intersection collision at Weber and Albee Rds., at 11:50 a.m. Sunday.

Mitchell's injuries were listed as hand and head cuts and leg bruises, sustained when his car sideswiped and struck roadside trees as he swerved the car to avoid a head-on collision with an unidentified vehicle at 9:48 p.m. Saturday on the Whitmore Lake Rd. cutoff at Six Mile Rd.

Mrs. Hinderer's injuries were a lacerated forehead and a cut knee when the car driven by her husband hit a cow owned by Edwin Smith of 1400 Herman Rd., Manchester, near the Smith farm. The accident occurred at 9:50 p.m. Sunday.

Hinderer reportedly was blinded by the lights of an oncoming car and did not see the animal standing in the road. The cow was taken to the Manchester Frozen Food Locker, sheriff's deputies reported.

Resuscitator Called

Dexter volunteer firemen answered a resuscitator call last Saturday to Inverness Inn at North Lake.

Correction

A typographical error in story of the golden wedding anniversary celebration of the late and Mrs. M. W. Bruckner, day, Aug. 18, made it appear only 30 guests attended. In fact approximately 300 guests attended during the afternoon.

HAIRPIECES

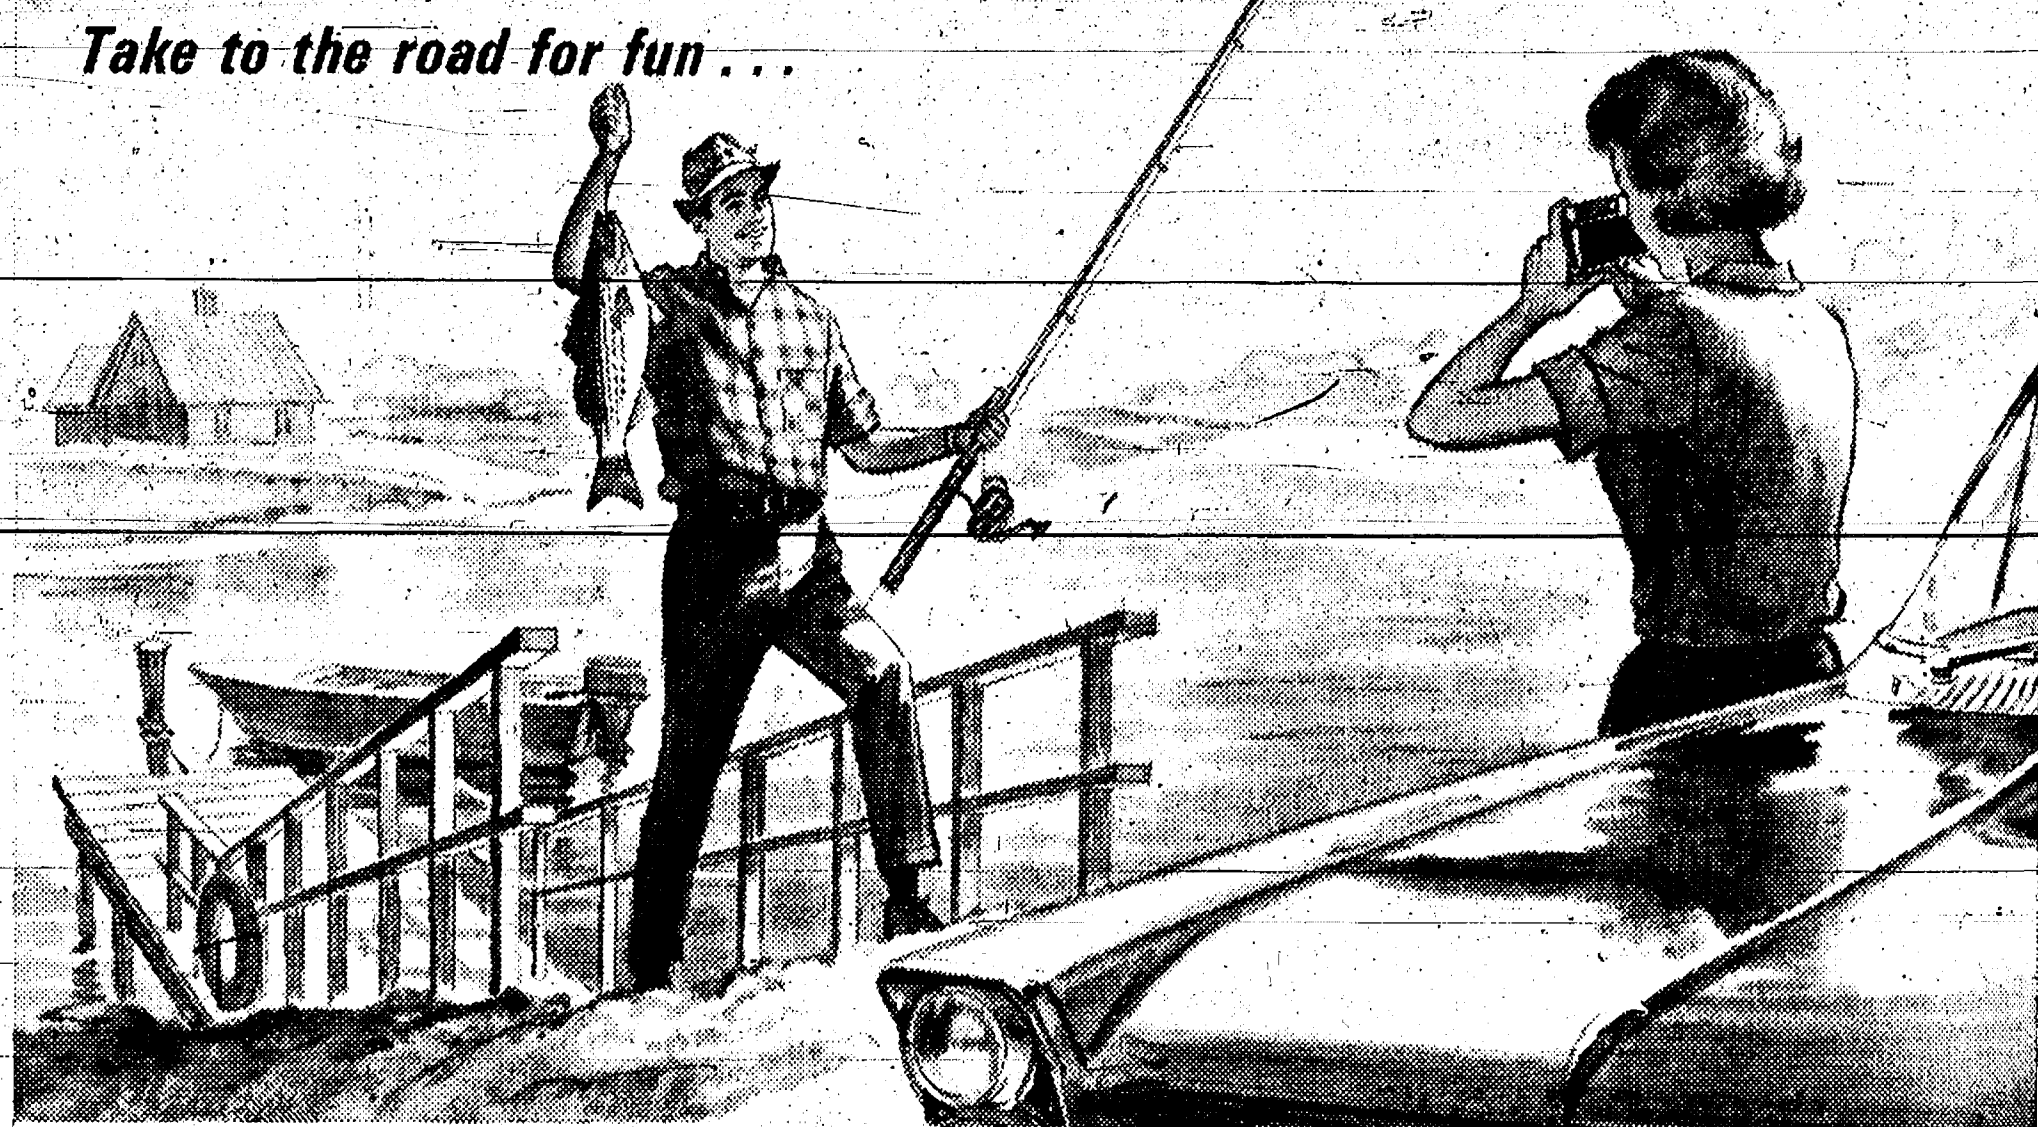

A human-hair wiglet is just the thing to top your crown in curls or swirls, or a more elaborate Empire comb or switch to arrange in a cascade, can be pinned on in a trice. And no one need know about the addition the hairpiece can match your own. Hairstyles being especially vulnerable to weather conditions, have a way of falling flatter than a tired soufflé at the very times they should look most attractive. Consider the possibility of a hairpiece.
