Exchange Mayors Welcomed In Elk Rapids

Mayors' Exchange Day, Monday, May 18, proved to be a most enjoyable occasion for Chelsea Village President and Mrs. Howard Haselshwar and Councilman and Mrs. J. V. Burg, II, who were guests of the Elk Rapids community while the Elk Rapids president and his party spent the day in Chelsea.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hackstad of Elk Rapids were escorts throughout the day for the Chelsea party. Hackstad is the owner of the Elk Rapids Packing Co., one of the places toured by the visitors.

Their day began with a 9 a.m. breakfast at the Island House under auspices of the historic building's Island House Commission. The building now houses the town's library.

The Chelsea group then was taken on a tour which included visits to two schools—the Lakeland and Chertland schools.

They made an inspection visit to the Super Tool Co. plant and then had lunch at a newly-opened restaurant. They said the food there was "excellent."

During the afternoon they toured the Colton-Kiefer plant, where pharmaceutical packing equipment is manufactured; the Elk Rapids

Following the presentation of the award the band will play Sousa's "Stars and Stripes March."

Co-Op Nursery To Dedicate Howlett Memorial Building

The Florence Howlett Memorial Building at 11000 Chelsea-Dexter Rd., will be dedicated Sunday as the permanent location of Chelsea Co-Operative Nursery. All people of the community are invited to attend open house at the building from 3 until 5 o'clock in the afternoon.

To be in place at the building is a plaque engraved with the names of all persons who contributed to the fund which was raised to pay for the building, the former Beach rural school. A total of $1,550 was contributed. The remainder of the $2,500 purchase price was paid from the Co-Operative Nursery's own treasury.

The building, formerly the property of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Powers, had been occupied by the Nursery since 1959; it was purchased by the Nursery last year. The building was named in honor of Mrs. Howlett, a teacher in Chelsea schools for more than 30 years before her retirement in 1932. She will be 97 years old on June 18 and has been a patient at Colonial Manor Nursing Home since 1960. Mrs. Howlett, who has been blind for several years, fell and broke her hip in November, 1959, and entered Colonial Manor after leaving St. Joseph Mercy Hospital where she spent several weeks following the accident.

She is the oldest living graduate of Chelsea High school, having graduated in 1885.

Former students of Mrs. Howlett were given an opportunity to contribute to the fund for the purchase of the former rural school building after Donald Bacon, chairman of the board of Central Fibre Products Co. gave an initial donation of $500.

GOVERNOR ROMNEY REPORTS

There are many people in this country today who regard the war on poverty as the federal government's private war.

In reality, the war against poverty is being fought not only by the federal government, but by the states, by cities, by private organizations and, perhaps most importantly, by individuals.

Now it is a war that has begun during the past few months. On the contrary, it has been going on now in this country for nearly two centuries. All of American history represents a war on poverty.

One of the keystones of the American ideal is the concept of enough for all—not the same for all—but enough for all.

That is what we set out to accomplish, and America today is closer to that goal than any nation on earth.

The most effective way to stamp out poverty is to push the nation's economy to the limits of its potential.

This can be done by producing products that the American people want—as we are doing in Michigan—by adopting federal legislation which will eliminate the power conflict between business and labor by removing as far as possible the governmental controls and restraints which stifle the expansion and free operation of business.

Secondly, the states must assume greater initiative in the war against poverty. They must move to coordinate the many conflicting programs now in existence on a federal, state and local level, determine where the needs are greatest and initiate workable programs to meet those needs.

Thirdly, local communities must stop running to the federal government for help, because the campaign against poverty can be waged most effectively by those who are closest to the problem.

Fourth, individual Americans through organizations already in existence or through new groups must assume a greater share of responsibility for the poor.

They must help revitalize church efforts in the field, they must strengthen the operation of private charities, they must convince more of their neighbors that no man is an island, that poverty must be a burden to every man's conscience.

Fifth, the victims of poverty themselves must be inspired to self-improvement.

I know that the word "initiative" rings with a terrible irony for those who must live in the midst of squalor, but I also know that without faith in their own ability to improve their lives, the poor can never emerge from their plight.

Designed to fit easily in a pocket or tackle box, the guide pinpoints the location of about 575 sites which are maintained by the Department to give the public free entry to the state's waters.

Access listings are made by counties and include directions for reaching sites. The free folder also designates sites which are open to short-term camping.

CARROT JUICE EVERYWHERE
In 1963 the state stood fifth in carrot production. Two-thirds of the 817,000 hundredweight produced went on the fresh market, but there also were a lot of Michigan carrots that went to soup manufacturers, baby food makers, and other processors.

No state can show a better record of business success—large business and small business alike—than Michigan.

New School Ideas

Schools of the future may be considerably different than the buildings familiar today, say education authorities.

Increased use of television, teaching machines, films and slides and tape recorders will undoubtedly be part of future changes in teaching methods but there also may be more major shifts.

Windowless schools may be a part of the new trend. Studies are under way in several places to determine whether schools without windows help students to concentrate, reports the Michigan Education Association.

Effectiveness of the "team teaching" method, could mean school building interiors would be considerably different, this is the method in which a group of specialized teachers take responsibility for a large class.

Team teaching, if adopted on a large scale, would require large rooms for use when the entire class gets together, and smaller rooms for specialized small group instruction.

Also in the near future, Michigan and National Education Association officials "see possible changes in testing and grading methods."

Outside tests, those initiated by groups outside the local school system which generally measure academic ability, have been under fire by school administrators. These are expected to be reduced or eliminated from use soon.

Stricter grouping in classes and all existing grading systems also are under attack. A growing number of educators say classes should be formed on the basis of ability in each subject.

This same group favors abolishing grades and report cards. Each pupil, they say, should be taught as much and as fast as he can absorb.

"Far distant in the future, educators say some of the possibilities include: students studying a foreign land via jet field trips; adjusting the school day and school years to needs of the individual; and disappearance of the school building itself as education moves from the classroom to the universe."

More Jobs
Word that Michigan's employment situation is constantly improving brings with it predicted change in two other areas. These are population and income growth.

David I. Verway of Michigan State University's Bureau of Business and Economic Research reports that the state's downward trend in population and income may be reversing itself.

The state's population rose 7 percent since 1955 as compared with an 11 percent growth rate nationally. Employment fell in Michigan during the same period, while the nation's employment rate rose 6 percent. Income growth rate here was 16 percent, less than half the national rate.

All three areas are very closely related, said Verway.

"When job opportunities fail to materialize in an important industry such as manufacturing, many persons in the labor force will be induced to seek employment in a state where conditions are more favorable," he said.

"A movement like this, once it begins, can become cumulative."

People moving out of the state, in turn, encourage the decline of taxable income to the government. Fifteen of Michigan's 83 counties showed a decline in taxable income since 1956, Verway said.

Out-migration of the population the high unemployment rate and lag in the income growth may be changing, the MSU economist said.

Some signs are already showing in the economy. For example, Verway said total personal income between 1961 and 1962 increased slightly faster than it did in the nation.

"This could be a signal that Michigan's adverse growth situation has ended."

Bricks Are Out
Brick highway pavements will soon be just a part of history, highway officials report.

Not so many years ago, brick pavements were common in every city and even on a few rural highways. Most of them now have been replaced or at least covered with blacktop in deference to the demand for new and better roads.

The few stretches of brick roads still remaining are all in cities, in very short segments.

When brick pavements were laid it was quite an event, highway records show.

NEXT WEEK: "7 FACES OF DR. LAO"

Uncle Lew from Lima Says:

DEAR MISTER EDITOR:

I see by the papers where our war again poverty is moving along real good. The Bible says charity ought to begin at home and our Congressmen was handling this poverty problem just like it was ordered in the Good Book. They started at home.

It was set back a little when that $10,000 a year hike in their pay had to be decided on a roll call vote. With a election coming up, they had to back off to keep their names out of the papers. Incidental, I am of the opinion that roll call votes on everything in the Congress would save the taxpayers a billion dollars a year. We need an amendment to the Constitution requiring a roll call vote on everything.

Congress. It's a great pity the Founding Fathers didn't put it in the first paragraph of the Constitution.

But Congressman Pike of New York was lying a few items showing how our Congressmen was winning the poverty battle without no hike in pay. He says they get a heap of "fringe benefits" the people don't know about.

First off, he said they was getting haircuts for 75 cent in the Capitol barber shop. The barbers get $2 but they was subsidized by the Government. Then it was a old custom dating back to George Washington that ever member of the Congress was entitled to a free spittoon once a year. On account of Congressmen has about quit spitting, he said, a heap of them was giving spittoons to friends for souvenirs and some was using 'em for flower pots. These spittoons run about $6 each and since we got 536 members in the Congress, this spittoon business puts a heap of money in circulation in the war again poverty.

Congressman Pike also reported it was a old custom in the Congress for ever member to get presented with a comb and hairbrush at the start of ever session. Judging from the pictures I see in the papers, about half our Congressmen is baldheaded. I'm strong, Mister Editor, for all these fringe benefits our Congressmen was getting in the war again poverty, including swimming pools, barber shops and free lunches, but I think if they was turning off the lights in the White House to save on the power bill, they could save a little money by skipping baldheaded Congressmen with them combs and brushes.

But they was another side of the coin, Mister Editor. Senator Fulbright of Arkansas reported the other day that a heap of them small countries was doing away with representative government as a "economy move." He told the Senate he hoped the American people would continue to regard the Congress as one extravagance with which they will not part. So I reckon free haircuts and free spittoons is better than free jails.

Yours truly,
Uncle Lew.

Michigan is the nation's largest producer of red tart cherries; 47 percent of the total national crop in 1963. Can you visualize a ton of red tart cherries? Well Michigan had 99,500 tons last year, worth $7,354,000. In sweet cherries we ranked fourth in 1963, with 7,000 tons. The grower's return for them was $2.5 million.

Michigan was admitted to the Union Jan. 26, 1837, becoming the 26th state.

RICHARD SCHAULES, at right, is Chelsea's new assistant postmaster succeeding Claire Rowe who retired the postmaster appointment. Schaules, who is 43 years old, joined the Chelsea Post Office staff as a city carrier in September, 1954, and since November, 1957, has been a postal clerk in the office. A veteran of three years military service during World War II, Schaules has resided in the Chelsea area since coming here from Wayne in 1953. He graduated from Southwestern High school in Detroit. He and his wife and daughter, Gayle, a senior at Chelsea High school, live at 14450 Island Lake Rd. The Schaules' son, Pfc. Richard Schaules, is currently stationed in Italy with the U. S. Army.

Teen-Agers Urged To Establish Good Eating Patterns Early in Life

Proper nutrition is much the same as that in an orange. The nutritional needs of individuals vary and are dependent upon one's age, size and physical state. Differences in nutritional requirements are differences in quantity, not quality.

The calcium from milk, Dr. Cederquist pointed out, is the same as the calcium from chalk or from oyster shells. She also noted that all our essential nutrients are available in our normal food supply.

Dietary allowances are set up to help plan food for groups of people, she explained. If a person consumes the recommended amounts, chances are his needs will be met.

There seems to be a "right" balance of nutrients. Research shows, she pointed out, that the amount of one nutrient consumed can upset or change the need for another nutrient.

"It's hard to upset the balance if you are just eating food," she said. Nutritionists, she pointed out, have begun to question the wisdom of fortifying and enriching food. There's no evidence to provide that a little of a nutrient is good, a lot of it is better, she explained.

"A calorie is a calorie no matter where it comes from. And you control weight by keeping your calorie intake equal to your energy output.

In addition to learning to limit our calorie intake, Dr. Cederquist emphasized, we must also learn to increase our energy output.

"There is no such thing as a 'fattening' food," she continued. "You can get fat on anything if you eat enough of it."

The two girls representing Washtenaw county at this event were Cheryl Henes and Kay Gordon, both of Saline. They are available to report to interested county groups.

Dr. Cederquist also told the girls that as we know today, an average diet requires between 41 and 45 nutrients made up of essential amino acids, essential fatty acids, 15 minerals, 15 vitamins, polyates, water and roughage.

The body doesn't give a hoot if these come from," she said, "as long as they are available in a laboratory."

In the afternoon the party visited Chelsea Milling Co. and were served cake and coffee; toured McKune Memorial Library and Chrysler Proving Ground.

Before the Kiwanis club dinner meeting at the Methodist church social center at 6:15 p.m., the Elk Rapids party and their escorts for the day were entertained at a special hour at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Chandler.

Chelsea's observance of Michigan Week is being continued with various special activities.

Yesterday (Wednesday) known as Livelihood Day, industries of the community had displays on the streets in the downtown area. In addition, industrial displays showing products made in Chelsea, will remain in place throughout the week in store windows.

Ideal weather for Mayors' Exchange Day and for Livelihood Day yesterday added to the success of both occasions.

In recognition of the special emphasis on Michigan throughout the week, the McKune Memorial Library has arranged a display of books pertaining to the state and its history.

Packing Co., the Elk Rapids water works and sewage disposal plant and also were taken on a boat trip around Elk Lake, by "Red" Arnold.

Mrs. Haselachwardt and Mrs. Birg were guests at a tea at the home of Mrs. Stanley Byome at the lake and were delighted with the beautiful garden which their hostess maintains.

Rainbow Gardens was the site of a "mayors' banquet" held at 6:30 p.m.

Robert Hockstad was master of ceremonies at the dinner where the Chelsea party was particularly honored and welcomed and also were presented with gifts featuring Elk Rapids products. (The Chelsea party also distributed Jiffy Mix products, a distinctly Chelsea product.)

A ceramics mug, especially made for the occasion by Phyllis Young Originals, was presented to Chelsea's President Haselachwardt.

Mrs. Haselachwardt received a beautiful wooden bucket filled with canned cherry products, a gift from the business place known as "The Cherry Bucket," and the Burks received a case of assorted canned cherries from the Elk Rapids Packing Co.

The Haselachwardts and Burks said they were impressed with the friendliness of all the people they met during their Mayors' Exchange Day visit; they said they were "royally" treated wherever they went.

At the evening banquet the Chamber of Commerce presented corsages to the Chelsea ladies.

Recreation Program

Ann Arbor Co-Op has purchased Camp Kirolex, the former Boy Scout Camp at Clear Lake, and features family swimming, fishing and camping. Chelsea area residents are eligible to use the camp by payment of a $2.00 membership fee and $30.00 for annual dues to the co-operative society.

Advantages of the new swimming area for the Chelsea program are many. Among them is the fact that it is much closer to Chelsea than Whitmore Lake, thus cutting down the length of the bus ride to the beach. Closeness will allow the transporting of ability groups i.e. non-swimmers, etc. to the beach for instructional lessons. (The Washtenaw county chapter of the American Red Cross will provide instructors for the lessons.)

The family camp area features a sandy beach and a firm sandy bottom with a gradual incline to the deeper water.

Closeness of the beach will allow several swimming times thus keeping the number of swimmers at the beach at any one time smaller in number.

The Chelsea Area Recreation commission approved this year's summer program at their last meeting, Thursday, May 14.

The main summer program (some special classes excepted) will run for six weeks from June 22 until July 31.

and child welfare programs of the American Legion.

American Legion announcements of Poppy Day open with the statement "To rekindle the flame of remembrance for those brave men and women who died in the defense of America; to help those who, though living, gave their health and strength in three mighty conflicts; this is the story of Poppy Day, 1964."

Mrs. Merle Barr, Sr. (Lucille) is the Legion and Legion Auxiliary Poppy Day chairman.

Acting as chairman of the Buddy Poppy Day for the Veterans of Foreign Wars and its Auxiliary is Mrs. Fred Klink, Sr. (Geraldine).

VFW "Buddy" Poppies are made by disabled veterans only and are the organization's symbol to the world that "We Honor the Dead by Helping the Living," according to Mrs. Klink. The sale of poppies is the only direct appeal to the public for aid to the hospitalized and needy veterans. Contributions made by the public in good faith are used in the same good faith by being placed in the Relief Fund to be held in trust for specific purposes only, Mrs. Klink pointed out.

Needy service men and women or their dependents are given assistance through this fund; hospitalized veterans are cared for; and the widows and orphans of disabled or deceased veterans who reside at the VFW-National Home in Eaton Rapids are given aid through this fund.

By law of the organization, money in the Relief Fund cannot be used for personal expenses, Mrs. Klink explained. Every dollar donated by the public in the annual sale of VFW "Buddy" poppies is being used for the welfare of the veterans.

All "Buddy" poppies sold in Michigan are made by disabled veterans who are residents of the Michigan Veterans Facility located in Grand Rapids.

Headquarters for this year's Poppy Day workers is to be at the Knights of Columbus Hall.

Plan Now For Fair Parade Entry

George Atkinson, chairman of the Chelsea Community Fair, has scheduled for Aug. 28, final day of the fair, is recommending that school classes and organizations that do not meet during the summer make preliminary plans at once if they expect to enter floats in the parade.

Atkinson said classes and organizations ought to select their queen candidates—each float is titled to one candidate—as early as possible and make preparations for their float in advance. Prizes of $25, $15 and $10 again will be awarded in two categories, one for youth and one for adults, and the other for business and organizations.

In what was one of the boundary disputes between states, Michigan was ceded of the Upper Peninsula in change for a few miles of territory of which Toledo is the center.

Breakfast Can Be 'Real Adventure' for Everyone

Ann Arbor — Dietitians at the University of Michigan Medical Center say there is no finer way to yank a day out of dulling routines than concocting an "adventurous" breakfast.

Protein, vitamin C and some sort of energy food are the three main ingredients of a good breakfast, but the sky's the limit on how you select them.

Eggs furnish routine breakfast protein. But, say the dietitians, you can substitute meat, fish, peanut butter or cheese.

If citrus fruits becomes a hum-drum way of getting vitamin C, switch to melons, strawberries, tomatoes.

Bread, cereal products and sugar are energy foods. For variety try pancakes, packaged cereals, hot muffins or biscuits.

The U-M food specialists recommend choosing foods you enjoy as the first step toward encouraging better breakfast habits. But, they say, let your imagination work for you, too.

Like custard? Top it off with fresh strawberries and milk, add a muffin and butter and you've produced a zesty, colorful breakfast.

Or maybe you feel more experimental than that. Then try a grilled ham and cheese sandwich with a couple of tomato slices.

That combination has most of the nutritional requirements to start the day off right in memorable fashion.

The NATIONAL OUTLOOK

By GEORGE HAGEDORN

Surplus Labor and Surplus Wheat . . .

In a recent speech to labor leaders, President Johnson promised that if other measures for full employment fail, he would turn to a program of "stop and shop" works. When you think of this approach, it bears a resemblance to the "stop and shop" device we have been using for several decades with agricultural sur-

But the existence of a surplus—whether of labor or of wheat—is evidence of some impediment to the operation of normal market processes which would otherwise bring about a balance between supply and demand.

Artificial Impediments
In the case of farm products, the impediment is clearly the government's price support program. Farm prices are maintained by government action at a level which would cause more to be produced than could be sold. The government tries to balance this by paying farmers not to produce and it then accepts the obligation of buying up the remaining surplus. In recent years, about $4 billion of the taxpayers' money has been spent annually for these activities.

of laws and pressures have resulted in a wage level higher than would have occurred in a free market. This is especially true in the unskilled occupations, where the current incidence of unemployment is most severe. The sequence is the same as in the agricultural area; artificially high prices mean unsalable surpluses. The suggestion of a public works program as a cure for unemployment has all the drawbacks of the farm price support program—and some others. The farm program helps the more productive and well-off farmers but doesn't give much help to the poor farmers on marginal land. In a similar way, a public works program would probably make more jobs for skilled and experienced workers. It is hard to see how it can do much for the untrained and inexperienced who are the core of our unemployment problem.

Problems Unsolved
As we have seen in the history of the farm program, one form of intervention leads logically to others. Controls over individual action proliferate. An open-ended claim is established against the public revenues. New problems are created but the original problem is never solved.

The acreage restrictions which accompany the farm price support program amount to a rationing, among farmers, of the right to produce certain products. Could it be that we may eventually see government rationing of the right to seek or hold a job? The President devoted the bulk of his speech to urging the labor leaders to use restraint in their demands for wage and fringe benefit increases. He may have spoiled his intended effect by adding what can be taken as a promise that, if they fail to exercise such restraint, the government will mop up the resulting labor surplus by an expanded public works program.

County Muscular Dystrophy Association Starts Campaign

"Nothing yet known to science is able to correct the relentless and devastating cause of the disease known as muscular dystrophy. Everything at hand in science, therefore, needs to be enlisted to bring that knowledge to light."

With these words, David Critchett, president of the Washtenaw County Chapter of the Muscular Dystrophy Association, announced that to open its campaign in June, the local unit is taking steps to focus public attention on the problems of those who are afflicted with the disease for which there is no known cure.

Two features of this year's campaign are unique in the 15-year history of the Washtenaw chapter. As a "certain cause" to the June drive, the chapter will stage a benefit concert of ballad performances at Ann Arbor High School, May 26 at 8 p.m. Louis McKush of Ann Arbor and Mrs. Marjorie Randazzo of Ypsilanti are the featured artists. Tickets for this event are on sale at Clague's Market, The Treasure Mart, the Tree, Faber's Fabrics, Kay-Jay, Marilyn Marx in Huron Towers, The Marilyn Shoppe, Hi-Fi and TV Center in Ashland, The City Club, Shina in Westgate and the dance studios of Mrs. Randazzo in Ypsilanti and Mr. McKush in Ann Arbor. For further ticket information, please contact Mrs. Louis Kitchel, 693-5257.

A second focus to compel the public eye is the announcement that an original drawing by a local artist, Judy Binder, shall be sold to the highest bidder during the auction. The work is an exhibit at the Main Office of the National Bank and Trust Co. Absentee bids should be mailed to Mrs. Roscoe Rosenthal, Jr., 1125 Fair Oaks Parkway before May 24.

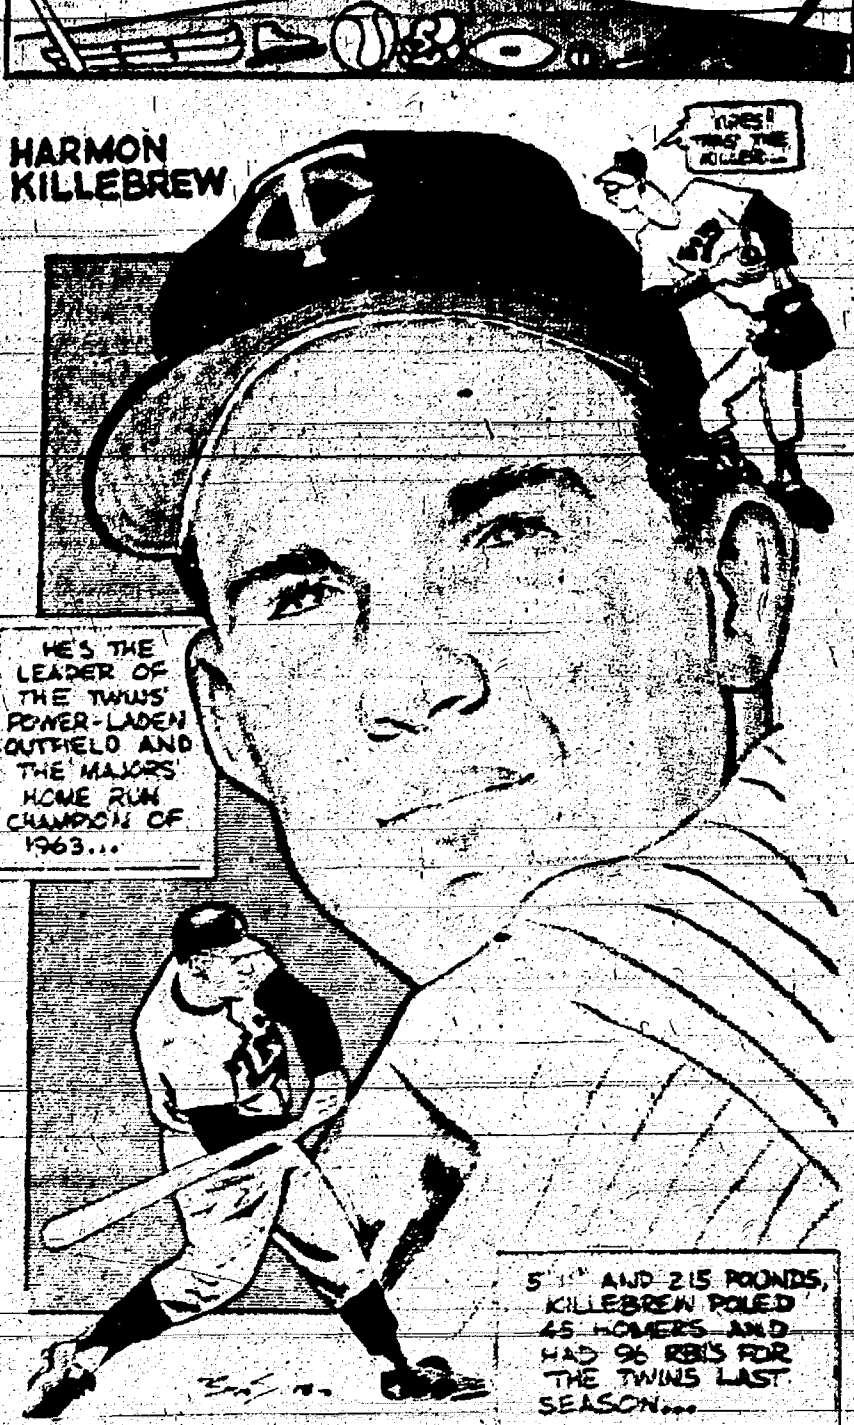

The fundraising march for muscular dystrophy will be conducted during the second of Tuesday, June 2. Miss Jacqueline Warner of Ann Arbor has been appointed March Chairman. Working with her are Mrs. Marjorie Randazzo, Mrs. McKush, Mrs. Roscoe Rosenthal, Jr., and Mrs. McKush.

Gary Dresch started and went all the way for Chelsea; with Oren Wireman catching. Dresch struck out 10 and turned in a strong pitching performance.

Jim Baker started for Pinckney but was the victim of some sloppy fielding by his teammates as they made six errors.

Carrier Pigeon's Owner Thanks Local Boys for Nursing Bird to Health

Tom and Ricky Smith, 13 and 12 years old, respectively, received a letter last week from Jack Woodham, Sarnia, Ontario, Canada, advising them that a carrier pigeon they had cared for at their Lingane Rd. farm home for 10 days, had safely returned after they released it here.

The remarkable fact is that the bird had been away from Sarnia for some time, having been loaned to Cassie Squires of Ypsilanti long enough to hatch and raise two young ones. Squires had advised the owner that he had lost the bird.

The pigeon was exhausted when the Smith boys discovered it perched on a ledge over the track on the barn door April 14.

They fed it and cared for it until April 23 when it appeared to have regained its strength. They attached a capsule to the pigeon's leg giving their name and address and the circumstances surrounding its stay and release here. In the letter received here last week, the owner said it reached his home at Sarnia the next day. The two boys are sons of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Smith, 6693 Lingane Rd.

While major manufacturing of aircraft is now centered in the south and west, it is estimated that the industry contributes more than $110 million annually to the state's economy.

Follow Simple Rules in Planting Trees, Shrubs

Transplanting? Here are some suggestions from Michigan State University garden authorities. Dig a hole twice the size and depth of the "ball" of dirt and roots. Then you can put in good soil; peat moss or perhaps spread out the roots.

Do not apply fertilizer in contact with the roots.

Pack carefully by watering and fill hole to the ground level. Then let the water run until water no longer runs in. Build up a dam in a circle around the bush or tree and fill it full of water. Water often for a few days before filling in and leveling soil. It is then best to mulch for a few weeks and water twice a week.

If trees, shrubs or bushes are bagged or in tarpaper pots, slit the wrapper so roots can get through. Remove bag or pot if you can without disturbing roots. Be sure and pack soil firmly around new plantings.

There are "good" and "poor" trees, shrubs, and evergreens for each area, say MSU garden authorities. Your local nurseryman can tell you which plants are best.

Remember to give new plantings room to grow. They may look "thin" for a few years, but you'll be sorry in 5 to 10 years if you planted them too close. And removal is either expensive or lots of hard work.

'64 Wheat Program Sign-Date Extended to Friday

The 1964 Wheat Program sign-up period has been extended one week, according to Max M. Kalmbach, chairman of the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation County Committee. The new final date is Friday, May 22.

If a producer desires to get price support loans, plus acreage diversion payments, and certification based on his share in the domestic and export market, he needs to sign up on or before May 22 and be a program co-operator.

To become a co-operator, a wheat producer remains within his acreage allotment, devotes his diverted acres to conserving uses and fulfills the program's other requirements. The "domestic" certificates will have a fixed face value of 70 cents per bushel and the "export" ones will be worth 25 cents a bushel. They will be based on a percentage of the farm's normal production of the wheat acreage within the allotment.

Thus, a program co-operator receiving a price support loan and certificates will receive a national average return of $2.00 per bushel for his domestic share and $1.55 for his export share, provided his 1964 yield is equal to his production and he has the minimum qualifying diversion. One-third more than he would have received in the absence of the legislation enacted for this crop. Had the new program been enacted, wheat would have only price support, averaging $1.20 per bushel, staying within their allotment.

AGRICULTURE in Action

Man-Killing Machines

For sheer shock reading, nothing has been so effective as the Michigan Department of Agriculture's "Man-Killing Machines" series.

Accidental deaths involving tractors and other machinery—Michigan, 1962.

Paraphrasing, after paraphrasing, page after page—of the kind of reading that makes your heart pound and your head spin.

Age 16, Clinton county, acute traumatic shock, ruptured spleen and liver. Tractor—tipped over while turning around in middle of road.

Age 15, Manistee county, suffocation, tractor overturned on school grounds; was to be used to pull hay wagon.

Age 15, Isabella county, rushing chest injury, four children playing on farm tractor which turned over.

Age 15, Lapeer county, (a girl) fractured skull, fell from load of hay being hauled by tractor.

Not all of the tractor deaths (there were 38 last year) fall in the teen-age category. Ages of the unfortunate ranged from 8 to 83; but six of the fatalities were in the teen-age bracket.

Reading between the lines, it appears that lack of judgment is a big factor in all cases. In the case of youth, it is coupled with the common, unthinking "fooling around" that is tied to the exuberance of youth.

In the older cases, it is the same deadly carelessness, with over half of the total tractor deaths caused by the farmer somehow overturning his machine.

Although tractors are by far the number-one killer, a long list of Michigan residents managed to

Michigan Facts

The Michigan department of Agriculture, headed by James J. Ramsey, chairman of the Michigan Week aviation committee, was established in 1924 as one of the first such divisions of state government. The Michigan aeronautics code has long been a guide for other states.

Michigan leads all the states in percentage of higher education. Michigan's 74 institutions of higher learning, both public and private, include some of the foremost in their fields.

The state today is served by 14 major airlines and the estimated value of all airports in Michigan is $184,000,000. The average annual airport construction program in the state is $6,000,000.

In 1891, President Jackson appointed Stevens T. Mason to the office of Secretary and Acting Governor of the Michigan Territory. Only 19, he was probably the youngest American ever to receive such an honor, and one of the state office buildings in Lansing is named for him.

become mangled or crushed to death in other machinery. "Caught head in release lever of hay baler."

"Run over by baling machine." "Clothing caught in hay-loading elevator."

"Clothing, arm caught in manure spreader."

"Struck by flying piece of corn-chopper drive shaft."

So why this listing of gruesome events? Because farmers were killed. And because their survivors in official resolution session at the annual meeting of the Michigan Farm Bureau begged that farm families be made more aware of the dangers inherent in farm machines, especially tractors and machines operated by young children.

Bowling Bugs love warm weather

BOWLING BUG (condensed from scientific sources)

General characteristics: Different sizes and shapes. Usually smart. Socially orientated. May be one of two species. League or Family type?

During the hot, uncomfortable weather the clever bowling bug will tend to stay in his own environment. That is, he can be found at his local bowling center. The species has found that he can travel for great distances and not be able to duplicate the ideal conditions found at his bowling center. The climate is refreshingly cool.

Bowling bugs will use the summer months to shed or correct bad habits that have been picked up during the winter. Lanes aren't as crowded so there's plenty of room. Under these conditions, it's a pleasure to work on improving approach, timing, or making those spares.

Bowling bugs tend to have the most fun in groups. That is why the true bug will get together with other members of the species to form summer leagues. There's nothing like competition to help the game and build the average without

Confirmation Class Members Honored At Family Dinners

VFW Auxiliary Members Attend Ann Arbor Installation Ceremonies

Four members of the Ladies Auxiliary to Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 4076 were in Ann Arbor Saturday evening to attend installation ceremonies of the Ladies Auxiliary to VFW Post 428. The four who attended are Miss Alda Juergens, Mrs. Mary Kniss, Mrs. Mac Packard and Mrs. Henry Werner.

On Sunday, the same four women, accompanied by Mrs. Iza Carty, attended the VFW Sixth District meeting at Monroe.

At the district meeting, Mrs. Kniss, who is the Chelsea Auxiliary's membership chairman, was presented a golden anniversary membership award in recognition of 100 percent paid-up membership as of Dec. 31, 1963.

The presentation was made by Mrs. Charles Gallagher (Ruth) of Grosse Pointe Park, who is a past department president. Mrs. Gallagher also is a National VFW Auxiliary director and national Americanism chairman.

Stanfords Retiring From Duties at Methodist Home

Thursday evening, May 14, a farewell reception was held at the Chelsea Methodist Home for the Rev. and Mrs. George Stanford who are taking full retirement from the ministry after serving the Home as Chaplain for six years.

The Rev. Stanford entered the Michigan Conference in 1914 upon graduation from Abilene College and accepted partial retirement in 1958 to become the first chaplain at the Home that year. His service, described as outstanding at the Home, was evidenced by the large number of staff and members who attended the reception. A generous cash gift was given to the Stanfords as a token of appreciation of their "great understanding of the needs of the members of the Home."

They plan to make their home base in a cottage home on the Crystal Springs camp ground, near Dowagiac, and spend the winter months in the south. After some time spent in this way, they will return to Chelsea and become members of the Home.

Many will remember the interesting CBS-TV Garry Moore program when George Stanford was presented on "I've Got a Secret" in 1956.

Of the five Stanford children, all have achieved distinction: Alanson is in diplomatic service and stationed at present in Frankfurt, Germany; Clara is a vice president of the Calumet & Hecla Mining Co.; June Olson and family are in Lima, Peru, where her husband is principal of the American high school; Effie McLouth and family live in Muskogee where her husband manages a large supermarket. After serving the State Department in Turkey for several years the third daughter, Florence, married Ahmet Dudas last June.

Since then, they have both been employees of the State Department in Washington while Mr. Dudas is working for his degree at the University of Maryland.

The Stanfords have 13 grand children, the most recent being a little girl born to the Olson family in Lima, Peru. Several of the older young people are attending schools in Europe.

The Rev. E. J. Weiss and the Rev. John Fall, administrator and assistant administrator at the Home, respectively, said, "The Stanfords will be greatly missed at the Home. Her service in music and his great patience and cheerfulness can hardly be matched. At the Annual Conference in June, it is expected a new chaplain will be appointed by Bishop Marshall R. Reed."

The Stanfords were married in 1914 at Newage. Mrs. Stanford is the former Florence Wright.

WIN SCIENCE HONORS: Diane Worden (left) and Kathy Sutter have been selected from a field of 700 applicants to attend the seventh annual pre-college science training program which is supported by the National Science Foundation. Students selected for the High School Honors Science program will attend various colleges and universities for a six-week summer course which begins June 21. Kathy Sutter will be taking the summer course at Northern Michigan University at Marquette and Miss Worden will be at Michigan State University at East Lansing. Only 100 of the 700 applicants can be accepted for the honors program.

Two CHS Juniors Accepted In Honors Science Program

Diane Worden, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Worden, and Kathy Sutter, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. E. J. Sutter, have been accepted to participate in the High School Honors Science Program co-sponsored by the National Science Foundation and the participating colleges and universities where the six-week summer courses are held.

Miss Worden will be attending Michigan State University at East Lansing and Miss Sutter will be at Northern Michigan University at Marquette. The six-week course begins June 21 and continues through July 31.

To be eligible to apply for selection to the Honors Science Program, a student, at the time of application, must be enrolled in an accredited high school and be in the upper 10 percent of his or her class; and by June 1964 have completed the 11th grade.

Other requirements state that the student must have completed two years of work in high school mathematics and, for biology, chemistry or physics, must have completed at least one course in the science selected for study in the Honors Program.

For geology, the Honors Program student must have completed a year's course in each of two areas chosen from biology, chemistry, geology and physics.

Nominations of applicants are initiated by a high school administrator or science teacher; the applicants must pass a regulation test which is uniform for all applicants; and the applicant must submit an autobiographical sketch and give an analysis of his or her interest in science.

Miss Sutter plans to study general mathematics and physics and Miss Worden mathematics and geology.

Both girls are active in Girl Scouting as one of their extra-curricular projects. They have been in Scouting for nine years.

Both are also members of the Chelsea High school Charles S. Cameron Chapter of the National Honor Society.

Miss Worden also is a member of the school band and the school's Russian club.

Miss Sutter has served as treasurer of her class the past two years.

WHAT A PICKLE

Do you enjoy pickles? Chances are you are consuming Michigan cucumbers, because many firms with out-of-state labels look to Michigan as their source. The state is No. 1 in this department, but in volume of cucumbers for fresh market, we are 10th. Yield last year was 136,230 tons for pickles processors, valued at $7,220,000 to the grower. There also were 91,000 hundredweight of cucumbers for the fresh market, worth $382,000.

Club and Social Activities

OLDER ADULT FELLOWSHIP

The Older Adult Fellowship of the Methodist church met Saturday in the church social center for the group's monthly pot-luck dinner and program.

Mrs. Loring Bates, who, with her husband, recently returned from extended travels in Canada and many parts of the United States, spoke at the meeting about her experiences.

A birthday cake baked by Mrs. Lyman Adams was served in honor of four members of the group whose birthdays occur in May. Mrs. Letha Beach, Mrs. Ave Fisk, Byron Fortman and Miss Jennie Ives.

A report of the April meeting of the group listed eight members who celebrated birthdays during the past month — Mrs. Helen Kilmer, Charles Koenig, Mrs. Mabel Collins, Walter Harper, Walter Vicary, Mrs. Bertha-Kate Riemen-schneider and Mrs. Myrtle Price.

The centerpiece at the April meeting was made up of facsimiles of open Bibles with gilt edges. They had been prepared by the Misses Jennie and Florence Ives.

An announcement was made that four members of the group are leaving — Mr. and Mrs. William Jessen who are moving to Grand Rapids and the Rev. and Mrs. George P. Stanford who plan to leave Chelsea for a time.

At Saturdays meeting, John B. Outen of the Senior Citizens Guild of Ann Arbor, told of the many projects being done through that group in Ann Arbor and he and Mrs. Myrtle Price are planning a picnic to be held jointly with the Chelsea group on Saturday, June 20, at Pierce Park.

Missionary Visits
Local Church School
A missionary from Ghana, Africa, Mrs. Helen Tomkins, visited the primary department and the Junior Sunday morning at the First Congregational church of Chelsea. She told them what the national leaders are doing and how the missionaries are helping them in Ghana.
The Rev. Livingston took her, in the afternoon, to a Youth Rally at Camp Talaht north of Pinckney, and later in the week she spoke to two Women's groups of the St. Paul's church. Sunday she also spoke at the early service at St. Paul's and to groups of their church school as well.

Church Softball Pick-Up Game Planned Wednesday

Representatives from four churches decided Monday to make their first meeting a "playing" one at the baseball diamond at the high school this coming Wednesday evening at 7 p.m. All churches are urged to have some one out Wednesday to enjoy a pick-up game and see what is meant by "slow-pitch" softball and get the feel of the larger, softer softball.
The group appointed Gary Packard of the First Methodist church as temporary chairman to work with the Rev. Robert Livingston representing the Chelsea Minister's Fellowship, to get the League ready to organize. Those present were Chuck Miller, Al Notten, Jr., Gary Packard, Lynn Harvey and the Rev. Livingston. They represent First Methodist, St. Paul's, St. Mary's and First Congregational churches. They hoped that representatives from St. Barnabas, Chelsea Baptist, Assembly of God, the Church of Christ, North Lake, and Salem Grove would attend the Wednesday, May 27 playing meeting.

Just A Minute...

By the Rev. James A. Craig
To start with nothing and end up with a nice house in a good location is hard work. Hard work wasn't something our neighbor, Fred Flicker, was afraid of. He found a nice spot for himself and his bride, Fredricka.
Near downtown and next to the church—the true he-picked-her—Fred and Fredricka were spent getting it ready and they moved in. It was a happy honeymoon.
They're gone now. Fred and Fredricka moved out suddenly and quietly. Their new home is empty. They got along all right. It was just that the Starling gang was too much for them. The gang still raids the empty house.
You feel kind of sorry for the Flicker family. They were good neighbors. Happy and content, they asked nothing except to make their home in a place they liked. They wanted to live in the shadow of the Church because it seemed a good place for their kids. They didn't go but it was nice to know it was there.
Just having the Church around didn't help them much.
Just having it around won't help any of us too much.
In the afternoon, to a Youth Rally at Camp Talaht north of Pinckney, and later in the week she spoke to two Women's groups of the St. Paul's church. Sunday she also spoke at the early service at St. Paul's and to groups of their church school as well.

Church Has 4 Governor Addresses UCC State Winners Conference in Ann Arbor

Four members of the First Congregational church of Chelsea went to the front of the church Sunday morning to receive blue seals for their winning entries in the United Church of Christ Stewardship Project. Their entries were selected from among those entered by members of United Churches of Christ all over Michigan.

Each of the entrants had been chosen by the local church to represent it in the State. Miss Judy Livingston took first place in the teenage group for her poem, Mrs. Marjorie Hepburn was awarded first place among adults for her poem. The Rev. Robert Livingston received first place for his play, and Mrs. Marilyn Dyson took second place for her poster. The general theme of this year's efforts was "Treasure in Earthen Vessels" and encouraged writing an essay, a poem, a hymn, a play, or making a poster. Winners on the state level are entered in the national judging.

Mrs. Vernon Parks, local chairman of the Stewardship Project, says that this was the first year the church had participated in the project and that the church is proud of its winners.
It has been reported that Mrs. J. R. Seitz of the St. Paul's United Church of Christ was awarded a second place for her poem.
The Rev. Paul Schnake is minister there.

Five state winners for a small town like Chelsea is an outstanding record of creative effort.
The purpose of the annual project is to encourage study, thought and some sort of creative work that will help participants and everyone better understand Christian stewardship.

Etienne Brule reached what is now Michigan's Upper Peninsula between 1019 and 1021, at the same time the Pilgrims landed at Plymouth Rock in 1020.

G. P. Gorman Cited for Long Service as Funeral Director

GALBRAITH P. GORMAN

Galbraith P. Gorman, one of the oldest funeral directors in town, recently was honored for 50 years of service in his profession at the 85th annual convention of the Michigan Funeral Directors Association.

Gorman attended the last two days of the three-day convention in Grand Rapids where he received a certificate admitting him to the half-century club of funeral service. He sat at the honor table with the two others present out of five Michigan men who have reached this unusual peak of service. They were introduced and asked to answer a few questions about their long service.

Gorman was the only one who had received his license without the necessity of passing state board exams. He had started working for George P. Staffan in 1904 while still in high school, graduated from Chelsea High School in 1909 and from Ferris Institute in 1913. In 1914 he graduated from the mortuary course at the University of Michigan with good enough grades to be exempt from taking board exams.

Gorman recalls those first days when he was working for Staffan in Chelsea: "We had horse drawn hearses and funerals were held either in the church or residence. No such thing as a funeral home existed."

He also worked for R. A. Dolph and F. J. Muehling in Ann Arbor, for O. C. Farmer of Pontiac and Frank Blake of Detroit before going into business for himself.

Gorman was born July 10, 1889 in Lyndon township, and married Julia Boyne in 1920.

He opened his business in Dexter in 1916 in what was then "wooden row." His location was approximately where the Kroger store is today. He went overseas for two years then during World War I. He later moved to the building where Daneg's men's department is, and finally in 1927 turned his residence on Broad St. into a funeral home. There he stayed until 1940 when he sold out to Earl Keenr because of Mrs. Gorman's failing health. Keenr added a brick front onto the building and in 1952 sold the business to David Hosmer. Gorman works part time there for Hosmer now.

Rogers Corners Club Organizes for Summer

The organizational meeting of the Rogers Corners Herdman 4-H club was held April 15. Newly elected officers are Don Hindere, president; Bill Wenk, vice-president; Cheryl Grau, recording secretary; Bev Windell, correspondence secretary; Bob Kushmaul, treasurer.

The recreation committee was set up with Dick McCalla, chairman, and Grace Kushmaul and Jim Schiller as members.

The demonstration committee was set up to see that there are two demonstrations, one by an older member and one by a younger member, at each meeting.

Chairman of this committee is Bev Windell with Charlene Powers and Jim Schiller as members. Leaders for this year are Bob Heller, dairy; LeRoy Heller, beef; Lee Knopper, horses; Bob Kushmaul, sheep; Ralph McCalla, crops and swine; Bob Musolf, gardening and rabbits.

The second meeting of the club was held on May 12. It was decided that the vice-president, Bill Wenk, should also assume the duties of historian in the club. It will be his responsibility to begin a club scrapbook. In this would be included pictures of members participating in different events and newspaper articles concerning the club, projects, and members.

The club has been asked to be responsible for selling ice cream and donuts at the Chicken Bar-B-Q on June 21. This is sponsored by the Farm Council and they will be helping as a service project. Grace Kushmaul is chairman of a committee to set up a work sheet. The club has also been asked if they would like to contribute to the building of a trophy case at the Rural Activities Center. A committee made up of Bev Windell, chairman, Jim Hartmann and Dick McCalla is going to contact the agents and express the club's desires to be a part of this project.

Junior leaders for this year are: beef, Dave Frisinger, Ed Keizer, Nancy Koengeter, Dave Young, and Doug Young; dairy, Jim Bristle, Jim Hartmann, Don Hindere, Grace Kushmaul, and Jim Schiller; sheep, Robert Schneider, Bill Wenk, and Bev Windell; swine, Bob Kushmaul, and Dick McCalla. Knitting Class Projects Now Being Displayed in Strieter's Window

On display in Strieter's Men's Wear store window this week are knitted articles which are the work of beginning and advanced students in the Chelsea Area Recreation Commission adult education classes which are being completed this week.

The knitting course, taught by Mrs. Ronald Lantz (homogene) of Ann Arbor, formerly of Chelsea, proved so popular that a total of three series of 10 lessons each were given. The first two classes were held on Thursday evenings but at different hours. The third class, which is nearing completion, also was held Thursday evenings.

Many people who have seen the displays have remarked on the fine work done—not only by the advanced students but also by those in the beginners' group. Because of the popularity of the class and the great interest shown by those participating, it is expected the Recreation Commission will offer the class again next year.

Road Hunting Violation Brings $65 Fine for Two

Terry L. Dockett, 21, of Ann Arbor, and William C. Cavanaugh, 25, of Northville, cited by Conservation Officer Donley Boyer for road hunting on April 28, were assessed fine and costs of $65 each before Municipal Judge Francis O'Brien last Thursday.

Small game hunting licenses of both men also were revoked for a period of one year, Boyer said.

Jack R. Nolan, 26, of Warren, O., appeared Sunday before Sylvan Township Justice of the Peace Chandler Rogers and paid $18 fine and costs when he pleaded guilty to fishing without a license on Portage Lake, according to Boyer's report.

THE LETTERBOX

To the Editors:

After reading one of the Detroit Sunday paper sections this week-end, and especially the story of "Where American History Lives," I kept wondering how many of you had seen the pictures relating to the stories, but didn't bother to read the story? I for one, no doubt, would be counted among the readers who only looked at the pictures and leafed over the pages, if I had not seen No. 4, "The Alamo," only three months ago in San Antonio, Tex.

The defense of our country, the losing of many lives, the broken hearts for the departed, is almost older than time itself. Many large monuments have been built by the man, to signify periods of our history, from Massachusetts to California. Many more small monuments stand, end-to-end in our cemeteries, to signify the deaths for defense of our country—land of the free.

May brings Memorial Day a day set aside for the main purpose of honoring our brave dead. May is a beautiful month. It is the beginning of new life for the leaves, grass, flowers and grains. Did you ever look outdoors, and in wonderment thanking our good Lord for all that we see that's free.

This week-end is Poppy week. The little red flower that the many veterans groups stand on street corners to sell, are made in memory of the fallen. We honor our dead, by helping the living. When you put your dime to dollars in the canisters, held in the hands of the many devoted, remember that you are here to help the living, only because of the lives of the many veterans who lost their lives in your defense.

We will be having a parade and decorating our graves with fresh flowers soon. The American Flag is a symbol of all that's free. Can we count your flag to be on display, and show your patriotism by taking two minutes of your busy life, to pay tribute to the less fortunate?

Buy a poppy, display your flag, honor our dead, and then thank your God that you are among the living, who can stand up and be counted for your patriotism, and gratitude.

Local Police Nab Escapee Tuesday

Four Chelsea police officers—Earl Willis, Clyde Myers, Frank Reed and Gene Hageman—in two police cars (one unmarked) and Sheriff's Department men in three cars, cornered a Cassidy Lake Technical School escapee on Main St. at the New York Central Railroad tracks shortly after midnight Tuesday after being alerted at 9:25 p.m. that he was in the area.

Officer Willis received a call from Robert Schneider on Conway Rd., relating his suspicion of a young man who had stopped at the house to make a collect long distance call to Holland, Mich., arranging for someone to "meet him in downtown Chelsea" and bring his "wife and baby along." Schneider's suspicions were further aroused when the man asked directions to reach Chelsea and 15th.

Willis notified the Sheriff's Department at once since an alert had been received at 2:45 p.m. that one of the school's inmates had been missing at the regular 12:30 o'clock check at noon.

By the time officers arrived at the Schneider home there was no sign of the suspect but a short time later Don Joseph, whose home is on Buchanan St., notified police that a man was seen in the field behind the Chelsea Products plant. He again disappeared almost at once.

Officers Willis and Hageman then stationed themselves in the unmarked police car to be on the lookout and noticed the man in the vicinity of the railroad track.

They alerted the other police cars and the Sheriff's Department cars and the cars surrounded the area and found the man hiding beneath a freight car on the siding.

The young man was identified as Donald Bradford, 20 years old, sentenced from Ottawa county to three to 15 years for breaking and entering in the night time.

He was lodged in the Washtenaw County Jail.

Officer Willis learned later that the fugitive had been discovered in the basement of the Cavadas house at the corner of N. Main and North St. He asked if he might spend the night there but left when ordered out of the house; the police had not been called, however.

Pilgrim Fellowship Plans Meeting on 'Folksinging, Religion'

President Bev. Windell announced Sunday night that this coming Sunday's Pilgrim Fellowship meeting at First Congregational church will feature Tom Sharvard leading a program that will discuss the relation of folksinging and religion. Tom said that it is amazing how many of the songs have a religious connotation. The meeting will start at 7 p.m.

Nominations were made at Sunday night's meeting by each person writing nominees for every position. A nominating committee of the retiring president and vice-president and the advisor set up a ballot by eliminating double nominations and is checking this week to be sure those nominated will accept the positions if elected. Each position has two nominees and others may be made from the floor. Elections will be by ballot at Sunday's meeting.

The group voted that winners of the offices should attend a conference camp at Pilgrim Haven or Talati this summer in preparation for leading the group next year.

Refreshments were provided by Dave Winans. Ping Pong was enjoyed before and after the meeting.

Refreshments Sunday will be provided by Laurie Reideman, Judy Livingston, and Yvonne Podak.

Two Escape Injury When Car Flips In Dexter Township

A Dexter township accident Sunday morning demolished a 1959-model car but caused no injuries to the two persons riding in it, according to sheriff's deputies.

Officers said James A. Montgomery, 27, of 508 N. Ashley St., Ann Arbor, was driving north on Dexter Town Hall Rd., near Silver Hill Rd., in Dexter township when the accident happened.

Deputies said Montgomery lost control of his car as he started a left turn on to Silver Hill Rd. The vehicle flipped end over end twice and landed against a large rock near the road, officers said. Neither Montgomery nor his passenger, Sherry Kany, 17, of 609 Duncan was injured, deputies reported.

Montgomery was ticketed on a charge of failure to have his car under control.
