Police Report Lists Major Crime Down

The number of crimes in 1969 increased over those of 1968, but the number of major crimes, has decreased, according to Chelsea Police Chief George Meranuck, who outlined the crime comparison between those two years.

"The reason for the increase in the number of crimes is because of the increase in the smaller crimes such as simple larceny and bad check writing, but as far as major crimes are concerned, there has been a decrease in the last year," reported Chief Meranuck.

In 1968 there were 43 simple larcenies compared to 63 in 1969. There were 15 bad checks written in 1968 as compared to 37 in 1969. Major crimes have decreased. In 1967 there were 28 breaking and enterings as compared to 18 in 1968 and only eight in 1969. Auto thefts were steady at four in both 1968 and 1969, decreased from 14 in 1967. Malicious destruction of property decreased from 24 in 1968 to 17 in 1969. Breaking into autos increased from three in 1968 to five in 1969.

"You can note that there has been an over-all increase in the number of crimes, but not an increase in the number of major crimes," pointed out Chief Meranuck.

Arrests increased for juveniles but decreased for adults. There were 28 juveniles arrested in 1968 as compared to 52 in 1969, while 91 adults were arrested in 1968 and 87 arrested in 1969. Accidents also decreased in 1969 to 112 from 130 in 1968.

Chelsea Fire Loss Hits All-Time High

Fire losses climbed to an all-time high in 1969 for the Chelsea area, being up some $92,159 over 1968.

"We had 169 fires which is an all-time high for the department," it was reported by Fire Chief James Gaken in his annual report.

Gaken noted that there were 25 automobile and truck fires, 12 fires involving dwellings, two house trailer fires, one school fire, 105 grass fires, 23 miscellaneous and one resuscitator call. Of the 105 grass fires, 38 were caused by careless burning of rubbish.

"The total dollar loss on these fires is $202,175 as compared to last year's $110,016. A loss on dwellings is estimated at $19,240, a loss on other buildings at $44,510, for a total loss of $63,750. On home contents $2,000 was lost, while $83,375 was lost on the contents of others, for a total content loss of $85,375. In addition to this, $53,375 in other losses occurred."

"This is quite an increase for the Chelsea area," continued Gaken, who noted that there were several major fires, which helped to raise the total fire loss. Besides a large fire at Tamarack in November and September's mishap on 1-94 when a semi-truck caught on fire and its contents were also lost to fire, on Jan. 29 there was a fire at Chelsea Greenhouse.

Other major fires throughout the year were on March 23 at a small outbuilding at Miladore Liebeck's; on March 17, at the Bott home; on March 17, a large grass fire near Gregory; on June 21, at the George Miller home; on July 15, at the George Smith residence, a large garage and storage building fire; on Sept. 30, at Floyd Balmer's, hay and a tractor near a barn; on Oct. 19, property owned by Jack Gilbert, an abandoned house, barn and its contents; on Oct. 30, K. R. Platt's shed and contents; on Nov. 11, Paul Bauer's old school house, which was full of hay; on Nov. 23, the George Steele residence, owned by Emerson Lesser, a barn; on Nov. 28, the Faye Schiller home.

Wrestlers Pin South Lyon, Stockbridge

Chelsea's wrestling team meets Saline tonight at 7 p.m. at Chelsea, with two wins under their belts.

Chelsea won over South Lyon, 42-8, on Thursday, Jan. 29 and defeated Stockbridge, there, 43-11, on Monday, Feb. 2.

Chelsea was off and running against South Lyon as Mark Montague pinned his opponent in the first match. In the second weight Jim Wencel won a decision, 6-2.

In the following competition, Captain Tom Tibb won a decision, 6-0; Steve Ersten collected a 4-0 decision; Larry Jones pinned his opponent; Gary Montague suffered a defeat at 139 lbs; Senior Bob Koenigster won a 4-0 decision; Tom McKernan, wrestling up a weight, was defeated, 6-0; Doug McDonald, wrestling for injured Tim Colvia, pinned his man in 2:45; Karsten Kargel pinned this opponent at 1:44; Randy Seitz won on a forfeit at 185; and Dennis Brown pinned his man in 20 seconds.

"These boys have turned in a fine performance," according to Coach Richard Bareis. "Larry Jones, wrestling up a weight at 130, did a fine job and Tom McKernan, even though defeated, wrestled very well. It should also be noted that Doug McDonald looked very sharp in pinning his opponent," Bareis said.

Chelsea's victory was clouded when it was learned after the match that Gary Montague had broken his arm, which definitely will hurt the team, according to Bareis, because even though Gary was a first-year wrestler, he had been a regular and was making fine progress.

In the Stockbridge meet Chelsea moved out quickly as Mark Montague at 98, Mike Robbins at 109, Tom Tibb at 116, and Steve Ersten at 125, all recorded pins. Larry Jones at 130 and Tom McKernan at 139 both recorded decision wins. Bob Koenigster pinned his man; freshman Steve Bergman, wrestling at 155, was defeated.

AMBITIOUS SEAMSTRESS: Displaying some of her quilting is Mrs. Fred Zahn, who has been making quilts, pillows, and lap robes for a number of years and giving them to area institutions and friends. Each quilt is made of brightly colored fabrics cut in small petals and then sewn together to create flowers, dolls, and other designs. Thousands of tiny stitches goes into the making of one of these non-machine sewn quilts. Mrs. Zahn, who will be 89 years of age in March, usually sews until 10 o'clock each evening.

Mrs. Fred Zahn Finds Way To Use Fabric Scraps

Don't throw that run nylon away! Mrs. Fred Zahn, 3380 S. Fletcher Rd., has a better place for it than in the wastebasket.

She cuts up old nylons and other similar fabrics to use as stuffing in the many pillows that she makes annually for wheel chairs.

Mrs. Zahn, who will be 89 years old on March 18 ("I live that long"), makes many wheel chair robes and numerous pillows for wheel chairs out of remnants and pieces of fabrics.

"I usually sew every day, until about 10 p.m. Today I went to the doctor's, I have arthritis quite badly, and I'll rest a while before I begin sewing," Mrs. Zahn recounted.

"I made 166 pillows last year and 58 different sized quilts," Mrs. Zahn relates. "I use up every scrap of material. We just don't waste any."

Mrs. Zahn's "we" are the women of the Zion Lutheran church, Rogers Corners. Once a month she gets the women together and they sew all day. She organized the project about four years ago and since that time has donated the pillows and robes to numerous area homes and institutions.

Ypsilanti State Hospital, Washtenaw County Home, Veterans' Hospital, Whitehall, Cedar Knoll, and Williston are some of the recipients of the projects.

Marchers Net $701 To Help Dimes Fund

Entire Community Responds in Campaign To Fight Birth Defects

Mothers marched door-to-door in Chelsea Friday night, Jan. 30 to collect $701.70 in the annual Mother's March against birth defects for the March of Dimes.

"Without the total support of the community, we could not have achieved the success we did," noted Mrs. Art Steinaway, chairman of the march. "We had 61 marchers out collecting for the Fight Against Birth Defects."

"Again this year the radio club of Chelsea assisted us in patrolling the streets during the 6:30 to 8 p.m. period. Their assistance is greatly appreciated by all who marched."

"This year the drivers were Ken Bucholz, Byron Smith, Glenn Schiller, Douglas Warren, and the Wades furnished two cars and drivers," continued Mrs. Steinaway.

Chelsea mothers marched in nine districts. District I was headed by Mrs. B. French, whose district collected $49.10. From that district Mrs. C. Cox, Mrs. P. Bareis, Mrs. J. Schardein, and Mrs. R. Fahey marched.

In District II, under the direction of Carol Stoll, $71.13 was collected by Mrs. D. Haas, Mrs. C. Myers, Mrs. G. Ellenwood, Mrs. R. Milligan, and Mrs. G. McClear.

Mrs. Al Mshar, 742 Book St., and Mrs. L. E. Himler, Ann Arbor, have given me some nice pieces for the cutest gingham lap robes!" Mrs. Zahn exclaimed.

"And Mrs. Harold Spaulding, 745 Howard Rd., has given me much of her sewing remnants."

Mrs. Zahn makes different sized lap robes and quilts to be used in baby cribs or with adults in wheel chairs. She makes the quilts out of wool, cotton, outing and corduroy.

"Most of my projects now are pillows and smaller quilts. I used to make the larger quilts, but the lack of space really makes that impossible. As it is I usually use a table or two card tables for the quilted lap robes. You really need a room to set up the frame for a large quilt," Mrs. Zahn noted.

If anyone is interested in donating scraps or remnants of material to Mrs. Zahn, they may contact her. "We'll stop and pick them up, or," she offered, "they could drop out and see us."

Mrs. Zahn lives with her daughter, Mrs. Alton Grau.

Marching in District VII, $66.28 was collected with Mrs. R. Moore and Mrs. W. Winkler, Mrs. R. Merkel, Mrs. R. Fletcher, Mrs. R. Parker, Jr., Mrs. R. Houle, Mrs. S. Oesterle and Mrs. D. Machinik.

Mrs. John Dettling's District VIII collected $106.20 with Doris Sannes, A. Vail, Mrs. H. Brooks, and Mrs. D. Blalock.

The last district, No. IX, collected $78.60 with Mrs. Waldo Steinaway, Jr., directing Mrs. J. Patrick, Mrs. B. Anderson, Mrs. D. Foster, Mrs. R. Schulze, Mrs. R. Schaeffer, M. L. Stoddard, Mrs. H. Heape, Mrs. R. Lutovsky, F. Mullaby, and Mrs. R. Robbins.

Last year's marchers collected $688.05.

Parliamentary Procedure Class Starting

Tonight will be the first meeting of the adult parliamentary procedure course offered to interested area residents by William Coelius.

"Proceeds from the six-week course will go to the Chelsea debate team for sponsoring them to the debate institutes held at major universities during the summer. These are costly, but well worth it, when one considers the tremendous amount of debate experience that a debater gains from the two-week sessions," noted Coelius.

"Experts from throughout the nation are brought to the institutes to coach and advise the debaters. Debaters also gather much actual debate experience," continues Coelius, "almost as much as in one year of regular debating."

An offering of $5 is asked for the six-week course. Those interested may attend the first meeting of the class in the Chelsea high school at 7 p.m.

Bank Officers Re-Elected at Annual Meeting

Following the stockholders meeting, an organizational meeting of the board was held at which time the following officers were re-elected: Paul Mann as president; Paul Schable, Jr., as vice-president and cashier; Howard Holmes, vice-president; Richard J. Kern, assistant vice-president; and Rosemary Hummel and Loren Keezer, assistant cashiers.

Bulldog Cagers Fall Before Hot Milan Shooting

Chelsea was defeated by a red hot Milan quintet last Friday, Jan. 30, 88-72. Chelsea jumped off to a first quarter lead of 20 to 16 only to see Milan come back within one at half-time, 35-31.

In the second half Milan could not miss as they hit 58 percent of their shots. The Big Reds also controlled the rebounds as they out-rebounded Chelsea, 13 to 8, in the third quarter.

In the fourth quarter, Milan continued to roll and outscored Chelsea, 25-21.

Chelsea received an outstanding performance from Howie Treado as he grabbed 14 rebounds and scored 12 points while playing less than three quarters because of foul trouble.

Ron Sweeney led Chelsea with 23 points, many of which were lay-ups or short three-foot shots, as Chelsea broke through Milan's full court press.

Other scorers for Chelsea were Art Farley, 10; Jim Wojcicki, 9; Ken Dove, 7; Dave Conklin, 5; Jeff Hughes, 2; Wayne Welton, 2; and Dan Wenk, 2.

The next game is Lincoln at Chelsea Friday night, Feb. 6. Chelsea now trails Milan and Dundee by two games in the race for the conference title.

CHS Students Entertain at Mott Hospital

Mother Goose and her storybook characters visited the C.S. Mott Children's Hospital in Ann Arbor, Wednesday, Jan. 28 to entertain the children with stories and songs.

The characterizations were done by members of the Chelsea High school chapter of the National Honor Society and members of the Health Careers Club, which went along with the society members.

Each costumed student chose a character and sang the theme song of his storybook personality as a gingerbread cookies and Kool-Aid, made by NHS members were served.

Village Caucus Slated Monday

Nominations for candidates to fill village offices for the coming year will be taken at the Village Caucus to be held Monday, Feb. 9 at 8 p.m. in the council room of the Municipal Building.

Independent party caucus will be nominating candidates for the offices of president, treasurer, three trustees, assessor, and two library board trustees. Each of these is a two-year office term, except the assessor and library board trusteeships which are three-year positions.

The annual village election will be held March 9.

Solo, Ensemble Festival Slated Saturday

The state-wide Solo and Ensemble Festival will be held Saturday, Feb. 7 at Livonia's Schoolcraft Community College.

More than 50 Chelsea High school musicians will participate in the day-long festival.

Musicians are scheduled from 8 a.m. to 5:30 p.m., with Chelsea musicians beginning at 8:48 a.m. and scheduled throughout the day.

The school will provide a bus which will shuttle back and forth from Chelsea to Livonia several times during the day, but since there is only one bus and many different schedules, many students are expected to ride with parents or friends.

The junior high school solo and ensemble festival will be held the following week, Saturday, Feb. 14 at the college.

CHS Classes Visit Ypsilanti State Hospital

Getting a first-hand view of a community institution were the sociology and current problems classes from Chelsea High school under the direction of Patrick Wade, when they visited Ypsilanti State Hospital Friday, Jan. 30.

The 43 students visited patients working in a geriatric sheltered workshop, which is co-sponsored by the Division of Gerontology of the University of Michigan, and the hospital. They enjoyed the patients' store where many hand-crafted items may be purchased.

Included in the tour were admission and other clinical and industrial services and rehabilitation wards. A question and answer period on the hospital and Mental Health was conducted for an hour after the tour by Vincent H. DeLoach, Director of Community Relations.

The goal of the hospital in conducting tours is to acquaint the public with modern trends and current methods of treatment in mental health.

Ypsilanti State Hospital is the largest treatment, training and research state mental hospital in Michigan. It serves the needs of Washtenaw, Monroe, Lenawee, Hillsdale, Jackson, and part of (Continued on page five)

Buddy Johnson Has New Record Coming

A local group, 100 strong, known as Chelsea Musical Enterprises (CME), has made a dream come true for Buddy Johnson, owner of J & S Tool Co.

Buddy, a long-time Chelsea resident, now living in Tecumseh, has just finished a recording session in Detroit, and within 10 days the record will be available to the public.

Buddy's recording will be aired on Cumsech's FM radio station WLEN (103.9) Monday, Feb. 9 at 10 a.m.

"The record will be on our own CME label," explained Buddy, "with 'No Other Love' on side one and 'Happy Heart' on the flip side of the stereo 45 record."

"Jimmy Clark, musical director for radio station WJR wrote the arrangements, and with a 14-piece orchestra, nine of whom play with the Detroit Symphony Orchestra, has come up with what we feel to be a masterpiece of good music," continued Buddy, who won the local Kiwanis sponsored amateur show in 1950, singing "Harbor Lights."

While in the Army he won the 1st Army Talent Show at Governor's Island, N. Y. He also won the 8th Army Talent Show in Seoul, Korea, while another Chelsea man, Gen. Dwight Beach, was the Commanding General of the 8th Army.

Buddy then traveled to Tokyo with a special service show and appeared nightly at the Gaijō En Kanko, the largest service hotel in Tokyo.

BUDDY JOHNSON

In the past few years, Buddy became an active member of the Tecumseh Players and the Jackson Musical Theatre group. He played the male lead roles in "Annie Get Your Gun" in Tecumseh, and last year was seen as Billy Bigelow in the Jackson group's "Carousel."

Buddy and his wife, Mary, have three daughters, Brenda, Renee, and Tamara.

Since a limited supply of records will be available on a first come, first serve basis, those interested in obtaining a copy should send a card to reserve a copy to Chelsea Musical Enterprises, P. O. Box 66, Chelsea.

All Scouts Busy Preparing For Scout Week Observance

A Rocket Derby, a Fishing Derby, a Klondike Derby win and a court of honor all preceded the opening of Boy Scout Week which will be Sunday, Feb. 8.

Scouting in Chelsea is a popular activity with hundreds of boys participating at all levels.

Pack 455 held a Rocket Derby at their Pack meeting at South Elementary school on Thursday, Jan. 29. Some 36 rockets were raced. Winners were Glen Rook, first; Mike Bowen, second; and Douglas Nutt, third. Jon Oesterle was given an award for the best rocket construction. The man who organized this event for the Cub Scouts was Tony Bowen with the aid of the Cubmaster, Duane Hall.

Shortly before the rocket derby, Pack 455 held an ice-fishing derby on the icy-cold Sunday, Jan. 26 at Sugar Loaf Lake. Trophies were given for the most fish caught to Alex Ersten, and to Dean Thompson for the longest fish.

Besides Cub activities, there are activities for older Scouts. One of these is the Klondike derby held this year on Saturday, Jan. 31. Some 90 boys gathered with their home-made sleds for the event. They slept outdoors the night before and raced on the three-mile course the next day. One boy, rides the home constructed sled, while the other four or five boys assigned, pull the vehicle. Winners from Chelsea were Pete Stahl, Peter Pitzer, Barry Czarnocki, Mike Stoner, David Heydlauff, Bill Hafner, and Mike Miller.

Many area boys were awarded for their work in the past few months at a court of honor held Monday, Feb. 2 for Troop 476 at South school. Approximately 80 people were in attendance to see the Wildcat Patrol open the court with the flag ceremony.

Albert Forner, Committee Chairman, introduced Charles Stoner as the troop's new scoutmaster and also introduced members of the committee.

Committee chairman is Bert Forner. Roland Spaulding is Portage Trail Council president; Willis Heydlauff, treasurer; Larry Poertner, assistant scoutmaster; Morle Leach, secretary; Vern Hiltz, awards chairman; Bob Daners, transportation chairman and institutional representative; Bud Hafner, Bill Baker, Alvin Reinhardt, and Max Hepburn, committeemen; Robert Reid, John Laraway, Lloyd Hafner, and Ray Warden assistant scoutmasters.

Washington Report
by Congressman
MARVIN L. ESCH

President Nixon's wise policy of reducing our involvement in the affairs of other nations does not and should not mean a drift to a new isolationism. The decade of the 1970's is neither the immediate post-war period when the United States stood as the only free world power able to protect weak nations nor the 19th Century when vast oceans divided the world into relatively unconnected parts.

I approve wholeheartedly the President's new direction in foreign policy, specifically the early withdrawal of our armed forces from Vietnam and the lowering of our profile throughout the Far East. Nations, for which our strength has purchased time to build, must now look primarily to their own resources and will for self-defense. As painful as our change in policy direction has been, one would think we are now entitled to a period when we need worry only about execution of that policy. But human nature is perverse. The pendulum that swings too far one day may well swing too far in the other direction the next.

Unless we pay diligent attention to policy we could go from over extension, bad as that is, to isolation, which could be worse. As we reduce our military, and to some extent economic participation, however, we should significantly increase cultural exchanges and international education programs. Both serve as a means for better understanding of individual differences as well as shared values and are important for the cause of peace. For far too long positive programs have been starved by too little financial support from administrations and Congress.

More travel by more people to more lands also would be a most useful development. We should encourage people from other lands to visit the United States and do what we reasonably can to make such visits smooth and satisfying. Americans, while traveling widely in their own country, should also consider trips abroad.

While recognizing the constant need for vigilance in a still hostile world we nevertheless must make the effort to move into a new era of negotiation rather than confrontation.

DEAR MISTER EDITOR:

I was thinking the other day how I have been sending you these reports on our meetings at the country store for quite a spell, and I was thinking how the fellers has muled over just about ever subject under the sun in our Saturday night sessions.

Well, like usual Saturday night them multi-experts was ready to give advice on any matter at the drop of one of Ed Doolittle's newspaper clippings. And Ed pulled the fellers up short when he allowed they is a big change come over newspaper editors in the past 20 year. It's seldom you see a editor exposing his ignorance on a matter than ain't first been hashed out by Government at some level, was Ed's words.

For instant, Ed said, it use to be the editor told farmers and ranchers how to take care of the land, what to plant and what kind of weather was coming. Now the U. S. Department of Agriculture gives all the farming advice, and the editors uses $10 words "analyzing" USDA policy. Farthermore, Ed went on, the farther away from home the issue is, the more of a multi-expert the editor is.

Clem Webster was disagreed with Ed. Clem allowed newspapers was like a mirror reflecting things that goes on around em. And it's a fact, he said, that folks got big issues on their mind. We like the feller that let his old lady handle little problems like groceries, rent and raising the young-uns, while he took care of big prices and foreign aid.

Zeke Grubb recollected he had saw once where this youngun in school was ask what newspapers is fer and he said they was good fer putting on shelves, to go under the baby's plate and to wrap potato peels in. Zeke said that was about as close as a big city newspaper comes these days in dealing with the average feller's problems.

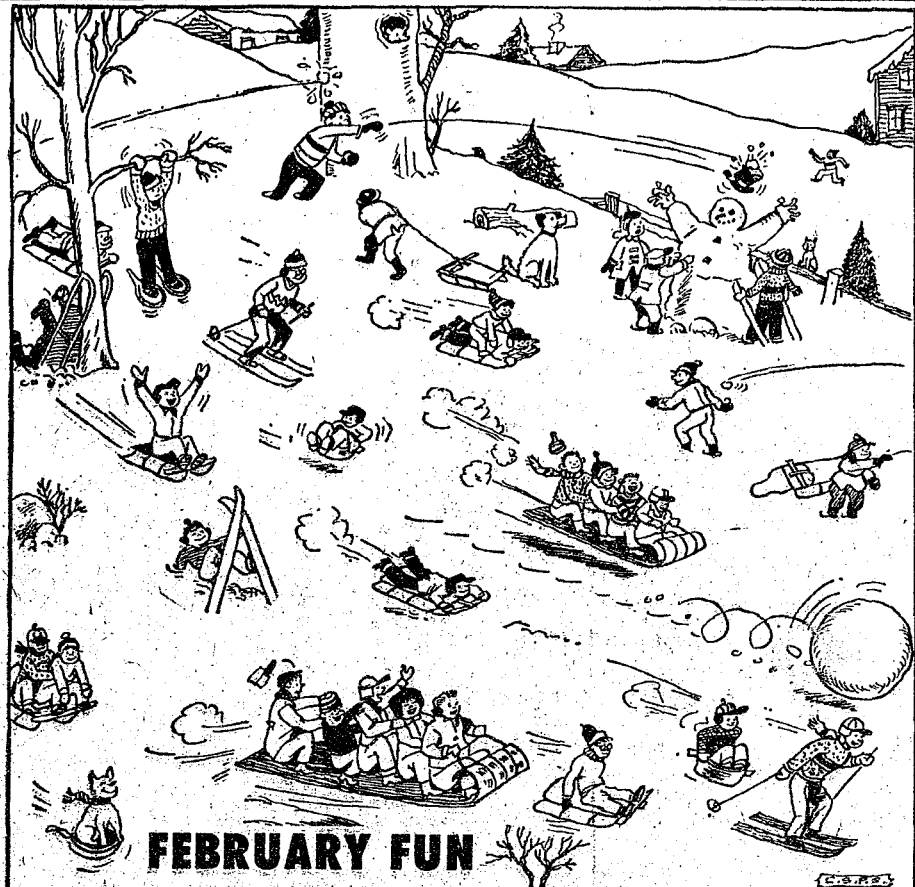

Practical speaking, allowed Clem, the bigger the paper the more they got to deal with things like isolationism, non-periferation, conglomerates and Agnew. You can tell from looking at letters folks writes to big city editors that everybody is working on the big problems, Clem said.

Personal, Mister Editor, I know all the fellers read yore paper up one side and down the other. I allus heard it said that a editor that was suiting everybody was laying down on the job, with flow-ers all around him. They is three things everybody figgers he can do better than anybody else, raise the neighbor's younguns, manage a baseball team and edit the newspaper. And I reckon you figger the fellers had ought to stick to the first two cause you got more advice that you can use on the third.

Yours truly,
Uncle Lew.

MICHIGAN MIRROR

By Elmer E. White, Secretary, Michigan Press Association

Pollution Program

Pollution of our environment, something hardly anyone thought about at the start of the sixties, is fast becoming THE PROBLEM of the seventies.

Gov. William G. Milliken exemplified the growing concern over the fact the planet is slowly becoming uninhabitable in a special message he delivered to the Legislature on pollution.

He said the matter of pollution control is the "critical issue of the seventies."

It is not only our privilege to preserve and protect the earth we have inherited," he said. "It is our solemn duty."

"Unless we move without delay to halt the destruction of our land, our water and our air, our own children may see the last traces of earth's beauty crushed beneath the weight of man's waste and ruin," he said.

"It is difficult to exaggerate the situation. The speed with which we destroy our surroundings accelerates daily, so that with every passing day it becomes more and more difficult to undo the damage we have done."

Pollution, Milliken suggested, may prove to be more of an "ultimate weapon" in terms of destructiveness than the nuclear bomb. These were strong words painting a bleak picture.

New Official State Highway Map Available

Lansing—The 1970 Official Michigan Highway Map is ready for free distribution, the State Highway Commission said today.

There are many changes, some a result of freeways opened during the year. Michigan has more than 1,400 miles of freeway.

Another change is the experimental identification of two county roads in Allegan, Chippewa and Mackinac counties. If proved to be beneficial to motorists, it is expected that other county roads will be similarly identified in the future.

On the reverse side, the guide to state parks includes the number of campsites in each park. Also, several cartoon characters give friendly tips on how to make your trip safer and more enjoyable.

Another important change is the quantity of maps. Two million are being printed, up from 1.3 million last year, in an effort to meet growing public demand for maps.

When the Department of State Highways got into the map making business 56 years ago, the public had to pay a quarter for each copy. Today's maps are printed for slightly less than a nickel each, and they are distributed free of charge, on request.

Copies are available by writing on a postcard, to:

To combat this bleak picture, the Governor has proposed to the Legislature a "20-point action agenda" designed to stem the ever-rising tide of pollution.

The program attacks all areas of pollution. It includes proposals ranging from establishment by state government of environmental standards for air, water and land resources to the requiring of a litter bag in every motor vehicle using the highways.

Milliken said the establishment of environmental standards should be the first order of business for the state. These standards are expected to be established by the end of 1970, he said.

In addition to setting up standards by which to measure performance, he said, existing laws should be both enforced more stringently and strengthened.

For example, he asked the lawmakers to pass a bill giving the Water Resources Commission the power to force industries and municipalities to agree to timetables for building pollution control facilities if these entities are moving too slowly.

Lawmakers also were asked to voice support for a project favored by Milliken to ban all offshore drilling of oil and gas wells from the Great Lakes.

Another place the Governor said the pollution battle should be fought is schools.

Milliken said courses on pollution and its control should be included in the curriculum of all primary and secondary schools as well as in all colleges and universities.

"Teachers at all levels must have an appreciation and understanding of environmental problems so the school can supplement the home in this very important formulation of environmental attitudes," Milliken said.

One specific program he will back in this area, he said, is inclusion of a biological water treatment research project in the higher education budget for this year. Also high on the list of things which must be coped with soon are solid waste disposal and litter.

The average American throws away five pounds of garbage, rubbish and junk every day. Each month Americans dump an average of 1,300 cans, bottles, paper cups, and plastic containers, on the highway which uses the highways, in the country.

Stricter supervision of solid waste landfills is needed to insure that they are properly filled, he said.

He also proposed a bill to require litter containers in every vehicle which use the highways, in hopes of cutting down on the amount of litter dumped out of cars.

In addition to encouraging legislative action, Milliken pledged to attempt to get more citizens interested in the pollution problem.

He said he envisions a citizens' anti-pollution committee similar to the New Detroit committee at work in Detroit.

In April, Milliken said, he will participate in the national teaching in being scheduled on pollution. "Our environment will not be saved from destruction by a single legislative session, or by state government alone," he said. "Only a total commitment by all sectors of society can prevent its ruin."

Karsten Kargel wrestling Brad Wilson, who is the state champ in Class C, lost a 2-0 decision in a tough match. Dennis Brown pinned his opponent at 2:45 and boosted his record to 20-0 with 17 pins.

Besides Karsten Kargel's fine match with Wilson, Randy Seitz provided a lot of excitement when after being in serious trouble for two periods, he came up with a quick reversal and a fine pin," noted Barais.

In JV competition, Gary Dorner pinned his man; Mike Spence won, 7-0; Tom Hubert a draw at 2-2; Bill Elliott won, 7-0; and Greg Osborn lost, 0-4.

Rubella Hero Buttons Given To 500 Children

Rubella hero buttons were given to 500 Chelsea school children who were vaccinated Thursday, Jan. 29 as part of a county-wide immunization program which ended Wednesday, Feb. 4.

The buttons were given to the youngsters in grades kindergarten through third who were inoculated.

The Chelsea immunization program was part of a county effort to vaccinate more than 12,000 elementary school students in free clinics sponsored by the County Health Department, the March of Dimes, and the County Medical Society.

It has been warned by U. S. Public Health officials that 1970 is a possible epidemic year for rubella, which was responsible for thousands of birth defects during the 1964 epidemic.

KINDS OF PLASTIC
There are two main categories of plastics used in home appliances. Thermoplastics are softened by heat, and hardened by cooling, such as refrigerator door liners molded in one piece. Thermosetting plastics do not break down under heat. Small appliance parts, knobs, and handles of this type are resistant to heat and pressure once they are formed.

Two Chelsea
Girls Earn
U-M Degrees

University of Michigan Regents have confirmed the awarding of some 2,300 degrees this winter to students being graduated from U-M's 18 colleges and schools.

Susan Muir Holmes and Katherine Eder were both involved in the commencement ceremonies held in December at U-M's Hill Auditorium, where the graduates heard Sen. Phillip A. Hart (D-Mich.).

Susan Holmes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dudley K. Holmes of 146 E. Middle St., graduated with a BA in education. Susan intends to teach English in the fall. She was at Colby Junior College in New London, N. H., prior to her two and one-half years at Michigan. Susan was a member of Delta Gamma sorority.

Katherine Eder, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John M. Eder, Sr., 750 Taylor St., graduated with a degree in fine arts from the U-M school of architecture and design. Although Katherine had completed her credits for graduation in December, she had not completed her student teaching. She is presently doing that in Fenton. She intends to teach fine arts in the fall.

TODAY'S THOUGHT

By LOUIS BURGHARDT

"He didn't have an enemy in the world" . . . You hear it often, especially in funeral homes. Do you believe it possible? Of course it is. In most cases it is the plain unexaggerated truth. Only rarely is it emotional oratory.

People without enemies are people who do not treat other people as enemies. They adhere to the Biblical admonition—"Count him not as an enemy." Even the "enemies of society" are not regarded as personal enemies. When other people annoy, disturb or bother them, they laugh it off or at least retain good humor. They refuse to allow unpleasantness or unfriendliness to affect their mind and spirit. Being human, they naturally have their likes and dislikes of what people say or do.

Perhaps their greatest secret in how to avoid having enemies is this: The people they like—know it. Those they disapprove of—never know it. It is a good formula for living . . . BURGHARDT FUNERAL HOME, 214 East Middle St., Chelsea, Mich. Phone GR 5-4141.

Cager of the Week

RON SWEENEY, No. 44, is a sophomore member of the Bulldog squad, has two more potential years with Chelsea varsity basketball. Ron is a sports enthusiast from his early youth, having played football since the seventh grade. He also plays baseball, which is his real love. He would like to try out for one of the professional baseball teams after high school, but asserts that he will be going to college to study engineering, with perhaps a little baseball on the side. Ron, who stands 6'2" and weighs 150 lbs., is the oldest of five sons of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sweeny, 14700 Jerusalem Rd.

District Court Proceedings

James Speer, who resisted arrest Jan. 25, and had to be subdued by Patrolman Peebles and Auxiliary Officer Leonard Erendi, was examined in circuit court in Chelsea Tuesday, Feb. 3.

He pleaded guilty and was fined 30 days in jail by Judge Patrick Conlin who returned from his duty in Detroit on Monday, Feb. 2.

Speer had originally been charged with assault and battery and with resisting arrest, but the charge was reduced to assault and battery of a police officer.

William Ledwidge, 19, of Dexter was fined $25 in Chelsea's circuit court by Judge Patrick Conlin on Monday, Feb. 2 after he was charged with being a minor in possession of liquor by Officers McCormack and Peebles of the Chelsea Police Department.

Two other youths were in the car with Ledwidge, but were released without charge.

JV Cagers Nosed Out By Milan In Final Seconds

Chelsea JV cagers suffered a heart-breaking 45-46 loss to the Milan Little Reds last Friday making their season record 8-4.

Chelsea, down by two with less than seven seconds left, attempted four free throws, but could convert only one of them.

The game was a nip and tuck battle all the way until Milan opened up their lead late in the fourth quarter.

Two Chelsea players hit in double figures led by co-captain Greg Howard with 19 points and Jeff Schmidt with 10. Jeff Daniels and Chick Lane scored 9 and 4, respectively.

Schmidt was the team's top rebounder, grabbing 10. Greg Howard had 9, Chick Lane 7, and Jeff Daniels 6.

It is time for everyone to look out for new calendars.

Basic Skills Achievement Tests Finished

Chelsea schools have completed the administering of assessment tests to measure the basic skills achievement levels of all fourth and seventh grade children as part of a state-wide assessment program.

All students in these grades in the State of Michigan, except those in special classes for the handicapped, took the "basic skills achievement battery" the last two weeks in January.

The Department of Education will issue a public report, expected about June 1, reporting assessment results by four geographic regions, by five community types and by 16 combinations of geographic region-community type. No individual pupil scores will be reported.

Educational Testing Service (ETS), Princeton, N. J., will score the tests, analyze the data and assist in preparation of the summary reports. Supplementary and supporting analyses of the data will be done by the Department of Education.

ETS assisted the Department in devising the basic skills battery, which is essentially a shorter version of conventional tests commonly used to discover achievement levels. One result of the shortening is that scores of individual pupils will not be reliable enough for reporting, although scores of groups of pupils will be reliable and meaningful for limited use.

This assessment should aid the state and the school district in self-evaluation and future planning.

New Splush Carpeting Introduced This Season

Splush! This new word has been coined by carpet manufacturers to describe a texture of carpeting which is part plush and part shag.

This is just one of the many new texture combinations which are emerging along with the now popular carpet tiles, which make laying carpeting indoors, outdoors, on the walls and ceilings as easy as laying kitchen tile.

The totally carpeted room is a new idea for the '70's, which promises to eliminate many acoustical problems.

Wise men believe nothing that contradicts their intelligence.

Medical Care Facility Auxiliary Seeks Members from Entire County

The Executive Board of the Auxiliary of the Washtenaw County Medical Care Facility presented its annual report and opened its membership to those interested in sharing in the work of the auxiliary.

Mrs. Stevens Rice, president of the auxiliary, reported that the auxiliary this year has provided films for movies, records for music lovers, the monthly birthday parties, card service, gifts for each patient at Christmas time and a Christmas party at the facility.

"Among more expensive items the auxiliary has provided the facility are equipment such as the ice water drinking fountains which have been needed for some years for the comfort and convenience of both patients and staff. Several large gifts from various organizations made it possible to provide for these installations," reported Mrs. Rice.

Membership in the auxiliary is obtainable by paying dues.

"If you can offer your services you will be very welcome, but you become a full member just by paying your dues," noted Mrs. Rice.

Chelsea-Dexter area honorary trustees of the auxiliary for this year are Miss Ida Dettling, Mrs. Leigh Palmer, and Mrs. C.C. Ordway.

For further information on membership, letters may be addressed to the Washtenaw County Medical Care Facility Auxiliary, Ann Arbor.

Ann Arbor Symphony Will Present Young People in Concert

The Ann Arbor Symphony Orchestra will present its annual Young People's Concert with youth soloists and an All-City Children's Chorus, Sunday, Feb. 15 in Pioneer High School Auditorium at 4 p.m. This concert is sponsored in co-operation with the Ann Arbor Public Schools and aided by the Ann Arbor Area Foundation. The concert is free.

Guest soloists will be Karen Rice, flutist, playing the first movement of the Concerto in D major for flute, opus 27 by Luigi Boccherini, Larry Wirth, cellist playing Kol Nidrei, adagio for cello, opus 47 by Max Bruch, and George Marsh, violinist playing the first movement of the Concerto No. 3 in B minor for violin, opus 61 by Camille Saint-Saens.

This will be the first time in Ann Arbor that there will be an All-City Children's Chorus composed of 75 to 100 children. The group will be directed by Tom Bahe, a teacher in vocal music at Oberwhite and Stone schools.

The chorus was formed in the spring semester of the 1968-69 school year with children from Mack and Stone schools. It now consists of children from Lawton, Oberwhite, Stone, Dickens, and Allen schools. In May of 1969 the chorus sang for the 50th Anniversary of the Midwest State Home Economics Conference which was held in Ann Arbor at the Sheraton.

The group will be singing an old English Traditional Melody "Let all things now living" by Katherine K. Davis and two other songs.

In addition to the soloists and the chorus, the orchestra will perform the Overture to "The Merry Wives of Windsor" by Otto Nicolai and the March Slav, opus 81 by Peter I. Tchaikovsky.

Chinese-American Pianist To Present Concert in Ann Arbor

Marian Buck-Lew, a brilliant young pianist, will be presented in concert by Alumnae Chapter of Mu Phi Epsilon on Friday, Feb. 6 at 8:15 p.m. at the Ann Arbor Women's City Club.

Miss Buck-Lew gives a sensitive and mature interpretation to a wide range of compositions. Her understanding of the music she performs is deeply satisfying to the listener, and the clarity and brilliance of her technique is breathtaking.

Her piano study began at age nine. She showed unusual talent during those first years in Hong Kong where she was born and attended elementary school. When her family settled in Baltimore upon coming to the United States, Marian attended high school and continued her piano study. Later as a scholarship student at Peabody Conservatory of Music her teachers included Mieczyslaw Munz and Walter Hautzig.

During her doctoral research at the University of West Virginia, Miss Buck-Lew became intensely interested in oriental piano compositions. She hopes eventually to program some of these works so that American audiences will become acquainted with the culture of the Asians. She received her doctorate in 1968.

Before joining the University of Iowa faculty in 1967, Miss Buck-Lew had experience as an instructor in the Peabody Preparatory School and in Baltimore county public schools, was organist and choir director of the First Unitarian church of Baltimore, and gave recitals in Baltimore, Hagerstown and Salisbury in Maryland, and in New York City.

Tickets for this concert are available from Mrs. Donald Kenney, 1908 Lorraine Place, Ann Arbor.

Legion Auxiliary Seeks All Kinds of Cancelled Stamps

The monthly meeting of the American Legion Auxiliary was held Tuesday, Feb. 3, at Sylvan Town Hall, with 10 members present.

A report was given on the District meeting and again it is urgently requested that volunteers come forward to give of their time. It was stressed that even a few hours a week would help so much.

A plea was also put out for the cancelled stamp project. It was reported that during the six-year period the group has collected cancelled stamps, $54,240.19 worth of stamps were sold, these funds are used to provide high protein concentrates such as powdered milk, split beans, etc., and U. S. surplus food to needy families and orphanages overseas. These used stamps are turned into cash to provide food for the hungry children. If anyone in the Chelsea area would like to save these stamps and donate them to the Auxiliary it would be greatly appreciated. Urgently needed are the following stamps: large and middle-sized commemorative stamps, except Christmas stamps; large and middle-sized foreign stamps; large and middle-sized air mail stamps; pre-cancelled stamps of all sizes and denominations; and special stamps of all kinds and sizes.

After some discussion it was voted to increase our poppy order for the sale of the poppies in May in memory of our departed veterans.

Discussion was held on various money-making projects and it was decided that we would hold a bakeless bake sale. Each member will be contacted by mail.

The meeting closed with refreshments.

The next meeting will be held March 2 at Sylvan Town Hall.

Co-Op Nursery School Adds Equipment To Help Co-Ordination

It's never too early to begin developing large muscle co-ordination and balance!

This is the philosophy of the Chelsea Co-Op Nursery School in its addition of a balance beam for the children to practice walking on. The school hopes to help the children with muscle development and co-ordination as well as to provide a new activity for the children.

The children, of pre-school age, were given hearing and vision tests by the Washtenaw County Health Department this past month, also as part of the school's emphasis on physical fitness.

Also during the past month parent-teacher conferences were held in place of the regular sessions on Jan. 19 and 20. This was an opportunity for the parents to discuss their child's personal development with the teacher, Mrs. Fred (Virginia) Meyer.

The school, located on Chelsea-Dexter Rd., accepts children between the ages of three and four. Mothers may exercise their option to either pay for an assistant or offer to assist the teacher on a part-time basis themselves.

Assisted programs in the mornings are in two sessions, one for three- and one for the four-year-olds. The afternoon session is a combination of three- and four-year-olds and is a non-assist program, for which the mothers pay an extra fee.

Approximately 30 youngsters are enrolled in the morning sessions and nine in the afternoon session, according to Mrs. Keith Bradbury, assistant to the instructor.

These youngsters have been trained in a variety of areas to ready them for school. Most recently they have been working on reading readiness and the discerning of different sizes, shapes, colors and patterns.

Any mother may enroll her pre-school child in the co-operative school by contacting the instructor, Mrs. Meyer, at the school.

★ Safe, Better Food

Did you ever take a big bite of thirst-quenching fruit only to uncover half a worm wiggling to find his other half? No, a pleasant experience and not uncommon if the fruit grew wild without the intensive care of a grower.

Farmers are the guardians of our food, with their knowledge and skill they help keep families healthy by protecting the food they produce from not only worms, but millions of hungry insects and harmful diseases.

It's the farmer who plants the seed which starts the process of filling each man, woman and child's dinner, lunch and breakfast plate, and the snacks in between. As our urban centers boom and our populations grow, there are countless numbers of people who have never even been on a farm, and rarely look past the grocery shelf as to the origin of their food. Subsequently there is a lot of inbred misunderstanding about America's largest industry.

With regret, consumers have been subjected to an insidious barrage of propaganda claiming that the environment is being systematically poisoned by pesticides, fertilizers, herbicides and other modern chemicals. Seldom is this information balanced or objective. Farmers in general, and Michigan farmers in particular, have been singled out as a target by irresponsible agencies and private organizations such as the Environmental Defense Fund, headquartered in New York.

Teamed with the farmer are thousands of researchers, governmental and private, who test and retest the ingredients which are utilized for safe and better food.

Such effective methods is one of the major reasons for agriculture's phenomenal ability to produce abundant and high quality food. Pesticides, for instance, have also helped rid the world of plagues, and continue to control disease. Farmers, in general, have used them judiciously and only in the quantity necessary to assure control of disease and pests that affect agricultural products. In fact, thanks to farmers and researchers, many of the pesticides under attack today have been used very little in recent years.

Farmers are now making every effort to properly inform the American public of the safeguards continually taken by farmers as well as scientists and government, all to prevent the "worm" from getting the best of the nation's food.

Manganese Oxide Not Satisfactory For Plant Growth

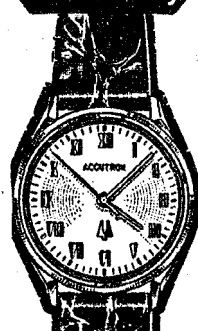

East Lansing—Granular manganous oxide is not a satisfactory manganese source for plants, reports Bernard D. Knezek, Michigan State University crop and soil scientist.

In recent research, plants' manganese uptake from granular and powdered manganese sulfate and very fine manganous oxide materials was greater than from the granular form of manganous oxide.

ENAMEL BEST

Kitchens and bathrooms are subject to more punishment from moisture than any of the other rooms in your home. It's a good idea to paint them with a moisture resistant paint. One of the best is semi-gloss enamel. Not only will it stand up under the wear and tear of the moisture normally produced in these rooms, but it can also be easily cleaned with a soap and water scrubbing.

Esch Solicits Farmers' View On Advance Payments Change

Congressman Marv L. Esch has called upon Second District farmers to tell him what they think about the Agriculture Department's decision to forego advance diversion payments this year for wheat, grain and cotton.

Said Esch, "Farmers have come to rely on these advance payments for spring planting and other operations. A farmer's income is normally low at this time of year.

The elimination of advance payments," Esch said, "will force many farmers to borrow money, a costly proposition in these days of high interest rates."

Esch said the decision to eliminate advance payments this year was taken by the Administration as part of its drive to curb inflation and to keep the budget balanced for the fiscal year ending June 30. Said Esch, "While inflation hurts us all and must be stopped, there is a question whether the farmer is being asked to bear too much of that burden at this time."

"Fortunately," Esch said, "the Agriculture Department has since made further changes in payment procedures that ease the over-all problem somewhat. Whereas in recent years farmers received the last half of their diversion payments for wheat, feed grain and cotton sometime after Sept. 1

(after receiving the first half in February and March) they will now receive the total amount due them as soon as possible after July 1. For many farmers this means they will get their full payment as much as two months earlier. In addition, there will be a speed-up in price support payments, which were not included in the past in earlier payments."

"But, I want to know what farmers think on this matter.

Does the compromise seem fair to them? While we all must share in the painful process of ending inflation and getting our outgo back in line with income, I do not want the farmers to bear an undue burden. On too many occasions they have had to carry too big a load for the rest of us."

Esch concluded, "I call upon farmers and others connected with agriculture in the Second District to inform me of their views on this matter. Letters may be sent to either my Washington, Ann Arbor, or Monroe offices. All will be carefully reviewed."

Capuchin Charity Guild Baseball Dinner

Scheduled for April 16

Detroit—The date of Thursday, April 16, has been selected for the 29th annual Capuchin Charity Guild Baseball Dinner, honoring the entire Tiger team. It was announced Saturday by the Rev. Rock Janowski, director of the Capuchin Charity Guild and chairman of the dinner.

The dinner, which will follow an afternoon game between the Tigers and the Cleveland Indians, will be held at the Raleigh House, located on Telegraph Rd., north of 10 Mile Rd.

Tiger players, as in the past, will attend the dinner en masse and the Tiger radio-television announcers will handle the ceremonies. Proceeds of the event will help support the Capuchin Charity Guild Eastside soup kitchen for indigents.

The Tigers out-homered every opposing club in the American League in 1969 except the Baltimore Orioles.

Funds Needed To Help Students Study in France

Paris . . . Brittany . . . Southwestern France . . . Alsace-Lorraine . . . ah, Spring.

It's not spring, but Heidi Sprague, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Sprague, and Roberta Dvorak, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Dvorak, recreate it for you with a slide presentation of their 1969 trip to France.

The two girls have presented their pictures to the Kiwanis Club, Beta Sigma Phi, and to Chelsea High school. They are willing to present their pictures to any area group.

The girls were sent to France last year for two weeks by the Chelsea High French club. The club will again send someone this year, provided funds are available.

Although the slide presentation is free of charge, the girls noted that the French club would appreciate donations to help finance the trip of other teens to France.

Goodwill Industries Collection Box Located at Stop & Shop Lot

Hang onto that "white elephant" for Goodwill Industries has established a pick-up or drop-off station at Stop & Shop supermarket to collect repairable clothing and other items.

"Any clothing as well as household items of all types are welcome," according to LaMoine Rutherford, contract manager for the Jackson location.

"We will take items dropped at the Stop & Shop location to the Jackson branch at 617 N. Mechanic St., where handicapped persons are employed to clean, sort, repair, and refinish the articles for resale at that location," explained Rutherford, who is in charge of all kinds of contract work.

"We're willing to do all types of nuisance work, assembly or inspection work for industries. If they're interested, we'll bid on it," continues Rutherford.

Goodwill Industries was started in Baltimore in 1930 during the depression by a Mr. Helms, who originally would gather food to distribute to those in need.

Gradually Helms got into the field of employment for the handicapped.

Last Friday, Jan. 30, the Jackson branch of the industry celebrated its 20th anniversary. It employs some 60 handicapped workers.

As far as items are concerned which are too large for the box in Chelsea, Goodwill Industries has a home pick-up service. Those interested should call collect (517) 787-0570.

Merit Scholarship Test Deadline Date Approaching

There is just one week remaining to sign up for the National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test, which will be administered to all interested juniors Tuesday, Feb. 17 at Chelsea High School, according to George Bergman, high school counselor.

"The NMQST is given only once yearly, and may not be retaken until the following year. It is a pre-requisite to applying for many colleges and scholarships, and therefore is a must for those who would attend a university," explained Bergman.

Further information may be obtained at the Main Office in the high school.

Council Briefs

At a regular session of the Chelsea Village Council Tuesday, Feb. 3, Chief Meranuck submitted a report on crime comparisons for 1969. The report indicated a decrease in major crimes and a slight increase in non-violent crimes.

A discussion was held regarding the all-electric rate to consumers in the village. A recommendation will be made at the next meeting.

Representatives of the firm of Cummins & Barnard were present and submitted a proposal to study the electrical distribution system in the village.
