

KIWANIANS, handy souls with hammers, built this float which took first prize in the adult category. The theme: "We Are Builders."

LOVE THAT LAMB: Lisa Schairer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dean Schairer, S. Parker Rd., clutches the lamb she raised and brought to the fair.

WINNING FLOAT in the Youth category was this confection: a gingerbread house, and candy garden. Queen candidate, Jeanne Haselschwardt, Junior class queen, rides atop the Junior class float. A "sweet" idea!

Fact Finder Will Report By Monday, Sept. 7

Testimony Will Be Taken Friday in Attempt To Sign Teacher Contract

George T. Roumell, the appointed fact-finder for the Chelsea School District, held a preliminary meeting, Friday, Aug. 28, in Chelsea.

Purpose of the meeting was to define issues in the dispute. The hearing was closed, at the request of the fact-finder.

Present at last Friday's meeting were the negotiators from the CEA, Leonard Solomon, Mary K. Weber, Dennis Raymond, DiAnn L'Roy, Harold Collins, MEA representative, and Paul Terpstra. Those present from the school board were Thomas Nordberg, attorney for the board, Donald Irwin, president, Carolyn Smith, trustee, Charles Cameron, superintendent of schools, Fred Mills, business manager, as well as the principal of the four schools, Sylvester Wojcik, Robert Benedict, Allan Conklin and Charles Lane, and assistant principal Bryce Fauble.

The fact-finder will return Friday, Sept. 4, at 6:30 p.m., to take testimony in the board of education room. This hearing will also be closed to the public, at the request of the fact-finder. Those who may attend are the board of education, administrators, and their witnesses; and the CEA executive committee, teacher negotiators and their witnesses. Each team of negotiators may have benefit of counsel.

If necessary, the fact-finding hearing will be continued at 1 p.m. Sunday, Sept. 6.

Roumell will submit his report to the negotiators Monday, Sept. 7. He has directed the CEA Executive Committee and the Board of Education to meet later that day to decide whether the fact-finder's report is acceptable.

Bus Drivers Needed Before School Starts

Chelsea School District still needs full-time and part-time bus drivers to begin the 1970-71 school year. Efforts to recruit drivers to date have not produced the required number as retirement and illness have necessitated replacement of several drivers from last year.

To qualify as a bus driver, one must be 21 years old, possess a valid Michigan chauffeur's license, a satisfactory past driving record, pass a physical examination and attend school bus driver school. Anyone interested in driving a school bus should call 475-3461 or 475-8255 for additional information.

Bus routes for 1970-71 will remain the same as in 1969-70 until additional bus drivers are hired and new buses are delivered. At that time, some bus routes will be changed as an additional route is added.

With 13 floats, three bands, and possibly, 76 trombones, the 1970 Chelsea Community Fair parade came to town Saturday, Aug. 29. The weather caused the parade to be somewhat late, as rain kept the Fire Department from assembling the floats until just before the parade was scheduled to begin. Fortunately, the rain cleared up in time for the parade.

Everett Van Riper, 20412 Jerusalem Rd., was parade marshal, and led the procession down Main St. He was followed by 1969 Fair Queen Jane Mann, the fair board, village officials and float judges.

The Fire Department, who is responsible for the fair parade every year, selects the float judges. This year's judges were Pat Macomber, wife of the editor of the Manchester newspaper, John Allhouse, mayor of Manchester, and Muriel Boyd, former Chelsea teacher.

Chelsea High school band, just back from band camp, all set to start this next academic year, came next, followed by the Washenaw County Sheriff's patrol car, and boat.

The parade, which was more than 20 minutes long this year, had many lovely and unusual floats, as well as interesting farm equipment, antique cars, clowns, and candy.

The Junior High school band also participated in the parade, as well as the Waterloo Band, one of the oldest bands in the state, and a traditional participant in Chelsea's parades.

In the Youth category first place this year went to the junior class float. Based on a fantasy theme of Hansel and Gretel, it featured a cardboard and cotton "gingerbread house," surrounded by paper gingerbread men. Queen Jeanne Haselschwardt, rode on the float, as the wicked witch, with her court consisting of Sherry Freeman and Pat Poertner.

Kiwanis Club Paying for New Lights on CHS Athletic Field

Chelsea Kiwanis Club is paying the bill for new lights on the high school football field. Hard at work on the project, Tuesday afternoon, Sept. 1, was a work crew from the Village Electric & Water Dept., and Earl Heller, of Heller Electric. Heller, an electrician, donated his time for the project. Materials for the lighting were purchased through his supply sources.

There are 96 new lights in all, eight on each bank of lights, two banks to a pole, and six poles around the field. Heller estimates that the new lighting will be sufficient to record a 25 candlepower reading on the field. Before the new lights, Heller was unable to get any reading at all on the field with his light meter.

First Trap Shoot Of Season Held

First trap shoot of the season held last Sunday, Aug. 30, at the Chelsea Rod and Gun Club grounds was very successful. Rubin Edick was the first shooter to start off in the new range. Mel Stephens had a score of 25 out of 25, a good record for the new grounds! Other scores, out of a possible score of 25 were: K. Schuelke, 24; R. Edick, 24; W. Abdon, 24; J. Marshall, 22.

The grounds will be open for public shooting again on Sunday, Sept. 6, from 10 a.m. until 1 p.m.

School Enrollment Expected To Hit 2,424

This year's public school enrollment in Chelsea is expected to be 2,424 students, according to business manager Mills. That is an increase over last year's 2,374 enrollment figure.

The Chelsea Fair drew an estimated 25,000 participants, said Fair Board president, Allan Btosemle. That is an increase over last year's fair attendance by 5,000 people.

The fixtures alone cost $3,500, including lights, arms, and bulbs, but Kiwanis Club members feel that the price is well worth it, and hopes the community and school can enjoy the benefits for many years.

Laurie Lancaster Is Queen of Fair

The 1970 Chelsea Community Fair Queen pageant was underway Saturday night, Aug. 29, at 7:30 p.m., when the eight queen candidates, arriving at the fair grounds dressed in their costumes for the talent show, met the pageant judges, and this year's master of ceremonies.

The pageant, which culminates a five-day ordeal for the girls that involved meeting people, waving hands, smiling, and, in short, being queenly, represented more than a week's work for both candidates, and the Chelsea Jaycees, this year's sponsors for the event. Those on the committee for this year's pageant included Chelsea Jaycee President Art Steinaway, Glenn Weir, external vice-president, Barry Boone, and Ed Greenleaf.

Judges for the event were Richard W. Cadwallader, Jackson, part owner of the Jackson Janitorial Supply Co., Inc., Ronald Kuzniar, Whitmore Lake, manager of bookkeeping at the Ann Arbor Bank; Pat Dittmar, Home Economist at the Chelsea Milling Co.; and Richard DeWater, vice-president of Hunts Sporting Goods in Jackson. George Holmes, instructor in history at Washtenaw Community College, who lives in Ann Arbor, was master of ceremonies.

Ed Greenleaf, who was in charge of securing the judges, and MC, introduced them to the audience, and the pageant was underway!

Holmes presented each girl to the audience, as she came on stage to give her talent presentation. The first girl on stage was Debbie Orlovski. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Orlovski, and was sponsored by the Freshman class. She is 14 years old. For her talent, Debbie presented a reading which she entitled "Rover in Church," by James Buckham.

Next on the stage was Janice Schramm, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Schramm. She is 16, and sponsored by the Terrific Tailors 4-H club. For her talent, she read a humorous reading by Dorothy Parker entitled "The Waltz."

Joan Yocum, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Yocum, senior class queen, followed. She is 16. Joan performed a pantomime dance to the song "Put on a Happy Face" for her talent. Cathy Clark daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Clark, and Mrs. William Clark, and (Continued on page five)

Washington Report
by Congressman
MARVIN L. ESCH

When federal departments and agencies don't get their money on time, efficiency and effectiveness are impossible. And, when this happens, the loser is millions of people and thousands of organizations.

For example, community action agencies in Michigan have run short of funds for a number of vital programs primarily because the several federal departments simply didn't get their money on time.

The same is true for public schools, colleges, hospitals, city, county and state governments and various individuals. Their applications for funds just sit on someone's desk for months because departments have limited funds and do not know how much new money they will get in a new fiscal year or when.

The culprit in this whole mess is the Congress, particularly the Senate. We are already two months into the 1971 fiscal year but many departments still do not know how much money they will get. The House, I am happy to say, has done fairly well this year, compared to other years. It has passed all appropriation measures except one. But the Senate has passed less than half of its appropriation measures until something like eight months after the fiscal year started. The federal government stands almost unchallenged in its incredible ability to mismanage its financial affairs. Measures except one. But the Senate has passed less than half of its appropriation measures, 6 of 13. As you may recall, last fiscal year Congress did not pass all appropriation measures until some time like eight months after the fiscal year started. The federal government stands almost unchallenged in its incredible ability to mismanage its financial affairs. I have continually fought for responsible Congressional action on appropriation measures as part of my over-all effort to effect badly needed reforms. But, Congress will not likely bring order and timeliness to its handling of our tax money until the public demands it.

Warren Eisenbeiser Resigns as Dexter Township Supervisor

Warren Eisenbeiser, supervisor of Dexter township for 10 years, sent in his written resignation, Thursday, Aug. 20 to be effective as of Sept. 1.

He is resigning because he is moving out of Dexter township. Eisenbeiser's son, William Eisenbeiser, township clerk, is temporarily filling in until a new supervisor is appointed. That will be done at a meeting next Tuesday evening.

New Fast Growing Christmas Tree May Help Michigan Industry

A new five-needled limber pine from the mountains of Arizona, Texas and New Mexico may bolster the Michigan Christmas tree industry.

The pine, discovered as a result of research begun at Michigan State University in 1960, has good foliage density, color and growth rate—often exceeding that of eastern white pine.

According to MSU scientists, Michigan growers could get marketable trees from limber pine nursery stock in six to eight years.

Michigan voters may have a second chance to vote whether they want daylight savings time in the state this year.

Or they may get that second chance in 1972.

Or they may not get it at all. That, in a nutshell, is the messy situation the advocates and opponents of moving the clock ahead one hour during the summertime have backed themselves into.

It all started last year when the backers of daylight savings time, who lost a state-wide vote by a margin of only 488 votes in 1968, decided to try for a second vote on the matter.

They launched a petition drive to accomplish this but when the deadline for submitting the petitions to the Secretary of State's office arrived on Jan. 4, they didn't have the 197,000 signatures they needed.

Instead of giving up, however, they filed suit seeking a court order to force the Secretary of State to accept the petitions after Jan. 4.

Their argument basically said that petitions for constitutional amendments didn't need to be submitted until only 120 days before an election so that it was unfair to make them submit theirs so early.

The early requirement was imposed in a 1914 law, which said petitions proposing laws must be submitted 10 days before the legislature convenes. Since the daylight time petition proposed changing the state law which exempts Michigan from the federal daylight time law, they fell under this requirement.

Petition circulators, however, said in modern days, with the legislature meeting every year and almost all year, such a requirement is out of date, it is the will of the people and this is unconstitutional.

In June the State Court of Appeals issued a ruling agreeing with the backers of daylight time and ordering the Secretary of State to start counting the petitions and to accept new petitions.

Opponents of daylight time have appealed that ruling to the Supreme Court and the high court has set a deadline of Sept. 14 for the submission of written arguments on the case.

Court watchers say a final decision is quite possible before the end of the month.

Should the court rule the deadline is unconstitutional also and agree the petitions should be counted, however, that won't be the end of the story.

There is a requirement in the state constitution that any petition proposal to change state law must go to the legislature before it goes on the ballot.

The legislature is required to act on the matter one way or another within 40 session days of the time it gets the issue. Since the legislature has scheduled only two session days between now and the election, the time period couldn't expire in time to put the issue on this year's November ballot.

And since the legislature has scheduled those two days for Sept. 15-16, it will have to make a decision to come back again after the Supreme Court decision and then take a quick vote on the daylight time issue again if a vote this year is possible.

Even that might not be quick enough to insure a vote this year, however, since there are practical limits imposed on such matters by the need to get ballots printed, etc.

There is no assurance such a special session would be held, since the Senate refused earlier this year to back a proposal to put the matter back on the ballot for a second time.

Thus, about all that can be said is that there either will or won't be a vote this year, or 1972, or ever.

And the voter shouldn't be surprised on Nov. 3 if he finds the daylight time issue on his ballot—or if he doesn't.

Difference Shows

It is somewhat of an accepted political truism that the Republican Party has less trouble taking care of its financial obligations than the Democratic Party.

The reason for that differentiation is shown in the prices the two parties are charging for the legislative election fund raising dinners they're holding this fall. Republicans are charging $100 a ticket. But to get into the Democratic dinner will only cost you $50. Or perhaps the Democrats count on support from twice as many people.

Uncle Lew from Lima Says:

DEAR MISTER EDITOR:

Like the feller said, some folks make up in ignorance what they missed out on in stupidity. I ain't calling no names, but a feller by the initials of Zeke Grubb opened his mouth and removed all doubt of his thinking power during the session at the country store Saturday night.

There was Zeke wondering how come school teachers in Washington, D. C. is in such a uproar over the idea of paying em by the kind of job they do instead of how long they been hanging around. Zeke showed his ignorance by allowing that merit pay for teachers and everybody else has some good points. Zeke said it looked to him like folks would be happy to get recognized for quality of work instead of quantity of time put in.

Zeke had saw by the papers where Washington schools was talking about putting in a merit pay plan to try to get teachers to teach youngsters to read. The school board was of the mind that if a youngun can't read he can't learn anything that's wrote.

The teachers don't take to the idea one bit, Zeke reported. They say look at "the whole child's development" which means they look fer somepun the youngun can do instead of what he can't do. What the school board wants is to test the younguns in reading ever so often and give the teachers extra pay when the younguns make a good showing.

Clem Webster come right out and said Zeke was crazier than he looks, and Clem said that was going some. He said a deal like that would pick the good teachers from the other kind, and teachers is just like people, they is more of the other kind. Everybody wants to put in his time and draw his pay just like everybody else, Clem explained, cause that's the new American way.

Ed Doolittle was agreed with Clem, and Ed added it is the Democrat giveaway Government that has convinced folks they got a free ride coming jest fer staying alive. Ed had saw where this woman with 10 younguns was on welfare and wouldn't take a job cause she said motherhood is a job mothers ought to be paid fer doing. Furthermore, she said she wasn't going to take no job that didn't pay but $10 a week more than she could draw on welfare and stay home.

What this country needs, Ed said the woman told reporters, is a "new definition of work," which Ed allowed means getting paid a living wage jest fer living. Ed said it would be a sight in this world if the Government was to demand a day's work fer a day's pay, welfare pyramunts and all.

Mister Editor, I think Labor Day got the fellers on this subject. One thing fer shore, we are more interested in Pay Day than Labor Day these days. Yours truly, Uncle Lew.

Work of wrecking the house on the site for the new Chelsea post office, which was started last Thursday, has progressed rapidly. It is expected all the debris will be cleared from the lot this week, according to R. S. Spence, of the Spence Bros. Construction Co., general contractors on the project.

The sub-contract for excavation work has been let to Fred Coe of Pontiac, and he will have his equipment on the ground by the first of next week. The size of the basement excavation will be 36x65 feet, which will require removal of about 1,000 yards of dirt. The main building will be 61x62 feet. The excavating work should be completed in about one week, according to Spence, and then the construction of footings will be started.

Some of the materials from the wrecked building have been sold; some has been used for construction of an office on the property, and the remainder will be used in construction work on the post office building. Two trees have been cut down, one along the street and the other on the property, and the other trees have been boxed for protection during the period of construction.

A delegation of Sorensen subdivision residents attended the regular Village Council meeting Tuesday evening to request action on the control of dogs in the area. As a result of the delegations request, the Council has proposed the drawing up of a new dog ordinance "with teeth in it."

The Council, in a body, inspected the village parking lot. A plot of the area was drawn up and an official survey to determine village property lines is to be made.

Coming as a climax to a season of unusual drought and an unseasonable cool spell were the unprecedented frosts of the week end and the apparently general frost of Tuesday morning.

According to reports from farmers in different parts of this community there was still a white frost coating on lawns, roofs and fields at 7 a.m. Tuesday, with the most extensive damage being on low ground. Late vegetables, such as: tomatoes, squash, cucumbers, and sweet corn suffered heavily.

The amount of damage to upland garden crops, field corn and late potatoes cannot be determined, but some damage is anticipated.

This killing frost was nearly three weeks earlier than the usual first killing frosts which normal-

WINNING FAMILY: The Vern Otto family is shown above with the winning produce they entered in this year's fair. They entered a total of 29 entries in the fair, more than anyone else in the vegetable division. They won a total of nine ribbons, and captured first, second, and third in the watermelon division. This is the second year they placed first in both the watermelon and the sunflower division. The Ottos are organic gardeners. They believe in returning organic matter back to the soil rather than use chemicals to fertilize. Shown above with their prize vegetables, from left to right, is Scott Otto, Vern Otto, Troy Otto, Todd Otto, and Steve Kvarnberg, a neighbor, with his third-place toothpick construction.

Council Briefs

At a regular session of the Chelsea Village Council, Tuesday, Sept. 1, present were: President Fulks, Clerk Harvey, Administrator Weber, Trustees Miller, Gorton, Musbach, Dmoch, Boylan and Chandler.

Art Jarve discussed with the council churches being allowed in a Highway Service Business District. The matter was referred to the Planning Commission for an opinion.

Motion by Gorton, supported by Miller, to adopt a resolution recommending approval of the request from Luther Kusterer for a new SDM license to be located at 111 S. Main St. Yeas all. Resolution adopted.

A letter was read from the Water Resources Commission notifying the village of a hearing to be held regarding phosphorous removal at the sewage treatment plant.

Motion by Musbach, supported by Dmoch to authorize the Village Administrator to represent and act on behalf of the village at the hearing of the Water Resources Commission on phosphorous removal and to obtain necessary assistance from the firm of Pinkbeiner, Pettis & Strout, village engineers. Yeas all. Motion carried.

Motion by Gorton, supported by Chandler to authorize and direct the clerk to issue checks in payment of bills as submitted. Yeas all. Motion carried.

Motion by Miller, supported by Boylan to adjourn. Yeas all. Meeting adjourned.

CARD OF THANKS

To Walt and Sandy Zeeb, thanks so very much for the crysanthemums for the fair kitchen. They added so much to the kitchen, and were well distributed after the fair.
Greatly appreciative,
Gerry Klink.

THANKS

To the VFW Auxiliary for helping on Thursday and to the other ladies who gave of their time so generously.

TO A SCARED PIGEON

From another scared pigeon, thanks for the helicopter ride. To Rolly, thanks for the corsages given to Lula and me. A. Schanz. For thanks for standing by to Pat, Peter, Aueria, Pigeon, Lucy Platt, Alice Bergman, Janet Baku, Viola Lindow, Hilda Pierce, Belle LaRowe, Olga Trinkle, Theresa Bott. Gerry Klink.

THANK YOU

We wish to extend our sincerest appreciation and thanks to all the relatives and friends, to the Knights of Columbus, and to the Rev. and Mrs. Weiss, and Mr. and Mrs. Burghardt for their kindness and sympathy. And a special thank you to all the ladies who worked, bringing food to the hall, and serving all the members of the funeral party. All of your efforts extended during this time of the loss of our beloved husband and father, were especially appreciated and will always be remembered.
The Ralph Klingler Family.

CARD OF THANKS

The 1970 Chelsea Community Fair was a great success thanks to the efforts of many people. They worked long hours to put together and carry out the largest fair to date.

The livestock and produce exhibits were all of excellent quality. The displays of the local merchants were attractive as well as educational. The grandstand performances, the horse show, the tractor pulling contests, and the Queen contest all added to the pleasure.

A special thanks to Jim Brannan, and the Boy Scouts, for their work at the gates, parking cars.

Also to the Chelsea Police, the Auxiliary Police, and to the Washenaw County Sheriff, for their help in policing the grounds.

Thanks to the Fire Department for taking charge of the parade on Saturday, and to the Kiwanis Club for their efforts, Wednesday, on the Children's Day Parade.

The Jaycees did a marvelous job with the talent show, and the Queen pageant. They also should be thanked.

Mrs. Jerry Klink, and her kitchen committee worked very hard, and provided excellent service, and I wish to thank them for their efforts.

The publicity and entertainment committee, under the direction of Mrs. Jerry Satterthwaite, did an admirable job, and deserve recognition, also.

E. G. Van Riper, fair co-ordinator, and Denny Moore, who worked in the fair office, I also wish to thank.

Everyone who helped make the 1970 fair the fine event that it was, most especially WPAG radio, and The Standard, are thanked for their work. It was a grand fair, thanks to the hard work, and good spirit of all.

Chelsea Community Fair Board
Allen Broesamle, president.

Mrs. Donald Arthur Colliu

Joyce E. Blalock, Donald Colliu
Wed Saturday at St. Mary Church

Joyce Elizabeth Blalock, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald W. Blalock, 642 S. Main St., Chelsea, and Donald Arthur Colliu, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Colliu, 7565 W. Huron River Dr., Dexter, were united in marriage Friday, Aug. 28, at 7 p.m. in St. Mary church, Chelsea. The Rev. Fr. Francis Wahowiak officiated at the ceremony. "One Hand, One Heart." Bill Hammer was the organist.

The bride's gown was white nylon, trimmed in lace, with an empire waist. She wore a finger-tip veil fastened to a matching lace headpiece. She carried a cascade of white carnations and roses.

Miss Jerrie Blalock, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Her gown was pink, with a pink velvet bodice, and matching taffeta skirt, covered with nylon. She carried a bouquet of white carnations, and pink sweetheart roses. She wore a pink bow in her hair, and a pink veil.

Bridesmaids were Miss June Blalock, sister of the bride, and Carolyn Buckingham, 760 N. Main. They wore dresses that were identical to that of the maid of honor.

The bride's mother chose a light blue shift for the occasion, with navy blue accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore a powder blue dress with bolero jacket, and white accessories.

Richard Ledwidge, Dexter, was best man. Ushers were Gary Spiegelberg, Dexter, and Ron Boller, Chelsea.

A reception following the ceremony was held at the Manchester Knights of Columbus Hall. Miss Patricia Hergert cut the cake. Miss Joan Blalock, sister of the bride, and Miss Lynn Merkel, Chelsea, were in charge of refreshments. Kenneth Wentworth, the bride's cousin, of Muskegon, and his band played at the reception.

The bride wore a beige A-line dress with brown accessories for her going-away outfit. Following a wedding trip to northern Michigan, the newlyweds will live at 7565 W. Huron River Dr.

The new Mrs. Colliu is a 1970 Chelsea high school graduate. The bridegroom is a graduate of Dexter High School, and is presently a sophomore at Jackson Community College. He is employed by the Dexter Tool Co.

Many thanks to Dave Murphy, the Rev. Dan Kellin, Chelsea cheerleaders, and the Chelsea Jaycees Auxiliary for their help in operating the dunk tank at the fair. Mitch Zink, Chairman.

THANK YOU

We would like to thank friends and relatives for cards and visits during our stay in the hospital and since our return home.
Armin and Grace Zinke

THANK YOU

Many thanks to the people of Chelsea and its surrounding Chelsea School district for all the assistance given to the "Chelsea Fair Kitchen" and for the many nice, numerous things done for the chairman. The Chelsea Standard for its publicity, and the "Jiffy Mill" for its donation of products. Also many thanks to the group of men's organizations, the merchants, the Kiwanis Club, the Jaycees, the Knights of Columbus, and the teachers, for taking over the evenings to relieve the ladies of the day. All assistance was greatly appreciated.

Gerry Klink, chairman, Chelsea Fair Kitchen.

I wish to personally thank H.T. (Dinty) Moore for his help in the treasurer's office. He drove from Devil's Lake every day of the fair. Also to the hundreds of people who dealt with me. By interviews, I also learned that the five-day fair was approved 10-1.
John J. Wellnitz,
Community Fair Treasurer.

CARD OF THANKS

A special thanks to Dick Hadman who did an exceptional job as beef judge at this year's Chelsea Community Fair. We especially appreciate the care and patience he took to explain all the points he was judging on. Also we extend our full appreciation to Price Brothers Auctioneers of Stockbridge for the donation of their talent to make this year's auction such a big success.

STEVE GRAU showed his first reserve champion lamb, which he sold to Earl Heller of Heller Electric for a sum of $1.10 per pound.

Queen of the Fair

runner-up in the pageant, was the fourth participant on the stage. Cathy is 16, and was sponsored by the Gingham Belles 4-H club. She presented a humorous speech by columnist Erma Bombeck entitled "Children: Beware, 'Sleeping Mother'."

Jeanne Haselschwardt, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Haselschwardt, and junior class queen, played her guitar and sang "I'm Leaving on a Jet Plane." She is 15 years old.

Alicia Pierson, sophomore class queen, and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Pierson, sang and danced to the song "Raindrops Falling on My Head." She is 15 years old.

Bonnie Powers, 15-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Powers, played her guitar. She also sang a medley of folk songs. She was sponsored by Rogers Corners Herdman 4-H club.

Laurie Lancaster, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lancaster, was the last to perform in the talent portion of the pageant. The 16-year-old Kiwanis club sponsored candidate presented a short skit entitled "My Thinking Hat."

Following the talent show, candidates were escorted on stage in formal for the question and answer portion of the pageant. They were each to select one question from each of two bowls. One question was humorous, the other was a more serious question. This is a fairly important part of the pageant, as it reveals not only an answer to a question, but it shows to the judges each girl's personality, charm, and poise.

Jane Mann, 1969 Community Fair Queen was then introduced to the audience. She gave a summary of her year as queen, and thanked those that had been of help to her during that time.

Art Steinaway, who was responsible for this year's pageant, was then introduced. At this time he thanked Walter and Sandy Zeeb for all the flowers which they donated to the pageant, the corsages for the queen candidates, and the roses presented to the new queen. He thanked Winans Jewelry store for their gifts: the tara for the new queen, and the engraving on the charms presented to each candidate. The Fair Board was thanked for their donation of gifts to the queen.

Barbara Updegraff, Jaycees Auxiliary president was introduced, as well as Dianne Loring, and Barbara Robison, both of the Jaycees. They were thanked for their assistance with the pageant.

Then came the moment of truth. As eight nervous girls stood on stage, Cathy Clark was announced runner-up in the pageant, and a special charm and bracelet was given to her.

Laurie Lancaster was then selected and crowned Queen of the Fair, 1970. As in the past, Laurie will serve the community when called upon, and will reign over next year's fair and pageant.

Jane Mann placed the banner and crown on Laurie, and presented her with roses.

Among the highlights of this past, busy, week for these young girls was a radio interview on radio station "WPAG" Howard Heath of WPAG conducted the interview. The candidates also handed out the awards at the Pat Stock Sale to the buyers of prize livestock, as well as handing out the awards at the Children's Day activities held last Tuesday night, Aug. 25, after the Children's Day parade.

Sheep . . .

Tim Grau, Chelsea, sold his champion lamb, weighing 97 lbs. to Walter Harris, Cordin Farms, for a big price of $2.20 per pound, which is a new fair record.

Steve Grau's reserve lamb went to Heller Electric — Insulating for $1.30 per pound. Steve's lamb weighed 110 pounds.

Ken McCalla, Chelsea, had a champion pen weighing 94, 96, and 97 lbs. It was sold to Wolverine Bar at 50 cents a pound.

Tim Grau's reserve champion pen, weighing 93 and 89 lbs. was purchased by Michigan Livestock at 40 cents a pound.

Dan Grau, Chelsea, sold his 104-lb. lamb to Michigan Livestock for 38 cents a pound.

Mike Bristle, Chelsea, sold his third-place pen weighing 84, 83, and 85 lbs. to Washtenaw Crop Service at 37 cents per pound.

Lisa Schairer, Dexter, sold her fourth-place pen to Michigan Livestock. The pen, weighing 83, 84, and 88 lbs. was sold at 37 cents per pound.

Pat O'Doherty, Dexter, sold her fifth-place pen to Michigan Livestock. The pen weighed 58, 74, and 62 lbs., and sold for 30 cents per pound.

Doug McDonald, Chelsea, sold his sixth-place pen to Whitaker Farms, the pen, weighing 48, 58, and 61 lbs. sold for 31 cents per pound.

Mike O'Doherty, Dexter, sold his seventh-place pen to Howell Livestock for 28 cents per pound. The pen weighed 55, 52, and 56 pounds.

Bill Kuschmaul, Chelsea, sold his 90-lb. lamb to Michigan Livestock at 41 cents per pound.

TODAY'S THOUGHT

By LOUIS BURGHARDT

The advantages of management over labor have been minimized through the years by the day by day, month by month, year by year work of union organizers. As if in a cycle, advantages and attitudes have changed. The charges leveled at management years ago are now being heard and hurled against labor unions and their leaders. Selfish attitudes and demands of "me first" — or — "We want what we want and nothing else will do" — will simply have to give way in the foreseeable future by all parties.

The reasons should be clear. Today's society, marked by complex interdependence of people centered in densely populated cities make the problems of one class of people the problems of all. A dedicated coalition between lower, middle and upper classes — between management, labor, minorities — and even political parties — must take place to tackle the problems of education, housing, highways and expressways, civil rights, urban renewal, mass transportation and welfare. Failure to do so will be poisoning the well at which all must drink. . . BURGHARDT FUNERAL HOME, 214 East Middle St., Chelsea, Mich. Phone GR 5-4141.

THIRD PLACE in the youth category was this float, built by the Rogers Corners Herdman 4-H club. The slogan "4-H Swings with the 70's" was reinforced by the swing built in the middle of the float. A swinging idea!

SECOND PLACE in the youth category went to the Freshman Float. Entitled "The Faces of Fall," the float was done in lovely colored paper

Motion by Storey, supported by Haselschwardt, to adopt the agenda as amended. No. 7 Jerry Straub Agriculture Advisory Committee No. 8 New Detroit Committee report. All ayes.

Trustee Storey reported on the meetings held on Aug. 19 and 24 with representatives of the Chelsea Residential Area Betterment Society.

The Transportation Committee recommended that the buses be parked at the high school in a new area to be graveled and that the transfer of students continue to be made at the former Junior High site at Harrison, East, and Park Sts. Both recommendations to be temporary until a permanent site can be found and developed.

An extended discussion was held regarding the recommendation of the Transportation Committee.

Motion by Haselschwardt, to continue the transfer of the students at the former junior high site on Harrison, East, and Park Sts., park the buses used regularly at the high school and park the spare buses on the former junior high site. This procedure to be temporary until a permanent site can be found and developed. Motion died for lack of support.

Motion by Storey, supported by Koenn, to transfer all students at the former junior high site on Harrison, East and Park Sts., as in the past and to park all buses at the high school on an area to be graveled. This procedure to be temporary until a permanent site can be found and developed. Motion died for lack of support.

Compact Tractor Pull In Session Until 4 a.m.

The Compact Tractor Pull, held Thursday night, Aug. 27, attracted many people. The event, which was scheduled to start at 7:30 and go until the event was finished, went into Friday's early morning hours. It was 4:30 a.m. before the last tractor finished, and the winners were decided.

In the lightweight, 6-7 h.p. category, Chuck Wilson, Jackson, took first place, pulling 211.5 percent of his tractor's weight. Ken Dible, Saline, was in second place with a Simplicity tractor that pulled 210 percent of its weight. Paul Vergat, Jr., Blissfield, won the third-place premium with a Sears tractor that pulled 204 percent. Alden Faunce, Petersburg, was in fourth place with a tractor pulling 201 percent.

In the medium weight class, 8-9 h.p., David Magraw, Plymouth, and Clarence Reynolds, Saline, tied for first place, with a percentage of 165 of their tractors' weight. Magraw had a John Deere tractor, and Clarence Reynolds had a Massey-Ferguson. Dick Schulze, Chelsea, took third place with a Simplicity tractor pulling a close 164.75 percent. Ronald Heilmann, Chelsea, was in fourth place with a Bolens tractor that pulled 161.25 percent.

Heavyweight tractors, 10-11 h.p., were next on the agenda. Janet Diible, Ann Arbor, was champion with an Allis-Chalmers tractor that pulled 244.50 percent of its weight. Larry Guenther, Milan, was second with a Massey-Ferguson pulling 239.75 percent. Third place went to Ken Gilbert, Milan, whose Cub Cadet pulled 239.50 percent of its weight. In fourth place, Willard Girbach, Saline, pulled 221.50 percent.

In the 12 h.p. and over, the Extra Heavyweight class, the championship went to Bert Phiniss, Adrian. He had an Allis-Chalmers tractor that pulled 247.75 percent. Jeff Ehler, Palmyra, took second place with a Cub Cadet that pulled 240.50 percent. Ron Dible, Ann Arbor, was in third place with an Allis-Chalmers pulling 211.50 percent. Fourth-place winner was Richard Busha, Ann Arbor, with a White tractor that pulled 201.25 percent.

There are 14,000 ship passages through the Sault Ste. Marie locks during an average eight-month shipping season. The locks raise ships 21 feet from the level of Lake Huron to Lake Superior. Viewing stands enable visitors to practically touch the ships as they lock through, according to the Michigan Tourist Council.

Big inside. No other American production car has more interior room. Big on power. A 383 cubic inch V-8 that runs on regular gas is standard. Big on engineering. Torsion-Quiet Ride blends torsion-bar suspension, unibody construction and a new Sound Isolation System for performance combined with silence. All this. Yet Newport is priced just a few dollars a month more than the most popular smaller cars comparably equipped. See your Chrysler Dealer during final clearance. You'll find he can put you behind the wheel of a big, luxurious Chrysler for a lot less than you think.

American consumers spent 16.5 percent of their disposable income for food in 1969, compared with 20 percent in 1959.

It took just 10 years—1960 to 1970—for productive capacity to nearly double again. Each farmer fed 25 persons in 1960, and now he feeds 45.

"This rapid rise in agricultural productivity is due to increased farm size and mechanization, agricultural research, and the Co-operative Extension Service agents and specialists who get this new research information to farmers."

Wright says Michigan State University has been a leader in agricultural research and extension work from the time it was established as the nation's first land-grant college in 1855.

It took nearly 100 years from 1820 for farmers' productive capacity to double," explains Karl Wright, Michigan State University agricultural economist. "But the productivity of our nation's agricultural industry has been growing at an increasing rate ever since."

In 1820, each U. S. farmer fed about four persons. Today he feeds 45.

Chelsea school administrators have recommended the following policies with regard to position of the State Board of Education that was adopted after the July 17 "free school" ruling from the office of the attorney general.

The position, effected Aug. 31, for the entire school district, states that Chelsea schools will neither charge a fee for, nor will they provide pencils for, physical education classes. Physical education and book locks and lockers will, however, be provided without a fee.

In the area of shop, art, and home economics, all materials necessary for basic projects, that are required for a grade in the course, will be provided. Any projects made that are not required to be made with materials supplied by the pupils. If a project becomes the property of a student, materials for that project must be supplied by the student.

In the area of current events, any papers or magazines required for class work will be supplied by the school.

In science classes, there will be no fees. All materials for required projects will be provided.

Pencils, paper, crayons, and so on, will be provided by the school district as they are needed, on a rationed basis.

For the band, the policy will be the same as it has been in previous years.

Michigan Farm Bureau

★ Unions Set Farm Labor Take-Over

A stepped-up drive to force compulsory unionism on all farm workers, crop-by-crop, has been announced by the AFL-CIO.

Plans for the take over of agriculture's work force were spelled out by George Meany, president of the AFL-CIO, at an August Chicago press conference, as he congratulated the United Farm Workers Organizing Committee for its successful campaign in signing up a majority of California's table grape workers. (Without the benefit of a vote.)

The AFL-CIO boss said the boycott tactic, which forced unionization, would be used in other areas of the country.

Meany, with Cesar Chavez, UFWOC chairman, at his side, bluntly foretold of its organization plans:

"The UFWOC and the AFL-CIO intend to jointly map, mount and win on a crop-by-crop basis—collective bargaining rights for farm workers throughout America. Union organizers have set their sights on workers involved in 19 other crops."

Within days after the Chicago press conference, UFWOC announced the start of negotiations with the Weller Pickle Co. of Crosswell, to unionize some 600 field workers.

Following closely on UFWOC's victory celebration came word that the Western Conference of Teamsters and Cesar Chavez had signed a "peace pact" ending a short-lived jurisdictional dispute over the right to organize farm workers.

All these developments spell trouble for consumers and farmers over the country. In addition to the boycott tactic, UFWOC's new alliance with the Teamsters means that products cannot only be held off the store shelves, but processing operations can be brought to a standstill, or processed goods can be halted in shipment until union demands are met, while food prices will be driven up. The unions can pick and choose which crop is to be hit next, free from any legal restraint.

What can farmers and consumers do? They can bombard their Congressmen to break the bottleneck that has halted farm labor legislation for more than a year. Good labor bills such as the Murphy bill have been gathering dust while the unions have been taking over agriculture crop-by-crop.

JO NEVILL, 3814 Musbach Rd., Grass Lake, took fourth place at the state POA show in a field of 26 ponies that came from four states in Coldwater, Aug. 1. The pony, Driftwood's Coppertone, is a registered Pony of the Americas (POA). It is 12 years old. It

PAM BRISTLE, 16739 Sharon Valley Rd., Manchester, showed this 5-year-old registered quarterhorse, Poco Gold Star, which won the grand champion horse award Wednesday, Aug. 26, at the Fair.

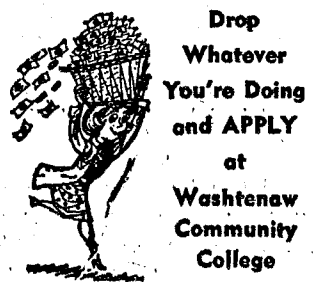

SHOWMANSHIP AWARD went to Becky Rogers, 943 N. Wagner Rd., Ann Arbor, at last Wednesday's Horse Show. The horse is a 9-year-old registered quarterhorse named Showdown Lee. This is the seventh year he has been shown at the Chelsea Community Fair. Other awards the animal received this year were: first place in Western Pleasure, and Horsemanship, second place in English Pleasure, and English Horsemanship. In past years, the horse took first place in Western Horsemanship, second place in Western Pleasure, and fifth place in English Pleasure.

Swine Deaths Prevented By Ration Additive

Swine deaths due to vitamin E-selenium deficiency can be prevented by supplementing feed rations with either vitamin E or selenium. In recent Michigan State University research, there were no deaths among pigs which received diets supplemented with selenium and/or vitamin E during 14-week feeding trials. However, two control animals which received a basic, unsupplemented diet died from vitamin E-selenium deficiency during the same period. During the experiment, a group of swine were fed a basic corn-soy diet containing 16 percent protein. Three other groups were fed the same diet supplemented with selenium, vitamin E or both. Selenium was added to the rations at the rates of 0.1 and 0.5 parts per million. Results of the experiment show that the supplemented diets had no effect on growth. They just prevented vitamin E-selenium deficiency deaths. At the end of the 14-week feeding trial none of the pigs receiving supplemented diets showed pathological symptoms which could have been caused by selenium and/or vitamin E deficiency.

Few people understand any problem fifty miles from home, primarily because they are not interested enough to study the facts.

You can't get to second base in life without touching first.

GIRLS AND HUSBANDS
Washington-The Population Reference Bureau reports there are 3,600,000 girls 19 or 20 years old and only 2,800,000 young men 21 and 22 years old. That leaves about 800,000 girls to find careers or they will have to seek husbands in a younger or older age group.

The original idea on how hippies should look may have come from a dad on Sunday around the house.

SUNDAY'S SERMON

★ Happiness Is . . .

Many of us go through life in a somewhat miserable state because we are never satisfied with the things that come our way. We look around us and see someone who has a better job, who is better looking, who "lives better," and we are envious.

When someone we know is in trouble, we give the matter only a momentary comment and attention. Our personal problems, however, are always greater, always more staggering.

What we fail to realize is that those persons we believe to have the "better life" also have their share of problems. To these people, the problems may be far beyond any that we have ever known. In short, we see only that the grass is greener across the street—and we do not consider that it could be so because of a higher water bill.

The key to successful living does not lie in being content with what we have. Happiness is making the most of what we have, working toward realistic goals. Happiness is having concern for our neighbor, for what he is and not for what he has.

Week of Special Meetings Slated at Assembly of God

Fall activities at the First Assembly of God church, 14900 Old US-12, begin with a week of special meetings, Sept. 8 to 13, except Saturday, with the Rev. and Mrs. Frank Deater and their family of five boys and one girl, according to the pastor the Rev. T. B. Thodeson.

Mrs. Thomas L. Clark

Munith Couple Wed in Saturday Ceremony at St. Paul Church

Miss Jan Louise Hannewald, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George C. Hannewald, 10773 Parks Rd., Munith, became the bride of Thomas L. Clark, son of Mr. and Mrs. Luman C. Clark, 10125 Waterloo-Munith Rd., Munith, Saturday afternoon, Aug. 29, at 2 p.m. at the St. Paul United Church of Christ, Chelsea. The Rev. Warren H. Siebert officiated.

The bride wore an organza A-line gown, with satin ribbon woven through the lace trim, and a detachable chapel train. Her veil was fastened to a camelot headpiece of organza with a velvet ribbon. It was made by the bride's aunt, Mrs. Jay Bendall of Union Lake.

She carried a cascading bouquet of white football mums, with yellow and white pompon mums, and ivy.

Mrs. Jack R. Rogers of Jackson, cousin of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a yellow embroidered eyelet gown with square neckline and short puffed sleeves. The dress was trimmed with green and yellow embroidered flowers over avocado velvet ribbon, with a velvet streamer bow in the back. She carried a basket of yellow football mums, yellow and white pompon mums and ivy.

Mrs. Kenneth A. Heusman of Dearborn, and Miss Nyann S. King of Midland, cousin of the bride, were bridesmaids. Their dresses were identical to that of the matron of honor's. They carried baskets of white football mums, yellow and white pompon mums and ivy.

The bride's mother chose an avocado dress with an overlay of ecru lace and ecru accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore an aqua two-piece dress with aqua accessories.

John K. Clark, Munith, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. Leonard G. Clark, brother of the bridegroom, and Dennis A. Hannewald, brother of the bride, both of Munith, were ushers.

The bride was given in marriage by her father.

A reception following the ceremony was held in the Fellowship Hall of the church. Bride's cake, groom's cake, ice cream, punch, coffee, nuts and mints were served by Mrs. Harold Hannewald, Mrs. Mildred Ashmore, Mrs. John Griswold, and Mrs. Jay Bendall. Miss Nancy E. Hannewald, cousin of the bride, presided at the guest register.

Following a honeymoon trip to Canada, the couple will live at 5375 Hague Ave., Jackson.

Kathy Cavender, Kenneth Barksdale Wed in Alabama

Kathy Cavender, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Owen Cavender, 517 Wilkinson St., became the bride of Kenneth Barksdale, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Barksdale, Ohatchee, Ala., Friday, July 28, at 1 p.m. in Anniston, Ala.

The bride wore a light blue lace dress, with empire waist, and sleeves. It was V-necked, and had a matching bow in front.

The bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Barksdale, was maid of honor in the small, informal ceremony. The bridegroom's father, Fred Barksdale, was best man.

A reception was held at the home of the bride's parents Sunday, Aug. 23, in honor of the newlyweds.

The bride is a 1969 graduate of Chelsea High school. The bridegroom attended Ohatchee High school.

The newlyweds are living at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Owen Cavender, 517 Wilkinson.

Children Need Play Corner To Call Their Own

The doorbell rings, and you make a dash to pick up the scattered toys. Sound familiar?

This probably wouldn't happen if the children had their own toy storage and play area, said Gail Imig, family life specialist with Michigan State University.

Mrs. Imig emphasized that a child doesn't need an entire room to himself. But he does need a place where he can start a project and leave it spread out overnight if necessary. A 5 x 7-foot area is usually sufficient.

With a place of his own, your child will be less likely to make the entire house his play area, she said.

Fixing storage for your child's play area not only helps him, but often challenges your creativity and imagination.

For instance, open shelves are best for often-used toys, because he can see them. For those you could use brick and board shelves, which are easy to put up, or stacked cardboard boxes or even an old cabinet picked up at a second-hand store. Perhaps you can think of some unique shelves of your own.

If possible, Mrs. Imig said, run the shelves around a corner. This adds a cozy atmosphere and gives a more secluded spot for play.

An inexpensive, washable rug adds a touch of warmth and keeps the play area from expanding to other parts of the house.

For the seldom-used toys, small boxes and chests do nicely—perhaps painted in bright colors, and decorated with water decals. These can also double as a spot to sit.

For the final touch, give the child a small table for snacking, rolling clay or cutting paper. It doesn't have to be fancy. A few pieces of scrap lumber can make one that fills the need. And children enjoy "decorating" such a table themselves.

HOGLE REUNION

Mr. and Mrs. George Knoll attended the 41st Hogle reunion, Sunday, Aug. 30, at the home of Nellie and Kay Hogle, Bailey Rd., Jackson. There were 62 people from the Hogle family present at the event.

Members of the family came from as far away as Buffalo, N.Y., to attend the reunion. Families from Detroit, Berrien Springs, Olivet, Marshall, Parma, Jackson, Ypsilanti and Chelsea were present.

Special guest at the reunion was Sister Doretha, a retired nun from Monroe. She attended the reunion with her brother from Ann Arbor.

A pot-luck dinner was served at 1 p.m. Next year the family will meet at Berrien Springs.

Mrs. Knoll is Mrs. Hogle's cousin.

Milk production in the United States in 1969 totaled 116.2 billion pounds, about 1 percent less than in 1968.

Mrs. David P. Winans

Jo Anna Lorichon, David Winans Speak Vows at Chelsea Church

Jo Anna Lorichon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond F. Lorichon, of 7570 Second St., Dexter, became the bride of David Paul Winans, at a ceremony in the First Congregational church of Chelsea, Saturday, Aug. 29.

The Rev. Richard E. Simonson, associate pastor of Bethlehem United Church of Christ, Ann Arbor, officiated at the double-ring ceremony before 200 guests.

Mrs. Leslie Lehman of Ann Arbor, the organist played "Theme from Romeo and Juliet," as the processional and "What the World Needs Now," as the recessional.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. David S. Winans, of 232 South St., Chelsea.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose a Victorian gown of Peau de Angel lace and chiffon over taffeta fashioned with lace leg of mutton sleeves. The "V" panels on the bodice of lace, front and back, were accented with gold ribbon in a "V" to the empire waist, with the yellow ribbon interlaced through the lace stand-up collar. The A-line skirt was designed with a panel of lace down the front. The chapel-length train was also accented with a panel of lace which was worn in a butterfly bustle after the ceremony. Her finger-tip veil of silk illusion was secured by a camelot cap of heavy lace intertwined with petite yellow velvet ribbon. She carried a colonial bouquet of yellow sweetheart roses, baby breath, white daisies and purple statice with white ribbon streamers.

Miss Sara Peck of Dexter, maid of honor, wore a lemon yellow gown of powder puff muslin over taffeta with re-embroidered lace flowers on the bodice, stand-up collar and leg of mutton sleeves. The empire waistline was accented by matching yellow velvet ribbon. Her matching yellow veil was held in place by a yellow camelot cap and she carried yellow sweetheart roses, baby breath and white daisies with white streamers.

Mrs. Daniel Rendell of Dexter, sister of the bride, Mrs. Michael Lorichon of Ann Arbor, sister-in-law of the bride, and Mrs. Kirk Fox of Dexter, the bridesmaids, wore dresses styled like that of the maid of honor in Nile green.

Russell Henze of Cazenovia, N. Y., served as best man and seating the guests were Thomas Winans of Chelsea, brother of the bridegroom, Daniel Rendleman of Evart and Gary Hackett of Vassar.

Mrs. Lorichon, mother of the bride, selected an apricot polyester designed with a gathered skirt, and a fitted bodice with long set-in sleeves gathered to a wide buttoned cuff. She wore white accessories and a Nile green glamelia.

For her son's wedding, Mrs. Winans wore a lavender polyester A-line dress with kimono sleeves and matching shoes, white accessories and a white glamelia corsage.

The newlyweds greeted their guests at a reception in St. Andrew's United Church of Christ at Dexter. Miss Kerry McMahon and Kathy Koch of Dexter poured punch and coffee while Mrs. Walter E. Pond, Jr., and Mrs. Bruce Hogue of Bonita Springs, Fla., former Dexter residents, cut the cakes.

When the new Mr. and Mrs. Winans return from a trip to northern Michigan, they will live at 4431 E. Delhi Rd., Holt.

For traveling, the bride wore a yellow pantdress of double-knit polyester, white accessories, and a corsage of white sweetheart roses, white daisies and baby breath.

The bride is a graduate of Dexter High school, a member of the National Honor Society and the International Thespian Society. She will attend Michigan State University in September, being enrolled in the School of Interior Design.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Chelsea High school and Central Michigan University where he was a founding member of the Zeta Rho Chapter of Sigma Chi fraternity. He has been an assistant director of Adirondack Woodcraft Camps at Old Forge, N. Y., during the summer. In September he will be an elementary school teacher at Okemos.

Pre-nuptial entertaining in honor of the bride included a shower hosted by Mrs. Kirk Fox and Miss Sara Peck at the former's home, Aug. 8. The evening was spent playing appropriate games and watching the guest of honor open her gifts. Punch was served from a table highlighted with lace and silver and candlelight.

Mrs. Daniel Rendell and Mrs. Michael Lorichon of Ann Arbor, hosted a linen shower at the home of the bride-to-be's mother, Mrs. Ray Lorichon. Twelve guests were present from Dexter, Chelsea, Ann Arbor, and Greenville.

Many games were played by all after which the guest of honor opened the many lovely gifts. An appropriate cake, Jell-O and iced tea were served from the lace-covered table.

Peaches . . . whether you can them, freeze them, make jam, or just stop at a fruit stand and buy fresh peaches . . . you'll want to try them in this simple, yet tasty recipe. This pie has a unique feature of using fresh peaches as well as canned ones. I assure you it's a pleasing way to finish any meal.

PEACH BLOSSOM PIE (6 servings)

- 1 eight or nine inch baked "JIFFY" pie shell
- 1 package "JIFFY" White Frosting Mix
- 1 1/2 cups whipping cream
- 1 envelope unflavored gelatin
- 1/2 cup cold water
- 2 cups sliced fresh peaches, and 1 teaspoon lemon juice OR
- 1 can (1 lb. 13 oz.) sliced peaches, drained

1. Chill frosting mix and cream in small mixer bowl.
2. Soften gelatin in water; dissolve over hot water. Cool to room temperature.
3. Place fresh sliced peaches in lemon juice to prevent browning.
4. Beat chilled frosting mixture just until it starts to thicken, gradually add gelatin. Beat until stiff.
5. Fold in peaches, leaving a few for garnish on top of pie. Mound mixture into pie shell.
6. Chill until firm, about an hour.

WHAT IS SPECIAL ABOUT A PHARMACY?

A Pharmacy or Drug Store has a prescription laboratory, which is licensed to dispense prescriptions and drugs under the supervision of a licensed, registered pharmacist.

WHY MUST PHARMACISTS BE LICENSED?

Because most drugs, if not properly taken, can actually cause harm. Some, when combined with other drugs, can change into a different compound that is not effective, and can become harmful. Each dispensed medicine must be potent, active and its dosage checked by the pharmacist for safe use. Pharmacists must pass an examination to prove they have this knowledge to protect you.

PHARMACISTS ARE DRUG SPECIALISTS.

To obtain their license to practice pharmacy they must now attend a college of pharmacy for at least five years. They must serve an internship in a pharmacy, just as a physician does in a hospital. Because of their knowledge of drugs and medicines, people are always more safe when they obtain any medicine from a pharmacist.

WE WELCOME QUESTIONS.

In addition to compounding and dispensing prescriptions, we carry many other products used or taken to keep you healthy. If you have any questions we can ethically answer we can help you gain better health from the medicines and health-aids you need.

Mrs. William B. Willett

Elaine Robinson, William B. Willett Wed in Candlelight Ceremony

Miss Elaine Robinson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Horace F. Robinson, 1205 Francisco Rd., and William B. Willett, son of Mr. and Mrs. Darwin Willett, 530 S. Huron, Harbor Beach, were married Friday, Aug. 28 at 7:30 in St. Thomas Catholic church, Ann Arbor. The Rev. Fr. Farris performed the candlelight ceremony and Mrs. Woodrow Artz of Napoleon, aunt of the bride, sang "The Lord's Prayer" and "Oh, Perfect Love."

The bride wore a floor-length gown of rayon peau with peau d'ange lace and seed pearls appliqued on the bodice and bordering the skirt. A bouffant cathedral-length train of rayon peau was attached at the empire waist. She carried a bouquet of stephanotis, white miniature roses, and baby's breath with ferns.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Michael Eubanks, sister of the bride, of Chelsea. She wore an empire waisted full-length gown of gold linen and chiffon trimmed in gold velvet and interlaced by flowers, and carried a green velvet basket of miniature, burnt orange rosebuds and ivy.

Bridesmaids were Renee Willett, Lansing, sister of the bridegroom; Leslie Taylor of Grass Lake; Terry Smith of Pontiac; and Sue Rickard of South Lyon, friends of the bride.

The bride and groom were identical in style to the matron of honor's and they also carried green velvet baskets of ivy and burnt orange rosebuds.

The mother of the bride wore a floor-length dress of yellow chiffon with beaded pearls. A wrist corsage of white glamelias accented her costume. The bridegroom's mother chose a floor-length pale yellow silk linen dress, and also wore a wrist corsage of white glamelias.

Kirk Eubanks and Amy Glass, niece and nephew of the couple, acted as ring bearer and flower girl.

Best man for the ceremony was Steven Moskewitz of Lansing. Ushers included Michael Eubanks, Chelsea, brother-in-law of the bride; Michael Winters of Kalamazoo; James Bellinger of Portland; Ralph Kibloski of Bronson; Brian Robinson, brother of the bride; and Paul Willett, brother of the bridegroom.

A reception was held after the ceremony in the Garden Court Room of the Statler Hilton Inn in Ann Arbor. Miss Cheryl Robinson, cousin of the bride, was in charge of the guest book. Mrs. Ralph Robinson, aunt of the bride, cut the wedding cake while Mrs. William Glass of Columbus, Miss., and Mrs. John Burger, Monroe, aunts of the bridegroom, served punch.

The newly-married couple left for California where they will be residing in Monterey while he completes his tour of duty in the army.

The bride graduated from Grass Lake High school and Ferris State College where she was the treasurer and founding mother of Zeta Tau Alpha.

The bridegroom graduated from Our Lady of Lake Huron High school, Northwestern Junior College, and Ferris State College. He is affiliated with Sigma Tau Beta. Pre-nuptial showers were given by Mrs. Ralph Robinson, Jackson; Miss Leslie Taylor, Grass Lake; and Renee Willett, Harbor Beach.

Start Plans Now for Lawn Establishment

Start lawn establishment plans now, especially if quackgrass, bentgrass or tall fescue is a problem in your lawn area, says a Michigan State University expert.

If any of these weeds are present, you will need to apply Amitrol-T four or five weeks before your planned date of seeding or sodding, points out Dr. William Meggitt, MSU weed control specialist.

Information on herbicide application rates is available in Extension Bulletin 653, "Lawn Weed Control." Details on lawn establishment is provided in Extension Bulletin 673, "Lawn Establishment."

These bulletins are available from Co-operative Extension Service offices or on request from Bulletin Office, Box 231, East Lansing 48823.

DAVE ELKINS

Dave Elkins Promoted as Dana Western States Sales Manager

Dave Elkins has been promoted to District Sales Manager for the western states for the Dana Corp., and will be moving to Pleasanton, Calif. Dave has been with Dana Corp., Chelsea plant, for eight years. The "Bear," as he is affectionately known by his co-workers, started as a sub-assembler and was progressively promoted to positions in engineering, manufacturing, and sales.

Dave and his wife, Marilyn, and two children, Jeff and Karen, are leaving Chelsea with mixed emotions. The family, of course, is excited about moving to Pleasanton, which is a suburb of San Francisco, but they are also reluctant to leave the community where they have been life-long residents.

Red Cross Seeking Items for GI Gifts At Christmas Time

Christmas is still five months away but volunteers of the Washtenaw County Red Cross Chapter already have begun gift shopping. They're buying items to fill gift bags destined for American servicemen in South Vietnam.

"We're encouraging every community organization, religious group, business firm and individual to help gather items needed to fill bags for the 1970 Christmas Shop Early Project," says Rev. Sidney Rood. He is the pastor of the St. Luke's Episcopal church in Ypsilanti and also chairman of the Washtenaw County Red Cross. "This will be the fifth year we've participated in this program, along with other ARC chapters from coast to coast," Rood reports.

Nationally, thousands of bags will be gift-stuffed and sent overseas to brighten the Christmas season for American GIs. Goal of the Washtenaw County Chapter is to send 250 bags on Sept. 30. Each bag, made of heavy denim material by women's clubs throughout the county, will contain eight gifts badly needed by U. S. servicemen.

Such items include ballpoint pens, plastic soap cases, small address books, washcloths, nail clipper holders, toothbrush holders, and other articles. A greeting card listing the contributors and the name of the local Red Cross Chapter also will be placed in each bag.

Yes, Christmas is still a long way off. But local Red Cross supporters are taking no chance of missing the Sept. 15 deadline. They know that a lot of American servicemen are counting on them.

For further details on this program, write the American Red Cross, Washtenaw County Chapter, 2729 Packard Rd., Ann Arbor, or call the organization at 971-5300.

When buying bath towels, consider absorbency and strength of towels as well as bathroom color scheme.

Dr. Van Riper Returns for Brief Visit

Dr. Gordon Van Riper, and his wife, Janice, formerly of Chelsea were in town this last week-end for a four-day visit with friends and relatives.

Dr. Van Riper is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Van Riper, 10412 Jerusalem Rd. His wife is the daughter of Vivian Dance, 117 S. Main.

Dr. Van Riper was a farmer in this area for many years, until a fall when he was 35 injured his back, and prevented him from farming.

At that time, he decided to go back to school. Entering Western Michigan University, at Kalamazoo, in 1952, he graduated in 1956 with a Bachelor of Science in Agriculture. He then entered the University of Wisconsin, where he received a PhD in Agriculture in 1956.

He is presently an agronomist for John Deere Co., in Moline, Ill. For his job, he travels all over the world, inspecting crops, and educating farmers on better ways to grow crops.

While he was in Chelsea, Van Riper examined about 10 local fields to estimate the damage done in this area to the corn crop by the new fungus that is sweeping the Midwest. In his opinion, the fungus is not very bad in this area, although some of the fields are infected with it, and the potential for the situation to worsen is very high. Van Riper estimates that the loss in this area is approximately 1 percent.

The couple returned Sunday to their home in Moline, Ill. They have one son, Jim, who is presently a radio announcer on a Moline radio station.

Dexter Township Will Vote on Liquor Proposal

A petition filed Thursday, Aug. 27, with William Eisenbeiser, Dexter township clerk, will appear on the township ballot in this fall's general election, Nov. 3. The petition requests that the citizens of Dexter township vote on the following proposal:

"Shall the sale of spirits in addition to beer and wine be permitted for consumption within the township of Dexter under the provisions of the law governing the same?"

There were 257 signatures on the petition, which is 59 more than the 199 figure needed for the petition to appear on the ballot. The latter figure is the required 35 percent of the 568 votes cast in the last election for secretary of state.

KEN McCALLA, Chelsea, shows off the grand champion barrow for Bim Franklin, who bought the animal for Howell Livestock Auction.

NOTICE

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that a petition has been filed with the Dexter Township Board requesting a referendum on the following proposal:

"Shall the sale of spirits in addition to beer and wine be permitted for consumption within the Township of Dexter under the provisions of the law governing same?"

YES ☐NO ☐

The foregoing proposition will appear on the ballot at the Nov. 3, 1970 General Election.

Maple Syrup Called Big Untapped Resource

Maple syrup is literally the biggest untapped resource in Michigan, according to Michigan State University forestry researchers.

Latest figures show 400,000 tap-holes in Michigan sugar maples. There could be 22 million.

The MSU researchers say there is great potential for more large-scale central evaporator plants, especially in the northwestern part of the lower peninsula, to take advantage of this resource.
