Washington Report by Congressman MARVIN L. ESCH

Since first coming to the Congress, I have served on the House Education and Labor Committee. It has proven to be a rewarding assignment especially in terms of giving one an opportunity to grapple with so many major issues.

For example, at this very moment throughout the country there is a growing awareness that any changes, are needed in the field of vocational education. In fact, even the terminology has changed so that today more frequently we hear this particular area referred to as "career education." By nature of my position on the Education and Labor Committee, I have been able to work very closely with those who have shared my own view that we are at the threshold of a new era in career training. Going back to my earliest days on the committee a primary concern I have had has been the apparent failure to sufficiently train those high school students not going to college in a way that we can say to them, "You are now ready to take your place in the labor force," rather than having them wind up in the ranks of the unemployed.

Recognizing the need to do a better job at this task, certain members of our Education Committee have attempted to provide a leadership function which could have the impact of redirecting vocational programs. To fully understand the need for a new focus on career education, let me sight the following statistics: approximately one million high school students drop out of school each year. Furthermore 80 percent of the students now attending high school will not graduate from college. It is also important to note that only about one of every four students is enrolled in vocational education programs and approximately 60 percent of high school students enter the labor force unprepared to hold a job.

No one facet of society has the complete responsibility for upgrading occupational education. It is a responsibility that must be met by Congress, industry, and educators alike, who recognize the challenge and are eager to make radical changes if necessary.

I sense that we have in Sidney P. Mayland, Jr., the U.S. Commissioner of Education, a leader who recognizes the necessity to push the career Education concept. He has embarked on a program to change traditional patterns for which he deserves high marks.

In 1968, Congress provided the beginning of a new federal-state structure that was indeed a recognition of the dimensions of the problem. The amendments we wrote then authorized the creation of state advisory councils to assist the state boards of vocational education; grants to the states to be used for teacher training, plus cash awards to outstanding teachers, as well as the financing of graduate education. Prior to this initiative, many of us in the Congress had the impression that previous administrations within the Office of Education had not come to grips with the necessity for these changing trends. I am pleased to report that we no longer possess that same "gut feeling." In 1968, while working to get the Congress to pass the Vocational Education Amendments of that year, in the minority report we said, "There should be renewed sense of urgency about the need for a modern structure of occupational education which will meet the needs of young Americans preparing for a fast-changing job market."

"If most people continue to feel against all reason and experience that the most important goal of education is a college degree and that any career objective not requiring the degree is a measure of failure, the cause is lost. We must use existing resources more intelligently—this requires broad public understanding and support for the goals of job oriented education."

With the new emphasis we have at OE—the willingness among educators to initiate new experiences it would be my hope that Congress would continue to recognize the advantages of greater career education goals and to respond accordingly in its total dollar allocations. In this way we will succeed in meeting the challenges that a new era demands.

Prize Walnut Trees Grabbed By Thieves

The body snatchers are at it again. Grim and ruthless, they sever trunks from the lower sections, slash off limbs, and truck misadventures away to greedily convert them into greenbacks.

The massed victims are prize Michigan walnut trees, so valuable for their fine wood that thieves boldly steal walnut logs from roadsides and farmyards throughout southern Michigan.

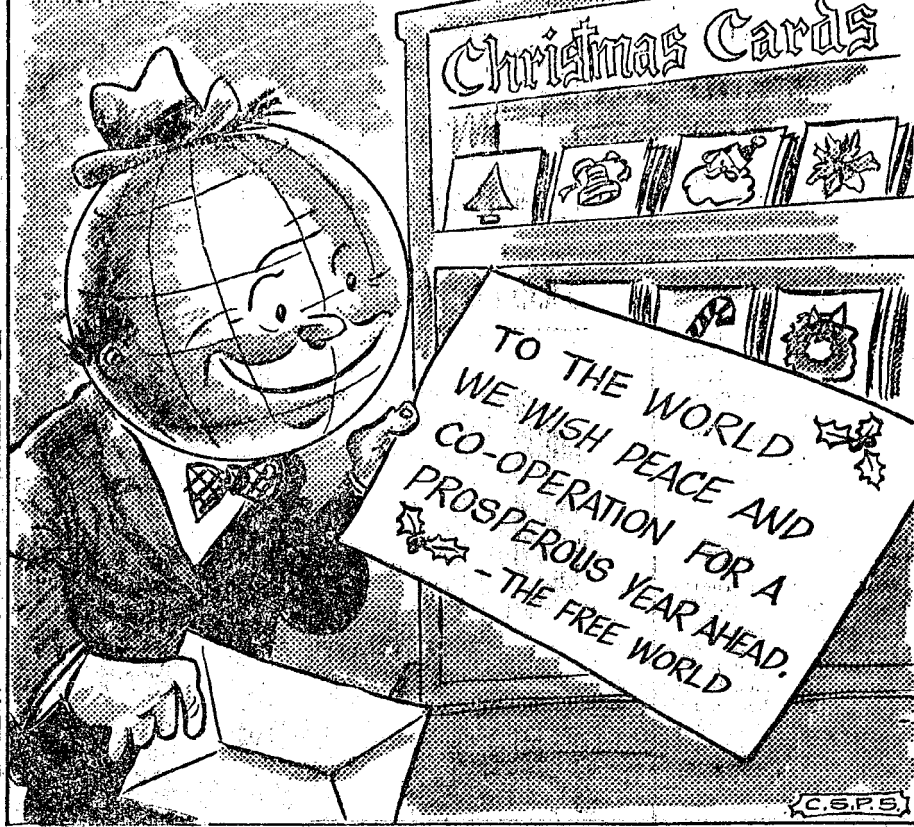

"Trees at a farm's edge are especially vulnerable to theft," said E. Dale Ball, director of the Michigan Department of Agriculture, in warning farmers to practice vigilance. "Now, with leaves down, prime walnut trees are easy for hijackers to identify by their distinctive silhouettes. Many of our remaining large walnut trees are near fence rows, lanes or farmyards, where clandestine loggers can score swiftly."

Log snatchers don't fool around with second rate trees. Ball emphasized. "They're looking for the best. One walnut log section may be worth several hundreds of dollars. This is often the specimen that a family has prized and enjoyed for generations. It's an aesthetic loss as well as a hit in the pocketbook."

How to protect against theft? That's not easy, said Ball. He recommended alerting family, friends, neighbors and local law agencies to the danger, so that any suspicious action around prize walnut trees is immediately challenged.

Future Planned

Should the drive now underway to put abortion reform on the November, 1972, ballot, be successful; and should the proposal be ratified by voters, Michigan will be faced with the problem of administering legalized abortions.

If that happens, the state Department of Public Health won't be caught flat footed.

A special committee established by the department is already at work exploring guidelines for hospital and clinic abortion services "when and if" the state's abortion law is changed.

"New York got caught when the liberalized law went into effect there," says Dr. Jack Stack of Alma, a member of the committee. "We don't want that to be the case in Michigan."

The committee is made up of doctors, health department staff members and clergymen as well as representatives from the medical, insurance, hospital and social services field.

The idea for the committee grew out of an earlier conference on abortion facilities planning, held last April in Detroit.

The conference produced a comprehensive 62-page report which found that the demand for legal abortions would be high in Michigan if the law is changed. The report said that many hospitals and clinics would be adequately prepared for a new law.

"Hopefully, when this committee completes its guidelines, the people of Michigan will know that it won't be a sudden, helter-skelter situation," Stack says. "We have laws now which say that if you don't get a certain standard of care in a hospital or other medical facility, then the doors will be closed by the state," he says. "People should have the same protection when it comes to abortion facilities."

The new committee has yet to come up with specific guidelines for abortion facilities, but Stack says he expects to have a written report prepared several months from now. Even when the report is ready, however, it may be kept under wraps until Michigan's law actually is changed.

There is some uneasiness about the success of the petition drive. Some of the initial enthusiasm is waning and there is growing opposition by those who oppose abortion.

Meanwhile, the Michigan Coordinating Committee for Abortion Reform is forging ahead with its efforts to secure the vote in November, 1972.

At last report, the committee was nearing the 100,000 mark in total signatures secured. It needs more than 220,000 to get the proposal on the ballot. Rep. Joseph P. Swallow, original spark-plug, says more push is needed.

The petition proposal would permit abortions for any reason during the first 120 days of pregnancy.

Fluoridation Saves

Michigan parents whose children age 2 to 16 have been drinking fluoridated water since birth have saved a total of $14 million in dental bills, according to a survey compiled by the State Health Department.

Dr. Louis F. Szejda, who put together the figures, says that the cost estimate involves only the money saved on filling cavities and doesn't reflect charges for examination, x-rays or other treatments which might be the same whether the child drank fluoridated water or not.

The cost savings breaks down to an average of $46 per child. And when considering the oldest of the group—the 16-year-olds—the savings average $70 per youth.

"For a family of three persons—two adults and one 16-year-old, for example—the water fluoridation costs would be about 10 cents to 15 cents per person per year or from $5 to $7 for the 16 years for the entire family," Dr. Szejda says.

"When we compare this against their savings in dental expenses, we see that for their investment in water fluoridation, the return would be about or more than tenfold."

In the case of a family of four—with two children aged 17, the investment in water fluoridation for the 16-year-olds would be between $6 and $10 and their return would be nearly 12-fold."

The Christmas spirit in local churches was furthered by Christmas trees cut and distributed by members of the Chelsea Rod & Gun Club sponsored Boy Scout Troop 465. The trees were given away to interested churches.

The Chelsea high school varsity debate team tied for third place in the Lakeshore debate tournament held Dec. 13 at Monroe High school. This is the first year in many that Chelsea has had a debate team.

Reuben Lesser, Jr., appeared on the Michigan Outdoors TV show last Thursday to claim the top prize in the annual state-wide contest for the buck with the largest rack and spread and number of points. Lesser won a Polaroid snowmobile and trailer in the contest. The prize-winning buck had a 22½-inch rack spread and 22 points. Lesser shot the deer two miles south of Chelsea.

Seven juveniles, ages 9 through 12, were apprehended Tuesday for stealing Christmas tree lights from houses in the McKinley, Howard, Elm and East St. area. Restitution of approximately $20 was made, and the youths were released to the custody of their parents.

Chelsea's varsity basketball team played both Friday and Saturday nights this week and lost both matches. They were defeated by Milan's Big Red Friday night by a score of 82 to 61. The Saturday night game with Lincoln was tight all the way, but Lincoln, which held at least a one-point lead most of the night, opened up the scoring gap in the fourth quarter to take a 79 to 67 win. High scorer for Chelsea was Lance Burghardt with 26, followed by Jack Risner with 18 and John Lixey with 11.

The wrestlers, however, scored a 48 to 6 win over Dundee, adding to the insult produced by their 58 to 0 lambasting of the Vikings last year. Next home meet for the mat-men will be on Jan. 4 against Clinton.

The annual most valuable player award went to Odie Richardson for the second consecutive year. Richardson led the team in scoring and ground gaining. The most improved player award went to Bucky O'Dell.

Jerry Lesser of Munith, formerly of Chelsea, lost the thumb on his right hand while operating a corn picker on the Langston farm at Cavanaugh Lake. Lesser is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Lesser.

Chelsea's basketball team lost their first league contest of the season to a strong Flat Rock team, 31 to 24. It was their second game of the season, and their second loss despite fine play by Miller, Carlson and Vogel. The Chelsea five had better luck against the faculty however, defeating them, 35 to 34, Tuesday night. The varsity led all the way during the faculty game, but was never ahead by more than five points.

Thirty-six members were initiated Sunday afternoon at the Charter Class of the new Chelsea Council No. 3092 of the Knights of Columbus at St. Thomas Parish Hall in Ann Arbor. Following the initiation a banquet was prepared and served by the ladies of St. Mary's Altar Society at St. Mary's Hall Sunday night.

Local nimrods have been out in large numbers during the past week trying to shoot the wiley fox. Since the new fox bounty went into effect two months ago, the state conservation department has paid $39,390 for the killing of 7,878 foxes. Conservation officials report that some giant foxes are showing up. One female, killed in Sharon township weighed 21 pounds. A normal adult fox weighs from 8 to 10 pounds.

The Women's Guild of St. Paul's church completed its first year of existence this week with its Christmas meeting. There were 55 members and 11 guests present for the event. Hostesses were Mrs. Elmer Lehman, Mrs. Wilbur Hinderer, Mrs. Gurney Hopper, Mrs. Oscar Lindauer and Mrs. Alfred Lindauer. The Guild membership now totals 102, including five new members and seven honorary members inducted this year.

MUSKMOLE? Orvil Mock, 55 Cedar Lake Rd., discovered an animal that looked like a cross between a muskrat (tail and hind feet) and a mole (body shape, nose and mouth) Sunday afternoon. But it wasn't. Waterloo Recreation Area naturalist Tom Hodgson dispelled all illusions by identifying the creature as a star-nosed mole. Although the star-nosed mole, named for the 22 finger-like feelers on the tip of its nose, is not rare, it is rarely seen, Hodgson said. The mole prefers swamps, bogs and low, wet meadows, and burrows deeper than the usually seen mole, often leaving large mounds rather than running tunnels when coming close to the surface. The star-nosed mole will even swim under ice in the winter to find the aquatic worms and insects on which it lives. Fat for the cold season is stored in the tail. Mock (right) donated his find to Hodgson, who plans to stuff it for use as a study skin to show in his talks to various groups of students.

first and second grade. A dance, "Frosty the Snowman," performed by 3rd and 4th grade girls, will follow. The entrance of the nativity scene with a reading of St. Luke's gospel will then be followed by an interpretive dance of Chapter I of the Gospel of St. John. The program will conclude with the singing of carols by the entire student body. On Christmas Eve, the congregation will sing Christmas carols at 11:30 p.m. preceding midnight mass. There will be mass at 6:30, 8:00, 10:00 and 11:30 a.m. on Christmas day. The Rev. Fr. Francis Wahowiak is pastor.

At 11 p.m. Friday, the joint Christmas Eve candlelight service with St. Thomas Lutheran church will be held at Zion Lutheran church. The Rev. Daniel Mattson of St. Thomas will preach, and the combined senior choirs will sing. On Christmas day, there will be a service at 9:30 a.m. Both the junior and senior choirs will sing anthems. CHS Students Suspended Following Protest ...

Following the presentation of a student version of the series of events, students spent much of their time chanting "Power to the students." At one point, student leaders were arranging to have a record player brought into the auditorium, but if it was brought in, it was not used.

Principal Lane said that all those students suspended through Wednesday's action would be considered trespassers if they did return on Thursday.

Lane said that readmission would be granted only after he talks personally with all students participating in the action and their parents. "That's the way it's going to be, if it takes from now to June," he added.

This was, according to Lane, the first demonstration at the high school.

4 CHS Juniors

Qualify in Math Competition

Four Chelsea High school students are among the 1,000 semifinalists of 21,000 competitors in the Michigan Mathematics Prize competition this year.

To qualify as a semi-finalist, a student must correctly answer 16 of 40 questions on the test written by university mathematics professors.

"Because the test is extremely difficult," Joseph Rossi, chairman of the high school mathematics department said, "16 of 40 is, in fact, a very good score."

Chelsea High school junior Bill Schaefer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Schaefer, scored 21 on the test, placing himself in the 99th percentile of all competing juniors.

Of 8,400 juniors taking the test, only 21 scored higher than Schaefer on the first test.

Junior John Mann, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Mann, finished in the 98th percentile with his score of 18.

Also qualifying were senior Kathryn Schaefer, daughter of Mrs. and Mrs. Robert Schaefer, with a score of 17, and Norbert Weber, son of Mr. and Mrs. Don Weber, with a score of 16.

According to Rossi, the average score on the test across the state was 9.52. Average score among the 21 Chelsea students was 12.0.

On Dec. 8, the 1,000 semifinalists took a second test to determine the winner of approximately 25 scholarships awarded by the companies sponsoring the competition. Results will be announced early in the spring.

Chelsea has never had a winner, Rossi noted but neither has it ever before had four students qualify for the final examination.

Wrestlers Lose to Saline In Close Meet

In a match that pitted two contenders for league honors, Chelsea was defeated by Saline, 29-23, in a close match held Thursday night.

Saline finally claimed the match with a pin victory at the heavyweight class.

Wrestling for Chelsea in the 18-lb. class, freshman Sam Tracher, competing in his first varsity match, was pinned at 4:32.

Mark Montagne, in the 105-lb. class, pinned his opponent in 1:02. Dale Poertner, wrestling in the 112-lb. class, suffered a severe ankle sprain and also lost a 4-3 decision.

In the 119-lb. class, Keith Kargel lost a 9-4 decision. Mike Spence, wrestling in the 126-lb. class, lost a 5-0 decision.

But Chelsea moved ahead in the scoring as Larry Jones scored on a 4-25 pin victory and Tim Lancaster scored a 3-53 pin win in the 132- and 138-lb. classes, respectively.

Tom McKernan, wrestling against Saline's top wrestler, Bob Warty, lost in a close, 4-2, decision match. Jon Schenk, at 155 lbs., gained his second draw of the season in a 2-2 match.

Doug McDonald, wrestling at 167, was defeated, 11-8. Freshman Darl West, at 185 lbs., provided Chelsea with a fine 6-3 decision over a much larger opponent, and tied the score at 23-23 with the heavyweight match remaining.

Although Steve Worden was pinned by his opponent in that match, Coach Bareis said the junior showed improvement which could help the team later in the season.

Bareis was disappointed over the loss, but hopes Chelsea will be able to defeat Saline when the league meet rolls around. Bareis said that Dale Poertner should return to action following the Christmas vacation.

Chelsea's home season will open tonight as Chelsea hosts Lincoln. JV matches will start at 6:30.

TODAY'S THOUGHT

By LOUIS BURGHARDT

Got all your Christmas shopping done? Still undecided about a shirt, robe, slip, toaster, tie or toys? Are you sure you didn't overlook some one? Got your decorations in order? Your tree, bells, tinsel, candles, holly? Are all your cards addressed or in the mail? Any last minute additions needed? What about your Christmas dinner? All set? Know where you will be — and with whom?

These and similar questions are being asked nearly everywhere. You have heard them before. You will hear them again. And again. In all this joyful festival preparation — and hideous confusion at times — you rarely hear a certain question. It may be old fashioned to ask it, but here it is: Why is mankind apparently more concerned with symbols, pageantry and personal sentiment — instead of the spiritual reality of Christmas?

We will have an interesting thought on the spiritual reality of Christmas here next week . . . Watch for it . . . BURGHARDT FUNERAL HOME, 214 East Middle St., Chelsea, Mich. Phone GR 5-4141.

Filing Extension Automatic By Paying Estimated Tax With Request

Detroit — Taxpayers will be granted an automatic two-month extension of time to file their individual income tax returns forms if they make a tentative estimate of their tax for the year and pay an estimated balance due when requesting the extension, IRS Commissioner Johnnie M. Walters has stated. Speaking to the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants, Walters said that regulations now being drafted on the automatic extension of time for filing will be a "milestone in tax administration."

Walters pointed out that even with an extension of time for filing, existing law provides that any unpaid tax due will bear interest at 6 percent from the original due date of the return. While a late payment penalty also will apply unless there is reasonable cause, Walters said the IRS will presume reasonable cause if the actual balance due on the tax return does not exceed 10 percent of the amount shown as total tax on the tax return, and if the balance due is remitted with the return.

More than 50 percent of individual income tax returns are prepared by someone other than the taxpayer, according to Walters, who praised professionally trained ethical preparers who contribute to the system by producing high-quality tax returns. Walters said that the IRS is taking steps to eliminate abuses by unethical tax return preparers: Those involved in sensational and misleading advertising, those who hold out false promises and hopes to the unsophisticated taxpayer, and those who misuse information provided by their clients.

IRS district offices will monitor the activities and operations of commercial returns preparers and report apparent false and misleading advertising to the Federal Trade Commission, Walters said. The IRS will also work with the Department of Justice to combat illegal practices, he added. Touching on the IRS role in the President's Economic Stabilization Program, Walters emphasized that IRS enforcement and monitoring activities "will not affect adversely our ability to discharge our over-all tax administration responsibilities. We will accomplish both missions," he said.

Editor's Note: With this issue, The Dexter Leader and The Chelsea Standard start publication of a twice-monthly column in which Governor Milliken responds to questions from citizens. If you would like to submit a question for possible use in the column, send it to The Standard, 300 N. Main St., Chelsea 48118. We will forward questions from our readers to the Governor. QUESTION: I have heard that your proposals for educational reform will destroy local control of schools. Why do you want to do this?

ANSWER: That is an ungrounded fear. On the contrary, local control is not only maintained, but strengthened under my proposals.

Local control is a vital cornerstone of education and it must rest upon a solid financial foundation. My proposals would strengthen the financing of education in Michigan.

As it is now in much of Michigan, effective local control of education is jeopardized by a shaky financial foundation. When a local district is impoverished, or has exhausted most of its financing capabilities, its local control is extremely limited in practice no matter what it might be in theory.

The Michigan Constitution clearly requires that the State provide public education on an equal basis for all students. My goal, through educational reform, is to make sure that the State carries out its constitutional responsibility. But that is a responsibility which the State shares with local school districts. Therefore, this does not mean, at all, that the State should take over the entire responsibility for education.

Local districts and local school boards have responsibilities just as important—and just as essential to preserve—as those of the State. If the State does a better job in providing a more equitable financing system for education, local districts will be able to do a better job of providing the education.

Local authorities are the ones who should hire teachers, negotiate with employees, determine what is to be taught, and how it is to be taught. I hope all citizens of Michigan will keep this in mind as I embark on my petition drive for property tax relief as a vital step forward to educational reform.

QUESTION: What major environmental legislation do you hope to see enacted during the fall legislative session?

ANSWER: My number one priority in environmental legislation for this fall session is the passage of Substitute House Bill 4260, the "truth-in-air-pollution" bill. This bill contains a number of essential changes in our air pollution program, all of which bring Michigan's air pollution act in line with requirements of the federal Clean Air Act of 1970.

The federal government has set up air quality standards, but has given the states responsibility for developing enforcement procedures. This bill provides for mandatory annual reports from industries which enumerate the type and quantity of their emissions into the atmosphere and the materials they utilize in their manufacturing process, thus enabling the state to evaluate air contaminants.

It also provides for making orders of the Air Pollution Control Commission enforceable in the courts an essential element of our state program to control air pollution. Unless we meet federal requirements established by the Clean Air Act of 1970, we could lose federal support for our air pollution control efforts.

Additionally, in order to improve our air pollution control program, we need to expand the monitoring and enforcement capabilities of the Air Pollution Control Commission. A surveillance fee program encompassed in substitute HB-4260, similar to that provided for water pollution control in the 1970 "truth-in-pollution" act, would help pay the costs for needed staff and equipment, thus enabling Michigan to double its present monitoring capabilities.

Bi-partisan discussions with legislative leaders have produced agreement to give priority consideration to my air pollution control program, as well as to proposals for snowmobile regulation and regulation of billboard advertising.

New Guidebook Helpful in Battle With Orchard Diseases

Michigan orchardists can consult a new publication by a Michigan State University plant pathologist when developing their pest and disease control programs this year.

Disease problems affecting tree fruit crops are described in detail in a bulletin by MSU plant pathologist Dr. Alan L. Jones.

The publication contains both black-and-white and color photographs, to help in disease identification. Important aspects of the developmental pattern, or life cycle, of more than 30 diseases of apples, pears, cherries, plums and peaches are described in the guidebook.

Extension Bulletin 714, "Diseases of Tree Fruits in Michigan," is available at county extension offices and the MSU Bulletin Office, P.O. Box 231, East Lansing, 48823. Single copies are free of charge to Michigan residents.

Look Carefully Before Leaping Into Northern Michigan Land

Don't let your vacation home-site become a legal battleground. Check with local authorities before investing in northern Michigan dreamland, advises Willard Bosserman, county extension director for Roscommon and Crawford counties.

"Most developers are honest and above board," he states, "but even the most honest individuals sometimes forget to tell prospective buyers about potential problems."

Bosserman says that some people have purchased options to buy land and were given quitclaim deeds. Later they found, to their dismay, that they did not own the property.

"Similarly, some persons have built $30,000 homes on property which they later found out was not theirs," he notes.

"Demand an abstract and have it checked by your attorney. This is the only way you can be sure of a clear title to the property you paid for."

The privacy promised by a private road entices some prospective property owners, but a private road is not maintained by the County Road Commission, points out the extension director.

In a subdivision, it is up to the owner to contract for snow removal and to keep the private roads passable. Find out if the roads in "your" development are public or private.

Zoning is new to many northern Michigan areas. Several townships and counties are only now beginning the process of passing zoning ordinances. Bosserman advises prospective buyers to check with local authorities about zoning and building codes.

"Some individuals have purchased a lot with the idea of locating their mobile home on it, and later were confronted by a zoning official who told them they could not do so," Bosserman points out.

"Over-zealous salesmen may promise lake or river access which turns out to be a state park already over-crowded. Or, the sales person may mean a road access, which is a dubious means of satisfying the gleam in the purchaser's eye."

"Check with the local health department about locating a well and septic tank. They must be 60 feet apart. On some lots, it is almost impossible to obtain the necessary distance between the two."

Bosserman recommends a Cooperative Extension bulletin, number E-676, "Vacation Homesites." This publication may be obtained from the local Cooperative Extension Service office or by writing to the Bulletin Office, Michigan State University, O.O. Box 231, East Lansing, 48823.

Among the wild animals that inhabit the wildlife sanctuary of Kensington Metropolitan Park near Milford are deer, fox and raccoons. The trails are open dawn to dusk daily and labelled for "self-guided" hikes.

Two windows are better than one.

That's the whole secret behind storm windows and doors and why they help save you Gas and money.

Regular windows are a big problem in dealing with heat loss since, unfortunately, glass is a good conductor of heat. Heat escapes and winter's cold enters unless you provide some sort of barrier. By installing storm windows and doors or clear plastic coverings, you can save much of the heat that otherwise would escape through unprotected areas.

This is just one of many Gas and money-saving ideas you'll find in Michigan Consolidated Gas Company's free booklet, "The Great Escape." By checking and correcting the ways heat escapes from your home, you can make Gas (already one of today's big bargains) an even bigger bargain.

Fill out the coupon and learn more ways to foil the great escape—and save Gas and money, too. Or pick up a copy of "The Great Escape" at any of our offices. It's free.

Honored By State At UF Luncheon

James Hoffmeyer, 1972 Chelsea Community Chest Campaign Chairman, was among the approximately 40 local fund drive chairmen from the state honored at the Michigan United Fund Campaign Achievement Celebration luncheon held Tuesday at Kellogg Center in East Lansing.

Presenting the awards was Linda Susan Kish, Miss Michigan of 1971. Hoffmeyer said, "I do feel quite honored, and I think this is really recognition for the community, not just for me. It shows how great Chelsea was."

This year, the Chelsea Community Chest exceeded its campaign goal of $25,007 despite difficulties in several areas of the campaign.

Also invited to participate in the luncheon were Dexter Community Chest chairman Garry C. Tilt, Saline Area United Fund chairman the Rev. Henry O. Yoder, and Manchester Community Chest, Inc., chairman Mrs. Donna Thibbeiner.

The theme of the celebration was "Living, Giving, Working Together."

Give a dinner to celebrate the next special birthday on your list. Plan the menu around the person's favorite meat dish, be it T-bone steak, Veal Parmesan, or Beef Stroganoff. Be sure to check the recipe carefully in order to select the proper cut of meat for the most delicious present.

Some tips to save at the grocery store: take note of food ads in local media, plan menus in advance to avoid waste and extra trips to the store, observe which days are best for shopping, make a list to save steps and time, and be flexible with alternatives.

NORTH ELEMENTARY SCHOOL NOTES

THIRD GRADE—

Mrs. Peet's Room
We would like to tell you what it is like to be different things at Christmas time.

Hello! It is Christmas again. I am an ornament on the Christmas tree. Christmas is my favorite time of the season because it is fun to hang from the tree and watch all the presents be torn open. And when I get put away it is not fun any more because I have to be pushed against my friends—John Haydock.

I am a snowman. My name is Frosty the Snowman. I play in the snow and on Christmas I feel good inside me. I have an old silk hat. I hold a sign. It says "Hi." I'm Frosty the Snowman. I have fun. Peace and Love from me. Frosty—Robbie Shears.

I am a snowman sitting in the yard. On Christmas night all the children make me up. Then the next morning they give me a broom. I love Christmas. I do not like summer because I melt and you do not see me—Bob Dickens.

I am a Christmas tree and this is what Christmas means to me. I am standing in a big lot with all my friends and when the family buys me and takes me home and that's when the fun begins. There are lots of happy children on Christmas morning jumping and screaming all round gifts sitting under me—Donna Thibbeiner.

I am a star on top of a Christmas tree. In Christmas morning I look at all the boys and girls opening their presents. It seems to me the highest thing in the house. I like to watch the children put things on the Christmas tree.

Some days I look at the boys and girls playing in the snow. They make lots of things like snow forts and they have snow ball fights and make snow men—Ross Stoffel.

I like Rudolph the Rednosed Reindeer. I like Christmas because every night before Christmas I guide Santa's sleigh. I feel happy on Christmas Eve because all the children get presents. And best of all, I get presents from Santa and the reindeer. We'll I do. Goodbye, Rudolph—Radine Cheever.

I like Christmas because the Rasmasins use me a lot. I am bright red and I light up when they strike me with a match. I feel I am useful on Christmas night. I sit down at the big table and no lights are on except mine. This is what I like about Christmas. But then the bad part comes and I go in a box and sit, sit, sit until next Christmas.

Hi, I am eyes. I am two eyes on a snowman. I can see in the Johnson house, their tree is all decorated. It looks so beautiful. Tonight is Christmas. Ha! There is Saint Nick and his reindeer, he says hi to me. There he goes down the chimney. I love Christmas so much because the town is decorated so that night seems like day. I just love Christmas—Christine Johnson.

I am a snowman. I can see all of the kids that live near me. It is fun being a snowman because I have kids to play with and I have lots of fun and it is fun being a snowman, and I love Christmas because if there wasn't Christmas, I would not be here talking to you and if I weren't here who would be talking to you? Well, good-bye now and happy Christmas. The end—Matthew Harat.

Hello all you Christmas lovers. I am Santa's Christmas bag. Every Christmas Eve I get stuffed with Christmas goodies. It's fun riding in Santa's sled. It looks like a fairy-dollhouse land when you look down. All the rest of the year I am kept in an old attic. I don't mind that much. Except one time when I got a hole in myself. That Christmas Santa was surprised to find all his toys leaking all over the place. Well, bye from your present giver—Chris Pax.

You wear me outside. I am very heavy to wear. Guess who I am. I'm a coat. I think Christmas is a time to be happy and gay. If you are not happy and gay you don't know what Christmas is about. The only reason why you get presents is because Santa Claus wants to make you happy. I believe in Santa Claus because I see him at night. First he slides down the chimney then he fills the stockings with candy and puts presents under the tree. I'm Cindy's coat. I see Cindy and Roger and his dad bring in the tree for Christmas. Then they decorate it with strings of popcorn and bulbs. Then finally they put on the star and the lights. All I can say is I love Christmas—Shari Weber.

Reporters: Jill Weinberg, Renee Gaudet, and Elaine Meyer
We are busy getting our room ready for Christmas. Our class is making a bulletin board about Christmas. We made a Christmas tree, fire place with logs and fire, and some windows with pictures behind. The teacher covered our door with red paper and added green ribbon. Now it looks like a giant present. Some boys made a snowman for the window. All of us made a flower on a green piece of paper. The flower is called a poinsettia.

In science we are studying about heat energy. We used candles and clay. A pencil, a test tube, and two pie pans. We cut one pan into a pinwheel. When we lit the candles, the pinwheel went around on top of the pencil. Heat energy made it work.

In social studies, we have been learning about Boston. We have studied about the Revolutionary War and Paul Revere. We have also learned about lobster fishing. We even have had a lobster pot in our room.

Jill Weinberg and Eric Pickleik were elected by our class to go to Student Council. They will help make rules for school. Alternates are Renee Gaudet and Jon Riemen-schneider.

These people have birthdays this month: Linda Bristle, Jill Weinberg, James Picklesimer, Tom Reilly and Jon Riemen-schneider. Tom's birthday is Christmas Day. Jon's is the day after.

FOURTH GRADE—

Reporters: Patty Hume, Kim Wood, and Karen Updegraff

In social studies we studied Japan. After we finished the unit, we celebrated how the Japanese live. We ate rice and drank a special Japanese tea. We made mats out of newspapers.

In art, our class made clay figures. Karen-Updegraff and Patty Hume made candle holders. Kim Wood made a mouse, a turtle, a mushroom, and a snail. In music all the fourth and fifth grades are having a singing concert at the high school. We're going to sing all kinds of carols. The birthdays in December are: Dawn Connell on the 7th, David Morris on the 17th and Karen Updegraff on the 24th.

Reporters: Sherry Baysinger, Christine Check, Cathy French

In social studies we finished New Zealand and we are now studying Japan. Did you know by traveling from New Zealand to Japan you actually change seasons?

We are putting on a Christmas play called "The Tree Angel." The characters are Deborah Connell, Dennis White, Sue Schafer, Scott Robertson and John Thornbury.

We have made a bulletin board with two Christmas scenes, the Nativity Scene and also Santa's Workshop. We also have made stained glass figures for our windows, and we have a silver tree in our room with red and green ornaments on it.

Steve Myers moved to Jackson and we have a new girl in our room from Saline. Her name is Kim Slater and we hope she likes Chelsea.

We have had many interesting things for show and tell. Barbara Proctor brought in deer bones. David Seyfried brought Muskrat hides. Barbara Schardin brought a skeleton of a rat covered with plastic and Leah Gaudet brought coins from many countries.

Our birthdays this month are Barbara Schardin and Jamie Foster.

FIFTH GRADE—

Reporter: Scott Beyer

The 3rd, 4th and 5th grades went to the high school to watch the play "Mumbles the Clown." Mrs. Winkle's class studied about the Brazilian nut and the settlements of the 13 colonies. We just finished the chapter about the French and Indian War. We also studied about the French and Spanish.

I think you parents with children going to the Chelsea schools know about Christmas vacation being only one week long. But have a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

Reporters: Carrie Lane and Cindy Welshans

Wednesday, Dec. 8, we wrote to our Pen Pals in England.

In art, we made things out of clay and we are going to paint them next week.

On Tuesday, Dec. 14, we are going to have a Christmas concert at the high school.

Hope every one has a very Merry Christmas.

Boys at St. Louis School Enjoy Snowmobile Given Them

Tuesday's snow was just the thing for the boys, staff, Fathers and Sisters at St. Louis school.

On Sunday Jack Biewer, father of one of the boys at the school, donated a snowmobile to the school, and everyone had a great time taking rides in the new snow Tuesday morning.

Biewer, of St. Clair, also gave Fr. Umberto a starting gun to use in track and field events.

Members of the Chelsea Rod & Gun Club donated a 20-foot tree now standing in the lobby of the school. The boys and fathers are decorating the tree and the entire school building.

Basketball, an important winter sport at the school, will be an important part of this week's activities. The boys will have their annual basketball game with Ann Arbor St. Francis 12th graders this evening at 7 at the school, and tomorrow they will have an afternoon scrimmage with Manchester's 8th graders.

Also on Friday, the Washtenaw Community College choral group will perform at the school at 1 p.m. Santa's going to be there, too, and will pass out Christmas goodies to all the boys.

The annual Christmas program will be given Sunday, Dec. 19 at 4 p.m. The school band will begin the afternoon, followed by singing by all the boys of the school. There will be a skit entitled "Twas the Night Before Christmas," put on by the younger boys, followed by a rhythmic dance accompanied by percussion instruments. A skit about Vietnam presented by the older boys, "Peace on Earth," will be followed by songs from the boys' chorus. The program will close with the portrayal of the Nativity scene.

Following the program, boys will go home for Christmas vacation.

Take a "self-guided" nature hike along the trails this winter at the nature study area of Stony Creek Metropolitan Park near Utica. See exhibits in the nature center or hike along the trails daily, except Mondays.

and found it missing when he returned. The undamaged car was found at 6 p.m. parked on East St. between Harrison and Park St.

Chelsea police say there is a suspect in the case.

Persistent checking of lists of stolen autos by officers Lenard McDougall and Robert Browning resulted in the return of another stolen car to its Ypsilanti owner, Frank Lee Mueller, also known as Frank Malvin Henry and John Lee Cast, 17, of Ypsilanti, was arrested Dec. 10 for possession of stolen property after officers discovered the car he was driving had been taken from an Ypsilanti used car lot.

The officers' check showed the license plates were registered to a different make and model of car, and that the vehicle identification number on the car listed it as belonging to an Ypsilanti resident.

Early on Dec. 10, the car, reported missing by College Dodge of Ypsilanti, appeared on the Michigan State Police list of stolen vehicles, and Mueller was arrested.

He was arraigned on Dec. 14 in Chelsea, and is being held in Washtenaw County Jail in lieu of $500 bond. His examination is set for Dec. 20.

failed to make one curve on McKinley Rd. and both occupants ran into the woods.

After calling for assistance from the Washtenaw County Sheriff's Department, Siebert gave chase, and forced Kenny Risner, 17, of Sager Rd., into the net formed by deputies on the far side of the woods. Risner was actually apprehended by Deputies White and Tommellin of the Sheriff's Department.

The other object of the chase, a 16-year-old juvenile, eluded police for more than an hour but was finally apprehended after tracking dogs from the Brighton State Police Post were used.

According to Meranuck, the juvenile had escaped from the detention home twice in the past week, and had threatened to kill a Chelsea policeman prior to his last escape.

Meranuck said that the Livingston County Sheriff's Department is seeking a warrant for car theft, and the Brighton State Police are seeking a warrant on the breaking and entering.

While Chelsea police did not actually apprehend the two, the chief commended Siebert for his alert police work. "He did a real good job," Meranuck said.

When W. R. Daniels went to the office of the Chelsea Lumber, Grain & Coal Co. Sunday evening, he found that burglars had entered the building and taken money from the cash drawer. No trace of the culprits has been found.

Many Chelsea citizens and friends were in attendance at the funeral services held Thursday afternoon at St. Paul's Evangelical church for Conrad Lehman, life-long resident of Chelsea. Services were conducted by the Rev. P. H. Grabowski, Honorary pallbearers were: Fred Broesamle, Lewis P. Vogel, Carl G. Schable, Mahlon J. Dunkel, Carl Bagge and W. Henry Haselschwerdt.

Cager of the Week

Welton, a 5'11" senior guard, is part of the six-man nucleus of this year's as yet undefeated basketball team. Welton has played baseball since his freshman year, and hopes eventually to play pro ball. Welton is active in the senior class, North Lake Methodist Youth Fellowship, and is also employed during the spring and fall by John Eisenbeiser. He is the son of Mrs. Warren Welton, 10261 Joslin Lake Rd.

The third quarter score tipped back and forth, but Chelsea trailed by one point at the close of the period as Saline led, 44-42.

In the last quarter, with good clutch shooting by Ron Sweeney and Jeff Schmidt, Chelsea outscored Saline, 20 to 17, to narrowly achieve victory.

Ron Sweeney and Jeff Schmidt connected for field goals, and then, Jeff Schmidt, Wayne Welton, Todd Sprague and Ron Sweeney converted eight consecutive free throws while Saline was held to two field goals and two free throws. Chelsea had 30 fouls to Saline's 17. The Saline five didn't make their free throw opportunities count as much as they might have, however, hitting on only 21 for 43, while Chelsea shot 13 out of 20.

According to Coach Chuck Kelly, "We had outstanding play from the entire team, and Tim Van Slambrouck, Todd Sprague, Wayne Welton, Jeff Schmidt and Ron Sweeney really came through in the clutch."

Chelsea will have two away games this week-end, meeting Lincoln Friday and Novi Saturday before returning home Jan. 7 to meet Dundee. Varsity games begin at approximately 8 p.m.

Also taking part in the tournament were Brighton, Jackson Northwest, Northville, Picponey, and Tecumseh.

Coach Richard Bareis said that the team as a whole showed improvement, and the fact that they finished within 8 1/2 points of the winner, Bareis added "shows promise for a good tournament team."

Winning championships were Mark Montague at 105 lbs. and Larry Jones at 132 lbs. Second-place finishers were Mike Spence at 126 lbs., Tim Lancaster at 138 lbs. and Rod Branham at heavyweight. Finishing in third place were Tom McKernan at 145 lbs. and Doug McDonald at 167 lbs. Jon Marzec placed fourth in the 112-lb. class.

Freshman Sam Trachet, wrestling in his first tournament, gained a pin win over a Brighton wrestler, and later, in a consolation match, wrestled to a 2-2 regulation time tie only to lose, 4-2, in overtime.

Debating for Chelsea were Carol Fairbrother and Mike Hergert on the affirmative, and Chick Lane and Dan Gaunt, negative.

For their performance, Chelsea will have one year possession of the large league trophy previously won by Lansing Waverly, Kalamazoo Central and Marshall. The other two schools participating in the league are Jackson Parkside and Kalamazoo Central.

Carol Fairbrother, a novice debater this year, leads the entire team in the number of debates participated in this year. Carol has been in 50 rounds of debate, and been on the winning side 40 times. School Board Hears Student Council Appeal

A special Board of Education meeting was held Dec. 9. Present at the meeting were President Storey, Trustees Straub, Irwin, Koenn and Smith, Superintendent Cameron, Business Manager Mills, Principal Lane, Assistant Principal Lapanowski, George Bergman, representatives of the student council and Bryce Fauble.

The board met with the administration and representatives of the student council in response to an appeal made by the students.

Purpose of the meeting was to determine whether or not the students had been afforded a fair hearing in regard to an administrative decision involving the refusal of a dance band.

After listening to spokesmen from the administration and the student council, it was the opinion of the board that two fair and impartial hearings had been held and due process had been followed.

REBOUND: Dave Ziegler (55), Saline's center, grabs a rebound off the Chelsea backboard late in the fourth quarter as Ron Sweeney (44) attempts to defend. Chelsea trailed by five points with approximately four minutes to go in the game, but clutch shooting saved the day, and Chelsea won, 63-61.

CUB SCOUT NEWS

PACK 415, DEN 1—

Cubs of Den 1 had their weekly meeting Tuesday, Dec. 7. School was out at noon, so we brought a sack lunch, and our den mother, Mrs. George Atkinson, furnished hot chocolate and apples. First we had roll call and all members were present. We put glue on things we were making, then we ate while the glue cured. We sang Christmas songs while we worked. Our meeting closed at 2 p.m. with the flag ceremony.

PACK 435

Cub Scouts of Pack 435 made Christmas presents for our mothers and fathers. We are going to sing Christmas carols at Cedar Knoll on Thursday. Pastor Morris and his wife helped us practice our songs.

Mike Wade, scribe.

PACK 415—

Santa Claus visited Pack 415's Christmas party last Sunday, giving a surprise to each Cub and Webelos and their brothers and sisters. Cubs had trimmed the Christmas tree with decorations they made in their den meetings. A special candlelight ceremony, performed by the Webelos, under the direction of Gary Packard, Webelos leader, closed the meeting.

MEAT IS STILL GOOD BUY

Today, the average consumer spends less than 5 percent of disposable income for meat, leaving more than 95 percent for other purchases. Twenty years ago the amount of disposable income spent for meat was more than 8 percent. What's more, today's consumer gets 40 more pounds of meat per year for this small percentage of income spent.

Dr. Riethmiller Wins Point in Phraseology

A Michigan Department of Education staff paper on "a new thrust for basic education in Michigan public schools," was the target of an objection "thrust" forward by Dr. Gordon Riethmiller, president emeritus of Olivet College, at a recent meeting of the Michigan Board of Education.

"Something about the paper bothered me," Riethmiller said. "Finally it dawned on me. . . It was the use of the word 'thrust' in the title and text. I went through our agenda book and found 'thrust' used at least 41 times."

Riethmiller checked on the dictionary definition of the word, and found it to mean "to push forcibly or to shove."

"It seems to me," Riethmiller said, "that at a time when some people are accusing us of trying to force programs down their throats, it would be best to use another word which means the same and isn't overworked."

Unable to deny the thrust of Riethmiller's message, the board decided to drop the term "thrust" in describing new efforts or changes in emphasis.

Dr. John W. Porter, state superintendent of public instruction said "thrust" would be changed to "direction" or "emphasis," and that the department would try to watch other terms from creeping into every statement.
