School Board Okays Summer Musical Plans

Friday, April 7, the school board approved the request of Miss DiAnn L'Roy to use school facilities to stage "Sound of Music" this summer. This will be the first time a full stage production has been presented during the summer although Miss L'Roy and her students have enjoyed great success during the school year.

The idea was conceived by a group of former students who had appeared in previous productions at the high school and still maintained a high interest in the stage. They decided that this would be a perfect opportunity to involve not only alumni and current students, but other interested members of the community.

By approving the request, the school board has agreed to allow these dedicated thespians the use of school facilities for evening rehearsals as well as the eventual production. Miss L'Roy also hopes that she can persuade them to grant her a money advance against the sale of the tickets to help defray production costs. She estimates expenses at roughly $2,000, approximately $600 of which will go in royalty fees to the original authors of the musical, Rodgers & Hammerstein. However, she is convinced that this will be a money-making venture for the high school.

Though plans are barely underway, Miss L'Roy hopes to begin rehearsal in mid-June with the production running the last Friday and Saturday in July.

Drag Club Sponsoring Road Rally

Palmer Ford Drag Club will sponsor the second annual Road Rally Sunday, April 16, with all the profits going to the March of Dimes. The first car will be flagged out of Folly's supermarket parking lot at 1 p.m. There will be two sets of trophies awarded to the first and second place drivers and navigators.

This rally is open to anyone who can drive a car and read street signs. A sense of humor is also a requirement since there are many confusing gimmicks which can lead to slight altercations and differences of opinion between even the closest team of driver and navigator. The rally will cover 160 miles of undisclosed territory so a full tank of gas would also be advisable.

Drag Club members will man the checkpoints and the entry booth will open at 12:30 for early registration. Last year the club was able to donate about $60 to the United Fund. This year they hope to raise even more money for the March of Dimes.

The public is invited to attend this fun-filled event.

James G. Baxter Promoted with Potlatch Forests

James G. Baxter, the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Baxter, 1218 Meadow Lane, has been promoted to the new position of supervisor of systems and programming in the data processing and systems department of Potlatch Forests, Inc., Lewiston.

Prior to his promotion, Baxter worked as systems analyst for the company and had previously been employed in the same capacity by the Boeing Co. in Seattle. Other employment included teaching high school mathematics and coaching basketball in the Carman School District, Flint.

He and his wife, Kathleen, and their two daughters, Colleen and Patricia, will continue to reside in Lewiston.

State Aid Funds Paid to Schools

State Representative Thomas G. Sharpe has announced the amount of the payments which should be made to the school districts within his legislative district by April 1. The Chelsea School District will receive $100,227 while the Dexter Community School District will receive $80,124.

Other area school districts will receive payment as follows: Manchester Public School District, $38,412; Milan Area Schools, $165,350; Saline Area Schools, $63,620; and the Ann Arbor City School District, $327,240.

Track Team Wins Over Tecumseh

Chelsea High school's track team got off to a running start by winning its first league dual meet of the year. An earlier meet scheduled for last Thursday against Dexter was postponed until May 15 because of inclement weather. However, the layoff certainly did not effect the squad as they swept the relay events and went on to best Tecumseh, 68½-54½.

Coach Bert Kruse was pleased with the team's performance but didn't think Tecumseh measured up to other competition they will face later in the season. Tecumseh had some fine individual athletes, but over-all is not as strong as Saline which is seen as Chelsea's stiffest opponent for the league title.

Chelsea won the 880-yd. relay in a time of 1:39.5 when the Tecumseh team was disqualified for exchanging the baton outside of the exchange zone. The winning team consisted of Marty Cashdollar, Craig Coltre, Dan Berke, and Lee Ferguson.

The 440-yd. relay was also won by the Bulldogs in a time of 48.9. This team was comprised of Lee Ferguson, Ishmael Picklesimer, Carl Gauss, and Tim Lancaster.

Completing the sweep of the relay events, Chelsea took the mile relay event in 3:41.9. The team of Dan Hoover, Jeff Marshall, Dan Berke, and Dave Buxton turned in the winning performance.

Field specialists also tasted victory this week as junior Bill Tite placed first in the high jump with a leap of 5' 8" and Tim Lancaster won the pole vault event with a jump of 12'. Don Pierson finished second in the event with a jump of 11'.

In other field events, Randy Seitz and Ishmael Picklesimer finished second and third in the shot put with tosses of 47' 3" and 42' 4", respectively. Craig Coltre and Lee Ferguson finished second and third in the long jump with 18' 11" and 18' 1½" efforts.

Chelsea did extremely well in the running events with senior Dave Buxton winning both the 440- and 880-yd. runs with times of :55 and 2:14. Lee Ferguson finished second in the 440 with a time of :55.3. The 100-yd. dash was won by Marty Cashdollar in :10.8 with Ishmael Picklesimer finishing third at :11.1. Cashdollar also placed third in the 220-yd. run with a time of :25.1. Chelsea's Jim McGinn took a third in the mile run with a time of 5:41.9. Howard Schenk placed second in the two-mile event with a time of 11:48.

Craig Coltre did yeoman duty in the hurdle events, winning the 180-yd. downs with a time of :22.3, and finishing second in the 120-yd. high hurdles with a time of :18.2. The next, and most important, dual meet is scheduled against Saline Thursday, April 13, followed by Milan, Tuesday, April 18. Both meets are to be held on Chelsea's home ground and will begin at 4 p.m.

Donkins' Horse Wins Ribbons at Bloomfield Show

Ibn Asal, a horse owned by local riding enthusiasts Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Donkin of 875 Glazier Rd., Cavanaugh Lake, won ribbons in a recent Bloomfield show. The horse, a seven-year-old, Anglo-Arab, finished fifth and sixth among a field of 20 competitors in its first outing.

Executing the complicated exercises required in the dressage competition was Penny Bartlett, a young rider from the Majestic F stables outside of Ann Arbor. The horse placed in both the junior and novice classes.

The Donkins are quite a riding family even down to their six-year-old son. Mrs. Donkin and her nine-year-old daughter will be competing at Stony Ridge next Sunday.

THE DENHAM HOME at 9741 W. Liberty Rd., is still a beautiful relic of an earlier day. Enlarged and restored, it now serves modern day needs without losing its antique charm.

LIMA TOWNSHIP HISTORICAL SPOTS:

Denham Home Built in 1864 By Son of Pioneer Family

Editor's Note: This article is the second in our series of stories dealing with some of the older homes and pioneer families in the area. Much of the information has been unearthed in conjunction with Lima township's land-use study.

In the autumn of 1831 Richard and Ellen Smith, their seven-month-old son, and Ellen's two teen-age brothers set out for the New World from York-shire, England, a journey which was not to end until they had reached what was then the Territory of Michigan.

They bought some land from the government and settled down on property which stayed in the hands of relatives for well over a century. Their farm is now given the address of 9741 W. Liberty, Chelsea, and belongs to Harry and Virginia Denham.

The Smiths had six children, but only one of their descendants, great-grandson Neil Smith of Dexter, remains in the area.

The home in which the Denhams are now living was built by Ebenezer, Richard and Ellen's second son, about 1864. Previously, the family had lived in the home of Richard's brother, Thomas, an earlier settler. In 1841, only a decade after immigrating to Michigan, Richard Smith died, as did his wife six years later, the six children continuing to live at home until their marriages.

Of the six children, Ebenezer is perhaps the most famous as a founding resident of the area. The first of the clan to be born in Michigan, he married Isabella B. Mains in 1857. Seven years later he built the family home and continued to live in the area until his death in 1930 at age 97.

In addition to farming, Ebenezer was active in the community as a teacher, township officer, a Baptist deacon, and a writer. In his later years he published a religious tract and at the age of 95 was working on a book he called "The Rise of Religious Liberty." He served as township justice of the peace three times, as supervisor once and as township superintendent of schools for two terms.

In a newspaper interview at age 95 Ebenezer reported he had never used tobacco in any form, played cards, danced, or indulged in liquor "except to the extent of determining that I didn't like the stuff."

But alcohol, he admitted, was a familiar part of the farm scene. "I can remember when the whiskey bottle was just as important to farm work as the water jug," he told the reporter.

He also spoke of the popular practice of "raisings," when the people would get together and help their neighbors put up houses or barns. "Liquor always flowed freely at those affairs, and sometimes, when it was passed around before the raising started, half of the help was in no condition to raise anything but Cain," he was quoted as saying.

Ebenezer and Isabella Smith had two children, Arthur, who died in infancy, and Samuel, who married Carrie Egeler and was the father of Neil, now living in Dexter. The farm was sold to George Egeler, the brother of Carrie Egeler Smith, and remained in that part of the family until the early 1950's, when it was sold to Millard Dockery and in turn to the Denhams.

Since the Denhams took possession a decade ago the appearance of the old farmstead has changed somewhat. One of the big barns built by Ebenezer has been torn down, its beams and siding used to add onto the main house. The Denhams have also added a living room and garage and have dug several farm ponds.

Mrs. Floyd E. Gentner, 316 Jackson, returned home Sunday, April 9 from a week's vacation in the sun on Waikiki Beach, Honolulu. She accompanied her son, Duane, and his family from Hanover Park, Ill.

Friends of Library Seeks New Members

1972 marks the 40th anniversary of the founding of Chelsea's McKune Memorial Library. The interest generated in this anniversary year has prompted the revival of the once defunct "Friends of the Library" society. Dormant for three years because of a general lack of interest, it is once again actively seeking membership.

A meeting in October of last year resulted in the election of an executive board which lost no time in launching its membership drive. The board, comprised of Mrs. George Palmer, resident; Mrs. Lyle Chriswell, vice-president; Mrs. Fred Asmussen, secretary-treasurer; and members at large, William J. Rademacher, and Mrs. Robert Daniels, decided that a widespread letter writing campaign would probably be the most effective. They sent more than 650 letters of invitation to former members of the society, library card holders, local businessmen, and new Chelsea residents. Mrs. Palmer would like to stress the fact that her list was by no means conclusive and that anyone who is interested in the library and its services is invited to join.

There is a nominal membership fee which will be renewable annually: students, 50 cents; individuals, $2; family, $5; patron, $10; and lifetime or memorial memberships, $100. The money collected will be put into a fund to improve the building and its grounds. This year's project will be to refurbish the upstairs meeting room and do additional landscaping.

The group plans to meet twice a year to discuss future projects and listen to a topical speaker. The first meeting of this year will be Monday, April 24, 8 p.m. at the library. The guest lecturer will be Professor Merle Crawford of the University of Michigan's business school with the topic: "End of Poverty, Pops, Pans, and Pregnancy." For additional information call the library, 475-7040.

High School Choir Tops In Festival

Miss DiAnn L'Roy and her Chelsea High School Choir have just returned from a stunning performance in the International Festival of the America's competition. Twenty-two students accompanied their instructor to Nassau last week where they achieved a third place rating.

Five other choral groups participated, however, scoring is not based on head-to-head competition. Rather the groups are scored on a point system against a set standard of excellence, much like the older festival held annually in Wales. There were no first or second place ratings achieved in this year's competition.

Miss L'Roy was particularly pleased by the performance of her group because this was the first time Chelsea High School has participated in the event.

One-Hitter Sparks Bulldog Baseball Team

Senior Wayne Welton pitched one-hit baseball as the Chelsea Bulldogs romped to a 10-0 victory over hapless Dexter, Tuesday, April 11.

Welton pitched perfect ball until a routine pop fly fell in for a single.

"He should have had a no-hitter," stated Coach Genske, "it was a routine fly ball. The outfielder simply misjudged it and lost it in the sun, but it was a legitimate hit." He declined to name the culprit on the play.

An opening 3-2 loss to Manchester on Monday, April 10, obviously did nothing to dampen the team's spirit or its title hopes. In an all-out effort to dethrone league champion South Lyon this year the team flew to Ft. Lauderdale, Fla., over Easter break for a week of instruction at the Ft. Lauderdale Baseball School. The coach feels the trip was a huge success because his squad received invaluable training at the school.

Apparently it was a success, although Dexter was not a real test for the team. The final answer will come when the Bulldogs face arch-rival South Lyon and Novi, both of which are rated as being extremely tough this year.

Special Millage Issues OK'd By School Board

In a special meeting Friday, April 7, the Board of Education passed three motions calling for increased millage appropriations. The new proposals will go to the voters in the special election to be held May 8.

The first proposal raised by G. Straub and supported by R. Schafer was to request 10.98 extra mills for the next two years. The motion was passed unanimously.

The second motion was supported by Don Irwin and called for a one mill levy for the next three years to establish a building and site fund. The additional money will be used to buy new sites, construct facilities, and renovate existing facilities. The motion was carried by a 4 to 2 margin.

The third proposal concerning millage assessment was raised by Howard Haselschwardt and seconded by Irwin. It will request of the voters one mill for the next two years for capital outlay and was approved by a 5 to 1 vote.

Saturday's Travelogue Will Feature Portugal

Area residents can treat themselves to a quick trip to Portugal Saturday by attending the Kiwanis Club's travelogue series entitled "Open Arms of Portugal" to be presented April 15 at 8 p.m. in the high school auditorium. The film and lecture will be presented by the much-travelled James Metcalf.

Metcalf, a native of Michigan, attended the University of Michigan, earning money for his education by working in the field of photography. While on a family vacation to Central America in 1953 he became interested in making travel films and has since produced a series of travelogues on various countries of the Western Hemisphere. He has recently started production of a series of films for Walt Disney Films of Hollywood.

Metcalf has published a great number of magazine articles and stories for various periodicals as well as illustrated travel and text books for such companies as Rand McNally and Doubleday.

JAMES METCALF

Metcalf flies his own plane which enables him and his family to travel extensively throughout not only the United States, but Canada, Mexico and the Caribbean.

Boys at St. Louis School Sending Truck to Guatemala

The boys at the St. Louis school have their fingers crossed this week as a dump truck with the sign "Guatemala Or Bust" truck towards New Orleans. The truck is a much-needed gift from the school to a mission in Guatemala. It is scheduled to arrive in New Orleans sometime after April 14 and then will be shipped by an international charitable organization to the Central American country.

The project was sponsored by the Rev. Fr. Gerardo Pegoraro, but the idea originated with Sister Angelica who recently left the school. The sister was recently transferred to the mission in Guatemala after working at the school for five years. She recognized the need for a truck to carry heavy cement blocks to building sites near the mission and notified the school, hoping that perhaps a used truck could be found. Father Pegoraro and his boys immediately set about looking for a suitable truck. They raised the money through various donations and found a heavy duty used truck in Ypsilanti.

All systems seemed go. But, because of electrical problems, the truck was forced to turn back almost before it left Ann Arbor. With the help of CAP Corp., Ann Arbor, Palmer Motor Sales, the Ford Motor Co., a local tire firm, and more contributions by local residents, the truck finally left Saturday from the Civitan Club in Ann Arbor.

The truck is being driven by relay teams from the Civitan Club. Father Pegoraro had hoped to drive the vehicle himself but realized that at 45 mph the trip would take too much time away from his work at the school.

Recording Contract Possible

A recording contract is a possibility for two members of the local Blue Mountain Band. Kenny Bently and Hattie Brown recently traveled to Alger, O., and performed with Pearl and Carl Butler of the Grand Ole Opry. The Butlers expressed an interest in signing the duo to a recording contract sometime in the near future.

Kenny and Hattie aren't waiting around though. They will play at the Chelsea High School Barn Dance April 22, with all proceeds going to the Michigan School for the Blind in Lansing.

Maple Grove Cemetery Association Will Meet

Maple Grove Cemetery Association will hold its annual meeting at the Willis Heydlauff home Friday, April 14 at 7:30 p.m.

There will be a cleaning bee on April 15 and 16. Help from anyone who has an interest in the cemetery will be appreciated.

LIVESTOCK EXCHANGE: Ten miles south of Chelsea, the Michigan Livestock Exchange is constructing a brand new facility, consisting of about 70,000 square feet and located on a 40-acre parcel. Until now the Michigan Exchange, largest in the state, has been located in Detroit. The new building is scheduled to open May 1 and will include an auction ring, pens for sheep, hogs and feeder cattle, offices, and a restaurant. Auctions will be held twice weekly. Ground-breaking for the exchange took place nearly a year ago in May of 1971. The market is expected to serve an area of 10-12 counties.

Washington Report by Congressman MARVIN L. ESCH

One of the most frustrating things about the 1970's is the realization that we have the technical capability to solve almost all of our problems. If man can walk on the moon, the argument goes, then why can't he cure cancer, clean up the slums, stop water and air pollution, stop hunger, and provide quality education for all, provide quality medical care for all, stop birth defects, etc., etc., etc.

The answer is, of course, that man probably can solve each of these problems; but he can't solve them all at once. That is where the difficult questions of choice face our decision makers. Should we make an all-out effort to solve one major problem and let the others stagnate; should we divide our resources to give a little bit of attention to every problem, thus realizing that we will not solve any of them. If we divide our resources, which problems should receive the most attention?

These are the kinds of questions and the kinds of choices which the Administration and the Congress make each year when they write the budget and approve appropriations. These choices are not easy ones. They are not choices between effective programs and ineffective programs, but between good programs and better programs.

Let us take just one area—health—as an example. Assume for the purposes of this column that the United States this year had $1 billion more that it could spend on health programs. Should it be spent on research? If so, should it be spent on curing cancer, heart disease, sickle cell anemia, birth defects, kidney disease, or mental disease? Or perhaps, instead, it should be spent on health care delivery. If so, should it provide a medical and dental checkup for every child under six? Or should it be used to improve the care of millions of senior citizens who lack essential health services? Or should it be used to establish medical clinics in our slums and poor rural areas? Or perhaps, instead of research and care, the money should be spent on training new doctors, nurses, and allied health care personnel. Or maybe we should build new and up-to-date facilities.

But the choices don't stop there. Perhaps, after all, instead of spending that extra billion dollars on health, it should be spent on education, or pollution control.

The point, I think, is obvious. There are hundreds, perhaps thousands, of important programs which the government could, and perhaps should, undertake. But they cannot all be undertaken at once, with maximum funding and attention. Some will have to be diminished in scope from the optimum; others will have to be deferred altogether.

The President has submitted to the Congress a budget which will spend $55.5 billion more than we take in taxes. There are undoubtedly programs which should be cut back, others should be eliminated altogether. Even after these actions are taken, however, there is still not going to be enough money to undertake all the important and good programs which have been proposed.

It is essential that the Congress, as well as the President, set priorities. We simply can't accomplish everything at once. There is a limit to the amount that the government can spend. That is why I cannot support increases in every program which I believe is a good one. I simply must make choices and give my support to those programs which are the most important and which have the highest priority. Congress must make hard choices and that sometimes means personal favorites get left behind.

Restrictions Added

The legislature took a couple of steps forward in opening the political process when it enacted a presidential primary for Michigan, but it took a step or two backward, too.

While it gave Michigan voters a direct voice in how their state delegations will vote in Miami Beach and San Diego this year, it cut a bit of a crimp in the time honored petition process.

Incorporated into the new law setting up the primary was a provision barring the circulating of petitions within 100 feet of a polling place. The primary bill was an opportune time for the lawmakers to do it, since the primary itself received all the attention.

It was accepted procedure, until now, to circulate petitions at polling places, and the attorney general's office had drawn guidelines to make sure petition circulators didn't interfere with the voting.

The presidential primary on May 16 is early enough that the various groups working to put propositions on the November ballot this year may use the day to circulate petitions.

Polling places are especially valuable as petition circulation spots because the circulator is assured the signatures of registered voters and a steady supply of potential signers all day.

There was some suspicion in Lansing that one of the main reasons for the new restriction was the drive for a one house legislature conducted by State Rep. Joe Swallow, R-Alpena.

A blitz was planned by Swallow and his followers for May 16 to secure the needed names. Since his proposal would unseat at least 72 of the incumbent legislators, it hasn't drawn much favorable comment in the legislative chambers.

The new restriction is unfortunate on a much broader scale. In these days of increasing alienation between the citizen and his government, the petition route remains one of the few direct links between voter and legislator.

Unwillingness or inability has been apparent in recent years for the legislators to handle such controversial topics as abortion reform or property tax relief. With a $107,000 a year salary on the line, many legislators have been reluctant to go out on a limb on such issues.

It seems terribly unfortunate that the lawmakers, after being unable to do it themselves, make it harder for the people to secure needed reforms.

Mistakes Begin

The age of computerized mailing lists has resulted in a rapid increase in instances of candidates receiving letters asking for contributions to their opponent's campaign or to another member of the opposition party.

The long series of mixups has begun again in Michigan.

State Rep. Thomas Guastello, apparently was the first recipient of such a mailing this year. Guastello reports he received a letter from former Commerce Secretary Maurice Stans, chairman of the Finance Committee for the re-election of the President, and a membership card for the committee.

The letter asked for money to help President Nixon's try for a second term. Guastello, a lifelong Democrat, refused.

Animal Fatalities

A more intriguing, though perhaps less useful, bit of information to come along recently: the raccoon appears to be the worst yawn-walker in the animal kingdom, at least in Ionia county.

That report comes from the State Highway Department by way of the Ionia County Road Commission, which is the only county in the state to keep such records.

The commission reported picking up 445 raccoons which were killed crossing 114 miles of state highways in 1971.

TODAY'S THOUGHT

By LOUIS BURGHARDT

Perhaps the biggest problem facing the church today is the mood of the people; their indifference to the church. There seems to be an aloofness beyond human understanding. This is especially true in personal responsibility in the church.

Can any one explain what good it does to sing, "Had I a thousand hearts to give, Lord, they should all be Thine" . . . and then refuse Him the talent, time and money needed to carry on church work? Contrary to often held opinion, churches are NOT well off financially.

Percentage wise, missionary work is no where near the norm of former times. Daily expense of the church building such as heat, light and maintenance go up and up. Underpaid ministers (in all denominations) have been given, on an average, only a 17% increase over a five year period. This is the lowest increase in ANY profession, or in skilled or even unskilled labor. Isn't it about time to realize spiritual abundance is impossible without a sensible accounting of personal stewardship to God . . . BURGHARDT FUNERAL HOME, 214 East Middle St., Chelsea, Mich. and girls on roller skates and bikes and this year, in addition, the Washtenaw Farm Council board of directors will be sponsoring a special Auction Sale on Friday, May 5. The proceeds of the sale will be earmarked to help retire the debt on the recently purchased land.

Right now, as you begin to think about the annual spring housecleaning tasks in the garage, the barn or the house, remember the upcoming Auction Sale, and set aside such things as hand tools, lamps, milk cans, barrels, lawn mowers (just the ones that work, please, though), as well as household or lawn furniture, outgrown bicycles, garden tools or that set of dishes you hate to throw out because someone could probably use it. Maybe your household just doesn't use certain of these items, but somebody else could, and will gladly pay for them.

Any and all of the merchandise suitable for the Auction Sale may be taken to the Farm Council Grounds on Saline Rd. at the following times: Wednesday, April 19, 6 to 10 p.m.; Saturday, April 22, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.; Wednesday, April 26, from 6 to 10 p.m.; also Saturday, April 29, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Committees have volunteered to lay out and display merchandise for the sales event, as well as to check sale facilities and provide clerking.

A pair of auctioneers, Lloyd Braun of Jennings Rd., and Jerry Helmer of Plymouth, have agreed to donate their services for this event, and they will also assist in clerking the sale.

Any special questions about the sale, or about obtaining further information on the event, may be addressed to Don Johnson at his office in the Washtenaw County Building during business hours—663-7611, extension 227. Leonard Bunmeister of Saline will also be available to give further information on the auction sale, at 428-7187, and Lloyd Braun's phone number is 865-9646, another information source.

Current officers for the Farm Council, in addition to president Leonard Bunmeister, are Bob Holaday, vice-president; Ron Sparrow, secretary; Clinton Fisk, treasurer. Also serving on the board of directors are Robert Starling, Harold Whitlock, William Frahm, Dean Fisher, Stan Poet and Richard Thompson.

Assistant Scoutmaster Jerry Heller inducted two new boys, Jimmy Leach and Mike Kropf into Boy Scout Troop 425.

In a special presentation, Jerry Heller was cited for having served for two years as scoutmaster of Cub Scout Pack 445.

The meeting also included the judging of entries for the annual Father and Son Cake Baking Contest. This year's judging panel consisted of Dave Bowbier, district representative from scout headquarters, Mike Eubanks, and Charles Burgess, a guest from Pack 455. ## Howard Holmes, N. R. DeFord Head Hospital Fund Campaign

Howard S. Holmes, president of Chelsea State Bank, and a director of the Ann Arbor Trust Co. He additionally is a member of the St. Joseph Mercy Hospital Community Advisory Board, where he holds the post of vice-chairman.

DeFord has been an Ann Arbor resident since 1961. For many years he was associated with the J. C. Penny Co., and is a former president of Ann Arbor Chamber of Commerce, Catholic Social Services, and the local United Fund.

He also served as co-chairman of the joint YMOA-YWCA campaign for a new building here.

The St. Joseph Mercy Building Fund Campaign is being conducted to raise a portion of the projected $26 million cost of erecting a new medical complex on Huron River Dr., off Clark Rd., in Superior township.

Anticipated completion date of the new facility is 1976.

THE LANSING REPORT
FROM Senator
GIL BURSLEY

If I were limited to stressing just one basic point, in my efforts to make the role of the state legislator more clearly understood by the citizens he serves, it would be this:

The difficulties that confront state government today are so complex in their nature and so awesome in their magnitude that they are compounded rather than diminished by demands for simplistic solutions.

In other words, there are no easy answers for tough problems. And those who insist upon easy answers do a double disservice to themselves and to the government they represent:

1) They hinder the work of the elected and appointed officials who are responding to the challenges of our time in a responsible manner.

2) They fail to recognize the political opportunities which, though not always obvious, are available to those who have the courage to face the challenges of our time.

This is true in every major area of present-day public concern, including our new awareness of the fragility of our environmental heritage, our alarm at the scope and intensity of the drug-abuse problem, and our rebellion against ever-rising property taxes.

The complex and dedicated work being done on new treatment programs and needed research is hardly helped by a demand for easy answers.

Nor is the problem that many regard as the chief domestic difficulty confronting us today — the fact that local property taxes, with their inherent inequities, have risen to record levels.

But responsible officials, who recognize the need to shift a substantial portion of educational and governmental costs from the property tax to other revenue sources, must work to find answers to many complex questions.

How do we sharply increase state financing of schools without lessening or destroying the desirable aspects of local control and local initiative?

What types of replacement taxes will be most equitable for individuals? For business and industry? And what method should the state use to redistribute revenue to local districts?

These are the types of questions that must be pondered by any responsible legislator who is sincerely concerned with improving our state and our society. I urge the citizens who share such concerns to support the search for meaningful solutions. The demand for easy answers to complex problems can only hinder our work.

Had your blood pressure checked? You may have high blood pressure and not know it. The test is quick and harmless; it's done in any doctor's office. With medical care, high blood pressure—HBP—can be checked. Unchecked, it is the single most important cause of stroke, which can be a catastrophe, with such consequences as paralysis or worse, says the Michigan Heart Association, adding, "get checked."

More than 140 University of members have consulting affiliations with industry.

The proposed legislation would almost totally nullify the 1970 farm act as far as wheat and feed grains are concerned.

The American Farm Bureau Federation, with a membership of more than two million farm families, would like to have the 1970 Act run through the 1973 crop year to determine whether its effect is beneficial to our economy.

Before we leap to something else, let's give the 1970 Act a chance.

Thanks to plenty of food and nutrition know-how, protein deficiency in America is relatively rare. Where it exists, however, there are some of the symptoms: premature aging, poor muscle tone and posture, anemia and slow recovery from illness or surgery.

District Judge Elden Will Seek New Circuit Judgeship

The Honorable S. J. Elden, Judge of the 15th District Court, Ann Arbor, has announced that he is a candidate for Judge of the 22nd Judicial Circuit, comprised of the County of Washtenaw. Two judges will be elected in this circuit this November.

Judge Elden explained the reason for his decision to seek promotion to the higher court by noting that "The legislature has recognized the ever increasing caseload in the county by allocating an additional judge. Many people have urged me to bring my record of expertise, gained through extensive experience, to bear on the greater responsibilities and breadth of issues at the circuit court level."

Judge Elden has been a district judge since 1969 when the new district court system became operational. He served as a municipal judge from 1966 through 1968 and as Assistant Ann Arbor City Attorney from 1956 to 1966.

He has spent his entire professional life in Ann Arbor where he began the practice of law in 1950 upon graduation from Wayne State University Law School. While in law school, Judge Elden founded and served as executive director of the University Veterans' Association. He was also in Omicron Delta Kappa, national honor society and the David McKenzle Honor Society.

Judge Elden is a member of the American Bar Association, Michigan Bar Association, Washtenaw County Bar Association, American Judicature Society, North American Judges Association and the Michigan District Judges Association.

In 1969, Judge Elden was awarded a special citation from the American Bar Association for innovation and improvements made in local traffic court procedures. Specifically, the award recognized the Driver Improvement School, directed by Judge Elden, the counseling he has provided and the weekly "reference" session where traffic law violators may explain extenuating circumstances.

Judge Elden is the co-founder of the nationally recognized District Court Antibuse Program which seeks to deal fairly with the problem drinker who drives. Emphasis is on rehabilitation through counseling and medical treatment, and extensive supervision is provided.

The Chelsea Standard, Thursday, April 13, 1972 10

From Mrs. Ethel A. Moffett, Maryland: Around this time of year, I remember how my grandmother was taught to color Easter eggs. There was either a scarcity of bright color dyes or they were too expensive a luxury for the poor to buy.

About a month before Easter, my grandmother would gather and preserve the skins from the onion. When she had a pound of onion skins, not onions, she would put them on the stove to boil. After boiling they would simmer as one by one the hardboiled eggs were placed in the small pot and covered over with the juice and the skins themselves. If the onion skins remained on the egg for any time, a beautiful lighter shade than the surrounding color would appear. The color depended on the length of time they remained in the onion water. Colors vary from deep brown to delicate tawny shades.

To this day I follow the old way, and the results are beautiful.

Congress May Enact
New Farm Legislation

Congress is at it again. Many times our United States Congress passes legislation and then reverses it or passes a new bill on the same issue before the first piece of legislation has time to be evaluated for its effectiveness.

Such is the case with the Agricultural Act of 1970.

A major revision of the Agricultural Act of 1970, which would drastically change the current government farm program for wheat and feed grains, may be considered by the Senate Agricultural Committee as Congress reconvenes.

The proposed legislation (H. R. 1183) sometimes called the "Strategic Grain Reserve Bill" was passed by the House of Representatives on Dec. 8, 1971 by the close vote of 182 to 170.

This being a political year, the bumper 1971 corn and wheat crops and low grain prices provided some of the impetus for the proposed legislation. If passed, which is far from certain, the measure would change the direction of recent government policy which has been somewhat aimed at making farm production and prices more market oriented.

This bill would create a government strategic reserve of 300 million bushels of wheat and 25 million tons of feed grains. These commodities could be released for sale by the government at a price of 120 percent of the average price farmers received in the U.S. during the preceding five marketing years for the commodity involved. The loan level for 1971 and 1972 crops of wheat and feed grains would be increased by 25 percent.

The proposed legislation would almost totally nullify the 1970 farm act as far as wheat and feed grains are concerned.

The American Farm Bureau Federation, with a membership of more than two million farm families, would like to have the 1970 Act run through the 1973 crop year to determine whether its effect is beneficial to our economy.

Before we leap to something else, let's give the 1970 Act a chance.

SUNDAY'S SERMON*★ What's Right

Unfortunately, things in this world are not always clearly la- beled good or bad, right or wrong, proper or improper. What seems bad or improper to some people, seems good or proper to others.

What is right? This is a ques- tion that only each individual can answer himself. Sure, religions and laws establish certain basic moral and ethical principles that we all must live by, but what about those areas of gray, of doubt?

Each of us should try each day to live up to the highest standards possible. Every moral and ethical judgement we make should follow this standard. We should weigh each thought and see how it meas- ures up to our standard.

By using a high standard, we can apply it beneficially to many things - ourselves, our community, our nation and our world. It is up to us.
