Dr. Blanchard Initiates Coronary Open Tourney

Some months ago Dr. Gerald Blanchard, Chelsea Medical Clinic, had an idea. An excellent idea, yet simple. So simple in fact that he thought it had probably already been explored. But rather than forgetting about it, he decided to pursue it. As a result of his idea, interest and his energy, the Michigan Heart Association inaugurated the extremely successful Coronary Open Golf Tournament. A tournament whose success will make it an annual event.

DR. GERALD BLANCHARD

The Coronary Open was held at the Bald Mountain Golf Course outside Pontiac, and was attended by more than 125 persons—all of whom had recovered from a heart attack or heart surgery.

According to "Challenge" the Michigan Heart Association publication, the Bald Mountain golf course is flat, easy and in very good condition. The 29 par nine-hole course takes about 1 1/2 hours to play. And play they did, Mrs. Blanchard reported that wives and husbands of coronary and heart patients played along.

"It was therapy for us (Dr. Blanchard suffered a coronary in July of 1972) to talk with others about our family related problems." She added that a heart ailment of any kind affects not only the patient but his or her family. "You tend to look at them differently, treat them in a different way." One individual present at the tournament remarked that a coronary patient after recovery is often treated as though dead, the family treats that member as if he or she is a fragile china vase. And from Mrs. Blanchard's conversation, it was obvious that such action can put an entire family on edge.

To promote the tournament, Mrs. Blanchard and her husband worked together on radio spots for Jackson, Lansing and Ann Arbor stations. At one point, Harriet Neuman who was organizing the tournament, had to call a halt to the number of registrants. The radio spots had done the job and there simply was not room for another participant.

Spokesman from the Michigan Heart Association reported that success of the event surpassed their greatest expectations. Louis E. Rentz, D.O., Detroit area neurologist, and president-elect of the Heart Association, personally thanked Dr. and Mrs. Blanchard for their efforts to make the event such a great success. Dr. Rentz said, "We are very happy this event is off to such a great start. And I personally want to express thanks on behalf of the Michigan Heart Association to Dr. Blanchard for the idea and the effort he and his wife have contributed to make it so successful."

Blanchard dreamed up his idea during the nine-month recovery period after his coronary attack in July 1972. He had a lot of time to let it mull around in his head, and once recovered, he acted.

The tournament was held Thursday, Sept. 11. Golfers arrived at the course only to be met with rain. Mrs. Blanchard immediately brightened and said, "No one canceled despite the weather. We had a great time."

Celebrities present to join in on the fun were Sir Graves Ghastly, Bozo the Clown, Mr. and Mrs. Belvedere, Bob Tal-vert, Vincent Doyle and Pete Walmeir among others.

During the ceremony following the full day of golf, prizes contributed by area merchants were awarded to a number of golfers for their performance. The biggest excitement of the day was generated when a Jackson man, William Richards, shot a hole-in-one on the eighth hole.

Following the day's events Dr. Rentz said, "This event points out that, under proper medical supervision, the majority of recovered heart attack or heart surgery patients can indeed enjoy many of their former recreational activities... and have a lot of fun doing them."

The Blanchards said that because of the success of the Coronary Open they would like to see it become a regional event, "so that other states can carry it."

The Michigan Heart Association is a United Way of Michigan agency.

Motorists Passing Halted School Buses

"Nobody has been hurt or killed, but it could happen," said Chelsea bus superintendent Ralph Brier when speaking about motorists who are not stopping for school buses.

"This is not just one isolated incident," he continued, "it's happening all the time. Drivers report at least one every day."

Brier is understandably concerned. The situation if it continues or worsens "could result in serious consequences for youngsters" who ride buses.

Many motorists forget and some are careless about school bus procedure. For every driver the laws published in the booklet "What Every Driver Must Know" by the State of Michigan states,

"On divided highways, traffic in both directions must stop at least 10 feet from a school bus that has alternating flashing red lights turned on. You must remain stopped until the flashers are turned off or the bus starts. On divided highways, traffic approaching a school bus from the opposite direction does not have to stop. You are required to stop for a school bus within city or village limits when there is a local ordinance conforming to the state law."

Brier said that he has avoided issuing tickets for the driving violations because ticketing offend-

Open House Set Monday at Beach School

Parents of 6th, 7th and 8th graders who attend Beach Middle school are invited to an Open House Monday, Sept. 29 from 7 to 9:30 p.m. at the school.

According to Principal Alan Conklin, the format for the open house will consist of a "capsule" schedule, with parents following their youngster's schedule for 10-minute "classes." Purpose is to provide parents with an opportunity to meet the teachers and to become better acquainted with the school's curriculum.

Conklin stressed that the evening is not intended for individual conferences between parents and teachers.

Parents are asked to report to their child's homeroom upon their arrival at the school. Following the capsule, refreshments will be served in the cafeteria.

Conklin added that parents of 5th graders will visit the school at a later date.

Cross Country Wins Over Novi, 15-49

Chelsea shut out Novi last Thursday for their first cross country league meet of the season, 15-49.

Coach Pat Clarke noted that a "shut-out" occurs when runners of one team, occupy the first five places, which the Bulldogs seemed to have managed with ease.

First-place runner was Phil Frame with a time of 17:17 for the course, followed by Rick Haller, 17:21 Dean Thompson, 17:34; John Storey, 17:43 and Morris Johnson, 17:52.

On Saturday, the Bulldogs traveled to Olivet College for the Olivet Invitational. Clarke remarked that it was a "tough field and everyone was closely bunched." Despite the fact that the Bulldogs managed to score 20 points less than last year when they attended the Invitational, they went down to 13th place. "Not good," Clarke said but added that it was "good experience for the boys."

Chelsea placers were 31st, Rick Haller with a time of 17:35; 42, Phil Frame, 17:40. John Storey placed 53rd, followed by Dean Thompson, 58, and Bill Rademacher, 72.

Today (Thursday) the Bulldogs will run against the league favorite Brighton, a team Clarke proposes to be "very tough." "We will either do very well or very bad," he said.

Clarke reported that the Oct. 9 meet scheduled with Milan has been canceled because Milan has not fielded a team this year.

Easter Lily Blooms

Mrs. Dave Pastor called to report that her Easter Lily in the backyard of her Jerusalem Rd. home sports two blossoms. "I think that is kind of unusual for this time of year," she remarked.

Congregational Church Receives National Award

First Congregational church, Chelsea, has been awarded second place by the Congregational Christian Historical Society for the best program and printed materials presented by churches of the Congregational Consistency of less than 500 members in connection with celebration of an important anniversary.

The award came as the result of the church's 125th Anniversary Celebration in February of 1974.

According to the church secretary, Shirley Chapman, the Congregational Christian Historical Society reminded First Congregational of its significant date and offered their assistance and suggestions in the planning and use of materials for their celebration.

Mrs. Chapman, who was then historian, worked on the booklet program and celebration. Just recently she was notified that at its annual meeting in Ledyard, Conn., the society approved the recommendation of the Fagley Awards Committee that the second prize for the 1974 competition go to Chelsea.

Dr. Frederick L. Fagley in whose memory the four annual awards are given, was the founder and first executive secretary of the CCHS.

Mrs. Chapman remarked, "We are all very proud."

Golf Team Still in Race For Title

With a season record that now stands at four and three, Varsity Golf Coach Pat Wade believes his team "still has a chance."

Wade explained that the Conference meet to be held Oct. 8 in Dexter will give the Bulldogs another shot at the conference title. "One can be as low as third entering the meet and still come out on top," Wade said.

Wade reported that the Bulldogs won one and lost one in a dual meet held last Wednesday, Sept. (Continued on page six)

Industrial UW Chairman Wants 100%

"100 percent." A figure that Jerry Heller, industrial chairman for Chelsea United Way hopes to see from every industry in the area.

Heller made the remark while talking about corporate and business donations. "We would prefer to see each employee give, regardless of the size of the donation, rather than one large donation from a particular business," he said. Heller explained "we would have 100 percent participation from those who live and work in Chelsea."

"We'd like everyone to feel that they have participated in the drive. He continued, "almost everyone in the community benefits in some manner from United Way donations."

Heller, who is manager of Chelsea Heat Treating, said that certificates signed by himself and this year's campaign chairman, Marje Robbins, will be given to companies and businesses that contribute 100 percent to the drive. "Even if that 100 percent is limited to three employees that make up a firm," he concluded,

Gridders Roll Over Lincoln, Ready for Novi

Chelsea Bulldogs took their second win of the season last Friday evening when they defeated the Lincoln Railsplitters, 28-0.

In the first quarter of play Chelsea quarterback, Randy Guenther received Lincoln's opening kick-off on his own 15-yard line. Behind a wedge of Jim Marshall, Rex Miles, Eric Prinzing, Don Sullivan, Dennis Bauer, Joel Sprague and Jim Boyer, a hole opened and Randy outran the last two defenders for an 85-yard touchdown. Rex Miles kicked the extra point and Chelsea led, 7-0, after just 14 seconds into the game.

Lincoln came right back to test Chelsea's defense by driving to the Bulldogs' 14-yard line. "Here the defense stiffened and held," Coach Bareis said. Lincoln then tried a field goal but the kick was wide.

The Bulldogs scored twice in the second quarter. The first came after Bruce Stubbs recovered a Lincoln fumble on their 35-yard line. Howard Salyer scored from four yards out behind the blocks of Jim Boyer and Dave Schaible. Rex Miles once again kicked for the extra point which was good.

The second TD came from Tony Robards. Chelsea received a punt on its 33-yard line. Salyer gained nine yards on a quick pitch play. Robards then on a quick opener rambled 58 yards behind blocks from Sullivan, Rex Miles and Dave Watson.

Chelsea's kicking game set up a fourth TD for the Bulldogs. Jim Marshall punted from mid-field only to have the ball go out of bounds on the two-yard line. On the first play, Lincoln fumbled and safety man Mark Burnett recovered on the two-yard line. Tim Reed then bulled in for the touchdown.

"During the third quarter, both teams were soaked by heavy rain which made the field very slippery," Bareis said.

Chelsea's defense played well, allowing Lincoln just 78 yards of rushing, six yards passing, and recovering three fumbles. Playing defense were Joel Sprague, George Menge, John Collins, Tim Reed, Dennis Bauer and Mark Collins.

This Friday, Sept. 26 the Bulldogs will meet Novi on the Chelsea field at 7:30 p.m.

Coach Bareis intimates that Novi is a tough team saying, "Novi has won the title three years in a row. Last year they beat us, 28-14."

Lyndon Residents Question Land Purchase

Some 57 Lyndon township residents met with a representative of the Department of Natural Resources last Thursday evening (Sept. 18) in the Lyndon Township Hall to discuss the development of approximately one-third of the land in Lyndon township which has been purchased in recent years by the Department of Natural Resources and to question the department about a more recent purchase (now ready for closing) of 93 acres in the South Lake area.

Lyndon Township Supervisor Tom Lewis said that Jim Hane, DNR representative from the Parks division, sat for three hours of questioning "brilliantly." While Lewis said that those present made vibrant points and were in earnest at what they said, he stressed that "everything was in control."

Hane told area residents that he is "not sure" of the DNR's long range plans for the area, however, a rustic campground and picnic site is under consideration for the future. A future Hanes set as being 10 years from now.

Residents retorted with questions as to why the DNR would spend money on land now that they do not have any "hard plans" for.

Hanes answered that if the department were to wait, the land would most likely be purchased for subdivision development; in short, unavailable.

Hanes went into some explanation as to the department's philosophy. According to Supervisor Lewis he told residents that the DNR is in a state of transition. What people wanted in the 60's, they do not want in the 70's. In effect, the DNR is presently analyzing the needs and desires of the people and plan to react accordingly.

Lewis said that residents were concerned about park development. They feel the DNR cannot enforce rules and regulations in the parks they now have and cannot understand why they would purchase more land. "What the residents in the (South Lake) area are worried about is noisy people, littering, floating beer cans in the lake... those things which would contribute to polluting the environment," Lewis said.

Lewis said that they have asked the department to send a representative. "We are not trying to stop the purchase. Just trying to make our voices heard."

The supervisor said they hope to meet within the month to have more questions answered.

Uncle Lew from Lima Says:

DEAR MISTER EDITOR:

Ed Doolittle was reviewing what he likes to call the state of the human condition during the session at the country store Saturday night, and he told the fellows that he was wondering how long we'd all have to live till we would look back on these days as the good old days. He got a sharp rise out of Clem Webster when he allowed we was going to have to go downhill fast to make what we got now an improvement.

Clem was strong disagreed with Ed, which is usual in all matters. When Ed declared that our money is getting cheaper and everything we buy with it is costing more, Clem come right back with the claim that the fact remains that practical everybody still is living better than he ever has. Ed said everywhere you turn these days you find troubles, but Clem was of a mind that news reporting has just got a heap better.

The two of em went on like that, Mister Editor, till Zeke Grubb broke in to say he could see both of their views, and that one was as wrong and as right as the other. As fer him, Zeke allowed, he alius had found that it took 98 percent of all he could rake and scrape fer taxes and living expenses, and that he never had no regrets about throwing the rest away on high and fancy living. Zeke said life was a bargain on anybody's income. He said he recalled that feller Tommy Manville that got married a dozen times. Manville said once that he spent $2 million getting rid of 12 wimmen, and he could think of just two of em that gitting rid of was a bargain at twice the price.

General speaking, the fellers favored Zeke. It was Bug Hookum that said things can't be all bad when a plain dirt farmer can trade pickups ever three year and git more fancy gadjets ever time, and then buy a $35 pair of Sunday shoes without paying fer em by the week. Bug said it was some of the economic shortcuts right now that was bothering him most. Fer instants, he had saw where inflation has took some of the kick out of booze, and practical all the chickie out of chewing gum.

This piece Bug read said licker companies are cutting back on the profit in order to reduce the tax that is based on how strong the stuff is. This thing could work out where if elbow benders has to drink more to enjoy it less, the headache remedy business might fall off. But Bug went on to re-fer that folks that kick drinking and take up chewing will find that the gum is made of rubber where it use to be chickie. Chewing gum companies say they can't pay people to go in the jungles and bring out the chickie, so they use manmade rubber.

Personal, Mister Editor, I hope these days ain't remembered as the time you could chew your wore out tires and patch your blinouts with chewing gum, but it might be a good sign all around to see strong drink gitting weaker.

Your's truly,
Uncle Lew.

MICHIGAN MIRROR

By Elmer E. White, Secretary, Michigan Press Association

At the "Other" School
Well over 100 years ago, a small facility called Detroit Medical College opened its doors.

Today, after undergoing several name changes and becoming part of the state's college and university system, that small facility is the third largest medical school in the United States in terms of freshman enrollment.

It is the Wayne State University School of Medicine.

Next year, the Wayne State medical school will produce 240 new physicians. And that may mean a great deal to Michigan, since in the past, some 60 to 70 percent of the medical graduates have remained in the state.

Medical school officials say the maximum capacity—250 medical students—will be graduated in 1977, "a significant step toward alleviating the state's pressing need for medical professionals."

The school serves the state in another way, by helping residents learn to help others. Of the 240 students admitted in 1974, 94 percent were Michigan residents—a goodly number considering that many of the 4,295 applications were from non-residents.

How else does WSU serve the medical needs of Michigan?

The university has one of three colleges of pharmacy in the state. It also has the only school of nursing in Michigan that teaches nursing instructors as well as regular undergraduate and graduate students.

In addition, the School of Medicine is part of what university officials call "one of the world's great, growing academic medical centers," Detroit Medical Center. The DMC is a 2,300-bed complex which involves the medical school as well as many of Detroit's hospitals.

The University Clinics, to be completed in about three years, will be able to handle more than 300,000 visits annually.

Rallying Cry
Forge ahead with the ferry!
That's the joint aim of Michigan and neighboring Wisconsin after a meeting between Govs. William Milliken and Patrick Lucey.

The governors recently announced they'd spearhead a joint effort to retain and improve the Ann Arbor Railroad's cross-lake rail and auto ferry.

Crossings of the bankrupt Ann Arbor Railroad from Frankfort to Manistowick and Kewauene, WI, had been threatened with discontinuance.

"We consider the Ann Arbor Railroad's ferry connection across Lake Michigan vital to the economic interests of both our states," Milliken and Lucey said in a joint statement.

"We have received assurances from Washington that it will be an integral part of the long-range transportation plans for the Upper Great Lakes region."

Milliken says Michigan has its own funds and "assurances" of federal help to carry out a ferry preservation and capital improvement program. And the Wisconsin legislature is considering Lucey's proposed transportation program to raise and dole out funds for several services, including cross-lake ferries.

In a similar vein, a new Save Rail Services Committee is gearing up in Lansing.

Led by Michigan Public Service Commissioner William Ralls and J. B. Townley of Saginaw, an official with the Wickes Corp., the organization opposes abandonment of 1,100 miles of rail serving dozens of communities in Michigan.

The shut-down is part of a Con-Rail plan now before Congress.

If implemented, the committee says, it would "be a crippling blow to many job-producing industries and curb future business development in much of out-state Michigan."

Thursday, Sept. 23, 1971—
James Hoffmeyer, a science teacher at Beach Middle school, has recently been elected to serve on the 14-member executive board of the Michigan Education Home Association. Hoffmeyer is among the first 12 members elected since MEHA's incorporation four years ago, and the first Chelsea resident to hold a position on the board.

Chelsea is fielding its first varsity cross country team this year, but has good potential and a couple of strong contenders for regional honors, according to coach Pat Clarke. The runners are Robin Boyer, Kent Buxton, Jim McGinn, Howard Schenk, Mike Agopian, John Schenk and Dan Hoover. Captain of the team is Dave Buxton.

Mrs. Simon (Rena) Girbach, 8750 Pleasant Lake Rd., has been appointed Freedom Township clerk. She replaced Harold Eiseeman who resigned.

Plans are nearly complete for the Chelsea Community Fair, which will be held Friday and Saturday, Oct. 3 and 4 at the public high school and on the playgrounds. A number of commercial exhibits will be on display in addition to the other exhibits. Merchants interested in renting space for commercial exhibits should notify Supt. A. C. Johnson.

Are You on List?
If you own a car or drive one, your name is on a long list maintained by the Michigan Department of State—and it may be sold to someone who wants to sell you anything.

That's nothing new, nor is some hue and cry against the selling of such lists.

But Rep. John Markes, D-Westland, is trying to call a halt to the practice. Early this year, he introduced legislation to prohibit the sale of bulk lists. Markes wants to authorize the furnishing of information about only one driver or car owner at a time.

Little action has been taken on the proposal.

But if you have a position, write the House Committee on Consumer Affairs in Lansing. Maybe mail- either pro or con—will push a decision.

"A crank is a person interested in something which you do not appreciate.

IGNITION SWITCH—REALLY SEVERAL SWITCHES IN ONE. FIRST, IT TURNS ON IGNITION, THEN THE STARTER—AND SIMULTANEOUSLY TURNS OFF THE RADIO AND OTHER ACCESSORIES TO AVOID DAMAGE DUE TO POWER SURGES WHICH OCCUR IN STARTING. The Spine is the Human Switchboard controlling Health and Vigor

Chiropractic is universally recognized as the foremost drugless health science. Its fundamental principles are readily explained and are readily understood by the intelligent mind. Millions of cases have been restored to health by the competent application of these principles, and in thousands of cases Chiropractic has proved successful after medicine and other methods had failed to get the patient well.

Graduates of The Palmer School of Chiropractic are engaged in the professional practice of Chiropractic in every state of the United States, and in practically every foreign country and territory in the world.

You are asked to investigate the merits of Chiropractic, because its record of achievement in restoring the sick to health can successfully challenge that of any other known health method.

Gridders of the Week

JV Gridders Roll Over Lincoln, 32-0

Despite a scoreless first quarter Chelsea's JV football team whaloped their Lincoln opponents 32-0 last Thursday. Coach Jon Schaffner said "It was another great defensive effort as Lincoln had a net yardage of 8 yards through the third quarter and Chelsea had already emptied their bench in the third quarter."

Chelsea's defense was led by Steve Check who made 11 tackles; Jamie Bollinger, 8; Vic Vercherou, Mike Hagen and Tim Wolshans, six each; Steve Pennington, Todd Headrick, Matt McClear, Matt Fisher and Mike Young, five; Rocky Bandal, four; Gary Packard, Rick Beeman and Rick Risner, three; and Dave Schrottenboer, two.

Schaffner added that Todd Weber and Rick Beeman recovered fumbles and Steve Dresch blocked a punt. Steve Pennington made three touchdowns for the Bullpups; one in the second quarter and two in the third quarter. Chuck Broderick and Matt Fisher also each had a TD in the game.

Schaffner noted that while the defense played very well, "the offense leaves a lot to be desired." Thursday, (today) the team will travel to Novi to play the Wildcats at 7 p.m.

ENERGY SENSE: Energy Saved Is Earnings

By Frank G. Zarb
Federal Energy Administrator

What's the government doing to help consumers' energy dollars go farther? Recently, President Ford instructed his Energy Resources Council to obtain agreements from major appliance manufacturers to achieve 20 percent average improvements in the energy efficiency of their products by 1980.

More energy efficient household appliances will not only save consumers' money through lower operating costs, they will also save the Nation an estimated half million barrels of oil per day by 1985.

To help consumers decide which products on the market are the most energy efficient, the President has asked Congress to expand the current voluntary program for energy labelling of automobiles and room air conditioners—making it mandatory for such labels to be placed on most major appliances.

If your budget has been too pinched to allow for an energy-saving improvement on your home's insulation, you'll be glad to hear that the President has also asked Congress to provide tax incentives for insulation improvements.

Under the proposal, a 15 percent tax credit retroactive to January 1, 1975 could be applied within a three year period to as much as $1,000 of costs for storm windows, doors, and other insulating materials.

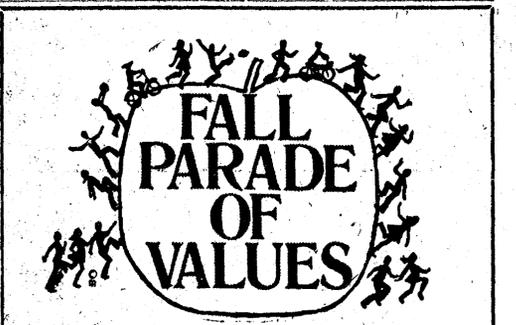

There's also good insulation news for low income families and senior citizens. Under another of the President's proposed programs, they will be able to receive direct insulation subsidies—to buy insulation materials—plus help in installing it through local volunteer groups.

Improving your home's insulation not only saves on soaring utility bills, it will also help America achieve estimated savings of another half million barrels of oil per day by 1985.

LEON BROWN (52): This 6'2" 215-pound tackle distinguishes himself as being the only sophomore on the varsity football team, though Brown himself does not let on, his fellow players do. A player on the JV team last year at Chelsea High, Leon was also a junior varsity wrestler. A sport he hopes to compete in this year. "At the varsity level?" Leon smiles and says, "I don't know." Somewhat reluctant to make any predictions for the outcome of the '75 season, Leon simply assures that the Bulldogs will play "hard." The son of Mr. and Mrs. Andy Brown, 16455 Winters Rd., Leon comes from a family of seven brothers and sisters: Dennis, 22; Paul, 20; Dan, 17; Norman, 10; Star, 24; Hattie, 21, and Lois 13.

DON SULLIVAN (79) is a 6'3" 230-pound senior tackle in his second year with the varsity Bulldogs. Secretary of the senior class and the FFA and a member of the Key Club, Sullivan classifies himself as a "football man" when it comes to sports. After playing two highly successful games with the Bulldogs this season, Sullivan expressed optimism that the remainder of the season will be a "winning" one. He categorized Saline and Novi as the team's toughest opponents but said "If we prepare mentally and we know we are physically capable, we can do it." Don has two sisters, Karen, 20 and Marie 10. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sullivan, of 19880 Lehmann Rd.

"I REMEMBER"
BY THE OLD TIMER
From Mrs. Mary B. Mobley, Colorado Springs, Colo.: I remember several things about World War I, even though I was only 7 years old in 1914. The ration books were brown with coupons, the short items were sugar and flour. At this time most people baked their own bread. Whenever white flour was purchased an equal amount of other flour had to be bought. Once my mother baked a loaf of bread with rice flour - it just rose and then ran all over the oven, so it made no bread. Since there was only a small amount of sugar available, we had no cakes.

We heard news of the war from the newspapers and "extras" of by word of mouth or over the telephone. Once on the street car the very impressive president of our local college stood up and announced that Antwerp had fallen. I felt the chill that went over the crowd.

Early in November of 1918 there were false rumors of peace and bells rang and horns beeped, but finally we were told by an "extra" that the Armistice had been signed and for us the war was over. I was surprised with a real birthday cake in December 1918.

Laleche Group Begins Series of Fall Meetings

A series of four monthly meetings has been scheduled for this fall by the La Leche League in the Chelsea-Dexter area. La Leche is a non-profit organization designed to offer information and encouragement to women interested in breast feeding their babies.

Each meeting will be held at 8:00 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Marilyn Fischer at 3044 N. Lima Center Rd. The topic of the first meeting, scheduled for Monday, Sept. 28, is the "Advantages of Breastfeeding for Both Baby and Mother."

The topic of the second meeting, to be held Oct. 27, will be "The Art of Breastfeeding—Overcoming Difficulties." This discussion will cover overcoming difficulties and special circumstances, such as nursing twins or Caesarean or premature babies.

"The Baby Arrives" is the subject of the third meeting in the series, on Nov. 24. Prepared childbirth and practical hints for handling a new baby along with routine household activities will be discussed at this time.

"Nutrition and Weaning" will be the topic at the fourth meeting, Dec. 22. This meeting will cover the baby's first introduction to solid food and the how and when of weaning. Good family nutrition in general will also be discussed.

A lending library comprised of books about child care is being made available by La Leche. The library and membership application is being handled by Mrs. Karl Fink, phone 428-2885.

For further information about the meetings, phone Mrs. John Riff, at 428-8050. The meetings are informal, and mothers may bring their babies. Expectant mothers are also welcome.

STRAWBERRY PRODUCTION

Because of the high cost of hand labor, Michigan's strawberry crop has decreased since 1960. Researchers at experimental stations are trying to improve labor costs by developing mechanical harvesters for this and other crops. Since we have good soil and climate for strawberry growing, farmers are hoping for success in this research. In 1974 we had 3,300 acres in commercially grown strawberries with a 1,300 pound per acre increase in yield. Most of Michigan's strawberry crop was grown in Alpena, Berrien, Houghton, Leelanau, Manistee, and Van Buren counties.

SCARE-DEATH AWARDED

New York—A widow has been awarded $740,000 for loss of her husband, who died of a heart attack brought on by fright. Six years ago a car smashed through the lawn and into the house owned by Salvatore Capossela. While talking to their driver, the 53-year-old man collapsed and died 45 minutes later.

Driving an automobile while under the influence of liquor is about as serious a crime as a person can commit in these days of heavy traffic and high speeds.

Captain Cooked

Queen Victoria once entertained Liliuokalani, queen of the Hawaiian Islands. The colorful island lady noted that she was a blood relative of her hostess. "I didn't know that," exclaimed the English monarch. "Certainly," said Liliuokalani, "my grandfather ate your Captain Cook!"

Frosh Gridders

Defeated By Lincoln, 28-6

A fine passing attack and an excellent drive late in the first half weren't enough to keep the CHS freshman football team from losing their opening game last Tuesday as Lincoln defeated them, 28-6.

Chelsea jumped off to a lead early on a 42-yard scoring pass from quarterback Jesse Colburn to Chuck Young with five minutes left in the first quarter. The Bulldogs mounted a drive early in the second quarter with Greg Reed, Joe Verway and Al Augustine carrying the ball. Penalties killed the drive, however, and gave Lincoln an opportunity to stage a drive of their own. The Raispliters scored with 2:30 left on a 23-yard off-tackle dash and converted to lead, 3-0.

Chelsea took the kick-off at their own 40 and on sweeps by Reed and Verway and passes to Young and Jeff Ehler, managed to stop the clock and move to Lincoln's 4-yard line in what coach Bamton said was a drive that showed "real poise from the team." Unfortunately, the clock ran out before the Bulldogs could get the ball into the end zone.

Lincoln scored in the third quarter on a 60-yard off-tackle smash, following an interception, then followed with an 88-yard run in the fourth period after a fine punt put them on their own 12. They added the final TD on the last play with a 20-yard sweep.

The defeat was not a total loss, however. Jesse Colburn was 6 of 10 passing for 107 yards, and the freshmen gained 168 yards running for a fine offensive total. Tackle Scott Powers led the defensive effort with 12 tackles.

"We gave them too many big plays," commented Coach Bill Bainton. "We ran more than 60 plays ourselves, and anytime you control the ball that much you should be winning." The freshmen, after working a week on defense, played Michigan Center Wednesday, then go to Brighton on Tuesday, Sept. 30.

Class of '75 Follow-Up Study Starts

Friday, Sept. 26, Chelsea High school will be mailing follow-up survey forms to the graduates of the Class of 1975.

This is the third year that Chelsea has participated in a state-wide survey of recent graduates to help determine what they are doing now that they have left high school and what programs in the high school they have found to be most beneficial.

Parents of the members of the class of 1975 are asked to forward the survey forms to their son or daughter if he or she is not presently at home. The deadline set down by the Michigan Department of Education is Nov. 7 and Chelsea High must forward all returned questionnaires by that date.

The greater the number of returns the more accurate and valuable will be the information gathered. Everyone's help is needed.

Girls JV Cagers

Win Second Game At Stockbridge

Chelsea girls Junior Varsity basketball team returned from Stockbridge last Thursday with a fine 44-26 win, their second victory of the season.

Sue Heydlauff was high scorer with 16 points and Shelley Warren added 10. Other scorers were Penny Collinsworth, Jackie Lamb, Lori Miles, Call Hume, Tracy Hawker, Cindy Welshans, and Veronica Satterthwaite.

"We shut them out the first quarter with a 12-0 score and although they managed to get within four points at one point, we came back to soundly defeat them. All 16 girls were able to play nearly a quarter and I was pleased with the number of girls who scored," said JV coach Cindy Bradbury.

The next game is tonight (Thursday) at Manchester. Always a tough team, this should be a good game "to get us ready for our league opener against Novi," she concluded.

Postal Service Initiates Consumer Service Plan

A nation-wide Consumer Service Program designed to improve and broaden the quality of mail service was announced today by Postmaster Richard Schauls.

Beginning Oct. 1, the U. S. Postal Service will introduce a program at the Chelsea Post Office and other offices across the nation to encourage mail users to register problems they may have with their mail service.

At the core of the program is a consumer service card, through which problems are identified and which postal managers attempt to expeditiously resolve.

The Consumer Service Program reflects Postmaster General Benjamin F. Bailar's determination that mail services to the public will be "friendly, courteous and efficient, as well as speedy and reliable." "Good service is a far broader concept than just fast mail handling, as important as that is," the Postmaster General says. "It is also built on employee courtesy, our responsiveness to customer needs, the sympathy and understanding we bring to your own expectations of what good postal service is all about."

Postmaster Schauls urged customers in Chelsea to bring their inquiries and complaints to the attention of postal managers. And if people feel their problems have not been properly handled, the postmaster said, they should see him personally.

To make it easier for a customer to make a suggestion or complaint about postal service, the new consumer service card will be available from letter carriers and at post offices.

According to Postmaster Schauls the card is two postal cards with carbon paper between them. "One copy goes to me or a station superintendent so work can begin on the problem," he said. "The other goes to Postal Service Headquarters in Washington for cataloging and analysis. The cards will help management spot problem areas and trends and take corrective action if necessary."

The Consumer Service Program was tested earlier this year in Illinois, Massachusetts, Arizona and Rhode Island. Postal customers in the test found the cards easy to complete and most complaints were resolved to the customer's satisfaction.

The card should take no more than two minutes to fill out. The postmaster also said he and his staff are willing to discuss any problems, including lack of courtesy, irregularities in deliveries or collections, collection box convenience and postal office hours.

"We want you to come to us with your problems," concluded Postmaster Schauls. "The whole point of this service program is to bring your problems and gripes out into the open where we can attempt to resolve them."

FIRE EXTINGUISHER AWARD: Randy Gearke of 10833 North Territorial Rd., Dexter, was the winner of a fire extinguisher given away by the Chelsea Jaycees, Jaycettes and the Fire Department at their Red Ball booth during the Chelsea Community Fair. Art Steinaway reported that a total of 82 families registered for the Red Ball program. Girls Varsity Cagers Down Stockbridge

Chelsea girls' varsity basketball team came from behind in their second game of the season for a 36-15 victory over Stockbridge last Thursday, Sept. 18.

"After a slow beginning, the girls began to rebound well and to control the ball offensively," said their coach Cheryl Turner. She continued to say that the team's speed and height advantage was put to good use for the successful winning of several fast breaks.

Head scorer for Chelsea was Teri Lutovsky with eight points, followed by Teresa Breza and Mickey Bridges each with six points. Kim Moore and Sharon Donovan had four points each. Karen Keiser, Sue Schulze, Karen Roskowski and Kyle Parker rounded out the score with two points each.

The girls meet Manchester today (Thursday) on the opponents' court. On Monday they will play Novi, there, for their first league game of the '75 season.

GENEROUS PIE LADY
Asheville, N. C. - Mrs. Ellen Atwell, a widow of 40 years, supported herself by making and selling pies. After her recent death, officials of the Asheville Orthopedic Hospital revealed that Mrs. Atwell, over a period of 10 years, had given the hospital a total of $10,036. She asked that her gifts be kept secret until after her death.

STRANGE BARBER POLE
Urbana, Ill. - Paul White is a barber here who owns an unusual barber pole. The stripes run backward, therefore causing the pole to spiral down instead of up. White has tried everything he can think of to fix it, but to no avail. He concludes that the stripes were painted backwards or upside down, or something.

Throughout the history of our nation much has been said about our rights. Innumerable books have been written and uncountable thousands of speeches have been made about our inalienable rights. We justly boast of having more rights than any other country in the history of the world. Does it not seem strange, in view of our rights, so little is said about our duties? Rights AND duties are inseparable. . . It is senseless and wrong to be for your own rights and be morally impervious to the rights and needs of others. Life's problems are not solved when we expect some one else to do the right thing - some one else moving first - some one else turning the other cheek - some one else walking an extra mile - some one else returning good for evil. We must do these things ourselves in our relationship with others.

TODAY'S THOUGHT
By LOUIS BURGHARDT

Christ did not originate the idea of the Golden Rule. But He was the first to present it in positive manner. . . "Always treat others as you would like them to treat you." It was a helpful and positive thought in His day. It still is. . . BURGHARDT FUNERAL HOME, 214 East Middle St., Chelsea, Mich. Phone 475-1551.

Free Booklet Offers Advice on Medicine Usage

It's kind of startling to realize that every year consumers spend almost $9 billion on medicines. However, this money doesn't always buy better health. People sometimes take medicines they don't need—to wake up, to unwind from daily tension, to stimulate or reduce their appetites, and to get to sleep at night. According to the Food and Drug Administration (FDA), we have 2 major drug problems that stem from the misuse or excessive use of medicines. The FDA has a booklet which offers advice on the wise purchase and use of both prescription drugs and over-the-counter medicines. For a free copy of A Primer on Medicines write Consumer Information, Dept. 53, Pueblo, Colo. 81009.

NEW WHEAT VARIETY: Michigan Crop Improvement Association Manager Harold Laswell, left, talks with foundation seed grower Robert Moore about the benefits of recently-released Tecumseh wheat. Certified seed of Tecumseh wheat is available for the first time this (1975) fall planting season, through Michigan Certified Seed dealers.

Promising New Tecumseh Wheat Variety Could Be Real Boon

A new variety of soft white wheat that adapts well to harsh Michigan winters could be a boon to state wheat growers, who are now preparing for fall planting. "There is no doubt that Tecumseh wheat shows bright promise," said Harold Laswell, manager of Michigan Crop Improvement Association. "Tecumseh is Michigan's first soft white winter wheat variety that combines the advantages of large yields, short stem height, excellent lodging resistance and high test weight." The variety was recently released by the Michigan Agricultural Experiment Station and the North Central Region of the Agricultural Research Service of the U. S. Department of Agriculture, after extensive co-operative research.

CHelsea VILLAGE COUNCIL PROCEEDINGS
September 16, 1975
This meeting was called to order at 7:30 p.m. by President Pennington.
Present: President Pennington, Administrator Weber and Clerk Neumeyer.
Trustees Present: Wood, Galbraith, Dmoch, Rowe, Johnson and Barton.
Others Present: Zoning Inspector Goltra, Police Chief Meranuck, Civil Defense Director Wade, Luther Kusterer, Fred Barkley, William Chaudier, Joseph Smith, Armin Schneider, Phillip McGaw, Thomas McGaw, Patricia McGaw, Gary Grossman, Jim Knott, Janice Knott, Sue Wood, Jerry Pratt, Robert Schantz, Pat Schantz, Daniel Snyder and N. C. Thomas.
Police Chief Meranuck requested permission to obtain a new phone number. The purpose of the new phone number is to be able to get a second number which is consecutive. It was the consensus opinion of the Council that this would aid the police department and should be done.
Mr. McGaw and other citizens expressed concern for what they believe is an increased amount of traffic violations in the village, specifically speeding. Various methods to alleviate the problem were discussed with Chief Meranuck.
Council discussed with Fred Barkley the raise requested by the consulting firm of Schult and Barkley.
Luther Kusterer requested that occupancy permits be thoroughly checked out before being issued, as some recently have not complied with occupancy requirements.
Motion by Rowe, supported by Wood, to authorize payment of bills as submitted. Roll call: Yeas all. Motion carried.
Motion by Dmoch, supported by Rowe, to adjourn. Roll call: Yeas all. Motion carried. Meeting adjourned.
Thomas Neumeyer, Village Clerk.

Girl Scout Volunteers Find Real Challenge

When career woman Karen DeLair leaves her job at 5:00 a.m., she doesn't go home. Four evenings a week she attends Wayne State University to earn a B.A. degree in business, majoring in accounting.

And the fifth night she goes to Edison Elementary school in Westland to be a Girl Scout troop leader.

At the school she meets 20 girls, age 10 to 12, Junior Scout Troop 109, eager to discuss plans for a bike hike, puppet-making, camping or horseback riding. At the end of a work day as office manager of Konec's, Inc., restaurant chain in Detroit, all that enthusiasm can be wearing.

"But I enjoy it," says Karen. "I like girls, and I thought this would be an interesting challenge. And when I've had a bad day at the office the girls sense that and help by being especially thoughtful."

Karen was never a scout when peritively in AAU (Amateur Athletic Union) meets and became a life guard and water safety instructor. She is now thinking about offering her scouts swimming training.

Karen got into adult scouting when her 11-year-old cousin asked her to go on a camping trip with her troop. When Karen heard that the leader was forced to resign, she volunteered to take over.

Karen has plenty of assistance, not only from troop parents but her own friends. "I've almost had to set up a waiting list for my single friends who want to go on troop excursions and help with projects. They think it's a lot of fun, and it is!" she said.

Last year, Karen went with her troop winter camping at Kensington Park, horseback riding near Brighton, camping at Proud Lake and spring camping at Brighton State Park.

According to Council President, Mrs. Jean Galan of Dexter, Karen is one of a growing number of young adults working full-time who are joining the Huron Valley Council. Of 120 new volunteers recruited by the Council in a recruitment drive a year ago, the majority were from this group.

The Council is currently seeking adult volunteers in a drive coordinated with one by the Girl Scouts of the U.S.A., the national organization headquartered in New York.

The Huron Valley Girl Scout Council is a United Way Agency. Interested individuals are invited to contact the Council at 483-2370 or to write to P.O. Box 539, Ypsilanti, 48197.

Who pays for living expenses (elsewhere) while they repair your home?

Most policies provide the coverages you expect—fire, lightning, storms, riots, vandalism and the like. They cover the cost of repairs due to these losses. But have you thought about the cost of living elsewhere if your home has to be repaired or rebuilt? It could run into hundreds of dollars. Or, it could be covered in black and white in our Homeowners Policy, so we would pay those extra living expenses! Give us a call. We'll put your home insurance all together in one policy for convenience and saving's sake.

THEY HELP GET YOU THERE: Highway signs are one of the most important factors in helping motorists to get from here to there—safely. Without them, today's highway traffic would be in a constant tangle. Miss Michigan Transpo-1976 (Barbara Tomak of Lansing) says "STOP" — and think about the meaning and importance of highway signs, especially during Michigan Highways and Transportation Week, Sept. 21-27.

Highway Signs Help Motorists Get There

Today, a good car, a tank of gas or two, and a highway map can get you anywhere in Michigan. It wasn't always that easy.

As Michigan joins in observance of National Highways and Transportation Week, Sept. 21-27, the Department of State Highways and Transportation recalls some of the evolution in highway travel.

Prior to 1927, motorists who didn't know the road could never quite be sure of getting there. The problem was highway signing.

By the early 1920's Michigan's industrious roadbuilders, including first State Highway Commissioner, Horatio S. (Good Roads) Earle, pieced together a system of 6,700 miles of cross-state highways connecting with existing city and county roads leading most anywhere in Michigan.

Road signs, however, were an unco-ordinated, hit-or-miss combination of state, local and private undertakings. The result was a profusion of overlapping signs nailed and painted on telephone poles or drawn and chalked on rocks, fence posts and trees.

By 1918, although the Department of State Highways had drawn up a state highway map for engineering purposes, and by 1921, had numbered state highways, most maps were produced by touring and auto clubs which marked and named roads the way they saw them. Motorists couldn't tell one road from another without a definitive map, and nobody could print one until somebody posted specific road markings.

Alarmed over the nation-wide confusion, the American Association of State Highway Officials, known as AASHO, a voluntary association of officials from all states, approved a resolution in 1924 requesting the U. S. Secretary of Agriculture to name a board to develop a system for numbering the nation's principal highways.

By 1924, the board had designated 96,626 miles of existing highways, coast to coast, with numbers.

Under the system, each interstate route was assigned a different number and the number remained the same from one state to another. Once assigned, numbers could be changed only by AASHO.

The system basically designated east-west routes with even numbers and north-south routes with odd numbers. The numbers, prefixed by "US" were to be carried on a standard roadside shield sign. Design of the shield was proposed by former Michigan Highway Commissioner Frank Rogers, president of AASHO, who credited the idea to W. F. Brooks, a federal highway engineer assigned to Michigan.

Although many changes have taken place in roadbuilding since 1926, the numbering system was so well conceived and carried out that it remains in effect today, having withstood all tests and trials of time.

When the Interstate system was planned and constructed, it was marked with "IT" for Interstate, instead of "US", but the numbers still follow the odd for north-south routes and even for east-west routes.

The system also is flexible enough to permit cities, counties and states to name highways and erect signs designating highways for favorite places and heroes.

Interstate 75 in Michigan, for example, extends 395 miles from Toledo to Sault Ste. Marie. Known as the Seaway Freeway south of Detroit, it also is named the Fisher and Chrysler in Detroit. The entire I-75 route in Michigan also is named the American Legion Highway, but travelers on the freeway itself only see the I-75 freeway number. Signing on other highways and freeways leading to I-75 can carry directional signs, indicating entrance to the "Chrysler" or "Fisher," for example, but not on the freeway itself. Thus the I-75 identity is maintained from Florida to Canada.

Many "US" routes change names from community to community, but the "US" numbers always remain the same.

Key to continued success of the numbering system is the voluntary co-operation of all states to submit numbering changes to the re-christened American Association of State Highway and Transportation Officials (AASHTO), and agreement to abide by its decisions.

This consistency enables map-makers to draw accurate maps, and travelers to follow routes with certainty, eliminating the guesswork of the early "twenties," keeping highways straight for Michigan's more than five million motorists—and everyone else in the country.

If you fail the first time, and make no correction for mistakes, there is no reason why you should not fail the second time.

Mail Fraud Laws Booklet Will Help Protect Consumer

We all know that you don't get something for nothing. Every now and then, though, we come across gus schemes for work-at-home opportunity that seems good enough to be true. But, according to the Postal Service, it may well be part of the recent increase in bogus schemes for work-at-home opportunities, correspondence schools, and even chain letters.

Apparently, mail order swindlers are using current economic conditions to gyp people through a variety of schemes. To help consumers avoid being cheated, the Postal Service has published a booklet called Mail Fraud Laws. A free copy may be obtained by writing Consumer Information, Dept. 54, Pueblo, Colo. 81009.

The booklet talks about types of fraud to watch out for. They include the following:

—The promise of an "exciting, high-paying job" is the usual lure of the fake correspondence school. Generally the victims are people with little schooling, desperately trying to improve their economic opportunities.

—An endless chain referral plan is a means of selling products for the home at generally exorbitant prices on the grounds that the item will cost the home-owner nothing, because by referring other people to the seller, he can earn enough referral commissions to pay the full cost of his purchase.

The booklet advises that Postal Service inspectors need your co-operation in gathering evidence that the promoters knowingly made false claims. When you believe mail fraud exists, keep all letters, including envelopes and other evidence related to the questionable scheme. See if your neighbors or business associates have also received similar material. Bring this information to the attention of a Postal Inspector in your area.

Mail Fraud Laws is one of over 250 selected Federal consumer publications listed in the current edition of the Consumer Information Index. Published quarterly by the Consumer Information Center of the General Services Administration, the index is available free from Consumer Information, Pueblo, Colo. 81009, or at Federal Information Centers located throughout the country.

SEES SON KILLED
New York — Policeman William Hofaker, on patrol duty in Brooklyn, witnessed a horrible sight. He saw a speeding car hit a boy and drag his body six blocks. Recognizing the boy's shoes when the body was thrown loose, he realized that the boy was his 13-year-old son.

What's Cooking in Michigan

By MDA Marketing Specialist

During this season of agricultural abundance consumers shouldn't overlook the value of dry edible beans. They've been a mainstay on the plentiful foods list for over a year, according to Marketing officials of the Michigan Department of Agriculture.

Almost half of the nation's dry edible beans are grown in Michigan. Last year's production totaled 720 million pounds and was valued at $126 million.

Hearty bean dishes are rich in calcium, phosphorus, iron and the B vitamins. They're a valuable protein food, low in fat content.

For economical main dishes combine navy pea beans with other seasonably abundant foods. Trim food costs and at the same time enjoy versatile, nutritious meals. There's no need to cook beans from scratch. Use convenient canned beans. Nearly 90 percent of Michigan beans go to well-known canners for the popular canned bean products you see on grocery shelves.

Prepare a buffet-bean dish with a touch of elegance for that special dinner. Layer canned beans in tomato sauce alternately with sliced apples and onions in a casserole. Season with a dash of curry, pepper, butter, and lemon juice. Top during the last few minutes of baking time with a bit of shredded coconut.

For baked beans a la difference, prepare them Danish style. Blend canned beans with crumbled Roquefort cheese, fried bacon bits and seasonings of Worcestershire sauce, prepared mustard, vinegar and green onions. Bake in a casserole in a moderate oven about 20 to 25 minutes.

Combine beans with other plentiful foods and save even more on that food bill. Stuff fresh tomatoes or precooked pepper shells with canned beans. Top with grated cheese or buttered bread crumbs. Heat and serve.

Insulate!

At the direction of the Michigan Public Service Commission, Michigan Consolidated is again offering a low-cost home ceiling insulation program designed to conserve Natural Gas and hold down heating costs.

Last year, nearly 42,400 Michigan Consolidated customers installed ceiling insulation, saving over one billion cubic feet of Natural Gas, and cut their home heating costs by up to 17%.

Enough Natural Gas was conserved to heat over 7,600 additional homes this winter.

If you still haven't taken advantage of this easy, low-cost program, now's the time to act. Many homeowners can install insulation themselves for about $125. Our free handbook tells you how. Get your copy at any Michigan Consolidated Business Office, most building supply outlets or write or call us.

Or, we can have the job done for you by one of our participating subcontractors and add the cost to your monthly gas bills. The cost? About $250 for homes with less than 1,000 sq. ft. of ceiling area. You can pay cash. Or, you can pay over an extended period at an interest rate of 1% monthly on the unpaid balance. (ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATE OF 12%.)

So why not save money in your attic this winter with our low-cost ceiling insulation program? You'll be cutting your heating costs up to 17% and helping our country conserve its Natural Gas supplies, too.

Girl Scouts Attending Camp Near Greenville

More than 250 Michigan Girl Scouts, including 20 from Huron Valley Girl Scout Council, will celebrate the U.S. Bicentennial this week-end at a four-day encampment near Greenville.

The event called "Trails of 76—Pioneer Heritage," will feature a variety of workshops in pioneering skills such as papermaking, tin-smithing, quilting, candlemaking and spinning. Highlight of the week-end will be a "Thanksgiving Banquet" which girls will prepare using pioneer kitchen tools and methods, such as making butter with old-fashioned churns.

Chairman of the event to be held at Girl Scout Camps Anna Behrens and Hunter Lake, is Mrs. Robert DeBruyn of Zeeland, president of the Michigan Trails Girl Scout Council in Grand Rapids. The week-end opens at 1 p.m. Friday and closes at 3 p.m. Monday.

Attendees will also assemble a quilt in which individual pieces shaped like maps of each Girl Scout Council territory will be stitched to form a complete map of Michigan. The finished quilt will be sent to the 1975 National Girl Scout Convention in Washington, D. C., to be held in October.

The Girl Scouts will represent 106,000 Girl Scouts in 17 Girl Scout Councils in Michigan, being assisted in their troop camping and public service activities by 32,000 adults. These Girl Scouts receive more than $1.5 million from Michigan United Funds each year.

Accompanying the girls to the conference will be four Huron Valley Council adult volunteers: Mrs. Geneva Avis of 3317 Gloria Wayne; Mrs. June Finnegan of 35306 Glenn Westland; Ms. Cathy Doherty of 120 N. Ingalls, and Mrs. Ann Maly of 1601 Waltham, both of Ann Arbor.

Dexter Girl Scouts attending are Jenny Davenport of 7400 Wall St., and Mary Hurst of 7531 Forest.

Attending the Bicentennial Celebration from Ann Arbor will be Heide Lawrence of 1824 Anderson; Carrie Coselman of 2990 Shady Lane; Anna and Marietta Sakriska of 1001 Island Drive Court; Anne Prince of 2312 Walter; Karen Rushen of 2840 Lakehurst Lane; Susan Easley of 2632 Park Ridge; Margaret Maly of 1601 Waltham; Debbie Rhodes of 1424 Arlington and Claire St. Antoine of 1421 Roxbury.

From Plymouth, attendees are Karen Schnoes of 4427 Beech, and Sharon Bosche of 12238 Canton Center Rd.

Attending from Westland are Nancy Polich of 353 Norma, and Dona and Dana Merandi of 35903 Canyon Dr.

Attending from Livingston county will be Rochell Elliott of 9505 Portage Lake Ave., Pinckney; Laura Lyons of 139 Mann St., Pinckney; and Rochell Christopher of 321 E. Brooks, Howell.

Conserving base requirements will again be dropped for 1976. Allotments will be protected if wheat or feed grains are not planted with the planting of any other conserving or non-conserving crops.

Mrs. Stump stated it is important for farmers to know, at this time, that no acreage restrictions will be severe, especially on the sale to plant policy advocated in recent years will continue. With wheat planting time rapidly approaching, farmers are already developing their cropping plans for the coming year.

No sensible adult makes fun of young people any more. The chances are that they have more sense and know more than their elders.

Area Girl Scout Leaders To Meet Saturday, Oct. 4

The Girl Scout Western Washtenaw Area Association will hold its fall meeting on Saturday, Oct. 4 at Hudson Mills Park on North Territorial Rd. from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. All leaders, assistant leaders, girls 14 and over, committee members and others interested in scouting are urged to attend all or part of the day.

The morning program will be an outdoor cooking demonstration. Following lunch and a short business meeting, there will be five groups consisting of Camping and Outdoor Activities, the Brownie Program, Cadettes, Troop Committee and Outdoor Arts and Crafts.

In Dexter call Marcia Piper, 426-8876, or Mary Burke to indicate your first and second choice for the afternoon programs. Bring a sack lunch or food to cook (charcoal) and come for a day of fun.

No Limits Placed on Wheat, Feed Grains Production in '76

It will not be necessary to take cropland out of wheat and feed grain production in 1976 according to Carolyn Stump, county executive director of the Washtenaw County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service Office. Secretary of Agriculture Earl Butz, announcing the provisions of the 1976 Wheat and Feed Grain Programs, again lifted acreage restrictions on these crops.

Under the Agricultural and Consumer Protection Act of 1973, which liberalized planting patterns, no payments have been made for idling cropland since 1973. Although this year's corn and wheat crops are expected to be at record levels, the demand outlook, both domestic and foreign, again reflects a need for continuation of a full production policy in 1976.

St. Louis School Notes

The boys have just returned from their first week-end visit at home and according to Mrs. Robbins "Everyone has settled down nicely." She continued, "We have many new faces and two new teachers on the staff. We are happy to have them and hope they will be happy here too. We had a nice birthday party for Father Umberto. We sang for him and gave him a songbook and flowers. Sister Mary and Mrs. Robbins served a special lunch for the boys with birthday cake and ice cream. The boys are swimming again this year at the YMCA in Jackson and bowling at Chelsea Lanes.

"Mrs. Sweeney had Ryon's class at her home for lunch with Father Fortunato and Mr. Housbrath. The boys enjoyed being at the farm. We had a nice visit from Fr. Romano of Philadelphia who is a delegate of the American Province.

"Mr. Reedy comes from Ann Arbor every Saturday with fresh fruits. We all look forward to a visit from the Superior General from Italy."

Father Umberto reports that Tim Eisel gave the boys 70 tickets for a circus in Jackson. The Father added that the boys heartily enjoyed the circus and are grateful for his generosity.

Another gift comes to St. Louis school from Mrs. Janet Hutzler, who has recently moved from Chelsea to make her home in Florida. Mrs.

Hutzler left the boys her Wurlitzer organ. "A beautiful one," Fr. Umberto exclaimed. According to the Father, the organ was given in memory of Mrs. Hutzler's husband who died two years ago.

MEAD, a project for students in the Washtenaw Intermediate School District, developed to determine performance objectives for mentally, emotionally and physically handicapped children has come to St. Louis school thanks to the Chelsea Board of Education and school superintendent Charles Cameron. Through the program, teachers can test their children in the beginning of the year to discover where students are academically, mentally and socially.

Teachers at St. Louis school were instructed in the use of this program by the Director of special education in the Washtenaw Intermediate School District and by teachers from the district.

Teaching at St. Louis school this year is newcomer Frank Kearsling. In addition to Mr. Kearsling, who is reportedly the talk of the school—all the boys are enthused—are teachers Dan Hausraht, Carol Lenox Kimball, Sue Lambarth and Barbara DeVoe. A former student teacher with St. Louis school, Prentice Tilton, returned to serve as a teacher aide.

Fall Festival Stated Sunday at Cobblestone Farm

On Sunday, Sept. 28 from 12 to 5 p.m., the Cobblestone Farm on Packard Rd., Ann Arbor, will become the site for fall festivities. Featured events will include displays and demonstrations such as quilting and chair caning.

There will be lots of fun things for children to do such as painting gourds and pumpkins, and bobbing for apples. Among the activities planned for adults, there will be horseshoe throwing and corn husking contests.

Also on sale for the benefit of Cobblestone Farm will be antiques and collectibles, baked goods, plants, refreshments, and other home-made articles. In addition there will be entertainment for everyone.

Local farmers and gardeners who wish to sell their produce and plants may participate in tailgate sales for a parking fee of $5. Reservations are necessary for the tailgate sale only; call Marty Cohen at 763-8580.

Parking is available at Buhr Park. In case of rain, the various activities will be held at the Red Cross Building, 2729 Packard Rd. Funds raised will be used in the restoration of the Cobblestone Farm.

Washtenaw Parks Listed In Folder

Washtenaw County Parks and Recreation Commission has recently published a brochure of Washtenaw county parks.

This two-color pamphlet, printed by Ann Arbor Federal Savings, designates the location of each county park on individual maps.

In addition, the new brochure provides a description of the park areas and lists the facilities available to users.

Among the parks listed in the pamphlet is Park Lyndon, a 205-acre natural area located on North Territorial Rd., just east of M-52. This park offers several miles of nature trails and high overlook points for fall color tours.

Another area included in the brochure is Park Washtenaw, located in the City of Ann Arbor. This urban park, near the intersection of Stadium Rd. and Washtenaw, also offers nature trails and picnicking facilities.

To receive "Your Washtenaw County Parks" brochure, free of charge, write to Washtenaw County Parks and Recreation Commission, Box 645, Ann Arbor 48107 or telephone 994-2575.

A BEAUTIFUL DEVELOPMENT: Not yet, but perhaps in a few years. This site, part of 200 acres of land to be called Sylvan Hills Estates, has been under development for five weeks now. Walter Cordin of Dearborn is the land developer. Cordin bought the land from Peter Liebeck. This photo shows bulldozers, earth movers, graders and shovels all used to develop the site for building. The lots are expected to be divided into 10-, 12- and 14-acre plots and each one will have a wooded area.

Letters to the Editor

To the Editor:

To all citizens of this community: Understanding our economic situation and the fact that we are all affected by it, I would like to encourage each of you to give to a very worthwhile organization, "The United Way."

Did you know that you may delegate your money? I've heard a few people say "that they would rather not give because they don't like what one organization represents." That's fine, but remember you can specify which organization gets your money on your pledge card. One other thing, if you work out of town and want your money to come back to this community, you must write Chelsea on your pledge card.

Our whole community benefits from this drive. Each person is touched! I hope everyone reads our articles to be better informed about the United Way. Last year because so many people were unemployed the United Way wasn't able to meet its goal, so if we all could give just a little more this year we could make up the difference.

It is something to be proud of to see so many people in this community so willing to volunteer. Trusting in all of you to want our community to be the best around, I will work very hard for you. The dates of the drive are Sept. 29-Oct. 10. If you have any questions, please feel free to call me at 475-7282.

Thank you,
Marjorie Robbins
(Mrs. Robert)
UW Campaign Chairman

ALL ABOUT FOOD

F.A. KENNEDY

I dedicate today's column to the new bride who wants to please her man with meals, "like mother used to cook"... but doesn't know nearly as much as she'd like to about selecting and preparing different cuts of meat.

This could be confusing, because there are actually more different cuts and kinds of meat than there are days in a year. But fortunately, there are really only a few basic retail cuts — whether you're talking about beef, pork, veal, or lamb — and they are fairly easy to identify. These are the breast cuts, the shoulder arm cuts, the shoulder blade cuts, the rib cuts, the loin cuts, the sirloin cuts, and the leg, round, and ham cuts.

There is one way to learn what you need to know about these basic cuts of meat and that is to see our butcher some time and ask him for a few pointers. He'll be glad to explain, meat identification, meat buying, care, storage and freezing of meats.

Also important to the new bride are her sources of information on meat cooking. Unlike the meat "mother used to cook," twenty years ago, meat today is brought to the market younger and it's more tender. So make sure your cookbook is new or updated.

Meat buying and meal planning can be a real pleasure, once you are sure you know how to prepare your meat choice.

In addition to the hundreds of cookbooks you can buy today, remember your local gas and electric utilities generally are most anxious to answer your questions about cooking.

And of course, all of us at Polly's will be glad to help too, in any way we can. If you ever have a question about meat or any other grocery item, we hope you'll feel free to ask.
