Mrs. Ike Lundberg Dies in Auto Crash

A tragic highway accident early Monday morning critically injured the retired park manager of Waterloo Recreation Area and fatally injured his wife. The couple, formerly from Chelsea, had been returning to their home in Ingham after completing a visit to relatives in Michigan.

Dead is Mrs. Ike Lundberg, 51, while her husband remains hospitalized in intensive care at Battle Creek's Lyla Post Hospital.

According to reports of the accident, the two were traveling on 460 in Concord township at about 4:45 a.m., when a 22-year-old woman, driving a Jeep, approached the Lundberg vehicle from the opposite direction. The woman's Jeep crossed the centerline of the highway and struck the Lundberg vehicle head-on. The driver of the Jeep was killed instantly, along with Mrs. Lundberg.

Lundberg, 63, who had retired March 19 of this year as park manager at Waterloo, was transported to a local hospital for emergency treatment before being transferred to the hospital in Battle Creek.

Members of the Seventh Day Adventist church in Ann Arbor, the Lundbergs had been active locally in both the Chelsea and Waterloo Historical Societies. They had also been instrumental in the restoration of Ft. Wilkins in Michigan's Upper Peninsula. While living in Chelsea, the Lundbergs had made their home on McClure Rd.

Mrs. Lundberg was well-known in the community for the many programs she had organized and directed for children at both Mill and Cedar Lakes.

Funeral services for Mrs. Lundberg will be held today, 1 p.m. at Sparks-Griffin Funeral Home, 11 E. Flint St., Lake Orion. Burial will follow in East Lawn Cemetery, Lake Orion. Memorial contributions may be made to the Waterloo Historical Society.

Byron Pearson Will Appear In Recital

Byron Pearson, a native of Chelsea and an accomplished trumpet player, will present a recital entitled "Music for Trumpet and Organ," with organist Arthur A. Vidrich, Sunday Aug. 14, 7 p.m. at the First Baptist Church of Detroit, located at Eight Mile and Southfield Rds., Southfield.

The program will consist of music composed by Schilling, Torelli, Piniham, Bach and Langlais, and is intended to serve as a prelude to recording sessions which will result in Pearson's first record album as a soloist.

A graduate of Chelsea High school, Pearson earned his bachelor's degree from the University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, in 1962. He then appeared as a trumpet soloist with the U.S. Marine Band in Washington, D.C., from 1962 to 1966. He left the Marine Band to become associate first trumpet with the New Orleans Philharmonic Symphony Orchestra, and remained with that orchestra until 1972.

After a short recess from his career, Pearson returned to play first trumpet in the Baltimore and St. Louis Symphonies during the summers of 1975 and 1976. In 1975, he also received his master's degree in music from the U-M.

Currently, Pearson is a doctoral candidate in musical arts at the U-M, where he taught trumpet as an assistant to Professor Clifford P. Lilly during the 1976-77 academic year. He plans to use the (Continued on page five)

ENGLISH FAMILY VISITORS: Guests of the Rev. Marvin McCallum, left, and his family, are members of the Christopher Sharp family of Manchester, England. Sharp, center back, is training for the Methodist ministry in England. He arrived with his family in Chelsea Aug. 1 for a three-week visit during an 11-week tour of the United States. He has been assisting the Rev. McCallum with church activities, including the recent Vacation Bible School conducted at Chelsea's First United Methodist church. Standing to the far right in the back row is Sharp's wife, Marian, while their two children, Emma, 8, and James, 6, complete the picture. James will celebrate his birthday tomorrow.

Englishman Visiting Area To Study American Justice System

"I'm here with my family to widen my knowledge of the world and particularly American society," Christopher Sharp of Manchester, England, said Monday during a tour of Chelsea Police Headquarters.

The wiry, soft-spoken man was at police headquarters after having completed a visit to Chelsea's 14th District Court in conjunction with his study of the criminal justice system in Chelsea.

Sharp has been the guest of the Rev. Marvin H. McCallum, pastor of Chelsea's First Methodist church, since Aug. 1. In England, he is training for the Methodist ministry, but he decided to leave his studies and come to the United States for an 11-week vacation after the trip was arranged for him by some American friends in Ann Arbor.

On June 23, Sharp arrived in Ann Arbor with his wife, Marian, and their two children, Emma, 8, and James, 6, under the auspices of Ann Arbor's United Methodist church. From there, he traveled to Chelsea for a three-week stay.

Through their proximity to the day-to-day activities of the Rev. McCallum and the McCallum family, Sharp and his family have ingratiated themselves into the average American way of life. Sharp has been assisting the Rev. McCallum with his duties as a pastor, has attended a baseball game in Detroit, crossed through the Detroit tunnel into Canada, and has toured many small communities in the area, including Manchester.

However, a reigning object of Sharp's interest in American society is to study the structure and operations of public agencies and compare them to those in his native country. It was this interest that led to his recent presence in Chelsea's district courthouse and the local law enforcement office.

"We think the American justice system is great—it works!" Sharp told Chelsea Police Patrolman Roger Graves Monday, after witnessing District Court Judge Henry Arkison's court session. He then proceeded to question Graves on various local police procedures and responsibilities.

"Are you generally armed?" Sharp asked Graves at one point. "I wouldn't work the job without being armed," Patrolman Graves responded. "Too many policemen get shot."

"It must be historical to carry guns in America," Sharp observed, adding that in England there were strict restrictions on carrying firearms. "Police in Manchester walk in twos and carry truncheons, or long canes," he continued. "They don't carry guns unless they're on special assignment."

Other questions followed on the size of the area patrolled by Chelsea Police, the number of officers employed by the department, the number of hours contained in a normal police work shift and the salaries of local law enforcement officials.

In response to Patrolman Graves' description of Chelsea's Auxiliary police force, Sharp noted that similarities existed between the Auxiliary force and "specials" in England.

Another discussion on police involvement in civil matters elicited an interesting comment from Patrolman Graves, who explained to Sharp that American laws were formulated from old English laws. In line with this tradition, local police officers often serve as keepers of the peace at large public gatherings such as fairs, football games and the like.

Sharp and Patrolman Graves exchanged a few more remarks and shortly thereafter the Englishman departed, accompanied by the Rev. McCallum.

Sharp will remain in Chelsea until the end of next week, and will then depart for visits to other American communities.

Before he left police headquarters, he announced his son's birthday was to be Friday. The occasion, he stated would warrant a "bumping." For those unfamiliar with English terminology, a "bumping" is the equivalent of an American birthday spanking.

School Funds Millage Vote Slated Monday

A third millage proposal in less than one year will confront voters in the Chelsea School District at a special election Monday, Aug. 15. On the ballot will be a request for a 3.8-mill tax hike for school operating costs.

Coupled with a 1.2-mill reduction in the district's debt retirement levy, the net increase to taxpayers in the Chelsea School District will be 2.6 mills if the special election succeeds. Members of the Chelsea Board of Education have stated the Aug. 15 election will be their final millage request for the 1977-78 school year.

The 3.8-mill figure being asked by the school board is a reduction of the 4.4-mill increase proposed in two previous elections. Both of those elections failed by narrow margins, following an unprecedented turnout of voters.

According to the school board, the lower millage figure was made possible after the board received notice that the Michigan State Legislature had passed a liberalized state aid act to public schools on July 7. Passage of the act resulted in an increase of state aid revenues slightly over $40,000 for the Chelsea School District.

Also, in a June 13 school election, Washtenaw County Intermediate School voters passed a 1/2-mill levy for handicapped students which will result in still another $15,000 increase in tax revenues for local schools.

The 3.8-mill request to be voted on Monday, represents $408,000, or 10 percent of the school board's 1977-78 operating budget. With current enrollment figures at 2,700 students, the board has set its budget at slightly more than $4 million to operate the school district for the coming year.

If Chelsea School District voters pass the school board's latest millage request, more than a dozen changes in the current status of school programs will take effect immediately. These will include the purchase of new textbooks, the reduction of class overloads, the hiring of a learning disabilities teacher in the middle school, the purchase of several new buses, and the reinstatement of extracurricular activities.

A 3.8-mill tax increase would also mean the average increase in taxes to a family whose property is assessed at $25,000, would be a real value of $50,000, would be $26 per year.

To arrive at the $26 increase, 2.6 mills, or the actual net increase of the 3.8-mill request, was multiplied against the $25,000 assessment. Of the resulting $95 total, non-senior citizens would receive a 60 percent rebate according to the provisions of the Home-Steal Act, while senior citizens would receive a rebate in the full amount. Subtracting the rebate, the net tax increase to a non-senior citizen would be $26 if their gross household income is less than $25,000 per year.

Voting on the third millage proposal will be in the large group instruction room at Beach Middle school. Polls will be open from 7 a.m. to 8 p.m.

Van, Truck-Trailer Demolished in Crash

A fiery crash on I-94, west of near Lake Rd., near dawn Saturday resulted in at least five injuries among members of a Florida family and two Belleville men. The two vehicles involved in the mishap were totally demolished.

According to a report from the Michigan State Police, Donald J. Dermott, 42, of Hollywood, Fla., was westbound on I-94 at approximately 6:15 a.m., driving a 1965 Ford 4-panel pick-up truck with an attached trailer. Traveling behind him was Lawrence L. Dysarz, 21, of Belleville, in a 1975 Dodge van.

Dysarz attempted to pass McDermott on the highway when McDermott's trailer entered the passing lane and collided with the van. Both drivers lost control of their vehicles which then spun out onto the median and burst into flames.

Three passengers were riding in McDermott's trailer when the accident occurred, including his wife, Ayn, 44; his son, Brent, 12, and his mother, Florence, 81. McDermott suffered minor injuries, while his passengers were all seriously injured and required hospitalization.

Youth WORC Project Underway

PARK ENLARGEMENT: Hardhats in place and work gloves covering their hands, these four youths join the task of reducing the size of a tree trunk into smaller and more disposable pieces. The tree removed from the back of Pierce Park last as part of Chelsea's new WORC Project.

Removal of the tree was made in an over-all plan to push Pierce Park back 300 feet. WORC Project participants, from left, are Bob Luck, Sinjoo Kim, Penny Collinsworth, Mike Wobd and Paula Bennett (in the far background of the photo).

"The whole key of the program is the kids," Ken Larson announced last week in summing up his assessment of Chelsea's newly instituted WORC (Work Opportunity Resources Corporation) Project. Larson is program supervisor of the local project which is being funded by the Michigan Department of Natural Resources.

Since the project began here on July 25, it has provided summer employment for 42 Chelsea youths and four adult supervisors in addition to Larson. All have been hired for restoration and conservation work in the community.

Of the $5 million total allotted to the project by the DNR on a state-wide basis, Chelsea is receiving $37,746 to cover local project costs for the summer.

Application to the WORC Project was made jointly by the Chelsea School District and the Village of Chelsea in early July following approval of the project by the Michigan State Legislature. After receiving notification that Chelsea had been awarded a WORC Project grant, village officials assumed responsibility for the employment of local youths involved in the project, and the disbursement of project funds.

In addition to the youths, who are all between the ages of 15 and 18, the four adult supervisors working with Larson are Jeanne Haselschwardt, John Groesser, Dave Nicewicz and Craig Coltrane. To kick-off the project, the group began a Pierce Park clean-up. (Continued on page five)

Sponsored by the Michigan Department of Natural Resources, the project also employs four adult supervisors and a project administrator. In addition to completing a variety of tasks at the high school, WORC Project work crews have been working on a clean-up project at Pierce Park. ## School Board Hotline

Question: If the millage falls in Aug. 15th, will the school board hold another election after school starts?

Answer: The school board has not formally addressed itself to this question. However, when asked individually, a majority of the board members stated that they would vote against holding another election in the fall. They felt it would be impossible to juggle schedules and reinstate programs in the middle of the semester. The Aug. 15 election will be the 11th one.

Question: I've heard rumors about the salaries of the teachers and administrators in the Chelsea School District. I've heard that the first year teachers make $15,000 per year and after 10 years they make $25,000. I also heard that the superintendent makes somewhere between $50,000 and $70,000 dollars per year. What's the truth?

Answer: The starting salary for Chelsea teachers is $9,125 for those with a bachelor's (B.A.) degree, $9,872 with a master's (M.A.) degree. After 10 years of service teachers with a B.A. make $14,000 and those with an M.A. make $17,000. The average teacher in the district makes about $13,000. All the Chelsea teachers are lowest paid in the county. Next lowest is Manchester teachers after 10 years of service make $15,349 with a B.A. and $18,517 with an M.A. Ypsilanti and Ann Arbor are the highest after 10 years of service teachers with a B.A. make over $20,000 and those with an M.A. over $23,000.

After 28 years as superintendent of Chelsea Schools Mr. Cameron's salary is $30,364. Seven of the 10 school districts in Washtenaw county pay their superintendents more.

Question: As a concerned citizen of the Chelsea School District, the taxpayers should be aware of the tax increase, if the request of 3.8 mills passes. To a family with a home valued at $50,000 and assessed at $25,000, the 3.8 mills is equivalent to $3.80 per $1,000 of assessed valuation. This would increase this family's taxes by $95 a year or approximately $1.82 per week.

Concerned Citizen.

A. There are two parts to the total school district millage levy. The Board of Education is proposing a 3.8-mill increase in operational millage in the Aug. 15 election, and has also proposed a 1.2-mill decrease in debt retirement millage. The combination of these two factors results in a net tax increase of 2.6 mills. A family with a home assessed at $25,000 would be taxed an additional $65. A senior citizen would receive the entire amount back from the state in the form of a tax rebate, according to the provisions of the Homestead Act. By virtue of the same piece of legislation, a non-senior citizen would receive 60 percent back from the state, leaving him or her with a net additional tax of $26 for the year.

The Veterans Administration resumed "postpayment" of GI Bill allowances July 1. For the past several years, monthly allowances were prepaid.

Mrs. Donald Edward Kirk

Pamela Anne Wilson, Donald Kirk Speak Vows at St. Mary Church

Pamela Anne Wilson, daughter of Mrs. James W. Norris of 13931 Old US-12, and Harry C. Wilson of Ypsilanti, married Donald Edward Kirk, son of Mr. & Mrs. William Kirk of Manchester, Saturday, Aug. 6, in St. Mary Catholic church, Chelsea. The 2 p.m. ceremony was performed by the Rev. Germano Pegoraro of St. Mary Catholic church and the Rev. Elmer L. Roy of Hillcrest Church of Christ, Arlington, Tex., before a gathering of 250 guests.

During the ceremony, a vocal quartet composed of Chris Alber of Traverse City, Pat Knickerbocker of Chelsea, Doug Beaumont of Chelsea and Dennis Bauer of Chelsea sang "Evergreen," "Sunrise, Sunset," "Sabbath Prayer," and "The Lord Bless, and Keep You." Instrumental accompaniment was provided by Lavonne Harris on organ and Ron Harris on trumpet.

As she approached the altar, the bride was wearing a white chiffon silhouette gown styled with an empire waist and wide-cuffed sleeves. The scalloped neckline of the gown was trimmed with Venice lace as was the cap which supported her finger-tip veil. She carried a colonial bouquet of yellow roses and stephanotis.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Stephen L. Vigo of Milan, sister of the bride. She appeared in a yellow chiffon, floor-length dress and a matching wide-brimmed hat. She held a colonial bouquet of yellow and white daisies, accented with baby's breath.

Attending as bridesmaids were Mrs. Edwin J. Snook of Seattle, Wash., sister of the bride; DiAnn L. Roy of Chelsea; and Mrs. Richard Pawlak of Monroe. Their costumes matched that of the matron of honor.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Norris chose a soft beige chiffon, floor-length dress, styled with a Venice lace bodice. A matching chiffon cape completed her attire. Attached to her purse was a corsage of silk flowers and feathers.

Mrs. Kirk, mother of the bridegroom, wore a raspberry-colored nylon, floor-length dress, also with a matching chiffon overcape. Her purse corsage was an arrangement of pink roses.

Serving as best man was William Kirk of Manchester, brother of the bridegroom, while ushers for the occasion were Richard Fielder of Manchester; Chester Henry of Manchester; and John Guess of Saline.

Immediately following the wedding, a reception given by the respective mothers of the bride and bridegroom was held at the Chelsea Fairgrounds Service Center. Rose Marie Kirk, sister of the bridegroom, poured punch and coffee; Doreen Brokaw, sister of the bridegroom, cut the wedding cake; and Joan Walkow, also a sister of the bridegroom, tended to the guest book.

The newlyweds then departed on a wedding trip to Texas. For her travels, the bride selected a two-piece black and white striped jersey suit.

The former Miss Wilson is a graduate of Chelsea High school. She received her bachelor's degree in music education from Eastern Michigan University and is currently employed as a kindergarten and music teacher.

Her husband is a graduate of Manchester High school. He continued his education at Washtenaw Community College and later at Eastern Michigan University, where he received his bachelor's degree in science. He is currently employed as an elementary school teacher by the Manchester School District.

VFW Auxiliary Members Plan For Many Upcoming Activities

A regular business session of the Ladies Auxiliary of Chelsea's Veterans of Foreign Wars Post No. 4078 was held Monday, Aug. 1, with 11 members in attendance. During the meeting, Debbie Clark and Sandra Truhn were elected and initiated into membership.

Members of the group were notified of upcoming Auxiliary events, including the annual Pow-Wow, slated for Sept. 23-25 at the Hyatt Regency Hotel in Dearborn; the sixth district convention, Sept. 18, in Adrian; and the Golden Anniversary of the local Auxiliary's parent organization, scheduled for the fall.

Dorothy Lenz was appointed chairman of the local group to assist with plans for the anniversary celebration.

In other announcements, Auxiliary members were told the national convention will be in Minneapolis this year, from Aug. 20 to Aug. 26. Attending the convention as delegates for Chelsea's Auxiliary will be Sandy and Sally Ellenwood. Following elections at the national convention, the national Auxiliary president will make an official visit to Chelsea in February of next year.

Chelsea VFW Post members, in conjunction with Auxiliary members, are currently planning a program to honor all past commanders and Auxiliary presidents who served the local units. The event is slated for September, with details to be released at a later date.

Also at Monday's meeting, reports were given on the activities of the 6th District planning committee by Lucy Platt and Eulalie Packard, both of whom had attended a recent committee meeting. Elizabeth Smith reported on the July 19 picnic for Ann Arbor VA Hospital patients; the July 22 hospital party; and the activities of the Auxiliary during Chelsea's recent Sidewalk Sale and Art Fair. She billed all a success.

Americanism chairman, Eulalie Packard, reminded the group of the forthcoming Chelsea Community Fair parade, and asked for volunteers to carry the Auxiliary colors in the parade.

The membership was informed that the VFW Post and Auxiliary will again co-sponsor the annual Voice of Democracy contest at Chelsea High school, and hope to extend the contest to surrounding area high schools.

The Auxiliary approved an agenda of activities for the 1977-78 year as set up by the planning committee on July 26. Included on the agenda is an annual bazaar to be held Dec. 2 and 3.

Before adjourning, Auxiliary members were told that the State Auxiliary has arranged a trip to Hawaii for all Michigan Auxiliary members. Information on the trip, planned for early January, may be obtained from Auxiliary President Bessie Sharp. Next regular meeting of the Auxiliary will be Sept. 12 in the VFW Hall.

HERE IS WHAT THE PROPOSED MILLAGE INCREASE WILL COST YOU:

Do you know how much the proposed millage will really cost? While the District is seeking 3.8 additional mills, the total tax increase to property owners would only be 2.6 mills, because the debt retirement millage will be reduced by 1.2 mills next year.

By looking at the following chart, a homeowner can determine the cost of this millage based on his or her individual circumstances.

COST OF CHELSEA SCHOOLS' AUGUST 15, 1977 MILLAGE REQUEST

(Based on a 1976 tax levy of 42.965 mills total and the state property tax rebate law)

By using these charts, homeowners can estimate the cost of the proposed millage increase on the ballot of August 15, 1977. Here's how to use the chart:

1. Find the figure in the left-hand column that comes closest to the amount of your household income.
2. Select the figure in the top row that comes nearest to the Homestead Assessed Valuation. (Tax valuation)
3. Follow the rows headed by the two figures to the point in the chart where they meet. Approval of the ballot proposal will increase your taxes by approximately this amount.

SENIOR CITIZEN CHART

Senior Citizens receive a rebate of 100% of all property taxes over 3.5% of their gross household income except those with $5,000 income, who receive a rebate of 100% of all property taxes over 2% of their gross household income. The total rebate cannot exceed $1,200. You receive the rebate by filing form MIT1040C (available at a post office or bank) along with your state income tax forms.

followed by a clean-up of both Chelsea school grounds and the local fairgrounds.
"We are pushing Pierce Park back 200 feet," Larson said as he described the goal of the group's first WORC Project effort. "So far, we have saved 12 trees at Pierce Park and have re-planted them around the high school. We are digging up and saving any tree under 12 feet, and leaving the big ones in."
Other accomplishments of the group have included painting
walkways at the high school, hauling in wood chips and scattering them around the shrubbery at both the high school and South
school, working on flower boxes
at Beach Middle school, and hauling in top soil to cover an eroded
hill by the pool at Beach school.
After the top soil was spread over the hill, the group proceeded to seed it.

"Beyond simply operating the rents for youth, the idea
the WORC Project program is encourage an awareness and appreciation of resources among young people, and help them develop good working habits and attitudes," Larson continued in outlining WORC Project objectives.
Youths employed by the project
work a 40-hour week, with daily hours from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. They are paid $2.57 per hour and are allowed to work only 10 weeks.

According to Larson, 119 applicants responded to the 42 WORC Project job openings. In selecting work crews, village officials favored applicants who fell into three age groups, and also attempted to evenly balance the number of males and females
red.

"The names of applicants who are not hired were put on an alternate list, which will be used finding replacements for regular workers who go on vacation," Larson explained.

Future projects to be undertaking by work crews include putting up playground equipment at Chelsea schools, beautifying village grounds along Letts Creek, clearing brush and litter from right-of-ways at Freer Rd., Ca-vannah Lake Rd., and Jackson St., cleaning up Veterans Park
and rearranging playground equipment at Veterans Park.
Still in planning stages is the construction of an athletic complex at Beach school, which will utilize resources from the Chelsea Recreation Council and the Village of Chelsea, as well as those available through the WORC Project. The complex will contain a football field and two baseball diamonds. The Recreation Council will be responsible for leveling
the field, the village will haul dirt to the field, and WORC Project participants will plant grass seed to prevent erosion.
In implementing project proposals, only 15 percent of Chelsea's total WORC Project grant can be spent on tools, grass seed, shrubs, or miscellaneous equipment. As a result, the Village of Chelsea has offered to donate the services of professional consultants, various

CLEARING BRUSH: These seven workers are in the process of clearing brush from the grounds at the back of Pierce Park. The effort is part of Chelsea's WORC Project, a program funded by the Michigan Department of Natural Resources. All local project efforts must be directed towards conservation or restoration work on public property.

program administrator; Ken Larson, Jeff Harok, supervisor Dave Nicewicz.

pieces of equipment, and a truck
to haul the equipment, to protect work crews when needed.
Nevertheless, the purchase of some equipment such as hand tools and hand saws was inevitable, Larson stated. He added that all items are bought from Chelsea merchants unless they are unavailable locally. "As a matter of fact, there are a few merchants in town who smile every time I walk in the door," Larson chuckled.

Public response to WORC Project efforts are still low-key, according to Larson. "I don't think people realize what we've done
thus far," he speculated. "However, we plan to take before and after pictures to document our progress, and will use the photographs to supplement written information required for a state audit at the end of the year."
All communities participating in the DNR's WORC Project will be required to pass a state audit at the end of 1977 to determine whether project funds have been spent appropriately. To prevent a misuse of funds, all local project proposals are first subject to the approval of the Village of Chelsea.

"The village has a final say in everything we do," Larson confirmed. "Everything must be cleared through the Village Administrator."
Although the paper work stemming from Chelsea's WORC Project grant, combined with organizing work crews and finding jobs
for the crews have put Larson
through at least two hectic weeks,
he feels the results of the WORC Project will offset any personal inconvenience. His determination to succeed with Chelsea's new project is further fueled by his observation that "We haven't received a single negative comment
about the project."

Larson ultimately hopes to use
Chelsea's WORC Project to benefit all public sectors of the community. To achieve this end, he is accepting project suggestions from community residents. The only guidelines to be used in making suggestions, according to Larson, is to limit all conservation and restoration projects to public property.

B. Pearson Appearing In Trumpet Recital

1977-78 academic year to intensify his trumpet studies and practice,
and expects to complete his doctorate in the summer of 1978.
He is the son of Mr. and Mrs.
Willard Pearson of 13940 Old Us-12.

In Sunday's recital, Pearson will be joining one of country's most gifted organists. A review of a recent performance by Vidrich,
which appeared in The Washington Post, stated he was "the assured master of the music, and the instrument, and is blessed with an unerring sense of tempo,
the will and technique to allow the organ to breathe, and a feeling for the structural integrity of each piece."

Of Vidrich's talent, Pearson has said, "Art Vidrich is one of the most sensitive and accomplished
musicians I have been my privilege to work with."

Vidrich began his musical training at the age of eight while attending the Western Pennsylvania School for Blind Children in Pittsburgh. During his high school years, he gained valuable experience playing preludes and accompanying hymns on the school's pipe organ at daily chapel services.

He was accepted into the music
school at Duquesne University after graduating high school and earned his bachelor of music degree from the university in 1967. Vidrich's senior recital at Duquesne included the Poulenc organ concerto and a solo work especially written for him by his theory and composition professor, Joseph Wilcox Jenkins.

After receiving his bachelor's degree, Vidrich entered Indiana University in Bloomington, Ind., to do graduate work in music and study organ with Clyde Holloway.
He was awarded his master's degree in 1971 and has been active as a recitalist since then.

Vidrich's future plans are to begin his national debut in a recital
with orchestra at the National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception. He followed that up with four recitals in Yugoslavia in July of 1972, and in September of that year, he entered the doctoral program at the University of Michigan School of Music as a student of Robert Glasgow.
Along with trumpeter William B.

Dederer, Vidrich in 1975 formed a trumpet and organ duo whose specialty is the performance of 20th century music for trumpet and organ. In December of 1975, Vidrich attained candidacy toward his Doctor of Musical Arts degree.
Vidrich uses the Braille Music
Code as a means of learning all the music he plays. The process requires that he read braille notes with his left hand while playing with his right, and vice versa.
After learning the pedal part, he puts the three together, repeating the passage until it is firmly committed to memory. This process is continued several bars at a time, until the entire piece has been memorized.
Listed in the 1975 issue of "Outstanding Young Men in America,"

The Chelsea Standard, Thursday, August 11, 1977

Vidrich plans to teach organ and related subjects on the college level, and to perform as much as possible.
The public is invited to attend
the Aug. 14 recital which will feature the talents of the two rising young virtuosos.

Circus Nets Fair Board Nearly $2,000

A deserted field was all that remained of the Hagans Wallace-Sells & Gray Combined Circus Friday morning, July 29, at the Lloyd Bridges property east of Chelsea Fairgrounds. Yet, only hours earlier, the site had been filled with the sights and sounds of a bustling midway, and with thousands of area residents, who had arrived to witness the one-day event.

A turnout of approximately 1,800 at the Thursday afternoon performance, July 23, and an additional 2,200 at the evening show, gave the sponsoring Chelsea Community Fair Board nearly $2,000 in proceeds from the event. A remaining share of the profits was kept by the circus.

According to members of the Fair Board, their portion of circus revenues will be used to finance improvements at the local fairgrounds. Already some money has been spent on the construction of a new livestock wash rack, and a new horse barn at the fairgrounds. Additional outlays are planned for lighting improvements.

Along with a buzz of favorable comment, the circus audience filled the air with appreciative applause during many of the acts. Exceptionally well-received were a dog show and an elephant act. And, bringing a kaleidoscope of color to each 1½-hour performance were the rhinestone-studded costumes of circus performers, who appeared in a multitude of varied tones.

Audience participation was also part of the scene as circus members invited children to enter a tug-of-war contest in the circus arena. Meanwhile, jugglers and clowns entertained the crowd with their skills and skits. During intermission, these same clowns mingled with the audience.

Although the circus is now long past, area children retain memories of a fun-filled day, while Fair Board members will continue to offer residents even more lasting evidence of the event's success.

Douglas won that election, but Lincoln gained notoriety and began his political ascent. A courthouse where Lincoln once practiced law now stands in Greenfield Village. It was moved to the site in Dearborn, from its original location in Postville, Ill.

VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL at Chelsea's First United Methodist church will end today, and as this photo may confirm, attendance at the two-week summer session broke all former records. The children and their teachers, pictured above, studied what it meant to be a Christian friend, guided by the theme, "Created for Love." Highlights of the Bible school included visits from Sparky the Clown and Spiff the Magician, trips to the Nature Center, tours of Chelsea United Methodist Retirement Home and a picnic on the church lawn. Special crafts and singing rounded out the program. Anyone attempting to count the individuals among the sea of faces in the photo should emerge with a total of 120.

Pot-Luck Dinner Today Concludes Methodist Vacation Church School

First United Methodist church of Chelsea has been conducting its annual Vacation Church School for the past two weeks. Under the directorship of Mary Kumpf and assistant director, Judy Radant, the church school has had a very successful program following its over-all theme, "Created for Love." Each of the classes, from the 2- and 3-year-olds, through the fifth-sixth grade, has studied what it means to be a Christian friend and how individuals and groups work together as friends.

The two weeks of church school have been highlighted by special events, including visits from Sparky the Clown and Spiff the Magician, trips to the Nature Center, tours of the Chelsea Methodist Home, a picnic on the church lawn, and special crafts and singing for each age group.

Attendance this year has broken last year's record. The average daily number of students attending each day has been 120. This large number has created a need for many people to help the regular teaching staff and to provide refreshments. Several mothers and older students have volunteered their time to aid the teachers. The church school has also been fortunate to have the help of the Chris Sharp family from Manchester, England. They are visiting the local church for three weeks and have been a welcome addition to the staff and student body.

At the concluding pot-luck dinner today, Aug. 11, the students and their families will have the opportunity to share a meal together.

Real Estate

By PAUL FRISINGER

REALTOR

HOW MUCH HOT WATER?

One of the items frequently overlooked when remodeling or buying a new home, is the capacity of the hot water heater. First notice of this oversight normally is discovered while under a hot shower when it turns ice-cold prematurely. But, then it is too late. So, here's a short course on the subject.

The capacity of storage water heaters is rated in two ways and is usually imprinted on the nameplate of the tank. One number tells you the capacity of the tank, and the other number shows the recovery rate per hour. The sum of the two numbers gives you the number of gallons of hot water a tank can supply in one hour.

A tank of 50 gallons capacity with a recovery rate of 40 gallons will supply 90 gallons an hour which should be plenty for a family of five in a home with two baths and an automatic dishwasher and clothes washer. A family of four without the dishwasher should be able to get by on a 30 or 40 gallon tank with 30 gallon recovery.

If there is anything we can do to help you in the field of real estate, please phone or drop in at FRISINGER REALTY CO., 933 S. Main St., Chelsea. Phone: 475-8681; evenings 475-2621. We're here to help!

Sidewalk Sale, Art Fair Very Successful

Intermittent showers put a damper on Chelsea's annual Sidewalk Sale and Art Fair last week-end, but failed to water down profits for either craftsmen or merchants who displayed and sold their wares in the downtown business district. According to Karen Johnson, a co-ordinator of the event, sales were brisk Friday, followed by only a moderate slowdown Saturday.

The highlight of this year's two-day bazaar was an old-fashioned auction Friday evening. A sizable crowd turned out for the occasion and bid competitively on all items that crossed the auction block.

Among the near give-aways that had been a 28-channel CB radio that went for $30, a $170 record cabinet for $77.50, an electric fishing motor for $37.50, a La-Z-Boy reclining chair for $150 and a GE microwave oven for $230 and a 1972 Ford Torino for $500.

Altogether, proceeds from the auction totaled $3,367. The money will be donated to the Chelsea Bicentennial Committee to offset last year's bicentennial debt.

A greater variety of arts and crafts were on display this year as opposed to those appearing in former fairs, according to Mrs. Johnson. A trend among many of the artists, several of whom had exhibited in past Chelsea fairs, was to show greater diversity within their media.

Also of note was the fact that less macrame work was on display, while wood-crafted items had gained appreciably in popularity. One reason cited for dwindling macrame displays was that more faragoers had learned the craft themselves and were producing their own macrame art.

Although many artists closed down their display booths prematurely this year to keep the rain from ruining their exhibits, a comparison between the sales of artists and those of local merchants showed artists had the edge on profits this year.

However, those to profit the most of all fair participants were area residents attending the 1977 annual Sidewalk Sale and Art Fair. They were able to purchase quality goods, both from craftsmen and retailers, at remarkably low prices.

Food Items Needed for Fair Kitchen

Donations of pies and cakes are again being sought by the Chelsea Community Fair Kitchen for this year's fair, Aug. 23-27. The home-made desserts have always been a hit with fairgoers, who exhaust daily supplies to top off lunch or dinner, according to this year's kitchen superintendent, Art Steinway.

Co-ordinator of pie and cake donations this year is Thelma Steinway. She will be calling area residents to solicit donations, but may not reach everyone interested in donating baked goods to the fair. If you have a family specialty you would like to share with others, or would like to donate any other type of dessert, call Mrs. Steinway at 475-8976 to make arrangements.

Persons unable to contact Mrs. Steinway are urged to bring their baked goods to the Fair Kitchen any day during the fair. All donations are to be taken to the kitchen as early as possible, in the morning. The kitchen will be open at 7:30 a.m. every fair day.

BABE RUTH TOURNEY CHAMPS: Members of this Babe Ruth All-Star Team No. 1 lived up to their name in the Babe Ruth League Tournament last Sunday as they captured the tournament championship by overcoming some stiff opposition from Team No. 2. The players combined a strong pitching attack with some outstanding defensive fielding to keep Team No. 2 struggling for an advantage. Power hitting finally iced the victory for members of this talented group. Kneeling in the front row, from left, are Brant Gurber, Doug Van Deven, Dan Pagliarini, Dennis White, Jim Cobb and Mark Stevenson. Standing in the rear row, from left, are Coach Don Alber, Al Augustine, Jim Alexander, Coach Joe Alexander, Troy Waldon, David Stock, Jeff Leighton, Harvey Proctor, and Coach Tom Stock.

BABE RUTH ALL-STAR TEAM NO. 2: Although these members of the Babe Ruth All-Star Team No. 2 failed to win their challenge of Team No. 1 in last Sunday's league tournament, the game which featured the two was billed a real thriller by spectators in attendance. At one point a cloudburst dampened the efforts of the players, but still failed to stop the action. Keeping up a tight defense and placing their hits in strategic spots throughout the field, these sluggers kept No. 1 at bay until the final innings. In the front row, from left, are Drew Sprague, Tim Seigert, Jeff Dils, Jim Yungkins, John Conlin, Rich Scott, Rick Neff, Pat Murphy and Chuck Moore. Standing in the back row, from left, are Coach Russ Pichlik, Coach Dan Murphy, Jon Riemenschneider, Frank Tomke, Mike Wade, Mike Claffey, Mike Wood, Gary Neff, Scott Price and Coach Tom Neff.

Waterloo Youth Dies In Cycle Accident

A Stockbridge High school freshman was killed early Wednesday afternoon, Aug. 3, when he drove his motorcycle into the path of a car on M-106, just 200 yards from his home.

Dead is Russell "Rusty" Musbach, 13, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Musbach of 10351 Territorial Rd., Waterloo township. The youth and a friend, 14-year-old Mike Katz of 11283 Musbach Rd., were riding dirt trails in a field on Territorial Rd. They had paused by the roadside before crossing to the other side, according to the Jackson County Sheriff's Department.

Musbach pulled back onto the road and into a car driven by Thomas E. Kingsley, 21, of Jackson. Sheriff's deputies stated the boy struck the grill of the car, was thrown over the hood, and into the windshield.

Attempts to revive him at the scene were unsuccessful and he was pronounced dead on arrival at Foote Hospital East in Jackson. Neither Katz nor Kingsley were injured.

Funeral services were Saturday, Aug. 6, at S.S. Cornelius and Cyprian church, Bunkerhill, with the Rev. Gerald Chapman officiating. Interment followed in Parish Cemetery, Bunkerhill.

Winners Named in Area Fishin' Contest

A total of 300 entries were submitted in the 1st annual "Fishin'" Contest, sponsored by Sportsman's Landing of Chelsea. The contest, which ran from July 4 to Aug. 6, was initially begun as a promotional project by the local sporting goods store, but because of the overwhelming response of area residents, more contests are planned for future dates during the remainder of the summer and in the winter.

Five categories were featured in the contest, including bass, pike, perch, bluegill and crappie. Contestants were allowed to enter more than one category, and the number of fish each contestant was allowed to submit in each category was unlimited. The only rule of the contest was that all fish had to be caught in Washtenaw county lakes.

Winners in the bass and pike categories were determined by giving one point for length and 1 1/2 points for weight. More than $200 worth of prizes were awarded to top finishers by Sportsman's Landing.

Among the winners in the bass category was Bernard Hildebrandt of Dexter, first place with a 20-inch, 5 lbs. bass, pulled in from a private farm pond at 7:30 p.m. He used a green jitterbug lure and fished from off a dropoff. His prize was an Olympet ultralight rod and reel combination.

Second-place bass winner was Joel Krichbaum of Chelsea, who pulled in a 20 1/2-inch, 4 1/2 lbs. bass from six to eight feet of water in a private lake at about 7 p.m. He lured the fish with a neutral swamp worm and received a Rapala 7 1/2" flit knife for his effort.

Placing third was Mark Jenkins of Chelsea with a 19 1/2-inch, 4 1/2 lbs. bass. The fish was caught in eight to 10 feet of water at Doyle Lake at about 7 p.m. and was lured in by a Spence scout. Jenkins' prize was a Mepps "Basser" kit.

In the pike category, 13-year-old Pat Rody of Chelsea took top honors with a 34 1/2-inch, 9 lbs. catch while fishing in 30 feet of water at South Lake. He pulled in the fish at about 6 p.m. using a Helin flatfish lure. His award was a South Bend 935 classic reel and a Heddon rod.

Runner-up to Rody was Mark Jenkins of Chelsea, who caught a 32 1/2-inch, 7 1/2 lbs. pike in 50 feet of water while fishing at South Lake at about 12:30 p.m. He snared the fish with a Cotton Cordell's Big "O" lure, and received a 9" Rapala flit knife as his prize.

Third-place pike fisherman was Randy Risner of Chelsea, whose 28-inch, 5 1/2 lbs. entry came from 50 feet of water at Blind Lake. Using a Johnson's silver minnow lure, Risner pulled the fish in at about 8:30 p.m. He was awarded a lure package for the effort.

Winners in the perch category were Calvin Penix of Gregory, first place with a 12 1/2-inch catch; Mike Laisinger of Dexter, second place with an 11-inch catch; and Todd Koch of Chelsea, third place with an 8-inch catch.

Charlie Jenkins of Chelsea took the top prize in the bluegill category with a 9 1/2-inch entry, followed by Jim Stirling of Chelsea, 2nd, with a 9-inch bluegill, and Todd Koch of Chelsea, third with an 8 1/2-inch bluegill.

In the final division of the "Fishin'" Contest, Pete Dendel of Dearborn led the field by pulling in a 10 1/2-inch crappie, while Bart Bauer of Chelsea was close behind with a 10 3/16-inch crappie for second place. Third-place winner in the crappie category was Mike Bareis of Chelsea with a 9 1/4-inch catch.

On June 4, 1986, Henry Ford wheeled his first automobile out into the streets of Detroit. He completed the car, which he called a Quadricycle, in a brick shed behind his house at 53 Bagley Avenue after nearly three years of experimentation. When it came time for the test drive, however, Ford found the door of the shed too small to let the car through. An axe remedied the problem.

ENGLISH VISITOR: Demonstrating the technique in filling out a police report is Chelsea Patrolman Roger Graves, seated behind the typewriter. Cause for the demonstration was a brief visit from Christopher Sharp, far right, of Manchester, England. Sharp, who is training for the Methodist ministry in England, was at police headquarters Monday for a tour of the station and a chat with local officers as part of his study of the criminal justice system in Chelsea. Others in the photo, standing from left, are Chelsea Police Sergeant Lenard McDougall, the Rev. Marvin H. McCallum of Chelsea's First United Methodist church, and police dispatcher and Explorer Steve Jaskot.

Dexter Township Board OKs Subdivision Plans

At a recent meeting, the Dexter Township Board granted final approval of Phase II of the Carriage Hills subdivision on Dexter-Binckney Road. Phase II consists of 38 lots. Still under development is Phase III which will add 29 lots, bringing the subdivision to a total of 104 lots.

The board also considered expanding the Zoning Board of Appeals to five members. Purpose of the expansion is to allow representation from all areas of the township. No action was taken since the applications received are from residents of township areas already represented on the board. The Township Board will reconsider the Zoning Board of Appeals expansion again after seeking more applicants for the positions on the expanded board.

The Township Board discussed the problem of traffic deaths within the township and the possible causes of traffic hazards. The board resolved to take every possible action which may bring about a decrease in the traffic hazards within the township.

In other action, the board reviewed the engineer's report on the Quirk private road. The report indicated the road conditions did not presently meet the private road standards. The board will work with the proprietor to improve road conditions prior to accepting the private road. Acceptance of a private road is required by the township prior to the issuance of zoning permits.

The next Township Board meeting will be Tuesday, Aug. 16, at the Township Hall.

Area Youth Dominate County 4-H Fair Livestock Exhibition

As in past years, the livestock exhibitions in the 1977 Washtenaw County 4-H Youth Show, Aug. 1-3, were the object of unequalled popularity among those attending this year's event at the Farm Council Grounds in Saline. Also mirroring last year's records, Chelsea and Dexter 4-H Clubs finished the show with an abundant list of livestock winners.

In swine judging on Wednesday, Aug. 3, Karen Baldus of Dexter carried off Champion Individual honors as well as the Champion Pair of Market Hogs title. The same day, Steve Grau of Chelsea received the Champion Individual title for sheep, while the top breeding award went to Ruth Luckhardt of Dexter for her Champion Shropshire Ewe.

Chelsea and Dexter swept the poultry judging event Thursday, Aug. 4, as Diana Bareis of Chelsea took the Grand Champion of Cockerels title for her entry. She was joined by Marsha Buchmeier of Dexter, Reserve Grand Champion Pen of Cockerels; Mark Brämer of Dexter, Grand Champion Poultry Production Pen; and Jim Buehner of Dexter, Reserve Champion Poultry Production Pen.

Local beef breeding winners were Eric VanNatter of Dexter, Champion Angus; Cindy Welshans of Dexter, Reserve Champion Others; Karen Baldus of Dexter, Champion Charolais and Charolais Cross; Bob Baldus of Dexter, Reserve Champion Charolais and Charolais Cross; and Karen Baldus, Champion hereford. Beef judging was another event conducted Thursday.

In the beef market division Karen Baldus was the owner of the winning Reserve Champion Steer. Also receiving recognition was Chris Grau of Chelsea whose sheep exhibit was judged tops for the Highest Rate of Gain.

Other winners were local dairy exhibit champions Abbie Muhlig of Dexter, Brown Swiss Reserve Champion; Wendy Wolfgang of Chelsea, Jersey Champion; Bruce Breuninger of Dexter, Holstein Champion; Howard Sias of Chelsea, Holstein Reserve Champion; Bruce Breuninger of Dexter, Individual Herd Champion; Diane Ottoman of Chelsea, Reserve Champion Individual Herd; and Bruce Breuninger of Dexter, Top Dairy Animal.

Receiving showmanship awards were Ruth Luckhardt of Dexter, senior sheep division; Beth Heller of Chelsea, junior dairy division; Bruce Breuninger of Dexter, senior dairy division; Eric VanNatter of Dexter, junior beef division; Dan Grau of Chelsea, senior beef division; and Scott Powers of Chelsea then concluded the list of local winners by taking the highest showmanship award of the five-day county 4-H event. Powers was named recipient of the over-all Sweepstakes Showmanship trophy.

It's Rampy's theory that if you spend time, effort and money to see that your customers are satisfied, they'll come back again . . . and again.

That's exactly why Rampy recently bought the most modern computer diagnostic system available. The Sun 2001. It's one of the few things in this world that seems to make everyone happy.

The mechanics like it because it makes their job easier . . . It can spot a small problem before it develops into a big one . . . and it saves a lot of sweat looking for problems that just don't want to be found.

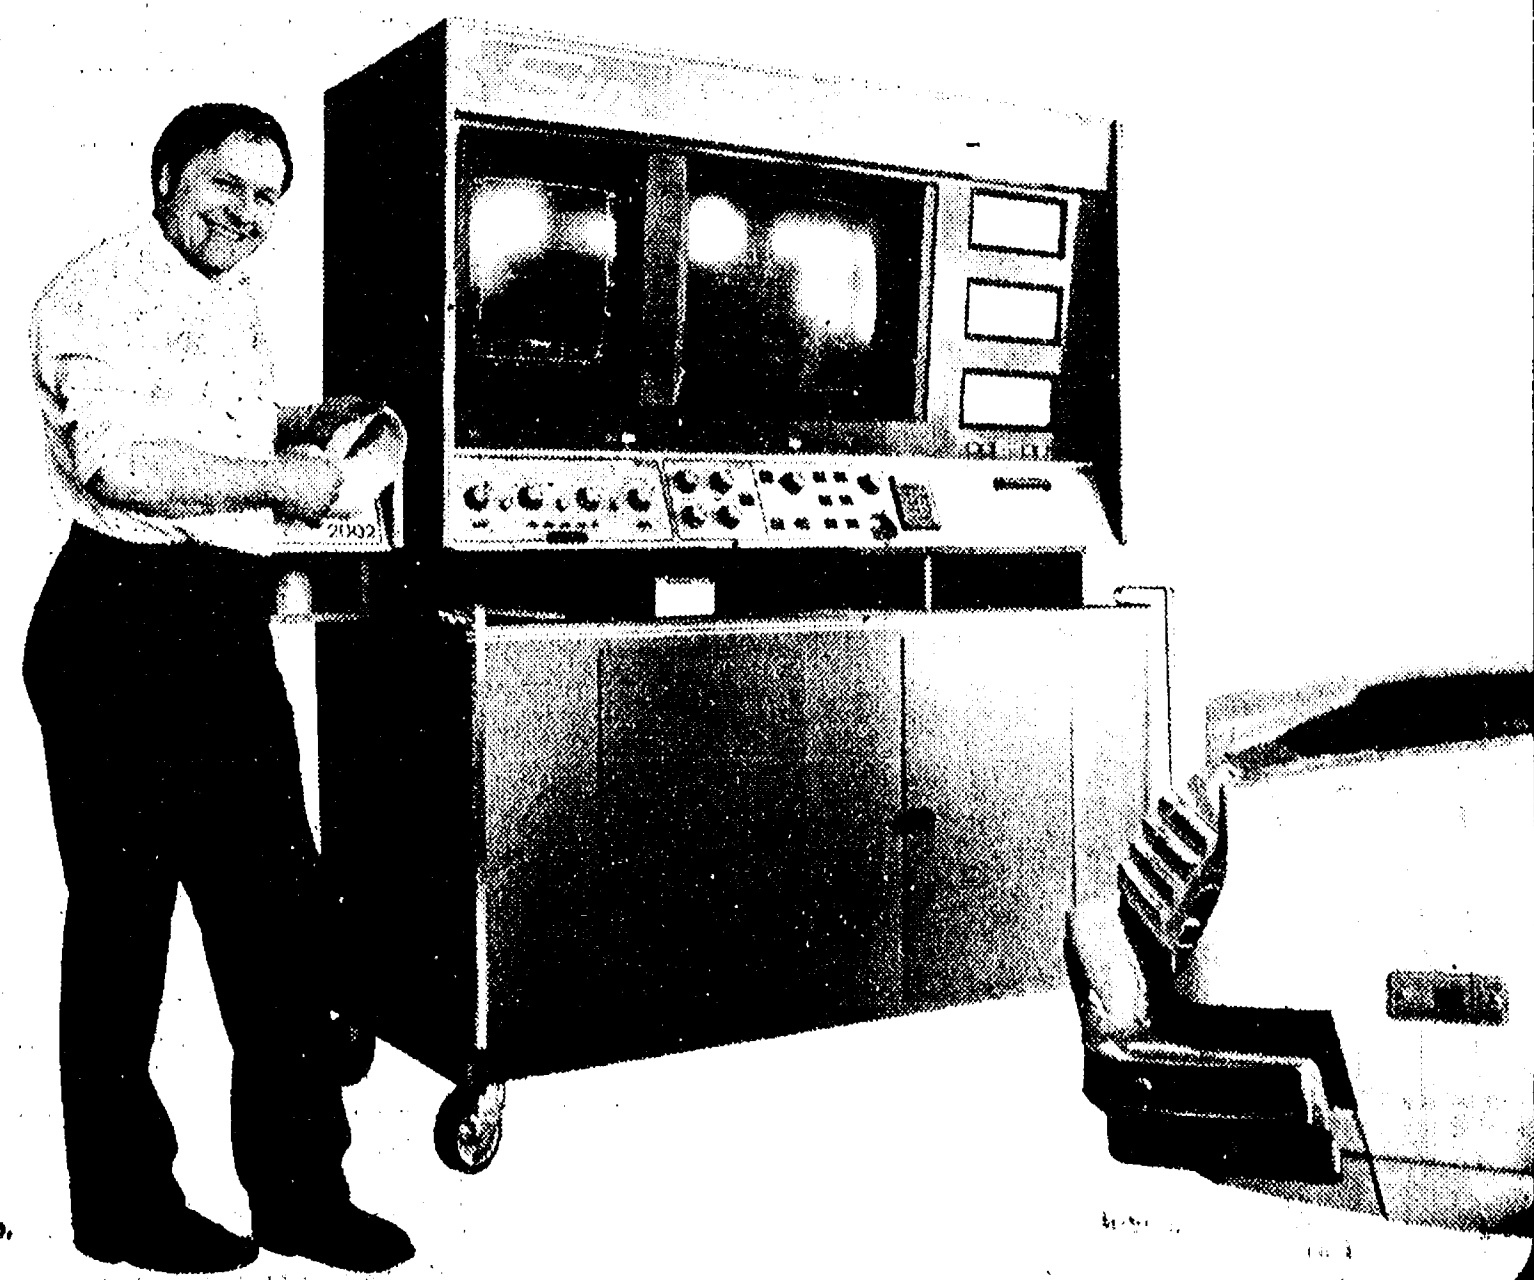

Customers like it because the computer print-out they receive allows them to see just exactly what was needed to get their cars running at peak performance. And, that means fewer service calls in the long haul. The real problems are spotted right away.

And Rampy likes it because he can see it helps keep his customers satisfied.

Bring your car in for a taste of the future today . . . the Sun 2001 . . . at Rampy Chevrolet.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor:

As an emergency physician, I am prompted to write by your recent articles concerning the near drowning which occurred at North Lake on July 23.

It appears from your accounts of the incident that the victim of the near drowning is indeed fortunate to be alive. Most important was the fact that people trained in cardio-pulmonary resuscitation were present at the time of the incident. The treatment at a patient receives in the first few minutes after adequate, spontaneous breathing or heart function ceases often makes the difference between life and death. Reversible brain damage can occur if the brain is deprived of its usual supply of oxygen for four to six minutes.

The importance of properly administered cardio-pulmonary resuscitation (CPR) can not be stressed enough. Even when perfect technique is used to administer CPR, the oxygen content of the air in the lungs is only about 10 percent of normal and the amount of blood pumped through the heart is only 25 to 30 percent of normal. Improper CPR technique and, occasionally, even proper CPR technique can result in injuries to the ribs, lungs, heart, liver, and other vital structures.

Many lives can be saved by CPR. It is a technique that can be performed by almost anyone who has been properly trained by a certified CPR instructor. Exposure to CPR as it is performed on television or in movies or by simply watching someone else demonstrate the technique is never adequate.

When adequate breathing and heart function cease, many changes occur very rapidly in the body's chemistry and function. When CPR is successful and the patient is revived, further medical evaluation is always necessary. Such patients should be transported immediately, preferably by ambulance, to a medical facility staffed by a well trained emergency physician or another physician trained in handling the post-CPR patient and equipped to perform emergency laboratory and X-ray studies and electrocardiograms. This is particularly true in the case of a near drowning where a patient may sustain severe damage to the lungs and other organs which in some cases will not become apparent until 24 to 48 hours after the initial incident.

The people who participated in reviving the victim of the recently reported near drowning incident should all be congratulated. I hope your account of how CPR saved this accident victim will encourage others to properly learn how to administer this life saving technique.

I would like to suggest that your readers contact the local Heart Association chapter in Jackson or Washtenaw county to arrange for formal training in CPR. It is a good feeling to know that you have the knowledge and skill that could save someone's life in the event of a medical emergency. Gregory W. Baumann, M.D., Emergency Department, W. A. Foote Hospital East Jackson, Michigan

Dear Editor:

Over the past year, The Standard has run many articles about the Chelsea Swim Club. With the Club's first season just ending, and another millage election coming up, I'd like to give your readers a different slant on the club's activities since the opening of the pool last year.

Under Coach Larry Reed's guidance, kids from six years old on up got their first taste of competitive swimming. They loved it, they won more often than they lost, but that's not the important thing. What really counts is what they learned: How to accept victory and shrug off defeat. To know when they have done their best, and to settle for nothing less. The pleasure of seeing hard work pay off in measurably better performance. Pride in representing their community throughout the state. Satisfaction at having raised thousands of dollars, through their own efforts, to equip the Village pool.

Then came the millage defeat, followed by the School Board's decision to close the pool. It looked as if the whole program was about to fold, but Coach Reed just wouldn't let that happen. He arranged to rent pool time in an Ann Arbor school (1), and so throughout the summer there was a daily caravan of tired but dedicated Chelsea kids (and Chelsea mothers!) shuttling back and forth along I-94. The results? They kept plugging away, and when the Washtenaw County Championships had ended, 28 of our youngsters had won awards, with two crowned as County Champions. Even though we, the voters, had locked them out of the pool, they went ahead and competed on a par with the older and larger clubs in Ann Arbor, Milan and so forth. That's determination.

To Larry Reed, and his assistants Jim Tallman and Sue Anthony, heartfelt thanks for all you have given to Chelsea's children. I hope we can live up to the example they have set.

To the voters, a plea. Whether we're talking about the swim club, or the band, or the baseball team, or any other activity, the story is pretty much the same. Our children are learning to believe in themselves and to appreciate dedicated, hard work. Isn't it worth crushing that spirit just to save a few dollars? Think about it. Please.

Jerry Mason.

GRAND CHAMPION LAMB: One of the highest prices paid for a Grand Champion lamb this year in Michigan went to Steve Grau, kneeling, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Grau, 3420 M-52, Chelsea, at the 4-H Livestock Show at the Saline Farm Council grounds on Thursday, Aug. 4. The lamb went for $6.50 per pound to buyer Clint Castor, left, proprietor of the Pretzel Bell restaurant on Liberty St. in Ann Arbor. Steve took home a total of $682.50.

The original typewriter patent was issued to William Burt of Mount Vernon, Mich., in July of 1829. However, the first typed letter was two months earlier. John Sheldon, editor of the Michigan Gazette in Detroit, sent it to then Secretary of State Martin Van Buren. Henry Ford Museum, Dearborn, displays a large assortment of early typewriters in its Communications Collection.

Chelsea Girls Attend Session at Interlochen

Two Chelsea musicians, both of whom will be juniors at Chelsea High in the fall, returned recently from a two-week sojourn at Interlochen Arts Academy, Interlochen, where they participated in All State High School Band Camp, July 11-24.

Prior to their return, one of the two, Lori Van Riper, was selected outstanding camper among all high school girls attending the camp in a vote by members of the All State counseling staff. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Van Riper of 54 Chestnut St.

Lori, who was awarded 4th chair oboe in the 11-000 section of the All State High School Band, was joined at Interlochen by Sheryl Kell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Kell of Waterloo Rd. Sher-yl was awarded 12th chair clarinet in the 52-clarinet section of the All State High School Band.

Approximately 200 musicians attended the two-week session at Interlochen. These musicians were selected from between 2,000 and 3,000 applicants state-wide. Purpose of the music camp was to bring outstanding music students from Michigan together to play in a single, collectively talented group.

All State participants are selected on the basis of recommendations from their private instructors, results from district and state solo and ensemble competition, and the recommendations of their school band instructors.
