Mini-Blizzard Over Week-end Snarls Traffic

Chelsea schools joined the majority of Washtenaw county school districts in closing their doors Monday following a winter weekend storm which brought 7.5 inches of snow, freezing rain, sub-zero temperatures and blocked roads.

While Chelseaites bundled up and burrowed out, yet another storm shed nearly three inches on the village Tuesday evening, making driving hazardous on the slippery streets.

School closed Monday because of nine impassable district roads, most of them in Jackson county. "Chelsea and Washtenaw county had an excellent job Sunday night and Monday morning, but because nine roads were still blocked, school was closed for the day," according to a spokesperson for the Chelsea School District.

Roads closed to school bus traffic were Noah, Hayes, Heim, Grass Lake, Elsworth, Lima Center, Waterloo-Munith, Bowditch, and Farnsworth.

Also closed Monday was the Charles S. Cameron Pool at Beach Middle school, both because of the weather and for the final repair of a heat exchanger which had malfunctioned just before schools closed for Christmas vacation.

According to Police Chief George Meranuck, the village has not had one serious car accident as a result of the snow and ice covered streets and only three minor fender benders. "It's pretty unusual so we've been lucky," he commented.

Class of '78 Survey Underway

Chelsea High school Class of 1978 is now being surveyed to help the high school discover how graduated seniors feel the curriculum helped them.

Now in its fifth year, this survey is being conducted by William Chandler, vocational co-ordinator at the high school.

Information gathered from earlier surveys has helped to modify the present curriculum by changing programs and helped to encourage students to take classes that have been found to be helpful to graduates.

Questionnaires were mailed during Christmas vacation in the hope that most graduates would be home over the holidays. Parents of graduates are encouraged to forward the survey forms if their son or daughter did not receive it at home.

Any graduates who have not received the form should call the high school at 475-9131 and give their name and address to the operator. A form will be forwarded to them.

All graduates are encouraged to complete and return the questionnaire as soon as possible. The more returned, the more complete and useful the data will be.

Jeff Dils Qualifies for NCAA Meet

Eastern Michigan University student-athlete Jeff Dils, graduate of Chelsea High school, qualified for the NCAA Indoor Track and Field Championships in Cobo Hall in March.

Dils qualified for the indoor nationals by recording a time of :07.24 in the National CYO Invitational's 60-yard high hurdles. The mile relay team of Dils, Billy Ray, Tony Cadogan and Ben Gibson was second to Villanova with a 3:18.4.

Dils came back to place third in the 500-yard run at :56.9. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Dils, 650 N. Main St.

Biddy Basketball Coaches Needed

Biddy Basketball coaches are in great demand if the program is to get off the ground, according to Robin Raymond, director of the Chelsea Recreation Council. Action is scheduled to begin Saturday, Jan. 20, if coaches volunteer, Raymond commented.

Coaches are needed specifically for the 7- to 8-year-old boy's WBA league and the 9- to 10-year-old boy's ABA league.

Persons interested in coaching these leagues should contact Wayne Wellon at 475-1578.

Volleyball Relocated

Co-ed volleyball team, which had been scheduled for action in North school has been changed to Beach Middle school on Monday evenings from 8:30 to 10 p.m., according to an announcement by the Community Education Department.

Local Jaycees Observing 25th Anniversary

Chelsea Jaycees begin celebrating their silver anniversary, Monday, Jan. 22, while Jaycee members nationwide observe an even longer history of community service as Jaycee Week officially starts this Monday.

With a long list of both annual and special projects held for the benefit of others, the Jaycees have been a source of rock-steady pride for Chelsea.

Not only do their monthly, bi-monthly, and sometimes more often fund-raising events provide welcome support to area individuals, families and groups, they serve as proving grounds for the making of leaders, and, as a bonus, they're often a lot of fun.

The annual Chicken Barbecue and Fall Color Tour, which sold 500 chicken dinners last year and raised the same figure in cash, is a grand way to say goodbye to summer while feasting on the butter-basted birds.

When they're not raising money, Chelsea Jaycees have another annual festivity to welcome a new season with the Community Easter Egg Hunt. Barring uncooperative weather, young egg-hunters happily trek over the high school grounds in search of these elusive, specially marked eggs.

BOWLING FOR DOLLARS: More than 40 children, ranging in age from 5 to 18, joined in a bowling tournament at Chelsea Lanes in a fund-raising drive for the Michigan Lung Association. In all, the bowlers netted a sizeable total of $1,387.08. Although the tourney was held Nov. 4, the Lung Association only recently came through with the trophies which are pictured here with their winners. From left, in back, are Tami Schulze, B. J. Behnke, and David Boyer. In front, from left, are Sue Messner, and Tracie Harook. Presented trophies Saturday were peanut division winners Donna Harris, first with $121.83; Annette Wurster, second, $83; and Shelly Adkins, third, $89.27; prep division, Tim Loucks, first, $51.63, Sheri Rowe, second, $12.00, and Greg Greenleaf, third, $26.82; and junior and senior bowlers, Sue Messner, $103.75, B. J. Behnke, second, $6.48 and Tami Schulze, third, $41.61. House champions were David Boyer, son of Judy Granger and Fremont Boyer, with a grand total of $411.84, and Tracie Harook, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Harook, with a total of $389.15.

TRUST SERVICES ADDED: Chelsea State Bank officers join with Ann Arbor's National Bank & Trust trust department members to discuss final plans for the adding of trust services to CSB. Seated are Paul Mann, right, president and chairman of the board of CSB, and James Meretta, left, vice-president and trust officer of NB&T. Standing are Paul Schabtle, right, executive vice-president and cashier of the board of CSB and Steve Hoffman, assistant vice-president and trust officer for NB&T. The arrangement between the two banks will offer estate analysis, financial planning, and investment management to make "Chelsea State Bank a truly full-service bank," Mann commented. Services will be provided on a scheduled basis beginning Tuesday, Jan. 23.

Chelsea State Bank Offers Trust Services

Trust services will be available at Chelsea State Bank, through an arrangement with National Bank and Trust Co. of Ann Arbor, it was announced jointly today by Paul E. Mann, president, Chelsea State Bank, and Benjamin F. Cope, Jr., president of National Bank and Trust Co.

Mann said he was pleased to be able to expand the services Chelsea State Bank offers to customers, particularly through an institution with such a fine reputation and strong Trust Division.

"National Bank and Trust offers our customers extensive experience and expertise in the Trust area with a staff of 18, currently managing in excess of $120 million in assets. Now Chelsea State Bank is truly a full-service bank," said Mann.

Initial plans call for two members of NBT's Trust Department to serve Chelsea customers on a scheduled basis. They are James L. Meretta, a vice-president, and Steven T. Hoffman, assistant vice-president and trust officer. Mer-etta is a graduate of the University of Michigan Law School and the University of Michigan School of Business Administration, and has had more than 10 years experience in the trust field. Steve Hoffman holds a BBA in finance from the University of Wisconsin and has 8 years experience in the corporate trust area.

Estate analysis, financial planning and investment management will be just three of the full range of trust services that will be offered through the new arrangement. Customers who wish to take advantage of the trust services may call Chelsea State Bank to make an appointment, or call National Bank's Trust department.

Cope of National Bank and Trust cited the close proximity of the two banks as an additional convenience to customers. "Chelsea area residents can take advantage of the new arrangement by coming into Chelsea State Bank or by simply calling either bank to discuss their financial program."

Mann said that the new trust services will be available at Chelsea State Bank beginning Jan. 23.

Cagers Lose to Saline, Win Over Pinckney

Chelsea varsity Bulldog cagers dropped a conference game but came back to sweep over Pinckney, bringing their over-all season record to 6-4.

Chelsea fell to a 3-3 SEC record Friday, Jan. 12 with a 55-43 decision from Saline.

First quarter action saw the Hornets take off with a 13-9 lead over the Bulldogs which they increased to 24-13 by half-time.

"The first quarter was our worst offensive show of the season although we were only down by 11 points," Coach Robin Raymond commented. "Saline was hot the first half, shooting 10 for 22 from the floor for 45 percent. We only had 6 for 30 for a poor 20 percent," he added.

During the third period, Bulldogs dropped 15 points behind the Hornets and played a catch-up game in the final quarter.

"One bright spot for us was the performance of John Dunn when he came off the bench in the third quarter. He contributed six points in the last quarter," Raymond said.

Leading scorer for Chelsea was Jeff Dils with 10. Charlie Bridges followed with nine; Don Schrotenboer, eight; Mike Machesky, seven, and John Dunn, six. "Despite the outcome, our offense looked well balanced as there was a steady performance on everyone's part," Raymond said.

Chelsea out-rebounded the Hornets, 36 to 35, with Charlie Bridges in the lead with eight and Don Schrotenboer with seven.

Bulldogs had 22 fouls and Saline had 15. In turnovers, however, Saline came up on the heavy side with 24 while Chelsea kept theirs to 17.

"Everyone was cold. It was almost as if the basket had a lid on it every time we went to score," Raymond remarked. "There were many, many baskets of ours that reached the rim, rolled around, and fell out, he added.

Chelsea had 14 out of 59 from the floor for a very low 24 percent. Saline had 21 out of 43 for 49 percent.

More encouraging was the Bulldogs' free throw average—15 out of 22 for 68 percent. Saline, on the other hand, had 11 out of 28 for a low 39 percent.

The Chelsea vs. Pinckney game Tuesday, Jan. 16, proved a better showcase for the Bulldogs as they swept over the non-conference team, 71-48.

Playing a close game for the first three quarters, Chelsea led, 14-10, in the first period; 30-23 at half-time; and 43-38 at the end of the third period. During the final eight minutes, Chelsea outscored Pinckney, 30-10.

From the floor, Chelsea shot an average of 40 percent, making 28 out of 70. They also out-rebounded Pinckney, 45 to 22; had a free throw average of 72 percent; and only 14 turnovers to Pinckney's 22.

Leading Bulldog scorer was Gary Dils with 16. Don Schrotenboer and Charlie Bridges each tallied 14; Jeff Dils, 10; Jesse Coburn, seven; Mike Machesky, four; Mike Killea, two; John Dunn, two; and Matt Feeney, two.

Chelsea rebounders were Dor Schrotenboer with 11; and Jesse Coburn, Mike Machesky, and Charlie Bridges, each with nine.

Uncle Lew from Lima Says:

DEAR MISTER EDITOR:

Just when you think we've gone as far as we can go, along comes a report like Bug Hookum give during the session at the country store Saturday night. Bug had saw where the U. S. Forest Service has come up with a plan to cut a "scenic highway" across farms in five counties of Virginia, and then to build "living farms of the past" along the road so folks whizzing by in their air conditioned cars could see how Virginia country life was before the highway come through and messed everything up.

Bug said this cockeyed thinking reminded him of the way generals in Vietnam explained why they burned out folks. They said they were fighting the kind of war where it comes necessary to destroy the country in order to save it. If that makes sense to you, declared Bug, you ought to sign up for the Forest Service.

While Bug's report was sinking in, Mister Editor, Zeke Grubb pulled out a clipping and read where the Department of Transportation is trying to get rid of what it calls "vehicle exterior protrusions." That ain't a disease, it's hood ornaments. The DOT allows these do-dads are dangerous, but Zeke said no mention was made of evidence where a pedestrian had been run through with one. He figured the Government agency was taking the long way around, like always. Putting a chrome eagle on the hood is a safety hazard, Zeke explained, because it cost money that otherwise could be spent making the car safer.

Practical speaking, broke in Ed Doolittle, the scenic roads and hood protrusions won't make no never mind in a few years. Ed said he had studied the situation up one side and down the other, and he was of a mind that the Arab oil countries are leading the golden goose to the slaughter, and the American oil companies are getting ready to finish the job. Between them they are going to destroy the system that made them as big as they are, was Ed's words. Ed recalled that the 14.5 percent jump in imported crude come after the refineries staged their mini-crisis right after Thanksgiving, and built up enough steam to jack up the price at the pump a few more cents.

Ed said he don't know nothing about economics of Big Oil, or Big Air or big anything, but he does know you can go to the well just so many times. What we need to do, he allowed, is take price controls off gasoline and slap the prices to the airplanes and the guns we sell these oil producing bandits. With more oil being discovered in Alaska, and Mexico showing promise, Ed said we can get enough to back up our play. Final, Mister Editor, Clem Webster come up with an encouraging word. He said even a blind hog finds a acorn now and then. The U. S. Department of Agriculture has backed off its plan to outlaw "junk food" sales in public schools that use federal subsidy foods in lunch programs. When the USDA, with its tobacco promotion and support, realizes it ain't the agency to be in the business of perfecting children's health, there is some hope left, declared Clem.

Yours truly,
Uncle Lew.

Gas, Weight Tax Roll-Back Expected

Supporters of a petition drive to roll back the legislatively approved hike of gasoline and diesel fuel taxes and license plate fees are claiming victory but petitions were not filed in time to keep the hikes from going into effect on Jan. 6. Backers of the petition drive to suspend the new increases announced they had reached their goal with 250,000 signatures but announced they would not file the petitions until they were properly checked and validated.

Barring a court injunction or challenge, which opponents to the petition drive plan filing, the State Board of Canvassers could certify the petitions at the earliest between Jan. 17-19.

Upon certification by the board, the 11-cent-per-gallon state gasoline tax will be returned to nine cents and the diesel fuel tax will go back to seven cents instead of the increased nine cents per gallon.

Additionally, the increase, an average of 30 to 35 percent—in motor vehicle license plate fees will be rolled back to their current levels until a final decision is reached.

One of the final actions of the legislature last year was to pass legislation providing the secretary of state with the authority to make refunds to persons purchasing their license plates at the new rate while those who waited for the outcome of the petition drive could purchase theirs at a lower rate.

Both legislatively approved increases will be determined by the voters in the November, 1980 general election upon certification of the petitions which will place the increases in limbo until that final decision is cast.

Meanwhile the state Supreme Court ruled that the state's lieutenant governor does have the authority to cast a tie-breaking vote and that vote would be the final determining factor. Lt. Governor James Damman was forced to cast a tie-breaking vote for the gasoline tax increase to be approved by the legislature.

The governor asked for an advisory opinion from the court to head off any challenges by opponents of the tax. Opponents declared the state constitution was not clear on the vote of the lieutenant governor.

One part of the constitution said the lieutenant governor could vote only in the event of a tie and another said a bill could be passed only by a majority vote of legislative members elected and serving.

The state's highest court said framers of the constitution meant for the lieutenant governor to have the authority to vote in a tie situation to remove any legislative deadlock.

Governor Remains Consistent With Medicaid Veto

For the third time in one year, Governor William G. Milliken vetoed legislative language prohibiting the use of state funds for welfare abortions.

The governor and the legislature have been battling on the issue through the state's massive welfare budget.

Milliken has consistently criticized the legislation as denying poor women the right of abortions and labeled the vetoed bills discriminatory.

The governor said to say that every woman has the right to make her own individual decision on this personal matter but provide no access to the medical services necessary to carry it out, is a "hollow, meaningless commitment."

The split on funding for non-therapeutic abortions has been the most severe difference between the governor and the legislature last year. Last summer, he vetoed the entire medical budget because of the prohibition written into the bill.

Motorists can use jumper cables to boost weak batteries following the steps shown. Automobile Club of Michigan advises motorists to check their car owner's manual for more detailed information. Improper jumper cable use can result in battery explosions or damage to a car's electrical system. Persons attempting to boost a battery should be sure both vehicles are in park, with bumpers not touching and all accessories off. Both batteries must be the same voltage. Weight Reduction Class Series Offered

Chelsea Community Hospital will again offer a series of eight weight reduction classes which will begin the week of Feb. 11.

Topics covered during the eight weeks include low calorie cooking, exercise and weight reduction, shopping tips, eating out on a low-calorie diet, normal nutrition, and information on fad diets. Particular emphasis will be given to assessing behavior modification techniques helpful to each person's weight reduction program.

The course will be taught by Pat Asp, R.D. hospital dietitian, and Julie Say, R.D. community nutritionist.

Each registrant will receive a personalized diet, knowledge of eating behavioral techniques useful in controlling weight, and increased knowledge of nutritional aspects of weight reduction and normal nutrition.

Community members who attend the fall series of weight reduction classes were pleased with their success in weight loss. The class lost a total of 204 lbs.; average weight loss for the participant was one pound per week.

A registration fee of $20 is charged to cover costs of the eight-week series. Afternoon classes will be held at Chelsea Community Hospital, 775 S. Main St., at 4 p.m. each Tuesday. Evening classes are co-sponsored by the Chelsea School District Continuing Education Program and will be held at Chelsea High School on Washington St. at 7 p.m. Thursdays beginning the week of Feb. 11 and ending the week of April 1.

Complete the application found in this week's issue and enclose the full registration fee to reserve a place in the class.

Lettuce Prices Jump Because of Cold Weather in California

Infestations of the Tobacco Budworm in California lettuce fields earlier this season led to speculation of impending shortages and dramatic increases in retail prices. Thanks, however, to the co-operation of cold weather, rains, and selective spraying of insecticides cleared for use with the state, the outbreak was brought under control.

Wholesale shipping point prices at the beginning of December were between $3 and $4 for a carton of 24 heads. The cold snap in early December sent prices to $6 a carton, and they remain in the $6 to $7 range because of the uncertainty over future supplies due, in large measure, to persistent low temperatures.

U-M Hospital Asks State Approval on New Burn Unit

University Hospital, Ann Arbor, has asked the state to approve expansion of the Michigan Burn Unit from 10 to 30 beds.

The expansion, in a separate building, would consolidate the burn services currently provided at University Hospital, St. Joseph Mercy Hospital and Chelsea Community Hospital, and would also provide ambulatory care services.

The new center would be housed in a separate building, physically connected to the main University Hospital.

The objective would be to provide a full range of care services to burn patients, to conduct education programs for physicians, conduct clinical and laboratory research, as well as prevention and public education programs to reduce burn injuries, and to co-ordinate programs with other hospitals and burn care facilities in the state.

The expansion would cost an estimated $6,437,000 and would be completed in July 1981.

In keeping with federal regulations requiring state approval prior to capital expenditure and change in service, University Hospital has applied for a Certificate of Need. The application is on file with the Michigan Department of Public Health, division of Health Facility Planning and Construction.

New Variety Potato Grows in Popularity

USDA has announced that a new variety of potato is achieving popularity among growers. In its quarterly National Food Review Report, the Department says last year, which was the first season the new potato variety was offered, growers planted only 300 acres, 3,000 acres.

The new variety is named Butte and "is 50 percent higher in Vitamin C and 15 to 20 percent higher in protein than Russet, Burbank, America's most popular potato variety," the report says. The Butte was developed by Joseph J. Pavek, a plant geneticist with USDA's Science and Education Administration.

The expert says Butte has excellent cooking qualities, makes a good french fry and lasts longer on the shelf. It closely resembles Russet Burbank and is generally adapted to the same growing areas.

The Bible-The Light from Heaven

Teaches the principle, that no man can serve two masters. (Matthew 6:24). And no matter what profession he makes to the contrary, a man is truly the servant of that master to whom he habitually and continually yields his slavish obedience. (John 8:34). The apostle Paul reveals in Romans 6:4 that the Romans had been buried with their Lord in baptism and resurrected to walk in newness of life. In verses 17 and 18 we read, "But God be thanked, that ye were the servants of sin, but ye have obeyed from the heart that form of doctrine which was delivered you. Being then made free from sin ye became the servants of righteousness. They were servants of sin but became servants of righteousness. The child of God is to present his body as a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable to God which is his reasonable service. (Romans 12:1). The apostle Paul then continues, "And be not conformed to this world; but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect will of God." (Romans 12:2). No man can serve two masters.

Report Says Ban On Nitrites Will Hike Meat Prices

The Associated Press reports that a government ban on nitrites in bacon processing would drive up the over-all cost of retail meats by 2.9 percent a year. The AP has secured a copy of a study done by the U.S. Department of Agriculture.

The report said, "A ban on the use of nitrites and nitrate to cure bacon would eliminate this product from the market. Alternative uses for pork bellies have to be found."

The study predicts over-all meat price rises because farmers would sharply reduce hog production. This would turn consumers toward higher beef and poultry consumption, driving those prices up in the process.

A total ban on nitrites in bacon would cut farmers' income by as much as 5.5 percent a year, the USDA said.

Last spring, the Department set reduced limits on nitrate used in bacon. Tests are now underway to determine what levels of nitrosamines are produced when the bacon is fried. Nitrosamines have

Toll-Free Food Stamp Information

Beginning Monday, Dec. 18, the Michigan Department of Social Services is providing toll-free telephone number to the state agency designed to furnish general food stamp program information to the public.

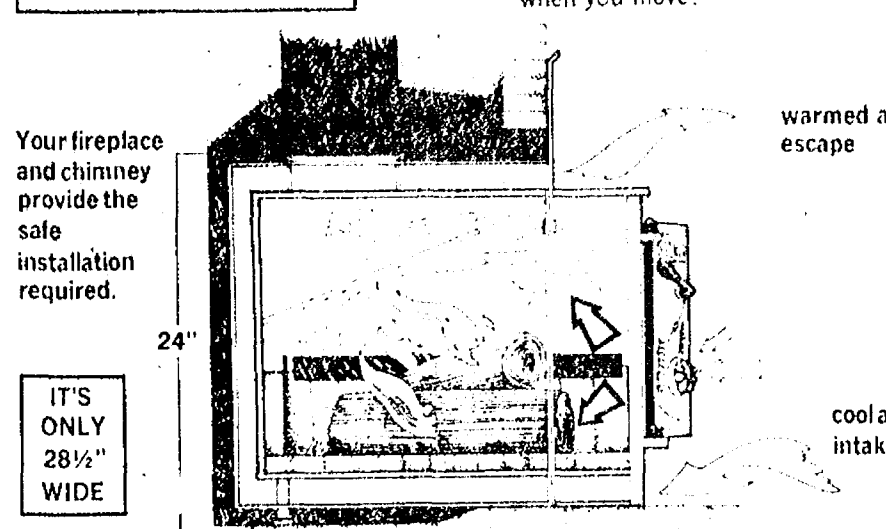

The number to dial for this service is 1-800-292-5590. However, in Wayne county only the local number caused some laboratory animals to contract cancer.

Details of the initial tests are being withheld by the USDA, and the Associated Press is joining with several other groups in a court action to force release of the information.

The U. S. Department of Labor was established by law in 1913; it included the Bureau of Labor Statistics, the Bureau of Immigration and Naturalization, and the Children's Bureau.

LEGISLATIVE LOG

An Overview of Action on Bills in the Michigan Legislature
For Week of Jan. 8-12

In the Senate ...

The 38 members of the Michigan Senate were sworn into office this week by Michigan Supreme Court Chief Justice Thomas Giles Kavanaugh. Of that total, 25 were re-elected to the State Senate last November, while 13 (6 Republicans and 7 Democrats) are beginning their first term in the Upper Chamber. Six of the new members are former State Representatives. Control of the Senate remains in the hands of Democrats who continue to hold a 24 to 14 majority in the Senate.

Following the formal swearing-in ceremonies, Senate members proceeded to elect their officers for the 1979-80 legislative session. Appointed were: Jack Faxon (D-Detroit), president pro tempore; Jackie Vaughan, III (D-Detroit), assistant president pro tempore; Harry DeMaso (R-Battle Creek), associate president pro tempore; and Billie S. Farnum, secretary of the Senate.

The Majority Leader also outlined his priorities for the new session this week, placing revision of Senate rules at the top of his list. He also emphasized the need for the legislature to budget carefully for the new fiscal year, in light of voter approval of the Headlee Tax Limitation Amendment last November. In addition, he called for legislative action to promote energy conservation, reform Michigan's workers' and unemployment compensation systems, inventory state lands, protect residents against toxic contamination and strengthen consumer protection provisions.

In the House ...

The 110 members of the Michigan House of Representatives were also sworn into office this week. A total of 27 new and 83 incumbent State Representatives were administered the oath of office by Michigan Supreme Court Justice Mary Coleman. The Lower Chamber, too, retains a Democrat majority with 70 Democrats and 40 Republicans taking office. House members filled the following leadership posts this week: Speaker of the House, Bobby D. Crim (D-Davison); Speaker pro tempore, Matthew McNeely (D-Detroit); Associate Speaker Pro Tempore, Gary Owen, (D-Ypsilanti); Clerk of the House, T. Thomas Thatcher; and Assistant Clerk of the House, Melvin DeStigter. In addition, the Speaker announced new committee assignments for the upcoming session.

Lists of priority legislation were also presented this week by the Speaker of the House and the House Minority Leader. The Speaker urged legislation approval of measures to provide property tax relief, reform workers' compensation, improve mental health care, contain public health costs, prohibit conflict of interest among public officials, open legislative caucuses to the press and public, establish a state land use plan, ban redlining, and decriminalize marijuana possession and use. Priorities detailed by the Minority Leader also included property tax relief, improved mental health care and workers' compensation reform. In addition, he said legislative action is needed to upgrade the state's educational programs, reform unemployment compensation and revise no fault automobile insurance coverage.

Rounding out the week, House members hosted members of the Senate, Supreme Court and Appeals Court, as well as other state officials, in providing a forum for the Governor's State of the State Message to the Legislature.

From the Governor ...

Governor Milliken took center stage this week as he presented his 11th annual State of the State Message to the legislature. In his address to a jam-packed crowd in the House Chambers, Milliken said he will propose no tax hikes or cuts for 1979, but will seek some adjustments to make the state's tax structure more equitable. In addition, the Governor urged the legislature to act to preserve decaying urban areas, provide greater uniformity in criminal sentencing procedures, improve Michigan's job climate by reforming the state's workers' and unemployment compensation systems and upgrade educational programs. He also called upon legislators to create a State Department of Energy, pass a new toxic substances law to tighten the state's control over potentially hazardous chemicals and waste, strengthen political ethics laws and improve mental health care. In general, legislative leaders reacted favorably to the Governor's Message, particularly commend-

Land Ownership Detailed Vehicle Entry Permits On Sale at Metro Parks

Private individuals and corporations now own 60 percent of U.S. land, according to a report issued by the Economics, Statistics and Co-operatives Service. The balance is held by federal, state and local governments, and American Indians. About seven to eight million farm, ranch and forest owners hold 95 percent of all privately held land. The two percent of U.S. land used for housing is owned by 47 to 58 million people, the ESCS found. The remaining three percent is used for commercial, industrial and recreational purposes.

Economist Gene Wunderlich, who authored the final report, said, "Land ownership affects how wealth is distributed, how land is used, and from the Department's (USDA) standpoint, how land policies are made."

Wunderlich said getting detailed information on landowners is often difficult because not all true owners are recorded and many different people may hold rights to the same piece of real estate.

Coldest temperature registered in Michigan was 51 degrees below zero at Vanderbilt on Feb. 9, 1934.

1979 Huron-Clinton Metropark vehicle entry permits are now on sale at six locations throughout the counties of Wayne, Macomb, Oakland, Livingston and Washtenaw.

As announced previously, charges have been increased for this year and are similar to those charged by the Department of Natural Resources state parks and recreation areas.

Huron-Clinton Metropark vehicle entry permits rates for 1979 are: Annual: regular $7, senior citizen, $2; or daily, $2. Senior citizens must have proof of age.

Permits are on sale at park offices of these Huron-Clinton Metroparks: 1) Metro Beach Metropark near Mt. Clemens, phone 463-4531 or 963-3022; Stony Creek Metropark near Rochester-Utica, phone 781-4242; Kensington Metropark near Milford, phone 635-1531; Hudson Mills Metropark near Dexter, phone 428-8211; Lower Huron Metropark near Belleville, phone, 697-9181; or the Huron-Clinton Metropark main office at 3050 Penobscot Building, Detroit 48228, phone 961-5865.

Metropark vehicle permits are also required at Delhi and Dexter-Huron near Dexter, Willow and Oakwoods Metroparks near New Boston and Flat Rock and at Mars bank Metropark (when it opens in the spring). Other parks are open year-round.

JV Cagers Lose to Jackson NW, Saline

Plagued by an inordinate number of turnovers and a poor free throw average, Chelsea junior varsity Bulldog cagers took two defeats last week.

Junior Bulldogs faced Jackson Northwest on Jan. 9 and conceded, 50-45, after a topsy-turvy game. Chelsea took a one-point lead in the first quarter only to relinquish it in second-quarter action, 22-20.

Rallying in the third period, Chelsea outscored Jackson, 11 to 6, for a 31-23 lead but slowed down in the final quarter. Jackson outscored the Bulldogs, 22 to 14, for the win.

Junior Bulldog Sean Peterson tapped in 15 points; Karl Albrecht, 14; Jon Riemenschneider, six; Mike Wade, five; Jeff Price, two; and Mike Lazarz, two.

Chelsea had only 16 rebounds the entire game compared to a hefty 24 for Jackson. There were no leading Bulldog rebounders.

In addition to the slack rebounding, Chelsea was 8-10 in free throws while Jackson totaled 18 out of 23. Jackson collected 12 consecutive free throws late in the fourth quarter.

Junior Bulldog Albrecht added four steals and Mike Lazarz, three. Mike Lazarz assisted with five scores and Sean Peterson, three. Albrecht added four blocked shots.

Against Saline on Friday, Jan. 12, Chelsea took a closer defeat, 42-39, with better rebounding but a large count of 32 turnovers.

Saline hustled early in the game for a 14-8 lead which they increased to 30-10 by half-time.

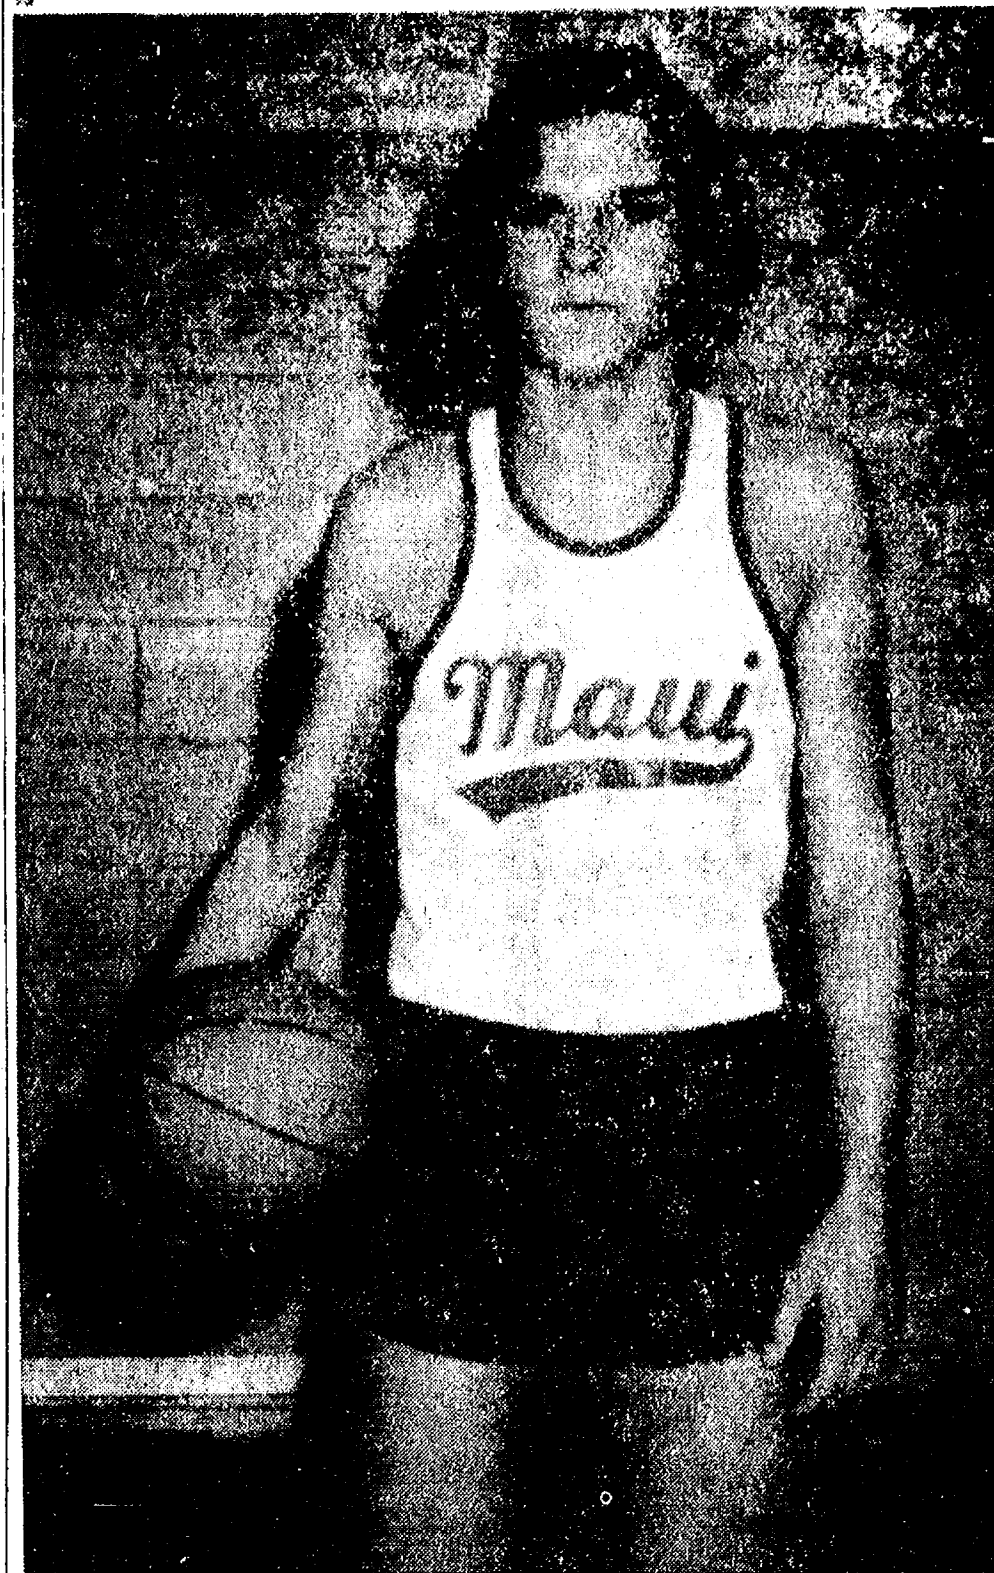

Chelsea's defense kept the Hornets to six points in the third period, and their defense came to life in the final quarter, outscoring Saline, 18 to 6.

Leading the Junior Bulldogs was Karl Albrecht with 11 points, followed closely by Jon Riemenschneider with 10. Mike Wade added eight; Mike Lazarz, three; Carl Schwarze, two; Mike Steinaway, two; Chris Heaton, two; and Sean Peterson, one.

Albrecht led in rebounds with 10. Mike Lazarz contributed six; Sean Peterson, four; Jon Riemenschneider, four; Mike Wade, three. Peterson had five assists, and Wade, three. Albrecht had three blocked shots.

Bulldogs out-rebounded Saline, 29-20.

Cager of the Week

CHARLES BRIDGES (32): Described as a "senior leader" by Chelsea varsity Bulldog basketball team Coach Robin Raymond, Bridges is a second-year varsity member positioned as both guard and forward. Adding further praise to the senior player, Raymond said "when he plays well we are hard to beat. It would be fair to say that he is our most valuable player." From the floor, Bridges averages 13.6 points a game and 10.1 rebounds. He is the Bulldogs' leading scorer and second in rebounds. Bridges has an optimistic outlook for the remaining season, predicting that the Bulldogs will place first or second in SEC action. One reason for this, according to Bridges is "the team's attitude. Unlike last year we feel good about how we play. Last year we never thought we'd be good," Bridges commented. Bridges views the game against Northwest as both the best for the team and for himself. "I don't like to talk about games as being good for one individual because that defeats the purpose of playing as a team," he commented. In the Northwest encounter, Chelsea picked itself up after two consecutive losses. "We had a good offensive showing of 60 percent from the floor," Bridges said. Bridges himself accounted for 23 points and 10 rebounds in that game. When not dunking baskets Bridges is an avid golfer who has been on the Chelsea varsity team for four years. He intends to take golf management courses at Ferris State College after graduation and eventually manage a golf shop. "I find golf an individual oriented sport which is what I like although basketball is a good sport for me too," he commented.

Beware of Thin Ice

Michigan residents were given a seasonal reminder today by State Police Director Col. Gerald L. Hough about the potential danger to persons who venture onto thin ice on outdoor water areas in early winter.

Hugh said Michigan water accidents statistics in the past have shown that non-boating accidents each year include some deaths caused by falls through ice.

Because winter ice sometimes may look stronger than it is, Hough advised outdoor enthusiasts that ice thickness should be tested for safety where any doubt exists and that provisions for rescue also should be at hand. Be wary of areas where moving water under ice may keep the ice surface dangerously thin, he added, pointing out that these unsafe spots generally would be on rivers or streams or over spring area of ponds.

In view of the school vacations as well as at other winter times,

Hough urged parents to be especially vigilant in warning children about outdoor ice dangers, suggesting supervision be provided in play areas as necessary.

To safely bear the weight of individuals or small groups of persons, outdoor ice on lakes, rivers, ponds, etc., should be from two to four inches thick. For heavier weights, such as snowmobiles, thickness should range from five inches and up for protection purposes.

Short-Staffed Matmen Lose to South Lyon

Chelsea varsity grapplers traveled to South Lyon last Thursday, Jan. 11, shy a few wrestlers, and took a 36-33 defeat.

Tony Wisniewski scored a 9-3 win at 105 lbs., and Jeff Osentoski scored a pin at 112 lbs.

Next to score was Bulldog Chuck Young who posted a 7-0 decision at 132 lbs. At 145 lbs., Bart Bauer scored a 5-3 win, while John Preston received a forfeit at 155 lbs. Alan Augustine and Tom Bareis finished up the scoring as they posted falls.

The majority of Chelsea wrestlers were victims of pins, according to Coach Richard Bareis.

On Jan. 13, Chelsea traveled to Mason for an invitational and placed fifth.

Al Augustine and John Whitaker scored championships and Tom Bareis finished second to lead the Chelsea place winners. Bart Bauer placed third and Chuck Young took fourth.

Showing improvement were Jim Cobb and Jeff Osentoski, Bareis commented.

Final team standings were Holt, 186½; Mason, 155; Lansing Everett, 108; Columbia Central, 101½; Chelsea, 71½; Hillsdale, 70½; Okemos, 40; Ovid-Elsie, 43.

Assault Case Goes Over to Circuit Court

Robert M. Phillips, 22, 521 Lane St., was bound over to circuit court in Ann Arbor following a preliminary examination before Judge Kenneth Bronson, 14th District Court, on Wednesday, Jan. 17.

Phillips is free on $10,000 bond as set by the now retired Judge Henry D. Arkison during an arraignment held on Tuesday, Dec. 28, three days after Phillips allegedly shot and critically wounded a neighbor, George Lovely, 23, 519 Lane St.

Originally charged with intent to commit murder, Phillips was bound over on charges of felonious assault, a lesser offense.

According to investigating officer Jack Orr of the Chelsea Police Department, Phillips was arrested on Dec. 23 after Orr found Lovely shot in the chest in response to a call about a shooting. Lovely was listed in critical condition for two days and then in good condition.

Orr said there had been a party that night at the Phillips home with five people, including Lovely, there. According to reports, Lovely had been shot in the Phillips home and then walked across to his own home where Orr found him.

The alleged weapon, a 22-caliber rifle, was found in the Phillips home.

The cause and the prevention of diabetes are still unknown. At present, it can only be treated, not cured. For this reason, the Juvenile Diabetes Foundation, a nationally accredited voluntary health agency, has as its primary objective the support and funding of research to find a cure for the complications and, ultimately, for the disease itself. (Among agencies reviewed by the National Information Bureau, the Foundation allocates the highest percentage of its total revenues to research.)

Bacon Test Results Not Yet Disclosed

The USDA has refused to disclose preliminary results of nationwide tests of bacon to determine whether consumers are getting higher levels of so-called cancer-causing substances than allowed by regulation. The Department informed industry, consumer and news media groups who filed suits under the Freedom of Information Act that it planned to withhold the test results.

The tests, conducted inside the eat packing plants, determine levels of nitrosamines in fried bacon. Nitrosamines are formed in a chemical reaction involving sodium nitrate when bacon is fried. Under food safety inspectors are empowered to stop distribution of bacon to the public if they find samples with nitrosamine levels greater than 10 parts per billion.

$1000 Average Minimum Balance = No Service Charge on Local Business Checking Accounts

Most banks use a complex mathematical formula to compute service charges on business checking accounts. At "The Bank of Trust" we keep it simple. Our Commercial Checking Plan is designed for the local small business. All you have to do is maintain an average balance of $1,000, and you'll never pay a service charge. It's that simple! There are no flat fees charged, no fees for deposits, items deposited or checks drawn. Should your monthly minimum average balance be less than $1,000, a charge of $5 will be assigned.

Compare our simple formula with the other banks and you'll see how less of your money can do more for you.

Stop by our Chelsea Banking Office today where you'll receive prompt, courteous service. We are open Monday through Thursday from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m., Friday 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. and Saturday from 9 a.m. to noon.

Good Things Growing In Michigan

For ski buffs and other winter sports enthusiasts, snow is one of the "good things growing in Michigan." Except for isolated regions along Lakes Erie and Ontario and in the New England states, Michigan has some of the largest annual snowfall totals east of the Rockies, according to Dr. Fred Nurnberger, meteorologist for the Michigan Department of Agriculture's weather service.

"Areas experiencing the greatest depths and longest durations of substantial snow cover are located along the shores of Lake Superior and Lake Michigan where lake snow squalls frequently develop," Dr. Nurnberger explained. Michigan's heaviest average snowfall occurs in the Keweenaw peninsula and western upper peninsula where abrupt rises in elevation of several hundred feet help to cause an average maximum annual snowfall of over 180 inches.

Most seasonal snowfall records had been held by the village of Herman, the latest being set in 1975-76 with 308.4 inches. However, Tahquamenon Falls, in the eastern U.P., broke that record in 1976-77 with 332.8 inches. Greatest amount of snowfall registered during one single storm was at Calumet, where 47.2 inches fell during Jan. 15-20, 1950. On Feb. 23, 1922, Ishpeming received a record of 28 inches of snow during a 24-hour period.

On Christmas day in 1958, Houghton was celebrating under four feet of snow, the highest known snow depth for that day, but Grand Marais holds the record with 74 inches measured Jan. 18, 1918. Calumet was a close second, however, with 73 inches on the ground Feb. 25-28, 1937.

Michigan's weather service does not forecast day-to-day weather, but compiles past weather data and performs statistical analyses for determining the probability of certain events occurring in the future.

"Collecting snowfall data is a challenge to even the heartiest of observers and a task made more difficult by high winds and drifting, which frequently accompany Michigan snowstorms," said Dr. Nurnberger.

The Chelsea Standard, Thursday, January 18, 1979 7

He explained that dry, fluffy snow may contain less than one-fifth the moisture of wet snow, which is what usually falls on lower Michigan.

"Eight inches of soggy snow can hold as much water as 40 inches of the fluffy stuff."

Southern Michigan also experiences warmer temperatures and alternate periods of freezing and thawing which tends to reduce snow accumulations.

"First snowfall of the season, on an average, arrives five weeks earlier in the western U.P. than it does in the southeast section of the lower peninsula," he added. "Temperatures are also affected by the Great Lakes. Most interior locations in Michigan have recorded temperatures of 40 degrees below zero, but seldom have there been readings of 20 degrees below zero in the immediate vicinity of the lakes."

Greek Islands To Be Visited via Travelogue

A personal odyssey through the sun-baked Greek islands awaits the filmgoer Saturday evening, Jan. 20 as the Chelsea Kiwanis Club presents the third of six travelogues in their 18th annual Travel and Adventure Series.

In Robin Williams' "Greek Island Odyssey," the traveler meets history and Grecian hospitality at each port of Athens, Corfu, Cos, Patmos, and Mykonos. The film starts at 8 p.m. in the high school auditorium.

The itinerary also includes visits to the Acropolis, the Parthenon, and Piraeus as well as Rhodes, Santorini, Crete and Knossos.

Robin Williams comes from a family well known for its worldwide adventures. Robin's grandfather, Eugene Williams, a professor of languages, science and mathematics at Stanford University, was lost on the Amazon River with a party of scientists in 1916.

Robin's father, David Williams, one of the most widely traveled men of his day, completed some 50-odd trips around the world. He was also the first American to film Central Asia and the remote bandit-ridden Afghanistan.

Williams, although born in London, England, was reared in California and attended public and private schools. During his college years, he became interested in acting and as a principal member of the Laguna Playhouse he was awarded many leading roles. He began his travels while a student at Valley Verde school in Sedona, Ariz., with a one-month trek into Old Mexico. After attending the University of Arizona, he began organizing tours to Europe, an opportunity afforded him by his father who operated a travel agency. He began his career with the chartering of a yacht in Poole, England and for two summers escorted students across the English Channel to tour the French Canal System and to sail to the many ports of the Mediterranean.

REALTOR

HOW LARGE A DEPOSIT

Rather frequently the question arises as to how large a deposit a buyer should put down or, to put it another way, how much deposit should the seller reasonably require.

The deposit should be sufficient to make sure the buyer will have good reason to see the transaction through and to reimburse the seller for taking the property off the market and other incidental expenses in case the buyer defaults. The length of time from signing the agreement to the date of transfer may have a bearing on the amount of deposit, i.e., an agreement calling for performance in 90 days, for example, should require a substantial deposit; a 30 day agreement might call for less. Even in the latter case, however, a 30 day agreement due to unforeseen circumstances may have to be extended and actually result in a 60 or 90 day agreement.

The term "deposit" as used above is to be distinguished from "earnest money" which is a relatively small payment intended to bind a sale until a formal agreement can be written.

If there is anything we can do to help you in the field of real estate, please phone or drop in at FRISINGER REALTY CO., 935 S. Main St., Chelsea. Phone: 475-8683; evenings 475-2621. We're here to help!

VFW Post Plans Wild Game Supper

Chelsea VFW Post 4076 will hold its third annual wild game supper on Saturday, Jan. 20 at 6:30 p.m. in the hall.

While the famed "big shooters" failed to bag their deer this year, they have tucked away a reserve just in case. Presently they have deer, moose, and rabbits promised.

Cooks and committee members are Laurance and Fremont Boyer, Kermit Sharp, Gary Erskine, and Byron Smith. Members who have wild game to donate should bring it to the hall before Saturday's banquet.

The Ladies Auxiliary will furnish dishes to pass, and the table service for family and friends.

First-place winner of the Voice of Democracy contest, Kelly Staberton, sponsored by the VFW, will be present with her family along with her teacher, William Coelius and his family. She will recite the winning story.

There will also be a program including the volunteer service at the VA Hospital, Ann Arbor.

Volleyballers 2nd in Stockbridge Tourney

Chelsea varsity spikers traveled to Stockbridge on Saturday, Jan. 13 and brought home the second-place trophy.

Other teams participating in the invitational tournament were Webberville and Bellevue.

The first match of the tournament pitted Stockbridge against Bellevue, which the Panthers won easily.

Chelsea's first match was with a tough Webberville squad. Webberville took the first game of the match, 15-9, which saw three different servers account for 13 points. However, Chelsea came back behind the strong serving of co-captain Cristi Thomsen with 8 points to build up a 12-4 lead. The Bulldogs hung on to win, 15-13.

The third and deciding game was close until the final seconds when Bulldog Marie Klink tallied four consecutive points and served out to win the game, 15-11. The win kept Chelsea undefeated and in the winner's bracket with Stockbridge.

The next match was between once defeated Webberville and Bellevue. The loser to be eliminated and settle for fourth place.

Webberville jumped to an early lead and coasted to victory in the first game. Bellevue took an early 7-1 lead in the second game. Webberville could not hold it, and eventually took defeat.

Undefeated Chelsea and Stockbridge faced off, but the Bulldogs could not set up the offense. Stockbridge took advantage of the breaks to post a first game victory, 15-11. The second game showed a hustling Chelsea offense and defense, which ended with a hard-fought 16-14 victory. They were aided by the serving of Cristi Thomsen and Krystyn Steinhauer with 12 points. Without the strong serving of the game before, the Bulldogs fell in the third, 9-15. The loss dropped Chelsea to the loser's bracket joining Webberville, while Stockbridge remained on top, still untouched.

To have another shot at Stockbridge, Chelsea had to defeat Webberville again, its opponent earlier in the tournament. The Bulldogs did so in grand fashion, taking the match in two games. Behind the accurate serving of Michelle Sarbach, with seven points, Chelsea coasted to an easy 15-5 win.

The second game saw another serving star in Kelly Hense with nine points as the Bulldogs went on to win, 15-10.

Chelsea had the uphill task of defeating Stockbridge twice: This was to be Chelsea's third consecutive match.

The first game was hard-fought, but the Bulldogs came up on the short end, 11-15. The second, and final game, saw the Panthers rip the tired Bulldogs, 15-2. The victory allowed Stockbridge to take first place, undefeated. Chelsea took second, Webberville, third, Bellevue fourth.

"I was pleased with the girl's performance. A year ago we would not have made a very good showing of ourselves. This tournament is a testament on how far we have come in a year, and how much further we can go," Coach Walt Keppler commented.

Good offensive and defensive plays by everyone, accounted for the success.

"It was a total team effort and all should be given credit including Alison Hovater, Cristi Thomsen, Molly Bacon, Cindy Gerstler, Kelly Hense, Marie Klink, Michelle Sarbach, and Krystyn Steinhauer," he remarked.

L. Leach Heads Farm Bureau Membership Drive

Laverne Leach of 16500 English Rd., Manchester, has been named chairman of the Washtenaw County Farm Bureau's 1979 membership campaign. The announcement was made by Luther Schaible, president of the Washtenaw County Farm Bureau.

Under the leadership of Laverne Leach, volunteer farm leaders in the county will aim at a goal of 2,010 member families, Washtenaw county's portion of the total Michigan Farm Bureau state goal of 63,094 family memberships. The largest general farm organization in the county, state and nation, Farm Bureau serves as spokesman for more than two million farm and ranch families in the United States and Puerto Rico. President Schaible explained that every Washtenaw County Farm Bureau member has the opportunity to voice his opinion on local, state, national and international issues through the organization's policy development program.

"Agriculture will be faced with many challenges in the year ahead, Luke Schaible said, "and the stand our organization will take on these issues is determined by the members themselves. By joining together, we can get things accomplished which we could not do alone."

Luke Schaible pointed to such issues as farm prices, farm labor problems, energy and land use as some of the challenges to be tackled by farmers through their organization.

CHELSEA, MICHIGAN, THURSDAY, JANUARY 18, 1979

Ownership Transfer Ok'd for Area Convalescent Home

Whitmore Lake Convalescent Center, Inc., Whitmore Lake received approval from the State Health Director Dec. 21 to transfer ownership of the property and to lease the land and building.

The seller is G & S Investments. The buyers are Allen Hirschfield and Milton Cohen, who formed a partnership for this purchase.

Leasing cost will be $273,600 per year for 15 years for a total of $4,104,000.

Transfer of ownership will not change services, staffing, or number of beds in the 212-bed long term facility.

The State Health Director's decision coincided with that of the Council of Southeastern Michigan and state administrators of the federal Hill-Burton program.

Cards of Thanks
THANK YOU
To all our friends and neighbors in Chelsea who opened their hearts to us during the recent loss of our home, we wish to extend our utmost gratitude. We would especially like to thank the Chelsea Fire Dept. for their promptness, the Chelsea Baptist church for their concern in providing us with housing and especially to Father Dupuis and St. Mary's Parish for their prayers and generosity. The people of this fine community have shown us the true meaning of caring.
The Jacobinski Family.

THANK YOU
The Jaycees wish to thank the people of the community and the local businesses for their support in the recent fund-raising drive for the Burns Institute. $245 was collected in the canisters and $67 through the sale of coloring books for a grand total of $312.
The Chelsea Jaycees.

THANK YOU
I would like to thank all of you for your prayers, cards, and gifts given during my mother's recent heart attack. A special thanks to Father Dupuis for his kindness. Although she is still hospitalized, mother is doing well.

Census of Agriculture Beginning This Week

The 1978 Census of Agriculture gets under way this week with the mailing of report forms to all farms and ranches in the 50 states, the Bureau of the Census, U. S. Department of Commerce, announced today.

Farmers and ranchers are being asked to report on their agricultural operations during 1978. This 1978 census, the Nation's 21st farm census in a series that started in 1940, will update most recently obtained in 1975 for 1974 operations. Information will be sought on all agricultural operations.

With report forms for the 1978 census drastically reduced from the 22 pages of the last census, most agricultural operators will receive a four-page form in the mail, and about 20 percent will receive a five-page version. The over-all time required by farmers to complete the form has been reduced by more than one-third.

The census will continue to monitor trends in domestic ownership and control of land. The last census showed a five-year gain in the number of U. S. corporate farms from 22,000 to 29,000; the amount of acreage they farmed rose from 80 to 97 million acres, and the value of their farm products rose from $6 billion to $14 billion.

The census asks whether the farm is operated by a family or individual, a partnership, a family-help corporation, an investor-owned corporation with more than 10 stockholders, or some other legal entity such as co-operative, estate or trust, grazing association, etc. The apparent increase in foreign ownership of land has raised questions in the Congress and with business and agricultural groups. In 1974 a Department of Commerce survey showed about 5 million acres of the nation's one billion acres of farm land were owned by foreign interests, or less than one-half of one percent of the total. The new farm census will measure the increase.

Employee Wage, Tax Statements Due By Jan. 31

Employers must provide their employees with completed Wage and Tax Statements for 1978 by Wednesday, Jan. 31, the Internal Revenue Service said.

If a Wage and Tax Statement is not received by Jan. 31, an employee should contact his or her employer first, according to the IRS. After Feb. 15, the employee should contact a local IRS office.

By not issuing Wage and Tax Statements on time, employers may be penalizing employees who will have to wait until February or later to file their tax returns, possibly missing out on the quick refunds available to early filers.

Employees who do not receive their Wage and Tax Statement must still file by the tax deadline. These individuals should report all of their income and attach a statement explaining tax computations for the missing wage and tax statement information, the IRS said. These individuals may also use Form 4852, "Employee's Substitute Wage and Tax Statement," which may be obtained free from most IRS offices.

Additional information on the proper distribution and handling of Wage and Tax Statements are available in the IRS Publication 15, "Circular E - Employer's Tax Guide," obtained free from local IRS offices.

Master Gardener

Is Being Organized

Washtenaw Co-operative Extension Service is again holding their Master Gardeners gardening class. The Extension Service is now recruiting people with an interest in both indoor and outdoor home gardening. They are seeking not only experienced but also beginning gardeners.

Washtenaw Co-operative Extension Service will be training master gardeners for the second time this winter. The 10-week training program will begin Feb. 7, from 1 to 4 p.m. Classes will meet at the Extension office, 4133 Washtenaw, Ann Arbor, in the County Service Center. Speakers are Michigan County Extension Agents. A graduation dinner will be held. The program costs $20, with senior citizens (60 and over) paying only $18.

To become certified, master gardener students must score 75 percent on the final test, as well as fulfilling a volunteer commitment. This volunteer commitment may be fulfilled either by accumulating 20 hours of volunteer time, or by working on a specific project. At least four hours must be spent helping out in the Extension office. Other opportunities for volunteer work will range from horticultural therapy, designing and executing a county exhibit garden, or neighborhood consulting.

For enrollment forms, or more information, contact the Washtenaw Co-operative Extension Office at 973-9510.

Trying To Cut Energy Costs?

Plants can be tremendous allies in the war against high energy bills. In Landscaping Your Home: A Functional Approach, a series of four garden-by-mail lessons you can learn how to put your plants to work for you. Each issue will teach you how to alter or control one facet of the environment. Lessons cover wind, noise, sun, and erosion. Issues will come out every two weeks starting in late February.

All four lessons are available for only $2.50. Send your checks or money orders made out to Washtenaw County Co-operative Extension Service (no cash please). Address is: Landscaping Co-operative Extension Service, P.O. Box 8645, Ann Arbor 48107.

President Carter's anti-inflation program exempts from the pay standards workers earning less than $4 an hour, as well as wage contracts already signed.

Frosh Cagers Dominate Dexter, 62-34

Chelsea freshmen cagers dominated a weak Dexter team Thursday, Jan. 4 to win, 62-34, and smooth their season record to 3-3.

"The game marked our strongest offensive effort this year and proved that we are capable of good, balanced scoring," Coach Jim Tallman commented on the victory.

Two Chelsea Bulldogs scored in double digits with Mike Barels leading with 16, followed by Toby Boyd with 12. Other scorers were Darrow Keezer with eight; Geoff Shaw, Todd Sprague, and John Welton with six each; and Doug Hensen with five.

Chelsea jumped to a 10-5 lead in the first quarter and maintained the upper hand through all four quarters. Dexter Dreadnaughts closed the gap once during the second quarter, earning 13 points to the Bulldogs' 16, but dropped back after half-time to score only 16 tallies to Chelsea's 36.

Leading Bulldog rebounders were Darrow Keezer with nine; Todd Sprague, six; Mike Barels, five; Geoff Shaw, five; Toby Boyd, five; and John Welton, four.

Todd Sprague came into the ball game in the third quarter which sparked the Bulldogs' defensive effort and accounted for the pull away. Strong shooting by Barels and Boyd were the keys to the win, Tallman said.

"If we can now become consistent in our scoring and team defense we should continue to show ed."

HEARTBURN.

• a Common Ailment

Heartburn is one of the most common of all ailments. Nearly everyone has experienced it at one time or another; its description as a glowing fire beneath the sternum (breastbone) is familiar.

Perhaps this has occurred after eating a large or spicy meal and accentuated by lying down or by bending over.

A Bit of Anatomy

The story of heartburn focuses on the esophagus (foodpipe) just above the point where it leaves the chest by passing through the diaphragm to join the stomach.

The LES (lower esophageal sphincter) is that area of "muscular squeezing" by the wall of the lower esophagus that determines whether or not irritating stomach juices will back up into the esophagus.

When the LES is too weak, backflow will occur. Irritation of the lower esophagus by acidic stomach juices is termed reflux (meaning a "backward flow") esophagitis (meaning inflammation of the esophagus).

In brief, heartburn is best understood as the symptom perceived when reflux of stomach juices occurs excessively, as a consequence of a weak LES.

Take Medicine Only For What Ails You,

When you have a headache, should you take a preparation that will not only ease headache pain but relieve an upset stomach and calm your nerves?

Not unless all of these symptoms are present simultaneously,

APhA, the national professional society of pharmacists, recommends that you take medicines, including non-prescription medicines, only when you need them, and only for the specific ailment present.

Never leave medicines where children can see or reach them.

If a child can see a box or a bottle, he'll often figure out a way to reach it. A safe, useful "medicine for you can be a poison to a child; keep all medicines hidden and out of reach—in a locked cabinet.

CONTROLLING HIGH BLOOD PRESSURE (HYPERTENSION)

High blood pressure has been associated with an increased incidence of heart attack. When high blood pressure is not treated, it becomes a major health problem, and the result may be damage to the heart, kidneys, and other organs. Studies show that high blood pressure increases the risk of having a heart attack, a stroke or kidney failure. When high blood pressure is combined with other conditions such as obesity, cigarette smoking, high blood cholesterol levels, or diabetes, the risk of heart attack or stroke is multiplied several times.

Blood pressure is simply the pressure put on the walls of the arteries as the heart pumps blood through them. In all human beings, it varies from minute to minute, going up when we are excited, and going down when we rest. However, in some people blood pressure goes up too high and stays that way.

Nasal sprays: When patients ask about the correct use of nasal sprays, there is a method that increases the drug's effectiveness. According to Emergency Medicine, patients should spray both nostrils and then wait a minimum of five minutes before spraying again. The first spraying clears the membranes in the front of the nose, and the second reaches the nasopharynx, where the sinuses and ears drain.

If your husband had a Heart Attack in bed tonight, would you know what to do?

It may go on for a little while before you notice. He may say it's indigestion. Or nerves. He may have a feeling of uncomfortable pressure, fullness, squeezing or pain in the center of his chest (that may spread to the shoulders, neck or arms) and last for two minutes or more.

Dizziness, fainting, sweating, nausea or shortness of breath may also occur, but these signals are not always present. Sharp, stabbing twinges of pain are usually not signals of a heart attack.

Call your emergency medical service immediately. Or, if you can get him to a hospital with emergency cardiac care faster in any other way, do so.

He may refuse to accept the possibility that he is having a heart attack. Many heart attack victims do just that. Don't let him make you wait. Because seconds count. Get help and get it fast.

Remember, if it isn't a heart attack, it doesn't matter. If it is, nothing matters more.

The label on home medicines contains information of the utmost importance. It is a vital message from the manufacturer to the consumer, a message which identifies the medicine by name, lists the active ingredients, and states the conditions or symptoms for which it should be used and NOT used.

Always follow label instructions carefully. Do not exceed the recommended dose. If you should have any question concerning the product which the label does not answer, consult your physician, dentist or pharmacist.

Warning: Never take or give medicines in the dark. Know exactly what you are doing in order to prevent an accident. Read the label before using. Read it again when restoring the medicine to its proper place in the medicine chest, where it belongs immediately after use. And, most important, keep all medicines out of the reach of children. In case of accidental overdose, contact a physician immediately.

Reminder: Read and follow the label. Keep yourself within reach of your children and make your home a healthier and happier place in which to live!

The Season For The Common Cold

Question: What malady is likely this winter to leave millions of Americans "deaf in the ears, hoarse in the throat, red in the nose, green in the gills, damp in the eyes, twitchy in the joint and fractious in the temper?"

Answer: The common cold.

If someone were looking for a description of the misery brought to millions of people each winter by the common cold, that person would be hard pressed to find one more lucid than that made by Charles Dickens over 100 years ago.

Perhaps no other illness has been the object of more serious medical investigations, speculations, and superstitions than the common cold. It also remains one of man's most puzzling maladies. No doubt, many people in the clutches of a bed-confining cold have offered the same lament that Dr. James D. Watson voiced in 1962, when, in accepting the Nobel Prize with two British scientists for discovering the molecular structure of DNA, noted, "It is an important thing we have accomplished, but we have not done away with the common cold—which I now have."

Although Dr. Watson may have made his remark in jest, the common cold is no laughing matter. For many people, the fall and winter months are nothing more than one big runny nose and cough. common cold will force more people to visit their doctors than any other illness. They will use more than 100 different cold and cough remedies at a cost of over $750 million.

According to the U.S. Public Health Service, at least every third American will acquire a cold during the coming months. While most adults will have only two or three colds a year, those with young children may suffer six or more, and some children may end up suffering a dozen.

Although the common cold has been around since recorded time, it has only been within the last 20 years that researchers have been able to learn about its origin, mode of transmission, prevention and treatment.

The common cold is a "grab bag name" given to a variety of viral infections in the upper respiratory system, according to Dr. Bruce Ribner, assistant professor of medicine and microbiology at the Medical College of Ohio. More than 100 viruses are known to cause colds, with the most common being the rhinoviruses, influenza and parainfluenza viruses, adenoviruses, corona, and respiratory syncytial viruses.

The infectious agents most clearly associated with the common cold are rhinoviruses, which are nothing more than small amounts of protein and nucleic acid bound together.

Male smoker linked to infant deaths

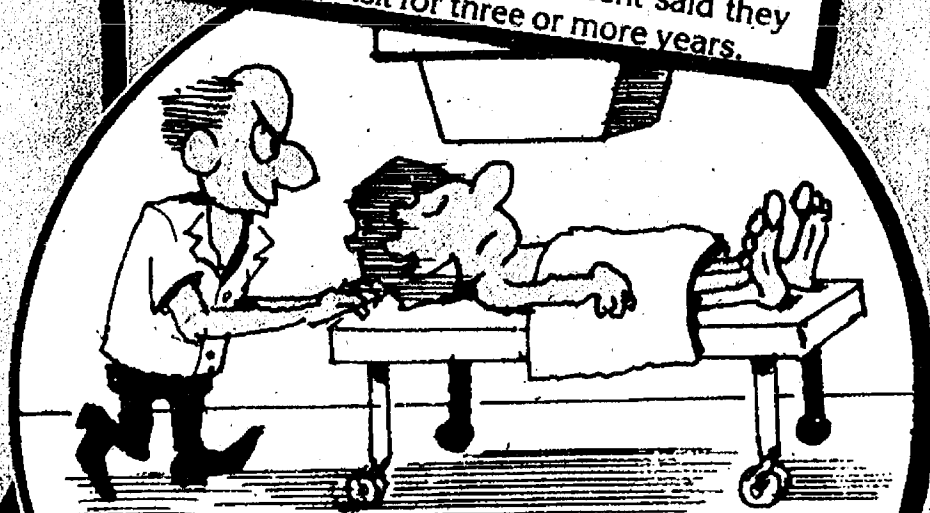

Men as well as women who smoke may be endangering their unborn children, experts attending a conference on the control of smoking in Geneva, Switzerland said recently. Prof. Helmut Greim, a toxicology researcher in Munich, West Germany, said there is an increase in prenatal mortality where fathers smoke and that it is essential for parents to realize that not only smoking mothers should be careful.

Fire deaths told

The National Fire Protection Association estimates that approximately 9,950 civilians died in 1977 as a result of fires in the United States. About 7,800 or 78 percent of the deaths, occurred in residential dwellings, including houses, apartments, hotels, motels and mobile homes. In addition, NFPA said a total of 134 firefighters died in the line of duty.

Dental checks important, but few visit

A majority of Americans think it is important to see a dentist every six months, but considerably fewer actually have a checkup that often. In a recent American Dental Association survey of the general public, 56 percent of those surveyed said it was important to have a semi-annual checkup, but only 31 percent had visited a dentist in the previous six months. Another 23 percent had visited a dentist within the past year. Twenty-two percent said they had not had a dental visit for three or more years.
